(a) A program for identifying categories of occupational safety and health hazards causing the greatest number and most serious preventable injuries and illnesses and workers' compensation losses and the places of employment where they are occurring. The hazards, industries, and places of employment shall be identified from the data system that is used in the targeted inspection program pursuant to Section 6314.1. The division shall develop procedures for offering consultation services to high hazard employers who are identified pursuant to this section. The services may include the development of educational material and procedures for reducing or eliminating safety and health hazards, conducting workplace surveys to identify health and safety problems, and development of plans to improve employer health and safety loss records.

The program shall include a component for reducing the number of work-related, repetitive motion injuries, including, but not limited to, back injuries. The division may formulate recommendations for reducing repetitive motion injuries after conducting a survey of the workplace of the employer who accepts services of the division. The recommendations shall include, wherever appropriate, the application of generally accepted ergonomic and engineering principles to eliminate repetitive motions that are generally expected to result in injuries to workers. The recommendations shall also include, wherever appropriate, training programs to instruct workers in methods for performing job-related movements, such as lifting heavy objects, in a manner that minimizes strain and provides safeguards against injury.

The division shall establish model injury and illness prevention training programs to prevent repetitive motion injuries, including recommendations for the minimum qualifications of instructors. The model programs shall be made available to employers, employer associations, workers' compensation insurers, and employee organizations on request.

(b) A program for providing assistance in the development of injury prevention programs for employees and employers. The highest priority for the division's consulting services shall be given to development of these programs for businesses with fewer than 250 employees in industries identified in the regional plans developed pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 6314.1.

(c) A program for providing employers or employees with information, advice, and recommendations on maintaining safe employment or place of employment, and on applicable occupational safety and health standards, techniques, devices, methods, practices, or programs.

SEC. 70. Section 6355 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

6355. If the employer requests or accepts consulting services offered pursuant to Section 6354, the division in providing such services at the employer's employment or place of employment shall neither institute any prosecution under Section 6423 nor issue any citations for a violation of any standard or order adopted pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 140) of Division 1. In any instance in which the division representative providing the consulting service finds that the conditions of employment, place of employment, any work procedure, or the operation of any machine, device, apparatus, or equipment constitutes an imminent hazard or danger, within the meaning of Section 6325, to the lives, safety, or health of employees, entry therein, or the use thereof, as the case may be, shall be prohibited by the division pursuant to Section 6325. The employer shall not, however, be liable to prosecution under Section 6423, nor shall the division issue any citations or assess any civil penalties, except in any case where the employer fails to comply with the division's prohibition of entry or use, or in any case where the provisions of Section 6326 apply.

SEC. 71. Section 6357 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

6357. On or before January 1, 1995, the Occupational Safety and Health Standards Board shall adopt standards for ergonomics in the workplace designed to minimize the instances of injury from repetitive motion.

SEC. 72. The Legislature finds that significant reductions in workers' compensation losses experienced by employers over a period of more than one year prior to the effective date of this act justify a premium rate reduction. The amount of the reduction required by Section 11732.01 the Insurance Code has been established by the Legislature to provide needed relief to insured employers from the high cost of workers' compensation insurance while being adequate for insurers.

SEC. 74. Notwithstanding Section 13.60 of the Budget Act of 1993, all revenues derived from the imposition of fines and penalties assessed pursuant to Sections 129.5 and 4628 of the Labor Code shall be exempt from transfer to the unappropriated surplus of the General Fund.

SEC. 75. Nothing in this act shall be deemed to supersede or limit the operation of pilot projects approved by the administrative director pursuant to Section 4612 of the Labor Code. No provision or requirement of this act shall be deemed applicable to those pilot projects, or impose any requirements on them for any purpose.

SEC. 76. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 77. Except for those provisions amending, adding, or repealing sections of the Insurance Code, the provisions of this act apply only to injuries occurring on or after January 1, 1994.

SEC. 78. This act shall become operative only if Assembly Bill 119, Assembly Bill 1300, Senate Bill 484, and Senate Bill 983 are all enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1994.

SEC. 79. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

SEC. 80. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to make changes to California's workers' compensation system that are needed to provide immediate relief to California businesses and workers, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 122

An act to amend Sections 15814.16 and 15848 of the Government Code, relating to state facilities, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 16, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 16, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15814.16 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15814.16. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the amount necessary to pay monthly for electrical or thermal energy or water or conservation measures for any state agency under an energy service contract, or to pay for conservation measures or electrical or thermal energy or water received by any state agency from cogeneration or alternative energy equipment authorized to be constructed or acquired under this part or Part 10.5 (commencing with Section 15750), is hereby appropriated each fiscal year payable from the fund in the State Treasury from which an agency derives its appropriation for support, and shall become available only if the payments are due during a period that the state is operating without funds appropriated by the Budget Act for that fiscal year or if the amount required to pay the charges has not been included in the Budget Act for that fiscal year and the Department of Finance certifies to the Controller that sufficient funds are available for the support of the agency for these services. Also, in order for the appropriation to be available, the board shall certify that the payments for the year in question are anticipated to be less than would result from the purchase of electrical or thermal energy or water avoided by purchases under this part or Part 10.5 (commencing with Section 15750). This appropriation shall be inoperative as to any facility that is transferred to the jurisdiction of the Department of General Services or another state agency pursuant to Section 15814.17 or 15816, to any facility transferred to a state agency pursuant to a joint powers agreement, or to any facility the title of which has vested in the Regents of the University of California, the Trustees of the California State University, the Board of Governors of the California Maritime Academy, or any community college district pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 15816.

SEC. 1.5. Section 15848 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15848. Notwithstanding Section 13340 or any other provision of law, the amount as may be necessary to pay the rent of any agency occupying space in a facility authorized to be acquired or constructed under the State Building Construction Act of 1955 or a facility leased by a state agency pursuant to a joint powers agreement in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 7 of Title 1 is hereby appropriated each fiscal year payable from the fund in the State Treasury from which that agency derives its appropriation for support and shall become available only if the rental payments are due during a period that the state is operating without funds appropriated by the Budget Act for that fiscal year or if the amount required to pay the rental payments has not been included in the Budget Act for that fiscal year and the Department of Finance certifies to the Controller that sufficient funds are available for the support of the agency for that portion of the facility that has been provided for its use and the facility or portion thereof is available for the use and occupancy of the agency. This appropriation shall be inoperative as to any facility that is transferred to the jurisdiction of the Department of General Services pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 15816, to any facility transferred to a state agency pursuant to a joint powers agreement, or to any facility the title of which has vested in the Regents of the University of California, the Trustees of the California State University, the Board of Governors of the California Maritime Academy, or any community college district pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 15816.

In order to prevent a credit problem in the 1993–94 fiscal year caused by the state's inability to make its payments for certain energy conservation measures and its rental payments on state facility leases that support outstanding revenue bonds or certificates of participation in the event a budget bill is not enacted in a timely manner, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 123

An act to amend Section 421 of, and to add Section 5012 to, the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utilities, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 16, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 16, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 421 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

421. (a) The commission shall annually determine a fee to be paid by every passenger stage corporation, charter-party carrier of passengers, pipeline corporation, for-hire vessel operator, common carrier vessel operator, railroad corporation, and commercial air operator and every other common carrier and related business subject to the jurisdiction of the commission, except as otherwise provided in Article 3 (commencing with Section 431) of this chapter and Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 5001) of Division 2.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the fees paid by railroad corporations shall be used for state-funded railroad investigation and enforcement activities of the commission, other than the rail safety activities funded by the Transportation Planning and Development Account pursuant to Section 99315.5. The railroad fees shall be set annually at a level which generates not less than the amount sufficient to fund activities pursuant to Section 765.5.

(d) On January 1, 1992, the commission shall submit to the Legislature a detailed budget implementing this section for the 1992–93 fiscal year. The commission shall also submit to the Legislature by January 1, 1993, and on each January 1 thereafter, a detailed budget for expenditure of railroad corporation fees for the ensuing budget year. The budget for expenditure of railroad corporation fees shall include, at a minimum, the following line items:

(1) Expenditures for railroad-safety personnel directly involved in inspecting railroads and enforcing rail safety regulations.

(2) Expenditures for clerical and support staff directly associated with railroad-safety inspections.

(3) Expenditures for personnel related to railroad operations, but not directly involved in railroad-safety activities.

(4) Expenditures for the pro rata share of commission overhead costs attributed to the railroad-safety program.

(e) The Department of Finance shall notify the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, pursuant to Section 28.00 of the annual Budget Act, prior to authorizing any change in the Budget Act appropriation for railroad corporation fees that are larger than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), or 10 percent of the amount budgeted, whichever is less.

(f) Commencing with the 1993–94 fiscal year, and in each subsequent fiscal year, the commission shall conduct an audit of the expenditure of the funds received pursuant to this section. The results of this audit shall be reported, in writing, commencing on or before February 15, 1995, with respect to the audit for the 1993–94 fiscal year, and on or before February 15 of each year thereafter, with respect to the audit for the fiscal year ending on the previous June 30, to the appropriate policy and budget committees of the respective houses of the Legislature.

(g) On or before January 1, 1994, the commission shall hire a minimum of four additional operating practices inspectors, exclusive of supervisory personnel, who are, or shall become, by July 1, 1994, federally certified, for the purpose of enforcing compliance by railroads operating in this state with state and federal safety regulations.

SEC. 2. (a) The amount of two million nine hundred thousand dollars ($2,900,000) is hereby appropriated from the Transportation Reimbursement Account to the Public Utilities Commission for the purpose of freight rail safety inspection and enforcement programs under Section 765 of the Public Utilities Code.

(b) The funds appropriated in subdivision (a) shall be expended in accordance with all of the following conditions:

(1) The funds shall be expended in accordance with subdivisions (b), (c), and (d) of Section 309.7 of, and subdivision (c) of Section 421 of, the Public Utilities Code.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Public Utilities Commission shall, on or before October 1, 1993, complete the hiring and qualification process for all safety inspectors required by Sections 309.7 and 765.5 of the Public Utilities Code.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Public Utilities Commission shall, on or before October 1, 1993, establish a minimum railroad safety inspection standard as required in subdivision (f) of Section 765.5 of the Public Utilities Code.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Public Utilities Commission shall, on or before October 1, 1993, complete the identification of local hazardous rail sites as required by Section 7711 of the Public Utilities Code.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Public Utilities Commission shall, on or before January 1, 1994, adopt a plan and timeline for abating the local hazards, including the adoption of regulations as required by Section 7712 of the Public Utilities Code.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Public Utilities Commission shall expend no funds from the appropriation made by subdivision (a) for the support of personnel in either the Division of Strategic Planning or the Division of Ratepayer Advocates.

(7) Expenditures made pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 421 of the Public Utilities Code shall be limited to no more than two hundred ninety thousand dollars ($290,000).

SEC. 3. Section 5012 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

5012. Commencing with the 1993–94 fiscal year, and each subsequent fiscal year, the Public Utilities Commission shall conduct an audit of the expenditures of the funds received pursuant to this chapter. The results of this audit shall be reported in writing, commencing on or before February 15, 1995, with respect to the audit for the 1993–94 fiscal year, and on or before February 15th of each year thereafter, with respect to the audit for the fiscal year ending on the previous June 30th, to the appropriate policy and budget committees of the respective houses of the Legislature.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

An emergency currently exists, in that dangerous conditions may exist on the state's railroads. These dangerous conditions can be ameliorated by the effective railroad safety inspection and enforcement program, to be administered by the Public Utilities Commission, that would be established by this act. It is therefore necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 124

An act to add Section 5026 to the Penal Code, relating to undocumented aliens.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5026 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

5026. The Department of Corrections shall cooperate with the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service by providing the use of prison facilities, transportation, and general support, as needed, for the purposes of conducting and expediting deportation hearings and subsequent placement of deportation holds on undocumented aliens who are incarcerated in state prison.

CHAPTER 125

An act to amend Sections 5371.3 and 5391.2 of, and to amend and repeal Sections 404, 5373.1, 5383, and 5392 of, the Public Utilities Code, and to repeal Section 9 of Chapter 1336 of the Statutes of 1989, relating to carriers.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 404 of the Public Utilities Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 636 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

404. (a) All fees paid pursuant to this chapter, exclusive of any penalties for delinquency, shall be allowed by the commission in a separate order as an ordinary operating expense for purposes of establishing rates or charges. The commission shall authorize each person or corporation subject to Section 421 or 431 to annually adjust its rates or charges for intrastate services so as to collect from its customers and subscribers an amount sufficient to pay the amount of the fee required by Section 421 or 431 together with the costs of collecting the fee from each customer or subscriber.

(b) The commission shall adopt rules to determine the appropriate level of fees for carriers that provide transportation services incidental to commercial balloon operations, commercial river rafting, or skiing.

(c) Each person or corporation subject to Section 421 or 431 may identify separately, on the bill of each customer or subscriber, the amount to be paid by each customer or subscriber for purposes of funding the commission pursuant to this chapter.

(d) Persons or corporations subject to Section 421 or 431 shall pay the fee in accordance with Section 423 or 433 after collection from their customers or subscribers.

SEC. 2. Section 404 of the Public Utilities Code, as added by Section 1.6 of Chapter 1336 of the Statutes of 1989, is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 5371.3 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

5371.3. A class C certificate holder is one who provides transportation services incidental to commercial balloon operations, commercial river rafting, or skiing. This section does not apply to certificates issued under Section 5371.1 or 5371.2.

SEC. 4. Section 5373.1 of the Public Utilities Code, as amended by Section 12 of Chapter 65 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

5373.1. (a) Each application for a charter-party carrier of passengers certificate or permit shall be accompanied by a filing fee as follows:

(1) Class A certificates—five hundred dollars ($500).

(2) Class B certificates—five hundred dollars ($500).

(3) Class C certificates—five hundred dollars ($500).

(4) Permits—five hundred dollars ($500).

(b) The commission shall also require each application to be accompanied by a fee to offset the cost of the charter-party carrier bus terminal inspections conducted by the Department of the California Highway Patrol. The fee shall be fifteen dollars ($15) per tour bus, as defined in Section 612 of the Vehicle Code, or a maximum of six thousand five hundred dollars ($6,500) for each operating carrier.

(c) The commission shall require each charter-party carrier that operates tour buses, as defined in Section 612 of the Vehicle Code, to undergo an annual bus terminal inspection conducted by the Department of the California Highway Patrol and to pay an annual fee of fifteen dollars ($15) per tour bus, or a maximum of six thousand five hundred dollars ($6,500), to offset the cost of the inspections.

(d) The commission shall deposit the fees collected pursuant to subdivisions (b) and (c) in the Motor Vehicle Account in the State Transportation Fund.

SEC. 5. Section 5373.1 of the Public Utilities Code, as amended by Section 13 of Chapter 65 of the Statutes of 1990, is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 5383 of the Public Utilities Code, as amended by Section 3 of Chapter 636 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

5383. The commission shall create the following classifications or types of certificates for charter-party carriers of passengers:

Class A: from any point or points within the state to other points in or out of this state.

Class B: from any point within the territory of origin specified in the certificate to any points in the state, or territory of origin.

Class C: services provided incidental to commercial balloon operations, commercial river rafting, or skiing where no additional compensation is provided for the transportation.

SEC. 7. Section 5383 of the Public Utilities Code, as added by Section 5 of Chapter 1336 of the Statutes of 1989, is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 5391.2 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

5391.2. Notwithstanding Section 5391, in granting certificates to the holders of class C certificates, the commission shall require that those carriers procure and continue in effect adequate protection against liability imposed by law upon the carrier for the payment of damages for personal bodily injuries, including death resulting therefrom; protection against a total liability of the carrier of passengers on account of bodily injuries to, or death of, more than one person as a result of any one accident; and protection against damage or destruction of property. The requirement of that assurance of protection against liability shall be seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) per accident.

SEC. 9. Section 5392 of the Public Utilities Code, as amended by Section 7 of Chapter 1336 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

5392. The protection required under Sections 5391 and 5391.2 shall be evidenced by the deposit of any of the following with the commission covering each vehicle used or to be used under the certificate or permit applied for:

(a) A policy of insurance, issued by a company licensed to write insurance in this state, or by nonadmitted insurers subject to Section 1763 of the Insurance Code, if the policies meet the rules promulgated therefor by the commission.

(b) A bond of a surety company licensed to write surety bonds in the state.

(c) Evidence of the qualification of the charter-party carrier of passengers as a self-insurer as may be authorized by the commission.

SEC. 10. Section 5392 of the Public Utilities Code, as added by Section 8 of Chapter 1336 of the Statutes of 1989, is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 9 of Chapter 1336 of the Statutes of 1989 is repealed.

SEC. 12. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Section 13519.7 to the Penal Code, relating to sexual harassment.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13519.7 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

13519.7. (a) On or before August 1, 1994, the commission shall develop complaint guidelines to be followed by city police departments, county sheriffs' departments, districts, and state university departments, for peace officers who are victims of sexual harassment in the workplace. In developing the complaint guidelines, the commission shall consult with appropriate groups and individuals having an expertise in the area of sexual harassment.

(b) The course of basic training for law enforcement officers shall, no later than January 1, 1995, include instruction on sexual harassment in the workplace. The training shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) The definition of sexual harassment.

(2) A description of sexual harassment, utilizing examples.

(3) The illegality of sexual harassment.

(4) The complaint process, legal remedies, and protection from retaliation available to victims of sexual harassment.

In developing this training, the commission shall consult with appropriate groups and individuals having an interest and expertise in the area of sexual harassment.

(c) All peace officers who have received their basic training before January 1, 1995, shall receive supplementary training on sexual harassment in the workplace by January 1, 1997.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 667.6 and 1203.065 of the Penal Code, relating to sentencing.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 667.6 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

667.6. (a) Any person who is found guilty of violating paragraph (2), (3), or (7) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, Section 264.1, subdivision (b) of Section 288, Section 288.5 or 289, of committing sodomy in violation of subdivision (k) of Section 286, of committing oral copulation in violation of subdivision (k) of Section 288a, or of committing sodomy or oral copulation in violation of Section 286 or 288a by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person who has been convicted previously of any of those offenses shall receive a five-year enhancement for each of those prior convictions provided that no enhancement shall be imposed under this subdivision for any conviction occurring prior to a period of 10 years in which the person remained free of both prison custody and the commission of an offense which results in a felony conviction. In addition to the five-year enhancement imposed under this subdivision, the court also may impose a fine not to exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for anyone sentenced under these provisions. The fine imposed and collected pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited in the Victim-Witness Assistance Fund to be available for appropriation to fund child sexual exploitation and child sexual abuse victim counseling centers and prevention programs established pursuant to Section 13837.

(b) Any person convicted of an offense specified in subdivision (a) who has served two or more prior prison terms as defined in Section 667.5 for any offense specified in subdivision (a), shall receive a 10-year enhancement for each of those prior terms provided that no additional enhancement shall be imposed under this subdivision for any prison term served prior to a period of 10 years in which the person remained free of both prison custody and the commission of an offense which results in a felony conviction. In addition to the 10-year enhancement imposed under this subdivision, the court also may impose a fine not to exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for any person sentenced under this subdivision. The fine imposed and collected pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited in the Victim-Witness Assistance Fund to be available for appropriation to fund child sexual exploitation and child sexual abuse victim counseling centers and prevention programs established pursuant to Section 13837.

(c) In lieu of the term provided in Section 1170.1, a full, separate, and consecutive term may be imposed for each violation of Section 220, other than an assault with intent to commit mayhem, provided that the person has been convicted previously of violating Section 220 for an offense other than an assault with intent to commit mayhem, paragraph (2) , (3), or (7) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, Section 264.1, subdivision (b) of Section 288, Section 288.5 or 289, of committing sodomy in violation of subdivision (k) of Section 286, of committing oral copulation in violation of subdivision (k) of Section 288a, or of committing sodomy or oral copulation in violation of Section 286 or 288a by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person whether or not the crimes were committed during a single transaction. If the term is imposed consecutively pursuant to this subdivision, it shall be served consecutively to any other term of imprisonment, and shall commence from the time the person otherwise would have been released from imprisonment. The term shall not be included in any determination pursuant to Section 1170.1. Any other term imposed subsequent to that term shall not be merged therein but shall commence at the time the person otherwise would have been released from prison.

(d) A full, separate, and consecutive term shall be served for each violation of Section 220, other than an assault with intent to commit mayhem, provided that the person has been convicted previously of violating Section 220 for an offense other than an assault with intent to commit mayhem, paragraph (2), (3), or (7) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, Section 264.1, subdivision (b) of Section 288, Section 289, of committing sodomy in violation of subdivision (k) of Section 286, of committing oral copulation in violation of subdivision (k) of Section 288a, or of committing sodomy or oral copulation in violation of Section 286 or 288a by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person if the crimes involve separate victims or involve the same victim on separate occasions.

In determining whether crimes against a single victim were committed on separate occasions under this subdivision, the court shall consider whether, between the commission of one sex crime and another, the defendant had a reasonable opportunity to reflect upon his or her actions and nevertheless resumed sexually assaultive behavior. Neither the duration of time between crimes, nor whether or not the defendant lost or abandoned his or her opportunity to attack, shall be, in and of itself, determinative on the issue of whether the crimes in question occurred on separate occasions.

The term shall be served consecutively to any other term of imprisonment and shall commence from the time the person otherwise would have been released from imprisonment. The term shall not be included in any determination pursuant to Section 1170.1. Any other term imposed subsequent to that term shall not be merged therein but shall commence at the time the person otherwise would have been released from prison.

(e) If the court orders a fine to be imposed pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b), the actual administrative cost of collecting that fine, not to exceed 2 percent of the total amount paid, may be paid into the general fund of the county treasury for the use and benefit of the county.

SEC. 2. Section 1203.065 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.065. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, probation shall not be granted to, nor shall the execution or imposition of sentence be suspended for, any person convicted of violating paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, Section 264.1, Section 266h, Section 266i, Section 266j, or subdivision (a) of Section 289, or of committing sodomy or oral copulation in violation of Section 286 or 288a by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person or subdivision (c) of Section 311.4.

(b) Except in unusual cases where the interests of justice would best be served if the person is granted probation, probation shall not be granted to any person convicted of a violation of paragraph (7) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, a violation of subdivision (k) of Section 286, a violation of subdivision (k) of Section 288a, convicted of a violation of Section 220 for assault with intent to commit any of the following: rape, sodomy, oral copulation, any violation of Section 264.1, any violation of subdivision (b) of Section 288, or any violation of Section 289.

When probation is granted, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter on the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by such a disposition.

(c) This section does not prohibit the adjournment of criminal proceedings pursuant to Division 3 (commencing with Section 3000) or Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

CHAPTER 128

An act to amend Sections 401 and 710 of, and to repeal and add Section 194 of, the Corporations Code, relating to corporations.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that confusion has arisen over the use of written consents of shareholders to approve actions requiring the approval of the outstanding shares under Section 152 of the Corporations Code. The Legislature declares that it is and has been the intent of Section 194 of the Corporations Code to permit the use of written consents in connection with approvals by the outstanding shares, as well as the other sections of the General Corporation Law where the term "vote" is used. This reenactment of Section 194 is intended to be declarative of the Legislature's original intent in enacting Section 194.

SEC. 2. Section 194 of the Corporations Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 194 is added to the Corporations Code, to read:

194. "Vote" includes authorization by written consent, subject to the provisions of subdivision (b) of Section 307 and subdivision (d) of Section 603.

SEC. 4. Section 401 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

401. (a) Before any corporation issues any shares of any class or series of which the rights, preferences, privileges, and restrictions, or any of them, or the number of shares constituting any series or the designation of the series, are not set forth in its articles but are fixed in a resolution adopted by the board pursuant to authority given by its articles, an officers' certificate shall be executed and filed, setting forth: (1) a copy of the resolution; (2) the number of shares of the class or series; and (3) that none of the shares of the class or series has been issued.

(c) After any certificate of determination has been filed, the board may, if authorized in the articles pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 202, increase or decrease the number of shares constituting any series, by the adoption of another resolution appropriate for that purpose and the execution and filing of an officers' certificate setting forth a copy of the resolution, the number of shares of the series then outstanding and the increase or decrease in the number of shares constituting the series. If any certificate of determination has been incorporated in restated articles filed pursuant to Section 910, the action authorized by this subdivision may, notwithstanding Section 902, be accomplished by an amendment of the articles approved by the board alone.

(d) After shares of a class or series have been issued, the provisions of the resolution set forth in a certificate of determination may be amended only by the adoption and approval of an amendment in accordance with Section 902, 903, or 904 and the filing of a certificate of amendment in accordance with Sections 905 and 908. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, a certificate to increase or decrease the number of shares of a series also may be filed as permitted by subdivision (c).

(e) A provision in a certificate of determination being amended pursuant to subdivision (b), (c), or (d) shall be identified in the amendment in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 907.

(f) If a certificate is filed pursuant to subdivision (c) to decrease the number of shares of a series to zero, the certificate of determination whereby the series was established is thereupon no longer in force and the series is no longer an authorized series of the corporation.

(g) If the rights, preferences, privileges, and restrictions of the class or series contain a supermajority vote provision, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 710, subject to Section 710, the officers' certificate shall also state that the provision has been approved by the shareholders in accordance with subdivision (c) of Section 710.

SEC. 5. Section 710 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

710. (a) This section applies to a corporation with outstanding shares held of record by 100 or more persons (determined as provided in Section 605) which files an amendment of articles or certificate of determination containing a "supermajority vote" provision on or after January 1, 1989 ; provided that this section shall not apply to a corporation which files an amendment of articles or certificate of determination on or after January 1, 1994, if, at the time of filing, the corporation has (1) outstanding shares of more than one class or series of stock; (2) no class of equity securities registered under Section 12(b) or 12(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; (3) outstanding securities held of record by fewer than 300 persons determined as provided by Section 605; and (4) no supermajority vote provision, and has never had a supermajority vote provision, subject to the requirement of readoption under subdivision (c).

(b) A "supermajority vote" is a requirement set forth in the articles or in a certificate of determination authorized under any provision of this division that specified corporate action or actions be approved by a larger proportion of the outstanding shares than a majority, or by a larger proportion of the outstanding shares of a class or series than a majority, but no supermajority vote which is subject to this section shall require a vote in excess of 66⅔ percent of the outstanding shares or 66⅔ percent of the outstanding shares of any class or series of such shares.

(c) An amendment of the articles or a certificate of determination that includes a supermajority vote requirement shall be approved by at least as large a proportion of the outstanding shares (Section 152) as is required pursuant to that amendment or certificate of determination for the approval of the specified corporate action or actions. The supermajority vote requirement shall cease to be effective two years after the filing of the most recent filing of the amendment or certificate of determination to adopt or readopt the supermajority vote requirement. At any time within one year before the applicable expiration date, a supermajority vote requirement may be renewed, and at any time after the expiration date, a supermajority vote requirement may again be made effective for another two-year period, by readopting the provision and filing a certificate of amendment pursuant to, and subject to the limitations of, this subdivision. If the provision is not readopted in this manner, then the particular corporate action or actions previously subject to the supermajority vote shall thereafter require a vote of only a majority of either the outstanding shares or the shares of the specified class or series which had previously been subject to the supermajority vote provision, whichever the case may be.

CHAPTER 129

An act to amend Section 5133 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to carriers.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5133 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

5133. No household goods carrier shall engage, or attempt to engage, in the business of the transportation of used household goods and personal effects, office, store, and institution furniture and fixtures for compensation, by motor vehicle over any public highway in this state, unless there is in force a permit issued by the commission authorizing those operations.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 97.035, 4702, 4702.7, and 4715 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to local government finance, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 97.035 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Senate Bill 1135 of the 1993–94 Regular Session, is amended to read:

97.035. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the computations and allocations made by each county pursuant to Section 97, as modified by Section 97.03 for the 1992–93 fiscal year, shall be modified for the 1993–94 fiscal year pursuant to subdivisions (a) to (c), inclusive, as follows:

(a) The amount of property tax revenue deemed allocated in the prior fiscal year to each county and city and county shall be reduced by an amount to be determined by the Director of Finance in accordance with the following:

(1) The total amount of the property tax reductions for counties and cities and counties determined pursuant to this section shall be one billion nine hundred ninety-eight million dollars ($1,998,000,000) in the 1993–94 fiscal year.

(2) The Director of Finance shall determine the amount of the reduction for each county or city and county as follows:

(A) The proportionate share of the property tax revenue reduction for each county or city and county that would have been imposed on all counties under the proposal specified in the "May Revision of the 1993–94 Governor's Budget" shall be determined by reference to the document entitled "Estimated County Property Tax Transfers Under Governor's May Revision Proposal," published by the Legislative Analyst's Office on June 1, 1993.

(B) Each county's or city and county's proportionate share of total taxable sales in all counties in the 1991–92 fiscal year shall be determined.

(C) An amount for each county and city and county shall be determined by applying its proportionate share determined pursuant to subparagraph (A) to the one billion nine hundred ninety-eight million dollar ($1,998,000,000) statewide reduction for counties and cities and counties.

(D) An amount for each county and city and county shall be determined by applying its proportionate share determined pursuant to subparagraph (B) to the one billion nine hundred ninety-eight million dollar ($1,998,000,000) statewide reduction for counties and cities and counties.

(E) The Director of Finance shall add the amounts determined pursuant to subparagraphs (C) and (D) for each county and city and county, and divide the resulting figure by two. The amount so determined for each county and city and county shall be divided by a factor of 1.038. The resulting figure shall be the amount of property tax revenue to be subtracted from the amount of property tax revenue deemed allocated in the prior fiscal year.

(3) The Director of Finance shall, by July 15, 1993, report to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee its determination of the amounts determined pursuant to paragraph (2).

(4) On or before August 15, 1993, the Director of Finance shall notify the auditor of each county and city and county of the amount of property tax revenue reduction determined for each county and city and county.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subdivision, the amount of the reduction specified in paragraph (1) for any county or city and county that has first implemented, for the 1993–94 fiscal year, the alternative procedure for the distribution of property tax levies authorized by Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 4701) of Part 8 shall be reduced, for the 1993–94 fiscal year only, in the amount of any increased revenue allocated to school districts, county offices of education, and community college districts that would not have been allocated for the 1993–94 fiscal year but for the implementation of that alternative procedure.

(b) The amount of property tax revenue deemed allocated in the prior fiscal year to each city shall be reduced by an amount to be determined by the Director of Finance in accordance with the following:

(1) The total amount of the property tax reductions determined for cities pursuant to this section shall be two hundred eighty-eight million dollars ($288,000,000) in the 1993–94 fiscal year.

(2) The Director of Finance shall determine the amount of reduction for each city as follows:

(A) The amount of property tax revenue that is estimated to be attributable in the 1993–94 fiscal year to the amount of each city's state assistance payment received by that city pursuant to Chapter 282 of the Statutes of 1979 shall be determined.

(B) A factor for each city equal to the amount determined pursuant to subparagraph (A) for that city, divided by the total of the amounts determined pursuant to subparagraph (A) for all cities, shall be determined.

(C) An amount for each city equal to the factor determined pursuant to subparagraph (B), multiplied by three hundred eighty-two million five hundred thousand dollars ($382,500,000), shall be determined.

(D) In no event shall the amount for any city determined pursuant to subparagraph (C) exceed a per capita amount of nineteen dollars and thirty-one cents ($19.31), as determined in accordance with that city's population on January 1, 1993, as estimated by the Department of Finance.

