18802.9. (a) The head of every state agency (as defined by Section 11000 of the Government Code) entering into any contract shall make a return (at the time and in the form the Franchise Tax Board may by regulation prescribe) setting forth all of the following:

(1) The name, address, type of business entity, and taxpayer identification number of each person with which that agency entered into a contract during the calendar year.

(2) Any other information the Franchise Tax Board may require.

(b) As required by the Franchise Tax Board, this section also shall apply to any of the following:

(1) Licenses granted by state agencies.

(2) Subcontracts under contracts to which subdivision (a) applies.

(c) This section shall not apply to contracts or licenses in any class which are below a minimum amount or value which may be determined by the Franchise Tax Board for that class.

SEC. 2. Section 18805 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18805. (a) The Franchise Tax Board may, by regulation require any person, in whatever capacity acting (including lessees or mortgagors of real or personal property, fiduciaries, employers, and any officer or department of the state or any political subdivision or agency of the state, or any city organized under a freeholder's charter, or any political body not a subdivision or agency of the state) having the control, receipt, custody, disposal, or payment of items of income specified in subdivision (b), to withhold an amount, determined by the Franchise Tax Board to reasonably represent the amount of tax due when such items of income are included with other income of the taxpayer, and to transmit the amount withheld to the Franchise Tax Board at such time as it may designate.

(b) The items of income referred to in subdivision (a) are interest, dividends, rent, prizes and winnings, premiums, annuities, emoluments, compensation for services, partnership income or gains, and other fixed or determinable annual or periodical gains, profits and income.

(c) The Franchise Tax Board may authorize the tax under subdivision (a) to be deducted and withheld from the interest upon any securities the owners of which are not known to the withholding agent.

(d) (1) In the case of any disposition of a California real property interest by a person (but not a partnership as determined in accordance with Subchapter K of Chapter 1 of Subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code), when the return required to be filed with the Secretary of the Treasury under Section 6045(e) of the Internal Revenue Code indicates, or the authorization for the disbursement of the transaction's funds instructs, that the funds be disbursed either to a transferor with a last known street address outside the boundaries of this state at the time of the transfer of the title to the California real property or to the financial intermediary of the transferor, the transferee shall be required to withhold an amount equal to 3⅓ percent of the sales price of the California real property conveyed.

(A) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subdivision, all of the following shall apply:

(i) No transferee shall be required to withhold any amount under this subdivision if the sales price of the California real property conveyed does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).

(ii) No transferee shall be required to withhold any amount under this subdivision unless written notification of the withholding requirements of this subdivision is provided by the real estate escrow person.

(iii) No transferee shall be required to withhold any amount under this subdivision, if the transferee, in good faith and based on all the information of which he or she has knowledge, relies on a written certificate executed by the transferor, certifying under penalty of perjury, either of the following:

(I) That the transferor is a resident of California.

(II) That the California real property being conveyed is the principal residence of the transferor, within the meaning of Section 1034 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) (A) At the request of the transferor, the Franchise Tax Board may authorize that a reduced amount or no amount be withheld under this subdivision if the Franchise Tax Board determines that to substitute a reduced amount or no amount shall not jeopardize the collection of tax imposed by this part. If the transferor provides documentation sufficient for the Franchise Tax Board to determine the actual gain required to be recognized on the transaction, the Franchise Tax Board may authorize a reduced amount based on the amount of the gain, as determined which will result in a sum which is substantially equivalent to the amount of tax reasonably estimated to be due under this part from the inclusion of the gain in the gross income of the transferor.

(B) Within 45 days after receiving a request that a reduced amount or no amount be withheld, the Franchise Tax Board shall either authorize a reduced amount or no amount, or deny the request.

(C) In the case where the parties to the transaction are requesting that a reduced amount or no amount be withheld and the response by the Franchise Tax Board to the request has not been received at the time title to the California real property is transferred, the parties may direct the real estate escrow person to hold in trust for 45 days the amount required to be withheld under this subdivision. The parties shall instruct the real estate escrow person that at the end of 45 days the real estate escrow person shall remit the amount withheld to the Franchise Tax Board in accordance with this section, unless the Franchise Tax Board has authorized that a reduced amount or no amount be withheld.

(3) Amounts withheld and payments made in accordance with this subdivision shall be reported and remitted to the Franchise Tax Board in the form and at the time as the Franchise Tax Board shall determine.

(4) "California real property interest" means an interest in real property located in California and defined in Section 897(c)(1)(A)(i) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(5) For purposes of this subdivision, "financial intermediary" means an agent for the purpose of receiving and transferring funds to a principal.

(6) For purposes of this subdivision, "real estate escrow person" means any of the following persons involved in a real estate transaction:

(A) The person (including any attorney, escrow company, or title company) responsible for closing the transaction.

(B) If no other person described in subparagraph (A) is responsible for closing the transaction, then any other person who receives and disburses the consideration or value for the interest or property conveyed.

(7) (A) Unless the real estate escrow person provides "assistance," it shall be unlawful for any real estate escrow person to charge any customer for complying with the requirements of this subdivision.

(B) For purposes of this paragraph, "assistance" includes, but is not limited to, helping the parties clarify with the Franchise Tax Board the issue of whether withholding is required under this subdivision, helping the parties request that the Franchise Tax Board authorize a reduced amount or no amount be withheld under this subdivision, or, upon request of the parties, withholding an amount under this subdivision and remitting the amount to the Franchise Tax Board.

(C) For purposes of this paragraph, "assistance" does not include providing the written notification of the withholding requirements of this subdivision, or, providing the certification that the transferor is a resident of California or that the California real property being conveyed is the transferor's principal residence.

(D) In a case where the real estate escrow person provides "assistance" in complying with the withholding requirements of this subdivision, it shall be unlawful for the real estate escrow person to charge any customer a fee that exceeds forty-five dollars ($45).

(8) For purposes of this subdivision, "sales price" means the sum of all of the following:

(A) The cash paid, or to be paid. The term "cash paid, or to be paid" does not include stated or unstated interest or original issue discount (as determined by Sections 1271 to 1275, inclusive, of the Internal Revenue Code).

(B) The fair market value of other property transferred, or to be transferred.

(C) The outstanding amount of any liability assumed by the transferee or to which the California real property interest is subject immediately before and after the transfer.

(e) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1991.

SEC. 3. Section 18806.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18806.1. (a) The Franchise Tax Board shall implement a pilot project of withholding on payments to independent contractors doing business with state agencies. The purpose of the pilot project is to withhold income taxes on payments to independent contractors in a manner similar to current withholding on wages.

(b) The Franchise Tax Board may require the Controller or any officer or department of the state or any agency of the state to withhold an amount, as prescribed in subdivision (c), on all payments made pursuant to a contract between the state and any person other than a corporation, for which the primary purpose is the providing of personal services to the state and for which the total price of the contract exceeds six hundred dollars ($600). For purposes of this section, "personal services" does not include services rendered as part of a construction contract. The amount withheld shall be transmitted to the Franchise Tax Board at such time and in such a manner as the Franchise Tax Board may require.

(c) The amount to be withheld shall be 1 percent of each payment under the contract. That percentage is deemed to take into account the trade or business expenses allowable under this part. In lieu of this, the contractor may elect that the amount to be withheld be 3 percent of each payment under the contract less a reasonable allowance for trade or business expenses allowable under this part. The contractor shall demonstrate the reasonableness of the allowance for trade or business expenses to the Franchise Tax Board in such a manner as the Franchise Tax Board may require.

(d) The Franchise Tax Board shall report to the Legislature on or before January 31, 1991, on all of the following:

(1) The effect of this project on compliance and enforcement activities in this state.

(2) Whether the amounts withheld are substantially equivalent to the amounts due under this part resulting from contract payments.

(3) The administrative feasibility of withholding on payments to independent contractors in a manner similar to withholding on wages.

(e) The Franchise Tax Board shall develop and publish forms and procedures for reporting and remitting payments made and taxes withheld under this section.

(f) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 18815 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18815. (a) Every person required to deduct and withhold any tax is hereby made liable for such tax, to the extent provided by this section and, insofar as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this article, all the provisions of this part relating to penalties, interest, assessment, and collections shall apply to persons subject to the provisions of this part, and for these purposes any amount required to be deducted and paid to the Franchise Tax Board under Section 18805 or 18807 shall be considered the tax of the person. Any person who fails to withhold from any payments any amount required to be withheld under Section 18805 or 18807 is liable for the amount withheld or the amount of taxes due from the taxpayer to whom the payments are made but not in excess of the amount required to be withheld, whichever is more, unless it is shown that the failure to withhold is due to reasonable cause.

(b) If any amount required to be withheld under Section 18805 or 18807 is not paid to the Franchise Tax Board on or before the due date required by regulations, interest shall be assessed at the adjusted annual rate established pursuant to Section 19269, computed from the due date to the date paid.

(c) Whenever any person has withheld any amount pursuant to this article, the amount so withheld shall be held in trust for the State of California.

(d) In lieu of the amount provided for in subdivision (a), unless it is shown that the failure to withhold is due to reasonable cause, whenever any transferee is required to withhold any amount pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 18805, the transferee is liable for the greater of the following amounts for failure to withhold only after the transferee, as specified, is notified in writing of the requirements under subdivision (d) of Section 18805:

(1) Five hundred dollars ($500).

(2) Ten percent of the amount required to be withheld under subdivision (d) of Section 18805.

(e) (1) Unless it is shown that the failure to notify is due to reasonable cause, the real estate escrow person shall be liable for the amount specified in subdivision (d), when written notification of the withholding requirements of subdivision (d) of Section 18805 is not provided to the transferee and the California real property disposition is subject to withholding under subdivision (d) of Section 18805.

(2) The real estate escrow person shall provide written notification to the transferee in substantially the same form as

"In accordance with Sections 18805 and 26131 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, a buyer may be required to withhold an amount equal to 3⅓ percent of the sales price in the case of a disposition of California real property interest by either:

1. A seller who is an individual with a last known street address outside of California or when the disbursement instructions authorize the proceeds be sent to a financial intermediary of the seller, OR

2. A corporate seller which has no permanent place of business in California.

The buyer may become subject to penalty for failure to withhold an amount equal to the lesser of 25 percent of the amount required to be withheld or five hundred dollars ($500).

However, notwithstanding any other provision included in the California statutes referenced above, no buyer will be required to withhold any amount or be subject to penalty for failure to withhold if:

1. The sales price of the California real property conveyed does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), OR

2. The seller executes a written certificate, under the penalty of perjury, certifying that the seller is a resident of California, or if a corporation, has a permanent place of business in California, OR

3. The seller, who is an individual, executes a written certificate, under the penalty of perjury, that the California real property being conveyed is the seller's principal residence (as defined in Section 1034 of the Internal Revenue Code).

The seller is subject to penalty for knowingly filing a fraudulent certificate for the purpose of avoiding the withholding requirement.

The California statutes referenced above include provisions which authorize the Franchise Tax Board to grant reduced withholding and waivers from withholding on a case-by-case basis."

(3) The real estate escrow person shall not be liable under this subdivision, if the tax due as a result of the disposition of California real property is paid by the original or extended due date of the transferor's return for the taxable or income year in which the disposition occurred.

(4) The real estate escrow person and the transferee shall not be liable under subdivisions (c) and (d), if the failure to withhold is the result of the real estate escrow person's reliance, based on good faith and on all the information of which he or she has knowledge, upon a written certificate executed by the transferor under penalty of perjury that the transferor is a resident of California.

(5) The real estate escrow person and the transferee shall not be liable under subdivisions (d) and (e), if the failure to withhold is the result of the real estate escrow person's reliance, based on good faith and on all the information of which he or she has knowledge, upon a written certificate executed by the transferor under penalty of perjury that the California real property being conveyed is the personal residence of the transferor, within the meaning of Section 1034 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(6) Any transferor who for the purpose of avoiding the withholding requirements of subdivision (d) of Section 18805 knowingly executes a false certificate pursuant to this subdivision shall be liable for twice the amount specified in subdivision (c).

(7) Unless the failure to notify is due to willful disregard of the withholding requirements of subdivision (d) of Section 18805, the real estate escrow person shall not be liable under this subdivision if the disposition of California real property occurs prior to July 1, 1991.

(f) The amount of tax required to be deducted and withheld under Section 18805 or 18807 shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner and subject to the same provisions and limitations (including penalties) as are applicable with respect to the taxes imposed by this part.

(g) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1991.

SEC. 5. Section 26131 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

26131. (a) The Franchise Tax Board may, by regulation, require any bank, corporation or person, in whatever capacity acting (including lessees or mortgagors of real or personal property, fiduciaries, employers, and any officer or department of the state or any political subdivision or agency of the state, or any city organized under a freeholder's charter, or any political body not a subdivision or agency of the state) having the control, receipt, custody, disposal, or payment of items of income specified in subdivision (b), to withhold an amount, determined by the Franchise Tax Board to reasonably represent the amount of tax due, when such items of income are included with other income of the taxpayer, and to transmit the amount withheld to the Franchise Tax Board at such time as it may designate.

(b) The items of income referred to in subdivision (a) are interest, dividends, rent, prizes and winnings, premiums, annuities, emoluments, partnership income and gains, compensation for services, including bonuses, and other fixed or determinable annual or periodical gains, profits and income.

(c) The Franchise Tax Board may authorize the tax under subdivision (a) to be deducted and withheld from the interest upon any securities the owners of which are not known to the withholding agent.

(d) Any bank or person failing to withhold from any payments any amounts required by subdivision (a) to be withheld is liable for the amount withheld or the amount of taxes due from the person to whom the payments are made to an extent not in excess of the amounts required to be withheld, whichever is greater, unless it is shown that the failure is due to reasonable cause.

(e) (1) In the case of any disposition of a California real property interest by a corporation, the transferee shall be required to withhold an amount equal to 3⅓ percent of the sales price of the California real property conveyed, if the corporation immediately after the transfer of the title to the California real property has no permanent place of business in California. For purposes of this subdivision, a corporation has no permanent place of business in California if all of the following apply:

(A) It is not organized and existing under the laws of California.

(B) It does not qualify with the office of the Secretary of State to transact business in California.

(C) It does not maintain and staff a permanent office in California.

(2) (A) No transferee shall be required to withhold any amount under this subdivision if the sales price of the California real property conveyed does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).

(B) No transferee shall be required to withhold any amount under this subdivision unless written notification of the withholding requirements of this subdivision is provided.

(C) No transferee shall be required to withhold under this subdivision when the transferor is a bank acting as trustee other than a trustee of a deed of trust.

(D) No transferee shall be required to withhold under this subdivision when the transferee is a bank or corporate beneficiary under a mortgage or beneficiary under a deed of trust and the California real property is acquired in judicial or nonjudicial foreclosure or by deed in lieu of foreclosure.

(E) No transferee shall be required to withhold any amount under this subdivision, if the transferee, in good faith and based on all the information of which he or she has knowledge, relies on a written certificate executed by the transferor certifying under penalty of perjury, that the corporation has a permanent place of business in California.

(3) (A) At the request of the transferor, the Franchise Tax Board may authorize that a reduced amount or no amount be withheld under this subdivision if the Franchise Tax Board determines that to substitute a reduced amount or no amount shall not jeopardize the collection of tax imposed by this part. If the transferor provides documentation sufficient for the Franchise Tax Board to determine the actual gain required to be recognized on the transaction, the Franchise Tax Board may authorize a reduced amount based on the amount of the gain, as determined, that shall result in a sum that is substantially equivalent to the amount of tax reasonably estimated to be due under this part from the inclusion of the gain in the gross income of the transferor.

(B) Within 45 days after receiving a request that a reduced amount or no amount be withheld, the Franchise Tax Board shall either authorize a reduced amount or no amount, or deny the request.

(C) In the case where the parties to the transaction have not requested that a reduced amount or no amount be withheld or the response by the Franchise Tax Board to the request has not been received at the time title to the California real property is transferred, the parties may direct the real estate escrow person to hold in trust for 45 days the amount required to be withheld under this subdivision. The parties shall instruct the real estate escrow person that at the end of 45 days the real estate escrow person shall remit the amount withheld to the Franchise Tax Board in accordance with this subdivision, unless the Franchise Tax Board has authorized that a reduced amount or no amount be withheld.

(4) Amounts withheld and payments made in accordance with this subdivision shall be reported and remitted to the Franchise Tax Board in the form and at the time as the Franchise Tax Board shall determine.

(5) "California real property interest" means an interest in real property located in California and defined in Section 897(c)(1)(A)(i) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(6) For purposes of this subdivision, "real estate escrow person" means any of the following persons involved in the real estate transaction:

(A) The person (including any attorney, escrow company, or title company) responsible for closing the transaction.

(B) If no other person described in subparagraph (A) is responsible for closing the transaction, then any other person who receives and disburses the consideration or value for the interest or property conveyed.

(7) (A) Unless the real estate escrow person provides "assistance," it shall be unlawful for any real estate escrow person to charge any customer for complying with the requirements of this subdivision.

(B) For purposes of this paragraph, "assistance" includes, but is not limited to, helping the parties clarify with the Franchise Tax Board the issue of whether withholding is required under this subdivision, helping the parties request that the Franchise Tax Board authorize a reduced amount or no amount be withheld under this subdivision, or, upon request of the parties, withholding an amount under this subdivision and remitting the amount to the Franchise Tax Board.

(C) For purposes of this paragraph, "assistance" does not include providing the written notification of the withholding requirements of this subdivision, or, providing the certification that the transferor has a permanent place of business in California.

(D) In a case where the real estate escrow person provides "assistance" in complying with the withholding requirements of this subdivision, it shall be unlawful for the real estate escrow person to charge any customer a fee that exceeds forty-five dollars ($45).

(8) For purposes of this subdivision, "sales price" means the sum of all of the following:

(A) The cash paid, or to be paid. The term "cash paid, or to be paid" does not include stated or unstated interest or original issue discount (as determined by Sections 1271 to 1275, inclusive, of the Internal Revenue Code).

(B) The fair market value of other property transferred, or to be transferred.

(C) The outstanding amount of any liability assumed by the transferee or to which the California real property interest is subject immediately before and after the transfer.

(9) In lieu of the amount provided for in subdivision (d), unless it is shown that the failure to withhold is due to reasonable cause, whenever any transferee is required to withhold any amount pursuant to this subdivision, the transferee is liable for the greater of the following amounts for failure to withhold, but only after the transferee is notified in writing of the requirements under this subdivision:

(A) Five hundred dollars ($500).

(B) Ten percent of the amount required to be withheld under this subdivision.

(10) (A) Unless it is shown that the failure to notify is due to reasonable cause, the real estate escrow person shall be liable for the amount specified in paragraph (9) when written notification of the withholding requirements of this subdivision is not provided to the transferee and the California real property disposition is subject to withholding under this subdivision.

(B) The real estate escrow person shall provide written notification to the transferee in substantially the same form as follows:

"In accordance with Sections 18805 and 26131 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, a buyer may be required to withhold an amount equal to 3⅓ percent of the sales price, in the case of a disposition of California real property interest by either:

1. A seller who is an individual with a last known street address outside of California or when the disbursement instructions authorize the proceeds be sent to a financial intermediary of the seller, OR

2. A corporate seller which has no permanent place of business in California.

The buyer may become subject to penalty for failure to withhold an amount equal to the lesser of 25 percent of the amount required to be withheld or five hundred dollars ($500).

However, notwithstanding any other provision included in the California statutes referenced above, no buyer will be required to withhold any amount or be subject to penalty for failure to withhold if:

1. The sales price of the California real property conveyed does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), OR

2. The seller executes a written certificate, under the penalty of perjury, certifying that the seller is a resident of California, or if a corporation, has a permanent place of business in California, OR

3. The seller, who is an individual, executes a written certificate, under the penalty of perjury, that the California real property being conveyed is the seller's principal residence (as defined in Section 1034 of the Internal Revenue Code).

The seller is subject to penalty for knowingly filing a fraudulent certificate for the purpose of avoiding the withholding requirement.

The California statutes referenced above include provisions which authorize the Franchise Tax Board to grant reduced withholding and waivers from withholding on a case-by-case basis."

(C) The real estate escrow person shall not be liable under this subdivision, if the tax due as a result of the disposition of the California real property is paid by the original or extended due date of the transferor's return for the taxable or income year in which the disposition occurred.

(D) The real estate escrow person and the transferee shall not be liable under paragraphs (9) and (10), if the failure to withhold is the result of the real estate escrow person's reliance, based on good faith and on all the information of which he or she has knowledge, upon a written certificate executed by the transferor under penalty of perjury that the transferor has a permanent place of business in California.

(E) Unless the failure to notify is due to willful disregard of the withholding requirements of this subdivision, the real estate escrow person shall not be liable under this paragraph if the disposition of California real property occurs prior to July 1, 1991.

(f) Whenever any person has withheld any amount pursuant to this section, the amount so withheld shall be held in trust for the State of California. The amount withheld shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner and subject to the same provisions and limitations (including penalties) as are applicable with respect to the taxes imposed by this part.

(g) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1991.

CHAPTER 1040

An act to amend Sections 34, 125, 132, 135, 137, 140, 824, 1661, 1704, 1730.5, 1749, 1749.1, 1749.3, 1749.4, 1749.5, and 1749.8 of, and to add Sections 33.5, 1749.9, and 1751.1 to, the Insurance Code, relating to insurance, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33.5 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

33.5. "Fire and casualty broker-agent" means a person licensed pursuant to Section 1625.

SEC. 2. Section 34 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

34. "Insurance solicitor" means a natural person employed to aid a fire and casualty broker-agent acting as an insurance agent or insurance broker in transacting insurance other than life.

SEC. 3. Section 125 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

125. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the California Risk Retention Act of 1991.

SEC. 4. Section 132 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

132. Risk retention groups chartered, incorporated, or licensed in states other than this state and seeking to do business as a risk retention group in this state shall file a notice of operation with the commissioner of its intention to do business in this state. The notice shall be filed with the commissioner within 60 days of the filing by the group of any notice filed with its chartering state of its intention to do business in this state, but in no event shall a notice of intended operation be filed with the commissioner less than 60 days prior to the group commencing business in this state. In doing business in this state the risk retention group shall observe and abide by the laws of this state including the following:

(a) A risk retention group shall submit to the commissioner all of the following:

(1) A statement identifying the state or states in which the risk retention group is chartered and licensed as a liability insurance company, date of chartering, its principal place of business, and such other information, including information on its membership, as the commissioner of this state may require to verify that the risk retention group is qualified under subdivision (m) of Section 130.

(2) A copy of its plan of operations or a feasibility study and revisions of the plan or study submitted to the state in which the risk retention group is chartered and licensed. However, the provision relating to the submission of a plan of operation or a feasibility study shall not apply with respect to any line or classification of liability insurance which (A) was defined in the Product Liability Risk Retention Act of 1981 before October 27, 1986, and (B) was offered before that date by any risk retention group which had been chartered and operating for not less than three years before that date.

(3) A statement of registration which designates the commissioner as its agent for the purpose of receiving service of legal documents or process.

(4) A registration filing fee shall accompany the statement of registration, which shall be deposited in the Risk Retention Administration Account, which is hereby created within the Insurance Fund. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government

Code, moneys in the account are continuously appropriated to the department for purposes of this chapter.

(b) Any risk retention group within this state shall submit to the commissioner all of the following:

(1) Upon commencement of business within this state and annually thereafter, a copy of the group's annual financial statement submitted to the state in which the risk retention group is chartered and licensed which shall be certified by an independent public accountant and contain a statement of opinion on loss and loss adjustment expense reserves made by a member of the American Academy of Actuaries or a qualified loss reserve specialist.

(2) Upon request by the commissioner, a copy of each examination of the risk retention group as certified by the commissioner or public official conducting the examination and all documentation received as part of the examination.

(3) Upon request by the commissioner, a copy of any outside audit performed with respect to the risk retention group.

(c) (1) As authorized under the federal Liability Risk Retention Act of 1986 (15 U.S.C. Sec. 3902 (a) (1) (B)), each risk retention group shall be liable for the payment of premium taxes and taxes on premiums for business done or located within this state, and shall report to the commissioner the net premiums written on business done within this state. The risk retention group shall be subject to taxation, and any applicable fines and nonconformance fees related thereto, on the same basis as a foreign admitted insurer. Nonconformance fees shall be paid to the department and deposited in the Risk Retention Administration Account within the Insurance Fund.

(2) To the extent licensed surplus line brokers are utilized pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1760) of Part 2, they shall report to the commissioner the premiums for direct business for risks resident or located within this state which those licensees have placed with or on behalf of, a risk retention group not chartered in this state.

(d) Any risk retention group, its agents and representatives shall comply with Article 6.5 (commencing with Section 790) of Chapter 1 of Part 2.

(e) Any risk retention group shall comply with the laws of this state regarding deceptive, false, or fraudulent acts or practices. However, if the commissioner seeks an injunction regarding that conduct, the injunction shall be obtained from a court of competent jurisdiction.

(f) Any risk retention group shall submit to an examination upon request by the commissioner to determine its financial condition if the commissioner of the jurisdiction in which the group is chartered and licensed has not initiated an examination or does not initiate an examination within 60 days after a request by the commissioner of this state.

(g) Every application form for insurance from a risk retention group and every policy issued by a risk retention group shall contain in 10-point type on the front page and the declaration page, the following notice:

"NOTICE

This policy is issued by your risk retention group. Your risk retention group may not be subject to all of the insurance laws and regulations of your state. State insurance insolvency guaranty funds are not available for your risk retention group."

(h) The following acts by a risk retention group are hereby prohibited:

(1) The solicitation or sale of insurance by a risk retention group to any person who is not eligible for membership in that group.

(2) The solicitation or sale of insurance by, or operation of, a risk retention group that is in a hazardous financial condition.

(i) No risk retention group may offer insurance policy coverage prohibited by Section 533 or declared unlawful by the Supreme Court of California.

SEC. 5. Section 135 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

135. (a) No purchasing group may offer insurance policy coverage prohibited by Section 533.5 or declared invalid by the Supreme Court of California.

(b) A purchasing group which obtains liability insurance from an insurer not admitted in this state or a risk retention group shall inform each of the members of the group which have a risk resident or located in this state all of the following:

(1) The risk is not protected by an insurance insolvency guaranty fund in this state.

(2) The risk retention group or such insurer may not be subject to all insurance laws and regulations of this state.

SEC. 6. Section 137 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

137. (a) No person, firm, association, or corporation shall act or aid in any manner in soliciting, negotiating, or procuring liability insurance in this state from a risk retention group unless that person, firm, association, or corporation is licensed as a fire and casualty broker-agent in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1621) of Part 2 and is authorized to act as an insurance broker; except salaried employees or officers of a risk retention group, provided no part of the compensation of such person is on a commission basis or otherwise based on production of business.

(b) No person, firm, association, or corporation shall act or aid in any manner in soliciting, negotiating, or procuring liability insurance from an insurer not authorized to do business in this state on behalf of a purchasing group located in this state unless that person, firm, association, or corporation is licensed as a surplus line broker in accordance with Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1760) of Part 2. A nonresident person may be licensed as a surplus lines broker for purposes of placing insurance on behalf of a purchasing group.

(c) Any person, firm, association, or corporation licensed pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1621) of Part 2, on business placed with risk retention groups or written through a purchasing group, shall inform each prospective insured of the provisions of the notice required by subdivision (g) of Section 132 in the case of a risk retention group and subdivision (b) of Section 135 in the case of a purchasing group.

SEC. 7. Section 140 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

140. The commissioner may order a purchasing group or risk retention group to cease and desist from the solicitation or sale of insurance by, or the operations of, a risk retention group or purchasing group whose officers, organizers, or directors have engaged in any of the acts or omissions set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 1668.5. That order shall be made in accordance with the procedures set forth in Article 14.5 (commencing with Section 1065.1) of Chapter 1 of Part 2.

SEC. 7.5. Section 824 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

824. "Broker" means every person, other than an agent, who in this state engages either wholly or in part in the business of (a) dealing in any security issued by others, (b) underwriting any issue of such securities, (c) purchasing such securities with the purpose of reselling them, or (d) offering such securities for sale to the public. No authority to act as a broker may be implied from an appointment executed by an insurer appointing an agent of that insurer.

SEC. 8. Section 1661 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1661. Whenever an organization licensed as a life agent, or a fire and casualty broker-agent desires to change, remove, or add to, the natural person or persons who are to transact insurance under authority of its license, it shall immediately file an application or notice on a form prescribed by the commissioner with the commissioner for an endorsement changing its license accordingly. The commissioner shall require that the prelicensing education standards set forth in Section 1749 be met and that the qualifying examination provided by this code be taken by any natural person named by the organization to exercise its agency or brokerage powers who would be required to take and pass the qualifying examination. That natural person or persons and the organization are in all other respects subject to the provisions of this chapter and the insurance laws.

SEC. 9. Section 1704 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1704. (a) Every applicant for a license as a life agent, a fire and casualty broker-agent to act as an insurance agent, or a travel insurance agent shall have filed on his or her behalf with the commissioner a notice of appointment to act as an agent executed by an insurer, or its authorized representative, admitted to transact one or more classes of insurance included within the scope of the license sought, appointing the applicant, upon licensing, its agent within this state. Every applicant for a license as a fire and casualty broker-agent to act as an insurance solicitor shall have filed on his or her behalf with the commissioner a notice executed by a fire and casualty broker-agent agreeing to employ the applicant and appointing the applicant, upon licensing, as the fire and casualty broker-agent's employee within this state. Additional notices of appointment may be filed by other insurers before the license is issued and thereafter as long as the license remains in force. The authority to transact insurance given to a licensee by an insurer or fire and casualty broker-agent, as the case may be, by appointment shall be effective as of the date the notice of appointment is signed. That authority to transact shall apply to transactions occurring after that date and for the purpose of determining the insurer's or fire and casualty broker-agent's liability for acts of the appointed licensee. No notice of appointment of a life agent, fire and casualty broker-agent, or travel insurance agent shall be filed under this subdivision unless the licensee being appointed has consented to that filing. Each appointment made under this subdivision shall by its terms continue in force until:

(1) The cancellation or expiration of the license applied for or held at the time the appointment was filed.

(2) The filing of a notice of termination by the insurer or employing fire and casualty broker-agent, or by the appointed life agent, fire and casualty broker-agent, travel insurance agent, or insurance solicitor.

(b) Upon the termination of all appointments, or all endorsements naming the licensee on the license of an organization licensee, and the cancellation of the bond required pursuant to Section 1662 if acting as a broker, the permanent license shall not be canceled, but shall become inactive. It may be renewed pursuant to Section 1718. It may be reactivated at any time prior to its expiration by the filing of a new appointment pursuant to this section, Section 1707, and Section 1751.3, or the filing of a new bond pursuant to Section 1662. An inactive license shall not permit its holder to transact any insurance for which a valid, active license is required.

(c) Upon the termination of all appointments of a person licensed under a certificate of convenience, such certificate shall be canceled and shall be returned by its lawful custodian to the commissioner.

(d) A fire and casualty broker-agent appointing an insurance solicitor pursuant to this section, if a natural person, must be the holder of a permanent license to act as a fire and casualty broker-agent or the holder of a certificate of convenience so to act issued pursuant to either subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 1685. If the fire and casualty broker-agent is an organization, it must be the holder of a permanent license.

(e) The filing of an incomplete or deficient action notice with the department shall require the filing of an amended, complete action notice, together with the payment of the fee therefor specified in subdivision (n) of Section 1751.

(f) No notice of appointment appointing a solicitor shall be filed with the commissioner unless a notice of termination of appointment has been filed with the commissioner for any previously filed notice of appointment of solicitor.

SEC. 10. Section 1730.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1730.5. A life agent and a fire and casualty broker-agent shall provide to all insureds or applicants at the time of application or receipt of premium moneys the effective date of coverage, if known, or the circumstances under which coverage will be effective if there exists conditions precedent to coverage. This section shall apply only to coverage for personal lines of insurance, such as private passenger automobile, homeowner and renter insurance, personal liability, and individual disability and health insurance.

SEC. 11. Section 1749 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1749. On and after January 1, 1992, the department shall require all new applicants for license as a fire and casualty broker-agent or as a life agent to meet prelicensing education standards as follows:

(a) Require a minimum of 40 hours of prelicensing classroom study as a prerequisite to qualification for a fire and casualty broker-agent license. The curriculum for satisfying this requirement shall be approved by the curriculum board and submitted to the commissioner for final approval. Any additions to the minimum requirements provided by this section shall be approved by the curriculum board pursuant to Section 1749.1 and certified by the department.

(b) Require a minimum of 40 hours of prelicensing classroom study as a prerequisite for qualification for a life agent license. The curriculum for satisfying this requirement shall be approved by the curriculum board and submitted to the commissioner for final approval. Any additions to the minimum requirements provided by this section shall be approved by the curriculum board pursuant to Section 1749.1 and certified by the department.

(c) In addition to the 40 hours prelicensing education required to qualify for a license as a broker-agent or life agent, the department shall require 12 hours of study on ethics and this code. Where an applicant seeks a license for both the broker-agent license and the life license, the applicant shall only be required to complete one 12-hour course on ethics and this code. The curriculum for satisfying this requirement shall be approved by the curriculum board and submitted to the commissioner for final approval.

(d) An applicant for a life agent license or a fire and casualty broker-agent license who is currently licensed as such in another state and who has completed 40 hours of prelicensing education as a requirement for licensing in that state shall be required to complete only the course of study on ethics and the Insurance Code, as required by Section 1749. Additionally, any applicant for such a license holding one or more of the designations specified in subdivisions (a) to (e), inclusive, of Section 1749.4 shall be exempted from any requirement for courses in general insurance that would otherwise be a condition of issuance of the license.

(e) This section shall not apply to persons licensed as of December 31, 1991.

SEC. 12. Section 1749.1 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1749.1. (a) The commissioner shall appoint a curriculum board consisting of representatives of insurance agents, brokers, and life agents trade associations and representatives of insurance companies and consumer groups to develop the prelicensing and continuing education curriculum, including a list of preapproved courses of study, including courses of study for professional designations which would satisfy the requirements of this article. The curriculum board shall develop or recommend courses of study covering all lines of insurance to be sold under each license including, but not limited to, any special products such as long-term care insurance, Medi-gap policies, disability insurance products, and course study on ethics and pertinent sections of this code. The curriculum developed and the courses of study approved by the board shall be submitted to the commissioner for final approval.

(b) The curriculum board shall also develop standards for providers and instructors of prelicensing and continuing education courses, programs, and seminars, which standards shall be approved by the board and submitted to the commissioner for final approval.

(c) Whenever the commissioner has reasonable cause to believe, and determines after public hearing, that any approved course, program of instruction, or seminar is being conducted so as to fail to meet the commissioner's prelicensing or continuing education curriculum, or any provider or instructor for any such course, program, or seminar has failed to comply with the commissioner's standards, the commissioner may make and serve upon the provider or instructor of that course, program, or seminar such order or orders rescinding approval for that course, program, or seminar. No credit towards meeting the requirements of this article shall be granted any applicant or licensee for completion of a course, program, or seminar after the effective date of any order rescinding approval for that course, program, or seminar. The commissioner shall serve notice of hearing required by this section upon the provider or instructor of the course, program, or seminar, stating the time and place therefor, and the grounds upon which his or her order is made. The hearing shall occur not less than 30 nor more than 60 days after notice is served.

SEC. 13. Section 1749.3 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1749.3. An individual licensed as either a life agent or a fire and casualty broker-agent, but not as both, shall annually complete those courses, programs of instruction, or seminars approved by the commissioner for the type of license held. The minimum number of classroom hours required is as follows:

(a) During each of the first four 12-month periods following the date of its original issue satisfactorily complete courses or programs of instruction or attend seminars equivalent to a minimum of 25 classroom hours of instruction, with a maximum of 100 accumulated classroom hours for the 48-month period.

(b) Any licensee who has held a license prior to the effective date of this section, or who has complied with subdivision (a), shall for each 12-month period satisfactorily complete courses or programs of instruction or attend seminars equivalent to 15 classroom hours of instruction.

(c) An individual whose license expires in 1992 shall not be required to comply with the requirements of subdivisions (a) and (b) until the next license renewal date.

(d) An individual licensed as both a fire and casualty broker-agent shall satisfy the requirements of this section by demonstrating completion of the courses, programs of instruction, or seminars approved by the commissioner for either license.

(e) Nothing in this section shall preclude an individual from taking courses, programs of instruction, or seminars approved by the commissioner and accumulating credits for completion thereof prior to the application of this section to the individual's license.

(f) A licensee who is employed by a licensed automobile dealer to offer only collision coverage, involuntary unemployment insurance, or credit life and disability insurance products shall not be required to meet the requirements of this section until the license renewal date next following December 31, 1993.

SEC. 14. Section 1749.4 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1749.4. The courses or programs of instruction successfully completed that shall be deemed to meet the standards for continuing educational requirements, and the number of classroom hours for which they are equivalent, are as follows:

(a) Any part of the Life Underwriter Training Council Life Course Curriculum totaling 50 hours, including the health course totaling 26 hours.

(b) Any part of the American College CLU diploma curriculum totaling 30 hours.

(c) Any part of the Insurance Institute of America's Accredited Advisor in Insurance (AAI) program totaling 25 hours.

(d) Any part of the American Institute of Property and Liability Underwriters' Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) professional designation program totaling 30 hours.

(e) Any part of the Certified Insurance Counselor program totaling 25 hours.

(f) Any insurance-related course approved by the curriculum board and the commissioner taught by an accredited college or university per credit hour granted totaling 15 hours.

(g) Any course or program of instruction or seminar developed or sponsored by an authorized insurer, recognized agents' association, or insurance trade association, or any independent program of instruction shall, if approved by the curriculum board and the commissioner, qualify for the equivalency of the number of classroom hours assigned thereto by the curriculum board and the commissioner.

(h) Any correspondence course approved by the curriculum board and the commissioner shall qualify for the equivalency of the number of classroom hours assigned thereto by the commissioner.

SEC. 15. Section 1749.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1749.5. (a) A person teaching any approved course of instruction or lecturing at any approved seminar shall qualify for the same number of classroom hours as would be granted to a person taking and successfully completing that course, seminar, or program, except that such person shall qualify for those classroom hours only once each license term for each course, seminar, or program.

(b) Excess classroom hours accumulated during any one-year period may be carried forward to the next year.

(c) For good cause shown, the commissioner may grant an extension of time during which the requirements imposed by this article may be completed, but that extension of time shall not exceed the period of one year.

(d) Every person subject to this article shall furnish, in a form satisfactory to the commissioner, written certification as to the courses, programs, or seminars of instruction taken and successfully completed by that person.

SEC. 16. Section 1749.8 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1749.8. This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1998, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1998, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 17. Section 1749.9 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1749.9. Nothing in this article shall require any person exempted from licensure by Section 1634 or 1635 to hold a license as required by Section 1631.

SEC. 18. Section 1751.1 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1751.1. (a) The commissioner shall require fifty dollars ($50) in advance as a fee for filing an application for certification as a prelicensing or continuing education provider pursuant to Section 1749.1. That certification shall be effective for a period of 24 months.

(b) The commissioner shall require fifty dollars ($50) in advance as a fee for filing an application to renew certification as a prelicensing or continuing education provider pursuant to Section 1749.1. That certification shall be effective for a period of 24 months.

(c) The commissioner shall require fifty dollars ($50) in advance as a fee for filing an application for certification of a prelicensing education course pursuant to Section 1749. That certification shall be effective for a period of 24 months.

(d) The commissioner shall require twenty-five dollars ($25) in advance as a fee for filing an application to renew certification of a prelicensing education course pursuant to Section 1749. That certification shall be effective for a period of 24 months.

(e) The commissioner shall require twenty-five dollars ($25) in advance as a fee for filing an application for certification of a continuing education course, program, or seminar pursuant to Section 1749.3. That certification shall be effective for a period of 24 months.

(f) The commissioner shall require ten dollars ($10) in advance as a fee for filing an application to renew certification of a continuing education course, program, or seminar pursuant to Section 1749.3. That certification shall be effective for a period of 24 months.

CHAPTER 1041

An act to add Sections 10232.3 and 10232.8 to the Insurance Code, relating to long-term care insurance.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10232.3 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

10232.3. (a) All applications for long-term care insurance policies or certificates except those that are guaranteed issue shall contain clear and unambiguous questions designed to ascertain the health condition of the applicant.

(b) (1) All applications for long-term care insurance shall contain a question that asks whether the applicant has had medication prescribed by a physician, and shall also ask the applicant to list the medication that has been prescribed.

(2) If the medications listed in the application were known by the insurer, or should have been known at the time of application, to be directly related to a medical condition for which coverage would otherwise be denied, then the policy or certificate shall not be rescinded for that condition.

(c) The following requirement applies except for policies or certificates which are guaranteed issue: Prior to issuance of a long-term care policy or certificate to an applicant age 80 or older, the insurer shall obtain one of the following:

(1) A report of a physical examination.

(2) An assessment of functional capacity.

(3) An attending physician's statement.

(4) Copies of medical records.

(d) A copy of the completed application or enrollment form whichever is applicable shall be delivered to the insured no later than at the time of delivery of the policy or certificate unless it was retained by the applicant at the time of application.

(e) Every insurer or other entity selling or issuing long-term care insurance benefits shall maintain a record of all policy or certificate recissions, both state and countrywide, except those that the insured voluntarily effectuated and shall annually furnish this information to the commissioner in the format prescribed by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners.

SEC. 2. Section 10232.8 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

10232.8. (a) A long-term care insurance policy or certificate may not, if it provides benefits for home health care services, limit or exclude benefits in any of the following ways:

(1) By requiring that the insured or claimant would need skilled care in a skilled nursing facility if home health care services were not provided.

(2) By requiring that the insured or claimant first or simultaneously receive nursing or therapeutic services in a home or community setting before home health care services are covered.

(3) By limiting eligible services to services provided by registered nurses or licensed vocational nurses.

(4) By requiring that a nurse or therapist provide services covered by the policy that can be provided by a home health aide, or other licensed or certified home care worker acting within the scope of his or her licensure or certification.

(5) By requiring that the insured or claimant have an acute condition before home health care services are covered.

(6) By limiting benefits to services provided by Medicare-certified agencies or providers.

(b) Home health care coverage may be applied to the nonhome health care benefits provided in the policy or certificate when determining maximum coverage under the terms of the policy or certificate.

CHAPTER 1042

An act to add Section 3502.05 to the Elections Code, relating to ballot measures.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3502.05 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

3502.05. In the event that the Attorney General is a proponent of a proposed measure, the title and summary of the chief purpose and points of the proposed measure, including an estimate or opinion on the financial impact of the measure, shall be prepared by the Legislative Counsel, and the other duties of the Attorney General specified in this chapter with respect to the title and summary and an estimate of the financial effect of the measure shall be performed by the Legislative Counsel.

CHAPTER 1043

An act to amend Sections 34019 and 34501.2 of, and to add Section 22406.5 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22406.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

22406.5. Any person who drives a tank vehicle subject to Division 14.7 (commencing with Section 34000) while transporting more than 500 gallons of flammable liquid at a speed greater than the applicable speed limit or in willful or wanton disregard for the safety of persons or property is, in addition to any other applicable penalty, subject to a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) for a first offense and, for a second or subsequent offense within two years of a prior offense, to a fine of not less than two thousand dollars ($2,000) and a suspension of up to six months of a hazardous materials or cargo tank endorsement, or both.

SEC. 2. Section 34019 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

34019. (a) The commissioner shall adopt reasonable regulations with respect to the following:

(1) The design, construction, and structural safety of cargo tanks and fire auxiliary equipment.

(2) To the extent permitted by federal law, the stability of tank vehicles.

(b) For intrastate shipments in this state, the commissioner shall, as soon as feasible, incorporate any new United States Department of Transportation standards concerning interstate shipments.

SEC. 3. Section 34501.2 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

34501.2. (a) The regulations adopted pursuant to Section 34501, except as provided in this subdivision and subdivision (b), shall establish limitations on driving hours for motor vehicles subject thereto that are consistent with the hours-of-service requirements adopted by the United States Department of Transportation in Part 395 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as those regulations now exist or are hereafter amended. Driving hours and on-duty status shall not begin following less than eight consecutive hours off duty. Drivers' hours shall be regulated from the time a driver first reports for duty for any employer. A driver who accumulates eight hours off duty resting in a sleeper berth in not more than two separate periods totaling at least eight hours, neither of which is less than two hours, is in compliance with the requirement for eight consecutive hours of off-duty time.

(b) The regulations adopted pursuant to Section 34501 shall establish the following exceptions to subdivision (a):

(1) A driver may be permitted or required to drive for more than the number of hours specified in subdivision (a) if the excess hours are due to snow, sleet, fog, or other adverse conditions of weather, road, or traffic. This extended driving period shall be permitted even though the adverse conditions were known before the trip began.

(2) In the event of a traffic accident, medical emergency, or disaster, a driver may complete the trip if the trip could reasonably have been completed under normal conditions within the time specified in subdivision (a).

(3) Other exceptions applicable to drivers assigned to governmental fire suppression and prevention, as determined appropriate by the Department of the California Highway Patrol.

(4) The maximum driving time within a work period is 10 hours for tank vehicles transporting more than 500 gallons of flammable liquid or 12 hours for all other vehicles engaged solely in intrastate commerce and is not transporting hazardous substances or hazardous wastes as defined by regulations of the United States Department of Transportation in Section 171.8 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as that section now exists or is hereafter amended.

SEC. 4. Section 34501.2 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

34501.2. (a) The regulations adopted pursuant to Section 34501, except as provided in this subdivision and subdivision (b), shall establish limitations on driving hours for motor vehicles subject thereto that are consistent with the hours-of-service requirements adopted by the United States Department of Transportation in Part 395 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as those regulations now exist or are hereafter amended. Driving hours and onduty status shall not begin following less than eight consecutive hours off duty. Drivers' hours shall be regulated from the time a driver first reports for duty for any employer. A driver who accumulates eight hours off duty resting in a sleeper berth in not more than two separate periods totaling at least eight hours, neither of which is less than two hours, is in compliance with the requirement for eight consecutive hours of offduty time.

(b) The regulations adopted pursuant to Section 34501 shall establish the following exceptions to subdivision (a):

(1) A driver may be permitted or required to drive for more than the number of hours specified in subdivision (a) if the excess hours are due to snow, sleet, fog, or other adverse conditions of weather, road, or traffic. This extended driving period shall be permitted even though the adverse conditions were known before the trip began.

(2) In the event of a traffic accident, medical emergency, or disaster, a driver may complete the trip if the trip could reasonably have been completed under normal conditions within the time specified in subdivision (a).

(3) Other exceptions applicable to drivers assigned to governmental fire suppression and prevention, as determined appropriate by the Department of the California Highway Patrol.

(4) The maximum driving time within a work period is 10 hours for tank vehicles transporting more than 500 gallons of flammable liquid or 12 hours for all other vehicles engaged solely in intrastate commerce and is not transporting hazardous substances or hazardous wastes as defined by regulations of the United States Department of Transportation in Section 171.8 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as that section now exists or is hereafter amended.

(5) A driver employed by an electrical corporation as defined in Section 218 of the Public Utilities Code, a gas corporation as defined in Section 222 of that code, or a telephone corporation as defined in Section 234 of that code may be permitted or required to drive more than the number of hours specified in subdivision (a) while operating a public utility vehicle during the emergency restoration of public utility service.

SEC. 5. Section 4 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 34501.2 of the Vehicle Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1886. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 34501.2 of the Vehicle Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1886, in which case Section 34501.2 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by AB 1886, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 4 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 3 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Section 6512.7 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to water.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6512.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

6512.7. (a) Notwithstanding Section 6512 and the Cortese-Knox Local Government Reorganization Act of 1985 (Division 3 (commencing with Section 56000) of Title 5 of the Government Code), for the purpose of furnishing water in the district for any present or future beneficial use, the Montara Sanitary District may, pursuant to subdivision (b), exercise any of the powers of a county water district, including the power to acquire, operate, finance, and control water rights, works, property, rights and privileges useful or necessary to convey, supply, store or make use of water for any useful purpose, all in the same manner as county water districts formed under the County Water District Law (Division 12 (commencing with Section 30000) of the Water Code). The Montara Sanitary District shall otherwise continue to be governed in all respects as a sanitary district under this part, and the provisions of this section are intended only to vest additional powers in the district which the district may elect to exercise.

(b) If the governing body of the Montara Sanitary District determines, by resolution, entered in the minutes, that it is feasible, economically sound, and in the public interest for the district to exercise the powers specified in subdivision (a), the governing body shall submit to the electors of the district the question of whether the district should adopt those additional powers. The question submitted to the electors shall be in substantially the following form: "Shall the Montara Sanitary District exercise the powers of a county water district for the purpose of furnishing water in the district?" The district may exercise those powers only if a majority of the voters voting on the proposition vote in favor of the question. The costs of that election, including any additional costs incurred by the County of San Mateo for purposes of meeting legal requirements directly associated with the conduct of the election, shall be borne by the district.

(c) If the electors of the district authorize the district to exercise the powers specified in subdivision (a), the district shall include in any revenue plan developed as part of its exercise of those powers an item to reimburse the County of San Mateo the sum of one hundred eighteen thousand dollars ($118,000) for costs incurred with respect to its effort to acquire the existing water system serving the Montara Sanitary District service area. Reimbursement to the county shall occur within 180 days after the district receives any revenues from the sale of bonds, the levy of assessments, or the receipt of any other revenues to be used by the district in the exercise of its powers pursuant to this section.

(d) If the Montara Sanitary District assumes authority to exercise the powers of a county water district pursuant to this section, thereafter the district shall be subject to the Cortese-Knox Local Government Reorganization Act of 1985 (Division 3 (commencing with Section 56000) of Title 5 of the Government Code).

(e) In enacting this section it is the intent of the Legislature that any service by the Montara Sanitary District not affect the approval or development of a project that includes units for lower income persons, as defined in Section 50079.5, and persons and families of moderate income, as defined in Section 50093.

(f) Upon request of the governing body of the Montara Sanitary District, the County of San Mateo shall provide the district with all books, papers, records, documents and other information, including all writings as defined by Section 250 of the Evidence Code, resulting from, or produced by, the expenditure of funds by the county to determine if the acquisition of the existing water system serving the Montara Sanitary District service area is feasible.

SEC. 2. The provisions of Section 1 of this act are necessary because there is no other entity within the territory of the Montara Sanitary District which is willing and able to provide water service for the benefit of the people of the district, and it is necessary to ensure that the Montara Sanitary District is authorized to do any act necessary to furnish sufficient water in the district for any present or future beneficial use. This problem is not common to all districts formed under the Sanitary District Act of 1923. It is, therefore, hereby declared that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution and that the enactment of Section 6512.7 of the Health and Safety Code as a special law is necessary for the solution of problems existing in the Montara Sanitary District.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by certain provisions of this act.

Moreover, no reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code for other costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) and any other provisions of law.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1045

An act to amend Sections 74984, 74985, 74986, and 74987 of the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 74984 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74984. (a) There shall be one marshal who shall be appointed by the court; provided, that upon the effective date of this section, the incumbent elected marshal shall continue in office as marshal and may be removed by the court only for cause. When that marshal leaves office, the succeeding marshals shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the court.

(b) The marshal shall receive the salary of four thousand twenty-eight dollars ($4,028) per month as set forth in the standard salary resolution of Shasta County in effect for the 1990–91 fiscal year. The marshal shall be provided the same employment benefits by Shasta County as the county provides to other county employees in an equivalent category in the county's merit personnel system.

(c) The board of supervisors may transfer certain duties of the sheriff to the marshal pursuant to Section 26608.3.

(d) All fees collected by the marshal's office shall be deposited with the county treasurer and credited to the general fund.

SEC. 2. Section 74985 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74985. (a) The marshal, with the approval of the court, may appoint the following marshal's office employees whose numbers, classifications, and salary ranges in the standard salary resolution of Shasta County in effect on January 1, 1991, are:

Position Title	Number of Positions	Salary Range
Marshal	1	Flat	$4,028 per mo.
Deputy Marshal	8	38 3 - Regular	$2,167–2,634 per mo.
		Flat - Probationary	$2,064 per mo
		Flat - Trainee	$1,966 per mo.
Legal Process Clerk II	4	29 6	$1,418–1,723 per mo
Legal Process Clerk I		27 6	$1,286–1,563 per mo.

Marshal's Civil Supervisor	1	32.6	$1,641–1,995 per mo
Marshal's Sergeant	2	40 8	$2,448–2,976 per mo.

(b) Each employee of the marshal's office shall be provided the same employment benefits by Shasta County as the county provides to other county employees in equivalent categories and salary ranges in the county's merit personnel system.

(c) With the consent of the court, not more than five reserve deputy marshals may be hired by the marshal on an extra help basis and as the business of the court requires. Reserve deputy marshals may receive as their sole compensation the base salary of a regular Deputy Marshal, calculated on an hourly basis, for each hour or fraction of an hour of service. Reserve deputy marshals shall not be entitled to any employment benefit provided by Shasta County to any other county officer or employee.

SEC. 3. Section 74986 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74986. (a) The municipal court may appoint a municipal court administrator who shall be the chief administrative officer and ex officio clerk of the court. The administrator shall serve at the pleasure of the court and shall receive a salary of four thousand forty-eight dollars ($4,048) per month as set forth in the standard salary resolution of Shasta County in effect for the 1990–91 fiscal year. The administrator shall be provided the same employment benefits by Shasta County as the county provides to other county employees in an equivalent category in the county's merit personnel system.

(b) The municipal court shall prescribe and regulate the duties and authority of the administrator.

SEC. 4. Section 74987 of the Government Code is amended to read:

74987. (a) The municipal court administrator, with the approval of the court, may appoint the court's support staff personnel. The following employees of the court shall be compensated within the following applicable ranges established by the standard salary resolution of Shasta County in effect on January 1, 1991:

Position Title	Number of Positions	Salary Range
Court Administrator	1	Flat	$4,048 per mo.
Court Commissioner	1	Flat	$64,617 per year
Deputy Ct. Clerk III	7	31.1	$1,525–1,854 per mo.
Deputy Ct. Clerk II	22	30.1	$1,453–1,766 per mo.
Deputy Ct. Clerk I		28.1	$1,318–1,601 per mo.

Deputy Ct. Clerk II or Deputy Ct. Clerk I	2(½ time)	30.1 28.1-6	$1,453–1,766 per mo. $1,318–1,601 per mo.
Legal Secretary	1	32.2	$1,609–1,956 per mo.
Sup. Branch Ct. Clerk	2	32.1	$1,601–1,947 per mo.
Sup. Mun. Ct. Clerk	1	33.1	$1,682–2,044 per mo.

(b) Each employee designated in subdivision (a) shall be provided the same employment benefits by Shasta County as the county provides to other county employees in equivalent categories and salary ranges in the county's merit personnel system.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 11265.1, 14105.98, 14105.99, and 14163 of, and to add Sections 11265.5 and 18920 to, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public assistance, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11265.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11265.1. Except as provided in Section 11265.5, in addition to the requirement for the annual redetermination of eligibility, the department shall establish regulations consistent with federal law to implement a recipient monthly reporting system for use in determining monthly eligibility and the amount of the grant. The department shall define what constitutes a complete report and shall specify the deadlines for submitting a complete report, as well as the consequences of, and good cause for, failure to submit a complete report. The department shall adopt fair and equitable regulations implementing the monthly reporting requirement.

SEC. 2. Section 11265.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions

Code, to read:

11265.5. (a) (1) The department may, subject to the requirements of federal regulations and Section 18204, conduct three pilot projects, to be located in the Counties of Los Angeles, Merced, and Santa Clara, upon approval of the department and the participating counties. The pilot projects shall test the reporting systems described in subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C) of paragraph (4).

(2) (A) The pilot project conducted in Los Angeles County shall test one or both reporting systems described in subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (4). The pilot project population for each test shall be limited to 10,000 cases.

(B) The pilot projects in the other counties shall test one of the reporting systems described in subparagraph (A) or (C) of paragraph (4) and shall be limited to 2,000 cases per project.

(3) (A) The pilot projects shall be designed and conducted according to standard scientific principles, and shall be in effect for a period of 24 months.

(B) The projects may be extended an additional year upon the approval of the department.

(C) The projects shall be designed to compare the monthly reporting system with alternatives described in paragraph (4) as to all of the following phenomena:

(i) Administrative savings resulting from reduced worker time spent in reviewing monthly reports.

(ii) The amount of cash assistance paid to families.

(iii) The rate of administrative errors in cases and payments.

(iv) The incidence of underpayments and overpayments and the costs to recipients and the administering agencies of making corrective payments and collecting overpayments.

(v) Rates at which recipients lose eligibility for brief periods due to failure to submit a monthly report but file new applications for aid and thereafter are returned to eligible status.

(vi) Cumulative benefits and costs to each level of government and to aid recipients resulting from each reporting system.

(vii) The incidence of, and ability to, prosecute fraud.

(viii) Ease of use by clients.

(ix) Case errors and potential sanction costs associated with those errors.

(4) The pilot projects shall adopt reporting systems providing for one or more of the following:

(A) A reporting system that requires families with no income or whose only income is comprised of old age, survivors, or disability insurance benefits administered pursuant to Subchapter 2 (commencing with Section 401) of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code, and with no recent work history to report changes in circumstances that affect eligibility and grant amount as changes occur. These changes shall be reported directly to the county welfare department in person, in writing, or by telephone. In all cases in which monthly reporting is not required, a form advising recipients of what changes must be reported, and how they may be reported shall be provided to recipients of aid along with benefit payments each month.

(B) A reporting system that permits families with no income or whose only income is comprised of old age, survivors, or disability insurance benefits administered pursuant to Subchapter 2 (commencing with Section 401) of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code, and with no changes in eligibility criteria, to report electronically monthly, using either an audio response or the food stamp on-line issuance and recording system, or a combination of both. Adequate instruction and training shall be provided to county welfare department staff and to recipients who choose to use this system prior to its implementation.

(C) A reporting system that requires all families to report changes in circumstances that affect eligibility and grant amount as changes occur. The changes shall be reported directly to the county welfare department in person, in writing, or by telephone. In all cases in which monthly reporting is not required, a form advising recipients of what changes must be reported, and how they may be reported, shall be provided to recipients of aid along with benefit payments each month.

(b) (1) The participating counties shall be responsible for preparing federal demonstration project proposals, to be submitted by the department, upon the department's review and approval of the proposals, to the federal agency on the counties' behalf. The development, operation, and evaluation of the pilot projects shall not result in an increase in the state allocation of county administrative funds.

(1.5) Each pilot county shall prepare and submit quarterly reports, annual reports, and a final report to the department.

(2) Each quarterly report shall be submitted no later than 30 calendar days after the end of the quarter.

(3) Each annual report shall be submitted no later than 45 days after the end of the year.

(4) (A) Each pilot county shall submit a final report not later than 90 days following completion of the pilot projects required by this section and Section 18920.

(B) (i) As part of the final report, the pilot counties shall prepare and submit evaluations of the pilot projects to the department.

(ii) Each evaluation shall include, but not be limited to, an analysis of the factors set forth in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) compared to each other and the current reporting systems in both the AFDC and food stamp programs. The final evaluations shall be prepared by an independent consultant or consultants contracted with for that purpose prior to the commencement of the projects.

(C) The department shall review and approve the evaluations submitted by the pilot counties and shall submit them to the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of the Legislature.

(c) The department may terminate any or all of the pilot projects implemented pursuant to this section after a period of six months of operation if one or more of the pilot counties submits data to the department, or information is otherwise received, indicating that the pilot project or projects are not cost-effective or adversely impact recipients or county or state operations based on the factors set forth in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a).

(d) The pilot projects shall be implemented only upon receipt of the appropriate federal waivers.

SEC. 3. Section 14105.98 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as added by Chapter 279 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

14105.98. (a) The following definitions shall apply for purposes of this section:

(1) "Disproportionate share list" means an annual list of disproportionate share hospitals that provide acute inpatient services issued by the department for purposes of this section.

(2) "Fund" means the Medi-Cal Inpatient Payment Adjustment Fund, created pursuant to Section 14163.

(3) "Eligible hospital" means a hospital included on a disproportionate share list, which is eligible to receive payment adjustments under this section during a particular state fiscal year.

(4) "Hospital" means a health facility that is licensed pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code to provide acute inpatient hospital services, and includes all components of the facility.

(5) "Payment adjustment" or "payment adjustment amount" means an amount paid under this section for acute inpatient hospital services provided by a disproportionate share hospital.

(6) "Payment adjustment year" means the particular state fiscal year with respect to which payments are to be made to eligible hospitals under this section.

(7) "Payment adjustment program" means the system of Medi-Cal payment adjustments for acute inpatient hospital services established by this section.

(8) "Annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days" means the total number of Medi-Cal acute inpatient hospital days, regardless of dates of service, for which payment was made by or on behalf of the department to a hospital, under present or previous ownership, during the most recent calendar year ending prior to the beginning of a particular payment adjustment year, including all Medi-Cal acute inpatient covered days of care for hospitals which are paid on a different basis than per diem payments.

(9) "Low-income utilization rate" means a percentage rate determined by the department in accordance with the requirements of Section 1396r-4(b)(3) of Title 42 of the United States Code, and included on a disproportionate share list.

(10) "Low-income number" means a hospital's low-income utilization rate rounded down to the nearest whole number, and included on a disproportionate share list.

(11) "1991 Peer Grouping Report" means the final report issued by the department dated May 1991, entitled "Hospital Peer Grouping."

(12) "Major teaching hospital" means a hospital that meets the definition of a university teaching hospital, major nonuniversity teaching hospital, or large teaching emphasis hospital as set forth on page 51 of the 1991 Peer Grouping Report.

(13) "Children's hospital" means a hospital that meets the definition of a children's hospital-state defined, as set forth on page 53 of the 1991 Peer Grouping Report, or which is listed in subdivision (a), or subdivisions (c) to (g), inclusive, of Section 16996.

(14) "Acute psychiatric hospital" means a hospital that meets the definition of an acute psychiatric hospital, a combination psychiatric/alcohol-drug rehabilitation hospital, or a psychiatric health facility, to the extent the facility is licensed to provide acute inpatient hospital service, as set forth on page 52 of the 1991 Peer Grouping Report.

(15) "Alcohol-drug rehabilitation hospital" means a hospital that meets the definition of an alcohol-drug rehabilitation hospital as set forth on page 52 of the 1991 Peer Grouping Report.

(16) "Emergency services hospital" means a hospital that is a licensed provider of basic emergency services as described in Sections 70411 to 70419, inclusive, of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, or that is a licensed provider of comprehensive emergency medical services as described in Sections 70451 to 70459, inclusive, of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(b) For each fiscal year commencing with 1991–92, there shall be Medi-Cal payment adjustment amounts paid to hospitals pursuant to this section. The amount of payments made and the eligible hospitals for each payment adjustment year shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of this section. The payments are intended to support health care services rendered by disproportionate share hospitals.

(c) For each fiscal year commencing with 1991–92, the department shall issue a disproportionate share list. The list shall be developed in accordance with subdivisions (e) and (f), and shall serve as a basis for payments under this section for the particular payment adjustment year. In developing the list, the department may, to the extent practicable, utilize applicable data which is consistent with analysis compiled or developed by the California Medical Assistance Commission.

(d) (1) Except as otherwise provided by this section, the payment adjustment amounts under this section shall be distributed as a supplement to, and concurrent with, payments on all billings for Medi-Cal acute inpatient hospital services that are paid through Medi-Cal claims payment systems on or after July 1, 1991. In connection with those billings, the department shall pay payment adjustment amounts in accordance with subdivision (g), (h), (i), or (j), as applicable, to any hospital qualifying under subdivision (e).

The nonfederal share of all payment adjustment amounts shall be funded by amounts from the fund. The department shall obtain federal matching funds for the payment adjustment program through customary Medi-Cal accounting procedures.

(2) As a limitation to paragraph (1), all payment adjustment amounts under this section, which are due with respect to billings paid through Medi-Cal claims payment systems on or after July 1, 1991, shall be suspended until the time federal approval is obtained for the payment adjustment program as part of the Medi-Cal program. For purposes of this section, federal approval requires both (i) approval by appropriate federal agencies of an amendment to the Medi-Cal State Plan, as referred to in subdivision (o), and (ii) confirmation by appropriate federal agencies regarding the availability of federal financial participation for the payment adjustment program at a level of at least 40 percent of the percentage of federal financial participation that is normally applicable for Medi-Cal expenditures for acute inpatient hospital services. At the time federal approval is obtained, the department shall proceed pursuant to subparagraphs (A) and (B) in connection with the suspended payment adjustment amounts.

(A) Except as provided by subdivision (l), or by any other subdivision of this section, any payment adjustment amounts which were suspended shall, within 60 days, be paid for all those billings paid through Medi-Cal claims payment systems during periods of time, on or after July 1, 1991, for which federal approval is effective for the payment adjustment program.

(B) Payment adjustment amounts shall not be paid in connection with any Medi-Cal billings which were paid through Medi-Cal claims payment systems during any period of time for which federal approval is not effective for the payment adjustment program.

(e) To qualify for payment adjustment amounts under this section, a hospital shall have been included on the disproportionate share list for the particular payment adjustment year. The list shall consist of those hospitals which satisfy both of the following requirements:

(1) The hospital shall meet the federal requirements for disproportionate share status set forth in subsection (d) of Section 1396r-4 of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(2) Either of the following shall apply:

(A) The hospital's medicaid inpatient utilization rate, as defined in Section 1396r-4(b)(2) of Title 42 of the United States Code, shall be at least one standard deviation above the mean medicaid inpatient utilization rate for hospitals receiving medicaid payments in the state.

(B) The hospital's low-income utilization rate shall exceed 25 percent.

(f) (1) For the 1991–92 payment adjustment year, a disproportionate share list shall be issued by the department no later than 65 days after the enactment of this section. For subsequent payment adjustment years, a tentative listing shall be prepared by the department at least 60 days before the beginning of the particular payment adjustment year, and a disproportionate share list shall be issued no later than five days after the beginning of the particular payment adjustment year. All state agencies shall take all necessary steps to supply the most recent data available to the department to meet these deadlines. The Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall provide to the department, no later than March 1 of each year, the data specified by the department, as the data existed on the statewide data base file as of February 1 of each year (except that for the 1991–92 payment adjustment year, the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall provide data as it existed on the statewide data base file as of August 30, 1991), from all of the following:

(A) Hospital annual disclosure reports, filed with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development pursuant to Section 443.31 of the Health and Safety Code, for hospital fiscal years which ended during the calendar year ending 13 months prior to the applicable February 1.

(B) Annual reports of hospitals, filed with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development pursuant to Section 439.2 of the Health and Safety Code, for the calendar year ending 13 months prior to the applicable February 1.

(C) Hospital patient discharge data reports, filed with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 443.31 of the Health and Safety Code, for the calendar year ending 13 months prior to the applicable February 1.

(D) Any other materials on file with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development.

(2) The disproportionate share list shall show all of the following:

(A) The name of the hospital.

(B) Based on the most recent annual data available, and expressed as a percentage, the hospital's Medi-Cal utilization rate and low-income utilization rate as referred to in paragraph (2) of subdivision (e). The department shall determine these rates in accordance with paragraph (4).

(C) Based on the hospital's low-income utilization rate, the hospital's low-income number.

(3) The department shall determine a hospital's satisfaction of paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) based on the most recent information available at the time the particular list is issued, whether the information relates to operations under present or previous ownership.

(4) To determine a hospital's Medi-Cal inpatient utilization rate and low-income utilization rate for purposes of disproportionate share lists, the department shall utilize the same methodology, formulae, and data sources as set forth in connection with interim determinations in Attachment 4.19-A of the Medi-Cal State Plan

(effective on or about July 1, 1990), except that the following shall apply:

(A) The calculations shall not be interim, but shall be final for purposes of this section.

(B) To the extent permitted by federal law, the payment adjustment amounts provided to hospitals pursuant to this section shall not be included for any purpose in the calculations and determinations made pursuant to this section.

(C) Any other variation otherwise required by this section or by federal law.

(D) The data utilized by the department shall relate to the hospital under present and previous ownership. When there has been a change of ownership, a change in the location of the main hospital facility, or a material change in patient admission patterns during the twenty-four months immediately prior to the payment adjustment year, and the change has resulted in a diminution of access for Medi-Cal inpatients at the hospital, all as determined by the department, the department shall, to the extent permitted by federal law, utilize current data that are reflective of the diminution of access, even if the data are not annual data.

(5) For purposes of payment adjustment amounts under this section, each disproportionate share list shall be considered complete when issued by the department pursuant to paragraph (1). Nothing on a disproportionate share list, once issued by the department, shall be modified for any reason, other than mathematical or typographical errors or omissions on the part of the department or the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development in preparation of the list.

(g) For each Medi-Cal day of acute inpatient hospital service paid by or on behalf of the department during a payment adjustment year, regardless of dates of service, to a hospital on the applicable disproportionate share list, where that hospital, on the first day of the payment adjustment year, is a major teaching hospital, the hospital shall be paid the sum of all of the following amounts, except as limited by other applicable provisions of this section:

(1) A minimum payment adjustment of three hundred dollars ($300).

(2) The sum of the following amounts, minus three hundred dollars ($300):

(A) A ninety dollar ($90) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 25 percent to 29 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(B) A seventy dollar ($70) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 30 percent to 34 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(C) A fifty dollar ($50) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 35 percent to 44 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(D) A thirty dollar ($30) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 45 percent to 64 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(E) A ten dollar ($10) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 65 percent to 80 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(3) If the sum calculated under paragraph (2) is less than zero, it shall be disregarded for payment purposes.

(h) For each Medi-Cal day of acute inpatient hospital service paid by or on behalf of the department during a payment adjustment year, regardless of dates of service, to a hospital on the applicable disproportionate share list, where that hospital, on the first day of the payment adjustment year, is a children's hospital, the hospital shall be paid the sum of four hundred fifty dollars ($450), except as limited by other applicable provisions of this section.

(i) For each Medi-Cal day of acute inpatient hospital service paid by or on behalf of the department during a payment adjustment year, regardless of dates of service, to a hospital on the applicable disproportionate share list, where that hospital, on the first day of the payment adjustment year, is an acute psychiatric hospital or an alcohol-drug rehabilitation hospital, the hospital shall be paid the sum of all of the following amounts, except as limited by other applicable provisions of this section:

(1) A minimum payment adjustment of fifty dollars ($50).

(2) The sum of the following amounts, minus fifty dollars ($50):

(A) A ten dollar ($10) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 25 to 29 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(B) A seven dollar ($7) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 30 to 34 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(C) A five dollar ($5) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 35 to 44 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(D) A two dollar ($2) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 45 to 64 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(E) A one dollar ($1) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 65 to 80 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(3) If the sum calculated under paragraph (2) is less than zero, it shall be disregarded for payment purposes.

(j) For each Medi-Cal day of acute inpatient hospital service paid by or on behalf of the department during a payment adjustment year, regardless of dates of service, to a hospital on the applicable disproportionate share list, where that hospital does not meet the criteria for receiving payments under subdivision (g), (h), or (i) above, the hospital shall be paid the sum of all of the following amounts, except as limited by other applicable provisions of this section:

(1) A minimum payment adjustment of one hundred dollars ($100).

(2) If the hospital is an emergency services hospital at the time the payment adjustment is paid, a two hundred dollar ($200) payment adjustment.

(3) The sum of the following amounts minus one hundred dollars ($100), and minus an additional two hundred dollars ($200) if the hospital is an emergency services hospital at the time the payment adjustment is paid:

(A) A forty dollar ($40) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 25 percent to 29 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(B) A thirty-five dollar ($35) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 30 percent to 34 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(C) A thirty dollar ($30) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 35 percent to 44 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(D) A twenty dollar ($20) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 45 percent to 64 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(E) A fifteen dollar ($15) payment adjustment for each percentage point, from 65 percent to 80 percent, inclusive, of the hospital's low-income number as shown on the disproportionate share list.

(4) If the sum calculated under paragraph (3) is less than zero, it shall be disregarded for payment purposes.

(k) (1) For any particular payment adjustment year, no hospital may qualify for payments under more than one subdivision among subdivisions (g), (h), (i), and (j). If any hospital qualifies under more than one subdivision, the department shall determine which subdivision shall apply for payments.

(2) For each payment adjustment year beginning with 1992–93, the total applicable per diem payment adjustment amount calculated for each eligible hospital pursuant to subdivision (g), (h), (i), or (j) shall be adjusted by a percentage identical to the percentage increase in transfer amounts that the department has authorized for use pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) of Section 14163 for the particular fiscal year.

(3) If an eligible hospital ordinarily is paid by or on behalf of the department for Medi-Cal acute inpatient hospital services based on a payment methodology other than per diem payments, the eligible hospital shall receive payment adjustment amounts under this section based on its approved Medi-Cal days of acute inpatient hospital care, in the same fashion as all other eligible hospitals under this section.

(l) (1) In determining Medi-Cal days of service for purposes of payment adjustments under this section, the department shall recognize all acute inpatient hospital days of service required to be taken into account under federal law.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), there shall be, for each eligible hospital, a maximum limit on the number of Medi-Cal acute inpatient hospital days for which payment adjustment amounts may be paid under this section with respect to each payment adjustment year. The maximum limit shall be that number of days that equals 80 percent of the eligible hospital's annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days, as determined from all Medi-Cal paid claims records available through April 1 preceding the beginning of the payment adjustment year.

(m) No payment rate for any service rendered by any hospital under the Medi-Cal selective provider contracting program shall be reduced as a result of this section.

(n) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, to the extent consistent with Section 1396a(h) of Title 42 of the United States Code, and except as provided by this section, no maximum payment limit shall be placed on the amount of Medi-Cal payment adjustments which may be made to disproportionate share hospitals. The payments made to disproportionate share hospitals pursuant to this section and Section 14105.99 shall not cause any other amounts paid or payable to a hospital to be deemed in excess of any applicable maximum payment limit.

(o) The department shall promptly seek any necessary federal approvals in order to implement this section. Pursuant to Section 1396r-4 of Title 42 of the United States Code, and related federal medicaid statutes and regulations, payment adjustment systems for inpatient hospital services rendered by disproportionate share hospitals shall be included in a state's medicaid plan. Therefore, the department shall, prior to the end of the calendar quarter during which this section is enacted, submit for federal approval an amendment to the Medi-Cal State Plan in connection with the payment adjustment program.

(p) If, for any payment adjustment year, the amounts in the fund, when matched by federal funds pursuant to customary Medi-Cal accounting procedures, are insufficient to pay some or all of the payment adjustment amounts otherwise due under this section, payment adjustment amounts shall be reduced in accordance with the following paragraphs to resolve the insufficiency.

(1) All payment adjustment amounts for the entire payment adjustment year shall be reduced proportionately not to exceed 2 percent of the total payment adjustment amounts which otherwise would have been paid for the entire payment adjustment year.

(2) If the payment reductions authorized by paragraph (1) do not resolve the insufficiency for the payment adjustment year, then, to the extent permitted by federal law, the following shall apply:

(A) The payment adjustment amounts, as reduced by paragraph 1, shall remain in effect for each eligible hospital whose low-income number is 30 percent or more.

(B) The payment adjustment amounts, as reduced by paragraph (1), for all other eligible hospitals shall be further reduced proportionately to resolve the insufficiency, but in no event to a level which would result in total payments to the eligible hospital in an amount less than 65 percent of the total payment adjustment amounts which would have been payable to the eligible hospital for the entire payment adjustment year had no reductions taken place.

(3) If the steps set forth in paragraph (2) are not permissible under federal law, or are not adequate to resolve the insufficiency, the payments to all eligible hospitals for the entire payment adjustment year shall be further reduced proportionately to resolve the insufficiency, but in no event to a level which would result in total payments to the eligible hospital in an amount less than 65 percent of the total payment adjustment amounts which would have been payable to the eligible hospital for the entire payment adjustment year had no reductions taken place.

(4) At such time as all eligible hospitals have been reduced to the 65 percent payment level set forth in paragraphs (2) and (3), the payments to all eligible hospitals for the payment adjustment year shall be further reduced proportionately to resolve any remaining insufficiency.

(q) (1) If it is necessary to apply the provisions of paragraph (3) of subdivision (p) at any time, the department shall, as soon as practicable, evaluate why the insufficiency arose and identify the projected occurrence and duration of any future insufficiencies.

(2) If the department determines as a result of the evaluations under paragraph (1) that (A) implementation of paragraph (3) of subdivision (p) will likely be necessary to resolve additional insufficiencies for the current payment adjustment year or the next payment adjustment year; and (B) that the level of federal financial participation realized by the payment adjustment program, for the current payment adjustment year as a whole, will be less than 30 percent of the percentage of federal financial participation that normally is applicable for Medi-Cal expenditures for acute inpatient hospital services, and that the level of federal financial participation for the payment adjustment program is expected to continue to remain below that 30 percent level for the next payment adjustment year as a whole, the department shall, as soon as practicable, implement paragraphs (3) and (4).

(3) If the department determines that the circumstances described in paragraph (2) are present, the payment adjustment program shall be terminated, effective as of the earliest date permissible under federal law. In that event, all installment payments to the fund which are already due pursuant to Section

14163 at the time of the department's determination shall remain due, and shall be collected by the Controller. However, installment payments which are not yet due at that time shall not become due.

(4) Within 90 days after the termination of the payment adjustment program, as referred to in paragraph (3), or as soon as practicable, the department shall determine whether any amounts remain in the fund which are not needed to pay prior payment adjustment amounts under this section. If remaining amounts exist in the fund, they shall be refunded to transferor entities on a pro rata basis, within 45 days after the date of the department's determination.

(r) The state shall be held harmless from any federal disallowance resulting from payments made under this section, and from payments made to hospitals based on transfers accepted by the department under Section 14164. Any hospital that has received payments under this section, or based on transfers accepted by the department under Section 14164 shall be liable for any audit exception or federal disallowance only with respect to the payments made to that hospital. The department shall recoup from a hospital the amount of any audit exception or federal disallowance in the manner authorized by applicable laws and regulations.

(s) (1) The department may utilize existing administrative appeal procedures for purposes of any appealable matter that arises under the payment adjustment program. The matters that may be appealed shall be limited to those related to the following:

(A) Paragraph (5) of subdivision (f).

(B) State audit disallowances of amounts paid to hospitals under the payment adjustment program.

(2) Calculations which are final pursuant to paragraph (4) or (5) of subdivision (f) or the procedures or data on which those calculations are based, shall not be appealed.

SEC. 4. Section 14105.99 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as added by Chapter 279 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

14105.99. (a) For purposes of this section, "Attachment 4.19-A" means the Medi-Cal payment adjustment system for acute inpatient hospital services set forth in Attachment 4.19-A of the Medi-Cal State Plan which became effective on or about July 1, 1990.

(b) (1) It is the intent of the Legislature that the annual appropriation for, and distribution of, payments pursuant to Attachment 4.19-A shall be reduced as a result of the payment adjustment program set forth in Section 14105.98, but only when federal approval, as described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 14105.98, is gained for that payment adjustment program.

(2) When the payment adjustment program set forth in Section 14105.98 gains federal approval, Attachment 4.19-A shall become inoperative and any appropriated amount for Attachment 4.19-A that is unexpended shall revert to the Health Care Deposit Fund for use in support of the Medi-Cal program.

SEC. 5. Section 14163 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as added by Chapter 279 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

14163. (a) For purposes of this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Public entity" means a county, a city, a city and county, the University of California, a local hospital district, a local health authority, or any other political subdivision of the state.

(2) "Hospital" means a health facility that is licensed pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code to provide acute inpatient hospital services, and includes all components of the facility.

(3) "Disproportionate share hospital" means a hospital providing acute inpatient services to Medi-Cal beneficiaries that meets the criteria for disproportionate share status relating to acute inpatient services set forth in Section 14105.98.

(4) "Disproportionate share list" means the annual list of disproportionate share hospitals for acute inpatient services issued by the department pursuant to Section 14105.98.

(5) "Fund" means the Medi-Cal Inpatient Payment Adjustment Fund.

(6) "Eligible hospital" means, for a particular state fiscal year, a hospital on the disproportionate share list that is eligible to receive payment adjustment amounts under Section 14105.98 during that state fiscal year.

(7) "Transfer year" means the particular state fiscal year during which public entities are required by this section to make an intergovernmental transfer of funds to the Controller.

(8) "Transferor entity" means a public entity that, for a particular transfer year, is required by this section to make an intergovernmental transfer of funds to the Controller.

(9) "Transfer amount" means the amount of the intergovernmental transfer of funds that this section requires for a particular transferor entity for a particular transfer year.

(10) "Intergovernmental transfer" means a transfer of funds from a public entity to the state, that is local government financial participation in Medi-Cal pursuant to the terms of this section.

(11) "Licensee" means an entity that has been issued a license to operate a hospital by the department.

(12) "Annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days" means the total number of Medi-Cal acute inpatient hospital days, regardless of dates of service, for which payment was made by or on behalf of the department to a hospital, under present or previous ownership, during the most recent calendar year ending prior to the beginning of a particular transfer year, including all Medi-Cal acute inpatient covered days of care for hospitals which are paid on a different basis than per diem payments.

(b) The Medi-Cal Inpatient Payment Adjustment Fund is hereby created in the State Treasury. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, the fund shall be continuously appropriated to, and under the administrative control of, the department for the purposes specified in subdivision (d). The fund shall consist of the following:

(1) Transfer amounts collected by the Controller under this section, whether submitted by transferor entities pursuant to subdivision (i) or obtained by offset pursuant to subdivision (j).

(2) Any other intergovernmental transfers deposited in the fund, as permitted by Section 14164.

(3) Any interest that accrues with respect to amounts in the fund.

(c) Moneys in the fund, which shall not consist of any state general funds, shall be used as the source for the nonfederal share of payments to hospitals pursuant to Section 14105.98. Moneys shall be allocated from the fund by the department and matched by federal funds in accordance with customary Medi-Cal accounting procedures, and used to make payments pursuant to Section 14105.98.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in Section 14105.98 or in any provision of law appropriating a specified sum of money to the department for administering this section and Section 14105.98, moneys in the fund shall be used only for the following:

(1) Payments to hospitals pursuant to Section 14105.98.

(2) Transfers to the Health Care Deposit Fund in an amount equal to 8.608 percent of all transfer amounts deposited in the fund, the amount to be determined on a fiscal year basis. These transfers from the fund shall be made on a monthly basis to the Medi-Cal local assistance appropriation item (Item 4260-101-001 of the annual Budget Act) in support of Medi-Cal expenditures. The amount of these transfers to the Health Care Deposit Fund shall be reduced in the same fashion, and by identical reduction percentages as any reduction of payment adjustment which arises under paragraphs (1) and (3) of subdivision (p) of Section 14105.98.

(e) For the 1991–92 state fiscal year, the department shall determine, no later than 70 days after the enactment of this section, the transferor entities for the 1991–92 transfer year. To make this determination, the department shall utilize the disproportionate share list for the 1991–92 fiscal year, which shall be issued by the department no later than 65 days after the enactment of this section, pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 14105.98. The department shall identify each eligible hospital on the list for which a public entity is the licensee as of July 1, 1991. The public entity that is the licensee of each identified eligible hospital shall be a transferor entity for the 1991–92 transfer year.

(f) The department shall determine, no later than 70 days after the enactment of this section, the transfer amounts for the 1991–92 transfer year. The transfer amounts shall be determined as follows:

(1) The eligible hospitals for 1991–92 shall be identified. For each hospital, the applicable total per diem payment adjustment amount under Section 14105.98 for the 1991–92 transfer year shall be computed. This amount shall be multiplied by 80 percent of the eligible hospital's annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days as determined from all Medi-Cal paid claims records available through April 1, 1991. The products of these calculations for all eligible hospitals shall be added together to determine an aggregate sum for the 1991–92 transfer year.

(2) The eligible hospitals for 1991–92 involving transferor entities as licensees shall be identified. For each hospital, the applicable total per diem payment adjustment amount under Section 14105.98 for the 1991–92 transfer year shall be computed. This amount shall be multiplied by 80 percent of the eligible hospital's annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days as determined from all Medi-Cal paid claims records available through April 1, 1991. The products of these calculations for all eligible hospitals with transferor entities as licensees shall be added together to determine an aggregate sum for the 1991–92 transfer year.

(3) The aggregate sum determined under paragraph (1) shall be divided by the aggregate sum determined under paragraph (2), yielding a factor to be utilized in paragraph (4).

(4) The factor determined in paragraph (3) shall be multiplied by the amount determined for each hospital under paragraph (2). The product of this calculation for each hospital in paragraph (2) shall be divided by 1.827, yielding a transfer amount for the particular transferor entity for the transfer year, except as provided by paragraph (5).

(5) Only for the transfer year with respect to which the payment adjustment program set forth in Section 14105.98 first gains federal approval, a reduction in the transfer amount determined pursuant to paragraph (4) shall be applicable under the following circumstances:

(A) To determine any such reduction, the transfer amount determined pursuant to paragraph (4) shall first be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days of the transfer year for which federal approval is effective and the denominator of which is 365.

(B) If the product of the calculation under subparagraph (A) is 80 percent or more of the transfer amount determined under paragraph (4), no reduction of the transfer amount determined under paragraph (4) shall apply.

(C) If the product of the calculation under subparagraph (A) is less than 80 percent of the transfer amount determined under paragraph (4), a reduction shall apply to the transfer amount determined under paragraph (4). The reduction shall be that particular amount which is equal to the difference between (i) the transfer amount determined under paragraph (4) and (ii) the amount calculated under subparagraph (A) divided by 80 percent.

(D) Any reduction of a transfer amount applicable under subparagraph (C) shall be spread equally among the installments referred to in subdivision (i).

(g) For the 1991–92 transfer year, the department shall notify each transferor entity in writing of its applicable transfer amount or amounts no later than 70 days after the enactment of this section, which amount or amounts shall be subject to adjustment pursuant to subdivisions (f) and (i).

(h) For the 1992–93 transfer year and subsequent transfer years, transfer amounts shall be determined in the same procedural manner as set forth in subdivision (f), except:

(1) The department shall use all of the following:

(A) The disproportionate share list applicable to the particular transfer year, which shall be issued no later than five days after the beginning of the transfer year, to determine the eligible hospitals.

(B) The total per diem payment adjustment amounts calculated under Section 14105.98 for the particular transfer year.

(C) Data regarding annualized Medi-Cal inpatient paid days for the most recent calendar year ending prior to the beginning of the particular transfer year, as determined from all Medi-Cal paid claims records available through April 1 preceding the particular transfer year.

(D) The status of public entities as licensees of eligible hospitals as of July 1 of the particular transfer year.

Further, the transfer amounts calculated by the department may be increased by a percentage amount consistent with the Medi-Cal State Plan.

(2) The department shall prepare preliminary analyses and calculations regarding potential transfer amounts, and potential transferor entities shall be notified by the department of estimated transfer amounts, at least 60 days before the beginning of the particular transfer year. Written notices of transfer amounts shall be issued no later than five days after the beginning of the particular transfer year. All state agencies shall take all necessary steps in order to supply applicable data to the department to meet these deadlines. The Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall provide to the department, no later than March 1 of each year, the data specified by the department, as the data existed on the statewide data base file as of February 1 of each year (except that for the 1991–92 transfer year, the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall provide data as it existed on the statewide data base file as of August 30, 1991), from all of the following:

(A) Hospital annual disclosure reports, filed with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development pursuant to Section 443.31 of the Health and Safety Code, for hospital fiscal years which ended during the calendar year ending 13 months prior to the applicable February 1.

(B) Annual reports of hospitals, filed with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development pursuant to Section 439.2 of the Health and Safety Code, for the calendar year ending 13 months prior to the applicable February 1.

(C) Hospital patient discharge data reports, filed with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 443.31 of the Health and Safety Code, for the calendar year ending 13 months prior to the applicable February 1.

(D) Any other materials on file with the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development.

(i) (1) For the 1991–92 transfer year, each transferor entity shall pay its transfer amount or amounts to the Controller, for deposit in the fund, in eight equal installments. Except as provided below, the first installment shall accrue on July 25, 1991, and all other installments shall accrue on the 5th day of each month thereafter from August through February.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), no installment shall be payable to the Controller until that date which is 20 days after the department notifies the transferor entity in writing that the payment adjustment program set forth in Section 14105.98 has gained federal approval as part of the Medi-Cal program. For purposes of this section, federal approval requires both (i) approval by appropriate federal agencies of an amendment to the Medi-Cal State Plan, as referred to in subdivision (o) of Section 14105.98, and (ii) confirmation by appropriate federal agencies regarding the availability of federal financial participation for the payment adjustment program set forth in Section 14105.98 at a level of at least 40 percent of the percentage of federal financial participation that is normally applicable for Medi-Cal expenditures for acute inpatient hospital services.

(3) If any installment that would otherwise be payable under paragraph (1) is not paid because of the provisions of paragraph (2), then subparagraphs (A) and (B) shall be followed when federal approval is gained.

(A) All installments that were deferred based on the provisions of paragraph (2) shall be paid no later than 20 days after the department notifies the transferor entity in writing that federal approval has been gained, in an amount consistent with subparagraph (B).

(B) The installments paid pursuant to subparagraph (A) shall be paid in full, subject to an adjustment in amount pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (f).

(4) All installments for the 1991–92 transfer year that arise in months after federal approval is gained shall be paid by the 5th day of the month or 20 days after the department notifies the transferor entity in writing that federal approval has been gained, whichever is later. These installments shall be subject to an adjustment in amount pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (f).

(5) For the 1992–93 transfer year and subsequent transfer years, each transferor entity shall pay its transfer amount or amounts to the Controller, for deposit in the fund, in eight equal installments. The first installment shall be payable on July 10 of each transfer year. All other installments shall be payable on the 5th day of each month thereafter from August through February.

(6) A transferor entity may use any of the following funds for purposes of meeting its transfer obligations under this section:

(A) General funds of the transferor entity.

(B) Any other funds permitted by law to be used for these purposes, except that a transferor entity shall not submit to the Controller any federal funds unless those federal funds are authorized by federal law to be used to match other federal funds. In addition, no private donated funds from any health care provider, or from any person or organization affiliated with such a health care provider, shall be channeled through a transferor entity or any other public entity to the fund. The transferor entity shall be responsible for determining that funds transferred meet the requirements of this subparagraph.

(j) If a transferor entity does not submit any transfer amount within the time period specified in this section, the Controller shall offset immediately the amount owed against any funds which otherwise would be payable by the state to the transferor entity. The Controller, however, shall not impose an offset against any particular funds payable to the transferor entity where the offset would violate state or federal law.

(k) All amounts received by the Controller pursuant to subdivision (i), or offset by the Controller pursuant to subdivision (j), shall immediately be deposited in the fund.

(l) For purposes of this section, the disproportionate share list utilized by the department for a particular transfer year shall be identical to the disproportionate share list utilized by the department for the same state fiscal year for purposes of Section 14105.98. Nothing on a disproportionate share list, once issued by the department, shall be modified for any reason other than mathematical or typographical errors or omissions on the part of the department or the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development in preparation of the list.

(m) Neither the intergovernmental transfers required by this section, nor any elective transfer made pursuant to Section 14164, shall create, lead to, or expand the health care funding or service obligations for current or future years for any transferor entity, except as required of the state by this section or as may be required by federal law, in which case the state shall be held harmless by the transferor entities on a pro rata basis.

(n) No amount submitted to the Controller pursuant to subdivision (i), or offset by the Controller pursuant to subdivision (j), shall be claimed or recognized as an allowable element of cost in Medi-Cal cost reports submitted to the department.

SEC. 6. Section 18920 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

18920. (a) (1) The department may conduct three pilot projects, to be located in the Counties of Los Angeles, Merced, and Santa Clara, upon approval of the department and the participating counties. The pilot projects shall test the reporting systems described in subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C) of paragraph (4).

(2) (A) The pilot project conducted in Los Angeles County shall test one or both of the reporting systems described in subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (4). The pilot project population in Los Angeles County shall be limited to 10,000 cases for each test.

(B) The pilot projects in the other counties shall test one of the reporting systems described in subparagraphs (A) and (C) of paragraph (4) and shall be limited to 2,000 cases per project.

(3) (A) The pilot projects shall be designed and conducted according to standard scientific principles, and shall be in effect for a period of 24 months.

(B) The projects may be extended an additional year upon the approval of the department.

(C) The projects shall be designed to compare the monthly reporting system with alternatives described in paragraph (4) as to the phenomena described in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 11265.5.

(4) The pilot projects shall adopt reporting systems providing for one or more of the following:

(A) A reporting system that requires households with no income, other than grants issued by the county welfare department, or whose only income is comprised of old age, survivors, and disability insurance benefits administered pursuant to Subchapter 2 (commencing with Section 401) of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code, and with no recent work history, to report changes in circumstances that affected eligibility and benefit amount as changes occur. These changes shall be reported directly to the county welfare department in person, in writing, or by telephone. In all cases in which monthly reporting is not required, a form advising recipients of what changes must be reported, and how they may be reported, shall be provided to recipients of aid along with benefit payments each month.

(B) A reporting system that permits households with no income, other than grants issued by the county welfare department, or whose only income is comprised of old age, survivors, and disability insurance benefits administered pursuant to Subchapter 2 (commencing with Section 401) of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code, and with no changes in eligibility criteria, to report electronically monthly, using either an audio response system or the food stamp on-line issuance and recording system, or a combination of both. Adequate instruction and training shall be provided to county welfare department staff and to recipients who choose to use this system prior to its implementation.

(C) A reporting system that requires all households to report changes in circumstances that affect eligibility and benefit amount as changes occur. These changes shall be reported directly to the county welfare department in person, in writing, or by telephone. In all cases in which monthly reporting is not required, a form advising recipients of what changes must be reported, and how they may be reported, shall be provided to recipients of aid along with benefit payments each month.

(b) (1) The participating counties shall be responsible for preparing federal demonstration project proposals, to be submitted by the department. If federal approvals or waivers are necessary to implement the proposals, the department shall seek these approvals and waivers from the appropriate federal agency. The development, operation, and evaluation of the pilot projects shall not result in an increase in the state allocation of county administrative funds.

(1.5) The pilot counties shall prepare and submit quarterly reports, annual reports, and a final report to the department.

(2) Each quarterly report shall be submitted no later than 30 calendar days after the end of the quarter.

(3) Each annual report shall be submitted no later than 45 days after the end of the year.

(4) (A) Each pilot county shall submit a final report not later than 90 days following completion of the pilot projects required by this section and Section 11265.5.

(B) (i) The final reports shall each include an evaluation of the pilot project based on an analysis of the factors set forth in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) compared to each other, to the current reporting systems in the AFDC and Food Stamp programs and any additional factors as determined by the department. The final evaluation shall be prepared by an independent consultant or consultants contracted with for that purpose prior to the commencing of the projects.

(ii) Each evaluation shall include, but not be limited to, an analysis of the factors set forth in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 11265.5 compared to each other and the current reporting systems in both the AFDC and food stamp programs.

(C) The department shall review and approve the evaluations submitted by the pilot counties and shall submit them to the appropriate policy and fiscal committees of the Legislature.

(c) (1) The director may, by formal order, waive the enforcement of specific statutory requirements, regulations, and standards in one or more counties, as required for the implementation of the pilot projects.

(2) Any waiver under paragraph (1) shall meet all of the following requirements:

(A) It shall not conflict with the basic purposes, coverage, or benefits provided by law.

(B) It shall not be general in scope, but shall apply only to this project.

(C) It shall apply only during the authorized period during which the pilot projects are implemented under this section, not to exceed a period of three years.

(D) It shall provide alternative methods and procedures of administration.

(E) It shall not reduce the amount of benefits to which recipients would otherwise be entitled under the Food Stamp Program.

(F) It shall not take effect unless and until the appropriate federal agency has agreed to waive the federal requirements for the same project.

(d) The department may terminate any or all of the pilot projects implemented pursuant to this section after a period of six months of operation if one or more of the pilot counties submits data to the department, or information is otherwise received, indicating that the pilot project or projects are not cost-effective or adversely impact recipients or county or state operations based on the factors set forth in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a).

(e) The pilot projects shall be implemented only upon receipt of the appropriate federal waivers.

SEC. 7. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if any disproportionate share hospital ceases to provide acute inpatient hospital services during or before the calendar quarter in which the effective date falls, for federal purposes, for the payment adjustment program set forth in Section 14105.98 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the obligation of the public entity that operated the disproportionate share hospital to transfer funds to the Medi-Cal Inpatient Payment Adjustment Fund in connection with the 1991–92 fiscal year shall be waived.

SEC. 8. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure that sufficient funding is available to compensate disproportionate share hospitals for vital health care services during the 1991–92 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1047

An act to amend Section 19577 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19577 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19577. (a) Any blood, urine, saliva, or any other test sample required by the board to be taken from a horse that is entered in any race shall be taken in duplicate if there is a sufficient test sample available after the official test sample has been taken. One sample shall be sent to the official racing laboratory approved and designated by the board, and the duplicate sample shall be sent to an independent laboratory participating in the National Association of State Racing Commissioners Laboratory Quality Assurance Program. The board shall adopt regulations to ensure the security of obtaining all samples and the testing of those samples. If the official test sample tests positive for medication, the steward shall inform the trainer and the owner of those results. The trainer or the owner of the horse, upon being so informed, or the steward, may request that the duplicate sample be tested.

(b) The requesting party shall pay the testing costs of the duplicate sample.

(c) The steward of the race meeting where the sample was taken is in charge of handling and testing the sample until the steward refers the matter to the board. Except as provided in subdivision (a), the results of the tests from the official racing laboratory and the independent laboratory shall be confidential until the matter is referred to the board.

(d) If the test results from the independent laboratory are negative, a presumption affecting the burden of producing evidence pursuant to Section 603 of the Evidence Code of no evidentiary medication in the animal shall exist for purposes of this chapter.

CHAPTER 1048

An act to amend Section 14602 of, and to add Section 14602.1 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to driving offenses.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Royce-Thompson Police and Bystander Protection and Safe Pursuit Act.

SEC. 2. Section 14602 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

14602. (a) (1) Whenever a person is convicted of any of the following offenses committed while driving a motor vehicle of which he or she is the owner, the court, at the time sentence is imposed on the person, may order the motor vehicle impounded for a period of not more than six months for a first conviction, and not more than 12 months for a second or subsequent conviction:

(A) Driving with a suspended or revoked driver's license.

(B) A violation of Section 2800.2 resulting in an accident or Section 2800.3, if either violation occurred within seven years of one or more separate convictions for a violation of any of the following:

(i) Section 23103, if the vehicle involved in the violation was driven at a speed of 100 or more miles per hour.

(ii) Section 23152.

(iii) Section 23153.

(iv) Section 191.5 of the Penal Code.

(v) Subdivision (c) of Section 192 of the Penal Code.

(2) The cost of keeping the vehicle is a lien on the vehicle pursuant to Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 3067) of Title 14 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), any motor vehicle impounded pursuant to this section which is subject to a chattel mortgage, conditional sale contract, or lease contract shall be released by the court to the legal owner upon the filing of an affidavit by the legal owner that the chattel mortgage, conditional sale contract, or lease contract is in default and shall be delivered to the legal owner upon payment of the accrued cost of keeping the vehicle.

SEC. 2. Section 14602.1 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

14602.1. (a) Every state and local law enforcement agency, including, but not limited to, city police departments and county sheriffs' offices, shall report to the Department of the California Highway Patrol, on a form approved by that department, all vehicle pursuit data, which shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Whether any person involved in a pursuit or a subsequent arrest was injured, specifying the nature of that injury.

(2) The violations which caused the pursuit to be initiated.

(3) The identity of the officers involved in the pursuit.

(4) The means or methods used to stop the suspect being pursued.

(5) The charges filed with the court by the district attorney.

(b) The Department of the California Highway Patrol shall compile these statistics and make this information available to the Legislature upon request.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code for costs mandated by the state pursuant to this act. It is recognized, however, that a local agency or school district may pursue any remedies to obtain reimbursement available to it under Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) and any other provisions of law. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 7471 of the Government Code, and to amend Sections 186.2, 186.10, 14165, and 14167 of the Penal Code, relating to money laundering.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7471 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7471. (a) Except in accordance with requirements of Title 11 (commencing with Section 14160) of Part 4 of the Penal Code or Section 7473, 7474, 7475, or 7476 of this code, no financial institution, or any director, officer, employee, or agent of a financial institution, may provide or authorize another to provide to an officer, employee, or agent of a state or local agency or department thereof, any financial records, copies thereof, or the information contained therein, if the director, officer, employee, or agent of the financial institution knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the financial records or information are being requested in connection with a civil or criminal investigation of the customer, whether or not an investigation is being conducted pursuant to formal judicial or administrative proceedings.

(b) This section is not intended to prohibit disclosure of the financial records of a customer or the information contained therein incidental to a transaction in the normal course of business of a financial institution if the director, officer, employee, or agent thereof making or authorizing the disclosure has no reasonable cause to believe that the financial records or the information contained in the financial records so disclosed will be used by a state or local agency or department thereof in connection with an investigation of the customer, whether or not an investigation is being conducted pursuant to formal judicial or administrative proceedings.

(c) This section shall not preclude a financial institution, in its discretion, from initiating contact with, and thereafter communicating with and disclosing customer financial records to, appropriate state or local agencies concerning suspected violation of any law.

(d) A financial institution which refuses to disclose the financial records of a customer, copies thereof or the information contained therein, in reliance in good faith upon the prohibitions of subdivision (a) shall not be liable to its customer, to a state or local agency, or to any other person for any loss or damage caused in whole or in part by the refusal.

(e) This section shall remain in effect until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes or extends that date. If that date is not deleted or extended, then, on and after January 1, 1997, pursuant to Section 9611, Section 7471, as added by Section 5 of Chapter 1320 of the Statutes of 1976, shall have the same force and effect as if this temporary provision had not been enacted.

SEC. 2. Section 186.2 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 4 of Chapter 930 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

186.2. For purposes of the application of this chapter, the following definitions shall govern:

(a) "Criminal profiteering activity" means any act committed or attempted or any threat made for financial gain or advantage, which act or threat may be charged as a crime under any of the following sections:

(1) Arson, as defined in Section 451.

(2) Bribery, as defined in Sections 67, 67.5, and 68.

(3) Child pornography or exploitation, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 311.2, or Section 311.3 or 311.4, which may be prosecuted as a felony.

(4) Felonious assault, as defined in Section 245.

(5) Embezzlement, as defined in Sections 424 and 503.

(6) Extortion, as defined in Section 518.

(7) Forgery, as defined in Section 470.

(8) Gambling, as defined in Sections 337a to 337f, inclusive, and Section 337i, except the activities of a person who participates solely as an individual bettor.

(9) Kidnapping, as defined in Section 207.

(10) Mayhem, as defined in Section 203.

(11) Murder, as defined in Section 187.

(12) Pimping and pandering, as defined in Section 266.

(13) Receiving stolen property, as defined in Section 496.

(14) Robbery, as defined in Section 211.

(15) Solicitation of crimes, as defined in Section 653f.

(16) Grand theft, as defined in Section 487.

(17) Theft or taking of any motor vehicle, trailer, or vessel as described in Section 487h of this code or any vehicle as described in Section 10851 of the Vehicle Code.

(18) Trafficking in controlled substances, as defined in Sections 11351, 11352, and 11353 of the Health and Safety Code.

(19) Violation of the laws governing corporate securities, as defined in Section 25541 of the Corporations Code.

(20) Any of the offenses contained in Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 311) of Title 9, relating to obscene matter, or in Chapter 7.6 (commencing with Section 313) of Title 9, relating to harmful matter which may be prosecuted as a felony.

(21) Presentation of a false or fraudulent claim, as defined in Section 556 of the Insurance Code.

(22) Money laundering, as defined in Section 186.10.

(23) Conspiracy to commit any of the crimes listed above, as defined in Section 182.

(b) "Pattern of criminal profiteering activity" means engaging in at least two incidents of criminal profiteering, as defined by this act, which meet the following requirements:

(1) Have the same or a similar purpose, result, principals, victims or methods of commission, or are otherwise interrelated by distinguishing characteristics.

(2) Are not isolated events.

(3) Were committed as a criminal activity of organized crime.

Acts which would constitute a "pattern of criminal profiteering activity" may not be used by a prosecuting agency to seek the remedies provided by this chapter unless the underlying offense occurred after the effective date of this chapter and the prior act occurred within 10 years, excluding any period of imprisonment, of the commission of the underlying offense. A prior act may not be used by a prosecuting agency to seek remedies provided by this chapter if a prosecution for that act resulted in an acquittal.

(c) "Prosecuting agency" means the Attorney General or the district attorney of any county.

(d) "Organized crime" means crime which is of a conspiratorial and (1) organized nature and which seeks to supply illegal goods and services such as narcotics, prostitution, loan sharking, gambling, and pornography or, (2) through planning and coordination of individual efforts, to conduct the illegal activities of arson for profit, hijacking, insurance fraud, smuggling, operating vehicle theft rings, or systematically encumbering the assets of a business for the purpose of defrauding creditors.

(e) "Underlying offense" means an offense enumerated in subdivision (a) for which the defendant is being prosecuted.

(f) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 186.2 of the Penal Code, as added by Section 4.1 of Chapter 930 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

186.2. For purposes of the application of this chapter, the following definitions shall govern:

(a) "Criminal profiteering activity" means any act committed or attempted or any threat made for financial gain or advantage, which act or threat may be charged as a crime under any of the following sections:

(1) Arson, as defined in Section 451.

(2) Bribery, as defined in Sections 67, 67.5, and 68.

(3) Child pornography or exploitation, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 311.2, or Section 311.3 or 311.4, which may be prosecuted as a felony.

(4) Felonious assault, as defined in Section 245.

(5) Embezzlement, as defined in Sections 424 and 503.

(6) Extortion, as defined in Section 518.

(7) Forgery, as defined in Section 470.

(8) Gambling, as defined in Sections 337a to 337f, inclusive, and

Section 337i, except the activities of a person who participates solely as an individual bettor.

(9) Kidnapping, as defined in Section 207.

(10) Mayhem, as defined in Section 203.

(11) Murder, as defined in Section 187.

(12) Pimping and pandering, as defined in Section 266.

(13) Receiving stolen property, as defined in Section 496.

(14) Robbery, as defined in Section 211.

(15) Solicitation of crimes, as defined in Section 653f.

(16) Grand theft, as defined in Section 487.

(17) Trafficking in controlled substances, as defined in Sections 11351, 11352, and 11353 of the Health and Safety Code.

(18) Violation of the laws governing corporate securities, as defined in Section 25541 of the Corporations Code.

(19) Any of the offenses contained in Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 311) of Title 9, relating to obscene matter, or in Chapter 7.6 (commencing with Section 313) of Title 9, relating to harmful matter which may be prosecuted as a felony.

(20) Presentation of a false or fraudulent claim, as defined in Section 556 of the Insurance Code.

(21) Money laundering, as defined in Section 186.10.

(22) Conspiracy to commit any of the crimes listed above, as defined in Section 182.

(b) "Pattern of criminal profiteering activity" means engaging in at least two incidents of criminal profiteering, as defined by this act, which meet the following requirements:

(1) Have the same or a similar purpose, result, principals, victims or methods of commission, or are otherwise interrelated by distinguishing characteristics.

(2) Are not isolated events.

(3) Were committed as a criminal activity of organized crime.

Acts which would constitute a "pattern of criminal profiteering activity" may not be used by a prosecuting agency to seek the remedies provided by this chapter unless the underlying offense occurred after the effective date of this chapter and the prior act occurred within 10 years, excluding any period of imprisonment, of the commission of the underlying offense. A prior act may not be used by a prosecuting agency to seek remedies provided by this chapter if a prosecution for that act resulted in an acquittal.

(c) "Prosecuting agency" means the Attorney General or the district attorney of any county.

(d) "Organized crime" means crime which is of a conspiratorial and (1) organized nature and which seeks to supply illegal goods and services such as narcotics, prostitution, loan sharking, gambling, and pornography or, (2) through planning and coordination of individual efforts, to conduct the illegal activities of arson for profit, hijacking, insurance fraud, smuggling, operating vehicle theft rings, or systematically encumbering the assets of a business for the purpose of defrauding creditors.

(e) "Underlying offense" means an offense enumerated in subdivision (a) for which the defendant is being prosecuted.

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1993.

SEC. 4. Section 186.10 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

186.10. (a) Any person who conducts or attempts to conduct a transaction involving a monetary instrument or instruments of a value exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000) through a financial institution (1) with the intent to promote, manage, establish, carry on, or facilitate the promotion, management, establishment, or carrying on of any criminal activity, or (2) knowing that the monetary instrument represents the proceeds of, or is derived directly or indirectly from the proceeds of, criminal activity, is guilty of the crime of money laundering. In consideration of the constitutional right to counsel afforded by the Sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution and Section 15 of Article 1 of the California Constitution, when a case involves an attorney who accepts a fee for representing a client in a criminal investigation or proceeding, the prosecution shall additionally be required to prove that the monetary instrument was accepted by the attorney with the intent to disguise or aid in disguising the source of the funds or the nature of the criminal activity.

A violation of this section shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or in the state prison, by a fine of not more than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) or twice the value of the property transacted, whichever is greater, or by both that imprisonment and fine. However, for a second or subsequent conviction for a violation of this section, the maximum fine that may be imposed is five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) or five times the value of the property transacted, whichever is greater.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for purposes of this section, each individual transaction conducted shall constitute a separate, punishable offense.

(c) This chapter shall remain in effect until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 14165 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

14165. (a) The department shall analyze the reports required by Section 14162 and shall report any possible violations indicated by this analysis to the appropriate criminal justice agency.

(b) The department, in the discretion of the Attorney General, may make a report or information contained in a report filed under Section 14162 available to a district attorney or a deputy district attorney in this state, upon request made by the district attorney or his or her designee. The report or information shall be available only for a purpose consistent with this title and subject to regulations prescribed by the Attorney General, which shall require the district attorney or his or her designee seeking the report or information contained in the report to specify in writing the specific reasons for believing that a provision of this title or Section 186.10 has been

(c) The department shall destroy a report filed with it under Section 14162 at the end of the fifth calendar year after receipt of the report, unless either of the following is true:

(1) The report or information contained in the report is known by the department to be the subject of an existing criminal proceeding.

(2) The department has received subsequent reports concerning the person or persons involved in the reported transaction.

If a report is retained beyond five years pursuant to paragraph (2), the department shall destroy the report at the end of the 10th calendar year after receipt of the report, unless the report or information contained in the report is the subject of existing criminal proceedings.

SEC. 6. Section 14167 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

14167. Any report, record, information, analysis, or request obtained by the department or any agency pursuant to this title is not a public record as defined in Section 6252 of the Government Code and is not subject to disclosure under Section 6253 of the Government Code.

This title shall remain in effect until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 7. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to repeal and add Sections 114 and 10586 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to vital statistics, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 114 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 114 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

114. (a) The fees or charges for a record search or for the issuance of any certificate, permit, registration, or any other document pursuant to Sections 26832, 26840, and 26859 of the Government Code, or Sections 10375, 10376.8, 10400, 10420, 10430, 10433.3, 10450, 10455, 10470, 10475, 10500, 10550, 10575, 10585, 10586, 10605, 10606, 10610, 10610.2, 10612, 10613, 10614, 10615, 10616, 10617, 10618, and 10619 of this code, may be adjusted annually by the percentage change determined pursuant to Section 113.

The base amount to be adjusted shall be the statutory base amount of the fee or charge plus the sum of the prior adjustments to the statutory base amount. Whenever the statutory base amount is amended, the base amount shall be the new statutory base amount plus the sum of adjustments to the new statutory base amount calculated subsequent to the statutory base amendment. The actual dollar fee or charge shall be rounded to the next highest whole dollar.

(b) Beginning January 1, 1983, the state department shall annually publish a list of the actual numerical fee charges as adjusted pursuant to this section. This adjustment of fees and the publication of the fee list shall not be subject to the requirements of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 3. Section 10586 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 10586 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

10586. (a) The State Registrar shall, upon request and payment of a fee, as provided in subdivision (c), supply to any applicant a decorative heirloom certificate, as described in subdivision (b), of any marriage registered with that official.

(b) The decorative heirloom certificate issued under subdivision (a) shall be of a distinctive design as determined by the state department and shall include the seal of the State of California and a facsimile of the State Registrar's signature, but shall include no elected official's signature. The certificate shall only contain identification information, as determined by the State Registrar.

(c) The fee required for the decorative heirloom certificate issued pursuant to this section shall be fifteen dollars ($15). The fee shall be utilized to reimburse the state department for the administrative costs of developing, preparing, and providing the decorative heirloom certificate and for a public awareness and advertising program to inform the public of the availability of the decorative heirloom certificate. The fee shall be deposited into the General Fund.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the provisions relating to the issuance of a decorative heirloom marriage certificate by the State Registrar may become operative at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1051

An act to add Section 3344.6 to the Civil Code, and to add Section 115.2 to the Penal Code, relating to campaign materials.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3344.6 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

3344.6. (a) Any candidate for elective office whose election or defeat is expressly advocated in any campaign advertisement which violates subdivision (a) of Section 115.2 of the Penal Code shall have a civil cause of action against any person committing the violation.

(b) If a mass mailing or other printed matter which violates subdivision (a) of Section 115.2 of the Penal Code expressly advocates the election or defeat of more than one candidate, only the candidate or candidates to whom the misstatement or misrepresentation directly relates shall have a civil cause of action pursuant to this section.

(c) Any person bringing a cause of action pursuant to this section may recover damages in an amount of two times the cost of the communication, but not to exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

SEC. 2. Section 115.2 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

115.2. (a) No person shall publish or cause to be published, with actual knowledge, and intent to deceive, any campaign advertisement containing false or fraudulent depictions, or false or fraudulent representations, of official public documents or purported official public documents.

(b) For purposes of this section, "campaign advertisement" means any communication directed to voters by means of a mass mailing as defined in Section 82041.5 of the Government Code, a paid newspaper advertisement, an outdoor advertisement, or any other printed matter, if the expenditures for that communication are required to be reported by Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 84100) of Title 9 of the Government Code.

(c) Any violation of this section is a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail, or by a fine not to exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), or both.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1052

An act to amend Section 4799.13 of the Public Resources Code, relating to forest resources.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4799.13 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

4799.13. (a) There is hereby created in the State Treasury, the Forest Resources Improvement Fund. The moneys in the Forest Resources Improvement Fund may only be expended, when appropriated therefor by the Legislature, for the following purposes:

(1) Forest improvement programs and related administrative costs pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 4790).

(2) Urban forestry programs and related administrative costs pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 4799.06).

(3) Wood energy programs pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 4799.14).

(4) Reimbursing the General Fund for the cost of operation of the state forests administered by the director pursuant to Section 4646.

(5) Cost of operations associated with management of lands held in trust by the state and operated as demonstration state forests by the department pursuant to Section 4646, if those lands are managed so that they produce revenue that offsets, within a reasonable period of time, any costs to the state of managing those lands.

(6) Forest pest research and management, technical transfer, and outreach.

(b) No moneys in the Forest Resources Improvement Fund may be used for the costs of administering the Z'berg-Nejedly Forest Practice Act of 1973 (Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 4511) of Part 2).

(c) The Forest Resources Improvement Fund shall be the depository for all revenue derived from the repayment of loans made or interest received pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 4790) of this part, and the receipts from the sale of forest products, as defined in Section 4638, from the state forests. Ten percent of the net state forest receipts from the sale of forest products, after the General Fund is reimbursed for costs of operating the state forests, is available, when appropriated therefor by the Legislature, for urban forestry programs pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 4799.06) of this part.

(d) The director may accept grants and donations of equipment, seedlings, labor, materials, or funds from any source for the purpose of supporting or facilitating activities undertaken pursuant to this part. Any funds received shall be deposited by the director in the Forest Resources Improvement Fund.

(e) Each proposed expenditure by the department of moneys from the Forest Resources Improvement Fund shall be included as a separate item and scheduled individually in the Budget Bill for each fiscal year for consideration by the Legislature. These appropriations shall be subject to all of the limitations contained in the Budget Bill and to all other fiscal procedures prescribed by law with respect to the expenditure of state funds.

CHAPTER 1053

An act to amend Section 11620 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11620 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11620. The commissioner, after a public hearing, shall approve or issue a reasonable plan for the equitable apportionment, among insurers admitted to transact liability insurance, of those applicants for automobile bodily injury and property damage liability insurance who are in good faith entitled to but are unable to procure that insurance through ordinary methods. The commissioner shall require the payment of five hundred ninety dollars ($590), in advance, as a fee for the filing of amendments to the plan with the commissioner. The commissioner may approve or issue reasonable amendments to the plan if he or she first holds a public hearing to determine whether the amendments are in keeping with the intent and purpose of this section. All such insurers shall subscribe to the plan and its amendments and, subject to Section 11621, participate therein.

Notice of the public hearings required by this section shall be published at least 60 days prior to the hearing or close of the public comment period on the adoption, amendment, or repeal of a regulation, in two newspapers of general circulation, one published in the City and County of San Francisco, and the other published in the City of Los Angeles.

CHAPTER 1054

An act to amend Section 2982 of the Civil Code, to amend Section 18218 of the Financial Code, to amend Section 44020 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 11614, 11713.1, 12103, and 24007.5 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2982 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2982. Every conditional sale contract subject to this chapter shall contain the disclosures required by Regulation Z whether or not Regulation Z applies to the transaction. In addition, to the extent applicable, the contract shall contain the other disclosures and notices required by, and shall satisfy the requirements and limitations of, this section. The disclosures required by subdivision (a) may be itemized or subtotaled to a greater extent than as required by that subdivision and shall be made together and in the sequence set forth in that subdivision. All other disclosures and notices may appear in the contract in any location or sequence and may be combined or interspersed with other provisions of the contract.

(a) The contract shall contain the following disclosures, as applicable, which shall be labeled "itemization of the amount financed":

(1) (A) The cash price, exclusive of document preparation fees, taxes imposed on the sale, pollution control certification fees, and the amount charged for a service contract.

(B) The fee to be retained by the seller for document preparation.

(C) The fee charged by the seller for certifying that the motor vehicle complies with applicable pollution control requirements.

(D) Taxes imposed on the sale.

(E) The amount charged for a service contract.

(F) The total cash price, which is the sum of subparagraphs (A) to (E), inclusive.

(2) An itemization of the amounts to be paid to any public officer for license, certificate of title, motor vehicle smog impact fee, and registration.

(3) The aggregate amount of premiums agreed, upon execution of the contract, to be paid for policies of insurance included in the contract, excluding the amount of any insurance premium included in the finance charge.

(4) The amount of the state fee for issuance of a certificate of compliance, noncompliance, or waiver pursuant to any applicable pollution control statute.

(5) A subtotal representing the sum of the foregoing items.

(6) The amount of the buyer's downpayment itemized to show the following:

(A) The net agreed value of the property being traded in.

(B) The amount of any portion of the downpayment to be deferred until not later than the due date of the second regularly scheduled installment under the contract and which is not subject to a finance charge.

(C) The amount of any manufacturer's rebate applied or to be applied to the downpayment.

(D) The remaining amount paid or to be paid by the buyer as a downpayment.

(7) The amount of any administrative finance charge, labeled "prepaid finance charge."

(8) The difference between item (5) and the sum of items (6) and (7), labeled "amount financed."

(b) No particular terminology is required to disclose the items set forth in subdivision (a) except as expressly provided in that subdivision.

(c) If payment of all or a portion of the downpayment is to be deferred, the deferred payment shall be reflected in the payment schedule disclosed pursuant to Regulation Z.

(d) If the downpayment includes property being traded in, the contract shall contain a brief description of that property.

(e) The contract shall contain the names and addresses of all persons to whom the notice required under Section 2983.2 and permitted under Sections 2983.5 and 2984 is to be sent.

(f) (1) Where the contract includes a finance charge determined on the precomputed basis, the contract shall identify the method of computing the unearned portion of the finance charge in the event of prepayment in full of the buyer's obligation and contain a statement of the amount or method of computation of any charge that may be deducted from the amount of any such unearned finance charge in computing the amount that will be credited to the obligation or refunded to the buyer. The method of computing the unearned portion of the finance charge shall be sufficiently identified with a reference to the actuarial method if the computation will be under that method. The method of computing the unearned portion of the finance charge shall be sufficiently identified with a reference to the Rule of 78's, the sum of the digits, or the sum of the periodic time balances method in all other cases, and those references shall be deemed to be equivalent for disclosure purposes.

(2) Where the contract includes a finance charge which is determined on the simple-interest basis but provides for a minimum finance charge in the event of prepayment in full, the contract shall contain a statement of that fact and the amount of the minimum finance charge or its method of calculation.

(g) (1) Where the contract includes a finance charge which is determined on the precomputed basis and provides that the unearned portion of the finance charge to be refunded upon full prepayment of the contract is to be determined by a method other than actuarial, the contract shall contain a notice, in at least 10-point bold type if the contract is printed, reading as follows: "Notice to buyer: (1) Do not sign this agreement before you read it or if it contains any blank spaces to be filled in. (2) You are entitled to a completely filled-in copy of this agreement. (3) You can prepay the full amount due under this agreement at any time and obtain a partial refund of the finance charge if it is $1 or more. Because of the way the amount of this refund will be figured, the time when you prepay could increase the ultimate cost of credit under this agreement. (4) If you default in the performance of your obligations under this agreement, the vehicle may be repossessed and you may be subject to suit and liability for the unpaid indebtedness evidenced by this agreement."

(2) Where the contract includes a finance charge which is determined on the precomputed basis and provides for the actuarial method for computing the unearned portion of the finance charge upon prepayment in full, the contract shall contain a notice, in at least 10-point bold type if the contract is printed, reading as follows: "Notice to buyer: (1) Do not sign this agreement before you read it or if it contains any blank spaces to be filled in. (2) You are entitled to a completely filled-in copy of this agreement. (3) You can prepay the full amount due under this agreement at any time and obtain a partial refund of the finance charge if it is $1 or more. (4) If you default in the performance of your obligations under this agreement, the vehicle may be repossessed and you may be subject to suit and liability for the unpaid indebtedness evidenced by this agreement."

(3) Where the contract includes a finance charge which is determined on the simple-interest basis, the contract shall contain a notice, in at least 10-point bold type if the contract is printed, reading as follows: "Notice to buyer: (1) Do not sign this agreement before you read it or if it contains any blank spaces to be filled in. (2) You are entitled to a completely filled-in copy of this agreement. (3) You can prepay the full amount due under this agreement at any time. (4) If you default in the performance of your obligations under this agreement, the vehicle may be repossessed and you may be subject to suit and liability for the unpaid indebtedness evidenced by this agreement."

(h) The contract shall contain a notice in at least 8-point bold type, acknowledged by the buyer, that reads as follows:

"If you have a complaint concerning this sale, you should try to resolve it with the seller.

Complaints concerning unfair or deceptive practices or methods by the seller may be referred to the city attorney, the district attorney, or the Department of Motor Vehicles, Division of Compliance, 2570 24th Street, Sacramento, California 95818, or any combination thereof.

After this contract is signed, the seller may not change the financing or payment terms unless you agree in writing to the change. You do not have to agree to any change, and it is an unfair or deceptive practice for the seller to make a unilateral change.

Buyer's Signature"

(i) (1) The contract shall contain an itemization of any insurance included as part of the amount financed disclosed pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) and of any insurance included as part of the finance charge. The itemization shall identify the type of insurance coverage and the premium charged therefor, and, if the insurance expires before the date of the last scheduled installment included in the repayment schedule, the term of the insurance shall be stated.

(2) If any charge for insurance (other than for credit life or disability) is included in the contract balance and disbursement of any part thereof is to be made more than one year after the date of the conditional sale contract, any finance charge on the amount to be disbursed after one year shall be computed from the month the disbursement is to be made to the due date of the last installment under the conditional sale contract.

(j) (1) The dollar amount of the disclosed finance charge shall not exceed the greater of:

(A) (i) One and one-half percent on so much of the unpaid balance as does not exceed two hundred twenty-five dollars ($225), 1⅙ percent on so much of the unpaid balance in excess of two hundred twenty-five dollars ($225) as does not exceed nine hundred dollars ($900), ⅚ of 1 percent on so much of the unpaid balance in excess of nine hundred dollars ($900) as does not exceed one thousand six hundred fifty dollars ($1,650), and $^{13}/_{24}$ of 1 percent on that portion of the unpaid balance which exceeds one thousand six hundred fifty dollars ($1,650), or

(ii) One percent of the entire unpaid balance; multiplied in either case by the number of months (computed on the basis of a full month for any fractional month period in excess of 15 days) elapsing between the date of the contract and the due date of the last installment; or

(B) If the finance charge is determined by the precomputed basis, twenty-five dollars ($25); or

(C) If the finance charge or a portion thereof is determined by the simple-interest basis:

(i) Twenty-five dollars ($25) if the unpaid balance does not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), (ii) fifty dollars ($50) if the unpaid balance exceeds one thousand dollars ($1,000) but does not exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000), or (iii) seventy-five dollars ($75) if the unpaid balance exceeds two thousand dollars ($2,000).

(2) The holder of the contract shall not charge, collect, or receive a finance charge which exceeds the disclosed finance charge, except to the extent (A) caused by the holder's receipt of one or more payments under a contract which provides for determination of the finance charge or a portion thereof on the 365-day basis at a time or times other than as originally scheduled whether or not the parties enter into an agreement pursuant to Section 2982.3, (B) permitted by paragraph (2), (3), or (4) of subdivision (c) of Section 226.17 of Regulation Z, or (C) permitted by subdivisions (a) and (c) of Section 2982.8.

(3) If the finance charge or a portion thereof is determined by the simple-interest basis and the amount of the unpaid balance exceeds five thousand dollars ($5,000), the holder of the contract may, in lieu of its right to a minimum finance charge under subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1), charge, receive, or collect on the date of the contract an administrative finance charge not to exceed seventy-five dollars ($75), provided that the sum of any such administrative finance charge and the portion of the finance charge determined by the simple-interest basis shall not exceed the maximum total finance charge permitted by subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1). Any administrative finance charge which is charged, received, or collected by a holder shall be deemed a finance charge earned on the date of the contract.

(4) When a contract provides for unequal or irregular payments, or payments on other than a monthly basis, the maximum finance charge shall be at the effective rate provided for in paragraph (1), having due regard for the schedule of installments.

(k) The contract may provide that for each installment in default for a period of not less than 10 days the buyer shall pay a delinquency charge in an amount not to exceed in the aggregate 5 percent of the delinquent installment, which amount may be collected only once on any installment regardless of the period during which it remains in default. Payments timely received by the seller under an extension or deferral agreement shall not be subject to a delinquency charge unless the charge is permitted by Section 2982.3. The contract may provide for reasonable collection costs and fees in the event of delinquency.

(l) Notwithstanding any provision of a contract to the contrary, the buyer may pay at any time before maturity the entire indebtedness evidenced by the contract without penalty. In the event of prepayment in full:

(1) If the finance charge was determined on the precomputed basis, the amount required to prepay the contract shall be the outstanding contract balance as of that date, provided, however, that the buyer shall be entitled to a refund credit in the amount of the unearned portion of the finance charge, except as provided in paragraphs (3) and (4). The amount of the unearned portion of the finance charge shall be at least as great a proportion of the finance charge, including any additional finance charge imposed pursuant to Section 2982.8 or other additional charge imposed because the contract has been extended, deferred, or refinanced, as the sum of the periodic monthly time balances payable more than 15 days after the date of prepayment bears to the sum of all the periodic monthly time balances under the schedule of installments in the contract or, if the contract has been extended, deferred, or refinanced, as so extended, deferred, or refinanced. Where the amount of the refund credit is less than one dollar ($1), no refund credit need be made by the holder. Any refund credit may be made in cash or credited to the outstanding obligations of the buyer under the contract.

(2) If the finance charge or a portion thereof was determined on the simple-interest basis, the amount required to prepay the contract shall be the outstanding contract balance as of that date, including any earned finance charges which are unpaid as of that date and, if applicable, the amount provided in paragraph (3), and provided further that in cases where a finance charge is determined on the 360-day basis, the payments theretofore received will be assumed to have been received on their respective due dates regardless of the actual dates on which such payments were received.

(3) Where the minimum finance charge provided by subparagraph (B) or subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (j), if either is applicable, is greater than the earned finance charge as of the date of prepayment, the holder shall be additionally entitled to the difference.

(4) The provisions of this subdivision shall not impair the right of the seller or the seller's assignee to receive delinquency charges on delinquent installments and reasonable costs and fees as provided in subdivision (k) or extension or deferral agreement charges as provided in Section 2982.3.

(5) Notwithstanding any provision of a contract to the contrary, whenever the indebtedness created by any contract is satisfied prior to its maturity through surrender of the motor vehicle, repossession of the motor vehicle, redemption of the motor vehicle after repossession, or any judgment, the outstanding obligation of the buyer shall be determined as provided in paragraph (1) or (2); provided further that the buyer's outstanding obligation shall be computed by the holder as of the date the holder recovers the value of the motor vehicle through disposition thereof or judgment is entered or, if the holder elects to keep the motor vehicle in satisfaction of the buyer's indebtedness, as of the date the holder takes possession of the motor vehicle.

(m) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, any information required to be disclosed in a conditional sale contract under this chapter may be disclosed in any manner, method, or terminology required or permitted under Regulation Z, as in effect at the time that disclosure is made, except that permitted by paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 226.18 of Regulation Z, provided that all of the requirements and limitations set forth in subdivision (a) of this section are satisfied. Nothing in this chapter prohibits the disclosure in that contract of additional information required or permitted under Regulation Z, as in effect at the time that disclosure is made.

(n) If the seller imposes a fee for document preparation, the contract shall contain a disclosure that the fee is not a governmental fee.

(o) No seller may impose an application fee for a transaction governed by this chapter.

(p) The seller or holder may charge and collect a five-dollar ($5) fee for the return by a depository institution of a dishonored check, negotiated order of withdrawal, or share draft issued in connection with the contract, if the contract so provides or if the contract contains a generalized statement that the buyer may be liable for collection costs incurred in connection with the contract.

SEC. 1.3. Section 18218 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18218. Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, an industrial loan company, in the collection of a delinquent loan of an unpaid principal balance, may do any of the following:

(a) Collect and receive the court costs and reasonable attorney's fees allowed by a court in a judgment against a defaulting debtor.

(b) Contract for, collect, and receive the bona fide expenses actually incurred and paid by the industrial loan company, not exceeding 10 percent of the unpaid principal balance of the loan where no judgment at law is sought.

(c) Contract for, collect, and receive the bona fide expenses actually incurred and paid by the industrial loan company in obtaining a certificate of compliance or certificate of noncompliance issued for a motor vehicle pursuant to Part 5 (commencing with Section 43000) of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code and the rules and regulations of the State Air Resources Board prior to the consignment of the vehicle for sale at public auction, pursuant to Sections 24007 and 24007.5 of the Vehicle Code.

SEC. 1.5. Section 44020 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44020. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the department may license any owner of a fleet of 10 or more motor vehicles subject to this chapter, who so elects, to implement and conduct the tests and to perform necessary service and adjustment on the fleet's vehicles under this chapter, subject to all of the following conditions:

(a) The owner's facilities or personnel, or both, or a designated contractor of the owner, shall be licensed by the department as a fleet smog check station, and the test and repair system shall conform, in the department's determination, with all provisions of this chapter and all rules and regulations adopted by the department. The regulations shall provide for adequate onsite inspection by the department.

(b) A license issued under this section is subject to Sections 44035 and 44050 and may be suspended or revoked by the department whenever the department determines, on the basis of random spot checks of the owner's inspection system and fleet vehicles, that the system fails to conform or that certificates of compliance have been issued by the owner in violation of regulations adopted by the department. Any person licensed to conduct tests and service and adjustments under this section is deemed to have consented to provide the department with whatever access, information, and other cooperation the department reasonably determines are necessary to facilitate the random spot checks.

(c) A fleet owner licensed to conduct tests or make repairs pursuant to this chapter shall issue certificates of compliance for motor vehicles which comply with the requirements of this chapter. The cost limitations in Section 44017 shall not apply to any motor vehicle owned by a fleet owner licensed pursuant to this section.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (c), certificates of compliance or noncompliance prepared solely for the disposal or sale of motor vehicles owned by a fleet owner licensed pursuant to this section shall be subject to the cost limitations in Section 44017.

(e) The department shall establish initial and renewal license fees, which shall not exceed the reasonable costs of administering this section.

SEC. 2. Section 11614 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11614. No lessor-retailer licensed under this chapter shall do any of the following in connection with any activity for which this license is required:

(a) Make or disseminate, or cause to be made or disseminated, before the public in this state, in any newspaper or other publication, or any advertising device, or by oral representation, or in any other manner or means whatever, any statement which is untrue or misleading and which is known, or which by the exercise of reasonable care should be known, to be untrue or misleading; or make or disseminate, or cause to be so disseminated, any statement as part of a plan or scheme with the intent not to sell any vehicle or sell service so advertised at the price stated therein, or as so advertised.

(b) Advertise or offer for sale in any manner, any vehicle not actually for sale at the premises of the lessor-retailer or available within a reasonable time to the lessor-retailer at the time of the advertisement or offer.

(c) Fail within 48 hours to give, in writing, notification to withdraw any advertisement of a vehicle that has been sold or withdrawn from sale.

(d) Advertise any specific vehicle for sale without identifying the vehicle by either its vehicle identification number or license number.

(e) Advertise the total price of a vehicle without including all costs to the purchaser at the time of delivery at the lessor-retailer's premises, except sales tax, vehicle registration fees, finance charges, certificate of compliance or noncompliance fees not exceeding thirty-five dollars ($35) pursuant to any statute, and any dealer documentary preparation charge. The dealer documentary charge shall not exceed thirty-five dollars ($35).

(f) Fail to disclose, in the newspaper display advertisement of a vehicle for sale, that there will be added to the advertised total price at the time of sale, charges for sales tax, vehicle registration fees, the fee charged by the state for the issuance of any certificate of compliance or noncompliance pursuant to any statute, finance charges, or any dealer documentary preparation charge.

For purposes of this subdivision, "newspaper display advertisement" means any advertisement in a newspaper which is two or more newspaper columns in width or one newspaper column in width and more than seven inches in length.

(g) Advertise or otherwise represent, or knowingly allow to be advertised or represented on the lessor-retailer's behalf or at the lessor-retailer's place of business, that no downpayment is required in connection with the sale of a vehicle when a downpayment is in fact required and the buyer is advised or of a vehicle when a downpayment is in fact required and the buyer is advised or induced to finance the downpayment by a loan in addition to any other loan financing the remainder of the purchase price of the vehicle.

(h) Refuse to sell a vehicle to any person at the advertised total price, exclusive of sales tax, vehicle registration fees, finance charges, certificate of compliance or noncompliance pursuant to any statute, and any dealer documentary preparation charge, which charges shall not exceed thirty-five dollars ($35) for the documentary preparation charge and thirty-five dollars ($35) for the certificate of compliance or noncompliance pursuant to any statute, while the vehicle remains unsold or unleased, unless the advertisement states the advertised total price is good only for a specified time and the time has elapsed.

(i) Engage in the business for which the licensee is licensed without having in force and effect a bond required by Section 11612.

(j) Engage in the business for which the lessor-retailer is licensed without at all times maintaining a principal place of business and any branch office location required by this chapter.

(k) Permit the use of the lessor-retailer license, supplies, or books by any other person for the purpose of permitting that person to engage in the sale of vehicles required to be registered under this code, or to permit the use of the lessor-retailer license, supplies, or books to operate a branch office location to be used by any other person, if, in either situation, the licensee has no financial or equitable interest or investment in the vehicles sold by, or the business of, or branch office location used by, the person, or has no interest or investment other than commissions, compensations, fees, or any other thing of value received for the use of the lessor-retailer license, supplies, or books to engage in the sale of vehicles.

(l) Violate any provision of Article 10 (commencing with Section 28050) of Chapter 5 of Division 12.

(m) Represent the dealer documentary preparation charge, or certificate of compliance or noncompliance fee, as a governmental fee.

(n) Advertise free merchandise, gifts, or services provided by a lessor-retailer contingent on the purchase of a vehicle. "Free" includes merchandise or services offered for sale at a price less than the lessor-retailer's cost of the merchandise or services.

(o) Advertise vehicles and related goods or services with the intent not to supply reasonably expectable demand, unless the advertisement discloses a limitation of quantity.

(p) Use the term "rebate" or similar words such as "cash back" in advertising the sale of a vehicle.

(q) Require a person to pay a higher price for a vehicle and related goods or services for receiving advertised credit terms than the cash price the same person would have to pay to purchase the same vehicle and related goods or services. For the purpose of this subdivision, "cash price" has the meaning as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 2981 of the Civil Code.

(r) Misrepresent the authority of a representative or agent to negotiate the final terms of a transaction.

(s) Violate any law prohibiting bait and switch advertising, including, but not limited to, the guides against bait advertising set forth in Part 238 of Title 16 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as those regulations read on January 1, 1988.

(t) Make any untrue or misleading statement indicating that a vehicle is equipped with all the factory installed optional equipment the manufacturer offers, including, but not limited to, a false statement that a vehicle is "fully factory equipped."

(u) Advertise any underselling claim, such as "we have the lowest prices" or "we will beat any dealer's price," unless the lessor-retailer has conducted a recent survey showing that the lessor-retailer sells its vehicles at lower prices than any other licensee in its trade area and maintains records to adequately substantiate the claims. The substantiating records shall be made available to the department upon request.

(v) To display or offer for sale any used vehicle unless there is affixed to the vehicle the Federal Trade Commission's Buyer's Guide as required by Part 455 of Title 16 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

SEC. 3. Section 11713.1 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11713.1. It is unlawful and a violation of this code for the holder of any dealer's license issued under this article to do any of the following:

(a) To advertise any specific vehicle for sale without identifying the vehicle by either its vehicle identification number or license number.

(b) To advertise the total price of a vehicle without including all costs to the purchaser at time of sale, except taxes, vehicle registration fees, certificate of compliance or noncompliance fees not exceeding thirty-five dollars ($35) pursuant to any statute, finance charges, and any dealer documentary preparation charge. The dealer documentary preparation charge shall not exceed thirty-five dollars ($35).

(c) To exclude from the newspaper display advertisement of a vehicle for sale that there will be added to the advertised total price at the time of sale, charges for sales tax, vehicle registration fees, the fee charged by the state for the issuance of any certificate of compliance or noncompliance pursuant to any statute, finance charges, and any dealer documentary preparation charge.

For purposes of this subdivision, "newspaper display advertisement" means any advertisement in a newspaper which is two or more newspaper columns in width or one newspaper column in width and more than seven inches in length.

(d) To represent the dealer documentary preparation charge or certificate of compliance or noncompliance fee, as a governmental fee.

(e) To fail to sell a vehicle to any person at the advertised total price, exclusive of taxes, vehicle registration fees, the fee charged by the state for the issuance of any certificate of compliance or noncompliance pursuant to any statute, finance charges, mobilehome escrow fees, the amount of any city, county, or city and county imposed fee or tax for a mobilehome, and any dealer documentary preparation charge, which charges shall not exceed thirty-five dollars ($35) for the documentary preparation charge and thirty-five dollars ($35) for the certificate of compliance or noncompliance pursuant to any statute, while the vehicle remains unsold, unless the advertisement states the advertised total price is good only for a specified time and the time has elapsed.

(f) To advertise for sale as new any new vehicle of a line-make for which the dealer does not hold a franchise.

This subdivision does not apply to any transaction involving a mobilehome as defined in Section 396 of this code, a recreational vehicle as defined in Section 18010.5 of the Health and Safety Code, a commercial coach as defined in Section 18012 of the Health and Safety Code, an off-highway motor vehicle subject to identification as defined in Section 38012, or a commercial vehicle as defined in Section 260.

(g) To sell a park trailer, as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 799.24 of the Civil Code, without disclosing in writing to the purchaser that a park trailer is required to be moved by a transporter or a licensed manufacturer or dealer under a permit issued by the Department of Transportation or a local authority with respect to highways under their respective jurisdictions.

(h) To advertise free merchandise, gifts, or services provided by a dealer contingent on the purchase of a vehicle. The term "free" includes merchandise or services offered for sale at a price less than the seller's cost of the merchandise or services.

(i) To advertise vehicles and related goods or services with intent not to supply reasonably expectable demand, unless the advertisement discloses a limitation of quantity.

(j) To use the term "rebate" or similar words such as "cash back" in advertising the sale of a vehicle unless the rebate is expressed in a specific dollar amount and is in fact a rebate offered by the vehicle manufacturer or distributor directly to the retail purchaser of the vehicle or to the assignee of the retail purchaser.

(k) To require a person to pay a higher price for a vehicle and related goods or services for receiving advertised credit terms than the cash price the same person would have to pay to purchase the same vehicle and related goods or services. For the purpose of this subdivision, "cash price" has the meaning as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 2981 of the Civil Code.

(l) To advertise a guaranteed trade-in allowance unless the guarantee is provided by the manufacturer or distributor.

(m) To misrepresent the authority of a salesperson, representative, or agent to negotiate the final terms of a transaction.

(n) To advertise a vehicle at a specified amount above, below, or at the manufacturer's or distributor's invoice price to the dealer, unless the advertisement clearly and conspicuously states that the invoice amount may exceed the actual dealer cost because of allowances provided to the dealer by the manufacturer or distributor.

(o) To violate any law prohibiting bait and switch advertising, including, but not limited to, the guides against bait advertising set forth in Part 238 (commencing with Section 238) of Title 16 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as those regulations read on January 1, 1988.

(p) To make any untrue or misleading statement indicating that a vehicle is equipped with all the factory installed optional equipment the manufacturer offers, including, but not limited to, a false statement that a vehicle is "fully factory equipped."

(q) To affix on any new vehicle a supplemental price sticker containing a price that represents the dealer's asking price which exceeds the manufacturer's suggested retail price unless all of the following occur:

(1) The supplemental sticker clearly and conspicuously discloses in the largest print appearing on the sticker, other than the print size used for the dealer's name, that the supplemental sticker price is the dealer's asking price, or words of similar import, and that it is not the manufacturer's suggested retail price.

(2) The supplemental sticker clearly and conspicuously discloses the manufacturer's suggested retail price.

(3) The supplemental sticker lists each item which is not included in the manufacturer's suggested retail price, and discloses the additional price of each item. If the supplemental sticker price is greater than the sum of the manufacturer's suggested retail price and the price of the items added by the dealer, then the supplemental sticker price shall set forth that difference and describe it as "added mark-up."

(r) To advertise any underselling claim, such as "we have the lowest prices" or "we will beat any dealer's price," unless the dealer has conducted a recent survey showing that the dealer sells its

vehicles at lower prices than any other licensee in its trade area and maintains records to adequately substantiate the claims. The substantiating records shall be made available to the department upon request.

(s) To advertise any incentive offered by the manufacturer or distributor if the dealer is required to contribute to the cost of the incentive as a condition of participating in the incentive program, unless the dealer discloses in a clear and conspicuous manner that dealer participation may affect consumer cost.

For purposes of this subdivision "incentive" means anything of value offered to induce people to purchase a vehicle, including, but not limited to, discounts, savings claims, rebates, below-market finance rates, and free merchandise or services.

(t) To display or offer for sale any used vehicle unless there is affixed to the vehicle the Federal Trade Commission's Buyer's Guide as required by Part 455 of Title 16 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

SEC. 3.5. Section 11713.1 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11713.1. It is a violation of this code for the holder of any dealer's license issued under this article to do any of the following:

(a) Advertise any specific vehicle for sale without identifying the vehicle by either its vehicle identification number or license number.

(b) Advertise the total price of a vehicle without including all costs to the purchaser at time of sale, except taxes, vehicle registration fees, certificate of compliance or noncompliance fees not exceeding thirty-five dollars ($35) pursuant to any statute, finance charges, and any dealer documentary preparation charge. The dealer documentary preparation charge shall not exceed thirty-five dollars ($35).

(c) Exclude from the newspaper display advertisement of a vehicle for sale that there will be added to the advertised total price at the time of sale, charges for sales tax, vehicle registration fees, the fee charged by the state for the issuance of any certificate of compliance or noncompliance pursuant to any statute, finance charges, and any dealer documentary preparation charge.

For purposes of this subdivision, "newspaper display advertisement" means any advertisement in a newspaper which is two or more newspaper columns in width or one newspaper column in width and more than seven inches in length.

(d) Represent the dealer documentary preparation charge or certificate of compliance or noncompliance fee, as a governmental fee.

(e) Fail to sell a vehicle to any person at the advertised total price, exclusive of taxes, vehicle registration fees, the fee charged by the state for the issuance of any certificate of compliance or noncompliance pursuant to any statute, finance charges, mobilehome escrow fees, the amount of any city, county, or city and county imposed fee or tax for a mobilehome, and any dealer documentary preparation charge, which charges shall not exceed thirty-five dollars ($35) for the documentary preparation charge and thirty-five dollars ($35) for the certificate of compliance or noncompliance pursuant to any statute, while the vehicle remains unsold, unless the advertisement states the advertised total price is good only for a specified time and the time has elapsed.

(f) Advertise for sale as new any new vehicle of a line-make for which the dealer does not hold a franchise.

This subdivision does not apply to any transaction involving a mobilehome as defined in Section 396, a recreational vehicle as defined in Section 18010.5 of the Health and Safety Code, a commercial coach as defined in Section 18012 of the Health and Safety Code, an off-highway motor vehicle subject to identification as defined in Section 38012, or a commercial vehicle as defined in Section 260.

(g) Sell a park trailer, as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 799.24 of the Civil Code, without disclosing in writing to the purchaser that a park trailer is required to be moved by a transporter or a licensed manufacturer or dealer under a permit issued by the Department of Transportation or a local authority with respect to highways under their respective jurisdictions.

(h) Advertise free merchandise, gifts, or services provided by a dealer contingent on the purchase of a vehicle. The term "free" includes merchandise or services offered for sale at a price less than the seller's cost of the merchandise or services.

(i) Advertise vehicles and related goods or services with intent not to supply reasonably expectable demand, unless the advertisement discloses a limitation of quantity.

(j) Use the term "rebate" or similar words such as "cash back" in advertising the sale of a vehicle unless the rebate is expressed in a specific dollar amount and is in fact a rebate offered by the vehicle manufacturer or distributor directly to the retail purchaser of the vehicle or to the assignee of the retail purchaser.

(k) Require a person to pay a higher price for a vehicle and related goods or services for receiving advertised credit terms than the cash price the same person would have to pay to purchase the same vehicle and related goods or services. For the purpose of this subdivision, "cash price" has the meaning as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 2981 of the Civil Code.

(m) Misrepresent the authority of a salesperson, representative, or agent to negotiate the final terms of a transaction.

(n) (1) Advertise that the selling price of a vehicle is above, below, or at either of the following:

(A) The manufacturer's or distributor's invoice price to a dealer.

(B) A dealer's cost.

(2) This subdivision does not apply to either of the following:

(A) Any communication occurring during face-to-face negotiations for the purchase of a specific vehicle.

(B) Any communication between a dealer and a prospective commercial purchaser that is not disseminated to the general public. For purposes of this subparagraph, a "commercial purchaser" means a dealer, lessor, lessor-retailer, manufacturer, remanufacturer, distributor, financial institution, governmental entity, or person who purchases 10 or more vehicles during a year.

(o) Violate any law prohibiting bait and switch advertising, including, but not limited to, the guides against bait advertising set forth in Part 238 (commencing with Section 238) of Title 16 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as those regulations read on January 1, 1988.

(p) Make any untrue or misleading statement indicating that a vehicle is equipped with all the factory installed optional equipment the manufacturer offers, including, but not limited to, a false statement that a vehicle is "fully factory equipped."

(q) Affix on any new vehicle a supplemental price sticker containing a price that represents the dealer's asking price which exceeds the manufacturer's suggested retail price unless all of the following occur:

(1) The supplemental sticker clearly and conspicuously discloses in the largest print appearing on the sticker, other than the print size used for the dealer's name, that the supplemental sticker price is the dealer's asking price, or words of similar import, and that it is not the manufacturer's suggested retail price.

(2) The supplemental sticker clearly and conspicuously discloses the manufacturer's suggested retail price.

(3) The supplemental sticker lists each item which is not included in the manufacturer's suggested retail price, and discloses the additional price of each item. If the supplemental sticker price is greater than the sum of the manufacturer's suggested retail price and the price of the items added by the dealer, then the supplemental sticker price shall set forth that difference and describe it as "added mark-up."

(r) Advertise any underselling claim, such as "we have the lowest prices" or "we will beat any dealer's price," unless the dealer has conducted a recent survey showing that the dealer sells its vehicles at lower prices than any other licensee in its trade area and maintains records to adequately substantiate the claims. The substantiating records shall be made available to the department upon request.

(s) Advertise any incentive offered by the manufacturer or distributor if the dealer is required to contribute to the cost of the incentive as a condition of participating in the incentive program, unless the dealer discloses in a clear and conspicuous manner that dealer participation may affect consumer cost.

For purposes of this subdivision, "incentive" means anything of value offered to induce people to purchase a vehicle, including, but not limited to, discounts, savings claims, rebates, below-market finance rates, and free merchandise or services.

(t) Display or offer for sale any used vehicle unless there is affixed to the vehicle the Federal Trade Commission's Buyer's Guide as required by Part 455 of Title 16 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

SEC. 4. Section 12103 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

12103. (a) Every private party vehicle market operator shall maintain a record, for not less than one year, of all of the following information:

(1) The name of each vendor selling, exchanging, or offering for sale or exchange, any vehicle at a private party vehicle market.

(2) The vendor's driver's license number.

(3) The registration number assigned to the vehicle and the vehicle identification number.

(4) The number of the vehicle's current and valid certificate of compliance.

(5) The make, model, and color of the vehicle.

(b) That information shall be made available, upon request, to any peace officer and to any employee of the department designated by the director.

SEC. 5. Section 24007.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

24007.5. (a) (1) No auctioneer or public agency shall sell, at public auction, any vehicle specified in subdivision (a) of Section 24007, which is not in compliance with this code.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not apply to a vehicle that is sold under the conditions specified in subdivision (c), (d), (e), or (g) or is sold to a dealer or for the purpose of being wrecked or dismantled or is sold exclusively for off-highway use.

(b) Except with respect to the sale of a vehicle specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the consignor of any vehicle, specified in subdivision (b) of Section 24007, sold at public auction, shall provide the purchaser a valid certificate of compliance or certificate of noncompliance, as appropriate, issued in accordance with Section 44015 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this code, if, in the opinion of a public utility or public agency, the cost of repairs to a vehicle exceeds the value of the vehicle to the public utility or public agency, the public utility or public agency shall, as transferee or owner, surrender the certificates of registration, documents satisfactory to the department showing proof of ownership, and the license plates issued for the vehicle to the Department of Motor Vehicles. As used in this section, "public utility" means a public utility as described in Sections 218, 222, and 234 of the Public Utilities Code.

(d) The public utility or public agency having complied with subdivision (c) shall, upon sale of the vehicle, give to the purchaser a bill of sale which includes, in addition to any other required information, the last issued license plate number.

(e) (1) Subdivisions (a) and (b) do not apply to any judicial sale, including, but not limited to, a bankruptcy sale, conducted pursuant to a writ of execution or order of court.

(2) Subdivision (b) does not apply to any lien sale if the lienholder does both of the following:

(A) Gives the notice required by subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 5900.

(B) Notifies the buyer that California law requires that the buyer obtain a certificate of compliance or noncompliance and register the vehicle with the department, and that failure to comply will result in a lien against any vehicle owned by the buyer pursuant to Section 10876 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, enforceable pursuant to Section 10877 of the Revenue and Taxation Code and Article 6 (commencing with Section 9800) of Chapter 6 of Division 3. Receipt of the notice required by this subparagraph shall be evidenced by the signature of the buyer.

(f) The exceptions in this section do not apply to any requirements for registration of a vehicle pursuant to Section 4000.1, 4000.2, or 4000.3.

(g) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (e), any public agency or auctioneer which sells, at public auction, any vehicle specified in subdivision (b) of Section 24007, which is registered to a public agency or a public utility, shall provide each bidder with a notice in writing that a certificate of compliance is required to be obtained, certifying that the vehicle complies with Part 5 (commencing with Section 43000) of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, before the vehicle may be registered in this state, unless the vehicle is sold to a dealer or for the purpose of being wrecked or dismantled or is sold exclusively for off-highway use. Prior to the sale of the vehicle, a public agency or public utility shall remove the license plates from the vehicle and surrender them to the department. The purchaser of the vehicle shall be given a bill of sale which includes, in addition to any other required information, the vehicle's last issued license plate number.

SEC. 6. Section 3.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 11713.1 of the Vehicle Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1763. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 11713.1 of the Vehicle Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1763, in which case Section 3 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 7. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 1148 and 2413 of, and to repeal Sections 704, 1149, 1150, 1151, 1152, and 1153 of, the Civil Code, to amend Section 2051 of the Financial Code, to add Sections 18080.2, 18102.2, and 18102.3 to the Health and Safety Code, to amend Sections 250, 573, 3909, 7240, 8570, 8575, 9053, 9103, 9352, 9653, 13004, 13006, 13051, 13101, 13108, 13110, 13111, 13150, 13151, 13152, 13154, 13155, 13200, 13205, 13206, 13207, 13540, and 13541 of, to amend the heading of Part 10 (commencing with Section 330) of Division 2 of, and the heading of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 13150) of Part 1 of Division 8 of, to amend the heading of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 13540) of Part 2 of Division 8 of, to add Sections 331, 13005, 13107.5, 13158, 13210, and 13545 to, to add Part 5 (commencing with Section 5700) to Division 5 of, to add Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 11460) to Part 9 of Division 7 of, to add Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 13560) to Part 2 of Division 8 of, to repeal and add Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 6200) of Part 1 of Division 6 of, and to repeal Sections 11425, 11426, and 11427 of, the Probate Code, and to add Sections 4150.7, 5910.5, 5910.7, 9852.7, 9916.5, and 9916.7 to the Vehicle Code, relating to disposition of property, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 704 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 1148 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1148. A gift, other than a gift in view of impending death, cannot be revoked by the giver.

SEC. 3. Section 1149 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 1150 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 1151 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 1152 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 1153 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 2413 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2413. (a) The superior court exercising its general jurisdiction and the superior court exercising its jurisdiction under Section 7050 of the Probate Code shall have concurrent jurisdiction over all petitions filed pursuant to this article.

(b) The court may make all orders and decrees and take all other action necessary or proper to dispose of the matters presented by the petition.

SEC. 9. Section 2051 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

of all liabilities of the selling bank, or of the business, branch, or branch business sold, and proper provision for the assumption by the purchasing bank of all fiduciary and trust obligations of the selling bank, or business, branch, or branch business sold. The agreement may provide for the transfer of all deposits of the selling bank or of the business, branch, or branch business sold to the purchasing bank, subject to the right of every depositor of the selling bank or of the business, branch, or branch business so sold to withdraw the deposit in full on demand after such transfer, irrespective of the terms under which it was deposited with the selling bank, and may provide for the transfer of all court and private trusts so sold to the purchasing bank.

(b) If a trust is transferred under this section, the transfer is good cause for removal of the trustee under the Trust Law, Division 9 (commencing with Section 15000) of the Probate Code.

SEC. 10. Section 18080.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

18080.2. (a) Ownership registration and title to a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home subject to registration may be held in beneficiary form that includes a direction to transfer ownership of the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home to a designated beneficiary on death of the owner if both of the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) Only one owner is designated.

(2) Only one TOD beneficiary is designated.

(b) Ownership registration and title issued in beneficiary form shall include, after the name of the owner, the words "transfer on death to" or the abbreviation "TOD" followed by the name of the beneficiary.

(c) During the lifetime of the owner, the signature or consent of the beneficiary is not required for any transaction relating to the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home for which ownership registration and title in beneficiary form has been issued.

(d) The fee for transfer of title of a mobilehome to a TOD beneficiary is twenty-five dollars ($25).

(e) The fee for registering ownership of a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home in beneficiary form is twenty-five dollars ($25).

SEC. 11. Section 18102.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

18102.2. (a) On death of the owner of a manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home owned in beneficiary form, the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home belongs to the surviving beneficiary, if any. If there is no surviving beneficiary, the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home belongs to the estate of the deceased owner.

(b) Ownership registration and title issued in beneficiary form may be revoked or the beneficiary changed at any time before the death of the owner by either of the following methods:

(1) By sale of the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home, with proper assignment and delivery of the certificate of title to another person.

(2) By application for a change in registered owner without designation of a beneficiary or with the designation of a different beneficiary.

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (b), designation of a beneficiary in ownership registration and title issued in beneficiary form may not be changed or revoked by will, by any other instrument, by a change of circumstances, or otherwise.

(d) The beneficiary's interest in the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home at death of the owner is subject to any contract of sale, assignment, or security interest to which the owner was subject during his or her lifetime.

(e) The surviving beneficiary may secure a transfer of ownership for the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home upon presenting to the department all of the following:

(1) The appropriate certificate of title.

(2) A certificate under penalty of perjury stating the date and place of the death of the owner and that the declarant is entitled to the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home as the designated beneficiary.

(3) If required by the department, a certificate of the death of the owner.

(f) After the death of the owner, the surviving beneficiary may transfer his or her interest in the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home to another person without securing transfer of ownership into his or her own name by appropriately signing the certificate of title for the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home and delivering the document to the transferee for forwarding to the department with appropriate fees. The transferee may secure a transfer of ownership for the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home, upon presenting to the department (1) the certificate of title signed by the beneficiary, (2) the certificate described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (e) executed by the beneficiary under penalty of perjury; and (3) if required by the department, a certificate of death of the owner.

(g) A transfer at death pursuant to this section is effective by reason of this section and shall not be deemed to be a testamentary disposition of property. The right of the designated beneficiary to the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home shall not be denied, abridged, or affected on the grounds that the right has not been created by a writing executed in accordance with the laws of this state prescribing the requirements to effect a valid testamentary disposition of property.

(h) A transfer at death pursuant to this section is subject to Section 9653 of the Probate Code.

(i) If there is no surviving beneficiary, the person or persons described in Section 18102 may secure transfer of the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home, as provided in that section.

(j) The department may prescribe forms for use pursuant to this section.

SEC. 12. Section 18102.3 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

18102.3. (a) If the department makes a transfer pursuant to Section 18102.2, the department is discharged from all liability, whether or not the transfer is consistent with the beneficial ownership of the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home transferred.

(b) The protection provided by subdivision (a) does not extend to a transfer made after the department has been served with a court order restraining the transfer. No other notice or information shown to have been available to the department shall affect its right to the protection afforded by subdivision (a).

(c) The protection provided by this section has no bearing on the rights of parties in disputes between themselves or their successors concerning the beneficial ownership of the manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home.

(d) The protection provided by this section is in addition to, and not exclusive of, any other protection provided to the department by any other provision of law.

SEC. 13. Section 250 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

250. (a) A person who feloniously and intentionally kills the decedent is not entitled to any of the following:

(1) Any property, interest, or benefit under the will of the decedent, including any general or special power of appointment conferred by the will on the killer and any nomination of the killer as executor, trustee, guardian, or conservator made by the will.

(2) Any property of the decedent by intestate succession.

(3) Any of the decedent's quasi-community property the killer would otherwise acquire under Section 101 or 102 upon the death of the decedent.

(4) Any property of the decedent under Part 5 (commencing with Section 5700) of Division 5.

(5) Any property of the decedent under Part 3 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 6.

(b) In the cases covered by subdivision (a):

(1) The estate of the decedent passes as if the killer had predeceased the decedent and Section 6147 does not apply.

(2) Property appointed by the will of the decedent to, or for the benefit of, the killer passes as if the killer had predeceased the decedent, and Section 1389.4 of the Civil Code does not apply.

(3) Provisions of the will of the decedent nominating the killer as executor, trustee, guardian, or conservator shall be interpreted as if the killer had predeceased the decedent.

SEC. 14. The heading of Part 10 (commencing with Section 330) of Division 2 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

PART 10. IMMEDIATE STEPS CONCERNING DECEDENT'S TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY AND SAFE DEPOSIT BOX

SEC. 15. Section 331 is added to the Probate Code, to read:

331. (a) This section applies only to a safe deposit box in a financial institution held by the decedent in the decedent's sole name, or held by the decedent and others where all are deceased. Nothing in this section affects the rights of a surviving coholder.

(b) A person who has a key to the safe deposit box may, before letters have been issued, obtain access to the safe deposit box only for the purposes specified in this section by providing the financial institution with both of the following:

(1) Proof of the decedent's death. Proof shall be provided by a certified copy of the decedent's death certificate or by a written statement of death from the coroner, treating physician, or hospital or institution where the decedent died.

(2) Reasonable proof of the identity of the person seeking access. Reasonable proof of identity is provided for the purpose of this paragraph if the requirements of Section 13104 are satisfied.

(c) The financial institution has no duty to inquire into the truth of any statement, declaration, certificate, affidavit, or document offered as proof of the decedent's death or proof of identity of the person seeking access.

(d) When the person seeking access has satisfied the requirements of subdivision (b), the financial institution shall do all of the following:

(1) Keep a record of the identity of the person.

(2) Permit the person to open the safe deposit box under the supervision of an officer or employee of the financial institution, and to make an inventory of its contents.

(3) Make a photocopy of all wills and trust instruments removed from the safe deposit box, and keep the photocopy in the safe deposit box until the contents of the box are removed by the personal representative of the estate or other legally authorized person. The financial institution may charge the person given access a reasonable fee for photocopying.

(4) Permit the person given access to remove instructions for the disposition of the decedent's remains, and, after a photocopy is made, to remove the wills and trust instruments.

(e) The person given access shall deliver all wills found in the safe deposit box to the clerk of the superior court and mail or deliver a copy to the person named in the will as executor or beneficiary as provided in Section 8200.

(f) Except as provided in subdivision (d), the person given access shall not remove any of the contents of the decedent's safe deposit box.

SEC. 16. Section 573 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

573. (a) Except as provided in this section, no cause of action is lost by reason of the death of any person, but may be maintained by or against the person's personal representative.

(b) In an action brought under this section against a personal representative, all damages may be awarded which might have been recovered against the decedent had the decedent lived except damages awardable under Section 3294 of the Civil Code or other damages imposed primarily for the sake of example and by way of punishing the defendant.

(c) Where a person having a cause of action dies before judgment, the damages recoverable by his or her personal representative are limited to the loss or damage the decedent sustained or incurred prior to death, including any penalties or punitive or exemplary damages that the decedent would have been entitled to recover had the decedent lived but not including any damages for pain, suffering, or disfigurement.

(d) This section applies where a loss or damage occurs simultaneously with or after the death of a person who would have been liable for the loss or damage if his or her death had not preceded or occurred simultaneously with the loss or damage.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed as affecting the assignability of causes of action.

(f) Nothing in this section limits the right of the successor of the decedent (as defined in Section 13006) to commence or continue an action to have property that is described in an affidavit or declaration executed pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 13100) of Part 1 of Division 8 paid, delivered, or transferred to the successor of the decedent.

SEC. 17. Section 3909 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

3909. (a) Custodial property is created and a transfer is made whenever any of the following occurs:

(1) An uncertificated security or a certificated security in registered form is either:

(A) Registered in the name of the transferor, an adult other than the transferor, or a trust company, followed in substance by the words:

"as custodian for _____
(Name of Minor)

under the California Uniform Transfers to Minors Act."

(B) Delivered if in certificated form, or any document necessary for the transfer of an uncertificated security is delivered, together with any necessary endorsement to an adult other than the transferor or to a trust company as custodian, accompanied by an instrument in substantially the form set forth in subdivision (b).

(2) Money is paid or delivered, or a security held in the name of a broker, financial institution, or its nominee is transferred, to a broker or financial institution for credit to an account in the name of the transferor, an adult other than the transferor, or a trust company, followed in substance by the words:
"as custodian for _____
(Name of Minor)
under the California Uniform Transfers to Minors Act."

(3) The ownership of a life or endowment insurance policy or annuity contract is either:

(A) Registered with the issuer in the name of the transferor, an adult other than the transferor, or a trust company, followed in substance by the words:
"as custodian for _____
(Name of Minor)
under the California Uniform Transfers to Minors Act."

(B) Assigned in a writing delivered to an adult other than the transferor or to a trust company whose name in the assignment is followed in substance by the words:
"as custodian for _____
(Name of Minor)
under the California Uniform Transfers to Minors Act."

(4) An irrevocable exercise of a power of appointment or an irrevocable present right to future payment under a contract is the subject of a written notification delivered to the payor, issuer, or other obligor that the right is transferred to the transferor, an adult other than the transferor, or a trust company, whose name in the notification is followed in substance by the words:
"as custodian for _____
(Name of Minor)
under the California Uniform Transfers to Minors Act."

(5) An interest in real property is recorded in the name of the transferor, an adult other than the transferor, or a trust company, followed in substance by the words:
"as custodian for _____
(Name of Minor)
under the California Uniform Transfers to Minors Act."