(E) The amount determined for each city pursuant to subparagraphs (C) and (D) shall be the amount of property tax revenue to be subtracted from the amount of property tax revenue deemed allocated in the prior year.

(3) The Director of Finance shall, by July 15, 1993, report to the Joint Legislative Budget Committee those amounts determined pursuant to paragraph (2).

(4) On or before August 15, 1993, the Director of Finance shall notify each county auditor of the amount of property tax revenue reduction determined for each city located within that county.

(c) (1) The amount of property tax revenue deemed allocated in the prior fiscal year to each special district shall be reduced by the amount determined for the district pursuant to paragraph (3) and increased by the amount determined for the district pursuant to paragraph (4). The total net amount of these changes is intended to equal two hundred forty-four million dollars ($244,000,000) in the 1993–94 fiscal year.

(2) For purposes of this section, "special district" does not include a local hospital district as described in Division 23 (commencing with Section 32000) of the Health and Safety Code, a water agency that does not sell water at retail, or a transit district.

(3) On or before September 15, 1993, the county auditor shall determine an amount for each special district equal to the amount of its allocation determined pursuant to Sections 96 or 97, and 98 for the 1993–94 fiscal year multiplied by the ratio determined pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 98.6 as that section read on June 15, 1993. In those counties that were subject to Sections 98.65, 98.66, 98.67, and 98.68, the county auditor shall determine an amount for each special district that represents the current amount of its allocation determined pursuant to Sections 96 or 97, and 98 for the 1993–94 fiscal year that is attributed to the property tax shift from schools required by Chapter 282 of the Statutes of 1979. In determining this amount, the county auditor shall adjust for the influence of increased assessed valuation within each district, including the effect of jurisdictional changes, and the reductions in property tax allocations required in the 1992–93 fiscal year by Chapters 699 and 1369 of the Statutes of 1992. In no event shall the amount determined by this paragraph be less than zero.

(4) On or before September 15, 1993, the county auditor shall determine an amount for each special district which is engaged in fire protection activities, as reported to the Controller for inclusion in the Financial Transactions Report Concerning Special Districts under the heading of "Fire Protection," which is equal to the amount of revenue allocated to that special district from the Special District Augmentation Fund for fire protection activities in the 1992–93 fiscal year. In those counties subject to Sections 98.65, 98.66, 98.67, and 98.68, the county auditor shall determine an amount which is equal to the amount by which the allocation of each special district for fire protection activities exceeds the allocation which would have been received by that district for fire protection activities had Section 98.6 continued to govern the allocation of property tax revenues to special districts in those counties.

(5) The total amount of property taxes allocated to special districts by the county auditor as a result of paragraph (4) shall be subtracted from the amount of property tax revenues not allocated to special districts by the county auditor as a result of paragraph (3) to determine the amount to be deposited in the Education Revenue Augmentation Fund as specified in subdivision (d).

(6) On or before September 30, 1993, the county auditor shall notify the Director of Finance of the net amount determined for special districts pursuant to paragraph (5).

(d) (1) The amount of property tax revenues not allocated to the county, city and county, cities within the county, and special districts as a result of the reductions required by subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) shall instead be deposited in the Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund established in each county or city and county pursuant to Section 97.03. The amount of revenue in the Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund, derived from whatever source, shall be allocated pursuant to paragraphs (2) and (3) to school districts and county offices of education, in total, and to community college districts, in total, in the same proportion that property tax revenues were distributed to school districts and county offices of education, in total, and community college districts, in total, during the 1992–93 fiscal year.

(2) The county auditor shall, based on information provided by the county superintendent of schools pursuant to this paragraph, allocate that proportion of the revenue in the Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund to be allocated to school districts and county offices of education only to those school districts and county offices of education within the county that are not excess tax school entities, as defined in Section 95.1. The county superintendent of schools shall determine the amount to be allocated to each school district and county office of education in inverse proportion to the amounts of property tax revenue per average daily attendance in each school district and county office of education. In no event shall any additional money be allocated from the Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund to a school district or county office of education upon that district or county office of education becoming an excess tax school entity. If, after determining the amount to be allocated to each school district and county office of education, the county superintendent of schools determines there are still additional funds to be allocated, the county superintendent of schools shall determine the remainder to be allocated in inverse proportion to the amounts of property tax revenue, excluding Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund moneys, per average daily attendance in each remaining school district and county office of education that is not an excess tax school entity until all funds that would not result in a school district or county office of education becoming an excess tax school entity are allocated. The county superintendent of schools may determine the amounts to be allocated between each school district and county office of education to ensure that all funds that would not result in a school district or county office of education becoming an excess tax school entity are allocated.

(3) The county auditor shall, based on information provided by the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges pursuant to this paragraph, allocate that proportion of the revenue in the Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund to be allocated to community college districts only to those community college districts within the county that are not excess tax school entities, as defined in Section 95.1. The chancellor shall determine the amount to be allocated to each community college district in inverse proportion to the amounts of property tax revenue per funded full-time equivalent student in each community college district. In no event shall any additional money be allocated from the Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund to a community college district upon that district becoming an excess tax school entity.

(4) If, after making the allocation required pursuant to paragraph (2), the auditor determines that there are still additional funds to be allocated, the auditor shall allocate those excess funds pursuant to paragraph (3). If, after making the allocation pursuant to paragraph (3), the auditor determines that there are still additional funds to be allocated, the auditor shall allocate those excess funds pursuant to paragraph (2). If, after determining the amount to be allocated to each community college district, the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges determines that there are still additional funds to be allocated, the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges shall determine the remainder to be allocated to each community college district in inverse proportion to the amounts of property tax revenue, excluding Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund moneys, per funded full-time equivalent student in each remaining community college district that is not an excess tax school entity until all funds that would not result in a community college district becoming an excess tax school entity are allocated.

(5) For purposes of allocations made pursuant to Section 97 for the 1994–95 fiscal year, the amounts allocated from the Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund pursuant to this subdivision, other than those amounts deposited in the Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund pursuant to any provision of the Health and Safety Code, shall be deemed property tax revenue allocated to the Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund in the prior fiscal year.

SEC. 2. Section 4702 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4702. (a) The procedure authorized by this chapter may be placed in effect in any county by resolution of the board of supervisors of that county adopted not later than July 15th of the fiscal year for which it is to first apply and shall thereafter remain in effect unless the board orders its discontinuance or unless, prior to the commencement of any subsequent fiscal year, the board receives a petition for its discontinuance joined in by resolutions duly adopted by the governing boards of not less than two-thirds of the participating revenue districts in the county, in which event the board shall order discontinuance of the procedure effective at the commencement of the subsequent fiscal year.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), for the 1993–94 fiscal year only, the procedure authorized by this chapter may be placed in effect in any county by resolution of the board of supervisors of that county adopted not later than October 15, 1993, and shall remain in effect unless otherwise discontinued in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

SEC. 3. Section 4702.7 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4702.7. In any county electing to follow the procedure authorized by this chapter, the board of supervisors, by resolution adopted in accordance with Section 4702, after holding a public hearing on the matter, may discontinue those procedures with respect to any tax levying agency or assessment levying agency in the county if the rate of secured tax delinquency in that agency in any year exceeds 3 percent of the total of all taxes and assessments levied on the secured rolls in that agency.

SEC. 4. Section 4715 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4715. This chapter shall have no application to tax levies made by counties on behalf of public districts for which the county treasury is not the legal depositary unless agreed to by a resolution of the governing board of the public district and the board of supervisors of the county, adopted in accordance with Section 4702 for the fiscal year in which this procedure is to apply to that public district.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 6. This act shall become operative only if Senate Bill 1135 of the 1993–94 Regular Session adds Sections 97.035 and 11005.7 to the Revenue and Taxation Code and is chaptered before this act and on or before January 1, 1994.

SEC. 7. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide for the allocation of state and local governmental revenues in a manner consistent with the resolution of the current severe shortfall in state revenues, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 131

An act to add Section 1170.72 to the Penal Code, relating to controlled substances.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1170.72 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1170.72. Upon conviction of a violation of Section 11353, 11353.5, 11353.7, 11354, 11361, or 11380 of the Health and Safety Code, or a finding of truth of an enhancing allegation pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 11353.1, Section 11353.6, or paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 11380.1, the fact that the minor was 11 years of age or younger shall be considered a circumstance in aggravation when imposing a term under subdivision (b) of Section 1170.

CHAPTER 132

An act to amend Section 2076.5 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to medicine, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2076.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2076.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a physician and surgeon lawfully practicing medicine in another state or country may be exempted from licensure while practicing medicine in this state under the following conditions:

(1) The physician and surgeon has been invited by the XV FIFA World Cup Organizing Committee or United States Olympic Committee to provide medical services at training sites designated by either committee or at the olympic training center at San Diego or to provide medical services at an event in this state sanctioned by either committee.

(2) The XV FIFA World Cup Organizing Committee or the United States Olympic Committee certifies to the board the name of the physician and surgeon, the state or country of the applicant's licensure, and the dates within which the applicant has been invited to provide medical services.

(3) The physician and surgeon's practice is limited to that required by the XV FIFA World Cup Organizing Committee or the United States Olympic Committee. Those medical services shall be within the area of the physician's and surgeon's competence and shall only be provided to athletes or team personnel registered to train at the training sites designated by either committee or at the olympic training center or registered to compete in an event conducted under the sanction of the XV FIFA World Cup Organizing Committee or United States Olympic Committee.

(b) The exemption provided in this section shall remain in force while the holder is providing medical services at the invitation of the XV FIFA World Cup Organizing Committee or United States Olympic Committee and only during the time certified to the board, but in no event longer than 90 days.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the official team manager who is responsible for any team member participating in events at the invitation of the XV FIFA World Cup Organizing Committee or the United States Olympic Committee in California may give consent to the furnishing of hospital, medical, and surgical care to a minor who is a team member and that consent shall not be subject to disaffirmance because of minority. The consent of the parent, or parents, of that person shall not be necessary in order to authorize hospital, medical, and surgical care.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to allow the 1994 World Cup to provide timely and necessary medical care to its participants, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 133

An act to amend Section 21655.5 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21655.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

21655.5. (a) The Department of Transportation and local authorities, with respect to highways under their respective jurisdictions, may authorize or permit exclusive or preferential use of highway lanes for high-occupancy vehicles. Prior to establishing the lanes, competent engineering estimates shall be made of the effect of the lanes on safety, congestion, and highway capacity.

(b) The Department of Transportation and local authorities, with respect to highways under their respective jurisdictions, shall place and maintain, or cause to be placed and maintained, signs and other official traffic control devices to designate the exclusive or preferential lanes, to advise motorists of the applicable vehicle occupancy levels, and, except where ramp metering and bypass lanes are regulated with the activation of traffic signals, to advise motorists of the hours of high-occupancy vehicle usage. No person shall drive a vehicle upon those lanes except in conformity with the instructions imparted by the official traffic control devices. A motorcycle may be operated upon those exclusive or preferential lanes unless specifically prohibited by a traffic control device.

(c) When responding to an existing emergency or breakdown in which a mass-transit vehicle is blocking an exclusive or preferential use lane, a clearly marked mass transit vehicle, mass transit supervisor's vehicle, or mass transit maintenance vehicle that is responding to the emergency or breakdown may be operated in the segment of the exclusive or preferential use lane being blocked by the mass-transit vehicle, regardless of the number of persons in the vehicle responding to the emergency or breakdown, if both vehicles are owned or operated by the same agency, and that agency provides public mass transit services.

(d) For purposes of this section, a "mass transit vehicle" means a transit bus regularly used to transport paying passengers in mass transit service.

(e) It is the intent of the Legislature, in amending this section, to stimulate and encourage the development of ways and means of relieving traffic congestion on California highways and, at the same time, to encourage individual citizens to pool their vehicular resources and thereby conserve fuel and lessen emission of air pollutants.

CHAPTER 134

An act to amend Section 76 of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 76 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

76. (a) Every person who knowingly and willingly threatens the life of, or threatens serious bodily harm to, any elected state official, exempt appointee of the Governor, or judge, or the immediate family of the official, appointee, or judge, with the specific intent that the statement is to be taken as a threat, and the apparent ability to carry out that threat by any means, is guilty of a public offense, punishable as follows:

(2) If the person has been convicted previously of violating this section, the previous conviction shall be charged in the accusatory pleading, and if the previous conviction is found to be true by the jury upon a jury trial, or by the court upon a court trial, or is admitted by the defendant, the offense is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison.

(b) Any law enforcement agency which has knowledge of a violation of this section shall immediately report that information to the California State Police.

(c) For purposes of this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Apparent ability to carry out that threat" includes the ability to fulfill the threat at some future date when the person making the threat is an incarcerated prisoner with a stated release date.

(2) "Serious bodily harm" includes serious physical injury or serious traumatic condition.

(3) "Immediate family" means a spouse, parent, or child, or anyone who has regularly resided in the household for the past six months.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 135

An act to add Section 1031.1 to the Government Code, relating to peace officers.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The position of peace officer in the State of California requires a high level of responsibility and integrity.

(b) The Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training has validated, by statewide job analysis, 15 job dimensions that represent the major and critical areas of performance in entry level law enforcement. These dimensions include, among others, integrity, dependability, judgment under pressure, problem-solving ability, and observation skills.

(c) Existing statutory law and regulations of the commission require that an extensive background investigation be conducted prior to the appointment of a peace officer in order to ensure good moral character and the selection of qualified candidates.

(d) Law enforcement agencies have increasingly experienced refusals from employers to divulge information pertinent to peace officer applicants even with signed release waivers from applicants themselves, and this situation has seriously affected law enforcement's ability to conduct a thorough background investigation.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature that law enforcement have access to pertinent information about peace officer applicants in order to ensure that qualified individuals with good moral character are selected.

SEC. 3. Section 1031.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

1031.1. (a) For purposes of performing a thorough background investigation for applicants not currently employed as a peace officer, as required by subdivision (d) of Section 1031, an employer shall disclose employment information relating to a current or former employee, upon request of a law enforcement agency, if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The request is made in writing.

(2) The request is accompanied by a notarized authorization by the applicant releasing the employer of liability.

(3) The request and the authorization are presented to the employer by a sworn officer or other authorized representative of the employing law enforcement agency.

(b) In the absence of fraud or malice, no employer shall be subject to any civil liability for any relevant cause of action by virtue of releasing employment information required pursuant to this section. Nothing in this section is intended to, nor does in any way or manner, abrogate or lessen the existing common law or statutory privileges and immunities of an employer.

(c) For purposes of this section, "employment information" includes written information in connection with job applications, performance evaluations, attendance records, disciplinary actions, eligibility for rehire, and other information relevant to peace officer performance, except information prohibited from disclosure by any other state or federal law or regulation.

(d) An employer's refusal to disclose information to a law enforcement agency in accordance with this section shall constitute grounds for a civil action for injunctive relief requiring disclosure on the part of an employer.

(e) Employment information disclosed by an employer to an initial requesting law enforcement agency shall be deemed confidential. However, the initial requesting law enforcement agency may disclose this information to another authorized law enforcement agency that is also conducting a peace officer background investigation. Whenever this information is disclosed to another law enforcement agency, that agency shall utilize the information for investigative leads only and the information shall be independently verified by that agency in order to be used in determining the suitability of a peace officer applicant.

(f) An employer may charge reasonable fees to cover actual costs incurred in copying and furnishing documents to law enforcement agencies as required by this section.

CHAPTER 136

An act to amend Section 14131.2 of the Government Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14131.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14131.2. (a) Solely for the purpose of validating the selection of consultants completed prior to July 1, 1990, the Legislature hereby declares that the process of evaluating and selecting consultants for that list of projects specifically identified in the selection process undertaken during the period between June 13, 1989, and June 30,

1990, in support of the Riverside County Transportation Improvement Plan, as specified in Measure A on the November 8, 1988, ballot for Riverside County, is consistent with the requirements of this article, and the resultant numerically ranked list of consultants shall serve as the basis of negotiation and award of contracts by the department until September 19, 1992.

(b) The method of selecting consultants authorized by subdivision (a), and the resultant list, may be utilized until December 31, 1995, if (1) the process for prequalifying consultants is reopened to allow additional consultants the opportunity to qualify for inclusion in the list and (2), the prequalifying process is conducted at least annually.

CHAPTER 137

An act to add Section 1463.20 to the Penal Code, relating to violations.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1463.20 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1463.20. Notwithstanding any other law, fifty dollars ($50) of every parking penalty received by a local entity pursuant to Section 42001.5 of the Vehicle Code may be deposited by the treasurer of the local entity in a special account to be used by the local entity for the sole purposes of altering existing public facilities to make them accessible to persons with disabilities in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 12101, et seq.), and federal regulations adopted pursuant to that act, and covering the actual administrative cost of setting aside fifty dollars ($50) of every parking penalty received pursuant to Section 42001.5 of the Vehicle Code for that purpose.

CHAPTER 138

An act to amend Sections 66, 69, and 970 of the Military and Veterans Code, relating to the veterans.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. In enacting this act, it is the intent of the Legislature to enhance the ability of the California Veterans Board to adequately represent the interests of all veterans currently residing in California as the board fulfills its policymaking role.

SEC. 2. Section 66 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

66. (a) Until January 15, 1994, six members of the board shall be veterans as "veteran" is defined in Section 980, and one member of the board may, in lieu thereof, be a veteran as "veteran" is defined in Section 18540.4 of the Government Code. In addition, one member shall be retired from the active or reserve forces of the United States military service.

(b) On and after January 15, 1994, all members of the board shall be veterans as "veteran" is defined in Section 18540.4 of the Government Code. One of these members shall also be retired from the active or reserve forces of the United States military service. This subdivision shall not be construed to prohibit a member of the board who does not meet this requirement from serving the remainder of his or her term.

SEC. 3. Section 69 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

69. (a) The board shall hold meetings at times and at places as shall be determined by it.

(b) Special meetings may be called at any time by the chairperson or by the executive officer at the request of any four members, upon notice specifying the matters to be acted upon at the meeting, but no other matters shall be acted upon at these special meetings which were not so noticed.

SEC. 4. Section 970 of the Military and Veterans Code, as added by Section 2 of the Statutes of 1992, is amended to read:

970. (a) The board of supervisors of each county may, but is not required to, appoint, prescribe the qualifications of, and fix the compensation of an officer to be titled "county veterans service officer." The appointee shall be a veteran.

(b) It shall be the duty of the county veterans service officer to administer the aid provided for in this chapter, to investigate all claims, applications, or requests for aid made pursuant to the terms of this chapter, and to perform any other veteran related services as requested by the county board of supervisors.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), two or more counties may jointly establish a single veterans service office which shall serve all the counties that agree to the joint establishment of that office.

(d) This section shall become operative January 1, 1995.

CHAPTER 139

An act to amend Sections 88010.5 and 88029 of, to add Section 88040 to, and to repeal Sections 88031 and 88039 of, the Education Code, relating to community college employees, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 88010.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

88010.5. A classified employee employed by any community college district that decides to maintain classes on Saturday or Sunday, or both, shall not, without his or her written consent, be required to change his or her workweek to include Saturday or Sunday, or both. No classified employee shall be assigned to perform services on a Saturday or Sunday if the classified employee objects in writing that the assignment would conflict with his or her religious beliefs or practices. Enactment of this section shall cause no change or disruption in existing work schedules that may already include Saturday or Sunday as regular workdays.

This section shall not be construed as limiting the power of any governing board of a community college district to govern the schools of the district, including the assignment of classified employees employed by the district.

This section shall not be construed as modifying or otherwise affecting Section 88026, 88027, 88030, or 88040 or any other provisions of this code relating to employment of classified employees.

SEC. 2. Section 88029 of the Education Code is amended to read:

88029. Notwithstanding Sections 88026 and 88027, a personnel commission, when applicable, or a governing board of a community college district, may specify certain positions or classes of positions as supervisory, administrative, or executive and exclude the employees serving in those positions and the positions from the overtime provisions.

To be excluded from the overtime provisions, the positions or classes of positions must clearly and reasonably be management positions. In approving positions or classes of positions for exclusion from the overtime provisions, the personnel commission, when applicable, or the governing board of a district, shall certify, in writing, that the duties, flexibility of hours, salary, benefit structure, and authority of the positions or classes of positions are of such a nature that they should be set apart from those positions that are subject to the overtime provisions, and that employees serving in the excluded positions or classes of positions will not be unreasonably discriminated against as a result of the exclusion.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, if a person serving in an excluded position is required to work on a holiday, as provided for in this code, or by action of a governing board, he or she shall be paid, in addition to his or her regular pay for the holiday, compensation, or given compensating time off, at a rate not less than his or her normal rate of pay.

This section shall apply to districts that have adopted the merit system in the same manner and effect as if it were a part of Article 3 (commencing with Section 88060).

SEC. 3. Section 88031 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 88039 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 88040 is added to the Education Code, to read:

88040. (a) Notwithstanding Section 88026, the governing board of a community college district may establish the workday and workweek schedules of classified employees with the concurrence of the employee organization, or in the absence of an employee organization, the concurrence of the affected employee.

(b) This section applies to districts that have adopted the merit system in the same manner and effect as if it were a part of Article 3 (commencing with Section 88060).

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the provisions of this act may become effective in the current academic year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 140

An act to amend Section 205.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 205.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 1077 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

205.5. (a) Property that is owned by, and that constitutes the principal place of residence of, a veteran is exempted from taxation on that part of the full value of the residence that does not exceed forty thousand dollars ($40,000), if the veteran is blind in both eyes or has lost the use of two or more limbs as a result of injury or disease incurred in military service or that does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), if the veteran is totally disabled as a result of injury or disease incurred in military service. The forty thousand dollar ($40,000) exemption shall be sixty thousand dollars ($60,000), and the one hundred thousand dollar ($100,000) exemption shall be one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000), in the case of an eligible veteran whose household income as defined in Section 20504 does not exceed the amounts specified in Section 20585.

(b) For purposes of this section, "veteran" means either of the following:

(1) A veteran as specified in subdivision (o) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the Constitution without regard to any limitation contained therein on the value of property owned by the veteran or the veteran's spouse.

(2) Any person who would qualify as a veteran pursuant to paragraph (1) except that he or she has, as a result of a service-connected injury or disease died while on active duty in military service. The Veterans Administration shall determine whether an injury or disease is service connected.

(c) (1) Property that is owned by, and that constitutes the principal place of residence of, the unmarried surviving spouse of a veteran is exempt from taxation on that part of the full value of the residence that does not exceed forty thousand dollars ($40,000), in the case of a veteran who was blind in both eyes or had lost the use of two or more limbs, or one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), in the case of a veteran who was totally disabled; provided, that the deceased veteran during his or her lifetime qualified in all respects for the exemption or would have qualified for the exemption under the laws effective on January 1, 1977, except that the veteran died prior to January 1, 1977; or provided that the veteran died from a disease which was service connected as determined by the Veterans Administration. The forty thousand dollar ($40,000) exemption shall be sixty thousand dollars ($60,000), and the one hundred thousand dollar ($100,000) exemption shall be one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000), in the case of an eligible unmarried surviving spouse whose household income as specified in Section 20504 does not exceed the amounts specified in Section 20585.

(2) Commencing with the 1994–95 fiscal year, property that is owned by, and that constitutes the principal place of residence of, the unmarried surviving spouse of a veteran as described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) is exempt from taxation on that part of the full value of the residence that does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000). The one hundred thousand dollar ($100,000) exemption shall be one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000), in the case of an eligible unmarried surviving spouse whose household income as specified in Section 20504 does not exceed the amounts specified in Section 20585.

(d) As used in this section, "property that is owned by a veteran" or "property that is owned by the veteran's unmarried surviving spouse" includes all of the following:

(1) Property owned by the veteran with the veteran's spouse as a joint tenancy, tenancy in common or as community property.

(2) Property owned by the veteran or the veteran's spouse as separate property.

(3) Property owned with one or more other persons to the extent of the interest owned by the veteran, the veteran's spouse, or both the veteran and the veteran's spouse.

(4) Property owned by the veteran's unmarried surviving spouse with one or more other persons to the extent of the interest owned by the veteran's unmarried surviving spouse.

(5) So much of the property of a corporation as constitutes the principal place of residence of a veteran or a veteran's unmarried surviving spouse when the veteran, or the veteran's spouse, or the veteran's unmarried surviving spouse is a shareholder of the corporation and the rights of shareholding entitle one to the possession of property, legal title to which is owned by the corporation. The exemption provided by this paragraph shall be shown on the local roll and shall reduce the full value of the corporate property. Notwithstanding any provision of law or articles of incorporation or bylaws of a corporation described in this paragraph, any reduction of property taxes paid by the corporation shall reflect an equal reduction in any charges by the corporation to the person who, by reason of qualifying for the exemption, made possible the reduction for the corporation.

(e) For purposes of this section, being blind in both eyes means having a visual acuity of 5/200 or less; losing the use of a limb means that the limb has been amputated or its use has been lost by reason of ankylosis, progressive muscular dystrophies, or paralysis; and being totally disabled means that the United States Veterans Administration or the military service from which the veteran was discharged has rated the disability at 100 percent or has rated the disability compensation at 100 percent by reason of being unable to secure or follow a substantially gainful occupation.

(f) An exemption granted to a claimant in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be in lieu of the veteran's exemption provided by subdivisions (o), (p), (q), and (r) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the Constitution and any other real property tax exemption to which the claimant may be entitled. No other real property tax exemption may be granted to any other person with respect to the same residence for which an exemption has been granted under the provisions of this section; provided, that if two or more veterans qualified pursuant to this section co-own a property in which they reside, each is entitled to the exemption to the extent of his or her interest.

(g) This section shall remain in effect until January 1, 1996, and on that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered on or before that date, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 205.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 1077 of the Statutes of 1989, is amended to read:

205.5. (a) Property that is owned by, and that constitutes the principal place of residence of, a veteran is exempted from taxation on that part of the full value of the residence that does not exceed forty thousand dollars ($40,000), if the veteran is blind in both eyes, has lost the use of two or more limbs, or is totally disabled as a result of injury or disease incurred in military service. The exemption shall be sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) in the case of an eligible veteran whose household income as defined in Section 20504 does not exceed the amounts specified in Section 20585.

(b) For purposes of this section, "veteran" means either of the following:

(1) A veteran as specified in subdivision (o) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the Constitution without regard to any residency requirement or limitation contained therein on the value of property owned by the veteran or the veteran's spouse.

(2) Any person who would qualify as a veteran pursuant to paragraph (1) except that he or she has, as a result of a service-connected injury or a disease that is service related as determined by the Veterans Administration, died while on active duty in military service.

(c) (1) Property that is owned by, and that constitutes the principal place of residence of, the unmarried surviving spouse of a veteran is exempt from taxation on that part of the full value of the residence that does not exceed forty thousand dollars ($40,000); provided, that the deceased veteran during his or her lifetime qualified in all respects for the exemption or would have qualified for the exemption under the laws effective on January 1, 1977, except that the veteran died prior to January 1, 1977; or provided that the veteran died from a disease which was service connected as determined by the Veterans Administration. The exemption shall be sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) in the case of an eligible unmarried surviving spouse whose household income as specified in Section 20504 does not exceed the amounts specified in Section 20585.

(d) As used in this section, "property that is owned by a veteran" or "property that is owned by the veteran's unmarried surviving spouse" includes all of the following:

(1) Property owned by the veteran with the veteran's spouse as a joint tenancy, tenancy in common or as community property.

(2) Property owned by the veteran or the veteran's spouse as separate property.

(3) Property owned with one or more other persons to the extent of the interest owned by the veteran, the veteran's spouse, or both the veteran and the veteran's spouse.

(4) Property owned by the veteran's unmarried surviving spouse with one or more other persons to the extent of the interest owned by the veteran's unmarried surviving spouse.

(5) So much of the property of a corporation as constitutes the principal place of residence of a veteran or a veteran's unmarried surviving spouse when the veteran, or the veteran's spouse, or the veteran's unmarried surviving spouse is a shareholder of the corporation and the rights of shareholding entitle one to the possession of property, legal title to which is owned by the corporation. The exemption provided by this paragraph shall be shown on the local roll and shall reduce the full value of the corporate property. Notwithstanding any provision of law or articles of incorporation or bylaws of a corporation described in this paragraph, any reduction of property taxes paid by the corporation shall reflect an equal reduction in any charges by the corporation to the person who, by reason of qualifying for the exemption, made possible the reduction for the corporation.

(e) For purposes of this section, being blind in both eyes means having a visual acuity of 5/200 or less; losing the use of a limb means that the limb has been amputated or its use has been lost by reason of ankylosis, progressive muscular dystrophies, or paralysis; and being totally disabled means that the United States Veterans Administration or the military service from which the veteran was discharged has rated the disability at 100 percent or has rated the disability compensation at 100 percent by reason of being unable to secure or follow a substantially gainful occupation.

(f) An exemption granted to a claimant in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be in lieu of the veteran's exemption provided by subdivisions (o), (p), (q), and (r) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the Constitution and any other real property tax exemption to which the claimant may be entitled. No other real property tax exemption may be granted to any other person with respect to the same residence for which an exemption has been granted under the provisions of this section; provided, that if two or more veterans qualified pursuant to this section co-own a property in which they reside, each is entitled to the exemption to the extent of his or her interest.

(g) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1996.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 2229 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, the requirements of that section relating to any exemption of property for more than five years or for more than 75 percent of the value thereof, shall not apply to any exemption made by this act. In addition, no appropriation is made by this act and the state shall not reimburse any local agency for any property tax revenues lost by it pursuant to this act.

CHAPTER 141

An act to amend Sections 2432 and 2475 of the Civil Code, relating to notary forms, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2432 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2432. (a) An attorney in fact under a durable power of attorney may not make health care decisions unless all of the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) The durable power of attorney specifically authorizes the attorney in fact to make health care decisions.

(2) The durable power of attorney contains the date of its execution.

(3) The durable power of attorney is witnessed by one of the following methods:

(A) The durable power of attorney is signed by at least two witnesses each of whom witnessed either the signing of the instrument by the principal or the principal's acknowledgment of the signature or of the instrument, each witness making the following declaration in substance: "I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of California that the person who signed or acknowledged this document is personally known to me to be the principal, or that the identity of the principal was proved to me by convincing evidence, that the principal signed or acknowledged this durable power of attorney in my presence, that the principal appears to be of sound mind and under no duress, fraud, or undue influence, that I am not the person appointed as attorney in fact by this document, and that I am not the principal's health care provider, an employee of the principal's health care provider, the operator of a community care facility, an employee of an operator of a community care facility, the operator of a residential care facility for the elderly, nor an employee of an operator of a residential care facility for the elderly." At least one of the witnesses must also have signed the following declaration: "I further declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of California that I am not related to the principal by blood, marriage, or adoption, and, to the best of my knowledge, I am not entitled to any part of the estate of the principal upon the death of the principal under a will now existing or by operation of law."

(B) The durable power of attorney is acknowledged before a notary public at any place within this state pursuant to Section 1189.

(b) Except as provided in Section 2432.5:

(1) Neither the treating health care provider nor an employee of the treating health care provider, nor an operator of a community care facility or residential care facility for the elderly nor an employee of an operator of a community care facility or residential care facility for the elderly, may be designated as the attorney in fact to make health care decisions under a durable power of attorney.

(2) A health care provider or employee of a health care provider may not act as an attorney in fact to make health care decisions if the health care provider becomes the principal's treating health care provider.