(6) A certificate of title issued by a department or agency of a state or of the United States which evidences title to tangible personal property is either:

(A) Issued in the name of the transferor, an adult other than the transferor, or a trust company, followed in substance by the words:
"as custodian for _____
(Name of Minor)
under the California Uniform Transfers to Minors Act."

(B) Delivered to an adult other than the transferor or to a trust company, endorsed to that person followed in substance by the words:

"as custodian for _____
(Name of Minor)
under the California Uniform Transfers to Minors Act."

(7) An interest in any property not described in paragraphs (1) through (6) is transferred to an adult other than the transferor or to a trust company by a written instrument in substantially the form set forth in subdivision (b).

(b) An instrument in the following form satisfies the requirements of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) and paragraph (7) of subdivision (a):

"TRANSFER UNDER THE CALIFORNIA UNIFORM TRANSFERS TO MINORS ACT

I, _____
(Name of Transferor or Name and Representative Capacity if a Fiduciary) hereby transfer to _____,
(Name of Custodian)
as custodian for _____
(Name of Minor)
under the California Uniform Transfers to Minors Act, the following: (insert a description of the custodial property sufficient to identify it).

Dated: _____

_____ acknowledges receipt of the property
(Name of Custodian)
described above as custodian for the minor named above under the California Uniform Transfers to Minors Act.

Dated: _____

_____"
(Signature of Custodian)

(c) A transferor shall place the custodian in control of the custodial property as soon as practicable.

SEC. 18. Part 5 (commencing with Section 5700) is added to Division 5 of the Probate Code, to read:

PART 5. GIFTS IN VIEW OF IMPENDING DEATH

5700. As used in this part, "gift" means a transfer of personal property made voluntarily and without consideration.

5701. Except as provided in this part, a gift in view of impending death is subject to the general law relating to gifts of personal property.

5702. (a) A gift in view of impending death is one which is made in contemplation, fear, or peril of impending death, whether from illness or other cause, and with intent that it shall be revoked if the giver recovers from the illness or escapes from the peril.

(b) A reference in a statute to a gift in view of death means a gift in view of impending death.

5703. A gift made during the last illness of the giver, or under circumstances which would naturally impress the giver with an expectation of speedy death, is presumed to be a gift in view of impending death.

5704. (a) A gift in view of impending death is revoked by:

(1) The giver's recovery from the illness, or escape from the peril, under the presence of which it was made.

(2) The death of the donee before the death of the giver.

(b) A gift in view of impending death may be revoked by:

(1) The giver at any time.

(2) The giver's will if the will expresses an intention to revoke the gift.

(c) A gift in view of impending death is not affected by a previous will of the giver.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b), when the gift has been delivered to the donee, the rights of a purchaser or encumbrancer, acting before the revocation in good faith, for a valuable consideration, and without knowledge of the conditional nature of the gift, are not affected by the revocation.

5705. A gift in view of impending death is subject to Section 9653.

SEC. 19. Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 6200) of Part 1 of Division 6 of the Probate Code, as enacted by Chapter 79 of the Statutes of 1990, is repealed.

SEC. 20. Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 6200) is added to Part 1 of Division 6 of the Probate Code, to read:

CHAPTER 6. CALIFORNIA STATUTORY WILL

Article 1. Definitions and Rules of Construction

6200. Unless the provision or context clearly requires otherwise, these definitions and rules of construction govern the construction of this chapter.

6201. "Testator" means a person choosing to adopt a California statutory will.

6202. "Spouse" means the testator's husband or wife at the time the testator signs a California statutory will.

6203. "Executor" means both the person so designated in a California statutory will and any other person acting at any time as the executor or administrator under a California statutory will.

6204. "Trustee" means both the person so designated in a California statutory will and any other person acting at any time as the trustee under a California statutory will.

6205. "Descendants" mean children, grandchildren, and their lineal descendants of all generations, with the relationship of parent and child at each generation being determined as provided in Section 6152. A reference to "descendants" in the plural includes a single descendant where the context so requires.

6206. A reference in a California statutory will to the "Uniform Gifts to Minors Act of any state" or the "Uniform Transfers to Minors Act of any state" includes both the Uniform Gifts to Minors Act of any state and the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act of any state. A reference to a "custodian" means the person so designated in a California statutory will or any other person acting at any time as a custodian under a Uniform Gifts to Minors Act or Uniform Transfers to Minors Act.

6207. Masculine pronouns include the feminine, and plural and singular words include each other, where appropriate.

6208. (a) If a California statutory will states that a person shall perform an act, the person is required to perform that act.

(b) If a California statutory will states that a person may do an act, the person's decision to do or not to do the act shall be made in the exercise of the person's fiduciary powers.

6209. Whenever a distribution under a California statutory will is to be made to a person's descendants, the property shall be divided into as many equal shares as there are then living descendants of the nearest degree of living descendants and deceased descendants of that same degree who leave descendants then living; and each living descendant of the nearest degree shall receive one share and the share of each deceased descendant of that same degree shall be divided among his or her descendants in the same manner.

6210. "Person" includes individuals and institutions.

6211. Reference to a person "if living" or who "survives me" means a person who survives the decedent by 120 hours. A person who fails to survive the decedent by 120 hours is deemed to have predeceased the decedent for the purpose of a California statutory will, and the beneficiaries are determined accordingly. If it cannot be established by clear and convincing evidence that a person who would otherwise be a beneficiary has survived the decedent by 120 hours, it is deemed that the person failed to survive for the required period. The requirement of this section that a person who survives the decedent must survive the decedent by 120 hours does not apply if the application of the 120-hour survival requirement would result in the escheat of property to the state.

Article 2. General Provisions

6220. Any individual of sound mind and over the age of 18 may execute a California statutory will under the provisions of this chapter.

6221. A California statutory will shall be executed only as follows:

(a) The testator shall complete the appropriate blanks and shall sign the will.

(b) Each witness shall observe the testator's signing and each witness shall sign his or her name in the presence of the testator.

6222. The execution of the attestation clause provided in the California statutory will by two or more witnesses satisfies Section 8220.

6223. (a) There is only one California statutory will.

(b) The California statutory will includes all of the following:

(1) The contents of the California statutory will form set out in Section 6240, excluding the questions and answers at the beginning of the California statutory will.

(2) By reference, the full texts of each of the following:

(A) The definitions and rules of construction set forth in Article 1 (commencing with Section 6200).

(B) The property disposition clauses adopted by the testator. If no property disposition clause is adopted, Section 6224 shall apply.

(C) The mandatory clauses set forth in Section 6241.

(c) Notwithstanding this section, any California statutory will or California statutory will with trust executed on a form allowed under prior law shall be governed by the law that applied prior to January 1, 1992.

6224. If more than one property disposition clause appearing in paragraphs 2 or 3 of a California statutory will is selected, no gift is made. If more than one property disposition clause in paragraph 5 of a California statutory will form is selected, or if none is selected, the residuary estate of a testator who signs a California statutory will shall be distributed to the testator's heirs as if the testator did not make a will.

6225. Only the texts of property disposition clauses and the mandatory clauses shall be considered in determining their meaning. Their titles shall be disregarded.

6226. (a) A California statutory will may be revoked and may be amended by codicil in the same manner as other wills.

(b) Any additions to or deletions from the California statutory will on the face of the California statutory will form, other than in accordance with the instructions, shall be given effect only where clear and convincing evidence shows that they would effectuate the clear intent of the testator. In the absence of such a showing, the court either may determine that the addition or deletion is ineffective and shall be disregarded, or may determine that all or a portion of the California statutory will is invalid, whichever is more likely to be consistent with the intent of the testator.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 6110, a document executed on a California statutory will form is valid as a will if all of the following requirements are shown to be satisfied by clear and convincing evidence:

(1) The form is signed by the testator.

(2) The court is satisfied that the testator knew and approved of the contents of the will and intended it to have testamentary effect.

(3) The testamentary intent of the maker as reflected in the document is clear.

6227. (a) If after executing a California statutory will the testator's marriage is dissolved or annulled, the dissolution or annulment revokes any disposition of property made by the will to the former spouse and any nomination of the former spouse as executor, trustee, guardian, or custodian made by the will. If any disposition or nomination is revoked solely by this section, it is revived by the testator's remarriage to the former spouse.

(b) In case of revocation by dissolution or annulment:

(1) Property prevented from passing to a former spouse because of the revocation passes as if the former spouse failed to survive the testator.

(2) Provisions nominating the former spouse as executor, trustee, guardian, or custodian shall be interpreted as if the former spouse failed to survive the testator.

(c) For purposes of this section, dissolution or annulment means any dissolution or annulment that would exclude the spouse as a surviving spouse within the meaning of Section 78. A decree of legal separation which does not terminate the status of husband and wife is not a dissolution or annulment for purposes of this section.

(d) This section applies to any California statutory will, without regard to the time when the will was executed, but this section does not apply to any case where the final judgment of dissolution or annulment of marriage occurs before January 1, 1985; and, if the final judgment of dissolution or annulment of marriage occurs before January 1, 1985, the case is governed by the law that applied prior to January 1, 1985.

Article 3. Form and Full Text of Clauses

6240. The following is the California statutory will form:

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THIS CALIFORNIA STATUTORY WILL

The following information, in question and answer form, is not a part of the California Statutory Will. It is designed to help you understand about Wills and to decide if this Will meets your needs. This Will is in a simple form. The complete text of each paragraph of this Will is printed at the end of the Will.

1. What happens if I die without a Will? If you die without a Will, what you own (your "assets") in your name alone will be divided among your spouse, children, or other relatives according to state law. The court will appoint a relative to collect and distribute your assets.

2. What can a Will do for me? In a Will you may designate who will receive your assets at your death. You may designate someone (called an "executor") to appear before the court, collect your assets, pay your debts and taxes, and distribute your assets as you specify. You may nominate someone (called a "guardian") to raise your children who are under age 18. You may designate someone (called a "custodian") to manage assets for your children until they reach any age between 18 and 25.

3. Does a Will avoid probate? No. With or without a Will, assets in your name alone usually go through the court probate process. The court's first job is to determine if your Will is valid.

4. What is community property? Can I give away my share in my Will? If you are married and you or your spouse earned money during your marriage from work and wages, that money (and the assets bought with it) is community property. Your Will can only give away your one-half of community property. Your Will cannot give away your spouse's one-half of community property.

5. Does my Will give away all of my assets? Do all assets go through probate? No. Money in a joint tenancy bank account automatically belong to the other named owner without probate. If your spouse or child is on the deed to your house as a joint tenant, the house automatically passes to him or her. Life insurance and retirement plan benefits may pass directly to the named beneficiary. A Will does not necessarily control how these types of "nonprobate" assets pass at your death.

6. Are there different kinds of Wills? Yes. There are handwritten Wills, typewritten Wills, attorney-prepared Wills, and statutory Wills. All are valid if done precisely as the law requires. You should see a lawyer if you do not want to use this statutory Will or if you do not understand this form.

7. Who may use this Will? This Will is based on California law. It is designed only for California residents. You may use this form if you are single, married, or divorced. You must be age 18 or older and or sound mind.

8. Are there any reasons why I should NOT use this statutory Will? Yes. This is a simple Will. It is not designed to reduce death taxes or other taxes. Talk to a lawyer to do tax planning, especially if (i) your assets will be worth more than $600,000 at your death, (ii) you own business related assets, (iii) you want to create a trust fund for your children's education or other purposes, (iv) you own assets in some other state, (v) you want to disinherit your spouse or descendants, or (vi) you have valuable interests in pension or profit sharing plans. You should talk to a lawyer who knows about estate planning if this Will does not meet your needs. This Will treats most adopted children like natural children. You should talk to a lawyer if you have stepchildren or foster children whom you have not adopted.

9. May I add or cross out any words on this Will? No. If you do, the Will may be invalid or the court may ignore the crossed out or added words. You may only fill in the blanks. You may amend this Will by a separate document (called a codicil). Talk to a lawyer if you want to do something with your assets which is not allowed in this form.

10. May I change my Will? Yes. A Will is not effective until you die. You may make and sign a new Will. You may change your Will at any time, but only by an amendment (called a codicil). You can give away or sell your assets before your death. Your Will only acts on what you own at death.

11. Where should I keep my Will? After you and the witnesses sign the Will, keep your Will in your safe deposit box or other safe place. You should tell trusted family members where your Will is kept.

12. When should I change my Will? You should make and sign a new Will if you marry or divorce after you sign this Will. Divorce or annulment automatically cancels all property stated to pass to a former husband or wife under this Will, and revokes the designation of a former spouse as executor, custodian, or guardian. You should sign a new Will when you have more children, or if your spouse or a child dies. You may want to change your Will if there is a large change in the value of your assets.

13. What can I do if I do not understand something in this Will? If there is anything in this Will you do not understand, ask a lawyer to explain it to you.

14. What is an executor? An "executor" is the person you name to collect your assets, pay your debts and taxes, and distribute your assets as the court directs. It may be a person or it may a qualified bank or trust company.

15. Should I require a bond? You may require that an executor post a "bond." A bond is a form of insurance to replace assets that may be mismanaged or stolen by the executor. The cost of the bond is paid from the estate's assets.

16. What is a guardian? Do I need to designate one? If you have children under age 18, you should designate a guardian of their "persons" to raise them.

17. What is a custodian? Do I need to designate one? A "custodian" is a person you may designate to manage assets for someone (including a child) who is between ages 18 and 25 and who receives assets under your Will. The custodian manages the assets and pays as much as the custodian determines is proper for health, support, maintenance, and education. The custodian delivers what is left to the person when the person reaches the age you choose (between 18 and 25). No bond is required of a custodian.

18. Should I ask people if they are willing to serve before I designate them as executor, guardian, or custodian? Probably yes. Some people and banks and trust companies may not consent to serve or may not be qualified to act.

19. What happens if I make a gift in this Will to someone and they die before I do? A person must survive you by 120 hours to take a gift under this Will. If they do not, then the gift fails and goes with the rest of your assets. If the person who does not survive you is a relative of you or your spouse, then certain assets may go to the relative's descendants.

20. What is a trust? There are many kinds of trusts, including trusts created by Wills (called "testamentary trusts") and trusts created during your lifetime (called "revocable living trusts"). Both kinds of trusts are long-term arrangements where a manager (called a "trustee") invests and manages assets for someone (called a "beneficiary") on the terms you specify. Trusts are too complicated to be used in this statutory Will. You should see a lawyer if you want to create a trust.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. READ THE WILL. Read the whole Will first. If you do not understand something, ask a lawyer to explain it to you.

2. FILL IN THE BLANKS. Fill in the blanks. Follow the instructions in the form carefully. Do not add any words to the Will (except for filling in blanks) or cross out any words.

3. DATE AND SIGN THE WILL AND HAVE TWO WITNESSES SIGN IT. Date and sign the Will and have two witnesses sign it. You and the witnesses should read and follow the Notice to Witnesses found at the end of this Will.

6. Guardian of the Child's Person. If I have a child under age 18 and the child does not have a living parent at my death, I nominate the individual named below as First Choice as guardian of the person of such child (to raise the child). If the First Choice does not serve, then I nominate the Second Choice, and then the Third Choice, to serve. Only an individual (not a bank or trust company) may serve.

Name of First Choice for Guardian of the Person

Name of Second Choice for Guardian of the Person

Name of Third Choice for Guardian of the Person

7. Special Provision for Property of Persons Under Age 25. (Optional—Unless you use this paragraph, assets that go to a child or other person who is under age 18 may be given to the parent of the person, or to the Guardian named in paragraph 6 above as guardian of the person until age 18, and the court will require a bond; and assets that go to a child or other person who is age 18 or older will be given outright to the person. By using this paragraph you may provide that a custodian will hold the assets for the person until the person reaches any age between 18 and 25 which you choose). If a beneficiary of this Will is between age 18 and 25, I nominate the individual or bank or trust company named below as First Choice as custodian of the property. If the First Choice does not serve, then I nominate the Second Choice, and then the Third Choice, to serve.

Name of First Choice for Custodian of Assets

6241. The mandatory clauses of the California statutory will form are as follows:

(a) Intestate Disposition. If the testator has not made an effective disposition of the residuary estate, the executor shall distribute it to the testator's heirs at law, their identities and respective shares to be determined according to the laws of the State of California in effect on the date of the testator's death relating to intestate succession of property not acquired from a predeceased spouse.

(b) Powers of Executor.

(1) In addition to any powers now or hereafter conferred upon executors by law, including all powers granted under the Independent Administration of Estates Act, the executor shall have the power to:

(A) Sell estate assets at public or private sale, for cash or on credit terms.

(B) Lease estate assets without restriction as to duration.

(C) Invest any surplus moneys of the estate in real or personal property, as the executor deems advisable.

(2) The executor may distribute estate assets otherwise distributable to a minor beneficiary to one of the following:

(A) The guardian of the minor's person or estate.

(B) Any adult person with whom the minor resides and who has the care, custody, or control of the minor.

(C) A custodian of the minor under the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act as designated in the California statutory will form.

The executor is free of liability and is discharged from any further accountability for distributing assets in compliance with the provisions of this paragraph.

(3) On any distribution of assets from the estate, the executor shall have the discretion to partition, allot, and distribute the assets in the following manner:

(A) In kind, including undivided interest in an asset or in any part of it.

(B) Partly in cash and partly in kind.

(C) Entirely in cash.

If a distribution is being made to more than one beneficiary, the executor shall have the discretion to distribute assets among them on a pro rata or non pro rata basis, with the assets valued as of the date of distribution.

(c) Powers of Guardian. A guardian of the person nominated in the California statutory will shall have the same authority with respect to the person of the ward as a parent having legal custody of a child would have. All powers granted to guardians in this paragraph may be exercised without court authorization.

6242. (a) Except as specifically provided in this chapter, a California statutory will shall include only the texts of the property disposition clauses and the mandatory clauses as they exist on the day the California statutory will is executed.

(b) Sections 6205, 6206, and 6227 apply to every California statutory will, including those executed before January 1, 1985. Section 6211 applies only to California statutory wills executed after July 1, 1991.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 6222, and except as provided in subdivision (b), a California statutory will is governed by the law that applied prior to January 1, 1992, if the California statutory will is executed on a from that (1) was prepared for use under former Sections 56 to 56.14, inclusive, or former Sections 6200 to 6248, inclusive, of the Probate Code, and (2) satisfied the requirements of law that applied prior to January 1, 1992.

(d) A California statutory will does not fail to satisfy the requirements of subdivision (a) merely because the will is executed on a form that incorporates the mandatory clauses of Section 6241 that refer to former Section 1120.2. If the will incorporates the mandatory clauses with a reference to former Section 1120.2, the trustee has the powers listed in Article 2 (commencing with Section 16220) of Chapter 2 of Part 4 of Division 9.

6243. Except as specifically provided in this chapter, the general law of California applies to a California statutory will.

SEC. 21. Section 7240 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

7240. An appeal may be taken from the making of, or the refusal to make, any of the following orders:

(a) Granting or revoking letters, but not letters of special administration or letters of special administration with general powers.

(b) Admitting a will to probate or revoking the probate of a will.

(c) Setting aside a small estate under Section 6609.

(d) Setting apart a probate homestead or property claimed to be exempt from enforcement of a money judgment.

(e) Granting, modifying, or terminating a family allowance.

(f) Directing or authorizing the sale or conveyance or confirming the sale of property.

(g) Directing or authorizing the granting of an option to purchase property.

(h) Adjudicating the merits of a claim under Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 9860) of Part 5.

(i) Allocating debts under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 11440) of Part 9.

(j) Settling an account of a personal representative.

(k) Instructing or directing a personal representative.

(l) Directing or allowing the payment of a debt, claim, devise, attorney's fee, or personal representative's compensation.

(m) Determining the persons to whom distribution should be made.

(n) Distributing property.

(o) Determining that property passes to, or confirming that property belongs to, the surviving spouse under Section 13656.

(p) Authorizing a personal representative to invest or reinvest surplus money under Section 9732.

SEC. 22. Section 8570 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

8570. As used in this article, "nonresident personal representative" means a nonresident of this state appointed as personal representative, or a resident of this state appointed as personal representative who later removes from and resides without this state.

SEC. 23. Section 8575 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

8575. Proof of compliance with Section 8574 shall be made in the following manner:

(a) In the event of service by mail, by certificate of the Secretary of State, under official seal, showing the mailing. The certificate shall be filed with the court from which process issued.

(b) In the event of personal service outside this state, by the return of any duly constituted public officer qualified to serve like process, or notice of motion, of and in the jurisdiction where the nonresident personal representative is found, showing the service to have been made. The return shall be attached to the original summons, or notice of motion, and filed with the court from which process issued.

SEC. 24. Section 9053 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

9053. (a) If the personal representative believes that notice to a particular creditor is or may be required by this chapter and gives notice based on that belief, the personal representative is not liable to any person for giving the notice, whether or not required by this chapter.

(b) If the personal representative fails to give notice required by this chapter, the personal representative is not liable to any person for the failure, unless a creditor establishes all of the following:

(1) The failure was in bad faith.

(2) Neither the creditor nor the attorney representing the creditor in the matter had actual knowledge of the administration of the estate before expiration of the time for filing a claim, and payment would have been made on the creditor's claim in the course of administration if the claim had been properly filed.

(3) Within 16 months after letters were first issued to a general personal representative, the creditor did both of the following:

(A) Filed a petition requesting that the court in which the estate was administered make an order determining the liability of the personal representative under this subdivision.

(B) At least 30 days before the hearing on the petition, caused notice of the hearing and a copy of the petition to be served on the personal representative in the manner provided in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 413.10) of Title 5 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(c) Nothing in this section affects the liability of the estate, if any, for the claim of a creditor, and the personal representative is not liable for the claim to the extent it is paid out of the estate or could be paid out of the estate pursuant to Section 9103.

(d) Nothing in this chapter imposes a duty on the personal representative to make a search for creditors of the decedent.

SEC. 25. Section 9103 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

9103. (a) Upon petition by a creditor and notice of hearing given as provided in Section 1220, the court may allow a claim to be filed after expiration of the time for filing a claim if the creditor establishes that either of the following conditions is satisfied:

(1) Neither the creditor nor the attorney representing the creditor in the matter had actual knowledge of the administration of the estate more than 15 days before expiration of the time provided in Section 9100, and the creditor's petition was filed within 30 days after either the creditor or the creditor's attorney had actual knowledge of the administration whichever occurred first.

(2) Neither the creditor nor the attorney representing the creditor in the matter had knowledge of the existence of the claim more than 15 days before expiration of the time provided in Section 9100, and the creditor's petition was filed within 30 days after either the creditor or the creditor's attorney had knowledge of the existence of the claim whichever occurred first.

(b) The court shall not allow a claim to be filed under this section after the earlier of the following times:

(1) The time the court makes an order for final distribution of the estate.

(2) One year after the time letters are first issued to a general personal representative. Nothing in this paragraph authorizes allowance or approval of a claim barred by, or extends the time provided in, Section 353 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(c) The court may condition the claim on terms that are just and equitable, and may require the appointment or reappointment of a personal representative if necessary. The court may deny the creditor's petition if a payment to general creditors has been made and it appears that the filing or establishment of the claim would cause or tend to cause unequal treatment among creditors.

(d) Regardless of whether the claim is later established in whole or in part, payments otherwise properly made before a claim is filed under this section are not subject to the claim. Except to the extent provided in Section 9392 and subject to Section 9053, the personal representative or payee is not liable on account of the prior payment. Nothing in this subdivision limits the liability of a person who receives a preliminary distribution of property to restore to the estate an amount sufficient for payment of the distributee's proper share of the claim, not exceeding the amount distributed.

SEC. 26. Section 9352 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

9352. (a) The filing of a claim or a petition under Section 9103 to file a claim tolls the statute of limitations otherwise applicable to the claim until allowance, approval, or rejection.

(b) The allowance or approval of a claim in whole or in part further tolls the statute of limitations during the administration of the estate as to the part allowed or approved.

SEC. 27. Section 9653 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

9653. (a) On application of a creditor of the decedent or the estate, the personal representative shall commence and prosecute an action for the recovery of real or personal property of the decedent for the benefit of creditors if the personal representative has insufficient assets to pay creditors and the decedent during lifetime did any of the following with respect to the property:

(1) Made a conveyance of the property, or any right or interest in the property, that is fraudulent as to creditors under the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act (Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 3439) of Title 2 of Part 2 of Division 4 of the Civil Code).

(2) Made a gift of the property in view of impending death.

(3) Made a direction to transfer a vehicle, undocumented vessel, manufactured home, mobilehome, commercial coach, truck camper, or floating home to a designated beneficiary on the decedent's death pursuant to Section 18102.2 of the Health and Safety Code, or Section 5910.5 or 9916.5 of the Vehicle Code, and the property has been transferred as directed.

(b) A creditor making application under this section shall pay such part of the costs and expenses of the suit and attorney's fees, or give an undertaking to the personal representative for that purpose, as the personal representative and the creditor agree, or, absent an agreement, as the court or judge orders.

(c) The property recovered under this section shall be sold for the payment of debts in the same manner as if the decedent had died seized or possessed of the property. The proceeds of the sale shall be applied first to payment of the costs and expenses of suit, including attorney's fees, and then to payment of the debts of the decedent in the same manner as other property in possession of the personal representative. After all the debts of the decedent have been paid, the remainder of the proceeds shall be paid to the person from whom the property was recovered. The property may be sold in its entirety or in such portion as necessary to pay the debts.

SEC. 28. Section 11425 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 29. Section 11426 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 30. Section 11427 of the Probate Code is repealed.

SEC. 31. Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 11460) is added to Part 9 of Division 7 of the Probate Code, to read:

CHAPTER 4. DEBTS THAT ARE CONTINGENT, DISPUTED, OR NOT DUE

11460. As used in this chapter:

(a) A debt is "contingent" if it is established under Part 4 (commencing with Section 9000) in either a fixed or an uncertain amount and will become absolute on occurrence of a stated event other than the passage of time. The term includes a secured obligation for which there may be recourse against property in the estate, other than the property that is the security, if the security is insufficient.

(b) A debt is "disputed" if it is a claim rejected in whole or in part under Part 4 (commencing with Section 9000) and is not barred under Section 9353 as to the part rejected.

(c) A debt is "not due" if it is established under Part 4 (commencing with Section 9000) and will become due on the passage of time. The term includes a debt payable in installments.

11461. When all other debts have been paid and the estate is otherwise in a condition to be closed, on petition by an interested person, the court may make or modify an order or a combination of orders under this chapter that the court in its discretion determines is appropriate to provide adequately for a debt that is contingent, disputed, or not due, if the debt becomes absolute, established, or due. Notice of the hearing on the petition shall be given as provided in Section 1220 to the creditor whose debt is contingent, disputed, or not due, as well as to the persons provided in Section 11601.

11462. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, if the court determines that all interested persons agree to the manner of providing for a debt that is contingent, disputed, or not due and that the agreement reasonably protects all interested persons and will not extend administration of the estate unreasonably, the court shall approve the agreement.

11464. (a) The court may order property in the estate distributed to a person entitled to it under the final order for distribution, if the person files with the court an assumption of liability for a contingent or disputed debt as provided in subdivision (b). The court may impose any other conditions the court in its discretion determines are just, including that the distributee give a security interest in all or part of the property distributed or that the distributee give a bond in an amount determined by the court.

(b) As a condition for an order under subdivision (a), each distributee shall file with the court a signed and acknowledged agreement assuming personal liability for the contingent or disputed debt and consenting to jurisdiction within this state for the enforcement of the debt if it becomes absolute or established. The personal liability of each distributee shall not exceed the fair market value on the date of distribution of the property received by the distributee, less the amount of liens and encumbrances. If there is more than one distributee, the personal liability of the distributees is joint and several.

(c) If the debt becomes absolute or established, it may be enforced against each distributee in the same manner as it could have been enforced against the decedent if the decedent had not died. In an action based on the debt, the distributee may assert any defense, cross-complaint, or setoff that would have been available to the decedent if the decedent had not died.

(d) The statute of limitations applicable to a contingent debt is tolled from the time the creditor's claim is filed until 30 days after the order for distribution becomes final. The signing of an agreement under subdivision (b) neither extends nor revives any limitation period.

11465. (a) The court may order that a trustee be appointed to receive payment for a debt that is contingent, disputed, or not due. The court in determining the amount paid to the trustee shall compute the present value of the debt, giving consideration to a reasonable return on the amount to be invested. The trustee shall invest the payment in investments that would be proper for a personal representative or as authorized in the order.

(b) The trustee shall pay the debt as provided in the order. On completion of payment, any excess in possession of the trustee shall be distributed in the manner provided in Section 11642.

11466. The court may order property in the estate distributed to a person entitled to it under the final order for distribution, if the person gives a bond conditioned on payment by the person of the amount of a contingent or disputed debt that becomes absolute or established. The amount of the bond shall be determined by the court, not to exceed the fair market value on the date of distribution of the property received by the distributee, less the amount of liens and encumbrances. In the case of a disputed debt or in the case of a contingent debt where litigation is required to establish the contingency, the cost of the bond is recoverable from the unsuccessful party as a cost of litigation.

11467. The court may order that the administration of the estate continue until the contingency, dispute, or passage of time of a debt that is contingent, disputed, or not due is resolved.

SEC. 32. Section 13004 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

13004. (a) "Particular item of property" means:

(1) Particular personal property of the decedent which is sought to be collected, received, or transferred by the successor of the decedent under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 13100).

(2) Particular real property of the decedent, or particular real and personal property of the decedent, for which the successor of the decedent seeks a court order determining succession under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 13150).

(3) Particular real property of the decedent with respect to which the successor of the decedent files an affidavit of succession under Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 13200).

(b) Subject to subdivision (a), "particular item of property" includes all interests specified in Section 62.

SEC. 33. Section 13005 is added to the Probate Code, to read:

13005. "Property of the decedent," "decedent's property," "money due the decedent," and similar phrases, include property that becomes part of the decedent's estate on the decedent's death, whether by designation of the estate as beneficiary under an insurance policy on the decedent's life or under the decedent's retirement plan, or otherwise.

SEC. 34. Section 13006 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

13006. "Successor of the decedent" means:

(a) If the decedent died leaving a will, the sole beneficiary or all of the beneficiaries who succeeded to a particular item of property of the decedent under the decedent's will. For the purposes of this part, a trust is a beneficiary under the decedent's will if the trust succeeds to the particular item of property under the decedent's will.

(b) If the decedent died without a will, the sole person or all of the persons who succeeded to the particular item of property of the decedent under Sections 6401 and 6402 or, if the law of a sister state or foreign nation governs succession to the particular item of property, under the law of the sister state or foreign nation.

SEC. 35. Section 13051 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

13051. For the purposes of this part:

(a) The guardian or conservator of the estate of a person entitled to any of the decedent's property may act on behalf of the person without authorization or approval of the court in which the guardianship or conservatorship proceeding is pending.

(b) The trustee of a trust may act on behalf of the trust. In the case of a trust that is subject to continuing jurisdiction of the court pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 17300) of Part 5 of Division 9, the trustee may act on behalf of the trust without the need to obtain approval of the court.

(c) If the decedent's will authorizes a custodian under the Uniform Gifts to Minors Act or the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act of any state to receive a devise to a beneficiary, the custodian may act on behalf of the beneficiary until such time as the custodianship terminates.

(d) A sister state personal representative may act on behalf of the beneficiaries as provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 12570) of Part 13 of Division 7.

(e) The attorney in fact authorized under a durable power of attorney may act on behalf of the beneficiary giving the power of attorney.

SEC. 36. Section 13101 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

13101. (a) To collect money, receive tangible personal property, or have evidences of a debt, obligation, interest, right, security, or chose in action transferred under this chapter, an affidavit or a declaration under penalty of perjury under the laws of this state shall be furnished to the holder of the decedent's property stating all of the following:

(1) The decedent's name.

(2) The date and place of the decedent's death.

(3) "At least 40 days have elapsed since the death of the decedent, as shown in a certified copy of the decedent's death certificate attached to this affidavit or declaration."

(4) Either of the following, as appropriate:

(A) "No proceeding is now being or has been conducted in California for administration of the decedent's estate."

(B) "The decedent's personal representative has consented in writing to the payment, transfer, or delivery to the affiant or declarant of the property described in the affidavit or declaration."

(5) "The current gross fair market value of the decedent's real and personal property in California, excluding the property described in Section 13050 of the California Probate Code, does not exceed sixty thousand dollars ($60,000)."

(6) A description of the property of the decedent that is to be paid, transferred, or delivered to the affiant or declarant.

(7) The name of the successor of the decedent (as defined in Section 13006 of the California Probate Code) to the described property.

(8) Either of the following, as appropriate:

(A) "The affiant or declarant is the successor of the decedent (as defined in Section 13006 of the California Probate Code) to the decedent's interest in the described property."

(B) "The affiant or declarant is authorized under Section 13051 of the California Probate Code to act on behalf of the successor of the decedent (as defined in Section 13006 of the California Probate Code) with respect to the decedent's interest in the described property."

(9) "No other person has a superior right to the interest of the decedent in the described property."

(10) "The affiant or declarant requests that the described property be paid, delivered, or transferred to the affiant or declarant."

(11) "The affiant or declarant affirms or declares under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct."

(b) Where more than one person executes the affidavit or declaration under this section, the statements required by subdivision (a) shall be modified as appropriate to reflect that fact.

(c) If the particular item of property to be transferred under this chapter is a debt or other obligation secured by a lien on real property and the instrument creating the lien has been recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county where the real property is located, the affidavit or declaration shall satisfy the requirements both of this section and of Section 13106.5.

(d) A certified copy of the decedent's death certificate shall be attached to the affidavit or declaration.

(e) If the decedent's personal representative has consented to the payment, transfer, or delivery of the described property to the affiant or declarant, a copy of the consent and of the personal representative's letters shall be attached to the affidavit or declaration.

SEC. 37. Section 13107.5 is added to the Probate Code, to read:

13107.5. Where the money or property claimed in an affidavit or declaration executed under this chapter is the subject of a pending action or proceeding in which the decedent was a party, the successor of the decedent shall, without procuring letters of administration or awaiting probate of the will, be substituted as a party in place of the decedent by making a motion under Section 385 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The successor of the decedent shall file the affidavit or declaration with the court when the motion is made. For the purpose of Section 385 of the Code of Civil Procedure, a successor of the decedent who complies with this chapter shall be considered as a successor in interest of the decedent.

SEC. 38. Section 13108 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

13108. (a) The procedure provided by this chapter may be used only if one of the following requirements is satisfied:

(1) No proceeding for the administration of the decedent's estate is pending or has been conducted in this state.

(2) The decedent's personal representative consents in writing to the payment, transfer, or delivery of the property described in the affidavit or declaration pursuant to this chapter.

(b) Payment, delivery, or transfer of a decedent's property pursuant to this chapter does not preclude later proceedings for administration of the decedent's estate.

SEC. 39. Section 13110 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

13110. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), each person to whom payment, delivery, or transfer of the decedent's property is made under this chapter is personally liable to the extent provided in Section 13112 to any person having a superior right by testate or intestate succession from the decedent.

(b) In addition to any other liability the person has under this section and Sections 13109, 13111, and 13112, any person who fraudulently secures the payment, delivery, or transfer of the decedent's property under this chapter is liable to the person having such a superior right for three times the fair market value of the property. For the purposes of this subdivision, the "fair market value of the property" is the fair market value of the property paid, delivered, or transferred to the person liable under this subdivision, valued as of the time the person liable under this subdivision presents the affidavit or declaration under this chapter to the holder of the decedent's property, less any liens and encumbrances on that property at that time.

(c) An action to impose liability under this section is forever barred three years after the affidavit or declaration is presented under this chapter to the holder of the decedent's property, or three years after the discovery of the fraud, whichever is later. The three-year period specified in this subdivision is not tolled for any reason.

SEC. 40. Section 13111 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

13111. (a) Subject to the provisions of this section, if proceedings for the administration of the decedent's estate are commenced in this state, or if the decedent's personal representative has consented to the payment, transfer, or delivery of the decedent's property under this chapter and the personal representative later requests that the property be restored to the estate, each person to whom payment, delivery, or transfer of the decedent's property is made under this chapter is liable for:

(1) The restitution of the property to the estate if the person still has the property, together with (A) the net income the person received from the property and (B) if the person encumbered the property after it was delivered or transferred to the person, the amount necessary to satisfy the balance of the encumbrance as of the date the property is restored to the estate.

(2) The restitution to the estate of the fair market value of the property if the person no longer has the property, together with (A) the net income the person received from the property and (B) interest on the fair market value of the property from the date of disposition at the rate payable on a money judgment. For the purposes of this subdivision, the "fair market value of the property" is the fair market value, determined as of the time of the disposition of the property, of the property paid, delivered, or transferred to the person under this chapter, less any liens and encumbrances on the property at that time.

(b) Subject to subdivision (c) and subject to any additional liability the person has under Sections 13109 to 13112, inclusive, if the person fraudulently secured the payment, delivery, or transfer of the decedent's property under this chapter, the person is liable under this section for restitution to the decedent's estate of three times the fair market value of the property. For the purposes of this subdivision, the "fair market value of the property" is the fair market value, determined as of the time the person liable under this subdivision presents the affidavit or declaration under this chapter, of the property paid, delivered, or transferred to the person under this chapter, less the amount of any liens and encumbrances on the property at that time.

(c) The property and amount required to be restored to the estate under this section shall be reduced by any property or amount paid by the person to satisfy a liability under Section 13109 or 13110.

(d) An action to enforce the liability under this section may be brought only by the personal representative of the estate of the decedent. In an action to enforce the liability under this section, the court's judgment may enforce the liability only to the extent necessary to protect the interests of the heirs, devisees, and creditors of the decedent.

(e) An action to enforce the liability under this section is forever barred three years after presentation of the affidavit or declaration under this chapter to the holder of the decedent's property, or three years after the discovery of the fraud, whichever is later. The three-year period specified in this subdivision is not tolled for any reason.

(f) In the case of a nondomiciliary decedent, restitution under this section shall be made to the estate in an ancillary administration proceeding.

SEC. 41. The heading of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 13150) of Part 1 of Division 8 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

CHAPTER 4. COURT ORDER DETERMINING SUCCESSION TO PROPERTY

SEC. 42. Section 13150 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

13150. The procedure provided by this chapter may be used only if one of the following requirements is satisfied:

(a) No proceeding is being or has been conducted in this state for administration of the decedent's estate.

(b) The decedent's personal representative consents in writing to use of the procedure provided by this chapter to determine that real property of the decedent is property passing to the petitioners.

SEC. 43. Section 13151 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

13151. Exclusive of the property described in Section 13050, if a decedent dies leaving real property in this state and the gross value of the decedent's real and personal property in this state does not exceed sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) and 40 days have elapsed since the death of the decedent, the successor of the decedent to an interest in a particular item of property that is real property, without procuring letters of administration or awaiting the probate of the will, may file a petition in the superior court of the county in which the estate of the decedent may be administered requesting a court order determining that the petitioner has succeeded to that real property. A petition under this chapter may include an additional request that the court make an order determining that the petitioner has succeeded to personal property described in the petition.

SEC. 44. Section 13152 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

13152. (a) The petition shall be verified by each petitioner, shall contain a request that the court make an order under this chapter determining that the property described in the petition is property passing to the petitioner, and shall state all of the following:

(1) The facts necessary to determine that the petition is filed in the proper county.

(2) The gross value of the decedent's real and personal property in this state, excluding the property described in Section 13050, as shown by the inventory and appraisal attached to the petition, does not exceed sixty thousand dollars ($60,000).

(3) A description of the particular item of real property in this state which the petitioner alleges is property of the decedent passing to the petitioner, and a description of the personal property which the petitioner alleges is property of the decedent passing to the petitioner if the requested order also is to include a determination that the described personal property is property passing to the petitioner.

(4) The facts upon which the petitioner bases the allegation that the described property is property passing to the petitioner.

(5) Either of the following, as appropriate:

(A) A statement that no proceeding is being or has been conducted in this state for administration of the decedent's estate.

(B) A statement that the decedent's personal representative has consented in writing to use of the procedure provided by this chapter.

(6) Whether estate proceedings for the decedent have been commenced in any other jurisdiction and, if so, where those proceedings are pending or were conducted.

(7) The name, age, address, and relation to the decedent of each heir and devisee of the decedent, the names and addresses of all persons named as executors of the will of the decedent, and, if the petitioner is the trustee of a trust that is a devisee under the will of the decedent, the names and addresses of all persons interested in the trust, as determined in cases of future interests pursuant to paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 15804, so far as known to any petitioner.

(8) The name and address of each person serving as guardian or conservator of the estate of the decedent at the time of the decedent's death, so far as known to any petitioner.

(b) There shall be attached to the petition an inventory and appraisal in the form set forth in Section 8802 of the decedent's real and personal property in this state, excluding the property described in Section 13050. The appraisal shall be made by a probate referee selected by the petitioner from those probate referees appointed by the Controller under Section 400 to appraise property in the county where the real property is located. The appraisal shall be made as provided in Part 3 (commencing with Section 8800) of Division 7. The petitioner may appraise the assets which a personal representative could appraise under Section 8901.

(c) If the petitioner bases his or her claim to the described property upon the will of the decedent, a copy of the will shall be attached to the petition.

(d) If the decedent's personal representative has consented to use of the procedure provided by this chapter, a copy of the consent shall be attached to the petition.

SEC. 45. Section 13154 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

13154. (a) If the court makes the determinations required under subdivision (b), the court shall issue an order determining (1) that real property, to be described in the order, of the decedent is property passing to the petitioners and the specific property interest of each petitioner in the described property and (2) if the petition so requests, that personal property, to be described in the order, of the decedent is property passing to the petitioners and the specific property interest of each petitioner in the described property.

(b) The court may make an order under this section only if the court makes all of the following determinations:

(1) The gross value of the decedent's real and personal property in this state, excluding the property described in Section 13050, does not exceed sixty thousand dollars ($60,000).

(2) Not less than 40 days have elapsed since the death of the decedent.

(3) Whichever of the following is appropriate:

(A) No proceeding is being or has been conducted in this state for administration of the decedent's estate.

(B) The decedent's personal representative has consented in writing to use of the procedure provided by this chapter.

(4) The property described in the order is property of the decedent passing to the petitioner.

(c) If the petition has attached an inventory and appraisal that satisfies the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 13152, the determination required by paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of this section shall be made on the basis of the verified petition and the attached inventory and appraisal, unless evidence is offered by a person opposing the petition that the gross value of the decedent's real and personal property in this state, excluding the property described in Section 13050, exceeds sixty thousand dollars ($60,000).

SEC. 46. Section 13155 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

13155. Upon becoming final, an order under this chapter determining that property is property passing to the petitioner is conclusive on all persons, whether or not they are in being.

SEC. 47. Section 13158 is added to the Probate Code, to read:

13158. Nothing in this chapter excuses compliance with Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 13100) by the holder of the decedent's personal property if an affidavit or declaration is furnished as provided in that chapter.

SEC. 48. Section 13200 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

13200. (a) No sooner than six months from the death of a decedent, a person or persons claiming as successor of the decedent to a particular item of property that is real property may file in the superior court in the county in which the decedent was domiciled at the time of death, or if the decedent was not domiciled in this state at the time of death, then in any county in which real property of the decedent is located, an affidavit in the form prescribed by the Judicial Council pursuant to Section 1001 stating all of the following:

(1) The name of the decedent.

(2) The date and place of the decedent's death.

(3) A legal description of the real property and the interest of the decedent therein.

(4) The name and address of each person serving as guardian or conservator of the estate of the decedent at the time of the decedent's death, so far as known to the affiant.

(5) "The gross value of all real property in the decedent's estate located in California, as shown by the inventory and appraisal attached to this affidavit, excluding the real property described in Section 13050 of the California Probate Code, does not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000)."

(6) "At least six months have elapsed since the death of the decedent as shown in a certified copy of decedent's death certificate attached to this affidavit."

(7) Either of the following, as appropriate:

(A) "No proceeding is now being or has been conducted in California for administration of the decedent's estate."

(B) "The decedent's personal representative has consented in writing to use of the procedure provided by this chapter."

(8) "Funeral expenses, expenses of last illness, and all unsecured debts of the decedent have been paid."

(9) "The affiant is the successor of the decedent (as defined in Section 13006 of the Probate Code) and to the decedent's interest in the described property, and no other person has a superior right to the interest of the decedent in the described property."

(10) "The affiant declares under penalty of perjury under the law of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct."

(b) For each person executing the affidavit, the affidavit shall contain a notary public's certificate of acknowledgment identifying the person.

(c) There shall be attached to the affidavit an inventory and appraisal of the decedent's real property in this state, excluding the real property described in Section 13050. The inventory and appraisal of the real property shall be made as provided in Part 3 (commencing with Section 8800) of Division 7. The appraisal shall be made by a probate referee selected by the affiant from those probate referees appointed by the Controller under Section 400 to appraise property in the county where the real property is located.

(d) If the affiant claims under the decedent's will and no estate proceeding is pending or has been conducted in California, a copy of the will shall be attached to the affidavit.

(e) A certified copy of the decedent's death certificate shall be attached to the affidavit. If the decedent's personal representative has consented to the use of the procedure provided by this chapter, a copy of the consent and of the personal representative's letters shall be attached to the affidavit.

(f) The affiant shall mail a copy of the affidavit and attachments to any person identified in paragraph (4) of subdivision (a).

SEC. 49. Section 13205 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

13205. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), each person who is designated as a successor of the decedent in a certified copy of any affidavit issued under Section 13202 is personally liable to the extent provided in Section 13207 to any person having a superior right by testate or intestate succession from the decedent.

(b) In addition to any other liability the person has under this section and Sections 13204, 13206, and 13207, if the person fraudulently executed or filed the affidavit under this chapter, the person is liable to the person having a superior right for three times the fair market value of the property. For the purposes of this subdivision, the "fair market value of the property" is the fair market value, determined as of the time the certified copy of the affidavit was issued under Section 13202, of the property the person liable took under the certified copy of the affidavit to which the other person has a superior right, less any liens and encumbrances on the property at that time.

(c) An action to impose liability under this section is forever barred three years after the certified copy of the affidavit is issued under Section 13202, or three years after the discovery of the fraud, whichever is later. The three-year period specified in this subdivision is not tolled for any reason.

SEC. 50. Section 13206 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

13206. (a) Subject to subdivisions (b), (c), (d), and (e), if proceedings for the administration of the decedent's estate are commenced, or if the decedent's personal representative has consented to use of the procedure provided by this chapter and the personal representative later requests that the property be restored to the estate, each person who is designated as a successor of the decedent in a certified copy of an affidavit issued under Section 13202 is liable for:

(1) The restitution to the decedent's estate of the property the person took under the certified copy of the affidavit if the person still has the property, together with (A) the net income the person received from the property and (B) if the person encumbered the property after the certified copy of the affidavit was issued, the amount necessary to satisfy the balance of the encumbrance as of the date the property is restored to the estate.

(2) The restitution to the decedent's estate of the fair market value of the property if the person no longer has the property, together with (A) the net income the person received from the property prior to disposing of it and (B) interest from the date of disposition at the rate payable on a money judgment on the fair market value of the property. For the purposes of this paragraph, the "fair market value of the property" is the fair market value, determined as of the time of the disposition of the property, of the property the person took under the certified copy of the affidavit, less the amount of any liens and encumbrances on the property at the time the certified copy of the affidavit was issued.

(b) Subject to subdivision (d), if the person fraudulently executed or filed the affidavit under this chapter, the person is liable under this section for restitution to the decedent's estate of three times the fair market value of the property. For the purposes of this subdivision, the "fair market value of the property" is the fair market value, determined as of the time the certified copy of the affidavit was issued, of the property the person took under the certified copy of the affidavit, less the amount of any liens and encumbrances on the property at that time.

(c) Subject to subdivision (d), if proceedings for the administration of the decedent's estate are commenced and a person designated as a successor of the decedent in a certified copy of an affidavit issued under Section 13202 made a significant improvement to the property taken by the person under the certified copy of the affidavit in the good faith belief that the person was the successor of the decedent to that property, the person is liable for whichever of the following the decedent's estate elects:

(1) The restitution of the property, as improved, to the estate of the decedent upon the condition that the estate reimburse the person making restitution for (A) the amount by which the improvement increases the fair market value of the property restored, determined as of the time of restitution, and (B) the amount paid by the person for principal and interest on any liens or encumbrances that were on the property at the time the certified copy of the affidavit was issued.

(2) The restoration to the decedent's estate of the fair market value of the property, determined as of the time of the issuance of the certified copy of the affidavit under Section 13202, less the amount of any liens and encumbrances on the property at that time, together with interest on the net amount at the rate payable on a money judgment running from the date of the issuance of the certified copy of the affidavit.

(d) The property and amount required to be restored to the estate under this section shall be reduced by any property or amount paid by the person to satisfy a liability under Section 13204 or 13205.

(e) An action to enforce the liability under this section may be brought only by the personal representative of the estate of the decedent. In an action to enforce the liability under this section, the court's judgment may enforce the liability only to the extent necessary to protect the interests of the heirs, devisees, and creditors of the decedent.

(f) An action to enforce the liability under this section is forever barred three years after the certified copy of the affidavit is issued under Section 13202, or three years after the discovery of the fraud, whichever is later. The three-year period specified in this subdivision is not tolled for any reason.

SEC. 51. Section 13207 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

13207. (a) A person designated as a successor of the decedent in a certified copy of an affidavit issued under Section 13202 is not liable under Section 13204 or 13205 if proceedings for the administration of the decedent's estate are commenced, or if the decedent's personal representative has consented to use of the procedure provided by this chapter and the personal representative later requests that the property be restored to the estate, and the person satisfies the requirements of Section 13206.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 13205, the aggregate of the personal liability of a person under Sections 13204 and 13205 shall not exceed the sum of the following:

(1) The fair market value at the time of the issuance of the certified copy of the affidavit under Section 13202 of the decedent's property received by that person under this chapter, less the amount of any liens and encumbrances on the property at that time.

(2) The net income the person received from the property.

(3) If the property has been disposed of, interest on the fair market value of the property from the date of disposition at the rate payable on a money judgment. For the purposes of this paragraph, "fair market value of the property" has the same meaning as defined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 13206.

SEC. 52. Section 13210 is added to the Probate Code, to read:

13210. The procedure provided by this chapter may be used only if one of the following requirements is satisfied:

(a) No proceeding for the administration of the decedent's estate is pending or has been conducted in this state.

(b) The decedent's personal representative consents in writing to use of the procedure provided by this chapter.

SEC. 53. The heading of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 13540) of Part 2 of Division 8 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

CHAPTER 2. RIGHT OF SURVIVING SPOUSE TO DISPOSE OF PROPERTY

SEC. 54. Section 13540 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

13540. (a) Except as provided in Section 13541, after 40 days from the death of a spouse, the surviving spouse or the personal representative, guardian of the estate, or conservator of the estate of the surviving spouse has full power to sell, convey, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with and dispose of the community or quasi-community real property, and the right, title, and interest of any grantee, purchaser, encumbrancer, or lessee shall be free of rights of the estate of the deceased spouse or of devisees or creditors of the deceased spouse to the same extent as if the property had been owned as the separate property of the surviving spouse.

(b) The surviving spouse or the personal representative, guardian of the estate, or conservator of the estate of the surviving spouse may record, together with the instrument that makes a disposition of property under this section, an affidavit of the facts that establish the right of the surviving spouse to make the disposition.

(c) Nothing in this section affects or limits the liability of the surviving spouse under Sections 13550 to 13553, inclusive, and Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 13560).

SEC. 55. Section 13541 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

13541. (a) Section 13540 does not apply to a sale, conveyance, lease, mortgage, or other disposition that takes place after a notice that satisfies the requirements of this section is recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which real property is located.

(b) The notice shall contain all of the following:

(1) A description of the real property in which an interest is claimed.

(2) A statement that an interest in the property is claimed by a named person under the will of the deceased spouse.

(3) The name or names of the owner or owners of the record title to the property.

(c) There shall be endorsed on the notice instructions that it shall be indexed by the recorder in the name or names of the owner or owners of record title to the property, as grantor or grantors, and in the name of the person claiming an interest in the property, as grantee.

(d) A person shall not record a notice under this section for the purpose of slandering title to the property. If the court in an action or proceeding relating to the rights of the parties determines that a person recorded a notice under this section for the purpose of slandering title, the court shall award against the person the cost of the action or proceeding, including a reasonable attorney's fee, and the damages caused by the recording.

SEC. 56. Section 13545 is added to the Probate Code, to read:

13545. (a) After the death of a spouse, the surviving spouse, or the personal representative, guardian of the estate, or conservator of the estate of the surviving spouse has full power to sell, assign, pledge, or otherwise deal with and dispose of community or quasi-community property securities registered in the name of the surviving spouse alone, and the right, title, and interest of any purchaser, assignee, encumbrancer, or other transferee shall be free of the rights of the estate of the deceased spouse or of devisees or creditors of the deceased spouse to the same extent as if the deceased spouse had not died.

(b) Nothing in this section affects or limits the liability of a surviving spouse under Sections 13550 to 13553, inclusive, and Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 13560).

SEC. 57. Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 13560) is added to Part 2 of Division 8 of the Probate Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3.5. LIABILITY FOR DECEDENT'S PROPERTY

13560. For the purposes of this chapter, "decedent's property" means the one-half of the community property that belongs to the decedent under Section 100 and the one-half of the quasi-community property that belongs to the decedent under Section 101.

13561. (a) If the decedent's property is in the possession or control of the surviving spouse at the time of the decedent's death, the surviving spouse is personally liable to the extent provided in Section 13563 to any person having a superior right by testate succession from the decedent.

(b) An action to impose liability under this section is forever barred three years after the death of the decedent. The three-year period specified in this subdivision is not tolled for any reason.

13562. (a) Subject to subdivisions (b), (c), and (d), if proceedings for the administration of the decedent's estate are commenced, the surviving spouse is liable for:

(1) The restitution to the decedent's estate of the decedent's property if the surviving spouse still has the decedent's property, together with (A) the net income the surviving spouse received from the decedent's property and (B) if the surviving spouse encumbered the decedent's property after the date of death, the amount necessary to satisfy the balance of the encumbrance as of the date the decedent's property is restored to the estate.

(2) The restitution to the decedent's estate of the fair market value of the decedent's property if the surviving spouse no longer has the decedent's property, together with (A) the net income the surviving spouse received from the decedent's property prior to disposing of it and (B) interest from the date of disposition at the rate payable on a money judgment on the fair market value of the decedent's property. For the purposes of this paragraph, the "fair market value of the decedent's property" is the fair market value of the decedent's property, determined as of the time of the disposition of the decedent's property, less the amount of any liens and encumbrances on the decedent's property at the time of the decedent's death.

(b) Subject to subdivision (c), if proceedings for the administration of the decedent's estate are commenced and the surviving spouse made a significant improvement to the decedent's property in the good faith belief that the surviving spouse was the successor of the decedent to the decedent's property, the surviving spouse is liable for whichever of the following the decedent's estate elects:

(1) The restitution of the decedent's property, as improved, to the estate of the decedent upon the condition that the estate reimburse the surviving spouse for (A) the amount by which the improvement increases the fair market value of the decedent's property restored, valued as of the time of restitution, and (B) the amount paid by the surviving spouse for principal and interest on any liens or encumbrances that were on the decedent's property at the time of the decedent's death.

(2) The restoration to the decedent's estate of the fair market value of the decedent's property, valued as of the time of the decedent's death, excluding the amount of any liens and encumbrances on the decedent's property at that time, together with interest on the net amount at the rate payable on a money judgment running from the date of the decedent's death.

(c) The property and amount required to be restored to the estate under this section shall be reduced by any property or amount paid by the surviving spouse to satisfy a liability under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 13550).

(d) An action to enforce the liability under this section may be brought only by the personal representative of the estate of the decedent. In an action to enforce the liability under this section, the court's judgment may enforce the liability only to the extent necessary to protect the interests of the heirs, devisees, and creditors of the decedent.

(e) An action to enforce the liability under this section is forever barred three years after the death of the decedent. The three-year period specified in this subdivision is not tolled for any reason.

13563. (a) The surviving spouse is not liable under Section 13561 if proceedings for the administration of the decedent's estate are commenced and the surviving spouse satisfies the requirements of Section 13562.

(b) The aggregate of the personal liability of the surviving spouse under Section 13561 shall not exceed the sum of the following:

(1) The fair market value at the time of the decedent's death, less the amount of any liens and encumbrances on the decedent's property at that time, of the portion of the decedent's property that passes to any person having a superior right by testate succession from the decedent.

(2) The net income the surviving spouse received from the portion of the decedent's property that passes to any person having a superior right by testate succession from the decedent.

(3) If the decedent's property has been disposed of, interest on the fair market value of the portion of the decedent's property that passes to any person having a superior right by testate succession from the decedent from the date of disposition at the rate payable on a money judgment. For the purposes of this paragraph, "fair market value" is fair market value, determined as of the time of disposition of the decedent's property, less the amount of any liens and encumbrances on the decedent's property at the time of the decedent's death.

13564. The remedies available under Sections 13561 to 13563, inclusive, are in addition to any remedies available by reason of any fraud or intentional wrongdoing.

SEC. 58. Section 4150.7 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

4150.7. (a) Ownership of title to a vehicle subject to registration may be held in beneficiary form that includes a direction to transfer ownership of the vehicle to a designated beneficiary on the death of the owner if both of the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) Only one owner is designated.

(2) Only one TOD beneficiary is designated.

(b) A certificate of ownership issued in beneficiary form shall include, after the name of the owner, the words "transfer on death to" or the abbreviation "TOD" followed by the name of the beneficiary.

(c) During the lifetime of the owner, the signature or consent of the beneficiary is not required for any transaction relating to the vehicle for which a certificate of ownership in beneficiary form has been issued.

(d) The fee for registering ownership of a vehicle in a beneficiary form is ten dollars ($10).

SEC. 59. Section 5910.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

5910.5. (a) On death of the owner of a vehicle owned in beneficiary form, the vehicle belongs to the surviving beneficiary, if any. If there is no surviving beneficiary, the vehicle belongs to the estate of the deceased owner or of the last coowner to die.

(b) A certificate of ownership in beneficiary form may be revoked or the beneficiary changed at any time before the death of the owner by either of the following methods:

(1) By sale of the vehicle with proper assignment and delivery of the certificate of ownership to another person.

(2) By application for a new certificate of ownership without designation of a beneficiary or with the designation of a different beneficiary.

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (b), designation of a beneficiary in a certificate of ownership issued in beneficiary form may not be changed or revoked by will, by any other instrument, by a change of circumstances, or otherwise.

(d) The beneficiary's interest in the vehicle at death of the owner is subject to any contract of sale, assignment, or security interest to which the owner was subject during his or her lifetime.

(e) The surviving beneficiary may secure a transfer of ownership for the vehicle upon presenting to the department all of the following:

(1) The appropriate certificate of ownership.

(2) A certificate under penalty of perjury stating the date and place of the owner's death and that the declarant is entitled to the vehicle as the designated beneficiary.

(3) If required by the department, a certificate of the death of the owner.

(f) After the death of the owner, the surviving beneficiary may transfer his or her interest in the vehicle to another person without securing transfer of ownership into his or her own name by appropriately signing the certificate of ownership for the vehicle and delivering the document to the transferee for forwarding to the department with appropriate fees. The transferee may secure a transfer of ownership upon presenting to the department (1) the certificate of ownership signed by the beneficiary, (2) the certificate described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (e) executed by the beneficiary under penalty of perjury; and (3) if required by the department, a certificate of death of the owner.

(g) A transfer at death pursuant to this section is effective by reason of this section, and shall not be deemed to be a testamentary disposition of property. The right of the designated beneficiary to the vehicle shall not be denied, abridged, or affected on the grounds that the right has not been created by a writing executed in accordance with the laws of this state prescribing the requirements to effect a valid testamentary disposition of property.

(h) A transfer at death pursuant to this section is subject to Section 9653 of the Probate Code.

(i) If there is no surviving beneficiary, the person or persons described in Section 5910 may secure transfer of the vehicle as provided in that section.

(j) The department may prescribe forms for use pursuant to this section.

SEC. 60. Section 5910.7 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

5910.7. (a) If the department makes a transfer pursuant to Section 5910.5, the department is discharged from all liability, whether or not the transfer is consistent with the beneficial ownership of the vehicle transferred.

(b) The protection provided by subdivision (a) does not extend to a transfer made after the department has been served with a court order restraining the transfer. No other notice or information shown to have been available to the department shall affect its right to the protection afforded by subdivision (a).

(c) The protection provided by this section has no bearing on the rights of parties in disputes between themselves or their successors concerning the beneficial ownership of the vehicle.

(d) The protection provided by this section is in addition to, and not exclusive of, any other protection provided to the department by any other provision of law.

SEC. 61. Section 9852.7 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

9852.7. (a) Ownership of an undocumented vessel subject to registration may be held in beneficiary form that includes a direction to transfer ownership of the vessel to a designated beneficiary on death of the owner if both of the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) Only one owner is designated.

(2) Only one TOD beneficiary is designated.

(b) Ownership registration and title issued in beneficiary form shall include, after the name of the owner, the words "transfer on death to" or the abbreviation "TOD" followed by the name of the beneficiary.

(c) During the lifetime of the owner, the signature or consent of the beneficiary is not required for any transaction relating to the vessel for which a certificate of ownership in beneficiary form has been issued.

(d) The fee for registering ownership of a vessel in a beneficiary form is ten dollars ($10).

SEC. 62. Section 9916.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

9916.5. (a) On death of the owner of a vessel numbered under this division and owned in beneficiary form, the vessel belongs to the surviving beneficiary, if any. If there is no surviving beneficiary, the vessel belongs to the estate of the deceased owner.

(b) A certificate of ownership in beneficiary form may be revoked or the beneficiary changed at any time before the death of the owner by either of the following methods:

(1) By sale of the vessel with property assignment and delivery of the certificate of ownership to another person.

(2) By application for a new certificate of ownership without designation of a beneficiary or with the designation of a different beneficiary.

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (b), designation of a beneficiary in a certificate of ownership issued in beneficiary form may not be changed or revoked by will, by any other instrument, by a change of circumstances, or otherwise.

(d) The beneficiary's interest in the vessel at death of the owner is subject to any contract of sale, assignment, or security interest to which the owner was subject during his or her lifetime.

(e) The surviving beneficiary may secure a transfer of ownership for the vessel upon presenting to the department all of the following:

(1) The appropriate certificate of ownership.

(2) A certificate under penalty of perjury stating the date and place of the owner's death and that the declarant is entitled to the vessel as the designated beneficiary.

(3) If required by the department, a certificate of the death of the owner.

(f) After the death of the owner, the surviving beneficiary may transfer his or her interest in the vessel to another person without securing transfer of ownership into his or her own name by appropriately signing the certificate of ownership for the vessel and delivering the document to the transferee for forwarding to the department with appropriate fees. The transferee may secure a transfer of ownership upon presenting to the department (1) the certificate of title signed by the beneficiary, (2) the certificate described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (e) executed by the beneficiary under penalty of perjury, and (3) if required by the department, a certificate of death of the owner.

(g) A transfer at death pursuant to this section is effective by reason of this section, and shall not be deemed to be a testamentary disposition of property. The right of the designated beneficiary to the vessel shall not be denied, abridged, or affected on the grounds that the right has not been created by a writing executed in accordance with the laws of this state prescribing the requirements to effect a valid testamentary disposition of property.

(h) A transfer at death pursuant to this section is subject to Section 9653 of the Probate Code.

(i) If there is no surviving beneficiary, the person or persons described in Section 9916 may secure transfer of the vessel as provided in that section.

(j) The department may prescribe forms for use pursuant to this section.

SEC. 63. Section 9916.7 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

9916.7. (a) If the department makes a transfer pursuant to Section 9916.5, the department is discharged from all liability, whether or not the transfer is consistent with the beneficial ownership of the vessel transferred.

(b) The protection provided by subdivision (a) does not extend to a transfer made after the department has been served with a court order restraining the transfer. No other notice or information shown to have been available to the department shall affect its right to the protection afforded by subdivision (a).

(c) The protection provided by this section has no bearing on the rights of parties in disputes between themselves or their successors concerning the beneficial ownership of the vessel.

(d) The protection provided by this section is in addition to, and not exclusive of, any other protection provided to the department by any other provision of law.

SEC. 64. Sections 18080.2, 18102.2, and 18102.3 of the Health and Safety Code as added by this act shall become operative on January 1, 1994. Sections 4150.7, 5910.5, 5910.7, 9852.7, 9916.5, and 9916.7 of the Vehicle Code as added by this act, and the amendment made by this act to Section 9653 of the Probate Code, shall become operative on January 1, 1993.

CHAPTER 1056

An act to amend Sections 400, 401, 402, 403, 404, and 405 of, and to add Sections 406, 406.1, and 406.2 to, the Insurance Code, relating to insurance, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 400 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

400. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this article, commencing April 1, 1992, no policy or endorsement insuring a private passenger automobile as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 660 shall be issued or amended by an insurer in this state to provide collision or comprehensive coverage, or both, to a person not formerly an insured of the insurer or to an insured not formerly insured by the insurer for those coverages unless the insurer or its designated authorized representative has inspected the automobile.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this article, automobile collision or comprehensive coverage, or both, shall not be effective on an additional or replacement private passenger automobile until the insurer or its designated authorized representative has inspected the automobile.

(c) The inspection required by subdivision (a) shall be recorded on an inspection report adopted by the commissioner, however, an application for insurance which incorporates the provisions promulgated by the commissioner shall be deemed in compliance with this requirement. Two color photographs, taken as directed on the inspection report at angles which show the front, back, and sides of the vehicle, shall be attached thereto. In addition, a color photograph shall be attached showing a closeup of the Safety Certification Label otherwise known as "49 CFR Part 567 Certification Label" containing the vehicle identification number (VIN), located on the driver's side door jamb. The photograph shall be of sufficient clarity that the vehicle identification number on the label is legible. Where the Safety Certification Label is missing or where the photograph does not produce a legible reproduction of the VIN, the inspector shall include the required photograph and indicate the circumstances in the appropriate place on the inspection form. The inspector may take additional photographs showing any damaged areas, which shall also be attached to the report. A copy of the report, without photographs, shall be provided to the insured by the insurer.

(d) For purposes of this section, "color photograph" means any legally accepted technology which produces a retrievable visual image including, but not limited to, a photograph, video tape, digital or visual imagery, or other technology approved by the commissioner. Nothing in this article shall preclude an insurer from electronically storing photographs mandated by this section.

SEC. 2. Section 401 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

401. An insurer may waive or dispense with the mandatory inspection required by this article under any of the following circumstances:

(1) The insured vehicle is a temporary substitute vehicle.

(2) The insured vehicle is leased for less than six months, provided the insurer receives the lease or rental agreement containing a description of the vehicle, including its condition.

(3) The vehicle is over seven years old.

(4) The vehicle is a new and unused automobile purchased or leased from a dealer, as defined in Section 285 of the Vehicle Code, and the insurer is provided with either a copy of the bill of sale or purchase order or conditional sales contract, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 2981 of the Civil Code, that contains a full description of the automobile, including all options and accessories, or a copy of the federally mandated window sticker or the dealer invoice showing the itemized manufacturer-installed options and equipment in addition to the total retail price of the vehicle on which will be added together with a due bill or other descriptive evidence of any dealer-installed options purchased by the customer at the time of sale. The collision or comprehensive coverage, or both, on the vehicle shall not be suspended during the term of the policy due to the insured's failure to provide the required document or documents, but payment of a claim shall be conditioned upon receipt by the insurer of the documents, and no collision or comprehensive loss occurring after the effective date of coverage shall be payable until the documents are provided to the insurer.

(5) The vehicle is an additional or a replacement vehicle, and the named insured has been continuously insured for three or more policy years for automobile insurance with the same insurer or an affiliate of that insurer.

(6) Where the insured's coverage is being transferred to a new insurer within an existing agency or production facility; or to a new agent or broker within the existing insurer or insurer group; and the new insurer or agent or broker is provided with a copy of the inspection report completed on behalf of the previous insurer, or its designated representative provided the insured vehicle was inspected by the previous insurer within the last 12 months. If the new insurer does not receive a copy of the inspection report within 60 days of the effective date of coverage, the new insurer shall cause an inspection to be performed within 30 days of notice to the insured.

(7) The insured vehicle is insured under a commercially rated policy that insures five or more vehicles.

(8) Whenever, with respect to the use of a nonowned vehicle by an insured where the insurer or its agent is notified of the use, the insurer or its agent determines it is reasonable to do so because the likelihood of a fraudulent physical damage claim is remote, including, but not limited to, when it is determined that the nonowned vehicle is insured under a policy providing automobile collision or comprehensive insurance and the vehicle has otherwise been inspected in accordance with this article.

(9) A buyer, borrower, or lessee of the vehicle is obligated under the terms of a conditional sale contract, loan agreement, note, or lease to maintain insurance on the vehicle and fails to procure or maintain the required coverage and the creditor or lessor procures the insurance in accordance with the conditional sale contract, loan agreement, note, or lease.

SEC. 3. Section 402 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

402. (a) Upon the insured's request for coverage for private passenger automobile collision or comprehensive insurance, or both, on an additional or replacement vehicle, the insurer may provide coverage immediately, and the inspection required by this article may be deferred for seven days following the effective date of coverage if an inspection at the time of a request for coverage would create a serious inconvenience for the applicant.

(b) An insurer may defer the inspection required by this article under the following circumstances.

(1) On additional vehicles for up to five business days following the effective date of coverage.

(2) On replacement vehicles, an insurer may provide the same type or level of collision or comprehensive coverage, or both, that covered the replaced vehicle without a request for coverage by the insured. That automatic coverage prior to the insured's request for coverage may be for a period of up to five business days after the day on which the automobile is acquired.

(c) If an inspection is not conducted prior to the expiration of the seven-day period set forth in this section, collision or comprehensive coverage, or both, on the vehicle shall not be suspended, but payment of a claim shall be limited to the lienholder interest of a federal or state regulated financial institution until the inspection is conducted. The insurer, however, shall inspect the vehicle and reinstate coverage for automobile physical damage if the insured thereafter requests an inspection.

(d) Whenever automobile collision or comprehensive coverage, or both, is restricted pursuant to subdivision (c) for the failure to have an inspection report, the insurer shall immediately notify the insured that the collision or comprehensive coverage, or both, is restricted until the vehicle is inspected.

(e) The commissioner shall adopt by regulation a notice of mandatory preinsurance inspection requirement letter, which shall be provided the applicant by the insurer or its agent. If the insurer or its agent fails to give notice to the insured of the mandatory requirement of physical inspection or otherwise fails to comply with this article, the collision or comprehensive coverage, or both, shall not be restricted pursuant to subdivision (c).

SEC. 4. Section 403 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

403. (a) Inspections required or permitted by this article shall be made by a designated authorized representative or inspection service of the insurer at times and places reasonably convenient to the insured.

(b) An insurer shall utilize authorized representatives or inspection services who shall do all of the following:

(1) Be responsible for the accuracy, completeness, and signature of the inspector for each inspection report in writing.

(2) Utilize sequentially numbered inspection reports, by location, and maintain a control system on those reports. Alternatively, an insurer may utilize an internal system of distinctive identification which permits, by location, maintenance of a control system designed to prevent backdating or other fraudulent activity concerning the reports.

(3) For one year after the date of the inspection, retain and supply to the insurer, upon request, a copy of any inspection report.

(c) The insurer shall bear the cost of the inspection, however, where the inspection is performed by an agent or broker, the insurer shall not be required to reimburse the agent or broker for the labor costs of those inspections. The cost of the inspection may be included as an administrative expense for ratemaking purposes.

(d) The inspection report shall be used by the insurer to document previous damage, prior condition, optional equipment and accessories, and mileage of the vehicle. Optional equipment and accessories listed shall include, but are not limited to, alarm systems, radar detectors, custom tires and wheels, and sound and communication systems, such as radios, stereos, tape decks, compact disks, and CB radios.

(e) The inspection report information and photographs as necessary shall be used by the insurer in the settlement of all collision or comprehensive claims, or both, in excess of two thousand dollars ($2,000) and shall be used and made part of the claim file in the settlement of all unrecovered theft claims or total loss claims. The inspection report shall be part of the claim file regardless of whether or not the loss payment is reduced based on the information contained in the report. The commissioner shall periodically increase the amount of damages for which it is necessary to utilize the inspection report to settle a collision or comprehensive claim to account for inflation.

(f) The commissioner shall adopt regulations as may be necessary, including the promulgation of necessary forms to implement this section. In adopting forms to implement this section, the commissioner shall provide insurers with the option of using preapproved forms or incorporating standardized provisions into the application for coverage.

SEC. 5. Section 404 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

404. After the mandatory inspection is conducted under this article, the insurer may require that the insured vehicle be periodically reinspected, but not more than once in each calendar year, as a condition for subsequent renewal of automobile collision or comprehensive coverage, or both.

SEC. 6. Section 405 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

405. As used in this article:

(a) "Temporary substitute vehicle" means any private passenger vehicle, not owned by the insured, while temporarily used with the permission of the owner as a substitute for the vehicle, owned or leased by the insured, while the latter is withdrawn from normal use because of a breakdown, repair, servicing, loss, or destruction.

(b) "Additional vehicle" means any new or used vehicle covered by this article which an insured requests be added to the insured's preexisting policy providing automobile collision or comprehensive coverage, or both.

(c) "Replacement vehicle" means any new or used vehicle covered by this article which an insured requests be added to the insured's preexisting policy providing automobile collision or comprehensive coverage, or both, in lieu of another vehicle covered by that policy.

SEC. 6.1. Section 406 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

406. On and after April 1, 1992, nothing in this article shall be construed to prohibit an insurer from electing to require inspections of private passenger automobiles which were insured by the insurer on or before March 31, 1992.

SEC. 6.2. Section 406.1 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

406.1. No insurer, agent, or broker or automobile dealer shall misrepresent private passenger automobile insureds as commercial insureds for the purpose of avoiding the requirements of Section 400.

SEC. 6.3. Section 406.2 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

406.2. Insurers shall apply the requirements of this article based solely on underwriting criteria uniformly applied and not based on age, race, sex, or marital status of an insured or applicant, the principal place of garaging, or the driving record of the insured or applicant.

SEC. 7. (a) The Insurance Commissioner shall conduct a study as to the cost-effectiveness of the mandatory vehicle inspection program required pursuant to Section 400 of the Insurance Code. The study shall include the costs of program implementation and the anticipated or realized savings to insurers, policyholders, and others. That preliminary study shall be public and shall be submitted to the Governor and the Legislature on or before February 1, 1995.

(b) All admitted insurers, licensees of the Department of Insurance, and other parties to the implementation and operation of the inspection program shall offer all assistance and cooperation with the commissioner in conducting the study and report required pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) The sum of one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) is hereby appropriated from the Insurance Fund to the Insurance Commissioner for purposes of conducting the study and report required pursuant to subdivision (a).

CHAPTER 1057

An act to amend Sections 11623 and 11627.5 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11623 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11623. (a) To assist the commissioner in carrying out the purposes of this article, an advisory committee composed of 15 members is created. The commissioner shall administer and operate the plan as authorized by law. The Commissioner shall consult with the advisory committee on a regular basis on policy matters affecting the operation of the plan.

Eight members representing subscribing insurers shall be elected annually by subscribing insurers. The commissioner shall appoint the noninsurer members. Four members shall represent the public. Two members shall represent producers. The remaining member is the commissioner or his or her designee.

All insurer representatives shall be salaried employees. At least two insurer representatives shall be employed by insurers having their principal headquarters located in California. At least two insurer representatives shall represent companies who have average annual automobile liability premiums in California below one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) in the prior three years. At least one insurer representative shall represent an insurer with average annual automobile liability premiums in California exceeding one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) in the prior three years. At least one insurer representative shall represent an insurer with average annual automobile liability premiums in California exceeding seven hundred million dollars ($700,000,000) in the prior three years.

Public members shall be paid two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per meeting and shall be reimbursed all reasonable expenses incurred.

The commissioner shall remove members for nonattendance. Unless satisfactory excuse is made in writing to the commissioner in a timely manner, nonattendance shall mean the failure to appear at more than two regularly scheduled meetings in a 12-month period. Should the member who is removed represent a company or agency, another representative from the company or agency may not be appointed for a period of not less than two years.

The advisory committee with the approval of the commissioner shall appoint a manager to carry out the purposes of this article, employ sufficient personnel to provide services necessary to the operation of the plan, and contract for the provision of statistical and actuarial services.

The cost of the plan, including any personnel and contracting costs, shall be fairly apportioned among the subscribing insurers to whom assignments may be made. The costs associated shall be directly attributable to the management of the plan and directly related to its programs. In consultation with the advisory committee, the commissioner shall develop, issue, and adopt regulations to carry out the purposes of this article.

(b) On or before April 15 of each year the commissioner shall provide to the Legislature and others who request it a report on the operation of the plan. The report shall include at least the following: for the prior three years, including the year prior to the issuance of the report, the number of assignments made, premiums, losses, loss adjustment expenses, administrative costs, loss ratios and combined ratios in the aggregate and for each subscribing insurer.

(c) Notwithstanding this act, which changes the status of the governing committee to that of an advisory committee, the committee shall have the right to retain counsel of its choice pursuant to a selection process adopted by the committee and the right and necessary standing to bring and defend actions in judicial and administrative proceedings related to the plan in the name of the plan, with all powers attendant thereto including the right to retain consultants, counsel, and expert witnesses of its choice.

SEC. 2. Section 11627.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11627.5. (a) Every insurer to which this article applies shall, at the time of filing the annual report required by Section 900, file on a form prescribed by the commissioner, after consultation with the committee of the plan, a report which shall contain at least the following information on its assigned-risk business:

(1) Loss ratio.

(2) Loss adjustment expense ratio.

(3) Expense ratio.

(4) Combined ratio.

Reports filed in 1991 shall contain information for the prior three years, by year.

(b) The commissioner may require insurers with combined ratios that are 10 percent above the mean combined ratio for all plan participants to also report the following:

(1) The reason for the excessive ratio.

(2) A plan for reducing the ratio, and when the reduction can be expected to occur. The commissioner and the committee may require insurers subject to this subdivision to provide periodic reports on the progress in reducing the combined ratio.

(c) Information reported under this section shall be a public record.

(d) The commissioner shall report the information reported under this section, in the aggregate and by insurer, with accompanying discussion, to the appropriate policy committee of each house of the Legislature on or before March 1, 1992, and March 1 of each year thereafter, except that this report may be provided by April 15, if it includes the report required by subdivision (b) of Section 11623, in which case only one report shall be required. That combined report shall be provided to any person requesting it and to the appropriate policy committees of each house of the Legislature.

CHAPTER 1058

An act to add Section 14551.4 to the Public Resources Code, relating to beverage containers.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14551.4 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

14551.4. The department shall make available the information collected pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 14551, concerning the volumes of materials collected from certified recycling centers, only to a governmental agency which requests the information, including a city or county, or an entity specifically designated by the city or county to receive the information if the entity requests the information, if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The request is made in writing.

(b) All information provided by the department is provided using the aggregate amounts collected in the city or county unless the city or county, or an entity specifically designated by the city or county to receive the information, requests the information provided by each individual certified recycling center.

(c) All information provided to the governmental agency, including a city or county, or an entity specifically designated by the city or county to receive the information, is considered proprietary and confidential in nature and protected in accordance with the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 14551 of the Public Resources Code, Section 14554 of the Public Resources Code, and subdivision (e) of Section 6254.5 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 1059

An act to amend Section 9407.1 of the Commercial Code, to amend Section 21304 of the Corporations Code, and to amend Sections 12181, 12184, and 12197.1 of, and to add Section 12168.5 to, the Government Code, relating to the Secretary of State.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9407.1 of the Commercial Code is amended to read:

9407.1. In lieu of filing all financing statements, termination statements, partial releases, assignments, or other related papers falling under this code, the filing officer may record those papers. The filing officer may employ a system of microphotography, optical disk, or reproduction by other techniques which do not permit additions, deletions, or changes to the original document.

All film used in the microphotography process shall comply with minimum standards of quality approved by the United States Bureau of Standards and the American National Standards Institute. A true copy of the microfilm, optical disk, or other storage medium shall be kept in a safe and separate place for security purposes. A reproduction of any document filed, recorded, stored, or retained on microfilm, optical disk, or by other technology pursuant to this section shall be as admissible in any court as the original itself.

SEC. 2. Section 21304 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

21304. The Secretary of State shall charge and collect a fee of ten dollars ($10) for each registration made under this chapter.

SEC. 3. Section 12168.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

12168.5. When not inconsistent with other provisions of law, in lieu of filing or recording documents presented in paper format, the Secretary of State may file or record any document by using automated data processing, telecommunications, and other information technologies which do not permit additions, deletions, or changes in the original document. The filing or recording shall constitute a unique computerized informational record. The record need not be retained in the form in which it is received, so long as the technology used to retain the record results in a permanent record which may be accurately reproduced during the period for which the record is required to be retained.

The filing officer may employ a system of microphotography, optical disk, or reproduction by other techniques which do not permit additions, deletions, or changes to the original document.

All film used in the microphotography process shall comply with minimum standards of quality approved by the United States Bureau of Standards and the American National Standards Institute. A true copy of the microfilm, optical disk, or other storage medium shall be kept in a safe and separate place for security purposes. A reproduction of any document filed, recorded, stored, or retained on microfilm, optical disk, or by other technology pursuant to this section shall be as admissible in any court as the original itself.

The Secretary of State shall obtain the approval of the Fair Political Practices Commission before applying this section to a filing or recording under the Political Reform Act of 1974 (Title 9 (commencing with Section 81000)).

SEC. 4. Section 12181 of the Government Code is amended to read:

12181. (a) Commencing July 1, 1992, all fees collected by the Secretary of State's office pursuant to the Business and Professions Code, Code of Civil Procedure, Commercial Code, Corporations Code, Food and Agricultural Code, Government Code, excluding Section 81008, and Harbors and Navigation Code, shall be paid into the Secretary of State's Business Fees Fund which is hereby created in the State Treasury for the administration of that portion of the Secretary of State's functions under these codes.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that moneys deposited into the Secretary of State's Business Fees Fund shall be used to support the programs from which fees are collected. It is further the intent of the Legislature that fees shall be sufficient to cover the costs of these programs and shall be expended, commencing in the 1992–93 fiscal year, to the extent that appropriations are made in the annual Budget Act. All fees collected, and any interest earned thereon, in excess of the authority of the Secretary of State to expend pursuant to the annual Budget Act, shall be transferred to the General Fund at the end of each fiscal year.

At least weekly, all fees collected by the Secretary of State shall be paid into the State Treasury.

SEC. 5. Section 12184 of the Government Code is amended to read:

12184. (a) The fee for preparing a copy of any law, resolution, record, or other document on file in the office of the Secretary of State, is one dollar ($1) for the first page, and fifty cents ($0.50) for each page thereafter.

(b) Except for copies of documents on file prepared pursuant to subdivision (a), the Secretary of State shall provide compilations, indexes, extracts, or summaries of information, including computer information, contained in the public records of the Secretary of State at a charge sufficient to recover costs. Except where a fee or charge is prescribed by statute, the fee or charge imposed pursuant to this subdivision shall not exceed ten dollars ($10) per inquiry.

(c) The Secretary of State may enter into contracts to provide information and copies and access to information, including direct access to computer information. The contracts may include reasonable conditions for access to information. The amounts payable pursuant to these contracts shall be sufficient to recover costs.

(d) The Secretary of State may require persons and firms regularly using the research facilities of the Secretary of State to use those research facilities only pursuant to a contract under subdivision (c).

(e) All fees, reimbursements, and contract amounts pursuant to this section shall be accounted as Secretary of State expenditure reimbursements.

(f) Fees for special handling pursuant to Section 12208 are in addition to amounts pursuant to this section.

SEC. 6. Section 12197.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

12197.1. The Secretary of State shall establish by regulation an application, examination, and commission fee which shall be sufficient to cover the costs of commissioning notaries public and the enforcement of laws governing notaries public. The fee shall not exceed fifty dollars ($50) per commission.

CHAPTER 1060

An act to add Section 787 to the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utilities.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The State of California is experiencing a critical shortage of landfill space for the state's solid waste.

(b) Pursuant to Division 30 (commencing with Section 40000) of the Public Resources Code, cities and counties are required to devise programs for their jurisdictions to reduce the amounts of solid waste going to landfills.

(c) Current laws in many local jurisdictions require excavations to be backfilled with slurry, and for the native spoil from the excavation to be disposed.

(d) Frequently, the only disposal sites available for excavation spoil are the state's landfills.

(e) Disposal in landfills of spoil that is competent for use as backfill wastes a substantial amount of valuable landfill space.

(f) Allowing alternative uses for this spoil will assist cities and counties in reaching the goals specified in the source reduction component of their integrated waste management plans.

SEC. 2. Section 787 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

787. (a) Any public utility, or its contractor, to whom an excavation permit has been issued by any local agency for the installation, removal, maintenance, or repair of underground facilities may backfill the permitted excavation in any public road or highway with native spoil if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The native spoil is competent spoil.

(2) Compaction meets the local agency's requirements using industry standards for testing compaction.

(3) The public utility or its contractor has no physical evidence of, or substantial reason to believe that there has been, contamination of the soil from hazardous wastes.

(4) Within 30 days prior to compaction, a local agency has not provided the public utility or its contractor with physical evidence of, or substantial reason to believe that there has been, contamination of the soil from hazardous wastes.

(b) If a local agency has determined through prior experience that the public utility that is applying for, or benefiting from, the excavation permit has previously neglected to adequately fill or compact prior excavations, whether directly or through its contractors, the local agency may, as a condition of the excavation permit do either or both of the following:

(1) Require the public utility to post a bond, with a term not exceeding one year, amounting to two times the cost for the local agency to repair the backfill work, if done improperly, or any related collateral damage.

(2) Require the public utility to submit a report from a registered soils engineer that the proper compaction of the excavation has been achieved.

(c) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Competent spoil" means soils that can be treated to bring their moisture content into the optimum range, and that can achieve the compaction required by the local agency.

(2) "Local agency" means any city or county agency.

(3) "Public utility" means any electrical corporation, gas corporation, heat corporation, water corporation, telephone corporation, pipeline corporation, sewer corporation, telegraph corporation, where the service is performed for, or the commodity delivered to, the public or any portion thereof.

CHAPTER 1061

An act to amend Sections 14756, 25105, 26205, 26205.1, 26205.5, 27322.2, 34090.5, and 60203 of the Government Code, to amend Section 10036 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Section 10851 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to government records.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14756 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14756. The public records of any state agency may be microfilmed, electronically data imaged, or otherwise photographically reproduced and certified upon the written authorization of the head of the agency. The microfilming, electronic data imaging, or photographic reproduction shall be made in compliance with the minimum standards or guidelines, or both, as recommended by the American National Standards Institute or the Association for Information and Image Management for recording of permanent records or nonpermanent records, whichever applies.

The certification of each reproduction or set of reproductions shall be in accordance with the standards, or have the approval, of the Attorney General. The certification shall contain a statement of the identity, description, and disposition or location of the records reproduced, the date, reason, and authorization for such reproduction, and such other information as the Attorney General requires.

The certified reproductions shall be deemed to be original public records for all purposes, including introduction in courts of law and state agencies.

SEC. 2. Section 25105 of the Government Code is amended to read:

25105. The board of supervisors may authorize the use of photographs, microphotographs, electronic data-processing records, optical disks, or any other medium which does not permit additions, deletions, or changes to the original document, or photocopies of all records, books and minutes of the board.

(a) Each photograph, microphotograph, or photocopy shall be made in a manner and on paper which will comply with the minimum standards or guidelines, or both, as recommended by the American National Standards Institute or the Association for Information and Image Management for recording of permanent records or nonpermanent records, whichever applies. Every reproduction shall be deemed and considered an original; and a transcript, exemplification, or certified copy of any reproduction shall be deemed and considered a transcript, exemplification, or certified copy, as the case may be, of the original. Each roll of microfilm shall be deemed and constitute a book and shall be designated and numbered, and provision shall be made for preserving, examining, and using it. A duplicate of each roll of microfilm shall be made and kept in a safe and separate place.

(b) Electronic data-processing records, records recorded on optical disk, and records recorded on any other medium shall comply with the minimum standards or guidelines, or both, as recommended by the American National Standards Institute or the Association for Information and Image Management. A duplicate copy of any record reproduced in compliance with the minimum standards or guidelines, or both, as recommended by the American National Standards Institute or the Association for Information and Image Management for recording of permanent records or nonpermanent records, whichever applies, shall be deemed an original.

(c) In the event the authorization provided herein is granted, the personal signatures required by Section 25103 may be reproduced by the authorized process, and the reproduced signatures shall be deemed to satisfy the requirement of Section 25103.

SEC. 3. Section 26205 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26205. At the request of the county officer concerned, the board of supervisors of any county may authorize the destruction of any record, paper, or document which is not expressly required by law to be filed and preserved if all of the following conditions are complied with:

(a) The record, paper, or document is photographed, microphotographed, reproduced by electronically recorded video images on magnetic surfaces, recorded in the electronic data-processing system, recorded on optical disk, or reproduced on film or any other medium which does not permit additions, deletions, or changes to the original document and is produced in compliance with the minimum standards or guidelines, or both, as recommended by the American National Standards Institute or the Association for Information and Image Management for recording of permanent records or nonpermanent records, whichever applies.

(b) The device used to reproduce the record, paper, or document on film, optical disk, or any other medium is one which accurately reproduces the original thereof in all details and which does not permit additions, deletions, or changes to the original document images.

(c) The photographs, microphotographs, electronically recorded video images on magnetic surfaces, records in the electronic data-processing system, records recorded on optical disk, or other reproductions on film or any other medium are placed in conveniently accessible files and provision is made for preserving, examining, and using the files.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, destruction of the original records, papers, or documents is not authorized when the method of reproduction pursuant to this section is reproduction of electronically recorded video images on magnetic surfaces unless a duplicate videotape of the images is separately maintained. A duplicate copy of a record contained in the electronic data-processing system, on optical disk, or on any other medium which does not permit additions, deletions, or changes to the original document images shall also be separately maintained.

SEC. 4. Section 26205.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26205.1. (a) The county officer having custody of nonjudicial public records, documents, instruments, books, and papers may cause to be destroyed any or all of the records, documents, instruments, books, and papers if all of the following conditions exist:

(1) The board of supervisors of the county has adopted a resolution authorizing the county officer to destroy records, documents, instruments, books, and papers pursuant to this subdivision. The resolution may impose conditions, in addition to those specified in this subdivision, which the board of supervisors determines are appropriate.

(2) The county officer who destroys any record, document, instrument, book, or paper pursuant to the authority granted by this subdivision and a resolution of the board of supervisors adopted pursuant to paragraph (1) shall maintain for the use of the public a photographic or microphotographic film, electronic recorded video production, a record contained in the electronic data-processing system, a record recorded on optical disk, a record recorded by any other medium which does not permit additions, deletions, or changes to the original document, or other duplicate of the record, document, instrument, book, or paper destroyed.

(3) The record, paper or document is photographed, microphotographed, reproduced by electronically recorded video images on magnetic surfaces, recorded in the electronic data-processing system, recorded on optical disk or reproduced on film or any other medium which does not permit additions, deletions, or changes to the original document and is produced in compliance with the minimum standards or guidelines, or both, as recommended by the American National Standards Institute or the Association for Information and Image Management for recording of permanent records or nonpermanent records, whichever applies.

(b) Paragraphs (2) and 3 of subdivision (a) does not apply to records prepared or received other than pursuant to a state statute or county charter, or records which are not expressly required by law to be filed and preserved.

For the purposes of this section, every reproduction shall be deemed to be an original record and a transcript, exemplification, or certified copy of any reproduction shall be deemed to be a transcript, exemplification, or certified copy, as the case may be, of the original.

(c) The county clerk having custody of the original or a copy of the articles of any corporation may cause the destruction of any or all the documents. "Articles" includes the articles of incorporation, amendments thereto, amended articles, restated articles, certificate of incorporation, certificates of determination of preferences, dissolution certificates, merger certificates, and agreements of consolidation or merger.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, destruction of the original records, papers, or documents is not authorized when the method of reproduction pursuant to this section is reproduction of electronically recorded video images on magnetic surfaces unless a duplicate videotape of the images is separately maintained. A duplicate copy of a record contained in the electronic data-processing system, on optical disk, or on any other medium which does not permit additions, deletions, or changes to the original document shall also be separately maintained.

SEC. 5. Section 26205.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26205.5. At the request of the county recorder, the board of supervisors of any county may authorize the destruction of any or all of the filed papers or record books created by handwriting, typing on printed forms, by typewriting, or by photographic methods, in the recorder's official custody, if all of the following conditions are complied with:

(a) The record, paper, or document is photographed, microphotographed, reproduced by electronically recorded video images on magnetic surfaces, recorded in the electronic data-processing system, recorded on optical disk, reproduced on film or any other medium which does not permit additions, deletions, or changes to the original document, or reproduced under the direction and control of the county recorder on film, optical disk, or any other medium in compliance with the minimum standards or guidelines, or both, as recommended by the American National Standards Institute or the Association for Information and Image Management for recording of permanent records or nonpermanent records, whichever applies.

(b) The device used to reproduce the record, paper, or document on film, optical disk, or any other medium is one which accurately and legibly reproduces the original thereof in all details and which does not permit additions, deletions, or changes to the original document images.

(c) The photographs, microphotographs, or other reproductions on film, optical disk, or any other medium are made as accessible for public reference as the original records were.

(d) A true copy of archival quality of the film, optical disk, or any other medium reproductions shall be kept in a safe and separate place for security purposes.

However, no page of any record, paper, or document shall be destroyed if any page cannot be reproduced on film with full legibility. Every unreproducible page shall be permanently preserved in a manner that will afford easy reference.

For the purposes of this section, every reproduction shall be deemed to be an original record and a transcript, exemplification, or certified copy of any reproduction shall be deemed to be a transcript, exemplification, or certified copy, as the case may be, of the original.

SEC. 6. Section 27322.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

27322.2. A system of microphotography, optical disk, or reproduction by any other technique which does not permit additions, deletions, or changes to the original document may be used by the recorder as a photographic reproduction process to record some or all instruments, papers and notices that are required or permitted by law to be recorded or filed. All reproductions shall be made in compliance with the minimum standards or guidelines, or both, as recommended by the American National Standards Institute or the Association for Information and Image Management. A true copy of the document shall be kept in a safe and separate place which will reasonably assure its preservation for the duration of the retention prescribed by law against loss or destruction. A true copy of the document shall be arranged in a suitable place in the office of the recorder to facilitate public inspection.

SEC. 7. Section 34090.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

34090.5. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 34090, the city officer having custody of public records, documents, instruments, books, and papers, may, without the approval of the legislative body or the written consent of the city attorney, cause to be destroyed any or all of the records, documents, instruments, books, and papers, if all of the following conditions are complied with:

(a) The record, paper, or document is photographed, microphotographed, reproduced by electronically recorded video images on magnetic surfaces, recorded in the electronic data-processing system, recorded on optical disk, reproduced on film or any other medium which does not permit additions, deletions, or changes to the original document, or reproduced on film, optical disk, or any other medium in compliance with the minimum standards or guidelines, or both, as recommended by the American National Standards Institute or the Association for Information and Image Management for recording of permanent records or nonpermanent records, whichever applies.

(b) The device used to reproduce the record, paper, or document on film, optical disk, or any other medium is one which accurately and legibly reproduces the original thereof in all details and which does not permit additions, deletions, or changes to the original document images.

(c) The photographs, microphotographs, or other reproductions on film, optical disk, or any other medium are made as accessible for public reference as the original records were.

(d) A true copy of archival quality of the film, optical disk, or any other medium reproductions shall be kept in a safe and separate place for security purposes.

However, no page of any record, paper, or document shall be destroyed if any page cannot be reproduced on film with full legibility. Every unreproducible page shall be permanently preserved in a manner that will afford easy reference.

For the purposes of this section, every reproduction shall be deemed to be an original record and a transcript, exemplification, or certified copy of any reproduction shall be deemed to be a transcript, exemplification, or certified copy, as the case may be, of the original.

SEC. 8. Section 60203 of the Government Code is amended to read:

60203. The legislative body of a district may authorize the destruction of any record, paper, or document which is not expressly required by law to be filed and preserved if all of the following conditions are complied with:

(a) The record, paper, or document is photographed, microphotographed, reproduced by electronically recorded video images on magnetic surfaces, recorded in the electronic data-processing system, recorded on optical disk, reproduced on film or any other medium which does not permit additions, deletions, or changes to the original document in compliance with the minimum standards or guidelines, or both, as recommended by the American National Standards Institute or the Association for Information and Image Management for recording of permanent records or nonpermanent records, whichever applies.

(b) The device used to reproduce the record, paper, or document on film, optical disk, or any other medium is one which accurately reproduces the original thereof in all details and which does not permit additions, deletions, or changes to the original document images.

(c) The photographs, microphotographs, or other reproductions on film, optical disk, or any other medium are placed in conveniently accessible files and provision is made for preserving, examining, and using the files.

For the purposes of this section, every reproduction shall be deemed to be an original record and a transcript, exemplification, or certified copy of any reproduction shall be deemed to be a transcript, exemplification, or certified copy, as the case may be, of the original.

SEC. 9. Section 10036 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

10036. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law relating to retention of public records, the State Registrar may cause the original records of birth, death and marriage filed under this division to be destroyed if all of the following requirements have been met:

(a) One year has elapsed since the date of registration of the records.

(b) The birth, death, or marriage records have been reproduced onto microfilm or optical disk or by any other technique which does not permit additions, deletions, or changes to the original document in compliance with the minimum standards or guidelines, or both, recommended by the American National Standards Institute or the Association for Information and Image Management for recording of permanent records or nonpermanent records, whichever applies.

(c) Adequate provisions are made that the permanent storage medium reflects additions or corrections to the records.

(d) A permanent copy is maintained in a manner which permits it to be used for all purposes served by the original record.

(e) A permanent copy has been stored at a separate physical location in a place and manner which will reasonably assure its preservation indefinitely against loss or destruction.

SEC. 10. Section 10851 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

10851. (a) Each county shall establish and maintain a case record for each public social services case and shall retain the record for a period of three years. The three-year retention period begins on the date on which public social services were last provided. The records shall be retained beyond the three-year retention period when the county is notified by the department or the State Department of Health Services, whichever has jurisdiction over the records, to retain records for a longer period of time. The department or the State Department of Health Services, whichever has jurisdiction over the records, shall instruct a county to retain records beyond the three-year period when the retention is necessary to a pending civil or criminal action.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the board of supervisors of any county may authorize the destruction of the case narrative portions of the case record that are over three years old in any case file, active or inactive, only after audit by the department or the State Department of Health Services, whichever has jurisdiction over the record. In addition, the board may also authorize the destruction of those documents contained in the case file which are over three years old and are no longer necessary to document the recipient's continued eligibility for public social services. However, if a civil or criminal action against a person based on alleged unlawful application for, or receipt of, public social services, is commenced before the expiration of the three-year period no portion of the case record of the person shall be destroyed until the action is terminated.

(c) Each county shall maintain fiscal, statistical, and other records necessary for maintaining accountability and meeting reporting requirements relating to the administration of public social services. These fiscal and reporting records shall be retained for a minimum period of three years from the date of submission of the final expenditure report and shall be retained beyond the three-year period when audit findings have not been resolved.

(d) The retention requirements imposed by subdivisions (a) and (c) of this section are for public social services purposes only and are superseded to the extent another statute requires retention of the same records for a longer period for a different purpose.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), or any other statutory requirement concerning the retention of public social services records, a child protective services agency may, but need not, retain a child abuse report which has been determined to be an unfounded report, as defined in Section 11165.12 of the Penal Code.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a county may retain a case record established pursuant to subdivision (a), and retained pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (c), using either electronic or other alternative storage technologies. Permissible alternative storage technologies shall include, but not be limited to, photography, microphotography, electronically recorded video images on magnetic surfaces, electronic data-processing systems, optical disk storage, or any other electronic medium which does not permit additions, deletions, or changes to the original document and meets the minimum standards or guidelines, or both, as recommended by the American National Standards Institute or the Association for Information and Image Management for recording of permanent records or nonpermanent records, whichever applies. A duplicate copy of any record reproduced shall be deemed an original.

An act to add Section 14016.10 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public social services, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14016.10 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14016.10. The department shall implement the federal requirement under Section 4603 of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1990 (P.L. 101–508) which provides for the continuity of Medi-Cal coverage during pregnancy and the post partum period for pregnant women who were certified as Medi-Cal eligible.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Congress and the President have enacted legislation which requires this benefit to be provided to Medi-Cal eligible pregnant women by January 1, 1991. In order for pregnant women to receive the services they require, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1063

An act to amend Section 19605.3 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19605.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19605.3. (a) An organization described in Section 19608.2 has executed an agreement approved by the board with the association conducting a racing meeting and the satellite wagering facility. The agreement shall provide, among other things, the conditions for transmission of the signal and that the wagers made at the satellite wagering facility will be included in the appropriate conventional or exotic pool at the racetrack where the racing meeting is conducted.

(b) The accommodations and equipment used in conducting wagering at the satellite wagering facility and their location have been approved by the board.

(c) The method used by the satellite wagering facility to transmit wagers, odds, results, and other data related to wagering has been approved by the board.

(d) (1) Any association or fair that operates a satellite wagering facility shall conduct wagering on all racing that is offered to the satellite wagering facility, except as otherwise provided in Section 19607.5 with respect to the northern zone, as long as the satellite wagering facility is not sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or night meeting, as determined by the board, and, if sustaining a loss on either a day meeting or night meeting, as long as the satellite wagering facility is reimbursed for that loss by either an organization described in Section 19608.2 or an association. Any association that operates a satellite wagering facility may, but is not required to, accept an audiovisual signal. Notwithstanding any other provision of this paragraph, an association that conducts a racing meeting and a fair that operates a satellite wagering facility may agree to provide an audiovisual signal and to accept wagering on less than all of the races.

(2) In calculating the loss, if any, for operating a satellite wagering facility for a night meeting, only the expenses incurred by the satellite wagering facility because of the acceptance of night wagers shall be considered, and no overhead expenses or expenses of the satellite wagering facility which would be incurred regardless of the acceptance of night wagers shall be considered.

(e) Notwithstanding any other law or any agreement under subdivision (a), for purposes of determining license fees and breakage at the racetrack where the racing meeting is conducted, wagers at a satellite wagering facility shall not be included in the conventional or exotic pools of the association conducting the racing meeting.

(f) The horsemen's organization which represents the horsemen at the association which conducts the racing meeting on which wagers are accepted consents to the acceptance of wagers at the satellite wagering facility, except that the association or fair operating the satellite wagering facility may appeal the withholding of consent to the board which may determine that consent is not required.

CHAPTER 1064

An act to amend Section 44258.1 of, and to add and repeal Section 44258.3 of, the Education Code, relating to teaching credentials.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44258.1 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44258.1. The holder of a credential authorizing instruction in a self-contained classroom may teach in any of grades 5 to 8, inclusive, in a middle school, provided that he or she teaches two or more subjects for two or more periods per day to the same group of pupils, and, in addition, may teach any of the subjects he or she already is teaching to a separate group of pupils at the same grade level as those pupils he or she already is teaching for an additional period or periods, provided that the additional period or periods do not exceed one-half of the teacher's total assignment.

SEC. 2. Section 44258.3 is added to the Education Code, to read:

44258.3. (a) The governing board of a school district may assign the holder of a credential authorizing instruction in a self-contained classroom to teach any subjects in departmentalized classes in kindergarten or any of grades 1 to 8, inclusive, provided that the governing board verifies that the teacher has adequate knowledge of each subject to be taught and the teacher consents to that assignment. The governing board shall establish policies and procedures for the purpose of verifying the adequacy of subject knowledge on the part of each of those teachers. The governing board shall involve subject matter specialists in the subjects commonly taught in the district in the development of the policies and procedures, and shall include in those policies and procedures all of the following:

(1) One or more ways for teachers to attain subject matter competence other than completion of college or university coursework, including, but not limited to, successful prior teaching experience, self-directed study, completion of internships, study with a mentor teacher, curriculum institutes, work experience, or systematic programs of professional development.

(2) One or more ways to assess subject matter competence, including, but not limited to, observation by subject matter specialists, oral interviews, demonstration lessons, presentation of curricular portfolios, or written examinations.

(3) Specific criteria and standards for verifying adequacy of subject matter knowledge using any of the methods in paragraph (1) or (2), or paragraphs (1) and (2).

(b) Teaching assignments made pursuant to this section shall be reviewed annually by the governing board of the school district, and shall be valid only in that school district. The principal of the school, or other appropriate administrator, shall notify the exclusive representative of the certificated employees for that school district, as provided under Chapter 10.7 (commencing with Section 3540) of Division 4 of Title 1 of the Government Code, of each instance in which a teacher is assigned to teach classes pursuant to this section. Any school district policy or procedures adopted and teaching assignments made pursuant to this section shall be included in the report required by subdivisions (a) and (e) of Section 44258.9.

(c) The Commission on Teacher Credentialing may develop and recommend model criteria, standards, and procedures that may be used by governing boards of school districts in assigning teachers under this section.

(d) To the extent that funds are provided from the Teacher Credentials Fund for that purpose, the commission shall study the implementation of this section and shall report to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1995, on the nature, scope, and impact of local assignment policies implemented by school districts pursuant to this section.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to alter the effect of Section 44955 with regard to the reduction by a school district governing board of the number of certificated employees.

(f) This section shall be repealed on January 1, 1996, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date on which it is repealed.

CHAPTER 1065

An act to amend Sections 5012, 35107, and 72103 of the Education Code, relating to school boards.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5012 of the Education Code is amended to read:

5012. In any school district or community college district governing board election the name of any person shall be placed on the ballot, subject to Sections 35107 and 72103, if there is filed with the county clerk having jurisdiction not more than 113 days nor less than 88 days prior to the election a declaration of candidacy substantially in the form set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 5032, containing the appropriate information in the blank spaces and signed by the person whose name is thereby to be placed on the ballot.

No candidate whose declaration of candidacy has been filed for any school district or community college district governing board election or county board of education election may withdraw as a candidate after the 88th day prior to the election.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no person shall file nomination papers for more than one district office, including a county board of education office, at the same election.

SEC. 2. Section 35107 of the Education Code is amended to read:

35107. (a) Any person, regardless of sex, who is 18 years of age or older, a citizen of the state, a resident of the school district, a registered voter, and who is not disqualified by the Constitution or laws of the state from holding a civil office, is eligible to be elected or appointed a member of a governing board of a school district without further qualifications.

(b) An employee of a school district may not be sworn into office as an elected or appointed member of that school district's governing board unless and until he or she resigns as an employee. If the employee does not resign, the employment will automatically terminate upon being sworn into office.

For any individual who is an employee of a school district and an elected or appointed member of that school district's governing board prior to January 1, 1992, this subdivision shall apply when he or she is reelected or reappointed, on or after January 1, 1992, as a member of the school district's governing board.

SEC. 3. Section 72103 of the Education Code is amended to read:

72103. (a) Any person, regardless of sex, who is 18 years of age or older, a citizen of the state, a resident of the community college district, a registered voter, and who is not disqualified by the Constitution or laws of the state from holding a civil office, is eligible to be elected or appointed a member of a governing board of a community college district without further qualifications.

(b) An employee of a community college district may not be sworn into office as an elected or appointed member of that community college district's governing board unless and until he or she resigns as an employee. If the employee does not resign, the employment will automatically terminate upon being sworn into office.

For any individual who is an employee of a community college district and an elected or appointed member of that community college district's governing board prior to January 1, 1992, this subdivision shall apply when he or she is reelected or reappointed, on or after January 1, 1992, as a member of the community college district's governing board. This section does not apply to an individual who is usually employed in an occupation other than teaching and who also is employed part time by the community college district to teach no more than one course per semester or quarter in the subject matter of that individual's occupation.

CHAPTER 1066

An act to add Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 42550) to Division 3 of Title 30 of the Public Resources Code, relating to solid waste, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Over 100,000 tons of trash are dumped in California landfills every day. Existing landfill sites are rapidly reaching capacity, and few new sites are available.

(b) People in California use over 30,000,000 telephone directories each year, most of which are not recycled due to the materials used in their production.

(c) Telephone directories are another "necessity of modern life" which have become a growing source of municipal solid waste.

(d) The use of recyclable materials in the production of telephone directories will provide numerous economic and environmental benefits to the state.

(e) Recycling outdated telephone directories will save landfill space, reduce energy consumption, and preserve timber resources.

SEC. 2. Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 42550) is added to Division 3 of Title 30 of the Public Resources Code, read:

CHAPTER 9.5. TELEPHONE DIRECTORY RECYCLING

Article 1. Telephone Directory Recycling Goals

42550. For purposes of this chapter, "telephone directory" means a directory which lists the calling numbers of telephones located in this state of which 1,000 or more copies are distributed to the general public.

42551. The board shall conduct a study of the feasibility of requiring that all telephone directories issued or sold in this state be made of materials that will allow for the maximum volume of directories to be recycled. The board shall consult with representatives of telephone directory publishers, including the Yellow Pages Publishers Association, as well as representatives of recycling operators. The board shall make use of public hearings and workshops as a means of providing an opportunity for public comment. The board may create an advisory board consisting of members representing telephone directory publishers, recycling operators, and other interested parties.

42552. The board shall report the results of the study to the Legislature on or before July 1, 1994. The report shall include a finding as to whether recyclable materials are currently available which could be utilized in the manufacture of telephone directories which can and will be recycled without significantly reducing the durability of the directories nor significantly increasing production costs. If the board determines that recyclable telephone directories cannot be cost-effectively produced, the board shall include in its report recommendations on alternative methods of removing telephone directories from the waste stream, such as the development of new recycling techniques.

42553. Article 2 (commencing with Section 42557) shall become operative only if the report required in Section 42552 contains an affirmative finding regarding the feasibility of producing recyclable telephone directories without significantly reducing the durability of the directories nor significantly increasing production costs.

42554. It is the goal of this state that not less than 30 percent of telephone directories distributed in this state be recycled on and after January 1, 1994, that 35 percent of telephone directories distributed in this state be recycled on and after January 1, 1996, that 40 percent of telephone directories distributed in this state be recycled on and after January 1, 1998, and that 50 percent of telephone directories distributed in this state be recycled on and after January 1, 2000.

42556. If the board determines that the policy goals established by Section 42554 are not being met by January 1, 1999, the board shall make recommendations to the Legislature, on or before January 1, 2000, on strategies for meeting the goals established in Section 42554.

Article 2. Recyclable Telephone Directories

42557. On and after January 1, 1995, all telephone directories distributed within the state shall be made from materials that will allow for the maximum volume of directories to be recycled, as determined by the board. If reasonably feasible, it is the goal of this state that existing waste paper recyclers make an effort to accept telephone directories for recycling.

42558. For the purposes of implementing and enforcing this chapter, the board shall adopt general guidelines regarding the materials which may be used in the production of telephone directories which can and will be recycled. The guidelines shall be reviewed and promptly updated, as necessary, in order to avoid delay in the introduction of new materials or new recycling processes which will advance efforts to recycle telephone directories.

SEC. 3. The sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) is hereby appropriated from the Integrated Waste Management Account in the Integrated Waste Management Fund to the California Integrated Waste Management Board for the implementation of this act.

CHAPTER 1067

An act to amend Sections 7863, 8275, 8282, 8284, and 9011 of, and to add Section 9052 to, the Fish and Game Code, relating to fish, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7863 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

7863. This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 8275 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8275. Unless the provision or context otherwise requires, the definitions in this section govern the construction of this article.

(a) "Dungeness crab" or "market crab" means crab of the species Cancer magister.

(b) "Rock crab" means any crab of the genus Cancer other than dungeness crab and includes rock crab (Cancer antennarius), red crab (Cancer productus), and yellow crab (Cancer anthonyi).

SEC. 3. Section 8282 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8282. (a) Subject to this article and Article 1 (commencing with Section 9000) of Chapter 4, rock crab may be taken in traps in any waters of the state at any time, except in Districts 19A, 19B, and 21 and those portions of District 20 lying on the north and east sides of Santa Catalina Island north of Southeast Rock. Rock crab (Cancer antennarius), red crab (Cancer productus), or yellow crab (Cancer anthonyi), which is less than 4¼ inches, measured in a straight line through the body, from edge of shell to edge of shell at the widest part, shall not be taken, possessed, bought, or sold.

(b) Any person taking rock crab shall carry a measuring device and shall measure any rock crab immediately upon removal from the trap. If the person determines that the rock crab is undersize, the person shall return it to the water immediately.

SEC. 4. Section 8284 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

8284. (a) Subject to this article and Article 1 (commencing with Section 9000) of Chapter 4, crab traps, as described in Section 9011, may be used to take dungeness crab for commercial purposes. Any fish may be taken incidentally in crab traps being used to take dungeness crab.

(b) Any other species taken incidentally in a crab trap being used to take rock crab, except as provided in this subdivision, shall be released. The following species may be taken incidentally in crab traps being used to take rock crab under a permit issued pursuant to Section 9001 in Districts 19 and 118.5, and any other species taken incidentally with a crab trap being used to take rock crab shall be released:

(1) California sheephead.

(2) Kellet's whelk.

(3) Octopus.

(4) Crabs, other than the genus Cancer.

SEC. 5. Section 9011 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

9011. (a) (1) Subject to Article 6 (commencing with Section 8275) of Chapter 2, dungeness crab, as defined in Section 8275, may be taken with dungeness crab traps.

(2) A dungeness crab trap may have any number of openings of any size. However, every dungeness crab trap shall have at least two rigid circular openings of not less than 4¼ inches, inside diameter, on the top or side of the trap. If both of the openings are located on the side of the trap, at least one of the openings shall be located so that at least one-half of the opening is in the upper half of the trap.

(3) Any rock crab taken with a crab trap used pursuant to this subdivision to take dungeness crab shall be immediately returned to the waters from which it was taken. No person shall possess rock crab aboard any vessel when the vessel is being used to take dungeness crab.

(b) (1) Subject to Article 6 (commencing with Section 8275) of Chapter 2, rock crab, as defined in Section 8275, may be taken with rock crab traps.

(2) A rock crab trap may have any number of openings of any size. However, a rock crab trap constructed of wire mesh with an inside mesh measurement of not less than 1⅞ inches by 3⅞ inches, with the 3⅞ inch measurement parallel to the floor, shall have at least one rigid circular opening of not less than 3¼ inches, inside diameter, located on any outside wall of the rearmost chamber of the crab trap and shall be located so that at least one-half of the opening is in the upper half of the trap. Rock crab traps constructed of other material shall have at least two rigid circular openings of not less than 3¼ inches, inside diameter, on the top or side of the rearmost chamber of the trap. If both of the openings are located on the side of the trap, at least one of the openings shall be located so that at least one-half of the opening is in the upper half of the trap. No rigid circular opening, as required, shall extend more than ½ inch beyond the plane of the wall side or top of the trap in which it is located, and it shall be clearly accessible to any crab which may be in the trap.

(3) No person shall possess any lobster aboard a vessel while the vessel is being used pursuant to this subdivision to take rock crab. Any dungeness crab taken with a crab trap used pursuant to this subdivision to take rock crab shall be immediately returned to the waters from which it was taken. No person shall possess dungeness crab aboard any vessel when the vessel is being used to take rock crab.

SEC. 6. Section 9052 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

9052. (a) Slurp guns may be used to take fish in fish and game districts 6, 7, 10, 17, 18, 19, 20, and 20A.

(b) As used in this section, "slurp gun" means a self-contained, handheld device used to capture fish by rapidly drawing water containing fish into a closed chamber.

SEC. 7. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1068

An act to add Chapter 15.7 (commencing with Section 67390) to Part 40 of the Education Code, relating to postsecondary education.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 15.7 (commencing with Section 67390) is added to Part 40 of the Education Code, to read:

CHAPTER 15.7. RAPE AND SEXUAL ASSAULT EDUCATION PROGRAMS

67390. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(a) College students are more vulnerable to rape than any other age group.

(b) The majority of reported victims and offenders of rape are of college age.

(c) At most colleges and universities today, few students, faculty, or staff are alerted to crucial information about sexual assaults, especially acquaintance rape. Many people have misconceptions about these crimes that enhance their vulnerability to victimization.

(d) Colleges should implement a variety of effective educational programs to inform all students and other college personnel about sexual assaults on campus. These programs should be implemented to disseminate factual information about sexual assault, promote open discussion, encourage reporting, and provide information about prevention to faculty, staff, and both male and female students.

(e) Colleges need to emphasize to students the seriousness of the offenses of rape and sexual assault.

(f) Students need critical factual information about the prevalence of stranger and acquaintance rape, how and where it happens, its impact, and the relationship between alcohol and drug use and sexual assaults.

(g) It is not sufficient to develop policies, brochures, and other informational materials; once these materials are developed they must be distributed in a way that emphasizes their importance and stimulates the interest of students.

(h) Fraternities, sororities, and other student organizations operating on campus should undergo rape-awareness training each year before they are permitted to hold any events.

(i) Residence life student staff and all students living in campus recognized housing should receive acquaintance rape training every semester.

(j) Comprehensive information about acquaintance rape and other kinds of sexual assaults should be provided at all new student orientation programs and at any campus program that students are required to attend.

(k) Colleges should provide special sexual assault seminars for all athletic coaches and administrators and members of athletic teams. These seminars should take place during a student athlete orientation program or prior to the first team meeting. Seminars should use the campus media, newspapers, radio, and television to heighten awareness of campus violence and its prevention.

(l) To provide appropriate information and counseling to sexual assault victims, all college student services professional staff members or student affairs professional staff members and campus police should participate in annual sexual assault education seminars.

67391. The governing board of each community college district, the Trustees of the California State University, the Board of Directors of the Hastings College of the Law, and the Regents of the University of California shall, within existing resources, adopt and implement a rape and sexual assault education program for, and ensure maximum feasible participation of, students and student services professional staff members or student affairs professional staff members at each of their respective campuses or other facilities.

67392. No provision of this chapter shall apply to the University of California unless the Regents of the University of California, by resolution, make that provision applicable.

67393. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, this chapter shall not apply to the California Community Colleges unless and until the Legislature makes funds available to the California Community Colleges for the purposes of this chapter.

CHAPTER 1069

An act to amend Sections 14538, 14552, 14554, 14570, 14571, 14572, 14573.5, and 14591 of, to add Sections 14573.7, 14591.1, 14591.2, 14591.3, 14591.4, 14591.5, 14593, 14594, and 14595 to, to repeal Section 14541.3 of, and to repeal and add Sections 14539 and 14541 of, the Public Resources Code, relating to beverage containers, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14538 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

14538. (a) The department shall certify the operators of recycling centers pursuant to this section. The director shall adopt, by regulation, a procedure for the certification of recycling centers, including standards and requirements for certification. These regulations shall require that all information be submitted to the department under penalty of perjury. A recycling center shall meet all of the standards and requirements contained in the regulations for certification. The regulations shall require, but shall not be limited to requiring, that both of the following conditions be met for certification:

(1) The operator of the recycling center demonstrates, to the satisfaction of the department, that the operator will operate in accordance with this division.

(2) The operator of the recycling center shall notify the department promptly of any material change in the nature of his or her operations which conflicts with information submitted in the operator's application for certification.

(b) A certified recycling center shall comply with all of the following requirements for operation:

(1) The operator of the recycling center shall not pay a refund value for, or receive a refund value from any processor for, any food or drink packaging material or any beverage container or other product which does not have a refund value established pursuant to Section 14560.

(2) The operator of a recycling center shall take those actions which satisfy the department to prevent the payment of a refund value for any food or drink packaging material or any beverage container or other product which does not have a refund value established pursuant to Section 14560.

(3) Unless exempted pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 14572, a certified recycling center shall accept, and pay at least the refund value for, all empty beverage containers, regardless of type.

(4) A certified recycling center shall not pay any refund values, processing fees, or administrative fees to a noncertified recycler.

(5) A certified recycling center shall not pay any refund values, processing fees, or administrative fees on empty beverage containers or other containers which the certified recycling center knew, or should have known, were coming into the state from out of the state.

(6) A certified recycling center shall not claim refund values, processing fees, or administrative fees on empty beverage containers which the certified recycling center knew, or should have known, were received from noncertified recyclers or on beverage containers which the certified recycling center knew, or should have known, come from out of the state.

(7) A certified recycling center shall prepare and maintain the following documents involving empty beverage containers, as specified by the department by regulation:

(A) Shipping reports which are required to be prepared by the recycling center, or which are required to be obtained from other recycling centers.

(B) Consumer transaction receipts.

(C) Consumer transaction logs.

(D) Rejected container receipts on materials subject to this division.

(E) Receipts for transactions with beverage manufacturers on materials subject to this division.

(F) Receipts for transactions with beverage distributors on materials subject to this division.

(G) Documents authorizing the recycling center to cancel empty beverage containers.

(H) Weight tickets.

(8) In addition to the requirements of paragraph (7), a certified recycling center shall cooperate with the department and make available its records of scrap transactions when the review of these records is necessary for an audit or investigation by the department.

(9) The department may recover, in restitution pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 14591.2, payments made from the fund to the certified recycling center pursuant to Section 14573.5 which are based on the documents specified in paragraph (7) and which are not prepared or maintained in compliance with the department's regulations and which do not allow the department to verify claims for program payments.

SEC. 2. Section 14539 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 14539 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

14539. (a) The department shall certify processors pursuant to this section. The director shall adopt, by regulation, requirements and standards for certification. The regulations shall require, but shall not be limited to requiring, that both of the following conditions be met for certification:

(1) The processor demonstrates to the satisfaction of the department that the processor will operate in accordance with this division.

(2) The processor notifies the department promptly of any material change in the nature of the processor's operations which conflicts with the information submitted in the operator's application for certification.

(b) A certified processor shall comply with all of the following requirements for operation:

(1) The processor shall not pay a refund value for, or receive a refund value from the department for, any food or drink packaging material or any beverage container or other product which does not have a refund value established pursuant to Section 14560.

(2) The processor shall take those actions which satisfy the department to prevent the payment of a refund value for any food or drink packaging material or any beverage container or other product which does not have a refund value established pursuant to Section 14560.

(3) Unless exempted pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 14572, the processor shall accept, and pay at least the refund value for, all empty beverage containers, regardless of type, for which the processor is certified.

(4) A processor shall not pay any refund values, processing fees, or administrative fees to a noncertified recycler. A processor may pay refund values, processing fees, or administrative fees to any entity which is identified by the department on its list of certified recycling centers.

(5) A processor shall not pay any refund values, processing fees, or administrative fees on empty beverage containers or other containers which the processor knew, or should have known, were coming into the state from out of the state.

(6) A processor shall not claim refund values, processing fees, or administrative fees on empty beverage containers which the processor knew, or should have known, were received from noncertified recyclers or on beverage containers which the processor knew, or should have known, come from out of the state. A processor may claim refund values, processing fees, or administrative fees on any empty beverage container which does not come from out of the state and which is received from any entity which is identified by the department on its list of certified recycling centers.

(7) A processor shall take the actions necessary and approved by the department to cancel containers to render them unfit for redemption.

(8) A processor shall prepare or maintain the following documents involving empty beverage containers, as specified by the department by regulation:

(A) Shipping reports which are required to be prepared by the processor or which are required to be obtained from recycling centers.

(B) Processor invoice reports.

(C) Cancellation verification documents.

(D) Documents authorizing recycling centers to cancel empty beverage containers.

(E) Processor-to-processor transaction receipts.

(F) Rejected container receipts on materials subject to this division.

(G) Receipts for transactions with beverage manufacturers on materials subject to this division.

(H) Receipts for transactions with distributors on materials subject to this division.

(I) Weight tickets.

(J) Market development payment reports.

(9) In addition to the requirements of paragraph (7), a processor shall cooperate with the department and make available its records of scrap transactions when the review of these records is necessary for an audit or investigation by the department.

(10) The department may recover, in restitution pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 14591.2, any payments made by the department to the processor pursuant to Section 14573 which are based on the documents specified in paragraph (8) and which are not prepared or maintained in compliance with the department's regulations and which do not allow the department to verify claims for program payments.

SEC. 4. Section 14541 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 14541 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

14541. (a) The department may issue any certificate pursuant to an initial application for certification as a probationary certificate, and the department may issue any other certificate as a probationary certificate pursuant to an enforcement action.

(b) A probationary certificate issued pursuant to this subdivision shall be issued for a limited period of not more than one year. Before the end of the probationary period, the department shall issue a nonprobationary certificate, extend the probationary period for not more than one year, or, after notice to the probationary certificate holder, terminate the probationary certificate. Subsequent to the termination, the former probationary certificate holder may request a hearing, which shall be conducted in the same form as a hearing for an applicant whose original application for certification is denied.

(c) If conditions are imposed on the certificate holder as part of a disciplinary proceeding conducted pursuant to Section 14591.2, the certificate holder's certificate shall be considered probationary. If, at any time, the certificate holder violates any term or condition of the probationary certificate, the certification may be revoked or suspended, after three days' notice, without any further hearing by the department.

SEC. 6. Section 14541.3 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 14552 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

14552. (a) The department shall establish and implement an auditing system to ensure that the information collected, and refund values and redemption payments paid pursuant to this division, comply with the purposes of this division. Notwithstanding Sections 14573 and 14573.5, the auditing system adopted by the department may include prepayment or postpayment controls.

(b) The department may audit or investigate any action taken during the two-year period before the onset of the audit or investigation and may determine if there was compliance with this division during any, or all, of that two-year period. Notwithstanding any other provision of law establishing a shorter statute of limitation, the department may take an enforcement action, including, but not limited to, an action for restitution or to impose penalties, at any time within two years after the department discovers, or with reasonable diligence, should have discovered, a violation of this division or the regulations adopted pursuant to this division.

(c) During the conduct of an audit or investigation, the entity which is the subject of the audit or investigation shall provide the department with access to any relevant record, which, in the department's judgment, the department determines is necessary to carry out this section to verify compliance with this division and the regulations adopted pursuant to this division. The department shall protect any information obtained pursuant to this section in accordance with Section 14554, except that this section does not prohibit the department from releasing any information which the department determines to be necessary in the course of an enforcement action.

(d) The auditing system adopted by the department shall allow for reasonable shrinkage in material due to moisture, dirt, and foreign material. The department, after an audit by a qualified auditing firm and a hearing, shall adopt a standard to be used to account for shrinkage and shall incorporate this standard in the audit process.

(e) If the department prevails against any entity in any civil or administrative action brought pursuant to this division, and money is owed to the department as a result of the action, the department may offset the amount against amounts claimed by the entity to be due to it from the department. The department may take this offset by withholding payments from the entity or by authorizing all processors to withhold payment to a certified recycling center.

(f) If the department determines, pursuant to an audit or investigation, that a distributor or beverage manufacturer has overpaid the redemption payment or processing fee, the department may do either of the following:

(1) Offset the overpayment against future payments.

(2) Refund the payment pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 13140) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 8. Section 14554 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

14554. The department shall establish procedures to protect any privileged, confidential, commercial, or financial information obtained while collecting information for carrying out the requirements of this division. Any privileged, confidential, commercial, or financial information obtained in confidence by the department is not a public record for purposes of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

SEC. 9. Section 14570 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

14570. Every dealer shall identify, by a clear and conspicuous sign of at least 10 inches by 15 inches posted at each public entrance to the dealer's place of business, which specifies one of the following:

(a) The name and address, as provided by the department, of at least the certified recycling center, location, or locations, nearest to the dealer, which redeems all types of empty beverage containers at one location during at least 30 hours per week with a minimum of five hours of operation occurring during periods other than from Monday to Friday, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

(b) One of the following procedures for redeeming beverage containers is available, pursuant to Section 14571.6:

(1) Beverage containers may be redeemed at all open cash registers within this place of business.

(2) Beverage containers may be redeemed at one specific location within the dealer's place of business which is identified on the sign.

SEC. 10. Section 14571 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

14571. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, there shall be at least one certified recycling center or location within every convenience zone which accepts and pays the refund value, if any, at one location for all types of empty beverage containers and is open for business during at least 30 hours per week with a minimum of five hours of operation occurring during periods other than from Monday to Friday, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

(b) (1) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the department may require a certified recycling center to operate 15 of its 30 hours of operation other than during 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

(2) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the department may certify a recycling center which will operate less than 30 hours per week, if the following conditions are met:

(A) The convenience zone to be served is in a remote rural area.

(B) The operation to be certified is open to conduct a business other than recycling for less than 30 hours per week.

(C) The operation to be certified will be open for business within the meaning of subdivision (b) of Section 14571 during the entire time it is open to conduct a business other than recycling.

(D) The needs of the community and the goals of this division will be best served by certification of the operation as a recycling center.

(3) Before establishing operating hours for a certified recycling center pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2), the department shall make a determination that this action is necessary to further the goals of this division and shall also conduct a public hearing which will consider consumer convenience as well as the economic impact on the certified recycling center, public health and safety, local zoning requirements, neighborhood opinion, and any other relevant factors.

(c) For purposes of this section, if the recycling center is staffed and is not a reverse vending machine, a center is "open for business" if all of the following requirements are met:

(1) An employee of the certified recycling center or location is present during the hours of operation and available to the public to accept containers and to pay the refund values.

(2) In addition to the sign specified in subdivision (g), a sign having a minimum size of two feet by two feet is posted at the certified recycling center or location indicating that the center or location is open. Where allowed by local zoning requirements or where zoning restrictions apply, the sign shall be of the maximum allowable size.

(3) The prices paid, by weight or per container, are posted at the location.

(d) Except as provided in subdivision (e), for the purpose of this section, if the recycling center consists of reverse vending machines or other unmanned automated equipment, the center is "open for business" if the equipment is properly functioning, accepting all types of empty beverage containers at the recycling location, and paying posted refund values no less than the minimums required by this division.

(e) If a recycling center consists of reverse vending machines or other automated equipment, the recycling center is open for business if the equipment is properly functioning, and accepting all types of empty beverage containers at one physical recycling location within the recycling location.

(f) Whenever a recycling center which is a reverse vending machine is not open for business during the 30 hours of operation required and posted pursuant to this section and Section 14570, the dealer which is hosting the reverse vending machine at its place of business shall redeem all empty beverage container types at all open cash registers or one designated location in the store, as specified on the sign required pursuant to subdivision (g).

(g) In addition to the sign specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c), each reverse vending machine shall be posted with a clear and conspicuous sign on or near the reverse vending machine which states that beverage containers may be redeemed by the host dealer if the machine is nonoperational at any time during the required 30 hours of operation, pursuant to subdivision (f). The department shall determine the size and location of the sign and the message required to be printed on the sign.

SEC. 11. Section 14572 of the Public Resources Code is amended

to read:

14572. (a) A certified recycling center shall accept from any consumer or dropoff or collection program any empty beverage container, and shall pay to the consumer or dropoff or collection program the refund value of the beverage container. The center may pay the refund value based on the weight of returned containers.

(b) Any recycling center or processor which was certified by the department as of June 30, 1988, which was in existence on January 1, 1986, and which refused, as of January 1, 1986, to accept at a particular location a certain type of empty beverage container may continue to refuse to accept at the location the type or types of empty beverage containers that the recycling center or processor refused to accept as of January 1, 1986. Any certified recycling center which refuses, pursuant to this subdivision, to accept a certain type or types of empty beverage containers is not eligible to receive convenience incentive payments unless the center agrees to accept all types of empty beverage containers. This subdivision does not preclude the certified recycling center from receiving a convenience incentive payment for beverage containers redeemed at locations which do accept all types of containers. Any recycling center which is certified after June 30, 1988, shall accept all beverage container types after January 1, 1989.

(c) (1) Only a certified recycling center may pay the refund value to consumers or dropoff or collection programs. No person shall pay a noncertified recycler for empty beverage containers an amount which exceeds the current scrap value for each container type, which shall be determined in the following manner:

(A) For a plastic or glass beverage container, the current scrap value shall be determined by the department.

(B) For an aluminum beverage container, the current scrap value shall be not greater than the amount paid to the processor for that aluminum beverage container, on the date the container was purchased, by the location of end use, as defined in Section 2550 of Title 14 of the Code of California Regulations as it read on January 1, 1992.

(2) No person may receive or retain, for empty beverage containers which come from out of state, any refund values, processing fee or administrative fees, for which a claim is made to the department against the fund.

(3) Paragraph (1) does not affect curbside programs under contract with cities or counties.

SEC. 12. Section 14573.5 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

14573.5. Except as provided in Section 14573.6, a processor shall pay to a certified recycling center, dropoff or collection program, or curbside program, for all types of empty beverage containers, by type of beverage container, received by the processor from a recycling center, curbside program, or dropoff or collection program, upon receipt by the certified processor of a shipping report from the supplier of the material, in the form adopted by the regulations adopted by the department, the sum of all of the following amounts:

(a) The refund value.

(b) One-half of 1 percent of the refund value for administrative costs.

(c) The portion of the processing fee established pursuant to Section 14575 representing the actual cost and financial return incurred by the recycling center, as determined by the department.

The processor shall make this payment within two working days of the date the processor receives these empty beverage containers, or within the time which the department determines to be necessary and adequate. Under the procedures authorized by the department, the department may authorize a certified recycling center to cancel containers, and a certified processor may authorize a certified recycling center to cancel containers on behalf of the certified processor.

If the department has set up an accounts receivable procedure or other procedure for seeking the payment of money improperly obtained by a certified recycling center from the fund, the department may reimburse the processor for its payments to that certified recycling center.

SEC. 13. Section 14573.7 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

14573.7. Notwithstanding Sections 14573 and 14573.5, the department may require a recycling center, pursuant to a prepayment review taken pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 14552, to submit consumer transaction logs and consumer transaction receipts as support documentation for shipping reports submitted to processors. The department may, pursuant to this section, authorize a processor to withhold refund value payments to a recycling center. The department may suspend the certification of a recycling center without a hearing if the recycling center fails to comply with the documental submittal requirements of this section, upon providing notice of these requirements. The recycling center which is the subject of the suspension may then request a hearing on the suspension, but the request for a hearing shall not stay the suspension. A hearing requested pursuant to this section shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 14. Section 14591 of the Public Resources Code, as amended by Section 15 of Chapter 1274 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

14591. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), in addition to any other applicable civil or criminal penalties, any person convicted of a violation of this division is guilty of an infraction, which is punishable by a fine of one hundred dollars ($100) for each initial separate violation and not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each subsequent separate violation per day.

(b) Every person who, with intent to defraud, submits a false or fraudulent claim for payment pursuant to Section 14573 or 14573.5 or who, with intent to defraud, fails to accurately report the number of beverage containers sold, as required by subdivision (b) of Section 14550, or who, with intent to defraud, fails to make payments as required by Section 14574 or who, with intent to defraud, redeems containers which have already been redeemed or returns redeemed containers to the marketplace for redemption with intent to defraud, or who submits a false or fraudulent claim for convenience incentive payments pursuant to Section 14585, is guilty of fraud. If the money obtained or withheld exceeds four hundred dollars ($400), the fraud is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by both, or by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, two years, or three years, or by a fine not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) or twice the late or unmade payments plus interest, whichever is greater, or by both fine and imprisonment. If the money obtained or withheld equals, or is less than, four hundred dollars ($400), the fraud is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both.

(c) The department shall suspend all convenience incentive payments received by any certified recycling center for up to six months, but not less than two months, from the date of a third violation assessed upon that recycling center pursuant to Section 14591.1 within a one-year period, commencing January 1, 1990.

(d) This section shall remain in effect until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 15. Section 14591 of the Public Resources Code, as amended by Section 16 of Chapter 1274 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

14591. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), in addition to any other applicable civil or criminal penalties, any person convicted of a violation of this division is guilty of an infraction, which is punishable by a fine of one hundred dollars ($100) for each initial separate violation and not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each subsequent separate violation per day.

(b) Every person who, with intent to defraud, submits a false or fraudulent claim for payment pursuant to Section 14573 or 14573.5 or who, with intent to defraud, fails to accurately report the number of beverage containers sold, as required by subdivision (b) of Section 14550, or who, with intent to defraud, fails to make payments as required by Section 14574 or who, with intent to defraud, redeems containers which have already been redeemed or returns redeemed containers to the marketplace for redemption with intent to defraud, or who submits a false or fraudulent claim for convenience incentive payments pursuant to Section 14585, is guilty of fraud. If the money obtained or withheld exceeds four hundred dollars ($400), the fraud is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by both, or by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, two years, or three years, or by a fine not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) or twice the late or unmade payments plus interest, whichever is greater, or by both fine and imprisonment. If the money obtained or withheld equals, or is less than, four hundred dollars ($400), the fraud is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both.

(c) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1993.

SEC. 16. Section 14591.1 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

14591.1. (a) The department may assess penalties pursuant to this division only after notice and hearing in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. Each violation of this division is a separate violation and each day of the violation is a separate violation. The department shall deposit all revenues from civil penalties in the fund.

(b) Any person who intentionally or negligently violates this division may be assessed a civil penalty by the department of up to five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each separate violation, or for continuing violations, for each day that violation occurs.

(c) Any person who violates this division by an action not subject to subdivision (b) may be assessed a civil penalty by the department of up to one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each separate violation, or for continuing violations, for each day that violation occurs.

(d) No person may be liable for a civil penalty imposed under subdivision (b) and for a civil penalty imposed under subdivision (c) for the same act or failure to act.

SEC. 17. Section 14591.2 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

14591.2. (a) The department may take disciplinary action against any certificate holder, officer, director, or managing employee. Except as otherwise provided in this division, the department shall provide a notice and hearing in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code before taking any disciplinary action against a certificate holder.

(b) All of the following are grounds for disciplinary action, in the form determined by the department in accordance with subdivision (c):

(1) The certificate holder engaged in fraud or deceit to obtain a certificate.

(2) The certificate holder engaged in dishonesty, incompetence, negligence, or fraud in performing the functions and duties of a certificate holder.

(3) The certificate holder violated this division or any regulation adopted pursuant to this division, including, but not limited to, any requirements concerning auditing, reporting, standards of operation, or being open for business.

(4) The certificate holder, any managing employee of the certificate holder, or any person or entity with a controlling ownership interest in the holder of the certificate is convicted of any crime of moral turpitude or fraud, any crime involving dishonesty, or any crime substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of a certificate holder.

(c) The department may take disciplinary action pursuant to this section, by taking any one of, or any combination of, the following:

(1) Immediate revocation of the certificate or revocation of a certificate as of a specific date in the future.

(2) Immediate suspension of the certificate for a specified period of time or suspension of the certificate as of a specific date in the future.

(3) Imposition on the certificate of any condition which the department determines would further the goals of this division.

(4) Issuance of a probationary certificate with conditions determined by the department.

(5) Collection of amounts in restitution of any money improperly paid to the certificate holder from the fund.

(6) Imposition of civil penalties pursuant to Section 14591.1.

(d) The department may do any of the following in taking disciplinary action pursuant to this section:

(1) If a certificate holder holds certificates to operate at more than one site or is certified as both a processor and a recycling center, the department may simultaneously revoke, suspend, or impose conditions upon some, or all of, the certificates held by the certificate holder.

(2) If the certificate holder is an officer, director, partner, manager, employee, or the owner of a controlling ownership interest of another certificate holder, that other certificate holder's certificate may also be revoked, superseded, or conditioned by the department in the same proceeding, if the other certificate holder is given notice of that proceeding, or in a subsequent proceeding.

(3) If, pursuant to notice and a hearing conducted by the director or the directors' deputy, the department determines that the continued operation of a certified entity poses an immediate and significant threat to the fund, the department may order the suspension or revocation of the certificate of the certificate holder or the issuance of a probationary certificate imposing reasonable terms and conditions. The department shall transcribe the testimony at the hearing and, upon request, prepare a transcript. For purposes of this section, a significant threat to the fund means a possible loss to the fund of at least fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). The order of suspension or revocation or issuance of a probationary certificate imposing terms or conditions shall become effective upon written notice of the order to the certificate holder. The certificate holder may, upon receiving the notice of the order, appeal the order by requesting a hearing in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. A request for a hearing or appeal from an order of the department does not stay the action of the department for which the notice of the order is given.

SEC. 18. Section 14591.3 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

14591.3. In any civil or administrative action brought pursuant to this division in which the department prevails, the department may assess against the defendant or respondent any costs and fees, including attorneys' and experts' fees, and the cost of the investigation and hearing, which are incurred by the fund, whether paid or payable from the fund, and are a result of bringing the civil or administrative action against the defendant or respondent. In the same action, the defendant or respondent may claim from the department any costs and fees incurred in defending or responding to any action brought by the department in which the defendant or respondent prevails, upon a finding that the department's action was clearly frivolous or lacking in significant merit.

SEC. 19. Section 14591.4 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

14591.4. (a) In addition to any other remedies, penalties, and disciplinary actions provided by this division or otherwise, the department may seek restitution of any money illegally paid to any person from the fund, plus interest at the rate earned on the Pooled Money Investment Account of the total amount.

(b) A certificate holder is liable to the department for restitution pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 14591.2 for payments made by the department to the certificate holder which are based on improperly prepared or maintained documents, as specified in paragraph (8) of subdivision (b) of Section 14538 and paragraph (9) of subdivision (b) of Section 14539.

(c) If the department has a civil cause of action for restitution pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b), or if the department has a civil cause of action against a certificate holder for restitution under any other circumstance, the department may seek restitution in a hearing conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. The hearing may take place at the same time as a hearing to impose disciplinary action on a certificate holder.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 14591.1, if the department collects amounts in full restitution for money paid, the department may impose a penalty of not more than one hundred dollars ($100) for each separate violation, or for continuing violations, for each day that violation occurs.

SEC. 20. Section 14591.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

14591.5. After the time for judicial review under Section 11523 of the Government Code has expired, the department may apply to the clerk of the small claims court, municipal court, or superior court, depending on the jurisdictional amount and any other remedy sought, in the county where the penalties, restitution, or other remedy was imposed by the department, for a judgment to collect any unpaid civil penalties or restitution or to enforce any other remedy provided by this division. The application, which shall include a certified copy of the final agency order or decision, shall constitute a sufficient showing to warrant the issuance of the judgment. The court clerk shall enter the judgment immediately in conformity with the application. The judgment so entered shall have the same force and effect as, and shall be subject to all the provisions of law relating to, a judgment in a civil action, and may be enforced in the same manner as any other judgment of the court in which it is entered. The court shall make enforcement of the judgment a priority.

SEC. 21. Section 14593 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

14593. Notwithstanding subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 14591, the department may assess a civil penalty of up to 15 percent of the amount due for payment, and interest at the rate earned by the Pooled Money Investment Account, on distributors and beverage manufacturers for underpayment or late payment of the redemption payments for containers to the fund. The department may examine the accounts and records of distributors and beverage manufacturers which pay or should pay a redemption payment. No penalty shall be assessed until 30 days after the department has notified the distributor or manufacturer of the penalty assessment, and the amount due for payment and interest has not been paid.

SEC. 22. Section 14594 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

14594. (a) Notwithstanding subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 14591, the department may assess a civil penalty of up to 15 percent of the amount due for payment, and interest at the rate earned by the Pooled Money Investment Account, on any beverage manufacturer which fails to pay a processing fee required pursuant to Section 14575. The department may examine the accounts and records of any beverage manufacturer which pays or should pay a processing fee. No penalty shall be assessed until 30 days after the department has notified the manufacturer of the penalty assessment, and the amount due for payment and interest has not been paid.

(b) If the department determines that an audit of a beverage manufacturer shows that there has been an underpayment of a processing fee, the department may examine the records concerning beverage container sales of any container manufacturer who supplied the beverage containers to the beverage manufacturer.

SEC. 23. Section 14595 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

14595. The department may assess upon any person, entity, or operation which redeems, attempts to redeem, or aids in the redemption of, empty beverage containers which have already been redeemed, a civil penalty of up to ten thousand dollars ($10,000) per transaction, or an amount equal to three times the damage or potential damage, whichever is greater, plus costs as provided in Section 14591.3, pursuant to notice and hearing in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 24. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. However, no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 4027.6 of, and to repeal Section 4027.5 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to public water systems, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4027.5 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 4027.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

4027.6. (a) The department may grant a variance or variances from primary drinking water standards to a public water system. Any variance granted pursuant to this subdivision shall conform to the requirements established under the federal Safe Drinking Water Act, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 300g-4).

(b) (1) In addition to the authority provided in subdivision (a), at the request of the Board of Directors of the Big Bear City Community Services District, or the Twenty-nine Palms Water District, or the Kinneola Irrigation District, or the Riverdale Public Utility District, the department shall grant a variance from the primary drinking water standard adopted by the department for fluoride. A variance granted by the department pursuant to this subdivision shall prohibit fluoride levels in excess of 75 percent of the maximum contaminant level established in the national primary drinking water regulation adopted by the United States Environmental Protection Agency for fluoride, or three milligrams per liter, whichever is higher, shall be valid for a period of up to 30 years. The department shall review each variance granted pursuant to this section at least every five years. The variance may be withdrawn upon reasonable notice by the department if the department determines that the community served by the district no longer accepts the fluoride level authorized in the variance or the level of fluoride authorized by the variance poses an unreasonable risk to health. In no case may a variance be granted in excess of the United States Environmental Protection Agency maximum contaminant level.

(2) The department shall grant a variance pursuant to paragraph (1) only if it determines, after conducting a public hearing in the community served by the district, that there is no substantial community opposition to the variance and the variance does not pose an unreasonable risk to health. The district shall provide written notification, approved by the department, to all customers which shall contain at least the following information:

(A) The fact that a variance has been requested.

(B) The date, time and location of the public hearing that will be conducted by the department.

(C) The level of fluoride that will be allowed by the requested variance and how this level compares to the maximum contaminant levels prescribed by the state primary drinking water standard, the federal national primary drinking water regulation, and the federal national secondary drinking water regulation.

(D) A discussion of the types of health and dental problems that may occur when the fluoride concentration exceeds the maximum contaminant levels prescribed by the state standard and the federal regulations.

(3) If, at any time after a variance has been granted pursuant to paragraph (1), substantial community concerns arise concerning the level of fluoride present in the water supplied by the district, the district shall notify the department, conduct a public hearing on the concerns expressed by the community, determine the fluoride level that is acceptable to the community, and apply to the department for an amendment to the variance which reflects that determination.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure that certain public water systems have the flexibility necessary to continue to ensure water service when fluoride levels in their water supplies are not in compliance with state standards but are consistent with federal regulations, it is necessary that this bill take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1071

An act to add Sections 3710.3 and 3716.4 to the Labor Code, and to add Sections 324, 1031.5, 1033.8, 1061.5, 1070.6, 3553.1, 3774.6, 5135.6, 5285.5, 5373.5, and 5378.7 to the Public Utilities Code, relating to common carriers, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3710.3 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

3710.3. Whenever a stop order has been issued pursuant to Section 3701.1 to a highway common carrier, highway permit carrier, cement carrier, household goods carrier, passenger stage corporation, or charter-party carrier of passengers subject to the jurisdiction and control of the Public Utilities Commission, the director shall transmit the stop order to the Public Utilities Commission within 30 days.

SEC. 2. Section 3716.4 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

3716.4. Whenever a final judgment has been entered against a highway common carrier, highway permit carrier, cement carrier, passenger state corporation, charter-party carrier of passengers, or household goods carrier subject to the jurisdiction and control of the Public Utilities Commission as a result of an award having been made pursuant to Section 3716.2, the director may transmit to the Public Utilities Commission a copy of the judgment along with the name and address of the regulated entity and any other persons, corporations, or entities named in the judgment which are jointly and severally liable for the debt to the State Treasury with a complaint requesting that the Public Utilities Commission immediately revoke the carrier's certificate of public convenience and necessity or permit.

SEC. 3. Section 324 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

324. The executive director of the commission may release to the Director of Industrial Relations any information concerning any person, corporation, or other entity under the jurisdiction and control of the commission relevant to the enforcement of the workers' compensation laws of this state.

SEC. 3.5. Section 1031.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

1031.5. The commission shall not issue or authorize the transfer of any certificate under this article to any person, firm, or corporation or to any officer or director of the firm, corporation, or other entity against whom a final judgment has been entered and whose name has been transmitted to the commission pursuant to Section 3716.4 of the Labor Code, unless that judgment has been satisfied or has been discharged in accordance with the bankruptcy laws of the United States.

SEC. 4. Section 1033.8 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

1033.8. (a) Upon receipt of a stop order issued by the Director of Industrial Relations pursuant to Section 3710.1 of the Labor Code, the commission shall investigate to determine whether the passenger stage corporation has filed a false statement relative to workers' compensation insurance coverage, in violation of statute, or rules or orders of the commission. If, after notice and opportunity to be heard, the commission determines that there has been a violation of statute, or rules or orders of the commission, the commission shall impose appropriate penalties, which may include a fine and suspension of operating authority for a violation.

(b) Upon receipt of a complaint from the Director of Industrial Relations that a final judgment has been entered against any passenger stage corporation as a result of an award having been made to an employee pursuant to Section 3716.2 of the Labor Code, the commission shall, 30 days from the date notice to the corporation is mailed, revoke the corporation's certificate of public convenience and necessity, unless the judgment has been satisfied or has been discharged in accordance with the bankruptcy laws of the United States or the corporation requests a hearing pursuant to subdivision (c).

(c) Within seven days of receipt of a complaint from the Director of Industrial Relations that a final judgment has been entered against any passenger stage corporation as a result of an award having been made to an employee pursuant to Section 3716.2 of the Labor Code, the commission shall furnish to the corporation named in the final judgment written notice of the right to a hearing regarding the complaint and the procedure to follow to request a hearing. The notice shall state that the commission is required to revoke the corporation's certificate of public convenience and necessity to operate pursuant to subdivision (b) after 30 days from the date the notice is mailed unless the corporation provides proof that the judgment is satisfied or has been discharged in accordance with the bankruptcy laws of the United States and the commission has been so notified seven days prior to the conclusion of the 30-day waiting period. The notice shall also inform the corporation of a right to a hearing and the procedures to follow to request a hearing. The corporation may request a hearing within 10 days from the date the notice is sent by the commission. The request for the hearing shall stay the revocation. The hearing shall be held within 30 days of the receipt of the request. If the commission finds that an unsatisfied judgment exists concerning a debt arising under Section 3717 of the Labor Code, the commission shall immediately revoke the corporation's certificate of public convenience and necessity.

SEC. 5. Section 1061.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

1061.5. The commission shall not issue or authorize the transfer of any certificate under this article to any person or corporation against whom a final judgment has been entered and whose name has been transmitted to the commission pursuant to Section 3716.4 of the Labor Code, unless that judgment has been satisfied or has been discharged in accordance with the bankruptcy laws of the United States.

SEC. 6. Section 1070.6 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

1070.6. (a) Upon receipt of a stop order issued by the Director of Industrial Relations pursuant to Section 3710.1 of the Labor Code, the commission shall investigate to determine whether the highway common carrier or cement carrier has filed a false statement relative to workers' compensation insurance coverage, in violation of statute, or rules or orders of the commission. If, after notice and opportunity to be heard, the commission determines that there has been a violation of statute, or rules or orders of the commission, the commission shall impose appropriate penalties, which may include a fine and suspension of operating authority for a violation.

(b) Upon receipt of a complaint from the Director of Industrial Relations that a final judgment has been entered against any highway common carrier or cement carrier as a result of an award having been made to an employee pursuant to Section 3716.2 of the Labor Code, the commission shall, 30 days from the date notice to the carrier is mailed, revoke the carrier's certificate of public convenience and necessity, unless the judgment has been satisfied or has been discharged in accordance with the bankruptcy laws of the United States or the carrier requests a hearing pursuant to subdivision (c).

(c) Within seven days of receipt of a complaint from the Director of Industrial Relations that a final judgment has been entered against any highway common carrier or cement carrier as a result of an award having been made to an employee pursuant to Section 3716.2 of the Labor Code, the commission shall furnish to the corporation named in the final judgment written notice of the right to a hearing regarding the complaint and the procedure to follow to request a hearing. The notice shall state that the commission is required to revoke the carrier's certificate of public convenience and necessity to operate pursuant to subdivision (b) after 30 days from the date the notice is mailed unless the corporation provides proof that the judgment is satisfied or has been discharged in accordance with the bankruptcy laws of the United States and the commission has been so notified seven days prior to the conclusion of the 30-day waiting period. The notice shall also inform the carrier of a right to a hearing and the procedures to follow to request a hearing. The carrier may request a hearing within 10 days from the date the notice is sent by the commission. The request for the hearing shall stay the revocation. The hearing shall be held within 30 days of the receipt of the request. If the commission finds that an unsatisfied judgment exists concerning a debt arising under Section 3717 of the Labor Code, the commission shall immediately revoke the carrier's certificate of public convenience and necessity.

SEC. 7. Section 3553.1 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

3553.1. The commission shall not issue or authorize the transfer of any permit under this chapter to any person or corporation against whom a final judgment has been entered and whose name has been transmitted to the commission pursuant to Section 3716.4 of the Labor Code, unless that judgment has been satisfied or has been discharged in accordance with the bankruptcy laws of the United States.

SEC. 8. Section 3774.6 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

3774.6. (a) Upon receipt of a stop order issued by the Director of Industrial Relations pursuant to Section 3710.1 of the Labor Code, the commission shall investigate to determine whether the highway permit carrier has filed a false statement relative to workers' compensation insurance coverage, in violation of statute, or rules or orders of the commission. If, after notice and opportunity to be heard, the commission determines that there has been a violation of statute, or rules or orders of the commission, the commission shall impose appropriate penalties, which may include a fine and suspension of operating authority for a violation.

(b) Upon receipt of a complaint from the Director of Industrial Relations that a final judgment has been entered against any highway permit carrier as a result of an award having been made to an employee pursuant to Section 3616.2 of the Labor Code, the commission shall, 30 days from the date the carrier is mailed the notice, revoke the carrier's permit unless the judgment has been satisfied or has been discharged in accordance with the bankruptcy laws of the United States or the carrier requests a hearing pursuant to subdivision (c).

(c) Within seven days of receipt of a complaint from the Director of Industrial Relations that a final judgment has been entered against any highway permit carrier as a result of an award having been made to an employee pursuant to Section 3716.2 of the Labor Code, the commission shall furnish to the carrier named in the final judgment written notice of the right to a hearing regarding the complaint and the procedure to follow to request a hearing. The notice shall state that the commission is required to revoke the carrier's permit to operate pursuant to subdivision (b) after 30 days from the date the notice is mailed unless the carrier provides proof that the judgment is satisfied or has been discharged in accordance with the bankruptcy laws of the United States and the commission has been so notified seven days prior to the conclusion of the 30-day waiting period. The notice shall also inform the carrier of a right to a hearing and the procedures to follow to request a hearing. The carrier may request a hearing within 10 days from the date the notice is sent by the commission. The request for the hearing shall stay the revocation. The hearing shall be held within 30 days of the receipt of the request. If the commission finds that an unsatisfied judgment exists concerning a debt arising under Section 3717 of the Labor Code, the commission shall immediately revoke the carrier's permit.

SEC. 9. Section 5135.6 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

5135.6. The commission shall not issue or authorize the transfer of any permit under this chapter to any person or corporation against whom a final judgment has been entered and whose name has been transmitted to the commission pursuant to Section 3716.4 of the Labor Code, unless that judgment has been satisfied or has been discharged in accordance with the bankruptcy laws of the United States.

SEC. 10. Section 5285.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

5285.5. (a) Upon receipt of a stop order issued by the Director of Industrial Relations pursuant to Section 3710.1 of the Labor Code, the commission shall investigate to determine whether the household goods carrier has filed a false statement relative to workers' compensation insurance coverage, in violation of statute, or rules or orders of the commission. If, after notice and opportunity to be heard, the commission determines that there has been a violation of statute, or rules or orders of the commission, the commission shall impose appropriate penalties, which may include a fine and suspension of operating authority for a violation.

(b) Upon receipt of a complaint from the Director of Industrial Relations that a final judgment has been entered against any household goods carrier as a result of an award having been made to an employee pursuant to Section 3616.2 of the Labor Code, the commission shall, 30 days from the date the carrier is mailed the notice, revoke the carrier's permit unless the judgment has been satisfied or has been discharged in accordance with the bankruptcy laws of the United States or the carrier requests a hearing pursuant to subdivision (c).

(c) Within seven days of receipt of a complaint from the Director of Industrial Relations that a final judgment has been entered against any household goods carrier as a result of an award having been made to an employee pursuant to Section 3716.2 of the Labor Code, the commission shall furnish the carrier named in the final judgment written notice of the right to a hearing regarding the complaint and the procedure to follow to request a hearing. The notice shall state that the commission is required to revoke the carrier's permit to operate pursuant to subdivision (b) after 30 days from the date the notice is mailed unless the carrier provides proof that the judgment is satisfied or has been discharged in accordance with the bankruptcy laws of the United States and the commission has been so notified seven days prior to the conclusion of the 30-day waiting period. The notice shall also inform the carrier of a right to a hearing and the procedures to follow to request a hearing. The carrier may request a hearing within 10 days from the date the notice is sent by the commission. The request for the hearing shall stay the revocation. The hearing shall be held within 30 days of the receipt of the request. If the commission finds that an unsatisfied judgment exists concerning a debt arising under Section 3717 of the Labor Code, the commission shall immediately revoke the carrier's permit.

SEC. 11. Section 5373.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

5373.5. The commission shall not issue or authorize the transfer of any certificate or permit under this chapter to any person or corporation against whom a final judgment has been entered and whose name has been transmitted to the commission pursuant to Section 3716.4 of the Labor Code, unless that judgment has been satisfied or has been discharged in accordance with the bankruptcy laws of the United States.

SEC. 12. Section 5378.7 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

5378.7. (a) Upon receipt of a stop order issued by the Director of Industrial Relations pursuant to Section 3710.1 of the Labor Code, the commission shall investigate to determine whether the charter-party carrier of passengers has filed a false statement relative to workers' compensation insurance coverage, in violation of statute, or rules or orders of the commission. If, after notice and opportunity to be heard, the commission determines that there has been a violation of statute, or rules or orders of the commission, the commission shall impose appropriate penalties, which may include a fine and suspension of operating authority for a violation.

(b) Upon receipt of a complaint from the Director of Industrial Relations, that a final judgment has been entered against any charter-party carrier of passengers as a result of an award having been made to an employee pursuant to Section 3716.2 of the Labor Code, the commission shall, 30 days from the date the carrier is mailed the notice, revoke the carrier's permit unless the judgment has been satisfied or has been discharged in accordance with the bankruptcy laws of the United States or the carrier requests a hearing pursuant to subdivision (c).

(c) Within seven days of receipt of a complaint from the Director of Industrial Relations that a final judgment has been entered against any charter-party carrier of passengers as a result of an award having been made to an employee pursuant to Section 3716.2 of the Labor Code, the commission shall furnish the carrier named in the final judgment written notice of the right to a hearing regarding the complaint and the procedure to follow to request a hearing. The notice shall state that the commission must revoke the carrier's permit to operate pursuant to subdivision (b) after 30 days from the date the notice is mailed unless the carrier provides proof that the judgment is satisfied or has been discharged in accordance with the bankruptcy laws of the United States and the commission has been so notified seven days prior to the conclusion of the 30-day waiting period. The notice shall also inform the carrier of a right to a hearing and the procedures to follow to request a hearing. The carrier shall have 10 days from the date the notice is sent by the commission to request a hearing. The request for the hearing shall stay the revocation. The hearing shall be held within 30 days of the receipt of the request. If the commission finds that an unsatisfied judgment exists concerning a debt arising under Section 3717 of the Labor Code, the commission shall immediately revoke the carrier's permit.

SEC. 13. The sum of ninety thousand dollars ($90,000) is hereby appropriated from the following sources to the Public Utilities Commission for those costs incurred in carrying out the purposes of this act:

(a) The sum of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) from the Transportation Rate Fund created by Section 5005 of the Public Utilities Code.

(b) The sum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) from the Public Utilities Commission Transportation Reimbursement Account.

CHAPTER 1072

An act to amend Sections 18400.1, 18420, 18421, and 18502 of, and to amend the heading of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 18420) of Part 2.1 of Division 13 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to mobilehome parks, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18400.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18400.1. (a) The enforcement agency shall enter and inspect all mobilehome parks, as required under this part, at least once every five years, to ensure enforcement of this part and the regulations adopted pursuant to this part. Any notices of violation of this part shall be issued pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 18420).

(b) In developing its program for inspections, the enforcement agency shall give first priority to inspections of those mobilehome parks which it believes may have the most serious violations of this part.

(c) Nothing in this part shall be construed to allow the enforcement agency to issue a notice for a violation of existing laws or regulations which were not violations of the laws or regulations at the time the mobilehome park received its original permit to operate or at the time the manufactured home or mobilehome received its original installation permit, unless the enforcement agency determines that a condition of the park, manufactured home, or mobilehome endangers the life, limb, health, or safety of the public or occupants thereof.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. The heading of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 18420) of Part 2.1 of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

CHAPTER 3.5. NOTICE OF VIOLATIONS

SEC. 3. Section 18420 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18420. (a) (1) If, upon inspection, the enforcement agency determines that a mobilehome park is in violation of any provision of this part, or any rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto, the enforcement agency shall promptly, but not later than 10 days, excluding Saturday, Sunday, and holidays, after the enforcement agency completes the inspection and determines that the alleged violation exists, issue a notice to correct the violation to the owner or operator of the mobilehome park and to the responsible person, as defined in Section 18603.

(2) In the event of a violation that constitutes an imminent threat to health and safety, the notice of violation shall be issued immediately and served on the owner or operator of the mobilehome park and to the responsible person, as defined in Section 18603.

(3) The owner or operator of the mobilehome park shall be responsible for the correction of any violations for which a notice of violation has been given pursuant to this subdivision.

(b) (1) If, upon inspection, the enforcement agency determines that a manufactured home, mobilehome, an accessory building or structure, or lot is in violation of any provision of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18500), Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 18601), Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 18690), or any rule or regulation adopted pursuant thereto, the enforcement agency shall promptly, but not later than 10 days, excluding Saturday, Sunday, and holidays, after the enforcement agency completes the inspection and determines that the alleged violation exists, issue a notice to correct the violation to the registered owner of the manufactured home or mobilehome, with a copy to the occupant thereof, if different from the registered owner, and the owner or operator of the mobilehome park and to the responsible person, as defined in Section 18603.

(2) In the event of a violation that constitutes an imminent threat to health and safety, the notice of violation shall be issued immediately and served upon the occupant, with a copy mailed to the registered owner of the manufactured home or mobilehome, if different from the occupant, and the owner or operator of the mobilehome park and to the responsible person, as defined in Section 18603.

(3) The registered owner of the manufactured home or mobilehome shall be responsible for the correction of any violations for which a notice of violation has been given pursuant to this subdivision.

(4) The enforcement agency may issue a notice of violation in accordance with this chapter to the owner of a recreational vehicle, or of factory-built housing, which occupies a lot within a mobilehome park.

(c) Service of the notice of violation shall be effected either personally or by first-class mail. Each notice of violation shall be in writing and shall describe with particularity the nature of the violation, including a reference to the statutory provisions or regulation alleged to have been violated, as well as any penalty provided by law for failure to make timely correction. The notice of violation shall fix the earliest feasible time, as determined by the enforcement agency, for the elimination of the condition constituting the alleged violation.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the enforcement agency may, at its sole discretion, determine not to issue a notice of violation pursuant to this chapter if the condition which violates this part or the regulations adopted pursuant thereto does not constitute a danger to life, limb, health, or safety. If the enforcement agency determines, pursuant to this subdivision, not to issue a notice of violation, the enforcement agency shall include in its inspection report a description of the condition which violates this part and its determination not to issue a notice of violation.

SEC. 4. Section 18421 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

18421. If the owner or operator of the mobilehome park or the registered owner of the manufactured home or mobilehome disputes a determination by the enforcement agency regarding the alleged violation, the alleged failure to correct the violation in the required timeframe, or the reasonableness of the deadline for correction specified by the notice of violation, the owner or operator of the mobilehome park or the registered owner of the manufactured home or mobilehome may request an informal conference with the enforcement agency. The informal conference, and any subsequent hearings, or appeals of the decision of the enforcement agency, shall be conducted in accordance with procedures prescribed by the department.

SEC. 5. Section 18502 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Section 5 of Chapter 1175 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

18502. Fees as applicable shall be submitted for permits:

(a) Fees for a permit to conduct any construction subject to this part as determined by the schedule of fees adopted by the department.

(b) Plan checking fees equal to one-half of the construction, plumbing, mechanical, and electrical permit fees, except that the minimum fee shall be ten dollars ($10).

(c) Except for a temporary recreational vehicle park, an annual operating permit fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) and an additional two dollars ($2) per lot or two dollars ($2) per camping party for the maximum number of camping parties to be accommodated at any one time in an incidental camping area.