(c) A conservator may not be designated as the attorney in fact to make health care decisions under a durable power of attorney for health care executed by a person who is a conservatee under the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act, Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, unless (1) the power of attorney is otherwise valid, (2) the conservatee is represented by legal counsel, and (3) the lawyer representing the conservatee signs a certificate stating in substance: "I am a lawyer authorized to practice law in the state where this power of attorney was executed, and the principal was my client at the time this power of attorney was executed. I have advised my client concerning his or her rights in connection with this power of attorney and the applicable law and the consequences of signing or not signing this power of attorney, and my client, after being so advised, has executed this power of attorney."

(d) None of the following may be used as a witness under subdivision (a):

(1) The principal's health care provider.

(2) An employee of the principal's health care provider.

(3) The attorney in fact.

(4) The operator of a community care facility.

(5) An employee of an operator of a community care facility.

(6) The operator of a residential care facility for the elderly.

(7) An employee of an operator of a residential care facility for the elderly.

(e) At least one of the persons used as a witness under subdivision (a) shall be a person who is not one of the following:

(1) A relative of the principal by blood, marriage, or adoption.

(2) A person who would be entitled to any portion of the estate of the principal upon his or her death under any will or codicil thereto of the principal existing at the time of execution of the durable power of attorney or by operation of law then existing.

(f) A durable power of attorney for health care is not effective if the principal is a patient in a skilled nursing facility as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code at the time of its execution unless one of the witnesses is a patient advocate or ombudsman as may be designated by the State Department of Aging for this purpose pursuant to any other applicable provision of law. The patient advocate or ombudsman shall include in the declaration required by subdivision (a) a declaration that he or she is serving as a witness as required by this subdivision. It is the intent of this subdivision to recognize that some patients in skilled nursing facilities are insulated from a voluntary decisionmaking role, by virtue of the custodial nature of their care, so as to require special assurance that they are capable of willfully and voluntarily executing a durable power of attorney for health care.

SEC. 2. Section 2475 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2475. The following statutory form of power of attorney is legally sufficient when the requirements of Section 2476 are satisfied:

UNIFORM STATUTORY FORM POWER OF ATTORNEY

(California Civil Code §2475)

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to make the notarization requirements uniform in California as the Legislature intended by passage of Chapter 335 of the Statutes of 1990, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 142

An act to amend Section 330.7 of the Penal Code, relating to gambling.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 330.7 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

330.7. (a) It shall be a defense to any prosecution under this chapter relating to slot machines, as defined in subdivision (2) of Section 330b, if the defendant shows that the slot machine is an antique slot machine and was not operated for gambling purposes while in the defendant's possession. For the purposes of this section, the term "antique slot machine" means a slot machine that is over 25 years of age.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 335a, whenever the defense provided by subdivision (a) is offered, no slot machine seized from any defendant shall be destroyed or otherwise altered until after a final court determination that such defense is not applicable. If the defense is applicable, the machine shall be returned pursuant to provisions of law providing for the return of property.

(c) It is the purpose of this section to protect the collection and restoration of antique slot machines not presently utilized for gambling purposes because of their aesthetic interest and importance in California history.

An act making an appropriation for the payment of claims against the State of California, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of one million seven hundred twelve thousand eight hundred thirteen dollars and fifty-three cents ($1,712,813.53) is hereby appropriated to the Secretary of the State Board of Control to pay claims accepted by the State Board of Control in accordance with the following schedule:

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to pay claims against the state and end hardship to claimants as quickly as possible, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 144

An act to amend Section 40440.1 of, and to amend and renumber Section 39620 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 39620 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

39616. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(1) Several regions in California suffer from some of the worst air quality in the United States.

(2) While traditional command and control air quality regulatory programs are effective in cleaning up the air, other options for improvement in air quality, such as market-based permitting programs, should be explored, provided that those programs result in equivalent emission reductions while expending fewer resources and while maintaining or enhancing the state's economy.

(3) The purpose of this section is to establish requirements under which a district board may adopt market-based incentive programs in a manner which achieves the greatest air quality improvement while strengthening the state's economy and preserving jobs.

(b) (1) A district may adopt a market-based incentive program as an element of the district's plan for attainment of the state or federal ambient air quality standards.

(2) A market-based incentive program that satisfies the conditions in this section may substitute for current command and control regulations and future air quality measures that would otherwise have been adopted as part of the district's plan for attainment, and may be implemented in lieu of some or all of the control measures adopted by the district pursuant to Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 40910) of Part 3.

(c) In adopting the rules and regulations to implement a program for the use of market-based incentives, a district shall, at the time the rules and regulations are adopted, make express findings and shall, at the time the rules and regulations are submitted to the state board, submit appropriate information to substantiate the basis for making the findings that each of the following conditions is met on an overall districtwide basis:

(1) The program will result in an equivalent or greater reduction in emissions at equivalent or less cost compared with current command and control regulations and future air quality measures that would otherwise have been adopted as part of the district's plan for attainment.

(2) The program will provide a level of enforcement and monitoring, to ensure compliance with emission reduction requirements, comparable with command and control air quality measures that would otherwise have been adopted by the district for inclusion in the district's plan for attainment.

(3) The program will establish a baseline methodology that provides appropriate credit so that stationary sources of air pollution which have been modified prior to implementation of the program to reduce stationary source emissions are treated equitably.

(4) The program will not result in a greater loss of jobs or more significant shifts from higher to lower skilled jobs, on an overall districtwide basis, than that which would exist under command and control air quality measures that would otherwise have been adopted as part of the district's plan for attainment. A finding of compliance with this requirement may be made in the same manner as the analyses made by the district to meet the requirements of Section 40728.5.

(5) The program will not in any manner delay, postpone, or otherwise hinder district compliance with Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 40910) of Part 3.

(6) The program will not result in disproportionate impacts, measured on an aggregate basis, on those stationary sources included in the program compared to other permitted stationary sources in the district's attainment plan.

(d) (1) A plan or plan revision submitted to the state board prior to January 1, 1993, shall be designed to achieve equivalent emission reductions and reduced cost and job impacts compared to current command and control regulations and future air quality measures that would otherwise have been adopted as part of the district's implementation plan. The state board shall, not later than 90 days after the program has been submitted, or by April 1, 1993, whichever is sooner, determine whether the program complies with this paragraph. A district shall not implement the program unless the state board determines that the plan or plan revision complies with this paragraph.

(2) A plan or plan revision submitted on or after January 1, 1993, shall be designed to meet the provisions of subdivision (c) and Section 40440.1 if applicable. The state board shall approve the plan or plan revision prior to program implementation, and shall make its determination not later than 90 days from submittal of the plan or plan revision.

(3) Upon the adoption of rules and regulations to implement the program, the district shall submit the rules and regulations to the state board. The state board shall, within 90 days, determine whether the rules and regulations meet the requirements of this section and Section 40440.1, if applicable. This paragraph does not prohibit the district from implementing the program upon the approval of the plan or plan revision and prior to submittal of the implementing rules and regulations.

(e) Within five years of the date of adoption of a program for the use of market-based incentives, the district board shall commence public hearings to reassess the program and shall, not later than seven years from the district's initial adoption of the program, ratify the findings required pursuant to paragraphs (1), (2), (5), and (6) of subdivision (c) and the district's compliance with Section 40440.1 if applicable, with the concurrence of the state board. If the district fails to ratify the findings within the seven-year period, the district shall make appropriate revisions to the district's plan for attainment.

(f) The district board shall reassess any program subject to this section if the market price of emission trading units exceeds a predetermined level set by the district board. The district board may take action to revise the program. A predetermined market price review level shall be set in a public hearing in consideration of the costs of command and control air quality measures that would otherwise have been adopted as part of the district's plan for attainment, costs and factors submitted by interested parties, and any other factors considered appropriate by the district. The district board may revise the market price review level for emission trading units every three years during attainment plan updates required under Section 40925. In revising the market price review level, the district board shall consider the factors used in setting the initial market price review level as well as other economic impacts, including the overall impact of the program on job loss, rate of business formation, and rate of business closure.

(g) For sources not included in market-based incentive programs, this section does not apply to, and shall in no way limit, existing district authority to facilitate compliance with particular emission control measures by imposing or authorizing sourcewide emission caps, alternative emission control plans, stationary for mobile source emission trades, mobile for mobile source emission trades, and similar measures, whether imposed or authorized by rule or permit condition.

(h) This section does not apply to the implementation of market-based transportation control measures which do not involve emissions trading.

SEC. 2. Section 40440.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

40440.1. (a) A market-based incentive program adopted pursuant to Section 39616 in the south coast district shall achieve emission reductions across a spectrum of sources by allowing for trading of emissions trading units for quantifiable reductions in emissions from a significant number of different sources, including mobile, area, and stationary, which are within the district's jurisdiction or which the district is authorized to include in a market-based emissions trading program.

(b) The program may be, but is not required to be, initiated with only a limited number of sources, but, as soon as practical after adoption of the initial program, the district shall amend the program to allow the trading of reductions among the sources initially included in the program and mobile, area, and other stationary sources.

(c) The intent of this section is to allow, not to require, the trading of reductions among a variety of sources. Nothing in this section confers any new authority on the district to regulate mobile, indirect, or areawide sources or to require those sources to participate in a market-based incentive program.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to clarify provisions intended to protect the public health by improving air quality, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 145

An act to amend Section 13145 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to economic poisons.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13145 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

13145. (a) Any registrant of an economic poison identified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 13144 shall be subject to a fine of up to ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each day the groundwater protection data gap exists. In determining the amount of the fine, the director shall consider both of the following:

(1) The extent to which the registrant has made every effort to submit valid, complete, and adequate information within the required time limits.

(2) Circumstances beyond the control of the registrant that have prevented the registrant from submitting valid, complete, and adequate information within the required time limits.

(b) If there is a dispute between the director and a registrant regarding the existence of a groundwater protection data gap and the director desires to levy a fine on the registrant pursuant to this section, the director shall submit the issues of the dispute to the subcommittee created pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 13150. The subcommittee shall review the evidence submitted by the registrant and the director and make recommendations to the director on whether or not the groundwater data gap exists.

(c) Subdivisions (a) and (b) shall not apply to pesticide products whose registration has lapsed or has been canceled, or to products that have been granted a current extension pursuant to Section 13143.

(d) The director shall, by regulation, establish a list of economic poisons that have the potential to pollute groundwater. The list shall be entitled the Groundwater Protection List. Notwithstanding Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, the director shall immediately place all economic poisons identified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 13144 on the Groundwater Protection List and shall regulate the use of these economic poisons if the economic poison is intended to be applied to or injected into the soil by ground-based application equipment or by chemigation, or the label of the economic poison requires or recommends that the application be followed, within 72 hours, by flood or furrow irrigation. The director shall adopt regulations to carry out this article. The regulations shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) Any person who uses an economic poison that has been placed on the Groundwater Protection List and does not file a report pursuant to Section 12979, is required to report to the county agricultural commissioner the use of the economic poison on a form prescribed by the director. The reporting deadline shall conform to the deadline established for the reporting of the use of restricted materials.

(2) Dealers of economic poisons shall make quarterly reports to the director of all sales of economic poisons that have been placed on the Groundwater Protection List to persons who are not otherwise required to file a report pursuant to either paragraph (1) or Section 12979. This report shall include lists of all sales by purchases.

An act to amend Section 41760 of the Public Resources Code, relating to solid waste.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 41760 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

41760. The countywide integrated waste management plan and any amendments to the plan prepared by a city or county, except for a source reduction and recycling element, household hazardous waste element, or nondisposal facility element, or amendment thereto, shall be approved by the county and by a majority of the cities within the county which contain a majority of the population of the incorporated areas of the county, except in those counties which have only two cities, in which case the plan is subject to the approval of the city which contains a majority of the population of the incorporated areas of the county. Each city shall act upon the plan and any proposed amendment within 90 days after receipt of the amendment. If a city fails to act upon the plan or the proposed amendment within 90 days after receiving the plan or the amendment, the city shall be deemed to have approved the plan or the amendment as submitted.

An act to amend Section 798.43 of the Civil Code, relating to mobilehomes.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 798.43 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

798.43. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), whenever a homeowner is responsible for payment of gas, water, or electric utility service, management shall disclose to the homeowner any condition by which a gas, water, or electric meter on the homeowner's site measures gas, water, or electric service for common area facilities or equipment, including lighting, provided that management has knowledge of the condition.

Management shall disclose this information prior to the inception of the tenancy or upon discovery and shall complete either of the following:

(1) Enter into a mutual written agreement with the homeowner for compensation by management for the cost of the portion of the service measured by the homeowner's meter for the common area facilities or equipment to the extent that this cost accrues on or after January 1, 1991.

(2) Discontinue using the meter on the homeowner's site for the utility service to the common area facilities and equipment.

(b) On and after January 1, 1994, if the electric meter on the homeowner's site measures electricity for lighting mandated by Section 18602 of the Health and Safety Code and this lighting provides lighting for the homeowner's site, management shall be required to comply with subdivision (a).

CHAPTER 148

An act to add Sections 246 and 6326 to the Family Code, relating to family law.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 246 is added to the Family Code, to read:

246. An ex parte temporary restraining order described in Section 240 shall be issued or denied on the same day that the application is submitted to the court, unless the application is filed too late in the day to permit effective review, in which case the order shall be issued or denied on the next day of judicial business in sufficient time for the order to be filed that day with the clerk of the court.

SEC. 2. Section 6326 is added to the Family Code, to read:

6326. An ex parte order under this article shall be issued or denied on the same day that the application is submitted to the court, unless the application is filed too late in the day to permit effective review, in which case the order shall be issued or denied on the next day of judicial business in sufficient time for the order to be filed that day with the clerk of the court.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this act shall become operative only if Assembly Bill 1500 of the 1993–94 Regular Session is enacted.

CHAPTER 149

An act to amend Sections 2819 and 2822 of the Civil Code, relating to sureties, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2819 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2819. A surety is exonerated, except so far as he or she may be indemnified by the principal, if by any act of the creditor, without the consent of the surety the original obligation of the principal is altered in any respect, or the remedies or rights of the creditor against the principal, in respect thereto, in any way impaired or suspended. However, nothing in this section shall be construed to supersede subdivision (b) of Section 2822.

SEC. 2. Section 2822 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

2822. (a) The acceptance, by a creditor, of anything in partial satisfaction of an obligation, reduces the obligation of a surety thereof, in the same measure as that of the principal, but does not otherwise affect it. However, if the surety is liable upon only a portion of an obligation and the principal provides partial satisfaction of the obligation, the principal may designate the portion of the obligation that is to be satisfied.

(b) For purposes of this section and Section 2819, an agreement by a creditor to accept from the principal debtor a sum less than the balance owed on the original obligation, without the prior consent of the surety and without any other change to the underlying agreement between the creditor and principal debtor, shall not exonerate the surety for the lesser sum agreed upon by the creditor and principal debtor.

SEC. 3. The amendment of Section 2822 of the Civil Code made by Sections 1 and 2 of this act does not constitute a change in, but is declaratory of, the existing law.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to clarify the law respecting the obligations of sureties without delay, it is necessary that this act go into effect immediately.

CHAPTER 150

An act to amend Section 27528.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to food facilities.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 27528.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

27528.5. "Open-air barbecue facility" means an unenclosed facility for barbecuing food, where the food is prepared out of doors by cooking directly over hot coals, heated lava, hot stones, gas flame, or other method approved by the state department, on equipment suitably designed and maintained for use out of doors, that is operated by a food establishment, stationary mobile food preparation unit, or temporary food facility.

CHAPTER 151

An act to amend Section 1363 of the Civil Code, and to amend Sections 366.2 and 411.36 of, and to amend and renumber Section 374 of, the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to civil actions, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1363 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1363. (a) A common interest development shall be managed by an association which may be incorporated or unincorporated. The association may be referred to as a community association.

(b) An association, whether incorporated or unincorporated, shall prepare a budget pursuant to Section 1365 and disclose information, if requested, in accordance with Section 1368.

(c) Unless the governing documents provide otherwise, and regardless of whether the association is incorporated or unincorporated, the association may exercise the powers granted to a nonprofit mutual benefit corporation, as enumerated in Section 7140 of the Corporations Code, except that an unincorporated association may not adopt or use a corporate seal or issue membership certificates in accordance with Section 7313 of the Corporations Code.

The association, whether incorporated or unincorporated, may exercise the powers granted to an association by Section 383 of the Code of Civil Procedure and the powers granted to the association in this title.

(d) Meetings of the membership of the association shall be conducted in accordance with a recognized system of parliamentary procedure or such parliamentary procedures as the association may adopt.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, notice of meetings of the members shall specify those matters the board intends to present for action by the members, but, except as otherwise provided by law, any proper matter may be presented at the meeting for action.

(f) Members of the association shall have access to association records in accordance with Article 3 (commencing with Section 8330) of Chapter 13 of Part 3 of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code.

(g) Any member of the association may attend meetings of the board of directors of the association, except when the board adjourns to executive session to consider litigation, matters that relate to the formation of contracts with third parties, or personnel matters.

(h) Any matter discussed in executive session shall be generally noted in the minutes of the board of directors.

(i) If an association adopts or has adopted a policy imposing any monetary penalty, including any fee, on any association member for a violation of the governing documents or rules of the association, including any monetary penalty relating to the activities of a guest or invitee of a member, the board of directors shall adopt and distribute to each member, by personal delivery or first-class mail, a schedule of the monetary penalties that may be assessed for those violations, which shall be in accordance with authorization for member discipline contained in the governing documents. The board of directors shall not be required to distribute any additional schedules of monetary penalties unless there are changes from the schedule that was adopted and distributed to the members pursuant to this subdivision. The board of directors of the association shall meet in executive session if requested by the member being disciplined, and the member shall be entitled to attend the executive session.

(j) Whenever two or more associations have consolidated any of their functions under a joint neighborhood association or similar organization, members of each participating association shall be entitled to attend all meetings of the joint association other than executive sessions, (1) shall be given reasonable opportunity for participation in those meetings and (2) shall be entitled to the same access to the joint association's records as they are to the participating association's records.

(k) The minutes, minutes proposed for adoption that are marked to indicate draft status, or a summary of the minutes, of any meeting of the board of directors of an association, other than an executive session, shall be available to members within 30 days of the meeting. The minutes, proposed minutes, or summary minutes shall be distributed to any member of the association upon request and upon reimbursement of the association's costs in making that distribution.

(l) Members of the association shall be notified in writing at the time that the pro forma budget required in Section 1365 is distributed or at the time of any general mailing to the entire membership of the association of their right to have copies of the minutes of meetings of the board of directors and how and where those minutes may be obtained.

(m) Nothing in this section shall be construed to create, expand, or reduce the authority of the board of directors of an association to impose monetary penalties on an association member for a violation of the governing documents or rules of the association.

SEC. 2. Section 366.2 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

366.2. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c):

(1) If a person against whom an action may be brought on a liability of the person, whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise, dies before the expiration of the applicable limitations period, and the cause of action survives, an action may be commenced within one year after the date of death, and the limitations period that would have been applicable does not apply.

(2) The limitations period provided in this section for commencement of an action is not tolled or extended for any reason.

(b) This section is subject to:

(1) Part 4 (commencing with Section 9000) of Division 7 of the Probate Code (creditor claims in administration of estates of decedents).

(2) Part 8 (commencing with Section 19000) of Division 9 of the Probate Code (payment of claims, debts, and expenses from revocable trust of deceased settlor).

(c) This section applies to actions brought on liabilities of persons dying on or after January 1, 1993.

SEC. 3. Section 374 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended and renumbered to read:

383. (a) An association established to manage a common interest development shall have standing to institute, defend, settle, or intervene in litigation, arbitration, mediation, or administrative proceedings in its own name as the real party in interest and without joining with it the individual owners of the common interest development, in matters pertaining to the following:

(1) Enforcement of the governing documents.

(2) Damage to the common areas.

(3) Damage to the separate interests which the association is obligated to maintain or repair.

(b) In any action maintained by an association pursuant to paragraph (2), (3), or (4) of subdivision (a), the amount of damages recovered by the association shall be reduced by the amount of damages allocated to the association or its managing agents in direct proportion to their percentage of fault based upon principles of comparative fault. In such an action, the comparative fault of the association or its managing agents may be raised by way of defense, but shall not be the basis for any cross-action or separate action against the association or its managing agents for contribution or implied indemnity, where the only damage was sustained by the association or its members. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this subdivision to require that comparative fault be plead as an affirmative defense, rather than a separate cause of action, where the only damage was sustained by the association or its members.

(c) In any action involving damages described in paragraph (2), (3), or (4) of subdivision (a), the defendant or cross-defendant may allege and prove the comparative fault of the association or its managing agents as a setoff to his or her liability even if the association is not a party to the litigation or is no longer a party whether by reason of settlement, dismissal, or otherwise.

(d) Subdivisions (b) and (c) apply to actions commenced on or after January 1, 1993.

(e) Nothing in this section shall affect (1) any person's liability under Section 1431 of the Civil Code, or (2) the liability of the association or its managing agent for any act or omission which causes damages to another.

SEC. 4. Section 411.36 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

411.36. (a) In every action brought by a common interest development association pursuant to Section 383, or cross-actions or separate actions arising therefrom for indemnity or contribution, arising out of the occupational negligence of a person holding a valid contractor's license pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 7000) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, on or before the date of service of the complaint on any defendant, the plaintiff's attorney shall file the certificate specified by subdivision (b). "Occupational negligence," as used in this section, means a negligent act or omission in the construction, reconstruction, repair, or improvement of a structure or other work of improvement which is the proximate cause of a construction defect or of damage to property resulting from such a construction defect. This section does not apply to causes of action based on strict liability in tort or express contractual indemnity.

(b) A certificate shall be executed by the attorney for the plaintiff or cross-complainant declaring one of the following:

or university and who is licensed in this state or any other state and who the attorney reasonably believes is knowledgeable in the relevant issues involved in the particular action, and that the attorney has concluded on the basis of that review and consultation that the named defendant or cross-defendant participated in the construction, installation, grading, or landscaping of those building elements or grounds alleged in the complaint or cross-complaint to have been negligently constructed, installed, graded, or landscaped. The person consulted may not be a party to the litigation.

(2) That the attorney was unable to obtain the consultation required by paragraph (1) because a statute of limitations would impair the action and that the certificate required by paragraph (1) could not be obtained before the impairment of the action. If a certificate is executed pursuant to this paragraph, the certificate required by paragraph (1) shall be filed within 60 days after filing the complaint.

(3) That the attorney was unable to obtain the consultation required by paragraph (1) because the attorney had made three separate good faith attempts with three separate contractors to obtain such a consultation and none of those contacted would agree to the consultation.

(c) Where a certificate is required pursuant to this section, only one certificate shall be filed, notwithstanding that multiple defendants have been named in the complaint or may be named at a later time.

(d) Where the attorney intends to rely solely on the doctrine of "res ipsa loquitur," as defined in Section 646 of the Evidence Code, or exclusively on a failure to inform of the consequences of a procedure, or both, this section shall be inapplicable. The attorney shall certify upon filing of the complaint that the attorney is solely relying on the doctrines of "res ipsa loquitur" or failure to inform of the consequences of a procedure or both, and for that reason is not filing a certificate required by this section.

(e) For purposes of this section, and subject to Section 912 of the Evidence Code, an attorney who submits a certificate as required by paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (b) has a privilege to refuse to disclose the identity of the contractor consulted and the contents of the consultation. The privilege shall also be held by the contractor so consulted. If, however, the attorney makes a claim under paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) that he or she was unable to obtain the required consultation with the contractor, the court may require the attorney to divulge the names of contractors refusing the consultation.

(f) A violation of this section may constitute unprofessional conduct and be grounds for discipline against the attorney, except that the failure to file the certificate required by paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), within 60 days after filing the complaint and certificate provided for by paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), shall not be grounds for discipline against the attorney.

(g) The failure to file a certificate in accordance with this section shall be grounds for a demurrer pursuant to Section 430.10 or a motion to strike pursuant to Section 435.

(h) Upon the favorable conclusion of the litigation with respect to any party for whom a certificate of merit was filed or for whom a certificate of merit should have been filed pursuant to this section, the trial court may, upon the motion of a party or upon the court's own motion, verify compliance with this section, by requiring the attorney for the plaintiff or cross-complainant who was required by subdivision (b) to execute the certificate to reveal the name, address, and telephone number of the person or persons consulted with pursuant to subdivision (b) that were relied upon by the attorney in preparation of the certificate of merit. The name, address, and telephone number shall be disclosed to the trial judge in an in-camera proceeding at which the moving party shall not be present. If the trial judge finds there has been a failure to comply with this section, the court may order a party, a party's attorney, or both, to pay any reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by another party as a result of the failure to comply with this section.

(i) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed.

(j) For purposes of this section, "action" includes a complaint or cross-complaint for equitable indemnity arising out of the rendition of professional services whether or not the complaint or cross-complaint specifically asserts or utilizes the terms "professional negligence" or "negligence."

(k) This section does not apply to disputes or actions involving alleged occupational negligence of licensed contractors, where the alleged occupational negligence is in connection with work on any of the following:

(1) Any work under a construction contract for less than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000).

(2) Any work on a single-family dwelling or a residential structure containing four or fewer dwelling units.

(l) This section shall not become operative unless Assembly Bill 3708 of the 1991–92 Regular Session is enacted and becomes effective on or before January 1, 1993.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Chapters 178, 1283, and 1332 of the Statutes of 1992 affect Section 1363 of the Civil Code and Section 374 of the Code of Civil Procedure in different ways with complex double-joining and chaptering-out consequences. In order to eliminate the confusion caused by this situation and to maintain continuity in the law, and in order to clarify existing law with regard to the survival of a cause of action, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 152

An act to amend Section 2894 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utilities.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2894 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

2894. (a) Notwithstanding subdivision (e) of Section 2891, the disclosure of any information by an interexchange telephone corporation, a local exchange telephone corporation, or a radiotelephone utility, in good faith compliance with the terms of a state or federal court warrant or order or administrative subpoena issued at the request of a law enforcement official or other federal, state, or local governmental agency for law enforcement purposes, is a complete defense against any civil action brought under this chapter or any other law, including without limitation, Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 630) of Part 1 of Title 15 of the Penal Code, for the wrongful disclosure of that information.

(b) As used in this section:

(1) "Interexchange telephone corporation" means a telephone corporation that is a long-distance carrier.

(2) "Local exchange telephone corporation" means a telephone corporation that provides local exchange services.

(3) "Radiotelephone utility" means any public utility licensed by the Federal Communications Commission pursuant to Part 22 (commencing with Section 22.0) of Title 47 of the Code of Federal Regulations and certificated by the Public Utilities Commission to provide one-way or two-way or one-way and two-way radiotelephone services in this state.

An act to amend Section 13332.17 of the Government Code, and to amend Sections 10343 and 10376 of the Public Contract Code, relating to contract awards.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13332.17 of the Government Code is amended to read:

13332.17. Purchase estimates for supplies or equipment submitted to the Department of General Services pursuant to Section 10311 of the Public Contract Code received during the last 90 days of a fiscal year and for which a purchase order award is pending at the end of that fiscal year, may be awarded during the initial 90 days of the subsequent fiscal year. The 90-day period shall be extended commensurate with the time required to resolve any protest filed pursuant to Section 10306 of the Public Contract Code.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law and regardless of the date of receipt of the materials, supplies or equipment, the date of expenditure and encumbrance for a purchase authorized by this section shall be construed to be the last day of the fiscal year in which the purchase estimate is received by the department. A purchase order awarded in accordance with the provisions of this section shall cite this section and the actual date of award.

SEC. 2. Section 10343 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

10343. Whenever a contract is awarded under a procedure providing for competitive bidding, but the contract is not to be awarded to the low bidder, the low bidder shall be given notice five working days prior to the award of the contract by telegram, electronic facsimile transmission, overnight courier, or personal delivery. Upon written request by any bidder who has submitted a bid, notice of the proposed award shall be posted in a public place in the offices of the contracting agency at least five working days prior to awarding the contract. If, prior to the award, any bidder files a protest with the state agency and department against the awarding of the contract on the ground that he or she is the lowest responsible bidder meeting the specifications for the contract, the contract shall not be awarded until either the protest has been withdrawn or the department has decided the matter.

Within five days after filing the protest, the protesting bidder shall file with the department a full and complete written statement specifying the grounds for the protest.

The department shall establish written procedures for deciding protests.

SEC. 3. Section 10376 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

10376. Whenever a consulting services contract is awarded under a procedure providing for competitive bidding, but the contract is not to be awarded to the low bidder, the low bidder shall be given notice five working days prior to the award of the contract by telegram, electronic facsimile transmission, overnight courier, or personal delivery. Upon written request by any bidder who has submitted a bid, notice of the proposed award shall be posted in a public place in the offices of the contracting agency at least five working days prior to awarding the contract. If, prior to the award, any bidder files a protest with the state agency and department against the awarding of the contract on the ground that he or she is the lowest responsible bidder meeting the specifications for the contract, the contract shall not be awarded until either the protest has been withdrawn or the Department of General Services has decided the matter.

Within five days after filing the protest, the protesting bidder shall file with the department a full and complete written statement specifying the grounds for the protest.

The department shall establish written procedures for deciding protests.

CHAPTER 154

An act to add Section 990.9 to the Government Code, relating to civil liability.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 990.9 is added to the Government Code, to read:

990.9. Any city, county, city and county, or any other local public entity with authority to provide health care services may provide insurance or provide indemnity through self-insurance for medical or other health-care tort claims against any person who, in good faith and without compensation, renders voluntary care to low-income patients within the scope of his or her practice at a community clinic or free clinic, as those terms are defined in subdivision (a) of Section 1204 of the Health and Safety Code, serving residents within the jurisdiction of the local public entity, and who is licensed under Division 2 (commencing with Section 500) of the Business and Professions Code or under an initiative act referred to in those provisions. However, the insurance or indemnity provided pursuant to this section shall not cover liability for which there is other insurance coverage in effect.

An act to amend Sections 7093.5, 19133, and 25782 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 19, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 19, 1993.]

I am deleting the $2,511,000 from the General Fund appropriation contained in Section 4 of Assembly Bill No. 2097.

This bill will extend statutory authority for the state to settle tax matter disputes from June 30, 1993 to June 30, 1994.

I am signing this bill because it is part of the budget solution; however, Section 4 is unnecessary because funding for this purpose was previously appropriated in Chapter 75, (Assembly Bill 102), Statutes of 1993.

With the above deletion, I hereby approve Assembly Bill No. 2097.

PETE WILSON, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7093.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

7093.5. (a) (1) In addition to the authority provided by Section 7093 and subject to paragraph (2), the executive director or chief counsel, if authorized by the executive director, of the board may recommend to the State Board of Equalization, itself, a settlement of any civil tax matter disputes.

(2) No recommendation of settlement shall be submitted to the board unless and until that recommendation has been submitted by the executive director or chief counsel to the Attorney General. Within 30 days of receiving that recommendation, the Attorney General shall review the recommendation and advise in writing the executive director or chief counsel of the board of his or her conclusions as to whether the recommendation is reasonable from an overall perspective. The executive director or chief counsel shall, with each recommendation of settlement submitted to the board, also submit the Attorney General's written conclusions obtained pursuant to this paragraph.

(3) The members of the board shall not participate in the settlement of these tax matters, except as provided in subdivision (c).

(b) Whenever a reduction of tax in excess of five hundred dollars ($500) is approved pursuant to this section, there shall be placed on file in the office of the executive director of the board a public record with respect to that settlement. The public record shall include all of the following information:

(1) The name or names of the taxpayers who are parties to the settlement.

(2) The total amount involved.

(3) The amount payable or refundable pursuant to the settlement.

(4) A summary of the reasons why the settlement is in the best interests of the State of California.

(5) The Attorney General's conclusion as to whether the recommendation of settlement was reasonable from an overall perspective.

The public record shall not include any information that relates to any trade secret, patent, process, style of work, apparatus, business secret, or organizational structure that, if disclosed, would adversely affect the taxpayer or the national defense.

(c) (1) Any recommendation for settlement shall be approved or disapproved by the board, itself, within 45 days of the submission of that recommendation to the board. Any recommendation for settlement that is not either approved or disapproved by the board within 45 days of the submission of that recommendation shall be deemed approved. Upon approval of a recommendation for settlement, the matter shall be referred back to the executive director or chief counsel in accordance with the decision of the board.

(2) Disapproval of a recommendation for settlement shall be made only by a majority vote of the board. Where the board disapproves a recommendation for settlement, the matter shall be remanded to board staff for further negotiation, and may be resubmitted to the board, in the same manner and subject to the same requirements as the initial submission, at the discretion of the executive director or chief counsel.

(d) All settlements entered into pursuant to this section shall be final and nonappealable, except upon a showing of fraud or misrepresentation with respect to a material fact.

(e) Any proceedings undertaken by the board itself pursuant to a settlement as described in this section shall be conducted in a closed session or sessions. Except as provided in subdivision (b), any settlement entered into pursuant to this section shall constitute confidential tax information for purposes of Section 7056.

(f) This section shall apply only to civil tax matter disputes existing on July 1, 1993, with respect to which recommendations for settlement, pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), are first submitted to the Attorney General no later than June 30, 1994, and are first submitted to the board no later than September 15, 1994.

(g) The Legislature finds that it is essential for fiscal purposes that the settlement program authorized by this section be expeditiously implemented. Accordingly, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code shall not apply to any determination, rule, notice, or guideline established or issued by the board in implementing and administering the settlement program authorized by this section.

SEC. 2. Section 19133 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19133. (a) (1) Subject to paragraph (2), the executive officer or chief counsel, if authorized by the executive officer, of the Franchise Tax Board may recommend to the Franchise Tax Board, itself, a settlement of any civil tax matter disputes.

(2) No recommendation of settlement shall be submitted to the Franchise Tax Board unless and until that recommendation has been submitted by the executive officer or chief counsel to the Attorney General. Within 30 days of receiving that recommendation, the Attorney General shall review the recommendation and advise in writing the executive officer or chief counsel of the Franchise Tax Board of his or her conclusions as to whether the recommendation is reasonable from an overall perspective. The executive officer or chief counsel shall, with each recommendation of settlement submitted to the Franchise Tax Board, also submit the Attorney General's written conclusions obtained pursuant to this paragraph.

(3) The members of the Franchise Tax Board shall not participate in the settlement of these tax matters, except as provided in subdivision (c).

(b) Whenever a reduction of tax in excess of five hundred dollars ($500) is approved pursuant to this section, there shall be placed on file in the office of the executive officer of the Franchise Tax Board a public record with respect to that settlement. The public record shall include all of the following information:

(1) The name or names of the taxpayers who are parties to the settlement.

(2) The total amount involved.

(3) The amount payable or refundable pursuant to the settlement.

(4) A summary of the reasons why the settlement is in the best interests of the State of California.

(5) The Attorney General's conclusion as to whether the recommendation of settlement was reasonable from an overall perspective.

The public record shall not include any information that relates to any trade secret, patent, process, style of work, apparatus, business secret, or organizational structure that, if disclosed, would adversely affect the taxpayer or the national defense.

(c) (1) Any recommendation for settlement shall be approved or disapproved by the Franchise Tax Board, itself, within 45 days of the submission of that recommendation to the board. Any recommendation for settlement that is not either approved or disapproved by the board within 45 days of the submission of that recommendation shall be deemed approved. Upon approval of a recommendation for settlement, the matter shall be referred back to the executive officer or chief counsel in accordance with the decision of the Franchise Tax Board.

(2) Disapproval of a recommendation for settlement shall be made only by a majority vote of the Franchise Tax Board. Where the Franchise Tax Board disapproves a recommendation for settlement, the matter shall be remanded to board staff for further negotiation, and may be resubmitted to the Franchise Tax Board, in the same manner and subject to the same requirements as the initial submission, at the discretion of the executive officer or chief counsel.

(d) All settlements entered into pursuant to this section shall be final and nonappealable, except upon a showing of fraud or misrepresentation with respect to a material fact.

(e) Any proceedings undertaken by the Franchise Tax Board itself pursuant to a settlement as described in this section shall be conducted in a closed session or sessions. Except as provided in subdivision (b), any settlement entered into pursuant to this section shall constitute confidential tax information for purposes of Article 2 (commencing with Section 19281) of Chapter 21.

(f) This section shall apply only to civil tax matter disputes existing on July 1, 1993, with respect to which recommendations for settlement, pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), are first submitted to the Attorney General no later than June 30, 1994, and are first submitted to the Franchise Tax Board no later than September 15, 1994.

(g) The Legislature finds that it is essential for fiscal purposes that the settlement program authorized by this section be expeditiously implemented. Accordingly, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code shall not apply to any determination, rule, notice, or guideline established or issued by the Franchise Tax Board in implementing and administering the settlement program authorized by this section.

SEC. 3. Section 25782 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

25782. (a) (1) Subject to paragraph (2), the executive officer or chief counsel, if authorized by the executive officer, of the Franchise Tax Board may recommend to the Franchise Tax Board, itself, a settlement of any civil tax matter dispute.

(2) No recommendation of settlement shall be submitted to the Franchise Tax Board unless and until that recommendation has been submitted by the executive officer or chief counsel to the Attorney General. Within 30 days of receiving that recommendation, the Attorney General shall review the recommendation and advise in writing the executive officer or chief counsel of the Franchise Tax Board of his or her conclusions as to whether the recommendation is reasonable from an overall perspective. The executive officer or chief counsel shall, with each recommendation of settlement submitted to the Franchise Tax Board, also submit the Attorney General's written conclusions obtained pursuant to this paragraph.

(3) The members of the Franchise Tax Board shall not participate in the settlement of these tax matters, except as provided in subdivision (c).

(b) Whenever a reduction of tax in excess of five hundred dollars ($500) is approved pursuant to this section, there shall be placed on file in the office of the executive officer of the Franchise Tax Board a public record with respect to that settlement. The public record shall include, but need not be limited to, all of the following information:

(1) The name or names of the taxpayers who are parties to the settlement.

(2) The total amount involved.

(3) The amount payable or refundable pursuant to the settlement.

(4) A summary of the reasons why the settlement is in the best interests of the State of California.

(5) The Attorney General's conclusion as to whether the recommendation of settlement was reasonable from an overall perspective.

The public record shall not include any information that relates to any trade secret, patent, process, style of work, apparatus, business secret, or organizational structure that, if disclosed, would adversely affect the taxpayer or the national defense.

(c) (1) Any recommendation for settlement shall be approved or disapproved by the Franchise Tax Board, itself, within 45 days of the submission of that recommendation to the board. Any recommendation for settlement that is not either approved or disapproved by the board within 45 days of the submission of that recommendation shall be deemed approved. Upon approval of a recommendation for settlement, the matter shall be referred back to the executive officer or chief counsel in accordance with the decision of the Franchise Tax Board.

(2) Disapproval of a recommendation for settlement shall be made only by a majority vote of the Franchise Tax Board. Where the Franchise Tax Board disapproves a recommendation for settlement, the matter shall be remanded to board staff for further negotiation, and may be resubmitted to the Franchise Tax Board, in the same manner and subject to the same requirements as the initial submission, at the discretion of the executive officer or chief counsel.

(d) All settlements entered into pursuant to this section shall be final and nonappealable, except upon a showing of fraud or misrepresentation with respect to a material fact.

(e) Any proceedings undertaken by the Franchise Tax Board itself pursuant to a settlement as described in this section shall be conducted in a closed session or sessions. Except as provided in subdivision (b), any settlement entered into pursuant to this section shall constitute confidential tax information for purposes of Article 2 (commencing with Section 19281) of Chapter 21.

(f) This section shall apply only to civil tax matter disputes existing on July 1, 1993, with respect to which recommendations for settlement, pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), are first submitted to the Attorney General no later than June 30, 1994, and are first submitted to the Franchise Tax Board no later than September 15, 1994.

(g) The Legislature finds that it is essential for fiscal purposes that the settlement program authorized by this section be expeditiously implemented. Accordingly, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code shall not apply to any determination, rule, notice, or guideline established or issued by the Franchise Tax Board in implementing and administering the settlement program authorized by this section.

SEC. 4. The sum of two million five hundred eleven thousand dollars ($2,511,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Department of Finance for allocation to the following agencies to reimburse them for costs incurred in implementing this act:

(a) To the Franchise Tax Board, in an amount equal to one million seven hundred thousand dollars ($1,700,000).

(b) To the State Board of Equalization, in an amount equal to five hundred eleven thousand dollars ($511,000).

(c) To the Department of Justice, in an amount equal to three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000).

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

To ensure that adequate funds are available to meet the state's financial obligations and cash-flow requirements for the 1993–94 fiscal year, and reduce any residual carryover deficiency into future budgets, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 156

An act to add and repeal Section 3570.5 of the Elections Code, and to add and repeal Section 88002.5 of the Government Code, relating to elections.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 20, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3570.5 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

3570.5. (a) The ballot pamphlet shall also contain a section, located near the front of the pamphlet, which provides a concise summary of the general meaning and effect of "yes" and "no" votes on each state measure.

(b) The summary statements required by this section shall be prepared by the Legislative Analyst. These statements are not intended to provide comprehensive information on each measure. The Legislative Analyst shall be solely responsible for determining the contents of these statements. The statements shall be available for public examination and amendment pursuant to Section 3576.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 88002.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

88002.5. (a) The ballot pamphlet shall also contain a section, located near the front of the pamphlet, which provides a concise summary of the general meaning and effect of "yes" and "no" votes on each state measure.

(b) The summary statements required by this section shall be prepared by the Legislative Analyst. These statements are not intended to provide comprehensive information on each measure. The Legislative Analyst shall be solely responsible for determining the contents of these statements. The statements shall be available for public examination and amendment pursuant to Section 88006.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that Section 2 of this act furthers the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974 within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 81012 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 157

An act to add Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 1820) to Chapter 1 of Division 2.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to juvenile offenders, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) California counties are seriously threatened by adverse fiscal circumstances which, among other things, will result in severe cuts to law enforcement and probation departments statewide, and threaten the safety and welfare of the public.

(b) Seven out of every 10 arrested juveniles are referred to probation, and more than seven out of eight juvenile offenders in the state are actively supervised by probation, many of these juveniles are placed in county juvenile camps and ranches operated by probation departments.

(c) The County Justice System Subvention Program was intended to avoid costly state commitments of juvenile offenders by helping counties maintain and improve local correctional systems and facilities. Because of county fiscal constraints and capped level of state funds under the County Justice System Subvention Program, local juvenile corrections systems and facilities cannot be maintained at present levels.

(d) In 1985, funding to local probation departments under the County Justice System Subvention Program totaled sixty-four million dollars ($64,000,000). In 1989, funding totaled sixty-seven million dollars ($67,000,000). Current funding under state budgetary realignment is less than thirty-four million dollars ($34,000,000), a 50 percent reduction to counties from 1989 funding levels. State funding losses severely discourage viable alternatives to group home and California Youth Authority placements for court wards.

(e) The state's resources for serving delinquent children have been directed to the most expensive types of care: out-of-home placement in group homes and the California Youth Authority.

(f) A 1990 study showed that during the preceding five years, group homes costs increased by 34 percent and California Youth Authority costs increased by 15 percent while county camps, which are funded entirely by county funds, showed less than a 2-percent increase in monthly costs per child. As a result, group homes in 1989 cost approximately 50 percent more per month than camps, while California Youth Authority costs, even with overcrowding, average approximately 30 percent more per month than camps.

(g) Camp programs have proved to be the state's single most effective institutional program for reducing juvenile criminal recidivism. In Los Angeles County, more than 4,500 young people are committed to camps annually. The average probation ward advances one grade level during each four months of his or her stay. Approximately 60 percent of camp graduates are not rearrested.

(h) Many county camps have, or will be, shut down. In Los Angeles County for example, 19 of 20 probation camps, housing more than 4,000 youths annually, have been administratively ordered to close by May 1, 1993. These camp closures mean transfer of juvenile offenders to more expensive and less appropriate treatment facilities, either California Youth Authority or group homes, or early release back to the community.

(i) Closure of camps will result in a permanent shift of fiscal responsibility for juveniles to the state. Youth Authority commitments and foster care placements are more expensive than probation camps. For example, Los Angeles County estimates that the state fiscal obligation created by camp closures could be as high as one hundred eighty million dollars ($180,000,000).

(j) The responsibility for the prevention, discipline, and treatment of juvenile offenders should be shared by local, state, and federal governments.

(k) The federal government is currently sponsoring pilot juvenile boot camp projects in three states. The program emphasizes discipline, treatment, and work in a highly structured residential environment that employs military drills and discipline as well as education, drug counseling, and employment readiness services.

(l) The Legislature recognizes that the local and state governments must address the immediate threat of camp closures while the federal government will not increase its participation in juvenile offender programs this federal fiscal year. Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature that the local and state governments form an immediate partnership for the provision of local juvenile offender programs. It is the further intent of the Legislature that once federal funds become available for local juvenile offender programs, including boot camp programs, the state and local partnership created pursuant to this measure shall be the principal mechanism by which the state will participate in federally funded programs for juvenile offenders.

(m) Several counties currently employ boot camp elements in their juvenile ranches, camps, and forestry camps, and it is the intent of the Legislature that the state and counties that utilize boot camp techniques use these existing boot camps as a basis for federal participation.

SEC. 2. Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 1820) is added to Chapter 1 of Division 2.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

Article 7.5. Juvenile Offender Local Prevention and Corrections Act

1820. This article shall be known and may be cited as the Juvenile Offender Local Prevention and Corrections Act.

1820.05. For purposes of this article, "partnership funds" means the state's share of funding for county juvenile ranches, camps, and forestry camps.

1820.1. Partnership funds shall be used only for the purpose of confinement, discipline, and treatment of juvenile offenders in county juvenile ranches, camps, or forestry camps.

1820.15. (a) The Department of the Youth Authority shall establish and implement the Juvenile Offender Local Prevention and Corrections Program.

(b) The purpose of the program required by subdivision (a) shall be to coordinate state and local efforts to confine, discipline, treat, and prevent juvenile offenders and to provide partnership funding for county juvenile ranches, camps, and forestry camps established pursuant to Section 880.

1820.2. The Department of the Youth Authority shall, in the implementation of this article, do all of the following:

(a) Determine county eligibility for partnership funding.

(b) Distribute partnership funds to qualified counties quarterly based on the average daily population of the county's juvenile ranches, camps, and forestry camps for the previous fiscal quarter.

(c) Monitor county compliance with eligibility requirements.

(d) Provide technical assistance to counties to prevent unnecessary commitments to the Department of the Youth Authority and to expand the capacity of the counties to confine, discipline, and treat juvenile offenders in a manner consistent with public safety.

1820.25. A county may apply to receive partnership funds under this article by submitting an application to the department in a manner and at a time determined by the department.

1820.3. A county shall be eligible for the receipt of partnership funds under this article only if the county meets all of the following conditions:

(a) The county administers one or more juvenile ranches, camps, or forestry camps.

(b) The county's juvenile ranches, camps, or forestry camps possess, at a minimum, all of the following:

(1) A residential treatment program.

(2) A structured and disciplined program for each resident.

(3) Individual counseling.

(4) Physical fitness training.

(5) Social alternatives to gangs, drugs, and alcohol, including gang intervention programs where appropriate.

(6) Work experience and vocational training through work crew assignments.

(7) Access to certified, accredited courses in language arts, mathematics, science, social studies, computer laboratories, and basic reading and writing skills, with an emphasis on remedial education.

(8) Coordination with parents or guardians in preparation for family reunification.

However, the Director of Youth Authority, upon request of a county, may waive services required in paragraphs (3), (6), and (7), as appropriate, if the provision of those services is not feasible or necessary, as demonstrated by the county.

(c) The county program does all of the following:

(1) It provides a positive reinforcing environment that redirects physical, social, and emotional energies into constructive channels.

(2) It emphasizes responsibility for one's actions.

(3) It employs goal-setting methods to maximize self-discipline, self-confidence, and sense of pride.

(d) The county maintains at least the same number of beds as were available on June 30, 1993. The director, upon request of a county, may waive this requirement if the county demonstrates it is unable to comply due to unforeseen circumstances.

1820.4. It is the intent of the Legislature that counties that do not operate juvenile camps or ranches, but instead contract for beds with counties that do, shall benefit from partnership funding via reduced contract costs, based on the host county's cost of providing the bed, excluding the state contribution.

1820.45. (a) (1) The Department of the Youth Authority shall work with counties to develop boot camp programs, either separately or as part of existing ranches, camps, and forestry camps.

(2) Boot camps shall provide the same services as juvenile ranches, camps, and forestry camps but shall be conducted in a highly structured, military style environment.

(3) Boot camps shall include greater emphasis on physical conditioning, athletics, and team building than county juvenile ranches, camps, or forestry camps.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that the Department of the Youth Authority and participating counties shall develop a comprehensive boot camp program that incorporates the relevant design features of the federal juvenile boot camp pilot project. It is also the intent of the Legislature that the comprehensive boot camp program should include diagnostic assessment, community-based aftercare, and accountability.

1820.5. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that, commencing with the 1994–95 fiscal year, this article shall be funded by the federal government, the state, and eligible counties.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that the amount of funding from each source identified in paragraph (1) shall be determined in the Budget Act of 1994.

1820.55. The Department of the Youth Authority shall adopt emergency regulations for implementation of this article.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Several counties are planning to close juvenile camps by July 1, 1993, and in order to implement this act in a timely manner to prevent the loss of services for youth in need, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 158

An act to amend and repeal Sections 4777 and 4789 of the Civil Code, to amend Sections 116.820 and 695.220, and to amend and repeal Section 664.5, of the Code of Civil Procedure, to amend Sections 6103.5, 6159, 26824, 26828, 26829, 26830, 26834, 26839, 68085, 68097, 68097.1, 68097.2, 68502.5, 68540, 68541, 68542, 68543.5, 68543.7, 68543.8, 68544, 68545, 68926.1, 71386, 72059, and 77207 of, to add Section 26205.8 to, to repeal and add Sections 77200 and 77205.3 of, and to repeal Sections 68540.5, 68541.5, and 72055.2 of, the Government Code, to amend Sections 1203.1b, 1463.001, and 1463.007 of the Penal Code, and to amend Sections 1804, 12808, 40509, and 40509.5 of, and to add Sections 13365.5 and 40509.1 to, the Vehicle Code, relating to courts, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4777 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4777. (a) The costs of the Family Law Evaluator, such staff as is necessary to assist the Family Law Evaluator, and the cost of the booklet describing the program, if any, shall be borne by an increase and an equalization of filing fees in San Mateo County to one hundred fifty dollars ($150) for all petitions for marital dissolution, annulment, and legal separation, and all first papers on behalf of respondents in actions for marital dissolution, annulment, and legal separation. Alternatively, the costs associated with this pilot program may be paid from other funding sources.

(b) A donation of computers, printers, software, and other equipment shall be solicited from existing hardware and software providers.

(c) This section shall be repealed on July 1, 1994, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before July 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 4789 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

4789. (a) The costs of the pilot project shall be borne by an equalization of filing fees in Santa Clara County for all petitions for marital dissolution, annulment, and legal separation, and all first papers on behalf of respondents in actions for marital dissolution, annulment, and legal separation and by equalization of filing fees for motions and responsive pleadings.

(b) A donation of computers, printers, software, and other equipment shall be solicited from existing hardware and software providers.

(c) The court shall administer funds for the various components of the pilot program.

(d) This section shall be repealed on July 1, 1994, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before July 1, 1994, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 116.820 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

116.820. (a) The judgment of a small claims court may be enforced as provided in Title 9 (commencing with Section 680.010) of Part 2 and in Sections 674 and 1174 on the enforcement of judgments of other courts. A judgment of the superior court after a hearing on appeal, and after transfer to the small claims court under subdivision (d) of Section 116.780, may be enforced like other judgments of the small claims court, as provided in Title 9 (commencing with Section 680.010) of Part 2 and in Sections 674 and 1174 on the enforcement of judgments of other courts.

(b) Fees as provided in Sections 26828, 26830, and 26834 of the Government Code shall be charged and collected by the clerk for the issuance of a writ of execution, an order of examination of a judgment debtor, or an abstract of judgment.

(c) The prevailing party in any action subject to this chapter is entitled to the costs of enforcing the judgment and accrued interest.

SEC. 3.05. Section 664.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

664.5. (a) In any contested action or special proceeding other than a proceeding for voidable marriage pursuant to the Family Law Act (Title 2 (commencing with Section 4400) or dissolution of marriage, legal separation and summary dissolution pursuant to Title 3 (commencing with Section 4500) of the Civil Code), a small claims action, or an action or proceeding in which a prevailing party is not represented by counsel, the party submitting an order or judgment for entry shall prepare and mail a copy of the notice of entry of judgment to all parties who have appeared in the action or proceeding and shall file with the court the original notice of entry of judgment together with the proof of service by mail.

(b) Promptly upon entry of judgment in a contested action or special proceeding in which a prevailing party is not represented by counsel, the clerk of the court shall mail notice of entry of judgment to all parties who have appeared in the action or special proceeding and shall execute a certificate of such mailing and place it in the court's file in the cause.

(c) For purposes of this section, "judgment" includes any judgment, decree, or signed order from which an appeal lies.

Upon order of the court in any action or special proceeding, the clerk shall mail notice of entry of any judgment or ruling, whether or not appealable.

SEC. 3.1. Section 664.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure, as amended by Chapter 163 of the Statutes of 1992, is repealed.

SEC. 3.2. Section 695.220 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

695.220. Money received in satisfaction of a money judgment, except a money judgment for child support, is to be credited as follows:

(a) The money is first to be credited against the amounts described in subdivision (b) of Section 685.050 that are collected by the levying officer.

(b) Any remaining money is next to be credited against any fee due the court pursuant to Section 6103.5 of the Government Code, which are to be remitted to the court by the levying officer.

(c) Any remaining money is next to be credited against the accrued interest that remains unsatisfied.

(d) Any remaining money is to be credited against the principal amount of the judgment remaining unsatisfied. If the judgment is payable in installments, the remaining money is to be credited against the matured installments in the order in which they matured.

(e) Satisfaction of a money judgment for child support is to be credited as follows:

(1) The money is first to be credited against the current month's support.

(2) Any remaining money is next to be credited against the accrued interest that remains unsatisfied.

(3) Any remaining money is to be credited against the principal amount of the judgment remaining unsatisfied.

(4) Notwithstanding the above, a collection received as a result of a tax refund offset is first to be credited against past due support assigned to the state prior to satisfaction pursuant to paragraphs (1), (2), and (3).

SEC. 3.3. Section 6103.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6103.5. (a) Whenever a judgment is recovered by a public agency named in Section 6103, either as plaintiff or petitioner or as defendant or respondent, in any action or proceeding to begin, or to defend, which under the provisions of Section 6103 no fee for any official service rendered by the clerk of the court, including, but not limited to, the services of filing, certifying, and preparing transcripts, nor fee for service of process or notices by a sheriff, marshal, or constable has been paid, other than in a condemnation proceeding, quiet title action, action for the forfeiture of a fish net or nets or action for the forfeiture of an automobile or automobiles, the clerk entering the judgment shall include as a part of the judgment the amount of the filing fee and the amount of the fee for the service of process or notices which would have been paid but for Section 6103, designating it as such. The clerk entering the judgment shall include as part of the judgment the amount of the fees for certifying and preparing transcripts if the court has, in its discretion, ordered those fees to be paid. When an amount equal to the clerk's fees and the fees for service of process and notices is collected upon that judgment, those amounts shall be due and payable to the clerk and the serving officer respectively. The clerk shall ascertain from the serving officer's return the amount of fees he or she would have charged had it not been for the provisions of Section 6103. Remittances of the amounts so due shall be made within 45 days by the fiscal officer of the plaintiff or petitioner or respondent or defendant in the action or proceeding unless those fees have been collected by the levying officer and remitted to the court. No interest shall be computed or charged on the amount of the fee.

(c) The board of supervisors shall set a fee, not to exceed the actual costs of administering this section, up to a maximum of twenty-five dollars ($25), which shall be added to the writ of execution.

SEC. 3.4. Section 6159 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6159. (a) As used in this section:

(1) "Credit card" means any card, plate, coupon book, or other credit device existing for the purpose of being used from time to time upon presentation to obtain money, property, labor, or services on credit.

(3) "Cardholder" means any person to whom a credit card is issued or any person who has agreed with the card issuer to pay obligations arising from the issuance of a credit card to another person.

(4) "Draft purchaser" means any person who purchases credit card drafts.

(b) Subject to the provisions of subdivision (c), a court, city, county, city and county, or other public agency may authorize the acceptance of a credit card for any of the following:

(1) The payment for the deposit of bail or for any fine for any offense not declared to be a felony.

(2) The payment of a filing fee or other court fee.

(3) The payment of any towage or storage costs for a vehicle which has been removed from a highway, or from public or private property, as a result of parking violations.

(4) The payment of child or spousal support, including reimbursement of public assistance, related fees, costs, or penalties, with the authorization of the cardholder.

(5) The payment for services rendered by any city, county, or city and county.

(c) A court desiring to authorize the use of a credit card pursuant to subdivision (b) shall obtain the approval of its county board of supervisors. A city desiring to authorize the use of a credit card pursuant to subdivision (b) shall obtain the approval of its city council. Any other public agency desiring to authorize the use of a credit card pursuant to subdivision (b) shall obtain the approval of the governing body which has fiscal responsibility for such agency. After approval is obtained, a contract may be executed with one or more credit card issuers or draft purchasers. The contract shall provide for:

(1) The respective rights and duties of the court, city, county, city and county, or other public agency and card issuer or draft purchaser regarding the presentment, acceptability and payment of credit card drafts.

(2) The establishment of a reasonable means by which to facilitate payment settlements.

(3) The payment to the card issuer or draft purchaser of a reasonable fee or discount.

(4) Such other matters appropriately included in contracts with respect to the purchase of credit card drafts as may be agreed upon by the parties to the contract.

(d) The honoring of a credit card pursuant to subdivision (b) hereof constitutes payment of the amount owing to the court, city, county, city and county, or other public agency as of the date the credit card is honored provided the credit card draft is paid following its due presentment to a card issuer or draft purchaser.

(e) If any credit card draft is not paid following due presentment to a card issuer or draft purchaser or is charged back to the court, city, county, city and county, or other public agency for any reason, any record of payment made by the court, city, or other public agency honoring the credit card shall be void. Any receipt issued in acknowledgment of payment shall also be void. The obligation of the cardholder shall continue as an outstanding obligation as though no payment had been attempted.

(f) Notwithstanding Title 1.3 (commencing with Section 1747) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, a court, city, county, city and county, or any other public agency may impose a fee for the use of a credit card, not to exceed the costs incurred by the agency in providing for payment by credit card. These costs may include, but shall not be limited to, the payment of fees or discounts as specified in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c). Any fee imposed pursuant to this subdivision for the use of a credit card shall be approved by the governing body responsible for the fiscal decisions of the public agency.

(g) Fees or discounts provided for under paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) shall be deducted or accounted for prior to any statutory or other distribution of funds received from the card issuer or draft purchaser to the extent not recovered from the cardholder pursuant to subdivision (f).

SEC. 3.5. Section 26205.8 is added to the Government Code, to read:

26205.8. Notwithstanding any other provision of law relating to the destruction of attorney-client information or county records, at the request of the public defender, the board of supervisors may authorize the destruction of nonfelony public defender records eight years after final disposition of a case.

SEC. 4. Section 26824 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26824. The fee for filing a notice of appeal from a municipal or justice court in a civil action or a special proceeding is fifty dollars ($50). The Judicial Council may make rules governing the time and method of payment and providing for excuse.

SEC. 5. Section 26828 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26828. The fee for issuing a writ of attachment, a writ of mandate, a writ of execution, a writ of sale, a writ of possession, a writ of prohibition, or any other writ for the enforcement of any order or judgment is seven dollars ($7).

SEC. 6. Section 26829 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26829. The fee for issuing an order of sale is twenty dollars ($20).

SEC. 7. Section 26830 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26830. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the fee for filing any notice of motion, or any other paper requiring a hearing subsequent to the first paper, or any notice of intention to move for a new trial of any civil action or special proceeding, or an application for renewal of a judgment, is fourteen dollars ($14).

However, there shall be no fee for filing any of the following:

(1) An amended notice of motion.

(2) A memorandum that a civil case is at issue.

(3) A hearing on a petition for emancipation of a minor.

(4) Default hearings.

(5) A show-cause hearing on a petition for an injunction prohibiting harassment.

(6) A show-cause hearing on an application for an order prohibiting domestic violence.

(7) A show-cause hearing on writs of review, mandate, or prohibition.

(8) A show-cause hearing on a petition for a change of name.

(9) A hearing to compromise a claim of a minor or an insane or incompetent person.

(b) The fee for filing a motion for summary judgment or summary adjudication of issues is one hundred dollars ($100).

SEC. 8. Section 26834 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26834. The fee for issuing an abstract of judgment is seven dollars ($7).

SEC. 9. Section 26839 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26839. For an exemplification of a record or other paper on file, the fee is twenty dollars ($20) and the charges allowed for copying or comparing.

SEC. 10. Section 68085 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68085. (a) There is hereby established the Trial Court Trust Fund, the proceeds of which may only be expended, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for the purpose of funding trial court operations, as defined in Section 77003.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the fees listed in subdivision (c) shall all be deposited upon collection in a special account in the county treasury, and transmitted therefrom monthly to the Controller for deposit in the Trial Court Trust Fund.

(c) Except as specified in subdivision (d), this section applies to all fees collected pursuant to Sections 26820.4, 26826, 26827, 68086, 72055, and 72056.

(d) This section does not apply to that portion of a filing fee collected pursuant to Section 26820.4, 26826, 26827, 72055, or 72056 which is allocated for dispute resolution pursuant to Section 470.3 of the Business and Professions Code, the county law library pursuant to Section 6320 of the Business and Professions Code, the Judges' Retirement Fund pursuant to Section 26822.3, automated recordkeeping or conversion to micrographics pursuant to Sections 26863 and 68090.7, and courthouse financing pursuant to Section 76238.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no agency shall take action to change the amounts allocated to any of the above funds.

SEC. 11. Section 68097 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68097. Witnesses in civil cases may demand the payment of their mileage and fees for one day, in advance, and when so demanded shall not be compelled to attend until the allowances are paid except as hereinafter provided for employees of the Department of Justice who are peace officers or analysts in technical fields, members of the California Highway Patrol, members of the California State Police, peace officer members of the State Fire Marshal's office, other state employees, sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, marshals, deputy marshals, district attorney inspectors, probation officers, building inspectors, firefighters, and city police officers.

For the purposes of this section and Sections 68097.1 through 68097.10, the term "member of the California Highway Patrol" shall include those persons employed as vehicle inspection specialists by the California Highway Patrol.