(d) Temporary recreational vehicle park operating permit fee of twenty-five dollars ($25), with no additional fee for the lots.

(e) Change in name fee or transfer of ownership or possession fee of ten dollars ($10).

(f) Duplicate permit fee or amended permit fee of ten dollars ($10).

(g) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1997.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

Moreover, no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

For the proper and efficient implementation of the mobilehome inspection program enacted by Chapter 1175 of the Statutes of 1990, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1073

An act to amend Sections 25149.5 and 25173.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25149.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25149.5. (a) A general law city or county may impose and enforce, for revenue purposes, a license tax on the operation of an existing hazardous waste facility; provided that, the license tax imposed shall not exceed 10 percent of the annual gross receipts of the existing hazardous waste disposal facility.

(b) A state agency shall not include the expenditure of revenues received by a city or county pursuant to this section in calculating the level of financial support that a city or county is required to maintain under any other provision of law, including, but not limited to, Section 77204 of the Government Code and Section 16990 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. However, this subdivision does not apply to subdivision (c) of Section 2105 of the Streets and Highways Code.

SEC. 2. Section 25173.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25173.5. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the legislative body of a city or county may impose and enforce a tax, for general purposes, or may impose a user fee on the operation of an offsite, multiuser hazardous waste facility located within the jurisdiction of the city or county. The tax or the user fee imposed shall not exceed 10 percent of the facility's annual gross receipts for the treatment, storage, or disposal of hazardous waste at the facility.

If a city or county imposes a tax pursuant to this section, the city or county may use the revenues collected from the tax to fund those activities reasonably necessary for the city or county to carry out its duties related to the operation of the hazardous waste facility upon which the tax is imposed and for support of the city's or county's fire and emergency response capabilities and emergency medical services, to the extent the city or county determines that this funding should be given priority.

(b) A city or county shall not impose a tax or a user fee adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) upon any of the following:

(1) An existing hazardous waste facility for which a tax is authorized pursuant to Section 25149.5.

(2) That portion of the gross receipts of the hazardous waste facility that derives from the recycling of hazardous wastes or the treatment of medical wastes or wastes which meets the definition of medical wastes.

(c) A state agency shall not include the expenditure of revenues received by a city or county pursuant to this section in calculating the level of financial support that a city or county is required to maintain under any other provision of law, including, but not limited to, Section 77204 of the Government Code and Section 16990 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. However, this subdivision does not apply to subdivision (c) of Section 2105 of the Streets and Highways Code.

CHAPTER 1074

An act to add Section 13508 to the Penal Code, relating to law enforcement.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature acknowledges the study by a committee specially convened and constituted by the Legislature to investigate the need for modern technology and facilities for law enforcement training pursuant to Resolution Chapter 166 of the Statutes of 1989. The study made each of the following conclusions:

(a) The skills, knowledge, and attitudes acquired by law enforcement officers through training has a profound impact upon the quality of living in California.

(b) The training of California's law enforcement officers suffers from lack of availability of modern instructional technology and specialized training facilities.

(c) The training of law enforcement officers could be greatly enhanced through technology and adequate facilities.

The Legislature finds and declares that it is essential that the training of California's law enforcement officers be afforded greater use of modern instructional technology and specialized training facilities.

SEC. 2. Section 13508 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

13508. (a) The commission shall do each of the following:

(1) Establish a learning technology laboratory that would conduct pilot projects with regard to needed facilities and otherwise implement modern instructional technology to improve the effectiveness of law enforcement training.

(2) Develop an implementation plan for the acquisition of law enforcement facilities and technology. In developing this plan, the commission shall consult with appropriate law enforcement and training organizations. The implementation plan shall include each of the following items:

(A) An evaluation of pilot and demonstration projects.

(B) Recommendations for the establishment of regional skills training centers, training conference centers, and the use of modern instructional technology.

(C) A recommended financing structure.

(3) Report to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1995, as to the status and effectiveness of the pilot projects implemented under this section.

(b) The commission may enter into joint powers agreements with other governmental agencies for the purpose of developing and deploying needed technology and facilities.

(c) Any pilot project conducted pursuant to this section shall terminate on or before January 1, 1995 unless funding is provided for the project continuation.

SEC. 3. This act shall only become operative upon the appropriation of funds for the purposes of this act by the Legislature in the Budget Act of 1992.

CHAPTER 1075

An act to amend Sections 443.21 and 443.26 of, and to add Sections 443.321, 443.322, and 443.323 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to health facility reporting, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(1) The State of California collects a variety of financial, utilization and patient care data for use in analyzing, planning, providing, and purchasing hospital-based health care services.

(2) In order to study the effectiveness of health care services provided in hospitals, and to study the hospital's ability to prevent death, minimize disability, control complications, and improve health status, all of the following is required:

(A) Refinement of some of the data elements now available.

(B) Study of whether collection of additional data elements is needed to increase the scope and usefulness of outcomes studies.

(C) Development of cost-effective analytical methodologies using this data.

(3) Central to the development of these methodologies is data that permits "adjustment" for patient risk factors which cannot be controlled by providers of care, thereby permitting identification of factors associated with efforts to improve the effectiveness of care.

(4) Of the two principal sources of patient risk data, the clinical record and the discharge abstract, the discharge abstract which contains selected items abstracted from the clinical record is now required to be reported to the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development by all hospitals for all inpatients. Items selected from the clinical record and reported to the state may be used for selected conditions for performing "risk adjusted measurement of outcomes" (RAMO).

(5) RAMO has routinely been applied for the past 10 years to perinatal outcomes in California and can be applied to pediatric and adult outcomes for selected medical and surgical procedures of importance to both payers and patients.

(6) A subset of RAMO which adjusts for patient risk by severity of sickness scores has also been developed and is available from private vendors using either the clinical record or the discharge abstract.

(7) Recent comparative analyses of severity adjustment methodologies demonstrate that the different systems have merit for particular purposes, but no system can be classed as sufficiently superior for meeting the spectrum of uses of hospitals, regulating agencies, and payers that would justify a state mandate with high potential costs to hospitals.

(8) Purchasers of health care services as well as hospitals have a significant interest in methods that provide risk-adjusted outcomes for the patients who are their responsibility and as a consequence both parties at interest need an initiative in this area.

(b) Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature to do all of the following:

(1) Promote and conduct risk-adjusted outcome studies.

(2) Strengthen the existing state data collection effort and data base, by deliberate and incremental additions or changes to, and expansion of, the abstract record required by current law.

(3) Create an ongoing technical advisory capability to provide guidance to the state on advancement and refinement of outcome measures and studies, and the data required to conduct the studies which are feasible to conduct, valuable to consumers, providers and purchasers, and economical to produce.

SEC. 2. Section 443.21 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

443.21. As used in this part, the following terms mean:

(a) "Commission" means the California Health Policy and Data Advisory Commission.

(b) "Health facility" or "health facilities" means all health facilities required to be licensed pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) of Division 2.

(c) "Hospital" means all health facilities except skilled nursing, intermediate care, and congregate living health facilities.

(d) "Office" means the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development.

(e) "Risk-adjusted outcomes" means the clinical outcomes of patients grouped by diagnoses or procedures which have been adjusted for demographic and clinical factors.

SEC. 3. Section 443.26 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

443.26. The functions and duties of the commission shall include the following:

(a) Advise the office on the implementation of the new, consolidated data system.

(b) Advise the office regarding the ongoing need to collect and report health facility data and other provider data.

(c) Annually develop a report to the director of the office regarding changes that should be made to existing data collection systems and forms. Copies of the report shall be provided to the Senate Health and Human Services Committee and to the Assembly Health Committee.

(d) Advise the office regarding changes to the uniform accounting and reporting systems for health facilities.

(e) Conduct public meetings for the purposes of obtaining input from health facilities, other providers, data users, and the general public regarding this part and Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 437.01).

(f) Advise the Secretary of Health and Welfare on the formulation of general policies which shall advance the purposes of this part.

(g) Advise the office on the adoption, amendment, or repeal of regulations it proposes prior to their submittal to the Office of Administrative Law.

(h) Advise the office on the format of individual health facility or other provider data reports and on any technical and procedural issues necessary to implement this part.

(i) Advise the office on the formulation of general policies which shall advance the purposes of Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 437.01).

(j) Recommend, in consultation with a 12-member technical advisory committee appointed by the chairperson of the commission, to the office the data elements necessary for the production of outcome reports required by Section 443.321.

(k) The technical advisory committee appointed pursuant to subdivision (j) shall be composed of two members who shall be hospital representatives appointed from a list of at least six persons nominated by the California Association of Hospitals and Health Systems, two members who shall be physicians and surgeons appointed from a list of at least six persons nominated by the California Medical Association, two members who shall be registered nurses appointed from a list of at least six persons nominated by the California Nurses Association, one medical record practitioner who shall be appointed from a list of at least six persons nominated by the California Health Information Association, one member who shall be a representative of a hospital authorized to report as a group pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 443.34, two members who shall be representative of California research organizations experienced in effectiveness review of medical procedures or surgical procedures, or both procedures, one member representing the Health Access Foundation, and one member representing the Consumers Union. Members of the technical advisory committee shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for any actual and necessary expenses incurred in connection with their duties as members of the technical advisory committee.

The commission shall submit its recommendation to the office regarding the first of the reports required pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 443.321 no later than January 1, 1993. The technical advisory committee shall submit its initial recommendations to the commission pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 443.322 no later than January 1, 1994. The commission, with the advice of the technical advisory committee, may periodically make additional recommendations under Sections 443.321 and 443.332 to the office, as appropriate.

(l) As the office and the commission deem necessary, the commission may establish committees and appoint persons who are not members of the commission to these committees as are necessary to carry out the purposes of the commission. Representatives of area health planning agencies shall be invited, as appropriate, to serve on committees established by the office and the commission relative to the duties and responsibilities of area health planning agencies. Members of the standing committees shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for any actual and necessary expenses incurred in connection with their duties as members of these committees.

Whenever the office or the commission does not accept the advice of the other body on proposed regulations or on major policy issues, the office or the commission shall provide a written response on its action to the other body within 30 days, if so requested.

The commission or the office director may appeal to the Secretary of Health and Welfare over disagreements on policy, procedural, or technical issues.

SEC. 4. Section 443.321 is added to the Health and Safety Code, immediately following Section 443.32, to read:

443.321. (a) Commencing July 1993, and annually thereafter, the office shall publish risk-adjusted outcome reports in accordance with the following schedule:

Publication Date	Period Covered	Procedures and Conditions Covered
July 1993	1988–90	3
July 1994	1989–91	6
July 1995	1990–92	9

Reports for subsequent years shall include conditions and procedures and cover periods as appropriate.

(b) The procedures and conditions to be reported shall be divided equally among medical, surgical and obstetric conditions or procedures and shall be selected by the office, based on the recommendations of the commission and the advice of the technical advisory committee set forth in subdivision (j) of Section 443.26. The selections shall be in accordance with all of the following criteria:

(1) The patient discharge abstract contains sufficient data to undertake a valid risk adjustment.

(2) The relative importance of the procedure and condition in terms of the cost of cases and the number of cases.

(3) Ability to measure outcome and the likelihood that care influences outcome.

(4) Reliability of the diagnostic and procedure data.

(c) The annual reports shall compare the risk-adjusted outcomes experienced by all patients treated for the selected conditions and procedures in each California hospital during the period covered by each report, to the outcomes expected. Outcomes shall be reported in the five following groupings:

(1) "Much higher than average outcomes," for hospitals with risk-adjusted outcomes much higher than the norm.

(2) "Higher than average outcomes," for hospitals with risk-adjusted outcomes higher than the norm.

(3) "Average outcomes," for hospitals with average risk-adjusted outcomes.

(4) "Lower than average outcomes," for hospitals with risk-adjusted outcomes lower than the norm.

(5) "Much lower than average outcomes," for hospitals with risk-adjusted outcomes much lower than the norm.

SEC. 5. Section 443.322 is added to the Health and Safety Code, immediately following Section 443.321, to read:

443.322. (a) Prior to the public release of the annual outcome reports the office shall furnish a preliminary report to each hospital that is included in the report. The office shall allow the hospital and chief of staff 60 days in which to review the outcome scores and compare the scores to other California hospitals. A hospital or its chief of staff that believes that the risk-adjusted outcomes do not accurately reflect the quality of care provided by the hospital may submit a statement to the office, within the 60 days, explaining why the outcomes do not accurately reflect the quality of care provided by the hospital. The statement shall be included in an appendix to the public report, and a notation that the hospital or its chief of staff has submitted a statement shall be displayed wherever the report presents outcome scores for the hospital.

(b) The office shall, in addition to public reports, provide hospitals and the chiefs of staff of the medical staffs with a report containing additional detailed information derived from data summarized in the public outcome reports as an aid to internal quality assurance.

(c) If, pursuant to the recommendations of the office, based on the advice of the commission, in response to the recommendations of the technical advisory committee made pursuant to subdivision (d) of this section, the Legislature subsequently amends Section 443.31 to authorize the collection of additional discharge data elements, then the outcome reports for conditions and procedures for which sufficient data is not available from the current abstract record will be produced following the collection and analysis of the additional data elements.

(d) The recommendations of the technical advisory committee for the addition of data elements to the discharge abstract should take into consideration the technical feasibility of developing reliable risk-adjustment factors for additional procedures and conditions as determined by the technical advisory committee with the advice of the research community, physicians and surgeons, hospitals, and medical records personnel.

(e) The technical advisory committee at a minimum shall identify a limited set of core clinical data elements to be collected for all of the added procedures and conditions and unique clinical variables necessary for risk adjustment of specific conditions and procedures selected for the outcomes report program. In addition, the committee should give careful consideration to the costs associated with the additional data collection and the value of the specific information to be collected.

(f) The technical advisory committee shall also engage in a continuing process of data development and refinement applicable to both current and prospective outcome studies.

SEC. 6. Section 443.323 is added to the Health and Safety Code, immediately following Section 443.322, to read:

443.323. (a) To increase the scope and usefulness of outcome studies the office shall report to the Legislature its recommendations, if any, for the outcome reports described in subdivision (c) of Section 443.322, and for undertaking the following projects:

(1) Linkage of the patient discharge abstract record containing a patient unique identifier to state death registers and hospital readmission records to permit review of 30, 60, 90, and 180 day postadmission status for the purpose of analyzing deaths or readmission shortly after discharge.

(2) Identification of patient condition upon admission and subsequent onset during hospital stay by requiring a notation identifying secondary diagnoses present at admission.

(3) Expansion of abstract record collection for episodes of significant surgical care taking place in ambulatory settings, including, but not limited to, hospital outpatient departments, emergency rooms, surgical services, freestanding surgery centers, and diagnostic facilities.

(4) Addition of the admitting physician and surgeon's and principal physician and surgeon's name or license number to the discharge abstract.

(b) The recommendations developed by the office pursuant to this section shall include, when appropriate, a cost estimate and revenue source, and shall be reported to the Legislature on an annual basis commencing with the initial report due July 1, 1992.

SEC. 7. There is hereby appropriated the sum of six hundred seventy thousand dollars ($670,000) from the California Health Data and Planning Fund to the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development to cover the reasonable costs of performing the duties required by subdivisions (j) and (k) of Section 443.26 of, Sections 443.321 and 443.322 of, and subdivision (a) of Section 443.323 of, the Health and Safety Code.

CHAPTER 1076

An act relating to education.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby created in the Santa Cruz High School attendance area a program for middle school options to eliminate revenue limit inequities in the per pupil funding for instructional programs for pupils in grades 7 and 8. Participation is limited to the Scotts Valley Union Elementary School District and the Soquel Union Elementary School District. The purpose of the program is to encourage and enable these elementary school districts in this attendance area to continue providing a middle school program, in addition to the junior high school program operated by the high school district, thereby increasing enrollment options for all pupils in grades 7 and 8.

SEC. 2. (a) In order for these elementary school districts to receive an addition to the revenue limit pursuant to this act, these districts shall do all of the following:

(1) Continue to participate in a consortium with the Santa Cruz High School District.

(2) At a minimum, all pupils in grades 7 and 8 in the participating districts shall be provided with the option to enroll in either a middle school operated by the elementary school districts or a junior high school operated by the high school district.

(3) Provide evidence to the Superindendent of Public Instruction that the amount computed and allocated pursuant to Section 6 will be used only for pupils in grades 7 and 8.

(b) Participation by the districts in the consortium shall be voluntary.

SEC. 3. For purposes of this act, the following definitions shall apply:

(a) "Middle school program" means a program in which teachers teach a common core curriculum to the same group of pupils in grades 6, 7, and 8 and provide a transition from self-contained classroom education at the elementary level to subject-oriented, departmentalized classrooms of the high school level.

(b) "Junior high school program" means a departmentalized program in which pupils in grades 7, 8, and 9 select classes based on subject and move from classroom to classroom during the school day.

SEC. 4. A district shall not deny a request for enrollment made pursuant to this chapter unless no space is available in the selected school or unless the choice would have a negative impact on an existing desegregation plan.

SEC. 5. The average daily attendance of pupils participating in the enrollment option pursuant to this act and attending the elementary school districts shall be credited to the elementary school district of residence for purposes of determining state apportionments and revenue limits. The average daily attendance of pupils attending the high school district shall be credited to the Santa Cruz High School District.

SEC. 6. For the 1991–92 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall compute and allocate an amount in addition to the revenue limit for each elementary school district participating in the consortium, equal to the following:

(a) Calculate the average of the base revenue limits per unit of average daily attendance of the districts participating in the consortium.

(b) From the average base revenue limit calculated in subdivision (a), subtract the elementary school district's base revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance.

(c) If the result in subdivision (b) is a positive number, then multiply the result in subdivision (b) by the elementary school district's average daily attendance in grades 7 and 8. That amount shall be added to the total revenue limit computed for that district. If the result in subdivision (b) is zero, or not positive, then no adjustment shall be computed for the district.

(d) If the elementary school district ceases to participate in the consortium, the adjustment computed in this section shall no longer be provided to that district.

SEC. 7. Due to the unique circumstances concerning the school districts in the Santa Cruz High School District attendance area, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution. These special circumstances are that the Scotts Valley Union Elementary School District and the Soquel Union Elementary School District are organized as K–8 districts and the Santa Cruz High School District is organized as a 7–12 district.

CHAPTER 1077

An act to amend Section 84200.5 of the Government Code, relating to elections.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

84200.5. In addition to the campaign statements required by Section 84200, elected officers, candidates, and committees shall file preelection statements as follows:

(a) During an even-numbered year, all elected state officers, all state candidates being voted upon on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or November, their controlled committees, and committees primarily formed to support or oppose an elected state officer or a state candidate being voted upon on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or November shall file the preelection statements specified in Section 84200.7. However, a candidate who is not being voted upon in the November election, his or her controlled committee, and any committee primarily formed to support or oppose that candidate is not required to file statements in connection with the November election pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 84200.7.

(b) During an even-numbered year, all candidates not specified in subdivision (a) who are being voted upon on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or November, their controlled committees, and committees primarily formed to support or oppose those candidates or a measure being voted upon on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or November of an even-numbered year shall file the preelection statements specified in subdivision (a) of Section 84200.7 in the case of a June election, or subdivision (b) of Section 84200.7 in the case of a November election.

(c) All candidates being voted upon on a date other than the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or November of an even-numbered year, their controlled committees, and committees primarily formed to support or oppose a candidate or a measure being voted upon on a date other than the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or November of an even-numbered year shall file the preelection statements specified in Section 84200.8.

(d) During an even-numbered year, state and county general purpose committees formed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 82013 shall file the statements specified in Section 84200.7 if they make contributions or independent expenditures totaling five hundred dollars ($500) or more during the period covered by the preelection statement. State and county general purpose committees formed pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 82013 are not required to file the statements specified in Section 84200.7.

(e) City general purpose committees shall file statements as follows:

(1) City general purpose committees in a city which has an election on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or November of an even-numbered year shall file the statements specified in subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 84200.7 for the six-month period in which the city election is held, if they make contributions or independent expenditures totaling five hundred dollars ($500) or more during the period covered by the preelection statement.

(2) City general purpose committees in a city which has an election on a date other than the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or November of an even-numbered year shall file the preelection statements specified in Section 84200.8 if they make contributions or independent expenditures totaling five hundred dollars ($500) or more during the period covered by the preelection statement.

(f) Committees formed or existing primarily to support or oppose the qualification of a ballot measure and proponents of a state ballot measure who control a committee formed or existing primarily to support the qualification of a measure, shall file a campaign statement 21 days after the deadline for filing petitions. The closing date for the period covered by a statement required by this subdivision shall be seven days prior to the deadline for filing the statement.

SEC. 2. Section 84200.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

84200.5. In addition to the campaign statements required by Section 84200, elected officers, candidates, and committees shall file preelection statements as follows:

(a) During an even-numbered year, all candidates for elective state office being voted upon on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or November, their controlled committees, and committees primarily formed to support or oppose an elected state officer or a state candidate being voted upon on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or November and all elected state officers who, during the reporting periods covered by Section 84200.7, contribute to any committee required to report receipts, expenditures, or contributions pursuant to this title, or make an independent expenditure, shall file the preelection statements specified in Section 84200.7. However, a candidate who is not being voted upon in the November election, his or her controlled committee, and any committee primarily formed to support or oppose that candidate is not required to file statements in connection with the November election pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 84200.7, unless, during the reporting periods covered by Section 84200.7, the candidate, his or her controlled committee, or any committee primarily formed to support or oppose that candidate contributes to any committee required to report receipts, expenditures, or contributions pursuant to this title or makes independent expenditures.

(b) During an even-numbered year, all candidates not specified in subdivision (a) who are being voted upon on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or November, their controlled committees, and committees primarily formed to support or oppose those candidates or a measure being voted upon on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or November of an even-numbered year shall file the preelection statements specified in subdivision (a) of Section 84200.7 in the case of a June election, or subdivision (b) of Section 84200.7 in the case of a November election.

(c) All candidates being voted upon on a date other than the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or November of an even-numbered year, their controlled committees, and committees primarily formed to support or oppose a candidate or a measure being voted upon on a date other than the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or November of an even-numbered year shall file the preelection statements specified in Section 84200.8.

(d) During an even-numbered year, state and county general purpose committees formed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 82013 shall file the statements specified in Section 84200.7 if they make contributions or independent expenditures totaling five hundred dollars ($500) or more during the period covered by the preelection statement. State and county general purpose committees formed pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 82013 are not required to file the statements specified in Section 84200.7.

(e) City general purpose committees shall file statements as follows:

(1) City general purpose committees in a city which has an election on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or November of an even-numbered year shall file the statements specified in subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 84200.7 for the six-month period in which the city election is held, if they make contributions or independent expenditures totaling five hundred dollars ($500) or more during the period covered by the preelection statement.

(2) City general purpose committees in a city which has an election on a date other than the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June or November of an even-numbered year shall file the preelection statements specified in Section 84200.8 if they make contributions or independent expenditures totaling five hundred dollars ($500) or more during the period covered by the preelection statement.

(f) Committees formed or existing primarily to support or oppose the qualification of a ballot measure and proponents of a state ballot measure who control a committee formed or existing primarily to support the qualification of a measure, shall file a campaign statement 21 days after the deadline for filing petitions. The closing date for the period covered by a statement required by this subdivision shall be seven days prior to the deadline for filing the statement.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 84200.5 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and SB 397. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 84200.5 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 397, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 4. The Legislature finds and declares that this act furthers the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974 within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 81012 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 1078

An act to amend Sections 85200 and 85201 of the Government Code, relating to elections.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 85200 of the Government Code is amended to read:

85200. Prior to the solicitation or receipt of any contribution or loan, an individual who intends to be a candidate for an elective office shall file with the commission a statement signed under penalty of perjury of intention to be a candidate for a specific office.

For purposes of this section, "contribution" and "loan" do not include any payments from the candidate's personal funds for a candidate filing fee or a candidate statement of qualifications fee.

SEC. 2. Section 85201 of the Government Code is amended to read:

85201. (a) Upon the filing of the statement of intention pursuant to Section 85200, the individual shall establish one campaign contribution account at an office of a financial institution located in the state.

(b) Upon the establishment of an account, the name of the financial institution, the specific location, and the account number shall be filed with the commission within 10 days, except as provided by subdivision (h).

(c) All contributions or loans made to the candidate, to a person on behalf of the candidate, or to the candidate's controlled committee shall be deposited in the account.

(d) Any personal funds which will be utilized to promote the election of the candidate shall be deposited in the account prior to expenditure.

(e) All campaign expenditures shall be made from the account.

(f) Subdivisions (d) and (e) do not apply to a candidate's payment for a filing fee and statement of qualifications from his or her personal funds.

(g) This section does not apply to a candidate who will not receive contributions and who makes expenditures from personal funds of less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) in a calendar year to support his or her candidacy. For purposes of this section, a candidate's payment for a filing fee and statement of qualifications shall not be included in calculating the total expenditures made.

(h) Before expending one thousand dollars ($1,000) or more in a calendar year, any candidate who does not establish a campaign contribution account pursuant to subdivision (g) shall establish one campaign contribution account at an office of a financial institution located in the state and file the information required under subdivision (b) with the commission within five days of establishing the account.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that this act furthers the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974 within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 81012 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 1079

An act to amend Section 6 of Chapter 1258 of the Statutes of 1990, relating to prisons.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6 of Chapter 1258 of the Statutes of 1990 is amended to read:

Sec. 6. (a) Pursuant to Section 4485 of the Penal Code, the requirement that county matching funds of 25 percent be provided before expenditure can be made from the 1986 County Correctional Facility Capital Expenditure Fund is waived as to the County of Butte. These bond funds shall be expended to satisfy the 25 percent matching funds requirement under Section 4485 of the Penal Code for either soft or hard match items required to be funded by the County of Butte.

(b) Pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 4496.12 of the Penal Code, the requirement that county matching funds of 25 percent be provided before expenditure can be made from the 1988 County Correctional Facility Capital Expenditure and Youth Facility Bond Fund is waived as to the County of Butte. These bond funds shall be expended to satisfy the 25 percent matching funds requirement under paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 4496.12 of the Penal Code for either soft or hard match items which are required to be funded by the County of Butte.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 5705 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or any other provision of law, all county matching requirements for funding of mental health services provided under the Short-Doyle Act (Part 2 (commencing with Section 5600) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code) shall be waived, and funded by the state, as to the County of Butte for both local services and state hospitals for the 1990–91 fiscal year.

SEC. 2. (a) The authorization provided by Section 1 of this act is limited to funds allocated to Butte County from the 1986 County Correctional Facility Capital Expenditure Bond Act, and the 1988 County Correctional Facility Capital Expenditure and Youth Facility Bond Act. Bond funds identified for expenditure for juvenile facilities pursuant to Section 4485 of the Penal Code or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 4497.20) of Title 4.85 of Part 3 of the Penal Code shall not be used to satisfy the 25 percent matching funds requirement.

(b) Notwithstanding the authorization provided by Section 1 of this act, Butte County shall only use bond funds to satisfy the 25 percent matching funds requirement to pay for architectural drawings, construction management costs, site development, including reasonable landscaping, and construction. Butte County shall not use bond funds to satisfy the 25 percent matching funds requirement to pay for site acquisition, prearchitectural drawings, needs assessment, environmental impact report costs, county administration staff development costs, and sheriff's department transition costs.

(c) Pursuant to Chapter 1519 of the Statutes of 1986 and Chapter 1327 of the Statutes of 1989, funds shall not be used to construct facilities the county is not able to safely staff and operate.

CHAPTER 1080

An act to amend Section 1211.5. of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1211.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1211.5. Any domestic incorporated life insurer or casualty insurer having admitted assets as of the preceding December 31, of at least one billion dollars ($1,000,000,000), after investing an amount equal to its required minimum paid-in capital in securities specified in Article 3 (commencing with Section 1170), may invest in, for purposes of bona fide hedging transactions, the purchase and sale of exchange traded options on stock indices, stock index futures contracts, or options on stock index futures contracts, pursuant to this section.

(a) With respect to existing common stocks owned by it, the life insurer or casualty insurer may, for purposes of hedging, buy put options on the Standard and Poors 500 Index, the Standard and Poors 100 Index, or any other index approved by the commissioner; and sell stock index futures contracts on the Standard and Poors 500 Index or any other index approved by the commissioner. The life insurer or casualty insurer may sell put options on those indices or buy stock index futures contracts pursuant to this subdivision only for the purpose of a closing transaction. All transactions authorized herein shall be made through an exchange.

(b) With respect to anticipated common stock positions, the life insurer or casualty insurer may, for purposes of hedging, buy call options on the Standard and Poors 500 Index, the Standard and Poors 100 Index, or any other index approved by the commissioner; and buy stock index futures contracts on the Standard and Poors 500 Index. Except with the prior approval of the commissioner, an investment shall not be made under the authority of this subdivision if, at the time of its making, the investment would result in the life insurer or casualty insurer hedging anticipated common stock positions in an amount exceeding 5 percent of admitted assets. The life insurer or casualty insurer may sell call options on those indices or sell stock index futures contracts pursuant to this subdivision and only for the purpose of a closing transaction. All transactions authorized herein shall be made through an exchange.

(c) The investments in bona fide hedging transactions set forth in subdivisions (a) and (b) shall not be made, unless upon execution, the option or contract is specifically identified with existing common stocks as authorized in subdivision (a) or anticipated common stock positions as authorized in subdivision (b), and the option or contract has a positive correlation (prices tend to move in the same direction with a reasonably similar magnitude) with the identified common stocks or anticipated common stock positions.

(d) A life insurer or casualty insurer shall not engage in bona fide hedging transactions and positions in options on stock indices, stock index futures contracts, or options on stock index futures contracts except pursuant to this section.

(e) A request to the commissioner to invest in, for hedging purposes, an option on a stock index, stock index futures contract, or option, on a stock index futures contract not specifically set forth in subdivision (a) or (b) shall be in writing and shall be accompanied by any supporting data and documentation that the commissioner may require. The commissioner shall require the payment of a five thousand dollar ($5,000) fee for the determination of whether to approve or disapprove that request. A request to exceed the 5-percent limitation set forth in subdivision (b) shall be in writing and shall be deemed approved unless the commissioner disapproves it within 60 days after the request has been filed in the commissioner's office. The commissioner shall require the payment of a one thousand dollar ($1,000) fee for the determination of whether to approve or disapprove the request to exceed the limitation.

(f) Investments made pursuant to this section shall be subject to the provisions of Sections 1153.5, 1154, 1200, 1201, and 1202 as if they were excess fund investments.

(g) The commissioner may adopt rules and guidelines establishing standards and requirements relative to practices authorized in this section.

(h) As used in this section, "casualty insurer" means any insurer writing casualty insurance as defined in Section 1850.4.

CHAPTER 1081

An act to amend Section 25100 of the Corporations Code, and to amend Section 1280.7 of, and to repeal Section 1280.8 of, the Insurance Code, relating to securities.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25100 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25100. The following securities are exempted from Sections 25110, 25120, and 25130:

(a) Any security (including a revenue obligation) issued or guaranteed by the United States, any state, any city, county, city and county, public district, public authority, public corporation, public entity, or political subdivision of a state or any agency or corporate or other instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(b) Any security issued or guaranteed by the Dominion of Canada, any Canadian province, any political subdivision or municipality of that province, or by any other foreign government with which the United States currently maintains diplomatic relations, if the security is recognized as a valid obligation by the issuer or guarantor; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(c) Any security issued or guaranteed by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of a national bank or a bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state, and any security issued by a bank to one or more other banks and representing an interest in an asset of the issuing bank.

(d) Any security issued or guaranteed by a federal savings and loan association or federal savings bank or federal land bank or joint land bank or national farm loan association or by any savings association, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 5102 of the Financial Code, which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Savings and Loan Commissioner of this state.

(e) Any security (other than an interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided land or a subdivision or in a real estate development), the issuance of which is subject to authorization by the Insurance Commissioner, the Public Utilities Commission, or the Real Estate Commissioner of this state.

(f) Any security consisting of any interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided lands or a subdivision or in a real estate development; provided that the exemption in this subdivision shall not be applicable to any investment contract sold or offered for sale with, or as part of, any such interest, or to any person engaged in the business of selling, distributing, or supplying water for irrigation purposes or domestic use which is not a public utility.

(g) Any mutual capital certificates or savings accounts, as defined in the Savings Association Law, issued by a savings association, as defined by subdivision (a) of Section 5102 of the Financial Code, and holding a license or certificate of authority then in force from the Savings and Loan Commissioner of this state.

(h) Any security issued or guaranteed by any federal credit union, or by any credit union organized and supervised, or regulated, under the Credit Union Law.

(i) Any security issued or guaranteed by any railroad, other common carrier, public utility, or public utility holding company which is (1) subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission or (2) a holding company registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 or a subsidiary of that company within the meaning of that act or (3) regulated in respect of the issuance or guarantee of the security by a governmental authority of the United States, of any state, of Canada or of any Canadian province; and the security is subject to registration with or authorization of issuance by that authority.

(j) Any security (except evidences of indebtedness, whether interest bearing or not) of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit, if no part of the net earnings of the issuer inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, or (2) organized as a chamber of commerce or trade or professional association. The fact that amounts received from memberships or dues or both will or may be used to construct or otherwise acquire facilities for use by members of the nonprofit organization does not disqualify the organization for this exemption. This exemption does not apply to the securities of any nonprofit organization if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the organization or operation of that nonprofit organization or from remuneration received from that nonprofit organization.

(k) Any agreement, commonly known as a "life income contract," of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit and (2) which the commissioner designates by rule or order, with a donor in consideration of a donation of property to that issuer and providing for the payment to the donor or persons designated by him or her of income or specified periodic payments from the donated property or other property for the life of the donor or those other persons.

(l) Any note, draft, bill of exchange, or banker's acceptance which is freely transferable and of prime quality, arises out of a current transaction or the proceeds of which have been or are to be used for current transactions, and which evidences an obligation to pay cash within nine months of the date of issuance, exclusive of days of grace, or any renewal of that paper which is likewise limited, or any guarantee of that paper or of any such renewal, provided that the paper is not offered to the public in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser. In addition, the commissioner may, by rule or order, exempt any issuer of any notes, drafts, bills of exchange or banker's acceptances from qualification of those securities when the commissioner finds that the qualification is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

(m) Any security issued by any corporation organized and existing under the provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(n) Any beneficial interest in an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar benefit plan which meets the requirements for qualification under Section 401 of the federal Internal Revenue Code or any statute amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto. A determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service stating that an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar benefit plan meets those requirements shall be conclusive evidence that the plan is an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar plan within the meaning of the first sentence of this subdivision until the date the determination letter is revoked in writing by the Internal Revenue Service, regardless of whether or not the revocation is retroactive.

(o) Any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on a national securities exchange or designated or approved for designation upon notice of issuance as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., if the exchange or interdealer quotation system has been certified by rule or order of the commissioner and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to the security.

That certification of any exchange or system shall be made by the commissioner upon the written request of the exchange or system if the commissioner finds that the exchange or system: (i) in acting on applications for listing of common stock substantially applies the minimum standards set forth in either alternative (A) or (B) of paragraph (1), and (ii) in considering suspension or removal from listing or designation, substantially applies each of the criteria set forth in subparagraph (2).

(1) Listing standards:

(A) (i) Shareholders' equity of at least four million dollars ($4,000,000).

(ii) Pretax income of at least seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) in the issuer's last fiscal year or in two of its last three fiscal years.

(iii) Minimum public distribution of 500,000 shares (exclusive of the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders, and other concentrated or family holdings), together with a minimum of 800 public holders or minimum public distribution of 1,000,000 shares together with a minimum of 400 public holders. The exchange or system may also consider the listing or designation of a company's securities if the company has a minimum of 500,000 shares publicly held, a minimum of 400 shareholders and daily trading volume in the issue has been approximately 2,000 shares or more for the six months preceding the date of application. In evaluating the suitability of an issue for listing or designation under this trading provision, the exchange or system shall review the nature and frequency of that activity and any other factors as it may determine to be relevant in ascertaining whether the issue is suitable for trading. A security which trades infrequently shall not be considered for listing or designation under this paragraph even though average daily volume amounts to 2,000 shares per day or more.

Companies whose securities are concentrated in a limited geographical area, or whose securities are largely held in block by institutional investors, normally may not be considered eligible for listing or designation unless the public distribution appreciably exceeds 500,000 shares.

(iv) Minimum price of three dollars ($3) per share for a reasonable period of time prior to the filing of a listing or designation application; provided, however, in certain instances an exchange or system may favorably consider listing an issue selling for less than three dollars ($3) per share after considering all pertinent factors, including market conditions in general, whether historically the issue has sold above three dollars ($3) per share, the applicant's capitalization, and the number of outstanding and publicly held shares of the issue.

(v) An aggregate market value for publicly held shares of at least three million dollars ($3,000,000).

(B) (i) Shareholders' equity of at least four million dollars ($4,000,000).

(ii) Minimum public distribution set forth in paragraph (1) (A) (iii).

(iii) Operating history of at least three years.

(iv) An aggregate market value for publicly held shares of at least fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000).

(2) Criteria for consideration of suspension or removal from listing:

(i) If a company which (A) has shareholders' equity of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) has sustained net losses in each of its two most recent fiscal years, or (B) has net tangible assets of less than three million dollars ($3,000,000) and has sustained net losses in three of its four most recent fiscal years.

(ii) If the number of shares publicly held (excluding the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders and other concentrated or family holdings) is less than 150,000.

(iii) If the total number of shareholders is less than 400 or if the number of shareholders of lots of 100 shares or more is less than 300.

(iv) If the aggregate market value of shares publicly held is less than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000).

(v) If shares of common stock sell at a price of less than three dollars ($3) per share for a substantial period of time and the issuer shall fail to effectuate a reverse stock split of the shares within a reasonable period of time after being requested by the exchange to take that action.

A national securities exchange or interdealer quotation system of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. certified by rule or order of the commissioner under this subdivision shall file annual reports when requested to do so by the commissioner. The annual reports shall contain, by issuer: the variances granted to an exchange's listing standards or interdealer quotation system's designation criteria, including variances from corporate governance and voting rights' standards, for any security of that issuer; the reasons for the variances; a discussion of the review procedure instituted by the exchange or interdealer quotation system to determine the effect of the variances on investors and whether the variances should be continued; and any other information that the commissioner deems relevant. The purpose of these reports is to assist the commissioner in determining whether the quantitative and qualitative requirements of this subdivision are substantially being met by the exchange or system in general or with regard to any particular security.

The commissioner after appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, may, in his or her discretion, by rule or order, decertify any exchange or interdealer quotation system previously certified which ceases substantially to apply the minimum standards or criteria as set forth in paragraphs (1) and (2).

A rule or order of certification shall conclusively establish that any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on any exchange, or designated or approved for designation upon issuance as a national market system security on any interdealer quotation system, named in a rule or order of certification, and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to any such security, is exempt under this subdivision until the adoption by the commissioner of any rule or order decertifying the exchange or interdealer quotation system.

(p) A promissory note secured by a lien on real property, which is neither one of a series of notes of equal priority secured by interests in the same real property nor a note in which beneficial interests are sold to more than one person or entity.

(q) Any unincorporated interindemnity or reciprocal or interinsurance contract, which qualifies under the provisions of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, between members of a cooperative corporation, organized and operating under Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1, and whose members consist only of physicians and surgeons licensed in California, which contracts indemnify solely in respect to medical malpractice claims against the members, and which do not collect in advance of loss any moneys other than contributions by each member to a collective reserve trust fund or for necessary expenses of administration.

(1) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, the commissioner may in the commissioner's discretion bring an action in the name of the people of the State of California in the superior court to enjoin the acts or practices or to enforce compliance with Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code. Upon a proper showing a permanent or preliminary injunction, restraining order or writ of mandate shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets.

(2) The commissioner may, in the commissioner's discretion, (A) make such public or private investigations within or outside of this state as the commissioner deems necessary to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code or to aid in the enforcement of Section 1280.7, and (B) publish information concerning the violation of Section 1280.7.

(3) For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this section, the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records which the commissioner deems relevant or material to the inquiry.

(4) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to, any person, the superior court, upon application by the commissioner, may issue to the person an order requiring the person to appear before the commissioner, or the officer designated by the commissioner, there to produce documentary evidence, if so ordered, or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt.

(5) No person is excused from attending or testifying or from producing any document or record before the commissioner or in obedience to the subpoena of the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner, or in any proceeding instituted by the commissioner, on the ground that the testimony or evidence (documentary or otherwise), required of the person may tend to incriminate the person or subject the person to a penalty or forfeiture, but no individual may be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which the person is compelled, after validly claiming the privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence (documentary or otherwise), except that the individual testifying is not exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury or contempt committed in testifying.

(6) The cost of any review, examination, audit, or investigation made by the commissioner under Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code shall be paid to the commissioner by the person subject to the review, examination, audit, or investigation, and the commissioner may maintain an action for the recovery of these costs in any court of competent jurisdiction. In determining the cost, the commissioner may use the actual amount of the salary or other compensation paid to the persons making the review, examination, audit, or investigation plus the actual amount of expenses including overhead reasonably incurred in the performance of the work.

The recoverable cost of each review, examination, audit, or investigation made by the commissioner under Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code shall not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), except that costs exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) shall be recoverable if the costs are necessary to prevent a violation of any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code.

(r) Any shares or memberships issued by any corporation organized and existing pursuant to the provisions of Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1, provided the aggregate investment of any shareholder or member in shares or memberships sold pursuant to this subdivision does not exceed three hundred dollars ($300). This exemption does not apply to the shares or memberships of any such corporation if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the corporation or the operation of the corporation or from remuneration, other than reasonable salary, received from the corporation. This exemption does not apply to nonvoting shares or memberships of any such corporation issued to any person who does not possess, and who will not acquire in connection with the issuance of nonvoting shares or memberships, voting power (Section 12253) in the corporation. This exemption also does not apply to shares or memberships issued by a nonprofit cooperative corporation organized to facilitate the creation of an unincorporated interindemnity arrangement that provides indemnification for medical malpractice to its physician and surgeon members as set forth in subdivision (q).

(s) Any security consisting of or representing an interest in a pool of mortgage loans which meets each of the following requirements:

(1) The pool consists of whole mortgage loans or participation interests in those loans, which loans were originated or acquired in the ordinary course of business by a national bank or federal savings and loan association or federal savings bank having its principal office in this state, by a bank incorporated under the laws of this state or by a savings association as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 5102 of the Financial Code and which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Savings and Loan Commissioner, which at the time of transfer to the pool is an authorized investment for such originating or acquiring institution.

(2) The pool of mortgage loans is held in trust by a trustee which is a financial institution specified in paragraph (1) as trustee or otherwise.

(3) The loans are serviced by a financial institution specified in paragraph (1).

(4) The security is not offered in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser.

(5) The security is offered pursuant to a registration under the Securities Act of 1933, or pursuant to an exemption under Regulation A under that act, or in the opinion of counsel for the issuer, is offered pursuant to an exemption under Section 4(2) of that act.

SEC. 2. Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1280.7. This chapter and the other provisions of this code, except as set forth in this paragraph, shall not apply to or affect unincorporated interindemnity or reciprocal or interinsurance contracts between members of a cooperative corporation, organized and operating under Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code whose members consist solely of physicians and surgeons licensed in California, which contracts indemnify solely in respect to medical malpractice claims against those members, and which do not collect in advance of loss any moneys other than contributions by each member to a collective reserve trust fund or for necessary expenses of administration. The provisions of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 330) of Part 1 of Division 1 shall apply to unincorporated interindemnity or reciprocal or interinsurance contracts. Those unincorporated interindemnity or reciprocal or interinsurance contracts shall comply with all of the following requirements:

(a) Each participating member shall enter into and, concurrently therewith, receive an executed copy of a trust agreement, which shall govern the collection and disposition of all funds of the interindemnity arrangement.

The trust agreement shall, as a minimum, contain provision for all the following matters:

(1) An initial trust corpus of not less than ten million dollars ($10,000,000), which corpus shall be a trust fund to secure enforcement of the interindemnity arrangement. The average contribution to the initial trust corpus shall be not less than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) per member participating in the interindemnity arrangement. The average contribution to the trust fund shall continue at all times to be not less than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) per participating member unless the interindemnity arrangement is qualified to admit members under the terms of subdivision (k). No such interindemnity arrangement shall become operative until the requisite minimum reserve trust fund has been established by contributions from not less than 500 participating members.

(2) The reserve trust fund created by the trust agreement shall be administered by a board of trustees of three or more members, all of whom shall be physicians and surgeons licensed in California, participating members in the interindemnity arrangement, and elected biennially or more frequently by at least a majority of all members participating in the interindemnity arrangement.

(3) The members of the board of trustees are fiduciaries and the board shall be the custodian of all funds of the interindemnity arrangement, and all those funds shall be deposited in such bank or banks and savings and loan associations in California as the board may designate. Each such account shall require two or more signatories for withdrawal of funds in excess of ten thousand dollars ($10,000). The authorized signatories shall be appointed by the board and, and as to any withdrawal in excess of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), at least one of the two or more authorized signatories shall be a physician and surgeon licensed in California and a participating member in the interindemnity arrangement. Each signatory on those accounts shall maintain, at all times while empowered to draw on those funds, for the benefit of the interindemnity arrangement, a bond against loss suffered through embezzlement, mysterious disappearance, holdup or burglary or other loss issued by a bonding company licensed to do business in California in a penal sum of not less than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).

(4) All funds held in trust which are in excess of current financial needs shall be invested and reinvested from time to time, under the direction of the board of trustees, in eligible securities, as defined in Section 16430 of the Government Code, in portfolios of eligible securities, in exchange traded financial futures contracts or exchange traded options contracts to hedge investment in those eligible securities, or in certificates of deposits or time deposits issued by banks and savings and loan associations in California duly insured by instrumentalities of the United States government.

Pursuant to the authority contained in Section 1 of Article XV of the California Constitution, the restrictions upon rates of interest contained in Section 1 of Article XV of the California Constitution shall not apply to any obligations of, loans made by, or forbearances of, any trust established by a cooperative corporation providing indemnity pursuant to this section.

(5) The income earned on the corpus of the trust fund shall be the source for the payment of the claims, costs, judgments, settlements, and costs of administration contemplated by the interindemnity arrangement, and to the extent the income is insufficient for those purposes, the board of trustees shall have the power and authority to assess participating members for all amounts necessary to meet the obligations of the interindemnity arrangement in accordance with the terms thereof. Where necessary in the best interests of the interindemnity arrangement, the board of trustees may make assessments to increase the corpus of the trust fund in accordance with the terms of the interindemnity arrangement. Any assessment levied against a member shall be the personal obligation of the member. Any person who obtains a final judgment of recovery for medical malpractice against a member of the interindemnity arrangement shall have, in addition to any other remedy, the right to assert directly all rights to indemnification which the judgment debtor has under the interindemnity arrangement. The final judgment shall be a lien on the reserve trust fund to secure payment of the judgment, limited to the extent of the judgment debtor's rights to indemnification.

Any change in the assessment agreement between the interindemnity arrangement and its membership shall be submitted to the entire membership for ratification. If the ratification process is to be performed by a mail ballot, a ballot shall be sent to each member by first-class mail, postage prepaid. Within 45 days after the posted date on the mail ballot, each member who decides to vote on the assessment change shall return his or her ballot to the interindemnity arrangement for the tallying of the ballots. An affirmative vote of 75 percent of those voting shall be required to effectuate any change in the assessment agreement.

If a change in the assessment agreement is to be submitted to members at a properly called meeting, the membership shall be notified of the meeting and the proposed assessment change by first-class mail, postage prepaid, posted at least 45 days prior to the meeting. Seventy-five percent of those present in person or by proxy at the meeting shall be required to effectuate any change in the assessment agreement.

(6) Each participating member shall be covered by the interindemnity arrangement for not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) for each occurrence of professional negligence, with the terms and conditions of the coverage to be specified in the trust agreement, except that the interindemnity arrangement may provide participating members with an aggregate limit for all payments on behalf of the member and may provide participating members with less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) of such coverage for each occurrence of professional negligence if the interindemnity arrangement obtains for the benefit of the members reinsurance of excess limits coverage in an amount which when added to the coverage provided by the interindemnity arrangement would equal not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) for each occurrence of professional negligence.

Any change in the coverage provided for professional negligence by the trust agreement between the interindemnity arrangement and its membership shall be submitted to the entire membership for ratification. If the ratification process is to be performed by a mail ballot, a ballot shall be sent to each member by first-class mail, postage prepaid. Within 45 days after the posted date on the mail ballot, each member who decides to vote on the coverage change shall return his or her ballot to the interindemnity arrangement for the tallying of the ballot. An affirmative vote of 75 percent of those voting shall be required to effectuate any change in the coverage provided for professional negligence by the trust agreement.

If any such change is to be submitted to members at a properly called meeting, the membership shall be notified of the meeting and the proposed coverage change by first-class mail, postage prepaid, posted at least 45 days prior to the meeting. An affirmative vote of 75 percent of the membership present at the meeting, in person or by proxy, shall be required to effectuate any such change, except that at least 50 percent of the entire membership must agree to any such change.

(7) Withdrawal of all, or any portion of, the corpus of the reserve trust fund shall be upon the written authorization signed by at least two-thirds of the members of the board of trustees.

(8) The board of trustees shall cause both of the following to be furnished to each member participating in the interindemnity arrangement, and to be filed with the Commissioner of Corporations:

(A) Within 90 days after the end of each fiscal year a statement of the assets and liabilities of the interindemnity arrangement as of the end of that year, a statement of the revenue and expenditures of the interindemnity arrangement, and a statement of the changes in corpus of the reserve trust for that year, in each case accompanied by a certificate signed by a firm of independent certified public accountants selected by the board of trustees indicating that the firm has conducted an audit of those statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and indicating the results of the audit.

(B) Within 45 days after the end of each of the first three quarterly periods of each fiscal year a statement of the assets and liabilities of the interindemnity arrangement as of the end of the quarterly period, a statement of the revenue and expenditures of the interindemnity arrangement and a statement of the changes in corpus of the reserve trust for the period, in each case accompanied by a certificate signed by a majority of the members of the board of trustees to the effect that the statements were prepared from the official books and records of the interindemnity arrangement.

(C) In addition to the statements required to be filed pursuant to this paragraph, the board of trustees shall annually file with the Commissioner of Corporations an authorization for disclosure to the commissioner of all financial records pertaining to the interindemnity arrangement. For the purpose of this clause, the authorization for disclosure shall also include the financial records of any association, partnership, or corporation that has management or control of the funds or the operation of the interindemnity arrangement.

(9) The trust agreement shall also provide for all the following:

(A) In the event a participating member who is in full compliance with the trust agreement, including the payment of all outstanding dues and assessments, dies, the initial contribution made by the decedent shall be returned to the member's estate or designated beneficiary; the indemnity coverage shall continue for the benefit of the decedent's estate in respect of occurrences during the time the decedent was a participating member; and neither the person receiving the repayment of the initial contribution nor the decedent's estate shall be responsible for any assessments levied following the death of the member.

(B) A participating member who is then in full compliance with the trust agreement and who has reached the age of 65 and who has retired completely from the practice of medicine may elect to retire from the interindemnity arrangement, in which case the member shall not be responsible for assessments levied following the date notice of retirement is given to the trust. Following that retirement, the indemnity coverage shall continue for the benefit of the member in respect of occurrences prior to the time the member retired from the interindemnity arrangement. That retired member's initial contribution shall be repaid 10 years from the date the notice of retirement is received by the trust, or such earlier date as specified in the trust agreement. The board of trustees may reduce the age for retirement to not less than 55 years subject to all other requirements in this paragraph and any additional requirements deemed necessary by the board.

(C) During any period in which a participating member, who is then in full compliance with the trust agreement, has, in the judgment of the board of trustees, become unable to perform any and every duty of his or her regular professional occupation, the participating member may request disability status in accordance with the terms of the interindemnity arrangement. During any period of disability status, the member shall not be responsible for assessments levied during the period and, where so provided in the interindemnity arrangement, all indemnity coverage, both as to defense and payment of claims, shall terminate as to occurrences arising out of the actions of the participating member during the period of disability status.

(D) In the event a participating member fails to pay any assessment when the same is due, the board of trustees may terminate that person's membership status if the failure to pay is not cured within 30 days from the date the assessment was due. Upon that termination the former participating member shall not be entitled to the return of all or any part of his or her initial contribution, and the indemnity coverage shall thereupon terminate as to all claims then pending against that person and in respect to all occurrences prior to the date of that termination of membership. However, in the event the interindemnity arrangement is then providing legal defense services to that person, the interindemnity arrangement shall continue to provide those services for a period of 10 days following that termination.

(E) In the event a participating member fails to comply with any provision of the trust agreement (other than a failure to pay assessments when due), the board of trustees may terminate that person's membership status if the failure to comply is not cured within 60 days from the date the person is notified of the failure; provided that before that membership status may be terminated the person shall be given the right to call for a hearing before the board of trustees (to be held before the expiration of the 60-day period), at which hearing the person shall be given the opportunity to demonstrate to the board of trustees that no failure to comply has occurred or, if it has occurred, that it has been cured. Upon that termination, the former participating member shall not be entitled to the return of all or any part of his or her initial contribution, and the indemnity coverage shall thereupon terminate as to all claims then pending against the person and in respect to all occurrences prior to the date of the termination of membership. However, in the event the interindemnity arrangement is then providing legal defense services to that person, the interindemnity arrangement shall continue to provide those services for a period of 10 days following the termination.

(F) A participating member who is then in full compliance with the trust agreement may elect voluntarily to terminate his or her membership in the interindemnity arrangement. Upon that voluntary termination, that person may further elect to cease being responsible for future assessments, or to continue to pay those assessments until the time as the person's initial contribution is repaid. In the event the person elects to cease being responsible for future assessments, the indemnity coverage shall thereupon terminate and the person shall either be responsible for his or her own exposure for acts committed while a participating member in the interindemnity arrangement, or he or she may request the interindemnity arrangement to purchase or provide, at the cost of the person, coverage for that exposure. The initial contribution of the person shall be repaid on the 10th anniversary of the date the contribution was made. In the event the person elects to continue to be responsible for assessments, the indemnity coverage shall continue in respect of occurrences prior to the date of the voluntary termination, and the initial contribution of the person shall be repaid at such time as the board of trustees is satisfied that (i) there are no claims pending against the person in respect of occurrences during the time the person was a participating member, and (ii) the statute of limitations has run on all claims which might be asserted against that person in respect of occurrences during that time. In no event shall that repayment be made earlier than the 10th anniversary of the date the contribution was made.

Any person whose membership in an interindemnity arrangement is involuntarily terminated for failure to pay assessments or who voluntarily terminates that membership and elects to be responsible for his or her own exposure for acts committed while a participating member, shall not be eligible to become a member of any other interindemnity arrangement for a period of five years after the termination unless, on the effective date of the act which amended this section during the 1985–86 Regular Session, the person had on file with the Department of Corporations a copy of a subscription agreement signifying the person's agreement to transfer membership or had paid a minimum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) to another interindemnity arrangement which was granted a permit to organize prior to January 1, 1985.

(G) The board of trustees shall have the right to terminate the membership of a participating member where the board of trustees determines that the termination is in the best interests of the interindemnity arrangement even though that person has complied with all of the provisions of the trust agreement. Such a termination may be effected only if at least two-thirds of the members of the board of trustees indicate in writing their decision so to terminate. If the board of trustees proposes so to terminate a member, the member shall have the right to call a special meeting of all participating members in accordance with the rules established by the board of trustees for the purpose of voting on whether or not the member shall be so terminated. The member shall not be so terminated if at least two-thirds of the participating members present, in person or by proxy, indicate that the member should not be so terminated. In the event a member is so terminated, the person shall elect either: (i) to request the return of his or her initial contribution, in which case the same shall be repaid and the indemnity coverage shall thereupon terminate as to all claims then pending against the person and in respect to all occurrences prior to the date of the termination of membership. However, in the event the interindemnity arrangement is then providing legal defense services to the person, the interindemnity arrangement shall continue to provide those services for a period of 30 days to enable the person to assume his or her own defense; or (ii) to release all rights to the return of the initial contribution, in which case the indemnity coverage shall continue for the benefit of the member in respect of occurrences during the time the person was a participating member and the person shall have no responsibility for assessments levied following that termination. The interindemnity arrangement may provide that if a member is so terminated and fails to make the election set forth herein within 45 days of the date of notification of termination of membership, the participating member shall be deemed to have elected to release all rights to a return of his or her initial contribution, in which case indemnity coverage shall apply for the benefit of the member with respect to occurrences occurring prior to the termination.

(10) Each member participating in the interindemnity arrangement shall have the right of access to, and the inspection of, the books and records of the interindemnity arrangement, which rights shall be similar to the corporate shareholders pursuant to Section 3003 of the Corporations Code, or, commencing January 1, 1977, Sections 1600 to 1605, inclusive, of the Corporations Code.

(11) There shall be a meeting of all members participating in the interindemnity arrangement, at least annually, after not less than 10 days' written notice has been given, at a location reasonably convenient to the participating members and on a date which is within a reasonable period of time following the distribution of the annual financial statements.

(12) Notwithstanding Sections 12453 and 12703 of the Corporations Code, on any matter to be voted upon by the membership at either a regular or special meeting, a member shall have the right to vote in person or by written proxy filed with the corporate secretary prior to the meeting. No such proxy shall be made irrevocable, nor be valid beyond the earliest of the following dates:

(A) The date of expiration set forth in the proxy; or

(B) The date of termination of membership; or

(C) Eleven months from the date of execution of the proxy; or

(D) Such time as may be specified in the bylaws, not to exceed 11 months.

(13) The interindemnity arrangement, and the reserve trust fund incident thereto, shall be subject to termination at any time by the vote or written consent of not less than three-fourths of the participating members.

(b) The board of trustees shall cause to be recorded with the office of the county recorder of the county of the principal place of business of the interindemnity arrangement within 90 days following the end of each fiscal year, a written statement, executed by a majority of the board of trustees under penalty of perjury, reciting that each member participating in the interindemnity arrangement was mailed a copy of the annual financial statement and quarterly audit certificates by first-class mail, postage prepaid, required pursuant to paragraph (8) of subdivision (a).

(c) Each person solicited to become a participating member in such an interindemnity arrangement shall receive in writing, at least 48 hours prior to the execution by the prospective participating member of the trust agreement, and at least 48 hours prior to the payment by the prospective participating member of any consideration in connection with the interindemnity arrangements, the following information:

(1) A copy of the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the cooperative corporation and a copy of the form of trust agreement to be executed by the prospective participating member.

(2) A disclosure statement regarding the interindemnity arrangement. The disclosure statement shall contain on the first or cover page a legend in boldface type reading substantially as follows:

"THE INTERINDEMNITY ARRANGEMENT CONTEMPLATED HEREIN PROVIDES THAT PARTICIPATING MEMBERS HAVE UNLIMITED PERSONAL LIABILITY FOR ASSESSMENTS WHICH MAY BE LEVIED TO PAY FOR THE PROFESSIONAL NEGLIGENCE LIABILITIES COVERED BY THIS ARRANGEMENT. NO ASSURANCES CAN BE GIVEN REGARDING THE AMOUNT OR FREQUENCY OF ASSESSMENTS WHICH MAY BE SO LEVIED, OR THAT ALL PARTICIPATING MEMBERS WILL MAKE TIMELY PAYMENT OF THEIR ASSESSMENTS TO COVER THE PROFESSIONAL NEGLIGENCE LIABILITY OF A PARTICIPATING MEMBER."

(3) The disclosure statement shall further contain all of the following information:

(A) The amount, nature and terms and conditions of the professional negligence coverage available under the interindemnity arrangement.

(B) The amount of the initial contribution required of each participating member and a statement of the minimum number of members and aggregate contributions required for the interindemnity arrangement to commence.

(C) The names, addresses and professional experience of each member of the board of trustees.

(D) The requirements for admission as a participating member.

(E) A statement of the services to be provided under the interindemnity arrangement to each participating member.

(F) A statement regarding the obligation of each member to pay assessments and the consequences for failure to do so.

(G) A statement of the rights and obligations of a participating member in the event the member dies, retires, becomes disabled or terminates participation for any reason, or the interindemnity arrangement terminates for any reason.

(H) A statement regarding the services to be provided, indicating whether these services will be delegated to others pursuant to a contractual arrangement. For those services delegated to others pursuant to a contractual arrangement, a statement fully disclosing and itemizing all consideration received directly or indirectly under the arrangement, and indicating what the consideration is for, and how, when, and to whom the consideration will be paid.

(I) A statement of the voting rights of the members and the circumstances under which participation of such a member may be terminated and under which the interindemnity arrangement may be terminated.

(J) If any statement of estimated or projected financial information for the interindemnity arrangement is used, a statement of the estimation or projection and a summary of the data and assumptions upon which it is based.

(4) A list with the names and addresses of current participating members of the interindemnity arrangement.

(d) No officer, director, trustee, employee or member of the interindemnity arrangement or the cooperative corporation shall receive, or be entitled to receive, any payment, bonus, salary, income, compensation or other benefit whatsoever, either from the reserve trust fund or the income therefrom or from any other funds of the interindemnity arrangement or the members thereof based on the number of participating members, or the amount of the reserve trust fund or other funds of the interindemnity arrangement.

(e) A peer review committee or committees shall be established by the trust agreement to review the qualifications of any physician and surgeon to participate or continue to participate in the interindemnity arrangement, and to review the quality of medical services rendered by any participating member, as well as the validity of medical malpractice claims made against participating members. Any physician and surgeon, prior to becoming a participating member of the interindemnity arrangement, shall be reviewed and approved by a majority of the members of the peer review committee. No peer review committee, or any of its members, shall be liable for any action taken by the committee in reviewing the qualifications of a physician and surgeon to participate or continue to participate, or the quality of medical services rendered, or the validity of a medical malpractice claim, unless it is alleged and proved that the action was taken with actual malice.

(f) The following are hereby defined as unfair methods of competition and deceptive acts or practices with respect to cooperative corporations or interindemnity arrangements provided for in this section.

(1) Making any false or misleading statement as to, or issuing, circulating, or causing to be made, issued or circulated, any estimate, illustration, circular, or statement misrepresenting the terms of any interindemnity arrangement or the benefits or advantages promised thereby, or making any misleading representation or any misrepresentation as to the financial condition of the interindemnity arrangement, or making any misrepresentation to any participating member for the purpose of inducing or tending to induce the member to lapse, forfeit, or surrender his or her rights to indemnification under the interindemnity arrangement. It shall be a false or misleading statement to state or represent that a cooperative corporation or interindemnity arrangement is or constitutes "insurance" or an "insurance company" or an "insurance policy."

(2) Making or disseminating or causing to be made or disseminated before the public in this state, in any newspaper or other publication, or any advertising device, or by public outcry or proclamation, or in any other manner or means whatsoever, any statement containing any assertion, representation, or statement with respect to those cooperative corporations or interindemnity arrangements, or with respect to any person in the conduct of those cooperative corporations or interindemnity arrangements, which is untrue, deceptive, or misleading, and which is known, or which by the exercise of reasonable care should be known, to be untrue, deceptive, or misleading. It shall be a false or misleading statement to state or represent that a cooperative corporation or interindemnity arrangement is or constitutes "insurance" or an "insurance company" or an "insurance policy."

(3) Entering into any agreement to commit, or by any concerted action committing, any act of boycott, coercion, or intimidation resulting in or tending to result in an unreasonable restraint of, or monopoly in, those cooperative corporations or interindemnity arrangements.

(4) Filing with any supervisory or other public official, or making, publishing, disseminating, circulating, or delivering to any person, or placing before the public, or causing directly or indirectly, to be made, published, disseminated, circulated, or delivered to any person, or placed before the public any false statement of financial condition of such a cooperative corporation or interindemnity arrangement with intent to deceive.

(5) Making any false entry in any book, report, or statement of such a cooperative corporation or interindemnity arrangement with intent to deceive any agent or examiner lawfully appointed to examine into its condition or into any of its affairs, or any public official to whom such a cooperative corporation or interindemnity arrangement is required by law to report, or who has authority by law to examine into its condition or into any of its affairs, or, with like intent, willfully omitting to make a true entry of any material fact pertaining to such a cooperative corporation or interindemnity arrangement in any book, report, or statement of such a cooperative corporation or interindemnity arrangement.

(6) Making or disseminating, or causing to be made or disseminated, before the public in this state, in any newspaper or other publication, or any other advertising device, or by public outcry or proclamation, or in any other manner or means whatever, whether directly or by implication, any statement that such a cooperative corporation or interindemnity arrangement is a member of the California Insurance Guarantee Association, or insured against insolvency as defined in Section 119.5. This paragraph shall not be interpreted to prohibit any activity of the California Insurance Guarantee Association or of the commissioner authorized, directly or by implication, by Article 14.2 (commencing with Section 1063) of Chapter 1 of this part.

(7) Knowingly committing or performing with such frequency as to indicate a general business practice any of the following unfair claims settlement practices:

(A) Misrepresenting to claimants pertinent facts or provisions relating to any coverage at issue.

(B) Failing to acknowledge and act promptly upon communications with respect to claims arising under that interindemnity arrangements.

(C) Failing to adopt and implement reasonable standards for the prompt investigation and processing of claims arising under those interindemnity arrangements.

(D) Failing to affirm or deny coverage of claims within a reasonable time after proof of claim requirements have been completed and submitted by the participating member.

(E) Not attempting in good faith to effectuate prompt, fair, and equitable settlements of claims in which liability has become reasonably clear.

(F) Compelling participating members to institute litigation to recover amounts due under an interindemnity arrangement by offering substantially less than the amounts ultimately recovered in actions brought by those participating members when those participating members have made claims under those interindemnity arrangements for amounts reasonably similar to the amounts ultimately recovered.

(G) Attempting to settle a claim by a participating member for less than the amount to which a reasonable person would have believed he or she was entitled by reference to written or printed advertising material accompanying or made part of an application for membership in such an interindemnity arrangement.

(H) Attempting to settle claims on the basis of an interindemnity arrangement which was altered without notice to the participating member.

(I) Failing, after payment of a claim, to inform participating members, upon request by them, of the coverage under which payment has been made.

(J) Making known to claimants a practice of the cooperative corporation or interindemnity arrangement of appealing from arbitration awards in favor of claimants for the purpose of compelling them to accept settlements or compromises less than the amount awarded in arbitration.

(K) Delaying the investigation or payment of claims by requiring a claimant, or his or her physician, to submit a preliminary claim report, and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information.

(L) Failing to settle claims promptly, where liability has become apparent, under one portion of an interindemnity arrangement in order to influence settlements under other portions of the interindemnity arrangement.

(M) Failing to provide promptly a reasonable explanation of the basis relied on in the interindemnity arrangement, in relation to the facts of applicable law, for the denial of a claim or for the offer of a compromise settlement.

(N) Directly advising a claimant not to obtain the services of an attorney.

(O) Misleading a claimant as to the applicable statute of limitations.

(g) Notwithstanding any contrary provisions of Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, it shall not be necessary to hold a meeting of members of the cooperative corporation for the purpose of electing directors if the bylaws provide the election may be held by first-class mail balloting. First-class mail balloting may also be used in conjunction with a meeting at which directors are to be elected and all mail ballots shall count toward establishing a quorum for the meeting for the limited purpose of the issues set forth in the mail ballot. Directors shall be elected as follows:

(1) The candidates receiving the highest number of votes, up to the number of directors to be elected, by a specified date at least 45 days but not later than 60 days after the ballots are first mailed, postage prepaid, to the members (or the date of a meeting of members held in conjunction therewith) shall be elected.

(2) In the event that no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast for a vacant office, a runoff election shall be held between the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes cast. The runoff election shall be held at least 45 days but not more than 60 days after the ballots for the election are mailed, postage prepaid. In the event that there is more than one office for which no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast, the candidates for the runoff shall be twice the number of vacant offices, and shall be those persons who received the highest number of votes therefor.

Those first-class mail ballots shall be kept on file for a period of three months after all vacant board positions have been filled, and shall be subject to inspection at any reasonable time by any members of the cooperative corporation.

(h) No officer, director, trustee, or member of the interindemnity arrangement or the cooperative corporation, or any entity in which that person has a material financial interest, shall enter into or renew any transaction or contract with the trust unless the material facts as to the transaction or contract and as to the interest of the person are fully disclosed to the participating members, and the transaction or contract is approved by an affirmative vote of at least 75 percent of the membership present at a meeting, in person or by proxy. If any such transaction or contract is to be submitted to members at a properly called meeting, the membership shall be notified of the meeting and of the transaction or contract by first-class mail, postage prepaid, at least 45 days prior to the meeting.

(i) Services provided to the trust pursuant to a delegated contractual arrangement shall be embodied in a written contract. Each written contract shall provide for reasonable consideration to the parties. In addition, each written contract shall be disclosed annually to participating members in a disclosure report containing the information described in subparagraph (H) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (c). The disclosure report shall be sent to participating members by first-class mail, postage prepaid, and shall be mailed separately from any statements, records, or other documents. The disclosure requirements of this subdivision shall apply to all existing and future written contracts.

(j) Upon request of the Commissioner of Corporations, an interindemnity arrangement shall immediately forward to the commissioner a current list of participating members, including the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of those members.

(k) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, whenever the membership of a cooperative organization, organized pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code and consisting solely of physicians and surgeons licensed in this state amounts to 2,000 or more members and the trust fund is at least 40 million dollars ($40,000,000), which is available to the public for malpractice claims, the cooperative is authorized to admit members without a contribution to that trust fund if assessments are charged to each of those members within the first 50 months in an amount equal to the amount of the contribution to the reserve fund that would otherwise be required.

SEC. 3. Section 1280.8 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 1082

An act to amend Sections 23301, 23301.5, 23301.6, 23302, 23304.1, 23305, 23305a, 23305c, and 23305.1 of, and to repeal Section 23571 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, and to amend Section 17 of Chapter 926 of the Statutes of 1990, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 23301 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23301. Except for the purposes of filing an application for exempt status or amending the articles of incorporation as necessary either to perfect that application or to set forth a new name, the corporate powers, rights and privileges of a domestic taxpayer may be suspended, and the exercise of the corporate powers, rights and privileges of a foreign taxpayer in this state may be forfeited, if any of the following conditions occur:

(a) If any tax, penalty, or interest, or any portion thereof, which is due and payable under this part either at the time the return is required to be filed, or on or before the 15th day of the ninth month following the close of the income year, is not paid on or before 6 p.m. on the last day of the 12th month after the close of the income year.

(b) If any tax, penalty, or interest, or any portion thereof, due and payable under this part upon notice and demand from the Franchise Tax Board, including that due and payable under Section 25936, is not paid on or before 6 p.m. on the last day of the 11th month following the due date of the tax.

(c) If any liability, or any portion thereof, which is due and payable under Article 5 (commencing with Section 18681) of Chapter 18 of Part 10, is not paid on or before 6 p.m. on the last day of the 11th month following the date that the tax liability is due and payable.

SEC. 1.5. Section 23301 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23301. Except for the purposes of filing an application for exempt status or amending the articles of incorporation as necessary either to perfect that application or to set forth a new name, the corporate powers, rights and privileges of a domestic taxpayer may be suspended, and the exercise of the corporate powers, rights and privileges of a foreign taxpayer in this state may be forfeited, if any of the following conditions occur:

(a) If any tax, penalty, or interest, or any portion thereof, which is due and payable under this part either at the time the return is required to be filed, or on or before the 15th day of the ninth month following the close of the income year, is not paid on or before 6 p.m.

on the last day of the 12th month after the close of the income year.

(b) If any tax, penalty, or interest, or any portion thereof, due and payable under this part upon notice and demand from the Franchise Tax Board, including that due and payable under Section 25936, is not paid on or before 6 p.m. on the last day of the 11th month following the due date of the tax.

(c) If any liability, or any portion thereof, which is due and payable under Article 7 (commencing with Section 19131) of Chapter 4 of Part 10.2, is not paid on or before 6 p.m. on the last day of the 11th month following the date that the tax liability is due and payable.

SEC. 2. Section 23301.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23301.5. Except for the purposes of filing an application for exempt status or amending the articles of incorporation as necessary either to perfect that application or to set forth a new name, the corporate powers, rights, and privileges of a domestic taxpayer may be suspended, and the exercise of the corporate powers, rights, and privileges of a foreign taxpayer in this state may be forfeited, if a taxpayer fails to file a tax return required by this part.

SEC. 3. Section 23301.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23301.6. Sections 23301, 23301.5, and 23775 shall apply to a foreign taxpayer only if the taxpayer is qualified to do business in California. A taxpayer that is required under Section 2105 of the Corporations Code to qualify to do business shall not be deemed to have qualified to do business for purposes of this article unless the taxpayer has in fact qualified with the Secretary of State.

SEC. 4. Section 23302 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23302. (a) Forfeiture or suspension of a taxpayer's powers, rights, and privileges pursuant to Section 23301, 23301.5, or 23775 shall occur and become effective only as expressly provided in this section in conjunction with Section 21020, which requires notice prior to the suspension of a taxpayer's corporate powers, rights, and privileges.

(b) The notice requirements of Section 21020 shall also apply to any forfeiture of a taxpayer's corporate powers, rights, and privileges pursuant to Section 23301, 23301.5, or 23775 and to any voidability pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 23304.1.

(c) The Franchise Tax Board shall transmit the names of taxpayers to the Secretary of State as to which the suspension or forfeiture provisions of Section 23301, 23301.5, or 23775 are or become applicable, and the suspension or forfeiture therein provided for shall thereupon become effective. The certificate of the Secretary of State shall be prima facie evidence of the suspension or forfeiture.

(d) If a taxpayer's powers, rights, and privileges are forfeited or suspended pursuant to Section 23301, 23301.5, or 23775, without limiting any other consequences of such forfeiture or suspension, the taxpayer shall not be entitled to sell, transfer, or exchange real property in California during the period of forfeiture or suspension.

SEC. 5. Section 23304.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23304.1. (a) Every contract made in this state by a taxpayer during the time that the taxpayer's corporate powers, rights, and privileges are suspended or forfeited pursuant to Section 23301, 23301.5, or 23775 shall, subject to Section 23304.5, be voidable at the instance of any party to the contract other than the taxpayer.

(b) If a foreign taxpayer that neither is qualified to do business nor has a corporate account number from the Franchise Tax Board, fails to file a tax return required under this part, any contract made in this state by that taxpayer during the applicable period specified in subdivision (c) shall, subject to Section 23304.5, be voidable at the instance of any party to the contract other than the taxpayer.

(c) For purposes of subdivision (b), the applicable period shall be the period beginning on January 1, 1991, or the first day of the income year for which the taxpayer has failed to file a return, whichever is later, and ending on the earlier of the date the taxpayer qualified to do business in this state or the date the taxpayer obtained a corporate account number from the Franchise Tax Board.

(d) If a taxpayer fails to file a tax return required under this part, to pay any tax or other amount owing to the Franchise Tax Board under this part or to file any statement or return required under Section 23772 or 23774, within 60 days after the Franchise Tax Board mails a written demand therefor, any contract made in this state by the taxpayer during the period beginning at the end of the 60-day demand period and ending on the date relief is granted under Section 23305.1, or the date the taxpayer qualifies to do business in this state, whichever is earlier, shall be voidable at the instance of any party to the contract other than the taxpayer. This subdivision shall apply only to a taxpayer if the taxpayer has a corporate account number from the Franchise Tax Board, but has not qualified to do business under Section 2105 of the Corporations Code. In the case of a taxpayer that has not complied with the 60-day demand, the taxpayer's name, Franchise Tax Board corporate account number, date of the demand, date of the first day after the end of the 60-day demand period, and the fact that the taxpayer did not within that period pay the tax or other amount or file the statement or return, as the case may be, shall be a matter of public record.

SEC. 5.5. Section 23304.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23304.1. (a) Every contract made in this state by a taxpayer during the time that the taxpayer's corporate powers, rights, and privileges are suspended or forfeited pursuant to Section 23301, 23301.5, or 23775 shall, subject to Section 23304.5, be voidable at the instance of any party to the contract other than the taxpayer.

(b) If a foreign taxpayer that neither is qualified to do business nor has a corporate account number from the Franchise Tax Board, fails to file a tax return required under this part, any contract made in this state by that taxpayer during the applicable period specified in subdivision (c) shall, subject to Section 23304.5, be voidable at the instance of any party to the contract other than the taxpayer.

(c) For purposes of subdivision (b), the applicable period shall be the period beginning on January 1, 1991, or the first day of the income year for which the taxpayer has failed to file a return, whichever is later, and ending on the earlier of the date the taxpayer qualified to do business in this state or the date the taxpayer obtained a corporate account number from the Franchise Tax Board.

(d) If a taxpayer fails to pay any tax or other amount owing to the Franchise Tax Board under this part, or to file any statement or return, required under Chapter 19 (commencing with Section 25401) or Section 23771, within 60 days after the Franchise Tax Board mails a written demand therefor, any contract made in this state by the taxpayer during the period beginning at the end of the 60-day demand period and ending on the date relief is granted under Section 23305.1, or the date the taxpayer qualifies to do business in this state, whichever is earlier, shall be voidable at the instance of any party to the contract other than the taxpayer. This subdivision shall apply only to a taxpayer if the taxpayer has a corporate account number from the Franchise Tax Board, but has not qualified to do business under Section 2105 of the Corporations Code. In the case of a taxpayer that has not complied with the 60-day demand, the taxpayer's name, Franchise Tax Board corporate account number, date of the demand, date of the first day after the end of the 60-day demand period, and the fact that the taxpayer did not within that period pay the tax or other amount or file the statement or return, as the case may be, shall be a matter of public record.

SEC. 6. Section 23305 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23305. Any taxpayer which has suffered the suspension or forfeiture provided for in Section 23301 or 23301.5 may be relieved therefrom upon making application therefor in writing to the Franchise Tax Board and upon the filing of all tax returns required under this part, and the payment of the tax, additions to tax, penalties, interest, and any other amounts for nonpayment of which the suspension or forfeiture occurred, together with all other taxes, additions to tax, penalties, interest, and any other amounts due under this part, and upon the issuance by the Franchise Tax Board of a certificate of revivor. Application for the certificate on behalf of any taxpayer which has suffered suspension or forfeiture may be made by any stockholder or creditor, by a majority of the surviving trustees or directors thereof, by an officer, or by any other person who has interest in the relief from suspension or forfeiture.

SEC. 7. Section 23305a of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23305a. Before the certificate of revivor is issued by the Franchise Tax Board, it shall obtain from the Secretary of State an endorsement upon the application of the fact that the name of the taxpayer then meets the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 201 of the Corporations Code in the case of a domestic taxpayer or of subdivision (b) of Section 2106 of the Corporations Code in the case of a foreign taxpayer that has qualified to do business. The reference to amendment of the articles of incorporation to set forth a new name contained in Sections 23301, 23301.5, and 23775 includes in the case of a foreign taxpayer the filing of an amended statement and designation to set forth its new name or to set forth an assumed name under subdivision (b) of Section 2106 of the Corporations Code. Upon the issuance of the certificate by the Franchise Tax Board the taxpayer therein named shall become reinstated but the reinstatement shall be without prejudice to any action, defense or right which has accrued by reason of the original suspension or forfeiture, except that contracts which were voidable pursuant to Section 23304.1, but which have not been rescinded pursuant to Section 23304.5, may have that voidability cured in accordance with Section 23305.1. The certificate of revivor shall be prima facie evidence of the reinstatement and the certificate may be recorded in the office of the county recorder of any county of this state.

SEC. 8. Section 23305c of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23305c. (a) Upon issuance of the certificate of revivor, the Franchise Tax Board shall transmit to the Secretary of State the revived taxpayer's name and its corporate number.

(b) The taxpayer's name and number, the fact that the taxpayer's corporate powers, rights, and privileges have been revived and the effective date of the revivor shall be a matter of public record.

(c) If the Franchise Tax Board determines that a suspension or forfeiture was in error by the Franchise Tax Board, the Franchise Tax Board shall, in connection with the revivor, indicate that the taxpayer is "restored." The status of the restored taxpayer shall be retroactive to the date of suspension or forfeiture as if there had been no suspension or forfeiture.

(d) If the Franchise Tax Board determines that the mailing of the 60-day demand notice referred to in subdivision (d) of Section 23304.1 was in error or that the Franchise Tax Board's original determination as to compliance with the 60-day demand notice was in error, the Franchise Tax Board's revised conclusions also shall be part of the public record referred to in that subdivision.

SEC. 9. Section 23305.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23305.1. (a) A taxpayer may make application to the Franchise Tax Board for relief from the voidability provisions of Section 23304.1. To be relieved from voidability, the taxpayer shall do all of the following:

(1) Provide the Franchise Tax Board with an application for relief from contract voidability in a form and manner prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board.

(2) Include on the application the period for which relief is requested, which period shall begin on the date that one of the taxpayer's income years begins and ends on the date that relief is granted.

(3) File any tax returns required to be filed under this part with the Franchise Tax Board, including returns for the period for which relief is requested.

(4) Pay any tax, additions to tax, penalties, interest, and any other amounts owing to the Franchise Tax Board, including any such liability attributable to the period for which relief is requested.

(5) Pay any penalty imposed under subdivision (b) for the period for which relief is requested.

(b) The Franchise Tax Board shall assess a daily penalty equal to one hundred dollars ($100) for each day of the period for which relief from voidability is granted, but not to exceed a total penalty equal to the amount of the tax for the period for which relief is requested. Any penalty imposed under this subdivision shall, subject to Section 23305.2, be due and payable on demand by the Franchise Tax Board.

(c) (1) Upon satisfaction of the conditions specified in subdivision (a), including through the application of Section 23305.2, the following shall apply:

(A) All contracts entered into during the period for which relief is granted that have not been rescinded by a final court order pursuant to Section 23304.5 may be enforced in the same manner and to the same extent, with regard to both the parties to the contract and any third parties, as if the contract had never been voidable.

(B) Any sale, transfer, or exchange of real property in California during the period for which relief is granted and which the taxpayer at that time was not entitled to sell, transfer, or exchange by reason of subdivision (d) of Section 23302 and which has not been rescinded by a final court order pursuant to Section 23304.5, shall be as valid as if the taxpayer had not been subject to subdivision (d) of Section 23302 at the time of the sale, transfer, or exchange.

(2) Upon being granted relief from voidability, the Franchise Tax Board shall certify that relief to the taxpayer in a form and manner as prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board. The certificate shall be issued or mailed to the taxpayer, or as directed by the taxpayer, and shall indicate the period for which relief is granted.

(d) The fact that a certificate of relief from voidability was issued pursuant to this section and the information contained on that certificate shall be subject to public disclosure. The certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the relief from voidability for contracts entered into during the period of relief stated on the certificate and the certificate may be recorded in the office of the county recorder of any county of this state.

(e) A taxpayer that applies for revivor under Section 23305 shall not be entitled to later apply for relief from voidability under this section, but must simultaneously apply for revivor and relief from voidability. A taxpayer that applies for relief from voidability under this section shall not be entitled to later apply for relief from voidability for any income year ending prior to the date of the application, but shall simultaneously apply for relief for all income years prior to that date.

(f) Subject to limitations set forth in Section 17 of Chapter 926 of the Statutes of 1990, a taxpayer that received a certificate of revivor between January 1, 1990, and January 1, 1991, may apply for relief from voidability under this section.

SEC. 10. Section 23571 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 17 of Chapter 926 of the Statutes of 1990 is amended to read:

Sec. 17. (a) No contract entered into by a taxpayer prior to the effective date of this act shall be voidable under Article 7 (commencing with Section 23301) of Chapter 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, unless the contract was entered into during the time that the taxpayer's powers, rights, and privileges in this state were forfeited or suspended by the Franchise Tax Board through notice to the Secretary of State as provided in Section 23302 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. A contract entered into after the effective date of this act by a taxpayer that has not been forfeited or suspended by the Franchise Tax Board through notice to the Secretary of State shall be voidable only to the extent expressly provided in subdivision (b) or (d) of Section 23304.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(b) A taxpayer that entered into a contract during a time when the taxpayer's powers, rights, and privileges were forfeited or suspended by the Franchise Tax Board in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 23302 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, even if the contract was entered into before the effective date of this act, shall be entitled to apply for relief from voidability pursuant to Section 23305.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code in connection with an application for revivor. A taxpayer that received a certificate of revivor after January 1, 1990, and prior to the effective date of this act, may apply for relief from voidability with respect to any contract that is voidable because the contract was entered into by the taxpayer at a time when the taxpayer's corporate powers, rights, and privileges were suspended or forfeited.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) or (b), the Legislature intends that this act shall not be construed in any manner that would affect the rights of any party to any action that has been commenced in a court of competent jurisdiction prior to the date of enactment of this act, or the rights of any such party in a subsequent action based upon the same claims as those asserted in the prior action, and that all such rights shall be determined without application of any provisions of this act, and shall be determined by the law in effect prior to the effective date of this act.

SEC. 12. This act is intended to correct and further define those provisions of law set forth in Chapter 926 of the Statutes of 1990, which became effective on January 1, 1991, and this act shall be applicable with respect to income years beginning on and after January 1, 1991.

SEC. 13. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 23301 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and SB 720. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 23301 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 720, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 14. Section 5.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 23304.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and SB 426. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 23304.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 426, in which case Section 23304.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by SB 426, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 5.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 5 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1083

An act to amend Section 76219 of, and to add Section 26608.4 to, the Government Code, relating to the judicial system, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 26608.4 is added to the Government Code, to read:

26608.4. (a) In Santa Barbara County, the board of supervisors by ordinance or resolution may transfer from the sheriff to the marshal of the Santa Barbara County Municipal Courts, the duty to serve all writs, notices, and other process issued by any state court or other competent authority.

(b) After adoption of the ordinance or resolution pursuant to subdivision (a), and notwithstanding any other provision of law, in Santa Barbara County the marshal, as provided in the ordinance or resolution, shall have the duty to serve all writs, notices, or other process issued by any state court or other competent authority, and the sheriff shall be relieved of any obligation imposed by Section 26608 and any liability imposed by Section 26663 or 26664.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting the responsibility or authority of a private person or registered process server from serving process and notices in the manner prescribed by law, nor shall it limit the authority of the sheriff or any other peace officer to serve warrants of arrest or other process specifically directed by a court to the sheriff or any other peace officer.

SEC. 2. Section 76219 of the Government Code, as added by Chapter 189 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

76219. (a) The Courthouse Construction Fund established in Los Angeles County pursuant to Section 76100 shall be known as the Robbins Courthouse Construction Fund.

(b) All courtroom construction in the County of Los Angeles which utilizes moneys from the Robbins Courthouse Construction Fund or moneys borrowed and owed against the Robbins Courthouse Construction Fund shall be within the boundaries of the San Fernando Valley Statistical Area and the Los Cerritos Municipal Court District, until the time that the County of Los Angeles has spent a total of at least forty-three million dollars ($43,000,000) on courthouse construction within the San Fernando Valley Statistical Area and at least eight million dollars ($8,000,000) within the Los Cerritos Municipal Court District for the Bellflower Courthouse.

(c) All courtroom construction in the County of Los Angeles which utilizes moneys from the Robbins Courthouse Construction Fund or moneys borrowed against the Robbins Courthouse Construction Fund shall be within the boundaries of the San Fernando Valley Statistical Area, within the boundaries of the Los Cerritos Municipal Court District, within the boundaries of the East Los Angeles Municipal Court District, within the Downey Municipal Court District, within the community of Hollywood, or within the West Los Angeles Branch of the Los Angeles Municipal Court District, until the time that the County of Los Angeles has fulfilled the requirements of subdivision (d) and has additionally spent at least sixteen million five hundred thousand dollars ($16,500,000) on courthouse construction within the East Los Angeles Municipal Court District, has spent at least ten million dollars ($10,000,000) on courthouse construction within the Downey Municipal Court District, has commenced construction on a courthouse with at least six courtrooms in the West San Fernando Valley, has commenced construction on a courthouse with at least two courtrooms in the community of Hollywood, has commenced construction on a courthouse for the superior court with at least 18 courtrooms in the North Hollywood Redevelopment Project Area of the City of Los Angeles or immediately adjacent thereto, and has commenced construction on a courthouse for the West Los Angeles Branch of the Los Angeles Municipal Court District. In the event that physical construction of the courthouse for the superior court in the North Hollywood Redevelopment Project Area of the City of Los Angeles is commenced on or before April 30, 1994, and completed within 24 months following commencement of construction, then a courthouse of at least 15 courtrooms shall be deemed to have satisfied the minimum size requirement.

(d) All courtroom construction in the County of Los Angeles which utilizes moneys from the Robbins Courthouse Construction Fund or moneys borrowed against the Robbins Courthouse Construction Fund shall be within the boundaries of the San Fernando Valley Statistical Area, within the boundaries of the Los Cerritos Municipal Court District, within the boundaries of the East Los Angeles Municipal Court District, within the Downey Municipal Court District, within the community of Hollywood, within the West Los Angeles Branch of the Los Angeles Municipal Court District, within the Pasadena Judicial District, within the Southeast Municipal Court District, within the South Bay Judicial District, within the Santa Monica Judicial District, within the Antelope Valley Judicial District, or within the Long Beach Judicial District until the time that the County of Los Angeles has fulfilled the requirements of subdivisions (b) and (c), and has commenced construction of new facilities or the expansion of existing facilities for the municipal courts in the Pasadena Judicial District, the north and south branches of the Southeast Municipal Court District, and the South Bay Judicial District, and has commenced construction of new facilities for the superior and municipal courts in the Santa Monica Judicial District, the Antelope Valley Judicial District, and the Long Beach Judicial District.

(e) For purposes of this section, the San Fernando Valley Statistical Area includes all land within the San Fernando Valley Statistical Area (as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 11093) as well as the City of San Fernando, the City of Hidden Hills, and the unincorporated areas of Los Angeles County located west of the City of Los Angeles, east and south of the Ventura County line, and north of a line extended westerly from the southern boundary of the San Fernando Valley Statistical Area (as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 11093).

(f) The moneys of the Robbins Courthouse Construction Fund together with any interest earned thereon shall be payable only for courtroom construction and land acquisition as authorized in subdivision (b) and, after the requirement of subdivision (b) has been met, shall be payable only for courtroom construction and land acquisition as authorized in subdivision (c) and, after the requirements of subdivisions (b) and (c) have been met, shall be payable only for courtroom construction and land acquisition as authorized in subdivision (d).

(g) Deposits to the fund shall continue through and including either (1) the 25th year after the initial calendar year in which the surcharge is collected or (2) whatever period of time is necessary to repay any borrowings made by the county to pay for construction provided for in this section, whichever time is longer.

(h) The resolution adopted by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles on September 2, 1980, stating that the provisions of Chapter 578 of the Statutes of 1980 are necessary to the establishment of adequate courtroom facilities in the County of Los Angeles shall be deemed a resolution stating that the provisions of this section are necessary to the establishment of adequate courtroom facilities in the county, and shall satisfy the requirements of this section.

SEC. 3. Due to unique facts and circumstances applicable to Santa Barbara County, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution. The special legislation set forth in Section 1 of this act is, therefore, necessarily applicable to only Santa Barbara County.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that (a) writs, notices, and other process issued by a state court or other competent authority are served in the most efficient manner in Santa Barbara County and (b) courthouse construction in Los Angeles County proceed in an orderly fashion without delay, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1084

An act to amend, repeal, and add Sections 25163, 25168.1, and 25169.1 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25163 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25163. (a) (1) Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (b), (c), and (f), it is unlawful for any person to carry on, or engage in, the transportation of hazardous wastes, unless the person holds a valid registration issued by the department, and it shall be unlawful for any person to transfer custody of a hazardous waste to a transporter who does not hold a valid registration issued by the department. A person who holds a valid registration issued by the department pursuant to this section is a registered hazardous waste transporter, for purposes of this chapter. Any registration issued by the department to a transporter of hazardous waste is not transferable from the person to whom it was issued to any other person.

(2) Any person who transports hazardous waste in a vehicle shall have a valid registration issued by the department in his or her possession while transporting the hazardous waste. The registration certificate shall be shown upon demand to any representative of the department, officer of the Department of the California Highway Patrol, any local health officer, or any public officer designated by the department. Any person registered pursuant to this section may obtain additional copies of the registration from the department upon the payment of a fee of two dollars ($2) for each copy requested, in accordance with Section 12196 of the Government Code.

(3) Commencing January 1, 1986, the hazardous waste information required and collected for registration pursuant to this subdivision shall be recorded and maintained in the management information system operated by the Department of the California Highway Patrol.

(b) Persons transporting only septic tank, cesspool, seepage pit, or chemical toilet waste that does not contain a hazardous waste originating from other than the body of a human or animal and who hold an unrevoked registration issued by the health officer or the health officer's authorized representative pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 25000) are exempt from the requirements of subdivision (a).

(c) Persons transporting hazardous wastes to a permitted hazardous waste facility for transfer, treatment, recycling, or disposal, which wastes do not exceed a total volume of five gallons or do not exceed a total weight of 50 pounds, are exempt from the requirements of subdivisions (a) and (e) and from the requirements of Section 25160 concerning possession of the manifest while transporting hazardous waste, upon meeting all of the following conditions:

(1) The hazardous wastes are transported in closed containers and packed in a manner that prevents the containers from tipping, spilling, or breaking during the transporting.

(2) Different hazardous waste materials are not mixed within a container during the transporting.

(3) If the hazardous waste is extremely hazardous waste or acutely hazardous waste, the extremely hazardous waste or acutely hazardous waste was not generated in the course of any business, and is not more than 2.2 pounds.

(4) The person transporting the hazardous waste is the producer of that hazardous waste, and the person produces no more than 100 kilograms of hazardous waste in any month.

(5) The person transporting the hazardous waste does not accumulate more than a total of 1,000 kilograms of hazardous waste onsite at any one time.

(d) Any person registered as a hazardous waste transporter pursuant to subdivision (a) is not subject to the registration requirements of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 25000), but shall comply with the terms, conditions, orders, and directions as the health officer or the health officer's authorized representative may deem necessary for the protection of human health and comfort, and shall otherwise comply with the requirements for statements as provided in Section 25007. Violations of those requirements of Section 25007 shall be punished as provided in Section 25010. Proof of registration pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be submitted by mail or in person to the local health officer in the city or county in which the registered hazardous waste transporter will be conducting the activities described in Section 25001.

(e) It is unlawful for any person to transport hazardous waste in any truck, trailer, semitrailer, vacuum tank, or cargo tank not inspected by the Department of the California Highway Patrol or to transport hazardous waste in any container, other than a container packaged pursuant to United States Department of Transportation regulations, which has not been inspected by the Department of the California Highway Patrol, or in a rolloff bin which has not been inspected, certified, and maintained in compliance with subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 25169.1.

(f) Any person authorized to collect solid waste, as defined in Section 40191 of the Public Resources Code, who unknowingly transports hazardous waste to a solid waste facility, as defined in Section 40194 of the Public Resources Code, incidental to the collection of solid waste is not subject to the provisions of subdivisions (a) and (e).

(g) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 25163 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25163. (a) (1) Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (b), (c), and (f), it is unlawful for any person to carry on, or engage in, the transportation of hazardous wastes, unless the person holds a valid registration issued by the department, and it shall be unlawful for any person to transfer custody of a hazardous waste to a transporter who does not hold a valid registration issued by the department. A person who holds a valid registration issued by the department pursuant to this section is a registered hazardous waste transporter, for purposes of this chapter. Any registration issued by the department to a transporter of hazardous waste is not transferable from the person to whom it was issued to any other person.

(2) Any person who transports hazardous waste in a vehicle shall have a valid registration issued by the department in his or her possession while transporting the hazardous waste. The registration certificate shall be shown upon demand to any representative of the department, officer of the Department of the California Highway Patrol, any local health officer, or any public officer designated by the department. Any person registered pursuant to this section may obtain additional copies of the registration from the department upon the payment of a fee of two dollars ($2) for each copy requested, in accordance with Section 12196 of the Government Code.

(3) The hazardous waste information required and collected for registration pursuant to this subdivision shall be recorded and maintained in the management information system operated by the Department of the California Highway Patrol.

(b) Persons transporting only septic tank, cesspool, seepage pit, or chemical toilet waste that does not contain a hazardous waste originating from other than the body of a human or animal and who hold an unrevoked registration issued by the health officer or the health officer's authorized representative pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 25000) are exempt from the requirements of subdivision (a).

(c) Persons transporting hazardous wastes to a permitted hazardous waste facility for transfer, treatment, recycling, or disposal, which wastes do not exceed a total volume of five gallons or do not exceed a total weight of 50 pounds, are exempt from the requirements of subdivisions (a) and (e) and from the requirements of Section 25160 concerning possession of the manifest while transporting hazardous waste, upon meeting all of the following conditions:

(1) The hazardous wastes are transported in closed containers and packed in a manner that prevents the containers from tipping, spilling, or breaking during the transporting.

(2) Different hazardous waste materials are not mixed within a container during the transporting.

(3) If the hazardous waste is extremely hazardous waste or acutely hazardous waste, the extremely hazardous waste or acutely hazardous waste was not generated in the course of any business, and is not more than 2.2 pounds.

(4) The person transporting the hazardous waste is the producer of that hazardous waste, and the person produces no more than 100 kilograms of hazardous waste in any month.

(5) The person transporting the hazardous waste does not accumulate more than a total of 1,000 kilograms of hazardous waste onsite at any one time.

(d) Any person registered as a hazardous waste transporter pursuant to subdivision (a) is not subject to the registration requirements of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 25000), but shall comply with the terms, conditions, orders, and directions as the health officer or the health officer's authorized representative may deem necessary for the protection of human health and comfort, and shall otherwise comply with the requirements for statements as provided in Section 25007. Violations of those requirements of Section 25007 shall be punished as provided in Section 25010. Proof of registration pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be submitted by mail or in person to the local health officer in the city or county in which the registered hazardous waste transporter will be conducting the activities described in Section 25001.

(e) It is unlawful for any person to transport hazardous waste in any truck, trailer, semitrailer, vacuum tank, or cargo tank not inspected by the Department of the California Highway Patrol or to transport hazardous waste in any container, other than a container packaged pursuant to United States Department of Transportation regulations, which has not been inspected by the Department of the California Highway Patrol.

(f) Any person authorized to collect solid waste, as defined in Section 40191 of the Public Resources Code, who unknowingly transports hazardous waste to a solid waste facility, as defined in Section 40194 of the Public Resources Code, incidental to the collection of solid waste is not subject to the provisions of subdivisions (a) and (e).

(g) This section shall become operative January 1, 1995.

SEC. 3. Section 25168.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25168.1. (a) The department shall adopt regulations for containers used to transport hazardous wastes not subject to the federal regulations contained in Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations. The Department of the California Highway Patrol shall conduct an annual inspection of every truck, trailer, semitrailer, vacuum tank, cargo tank, or container, except for any rolloff bin inspected in accordance with subdivision (b) of Section 25169.1, used by registered waste transporters to transport hazardous waste on the highways, and every related maintenance facility or terminal and any records of registered waste transporters relating to vehicle maintenance and drivers' hours of service. The inspection shall be designed to determine if each vehicle and operation thereof complies with the Vehicle Code and with regulations adopted by the Department of the California Highway Patrol under subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 34501 of the Vehicle Code, and by the department for containers used to transport hazardous waste. The Department of the California Highway Patrol shall determine whether the construction, design, equipment, and safety features of every such truck, trailer, semitrailer, vacuum tank, cargo tank, or container are in compliance with the standards which the department determines are necessary for the safe transportation of hazardous waste.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 25168.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25168.1. (a) The department shall adopt regulations for containers used to transport hazardous wastes not covered or packaged as required by federal regulations contained in Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations. The Department of the California Highway Patrol shall conduct an annual inspection of every truck, trailer, semitrailer, vacuum tank, cargo tank, or container used by registered waste transporters to transport hazardous waste on the highways, and every related maintenance facility or terminal and any records of registered waste transporters relating to vehicle maintenance and drivers' hours of service. The inspection shall be designed to determine if each vehicle and operation thereof complies with the Vehicle Code and with regulations adopted by the Department of the California Highway Patrol under subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 34501 of the Vehicle Code, and by the department for containers used to transport hazardous waste. The Department of the California Highway Patrol shall determine whether the construction, design, equipment, and safety features of every such truck, trailer, semitrailer, vacuum tank, cargo tank, or container are in compliance with the standards which the department determines are necessary for the safe transportation of hazardous waste.

(b) This section shall become operative January 1, 1995.

SEC. 5. Section 25169.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25169.1. (a) The Department of the California Highway Patrol shall inspect every truck, trailer, semitrailer, vacuum tank, cargo tank, or container which is not a rolloff bin subject to subdivision (b), used to transport hazardous waste on the highways at least once a year to ascertain whether its construction, design, equipment and safety features comply with the regulations promulgated by the department pursuant to Section 25168.1.

(b) Upon receipt of a properly completed application for a specified number of rolloff bins and payment of the required fee, in accordance with Sections 25168.4, 25168.5, and 25168.6, the department shall issue a certificate of compliance to a hazardous waste transporter for each rolloff bin applied for under subdivision (c).

The department shall determine the size, shape, color, and design of the certificate of compliance issued pursuant to this subdivision, which shall be distinctly different in size, shape, color, and design from the certificates of compliance affixed by the Department of the California Highway Patrol.

(c) A hazardous waste transporter may apply, in writing, to the department for authorization to annually inspect and self-certify rolloff bins owned by the hazardous waste transporter, if all of the following requirements are met:

(1) The rolloff bin was inspected by the Department of the California Highway Patrol before it was placed into service.

(2) The rolloff bins are used only to transport hazardous waste, except extremely hazardous waste, in a solid physical state that is not required to be labeled or placarded by the United States Department of Transportation. The department shall adopt, by regulation, a list of specific hazardous wastes which shall not be transported in rolloff bins.

(3) The hazardous waste transporter has a current satisfactory rating from the Department of the California Highway Patrol's terminal inspection for the three immediately consecutive preceding years.

(4) The department issues a letter of acknowledgment indicating approval for the hazardous waste transporter to inspect and certify the transporter's rolloff bins.

(5) The hazardous waste transporter affixes the certificate of compliance issued pursuant to subdivision (b) to the rolloff bin in a position normally visible during transportation.

(6) The hazardous waste transporter either personally inspects and self-certifies each rolloff bin or designates a specific employee to inspect and self-certify each rolloff bin.

(7) The hazardous waste transporter maintains an ability to respond to damages resulting from the operation of that business by obtaining insurance coverage in the minimum amount of one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000) of combined single limit coverage.

(8) A hazardous waste transporter who is issued a certificate of compliance pursuant to subdivision (b) shall do all of the following:

(A) The hazardous waste transporter shall document, on a form provided by the department, the inspection of each rolloff bin, noting defects and repair measures taken, and shall provide to the department a record of the certificate of compliance issued to each rolloff bin. The document shall contain a list of the inspection items specified in subparagraph (B) and the identification number of the rolloff bin, the date of inspection, the inspector's signature, the date of certification, and certificate of compliance number. The hazardous waste transporter shall retain a copy of the inspection records for each rolloff bin for three years from the date of certification, except the hazardous waste transporter shall retain these inspection records for longer than three years during the course of any unresolved enforcement action regarding hazardous waste transportation, or as requested by the department.

(B) The hazardous waste transporter shall certify that each rolloff bin has been inspected visually for all of the following and are free from all of the following defects:

(i) Cracks, holes, and broken welds.

(ii) Defects in doors and door hinges, gaskets, seals, and latching devices.

(iii) Defects in loading and securement devices of the rolloff bin.

(iv) Any other condition, including leakage, corrosion, or dents which render it unsafe for transportation service.

(C) The hazardous waste transporter shall establish an effective ongoing maintenance program that will ensure that rolloff bins are not transported while loaded in a condition less than that required for certification. The hazardous waste transporter shall retain maintenance records for each rolloff bin for a period of three years from the date the maintenance was performed, except the hazardous waste transporter shall retain these maintenance records or longer than three years during the course of any unresolved enforcement action regarding hazardous waste transportation or as requested by the department.

(d) Authorized employees of the Department of the California Highway Patrol or the department shall make random inspections of at least 25 percent of all rolloff bins in the state used to transport hazardous waste on both public and private property, and shall inspect maintenance and inspection records of rolloff bins certified pursuant to subdivision (b).

(e) In addition to the penalties specified in subdivision (f), any person who violates this section shall be punished as prescribed in Article 8 (commencing with Section 25180).

(f) A person who violates this section is subject to the following actions:

(1) For the first violation, the person is subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500) for each rolloff bin determined by the Department of the California Highway Patrol or the department to be out of compliance with the requirements of this article.

(2) For the second violation, the person is subject to a civil penalty of one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each rolloff bin determined by the Department of the California Highway Patrol or the department to be out of compliance with the requirements of this article, and the department shall immediately revoke the hazardous waste transporter's authorization to inspect and self-certify the transporter's rolloff bins, pursuant to subdivisions (b) and (c), for a period of not less than one year. The department may deny any future application that the hazardous waste transporter submits to inspect and self-certify the transporter's rolloff bins if the transporter's authorization is revoked pursuant to this section.

(3) Notwithstanding Sections 25186.1 and 25186.2, and subdivision (h), the department may immediately suspend, for a period of one year, the registration of a hazardous waste transporter, who the Department of the California Highway Patrol or the department determines is willfully violating, and is substantially out of compliance with, the requirements of this section.

(4) Any authorized employee of the Department of the California Highway Patrol or the department may remove the certificate of compliance on any rolloff bin certified pursuant to subdivision (b) which fails an inspection.

(g) Notwithstanding Section 25186.2, the department shall deny, suspend, or revoke the registration of any hazardous waste transporter pursuant to Section 25186.1 to prevent or mitigate an imminent and substantial danger to the public health or safety or the environment.

(h) No person shall transport hazardous waste on streets and highways within the State of California, unless the truck, trailer, semitrailer, vacuum tank, cargo tank, or container in which the hazardous waste is being transported displays a certificate of compliance, issued by the department, showing that the vehicle has been inspected within the last 12 months.

(i) For the purposes of this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Container" means any reusable portable tank or bin which has a capacity greater than 118.9 U.S. gallons (450 liters) and meets both of the following requirements:

(A) The container bears a permanently affixed, unique identification number or, if a container does not bear an identification number, the hazardous waste hauler affixes a permanent, unique identification number to the container.

(B) The number specified in subparagraph (A) shall be painted in characters not less than 1 inch in height or die stamped in characters not less than $\frac{3}{16}$ inch in height and shall be maintained in a legible condition.

(2) "Rolloff bin" means any box-type container used to store and transport hazardous waste, except extremely hazardous waste, that are in a solid physical state and are not subject to the labeling or placarding requirements specified in Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations. "Rolloff bin" does not include any tank, or any other packaging, built to a specification or exemption adopted by the United States Department of Transportation.

(3) "Solid physical state" means solid physical hazardous waste in which free liquids are not present.

(4) "Free liquids" means liquids which readily separate from the solid portion of a waste under ambient temperature and pressure. Free liquids are not present when a 100 milliliter representative sample of the hazardous waste can be completely retained in a standard 400 micron conical paint filter for five minutes without loss of any portion of the waste from the bottom of the filter, or if the waste meets an equivalent test approved by the department.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 6. Section 25169.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25169.1. (a) The Department of the California Highway Patrol shall inspect every truck, trailer, semitrailer, vacuum tank, cargo tank, or container used to transport hazardous waste on the highways at least once a year to ascertain whether its construction, design, equipment, and safety features comply with the regulations promulgated by the department pursuant to Section 25168.1.

(b) No person shall transport hazardous waste on streets and highways within the State of California, unless the truck, trailer, semitrailer, vacuum tank, cargo tank, or container in which the hazardous waste is being transported displays a certificate of compliance, issued by the department, showing that the vehicle has been inspected within the last 12 months.

(c) For the purposes of this section, "container" means any reusable portable tank or bin which has a capacity greater than 118.9 U.S. gallons (450 liters) and meets both of the following requirements:

(1) The container bears a permanently affixed, unique identification number or, if a container does not bear an identification number, the hazardous waste transporter affixes a permanent, unique identification number to the container.

(2) The number specified in paragraph (1) shall be painted in characters not less than 1 inch in height or die stamped in characters not less than 3/16 inch in height and shall be maintained in a legible condition.

(d) This section shall become operative January 1, 1995.

SEC. 7. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1085

An act to amend Section 40061 of the Public Resources Code, relating to solid waste.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 40061 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

40061. (a) Notwithstanding Section 40059, every local agency which does not directly charge residential households a fee for the collection, transportation, and disposal of solid waste and every local agency which directly charges residential customers a fee which represents less than 90 percent of the average cost of collecting, transporting, and disposing of residential solid waste shall, at least once every three months, arrange to inform all residential households of all of the following:

(1) The average monthly volume of solid waste produced by each residential household.

(2) The total estimated monthly cost to the local agency to collect, transport, and dispose of all solid waste produced by residential households.

(3) The average monthly cost to the local agency to collect, transport, and dispose of solid waste produced by each residential household.

(b) For the purposes of this section, "residential household" means those single and multifamily residential units which are not charged a periodic fee for the collection, transportation, and disposal of solid waste or which are assessed a periodic fee which represents less than 90 percent of the local agency's total cost of providing these services.

(c) The notification provided under subdivision (a) may, not more than twice in any calendar year, be made by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the local agency is located.

(d) Unless notification is made by publication, when possible, the notification provided under subdivision (a) shall be distributed by each local agency to residential households in a manner that results in no distribution costs to the local agency in excess of distribution costs otherwise incurred for other purposes.

CHAPTER 1086

An act to amend Sections 6300, 6307, and 6308 of the Water Code, relating to water, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6300 of the Water Code is amended to read:

6300. (a) The application for a new dam or reservoir or enlargement shall set forth the estimated cost, as defined in this article, of the dam or reservoir or enlargement and shall be accompanied by a filing fee based upon the estimated cost and according to the following schedule:

(1) For the first three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000), a fee of 3 percent of the estimated cost.

(2) For the next seven hundred thousand dollars ($700,000), a fee of 2 percent.

(3) For the next one million dollars ($1,000,000), a fee of 1½ percent.

(4) For the next one million dollars ($1,000,000), a fee of 1¼ percent.

(5) For the next two million dollars ($2,000,000), a fee of 1 percent.

(6) For the next two million dollars ($2,000,000), a fee of three-fourths of 1 percent.

(7) For all costs in excess of seven million dollars ($7,000,000), a fee of one-half of 1 percent.

(b) In no case, however, shall the minimum fee be less than three hundred dollars ($300).

SEC. 2. Section 6307 of the Water Code is amended to read:

6307. (a) An annual fee shall be paid on or before December 31,

1970, and on or before December 31 of each succeeding year, based upon the height of the dam, including all enlargements thereto, substantially completed by or in operation on June 30, 1970, and on June 30 each succeeding year. The annual fee shall be one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) plus twelve dollars ($12) per foot of height of the dam, and shall be increased pursuant to the following schedule:

Calendar year	Fee Per Dam	Fee Per Foot of Height
1993	$150	$16
1997	$200	$24

(b) For purposes of this section, height of the dam means the vertical distance, to the nearest foot, from the natural bed of the stream or watercourse at the downstream toe of the barrier, as determined by the department, or from the lowest elevation of the outside limit of the barrier, as determined by the department, if it is not across a stream channel or watercourse, to the maximum possible water storage elevation.

SEC. 3. Section 6308 of the Water Code is amended to read:

6308. All fees and other charges collected under this part shall be paid into the State Treasury immediately after the department has certified as to the correctness of the amounts received and made any adjustments necessary, and shall be used by the department, upon appropriation, to carry out this part.

SEC. 4. The sum of one million one hundred thousand dollars ($1,100,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Water Resources for 1991–92 fiscal year to carry out Part 1 (commencing the Section 6000) of Division 3 of the Water Code.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the California Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to protect the public health and safety at the earliest possible opportunity, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1087

An act to amend Section 23186 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 23186 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23186. (a) For income years ending in 1987, the rate of tax on banks and financial corporations shall be a percentage equal to the percentage of the total amount of net income derived from or attributable to sources in this state, of every corporation taxable under Article 2 (commencing with Section 23151) of this chapter, other than public utilities as defined in the Public Utilities Act, for the next preceding calendar year or fiscal years ended during that calendar year, required to be paid to this state as franchise taxes according to or measured by net income, and required to be paid to this state or its political subdivisions by the corporations as personal property taxes and business license taxes during the preceding calendar year or fiscal years ended in that calendar year; provided, however, that the rate of tax shall not exceed 11.7 percent. The percentage of the net income of every corporation taxable under Article 2 (commencing with Section 23151) of this chapter, other than public utilities as defined in the Public Utilities Act, required to be paid to this state or its political subdivisions in personal property taxes and business license taxes shall be determined by ascertaining the ratio which the total amount of the personal property taxes and business license taxes, less the rate prescribed in Section 23151, bears to the total amount of net income of the corporations derived from or attributable to sources in California, increased by the amount of the personal property taxes and business license taxes; provided, however, that if any corporation sustains a net loss derived from or attributable to sources in California the personal property taxes and business license taxes required to be paid by the corporation to this state or its political subdivisions during the preceding calendar year or fiscal years ended during the calendar year shall be considered for the purpose of determining the ratio only to the extent which the personal property taxes and business license taxes exceed the net loss derived from or attributable to sources in California. Total amounts of net income shall be determined without regard to deductions attributable to carryover or carryback of net operating losses (if any).

(b) For income years ending in 1988 and before December 31, 1995, the rate of tax on banks and financial corporations shall be the lesser of 11.7 percent or a percentage equal to the sum of:

(1) The rate of tax specified in Section 23151 (relating to tax on general corporations), and

(2) The "in-lieu" rate, as defined by subdivision (c) or (e).

(c) For income years ending before 1992, the "in-lieu" rate is defined as a fraction:

(1) The numerator of which is the total amount required to be paid to this state and its political subdivisions as personal property taxes and business license taxes; and

(2) The denominator of which is the total amount of net income derived from or attributable to sources in this state, by every corporation taxable under Article 2 (commencing with Section 23151) of this chapter, other than public utilities as defined in the Public Utilities Act, for the year preceding the income year.

(3) For purposes of computing the "in-lieu" rate:

(A) Personal property and business license taxes paid by corporations whose net income is a loss for the year shall be included in the numerator only to the extent that the amount of personal property and business license taxes exceed that loss.

(B) After applying subparagraph (A), the numerator shall be reduced by the amount of tax savings that are attributable to the deduction of those taxes under this part.

(C) The denominator shall be increased to the extent that personal property and business license taxes paid were deducted in arriving at net income, and to the extent of any net operating loss deductions.

(d) For income years ending in 1982 and before 1992, for the purposes of subdivision (c), the total amount of personal property taxes and business license taxes required to be paid during the income year shall be based on a statistical sample by the Franchise Tax Board, consisting of all of the following:

(1) Every corporation with a net income determined without regard to deductions attributable to carryover or carryback of net operating losses (if any) of more than five million dollars ($5,000,000) for the income year.

(2) Every corporation required to pay one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or more of personal property tax or business license tax, or a combination thereof, during the income year.

(3) Two percent or more of all other corporations on a random basis.

For the purposes of this subdivision, "corporation" means a corporation taxable under Article 2 (commencing with Section 23151), other than public utilities as defined in the Public Utilities Act.

(e) For income years ending after 1991, the "in-lieu" rate is defined as follows:

(1) For income years ending after 1991 and before December 1, 1995, the "in-lieu" rate is defined as a fraction which is multiplied by an adjustment factor equal to 0.51535. The fraction is as follows:

(A) The numerator is the total amount required to be paid to the political subdivisions of this state as personal property taxes and business license taxes, decreased by the product of the franchise tax rate and the total amount required to be paid to the political subdivisions of this state as personal property taxes and business license taxes.

(i) Personal property taxes required to be paid to the political subdivisions of this state shall be the statewide locally assessed personal property taxes reported by the State Board of Equalization for the state's fiscal year ending in the calendar year prior to the beginning of the bank tax rate year.

(ii) Business license taxes required to be paid to the political subdivisions of this state shall be the statewide locally assessed business license taxes reported by the Controller's office for the state's fiscal year ending in two calendar years prior to the beginning of the bank tax rate year.

(B) The denominator is the total amount of net income derived from or attributable to sources in this state, by every corporation taxable under Article 2 (commencing with Section 23151), other than public utilities, as defined in the Public Utilities Act, for income years ending in three calendar years prior to the beginning of the bank tax rate year, determined pursuant to information compiled from tax returns filed with the Franchise Tax Board, increased by the total amount required to be paid to the political subdivisions of this state as personal property taxes and business license taxes.

(2) In no case shall the "in-lieu" rate calculated pursuant to paragraph (1) be less than 1.3 percent.

(f) For income years ending on or after December 31, 1995, the rate shall be the rate of tax specified in Section 23151, plus 2 percent.

(g) For the purpose of verifying local business license taxes reported by corporations taxable under Article 2 (commencing with Section 23151), other than public utilities as defined in the Public Utilities Act, the Franchise Tax Board is authorized to receive source information listings directly from the cities as to the amount of business license taxes paid and the date of payment for each taxpayer subject to the business license tax, notwithstanding any city ordinance prohibiting that disclosure.

(h) If, after notice and demand by the Franchise Tax Board, a taxpayer declines or refuses to furnish the Franchise Tax Board with information regarding personal property taxes, business license taxes, or net income required to determine the rate of tax on banks and financial corporations as provided by this section, then in that event, unless the failure is due to reasonable cause, the Franchise Tax Board shall disallow any deductions claimed by a taxpayer for the applicable period for personal property taxes and business license taxes and a penalty of five thousand dollars ($5,000) shall be assessed.

(i) For purposes of this section, "bank tax rate year" means the calendar year in which the taxpayer's income year ends.

SEC. 2. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1088

An act to amend Sections 46500 and 46501 of the Public Resources Code, relating to landfills.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 46500 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

46500. (a) The board shall annually grant or allocate funds from the account to the state water board, as determined necessary by the board and consistent with legislative direction, to assist in the support of solid waste landfill permit inspection and enforcement programs related to landfills carried out by regional water boards pursuant to Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code.

(b) The board shall apportion the funds generally to reflect population, number of solid waste landfills, and the weight of solid waste disposed of within a regional water board's jurisdiction.

SEC. 2. Section 46501 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

46501. The state water board shall expend its annual apportionment made pursuant to Section 46500 exclusively for the purposes of the apportionment. The state water board shall expend its annual apportionment in accordance with an interagency agreement with the board.

CHAPTER 1089

An act to amend Sections 1725 and 1747.8 of the Civil Code, relating to consumers, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1725 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1725. (a) Unless permitted under subdivision (c), no person accepting a negotiable instrument as payment in full or in part for goods or services sold or leased at retail shall do any of the following:

(1) Require the person paying with a negotiable instrument to provide a credit card as a condition of acceptance of the negotiable instrument, or record the number of the credit card.

(2) Require, as a condition of acceptance of the negotiable instrument, or cause the person paying with a negotiable instrument to sign a statement agreeing to allow his or her credit card to be charged to cover the negotiable instrument if returned as no good.

(3) Record a credit card number in connection with any part of the transaction described in this subdivision.

(4) Contact a credit card issuer to determine if the amount of any credit available to the person paying with a negotiable instrument will cover the amount of the negotiable instrument.

(b) For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

(1) "Check guarantee card" means a card issued by a financial institution, evidencing an agreement under which the financial institution will not dishonor a check drawn upon itself, under the terms and conditions of the agreement.

(2) "Credit card" has the meaning specified in Section 1747.02, and does not include a check guarantee card or a card that is both a credit card and a check guarantee card.

(3) "Negotiable instrument" has the meaning specified in Section 3104 of the Commercial Code.

(4) "Retail" means a transaction involving the sale or lease of goods or services or both, between an individual, corporation, or other entity regularly engaged in business and a consumer, for use by the consumer and not for resale.

(c) This section does not prohibit any person from doing any of the following:

(1) Requiring the production of reasonable forms of positive identification, other than a credit card, which may include a driver's license or a California state identification card, as a condition of acceptance of a negotiable instrument.

(2) Requesting, but not requiring, a purchaser to voluntarily display a credit card as an indicia of creditworthiness or financial responsibility, or as an additional identification, provided the only information concerning the credit card which is recorded is the type of credit card displayed, the issuer of the card, and the expiration date of the card. All retailers that request the display of a credit card pursuant to this paragraph shall inform the customer, by either of the following methods, that displaying the credit card is not a requirement for check writing:

(A) By posting the following notice in a conspicuous location in the unobstructed view of the public within the premises where the check is being written, clearly and legibly: "Check writing ID: credit card may be requested but not required for purchases."

(B) By training and requiring the sales clerks or retail employees requesting the credit card to inform all check writing customers that they are not required to display a credit card to write a check.

(3) Requesting production of, or recording, a credit card number as a condition for cashing a negotiable instrument that is being used solely to receive cash back from the person.

(4) Requesting, receiving, or recording a credit card number in lieu of requiring a deposit to secure payment in event of default, loss, damage, or other occurrence.

(5) Requiring, verifying, and recording the purchaser's name, address, and telephone number.

(6) Requesting or recording a credit card number on a negotiable instrument used to make a payment on that credit card account.

(d) This section does not require acceptance of a negotiable instrument whether or not a credit card is presented.

(e) Any person who violates this section is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for a first violation, and to a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) for a second or subsequent violation, to be assessed and collected in a civil action brought by the person paying with a negotiable instrument, by the Attorney General, or by the district attorney or city attorney of the county or city in which the violation occurred. However, no civil penalty shall be assessed for a violation of this section if the defendant shows by a preponderance of the evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error made notwithstanding the defendant's maintenance of procedures reasonably adopted to avoid such an error. When collected, the civil penalty shall be payable, as appropriate, to the person paying with a negotiable instrument who brought the action or to the general fund of whichever governmental entity brought the action to assess the civil penalty.

(f) The Attorney General, or any district attorney or city attorney within his or her respective jurisdiction, may bring an action in the superior court in the name of the people of the State of California to enjoin violation of subdivision (a) and, upon notice to the defendant of not less than five days, to temporarily restrain and enjoin the violation. If it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant has, in fact, violated subdivision (a), the court may issue an injunction restraining further violations, without requiring proof that any person has been damaged by the violation. In these proceedings, if the court finds that the defendant has violated subdivision (a), the court may direct the defendant to pay any or all costs incurred by the Attorney General, district attorney, or city attorney in seeking or obtaining injunctive relief pursuant to this subdivision.

(g) Actions for collection of civil penalties under subdivision (e) and for injunctive relief under subdivision (f) may be consolidated.

SEC. 2. Section 1747.8 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1747.8. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), no person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation which accepts credit cards for the transaction of business shall do any of the following:

(1) Request, or require as a condition to accepting the credit card as payment in full or in part for goods or services, the cardholder to write any personal identification information upon the credit card transaction form or otherwise.

(2) Request, or require as a condition to accepting the credit card as payment in full or in part for goods or services, the cardholder to provide personal identification information, which the person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation accepting the credit card writes, causes to be written, or otherwise records upon the credit card transaction form or otherwise.

(3) Utilize, in any credit card transaction, a credit card form which contains preprinted spaces specifically designated for filling in any personal identification information of the cardholder.

(b) For purposes of this section "personal identification information," means information concerning the cardholder, other than information set forth on the credit card, and including, but not limited to, the cardholder's address and telephone number.

(c) Subdivision (a) does not apply in the following instances:

(1) When the credit card is being used as a deposit to secure payment in the event of default, loss, damage, or other similar occurrence.

(2) Cash advance transactions.

(3) When the person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation accepting the credit card is contractually obligated to provide personal identification information in order to complete the credit card transaction.

(4) When personal identification information is required for a special purpose incidental but related to the individual credit card transaction, including, but not limited to, information relating to shipping, delivery, servicing, or installation of the purchased merchandise, or for special orders.

(d) This section does not prohibit any person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation from requiring the cardholder, as a condition to accepting the credit card as payment in full or in part for goods or services, to provide reasonable forms of positive identification, which may include a driver's license or a California state identification card, provided that none of the information contained thereon is written or recorded on the credit card transaction form or otherwise.

(e) Any person who violates this section shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for the first violation and one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each subsequent violation, to be assessed and collected in a civil action brought by the person paying with a credit card, by the Attorney General, or by the district attorney or city attorney of the county or city in which the violation occurred. However, no civil penalty shall be assessed for a violation of this section if the defendant shows by a preponderance of the evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error made notwithstanding the defendant's maintenance of procedures reasonably adopted to avoid such an error. When collected, the civil penalty shall be payable, as appropriate, to the person paying with a credit card who brought the action, or to the general fund of whichever governmental entity brought the action to assess the civil penalty.

(f) The Attorney General, or any district attorney or city attorney within his or her respective jurisdiction, may bring an action in the superior court in the name of the people of the State of California to enjoin violation of subdivision (a) and, upon notice to the defendant of not less than five days, to temporarily restrain and enjoin the violation. If it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant has, in fact, violated subdivision (a), the court may issue an injunction restraining further violations, without requiring proof that any person has been damaged by the violation. In these proceedings, if the court finds that the defendant has violated subdivision (a), the court may direct the defendant to pay any or all costs incurred by the Attorney General, district attorney, or city attorney in seeking or obtaining injunctive relief pursuant to this subdivision.

(g) Actions for collection of civil penalties under subdivision (e) and for injunctive relief under subdivision (f) may be consolidated.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

It is imperative to provide clarification as to the intent of existing California law, to allow retailers to be able to effectively comply with the law's provisions and avoid undue civil penalties. It is therefore necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1090

An act to amend Section 2475 of the Civil Code, to amend Sections 484.330, 585.5, 586, 685.030, 1005, 1094.5, 1094.6, 1952, 1952.2, 1952.3, 2024, 2025, 2030, 2031, and 2033 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to amend Section 1560 of the Evidence Code, and to amend Sections 26849.1, 26883, 29390, 69504.6, 69844.5, 69845.5, and 70048 of the Government Code, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2475 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2475. The following statutory form of power of attorney is legally sufficient when the requirements of Section 2476 are satisfied:

BY ACCEPTING OR ACTING UNDER THE APPOINTMENT, THE AGENT ASSUMES THE FIDUCIARY AND OTHER LEGAL RESPONSIBILITIES OF AN AGENT.

SEC. 2. Section 484.330 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

484.330. No writ of attachment shall be issued under this article except after a hearing. At least 15 days prior to the hearing, the defendant shall be served with both of the following:

(a) A notice of application and hearing.

(b) A copy of the application.

SEC. 3. Section 585.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

585.5. (a) Every application to enter default under subdivision (a) of Section 585 shall include, or be accompanied by, an affidavit stating facts showing that the action is or is not subject to Section 1812.10 or 2984.4 of the Civil Code or subdivision (b) of Section 395.

(b) When a default or default judgment has been entered without full compliance with Section 1812.10 or 2984.4 of the Civil Code, or subdivision (b) of Section 395, the defendant may serve and file a notice of motion to set aside the default or default judgment and for leave to defend the action in the proper court. The notice of motion shall be served and filed within 60 days after the defendant first receives notice of levy under a writ of execution, or notice of any other procedure for enforcing, the default judgment.

(c) A notice of motion to set aside a default or default judgment and for leave to defend the action in the proper court shall designate as the time for making the motion a date prescribed by subdivision (b) of Section 1005, and it shall be accompanied by an affidavit showing under oath that the action was not commenced in the proper court according to Section 1812.10 or 2984.4 of the Civil Code or subdivision (b) of Section 395. The party shall serve and file with the notice a copy of the answer, motion, or other pleading proposed to be filed in the action.

(d) Upon a finding by the court that the motion was made within the period permitted by subdivision (b) and that the action was not commenced in the proper court, it shall set aside the default or default judgment on such terms as may be just and shall allow such a party to defend the action in the proper court.

(e) Unless the plaintiff can show that the plaintiff used reasonable diligence to avoid filing the action in the improper court, upon a finding that the action was commenced in the improper court the court shall award the defendant actual damages and costs, including reasonable attorney's fees.

SEC. 4. Section 586 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

586. In the following cases the same proceedings shall be had, and judgment shall be rendered in the same manner, as if the defendant had failed to answer:

1. If the complaint has been amended, and the defendant fails to answer it, as amended, or demur thereto, or file a notice of motion to strike, of the character specified in Section 585, within 30 days after service thereof or within the time allowed by the court.

2. If the demurrer to the complaint is overruled and a motion to strike, of the character specified in Section 585, is denied, or where only one thereof is filed, if the demurrer is overruled or the motion to strike is denied, and the defendant fails to answer the complaint within the time allowed by the court.

3. If a motion to strike, of the character specified in Section 585, is granted in whole or in part, and the defendant fails to answer the unstricken portion of the complaint within the time allowed by the court, no demurrer having been sustained or being then pending.

4. If a motion to quash service of summons or to stay or dismiss, the action has been filed or writ of mandate sought and notice thereof given, as provided in Section 418.10, and upon denial of such motion or writ, defendant fails to respond to the complaint, within the time provided in such section or as otherwise provided by law.

5. If the demurrer to the answer is sustained and the defendant fails to amend the answer within the time allowed by the court.

6. (a) If a motion to transfer pursuant to Section 396b is denied and the defendant fails to respond to the complaint within the time allowed by the court pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 396b or within the time provided in subdivision (c).

(b) If a motion to transfer pursuant to Section 396b is granted and the defendant fails to respond to the complaint within 30 days of the mailing of notice of the filing and case number by the clerk of the court to which the action or proceeding is transferred or within the time provided in subdivision (c).

(c) If the order granting or denying a motion to transfer pursuant to Section 396a or 396b is the subject of an appeal pursuant to Section 904.2 or 904.3 in which a stay is granted or of a mandate proceeding pursuant to Section 400, the court having jurisdiction over the trial, upon application or on its own motion after such appeal or mandate proceeding becomes final or upon earlier termination of a stay, shall allow the defendant a reasonable time to respond to the complaint. Notice of the order allowing the defendant further time to respond to the complaint shall be promptly served by the party who obtained such order or by the clerk if the order is made on the court's own motion.

(d) For the purposes of this section, "to respond" means: to answer, to demur, or to move to strike.

7. If a motion to strike the answer in whole, of the character specified in Section 585, is granted without leave to amend, or if a motion to strike the answer in whole or in part, of the character specified in Section 585, is granted with leave to amend and the defendant fails to amend the answer within the time allowed by the court.

SEC. 4.5. Section 685.030 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

685.030. (a) If a money judgment is satisfied in full pursuant to a writ under this title, interest ceases to accrue on the judgment:

(1) If the proceeds of collection are paid in a lump sum, on the date of levy.

(2) In any other case, on the date the proceeds of sale or collection are actually received by the levying officer.

(b) If a money judgment is satisfied in full other than pursuant to a writ under this title, interest ceases to accrue on the date the judgment is satisfied in full.

(c) If a money judgment is partially satisfied pursuant to a writ under this title or is otherwise partially satisfied, interest ceases to accrue as to the part satisfied on the date the part is satisfied.

(d) For the purposes of subdivisions (b) and (c), the date a money judgment is satisfied in full or in part is the earliest of the following times:

(1) The date satisfaction is actually received by the judgment creditor.

(2) The date satisfaction is tendered to the judgment creditor or deposited in court for the judgment creditor.

(3) The date of any other performance that has the effect of satisfaction.

(e) The clerk of a municipal or justice court may enter in the Register of Actions a writ of execution on a money judgment as returned wholly satisfied when the judgment amount, as specified on the writ, is fully collected and only an interest deficit of no more than ten dollars ($10) exists, due to automation of the continual daily interest accrual calculation.

SEC. 5. Section 1005 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1005. (a) Written notice shall be given, as prescribed in subdivision (b), for the following motions:

(1) Notice of Application and Hearing for Writ of Attachment under Section 484.040.

(2) Notice of Application and Hearing for Claim and Delivery under Section 512.030.

(3) Notice of Hearing for Claim of Exemption under Section 706.105.

(4) Motion to Quash Summons pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 418.10.

(5) Motion for Determination of Good Faith Settlement pursuant to Section 877.6.

(6) Hearing for Discovery of Peace Officer Personnel Records pursuant to Section 1043 of the Evidence Code.

(7) Notice of Hearing of Third-Party Claim pursuant to Section 720.320.

(8) Motion for an Order to Attend Deposition more than 150 miles from deponent's residence pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 2025.

(9) Notice of Hearing of Application for Relief pursuant to Section 946.6 of the Government Code.

(10) Motion to Set Aside Default or Default Judgment and for Leave to Defend Actions pursuant to Section 473.5.

(11) Motion to Expunge Notice of Pendency of Action pursuant to Section 409.1.

(12) Motion to Set Aside Default and for Leave to Amend pursuant to Section 585.5.

(13) Any other proceeding under this code in which notice is required and no other time or method is prescribed by law or by court or judge.

(b) Unless otherwise ordered or specifically provided by law, all moving and supporting papers shall be served and filed at least 15 calendar days before the time appointed for the hearing. However, if the notice is served by mail, the required 15-day period of notice before the time appointed for the hearing shall be increased by five days if the place of mailing and the place of address are within the State of California, 10 days if either the place of mailing or the place of address is outside the State of California but within the United States, and 20 days if either the place of mailing or the place of address is outside the United States. Subdivision (a) of Section 1013, which extends the time within which a right may be exercised or an act may be done, does not apply to a notice of motion governed by this section. All papers opposing a motion so noticed shall be filed with the court and served on each party at least five court days, and all reply papers at least two court days before the time appointed for the hearing.

The court, or a judge thereof, may prescribe a shorter time.

SEC. 5.5. Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1094.5. (a) Where the writ is issued for the purpose of inquiring into the validity of any final administrative order or decision made as the result of a proceeding in which by law a hearing is required to be given, evidence is required to be taken, and discretion in the determination of facts is vested in the inferior tribunal, corporation, board, or officer, the case shall be heard by the court sitting without a jury. All or part of the record of the proceedings before the inferior tribunal, corporation, board, or officer may be filed with the petition, may be filed with respondent's points and authorities, or may be ordered to be filed by the court. Except when otherwise prescribed by statute, the cost of preparing the record shall be borne by the petitioner. Where the petitioner has proceeded pursuant to Section 68511.3 of the Government Code and the Rules of Court implementing that section and where the transcript is necessary to a proper review of the administrative proceedings, the cost of preparing the transcript shall be borne by the respondent. Where the party seeking the writ has proceeded pursuant to Section 1088.5, the administrative record shall be filed as expeditiously as possible, and may be filed with the petition, or by the respondent after payment of the costs by the petitioner, where required, or as otherwise directed by the court. If the expense of preparing all or any part of the record has been borne by the prevailing party, the expense shall be taxable as costs.

(b) The inquiry in such a case shall extend to the questions whether the respondent has proceeded without, or in excess of jurisdiction; whether there was a fair trial; and whether there was any prejudicial abuse of discretion. Abuse of discretion is established if the respondent has not proceeded in the manner required by law, the order or decision is not supported by the findings, or the findings are not supported by the evidence.

(c) Where it is claimed that the findings are not supported by the evidence, in cases in which the court is authorized by law to exercise its independent judgment on the evidence, abuse of discretion is established if the court determines that the findings are not supported by the weight of the evidence. In all other cases, abuse of discretion is established if the court determines that the findings are not supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (c), in cases arising from private hospital boards or boards of directors of districts organized pursuant to The Local Hospital District Law, Division 23 (commencing with Section 32000) of the Health and Safety Code, abuse of discretion is established if the court determines that the findings are not supported by substantial evidence in the light of the whole record. However, in all cases in which the petition alleges discriminatory actions prohibited by Section 1316 of the Health and Safety Code, and the plaintiff makes a preliminary showing of substantial evidence in support of that allegation, the court shall exercise its independent judgment on the evidence and abuse of discretion shall be established if the court determines that the findings are not supported by the weight of the evidence.

(e) Where the court finds that there is relevant evidence which, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, could not have been produced or which was improperly excluded at the hearing before respondent, it may enter judgment as provided in subdivision (f) remanding the case to be reconsidered in the light of that evidence; or, in cases in which the court is authorized by law to exercise its independent judgment on the evidence, the court may admit the evidence at the hearing on the writ without remanding the case.

(f) The court shall enter judgment either commanding respondent to set aside the order or decision, or denying the writ. Where the judgment commands that the order or decision be set aside, it may order the reconsideration of the case in the light of the court's opinion and judgment and may order respondent to take such further action as is specially enjoined upon it by law, but the judgment shall not limit or control in any way the discretion legally vested in the respondent.

(g) Except as provided in subdivision (h), the court in which proceedings under this section are instituted may stay the operation of the administrative order or decision pending the judgment of the court, or until the filing of a notice of appeal from the judgment or until the expiration of the time for filing the notice, whichever occurs first. However, no such stay shall be imposed or continued if the court is satisfied that it is against the public interest; provided that the application for the stay shall be accompanied by proof of service of a copy of the application on the respondent. Service shall be made in the manner provided by Title 5 (commencing with Section 405) of Part 2 or Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1010) of Title 14 of Part 2. If an appeal is taken from a denial of the writ, the order or decision of the agency shall not be stayed except upon the order of the court to which the appeal is taken. However, in cases where a stay is in effect at the time of filing the notice of appeal, the stay shall be continued by operation of law for a period of 20 days from the filing of the notice. If an appeal is taken from the granting of the writ, the order or decision of the agency is stayed pending the determination of the appeal unless the court to which the appeal is taken shall otherwise order. Where any final administrative order or decision is the subject of proceedings under this section, if the petition shall have been filed while the penalty imposed is in full force and effect, the determination shall not be considered to have become moot in cases where the penalty imposed by the administrative agency has been completed or complied with during the pendency of the proceedings.

(h) (1) The court in which proceedings under this section are instituted may stay the operation of the administrative order or decision of any licensed hospital or any state agency made after a hearing required by statute to be conducted under the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, as set forth in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, conducted by the agency itself or an administrative law judge on the staff of the Office of Administrative Hearings pending the judgment of the court, or until the filing of a notice of appeal from the judgment or until the expiration of the time for filing the notice, whichever occurs first. However, the stay shall not be imposed or continued unless the court is satisfied that the public interest will not suffer and that the licensed hospital or agency is unlikely to prevail ultimately on the merits; and provided further that the application for the stay shall be accompanied by proof of service of a copy of the application on the respondent. Service shall be made in the manner provided by Title 5 (commencing with Section 405) of Part 2 or Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1010) of Title 14 of Part 2.

(2) The standard set forth in this subdivision for obtaining a stay shall apply to any administrative order or decision of an agency which issues licenses pursuant to Division 2 (commencing with Section 500) of the Business and Professions Code or pursuant to the Osteopathic Initiative Act or the Chiropractic Initiative Act. With respect to orders or decisions of other state agencies, the standard in this subdivision shall apply only when the agency has adopted the proposed decision of the administrative law judge in its entirety or has adopted the proposed decision but reduced the proposed penalty pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 11517 of the Government Code; otherwise the standard in subdivision (g) shall apply.

(3) If an appeal is taken from a denial of the writ, the order or decision of the hospital or agency shall not be stayed except upon the order of the court to which the appeal is taken. However, in cases where a stay is in effect at the time of filing the notice of appeal, the stay shall be continued by operation of law for a period of 20 days from the filing of the notice. If an appeal is taken from the granting of the writ, the order or decision of the hospital or agency is stayed pending the determination of the appeal unless the court to which the appeal is taken shall otherwise order. Where any final administrative order or decision is the subject of proceedings under this section, if the petition shall have been filed while the penalty imposed is in full force and effect, the determination shall not be considered to have become moot in cases where the penalty imposed by the administrative agency has been completed or complied with during the pendency of the proceedings.

(i) Any administrative record received for filing by the clerk of the court may be disposed of as provided in Sections 1952, 1952.2, and 1952.3.

SEC. 6. Section 1094.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1094.6. (a) Judicial review of any decision of a local agency, other than school district, as the term local agency is defined in Section 54951 of the Government Code, or of any commission, board, officer or agent thereof, may be had pursuant to Section 1094.5 of this code only if the petition for writ of mandate pursuant to such section is filed within the time limits specified in this section.

(b) Any such petition shall be filed not later than the 90th day following the date on which the decision becomes final. If there is no provision for reconsideration of the decision, or for a written decision or written findings supporting the decision, in any applicable provision of any statute, charter, or rule, for the purposes of this section, the decision is final on the date it is announced. If the decision is not announced at the close of the hearing, the date, time, and place of the announcement of the decision shall be announced at the hearing. If there is a provision for reconsideration, the decision is final for purposes of this section upon the expiration of the period during which such reconsideration can be sought; provided, that if reconsideration is sought pursuant to any such provision the decision is final for the purposes of this section on the date that reconsideration is rejected. If there is a provision for a written decision or written findings, the decision is final for purposes of this section upon the date it is mailed by first-class mail, postage prepaid, including a copy of the affidavit or certificate of mailing, to the party seeking the writ. Subdivision (a) of Section 1013 does not apply to extend the time, following deposit in the mail of the decision or findings, within which a petition shall be filed.

(c) The complete record of the proceedings shall be prepared by the local agency or its commission, board, officer, or agent which made the decision and shall be delivered to the petitioner within 90 days after he has filed a written request therefor. The local agency may recover from the petitioner its actual costs for transcribing or otherwise preparing the record. Such record shall include the transcript of the proceedings, all pleadings, all notices and orders, any proposed decision by a hearing officer, the final decision, all admitted exhibits, all rejected exhibits in the possession of the local agency or its commission, board, officer, or agent, all written evidence, and any other papers in the case.

(d) If the petitioner files a request for the record as specified in subdivision (c) within 10 days after the date the decision becomes final as provided in subdivision (b), the time within which a petition pursuant to Section 1094.5 may be filed shall be extended to not later than the 30th day following the date on which the record is either personally delivered or mailed to the petitioner or his attorney of record, if he has one.

(e) As used in this section, decision means a decision subject to review pursuant to Section 1094.5, suspending, demoting, or dismissing an officer or employee, revoking, or denying an application for a permit, license, or other entitlement, or denying an application for any retirement benefit or allowance.

(f) In making a final decision as defined in subdivision (e), the local agency shall provide notice to the party that the time within which judicial review must be sought is governed by this section.

As used in this subdivision, "party" means an officer or employee who has been suspended, demoted or dismissed; a person whose permit, license, or other entitlement has been revoked or suspended, or whose application for a permit, license, or other entitlement has been denied; or a person whose application for a retirement benefit or allowance has been denied.

(g) This section shall be applicable to a local agency only if the governing board thereof adopts an ordinance or resolution making this section applicable. If such ordinance or resolution is adopted, the provisions of this section shall prevail over any conflicting provision in any otherwise applicable law relating to the subject matter, unless the conflicting provision is a state or federal law which provides a shorter statute of limitations, in which case the shorter statute of limitations shall apply.

SEC. 7. Section 1952 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1952. (a) The clerk shall retain in his or her custody any exhibit, deposition, or administrative record introduced in the trial of a civil action or proceeding or filed in the action or proceeding until the final determination thereof or the dismissal of the action or proceeding, except that the court may order the exhibit, deposition, or administrative record returned to the respective party or parties at any time upon oral stipulation in open court or by written stipulation by the parties or for good cause shown.

(b) No exhibit or deposition shall be ordered destroyed or otherwise disposed of pursuant to this section where a party to the action or proceeding files a written notice with the court requesting the preservation of any exhibit, deposition, or administrative record for a stated time, but not to exceed one year.

(c) Upon the conclusion of the trial of a civil action or proceeding at which any exhibit or deposition has been introduced, the court shall order that the exhibit or deposition be destroyed or otherwise disposed of by the clerk. The operative destruction or disposition date shall be 60 days following final determination of the action or proceeding. Final determination includes final determination on appeal. Written notice of the order shall be sent by first-class mail to the parties by the clerk.

(d) Upon the conclusion of any posttrial hearing at which any exhibit, deposition, or administrative record has been introduced, the court shall order that the exhibit or deposition be destroyed or otherwise disposed of by the clerk. The operative date of destruction or disposition shall be 60 days following the conclusion of the hearing, or if an appeal is taken, upon final determination of the appeal. Written notice of the order shall be sent by first-class mail to the parties by the clerk.

SEC. 8. Section 1952.2 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1952.2. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, upon a judgment becoming final, at the expiration of the appeal period, unless an appeal is pending, the court, in its discretion, and on its own motion by a written order signed by the judge, filed in the action, and an entry thereof made in the register of actions, may order the clerk to return all of the exhibits, depositions, and administrative records introduced or filed in the trial of a civil action or proceeding to the attorneys for the parties introducing or filing the same.

SEC. 9. Section 1952.3 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1952.3. Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, the court, on its own motion, may order the destruction or other disposition of any exhibit, deposition, or administrative record introduced in the trial or posttrial hearing of a civil action or proceeding or filed in the action or proceeding that, if appeal has not been taken from the decision of the court in the action or proceeding, remains in the custody of the court or clerk five years after time for appeal has expired, or, if appeal has been taken, remains in the custody of the court or clerk five years after final determination thereof, or that remains in the custody of the court or clerk for a period of five years after any of the following:

(a) A motion for a new trial has been granted and a memorandum to set the case for trial has not been filed, or a motion to set for trial has not been made within five years.

(b) The dismissal of the action or proceeding.

In addition, the court on its own motion, may order the destruction or other disposition of any exhibit, deposition, or administrative record that remains in the custody of the court or clerk for a period of 10 years after the introduction or filing of the action or proceeding if, in the discretion of the court, the exhibit, deposition, or administrative record should be disposed of or destroyed.

The order shall be entered in the register of actions of each case in which the order is made.

No exhibit, deposition, or administrative record shall be ordered destroyed or otherwise disposed of pursuant to this section if a party to the action or proceeding files a written notice with the court requesting the preservation of any exhibit, deposition, or administrative record for a stated time, but not to exceed one year.

Any sealed file shall be retained for at least two years after the date on which destruction would otherwise be authorized pursuant to this section.

SEC. 9.5. Section 2024 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

2024. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, any party shall be entitled as a matter of right to complete discovery proceedings on or before the 30th day, and to have motions concerning discovery heard on or before the 15th day, before the date initially set for the trial of the action. As used in this section, discovery is considered completed on the day a response is due or on the day a deposition begins. Except as provided in subdivision (e), a continuance or postponement of the trial date does not operate to reopen discovery proceedings.

(b) The time limit on completing discovery in an action to be arbitrated under Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 1141.10) of Title 3 of Part 3 is subject to Judicial Council Rule. After an award in a case ordered to judicial arbitration, completion of discovery is limited by Section 1141.24.

(c) This section does not apply to (1) summary proceedings for obtaining possession of real property governed by Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 1159) of Title 3 of Part 3, in which discovery shall be completed on or before the fifth day before the date set for trial except as provided in subdivisions (e) and (f), or (2) eminent domain proceedings governed by Title 7 (commencing with Section 1230.010) of Part 3.

(d) Any party shall be entitled as a matter of right to complete discovery proceedings pertaining to a witness identified under Section 2034 on or before the 15th day, and to have motions concerning that discovery heard on or before the 10th day, before the date initially set for the trial of the action.

(e) On motion of any party, the court may grant leave to complete discovery proceedings, or to have a motion concerning discovery heard, closer to the initial trial date, or to reopen discovery after a new trial date has been set. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue presented by the motion.

In exercising its discretion to grant or deny this motion, the court shall take into consideration any matter relevant to the leave requested, including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) The necessity and the reasons for the discovery.

(2) The diligence or lack of diligence of the party seeking the discovery or the hearing of a discovery motion, and the reasons that the discovery was not completed or that the discovery motion was not heard earlier.

(3) Any likelihood that permitting the discovery or hearing the discovery motion will prevent the case from going to trial on the date set, or otherwise interfere with the trial calendar, or result in prejudice to any other party.

(4) The length of time that has elapsed between any date previously set, and the date presently set, for the trial of the action.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to extend or to reopen discovery, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

(f) Parties to the action may, with the consent of any party affected by it, enter into an agreement to extend the time for the completion of discovery proceedings or for the hearing of motions concerning discovery, or to reopen discovery after a new date for trial of the action has been set. This agreement may be informal, but it shall be confirmed in a writing that specifies the extended date. In no event shall this agreement require a court to grant a continuance or postponement of the trial of the action.

SEC. 10. Section 2025 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

2025. (a) Any party may obtain discovery within the scope delimited by Section 2017, and subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 2019, by taking in California the oral deposition of any person, including any party to the action. The person deposed may be a natural person, an organization such as a public or private corporation, a partnership, an association, or a governmental agency.

(b) Subject to subdivisions (f) and (t), an oral deposition may be taken as follows:

(1) The defendant may serve a deposition notice without leave of court at any time after that defendant has been served or has appeared in the action, whichever occurs first.

(2) The plaintiff may serve a deposition notice without leave of court on any date that is 20 days after the service of the summons on, or appearance by, any defendant. However, on motion with or without notice, the court, for good cause shown, may grant to a plaintiff leave to serve a deposition notice on an earlier date.

(c) A party desiring to take the oral deposition of any person shall give notice in writing in the manner set forth in subdivision (d). However, where under subdivision (d) of Section 2020 only the production by a nonparty of business records for copying is desired, a copy of the deposition subpoena shall serve as the notice of deposition. The notice of deposition shall be given to every other party who has appeared in the action. The deposition notice, or the accompanying proof of service, shall list all the parties or attorneys for parties on whom it is served.

Where, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 1985.3, the party giving notice of the deposition is a subpoenaing party, and the deponent is a witness commanded by a deposition subpoena to produce personal records of a consumer, the subpoenaing party shall serve on that consumer (1) a notice of the deposition, (2) the notice of privacy rights specified in subdivision (e) of Section 1985.3, and (3) a copy of the deposition subpoena.

(d) The deposition notice shall state all of the following:

(1) The address where the deposition will be taken.

(2) The date of the deposition, selected under subdivision (f), and the time it will commence.

(3) The name of each deponent, and the address and telephone number, if known, of any deponent who is not a party to the action. If the name of the deponent is not known, the deposition notice shall set forth instead a general description sufficient to identify the person or particular class to which the person belongs.

(4) The specification with reasonable particularity of any materials or category of materials to be produced by the deponent.

(5) Any intention to record the testimony by audio tape or video tape, in addition to recording the testimony by the stenographic method as required by paragraph (1) of subdivision (l).

(6) Any intention to reserve the right to use at trial a video tape deposition of a treating or consulting physician or of any expert witness under paragraph (4) of subdivision (u). In this event, the operator of the video tape camera shall be a person who is authorized to administer an oath, and shall not be financially interested in the action or be a relative or employee of any attorney of any of the parties.

If the deponent named is not a natural person, the deposition notice shall describe with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested. In that event, the deponent shall designate and produce at the deposition those of its officers, directors, managing agents, employees, or agents who are most qualified to testify on its behalf as to those matters to the extent of any information known or reasonably available to the deponent. A deposition subpoena shall advise a nonparty deponent of its duty to make this designation, and shall describe with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested.

If the attendance of the deponent is to be compelled by service of a deposition subpoena under Section 2020, an identical copy of that subpoena shall be served with the deposition notice.

(e) (1) The deposition of a natural person, whether or not a party to the action, shall be taken at a place that is, at the option of the party giving notice of the deposition, either within 75 miles of the deponent's residence, or within the county where the action is pending and within 150 miles of the deponent's residence, unless the court orders otherwise under paragraph (3).

(2) The deposition of an organization that is a party to the action shall be taken at a place that is, at the option of the party giving notice of the deposition, either within 75 miles of the organization's principal executive or business office in California, or within the county where the action is pending and within 150 miles of that office. The deposition of any other organization shall be taken within 75 miles of the organization's principal executive or business office in California, unless the organization consents to a more distant place. If the organization has not designated a principal executive or business office in California, the deposition shall be taken at a place that is, at the option of the party giving notice of the deposition, either within the county where the action is pending, or within 75 miles of any executive or business office in California of the organization.

(3) A party desiring to take the deposition of a natural person who is a party to the action or an officer, director, managing agent, or employee of a party may make a motion for an order that the deponent attend for deposition at a place that is more distant than that permitted under paragraph (1). This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion.

In exercising its discretion to grant or deny this motion, the court shall take into consideration any factor tending to show whether the interests of justice will be served by requiring the deponent's attendance at that more distant place, including, but not limited to, the following:

(A) Whether the moving party selected the forum.

(B) Whether the deponent will be present to testify at the trial of the action.

(C) The convenience of the deponent.

(D) The feasibility of conducting the deposition by written questions under Section 2028, or of using a discovery method other than a deposition.

(E) The number of depositions sought to be taken at a place more distant than that permitted under paragraph (1).

(F) The expense to the parties of requiring the deposition to be taken within the distance permitted under paragraph (1).

(G) The whereabouts of the deponent at the time for which the deposition is scheduled.

The order may be conditioned on the advancement by the moving party of the reasonable expenses and costs to the deponent for travel to the place of deposition.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to increase travel limits for party-deponent, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

(f) An oral deposition shall be scheduled for a date at least 10 days after service of the deposition notice. If, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 1985.3, the party giving notice of the deposition is a subpoenaing party, and the deponent is a witness commanded by a deposition subpoena to produce personal records of a consumer, the deposition shall be scheduled for a date at least 20 days after issuance of that subpoena. However, in unlawful detainer actions, an oral deposition shall be scheduled for a date at least five days after service of the deposition notice, but not later than five days before trial.

On motion or ex parte application of any party or deponent, for good cause shown, the court may shorten or extend the time for scheduling a deposition, or may stay its taking until the determination of a motion for a protective order under subdivision (i).

(g) Any party served with a deposition notice that does not comply with subdivisions (b) to (f), inclusive, waives any error or irregularity unless that party promptly serves a written objection specifying that error or irregularity at least three calendar days prior to the date for which the deposition is scheduled, on the party seeking to take the deposition and any other attorney or party on whom the deposition notice was served. If an objection is made three calendar days before the deposition date, the objecting party shall make personal service of that objection pursuant to Section 1011 on the party who gave notice of the deposition. Any deposition taken after the service of a written objection shall not be used against the objecting party under subdivision (u) if the party did not attend the deposition and if the court determines that the objection was a valid one.

In addition to serving this written objection, a party may also move for an order staying the taking of the deposition and quashing the deposition notice. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion. The taking of the deposition is stayed pending the determination of this motion.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to quash a deposition notice, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

(h) (1) The service of a deposition notice under subdivision (c) is effective to require any deponent who is a party to the action or an officer, director, managing agent, or employee of a party to attend and to testify, as well as to produce any document or tangible thing for inspection and copying.

(2) The attendance and testimony of any other deponent, as well as the production by the deponent of any document or tangible thing for inspection and copying, requires the service on the deponent of a deposition subpoena under Section 2020.

(i) Before, during, or after a deposition, any party, any deponent, or any other affected natural person or organization may promptly move for a protective order. The motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue presented by the motion.

The court, for good cause shown, may make any order that justice requires to protect any party, deponent, or other natural person or organization from unwarranted annoyance, embarrassment, or oppression, or undue burden and expense. This protective order may include, but is not limited to, one or more of the following directions:

(1) That the deposition not be taken at all.

(2) That the deposition be taken at a different time.

(3) That a video tape deposition of a treating or consulting physician or of any expert witness, intended for possible use at trial under paragraph (4) of subdivision (u), be postponed until the moving party has had an adequate opportunity to prepare, by discovery deposition of the deponent, or other means, for cross-examination.

(4) That the deposition be taken at a place other than that specified in the deposition notice, if it is within a distance permitted by subdivision (e).

(5) That the deposition be taken only on certain specified terms and conditions.

(6) That the deponent's testimony be taken by written, instead of oral, examination.

(7) That the method of discovery be interrogatories to a party instead of an oral deposition.

(8) That the testimony be recorded in a manner different from that specified in the deposition notice.

(9) That certain matters not be inquired into.

(10) That the scope of the examination be limited to certain matters.

(11) That all or certain of the writings or tangible things designated in the deposition notice not be produced, inspected, or copied.

(12) That designated persons, other than the parties to the action and their officers and counsel, be excluded from attending the deposition.

(13) That a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information not be disclosed or be disclosed only to specified persons or only in a specified way.

(14) That the parties simultaneously file specified documents enclosed in sealed envelopes to be opened as directed by the court.

(15) That the deposition be sealed and thereafter opened only on order of the court.

If the motion for a protective order is denied in whole or in part, the court may order that the deponent provide or permit the discovery against which protection was sought on those terms and conditions that are just.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion for a protective order, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

(j) (1) If the party giving notice of a deposition fails to attend or proceed with it, the court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against that party, or the attorney for that party, or both, and in favor of any party attending in person or by attorney, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

(2) If a deponent does not appear for a deposition because the party giving notice of the deposition failed to serve a required deposition subpoena, the court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against that party, or the attorney for that party, or both, in favor of any other party who, in person or by attorney, attended at the time and place specified in the deposition notice in the expectation that the deponent's testimony would be taken, unless the court finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

If a deponent on whom a deposition subpoena has been served fails to attend a deposition or refuses to be sworn as a witness, the court may impose on the deponent the sanctions described in subdivision (h) of Section 2020.

(3) If, after service of a deposition notice, a party to the action or an officer, director, managing agent, or employee of a party, or a person designated by an organization that is a party under subdivision (d), without having served a valid objection under subdivision (g), fails to appear for examination, or to proceed with it, or to produce for inspection any document or tangible thing described in the deposition notice, the party giving the notice may move for an order compelling the deponent's attendance and testimony, and the production for inspection of any document or tangible thing described in the deposition notice. This motion (A) shall set forth specific facts showing good cause justifying the production for inspection of any document or tangible thing described in the deposition notice, and (B) shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue presented by it. If this motion is granted, the court shall also impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against the deponent or the party with whom the deponent is affiliated, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust. On motion of any other party who, in person or by attorney, attended at the time and place specified in the deposition notice in the expectation that the deponent's testimony would be taken, the court shall also impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

If that party or party-affiliated deponent then fails to obey an order compelling attendance, testimony, and production, the court may make those orders that are just, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023 against that party deponent or against the party with whom the deponent is affiliated. In lieu of or in addition to this sanction, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against that deponent or against the party with whom that party deponent is affiliated, and in favor of any party who, in person or by attorney, attended in the expectation that the deponent's testimony would be taken pursuant to that order.

(k) Except as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (d) of Section 2020, the deposition shall be conducted under the supervision of an officer who is authorized to administer an oath. This officer shall not be financially interested in the action and shall not be a relative or employee of any attorney of any of the parties. Any objection to the qualifications of the deposition officer is waived unless made before the deposition begins or as soon thereafter as the ground for that objection becomes known or could be discovered by reasonable diligence.

(l) (1) The deposition officer shall put the deponent under oath. Unless the parties agree or the court orders otherwise, the testimony, as well as any stated objections, shall be taken stenographically. The party noticing the deposition may also record the testimony by audio tape or video tape if the notice of deposition stated an intention also to record the testimony by either of those methods, or if all the parties agree that the testimony may also be recorded by either of those methods. Any other party, at that party's expense, may make a simultaneous audio tape or video tape record of the deposition, provided that other party promptly, and in no event less than three calendar days before the date for which the deposition is scheduled, serves a written notice of this intention to audio tape or video tape the deposition testimony on the party or attorney who noticed the deposition, on all other parties or attorneys on whom the deposition notice was served under subdivision (c), and on any deponent whose attendance is being compelled by a deposition subpoena under Section 2020. If this notice is given three calendar days before the deposition date, it shall be made by personal service under Section 1011. Examination and cross-examination of the deponent shall proceed as permitted at trial under the provisions of the Evidence Code.

(2) If the deposition is being recorded by means of audio tape or video tape, the following procedure shall be observed:

(A) The area used for recording the deponent's oral testimony shall be suitably large, adequately lighted, and reasonably quiet.

(B) The operator of the recording equipment shall be competent to set up, operate, and monitor the equipment in the manner prescribed in this subdivision. The operator may be an employee of the attorney taking the deposition unless the operator is also the deposition officer. However, if a video tape of deposition testimony is to be used under paragraph (4) of subdivision (u), the operator of the recording equipment shall be a person who is authorized to administer an oath, and shall not be financially interested in the action or be a relative or employee of any attorney of any of the parties, unless all parties attending the deposition agree on the record to waive these qualifications and restrictions.

(C) The operator shall not distort the appearance or the demeanor of participants in the deposition by the use of camera or sound recording techniques.

(D) The deposition shall begin with an oral or written statement on camera or on the audio tape that includes the operator's name and business address, the name and business address of the operator's employer, the date, time, and place of the deposition, the caption of the case, the name of the deponent, a specification of the party on whose behalf the deposition is being taken, and any stipulations by the parties.

(E) Counsel for the parties shall identify themselves on camera or on the audio tape.

(F) The oath shall be administered to the deponent on camera or on the audio tape.

(G) If the length of a deposition requires the use of more than one unit of tape, the end of each unit and the beginning of each succeeding unit shall be announced on camera or on the audio tape.

(H) At the conclusion of a deposition, a statement shall be made on camera or on the audio tape that the deposition is ended and shall set forth any stipulations made by counsel concerning the custody of the audio tape or video tape recording and the exhibits, or concerning other pertinent matters.

(I) A party intending to offer an audio taped or video taped recording of a deposition in evidence under subdivision (u) shall notify the court and all parties in writing of that intent and of the parts of the deposition to be offered within sufficient time for objections to be made and ruled on by the judge to whom the case is assigned for trial or hearing, and for any editing of the tape. Objections to all or part of the deposition shall be made in writing. The court may permit further designations of testimony and objections as justice may require. With respect to those portions of an audio taped or video taped deposition that are not designated by any party or that are ruled to be objectionable, the court may order that the party offering the recording of the deposition at the trial or hearing suppress those portions, or that an edited version of the deposition tape be prepared for use at the trial or hearing. The original audio tape or video tape of the deposition shall be preserved unaltered. If no stenographic record of the deposition testimony has previously been made, the party offering a video tape or an audio tape recording of that testimony under subdivision (u) shall accompany that offer with a stenographic transcript prepared from that recording.

(3) In lieu of participating in the oral examination, parties may transmit written questions in a sealed envelope to the party taking the deposition for delivery to the deposition officer, who shall unseal the envelope and propound them to the deponent after the oral examination has been completed.

(m) (1) The protection of information from discovery on the ground that it is privileged or that it is protected work product under Section 2018 is waived unless a specific objection to its disclosure is timely made during the deposition.

(2) Errors and irregularities of any kind occurring at the oral examination that might be cured if promptly presented are waived unless a specific objection to them is timely made during the deposition. These errors and irregularities include, but are not limited to, those relating to the manner of taking the deposition, to the oath or affirmation administered, to the conduct of a party, attorney, deponent, or deposition officer, or to the form of any question or answer. Unless the objecting party demands that the taking of the deposition be suspended to permit a motion for a protective order under subdivision (n), the deposition shall proceed subject to the objection.

(3) Objections to the competency of the deponent, or to the relevancy, materiality, or admissibility at trial of the testimony or of the materials produced are unnecessary and are not waived by failure to make them before or during the deposition.

(4) If a deponent fails to answer any question or to produce any document or tangible thing under the deponent's control that is specified in the deposition notice or a deposition subpoena, the party seeking that answer or production may adjourn the deposition or complete the examination on other matters without waiving the right at a later time to move for an order compelling that answer or production under subdivision (o).

(n) On demand of any party or the deponent, the deposition officer shall suspend the taking of testimony to enable that party or deponent to move for a protective order on the ground that the examination is being conducted in bad faith or in a manner that unreasonably annoys, embarrasses, or oppresses that deponent or party. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue presented by the motion. The court, for good cause shown, may terminate the examination or may limit the scope and manner of taking the deposition as provided in subdivision (i). If the order terminates the examination, the deposition shall not thereafter be resumed, except on order of the court.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion for this protective order, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

(o) If a deponent fails to answer any question or to produce any document or tangible thing under the deponent's control that is specified in the deposition notice or a deposition subpoena, the party seeking discovery may move the court for an order compelling that answer or production. This motion shall be made no later than 60 days after the completion of the record of the deposition, and shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue presented by the motion. Notice of this motion shall be given to all parties, and to the deponent either orally at the examination, or by subsequent service in writing. If the notice of the motion is given orally, the deposition officer shall direct the deponent to attend a session of the court at the time specified in the notice. Not less than five days prior to the hearing on this motion, the moving party shall lodge with the court a certified copy of any parts of the stenographic transcript of the deposition that are relevant to the motion. If a deposition is recorded by audio tape or video tape, the moving party is required to lodge a certified copy of a transcript of any parts of the deposition that are relevant to the motion. If the court determines that the answer or production sought is subject to discovery, it shall order that the answer be given or the production be made on the resumption of the deposition.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to compel answer or production, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

If a deponent fails to obey an order entered under this subdivision, the failure may be considered a contempt of court. In addition, if the disobedient deponent is a party to the action or an officer, director, managing agent, or employee of a party, the court may make those orders that are just against the disobedient party, or against the party with whom the disobedient deponent is affiliated, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023. In lieu of or in addition to this sanction, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against that party deponent or against any party with whom the deponent is affiliated.