SEC. 12. Section 68097.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68097.1. (a) Whenever an employee of the Department of Justice who is a peace officer or an analyst in a technical field, member of the California Highway Patrol, member of the California State Police, peace officer member of the State Fire Marshal's office, sheriff, deputy sheriff, marshal, deputy marshal, district attorney inspector, probation officer, building inspector, firefighter, or city police officer is required as a witness before any court or other tribunal in any civil action or proceeding in connection with a matter regarding an event or transaction which he or she has perceived or investigated in the course of his or her duties, a subpoena requiring his or her attendance may be served by delivering a copy either to the person personally or by delivering two copies to his or her immediate superior or agent designated by that immediate superior to receive that service.

(b) Whenever any other state employee is required as a witness before any court or other tribunal in any civil action or proceeding in connection with a matter, event, or transaction concerning which he or she has expertise gained in the course of his or her duties, a subpoena requiring his or her attendance may be served by delivering a copy either to the person personally or by delivering two copies to his or her immediate superior or agent designated by that immediate superior to receive that service.

(c) The attendance of any person described in subdivisions (a) and (b) may be required pursuant to this section only in accordance with Section 1989 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(d) As used in this section and in Sections 68097.2 and 68097.5, "tribunal" means any person or body before whom or which attendance of witnesses may be required by subpoena, including an arbitrator in arbitration proceedings.

SEC. 13. Section 68097.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68097.2. (a) Any peace officer, as that term is defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2 of the Penal Code, any firefighter, or any state employee, or county employee, who is obliged by a subpoena issued pursuant to Section 68097.1 to attend as a witness, shall receive the salary or other compensation to which he or she is normally entitled from the public entity by which he or she is employed during the time that he or she travels to and from the place where the court or other tribunal is located and while he or she is required to remain at that place pursuant to the subpoena. He or she shall also receive from the public entity by which he or she is employed the actual necessary and reasonable traveling expenses incurred by him or her in complying with the subpoena.

(b) The party at whose request the subpoena is issued shall reimburse the public entity for the full cost to the public entity incurred in paying the peace officer, firefighter, state employee, or specified county employee his or her salary or other compensation and traveling expenses as provided for in this section, for each day that the peace officer, firefighter, state employee, or specified county employee is required to remain in attendance pursuant to the subpoena. The amount of one hundred fifty dollars ($150), together with the subpoena, shall be tendered to the person accepting the subpoena for each day that the peace officer, firefighter, state employee, or specified county employee is required to remain in attendance pursuant to the subpoena.

(c) If the actual expenses should later prove to be less than the amount tendered, the excess of the amount tendered shall be refunded.

(d) If the actual expenses should later prove to be more than the amount deposited, the difference shall be paid to the public entity by the party at whose request the subpoena is issued.

(e) If a court continues a proceeding on its own motion, no additional witness fee shall be required prior to the issuance of a subpoena or the making of an order directing the peace officer, firefighter, or state employee to appear on the date to which the proceeding is continued.

SEC. 13.05. Section 68502.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68502.5. (a) The Judicial Council shall provide by rule for the appointment of a standing Trial Court Budget Commission and the deadlines for meeting its various responsibilities. The commission shall have the authority to:

(1) Receive and review budget requests from the trial courts.

(2) Annually submit a recommended trial court budget to the Judicial Council for approval and forwarding to the Governor for inclusion in the Governor's proposed State Budget.

(3) Prepare a recommended schedule for the allocation of moneys to individual courts for approval by the Judicial Council and forwarding to the Governor for inclusion in the Governor's proposed State Budget.

(4) Reallocate funds in accordance with Judicial Council rules during the course of the fiscal year to ensure equal access to the trial courts by the public, to improve trial court operations, and to meet trial court emergencies. Reallocations shall be limited to 15 percent of that portion of any court's annual budget amount funded by the state, excluding any amount derived from trial court block grants appropriated to a county by the Legislature. Counties shall have no obligation to replace moneys reallocated pursuant to this paragraph.

(5) Allocate funds in the Trial Court Improvement Fund in accordance to Judicial Council rules to ensure equal access to trial courts by the public, to improve trial court operations, and to meet trial court emergencies.

(6) At the request of the presiding judge of a trial court, conduct an independent review of the funding level of the court to determine whether it is adequate to enable the court to discharge its statutory and constitutional responsibilities.

(7) From time to time, review the level of fees charged by the courts for various services and prepare recommended adjustments for approval and forwarding to the Legislature by the Judicial Council.

(b) Members of the commission shall receive no compensation from the state for their services. When called into session, they shall receive their actual and necessary expenses for travel, board, and lodging, which shall be paid from the funds appropriated for this use. These expenses shall be appropriated in the manner as the Judicial Council directs, and shall be audited by the Controller in accordance with the rules of the Board of Control.

SEC. 13.1. Section 68540 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68540. The state shall pay the additional compensation of a judge of a municipal or justice court, assigned to a superior court.

SEC. 13.2. Section 68540.5 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 13.3. Section 68541 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68541. (a) The compensation of a judge of a justice court who receives a part-time salary and who is assigned by the Chairperson of the Judicial Council to serve in a court in a county other than that in which he or she was elected or appointed shall be paid by the state.

(b) If a justice court judge is assigned to another justice court, except for exchange assignments as defined by rules adopted by the Judicial Council, the salary of the office to which he or she is assigned shall, for purposes of Section 68540.7, be deemed to be equivalent to the salary paid a justice court judge certified pursuant to Section 68202.5 of the Government Code.

SEC. 13.4. Section 68541.5 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 13.5. Section 68542 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68542. The expenses for travel, board, and lodging of each judge assigned to a superior, municipal, or justice court in a county other than that in which he or she regularly sits shall be paid by the state under the rules adopted by the Board of Control which are applicable to officers of the state provided for in Article VI of the Constitution while traveling on official state business.

SEC. 13.6. Section 68543.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68543.5. (a) Whenever a judge retired as such under the Judges' Retirement Law is assigned to serve in a trial court, the state shall pay the judge for each day of service in the court in the amount specified in Section 68543.7, without loss or interruption of retirement benefits, unless the judge waives compensation under this section. Whenever a retired judge of a justice court who is not under the Judges' Retirement Law is assigned to serve in a trial court the state shall pay the judge for each day of service in the court in the amount specified in Section 68543.7, or the compensation specified in Section 68541, whichever is greater. The compensation shall be paid by the Judicial Council out of any appropriation for extra compensation of judges assigned by the Chairperson of the Judicial Council.

If a judge retired as such under the Judges' Retirement Law is assigned to serve in a trial court, the 8 percent difference between the compensation of the retired judge while so assigned and the compensation of a judge of the court to which assigned shall be paid to the Judges' Retirement Fund.

During the period of assignment, a retired judge shall be allowed expenses for travel, board, and lodging incurred in the discharge of the assignment. When assigned to sit in the county in which he or she resides, the judge shall be allowed expenses for travel, and board incurred in the discharge of the assignment. The expenses for travel, board, and lodging shall be paid by the state under the rules adopted by the Board of Control which are applicable to officers of the state provided for in Article VI of the Constitution while traveling on official state business.

Notwithstanding the above provisions pertaining to compensation, a retired judge on senior judge status shall receive compensation from the state as provided in Sections 75028 and 75028.2, and shall be allowed expenses for travel, board, and lodging incurred in the discharge of the assignment as provided in this section.

(b) Whenever a judge retired as such under the Judges' Retirement Law is assigned to sit in a court of appeal or the Supreme Court, he or she shall be compensated while so sitting at a rate equal to 92 percent of the full compensation of a judge of the court to which he or she is assigned unless the judge waives compensation under this section. A retired judge of a justice court who is not under the Judges' Retirement Law and who is assigned to sit in a court of appeal or the Supreme Court shall be compensated while so sitting at the full compensation of a judge of the court to which he or she is assigned, or the compensation specified in Section 68541, whichever is greater. The compensation shall be chargeable for the period specified in Section 68547 the same as provided by law with respect to the compensation of a judge of the court to which he or she is assigned and the compensation is payable out of any appropriation for extra compensation of judges assigned by the Chairperson of the Judicial Council.

If the compensation is greater than the judge's retirement allowance, the state shall pay the judge the difference between the compensation and the retirement allowance. The state shall reimburse the Judges' Retirement Fund for the retirement allowance paid to the judge while sitting on assignment, except that if no allowance has been paid because the judge has taken deferred retirement, no reimbursement shall be paid to the Judges' Retirement System.

If the compensation would be less than his or her retirement allowance, the retirement allowance shall continue to be paid in lieu of the compensation. The state shall reimburse the Judges' Retirement Fund in the amount of the compensation which would otherwise have been paid to the judge while sitting on assignment.

If a judge retired under the Judges' Retirement Law is assigned to sit in a court of appeal or the Supreme Court, the 8 percent difference between the compensation of the retired judge while so assigned and the compensation of a judge of the court to which assigned shall be paid to the Judges' Retirement Fund.

During the period of assignment, a retired judge shall be allowed expenses for travel, board, and lodging incurred in the discharge of the assignment. When assigned to sit in the county in which he or she resides, the judge shall be allowed expenses for travel, and board incurred in the discharge of the assignment. The expenses for travel, board, and lodging shall be paid by the state under the rules adopted by the State Board of Control which are applicable to officers of the state provided for in Article VI of the Constitution while traveling on official state business.

Notwithstanding the above provisions pertaining to compensation, a retired judge on senior judge status shall receive compensation from the state as provided in Sections 75028 and 75028.2, and shall be allowed expenses for travel, board, and lodging incurred in the discharge of the assignment as provided in this section.

SEC. 14. Section 68543.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68543.7. Subject to funding in the Budget Act, the Chief Justice shall make available by assignment the equivalent of 50 additional full-time judges. A judge retired under the Judges' Retirement System sitting on assignment in a trial court shall be paid in the amount of 92 percent of 1/250th of the annual salary of a judge of the court to which he or she is assigned for each day of service in the court.

SEC. 14.1. Section 68543.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68543.8. (a) The Legislature finds that there is a shortage of judicial officers available to provide temporary assistance to courts in rural counties, under assignment by the chief justice. When courts are unable to obtain temporary assistance, delay of both civil trials and case settlements occur. The availability of an assigned judge can substantially reduce these delays. The purpose of this section is to make judicial assistance more available.

(b) The Judicial Council shall contract with up to 10 retired judges who shall be available to be assigned up to 110 court days each year by the Chairperson of the Judicial Council to courts in counties which have requested these judges for purposes of reducing delays in civil trials in those courts. If counties request more than 10 retired judges pursuant to this section, the Judicial Council shall give priority in assigning the retired judges to counties with fewer than 10 judges.

A judge under contract pursuant to this section shall serve as assigned during the period of the contract and waives any right to refuse assignment as otherwise provided by law. This section shall not be construed to limit the authority of the Chief Justice to make assignments to expedite judicial business and to equalize the workload of judges.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 68543.5, each judge under contract pursuant to this section shall receive one-half of the daily salary of a superior court judge for each day of service, in addition to any retirement benefits to which the judge may be entitled.

(d) The assigned judge's salary shall be paid by the state. A retired judge under contract pursuant to this section shall be allowed expenses for travel, board, and lodging incurred in the discharge of each assignment. When assigned to sit in the county in which he or she resides, the judge shall be allowed necessary and reasonable expenses for travel and board incurred in the discharge of the assignment. The expenses for travel, board, and lodging shall be paid by the state under the rules adopted by the State Board of Control which are applicable to officers of the state provided for in Article VI of the California Constitution while traveling on official state business.

SEC. 14.2. Section 68544 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68544. When the judge files a claim, the State Controller shall draw his or her warrants for the payment of extra compensation or expenses as provided in this article.

SEC. 14.3. Section 68545 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68545. The payments by the state toward the extra compensation and expenses provided in this article shall be made from the money appropriated for the support of the Judicial Council.

SEC. 15. Section 68926.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68926.1. Upon filing a notice of appeal for which a fee is paid pursuant to Section 68926, the appellant shall deposit the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) with the clerk of the originating court. The deposit shall be credited against the amount chargeable for the preparation of the clerk's transcript or any other appeal processing or notification.

The deposit shall be forfeited in the event of abandonment or dismissal of appeal prior to filing of the record in the reviewing court.

SEC. 16. Section 71386 of the Government Code is amended to read:

71386. (a) Each superior, municipal, and justice court shall adopt a written policy, consistent with rules adopted by the Judicial Council, governing the acceptance of checks and money orders in payment of any fees, fines, or bail deposits. Such policy shall permit clerks to accept checks and money orders under conditions which tend to assure their validity.

(b) A court shall accept a personal check, bank cashier's check, or money order for payment of any fee or fine, or for a deposit of bail for any offense which is not declared to be a felony, provided such check or money order meets the criteria established in subdivision (a), however, no court shall be required to accept a check in excess of three hundred dollars ($300) from a defendant in custody as a deposit of bail for any alleged violation of the Penal Code.

(c) The acceptance of a check pursuant to this section constitutes payment of the obligation owed to the payee public agency to the extent of the amount of the check as of the date of acceptance when, but not before, the check is duly paid.

(d) If any check offered in payment pursuant to this section is returned to the payee without payment, a reasonable charge for the returned check not to exceed the actual costs incurred by the court may be imposed to recover the court's processing and collection costs. This charge may be added to, and become part of, any underlying obligation other than an obligation which constitutes a lien on real property, or a different method of payment for that payment and future payments by such person may be prescribed. The charges imposed by a court for a returned check shall be retained by the treasurer of the county and be deposited in the county general fund.

SEC. 17. Section 72055.2 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 18. Section 72059 of the Government Code is amended to read:

72059. The fee for receiving and filing an abstract of judgment rendered by a judge of another court and for subsequent services based on it is twenty dollars ($20).

SEC. 18.1. Section 77200 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 18.2. Section 77200 is added to the Government Code, to read:

77200. (a) Beginning with the 1994–95 fiscal year, it is the intent of the Legislature to increase trial court funding by an amount sufficient to fund 65 percent of the annual costs for court operations. It is the intent of the Legislature that this funding shall increase to 70 percent for the 1995–96 fiscal year.

(b) In any year in which the amounts provided pursuant to this section are reduced, a county may reduce total expenditures for court operations by an amount up to, but not exceeding the total dollar amount of, the reduction to the county in state block grant funding.

(c) (1) Quarterly payments shall be transmitted by the Controller on or before the 25th day of that quarter, except that the quarterly apportionment shall be withheld from any county that is delinquent in making the full transfer of funds pursuant to Section 1463.001 of the Penal Code.

(2) Upon receipt of any delinquent payment, the Controller shall make the quarterly apportionment on or before the 25th day of the month following the month in which the delinquent payment was received from the county. The Controller shall calculate a penalty on any delinquent payment and that amount shall be deducted from the next quarterly apportionment. The penalty shall be calculated by multiplying the amount of the delinquent payment by the Pooled Money Investment Account rate at the end of the prior fiscal year.

(3) Before making any apportionments under this section, the Controller shall deduct, from the annual appropriation for that purpose, the estimated actual administrative costs that will be incurred under this section.

(4) Penalty amounts withheld under paragraph (2), up to the amount of administrative costs deducted from the annual appropriation pursuant to paragraph (3), shall be allocated to the counties in the same proportion as their annual allocations. The remainder of any such penalty amounts shall be deposited in the General Fund.

(d) (1) It is the intent of the Legislature that the state's share of funding for trial court operations shall be provided in block grants to the counties in the 1993–94 fiscal year only, and that thereafter it shall be included in the Budget Act as part of the judicial branch budget. Each option county shall receive a portion of the amount appropriated in the 1993–94 Budget Act for trial court operations as indicated in paragraph (2) of this subdivision.

(2) Each county shall receive a quarterly payment of one-fourth of the amount indicated below, as prescribed in paragraph (1) of subdivision (c):

(3) All moneys deposited in the Trial Court Trust Fund in excess of one hundred seventy-five million dollars ($175,000,000) shall be transferred to the Trial Court Improvement Fund and shall be allocated to the trial courts by the Trial Court Budget Commission as approved by the Judicial Council.

(f) To the extent a county has elected to devote a proportion of filing fee moneys greater than that established in fiscal year 1991–92 to a purpose specified in subdivision (d) of Section 68085 in excess of the three-dollar ($3) allocation originally permitted for alternate dispute resolution services, that county shall certify to the Controller on November 1, February 1, May 1, and August 1 of each year the additional amounts so devoted for the preceding quarter. The Controller shall then deduct the amount certified by the county from the payment specified in subdivision (e). The amount offset shall be redistributed to all counties in accordance with subdivision (e) by the Controller. Should an affected county be delinquent in certifying to the Controller, the payment specified in subdivision (e) shall be withheld until the certification is received.

(g) In no event shall the total of the quarterly payments to an option county exceed 100 percent of the annual expenditures for court operations of the county as determined by the Judicial Council and reported to the Controller. The Judicial Council shall submit to the Controller a report on the annual expenditures on or before December 1 following each fiscal year. The Controller shall deduct the amount in excess of 100 percent from the subsequent quarterly apportionment.

SEC. 18.3. Section 77205.3 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 18.4. Section 77205.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

77205.3. Amounts appropriated in the annual Budget Act for assigned judges shall be transferred to the Judicial Council on a monthly basis. The Judicial Council shall certify the amount expended for judicial assignment purposes monthly, and the Controller shall transfer to the Judicial Council the amount certified. The amounts so transferred by the Controller shall be credited to the appropriation available to the Judicial Council in augmentation of the Budget Act.

SEC. 18.5. Section 77207 of the Government Code is amended to read:

77207. (a) There is in the State Treasury the Trial Court Improvement Fund.

(b) Funds as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 77200 shall be deposited in the Trial Court Improvement Fund for purposes of this section. Of that sum, any funds unencumbered at the end of that fiscal year shall revert to the Trial Court Trust Fund.

(c) Moneys in the Trial Court Improvement Fund shall be disbursed pursuant to Section 68502.5, subject to appropriation by the Legislature.

(d) The Judicial Council shall present an annual report to the Legislature on the use of the Trial Court Improvement Fund. The report shall include appropriate recommendations.

SEC. 19. Section 1203.1b of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.1b. (a) In any case in which a defendant is convicted of an offense and granted probation, the court, taking into account any amount which the defendant is ordered to pay in fines, assessments, and restitution, shall make a determination of the ability of the defendant to pay all or a portion of the reasonable cost of probation; and of conducting the presentence investigation and preparing the presentence report made pursuant to Section 1203. The reasonable cost of these services and of probation shall not exceed the amount determined to be the actual average cost thereof. The court shall order the defendant to appear before a county officer designated by the court to make an inquiry into the ability of the defendant to pay all or a portion of such costs. At a hearing, the defendant shall be entitled to have, but shall not be limited to, the opportunity to be heard in person, to present witnesses and other documentary evidence, and to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses, and to disclosure of the evidence against the defendant, and a written statement of the findings of the court or the county officer. If the court determines that the defendant has the ability to pay all or part of the costs, the court shall set the amount to be reimbursed and order the defendant to pay that sum to the county in the manner in which the court believes reasonable and compatible with the defendant's financial ability; or with the consent of the defendant, the court shall order the probation officer to set the amount of payment, which shall not exceed the maximum amount set by the court, and the manner in which the payment shall be made to the county. In making a determination of whether a defendant has the ability to pay, the court shall take into account the amount of any fine imposed upon the defendant and any amount the defendant has been ordered to pay in restitution. The court may hold additional hearings during the probationary period.

If practicable, the court or the probation officer shall order payments to be made on a monthly basis. Execution may be issued on the order in the same manner as a judgment in a civil action. The order to pay all or part of the costs shall not be enforced by contempt.

A payment schedule for reimbursement of the costs of presentence investigation based on income shall be developed by the probation department of each county and approved by the presiding judges of the municipal and superior courts.

(b) The term "ability to pay" means the overall capability of the defendant to reimburse the costs, or a portion of the costs, of conducting the presentence investigation, preparing the presentence report, and probation, and shall include, but shall not be limited to, the defendant's:

(1) Present financial position.

(2) Reasonably discernible future financial position. In no event shall the court consider a period of more than six months from the date of the hearing for purposes of determining reasonably discernible future financial position.

(3) Likelihood that the defendant shall be able to obtain employment within the six-month period from the date of the hearing.

(4) Any other factor or factors which may bear upon the defendant's financial capability to reimburse the county for the costs.

(c) At any time during the pendency of the judgment rendered according to the terms of this section, a defendant against whom a judgment has been rendered may petition the rendering court to modify or vacate its previous judgment on the grounds of a change of circumstances with regard to the defendant's ability to pay the judgment. The court shall advise the defendant of this right at the time of rendering of the judgment.

(d) All sums paid by a defendant pursuant to this section shall be allocated for the operating expenses of the county probation department.

(e) The board of supervisors in any county, by resolution, may establish a fee for the processing of payments made in installments to the probation department pursuant to this section, not to exceed the administrative and clerical costs of the collection of those installment payments as determined by the board of supervisors, except that the fee shall not exceed thirty-five dollars ($35).

(f) This section shall be operative in a county upon the adoption of an ordinance to that effect by the board of supervisors.

SEC. 20. Section 1463.001 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1463.001. All fines and forfeitures imposed and collected for crimes other than parking offenses resulting from a filing in a court shall as soon as practicable after receipt thereof, be deposited with the county treasurer, and each month the total fines and forfeitures which have accumulated within the past month shall be distributed, as follows:

(a) The state penalties, county penalties, special penalties, service charges, and penalty allocations shall be transferred to the proper funds as required by law.

(b) The base fines shall be distributed, as follows:

(1) Any base fines which are subject to specific distribution under any other section shall be distributed to the specified funds of the state or local agency.

(2) Any amount due to the county which is collected pursuant to Section 1203.1, but excluding fees to cover the actual cost of formal probation, shall be divided between the state and county, with 75 percent transferred to the General Fund and 25 percent transferred to the proper funds of the county.

(3) Of base fines resulting from county arrest not included in paragraph (1), 25 percent shall be transferred into the proper funds of the county, and 75 percent shall be transferred to the General Fund. In any fiscal year that a county does not remit to the General Fund an amount equal to the amount transmitted during the 1992–93 fiscal year, that county shall make a payment from county funds equal to the difference to the General Fund by October 1 of the subsequent fiscal year.

(4) Of base fines resulting from city arrests not included in paragraph (1), an amount equal to the applicable county percentages set forth in Section 1463.002, as modified by Section 1463.28, shall be divided between the state and county, with 75 percent transferred to the General Fund and 25 percent transferred into the proper funds of the county. In any fiscal year that a county does not remit to the General Fund an amount equal to the amount transmitted during the 1992–93 fiscal year, that county shall make a payment from county funds equal to the difference to the General Fund by October 1 of the subsequent fiscal year. The remainder of base fines resulting from city arrests shall be divided between each city and the state, with 50 percent deposited to the General Fund, and 50 percent deposited to the treasury of the appropriate city.

(5) In a county that had an agreement as of March 22, 1977, that provides for city fines and forfeitures to accrue to the county in exchange for sales tax receipts, of base fines resulting from city arrests not included in paragraph (1), 50 percent shall be deposited to the General Fund, and 50 percent shall be deposited into the proper funds of the county.

(c) Each county shall keep a record of its deposits to its treasury and its transmittal to each city treasury pursuant to this section, and shall provide these records upon request to the Controller.

(d) Any amounts required to be distributed to the state pursuant to this section shall be remitted to the Controller no later than 45 days after the end of the month in which such fines and forfeitures were collected. This remittance shall be accompanied by a remittance advice identifying the collection month and the appropriate account in the General Fund to which it is to be deposited. Any remittance which is not made in accordance with this section shall be considered delinquent and subject to subdivision (c) of Section 77200 of the Government Code.

(e) In the event that the percentage of revenues payable to the General Fund from violations of any of the provisions of the Fish and Game Code or any regulation adopted pursuant thereto, or any other law providing for the protection or preservation of birds, mammals, fish, reptiles or amphibia, is reduced by operation of law to a percentage lower than that payable to the state during the 1991–92 fiscal year, each county shall increase its transmittal to the General Fund from its share of fines and forfeitures pursuant to subdivision (b) by an amount equal to the reduction in its transmittal to the General Fund.

(f) The distribution specified in subdivision (b) applies to all funds subject thereto distributed on or after July 1, 1992, regardless of whether the court has elected to allocate and distribute funds pursuant to Section 1464.8.

SEC. 21. Section 1463.007 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1463.007. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any county or court that implements or has implemented a comprehensive program to identify and collect fines and forfeitures which have not been paid after 60 days from the date on which they were due and payable, with or without warrant having been issued against the alleged violator, which are not being paid through time payments and for which the base fine excluding state and county penalties is at least one hundred dollars ($100), may deduct and deposit in the county treasury the cost of operating that program, excluding capital expenditures, from any revenues collected thereby prior to making any distribution of revenues to other governmental entities required by any other provision of law. For purposes of this section, a comprehensive collection program shall be a separate and distinct revenue collection activity and shall include at least 10 of the following components:

(a) Monthly bill statements to all debtors.

(b) Telephone contact with delinquent debtors to apprise them of their failure to meet payment obligations.

(c) Issuance of warning letters to advise delinquent debtors of an outstanding obligation.

(d) Requests for credit reports to assist in locating delinquent debtors.

(e) Access to Employment Development Department employment and wage information.

(f) The generation of monthly delinquent reports.

(g) Participation in the Franchise Tax Board's tax intercept program.

(h) The use of Department of Motor Vehicle information to locate delinquent debtors.

(i) The use of wage and bank account garnishments.

(j) The imposition of liens on real property and proceeds from the sale of real property held by a title company.

(k) The filing of objections to the inclusion of outstanding fines and forfeitures in bankruptcy proceedings.

(l) Coordination with the probation department to locate debtors who may be on formal or informal probation.

(m) The initiation of drivers' license suspension actions where appropriate.

(n) The capability to accept credit card payments.

Any county that exercises the authority granted in this section for the purpose of enhancing its revenue collections shall file an annual report of its activities with the Legislature.

This section shall be repealed on June 30, 1997, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before June 30, 1997, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 21.5. Section 1804 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

1804. (a) The abstract shall be made upon a form furnished or approved by the department and shall contain all necessary information to identify the defendant, including, but not limited to, the person's driver's license number, name, and date of birth, the date and nature of the offense, the vessel number, if any, of the vessel involved in the offense, the license plate number of the vehicle involved in the offense, the date of hearing, and the judgment, except that in the case of infractions where the court has not directed the department to suspend or restrict the defendant's driver's license, only the conviction and not the judgment need be set forth in the abstract. The abstract shall also indicate whether the vehicle involved in the offense is a commercial motor vehicle, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 15210, whether the vehicle was of a type requiring the driver to have a certificate issued pursuant to Section 2512, 12517, 12519, 12523, or 12523.5 or any endorsement issued pursuant to paragraph (2) or (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 15278, and whether the vehicle was transporting hazardous material at the time of the offense, or whether the vessel involved in the offense was a recreational vessel, as defined in subdivision (y) of Section 651 of the Harbors and Navigation Code.

(b) As to any abstract for which the original arrest and final conviction was for a violation of subdivision (b), (c), (d), (e), or (f) of Section 655 of the Harbors and Navigation Code or Section 23152 or 23153 of this code, the abstract shall contain a statement indicating the percentage of alcohol, by weight, in the person's blood whenever that percentage was determined by a chemical test. The information regarding the chemical test shall be compiled if it is available to the clerk of the court. All information required to be compiled pursuant to this subdivision shall be kept confidential in the records of the department pursuant to Section 1808.5. The department may use the information for research and statistical purposes and for determining the eligibility of any person to operate a motor vehicle on the highways of this state. The information shall not be released to any other public or private agency, except for research and statistical summary purposes and, for those purposes, the name and address of the person and any other identifying information shall not be disclosed.

(c) The Legislature finds and declares that blood-alcohol percentages have valuable research potential in providing statistical summary information on impaired drivers but that a specific blood-alcohol percentage is only an item of evidence for purposes of criminal and licensing sanctions imposed by law. The Legislature recognizes that the accuracy of the determination of a specific blood-alcohol percentage is not the critical determination in a conviction for driving under the influence of an alcoholic beverage if the blood-alcohol percentage exceeds the statutory amount.

SEC. 21.6. Section 12808 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

12808. (a) The department shall, before issuing or renewing any license, check the record of the applicant for conviction of traffic violations and traffic accidents.

(b) The department shall, before issuing or renewing any license, check the record of the applicant for notices of failure to appear in court filed with it and shall withhold or shall not issue a license to any applicant who has violated his written promise to appear in court unless the department has received a certificate issued by the magistrate or clerk of the court hearing the case in which the promise was given showing that the case has been adjudicated or unless the applicant's record is cleared as provided in Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 41500) of Division 17. In lieu of the certificate of adjudication, a notice from the court stating that the original records have been lost or destroyed shall permit the department to issue a license.

(c) Any notice received by the department pursuant to Section 40509, 40509.1, or 40509.5 which has been on file five years may be removed from the department records and destroyed at the discretion of the department.

SEC. 21.7. Section 13365.5 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

13365.5. (a) Upon receipt of a notification issued pursuant to Section 40509.1, the department shall suspend the person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle until compliance with the court order is shown or as prescribed in subdivision (c) of Section 12808. The suspension under this section shall not be effective until 45 days after the giving of written notice by the department.

(b) This section does not apply to a notification of failure to comply with a court order issued for a violation enumerated in paragraph (1), (2), (3), (6), or (7) of subdivision (b) of Section 1803.

SEC. 22. Section 40509 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

hearing referee pursuant to Section 256 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or any violation of any other statute relating to the safe operation of a vehicle, except violations not required to be reported pursuant to paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (6), (7), and (8) of subdivision (b) of Section 1803. The notice shall be given within 60 days of the failure to appear. If thereafter the case in which the promise was given is adjudicated or the person who has violated the court order appears in court or otherwise satisfies the order of the court, the magistrate or clerk of the court hearing the case shall sign and file with the department a certificate to that effect.

(b) If any person has, for a period of 15 or more days, willfully failed to pay a lawfully imposed fine within the time authorized by the court or to pay a fine pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 42003, the magistrate or clerk of the court may give notice of the fact to the department for any violation, except violations not required to be reported pursuant to paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (6), (7), and (8) of subdivision (b) of Section 1803. If thereafter the fine is fully paid, the magistrate or clerk of the court shall issue and file with the department a certificate showing that the fine has been paid.

(c) (1) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b), the court may notify the department of the total amount of bail, fines, assessments, and fees authorized or required by this code, including Section 40508.5, which are unpaid by any person.

(3) This subdivision applies only to violations of this code that do not require a mandatory court appearance, are not contested by the defendant, and do not require proof of correction certified by the court.

(d) Whenever any person has for a period of 15 or more days willfully failed to obey any court order concerning a violation of this code other than failure to appear or pay a fine, the department shall suspend the person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle until compliance with the court order is shown. The magistrate or clerk of the court may give notice of any noncompliance of a court order to the department. The suspension shall not become effective until 45 days after the giving of written notice by the department to the person or until the end of any stay of suspension. However, this subdivision does not apply to court orders concerning violations enumerated in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (6), and (7) of subdivision (b) of Section 1803.

(e) With respect to a violation of this code, this section is applicable to any court which has not elected to be subject to the notice requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 40509.5.

(f) Any violation subject to Section 40001, which is the responsibility of the owner of the vehicle, shall not be reported under this section.