(p) Unless the parties agree otherwise, the testimony at any deposition recorded by stenographic means shall be transcribed. The party noticing the deposition shall bear the cost of that transcription, unless the court, on motion and for good cause shown, orders that the cost be borne or shared by another party. Any other party, at that party's expense, may obtain a copy of the transcript. At the request of any other party to the action, including a party who did not attend the taking of the deposition testimony, any party who records or causes the recording of that testimony by means of audio tape or video tape shall promptly (1) permit that other party to hear the audio tape or to view the video tape, and (2) furnish a copy of the audio tape or video tape to that other party on receipt of payment of the reasonable cost of making that copy of the tape.

If the testimony at the deposition is recorded both stenographically, and by audio tape or video tape, the stenographic transcript is the official record of that testimony for the purpose of the trial and any subsequent hearing or appeal.

(q) (1) If the deposition testimony is stenographically recorded, the deposition officer shall send written notice to the deponent and to all parties attending the deposition when the original transcript of the testimony is available for reading, correcting, and signing, unless the deponent and the attending parties agree on the record to waive the reading, correcting, and signing of the transcript of the testimony. For 30 days following this notice, the deponent may change the form or the substance of the answer to any question, and may either approve the transcript of the deposition by signing it, or refuse to approve the transcript by not signing it.

Alternatively, within this same 30-day period, the deponent may change the form or the substance of the answer to any question and may approve or refuse to approve the transcript by means of a letter to the deposition officer signed by the deponent which is mailed by certified or registered mail with return receipt requested. A copy of that letter shall be sent by first-class mail to all parties attending the deposition. For good cause shown, the court may shorten the 30-day period for making changes, approving, or refusing to approve the transcript.

The deposition officer shall indicate on the original of the transcript, if the deponent has not already done so at the office of the deposition officer, any action taken by the deponent and indicate on the original of the transcript, the deponent's approval of, or failure or refusal to approve, the transcript. The deposition officer shall also notify in writing the parties attending the deposition of any changes which the deponent timely made in person. If the deponent fails or refuses to approve the transcript within the allotted period, the deposition shall be given the same effect as though it had been approved, subject to any changes timely made by the deponent. However, on a seasonable motion to suppress the deposition, accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue presented by the motion, the court may determine that the reasons given for the failure or refusal to approve the transcript require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to suppress a deposition, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

(2) If there is no stenographic transcription of the deposition, the deposition officer shall send written notice to the deponent and to all parties attending the deposition that the recording is available for review, unless the deponent and all these parties agree on the record to waive the hearing or viewing of an audio tape or video tape recording of the testimony. For 30 days following this notice the deponent, either in person or by signed letter to the deposition officer, may change the substance of the answer to any question.

The deposition officer shall set forth in a writing to accompany the recording any changes made by the deponent, as well as either the deponent's signature identifying the deposition as his or her own, or a statement of the deponent's failure to supply such signature, or to contact the officer within the allotted period. When a deponent fails to contact the officer within the allotted period, or expressly refuses by a signature to identify the deposition as his or her own, the deposition shall be given the same effect as though signed. However, on a seasonable motion to suppress the deposition, accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue presented by the motion, the court may determine that the reasons given for the refusal to sign require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to suppress a deposition, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

(r) The deposition officer shall certify on the transcript of the deposition, or in the writing accompanying an audio taped or video taped deposition as described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (q), that the deponent was duly sworn and that the transcript or recording is a true record of the testimony given and of any changes made by the deponent.

(s) (1) The certified transcript of a deposition shall not be filed with the court. Instead, the deposition officer shall securely seal that transcript in an envelope or package endorsed with the title of the action and marked: "Deposition of (here insert name of deponent)", and shall promptly transmit it to the attorney for the party who noticed the deposition. This attorney shall store it under conditions that will protect it against loss, destruction, or tampering.

The attorney to whom the transcript of a deposition is transmitted shall retain custody of it until six months after final disposition of the action. At that time, the transcript may be destroyed, unless the court, on motion of any party and for good cause shown, orders that the transcript be preserved for a longer period.

(2) An audio tape or video tape record of deposition testimony, including a certified tape made by an operator qualified under subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (l), shall not be filed with the court. Instead, the operator shall retain custody of that record and shall store it under conditions that will protect it against loss, destruction, or tampering, and preserve as far as practicable the quality of the tape and the integrity of the testimony and images it contains.

At the request of any party to the action, including a party who did not attend the taking of the deposition testimony, or at the request of the deponent, that operator shall promptly (A) permit the one making the request to hear or to view the tape on receipt of payment of a reasonable charge for providing the facilities for hearing or viewing the tape, and (B) furnish a copy of the audio tape or the video tape recording to the one making the request on receipt of payment of the reasonable cost of making that copy of the tape.

The attorney or operator who has custody of an audio tape or video tape record of deposition testimony shall retain custody of it until six months after final disposition of the action. At that time, the audio tape or video tape may be destroyed or erased, unless the court, on motion of any party and for good cause shown, orders that the tape be preserved for a longer period.

(t) Once any party has taken the deposition of any natural person, including that of a party to the action, neither the party who gave, nor any other party who received, notice of the deposition may take a subsequent deposition of that deponent. However, for good cause shown, the court may grant leave to take a subsequent deposition, and the parties, with the consent of any deponent who is not a party, may stipulate that a subsequent deposition be taken. This subdivision does not preclude taking one subsequent deposition of a natural person who has previously been examined as a result of that person's designation to testify on behalf of an organization under subdivision (d).

(u) At the trial or any other hearing in the action, any part or all of a deposition may be used against any party who was present or represented at the taking of the deposition, or who had due notice of the deposition and did not serve a valid objection under subdivision (g), so far as admissible under the rules of evidence applied as though the deponent were then present and testifying as a witness, in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) Any party may use a deposition for the purpose of contradicting or impeaching the testimony of the deponent as a witness, or for any other purpose permitted by the Evidence Code.

(2) An adverse party may use for any purpose, a deposition of a party to the action, or of anyone who at the time of taking the deposition was an officer, director, managing agent, employee, agent, or designee under subdivision (d) of a party. It is not ground for objection to the use of a deposition of a party under this paragraph by an adverse party that the deponent is available to testify, has testified, or will testify at the trial or other hearing.

(3) Any party may use for any purpose the deposition of any person or organization, including that of any party to the action, if the court finds any of the following:

(A) The deponent resides more than 150 miles from the place of the trial or other hearing.

(B) The deponent, without the procurement or wrongdoing of the proponent of the deposition for the purpose of preventing testimony in open court, is (i) exempted or precluded on the ground of privilege from testifying concerning the matter to which the deponent's testimony is relevant, (ii) disqualified from testifying, (iii) dead or unable to attend or testify because of existing physical or mental illness or infirmity, (iv) absent from the trial or other hearing and the court is unable to compel the deponent's attendance by its process, or (v) absent from the trial or other hearing and the proponent of the deposition has exercised reasonable diligence but has been unable to procure the deponent's attendance by the court's process.

(C) Exceptional circumstances exist that make it desirable to allow the use of any deposition in the interests of justice and with due regard to the importance of presenting the testimony of witnesses orally in open court.

(4) Any party may use a video tape deposition of a treating or consulting physician or of any expert witness even though the deponent is available to testify if the deposition notice under subdivision (d) reserved the right to use the deposition at trial, and if that party has complied with subparagraph (I) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (l).

(5) Subject to the requirements of this section, a party may offer in evidence all or any part of a deposition, and if the party introduces only part of the deposition, any other party may introduce any other parts that are relevant to the parts introduced.

(6) Substitution of parties does not affect the right to use depositions previously taken.

(7) When an action has been brought in any court of the United States or of any state, and another action involving the same subject matter is subsequently brought between the same parties or their representatives or successors in interest, all depositions lawfully taken and duly filed in the initial action may be used in the subsequent action as if originally taken in that subsequent action. A deposition previously taken may also be used as permitted by the Evidence Code.

SEC. 11. Section 2030 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

2030. (a) Any party may obtain discovery within the scope delimited by Section 2017, and subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 2019, by propounding to any other party to the action written interrogatories to be answered under oath.

(b) A defendant may propound interrogatories to a party to the action without leave of court at any time. A plaintiff may propound interrogatories to a party without leave of court at any time that is 10 days after the service of the summons on, or in unlawful detainer actions five days after service of the summons on or appearance by, that party, whichever occurs first. However, on motion with or without notice, the court, for good cause shown, may grant leave to a plaintiff to propound interrogatories at an earlier time.

(c) (1) A party may propound to another party (1) 35 specially prepared interrogatories, and (2) any additional number of official form interrogatories, as described in Section 2033.5, that are relevant to the subject matter of the pending action. Except as provided in paragraph (8), no party shall, as a matter of right, propound to any other party more than 35 specially prepared interrogatories. If the initial set of interrogatories does not exhaust this limit, the balance may be propounded in subsequent sets. Unless a declaration as described in paragraph (3) has been made, a party need only respond to the first 35 specially prepared interrogatories served, if that party states an objection to the balance, under paragraph (3) of subdivision (f), on the ground that the limit has been exceeded.

(2) Subject to the right of the responding party to seek a protective order under subdivision (e), any party who attaches a supporting declaration as described in paragraph (3) may propound a greater number of specially prepared interrogatories to another party if this greater number is warranted because of any of the following:

(A) The complexity or the quantity of the existing and potential issues in the particular case.

(B) The financial burden on a party entailed in conducting the discovery by oral deposition.

(C) The expedience of using this method of discovery to provide to the responding party the opportunity to conduct an inquiry, investigation, or search of files or records to supply the information sought.

If the responding party seeks a protective order on the ground that the number of specially prepared interrogatories is unwarranted, the propounding party shall have the burden of justifying the number of these interrogatories.

(3) Any party who is propounding or has propounded more than 35 specially prepared interrogatories to any other party shall attach to each set of those interrogatories a declaration containing substantially the following:

DECLARATION FOR ADDITIONAL DISCOVERY

I, _____, declare:

1. I am (a party to this action or proceeding appearing in propria persona) (presently the attorney for _____, a party to this action or proceeding).

2. I am propounding to _____ the attached set of interrogatories.

3. This set of interrogatories will cause the total number of specially prepared interrogatories propounded to the party to whom they are directed to exceed the number of specially prepared interrogatories permitted by paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 2030 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

4. I have previously propounded a total of _____ interrogatories to this party, of which _____ interrogatories were not official form interrogatories.

5. This set of interrogatories contains a total of _____ specially prepared interrogatories.

6. I am familiar with the issues and the previous discovery conducted by all of the parties in the case.

7. I have personally examined each of the questions in this set of interrogatories.

8. This number of questions is warranted under paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 2030 of the Code of Civil Procedure because _____. (Here state each factor described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) that is relied on, as well as the reasons why any factor relied on is applicable to the instant lawsuit.)

9. None of the questions in this set of interrogatories is being propounded for any improper purpose, such as to harass the party, or the attorney for the party, to whom it is directed, or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of California that the foregoing is true and correct, and that this declaration was executed on _____.

Attorney for _____

(4) A party propounding interrogatories shall number each set of interrogatories consecutively. In the first paragraph immediately below the title of the case, there shall appear the identity of the propounding party, the set number, and the identity of the responding party. Each interrogatory in a set shall be separately set forth and identified by number or letter.

(5) Each interrogatory shall be full and complete in and of itself. No preface or instruction shall be included with a set of interrogatories unless it has been approved under Section 2033.5. Any term specially defined in a set of interrogatories shall be typed with all letters capitalized wherever that term appears. No specially prepared interrogatory shall contain subparts, or a compound, conjunctive, or disjunctive question.

(6) An interrogatory may relate to whether another party is making a certain contention, or to the facts, witnesses, and writings on which a contention is based. An interrogatory is not objectionable because an answer to it involves an opinion or contention that relates to fact or the application of law to fact, or would be based on information obtained or legal theories developed in anticipation of litigation or in preparation for trial.

(7) An interrogatory may not be made a continuing one so as to impose on the party responding to it a duty to supplement an answer to it that was initially correct and complete with later acquired information.

(8) In addition to the number of interrogatories permitted by paragraphs (1) and (2), a party may propound a supplemental interrogatory to elicit any later acquired information bearing on all answers previously made by any party in response to interrogatories (1) twice prior to the initial setting of a trial date, and (2) subject to the time limits on discovery proceedings and motions provided in Section 2024, once after the initial setting of a trial date. However, on motion, for good cause shown, the court may grant leave to a party to propound an additional number of supplemental interrogatories.

(d) The party propounding interrogatories shall serve a copy of them (1) on the party to whom they are directed, and (2) on all other parties who have appeared in the action, unless the court on motion with or without notice has relieved that party from this requirement on its determination that service on all other parties would be unduly expensive or burdensome.

(e) When interrogatories have been propounded, the responding party, and any other party or affected natural person or organization may promptly move for a protective order. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue presented by the motion.

The court, for good cause shown, may make any order that justice requires to protect any party or other natural person or organization from unwarranted annoyance, embarrassment, or oppression, or undue burden and expense. This protective order may include, but is not limited to, one or more of the following directions:

(1) That the set of interrogatories, or particular interrogatories in the set, need not be answered.

(2) That, contrary to the representations made in a declaration submitted under paragraph (3) of subdivision (c), the number of specially prepared interrogatories is unwarranted.

(3) That the time specified in subdivision (h) to respond to the set of interrogatories, or to particular interrogatories in the set, be extended.

(4) That the response be made only on specified terms and conditions.

(5) That the method of discovery be an oral deposition instead of interrogatories to a party.

(6) That a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information not be disclosed or be disclosed only in a certain way.

(7) That some or all of the answers to interrogatories be sealed and thereafter opened only on order of the court.

If the motion for a protective order is denied in whole or in part, the court may order that the party provide or permit the discovery against which protection was sought on terms and conditions that are just.

(f) The party to whom interrogatories have been propounded shall respond in writing under oath separately to each interrogatory by (1) an answer containing the information sought to be discovered, (2) an exercise of the party's option to produce writings, or (3) an objection to the particular interrogatory. In the first paragraph of the response immediately below the title of the case, there shall appear the identity of the responding party, the set number, and the identity of the propounding party. Each answer, exercise of option, or objection in the response shall bear the same identifying number or letter and be in the same sequence as the corresponding interrogatory, but the text of that interrogatory need not be repeated.

(1) Each answer in the response shall be as complete and straightforward as the information reasonably available to the responding party permits. If an interrogatory cannot be answered completely, it shall be answered to the extent possible. If the responding party does not have personal knowledge sufficient to respond fully to an interrogatory, that party shall so state, but shall make a reasonable and good faith effort to obtain the information by inquiry to other natural persons or organizations, except where the information is equally available to the propounding party.

(2) If the answer to an interrogatory would necessitate the preparation or the making of a compilation, abstract, audit, or summary of or from the documents of the party to whom the interrogatory is directed, and if the burden or expense of preparing or making it would be substantially the same for the party propounding the interrogatory as for the responding party, it is a sufficient answer to that interrogatory to refer to this subdivision and to specify the writings from which the answer may be derived or ascertained. This specification shall be in sufficient detail to permit the propounding party to locate and to identify, as readily as the responding party can, the documents from which the answer may be ascertained. The responding party shall then afford to the propounding party a reasonable opportunity to examine, audit, or inspect these documents and to make copies, compilations, abstracts, or summaries of them.

(3) If only a part of an interrogatory is objectionable, the remainder of the interrogatory shall be answered. If an objection is made to an interrogatory or to a part of an interrogatory, the specific ground for the objection shall be set forth clearly in the response. If an objection is based on a claim of privilege, the particular privilege invoked shall be clearly stated. If an objection is based on a claim that the information sought is protected work product under Section 2018, that claim shall be expressly asserted.

(g) The party to whom the interrogatories are directed shall sign the response under oath unless the response contains only objections. If that party is a public or private corporation, or a partnership, association, or governmental agency, one of its officers or agents shall sign the response under oath on behalf of that party. If the officer or agent signing the response on behalf of that party is an attorney acting in that capacity for the party, that party waives any lawyer-client privilege and any protection for work product under Section 2018 during any subsequent discovery from that attorney concerning the identity of the sources of the information contained in the response. The attorney for the responding party shall sign any responses that contain an objection.

(h) Within 30 days after service of interrogatories, or in unlawful detainer actions within five days after service of interrogatories the party to whom the interrogatories are propounded shall serve the original of the response to them on the propounding party, unless on motion of the propounding party the court has shortened the time for response, or unless on motion of the responding party the court has extended the time for response. In unlawful detainer actions, the party to whom the interrogatories are propounded shall have five days from the date of service to respond unless on motion of the propounding party the court has shortened the time for response. The party to whom the interrogatories are propounded shall also serve a copy of the response on all other parties who have appeared in the action, unless the court on motion with or without notice has relieved that party from this requirement on its determination that service on all other parties would be unduly expensive or burdensome.

(i) The party propounding interrogatories and the responding party may agree to extend the time for service of a response to a set of interrogatories, or to particular interrogatories in a set, to a date beyond that provided in subdivision (h). This agreement may be informal, but it shall be confirmed in a writing that specifies the extended date for service of a response. Unless this agreement expressly states otherwise, it is effective to preserve to the responding party the right to respond to any interrogatory to which the agreement applies in any manner specified in subdivision (f).

(j) The interrogatories and the response thereto shall not be filed with the court. The propounding party shall retain both the original of the interrogatories, with the original proof of service affixed to them, and the original of the sworn response until six months after final disposition of the action. At that time, both originals may be destroyed, unless the court on motion of any party and for good cause shown orders that the originals be preserved for a longer period.

(k) If a party to whom interrogatories have been directed fails to serve a timely response, that party waives any right to exercise the option to produce writings under subdivision (f), as well as any objection to the interrogatories, including one based on privilege or on the protection for work product under Section 2018. However, the court, on motion, may relieve that party from this waiver on its determination that (1) the party has subsequently served a response that is in substantial compliance with subdivision (f), and (2) the party's failure to serve a timely response was the result of mistake, inadvertence, or excusable neglect.

The party propounding the interrogatories may move for an order compelling response to the interrogatories. The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to compel a response to interrogatories, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust. If a party then fails to obey an order compelling answers, the court may make those orders that are just, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023. In lieu of or in addition to that sanction, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023.

(l) If the propounding party, on receipt of a response to interrogatories, deems that (1) an answer to a particular interrogatory is evasive or incomplete, (2) an exercise of the option to produce documents under paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) is unwarranted or the required specification of those documents is inadequate, or (3) an objection to an interrogatory is without merit or too general, that party may move for an order compelling a further response. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue presented by the motion.

Unless notice of this motion is given within 45 days of the service of the response, or any supplemental response, or on or before any specific later date to which the propounding party and the responding party have agreed in writing, the propounding party waives any right to compel a further response to the interrogatories.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to compel a further response to interrogatories, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

If a party then fails to obey an order compelling further response to interrogatories, the court may make those orders that are just, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023. In lieu of or in addition to that sanction, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023.

(m) Without leave of court, a party may serve an amended answer to any interrogatory that contains information subsequently discovered, inadvertently omitted, or mistakenly stated in the initial interrogatory. At the trial of the action, the propounding party or any other party may use the initial answer under subdivision (n), and the responding party may then use the amended answer.

The party who propounded an interrogatory to which an amended answer has been served may move for an order that the initial answer to that interrogatory be deemed binding on the responding party for the purpose of the pending action. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue presented by the motion. The court shall grant this motion if it determines that (1) the initial failure of the responding party to answer the interrogatory correctly has substantially prejudiced the party who propounded the interrogatory, (2) the responding party has failed to show substantial justification for the initial answer to that interrogatory, and (3) the prejudice to the propounding party cannot be cured either by a continuance to permit further discovery or by the use of the initial answer under subdivision (n).

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to deem binding an initial answer to an interrogatory, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

(n) At the trial or any other hearing in the action, so far as admissible under the rules of evidence, the propounding party or any party other than the responding party may use any answer or part of an answer to an interrogatory only against the responding party. It is not ground for objection to the use of an answer to an interrogatory that the responding party is available to testify, has testified, or will testify at the trial or other hearing.

SEC. 12. Section 2031 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

2031. (a) Any party may obtain discovery within the scope delimited by Section 2017, and subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 2019, by inspecting documents, tangible things, and land or other property that are in the possession, custody, or control of any other party to the action.

(1) A party may demand that any other party produce and permit the party making the demand, or someone acting on that party's behalf, to inspect and to copy a document that is in the possession, custody, or control of the party on whom the demand is made.

(2) A party may demand that any other party produce and permit the party making the demand, or someone acting on that party's behalf, to inspect and to photograph, test, or sample any tangible things that are in the possession, custody, or control of the party on whom the demand is made.

(3) A party may demand that any other party allow the party making the demand, or someone acting on that party's behalf, to enter on any land or other property that is in the possession, custody, or control of the party on whom the demand is made, and to inspect and to measure, survey, photograph, test, or sample the land or other property, or any designated object or operation on it.

(b) A defendant may make a demand for inspection without leave of court at any time. A plaintiff may make a demand for inspection without leave of court at any time that is 10 days after the service of the summons on, or in unlawful detainer actions within five days after service of the summons on or appearance by, the party to whom the demand is directed, whichever occurs first. However, on motion with or without notice, the court, for good cause shown, may grant leave to a plaintiff to make an inspection demand at an earlier time.

(c) A party demanding an inspection shall number each set of demands consecutively. In the first paragraph immediately below the title of the case, there shall appear the identity of the demanding party, the set number, and the identity of the responding party. Each demand in a set shall be separately set forth, identified by number or letter, and shall do all of the following:

(1) Designate the documents, tangible things, or land or other property to be inspected either by specifically describing each individual item or by reasonably particularizing each category of item.

(2) Specify a reasonable time for the inspection that is at least 30 days after service of the demand, or in unlawful detainer actions at least five days after service of the demand, unless the court for good cause shown has granted leave to specify an earlier date.

(3) Specify a reasonable place for making the inspection, copying, and performing any related activity.

(4) Specify any related activity that is being demanded in addition to an inspection and copying, as well as the manner in which that related activity will be performed, and whether that activity will permanently alter or destroy the item involved.

(d) The party demanding an inspection shall serve a copy of the inspection demand on the party to whom it is directed and on all other parties who have appeared in the action.

(e) When an inspection of documents, tangible things or places has been demanded, the party to whom the demand has been directed, and any other party or affected person or organization, may promptly move for a protective order. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue presented by the motion.

The court, for good cause shown, may make any order that justice requires to protect any party or other natural person or organization from unwarranted annoyance, embarrassment, or oppression, or undue burden and expense. This protective order may include, but is not limited to, one or more of the following directions:

(1) That all or some of the items or categories of items in the inspection demand need not be produced or made available at all.

(2) That the time specified in subdivision (h) to respond to the set of inspection demands, or to a particular item or category in the set, be extended.

(3) That the place of production be other than that specified in the inspection demand.

(4) That the inspection be made only on specified terms and conditions.

(5) That a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information not be disclosed, or be disclosed only to specified persons or only in a specified way.

(6) That the items produced be sealed and thereafter opened only on order of the court.

If the motion for a protective order is denied in whole or in part, the court may order that the party to whom the demand was directed provide or permit the discovery against which protection was sought on terms and conditions that are just.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion for a protective order, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

(f) The party to whom an inspection demand has been directed shall respond separately to each item or category of item by a statement that the party will comply with the particular demand for inspection and any related activities, a representation that the party lacks the ability to comply with the demand for inspection of a particular item or category of item, or an objection to the particular demand.

In the first paragraph of the response immediately below the title of the case, there shall appear the identity of the responding party, the set number, and the identity of the demanding party. Each statement of compliance, each representation, and each objection in the response shall bear the same number and be in the same sequence as the corresponding item or category in the demand, but the text of that item or category need not be repeated.

(1) A statement that the party to whom an inspection demand has been directed will comply with the particular demand shall state that the production, inspection, and related activity demanded will be allowed either in whole or in part, and that all documents or things in the demanded category that are in the possession, custody, or control of that party and to which no objection is being made will be included in the production.

Any documents demanded shall either be produced as they are kept in the usual course of business, or be organized and labeled to correspond with the categories in the demand. If necessary, the responding party at the reasonable expense of the demanding party shall, through detection devices, translate any data compilations included in the demand into reasonably usable form.

(2) A representation of inability to comply with the particular demand for inspection shall affirm that a diligent search and a reasonable inquiry has been made in an effort to comply with that demand. This statement shall also specify whether the inability to comply is because the particular item or category has never existed, has been destroyed, has been lost, misplaced, or stolen, or has never been, or is no longer, in the possession, custody, or control of the responding party. The statement shall set forth the name and address of any natural person or organization known or believed by that party to have possession, custody, or control of that item or category of item.

(3) If only part of an item or category of item in an inspection demand is objectionable, the response shall contain a statement of compliance, or a representation of inability to comply with respect to the remainder of that item or category. If the responding party objects to the demand for inspection of an item or category of item, the response shall (A) identify with particularity any document, tangible thing, or land falling within any category of item in the demand to which an objection is being made, and (B) set forth clearly the extent of, and the specific ground for, the objection. If an objection is based on a claim of privilege, the particular privilege invoked shall be stated. If an objection is based on a claim that the information sought is protected work product under Section 2018, that claim shall be expressly asserted.

(g) The party to whom the demand for inspection is directed shall sign the response under oath unless the response contains only objections. If that party is a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency, one of its officers or agents shall sign the response under oath on behalf of that party. If the officer or agent signing the response on behalf of that party is an attorney acting in that capacity for a party, that party waives any lawyer-client privilege and any protection for work product under Section 2018 during any subsequent discovery from that attorney concerning the identity of the sources of the information contained in the response. The attorney for the responding party shall sign any responses that contain an objection.

(h) Within 20 days after service of an inspection demand, or in unlawful detainer actions within five days of an inspection demand, the party to whom the demand is directed shall serve the original of the response to it on the party making the demand, and a copy of the response on all other parties who have appeared in the action, unless on motion of the party making the demand the court has shortened the time for response, or unless on motion of the party to whom the demand has been directed, the court has extended the time for response. In unlawful detainer actions, the party to whom the demand is directed shall have at least five days from the date of service of the demand to respond unless on motion of the party making the demand the court has shortened the time for the response.

(i) The party demanding an inspection and the responding party may agree to extend the time for service of a response to a set of inspection demands, or to particular items or categories of items in a set, to a date beyond that provided in subdivision (h). This agreement may be informal, but it shall be confirmed in a writing that specifies the extended date for service of a response. Unless this agreement expressly states otherwise, it is effective to preserve to the responding party the right to respond to any item or category of item in the demand to which the agreement applies in any manner specified in subdivision (f).

(j) The inspection demand and the response to it shall not be filed with the court. The party demanding an inspection shall retain both the original of the inspection demand, with the original proof of service affixed to it, and the original of the sworn response until six months after final disposition of the action. At that time, both originals may be destroyed, unless the court, on motion of any party and for good cause shown, orders that the originals be preserved for a longer period.

(k) If a party to whom an inspection demand has been directed fails to serve a timely response to it, that party waives any objection to the demand, including one based on privilege or on the protection for work product under Section 2018. However, the court, on motion, may relieve that party from this waiver on its determination that (1) the party has subsequently served a response that is in substantial compliance with subdivision (f), and (2) the party's failure to serve a timely response was the result of mistake, inadvertence, or excusable neglect.

The party making the demand may move for an order compelling response to the inspection demand. The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to compel a response to an inspection demand, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust. If a party then fails to obey the order compelling a response, the court may make those orders that are just, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023. In lieu of or in addition to that sanction, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023.

(l) If the party demanding an inspection, on receipt of a response to an inspection demand, deems that (1) a statement of compliance with the demand is incomplete, (2) a representation of inability to comply is inadequate, incomplete, or evasive, or (3) an objection in the response is without merit or too general, that party may move for an order compelling further response to the demand. This motion (1) shall set forth specific facts showing good cause justifying the discovery sought by the inspection demand, and (2) shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by it.

Unless notice of this motion is given within 45 days of the service of the response, or any supplemental response, or on or before any specific later date to which the demanding party and the responding party have agreed in writing, the demanding party waives any right to compel a further response to the inspection demand.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to compel further response to an inspection demand, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

If a party fails to obey an order compelling further response, the court may make those orders that are just, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023. In lieu of or in addition to that sanction, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023.

(m) If a party filing a response to a demand for inspection under subdivision (f) thereafter fails to permit the inspection in accordance with that party's statement of compliance, the party demanding the inspection may move for an order compelling compliance.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to compel compliance with an inspection demand, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

If a party then fails to obey an order compelling inspection, the court may make those orders that are just, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023. In lieu of or in addition to that sanction, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023.

SEC. 13. Section 2033 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

2033. (a) Any party may obtain discovery within the scope delimited by Section 2017, and subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 2019, by a written request that any other party to the action admit the genuineness of specified documents, or the truth of specified matters of fact, opinion relating to fact, or application of law to fact. A request for admission may relate to a matter that is in controversy between the parties.

(b) A defendant may make requests for admission by a party without leave of court at any time. A plaintiff may make requests for admission by a party without leave of court at any time that is 10 days after the service of the summons on, or, in unlawful detainer actions, five days after the service of the summons on, or appearance by, that party, whichever occurs first. However, on motion with or without notice, the court, for good cause shown, may grant leave to a plaintiff to make requests for admission at an earlier time.

(c) (1) No party shall request, as a matter of right, that any other party admit more than 35 matters that do not relate to the genuineness of documents. If the initial set of admission requests does not exhaust this limit, the balance may be requested in subsequent sets. Unless a declaration as described in paragraph (3) has been made, a party need only respond to the first 35 admission requests served that do not relate to the genuineness of documents, if that party states an objection to the balance under paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) on the ground that the limit has been exceeded.

The number of requests for admission of the genuineness of documents is not limited except as justice requires to protect the responding party from unwarranted annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden and expense.

(2) Subject to the right of the responding party to seek a protective order under subdivision (e), any party who attaches a supporting declaration as described in paragraph (3) may request a greater number of admissions by another party if the greater number is warranted by the complexity or the quantity of the existing and potential issues in the particular case.

If the responding party seeks a protective order on the ground that the number of requests for admission is unwarranted, the propounding party shall have the burden of justifying the number of requests for admission.

(3) Any party who is requesting or who has already requested more than 35 admissions not relating to the genuineness of documents by any other party shall attach to each set of requests for admissions a declaration containing substantially the following words:

DECLARATION FOR ADDITIONAL DISCOVERY

I, _____, declare:

1. I am (a party to this action or proceeding appearing in propria persona) (presently the attorney for _____, a party to this action or proceeding).

2. I am propounding to _____ the attached set of requests for admission.

3. This set of requests for admission will cause the total number of requests propounded to the party to whom they are directed to exceed the number of requests permitted by paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 2033 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

4. I have previously propounded a total of _____ requests for admission to this party.

5. This set of requests for admission contains a total of _____ requests.

6. I am familiar with the issues and the previous discovery conducted by all of the parties in this case.

7. I have personally examined each of the requests in this set of requests for admission.

8. This number of requests for admission is warranted under paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 2033 of the Code of Civil Procedure because _____. (Here state the reasons why the complexity or the quantity of issues in the instant lawsuit warrant this number of requests for admission.)

9. None of the requests in this set of requests is being propounded for any improper purpose, such as to harass the party, or the attorney for the party, to whom it is directed, or to cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of California that the foregoing is true and correct, and that this declaration was executed on _____.

Attorney for _____

(4) A party requesting admissions shall number each set of requests consecutively. In the first paragraph immediately below the title of the case, there shall appear the identity of the party requesting the admissions, the set number, and the identity of the requesting party, the set number, and the identity of the responding party. Each request for admission in a set shall be separately set forth and identified by letter or number.

(5) Each request for admission shall be full and complete in and of itself. No preface or instruction shall be included with a set of admission requests unless it has been approved under Section 2033.5. Any term specially defined in a request for admission shall be typed with all letters capitalized whenever the term appears. No request for admission shall contain subparts, or a compound, conjunctive, or disjunctive request unless it has been approved under Section 2033.5.

(6) A party requesting an admission of the genuineness of any documents shall attach copies of those documents to the requests, and shall make the original of those documents available for inspection on demand by the party to whom the requests for admission are directed.

(7) No party shall combine in a single document requests for admission with any other method of discovery.

(d) The party requesting admissions shall serve a copy of them on the party to whom they are directed and on all other parties who have appeared in the action.

(e) When requests for admission have been made, the responding party may promptly move for a protective order. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue presented by the motion.

The court, for good cause shown, may make any order that justice requires to protect any party from unwarranted annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden and expense. This protective order may include, but is not limited to, one or more of the following directions:

(1) That the set of admission requests, or particular requests in the set, need not be answered at all.

(2) That, contrary to the representations made in a declaration submitted under paragraph (3) of subdivision (c), the number of admission requests is unwarranted.

(3) That the time specified in subdivision (h) to respond to the set of admission requests, or to particular requests in the set, be extended.

(4) That a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information not be admitted or be admitted only in a certain way.

(5) That some or all of the answers to requests for admission be sealed and thereafter opened only on order of the court.

If the motion for a protective order is denied in whole or in part, the court may order that the responding party provide or permit the discovery against which protection was sought on terms and conditions that are just.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion for a protective order, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

(f) The party to whom requests for admission have been directed shall respond in writing under oath separately to each request. Each response shall answer the substance of the requested admission, or set forth an objection to the particular request. In the first paragraph of the response immediately below the title of the case, there shall appear the identity of the responding party, the set number, and the identity of the requesting party. Each answer or objection in the response shall bear the same identifying number or letter and be in the same sequence as the corresponding request, but the text of the particular request need not be repeated.

(1) Each answer in the response shall be as complete and straightforward as the information reasonably available to the responding party permits. Each answer shall (A) admit so much of the matter involved in the request as is true, either as expressed in the request itself or as reasonably and clearly qualified by the responding party, (B) deny so much of the matter involved in the request as is untrue, and (C) specify so much of the matter involved in the request as to the truth of which the responding party lacks sufficient information or knowledge. If a responding party gives lack of information or knowledge as a reason for a failure to admit all or part of a request for admission, that party shall state in the answer that a reasonable inquiry concerning the matter in the particular request has been made, and that the information known or readily obtainable is insufficient to enable that party to admit the matter.

(2) If only a part of a request for admission is objectionable, the remainder of the request shall be answered. If an objection is made to a request or to a part of a request, the specific ground for the objection shall be set forth clearly in the response. If an objection is based on a claim of privilege, the particular privilege invoked shall be clearly stated. If an objection is based on a claim that the matter as to which an admission is requested is protected work product under Section 2018, that claim shall be expressly asserted.

(g) The party to whom the requests for admission are directed shall sign the response under oath, unless the response contains only objections. If that party is a public or private corporation, or a partnership or association or governmental agency, one of its officers or agents shall sign the response under oath on behalf of that party. If the officer or agent signing the response on behalf of that party is an attorney acting in that capacity for the party, that party waives any lawyer-client privilege and any protection for work product under Section 2018 during any subsequent discovery from that attorney concerning the identity of the sources of the information contained in the response. The attorney for the responding party shall sign any response that contains an objection.

(h) Within 30 days after service of requests for admission, or in unlawful detainer actions within five days after service of requests for admission, the party to whom the requests are directed shall serve the original of the response to them on the requesting party, and a copy of the response on all other parties who have appeared, unless on motion of the requesting party the court has shortened the time for response, or unless on motion of the responding party the court has extended the time for response. In unlawful detainer actions, the party to whom the request is directed shall have at least five days from the date of service to respond unless on motion of the requesting party the court has shortened the time for response.

(i) The party requesting admissions and the responding party may agree to extend the time for service of a response to a set of admission requests, or to particular requests in a set, to a date beyond that provided in subdivision (h). This agreement may be informal, but it shall be confirmed in a writing that specifies the extended date for service of a response. Unless this agreement expressly states otherwise, it is effective to preserve to the responding party the right to respond to any request for admission to which the agreement applies in any manner specified in subdivision (f). Notice of this agreement shall be given by the responding party to all other parties who were served with a copy of the request.

(j) The requests for admission and the response to them shall not be filed with the court. The party requesting admissions shall retain both the original of the requests for admission, with the original proof of service affixed to them, and the original of the sworn response until six months after final disposition of the action. At that time, both originals may be destroyed, unless the court, on motion of any party and for good cause shown, orders that the originals be preserved for a longer period.

(k) If a party to whom requests for admission have been directed fails to serve a timely response, that party thereby waives any objection to the requests, including one based on privilege or on the protection for work product under Section 2018. However, the court, on motion, may relieve that party from this waiver on its determination that (1) the party has subsequently served a response that is in substantial compliance with subdivision (f), and (2) the party's failure to serve a timely response was the result of mistake, inadvertence, or excusable neglect.

The requesting party may move for an order that the genuineness of any documents and the truth of any matters specified in the requests be deemed admitted, as well as for a monetary sanction under Section 2023. The court shall make this order, unless it finds that the party to whom the requests for admission have been directed has served, before the hearing on the motion, a proposed response to the requests for admission that is in substantial compliance with paragraph (1) of subdivision (f). It is mandatory that the court impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 on the party or attorney, or both, whose failure to serve a timely response to requests for admission necessitated this motion.

(l) If the party requesting admissions, on receipt of a response to the requests, deems that (1) an answer to a particular request is evasive or incomplete, or (2) an objection to a particular request is without merit or too general, that party may move for an order compelling a further response. The motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue presented by the motion.

Unless notice of this motion is given within 45 days of the service of the response, or any supplemental response, or any specific later date to which the requesting party and the responding party have agreed in writing, the requesting party waives any right to compel further response to the requests for admission.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to compel further response, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

If a party then fails to obey an order compelling further response to requests for admission, the court may order that the matters involved in the requests be deemed admitted. In lieu of or in addition to this order, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023.

(m) A party may withdraw or amend an admission made in response to a request for admission only on leave of court granted after notice to all parties. The court may permit withdrawal or amendment of an admission only if it determines that the admission was the result of mistake, inadvertence, or excusable neglect, and that the party who obtained the admission will not be substantially prejudiced in maintaining that party's action or defense on the merits. The court may impose conditions on the granting of the motion that are just, including, but not limited to, an order that (1) the party who obtained the admission be permitted to pursue additional discovery related to the matter involved in the withdrawn or amended admission, and (2) the costs of any additional discovery be borne in whole or in part by the party withdrawing or amending the admission.

(n) Any matter admitted in response to a request for admission is conclusively established against the party making the admission in the pending action, unless the court has permitted withdrawal or amendment of that admission under subdivision (m). However, any admission made by a party under this section is (1) binding only on that party, and (2) made for the purpose of the pending action only. It is not an admission by that party for any other purpose, and it shall not be used in any manner against that party in any other proceeding.

(o) If a party fails to admit the genuineness of any document or the truth of any matter when requested to do so under this section, and if the party requesting that admission thereafter proves the genuineness of that document or the truth of that matter, the party requesting the admission may move the court for an order requiring the party to whom the request was directed to pay the reasonable expenses incurred in making that proof, including reasonable attorney's fees. The court shall make this order unless it finds that (1) an objection to the request was sustained or a response to it was waived under subdivision (l), (2) the admission sought was of no substantial importance, (3) the party failing to make the admission had reasonable ground to believe that that party would prevail on the matter, or (4) there was other good reason for the failure to admit.

SEC. 14. Section 1560 of the Evidence Code is amended to read:

1560. (a) As used in this article:

(1) "Business" includes every kind of business described in Section 1270.

(2) "Record" includes every kind of record maintained by such a business.

(b) Except as provided in Section 1564, when a subpoena duces tecum is served upon the custodian of records or other qualified witness of a business in an action in which the business is neither a party nor the place where any cause of action is alleged to have arisen, and the subpoena requires the production of all or any part of the records of the business, it is sufficient compliance therewith if the custodian or other qualified witness, within five days after the receipt of the subpoena in any criminal action or within the time agreed upon by the party who served the subpoena and the custodian or other qualified witness, or within 15 days after the receipt of the subpoena in any civil action or within the time agreed upon by the party who served the subpoena and the custodian or other qualified witness, delivers by mail or otherwise a true, legible, and durable copy of all the records described in the subpoena to the clerk of the court or to the judge if there be no clerk or to such other person as described in subdivision (c) of Section 2026 of the Code of Civil Procedure, together with the affidavit described in Section 1561.

(c) The copy of the records shall be separately enclosed in an inner envelope or wrapper, sealed, with the title and number of the action, name of witness, and date of subpoena clearly inscribed thereon; the sealed envelope or wrapper shall then be enclosed in an outer envelope or wrapper, sealed, and directed as follows:

(1) If the subpoena directs attendance in court, to the clerk of such court, or to the judge thereof if there be no clerk.

(2) If the subpoena directs attendance at a deposition, to the officer before whom the deposition is to be taken, at the place designated in the subpoena for the taking of the deposition or at the officer's place of business.

(3) In other cases, to the officer, body, or tribunal conducting the hearing, at a like address.

(d) Unless the parties to the proceeding otherwise agree, or unless the sealed envelope or wrapper is returned to a witness who is to appear personally, the copy of the records shall remain sealed and shall be opened only at the time of trial, deposition, or other hearing, upon the direction of the judge, officer, body, or tribunal conducting the proceeding, in the presence of all parties who have appeared in person or by counsel at the trial, deposition, or hearing. Records which are original documents and which are not introduced in evidence or required as part of the record shall be returned to the person or entity from whom received. Records which are copies may be destroyed.

(e) As an alternative to the procedures described in subdivisions (b), (c), and (d), the subpoenaing party may direct the witness to make the records available for inspection or copying by the party's attorney or the attorney's representative at the witness' business address under reasonable conditions during normal business hours. It shall be the responsibility of the attorney's representative to deliver any copy of the records as directed in the subpoena.

SEC. 15. Section 26849.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26849.1. The fee for filing, canceling, revoking, or withdrawing the bond of a notary public is seven dollars ($7).

The recording fee for the notice of cancellation, revocation, or withdrawal and any related document by the surety shall be paid to the county clerk, who shall transmit it to the county recorder.

SEC. 16. Section 26883 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26883. In addition to the power now possessed by the board of supervisors to enter into contracts for audits the board shall have the power to require that the county auditor-controller shall audit the accounts and records of any department, office, board or institution under its control and of any district whose funds are kept in the county treasury. The county auditor-controller's report on any such audit shall be filed with the board of supervisors and, if the report discloses fraud or gross negligence a copy thereof shall be filed with the district attorney.

The governing body of any district may agree with the board of supervisors to reimburse the county for its actual cost of any audit of its accounts and records had under this section.

SEC. 17. Section 29390 of the Government Code is amended to read:

29390. The board of supervisors may, by a resolution incorporating such limitations and safeguards as may be deemed in the best interests of the county, provide that county officers and employees who are responsible for receiving and paying out money may be relieved of shortages in their accounts, where there is no proof of fraud or gross negligence in connection with the shortage and where the loss is not covered by insurance. If the board of supervisors after an investigation and report by the county auditor approves the coverage of such shortage, it shall be entered in its minutes and shall be a charge against the general fund of the county.

SEC. 18. Section 69504.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

69504.6. (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the clerk of the superior court may record on microform as defined in Section 69503, including electronic imaging equipment, pleadings, motions, instruments, books, depositions, transcripts, minute orders, and any other material on file with the superior court. A duplicate copy of any record reproduced on electronic imaging equipment and certified by the clerk of the court, which meets the minimum standards or guidelines recommended by the American National Standards Institute or the Association for Information and Image Management, shall be deemed an original. No additions, deletions, or changes to an original record stored on microform, including electronic imaging equipment are permitted.

(b) The originals of all papers and records copied as provided in subdivision (a) may be destroyed in conformity with Section 69503. The reproduced copies shall be deemed to be the original records of the court.

SEC. 19. Section 69844.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

69844.5. The clerk of the superior court may, in lieu of minute books, judgment books and orders and decrees, photograph, microphotograph, photocopy, or electronically image all superior court minutes, judgments, orders and decrees.

Such photograph, microphotograph, photocopy, or electronic image shall be made in a manner that meets the minimum standards or guidelines recommended by the American National Standards Institute or the Association for Information and Image Management.

Every such reproduction shall be deemed and considered an original; and a transcript, exemplification, or certified copy of any such reproduction shall be deemed and considered an original.

All such photographs, microphotographs, photocopies, and electronic images shall be properly indexed and placed in accessible files. Each roll of microfilm shall constitute a book, shall be numbered, and provisions shall be made for its preservation and examination.

The original copy of each roll of microfilm shall be stored in a separate location. Original copies of microfilm shall be stored in a manner and place that reasonably assures their preservation indefinitely against loss, theft, defacement, or destruction.

SEC. 20. Section 69845.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

69845.5. In lieu of maintaining a register of actions as described in Section 69845, the clerk of the superior court may maintain a register of actions by means of photographing, microphotographing, or mechanically or electronically storing the content of all papers and records listed in subdivision (e) of Section 69503.

All such reproductions shall be placed in accessible files, and provisions shall be made for their preservation and examination.

Any photograph, microphotograph, photocopy or electronic image which is made pursuant to this section shall be made in a manner that meets the minimum standards or guidelines recommended by the American National Standards Institute or the Association for Information and Image Management.

SEC. 21. Section 70048 of the Government Code is amended to read:

70048. (a) In a county with a population of 1,300,000 and under 1,400,000, as determined by the 1970 federal census, regular official reporters shall be paid at a salary rate established by joint action and approval of the board of supervisors and a majority of the judges of the court.

Except as provided herein, the initial hiring rate for each position shall be step A, provided further, however, the judges of the superior court may appoint any such court reporter at a higher initial step if in the opinion of the judges of the superior court an individual to be appointed has such experience and qualification as to entitle that individual to such higher initial step. A step advancement from step A to step B may be granted on the first day of the month following the completion of 12 full months of service in the position. A person may advance to steps C, D, and E upon completion of successive 12-month periods of service. All merit increases as provided herein shall be made at the determination of the judges of the superior court. A court reporter employed prior to November 15, 1977, and currently employed shall receive a monthly and annual salary at step E.

(b) Official phonographic reporters pro tempore shall be compensated at a rate established by joint action and approval of the board of supervisors and a majority of the judges of the court.

(c) Each reporter shall cooperate with county personnel in any random job reviews for the purpose of confirming hours spent in attendance upon the courts for the purpose of reporting proceedings.

(d) During the hours which the court is open for the transaction of judicial business, official reporters shall devote full time to the performance of the duties required of them by law and shall not engage in or solicit to engage in any other employment in their professional capacity.

SEC. 22. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 800, 801, 2224, 2936, 2964.5, 3501, 3504, 4927, 6636, 11422, 17508.5, 17511.3, and 25503.26 of, and to amend and renumber Section 19445 of, the Business and Professions Code, to amend Section 4390.3 of, and to amend and renumber Section 798.41 of, the Civil Code, to amend Section 585.1 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to amend Section 301.5 of the Corporations Code, to amend Sections 8952.5, 24205, 32261, 48204.1, 51873.5, 72247.3, 78032, and 94319.10 of, and to amend and renumber Sections 56244 and 66915 of, the Education Code, to amend Sections 1901, 15151, 22208, 24208, and 26208 of, and to amend and renumber Section 5307 of, the Financial Code, to amend Sections 13150, 14978, 41207, and 75552 of, to amend the heading of Article 6 (commencing with Section 41251) of Chapter 3 of Division 16 of, and to amend and renumber Sections 13060 and 13061 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, to amend Sections 11373.3, 15819.24, 25905, 31602, 65850.2, 65852.6, 65915, and 77301 of, to amend and renumber Sections 13540, 13541, 13542, 14555.52, 15373.96, 16419, 53086, 65590, 65591, and 69908 of, to amend and renumber the heading of Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 13540) of Chapter 1 of Part 6.7 of Division 3 of Title 2 of, and the heading of Article 7.7 (commencing with Section 16419) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of, to repeal Sections 8684, 13307, and 66532 of, and to repeal Part 8 (commencing with Section 997) of Division 3.6 of Title 1 of, Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 13540) of Chapter 1 of Part 6.7 of Division 3 of Title 2 of, Article 6 (commencing with Section 15373.96) of Chapter 2.5 of Part 6.7 of Division 3 of Title 2 of, and Article 7.7 (commencing with Section 16419) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of, the Government Code, to amend Sections 1397, 1568.12, 11776.5, 13143.5, 25281.5, 26569.30, 26569.40, 28518.8, and 50781 of, to amend and renumber Sections 1199.200, 1199.201, 1794, 1794.2, 1794.4, 1794.6, 1794.8, 1794.10, 1794.12, 1794.14, 1794.16, 1794.18, 1794.20, 1794.22, 1794.24, 1794.26, 1794.28, 1794.30, 1794.32, 1794.34, 1794.36, 1794.38, 1794.40, 11755.5, and 22547.2 of, to repeal Sections 13143.2, 13143.5, 13869.7, and 50661.7 of, and to repeal Part 1.6 (commencing with Section 34050) of Division 24 of, and Part 4 (commencing with Section 35450) of Division 24 of, the Health and Safety Code, to amend Sections 5002, 5002.5, and 10086 of, and to amend and renumber Sections 5004, 10119.1, and 12205 of, the Insurance Code, to amend Section 394 of the Military and Veterans Code, to amend Sections 193.7, 270h, and 12028 of, and to repeal Title 7 (commencing with Section 14000) of Part 4 of, the Penal Code, to amend Section 10365.5 of, to amend and renumber Sections 7103, 7104, and 20920 of, and to amend and renumber the heading of Article 60.5 (commencing with Section 20920) of Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 2 of, the Public Contract Code, to amend Sections 8754, 30511, 42100, and 45002 of, and to amend and renumber Sections 2599.6, 3787, 41825, and 44817 of, the Public Resources Code, to amend Sections 5411.5, 130450, and 130452 of, to amend the heading of Article 10 (commencing with Section 130450) of Chapter 4 of Division 12 of, and to repeal Section 782 of, the Public Utilities Code, to amend Sections 97, 6357.5, 11005.3, and 24570 of, to amend and renumber Sections 7285, 7286, 12636, 25940, and 43152.9 of, and to repeal Sections 3964, 6051.1, 6201.1, 6376, 12637, 43158, and 45156 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, to repeal Section 162.5 of, and to repeal Article 4.8 (commencing with Section 179) of Chapter 1 of Division 1 of, the Streets and Highways Code, to amend and renumber Section 15031 of, and to repeal Section 305.5 of, the Unemployment Insurance Code, to amend Sections 11713.1, 23175, and 23190 of the Vehicle Code, to amend Section 13391.5 of the Water Code, and to amend Sections 11461, 13700, 14085.5, and 18425 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to the maintenance of the codes.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 800 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

800. (a) The Medical Board of California, the Board of Dental Examiners, the Board of Osteopathic Examiners, the Board of Chiropractic Examiners, the California Board of Registered Nursing, the Board of Vocational Nurse and Psychiatric Technician Examiners, the State Board of Optometry, the Board of Examiners in Veterinary Medicine, and the State Board of Pharmacy shall each separately create and maintain a central file of the names of all persons who hold a license, certificate or similar authority from such board. Each such central file shall be so created and maintained as to provide an individual historical record for each such person with respect to (1) any conviction of a crime in this or any other state which constitutes unprofessional conduct pursuant to the reporting requirements of Section 803; (2) any judgment or settlement requiring the person or his or her insurer to pay any amount of damages in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000) with respect to any claim that injury or death was proximately caused by such person's negligence, error or omission in practice or rendering of unauthorized professional services, pursuant to the reporting requirements of Section 801 or 802; (3) any public complaints for which provision is hereinafter made, pursuant to subdivision (b) of this section; and (4) any disciplinary information reported pursuant to Section 805.

(b) Each such board shall prescribe and promulgate forms on which members of the public and other licensees or certificate holders may file written complaints to the board alleging any act of misconduct in or connected with the performance of professional services by such person.

If a board, or division thereof, a committee, or a panel has failed to act upon a complaint or report within five years, or has found that the complaint or report is without merit, the central file shall be purged of information relating to the complaint or report.

(c) The contents of any central file which are not public records under any other provision of law shall be confidential except that the licensee involved or his or her counsel or representative shall have the right to inspect and have copies made of his or her complete file except for the provision that may disclose the identity of an information source. For the purposes of this section, a board may protect an information source by providing a copy of the text of the material with only those deletions as are necessary to protect the identity of the source or by providing a comprehensive summary of the substance of the material. Whichever method is used, the board shall ensure that full disclosure is made to the subject of any personal information that could reasonably in any way reflect or convey anything detrimental, disparaging, or threatening to an individual's reputation, rights, benefits, privileges, or qualifications, or be used by a board to make a determination that would affect an individual's rights, benefits, privileges, or qualifications.

The licensee may, but is not required to, submit any additional exculpatory or explanatory statement or other information which the board shall include in the central file.

Each board may permit any law enforcement or regulatory agency when required for an investigation of unlawful activity or for licensing, certification, or regulatory purposes to inspect and have copies made of that licensee's file, unless the disclosure is otherwise prohibited by law.

These disclosures shall effect no change in the confidential status of these records.

SEC. 2. Section 801 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

801. (a) Every insurer providing professional liability insurance to a person who holds a license, certificate or similar authority from or under any agency mentioned in subdivision (a) of Section 800 (except a person licensed pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1200) or Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 2000) of Division 2) or the Osteopathic Initiative Act shall send a complete report to that agency as to any settlement or arbitration award over three thousand dollars ($3,000) of a claim or action for damages for death or personal injury caused by that person's negligence, error or omission in practice, or rendering of unauthorized professional services. The report shall be sent within 30 days after the written settlement agreement has been reduced to writing and signed by all parties thereto or within 30 days after service of the arbitration award on the parties.

(b) Every insurer providing professional liability insurance to a physician and surgeon licensed pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 2000) of Division 2 or the Osteopathic Initiative Act shall send a complete report to the Medical Board of California or the Board of Osteopathic Examiners, as appropriate, as to any settlement or arbitration award over thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) of a claim or action for damages for death or personal injury caused by that person's negligence, error or omission in practice, or rendering of unauthorized professional services. The report shall be sent within 30 days after the written settlement agreement has been reduced to writing and signed by all parties thereto or within 30 days after service of the arbitration award on the parties.

(c) Every insurer providing professional liability insurance to a person licensed pursuant to Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 4980) or Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 4990) shall send a complete report to the Board of Behavioral Science Examiners as to any settlement or arbitration award over ten thousand dollars ($10,000) of a claim or action for damages for death or personal injury caused by that person's negligence, error, or omission in practice, or rendering of unauthorized professional services. The report shall be sent within 30 days after the written settlement agreement has been reduced to writing and signed by all parties thereto or within 30 days after service of the arbitration award on the parties.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no insurer shall enter into such a settlement without the written consent of the insured, except that this prohibition shall not void any settlement entered into without that written consent. The requirement of written consent can only be waived by both the insured and the insurer. This section shall only apply to a settlement on a policy of insurance executed or renewed on or after January 1, 1971.

SEC. 3. Section 2224 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2224. The Division of Medical Quality may delegate the authority under this chapter to conduct investigations and inspections and to institute proceedings to the executive director of the board or such other personnel as set forth in Section 2020, but shall not delegate its authority to take final disciplinary action against a licensee as provided in Section 2227 and other provisions of this chapter, and may not delegate any authority of the Senior Assistant Attorney General of the Health Quality Enforcement Section, and may not delegate any powers vested in the administrative law judges of the Office of Administrative Hearings, as designated in Section 11371 of the Government Code.

SEC. 4. Section 2936 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2936. The board shall by rule or regulation, establish standards of ethical conduct relating to the practice of psychology.

The board shall periodically evaluate the relevancy and efficacy of the standards.

In establishing these standards, the board may consider codes of ethics of relevant professional organizations, information and complaints regarding issues of ethical conduct from consumers of psychological services and other providers of mental health services. The board shall adopt a program of consumer and professional education in matters relevant to the ethical practice of psychology.

The adoption, amendment, or repeal of such rules or regulations shall be made in accordance with Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 11371) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

To facilitate consumers in receiving appropriate psychological services, all licensees and registrants shall be required to post, in a conspicuous location, a notice which reads as follows:

"NOTICE: The Department of Consumer Affairs receives questions and complaints regarding the practice of psychology. If you have any questions or complaints, you may contact this department by calling (insert appropriate regional number) or (insert appropriate telephone number), or by writing to the following address:

Medical Board of California
Allied Health Complaints
1430 Howe Avenue
Sacramento, California 95825"

SEC. 5. Section 2964.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2964.5. The board at its discretion may require any licensee placed on probation or whose license is suspended, to obtain additional professional training, to pass an examination upon the completion of that training, and to pay the necessary examination fee. The examination may be written or oral or both, and may include a practical or clinical examination.

SEC. 6. Section 3501 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3501. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Board" means the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Medical Board of California of the State of California.

(b) "Approved program" means a program for the education of physician assistants which has been formally approved by the committee.

(c) "Trainee" means a person who is currently enrolled in an approved program.

(d) "Physician assistant" means a person who meets the requirements of this chapter and is licensed by the committee.

(e) "Committee" or "examining committee" means the Physician Assistant Examining Committee.

(f) "Regulations" means the rules and regulations as contained in Chapter 13.8 (commencing with Section 1399.500) of Title 16 of the California Code of Regulations.

(g) "Routine visual screening" means uninvasive nonpharmacological simple testing for visual acuity, visual field defects, color blindness, and depth perception.

SEC. 7. Section 3504 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

3504. There is established a Physician Assistant Examining Committee of the Medical Board of California. The committee consists of nine members.

SEC. 8. Section 4927 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4927. As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Committee" means the Acupuncture Committee.

(b) "Board" means the Division of Allied Health Professions of the Medical Board of California.

(c) "Person" means any individual, organization, or corporate body, except that only individuals may be licensed under this chapter.

(d) "Acupuncturist" means an individual to whom a license has been issued to practice acupuncture pursuant to this chapter, which is in effect and is not suspended or revoked.

(e) "Acupuncture" means the stimulation of a certain point or points on or near the surface of the body by the insertion of needles to prevent or modify the perception of pain or to normalize physiological functions, including pain control, for the treatment of certain diseases or dysfunctions of the body and includes the techniques of electroacupuncture, cupping, and moxibustion.

SEC. 9. Section 6636 of the Business and Professions Code, as added by Section 12 of Chapter 1673 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

6636. The amount of the fees payable in connection with certificate of registration as an instructor in a barber college is as follows:

(a) The application fee shall be fixed by the board at not more than twenty dollars ($20).

(b) The examination fee shall be fixed by the board at not more than seventy dollars ($70).

(c) The fee for issuance of a certificate is an amount equal to the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date before the date on which the certificate is issued, except that, if the certificate will expire less than one year after its issuance, then the fee is 50 percent of the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date before the date on which the certificate is issued.

(d) The renewal fee for the biennial renewal period shall be fixed by the board at not more than sixty dollars ($60).

(e) The restoration fee is an amount equal to 150 percent of the renewal fee in effect when the application for restoration is filed.

(f) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1992.

SEC. 10. Section 11422 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

11422. (a) The office shall, on or before July 1, 1991, and at least annually thereafter, transmit to the appraisal subcommittee specified in subdivision (d) of Section 11302 a roster of persons licensed or certified pursuant to this part.

(b) Every real estate appraiser or certified real estate appraiser that performs or seeks to perform an appraisal in a federally related transaction shall pay to the office for transmission to the appraisal subcommittee specified in subdivision (d) of Section 11302 a fee specified by that subcommittee.

A receipt evidencing payment of the fee shall be displayed with the real estate appraiser license or certificate, as the case may be, of any person performing or seeking to perform appraisal activity regulated by this part.

(c) The office may also assess a fee sufficient to equitably apportion and defray the cost of administering this section. The fee shall be paid prior to performing or seeking to perform an appraisal.

SEC. 11. Section 17508.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

17508.5. It is unlawful for any person to represent that any consumer good which it manufactures or distributes is "ozone friendly," or any like term which connotes that stratospheric ozone is not being depleted, "biodegradable," "photodegradable," "recyclable," or "recycled" unless that consumer good meets the definitions contained in this section, or meets definitions established in trade rules adopted by the Federal Trade Commission. For the purposes of this section, the following words have the following meanings:

(a) "Ozone friendly," or any like term which connotes that stratospheric ozone is not being depleted, means that any chemical or material released into the environment as a result of the use or production of a product will not migrate to the stratosphere and cause unnatural and accelerated deterioration of ozone.

(b) "Biodegradable" means that a material has the proven capability to decompose in the most common environment where the material is disposed within one year through natural biological processes into nontoxic carbonaceous soil, water, or carbon dioxide.

(c) "Photodegradable" means that a material has the proven capability to decompose in the most common environment where the material is disposed within one year through physical processes, such as exposure to heat and light, into nontoxic carbonaceous soil, water, or carbon dioxide.

(d) "Recyclable" means that an article can be conveniently recycled, as defined in Section 40180 of the Public Resources Code, in every county in California with a population over 300,000 persons. For the purposes of this subdivision, "conveniently recycled" shall not mean that a consumer good may be recycled in a convenience zone as defined in Section 14509.4 of the Public Resources Code.

(e) "Recycled" means that an article's contents contain at least 10 percent, by weight, postconsumer material, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 12200 of the Public Contract Code.

(f) "Consumer good" means any article which is used or bought for use primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(g) For the purposes of this section, a wholesaler or retailer who does not initiate a representation by advertising or by placing the representation on a package shall not be deemed to have made the representation.

SEC. 12. Section 17511.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

17511.3. (a) Not less than 10 days prior to doing business in this state, a telephonic seller shall register with the department by filing with the Consumer Law Section of the department the information required by Section 17511.4 and a filing fee of fifty dollars ($50). A seller shall be deemed to do business in this state if the seller solicits prospective purchasers from locations in this state or solicits prospective purchasers who are located in this state.

A person claiming an exemption pursuant to paragraph (19) of subdivision (d) of Section 17511.1 shall file with the Consumer Law Section of the department, in lieu of the information required by subdivisions (a) to (o), inclusive, of Section 17511.4, the information required by subdivision (p) of Section 17511.4 and a filing fee of fifty dollars ($50).

The information required by Section 17511.4 shall be submitted on a form provided by the Attorney General and shall be verified by a declaration signed by each principal of the telephonic seller under penalty of perjury. The declaration shall specify the date and location of signing. Information submitted pursuant to subdivision (j) or (k) of Section 17511.4 shall be clearly identified and appended to the filing. The information submitted pursuant to Section 17511.4 shall become part of the investigatory records and intelligence information compiled by the department for law enforcement purposes.

(b) Registration of a telephonic seller shall be valid for one year from the effective date thereof and may be annually renewed by making the filing required by Section 17511.4 and paying a filing fee of fifty dollars ($50).

(c) Whenever, prior to expiration of a seller's annual registration, there is a material change in the information required by Section 17511.4, the seller shall, within 10 days, file an addendum updating the information with the Consumer Law Section of the department. However, changes in salespersons soliciting on behalf of a seller shall be updated by addendums filed, if necessary, in quarterly intervals computed from the effective date of registration. The addendum shall provide the required information for all salespersons who are currently soliciting or have solicited on behalf of the seller at any time during the period between the filing of the registration, or the last addendum, and the current addendum, and shall include salespersons no longer soliciting for the seller as of the date of the filing of the current addendum.

(d) Upon receipt of a filing and filing fee pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b), the department shall send the telephonic seller a written confirmation of receipt of the filing. If the seller has more than one business location, the written confirmation shall be sent to the principal business location identified in the seller's filing in sufficient number so that the seller has receipt of filing, within 10 days of receipt thereof, in a conspicuous place at each of the seller's business locations and shall have available for inspection by any governmental agency at each location a copy of the entire registration statement which has been filed with the department. Until confirmation of receipt of filing is received and posted, the seller shall post in a conspicuous place at each of the seller's business locations within this state a copy of the first page of the registration form sent to the department. The seller shall also post in close proximity to either the confirmation of receipt of filing, or until the confirmation is received, the first page of the submitted registration form, the name of the individual or individuals in charge of each location from which the seller does business in this state, as defined in subdivision (a).

SEC. 13. Section 19445 of the Business and Professions Code, as added by Chapter 290 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

19446. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a veterinarian shall not administer medications to any horse entered in the same race in which a horse is entered which he or she owns or trains.

In addition to any penalty provided for by this chapter or any other law, a violation of this section by any licensed veterinarian shall be grounds for denial, revocation, or suspension of a license or imposition of a fine pursuant to Section 4883 and the veterinarian shall be subject to disciplinary action pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 4875) of Chapter 11 of Division 2.

SEC. 14. Section 25503.26 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

25503.26. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the holder of a beer manufacturer's or winegrower's license may purchase advertising space and time from, or on behalf of, an on-sale retail licensee subject to all of the following conditions:

(1) The on-sale licensee is the owner, or is the lessee, or is a wholly owned subsidiary of the lessee, of an arena with a fixed seating capacity in excess of 10,000 seats, at least 60 percent of the use of which is for horseracing events, and which is located within Los Angeles County, Alameda County, or San Mateo County.

(2) The advertising space or time is purchased only in connection with events to be held on the premises of the arena owned or leased by the on-sale licensee.

(3) The on-sale licensee serves other brands of beer or wine in addition to the brand manufactured by the beer manufacturer or produced by the winegrower purchasing the advertising space or time.

(b) Any purchase of advertising space or time pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be conducted pursuant to a written contract entered into by the holder of the beer manufacturer's or winegrower's license and the on-sale licensee.

(c) Any holder of a beer manufacturer's license or winegrower's license who, through coercion or other illegal means, induces a holder of a beer or wine wholesaler's license to fulfill the contractual obligations entered into pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by a fine in an amount equal to the entire value of the advertising space or time involved in the contract plus ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by both imprisonment and fine. The person shall also be subject to license revocation pursuant to Section 24200.

SEC. 15. Section 798.41 of the Civil Code, as added by Chapter 380 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

798.43. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), whenever a homeowner is responsible for payment of gas or electric utility service, management shall disclose to the homeowner any condition by which a gas or electric meter on the homeowner's site measures gas or electric service for common area facilities or equipment, including lighting, provided that management has knowledge of the condition.

Management shall disclose this information prior to the inception of the tenancy or upon discovery and shall complete either of the following:

(1) Enter into a mutual written agreement with the homeowner for compensation by management for the cost of the portion of the service measured by the homeowner's meter for the common area facilities or equipment to the extent that this cost accrues on or after January 1, 1991.

(2) Discontinue using the meter on the homeowner's site for the utility service to the common area facilities and equipment.

(b) If the electric meter on the homeowner's site measures electricity for lighting mandated by Section 18602 of the Health and Safety Code and this lighting provides lighting for the homeowner's site, management shall not be required to comply with subdivision (a).

SEC. 16. Section 4390.3 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4390.3. (a) On and after July 1, 1990, whenever the court orders either party to pay any amount of support or orders a modification of the amount of support to be paid, the court shall also order the obligor to assign to an obligee that portion of his or her earnings due or to be due in the future as will be sufficient to pay the amount ordered by the court for support. The court shall include a wage assignment order in any order or judgment establishing or modifying support. Upon the filing and service of a notice of motion or order to show cause with the supporting application, an obligee may request the court to issue a wage assignment to enforce an existing support order or to modify an existing wage assignment order.

(b) All orders for wage assignment entered pursuant to this section shall be effective upon compliance with the procedures set forth in Section 4390.8, unless stayed pursuant to subdivision (c).

(c) The court may order that service of the wage assignment be stayed only if the court makes a finding of good cause to stay service of the wage assignment. Good cause is limited to the following:

(1) The obligor has a history of uninterrupted, full, and timely payment of previously ordered support during the preceding 12 months; however, an obligor who has not been subject to an order of support for 12 months prior to the issuance of the wage assignment may qualify for good cause subject to this provision if the obligor posts with the clerk of the court a cash bond or cash in an amount equal to three months' support.

Notwithstanding the above, good cause to stay service of the wage assignment shall not be found if an obligor owes an arrearage for prior support.

(2) The obligor proves, and the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence that service of the wage assignment would cause extraordinary hardship upon the obligor. Whenever possible, the court shall specify a date that any stay ordered under this paragraph will automatically terminate.

(3) The parties sign a written agreement which provides for an alternative arrangement to ensure payment of the support obligation as ordered other than through the immediate service of a wage assignment. This written agreement may include an agreement relating to the staying of the service of a wage assignment. Any agreement between the parties which includes the staying of the service of a wage assignment shall include the agreement of the district attorney in any case in which support is ordered to be paid through a county officer designated for that purpose. The signing of an agreement pursuant to this paragraph shall not preclude the party from seeking an assignment in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 4390.4 upon violation of this agreement.

(4) The employer or district attorney has been unable to deliver payments under the assignment for a period of six months due to the failure of the obligee to notify the employer or district attorney of a change of address.

SEC. 17. Section 585.1 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

585.1. (a) Every application to enter default under subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 585 shall include, or be accompanied by, an affidavit stating facts which show that the following conditions have been met:

(1) When the whereabouts of the party claimed to be in default are known by the party requesting the entry of default, a copy of the application for entry of default shall be mailed to the party claimed to be in default.

(2) When a party claimed to be in default is known by the party requesting the entry of default to be represented by an attorney, whether or not that attorney has formally appeared, a copy of the application shall also be sent to the attorney for the party claimed to be in default. Nothing in this section shall be construed to create any obligation to undertake any affirmative effort to determine the existence or identity of counsel representing the party claimed to be in default.

(3) If the whereabouts of a party claimed to be in default are unknown to the party requesting the entry of default and the identity of counsel for that party is also unknown to the requesting party, the application for entry of default shall so state.

(b) A default takes effect 10 days after the filing of the application for entry of default.

(c) A default may not take effect if the party claimed to be in default pleads or otherwise defends the action or proceeding prior to the expiration of 10 days from the filing of the application for entry of default.

SEC. 18. Section 301.5 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

301.5. (a) A listed corporation may, by amendment of its articles or bylaws, adopt provisions to divide the board of directors into two or three classes to serve for terms of two or three years respectively, or to eliminate cumulative voting, or both. After the issuance of shares, a corporation which is not a listed corporation may, by amendment of its articles or bylaws, adopt provisions to be effective when the corporation becomes a listed corporation to divide the board of directors into two or three classes to serve for terms of two or three years respectively, or to eliminate cumulative voting, or both. An article or bylaw amendment providing for division of the board of directors into classes, or any change in the number of classes, or the elimination of cumulative voting may only be adopted by the approval of the board and the outstanding shares (Section 152) voting as a single class, notwithstanding Section 903.

(b) If the board of directors is divided into two classes pursuant to subdivision (a), the authorized number of directors shall be no less than six and one-half of the directors or as close an approximation as possible shall be elected at each annual meeting of shareholders. If the board of directors is divided into three classes, the authorized number of directors shall be no less than nine and one-third of the directors or as close an approximation as possible shall be elected at each annual meeting of shareholders. Directors of a listed corporation may be elected by classes at a meeting of shareholders at which an amendment to the articles or bylaws described in subdivision (a) is approved, but the extended terms for directors are contingent on that approval, and in the case of an amendment to the articles, the filing of any necessary amendment to the articles pursuant to Section 905 or 910.

(c) If directors for more than one class are to be elected by the shareholders at any one meeting of shareholders and the election is by cumulative voting pursuant to Section 708, votes may be cumulated only for directors to be elected within each class.

(d) For purposes of this section, a "listed corporation" means any of the following:

(1) A corporation with outstanding shares listed on the New York Stock Exchange or the American Stock Exchange.

(2) A corporation with outstanding securities designated as qualified for trading as a national market system security on the National Association of Securities Dealers Automatic Quotation System (or any successor national market system) if the corporation has at least 800 holders of its equity securities as of the record date of the corporation's most recent annual meeting of shareholders. For purposes of determining the number of holders of a corporation's equity securities under this paragraph, there shall be included, in addition to the number of recordholders reflected on the corporation's stock records, the number of holders of the equity securities held in the name of any nominee holder which furnishes the corporation with a certification equivalent to the certification permitted by subdivision (a) of Section 2115, provided, that the corporation retains the certification with the record of shareholders and makes the certification available for inspection and copying in the same manner as provided in Section 1600.

(e) If an article amendment referred to in subdivision (a) is adopted by a listed corporation, the certificate of amendment shall include a statement of the facts showing that the corporation is a listed corporation within the meaning of subdivision (d). If an article or bylaw amendment referred to in subdivision (a) is adopted by a corporation which is not a listed corporation, the provision, as adopted, shall include the following statement or the substantial equivalent: "This provision shall become effective only when the corporation becomes a listed corporation within the meaning of Section 301.5 of the Corporations Code."

SEC. 19. Section 8952.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

8952.5. (a) The California State Summer School for the Arts shall be governed by a 15-member board of trustees, to be known as the Trustees of the California State Summer School for the Arts. The membership of the board shall be broadly representative of the cultural, ethnic, and geographic diversity of the state, and shall be composed of artists, arts educators, university professors and administrators, arts administrators, representatives of foundations, corporations, and commercial arts industries, and other distinguished citizens of the state.

(b) The membership of the board of trustees shall be as follows:

(1) Four members appointed by the Governor.

(2) One member appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly.

(3) One member appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules.

(4) Two members appointed by the State Board of Education, one of whom shall be a current member of the State Board of Education.

(5) One member appointed by the California Arts Council, who shall be a current member of the council.

(6) One member appointed by the Trustees of the California State University.

(7) One member appointed by the Regents of the University of California.

(8) Four members appointed by the governing board of the nonprofit foundation established pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 8953.5, who shall be the president of the foundation, another officer of the foundation, a member of the governing body of the foundation, and one other person who is a member of the governing body of the foundation, has a prior relationship with the foundation, or has otherwise exhibited a continuing interest in the foundation or in the California State Summer School for the Arts.

(c) Each appointment shall be for a term of three years, and each member shall be eligible for reappointment.

(d) The board of trustees annually shall select a chairperson and vice chairperson, and annually shall hold not less than four meetings.

SEC. 20. Section 24205 of the Education Code is amended to read:

24205. If a member cancels the election of an option made pursuant to Section 24203, written cancellation shall be received by the board on or before the day preceding the effective date of retirement or during the period between reinstatement pursuant to Section 23913 and the effective date of the subsequent retirement. Regardless of how the member elects to receive his or her retirement allowance, that allowance shall be reduced by one-half of 1 percent for each year or partial year that Option 3, Option 5, or Option 7 is in effect, or by six-tenths of 1 percent for each year or partial year that Option 4 is in effect, or by three-fourths of 1 percent for each year or partial year that Option 2 or Option 6 is in effect.

SEC. 21. Section 32261 of the Education Code is amended to read:

32261. The Legislature hereby recognizes that all pupils enrolled in the state public schools have the inalienable right to attend classes on campuses which are safe, secure, and peaceful. The Legislature also recognizes that pupils cannot fully benefit from an educational program unless they attend school on a regular basis. In addition, the Legislature further recognizes that school crime, vandalism, truancy, and excessive absenteeism are significant problems on far too many school campuses in the state.

The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the establishment of an interagency coordination system is the most efficient and long-lasting means of resolving school and community problems of crime, vandalism, and truancy.

It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this chapter to encourage school districts, county offices of education, and law enforcement agencies to develop and implement interagency strategies, programs, and activities which will improve school attendance and reduce the rates of school crime and vandalism.

SEC. 22. Section 48204.1 of the Education Code is amended to read:

48204.1. (a) The State Department of Education shall provide data with respect to pupils who are deemed to have complied with the residency requirements for school attendance in a school district pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 48204, as follows:

(1) The number of transfers, both in terms of a school district from which pupils are exiting and a school district to which pupils are transferring, based on fiscal reporting data which compensates school districts based on average daily attendance.

(2) The number of actual transfers out of a school district and into a school district pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 48204.

(3) The number of requests by pupils to transfer out of the school district in which he or she resides, the number of requests for those pupils that are rejected, and the reasons for the rejection.

(4) The number of pupils submitting new transfer requests and the number of pupils resubmitting a request from a prior year.

(5) The percentage of the total average daily attendance that a school district may lose as a result of pupils exiting from a school district. This percentage may be calculated as the difference between the number of pupils who transferred out of the district and the number of pupils who transferred into the district divided by the total number of pupils enrolled in a school district.

(6) The ethnicity of pupils exiting from and transferring to a school district pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 48204.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted and becomes effective before June 30, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 23. Section 51873.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

51873.5. The duties of the Educational Technology Committee shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(a) Recommending to the State Board of Education and the Superintendent of Public Instruction priorities for public school kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive, educational technology funding, targeting identified educational needs.

(b) Advising the State Board of Education and the Superintendent of Public Instruction of continuing developments in information technologies and their application to education for purposes of enhanced learning.

(c) Advising the State Board of Education and the Superintendent of Public Instruction, pursuant to this article, on the allocation of grants for educational software research and development, research and demonstration schools, school-based adoption grants and adaptation grants, research and development grants, grants to postsecondary educational institutions, and grants to regional consortia.

(d) Advising the State Board of Education and the Superintendent of Public Instruction on efforts to ensure equal pupil access to educational technology programs, taking into account varied socioeconomic conditions, urban-rural differences, gender, and developments in knowledge of the learning process.

(e) Recommending to the State Board of Education and the Superintendent of Public Instruction an annual budget identifying proposed funding levels for the educational technology program.

(f) Advising the State Board of Education and the Superintendent of Public Instruction on guidelines to promote high quality educational technology instructional material and to improve coordinated software research and communications between educational technology developers and distributors, curriculum specialists, teachers, principals, cognitive scientists, and hardware companies.

(g) Advising the State Board of Education and the Superintendent of Public Instruction on devising methods for mobilizing and integrating private sector involvement in public school programs.

(h) Making recommendations to the State Board of Education and the Superintendent of Public Instruction regarding structure, criteria, and objectives for the evaluation of educational technology programs in accordance with evaluation criteria specified in Section 51876.5.

(i) Making recommendations to the State Board of Education and the Superintendent of Public Instruction regarding grant awards to public postsecondary educational institutions for any of the following purposes:

(1) Providing computer education courses as part of an approved teacher preparation program. Teacher preparation programs which provide computer education courses funded pursuant to this section shall, to the extent feasible, be developed in cooperation with regional consortia in order to meet regional teaching training needs.

(2) Conducting studies of computer assisted instruction.

(j) Advising the California Planning Commission for Educational Technology regarding the State Master Plan for Educational Technology.

SEC. 24. Section 56244 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1501 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

56245. The Legislature encourages the inclusion, in local in-service training programs for regular education teachers and special education teachers in school districts, special education local plan areas, and county offices of education, of a component on the recognition of, and teaching strategies for, specific learning disabilities, including dyslexia and related disorders.

SEC. 25. Section 66915 of the Education Code, as added by Chapter 1324 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended and renumbered to read:

66914.5. (a) The commission, with the assistance of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, shall work in cooperation with the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education to prepare a preliminary draft of proposed regulations to implement the standards, procedures, and criteria prescribed in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 94300) of Part 59, including all of the following:

(1) Policies for the administration of the Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education Reform Act of 1989 (Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 94300) of Part 59).

(2) A procedure for the development and adoption of rules, regulations, and procedures which are necessary or appropriate to conduct the work of the council.

(3) Minimum criteria for the approval of private postsecondary or vocational educational institutions to operate in the state and to award degrees and diplomas.

(4) A procedure for the approval of institutions which meet the prescribed criteria.

(b) The preliminary draft shall be delivered to the council on or before December 31, 1990.

SEC. 26. Section 72247.3 of the Education Code is amended to read:

72247.3. Notwithstanding Section 72247, the Governing Board of the Pasadena Community College District may require payment of a parking fee at a campus in excess of the limits set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 72247 for the purpose of funding the construction of an oncampus parking structure if both of the following conditions exist at the campus:

(a) The average daily attendance (ADA) per parking space on the campus exceeds the statewide average ADA per parking space on community college campuses.

(b) The market price per square foot of land adjacent to the campus exceeds the statewide average market price per square foot of land adjacent to community college campuses.

If the governing board requires payment of a parking fee in excess of the limits set forth in subdivision (a), the fee may not exceed the actual cost of constructing a parking structure. Students who receive financial assistance pursuant to any of the programs described in subdivision (g) of Section 72252 shall be exempt from parking fees imposed pursuant to this section which exceed twenty dollars ($20) per semester.

SEC. 27. Section 78032 of the Education Code is amended to read:

78032. (a) Notwithstanding Section 78031, the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges may, pursuant to a finding that one or more of the following concerns in any community college district requires the restriction of interdistrict attendance, impose one or more restrictions upon interdistrict attendance with regard to that district as it deems necessary:

(1) Protection of the financial health of the district, and of educational program integrity, including, but not limited to, maintenance of the appropriate quality and scope of student educational opportunity.

(2) The need to avoid overcrowding, in light of the available space in the district.

(3) The priority that resident students not be displaced by students who do not reside in the district.

(4) The avoidance of any serious disruption in the ethnic balance of the student population of any affected district.

(b) No restriction adopted under subdivision (a) shall apply for a period of longer than two years, absent additional action of the board of governors to continue that restriction.

(c) (1) No community college district shall recruit any student who is a resident of any other community college district, except where an agreement exists between those districts authorizing each district to recruit within the boundaries of the other district.

(2) If, pursuant to an agreement as described in paragraph (1), a community college district recruits within the boundaries of another community college district, it shall recruit from all high schools within that other district, and may not favor any high schools over other high schools within that other district unless it is intended to improve the racial balance of the recruiting community college district.

(3) "Recruiting," for purposes of this section, means either or both of the following actions by a community college district, where the apparent purpose is to encourage student attendance in that district:

(A) The mailing by a community college district, to any address not within its boundaries, of class schedules or other written information, except to current or former students of the district or at the addressee's request.

(B) The personal visit by a representative of the community college district to any high school, except in response to an invitation from the school district of which the high school is a part.

"Recruiting" does not include, for this purpose, any information provided by a community college district through radio, television, or any newspaper or other publication that is not published or otherwise issued by the district, and for which distribution is not limited to residents of the district.

(d) The board of governors shall authorize the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges to retain in any fiscal year an amount of up to 5 percent of the appropriation calculated under Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 84700) of Part 50 as a penalty applicable to any community college district that violates this article, including, but not limited to, any restriction imposed by the board of governors under this section. Any funds retained pursuant to this subdivision shall revert to the General Fund.

(e) The board of governors shall annually report to the Legislature and the Governor regarding any restrictions imposed pursuant to subdivision (a), statistical information relating to interdistrict attendance, and any retention of funds pursuant to subdivision (d).

SEC. 28. Section 94319.10 of the Education Code is amended to read:

94319.10. (a) An institution is legally authorized to provide courses of instruction if the institution complies with both this article and Sections 94320 and 94321, or Section 94320 as that section is in effect on January 1, 1991, has received approval from the council, and has not been found to be in violation of this article by the council, the Student Aid Commission, or a court. No institution shall offer any course of instruction if the institution's approval to offer that course of instruction has been suspended or revoked.

(b) (1) The council, after notice and, if requested by the institution, a hearing, may suspend or revoke an institution's approval to operate, or approval to operate a branch or satellite campus, or may order that an institution cease offering a class or course of instruction because of any violation of this article, Sections 94320 and 94321, or Section 94320 as that section is in effect on January 1, 1991, or any regulation or order issued pursuant to this article.

(2) If the council takes any of the actions described in paragraph (1), the council, in its discretion, may permit the institution to continue to offer the class or course of instruction to students already enrolled or may order the institution to cease instruction and provide a refund of tuition and all other charges to students.

(c) (1) If the council determines, after notice and, if requested by the institution, a hearing, that an institution has violated this article or Sections 94320 and 94321, or Section 94320 as that section is in effect on January 1, 1991, but that the institution's approval to operate, or approval to operate a branch or satellite campus, should not be suspended or revoked, or that the institution should not be ordered to cease offering a class or course of instruction, the council may do any or all of the following: place the institution, or branch or satellite campus, on probation under reasonable terms and conditions for a specified period of time not to exceed two years, order that the institution post a bond, or order the institution not to enter into new agreements for courses of instruction.

(2) During the period of probation, the institution, or the branch or satellite campus, or both the institution and the branch or satellite campus, shall be subject to monitoring that may include the required submission of periodic reports, as prescribed by the council, and special onsite inspections to determine progress toward compliance. The onsite inspections may include an inspection of the institution's facilities and records, interviews of administrators, faculty, and students, and observation of class instruction. The council shall order the institution to reimburse all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by the council in connection with this paragraph. The council may make the payment of the order for reimbursement a condition of probation.

(3) If, at the end of the period of probation, the council is not satisfied with the steps taken by the institution to eliminate the violations of this article or Sections 94320 and 94321, or Section 94320 as that section is in effect on January 1, 1991, upon which the probation was based, the council may revoke the institution's approval to operate or the institution's approval to operate a branch or satellite campus.

(4) The council may assess a penalty of up to ten thousand dollars ($10,000) as part of a probation order for violations of this article or Sections 94320 and 94321, or Section 94320 as that section is in effect on January 1, 1991. In determining the amount of that penalty, the council shall consider the number and gravity of the violations, the degree of the institution's good faith or culpability, the history of the institution's previous violations, and the institution's ability to pay. If the institution fails to pay a penalty within the time prescribed by the council, the institution's approval to operate the institution, or approval to operate a branch or satellite campus, shall be automatically suspended until the penalty is paid in full.

(5) (A) Any bond ordered by the council shall be issued by an admitted surety insurer in an amount established at the discretion of the council that is sufficient to protect students from the potential consequences of the violation.

(B) The bond shall be in favor of the State of California for the indemnification of any person for any loss, including the loss of prepaid tuition, suffered as a result of the occurrence of any violation of this chapter during the period of coverage.

(C) Liability on the bond may be enforced after a hearing before the council, after 30 days' advance written notice to the principal and surety. The council shall adopt regulations establishing the procedure for administrative enforcement of liability. This paragraph supplements, but does not supplant, any other rights or remedies to enforce liability on the bond.

(D) The council may order the institution to file reports at any interval the council deems necessary to enable the council to monitor the adequacy of the bond coverage and to determine whether further action is appropriate.

(d) The council shall determine an institution's compliance, including the compliance of its branch and satellite campuses, with this article and Sections 94320 and 94321, or Section 94320 as that section is in effect on January 1, 1991, and shall not be bound by the findings or conclusions of any accrediting agency.

(e) The council may revoke the approval to operate of any institution which fails to pay an order imposing a penalty or an order for the reimbursement of costs and expenses. The council may enforce any administrative order requiring the payment of money in the same manner as if it were a money judgment pursuant to Title 9 (commencing with Section 680.010) of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. All penalties and reimbursements paid pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the vocational education account in the Private Postsecondary Education Administration Fund established pursuant to Section 94331.

(f) Proceedings by the council under this section shall be conducted in accordance with regulations adopted by the council or, if there are no regulations establishing hearing procedures, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the council shall have all of the powers granted therein.

(g) The council may bring an action for equitable relief for any violation of this article in addition to, or instead of, any other remedy or procedure.

SEC. 29. Section 1901 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1901. Whenever, in the judgment of the superintendent, the condition of any bank, trust company, or foreign banking corporation renders it necessary or expedient to make an extra examination or to devote any extraordinary attention to its affairs, he or she has the authority to make any necessary extra examinations and to devote any necessary extra attention to the conduct of its affairs and to charge for such extra services an amount not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200) a day for each examiner engaged in the examination of such bank.

SEC. 30. Section 5307 of the Financial Code, as added by Section 18.5 of Chapter 1118 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

5309. (a) A person shall be sentenced to consecutive terms for each violation of Section 5303, 5304, 5305, or 5306 up to a mandatory term of 20 years in state prison if all of the following are charged in the accusatory pleading and admitted by the defendant, or found to be true by the trier of fact:

(1) The person is an institution affiliated party.

(2) The person engaged in a pattern and practice of activity involving multiple violations of Section 5303, 5304, 5305, or 5306.

(3) The person acted with intent to cause substantial harm, or with reckless disregard of the possibility of causing substantial harm, to the savings institution.

(4) The violations did in fact result in substantial harm to the savings institution.

(b) No part of a consecutive sentence required pursuant to subdivision (a) may be suspended or revoked by the court.

(c) Nothing in subdivision (a) shall limit the court's discretion to sentence the defendant to a consecutive term longer than provided for in that subdivision, if otherwise permitted by law.

(d) Nothing in subdivision (a) shall limit the court's discretion to order consecutive sentences for violations of Section 5303, 5304, 5305, or 5306 under any other provision of law.

SEC. 31. Section 15151 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

15151. (a) A credit union shall maintain a current written schedule or schedules containing all of the following:

(1) The amount or, if no amount can be stated, the method of determining the amount of each charge which the credit union may impose on an account.

(2) Provisions in the credit union's written capital policy statement relating to the frequency, method that will be used in calculating, and the conditions under which dividends will be paid, including any provision for nonpayment of dividends on deposits made after the beginning of the dividend payment period or withdrawn before the end of that period.

(3) If the rate of dividend may vary, the circumstances under which a variation may occur and the method of determining the new rate.

(4) The effective date thereof.

(b) The schedule or schedules shall be available for inspection by the credit union members or prospective members at each branch office in California at which such accounts are maintained and written materials setting forth the information contained in such schedule shall be displayed and be available to the credit union members or prospective members in an area of the credit union which is open to the credit union members or prospective members. The schedule or schedules and written materials need not contain information relating to an account for an unincorporated association of natural persons.

SEC. 32. Section 22208 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

22208. (a) Each licensee shall pay to the commissioner its pro rata share of all costs and expenses reasonably incurred in the administration of this division, as estimated by the commissioner, for the ensuing year and any deficit actually incurred or anticipated in the administration of the program in the year in which the assessment is made. The pro rata share shall be the proportion which a licensee's gross income bears to the aggregate gross income of all licensees as shown by the annual financial reports to the commissioner.

(b) On or before the 30th day of May in each year, the commissioner shall notify each licensee by mail of the amount assessed and levied against it and that amount shall be paid within 20 days thereafter. If payment is not made within 20 days, the commissioner shall assess and collect a penalty, in addition to the assessment, of 1 percent of the assessment for each month or part of a month that the payment is delayed or withheld.

(c) In the levying and collection of the assessment, a licensee shall neither be assessed for nor be permitted to pay less than one hundred fifty dollars ($150) per year.

(d) If a licensee fails to pay the assessment on or before the 30th day of June following the day upon which payment is due, the commissioner may by order summarily suspend or revoke the certificate issued to the licensee. If, after an order is made, a request for hearing is filed in writing within 30 days, and a hearing is not held within 60 days thereafter, the order is deemed rescinded as of its effective date. During any period when its certificate is revoked or suspended, a licensee shall not conduct business pursuant to this division except as may be permitted by order of the commissioner. However, the revocation, suspension, or surrender of a certificate shall not affect the powers of the commissioner as provided in this division.

SEC. 33. Section 24208 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

24208. (a) Each licensee shall pay to the commissioner its pro rata share of all costs and expenses reasonably incurred in the administration of this division, as estimated by the commissioner, for the ensuing year and any deficit actually incurred or anticipated in the administration of the program in the year in which the assessment is made. The pro rata share shall be the proportion which a licensee's gross income bears to the aggregate gross income of all licensees as shown by the annual financial reports to the commissioner.

(b) On or before the 30th day of May in each year, the commissioner shall notify each licensee by mail of the amount assessed and levied against it and that amount shall be paid within 20 days thereafter. If payment is not made within 20 days, the commissioner shall assess and collect a penalty, in addition to the assessment, of 1 percent of the assessment for each month or part of a month that the payment is delayed or withheld.

(c) In the levying and collection of the assessment, a licensee shall neither be assessed for nor be permitted to pay less than one hundred fifty dollars ($150) per year.

(d) If a licensee fails to pay the assessment on or before the 30th day of June following the day upon which payment is due, the commissioner may by order summarily suspend or revoke the certificate issued to the licensee. If, after an order is made, a request for hearing is filed in writing within 30 days, and a hearing is not held within 60 days thereafter, the order is deemed rescinded as of its effective date. During any period when its certificate is revoked or suspended, a licensee shall not conduct business pursuant to this division except as may be permitted by order of the commissioner. However, the revocation, suspension, or surrender of a certificate shall not affect the powers of the commissioner as provided in this division.

SEC. 34. Section 26208 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

26208. (a) Each licensee shall pay to the commissioner its pro rata share of all costs and expenses reasonably incurred in the administration of this division, as estimated by the commissioner, for the ensuing year and any deficit actually incurred or anticipated in the administration of the program in the year in which the assessment is made. The pro rata share shall be the proportion which a licensee's gross income bears to the aggregate gross income of all licensees as shown by the annual financial reports to the commissioner.

(b) On or before the 30th day of May in each year, the commissioner shall notify each licensee by mail of the amount assessed and levied against it and that amount shall be paid within 20 days thereafter. If payment is not made within 20 days, the commissioner shall assess and collect a penalty, in addition to the assessment, of 1 percent of the assessment for each month or part of a month that the payment is delayed or withheld.

(c) In the levying and collection of the assessment, a licensee shall not be assessed for nor be permitted to pay less than one hundred fifty dollars ($150) per year.

(d) If a licensee fails to pay the assessment on or before the 30th day of June following the day upon which payment is due, the commissioner may by order summarily suspend or revoke the license issued to the licensee. If, after such an order is made, a request for hearing is filed in writing within 30 days, and a hearing is not held within 60 days thereafter, the order is deemed rescinded as of its effective date. During any period when its license is revoked or suspended, a licensee shall not conduct business pursuant to this division except as may be permitted by order of the commissioner. However, the revocation, suspension, or surrender of a license shall not affect the powers of the commissioner as provided in this division.

SEC. 35. Section 13060 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended and renumbered to read:

13131. (a) Commencing July 1, 1990, the department, in cooperation with the State Department of Health Services, shall conduct an assessment of dietary risks associated with the consumption of produce and processed foods treated with pesticides. This assessment shall integrate adequate data on acute effects and the mandatory health effects studies specified in subdivision (c) of Section 13123, appropriate dietary consumption estimates, and relevant residue data based on the department's and the State Department of Health Services' monitoring data and appropriate field experimental and food technology information to quantify consumer risk. Differences in age, sex, ethnic, and regional consumption patterns shall be considered. The department shall submit each risk assessment to the State Department of Health Services, with necessary supporting documentation, for peer review, which shall consider the adequacy of public health protection. The State Department of Health Services may provide comments to the department. The department shall formally respond to all of the comments made by the State Department of Health Services. The department shall modify the risk assessment to incorporate the comments as deemed appropriate by the director. All correspondence between the department and the State Department of Health Services in this matter shall be made available to any person, upon request, pursuant to the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code).

(b) The department shall consider those pesticides designated for priority food monitoring pursuant to Section 12535 and the results of the department's or the State Department of Health Services' monitoring in establishing priorities for the dietary risk assessments.

(c) (1) If the department lacks adequate data on the acute effects of pesticide active ingredients or mandatory health effects studies specified in subdivision (c) of Section 13123 necessary to accurately estimate dietary risk, the department shall require the appropriate data to be submitted by the registrant of products whose labels include food uses. This subdivision shall not be construed to affect the time frames established pursuant to Section 13127.

(2) No applicant for registration, or current registrant, of a pesticide who proposes to purchase or purchases a registered pesticide from another producer in order to formulate the purchased pesticide into an end use product shall be required to submit or cite data pursuant to this section or offer to pay reasonable compensation for the use of any such data if the producer is engaged in fulfilling the data requirements of this section.

(d) (1) If a registrant fails to submit the data requested by the director pursuant to this section within the time specified by the director, the director shall issue a notice of intent to suspend the registration of that pesticide. The director may include in the notice of intent to suspend any provisions that are deemed appropriate concerning the continued sale and use of existing stocks of that pesticide. Any proposed suspension shall become final and effective 30 days from the receipt by the registrant of the notice of intent to suspend, unless during that time a request for hearing is made by a person adversely affected by the notice or the registrant has satisfied the director that the registrant has complied fully with the requirements that served as a basis for the notice of intent to suspend. If a hearing is requested, a hearing shall be conducted pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. The only matter for resolution at the hearing shall be whether the registrant has failed to take the action that served as the basis for the notice of intent to suspend the registration of the pesticide for which additional data is required and whether the director's determination with respect to the disposition of existing stocks is consistent with this subdivision.

(2) A hearing shall be held and a determination made within 75 days after receipt of a request for a hearing. The decision rendered after completion of the hearing shall be final. Any registration suspended shall be reinstated by the director if the director determines that the registrant has complied fully with the requirements that served as a basis for the suspension of the registration.

(e) If the department finds that any pesticide use represents a dietary risk that is deleterious to the health of humans, the department shall prohibit or take action to modify that use or modify the tolerance pursuant to Section 12561, or both, as necessary to protect the public.

SEC. 36. Section 13061 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended and renumbered to read:

13132. The department and the State Department of Health Services shall jointly review the existing federal and state pesticide registration and food safety system and determine if the existing programs adequately protect infants and children from dietary exposure to pesticide residues. The review shall commence as early as possible in 1990, so that any policy or administrative adjustments determined to be necessary as a result of the joint review can be made on a timely basis. The department shall consult with the University of California and other qualified public and private entities in conducting the joint review. The joint review shall continue for a sufficient time in order to evaluate the report of infant exposure to pesticide residues, which is presently being undertaken by the National Academy of Sciences. Within six months of the official release of the National Academy of Sciences' study, the department shall finalize a report describing the evaluation that was conducted pursuant to this section, including any recommendations for modification of the existing regulatory system in order to adequately protect infants and children. A copy of this report shall be submitted to the Governor and the Legislature.

SEC. 37. Section 13150 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

13150. The director may allow the continued registration, sale, and use of an economic poison which meets any one of the conditions specified in Section 13149 if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The registrant submits a report and documented evidence which demonstrate both of the following:

(1) That the presence in the soil of any active ingredient, other specified ingredient, or degradation product does not threaten to pollute the groundwater of the state in any region within the state in which the economic poison may be used according to the terms under which it is registered.

(2) That any active ingredient, other specified ingredient, or degradation product that has been found in groundwater has not polluted, and does not threaten to pollute, the groundwater of the state in any region within the state in which the economic poison may be used according to the terms under which it is registered.

(b) A subcommittee of the director's pesticide registration and evaluation committee, consisting of one member each representing the director, the State Department of Health Services, and the board, holds a hearing, within 180 days after it is requested by the registrant, to review the report and documented evidence submitted by the registrant and any other information or data which the subcommittee determines is necessary to make a finding.

(c) The subcommittee, within 90 days after the hearing is conducted, makes any of the following findings and recommendations:

(1) That the ingredient found in the soil or groundwater has not polluted, and does not threaten to pollute, the groundwater of the state.

(2) That the agricultural use of the economic poison can be modified so that there is a high probability that the economic poison would not pollute the groundwater of the state.

(3) That modification of the agricultural use of the economic poison pursuant to paragraph (2) or cancellation of the economic poison will cause severe economic hardship on the state's agricultural industry, and that no alternative products or practices can be effectively used so that there is a high probability that pollution of the groundwater of the state will not occur. The subcommittee shall recommend a level of the economic poison that does not significantly diminish the margin of safety recognized by the subcommittee to not cause adverse health effects.

When the subcommittee makes a finding pursuant to paragraph (2) or this paragraph (3), it shall determine whether the adverse health effects of the economic poison are carcinogenic, mutagenic, teratogenic, or neurotoxic.

(d) The director, within 30 days after the subcommittee issues its findings, does any of the following:

(1) Concurs with the subcommittee finding pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (c).

(2) Concurs with the subcommittee finding pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (c), and adopts modifications that result in a high probability that the economic poison would not pollute the groundwaters of the state.

(3) Concurs with the subcommittee findings pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c), or determines that the subcommittee finding pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) will cause severe economic hardship on the state's agricultural industry. In either case, the director shall adopt the subcommittee's recommended level or shall establish a different level, provided the level does not significantly diminish the margin of safety to not cause adverse health effects.

(4) Determines that, contrary to the finding of the subcommittee, no pollution or threat to pollution exists. The director shall state the reasons for his or her decisions in writing at the time any action is taken, specifying any differences with the subcommittee's findings and recommendations. The written statement shall be transmitted to the appropriate committees of the Senate and Assembly, the State Department of Health Services, and the board.

When the director takes action pursuant to paragraph (2) or (3), he or she shall determine whether the adverse health effects of the economic poison are carcinogenic, mutagenic, teratogenic, or neurotoxic.

SEC. 38. Section 14978 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

14978. (a) In order to avoid administrative charges which may adversely impact persons subject to this chapter, and to provide for more efficient implementation of this chapter, the board may, on or before January 15 of any year, designate itself or another entity to administer this chapter for the fiscal year beginning July 1 of the same year through June 30 of the following year, in accordance with the regulations and procedures adopted or established by the director pursuant to Section 14979.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the director shall be responsible for the enforcement of this chapter and for the establishment of enforcement procedures.

SEC. 39. Section 41207 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

41207. (a) The committee shall be advisory to the director on all matters pertaining to this chapter and certification of the quality of grapes used for processing pursuant to Section 40531 and shall make recommendations concerning the inspection and certification services rendered, including the annual budget and fees necessary to provide adequate inspection services and varietal and appellation integrity. All recommendations for budgets and assessment fees shall be submitted to the director on or before May 1 of each year.

(b) The committee's primary goal shall be to recommend to the director objective criteria and inspection procedures for all quality conditions that have an effect on the acceptance of, or on the amount of the purchase price of, fresh grapes for wine and by-product purposes.

(c) The committee may also recommend to the director the institution and promotion of scientific research pertaining to varietal and appellation integrity.

(d) On or before May 1 of each year, the committee shall receive and evaluate comments and report to the director concerning the performance of the varietal and appellation integrity program and the progress toward attaining the goals of the program. The committee shall, based upon their evaluation, make recommendations so that the program is as active or inactive as the committee deems appropriate.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 40. The heading of Article 6 (commencing with Section 41251) of Chapter 3 of Division 16 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

Article 6. Winegrape Varietal and Appellation Integrity

SEC. 41. Section 75552 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

75552. (a) Each district shall consist of the following counties:

(1) District 1 consists of the Counties of San Luis Obispo, Kern, San Bernardino, Santa Barbara, Ventura, Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Diego, and Imperial.

(2) District 2 consists of the Counties of Monterey, San Benito, Merced, Tuolumne, Alpine, Mariposa, Mono, Fresno, Madera, Inyo, Kings, and Tulare.

(3) District 3 consists of the Counties of Santa Cruz, Santa Clara, Stanislaus, Calaveras, Amador, El Dorado, Sacramento, Solano, San Mateo, San Francisco, Alameda, Contra Costa, San Joaquin, Placer, Nevada, Sierra, Yuba, Sonoma, Napa, Yolo, Sutter, Shasta, Plumas, Butte, Colusa, Glenn, Lake, Del Norte, Siskiyou, Modoc, Trinity, Lassen, Marin, Tehama, Mendocino, and Humboldt.

(b) The boundaries of any district may be changed by a two-thirds vote of the membership of the committee, which is concurred in by the director, when necessary to maintain similar total production among the districts and to ensure proper representation by handlers. These boundaries need not coincide with county lines.

SEC. 42. Part 8 (commencing with Section 997) of Division 3.6 of Title 1 of the Government Code, as added by Chapter 21 of the Statutes of the 1989–90 First Extraordinary Session, is repealed.

SEC. 43. Section 8684 of the Government Code, as added by Chapter 11 of the Statutes of the 1989–90 First Extraordinary Session, is repealed.

SEC. 51. Section 15373.96 of the Government Code, as added by Chapter 1109 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended and renumbered to read:

15373.955. (a) There is hereby created in the Rural Economic Development Fund the Rural Revolving Loan Collection Account. The Rural Revolving Loan Collection Account is created solely for the purpose of receiving charges, fees, income, and collections, and paying costs necessary to protect the state's interests as specified in subdivision (c).

(b) In order to defray costs to the department for administration of its rural revolving loan program, the department may do all of the following:

(1) Impose reasonable charges on all applications, approved grants, and approved loans.

(2) Recover collection costs from the borrower, grantee, or other party.

(3) Earn income on any asset recovered pursuant to a loan default.

(c) The department may use these fees or other charges for those costs necessary to protect the state's position as a lender-creditor. These costs shall be broadly construed to include, but are not limited to, foreclosure expenses, auction fees, title searches, appraisals, real estate brokerage fees, attorney fees, mortgage payments, insurance payments, utility costs, repair costs, removal and storage costs for repossessed equipment and inventory, and additional expenditures to purchase a senior lien in foreclosure or bankruptcy proceedings.

(d) In the event that collection costs exceed the funds available in the Rural Revolving Loan Collection Account, the department may pay collection costs from the funds in the Rural Economic Development Fund.

SEC. 52. Article 6 (commencing with Section 15373.96) of Chapter 2.5 of Part 6.7 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, as added by Chapter 5 of the Statutes of the 1989–90 First Extraordinary Session, is repealed.

SEC. 53. Section 15819.24 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15819.24. (a) It is the intention of the Legislature in enabling the construction of the California State Prison-Fresno County, as authorized by Chapter 981 of the Statutes of 1990, to ensure that the City of Coalinga and the Department of Corrections actively endeavor to encourage the development of affordable accommodations and transportation at locations and times to afford access to all visitors of prisoners, including the infirm, the aged, the poor, and children.

(b) The necessary funding for the construction of the California State Prison-Fresno County, authorized by Chapter 981 of the Statutes of 1990, may be obtained through lease-purchase financing arrangements. Sections 15819.1 to 15819.13, inclusive, and Section 15819.15, shall apply for this purpose, provided that the following apply:

(1) "Prison facility," as used in Section 15819.1, includes the California State Prison-Fresno County.

(2) Notwithstanding the limitation imposed by Section 15819.3

regarding the amount of bonds to be issued for construction, acquisition, and financing of prison facilities, the State Public Works Board may issue additional bonds in order to pay the costs of acquiring and constructing or refinancing the California State Prison-Fresno County.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 13340, funds derived from the lease-purchase financing methods for the California State Prison-Fresno County, deposited in the State Treasury, are hereby continuously appropriated to the State Public Works Board on behalf of the Department of Corrections for the purpose of acquiring and constructing or refinancing the prison facility so financed.

The sum of two hundred seven million three hundred thousand dollars ($207,300,000) shall be available for capital outlay for the California State Prison-Fresno County from funds derived from lease-purchase financing methods. This amount shall be available as necessary for site acquisition, site studies and suitability reports, environmental studies, master planning, architectural programming, schematics, preliminary plans, working drawings, construction, and long lead and equipment items.

(d) The State Public Works Board may authorize the augmentation of the cost of the construction of the projects set forth in this section pursuant to the board's authority under Section 13332.11. In addition, the State Public Works Board may authorize any additional amounts necessary to pay the costs of financing, including the payment of interest during construction of the project, any additional amount as may be authorized by the board to pay the cost of financing a reserve fund, and the cost of issuance of permanent financing for the project. This additional amount may include interest during acquisition or construction of the facility, interest payable on any interim loan for the facility from the Pooled Money Investment Account pursuant to Section 16312, a reasonably required reserve fund, and the costs of issuance of permanent financing of the facility.

SEC. 54. The heading of Article 7.7 (commencing with Section 16419) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, as added by Chapter 942 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended and renumbered to read:

Article 7.6. Contingency Reserve for Economic Uncertainties

SEC. 55. Section 16419 of the Government Code, as added by Chapter 942 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended and renumbered to read:

16418.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, each special fund shall include a contingency reserve for economic uncertainties. These reserves shall constitute reserve funds within the meaning of Section 5 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

(b) On the first day of each fiscal year, or on the day that the Budget Act for that fiscal year is chaptered, whichever occurs later, an amount sufficient for any appropriation made by that Budget Act or by any other statute from the fund in which the reserve account is established, shall be appropriated from each reserve account in each special fund.

(c) On the last day of each fiscal year, the unappropriated balance in each special fund shall be appropriated to the reserve account in that special fund.

SEC. 56. Article 7.7 (commencing with Section 16419) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code, as added by Chapter 13 of the Statutes of the 1989–90 First Extraordinary Session, is repealed.

SEC. 57. Section 25905 of the Government Code is amended to read:

25905. The board of supervisors may contract with a nonprofit corporation or association for the conducting of an agricultural fair, as agent of the county, for a period not exceeding five years. Such contract may provide for the use, possession, and management of any public park or fairgrounds by such nonprofit corporation, as agent of the county, during the period of the contract.

All net proceeds received by such nonprofit corporation, from whatever source, shall be deposited within 60 days after the conclusion of any fair in a county fair fund which shall be established in the county treasury for such purpose. The moneys in the fund shall be expended only for support of the county fair, including maintenance and operation of the county fair facilities, premiums, purposes incidental to the fair, capital outlay for fair purposes and for the acquisition or purchase of real property to be used for fair purposes.

The corporation shall submit an annual budget to the State Department of Food and Agriculture, showing the estimated revenues and the proposed expenditures from all sources during the ensuing calendar year, which budget shall first be approved by the county board of supervisors and shall be considered as complying with Part 4 (commencing with Section 4401) of Division 3 of the Food and Agricultural Code relating to budgets.

Any other provisions of law relating to county fairs as a condition to receiving an allocation of state money for fair purposes shall be observed by such nonprofit corporation.

When such use, possession, and management is granted, the board may also allocate and pay to such nonprofit corporation in advance such sum of money it deems necessary to be used for the purposes for which such use, possession, and management is granted.

SEC. 58. Section 31602 of the Government Code is amended to read:

31602. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board of retirement, or, in counties that have established a board of investments, the board of investments, may establish a program utilizing the retirement fund to assist system members and annuitants, through financing, to obtain homes in this state.

The board shall adopt regulations governing the program which shall, among other things, provide:

(a) That home loans be made available to currently employed members and annuitants for the purchase of single-family dwellings, two-family dwellings, three-family dwellings, four-family dwellings, single-family cooperative apartments, and single-family condominiums.

(b) That private lending institutions in this state shall originate and service its home loans pursuant to agreements entered into between those institutions and the board.

(c) That the recipients of the loans occupy the homes as their permanent residences in accordance with the rules and regulations established by the board.

(d) That its home loans shall be available only for the purchase or refinancing of homes in this state and that under no condition shall a member or annuitant have more than one outstanding loan.

(e) That the amount and length of the loans shall be pursuant to a schedule periodically established by the board which shall provide a loan to value ratio of: (1) for the first loan, except for three-family dwellings and four-family dwellings, a maximum of 95 percent of the first loan; (2) for the first loan on three-family dwellings and four-family dwellings, a maximum of 90 percent of the first loan; and (3) for each additional loan, a maximum of 80 percent of each additional loan. The portion of any loan exceeding 80 percent of value shall be insured by an admitted mortgage guaranty insurer conforming to Chapter 2A (commencing with Section 12640.01) of Part 6 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code in an amount so that the unguaranteed portion of the loan does not exceed 75 percent of the market value of the property together with improvements thereon.

(f) That there may be prepayment penalties assessed on its loan in accordance with the rules and regulations established by the board.

(g) That the criteria and terms for its loans shall provide the greatest benefit to members and annuitants consistent with the financial integrity of the program and the sound investment of the retirement fund.

(h) Any other terms and conditions as the board shall deem appropriate.

SEC. 59. Section 53086 of the Government Code, as added by Chapter 1116 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

53075.6. Whenever a peace officer arrests any person for operating as a taxicab without a valid taxicab certificate, license, or permit required by any ordinance, and the offense occurred at a public airport, within 100 feet of a public airport, or within two miles of the international border between the United States and Mexico, the peace officer may impound and retain possession of any vehicle used in a violation of the ordinance.

If the vehicle is seized from a person who is not the owner of the vehicle, the impounding authority shall immediately give notice to the owner by first-class mail.

The vehicle shall immediately be returned to the owner without cost to the owner if the infraction or violation is not prosecuted or is dismissed, the owner is found not guilty of the offense, or it is determined that the vehicle was used in violation of the ordinance without the knowledge and consent of the owner. Otherwise, the vehicle shall be returned to the owner upon payment of any fine ordered by the court. After the expiration of six weeks from the final disposition of the criminal case, the impounding authority may deal with the vehicle as lost or abandoned property under Section 1411 of the Penal Code.

At any time, a person may make a motion in municipal court for the immediate return of a vehicle on the ground that there was no probable cause to seize it or that there is some other good cause, as determined by the court, for the return of the vehicle.

No peace officer, however, shall impound any vehicle owned or operated by a nonprofit organization exempt from taxation pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code which serves youth or senior citizens and provides transportation incidental to its programs or services.

SEC. 60. Section 65590 of the Government Code, as added by Chapter 1145 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

65591. This article may be cited and shall be known as the Water Conservation in Landscaping Act.

SEC. 61. Section 65591 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

65591.2. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The waters of the state are of limited supply and are subject to ever increasing demands.

(b) The continuation of California's economic prosperity is dependent on adequate supplies of water being available for future uses.

(c) It is the policy of the state to promote the conservation and efficient use of water and to prevent the waste of this valuable resource.

(d) Landscapes are essential to the quality of life in California by providing areas for active and passive recreation and as an enhancement to the environment by cleaning air and water, preventing erosion, offering fire protection, and replacing ecosystems lost to development.

(e) Landscape design, installation, and maintenance can and should be water efficient.

SEC. 62. Section 65850.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65850.2. (a) Not later than July 1, 1989, each city and each county shall include in its application for a building permit a place for the applicant to indicate whether the applicant or future building occupant will need to comply with the applicable requirements of Sections 25505, 25533, and 25534 of the Health and Safety Code and the requirements for a permit for construction or modification from the air pollution control district or air quality management district exercising jurisdiction in the area governed by the city or county. This subdivision does not apply to applications for residential construction.

(b) Not later than July 1, 1989, no city or county shall issue a final certificate of occupancy unless the applicant has met or is meeting the applicable requirements of Sections 25505, 25533, and 25534 of the Health and Safety Code and the requirements for a permit from the air pollution control district or air quality management district exercising jurisdiction in the area governed by the city or county or has provided proof from the appropriate district that the permit requirements do not apply to the applicant. This section shall not apply to applications for residential construction.

(c) On and after July 1, 1989, no city or county shall permit a facility to be constructed within 1,000 feet from the outer boundary of a school without meeting the requirements of Sections 25534 and 42303 of the Health and Safety Code. The risk management and prevention program and information required by Section 42303 of the Health and Safety Code shall not be accepted by the city or county unless approved by the administering agency. The information required by Section 42303 of the Health and Safety Code shall not be accepted by the city or county unless the air pollution control officer certifies that the applicant is in compliance with the required disclosures.

(d) The city or county, after considering the recommendations of the air pollution control district or air quality management district, shall decide whether, and under what conditions, to allow construction at the site.

(e) Nothing in this section limits any existing authority of a district to require compliance with its rules and regulations.

(f) Counties and cities may adopt a schedule of fees for building permit applications sufficient to recover their reasonable costs of carrying out this section.

SEC. 63. Section 65852.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65852.6. (a) It is the policy of the state to permit breeding and the maintaining of homing pigeons consistent with the preservation of public health and safety.

(b) For purposes of this section, a "homing pigeon," sometimes referred to as a racing pigeon, is a bird of the order Columbae. It does not fall in the category of "fowl" which includes chickens, turkeys, ducks, geese, and other domesticated birds other than pigeons.

SEC. 64. Section 65915 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65915. (a) When a developer of housing proposes a housing development within the jurisdiction of the local government, the city, county, or city and county shall provide the developer incentives for the production of lower income housing units within the development if the developer meets the requirements set forth in subdivisions (b) and (c). The city, county, or city and county shall adopt an ordinance which shall specify the method of providing developer incentives.

(b) When a developer of housing agrees or proposes to construct at least (1) 20 percent of the total units of a housing development for lower income households, as defined in Section 50079.5 of the Health and Safety Code, or (2) 10 percent of the total units of a housing development for very low income households, as defined in Section 50105 of the Health and Safety Code, or (3) 50 percent of the total dwelling units of a housing development for qualifying residents, as defined in Section 51.2 of the Civil Code, a city, county, or city and county shall either (1) grant a density bonus and at least one of the concessions or incentives identified in subdivision (h) unless the city, county, or city and county makes a written finding that the additional concession or incentive is not required in order to provide for affordable housing costs as defined in Section 50052.5 of the Health and Safety Code or for rents for the targeted units to be set as specified in subdivision (c), or (2) provide other incentives of equivalent financial value based upon the land cost per dwelling unit.

(c) A developer shall agree to and the city, county, or city and county shall ensure continued affordability of all lower income density bonus units for 30 years or a longer period of time if required by the construction or mortgage financing assistance program, mortgage insurance program, or rental subsidy program. Those units targeted for lower income households, as defined in Section 50079.5 of the Health and Safety Code, shall be affordable at a rent that does not exceed 30 percent of 60 percent of area median income. Those units targeted for very low income households, as defined in Section 50105 of the Health and Safety Code, shall be affordable at a rent that does not exceed 30 percent of 50 percent of area median income. If a city, county, or city and county does not grant at least one additional concession or incentive pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), the developer shall agree to and the city, county, or city and county shall ensure continued affordability for 10 years of all lower income housing units receiving a density bonus.

(d) A developer may submit to a city, county, or city and county a preliminary proposal for the development of housing pursuant to this section prior to the submittal of any formal requests for general plan amendments, zoning amendments, or subdivision map approvals. The city, county, or city and county shall, within 90 days of receipt of a written proposal, notify the housing developer in writing of the procedures under which it will comply with this section. The city, county, or city and county shall establish procedures for carrying out this section, which shall include legislative body approval of the means of compliance with this section. The city, county, or city and county shall also establish procedures for waiving or modifying development and zoning standards which would otherwise inhibit the utilization of the density bonus on specific sites. These procedures shall include, but not be limited to, such items as minimum lot size, side yard setbacks, and placement of public works improvements.

(e) The housing developer shall show that the waiver or modification is necessary to make the housing units economically feasible.

(f) For the purposes of this chapter, "density bonus" means a density increase of at least 25 percent over the otherwise maximum allowable residential density under the applicable zoning ordinance and land use element of the general plan as of the date of application by the developer to the city, county, or city and county. The density bonus shall not be included when determining the number of housing units which is equal to 10 or 20 percent of the total. The density bonus shall apply to housing developments consisting of five or more dwelling units.

(g) "Housing development," as used in this section, means one or more groups of projects for residential units constructed in the planned development of a city, county, or city and county. For purposes of calculating a density bonus, the residential units do not have to be based upon individual subdivision maps or parcels. The density bonus shall be permitted in geographic areas of the housing development other than the areas where the units for the lower income households are located.

(h) For purposes of this chapter, concession or incentive means any of the following:

(1) A reduction in site development standards or a modification of zoning code requirements or architectural design requirements which exceed the minimum building standards approved by the State Building Standards Commission as provided in Part 2.5 (commencing with Section 18901) of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code, including, but not limited to, a reduction in setback and square footage requirements and in the ratio of vehicular parking spaces that would otherwise be required.

(2) Approval of mixed use zoning in conjunction with the housing project if commercial, office, industrial, or other land uses will reduce the cost of the housing development and if the commercial, office, industrial, or other land uses are compatible with the housing project and the existing or planned development in the area where the proposed housing project will be located.

(3) Other regulatory incentives or concessions proposed by the developer or the city, county, or city and county which result in identifiable cost reductions.

This subdivision does not limit or require the provision of direct financial incentives for the housing development, including the provision of publicly owned land, by the city, county, or city and county, or the waiver of fees or dedication requirements.

(i) If a developer agrees to construct both 20 percent of the total units for lower income households and 10 percent of the total units for very low income households, the developer is entitled to only one density bonus and at least one additional concession or incentive identified in Section 65913.4 under this section although the city, city and county, or county may, at its discretion, grant more than one density bonus.

SEC. 65. Section 66532 of the Government Code, as added by Chapter 17 of the Statutes of the 1989–90 First Extraordinary Session, is repealed.

SEC. 66. Section 69908 of the Government Code, as added by Chapter 1232 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

69909. (a) In the County of Riverside, in addition to any other compensation and benefits, each judge of the superior court shall receive the county flexible benefits plan.

(b) Subject to approval by the board of supervisors, each judge of the superior court shall receive long-term disability insurance to the same extent as provided by the County of Riverside for other elected county officials.

SEC. 67. Section 77301 of the Government Code is amended to read:

77301. A county shall notify the state of its decision to opt into the system by transmitting to the Secretary of State and the Controller a resolution, agreeing without qualification or condition to be bound by the provisions of this chapter in consideration for state funding of trial courts in that county.

The resolution shall be signed by the chairperson of the board of supervisors, the presiding judge of the superior court, and the presiding judge of the municipal court district in which the county seat is located, if there is a municipal court, or if there is no such municipal court district, the judge of the justice court district in which the county seat is located, and shall certify that a majority of each of the board of supervisors, the judges of the superior court, and the judges of the municipal and justice courts in the county requests state funding. However, in a county having only one superior court judge, no municipal court judge, and only one justice court judge who serves one-fifth time, as determined by the Judicial Council, only the superior court judge may so sign and certify for the judges of the county.

The option notification for the second half of the 1988–89 fiscal year shall be deemed effective on January 1, 1989. In subsequent years, the option notification shall become effective for the full fiscal year on the July 1 following notification, if sufficient moneys have been appropriated in the Budget Act for the fiscal year to adequately fund the program.

SEC. 68. Section 1199.200 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

1799.200. (a) The State Department of Health Services shall contract with an organization with expertise in program evaluation, pediatric emergency medical services, and critical care, for the purposes specified in subdivision (b).

(b) The contractor, in consultation with a professional pediatric association, a professional emergency physicians association, a professional emergency medical services medical directors association, the Emergency Medical Services Authority, and the State Department of Health Services, shall perform a study that will identify the outcome criteria which can be used to evaluate pediatric critical care systems. This study shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Development of criteria to identify how changes in pediatric critical care systems affect the treatment of critically ill and injured children.

(2) Development of criteria to compare the systems in place in various areas of the state.

(3) Determination of whether the necessary data is currently available.

(4) Estimate of the cost to providers, such as emergency medical service agencies and hospitals, of collecting this data.

(5) Recommendations concerning the most reliable and cost-effective monitoring plan for use by agencies and facilities at the state, regional, and local levels.

SEC. 69. Section 1199.201 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

1799.201. The contractor shall submit the results of the study to the Legislature and the Governor not later than January 1, 1991.

SEC. 70. Section 1397 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1397. (a) Whenever reference is made in this chapter to a hearing before or by the commissioner, the hearing shall be held in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code), and the commissioner shall have all of the powers granted under that act.

(b) Every final order, decision, license, or other official act of the commissioner under this chapter is subject to judicial review in accordance with the law.

SEC. 71. Section 1568.12 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1568.12. The following powers and duties are hereby vested in the department:

(a) The department shall supervise a program in specialized day care-resource centers for participants developed pursuant to this chapter.

(b) (1) The department shall conduct a grants-in-aid program, subject to the funds appropriated, for that purpose.

(2) The maximum award by the department to any grantee shall be sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) per year, and a grantee shall be required to match not less than 25 percent of the amount granted. The use of the grants shall be limited to the expenses of administration, staffing, operating expenses, such as rent and utilities, equipment, and required renovation expenses.

(3) The matching contribution of the grantee may include cash or in-kind contributions, and the in-kind contribution may include the value of staffing or volunteer services, or both.

(4) Grants shall be awarded in different geographical areas of the state. Grantees shall include at least one urban and one rural center, with representation from the north, south, and central regions of the state.

(5) When evaluating proposals for grants, preference shall be given to proposals that will serve clients in underserved areas or areas without existing Alzheimer's day care-resource centers.

(c) The department shall adopt policies, priorities, and guidelines to carry out the purposes of this chapter, and the adoption thereof shall not be subject to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

The Long-Term Care Committee, established by Section 1572, shall make recommendations to the department on the selection of grantees to operate Alzheimer's day care-resource centers.

Subject to funds appropriated for that purpose, the department shall allocate the funds necessary to continue operation of the Alzheimer's day care-resource centers, administered pursuant to this part, during the 1987–88, 1988–89, 1989–90, and 1990–91 fiscal years.

SEC. 72. Section 1794 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

1793.5. (a) Any entity which sells deposit subscriptions proposing to promise to provide care without having a current and valid permit to sell deposit subscriptions is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) Any entity which sells deposit subscriptions and fails to place any consideration received into an escrow account pursuant to this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(c) Any entity which executes a continuing care contract without holding a current and valid provisional or final certificate of authority is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(d) Each violation of subdivision (a), (b), or (c) is subject to a fine not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(e) Any entity that issues, delivers, or publishes, or as manager or officer or in any other administrative capacity, assists in the issuance, delivery, or publication of any printed matter, oral representation, or advertising material which does not conform to the requirements of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(f) Any violation of subdivision (e) shall constitute cause for the suspension of all and any licenses, permits, and certificates of authority issued to such person, organization, provider, association, or corporation by any agency of the state.

SEC. 73. Section 1794.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

1793.7. A permit to sell deposit subscriptions or a certificate of authority shall be forfeited by operation of law prior to its expiration date when any one of the following occurs:

(a) The applicant or provider sells or otherwise transfers the facility or facility property and when the transfer of stock constitutes a major change in ownership.

(b) The applicant or provider surrenders the permit to sell deposit subscriptions or certificate of authority to the department.

(c) The applicant or provider moves a facility from one location to another.

(d) The applicant or provider abandons the facility.

(e) The facility is sold.

(f) The applicant or provider is evicted from the facility premises.

SEC. 74. Section 1794.4 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

1793.9. (a) Obligations pursuant to continuing care agreements executed by a provider shall be deemed a preferred claim against all assets owned by the provider in the event of liquidation. However, this preferred claim shall be subject to any perfected claims secured by mortgage, deed of trust, pledge, deposit as security, escrow, or otherwise secured.

(b) For purposes of computing the reserve required pursuant to Section 1792.2, the liens required under Section 1793.15 shall not be deducted from the value of real or personal property.

SEC. 75. Section 1794.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

1793.11. (a) Any transfer of money or property, pursuant to a continuing care contract found by the department to be executed in violation of this chapter, is voidable at the option of the transferor for a period of 90 days from the execution of the transfer.

(b) No action may be brought for the reasonable value of any services rendered between the date of transfer and the date the transferor disaffirms the contract.

(c) With respect to real property, the right of disaffirmance or rescission is conclusively presumed to have terminated if a notice of intent to rescind is not recorded with the county recorder of the county in which the real property is located within 90 days from the date of execution of the conveyance by the transferor.

(d) Any deed or other instrument of conveyance shall contain a recital that the transaction is made pursuant to rescission by the transferor within 90 days from the date of the transfer.

(e) Any transfer of a sum of money or property, real or personal, to anyone pursuant to a continuing care contract that was not approved by the department is voidable at the option of the department or transferor or his or her assigns or agents.

(f) Any transaction determined by the department to be in violation of this chapter is voidable at the option of the transferor or his or her assigns or agents.

SEC. 76. Section 1794.8 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

1793.13. (a) In either of the following situations the department may require the provider to submit within 60 days a financial plan detailing the method by which the provider proposes to overcome the deficiencies noted by the department.

(1) If a provider fails to file an annual report as required by Section 1790.

(2) At any other time when the department has reason to believe that the provider is insolvent, is in imminent danger of becoming insolvent, is in a financially unsound or unsafe condition, or that its condition is such that it may otherwise be unable to fully perform its obligations pursuant to continuing care contracts.

(b) The department shall approve or disapprove the plan within 30 days of its receipt.

(c) If the plan is approved, the provider shall immediately implement the plan.

(d) If the plan is disapproved, or if it is determined that the plan is not being fully implemented, the department may, after consultation with and upon consideration of the recommendations of the Committee on Continuing Care Contracts, require the provider to obtain new or additional management capability to solve its difficulties. A reasonable period, as determined by the department, shall be allowed to the reorganized management to develop a plan which, subject to the approval of the department and after review by the committee, will reasonably assure that the provider will meet its responsibilities under the law.

SEC. 77. Section 1794.10 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 875 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

1793.15. (a) When necessary to secure the performance of all obligations of the applicant or provider to transferors, the department may record a notice or notices of lien on behalf of the transferors. From the date of recording, the lien shall attach to all real property owned or acquired by the provider during the pendency of the lien, provided such property is not exempt from the execution of a lien and is located within the county in which the lien is recorded. The lien shall have the force, effect, and priority of a judgment lien.

(b) The department shall file a release of the lien if the department deems the lien no longer necessary to secure the performance of all obligations of the applicant or provider to the transferors.

(c) The applicant or provider may appeal to the department from a refusal of a request for a release of the lien.

(d) The decision shall be subject to court review pursuant to Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure, upon petition of the applicant or provider filed within 30 days of service of the decision.

SEC. 78. Section 1794.12 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 875 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

1793.17. (a) When necessary to secure the interests of transferors, the department may require that the applicant or provider reestablish an escrow account, return previously released moneys to escrow, and escrow all future entrance fee payments.

(b) The department may release funds from escrow when it deems the escrow is no longer necessary to secure the performance of all obligations of the applicant or provider to the transferors.

SEC. 79. Section 1794.14 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 875 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

1793.19. The civil, criminal, and administrative remedies available to the department pursuant to this article are not exclusive and may be sought and employed in any combination deemed advisable by the department to enforce this chapter.

SEC. 80. Section 1794.16 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 875 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

1793.21. (a) The department, in its discretion, may limit, suspend, or revoke any permit to sell deposit subscriptions or certificates of authority issued under this chapter if it finds any one or more of the following:

(1) Violation by the provider of this chapter or the rules and regulations adopted under this chapter.

(2) Aiding, abetting, or permitting the violation of this chapter or the rules and regulations adopted under this chapter.

(3) Suspension or revocation of the license of the provider pursuant to the licensing provisions of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) or Chapter 3.2 (commencing with Section 1569).

(4) Material misstatement, misrepresentation, or fraud in obtaining the permit to sell deposit subscriptions or certificates of authority.

(5) Demonstrated lack of fitness or trustworthiness.

(6) Fraudulent or dishonest practices of management in the conduct of business.

(7) Misappropriation, conversion, or withholding of moneys.

(8) Refusal by the provider to be examined or to produce its accounts, records, and files for examination, or refusal by any of its officers to give information with respect to its affairs or to perform any other legal obligations as to such examination, when required by the department.

(9) The provider's unsound financial condition or use of such methods and practices in the conduct of business as to render further transactions by the provider hazardous or injurious to the public.

(10) Failure to maintain at all times at least the minimum statutory reserves required by Section 1792.2.

(11) Failure to maintain the reserve fund escrow account for prepaid continuous care contracts required by Section 1792.

(12) Failure to comply with the refund reserve requirements of Section 1793.

(13) Failure by the provider to maintain escrow accounts for funds as required by this chapter.

(14) Failure to file an annual report as required by Section 1790, after notice that the report is due.

(15) Violation of a limitation on a certificate.

(16) Failure to comply with its approved financial and marketing plan, or secure approval of a modified plan.

(17) A material change or deviation from the approved plan of operation without the prior consent of the department.

(18) Failure by the provider to fulfill its obligations under continuing care contracts.

SEC. 81. Section 1794.18 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 875 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

1793.23. (a) The department shall consult with and consider the recommendations of the Committee on Continuing Care Contracts prior to limiting, suspending, or revoking any permit to sell deposit subscriptions or certificate of authority.

(b) The provider shall have a right of appeal to the department. The proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the department shall have all of the powers granted therein. A suspension, limitation, or revocation shall remain in effect until completion of the proceedings in favor of the provider. In all proceedings conducted in accordance with this section, the standard of proof to be applied shall be by a preponderance of the evidence.

(c) The department may, upon finding of changed circumstances, remove a suspension or limitation.

SEC. 82. Section 1794.20 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 875 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

1793.25. (a) During the period that the revocation or suspension action is pending against the permit to sell deposit subscriptions or certificate of authority, the provider shall not enter into any new contracts or deposit subscription agreements.

(b) The suspension or revocation by the department, or voluntary return of the certificate of authority by the provider, shall not release the provider from obligations assumed at the time the continuing care contracts were executed.

SEC. 83. Section 1794.22 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 875 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

1793.27. (a) If the department finds that one or more grounds exist for the discretionary limitation, revocation, or suspension of a permit to sell deposit subscriptions or a certificate of authority issued under this chapter, the department, in lieu of the limitation, revocation, or suspension, may impose a civil penalty upon the provider in an amount not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) per violation.

(b) The civil penalty shall be deposited in a segregated bank account and shall be disbursed for the specific purposes of offsetting the costs of investigation and litigation and to compensate court-appointed administrators when facility assets are insufficient.

SEC. 84. Section 1794.24 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 875 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

1793.29. In the case of any violation or threatened violation of this chapter, the department may institute a proceeding or may request the Attorney General to institute a proceeding to obtain injunctive or other equitable relief in the superior court in and for the county in which the violation occurs, or in which the principal place of business of the provider is located. The proceeding under this section shall conform with the requirements of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, except that no undertaking shall be required of the department in any action commenced under this section, nor shall the department be required to allege facts necessary to show lack of adequate remedy at law, or to show irreparable loss or damage.

SEC. 85. Section 1794.26 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 875 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

1793.31. (a) The district attorney of every county may, upon application by the department or its authorized representative, institute and conduct the prosecution of any action for violation of this chapter within his or her county.

(b) This chapter shall not limit or qualify the powers of the district attorney to institute and conduct the prosecution of any action brought for the violation within his or her county of this chapter or any other provision of law, including, but not limited to, actions for fraud or misrepresentation.

(c) The department shall provide access to any records in its control on request of a district attorney and shall cooperate in any investigation by a district attorney.

SEC. 86. Section 1794.28 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 875 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

1793.50. (a) The department, after consultation with the Committee on Continuing Care Contracts, may petition the superior court for an order appointing a qualified administrator to operate a facility, and thereby mitigate crisis situations wherein elderly residents are left without means for their support or moved without proper preparation, in any of the following circumstances:

(1) The provider is insolvent or in imminent danger of becoming insolvent.

(2) The provider is in a financially unsound or unsafe condition.

(3) The provider has failed to establish or has substantially depleted the reserves required by this chapter.

(4) A plan, as specified in Section 1793.13, has not been approved by the department or the provider has failed to implement the plan approved by the department.

(5) The provider is unable to fully perform its obligations pursuant to continuing care contracts.

(6) The residents are otherwise placed in serious jeopardy.

(b) The administrator may only assume the operation of the facility in order to either rehabilitate the provider to enable it fully to perform its continuing care contract obligations, implement a plan of reorganization acceptable to the department, facilitate the transition if another provider assumes continuing care contract obligations, or facilitate an orderly liquidation of the provider.

(c) With each petition, the department shall include a request for a temporary restraining order to prevent the provider from disposing of or transferring assets pending the hearing on the petition.

(d) The provider shall be served with a copy of the petition, together with an order to appear and show cause why management and possession of the provider's facility or assets should not be vested in an administrator.

(e) The order to show cause shall specify a hearing date, which shall be not less than five nor more than 10 days following service of the petition and order to show cause on the provider.

(f) Petitions to appoint an administrator shall have precedence over all matters, except criminal matters, in the court.

(g) At the time of the hearing, the department shall advise the provider and the court of the name of the proposed administrator.

(h) If, at the conclusion of the hearing, including such oral evidence as the court shall consider, the court finds that any of the circumstances specified in subdivision (a) exist, the court shall issue an order appointing an administrator to take possession of the property of the provider and to conduct the business thereof, enjoining the provider from interfering with the administrator in the conduct of the rehabilitation, and directing the administrator to take steps toward removal of the causes and conditions which have made rehabilitation necessary, as the court may direct.

(i) The order shall include a provision directing the issuance of a notice of the rehabilitation proceedings to the residents at the facility and to other interested persons as the court shall direct.

(j) The court may permit the provider to participate in the continued operation of the facility during the pendency of any appointments ordered pursuant to this section and shall specify in the order the nature and scope of the participation.

(k) The court shall retain jurisdiction throughout the rehabilitation proceeding and may issue further orders as it deems necessary to accomplish the rehabilitation or orderly liquidation of the facility in order to protect the residents of the facility.

SEC. 87. Section 1794.30 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

1793.52. The department shall maintain a list of qualified persons for use by the courts in appointing an administrator pursuant to this article.

SEC. 88. Section 1794.32 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

1793.54. If an administrator is appointed to rehabilitate a provider, the administrator may do any of the following:

(a) Take possession of and preserve, protect and recover any assets, books, records, or property of the provider, including, but not limited to, claims or causes of action belonging to, or which may be asserted by, the provider.

(b) Deal with the property in the administrator's name in the capacity as administrator, and purchase at any sale any real estate or other asset upon which the provider may hold any lien or encumbrance or in which the provider may have an interest.

(c) File, prosecute, and defend or compromise any suit or suits which have been filed, or which may thereafter be filed, by or against the provider as necessary to protect the provider or the residents or any property affected thereby.

(d) Deposit and invest any of the provider's available funds.

(e) Pay all expenses of the rehabilitation.

(f) Perform all duties of the provider in the provision of care and services to residents in the facility at the time the administrator takes possession.

(g) Facilitate the orderly transfer of residents should the provider ultimately fail.

(h) Exercise any other powers and duties as may be authorized by law or provided by order of the court.

SEC. 89. Section 1794.34 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

1793.56. (a) Reasonable compensation shall be paid to the administrator appointed.

(b) Costs for the compensation shall be levied against the assets of the provider.

(c) Any individual appointed administrator, pursuant to Section 1793.50, shall be held harmless for any negligence in the performance of his or her duties and shall be indemnified by the provider for costs of defending actions brought against him or her in his or her capacity as administrator.

SEC. 90. Section 1794.36 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

1793.58. (a) The department, administrator, or any interested person, upon due notice to the administrator, at any time, may apply to the court for an order terminating the rehabilitation proceedings and permitting the provider to resume possession of the provider's property and the conduct of the provider's business.

(b) No order shall be granted pursuant to subdivision (a) except when, after a full hearing, the court has determined that the purposes of the proceeding have been fully and successfully accomplished and that the facility can be returned to the provider's management without further jeopardy to the residents of the facility, creditors, owners of the facility, and to the public.

(c) An order terminating the rehabilitation proceeding shall be based upon a full report and accounting by the administrator of the conduct of the provider's officers, employees, and business during the rehabilitation and of the provider's current financial condition.

(d) Upon issue of an order terminating the rehabilitation, the department shall reinstate the certificate of authority and may limit, suspend, or revoke the reinstated certificate only upon a change in the conditions at the time of the order or a determination of facts which, if such facts had been known at the time of the order, the court would not have entered the order as determined by the department.

SEC. 91. Section 1794.38 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

1793.60. (a) If at any time the department determines that further efforts to rehabilitate the provider would not be in the best interest of the residents or prospective residents, or would not be economically feasible, the director may, with the approval of the Committee on Continuing Care Contracts, apply to the court for an order of liquidation and dissolution or may apply for other appropriate relief for dissolving the property and bringing to conclusion its business affairs.

(b) Upon issue of an order directing the liquidation or dissolution of the provider, the department shall revoke the provider's certificate.

SEC. 92. Section 1794.40 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

1793.62. (a) The department, administrator, or any interested person, upon due notice to the parties, may petition the court for an order terminating the rehabilitation proceedings when the rehabilitation efforts have not been successful, the facility has been sold at foreclosure sale, the provider has been declared bankrupt, or the provider has otherwise been shown to be unable to perform its obligations under the continuing care contracts.

(b) No order shall be granted unless all of the following have occurred:

(1) There has been a full hearing and the court has determined that the provider is unable to perform its contractual obligations.

(2) The administrator has given the court a full and complete report and financial accounting signed by the administrator as being a full and complete report and accounting.

(3) The court has determined that the residents of the facility have been protected to the extent possible and has made such orders in this regard as the court deems proper.

SEC. 93. Section 11755.5 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 1029 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

11755.4. (a) To the extent funding is provided pursuant to subdivision (c), a two-year pilot project shall be established by the homeless youth project operated in the County of Los Angeles pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 13700) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code to operate an outreach program targeted at treating substance abuse problems of substance-dependent homeless youth, including juvenile prostitutes. The department shall, in consultation with the Office of Criminal Justice Planning, develop guidelines for the scope of the pilot project established pursuant to this section which shall include, but not be limited to, requiring outreach to all shelters and drop-in facilities operated by the homeless youth project established in the County of Los Angeles. The department also shall, in consultation with the Office of Criminal Justice Planning, oversee the management of the pilot project established pursuant to this section.

(b) The department, in consultation with the Office of Criminal Justice Planning, shall submit to the Legislature a written interim evaluation of the effectiveness of the pilot project established pursuant to this section in addressing the needs of substance-dependent juvenile youths by July 1, 1992, and shall submit a written final evaluation thereof by June 1, 1993.

(c) To the extent permitted by federal law, the department shall enter into a contract in the amount of two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000), utilizing unobligated federal funds, with the homeless youth project established in the County of Los Angeles for the first year of the operation of the pilot project established pursuant to this section commencing March 1, 1991. It is the intent of the Legislature to provide for the funding of the second year of the pilot project through the Budget Act.

(d) The pilot project established pursuant to this section shall cease to operate on March 1, 1993.

SEC. 94. Section 11776.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11776.5. (a) The department and the State Department of Mental Health shall enter into a three-year agreement to establish a minimum of five demonstration programs, to commence on July 1, 1991, approved by both departments, that address the unique treatment problems presented by persons who are mentally disordered and have alcohol and drug problems. The total number of programs in addition to the minimum of five programs required by this section, shall be determined by the mutual agreement of both departments and be based upon an assessment by each department of its ability to effectively establish, operate, and maintain the administrative processes required to achieve the purposes of this section. To the extent possible, these programs shall be distributed among large, medium, and small counties and located in northern, central, and southern California.

(1) Each county with a demonstration program shall submit a budget for providing services. The budget shall identify by source and amount, including government funds, fees, contributions, grants, and other revenues, the money available to the demonstration program for the provision of services. The budget shall also provide a projection of expenditures necessary for the delivery of services. The budget shall list all the personnel costs, operating costs, and any other costs in sufficient detail for both departments to review the budget.

(2) In addition, each county with a demonstration program shall submit a proposed cost allocation plan describing the methodology for allocating costs among the three treatment categories of alcohol services, drug program services, and mental health services. The cost allocation plan and budget shall be approved by both departments prior to reimbursement of expenses by either department. No county or provider participating in a demonstration program shall be subject to any audit disallowance by the department or the State Department of Mental Health that results from the multiple diagnosis status of the program's clients. If a demonstration program complies with the approved cost allocation plan, the program shall be exempt from cost report control to the combined total allocation from both departments, from audit liability resulting from controls to budgeted services and mental health services, and shall also be exempt from audit liability resulting from the disallowed reimbursement received from categorical sources among alcohol services, drug program services, and mental health services when the costs are disallowed solely because of the multiple diagnosis of the clients served.

(3) The approved cost allocation plan and budget shall establish the basis for reimbursement to each demonstration program by each department in the first year of operation. Each county with a demonstration program shall submit a cost report at the end of the fiscal year in the same format as the budget format. The cost report shall be reviewed along with the required budget for each succeeding year by the departments to establish the basis for reimbursement in the succeeding two years. The cost report shall be audited and shall be subject to audit exceptions in accordance with applicable state and federal law relating to the reimbursements from those categorical sources. The cost allocation plan and required budget for the two succeeding years shall require prior approval by both departments before reimbursement of expenses by either department.

(4) Both departments shall agree on the reporting requirements, methods of interim payments, and time frames required for submission of reports.

(5) It is the intent of the Legislature that the departments not limit their consideration of prospective applicants to only those providers that propose to establish new programs pursuant to this section, but shall also consider applications of providers that have been serving persons with multiple diagnosis prior to January 1, 1991.

(b) Each demonstration program shall submit, at the end of each fiscal year, a progress report in a format approved by the department and the State Department of Mental Health. This report shall include, but not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The number of multiple diagnosed clients served.

(2) Identification of the problems presented by the multiple diagnosed clients served.

(3) The types of services provided.

(4) The costs of services provided.

(5) The length of services provided.

(c) The department and the State Department of Mental Health shall deem a demonstration program to be successful if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The demonstration program showed reasonable evidence that auditing guidelines and the cost allocation plans provided appropriate financial accountability.

(2) The demonstration program resulted in enhanced collaboration and cooperation at the county planning level between the mental health and drug and alcohol service delivery systems and at the state level between the department and the State Department of Mental Health.

(3) The demonstration program enabled the delivery of appropriate services to multiple diagnosed persons.

(4) The demonstration program expanded available treatment options for multiple diagnosed persons.

(5) The audit guidelines permitted the development of operable and practical cost allocation plans. The department and the State Department of Mental Health are encouraged to refine audit guidelines as necessary during the implementation of the demonstration programs.

(d) Prior to January 1, 1995, the department and the State Department of Mental Health shall submit to the Legislature an evaluation report on the demonstration programs with recommendations for statewide implementation.

(e) This section shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before July 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 95. Section 13143.2 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 1083 of the Statutes of 1990, is repealed.

SEC. 96. Section 13143.5 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 1083 of the Statutes of 1990, is repealed.

SEC. 97. Section 13143.5 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 1111 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

13143.5. (a) Notwithstanding Part 2 (commencing with Section 13100) of Division 12, Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 17910) of Division 13, and Part 2.5 (commencing with Section 18901) of Division 13, any city, county, or city and county may, by ordinance, make changes or modifications that are more stringent than the requirements published in the California Building Standards Code relating to fire and panic safety and the other regulations adopted pursuant to this part. The adopted standards shall be reasonably necessary because of local climatic, geological, or topographical conditions. Before adopting the ordinance, the city, county, or city and county shall make an express finding that the ordinance is reasonably necessary because of local climatic, geological, or topographical conditions. The finding shall be available as a public record. A copy of the findings, together with the modification or change expressly marked and identified to which each finding refers, shall be filed with the Department of Housing and Community Development.

(b) Nothing in this section shall authorize a local jurisdiction to mandate, nor prohibit a local jurisdiction from mandating, the installation of residential fire sprinkler systems within newly constructed dwelling units or in new additions to existing dwelling units, including, but not limited to, manufactured homes as defined in Section 18007.

(c) Nothing in this section shall authorize a local jurisdiction to mandate, nor prohibit a local jurisdiction from mandating, the retrofitting of existing dwelling units for the installation of residential fire sprinkler systems, including, but not limited to, manufactured homes as defined in Section 18007.

(d) Nothing in this section shall apply in any manner to litigation filed prior to January 1, 1991, regarding an ordinance or regulation which mandates the installation of residential fire sprinkler systems within newly constructed dwelling units or new additions to existing dwelling units.

(e) This section shall not apply to fire and panic safety requirements for the public schools adopted by the State Fire Marshal pursuant to Section 13143.

(f) The same agency or entity to whom authority to enforce building standards not related to fire and panic safety is delegated by the city, county, or city and county with jurisdiction in the area affected by the building standards shall enforce any building standard adopted pursuant to this section.

(g) On or before October 1, 1991, and each October 1 thereafter, the Department of Housing and Community Development, in conjunction with the office of the State Fire Marshal, shall transmit a report to the State Building Standards Commission on the more stringent requirements, adopted by a city, county, or city and county, pursuant to this section or adopted by a fire protection district and ratified pursuant to Section 13869.7, to the building standards relating to fire and panic safety adopted by the State Fire Marshal and contained in the California Building Standards Code. The report shall be for informational purposes only and shall include a summary by the department and the office of the reasons cited as the necessity for the more stringent requirements. The report required pursuant to this subdivision shall apply to any more stringent requirements adopted or ratified on or after January 1, 1991.

(h) All structures governed by Part 2.7 (commencing with Section 18950) of Division 13 are exempt from the permissive authority granted by subdivision (a).

SEC. 98. Section 13869.7 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 1083 of the Statutes of 1990, is repealed.

SEC. 99. Section 22547.2 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 891 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

25547.2. The report specified in Section 25547.1 shall consider the availability of funding sources not currently available from the state, nonstate funding sources, and the establishment of fees, tuitions, or other financial charges as a means of funding the functions of the institute.

SEC. 100. Section 25281.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25281.5. (a) Notwithstanding subdivision (k) of Section 25281, for purposes of this chapter, "pipe" means all parts of any pipeline or system of pipelines, used in connection with the storage of hazardous substances, including, but not limited to, valves and other appurtenances connected to the pipe, pumping units, fabricated assemblies associated with pumping units, and metering and delivery stations and fabricated assemblies therein, but does not include any of the following:

(1) An interstate pipeline subject to Part 195 (commencing with Section 195.0) of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(2) An intrastate pipeline subject to Chapter 5.5 (commencing with Section 51010) of Part 1 of Division 1 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

(3) Unburied delivery hoses, vapor recovery hoses, and nozzles which are subject to unobstructed visual inspection for leakage.

(4) Vent lines, vapor recovery lines, and fill pipes which are designed to prevent, and do not hold, standing fluid in the pipes or lines.

(b) In addition to the exclusions specified in subdivision (x) of Section 25281, "underground storage tank" does not include vent lines, vapor recovery lines, and fill pipes which are designed to prevent, and do not hold, standing fluid in the pipes or lines.

SEC. 101. Section 26569.30 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

26569.30. (a) On or after January 1, 1992, the term "certified" and variations of that term may be used in connection with food sold as organic only in accordance with this section, subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 26569.24, Sections 26569.31 to 26569.34, inclusive, and Section 46009 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(b) Food sold as organic may be certified only by a certification organization registered pursuant to subdivisions (c) and (d), by the director pursuant to subdivision (e), or by a county agricultural commissioner pursuant to Section 46009 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(c) In order to be registered, a certification organization shall meet all of the following minimum qualifications:

(1) Be the certification organization for at least 10 legally separate and distinct, financially unrelated, and independently controlled persons involved in the production or processing of food sold as organic.

(2) Be a legally separate and distinct entity from any person whose food is certified by the organization. A certification organization shall be considered legally separate and distinct notwithstanding the fact that persons or representatives of persons whose food is certified serve as directors, officers, or in other capacities for the certification organization, so long as those persons or representatives of those persons do not exercise decisionmaking authority over certification of that particular food.

(3) Have no financial interest in the sale of the food, except that fees charged by the certification organization to cover the reasonable costs of operating the certification organization do not constitute a financial interest for purposes of this section.

(d) On or after January 1, 1991, a certification organization which certifies processed food sold as organic, except for processed meat, fowl, or dairy products, shall have registered with the director and shall thereafter annually renew the registration unless no longer engaged in the activities requiring the registration. Registration shall be on a form provided by the director, shall include the filing of a certification plan as specified in Section 26569.33 and payment of the fee specified in subdivision (f). The director shall make forms available for this purpose on or before July 31, 1991. The registration form shall include the names of all persons involved in making certification decisions or setting certification standards for the certification organization. The director shall reject a registration submission that is incomplete or not in compliance with this article.

(e) On or after July 31, 1991, the director may, upon the request of a sufficient number of persons to fund the program's cost, establish and maintain a certification program for processors of food sold as organic and shall establish and collect a fee from all processors of food certified under that program to cover all of the department's costs of administering the program. The certification program shall be subject to all provisions regarding certification organizations contained in this article, except that the requirements of subdivisions (c) and (d) shall not apply.

(f) The director shall supervise all certification organizations registered with the department, shall establish a complaint procedure concerning noncompliance with this article by certification organizations registered with the department, and shall establish and collect an annual registration fee based on the unit of weight or measure, gross sales or other measure of the amount of food certified by the organization, to cover the costs of the supervision. The registration fee established by the department shall not exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000) per organization. Supervision shall include a written evaluation of the organization's certification plan at least biannually. The written evaluation shall be made available for public inspection.

(g) The director shall have the authority to audit the organization's certification procedures and records at any time. Records of certification organizations not otherwise required to be disclosed shall be kept confidential by the director.

SEC. 102. Section 26569.40 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

26569.40. (a) It is unlawful for any person to produce, handle, or process food sold as organic unless duly registered pursuant to Section 26569.35.

(b) It is unlawful for any person to willfully make a false statement or representation, or knowingly fail to disclose a fact required to be disclosed, in registration pursuant to Section 26569.35.

SEC. 103. Section 28518.8 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

28518.8. (a) Except to the extent otherwise provided in Section 28502 and subdivision (e) of Section 28506, or when a violation is asserted pursuant to Section 28517, when the department asserts a violation of this chapter, all affected persons shall be afforded an opportunity for an administrative hearing after 20 days notice.

(b) The notice shall include all of the following:

(1) A statement of the time, place, and nature of the hearing.

(2) A statement of the legal authority and jurisdiction under which the hearing is to be held.

(3) A reference to the particular sections of the statutes, regulations, and rules involved.

(4) A short and plain statement of the matters asserted.

(c) Opportunity shall be afforded all persons to respond and present evidence on the issues involved.

(d) Hearings authorized or required by this chapter shall be conducted by the department or any agent as the department may designate for that purpose.

(e) Oral proceedings or any part thereof shall be transcribed at the request of any person. The person requesting the transcription shall bear the cost of the transcript.

(f) Final decisions or orders adverse to any person shall be in writing or stated in the record. A final decision shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law, which shall be separately stated. Persons shall be notified either personally or by mail of any decision or order.

SEC. 104. Part 1.6 (commencing with Section 34050) of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 5 of the Statutes of the 1989–90 First Extraordinary Session, is repealed.

SEC. 105. Part 4 (commencing with Section 35450) of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 1246 of the Statutes of 1955, is repealed.

SEC. 106. Section 50661.7 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 3 of the Statutes of the 1989–90 First Extraordinary Session, is repealed.

SEC. 107. Section 50661.7 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 4 of the Statutes of the 1989–90 First Extraordinary Session, is repealed.

SEC. 108. Section 50661.7 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 5 of the Statutes of the 1989–90 First Extraordinary Session, is repealed.

SEC. 109. Section 50781 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

50781. Unless the context otherwise requires, the following definitions given in this section shall control construction of this chapter:

(a) "Affordable" means that, where feasible, low-income residents should not pay more than 30 percent of their monthly income for housing costs.

(b) "Conversion costs" includes the cost of acquiring the mobilehome park, the costs of planning and processing the conversion, the costs of any needed repairs or rehabilitation, and any expenditures required by a governmental agency or lender for the project.

(c) "Department" means the Department of Housing and Community Development.

(d) "Fund" means the Mobilehome Park Purchase Fund created pursuant to Section 50782.

(e) "Housing costs" means the total cost of owning, occupying, and maintaining a mobilehome and a lot or space in a mobilehome park. The department's regulations shall specify the factors included in these costs and may, for the purposes of calculating affordability, establish reasonable allowances.

(f) "Individual interest in a mobilehome park" means any interest which is fee ownership or a lesser interest which entitles the holder to occupy a lot or space in a mobilehome park for a period of not less than either 15 years or the life of the holder. Individual interests in a mobilehome park include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) Ownership of a lot or space in a mobilehome park or subdivision.

(2) A membership or shares in a stock cooperative, as defined in Section 11003.2 of the Business and Professions Code, or a limited equity housing cooperative, as defined in Section 33007.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(3) Membership in a nonprofit mutual benefit corporation which owns, operates, or owns and operates the mobilehome park.

(g) "Low-income resident" means an individual or household who is a lower income household, as defined in Section 50079.5. However, personal assets shall not be considered in the calculation of income, except to the extent that they actually generate income.

(h) "Low-income spaces" means those spaces in a mobilehome park operated by a resident organization which are occupied by low-income residents.

(i) "Mobilehome park" means a mobilehome park, as defined in Section 18214, or a manufactured home subdivision created by the conversion to resident ownership of a mobilehome park, as defined in Section 18214, including a senior park.

(j) "Program" means the Mobilehome Park Resident Ownership Program.

(k) "Resident organization" means a group of mobilehome park residents who have formed a nonprofit corporation, cooperative corporation, or other entity or organization for the purpose of acquiring the mobilehome park in which they reside and converting the mobilehome park to resident ownership. The membership of a resident organization shall include at least two-thirds of the households residing in the mobilehome park. The two-thirds of households in the resident organization at the time of funding the park need not be the same households that were residing in the park when the application for assistance was submitted to the department. A household's membership in the resident organization when the application was submitted to the department shall not be a requirement for that household to receive a loan or assistance under this chapter.

(l) "Resident ownership" means, depending on the context, either the ownership, by a resident organization, as defined in this section, of an interest in a mobilehome park which entitles the resident organization to control the operations of the mobilehome park for a term of no less than 15 years, or the ownership of individual interests in a mobilehome park, or both.

SEC. 110. Section 5002 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

5002. (a) There is hereby created the California Residential Earthquake Recovery Fund, which is a special fund which, notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, is continuously appropriated for the purposes of this chapter. The fund shall be administered by the commissioner.

(b) The purpose of the fund shall be to provide payments for structural damage caused by earthquakes to California residential real property.

(c) Money in the fund shall be used exclusively for the following purposes:

(1) Payment for structural damages to residential property caused by earthquakes as provided by this chapter.

(2) Payment of expenses of administering this chapter. Expenses of administering this chapter shall be paid only from the fund.

(3) Payment of expenses of insurers for other persons or entities incurred in connection with the adjustment of claims under this chapter.

(4) The purchase of reinsurance where authorized by this

chapter.

(5) The expenses of issuance and the repayment of revenue bonds that may be authorized for the purposes of this chapter.

(6) The reduction of earthquake hazards by retrofitting dwellings pursuant to Section 5002.5.

(d) Money in the fund shall be invested and reinvested as part of the Pooled Money Investment Account. However, the fund and its interest shall not be available for transfers pursuant to Section 16310 of the Government Code.

SEC. 111. Section 5002.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

5002.5. For purposes of paragraph (6) of subdivision (c) of Section 5002, when an initial threshold of one billion dollars surplus in the fund is attained, 2 percent of the moneys above one billion dollars shall be made available for the issuance of low-interest loans to individuals who have residential property insurance in force for the purpose of retrofitting covered structures to withstand or reduce earthquake damage or hazards. A four percent authorization shall become available for this purpose when the fund surplus reaches two billion dollars, and a five percent authorization shall become available when the fund surplus reaches three billion dollars.

SEC. 112. The second version of Section 5004 of the Insurance Code, as added by Chapter 1165 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

5005. (a) The fund shall make payment for structural damages as provided in this chapter to owners of residential property located within the state other than for losses caused by fire, subject to the following limits:

(1) Payment for structural damage is limited to a maximum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) per occurrence.

(2) The payments shall be subject to a deductible equal to one-half of 1 percent of the amount of fire coverage as stated in the policy of residential property insurance, or, if there is no stated amount per unit of residential property, then the fair market value of the residence, excluding land value, but in no case less than one thousand dollars ($1,000), and in no case more than three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500).

(b) The amount established by subdivision (a) shall be adjusted annually by the commissioner to reflect changes in the construction cost for residential structures.

(c) Except as provided by subdivision (a) of Section 5008, payments from the fund shall apply only for property for which the surcharge was collected. The property shall remain eligible for payments for the period for which the underlying residential property insurance is in effect.

(d) The fund shall not make payments to the extent that any loss or damage is covered by any privately purchased policy of insurance. Insurers may submit earthquake insurance rating plans which include deductibles varying in relation to insured values and payments provided under this chapter.

SEC. 113. Section 10086 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10086. If an offer of earthquake coverage is accepted, the coverage shall be continued at the applicable rates and conditions, provided the policy of residential property insurance is not terminated by the named insured or insurer. If the offer is not accepted, the insurer or any affiliated insurer shall be required on an every other year basis to offer earthquake coverage in connection with any continuation, renewal, or reinstatement of the policy following any lapse thereof, or with respect to any other policy that extends, changes, supersedes, or replaces the policy of residential property insurance. Nothing in this section shall preclude the named insured from terminating the earthquake coverage at any time.

SEC. 114. Section 10119.1 of the Insurance Code, as added by Chapter 949 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

10199.1. (a) No insurer or nonprofit hospital service plan or administrator acting on its behalf shall terminate a group master policy or contract providing hospital, medical, or surgical benefits, increase premiums or charges therefor, reduce or eliminate benefits thereunder, or restrict eligibility for coverage thereunder without providing prior notice of that action. No such action shall become effective unless written notice of the action was delivered by mail to the last known address of the appropriate insurance producer and the appropriate administrator, if any, at least 45 days prior to the effective date of the action and to the last known address of the group policyholder or group contractholder at least 30 days prior to the effective date of the action. If nonemployee certificate holders or employees of more than one employer are covered under the policy or contract, written notice shall also be delivered by mail to the last known address of each nonemployee certificate holder or affected employer or, if the action does not affect all employees and dependents of one or more employers, to the last known address of each affected employee certificate holder, at least 30 days prior to the effective date of the action.

(b) No holder of a master group policy or a master group nonprofit hospital service plan contract or administrator acting on its behalf shall terminate the coverage of, increase premiums or charges for, or reduce or eliminate benefits available to, or restrict eligibility for coverage of a covered person, employer unit, or class of certificate holders covered under the policy or contract for hospital, medical, or surgical benefits without first providing prior notice of the action. No such action shall become effective unless written notice was delivered by mail to the last known address of each affected nonemployee certificate holder or employer, or if the action does not affect all employees and dependents of one or more employers, to the last known address of each affected employee certificate holder, at least 30 days prior to the effective date of the action.

SEC. 115. Section 12205 of the Insurance Code, as added by Chapter 1032 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

12105. The filing fee for a certificate of authority or amended certificate of authority to transact financial guaranty insurance shall be five thousand dollars ($5,000).

SEC. 116. Section 394 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

394. (a) No person shall discriminate against any officer, warrant officer, or enlisted member of the military or naval forces of the state or of the United States because of that membership. No member of the military forces shall be prejudiced or injured by any person, employer, or officer or agent of any corporation, company, or firm with respect to that member's employment, position, or status or be denied or disqualified for employment by virtue of membership or service in the military forces of this state or of the United States.

(b) No officer or employee of the state, or of any county, city and county, municipal corporation, or district shall discriminate against any officer, warrant officer, or enlisted member of the military or naval forces of the state or of the United States because of that membership. No member of the military forces shall be prejudiced or injured by any officer or employee of the state, or of any county, city and county, municipal corporation, or district with respect to that member's employment, appointment, position, or status or be denied or disqualified for or discharged from that employment or position by virtue of membership or service in the military forces of this state or of the United States.

(c) No person shall prohibit or refuse entrance to any officer or enlisted member of the Army or Navy of the United States or of the military or naval forces of this state into any public entertainment or place of amusement or into any of the places described in Sections 51 and 52 of the Civil Code because that member wears the uniform of the organization to which he or she belongs.

(d) No employer or officer or agent of any corporation, company, or firm, or other person, shall discharge any person from employment because of the performance of any ordered military duty or training or by reason of being an officer, warrant officer, or enlisted member of the military or naval forces of this state, or hinder or prevent that person from performing any military service or from attending any military encampment or place of drill or instruction he or she may be called upon to perform or attend by proper authority; prejudice or harm him or her in any manner in his or her employment, position, or status by reason of performance of military service or duty or attendance at military encampments or places of drill or instruction; or dissuade, prevent, or stop any person from enlistment or accepting a warrant or commission in the California National Guard or Naval Militia by threat or injury to him or her in respect to his or her employment, position, status, trade, or business because of enlistment or acceptance of a warrant or commission.

(e) (1) No private employer or officer or agent of any corporation, company, or firm, or other person, shall restrict or terminate any collateral benefit for employees by reason of an employee's temporary incapacitation incident to duty in the National Guard or Naval Militia.

(2) As used in this subdivision, "temporary incapacitation" means any period of incapacitation of 52 weeks or less.

(3) As used in this subdivision, "collateral benefit" includes, but is not limited to, health care which may be continued at the employee's expense, life insurance, disability insurance, and seniority status.

(f) Any person violating this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 117. Section 193.7 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

193.7. Any person convicted of a violation of paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 192 which occurred within seven years of two or more separate violations of Section 23103, as specified in Section 23103.5, of, or Section 23152 or 23153 of, the Vehicle Code, or any combination thereof, which resulted in convictions, shall be designated as an habitual traffic offender subject to paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 14601.3 of the Vehicle Code, for a period of three years, subsequent to the conviction. The person shall be advised of this designation pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 13350 of the Vehicle Code.

SEC. 118. Section 270h of the Penal Code is amended to read:

270h. In any case where there is a conviction under either Section 270 or 270a and there is an order granting probation which includes an order for support, the court may:

(a) Issue an execution on the order for the support payments that accrue during the time the probation order is in effect, in the same manner as on a judgment in a civil action for support payments. This remedy shall apply only when there is no existing civil order of this state or a foreign court order that has been reduced to a judgment of this state for support of the same person or persons included in the probation support order.

(b) Require assignment of wages pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 4390) of Title 1.5 of Part 5 of Division 4 of the Civil Code as a condition of probation. This remedy shall apply only when there is no existing civil order for support of the same person or persons included in the probation support order upon which an order of assignment has been entered pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 4390) of Title 1.5 of Part 5 of Division 4 of the Civil Code.

These remedies are in addition to any other remedies available to the court.

SEC. 119. Section 12028 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12028. (a) The unlawful concealed carrying upon the person or within the vehicle of the carrier of any explosive substance, other than fixed ammunition, dirk, or dagger, as provided in Section 12020, the unlawful concealed carrying upon the person or within the vehicle of the carrier of any of the weapons mentioned in Section 12025, and the unlawful possession or carrying of any item in violation of Section 653k is a nuisance.

(b) A firearm of any nature used in the commission of any misdemeanor as provided in this code or any felony, or an attempt to commit any misdemeanor as provided in this code or any felony, is, upon a conviction of the defendant, or upon a juvenile court finding that an offense which would be a misdemeanor or felony if committed by an adult was committed or attempted by the juvenile with the use of a firearm, a nuisance. A finding that the defendant was guilty of the offense but was insane at the time the offense was committed is a conviction for the purposes of this section.

(c) Any weapon described in subdivision (a), or, upon conviction of the defendant or a juvenile court finding that an offense which would be a misdemeanor or felony if committed by an adult was committed or attempted by the juvenile with the use of a firearm, any weapon described in subdivision (b), shall be surrendered to the sheriff of a county or the chief of police or other head of a municipal police department of any city or city and county or the Commissioner of the Department of the California Highway Patrol. The officers to whom the weapons are surrendered, except upon the certificate of a judge of a court of record, or of the district attorney of the county, that the retention thereof is necessary or proper to the ends of justice, may annually, between the 1st and 10th days of July, in each year, offer the weapons, which the officers in charge of them consider to have value with respect to sporting, recreational, or collection purposes, for sale at public auction to persons licensed under federal law to engage in businesses involving any weapon purchased. If any weapon has been stolen and is thereafter recovered from the thief or his or her transferee, or is used in such a manner as to constitute a nuisance pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b) without the prior knowledge of its lawful owner that it would be so used, it shall not be so offered for sale but shall be restored to the lawful owner, as soon as its use as evidence has been served, upon his or her identification of the weapon and proof of ownership.

(d) If, under this section, a weapon is not of the type that can be sold to the public, generally, or is not sold pursuant to subdivision (c), the weapon shall in the month of July, next succeeding, or sooner, if necessary to conserve local resources including space and utilization of personnel who maintain files and security of those weapons, be destroyed so that it can no longer be used as such weapon except upon the certificate of a judge of a court of record, or of the district attorney of the county, that the retention of it is necessary or proper to the ends of justice.

(e) This section does not apply to any firearm in the possession of the Department of Fish and Game or which was used in the violation of any provision of the Fish and Game Code or any regulation adopted pursuant thereto, or which is forfeited pursuant to Section 5008.6 of the Public Resources Code.

(f) No stolen weapon shall be sold or destroyed pursuant to subdivision (c) or (d) unless reasonable notice is given to its lawful owner, if his or her identity and address can be reasonably ascertained.

SEC. 120. Title 7 (commencing with Section 14000) of Part 4 of the Penal Code, as added by Chapter 1661 of the Statutes of 1967 and as further amended by Chapter 1119 of the Statutes of 1971 and Chapter 750 of the Statutes of 1974, is repealed.

SEC. 121. Section 7103 of the Public Contract Code, as added by Chapter 694 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

7103.5. (a) As used in this section:

(1) "Public works contract" means a contract awarded through competitive bids by the state or any of its political subdivisions or public agencies, on whose behalf the Attorney General may bring an action pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 16750 of the Business and Professions Code, for the erection, construction, alteration, repair, or improvement of any structure, building, road, or other improvement of any kind.

(2) "Awarding body" means the state or the subdivision or agency awarding a public works contract.

(b) In entering into a public works contract or a subcontract to supply goods, services, or materials pursuant to a public works contract, the contractor or subcontractor offers and agrees to assign to the awarding body all rights, title, and interest in and to all causes of action it may have under Section 4 of the Clayton Act (15 U.S.C. Sec. 15) or under the Cartwright Act (Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 16700) of Part 2 of Division 7 of the Business and Professions Code), arising from purchases of goods, services, or materials pursuant to the public works contract or the subcontract. This assignment shall be made and become effective at the time the awarding body tenders final payment to the contractor, without further acknowledgment by the parties.

(c) Subdivision (b) shall be included in full in the specifications for the public works contract or in the general provisions incorporated therein and shall be included in full in the public works contract or in the general provisions incorporated therein.

SEC. 122. Section 7104 of the Public Contract Code, as added by Chapter 694 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

7105. (a) Construction contracts of public agencies shall not require the contractor to be responsible for the cost of repairing or restoring damage to the work, which damage is determined to have been proximately caused by an act of God, in excess of 5 percent of the contracted amount, provided, that the work damaged is built in accordance with accepted and applicable building standards and the plans and specifications of the awarding authority. However, contracts may include provisions for terminating the contract. The requirements of this section shall not be mandatory as to construction contracts financed by revenue bonds. This section shall not prohibit a public agency from requiring that a contractor obtain insurance to indemnify the public agency for any damage to the work caused by an act of God if the insurance premium is a separate bid item. If insurance is required, requests for bids issued by public agencies shall set forth the amount of the work to be covered and the contract resulting from the requests for bids shall require that the contractor furnish evidence of satisfactory insurance coverage to the public agency prior to execution of the contract.

(b) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Public agency" shall include the state, the Regents of the University of California, a city, county, district, public authority, public agency, municipal utility, and any other political subdivision or public corporation of the state.

(2) "Acts of God" shall include only the following occurrences or conditions and effects: earthquakes in excess of a magnitude of 3.5 on the Richter Scale and tidal waves.

(c) Public agencies may make changes in construction contracts for public improvements in the course of construction to bring the completed improvements into compliance with environmental requirements or standards established by state and federal statutes and regulations enacted after the contract has been awarded or entered into. The contractor shall be paid for the changes in accordance with the provisions of the contract governing payment for changes in the work or, if no provisions are set forth in the contract, payment shall be as agreed to by the parties.

(d) (1) Where authority to contract is vested in any public agency, excluding the state, the authority shall include the power, by mutual consent of the contracting parties, to terminate, amend, or modify any contract within the scope of such authority.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to contracts entered into pursuant to any statute expressly requiring that contracts be let or awarded on the basis of competitive bids. Contracts of public agencies, excluding the state, required to be let or awarded on the basis of competitive bids pursuant to any statute may be terminated, amended, or modified only if the termination, amendment, or modification is so provided in the contract or is authorized under provision of law other than this subdivision. The compensation payable, if any, for amendments and modifications shall be determined as provided in the contract. The compensation payable, if any, in the event the contract is so terminated shall be determined as provided in the contract or applicable statutory provision providing for the termination.

(3) Contracts of public agencies may include provisions for termination for environmental considerations at the discretion of the public agencies.

SEC. 123. Section 10365.5 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

10365.5. (a) No person, firm, or subsidiary thereof who has been awarded a consulting services contract may submit a bid for, nor be awarded a contract for, the provision of services, procurement of goods or supplies, or any other related action which is required, suggested, or otherwise deemed appropriate in the end product of the consulting services contract.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not apply to any person, firm, or subsidiary thereof who is awarded a subcontract of a consulting services contract which amounts to no more than 10 percent of the total monetary value of the consulting services contract.

(c) Subdivisions (a) and (b) do not apply to consulting services contracts subject to Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 4525) of Division 5 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

SEC. 124. The heading of Article 60.5 (commencing with Section 20920) of Chapter 1 of Part 3 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code, as added by Chapter 1163 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended and renumbered to read:

Article 60.7. Water District Contract Bids

SEC. 125. Section 20920 of the Public Contract Code, as amended by Chapter 808 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

20929. All bids for construction work requested by an agency or district covered by this chapter shall be presented under sealed cover and shall be accompanied by one of the following forms of bidder's security:

(a) Cash.

(b) A cashier's check made payable to the agency or district.

(c) A certified check made payable to the agency or district.

(d) A bidder's bond executed by an admitted surety insurer, made payable to the agency or district.

Upon an award to the lowest bidder, the security of an unsuccessful bidder shall be returned in a reasonable period of time, but in no event shall that security be held by the agency or district beyond 60 days from the time the award is made.

SEC. 126. Section 2599.6 of the Public Resources Code is amended and renumbered to read:

2699.6. This chapter shall become operative on April 1, 1991.

SEC. 127. Section 3787 of the Public Resources Code, as added by Chapter 1657 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

3487. The board shall evaluate each grant application for its potential to satisfy the requirements of this chapter and shall award the grant based on the evaluation. The board shall notify the applicant of the approval or denial of the grant application on or before January 1, 1992.

SEC. 128. Section 8754 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

8754. (a) The administrator may prohibit an owner or operator of a marine terminal from delivering or accepting oil to or from any tanker or barge if the administrator finds, after noticed hearing, that the owner or operator has violated this chapter and that previous convictions, judgments, or settlements for those violations occurred during the prior three years and meet all of the following criteria:

(1) The violations have not been corrected or reasonable progress toward correction has not been achieved.

(2) The violations demonstrate a recurring pattern of noncompliance.

(3) The violations pose, or have posed, a significant risk to public health and safety or to the environment.

(b) The administrator shall not order the termination of operations pursuant to subdivision (a) if the decision to deny is based, in whole or in part, on violations that were resolved through a settlement, unless the administrator presents substantial evidence proving that the violations did occur and the applicant is then given the opportunity to rebut the evidence of the administrator.

(c) The administrator may allow terminals to resume transfers to and from the tankers or barges described if, after noticed hearing, the administrator is satisfied that the owner or operator has corrected all violations and will comply with all of the provisions of this division.

SEC. 129. Section 30511 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30511. Local coastal programs shall be submitted in accordance with the schedule established pursuant to Section 30517.5. At the option of the local government, this program may be submitted and processed in any of the following ways:

(a) At one time, in which event the provisions of Section 30512 with respect to time limits, resubmission, approval, and certification shall apply. However, the zoning ordinances, zoning district maps, and, if required, other implementing actions included in the local coastal program shall be approved and certified pursuant to the standards of subdivisions (a) and (f) of Section 30513.

(b) In two phases, in which event, the land use plans shall be processed first pursuant to Section 30512, and the zoning ordinances, zoning district maps, and, if required, other implementing actions, shall be processed thereafter pursuant to Section 30513.

(c) In separate geographic units consisting of less than the local government's jurisdiction lying within the coastal zone, each submitted pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b), if the commission finds that the area or areas proposed for separate review can be analyzed for the potential cumulative impacts of development on coastal resources and access independently of the remainder of the affected jurisdiction.

SEC. 130. Section 41825 of the Public Resources Code, as added by Chapter 1634 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

41826. On or before July 1, 1991, the board shall complete a study on recycling and source reduction in rural areas and report the results of the study to the Legislature. The study shall include, but is not limited to, all of the following:

(a) A review and assessment of existing recycling and composting programs, approaches, and infrastructure in rural areas.

(b) An analysis of the economic impact, fiscal constraints, geographic and demographic factors, and other impediments to recycling and source reduction activities in rural areas.

(c) An analysis of market development options, including, but not limited to, regional or multijurisdictional strategies for the collection, transporting, processing, and procurement of recyclable materials.

(d) An identification of methods and strategies which rural localities may use to achieve the recycling goals specified in Section 41780.

SEC. 131. Section 42100 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

42100. The Recycled Market Development Commission is hereby created in the board. The commission shall make the recommendations for expansion of markets for recyclable materials annually to the Governor and the Legislature and shall include the progress of markets development for recyclable materials.

SEC. 132. Section 44817 of the Public Resources Code, as added by Chapter 35 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

42817. Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) does not apply to the issuance of a permit for the operation of an existing waste tire facility pursuant to this chapter, except as to any substantial change in the design or operation of the waste tire facility made between the time this chapter becomes effective and the permit is initially issued by the board and as to any subsequent substantial changes made in the design or operation of the waste tire facility.

SEC. 133. Section 45002 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

45002. If the circumstances set forth in Section 45000 do not pose an imminent threat to life or health, but the chief executive officer of the board determines that it is necessary for the public health to perform cleanup and abatement work or remedial work, the chief executive officer shall request the authorization to perform the work from the board.

SEC. 134. Section 782 of the Public Utilities Code, as added by Chapter 1270 of the Statutes of 1978, is repealed.

SEC. 135. Section 5411.5 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

5411.5. Whenever a peace officer arrests a person for a violation of Section 5411 involving the operation of a charter-party carrier of passengers without a valid certificate or permit at a public airport, within 100 feet of a public airport, or within two miles of the international border between the United States and Mexico, the peace officer may impound and retain possession of the vehicle used in violation of Section 5411.

If the vehicle is seized from a person who is not the owner of the vehicle, the impounding authority shall immediately give notice to the owner by first-class mail.

The vehicle shall immediately be returned to the owner without cost to the owner if the infraction or violation is not prosecuted or is dismissed, the owner is found not guilty of the offense, or it is determined that the vehicle was used in violation of Section 5411 without the knowledge and consent of the owner. Otherwise, the vehicle shall be returned to the owner upon payment of any fine ordered by the court. After the expiration of six weeks from the final disposition of the criminal case, the impounding authority may deal with the vehicle as lost or abandoned property under Section 1411 of the Penal Code.

At any time, a person may make a motion in municipal court for the immediate return of the vehicle on the ground that there was no probable cause to seize it or that there is some other good cause, as determined by the court, for the return of the vehicle.

No peace officer, however, shall impound any vehicle owned or operated by a nonprofit organization exempt from taxation pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code which serves youth or senior citizens and provides transportation incidental to its programs or services.

SEC. 136. The heading of Article 10 (commencing with Section 130450) of Chapter 4 of Division 12 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

Article 10. Regional Transit Services Program

SEC. 137. Section 130450 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

130450. For purposes of this article:

(a) "Commissions" means the county transportation commissions of Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, and San Bernardino Counties.

(b) "Region" means the multicounty region within the collective jurisdiction of the four commissions.

(c) "Regional transit service" means each existing and planned public transit service, including those which are privately owned and which either receive public funds or are operated under an agreement pursuant to Section 143 of the Streets and Highways Code, whether provided by rail or bus, which operates or is planned for operation between two or more counties within the region.

SEC. 138. Section 130452 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

130452. The commissions shall hold a joint public hearing in each county in their jurisdiction on the draft program no earlier than 30 days after the draft has been completed. Following the public hearings, each commission shall adopt the regional transit services program.

SEC. 139. Section 97 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

97. Except as otherwise provided in Sections 97.3, 97.32, 97.35, 97.37, and 97.38 for the 1980–81 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, property tax revenues shall be apportioned to each jurisdiction pursuant to this section and Section 97.5 by the county auditor, subject to allocation and payment of funds as provided for in subdivision (b) of Section 33670 of the Health and Safety Code, to each jurisdiction in the following manner:

(a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), for each tax rate area, each jurisdiction shall be allocated an amount of property tax revenue equal to the amount of property tax revenue allocated pursuant to this chapter to each jurisdiction in the prior fiscal year, modified by any adjustments required by Section 99 or 99.4.

(b) For each tax rate area, each special district shall be allocated an amount of property tax revenue equal to the amount of property tax revenue which would have been allocated pursuant to this chapter to such district in the prior fiscal year if no adjustment had been made pursuant to Section 98.6. This amount shall then be adjusted for the current year pursuant to Section 98.6.

(c) The difference between the total amount of property tax revenue and the amounts allocated pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be allocated pursuant to Section 98, and shall be known as the "annual tax increment."

(d) For purposes of this section, the amount of property tax revenue referred to in subdivision (a) shall not include amounts generated by the increased assessments under Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 75).

(e) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for the 1990–91 fiscal year, for the purposes of the computations required by this section, the amount of property tax presumed to have been received by the county in the prior year shall be increased by the amount of 1989–90 property tax administrative costs proportionately attributable to incorporated cities as determined pursuant to paragraph (2).

(2) The auditor shall determine the 1989–90 fiscal year property tax administrative costs proportionately attributable to incorporated cities by adding the 1989–90 fiscal year property tax-related costs of the assessor, tax collector, and auditor, including applicable administrative overhead costs as permitted by federal Office of Management and Budget Circular A-87 standards, and multiplying the sum of those amounts by the ratio of property tax revenue received by all incorporated cities divided by the total property tax revenue for all local jurisdictions in the county for that fiscal year.

(3) The county shall use the additional revenue received pursuant to this subdivision only to fund the actual costs of assessing, collecting, and allocating property taxes. At least once each fiscal year, the county auditor shall report the amount of these actual costs and allowable overhead costs to the legislative body and any other jurisdiction or person that request the information. To the extent that actual costs for assessing, collecting, and allocating property taxes plus allowable overhead costs are less than the amount determined pursuant to paragraph (2), the county auditor shall apportion the difference to each incorporated city as otherwise required by this section.

(4) The county may retain up to one-half of any increased property tax allocation to which a jurisdiction may be otherwise entitled, until the county receives its additional revenues pursuant to this section.

(5) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this subdivision to recognize that since the adoption of Article XIII A of the California Constitution by the voters, county governments have borne an unfair and disproportionate part of the financial burden of assessing, collecting, and allocating property tax revenues for cities. It is further the intent of the Legislature that the adjustments provided for by this subdivision shall constitute charges by a county for the assessment, collection, and allocation of property taxes and shall not exceed the actual costs reasonably borne by a county for those activities.

(f) The auditor may determine the 1989–90 fiscal year property tax administrative costs proportionately attributable to local jurisdictions other than the county or city and county, and cities, by adding the property tax-related costs of the assessor, tax collector, and auditor, including applicable administrative overhead costs as permitted by federal Office of Management and Budget Circular A-87 standards, and multiplying the sum of those amounts by the ratio of property tax revenue received by jurisdictions other than the county, city and county, and cities divided by the total property tax received by all local jurisdictions in the county for that fiscal year. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, this amount may be calculated for each fiscal year commencing with the 1989–90 fiscal year, and the auditor may, commencing in fiscal year 1990–91, submit an invoice to these jurisdictions for services rendered in the prior fiscal year.

SEC. 140. Section 3964 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 897 of the Statutes of 1943, is repealed.

SEC. 141. Section 6051.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 13 of the Statutes of the 1989–90 First Extraordinary Session, is repealed.

SEC. 142. Section 6201.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 13 of the Statutes of the 1989–90 First Extraordinary Session, is repealed.

SEC. 143. Section 6357.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6357.5. (a) There are exempted from the taxes imposed by this part the gross receipts from the sale of, and the storage, use, or other consumption of, fuel and petroleum products sold to an air common carrier for immediate consumption or shipment in the conduct of its business as an air common carrier, on a flight whose first destination is a foreign destination.

(b) To qualify for the exemption, the air common carrier shall furnish to the seller an exemption certificate in writing stating the quantity of fuel and petroleum products claimed as exempt. That certificate shall bear the purchaser's valid seller's permit number or valid fuel exemption registration number and shall be substantially in the form prescribed by the board. Acceptance in good faith of that certificate shall relieve the seller from liability for the sales tax.

(c) "Foreign destination," as used in this section, means the first point reached outside of the United States by an air common carrier in the conduct of its business as a common carrier at which cargo or passengers are loaded or discharged.

(d) "Immediate consumption or shipment," as used in this section, means that the delivery of the fuel and petroleum products by the seller is directly into an aircraft for consumption or transportation outside the United States and not for storage by the purchaser or any third party.

(e) Any air common carrier claiming exemption under this section who is not required to hold a valid seller's permit, shall be required to register with the board and obtain a fuel exemption registration number, and shall be required to file returns as the board may prescribe, either if the board notifies the carrier that returns must be filed or if the carrier is liable for taxes based upon consumption or transportation of fuel or petroleum products erroneously claimed as exempt under this section. A common carrier required to hold a fuel exemption registration number shall be subject to all applicable provisions of this part, Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 7200), and Part 1.6 (commencing with Section 7251).

(f) An air common carrier claiming an exemption under this section upon request, shall make available to the board records, including, but not limited to, a copy of a log abstract, an air waybill, or a cargo manifest, documenting its consumption or transportation of the fuel or petroleum products to a foreign destination and the amount claimed as exempt. If the carrier fails to provide these records upon request, the board may revoke the carrier's fuel exemption registration number.

(g) The board may require any air common carrier claiming an exemption under this section and required to obtain a fuel exemption registration number, to place with it such security as the board may determine pursuant to Section 6701.

(h) Pursuant to this section, any use of the fuel and petroleum products by the purchasing carrier, other than that incident to the delivery of the fuel and petroleum products to the carrier and the consumption or transportation of the fuel and petroleum products by the carrier to the foreign destination for use in the conduct of its business as a common carrier, or a failure of the carrier to document its consumption or transportation of the fuel and petroleum products to the foreign destination, shall subject the carrier to liability for payment of sales tax as if it were a retailer making a retail sale of the property at the time of that use or failure, and the sales price of the property to it shall be deemed to be the gross receipts from the retail sale.

(i) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1989. This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date. However, in the event that the federal exemption provided in Section 1309 of Title 19 of the United States Code, relating to supplies for certain vessels and aircraft, is repealed prior to January 1, 1994, this section is instead repealed as of that earlier date.

SEC. 144. Section 6376 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 13 of the Statutes of the 1989–90 First Extraordinary Session, is repealed.

SEC. 145. Section 7285 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 466 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

7284.2. The board of supervisors of any county may levy a utility user tax on the consumption of electricity, gas, water, sewer, telephone, telegraph, and cable television services in the unincorporated area of the county.

SEC. 146. Section 7286 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 466 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

7284.4. Any tax levied pursuant to this chapter shall be subject to any applicable voter approval requirement imposed by any other provision of law. Revenues collected pursuant to any tax imposed pursuant to this chapter may be reserved for local purposes as determined by the board of supervisors of the county imposing the tax.

SEC. 147. Section 11005.3 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 101 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

11005.3. (a) In the case of a city which incorporated on or after January 1, 1987, the Controller shall determine that the population of the city for its first eight full fiscal years, and any portion of the first year in which the incorporation is effective if less than a full fiscal year, is the greater of either:

(1) The number of registered voters in the city multiplied by three. The number of registered voters shall be calculated as of the effective date of the incorporation of the city.

(2) The population determined pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 11005.

(b) In the case of a city which incorporated on or after January 1, 1987, and for which the application for incorporation was filed with the executive officer of the local agency formation commission pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 56828 of the Government Code on or after January 1, 1991, the Controller shall determine that the population of the city for its first five full fiscal years, and any portion of the first year in which the incorporation is effective if less than a full fiscal year, is the greater of either:

(1) The number of registered voters in the city multiplied by three. The number of registered voters shall be calculated as of the effective date of the incorporation of the city.

(2) The population determined pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 11005.

(c) In the case of unincorporated territory being annexed to a city, during the eight-year or five-year period following incorporation, as the case may be, subsequent to the last federal census, or a subsequent census validated by the population research unit of the Department of Finance, the unit shall determine the population of the annexed territory by the use of any federal decennial or special census or any estimate prepared pursuant to Section 2107.2 of the Streets and Highways Code.

(d) After the eight-year or five-year period following incorporation, as the case may be, the Controller shall determine the population of the city pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 11005.

(e) This section shall become operative July 1, 1991.

SEC. 148. Section 12636 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 987 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

12636.5. Every payment on a delinquent tax shall be applied as follows:

(a) First, to any interest due on the tax.

(b) Second, to any penalty imposed by this part.

(c) The balance, if any, to the tax itself.

SEC. 149. Section 12637 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 13 of the Statutes of the 1989–90 First Extraordinary Session, is repealed.

SEC. 150. Section 24570 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24570. This chapter shall not apply to any proceeding which is begun after September 30, 1979.

SEC. 151. Section 25940 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 452 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

25939. (a) Section 6038A of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to information with respect to certain foreign-owned corporations, shall apply.

(b) A penalty shall be imposed under this part for failure to furnish information or maintain records and that penalty shall be determined in accordance with Section 6038A of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) For purposes of this part, the information required to be filed with the Franchise Tax Board shall be a copy of the information filed with the Internal Revenue Service.

SEC. 152. Section 43152.9 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 1267 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

43152.11. (a) The surcharge imposed pursuant to Section 25205.9 of the Health and Safety Code, which is collected and administered under Section 43055, is due and payable to the board on the last day of the month following the end of the calendar year.

(b) The surcharge shall be incorporated into the return form prescribed by the board, which every operator subject to the fee imposed pursuant to Section 25205.5 of the Health and Safety Code is required to file and pay annually, in accordance with Section 43152.7. The surcharge shall be in addition to the fee imposed by Section 25205.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) The surcharge imposed by Section 25205.9 of the Health and Safety Code shall be offset by any fees paid by the generator during the preceding calendar year for a local hazardous waste management program conducted by a local agency pursuant to a memorandum of understanding with the department. The offset provided for under this subdivision shall be allowed to the same extent as the offset provided in subdivision (c) of Section 43152.7.

SEC. 153. Section 43158 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 13 of the Statutes of the 1989–90 First Extraordinary Session, is repealed.

SEC. 154. Section 45156 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 13 of the Statutes of the 1989–90 First Extraordinary Session, is repealed.

SEC. 155. Section 162.5 of the Streets and Highways Code, as added by Chapter 17 of the Statutes of the 1989–90 First Extraordinary Session, is repealed.

SEC. 156. Article 4.8 (commencing with Section 179) of Chapter 1 of Division 1 of the Streets and Highways Code, as added by Chapter 17 of the Statutes of the 1989–90 First Extraordinary Session, is repealed.

SEC. 157. Section 305.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, as added by Chapter 1206 of the Statutes of 1973, is repealed.

SEC. 158. Section 15031 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, as added by Chapter 1667 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

10531. There is in state government a California Occupational Information Coordinating Committee composed of the Director of Employment Development, the Director of Commerce, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, the Director of Rehabilitation, the chair of the State Job Training Coordinating Council, the Executive Director of the Employment Training Panel, the Director of Social Services, and the Executive Secretary of the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education, or their designees. This committee is established for the purposes of Section 422 of the federal Carl D. Perkins Vocational Education Act and Section 125 of the Job Training Partnership Act, for the purposes of this article, and for other purposes authorized by the Legislature.

SEC. 159. Section 11713.1 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11713.1. It is unlawful and a violation of this code for the holder of any dealer's license issued under this article to do any of the following:

(a) To advertise any specific vehicle for sale without identifying the vehicle by either its vehicle identification number or license number.

(b) To advertise the total price of a vehicle without including all costs to the purchaser at time of sale, except sales tax, vehicle registration fees, certificate of compliance or noncompliance fees not exceeding twenty-five dollars ($25) pursuant to any statute, finance charges, and any dealer documentary preparation charge. The dealer documentary preparation charge shall not exceed thirty-five dollars ($35).

(c) To exclude from the newspaper display advertisement of a vehicle for sale that there will be added to the advertised total price at the time of sale, charges for sales tax, vehicle registration fees, the fee charged by the state for the issuance of any certificate of compliance or noncompliance pursuant to any statute, finance charges, and any dealer documentary preparation charge.

For purposes of this subdivision, "newspaper display advertisement" means any advertisement in a newspaper which is two or more newspaper columns in width or one newspaper column in width and more than seven inches in length.

(d) To represent the dealer documentary preparation charge or certificate of compliance or noncompliance fee, as a governmental fee.

(e) To fail to sell a vehicle to any person at the advertised total price, exclusive of sales tax, vehicle registration fees, the fee charged by the state for the issuance of any certificate of compliance or noncompliance pursuant to any statute, finance charges, mobilehome escrow fees, the amount of any city, county, or city and county imposed fee or tax for a mobilehome, and any dealer documentary preparation charge, which charges shall not exceed thirty-five dollars ($35) for the documentary preparation charge and twenty-five dollars ($25) for the certificate of compliance or noncompliance pursuant to any statute, while the vehicle remains unsold, unless the advertisement states the advertised total price is good only for a specified time and the time has elapsed.

(f) To advertise for sale as new any new vehicle of a line-make for which the dealer does not hold a franchise.

This subdivision does not apply to any transaction involving a mobilehome as defined in Section 396, a recreational vehicle as defined in Section 18010.5 of the Health and Safety Code, a commercial coach as defined in Section 18012 of the Health and Safety Code, an off-highway motor vehicle subject to identification as defined in Section 38012, or a commercial vehicle as defined in Section 260.

(g) To sell a park trailer, as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 799.24 of the Civil Code, without disclosing in writing to the purchaser that a park trailer is required to be moved by a transporter or a licensed manufacturer or dealer under a permit issued by the Department of Transportation or a local authority with respect to highways under their respective jurisdictions.

(h) To advertise free merchandise, gifts, or services provided by a dealer contingent on the purchase of a vehicle. The term "free" includes merchandise or services offered for sale at a price less than the seller's cost of the merchandise or services.

(i) To advertise vehicles and related goods or services with intent not to supply reasonably expectable demand, unless the advertisement discloses a limitation of quantity.

(j) To use the term "rebate" or similar words such as "cash back" in advertising the sale of a vehicle, unless the rebate is expressed in a specific dollar amount and is in fact a rebate offered by the vehicle manufacturer or distributor directly to the retail purchaser of the vehicle or to the assignee of the retail purchaser.

(k) To require a person to pay a higher price for a vehicle and related goods or services for receiving advertised credit terms than the cash price the same person would have to pay to purchase the same vehicle and related goods or services. For the purpose of this subdivision, "cash price" has the meaning as defined in subdivision (e) of Section 2981 of the Civil Code.

(l) To advertise a guaranteed trade-in allowance unless the guarantee is provided by the manufacturer or distributor.

(m) To misrepresent the authority of a salesperson, representative, or agent to negotiate the final terms of a transaction.

(n) To advertise a vehicle at a specified amount above, below, or at the manufacturer's or distributor's invoice price to the dealer, unless the advertisement clearly and conspicuously states that the invoice amount may exceed the actual dealer cost because of allowances provided to the dealer by the manufacturer or distributor.

(o) To violate any law prohibiting bait and switch advertising, including, but not limited to, the guides against bait advertising set forth in Part 238 (commencing with Section 238) of Title 16 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as those regulations read on January 1, 1988.

(p) To make any untrue or misleading statement indicating that a vehicle is equipped with all the factory installed optional equipment the manufacturer offers, including, but not limited to, a false statement that a vehicle is "fully factory equipped."

(q) To affix on any new vehicle a supplemental price sticker containing a price that represents the dealer's asking price which exceeds the manufacturer's suggested retail price unless all of the following occur:

(1) The supplemental sticker clearly and conspicuously discloses in the largest print appearing on the sticker, other than the print size used for the dealer's name, that the supplemental sticker price is the dealer's asking price, or words of similar import, and that it is not the manufacturer's suggested retail price.

(2) The supplemental sticker clearly and conspicuously discloses the manufacturer's suggested retail price.

(3) The supplemental sticker lists each item which is not included in the manufacturer's suggested retail price, and discloses the additional price of each item. If the supplemental sticker price is greater than the sum of the manufacturer's suggested retail price and the price of the items added by the dealer, then the supplemental sticker price shall set forth that difference and describe it as "added mark-up."

(r) To advertise any underselling claim, such as "we have the lowest prices" or "we will beat any dealer's price," unless the dealer has conducted a recent survey showing that the dealer sells its vehicles at lower prices than any other licensee in its trade area and maintains records to adequately substantiate the claim. The substantiating records shall be made available to the department upon request.

(s) To advertise any incentive offered by the manufacturer or distributor if the dealer is required to contribute to the cost of the incentive as a condition of participating in the incentive program, unless the dealer discloses in a clear and conspicuous manner that dealer participation may affect consumer cost.

For purposes of this subdivision, "incentive" means anything of value offered to induce people to purchase a vehicle, including, but not limited to, discounts, savings claims, rebates, below-market finance rates, and free merchandise or services.

(t) To display or offer for sale any used vehicle unless there is affixed to the vehicle the Federal Trade Commission's Buyer's Guide as required by Part 455 (commencing with Section 455.1) of Title 16 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

SEC. 160. Section 23175 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

23175. (a) If any person is convicted of a violation of Section 23152 and the offense occurred within seven years of three or more separate violations of Section 23103, as specified in Section 23103.5, or Section 23152 or 23153, or any combination thereof, which resulted in convictions, that person shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison, or in the county jail for not less than 180 days nor more than one year, and by a fine of not less than three hundred ninety dollars ($390) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000). The person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle shall be revoked by the Department of Motor Vehicles pursuant to paragraph (7) of subdivision (a) of Section 13352.

(b) Any person convicted of a violation of Section 23152 punishable under this section shall be designated as an habitual traffic offender for a period of three years, subsequent to the conviction. The person shall be advised of this designation pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 13350.

SEC. 161. Section 23190 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

23190. (a) If any person is convicted of a violation of Section 23153 and the offense occurred within seven years of two or more separate violations of Section 23103, as specified in Section 23103.5, or Section 23152 or 23153, or any combination of these violations, which resulted in convictions, that person shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term of two, three, or four years and by a fine of not less than one thousand fifteen dollars ($1,015) nor more than five thousand dollars ($5,000). The person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle shall be revoked by the Department of Motor Vehicles pursuant to paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 13352.

(b) Any person convicted of Section 23153 punishable under this section shall be designated as an habitual traffic offender for a period of three years, subsequent to the conviction. The person shall be advised of this designation pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 13350.

SEC. 162. Section 13391.5 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13391.5. The definitions in this section govern the construction of this chapter.

(a) "Enclosed bays" means indentations along the coast which enclose an area of oceanic water within distinct headlands or harbor works. "Enclosed bays" include all bays where the narrowest distance between the headlands or outermost harbor works is less than 75 percent of the greatest dimension of the enclosed portion of the bay. "Enclosed bays" include, but are not limited to, Humboldt Bay, Bodega Harbor, Tomales Bay, Drake's Estero, San Francisco Bay, Morro Bay, Los Angeles-Long Beach Harbor, Upper and Lower Newport Bay, Mission Bay, and San Diego Bay. For the purposes of identifying, characterizing, and ranking toxic hot spots pursuant to this chapter, Monterey Bay and Santa Monica Bay shall also be considered to be enclosed bays.

(b) "Estuaries" means waters, including coastal lagoons, located at the mouths of streams which serve as mixing zones for fresh and ocean waters. Coastal lagoons and mouths of streams which are temporarily separated from the ocean by sandbars shall be considered as estuaries. Estuarine waters shall be considered to extend from a bay or the open ocean to a point upstream where there is no significant mixing of fresh water and sea water. Estuarine waters include, but are not limited to, the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta, as defined in Section 12220, Suisun Bay, Carquinez Strait downstream to the Carquinez Bridge, and appropriate areas of the Smith, Mad, Eel, Noyo, Russian, Klamath, San Diego, and Otay Rivers.

(c) "Health risk assessment" means an analysis which evaluates and quantifies the potential human exposure to a pollutant that bioaccumulates or may bioaccumulate in edible fish, shellfish, or wildlife. "Health risk assessment" includes an analysis of both individual and population wide health risks associated with anticipated levels of human exposure, including potential synergistic effects of toxic pollutants and impacts on sensitive populations.

(d) "Sediment quality objective" means that level of a constituent in sediment which is established with an adequate margin of safety, for the reasonable protection of the beneficial uses of water or the prevention of nuisances.

(e) "Toxic hot spots" means locations in enclosed bays, estuaries, or any adjacent waters in the "contiguous zone" or the "ocean," as defined in Section 502 of the Clean Water Act (33 U.S.C. Sec. 1362), the pollution or contamination of which affects the interests of the state, and where hazardous substances have accumulated in the water or sediment to levels which (1) may pose a substantial present or potential hazard to aquatic life, wildlife, fisheries, or human health, or (2) may adversely affect the beneficial uses of the bay, estuary, or ocean waters as defined in water quality control plans, or (3) exceeds adopted water quality or sediment quality objectives.

(f) "Hazardous substances" has the same meaning as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 25281 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 163. Section 11461 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11461. (a) For children placed in a licensed or approved family home with a capacity of six or less, or in an approved home of a relative or nonrelated legal guardian, the per child per month rates in the following schedule shall be in effect for the period July 1, 1989, through December 31, 1989:

Age	Basic rate
0–4	$ 294
5–8	319
9–11	340
12–14	378
15–20	412

(b) (1) Any county that, as of October 1, 1989, has in effect a basic rate that is at the levels set forth in the schedule in subdivision (a), shall continue to receive state participation, as specified in subdivision (c) of Section 15200, at these levels.

(2) Any county that, as of October 1, 1989, has in effect a basic rate that exceeds a level set forth in the schedule in subdivision (a), shall continue to receive the same level of state participation as it received on October 1, 1989.

(c) The amounts in the schedule of basic rates in subdivision (a) shall be adjusted as follows:

(1) Effective January 1, 1990, the amounts in the schedule of basic rates in subdivision (a) shall be increased by 12 percent.

(2) Effective May 1, 1990, any county which did not increase the basic rate by 12 percent on January 1, 1990, shall do all of the following:

(A) Increase the basic rate in effect December 31, 1989, for which state participation is received by 12 percent.

(B) Increase the basic rate, as adjusted pursuant to subparagraph (A) by an additional 5 percent.

(3) (A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), effective July 1, 1990, for the 1990–91 fiscal year, the amounts in the schedule of basic rates in subdivision (a) shall be increased by an additional 5 percent.

(B) The rate increase required by subparagraph (A) shall not be applied to rates increased May 1, 1990, pursuant to paragraph (2).

(d) (1) Beginning with the 1991–92 fiscal year, the schedule of basic rates in subdivision (a) shall be adjusted by the percentage changes in the California Necessities Index, computed pursuant to the methodology described in Section 11453, subject to the availability of funds.

(2) Any county that, as of the 1991–92 fiscal year, receives state participation for a basic rate that exceeds the amount set forth in the schedule of basic rates in subdivision (a) shall receive an increase each year in state participation for that basic rate of one-half of the percentage adjustments specified in paragraph (1) until the difference between the county's adjusted state participation level for its basic rate and the adjusted schedule of basic rates is eliminated.

(3) If a county has, after receiving the adjustments specified in paragraph (2), a state participation level for a basic rate that is below the amount set forth in the adjusted schedule of basic rates for that fiscal year, the state participation level for that rate shall be further increased to the amount specified in the adjusted schedule of basic rates.

(e) (1) As used in this section, "specialized care increment" means an approved amount paid with state participation on behalf of an AFDC-FC child requiring specialized care to a home listed in subdivision (a) in addition to the basic rate. On the effective date of this section, the department shall continue and maintain the current ratesetting system for specialized care.

(2) Any county that, as of the effective date of this section, has in effect specialized care increments that have been approved by the department, shall continue to receive state participation for those payments.

(3) Any county that, as of the effective date of this section, has in effect specialized care increments that exceed the amounts that have been approved by the department, shall continue to receive the same level of state participation as it received on the effective date of this section.

(4) (A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), beginning January 1, 1990, specialized care increments shall be adjusted in accordance with the methodology for the schedule of basic rates described in subdivision (c). No county shall receive state participation for any increases in a specialized care increment which exceeds the adjustments made in accordance with this methodology.

(B) It is the intent of the Legislature that for fiscal year 1991–92, an amount equal to 5 percent of the State Treasury appropriation for family homes be added to the total augmentation for the AFDC-FC program in order to provide incentives and assistance to counties in the area of specialized care. This appropriation shall be used, but not limited to, encouraging counties to implement or expand specialized care payment systems, to recruit and train foster parents for the placement of children with specialized care needs, and to develop county systems to encourage the placement of children in family homes. It is also the intent of the Legislature that in the use of these funds, federal financial participation shall be claimed whenever possible.

(5) The department shall report, in consultation with counties, the State Foster Parents Association, and representatives of other foster care providers, to the Legislature by December 31, 1990, on the department's specialized care ratesetting system regarding its effectiveness in meeting the special needs of children in foster care. At a minimum, the department's report shall address the following:

(A) A description of the current specialized care system and its strengths and weaknesses.

(B) The characteristics of children receiving specialized care and the cost of that care.

(C) The types of specialized care which are needed by children but which are not readily available for these children; the cost of providing that care; and the current placements of children with special needs in the absence of that care.

(D) The extent to which specialized foster family care can provide an alternative to group home care and the costs and savings which would be associated with greater emphasis on specialized family foster care.

(E) Recommendations on needed improvements to specialized family foster care.

(f) (1) As used in this section, "clothing allowance" means the amount paid with state participation in addition to the basic rate for the provision of additional clothing for an AFDC-FC child, including, but not limited to, an initial supply of clothing and school or other uniforms.

(2) Any county that, as of the effective date of this section, has in effect clothing allowances, shall continue to receive the same level as it received on the effective date of this section.

(3) Beginning January 1, 1990, clothing allowances shall be adjusted annually in accordance with the methodology for the schedule of basic rates described in subdivision (c). No county shall be reimbursed for any increases in clothing allowances which exceed the adjustments made in accordance with this methodology.

SEC. 164. Section 13700 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

13700. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) There are homeless minors living on the streets of major urban centers in this state without adequate food, shelter, health care, or financial support.

(b) Many of these homeless youth in these urban centers come from out-of-city or out-of-county locations.

(c) The homeless child, in many instances, has a history of physical or sexual abuse at home, and of having been rejected or forced out of the parental home.

(d) While living on the streets, these youth fall prey to drug abuse, prostitution, and other illegal activities.

(e) Local public agencies are unable to provide these youth with an adequate level or range of remedial services.

(f) These homeless minors are urgently in need of specialized services to locate them, to assist them with their immediate survival needs, and to address their long-term need to reunite with their parents or find a suitable home.

(g) Two homeless youth emergency service pilot programs, one in the City of Los Angeles, and one in the City and County of San Francisco, have demonstrated the need for ongoing programs to meet the needs of homeless minors and the effectiveness of these programs in meeting these needs.

The purpose of this chapter is therefore to maintain one homeless youth emergency project in the County of Los Angeles and one in the City and County of San Francisco, where the problem is most acute, and to the extent funds are appropriated in the Budget Act of 1991, to establish additional homeless youth emergency service pilot projects pursuant to this chapter. It is the further purpose of this chapter to examine the condition of homeless youth in major urban areas of this state with populations of 500,000 or more, as well as other urban, suburban, and rural areas, and develop a profile of homeless youth in terms of background and available services, in order to locate these youth, to provide for their emergency survival needs, and to assist them in reunification with their parents or in finding a suitable home.

SEC. 165. Section 14085.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14085.5. (a) Each disproportionate share hospital contracting to provide services under this article or contracting with a county organized health system, and which has or would have met the state criteria developed pursuant to the federal Medicaid requirements regarding disproportionate hospitals for the three most recent years, may, in addition to the rate of payment provided for in the contract entered into under this article, receive supplemental reimbursement to the extent provided for in this section.

(b) (1) (A) A hospital qualifying pursuant to subdivision (a) shall submit documentation regarding debt service on revenue bonds used for financing the construction, renovation, or replacement of hospital facilities, including buildings and fixed equipment.

(B) Qualified hospitals may submit debt service instruments to the department and to the commission regarding debt issued for new capital projects.

(C) Eligible projects shall include those new capital projects funded by new debt for which final plans have been submitted to the Office of the State Architect and the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development after July 1, 1989, and prior to June 30, 1994.

(D) The department shall confirm in writing hospital and project eligibility for partial financing under this section.

(E) Department advisory letters, conditioned on hospital and project conformity to plans, may be requested by hospitals prior to final plan submission.

(F) (i) Capital projects receiving partial financing under this section shall finance the upgrading or construction of buildings and equipment to a level required by currently accepted medical practice standards, including projects designed to correct Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals and Health Systems fire and life safety, seismic, or other related regulatory standards.

(ii) Projects may also expand service capacity as needed to maintain current or reasonably foreseeable necessary bed capacity to meet the needs of Medi-Cal beneficiaries after giving consideration to bed capacity needed for other patients, including unsponsored patients.

(iii) (aa) Debt service shall only be paid for projects, or for that portion of projects, that are available and accessible to patients treated under this article or by successor programs.

(bb) Each project shall cost at least five million dollars ($5,000,000) or, if less than five million dollars ($5,000,000), the project shall be necessary for retention of federal and state licensing and certification and for meeting fire and life safety, seismic, or other related regulatory standards.

(iv) Supplemental reimbursement payments shall commence no later than 30 days after receipt of the certificate of occupancy by the hospital.

(v) (aa) The state shall pledge to, and agree with, the holders of any revenue bonds issued to finance projects qualifying under this section that until debt service on the revenue bonds is fully paid, or until the supplemental rate is no longer required as provided by this section, the state will not limit or alter the rights vested in the hospital to receive supplemental reimbursement pursuant to this section.

(bb) The state shall pledge, and the hospital shall, as a condition of encumbering supplemental reimbursement payments received pursuant to this section, pledge that supplemental reimbursement payments shall be used for the payment of debt service on the revenue bonds. The hospital shall include its pledge and the agreement with the state in any agreement with the holders of the revenue bonds.

(c) The hospital's supplemental reimbursement for a project qualifying pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b) shall be calculated as follows:

(1) For any fiscal year for which the hospital is eligible to receive reimbursement, the hospital shall report to the department the amount of debt service on the revenue bonds issued to finance the project.

(2) The department shall use the Medicaid inpatient utilization rate as determined pursuant to Section 4112 of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1987 to determine the ratio of the hospital's total paid Medi-Cal patient days to total patient days.

(3) (A) (i) The supplemental Medi-Cal reimbursement to the hospital for each fiscal year shall equal the amount determined annually in paragraph (1) multiplied by the percentage figure determined in paragraph (2). In no instance shall the percentage figure determined pursuant to the ratio derived under paragraph (2) be decreased by more than 10 percent of the initial ratio determined pursuant to paragraph (2) prior to the retirement of the debt.

(ii) Hospitals whose Medi-Cal ratio falls below 90 percent of the initial level established at the point of final plan submission shall at least maintain the volume of Medi-Cal utilization which was recorded at the time of final plan submission unless forces beyond the hospital's control have decreased the absolute volume of care.

(B) (i) In no instance shall the total amount of reimbursement received under this section combined with that received from all other sources dedicated exclusively to debt service exceed 100 percent of the debt service over the life of the loan.

(ii) A hospital qualifying for and receiving supplemental Medi-Cal reimbursement shall continue to receive the reimbursement until the qualifying loan is paid off, or the hospital is terminated as a Medi-Cal selective contractor and the hospital does not contract with a county organized health system.

(iii) It is the intent of the Legislature that the state and the qualifying hospital shall negotiate in good faith for rates sufficient to ensure continued hospital participation in the program and to ensure adequate access to services for Medi-Cal beneficiaries.

(iv) The state shall not terminate a contract with a qualified provider for the purpose of terminating the capital supplement.

(v) If negotiations fail to permit continuation of a contract of a hospital qualifying for the supplemental Medi-Cal reimbursement, the supplemental Medi-Cal reimbursement shall cease as of the date of discontinuance of the selective provider contract.

(4) In order to ensure provision of qualified supplemental payments to disproportionate share hospitals contracting with county organized health systems, the department shall make the qualified supplemental payments directly to these hospitals.

(5) Funding for these supplemental payments shall be separately appropriated as a line item in the Budget Act for each fiscal year for any project for which a request for payment is received after April 1 of each fiscal year. The department shall request a deficiency appropriation if funds for the payment are not appropriated in the Budget Act.

(6) The department shall provide the Department of Finance, the Legislative Analyst, and the Joint Legislative Budget Committee with its estimate of the budget year costs of the supplemental reimbursement program, on January 10 and May 15 of each year.

(7) (A) Paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, shall be incorporated into an amendment to any contract entered into by a hospital pursuant to this article.

(B) (i) Any contract amendment required by paragraph (A) shall include a payment methodology based on inpatient hospital services rendered to Medi-Cal patients, either on a per diem basis, a per-discharge basis, or any other federally permissible basis, and which is consistent with the hospital's Medi-Cal contract.

(ii) The payment methodology specified in clause (i) shall ensure that the hospital, on an annual basis, receives the amount of supplemental reimbursement calculated pursuant to paragraph (3), excluding only the federal portion of costs which have been determined by the federal government not to be allowable under Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act (Subchapter 19 (commencing with Section 1396) of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code).

(iii) The payment methodology specified in clause (i) shall contain a retrospective adjustment mechanism to ensure that, regardless of the payment methodology, the department shall pay the hospital the full amount owed to the hospital for the year, as determined pursuant to this section.

(8) In negotiating contracts with hospitals receiving payments under this section, the commission shall take appropriate steps to ensure the duplicate payments are not made to the hospital for the debt service costs relating to the eligible project.

(d) All reimbursement received by a hospital pursuant to this section shall be placed in a special account, the funds in which shall be used exclusively for the payment of debt service on the revenue bonds issued to finance the project.

(e) If contracting under this section is superceded by other arrangements for payment of inpatient hospital services, the successor program shall include separate reimbursement, as determined pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c).

(f) (1) For purposes of this section, "revenue bonds" are defined as that term is defined in subdivision (c) of Section 15459 of the Government Code, and shall also include general obligation bonds issued by or on behalf of eligible hospitals for projects of more than five million dollars ($5,000,000).

(2) (A) The aggregate principal amount of general obligation bonds to be issued as revenue bonds under this subdivision for the anticipated allowable portion of projects shall not, in any fiscal year, exceed a statewide amount established in the Medi-Cal estimates submitted to the fiscal committees of the Legislature pursuant to Section 14100.5, or as otherwise statutorily determined by the Legislature.

(B) In preparing Medi-Cal estimates, the department shall consider, but need not include, all actual and anticipated projects.

(g) (1) The department shall promptly seek any necessary federal approvals for the implementation of this section, and, if necessary to obtain federal approval, the department may, for federal purposes, limit the program to those costs which are allowable expenditures under Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act (Subchapter 19 (commencing with Section 1396) of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code), subject to paragraph (2).

(2) The department shall continue to be responsible for the reimbursement of eligible providers from state funds for the amount of supplemental reimbursement pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c), excluding only the federal portion of costs which have been determined by the federal government not to be allowable under Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act.

(h) (1) A hospital receiving supplemental reimbursement pursuant to this section shall be liable for any reduced federal financial participation resulting from the implementation of this section.

(2) The department shall submit claims for federal financial participation for all elements of the supplemental reimbursements which are allowable expenditures under federal law.

(3) The department shall, on an annual basis, submit any necessary materials to the federal government to provide assurances that claims for federal financial participation will include only those expenditures which are allowable under federal law.

(4) (A) The department may require that hospitals receiving supplemental reimbursement submit data necessary for the department to determine the appropriate amounts to claim as expenditures qualifying for federal financial participation.

(B) Unless otherwise permitted by federal law, the total statewide payment under the selective provider contracting program, in the aggregate on an annual basis, shall not exceed an amount that would otherwise have been paid under the Medi-Cal program on a statewide basis for the same services, in the aggregate on an annual basis, if the contracting program were not implemented.

SEC. 166. Section 18425 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

18425. (a) The department shall implement a pilot project in the City and County of San Francisco, upon the approval of the board of supervisors, to house an eligible child with the only custodial parent, in a treatment facility, when the parent has been ordered by the court to receive substance abuse treatment in the treatment facility setting.

(b) For purposes of this section, "eligible child" means any child who meets all of the following criteria:

(1) The child has been adjudicated a dependent child of the court pursuant to Section 300.

(2) The custodial parent with whom the child is living is required by the courts, as a condition of family maintenance, to reside in the treatment facility which provides a program of substance abuse treatment to the parent.

(c) The county shall provide services required in family maintenance regulations.

(d) (1) Only treatment facilities which have been certified by the State Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs as meeting the standards adopted by that department pursuant to Section 11830.5 of the Health and Safety Code, may house eligible children for purposes of the pilot program or claim reimbursement pursuant to this chapter.

(2) (A) The county shall submit a proposal to the department outlining the services available to the eligible child in the treatment facility with the custodial parent.

(B) The proposal required by subparagraph (A) shall include all of the following:

(i) The characteristics of the treatment facility.

(ii) The number of beds in the treatment facility.

(iii) A plan outlining the care and supervision arrangements for the eligible child by the custodial parent or other adult clients.

(iv) The ratio of staff to custodial parent and the eligible child population.

(v) The eating and sleeping arrangements for the custodial parent and eligible child population.

(vi) Fire drill and disaster plan procedures.

(e) (1) (A) The county shall reimburse the treatment facility at the rate of two hundred seventy-one dollars ($271) per month per eligible child housed in the facility.

(B) The participating county shall participate in the reimbursement payment required by subparagraph (A) on behalf of each eligible child, at the sharing ratio specified in subdivision (c) of Section 15200.

(2) The amount of the reimbursement payment specified in paragraph (1) shall be adjusted on July 1 of each fiscal year during the pilot project, pursuant to Section 11453, subject to the availability of funds.

(f) (1) The department shall, on or before December 31, 1993, report to the appropriate committees of the Legislature on the success of the pilot project implemented pursuant to this section.

(2) The report required by paragraph (1) shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following information:

(A) The number of parents in a treatment facility and the number of their children who live with them.

(B) The length of time parents and their eligible children live in the treatment facility.

(C) The number of children removed from their families and placed in foster care following a stay in the facility.

(D) The extent of continued contact by families with the child welfare system following their stay in the facility.

(E) The average annual per person cost, and the total annual cost of the placement.

(g) The pilot project shall be deemed successful if the parents and children served by the pilot project have a higher rate of family maintenance than parents and children who have not been served by the pilot program.

(h) This chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1994, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 167. Any section of any act enacted by the Legislature during the 1991 calendar year, which takes effect on or before January 1, 1992, and which amends, amends and renumbers, adds, repeals and adds, or repeals a section amended, amended and renumbered, repealed and added, or repealed by this act, shall prevail over this act, whether that act is enacted prior to, or subsequent to, this act. The repeal, or repeal and addition, of any article, chapter, part, title, or division of any code by this act shall not become operative if any section of any other act amends, amends and renumbers, adds, repeals and adds, or repeals any section contained in that article, chapter, part, title, or division.

CHAPTER 1092

An act to add Section 27491.8 to the Government Code, relating to coroners.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 27491.8 is added to the Government Code, to read:

27491.8. (a) When the coroner seeks a confidential communication of a deceased person that is privileged under Article 6 (commencing with Section 990) or Article 7 (commencing with Section 1010) of Chapter 4 of Division 8 of the Evidence Code, by means of a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum, for the purpose of inquiry into, and determination of, the circumstances, manner, and cause of death as set forth in Section 27491, or for the sole purpose of being introduced as evidence at a coroner's inquest proceeding, the coroner shall provide notice to the decedent's personal representative personally or at his or her last known address, not less than 15 days prior to the date the records are to be delivered to the presiding judge of the superior court. The notice shall inform the personal representative that he or she may provide to the court a written objection to the disclosure or to any part thereof, on or before the date for delivery thereof to the court. The custodian shall deliver the records to the presiding judge of the superior court in a confidential manner. The presiding judge shall examine the records in camera. If there is good cause, the presiding judge shall direct the custodian to disclose to the coroner those portions of the records which the judge determines are relevant to the coroner's inquiry or inquest.

(b) A communication made available to the coroner pursuant to this section is confidential, except insofar as it is introduced into evidence at a coroner's inquest proceeding, and shall not be distributed or made available to any other person, agency, firm, or corporation.

(c) This communication shall not be admissible as former testimony pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 1290) of Chapter 2 of Division 10 of the Evidence Code.

(d) After the investigation or inquest has terminated, the court shall order the records thereof to be sealed as necessary to protect the confidentiality of the decedent's medical or mental health information.

CHAPTER 1093

An act to amend Section 6103.9 of the Government Code, relating to child and spousal support.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6103.9 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6103.9. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, except as provided in this section, the district attorney shall be exempt from the payment of any fees, including fees for service of process and filing fees, in any action or proceeding brought for the establishment of a child support obligation or the enforcement of a child or spousal support obligation. Costs associated with those activities shall be subject to reimbursement by the district attorney only as provided for in this section.

(b) The district attorney may reimburse a county for those direct costs related to the establishment of a child support obligation or the enforcement of a child or spousal support obligation which have been agreed to pursuant to a plan of cooperation. Any reimbursement pursuant to a plan of cooperation shall not include any amount which is payable as a filing fee.

(c) For purposes of this section, a "plan of cooperation" means an agreement entered into by the district attorney and the county clerk of his or her county which is approved by the State Department of Social Services and which provides that the district attorney will reimburse the county for the cost of providing clerical and administrative support furnished by the county clerk.

CHAPTER 1094

An act to amend Section 436.8 of, to add Section 436.815 to, and to add Article 10 (commencing with Section 436.70) to Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 436.8 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

436.8. A loan shall be eligible for insurance under this chapter if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) When the borrower is a nonprofit corporation, such loan shall be secured by a mortgage, first lien, trust indenture, or such other security agreement as the office may require subject only to such conditions, covenants and restrictions, easements, taxes, and assessments of record approved by the office. When the borrower is a political subdivision, such loan may be evidenced by a duly authorized bond issue. A loan to a local hospital district or county may meet the requirement of this subdivision by either method.

(b) The borrower obtains an American Land Title Association title insurance policy with the office designated as beneficiary, with liability equal to the amount of the loan insured under this chapter, and with such additional endorsements as the office may reasonably require.

(c) The proceeds of the loan shall be used exclusively for the construction, improvement, or expansion of the health facility, as approved by the office under Section 436.4. However, loans insured pursuant to this chapter may include loans to refinance another prior loan, whether or not state insured and without regard to the date of the prior loan, if the office determines that the prior loan would have been eligible for insurance under this chapter at the time it was made. The office may not insure a loan for a health facility which is not needed as determined by the state plan developed under the authorization of Section 436.4.

(d) The loan shall have a maturity date not exceeding 30 years from the date of the beginning of amortization of the loan, except as authorized by subdivision (e), or 75 percent of the office's estimate of the economic life of the health facility, whichever is the lesser.

(e) The loan shall contain complete amortization provisions requiring periodic payments by the borrower not in excess of its reasonable ability to pay as determined by the office. The office shall permit a reasonable period of time during which the first payment to amortization may be waived on agreement by the lender and borrower. The office may, however, waive the amortization requirements of this subdivision and of subdivision (g) of this section when a term loan would be in the borrower's best interest.

(f) The loan shall bear interest on the amount of the principal obligation outstanding at any time at a rate, as negotiated by the borrower and lender, as the office finds necessary to meet the loan money market. As used in this chapter, "interest" does not include premium charges for insurance and service charges if any. Where a loan is evidenced by a bond issue of a political subdivision, the interest thereon may be at any rate which such bonds may legally bear.

(g) The loan shall provide for the application of the borrower's periodic payments to amortization of the principal of the loan.

(h) The loan shall contain such terms and provisions with respect to insurance, repairs, alterations, payment of taxes and assessments, foreclosure proceedings, anticipation of maturity, additional and secondary liens, and other matters as the office may in its discretion prescribe.

(i) The loan shall have a principal obligation not in excess of an amount equal to 90 percent of the total construction cost. Where the borrower is a political subdivision, the office may fully insure loans equal to the total construction cost.

(j) The borrower shall offer reasonable assurance that the services of the health facility will be made available to all persons residing or employed in the area served by the facility.

(k) A certificate of need or certificate of exemption has been issued for the project to be financed pursuant to Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 437) of this division, unless the project is not subject to such requirement.

(l) In the case of acquisitions, a project loan shall be guaranteed only for transactions not in excess of the fair market value of the acquisition.

Fair market value shall be determined, for purposes of this subdivision, pursuant to the following procedure, which shall be utilized during the state review of a loan guarantee application:

(1) Completion of a property appraisal by an appraisal firm qualified to make appraisals, as determined by the office, before closing a loan on the project.

(2) Evaluation of the appraisal in conjunction with the book value of the acquisition by the office. When acquisitions involve additional construction, the office shall evaluate the proposed construction to determine that the costs are reasonable for the type of construction proposed. In those cases where this procedure reveals that the cost of acquisition exceeds the current value of a facility, including improvements, then the acquisition cost shall be deemed in excess of fair market value.

(m) Notwithstanding subdivision (i), any loan in the amount of five million dollars ($5,000,000) or less may be insured up to 95 percent of the total construction cost.

In determining financial feasibility of projects of counties pursuant to this section, the office shall take into consideration any assistance for the project to be provided under Sections 14085.5 and 16715 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or from other sources. It is the intent of the Legislature that the office endeavor to assist counties in whatever ways are possible to arrange loans which will meet the requirements for insurance prescribed by this section.

SEC. 2. Article 10 (commencing with Section 436.70) is added to Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 10. Community Health Center Facilities Loan Insurance

436.70. This article shall be known and may be cited as the Community Health Center Facilities Loan Insurance Law.

436.75. (a) "Community health center facilities" as used in this article, means those licensed, nonprofit primary care clinics as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 1204.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (i) of Section 436.8, any loan in the amount of five million dollars ($5,000,000) or less for a community health center facility pursuant to this chapter may be insured up to 95 percent of the total construction cost.

(c) Community health center facilities applying for any loan insurance pursuant to this chapter, may use existing equity in buildings, equipment, and donated assets, including, but not limited to, land and receipts from expenses related to the capital outlay for the project, notwithstanding the date of occurrence to meet the equity requirements of this chapter. In determining the value of the equity in any donated property, the office may use the original purchase price or the current appraised value.

(d) Any state plan referred to in Section 436.4 developed by the office shall include a chapter identifying any impediments that preclude small facilities from utilizing the California Health Facility Construction Loan Insurance Program. The state plan shall also include specific programmatic remedies to enable small projects to utilize the program if impediments are found.

SEC. 3. Section 436.815 is added immediately following Section 436.81 to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

436.815. Subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 436.75 shall apply to any residential or nonresidential alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment program or facility, as certified under Section 11831.5, or licensed under Section 11834.19; and any facility that provides an organized program of therapeutic, social, and health activities and services to persons with functional impairments, as licensed under Section 1576.

SEC. 4. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to encourage the development of facilities for community-based nonprofit primary care clinics that assist clients with primary care and preventative health programs as well as to encourage and expand community-based recovery and treatment programs for substance abusers, and encourage and expand community-based adult day health care centers. It is further the intent of the Legislature to encourage local programs to seek funding for facility development from private sources and assistance provided pursuant to this chapter.

CHAPTER 1095

An act to add Section 21025.3 to the Government Code, relating to public retirement.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21025.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

21025.3. Upon the receipt by the board of an application for disability retirement with respect to a state peace officer/firefighter member, state patrol member, or a state safety member, the board shall inform both the employer and the member of all information required for the board to make its determination. The board shall make its determination within three months of the receipt by the board of all information required to make a determination for disability retirement on an application submitted by a state peace officer/firefighter member, state patrol member, or a state safety member for disability retirement pursuant to this article.

This section shall not become operative unless and until the Department of Finance or the Legislature authorizes the augmentation of the operating budget of the board to include three additional permanent, full-time positions to make possible this enhanced level of service.

CHAPTER 1096

An act to repeal Section 2708 of the Public Resources Code, and to add Section 6308.5 to the Water Code, relating to seismic safety, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2708 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 6308.5 is added to the Water Code, to read:

6308.5. Notwithstanding Section 6308, the first fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) derived from the fees and charges and received each year shall be deposited in the Strong-Motion Instrumentation Special Fund created by Section 2706 of the Public Resources Code and shall be used for the instrumentation of dams as part of the Strong-Motion Instrumentation Program pursuant to Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 2700) of Division 2 of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this act shall become operative only if AB 984 of the 1991–92 Regular Session is enacted and takes effect and amends Sections 6300 and 6307 of the Water Code.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1097

An act to amend Sections 8008, 8020, 8022, 8023.5, 8024, 8024.2, 8025, 8027, 8030.2, 8030.4, 8030.6, 8030.8, and 8031 of, and to add Section 8025.1 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to shorthand reporters, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8008 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 505 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

8008. The board also has the following powers and duties:

(a) To adopt a seal.

(b) By affirmative vote of at least three members of the board, to suspend or revoke a certificate, for any cause specified in this chapter.

(c) To charge and collect all fees as provided for in this chapter.

(d) To require the renewal of all certificates.

(e) To issue subpoenas, to administer oaths, and to take testimony concerning any matter within the jurisdiction of the board.

(f) To administer a fund established from the fees collected pursuant to Section 8031, or from any other donated sources, to reimburse indigent litigants for the cost of preparation of official transcripts of court proceedings and deposition proceedings.

(g) To submit to the Legislature no later than September 1 annually, a report concerning the past fiscal year's experience with the Transcript Reimbursement Fund. The report shall include, but is not limited to, information which indicates the following:

(1) The number of requests for reimbursement.

(2) The number of requests granted.

(3) The number of requests denied.

(4) The total amount of funds disbursed.

(5) The amount of any remaining unexpended funds.

(6) The anticipated funding level needed to meet all requests in the following fiscal year.

(7) The total amount of refunds resulting from either a judicial award or settlement agreement which includes provisions for attorneys' fees or costs as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 8030.2.

(8) The amount of funds received from other sources.

(h) To investigate the actions of any licensee, upon receipt of a verified complaint in writing from any person, for alleged acts or omissions constituting grounds for disciplinary action under the chapter.

This section shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1996, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 8008 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 505 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

8008. The board also has the following powers and duties:

(a) To adopt a seal.

(b) By affirmative vote of at least three members of the board, to suspend or revoke a certificate, for any cause specified in this chapter.

(c) To charge and collect all fees as provided for in this chapter.

(d) To require the renewal of all certificates.

(e) To issue subpoenas, to administer oaths, and to take testimony concerning any matter within the jurisdiction of the board.

(f) To investigate the actions of any licensee, upon receipt of a verified complaint in writing from any person, for alleged acts or omissions constituting grounds for disciplinary action under the chapter.

This section shall become operative on June 30, 1996.

SEC. 3. Section 8020 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8020. Any person over the age of 18 years, who has not committed any acts or crimes constituting grounds for denial of licensure under Sections 480, 8025, and 8025.1, who has a high school education or its equivalent as determined by the board, and who has satisfactorily passed an examination under any regulations that the board may prescribe shall be entitled to a certificate and shall be styled and known as a certified shorthand reporter. No person shall be admitted to the examination without first presenting satisfactory evidence to the board that within the five years immediately preceding the date of application for a certificate the applicant has obtained one of the following:

(a) One year of experience in making verbatim records of meetings, conferences, hearings, or judicial or related proceedings by means of written symbols or abbreviations in shorthand or machine writing and transcribing these records.

(b) A verified certificate of satisfactory completion of a prescribed course of study in a recognized court reporting school or certificate from the school evidencing equivalent proficiency and of the ability to make a verbatim record of material dictated in accordance with regulations adopted by the board contained in Title 16 of the California Code of Regulations.

(c) National Shorthand Reporters Association certificate of proficiency or certificate of merit.

(d) A passing grade on the California state hearing reporters examination.

(e) A valid certified shorthand reporters certificate or license to practice shorthand reporting issued by a state other than California whose requirements and licensing examination are substantially the same as those in California.

SEC. 4. Section 8022 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8022. (a) Each applicant for a certificate under this chapter shall file an application with the executive officer, on a form as prescribed by the board, at least 45 days before the date fixed for examination, and the application shall be accompanied by the required fee. For purposes of determining the date upon which an application is deemed filed with the executive officer, the date of postmark as affixed by the United States Postal Service, or the date certified by a bona fide private courier service on the envelope containing the application shall control.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the board's authority to seek from any applicant any other information pertinent to the background, education, and experience of the applicant that may be deemed necessary in order to evaluate the applicant's qualifications and fitness for licensure.

SEC. 5. Section 8023.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8023.5. If an applicant for a certificate is from a country where the principal language spoken is one other than English, the board may, in addition to any other examination required by this chapter, examine the applicant on his or her knowledge of the English language.

SEC. 6. Section 8024 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8024. All certificates issued under this chapter shall be valid for a period of one year, except for the initial period of licensure as prescribed by the board, and shall expire at 12 midnight on the last day of the month of birth of the licensee unless renewed.

To renew an unexpired certificate, the certificate holder shall, on or before each of the dates on which it would otherwise expire, apply for renewal on a form prescribed by the board, and pay the renewal fee prescribed by this chapter.

SEC. 7. Section 8024.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8024.2. Except as otherwise provided in this article, a certificate which has expired may be renewed at any time within the period set forth in Section 8024.5 on filing of application for renewal on a form prescribed by the board, and payment of the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date. If the certificate is not renewed within 30 days after its expiration, the certificate holder, as a condition precedent to renewal, shall also pay the delinquency fee set forth in Section 163.5. Renewal under this section shall be effective on the date on which the renewal fee is paid, or on the date on which the delinquency fee, if any, is paid, whichever last occurs. If so renewed, the certificate shall continue in effect through the date provided in Section 8024 which next occurs after the effective date of the renewal, when it shall expire if it is not again renewed.

SEC. 8. Section 8025 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8025. A certificate issued under this chapter may be suspended or revoked, or certification may be denied, for one or more of the following causes:

(a) Conviction of a crime substantially related to the qualifications, functions and duties of a certified shorthand reporter. The record of conviction, or a certified copy thereof, shall be conclusive evidence of the conviction.

(b) Fraud or misrepresentation resorted to in obtaining a certificate hereunder.

(c) Fraud, dishonesty, corruption, willful violation of duty, gross negligence or incompetency in practice, or unprofessional conduct.

"Unprofessional conduct" includes, but is not limited to, acts contrary to professional standards concerning confidentiality; impartiality; filing and retention of notes; notifications, availability, delivery, execution and certification of transcripts; and any provision of law substantially related to the duties of a certified shorthand reporter.

(d) Repeated unexcused failure, whether or not willful, to transcribe notes of cases pending on appeal and to file the transcripts thereof within the time required by law or to transcribe or file notes of other proceedings within the time required by law or agreed by contract.

(e) Violation of this chapter or the rules and regulations adopted by the board.

SEC. 9. Section 8025.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

8025.1. In addition to the causes for discipline or denial of certification set forth in Section 8025, the board may suspend or revoke any certificate, or deny certification, on any of the following grounds:

(a) That the applicant or licensee is incapable of performing the duties of a certified shorthand reporter due to physical or mental infirmity or incapacity.

(b) That the applicant or licensee is unable to perform the duties of a certified shorthand reporter due to the abuse of chemical substances or alcohol.

(c) For purposes of determining the existence or nonexistence of grounds for denial, suspension, or revocation of a license as set forth in this section the board may, based upon a reasonable belief that grounds exist, require the applicant or licensee to submit to a physical or mental examination or examinations by a licensed physician as designated by the board. Failure to submit to, or to schedule a physical or mental examination within 10 days of written demand by the board shall result in the automatic suspension of any license or the denial of any application. The denial of an application on any of the grounds set forth in this section shall be subject to the provisions of Sections 11504 and 11504.5 of the Government Code. The licensee may request a hearing to contest an automatic suspension of licensure under this section by sending a written request for hearing to the offices of the board within 12 days of the date that the board mails a notice of suspension to the licensee. If a hearing is requested, it shall be convened within 30 days after the receipt by the board of the written request for the hearing. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. The sole issue for determination in the hearing, whether for denial or suspension of license, shall be whether the licensee failed or refused to submit to the physical or mental examination after being duly ordered to do so by the board. Evidence that the licensee has, since the date of automatic suspension, submitted to a mental or physical examination shall be considered as mitigation of any failure or refusal to comply with the board's order, and may, in the sound discretion of the administrative law judge, constitute cause to set aside any automatic suspension. A decision shall be rendered by the administrative law judge within 10 days of the hearing and shall constitute the final determination as to the continuing status of any automatic suspension.

(d) Following a physical or mental examination pursuant to subdivision (c), the physician conducting the examination shall determine whether the applicant or licensee is incapable of performing the duties of a certified shorthand reporter due to physical or mental infirmity or incapacity, or whether the applicant or licensee is unable to perform the duties of a certified shorthand reporter due to the abuse of chemical substances or alcohol. Where a medical determination is made that an impairment exists, and the finding is reported to the board, the board shall deny any application and any license shall be automatically suspended. The denial of an application on these grounds shall be subject to the provisions of Sections 11504 and 11504.5 of the Government Code. The licensee may request a hearing to contest an automatic suspension of licensure under this section by sending a written request for hearing to the offices of the board within 12 days of the date that the board mails a notice of suspension to the licensee. If a hearing is requested, it shall be convened within 30 days after the receipt by the board of the written request for hearing. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. The sole issue for determination in the hearing, whether for denial or suspension of license, shall be whether the applicant or licensee is incapable of performing the duties of a certified shorthand reporter due to physical or mental infirmity or incapacity, or whether the applicant or licensee is unable to perform the duties of a certified shorthand reporter due to the abuse of chemical substances or school.

(e) For purposes of the hearing conducted pursuant to subdivision (d), the licentiate shall, at a minimum, have the following rights:

(1) To be represented by counsel.

(2) To have a record made of the proceedings, copies of which may be obtained by the licentiate upon payment of any reasonable charges associated with the record.

(3) To call, examine, and cross-examine witnesses.

(4) To present and rebut evidence determined to be relevant.

(5) To present oral argument.

(f) The statutory period governing reapplication for licensure following denial of the application as set forth in Section 486 shall not apply to licenses denied under this section.

SEC. 10. Section 8027 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8027. (a) As used in this section, "school" means a court reporter training program or an institution which provides a course of instruction approved by the board, and which is approved by the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education, is a public school in this state, or is accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges.

(b) A court reporting school shall be primarily organized to train students for the practice of shorthand reporting, as defined in Sections 8016 and 8017. Its educational program shall be on the postsecondary or collegiate level, and shall be a residence program; its educational program shall not be a correspondence program. It shall be legally organized and authorized to conduct its program under all applicable laws of the state, and shall conform to and offer the minimum prescribed course of study established by the board. Its records shall be kept and shall be maintained in a manner to render them safe from theft, fire, or other loss. The records shall indicate positive daily and clock-hour attendance of each student; apprenticeship and graduation reports; high school transcripts or equivalent; transcript of other education; and, student progress to date.

(c) The board may grant provisional recognition to a new court reporting school upon satisfactory evidence that it has met all of the provisions of subdivision (b). Recognition shall be granted by the board to a provisionally recognized school after it has been in continuous operation for a period of no less than three consecutive years from the date provisional recognition was granted, during which period the school shall provide satisfactory evidence that at least one person has successfully completed the entire course of study established by the board and complied with the provisions of Section 8020, and has been issued a license to practice shorthand reporting as defined in Sections 8016 and 8017. Failure to meet the provisions and terms of this section shall require the board to deny recognition after the three-year period.

(d) Application for recognition of a court reporting school shall be made upon a form prescribed by the board and shall be accompanied by all evidence, statements, or documents requested. Each branch, extension center or off-campus facility requires separate application.

(e) All recognized and provisionally recognized court reporting schools shall notify the board of any change in school name, address, telephone number, responsible court reporting program manager, owner of private schools, and the effective date thereof, within 30 days of the change. The board shall be notified, immediately, of the discontinuance, or pending discontinuance of the school or program. All of these notifications shall be made in writing.

(f) The board shall maintain a roster of currently recognized and provisionally recognized court reporting schools including, but not limited to, the name, address, telephone number, and the name of the responsible court reporting program manager of each school.

(g) The board shall maintain statistics which display the number and passing percentage of all first-time examinees including, but not limited to, those qualified by each recognized or provisionally recognized school and those first-time examinees qualified by other methods as defined in Section 8020.

(h) Inspections and investigations shall be conducted by the board as necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

(i) Each court reporting school shall file with the board, not later than June 30 of each year, a current school catalog which shows all course offerings and staff, and for private schools, the owner, except that where there have been no changes to the catalog within the previous year, no catalog need be sent. In addition, each school shall also file with the board a statement certifying that the school is in compliance with all statutes and the rules and regulations of the board, signed by the responsible court reporting program manager.

SEC. 11. Section 8030.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8030.2. (a) To provide shorthand reporting services to low-income litigants in civil cases, who are unable to otherwise afford such services, funds generated by fees received by the board pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 8031 in excess of funds needed to support the board's operating budget for the fiscal year in which a transfer described below is made shall be used by the board for the purpose of establishing and maintaining a Transcript Reimbursement Fund. The Transcript Reimbursement Fund shall be established by a transfer of funds from the Shorthand Reporters' Fund and shall be maintained in an amount no less than three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) for each fiscal year.

(b) All moneys held in the Shorthand Reporters' Fund on the effective date of this section in excess of the board's operating budget for the 1986–87 fiscal year shall be used as provided in subdivision (a).

(c) Refunds and unexpended funds that are anticipated to remain in the Transcript Reimbursement Fund at the end of the fiscal year shall be considered by the board in establishing the fee assessment pursuant to Section 8031 so that the assessment shall maintain the Transcript Reimbursement Fund at the appropriate level in the following fiscal year.

(d) The Transcript Reimbursement Fund is hereby created in the State Treasury. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, moneys in the Transcript Reimbursement Fund are continuously appropriated for the purposes of this chapter.

(e) Applicants who have been reimbursed pursuant to this chapter for services provided to litigants and who are awarded court costs or attorneys' fees by judgment or by settlement agreement, shall refund the full amount of that reimbursement to the fund within 90 days of receipt of the award or settlement.

(f) Subject to the limitations of this chapter, the board shall maintain the fund at a level which is sufficient to pay all qualified claims. To accomplish this objective, the board shall utilize all refunds, unexpended funds, fees, and any other moneys received by the board.

(g) Notwithstanding Section 16346 of the Government Code, all unencumbered funds remaining in the Transcript Reimbursement Fund as of June 29, 1986, shall be transferred to the Transcript Reimbursement Fund established by this section.

(h) Notwithstanding Section 16346 of the Government Code, all unencumbered funds remaining in the Transcript Reimbursement Fund as of June 29, 1996, shall be transferred to the Shorthand Reporters' Fund.

This section shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1996, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 12. Section 8030.4 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8030.4. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Qualified legal services project" means a nonprofit project incorporated and operated exclusively in California which provides as its primary purpose and function legal services without charge to indigent persons, has a board of directors or advisory board composed of both attorneys and consumers of legal services, and provides for community participation in legal services programming. Legal services projects funded either in whole or in part by the Legal Services Corporation or with Older Americans Act funds are presumed to be qualified legal services projects for the purposes of this chapter.

(b) "Qualified support center" means an incorporated nonprofit legal services center, having an office or offices in California, which office or offices provide legal services or technical assistance without charge to qualified legal services projects and their clients on a multicounty basis in California. Support centers funded either in whole or in part by the Legal Services Corporation or with Older Americans Act funds are presumed to be qualified legal services projects for the purposes of this chapter.

(c) "Other qualified project" means a nonprofit organization formed for charitable or other public purposes, not receiving funds from the Legal Services Corporation or pursuant to the Older Americans Act, which organization or association provides free legal services to indigent persons.

(d) "Pro bono attorney" means any attorney, law firm, or legal corporation, licensed to practice law in this state, which undertakes without charge to the party the representation of an indigent person, referred by a qualified legal services project, qualified support center, or other qualified project, in a case not considered to be fee generating as defined in this chapter.

(e) "Applicant" means a qualified legal services project, qualified support center, other qualified project, or pro bono attorney applying to receive funds from the Transcript Reimbursement Fund established by this chapter. The term "applicant" shall not include persons appearing pro se to represent themselves at any stage of the case.

(f) "Indigent person" means either a person whose income is 125 percent or less of the current poverty threshold established by the Office of Management and Budget of the United States, a disabled person whose income after meeting medical and other disability-related special expenses is 125 percent or less of that current poverty threshold, or a person who receives or is eligible to receive supplemental security income.

(g) "Fee-generating case" means any case or matter which, if undertaken on behalf of an eligible client by an attorney in private practice, reasonably may be expected to result in payment of a fee for legal services from an award to a client, from public funds, or from an opposing party. For purposes of this section, it shall be deemed that a reasonable expectation as to payment of a legal fee exists wherever a client enters into a contingent fee agreement with his or her lawyer. A case shall not be considered fee generating if adequate representation is deemed to be unavailable under any of the following:

(1) Where the applicant has determined that referral is not possible because of any of the following:

(A) The case has been rejected by the local lawyer referral service, or if there is no such service, by two private attorneys who have experience in the subject matter of the case.

(B) Neither the referral service nor any lawyer will consider the case without payment of a consultation fee.

(C) The case is of the type that private attorneys in the area ordinarily do not accept, or do not accept without prepayment of a fee.

(D) Emergency circumstances compel immediate action before referral can be made, but the client is advised that, if appropriate and consistent with professional responsibility, referral will be attempted at a later time.

(2) Where recovery of damages is not the principal object of the case and a request for damages is merely ancillary to an action for equitable or other nonpecuniary relief; or inclusion of a counterclaim requesting damages is necessary for effective defense or because of applicable rules governing joinder of counterclaims.

(3) Where a court appoints an applicant or an employee of an applicant pursuant to a statute or a court rule or practice of equal applicability to all attorneys in the jurisdiction.

(4) In any case involving the rights of a claimant under a public supported benefit program for which entitlement to benefit is based on need.

(h) "Legal Services Corporation" means the Legal Services Corporation established under the Legal Services Corporation Act of 1974, Public Law 93-355, as amended.

(i) "Supplemental security income recipient" means an individual receiving or eligible to receive payments under Title XVI of the Social Security Act, Public Law 92-603, as amended, or payment under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 12000) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(j) "Lawyer referral service" means a lawyer referral program authorized by the State Bar of California pursuant to the rules of professional conduct.

(k) "Older Americans Act" means the Older Americans Act of 1965, Public Law 89-73, as amended.

(l) "Rules of professional conduct" means those rules adopted by the State Bar pursuant to Sections 6076 and 6077.

(m) "Certified shorthand reporter" means a shorthand reporter certified pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 8020).

(n) "Case" means a single legal proceeding from its inception, through all levels of hearing, trial, and appeal, until its ultimate conclusion and disposition.

This section shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1996, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 8030.6 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8030.6. The board shall disburse funds from the Transcript Reimbursement Fund, in accordance with the procedures set forth below, to the applicant or the certified shorthand reporter designated in the application for the costs, exclusive of per diem charges, of preparing either an original transcript and one copy thereof, or where appropriate, a copy of the transcript, of court or deposition proceedings, or both, incurred as a contractual obligation between the shorthand reporter and the applicant, for litigation conducted in California:

(a) The applicant or certified shorthand reporter shall promptly submit to the board the certified shorthand reporter's invoice for transcripts together with the appropriate documentation as is required by this chapter.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), the board shall promptly determine if the applicant is entitled to reimbursement under this chapter and shall make payment as follows:

(1) Regular customary charges for preparation of original deposition transcripts and one copy thereof, or a copy of the transcripts.

(2) Regular customary charges for expedited deposition transcripts up to a maximum of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) per case.

(3) Regular customary charges for the preparation of original transcripts and one copy thereof, or a copy of transcripts of court proceedings.

(4) Regular customary charges for expedited or daily charges for preparation of original transcripts and one copy thereof or a copy of transcripts of court proceedings.

(c) The maximum amount reimbursable by the fund under both paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (b) shall not exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) per case per year.

(d) If entitled, and funds are available, the board shall forthwith disburse the appropriate sum to the applicant when documentation as provided in subdivision (d) of Section 8030.8 accompanies the application or the certified shorthand reporter together with a notice requiring the recipient to file a notice with the court in which the action is pending advising that such sum has been paid pursuant to this section and that if such sum is subsequently included in any award of costs made in such action that such sum is to be ordered refunded by the applicant to the Transcript Reimbursement Fund whenever the sum is actually recovered as costs. The court shall not consider whether payment has been made from the Transcript Reimbursement Fund in determining the appropriateness of any award of costs to the parties. The board shall also forthwith notify the applicant that such sum has been paid to the certified shorthand reporter and shall likewise notify the applicant of the duty to refund any of such sum actually recovered as costs in the action.

(e) If not entitled, the board shall forthwith return a copy of the invoice to the applicant and the designated certified shorthand reporter together with a notice stating the grounds for denial.

(f) The board shall complete its actions under this subdivision within 30 days of receipt of the invoice and all required documentation, including a completed application.

(g) Applications for reimbursements from the fund shall be filled on a first-come basis.

(h) Applications for reimbursement which cannot be paid from the fund due to insufficiency of the fund for that fiscal year shall be held over until the next fiscal year to be paid out of the renewed fund.

This section shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1996, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 14. Section 8030.8 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8030.8. (a) For purposes of this chapter, documentation accompanying an invoice shall be presumed sufficient to establish entitlement for reimbursement from the Transcript Reimbursement Fund if it is filed with the executive officer on an application form prescribed by the board which is complete in all respects, and which establishes all of the following:

(1) The case name and number and that the litigant or litigants requesting the reimbursement are indigent persons.

(2) The applicant is qualified under the provisions of this chapter.

(3) The case is not a fee-generating case as defined in Section 8030.4.

(4) The invoice or other documentation shall evidence that the certified shorthand reporter to be reimbursed was, at the time the services were rendered, a duly licensed certified shorthand reporter.

(5) The invoice shall be accompanied by a statement, signed by the applicant, stating that the charges are for transcripts actually provided as indicated on the invoice.

(6) The applicant has acknowledged, in writing, that as a condition of entitlement for reimbursement that the applicant agrees to refund the entire amount disbursed from the Transcript

Reimbursement Fund from any costs or attorneys' fees awarded to the applicant by the court or provided for in any settlement agreement in the case.

(7) The certified shorthand reporter's invoice for transcripts shall include separate itemizations of charges claimed, as follows:

(A) Total charges and rates for customary services in preparation of an original transcript and one copy or a copy of the transcript of depositions.

(B) Total charges and rates for expedited deposition transcripts.

(C) Total charges and rates in connection with transcription of court proceedings.

(b) In the case of an applicant claiming to be eligible pursuant to subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 8030.4, a letter from the director of such project or center, certifying that the project or center meets the standards set forth in one of those subdivisions and that the litigant or litigants are indigent persons, shall be sufficient documentation to establish eligibility.

(c) In the case of an applicant claiming to be eligible pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 8030.4, a letter certifying that the applicant meets the requirements of that subdivision, that the case is not a fee-generating case as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 8030.4, and that the litigant or litigants are indigent persons, together with a letter from the director of a project or center defined in subdivision (a), (b) or (c) of Section 8030.4 certifying that the litigant or litigants had been referred by that project or center to the applicant, shall be sufficient documentation to establish eligibility.

(d) The applicant may receive reimbursement directly from the board when the applicant has previously paid the certified shorthand reporter for transcripts as provided in Section 8030.6. To receive payment directly, the applicant shall submit, in addition to all other required documentation, an itemized statement signed by the certified shorthand reporter performing the services which describes payment for transcripts in accordance with the requirements of Section 8030.6.

(e) The board may prescribe appropriate forms to be used by applicants and certified reporters to facilitate these requirements.

(f) Nothing in this chapter restricts the contractual obligation or payment for services, including, but not limited to, billing the applicant directly, during the pendency of the claim.

This section shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1996, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 15. Section 8031 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Section 9 of Chapter 505 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

8031. The amount of the fees required by this chapter is that fixed by the board in accordance with the following schedule:

(a) The fee for filing an application for each examination shall be no more than forty dollars ($40).

(b) The initial certificate fee is an amount equal to the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date before the date on which the certificate is issued, except that, if the certificate will expire less than 180 days after its issuance, then the fee is 50 percent of the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date before the date on which the certificate is issued or fifty dollars ($50), whichever is greater. The board may, by appropriate regulation, provide for the waiver or refund of the initial certificate fee where the certificate is issued less than 45 days before the date on which it will expire.

(c) By a resolution adopted by the board, a renewal fee may be established in such amounts and at such times as the board may deem appropriate to meet its operational expenses and funding responsibilities as set forth in this chapter. The renewal fee shall not be more than one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) nor less than ten dollars ($10) annually, with the following exception:

Any person who is employed full time by the State of California as a hearing reporter and who does not otherwise render shorthand reporting services for a fee shall be exempt from licensure while in state employment and shall not be subject to the renewal fee provisions of this subdivision until 30 days after leaving state employment. The renewal fee shall, in addition to the amount fixed by this subdivision, include any unpaid fees required by this section plus any delinquency fee.

(d) The duplicate certificate fee shall be no greater than five dollars ($5).

(e) The penalty for failure to notify the board of a change of address shall be no greater than twenty dollars ($20).

This section shall remain in effect only until June 30, 1996, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 16. Section 8031 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Section 10 of Chapter 505 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

8031. The amount of the fees required by this chapter is that fixed by the board in accordance with the following schedule:

(a) The fee for filing an application for each examination shall be no more than forty dollars ($40).

(b) The initial certificate fee is an amount equal to the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date before the date on which the certificate is issued, except that, if the certificate will expire less than 180 days after its issuance, then the fee is 50 percent of the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date before the date on which the certificate is issued, or fifty dollars ($50), whichever is greater. The board may, by appropriate regulation, provide for the waiver or refund of the initial certificate fee where the certificate is issued less than 45 days before the date on which it will expire.

responsibilities as set forth in this chapter. The renewal fee shall not be more than one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) nor less than ten dollars ($10) annually, with the following exception:

Any person who is employed full time by the State of California as a hearing reporter and who does not otherwise render shorthand reporting services for a fee shall be exempt from licensure while in state employment and shall not be subject to the renewal fee provisions of this subdivision until 30 days after leaving state employment. The renewal fee shall, in addition to the amount fixed by this subdivision, include any unpaid fees required by this section plus any delinquency fee.

(d) The duplicate certificate fee shall be no greater than five dollars ($5).

(e) The penalty for failure to notify the board of a change of address shall be no greater than twenty dollars ($20).

This section shall become operative on June 30, 1996.

CHAPTER 1098

An act to amend Sections 1052 and 1055 of the Water Code, relating to water.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1052 of the Water Code is amended to read:

1052. (a) The diversion or use of water subject to this division other than as authorized in this division is a trespass.

(b) Civil liability may be administratively imposed by the board pursuant to Section 1055 for a trespass as defined in this section in an amount not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) for each day in which the trespass occurs.

(c) The Attorney General, upon request of the board, shall institute in the superior court in and for any county wherein the diversion or use is threatened, is occurring, or has occurred appropriate action for the issuance of injunctive relief as may be warranted by way of temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, or permanent injunction.

(d) Any person or entity committing a trespass as defined in this section may be liable for a sum not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) for each day in which the trespass occurs. The Attorney General, upon request of the board, shall petition the superior court to impose, assess, and recover any sums pursuant to this subdivision. In determining the appropriate amount, the court shall take into consideration all relevant circumstances, including, but not limited to, the extent of harm caused by the violation, the nature and persistence of the violation, the length of time over which the violation occurs, and the corrective action, if any, taken by the violator.

(e) All funds recovered pursuant to this section shall be transferred to the General Fund of the state.

(f) The remedies prescribed in this section are cumulative and not alternative.

SEC. 2. Section 1055 of the Water Code is amended to read:

1055. (a) The executive director of the board may issue a complaint to any person on whom administrative civil liability may be imposed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1052. The complaint shall allege the act or failure to act that constitutes a trespass, the provision of law authorizing civil liability to be imposed, and the proposed civil liability.

(b) The complaint shall be served by personal notice or certified mail, and shall inform the party so served that the party may request a hearing within 20 days after the party has been served. The hearing shall be before a member of the board as it may specify.

(c) After any hearing, the member shall report a proposed decision and order to the board and shall supply a copy to the party served with the complaint, the board's executive director, and any other person requesting a copy. The member of the board acting as hearing officer may sit as a member of the board in deciding the matter. The board, after making an independent review of the record and taking such additional evidence as may be necessary and could not reasonably have been offered before the hearing officer, may adopt, with or without revision, the proposed decision and order.

(d) Orders setting administrative civil liability shall become effective and final upon issuance thereof and payment shall be made.

CHAPTER 1099

An act to amend Sections 25995, 25995.1, 25995.3, 25995.4, 25995.5, 25995.8, and 25996.91 of, to add Sections 25995.60, 25995.70, 25995.71, 25995.72, 25995.73, 25995.74, 25995.75, 25995.76, 25995.77, 25995.78, and 25996.10 to, and to add Chapter 13.7 (commencing with Section 25989.500) to Division 20 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to dogs and cats.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 13.7 (commencing with Section 25989.500) is added to Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 13.7. SALE OF DOGS BY BREEDERS

25989.500. (a) This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Polanco-Lockyer Pet Breeder Warranty Act.

(b) Every breeder of dogs shall comply with this chapter. As used in this chapter, "dog breeder," or "breeder" means a person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other association that has sold, transferred, or given away 50 or more dogs during the proceeding calendar year that were bred and reared on the premises of the person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other association.

(c) For the purposes of this chapter, "purchaser" means any person who purchases a dog from a breeder.

(d) This chapter shall not apply to pet dealers regulated under Chapter 14.5 (commencing with Section 25995), or to publicly operated pounds, humane societies, or privately operated rescue organizations.

25989.505. (a) Every breeder of dogs shall deliver to each purchaser of a dog a written disclosure containing all of the following:

(1) The breeder's name and address. If the breeder is a dealer licensed by the United States Department of Agriculture, the federal dealer identification number shall also be indicated.

(2) The date of the dog's birth and the date the breeder received the dog. If the dog is not advertised or sold as purebred, registered, or registerable, the date of birth may be approximated if not known by the breeder.

(3) The breed, sex, color, and identifying marks at the time of sale, if any. If the dog is from a United States Department of Agriculture licensed source, the individual identifying tag, tattoo, or collar number for that animal. If the breed is unknown or mixed, the record shall so indicate.

(4) If the dog is being sold as being capable of registration, the names and registration numbers of the sire and dam, and the litter number, if known.

(5) A record of inoculations and worming treatments administered, if any, to the dog as of the time of sale, including dates of administration and the type of vaccine or worming treatment.

(6) A record of any veterinarian treatment or medication received by the dog while in the possession of the breeder and either of the following:

(A) A statement, signed by the breeder at the time of sale, that:

(i) The dog has no known disease or illness.

(ii) The dog has no known congenital or hereditary condition that adversely affects the health of the dog at the time of the sale or that is likely to adversely affect the health of the dog in the future.

(B) A record of any known disease, illness, or congenital or hereditary condition that adversely affects the health of the dog at the time of sale, or that is likely to affect the health of the dog in the future, along with a statement signed by a veterinarian licensed in the State of California that authorizes the sale of the dog, recommends necessary treatment, if any, and verifies that the disease, illness, or condition does not require hospitalization or nonelective surgical procedures, nor is it likely to require hospitalization or nonelective surgical procedures in the future. A veterinarian statement is not required for intestinal or external parasites unless their presence makes the dog clinically ill or is likely to make the dog clinically ill. The statement shall be valid for seven days following examination of the dog by the veterinarian.

(b) The written disclosure made pursuant to this section shall be signed by both the breeder certifying the accuracy of the statement, and by the purchaser of the dog acknowledging receipt of the statement.

(c) In addition, all medical information required to be disclosed pursuant to this section shall be made orally by the breeder to the purchaser.

(d) For purposes of this chapter, a disease, illness, or congenital or hereditary condition that adversely affects the health of the dog at the time of sale, or is likely to adversely affect the health of the dog in the future, shall be one which is apparent at the time of sale or which should have been known by the breeder from the history of veterinary treatment disclosed pursuant to this section.

(e) For the purpose of this chapter, "nonelective surgical procedure" means a surgical procedure that is necessary to preserve or restore the health of the dog, to prevent the dog from experiencing pain or discomfort, or to correct a condition that would otherwise interfere with the dog's ability to walk, run, jump, or otherwise function in a normal manner.

(f) For the purposes of this chapter, "clinically ill" means an illness which is apparent to a veterinarian based on observation, examination, or testing of the dog, or upon a review of the medical records relating to the dog.

25989.510. A breeder shall maintain a written record on the health, status, and disposition of each dog for a period of not less than one year after disposition of the dog. The record shall also include all of the information which the breeder is required to disclose pursuant to Section 25989.505.

25989.520. Except as provided for in paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 25989.505, no breeder shall knowingly sell a dog which is diseased, ill or has a condition, any one of which that requires hospitalization or nonelective surgical procedures. In lieu of the civil penalties imposed pursuant to Section 25989.570, any breeder who violates this section shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to one thousand dollars ($1,000), or shall be prohibited from selling dogs for up to 30 days, or both. If there is a second offense, the breeder shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), or a prohibition from selling dogs for up to 90 days, or both. For a third offense, the breeder shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to five thousand dollars ($5,000), or a prohibition from selling dogs for up to six months, or both. For a fourth and subsequent offense, the breeder shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or a prohibition from selling dogs for up to one year, or both. For the purpose of this section, a violation which occurred over five years prior to the most recent violation shall not be considered.

An action for recovery of the civil penalty and for a court order enjoining the breeder from engaging in the business of selling dogs at retail for the period set forth in this section, may be prosecuted by the district attorney for the county in which the violation occurred, or the city attorney for the city in which the violation occurred, in the appropriate court.

25989.525. It shall be unlawful for a breeder to fail to do any of the following:

(a) Maintain facilities in which the dogs are kept in a sanitary condition.

(b) Provide dogs with adequate nutrition and potable water.

(c) Provide adequate space appropriate to the age, size, weight, and breed of dog. For purposes of this subdivision, "adequate space" means sufficient space for the dog to stand up, sit down, and turn about freely using normal body movements, without the head touching the top of the cage, and to lie in a natural position.

(d) Provide dogs housed on wire flooring with a rest board, floormat, or similar device that can be maintained in a sanitary condition.

(e) Provide dogs with adequate socialization and exercise. For the purpose of this chapter, "socialization" means physical contact with other dogs or with human beings.

(f) Wash hands before and after handling each infectious or contagious dog.

(g) Provide veterinary care without delay when necessary.

25989.530. (a) If a licensed veterinarian states in writing that within 15 days after the purchaser has taken physical possession of a dog following the sale by a breeder, the dog has become ill due to any illness or disease which existed in the dog on or before delivery of the dog to the purchaser, or, if within one year after the purchaser has taken physical possession of the dog after the sale by a breeder, a veterinarian licensed in this state states in writing that the dog has a congenital or hereditary condition which adversely affects the health of the dog, or which requires, or is likely in the future to require, hospitalization or nonelective surgical procedures, the dog shall be considered unfit for sale, and the breeder shall provide the purchaser with any of the following remedies which the purchaser elects:

(1) Return the dog to the breeder for a refund of the purchase price, plus sales tax, and reimbursement for reasonable veterinary fees for diagnosis and treating the dog in an amount not to exceed the original purchase price of the dog, including sales tax.

(2) Exchange the dog for a dog of the purchaser's choice of equivalent value, providing a replacement dog is available, and receive reimbursement for reasonable veterinary fees for diagnosis and treating the dog in an amount not to exceed the original purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax on the original purchase price of the dog.

(3) Retain the dog, and receive reimbursement for reasonable veterinary fees for diagnosis and treating the dog in an amount not to exceed 150 percent of the original purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax.

(b) If the dog has died, regardless of the date of death of the dog, obtain a refund for the purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax, or a replacement dog of equivalent value of the purchaser's choice, and reimbursement for reasonable veterinary fees for diagnosis and treatment of the dog in an amount not to exceed the purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax, if any of the following conditions exist:

(1) A veterinarian, licensed in this state, states in writing that the dog has died due to an illness or disease which existed within 15 days after the purchaser obtained physical possession of the dog after the sale by a breeder.

(2) A veterinarian, licensed in this state, states in writing that the dog has died due to a congenital or hereditary condition which was diagnosed by the veterinarian within one year after the purchaser obtained physical possession of the dog after the sale by a breeder.

25989.535. (a) There shall be a rebuttable presumption that an illness existed at the time of sale if the animal dies within 15 days of delivery to the purchaser.

(b) For purposes of Section 25989.530, a finding by a veterinarian of intestinal or external parasites shall not be grounds for declaring a dog unfit for sale unless their presence makes the dog clinically ill or is likely to make the dog clinically ill.

(c) For purposes of Section 25989.530, the value of veterinary services shall be deemed reasonable if the services rendered are appropriate for the diagnosis and treatment of illness or congenital or hereditary condition made by the veterinarian and the value of the services is comparable to the value of similar services rendered by other licensed veterinarians in proximity to the treating veterinarian.

25989.540. To obtain the remedies provided for in Section 25989.530, the purchaser shall substantially comply with all of the following requirements:

(a) Notify the breeder as soon as possible but no later than five days of the diagnosis by a veterinarian licensed in this state of a medical or health problem, including a congenital or hereditary condition and of the name and telephone number of the veterinarian providing the diagnosis.

(b) Return the dog to the breeder, in the case of illness or congenital or hereditary condition, along with a written statement from a veterinarian licensed in this state, stating the dog to be unfit for purchase due to illness, a congenital or hereditary condition, or the presence of symptoms of a contagious or infectious disease, which existed on or before delivery of the dog to the purchaser, and which adversely affects the health of the dog. The purchaser shall return the dog along with a copy of the veterinarian's statement as soon as possible but no later than five days of receipt of the veterinarian's statement.

(c) Provide the breeder, in the event of death, with a written statement from a veterinarian licensed in this state stating that the dog died from an illness which existed on or before the delivery of the dog to the purchaser. The presentation of the statement shall be sufficient proof to claim reimbursement or replacement and the return of the deceased dog to the breeder shall not be required.

25989.545. No refund, replacement, or reimbursement of veterinary fees shall be made under Section 25989.530 if any of the following conditions exist:

(a) The illness, condition, or death resulted from maltreatment or neglect or from an injury sustained or an illness or condition contracted subsequent to the delivery of the dog to the purchaser.

(b) The purchaser fails to carry out the recommended treatment prescribed by the examining veterinarian who made the initial diagnosis. However, this subdivision shall not apply if the cost for the treatment together with the veterinarian's fee for the diagnosis would exceed the purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax.

(c) A veterinarian's statement was provided to the purchaser pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 25989.505 which disclosed the disease, illness, or condition for which the purchaser seeks to return the dog. However, this subdivision shall not apply if, within one year after the purchaser took physical possession of the dog, a veterinarian licensed in this state states in writing that the disease, illness, or condition requires, or is likely in the future to require, hospitalization or nonelective surgical procedures or that the disease, illness, or condition resulted in the death of the dog.

(d) The purchaser refuses to return to the breeder all documents previously provided to the purchaser for the purpose of registering the dog. This subdivision shall not apply if the purchaser signs a statement certifying that the documents have been inadvertently lost or destroyed.

25989.550. (a) The veterinarian's statement pursuant to Section 25989.530 shall contain all of the following information:

(1) The purchaser's name and address.

(2) The date or dates the dog was examined.

(3) The breed and age of the dog, if known.

(4) That the veterinarian examined the dog.

(5) That the dog has or had disease, illness, or a hereditary or congenital condition, as described in Section 25989.505 which renders it unfit for purchase or resulted in its death.

(6) The precise findings of the examination or necropsy, including laboratory results or copies of laboratory reports.

(b) If a refund for reasonable veterinary expenses is being requested, the veterinarian's statement shall be accompanied by an itemized bill of fees appropriate for the diagnosis and treatment of the illness or congenital or hereditary condition.

(c) Refunds and payment of reimbursable expenses provided for in Section 25989.530 shall be paid, unless contested, by the breeder to the purchaser not later than 10 business days following receipt of the veterinarian's statement required by Section 25989.530 or, where applicable, not later than 10 business days after the date on which the dog is returned to the breeder.

25989.555. (a) In the event that a breeder wishes to contest a demand for any of the remedies specified in Section 25989.530, the breeder may, except in the case of the death of the dog, require the purchaser to produce the dog for examination by a licensed veterinarian designated by the breeder. The breeder shall pay the cost of this examination.

(b) If the purchaser and the breeder are unable to reach an agreement within 10 business days following receipt by the breeder of the veterinarian's statement pursuant to Section 25989.530, or following receipt of the dog for examination by a veterinarian designated by the breeder, whichever is later, the purchaser may initiate an action in a court of competent jurisdiction to resolve the dispute or the parties may submit to binding arbitration if mutually agreed upon by the parties in writing.

(c) The prevailing party in the dispute shall have the right to collect reasonable attorney's fees if the other party acted in bad faith in seeking or denying the requested remedy.

25989.560. Every breeder that sells a dog shall provide the purchaser at the time of sale, and a prospective purchaser upon request, with a written notice of rights, setting forth the rights provided for under this section. The notice shall be contained in a separate document. The written notice of rights shall be in 10-point type. A copy of the written notice of rights shall be signed by the purchaser acknowledging that he or she has reviewed the notice. The notice shall state the following:

"A STATEMENT OF CALIFORNIA LAW GOVERNING THE SALE OF DOGS

The sale of dogs is subject to consumer protection regulation. In the event that a California licensed veterinarian states in writing that your dog is unfit for purchase because it became ill due to an illness or disease which existed within 15 days following delivery to you, or within one year in the case of congenital or hereditary condition, you may choose one of the following:

(1) Return your dog and receive a refund of the purchase price, plus sales tax, and receive reimbursement for reasonable veterinarian fees up to the cost of the dog, plus sales tax.

(2) Return your dog and receive a dog of your choice of equivalent value, providing a replacement dog is available, and receive reimbursement for reasonable veterinarian fees up to the cost of the dog, plus sales tax.

(3) Keep the dog and receive reimbursement for reasonable veterinarian fees up to 150 percent of the original purchase price of the dog plus sales tax on the original purchase price of the dog.

In the event your dog dies, you may receive a refund for the purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax, or a replacement dog of your choice, of equivalent value, and reimbursement for reasonable veterinary fees for the diagnosis and treatment of the dog, if a veterinarian, licensed in this state, states in writing that the dog has died due to an illness or disease which existed within 15 days after the purchaser obtained physical possession of the dog after the sale by a dog breeder, or states that the dog has died due to a congenital or hereditary condition which was diagnosed by the veterinarian within one year after the purchaser obtained physical possession of the dog after the sale by a dog breeder. These fees may not exceed the purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax.

In order to exercise these rights, you must notify the dog breeder as quickly as possible but no later than five days after learning from your veterinarian that a problem exists. You must tell the dog breeder about the problem and give the dog breeder the name and telephone number of the veterinarian providing the diagnosis.

If you are making a claim, you must also present to the dog breeder a written veterinary statement, in a form prescribed by law, that the animal is unfit for purchase and an itemized statement of all veterinary fees related to the claim. This information must be presented to the dog breeder no later than five days after you have received the written statement from the veterinarian.

In the event that the dog breeder wishes to contest the statement or the veterinarian's bill, the dog breeder may request that you produce the dog for examination by a licensed veterinarian of the dog breeder's choice. The dog breeder shall pay the cost of this examination.

In the event of death, the deceased dog need not be returned to the dog breeder if you submit a statement issued by a licensed veterinarian stating the cause of death.

If the parties cannot resolve the claim within 10 business days following receipt of the veterinarian statement or the examination by the dog breeder's veterinarian, whichever event occurs later, you may file an action in a court of competent jurisdiction to resolve the dispute. If a party acts in bad faith, the other party may collect reasonable attorney's fees. If the dog breeder does not contest the matter, the dog breeder must make the refund or reimbursement no later than 10 business days after receiving the veterinary certification.

This statement is a summary of key provisions of the consumer remedies available. California law also provides safeguards to protect dog breeders from abuse. If you have questions, obtain a copy of the complete relevant statutes.

This notice shall be contained in a separate document. The written notice shall be in 10-point type. The notice shall be signed by the purchaser acknowledging that he or she has reviewed the notice. The dog breeder shall permit persons to review the written notice upon request.

NOTE: This disclosure of rights is a summary of California law. The actual statutes are contained in Chapter 13.7 (commencing with Section 25989.500) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code."

25989.565. Nothing in this chapter shall in any way limit the rights or remedies which are otherwise available to a consumer under any other law. Nor shall this chapter in any way limit the breeder and the purchaser from agreeing between themselves upon additional terms and conditions that are not inconsistent with this chapter. However, any agreement or contract by a purchaser to waive any rights under this chapter shall be null and void and shall be unenforceable.

25989.570. (a) Except as otherwise specified herein, any person violating any provision of this chapter other than Section 25989.520 shall be subject to civil penalty of up to one thousand dollars ($1,000) per violation. An action may be prosecuted in the name of the people of the State of California by the district attorney for the county in which the violation occurred in the appropriate court or by the city attorney in the city in which the violation occurred.

(b) Nothing in this chapter limits or authorizes any act or omission which violates Section 597*l* of the Penal Code.

SEC. 2. Section 25995 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25995. (a) This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Lockyer-Polanco-Farr Pet Protection Act.

(b) Every pet dealer of dogs and cats shall conform to the provisions of this chapter. As used in this chapter, "pet dealer" means a person engaging in the business of selling dogs or cats, or both, at retail, and by virtue of such sales of dogs and cats is required to possess a permit pursuant to Section 6066 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. For purposes of this chapter, the separate sales of dogs or cats from a single litter shall constitute only one sale under Section 6019 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. This definition does not apply to breeders of dogs regulated pursuant to Chapter 13.7 (commencing with Section 25989.500) nor to any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other association, that breeds or rears dogs on the premises of the person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other association, that has sold, transferred, or given away fewer than 50 dogs in the preceding year.

(c) For purposes of this chapter, "purchaser" means a person who purchases a dog or cat from a pet dealer without the intent to resell the animal.

(d) This chapter shall not apply to publicly operated pounds and humane societies.

SEC. 3. Section 25995.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25995.1. Every pet dealer receiving dogs or cats from a common carrier shall transport, or have transported, dogs and cats from the carrier's premises within four hours after receipt of telephone notification by the carrier of the completion of shipment and arrival of the animal at the carrier's point of destination.

SEC. 4. Section 25995.3 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Chapter 58 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

25995.3. Every pet dealer shall deliver to the purchaser of each dog and cat at the time of sale a written statement in a standardized form prescribed by the Department of Consumer Affairs containing the following information:

(a) For cats:

(1) The breeder's and broker's name and address, if known, or if not known, the source of the cat. If the person from whom the cat was obtained is a dealer licensed by the United States Department of Agriculture, the person's name, address, and federal dealer identification number.

(2) The date of the cat's birth, unless unknown because of the source of such cat and the date the dealer received the cat.

(3) A record of the immunizations and worming treatments administered, if any, to the cat as of the time of sale, including the dates of administration and the type of vaccine or worming treatment.

(4) A record of any known disease or sickness that the cat is afflicted with at the time of sale. In addition, this information shall also be orally disclosed to the purchaser.

(b) For dogs:

(1) The breeder's name and address, if known, or if not known, the source of the dog. If the person from whom the dog was obtained is a dealer licensed by the United States Department of Agriculture, the person's name, address, and federal dealer identification number.

(2) The date of the dog's birth, and the date the dealer received the dog. If the dog is not advertised or sold as purebred, registered, or registerable, the date of birth may be approximated if not known by the seller.

(3) The breed, sex, color, and identifying marks at the time of sale, if any. If the dog is from a United States Department of Agriculture licensed source, the individual identifying tag, tattoo, or collar number for that animal. If the breed is unknown or mixed, the record shall so indicate.

(4) If the dog is being sold as being capable of registration, the names and registration numbers of the sire and dam, and the litter number, if known.

(5) A record of inoculations and worming treatments administered, if any, to the dog as of the time of sale, including dates of administration and the type of vaccine or worming treatment.

(6) A record of any veterinarian treatment or medication received by the dog while in the possession of the pet dealer and either of the following:

(A) A statement, signed by the pet dealer at the time of sale, containing all of the following:

(i) The dog has no known disease or illness.

(ii) The dog has no known congenital or hereditary condition that adversely affects the health of the dog at the time of the sale or that is likely to adversely affect the health of the dog in the future.

(B) A record of any known disease, illness, and any congenital or hereditary condition which adversely affects the health of the dog at the time of sale, or is likely to adversely affect the health of the dog in the future, along with a statement signed by a veterinarian licensed in the State of California which authorizes the sale of the dog, recommends necessary treatment, if any, and verifies that the disease, illness, or condition does not require hospitalization or nonelective surgical procedures, nor is it likely to require hospitalization or nonelective surgical procedures in the future. A veterinarian statement is not required for intestinal or external parasites unless their presence makes the dog clinically ill or is likely to make the dog clinically ill. The statement shall be valid for seven days following examination of the dog by the veterinarian.

(c) For the purpose of this chapter, "nonelective surgical procedure" means a surgical procedure that is necessary to preserve or restore the health of the dog, to prevent the dog from experiencing pain or discomfort, or to correct a condition that would interfere with the dog's ability to walk, run, jump, or otherwise function in a normal manner.

(d) For the purposes of this chapter, "clinically ill" means an illness which is apparent to a veterinarian based on observation, examination, or testing of the dog, or upon a review of the medical records relating to the dog.

(e) A disclosure made pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be signed by both the pet dealer certifying the accuracy of the statement, and the purchaser of the dog acknowledging receipt of the statement. In addition, all medical information required to be disclosed pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be made orally to the purchaser.

(f) For purposes of chapter, a disease, illness, or congenital or hereditary condition which adversely affects the health of a dog at the time of sale or is likely to adversely affect the health of the dog in the future shall be one which is apparent at the time of sale or which should have been known by the pet dealer from the history of veterinary treatment disclosed pursuant to this section.

SEC. 5. Section 25995.4 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25995.4. A pet dealer shall maintain a written record on the health, status, and disposition of each dog and each cat for a period of not less than one year after disposition of the dog or cat. The record shall also contain all of the information required to be disclosed pursuant to Sections 25995.3 and 25996.91. Those records shall be available to humane officers, animal control officers, and law enforcement officers for inspection during normal business hours.

SEC. 6. Section 25995.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25995.5. (a) Except as otherwise specified herein, any person violating any provision of this chapter other than Section 25995.8 shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to one thousand dollars ($1,000) per violation. The action may be prosecuted in the name of the people of the State of California by the district attorney for the county in which the violation occurred in the appropriate court or by the city attorney in the city in which the violation occurred.

(b) Nothing in this chapter limits or authorizes any act or omission which violates Section 597*l* of the Penal Code.

SEC. 7. Section 25995.60 is added to the Health and Safety Code, immediately following Section 25995.5, to read:

25995.60. (a) It shall be unlawful for a pet dealer to fail to do any of the following:

(1) Maintain facilities in which the dogs are kept in a sanitary condition.

(2) Provide dogs with adequate nutrition and potable water.

(3) Provide adequate space appropriate to the age, size, weight, and breed of dog. Adequate space means sufficient space for the dog to stand up, sit down, and turn about freely using normal body movements, without the head touching the top of the cage, and to lie in a natural position.

(4) Provide dogs housed on wire flooring with a rest board, floormat, or similar device that can be maintained in a sanitary condition.

(5) Provide dogs with adequate socialization and exercise. For the purpose of this chapter "socialization" means physical contact with other dogs or with human beings.

(6) Wash hands before and after handling each infectious or contagious dog.

(7) Maintain either of the following:

(A) A fire alarm system that is connected to a central reporting station which alerts the local fire department in case of fire.

(B) Maintain a fire suppression sprinkler system.

(8) Provide veterinary care without delay when necessary.

(b) A pet dealer shall not be in possession of a dog which is less than eight weeks old.

SEC. 8. Section 25995.70 is added to the Health and Safety Code, immediately following Section 25995.60, to read:

25995.70. (a) If a licensed veterinarian states in writing that within 15 days after the purchaser has taken physical possession of the dog after the sale by a pet dealer, the dog has become ill due to any illness which existed in the dog on or before delivery of the dog to the purchaser, or, if within one year after the purchaser has taken physical possession of the dog after the sale, a veterinarian licensed in this state states in writing that the dog has a congenital or hereditary condition which adversely affects the health of the dog, or which requires, or is likely in the future to require, hospitalization or nonelective surgical procedures, the dog shall be considered unfit for sale, and the pet dealer shall provide the purchaser with any of the following remedies which the purchaser elects:

(1) Return the dog to the pet dealer for a refund of the purchase price, plus sales tax, and reimbursement for reasonable veterinary fees for diagnosis and treating the dog in an amount not to exceed the original purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax.

(2) Exchange the dog for a dog of the purchaser's choice of equivalent value, providing a replacement dog is available, and reimbursement for reasonable veterinary fees for diagnosis and treating the dog in an amount not to exceed the original purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax.

(3) Retain the dog, and reimbursement for reasonable veterinary fees for diagnosis and treating the dog in an amount not to exceed 150 percent of the original purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax on the original purchase price of the dog.

(b) If the dog has died, regardless of the date of the death of the dog, obtain a refund for the purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax, or a replacement dog of equivalent value of the purchaser's choice and reimbursement for reasonable veterinary fees in diagnosis and treatment of the dog in an amount not to exceed the original purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax, if either of the following conditions exist:

(1) A veterinarian, licensed in this state, states in writing that the dog has died due to an illness or disease which existed within 15 days after the purchaser obtained physical possession of the dog after the sale by a pet dealer.

(2) A veterinarian, licensed in this state, states in writing that the dog has died due to a congenital or hereditary condition which was diagnosed by the veterinarian within one year after the purchaser obtained physical possession of the dog after the sale by a pet dealer.

SEC. 9. Section 25995.71 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25995.71. (a) There shall be a rebuttable presumption that an illness existed at the time of sale if the animal dies within 15 days of delivery to the purchaser.

(b) For purposes of Section 25995.70, a finding by a veterinarian of intestinal or external parasites shall not be grounds for declaring a dog unfit for sale unless their presence makes the dog clinically ill or is likely to make the dog clinically ill.

(c) For purposes of Section 25995.70, the value of veterinary services shall be deemed reasonable if the services rendered are appropriate for the diagnosis and treatment of illness or congenital or hereditary condition, made by the veterinarian and the value of similar services is comparable to the value of similar services rendered by other licensed veterinarians in proximity to the treating veterinarian.

SEC. 10. Section 25995.72 is added to the Health and Safety Code,

to read:

25995.72. To obtain the remedies provided for in Section 25995.70, the purchaser shall substantially comply with all of the following requirements:

(a) Notify the pet dealer as soon as possible but not more than five days after the diagnosis by a veterinarian licensed in this state of a medical or health problem, including a congenital or hereditary condition and of the name and telephone number of the veterinarian providing the diagnosis.

(b) Return the dog to the pet dealer, in the case of illness, along with a written statement from a veterinarian licensed in this state, stating the dog to be unfit for purchase due to illness, a congenital or hereditary condition, or the presence of symptoms of a contagious or infectious disease, which existed on or before delivery of the dog to the purchaser, and which adversely affects the health of the dog. The purchaser shall return the dog along with a copy of the veterinarian's statement as soon as possible but not more than five days after receipt of the veterinarian's statement.

(c) Provide the pet dealer, in the event of death, with a written statement from a veterinarian licensed in this state stating that the dog died from an illness which existed on or before the delivery of the dog to the purchaser. The presentation of the statement shall be sufficient proof to claim reimbursement or replacement and the return of the deceased dog to the pet dealer shall not be required.

SEC. 11. Section 25995.73 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25995.73. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 25995.70, no refund, replacement, or reimbursement of veterinary fees shall be made if any of the following conditions exist:

(a) The illness or death resulted from maltreatment or neglect or from an injury sustained or an illness contracted subsequent to the delivery of the dog to the purchaser.

(b) The purchaser fails to carry out the recommended treatment prescribed by the examining veterinarian who made the initial diagnosis. However, this subdivision shall not apply if the cost for the treatment together with the veterinarian's fee for the diagnosis would exceed the purchase price of the dog, including sales tax.

(c) A veterinarian's statement was provided to the purchaser pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (6) of subdivision (b) of Section 25995.3 which disclosed the disease, illness, or condition for which the purchaser seeks to return the dog. However, this paragraph shall not apply if, within one year after the purchaser took physical possession of the dog, a veterinarian licensed in this state states in writing that the disease, illness, or condition requires, or is likely in the future to require, hospitalization or nonelective surgical procedures or that the disease, illness, or condition resulted in the death of the dog.

(d) The purchaser refuses to return to the pet dealer all documents previously provided to the purchaser for the purpose of registering the dog. This subdivision shall not apply if the purchaser signs a written statement certifying that the documents have been inadvertently lost or destroyed.

SEC. 12. Section 25995.74 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25995.74. (a) The veterinarian's statement pursuant to Section 25995.70 shall contain the following information:

(1) The purchaser's name and address.

(2) The date or dates the dog was examined.

(3) The breed and age of the dog, if known.

(4) That the veterinarian examined the dog.

(5) That the dog has or had an illness described in this section which renders it unfit for purchase or resulted in its death.

(6) The precise findings of the examination or necropsy, including laboratory results or copies of laboratory reports.

(b) If a refund for reasonable veterinary expenses is being requested, the veterinary statement shall be accompanied by an itemized bill of fees appropriate for the diagnosis and treatment of the illness or congenital or hereditary condition.

(c) Refunds and payment of reimbursable expenses provided for by Section 25995.70 shall be paid, unless contested, by the pet dealer to the purchaser not later than 10 business days following receipt of the veterinarian's statement required by Section 25995.70 or, where applicable, not later than 10 business days after the date on which the dog is returned to the pet dealer.

SEC. 13. Section 25995.75 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25995.75. (a) In the event that a pet dealer wishes to contest a demand for any of the remedies specified in Section 25995.70, the dealer may, except in the case of the death of the dog, require the purchaser to produce the dog for examination by a licensed veterinarian designated by the pet dealer. The pet dealer shall pay the cost of this examination.

(b) If the purchaser and the pet dealer are unable to reach an agreement within 10 business days following receipt by the pet dealer of the veterinarian's statement pursuant to Section 25995.70, or following receipt of the dog for examination by a veterinarian designated by the pet dealer, whichever is later, the purchaser may initiate an action in a court of competent jurisdiction to resolve the dispute or the parties may submit to binding arbitration if mutually agreed upon by the parties in writing.

(c) The prevailing party in the dispute shall have the right to collect reasonable attorney's fees if the other party acted in bad faith in seeking or denying the requested remedy.

SEC. 14. Section 25995.76 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25995.76. Every pet dealer that sells a dog shall provide the purchaser at the time of sale, and a prospective purchaser upon request, with a written notice of rights, setting forth the rights provided for under this section. The notice shall be contained in a separate document. The written notice of rights shall be in 10-point type. A copy of the written notice of rights shall be signed by the purchaser acknowledging that he or she has reviewed the notice. The notice shall state the following:

"A STATEMENT OF CALIFORNIA LAW GOVERNING THE SALE OF DOGS

The sale of dogs is subject to consumer protection regulations. In the event that a California licensed veterinarian states in writing that your dog is unfit for purchase because it became ill due to an illness or disease which existed within 15 days following delivery to you, or within one year in the case of congenital or hereditary condition, you may choose one of the following:

(1) Return your dog and receive a refund of the purchase price, plus sales tax, and receive reimbursement for reasonable veterinarian fees up to the cost of the dog plus sales tax.

(2) Return your dog and receive a dog of your choice of equivalent value, providing a replacement dog is available, and receive reimbursement for reasonable veterinarian fees up to the cost of the dog, plus sales tax.

(3) Keep the dog and receive reimbursement for reasonable veterinarian fees up to 150 percent of the original purchase price of the dog plus sales tax on the original purchase price of the dog.

In the event your dog dies, you may receive a refund for the purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax, or a replacement dog of your choice, of equivalent value, and reimbursement for reasonable veterinary fees for the diagnosis and treatment of the dog, if a veterinarian, licensed in this state, states in writing that the dog has died due to an illness or disease which existed within 15 days after the purchaser obtained physical possession of the dog after the sale by a pet dealer, or states that the dog has died due to a congenital or hereditary condition which was diagnosed by the veterinarian within one year after the purchaser obtained physical possession of the dog after the sale by a pet dealer. These fees may not exceed the purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax.

In order to exercise these rights, you must notify the pet dealer as quickly as possible but no later than five days after learning from your veterinarian that a problem exists. You must tell the pet dealer about the problem and give the pet dealer the name and telephone number of the veterinarian providing the diagnosis.

If you are making a claim, you must also present to the pet dealer a written veterinary statement, in a form prescribed by law, that the animal is unfit for purchase and an itemized statement of all veterinary fees related to the claim. This information must be presented to the pet dealer no later than five days after you have received the written statement from the veterinarian.

In the event that the pet dealer wishes to contest the statement or the veterinarian's bill, the pet dealer may request that you produce the dog for examination by a licensed veterinarian of the pet dealer's choice. The pet dealer shall pay the cost of this examination.

In the event of death, the deceased dog need not be returned to the pet dealer if you submit a statement issued by a licensed veterinarian stating the cause of death.

If the parties cannot resolve the claim within 10 business days following receipt of the veterinarian statement or the examination by the pet dealer's veterinarian, whichever event occurs later, you may file an action in a court of competent jurisdiction to resolve the dispute. If a party acts in bad faith, the other party may collect reasonable attorney's fees. If the pet dealer does not contest the matter, the pet dealer must make the refund or reimbursement no later than 10 business days after receiving the veterinary certification.

If the pet dealer has represented your dog as registerable with a pedigree organization, the pet dealer shall provide you with the necessary papers to process the registration within 120 days following the date you received the dog. If the pet dealer fails to deliver the papers within the prescribed timeframe, you are entitled to return the dog for a full refund of the purchase price, including sales tax, or a refund of 75 percent of the purchase price, including sales tax if you choose to keep the dog.

This statement is a summary of key provisions of the consumer remedies available. California law also provides safeguards to protect pet dealers from abuse. If you have any questions, obtain a copy of the complete relevant statutes.

This notice shall be contained in a separate document. The written notice shall be in 10-point type. The notice shall be signed by the purchaser acknowledging that he or she has reviewed the notice. The pet dealer shall permit persons to review the written notice upon request.

NOTE: This disclosure of rights is a summary of California law. The actual statutes are contained in Chapter 14.5 (commencing with Section 25995) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code."

SEC. 15. Section 25995.77 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25995.77. Nothing in this chapter shall in any way limit the rights or remedies which are otherwise available to a consumer under any other law. Nor shall this chapter in any way limit the pet dealer and the purchaser from agreeing between themselves upon additional terms and conditions that are not inconsistent with this chapter. However, any agreement or contract by a purchaser to waive any rights under this chapter shall be null and void and shall be unenforceable.

SEC. 16. Section 25995.78 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25995.78. (a) A pet dealer shall not state, promise, or represent to the purchaser, directly or indirectly, that a dog is registered or capable of being registered with an animal pedigree registry organization, unless the pet dealer provides the purchaser with the documents necessary for that registration within 120 days following the date of sale of the dog.

(b) In the event that a pet dealer fails to provide the documents necessary for registration within 120 days following the date of sale, in violation of subdivision (a), the purchaser shall, upon written notice to the pet dealer, be entitled to retain the animal and receive a partial refund of 75 percent of the purchase price, plus sales tax, or return the dog along with all documentation previously provided the purchaser for a full refund, including sales tax.

SEC. 17. Section 25995.8 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25995.8. Except as provided for in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (6) of subdivision (b) of Section 25995.3, no pet dealer shall knowingly sell a dog which is diseased, ill, or has a condition, any one of which requires hospitalization or surgical procedures. In lieu of the civil penalties imposed pursuant to Section 25995.5, any pet dealer who violates this section shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to one thousand dollars ($1,000), or shall be prohibited from selling dogs at retail for up to 30 days, or both. If there is a second offense, the pet dealer shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), or a prohibition from selling dogs at retail for up to 90 days, or both. For a third offense, the pet dealer shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to five thousand dollars ($5,000) or a prohibition from selling dogs at retail for up to six months, or both. For a fourth and subsequent offense, the pet dealer shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or a prohibition from selling dogs at retail for up to one year, or both. For purposes of this section, a violation which occurred over five years prior to the most recent violation shall not be considered.

An action for recovery of the civil penalty and for a court order enjoining the pet dealer from engaging in the business of selling dogs at retail for the period set forth in this section, may be prosecuted by the district attorney for the county in which the violation occurred, or the city attorney for the city in which the violation occurred, in the appropriate court.

SEC. 18. Section 25996.10 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25996.10. (a) No dog may be offered for sale by a pet dealer to a purchaser until the dog has been examined by a veterinarian licensed in this state. Each dog shall be examined within five days of receipt of the dog and once every 15 days thereafter while the dog is in the possession or custody of the pet dealer. The pet dealer shall provide any sick dog with proper veterinary care without delay.

(b) Any dog diagnosed with a contagious or infectious disease, illness, or condition shall be caged separately from healthy dogs until a licensed veterinarian determines that the dog is free from contagion or infection. The area shall meet the following conditions when contagious or infectious dogs are present:

(1) The area shall not be used to house other healthy dogs or new arrivals awaiting the required veterinary examination.

(2) The area shall not be used for storing open food containers or bowls, dishes, or other utensils which come in contact with healthy dogs.

(3) The area shall have an exhaust fan which creates air movement from the isolation area to an area outside the premises of the pet dealer. The removal of exhaust air from the isolation area may be accomplished by the use of existing heating and air-conditioning ducts, provided no exhaust air is permitted to enter or mix with fresh air for use by the general animal population.

(4) Upon removal of all of the contagious or infectious dogs, the area shall be cleaned and disinfected before any healthy animal can be placed in the area.

(c) If the pet dealer's veterinarian deems the dog to be unfit for purchase due to a disease, illness, or congenital condition, any of which is fatal or which causes, or is likely to cause, the dog to unduly suffer, the veterinarian shall humanely euthanize the dog. The veterinarian shall provide the pet dealer with a written statement as to why the dog was euthanized. Otherwise, the pet dealer shall have a veterinarian treat the dog, or may surrender the dog to a humane organization which consents to the receipt thereof.

(d) In the event a dog is returned to a pet dealer due to illness, disease, or a congenital or hereditary condition requiring veterinary care, the pet dealer shall provide the dog with proper veterinary care.

SEC. 19. Section 25996.91 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25996.91. (a) Every pet dealer shall post conspicuously within close proximity to the cages of dogs offered for sale, a notice containing the following language in 100-point type:

"Information on the source of these dogs, and veterinary treatments received by these dogs is available for review."

"You are entitled to a copy of a statement of consumer rights."

(b) Every pet dealer shall, upon request for information regarding a dog, make immediately available to prospective purchasers all of the information required to be disclosed to purchasers pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25995.3 and pursuant to Section 25995.76.

SEC. 20. This act applies to sales of dogs which occur on or after January 1, 1992.

CHAPTER 1100

An act to amend Sections 830.55, 831, 831.5, 2910.5, 6031.5, 6035, and 6242 of the Penal Code, relating to correctional facilities.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 830.55 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

830.55. (a) As used in this section, a correctional officer is a peace officer, employed by a city, county, or city and county which operates a facility described in Section 2910.5 of this code or Section 1753.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or facilities operated by counties pursuant to Section 6241 or 6242 of this code under contract with the Department of Corrections or the Department of the Youth Authority, who has the authority and responsibility for maintaining custody of specified state prison inmates or wards, and who performs tasks related to the operation of a detention facility used for the detention of persons who have violated parole or are awaiting parole back into the community or, upon court order, either for their own safekeeping or for the specific purpose of serving a sentence therein.

(b) A correctional officer shall have no right to carry or possess firearms in the performance of his or her prescribed duties, except, under the direction of the superintendent of the facility, while engaged in transporting prisoners, guarding hospitalized prisoners, or suppressing riots, lynchings, escapes, or rescues in or about a detention facility established pursuant to Section 2910.5 of this code or Section 1753.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(c) Each person described in this section as a correctional officer, within 90 days following the date of the initial assignment to that position, shall satisfactorily complete the training course specified in Section 832. In addition, each person designated as a correctional officer, within one year following the date of the initial assignment as an officer, shall have satisfactorily met the minimum selection and training standards prescribed by the Board of Corrections pursuant to Section 6035. Persons designated as correctional officers, before the expiration of the 90-day and one-year periods described in this subdivision, who have not yet completed the required training, may perform the duties of a correctional officer only while under the direct supervision of a correctional officer who has completed the training required in this section, and shall not carry or possess firearms in the performance of their prescribed duties.

(d) This section shall not be construed to confer any authority upon a correctional officer except while on duty.

(e) A correctional officer may use reasonable force in establishing and maintaining custody of persons delivered to him or her by a law enforcement officer, may make arrests for misdemeanors and felonies within the local detention facility pursuant to a duly issued warrant, and may make warrantless arrests pursuant to Section 836.5 only during the duration of his or her job.

SEC. 2. Section 831 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

831. (a) A custodial officer is a public officer, not a peace officer, employed by a law enforcement agency of a city or county who has the authority and responsibility for maintaining custody of prisoners and performs tasks related to the operation of a local detention facility used for the detention of persons usually pending arraignment or upon court order either for their own safekeeping or for the specific purpose of serving a sentence therein.

(b) A custodial officer shall have no right to carry or possess firearms in the performance of his or her prescribed duties.

(c) Each person described in this section as a custodial officer shall, within 90 days following the date of the initial assignment to the position, satisfactorily complete the training course specified in Section 832. In addition, each person designated as a custodial officer shall, within one year following the date of the initial assignment as a custodial officer, have satisfactorily met the minimum selection and training standards prescribed by the Board of Corrections pursuant to Section 6035. Persons designated as custodial officers, before the expiration of the 90-day and one-year periods described in this subdivision, who have not yet completed the required training, may perform the duties of a custodial officer only while under the direct supervision of a peace officer as described in Section 830.1, who has completed the training prescribed by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training, or a custodial officer who has completed the training required in this section.

(d) At any time 20 or more custodial officers are on duty, there shall be at least one peace officer, as described in Section 830.1, on duty at the same time to supervise the performance of the custodial officers.

(e) This section shall not be construed to confer any authority upon any custodial officer except while on duty.

(f) A custodial officer may use reasonable force in establishing and maintaining custody of persons delivered to him or her by a law enforcement officer; may make arrests for misdemeanors and felonies within the local detention facility pursuant to a duly issued warrant; may release without further criminal process persons arrested for intoxication; and may release misdemeanants on citation to appear in lieu of or after booking.

SEC. 3. Section 831.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

831.5. (a) As used in this section, a custodial officer is a public officer, not a peace officer, employed by a law enforcement agency of San Diego County, Fresno County, or a county having a population of 425,000 or less who has the authority and responsibility for maintaining custody of prisoners and performs tasks related to the operation of a local detention facility used for the detention of persons usually pending arraignment or upon court order either for their own safekeeping or for the specific purpose of serving a sentence therein. A custodial officer includes a person designated as a correctional officer, jailer, or other similar title. The duties of custodial officer may include the serving of warrants, court orders, writs and subpoenas in the detention facility or under circumstances arising directly out of maintaining custody of prisoners and related tasks.

(b) A custodial officer shall have no right to carry or possess firearms in the performance of his or her prescribed duties, except, under the direction of the sheriff or chief of police, while engaged in transporting prisoners; guarding hospitalized prisoners; or suppressing jail riots, lynchings, escapes, or rescues in or about a detention facility falling under the care and custody of the sheriff or chief of police.

(c) Each person described in this section as a custodial officer shall, within 90 days following the date of the initial assignment to that position, satisfactorily complete the training course specified in Section 832. In addition, each person designated as a custodial officer shall, within one year following the date of the initial assignment as a custodial officer, have satisfactorily met the minimum selection and training standards prescribed by the Board of Corrections pursuant to Section 6035. Persons designated as custodial officers, before the expiration of the 90-day and one-year periods described in this subdivision, who have not yet completed the required training, shall not carry or possess firearms in the performance of their prescribed duties, but may perform the duties of a custodial officer only while under the direct supervision of a peace officer as described in Section 830.1, who has completed the training prescribed by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training, or a custodial officer who has completed the training required in this section.

(d) At any time 20 or more custodial officers are on duty, there shall be at least one peace officer, as described in Section 830.1, on duty at the same time to supervise the performance of the custodial officers.

(e) This section shall not be construed to confer any authority upon any custodial officer except while on duty.

(f) A custodial officer may use reasonable force in establishing and maintaining custody of persons delivered to him or her by a law enforcement officer; may make arrests for misdemeanors and felonies within the local detention facility pursuant to a duly issued warrant; may make warrantless arrests pursuant to Section 836.5 only during the duration of his or her job; may release without further criminal process persons arrested for intoxication; and may release misdemeanants on citation to appear in lieu of or after booking.

SEC. 4. Section 2910.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

2910.5. (a) Pursuant to Section 2910, the Director of Corrections may enter into a long-term agreement not to exceed 20 years with a city, county, or city and county to place parole violators and other state inmates in a facility which is specially designed and built for the incarceration of parole violators and specified state prison inmates.

(b) The agreement shall provide that persons providing security at the facilities shall be peace officers as defined in Sections 830.1 and 830.55 who have satisfactorily met the minimum selection and training standards prescribed by the Board of Corrections for local correctional personnel established under Section 6035.

(c) A parole violator or other inmate may be confined in a facility established under this section.

(1) If convicted within the last 10 years of a violent felony, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, or convicted of a crime, as defined in Sections 207, 210.5, 214, 217.1, or 220, or if that person has a history of escape or attempted escape, the Department of Corrections, prior to placing the parole violator or inmate in the facility, shall review each individual case to make certain that this placement is in keeping with the need to protect society.

(2) No inmate or parole violator who has received a sentence of life imprisonment within the past 20 years shall be eligible.

(3) The superintendent of the facility also shall review each individual case where the inmate or parolee has been convicted within the last 10 years of a crime specified in this subdivision and shall ascertain whether this is an appropriate placement. The superintendent shall reject those whom he or she determines are inappropriate due to their propensity for violence or escape and shall submit written findings for the rejection to the Department of Corrections.

(4) No parole violator who receives a revocation sentence greater than 12 months shall be confined in a facility established under this section.

(5) The Department of Corrections shall establish additional guidelines as to inmates eligible for the facilities.

(d) In determining the reimbursement rate pursuant to an agreement entered into pursuant to subdivision (a), the director shall take into consideration the costs incurred by the city, county, or city and county for services and facilities provided and any other factors that are necessary and appropriate to fix the obligations, responsibilities, and rights of the respective parties.

(e) Facilities operated by the county shall be under the supervision of the sheriff. Facilities operated by the city shall be under the supervision of a chief of police or a facility superintendent who shall have at least five years similar experience.

(f) Cities or counties contracting with the Department of Corrections for a facility pursuant to this section shall be responsible for managing and maintaining the security of the facility pursuant to the regulations and direction of the Director of Corrections. No city or county may contract with any private provider to manage, operate, or maintain the security of the facility.

SEC. 5. Section 6031.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

6031.5. For the purposes of this chapter, the term "correctional personnel" means either of the following:

(1) Any person described by subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 830.5, 830.55, 831, or 831.5.

(2) Any class of persons who perform supervision, custody, care, or treatment functions and are employed by the Department of Corrections, the Department of the Youth Authority, any correctional or detention facility, probation department, community-based correctional program, or other state or local public facility or program responsible for the custody, supervision, treatment, or rehabilitation of persons accused of, or adjudged responsible for, criminal or delinquent conduct.

SEC. 6. Section 6035 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

6035. (a) For the purpose of raising the level of competence of local corrections and probation officers and other correctional personnel, the board shall adopt, and may from time to time amend, rules establishing minimum standards for the selection and training of these personnel employed by any city, county, or city and county who provide for the custody, supervision, treatment, or rehabilitation of persons accused of, or adjudged responsible for, criminal or delinquent conduct who are currently under local jurisdiction. All of these rules shall be adopted and amended pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(b) Any city, county, or city and county receiving state aid pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 6040) shall adhere to the standards for selection and training established by the board. The board may defer the promulgation of selection standards until necessary research for job relatedness is completed. In such case, and until selection standards are adopted, a city, county, or city and county may receive state aid upon certification of willingness to adhere to the training standards pursuant to Section 6041.

(c) Minimum training standards may include, but are not limited to, basic, entry, continuation, supervisory, management, and specialized assignments.

(d) Selection and training standards shall apply to all local corrections and probation officers and other correctional personnel employed by jurisdictions receiving funds under Article 3 (commencing with Section 6040). Exemptions from this requirement for personnel hired prior to July 1, 1980, shall be determined by the board. For the purpose of the exemptions, the board may develop written or oral equivalency examinations, a certification process which recognizes standards equivalency through a combination of professional experience and training, or a combination of examination and certification.

SEC. 7. Section 6242 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

6242. (a) The county shall assume full responsibility to administer and operate the center and program consistent with the criteria set forth within this chapter and those established by the board. This shall include maintenance and compliance with all codes, regulations, and health standards.

(b) The county shall select a local governmental department to operate the facility in accordance with the standards and oversight provided for in this chapter.

The facility shall be owned by the department for the duration of the payment of the bond used to finance construction of the facility. Upon completion of bond repayment, ownership of the facility shall be vested in the county. Ownership of a county facility renovated with funds awarded pursuant to this chapter shall be by the department for the period of bond repayment, after which ownership shall revert to the county. The department shall retain the option to lease from the county no less than 50 percent of inmate beds after completion of bond repayment.

If a county willfully terminates its participation in this act prior to completion of bond repayment or if its grant is terminated by the board for noncompliance with program regulations, ownership of the facility shall remain vested in the department. The department shall retain the option to lease as provided in this subdivision.

(c) Counties or the department shall operate all services and programs in secure facilities pursuant to this chapter with only county or state merit system employees, except that private nonprofit providers or individual professionals with demonstrated expertise and community experience may also be utilized to provide substance abuse treatment programs. Treatment programs outside secure facilities pursuant to this chapter may be provided only by county or state staff, by private nonprofit providers, or by individual professionals with demonstrated expertise and experience in providing services to this population of the community.

(d) Custody in secure facilities shall be provided by peace officers, as defined in Sections 830.1 and 830.55, or custodial officers, as defined in Section 831 and 831.5, who have satisfactorily met the minimum selection and training standards prescribed by the Board of Corrections for local corrections and probation officers and other correctional personnel established under Section 6035.

(e) Parolees, parole violators, and state prisoners shall remain under overall supervision of state parole officers.

(f) The department shall contract to reimburse the county for allotted bed space and programming for state offenders based on actual cost plus a reasonable fee, but in no instance shall that amount exceed the average cost of housing an inmate in a state prison facility, as determined annually by the director.

(g) A county may bill the state for services provided to state parolees pursuant to this chapter on a pro rata basis of the cost of providing the programs and services, if requested by the department.

(h) The department and the board, as well as participating counties, shall seek funding from the federal government and from private foundation sources to help meet the costs of the programs outlined in this chapter.

(i) It shall be the responsibility of the board, the department, and the design and implementation panel to keep abreast of improvements in programs of the types established by this chapter, and to attempt to revise and update programs as state-of-the-art advances develop.

(j) Requests for proposals shall be ready for submission to eligible counties within nine months after the effective date of this chapter. Eligible counties shall submit proposals within six months after the request for proposals is submitted.

(k) An amount totaling no more than 1½ percent of the total amount of funds to be disbursed under this chapter is hereby appropriated from the 1990 Prison Construction Fund and the 1990–B Prison Construction Fund to the board to be used for administrative costs.

(l) Following formal acceptance of proposals submitted by counties, the board shall have authority to modify, expand, or revise county programs, if requested by counties, or if the board concludes that changes should be made to improve, expand, or reduce the scope or approach of programs. This shall be done after formal notice to a county of proposed changes and opportunity for a county to submit evidence. The board also shall be able to recommend additional or reduced funding for a program, if funding becomes available upon appropriation by the Legislature.

CHAPTER 1101

An act to amend Sections 61411, 61411.2, 61415.2, 62191, 62193, 62201, and 62712 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to milk and dairy products.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 61411 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

61411. Except as otherwise provided in Section 61411.2 or 61411.3, the purchase of any manufacturing milk in excess of 1,000 gallons monthly from any manufacturing milk producer without a written contract that has been executed and complies with all the requirements of this article is an unlawful practice. The contract shall include all of the following:

(a) The amount of manufacturing milk which is to be purchased for any period.

(b) The price to be paid for all manufacturing milk received.

(c) The date and method of payment for the manufacturing milk. Payment shall be made for the amount of the manufacturing milk delivered during the first 15 days of any calendar month not later than the first day of the next following month and for the amount delivered during the remainder of the month not later than the 15th day of the next following month.

(d) The charges for transportation, if hauled by the handler, which shall be the lower of either of the following:

(1) A rate not in excess of the rate charged for actual or reasonably similar services by highway carriers, as the term "highway carrier" is defined in Section 3511 of the Public Utilities Code.

(2) The actual amount paid by a handler for that transportation.

The contract may contain any other provisions that are not in conflict with this chapter. A signed copy of the contract shall be filed by the producer with the director within five days of the date of its execution.

This section does not apply to the purchase of milk which does not meet market milk standards in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 35751) of Part 2 of Division 15, when the milk has been processed on a dairy farm that held a valid market milk permit during the 30-day period preceding the purchase.

SEC. 2. Section 61411.2 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

61411.2. Section 61411 does not apply to the purchase of manufacturing milk which is necessary to meet an unanticipated increase in demand or an unanticipated shortage in the supply of a handler if the quantity purchased from any one producer does not exceed 5,000 gallons in any one month. However, if the producer is a cooperative association acting as a producer, the total quantity purchased shall not exceed 30,000 gallons per month.

For a single transaction between a producer and handler, payment shall be made for the amount of milk delivered during the first 15 days of any calendar month not later than the first day of the next following month and payment shall be made for the amount of milk delivered during the remainder of the month not later than the 15th day of the next following month, unless the milk is subject to a pooling plan as authorized in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 62700) and the pooling plan provides for different dates and methods of payment, in which case the date and method of payment for the milk shall be as provided for in the pooling plan.

SEC. 3. Section 61415.2 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

61415.2. (a) If a handler does not pay for manufacturing milk delivered to him or her at the time and in the manner specified in the contract, the handler shall pay the producer interest on the unpaid amount from the time the payment was due until paid at the rate of 12 percent per annum. The interest is in addition to any other penalties provided in this chapter.

(b) If there is no contract for the delivery of milk to the handler or the delivery was made as a single transaction between the producer or handler, the handler shall pay the department interest on the unpaid amount from the time the payment was due until paid at the interest rate specified in subdivision (a). The interest is in addition to any other penalties provided in this chapter.

SEC. 4. Section 62191 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

62191. (a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 62193 or 62194, the purchase of any market milk in excess of 1,000 gallons monthly from any producer is an unlawful trade practice unless a written contract, which complies with all of the requirements which are prescribed by this section, has been entered into with the producer.

(b) The contract shall include all of the following:

(1) The amount of market milk which is to be purchased for any period.

(2) The minimum quantity of the market milk which is to be paid for as class 1, if any is to be purchased for this purpose. The quantity shall be stated in pounds of market milk, pounds of market milk fat, or gallons of market milk, unless the price which is to be paid for the class 1 market milk is established separately for the market milk fat and market skim milk, in which case the quantity may, in the alternative, be stated in both pounds of market milk fat and pounds of market skim milk separately. The minimum quantity of market milk to be paid for as class 1 shall not be less than 70 percent of the total quantity provided in the contract to be purchased at a milk products plant, and not less than 60 percent of the total quantity of market milk fat, or the total quantity of market skim milk components, but not necessarily both, provided in the contract to be purchased at a country plant, as defined by the director in stabilization and marketing plans.

(3) The price to be paid for all market milk received.

(4) The date and method of payment for the market milk. Payment shall be made for the amount of the market milk delivered during the first 15 days of any calendar month not later than the first day of the next following month and for the amount delivered during the remainder of the month not later than the 15th day of the next following month unless the milk is subject to a pooling plan as authorized in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 62700) and the pooling plan provides for different dates and methods of payment, in which case the date and method of payment for the milk shall be as provided for in the pooling plan.

(5) The charges for transportation if hauled by the handler.

(6) A provision that market milk received within the total quantity provided by the contract to be purchased for any period shall not be paid for at less than the minimum price for market milk used for class 2.

(c) The contract may contain other provisions that are not in conflict with this chapter. A signed copy of the contract shall be filed by the producer with the director within five days from the date of its execution.

(d) Paragraphs (2) and (6) of subdivision (b) shall not be applicable if an equalization pool, as provided pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 62700), is in effect for the area in which the purchase of the market milk occurs.

SEC. 5. Section 62193 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

62193. Section 62191 does not apply to the purchase of market milk which is necessary to meet an unanticipated increase in demand or an unanticipated shortage in the supply of a handler if both of the following occur:

(a) The quantity of market milk purchased from any one producer does not exceed 5,000 gallons in any one month. However, if the producer is a cooperative association acting as a producer, the total quantity purchased shall not exceed 30,000 gallons per month.

(b) A complete record of all of these purchases is kept by the handler, and the price paid for the milk by the handler is not less than the price which is established in the applicable stabilization and marketing plan for the usage to which the milk is applied. For a single transaction between a producer and handler, payment shall be made for the amount of milk delivered during the first 15 days of any calendar month not later than the first day of the next following month and payment shall be made for the amount of milk delivered during the remainder of the month not later than the 15th day of the next following month, unless the milk is subject to a pooling plan as authorized in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 62700) and the pooling plan provides for different dates and methods of payment, in which case the date and method of payment for the milk shall be as provided for in the pooling plan.

SEC. 6. Section 62201 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

62201. (a) If a handler does not pay for market milk delivered to him or her at the time and in the manner specified in the contract, the handler shall pay the producer interest on the unpaid amount from the time the payment was due until paid at the rate of 12 percent per annum. This interest is in addition to any other penalties provided in this chapter.

(b) If there is no contract for the delivery of milk to the handler or the delivery was made as a single transaction between the producer or handler, the handler shall pay the department interest on the unpaid amount from the time the payment was due until paid at the interest rate specified in subdivision (a). The interest is in addition to any other penalties provided in this chapter.

SEC. 7. Section 62712 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

62712. (a) The director may require handlers, including cooperative associations acting as handlers, to make reports at any intervals and in any detail that he or she finds necessary for the operation of the pool. In conjunction with the pools authorized by this chapter, the director may require handlers to make payments into a settlement fund for fluid milk received and the director may provide for the disbursement of moneys from the settlement fund in the course of administering the pools. The director may employ a pool manager to operate each pool and may permit the pool manager to employ such other necessary personnel and incur such expenses incidental to the operation of the pool as the director finds are necessary.

The director may impose and collect a civil penalty of one hundred dollars ($100) from any handler or cooperative association acting as a handler that does not file a report on the date specified by the director pursuant to this subdivision. Any funds collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund and, upon appropriation by the Legislature, the funds may be expended for the purposes of this chapter.

Handlers who have a financial obligation to the pool resulting from the operation of the pooling plan shall pay the obligations to the pool manager each month as requested. All of these moneys shall be deposited in a bank or banks approved by the director, and shall be paid out by the pool manager to handlers who have pool credits resulting from the operation of the pooling plan. All financial operations of each pool shall be audited by the department at least once annually. The director may require handlers to make such deductions from amounts due to producers as he or she finds are necessary to establish a reserve fund to insure prompt payment to producers.

(b) The pool manager shall effectuate the purposes of Section 62711 by designating the percentage of each price class (i.e., classes 1, 2, 3, 4a, and 4b) to be paid within each pool settlement classification (i.e., quota pool, production pool, and overproduction pool), and in so doing he or she shall allocate the highest usage available, first to the quota pool, next to the production pool, and last to the overproduction pool.

(c) All pool quotas initially determined pursuant to Section 62707 shall be recognized and shall not in any way be diminished.

SEC. 8. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1102

An act to add Section 33308.1 to the Education Code and to add Section 11165.14 to the Penal Code, relating to schools.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(a) That child abuse comes in many forms and occurs under many conditions.

(b) That the Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act, established pursuant to Chapter 1444 of the Statutes of 1987, requires any child care custodian, health practitioner, or employee of a child protective agency who knows or reasonably suspects a child has been the victim of child abuse to report that abuse to a child protective agency. A child protective agency for purposes of the act is a police or sheriff's department, a county probation department, or a county welfare department.

(c) That the Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act, established pursuant to Chapter 1444 of the Statutes of 1987, authorizes any other person who knows or observes a child whom he or she knows or reasonably suspects has been a victim of child abuse to report the known or suspected instance of child abuse to a child protective agency.

(d) That the Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act requires that child protective agencies investigate the reports received within their respective jurisdictions, which may include criminal and noncriminal complaints that are reported by school districts, county offices of education, and other private and public entities and individuals, and to report their findings to certain entities when those findings warrant a report.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature that parents and guardians of school pupils be informed on how to recognize and how to report child abuse.

SEC. 3. It is further the intent of the Legislature that local child protective agencies, as defined by the Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act, upon receipt of a complaint by a parent or guardian of a pupil against a school employee, comply with the requirements of the Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act to investigate and, when appropriate, to send a report on a complaint that is substantiated, as defined in Section 11165.1 of the Penal Code, to the governing board of the school district or county office of education for its review.

SEC. 4. Section 33308.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

33308.1. The State Department of Education shall adopt guidelines to be disseminated to parents or guardians of pupils that describe the procedures that a parent or guardian can follow in filing a complaint of child abuse, as defined in Section 11165.6 of the Penal Code, with the school or a child protective services agency against a school employee or other person that commits an act of child abuse, as defined in Section 11165.6 of the Penal Code, against a pupil at a schoolsite.

SEC. 5. Section 11165.14 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

11165.14. The local child protective agency shall investigate a child abuse complaint filed by a parent or guardian of a pupil with a school or a local child protective agency against a school employee or other person that commits an act of child abuse, as defined in this article, against a pupil at a schoolsite and shall transmit a substantiated report, as defined in Section 11165.12, of that investigation to the governing board of the appropriate school district or county office of education. A substantiated report received by a governing board of a school district or county office of education shall be subject to the provisions of Section 44031 of the Education Code.

SEC. 6. The governing board of a school district or county office of education shall upon request disseminate the guidelines adopted by the State Department of Education pursuant to Section 33308.1 of the Education Code to parents or guardians in the primary language of the parent or guardian. The governing board of a school district or county office of education is encouraged to inform a parent or guardian that desires to file a complaint against a school employee or other person that commits an act of child abuse as defined in Section 11165.6 of the Penal Code against a pupil at a schoolsite of the procedures for filing that complaint with local child protective agencies pursuant to the Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act, established pursuant to Chapter 1444 of the Statutes of 1987. In the case of oral communications with the parent or guardian whose primary language is other than English, concerning that guideline or the procedures for filing child abuse complaints, the governing board shall provide an interpreter for that parent or guardian.

SEC. 7. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1103

An act to amend Section 1214.3 of the Penal Code, and to amend Sections 20002 and 20003 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1214.3 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1214.3. (a) Any county, by resolution of its board of supervisors, may establish a "Misdemeanor and Traffic Violation Pilot Project" within any judicial district within the county pursuant to this section.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, whenever a person is issued a citation for any violation of this code or of the Vehicle Code not declared to be a felony, or for any violation of an ordinance of a city, county, or a city and county relating to a traffic offense, and fails to appear, the person shall be advised in writing by the court of the nature of the violation and of the procedures relative to additional civil assessments described in this section.

(c) The defendant shall do one of the following within 30 days of receipt of the mailed notice:

(1) Pay the fine or post bail.

(2) Return the completed financial statement to the court.

(3) Return the promise to appear for trial.

(d) The notice shall include a return envelope from the court and a statement that failure to proceed pursuant to subdivision (c) will result in the issuance of a judgment in the amount of five hundred dollars ($500), in addition to liability for the amount of the fine.

(e) Where appropriate, all written advisements or notices given or sent pursuant to this section shall be in both English and Spanish.

(f) If the defendant does not respond within 30 days of receipt of the notice, the court shall send the defendant a notice of intent to issue judgment which shall advise the defendant that if he or she does not appear within 10 days, the five hundred dollars ($500) will become collectible as civil damages.

(g) If the defendant does not respond within 10 days of the issuance of the intent to issue judgment, the court shall issue a writ of execution and the five hundred dollars ($500) shall be collectible as civil damages.

(h) If a writ of execution is issued for collection of a civil assessment, the same writ also shall include an attachment for the amount of the fine or forfeiture for the underlying offense.

(i) The costs of levying, storing, or safekeeping all personal and real property seized by a levying officer in effectuating any process issued pursuant to this section shall be the responsibility of the owner of the property.

(j) After the writ of execution has been issued, the defendant may appear and, upon a showing of good cause, the civil fine shall be set aside, but subject to an administrative fee equal to 14 percent of the fine or forfeiture imposed, not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500). Thereafter, the defendant may address the underlying offense de novo. The clerk of the court shall transfer the amounts collected under this subdivision to the county treasurer for deposit in the county treasury. All moneys so deposited shall be transferred as follows: 50 percent of the money to the agency levying or collecting the judgment to be used exclusively for that agency, and 50 percent of that money to a fund in the county treasury and used exclusively to develop, maintain, and operate an automated county warrant system. The assessment imposed shall be subject to the due process requirements governing defense and collection of civil money judgments generally.

(k) Except in cases in which it is determined that the defendant has insufficient attachable assets, in which case the court may issue a bench warrant, no bench warrant or warrant of arrest shall be issued with respect to the failure to appear at the proceeding for which the judgment is imposed.

(l) For counties opting to participate in the pilot project, notwithstanding Section 1463, out of the moneys deposited with the county treasurer pursuant to Section 1463, there shall be transferred once a month an amount equal to the specified percentage of civil assessments collected during the preceding month upon a judgment made pursuant to Section 1214.1, in accordance with the following schedule:

(1) Twenty percent to be transferred to the law enforcement agency that issued the underlying citation, for use of that agency.

(2) Twenty-five percent to be transferred to the agency levying or collecting the judgment, for use of that agency.

(3) Five percent to be transferred to a county fund and used exclusively to develop, maintain, and operate an automated warrant system.

(4) Twenty-five percent to be deposited in the general fund of the county.

(5) Twenty-five percent to be transferred to the judicial district issuing the writ of execution.

(m) If the judgment is for a fine, with or without imprisonment, the judgment may be enforced in the manner provided for the enforcement of money judgments generally.

(n) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 20002 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

20002. (a) The driver of any vehicle involved in an accident resulting in damage to any property, including vehicles, shall immediately stop the vehicle at the scene of the accident and shall then and there do one of the following:

(1) Locate and notify the owner or person in charge of that property of the name and address of the driver and owner of the vehicle involved and, upon locating the driver of any other vehicle involved or the owner or person in charge of any damaged property, upon being requested, present his or her driver's license, vehicle registration, and evidence of financial responsibility as specified in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) to the other driver, property owner, or person in charge of that property. The information presented shall include the current residence address of the driver and of the registered owner. If the registered owner of an involved vehicle is present at the scene, he shall also, upon request, present his driver's license information, if available, or other valid identification to the other involved parties.

(2) If a traffic or police officer is present at the scene of an accident and a police report is made, each driver involved in the accident shall, unless rendered incapable, exchange with any other driver or property owner involved in the accident and present at the scene, all of the following information:

(A) Driver's name and current residence address, driver's license number, vehicle identification number, and name and current residence address of registered owner.

(B) Evidence of financial responsibility, as specified in Section 16021. If the financial responsibility of a person is a form of insurance, then that person shall, unless rendered incapable, supply the name and address of the insurance company.

(3) Leave in a conspicuous place on the vehicle or other property damaged a written notice giving the name and address of the driver and of the owner of the vehicle involved and a statement of the circumstances thereof and shall without unnecessary delay notify the police department of the city wherein the collision occurred or, if the collision occurred in unincorporated territory, the local headquarters of the Department of the California Highway Patrol.

(b) Any person who parks a vehicle which, prior to the vehicle again being driven, becomes a runaway vehicle and is involved in an accident resulting in damage to any property, attended or unattended, shall comply with the requirements of this section relating to notification and reporting and shall, upon conviction thereof, be liable to the penalties of this section for failure to comply with the requirements.

(c) (1) Any person failing to comply with all the requirements of paragraph (1) or (3) of subdivision (a), or subdivision (b) is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not to exceed six months or by a fine of not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both.

(2) Any person who willfully fails to comply with the requirements of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall be guilty of an infraction punishable by a fine not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

SEC. 3. Section 20003 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

20003. (a) The driver of any vehicle involved in an accident resulting in injury to or death of any person shall also give his or her name, current residence address, the registration number of the vehicle he or she is driving, and the name and current residence address of the owner to the person struck or the driver or occupants of any vehicle collided with and shall give the information to any traffic or police officer at the scene of the accident and shall render to any person injured in the accident reasonable assistance, including the transportation or the making arrangements for the transportation of that person to a physician, surgeon, or hospital for medical or surgical treatment if it is apparent that treatment is necessary or if that transportation is requested by the injured person.

(b) Any driver subject to the provisions of subdivision (a) shall also, upon being requested, exhibit his or her driver's license, if available, to the person struck or to the driver or occupants of any vehicle collided with and to any traffic or police officer at the scene of the accident.

SEC. 4. The accident reporting requirements of subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 20002 of the Vehicle Code shall be printed in any driver's manual issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles on and after July 1, 1992.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1104

An act relating to the 1992 World Exposition, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) is hereby appropriated from the California Unitary Fund to the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency. A portion of the funds shall be used to secure exhibit space at the 1992 World Exposition in Seville, Spain, through a deposit to the United States Information Agency that would be refundable if the state chooses not to participate at the world exposition and to provide for the continued design of the California exhibit and its elements. The pavilion shall be used to showcase and promote California-based products and services, and promote California culture, lifestyle, and tourism to the European community in general and the country of Spain in particular.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of Business, Transportation and Housing is hereby encouraged to seek, and may spend, private sector donations made by any corporation or private entity, and may expend the appropriation, in advance of services rendered, made pursuant to Section 1 for the purposes specified therein, and may expend any additional state funds appropriated for this purpose, to "California 92," a California not-for-profit corporation founded for the purpose of the planning, design, fabrication, operation, and coordination of activities for the California pavilion, and for the raising of private funds to offset and enhance the public funds used for the state's participation in the 1992 World Exposition in Seville, Spain.

SEC. 3. Given the specialized nature of the world exposition and the expertise required to design, construct, transport, and install pavilion elements, and to operate the pavilion in a foreign country under the provisions of the treaty governing international expositions, any contracts entered into with foreign vendors who do not maintain a business office in the United States pursuant to this act and any moneys appropriated for the purchase of goods and services outside the United States for the 1992 World Exposition are hereby exempt from the requirements of Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 10115) of Chapter 1 of, and Articles 1 (commencing with Section 10290) to 5 (commencing with Section 10355), inclusive, of Chapter 2 of, Part 2 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code.

SEC. 4. If for any reason the Secretary of Business, Transportation and Housing decides that the state shall not participate in the 1992 World Exposition in Seville, Spain, funds appropriated pursuant to this act shall revert to the California Unitary Fund.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into effect immediately. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to secure the necessary exhibit space and organize the necessary operations of the state's pavilion at the 1992 World Exposition, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1105

An act to amend Sections 1021, 1025.5, 1033, 1035.5, 1066.2, 1066.4, 1066.8, 1066.10, 1066.11, and 1066.17 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1021 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1021. (a) Upon the making of an order to liquidate the business of such person, the commissioner shall cause to be published notice to its policyholders, creditors, shareholders, and all other persons interested in its assets. Such notice shall require claimants to file their claims with the commissioner, together with proper proofs thereof, within six months after the date of first publication of such notice, in the manner specified in this article.

(b) The six-month period specified in subdivision (a) shall not apply to the California Insurance Guarantee Association, or the Robbins-Seastrand Health Insurance Guaranty Association, provided it files with the commissioner a notice of possible claim within such six-month period and files actual claim or claims within such periods of time as may be permitted by order of court.

SEC. 2. Section 1025.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1025.5. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 1021 to 1025, inclusive, the commissioner may, in lieu of requiring claimants to file separate claims:

(a) File a claim himself on behalf of all claimants for return premiums.

(b) Permit any assignee of the right of the insured to a return premium by virtue of a valid assignment, as security or otherwise, made prior to an order under Section 1011 or a seizure under Section 1013, whichever is earlier in time in the particular case, to file one claim as assignee on behalf of all insureds having assigned rights to the assignee, which shall set forth such information as may be required under Section 1023.

(c) Permit the California Insurance Guarantee Association under subdivision (b) of Section 1063.4, or the Robbins-Seastrand Health Insurance Guaranty Association under paragraph (1) of subdivision (l) of Section 1066.7, to file one claim, for its association, combining all assigned claims and setting forth the information that the commissioner may require under Section 1023.

SEC. 3. Section 1033 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1033. (a) Claims allowed in a proceeding under this article shall be given preference in the following order:

(1) Expense of administration.

(2) Unpaid charges due under the provisions of Section 736.

(3) Taxes due to the State of California.