SEC. 22.5. Section 40509.1 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

40509.1. If any person has, for a period of 15 or more days, willfully failed to comply with a court order, except a failure to appear, to pay a fine, or to attend traffic violator school, which was issued for a violation of this code, the magistrate or clerk of the court may give notice of the fact to the department.

SEC. 23. Section 40509.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

(c) The court shall mail a courtesy warning notice to the defendant by first-class mail at the address shown on the notice to appear, at least 10 days before sending a notice to the department under this section.

(d) If the court notifies the department of a failure to appear or pay a fine pursuant to this section, no arrest warrant shall be issued for an alleged violation of subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 40508 or of a court order issued pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 42003, unless one of the following criteria is met:

(1) The alleged underlying offense is a misdemeanor or felony.

(2) The alleged underlying offense is a violation of any provision of Division 12 (commencing with Section 24000), Division 13 (commencing with Section 29000), or Division 15 (commencing with Section 35000), required to be reported pursuant to Section 1803.

(3) The driver's record does not show that the defendant has a valid California driver's license.

(4) The driver's record shows an unresolved charge that the defendant is in violation of his or her written promise to appear for one or more other alleged violations of the law.

(e) In addition to the proceedings described in this section, the court may elect to notify the department pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 40509.

(f) Whenever any person has for a period of 15 or more days willfully failed to obey any court order concerning a violation of this code other than failure to appear or pay a fine, the department shall suspend the person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle until compliance with the court order is shown. The magistrate or clerk of the court may give notice of any noncompliance of a court order to the department. The suspension shall not become effective until 45 days after the giving of written notice by the department to the person or until the end of any stay of suspension. However, this subdivision does not apply to court orders concerning violations enumerated in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), (6), and (7) of subdivision (b) of Section 1803.

(g) This section is applicable to courts which have elected to provide notice pursuant to subdivision (b). The method of commencing or terminating an election to proceed under this section shall be prescribed by the department.

(h) Any violation subject to Section 40001, which is the responsibility of the owner of the vehicle, shall not be reported under this section.

SEC. 23.5. It is the intent of the Legislature to waive any claims for reimbursement from a county for its share of the salaries of judges serving in the county on assignment on or after July 1, 1993.

SEC. 24. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 25. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to make necessary changes in the funding and operation of the courts, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 159

An act to amend Section 1203.1b of the Penal Code, relating to conditional sentences.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1203.1b of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.1b. (a) In any case in which a defendant is convicted of an offense and granted probation or given a conditional sentence, the court, taking into account any amount that the defendant is ordered to pay in fines, assessments, and restitution, shall make a determination of the ability of the defendant to pay all or a portion of the reasonable cost of probation or a conditional sentence; and of conducting the presentence investigation and preparing the presentence report made pursuant to Section 1203. The reasonable cost of these services and of probation or a conditional sentence shall not exceed the amount determined to be the actual average cost thereof. The court shall order the defendant to appear before a county officer designated by the court to make an inquiry into the ability of the defendant to pay all or a portion of the costs. At a hearing, the defendant shall be entitled to have, but shall not be limited to, the opportunity to be heard in person, to present witnesses and other documentary evidence, and to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses, and to disclosure of the evidence against the defendant, and a written statement of the findings of the court or the county officer. If the court determines that the defendant has the ability to pay all or part of the costs, the court shall set the amount to be reimbursed and order the defendant to pay that sum to the county in the manner in which the court believes reasonable and compatible with the defendant's financial ability; or with the consent of the defendant, the court shall order the probation officer to set the amount of payment, which shall not exceed the maximum amount set by the court, and the manner in which the payment shall be made to the county. In making a determination of whether a defendant has the ability to pay, the court shall take into account the amount of any fine imposed upon the defendant and any amount the defendant has been ordered to pay in restitution. The court may hold additional hearings during the probationary or conditional sentence period.

If practicable, the court or the probation officer shall order payments to be made on a monthly basis. Execution may be issued on the order in the same manner as a judgment in a civil action. The order to pay all or part of the costs shall not be enforced by contempt.

A payment schedule for reimbursement of the costs of presentence investigation based on income shall be developed by the probation department of each county and approved by the presiding judges of the municipal and superior courts.

(b) The term "ability to pay" means the overall capability of the defendant to reimburse the costs, or a portion of the costs, of conducting the presentence investigation, preparing the presentence report, and probation or conditional sentence, and shall include, but shall not be limited to, the defendant's:

(1) Present financial position.

(2) Reasonably discernible future financial position. In no event shall the court consider a period of more than six months from the date of the hearing for purposes of determining reasonably discernible future financial position.

(3) Likelihood that the defendant shall be able to obtain employment within the six-month period from the date of the hearing.

(4) Any other factor or factors that may bear upon the defendant's financial capability to reimburse the county for the costs.

(c) At any time during the pendency of the judgment rendered according to the terms of this section, a defendant against whom a judgment has been rendered may petition the rendering court to modify or vacate its previous judgment on the grounds of a change of circumstances with regard to the defendant's ability to pay the judgment. The court shall advise the defendant of this right at the time of rendering of the judgment.

(d) All sums paid by a defendant pursuant to this section shall be allocated for the operating expenses of the county probation department.

(e) This section shall be operative in a county upon the adoption of an ordinance to that effect by the board of supervisors.

SEC. 2. Section 1203.1b of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.1b. (a) In any case in which a defendant is convicted of an offense and granted probation or given a conditional sentence, the court, taking into account any amount that the defendant is ordered to pay in fines, assessments, and restitution, shall make a determination of the ability of the defendant to pay all or a portion of the reasonable cost of probation or a conditional sentence, of conducting the presentence investigation and preparing the presentence report made pursuant to Section 1203, and of processing a jurisdictional transfer pursuant to Section 1203.9 or of processing a request for interstate compact supervision pursuant to Sections 11175 to 11179, inclusive. The reasonable cost of these services and of probation or a conditional sentence shall not exceed the amount determined to be the actual average cost thereof. The court shall order the defendant to appear before a county officer designated by the court to make an inquiry into the ability of the defendant to pay all or a portion of the costs. At a hearing, the defendant shall be entitled to have, but shall not be limited to, the opportunity to be heard in person, to present witnesses and other documentary evidence, and to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses, and to disclosure of the evidence against the defendant, and a written statement of the findings of the court or the county officer. If the court determines that the defendant has the ability to pay all or part of the costs, the court shall set the amount to be reimbursed and order the defendant to pay that sum to the county in the manner in which the court believes reasonable and compatible with the defendant's financial ability; or with the consent of the defendant, the court shall order the probation officer to set the amount of payment, which shall not exceed the maximum amount set by the court, and the manner in which the payment shall be made to the county. In making a determination of whether a defendant has the ability to pay, the court shall take into account the amount of any fine imposed upon the defendant and any amount the defendant has been ordered to pay in restitution. The court may hold additional hearings during the probationary or conditional sentence period.

If practicable, the court or the probation officer shall order payments to be made on a monthly basis. Execution may be issued on the order in the same manner as a judgment in a civil action. The order to pay all or part of the costs shall not be enforced by contempt.

A payment schedule for reimbursement of the costs of presentence investigation based on income shall be developed by the probation department of each county and approved by the presiding judges of the municipal and superior courts.

(b) The term "ability to pay" means the overall capability of the defendant to reimburse the costs, or a portion of the costs, of conducting the presentence investigation, preparing the presentence report, processing a jurisdictional transfer pursuant to Section 1203.9, processing requests for interstate compact supervision pursuant to Sections 11175 to 11179, inclusive, and probation or conditional sentence, and shall include, but shall not be limited to, the defendant's:

(1) Present financial position.

(2) Reasonably discernible future financial position. In no event shall the court consider a period of more than six months from the date of the hearing for purposes of determining reasonably discernible future financial position.

(3) Likelihood that the defendant shall be able to obtain employment within the six-month period from the date of the hearing.

(4) Any other factor or factors that may bear upon the defendant's financial capability to reimburse the county for the costs.

(c) At any time during the pendency of the judgment rendered according to the terms of this section, a defendant against whom a judgment has been rendered may petition the rendering court to modify or vacate its previous judgment on the grounds of a change of circumstances with regard to the defendant's ability to pay the judgment. The court shall advise the defendant of this right at the time of rendering of the judgment.

(d) All sums paid by a defendant pursuant to this section shall be allocated for the operating expenses of the county probation department.

(e) This section shall be operative in a county upon the adoption of an ordinance to that effect by the board of supervisors.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1203.1b of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 306. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1994, (2) each bill amends Section 1203.1b of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 306, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 160

An act to amend Section 48980 of, and to add and repeal Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 48209) of Chapter 2 of Part 27 of, the Education Code, relating to school attendance.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 48209) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 27 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 1.5. Pupil Attendance Alternatives

48209. For purposes of this article, the following definitions apply:

(a) "School district of choice" means a school district for which a resolution is in effect as described in subdivision (a) of Section 48209.1.

(b) "School district of residence" means the school district that a pupil would be directed by this chapter to attend, except as otherwise provided by this article.

48209.1. (a) The governing board of any school district may accept interdistrict transfers. No school district that receives an application for attendance under this article is required to admit pupils to its schools. If, however, the governing board elects to accept transfers as authorized under this article, it shall, by resolution, elect to accept transfer pupils, determine and adopt the number of transfers it is willing to accept, and ensure that pupils admitted under the policy are selected through a random, unbiased process that prohibits an evaluation of whether or not the pupil should be enrolled based upon his or her academic or athletic performance. Any pupil accepted for transfer shall be deemed to have fulfilled the requirements of Section 48204.

(b) Either the pupil's school district of residence or the school district of choice may prohibit the transfer of a pupil under this article or limit the number of pupils so transferred if the governing board of the district determines that the transfer would negatively impact any of the following:

(1) The court-ordered desegregation plan of the district.

(2) The voluntary desegregation plan of the district that meets the criteria of Section 42249.

(3) The racial and ethnic balance of the district.

48209.2. School districts are encouraged to hold informational hearings during the spring semester of 1994 on the current educational program the district is offering so that parents may provide input to the district on methods to improve the current program and so that parents may make informed decisions regarding their children's education.

48209.3. (a) The school district of choice shall not prohibit a transfer of a pupil under this article based upon a determination by the governing board of that school district that the additional cost of educating the pupil would exceed the amount of additional state aid received as a result of the transfer. However, a school district may reject the transfer of a pupil if the transfer of that pupil would require the district to create a new program to serve that pupil.

(b) This section is intended to ensure that special education, bilingual, or other special needs pupils are not discriminated against by the school district of choice because of the costs associated with educating those pupils. Pupils with special needs may take full advantage of the choice options available under this section.

48209.4. No application of any pupil for transfer shall be approved under this article that would require the displacement, from a school or program conducted within any attendance area of the school district of choice, of any other pupil who resides within that attendance area or is currently enrolled in that school.

48209.5. School districts of choice may employ existing entrance criteria for specialized schools or programs if the criteria are uniformly applied to all applicants.

48209.6. Each school district of choice shall give priority for attendance to siblings of children already in attendance in that district.

48209.7. (a) A school district of residence with average daily attendance greater than 50,000 may limit the number of pupils transferring out each year to 1 percent of its current year estimated average daily attendance.

(b) A school district of residence with average daily attendance less than 50,000 may limit the number of pupils transferring out to 3 percent of its current year estimated average daily attendance and may limit the maximum number of pupils transferring out for the duration of the program authorized by this article to 10 percent of the average daily attendance for that period.

48209.9. (a) Commencing January 1, 1994, any application for transfer under this article shall be submitted by the pupil's parent or guardian to the school district of choice that has elected to accept transfer pupils pursuant to Section 48209.1 prior to January 1 of the school year preceding the school year for which the pupil is to be transferred. This application deadline may be waived upon agreement of the pupil's school district of residence and the school district of choice. No applications shall be submitted after January 1, 1998.

(b) The application shall be submitted on a form provided for this purpose by the State Department of Education and may request enrollment of the pupil in a specific school or program of the district.

(c) Not later than 90 days after the receipt by a school district of an application for transfer, the governing board of the district shall notify the parent or guardian in writing whether the application has been provisionally accepted or rejected or of the pupil's position on any waiting list. Final acceptance or rejection shall be made by May 15 preceding the school year for which the pupil is to be transferred. In the event of an acceptance, that notice shall be provided also to the school district of residence. If the application is rejected, the district governing board shall set forth in the written notification to the parent or guardian the specific reason or reasons for that determination, and shall ensure that the determination, and the specific reason or reasons therefor, are accurately recorded in the minutes of the board meeting in which the determination was made.

(d) Final acceptance of the transfer is applicable for one school year and will be renewed automatically each year unless the school district of choice through the adoption of a resolution withdraws from participation in the program and no longer will accept any transfer pupils from other districts. However, if a school district of choice withdraws from participation in the program, high school pupils admitted under this article may continue until they graduate from high school.

48209.10. (a) Any school district of choice that admits any pupil under this section shall accept any completed coursework, attendance, and other academic progress credited to that pupil by the school district or districts previously attended by that pupil, and shall grant academic standing to that pupil based upon the district's evaluation of that academic progress.

(b) Any school district of choice that admits a pupil under this section may revoke the pupil's transfer if the pupil is recommended for expulsion pursuant to Section 48918.

48209.11. (a) The average daily attendance for pupils admitted by a school district of choice pursuant to this article shall be credited to that district pursuant to Section 46607.

(b) Notwithstanding other provisions of law, state aid for categorical education programs for pupils admitted under this article shall be apportioned to the school district of choice.

(c) Notwithstanding other provisions of law, the average daily attendance for pupils admitted by a school district of choice pursuant to this article shall be credited to that school district for purposes of any determination utilizing average daily attendance or estimated average daily attendance under Chapter 22 (commencing with Section 17700) of Part 10.

48209.12. Upon request of the pupil's parent or guardian, each school district of choice that admits a pupil under this section to any school or program of the district shall provide to the pupil transportation assistance within the boundaries of the district to that school or program, to the extent that the district otherwise provides transportation assistance to pupils.

48209.13. Each school district shall make information regarding its schools, programs, policies, and procedures available to any interested person upon request.

48209.14. (a) Pursuant to this article, each school district shall keep an accounting of all requests made for alternative attendance and records of all disposition of those requests that shall include, but are not to be limited to, all of the following:

(1) The number of requests granted, denied, or withdrawn. In the case of denied requests, the records shall indicate the reasons for the denials.

(2) The number of pupils transferred out of the district.

(3) The number of pupils transferred into the districts.

(b) The information maintained pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be reported to the governing board of the school district at an open meeting of the governing board. After the information is reported to the governing board of the school district, the information shall be reported to the Superintendent of Public Instruction no later that January 1, 1995, and annually thereafter, and the superintendent shall make the information available to the Governor, the Legislature, and the public.

48209.15. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that every parent in this state be informed of their opportunity for currently existing choice options under this article regardless of ethnicity, primary language, or literacy.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 48980, before the beginning of the first semester or quarter of the regular school term, each county board of education shall, to the extent that funding is provided for the purposes of this section, adopt a plan to conduct an aggressive, focused outreach program that meets the intent of this section.

48209.16. This article shall become inoperative on July 1, 2000, and, as of January 1, 2001, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2001, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 48980 of the Education Code is amended to read:

48980. (a) At the beginning of the first semester or quarter of the regular school term, the governing board of each school district shall notify the parent or guardian of its minor pupils regarding the right or responsibility of the parent or guardian under Sections 35291, 46014, 48205, 48207, 48208, 49403, 49423, 49451, 49472, 51240, and 51550, Article 3 (commencing with Section 56030) of Chapter 1 of Part 30, and Chapter 2.3 (commencing with Section 32255) of Part 19.

(b) The notification also shall advise the parent or guardian of the availability of individualized instruction as prescribed by Section 48206.3, and of the program prescribed by Article 9 (commencing with Section 49510) of Chapter 9.

(d) Each school district that elects to provide a fingerprinting program pursuant to Article 10 (commencing with Section 32390) shall inform parents or guardians of the program as specified in Section 32390.

(e) Until June 30, 1995, the notification shall also advise the parent or guardian of the availability of the employment-based school attendance options pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 48204.

(f) The notification also shall include a copy of the district's written policy on sexual harassment established pursuant to Section 212.6, as it relates to pupils.

(g) The notification shall advise the parent or guardian of all current statutory attendance options and local attendance options available in the school district. That notification shall include all options for meeting residency requirements for school attendance, programmatic options offered within the local attendance areas, and any special programmatic options available on both an interdistrict and intradistrict basis. That notification also shall include a description of all options, a description of the procedure for application for alternative attendance areas or programs, an application form from the district for requesting a change of attendance, and a description of the appeals process available, if any, for a parent or guardian denied a change of attendance.

SEC. 3. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall evaluate and report to the Legislature on the effectiveness of the interdistrict transfer program established pursuant to Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 48209) of Chapter 2 of Part 27 of the Education Code by January 1, 1999.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 5. It is the intent of the Legislature that funding for the purposes of this act be provided for in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 6. This act shall become operative only if Assembly Bill No. 1114 of the 1993–94 Regular Session is enacted.

CHAPTER 161

An act to amend Sections 35160.5 and 48980 of the Education Code, relating to school districts.

[Approved by Governor July 20, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 21, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 35160.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

35160.5. (a) On or before December 1, 1984, the governing board of each school district shall, as a condition for the receipt of school apportionments from the State School Fund, adopt rules and regulations establishing school district policies as they relate to the following:

(1) Certification that personnel assigned to evaluate teachers have demonstrated competence in instructional methodologies and evaluation for teachers they are assigned to evaluate. The determination of whether school personnel meet the district's adopted policies shall be made by the governing board.

(2) The establishment of district policies ensuring that each probationary certificated employee is assigned to a school within the district with assurances that his or her status as a new teacher and his or her potential needs for training, assistance, and evaluations will be recognized by the district.

(3) The establishment of policies and procedures that parents or guardians of pupils enrolled in the district may use to present complaints regarding employees of the district. These policies and procedures shall provide for appropriate mechanisms to respond to, and where possible, to resolve the complaints.

(b) The governing board of each school district that maintains one or more schools containing any of grades 7 to 12, inclusive, shall, as a condition for the receipt of an inflation adjustment pursuant to Section 42238.1, establish a school district policy regarding participation in extracurricular and cocurricular activities by pupils in grades 7 to 12, inclusive. The criteria, which shall be applied to extracurricular and cocurricular activities, shall ensure that pupil participation is conditioned upon satisfactory educational progress in the previous grading period. Pupils who are eligible for differential standards of proficiency pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 51215 are covered by this section consistent with that subdivision. No person shall classify a pupil as eligible for differential standards of proficiency pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 51215 for the purpose of circumventing the intent of this subdivision.

(1) For purposes of this subdivision, "extracurricular activity" means a program that has all of the following characteristics:

(A) The program is supervised or financed by the school district.

(B) Pupils participating in the program represent the school district.

(C) Pupils exercise some degree of freedom in either the selection, planning, or control of the program.

(D) The program includes both preparation for performance and performance before an audience or spectators.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, an "extracurricular activity" is not part of the regular school curriculum, is not graded, does not offer credit, and does not take place during classroom time.

(3) For purposes of this subdivision, a "cocurricular activity" is defined as a program that may be associated with the curriculum in a regular classroom.

(4) Any teacher graded or required program or activity for a course which satisfies the entrance requirements for admission to the California State University or the University of California, is not an extracurricular or cocurricular activity as defined by this section.

(5) For purposes of this subdivision, "satisfactory educational progress" shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(A) Maintenance of minimum passing grades, which is defined as at least a 2.0 grade point average in all enrolled courses on a 4.0 scale.

(B) Maintenance of minimum progress toward meeting the high school graduation requirements prescribed by the governing board.

(6) For purposes of this subdivision, "previous grading period" does not include any grading period in which the pupil was not in attendance for all, or a majority of, the grading period due to absences excused by the school for reasons such as serious illness or injury, approved travel, or work. In that event, "previous grading period" is deemed to mean the grading period immediately prior to the grading period or periods excluded pursuant to this paragraph.

(7) A program that has, as its primary goal, the improvement of academic or educational achievements of pupils is not an extracurricular or cocurricular activity as defined by this section.

(8) The governing board of each school district may adopt, as part of its policy established pursuant to this subdivision, provisions that would allow a pupil who does not achieve satisfactory educational progress, as defined in paragraph (4), in the previous grading period to remain eligible to participate in extracurricular and cocurricular activities during a probationary period. The probationary period shall not exceed one semester in length, but may be for a shorter period of time, as determined by the governing board of the school district. A pupil who does not achieve satisfactory educational progress, as defined in paragraph (4), during the probationary period shall not be allowed to participate in extracurricular and cocurricular activities in the subsequent grading period.

(9) Nothing in this subdivision shall preclude the governing board of a school district from imposing a more stringent academic standard than that imposed by this subdivision. If the governing board of a school district imposes a more stringent academic standard, the governing board shall establish the criteria for participation in extracurricular and cocurricular activities at a meeting open to the public pursuant to Section 35145.

The governing board of each school district shall annually review the school district policies adopted pursuant to the requirements of this section.

(c) (1) On or before July 1, 1994, the governing board of each school district shall, as a condition for the receipt of school apportionments from the state school fund, adopt rules and regulations establishing a policy of open enrollment within the district for residents of the district.

(2) The policy shall include all of the following elements:

(A) It shall provide that the parents or guardian of each schoolage child who is a resident in the district may select the schools the child shall attend, irrespective of the particular locations of his or her residence within the district, except that school districts shall retain the authority to maintain appropriate racial and ethnic balances among their respective schools at the school districts' discretion or as specified in applicable court-ordered or voluntary desegregation plans.

(B) It shall include a selection policy for any school that receives requests for admission in excess of the capacity of the school that ensures that selection of pupils to enroll in the school is made through a random, unbiased process that prohibits an evaluation of whether any pupil should be enrolled based upon his or her academic or athletic performance. However, school districts of choice may employ existing entrance criteria for specialized schools or programs if the criteria are uniformly applied to all applicants.

(C) It shall provide that no pupil who currently resides in the attendance area of a school shall be displaced by pupils transferring from outside the attendance area.

(3) It is the intent of the Legislature that, upon the request of the pupil's parent or guardian and demonstration of financial need, each school district provide transportation assistance to the pupil to the extent that the district otherwise provides transportation assistance to pupils.

SEC. 2. Section 48980 of the Education Code is amended to read:

48980. (a) At the beginning of the first semester or quarter of the regular school term, the governing board of each school district shall notify the parent or guardian of its minor pupils regarding the right or responsibility of the parent or guardian under Sections 35291, 46014, 48205, 48207, 48208, 49403, 49423, 49451, 49472, 51240, and 51550, Article 3 (commencing with Section 56030) of Chapter 1 of Part 30, and Chapter 2.3 (commencing with Section 32255) of Part 19.

(b) The notification also shall advise the parent or guardian of the availability of individualized instruction as prescribed by Section 48206.3, and of the program prescribed by Article 9 (commencing with Section 49510) of Chapter 9.

(d) School districts that elect to provide a fingerprinting program pursuant to Article 10 (commencing with Section 32390) shall inform parents or guardians of the program as specified in Section 32390.

(e) Until June 30, 1995, the notification also shall advise the parent or guardian of the availability of the employment-based school attendance options pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 48204.

(f) The notification also shall include a copy of the district's written policy on sexual harassment established pursuant to Section 212.6, as it relates to pupils.

(g) The notification shall advise the parent or guardian of all current statutory attendance options and local attendance options available in the school district. That notification shall include all options for meeting residency requirements for school attendance, programmatic options offered within the local attendance areas, and any special programmatic options available on both an interdistrict and intradistrict basis. That notification also shall include a description of all options, a description of the procedure for application for alternative attendance areas or programs, an application form from the district for requesting a change of attendance, and a description of the appeals process available, if any, for a parent or guardian denied a change of attendance. It is the intent of the Legislature that the governing board of each school district annually review the enrollment options available to the pupils within their districts and that the school districts strive to make available enrollment options that meet the diverse needs, potential, and interests of California's pupils.

SEC. 3. This act shall become operative only if Assembly Bill 19 of the 1993–94 Regular Session is enacted.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 162

An act to amend Sections 212.5, 462, 667.5, and 1170.95 of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 212.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

212.5. (a) Every robbery of any person who is performing his or her duties as an operator of any bus, taxicab, cable car, streetcar, trackless trolley, or other vehicle, including a vehicle operated on stationary rails or on a track or rail suspended in the air, and used for the transportation of persons for hire, every robbery of any passenger which is perpetrated on any of these vehicles, and every robbery which is perpetrated in an inhabited dwelling house, a vessel as defined in Section 21 of the Harbors and Navigation Code which is inhabited and designed for habitation, an inhabited floating home as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 18075.55 of the Health and Safety Code, a trailer coach as defined in the Vehicle Code which is inhabited, or the inhabited portion of any other building is robbery of the first degree.

(b) All kinds of robbery other than those listed in subdivision (a) are of the second degree.

SEC. 2. Section 462 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

462. (a) Except in unusual cases where the interests of justice would best be served if the person is granted probation, probation shall not be granted to any person who is convicted of a burglary of an inhabited dwelling house or trailer coach as defined in Section 635 of the Vehicle Code, an inhabited floating home as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 18075.55 of the Health and Safety Code, or the inhabited portion of any other building.

(b) If the court grants probation under subdivision (a), it shall specify the reason or reasons for that order on the court record.

SEC. 3. Section 667.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

667.5. Enhancement of prison terms for new offenses because of prior prison terms shall be imposed as follows:

(a) Where one of the new offenses is one of the violent felonies specified in subdivision (c), in addition and consecutive to any other prison terms therefor, the court shall impose a three-year term for each prior separate prison term served by the defendant where the prior was one of the violent felonies specified in subdivision (c). However, no additional term shall be imposed under this subdivision for any prison term served prior to a period of 10 years in which the defendant remained free of both prison custody and the commission of an offense which results in a felony conviction.

(b) Except where subdivision (a) applies, where the new offense is any felony for which a prison sentence is imposed, in addition and consecutive to any other prison terms therefor, the court shall impose a one-year term for each prior separate prison term served for any felony; provided that no additional term shall be imposed under this subdivision for any prison term served prior to a period of five years in which the defendant remained free of both prison custody and the commission of an offense which results in a felony conviction.

(c) For the purpose of this section, "violent felony" shall mean any of the following:

(1) Murder or voluntary manslaughter.

(2) Mayhem.

(3) Rape as defined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 261.

(4) Sodomy by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person.

(5) Oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person.

(6) Lewd acts on a child under the age of 14 years as defined in Section 288.

(7) Any felony punishable by death or imprisonment in the state prison for life.

(8) Any felony in which the defendant inflicts great bodily injury on any person other than an accomplice which has been charged and proved as provided for in Section 12022.7 or 12022.9 on or after July 1, 1977, or as specified prior to July 1, 1977, in Sections 213, 264, and 461, or any felony in which the defendant uses a firearm which use has been charged and proved as provided in Section 12022.5 or 12022.55.

(9) Any robbery perpetrated in an inhabited dwelling house, or vessel as defined in Section 21 of the Harbors and Navigation Code which is inhabited and designed for habitation, an inhabited floating home as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 18075.55 of the Health and Safety Code, an inhabited trailer coach as defined in the Vehicle Code, or in the inhabited portion of any other building, wherein it is charged and proved that the defendant personally used a deadly or dangerous weapon, as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 12022, in the commission of that robbery.

(10) Arson in violation of subdivision (a) of Section 451.

(11) The offense defined in subdivision (a) of Section 289 where the act is accomplished against the victim's will by force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person.

(12) Attempted murder.

(13) A violation of Section 12308.

(14) Kidnapping in violation of subdivision (b) of Section 207.

(15) Continuous sexual abuse of a child in violation of Section 288.5.

The Legislature finds and declares that these specified crimes merit special consideration when imposing a sentence to display society's condemnation for such extraordinary crimes of violence against the person.

(d) For the purposes of this section, the defendant shall be deemed to remain in prison custody for an offense until the official discharge from custody or until release on parole whichever first occurs including any time during which the defendant remains subject to reimprisonment for escape from custody or is reimprisoned on revocation of parole. The additional penalties provided for prior prison terms shall not be imposed unless they are charged and admitted or found true in the action for the new offense.

(e) The additional penalties provided for prior prison terms shall not be imposed for any felony for which the defendant did not serve a prior separate term in state prison.

(f) A prior conviction of a felony shall include a conviction in another jurisdiction for an offense which, if committed in California, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison if the defendant served one year or more in prison for the offense in the other jurisdiction. A prior conviction of a particular felony shall include a conviction in another jurisdiction for an offense which includes all of the elements of the particular felony as defined under California law if the defendant served one year or more in prison for the offense in the other jurisdiction.

(g) A prior separate prison term for the purposes of this section shall mean a continuous completed period of prison incarceration imposed for the particular offense alone or in combination with concurrent or consecutive sentences for other crimes, including any reimprisonment on revocation of parole which is not accompanied by a new commitment to prison, and including any reimprisonment after an escape from incarceration.

(h) Serving a prison term includes any confinement time in any state prison or federal penal institution as punishment for commission of an offense, including confinement in a hospital or other institution or facility credited as service of prison time in the jurisdiction of the confinement.

(i) For the purposes of this section, a commitment to the State Department of Mental Health as a mentally disordered sex offender following a conviction of a felony, which commitment exceeds one year in duration, shall be deemed a prior prison term.

(j) For the purposes of this section, when a person subject to the custody, control, and discipline of the Director of Corrections is incarcerated at a facility operated by the Department of the Youth Authority, that incarceration shall be deemed to be a term served in state prison.

(k) Notwithstanding subdivisions (d) and (g) or any other provision of law, where one of the new offenses is committed while the defendant is temporarily removed from prison pursuant to Section 2690 or while the defendant is transferred to a community facility pursuant to Section 3416, 6253, or 6263, or while the defendant is on furlough pursuant to Section 6254, the defendant shall be subject to the full enhancements provided for in this section.

This subdivision shall not apply when a full, separate, and consecutive term is imposed pursuant to any other provision of law.

SEC. 4. Section 1170.95 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1170.95. (a) Notwithstanding Section 1170.1 relating to the maximum total of subordinate terms for consecutive offenses which are not "violent felonies," the total of the subordinate terms for consecutive offenses which are all residential burglaries may exceed five years but shall not exceed 10 years.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 1170.1, the term of imprisonment may exceed twice the number of years imposed by the trial court as the base term pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1170 if the defendant stands convicted of at least two residential burglaries.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 1170.1, relating to the maximum total of subordinate terms for consecutive offenses that are not "violent felonies," the total of the subordinate terms for consecutive offenses that are all residential robberies may exceed five years but shall not exceed 10 years.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 1170.1, the term of imprisonment may exceed twice the number of years imposed by the trial court as the base term pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1170 if the defendant stands convicted of at least two residential robberies.

(e) Notwithstanding Section 1170.1 relating to the maximum total of subordinate terms for consecutive offenses that are not "violent felonies," the total of the subordinate terms for consecutive offenses that are all residential arsons may exceed five years but shall not exceed 10 years.

(f) Notwithstanding Section 1170.1, the term of imprisonment may exceed twice the number of years imposed by the trial court as the base term pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1170 if the defendant stands convicted of at least two residential arsons.

(g) When a consecutive term of imprisonment is imposed pursuant to Sections 669 and 1170 which involves two or more convictions for robbery where it is charged and found that in each of those robberies that the defendant personally used a deadly or dangerous weapon in the commission of that robbery, as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 12022, and each of those robberies is not a violent felony, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, the aggregate term shall be calculated as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 1170.1, except that the subordinate term for each subsequent robbery conviction shall consist of one-third of the middle term of imprisonment and one-third of the enhancement provided in subdivision (b) of Section 12022. Notwithstanding Section 1170.1, the total number of subordinate terms imposed under this subdivision may exceed five years but shall not exceed 10 years.

(h) As used in this section, "residential burglary" means burglary of an inhabited dwelling house, an inhabited floating home as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 18075.55 of the Health and Safety Code, an inhabited trailer coach as defined in Section 635 of the Vehicle Code, or the inhabited portion of any other building.

(i) As used in this section, "residential robbery" means a robbery that is perpetrated in an inhabited dwelling house, an inhabited floating home as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 18075.55 of the Health and Safety Code, an inhabited trailer coach as defined in Section 635 of the Vehicle Code, or the inhabited portion of any other building.

(j) As used in this section, "residential arson" means arson committed in violation of subdivision (b) of Section 451 where it is charged and proved that the defendant intentionally set fire to or burned or caused the burning of a distinct inhabited structure or a distinct inhabited property in the commission of that offense.

SEC. 5. This act shall be known, and may be cited, as the Bill Filante Floating Home Protection Act.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 33459, 33459.2, 33459.3, and 33459.7 of, and to amend and repeal Section 33459.1 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous substances.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33459 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33459. For purposes of this article, the following definitions shall apply:

(a) "Department" means the Department of Toxic Substances Control.

(b) "Hazardous substance" means any hazardous substance as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 25281, and any reference to hazardous substance in the definitions referenced in this section shall be deemed to refer to hazardous substance as defined in this subdivision.

(c) "Qualified independent contractor" means an independent contractor who is any of the following:

(1) An engineering geologist who is certified pursuant to Section 7842 of the Business and Professions Code.

(2) A geologist who is registered pursuant to Section 7850 of the Business and Professions Code.

(3) A civil engineer who is registered pursuant to Section 6762 of the Business and Professions Code.

(d) "Release" means any release, as defined in Section 25320.

(e) "Remedy" or "remove" means any action to assess, evaluate, investigate, monitor, remove, correct, cleanup, or abate a release of a hazardous substance or to develop plans for those actions. "Remedy" includes any action set forth in Section 25322 and "remove" includes any action set forth in Section 25323.

(f) "Responsible party" means, notwithstanding any other provision of law, any person described in subdivision (a) of Section 25323.5 of this code or subdivision (a) of Section 13304 of the Water Code.

SEC. 2. Section 33459.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33459.1. (a) An agency may take any actions which the agency determines are necessary and which are consistent with other state and federal laws to remedy or remove a release of hazardous substances on, under, or from property within a project area, subject to the conditions specified in subdivision (b). The agency shall request cleanup guidelines from the department and shall provide the department and local health and building departments with notification of any cleanup activity pursuant to this section at least 30 days before the commencement of the activity. If an action taken by an agency to remedy or remove a release of a hazardous substance is not satisfactory to the department or the California regional water quality control board, the department or the California regional water quality control board may require the agency to take, or cause the taking of, additional action to remedy or remove the release, as provided by applicable law. If methane or landfill gas is present, the agency shall obtain written approval from the California Integrated Waste Management Board prior to taking that action.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), an agency may take the actions specified in subdivision (a) only under one of the following conditions:

(1) There is no responsible party for the release identified by the agency.

(2) The party determined to be responsible for the release by the agency has been notified by the agency or has received adequate notice from the department, a California regional water quality control board, the Environmental Protection Agency, or other governmental agency with relevant authority and has been given 60 days to respond and to propose a remedial action plan, and the responsible party has not agreed within an additional 60 days to implement a plan to remedy or remove the release that has been found by the agency to be consistent, to the maximum extent possible, with the priorities, guidelines, criteria, and regulations contained in the National Contingency Plan and published pursuant to Section 9605 of Title 42 of the United States Code for similar releases, situations, or events.

(3) The party determined to be responsible for the release has entered into the agreement specified in paragraph (2), but the legislative body of the agency subsequently determines that the plan is not being carried out in an appropriate and timely manner by the responsible party.

(c) Subdivision (b) does not apply to either of the following agencies:

(1) An agency taking actions to investigate or conduct feasibility studies concerning a release.

(2) An agency taking the actions specified in subdivision (a) if the agency determines that conditions require immediate action.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 33459.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33459.2. (a) Within a project area, an agency may take any actions which the agency determines are necessary and which are consistent with other state and federal laws to remedy or remove hazardous waste from property if the agency obtains written approval from the department or a California regional water quality control board, as appropriate, prior to taking that action. In addition, if methane or landfill gas is present, the agency shall also obtain written approval from the California Integrated Waste Management Board prior to taking that action.

(b) The terms "remove," "remedy," and "hazardous waste," as used in this section, have the same meaning given those terms by Sections 25323, 25322, and 25117, respectively.

(c) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1999.

SEC. 4. Section 33459.3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33459.3. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, except as provided in Section 33459.7, an agency that undertakes and completes an action, as specified in subdivision (c), to remedy or remove a hazardous substance release on, under, or from property within a redevelopment project, in accordance with a cleanup or remedial action plan prepared by a qualified independent contractor and approved by the department or a California regional water quality control board, as appropriate, pursuant to subdivision (b), is not liable, with respect to that release only, under Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code or Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100), Chapter 6.7 (commencing with Section 25280), Chapter 6.75 (commencing with Section 25299.10), or Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300), of Division 20 of this code, or any other state or local law providing liability for remedial or removal actions for releases of hazardous substances.

(b) Upon approval of any cleanup or remedial action plan, pursuant to applicable statutes and regulations, the Director of Toxic Substances Control or the California regional water quality control board, as appropriate, shall acknowledge, in writing, that upon proper completion of the remedial or removal action in accordance with the plan, the immunity provided by this section shall apply to the agency.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of law or policy providing for certification by a person conducting a remedial or removal action that the action has been properly completed, a determination that a remedial or removal action has been properly completed pursuant to this section shall be made only upon the affirmative approval of the Director of Toxic Substances Control or the California regional water quality control board, as appropriate.

(d) Upon proper completion of a remedial or removal action, as specified in subdivision (c), the immunity provided by this section extends to all of the following, but only for the release or releases specifically identified in the approved cleanup or remedial action plan and not for any subsequent release or any release not specifically identified in the approved cleanup or remedial action plan:

(1) Any employee or agent of the agency, including an instrumentality of the agency authorized to exercise some, or all, of the powers of an agency within, or for the benefit of, a redevelopment project and any employee or agent of the instrumentality.

(2) Any person who enters into an agreement with an agency for the redevelopment of property, if the agreement requires the person to acquire property affected by a hazardous substance release or to remove or remedy a hazardous substance release with respect to that property.

(3) Any person who acquires the property after a person has entered into an agreement with an agency for redevelopment of the property as described in paragraph (2).

(4) Any person who provided financing to a person specified in paragraph (2) or (3).

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the immunity provided by this section does not extend to any of the following:

(1) Any person who was a responsible party for the release before entering into an agreement, acquiring property, or providing financing, as specified in subdivision (d).

(2) Any person specified in subdivision (a) or (d) for any subsequent release of a hazardous substance or any release of a hazardous substance not specifically identified in the approved cleanup or remedial action plan.

(3) Any contractor who prepares the cleanup or remedial action plan, or conducts the removal or remedial action.

(4) Any person who obtains an approval, as specified in subdivision (b), or a determination, as specified in subdivision (c), by fraud, negligent or intentional nondisclosure, or misrepresentation, and any person who knows before the approval or determination is obtained or before the person enters into an agreement, acquires the property or provides financing, as specified in subdivision (d), that the approval or determination was obtained by these means.

(f) The immunity provided by this section is in addition to any other immunity of an agency provided by law.

(g) This section does not impair any cause of action by an agency or any other party against the person, firm, or entity responsible for the hazardous substance release which is the subject of the removal or remedial action taken by the agency or other person immune from liability pursuant to this section.

(h) This section does not apply to, or limit, alter, or restrict, any action for personal injury, property damage, or wrongful death.

(i) This section does not limit liability of a person described in paragraph (3) or (4) of subdivision (d) for damages under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 9601 et seq.).

(j) The agency shall reimburse the department and the State Water Resources Control Board for their costs to review or approve cleanup or remedial action plans pursuant to this section.

SEC. 5. Section 33459.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33459.7. Sections 33459.3 and 33459.4 apply only to remedial or removal actions commenced by an agency before January 1, 1999. For purposes of this section, an agency that adopts a resolution to undertake a removal or remedial action shall be deemed to have commenced the removal or remedial action on the date the resolution is adopted.

CHAPTER 164

An act to amend Section 730 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to juveniles.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 730 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

730. (a) When a minor is adjudged a ward of the court on the ground that he or she is a person described by Section 602, the court may order any of the types of treatment referred to in Section 727, and as an additional alternative, may commit the minor to a juvenile home, ranch, camp, or forestry camp. If there is no county juvenile home, ranch, camp, or forestry camp within the county, the court may commit the minor to the county juvenile hall.

(b) When a ward described in subdivision (a) is placed under the supervision of the probation officer or committed to the care, custody, and control of the probation officer, the court may make any and all reasonable orders for the conduct of the ward including the requirement that the ward go to work and earn money for the support of his or her dependents or to effect reparation and in either case that the ward keep an account of his or her earnings and report the same to the probation officer and apply these earnings as directed by the court. The court may impose and require any and all reasonable conditions that it may determine fitting and proper to the end that justice may be done and the reformation and rehabilitation of the ward enhanced.

(c) When a ward described in subdivision (a) is placed under the supervision of the probation officer or committed to the care, custody, and control of the probation officer, and is required as a condition of probation to participate in community service or graffiti cleanup, the court may impose a condition that if the minor unreasonably fails to attend or unreasonably leaves prior to completing the assigned daily hours of community service or graffiti cleanup, a law enforcement officer may take the minor into custody for the purpose of returning the minor to the site of the community service or graffiti cleanup.

CHAPTER 165

An act to amend Section 1768.8 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to minors.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1768.8 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

1768.8. (a) An assault or battery by any person confined in an institution under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Youth Authority upon the person of any individual who is not confined therein shall be punishable by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by both a fine and imprisonment.

(b) An assault by any person confined in an institution under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Youth Authority upon the person of any individual who is not confined therein, with a deadly weapon or instrument, or by any means of force likely to produce great bodily injury, is a felony punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for two, four, or six years.

CHAPTER 166

An act to amend Section 29082 of, to amend and renumber Section 29080 of, and to add Section 29080 to, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 29080 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended and renumbered to read:

29080.5. The director may, after notice and hearing, establish regions for the notification of apiary owners relative to pesticide applications if the director determines that the notification could be effectively accomplished on a regional basis and that there would be sufficient interest among beekeepers and pest control operators to make substantial participation in a regional notification system likely. The regions may be composed of more than one county or portions of counties, but no single county or portion of a county may become an entire region.

SEC. 2. Section 29080 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

29080. As used in this article and in Article 7 (commencing with Section 29100) "director" means the Director of Pesticide Regulation.

SEC. 3. Section 29082 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

29082. The coordinator may receive money from any source and shall deposit the funds in the Department of Pesticide Regulation Fund, or with the approval of the director, in the county treasury, for expenditure pursuant to the purposes of this article, upon appropriation therefor by the Legislature, or, if the funds are deposited in the county treasury, by the county board of supervisors. The director may, if he or she determines that it is necessary, establish fees for beekeepers and pest control operators who participate. The fees may, if necessary, vary for different regions, but shall in no case be greater than the amount necessary to defray the expenses of that region. If an unexpended surplus exists for more than two consecutive years, the surplus funds shall be transferred to the beekeeping program. If the operation of the system is suspended or terminated, any unexpended moneys shall be deposited in the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund to be used as prescribed in Section 29032.

CHAPTER 167

An act to add Section 12419.11 to the Government Code, relating to offsets.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12419.11 is added to the Government Code, to read:

12419.11. (a) The Labor Commissioner shall submit a request to the Controller to offset amounts due from a person or entity as the result of any judgment issued pursuant to Section 98.2 of the Labor Code that is not satisfied within 90 days of the issuance of a final judgment. The Controller shall, to the extent feasible, offset the unpaid amount of the judgment against any amount owing the person or entity on a claim for refund from the Franchise Tax Board under the Personal Income Tax Law or the Bank and Corporation Tax Law, on a claim for refund from the State Board of Equalization under the Sales and Use Tax Law, or from winnings in the California State Lottery. Standards and procedures for submission of requests for offsets shall be as prescribed by the Controller. Whenever insufficient funds are available to satisfy an offset request, the Controller, after first applying the amounts available to any amount due a state agency, may allocate the balance among any other requests for offset.

(b) At the time a judgment becomes final, corporations against whom a claim is filed shall be required to provide the Labor Commissioner with the corporation's identification number issued by the Secretary of State, and an individual against whom a claim is filed shall be required to provide his or her Social Security number.

CHAPTER 168

An act to amend Section 7058.7 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to contractors.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7058.7 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7058.7. (a) No contractor shall engage in a removal or remedial action, as defined in subdivision (d), unless the qualifier for the license has passed an approved hazardous substance certification examination.

(b) (1) The Contractors' State License Board, the Division of Occupational Safety and Health of the Department of Industrial Relations, and the Department of Toxic Substances Control shall jointly select an advisory committee, which shall be composed of two representatives of hazardous substance removal workers in California, two general engineering contractors in California, and two representatives of insurance companies in California who shall be selected by the Insurance Commissioner.

(2) The Contractors' State License Board shall develop a written test for the certification of contractors engaged in hazardous substance removal or remedial action, in consultation with the Division of Occupational Safety and Health, the State Water Resources Control Board, the Department of Toxic Substances Control, and the advisory committee.

(c) The Contractors' State License Board may require additional updated approved hazardous substance certification examinations of licensees currently certified based on new public or occupational health and safety information. The Contractors' State License Board, in consultation with the Department of Toxic Substances Control and the State Water Resources Control Board, shall approve other initial and updated hazardous substance certification examinations and determine whether to require an updated certification examination of all current certificate holders.

(d) For purposes of this section "removal or remedial action" has the same meaning as found in Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, if the action requires the contractor to dig into the surface of the earth and remove the dug material and the action is at a site listed pursuant to Section 25356 of the Health and Safety Code or any other site listed as a hazardous waste site by the Department of Toxic Substances Control or a site listed on the National Priorities List compiled pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 9601 et seq.). "Removal or remedial action" does not include asbestos-related work, as defined in Section 6501.8 of the Labor Code, or work related to a hazardous substance spill on a highway.

(e) (1) A contractor shall not install or remove an underground storage tank, unless the contractor has passed the hazardous substance certification examination developed pursuant to this section.

(2) A contractor who is not certified may bid on or contract for the installation or removal of an underground tank, as long as the work is performed by a contractor who is certified pursuant to this section.

(3) For purposes of this subdivision, "underground storage tank" has the same meaning as defined in subdivision (x) of Section 25281 of the Health and Safety Code.

CHAPTER 169

An act to amend Section 830.6 of the Penal Code, relating to peace officers.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 830.6 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

830.6. (a) (1) Whenever any qualified person is deputized or appointed by the proper authority as a reserve or auxiliary sheriff or city police officer, a reserve deputy sheriff, a reserve police officer of a regional park district or of a transit district, a reserve harbor or port police officer of a county, city, or district as specified in Section 663.5 of the Harbors and Navigation Code, a reserve deputy of the Department of Fish and Game, a reserve special agent of the Department of Justice, a reserve officer of a community service district which is authorized under subdivision (h) of Section 61600 of the Government Code to maintain a police department or other police protection, or a reserve officer of a police protection district formed under Part 1 (commencing with Section 20000) of Division

14 of the Health and Safety Code, and is assigned specific police functions by that authority, the person is a peace officer; provided, the person qualifies as set forth in Section 832.6, and provided further, that the authority of the person as a peace officer shall extend only for the duration of the person's specific assignment. A transit, harbor, or port district reserve officer may carry firearms only if authorized by, and under those terms and conditions as are specified by, his or her employing agency.

(2) Whenever any qualified person is deputized or appointed by the proper authority as a reserve or auxiliary sheriff or city police officer, a reserve deputy sheriff, a reserve police officer of a regional park district or of a transit district, or a reserve harbor or port police officer of a county, city, or district as specified in Section 663.5 of the Harbors and Navigation Code, and is so designated by local ordinance or, if the local agency is not authorized to act by ordinance, by resolution, either individually or by class, and is assigned to the prevention and detection of crime and the general enforcement of the laws of this state by that authority, the person is a peace officer; provided the person qualifies as set forth in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 832.6, and provided further, that the authority of the person shall include the full powers and duties of a peace officer as provided by Section 830.1, or in the case of a transit, harbor, or port district reserve police officer, or a city or county reserve peace officer not authorized by Section 830.1, the powers and duties which are authorized in Section 830.33.

(b) Whenever any person is summoned to the aid of any uniformed peace officer, the summoned person shall be vested with the powers of a peace officer as are expressly delegated to him or her by the summoning officer or as are otherwise reasonably necessary to properly assist the officer.

CHAPTER 170

An act to add Section 926.18 to the Government Code, relating to state contracts.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 926.18 is added to the Government Code, to read:

926.18. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, Sections 926.15 and 926.17 shall be applicable to all state agencies, including but not limited to, the Public Employees' Retirement System, the State Teachers' Retirement System, the Treasurer, and the Department of General Services.

CHAPTER 171

An act to amend Section 11512.5 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to economic poisons.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11512.5 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

11512.5. Whenever the commissioner suspends a county registration or permit pursuant to Section 11735, 11924, 12035, or 14008, the party suspended may appeal to the director within 10 days of mailing or personal service of the commissioner's order. The following procedure shall apply to the appeal:

(a) The appeal need not be formal, but it shall be in writing and signed by the appellant or his or her authorized agent, shall state the grounds for the appeal, and may include a request that the commissioner's suspension order be stayed pending the director's decision.

(b) Any party may, at the time of filing the appeal or within 10 days thereafter, make written application to the director to present new evidence, stating the materiality of the evidence, and the reasons why the evidence was not introduced at the hearing before the commissioner. The evidence may be allowed in the discretion of the director. Thereafter, 10 days shall be given the parties to rebut the evidence and make written application to the director to present oral or written argument. An application to present written argument shall be granted, but the director shall have discretion to grant oral argument or to grant both oral and written argument. If an application to present oral argument is granted, written notice of the time and place for oral argument shall be given each party at least 10 days before the date set therefor. The time may be shortened by mutual agreement of the parties. If written argument is granted, all parties shall be notified thereof and shall simultaneously file briefs within the time specified by the director.

(c) The director shall decide the appeal upon the evidence received at the hearing before the commissioner, and such oral or written argument and new or additional evidence as the director may have received.

(d) On an appeal pursuant to this section, the director may sustain, reverse, or modify the suspension of a county registration or permit. A copy of the director's decision shall be delivered or mailed to each party. This shall not be a limitation on the director's authority to institute proceedings against any state license issued pursuant to this division or any permit issued pursuant to Division 7 (commencing with Section 12501).

(e) A review of a decision of the director may be sought by the appellant within 30 days of the date of the decision pursuant to Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

CHAPTER 172

An act to amend Sections 41201, 41201.5, 41205, 41205.5, 41207, 41207.5, and 41256 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to wine grapes.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 41201 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

41201. There is in the department a Wine Grape Inspection Advisory Committee consisting of 10 wine producers and 10 wine grape growers appointed by the director. The director may appoint one additional member to the committee, who shall be a public member. The members of the committee shall receive no compensation.

In making appointments to the committee, the director shall appoint only one person to represent any one winery or growers' firm, and shall make every effort to ensure that there is geographical representation from the major wine grape production areas in the state.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 41201.5 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

41201.5. There is in the department a Wine Grape Inspection Advisory Committee consisting of eight wine producers and eight wine grape growers appointed by the director. The director shall appoint one additional member to the committee, who may be a public member. The members of the committee shall receive no compensation.

In making appointments to the committee, the director shall appoint only one person to represent any one winery or growers' firm, and shall make every effort to ensure that there is geographical representation from the major wine grape production areas in the state.

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1996.

SEC. 3. Section 41205 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

41205. The members of the committee, or their voting alternates, consisting of at least six producers and six processors, shall constitute a quorum. Any action of the committee shall require not less than six affirmative votes of the processor members and six affirmative votes of the producer members.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 41205.5 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

41205.5. The members of the committee, or their voting alternates, consisting of at least five producers and five processors, shall constitute a quorum. Any action of the committee shall require not less than five affirmative votes of the processor members and five affirmative votes of the producer members.

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1996.

SEC. 5. Section 41207 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

41207. (a) The committee shall be advisory to the director on all matters pertaining to this chapter and certification of the quality of grapes used for processing pursuant to Section 40531 and shall make recommendations concerning the inspection and certification services rendered, including the annual budget and fees necessary to provide adequate inspection services and varietal and appellation integrity. All recommendations for budgets and assessment fees shall be submitted to the director on or before May 1 of each year.

(b) The committee's primary goal shall be to recommend to the director objective criteria and inspection procedures for all quality conditions that have an effect on the acceptance of, or on the amount of the purchase price of, fresh grapes for wine and byproduct purposes.

(c) The committee may also recommend to the director the institution and promotion of scientific research pertaining to varietal and appellation integrity.

(d) On or before May 1 of each year, the committee shall receive and evaluate comments and report to the director concerning the performance of the varietal and appellation integrity program and the progress toward attaining the goals of the program. The committee shall, based upon their evaluation, make recommendations so that the program is as active or inactive as the committee deems appropriate.

This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 6. Section 41207.5 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

41207.5. (a) The committee shall be advisory to the director on all matters pertaining to this chapter and certification of the quality of grapes used for processing pursuant to Section 40531 and shall make recommendations concerning the inspection and certification services rendered, including the annual budget and fees necessary to provide adequate inspection services. All recommendations for budgets and assessment fees shall be submitted to the director on or before May 1 of each year.

(b) The committee's primary goal shall be to recommend to the director objective criteria and inspection procedures for all quality conditions that have an effect on the acceptance of, or on the amount of the purchase price of, fresh grapes for wine and byproduct purposes.

(c) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1996.

SEC. 7. Section 41256 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

41256. Notwithstanding the provisions in Sections 41201.5, 41205.5, and Section 41207.5 that specify that those sections shall become operative on January 1, 1996, all of the provisions of this article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and as of that date are repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 8. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 173

An act to amend Section 441 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to property taxation.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 441 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

441. Each person owning taxable personal property, other than a mobilehome subject to Part 13 (commencing with Section 5800), having an aggregate cost of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) or more for the initial assessment year or an aggregate cost of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or more for any subsequent assessment year shall file a signed property statement with the assessor. Every person owning personal property which does not require the filing of a property statement or real property shall upon request of the assessor file a signed property statement. Failure of the assessor to request or secure the property statement does not render any assessment invalid.

(a) The property statement shall be declared to be true under the penalty of perjury and filed with the assessor between the lien date and 5 p.m. on the last Friday in May, annually, or between the lien date and any earlier time as the assessor may appoint.

(b) If the assessor appoints a time other than the last Friday in May, it shall be no earlier than April 1. In this event the penalty provided by Section 463 shall apply if the property statement is not filed with the assessor by 5 p.m. on the last Friday in May or if all of the following apply:

(1) The property statement is not filed within the time appointed by the assessor.

(2) The assessor has given notice by certified or registered mail, or by first-class mail, properly addressed with postage prepaid, no earlier than 15 days after the time appointed by the assessor of nonreceipt of the property statement within the appointed time. If the notice is given by first-class mail, the assessor shall obtain a certificate of mailing issued by the United States Postal Service verifying the fact and date of mailing of the notice.

(3) The property statement has not been filed with the assessor within 15 days following the date of receipt of the notice, if the notice is given by certified or registered mail, or within 20 days following the date shown on the certificate of mailing, if the notice is given by first-class mail.

(c) The property statement may be filed with the assessor through the United States mail, properly addressed with postage prepaid. This subdivision shall be applicable to every taxing agency, including, but not limited to, a chartered city and county, or chartered city.

(d) At any time, as required by the assessor for assessment purposes, every person shall make available for examination information or records regarding his or her property or any other personal property located on premises he or she owns or controls. In this connection details of property acquisition transactions, construction and development costs, rental income, and other data relevant to the determination of an estimate of value are to be considered as information essential to the proper discharge of the assessor's duties.

(e) In the case of a corporate owner of property, the property statement shall be signed either by an officer of the corporation or an employee or agent who has been designated in writing by the board of directors to sign the statements on behalf of the corporation.

(f) In the case of property owned by a bank or other financial institution and leased to an entity other than a bank or other financial institution, the property statement shall be submitted by the owner bank or other financial institution.

(g) The assessor may refuse to accept any property statement he or she determines to be in error.

CHAPTER 174

An act to amend Section 20633 of the Government Code, relating to the Public Employees' Retirement System.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20633 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20633. (a) Notwithstanding Section 20632, this article shall apply to all state members, on and after January 1, 1994, solely at the option and expense of the member.

(b) The additional contributions made by a member pursuant to Section 20630, in excess of normal contributions shall not be refunded to the member unless he or she ceases to be a member pursuant to Section 20390 or, upon retirement for service, the member elects a refund in lieu of an annuity based on his or her accumulated contributions in excess of normal contributions. No employer shall make, with respect to a member who elects to participate pursuant to this section, any employer contributions therefor or any additional employer contributions therefor. The cost of participation and the administrative costs shall be paid solely by additional member contributions. This subdivision shall apply only to state members.

CHAPTER 175

An act to add Section 1742 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to juveniles.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1742 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

1742. When the juvenile court commits to the Youth Authority a person identified as an individual with exceptional needs, as defined by Section 56026 of the Education Code, the juvenile court, subject to the requirements of subdivision (a) of Section 727 and subdivision (b) of Section 737, shall not order the juvenile conveyed to the physical custody of the Youth Authority until the juvenile's individualized education program previously developed pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 56340) of Chapter 4 of Part 30 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Education Code for the individual with exceptional needs, has been furnished to the Department of the Youth Authority.

To facilitate this process the juvenile court shall assure that the probation officer communicates with appropriate staff at the juvenile court school, county office of education, or special education local planning area.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 176

An act to add Section 4507 to the Family Code, and to amend Section 1151.5 of the Government Code, relating to family law.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4507 is added to the Family Code, to read:

4507. When a court orders a person to make payment for child support or family support, the court may order that individual to make that payment as provided in Section 1151.5 of the Government Code.

SEC. 2. Section 1151.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

1151.5. In addition to deductions authorized pursuant to Section 1151, a state employee may authorize deductions to be made from salaries or wages for payment for the support, maintenance, or care of the employee's child, children, family, or former spouse for whom the employee has a duty of support. A service charge may be assessed for this deduction.

CHAPTER 177

An act to amend Section 62000.14 of the Education Code, relating to Indian education centers.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, all sections of the Education Code and of the California Code of Regulations relative to Indian education centers that became inoperative on January 1, 1992, pursuant to Section 62000.14 of the Education Code, shall be reactivated on January 1, 1994.

SEC. 2. Section 62000.14 of the Education Code is amended to read:

62000.14. The following program shall sunset on January 1, 1997:

Indian education centers.

CHAPTER 178

An act to amend Section 13234 of, and to repeal Sections 13231 and 13232 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to fire protection.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13231 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 13232 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 13234 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

13234. The State Fire Marshal may establish regulations for certification according to Section 13233, including the general form and contents of letters certifying conformance with high rise fire codes.

CHAPTER 179

An act to add Sections 280, 281, 282, and 283 to the Streets and Highways Code, relating to highways.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 280 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

280. (a) There is created within the state scenic highway system a system of California Historic Parkways.

(b) California Historic Parkways are freeways that meet all of the following criteria:

(1) The original construction was completed prior to 1945.

(2) The department or the Office of Historic Preservation in the Department of Parks and Recreation announces or recognizes features of historical significance, including notable landmarks, historical sites, or natural or human achievements that exist or that occurred during the original construction of the parkway or in the immediately adjacent land area through which the parkway currently passes.

(3) Any portion of the highway or corridor is bounded on one or both sides by federal, state, or local parkland, Native American lands or monuments, or other open space, greenbelt areas, natural habitat or wildlife preserves, or similar acreage used for or dedicated to historical or recreational uses.

(4) Any portion of the highway is traversed, at the time of designation and by the department's best count or estimate using existing information, by not less than 40,000 vehicles per day on an annual daily average basis.

SEC. 2. Section 281 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

281. (a) The department, in consultation with the Office of Historic Preservation in the Department of Parks and Recreation, shall design signs and markers for exclusive use on California Historic Parkways that are distinct in color or other easily recognizable features from standard forms of signs on other state highways.

(b) The department shall cause appropriate signs and markers to be placed and maintained along those portions of the highways which have been designated as California Historic Parkways.

(c) The department shall include all California Historic Parkways on any maps or publications it issues that describe or depict State Scenic Highways.

SEC. 3. Section 282 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

282. A local agency, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 65402 of the Government Code, shall coordinate its planning with, and obtain approval from, the appropriate local planning agency with regard to the construction of any agency facility that would be located within any California Historic Parkway.

SEC. 4. Section 283 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

283. That part of the California highway system frequently referred to as the Pasadena Freeway, which is the section of Interstate Highway Route 110 lying between milepost 25.7 and milepost 31.9 is hereby designated a California Historic Parkway pursuant to Section 280, and is named the Arroyo Seco Parkway.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 180

An act to amend Section 101.8 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to transportation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 101.8 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

101.8. The department may design, place, and maintain, or cause to be designed, placed, and maintained, along state highways, signs to inform motorists of rail transportation services which receive public funding, in whole or in part, unless the sign would result in incurring the penalty specified in subsection (b) of Section 131 of Title 23 of the United States Code.

These signs may only be placed within the right-of-way of state highways that are parallel or adjacent to publicly funded passenger rail routes.

The signs are information structures or information signs as those terms are used in Sections 5203 and 5221 of the Business and Professions Code.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to apprise motorists of existing publicly funded passenger rail services at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 181

An act to add Section 6456 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6456 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

6456. (a) Under regulations prescribed by the board, if:

(1) On the application for a seller's permit described in Section 6066, both spouses' names appear as applicants,

(2) A tax liability under this part was understated by failure to file a return required to be filed under this part, or by the omission of an amount properly includable therein, or by erroneous deductions or credits claimed on a return, and the understatement of tax liability is attributable to one spouse,

(4) Taking into account whether or not the other spouse significantly benefited directly or indirectly from the understatement and taking into account all other facts and circumstances, it is inequitable to hold the other spouse liable for the deficiency in tax attributable to that understatement, then the other spouse shall be relieved of liability for tax (including interest, penalties, and other amounts) to the extent that the liability is attributable to that understatement of tax.

(b) For purposes of this section, the determination of the spouse to whom items of understatement are attributable shall be made without regard to community property laws.

(c) This section shall apply to all calendar quarters subject to the provisions of this part, but shall not apply to any calendar quarter that has been closed by a statute of limitations, res judicata, or otherwise.

(d) For purposes of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), "reason to know" means whether or not a reasonably prudent person would have had reason to know of the understatement.