(4) Claims having preference by the laws of the United States and by laws of this state.

(5) All claims of the California Insurance Guarantee Association, or the Robbins-Seastrand Health Insurance Guaranty Association, and associations or entities performing a similar function in other states, together with claims for refund of unearned premiums and all claims of policyholders of an insolvent insurer that are not covered claims.

Claims excluded by paragraphs (3) (except claims for refund of unearned premiums), (4), (5), (7), and (8) of subdivision (c) of Section 1063.1 and subdivisions (h) and (i) of Section 1063.2, paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 1066.2, shall be excluded from this priority.

(6) All other claims.

(b) Upon the issuance of an order appointing a conservator or liquidator for any person under the provisions of either Section 1011 or 1016 or both such sections, the lien of taxes due to the State of California imposed by Article 4 (commencing with Section 12491) of Chapter 4 of Part 7 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code shall become subordinate to the reasonable administrative expenses of the proceeding under the order.

SEC. 4. Section 1035.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1035.5. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 14 (commencing with Section 1010), with regard only to those insurers subject to this article:

(a) Within 120 days of the issuance of an order directing the winding up and liquidation of the business of an insolvent insurer under Section 1016, the commissioner shall make application to the court for approval of a proposal to disburse the insurer's assets, from time to time as such assets become available, to the California Insurance Guarantee Association, or the Robbins-Seastrand Health Insurance Guaranty Association, and to any entity or person performing a similar function in another state.

(b) The proposal shall at least include the following provisions for:

(1) Reserving amounts for the payment of expenses of administration and the payment of claims of secured creditors (to the extent of the value of the security held) and claims falling within the priorities established in paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, of subdivision (a) of Section 1033.

(2) Disbursement of the assets marshaled to date and subsequent disbursements of assets as they become available.

(3) Equitable allocation of disbursements to each of the associations entitled thereto.

(4) The securing by the commissioner from each of the associations entitled to disbursements pursuant to this section of an agreement to return to the commissioner such assets previously disbursed as may be required to pay claims of secured creditors and claims falling within the priorities established in paragraphs (1) to (5), inclusive, of subdivision (a) of Section 1033 in accordance with the priorities. No bond shall be required of any association.

(5) A full report to be made by the association to the commissioner accounting for all assets so disbursed to the association, all disbursements made therefrom, any interest earned by the association on the assets, and any other matter as the court may direct.

(c) The commissioner's proposal shall provide for disbursements to the associations in amounts estimated at least equal to the claim payments made or to be made by the associations for which such associations could assert a claim against the commissioner, and shall further provide that if the assets available for disbursement from time to time do not equal or exceed the amount of the claim payments made or to be made by the associations, then disbursements shall be in the amount of available assets. The reserves of the insolvent insurer on the date of the order of liquidation shall be used for purposes of determining the pro rata allocation of funds among eligible associations.

(d) The commissioner shall offset the amount disbursed to any entity or person performing a function in any other state similar to that function performed by the California Insurance Guarantee Association, or the Robbins-Seastrand Health Insurance Guaranty Association, by the amount of any statutory deposit, premiums, or any other asset of the insolvent insurer held in that state.

(e) Notice of such application shall be given to the associations in and to the commissioners of insurance of each of the states. Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given when deposited in the United States certified mails, first-class postage prepaid, at least 30 days prior to submission of such application to the court. Action on the application may be taken by the court provided the above required notice has been given and provided further that the commissioner's proposal complies with paragraphs (1) and (4) of subdivision (b).

SEC. 5. Section 1066.2 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1066.2. (a) This article shall provide coverage for the policies specified in subdivision (b):

(1) To persons who, regardless of where they reside (except for nonresident certificate holders under group policies or contracts), are the beneficiaries, assignees or payees of the persons covered under paragraph (2).

(2) To persons who are owners of or certificate holders under those policies or contracts, and who either:

(A) Are residents.

(B) Are not residents, but only under all of the following conditions:

(i) The insurers which issued the policies are domiciled in this state.

(ii) The insurers have never held a license or certificate of authority in the states in which those persons reside.

(iii) Those states have associations similar to the association created by this article.

(iv) Those persons are not eligible for coverage by those associations.

(b) (1) This article shall provide coverage to the persons specified in subdivision (a) for direct, nongroup health policies or contracts, and for certificates under direct group policies and contracts.

(2) This article shall not provide coverage for the following:

(A) Any portion of a policy or contract not guaranteed by the insurer, or under which the risk is borne by the policy or contract holder.

(B) Any policy or contract of reinsurance, unless assumption certificates have been issued.

(C) Any plan or program of any employer, association, or similar entity to provide health benefits to its employees or members to the extent that the plan or program is self-funded or insured, including, but not limited to, benefits payable to any employer, association, or similar entity under the following:

(i) A Multiple Employer Welfare Arrangement as defined in Section 514 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended.

(ii) A minimum premium group insurance plan.

(iii) A stop-loss group insurance plan.

(iv) An administrative-services-only contract.

(D) Any portion of a policy or contract to the extent that it provides dividends or experience rating credits, or provides that any fees or allowances be paid to any person, including the policy or contract holder, in connection with the service to or administration of that policy or contract.

(E) Any policy or contract issued in this state by a member insurer at a time when it was not licensed or did not have a certificate of authority to issue that policy or contract in this state.

(c) The benefits for which the association may become liable shall in no event exceed the lesser of (1) the contractual obligations for which the insurer is liable or for which the insurer would have been liable if it were not an impaired or insolvent insurer, or (2) $200,000 in health insurance benefits, an amount that shall annually increase or decrease based upon the health care cost component of the consumer price index.

SEC. 6. Section 1066.4 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1066.4. As used in this article:

(a) "Account" means the account created under Section 1066.5.

(b) "Association" means the Robbins-Seastrand California Health Insurance Guaranty Association created under Section 1066.5.

(c) "Commissioner" means the Insurance Commissioner.

(d) "Contractual obligation" means any obligation under a policy or contract or certificate under a group policy or contract, or portion thereof, for which coverage is provided under Section 1066.2.

(e) "Covered policy" means any policy or contract under Section 1066.2.

(f) "Impaired insurer" means a member insurer which, after January 1, 1991, is not an insolvent insurer, and (1) is deemed by the commissioner to be potentially unable to fulfill its contractual obligations or (2) is placed under an order of rehabilitation or conservation by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(g) "Insolvent insurer" means a member insurer which, after January 1, 1991, is placed under an order of liquidation by a court of competent jurisdiction with a finding of insolvency.

(h) "Member insurer" means any insurer licensed or which holds a certificate of authority to transact in this state any kind of insurance for which coverage is provided under Section 1066.2 and includes any insurer whose license or certificate of authority may have been suspended, revoked, not renewed, or voluntarily withdrawn, but does not include the following:

(1) A mandatory state pooling plan.

(2) A mutual assessment company or any entity that operates on an assessment basis.

(3) An insurance exchange.

(4) A nonprofit hospital service plan.

(5) A health care service plan.

(6) A fraternal benefit society.

(i) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or voluntary organization.

(j) "Premiums" means amounts received on covered policies or contracts less premiums, considerations, and deposits returned thereon, and less dividends and experience credits thereon. "Premiums" does not include any amounts received for any policies or contracts or for the portions of any policies or contracts for which coverage is not provided under subdivision (b) of Section 1066.2.

(k) "Resident" means any person who resides in this state at the time a member insurer is determined to be an impaired or insolvent insurer and to whom a contractual obligation is owed. A person may be a resident of only one state, which in the case of a person other than a natural person shall be its principal place of business.

(l) "Supplemental contract" means any agreement entered into for the distribution of policy or contract proceeds.

SEC. 7. Section 1066.8 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1066.8. (a) For the purpose of providing the funds necessary to carry out the powers and duties of the association, the board of directors shall assess the member insurers at the time and for the amounts that the board finds necessary. Assessments shall be due not more than 30 days after prior written notice to the member insurers and shall accrue interest at the rate set forth in 28 U.S.C. Sec. 1961 on and after the due date.

(b) There shall be two assessments, as follows:

(1) Class A assessments shall be made for the purpose of meeting administrative and legal costs and other expenses and examinations conducted under the authority of subdivision (e) of Section 1066.11. Class A assessments may be made whether or not related to a particular impaired or insolvent insurer.

(2) Class B assessments shall be made to the extent necessary to carry out the powers and duties of the association under Section 1066.7 with regard to an impaired or an insolvent insurer.

(c) (1) The amount of any Class A assessment shall be determined by the board and may be made on a pro rata or nonpro rata basis. If pro rata, the board may provide that it be credited against future Class B assessments. A nonpro rata assessment shall not exceed one hundred fifty dollars ($150) per member insurer in any one calendar year. The amount of any Class B assessment shall be allocated for assessment purposes among the accounts pursuant to an allocation formula which may be based on the premiums or reserves of the impaired or insolvent insurer or any other standard deemed by the board in its sole discretion as being fair and reasonable under the circumstances.

(2) Class B assessments against member insurers shall be in the proportion that the premiums received on business in this state by each assessed member insurer or policies or contracts covered by each account for the three most recent calendar years for which information is available preceding the year in which the insurer became impaired or insolvent, as the case may be, bears to the premiums received on business in this state for those calendar years by all assessed member insurers.

(3) Assessments for funds to meet the requirements of the association with respect to an impaired or insolvent insurer shall not be made until necessary to implement the purposes of this article. Classification of assessments under subdivision (b) and computation of assessments under this paragraph shall be made with a reasonable degree of accuracy, recognizing that exact determinations may not always be possible.

(d) The association may abate or defer, in whole or in part, the assessment of a member insurer if, in the opinion of the board, payment of the assessment would endanger the ability of the member insurer to fulfill its contractual obligations. In the event an assessment against a member insurer is abated, or deferred in whole or in part, the amount by which the assessment is abated or deferred may be assessed against the other member insurers in a manner consistent with the basis for assessments set forth in this section.

(e) (1) The total of all Class B assessments upon a member insurer shall not in any one calendar year exceed 1 percent of the insurer's average premiums received in this state on the policies and contracts covered by the account during the three calendar years preceding the year in which an insurer became an impaired or insolvent insurer. If the maximum assessment, together with the other assets of the association in any account, does not provide in any one year in the account an amount sufficient to carry out the responsibilities of the association, the necessary additional funds shall be assessed as soon thereafter as permitted by this article.

(2) The board may provide in the plan of operation a method of allocating funds among claims, whether relating to one or more impaired or insolvent insurers, when the maximum assessment will be insufficient to cover anticipated claims.

(f) The board may, by any equitable method as established in the plan of operation, refund to member insurers, in proportion to the contribution of each insurer to the account, the amount by which the assets of the account exceed the amount the board finds is necessary to carry out during the coming year the obligations of the association with regard to that account, including assets accruing from assignment, subrogation, net realized gains and income from investments. A reasonable amount may be retained in the account to provide funds for the continuing expenses of the association and for future losses.

(g) The association shall issue to each insurer paying an assessment under this article, other than Class A assessment, a certification of contribution, in a form prescribed by the commissioner, for the amount of the assessment so paid. All outstanding certificates shall be of equal dignity and priority without reference to amounts or dates of issue. A certificate of contribution may be shown by the insurer in its financial statement as an asset in the form and for the amount, if any, and period of time that the commissioner may approve.

(h) (1) The plan of operation adopted pursuant to Section 1066.9 shall contain provisions whereby each member insurer is required to recoup over a reasonable length of time a sum reasonably calculated to recoup the assessments paid by the member insurer under this article by way of a surcharge on premiums charged for insurance policies to which this article applies. Amounts recouped shall not be considered premiums for any other purpose, including the computation of gross premium tax or agent's commission.

(2) Member insurers who collect surcharges in excess of premiums paid pursuant to this section for a insolvent insurer shall remit the excess to the association as an additional premium within 120 days after the end of the collection period as determined by the association. The excess shall be applied to reduce future premium charges for that insurer in the appropriate category.

(3) The plan of operation may permit a member insurer to omit the collection of the surcharge from its insureds when the expense of collecting the surcharge would exceed the amount of the surcharge. However, nothing in this paragraph shall relieve the member insurer of its obligation to recoup the amount of the surcharge otherwise collectible.

(i) Any statement of the amount of surcharge required to be provided by the association shall include a description of, and purpose for, the Robbins-Seastrand California Health Insurance

Guaranty Association, as follows:

"Companies writing health insurance business in California are required to participate in the Robbins-Seastrand California Insurance Health Guaranty Association. If a company becomes insolvent, the Robbins-Seastrand California Health Insurance Guaranty Association settles unpaid claims and assesses each insurance company for its fair share."

"California law requires all companies to surcharge policies to recover these assessments. If your policy is surcharged, "CA Surcharge" with an amount will be displayed on your premium notice."

SEC. 8. Section 1066.10 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1066.10. (a) In addition to the duties and powers enumerated elsewhere in this article, the commissioner shall do all of the following:

(1) Upon request of the board of directors, provide the association with a statement of the premiums in this and any other appropriate states for each member insurer.

(2) When an impairment is declared and the amount of the impairment is determined, serve a demand upon the impaired insurer to make good the impairment within a reasonable time; notice to the impaired insurer shall constitute notice to its shareholders, if any; the failure of the insurer to promptly comply with such demand shall not excuse the association from the performance of its powers and duties under this article.

(3) In any liquidation or rehabilitation proceeding involving a domestic insurer, be appointed as the liquidator or rehabilitator.

(b) The commissioner may suspend or revoke, after notice and hearing, the certificate of authority to transact insurance in this state of any member insurer which fails to pay an assessment when due or fails to comply with the plan of operation. As an alternative the commissioner may levy a forfeiture on any member insurer which fails to pay an assessment when due. The forfeiture shall not exceed 5 percent of the unpaid assessment per month, but no forfeiture shall be less than one hundred dollars ($100) per month.

(c) Any action of the board of directors or the association may be appealed to the commissioner by any member insurer if that appeal is taken within 60 days of the final action being appealed. If a member company is appealing an assessment, the amount assessed shall be paid to the association and available to meet association obligations during the pendency of an appeal. If the appeal on the assessment is upheld, the amount paid in error or excess shall be returned to the member company. Any final action or order of the commissioner shall be subject to judicial review in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(d) The liquidator, rehabilitator, or conservator of any impaired insurer may notify all interested persons of the effect of this article.

SEC. 9. Section 1066.11 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1066.11. (a) To aid in the detection and prevention of insurer insolvencies or impairments, it shall be the duty of the commissioner to do all of the following:

(1) To notify the commissioners of all the other states, territories of the United States and the District of Columbia when he or she takes any of the following actions against a member insurer:

(A) Revocation of a license.

(B) Suspension of license.

(C) Makes any formal order that such company restrict its premium writing, obtain additional contributions to surplus, withdraw from the state, reinsure all or any part of its business, or increase capital, surplus, or any other account for the security of policyholders or creditors.

The notice shall be mailed to all commissioners within 30 days following the action taken or the date on which the action occurs.

(2) To report to the board of directors, the Legislature, and the Governor when he or she has taken any of the actions set forth in paragraph (1) or has received a report from any other commissioner indicating that any action has been taken in another state. The report to the board of directors, the Legislature, and the Governor shall contain all significant details of the action taken on the report received from another commissioner.

(3) To report to the board of directors when he or she has reasonable cause to believe from any examination, whether completed or in process, of any member company that company may be an impaired or insolvent insurer.

(4) To furnish to the board of directors the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) Insurance Regulatory Information System (IRIS) ratios and listings of companies not included in the ratios developed by the NAIC, and the board may use the information contained therein in carrying out its duties and responsibilities under this section. That report and the information contained therein shall be kept confidential by the board of directors until such time as made public by the commissioner or other lawful authority.

(b) The commissioner may seek the advice and recommendation of the board of directors concerning any matter affecting his or her duties and responsibilities regarding the financial condition of member insurers and companies seeking admission to transact insurance business in this state.

(c) The board of directors may, upon majority vote, make reports and recommendations to the commissioner upon any matter germane to the solvency, liquidation, rehabilitation, or conservation of any member insurer or germane to the solvency of any company seeking to do an insurance business in this state. Those reports and recommendations shall not be considered public documents.

(d) It shall be the duty of the board of directors, upon majority vote, to notify the commissioner of any information indicating any member insurer may be an impaired or insolvent insurer.

(e) The board of directors may, upon majority vote, request that the commissioner order an examination of any member insurer which the board in good faith believes may be an impaired or insolvent insurer. Within 30 days of the receipt of that request, the commissioner shall begin the examination. The examination may be conducted as a National Association of Insurance Commissioners examination or may be conducted by persons the commissioner designates. The cost of the examination report shall be paid by the association and the examination report shall be treated as are other examination reports. In no event shall the examination report be released to the board of directors prior to its release to the public, but this shall not preclude the commissioner from complying with subdivision (a).

The commissioner shall notify the board of directors when the examination is completed. The request for an examination shall be kept on file by the commissioner but it shall not be open to public inspection prior to the release of the examination report to the public.

(f) The board of directors may, upon majority vote, make recommendations to the commissioner for the detection and prevention of insurer insolvencies.

(g) The board of directors shall, at the conclusion of any insurer insolvency in which the association was obligated to pay covered claims, prepare a report to the commissioner containing information it may have in its possession bearing on the history and causes of the insolvency. The board shall cooperate with the boards of guaranty associations in other states in preparing a report on the history and causes of insolvency of a particular insurer, and may adopt by reference any report prepared by those other associations.

SEC. 10. Section 1066.17 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1066.17. (a) No person, including an insurer, agent, or affiliate of an insurer shall make, publish, disseminate, circulate, or place before the public, or cause directly or indirectly, to be made, published, disseminated, circulated, or placed before the public, in any newspaper, magazine, or other publication, or in the form of a notice, circular, pamphlet, letter or poster, or over any radio station or television station, or in any other way, any advertisement, announcement or statement, written or oral, which uses the existence of the Health Insurance Guaranty Association of this state for the purpose of sales, solicitation, or inducement to purchase any form of insurance covered by the Robbins-Seastrand Health Insurance Guaranty Association Act. However, this subdivision shall not apply to the Robbins-Seastrand California Health Insurance Guaranty Association or any other entity which does not sell or solicit insurance.

(b) On or before June 1, 1991, the association shall prepare a summary document describing the general purposes and current limitations of this article in compliance with subdivision (c). The document shall be submitted to the commissioner for approval. Sixty days after receiving approval, no insurer may deliver a policy or contract described in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 1066.2, to a policy or contract holder unless the document is delivered to the policy or contract holder prior to or at the time of delivery of the policy or contract except if subdivision (d) applies. The document should also be available upon request by a policyholder. The distribution, delivery, or contents or interpretation of the document shall not mean that either the policy or the contract or the holder thereof will be covered in the event of the impairment or insolvency of a member insurer. The description document shall be revised by the association as amendments to this article may require. Failure to receive the document shall not give the policyholder, contract holder, certificate holder, or insured any greater rights than those stated in this article.

(c) The document prepared under subdivision (b) shall contain a clear and conspicuous disclaimer on its face. The commissioner shall promulgate a rule establishing the form and content of the disclaimer. The disclaimer shall do all of the following:

(1) State the name and address of the health insurance guaranty association and insurance department.

(2) Prominently warn the policy or contract holder that the Robbins-Seastrand California Health Insurance Guaranty Association may not cover the policy or, if coverage is available, it will be subject to substantial limitations and exclusions and conditioned on continued residence in the state.

(3) State that the insurer and its agents are prohibited by law from using the existence of the Robbins-Seastrand California Health Insurance Guaranty Association for the purpose of sales, solicitation or inducement to purchase any form of insurance.

(4) Emphasize that the policy or contract holder should not rely on coverage under the Robbins-Seastrand California Health Insurance Guaranty Association when selecting an insurer.

(5) Provide other information as directed by the commissioner.

(d) No insurer or agent may deliver a policy or contract described in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 1066.2, and excluded under subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 1066.2 from coverage under this article unless the insurer or agent, prior to or at the time of delivery, gives the policy or contract holder a separate written notice which clearly and conspicuously discloses that the policy or contract is not covered by the Robbins-Seastrand California Health Insurance Guaranty Association. The commissioner shall by rule specify the form and content of the notice, however the following form for the disclaimer notice is suggested:

ROBBINS-SEASTRAND CALIFORNIA HEALTH INSURANCE GUARANTY ASSOCIATION DISCLAIMER

"The Robbins-Seastrand California Health Insurance Guaranty Association provides coverage of claims under some types of policies if the insurer becomes impaired or insolvent. COVERAGE MAY NOT BE AVAILABLE FOR YOUR POLICY. Even if coverage is provided, there are significant limits and exclusions. Coverage is always conditioned on residence in this state. Other conditions may also preclude coverage.

The Robbins-Seastrand California Health Insurance Guaranty Association or the Department of Insurance will respond to any questions you may have which are not answered by this document. Your insurer and agent are prohibited by law from using the existence or its coverage to sell you an insurance policy.

You should not rely on availability of coverage under the Robbins-Seastrand California Health Insurance Guaranty Association when selecting an insurer. (Insert addresses of the association and department.)"

Insurers and agents shall deliver the document and disclaimer described under subdivisions (b) and (c) when a customer is solicited if a "free look" period is not required by state law.

SEC. 11. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure the proper implementation of the Guaranty Fund and the Robbins-Seastrand California Health Insurance Guaranty Association at the earliest possible time, and to ensure that policyholders are in a position to have claims paid when an insurer is declared financially impaired or insolvent, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1106

An act to amend Section 42145 of, and to add and repeal Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 40700) of Part 1 of Division 30 of, the Public Resources Code, relating to solid waste, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 40700) is added to Part 1 of Division 30 of the Public Resources Code, to read:

CHAPTER 4. LOCAL GOVERNMENT TECHNICAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Article 1. Definitions

40700. The following definitions govern the construction of this chapter.

40701. "Advisory committee" or "committee" means the Local Government Technical Advisory Committee created pursuant to Section 40705.

Article 2. Findings and Declarations

40703. The Legislature hereby finds and declares, as follows:

(a) The responsibilities of cities, counties, and special districts under this division are integral to the successful implementation of this division's purposes.

(b) Local government's responsibilities for planning and managing the state's solid waste under this division are substantially greater and more complex than under Division 7.3 (commencing with Section 66700) of the Government Code, the former Nejedly-Z'berg-Dills Solid Waste Management and Resource Recovery Act of 1972 which was repealed by Chapter 1095 of the Statutes of 1989.

(c) It is in the state's interest to ensure that local governments plan and manage the state's solid waste in an effective and environmentally sound manner and that local governments be involved in the policies and regulations which affect them.

(d) For these reasons, it is, therefore, necessary for the board to establish an advisory committee of local government representatives to assist and advise the board in implementing Part 2 (commencing with Section 40900).

Article 3. Membership

40705. The Local Government Technical Advisory Committee is hereby created in the board.

40706. Within 90 days after the effective date of this chapter, the Governor, the Senate Committee on Rules, and the Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint the members of the advisory committee who shall reflect the diversity of solid waste problems that local governments face throughout the state. The appointments shall also reflect the ethnic and cultural diversity of the state and may be selected from recommendations provided by the County Supervisors Association of California, the League of California Cities, and the Solid Waste Association of North America. Each member shall serve a two-year term, except that the first members appointed shall classify themselves by lot so that one-half serve an initial term of one year and one-half serve an initial term of two years.

40707. The advisory committee shall consist of the following members:

(a) One member appointed by the Governor, who shall represent cities, who has demonstrated expertise and at least three years of working experience in the collection phase of solid waste management and is an employee of a city.

(b) One member appointed by the Governor, who shall represent counties, who has demonstrated expertise and at least three years of working experience in the collection phase of solid waste management and is an employee of a county.

(c) One member appointed by the Governor, who shall represent cities, who has demonstrated expertise and at least three years of working experience in source reduction and recycling and is an employee of a city.

(d) One member appointed by the Governor, who shall represent counties, who has demonstrated expertise and at least three years of working experience in source reduction and recycling and is an employee of a county.

(e) One member appointed by the Governor, who shall represent cities, who has demonstrated expertise and at least three years of working experience in solid waste management planning and is an employee of a city.

(f) One member appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules, who shall represent counties, who has demonstrated expertise and at least three years of working experience in solid waste management planning and is an employee of a county.

(g) One member appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules, who shall represent cities, who has demonstrated expertise and at least three years of working experience in the disposal phase of solid waste management and is an employee of a city.

(h) One member appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, who shall represent counties, who has demonstrated expertise and at least three years of working experience in the disposal phase of solid waste management and is an employee of a county.

(i) One member appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, who shall represent special districts, including sanitation districts, who has at least three years of working experience in either the collection or disposal of solid waste, or both, and is an employee of a special district or sanitation district.

40708. The advisory committee shall annually select a chairperson from among its members by majority vote.

40709. Members shall be reimbursed at a rate of one hundred dollars ($100) per day for each day of meeting, but not more than four hundred dollars ($400) per month, plus expenses for travel, at the rate paid to officers, employees, experts, and agents of the state set by the Director of the Department of Personnel Administration pursuant to Section 19820 of the Government Code.

40709.5. (a) No member of the advisory committee shall participate in making any recommendation to the board if the member knows, or has reason to know, that the member has a financial interest, as specified in Section 87103 of the Government Code, in any private solid waste enterprise, as defined in Section 40193.

(b) Each member shall file a statement disclosing the member's investments, the member's interest in real property, and the member's income with the Fair Political Practices Commission consistent with the dates and informational requirements required by Article 2 (commencing with Section 87200) of Chapter 7 of Title 9 of the Government Code.

(c) Any member who violates this section shall be liable in a civil action brought by the board, the district attorney, city attorney, or the Attorney General for an amount of up to one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(d) No person who is required to register as a lobbyist pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 86100) of Chapter 6 of Title 9 of the Government Code shall be appointed to the advisory committee.

Article 4. Duties

40710. The advisory committee shall meet not less than once each calendar quarter in an open and public meeting and may meet as determined by the board. Within 30 days after the advisory committee meets, it shall submit the status of any items it discusses and any recommendations it makes to the board pursuant to Section 40711.

40711. The advisory committee shall provide any advice which may be necessary to assist the board in carrying out the requirements of Part 2 (commencing with Section 40900). In particular, the advisory committee shall perform the following tasks:

(a) Provide a direct liaison between the board and local governments.

(b) Advise the board of potential impacts of proposed board policies and regulations on local solid waste programs.

(c) Advise the board on the impacts of statewide programs in municipal solid waste management on local solid waste programs.

(d) Make recommendations to the board on incentive and grant programs to achieve integrated waste management objectives.

(e) Advise the board on regional approaches to integrated waste management and make recommendations to the board on strategies for implementation of programs.

40712. The board shall provide staff to assist the advisory committee in carrying out its duties. It is the intent of the Legislature that the board provide this assistance from its available resources.

40713. This chapter shall remain operative only until January 1, 1995, or until the operative date of any amendments to Section 40401 requiring the appointment of a member to the board who has previously served as an elected local government official with demonstrated expertise in solid waste management and recycling, whichever occurs earlier, and as of January 1, 1995, this chapter is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1995, deletes or extends that date on which it becomes inoperative and repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 42145 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

42145. (a) The local governing body may, either by ordinance or resolution, upon the recommendation of the appropriate land use planning agency, propose eligible parcels of property within its jurisdiction as a recycling market development zone.

(b) The proposal of a recycling market development zone shall be based upon the following findings by the local governing body:

(1) The current waste management practices and conditions are favorable to development of postconsumer waste material markets.

(2) The designation as a recycling market development zone is necessary in order to assist in attracting private sector recycling investments to the area.

(c) (1) Upon appropriation by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act, the board may make low-interest loans to local governing bodies and private business entities within a recycling market development zone from money in the Recycling Market Development Revolving Loan Account, which is hereby created in the Integrated Waste Management Fund, for the purpose of assisting the board and local agencies in complying with Section 40051 and to assist cities and counties in complying with Section 41780.

(2) The board shall establish and collect fees for applications for loans authorized by this section. The application fee shall be set at a level to fund the board's cost of processing applications for loans. In addition, the board shall establish a schedule of fees, or points, for loans which are entered into by the board, to fund the board's administration of the revolving loan program. The revenue from the fees shall be deposited in the Recycling Market Development Revolving Loan Account. The board may, upon appropriation by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act, use revenue in the account for the administration of the revolving loan program. In addition, the board may fund administration of the program from the Integrated Waste Management Account upon appropriation by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act. Funding for the administration of the Recycling Market Development Revolving Loan Program from the Integrated Waste Management Account shall be provided only if there are not sufficient funds in the Recycling Market Development Revolving Loan Account to fully fund administration of the program.

(d) Loans made pursuant to subdivision (c) shall be subject to all of the following requirements:

(1) The terms of any approved loan shall be specified in a loan agreement between the borrower and the board. The loan agreement shall include a requirement that the failure to comply with the agreement shall result in any remaining unpaid amount of the loan, with accrued interest, being immediately due and payable. Notwithstanding any term of the agreement, any borrower of a loan that the board approves shall repay the principal amount, plus interest on the basis of the rate of return for money in the Pooled Money Investment Account. Except as provided in subdivision (g), all moneys received as repayment and interest on loans under this section shall be deposited in the Recycling Market Development Revolving Loan Account.

(2) The term of any loan under this section shall be not more than 10 years.

(3) The board shall approve only those loan applications which demonstrate the applicant's ability to repay the loan. The highest priority for funding shall be given to projects which demonstrate that there is a market demand for recycling the project's type of postconsumer waste material.

(4) The board shall finance not more than one-half of the cost of any project, or not more than one million dollars ($1,000,000) for loans to any project, whichever is greater.

(5) The Department of Finance may audit the expenditure of the proceeds of any loan made pursuant to this section.

(e) Upon authorization by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act, the Controller shall transfer the sum of five million dollars ($5,000,000) from the Integrated Waste Management Account in the Integrated Waste Management Fund to the Recycling Market Development Revolving Loan Account for the purpose of making loans pursuant to subdivision (c). This amount shall be a loan to the Recycling Market Development Revolving Loan Account, repayable with interest at the rate of return for money in the Pooled Money Investment Account, and shall be repaid on or before July 1, 1997.

(f) The board shall submit a report to the Legislature on the loan program provided for in subdivision (c) on or before January 1, 1996.

(g) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1997, and, as of January 1, 1998, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1998, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed. Notwithstanding this section, any loan outstanding on July 1, 1997, shall be repaid as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) until repaid in full. Any unexpended funds in the Recycling Market Development Revolving Loan Account on July 1, 1997, shall be transferred to the Integrated Waste Management Account, and any proceeds from loans outstanding on that date shall be deposited in the Integrated Waste Management Account.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to implement the California Integrated Waste Management Act of 1989 and to provide the California Integrated Waste Management Board with the best available information for that purpose at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1107

An act to amend Section 215.5 of, and to add Section 215.6 to, the Streets and Highways Code, relating to highways.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 215.5 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

215.5. (a) The department shall develop and implement a system of priorities for ranking the need for installation of noise attenuation barriers along freeways in the California freeway and expressway system. In establishing a priority system, the department shall give the highest consideration to residential areas which were developed prior to the opening of the freeway. If alterations have been made to the freeway since its original opening which result in a significant and measurable increase in ambient noise levels, the opening date for that segment of the freeway, for the purposes of determining priorities under this section, is the completion date of that alteration project. Other criteria for determining priorities shall include the existing and future intensity of sound generated by the freeway, the increase in traffic flow since the original construction of the freeway, the cost of building the soundwall in relation to the expected noise reduction, the number of persons living in close proximity to the freeway, and whether a majority of the occupants in close proximity to the freeway resided there prior to the time the freeway routing was adopted by the commission. The city or county in which the residential area is located shall be responsible for providing documentation to the department on the percentage of original occupants still residing along the freeway.

The actual cost of construction shall be used in determining the relative priority ranking of projects funded and constructed pursuant to subdivision (d).

(b) When all freeways have been ranked in priority order, the department shall, consistent with available funding, include in its proposed state transportation improvement program, a program of construction of noise attenuation barriers beginning with the highest priority.

In preparing the annual priority list, the department shall not add any new project to the list ahead of a project that has been funded by a city or county, or by any other public agency using public funds, and is awaiting state reimbursement pursuant to subdivision (d).

(c) The commission shall include in the estimate adopted pursuant to Section 14525 of the Government Code an annual and five-year estimate of funds estimated to be available for noise attenuation barriers along freeways. If any city or county constructs a noise attenuation barrier along a freeway pursuant to subdivision (d), the commission shall allocate funds for the project in the fiscal year the project would have been eligible for funding based on the department's priority list and the commission's fund estimate at the time of approval of the project pursuant to subdivision (d).

(d) If any city, county, or public agency constructs a noise attenuation barrier along a freeway using public funds prior to the time that the barrier reaches a high enough priority for state funding, then, when the funding priority is reached, the department shall reimburse the city, county, or public agency without interest for the cost of construction, but the reimbursement may not exceed the cost of the department to construct the barriers. Reimbursement shall be made only if the city, county, or public agency constructs the noise attenuation barrier to the standards approved by department, follows bidding and contracting procedures approved by the department, and the project is approved by the commission.

SEC. 2. Section 215.6 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

215.6. If any city or county contributes at least 33 percent of the estimated cost of any soundwall project included for the first time in the state transportation improvement program in 1992 or in subsequent years, that project shall be given priority over all other soundwall projects to be included for the first time in that state transportation improvement program. If, due to the accelerated priority given a project by this section, two or more projects each qualify for the highest priority, the relative ranking between the two projects shall be determined on the basis of their relative ranking prior to being accelerated.

CHAPTER 1108

An act to amend Sections 21025.2, 31493.5, and 31494.3 of, and to add Sections 19858.7, 22825.16, 31485.5, and 31493.6 to, the Government Code, relating to public employees, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19858.7 is added to the Government Code, to read:

19858.7. Notwithstanding Section 19839, upon applying for retirement, a person entitled to a lump-sum payment for any unused or accumulated annual leave may elect to take all or any portion of that annual leave rather than accept the lump-sum payment on or prior to the effective date of retirement.

SEC. 2. Section 21025.2 of the Government Code, is amended to read:

21025.2. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, the retirement of a member who has been granted or is entitled to sick leave or who is entitled to compensating time off for overtime, shall not become effective until the expiration of the sick leave with compensation and the expiration of the compensating time off with compensation, unless the member applies for or consents to his or her retirement as of an earlier date, or unless, with respect to sick leave, the provisions of a local ordinance or resolution or the rules or regulations of the employer provide to the contrary. This section shall also be applicable to a state member who participates in the annual leave program and who has been granted annual leave for the reasons applicable to sick leave.

SEC. 3. Section 22825.16 is added to the Government Code, to read:

22825.16. A health benefit plan offered by employee organizations pursuant to Section 22790 may rebate funds to active employees enrolled in a prudent buyer basic plan in order to ensure that employee out-of-pocket health contributions during the 1991–92 contract year shall not exceed the employee's out-of-pocket contribution in the 1990–91 contract year. The amount of the monthly rebate shall not exceed fifteen dollars and thirty-three cents ($15.33) for the employee only, fifteen dollars and nineteen cents ($15.19) for the employee and one dependent, or twenty-two dollars and fifty cents ($22.50) for the employee and two or more dependents. These amounts shall not reduce the employee contribution below the employee out-of-pocket costs during the 1990–91 contract year. The rebate shall apply only to active employees enrolled in the prudent buyer basic plan who are not eligible for the subsidy provided by Section 22825.01. The payments shall be made from the special reserves of the health benefits trust fund for that health benefit plan. The amount of funds shall be limited to that portion of special reserves which is in excess of the amount necessary to fund the risk up to the reinsurance attachment level for the 1991–92 contract year. Administrative costs incurred by the state shall be reimbursed by the health benefits trust fund for that health benefit plan.

SEC. 3.5. Section 31485.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

31485.5. It is the intent of the Legislature that counties that are considering the adoption of defined contribution plans, also consider having those plans administered by their county retirement systems.

SEC. 4. Section 31493.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

31493.5. (a) Any person employed who qualifies as a member shall certify to the board his or her election to be covered by the retirement plan established by this article or to be covered by the retirement provisions and benefits otherwise available to members as of the date of employment. Any person who dies prior to certifying his or her election or who fails to certify his or her election within the period set forth in subdivision (b) shall, as of the date of death or the day immediately following the last day to certify his or her election, be deemed to have elected to be covered by the retirement plan established by this article.

(b) The election required to be made by subdivision (a) shall be certified to the board:

(1) Within 30 days of employment if written disclosure materials are provided by the employer pursuant to subdivision (c) within 14 days of employment, or

(2) Within 30 days of the receipt of written disclosure materials provided by the employer if the employer fails to provide written disclosure materials within 14 days of employment as required by subdivision (c).

(c) The employer shall, within 14 days of the date of employment, provide to each person who qualifies as a member, written disclosure materials of the elements of each of the available retirement plans.

(d) This section shall be applicable to persons eligible for general membership in Plans D and E who become employed on or after January 1, 1991, and prior to January 1, 1992, and to persons who were employed prior to January 1, 1991, who first became eligible for membership on or after January 1, 1991, and before January 1, 1992.

SEC. 5. Section 31493.6 is added to the Government Code, to read:

31493.6. (a) Any person who qualifies as a member, and who has not elected to be covered by the retirement provisions and benefits available to members, shall become a member of the plan established by this article as of the first day of the month following the date of employment or date of eligibility for membership. Any person who dies prior to certifying his or her election shall be deemed to have elected to be covered by the retirement plan established by this article.

(b) The employer shall, within 14 days of the date of employment or eligibility for membership, provide to each person who qualifies as a member, written disclosure materials of the elements of each of the available retirement plans.

(c) Any person who has been enrolled in the plan provided for in this article pursuant to subdivision (a) may elect to be covered by any other retirement plan to which he or she is otherwise eligible, provided that the election is made in writing and filed with the board within 60 days from his or her beginning date of employment or eligibility for membership, or within 45 days after receipt from the employer of the materials required by subdivision (b), whichever is later. Any person who makes the election shall be deemed to be a member of the elected plan as of the first day of the month following the date of employment or eligibility, and the county auditor shall make appropriate deductions from the member's future salary warrant to cover the member's contributions applicable to the period that the member was deemed to be included in the plan covered by this article.

(d) This section shall be applicable to persons eligible for general membership who become employed on or after January 1, 1992, and to persons who were employed prior to January 1, 1992, but who did not become eligible for membership until January 1, 1992, or later.

SEC. 6. Section 31494.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

31494.3. (a) Members who have elected to transfer under Section 31494.1 shall be provided within 90 days of the election date the cost of contributions required for that period of all creditable service with the employer prior to the month for which monthly contributions are to commence, as prescribed in subdivision (f) of Section 31494.1, and shall deposit in the retirement fund, the amount hereinafter provided in this subdivision, by lump sum, or regular monthly installments, or both, over the period of time determined by a resolution adopted by a majority vote of the board of retirement, but in any event prior to the date of application for retirement, date of termination, or death. The amount shall equal the sum of the contributions a member would have made to the retirement fund for that length of time as that for which the member shall receive credit as service, computed in accordance with the rate of contribution applicable to the member under the contributory plan, based upon entry age, and in the same manner as prescribed under the plan as if the plan had been in effect during the entire period of all creditable service, together with regular interest thereon.

(b) Any member who applies for service credit under subdivision (e) of Section 31494.1 relating to federal and military service, shall be provided within 90 days of the election date the cost of contribution required for that service, and shall deposit in the retirement fund the amount hereinafter provided in this subdivision by lump sum, or regular monthly installments, or both, over the period of time determined by a resolution adopted by a majority vote of the board of retirement, but in any event prior to the date of application for retirement, date of termination, or death. The amount shall equal the sum of twice the contributions the member would have made to the retirement fund for the length of time as that for which the member has elected to receive credit as service, computed by applying the rate of contribution applicable to the member under the contributory plan, based upon entry age, to the monthly compensation first earnable by the member as of the most recent date of entry into the retirement system, multiplied by the number of months for which the member has elected to receive credit, together with regular interest thereon.

(c) Any member who applies for service credit under subdivision

(e) of Section 31494.1, relating to prior service as defined in the bylaws of the board and public service other than military and federal service, shall be provided within 90 days of the election date the cost of contribution required for that service, and shall deposit in the retirement fund the amount hereinafter provided in this subdivision, by lump sum or regular monthly installments, or both, over the period of time determined by a resolution adopted by a majority vote of the board of retirement, but in any event prior to the date of application for retirement, date of termination, or death. The amount shall equal that sum of contributions the member would have made to the retirement fund for the length of time as that for which the member has elected to receive credit as service, calculated in the same manner as prescribed in the bylaws of the board relating to credit for prior service, except that such contribution shall be computed by applying the rate of contribution applicable to the member under the contributory plan, based upon entry age.

(d) This section shall be operative in a county at such time or times as may be mutually agreed to in memoranda of understanding executed by the employer and employee representatives if the board of supervisors adopts, by majority vote, a resolution declaring that the section shall be operative in the county.

SEC. 7. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the programs specified in this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 8. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that certain retirement administration problems be clarified and that employees and their families be able to continue to participate in their health plans, this act must take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1109

An act to add Section 904.4 to the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 904.4 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

904.4. (a) In any county having a population of more than 370,000 but less than 400,000 as established by Section 28020 of the Government Code, the presiding judge of the superior court, upon application by the district attorney, may order and direct the drawing and impanelment at any time of one additional grand jury.

(b) The presiding judge may select persons, at random, from the list of trial jurors in civil and criminal cases and shall examine them to determine if they are competent to serve as grand jurors. When a sufficient number of competent persons have been selected, they shall constitute the additional grand jury.

(c) Any additional grand jury which is impaneled pursuant to this section may serve for a period of one year from the date of impanelment, but may be discharged at any time within the one-year period by order of the presiding judge. In no event shall more than one additional grand jury be impaneled pursuant to this section at the same time.

(d) Whenever an additional grand jury is impaneled pursuant to this section, it may inquire into any matters that are subject to grand jury inquiry and shall have the sole and exclusive jurisdiction to return indictments, except for any matters that the regular grand jury is inquiring into at the time of its impanelment.

(e) If an additional grand jury is also authorized by another section, the county may impanel the additional grand jury authorized by this section, or by the other section, but not both.

CHAPTER 1110

An act to amend Sections 53313, 53313.4, 53313.5, 53313.9, 53314, 53314.8, 53316.2, 53317.3, 53318.5, 53321, 53322, 53325, 53326, 53328.5, 53338, 53339, 53339.2, 53339.3, 53339.4, 53339.6, 53339.7, 53339.8, 53340, 53341.5, 53345, 53345.3, 53350, 53353.5, 53356, 53356.1, 53356.3, 53356.4, 53358, 53361.4, and 53381 of, to add Section 53356.05 to, and to repeal and add Section 53365 of, the Government Code, to amend Section 5471 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 3110, 3114.5, 3117.5, 36501, 36502, 36508, 36509, 36513, 36523, 36525, 36526, 36527, 36530, and 36535 of, and to add Sections 3110.5, 3113.5, and 36521.5 to, the Streets and Highways Code, relating to community facilities.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 53313 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53313. A community facilities district may be established under this chapter to finance any one or more of the following types of services within an area:

(a) Police protection services, including, but not limited to, criminal justice services. However, criminal justice services shall be limited to providing services for jails, detention facilities, and juvenile halls.

(b) Fire protection and suppression services, and ambulance and paramedic services.

(c) Recreation program services, library services, and the operation and maintenance of museums and cultural facilities. A special tax may be levied for this purpose only upon approval of the voters as specified in subdivision (b) of Section 53328. However, the requirement contained in subdivision (b) of Section 53328 that a certain number of persons have been registered to vote for each of the 90 days preceding the close of the protest hearing does not apply to an election to enact a special tax for recreation program services, library services, and the operation and maintenance of museums and cultural facilities subject to subdivision (c) of Section 53326.

(d) Maintenance of parks, parkways, and open space.

(e) Flood and storm protection services, including, but not limited to, the operation and maintenance of storm drainage systems.

(f) Services with respect to removal or remedial action for the cleanup of any hazardous substance released or threatened to be released into the environment. As used in this subdivision, the terms "remedial action" and "removal" shall have the meanings set forth in Sections 25322 and 25323, respectively, of the Health and Safety Code, and the term "hazardous substance" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 25281 of the Health and Safety Code. Community facilities districts shall provide the State Department of Health Services and local health and building departments with notification of any cleanup activity pursuant to this subdivision at least 30 days prior to commencement of the activity.

A community facilities district tax approved by vote of the landowners of the district may only finance the services authorized in this section to the extent that they are in addition to those provided in the territory of the district before the district was created. The additional services may not supplant services already available within that territory when the district was created.

SEC. 2. Section 53313.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53313.4. Any territory within a community facilities district established for the acquisition or improvement of school facilities for a school district shall be exempt from any fee, increase in any fee other than a cost-of-living increase as authorized by law, or other requirement first levied, increased, or imposed subsequent to the date on which the resolution of formation creating the community facilities district is adopted under Section 53080, or under Chapter 4.7 (commencing with Section 65970) of Division 1 of Title 7, by or to benefit any other school district, except as otherwise negotiated between the school districts. That exemption shall apply until a date 10 years following the most recent issuance of bonds by the community facilities district or, if no bonds have ever been issued by the community facilities district, a date 10 years following the formation of the community facilities district or until the school district applies for state funding as provided in subdivision (d) of Section 17705.6.

SEC. 2.5. Section 53313.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53313.5. A community facilities district may also finance the purchase, construction, expansion, improvement, or rehabilitation of any real or other tangible property with an estimated useful life of five years or longer or may finance planning and design work which is directly related to the purchase, construction, expansion, or rehabilitation of any real or tangible property. The facilities need not be physically located within the district. A district may not lease out facilities which it has financed except pursuant to a lease agreement or annexation agreement entered into prior to January 1, 1988. A district may only finance the purchase of facilities whose construction has been completed, as determined by the legislative body, before the resolution of formation to establish the district is adopted pursuant to Section 53325.1, except that a district may finance the purchase of facilities completed after the adoption of the resolution of formation if the facility was constructed as if it had been constructed under the direction and supervision, or under the authority of, the local agency. For example, a community facilities district may finance facilities, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) Local park, recreation, parkway, and open-space facilities.

(b) Elementary and secondary schoolsites and structures provided that the facilities meet the building area and cost standards established by the State Allocation Board.

(c) Libraries.

(d) Child care facilities, including costs of insuring the facilities against loss, liability insurance in connection with the operation of the facility, and other insurance costs relating to the operation of the facilities, but excluding all other operational costs. However, the proceeds of bonds issued pursuant to this chapter shall not be used to pay these insurance costs.

(e) The district may also finance the construction or undergrounding of water transmission and distribution facilities, natural gas pipeline facilities, telephone lines, facilities for the transmission or distribution of electrical energy, and cable television lines to provide access to those services to customers who do not have access to those services or to mitigate existing visual blight. The district may enter into an agreement with a public utility to utilize those facilities to provide a particular service and for the conveyance of those facilities to the public utility. If the facilities are conveyed to the public utility, the agreement shall provide for a refund by the public utility to the district or improvement area thereof for the cost of the facilities. Any reimbursement made to the district shall be utilized to reduce or minimize the special tax levied within the district or improvement area, or to construct or acquire additional facilities within the district or improvement area, as specified in the resolution of formation.

(f) The district may also finance the acquisition, improvement, rehabilitation, or maintenance of any real or other tangible property, whether privately or publicly owned, for the purposes described in subdivision (e) of Section 53313.

(g) The district may also pay in full all amounts necessary to eliminate any fixed special assessment liens or to pay, repay, or defease any obligation to pay or any indebtedness secured by any tax, fee, charge, or assessment levied within the area of a community facilities district or may pay debt service on that indebtedness. In addition, tax revenues of a district may be used to make lease or debt service payments on any lease, lease-purchase contract, or certificate of participation used to finance authorized district facilities.

(h) Any other governmental facilities which the legislative body creating the community facilities district is authorized by law to contribute revenue to, or construct, own, or operate. However, the district shall not operate or maintain or, except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (e) and (f), have any ownership interest in any facilities for the transmission or distribution of natural gas, telephone service, or electrical energy.

(i) (1) A district may also pay for the following:

(A) Work deemed necessary to bring buildings, including privately owned buildings, into compliance with seismic safety standards or regulations. Only work certified as necessary to comply with seismic safety standards or regulations by local building officials may be financed. No project involving the dismantling of an existing building and its replacement by a new building, nor the construction of a new or substantially new building may be financed pursuant to this subparagraph. Work on qualified historical buildings or structures shall be done in accordance with the State Historical Building Code (Part 2.7 (commencing with Section 18950) of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code).

(B) In addition, within counties designated by the President of the United States as disaster areas, a district may also pay for any work deemed necessary to reconstruct, repair, shore up, or replace any building damaged or destroyed by the earthquake which occurred on October 17, 1989, or by its aftershocks. Work may be financed pursuant to this subparagraph only on buildings identified in a resolution of intention to establish a community facilities district adopted prior to October 17, 1994.

(2) Work on privately owned buildings, including reconstruction or replacement of privately owned buildings pursuant to this subdivision, may only be financed by a tax levy if all of the votes cast on the question of levying the tax, vote in favor of levying the tax. Any district created to finance seismic safety work on privately owned buildings, including reconstruction or replacement of privately owned buildings pursuant to this subdivision, shall consist only of lots or parcels on which the legislative body finds that the buildings to be worked on, reconstructed, or replaced, pursuant to this subdivision, are located or were located before being damaged or destroyed by the October 17, 1989, earthquake or its aftershocks.

SEC. 2.7. Section 53313.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53313.5. A community facilities district may also finance the purchase, construction, expansion, improvement, or rehabilitation of any real or other tangible property with an estimated useful life of five years or longer or may finance planning and design work which is directly related to the purchase, construction, expansion, or rehabilitation of any real or tangible property. The facilities need not be physically located within the district. A district may not lease out facilities which it has financed except pursuant to a lease agreement or annexation agreement entered into prior to January 1, 1988. A district may only finance the purchase of facilities whose construction has been completed, as determined by the legislative body, before the resolution of formation to establish the district is adopted pursuant to Section 53325.1, except that a district may finance the purchase of facilities completed after the adoption of the resolution of formation if the facility was constructed as if it had been constructed under the direction and supervision, or under the authority of, the local agency. For example, a community facilities district may finance facilities, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) Local park, recreation, parkway, and open-space facilities.

(b) Elementary and secondary schoolsites and structures provided that the facilities meet the building area and cost standards established by the State Allocation Board.

(c) Libraries.

(d) Child care facilities, including costs of insuring the facilities against loss, liability insurance in connection with the operation of the facility, and other insurance costs relating to the operation of the facilities, but excluding all other operational costs. However, the proceeds of bonds issued pursuant to this chapter shall not be used to pay these insurance costs.

(e) The district may also finance the construction or undergrounding of water transmission and distribution facilities, natural gas pipeline facilities, telephone lines, facilities for the transmission or distribution of electrical energy, and cable television lines to provide access to those services to customers who do not have access to those services or to mitigate existing visual blight. The district may enter into an agreement with a public utility to utilize those facilities to provide a particular service and for the conveyance of those facilities to the public utility. If the facilities are conveyed to the public utility, the agreement shall provide for a refund by the public utility to the district or improvement area thereof for the cost of the facilities. Any reimbursement made to the district shall be utilized to reduce or minimize the special tax levied within the district or improvement area, or to construct or acquire additional facilities within the district or improvement area, as specified in the resolution of formation.

(f) The district may also finance the acquisition, improvement, rehabilitation, or maintenance of any real or other tangible property, whether privately or publicly owned, for the purposes described in subdivision (e) of Section 53313.

(g) The district may also pay in full all amounts necessary to eliminate any fixed special assessment liens or to pay, repay, or defease any obligation to pay or any indebtedness secured by any tax, fee, charge, or assessment levied within the area of a community facilities district or may pay debt service on that indebtedness. In addition, tax revenues of a district may be used to make lease or debt service payments on any lease, lease purchase contract, or certificate of participation used to finance authorized district facilities.

(h) Any other governmental facilities which the legislative body creating the community facilities district is authorized by law to contribute revenue to, or construct, own, or operate. However, the district shall not operate or maintain or, except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (e) and (f), have any ownership interest in any facilities for the transmission or distribution of natural gas, telephone service, or electrical energy.

(i) (1) A district may also pay for the following:

(A) Work deemed necessary to bring buildings, including privately owned buildings, into compliance with seismic safety standards or regulations. Only work certified as necessary to comply with seismic safety standards or regulations by local building officials may be financed. No project involving the dismantling of an existing building and its replacement by a new building, nor the construction of a new or substantially new building may be financed pursuant to this subparagraph. Work on qualified historical buildings or structures shall be done in accordance with the State Historical Building Code (Part 2.7 (commencing with Section 18950) of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code).

(B) In addition, within counties designated by the President of the United States as disaster areas, a district may also pay for any work deemed necessary to reconstruct, repair, shore up, or replace any building damaged or destroyed by the earthquake which occurred on October 17, 1989, or by its aftershocks. Work may be financed pursuant to this subparagraph only on buildings identified in a resolution of intention to establish a community facilities district adopted prior to October 17, 1994.

(2) Work on privately owned buildings, including reconstruction or replacement of privately owned buildings pursuant to this subdivision, may only be financed by a tax levy if all of the votes cast on the question of levying the tax, vote in favor of levying the tax. Any district created to finance seismic safety work on privately owned buildings, including reconstruction or replacement of privately owned buildings pursuant to this subdivision, shall consist only of lots or parcels on which the legislative body finds that the buildings to be worked on, reconstructed, or replaced, pursuant to this subdivision, are located or were located before being damaged or destroyed by the October 17, 1989, earthquake or its aftershocks.

(j) (1) A district may also pay for the following:

(A) Work deemed necessary to repair and abate damage caused to privately owned buildings and structures by soil deterioration. "Soil deterioration" means a chemical reaction by soils that causes structural damage or defects in construction materials including concrete, steel, and ductile or cast iron. Only work certified as necessary by local building officials may be financed. No project involving the dismantling of an existing building or structure and its replacement by a new building or structure, nor the construction of a new or substantially new building or structure may be financed pursuant to this subparagraph.

(B) Work on privately owned buildings and structures pursuant to this subdivision, including reconstruction, repair, and abatement of damage caused by soil deterioration, may only be financed by a tax levy if all of the votes cast on the question of levying the tax vote in favor of levying the tax. Any district created to finance the work on privately owned buildings or structures, including reconstruction, repair, and abatement of damage caused by soil deterioration, shall consist only of lots or parcels on which the legislative body finds that the buildings or structures to be worked on pursuant to this subdivision suffer from soil deterioration.

SEC. 3. Section 53313.9 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53313.9. (a) All or any part of the cost of any school facilities financed by a community facilities district may be shared by the State Allocation Board pursuant to Section 17718.5 of the Education Code.

(b) If the State Allocation Board shares in any part of the cost of the school facilities, the ownership of those facilities and the real property upon which the facilities are located shall be transferred to the State of California. A copy of the deed by which the title is transferred shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the property is located. The deed shall be indexed by the county recorder in the grantor-grantee index to the name of the school district as grantor and to the State of California as grantee. In addition, the community facilities district shall take one or more of the following actions:

(1) Reduce the amount of bonds authorized to be issued by the community facilities district by an amount not to exceed the amount that the State Allocation Board contributes to the project.

(2) Reduce the rate of any special tax which is levied within the community facilities district to reflect the amount that the State Allocation Board contributes to the project.

(3) Reduce the amount of outstanding bonds or provide for the defeasance of outstanding bonds by an amount not to exceed the amount that the State Allocation Board contributes to the project.

(4) Shorten the period of time during which a special tax is levied within the community facilities district to reflect the reduced funding needs resulting from the amount that the State Allocation Board contributes to the project.

(c) Any reductions pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be consistent with the provisions of the resolutions of intention, formation, consideration, and to incur bonded indebtedness, adopted pursuant to Sections 53320, 53321, 53325.1, 53334, and 53345. The legislative body may, by resolution, reduce the special tax or the amount of outstanding bonds in a manner consistent with the provisions of this section.

SEC. 4. Section 53314 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53314. The legislative body may from time to time transfer moneys to a community facilities district or to an improvement area within a community facilities district, for the benefit of the district or improvement area, from any funds available to the legislative body. Any moneys so transferred may be used for the payment of any currently payable expenses incurred by reason of the construction or acquisition of any facilities or provision of any authorized services within the district or improvement area prior to December 1 of the first fiscal year in which a special tax may be levied for the facilities or services within the district or improvement area. The rate of interest earned by the investment of those moneys shall be determined by the legislative body.

SEC. 5. Section 53314.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53314.8. At any time either before or after the formation of the district, the legislative body may provide, by ordinance, that for a period specified in the ordinance, the local agency may contribute, from any source of revenue not otherwise prohibited by law, any specified amount, portion, or percentage of the revenues for the purposes set forth in the ordinance, limited to the following: the acquisition or construction of a facility, the acquisition of interest in real property, or the payment of debt service with respect to the financing of either, the provision of authorized services, and the payment of expenses incidental thereto. The contribution shall not constitute an indebtedness or liability of the local agency.

SEC. 6. Section 53316.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53316.2. (a) At any time prior to the adoption of the resolution of formation creating a community facilities district the legislative bodies of two or more local agencies may enter into a joint community facilities agreement pursuant to this section and Sections 53316.4 and 53316.6 or into a joint exercise of powers agreement pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 7 of Title 1 to exercise any power authorized by this chapter with respect to the community facilities district being created if the legislative body of each entity adopts a resolution declaring that such a joint agreement would be beneficial to the residents of that entity.

(b) Notwithstanding Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 7 of Title 1, a contracting party may use the proceeds of any special tax or charge levied pursuant to this chapter or of any bonds or other indebtedness issued pursuant to this chapter to provide facilities or services which that contracting party is otherwise authorized by law to provide, even though another contracting party does not have the power to provide those facilities or services.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), nothing in this section shall prevent amendment of a joint community facilities agreement or a joint exercise of powers agreement, after adoption of a resolution of formation, if the amendment is necessary, as determined by the legislative body, to allow an orderly transition of governmental facilities and finances in the case of any change in governmental organization approved pursuant to the Cortese-Knox Local Government Reorganization Act of 1985 (Division 1 (commencing with Section 56000) of Title 6).

SEC. 6.5. Section 53317.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53317.3. If property not otherwise exempt from a special tax levied pursuant to this chapter is acquired by a public entity through a negotiated transaction, or by gift or devise, the special tax shall, notwithstanding Section 53340, continue to be levied on the property acquired and shall be enforceable against the public entity that acquired the property. However, even if the resolution of formation that authorized creation of the district did not specify conditions under which the obligation to pay a special tax may be prepaid and permanently satisfied, the legislative body of the local agency that created the district may specify conditions under which the public agency that acquires the property may prepay and satisfy the obligation to pay the tax. The conditions may be specified only if the local agency that created the district finds and determines that the prepayment arrangement will fully protect the interests of the owners of the district's bonds.

SEC. 7. Section 53318.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53318.5. Notwithstanding any provision of Part 1 (commencing with Section 56000) of Division 3, a local agency formation commission shall have no power or duty to review and approve or disapprove a proposal to create a community facilities district or a proposal to annex territory to, or detach territory from, such district, pursuant to this chapter.

SEC. 8. Section 53321 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53321. Proceedings for the establishment of a community facilities district shall be instituted by the adoption of a resolution of intention to establish the district which shall do all of the following:

(a) State that a community facilities district is proposed to be established under the terms of this chapter and describe the boundaries of the territory proposed for inclusion in the district, which may be accomplished by reference to a map on file in the office of the clerk, showing the proposed community facilities district. The boundaries of the territory proposed for inclusion in the district shall include the entirety of any parcel subject to taxation by the proposed district.

(b) State the name proposed for the district in substantially the following form: "Community Facilities District No. _____."

(c) State the type or types of public facilities and services proposed to be financed by the district pursuant to this chapter. If the purchase of completed public facilities or the incurring of incidental expenses is proposed, the resolution shall identify those facilities or expenses. If facilities are proposed to be financed through any lease, lease-purchase, or installment-purchase arrangement, the resolution shall briefly describe the proposed arrangement.

(d) State that, except where funds are otherwise available, a special tax sufficient to pay for all facilities and services, secured by recordation of a continuing lien against all nonexempt real property in the district, will be annually levied within the area. The resolution shall specify the rate, method of apportionment, and manner of collection of the special tax in sufficient detail to allow each landowner or resident within the proposed district to estimate the maximum amount that he or she will have to pay. The legislative body may specify conditions under which the obligation to pay the specified special tax may be prepaid and permanently satisfied. The legislative body may specify conditions under which the rate of the special tax may be permanently reduced in compliance with the provisions of Section 53313.9.

(e) Fix a time and place for a public hearing on the establishment of the district which shall be not less than 30 or more than 60 days after the adoption of the resolution.

(f) Describe any adjustment in property taxation to pay prior indebtedness pursuant to Sections 53313.6 and 53313.7.

(g) A description of the proposed voting procedure.

SEC. 9. Section 53322 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53322. (a) The clerk of the legislative body shall publish a notice of the hearing pursuant to Section 6061 in a newspaper of general circulation published in the area of the proposed district. Publication shall be complete at least seven days prior to the date of the hearing.

(b) The notice shall contain all of the following information:

(1) The text or a summary of the resolution of intention to establish the district which may refer to documents on file in the office of the clerk for detail.

(2) The time and place of the hearing on the establishment of the district.

(3) A statement that at the hearing the testimony of all interested persons or taxpayers for or against the establishment of the district, the extent of the district, or the furnishing of specified types of public facilities or services will be heard. The notice shall also describe, in summary, the effect of protests made by registered voters or landowners against the establishment of the district, the extent of the district, the furnishing of a specified type of facilities or services, or a specified special tax, as provided in Section 53324.

(4) A description of the proposed voting procedure.

SEC. 10. Section 53325 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53325. The hearing may be continued from time to time, but shall be completed within 30 days, except that if the legislative body finds that the complexity of the proposed district or the need for public participation requires additional time, the hearing may be continued from time to time for a period not to exceed six months. The legislative body may modify the resolution of intention by eliminating proposed facilities or services, or by changing the rate or method of apportionment of the proposed special tax so as to reduce the maximum special tax for all or a portion of the owners of property within the proposed district, or by removing territory from the proposed district. Any modifications shall be made by action of the legislative body at the public hearing. If the legislative body proposes to modify the resolution of intention in a way that will increase the probable special tax to be paid by the owner of any lot or parcel, it shall direct that a report be prepared that includes a brief analysis of the impact of the proposed modifications on the probable special tax to be paid by the owners of lots or parcels in the district, and shall receive and consider the report before approving the modifications or any resolution of formation which includes those modifications. At the conclusion of the hearing, the legislative body may abandon the proposed establishment of the community facilities district or may, after passing upon all protests, determine to proceed with establishing the district.

SEC. 11. Section 53326 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53326. (a) The legislative body shall then submit the levy of any special taxes to the qualified electors of the proposed community facilities district subject to the levy or to the qualified electors of the territory to be annexed by the community facilities district subject to the levy in the next general election or in a special election to be held, notwithstanding any other requirement, including any requirement that elections be held on specified dates, contained in the Elections Code, at least 90 days, but not more than 180 days, following the adoption of the resolution of formation. The legislative body shall provide the resolution of formation, a certified map of sufficient scale and clarity to show the boundaries of the district, and a sufficient description to allow the election official to determine the boundaries of the district to the official conducting the election within three business days after the adoption of the resolution of formation. Assessor's parcel numbers for the land within the district shall be included if it is a landowner election or the district does not conform to an existing district's boundaries and if requested by the official conducting the election. If the election is to be held less than 125 days following the adoption of the resolution of formation, the concurrence of the election official conducting the election shall be required. However, any time limit specified by this section or requirement pertaining to the conduct of the election may be waived with the unanimous consent of the qualified electors of the proposed district and the concurrence of the election official conducting the election.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (c), if at least 12 persons, who need not necessarily be the same 12 persons, have been registered to vote within the territory of the proposed community facilities district for each of the 90 days preceding the close of the protest hearing, the vote shall be by the registered voters of the proposed district, with each voter having one vote. Otherwise, the vote shall be by the landowners of the proposed district and each landowner who is the owner of record at the close of the protest hearing, or the authorized representative thereof, shall have one vote for each acre or portion of an acre of land that he or she owns within the proposed community facilities district. The number of votes to be voted by a particular landowner shall be specified on the ballot provided to that landowner. If the vote is by landowners pursuant to this subdivision, the legislative body shall determine that any facilities financed by the district are necessary to meet increased demands placed upon local agencies as the result of development or rehabilitation occurring in the district.

(c) If the proposed special tax will not be apportioned in any tax year on any portion of property in residential use in that tax year, as determined by the legislative body, the legislative body may provide that the vote shall be by the landowners of the proposed district whose property would be subject to the tax if it were levied at the time of the election. Each of these landowners shall have one vote for each acre, or portion thereof, that the landowner owns within the proposed district which would be subject to the proposed tax if it were levied at the time of the election.

(d) Ballots for the special election authorized by subdivision (a) may be distributed to qualified electors by mail with return postage prepaid or by personal service by the election official. The official conducting the election may certify the proper mailing of ballots by an affidavit, which shall constitute conclusive proof of mailing in the absence of fraud. The voted ballots shall be returned to the election officer conducting the election not later than the hour specified in the resolution calling the election. However, if all the qualified voters have voted, the election may be closed with the concurrence of the official conducting the election.

SEC. 12. Section 53328.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53328.5. Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 3100) of the Streets and Highways Code applies with respect to any proceedings undertaken pursuant to this chapter. This chapter is a "principal act" as that term is defined in Section 3100 of the Streets and Highways Code. In all cases in which special taxes have been approved by the qualified electors pursuant to this chapter prior to January 1, 1989, the legislative body may direct the clerk of the legislative body to impose a lien for the special tax on nonexempt real property within the district by performing the filings required by Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 3100) of the Streets and Highways Code, and the county recorder shall accept those filings and may charge the clerk a fee for recording and indexing those documents pursuant to Section 3116 of the Streets and Highways Code. The failure of the clerk or recorder to perform the filings shall not subject the local agency or any of its officers or employees to civil liability.

SEC. 13. Section 53338 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53338. (a) The hearing may be continued from time to time, but shall be completed within 30 days, except that if the legislative body finds that the complexity of the proposed changes or the need for public participation requires additional time, the hearing may be continued from time to time for a period not to exceed six months. At the conclusion of the hearing the legislative body may abandon the proceedings or may, after passing upon all protests, submit the question of levying a new special tax or of changing the rate or method of apportionment of an existing special tax or of changing the types of facilities and services to be financed by the district, or any combination, to the qualified electors of the district as specified in Article 2 (commencing with Section 53318).

(b) After the canvass of any election conducted pursuant to this section, the legislative body shall determine that the proposed levy of a new special tax or of changes in the types of facilities and services to be financed by the district, or any combination, have full legal effect, if two-thirds of the votes cast on the proposition are in favor of the proposed levy or changes.

(c) Upon a determination by the legislative body that the proposed levy or changes have full legal effect, the clerk of the legislative body shall record notice of the changes pursuant to Section 3117.5 of the Streets and Highways Code.

SEC. 13.5. Section 53339 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53339. The legislative body of a community facilities district may annex territory to an existing community facilities district as provided in this article. The annexed territory need not be contiguous to territory included in the existing community facilities district. The territory proposed to be annexed to the community facilities district may be territory located outside the territorial limits of the agency which formed the community facilities district provided that the territory to be annexed to the community facilities district will be annexed to the respective agency prior to, or concurrently with, the annexation of the subject territory to the community facilities district and, if the annexation of the subject territory to the respective agency is not completed, the subject territory shall not be annexed to the community facilities district. The legislative body of the community facilities district shall not adopt a resolution of intention pursuant to Section 53339.2 if the territory proposed to be annexed includes territory which is outside the territorial limits of the agency which formed the community facilities district unless an initial action, petition, or filing for the annexation of that territory to the respective agency has been adopted or filed, as appropriate.

SEC. 14. Section 53339.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53339.2. If the legislative body of a community facilities district determines that public convenience and necessity require that territory be added to an existing community facilities district, or if the voters residing within certain territory or landowners request the legislative body to include territory within the district, the legislative body may adopt a resolution of intention to annex the territory or to provide for future annexation of the territory.

SEC. 15. Section 53339.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53339.3. The resolution of intention to annex the territory or to provide for future annexation of territory shall do all of the following:

(a) State the name of the existing community facilities district.

(b) Generally describe the territory included in the existing district and the territory proposed to be annexed. As an alternative, the resolution may identify territory proposed for annexation in the future, with the condition that parcels within that territory may be annexed only with the unanimous approval of the owner or owners of each parcel or parcels at the time that parcel or those parcels are annexed.

(c) Specify the types of public facilities and services provided pursuant to this chapter in the existing district and the types of public facilities and services to be provided in the territory proposed to be annexed or to be annexed in the future; and include a plan for sharing facilities and providing services that will be provided in common within the existing district and the territory proposed to be annexed or to be annexed in the future.

(d) Specify any special taxes which would be levied within the territory proposed to be annexed or to be annexed in the future to pay for public facilities and services provided pursuant to this chapter within that territory. A special tax proposed to pay for services to be supplied within the territory proposed to be annexed or to be annexed in the future shall be equal to any special tax levied to pay for the same services in the existing district, except that a higher or lower tax may be levied within the territory proposed to be annexed or to be annexed in the future to the extent that the actual cost of providing the services in that territory is higher or lower than the cost of providing those services in the existing district. A special tax proposed to pay for public facilities financed with bonds secured by the existing community facilities district shall be the same as the tax levied in the existing district for that purpose, except that a higher special tax may be levied for that purpose within the territory proposed to be annexed or to be annexed in the future to compensate for the interest and principal previously paid by the existing community facilities district, less any depreciation allocable to the public facility.

(e) Specify any alteration in the special tax rate levied within the existing community facilities district as a result of the proposed annexation. The maximum tax rate in the existing community facilities district may not be increased as a result of proceedings pursuant to this article.

(f) Fix a time and place for a hearing upon the resolution which shall not be less than 30 nor more than 60 days after the adoption by the legislative body of the resolution of intention to annex territory or to provide for future annexation of territory pursuant to Section 53339.2.

SEC. 16. Section 53339.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53339.4. The clerk of the legislative body shall give notice of the hearing in the same manner and within the same time as provided for the giving of notice of a hearing on a resolution of intention to establish a community facilities district, as required by Section 53322. Notice pursuant to Section 53322.4 may be mailed to the registered voters and landowners within the territory proposed to be annexed or proposed to be annexed in the future.

The notice shall do all of the following:

(a) Contain the text or a summary of the resolution.

(b) State the time and place for the hearing.

(c) State that at the hearing the testimony of all interested persons for or against the annexation of territory or the future annexation of territory to the community facilities district or the levying of special taxes within the territory proposed to be annexed or proposed to be annexed in the future will be heard.

SEC. 17. Section 53339.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53339.6. If 50 percent or more of the registered voters, or six registered voters, whichever is more, residing within the existing community facilities district, or if 50 percent or more of the registered voters or six registered voters, whichever is more, residing within the territory proposed for annexation or proposed to be annexed in the future, or if the owners of one-half or more of the area of land in the territory included in the existing district, or if the owners of one-half or more of the area of land in the territory proposed to be annexed or proposed to be annexed in the future, file written protests against the proposed annexation of territory to the existing community facilities district or the proposed addition of territory to the existing community facilities district in the future, and protests are not withdrawn so as to reduce the protests to less than a majority, no further proceedings shall be undertaken for a period of one year from the date of decision of the legislative body on the issues discussed at the hearing.

SEC. 18. Section 53339.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53339.7. (a) The hearing may be continued from time to time, but shall be completed within 30 days. At the conclusion of the hearing, the legislative body may abandon the proceedings, may, after passing upon all protests, submit the question of levying a special tax within the area proposed to be annexed to the existing community facilities district to the qualified electors of the area proposed to be annexed as specified in Article 2 (commencing with Section 53318), or may provide for the annexation of territory proposed for annexation in the future upon the unanimous approval of the owner or owners of each parcel or parcels at the time that the parcel or parcels are annexed, without additional hearings.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, when the question of levying a special tax within the areas proposed to be annexed into an existing community facilities district appears on the same ballot as the question of annexation of the same territory to a school district the effectiveness of each ballot measure may be made contingent on the passage of the other ballot measure.

SEC. 19. Section 53339.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53339.8. (a) After the canvass of returns of any election conducted in accordance with Section 53339.7, the legislative body shall determine that the area proposed to be annexed is added to and part of the existing community facilities district with full legal effect, and the legislative body may levy any special tax within the annexed territory, as specified in the resolution of intention to annex adopted pursuant to Section 53339.2, if two-thirds of the votes cast on the proposition are in favor of levying the special tax.

(b) Upon a determination by the legislative body that the area proposed to be annexed is added to the existing community facilities district, the clerk of the legislative body shall record notice of the annexation pursuant to Section 3117.5 of the Streets and Highways Code.

SEC. 20. Section 53340 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53340. After a community facilities district has been created and authorized to levy specified special taxes pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 53318), Article 3 (commencing with Section 53330), or Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 53339), the legislative body may, by ordinance, levy the special taxes at the rate and apportion them in the manner specified in the resolution adopted pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 53318), Article 3 (commencing with Section 53330), or Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 53339). The legislative body may provide, by resolution, for the levy of the special tax in the current tax year or future tax years at the same rate or at a lower rate than the rate provided by ordinance, if the resolution is adopted and a certified list of all parcels subject to the special tax levy including the amount of the tax to be levied on each parcel for the applicable tax year, is filed by the clerk or other official designated by the legislative body with the county auditor on or before the 10th day of August of that tax year. The clerk or other official designated by the legislative body may file the certified list after the 10th of August but not later than the 21st of August if the clerk or other official obtains prior written consent of the county auditor. Properties or entities of the state, federal, or other local governments shall, except as otherwise provided in Section 53317.3, be exempt from the special tax. No other properties or entities are exempt from the special tax unless the properties or entities are expressly exempted in the resolution of formation to establish a district adopted pursuant to Section 53325.1 or in a resolution of consideration to levy a new special tax or special taxes or to alter the rate or method of apportionment of an existing special tax as provided in Section 53334. The proceeds of any special tax may only be used to pay, in whole or part, the cost of providing public facilities, services, and incidental expenses pursuant to this chapter. The special tax shall be collected in the same manner as ordinary ad valorem property taxes are collected and shall be subject to the same penalties and the same procedure, sale, and lien priority in case of delinquency as is provided for ad valorem taxes, unless another procedure has been authorized in the resolution of formation establishing the district and adopted by the legislative body. The tax collector may collect the special tax at intervals as specified in the resolution of formation, including intervals different from the intervals at which the ordinary ad valorem property taxes are collected. The tax collector may deduct the reasonable administrative costs incurred in collecting the special tax.

All special taxes levied by a community facilities district shall be secured by the lien imposed pursuant to Section 3115.5 of the Streets and Highways Code. This lien shall be a continuing lien and shall secure each levy of special taxes. The lien of the special tax shall continue in force and effect until the special tax obligation is prepaid, permanently satisfied, and canceled in accordance with Section 53344 or until the special tax ceases to be levied by the legislative body in the manner provided in Section 53330.5. If any portion of a parcel is encumbered by a lien pursuant to this chapter, the entirety of the parcel shall be encumbered by that lien.

SEC. 21. Section 53341.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53341.5. (a) If a lot, parcel, or unit of a subdivision is subject to a special tax levied pursuant to this chapter for which a public report is not required pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 11010) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 4 of the Business and Professions Code, the subdivider, his or her agent, or representative, shall not sell, or lease for a term exceeding five years, the lot, parcel, or unit, or cause it to be sold or leased for a term exceeding five years, until the prospective purchaser or lessee of the lot, parcel, or unit has been furnished with and has signed a written notice as provided in this section. The notice shall contain the heading "NOTICE OF SPECIAL TAX" in type no smaller than 8-point type, and shall state the following in clear and simple language:

(1) That the property being purchased is or will be subject to a special tax which is in addition to the property tax and any other applicable local tax or assessment.

(2) The maximum annual amount of the special tax, and the number of years for which it will be levied.

(3) The types of facilities or services to be paid for with the proceeds of the special tax.

(b) "Subdivision," as used in subdivision (a), means improved or unimproved land that is divided or proposed to be divided for the purpose of sale, lease, or financing, whether immediate or future, into two or more lots, parcels, or units and includes a condominium project, as defined by Section 1350, a community apartment project, a stock cooperative, and a limited-equity housing cooperative, as defined in Sections 11004, 11003.2, and 11003.4, respectively, of the Business and Professions Code.

(c) If any disclosure required to be made by this section is delivered after the execution of an agreement to purchase, the buyer shall have three days after delivery in person or five days after delivery by deposit in the mail, to terminate his or her agreement by delivery of written notice of that termination to the owner, subdivider, or agent. Any disclosure delivered after the execution of an agreement to purchase shall contain a statement describing the buyer's right, method and time to rescind as prescribed by this subdivision.

(d) The failure to furnish the notice to the buyer or lessee, and failure of the buyer or lessee to sign the notice of a special tax, shall not invalidate any grant, conveyance, lease, or encumbrance.

(e) Any person or entity who willfully violates the provisions of this section shall be liable to the purchaser of a lot or unit which is subject to the provisions of this section, for actual damages, and in addition thereto, shall be guilty of a public offense punishable by a fine in an amount not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500). In an action to enforce such liability or fine, the prevailing party shall be awarded reasonable attorney's fees.

SEC. 22. Section 53345 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53345. Whenever the legislative body deems it necessary for the community facilities district to incur a bonded indebtedness, it shall, by resolution, set forth all of the following:

(a) A declaration of the necessity for the indebtedness.

(b) The purpose for which the proposed debt is to be incurred.

(c) The amount of the proposed debt. The legislative body may provide for a reduction in the amount of proposed debt in compliance with the provisions of Section 53313.9.

(d) The time and place for a hearing by the legislative body on the proposed debt issue.

SEC. 23. Section 53345.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53345.3. The amount of the proposed bonded indebtedness may include all costs and estimated costs incidental to, or connected with, the accomplishment of the purpose for which the proposed debt is to be incurred, including, but not limited to, the estimated costs of construction or acquisition of buildings, or both; acquisition of land, rights-of-way, water, sewer, or other capacity or connection fees; lease payments for school facilities, satisfaction of contractual obligations relating to expenses or the advancement of funds for expenses existing at the time the bonds are issued pursuant to this chapter; architectural, engineering, inspection, legal, fiscal, and financial consultant fees; bond and other reserve funds; discount fees; interest on any bonds of the district estimated to be due and payable within two years of issuance of the bonds; election costs; and all costs of issuance of the bonds, including, but not limited to, fees for bond counsel, costs of obtaining credit ratings, bond insurance premiums, fees for letters of credit, and other credit enhancement costs, and printing costs.

SEC. 24. Section 53350 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53350. For purposes of financing of, or contributing to the financing of, specified public facilities, the legislative body may by resolution designate a portion or portions of the district as one or more improvement areas. An area shall be known as "Improvement Area No. _____" of "Community Facilities District _____." After the designation of an improvement area, all proceedings for purposes of a bond election and for the purpose of levying special taxes for payment of the bonds, or for any other change pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 53330), shall apply only to the improvement area for those specified facilities.

SEC. 25. Section 53353.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53353.5. (a) Propositions relating to the levy of a special tax, the incurring of bonded indebtedness, or to establish or change an appropriations limit, or any combination thereof, under this chapter, may be combined into one ballot proposition as determined by the legislative body. The qualified electors for all of these purposes shall be determined and the election shall be conducted in the same manner as for a special tax election pursuant to Section 53326.

(b) The amendments of this section enacted by the Statutes of 1984 and 1991 do not constitute a change in, but are declaratory of and a clarification of, the existing law.

SEC. 26. Section 53356 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53356. If more than two-thirds of the votes cast at the election are in favor of incurring the indebtedness, the legislative body may, by resolution, at the time or times it deems proper, provide for the following:

(a) The form of the bonds.

(b) The execution of the bonds.

(c) The issuance of any part of the bonds.

(d) The appointment of one or more banks or trust companies within or without the state having the necessary trust powers as trustee, fiscal agent, paying agent, or bond registrar.

(e) The execution of a trust agreement or indenture securing the bonds.

(f) The pledge or assignment of any revenues of the community facilities district to the repayment of the bonds.

(g) The investment of any bond proceeds and other revenues, including special tax revenues, by the trustee or fiscal agent in any securities or obligations described in the resolution, indenture, trust agreement, or other instrument providing for the issuance of the bonds. The resolution may provide for payment to the United States from any available revenues of a community facilities district of any excess investment earnings required to be rebated by federal law.

(h) The date or dates to be borne by the bonds and the time or times of maturity of the bonds and the place or places and time or times that the bonds shall be payable.

(i) The interest, fixed or variable, to be borne by the bonds.

(j) The denominations, form, and registration privileges of the bonds.

(k) Any other terms and conditions determined to be necessary by the legislative body.

SEC. 26.5. Section 53356 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53356. If the indebtedness is approved by the voters as required under Section 53355, the legislative body may, by resolution, at the time or times it deems proper, provide for the following:

(a) The form of the bonds.

(b) The execution of the bonds.

(c) The issuance of any part of the bonds.

(d) The appointment of one or more banks or trust companies within or outside of the state having the necessary trust powers as trustee, fiscal agent, paying agent, or bond registrar.

(e) The execution of a trust agreement or indenture securing the bonds.

(f) The pledge or assignment of any revenues of the community facilities district to the repayment of the bonds.

(g) The investment of any bond proceeds and other revenues, including special tax revenues, by the trustee or fiscal agent in any securities or obligations described in the resolution, indenture, trust agreement, or other instrument providing for the issuance of the bonds. The resolution may provide for payment to the United States from any available revenues of a community facilities district of any excess investment earnings required to be rebated by federal law.

(h) The date or dates to be borne by the bonds, the time or times of maturity of the bonds, and the place or places and time or times that the bonds shall be payable.

(i) The interest, fixed or variable, to be borne by the bonds.

(j) The denominations, form, and registration privileges of the bonds.

(k) Any other terms and conditions determined by the legislative body to be necessary.

SEC. 27. Section 53356.05 is added to the Government Code, to read:

53356.05. The bond indenture or other bond documents may provide that the legislative body agrees to notify one or more parties, including the underwriter or other first purchaser of the bonds, an appropriate national repository for bond information approved by the Securities and Exchange Commission, or the California Debt Advisory Commission, in the event that specified events occur which may affect the market value of outstanding bonds. These events may include, but are not limited to, the following, for example:

(a) Withdrawal of funds from any reserve fund for the bonds, such that the balance in the fund falls below a specified percentage of the amount required by bond documents.

(b) Draw upon a letter of credit or other credit enhancement for the bonds.

(c) Filing for bankruptcy by a developer or other owner of more than a specified percentage of the area or property value within the district.

(d) Unforeseen discovery of toxic materials or rare and endangered plant or animal species within areas of the district proposed for development.

SEC. 28. Section 53356.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53356.1. (a) As a cumulative remedy, if bonds are outstanding, the legislative body may, not later than four years after the due date of the last installment of principal thereof, order that any delinquent special taxes levied in whole or in part for payment of the bonds, together with any penalties, interest, and costs, be collected by an action brought in the superior court to foreclose the lien of special tax.

(b) The legislative body may, by resolution, adopted prior to the issuance of bonds under this chapter covenant for the benefit of bondowners to commence and diligently pursue to completion any foreclosure action regarding delinquent installments of any amount levied as a special tax for the payment of interest or principal of any bonds that are issued, or may employ a trustee to do so on behalf of the bondholders. The resolution may specify a deadline for commencement of the foreclosure action and any other terms and conditions the legislative body determines reasonable regarding the foreclosure action.

(c) Except as provided in Section 53356.6, all special taxes, interest, penalties, costs, fees, and other charges that are delinquent at the time of the ordering of a foreclosure action shall be collected in the action. In the event that a lot or parcel of property has not been sold pursuant to judgment in the foreclosure action at the time that subsequent special taxes become delinquent, the court may include the subsequent special taxes, interest, penalties, costs, fees, and other charges in the judgment or modified judgment.

SEC. 29. Section 53356.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53356.3. At any time after the tax collector has been relieved of his or her duty to collect sums under Section 53356.2 and before judgment in a foreclosure action, the local agency or trustee shall dismiss the action upon payment of all of the following:

(a) The amount of any delinquent special taxes together with any penalties, interest, and costs accrued thereon to date of complete payment hereunder.

(b) Costs of suit, including, but not limited to, litigation guarantees provided by title companies with respect to all claims of ownership or interest in the subject property.

(c) Attorneys' fees authorized by the local agency.

(d) The tax collector's costs authorized by subdivision (b) of Section 53356.2.

SEC. 30. Section 53356.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53356.4. The foreclosure action shall be brought in the name of the local agency or trustee on behalf of the bondholders pursuant to Section 53356.1, and may be brought within the time specified in Section 53356.1. The complaint may be brief and need only include the following allegations:

(a) That on a stated date, a certain sum of special taxes, levied against the subject property (describing it) pursuant to this chapter, became delinquent.

(b) On that date, bonds issued pursuant to this chapter, payable in whole or in part by the subject special taxes, were outstanding.

(c) That the legislative body or trustee has ordered the foreclosure.

SEC. 31. Section 53358 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53358. When the legislative body provides for the fixing and levying of special taxes and charges for the community facilities district it shall also provide for the fixing and levying of that amount of special taxes and charges within the community facilities district which is required for the payment of the principal of and interest on any outstanding bonded debt of the community facilities district, including any necessary replenishment or expenditure of bond reserve funds or accumulation of funds for future bond payments, including any amount required by federal law to be rebated to the United States on that bonded debt. The special tax or charge shall be levied and collected by the same officers and at the same time and in the same manner that all other special taxes and charges are levied and collected for the community facilities district or in any other manner specified by the legislative body. The special taxes and charges shall not exceed the authority granted by Article 2 (commencing with Section 53318) and Article 3 (commencing with Section 53330). All of the collections for payment of principal and interest on bonds shall be paid into the community facilities district bond fund and reserve or other fund for the particular community facilities district and shall be used solely for the payment of the principal of and interest on the outstanding bonds of the community facilities district.

SEC. 32. Section 53361.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53361.4. Whenever the legislative body declares by resolution that it deems it desirable that any bonds issued or to be issued by the community facilities district or an improvement area within the district should be certified by the Treasurer as provided in this section, or if the community facilities district was established by the legislative body of a special district that is required to seek certification of its bonds by the Treasurer pursuant to the District Securities Investigation Law or other provisions of law and the bonds issued or to be issued by the community facilities district are "bonds" as defined in Section 58751, the legislative body shall file a certified copy of the resolution with the Treasurer and the bonds described in the resolution shall then be subject to investigation and certification by the Treasurer. If, in the opinion of the Treasurer, the bonds are adequately secured and the revenues and other funds applicable to the payment of the bonds are, or upon the acquisition, construction, or improvement of the enterprise for which the bonds were or are to be issued, will be sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds, the Treasurer shall certify that the bonds are legal investments for all trust funds, for the funds of all insurance companies, the state school funds, and any funds, other than funds of savings banks, which may be invested in bonds of cities, counties, cities and counties, school districts, or municipalities in the state.

SEC. 33. Section 53365 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 33.5. Section 53365 is added to the Government Code, to read:

53365. Notice designating the bonds called for redemption shall be mailed to the underwriter or other first purchaser and to the registered owners of the bonds to be called by first-class mail. The notice shall be mailed not less than 30 nor more than 90 days prior to the date fixed for redemption.

SEC. 34. Section 53381 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53381. A district may expand the capacity of existing public capital facilities, replace existing public capital facilities with alternative technologies that perform similar functions, reroute or relocate public capital facilities, or construct new public capital facilities which comprise a component of a program to rehabilitate the public works of the district or to rehabilitate any related system of public works within the district or contribute to the cost of any project authorized by this section.

SEC. 35. Section 5471 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

5471. In addition to the powers granted in the principal act, any entity shall have power, by an ordinance approved by a two-thirds vote of the members of the legislative body thereof, to prescribe, revise and collect, fees, tolls, rates, rentals, or other charges, including water, sewer standby or immediate availability charges, for services and facilities furnished by it, either within or without its territorial limits, in connection with its water, sanitation, storm drainage, or sewerage system. However, the entity may provide that the charge for the service shall be collected with the rates, tolls, and charges for any other utility, and that any or all of these charges may be billed upon the same bill. Where the charge is to be collected with the charges for any other utility service furnished by a department or agency of the entity and over which its legislative body does not exercise control, the consent of the department or agency shall be obtained prior to collecting water, sanitation, storm drainage, or sewerage charges with the charges for any other utility. Revenues derived under the provisions in this section, shall be used only for the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, maintenance, and operation of water systems and sanitation, storm drainage, or sewerage facilities, to repay principal and interest on bonds issued for the construction or reconstruction of these water systems and sanitary, storm drainage, or sewerage facilities and to repay federal or state loans or advances made to the entity for the construction or reconstruction of water systems and sanitary, storm drainage, or sewerage facilities. However, the revenue shall not be used for the acquisition or construction of new local street sewers or laterals as distinguished from main trunk, interceptor and outfall sewers.

SEC. 35.1. Section 5471 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

5471. (a) Subject to Section 66013 of the Government Code, and in addition to the powers granted in the principal act, any entity shall have power, by an ordinance approved by a two-thirds vote of the members of the legislative body thereof, to prescribe, revise and collect fees, tolls, rates, rentals, or other charges, including sewer capacity charges or sewer standby or immediate availability charges, for services and facilities furnished by it, either within or without its territorial limits, in connection with its sanitation, storm drainage, or sewerage system. However, the entity may provide that the charge for the service shall be collected with the rates, tolls, and charges for any other utility, and that any or all of these charges may be billed upon the same bill. Where the charge is to be collected with the charges for any other utility service furnished by a department or agency of the entity and over which its legislative body does not exercise control, the consent of the department or agency shall be obtained prior to collecting sanitation, storm drainage, or sewerage charges with the charges for any other utility. Revenues derived under the provisions in this section shall be used only for the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, maintenance, and operation of sanitation, storm drainage, or sewerage facilities, to repay principal and interest on bonds issued for the construction or reconstruction of these sanitary, storm drainage, or sewerage facilities and to repay federal or state loans or advances made to the entity for the construction or reconstruction of sanitary, storm drainage, or sewerage facilities. However, the revenue shall not be used for the acquisition or construction of new local street sewers or laterals as distinguished from main trunk, interceptor and outfall sewers.

(b) Any local agency adopting both capacity fees or charges and standby fees or charges shall distinguish the benefits derived from the standby fees or charges and capacity fees or charges in the official action at which either is adopted, revised, or modified.

(c) This section shall not be construed to modify or repeal Chapter 13.7 (commencing with Section 54999) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

(d) Prior to enacting a capacity fee pursuant to this section, the legislative body shall hold a noticed hearing as provided in Section 5471.5.

SEC. 35.5. Section 3110 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

3110. (a) The proposed boundaries of the district to be specially taxed or assessed in proceedings shall be described by resolution or ordinance adopted by the legislative body prior to the hearing on the formation or extent of the district. The description of the proposed boundaries shall be by reference to a map of the district which shall indicate by a boundary line the extent of the territory included in the proposed district and the map shall govern for all details as to the extent of the district. The map shall also contain the name of the city and a distinctive designation, in words or by number, of the district shown on the map.

(b) The map shall be legibly drawn, printed or reproduced by a process that provides a permanent record. Each sheet of paper or other material used for the map shall be 18 by 26 inches in size, shall have clearly shown therein the particular number of the sheet, the total number of sheets comprising the map, and its relation to each adjoining sheet, and shall have encompassing its border a line that leaves a blank margin one inch in width.

The map shall be labeled substantially as follows: Proposed Boundaries of (here insert name or number of district) (here insert name of city and county thereafter), State of California.

In addition, if the resolution of intention to create the district proposes that some or all tax or bond proceeds of the district would be used to pay for cleanup of any hazardous substance pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 53313 of the Government Code, the map label shall include the following statement in large, conspicuous letters:

TAXES LEVIED BY THIS DISTRICT MAY BE USED TO PAY FOR CLEANUP OF HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCES.

If the map consists of more than one page, the same entitlement shall be on each page.

The map shall also have thereon legends reading substantially as follows:

(1) Filed in the office of the (clerk of the legislative body) this _____ day of _____ 19__.

(Clerk of the legislative body)

(2) I hereby certify that the within map showing proposed boundaries of (here insert name or number of district) (here insert name of city, and, if not a county, insert name of county thereafter), State of California, was approved by the city council (or other appropriate legislative body) of the (here insert city) at a regular meeting thereof, held on the _____ day of _____, 19__, by its Resolution No. ____.

(3) Filed this _____ day of _____, 19__, at the hour of _____ o'clock __m. in Book _____ of Maps of Assessment and Community Facilities Districts at page _____, in the office of the county recorder in the County of _____, State of California.

(County Recorder of County of _____)

SEC. 36. Section 3110.5 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

3110.5. In the case of annexation proceedings in connection with a community facilities district, a separate map of the area proposed to be annexed shall be prepared and adopted by the legislative body by resolution or ordinance prior to the hearing on the proposed annexation. It shall be entitled "Annexation Map No. _____ of Community Facilities District No. _____ of _____, _____ County, California" and shall reference by title, book, page, and recording date, the original (or if it has been amended, the most recent) boundary map of the community facilities district. The provisions of this part shall apply to the annexation map in all other respects as if it were an original community facilities district boundary map. Annexation shall not be considered modification or amendment of the boundaries of the community facilities district for purposes of this part, although an annexation map may be modified or amended.

SEC. 37. Section 3113.5 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

3113.5. All modifications, amendments, and annexations may be consolidated in a single map at any time at the direction of the local legislative body. The map shall supersede all previously recorded maps and shall be processed by the county recorder as provided in Section 3113. References on the face of the map, and the cross-indexing, shall include all maps then being superseded.

SEC. 38. Section 3114.5 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

3114.5. (a) This section applies only to community facilities districts.

(b) Within 15 days after determination pursuant to Section 53328 of the Government Code that the requisite number of voters are in favor of the levy of a special tax, the clerk of the legislative body shall execute and record a notice of special tax lien in the office of the county recorder of each county in which all or any part of the community facilities district is located, and the county recorder shall accept that notice. The county recorder shall index the notice of special tax liens to the names of the property owners within the community facilities district and shown in the notice, as grantors. The notice of special tax lien shall contain the information required by Section 27288.1 of the Government Code and shall be in substantially the following form:

NOTICE OF SPECIAL TAX LIEN

Pursuant to the requirements of Section 3114.5 of the Streets and Highways Code and Section 53328.3 of the Government Code, the undersigned clerk of the legislative body of _____, State of California, hereby gives notice that a lien to secure payment of a special tax is hereby imposed by the (here insert name of legislative body) of (here insert city and name of county thereafter), State of California. The special tax secured by this lien is authorized to be levied for the purpose of: (as applicable) (1) paying principal and interest on bonds, the proceeds of which are being used to finance (briefly describe facilities financed); (2) providing (briefly described facilities financed without bonds); (3) providing (briefly described services being financed).

If all or any portion of the proceeds of taxes or bonds of the district are authorized to be used to pay for cleanup of hazardous substances pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 53313(e) of the Government Code, the notice shall also contain the following statement in large conspicuous type:

TAXES LEVIED BY THIS DISTRICT MAY BE USED TO PAY FOR CLEANUP OF HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCES.

The special tax is authorized to be levied within Community Facilities District No. _____ which has now been officially formed and the lien of the special tax is a continuing lien which shall secure each annual levy of the special tax and which shall continue in force and effect until the special tax obligation is prepaid, permanently satisfied, and canceled in accordance with law or until the special tax ceases to be levied and a notice of cessation of special tax is recorded in accordance with Section 53330.5 of the Government Code.

The rate, method of apportionment, and manner of collection of the authorized special tax is as follows: (here insert verbatim the description of the rate, method of apportionment, and manner of collection from the resolution of formation of the community facilities district). Conditions under which the obligation to pay the special tax may be prepaid and permanently satisfied and the lien of the special tax canceled are as follows: (here insert such conditions as are set forth in the resolution of formation or, if no provision has been made for prepayment of the special tax obligation, so state).

Notice is further given that upon the recording of this notice in the office of the county recorder, the obligation to pay the special tax levy shall become a lien upon all nonexempt real property within Community Facilities District No. _____ in accordance with Section 3115.5 of the Streets and Highways Code.

The name(s) of the owner(s) and the assessor's tax parcel number(s) of the real property included within this community facilities district and not exempt from the special tax are as follows: (insert name(s) of owner(s) and tax parcel number(s) shown on assessment roll).

Reference is made to the boundary map (or the amended boundary map) of the community facilities district recorded at Book _____ of Maps of Assessment and Community Facilities Districts at Page _____, in the office of the County Recorder for the County of _____, State of California which map is now the final boundary map of the community facilities district.

For further information concerning the current and estimated future tax liability of owners or purchasers of real property subject to this special tax lien, interested persons should contact (here provide name, address, and telephone number of the appropriate office, department, or bureau of the public entity designated pursuant to Section 53340.1 of the Government Code).

(c) The county recorder shall endorse upon the notice the time and date of filing, and shall cross index the notice by reference to the page of the book of maps of assessment and community facilities districts in which the boundary map of the district was filed.

SEC. 39. Section 3117.5 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

3117.5. (a) In the event of amendment or modification of, or annexation to, the boundaries of a community facilities district, an amendment to the Notice of Special Tax Lien shall be prepared and recorded under the procedure of Section 3114.5. In the listing of property owners, the amended notice need only list separately the names of the owners and assessor's tax parcel numbers of parcels being added to the district and the names of the owners and assessor's parcel numbers of parcels being excluded from the district. This amendment need not supersede the existing notice.

(b) If any proceedings subsequent to the approval by the voters of a special tax pursuant to the Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act of 1982, Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 53311) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, result in a change in the authorization to levy a special tax or to issue bonds, or a change in the facilities or services authorized to be financed, the clerk of the legislative body shall record an amendment to the original (or, if it has been superseded, the most recent) Notice of Special Tax Lien and any amendments thereto which shall reference the book and page and recording date of that notice and any amendments to it and shall clearly set forth the changes.

SEC. 40. Section 36501 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

36501. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that businesses located and operating within the business districts of this state's communities are economically disadvantaged, are underutilized, and are unable to attract customers due to inadequate facilities, services, and activities in the business districts.

(b) The Legislature also finds and declares that it is in the public interest to promote the economic revitalization and physical maintenance of the business districts of its cities in order to create jobs, attract new businesses, and prevent erosion of the business districts.

(c) The Legislature also finds that it is of particular local benefit to allow cities to fund property related improvements and activities through the levy of assessments upon the businesses which benefit from those improvements and activities.

(d) The Legislature also finds and declares that tourism is a large and growing contributor to California's economy, and that promotion of a city's or county's scenic, recreational, cultural, and other attractions as a tourist destination is an important public purpose.

(e) The Legislature also finds and declares that assessments levied for the purpose of providing improvements and promoting activities which benefit individual businesses may also benefit the property within the area directly or indirectly and that those assessments are not taxes for the general benefit of a city, but are assessments for the improvements and activities which confer special benefits upon the businesses for which the improvements and activities are provided.

SEC. 41. Section 36502 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

36502. The purpose of this part is to recodify and supplant previously enacted provisions of law which authorize cities to levy assessments on businesses within a parking and business improvement area and to provide a uniform procedure to levy assessments for improvements and activities of businesses located and operating in a business district of a city. This part does not affect or limit any other provisions of law authorizing or providing for the furnishing of improvements or activities or the raising of revenue for these purposes. In addition, this part is intended to provide a method for financing public programs to attract tourist visits to areas where tourism is economically important and desired.

SEC. 42. Section 36508 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

36508. "City" means a city, county, city and county, or an agency or entity created pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 6500) of Chapter 5 of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the public member agencies of which include only cities, counties, or a city and county.

SEC. 43. Section 36509 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

36509. "City council" means the city council of a city or the board of supervisors of a county, or the agency, commission, or board created pursuant to a joint powers agreement and which is a city within the meaning of this part.

SEC. 44. Section 36513 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

36513. "Activities" means, but is not limited to, all of the following:

(a) Promotion of public events which benefit businesses in the area and which take place on or in public places within the area.

(b) Furnishing of music in any public place in the area.

(c) Promotion of tourism within the area.

(d) Activities which benefit businesses located and operating in the area.

SEC. 45. Section 36521.5 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

36521.5. A county may not form an area within the territorial jurisdiction of a city without the consent of the city council of that city. A city may not form an area within the unincorporated territory of a county, without the consent of the board of supervisors of that county. A city may not form an area within the territorial jurisdiction of another city without the consent of the city council of the other city.

SEC. 46. Section 36523 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

36523. Notice of a public hearing, held under Section 36524, 36541, 36542, or 36550, shall be given by both of the following:

(a) Publishing the resolution of intention in a newspaper of general circulation in the city once, at least seven days before the public hearing.

(b) Mailing of a complete copy of the resolution of intention by first-class mail to each business owner in the area within seven days of the city council's adoption of the resolution of intention.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), in the case of an area being established primarily to promote tourism, a copy of the resolution of intention shall be mailed by first-class mail, within seven days of the city council's adoption of the resolution of intention, to the owner of each business in the area which will be subject to assessment.

SEC. 47. Section 36525 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

36525. (a) If written protests are received from the owners of businesses in the proposed area which will pay 50 percent or more of the assessments proposed to be levied and protests are not withdrawn so as to reduce the protests to less than that 50 percent, no further proceedings to create the specified parking and business improvement area or to levy the proposed assessment, as contained in the resolution of intention, shall be taken for a period of one year from the date of the finding of a majority protest by the city council.

(b) If the majority protest is only against the furnishing of a specified type or types of improvement or activity within the area, those types of improvements or activities shall be eliminated.

SEC. 48. Section 36526 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

36526. (a) At the conclusion of the public hearing to establish the area, the city council may adopt, revise, change, reduce, or modify the proposed assessment or the type or types of improvements and activities to be funded with the revenues from the assessments.

(b) At the public hearing, the city council may only make changes in, to, or from, the boundaries of the proposed parking and business improvement area that will exclude territory which will not benefit from the proposed improvements or activities. However, proposed assessments may only be revised by reducing any or all of them.

(c) The city council shall not change the boundaries of the area to include any territory that will not, in its judgment, benefit by the improvement or activity. Any addition of territory to the proposed boundaries of the area may be made only upon notice to the owners of the businesses proposed to be added to the area, as provided in Section 36523, and upon a public hearing on the addition of territory, as provided in Section 36524.

SEC. 49. Section 36527 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

36527. If the city council, following the public hearing, decides to establish the proposed parking and business improvement area, it shall adopt an ordinance to that effect. The ordinance shall contain all of the following:

(a) The number, date of adoption, and title of the resolution of intention.

(b) The time and place where the public hearing was held concerning the establishment of the area.

(c) A determination regarding any protests received at the public hearing.

(d) The description of the boundaries of the area and of each separate benefit zone established within the area.

(e) A statement that a parking and business improvement area has been established and the name of the area.

(f) A statement that the businesses in the area established by the ordinance shall be subject to any amendments to this part.

(g) The description of the method and basis of levying the assessments, with a breakdown by classification of businesses if a classification is used.

(h) A statement that the improvements and activities to be provided in the area will be funded by the levy of the assessments. The revenue from the levy of assessments within an area shall not be used to provide improvements or activities outside the area or for any purpose other than the purposes specified in the resolution of intention, as modified by the city council at the hearing concerning establishment of the area.

(i) A finding that the businesses and the property within the business and improvement area will be benefited by the improvements and activities funded by the assessments proposed to be levied. In the case of an area formed to promote tourism, only businesses that benefit from tourist visits may be assessed.

(j) The time and manner of collecting the assessments.

SEC. 50. Section 36530 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

36530. The city council shall appoint an advisory board which shall make a recommendation to the city council on the expenditure of revenues derived from the levy of assessments pursuant to this part, on the classification of businesses, as applicable, and on the method and basis of levying the assessments. The city council may designate existing advisory boards or commissions to serve as the advisory board for the area or may create a new advisory board for that purpose. The city council may limit membership of the advisory board to persons paying the assessments under this part. The city council may appoint the advisory board prior to adoption of the resolution of intention to create the area, so that the advisory board may recommend the provisions of the resolution of intention.

SEC. 51. Section 36535 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

36535. (a) The city council shall hold the public hearing at the time and in the place specified in the resolution of intention. The public hearing shall be conducted as provided in Sections 36524 and 36525. The city council may continue the public hearing from time to time, but the public hearing shall be completed within 30 days.

(b) During the course or upon the conclusion of the public hearing, the city council may order changes in any of the matters provided in the report, including changes in the proposed assessments, the proposed improvements and activities to be funded with the revenues derived from the levy of the assessments, and the proposed boundaries of the area and any benefit zones within the area. The city council shall not change the boundaries to include any territory that will not, in its judgment, benefit by the improvement or activity.

(c) At the conclusion of the public hearing, the city council may adopt a resolution confirming the report as originally filed or as changed by it. The adoption of the resolution shall constitute the levy of an assessment for the fiscal year referred to in the report.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (c), if the primary purpose of the area is promotion of tourism, the city council may adopt a resolution confirming the report as submitted by the advisory board, or may adopt a resolution continuing the program and assessments as levied in the then current year without change, and that resolution shall constitute the levy of an assessment for the fiscal year referred to in the report. As an alternative, the city council may modify the report and adopt a resolution confirming the report as modified, but in that case the city council may adopt the resolution only after providing notice of the proposed changes as specified in Section 36523 and only after conducting a public hearing on the resolution as provided in Sections 36524 and 36525.

SEC. 52. Any proceedings to create or make changes in a community facilities district pursuant to the Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act of 1982, Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 53311) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, for which a resolution of intention has been adopted to establish the district or a resolution of consideration has been adopted to make changes in the district or an improvement area within the district prior to the effective date of this act, or for which a special tax was first levied after January 1, 1992, may be conducted in accordance with the terms of the Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act of 1982 in effect at the time the proceedings were initiated, or those proceedings may be conducted in accordance with the Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act of 1982 as affected by this act, as nearly as practicable, as determined by the legislative body and with the concurrence of the official conducting the election, as if this act had been in effect when the proceedings were commenced.

SEC. 53. The amendment made to subdivision (f) of Section 53313.5 of the Government Code by this act does not constitute a change in, but is declarative of, existing law.

SEC. 54. The amendment made to subdivision (a) of Section

53316.2 of the Government Code by this act shall not apply to any community facilities district for which a resolution of formation, a resolution of intention, or a resolution of consideration to make changes in the district has been adopted prior to the effective date of this act.

SEC. 55. Section 2.7 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 53313.5 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and SB 410. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 53313.5 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 410, in which case Section 2.5 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 56. Section 26.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 53356 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and SB 485. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on March 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 53356 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 485, in which case Section 26 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 57. Section 35.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 5471 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1875. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 5471 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1875, in which case Section 35 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 58. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1111

An act to amend Sections 11321.2, 11322, 11324.2, 11327.8, and 11328 of, to add Sections 11324.5 and 11324.7 to, and to add Article 9 (commencing with Section 11520) to Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public assistance.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11321.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11321.2. (a) No plan, or revision of a plan, may be implemented unless approved by the department. In determining whether a plan should be approved, the department shall consider the projected long-range cost-effectiveness of the plan, in addition to the appropriateness of the services proposed to be delivered under the plan, given the local labor market, maximum utilization of existing and generic services, and administrative ease.

(b) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), every plan approved by the department shall provide an adequate range of services as described in Sections 11322.6 to 11323.2, inclusive. With respect to large counties, as defined by the department for cost control purposes, "an adequate range of services" means that the counties shall provide all of the services outlined in those sections.

(2) Counties that do not provide for grant diversion as specified in subdivisions (f) and (g) of Section 11322.8 shall be deemed to have an adequate range of services.

(c) If a joint plan submitted by two or more counties serves a participant caseload equal to or greater than a large county, the plan shall meet the requirements of subdivision (b) for large counties, except for services shown to be unnecessary by the counties. No plan shall require job search and work experience of participants to the exclusion of a range of services, both existing and proposed, to be offered participants, in accordance with this section.

SEC. 2. Section 11322 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11322. (a) The county welfare department shall submit to the department a program budget proposal in conjunction with the administrative cost control plan for Aid to Families with Dependent Children, Medi-Cal, and Food Stamp programs. The budget proposal shall specify the costs associated with providing the range of services included in the county plan in the most cost-effective manner.

(b) Prior to final approval of the county's budget proposal, the department shall notify each county of the amount of its allocation of funds to carry out the plan and the assumptions used to develop that allocation. If the allocation is less than the amount of funds that the county proposed in the program budget, the department shall notify the county that the proposed program budget exceeds the funds available. The department shall specify how the costs proposed by the county exceed the costs used to develop the county's allocation. The county may provide any additional documentation to justify the higher funding level. If, after reviewing the additional information, the department finds that the proposed program costs are not reasonable or cost-effective, the county shall submit the necessary revisions to its program budget to keep program expenditures within the amount of its allocation.

(c) The state share of the nonfederal costs of the Greater Avenues of Independence program shall be 70 percent of the actual nonfederal expenditures for that program or the amount appropriated by the Legislature for that purpose, whichever is less.

SEC. 3. Section 11324.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11324.2. A preemployment preparation position utilized pursuant to this article may not be created as the result of, or may not result in, any of the following:

(a) (1) Displacement of current employees, including overtime currently worked by these employees.

(2) Displacement shall include partial displacement, including, but not limited to, a reduction in hours of nonovertime work, wages, or employment.

(b) The filling of established unfilled positions, unless the positions are unfunded in a public agency budget.

(c) The filling of positions which would otherwise be promotional opportunities for current employees.

(d) The filling of a position, prior to compliance with applicable personnel procedures or provisions of collective bargaining agreements.

(e) The filling of a position created by termination, layoff, or reduction in workforce.

(f) The filling of a work assignment customarily performed by a worker in a job classification within a recognized collective bargaining unit in that specific worksite, or the filling of a work assignment in any bargaining unit in which funded positions are vacant or in which regular employees are on layoffs.

(g) A strike, lockout, or other bona fide labor dispute, or violation of any existing collective bargaining agreement between employees and employers.

SEC. 4. Section 11324.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

11324.5. The county shall ensure that the labor union is notified of the use of participants assigned to preemployment preparation, short-term work experience, on-the-job training, or any activity funded by grant diversion, in any location or work activity controlled by an employer and covered by a collective bargaining agreement between the employer and a union. For nonunionized employees, procedures shall provide for notification to employees of the use of GAIN participants and the availability of the grievance process. Display of a poster shall satisfy this requirement.

SEC. 5. Section 11324.7 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

11324.7. (a) The department shall provide a grievance process for regular employees and their representatives who wish to file a complaint that an assignment to preemployment preparation, short-term work experience, on-the-job training, or any activity funded by grant diversion violates any of the displacement provisions contained in Section 11324.2 respecting any employment or training position created pursuant to this article.

(b) (1) The grievance process established pursuant to subdivision (a) shall consist of an informal procedure followed by a hearing if the informal procedure fails to resolve the complaint to the satisfaction of the complainant.

(2) The grievance process shall be conducted in accordance with rules and notification requirements adopted and promulgated in federal law that also provides for an appeal process to the United States Department of Labor.

(3) The department shall issue instructions and requirements for the grievance process.

(c) The department shall administer the employee grievance process either directly or through the county welfare departments, or may enter into agreements with another state agency to administer all or any part of the grievance process.

SEC. 6. Section 11327.8 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11327.8. (a) Except as specified in this section, whenever a participant believes that any program requirement or assignment in this program is in violation of his or her contract or is inconsistent with this article, the participant may invoke the formal grievance procedure, which shall be conducted in accordance with Section 5302 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, request a fair hearing pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 10950) of Part 2, or utilize a formal grievance procedure to be established by the county board of supervisors, and to be specified in each county plan.

(b) If the participant is not satisfied with the outcome of the grievance procedure, he or she may appeal the decision in accordance with the procedures set forth in Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 10950) of Part 2. Participants shall be subject to sanctions pending the outcome of the formal grievance procedure or any subsequent appeal, only if they fail to participate during the period the grievance procedure is being processed. However, a participant shall not utilize the grievance procedure to appeal the results of an assessment made pursuant to Section 11325.4 or 11326.4.

(c) If a participant is not satisfied with the decision of a hearing conducted pursuant to Section 10950 concerning on-the-job working conditions, workers' compensation coverage, or wage rates used to calculate preemployment preparation hours of participation, the participant may file a further appeal with the United States Department of Labor, as provided by federal law.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivisions (b) and (c), the department shall require the use of any existing grievance procedure that is part of a collective bargaining agreement between the employer and the labor union representing the regular employee, in lieu of the process established by this section.

(e) Remedies for complaining regular employees in the process established by this section shall include, where appropriate, reinstatement, back pay, and back benefits.

SEC. 7. Article 9 (commencing with Section 11520) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 9. GAIN Pilot Program

11520. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the department shall establish a three-year pilot program in Napa, San Diego, Santa Clara, and Stanislaus Counties which would permit each county to waive or modify state requirements as specified in Section 11521 and design its own GAIN program, within federal requirements.

11521. (a) Upon request by a pilot county, the department shall waive the requirements contained in subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 11321.4, Section 11322.4, subdivision (a) of Section 11323, paragraphs (2), (3), and (4) of subdivision (c) of Section 11325.2, subdivision (a) of Section 11325.4, or Section 11326, or all of these.

(b) A participating county may modify its GAIN plan as follows:

(1) For all registrants, except those registrants deferred from participation pursuant to subdivisions (a) to (n), inclusive, of Section 11325, teen parent registrants participating pursuant to Article 3.3 (commencing with Section 11330), and participants in a self-initiated program under subparagraph (A) of paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 11325.2, the county shall conduct an initial assessment prior to program participation. The assessment shall be based upon the individual's educational, child care, and other supportive services needs; the individual's proficiencies, skill deficiencies, and prior work experience; and other factors the county determines are relevant in developing the employability plan.

(2) On the basis of the assessment, the county shall develop an employability plan in consultation with the participant.

(A) The employability plan shall contain all of the following:

(i) An employment goal for the participant.

(ii) A description of the services to be provided, including child care and other supportive services.

(iii) A description of the activities to be undertaken by the participant in order to achieve the employment goal.

(iv) A description of any other needs of the family that might be met, such as participation by a child in drug education or in life skills planning sessions.

(v) If necessary, provision for either remedial education, instruction in order to obtain a general educational development certificate, instruction in English as a second language, pursuant to paragraph (6) of subdivision (c) of Section 11325.2, or any other concurrent or sequential activities pursuant to subdivision (n) of Section 11325.

(B) The employability plan shall take into account all of the following:

(i) Available program resources.

(ii) The participant's supportive services needs.

(iii) The participant's skill level and aptitudes.

(iv) Local employment opportunities.

(v) The preference of the participant, to the maximum extent possible.

(3) The employability plan may be amended upon agreement between the participant subject to subdivision (a) of Section 11325.4 and the county, or modified pursuant to a reassessment made under the conditions described in paragraph (7) of subdivision (c) of Section 11325.2 as necessary.

(4) A participant who remains unemployed at the end of the 90-day job search period specified in subdivision (a) of Section 11325.8 may be reassessed, rather than evaluated and reassigned to an advanced long-term preemployment preparation assignment pursuant to that subdivision.

(5) A participant who does not meet the established criteria for successful completion of the training or education services to which he or she is assigned, as specified in subdivision (b) of Section 11325.8, may be given the opportunity to demonstrate that he or she has good cause for failing to meet that criteria, before being reassigned to a basic long-term preemployment preparation assignment pursuant to that subdivision.

(6) To the extent modifications made pursuant to this subdivision conflict with other provisions of state law relating to the county GAIN plan, those provisions shall be construed as waived.

(7) Counties shall prepare the necessary waiver requests and submit them together with the GAIN county plan amendment needed to implement the pilot project.

(c) Waivers granted pursuant to this article shall not operate to reduce any of the rights or benefits of GAIN registrants or participants under Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320).

11522. The department shall approve the pilot county plans and process waivers in sufficient time to enable pilot counties to fully implement the projects by July 1, 1992.

11523. (a) (1) Each pilot county shall conduct an evaluation of the effectiveness of the pilot program based on measurable objectives, and report to the Legislature annually beginning July 1, 1993.

(2) The evaluation shall include, but not be limited to, the following measurable objectives:

(A) Client satisfaction as measured by a presurvey and postsurvey instrument.

(B) Increases in program completion rates, measured as a proportion of the GAIN participant total.

(C) Increases in employment rates, measured as a proportion of the GAIN participant total.

(D) Decreases in conciliation rates, measured as a proportion of the GAIN participant total.

(E) No increase in the per person average cost of services after adjustment for inflation.

(3) Program outcomes shall be compared to the county performance during the year prior to pilot implementation, as reported to the department on mandated statistical reporting forms.

(4) Cost outcomes shall be compared to the county GAIN costs during the year prior to pilot implementation.

(b) Counties may conduct evaluations pursuant to agreements with local colleges or universities.

SEC. 8. The Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution due to the unique circumstances concerning the GAIN programs in Napa, San Diego, Santa Clara, and Stanislaus Counties.

CHAPTER 1112

An act to add Section 1521.5 to the Health and Safety Code, and to add Section 16507.7 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to children.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1521.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1521.5. (a) The county welfare director shall, prior to the placement of a child in a licensed foster family home, ensure that the county licensing staff or placement agency conducts one or more home interviews with the prospective foster parents sufficient to collect information which may be used by the county welfare department or the placement agency to evaluate the ability, readiness, and willingness of the prospective foster parent to meet the varying needs of a child. In counties in which the county does not have a contract with the state to license foster family homes, the home interview shall be conducted by the placement agency.

(b) All home interviews required by this section shall be conducted on an in person basis.

(c) If the home interview is conducted by the licensing agency, it shall be a part of the licensing record, and shall be shared with the county welfare director or the placement agency pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 1798.24 of the Civil Code.

(d) No license shall be issued unless a home interview has been conducted as required by this section.

SEC. 2. Section 16507.7 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

16507.7. Each agency or entity, except for a community college, which offers a parenting course as part of a family maintenance or family reunification effort for a parent or parents of a child who has been adjudicated or is in the process of being adjudicated a dependent child of the court under Section 300, or whose family is participating in a voluntary family maintenance program, shall meet all of the requirements specified in this section. Effective July 1, 1992, organizations which receive state funding for the purpose of providing parenting courses shall meet those requirements as a condition of receiving state funding. The requirements are as follows:

(a) Each parenting course shall be no more than six months in duration, and shall meet for a specified number of hours determined by each program as sufficient for the program to meet all of the requirements listed in subdivision (b).

(b) The curriculum shall include all of the following components:

(1) Building self-esteem, including, but not limited to, parents' building a positive parental identity and building the self-esteem of their children.

(2) Handling stress and anger.

(3) The growth and development of children, including, but not limited to, safety, nutrition, and health.

(4) Developing and increasing communication skills in order that a parent may learn to listen to and speak with his or her child or children.

(5) Learning to use positive disciplinary mechanisms as alternatives to the physical punishment of a child, including, but not limited to, learning what constitutes abuse and neglect.

(6) Learning the boundaries of permissible sexual conduct by adults with regard to children.

(7) Respect for, and sensitivity to, cultural differences in child rearing practices in addressing all of the topics listed in paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive.

(c) Each parenting course is encouraged to have a maximum parent to teacher ratio of 15 parents for each teacher.

(d) Each parenting course is encouraged to conduct an initial assessment and interview of each parent enrolled in the course.

(e) Each parenting course shall give a preliminary examination prior to the start of the parenting course and an examination at the conclusion of the parenting course to measure changes in parental attitudes.

(f) Each parenting course shall enter into a written agreement with each parent with respect to the responsibilities a parent must satisfy in order to pass the course.

(g) The staff of each parenting course shall have training in the following areas:

(1) The prevention of child abuse and neglect.

(2) Parenting techniques.

(h) Each parenting course shall provide all of the following information to the county welfare department of the county in which the course is taught, for clients referred through child welfare services programs:

(1) Level of participation by parents.

(2) Number of course hours completed.

(3) Topics covered during attendance in class by a parent and topics covered during a parent's absence from class.

(4) Assessment of a parent's gain in his or her knowledge about parenting as demonstrated by tests prior to and after the parenting course.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1113

An act to amend Section 19606.5 of, to amend and repeal Section 19641 of, and to add and repeal Section 19613.6 of, the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19606.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19606.5. Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 19641, the state shall receive as additional license fees 50 percent of any redistributable money in a parimutuel pool arising from wagers at a satellite wagering facility in the central or southern zone, subject to payment to a claimant pursuant to Section 19598, but not successfully claimed within that period, and the funds shall be deposited in the General Fund. The remaining 50 percent of redistributable money in a parimutuel pool arising from wagers at a satellite wagering facility shall be paid to a welfare fund established by the horsemen's organization contracting with the association conducting the racing meeting for the benefit of horsemen, and that organization shall make an accounting to the board within one calendar year of the receipt of the payment.

SEC. 1.5. Section 19613.6 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

19613.6. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the organization referred to in subdivision (a) of Section 19613.2 that represents thoroughbred horsemen may elect to contribute the purses from one race conducted annually by each licensed thoroughbred racing association or fair to a welfare fund. The contribution shall be used for the benefit of horsemen, and the organization shall make an accounting to the board within one calendar year of the receipt of the contribution. The designation of a specific race from which the horsemen elect to contribute the purses is subject to the mutual agreement of the horsemen's organization and the racing association or fair which conducts the race.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 19641 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 1283 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

19641. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), 126 days after the close of any horseracing meeting, an amount equal to 90 percent of any redistributable money in a parimutuel pool subject to payment to a claimant pursuant to Section 19598, but not successfully claimed within that period, shall be paid to the board.

The money received by the board under this subdivision resulting from thoroughbred, harness, or quarter horse meetings, but excluding the meetings of the California Exposition and State Fair or of a county, district agricultural association, or citrus fruit fair, shall be used by the board to support research on matters pertaining to horseracing and racetrack security, but this money is subject to annual budgetary review by the Legislature. All of the redistributable money received by the board from other meetings shall be paid immediately into the State Treasury to the credit of the General Fund.

(b) One hundred twenty-six days after the close of any horseracing meeting, one-half of the redistributable money resulting from the thoroughbred, harness, or quarter horse meetings, but excluding the meetings of the California Exposition and State Fair or county, district agricultural association, or citrus fruit fair meetings, shall be distributed to a welfare fund established by the horsemen's organization contracting with the association with respect to the conduct of racing meetings for the benefit of horsemen, and that organization shall make an accounting to the board within one calendar year of the receipt of the payment.

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (a) or (b), 140 days after the close of any horseracing meeting, any remaining redistributable money in a parimutuel pool subject to payment to a claimant pursuant to Section 19598, but not successfully claimed within that period, shall be distributed one-half to the board, for the purposes specified in subdivision (a), and one-half to the welfare fund established by the horsemen's organization described in subdivision

(b).

SEC. 3. Section 19641 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by Section 3 of Chapter 1283 of the Statutes of 1990, is repealed.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for the provisions of this act to be applicable during the 1991 racing season, it is necessary that this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1114

An act to amend Sections 4980.44 and 4980.47 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to marriage, family, and child counselors, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4980.44 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4980.44. (a) An unlicensed marriage, family, and child counselor intern employed under this chapter shall:

(1) Have earned at least a master's degree as specified in Section 4980.40.

(2) Be registered with the board prior to the intern performing any duties, except as otherwise provided in subdivision (e) of Section 4980.43.

(3) File for renewal of registration annually for a maximum of five years after initial registration with the board.

(4) Inform each client or patient prior to performing any professional services that he or she is unlicensed and under the supervision of a licensed marriage, family, and child counselor, licensed clinical social worker, licensed psychologist, licensed physician certified in psychiatry by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology, or a licensed physician who has completed a residency in psychiatry and who is described in subdivision (f) of Section 4980.40, whichever is applicable. Continued employment as an unlicensed marriage, family, and child counselor intern shall cease after six years unless the requirements of subdivision (b) are met.

(b) Notwithstanding the limitations on the length of an internship registration in subdivision (a), an intern may apply for and the board shall grant extensions of the six-year period when the intern meets the educational requirements in effect at the time of the application for an extension and there are no grounds for denial, suspension, or revocation of the registration pursuant to this chapter. An intern shall be eligible to receive a maximum of three extensions. An intern who practices pursuant to an extension shall not practice independently and shall comply with all requirements of this chapter governing experience, including supervision, even if the intern has completed the hours of experience required for licensure. Each extension shall be valid for a period of one year. Each extension shall commence on either the date on which the last intern renewal expires or the date the extension expires, whichever is applicable. An application for an extension shall be made on a form prescribed by the board and shall be accompanied by the fee prescribed in Section 4984.7 for renewal of an intern registration. An intern who is granted this extension may work in all allowable work settings.

This subdivision shall also apply to any intern whose maximum six-year registration expired on or after December 31, 1989, and who applies for an extension on or before January 1, 1993, provided the intern meets the educational requirements in effect at the time of that application for an extension and there are no grounds for denial, suspension, or revocation of the registration pursuant to this chapter. The board shall credit toward the licensure requirement those hours of experience gained between December 31, 1989, and January 1, 1993, in any allowable work setting other than private practice, provided those hours of experience meet all criteria for acceptable experience.

SEC. 2. Section 4980.47 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4980.47. (a) All trainees shall register with the board, on a form prescribed by the board, in order to be credited for hours of experience gained toward licensure. The form for trainee registration shall be submitted prior to the commencement of gaining trainee hours of experience. This section shall not affect hours of experience gained pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 4980.42.

(b) The form for trainee registration shall contain the full name and mailing address of the applicant, the full name and address of the school where the applicant is enrolled, the date of enrollment, and the name of the degree to be granted. The fee for registration shall be twenty-five dollars ($25) and shall accompany the form.

This section applies to those persons who enroll in qualifying degree programs on or after January 1, 1990.

CHAPTER 1115

An act to amend Section 8670.3 of the Government Code, to amend Section 8750 of the Public Resources Code, and to amend Section 46016 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to oil spills.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8670.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8670.3. Unless the context requires otherwise, the following definitions shall govern the construction of this chapter:

(a) "Administrator" means the administrator for oil spill response appointed by the Governor pursuant to Section 8670.4.

(b) "Barges" means any vessel that carries oil in commercial quantities as cargo but is not equipped with a means of self-propulsion.

(c) "Best achievable protection" means that the highest level of protection which can be achieved through both the use of the best achievable technology and those manpower levels, training procedures, and operational methods which provide the greatest degree of protection achievable. The administrator's determination of best achievable protection shall be guided by the critical need to protect valuable coastal resources and marine waters, while also considering (1) the protection provided by the measures, (2) the technological achievability of the measures, and (3) the cost of the measures.

It is not the intent of the Legislature that the administrator use a cost-benefit or cost-effectiveness analysis or any particular method of analysis in determining which measures to require. Instead, it is the intent of the Legislature that the administrator give reasonable consideration to the protection provided by the measures, the technological achievability of the measures, and the cost of the measures when establishing the requirements to provide the best achievable protection for coastal and marine resources.

(d) "Best achievable technology" means that technology which provides the greatest degree of protection taking into consideration (1) processes which are being developed, or could feasibly be developed anywhere in the world, given overall reasonable expenditures on research and development, and (2) processes which are currently in use anywhere in the world. In determining what is best achievable technology, the administrator shall consider the effectiveness and engineering feasibility of the technology.

(e) "Local government" means any chartered or general law city, chartered or general law county, or any city and county.

(f) "Marine facility" means any facility of any kind, other than a vessel, which is or was used for the purposes of exploring for, drilling for, producing, storing, handling, transferring, processing, refining, or transporting oil and is located in marine waters, or is located where a discharge could impact marine waters unless the facility (1) is subject to Chapter 6.67 (commencing with Section 25270) or Chapter 6.75 (commencing with Section 25299.10) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code or (2) is placed on a farm, nursery, logging site, small craft marina, or construction site and does not exceed 20,000 gallons in a single storage tank. For purposes of this chapter, a small craft marina is (1) a small craft storage facility delineated by a project area that was wholly or partially funded by the Harbors and Watercraft Revolving Fund, serving small craft for pleasure or commercial use or (2) any other marina with similar sized boat slips. For the purposes of this chapter, a drill ship, semisubmersible drilling platform, jack-up type drilling rig, or any other floating or temporary drilling platform is a "marine facility."

(g) "Marine terminal" means any marine facility used for transferring oil to or from tankers or barges. For the purposes of this section, a marine terminal includes all piping not integrally connected to a tank facility as defined in subdivision (k) of Section 25270.2 of the Health and Safety Code.

(h) "Marine waters" means those waters subject to tidal influence, except for waters in the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta upstream from a line running north and south through the point where Contra Costa, Sacramento, and Solano Counties meet.

(i) "Oil" means any kind of petroleum, liquid hydrocarbons, or petroleum products or any fraction or residues therefrom, including, but not limited to, crude oil, bunker fuel, gasoline, diesel fuel, aviation fuel, oil sludge, oil refuse, oil mixed with waste, and liquid distillates from unprocessed natural gas.

(j) "Onshore facility" means any facility of any kind which is located entirely on lands not covered by marine waters.

(k) (1) "Owner" or "operator" means any of the following:

(A) In the case of a vessel, any person who owns, has an ownership interest in, operates, charters by demise, or leases, the vessel.

(B) In the case of a marine facility, any person who owns, has an ownership interest in, or operates the marine facility.

(C) Except as provided in subparagraph (D), in the case of any vessel or marine facility, title or control of which was conveyed due to bankruptcy, foreclosure, tax delinquency, abandonment, or similar means to an entity of state or local government, any person who owned, held an ownership interest in, operated, or otherwise controlled activities concerning the vessel or facility immediately beforehand.

(D) An entity of the state or local government which acquired ownership or control of a vessel or marine facility, when the entity of the state or local government has caused or contributed to a spill or discharge or oil into marine waters.

(2) "Owner" or "operator" does not include a person who, without participating in the management of a vessel or marine facility, holds indicia of ownership primarily to protect his or her security interest in the vessel or marine facility.

(3) "Operator" does not include any person who owns the land underlying a marine facility or the facility itself if the person is not involved in the operations of the facility.

(l) "Person" means any individual, trust, firm, joint stock company, or corporation, including, but not limited to, a government corporation, partnership, and association. "Person" also includes any city, county, city and county, district, and the state or any department or agency thereof, and the federal government, or any department or agency thereof, to the extent permitted by law.

(m) "Pipeline" means any pipeline used at any time to transport oil.

(n) "Responsible party" or "party responsible" means any of the following:

(1) The owner or transporter of oil or a person or entity accepting responsibility for the oil.

(2) The owner, operator, or lessee of, or person who charters by demise, any vessel or marine facility, or a person or entity accepting responsibility for the vessel or marine facility.

(o) "Spill" or "discharge" means any release of at least one barrel (42 gallons) of oil into marine waters which is not authorized by any federal, state, or local government entity.

(p) "State Interagency Oil Spill Committee" means the committee established pursuant to Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 8574.1) of Chapter 7.

(q) "State oil spill contingency plan" means the state oil spill contingency plan prepared pursuant to Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 8574.1) of Chapter 7.

(r) "Tanker" means any self-propelled, waterborne vessel, constructed or adapted for the carriage of oil in bulk or in commercial quantities as cargo.

(s) "Vessel" means a tanker or barge as defined in this section.

SEC. 2. Section 8750 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

8750. Unless the context requires otherwise, the following definitions govern the construction of this division:

(a) "Administrator" means the administrator for oil spill response appointed by the Governor pursuant to Section 8670.4 of the Government Code.

(b) "Barges" means any vessel that carries oil in commercial quantities as cargo but is not equipped with a means of self-propulsion.

(c) "Best achievable protection" means the highest level of protection which can be achieved through both the use of the best achievable technology and those manpower levels, training procedures, and operational methods which provide the greatest degree of protection achievable. The administrator's determination of best achievable protection shall be guided by the critical need to protect valuable coastal resources and marine waters, while also considering (1) the protection provided by the measures, (2) the technological achievability of the measures, and (3) the cost of the measures.

It is not the intent of the Legislature that the administrator use a cost-benefit or cost-effectiveness analysis or any particular method of analysis in determining which measures to require. Instead, it is the intent of the Legislature that the administrator give reasonable consideration to the protection provided by the measures, the technological achievability of the measures, and the cost of the measures when establishing the requirements to provide the best achievable protection for coastal and marine resources.

(d) "Best achievable technology" means that technology which provides the greatest degree of protection taking into consideration (1) processes which are being developed, or could feasibly be developed anywhere in the world, given overall reasonable expenditures on research and development, and (2) processes which are currently in use anywhere in the world. In determining what is best achievable technology, the administrator shall consider the effectiveness and engineering feasibility of the technology.

(e) "Commission" means the State Lands Commission.

(f) "Local government" means any chartered or general law city, chartered or general law county or any city and county.

(g) "Marine facility" means any facility of any kind, other than a vessel, which is or was used for the purposes of exploring for, drilling for, producing, storing, handling, transferring, processing, refining, or transporting oil and is located in marine waters, or is located where a discharge could impact marine waters unless the facility (1) is subject to Chapter 6.67 (commencing with Section 25270) or Chapter 6.75 (commencing with Section 25299.10) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code or (2) is placed on a farm, nursery, logging site, small craft harbor, or construction site and does not exceed 20,000 gallons in a single storage tank. For purposes of this division, a small craft marina is (1) a small craft storage facility delineated by a project area that was wholly or partially funded by the Harbors and Watercraft Revolving Fund, serving small craft for pleasure or commercial use or (2) any other marina with similar sized boat slips. For the purposes of this division, a drill ship, semisubmersible drilling platform, jack-up type drilling rig, or any other floating or temporary drilling platform is a "marine facility."

(h) "Marine terminal" means any marine facility used for transferring oil to or from tankers or barges. For the purposes of this section, a marine terminal includes all piping not integrally connected to a tank facility as defined in subdivision (k) of Section 25270.2 of the Health and Safety Code.

(i) "Marine waters" means those waters subject to tidal influence, except for waters in the Sacramento-San Joaquin Rivers and Delta upstream from a line running north and south through the point where Contra Costa, Sacramento, and Solano Counties meet.

(j) "Oil" means any kind of petroleum, liquid hydrocarbons, or petroleum products or any fraction or residues therefrom, including, but not limited to, crude oil, bunker fuel, gasoline, diesel fuel, aviation fuel, oil sludge, oil refuse, oil mixed with waste, and liquid distillates from unprocessed natural gas.

(k) "Onshore facility" means any facility of any kind which is located entirely on lands not covered by marine waters.

(l) "Operator" when used in connection with vessels, marine terminals, pipelines, or facilities, means any person or entity which owns, has an ownership interest in, charters, leases, rents, operates, participates in the operation of or uses that vessel, terminal, pipeline, or facility. "Operator" does not include any entity which owns the land underlying the facility or the facility itself, where the entity is not involved in the operations of the facility.

(m) "Person" means an individual, trust, firm, joint stock company, or corporation, including, but not limited to, a government corporation, partnership, and association. "Person" also includes any city, county, city and county, district, and the state or any department or agency thereof, and the federal government, or any department or agency thereof, to the extent permitted by law.

(n) "Pipeline" means any pipeline used at any time to transport oil.

(o) "Responsible party" or "party responsible" means either of the following:

(1) The owner or transporter of oil or a person or entity accepting responsibility for the oil.

(2) The owner, operator, or lessee of, or person who charters by demise, any vessel or marine facility or a person or entity accepting responsibility for the vessel or marine facility.

(p) "Spill" or "discharge" means any release of at least one barrel (42 gallons) of oil not authorized by any federal, state, or local government entity.

(q) "State oil spill contingency plan" means the state oil spill contingency plan prepared pursuant to Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 8574.1) of Chapter 7 of Division 1 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(r) "Tanker" means any self-propelled, waterborne vessel, constructed or adapted for the carriage of oil in bulk or in commercial quantities as cargo.

(s) "Vessel" means a tanker or barge as defined in this section.

SEC. 3. Section 46016 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

46016. "Marine facility" means any facility of any kind, other than a vessel, which is or was used for the purposes of exploring for, drilling for, producing, storing, handling, transferring, processing, refining, or transporting crude oil or petroleum products and is located in marine waters, or is located where a discharge could impact marine waters unless the facility , (1) is subject to Chapter

6.67 (commencing with Section 25270) or Chapter 6.75 (commencing with Section 25299.10) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code or, (2) is placed on a farm, nursery, logging site, small craft marina, or construction site and does not exceed 20,000 gallons in a single storage tank. For purposes of this part, a small craft marina is (1) a small craft storage facility delineated by a project area that was wholly or partially funded by the Harbors and Watercraft Revolving Fund, serving small craft for pleasure or commercial use or (2) any other marina with similar sized boat slips. For the purposes of this part, a drill ship, semisubmersible drilling platform, jack-up type drilling rig, or any other floating or temporary drilling platform is a "marine facility."

CHAPTER 1116

An act to amend Sections 785, 786.5, and 788.5 of, and to add Sections 789.6, and 789.7 to, the Insurance Code, relating to health insurance, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 785 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

785. (a) All insurers, brokers, agents, and others engaged in the transaction of insurance owe a prospective insured who is age 65 years or older, a duty of honesty, good faith, and fair dealing. This duty is in addition to any other duty, whether express or implied, that may exist.

(b) Conduct of an insurer, broker, or agent, or other person engaged in the transaction of insurance, during the offer and sale of a policy or certificate previous to the purchase is relevant to any action alleging a breach of the duty of good faith and fair dealing.

(c) Except where explicitly provided to the contrary, this article shall not apply to any of the following:

(1) Medicare supplement insurance as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 10192.1.

(2) Long-term care insurance as defined in Section 10231.2.

(3) Disability coverage provided through the insured's employer or former employer.

(4) Disability insurance policies or certificates principally designed to provide coverage for accidents or expenses incurred while traveling if the premium for the policy or certificate is ten dollars ($10) or less.

(5) Blanket disability insurance as defined in Section 10270.3.

(6) Credit disability insurance as defined in Section 779.2.

(7) Accidental death insurance.

(8) Until January 1, 1997, disability policies or certificates which are sold through direct response methods of delivery.

(9) Disability income insurance as defined in subdivision (i) of Section 799.01.

(d) Until December 31, 1993, Sections 786, 786.5, and 788, subdivision (c) of Section 788.5, and Sections 788.7 and 789.6 shall not apply to transportation ticket policies and baggage insurance policy types allowable for sale by travel agents pursuant to Section 1753.

SEC. 2. Section 786.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

786.5. (a) All brokers, agents, or other entities offering a policy or certificate of disability insurance to persons age 65 or older in this state shall provide the prospective insured with a full and accurate written comparison with existing health coverage, and shall explain the relationship of the proposed coverage to any existing health benefits provided by Medicare, Medi-Cal, or any other health benefits available to the applicant. The written comparison shall be maintained in accordance with Section 10508.5.

(b) The commissioner may prescribe a standard comparison form and an informational brochure which shall be distributed to every prospective insured at the time insurance is offered for sale by an agent, broker, or other producer. In the case of a transportation ticket policy, the informational brochures shall be delivered to the prospective insured no later than delivery of the policy or certificate.

SEC. 3. Section 788.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

788.5. No insurer, broker, agent, or other person shall cause an insured aged 65 years or older to replace a disability insurance policy or certificate unnecessarily.

(a) No insurer, broker, agent, or other entity within the jurisdiction of the department shall promote or cause overloading of disability coverage to persons aged 65 years or older. For purposes of this section, "overloading" means possession by an insured of functionally identical coverages that overlap or duplicate benefits to the extent that a reasonable person would not consider their ownership to be cost-effective.

(b) It shall be presumed that the sale of disability insurance that is the subject of this article, sold to a person aged 65 years or older, is overloading, as defined in subdivision (a), if the insured is already covered by Medicare Parts A and B as well as one Medicare supplement policy, certificate, or contract and coverage for excess charges under Part B.

(c) The application for disability insurance for a person age 65 years or older shall contain a question or questions designed to elicit information regarding all other existing health and disability coverage in force by type and company.

SEC. 4. Section 789.6 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

789.6. (a) Insurance policies or certificates of disability insurance sold to persons age 65 or older shall return to policyholders or certificate holders benefits that have a minimum loss ratio of 60 percent for individual policies and 75 percent for group policies. The loss ratio shall be on the basis of incurred claims experience and earned premiums.

(b) The commissioner shall require every entity providing insurance policies or certificates of disability insurance sold to persons age 65 or older in this state to maintain detailed experience data for policies and certificates subject to this section and require them to make an annual filing with the commissioner disclosing the loss ratio for each policy form or certificate subject to this section. The annual filing shall, at a minimum, include rates, rating schedules, and supporting documentation including ratios of incurred losses to earned premiums by number of years of policy duration. That information shall demonstrate that each policy form or certificate is in compliance with the applicable loss ratio standards.

(c) The commissioner shall assure that reserves are reasonable and based on sound actuarial principles with respect to the aggregate dollar amount of reserves for claims that are incurred but not yet paid, and for claims that are incurred but not yet reported.

(d) Policy forms or certificates shall be deemed to comply with the purposes of this section if the expected losses in relation to premiums over the entire period for which the policy form is rated comply with the requirements of this section and either of the following applies:

(1) For policies or certificates that have been in force for three years of more, for the most recent year the ratio of incurred losses to earned premiums is greater than or equal to the minimum loss ratios established by this section.

(2) For policies or certificates that have been in force for three years or less, the expected third year loss ratio can be demonstrated to be greater than or equal to the minimum loss ratio.

(e) If the annual filing or other information received by the commissioner indicates that the actual loss ratio for a policy or certificate is less than the minimum loss ratio established by this section, the commissioner shall require that the insurer or entity providing the insurance file and implement a corrective plan. This plan shall include the utilization of premium reductions, dividends, benefit increases, or any combination of these or other methods so that the minimum loss ratio can be reasonably expected to be achieved. Any corrective plan shall be reviewed and approved by the commissioner prior to implementation.

(f) If, in the opinion of the commissioner, a policy's or certificate's failure to meet the minimum loss ratio requirements is due to unusual reserve fluctuations, economic conditions, or other nonrecurring conditions, the commissioner may exempt the policy or certificate from the need for a corrective plan for that year. Any exemption shall be in writing and shall specify the reasons for the granting of the exemption.

(g) If the insurer or other entity providing disability insurance to persons 65 years of age or older in this state fails to file and implement a corrective plan in a timely manner, the commissioner shall withdraw approval of the policy or certificate according to the procedures set forth in Section 10293. This remedy is in addition to any remedy available in that section or under other laws of this state. Any report, plan, exemption, or other document prepared pursuant to this section shall be accessible to the public as a public record.

(h) The commissioner may adopt regulations to implement or administer this article.

SEC. 5. Section 789.7 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

789.7. (a) Sales of disability insurance regulated by this article, as well as Medicare supplement insurance and long-term care insurance sold to persons aged 65 years or older, shall be registered by the insurer with the commissioner. The commissioner shall provide facilities for the computerized recordkeeping of all registered policies and certificates. The commissioner shall adopt regulations to implement and administer registration pursuant to this section. Regulations shall include, but need not be limited to, a system for assessing insurers in accordance with each insurer's market share in order to finance the cost of registration, an appropriate method and schedule for the filing of data with the commissioner, the content and format required for each filing in accordance with subdivision (d), appropriate sanctions for failure to comply with this section or with regulations promulgated under this section, and criteria for releasing the registered information to parties outside the department.

(b) Access to the registered information, including the identity of policyholders, shall be strictly limited to the department, with the exception that the Attorney General, a district attorney, or city attorney may be granted access upon request for the purpose of investigating or prosecuting suspected unlawful practices or for purposes of this article. The commissioner may, at his or her discretion, allow access to the registered information to the Health Insurance Counseling and Advocacy Program in the Department of Aging.

(c) Access to registered information in a purely statistical format, which neither identifies nor enables identification of a particular policyholder, may be released at the discretion of the commissioner to any party who demonstrates that the information will be used only for other than commercial purposes.

(d) The content of the filing shall contain no more than the following information:

(1) Policyholder's Medicare identification number or social security number. The policyholder's name shall be specifically excluded from the filing.

(2) A description of the policy as being Medicare supplemental insurance; long-term care insurance; or disability insurance.

(3) Date of sale.

(4) Date of lapse.

(5) Whether the policy is in force as of the date of the filing.

(6) The policy form number, if applicable.

(7) The name of any insurer, broker, agent, or other person engaged in the transaction of insurance who was responsible for the sale of the policy.

CHAPTER 1117

An act to add Section 55338 to the Water Code, relating to water, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 55338 is added to the Water Code, to read:

55338. (a) The Department of Corrections and the Los Angeles County Waterworks District No. 4 shall enter into a contract for the district to meet the operational needs of the California State Prison—Los Angeles County for water, to be supplied to the district by the Antelope Valley-East Kern Water Agency.

(b) The Department of Corrections shall use the water supplied to it by the Los Angeles County Waterworks District No. 4 pursuant to subdivision (a) as its primary source of water and shall use the Antelope Valley groundwater basin only as a supplementary source of drinking water or as an emergency backup supply.

(c) Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code does not apply to any action undertaken pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b).

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to facilitate the provision of water to the California State Prison—Los Angeles County by the Los Angeles County Waterworks District No. 4, as soon as possible, thereby protecting the public health and safety, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1118

An act to amend Sections 25995, 25995.1, 25995.3, 25995.4, 25995.5, 25995.8, and 25996.91 of, to add Sections 25995.60, 25995.70, 25995.71, 25995.72, 25995.73, 25995.74, 25995.75, 25995.76, 25995.77, 25995.78, and 25996.10 to, and to add Chapter 13.7 (commencing with Section 25989.500) to Division 20 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to dogs and cats.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 13.7 (commencing with Section 25989.500) is added to Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 13.7. SALE OF DOGS BY BREEDERS

25989.500. (a) This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Polanco-Lockyer Pet Breeder Warranty Act.

(b) Every breeder of dogs shall comply with this chapter. As used in this chapter, "dog breeder," or "breeder" means a person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other association that has sold, transferred, or given away 50 or more dogs during the proceeding calendar year that were bred and reared on the premises of the person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other association.

(c) For the purposes of this chapter, "purchaser" means any person who purchases a dog from a breeder.

(d) This chapter shall not apply to pet dealers regulated under Chapter 14.5 (commencing with Section 25995), or to publicly operated pounds, humane societies, or privately operated rescue organizations.

25989.505. (a) Every breeder of dogs shall deliver to each purchaser of a dog a written disclosure containing all of the following:

(1) The breeder's name and address. If the breeder is a dealer licensed by the United States Department of Agriculture, the federal dealer identification number shall also be indicated.

(2) The date of the dog's birth and the date the breeder received the dog. If the dog is not advertised or sold as purebred, registered, or registerable, the date of birth may be approximated if not known by the breeder.

(3) The breed, sex, color, and identifying marks at the time of sale, if any. If the dog is from a United States Department of Agriculture licensed source, the individual identifying tag, tattoo, or collar number for that animal. If the breed is unknown or mixed, the record shall so indicate.

(4) If the dog is being sold as being capable of registration, the names and registration numbers of the sire and dam, and the litter number, if known.

(5) A record of inoculations and worming treatments administered, if any, to the dog as of the time of sale, including dates of administration and the type of vaccine or worming treatment.

(6) A record of any veterinarian treatment or medication received by the dog while in the possession of the breeder and either of the following:

(A) A statement, signed by the breeder at the time of sale, that:

(i) The dog has no known disease or illness.

(ii) The dog has no known congenital or hereditary condition that adversely affects the health of the dog at the time of the sale or that is likely to adversely affect the health of the dog in the future.

(B) A record of any known disease, illness, or congenital or hereditary condition that adversely affects the health of the dog at the time of sale, or that is likely to affect the health of the dog in the future, along with a statement signed by a veterinarian licensed in the State of California that authorizes the sale of the dog, recommends necessary treatment, if any, and verifies that the disease, illness, or condition does not require hospitalization or nonelective surgical procedures, nor is it likely to require hospitalization or nonelective surgical procedures in the future. A veterinarian statement is not required for intestinal or external parasites unless their presence makes the dog clinically ill or is likely to make the dog clinically ill. The statement shall be valid for seven days following examination of the dog by the veterinarian.

(b) The written disclosure made pursuant to this section shall be signed by both the breeder certifying the accuracy of the statement, and by the purchaser of the dog acknowledging receipt of the statement.

(c) In addition, all medical information required to be disclosed pursuant to this section shall be made orally by the breeder to the purchaser.

(d) For purposes of this chapter, a disease, illness, or congenital or hereditary condition that adversely affects the health of the dog at the time of sale, or is likely to adversely affect the health of the dog in the future, shall be one which is apparent at the time of sale or which should have been known by the breeder from the history of veterinary treatment disclosed pursuant to this section.

(e) For the purpose of this chapter, "nonelective surgical procedure" means a surgical procedure that is necessary to preserve or restore the health of the dog, to prevent the dog from experiencing pain or discomfort, or to correct a condition that would otherwise interfere with the dog's ability to walk, run, jump, or otherwise function in a normal manner.

(f) For the purposes of this chapter, "clinically ill" means an illness which is apparent to a veterinarian based on observation, examination, or testing of the dog, or upon a review of the medical records relating to the dog.

25989.510. A breeder shall maintain a written record on the health, status, and disposition of each dog for a period of not less than one year after disposition of the dog. The record shall also include all of the information which the breeder is required to disclose pursuant to Section 25989.505.

25989.520. Except as provided for in paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 25989.505, no breeder shall knowingly sell a dog which is diseased, ill or has a condition, any one of which that requires hospitalization or nonelective surgical procedures. In lieu of the civil penalties imposed pursuant to Section 25989.570, any breeder who violates this section shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to one thousand dollars ($1,000), or shall be prohibited from selling dogs for up to 30 days, or both. If there is a second offense, the breeder shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), or a prohibition from selling dogs for up to 90 days, or both. For a third offense, the breeder shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to five thousand dollars ($5,000), or a prohibition from selling dogs for up to six months, or both. For a fourth and subsequent offense, the breeder shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or a prohibition from selling dogs for up to one year, or both. For the purpose of this section, a violation which occurred over five years prior to the most recent violation shall not be considered.

An action for recovery of the civil penalty and for a court order enjoining the breeder from engaging in the business of selling dogs at retail for the period set forth in this section, may be prosecuted by the district attorney for the county in which the violation occurred, or the city attorney for the city in which the violation occurred, in the appropriate court.

25989.525. It shall be unlawful for a breeder to fail to do any of the following:

(a) Maintain facilities in which the dogs are kept in a sanitary condition.

(b) Provide dogs with adequate nutrition and potable water.

(c) Provide adequate space appropriate to the age, size, weight, and breed of dog. For purposes of this subdivision, "adequate space" means sufficient space for the dog to stand up, sit down, and turn about freely using normal body movements, without the head touching the top of the cage, and to lie in a natural position.

(d) Provide dogs housed on wire flooring with a rest board, floormat, or similar device that can be maintained in a sanitary condition.

(e) Provide dogs with adequate socialization and exercise. For the purpose of this chapter, "socialization" means physical contact with other dogs or with human beings.

(f) Wash hands before and after handling each infectious or contagious dog.

(g) Provide veterinary care without delay when necessary.

25989.530. (a) If a licensed veterinarian states in writing that within 15 days after the purchaser has taken physical possession of a dog following the sale by a breeder, the dog has become ill due to any illness or disease which existed in the dog on or before delivery of the dog to the purchaser, or, if within one year after the purchaser has taken physical possession of the dog after the sale by a breeder, a veterinarian licensed in this state states in writing that the dog has a congenital or hereditary condition which adversely affects the health of the dog, or which requires, or is likely in the future to require, hospitalization or nonelective surgical procedures, the dog shall be considered unfit for sale, and the breeder shall provide the purchaser with any of the following remedies which the purchaser elects:

(1) Return the dog to the breeder for a refund of the purchase price, plus sales tax, and reimbursement for reasonable veterinary fees for diagnosis and treating the dog in an amount not to exceed the original purchase price of the dog, including sales tax.

(2) Exchange the dog for a dog of the purchaser's choice of equivalent value, providing a replacement dog is available, and receive reimbursement for reasonable veterinary fees for diagnosis and treating the dog in an amount not to exceed the original purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax on the original purchase price of the dog.

(3) Retain the dog, and receive reimbursement for reasonable veterinary fees for diagnosis and treating the dog in an amount not to exceed 150 percent of the original purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax.

(b) If the dog has died, regardless of the date of death of the dog, obtain a refund for the purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax, or a replacement dog of equivalent value of the purchaser's choice, and reimbursement for reasonable veterinary fees for diagnosis and treatment of the dog in an amount not to exceed the purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax, if any of the following conditions exist:

(1) A veterinarian, licensed in this state, states in writing that the dog has died due to an illness or disease which existed within 15 days after the purchaser obtained physical possession of the dog after the sale by a breeder.

(2) A veterinarian, licensed in this state, states in writing that the dog has died due to a congenital or hereditary condition which was diagnosed by the veterinarian within one year after the purchaser obtained physical possession of the dog after the sale by a breeder.

25989.535. (a) There shall be a rebuttable presumption that an illness existed at the time of sale if the animal dies within 15 days of delivery to the purchaser.

(b) For purposes of Section 25989.530, a finding by a veterinarian of intestinal or external parasites shall not be grounds for declaring a dog unfit for sale unless their presence makes the dog clinically ill or is likely to make the dog clinically ill.

(c) For purposes of Section 25989.530, the value of veterinary services shall be deemed reasonable if the services rendered are appropriate for the diagnosis and treatment of illness or congenital or hereditary condition made by the veterinarian and the value of the services is comparable to the value of similar services rendered by other licensed veterinarians in proximity to the treating veterinarian.

25989.540. To obtain the remedies provided for in Section 25989.530, the purchaser shall substantially comply with all of the following requirements:

(a) Notify the breeder as soon as possible but no later than five days of the diagnosis by a veterinarian licensed in this state of a medical or health problem, including a congenital or hereditary condition and of the name and telephone number of the veterinarian providing the diagnosis.

(b) Return the dog to the breeder, in the case of illness or congenital or hereditary condition, along with a written statement from a veterinarian licensed in this state, stating the dog to be unfit for purchase due to illness, a congenital or hereditary condition, or the presence of symptoms of a contagious or infectious disease, which existed on or before delivery of the dog to the purchaser, and which adversely affects the health of the dog. The purchaser shall return the dog along with a copy of the veterinarian's statement as soon as possible but no later than five days of receipt of the veterinarian's statement.

(c) Provide the breeder, in the event of death, with a written statement from a veterinarian licensed in this state stating that the dog died from an illness which existed on or before the delivery of the dog to the purchaser. The presentation of the statement shall be sufficient proof to claim reimbursement or replacement and the return of the deceased dog to the breeder shall not be required.

25989.545. No refund, replacement, or reimbursement of veterinary fees shall be made under Section 25989.530 if any of the following conditions exist:

(a) The illness, condition, or death resulted from maltreatment or neglect or from an injury sustained or an illness or condition contracted subsequent to the delivery of the dog to the purchaser.

(b) The purchaser fails to carry out the recommended treatment prescribed by the examining veterinarian who made the initial diagnosis. However, this subdivision shall not apply if the cost for the treatment together with the veterinarian's fee for the diagnosis would exceed the purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax.

(c) A veterinarian's statement was provided to the purchaser pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 25989.505 which disclosed the disease, illness, or condition for which the purchaser seeks to return the dog. However, this subdivision shall not apply if, within one year after the purchaser took physical possession of the dog, a veterinarian licensed in this state states in writing that the disease, illness, or condition requires, or is likely in the future to require, hospitalization or nonelective surgical procedures or that the disease, illness, or condition resulted in the death of the dog.

(d) The purchaser refuses to return to the breeder all documents previously provided to the purchaser for the purpose of registering the dog. This subdivision shall not apply if the purchaser signs a statement certifying that the documents have been inadvertently lost or destroyed.

25989.550. (a) The veterinarian's statement pursuant to Section 25989.530 shall contain all of the following information:

(1) The purchaser's name and address.

(2) The date or dates the dog was examined.

(3) The breed and age of the dog, if known.

(4) That the veterinarian examined the dog.

(5) That the dog has or had disease, illness, or a hereditary or congenital condition, as described in Section 25989.505 which renders it unfit for purchase or resulted in its death.

(6) The precise findings of the examination or necropsy, including laboratory results or copies of laboratory reports.

(b) If a refund for reasonable veterinary expenses is being requested, the veterinarian's statement shall be accompanied by an itemized bill of fees appropriate for the diagnosis and treatment of the illness or congenital or hereditary condition.

(c) Refunds and payment of reimbursable expenses provided for in Section 25989.530 shall be paid, unless contested, by the breeder to the purchaser not later than 10 business days following receipt of the veterinarian's statement required by Section 25989.530 or, where applicable, not later than 10 business days after the date on which the dog is returned to the breeder.

25989.555. (a) In the event that a breeder wishes to contest a demand for any of the remedies specified in Section 25989.530, the breeder may, except in the case of the death of the dog, require the purchaser to produce the dog for examination by a licensed veterinarian designated by the breeder. The breeder shall pay the cost of this examination.

(b) If the purchaser and the breeder are unable to reach an agreement within 10 business days following receipt by the breeder of the veterinarian's statement pursuant to Section 25989.530, or following receipt of the dog for examination by a veterinarian designated by the breeder, whichever is later, the purchaser may initiate an action in a court of competent jurisdiction to resolve the dispute or the parties may submit to binding arbitration if mutually agreed upon by the parties in writing.

(c) The prevailing party in the dispute shall have the right to collect reasonable attorney's fees if the other party acted in bad faith in seeking or denying the requested remedy.

25989.560. Every breeder that sells a dog shall provide the purchaser at the time of sale, and a prospective purchaser upon request, with a written notice of rights, setting forth the rights provided for under this section. The notice shall be contained in a separate document. The written notice of rights shall be in 10-point type. A copy of the written notice of rights shall be signed by the purchaser acknowledging that he or she has reviewed the notice. The notice shall state the following:

"A STATEMENT OF CALIFORNIA LAW GOVERNING THE SALE OF DOGS

The sale of dogs is subject to consumer protection regulation. In the event that a California licensed veterinarian states in writing that your dog is unfit for purchase because it became ill due to an illness or disease which existed within 15 days following delivery to you, or within one year in the case of congenital or hereditary condition, you may choose one of the following:

(1) Return your dog and receive a refund of the purchase price, plus sales tax, and receive reimbursement for reasonable veterinarian fees up to the cost of the dog, plus sales tax.

(2) Return your dog and receive a dog of your choice of equivalent value, providing a replacement dog is available, and receive reimbursement for reasonable veterinarian fees up to the cost of the dog, plus sales tax.

(3) Keep the dog and receive reimbursement for reasonable veterinarian fees up to 150 percent of the original purchase price of the dog plus sales tax on the original purchase price of the dog.

In the event your dog dies, you may receive a refund for the purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax, or a replacement dog of your choice, of equivalent value, and reimbursement for reasonable veterinary fees for the diagnosis and treatment of the dog, if a veterinarian, licensed in this state, states in writing that the dog has died due to an illness or disease which existed within 15 days after the purchaser obtained physical possession of the dog after the sale by a dog breeder, or states that the dog has died due to a congenital or hereditary condition which was diagnosed by the veterinarian within one year after the purchaser obtained physical possession of the dog after the sale by a dog breeder. These fees may not exceed the purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax.

In order to exercise these rights, you must notify the dog breeder as quickly as possible but no later than five days after learning from your veterinarian that a problem exists. You must tell the dog breeder about the problem and give the dog breeder the name and telephone number of the veterinarian providing the diagnosis.

If you are making a claim, you must also present to the dog breeder a written veterinary statement, in a form prescribed by law, that the animal is unfit for purchase and an itemized statement of all veterinary fees related to the claim. This information must be presented to the dog breeder no later than five days after you have received the written statement from the veterinarian.

In the event that the dog breeder wishes to contest the statement or the veterinarian's bill, the dog breeder may request that you produce the dog for examination by a licensed veterinarian of the dog breeder's choice. The dog breeder shall pay the cost of this examination.

In the event of death, the deceased dog need not be returned to the dog breeder if you submit a statement issued by a licensed veterinarian stating the cause of death.

If the parties cannot resolve the claim within 10 business days following receipt of the veterinarian statement or the examination by the dog breeder's veterinarian, whichever event occurs later, you may file an action in a court of competent jurisdiction to resolve the dispute. If a party acts in bad faith, the other party may collect reasonable attorney's fees. If the dog breeder does not contest the matter, the dog breeder must make the refund or reimbursement no later than 10 business days after receiving the veterinary certification.

This statement is a summary of key provisions of the consumer remedies available. California law also provides safeguards to protect dog breeders from abuse. If you have questions, obtain a copy of the complete relevant statutes.

This notice shall be contained in a separate document. The written notice shall be in 10-point type. The notice shall be signed by the purchaser acknowledging that he or she has reviewed the notice. The dog breeder shall permit persons to review the written notice upon request.

NOTE: This disclosure of rights is a summary of California law. The actual statutes are contained in Chapter 13.7 (commencing with Section 25989.500) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code."

25989.565. Nothing in this chapter shall in any way limit the rights or remedies which are otherwise available to a consumer under any other law. Nor shall this chapter in any way limit the breeder and the purchaser from agreeing between themselves upon additional terms and conditions that are not inconsistent with this chapter. However, any agreement or contract by a purchaser to waive any rights under this chapter shall be null and void and shall be unenforceable.

25989.570. (a) Except as otherwise specified herein, any person violating any provision of this chapter other than Section 25989.520 shall be subject to civil penalty of up to one thousand dollars ($1,000) per violation. An action may be prosecuted in the name of the people of the State of California by the district attorney for the county in which the violation occurred in the appropriate court or by the city attorney in the city in which the violation occurred.

(b) Nothing in this chapter limits or authorizes any act or omission which violates Section 597*l* of the Penal Code.

SEC. 2. Section 25995 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25995. (a) This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Lockyer-Polanco-Farr Pet Protection Act.

(b) Every pet dealer of dogs and cats shall conform to the provisions of this chapter. As used in this chapter, " pet dealer" means a person engaging in the business of selling dogs or cats, or both, at retail, and by virtue of such sales of dogs and cats is required to possess a permit pursuant to Section 6066 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. For purposes of this chapter, the separate sales of dogs or cats from a single litter shall constitute only one sale under Section 6019 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. This definition does not apply to breeders of dogs regulated pursuant to Chapter 13.7 (commencing with Section 25989.500) nor to any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other association, that breeds or rears dogs on the premises of the person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other association, that has sold, transferred, or given away fewer than 50 dogs in the preceding year.

(c) For purposes of this chapter, "purchaser" means a person who purchases a dog or cat from a pet dealer without the intent to resell the animal.

(d) This chapter shall not apply to publicly operated pounds and humane societies.

SEC. 3. Section 25995.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25995.1. Every pet dealer receiving dogs or cats from a common carrier shall transport, or have transported, dogs and cats from the carrier's premises within four hours after receipt of telephone notification by the carrier of the completion of shipment and arrival of the animal at the carrier's point of destination.

SEC. 4. Section 25995.3 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Chapter 58 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

25995.3. Every pet dealer shall deliver to the purchaser of each dog and cat at the time of sale a written statement in a standardized form prescribed by the Department of Consumer Affairs containing the following information:

(a) For cats:

(1) The breeder's and broker's name and address, if known, or if not known, the source of the cat. If the person from whom the cat was obtained is a dealer licensed by the United States Department of Agriculture, the person's name, address, and federal dealer identification number.

(2) The date of the cat's birth, unless unknown because of the source of such cat and the date the dealer received the cat.

(3) A record of the immunizations and worming treatments administered, if any, to the cat as of the time of sale, including the dates of administration and the type of vaccine or worming treatment.

(4) A record of any known disease or sickness that the cat is afflicted with at the time of sale. In addition, this information shall also be orally disclosed to the purchaser.

(b) For dogs:

(1) The breeder's name and address, if known, or if not known, the source of the dog. If the person from whom the dog was obtained is a dealer licensed by the United States Department of Agriculture, the person's name, address, and federal dealer identification number.

(2) The date of the dog's birth, and the date the dealer received the dog. If the dog is not advertised or sold as purebred, registered, or registerable, the date of birth may be approximated if not known by the seller.

(3) The breed, sex, color, and identifying marks at the time of sale, if any. If the dog is from a United States Department of Agriculture licensed source, the individual identifying tag, tattoo, or collar number for that animal. If the breed is unknown or mixed, the record shall so indicate.

(4) If the dog is being sold as being capable of registration, the names and registration numbers of the sire and dam, and the litter number, if known.

(5) A record of inoculations and worming treatments administered, if any, to the dog as of the time of sale, including dates of administration and the type of vaccine or worming treatment.

(6) A record of any veterinarian treatment or medication received by the dog while in the possession of the pet dealer and either of the following:

(A) A statement, signed by the pet dealer at the time of sale, containing all of the following:

(i) The dog has no known disease or illness.

(ii) The dog has no known congenital or hereditary condition that adversely affects the health of the dog at the time of the sale or that is likely to adversely affect the health of the dog in the future.

(B) A record of any known disease, illness, and any congenital or hereditary condition which adversely affects the health of the dog at the time of sale, or is likely to adversely affect the health of the dog in the future, along with a statement signed by a veterinarian licensed in the State of California which authorizes the sale of the dog, recommends necessary treatment, if any, and verifies that the disease, illness, or condition does not require hospitalization or nonelective surgical procedures, nor is it likely to require hospitalization or nonelective surgical procedures in the future. A veterinarian statement is not required for intestinal or external parasites unless their presence makes the dog clinically ill or is likely to make the dog clinically ill. The statement shall be valid for seven days following examination of the dog by the veterinarian.

(c) For the purpose of this chapter, "nonelective surgical procedure" means a surgical procedure that is necessary to preserve or restore the health of the dog, to prevent the dog from experiencing pain or discomfort, or to correct a condition that would interfere with the dog's ability to walk, run, jump, or otherwise function in a normal manner.

(d) For the purposes of this chapter, "clinically ill" means an illness which is apparent to a veterinarian based on observation, examination, or testing of the dog, or upon a review of the medical records relating to the dog.

(e) A disclosure made pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be signed by both the pet dealer certifying the accuracy of the statement, and the purchaser of the dog acknowledging receipt of the statement. In addition, all medical information required to be disclosed pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be made orally to the purchaser.

(f) For purposes of chapter, a disease, illness, or congenital or hereditary condition which adversely affects the health of a dog at the time of sale or is likely to adversely affect the health of the dog in the future shall be one which is apparent at the time of sale or which should have been known by the pet dealer from the history of veterinary treatment disclosed pursuant to this section.

SEC. 5. Section 25995.4 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25995.4. A pet dealer shall maintain a written record on the health, status, and disposition of each dog and each cat for a period of not less than one year after disposition of the dog or cat. The record shall also contain all of the information required to be disclosed pursuant to Sections 25995.3 and 25996.91. Those records shall be available to humane officers, animal control officers, and law enforcement officers for inspection during normal business hours.

SEC. 6. Section 25995.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25995.5. (a) Except as otherwise specified herein, any person violating any provision of this chapter other than Section 25995.8 shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to one thousand dollars ($1,000) per violation. The action may be prosecuted in the name of the people of the State of California by the district attorney for the county in which the violation occurred in the appropriate court or by the city attorney in the city in which the violation occurred.

(b) Nothing in this chapter limits or authorizes any act or omission which violates Section 597*l* of the Penal Code.

SEC. 7. Section 25995.60 is added to the Health and Safety Code, immediately following Section 25995.5, to read:

25995.60. (a) It shall be unlawful for a pet dealer to fail to do any of the following:

(1) Maintain facilities in which the dogs are kept in a sanitary condition.

(2) Provide dogs with adequate nutrition and potable water.

(3) Provide adequate space appropriate to the age, size, weight, and breed of dog. Adequate space means sufficient space for the dog to stand up, sit down, and turn about freely using normal body movements, without the head touching the top of the cage, and to lie in a natural position.

(4) Provide dogs housed on wire flooring with a rest board, floormat, or similar device that can be maintained in a sanitary condition.

(5) Provide dogs with adequate socialization and exercise. For the purpose of this chapter "socialization" means physical contact with other dogs or with human beings.

(6) Wash hands before and after handling each infectious or contagious dog.

(7) Maintain either of the following:

(A) A fire alarm system that is connected to a central reporting station which alerts the local fire department in case of fire.

(B) Maintain a fire suppression sprinkler system.

(8) Provide veterinary care without delay when necessary.

(b) A pet dealer shall not be in possession of a dog which is less than eight weeks old.

SEC. 8. Section 25995.70 is added to the Health and Safety Code, immediately following Section 25995.60, to read:

25995.70. (a) If a licensed veterinarian states in writing that within 15 days after the purchaser has taken physical possession of the dog after the sale by a pet dealer, the dog has become ill due to any illness which existed in the dog on or before delivery of the dog to the purchaser, or, if within one year after the purchaser has taken physical possession of the dog after the sale, a veterinarian licensed in this state states in writing that the dog has a congenital or hereditary condition which adversely affects the health of the dog, or which requires, or is likely in the future to require, hospitalization or nonelective surgical procedures, the dog shall be considered unfit for sale, and the pet dealer shall provide the purchaser with any of the following remedies which the purchaser elects:

(1) Return the dog to the pet dealer for a refund of the purchase price, plus sales tax, and reimbursement for reasonable veterinary fees for diagnosis and treating the dog in an amount not to exceed the original purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax.

(2) Exchange the dog for a dog of the purchaser's choice of equivalent value, providing a replacement dog is available, and reimbursement for reasonable veterinary fees for diagnosis and treating the dog in an amount not to exceed the original purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax.

(3) Retain the dog, and reimbursement for reasonable veterinary fees for diagnosis and treating the dog in an amount not to exceed 150 percent of the original purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax on the original purchase price of the dog.

(b) If the dog has died, regardless of the date of the death of the dog, obtain a refund for the purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax, or a replacement dog of equivalent value of the purchaser's choice and reimbursement for reasonable veterinary fees in diagnosis and treatment of the dog in an amount not to exceed the original purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax, if either of the following conditions exist:

(1) A veterinarian, licensed in this state, states in writing that the dog has died due to an illness or disease which existed within 15 days after the purchaser obtained physical possession of the dog after the sale by a pet dealer.

(2) A veterinarian, licensed in this state, states in writing that the dog has died due to a congenital or hereditary condition which was diagnosed by the veterinarian within one year after the purchaser obtained physical possession of the dog after the sale by a pet dealer.

SEC. 9. Section 25995.71 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25995.71. (a) There shall be a rebuttable presumption that an illness existed at the time of sale if the animal dies within 15 days of delivery to the purchaser.

(b) For purposes of Section 25995.70, a finding by a veterinarian of intestinal or external parasites shall not be grounds for declaring a dog unfit for sale unless their presence makes the dog clinically ill or is likely to make the dog clinically ill.

(c) For purposes of Section 25995.70, the value of veterinary services shall be deemed reasonable if the services rendered are appropriate for the diagnosis and treatment of illness or congenital or hereditary condition, made by the veterinarian and the value of similar services is comparable to the value of similar services rendered by other licensed veterinarians in proximity to the treating veterinarian.

SEC. 10. Section 25995.72 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25995.72. To obtain the remedies provided for in Section 25995.70, the purchaser shall substantially comply with all of the following requirements:

(a) Notify the pet dealer as soon as possible but not more than five days after the diagnosis by a veterinarian licensed in this state of a medical or health problem, including a congenital or hereditary condition and of the name and telephone number of the veterinarian providing the diagnosis.

(b) Return the dog to the pet dealer, in the case of illness, along with a written statement from a veterinarian licensed in this state, stating the dog to be unfit for purchase due to illness, a congenital or hereditary condition, or the presence of symptoms of a contagious or infectious disease, which existed on or before delivery of the dog to the purchaser, and which adversely affects the health of the dog. The purchaser shall return the dog along with a copy of the veterinarian's statement as soon as possible but not more than five days after receipt of the veterinarian's statement.

(c) Provide the pet dealer, in the event of death, with a written statement from a veterinarian licensed in this state stating that the dog died from an illness which existed on or before the delivery of the dog to the purchaser. The presentation of the statement shall be sufficient proof to claim reimbursement or replacement and the return of the deceased dog to the pet dealer shall not be required.

SEC. 11. Section 25995.73 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25995.73. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 25995.70, no refund, replacement, or reimbursement of veterinary fees shall be made if any of the following conditions exist:

(a) The illness or death resulted from maltreatment or neglect or from an injury sustained or an illness contracted subsequent to the delivery of the dog to the purchaser.

(b) The purchaser fails to carry out the recommended treatment prescribed by the examining veterinarian who made the initial diagnosis. However, this subdivision shall not apply if the cost for the treatment together with the veterinarian's fee for the diagnosis would exceed the purchase price of the dog, including sales tax.

(c) A veterinarian's statement was provided to the purchaser pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (6) of subdivision (b) of Section 25995.3 which disclosed the disease, illness, or condition for which the purchaser seeks to return the dog. However, this paragraph shall not apply if, within one year after the purchaser took physical possession of the dog, a veterinarian licensed in this state states in writing that the disease, illness, or condition requires, or is likely in the future to require, hospitalization or nonelective surgical procedures or that the disease, illness, or condition resulted in the death of the dog.

(d) The purchaser refuses to return to the pet dealer all documents previously provided to the purchaser for the purpose of registering the dog. This subdivision shall not apply if the purchaser signs a written statement certifying that the documents have been inadvertently lost or destroyed.

SEC. 12. Section 25995.74 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25995.74. (a) The veterinarian's statement pursuant to Section 25995.70 shall contain the following information:

(1) The purchaser's name and address.

(2) The date or dates the dog was examined.

(3) The breed and age of the dog, if known.

(4) That the veterinarian examined the dog.

(5) That the dog has or had an illness described in this section which renders it unfit for purchase or resulted in its death.

(6) The precise findings of the examination or necropsy, including laboratory results or copies of laboratory reports.

(b) If a refund for reasonable veterinary expenses is being requested, the veterinary statement shall be accompanied by an itemized bill of fees appropriate for the diagnosis and treatment of the illness or congenital or hereditary condition.

(c) Refunds and payment of reimbursable expenses provided for by Section 25995.70 shall be paid, unless contested, by the pet dealer to the purchaser not later than 10 business days following receipt of the veterinarian's statement required by Section 25995.70 or, where applicable, not later than 10 business days after the date on which the dog is returned to the pet dealer.

SEC. 13. Section 25995.75 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25995.75. (a) In the event that a pet dealer wishes to contest a demand for any of the remedies specified in Section 25995.70, the dealer may, except in the case of the death of the dog, require the purchaser to produce the dog for examination by a licensed veterinarian designated by the pet dealer. The pet dealer shall pay the cost of this examination.

(b) If the purchaser and the pet dealer are unable to reach an agreement within 10 business days following receipt by the pet dealer of the veterinarian's statement pursuant to Section 25995.70, or following receipt of the dog for examination by a veterinarian designated by the pet dealer, whichever is later, the purchaser may initiate an action in a court of competent jurisdiction to resolve the dispute or the parties may submit to binding arbitration if mutually agreed upon by the parties in writing.

(c) The prevailing party in the dispute shall have the right to collect reasonable attorney's fees if the other party acted in bad faith in seeking or denying the requested remedy.

SEC. 14. Section 25995.76 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25995.76. Every pet dealer that sells a dog shall provide the purchaser at the time of sale, and a prospective purchaser upon request, with a written notice of rights, setting forth the rights provided for under this section. The notice shall be contained in a separate document. The written notice of rights shall be in 10-point type. A copy of the written notice of rights shall be signed by the purchaser acknowledging that he or she has reviewed the notice. The notice shall state the following:

"A STATEMENT OF CALIFORNIA LAW GOVERNING THE SALE OF DOGS

The sale of dogs is subject to consumer protection regulations. In the event that a California licensed veterinarian states in writing that your dog is unfit for purchase because it became ill due to an illness or disease which existed within 15 days following delivery to you, or within one year in the case of congenital or hereditary condition, you may choose one of the following:

(1) Return your dog and receive a refund of the purchase price, plus sales tax, and receive reimbursement for reasonable veterinarian fees up to the cost of the dog plus sales tax.

(2) Return your dog and receive a dog of your choice of equivalent value, providing a replacement dog is available, and receive reimbursement for reasonable veterinarian fees up to the cost of the dog, plus sales tax.

(3) Keep the dog and receive reimbursement for reasonable veterinarian fees up to 150 percent of the original purchase price of the dog plus sales tax on the original purchase price of the dog.

In the event your dog dies, you may receive a refund for the purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax, or a replacement dog of your choice, of equivalent value, and reimbursement for reasonable veterinary fees for the diagnosis and treatment of the dog, if a veterinarian, licensed in this state, states in writing that the dog has died due to an illness or disease which existed within 15 days after the purchaser obtained physical possession of the dog after the sale by a pet dealer, or states that the dog has died due to a congenital or hereditary condition which was diagnosed by the veterinarian within one year after the purchaser obtained physical possession of the dog after the sale by a pet dealer. These fees may not exceed the purchase price of the dog, plus sales tax.

In order to exercise these rights, you must notify the pet dealer as quickly as possible but no later than five days after learning from your veterinarian that a problem exists. You must tell the pet dealer about the problem and give the pet dealer the name and telephone number of the veterinarian providing the diagnosis.

If you are making a claim, you must also present to the pet dealer a written veterinary statement, in a form prescribed by law, that the animal is unfit for purchase and an itemized statement of all veterinary fees related to the claim. This information must be presented to the pet dealer no later than five days after you have received the written statement from the veterinarian.

In the event that the pet dealer wishes to contest the statement or the veterinarian's bill, the pet dealer may request that you produce the dog for examination by a licensed veterinarian of the pet dealer's choice. The pet dealer shall pay the cost of this examination.

In the event of death, the deceased dog need not be returned to the pet dealer if you submit a statement issued by a licensed veterinarian stating the cause of death.

If the parties cannot resolve the claim within 10 business days following receipt of the veterinarian statement or the examination by the pet dealer's veterinarian, whichever event occurs later, you may file an action in a court of competent jurisdiction to resolve the dispute. If a party acts in bad faith, the other party may collect reasonable attorney's fees. If the pet dealer does not contest the matter, the pet dealer must make the refund or reimbursement no later than 10 business days after receiving the veterinary certification.

If the pet dealer has represented your dog as registerable with a pedigree organization, the pet dealer shall provide you with the necessary papers to process the registration within 120 days following the date you received the dog. If the pet dealer fails to deliver the papers within the prescribed time frame, you are entitled to return the dog for a full refund of the purchase price, including sales tax, or a refund of 75 percent of the purchase price, including sales tax if you choose to keep the dog.

This statement is a summary of key provisions of the consumer remedies available. California law also provides safeguards to protect pet dealers from abuse. If you have any questions, obtain a copy of the complete relevant statutes.

This notice shall be contained in a separate document. The written notice shall be in 10-point type. The notice shall be signed by the purchaser acknowledging that he or she has reviewed the notice. The pet dealer shall permit persons to review the written notice upon request.

NOTE: This disclosure of rights is a summary of California law. The actual statutes are contained in Chapter 14.5 (commencing with Section 25995) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code."

SEC. 15. Section 25995.77 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25995.77. Nothing in this chapter shall in any way limit the rights or remedies which are otherwise available to a consumer under any other law. Nor shall this chapter in any way limit the pet dealer and the purchaser from agreeing between themselves upon additional terms and conditions that are not inconsistent with this chapter. However, any agreement or contract by a purchaser to waive any rights under this chapter shall be null and void and shall be unenforceable.

SEC. 16. Section 25995.78 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25995.78. (a) A pet dealer shall not state, promise, or represent to the purchaser, directly or indirectly, that a dog is registered or capable of being registered with an animal pedigree registry organization, unless the pet dealer provides the purchaser with the documents necessary for that registration within 120 days following the date of sale of the dog.

(b) In the event that a pet dealer fails to provide the documents necessary for registration within 120 days following the date of sale, in violation of subdivision (a), the purchaser shall, upon written notice to the pet dealer, be entitled to retain the animal and receive a partial refund of 75 percent of the purchase price, plus sales tax, or return the dog along with all documentation previously provided the purchaser for a full refund, including sales tax.

SEC. 17. Section 25995.8 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25995.8. Except as provided for in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (6) of subdivision (b) of Section 25995.3, no pet dealer shall knowingly sell a dog which is diseased, ill, or has a condition, any one of which requires hospitalization or surgical procedures. In lieu of the civil penalties imposed pursuant to Section 25995.5, any pet dealer who violates this section shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to one thousand dollars ($1,000), or shall be prohibited from selling dogs at retail for up to 30 days, or both. If there is a second offense, the pet dealer shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), or a prohibition from selling dogs at retail for up to 90 days, or both. For a third offense, the pet dealer shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to five thousand dollars ($5,000) or a prohibition from selling dogs at retail for up to six months, or both. For a fourth and subsequent offense, the pet dealer shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or a prohibition from selling dogs at retail for up to one year, or both. For purposes of this section, a violation which occurred over five years prior to the most recent violation shall not be considered.

An action for recovery of the civil penalty and for a court order enjoining the pet dealer from engaging in the business of selling dogs at retail for the period set forth in this section, may be prosecuted by the district attorney for the county in which the violation occurred, or the city attorney for the city in which the violation occurred, in the appropriate court.

SEC. 18. Section 25996.10 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25996.10. (a) No dog may be offered for sale by a pet dealer to a purchaser until the dog has been examined by a veterinarian licensed in this state. Each dog shall be examined within five days of receipt of the dog and once every 15 days thereafter while the dog is in the possession or custody of the pet dealer. The pet dealer shall provide any sick dog with proper veterinary care without delay.

(b) Any dog diagnosed with a contagious or infectious disease, illness, or condition shall be caged separately from healthy dogs until a licensed veterinarian determines that the dog is free from contagion or infection. The area shall meet the following conditions when contagious or infectious dogs are present:

(1) The area shall not be used to house other healthy dogs or new arrivals awaiting the required veterinary examination.

(2) The area shall not be used for storing open food containers or bowls, dishes, or other utensils which come in contact with healthy dogs.

(3) The area shall have an exhaust fan which creates air movement from the isolation area to an area outside the premises of the pet dealer. The removal of exhaust air from the isolation area may be accomplished by the use of existing heating and air-conditioning ducts, provided no exhaust air is permitted to enter or mix with fresh air for use by the general animal population.

(4) Upon removal of all of the contagious or infectious dogs, the area shall be cleaned and disinfected before any healthy animal can be placed in the area.

(c) If the pet dealer's veterinarian deems the dog to be unfit for purchase due to a disease, illness, or congenital condition, any of which is fatal or which causes, or is likely to cause, the dog to unduly suffer, the veterinarian shall humanely euthanize the dog. The veterinarian shall provide the pet dealer with a written statement as to why the dog was euthanized. Otherwise, the pet dealer shall have a veterinarian treat the dog, or may surrender the dog to a humane organization which consents to the receipt thereof.

(d) In the event a dog is returned to a pet dealer due to illness, disease, or a congenital or hereditary condition requiring veterinary care, the pet dealer shall provide the dog with proper veterinary care.

SEC. 19. Section 25996.91 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25996.91. (a) Every pet dealer shall post conspicuously within close proximity to the cages of dogs offered for sale, a notice containing the following language in 100-point type:

"Information on the source of these dogs, and veterinary treatments received by these dogs is available for review."

"You are entitled to a copy of a statement of consumer rights."

(b) Every pet dealer shall, upon request for information regarding a dog, make immediately available to prospective purchasers all of the information required to be disclosed to purchasers pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25995.3 and pursuant to Section 25995.76.

SEC. 20. This act applies to sales of dogs which occur on or after January 1, 1992.

CHAPTER 1119

An act to add Section 14148.8 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to alternative birth centers.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(1) In many areas of the state, there is a shortage of hospital sites with obstetric services available for pregnant Medi-Cal beneficiaries.

(2) This shortage is a barrier to providers accepting low-income pregnant women as patients for prenatal care.

(3) It has been reported both in the United States and in other countries that low-risk pregnancies managed by teams of certified nurse midwives, certified nurse practitioners, and physicians and surgeons, and delivered at alternative birth centers are associated with the following:

(A) A high degree of maternal and infant safety.

(B) A reduction in the incidence of preterm and low birth weight newborns.

(C) A reduction in the likelihood of maternal and newborn complications.

(D) A reduction in the incidence of medical interventions, such as conduction anesthesia, forceps, and caesarean sections.

(E) A reduction in the cost of total obstetric care.

(F) An increase in family involvement in the emotional and behavioral components of childbirth.

(G) An increase in the incidence and duration of breast feeding.

(H) An increase in the likelihood of well baby care and immunizations.

(b) Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature to provide reimbursement for facility-related delivery costs of alternative birth centers at a rate not to exceed 80 percent of the statewide average payment received by general acute care hospitals with Medi-Cal contracts.

SEC. 2. Section 14148.8 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14148.8. (a) The State Department of Health Services shall provide Medi-Cal reimbursements to alternative birth centers for facility-related delivery costs at a statewide all-inclusive rate per delivery that shall not exceed 80 percent of the average Medi-Cal reimbursement received by general acute care hospitals with Medi-Cal contracts and shall be based on an average hospital length of stay of 1.7 days. The reimbursement rate shall be updated annually and shall be based on the California Medical Assistance Commission's annually published legislative report of average contract rates for general acute care hospitals with Medi-Cal contracts. However, the reimbursement shall not exceed the alternative birth center's charges to any non-Medi-Cal patient for similar services.

(b) In order to be eligible for reimbursement pursuant to this section, an alternative birth center shall satisfy the following criteria as determined by the state department:

(1) At least 150 patients or 50 percent of the patient caseload served at the center each year, whichever is less, shall be Medi-Cal patients and low-income patients.

(2) The facility shall be currently certified as a comprehensive perinatal services provider. If not currently certified, the facility shall be certified with the first year of operation.

(3) The facilities may utilize certified nurse midwives, certified nurse practitioners, and clinical nurse specialists where appropriate.

(4) The facility shall meet the standards for certification established by the National Association of Childbearing Centers, including those relating to the proximity and involvement of hospitals, obstetricians, and pediatricians.

(5) The facility shall establish and maintain a quality assurance program.

(6) The facility shall maintain newborn followup care for at least one year.

(7) The gathering of data and preparing reports as required in subdivision (c).

(c) (1) Each alternative birth center awarded reimbursement pursuant to this section shall gather data and annually report outcome measures relating to the safety, cost-effectiveness, and patient acceptance of the center to the department to be made available upon request. The data shall also be reported by the center directly to the Senate Office of Research and the Assembly Office of Research to be made available upon request.

(2) The report shall include data on the incidence of maternal and infant death, preterm newborns, low birth weight newborns, maternal complications, newborn complications, cesarean sections, forcep-assisted deliveries, deliveries involving use of anesthesia, months of prenatal care, family involvement in childbirth, breast-feeding, infant immunizations, well baby care, adjusted cost per case for deliveries performed at the center, and cost per case for women transferred to hospitals for delivery.

(3) The department shall, to the extent information and resources are available, as determined by the department, compare the data provided by the centers with information furnished by other providers of prenatal and delivery services. The department shall use the comparative data to determine for the Medi-Cal program whether alternative birth centers are cost-effective, improve access to prenatal care, reduce the anticipated incidence of maternal and newborn complications, and have a high degree of patient acceptance.

(d) The director shall administer this section and establish standards, procedures, and reimbursement rates, as the director deems necessary in carrying out this section. The establishment of the reimbursement rates is not required to be adopted as regulations pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code).

(e) Nothing in this act shall alter the scope of practice for any health care professional or authorize the delivery of health care services in a setting or in a manner not authorized by the Health and Safety Code or the Business and Professions Code.

CHAPTER 1120

An act to add Section 374.8 to the Penal Code, relating to crime.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 374.8 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

374.8. (a) In any prosecution under this section, proof of the elements of the offense shall not be dependent upon the requirements of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(b) Any person who knowingly causes any hazardous substance to be deposited into or upon any road, street, highway, alley, or railroad right-of-way, or upon the land of another, without the permission of the owner, or into the waters of this state is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by imprisonment in the state prison for a term of 16 months, 2, or 3 years, or by a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment, unless the deposit occurred as a result of an emergency that the person promptly reported to the appropriate regulatory authority.

(c) For purposes of this section, "hazardous substance" means either of the following:

(1) Any material that, because of its quantity, concentration, or physical or chemical characteristics, poses a significant present or potential hazard to human health and safety or to the environment if released into the environment, including, but not limited to, hazardous waste and any material which the administering agency or a handler as defined in Chapter 6.91 (commencing with Section 25410) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, has a reasonable basis for believing would be injurious to the health and safety of persons or harmful to the environment if released into the environment.

(2) Any substance or chemical product for which one of the following applies.

(A) The manufacturer or producer is required to prepare a MSDS, as defined in Section 6374 of the Labor Code, for the substance or product pursuant to the Hazardous Substances Information Training Act (Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 6360) of Part 1 of Division 5 of the Labor Code) or pursuant to any applicable federal law or regulation.

(B) The substance is described as a radioactive material in Chapter 1 of Title 10 of the Code of Federal Regulations maintained and updated by the nuclear Regulatory Commission.

(C) The substance is designated by the Secretary of Transportation in Chapter 27 (commencing with Section 1801) of the appendix to Title 49 of the United States Code and taxed as a radioactive substance or material.

(D) The materials listed in subdivision (b) of Section 6382 of the Labor Code.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1121

An act to add Sections 15814.22 and 15814.23 to the Government Code, relating to energy efficiency.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the policy of the Governor and Legislature of the State of California to ensure that both state government owned and leased buildings utilize the maximum, feasible, cost-effective energy efficiency measures.

SEC. 2. Section 15814.22 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15814.22. The Department of General Services, in consultation with the California Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission and other state agencies and departments, shall develop a multiyear plan, to be updated biennially, with the goal of exploiting all practicable and cost-effective energy efficiency measures in state facilities. The department shall coordinate plan implementation efforts, and make recommendations to the Governor and the Legislature to achieve energy efficiency goals for state facilities.

SEC. 3. Section 15814.23 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15814.23. The Department of General Services or each state agency having jurisdiction shall ensure that all new state buildings are designed and constructed to meet at least the minimum energy efficiencies specified in standards adopted by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission pursuant to Section 25402 of the Public Resources Code. In the design and construction of new state buildings, the department or other responsible state agency shall also consider additional state-of-the-art energy efficiency design measures and equipment, beyond those required by the standards, that are cost-effective and feasible.

CHAPTER 1122

An act to amend Section 6103.10 of the Government Code, and to amend Sections 25205.1, 25205.7, 25205.8, and 25205.9 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6103.10 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6103.10. Section 6103 does not apply to any fee or charges required to be paid to the State Director of Health Services or to the State Board of Equalization pursuant to Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100) of, and Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300) of, Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 25174.7, subdivision (b) of Section 25205.1, subdivision (n) of Section 25205.7, subdivision (d) of Section 25205.8, and subdivision (e) of Section 25205.9.

SEC. 2. Section 25205.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.1. For purposes of this article the following definitions apply:

(a) "Board" means the State Board of Equalization.

(b) "Facility" means any structure, and all contiguous land, used for the treatment, transfer, storage, resource recovery, disposal, or recycling of hazardous waste, which has been issued a permit or a grant of interim status by the department pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200) or which is operated in such a manner that the facility is required to obtain a permit or grant of interim status. "Facility" does not include any of the following:

(1) Any facility operated by a local government agency, or by any person operating a hazardous waste collection program under an agreement with a public agency, which is used for any of the following:

(A) Household hazardous waste collection.

(B) The collection of hazardous waste from small quantity commercial sources pursuant to Section 25158.1.

(C) Hazardous wastes which meet the requirements of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 25174.7.

(2) That portion of a solid waste management facility permitted pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 44001) of Part 4 of Division 30 of the Public Resources Code, which is used for the segregation, handling, and storage of hazardous waste separated from solid waste loads received by the facility, pursuant to a load checking program.

(3) A facility used solely for the treatment, transfer, storage, resource recovery, disposal, or recycling of hazardous waste which results when a government agency, or its contractor, investigates, removes, or remedies a release of hazardous waste caused by another person.

(c) "Large storage facility" means a storage facility which stores 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year commencing on or after July 1, 1988.

(d) "Large treatment facility" means a treatment facility which treats or recycles 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year commencing on or after July 1, 1988.

(e) "Generator" means a person who generates volumes of hazardous waste on or after July 1, 1988, in those amounts specified in subdivision (b) of Section 25205.5 at an individual site commencing on or after July 1, 1988.

(f) "Ministorage facility" means a storage facility which stores 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste during any one month.

(g) "Minitreatment facility" means a treatment facility which treats or recycles 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste during any one month.

(h) "Site" means the location of an operation which generates hazardous wastes and which is noncontiguous to any other location of these operations owned by the generator.

(i) "Small storage facility" means a storage facility which stores more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during any one month.

(j) "Small treatment facility" means a treatment facility which treats or recycles more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during any month.

SEC. 3. Section 25205.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.7. (a) The board shall assess a fee for any application for a new hazardous waste facilities permit, a permit for a hazardous waste facility which would manage extremely hazardous waste, a variance, or a permit modification issued by the department pursuant to this chapter or the regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter. The board shall also assess a fee for any hazardous waste facility which intends to operate pursuant to a permit by regulation governed by this chapter or the regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter, which shall be due and payable upon the facility's notification to the department of its intent to operate in this manner. Except as provided in subdivision (i), the board shall not assess a fee pursuant to this section for an application for a hazardous waste facilities permit for a hazardous waste facility which has been previously operating pursuant to a grant of interim status pursuant to Section 25200.5. The fee shall be nonrefundable, even if the application is withdrawn or the permit, variance, or certification is denied. The department shall provide the board with any information which is necessary to assess fees pursuant to this section. The fee shall be collected in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and deposited into the Hazardous Waste Control Account. A hazardous waste facility which is assessed a fee pursuant to more than one of subdivisions (c) to (i), inclusive, shall pay only the higher fee.

(b) The amounts stated in this section shall be base rates for the 1989–90 fiscal year. Thereafter the fees shall be adjusted annually to reflect increases or decreases in the cost of living, as measured by the Consumer Price Index for the United States, as reported by the Department of Labor or a successor agency of the United States government. The fee shall be assessed upon application or notification to the department.

(c) A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for a land disposal facility shall pay eighty-three thousand dollars ($83,000) for a small facility, one hundred seventy-seven thousand dollars ($177,000) for a medium facility, and three hundred four thousand dollars ($304,000) for a large facility.

(d) A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for any incinerator for which the permit was required on or before July 1, 1989, shall pay fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) for a small facility, one hundred six thousand dollars ($106,000) for a medium facility, and one hundred eighty-two thousand dollars ($182,000) for a large facility. A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for any other incinerator shall pay a fee in accordance with subdivision (e). If the application was submitted before July 1, 1989, the fees specified in this subdivision shall not apply, and the fees specified in subdivision (e) shall instead apply.

(e) A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for a storage facility, a treatment facility, or a storage and treatment facility shall pay seventeen thousand dollars ($17,000) for a small facility, thirty-one thousand dollars ($31,000) for a medium facility, and sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) for a large facility.

(f) A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for a transportable treatment unit shall pay thirteen thousand dollars ($13,000) for a small unit, thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) for a medium unit, and sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) for a large unit.

(g) A person submitting a request for a variance shall pay three thousand dollars ($3,000) for a variance from any hazardous waste storage requirements imposed by this chapter, three hundred dollars ($300) for a variance issued pursuant to Section 25179.8, three hundred dollars ($300) for a variance to allow the use of a test method or analytical method which is an alternative to the methods prescribed by regulation for use in classifying a waste, eight hundred dollars ($800) for a variance from the requirements for hazardous waste haulers imposed by this chapter, and eight thousand dollars ($8,000) for all other variances. If the variance application requests a variance from more than one specific statute or regulation, a separate fee may be assessed for each statute or regulation from which the variance is requested.

(h) A person required to notify the department of the person's intent to operate a facility pursuant to a permit by regulation shall pay one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each initial notification and not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each notification thereafter, as specified in the regulations adopted by the department.

(i) A person applying for approval of an application to manage extremely hazardous waste shall pay two hundred dollars ($200), in addition to any other fee imposed by this section.

(j) (1) A person requesting a permit modification shall pay a fee equal to 70 percent of the fee for a new hazardous waste facilities permit for that facility, or 50 percent of the fee for a new permit for a land disposal facility or an incinerator, if the department's regulations require public notice and public comment before that modification may go into effect.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (3), a person requesting any other permit modification not subject to paragraph (1) shall pay a fee of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500).

(3) A facility which applies for a new hazardous waste facilities permit, and which has been previously operating pursuant to a grant of interim status, or a facility which applies to renew a hazardous waste facilities permit, shall pay the fee specified in paragraph (1) if the applicant requests any modification for which, if the facility was permitted, the department's regulations would require public notice and public comment before the modification could go into effect.

(k) For purposes of this section, and notwithstanding Section 25205.1, any facility or unit is "small" if it manages 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year, "medium" if it manages more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year, and "large" if it manages 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year.

(l) The fees assessed pursuant to this section do not apply to any permit or variance to operate a research, development, and demonstration facility, if the duration of the permit or variance is not longer than one year, unless the permit or variance is renewed pursuant to the regulations adopted by the department. For purposes of this section, a "research, development, and demonstration facility" is a facility which proposes to utilize an innovative and experimental hazardous waste treatment technology or process for which regulations prescribing permit standards have not been adopted.

(m) The fees assessed pursuant to this section do not apply to any variance issued to a local government agency to transport wastes for purposes of operating a household hazardous waste facility.

(n) The fees assessed pursuant to this section do not apply to any permit or variance issued to a government agency for the treatment, transfer, storage, resource recovery, disposal, or recycling of hazardous waste which result when a government agency, or its contractor, investigates, removes, or remedies a release of hazardous waste caused by another person.

(o) In each instance when a government agency uses its extremely hazardous waste permit for emergency response activities, the government agency shall send a copy of the permit to the department.

SEC. 4. Section 25205.8 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.8. (a) The board shall assess a fee of seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500) upon a person requesting the department to classify a waste as hazardous or nonhazardous. The board shall assess a fee of one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each additional classification request for the same stream of waste requested by the same person. The department shall notify the board at the time the request for classification is made. The fee shall be assessed by the board for request pending at the time the act adding this section goes into effect. The department shall provide the board with any information which is necessary to assess fees pursuant to this section. The fee shall be collected in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and deposited into the Hazardous Waste Control Account.

(b) The amount stated in this section shall be a base rate for the 1989–90 fiscal year. Thereafter, the department shall adjust the base rate annually to reflect increases or decreases in the cost of living, as measured by the Consumer Price Index for the United States, as reported by the Department of Labor or a successor agency of the United States government.

(c) The fees assessed pursuant to this section do not apply to any waste classification request made for use by a research, development, and demonstration facility, as defined in subdivision (k) of Section 25205.7.

(d) The fees assessed pursuant to this section do not apply to any government agency for any hazardous waste which results when a government agency, or its contractor, investigates, removes, or remedies a release of hazardous waste caused by another person.

SEC. 5. Section 25205.9 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.9. (a) In addition to the fees imposed by Section 25205.5, every generator of hazardous waste, including, but not limited to, generators who are exempt from paying the fee imposed by Section 25205.5 because they have paid facility fees, shall pay to the board, in the amounts specified in subdivision (b), a surcharge for each generator site for each calendar year, or portion thereof. The rates specified in subdivision (b) are for the 1990–91 fiscal year and the board shall adjust the surcharge annually to reflect increases or decreases in the cost of living measured by the Consumer Price

Index issued by the United States Department of Labor or by a successor agency of the federal government. For purposes of this chapter, the surcharge imposed by this section shall be known as the waste reporting surcharge.

(b) The amount of the surcharge shall be one of the following:

(1) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, five tons, but less than 25 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay six dollars ($6).

(2) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 25 tons, but less than 50 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay forty-eight dollars ($48).

(3) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 50 tons, but less than 250 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay one hundred twenty dollars ($120).

(4) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 250 tons, but less than 500 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay six hundred dollars ($600).

(5) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 500 tons, but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay one thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200).

(6) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 1,000 tons, but less than, 2,000 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay one thousand eight hundred dollars ($1,800).

(7) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 2,000 tons of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay two thousand four hundred dollars ($2,400).

(c) The fee imposed pursuant to this section shall be paid in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(d) The board shall deposit the surcharges collected pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (c) in the Hazardous Waste Control Account, created in Section 25174. The surcharges deposited in the account may be expended by the department, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for the purposes specified in Article 11.9 (commencing with Section 25244.12).

(e) The fees assessed pursuant to this section do not apply to any local government agency for any hazardous waste which results when a government agency, or its contractor, investigates, removes, or remedies a release of hazardous waste caused by another person.

SEC. 6. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1123

An act to amend Sections 25187.2, 25363, and 25400 of, to amend, repeal, and add Sections 25205.1, 25205.2, 25205.4, and 25205.5 of, to amend and repeal Section 25205.3 of, and to add Section 25365.6 to, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 43012, 43053, 43054, and 43152.10 of, to amend and renumber Section 43152.9 of, to amend, repeal, and add Sections 43152.6, 43152.8, 43155, and 43156 of, and to add Sections 43013 and 43152.12 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to hazardous substances, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25187.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25187.2. If a removal or remedial action order issued pursuant to Section 25187 to a potentially responsible party requires a person to take corrective action with respect to hazardous waste, that person shall pay the applicable fees specified in Section 25343 for oversight of the removal or remedial action. However, notwithstanding subdivision (a) of Section 25343, any fees collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Hazardous Waste Control Account, unless the person is required to take the same removal or remedial action pursuant to Section 25355.5 or an order issued pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25358.3. This section does not prohibit the department from assessing any other penalty or recovering any costs for oversight of a removal or remedial action, pursuant to any other provision, except that any fees paid pursuant to this section shall be credited for those costs. Nothing in this section limits the due process requirements of Section 25187.

SEC. 2. Section 25205.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.1. For purposes of this article the following definitions apply:

(a) "Board" means the State Board of Equalization.

(b) "Facility" means any structure, and all contiguous land, used for the treatment, transfer, storage, resource recovery, disposal, or recycling of hazardous waste, which has been issued a permit or a grant of interim status by the department pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200) or which is operated in such a manner that the facility is required to obtain a permit or grant of interim status. "Facility" does not include either of the following:

(1) Any facility operated by a local government agency, or by any person operating a hazardous waste collection program under an agreement with a public agency, which is used for any of the following:

(A) Household hazardous waste collection.

(B) The collection of hazardous waste from small quantity commercial sources pursuant to Section 25158.1.

(C) Hazardous wastes which meet the requirements of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 25174.7.

(2) That portion of a solid waste management facility permitted pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 44001) of Part 4 of Division 30 of the Public Resources Code, which is used for the segregation, handling, and storage of hazardous waste separated from solid waste loads received by the facility, pursuant to a load checking program.

(c) "Large storage facility" means a storage facility which stores 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year commencing on or after July 1, 1988.

(d) "Large treatment facility" means a treatment facility which treats or recycles 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year commencing on or after July 1, 1988.

(e) "Generator" means a person who generates volumes of hazardous waste on or after July 1, 1988, in those amounts specified in subdivision (b) of Section 25205.5 at an individual site commencing on or after July 1, 1988.

(f) "Ministorage facility" means a storage facility which stores 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste during any one month.

(g) "Minitreatment facility" means a treatment facility which treats or recycles 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste during any one month.

(h) "Site" means the location of an operation which generates hazardous wastes and which is noncontiguous to any other location of these operations owned by the generator.

(i) "Small storage facility" means a storage facility which stores more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during any one month.

(j) "Small treatment facility" means a treatment facility which treats or recycles more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during any month.

(k) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1991, and, as of January 1, 1992, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 25205.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code,

to read:

25205.1. For purposes of this article the following definitions apply:

(a) "Board" means the State Board of Equalization.

(b) "Facility" means any structure, and all contiguous land, used for the treatment, transfer, storage, resource recovery, disposal, or recycling of hazardous waste, which has been issued a permit or a grant of interim status by the department pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200) or which is operated in such a manner that the facility is required to obtain a permit or grant of interim status. "Facility" does not include either of the following:

(1) Any facility operated by a local government agency, or by any person operating a hazardous waste collection program under an agreement with a public agency, which is used for any of the following:

(A) Household hazardous waste collection.

(B) The collection of hazardous waste from small quantity commercial sources pursuant to Section 25158.1.

(C) Hazardous wastes which meet the requirements of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 25174.7.

(2) That portion of a solid waste management facility permitted pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 44001) of Part 4 of Division 30 of the Public Resources Code, which is used for the segregation, handling, and storage of hazardous waste separated from solid waste loads received by the facility, pursuant to a load checking program.

(c) "Large storage facility" means a storage facility which stores 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste during any one month of the current reporting period commencing on or after July 1, 1991.

(d) "Large treatment facility" means a treatment facility which treats or recycles 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste during any one month of the current reporting period commencing on or after July 1, 1991.

(e) "Generator" means a person who generates volumes of hazardous waste on or after July 1, 1988, in those amounts specified in subdivision (b) of Section 25205.5 at an individual site commencing on or after July 1, 1988.

(f) "Ministorage facility" means a storage facility which stores 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste during any one month of the current reporting period commencing on or after July 1, 1991.

(g) "Minitreatment facility" means a treatment facility which treats or recycles 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste during any one month of the current reporting period commencing on or after July 1, 1991.

(h) "Site" means the location of an operation which generates hazardous wastes and which is noncontiguous to any other location of these operations owned by the generator.

(i) "Small storage facility" means a storage facility which stores more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during any one month of the current reporting period commencing on or after July 1, 1991.

(j) "Small treatment facility" means a treatment facility which treats or recycles more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during any month of the current reporting period commencing on or after July 1, 1991.

(k) This section shall become operative July 1, 1991.

SEC. 4. Section 25205.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.2. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), in addition to the fees specified in Section 25174.1, each operator of a facility shall pay a facility fee for each state fiscal year, or any portion thereof, to the board based on the size and type of the facility, as specified in Section 25205.4. The department shall notify the board of all known facility operators by facility type and size at the time it establishes the facility fees pursuant to Section 25205.3. The department shall also notify the board of any operator issued a permit or grant of interim status within 30 days after a permit or grant of interim status is issued to the operator. The fee specified in this section does not apply to facilities operating pursuant to a permit by regulation.

(b) The board shall deposit all fees collected pursuant to subdivision (a) in the Hazardous Waste Control Account in the General Fund. The fees so deposited may be expended by the department, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for the purposes specified in subdivision (b) of Section 25174.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a person who is issued a variance by the department from the requirement of obtaining a hazardous waste facilities permit or grant of interim status, or a person who is in a closure period approved by the department pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200) and Article 12 (commencing with Section 25245), is not subject to the fee, for any fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the variance or closure was granted or approved by the department or in the fiscal year following any fiscal year in which the facility has completed all activities necessary for the department to approve the closure, including, but not limited to, submittal of a certification that these activities are completed to the department.

(d) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1991, and, as of January 1, 1992, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 25205.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25205.2. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), in addition to the fees specified in Section 25174.1, each operator of a facility shall pay a facility fee for each reporting period, or any portion thereof, to the board based on the size and type of the facility, as specified in Section 25205.4. On or before January 31 of each calendar year, the department annually shall notify the board of all known facility operators by facility type and size. The department shall also notify the board of any operator issued a permit or grant of interim status within 30 days after a permit or grant of interim status is issued to the operator. The fee specified in this section does not apply to facilities operating pursuant to a permit by regulation.

(b) The board shall deposit all fees collected pursuant to subdivision (a) in the Hazardous Waste Control Account in the General Fund. The fees so deposited may be expended by the department, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for the purposes specified in subdivision (b) of Section 25174.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a person who is issued a variance by the department from the requirement of obtaining a hazardous waste facilities permit or grant of interim status, or a person who is in a closure period approved by the department pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200) and Article 12 (commencing with Section 25245), is not subject to the fee, for any reporting period following the reporting period in which the variance or closure was granted or approved by the department or in the reporting period following any reporting period in which the facility has completed all activities necessary for the department to approve the closure, including, but not limited to, submittal of a certification that these activities are completed to the department.

(d) This section shall become operative July 1, 1991.

SEC. 6. Section 25205.3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.3. (a) The board shall establish the facility fees specified in Section 25205.2 in accordance with Section 25205.4 within 30 days after the effective date of the enactment of the annual Budget Act. Within 30 days of the establishment of the fees, the board shall send a notice of the fees to every person subject to the fee.

(b) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1991, and, as of January 1, 1992, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 25205.4 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.4. (a) The base rate for the facility fee imposed by Section 25205.2 is twenty thousand dollars ($20,000). This base rate is the base rate for the 1989–90 fiscal year and the board shall adjust the base rate annually to reflect increases or decreases in the cost of living measured by the Consumer Price Index issued by the United States Department of Labor or by a successor agency of the federal government.

(b) The determination of the facility fee pursuant to this section, including the redetermination of the base rate, is exempt from Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(c) In computing the facility fees, all of the following shall apply:

(1) The fee provided pursuant to Section 25205.2 to be paid by a ministorage facility shall equal 25 percent of the base facility rate.

(2) The fee provided pursuant to Section 25205.2 to be paid by a small storage facility shall equal the base facility rate.

(3) The fee charged a large storage facility shall equal twice the base facility rate.

(4) The fee charged a minitreatment facility shall equal 50 percent of the base facility rate.

(5) The fee charged a small treatment facility shall equal twice the base facility rate.

(6) The fee charged a large treatment facility shall equal three times the base facility rate.

(7) The fee charged a disposal facility until closure is approved shall equal 10 times the base facility rate.

(8) The fee charged a facility with a postclosure permit shall be seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500) annually for a small facility, fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) annually for a medium facility, and twenty-two thousand five hundred dollars ($22,500) for a large facility during the first five years of the postclosure period. The fee charged for a facility with a postclosure permit during the remaining years of the postclosure care period shall be four thousand dollars ($4,000) annually for a small facility, eight thousand dollars ($8,000) annually for a medium facility, and thirteen thousand five hundred dollars ($13,500) annually for a large facility.

(d) If a facility falls into more than one category listed in subdivision (c), multiple operations under a single hazardous waste facility permit or grant of interim status fall into more than one category listed in subdivision (c), the facility operator shall pay only the rate for the facility category which is the highest rate.

(e) The fee imposed pursuant to this section shall be paid in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(f) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1991, and, as of January 1, 1992, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 25205.4 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25205.4. (a) The base rate for the facility fee imposed by Section 25205.2 for the 1991–92 fiscal year is the base rate for the 1991 reporting period, as established pursuant to this section as it read on June 30, 1991. Commencing with the 1992 reporting period, and for each reporting period thereafter, the board shall adjust the base rate annually to reflect increases or decreases in the cost of living measured by the Consumer Price Index issued by the United States Department of Labor or by a successor agency of the federal government.

(b) The determination of the facility fee pursuant to this section, including the redetermination of the base rate, is exempt from Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division

3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(c) In computing the facility fees, all of the following shall apply:

(1) The fee provided pursuant to Section 25205.2 to be paid by a ministorage facility shall equal 25 percent of the base facility rate.

(2) The fee provided pursuant to Section 25205.2 to be paid by a small storage facility shall equal the base facility rate.

(3) The fee to be paid by a large storage facility shall equal twice the base facility rate.

(4) The fee to be paid by a minitreatment facility shall equal 50 percent of the base facility rate.

(5) The fee to be paid by a small treatment facility shall equal twice the base facility rate.

(6) The fee to be paid by a large treatment facility shall equal three times the base facility rate.

(7) The fee to be paid by a disposal facility until closure is approved shall equal 10 times the base facility rate.

(8) The fee to be paid by a facility with a postclosure permit shall be seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500) annually for a small facility, fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) annually for a medium facility, and twenty-two thousand five hundred dollars ($22,500) for a large facility during the first five years of the postclosure period. The fee to be paid by a facility with a postclosure permit during the remaining years of the postclosure care period shall be four thousand dollars ($4,000) annually for a small facility, eight thousand dollars ($8,000) annually for a medium facility, and thirteen thousand five hundred dollars ($13,500) annually for a large facility.

(d) If a facility falls into more than one category listed in subdivision (c), multiple operations under a single hazardous waste facility permit or grant of interim status fall into more than one category listed in subdivision (c), the facility operator shall pay only the rate for the facility category which is the highest rate.

(e) The fee imposed pursuant to this section shall be paid in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(f) This section shall become operative July 1, 1991.

SEC. 9. Section 25205.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.5. (a) In addition to the fee imposed pursuant to Section 25174.1, every generator of hazardous waste, in the amounts specified in subdivision (b), shall pay the board a generator fee for each generator site for each calendar year, or portion thereof, unless the generator has paid a facility fee, as specified in Section 25205.2, for each specific site, for the fiscal year which commenced during the calendar year for which the generator fee is due.

(b) Within 30 days of the enactment of the annual Budget Act, the board shall establish the generator fee specified in subdivision (a), as adjusted pursuant to subdivision (c), to be paid by generators subject to this section.

The base fee rate is two thousand four hundred dollars ($2,400).

(1) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 5 tons, but less than 25 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 5 percent of the base rate.

(2) Each generator who generates an amount equal to or more than 25 tons, but less than 50 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 40 percent of the base rate.

(3) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 50 tons, but less than 250 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay the base rate.

(4) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 250 tons, but less than 500 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay five times the base rate.

(5) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 500 tons, but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 10 times the base rate.

(6) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 1,000 tons, but less than 2,000 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 15 times the base rate.

(7) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 2,000 tons of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 20 times the base rate.

(c) The base rate established pursuant to subdivision (b) is the base rate for the 1989–90 fiscal year and the board shall adjust the base rate annually to reflect increases or decreases in the cost of living, as measured by the Consumer Price Index issued by the United States Department of Labor or by a successor agency of the federal government.

(d) The establishment of the annual operating fee pursuant to this section is exempt from Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(e) Any hazardous materials which are recycled, and used onsite, and are not transferred offsite, are not hazardous wastes for purposes of this section.

(f) The fee imposed pursuant to this section shall be paid in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(g) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1991, and, as of January 1, 1992, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 25205.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25205.5. (a) In addition to the fee imposed pursuant to Section 25174.1, every generator of hazardous waste, in the amounts specified in subdivision (b), shall pay the board a generator fee for each generator site for each calendar year, or portion thereof, unless the generator has paid a facility fee, as specified in Section 25205.2, for each specific site, for the calendar year for which the generator fee is due.

(b) Within 30 days of the enactment of the annual Budget Act, the board shall establish the generator fee specified in subdivision (a), as adjusted pursuant to subdivision (c), to be paid by generators subject to this section.

The base fee rate is two thousand four hundred dollars ($2,400).

(1) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, five tons, but less than 25 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 5 percent of the base rate.

(2) Each generator who generates an amount equal to or more than 25 tons, but less than 50 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 40 percent of the base rate.

(3) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 50 tons, but less than 250 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay the base rate.

(4) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 250 tons, but less than 500 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay five times the base rate.

(5) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 500 tons, but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 10 times the base rate.

(6) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 1,000 tons, but less than 2,000 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 15 times the base rate.

(7) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 2,000 tons of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 20 times the base rate.

(c) The base rate established pursuant to subdivision (b) is the base rate for the 1989-90 fiscal year and the board shall adjust the base rate annually to reflect increases or decreases in the cost of living, as measured by the Consumer Price Index issued by the United States Department of Labor or by a successor agency of the federal government.

(d) The establishment of the annual operating fee pursuant to this section is exempt from Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(e) Any hazardous materials which are recycled, and used onsite, and are not transferred offsite, are not hazardous wastes for purposes of this section.

(f) The fee imposed pursuant to this section shall be paid in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(g) This section shall become operative July 1, 1991.

SEC. 11. Section 25363 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25363. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (f), any party found liable for any costs or expenditures recoverable under this chapter who establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that only a portion of those costs or expenditures are attributable to that party's actions, shall be required to pay only for that portion.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (f), if the trier of fact finds the evidence insufficient to establish each party's portion of costs or expenditures under subdivision (a), the court shall apportion those costs or expenditures, to the extent practicable, according to equitable principles, among the defendants.

(c) The state account shall pay any portion of the judgment in excess of the aggregate amount of costs or expenditures apportioned under subdivisions (a) and (b).

(d) The standard of liability for any costs or expenses recoverable pursuant to this chapter is strict liability.

(e) Any person who has incurred removal or remedial action costs in accordance with this chapter or the federal act may seek to recover these costs from any person who is liable pursuant to this chapter, except that no claim may be asserted against a person whose liability has been determined and which has been or is being, fully discharged pursuant to Section 25356.6, or against a person who is actively participating in a pending apportionment proceeding pursuant to Section 25356.6. An action to enforce a claim may be brought as a cross-complaint by any defendant in an action brought pursuant to Section 25360, or in a separate action after the person seeking cost recovery has paid removal or remedial action costs in accordance with this chapter or the federal act. In resolving claims for cost recovery, the court may allocate costs among liable parties using those equitable factors which are appropriate.

(f) Notwithstanding this chapter, any response action contractor, as defined in subdivision (h) of Section 25364.6, who is found liable for any costs or expenditures recoverable under this chapter and who establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that only a portion of those costs or expenditures are attributable to the response action contractor's actions, shall be required to pay only that portion of the costs or expenditures attributable to the response action contractor's actions.

SEC. 12. Section 25365.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25365.6. (a) Any costs or damages incurred and payable from the state account or the Hazardous Substance Cleanup Fund by the department pursuant to this chapter constitutes a claim and lien upon the real property owned by the responsible party which is subject to, or affected by, the removal and remedial action. This lien shall attach regardless of whether the responsible party is insolvent.

(b) The department shall not be considered a responsible party for a hazardous substance release site because a claim and lien is imposed pursuant to this section.

(c) The lien provided by this section shall continue until the liability for these costs or damages, or a judgment against the responsible party, is satisfied. However, if it is determined by the court that the judgment against the responsible party will not be satisfied, the department may exercise its rights under the lien.

(d) The lien imposed by this section shall have the force and effect of, and the priority of, a judgment lien upon its recordation in the county in which the property subject to the lien is located. The lien shall contain the legal description of the real property, the assessor's parcel number, and the name of the owner of record, as shown on the latest equalized assessment roll. The lien shall also contain a legal description of the property which is the site of the hazardous substance release, the assessor's parcel number for that property, and the name of the owner of record, as shown on the latest equalized assessment roll, of that property.

(e) All funds recovered pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the state account, except that, if the costs incurred were paid from the Hazardous Substance Cleanup Fund, the recovered funds shall be deposited in the Hazardous Substance Clearing Account.

SEC. 13. Section 25400 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25400. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that a threat to the public health and safety exists wherever there is a discharge, spill, or presence of hazardous substances on public or private property; and that public entities, county public health directors, public safety employees, members of radiation emergency screening teams formed pursuant to Section 25574, persons authorized by a public entity, or registered sanitarian employees should be encouraged to abate those hazards, and to that end a qualified immunity from liability should be provided for public entities, county public health directors, public safety employees, members of radiation emergency screening teams formed pursuant to Section 25574, persons authorized by a public entity, or registered sanitarian employees.

(b) Except as provided in Article 1 (commencing with Section 17000) of Chapter 1 of Division 9 of the Vehicle Code, a public entity, county public health director, a public safety employee, a member of a radiation emergency screening team formed pursuant to Section 25574, a person authorized by a public entity, or a registered sanitarian employee shall not be liable for any injury or property damage caused by an act or omission taken by a county public health director, a public safety employee, a member of a radiation emergency screening team formed pursuant to Section 25574, a person authorized by a public entity, or a registered sanitarian employee acting within the scope of employment to abate or attempt to abate hazards reasonably believed to be an imminent peril to public health and safety caused by the discharge, spill, or presence of a hazardous substance, unless the act taken or omission was performed in bad faith or in a grossly negligent manner.

(c) For the purposes of this section, it shall be presumed that the act or omission was performed in good faith and without gross negligence. This presumption shall be one affecting the burden of proof.

(d) For the purposes of this section, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Hazardous substance" means a substance that presents a threat to the public because of its toxicity, radioactivity, flammability, or other characteristic dangerous to the public health or the environment.

(2) "Imminent peril" includes a peril which, if not mitigated, threatens the public health or welfare, or the environment.

(3) "Person authorized by a public agency" includes a person from whom services are contracted by a public agency.

(4) "Public agency" includes, but is not limited to, the federal government or any department or agency thereof to the extent permitted by law.

(5) "Public safety employee" means any person who is a public entity employee and whose principal duties include law enforcement, fire protection, fire prevention, or the enforcement of regulations relating to facilities or sites where hazardous substances are stored or handled.

(6) "Registered sanitarian employee" means a person who is registered pursuant to Section 520 and who is a paid employee of a state or local public entity.

(e) It is not the intent of this section to impair any cause of action against the person, firm, or entity creating the spill, discharge, or presence of the hazardous material giving rise to the response of the public entity, county public health director, public safety employee, member of a radiation screening team formed pursuant to Section 25574, person authorized by a public entity, or registered sanitarian employee.

(f) The immunity for county public health directors or registered sanitarian employees provided by this section shall apply only where the person, at the request of a public entity or public safety employee in charge of scene management, provides emergency assistance or advice at the scene of the peril in mitigating or attempting to mitigate the effects of an actual or threatened discharge, spill, or presence of a hazardous substance on private or public property. The request issued by the scene manager shall be confirmed by that person in a written report of the incident.

SEC. 14. Section 43012 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

43012. For purposes of this part, "taxpayer" means any person liable for the payment of a fee or a tax specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25174 of the Health and Safety Code or subdivision (e) of Section 25221 of the Health and Safety Code, or imposed by Section 25174.1 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 15. Section 43013 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

43013. For purposes of this part, "feepayer" has the same meaning as taxpayer, as defined in Section 43012.

SEC. 16. Section 43053 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

43053. The fees imposed pursuant to Sections 25205.2, 25205.5, 25205.6, 25205.7, 25205.8, and 25221 of the Health and Safety Code shall be administered and collected by the board in accordance with this part.

SEC. 17. Section 43054 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

43054. The fees imposed pursuant to Section 25343 of the Health and Safety Code shall be administered and collected by the board in accordance with this part.

SEC. 18. Section 43152.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

43152.6. (a) The fee imposed pursuant to Section 25205.2 of the Health and Safety Code which is collected and administered under Section 43053 of this code is due and payable to the board in two equal installments, on or before November 1 and April 1 of each fiscal year.

(b) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1991, and, as of January 1, 1992, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 19. Section 43152.6 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

43152.6. (a) The fee imposed pursuant to Section 25205.2 of the Health and Safety Code which is collected and administered under Section 43053 of this code is due and payable to the board annually on or before the last day of the month following the end of the calendar year.

(b) Every operator of a facility subject to the fee imposed pursuant to Section 25205.2 of the Health and Safety Code shall file an annual return on the forms provided by the board and pay the proper amount of fee due.

(c) For purposes of subdivision (a), except as provided in subdivision (d), the operator of a facility shall pay the applicable fee based on the type and size of the facility, as specified in Sections 25205.1 and 25205.4 of the Health and Safety Code. The board shall credit the prepayment of the fee made pursuant to Section 43152.12 against the amount due with the annual return.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (c), the fee for the 1991 reporting period, which is from July 1, 1991, to December 31, 1991, inclusive, is 50 percent of the fee specified in Section 25205.4 of the Health and Safety Code, based on the type and size of the facility, as specified in Section 25205.4 of the Health and Safety Code.

(e) This section shall become operative July 1, 1991.

SEC. 20. Section 43152.8 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

43152.8. (a) The department shall notify the board of the occurrence of any of the following:

(1) The issuance of a hazardous waste facilities permit to any facility operator, who has not previously been granted interim status, within 30 days after the facility permit is issued.

(2) When any facility changes size category pursuant to Section

25205.4 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) The board shall submit a bill to any identified or reclassified facilities for which the board is notified pursuant to this section for the fees, or difference in fees, which shall be due and payable within 30 days.

(c) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1991, and, as of January 1, 1992, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 21. Section 43152.8 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

43152.8. (a) The department shall notify the board of the occurrence of any of the following:

(1) The issuance of a hazardous waste facilities permit or grant of interim status to any facility operator, who has not previously been granted interim status, within 30 days after the facility permit or grant of interim status is issued.

(2) When any facility changes size category pursuant to Section 25205.4 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) This section shall become operative July 1, 1991.

SEC. 22. Section 43152.10 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

43152.10. The fees imposed pursuant to Sections 25205.7, 25205.8, 25221, and 25343 of the Health and Safety Code, which are collected and administered under Sections 43053 and 43054, are due and payable within 30 days after the date of assessment and the feepayer shall deliver a remittance of the amount of the assessed fee to the office of the board within that 30-day period.

SEC. 23. Section 43152.9 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 1267 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended and renumbered to read:

43152.11. (a) The surcharge imposed pursuant to Section 25205.9 of the Health and Safety Code, which is collected and administered under Section 43055, is due and payable to the board on the last day of the month following the end of the calendar year.

(b) The surcharge shall be incorporated into the return form prescribed by the board, which every operator subject to the fee imposed pursuant to Section 25205.5 of the Health and Safety Code is required to file and pay annually, in accordance with Section 43152.7. The surcharge shall be in addition to the fee imposed by Section 25205.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) The surcharge imposed by Section 25205.9 of the Health and Safety Code shall be offset by any fees paid by the generator during the preceding calendar year for a local hazardous waste management program conducted by a local agency pursuant to a memorandum of understanding with the department. The offset provided for under this subdivision shall be allowed to the same extent as the offset provided in subdivision (c) of Section 43152.7.

SEC. 24. Section 43152.12 is added to the Revenue and Taxation

Code, to read:

43152.12. (a) In addition to the requirements imposed pursuant to Section 43152.6, every operator of a facility subject to the fee specified in Section 25205.2 of the Health and Safety Code shall make a prepayment of the fee to the board, which is due and payable on or before April 25 of each calendar year. The prepayment shall be accompanied by a prepayment return in a form prescribed by the board.

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a), the amount of the prepayment shall be not less than 50 percent of the applicable fee imposed on the facility, based on the facility's type and size, as specified in Sections 25205.1 and 25205.4 of the Health and Safety Code, for the months of January, February, and March of the current calendar year in which the prepayment is due.

(c) The board shall credit the amount of the prepayment against the amount of the fee due and payable for the reporting period in which the prepayment is due.

(d) Any person required to make a prepayment pursuant to this section who fails to make a prepayment by April 25 shall also pay the penalties and interest in accordance with Sections 43155 and 43156.

(e) This section shall become operative July 1, 1991.

SEC. 25. Section 43155 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

43155. (a) If the tax is not paid to the board within the time prescribed for the payment of the tax, a penalty of 10 percent of the amount of the tax shall be added thereto on account of the delinquency.

(b) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1991, and, as of January 1, 1992, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 26. Section 43155 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

43155. (a) If the tax is not paid to the board within the time prescribed for the payment of the tax or prepayment, a penalty of 10 percent of the amount of the tax or prepayment shall be added thereto on account of the delinquency.

(b) This section shall become operative July 1, 1991.

SEC. 27. Section 43156 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

43156. (a) All taxes not paid on the date when due and payable shall bear interest at the modified adjusted rate per month, or fraction thereof, established pursuant to Section 6591.5, from and after that date until paid.

(b) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1991, and, as of January 1, 1992, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1992, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 28. Section 43156 is added to the Revenue and Taxation

Code, to read:

43156. (a) All taxes or prepayments not paid on the date when due and payable shall bear interest at the modified adjusted rate per month, or fraction thereof, established pursuant to Section 6591.5, from and after that date until paid.

(b) This section shall become operative July 1, 1991.

SEC. 29. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 30. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide funding for the programs managing hazardous waste and cleaning up hazardous substances, thereby protecting public health and safety and the environment, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1124

An act to amend Sections 25158.1, 25200.10, and 25205.7 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous substances.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25158.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25158.1. (a) The department shall allow any county, city, or special district which operates a program for the collection, treatment, recycling, or disposal of hazardous wastes generated by households, or any person operating a household hazardous waste collection program under an agreement with a public agency, to allow small quantity commercial sources which comply with subdivision (c) of Section 25163 and the requirements for conditionally exempt small quantity generators specified in Section 261.5 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations to participate in the program.

(b) A public agency which operates a household hazardous waste collection program, or any person operating a household hazardous waste collection program under an agreement with a public agency, which accepts hazardous waste from small quantity commercial sources pursuant to this section shall not accept more than 100 kilograms of hazardous waste per month, or for perchloroethylene, not more than 50 kilograms of hazardous waste shall be accepted from any one small quantity commercial source at such a program.

(c) A public agency, or any person operating a household hazardous waste collection program under an agreement with a public agency, which accepts hazardous waste from small quantity commercial sources at a household hazardous waste collection program pursuant to this section may charge businesses using the collection program a fee based upon the cost to the public agency or person of operating the collection program.

(d) For the purposes of this section, "small quantity commercial source" means a business which generates less than 100 kilograms of household waste, as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 261.4 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or which meets the criteria for conditionally exempt small quantity generators specified in Section 261.5 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or, if the hazardous waste is perchloroethylene, a business which generates less than 50 kilograms per month and meets the criteria set forth in Section 261.4 or 261.5 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

The department may determine whether the quantity limits established by this subdivision adequately provide for the environmentally safe and effective operation of household hazardous waste collection programs which accept hazardous waste from small quantity commercial sources.

(e) The department shall adopt regulations for household hazardous waste collection programs which accept hazardous waste from small quantity commercial sources. The regulations shall provide for the compliance of these programs with the applicable provisions of this chapter, and shall facilitate and promote the recycling of hazardous waste over other waste management alternatives, the safe transport of hazardous waste to collection programs, and the compliance of participating generators with the monthly quantity limitations established by subdivision (d).

SEC. 2. Section 25200.10 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25200.10. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (d), the department shall require, and any permit issued by the department shall require, corrective action for all releases of hazardous waste or constituents from a solid waste management unit or a hazardous waste management unit at a facility engaged in hazardous waste management, regardless of the time at which waste was released at the facility. Any corrective action required pursuant to this section shall require that corrective action be taken beyond the facility boundary where necessary to protect human health or the environment, unless the owner or operator demonstrates to the satisfaction of the department that despite the owner's or operator's best efforts, the owner or operator is unable to obtain the necessary permission to undertake this action. When corrective action cannot be completed prior to issuance of the permit, the permit shall contain schedules of compliance for corrective action and assurances of financial responsibility for completing the corrective action.

(b) This section does not limit the department's authority to require corrective action pursuant to Section 25187.

(c) For purposes of this section, "facility" means the entire site that is under the control of the owner or operator seeking a hazardous waste facilities permit.

(d) This section does not apply to a permit issued to a local government agency for purposes of operating a household hazardous waste program which is operated only for a limited and specified period of time.

SEC. 3. Section 25205.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.7. (a) The board shall assess a fee for any application for a new hazardous waste facilities permit, a permit for a hazardous waste facility which would manage extremely hazardous waste, a variance, or a permit modification issued by the department pursuant to this chapter or the regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter. The board shall also assess a fee for any hazardous waste facility which intends to operate pursuant to a permit by regulation governed by this chapter or the regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter, which shall be due and payable upon the facility's notification to the department of its intent to operate in this manner. The fee shall be nonrefundable, even if the application is withdrawn or the permit, variance, or certification is denied. The department shall provide the board with any information which is necessary to assess fees pursuant to this section. The fee shall be collected in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and deposited into the Hazardous Waste Control Account. A hazardous waste facility which is assessed a fee pursuant to more than one of subdivisions (c) to (i), inclusive, shall pay only the higher fee.

(b) The amounts stated in this section shall be base rates for the 1989–90 fiscal year. Thereafter the fees shall be adjusted annually to reflect increases or decreases in the cost of living, as measured by the Consumer Price Index for the United States, as reported by the Department of Labor or a successor agency of the United States government. The fee shall be assessed upon application or notification to the department.

(c) A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for a land disposal facility shall pay eighty-three thousand dollars ($83,000) for a small facility, one hundred seventy-seven thousand dollars ($177,000) for a medium facility, and three hundred four thousand dollars ($304,000) for a large facility.

(d) A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for any incinerator shall pay fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) for a small facility, one hundred six thousand dollars ($106,000) for a medium facility, and one hundred eighty-two thousand dollars ($182,000) for a large facility.

(e) A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for a storage facility, a treatment facility, or a storage and treatment facility shall pay seventeen thousand dollars ($17,000) for a small facility, thirty-one thousand dollars ($31,000) for a medium facility, and sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) for a large facility.

(f) A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for a transportable treatment unit shall pay thirteen thousand dollars ($13,000) for a small unit, thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) for a medium unit, and sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) for a large unit.

(g) (1) A person submitting a request for a variance shall pay three thousand dollars ($3,000) for a variance from any hazardous waste storage requirements imposed by this chapter, three hundred dollars ($300) for a variance issued pursuant to Section 25179.8, three hundred dollars ($300) for a variance to allow the use of a test method or analytical method which is an alternative to the methods prescribed by regulation for use in classifying a waste, eight hundred dollars ($800) for a variance from the requirements for hazardous waste haulers imposed by this chapter, and eight thousand dollars ($8,000) for all other variances. If the variance application requests a variance from more than one specific statute or regulation, a separate fee may be assessed for each statute or regulation from which the variance is requested.

(2) If the variance contains no significant changes from a variance previously issued to the same owner or operator, the fee shall be 25 percent of the amount otherwise provided for by this section. A change is a significant change if, had it been made to a permit, it would have been a class 2 or class 3 modification, as specified in subdivision (j).

(3) Any variance granted pursuant to Article 6.6 (commencing with Section 66565) of Chapter 30 of Division 4 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations is not subject to a fee under this section.

(h) A person required to notify the department of the person's intent to operate a facility pursuant to a permit by regulation shall pay one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each initial notification and not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each notification thereafter, as specified in the regulations adopted by the department.

(i) A person applying for approval of an application to manage extremely hazardous waste shall pay two hundred dollars ($200), in addition to any other fee imposed by this section.

(j) (1) A person requesting a class 1 permit modification, as defined in the regulations, shall pay a fee of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500).

(2) A person requesting a class 2 permit modification, as defined in the regulations, shall pay a fee equal to 40 percent of the fee for a new hazardous waste facilities permit for that facility, except that person shall pay 30 percent of the fee for a new permit for a land disposal facility or an incinerator.

(3) A person requesting a class 3 permit modification, as defined in the regulations, shall pay a fee equal to 80 percent of the fee for a new hazardous waste facilities permit for that facility, except that person shall pay 60 percent of the fee for a new permit for a land disposal facility or an incinerator.

(k) Permits for postclosure shall be required for hazardous waste facilities if hazardous wastes remain after closure which will not be subject to the requirements of any other hazardous waste facilities permit issued by the department at the time of postclosure permit approval.

(1) A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for a postclosure permit shall pay a fee of eight thousand dollars ($8,000) for a small facility, eighteen thousand dollars ($18,000) for a medium facility, and thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) for a large facility.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision and paragraph (8) of subdivision (c) of Section 25205.4, and notwithstanding subdivision (l), any facility or unit is "small" if 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste remain after closure, "medium" if more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons of hazardous waste remain after closure, and "large" if 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste remain after closure.

(l) For purposes of this section, and notwithstanding Section 25205.1, any facility or unit is "small" if it manages 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year, "medium" if it manages more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year, and "large" if it manages 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year.

(m) The fees assessed pursuant to this section do not apply to any permit or variance to operate a research, development, and demonstration facility, if the duration of the permit or variance is not longer than one year, unless the permit or variance is renewed pursuant to the regulations adopted by the department. For purposes of this section, a "research, development, and demonstration facility" is a facility which proposes to utilize an innovative and experimental hazardous waste treatment technology or process for which regulations prescribing permit standards have not been adopted.

(n) The fees assessed pursuant to this section do not apply to an extremely hazardous waste permit or to any variance issued to a local government agency to transport wastes for purposes of operating a household hazardous waste facility or from a household hazardous waste facility receiving hazardous waste from small quantity commercial sources pursuant to Section 25258.1.

(o) The fees assessed pursuant to subdivision (i) do not apply to any government agency for hazardous wastes which result when the government agency, or its contractor, investigates, removes, or remedies a release of hazardous waste caused by another person.

(p) In each instance when a government agency uses its extremely hazardous waste permit for emergency response activities, the government agency shall send a copy of the permit to the department.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. However, no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provision of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1125

An act to amend Sections 25200.1, 25205, 25205.1, 25205.2, and 25205.5 of, and to add Sections 25201.3, 25201.4, 25205.12, 25205.13, and 25245.5 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25200.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25200.1. Notwithstanding Section 25200, the department shall not issue a hazardous waste facility permit to a facility which commences operation on or after January 1, 1987, unless the department determines that the facility operator is in compliance with regulations adopted by the department pursuant to this chapter requiring that the operator provide financial assurance that the operator can respond adequately to damage claims arising out of the operation of the facility or the facility is exempt from these financial assurance requirements pursuant to Section 25245.5.

SEC. 2. Section 25201.3 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25201.3. (a) A local agency shall not deem a generator of dilute aqueous waste containing metals, who is authorized by the department to treat that waste onsite pursuant to a permit by regulation, to be operating a hazardous waste treatment facility for purposes of making a land use decision, and the generator is exempt from the public notice requirements in the regulations adopted by the department concerning a permit by regulation, if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The generator provides public notice within seven days of submitting the initial facility-specific notification required by the regulations adopted by the department concerning a permit by regulation by publication of a notice in a daily or weekly major local newspaper of general circulation in the area of the generator's facility. The public notice shall, at a minimum, contain all of the following information:

(A) Name of the owner or operator of the treatment unit followed by the words "has notified the Department of Toxic Substances Control of the intended operation of a wastewater pretreatment unit under a permit by rule at _____ (the physical address of the facility)."

(B) A brief description of the business conducted at the facility.

(C) Name, address, and telephone number of a person from whom interested parties may obtain further information.

(D) A brief description of the waste to be treated and the treatment process to be used.

(E) A list of the agencies, including the department, that have been notified of the proposed treatment.

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (3), the generator does not, in any manner, allow the commingling of any hazardous wastes which are not dilute aqueous waste containing metals with the dilute aqueous waste containing metals that are treated pursuant to this section.

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (2), a generator treating dilute aqueous waste containing metals pursuant to this section may commingle spent cleaners with dilute aqueous waste containing metals to the extent necessary for pH adjustment, if the spent cleaners do not contain more than 1,400 milligrams per liter of the metals listed in Section 66261.24 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, the generator notifies the department of the manner in which it uses the spent cleaners in the notice to the department required under the regulations concerning a permit by regulation, and the generator keeps records demonstrating compliance with this paragraph.

(b) For purposes of this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Dilute aqueous waste containing metals" means a liquid waste containing water and less than 1 percent by weight of suspended solids which is hazardous only because it contains a metal or combination of metals listed in Section 66699 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, and which contains not more than 750 milligrams per liter of that metal or combination of metals.

(2) "Land use decision" means a discretionary decision of a local agency concerning a hazardous waste facility project, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 25199.1, including the issuance of a land use permit or conditional use permit, the granting of a variance, the subdivision of property, and the modification of existing property lines pursuant to Title 7 (commencing with Section 65000) of the Government Code, and any local agency decision concerning a hazardous waste facility which is in existence and the enforcement of those decisions. This section does not limit or restrict the existing authority of a local agency to condition or otherwise regulate generators of dilute aqueous waste containing metals who treat the waste onsite pursuant to a permit by regulation.

(c) The department shall establish a program to inspect generators subject to this section for compliance with the requirements of subdivision (a) and the regulations adopted by the department concerning a permit by regulation. The department may expend the revenues generated by the fees paid pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 25205.7 by generators subject to this section which are deposited in the Hazardous Waste Control Account, to implement the program required by this section, upon appropriation by the Legislature, and the department shall inspect each facility subject to this section within two years of the date the department first authorizes the generator to operate pursuant to a permit by regulation and at least once every two years thereafter. The department may enter into agreements with counties and cities, including agreements to provide funding, to authorize a county or city to act on behalf of the department to conduct inspections of facilities operating pursuant to this section.

SEC. 3. Section 25201.4 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25201.4. (a) A generator of effluent hazardous waste from the processing of silver halide based imaging products may treat the waste onsite using a silver recovery unit without being deemed a hazardous waste facility pursuant to this chapter if all the following conditions are met:

(1) The effluent is a non-RCRA hazardous waste or the treatment of the effluent is exempt from hazardous waste treatment facility permit requirements pursuant to the federal act.

(2) The effluent is a hazardous waste solely due to its silver content.

(3) The effluent is treated at the same facility at which the effluent was generated.

(4) The effluent is treated within 90 days of its generation.

(5) The effluent is treated in a tank or container.

(6) The effluent is managed in accordance with all applicable requirements for generators of hazardous waste under this chapter and the regulations adopted by the department pursuant to this chapter.

(7) The total influent hazardous waste stream treated does not exceed 150 gallons in any calendar month.

(8) The generator complies with all local requirements applicable to the treatment of the waste.

(9) The generator's facility does not require a hazardous waste facilities permit for any other hazardous waste management activity.

(b) A local agency shall not deem a generator of effluent from the processing of silver halide based imaging products, who is authorized by the department to treat that waste onsite using a silver recovery unit pursuant to a permit by regulation, to be operating a hazardous waste treatment facility for purposes of making a land use decision, and the generator is exempt from the public notice requirements in the regulations adopted by the department concerning a permit by regulation, if the generator of the effluent provides public notice within seven days of submitting the initial facility-specific notification required by the regulations adopted by the department concerning a permit by regulation by publication of a notice in a daily or weekly major local newspaper of general circulation in the area of the generator's facility. The public notice shall, at a minimum, contain all of the following information:

(1) Name of the owner or operator of the treatment unit followed by the words "has notified the Department of Toxic Substances Control of the intended operation of a silver recovery unit under a permit by rule at _____ (the physical address of the facility)."

(2) A brief description of the business conducted at the facility.

(3) Name, address, and telephone number of a person from whom interested parties may obtain further information.

(4) A brief description of the waste to be treated and the treatment process to be used.

(5) A list of the agencies, including the department, that have been notified of the proposed treatment.

(c) "Land use decision" means a discretionary decision of a local agency concerning a hazardous waste facility project, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 25199.1, including the issuance of a land use permit or conditional use permit, the granting of a variance, the subdivision of property, and the modification of existing property lines pursuant to Title 7 (commencing with Section 65000) of the Government Code, and any local agency decision concerning a hazardous waste facility which is in existence and the enforcement of those decisions. This section does not limit or restrict the existing authority of a local agency to condition or otherwise regulate generators of effluent hazardous waste from the processing of silver halide based imaging products who treat that waste onsite using a silver recovery unit pursuant to a permit by regulation.

(d) The department shall establish a program to inspect generators subject to this section for compliance with the requirements of subdivision (b) and the regulations adopted by the department concerning a permit by regulation. The department may expend the revenues generated by the fees paid pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 25205.7 by generators subject to this section, which are deposited in the Hazardous Waste Control Account, to implement the program required by this section, upon appropriation by the Legislature, and the department shall inspect each facility subject to this section within two years of the date the department first authorizes a generator to operate pursuant to a permit by regulation and at least once every two years thereafter. The department may enter into agreements with counties and cities, including agreements to provide funding, to authorize a county or city to act on behalf of the department to conduct inspections of facilities operating pursuant to this section.

SEC. 4. Section 25205 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205. Except as provided in Section 25245.5, the department shall not issue or renew a permit to operate a hazardous waste facility unless the owner or operator of the facility establishes and maintains the financial assurance prescribed pursuant to Section 25245.

SEC. 5. Section 25205.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.1. For purposes of this article the following definitions apply:

(a) "Board" means the State Board of Equalization.

(b) "Facility" means any units or other structures, and all contiguous land, used for the treatment, transfer, storage, resource recovery, disposal, or recycling of hazardous waste, which has been issued or deemed to hold a permit or a grant of interim status by the department pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200) or which is operated in such a manner that the facility is required to obtain a permit or grant of interim status. "Facility" does not include either of the following:

(1) Any facility operated by a local government agency, or by any person operating a hazardous waste collection program under an agreement with a public agency, which is used for any of the following:

(A) Household hazardous waste collection.

(B) The collection of hazardous waste from small quantity commercial sources pursuant to Section 25158.1.

(C) Hazardous wastes which meet the requirements of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 25174.7.

(2) That portion of a solid waste management facility permitted pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 44001) of Part 4 of Division 30 of the Public Resources Code, which is used for the segregation, handling, and storage of hazardous waste separated from solid waste loads received by the facility, pursuant to a load checking program.

(c) "Large storage facility" means a storage facility which stores 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year commencing on or after July 1, 1988.

(d) "Large treatment facility" means a treatment facility which treats or recycles 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year commencing on or after July 1, 1988.

(e) "Generator" means a person who generates volumes of hazardous waste on or after July 1, 1988, in those amounts specified in subdivision (b) of Section 25205.5 at an individual site commencing on or after July 1, 1988.

(f) "Ministorage facility" means a storage facility which stores 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste during any one month.

(g) "Minitreatment facility" means a treatment facility which treats or recycles 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste during any one month.

(h) "Site" means the location of an operation which generates hazardous wastes and which is noncontiguous to any other location of these operations owned by the generator.

(i) "Small storage facility" means a storage facility which stores more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during any one month.

(j) "Small treatment facility" means a treatment facility which treats or recycles more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during any month.

SEC. 5.1. Section 25205.1 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Senate Bill 194 of the 1991–92 Regular Session of the Legislature, is amended to read:

25205.1. For purposes of this article the following definitions apply:

(a) "Board" means the State Board of Equalization.

(b) "Facility" means any units or other structures, and all contiguous land, used for the treatment, transfer, storage, resource recovery, disposal, or recycling of hazardous waste, which has been issued or deemed to hold a permit or a grant of interim status by the department pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200) or which is operated in such a manner that the facility is required to obtain a permit or grant of interim status. "Facility" does not include either of the following:

(1) Any facility operated by a local government agency, or by any person operating a hazardous waste collection program under an agreement with a public agency, which is used for any of the following:

(A) Household hazardous waste collection.

(B) The collection of hazardous waste from small quantity commercial sources pursuant to Section 25158.1.

(C) Hazardous wastes which meet the requirements of paragraph

(3) of subdivision (a) of Section 25174.7.

(2) That portion of a solid waste management facility permitted pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 44001) of Part 4 of Division 30 of the Public Resources Code, which is used for the segregation, handling, and storage of hazardous waste separated from solid waste loads received by the facility, pursuant to a load checking program.

(c) "Large storage facility" means a storage facility which stores 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste during any one month of the current reporting period commencing on or after July 1, 1991.

(d) "Large treatment facility" means a treatment facility which treats or recycles 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste during any one month of the current reporting period commencing on or after July 1, 1991.

(e) "Generator" means a person who generates volumes of hazardous waste on or after July 1, 1988, in those amounts specified in subdivision (b) of Section 25205.5 at an individual site commencing on or after July 1, 1988.

(f) "Ministorage facility" means a storage facility which stores 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste during any one month of the current reporting period commencing on or after July 1, 1991.

(g) "Minitreatment facility" means a treatment facility which treats or recycles 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste during any one month of the current reporting period commencing on or after July 1, 1991.

(h) "Site" means the location of an operation which generates hazardous wastes and which is noncontiguous to any other location of these operations owned by the generator.

(i) "Small storage facility" means a storage facility which stores more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during any one month of the current reporting period commencing on or after July 1, 1991.

(j) "Small treatment facility" means a treatment facility which treats or recycles more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during any month of the current reporting period commencing on or after July 1, 1991.

(k) This section shall become operative July 1, 1991.

SEC. 5.2. Section 25205.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.1. For purposes of this article the following definitions apply:

(a) "Board" means the State Board of Equalization.

(b) "Facility" means any units or other structures, and all contiguous land, used for the treatment, transfer, storage, resource recovery, disposal, or recycling of hazardous waste, which has been issued or deemed to hold a permit or a grant of interim status by the department pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200) or which is operated in such a manner that the facility is required to obtain a permit or grant of interim status. "Facility" does not include either of the following:

(1) Any facility operated by a local government agency, or by any person operating a hazardous waste collection program under an agreement with a public agency, which is used for any of the following:

(A) Household hazardous waste collection.

(B) The collection of hazardous waste from small quantity commercial sources pursuant to Section 25158.1.

(C) Hazardous wastes which meet the requirements of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 25174.7.

(2) That portion of a solid waste management facility permitted pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 44001) of Part 4 of Division 30 of the Public Resources Code, which is used for the segregation, handling, and storage of hazardous waste separated from solid waste loads received by the facility, pursuant to a load checking program.

(3) A facility used solely for the treatment, transfer, storage, resource recovery, disposal, or recycling of hazardous waste which results when a government agency, or its contractor, investigates, removes, or remedies a release of hazardous waste caused by another person.

(c) "Large storage facility" means a storage facility which stores 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year commencing on or after July 1, 1988.

(d) "Large treatment facility" means a treatment facility which treats or recycles 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year commencing on or after July 1, 1988.

(e) "Generator" means a person who generates volumes of hazardous waste on or after July 1, 1988, in those amounts specified in subdivision (b) of Section 25205.5 at an individual site commencing on or after July 1, 1988.

(f) "Mini storage facility" means a storage facility which stores 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste during any one month.

(g) "Mini treatment facility" means a treatment facility which treats or recycles 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste during any one month.

(h) "Site" means the location of an operation which generates hazardous wastes and which is noncontiguous to any other location of these operations owned by the generator.

(i) "Small storage facility" means a storage facility which stores more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during any one month.

(j) "Small treatment facility" means a treatment facility which treats or recycles more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during any month.

SEC. 5.3. Section 25205.1 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Senate Bill 194 of the 1991–92 Regular Session of the Legislature, is amended to read:

25205.1. For purposes of this article the following definitions apply:

(a) "Board" means the State Board of Equalization.

(b) "Facility" means any units or other structures, and all contiguous land, used for the treatment, transfer, storage, resource recovery, disposal, or recycling of hazardous waste, which has been issued or deemed to hold a permit or a grant of interim status by the department pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200) or which is operated in such a manner that the facility is required to obtain a permit or grant of interim status. "Facility" does not include either of the following:

(1) Any facility operated by a local government agency, or by any person operating a hazardous waste collection program under an agreement with a public agency, which is used for any of the following:

(A) Household hazardous waste collection.

(B) The collection of hazardous waste from small quantity commercial sources pursuant to Section 25158.1.

(C) Hazardous wastes which meet the requirements of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 25174.7.

(2) That portion of a solid waste management facility permitted pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 44001) of Part 4 of Division 30 of the Public Resources Code, which is used for the segregation, handling, and storage of hazardous waste separated from solid waste loads received by the facility, pursuant to a load checking program.

(3) A facility used solely for the treatment, transfer, storage, resource recovery, disposal, or recycling of hazardous waste which results when a government agency, or its contractor, investigates, removes, or remedies a release of hazardous waste caused by another person.

(c) "Large storage facility" means a storage facility which stores 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste during any one month of the current reporting period commencing on or after July 1, 1991.

(d) "Large treatment facility" means a treatment facility which treats or recycles 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste during any one month of the current reporting period commencing on or after July 1, 1991.

(e) "Generator" means a person who generates volumes of hazardous waste on or after July 1, 1988, in those amounts specified in subdivision (b) of Section 25205.5 at an individual site commencing on or after July 1, 1988.

(f) "Ministorage facility" means a storage facility which stores 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste during any one month of the current reporting period commencing on or after July 1, 1991.

(g) "Minitreatment facility" means a treatment facility which treats or recycles 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste during any one month of the current reporting period commencing on or after July 1, 1991.

(h) "Site" means the location of an operation which generates hazardous wastes and which is noncontiguous to any other location of these operations owned by the generator.

(i) "Small storage facility" means a storage facility which stores more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during any one month of the current reporting period commencing on or after July 1, 1991.

(j) "Small treatment facility" means a treatment facility which treats or recycles more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during any month of the current reporting period commencing on or after July 1, 1991.

(k) This section shall become operative July 1, 1991.

SEC. 6. Section 25205.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.2. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), in addition to the fees specified in Section 25174.1, each operator of a facility shall pay a facility fee for each state fiscal year, or any portion thereof, to the board based on the size and type of the facility, as specified in Section 25205.4. The department shall notify the board of all known facility operators by facility type and size at the time it establishes the facility fees pursuant to Section 25205.3. The department shall also notify the board of any operator issued a permit or grant of interim status within 30 days after a permit or grant of interim status is issued to the operator. The fee specified in this section does not apply to facilities operating pursuant to a permit by regulation, as specified in Section 25205.12.

(b) The board shall deposit all fees collected pursuant to subdivision (a) in the Hazardous Waste Control Account in the General Fund. The fees so deposited may be expended by the department, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for the purposes specified in subdivision (b) of Section 25174.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a person who is issued a variance by the department from the requirement of obtaining a hazardous waste facilities permit or grant of interim status, or a person who is in a closure period approved by the department pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200) and Article 12 (commencing with Section 25245), is not subject to the fee, for any fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the variance or closure was granted or approved by the department or in the fiscal year following any fiscal year in which the facility has completed all activities necessary for the department to approve the closure, including, but not limited to, submittal of a certification that these activities are completed to the department.

SEC. 6.1. Section 25205.2 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Senate Bill 194 of the 1991–92 Regular Session of the Legislature, is amended to read:

25205.2. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c), in addition to the fees specified in Section 25174.1, each operator of a facility shall pay a facility fee for each reporting period, or any portion thereof, to the board based on the size and type of the facility, as specified in Section 25205.4. On or before January 31 of each calendar year, the department annually shall notify the board of all known facility operators by facility type and size. The department shall also notify the board of any operator issued a permit or grant of interim status within 30 days after a permit or grant of interim status is issued to the operator. The fee specified in this section does not apply to facilities operating pursuant to a permit by regulation, as specified in Section 25205.12.

(b) The board shall deposit all fees collected pursuant to subdivision (a) in the Hazardous Waste Control Account in the General Fund. The fees so deposited may be expended by the department, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for the purposes specified in subdivision (b) of Section 25174.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a person who is issued a variance by the department from the requirement of obtaining a hazardous waste facilities permit or grant of interim status, or a person who is in a closure period approved by the department pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200) and Article 12 (commencing with Section 25245), is not subject to the fee, for any reporting period following the reporting period in which the variance or closure was granted or approved by the department or in the reporting period following any reporting period in which the facility has completed all activities necessary for the department to approve the closure, including, but not limited to, submittal of a certification that these activities are completed to the department.

(d) This section shall become operative July 1, 1991.

SEC. 7. Section 25205.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.5. (a) In addition to the fee imposed pursuant to Section 25174.1, every generator of hazardous waste, in the amounts specified in subdivision (b), shall pay the board a generator fee for each generator site for each calendar year, or portion thereof, unless the generator has paid a facility fee, as specified in Section 25205.2, for each specific site, for the fiscal year which commenced during the calendar year for which the generator fee is due.

(b) Within 30 days of the enactment of the annual Budget Act, the board shall establish the generator fee specified in subdivision (a), as adjusted pursuant to subdivision (c), to be paid by generators subject to this section.

The base fee rate is two thousand four hundred dollars ($2,400).

(1) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 5 tons, but less than 25 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 5 percent of the base rate.

(2) Each generator who generates an amount equal to or more than 25 tons, but less than 50 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 40 percent of the base rate.

(3) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 50 tons, but less than 250 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay the base rate.

(4) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 250 tons, but less than 500 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay five times the base rate.

(5) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 500 tons, but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 10 times the base rate.

(6) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 1,000 tons, but less than 2,000 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 15 times the base rate.

(7) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 2,000 tons of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 20 times the base rate.

(c) The base rate established pursuant to subdivision (b) is the base rate for the 1989–90 fiscal year and the board shall adjust the base rate annually to reflect increases or decreases in the cost of living, as measured by the Consumer Price Index issued by the United States Department of Labor or by a successor agency of the federal government.

(d) The establishment of the annual operating fee pursuant to this section is exempt from Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(e) The following materials are not hazardous wastes for purposes of this section:

(1) Hazardous materials which are recycled, and used onsite, and are not transferred offsite.

(2) Aqueous waste treated in a treatment unit operating, or which subsequently operates, pursuant to a permit by regulation. However, hazardous waste generated by a treatment unit treating aqueous waste pursuant to a permit by regulation, or by a unit which subsequently obtains a permit by regulation, is hazardous waste for purposes of this section.

(f) The fee imposed pursuant to this section shall be paid in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(g) The amendment of this section made at the 1991–92 Regular Session of the Legislature does not constitute a change in, but is declaratory of, existing law.

SEC. 7.1. Section 25205.5 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Senate Bill 194 of the 1991–92 Regular Session of the Legislature, is amended to read:

25205.5. (a) In addition to the fee imposed pursuant to Section 25174.1, every generator of hazardous waste, in the amounts specified in subdivision (b), shall pay the board a generator fee for each generator site for each calendar year, or portion thereof, unless the generator has paid a facility fee, as specified in Section 25205.2, for each specific site, for the calendar year for which the generator fee is due.

(b) Within 30 days of the enactment of the annual Budget Act, the board shall establish the generator fee specified in subdivision (a), as adjusted pursuant to subdivision (c), to be paid by generators subject to this section.

The base fee rate is two thousand four hundred dollars ($2,400).

(1) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, five tons, but less than 25 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 5 percent of the base rate.

(2) Each generator who generates an amount equal to or more than 25 tons, but less than 50 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 40 percent of the base rate.

(3) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 50 tons, but less than 250 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay the base rate.

(4) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 250 tons, but less than 500 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay five times the base rate.

(5) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 500 tons, but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 10 times the base rate.

(6) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 1,000 tons, but less than 2,000 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 15 times the base rate.

(7) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 2,000 tons of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 20 times the base rate.

(c) The base rate established pursuant to subdivision (b) is the base rate for the 1989-90 fiscal year and the board shall adjust the base rate annually to reflect increases or decreases in the cost of living, as measured by the Consumer Price Index issued by the United States Department of Labor or by a successor agency of the federal government.

(d) The establishment of the annual operating fee pursuant to this section is exempt from Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(e) The following materials are not hazardous wastes for purposes of this section:

(1) Hazardous materials which are recycled, and used onsite, and are not transferred offsite.

(2) Aqueous waste treated in a treatment unit operating, or which subsequently operates, pursuant to a permit by regulation. However, hazardous waste generated by a treatment unit treating aqueous waste pursuant to a permit by regulation, or by a unit which subsequently obtains a permit by regulation, is hazardous waste for purposes of this section.

(f) The fee imposed pursuant to this section shall be paid in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(g) This section shall become operative July 1, 1991.

(h) The amendment of this section made at the 1991–92 Regular Session of the Legislature does not constitute a change in, but is declaratory of, existing law.

SEC. 8. Section 25205.12 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25205.12. (a) The owner of a hazardous waste facility authorized by the department to operate pursuant to a permit by regulation is exempt from the facility fee specified in Section 25205.2 for any activities authorized by the permit by regulation at that facility for the fiscal year during which the authorization is effective.

(b) If a facility qualifying for a facility fee exemption pursuant to subdivision (a) conducts an activity which is eligible for authorization under a permit by regulation, and conducted this activity in a fiscal year prior to receiving authorization to operate from the department, the facility is also exempt from the fee for that fiscal year when the activities were conducted, including, but not before, the 1988–89 fiscal year. However, a facility may receive this retroactive exemption only if the facility owner or operator notifies the department of the person's intent to operate the facility pursuant to a permit by regulation within six months following the effective date of regulations establishing the facility's initial eligibility to operate pursuant to a permit by regulation.

(c) Subdivision (b) does not apply to any facility which was authorized by the department to operate on or before June 1, 1991.

SEC. 9. Section 25205.13 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25205.13. A generator that meets the conditions specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25201.4 is exempt from the facility fee specified in Section 25205.2 for all fiscal years prior to the 1991–92 fiscal year.

SEC. 10. Section 25245.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25245.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a person who treats waste pursuant to Section 25201.3 or 25201.4 is, before January 1, 1993, exempt from standards and regulations adopted by the department pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 25245 that specify the financial assurances to be provided by that person that are necessary to respond adequately to damage claims arising out of the operation of the treatment unit. This section does not exempt such a person from the standards and regulations adopted by the department that require financial assurances for the cost of closure and subsequent maintenance of the treatment unit.

(b) On and after January 1, 1993, a person who treats waste pursuant to Section 25201.3 or 25201.4 shall have in place financial assurances which meet the standards and regulations adopted by the department pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 25245.

SEC. 11. On or before January 1, 1993, the Insurance Commissioner shall submit a report to the Legislature on the availability and affordability of third-party environmental liability insurance and possible alternative coverage mechanisms to assure coverage for third-party claims resulting from sudden accidental occurrences at hazardous waste facilities authorized by the Department of Toxic Substances Control to operate pursuant to a permit by regulation, including, but not limited to, those facilities specified in Section 25201.3 and subdivision (b) of Section 25201.4 of the Health and Safety Code. In obtaining information for this report, the commissioner shall conduct public hearings in northern and southern California during the 1992 calendar year.

SEC. 12. (a) Section 5.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 25205.1 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by this bill and SB 194. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1992, (2) this bill amends Section 25205.1 of the Health and Safety Code, (3) SB 194 adds Section 25205.1 to the Health and Safety Code, (4) AB 604 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (5) this bill is enacted after SB 194, in which case Section 25205.1 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by SB 194, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 5.1 of this bill shall become operative and Sections 5, 5.2, and 5.3 of this bill shall not become operative.

(b) Section 5.2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 25205.1 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and AB 604. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective January 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 25205.1 of the Health and Safety Code, (3) SB 194 is not enacted or as enacted does not add or amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 604, in which case Sections 5, 5.1, and 5.3 of this bill shall not become operative.

(c) Section 5.3 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 25205.1 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by this bill, SB 194, and AB 604. It shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1992, (2) this bill and AB 604 amend Section 25205.1 of the Health and Safety Code, (3) SB 194 adds Section 25205.1 to the Health and Safety Code, and (4) this bill is enacted after SB 194 and AB 604, in which case Section 25205.1 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by SB 194, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 5.3 of this bill shall become operative and Sections 5, 5.1, and 5.2 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 13. Section 6.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 25205.2 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by this bill and SB 194. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1992, (2) this bill amends Section 25205.2 of the Health and Safety Code, (3) SB 194 adds Section 25205.2 to the Health and Safety Code, and (4) this bill is enacted after SB 194, in which case Section 25205.2 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by SB 194, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 6.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 6 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 14. Section 7.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 25205.5 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by this bill and SB 194. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1992, (2) this bill amends Section 25205.5 of the Health and Safety Code, (3) SB 194 adds Section 25205.5 to the Health and Safety Code, and (4) this bill is enacted after SB 194, in which case Section 25205.5 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by SB 194, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 7.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 7 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 15. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1126

An act to amend Sections 25026, 25117.9, 25118, 25123.3, 25143.2, 25143.9, 25174.6, 25179.6, 25187.2, 25202, and 25343 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous substances, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25026 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25026. "Person" means an individual, trust, firm, joint stock company, business concern, partnership, association, and corporation, including, but not limited to, a government corporation. "Person" also includes any city, county, district, commission, the state or any department, agency, or political subdivision thereof, the Regents of the University of California, any interstate body, and the federal government or any department or agency thereof to the extent permitted by law.

SEC. 2. Section 25117.9 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25117.9. "Non-RCRA hazardous waste" means all hazardous waste regulated in the state, other than RCRA hazardous waste, as defined in Section 25120.2. A hazardous waste regulated in the state is presumed to be RCRA hazardous waste, unless it is determined, pursuant to regulations adopted by the department, that the hazardous waste is a non-RCRA hazardous waste.

SEC. 3. Section 25118 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25118. "Person" means an individual, trust, firm, joint stock company, business concern, partnership, association, and corporation, including, but not limited to, a government corporation. "Person" also includes any city, county, district, commission, the state or any department, agency, or political subdivision thereof, any interstate body, and the federal government or any department or agency thereof to the extent permitted by law.

SEC. 4. Section 25123.3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25123.3. (a) "Storage facility" means a hazardous waste facility at which the hazardous waste meets any of the following requirements:

(1) The hazardous waste is held in containers or tanks for greater than 90 days at an onsite facility.

(2) The hazardous waste is held at an onsite facility in tanks for any period of time and the quantity of the hazardous waste in any individual tank exceeds 5,000 gallons or 45,000 pounds, whichever is greater, or the aggregate amount of hazardous waste stored in tanks at the facility exceeds 50,000 gallons. For purposes of this paragraph, these quantities do not include hazardous waste stored in a portable tank used for a period of not more than 60 calendar days at an onsite facility or hazardous waste accumulated onsite which has been generated from onsite maintenance operations which occur less frequently than annually or hazardous waste which is held, as part of the ongoing treatment of that waste, in a tank which is authorized by the department to perform that treatment for that waste.

(3) The hazardous waste is held in containers or tanks for any period of time at an offsite facility which is not a transfer facility.

(4) The hazardous waste is held in containers or tanks at a transfer facility for periods greater than 144 hours.

(5) The hazardous waste is held at an onsite facility in any individual container of less than 5,000 gallons for any period of time, and the aggregate amount of hazardous waste stored in those containers, exclusive of tanks, at the facility exceeds 50,000 gallons. For purposes of this paragraph, this quantity does not include hazardous waste being accumulated at an initial accumulation point pursuant to subdivision (d).

(6) The hazardous waste is held at any facility for any period of time in a manner other than in a container or tank.

(b) The time period for calculating the 90-day period for purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) begins when the facility has accumulated 100 kilograms of hazardous waste or one kilogram of extremely hazardous waste or acutely hazardous waste. However, if the facility generates more than 100 kilograms of hazardous waste or one kilogram of extremely hazardous waste or acutely hazardous waste during any calendar month, the time period begins when any amount of hazardous waste first begins to accumulate in that month.

(c) For purposes of this section, "transfer facility" means any offsite facility which is related to the transportation of hazardous waste, including, but not limited to, loading docks, parking areas, storage areas, and other similar areas where shipments of hazardous waste are held during the normal course of transportation.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), a generator of hazardous waste that accumulates waste onsite is not a storage facility if all of the following requirements are met:

(1) The generator accumulates a maximum of 55 gallons of hazardous waste, one quart of acutely hazardous waste, or one quart of extremely hazardous waste at an initial accumulation point which is at or near the area where the waste is generated and which is under the control of the operator of the process generating the waste.

(2) The generator accumulates the waste in containers other than tanks.

(3) The generator does not hold the hazardous waste onsite for more than one year from the initial date of accumulation, or 90 days from the date the quantity limitation specified in paragraph (1) of this subdivision is reached, whichever occurs first.

(4) The generator labels any container used for the accumulation of hazardous waste with the initial date of accumulation and with the words "hazardous waste" or other words that identify the contents of the container.

(5) Within three days of reaching any applicable quantity limitation specified in paragraph (1), the generator labels the container holding the accumulated hazardous waste with the date the quantity limitation was reached and either transports the waste offsite or holds the waste onsite and complies with the regulations adopted by the department establishing requirements for personnel training, preparedness and prevention, and contingency plans and emergency procedures applicable to storage facilities.

(6) The generator complies with regulations adopted by the department pertaining to the use and management of containers and any other regulations adopted by the department to implement this subdivision.

(7) The generator does not otherwise meet the definition of a storage facility.

SEC. 5. Section 25143.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25143.2. (a) Recyclable materials are subject to the requirements of this chapter and the regulations adopted by the department to implement this chapter which apply to hazardous wastes, unless the department issues a variance pursuant to Section 25143, or except as provided otherwise in subdivision (b), (c), or (d) or the regulations adopted by the department pursuant to Sections 25150 and 25151. For the purposes of this section, recyclable material does not include infectious waste.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (e), (f) and (g), recyclable material which is managed in accordance with Section 25143.9 and is or will be recycled by any of the following methods shall be excluded from classification as a waste:

(1) Used or reused as an ingredient in an industrial process to make a product, if the material is not being reclaimed.

(2) Used or reused as a safe and effective substitute for commercial products, if the material is not being reclaimed.

(3) Returned to the original process from which the material was generated, without first being reclaimed, if the material is returned as a substitute for raw material feedstock, and the process uses raw materials as principal feedstocks.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (e), any recyclable material may be recycled at a facility which is not authorized by the department pursuant to the applicable hazardous waste facilities permit requirements of Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200) if either of the following requirements is met:

(1) The material is a petroleum refinery waste containing oil which is converted into petroleum coke at the same facility at which the waste was generated, unless the resulting coke product would be identified as a hazardous waste under this chapter. A waste subject to this paragraph is exempt from this chapter to the same extent the waste is exempt from subsections (q), (r), and (s) of Section 6924 of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(2) The material meets all of the following conditions:

(A) The material is recycled and used at the same facility at which the material was generated.

(B) The material is recycled within 90 days of its generation.

(C) The material is managed in accordance with all applicable requirements for generators of hazardous wastes under this chapter and regulations adopted by the department.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (e), (f), and (g), recyclable material which meets the definition of a non-RCRA hazardous waste in Section 25117.9, is managed in accordance with Section 25143.9, and meets or will meet any of the following requirements is excluded from classification as a waste:

(1) The material can be shown to be recycled and used at the site where the material was generated.

(2) The material qualifies as one or more of the following:

(A) The material is a product, which has been processed from a hazardous waste, or which has been handled, at a facility authorized by the department pursuant to the facility permit requirements of Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200) to process or handle the material, if the product meets both of the following conditions:

(i) The product does not contain constituents, other than those for which the material is being recycled which render the material hazardous under regulations adopted pursuant to Sections 25140 and 25141.

(ii) The product is used, or distributed or sold for use, in a manner for which the product is commonly used.

(B) The material is a petroleum refinery waste containing oil which is converted into petroleum coke at the same facility at which the waste was generated, unless the resulting coke product would be identified as a hazardous waste under this chapter.

(C) The material is oily waste, used oil, or spent nonhalogenated solvent which is managed by the owner or operator of a refinery which is processing primarily crude oil and which is not subject to permit requirements for recycling of used oil, or a public utility, or a corporate subsidiary, corporate parent, or subsidiary of the same corporate parent of the refinery or public utility, and which meets all of the following requirements:

(i) The material is either burned in an industrial boiler, an industrial furnace, an incinerator, or a utility boiler which complies with all applicable federal and state laws, or is recombined with normal process streams to produce a fuel.

(ii) The material is managed at the site where it was generated; managed at another site owned or operated by the generator, a corporate subsidiary of the generator, a subsidiary of the same entity of which the generator is a subsidiary, or the corporate parent of the generator; or, if the material is generated in the course of oil or gas exploration or production, managed by an unrelated refinery receiving the waste through a common pipeline.

(iii) The material does not contain constituents other than those for which the material is being recycled which render the material hazardous under regulations adopted pursuant to Sections 25140 and 25141.

(3) The material is transported between locations operated by the same person who generated the material, if the material is recycled at the last location operated by that person and all of the conditions of clauses (i) to (vi), inclusive, of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4) are met. If requested by the department or by any law enforcement official, a person handling material subject to this paragraph shall, within 15 days of the request, supply documentation to show that the requirements of this paragraph have been satisfied.

(4) (A) The material is transferred between locations operated by the same person who generated the material, if the material is to be recycled at an authorized offsite hazardous waste facility and if all of the following conditions are met:

(i) The material is transferred by employees of that person in vehicles under the control of that person or by a registered hazardous waste hauler under contract to that person.

(ii) The material is not handled at any interim location.

(iii) The material is not held at any publicly accessible interim location for more than four hours unless required by other provisions of law.

(iv) The material is managed in compliance with the requirements of this chapter and the regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter prior to the initial transportation of the material and after the receipt of the material at the last location operated by that person. Upon receipt of the material at the last location operated by that person, the material shall be deemed to have been generated at that location.

(v) All of the following information is maintained in an operating log at the last location operated by that person:

(I) The name and address of each generator location contributing material to each shipment received.

(II) The quantity and type of material contributed by each generator to each shipment of material.

(III) The destination and intended disposition of all material shipped offsite or received.

(IV) The date of each shipment received or sent offsite.

The log shall be kept for at least three years after receipt of the material at that location.

(vi) If requested by the department, or by any law enforcement official, a person handling material subject to this paragraph shall, within 15 days of the request, supply documentation to show that the requirements of this paragraph have been satisfied.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (3) and subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4), "person" also includes corporate subsidiary, corporate parent, or subsidiary of the same corporate parent.

(C) Persons which are a corporate subsidiary, corporate parent, or subsidiary of the same corporate parent, and which manage recyclable materials under paragraph (3) or subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4), are jointly and severally liable for any activities exempt from regulation pursuant to this section.

(5) The material is used or reused as an ingredient in an industrial process to make a product, if the material is not being treated before introduction to that process except by one or more of the following procedures, and if any discharges to air from the following procedures do not contain constituents which are hazardous wastes pursuant to the department's regulations and comply with applicable air pollution control laws:

(A) Filtering.

(B) Screening.

(C) Sorting.

(D) Sieving.

(E) Grinding.

(F) Physical or gravity separation, without the addition of external heat or any chemicals.

(G) pH adjustment.

(H) Viscosity adjustment.

(6) The material is used or reused as a safe and effective substitute for commercial products, if the material is not being treated except by one or more of the following procedures, and if any discharges to air from the following procedures do not contain constituents which are hazardous wastes pursuant to the department's regulations and comply with applicable air pollution control laws:

(A) Filtering.

(B) Screening.

(C) Sorting.

(D) Sieving.

(E) Grinding.

(F) Physical or gravity separation, without the addition of external heat or any chemicals.

(G) pH adjustment.

(H) Viscosity adjustment.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivisions (b), (c), and (d), all of the following recyclable materials are hazardous wastes and subject to full regulation under this chapter, even if the recycling involves use, reuse, or return to the original process as described in subdivision (b), or even if the recycling involves activities or materials described in subdivisions (c) and (d):

(1) Materials which are a RCRA hazardous waste, as defined in Section 25120.2, used in a manner constituting disposal, or used to produce products that are applied to the land including, but not limited to, materials used to produce a fertilizer, soil amendment, agricultural mineral, or an auxiliary soil and plant substance. The department may adopt regulations to exclude materials from regulation pursuant to this paragraph.

(2) Materials which are a non-RCRA hazardous waste, as defined in Section 25117.9, and used in a manner constituting disposal or used to produce products that are applied to the land as a fertilizer, soil amendment, agricultural mineral, or an auxiliary soil and plant substance. The department may adopt regulations to exclude materials from regulation pursuant to this paragraph.

(3) Materials burned for energy recovery, used to produce a fuel, or contained in fuels, except materials exempted under paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) or excluded under subparagraph (B) or (C) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (d).

(4) Materials accumulated speculatively.

(5) Materials determined to be inherently wastelike pursuant to regulations adopted by the department.

(6) Used or spent etchants, stripping solutions, and plating solutions, which are transported to an offsite facility operated by a person other than the generator and which conform to either of the following:

(A) Meet a characteristic or a criterion of a hazardous waste established by the Environmental Protection Agency or the department.

(B) Are listed by the Environmental Protection Agency or the department as a hazardous waste.

(7) Used oil, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 25250.1, unless one of the following applies:

(A) The used oil meets the definition of recycled oil contained in subdivision (c) of Section 25250.1.

(B) The used oil is excluded under subparagraph (B) or (C) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) or under paragraph (4) of subdivision (d) of this section, under subdivision (e) of Section 25250.1, or under Section 25250.3.

(C) The used oil is used or reused on the site where it was generated or is excluded under paragraph (3) of subdivision (d) of this section and, in either situation, is not any of the following:

(i) Used in a manner constituting disposal or used to produce a product that is applied to land.

(ii) Burned for energy recovery or used to produce a fuel, unless the used oil is excluded under subparagraph (B) or (C) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (d).

(iii) Accumulated speculatively.

(iv) Determined to be inherently wastelike pursuant to regulations adopted by the department.

(f) (1) Any person who manages a recyclable material under a claim that the material qualifies for exclusion or exemption pursuant to this section shall provide, upon request, to the department, the Environmental Protection Agency, or any local agency or official authorized to bring an action as provided in Section 25180, all of the following information:

(A) The name, street and mailing address, and telephone number of the owner or operator of any facility that manages the material.

(B) Any other information related to that person's management of the material requested by the department, the Environmental Protection Agency, or the authorized local agency or official.

(2) Any person claiming an exclusion or an exemption shall maintain adequate records to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the requesting agency or official that there is a known market or disposition for the material, and that the requirements of any exemption or exclusion pursuant to this section are met.

(3) For purposes of determining that the conditions for exclusion from classification as a waste pursuant to this section are met, any person, facility, site, or vehicle engaged in the management of a material under a claim that the material is excluded from classification as a waste pursuant to this section shall be subject to Section 25185.

(g) For purposes of Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300), recyclable materials excluded from classification as a waste pursuant to this section are not excluded from the definition of hazardous substances in subdivision (g) of Section 25316.

SEC. 5.5. Section 25143.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25143.2. (a) Recyclable materials are subject to the requirements of this chapter and the regulations adopted by the department to implement this chapter which apply to hazardous wastes, unless the department issues a variance pursuant to Section 25143, or except as provided otherwise in subdivision (b), (c), or (d) or the regulations adopted by the department pursuant to Sections 25150 and 25151. For the purposes of this section, recyclable material does not include infectious waste.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (e), (f) and (g), recyclable material which is managed in accordance with Section 25143.9 and is or will be recycled by any of the following methods shall be excluded from classification as a waste:

(1) Used or reused as an ingredient in an industrial process to make a product, if the material is not being reclaimed.

(2) Used or reused as a safe and effective substitute for commercial products, if the material is not being reclaimed.

(3) Returned to the original process from which the material was generated, without first being reclaimed, if the material is returned as a substitute for raw material feedstock, and the process uses raw materials as principal feedstocks.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (e), any recyclable material may be recycled at a facility which is not authorized by the department pursuant to the applicable hazardous waste facilities permit requirements of Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200) if either of the following requirements is met:

(1) The material is a petroleum refinery waste containing oil which is converted into petroleum coke at the same facility at which the waste was generated, unless the resulting coke product would be identified as a hazardous waste under this chapter. A waste subject to this paragraph is exempt from this chapter to the same extent the waste is exempt from subsections (q), (r), and (s) of Section 6924 of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(2) The material meets all of the following conditions:

(A) The material is recycled and used at the same facility at which the material was generated.

(B) The material is recycled within 90 days of its generation.

(C) The material is managed in accordance with all applicable requirements for generators of hazardous wastes under this chapter and regulations adopted by the department.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (e), (f), (g), and (h), recyclable material which meets the definition of a non-RCRA hazardous waste in Section 25117.9, is managed in accordance with Section 25143.9, and meets or will meet any of the following requirements is excluded from classification as a waste:

(1) The material can be shown to be recycled and used at the site where the material was generated.

(2) The material qualifies as one or more of the following:

(A) The material is a product, which has been processed from a hazardous waste, or which has been handled, at a facility authorized by the department pursuant to the facility permit requirements of Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200) to process or handle the material, if the product meets both of the following conditions:

(i) The product does not contain constituents, other than those for which the material is being recycled which render the material hazardous under regulations adopted pursuant to Sections 25140 and 25141.

(ii) The product is used, or distributed or sold for use, in a manner for which the product is commonly used.

(B) The material is a petroleum refinery waste containing oil which is converted into petroleum coke at the same facility at which the waste was generated, unless the resulting coke product would be identified as a hazardous waste under this chapter.

(C) The material is oily waste, used oil, or spent nonhalogenated solvent which is managed by the owner or operator of a refinery which is processing primarily crude oil and which is not subject to permit requirements for recycling of used oil, or a public utility, or a corporate subsidiary, corporate parent, or subsidiary of the same corporate parent of the refinery or public utility, and which meets all of the following requirements:

(i) The material is either burned in an industrial boiler, an industrial furnace, an incinerator, or a utility boiler which complies with all applicable federal and state laws, or is recombined with normal process streams to produce a fuel.

(ii) The material is managed at the site where it was generated; managed at another site owned or operated by the generator, a corporate subsidiary of the generator, a subsidiary of the same entity of which the generator is a subsidiary, or the corporate parent of the generator; or, if the material is generated in the course of oil or gas exploration or production, managed by an unrelated refinery receiving the waste through a common pipeline.

(iii) The material does not contain constituents other than those for which the material is being recycled which render the material hazardous under regulations adopted pursuant to Sections 25140 and 25141.

(D) The material is a fuel which is removed from a fuel tank, is either fuel contaminated with water or by nonhazardous debris, of not more than 2 percent by weight, including, but not limited to, rust or sand, or a fuel unintentionally mixed with an unused petroleum product, and is transferred to, and processed into a fuel at, a refinery which processes primarily crude oil.

(3) The material is transported between locations operated by the same person who generated the material, if the material is recycled at the last location operated by that person and all of the conditions of clauses (i) to (vi), inclusive, of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4) are met. If requested by the department or by any law enforcement official, a person handling material subject to this paragraph shall, within 15 days of the request, supply documentation to show that the requirements of this paragraph have been satisfied.

(4) (A) The material is transferred between locations operated by the same person who generated the material, if the material is to be recycled at an authorized offsite hazardous waste facility and if all of the following conditions are met:

(i) The material is transferred by employees of that person in vehicles under the control of that person or by a registered hazardous waste hauler under contract to that person.

(ii) The material is not handled at any interim location.

(iii) The material is not held at any publicly accessible interim location for more than four hours unless required by other provisions of law.

(iv) The material is managed in compliance with the requirements of this chapter and the regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter prior to the initial transportation of the material and after the receipt of the material at the last location operated by that person. Upon receipt of the material at the last location operated by that person, the material shall be deemed to have been generated at that location.

(v) All of the following information is maintained in an operating log at the last location operated by that person:

(I) The name and address of each generator location contributing material to each shipment received.

(II) The quantity and type of material contributed by each generator to each shipment of material.

(III) The destination and intended disposition of all material shipped offsite or received.

(IV) The date of each shipment received or sent offsite.

The log shall be kept for at least three years after receipt of the material at that location.

(vi) If requested by the department, or by any law enforcement official, a person handling material subject to this paragraph shall, within 15 days of the request, supply documentation to show that the requirements of this paragraph have been satisfied.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (3) and subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4), "person" also includes corporate subsidiary, corporate parent, or subsidiary of the same corporate parent.

(C) Persons which are a corporate subsidiary, corporate parent, or subsidiary of the same corporate parent, and which manage recyclable materials under paragraph (3) or subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4), are jointly and severally liable for any activities excluded from regulation pursuant to this section.

(5) The material is used or reused as an ingredient in an industrial process to make a product, if the material is not being treated before introduction to that process except by one or more of the following procedures, and if any discharges to air from the following procedures do not contain constituents which are hazardous wastes pursuant to the department's regulations and comply with applicable air pollution control laws:

(A) Filtering.

(B) Screening.

(C) Sorting
(D) Sieving.
(E) Grinding.
(F) Physical or gravity separation, without the addition of external heat or any chemicals.
(G) pH adjustment.
(H) Viscosity adjustment.

(6) The material is used or reused as a safe and effective substitute for commercial products, if the material is not being treated except by one or more of the following procedures, and if any discharges to air from the following procedures do not contain constituents which are hazardous wastes pursuant to the department's regulations and comply with applicable air pollution control laws:
(A) Filtering.
(B) Screening.
(C) Sorting.
(D) Sieving.
(E) Grinding.
(F) Physical or gravity separation, without the addition of external heat or any chemicals.
(G) pH adjustment.
(H) Viscosity adjustment.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivisions (b), (c), and (d), all of the following recyclable materials are hazardous wastes and subject to full regulation under this chapter, even if the recycling involves use, reuse, or return to the original process as described in subdivision (b), or even if the recycling involves activities or materials described in subdivisions (c) and (d):

(1) Materials which are a RCRA hazardous waste, as defined in Section 25120.2, used in a manner constituting disposal, or used to produce products that are applied to the land including, but not limited to, materials used to produce a fertilizer, soil amendment, agricultural mineral, or an auxiliary soil and plant substance.

(2) Materials which are a non-RCRA hazardous waste, as defined in Section 25117.9, and used in a manner constituting disposal or used to produce products that are applied to the land as a fertilizer, soil amendment, agricultural mineral, or an auxiliary soil and plant substance. The department may adopt regulations to exclude materials from regulation pursuant to this paragraph.

(3) Materials burned for energy recovery, used to produce a fuel, or contained in fuels, except materials exempted under paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) or excluded under subparagraph (B), (C) or (D) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (d).

(4) Materials accumulated speculatively.

(5) Materials determined to be inherently wastelike pursuant to regulations adopted by the department.

(6) Used or spent etchants, stripping solutions, and plating solutions, which are transported to an offsite facility operated by a person other than the generator and which are either of the following:

(A) The etchants or solutions are no longer fit for their originally purchased or manufactured purpose.

(B) If the etchants or solutions are reused, the generator and the user cannot document that they are used for their originally purchased or manufactured purpose without prior treatment.

(7) Used oil, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 25250.1, unless one of the following applies:

(A) The used oil is excluded under subparagraph (B) or (C) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) or under paragraph (4) of subdivision (d) of this section, under subdivision (e) of Section 25250.1, or under Section 25250.3.

(B) The used oil is used or reused on the site where it was generated or is excluded under paragraph (3) of subdivision (d) of this section and, in either situation, is not any of the following:

(i) Used in a manner constituting disposal or used to produce a product that is applied to land.

(ii) Burned for energy recovery or used to produce a fuel, unless the used oil is excluded under subparagraph (B) or (C) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (d).

(iii) Accumulated speculatively.

(iv) Determined to be inherently wastelike pursuant to regulations adopted by the department.

(f) (1) Any person who manages a recyclable material under a claim that the material qualifies for exclusion or exemption pursuant to this section shall provide, upon request, to the department, the Environmental Protection Agency, or any local agency or official authorized to bring an action as provided in Section 25180, all of the following information:

(A) The name, street and mailing address, and telephone number of the owner or operator of any facility that manages the material.

(B) Any other information related to that person's management of the material requested by the department, the Environmental Protection Agency, or the authorized local agency or official.

(2) Any person claiming an exclusion or an exemption shall maintain adequate records to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the requesting agency or official that there is a known market or disposition for the material, and that the requirements of any exemption or exclusion pursuant to this section are met.

(3) For purposes of determining that the conditions for exclusion from classification as a waste pursuant to this section are met, any person, facility, site, or vehicle engaged in the management of a material under a claim that the material is excluded from classification as a waste pursuant to this section shall be subject to Section 25185.

(g) For purposes of Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300), recyclable materials excluded from classification as a waste pursuant to this section are not excluded from the definition of hazardous substances in subdivision (g) of Section 25316.

(h) Used oil that fails to qualify for exclusion pursuant to subdivision (d) solely because the used oil is a RCRA hazardous waste, may be managed pursuant to subdivision (d) if the used oil is also managed in accordance with Part 260 (commencing with Section 260.1) to Part 270 (commencing with Section 270.1), inclusive, of Subchapter I of Chapter 1 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

SEC. 6. Section 25143.9 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25143.9. A recyclable material shall not be excluded from classification as a waste pursuant to subdivision (b) or (d) of Section 25143.2, unless all of the following requirements are met:

(a) If the material is held in a container or tank, the container or tank is labeled, marked, and placarded in accordance with the department's hazardous waste labeling, marking, and placarding requirements which are applicable to generators, except that the container or tank shall be labeled or marked clearly with the words "Excluded Recyclable Material" instead of the words "Hazardous Waste," and manifest document numbers are not applicable.

(b) The owner or operator of the business location where the material is located has a business plan that meets the requirements of Section 25504, including, but not limited to, emergency response plans and procedures, as described in subdivision (b) of Section 25504, which specifically address the material or that meet the department's emergency response and contingency requirements which are applicable to generators of hazardous waste.

(c) The material shall be stored and handled in accordance with all local ordinances and codes, including, but not limited to, fire codes, governing the storage and handling of the hazardous material. If a local jurisdiction does not have an ordinance or code regulating the storage of the material, including, but not limited to, an ordinance or code requiring secondary containment for hazardous material storage areas, then the material shall be stored in tanks, waste piles, or containers meeting the department's interim status regulations establishing design standards applicable to tanks, waste piles, or containers storing hazardous waste.

(d) If the material is being exported to a foreign country, the person exporting the material shall do all of the following:

(1) Notify the department, in writing, four weeks before the initial shipment. The notification may cover export activities extending over a 12 month or lesser period and shall include all of the following information:

(A) The generator's name, site address, mailing address, telephone number, Environmental Protection Agency or state identification number, if applicable, contact person, and signature of exporter.

(B) Each transporter's name, address, telephone number, Environmental Protection Agency or state identification number, if applicable, name of contact person, mode of transportation, and container type used during transport.

(C) A description of the material and, if applicable, United States Department of Transportation proper shipping name, hazard class, and shipping identification number (UN/NA).

(D) The estimated frequency of shipments and total quantity of material to be exported.

(E) All points of departure from the state and intended destinations.

(F) The receiving facility's or facilities' name and address.

(G) A description of the end use of the material, and the basis for the specific exemption provided in Section 25143.2 which is applicable to the material.

(2) For each individual shipment, submit to the department, within 90 days of shipment date, a copy of the waybill, shipping paper, or any document which includes all of the following information specific to that shipment:

(A) The generator's or generators' name and address.

(B) The receiving facility's or facilities' name and address.

(C) The date of shipment.

(D) The type, quantity, and value of the material.

SEC. 6.5. Section 25143.9 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25143.9. A recyclable material shall not be excluded from classification as a waste pursuant to subdivision (b) or (d) of Section 25143.2, unless all of the following requirements are met:

(a) If the material is held in a container or tank, the container or tank is labeled, marked, and placarded in accordance with the department's hazardous waste labeling, marking, and placarding requirements which are applicable to generators, except that the container or tank shall be labeled or marked clearly with the words "Excluded Recyclable Material" instead of the words "Hazardous Waste," and manifest document numbers are not applicable.

(b) The owner or operator of the business location where the material is located has a business plan that meets the requirements of Section 25504, including, but not limited to, emergency response plans and procedures, as described in subdivision (b) of Section 25504, which specifically address the material or that meet the department's emergency response and contingency requirements which are applicable to generators of hazardous waste.

(c) The material shall be stored and handled in accordance with all local ordinances and codes, including, but not limited to, fire codes, governing the storage and handling of the hazardous material. If a local jurisdiction does not have an ordinance or code regulating the storage of the material, including, but not limited to, an ordinance or code requiring secondary containment for hazardous material storage areas, then the material shall be stored in tanks, waste piles, or containers meeting the department's interim status regulations establishing design standards applicable to tanks, waste piles, or containers storing hazardous waste.

(d) If the material is being exported to a foreign country, the person exporting the material shall meet the requirements of Section 25162.1.

SEC. 7. Section 25174.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25174.6. (a) The fee provided pursuant to Section 25174.1 shall be determined as a percentage of the base rate, as adjusted by the State Board of Equalization, pursuant to Section 25174.2. The percentages of the base rate for determining these fees are as follows:

(1) Twenty-five percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof for up to the first 5,000 tons of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state at each specific offsite facility by each producer, or at each specific onsite facility, per month, which is not subject to Subchapter III (commencing with Section 6921) of Chapter 82 of Title 42 of the United States Code, pursuant to subsection (b) of Section 6921 of Title 42 of the United States Code and which is not otherwise subject to the fee specified in paragraph (3) or (4), or hazardous waste for which the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency has determined that regulation is unwarranted, as specified in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2) of, and subparagraph (C) of paragraph (3) of, subsection (b) of Section 6921 of Title 42 of the United States Code and which is not otherwise subject to the fee specified in paragraph (3) or (4).

(2) Thirteen percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, for up to the first 5,000 tons of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state, at each specific offsite facility by each producer, or at each specific onsite facility, per month, which result from the extraction, beneficiation, and processing of ores and minerals, including phosphate rock and the overburden from the mining of uranium ore and which is not otherwise subject to the fee specified in paragraph (3) or (4).

(3) Two hundred percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of extremely hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state.

(4) Two hundred percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of restricted hazardous wastes listed in subdivision (b) of Section 25122.7 disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state.

(5) One hundred percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state, which is not otherwise subject to the fees specified in paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), (7), (8), or (9).

(6) The rates specified in this paragraph apply for each ton, or fraction thereof, of hazardous waste generated in this state which is disposed of, or submitted for disposal outside of the state or which is a hazardous waste residual of any treatment which occurs outside of the state other than incineration, dechlorination, or any treatment described in paragraph (7) or (9) and which is disposed of, or submitted for disposal, outside of the state. The rate shall be as follows:

(A) Thirty-five percent of the base rate for the 1989–90 fiscal year.

(B) Forty percent of the base rate for the 1990–91 fiscal year.

(C) Forty-five percent of the base rate after the 1990–91 fiscal year if a new hazardous waste disposal facility is permitted pursuant to Section 25200, or 40 percent of the base rate if no new facility is permitted.

(7) Five percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state, that is a solid hazardous waste residue resulting from incineration or dechlorination. No fees shall be imposed pursuant to this paragraph on a solid hazardous waste residue resulting from incineration or dechlorination which is disposed of, or submitted for disposal, outside of the state.

(8) Five percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state, that is solid hazardous waste residue resulting from any treatment method which results in free liquid removal, removal of volatile organic constituents, and a minimum waste volume reduction of 50 percent, and which has been approved by the department pursuant to Section 25179.6.

(9) The rates specified in this paragraph apply for each ton, or fraction thereof, of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, outside of the state, that is solid hazardous waste residue resulting from any treatment method which results in free liquid removal, removal of volatile organic constituents, and a minimum waste volume reduction of 50 percent, and which has been approved by the department pursuant to Section 25179.6. The rate shall be as follows:

(A) Twenty-two and one-half percent of the base rate for the 1990–91 fiscal year.

(B) Twenty-five percent of the base rate after the 1990–91 fiscal year if a new hazardous waste disposal facility is permitted pursuant to Section 25200, or 22½ percent of the base rate if no new facility is permitted.

(b) The amount of fees payable to the State Board of Equalization pursuant to this section shall be calculated using the total wet weight, measured in tons or fractions thereof, of the hazardous waste in the form in which the hazardous waste existed at the time of disposal, submission for disposal, or application to land using the land disposal methods defined in Section 66122 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(c) All fees imposed by this section shall be paid in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

SEC. 7.5. Section 25174.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25174.6. (a) The fee provided pursuant to Section 25174.1 shall be determined as a percentage of the base rate, as adjusted by the State Board of Equalization, pursuant to Section 25174.2. The percentages of the base rate for determining these fees are as follows:

(1) Twenty-five percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof for up to the first 5,000 tons of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state at each specific offsite facility by each producer, or at each specific onsite facility, per month, which is not subject to Subchapter III (commencing with Section 6921) of Chapter 82 of Title 42 of the United States Code, pursuant to subsection (b) of Section 6921 of Title 42 of the United States Code and which is not otherwise subject to the fee specified in paragraph (3) or (4), or hazardous waste for which the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency has determined that regulation is unwarranted, as specified in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2) of, and subparagraph (C) of paragraph (3) of, subsection (b) of Section 6921 of Title 42 of the United States Code and which is not otherwise subject to the fee specified in paragraph (3) or (4).

(2) Thirteen percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, for up to the first 5,000 tons of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state, at each specific offsite facility by each producer, or at each specific onsite facility, per month, which result from the extraction, beneficiation, and processing of ores and minerals, including phosphate rock and the overburden from the mining of uranium ore and which is not otherwise subject to the fee specified in paragraph (3) or (4).

(3) Two hundred percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of extremely hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state.

(4) Two hundred percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of restricted hazardous wastes listed in subdivision (b) of Section 25122.7 disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state.

(5) One hundred percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state, which is not otherwise subject to the fees specified in paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (7).

(6) The rates specified in this paragraph apply for each ton, or fraction thereof, of hazardous waste generated in this state which is disposed of, or submitted for disposal outside of the state or which is a hazardous waste residual of any treatment which occurs outside of the state other than incineration, dechlorination, or any treatment described in paragraph (7) and which is disposed of, or submitted for disposal, outside of the state. The rate shall be as follows:

(A) Thirty-five percent of the base rate for the 1989–90 fiscal year.

(B) Forty percent of the base rate for the 1990–91 fiscal year.

(C) Forty-five percent of the base rate after the 1990–91 fiscal year if a new hazardous waste disposal facility is permitted pursuant to Section 25200, or 40 percent of the base rate if no new facility is permitted.

(7) Five percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state, that is a solid hazardous waste residue resulting from incineration or dechlorination. No fees shall be imposed pursuant to this paragraph on a solid hazardous waste residue resulting from incineration or dechlorination which is disposed of, or submitted for disposal, outside of the state.

(b) The amount of fees payable to the State Board of Equalization pursuant to this section shall be calculated using the total wet weight, measured in tons or fractions thereof, of the hazardous waste in the form in which the hazardous waste existed at the time of disposal, submission for disposal, or application to land using the land disposal methods defined in Section 66122 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(c) All fees imposed by this section shall be paid in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

SEC. 8. Section 25179.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25179.6. (a) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any hazardous waste restricted from land disposal by the federal act, or by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to the federal act, is prohibited from land disposal in the state, unless the hazardous waste, or the producer of the hazardous waste is granted a variance, extension, exclusion, or exemption by the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency or the waste is treated in accordance with an applicable treatment standard.

(2) Except as provided in Sections 25179.7, 25179.8, 25179.9, 25179.10, 25179.11, and 25179.12, on or before May 8, 1990, the department shall prohibit the land disposal of any hazardous waste after the effective date of the department's action, unless the waste meets one of the following conditions:

(A) It is a treated hazardous waste.

(B) It is a solid hazardous waste generated in the cleanup or decontamination of any site contaminated only by hazardous waste which has not been restricted or prohibited by Section 3004 of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6924) or prohibited by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to that section, and which does not meet the treatment standards established by the department pursuant to this section, if the department or other federal, state, or local agency with authority to approve the cleanup or decontamination has approved the disposal of the waste after considering those factors specified in subdivision (c) of Section 25356.1, regardless of whether a remedial action plan has been, or will be, prepared for the cleanup or decontamination.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (d), any treatment standard adopted or amended by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to subsection (m) of Section 3004 of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6924(m)), for a hazardous waste prohibited from land disposal pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) is the minimum treatment standard required to be met before the hazardous waste may be disposed of, using land disposal, in the state. Any such treatment standard adopted or amended by the Environmental Protection Agency shall become effective in the state upon the effective date of that adoption or amendment, as specified in the final rule published in the Federal Register. The department shall not grant an extension, variance, or exemption from the treatment standard, unless the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency grants an equivalent or less stringent extension, variance, or exemption.

(1) As closely as possible with, but not later than six months following the dates specified in, the schedules required by subsection (g) of Section 6924 of Title 42 of the United States Code, the department shall adopt regulations restricting the land disposal of any hazardous waste which is listed pursuant to Section 25140 or meets the criteria adopted by the department pursuant to Section 25141, and treatment standards specifying a method or methods of treatment, and the associated performance level, or the level of treatment required prior to the land disposal of each hazardous waste.

(2) If the department specifies a method or methods of treatment and an associated performance level, unless the hazardous waste is subject to subdivision (a) of Section 25155.5, any person may use an alternative treatment method if the person demonstrates both of the following to the satisfaction of the department:

(A) The alternative treatment method will result in a level of performance substantially equivalent or greater than that achievable using the method or methods specified by the department.

(B) If the hazardous waste is subject to treatment standards in the form of a treatment method or specified technology established by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to subsection (m) of Section 3004 of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6924(m)), the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency has approved the use of the alternative treatment method.

(3) The treatment standards adopted pursuant to paragraph (1) shall be designed to minimize the hazardous characteristics of the waste and minimize the potential for bioaccumulation or migration of hazardous constituents from the waste into the air, land, and water resources of the state. In adopting these standards, the department shall consider applicable federal standards adopted by the Environmental Protection Agency to the extent that the federal treatment standards minimize the hazardous characteristics of the waste and the potential for bioaccumulation or migration of hazardous constituents. The department shall adopt treatment standards for any hazardous waste for which a federal treatment standard does not minimize the hazardous characteristics of the waste and the potential for bioaccumulation or migration of hazardous constituents.

(4) For the purposes of this subdivision, the following apply:

(A) "Minimization of hazardous characteristics and the potential for bioaccumulation or migration" means that level of treatment which is achievable using the best demonstrated available technology.

(B) "Best demonstrated available technology" means a method of treatment which is available, or can be made available in a reasonable time, on a commercial scale and the performance of which has been demonstrated through reliable test data and project development sufficient in scope to ensure consistent results and standardized applicability.

(c) Regulations establishing treatment standards adopted by the department pursuant to this section shall be deemed a necessity for purposes of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the Office of Administrative Law shall not disapprove the regulations on the grounds that they do not meet the requirements of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 11349.1 of the Government Code.

(d) At least every seven years from the date of adoption of regulations pursuant to subdivision (b), the department shall review each treatment standard and shall revise the treatment standard if the revised treatment standard will provide substantial additional protection to human health and the environment and the department finds that the cost of compliance to those industries which are required to replace or retrofit existing hazardous waste treatment units or processes is necessary to protect human health and the environment.

A revised treatment standard adopted pursuant to this subdivision shall be applicable to any hazardous waste treatment unit or process constructed after the revised treatment standard is adopted. The land disposal of hazardous waste treated in an existing treatment unit or process which does not provide a level of performance equivalent to the revised treatment standard shall not be prohibited by the department until two years following the adoption of the revised treatment standard, by which time the existing treatment unit or process shall be replaced or retrofitted to provide a level of performance equivalent to the revised treatment standard. The department may, on a case by case basis, extend the date by which an existing treatment unit or process shall be replaced or retrofitted, but not more than 10 additional years, if an extension is needed to avoid significant economic disruption to a specific firm or hazardous waste treatment facility.

SEC. 9. Section 25187.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

subdivision (a) of Section 25343, any fees collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Hazardous Waste Control Account, unless the person is required to take the same removal or remedial action pursuant to Section 25355.5 or an order issued pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25358.3. This section does not prohibit the department from assessing any other penalty or recovering any costs for oversight of a removal or remedial action, pursuant to any other provision, except that any fees paid pursuant to this section shall be credited for those costs. Nothing in this section limits the due process requirements of Section 25187.

SEC. 10. Section 25202 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25202. (a) The owner or operator of a hazardous waste facility who holds a hazardous waste facilities permit or a grant of interim status shall comply with the conditions of the hazardous waste facilities permit or interim status document, the requirements of this chapter, and with the regulations adopted by the department pursuant to this chapter, including regulations which become effective after the issuance of the permit or grant of interim status.

Notwithstanding any term or condition in a hazardous waste facilities permit or interim status document, the department may adopt or amend regulations which impose additional or more stringent requirements than those existing at the time the permit or interim status document was issued. The department may enforce both the permit or interim status document and additional or more stringent requirements against the owner or operator of a facility.

(b) The amendment of this section made at the 1989 Regular Session of the Legislature does not constitute a change in, but is declaratory of, the existing law.

(c) The amendment of this section made at the 1991–92 Regular Session does not constitute a change in, but is declaratory of, the existing law.

SEC. 11. Section 25343 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25343. (a) The board shall assess a fee upon a potentially responsible party for the costs incurred by the department in connection with the oversight of any removal or remedial action taken by that party pursuant to Section 25355.5 or any action taken by that party pursuant to an order issued pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 25358.3. The fee is in addition to the costs incurred for the removal or remediation which are not oversight costs, and shall be recovered pursuant to Section 25360. The fees shall be collected in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and deposited into the state account.

(b) A potentially responsible party shall pay the fee imposed pursuant to this section prior to the commencement of the action for which the oversight occurs. The amounts of the fee specified in this section are base rates for the 1989–90 fiscal year. Thereafter, the board shall adjust the fee annually to reflect increases or decreases in the cost of living, as measured by the Consumer Price Index issued by the Department of Labor or a successor agency of the United States government.

(c) A potentially responsible party shall pay a fee of five thousand dollars ($5,000) to pay for the costs of those actions deemed necessary by the department to accurately estimate the size and complexity of a hazardous substance release site to establish the fee imposed pursuant to subdivisions (d) to (j), inclusive.

(d) A potentially responsible party shall pay a fee for a preliminary endangerment assessment of seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500).

(e) A potentially responsible party shall pay a fee for oversight of a removal action of fourteen thousand five hundred dollars ($14,500) for a small removal action, thirty-seven thousand dollars ($37,000) for a medium removal action, seventy-three thousand five hundred dollars ($73,500) for a large removal action, and one hundred forty-seven thousand dollars ($147,000) for an extra-large removal action.

(f) A potentially responsible party shall pay a fee for oversight of a remedial investigation and a feasibility study of twenty-one thousand five hundred dollars ($21,500) for a small site, forty-three thousand dollars ($43,000) for a medium site, eighty-five thousand five hundred dollars ($85,500) for a large site, and two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) for an extra-large site.

(g) A potentially responsible party shall pay a fee for oversight of a remedial action plan of four thousand five hundred dollars ($4,500) for a small site, nine thousand dollars ($9,000) for a medium site, eighteen thousand dollars ($18,000) for a large site, and thirty-eight thousand dollars ($38,000) for an extra-large site.

(h) A potentially responsible party shall pay a fee for oversight of a remedial design of seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500) for a small site, fourteen thousand five hundred dollars ($14,500) for a medium site, twenty-nine thousand dollars ($29,000) for a large site, and eighty thousand dollars ($80,000) for an extra-large site.

(i) A potentially responsible party shall pay a fee for the oversight of a final remedial action of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for a small site, twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for a medium site, forty thousand dollars ($40,000) for a large site, and one hundred six thousand dollars ($106,000) for an extra-large site.

(j) A potentially responsible party shall pay a fee per year for oversight and monitoring of ongoing operation and maintenance activities of six thousand dollars ($6,000) for a small operation and maintenance activity, twelve thousand dollars ($12,000) for a medium operation and maintenance activity, twenty-four thousand dollars ($24,000) for a large operation and maintenance activity, and thirty-four thousand dollars ($34,000) for an extra-large operation and maintenance activity.

(k) (1) Fees for any oversight activity being performed on July

1, 1989, or any subsequent date, shall be assessed pursuant to this section and Section 25344, even if the activity began prior to July 1, 1989. If the activity began prior to July 1, 1989, the fees shall be payable on or before November 29, 1989. This section shall not apply to activities for which work has been completed prior to July 1, 1989.

(2) If there is a conflict between this subdivision and Section 25344 and the provisions of any agreement entered into pursuant to subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 25355.5 prior to September 29, 1989, the agreement shall prevail, unless the agreement is modified as allowed by its terms or by mutual consent of all parties.

(3) Any order or agreement entered into for removal or remedial action may be modified by consent of all parties to assess the fees listed in this section in place of any provisions for charges or cost recovery contained in the order of agreement.

(l) Notwithstanding this section, a potentially responsible party shall pay the board a fee equal to the actual costs of the department's costs of oversight, in advance of the oversight for removal or remedial activities which is done, pursuant to an agreement, if the site is not listed pursuant to Section 25356, except the potentially responsible party is not required to pay for the costs of any activities necessary and incidental to entering the agreement, which shall be reimbursed pursuant to the agreement.

(m) (1) The department may reclassify a site as to size, as warranted by new information specified in this section, but this reclassification shall not occur any later than 120 days after the completion of an activity for which the department proposes to charge a revised fee pursuant to this section based on the site size reclassification.

(2) If a site may be classified as two sizes pursuant to Sections 25313.5, 25317.5, 25318, and 25326.6, it shall be classified as the larger of those sizes.

(n) Notwithstanding this section, the department may waive the fees imposed by this section for any hazardous substance release site owned and operated by an agency of the federal government, if the department has entered into an agreement with that agency for the payment of fees in an amount different from the amounts specified in this section.

SEC. 12. Section 5.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 25143.2 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1899. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 25143.2 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1899, in which case Section 5 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 13. Section 6.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 25143.9 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1899. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 25143.9 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1899, in which case Section 6 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 14. Section 7.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 25174.6 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1991. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 25174.6 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1991, in which case Section 7 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 15. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1127

An act to amend, repeal, and add Section 25174.6 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous waste, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25174.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25174.6. (a) The fee provided pursuant to Section 25174.1 shall be determined as a percentage of the base rate, as adjusted by the State Board of Equalization, pursuant to Section 25174.2. The percentages of the base rate for determining these fees are as follows:

(1) Twenty-five percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof for up to the first 5,000 tons of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state at each specific offsite facility by each producer, or at each specific onsite facility, per month, which is not subject to Subchapter III (commencing with Section 6921) of Chapter 82 of Title 42 of the United States Code, pursuant to subsection (b) of Section 6921 of Title 42 of the United States Code and which is not otherwise subject to the fee specified in paragraph (3) or (4), or hazardous waste for which the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency has determined that regulation is unwarranted, as specified in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2) of, and subparagraph (C) of paragraph (3) of, subsection (b) of Section 6921 of Title 42 of the United States Code and which is not otherwise subject to the fee specified in paragraph (3) or (4).

(2) Thirteen percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, for up to the first 5,000 tons of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state, at each specific offsite facility by each producer, or at each specific onsite facility, per month, which result from the extraction, beneficiation, and processing of ores and minerals, including phosphate rock and the overburden from the mining of uranium ore and which is not otherwise subject to the fee specified in paragraph (3) or (4).

(3) Two hundred percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of extremely hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state.

(4) Two hundred percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of restricted hazardous wastes listed in subdivision (b) of Section 25122.7 disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state.

(5) One hundred percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state, which is not otherwise subject to the fees specified in paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), (7), (8), or (9).

(6) The rates specified in this paragraph apply for each ton, or fraction thereof, of hazardous waste generated in this state which is disposed of, or submitted for disposal outside of the state or which is a hazardous waste residual of any treatment which occurs outside of the state other than incineration, dechlorination, or any treatment described in paragraph (7) or (9) and which is disposed of, or submitted for disposal, outside of the state. The rate shall be as follows:

(A) Thirty-five percent of the base rate for the 1989–90 fiscal year.

(B) Forty percent of the base rate for the 1990–91 fiscal year.

(C) Forty-five percent of the base rate after the 1990–91 fiscal year if a new hazardous waste disposal facility is permitted pursuant to Section 25200, or 40 percent of the base rate if no new facility is permitted.

(7) Five percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state, that is a solid hazardous waste residue resulting from incineration or dechlorination. No fees shall be imposed pursuant to this paragraph on a solid hazardous waste residue resulting from incineration or dechlorination which is disposed of, or submitted for disposal, outside of the state.

(8) Five percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state, that is solid hazardous waste residue resulting from any treatment method which results in free liquid removal, removal of volatile organic constituents, and a minimum waste volume reduction of 50 percent, and which has been approved by the department pursuant to Section 25179.6.

(9) The rates specified in this paragraph apply for each ton, or fraction thereof, of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, outside of the state, that is solid hazardous waste residue resulting from any treatment method which results in free liquid removal, removal of volatile organic constituents, and a minimum waste volume reduction of 50 percent, and which has been approved by the department pursuant to Section 25179.6. The rate shall be as follows:

(A) Twenty-two and one-half percent of the base rate for the 1990–91 fiscal year.

(B) Twenty-five percent of the base rate after the 1990–91 fiscal year if a new hazardous waste disposal facility is permitted pursuant to Section 25200, or 22½ percent of the base rate if no new facility is permitted.

(b) The amount of fees payable to the State Board of Equalization pursuant to this section shall be calculated using the total wet weight, measured in tons or fractions thereof, of the hazardous waste in the form in which the hazardous waste existed at the time of disposal, submission for disposal, or application to land using the land disposal methods defined in Section 66122 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(c) All fees imposed by this section shall be paid in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1993, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1993, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 25174.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25174.6. (a) The fee provided pursuant to Section 25174.1 shall be determined as a percentage of the base rate, as adjusted by the State Board of Equalization, pursuant to Section 25174.2. The percentages of the base rate for determining these fees are as follows:

(1) Twenty-five percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof for up to the first 5,000 tons of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state at each specific offsite facility by each producer, or at each specific onsite facility, per month, which is not subject to Subchapter III (commencing with Section 6921) of Chapter 82 of Title 42 of the United States Code, pursuant to subsection (b) of Section 6921 of Title 42 of the United States Code and which is not otherwise subject to the fee specified in paragraph (3) or (4), or hazardous waste for which the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency has determined that regulation is unwarranted, as specified in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2) of, and subparagraph (C) of paragraph (3) of, subsection (b) of Section 6921 of Title 42 of the United States Code and which is not otherwise subject to the fee specified in paragraph (3) or (4).

(2) Thirteen percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, for up to the first 5,000 tons of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state, at each specific offsite facility by each producer, or at each specific onsite facility, per month, which result from the extraction, beneficiation, and processing of ores and minerals, including phosphate rock and the overburden from the mining of uranium ore and which is not otherwise subject to the fee specified in paragraph (3) or (4).

(3) Two hundred percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of extremely hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state.

(4) Two hundred percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of restricted hazardous wastes listed in subdivision (b) of Section 25122.7 disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state.

(5) One hundred percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state, which is not otherwise subject to the fees specified in paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), or (7).

(6) The rates specified in this paragraph apply for each ton, or fraction thereof, of hazardous waste generated in this state which is disposed of, or submitted for disposal outside of the state or which is a hazardous waste residual of any treatment which occurs outside of the state other than incineration, dechlorination, or any treatment described in paragraph (7) and which is disposed of, or submitted for disposal, outside of the state. The rate shall be as follows:

(A) Thirty-five percent of the base rate for the 1989–90 fiscal year.

(B) Forty percent of the base rate for the 1990–91 fiscal year.

(C) Forty-five percent of the base rate after the 1990–91 fiscal year if a new hazardous waste disposal facility is permitted pursuant to Section 25200, or 40 percent of the base rate if no new facility is permitted.

(7) Five percent of the base rate for each ton, or fraction thereof, of hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal, in the state, that is a solid hazardous waste residue resulting from incineration or dechlorination. No fees shall be imposed pursuant to this paragraph on a solid hazardous waste residue resulting from incineration or dechlorination which is disposed of, or submitted for disposal, outside of the state.

(b) The amount of fees payable to the State Board of Equalization pursuant to this section shall be calculated using the total wet weight, measured in tons or fractions thereof, of the hazardous waste in the form in which the hazardous waste existed at the time of disposal, submission for disposal, or application to land using the land disposal methods defined in Section 66122 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(c) All fees imposed by this section shall be paid in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(d) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1993.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1128

An act to amend Sections 25270.2, 25270.3, 25270.5, 25270.6, 25270.7, 25270.8, 25503.7, 25514.5, and 25533 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Section 4 of Chapter 1383 of the Statutes of 1989, relating to the environment.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25270.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25270.2. For purposes of this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Board" means the State Water Resources Control Board.

(b) "Fund" means the Environmental Protection Trust Fund established pursuant to Section 25270.11.

(c) "Operator" means the person responsible for the overall operation of a tank facility.

(d) "Owner" means the person who owns the tank facility or part of the tank facility.

(e) "Person" means an individual, trust, firm, joint stock company, corporation, including a government corporation, partnership, or association. "Person" also includes any city, county, district, the University of California, the California State University, the state, any department or agency thereof, and the United States, to the extent authorized by federal law.

(f) "Petroleum" means crude oil, or any fraction thereof, which is liquid at 60 degrees Fahrenheit temperature and 14.7 pounds per square inch absolute pressure.

(g) "Regional board" means a California regional water quality control board.

(h) "Release" means any spilling, leaking, pumping, pouring, emitting, emptying, discharging, escaping, leaching, or disposing into the environment.

(i) "Storage" or "store" means the containment, handling, or treatment of petroleum, for any period of time, including on a temporary basis.

(j) "Storage tank" means any aboveground tank or container used for the storage of petroleum. "Storage tank" does not include any of the following:

(1) A pressure vessel or boiler which is subject to Part 6 (commencing with Section 7620) of Division 5 of the Labor Code.

(2) A storage tank containing hazardous waste, as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 25316, if the person owning or operating the storage tank has been issued a hazardous waste facilities permit for the storage tank by the department.

(3) An aboveground oil production tank which is subject to Section 3106 of the Public Resources Code.

(k) "Tank facility" means any one, or combination of, aboveground storage tanks, including any piping which is integral to the tank, which contains petroleum and which is used by a single business entity at a single location or site. For purposes of this chapter, a pipe is integrally related to an aboveground storage tank if the pipe is connected to the tank and meets any of the following:

(1) The pipe is within the dike or containment area.

(2) The pipe is between the containment area and the first flange or valve outside the containment area.

(3) The pipe is connected to the first flange or valve on the exterior of the tank, if state or federal law does not require a containment area.

SEC. 2. Section 25270.3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25270.3. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), a tank facility is subject to this chapter if either of the following conditions apply:

(1) The tank facility is subject to the oil pollution prevention regulations specified in Part 112 (commencing with Section 112.1) of Subchapter D of Chapter I of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(2) (A) The tank facility has a storage capacity of 10,000 gallons or more of petroleum.

(B) Notwithstanding subparagraph (A), a tank facility located on a farm, nursery, logging site, or construction site is not subject to the requirements of subdivision (c) of Section 25270.5 if no storage tank at the location exceeds 20,000 gallons and the cumulative storage capacity of the tank facility does not exceed 100,000 gallons.

(b) This chapter does not apply to any tank facility, or portion of a tank facility, subject to Section 3106 of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 3. Section 25270.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25270.5. (a) By January 1, 1991, the board shall adopt a schedule for the inspection of tank facilities subject to this chapter. In adopting this schedule, the board shall give special attention to those tank facilities which are near navigable waters, potable water supplies, or sensitive ecosystems, such as wetlands and marshes.

(b) Each regional board shall conduct periodic inspections of either each storage tank or a representative sampling of the storage tanks at each tank facility in accordance with the schedule determined by the board pursuant to subdivision (a) for compliance with the spill prevention and countermeasure plan.

(c) Except as provided in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 25270.3, each owner or operator of a storage tank at a tank facility subject to this chapter shall, by January 1, 1991, prepare a spill prevention control and countermeasure plan prepared in accordance with the guidelines contained in Part 112 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Each owner or operator specified in this subdivision shall conduct periodic inspections of the storage tanks to assure compliance with Section 112.7 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations. In implementing the spill prevention control and countermeasure plan, each owner or operator specified in this subdivision shall fully comply with the latest version of the regulations contained in Part 112 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(d) The owner or operator of a tank facility specified in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 25270.3 shall take all of the following actions:

(1) Conduct daily visual inspections of any tank storing petroleum.

(2) Allow the regional board to conduct periodic inspections of the tank facility.

(3) Install a secondary means of containment for the entire contents of the largest tank at the tank facility, plus sufficient space for precipitation, if the regional board determines this installation is necessary for the protection of the waters of the state.

SEC. 4. Section 25270.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25270.6. (a) On or before July 1, 1990, and on or before July 1 of every two years thereafter, each owner or operator of a tank facility subject to this chapter shall file with the board a storage statement which shall identify the name and address of the tank facility, a contact person for the tank facility, the total storage capacity of the tank facility, and the location, size, age, and contents of each tank that exceeds 10,000 gallons in capacity and which holds a substance containing at least 5 percent of petroleum. A copy of a statement submitted previously pursuant to this section may be submitted in lieu of a new storage statement if no new or used storage tanks have been added to the facility or if no significant modifications have been made. For purposes of this section, a significant modification includes, but is not limited to, altering existing storage tanks or changing spill prevention or containment methods.

(b) Each storage statement submitted pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be accompanied by a fee in accordance with the following schedule:

Total Tank Facility Storage Capacity	Per Facility Fee
Less than 10,000 gallons	$ 100
10,000–100,000 gallons	200
100,001–1,000,000 gallons	400
1,000,001–10,000,000 gallons	1,600
10,000,001–100,000,000 gallons	8,000
100,000,001 or more gallons	30,000

(c) The fees collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the fund until the total sum in the fund equals seven million five hundred thousand dollars ($7,500,000) in any one year.

If fees in excess of seven million five hundred thousand dollars ($7,500,000) are collected by the board, a pro rata share of the excess shall be returned to the owners or operators who paid the fee, or at the option of the owner or operator, credited to their account for a subsequent year. Expenses recovered pursuant to Section 25270.9, and penalties collected pursuant to Section 25270.12, shall not be available for return or credit to owners or operators pursuant to this subdivision. The board shall annually revise the sum of seven million five hundred thousand dollars ($7,500,000) to reflect the change in the cost of living in the state.

SEC. 5. Section 25270.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25270.7. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (e), the owner or operator of a tank facility which meets the requirements of subdivision (b) or (c) shall establish and maintain a monitoring program pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c), as applicable, which shall be approved by the regional board, to detect releases to the soil and water, including both groundwater and surface water. The owner or operator shall establish the required monitoring program in accordance with the requirements and a schedule prescribed by the regional board. However, if the regional board requires a monitoring program, the program shall be implemented as soon as feasible, but not later than 360 days from the date of notification by the regional board that a monitoring program is required. The owner or operator subject to this section shall designate a schedule for monitoring and the sample locations, which shall be approved by the regional board. The owner or operator shall make the monitoring results available to the regional board and the Department of Fish and Game.

(b) Each owner or operator of a tank facility subject to this chapter which, because of the tank location, tank size, characteristics of the petroleum being stored or the spill containment system, has the potential to impact surface waters or sensitive ecosystems, as determined by the regional board, shall do either of the following:

(1) Install and maintain a system, approved by the regional board, to detect releases into surface waters or sensitive ecosystems.

(2) If any discharge from a tank facility flows, or would reasonably be expected to flow, to surface waters or a sensitive ecosystem, allow a drainage valve to be opened and remain open only during the presence of an individual who visually observes the discharge.

(c) Each owner or operator of a tank facility subject to this chapter which, because of the tank facility location, tank size, or characteristics of the petroleum being stored (16 degrees API or lighter), has the potential to impact the beneficial uses of the groundwater, as determined by the regional board, and which is not required to have a groundwater monitoring program at the tank facility pursuant to any other federal, state, or local law, shall do any of the following:

(1) Install a tank facility groundwater monitoring system which will detect releases of petroleum into the groundwater, as approved by the regional board.

(2) Install and maintain a tank foundation design which will provide for early detection of releases of petroleum before reaching the groundwater, as approved by the regional board.

(3) Implement a tank water bottom monitoring system and maintain a schedule which includes a log or other record which will identify or indicate releases of petroleum before reaching the groundwater, as approved by the regional board.

(4) Use other methods which will detect releases of petroleum into or before reaching the groundwater, as approved by the regional board.

(d) Tank owners or operators shall report all positive findings from the detection systems required by subdivision (c) to the appropriate regional board within 72 hours after learning of the finding.

(e) This section does not apply to any tank whose exterior surface, including connecting piping, and the floor directly beneath the tank, can be monitored by direct viewing.

SEC. 6. Section 25270.8 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25270.8. Each owner or operator of a tank facility shall immediately, upon discovery, notify the county and the city, if any, in which the tank facility is located, of occurrence of a spill or other release of one barrel (42 gallons) or more of petroleum which is required to be reported to the Office of Emergency Services pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 13272 of the Water Code.

SEC. 7. Section 25503.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25503.7. (a) When any hazardous material contained in any rail car, rail tank car, rail freight container, marine vessel, or marine freight container remains within the same railroad facility, marine facility, or business facility for more than 30 days, or a business knows or has reason to know that any rail car, rail tank car, rail freight container, marine vessel, or marine freight container containing any hazardous material will remain at the same railroad facility, marine facility, or business facility for more than 30 days, the hazardous material is deemed stored at that location for purposes of this chapter and subject to the requirements of this chapter.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not apply to a marine vessel while under construction, repair, modernization, or retrofitting while located in a ship repair facility.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 25510, a business handling hazardous materials which are stored in a manner subject to subdivision (a) shall immediately notify the administering agency whenever a hazardous material is stored in a rail car, rail tank car, rail freight container, marine vessel, or marine freight container.

SEC. 8. Section 25514.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25514.5. (a) Notwithstanding Section 25514, any business which violates this article is civilly liable to an administering agency for an administrative civil penalty, in an amount which shall be set by the governing body of the administering agency, but not greater than two thousand dollars ($2,000) for each day in which the violation occurs. If the violation results in, or significantly contributes to, an emergency, including a fire or health or medical problem requiring toxicological, health, or medical consultation, the business shall also be assessed the full cost of the county, city, fire district, local EMS agency designated pursuant to Section 1797.200, or poison control center as defined by Section 1797.97, emergency response, as well as the cost of cleaning up and disposing of the hazardous materials, or acutely hazardous materials.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 25514, any business that knowingly violates this article after reasonable notice of the violation is civilly liable for an administrative penalty, in an amount which shall be set by the governing body of the administering agency, but not greater than five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each day in which the violation occurs.

(c) An administering agency shall collect the penalty imposed by this section pursuant to Section 25514.6.

(d) A penalty shall not be recoverable pursuant to this section and Section 25514 for the same violation.

(e) The purpose of this section and Section 25514.6 is to provide local agencies with an alternative and effective means of enforcing public laws on the handling of hazardous materials and acutely hazardous materials.

(f) In assessing the civil penalty, the administering agency shall consider the extent of harm caused by the violation, the nature and persistence of the violation, the length of time over which the violation occurs, the frequency of past violations, any action taken to mitigate the violation, and the financial burden to the violator.

(g) In all civil penalties collected pursuant to this section, the amount of two hundred dollars ($200) shall first be deducted from the amount of the penalty. This two hundred dollars ($200) shall be deposited in the Hazardous Material and Waste Enforcement

Training Account established by Section 25515.2 and shall be available for expenditure pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 25515.2.

(h) Notwithstanding Section 25515.2, after payment of the two hundred dollars ($200) to the Hazardous Material and Waste Enforcement Training Account, all penalties collected pursuant to this section shall be apportioned in the following manner:

(1) Seventy-five percent to the administering agency which shall reimburse the county, city, fire district, local EMS agency, as designated pursuant to Section 1797.200 or the poison control center, as defined by Section 1797.97, for that portion of the penalty designated for the expenses of the county, city, fire district, local EMS agency or poison control center, respectively.

(2) Twenty-five percent to the principal agency which assisted the administering agency in its investigation.

SEC. 9. Section 25533 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25533. (a) The Office of Emergency Services shall develop an acutely hazardous materials registration form to be completed by the owner or operator of each business in the state which, at any time, handles any acutely hazardous material. Except as provided in Section 25536, any business which handles acutely hazardous materials in the amounts specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25536 shall file the registration form with the administering agency in accordance with the following schedule:

(1) On or before January 1, 1988, in the case of any facility in existence on that date.

(2) On or before March 1, 1992, in the case of any facility established on or after January 2, 1988, but on or before December 31, 1991.

(3) Before operations commence, in the case of a new facility commencing operations on or after January 1, 1992.

(4) Before any new activities involving acutely hazardous materials are undertaken, in the case of a modified facility.

(b) The Office of Emergency Services may adopt appropriate regulations to implement the requirements of this section.

(c) The acutely hazardous materials registration form shall include, but is not limited to, all of the following information:

(1) The business location information included in the business plan prepared pursuant to Section 25504.

(2) A general description of the processes and principal equipment involved in the handling of the acutely hazardous materials.

(d) Within 30 days of any one of the following events, any business subject to this section shall submit to the administering agency an amendment to the registration form:

(1) Any handling of an acutely hazardous material which was not mentioned on the registration form.

(2) Any material or substantial alterations or additions to the business or activity which require changes in the risk management program that are different from, or absent in, the present program.

(3) Change of business address.

(4) Change of business ownership.

(5) Change of business name.

(e) A business which fails to file or to amend an acutely hazardous materials registration form pursuant to this section is in violation of this article for purposes of Section 25540, unless the administering agency has notified the handler, in writing, that the acutely hazardous materials information provided in the hazardous materials inventory required by Section 25509 is sufficient to accomplish the purposes of this section.

SEC. 10. Section 4 of Chapter 1383 of the Statutes of 1989 is amended to read:

Sec. 4. On or before January 1, 1993, the State Water Resources Control Board shall conduct a study of the storage of hazardous materials in the state, report its findings, and submit recommendations to the Legislature and the Governor, on ways to improve oversight of aboveground storage facilities. The board shall consider the extent to which storage of hazardous materials in aboveground tanks should be made subject to a state inspection program similar to that specified in Chapter 6.67 (commencing with Section 25270) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, as proposed by Section 1 of this act, or to a strengthened local enforcement program based on Chapter 6.95 (commencing with Section 25500) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 11. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act or costs will be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 1799.201, 1799.202, 1799.203, 1799.205, and 1799.206 of, and to add Sections 3176 and 3176.5 to, the Civil Code, and to amend Section 757 of the Financial Code, relating to contracts.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1799.201 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1799.201. As used in this title:

(a) "Consumer" means a natural person who has entered into a consumer contract with a seller.