(e) For purposes of this section, with respect to a failure to file a return or an omission of an item from the return, "attributable to one spouse" may be determined by whether a spouse rendered substantial service as a retailer of taxable items to which the understatement is attributable. If neither spouse rendered substantial services as a retailer, then the attribution of applicable items of understatement shall be treated as community property. An erroneous deduction or credit shall be attributable to the spouse who caused that deduction or credit to be entered on the return.

CHAPTER 182

An act to amend Section 1526 of the Penal Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1526 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1526. (a) The magistrate, before issuing the warrant, may examine on oath the person seeking the warrant and any witnesses the person may produce, and shall take his or her affidavit or their affidavits in writing, and cause the affidavit or affidavits to be subscribed by the party or parties making them.

(b) In lieu of the written affidavit required in subdivision (a), the magistrate may take an oral statement under oath under one of the following conditions:

(1) The oath shall be made under penalty of perjury and recorded and transcribed. The transcribed statement shall be deemed to be an affidavit for the purposes of this chapter. In these cases, the recording of the sworn oral statement and the transcribed statement shall be certified by the magistrate receiving it and shall be filed with the clerk of the court. In the alternative in these cases, the sworn oral statement shall be recorded by a certified court reporter and the transcript of the statement shall be certified by the reporter, after which the magistrate receiving it shall certify the transcript which shall be filed with the clerk of the court.

(2) The oath is made using telephone and facsimile transmission equipment, as follows:

(A) The oath is made during a telephone conversation with the magistrate, whereafter the affiant shall sign his or her affidavit in support of the application for the search warrant. The proposed search warrant and all supporting affidavits and attachments shall then be transmitted to the magistrate utilizing facsimile transmission equipment.

(B) The magistrate shall confirm with the affiant the receipt of the search warrant and the supporting affidavits and attachments. The magistrate shall verify that all the pages sent have been received, that all pages are legible, and that the affiant's signature is acknowledged as genuine.

(C) If the magistrate decides to issue the search warrant, he or she shall sign the warrant, note on the warrant the exact date and time of the issuance of the warrant, and indicate on the warrant that the oath of the affiant was administered orally over the telephone. The completed search warrant, as signed by the magistrate, shall be deemed to be the original warrant.

(D) The magistrate shall transmit via facsimile transmission equipment the signed search warrant to the affiant who shall telephonically acknowledge its receipt. The magistrate shall then telephonically authorize the affiant to write the words "duplicate original" on the copy of the completed search warrant transmitted to the affiant and this document shall be deemed to be a duplicate original search warrant. The original warrant and any affidavits or attachments in support thereof, and any duplicate original warrant, shall be returned as provided in Section 1534.

An act to add Section 41820.5 to the Public Resources Code, relating to solid waste.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 41820.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

41820.5. (a) In addition to its authority under Section 41820, the board may, after a public hearing, grant a time extension from the requirements of Section 41780 to a city if all of the following conditions exist:

(1) The city was incorporated pursuant to Division 3 (commencing with Section 56000) of Title 5 of the Government Code after January 1, 1990.

(2) The city is a successor agency to more than one solid waste franchise agreement entered into by the county within which the city is located prior to incorporation of the city.

(3) The county within which the city is located did not include provisions in its franchises which ensured that the now incorporated area would comply with the diversion requirements of Section 41780.

(4) The city has prepared a source reduction and recycling element which has been approved by the board and which demonstrates that the city will comply with the diversion requirements of Section 41780 on or before the date on which the time extension expires.

(b) A time extension granted by the board pursuant to this section shall not exceed the amount of time which elapsed between January 1, 1990, and the date on which the city was incorporated.

CHAPTER 184

An act to amend Section 1745.04 of the Water Code, relating to water.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1745.04 of the Water Code is amended to read:

1745.04. A water supplier may contract with a state drought water bank or with any other state or local water supplier or user inside or outside the service area of the water supplier to transfer, or store as part of a transfer, water if the water supplier has allocated to the water users within its service area the water available for the water year, and no other user will receive less than the amount provided by that allocation or be otherwise unreasonably adversely affected without that user's consent.

CHAPTER 185

An act to amend Section 19550 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to horseracing.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19550 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

19550. The board shall require each licensed racing association that conducts 14 or less weeks of racing to designate 3 racing days, and each licensed racing association that conducts more than 14 weeks of racing to designate five racing days during any one meeting, to be conducted as charity days by the licensee for the purpose of distribution of the net proceeds therefrom to beneficiaries through the distributing agent.

For the purposes of this section, a split meeting shall be considered a single meeting and shall designate the appropriate number of charity days based on the total weeks of racing allocated for both periods of the meeting.

This section does not apply to the California Exposition and State Fair, a county or district agricultural association fair, or to a licensed racing association conducting three weeks of racing or less.

CHAPTER 186

An act to amend Section 4000 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4000 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

4000. (a) (1) No person shall drive, move, or leave standing upon a highway, or in an offstreet public parking facility, any motor vehicle, trailer, semitrailer, pole or pipe dolly, logging dolly, or auxiliary dolly unless it is registered and the appropriate fees have been paid under this code, except that an off-highway motor vehicle which displays an identification plate or device issued by the department pursuant to Section 38010 may be driven, moved, or left standing in an offstreet public parking facility without being registered or paying registration fees.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, "offstreet public parking facility" means either of the following:

(A) Any publicly owned parking facility.

(B) Any privately owned parking facility for which no fee for the privilege to park is charged and which is held open for the common public use of retail customers.

(3) This subdivision does not apply to any motor vehicle stored in a privately owned offstreet parking facility by, or with the express permission of, the owner of the privately owned offstreet parking facility.

(b) No person shall drive, move, or leave standing upon a highway any motor vehicle, as defined in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 39010) of Part 1 of Division 26 of the Health and Safety Code, which has been registered in violation of Part 5 (commencing with Section 43000) of that Division 26.

(c) Subdivisions (a) and (b) do not apply to off-highway motor vehicles operated pursuant to Sections 38025 and 38026.5.

(d) This section does not apply, following payment of fees due for registration, during the time that registration and transfer is being withheld by the department pending the investigation of any use tax due under the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(e) Subdivision (a) does not apply to a vehicle that is towed by a tow truck on the order of a sheriff, marshal, or other official acting pursuant to a court order or on the order of a peace officer acting pursuant to Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 22650) of Division 11.

(f) Subdivision (a) applies to a vehicle that is towed from a highway or off-street parking facility under the direction of a highway service organization when that organization is providing emergency roadside assistance to that vehicle. However, the operator of a tow truck providing that assistance to that vehicle is not responsible for the violation of subdivision (a) with respect to that vehicle. The owner of an unregistered vehicle that is disabled and located on private property, shall obtain a permit from the department pursuant to Section 4003 prior to having the vehicle towed on the highway.

(g) For purposes of this section, possession of a California driver's license by the registered owner of a vehicle shall give rise to a rebuttable presumption that the owner is a resident of California.

CHAPTER 187

An act to amend Sections 61471 and 61472 of the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to agriculture.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 61471 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

61471. The director may, upon his or her own motion or upon the receipt of any verified complaint, investigate any transaction that involves the violation of any provision of this chapter by any person. The director may call and conduct a hearing in furtherance of that investigation.

SEC. 2. Section 61472 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

61472. If a hearing is called by the director, the director shall cause a copy of the complaint, together with a notice of time and place of hearing of the complaint, to be served personally or by mail upon that person. Service shall be made at least 10 days before the hearing.

CHAPTER 188

An act to amend Section 382 of the Water Code, relating to water.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 382 of the Water Code is amended to read:

382. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, every local or regional public agency authorized by law to serve water to the persons or entities within the service area of the agency may sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise transfer, for use outside the agency, either or both of the following:

(1) Water that is surplus to the needs of the water users of the agency.

(2) Water, the use of which is voluntarily foregone, during the period of the transfer, by a water user of the agency.

(b) This chapter does not prohibit or restrict the transfer of water or water rights by local or regional public agencies pursuant to other provisions of law.

CHAPTER 189

An act to amend Section 12071 of the Penal Code, relating to firearms.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12071 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12071. (a) (1) As used in this chapter, the term "licensee," "person licensed pursuant to Section 12071," or "dealer" means a person who has (A) a valid federal firearms license, (B) any regulatory or business license, or licenses, required by local government, (C) a valid seller's permit issued by the State Board of Equalization, (D) a certificate of eligibility issued by the Department of Justice pursuant to paragraph (4), and (E) a license issued in the format prescribed by paragraph (6).

(2) The duly constituted licensing authority of a city, county, or a city and county shall accept applications for, and may grant licenses permitting, licensees to sell firearms at retail within the city, county, or city and county. The duly constituted licensing authority shall inform applicants who are denied licenses of the reasons for the denial in writing.

(3) No license shall be granted to any applicant who fails to provide a copy of his or her valid federal firearms license, valid seller's permit issued by the State Board of Equalization, and the certificate of eligibility described in paragraph (4).

(4) A person may request a certificate of eligibility from the Department of Justice and the Department of Justice shall issue a certificate to an applicant when the department's records indicate that the applicant is not a person who is prohibited from possessing firearms.

(5) The department shall adopt regulations to administer the certificate of eligibility program and shall recover the full costs of administering the program by imposing fees assessed to applicants who apply for those certificates.

(6) A license granted by the duly constituted licensing authority of any city, county, or city and county, shall be valid for not more than one year from the date of issuance and shall be in one of the following forms:

(A) In the form prescribed by the Attorney General.

(B) A regulatory or business license which states on its face "Valid for Retail Sales of Firearms" and is endorsed by the signature of the issuing authority.

(C) A letter from the duly constituted licensing authority having primary jurisdiction for the applicant's intended business location stating that the jurisdiction does not require any form of regulatory or business license or does not otherwise restrict or regulate the sale of firearms.

(7) Local licensing authorities may assess fees to recover their full costs of processing applications for licenses.

(b) A license is subject to forfeiture for a breach of any of the following prohibitions and requirements:

(1) (A) Except as provided in subparagraphs (B) and (C), the business shall be conducted only in the buildings designated in the license.

(B) A person licensed pursuant to subdivision (a) may take possession of firearms and commence preparation of registers for the sale, delivery, or transfer of firearms at gun shows or events, as defined in Section 178.100 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or its successor, if the gun show or event is not conducted from any motorized or towed vehicle. A person conducting business pursuant to this subparagraph shall be entitled to conduct business as authorized herein at any gun show or event in the state without regard to the jurisdiction within this state that issued the license pursuant to subdivision (a), provided the person complies with (i) all applicable laws, including, but not limited to, the 15-day waiting period specified in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (3), and (ii) all applicable local laws, regulations, and fees, if any.

A person conducting business pursuant to this subparagraph shall publicly display his or her license issued pursuant to subdivision (a), or a facsimile thereof, at any gun show or event, as specified in this subparagraph.

(C) A person licensed pursuant to subdivision (a) may engage in the sale and transfer of firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, at events specified in subdivision (g) of Section 12078, subject to the prohibitions and restrictions contained in that subdivision.

A person licensed pursuant to subdivision (a) also may accept delivery of firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, outside the building designated in the license, provided the firearm is being donated for the purpose of sale or transfer at an auction or similar event specified in subdivision (g) of Section 12078.

(2) The license or a copy thereof, certified by the issuing authority, shall be displayed on the premises where it can easily be seen.

(3) No firearm shall be delivered:

(A) Prior to January 1, 1996, within 15 days of the application for the purchase, or, after notice by the department pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 12076, within 15 days of the submission to the department of corrected copies of the register, or within 15 days of the submission to the department of any fee required pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12076, whichever is later. On or after January 1, 1996, within 15 days of the application for the purchase of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, or, after notice by the department pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 12076, within 15 days of the submission to the department of corrected copies of the register, or within 15 days of the submission to the department of any fee required pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12076, whichever is later. On or after January 1, 1996, within 10 days of the application for the purchase of any other firearm, or, after notice by the department pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 12076, within 10 days of the submission to the department of corrected copies of the register, or within 10 days of the submission to the department of any fee required pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12076, whichever is later.

(B) Unless unloaded and securely wrapped or unloaded and in a locked container.

(C) Unless the purchaser or transferee either is personally known to the dealer or presents clear evidence of his or her identity and age to the dealer.

(D) Whenever the dealer is notified by the Department of Justice that the person is in a prohibited class described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(4) No pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person or imitation thereof, or placard advertising the sale or other transfer thereof, shall be displayed in any part of the premises where it can readily be seen from the outside.

(5) The licensee shall agree to and shall act properly and promptly in processing transfers of firearms pursuant to Section 12082.

(6) The licensee shall comply with Sections 12073 and 12077 and subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 12072.

(7) The licensee shall post conspicuously within the licensed premises the following warning in block letters not less than one inch in height:

"IF YOU LEAVE A LOADED FIREARM WHERE A CHILD OBTAINS AND IMPROPERLY USES IT, YOU MAY BE FINED OR SENT TO PRISON."

(8) Commencing October 1, 1993, no pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person shall be delivered unless the purchaser or transferee presents to the dealer a basic firearm safety certificate.

(9) Commencing July 1, 1992, the licensee shall offer to provide the purchaser or transferee of a firearm with a copy of the pamphlet described in Section 12080 and may add the cost of the pamphlet, if any, to the sales price of the firearm.

(10) The licensee shall not commit an act of collusion as defined in Section 12072.

(11) The licensee shall post conspicuously within the licensed premises a detailed list of each of the following:

(A) All charges required by governmental agencies for processing firearm transfers required by Sections 12076, 12082, and 12806.

(B) All fees that the licensee charges pursuant to Sections 12082 and 12806.

(12) The licensee shall not misstate the amount of fees charged by a governmental agency pursuant to Sections 12076, 12082, and 12806.

(c) (1) As used in this article, "clear evidence of his or her identity and age" includes, but is not limited to, a motor vehicle operator's license, a state identification card, an armed forces identification card, an employment identification card which contains the bearer's signature and photograph, or any similar documentation which provides the seller reasonable assurance of the identity and age of the purchaser.

(2) As used in this article, "a basic firearm safety certificate" means a basic firearm certificate issued to the purchaser or transferee by the Department of Justice pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 12800) of Chapter 6.

CHAPTER 190

An act to amend Sections 6545 and 6546 of the Government Code, relating to joint powers agreements, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6545 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6545. "Project" as used in this article includes buildings, structures, improvements and all facilities appurtenant thereto or provided therefor together with land and offstreet parking facilities necessary therefor to be financed by revenue bonds issued pursuant to this article. In addition, with respect to a facility for the generation or transmission of electric energy, a project also includes an ownership interest or a capacity right in that facility that may be situated in whole or in part within or without the state. In addition, with respect to a telecommunication system or service, a project also includes a contract for the installation, provision, or maintenance of that system or service. In addition, a project also includes any of the purposes specified in an agreement pursuant to Section 6516.

SEC. 2. Section 6546 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6546. In addition to other powers, any agency, commission, or board provided for by a joint powers agreement pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 6500) may issue revenue bonds pursuant to this article to pay the cost and expenses of acquiring or constructing a project or conducting a program for any or all of the following purposes:

(a) An exhibition building or other place for holding fairs or exhibitions for the display of agricultural, livestock, industrial, or other products, including movable equipment, entertainment facilities, and other facilities to be used in conjunction with holding a fair or exposition in several locations including those projects and facilities specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 19596.5 of the Business and Professions Code, and those projects and facilities specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (i) of Section 19596.6 of the Business and Professions Code, and for those purposes specified in an agreement pursuant to Section 6516 of the Government Code.

(b) A coliseum, a stadium, a sports arena or sports pavilion or other building for holding sports events, athletic contests, contests of skill, exhibitions, spectacles, and other public meetings.

(c) Any other public buildings, including, but not limited to, general administrative facilities of a city, county, city and county, special district, or authority.

(d) A regional or local public park, recreational area, or recreational center, and all facilities and improvements related thereto.

(e) A facility for the generation or transmission of electrical energy for public or private uses and all rights, properties, and improvements necessary therefor, including fuel and water facilities and resources. As used in this chapter, "transmission of electric energy" does not include the final distribution of electric energy to the consumer.

(f) A facility for the disposal, treatment, or conversion to energy and reusable materials of solid or hazardous waste or toxic substances.

(g) Facilities for the production, storage, transmission, or treatment of water or waste water.

(h) Local streets, roads, and bridges.

(i) Bridges and major thoroughfares construction pursuant to Sections 50029 and 66484.3.

(j) Mass transit facilities or vehicles.

(k) Publicly owned or operated commercial or general aviation airports and airport-related facilities.

(l) Police or fire stations.

(m) Public works facilities, including corporation yards.

(n) Public health facilities owned or operated by a city, county, city and county, special district, or authority.

(o) Criminal justice facilities, including court buildings, jails, juvenile halls, and juvenile detention facilities.

(p) Public libraries.

(q) Publicly owned or operated parking garages.

(r) Low-income housing projects owned or operated by a city, county, city and county, or housing authority.

(s) Public improvements authorized in a project area created pursuant to the Community Redevelopment Law, Part 1 (commencing with Section 33000) of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code.

(t) Public improvements authorized pursuant to the Improvement Act of 1911, Division 7 (commencing with Section 5000) of the Streets and Highways Code, the Improvement Bond Act of 1915, Division 10 (commencing with Section 8500) of the Streets and Highways Code, the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913, Division 12 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Streets and Highways Code, and the Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act of 1982, Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 53311) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5.

(v) Programs, facilities, rights, properties, and improvements for the management, conservation, reuse, or recycling of electric capacity or energy, natural gas, water, waste water, or recycled water, including demand side or load management and other programs and facilities designed to reduce the demand for, or permit or promote the efficient use of, those resources.

"Programs," for the purpose of this subdivision, shall include activities only to the extent the costs thereof may be charged to a capital account under applicable generally accepted accounting principles or are of a type required to be charged to a capital account by entities subject to regulation by the Public Utilities Commission or other regulatory body of the state.

(w) Equipment necessary to support the above-listed facilities or necessary to deliver public services therefrom, including, but not limited to, telecommunications equipment, computers, and service vehicles.

Bonds may be issued pursuant to this article if the joint powers entity, or its individual parties which contract pursuant to Section 6547.5, 6547.6, or 6547.7 to make payments to be applied to the payment of the indebtedness, have the power to acquire, construct, maintain, or operate one or more of the projects specified in this section.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure that joint power authorities are not forced by limitations in existing law to meet new demands for water and energy only through the development of new production facilities rather than conservation programs, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 191

An act to amend Section 229 of the Military and Veterans Code, relating to the state militia.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 229 of the Military and Veterans Code is amended to read:

229. When a board of officers finds that an officer is incapacitated for active service, and that his or her incapacity is the result of an incident of the service, and its decision is approved by the Governor, the officer shall be retired from active service and placed on the retired list of officers. When a board of officers finds the incapacity of an officer is not the result of any incident of the service, and its decision is approved by the Governor, the officer shall be retired from active service, or discharged, as the Governor may determine.

CHAPTER 192

An act to amend Section 2053 of the Public Contract Code, relating to public contracts.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2053 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

2053. (a) A participating state or local agency shall certify a business enterprise as a minority or women business enterprise if that business enterprise meets the definition of a minority or women business enterprise specified in subdivisions (d) and (e) of Section 2051 in accordance with the eligibility standards set forth in Section 23.53 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(c) The participating state or local agency may include a site visit as part of its certification process. However, if a participating state or local agency certifies an applicant without conducting a site visit, any other participating state or local agency may conduct a site visit to verify ownership and control of the minority, women, or disadvantaged business enterprise. For purposes of conducting a site visit, certification documentation retained by the participating state or local agency shall be provided, upon request, to any other participating state or local agency. The applicant shall be subject to only one site visit per year, unless ownership and control changes have occurred in the business within the 12-month period following a site visit. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit a participating state or local agency from conducting a site visit for purposes of preparing a response to an appeal from a notice of intent to decertify pursuant to Section 2055.

(d) A participating state or local agency shall complete the certification process, including verification of information submitted by the applicant and the performance of a site visit, if applicable, and, within a reasonable amount of time, shall submit the appropriate information to the Department of Transportation for insertion into the computerized data bank created pursuant to Section 2056.

(e) The grant of certification of a business enterprise by a participating state or local agency shall be valid for two years. A business enterprise that has been denied certification by a participating state or local agency may reapply for certification after six months have elapsed since the date of the denial of certification.

(f) A participating state or local agency shall provide adequate security methods to prevent contamination and unauthorized access to the information gathered during the verification process.

CHAPTER 193

An act to amend Sections 25102, 25104, 25113, and 25608 of the Corporations Code, relating to securities, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25102 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25102. The following transactions are exempted from the provisions of Section 25110:

(b) Any offer (but not a sale) of a security for which a registration statement has been filed under the Securities Act of 1933 but has not yet become effective, or for which an offering statement under Regulation A has been filed but has not yet been qualified, if no stop order or refusal order is in effect and no public proceeding or examination looking toward such an order is pending under Section 8 of the act and no order under Section 25140 or subdivision (a) of Section 25143 is in effect under this law.

(c) Any offer (but not a sale) and the execution and delivery of any agreement for the sale of securities pursuant to such offer as may be permitted by the commissioner upon application. Any negotiating permit under this subdivision shall be conditioned to the effect that none of the securities may be issued and none of the consideration therefor may be received or accepted until the sale of such securities is qualified under this law.

(d) Any transaction or agreement between the issuer and an underwriter or among underwriters if the sale of the securities is qualified, or exempt from qualification, at the time of distribution thereof in this state, if any.

(e) Any offer or sale of any evidence of indebtedness, whether secured or unsecured, and any guarantee thereof, in a transaction not involving any public offering.

(f) Any offer or sale of any security in a transaction (other than an offer or sale to a pension or profit-sharing trust of the issuer) which meets each of the following criteria:

(1) Sales of the security are not made to more than 35 persons, including persons not in this state.

(2) All purchasers either have a preexisting personal or business relationship with the offeror or any of its partners, officers, directors or controlling persons, or by reason of their business or financial experience or the business or financial experience of their professional advisors who are unaffiliated with and who are not compensated by the issuer or any affiliate or selling agent of the issuer, directly or indirectly, could be reasonably assumed to have the capacity to protect their own interests in connection with the transaction.

(3) Each purchaser represents that the purchaser is purchasing for the purchaser's own account (or a trust account if the purchaser is a trustee) and not with a view to or for sale in connection with any distribution of the security.

(4) The offer and sale of the security is not accomplished by the publication of any advertisement. The number of purchasers referred to above is exclusive of any described in subdivision (i), any officer, director or affiliate of the issuer and any other purchaser who the commissioner designates by rule. For purposes of this section, a husband and wife (together with any custodian or trustee acting for the account of their minor children) are counted as one person and a partnership, corporation or other organization which was not specifically formed for the purpose of purchasing the security offered in reliance upon this exemption, is counted as one person. The commissioner may by rule require the issuer to file a notice of transactions under this subdivision; provided, however, that the failure to file the notice or the failure to file the notice within the time specified by the rule of the commissioner shall not affect the availability of this exemption. An issuer who fails to file the notice as provided by rule of the commissioner shall, within 15 business days after demand by the commissioner, file the notice and pay to the commissioner a fee equal to the fee payable had the transaction been qualified under Section 25110.

(g) Any offer or sale of conditional sale agreements, equipment trust certificates, or certificates of interest or participation therein or partial assignments thereof, covering the purchase of railroad rolling stock or equipment or the purchase of motor vehicles, aircraft, or parts thereof, in a transaction not involving any public offering.

(h) Any offer or sale of voting common stock by a corporation incorporated in any state if, immediately after the proposed sale and issuance, there will be only one class of stock of such corporation outstanding which is owned beneficially by no more than 35 persons, provided all of the following requirements have been met:

(1) All such stock shall be evidenced by certificates which shall have stamped or printed prominently on their face a legend in a form to be prescribed by rule of the commissioner restricting transfer of such stock in such manner as the rule provides.

(2) The offer and sale of such stock is not accompanied by the publication of any advertisement, and no selling expenses have been given, paid, or incurred in connection therewith.

(3) The consideration to be received by the issuer for the stock to be issued shall consist of (i) only assets (which may include cash) of an existing business enterprise transferred to the issuer upon its initial organization, of which all of the persons who are to receive the stock to be issued pursuant to this exemption were owners during, and such enterprise was operated for, a period of not less than one year immediately preceding the proposed issuance, and the ownership of such enterprise immediately prior to such proposed issuance was in the same proportions as the shares of stock are to be issued, or (ii) only cash or cancellation of indebtedness for money borrowed or both upon the initial organization of the issuer, provided all such stock is issued for the same price per share, or (iii) only cash, provided the sale is approved in writing by each of the existing shareholders and the purchaser or purchasers are existing shareholders, or (iv), in a case where after the proposed issuance there will be only one owner of the stock of the issuer, any legal consideration.

(4) No promotional consideration has been given, paid, or incurred in connection with such issuance. Promotional consideration means any consideration paid directly or indirectly to a person who, acting alone or in conjunction with one or more other persons, takes the initiative in founding and organizing the business or enterprise of an issuer, for services rendered in connection with such founding or organizing.

(5) A notice in a form prescribed by rule of the commissioner, signed by an active member of the State Bar of California, shall be filed with or mailed for filing to the commissioner not later than 10 business days after receipt of consideration for the securities by the issuer, which notice shall contain an opinion of such member of the State Bar of California that the exemption provided by this subdivision is available for the offer and sale of the securities; provided, however, that the failure to file the notice as required by this subdivision and the rules of the commissioner shall not affect the availability of this exemption. An issuer who fails to file the notice within the time specified by this subdivision shall, within 15 business days after demand by the commissioner, file the notice and pay to the commissioner a fee equal to the fee payable had the transaction been qualified under Section 25110. The notice, except when filed on behalf of a California corporation, shall be accompanied by an irrevocable consent, in such form as the commissioner by rule prescribes, appointing the commissioner or his successor in office to be the issuer's attorney to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal suit, action, or proceeding against it or its successor which arises under this law or any rule or order hereunder after the consent has been filed, with the same force and validity as if served personally on the issuer. An issuer on whose behalf a consent has been filed in connection with a previous qualification or exemption from qualification under this law (or application for a permit under any prior law if the application or notice under this law states that such consent is still effective) need not file another. Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process in the office of the commissioner but it is not effective unless (1) the plaintiff, who may be the commissioner in a suit, action or proceeding instituted by him, forthwith sends notice of the service and a copy of the process by registered or certified mail to the defendant or respondent at its last address on file with the commissioner, and (2) the plaintiff's affidavit of compliance with this section is filed in the case on or before the return day of the process, if any, or within such further time as the court allows.

For the purposes of this subdivision, all securities held by a husband and wife, whether or not jointly, shall be considered to be owned by one person, and all securities held by a corporation which has issued stock pursuant to this exemption shall be considered to be held by the shareholders to whom it has issued such stock.

(i) Any offer or sale (1) to a bank, savings and loan association, trust company, insurance company, investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, pension or profit-sharing trust (other than a pension or profit-sharing trust of the issuer, a self-employed individual retirement plan, or individual retirement account), or such other institutional investor or governmental agency or instrumentality as the commissioner may designate by rule, whether the purchaser is acting for itself or as trustee, or (2) to any corporation with outstanding securities registered under Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or any wholly owned subsidiary of such a corporation which after the offer and sale will own directly or indirectly 100 percent of the outstanding capital stock of the issuer; provided the purchaser represents that it is purchasing for its own account (or for such trust account) for investment and not with a view to or for sale in connection with any distribution of the security.

(j) Any offer or sale of any certificate of interest or participation in an oil or gas title or lease (including subsurface gas storage and payments out of production) if (1) all of the purchasers: (i) are and have been during the preceding two years engaged primarily in the business of drilling for, producing, or refining oil or gas (or whose corporate predecessor, in the case of a corporation, has been so engaged), or (ii) are persons described in clause (1) of subdivision (i) of this section, or (iii) have been found by the commissioner upon written application to be substantially engaged in the business of drilling for, producing or refining oil or gas so as not to require the protection provided by this law (which finding shall be effective until rescinded), or (2) such security is concurrently hypothecated to a bank in the ordinary course of business to secure a loan made by such bank; provided each purchaser represents that it is purchasing for its own account for investment and not with a view to or for sale in connection with any distribution of the security.

(k) Any offer or sale of any security under, or pursuant to, a plan of reorganization under Chapter 11 of the federal bankruptcy law which has been confirmed or is subject to confirmation by the decree or order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(l) Any offer or sale of an option, warrant, put, call, or straddle, and any guarantee of any of these securities, by a person who is not the issuer of the security subject to such right, if the transaction, had it involved an offer or sale of the security subject to such right by such person, would not have violated Section 25110 or 25130.

(m) Any offer or sale of a stock to a pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or employee stock ownership plan provided that (1) the plan meets the requirements for qualification under Section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code, and (2) the employees are not required or permitted individually to make any contributions to the plan. The exemption provided by this subdivision shall not be affected by whether the stock is contributed to the plan, purchased from the issuer with contributions by the issuer or an affiliate of the issuer, or purchased from the issuer with funds borrowed from the issuer, an affiliate of the issuer or any other lender.

SEC. 2. Section 25104 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25104. The following transactions are exempted from the provisions of Section 25130:

(a) Any offer or sale of a security by the bona fide owner thereof for his or her own account if the sale (1) is not accompanied by the publication of any advertisement and (2) is not effected by or through a broker-dealer in a public offering.

(b) Any offer or sale effected by or through a licensed broker-dealer pursuant to an unsolicited order or offer to buy. For the purpose of this subdivision, an inquiry regarding a written bid for a security or a written solicitation of an offer to sell a security made by another broker-dealer within the previous 60 days shall not be considered the solicitation of an order or offer to buy.

(c) Any offer or sale to a bank, savings and loan association, trust company, insurance company, investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, pension or profit-sharing trust (other than a pension or profit-sharing trust of the issuer, a self-employed individual retirement plan, or individual retirement account), or such other institutional investor or governmental agency or instrumentality as the commissioner may designate by rule, whether the purchaser is acting for itself or as trustee; provided the purchaser represents that it is purchasing for its own account (or for the trust account) for investment and not with a view to or for sale in connection with any distribution of the security.

(d) Any transaction or agreement between a person on whose behalf an offering is made and an underwriter or among underwriters, if the sale of the securities is exempt from qualification at the time of or qualified prior to distribution in this state, if any.

(e) Any offer or sale of any security by or for the account of a bona fide secured party selling the security in the ordinary course of business to liquidate a bona fide debt.

(f) Any transaction by an executor, administrator, sheriff, marshal, receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, guardian, or conservator.

(g) Any offer (but not a sale) of a security for which a registration statement has been filed under the Securities Act of 1933 but has not yet become effective, or for which an offering statement under Regulation A has been filed but has not yet been qualified, if no stop order or refusal order is in effect and no public proceeding or examination looking toward such an order is pending under Section 8 of that act and no order under Section 25140 or subdivision (a) of Section 25143 is in effect under this division.

(h) Any offer or sale of a security if a qualification under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 25110) of this part for any securities of the same class has become effective within 18 months, or longer period as the commissioner may order provided that each consecutive order shall be for no more than six months, prior to the offer or sale or if a qualification under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 25120) or Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 25130) of this part for any securities of the same class has become effective within 12 months prior to that offer or sale, provided no order under Section 25140 or subdivision (a) of Section 25143 is in effect under this division with respect to the qualification, and, provided further, that this exemption does not apply to securities offered pursuant to a registration under the Securities Act of 1933 or pursuant to an exemption under Regulation A under that act if the aggregate offering price of the securities offered under such exemption exceeds fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). The commissioner may, by rule or