(b) "Consumer contract" means a writing prepared by a seller and signed, or to be signed, by a consumer which provides (1) for the sale or lease of goods or services that are purchased or leased primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, or (2) for extension of credit, the proceeds of which are used primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(c) "Consumer contract guaranty" means a writing prepared by a seller and signed by a guarantor which guarantees the obligation of a consumer under a consumer contract.

(d) "Copy" means a reproduction, facsimile, or duplicate.

(e) "Days" means calendar days.

(f) "Goods" means tangible and intangible personal property.

(g) "Guarantor" means a person who guarantees the obligation of a consumer under a consumer contract by signing a consumer contract guaranty. "Guarantor" does not include persons who are required to be provided notice under Section 1799.91.

(h) "Seller" means a person who has entered into a consumer contract with a consumer.

(i) "Services" means work, labor, and services, including depository services and other banking services.

(j) "Financial institution" means any commercial bank, trust company, savings and loan association, credit union, industrial loan company, insurance company, or person engaged in the business of lending money.

SEC. 2. Section 1799.202 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1799.202. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this title, a seller shall deliver a copy of a consumer contract to the consumer at the time it is signed by the consumer if the consumer contract is signed at a place of business of the seller. If the consumer contract is not signed by the consumer at a place of business of the seller, and the seller has provided a copy of the consumer contract for the consumer which the consumer is instructed to keep, the seller shall mail or deliver a copy of it to the consumer within 10 calendar days after the seller receives the signed consumer contract. In any case, the copy of the contract provided to the consumer shall not contain any blank spaces to be completed after the consumer signs the contract, shall contain the signature of the seller if it provides for such signature, and may also contain the signature of the consumer.

(b) A seller that is a financial institution need not deliver to the consumer, pursuant to subdivision (a), any writing which the consumer contract incorporates by reference if either of the following conditions apply:

(1) The writing was previously delivered or mailed to the consumer.

(2) The writing was not prepared by the seller.

(c) If the consumer contract is a signature card which is utilized for providing consumer identification and maintaining confidentiality with respect to an account at a financial institution, a document which includes the same terms as those contained in the consumer contract shall be deemed a copy.

SEC. 3. Section 1799.203 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1799.203. (a) It shall be deemed compliance with Section 1799.202 if a copy of any consumer contract which is subject to Article 10 (commencing with Section 1810.1) of Chapter 1 of Title 2, or which is an open-end consumer credit plan subject to Section 127 of the federal Truth in Lending Act (15 U.S.C. 1637), is delivered or mailed to the consumer before the consumer enters into a transaction covered and permitted by the consumer contract.

(b) Section 1799.202 does not apply to any of the following:

(1) A consumer contract for the purchase of goods by mail if the seller permits the consumer to examine the goods for seven calendar days and cancel the consumer contract and receive a full refund within 30 calendar days for returned unused and undamaged goods.

(2) A written contract created by, and consisting of, an exchange of letters by mail.

(3) Any consumer contract which is required to be mailed or delivered at a time prescribed by another law of this state or the United States.

SEC. 4. Section 1799.205 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1799.205. (a) A seller who fails to comply with Section 1799.202 is liable to the consumer for any actual damages suffered by the consumer as the result of that failure. The remedy provided by this subdivision is nonexclusive and is in addition to any other remedies or penalties available under other laws of this state.

(b) Failure to comply with Section 1799.202 does not create an independent basis for the rescission, but is admissible to establish a basis for the rescission of the contract otherwise authorized by law.

SEC. 5. Section 1799.206 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1799.206. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a seller shall deliver a copy of the consumer contract guaranty to the guarantor at the time the consumer contract guaranty is signed by the guarantor if the consumer contract guaranty is signed by the guarantor at a place of business of the seller. If the consumer contract guaranty is not signed by the guarantor at a place of business of the seller, the seller shall mail or deliver a copy of the consumer contract guaranty to the guarantor within 10 calendar days after the seller receives the consumer contract guaranty. In either case, the copy of the contract that is provided to the consumer shall be one that contains the signatures of the guarantor and the consumer. The contract shall not contain any blank spaces to be filled in after the consumer signs the contract.

(b) If more than one guarantor has signed the consumer contract guaranty, the seller may comply with subdivision (a) by mailing or delivering the copy to any one of the guarantors who reside at the same address. A copy shall also be mailed or delivered to any guarantor who has signed the consumer contract guaranty and who does not reside at the same address.

(c) A seller that fails to comply with this section is liable to the guarantor for any actual damages suffered by the guarantor as the result of that failure. The remedy provided by this subdivision is nonexclusive and in addition to any other remedies or penalties available under other laws of this state.

(d) Failure to comply with this section does not create a new basis for rescission, but is admissible to establish a basis for rescission of the consumer contract guaranty otherwise authorized by law.

SEC. 6. Section 3176 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

3176. In any action against an owner or construction lender to enforce payment of a claim stated in a bonded stop notice, the prevailing party shall be entitled to collect from the party held liable by the court for payment of the claim, reasonable attorney's fees in addition to other costs and in addition to any liability for damages.

The court, upon notice and motion by a party, shall determine who is the prevailing party for purposes of this section, whether or not the suit proceeds to final judgment. Except as otherwise provided by this section, the prevailing party shall be the party who recovered a greater relief in the action. The court may also determine that there is no prevailing party. Where an action has been voluntarily dismissed or dismissed pursuant to a settlement of the case, there shall be no prevailing party for purposes of this section.

Where the defendant alleges in his or her answer that he or she tendered to the plaintiff the full amount to which he or she was entitled, and thereupon deposits in court for the plaintiff, the amount so tendered, and the allegation is found to be true, then the defendant is deemed to be a prevailing party.

SEC. 6.5. Section 3176.5 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

3176.5. If the plaintiff is the prevailing party in any action against an owner or construction lender to enforce payment of a claim stated in a bonded stop notice, any amount awarded on the claim shall include interest at the legal rate calculated from the date the bonded stop notice is served upon the owner or construction lender pursuant to Section 3172.

SEC. 7. Section 757 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

757. (a) A bank or trust company may engage in the business of renting safe deposit boxes and may receive personal property for safekeeping and storage on its banking premises.

(b) A copy of any safe deposit rental agreement, or personal property safekeeping and storage agreement, which is prepared by the bank or trust company and signed by the customer shall be delivered to the customer at the time the agreement is signed if the agreement is signed at a place of business of the bank or trust company. If the agreement is not signed at a place of business of the bank or trust company, the bank or trust company shall mail or deliver a copy of the agreement to the customer within 10 calendar days after the bank or trust company receives it. In either case, the copy of the contract that is provided to the customer shall be one that contains the signatures of a representative of the bank or trust company and the customer. The contract shall not contain any blank spaces to be filled in after the customer signs the contract. If more than one customer has signed the agreement, the bank or trust company may comply with this section by mailing or delivering the copy to any one of the customers who reside at the same address. A copy shall also be mailed or delivered to any other customer who has signed the agreement and who does not reside at the same address. As used in this section "copy" means a reproduction, facsimile, or duplicate. A bank or trust company which fails to comply with this section is liable to its customer for any actual damages suffered by the customer as a result of that failure. The remedy provided by this section is nonexclusive and is in addition to any remedies or penalties available under other laws of this state.

CHAPTER 1130

An act to amend Section 21121 of the Public Contract Code, and to amend Sections 3, 4, 6, 7, 9, 10, 15, 20, 24, 26, 29, 30, 43, and 45 of, to add Sections 5.2, 21.1, 24.1, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 60, 60.1, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, and 86 to, and to amend and renumber Sections 46 and 47 of, the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), relating to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21121 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

21121. (a) All contracts for any improvement or unit of work, if the cost according to the estimate of the engineer, exceeds five thousand dollars ($5,000), shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders.

(b) The board shall first determine whether the contract shall be let as a single unit for the whole of the work, or shall be divided into severable convenient parts, or both, according to the best interests of the agency.

(c) The board shall make call for bids and advertise the call by three insertions in a daily newspaper of general circulation or by two insertions in a weekly newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the territory of the agency inviting sealed proposals for the construction or performance of the improvement or work before any contract is entered into. The call for bids shall state whether the work is to be performed as a unit for the whole thereof or shall be divided into severable convenient specific parts, or both, as stated in the call. The board may let the work by single contract for the whole thereof as a unit or it may divide the work into severable convenient parts by separate contracts, as stated in the call, according to the best interests of the agency.

(d) The board shall require the successful bidder or bidders to file with the board good and sufficient bonds to be approved by the board conditioned upon the faithful performance of the contract and upon the payment of their claims for labor and material in connection with the contract. The bonds shall contain the terms and conditions set forth in Chapter 3 of Division 5 of Title 1 of the Government Code and are subject to the provisions of that chapter.

(e) The board shall have the right to reject any and all bids. The board of supervisors may, without advertising for bids, have the work done by force account if any of the following requirements are met:

(1) All the projects are rejected.

(2) No proposals are received in response to the advertisement.

(3) The estimated cost of the work does not exceed the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(4) The work consists of channel protection, maintenance work, or emergency work necessary to protect life and property from impending flood damage.

(f) The agency may purchase in the open market, without advertising for bids, materials and supplies for use in any work either under contract or by force account.

(g) The Monterey County Board of Supervisors may grant to the board of directors, appointed pursuant to Section 49 of the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), any of the powers or duties granted to the Monterey County Board of Supervisors by this section.

SEC. 1.1. Section 3 of the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990) is amended to read:

Sec. 3. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act.

SEC. 1.2. Section 4 of the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990) is amended to read:

Sec. 4. The Monterey County Water Resources Agency is hereby created as a flood control and water agency. The agency consists of all the territory of the county lying within the exterior boundaries of the county.

SEC. 2. Section 5.2 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 5.2. Unless otherwise indicated by their context, the terms defined in this section govern the interpretation of this act:

(a) "Agency" means the Monterey County Water Resources Agency.

(b) "Board," "board of supervisors," or "supervisors" means the board of supervisors of the agency.

(c) "County" means the County of Monterey.

(d) "Director" or "directors" means a director or the directors appointed pursuant to Section 49.

SEC. 2.1. Section 6 of the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990) is amended to read:

Sec. 6. (a) The board of supervisors, by resolution, may establish zones within the agency without reference to the boundaries of other zones, setting forth in the resolutions descriptions using metes and bounds and granting to each of the zones a zone number, and may institute zone projects for the specific benefit of the zones.

(b) Proceedings for the establishment of the zones may be conducted concurrently with, and as a part of, proceedings for the instituting of projects relating to the zones, which proceedings shall be instituted in the manner provided in Sections 20 and 24.1.

SEC. 2.2. Section 7 of the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990) is amended to read:

Sec. 7. (a) At any time after the establishment of one or more zones for a project, the board may amend any or all of the zones if it appears to the board that circumstances have changed or that the initial determinations relating to the zone are now inappropriate. The amendments may include any of the following:

(1) Changes in the zone boundaries to annex or detach territory.

(2) Increases or decreases in the number of zones relating to the project by the making of boundary changes, the addition of new zones, or the elimination of old zones.

(3) Changes in the percentage of project benefits allocable to the zone.

In order to make the amendment, the board shall follow the procedure for the initial establishment of zones in the manner provided in Sections 20 and 24.1. However, the project itself need not be approved again.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the boundaries of any zone, and the percentages to be raised from any of several participating zones, shall not be reduced until all bonds issued by the agency with respect to the zone and its project have been fully paid and discharged.

(c) Paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) of Section 43 applies to all annexations made pursuant to this section.

SEC. 2.3. Section 9 of the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990) is amended to read:

Sec. 9. The agency has perpetual succession and may do any of the following:

(a) Sue and be sued in the name of the agency in all actions and proceedings in all courts and tribunals of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Adopt a seal and alter it at pleasure.

(c) Acquire by grant, purchase, lease, gift, devise, contract, construction, or otherwise, and hold, use, enjoy, sell, let, and dispose of real and personal property of every kind, including lands, structures, buildings, rights-of-way, easements, and privileges, and construct, maintain, alter, and operate any and all works or improvements, within or without the agency, necessary or proper to carry out any of the purposes of this act and complete, extend, add to, alter, remove, repair, or otherwise improve any works, or improvements, or property acquired by it as authorized by this act.

(d) (1) Store water in surface or underground reservoirs within or outside of the agency for the common benefit of the agency of any zones affected.

(2) Conserve and reclaim water for present and future use within the agency.

(3) Appropriate and acquire water and water rights, and import water into the agency and conserve within or outside of the agency, water for any purpose useful to the agency.

(4) Commence, maintain, intervene in, defend, or compromise, in the name of the agency on behalf of the landowners therein, or otherwise, and assume the costs and expenses of any action or proceeding involving or affecting the ownership or use of waters or water rights within or without the agency, used or useful for any purpose of the agency or of common benefit to any land situated therein, or involving the wasteful use of water therein.

(5) Commence, maintain, intervene in, defend, and compromise and to assume the cost and expenses of any and all actions and proceedings.

(6) Prevent interference with, or diminution of, or declare rights in, the natural flow of any stream or surface or subterranean supply of waters used or useful for any purpose of the agency or of common benefit to the lands within the agency or to its inhabitants.

(7) Prevent unlawful exportation of water from the agency.

(8) Prevent contamination, pollution, or otherwise rendering unfit or beneficial use the surface or subsurface water used or useful in the agency, and commence, maintain, and defend actions and proceedings to prevent any interference with those waters which endangers or damages the inhabitants, lands, or use of water in, or flowing into, the agency. However, the agency may not intervene or take part in, or pay the cost or expenses of, actions or controversies between the owners of lands or water rights which do not affect the interests of the agency.

(e) Control the flood and storm waters of the agency and the flood and storm waters of streams that have their sources outside of the agency, but which streams and the flood waters thereof, flow into the agency, and conserve those waters for beneficial and useful purposes of the agency by spreading, storing, retaining, and causing to percolate into the soil within or outside the agency, or save or conserve in any manner all or any of those waters and protect from damage from those flood or storm waters the watercourses, watersheds, public highways, life, and property in the agency, and the watercourses of streams outside the agency flowing into the agency.

(f) Cooperate and act in conjunction with, the state, or any of its engineers, officers boards, commissions, departments, or agencies, or with the United States, or any of its engineers, officers, boards, commissions, departments, or agencies, or with any public or private corporation, or with the county, in the construction of any work for the controlling of flood or storm waters of, or flowing into, the agency, or for the protection of life or property therein, or for the purpose of conserving those waters for beneficial use within the agency, or in any other works, acts, or purposes provided for herein, and adopt and carry out any definite plan or system of work for any such purpose.

(g) Carry on technical and other necessary investigations, make measurements, collect data, make analyses, studies, and inspections pertaining to water supply, water rights, control of flood and storm waters, and use of water both within and without the agency relating to watercourses or streams flooding in or into the agency. For those purposes, the agency has the right of access through its authorized representatives to all properties within the agency and elsewhere relating to watercourses and streams flowing in or into the agency. The agency, through its authorized representatives, may enter upon those lands and make examinations, surveys, and maps thereof.

(h) (1) Enter upon any land, to make surveys and locate the necessary works of improvement and the lines for channels, conduits, canals, pipelines, roadways, and other rights-of-way.

(2) Acquire by purchase, lease, contract, gift, devise, or other legal means all lands and water and water rights and other property necessary or convenient for the construction, use, supply maintenance, repair, and improvement of those works, including works constructed and being constructed by private owners, lands for reservoirs for storage of necessary water, and all necessary appurtenances, if necessary to that end, and acquire and hold in the name of the state, the capital stock of any mutual water company or corporation, domestic or foreign, owning water or water rights, canals, waterworks, franchises, concessions, or rights, if the ownership of the stock is necessary to secure a water supply required by the agency or any part thereof, and if when holding that stock, the agency is entitled to all the rights, powers, and privileges, and is subject to all the obligations and liability conferred or imposed by law upon other holders of that stock in the same company.

(3) Perform acts necessary or proper for the performance of any agreement with the United States, or any state, county, city, district of any kind, public or private corporation, association, firm, or individual, or any number of them, for the joint acquisition, construction, leasing, ownership, disposition, use, management, maintenance, repair, or operation of any rights, works, or other property of a kind which might be lawfully acquired or owned by the agency.

(4) Acquire the right to store water in any reservoirs, or carry water through any canal, ditch, or conduit not owned or controlled by the agency.

(5) Grant to any owner or lessee the right to the use of any water or right to store water in any reservoir of the agency, or to carry water through any tunnels, canal, ditch, or conduit of the agency.

(6) Perform acts necessary or proper for the performance of any agreement with any district of any kind, public or private corporation, association, firm, or individual, or any number of them for the transfer or delivery to any district, corporation, association, firm, or individual of any water right or water pumped, stored, appropriated, or otherwise acquired or secured, for the use of the agency, or for the purpose of exchanging the same for other water, water right, or water supply in exchange for water, water right, or water supply to be delivered to the agency by the other party to the agreement.

(7) Cooperate with, and act in conjunction with, the state, or any of its engineers, officers, boards, commissions, departments, or agencies, or with the United States, or any of its engineers, officers, boards, commissions, departments, or agencies, or with any public or private corporation, in the construction of any work for controlling flood or storm waters of streams in or running into the agency, or for the protection of life or property therein, or for the purpose of conserving the waters for beneficial use within the agency, or for the protection, enhancement, and use of groundwater within the agency, or in any other works, acts, or purposes provided for herein, and adopt and carry out any definite plan or system of work for any such purpose.

(i) Incur indebtedness and issue bonds in the manner provided in this act.

(j) Cause taxes or assessments to be levied and collected in order to pay any obligation of the agency and carry out any of the purposes of this act.

(k) Make contracts, and employ labor, and do all acts necessary for the full exercise of all powers vested in the agency or any of the officers thereof, by this act.

(l) Buy, provide, sell, and deliver water.

(m) Exchange water.

(n) Develop and distribute water to persons in exchange for ceasing or reducing groundwater extractions, and prevent groundwater extractions which are determined to be harmful to the groundwater basin.

(o) Transport, reclaim, purify, desalinate, treat, or otherwise manage and control water for the beneficial use of persons or property within the agency.

(p) Construct, maintain, improve, and operate public recreational facilities appurtenant to any water reservoir operated or contracted to be operated by the agency whether within or without the agency, subject to the limitations as to eminent domain use for recreational purposes outside the agency set forth in Section 4, and provide by ordinance regulations binding upon all persons to govern the use of those facilities, including regulations imposing reasonable charges for the use thereof.

(q) Regulate inspect, and license all structures, including docks and wharves, or structures used as docks or wharves, and their anchorage or mooring system, that float on, or are designed to float on, the surface of reservoirs operated or contracted to be operated by the agency or that are located within the area subject to its flowage easement, or that are located on real property of the agency, and charge a reasonable fee for licensing those structures.

Any of those structures that are unlicensed more than 30 days after notice to license the structure has been posted thereon, or any unlicensed structure that is neither anchored nor moored, or is found on property owned in fee by the agency, is a nuisance. The agency may have injunctive relief for any of those nuisances, or may summarily abate any untended structure floating on the surface of the reservoir that is neither anchored nor moored, or any untended structure found on property owned in fee by the agency. It is a misdemeanor to maintain, anchor, or moor or suffer to be maintained, anchored, or moored on property of which one is possessed any unlicensed structure when that structure is required to be licensed pursuant to this act. The misdemeanor is punishable by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500), or by imprisonment in the county jail for not to exceed six months, or by both that fine and imprisonment. Each day of violation of these provisions shall constitute a separate offense.

(r) Use any part of its water, and any part of its works, facilities, improvements, and property used for the development, storage, and transportation of water pursuant to this section to provide, generate, and deliver hydroelectric power, and acquire, construct, operate, and maintain any and all works, facilities, improvements, and property necessary or convenient therefor.

(s) Pursuant to contract, provide, generate, sell, and deliver hydroelectric power to the Untied States or any board, department, or agency thereof, to the state for the purposes of the State Water Resources Development System, and to any public agency, public utility, private corporation, or other person or public entity, or any combination thereof, engaged in the sale of electric power. For the purposes of this subdivision, "public agency" means a city, county, city and county, district, local agency, public authority, or public corporation.

(t) Construct, maintain, and operate works, facilities, improvements, and property of the agency useful or necessary for the provision, generation, and delivery of hydroelectric power, pursuant to subdivisions (r) and (s).

(u) Prevent the export of groundwater from the Salinas River Groundwater Basin, except that use of water from the basin on any part of Fort Ord shall not be deemed an export. Nothing in this act prevents the development and use of the Seaside Groundwater Basin for use on any lands within or outside that basin.

SEC. 2.4. Section 10 of the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990) is amended to read:

Sec. 10. (a) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this act, the agency may authorize, issue, and sell revenue bonds pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 54300) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code to provide funds for acquiring, constructing, improving, or financing any one or more revenue producing enterprises for any one or more of the purposes of the agency, or zone or participating zones thereof, or for refunding any outstanding bonds that should be incurred, and can be repaid and liquidated as to both principal and interest from revenues designated by the board.

(2) "Enterprise," as used in this section, means a revenue-producing system, plant, works, or undertaking used for, or useful in, carrying out any one or more of the purposes of the agency.

(3) In connection with the authorization, issue, and sale of revenue bonds pursuant to this section, and so long as any of these bonds remain outstanding, the agency may exercise, in addition to the powers covered by this section, any of the powers of local agencies provided for in Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 54300) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

(b) Notwithstanding Sections 54382, 54400, and 54402 of the Government Code, or any other provision of the law, the board shall determine and provide, in any resolution providing for the issuance of the revenue bonds, for the following:

(1) For maturity dates of the bonds not exceeding 50 years from their respective dates.

(2) For interest on the bonds at a rate not exceeding the maximum rate specified in Section 53531 of the Government Code.

(c) Any election for the issuance of revenue bonds for a zone or participating zones of the agency is limited to the area of that zone or participating zones, and the proceeds from the sale of any such revenue bonds may be expended only for the benefit of that zone or participating zones.

(d) No bonds authorized under this section may be issued and sold until the bonds have been investigated and certified pursuant to the Districts Securities Law (Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 2000) of Division 10 of the Water Code).

SEC. 2.5. Section 15 of the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990) is amended to read:

Sec. 15. (a) The board of supervisors of the county is ex officio the board of supervisors of the agency.

(b) The board of supervisors may adopt, by ordinance, reasonable procedures, rules, and regulations to implement this act. The board of supervisors may specify in any ordinance that a violation of the ordinance is an infraction.

(c) (1) The board may, by ordinance, declare that a violation of its ordinances is a nuisance and may provide for the summary abatement of the nuisance. The board may provide for the commencement of civil proceedings to abate a nuisance.

(2) The board may provide that any person committing a nuisance is liable for the costs incurred by the agency to abate a nuisance, including, but not limited to, costs of an investigation, costs incurred to eliminate or mitigate the nuisance, court costs, attorney fees, and costs incurred to monitor compliance. The board may provide for civil penalties which may be imposed by a court against persons found by the court to have committed a nuisance.

(d) All ordinances, resolutions, and other legislative acts for the agency shall be adopted by the board of supervisors, and certified to, recorded, and published in the same manner, except as otherwise expressly provided, as are ordinances, resolutions, or other legislative acts for the county.

SEC. 2.6. Section 20 of the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990) is amended to read:

Sec. 20. (a) The board may institute projects for single zones and joint projects for two or more zones, for the financing, constructing, maintaining, operating, extending, repairing, or otherwise improving any work or improvement of common benefit to that zone or participating zones.

(b) To initiate proceedings for the approval of any project, the board shall adopt a resolution which specifies all of the following:

(1) Its intention to undertake the project and a general description of the proposed project.

(2) The location and the extent of the proposed zones to be benefited and the percentage of the benefit to be received by each zone.

(3) The engineering estimates of the cost of the project to be borne by the particular zones or participating zones.

(4) The proposed method for financing the project, including, if applicable, the issuance of bonds, the kind and estimated amount of the bonds to be issued, and the levying of annual assessments.

(5) The estimated rates at which the annual assessments, if any, will be levied.

(6) The time and place for a public hearing on the resolution.

(7) The place in the project zone or in each of the participating zones where a map or maps showing the general location and general construction of the project may be examined by the public during regular business hours.

(c) The hearing shall be held pursuant to Section 24.1. Any assessment to be levied in connection with a project shall be levied pursuant to Section 24.

SEC. 2.7. Section 21.1 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 21.1. (a) The Legislature finds and determines that the watersheds of the coastal streams south of Carmel Highlands in Monterey County contribute to the unique environment of the area, and that the surface water and groundwater naturally occurring in that area, should be retained within that area.

(b) For the purpose of preserving the unique environmental characteristics of the area described in subdivision (a), no person or entity shall export from the coastal watershed area any water obtained as groundwater or surface water in that area.

(c) If any export of water in violation of this section is attempted, the agency or any person or entity affected by the export may obtain from the superior court, and the court shall grant, injunctive relief prohibiting the export of water.

(d) For purposes of this section, the "coastal watershed area" includes the watershed of Doud Creek and the watersheds of all streams that drain into the Pacific Ocean in Monterey County south of Doud Creek, excluding any portion of any watershed lying outside the agency's territory.

(e) This section does not prohibit the use of water on lands adjacent to the coastal watershed which are in common ownership with lands within the watershed, nor does it restrict use of water which is consistent with an existing appropriative right.

SEC. 2.8. Section 24 of the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990) is amended to read:

Sec. 24. (a) The board of supervisors may do any of the following:

(1) Levy ad valorem taxes or assessments upon all property in the agency to pay the general administrative costs and expenses of the agency, and to carry out any of the objects or purposes of this act of common benefit to the agency.

(2) Levy taxes or assessments in each or any of the zones and participating zones to pay the costs and expenses of carrying out any of the purposes of this act of special benefit to the zone or zones, including, but not limited to, the constructing, maintaining operating, extending, repairing, or otherwise improving any or all works or improvements established or to be established within or on behalf of the respective zones, according to the benefits derived or to be derived by the respective zones, by a levy or assessment upon all property within a zone or participating zones, which may include land, improvements thereon, and personal property.

It is declared that for the purposes of any tax or assessment levied under this subdivision, the property so taxed or assessed within a given zone is equally benefited.

(3) Levy taxes or assessments for the purpose authorized by paragraph (2), in each or any of the zones or participating zones, according to the special benefits derived or to be derived by the specific properties therein. The board may by ordinance adopt formulas to determine differential rates within a zone based on special benefits, parcel size, land use, and any other pertinent factor or combination of factors.

(b) To initiate proceedings to levy any assessment in connection with a project, the board shall comply with Section 20.

(c) To initiate proceedings to levy any other assessment authorized by this act, the board of supervisors shall adopt a resolution which specifies all of the following:

(1) Its intention to levy the assessments.

(2) The location and the boundaries of the zones or areas within which the assessment is proposed to be levied.

(3) The specific purpose for which the assessment is to be levied.

(4) The estimated rates at which the annual assessments will be levied.

(5) The time and place for a public hearing on the resolution.

(d) The hearing on any assessment proceeding initiated pursuant to this act shall be held pursuant to Section 24.1, unless otherwise provided by this act.

(e) In the event of project cooperation with any of the governmental bodies as authorized in subdivision (f) of Section 9, and the making of a contract with any such governmental body, for the purposes set forth in subdivision (f), by the terms of which work is agreed to be performed by any such governmental body in any specified zone or participating zones, for the particular benefit thereof, and by that contract it is agreed that the agency is to pay to that governmental body a sum of money in consideration or subvention for the performance of the work by that governmental body, the board may, after proceedings in the manner prescribed in Section 20, levy and collect a special tax or assessment upon the property in the zone or participating zones, to raise funds to enable the agency to make that payment, in addition to other taxes or assessments otherwise provided for in this act.

(f) The taxes or assessments shall be levied and collected together with, and not separately from, taxes for county purposes, and the revenues derived from the agency taxes or assessments shall be paid into the county treasury to the credit of the agency, or the respective zones thereof, and the board may control and order the expenditure thereof for those purposes.

(g) No revenues, or portions thereof, derived in any of the several zones from the taxes or assessments levied under paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (a) shall be expended for constructing, maintaining, operating, extending, repairing, or otherwise improving any works or improvements located in any other zone, except in the case of joint projects, or for projects authorized or established outside that zone, or zones, but for the benefit thereof.

(h) In cases of projects joint to two or more zones, the zones will become, and shall be referred to as, participating zones.

(i) (1) Once an annual assessment has initially been authorized and levied pursuant to this section, the annual levy of that assessment in succeeding years shall be made by resolution of the board of supervisors, and shall not be subject to the protest procedures or require an election unless an increase in the assessment rate is proposed.

(2) Any renewal of the assessment after the assessment has been suspended or terminated by the board of supervisors, or expires in accordance with the terms of the original authorization, shall be treated as a new assessment.

SEC. 2.9. Section 24.1 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 24.1. (a) The procedures set forth in this section apply to hearings for approval of a project, establishment of a zone, amendment of a zone, approval of assessments levied in connection with a project, and approval of any other assessments under this act.

(b) (1) Notice shall be given by publication pursuant to Section 6066 of the Government Code. In any particular case, the board may establish a longer notice period. In any case where a hearing is required in order to approve a project for which assessments may be levied, notice of the hearing shall also be published once a week for two consecutive weeks, with the first publication occurring at least 60 days before the date set for the hearing. Publication shall be made in a newspaper of general circulation designated by the board, which is circulated in the zone or each of the participating zones. If no such newspaper exists, the publication shall be made in any newspaper of general circulation in the county that is likely to reach persons interested in the proposal, and in addition, a notice shall be posted for at least two consecutive weeks prior to the hearing in five public places designated by the board, in the affected zones or area of benefit.

(2) The notice shall include all of the following:

(A) The text of the resolution initiating the approval process and setting the hearing date.

(B) A statement which informs the public that they may appear and speak on the proposal at the public hearing.

(C) A statement advising that written protests submitted at or before the time set for the hearing by registered voters or landowners, as applicable, will be considered by the board.

(3) Any maps required to be mentioned in the resolution shall be posted or made readily available during normal business hours in each of the public places designated in the notice at least two weeks prior to the hearing.

(c) At or before the time set for the hearing, any person may file a written protest with the agency's secretary. Each protest shall include all of the following:

(1) A brief statement of the objection.

(2) A description of any lot or parcel located in the zone or area affected by the proposal, in which each protester has an ownership interest, to enable the agency secretary to determine that the protester is the owner of property within the affected zone or area.

(3) If the name of the protester is not shown on the last assessment roll as the owner of the lot or parcel, written evidence that the protester is the legal owner of the property.

(4) The names of any coowners or joint owners, including those signing the protest, and their proportionate ownership interests in the property.

(5) A statement indicating whether the protester resides within the affected zone or area and whether the protester is registered to vote as a resident within the zone or area.

(6) The protester's residence address.

(7) The signature of the protester. If the person making the protest is a business entity, the signature shall be that of an authorized representative and shall be accompanied by a declaration, executed under penalty of perjury, or other evidence indicating the basis of the protester's authority.

(d) The secretary shall endorse on each protest, upon its receipt, the date of receipt, and at the time of the hearing shall count the number of protests and report to the board the results of the count.

(e) At the hearing, the board may modify the proposal to make the proposal less costly or burdensome. The modifications may include, but are not limited to, any of the following:

(1) Modifying the project in a manner which is consistent with the proposed financing arrangements and with the nature of the project as originally proposed.

(2) Reducing the area proposed to be affected by the proposal.

(3) Adjusting the boundaries of the participating zones, if no territory which was not previously included in one of the proposed zones is added in connection with the adjustment and if the boundary adjustment does not result in increased assessment rates for any property proposed to be included.

(4) Reducing the amount of the bonds proposed to be issued.

(5) Reducing the rate of assessment.

(6) Altering the apportionment of assessments if no assessment is increased.

(7) Reducing the total amount of the proposed assessment.

(f) The board shall abandon the proposal or submit the proposal to the voters at an election under either of the following circumstances:

(1) At the time of the hearing 12 or more registered voters have resided in the affected zone or area of benefit for at least the previous 90 days and protests are filed which are signed by that number of registered voters residing in the affected zone or area of benefit which equal at least 25 percent of the number of registered voters who at the time of the last gubernatorial election resided in the affected zone or area of benefit and voted in that election.

(2) In any other case, protests are filed which are signed by persons owning at least 25 percent of the land area within the affected zone or area of benefit. If property is jointly owned, only that portion of the property owned by the signer of a protest may be counted for purposes of this paragraph. If an election is called pursuant to this paragraph, only persons who own land in the affected zone or area of benefit may vote in the election.

(g) If the proposal is submitted to the voters, the voting shall take place at a general or special election which is held in the affected zone or area of benefit at least 45 days after the date of the close of the hearing. Article 3 (commencing with Section 3780), Article 4 (commencing with Section 3790), and Article 5 (commencing with Section 3795) of Chapter 2 of Division 5 of the Elections Code apply to an election held pursuant to this section.

(h) In an election held pursuant to this section in which only landowners are entitled to vote, each landowner has only one vote for each acre and may cast as many votes, including fractions of votes, as there are acres of land owned by the landowner in the territory in which the election is held. Fraction of an acre shall be rounded to the nearest one-tenth for voting purposes, but no landholding shall be deemed to be less than one-tenth of an acre. If property is jointly owned, the several owners are deemed to be one owner for voting purposes. The joint owners may split their votes as long as the total number of their votes does not exceed the total number of votes which would be granted to them as one owner.

(i) If an election is held and the proposal is approved by a majority of the votes cast on the proposal, the board may proceed with the proposal.

(j) If the board abandons the proceedings or the proposal fails to win a majority of the votes at an election, no further proceedings to implement the proposal may be undertaken for six months from the date of the abandonment or the date of the election.

(k) For purposes of this section, if a proposal is made to amend a zone by annexing or detaching territory, the "affected zone" or "area of benefit" means the territory proposed to be annexed or detached.

SEC. 2.10. Section 26 of the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990) is amended to read:

Sec. 26. (a) If the board determines that a bonded indebtedness should be incurred to pay the cost of any work or improvement in any zone, the board may, by resolution, determine and declare the respective amounts of bonds necessary to be issued in each zone, in order to raise the amount of money necessary for each work or improvement and the maximum rate of interest of the bonds. The board shall file a copy of the resolution, duly certified by the clerk, in the office of the county recorder within five days after its issuance. Upon the filing of the copy of the resolution, the board may proceed with the bond election.

(b) After the resolution is recorded pursuant to subdivision (a), the board may call a special bond election in the zone or participating zones at which shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the zone or participating zones the question whether or not bonds shall be issued in the amount or amounts determined in the resolution and for the purpose or purposes therein stated. The bonds and the interest thereon shall be paid from revenue derived from annual taxes or assessments levied pursuant to this act.

(c) (1) The board shall call the special bond election by ordinance and not otherwise and submit to the qualified electors of the zone or participating zones, the proposition of incurring a bonded debt in the zone or participating zones in the amount and for the purposes, stated in the resolution and shall recite therein the purposes for which the indebtedness is proposed to be incurred. It shall be sufficient to give a brief, general description of those purposes, and to refer to the recorded copy of the resolution adopted by the board, and on file for particulars.

(2) The ordinance shall also state the estimated cost of the proposed work and improvements, the amount of the principal of the indebtedness to be incurred therefor, and the maximum rate of interest to be paid on the indebtedness and shall fix the date on which the special election shall be held, and the form and contents of the ballot to be used. The rate of interest to be paid on the indebtedness shall not exceed the maximum rate specified in Section 53531 of the Government Code.

(3) For the purposes of the election, the board shall, in the ordinance, establish special bond election precincts within the boundaries of each zone and participating zone and may form election precincts by consolidating the precincts established for general elections in the agency to a number not exceeding six general precincts for each special bond election precinct and shall designate a polling place and appoint one inspector, one judge, and one clerk for each of the special bond election precincts.

(d) In all particulars not recited in the ordinance, the special bond election shall be held as nearly as practicable in conformity with the general election laws of the state.

(e) The board shall cause a map or maps to be prepared covering a general description of the work to be done, which shall show the location of the proposed works and improvements and shall cause the map to be posted in a prominent place in the county courthouse for public inspection for at least 30 days before the date fixed for the election.

(f) The ordinance calling the special bond election shall, prior to the date set for the election, be published pursuant to Section 6062 of the Government Code in a newspaper of general circulation, circulated in each zone and participating zone affected. The last publication of the ordinance shall be at least 14 days before the election, and if there be no such newspaper, then the ordinance shall be posted in five public places designated by the board, in each zone and participating zone for at least 30 days before the date fixed for the election. No other notice of the election need be given nor polling place cards be issued.

(g) Any defect of irregularity in the proceeding prior to the calling of the special bond election shall not affect the validity of the bonds authorized by the election. If at the election a majority of the votes cast are in favor of incurring the bonded indebtedness, then bonds for the zone or participating zones for the amount stated in the proceedings shall be issued and sold in the manner provided by this act.

SEC. 2.11. Section 29 of the Monterey County Water Resources Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990) is amended to read:

Sec. 29. Any bonds issued under Section 26 of this act, and the interest thereon, shall be paid from revenue derived from annual taxes or assessments levied pursuant to this act. No zone or property in a zone is liable for the share of bonded indebtedness of any other zone, nor may any money derived from taxation or assessment in any of the several zones be used in payment of principal or interest or otherwise of the share of bonded indebtedness chargeable to any other zone.

SEC. 2.12. Section 30 of the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990) is amended to read:

Sec. 30. The board shall levy a tax or assessment each year in the zones of issuance, sufficient to pay the interest and that portion of the principal of the bonds as is due or to become due before the time for making the next general tax levy. The taxes or assessments shall be levied and collected in the respective zones of issuance, together with and not separately from taxes for county purposes, and when collected shall be paid into the county treasury to the credit of the zone of issuance, and shall be used for the payment of the principal and interest on the bonds. The principal and interest on the bonds shall be paid by the county treasurer in the manner provided by law for the payment of principal and interest on bonds of the county.

SEC. 2.13. Section 43 of the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act is amended to read:

Sec. 43. (a) In addition, or as an alternative, to the procedures for amending zones described in Section 7, any territory in the agency lying within the watershed within which a zone is situated may be annexed to that zone pursuant to this section. Territory which is in, or annexed to, one zone may be annexed to another zone pursuant to this section.

(b) The following applies with respect to the annexation of new territory to any zone pursuant to this section:

(1) (A) A petition for annexation by election signed by 25 percent of the freeholders residing in the territory proposed to be annexed as shown by the last equalized assessment roll of the county shall be presented to the board.

(B) The petition shall designate specifically the boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed and its assessed valuation as shown by the last equalized assessment roll and shall ask that the territory be annexed to the zone. The petition shall be accompanied by a bond in the sum of not less than one hundred dollars ($100), to be approved by the board and filed with the clerk of the board as security for the payment by the petitioners of the reasonable cost of the election on annexation, in the event that at the election less than a majority of the votes cast are in favor of annexation. The petition shall be verified by the affidavit of one of the petitioners.

(C) The petitioner shall be published by the petitioners for at least two weeks preceding its hearing in a newspaper of general circulation published in the zone, if there is one, or, if not, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the agency, together with a notice stating the number of signers of the petition, the time when the petition will be presented to the board and that all persons interested may appear and be heard. It shall not be necessary to publish the names of the signers.

(D) At the time specified for the hearing, the board shall hear the petition and may adjourn the hearing from time to time. Upon final hearing of the petition, the board, if it approves the petition as originally presented or in a modified form, shall make an order describing the exterior boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed and ordering that an election be held in such territory for the purpose of determining whether or not the territory shall be annexed to the zone. The order shall fix the day of the election, which shall be within 60 days from the date of the order, and shall show the boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed to the zone and shall set forth the measure to be submitted to the voters of such territory and shall designate the precincts, polling places and election officers for such election and state the times between which the polls shall be open. The order shall be published pursuant to Section 6066 of the Government Code. This order shall be entered in the minutes and is conclusive evidence of a due presentation of a proper petition, and of the fact that each of the petitioners was, at the time of the signing and presentation of the petition, qualified to sign.

(E) The election shall be held and conducted as provided in Chapter 1 (commencing with section 22000) of Part 1 of Division 12 of the Elections Code and sample ballots and polling place cards shall be mailed as provided in section 10012 of the Elections Code. If a majority of the votes in the territory proposed to be annexed at an election called therein by the board for that purpose are in favor of the annexation, the clerk of the board shall make and cause to be entered in the minutes and endorsed on the petition an order approving the petition and the petition shall be filed. The entry is conclusive evidence of the fact and regularity of all prior proceedings of every kind required by law and of the facts stated in the entry. The board at its next regular meeting after the entry shall, by an order, alter the boundaries of the zone and annex to it the territory described in the petition. The order of the board is conclusive evidence of the validity of all prior proceedings leading up to the annexation and recited in the order, and from and after the order the territory is part of the zone. If, at the election, less a majority of the votes in a territory proposed to be annexed are in favor of the annexation of the territory to the zone, the signers of the petition shall, within 10 days after the canvassing of the votes of the election, pay to the board the reasonable cost of the election and, if not paid within 10 days, the board may sue on the bond to recover the cost of the election. If the result of the election is against annexation, the board shall, by order, disapprove the petition and enter the order in its minutes. No other proceeding shall be taken in relation thereto until the expiration of six months from the presentation of the petition, except to collect the costs of the election.

(2) (A) A petition for annexation without election signed by the owners of real property in the territory proposed to be annexed which real property represents at least 75 percent of the total assessed valuation of real property in the territory as shown by the last equalized county assessment roll, shall be presented to the board.

(B) The petition shall designate specifically the boundaries of the territory and the assessed valuation of real property therein as shown by the last equalized county assessment roll and shall show the amount of real property owned by each of the petitioners and its assessed valuation as shown by the last equalized county assessment roll. The petition shall ask that the territory be annexed to the zone. The petition shall be verified by the affidavit of one of the petitioners.

(C) The petition shall be published by petitioners at least two weeks preceding the hearing in a newspaper of general circulation published in the zone, if there is one, or, if not, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the agency. With the petition there shall be published a notice stating the number of signers of the petition, the time when the petition will be presented to the board and stating that all persons interested may appear and be heard. It shall not be necessary to publish the names of the signers. A printed copy of the petition and notice as so published shall be mailed pursuant to Sections 53520 to 53523, inclusive, of the Government Code.

(D) At the time designated the board shall hear the petition and any person interested, and may adjourn the hearing from time to time. Upon the hearing of the petition, the board shall determine whether or not it is in the best interests of the zone and the territory that the territory be annexed to the zone and the board may modify the boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed as set forth in the petition by decreasing the area of the territory. If the board upon final hearing determines that it is in the best interests of the zone and of the territory proposed to be annexed that the territory be annexed, it shall make an order describing the boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed and shall alter the boundaries of the zone and annex to it the territory described in the petition and the territory is then a part of the zone.

(3) A petition for annexation without election signed by 100 percent of the owners of real property in the territory proposed to be annexed may be presented to the board. The petition shall designate specifically the boundaries of the territory and shall ask that the territory be annexed to the zone. The petition shall be verified by the affidavit of one of the petitioners. The board shall determine, upon reviewing the petition, whether or not it is in the best interest of the zone and the territory that the territory be annexed to the zone. The board may modify the boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed as stated in the petition by decreasing the area of the territory. If the board determines that it is in the best interest of the zone and of the territory proposed to be annexed that the territory be annexed, the board shall make an order describing the boundaries of the territory proposed to be annexed and shall alter the boundaries of the zone and annex to it the territory described in the petition, and the territory is then a part of the zone.

(4) No petition or request for annexation pursuant to paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, may be accepted by the board if a zone annexation petition involving any of the same territory is pending before it for annexation to the same zone.

(5) An order for annexation may be by ordinance or resolution. Whenever any new territory is annexed to a zone, the territory thereupon becomes subject to all the liabilities and entitled to all the benefits of the zone. Any order for annexation may provide for, or be made subject to, the payment of a fixed or determinable amount of money for the acquisition, transfer, use, or right of use of all or any part of the existing property, real or personal, of the zone. The board may provide that payment of the amounts shall be either: (1) in lump sums or (2) in semiannual installments with interest thereon at a rate not to exceed 12 percent over a period not to exceed 10 years beginning on July 1 following the next succeeding March 1. If the payment is in semiannual installments, the board shall provide in the ordinance that the total of each sum to be paid by each parcel shall constitute a lien on the parcel as of noon on the next succeeding March 1, the same as the lien for general agency and zone taxes; that the semiannual installments shall be paid and collected at the same time and in the same manner and by the same persons as, and together with and not separately from, general agency and zone taxes and shall be delinquent at the same time and thereafter subject to the same delinquency penalties; and that all laws applicable to the levy, collection and enforcement of general agency and zone taxes, including, but not limited to, those pertaining to delinquency, correction, cancellation, refund and redemption shall be applicable to such installments.

SEC. 2.14. Section 45 of the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990) is amended to read:

Sec. 45. The board shall appoint a task force to recommend a water allocation formula for urban and agricultural areas in the county that are not within the jurisdiction of the Monterey Peninsula Water Management District and the Pajaro Valley Water Management Agency. An urban allocation formula is necessary to preserve agricultural access to an adequate water supply and to preserve agriculture as a mainstay of the Salinas Valley economy. The task force shall made the recommendation to the agency on or before January 1, 1992.

SEC. 3. Section 46 of the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990) is amended and renumbered to read:

Sec. 90. This act, and every part thereof, shall be liberally construed to promote the objects thereof, and to carry out its intents and purposes.

SEC. 4. Section 47 of the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990) is amended and renumbered to read:

Sec. 91. If any provision of this act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of these provisions to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby.

SEC. 5. Section 48 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 48. The agency shall be governed by a board of directors, appointed pursuant to Section 49, consisting of nine members. The directors shall be residents of the county and shall have backgrounds and experience that indicate a high level of interest or expertise in areas relating to the agency's work.

SEC. 6. Section 49 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 49. (a) (1) Five directors shall be appointed, one each by each member of the board of supervisors.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the supervisors shall consider appointments of persons with experience relating to any of the following:

(A) Municipal or small water agencies not regulated by the Public Utilities Commission.

(B) Resource conservation districts.
(C) Environmental protection organizations.
(D) Industry and building trade representatives.
(E) Agricultural organizations.

(3) The board of supervisors shall also consider appointments of persons from the public.

(b) Four directors shall be appointed by a majority vote of the supervisors from nominees submitted by the following groups or organizations:

(1) One director from a list of two nominees provided by the Monterey County Farm Bureau, who has a background in agricultural production.

(2) One director from a list of two nominees provided by the Grower-Shipper Vegetable Association of Central California, who has a background in agricultural production.

(3) One director from a list of two nominees provided by the mayor's select committee, who has a background in city government within the territory of the agency.

(4) One director from a list of two nominees provided by the Monterey County Agricultural Advisory Committee. The Monterey Agricultural Advisory Committee shall consider possible nominations from all areas of agriculture not represented by the organizations described in paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, such as flower growers' associations, cattlemens' associations, wine grape growers' associations, and independent growers.

(c) No person shall be appointed pursuant to this section who, because of his or her employment or other financial interest, is likely to be disqualified from a substantial number of decisions to be made by the board of the agency on the basis of conflict-of-interest requirements.

SEC. 7. Section 50 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 50. (a) The term of office for each director shall be four years, except as provided in subdivision (b). Directors shall serve until their successors are appointed and take office. Directors may be reappointed at the end of their terms.

(b) The terms of office of the directors shall be staggered. Directors who are appointed initially shall serve as follows:

(1) Three directors shall have two-year terms.
(2) Three directors shall have three-year terms.
(3) Three directors shall have four-year terms.
(4) The initial directors shall draw lots to determine the length of each director's initial term.

SEC. 8. Section 51 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 51. (a) A vacancy occurs among the directors when a director resigns or dies, or if the office is declared vacant by the supervisors, on the recommendation of a majority of the directors due to the incumbent director's incapacity or failure to attend meetings.

(b) A vacancy shall be filled by appointment in the same manner as the appointment of the previous holder of the office. The person appointed to replace a director shall serve for the remainder of the original term, and may thereafter be reappointed or not, as the appointing authority may decide.

SEC. 9. Section 52 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 52. (a) The directors shall advise the board of supervisors on all matters relating to the agency within the scope of the supervisors' duties. No action shall be taken by the board of supervisors relating to the agency without seeking or obtaining a recommendation from the directors.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not apply to actions taken in connection with an emergency declared by the board of supervisors that requires immediate action and there is insufficient time to obtain a recommendation from the directors. The board of supervisors shall give reasonable advance notice to the directors of any meeting at which an emergency declaration relating to the agency will be considered by the supervisors.

SEC. 10. Section 53 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 53. The directors shall establish long-term and short-term policy objectives for the agency, subject to review by the board of supervisors, and shall oversee the work of the agency to ensure that the objectives established are diligently pursued. The policy objectives shall be consistent with the Monterey County General Plan and its implementing ordinances.

SEC. 11. Section 54 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 54. The directors shall, with the assistance of staff, do all of the following:

(a) Prepare an annual budget for the agency.

(b) Hold public hearings on the proposed budget.

(c) After approval of the budget by the directors, submit the budget to the supervisors for its adoption.

SEC. 12. Section 55 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 55. The directors shall have primary, but not exclusive, responsibility for initiating and developing all proposals affecting the work of the agency.

SEC. 13. Section 56 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 56. The directors shall approve, and the chairperson of the directors shall execute, all contracts of the agency when authorized by this act or by the board of supervisors. All existing provisions of law relating to agency contracts, including, but not limited to, advertising, bidding, awarding, and managing contracts, shall govern the actions of the directors.

SEC. 14. Section 57 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 57. (a) Except as otherwise provided, the directors may approve all contracts for which funds have been budgeted by the agency.

(b) All contracts approved by the directors shall be approved as to form by the county counsel and as to fiscal provisions by the county administrative office.

SEC. 15. Section 58 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 58. The purchasing agent for the county shall be an ex officio purchasing agent for the agency. The supervisors may grant to the purchasing agent the same authority to execute contracts on behalf of the agency as it has to execute contracts on behalf of the county. The general manager may submit to the directors for approval any contract within the purchasing agent's authority, and shall submit any such contract to the directors upon their request.

SEC. 16. Section 60 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 60. All contracts for which funds have not previously been budgeted by the agency shall be approved by the board of supervisors and executed by the chairperson of the board of supervisors, subject to approval as to form by the county counsel and as to fiscal provisions by the county administrative office.

SEC. 17. Section 60.1 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 60.1. All contracts involving the lease of agency land to the county for recreational use shall be approved, modified, terminated, or administered by the board of supervisors, unless the supervisors, by ordinance, grant this authority to the directors.

SEC. 18. Section 61 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 61. (a) The directors shall, in consultation with the county personnel director, establish procedures for the recruitment and hiring of the general manager of the agency, subject to approval by the board of supervisors. The procedures shall include at least all of the following requirements:

(1) The county personnel department shall review and screen all applications.

(2) The directors shall interview the candidates who pass the screening by the personnel department, and shall recommend at least two candidates to the supervisors.

(3) The board of supervisors shall make the final selection. The board of supervisors may select one of the candidates referred by the directors or may reject all candidates and direct that the process be repeated.

(b) The board of supervisors retain the authority to terminate the general manager. Prior to terminating the general manager, the board of supervisors shall consider the recommendations of the directors.

SEC. 19. Section 62 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 62. The directors shall prepare an annual performance evaluation of the general manager. The county administrative office shall prepare a format for the evaluation. At the beginning of each evaluation period, the directors and the general manager shall develop a set of agency objectives for the year ahead. The evaluation shall include an assessment of the performance of the general manager in relation to these objectives. A copy of the evaluation shall be sent to the supervisors.

SEC. 20. Section 63 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 63. (a) The board of supervisors shall grant to the directors the duties relating to personnel matters of the agency, subject to memoranda of understanding entered into by employee organizations and the board of supervisors.

(b) All planning and budgeting matters relating to agency staffing requirements shall be considered by the directors before referral to the supervisors.

SEC. 21. Section 64 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 64. (a) The directors shall meet on a regular basis, not less than once per month, at a regular meeting place to be determined by the directors.

(b) All meetings shall be conducted pursuant to the Ralph M. Brown Act (Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 54950) of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code) and Robert's Rules of Order. The procedures set forth in Robert's Rules of Order may be modified by resolution of the directors or by amendment to the bylaws of the agency.

SEC. 22. Section 65 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 65. The directors shall hold public hearings and shall consider testimony by the public on all matters concerning the agency's activities for which public hearings are required by law.

SEC. 23. Section 66 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 66. The directors shall adopt bylaws for the conduct of their business and shall establish standing committees comprised of board members.

SEC. 24. Section 67 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 67. The directors may establish and appoint advisory committees to assist the agency in any aspect of its work, any may prescribe the qualifications for membership on the advisory committees. The members of the advisory committees need not be directors.

SEC. 25. Section 68 is added to the Monterey County Water

Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 68. The directors shall not delegate to any standing or advisory committee any authority other than the authority to advise the board members.

SEC. 26. Section 69 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 69. The directors shall exercise those agency powers not reserved to the supervisors.

SEC. 27. Section 70 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 70. The board of supervisors, and not the directors, may take any of the following actions:

(a) Adopt agency ordinances.

(b) Create zones.

(c) Levy assessments or taxes, impose fees, charges or tolls, authorize bonds, or borrow money.

(d) Authorize projects that involve the creation of zones or the institution of any financing measures.

(e) Adopt an agency budget.

SEC. 28. Section 71 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 71. (a) The board of supervisors are responsible for the initiation and the conduct of any litigation by the agency and for the settlement of any litigation.

(b) The directors or general manager shall refer all matters with respect to which litigation is likely to the board of supervisors.

(c) The chairperson of the directors, or his or her designee, may be present during a closed session held by the board of supervisors to consider matters pertaining to litigation affecting the agency.

SEC. 29. Section 73 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 73. (a) The general manager shall report to the board of supervisors in a timely manner concerning all actions taken by the board members. Copies of all agendas and minutes of meetings of the directors shall be provided to the board of supervisors in a timely manner, to ensure communication between the board of supervisors and the directors.

(b) The agency shall prepare a quarterly report, which shall be approved by the directors, and a copy of the report shall be submitted to the board of supervisors. The directors shall make an oral presentation of its report to the board of supervisors at a supervisors' meeting.

(c) Any decisions by the directors which may have a significant impact on agency operations, policies, and practices shall be discussed with the supervisors, prior to implementation. Major policy changes having community-wide impact shall be communicated to the supervisors for review and concurrence, prior to implementation.

SEC. 30. Section 74 is added to the Monterey County Water

Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 74. The general manager shall report to the directors in a timely manner concerning all actions taken by the board of supervisors regarding the work of the agency. The clerk of the board of supervisors shall provide to the directors in a timely manner copies of all agendas, minutes, ordinances, and resolutions of the supervisors relating to the agency.

SEC. 31. Section 75 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 75. The board of supervisors and directors shall hold a joint meeting semiannually.

SEC. 32. Section 76 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 76. If any ordinance, resolution, or regulation of the agency provides for an appeal from any administrative or enforcement decision made by the agency or its staff, the appeal shall be heard by the directors, unless a different procedure is established by law, ordinance, or contract.

SEC. 33. Section 77 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 77. The directors shall adopt rules and regulations relating to public notice requirements for, and the conduct of, a hearing held pursuant to an appeal.

SEC. 34. Section 80 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 80. The decision of the directors on any appeal shall be final, and there shall be no appeal from the decision to the supervisors.

SEC. 35. Section 81 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 81. (a) There shall be no appeal to the board of supervisors from any decision by the directors on any matter, unless the appeal is permitted by ordinance or by other law.

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a), the referral of any matter to the board of supervisors by directors or the general manager, on their own initiative or at the request of the supervisors, if the board of supervisors has final decisionmaking authority or the duty to advise or give consent, is not an appeal.

SEC. 36. Section 82 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 82. Actions and decisions of the agency, whether by the board of supervisors, the directors, or others acting on behalf of the agency, are subject to judicial review as provided by existing law.

SEC. 37. Section 83 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 83. The directors may request, and shall receive, the assistance of county staff, as required, for the conduct of their business. An attorney representing the county counsel shall be present to advise the directors at their regular and special meetings.

SEC. 38. Section 84 is added to the Monterey County Water

Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 84. On or after January 1, 1995, the board of supervisors and the directors shall hold one or more joint meetings to study the effectiveness of the governance of the agency by the directors and the supervisors.

SEC. 39. Section 85 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 85. (a) The Pajaro Valley Water Management Agency and the Monterey Peninsula Water Management District shall work with the agency and shall use their best efforts to cooperate with each other.

(b) The agency, the Monterey Peninsula Water Management District, and the Pajaro Valley Water Management Agency shall, on or before February 1, 1992, make a good faith effort to enter into a memorandum of agreement as to the manner in which the agency shall exercise powers in any area of overlapping jurisdiction among the three local water entities.

SEC. 40. Section 86 is added to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), to read:

Sec. 86. This act does not alter the authority of the Monterey Peninsula Water Management District or the Pajaro Valley Management Agency.

SEC. 41. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act.

SEC. 42. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to facilitate the management of water resources in Monterey County at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1131

An act to add Title 5.7 (commencing with Section 4760) to Part 5 of Division 4 of the Civil Code, relating to family law.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Title 5.7 (commencing with Section 4760) is added to Part 5 of Division 4 of the Civil Code, to read:

TITLE 5.7. CHILD SUPPORT PILOT PROJECTS

4760. The Legislature finds and declares that child support is a serious legal obligation, a fundamental, affirmative duty that all parents owe to their children. The current system for obtaining temporary child support orders is at times arbitrary, time consuming, intimidating, expensive, and unnecessarily complex.

The Legislature further finds and declares that there is a compelling state interest in the development of a child support system which is cost-effective and accessible to parents with middle or low incomes. The Legislature further finds and declares that there is a compelling state interest in first implementing such a system on a small scale.

Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this title to provide a means for experimenting with and evaluating procedural innovations with significant potential to improve the California child support system.

4761. The superior courts of the County of Santa Clara and the County of San Mateo may conduct pilot projects pursuant to this title.

4762. The duration of the pilot projects shall be two years.

4763. (a) Within the counties participating in the pilot projects, all motions for temporary child support and other temporary orders specified in subdivision (b) shall be filed, heard, and determined as provided in this title, except that any action may be withdrawn from the provisions of this title by order of the court for good cause, either upon motion by any party or upon the court's own motion. Where the court determines that extreme hardship would accrue to any party from participation in the pilot project and the alternative of complying with an order for advance of the other party's attorney's fees under paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 4766, the court may, in its discretion, order the proceedings to be conducted outside the pilot project and exempt from the requirement of paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 4766.

(b) The pilot projects conducted pursuant to this title shall apply to hearings on motions for temporary child support or any other temporary order issuable in proceedings under this part or Part 7 (commencing with Section 7000) of this code or under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 540) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

4764. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (d) of Section 4766:

(1) Nothing in this title shall be construed to apply to a child for whom services are provided or are required to be provided by a district attorney pursuant to Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(2) The court shall not hear or enter any order under this title in a matter involving such a child.

(b) Any order entered contrary to the provisions of subdivision (a) shall be void and without legal effect.

4765. Motions for temporary orders under this title shall be heard as soon as practicable, consistent with the rules governing other civil actions.

4766. Except as provided by subdivision (b), no attorney or person other than the parties shall participate in proceedings under this title, unless the attorney is a party or has been appointed by the court to represent a child.

(b) (1) All parties to proceedings under this title may agree that each will be represented by an attorney, in which case the hearing will not proceed as a part of the pilot project under this title.

(2) If one party to an action for temporary child support or another temporary order specified in subdivision (b) of Section 4763 chooses to be represented by an attorney, thereby opting out of the pilot project under this title, and the other party does not choose to be represented by an attorney, thereby opting to participate in the pilot project, the court shall require the party desiring representation by an attorney to advance reasonable attorney's fees to the other party so that the other party may also retain counsel. If the attorney's fees are so advanced, then the hearing shall not proceed under the pilot project, but if the attorney's fees are not so advanced, then the hearing shall proceed under the pilot project, with neither party represented by counsel.

(3) The court shall retain jurisdiction to order reimbursement of fees and costs at the end of the proceeding.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit an attorney from advising a party to the proceeding, either before or after the commencement of the proceeding.

(d) For purposes of enabling a custodial parent receiving assistance under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code to participate in a pilot project authorized by this title, the district attorney, upon the request of the custodial parent, may execute a limited waiver of the obligation of representation under Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. These limited waivers shall be signed by both the district attorney and custodial parent and shall only permit the custodial parent to participate in the proceedings under this title. It is not the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to limit the duties of district attorneys with respect to seeking child support payments or to in any way limit or supersede other provisions of this part respecting temporary child support.

4767. (a) Child support advisors shall be available to assist parties in the preparation of all paperwork pursuant to this title, including, but not limited to, motions, responsive pleadings, and income and expense declarations. The court shall provide these advisors at no cost to the parties.

(b) Prior to any hearing pursuant to this chapter, child support advisors shall review the paperwork required by the court and shall advise the judge whether or not the matter is ready to proceed.

(c) Child support advisors may be volunteers and may include law students and other trained individuals familiar with the relevant statutes and forms.

(d) Child support advisors shall have quasi-judicial immunity.

4768. (a) Orders for temporary child support issued pursuant to this title shall comply with the uniform guidelines set forth in Title 5 (commencing with Section 4700) and shall be based on the economic evidence supplied by the parties or otherwise available to the court. These orders shall also include provisions for health insurance coverage pursuant to Section 4726.

(b) The courts shall calculate child support orders based on standardized formulae accessed through existing computer programs.

4769. An informational publication describing the simplified procedures in effect in the counties included in the pilot project shall be prepared and distributed therein by the superior court in those counties.

4770. (a) A motion filed under this title requesting temporary child support or another temporary order shall include all of the following:

(1) A proposed order.

(2) An income and expense declaration of the moving party, in the form adopted by the Judicial Council.

(3) A declaration, under penalty of perjury, that the facts on which the motion is based are true and correct.

(4) The following, as applicable:

(A) In the case of a motion requesting temporary child support, a child support calculation in the form of a computer printout, which the moving party shall obtain upon conferring with the child support advisor.

(B) In the case of a motion requesting temporary order other than for child support, a statement of facts in support of the motion.

(b) The moving party shall obtain a hearing date and shall cause the notice of motion, the proposed order, the child support calculation, and the accompanying documents to be served on the party from whom support is requested.

(c) The responding party shall have 15 days from the date of service of the notice within which to confer with the child support advisor and file an objection. The objection and request shall be accompanied by an income and expense declaration in the form adopted by the Judicial Council. If the responding party files an objection and request for a hearing, he or she shall be responsible for requesting a hearing date and giving notice thereof to the moving party. The original proof of service of the notice of the objection and request shall be filed at the same time as the filing of the objection and the request for a hearing.

(d) Notice pursuant to this section shall be by personal service.

(e) Where it appears from a party's application for an order under this title or otherwise in the proceedings that the custody of, or visitation with, a minor child is contested, the court shall set those issues for mediation pursuant to Section 4607. The pendency of the mediation proceedings shall not delay a hearing on any other matter for which a temporary order is requested, including child support, and a separate hearing, if required, shall be scheduled respecting the custody and visitation issues following mediation in accordance with Section 4607. However, the court may grant a continuance for good cause shown.

4771. (a) In a contested proceeding for temporary child support under this title, both the moving party and the responding party shall provide all of the following documents to the court at the time of the hearing:

(1) Copies of federal and state income tax returns for the preceding year.

(2) Paycheck stubs for all paychecks received in the four months immediately prior to the hearing.

(b) A party who fails to submit documents to the court as required by this section may not be granted the relief that he or she has requested.

(c) A tax return submitted pursuant to this section may be reviewed by the other party. A party may be examined by the other party as to the contents of such a tax return.

4772. The Senate Office of Research shall conduct a study of the effectiveness of the pilot projects in making the California child support system more equitable, responsive, cost-effective, and accessible, particularly to those with middle and low incomes, and shall make a report of its findings to the Legislature on or before July 1, 1994.

SEC. 2. (a) It is estimated for each county participating in the pilot program authorized by this act, that 4,000 litigants will be served annually, and that the following savings will occur:

(1) With an estimated 20 percent reduction over the current system, the county will save 178 hours per year of court time, or roughly 22 workdays per year.

(2) With an estimated cost savings in incomes of judges, court reporters, clerks, bailiffs, and sheriffs, the project is expected to save approximately twenty thousand one hundred fourteen dollars ($20,114) per year. Cases involving child support obligations which the district attorney's office was required to handle in one participating county, for the year 1989–90, number 2,461. The average time spent on a typical child support order is approximately five hours. There is a potential 12,500 man-hours a year that could be saved, resulting in a savings of three hundred sixty-seven thousand eight hundred seventy-five dollars ($367,875) a year in attorney salaries alone. This does not take into consideration costs for documents, filing, and other district attorney personnel.

(3) The average savings personally to litigants who otherwise would require private representation, would be from fifty dollars ($50) to two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per hour of court time and per hour of preparation work.

(b) The satisfaction of participating parties will be determined by requiring that litigants entering the pilot project fill out a simple exit poll. The response of at least 70 percent of those questionnaires will be analyzed to decide whether the program has been deemed satisfactory by the participants.

(c) The estimated costs of the program will be as follows:

(1) No cost for computers, printers, and other equipment because they have been donated.

(2) No cost for training of child support advisors because the training has been donated.

(3) Training manuals for child support advisors and costs of exit polling. The manuals will be simple, brief, and inexpensive. The amount of material which the child support advisors will be required to learn via these manuals has been purposely minimized and simplified, allowing for participation of people with a broad variety of backgrounds. Publicity for generating interest in the volunteer programs will be achieved through local newspaper articles and newsletters. The exact cost projections are incalculable at this time, but will likely be less than five hundred dollars ($500) per pilot project.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the Legislature finds and declares that there are savings as well as costs in this act which, in the aggregate, do not result in additional net costs. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1132

An act to amend Section 52501.5 of, and to add Section 52616.1 to, the Education Code, relating to adult education.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Legislature declares its intent to ensure that surplus adult education average daily attendance apportionments set forth in subdivision (d) of Section 52616 shall be expended only for adult education purposes.

(b) Surplus adult education average daily attendance apportionments are subject to a reallocation process that may delay for up to a full calendar year the use of those funds for adult education purposes.

(c) These delays have at times caused school districts to apply the reallocated funds for purposes other than adult education despite clear direction from the State Department of Education accompanying those reallocations of those surplus funds.

SEC. 2. Section 52501.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

52501.5. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), no revenue derived from the average daily attendance of adult education programs shall be expended for other than adult education purposes, nor shall revenue derived from other average daily attendance be expended for adult education purposes.

(b) When a district's adult revenue limit as allowed by Section 52616 is composed of average daily attendance from both a regional occupational center or program and an adult education program, the adult revenue limit income may be allocated to each program in a proportion other than the amount of adult revenue limit per average daily attendance otherwise allocable thereto.

SEC. 3. Section 52616.1 is added to the Education Code, to read:

52616.1. (a) Each school district that receives funds reallocated pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 52616 shall apply those funds exclusively to its adult education program.

(b) The Superintendent of Public Instruction annually, and in a timely manner, shall notify each school district that receives funds reallocated pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 52616 and each director of the adult education programs for that school district that those reallocated funds are to be used exclusively for adult education as specified in subdivision (d) of Section 52616.

CHAPTER 1133

An act to amend Sections 19549.2 and 19571 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19549.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19549.2. From the weeks available for harness and quarter horse racing pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 19531, the board may allocate a maximum of 12 weeks of harness racing to the 22nd District Agricultural Association to be conducted on the 22nd District Agricultural Association grounds. The racing shall be conducted by a person other than the 22nd District Agricultural Association.

SEC. 2. Section 19571 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19571. No horserace authorized by the board, except the last scheduled race of any racing day, may be commenced after 12:30 a.m on the next calendar day.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that this act may be implemented during the 1991 racing season, to maximize racing opportunities and license fee revenues for the state of California, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1134

An act to amend Sections 1265.5, 2627.5, 2656, and 2675 of, to amend, repeal, and add Section 2627.7 of, to add Section 2706.2 to, and to repeal and add Section 2708 of, the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to unemployment insurance, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991 Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1265.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1265.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of this division, payments to an individual for vacation pay which was earned but not paid for services performed prior to termination of employment shall not be construed to be wages or compensation for personal services under this division and benefits payable under this division shall not be denied or reduced because of the receipt of these payments.

SEC. 2. Section 2627.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

2627.5. (a) If an individual, pursuant to orders of his or her physician, is confined in a hospital for at least one day, any unexpired full days of the waiting period required by subdivision (b) of Section 2627 shall be waived. This subdivision shall apply to an individual's confinement in a nursing home as defined by subparagraph (B) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (b), but only if immediately prior to that confinement he or she was confined in a hospital (other than a nursing home) for not less than 15 consecutive days pursuant to the orders of his or her physician or confined to the nursing home by order of a physician, where the nursing home is used where an individual's disability requires immediate hospitalization and a bed is unavailable in a hospital (other than a nursing home). The department may use any means it deems reasonable to obtain or verify the information required by this paragraph.

(b) As used in this section:

(1) "Confined" means a registered bed patient.

(2) "Day" means any 24-hour period of time during which the claimant is in a hospital, or any 24-hour period or any part thereof for which a hospital charges a patient a full day's rate.

(3) "Full day's rate" means the regular and customary daily charge for board and room by the hospital.

(4) "Hospital" means:

(A) Within the State of California, any institution which is any of the following:

(i) Licensed by the State Department of Health Services as a general acute care hospital, chemical dependency recovery hospital or specialized hospital.

(ii) Operated as a hospital but exempt from licensing by the State Department of Health Services under subdivision (a) of Section 1270 of the Health and Safety Code.

(iii) Operated as a mental hospital licensed by the State Department of Health Services which is primarily intended for, staffed and equipped to provide for the reception, care, diagnosis and treatment of acute mental and nervous diseases.

(B) Within the states of the United States, any institution operated as a "nursing home" which is any of the following:

(i) An extended care facility as defined in subsection (j) of Section 1395x of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(ii) Conducted by and for the adherents of any well-recognized church or religious denomination for the purpose of providing facilities for the care or treatment of the sick who depend upon prayer or spiritual means for healing in the practice of the religion of the church or denomination.

(C) Outside the State of California, any institution in other states or foreign countries, or in the territories or possessions of any country which is any of the following:

(i) Licensed as a hospital pursuant to the statutes or laws of that state or foreign country, or a territory or possession of a country.

(ii) Operated pursuant to law with organized facilities for diagnosis and surgery, and 24-hour nursing service for the care and treatment of sick and injured persons, if the state or foreign country, or the territory or possession of the country does not have statutes or laws concerning the requirements for licensing hospitals.

(D) Any institution which is operated as a hospital by the United States government or a duly authorized agency thereof.

(5) "Orders of his or her physician" means court order or physician's or health officer's certificate or order of a physician as defined in Section 3209.3 of the Labor Code or order of a practitioner duly authorized by any bona fide church, sect, denomination or organization whose principles or teachings call for dependence for healing entirely upon prayer or spiritual means or order of a duly authorized medical officer of any facility of the United States government or order of any member of any one of the professions enumerated in Section 3209.3 of the Labor Code duly licensed by and practicing within the scope of the license in any state outside this state or in any foreign country, or in a territory or possession of any country.

(c) The amendments made to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall apply to periods of disability commencing on or after January 1, 1992.

SEC. 3. Section 2627.7 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

2627.7. (a) If an individual, pursuant to orders of his or her physician, receives treatment in a hospital surgical unit or a surgical clinic which requires a stay of less than 24 hours, any unexpired full days of the waiting period required by subdivision (b) of Section 2627 shall be waived, provided the individual is disabled for a period of eight days or more during the disability benefit period as a result of the treatment. The department may use any means it deems reasonable to obtain or verify the information required by this paragraph.

(b) As used in this section:

(1) "Hospital" means:

(A) Within the State of California, any institution which is licensed as a general hospital by the State Department of Health Services under Section 1253 of the Health and Safety Code.

(B) Outside the State of California, any institution in another state or foreign country, or in a territory or possession of any country, which is either:

(i) Licensed as a hospital pursuant to the statutes or laws of that state, foreign country, or territory or possession of any country.

(ii) Operated pursuant to law with organized facilities for the care and treatment of sick and injured persons, if that state, foreign country, or territory or possession of any country does not have statutes or laws concerning requirements for licensing hospitals.

(C) Any institution operated as a hospital by the United States government or a duly authorized agency thereof.

(2) "Surgical clinic" means a clinic which is not a part of and not operating under the license of a hospital, which is licensed by the State Department of Health Services under Section 1205 of the Health and Safety Code or is exempt from licensing under subdivision (b), (c), (d), or (f) of Section 1206 of that code, and which provides treatment for patients who remain less than 24 hours. A surgical clinic does not include the offices of private physicians as defined in Section 3209.3 of the Labor Code in individual or group practice.

(3) "Surgical unit" means a unit located in or operating under the license of a hospital and providing treatment for patients who remain less than 24 hours.

(4) "Orders of his or her physician" means a court order or physician's or health officer's certificate or order of a physician as defined in Section 3209.3 of the Labor Code or order of a duly authorized medical officer of any facility of the United States government or order of any member of any one of the professions enumerated in Section 3209.3 of the Labor Code duly licensed by and practicing within the scope of such license in any state outside this state or in any foreign country, or in a territory or possession of any country.

(c) The amendments made to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall apply to periods of disability commencing on or after January 1, 1992.

SEC. 3.5. Section 2627.7 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

2627.7. (a) If an individual, pursuant to orders of his or her physician, receives treatment in a hospital surgical unit or a surgical clinic which requires a stay of less than 24 hours, or receives treatment in an institution that operates under the auspices of a postsurgical recovery care pilot designation pursuant to Section 1250.9 of the Health and Safety Code, any unexpired full days of the waiting period required by subdivision (b) of Section 2627 shall be waived, provided the individual is disabled for a period of eight days or more during the disability benefit period as a result of the treatment. The department may use any means it deems reasonable to obtain or verify the information required by this section.

(b) As used in this section:

(1) "Hospital" means:

(A) Within the State of California, any institution which is licensed as a general hospital by the State Department of Health Services under Section 1253 of the Health and Safety Code or licensed by the State Department of Health Services as a general acute care hospital, as defined in Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code.

(B) Outside the State of California, any institution in another state or foreign country, or in a territory or possession of any country, which is either:

(i) Licensed as a hospital pursuant to the statutes or laws of that state, foreign country, or territory or possession of any country.

(ii) Operated pursuant to law with organized facilities for the care and treatment of sick and injured persons, if that state, foreign country, or territory or possession of any country does not have statutes or laws concerning requirements for licensing hospitals.

(C) Any institution operated as a hospital by the United States government or a duly authorized agency thereof.

(2) "Surgical clinic" means a clinic which provides treatment for patients who remain less than 24 hours, is not a part of and does not operate under the license of a hospital, and is any of the following:

(A) Licensed by the State Department of Health Services under paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 1204 of the Health and Safety Code, or under Section 1205 of the Health and Safety Code.

(B) Exempt from licensing under subdivision (b), (c), (d), (f), or (i) of Section 1206 of the Health and Safety Code.

(C) Certified to participate in the federal Medicare program as an "ambulatory surgical center" as defined in Section 416.2 of Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

For purposes of this section, a surgical clinic does not include the offices of private physicians as defined in Section 3209.3 of the Labor Code in individual or group practice.

(3) "Surgical unit" means a unit located in or operating under the license of a hospital and providing treatment for patients who remain less than 24 hours.

(4) "Orders of his or her physician" means a court order or physician's or health officer's certificate or order of a physician as defined in Section 3209.3 of the Labor Code or order of a duly authorized medical officer of any facility of the United States government or order of any member of any one of the professions enumerated in Section 3209.3 of the Labor Code duly licensed by and practicing within the scope of such license in any state outside this state or in any foreign country, or in a territory or possession of any country.

(c) The amendments made to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall apply to periods of disability commencing on or after January 1, 1992.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 3.7. Section 2627.7 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

2627.7. (a) If an individual, pursuant to orders of his or her physician, receives treatment in a hospital surgical unit or a surgical clinic which requires a stay of less than 24 hours, any unexpired full days of the waiting period required by subdivision (b) of Section 2627 shall be waived, provided the individual is disabled for a period of eight days or more during the disability benefit period as a result of the treatment. The department may use any means it deems reasonable to obtain or verify the information required by this section.

(b) As used in this section:

(1) "Hospital" means:

(A) Within the State of California, any institution which is licensed as a general hospital by the State Department of Health Services under Section 1253 of the Health and Safety Code or licensed by the State Department of Health Services as a general acute care hospital, as defined in Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code.

(B) Outside the State of California, any institution in another state or foreign country, or in a territory or possession of any country, which is either:

(i) Licensed as a hospital pursuant to the statutes or laws of that state, foreign country, or territory or possession of any country.

(ii) Operated pursuant to law with organized facilities for the care and treatment of sick and injured persons, if that state, foreign country, or territory or possession of any country does not have statutes or laws concerning requirements for licensing hospitals.

(C) Any institution operated as a hospital by the United States government or a duly authorized agency thereof.

(2) "Surgical clinic" means a clinic which provides treatment for patients who remain less than 24 hours, is not a part of and does not operate under the license of a hospital, and is any of the following:

(A) Licensed by the State Department of Health Services under paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 1204 of the Health and Safety Code, or under Section 1205 of the Health and Safety Code.

(B) Exempt from licensing under subdivision (b), (c), (d), (f), or (i) of Section 1206 of the Health and Safety Code.

(C) Certified to participate in the federal Medicare program as an "ambulatory surgical center" as defined in Section 416.2 of Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

For purposes of this section, a surgical clinic does not include the offices of private physicians as defined in Section 3209.3 of the Labor Code in individual or group practice.

(3) "Surgical unit" means a unit located in or operating under the license of a hospital and providing treatment for patients who remain less than 24 hours.

(4) "Orders of his or her physician" means a court order or physician's or health officer's certificate or order of a physician as defined in Section 3209.3 of the Labor Code or order of a duly authorized medical officer of any facility of the United States government or order of any member of any one of the professions enumerated in Section 3209.3 of the Labor Code duly licensed by and practicing within the scope of such license in any state outside this state or in any foreign country, or in a territory or possession of any country.

(c) This section shall apply to periods of disability commencing on or after January 1, 1995.

(d) This section shall become operative January 1, 1995.

SEC. 4. Section 2656 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

2656. (a) An individual eligible to receive disability benefits who receives wages or regular wages from his or her employer during the period of his or her disability shall be paid disability benefits for any seven-day week or partial week in an amount not to exceed his or her maximum weekly amount which together with the wages or regular wages does not exceed his or her weekly wage, exclusive of wages paid for overtime work, immediately prior to the commencement of his or her disability.

(b) For purposes of this section, to determine the wages or regular wages received by the eligible individual, the amount as stated by the individual shall be presumed to be accurate. This presumption is one affecting the burden of producing evidence.

(c) For purposes of periods of disability commencing on or after January 1, 1992, vacation pay is not considered wages for determining eligibility for disability benefits.

SEC. 5. Section 2675 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

2675. (a) An individual shall be disqualified from receiving benefits under this part if he or she has willfully, for the purpose of obtaining benefits, either made a false statement or representation, with actual knowledge of the falsity thereof, or withheld a material fact in order to obtain any benefits under this part.

(b) An individual disqualified under subdivision (a) under a determination transmitted to him or her by the department, shall be ineligible to receive benefits from the date the disqualifying determination was issued and for not less than seven nor more than 35 subsequent days for which he or she is otherwise eligible for benefits under this part. When successive disqualifications under subdivision (a) occur, the director may extend the period of ineligibility for an additional period not to exceed 56 days.

(c) If all or any of the assessed days of ineligibility cannot be served because the individual is no longer otherwise eligible for benefits under this part, the assessed days of ineligibility shall be applied to any subsequent disability benefit period for which he or she is otherwise eligible for benefits. No disqualification under this subdivision shall be applied, however, to any day of eligibility which falls beyond the three-year period next succeeding the date upon which the determination was mailed or served by the department.

(d) The amendments made to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall apply to disqualifying determinations issued on or after January 1, 1992.

SEC. 6. Section 2706.2 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

2706.2. Any continued medical certification shall be submitted to the department within 20 days of the date the claimant is issued a notice of final payment or departmental request for additional medical certification. The 20-day time limit shall be extended by the department upon a showing of good cause.

SEC. 7. Section 2708 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 2708 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

2708. (a) In accordance with the director's authorized regulations, and except as provided in Sections 2708.1 and 2709, a claimant shall establish medical eligibility for each uninterrupted period of disability by filing a first claim for disability benefits supported by the certificate of a treating physician or practitioner and for subsequent periods of uninterrupted disability after the period covered by the initial certificate or any preceding continued claim, by filing a continued claim for those benefits supported by the certificate of a treating physician or practitioner. The certificate shall contain a statement of medical facts within the physician's or practitioner's knowledge, his or her conclusion as to the claimant's disability, and his or her opinion as to its duration.

(b) The first and any continuing claim of an individual who obtains care and treatment outside this state, shall be supported by a certificate of a treating physician or practitioner duly licensed or certified by the state or foreign country in which the claimant is receiving the care and treatment.

(c) For purposes of this part, the term "physician" has the same meaning as it does in Section 3209.3 of the Labor Code. For purposes of this part, "practitioner" means a person duly licensed or certified in California acting within the scope of his or her license or certification who is a dentist, podiatrist, or as to normal pregnancy or childbirth, a nurse-midwife or nurse-practitioner.

(d) For a claimant who is hospitalized in or under the authority of a county hospital in this state, a certificate of initial and continuing medical disability, if any, shall satisfy the requirements of this section if the disability is shown by the claimant's hospital chart, and the certificate is signed by the hospital's registrar. For a claimant hospitalized in or under the care of a medical facility of the United States government, a certificate of initial and continuing medical disability, if any, shall satisfy the requirements of this section if the disability is shown by the claimant's hospital chart, and the certificate is signed by a medical officer of the facility duly authorized to do so.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude the department from requesting additional medical evidence to supplement the first or any continued claim if the additional evidence can be procured without additional cost to the claimant. The department may require that the additional evidence include a statement as to the facts of the claimant's disability by the physician or practitioner treating the claimant, by the registrar, authorized medical officer, or other duly authorized official of the hospital or health facility treating the claimant, or by an examining physician or other representative of the department.

SEC. 9. Section 3.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 2627.7 of the Unemployment Insurance Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1208. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1992, (2) each bill amends Section 2627.7 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1208, in which case Section 3 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 10. Section 3.7 of this bill incorporates changes to Section 2627.7 of the Unemployment Insurance Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1208. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1992, (2) each bill makes changes to Section 2627.7 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1208, in which case Section 3 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1135

An act to amend Sections 46000, 46002, 46003, 46003.5, 46004, 46009, and 46011 of, and to add Sections 46012 and 46013 to, the Food and Agricultural Code, and to amend Sections 26569.21, 26569.23, 26569.28, and 26569.30 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to food, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 46000 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

46000. (a) The director and county agricultural commissioners under the supervision and direction of the director shall enforce the provisions of Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 26569.20) of Chapter 5 of Division 21 of the Health and Safety Code applicable to producers of food sold as organic, handlers of raw agricultural commodities sold as organic, and eggs sold as organic, handlers and processors of meat, fowl, and dairy products sold as organic, and retailers of food sold as organic.

(b) The director shall also enforce the provisions of Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 26569.20) of Chapter 5 of Division 21 of the Health and Safety Code applicable to certification organizations which certify food sold as organic under the enforcement jurisdiction of the director pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) The director may adopt any regulations reasonably necessary to implement his or her enforcement responsibilities as specified in Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 26569.20) of Chapter 5 of Division 21 of the Health and Safety Code and this chapter.

SEC. 2. Section 46002 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

46002. (a) Commencing on the effective date of the act which amended this section during the 1991 portion of the 1991–92 Regular Session of the Legislature, every person engaged in this state in the production or handling of raw agricultural commodities or eggs sold as organic, or in the production, handling, or processing of meat, fowl, or dairy products sold as organic, excluding retailers of food sold as organic, shall register with the agricultural commissioner in the county of principal operation prior to the first sale of the food, and shall thereafter annually renew the registration unless no longer engaged in the activities requiring the registration. Each registrant shall provide a complete copy of its registration to the agricultural commissioner in any county in which the registrant operates.

(b) Registration pursuant to this section shall be on a form provided by the department and shall be valid for a period of one calendar year from the date of validation by the department or county agricultural commissioner of the completed registration form. The director shall make the forms available for this purpose commencing on the effective date of the act which amended this section during the 1991 portion of the 1991–92 Regular Session of the Legislature.

(c) The information provided on the registration form shall include all of the following:

(1) The nature of the registrant's business, including the specific commodities produced, handled, or processed which are sold as organic.

(2) For producers, a map showing the precise location and dimensions of the facility or farm where the commodities are produced. The map shall also describe the boundaries of the production area and all adjacent land uses, shall assign field numbers to distinct fields or management units, and shall describe the size of each field or management unit.

(3) Sufficient information, under penalty of perjury, to enable the director or county agricultural commissioner to verify the amount of the registration fee to be paid in accordance with subdivision (e).

(4) The names of all certification organizations or governmental entities, if any, providing certification pursuant to Sections 26569.30 to 26569.34, inclusive, of the Health and Safety Code.

(5) In the case of producers, for each field or management unit, a list of all substances applied to the crop, soil, growing medium, growing area, irrigation or postharvest wash or rinse water, or seed, including the source of the substance, the brand name, if any, the rate of application, and the total amount applied in each calendar year, for at least the applicable time periods specified in subdivision (a) of Section 26569.22 of the Health and Safety Code.

(d) The registration form shall include a separate "public information sheet" which shall include:

(1) The name and address of the registrant.

(2) The nature of the registrant's business, including the specific commodities produced, handled, or processed which are sold as organic.

(3) The names of all certification organizations or governmental entities, if any, providing certification pursuant to Sections 26569.30 to 26569.34, inclusive, of the Health and Safety Code.

(e) A registration form shall be accompanied by payment of a nonrefundable registration fee by producers, handlers, and processors, which shall be based on gross sales by the registrant of food sold as organic in the calendar year which precedes the date of registration, or if no sales were made in the preceding year, then based on the expected sales during the 12 calendar months following the date of registration, according to the following schedule:

Gross Sales	Registration Fee
$ 0 – 10,000	$ 25
$ 10,001 – 25,000	$ 75
$ 25,001 – 50,000	$ 100
$ 50,001 – 100,000	$ 175
$ 100,001 – 250,000	$ 300
$ 250,001 – 500,000	$ 450
$ 500,001 – 1,000,000	$ 750
$1,000,001 – 2,500,000	$1,000
$2,500,001 – 5,000,000	$1,500
$5,000,001 and above	$2,000

Notwithstanding the amounts specified in the above schedule, any person required to register pursuant to this section and who does so on or before June 30, 1992, shall pay an initial registration fee equal to one and one-half times the amount specified in the above schedule. Thereafter, the initial registration fee and the annual fee shall be as specified in the above schedule.

(f) To the extent feasible, the director shall coordinate the registration and fee collection procedures of this section with similar licensing or registration procedures applicable to registrants.

(g) The director or county agricultural commissioner shall reject a registration submission which is incomplete or not in compliance with this chapter and Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 26569.20) of Chapter 5 of Division 21 of the Health and Safety Code.

(h) A registrant shall immediately notify the director of any change in the information reported on the registration form and shall pay any additional fee owed if that change results in a higher fee owed than that previously paid.

(i) At the request of any person, the "public information sheet" described in subdivision (d) for any registrant shall be made available for inspection and copying at the main office of the department and each county agricultural commissioner. Copies of the "public information sheet" shall also be made available by mail, upon written request. The director or commissioner may charge a reasonable fee for the cost of reproducing a "public information sheet." Except as provided in this subdivision, a registration form is exempt from Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(j) The requirements of this section shall not apply to retailers of food sold as organic.

SEC. 3. Section 46003 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

46003. (a) The director shall establish an advisory board, which shall be known as the Organic Food Advisory Board, for the purpose of advising the director with respect to his or her responsibilities under this chapter and Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 26569.20) of Chapter 5 of Division 21 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) The advisory board shall be comprised of 13 members. Six members shall be producers, at least one of whom shall be a producer of meat, fowl, fish, dairy products, or eggs. One member shall be a processor, one member shall be a handler or a retailer, two members shall be consumer representatives, one member shall be an environmental representative, and two members shall be technical representatives with scientific credentials related to agricultural chemicals, toxicology, or food science. Except for the consumer, environmental, and technical representatives, the members of the advisory board shall have derived a substantial portion of their business income, wages, or salary from the production, handling, processing, or retailing of food sold as organic for at least three years preceding their appointment to the advisory board. The consumer and environmental representatives shall not have a financial interest in the organic food industry and shall be representatives of recognized nonprofit organizations whose principal purpose is the protection of consumer health or protection of the environment. The technical representatives shall not have a financial interest in the organic food industry.

(c) The members of the advisory board described in subdivision (b) shall be reimbursed for the reasonable expenses actually incurred in the performance of their duties, as determined by the advisory board and approved by the director.

(d) The State Director of Health Services, or his or her representative, and a county agricultural commissioner shall be appointed as ex officio members of the advisory board.

SEC. 4. Section 46003.5 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

46003.5. (a) On or before January 1, 1993, the director, in consultation with the Organic Food Advisory Board, shall adopt regulations listing specific substances which are in compliance or not in compliance with the definition of "prohibited materials," as defined in subdivision (p) of Section 26569.21 of the Health and Safety Code, for use in the production and handling of organic foods.

These regulations shall conform to any federal law or regulation governing materials allowed or disallowed for use on or in any food sold as organic to the greatest extent possible.

(b) Prior to adoption of these regulations, the director shall, by July 1, 1991, issue administratively a preliminary, nonexhaustive list of materials which are in compliance or not in compliance with subdivision (p) of Section 26569.21 of the Health and Safety Code based on the listings of permitted materials published by California Certified Organic Farmers, the Organic Foods Production Association of North America, and the Departments of Agriculture of the States of Oregon and Washington.

SEC. 5. Section 46004 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

46004. (a) Any person may file a complaint with the director concerning suspected noncompliance with this chapter or Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 26569.20) of Chapter 5 of Division 21 of the Health and Safety Code by a person under the enforcement jurisdiction of the director, as provided in Section 46000.

(b) The director shall, to the extent funds are available, establish procedures for handling complaints, including provision of a written complaint form, and procedures for commencing an investigation within three working days after receiving a complaint regarding fresh food, and within seven working days for other food, and completing an investigation and reporting findings and enforcement action taken, if any, to the complainant within 60 days thereafter.

(c) The director may establish minimum information requirements to determine the verifiability of a complaint, and may provide for rejection of a complaint which does not meet the requirements. The director shall provide written notice of the reasons for rejection to the person filing the complaint.

(d) The director shall carry out the functions and objectives of this chapter and Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 26569.20) of Chapter 5 of Division 21 of the Health and Safety Code, to the extent funds are available for those purposes.

SEC. 6. Section 46009 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

46009. (a) Effective January 1, 1992, a nongovernmental certification organization which certifies raw agricultural commodities, eggs, meat, fowl, or dairy products sold as organic shall register with the director and shall thereafter annually renew the registration, unless the organization is no longer engaged in the activities requiring the registration. Registration shall be on a form provided by the director, shall include the filing of a certification plan as specified in Section 26569.33 of the Health and Safety Code, and payment of the fee specified in subdivision (b). The registration form shall contain the names of all persons involved in making certification decisions or setting certification standards for the certification organization. The director shall reject a registration submission that is incomplete or not in compliance with this chapter and Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 26569.20) of Chapter 5 of Division 21 of the Health and Safety Code. The director shall make forms available for this purpose on or before December 31, 1991.

(b) The director shall, to the extent funds are available, supervise all certification organizations registered with the director, establish a complaint procedure concerning noncompliance with this chapter or Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 26569.20) of Chapter 5 of Division 21 of the Health and Safety Code by certification organizations registered with the department, and establish and collect an annual registration fee of two thousand dollars ($2,000) per organization. Supervision shall include a written evaluation of the organization's certification plan at least biannually, which shall be made available for public inspection. The director may audit the organization's certification procedures and records at any time, but any records of the certification organization not otherwise required to be disclosed shall be kept confidential by the director.

(c) Commencing October 31, 1991, the director and the county agricultural commissioners under the supervision of the director shall, if requested by a sufficient number of persons to cover the costs of the program in a county as determined by the director, establish a voluntary certification program for producers of organic food and processors of organic meat, fowl, and dairy products under the enforcement jurisdiction of the director. This program shall meet all of the requirements of Sections 26569.31 to 26569.34, inclusive, of the Health and Safety Code. The director shall establish a fee schedule for participants in this program which covers all of the department's reasonable costs of the program. A county agricultural commissioner that conducts a voluntary certification program pursuant to this section shall establish a fee schedule for participants in this program which covers all of the agricultural commissioner's reasonable costs of the program. The director may not expend funds obtained from registration fees collected under this chapter for the purposes of adopting or administering this program.

The certification fee authorized by this subdivision is due and payable on or before the 10th day of the month following the month in which the decision to grant the certification is issued. Any person who does not pay the amount that is due within the required period shall pay the enforcement authority providing the certificate a penalty of 10 percent of the total amount determined to be due plus interest at the rate of 1½ percent interest per month on the unpaid balance.

(d) This chapter applies to all food sold as organic within the state, wherever produced, handled, or processed, and to all food produced, handled, or processed in the state, wherever sold as organic, except that in lieu of registration under this chapter, the director may recognize a certification organization operating outside of the state which certifies raw agricultural commodities, eggs, meat, fowl, or dairy products if the director determines that the organization meets minimum standards substantially similar to those contained in subdivision (c) of Section 26569.30, and Sections 26569.32 to 26569.34, inclusive, of the Health and Safety Code. On or before January 1, 1992, the director shall establish, administratively, a procedure for organizations to apply and obtain recognition.

SEC. 7. Section 46011 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

46011. (a) Except as provided by subdivision (c) of Section 46009, any fees and penalties collected by the director or any county agricultural commissioner pursuant to this chapter shall be deposited in the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund and, upon appropriation by the Legislature, shall be expended to fulfill the responsibilities of the director and county agricultural commissioner acting under the direction and supervision of the director as specified in this chapter. Any fees and penalties collected by a county agricultural commissioner pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 46009 shall be expended to fulfill the responsibilities of the county agricultural commissioner, as specified in this chapter.

(b) Any fees and penalties deposited in the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund pursuant to this section shall be used to cover the costs of carrying out the responsibilities specified in this chapter, including, but not limited to, providing reimbursement to counties for the reasonable costs incurred by the counties in the enforcement of this chapter.

SEC. 8. Section 46012 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

46012. Article 14 (commencing with Section 43031) of Chapter 2 applies to any food product which is represented as organically produced by any person who is not registered as required by this chapter or any product which is not in compliance with this chapter or Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 26569.20) of Chapter 5 of Division 21 of the Health and Safety Code. The director, agricultural commissioners, and the State Director of Health Services shall be considered enforcing officers for purposes of those provisions of law under their respective jurisdiction.

SEC. 9. Section 46013 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

46013. Any producer, handler, processor, or registered certification organization subject to this chapter that does not pay the fee within 10 days of the date on which the fee is due and payable shall pay a penalty of 10 percent of the total amount determined to be due plus interest at the rate of 1½ percent per month on the unpaid balance.

SEC. 10. Section 26569.21 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

26569.21. The following words and phrases, when used in this article, shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Administered" means ingested, injected, or otherwise topically or internally introduced to livestock, fowl, or fish.

(b) "Applied" means introduced, incorporated within, added to, or placed upon any seed, crop, plant, livestock, fowl, fish, soil, or growing medium, and shall also mean used in, on, or around any facility or area in which food is kept.

(c) "Area" means the physical space surrounding food where there is more than a negligible chance of a prohibited material being absorbed by, incorporated into, or adhered to the food, soil, or growing medium. The area may differ significantly depending on the circumstances. Except in the case of the production of food, area shall not include any physical space surrounding food if an intervening event, such as the use of a cleaning method for processing equipment, or the passage of time, has made the chance of a prohibited material being absorbed by, incorporated into, or adhered to the food, negligible.

(d) "Botanicals" means substances derived solely from plants or plant parts.

(e) "Endemic disease" means a disease in animal or fish which is either universal or common to a species within the geographic region.

(f) "Enforcement authority" means the governmental unit with primary enforcement jurisdiction, as provided in Section 26569.44.

(g) "Field" means a contiguous area of land for agricultural production which is managed with a consistent set of production methods.

(h) "Feed" means any substance used or intended for consumption by livestock, fowl, or fish to provide nourishment, including range and pasturage vegetation.

(i) "Growing medium" means a substance that provides nutrients for plants or fungi but which is separate from the land surface of the world.

(j) "Handled" means shipped, packed, repacked, sold for resale, warehoused, wholesaled, imported into the state, or stored by other than a grower, producer, processor, or retailer of that food.

(k) "Management unit" means the physical facilities and equipment associated with crop production which is not confined to a field, such as animal production, greenhouse production, or seed sprouting. Management units shall be described by the location and function of the physical facilities and equipment, and other aspects as determined by the enforcement authority. In the case of animal production, the management units shall also be described by the quantity and source of each group of animals that is managed together as a unit.

(l) "Processed" means cooking, baking, heating, drying, mixing, grinding, crushing, pressing, churning, separating, extracting juices or other materials, peeling, fermenting, eviscerating, preserving, dehydrating, freezing, or manufacturing which materially alters the flavor, keeping quality, or any other property, or the making of any substantial change of form. "Processed" does not include refrigeration at temperatures which are above the freezing point nor any other treatment which merely retards or accelerates the natural processes of ripening or decomposition.

(m) "Produced" means grown, raised, harvested, handled, or stored under the control of the grower or producer.

(n) "Producer," "handler," and "processor" means any person who has, respectively, produced, handled, or processed any food.

(o) "Production," "handling," and "processing" means the process by which any food is, respectively, produced, handled, and processed.

(p) "Prohibited materials" means any of the following:

(1) When used in connection with the production, handling, or processing of meat, fowl, or fish:

(A) Any drug, medication, hormone or growth regulator, whether or not synthetic, or any other synthetic substance, including, but not limited to, any substance administered to stimulate or regulate growth or tenderness, and any subtherapeutic dose of antibiotic. The use of a drug or medication for medical treatment of a specific and manifest malady diagnosed and prescribed by a licensed veterinarian, or under the general supervision of a licensed veterinarian, shall be permitted, but not within 90 days prior to slaughter or twice the withdrawal time specified by the federal Food and Drug Administration, whichever is longer. In addition, vaccines may be administered for prevention of an endemic disease or as required by law. Vitamin and mineral supplements also may be administered.

(B) Any feed administered to livestock, fowl, or fish that does not comply with the requirements of regulations adopted pursuant to Section 14904 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(C) Any artificial rumen stimulants, such as plastic pellets.

(D) Any manure intentionally fed or refed.

(E) Any synthetically compounded substance applied postslaughter to the meat, fowl, or fish itself, or to its packaging, including preservatives.

(F) Any substance applied to any area where livestock, fowl, or fish or meat, fowl, or fish products are handled or kept at any time that does not consist entirely of microorganisms, microbiological products, or substances consisting of, or derived or extracted solely from, plant, animal, or mineral-bearing rock substances. Prohibited materials shall not include the application of botanicals, lime-sulfur, gypsum, soaps, and detergents. Prohibited materials shall include the application of petroleum solvents, diesel, and other petroleum fractions.

(2) When used in connection with the production, distribution, or processing of dairy products or eggs:

(A) Any drug, medication, hormone, or growth regulator, whether or not synthetic, and any other synthetic substance, including, but not limited to, any substance administered to stimulate or regulate growth, milk or egg production, and any subtherapeutic dose of antibiotic. The use of a drug or medication for medical treatment of a specific and manifest malady diagnosed and prescribed by a licensed veterinarian, or under the general supervision of a licensed veterinarian, shall be permitted, but not less than 30 days prior to taking of the milk or laying of eggs, or twice the withdrawal time specified by the federal Food and Drug Administration, whichever is longer. In addition, vaccines may be administered for prevention of an endemic disease or as required by law. Vitamin and mineral supplements may also be administered.

(B) Any feed administered to livestock within one year of the taking of the milk, or to fowl within six months of the laying of eggs, that does not comply with the requirements of regulations adopted pursuant to Section 14904 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(C) Any artificial rumen stimulants, such as plastic pellets.

(D) Any manure intentionally fed or refed.

(E) Any substance applied to any area where livestock, fowl, or fish, or meat, dairy, fowl, or fish products are handled or kept at any time that does not consist entirely of micro-organisms, microbiological products, or substances consisting of, or derived or extracted solely from, plant, animal, or mineral-bearing rock substances. Prohibited materials shall not include the application of botanicals, lime-sulfur, gypsum, soaps, and detergents. Prohibited materials shall include the application of petroleum solvents, diesel, and other petroleum fractions.

(3) When used in connection with the production, handling, or processing of raw agricultural commodities and any other food not specified in paragraphs (1) and (2), any synthetically compounded fertilizer, pesticide, growth regulator, or any other substance that does not consist entirely of micro-organisms, microbiological products, or substances consisting of, or derived or extracted solely from plant, animal, or mineral-bearing rock substances. Before harvest, prohibited materials shall not include the application of bordeaux mixes and trace elements for known deficiencies as determined by plant or animal tissue or by soil testing, soluble aquatic plant products, botanicals, lime-sulfur, gypsum, dormant oils, summer oils, fish emulsion, soaps, and detergents, except for petroleum solvents, diesel, and other petroleum fractions, used as weed or carrot oils. Prohibited materials shall not include the application of soaps and detergents.

(4) Water, including substances dissolved in water, shall not be a prohibited material, even if it contains incidental contamination from a prohibited material, if the prohibited material was not added by, or under the direction or control of, the producer, handler, processor or retailer.

(q) "Retailer" means a person engaged in the sale to consumers of food sold as organic and not engaged in the production, handling or processing of food sold as organic.

(r) "Sold as organic" means any use of the terms "organic," "organically grown," "naturally grown," "ecologically grown," or "biologically grown," or grammatical variations of those terms, whether orally or in writing, in connection with any food grown, handled, processed, sold, or offered for sale in this state, including, but not limited to, any use of these terms in labeling or advertising of any food and any ingredient in a multi-ingredient food, except as provided in Section 26569.36.

(s) "Substance" includes all components of a substance, including active and inert ingredients.

(t) "Synthetically compounded" means formulated or manufactured by a process which chemically changes a substance extracted from naturally occurring plant, animal, or mineral sources, excepting microbiological processes.

SEC. 11. Section 26569.23 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

26569.23. (a) No food which contains any prohibited material residue as a result of spray drift or any other contamination beyond the control of the producer, handler, processor, or retailer, may be sold as organic unless the amount of residue does not exceed 10 percent of the federal Environmental Protection Agency tolerance level.

(b) Commencing January 1, 1992, no food which contains any prohibited material residue as a result of spray drift or any other contamination beyond the control of the producer, handler, processor, or retailer, may be sold as organic unless the amount of prohibited material residue does not exceed 5 percent of the federal Environmental Protection Agency tolerance level.

SEC. 12. Section 26569.28 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

26569.28. (a) All persons who produce raw agricultural commodities that are sold as organic shall keep accurate and specific records of the following:

(1) For each field or management unit, all substances applied to the crop, soil, growing medium, growing area, irrigation or postharvest wash or rinse water, or seed, including all substances applied during the time periods specified in paragraphs (3) to (6), inclusive, of subdivision (a) of Section 26569.22, the quantity of each substance applied, and the date of each application. All substances shall be identified by brand name, if any, and by source.

(2) The quantity harvested from each field or management unit, the size of the field or management unit, the field number, and the date of harvest.

(3) The name and address and, if applicable, the registration numbers issued pursuant to Section 26569.35 or Section 46002 of the Food and Agricultural Code of all handlers, processors, or retailers to whom the food is sold or otherwise transferred, the quantity of food sold or otherwise transferred, and the date of the transaction.

(b) All persons who produce meat, fowl, fish, dairy products, or eggs sold as organic shall keep accurate and specific records of the following:

(1) Unless the livestock, fowl, or fish was raised or hatched by the producer, the name and address and, if applicable, the registration numbers issued pursuant to Section 26569.35 or Section 46002 of the Food and Agricultural Code of all suppliers of livestock, fowl, or fish and the date of the transaction.

(2) The name and address and, if applicable, the registration numbers issued pursuant to Section 26569.35 or Section 46002 of the Food and Agricultural Code of all suppliers of feed, the quantity of feed purchased, and the date of the transaction.

(3) All substances administered and fed to the animal, including all feed, medication and drugs, and all substances applied in any area in which the animal, milk, or eggs are kept, including the quantity administered or applied, and the date of each application. All substances shall be identified by brand name, if any, and by source.

(4) The name and address and, if applicable, the registration numbers issued pursuant to Section 26569.35 or Section 46002 of the Food and Agricultural Code of all handlers, processors, or retailers to whom the food is sold or otherwise transferred, the quantity of food sold or otherwise transferred, and the date of the transaction.

(c) All persons who handle food sold as organic shall keep accurate and specific records of the following:

(1) The name and address and, if applicable, the registration numbers issued pursuant to Section 26569.35 or Section 46002 of the Food and Agricultural Code of all suppliers of the food, the quantity of food purchased or otherwise transferred, and the date of the transaction.

(2) Invoices for each shipment from the supplier that state that the food may be sold as organic.

(3) If the food is labeled or represented to be certified, invoices from the supplier or separate written documentation from a certification organization which states that the food is certified under this article.

(4) All pesticide chemicals applied to the food while in the control of the handler, including the quantity applied, and the date of each application. All pesticide chemicals shall be identified by brand name, if any, and by source.

(5) All substances routinely applied in or around any area or container in which the food is kept. All substances shall be identified by brand name, if any, and by source. This record may be provided in the form of a single list of substances used.

(6) The name and address and, if applicable, the registration numbers issued pursuant to Section 26569.35 or Section 46002 of the Food and Agricultural Code of all persons to whom the food is sold or otherwise transferred, the quantity of food sold or otherwise transferred, and the date of the transaction.

(d) All persons who process food sold as organic shall keep accurate and specific records of the following:

(1) The name and address and, if applicable, the registration numbers issued pursuant to Section 26569.35 or Section 46002 of the Food and Agricultural Code of all suppliers of the food, the quantity of food purchased or otherwise transferred, and the date of the transaction.

(2) Invoices for each shipment from the supplier that state that the food may be sold as organic.

(3) If the food is labeled or represented to be certified, invoices from the supplier or separate written documentation from a certification organization which states that the food is certified under this article.

(4) All substances applied to the food or used in its processing, all substances applied to the food while in the control of the processor, and all substances applied in or around any area or container in which the food is kept, including the quantity of substances applied and the date of each application. All substances shall be identified by brand name, if any, and by source.

(5) The name and address and, if applicable, the registration numbers issued pursuant to Section 26569.35 or Section 46002 of the Food and Agricultural Code of all handlers, processors, or retailers to whom the food is sold or otherwise transferred, the quantity of food sold or otherwise transferred, and the date of the transaction.

(e) All persons who sell, at retail, food sold as organic shall keep accurate and specific records of the following:

(1) The name and address and, if applicable, the registration numbers issued pursuant to Section 26569.35 or Section 46002 of the Food and Agricultural Code of all suppliers of the food, the quantity of food purchased or otherwise transferred, and the date of the transaction.

(2) Invoices for each shipment from the supplier that state that the food may be sold as organic.

(3) If the food is labeled or represented to be certified, invoices from the supplier or separate written documentation from a certification organization which states that the food is certified under this article.

(4) All pesticide chemicals applied to the food while in the control of retailer, including the quantity applied, and the date of each application. All pesticide chemicals shall be identified by brand name, if any, and by source.

(5) All substances routinely applied in or around any area or container in which the food is kept. All substances shall be identified by brand name, if any, and by source. This record may be provided in the form of a single list of substances used. One list may be kept at the retailer's headquarters office if all individual stores operated by that retailer utilize only the substances on the list.

Paragraphs (1) and (2) shall not apply to a person who both produces and sells, at retail, the same food. The records required to be kept pursuant to paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, of this subdivision may be kept at the retailer's warehouse or headquarters office.

(f) All records required to be kept under this section shall be maintained by producers for not less than three years and by handlers and processors for not less than two years from the date on which the food is sold, and shall be maintained by retailers for not less than one year from the date on which the food is received by the retailer. These records shall be made available for inspection at any time by the director or the Director of Food and Agriculture and by each certification organization that certifies the food, if any, for purposes of carrying out this article and Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 46000) of Division 17 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

SEC. 13. Section 26569.30 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

26569.30. (a) Commencing January 1, 1992, the term "certified" and variations of that term may be used in connection with food sold as organic only in accordance with this section, subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 26569.24, Sections 26569.31 to 26569.34, inclusive, and Section 46009 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(b) Food sold as organic may be certified only by a certification organization registered pursuant to subdivisions (c) and (d), by the director pursuant to subdivision (f), by a certification organization registered pursuant to Section 46009 of the Food and Agricultural Code, or by the Director of Food and Agriculture or a county agricultural commissioner pursuant to Section 46009 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(c) In order to be registered, a certification organization shall meet all of the following minimum qualifications:

(1) Be the certification organization for at least 10 legally separate and distinct, financially unrelated, and independently controlled persons involved in the production or processing of food sold as organic.

(2) Be a legally separate and distinct entity from any person whose food is certified by the organization. A certification organization shall be considered legally separate and distinct notwithstanding the fact that persons or representatives of persons whose food is certified serve as directors, officers, or in other capacities for the certification organization, so long as those persons or representatives of those persons do not exercise decisionmaking authority over certification of that particular food.

(3) Have no financial interest in the sale of the food, except that fees charged by the certification organization to cover the reasonable costs of operating the certification organization do not constitute a financial interest for purposes of this section.

(d) Effective January 1, 1992, a certification organization which certifies processed food sold as organic, except for processed meat, fowl, or dairy products, shall register with the director and shall thereafter annually renew the registration unless no longer engaged in the activities requiring the registration. Registration shall be on a form provided by the director, shall include the filing of a certification plan as specified in Section 26569.33 and payment of the fee specified in subdivision (f). The director shall make forms available for this purpose on or before July 31, 1991. The registration form shall include the names of all persons involved in making certification decisions or setting certification standards for the certification organization. The director shall reject a registration submission that is incomplete or not in compliance with this article.

(e) Commencing July 31, 1991, the director may, upon the request of a sufficient number of persons to fund the program's cost, establish and maintain a certification program for processors of food sold as organic and shall establish and collect a fee from all processors of food certified under that program to cover all of the department's costs of administering the program. The certification program shall be subject to all provisions regarding certification organizations contained in this article, except that the requirements of subdivisions (c) and (d) shall not apply.

(f) The director shall supervise all certification organizations registered with the department, shall establish a complaint procedure concerning noncompliance with this article by certification organizations registered with the department, and shall establish and collect an annual registration fee based on the unit of weight or measure, gross sales or other measure of the amount of food certified by the organization, to cover the costs of the supervision. The registration fee established by the department shall not exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000) per organization. Supervision shall include a written evaluation of the organization's certification plan at least biannually. The written evaluation shall be made available for public inspection.

(g) The director may audit the organization's certification procedures and records at any time. Records of certification organizations not otherwise required to be disclosed shall be kept confidential by the director.

SEC. 14. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for this act to take effect and apply during the 1991 growing and marketing season for agricultural products, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1136

An act to amend Sections 188.1, 188.2, and 188.3 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to acquired immune deficiency syndrome, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 188.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

188.1. (a) To the extent that state and federal funds are appropriated in the Budget Act for these purposes, the director shall establish and may administer a program to provide drug treatments to persons infected with human immunodeficiency virus (HIV), the etiologic agent of acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS). The director shall develop, maintain, and update as necessary a list of drugs to be provided under this program. Drugs on the list shall include, but not be limited to, the drugs zidovudine (AZT) and aerosolized pentamidine.

(b) The director may grant funds to a county public health department through standard agreements to administer this program in that county. To maximize the recipients' access to drugs covered by this program, the director shall urge the county health department in counties granted these funds to decentralize distribution of the drugs to the recipients.

(c) The director shall establish a rate structure for reimbursement for the cost of each drug included in the program. Rates shall not be less than the actual cost of the drug. However, the director may purchase a listed drug directly from the manufacturer and negotiate the most favorable bulk price for that drug.

(d) Reimbursement under this chapter shall not be made for any drugs which are available to the recipient under any other private, state, or federal programs, or under any other contractual or legal entitlements, except that the director may authorize an exemption from this subdivision where exemption would represent a cost savings to the state.

SEC. 2. Section 188.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

188.2. (a) The state department shall establish uniform standards of financial eligibility for the drugs under the program established under this chapter.

(b) Nothing in the financial eligibility standards shall prohibit drugs to an otherwise eligible person whose adjusted gross income does not exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) per year. However, the director may authorize drugs for persons with incomes higher than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) per year if the estimated cost of those drugs in one year is expected to exceed 20 percent of the person's adjusted gross income.

(c) The state department shall establish and may administer a payment schedule to determine the payment obligation of a person receiving drugs. No person shall be obligated for payment whose adjusted gross income is less than four times the federal poverty level. The payment obligation shall be the lesser of the following:

(1) Two times the person's annual state income tax liability, less funds expended by the person for health insurance premiums.

(2) The cost of drugs.

(d) Persons who have been determined to have a payment obligation pursuant to subdivision (c) shall be advised by the state department of their right to request a reconsideration of that determination to the state department. Written notice of the right to request a reconsideration shall be provided to the person at the time that notification is given that he or she is subject to a payment obligation. The payment determination shall be reconsidered if one or more of the following apply:

(1) The determination was based on an incorrect calculation made pursuant to subdivision (b).

(2) There has been a substantial change in income since the previous eligibility determination which has resulted in a current income that is inadequate to meet the calculated payment obligation.

(3) Unavoidable family or medical expenses which reduce the disposable income and which result in current income that is inadequate to meet the payment obligation.

(4) Any other situation which imposes undue financial hardship on the person and would restrict his or her ability to meet the payment obligation.

(e) The state department may exempt a person, who has been determined to have a payment obligation pursuant to subdivision (c), from the obligation if both of the following criteria are satisfied:

(1) One or more of the circumstances specified in subdivision (d) exist.

(2) The state department has determined that the payment obligation will impose an undue financial hardship on the person.

(f) If a person requests reconsideration of the payment obligation determination, the person shall not be obligated to make any payment until the state department has completed the reconsideration request pursuant to subdivision (d). If the state department denies the exemption, the person shall be obligated to make payments for drugs received while the reconsideration request is pending.

(g) A county public health department administering this program pursuant to an agreement with the director pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 188.1 shall use no more than 5 percent of total payments it collects pursuant to this section to cover any administrative costs related to eligibility determinations, reporting requirements, and the collection of payments.

SEC. 3. Section 188.3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

188.3. (a) Effective March 15, 1991, a person determined eligible for benefits under this chapter shall be subject to the payment obligation specified in subdivision (c) of Section 188.2.

(b) Persons who are receiving benefits under a HIV drug treatment subsidy program administered by the state department prior to March 15, 1991, shall not be subject to the payment obligation specified in subdivision (c) of Section 188.2.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), if any person is disenrolled from eligibility in a HIV drug treatment subsidy program administered by the state department for any reason after March 15, 1991, the subsequent enrollment of that person for benefits under this chapter shall be in accordance with the payment obligation specified in subdivision (c) of Section 188.2.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), if a drug is added pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 188.1, any person determined eligible for benefits under this chapter, regardless of the date of enrollment, shall be subject to the payment obligation specified in subdivision (c) of Section 188.2 for the added drug. The payment obligation for any other drug shall be determined in accordance with subdivision (b).

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Because changes to the HIV drug treatment program are necessary in order to provide the State Department of Health Services with the means to fully implement the program concurrent with the Budget Act of 1991, it is necessary that this act go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1137

An act to amend Section 1502 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 11400, 17710, 17730, 17731, 17732, and 17736 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public social services.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1502 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1502. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Community care facility" means any facility, place, or building which is maintained and operated to provide nonmedical residential care, day treatment, adult day care, or foster family agency services for children, adults, or children and adults, including, but not limited to, the physically handicapped, mentally impaired, incompetent persons, and abused or neglected children, and includes the following:

(1) "Residential facility" means any family home, group care facility, or similar facility determined by the director, for 24-hour nonmedical care of persons in need of personal services, supervision, or assistance essential for sustaining the activities of daily living or for the protection of the individual.

(2) "Adult day care facility" means any facility which provides nonmedical care to persons 18 years of age or older in need of personal services, supervision, or assistance essential for sustaining the activities of daily living or for the protection of the individual on less than a 24-hour basis.

(3) "Therapeutic day services facility" means any facility which provides nonmedical care, counseling, educational or vocational support, or social rehabilitation services on less than a 24-hour basis to persons under 18 years of age who would otherwise be placed in foster care or who are returning to families from foster care. Program standards for these facilities shall be developed by the department, pursuant to Section 1530, in consultation with therapeutic day services and foster care providers.

(4) "Foster family agency" means any individual or organization engaged in the recruiting, certifying, and training of, and providing professional support to, foster parents, or in finding homes or other places for placement of children for temporary or permanent care who require that level of care as an alternative to a group home. Private foster family agencies shall be organized and operated on a nonprofit basis.

(5) "Foster family home" means any residential facility providing 24-hour care for six or fewer foster children which is owned, leased, or rented and is the residence of the foster parent or parents, including their family, in whose care the foster children have been placed. The placement may be by a public or private child placement agency or by a court order, or by voluntary placement by a parent, parents, or guardian.

(6) "Small family home" means any residential facility, in the licensee's family residence, which provides 24-hour care for six or fewer foster children who have mental disorders or developmental or physical disabilities and who require special care and supervision as a result of their disabilities. A small family home may accept children with special health care needs, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 17710 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. In addition to placing children with special health care needs, the department may approve placement of children without special health care needs, up to the licensed capacity.

(7) "Social rehabilitation facility" means any residential facility which provides social rehabilitation services for no longer than 18 months in a group setting to adults recovering from mental illness who temporarily need assistance, guidance, or counseling. Program components shall be subject to program standards pursuant to Section 5458.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(8) "Community treatment facility" means any residential facility which provides mental health treatment services to children in a group setting. Program components shall be subject to program standards developed by the State Department of Mental Health pursuant to Section 5405 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit or discourage placement of persons who have mental or physical disabilities into any category of community care facility that meets the needs of the individual placed, if the placement is consistent with the licensing regulations of the department.

(9) "Full-service adoption agency" means any licensed entity engaged in the business of providing adoption services, who does all of the following:

(A) Assumes care, custody, and control of a child through relinquishment of the child to the agency or involuntary termination of parental rights to the child.

(B) Assesses the birth parents, prospective adoptive parents, or child.

(C) Places children for adoption.

(D) Supervises adoptive placements.

Private full-service adoption agencies shall be organized and operated on a nonprofit basis.

(10) "Noncustodial adoption agency" means any licensed entity engaged in the business of providing adoption services, who does all of the following:

(A) Assesses the prospective adoptive parents.

(B) Cooperatively matches children freed for adoption, who are under the care, custody, and control of a licensed adoption agency, for adoption, with assessed and approved adoptive applicants.

(C) Cooperatively supervises adoptive placements with a full-service adoptive agency, but does not disrupt a placement or remove a child from a placement.

Private noncustodial adoption agencies shall be organized and operated on a nonprofit basis.

(b) "Department" or "state department" means the State Department of Social Services.

(c) "Director" means the Director of Social Services.

SEC. 2. Section 11400 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11400. For the purposes of this article, the following definitions shall apply:

(a) "Aid to Families with Dependent Children-Foster Care (AFDC-FC)" means the aid provided in behalf of needy children in foster care under the terms of this division.

(b) "Case plan" means a written document which at a minimum specifies the type of home in which the child shall be placed, the appropriateness of the home for meeting the child's needs, the agency's plan for ensuring that the child, the family, and foster parents receive services, and the appropriateness of the services provided to the child, in order to meet the child's needs while in foster care, and to reunify the child with his or her family, or, when reunification is not possible, to facilitate an alternate permanent plan.

(c) "Certified family home" means a family residence certified by a licensed foster family agency and issued a certificate of approval by that agency as meeting licensing standards, and used only by that foster family agency for placements.

(d) "Family home" means the family residency of a licensee in which 24-hour care and supervision are provided for children.

(e) "Small family home" means any residential facility, in the licensee's family residence, which provides 24-hour care for six or fewer foster children who have mental disorders or developmental or physical disabilities and who require special care and supervision as a result of their disabilities.

(f) "Foster care" means the 24-hour out-of-home care provided to children whose own families are unable or unwilling to care for them, and who are in need of temporary or long-term substitute parenting.

(g) "Foster family agency" means any individual or organization engaged in the recruiting, certifying, and training of, and providing professional support to, foster parents, or in finding homes or other places for placement of children for temporary or permanent care who require that level of care as an alternative to a group home. Private foster family agencies shall be organized and operated on a nonprofit basis.

(h) "Group home" means a nondetention privately operated residential home of any capacity that provides services in a group setting to children in need of care and supervision, as required by paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 1502 of the Health and Safety Code.

(i) "Periodic review" means review of a child's status by the juvenile court or by an administrative review panel, which shall include a determination of the continuing need for placement in foster care, evaluation of the goals for the placement and the progress toward meeting these goals, and development of a target date for the child's return home or establishment of alternative permanent placement.

(j) "Permanency planning hearing" means a hearing conducted by the juvenile court in which the child's future status, including whether the child shall be returned home or another permanent plan shall be developed, is determined.

(k) "Placement and care" refers to the responsibility for the welfare of a child vested in an agency or organization by virtue of the agency or organization having (1) been delegated care, custody, and control of a child by the juvenile court, (2) taken responsibility, pursuant to a relinquishment or termination of parental rights on a child, (3) taken the responsibility of supervising a child detained by the juvenile court pursuant to Section 319 or 636, or (4) signed a voluntary placement agreement for the child's placement; or to the responsibility designated to an individual by virtue of his or her being appointed the child's legal guardian.

(l) "Preplacement preventive services" means services which are designed to help children remain with their families by preventing or eliminating the need for removal.

(m) "Relative" means a person who can be a "caretaker relative" of a dependent child under Section 406 of the Social Security Act.

(n) "Voluntary placement" means an out-of-home placement of a minor by (1) county welfare department after the parents or guardians have requested the assistance of the county welfare department and have signed a voluntary placement agreement; or (2) the county welfare department licensed public or private adoption agency, or the department acting as an adoption agency, after the parents have requested the assistance of either the county welfare department, the licensed public or private adoption agency, or the department acting as an adoption agency for the purpose of adoption planning, and have signed a voluntary placement agreement.

(o) "Voluntary placement agreement" means a written agreement between either the county welfare department, a licensed public or private adoption agency, or the department acting as an adoption agency, and the parents or guardians of a minor which specifies the terms of the voluntary placement.

(p) "Original placement date" means the most recent date on which the court detained a child and ordered an agency to be responsible for supervising the child or the date on which an agency assumed responsibility for a child due to termination of parental rights, relinquishment, or voluntary placement.

SEC. 3. Section 17710 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

17710. Unless otherwise specified in this part:

(a) "Child with special health care needs" means a child who has been adjudged a dependent of the court pursuant to Section 300, a child who has not been adjudged a dependent of the court pursuant to Section 300 but who is in the custody of the county welfare department, or a child with a developmental disability who is receiving services and case management from a regional center who has a medical condition which requires specialized in-home health care which may be provided by nonmedical personnel, such as a foster parent trained to provide this care.

(b) "County" means the county welfare department.

(c) "Department" means the State Department of Social Services.

(d) "Individualized health care plan team" means those individuals who develop a health care plan for a child with special health care needs in foster care, which shall include, the child's primary care physician or other health care professional designated by the physician, any involved medical team, the county social worker or regional center worker, and may in addition include, but shall not be limited to, a public health nurse, representatives from the California Children's Services program or the Child Health and Disability Prevention Program, regional centers, the county mental health department, the prospective specialized foster family, and where reunification is the goal, the parent or parents, if available.

(e) "Director" means the Director of Social Services.

(f) "Level of care" means a description of the specialized in-home health care to be provided to a child with special health care needs by the foster family.

(g) Medical conditions requiring special in-home health care require dependency upon one or more of the following: internal feeding tube, total parenteral feeding, a cardiorespiratory monitor, intravenous therapy, a ventilator, urinary catheterization, ministrations imposed by tracheostomy, colostomy, ileostomy, or other medical or surgical procedures or special medication regimens, including injection, aerosol treatment, and intravenous or oral medication.

(h) "Specialized in-home health care" includes, but is not limited to, those services identified by the child's primary physician as appropriately administered by a foster parent trained by health care professionals pursuant to the discharge plan of the facility releasing the child being placed in, or currently in, foster care.

(i) "Specialized foster care home" means any of the following foster homes where the foster parents reside in the home and have been trained to provide specialized in-home health care to foster children:

(1) Licensed foster family homes, as defined in paragraph (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 1502 of the Health and Safety Code.

(2) Licensed small family homes, as defined in paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 1502 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 4. Section 17730 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

17730. The department shall develop a program to establish foster care homes for children with special health care needs with foster parents trained by health care professionals pursuant to the discharge plan of the facility releasing the child being placed in, or currently in foster care. The program shall conform to the requirements set forth in this chapter, and shall be integrated with the foster care and child welfare services programs authorized by Article 5 (commencing with Section 11400) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 and Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 16500) of Part 4.

The department, in administering the licensing program, shall not evaluate or have any responsibility for the evaluation of the in-home health care provided in specialized foster care homes.

This program shall be conducted by county welfare departments in conformance with procedures established by the department in accordance with this chapter.

SEC. 5. Section 17731 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

17731. (a) The county shall develop a plan to place children with special health care needs in foster care. This plan shall be submitted to the State Department of Social Services and the State Department of Health Services, not later than April 1, 1990, before beginning placement of children with special health care needs in specialized foster care homes. This subdivision shall not invalidate any placement made before April 1, 1990. A county which has not submitted a plan by April 1, 1990, shall not continue to make placements of children with special health care needs until the plan has been submitted.

(b) Unless a local lead agency has been designated within the county, as described in Item 4260-113-890 of the Budget Act of 1989, the county department of social services shall be the lead agency with the responsibility of developing the plan to be submitted pursuant to subdivision (a). The county plan shall be formalized in an interagency agreement between the county department of social services and the other county and private agencies that are the involved parties.

(c) The county plan shall meet all the requirements specified in this subdivision. The regional center shall not be required to submit a plan. However, all requirements specified in this subdivision shall be met prior to a regional center placement of a child who is not a court dependent who has special health care needs.

(1) Prior to the placement of a child with special health care needs, an individualized health care plan, which may be the hospital discharge plan, shall be prepared for the child and, if necessary, in-home health support services shall be arranged. The individualized health care plan team shall be convened by the county department of social services caseworker or the regional center caseworker, to discuss the specific responsibilities of the foster parents for provision of in-home health care in accordance with the individualized health care plan developed by the child's physician or his or her designee. The plan may also include the identification of any available and funded medical services that are to be provided to the child in the home, including, but not limited to, assistance from registered nurses, licensed vocational nurses, public health nurses, physical therapists, and respite care workers. The individualized health care plan team shall delineate in the individualized health care plan the coordination of health and related services for the child. The plan shall be monitored by the county department of social services caseworker or regional center caseworker in accordance with applicable regulations.

(2) A child welfare services case plan or regional center individual program plan shall be developed in accordance with applicable regulations, and arrangements made for nonmedical support services.

(3) Foster parents shall be trained by health care professionals pursuant to the discharge plan of the facility releasing the child being placed in, or currently in, foster care. Training shall be provided as needed during the placement of the child and to the child's biological parent or parents when the child is being reunified with his or her family.

(4) Children with special health care needs shall be placed in the home of the prospective foster parent subsequent to training by a health care professional pursuant to the discharge plan of the facility releasing the child being placed in foster care.

(5) Assistant caregivers and respite care workers shall be either of the following:

(A) A health care professional.

(B) Trained by a health care professional care in accordance with paragraph (3).

(6) Specialized foster care homes shall be monitored by the county or regional center according to applicable regulations. The health care plan shall designate which health care professional shall monitor the child's ongoing health care, including in-home health care provided by the foster parent.

(7) The child's individualized health care plan shall be reassessed no less than every six months during the time the child is placed in the specialized foster care home, to ensure that specialized care payments are appropriate to meet the child's health care needs.

(8) The placement agencies shall coordinate the sources of funding and services available to children with special health care needs in order to maximize the social services provided to these children and to avoid duplication of programs and funding.

SEC. 6. Section 17732 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

17732. No more than two foster care children shall reside in a specialized foster care home with the following exceptions:

(a) A specialized foster care home may have a third child with or without special health care needs placed in that home when all of the following conditions have been met:

(1) No other placement is available.

(2) The psychological and social needs of the children in placement and the child to be placed will be met by the placement.

(3) The individualized health care plan team responsible for the ongoing care of each child with special health care needs involved has waived the two-child limit.

(b) A small family home may exceed the placement limit specified in subdivision (a) and accept children with or without special health care needs up to the licensed capacity as determined under paragraph (6) of subdivision (l) of Section 1502 of the Health and Safety Code if the following additional conditions have been met:

(1) At least one of the children in the facility is a regional center placement and the home meets the requirements of Section 56001 and following of Title 17 of the California Code of Regulations.

(2) The licensee of the small family home has the assistance of a 24-hour caregiver to provide specialized in-home health care to the foster children. The department may determine that additional assistance is required to provide appropriate care and supervision for all children in placement. The determination shall only be made after consultation with the appropriate regional center and any appropriate individual health care teams.

(3) Verification by each child's placement worker that the needs of each child in placement can be met.

(4) On-call assistance is available at all times to respond in case of an emergency. The on-call assistant shall meet the requirements of paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 17731.

(5) The home is sufficient in size to accommodate the needs of all children in the home.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 1523 of the Health and Safety Code, a foster family home which has more than three children with special health care needs in its care as of January 1, 1992, and which applies for licensure as a small family home in order to continue to provide care for those children, shall be exempt from the application fee.

(d) A group home may not provide care to children with special health care needs except on a short-term basis as determined by the department. Any group home which provides care for those children as of January 1, 1992, shall do either of the following:

(1) Apply for small family home licensure and comply with the requirements of subdivision (b).

(2) If the group home provides care to more than six children, accept no additional children for care and reduce capacity to the small family home capacity limits through attrition.

SEC. 7. Section 17736 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

17736. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, including Sections 1250, 1251, 1254, 1270, 1501, 1502, 1505, 1507, 1521, 1530.6 (as added by Chapter 391 of the Statutes of 1977), 1550, 11002, and 11154 of the Health and Safety Code, and Sections 2052, 2725, 2732, and 2795 of the Business and Professions Code, counties shall be permitted to place children with special health care needs in foster family homes pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, and shall permit a foster parent, an assistant caregiver and a respite caregiver trained by health care professionals pursuant to the discharge plan of the facility releasing the child to provide specialized in-home health care to that foster child, as described in the individualized health care plan for the child.

CHAPTER 1138

An act to amend Sections 25281 and 25292.1 of, and to add Section 25295.5 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous substances.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25281 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25281. For purposes of this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Automatic line leak detector" means any method of leak detection, as determined in regulations adopted by the board, which alerts the owner or operator of an underground storage tank to the presence of a leak. "Automatic line leak detector" includes, but is not limited to, any device or mechanism which alerts the owner or operator of an underground storage tank to the presence of a leak by restricting or shutting off the flow of hazardous substance through piping, or by triggering an audible or visual alarm, and which detects leaks of three gallons or more per hour at 10 pounds per square inch line pressure within one hour.

(b) "Board" means the State Water Resources Control Board. "Regional board" means a California regional water quality control board.

(c) "Department" means the State Department of Health Services.

(d) "Facility" means any one, or combination of, underground storage tanks used by a single business entity at a single location or site.

(e) "Federal act" means Subchapter IX (commencing with Section 6991) of Chapter 82 of Title 42 of the United States Code, as added by the Hazardous and Solid Waste Amendments of 1984 (P.L. 98-616), or as it may subsequently be amended or supplemented.

(f) "Hazardous substance" means both of the following:

(1) All of the following liquid and solid substances, unless the department, in consultation with the board, determines that the substance could not adversely affect the quality of the waters of the state:

(A) Substances on the list prepared by the Director of Industrial Relations pursuant to Section 6382 of the Labor Code.

(B) Hazardous substances, as defined in Section 25316.

(C) Any substance or material which is classified by the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) as a flammable liquid, a class II combustible liquid, or a class III-A combustible liquid.

(2) Any regulated substance, as defined in subsection (2) of Section 6991 of Title 42 of the United State Code, as that section reads on January 1, 1989, or as it may subsequently be amended or supplemented.

(g) "Local agency" means the department, office, or other agency of a county or city designated pursuant to Section 25283.

(h) "Operator" means any person in control of, or having daily responsibility for, the daily operation of an underground storage tank system.

(i) "Owner" means the owner of an underground storage tank.

(j) "Person" means an individual, trust, firm, joint stock company, corporation, including a government corporation, partnership, or association. "Person" also includes any city, county, district, the state, any department or agency thereof, or the United States to the extent authorized by federal law.

(k) "Pipe" means any pipeline or system of pipelines which is used in connection with the storage of hazardous substances and which is not intended to transport hazardous substances in interstate or intrastate commerce or to transfer hazardous materials in bulk to or from a marine vessel.

(l) "Primary containment" means the first level of containment, such as the portion of a tank which comes into immediate contact on its inner surface with the hazardous substance being contained.

(m) "Product-tight" means impervious to the substance which is contained, or is to be contained, so as to prevent the seepage of the substance from the primary containment. To be product-tight, the tank shall not be subject to physical or chemical deterioration by the substance which it contains over the useful life of the tank.

(n) "Release" means any spilling, leaking, emitting, discharging, escaping, leaching, or disposing from an underground storage tank into or on the waters of the state, the land, or the subsurface soils.

(o) "Secondary containment" means the level of containment external to, and separate from, the primary containment.

(p) "Single-walled" means construction with walls made of only one thickness of material. For the purpose of this chapter, laminated, coated, or clad materials are considered single-walled.

(q) "Special inspector" means a professional engineer, registered pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 6700) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, who is qualified to attest, at a minimum, to structural soundness, seismic safety, the compatibility of construction materials with contents, cathodic protection, and the mechanical compatibility of the structural elements of underground storage tanks.

(r) "Storage" or "store" means the containment, handling, or treatment of hazardous substances, either on a temporary basis or for a period of years. "Storage" or "store" does not mean the storage of hazardous wastes in an underground storage tank if the person operating the tank has been issued a hazardous waste facilities permit by the department pursuant to Section 25200 or granted interim status under Section 25200.5.

(s) "SWEEPS" means the Statewide Environmental Evaluation and Planning System administered by the California Association of Environmental Health Administrators.

(t) "Tank" means a stationary device designed to contain an accumulation of hazardous substances which is constructed primarily of nonearthen materials (e.g. wood, concrete, steel, plastic) which provides structural support.

(u) "Tank integrity test" means a test method capable of detecting an unauthorized release from an underground storage tank consistent with the minimum standards adopted by the board.

(v) "Tank tester" means an individual who performs tank integrity tests on underground storage tanks.

(w) "Unauthorized release" means any release of any hazardous substance which does not conform to this chapter, including, but not limited to, an unauthorized release specified in Section 25295.5 unless this release is authorized by the board or a regional board pursuant to Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code.

(x) "Underground storage tank" means any one or combination of tanks, including pipes connected thereto, which is used for the storage of hazardous substances and which is substantially or totally beneath the surface of the ground. "Underground storage tank" does not include any of the following:

(1) A tank with a capacity of 1,100 gallons or less which is located on a farm and which stores motor vehicle fuel used primarily for agricultural purposes and not for resale.

(2) A tank which is located on a farm or at the residence of a person, which has a capacity of 1,100 gallons or less, and which stores home heating oil for consumptive use on the premises where stored.

(3) Structures such as sumps, separators, storm drains, catch basins, oil field gathering lines, refinery pipelines, lagoons, evaporation ponds, well cellars, separation sumps, lined and unlined pits, sumps and lagoons. Sumps which are a part of a monitoring system required under Section 25291 or 25292 and sumps or other structures defined as underground storage tanks under the federal act are not exempted by this section. Structures identified in this paragraph may be regulated by the board and any regional board pursuant to the Porter-Cologne Water Quality Control Act (Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code) to ensure that they do not pose a threat to water quality.

(y) "Underground tank system" or "tank system" means an underground storage tank, connected piping, ancillary equipment, and containment system, if any.

SEC. 2. Section 25292.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25292.1. All underground tank systems shall meet the following operational requirements:

(a) The underground tank system shall be operated to prevent unauthorized releases, including spills and overfills, during the operating life of the tank, including during gauging, sampling, and testing for the integrity of the tank.

(b) Where equipped with cathodic protection, the underground tank system shall be operated by a person with sufficient training and experience in preventing corrosion.

(c) The underground tank system shall be structurally sound at the time of upgrade or repair.

SEC. 3. Section 25295.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25295.5. (a) For purposes of this chapter, an unauthorized release includes, but is not limited to, a spill or overfill of a hazardous substance that meets both of the following conditions:

(1) The spill or overfill occurs while the hazardous substance is being placed in an underground storage tank.

(2) The spill or overfill is due to the use of improper equipment, faulty equipment, operator error, or inattention or overfilling.

(b) A person who causes an unauthorized release of a hazardous substance specified in subdivision (a) shall immediately notify the operator of the underground storage tank that a spill has occurred and the operator shall comply with the requirements of Sections 25294 or 25295, whichever is applicable.

(c) A spill or overfill shall not qualify for funds provided pursuant to Section 25299.51.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction or because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1139

An act to amend Sections 8256.1, 8257, 8257.2, and 8259 of, and to add Section 8258.5 to, the Government Code, relating to displaced homemakers, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8256.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8256.1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that:

(a) Many persons, primarily women who have relied upon a spouse as primary or sole means of support, are temporarily without adequate resources to sustain themselves or their dependents, or to become self-sufficient, during transition times occasioned by abandonment, divorce, or widowhood.

(b) These persons, because of past financial status, may not qualify for public assistance programs. Often, they are ineligible for unemployment payments or other than minimal social security benefits because of their employment history. In many cases, they jointly own property, serving as a principal residence, which they are unable to liquidate in order to provide financial resources, yet which disqualifies them from receiving public assistance.

(c) An emergency loan program is necessary to assist displaced homemakers in adjusting to the fiscal, emotional, and career crises often inherent in the loss of their primary provider's support as a result of abandonment, separation, divorce, or widowhood, and to provide them the opportunities, education, and training necessary to live independently and become effective participants in the work force.

(d) The creation of the loan program contained in this chapter is an important enabling method for these persons to enhance their lives and to ensure their opportunity to achieve self-sufficiency.

(e) Experience indicates that displaced homemakers require counseling, education, training, and assistance in finding suitable employment, and that the provision of these services in addition to an emergency loan may enable them to live independently and become self-sufficient. These services can be provided by a displaced homemaker resource center that combines a variety of local, state, and federal resources into a one stop, direct service source. It is important to provide the opportunity to test the effectiveness of combining the loan program with the provision of the necessary services to enable displaced homemakers to become self-sufficient.

SEC. 2. Section 8257 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8257. The Legislature hereby creates the Displaced Homemaker Emergency Loan Act which shall be administered by the California Commission on the Status of Women as a pilot project in the Counties of Marin, San Francisco, Alameda, Los Angeles, Orange, and San Diego.

(a) The commission is authorized to make any regulations, guidelines, and agreements deemed necessary by the commission to carry out the purposes and provisions of this act.

(b) An advisory committee shall be formed including a representative each from the California Commission on the Status of Women; the Treasurer's Office; the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency; the County of Marin Commission on the Status of Women; the Student Aid Commission; and a displaced homemaker service provider and a displaced homemaker selected by the California Commission on the Status of Women. The commission shall consult with the advisory committee and other appropriate officials in developing and administering this act.

(c) Loans may be made to displaced homemakers in amounts not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) per displaced homemaker.

(d) Applications for loan guarantees shall be filed with the commission within 18 months from the displacement date.

(e) Loans shall not be made for purposes for which other public assistance is available.

(f) Priority shall be given to applicants who are participating in job search or educational programs designed to improve the employability of the individual or who meet the requirements of paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 8257.2. Loans shall not be made for this purpose if other assistance is available.

(g) Repayment of a loan shall commence no later than nine months after receipt of the loan, with an option to postpone the commencement of payments another six months in cases of need which are verified by the commission.

(h) Full payment shall be made within 48 months after commencing loan repayment but the time required for repayment may be extended in cases of need that are verified by the commission.

(i) The minimum monthly payment on each loan shall be twenty-five dollars ($25).

(j) Loans shall be made only to displaced homemakers who are being served by displaced homemaker resource centers which have developed a collaborative effort of local communities and state agencies into a one stop source of supportive services for displaced homemakers.

SEC. 3. Section 8257.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8257.2. (a) "Displaced homemaker" means a person who has been abandoned by, or separated from, their primary income provider, divorced, or widowed and who has an economic need caused by the displacement, the criteria for which shall include any of the following categories:

(1) While a homemaker, did not work for a continuous period of at least five years up until the time of displacement or whose work did not provide sufficient job skills to enable him or her to find employment suitable to sustain him or her and the family.

(2) A person whose income, at the time of displacement, did not amount to more than one-third of the gross household income and did not exceed two-thirds of the statewide median household income.

(3) A person whose employment has ended within six months of displacement because of stress related to displacement.

(4) A person who, because of age or care of dependents, has added economic burdens related to the displacement.

(5) A person who has provided unpaid services to family members and has lost their primary source of income because of the displacement.

(b) "Displaced homemaker" also means an individual who has not worked in the paid labor force for a number of years, but whose primary occupation, during those years, has been providing unpaid services to family members and who is required to leave the home setting to seek paid employment because the primary source of economic support has been terminated or drastically reduced through displacement.

(c) "Displacement" means divorce, widowhood, or abandonment by, or separation from, a primary income provider.

(d) The date of displacement by divorce means the date of legal dissolution of the marriage. The date of displacement by widowhood means the official date of death of a primary income provider. The official date of abandonment or separation means the date after which the spouse has been absent from the household and is withholding the preseparation level of support to the abandoned or separated spouse. For loans requested as a result of abandonment or separation, the borrower shall sign a statement certifying the official date of separation or abandonment from his or her primary income provider as a part of the loan application process.

(e) "Eligible lender" means:

(1) A national or state chartered bank, savings and loan association, or a credit union which is subject to examination and supervision by an agency of the United States or of this state.

(2) A pension fund as defined in the federal Employees Retirement Income Security Act.

(3) An insurance company which is subject to examination and supervision by an agency of the United States or this state.

(4) Any eligible lender approved by the commission to make loans pursuant to this chapter.

(f) "Insured displaced homemaker loan" means a loan, including a full line of credit, to a displaced homemaker by an eligible lender, as to which the payment of principal and interest is fully insured by the commission.

(g) "Loan guaranty" means the certificate, document, or endorsement issued by the commission as evidence of its insurance of an insured homemaker loan.

SEC. 4. Section 8258.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

8258.5. The California Commission on the Status of Women shall, by March 1, 1994, report to the Legislature on the Displaced Homemaker Emergency Loan program. The report shall include data on the number of loans provided and the characteristics of those receiving loans. The data shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Default rates.

(2) Uncollected amounts.

(3) The number of loan extensions requested and granted.

(4) The number of individuals receiving loans who are also receiving Aid to Families with Dependent Children grants or other public assistance moneys.

SEC. 5. Section 8259 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8259. This chapter shall remain in effect until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

The accelerating incidence of economic hardship experienced by women, often sole support of their children, and the increasing number of homeless women and children in California are causing grave hardships. In order to provide essential services to these women and children as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1140

An act to add Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 12306) to Part 4.8 of Division 6 of the Water Code, and to amend Items 3600-001-176, 3860-001-001, and 3860-005-144 of, and to add Items 3860-001-176 and 3860-101-176 to, Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1991, relating to water, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 12306) is added to Part 4.8 of Division 6 of the Water Code, to read:

CHAPTER 1.5. ENVIRONMENTAL MITIGATION AND PROTECTION REQUIREMENTS

12306. This chapter applies to special flood control projects subject to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 12310) and to the payment of delta levee subventions under Part 9 (commencing with Section 12980).

12306.5. The Resources Agency shall supervise the implementation of the programs subject to this chapter.

12307. (a) The Resources Agency, the department, the Reclamation Board, and the Department of Fish and Game shall enter into a memorandum of understanding to coordinate the implementation of the programs subject to this chapter.

(b) The memorandum of understanding shall provide that the Department of Fish and Game shall enforce any mitigation requirements involving programs subject to this chapter.

12308. The Resources Agency shall report to the Legislature not later than January 15 of each year all of the following information for each plan approved pursuant to this part:

(a) The name of each local agency submitting a plan, the island or tract involved, and a map of the island or tract indicating the work and the mitigation sites.

(b) The amount of money allocated to the plan, and the amount of money spent on project construction and on project mitigation.

(c) The number of acres of riparian, wildlife, and fisheries habitat and the number of lineal feet of shaded aquatic areas disturbed by projects funded under this part.

(d) The number and quality of acres of replacement habitat provided as mitigation.

(e) An annual assessment as to whether the cumulative impact of projects funded pursuant to this part has resulted in no net long-term loss of riparian, wildlife, or fisheries habitat. If the Resources Agency determines that a net long-term loss has occurred, it shall include in its assessment the necessary steps to correct those deficiencies.

SEC. 2. Item 3600-001-176 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1991 is amended to read:

3600-001-176—For support of Department of Fish and Game, for payment to Item 3600-001-200, payable from the Delta Flood Protection Fund 3,350,000

Provisions:

1. Of the funds appropriated in this item, $350,000 shall be spent solely for the purposes of carrying out the responsibilities of the Department of Fish and Game pursuant to Part 4.8 (commencing with Section 12980) and Part 9 (commencing with Section 12980) of Division 6 of the Water Code.
2. Of the funds appropriated in this item, $3,000,000 shall be spent to implement projects to compensate for damage to riparian, fisheries, and wildlife habitat that has occurred as a result of projects funded pursuant to Part 4.8 (commencing with Section 12980) and Part 9 (commencing with Section 12980) of Division 6 of the Water Code prior to July 1, 1991. The projects shall be designed and implemented to achieve the habitat protection standards established in Section 12987 of the Water Code.
3. The funds appropriated by this item shall be available to the Department of Fish and Game for the purposes specified in this item for the 1991–92, 1992–93, and 1993–94 fiscal years. Any funds not encumbered as of June 30, 1994, shall revert to the Delta Flood Protection Fund.

SEC. 3. Item 3860-001-001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1991 is amended to read:

3860-001-001—For support of Department of Water Resources 31,034,000

Schedule:

(a) 10-Continuing Formulation of the California Water Plan	22,636,000

Provisions:

1. The amounts appropriated in Items 3860-001-001 to 3860-001-940, inclusive, shall be transferred to the Water Resources Revolving Fund (691) for direct expenditure in such amounts as the Department of Finance may authorize, including cooperative work with other agencies. The money so transferred shall be placed in a special account in that fund and shall not be available for expenditure after June 30, 1992. Any unencumbered balances shall be returned to the appropriate funds as of June 30, 1992. Expenditures for technical services and general management charged to programs from all support appropriations for the Department of Water Resources in this act shall not exceed $20,591,000 and $22,428,000, respectively, without prior approval of the Department of Finance.

SEC. 4. Item 3860-001-176 is added to Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1991, to read:

3860-001-176—For support of Department of Water Resources, for payment to Item 3860-001-001, payable from the Delta Flood Protection Fund 1,050,000

Provisions:

1. Provision 1 of Item 3860-001-001 shall also be applicable to this item.

SEC. 5. Item 3860-005-144 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1991 is amended to read:

3860-005-144—For support of Department of Water Resources, payable from the California Water Fund, for transfer to the Delta Flood Protection Fund (12,000,000)

SEC. 6. Item 3860-101-176 is added to Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1991, to read:

3860-101-176—For local assistance, Department of Water Resources, Program 30.20-Flood Control Subventions, payable from the Delta Flood Protection Fund 5,600,000

Provisions:

1. The funds appropriated in this item shall be spent in accordance with, and subject to, the provisions of the Delta Flood Protection Act of 1988 (Chapter 28, Statutes of 1988).
2. The funds appropriated in this item may be spent on the recommended interim actions set forth in the Plan of Action for Flood Control for the Towns of Thornton and Walnut Grove, February 1989.

SEC. 7. It is the intent of the Legislature that the annual Budget Bill include, as a separate line item, sufficient funding for the Department of Fish and Game to carry out its responsibility pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 12310) of Part 4.8 of, and Part 9 (commencing with Section 12980) of, Division 6 of the Water Code.

CHAPTER 1141

An act to add Section 4710 to the Civil Code, relating to child support.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares, as follows:

(a) That the current ways and means of private and public enforcement of these support obligations are often frustrated by the sheer number of delinquent obligors and the insufficiency of available techniques to enforce child support when the legally obligated parent is self-employed, employed in the private sector, or changes jobs frequently.

(b) That even when existing public and private child support enforcement mechanisms are used, child support delinquencies nonetheless can endure for one year or more, potentially causing the obligee parent to be deprived of his or her own savings to pay for legal and household expenses, and in other cases, causing the obligee parent to be forced into receiving welfare assistance, thereby causing the state to incur additional expenses. During the child support delinquency the obligee parent may be unable to pay for food, clothing, or shelter for the dependent child or children, a situation which cannot be remedied in a timely manner by existing procedures available under Section 4701.1 of the Civil Code and other provisions of existing law. In addition, if the loss of child support extends beyond a brief period without access to immediate funds, the obligee parent is more likely to be coerced into unwise or unfair legal settlements or other decisions adversely affecting his or her legal rights.

(c) That the means of public and private enforcement of child support needs to be strengthened to a point of providing a quicker, less expensive, more certain means of collecting child support arrearages and maintaining the custodial family's standard of living while these arrearages are recovered using child support enforcement procedures provided in Section 4701.1 of the Civil Code and other provisions of existing law.

SEC. 2. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Child Support Security Act."

SEC. 3. Section 4710 is added to the Civil Code, to read:

4710. Notwithstanding any other provision of law:

(a) Except as provided in subdivision (d) or (e), every order or judgment to pay child support may also require the payment by the child support obligor of up to one year's child support or such lesser amount as is equal to the child support amount due to be paid by the child support obligor between the time of the date of the order and the date when the support obligation shall be terminated by operation of law. This amount shall be known as the "child support security deposit." In every case in which a child support security deposit is ordered, the court shall order that these moneys shall be deposited by the child support obligor in an interest-bearing account with a state or federally chartered commercial bank, a trust company authorized to transact trust business in this state, or a savings and loan association, or in shares of a federally insured credit union doing business in this state and having a trust department subject to withdrawal only upon authorization of the court. The court shall also order that evidence of the deposit shall be provided by the child support obligor in the form specified by the court, which shall be served upon the child support obligee and filed with the court within such reasonable time as specified by the court not to exceed 30 days. These moneys so deposited shall be used exclusively to guarantee the monthly payment of child support.

(b) Upon the verified application of the child support obligee verifying under penalty of perjury that the support payment is 10 or more days late, the court shall immediately order disbursement of funds from the account established pursuant to subdivision (a) solely for the purpose of providing the amount of child support then in arrears. Funds so disbursed shall be used exclusively for the support, maintenance, and education of the child or children subject to the child support order. The court shall also order the account to be replenished by the child support obligor in the same amounts as are expended from the account to pay the amount of child support which the child support obligor has failed to pay the child support obligee in a timely manner. The court shall cause a copy of the verified application, as well as its order to disburse and replenish funds, to be served upon the child support obligor, who shall be subject to contempt of court for failure to comply with the order. The court shall also cause a copy of its order to disburse and replenish funds to be served upon the depository institution where the child support security deposit is maintained, and upon the district attorney with jurisdiction over the case.

(c) Any account established pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be dissolved and any remaining funds in the account shall be returned to the support obligor, with any interest earned thereon, upon the full payment and cessation of the child support obligation as provided by court order or operation of law.

(d) Unless expressly waived by the child support obligee, the court may order the establishment of a child support trust account pursuant to subdivision (a) in every action to establish paternity or for dissolution of a marriage in which a child support obligation is imposed by order of the court. Among other reasons, the court may decline to establish a child support trust account upon its finding that an adequately funded child support trust account already exists pursuant to subdivision (a) for the benefit of the child or children involved in the proceeding or that the child support obligor has provided adequate alternative security which is equivalent to the child support security deposit otherwise required by subdivision (a).

(e) Prior to entry of a child support order pursuant to subdivision (a), the court shall give the child support obligor reasonable notice and opportunity to file an application to reduce or eliminate the child support security deposit on the grounds that either (1) the obligor has provided adequate alternative equivalent security to assure timely payment of the amount required by subdivision (a), or (2) the obligor is unable, without undue financial hardship, to pay the support deposit required by subdivision (a). The application shall be supported by all reasonable and necessary financial and other information required by the court to establish the existence of either ground for relief. Upon the filing of such an application with the court and the service of the application upon the child support obligee and any other party to the proceedings, the court shall provide notice and opportunity for any parties opposing the application to file responsive financial and other information setting forth the factual and legal bases for the party's opposition. The court shall then provide an opportunity for hearing, and shall thereafter enter its order exercising its discretion under all the facts and circumstances as disclosed in the admissible evidence before it so as to maximize the payment and deposit of the amount required by subdivision (a), or an equivalent adequate security for the payment thereof, without imposition of undue financial hardship on the support obligor. In the event the court finds that the deposit of the amount required by subdivision (a) would impose an undue financial hardship upon the child support obligor, the court shall reduce this amount to an amount that the child support obligor can pay as the child support security deposit without undue financial hardship.

(f) "Child support obligee," as used in this section, means either the parent, guardian, or conservatee to whom child support has been ordered to be paid or the district attorney designated by the court to receive the payment. The district attorney shall be the "child support obligee" for the purposes of this section for all cases in which an application for services has been filed under Part D of Title IV of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 651 et seq.). In any case where support for a minor child is ordered to be paid through the district attorney on behalf of a minor child not receiving public assistance pursuant to the Family Economic Security Act of 1982 (Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code), the district attorney shall forward the support received to the custodial parent or other person having care or control of the minor child or children involved.

(g) Except as provided in this subdivision, this section:

(1) Shall not apply to temporary child support orders.

(2) Shall apply to applications for modification of child support entered into on or after January 1, 1992, but shall not constitute the basis for the modification.

(3) Shall apply to applications for modification of child support in any case where the child support obligee has previously waived the establishment of a child support trust account pursuant to subdivision (d) and now seeks the establishment of that child support trust account.

(4) Shall apply to any order or judgment entered by the court on or after January 1, 1993, ordering a child support obligor to pay any then existing child support arrearage that the child support obligor has unlawfully failed to pay as of the date of that order or judgment, including the arrearages which were incurred prior to January 1, 1992.

SEC. 4. The Judicial Council shall promulgate such rules of court and publish such related judicial forms as they deem necessary and appropriate to implement this act. In taking these steps, the Judicial Council shall ensure the uniform statewide application of this act and compliance with Part D of Title IV of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 651 et seq.) and any regulation promulgated thereunder.

SEC. 5. Nothing in this act shall be construed to permit any action or omission by the state or any of its political subdivisions that would place the state in noncompliance with any requirements of federal law, including, but not limited to, the state reimbursement requirements of Part D of Title IV of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 651 et seq.) and any regulations promulgated thereunder.

SEC. 6. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1142

An act to amend Sections 15814.10, 15814.11, 15814.12, 15814.13, 15814.14, and 15814.16 of the Government Code, to amend Sections 25008 and 25008.5 of the Public Resources Code, and to amend Section 2821 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to water, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 14, 1991. Filed with Secretary of State October 14, 1991.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15814.10 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15814.10. To help implement the policy set forth in Section 25008 of the Public Resources Code, the board may develop energy and water conservation and cogeneration and alternative energy and water supply sources at state facilities in accordance with this chapter.

The intent of the Legislature in enacting this chapter is to provide a mix of financing options for the development of cost saving state energy and water conservation projects. It is further the intent of the Legislature that, prior to using revenue bonds, the board consider other financing options available and the effect of the bond issuance on the bond market.

SEC. 2. Section 15814.11 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15814.11. For purposes of this part and Part 10.5 (commencing with Section 15750), the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) "Public building" means a public building as defined in Section 15802, and includes the cogeneration and alternative energy equipment, water conservation equipment, and conservation measures which the board is authorized by this chapter to acquire and construct.

(b) "Energy service contract" means a contract entered into by the board or any other state agency with any person, including, but not limited to, an individual, company, corporation, partnership, state agency, or other entity or group of entities, pursuant to which the person will provide electrical or thermal energy or water or water conservation or energy conservation measures.

(c) "Cogeneration equipment" means equipment for cogeneration, as defined in Section 218.5 of the Public Utilities Code.

(d) "Alternative energy equipment" means equipment for the production or conversion of energy from alternative sources, including, but not limited to, solar, biomass, wind, geothermal, hydroelectricity under 30 megawatts, or any other source of energy or water, the efficient use of which will reduce the use of fossil or nuclear fuels or water from established sources of supply.

(e) "Conservation measures" means equipment, maintenance, meters, load management techniques and equipment, or other measures to reduce energy or water use or make for a more efficient use of energy or water.

(f) "State agency" means any state agency, board, department or commission, including, but not limited to, the entities specified in Section 15814.12.

(g) "Water conservation equipment" means any device or modification that reduces water use from established water sources.

SEC. 3. Section 15814.12 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15814.12. (a) Without obtaining the authorization required by Section 15808, the board may acquire, and to engage in the construction of, cogeneration equipment, alternative energy equipment, or conservation measures, and any combination thereof, and to enter into energy service contracts, at any structure, building, facility, site or work used, owned or hereafter acquired by the state agency, including, but not limited to, the facilities of the California State University and Colleges, the Department of General Services, state prisons, hospitals and other agencies and the community colleges, but only at the request or with the consent of the state agency.

(b) No cogeneration equipment or alternative energy equipment or water conservation equipment shall be acquired or constructed, and no energy service contract shall be entered into, by the board unless it determines that the anticipated cost to the state agency purchasing thermal or electrical energy or water provided by the equipment or under an energy service contract will be less than the anticipated marginal cost to the state agency of thermal or electrical energy or water that would have been consumed by the state agency in the absence of those purchases. Equipment, conservation measures, or energy service contracts shall be anticipated to provide cost savings to the state in each year during the term of any revenue bonds, notes, or energy service contracts issued or entered into pursuant to this part or Part 10.5 (commencing with Section 15750), except as otherwise authorized by the Legislature.

(c) Alternatively, the board may execute agreements to finance the construction of cogeneration equipment, alternative energy equipment, water conservation equipment, or conservation measures, and any combination thereof, by the state agency, including the University of California, to be owned by the state agency, in exchange for repayment of the financing and all costs and expenses related thereto from revenues resulting from sales of electricity or thermal energy or water from the facilities and measures or from funding which otherwise would have been used for purchase of electricity, water, and thermal energy required by the state agency but which is derived from the facilities and measures.

SEC. 4. Section 15814.13 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15814.13. The board may contract to sell or exchange electricity produced by cogeneration equipment and alternative energy equipment acquired by the board to or with any investor-owned utility or municipal utility or state agency, at those rates and upon those terms that are approved by the board. Any contract may provide for a commitment of firm electrical capacity. The board may also contract to sell or exchange water or thermal energy produced by cogeneration or alternative energy equipment or water conservation equipment acquired by the board to or with any investor-owned utility or municipal utility, state agency, or any other person, at those rates and upon those terms that are approved by the board. This electricity, water, and thermal energy may be sold to or exchanged with nonstate purchasers only if the board determines that these sales or exchanges will increase the economic benefit to the state. The board may contract to provide conservation services through the use of conservation measures to any state agency at those rates and upon those terms that are approved by the board.

SEC. 5. Section 15814.14 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15814.14. (a) Any state agency may enter into a contract with the board for the purchase or exchange of thermal or electrical energy or water, or to acquire conservation services through the use of conservation measures, for a term not exceeding 35 years, at those rates and upon those terms that are approved by the agency and the board.

(b) The Department of General Services, with the consent of the state agency having jurisdiction over the property, or any other state agency with the approval of the Department of General Services, may lease as lessor for terms of up to 35 years any structure, building, facility, work, or land, owned or acquired by the agency, to any person, including the board, to permit the board to enter into an energy service contract with that person, or to permit the board to undertake other projects authorized under this chapter, at those rates and upon those terms that may be approved by the state agency and the board.

SEC. 6. Section 15814.16 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15814.16. Any amount necessary to pay monthly for electrical or thermal energy or water or conservation measures for any state agency under an energy service contract, or to pay for conservation measures or electrical or thermal energy or water received by any state agency from cogeneration or alternative energy equipment authorized to be constructed or acquired under this part or Part 10.5 (commencing with Section 15750), is hereby appropriated each fiscal year payable from the fund in the State Treasury from which an agency derives its appropriation for support, and shall become available only if the Department of Finance certifies to the Controller that the amount required monthly to pay these charges has not been included in the Budget Act for that fiscal year for the support of the agency for these services. Also, in order for the appropriation to be available, the board shall certify that the payments for the year in question are anticipated to be less than would result from the purchase of electrical or thermal energy or water avoided by purchases under this part or Part 10.5 (commencing with Section 15750). The appropriation herein made shall become inoperative as to any public building which is transferred to the jurisdiction of the Department of General Services or another state agency pursuant to Section 15814.17 or 15816.

SEC. 7. Section 25008 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25008. It is further the policy of the state and the intent of the Legislature to promote all feasible means of energy and water conservation and all feasible uses of alternative energy and water supply sources.

The Legislature finds and declares that the State of California has extensive physical and natural resources available to it at state-owned sites and facilities which can be substituted for traditional energy supplies or which lend themselves readily to the production of electricity or water. Due to increases in energy and water costs, the state's expenditures for energy and water have also increased, adding to the burden on California taxpayers and reducing the amount of funds available for other public purposes.

It is in the best interest of the state to use these resources when it can be demonstrated that long-term cost, water, and energy use reduction will result, and where increased independence from other fuel and water sources and development of additional revenues for the state may be obtained.

Therefore, in recognition of recent and projected increases in the cost of energy and water from traditional sources, it is the policy of the state to use available resources at state facilities which can substitute for traditional energy and water supplies or produce electricity or water at its facilities when use or production will reduce long-term energy or water expenditures. Criteria used in analysis of proposed actions shall include lifecycle cost evaluation, benefit to taxpayers, reduced fossil fuel or reduced water consumption depending on the application, and improved efficiency. Energy or water facilities at state-owned sites shall be scaled to produce optimal system efficiency and best economic advantage to the state. Energy or water produced may be reserved by the state to meet state facility needs or may be sold to state or nonstate purchasers.

Resources and processes which may be used to substitute for traditional energy and water supplies and for the purpose of electrical generation at state facilities include, but are not limited to, cogeneration, biomass, wind, geothermal, vapor compression, water reclamation, and solar technologies.

It is the intent of the Legislature that no policy in this section, expressed or implied, be in conflict with existing state or federal regulations regarding the production or sale of electricity or water, and that this policy be just and reasonable to utility ratepayers.

SEC. 8. Section 25008.5 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25008.5. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that in order to maximize public benefit from private sector participation in state operations and to maximize the Legislature's ability to devote limited resources of the state to the responsibilities of state government that are less attractive to private sector investment, it is the policy of the state to encourage third-party financing of energy and water projects, including, but not limited to, cogeneration facilities, at state-owned sites.

(b) The Legislature further finds and declares that the development of energy and water projects at state-owned sites can be accelerated where reasonable incentives are provided to the siting institutions. These incentives are necessary to offset the long-term administrative, operational, and technical complexities of energy and water projects developed under this section. Reasonable incentives for implementing the policy of this section shall include the sharing of benefits derived from energy and water projects between the state and the siting institution. The benefits to the state and siting institutions derived from projects implemented under this section may include, but are not limited to, annual cash revenues, avoided capital costs, reduced energy costs, reduced water costs, site improvements, and additional operations and maintenance resources. The annual cash revenues derived from those projects shall be shared equally between the state and the siting institution, if both of the following conditions are met:
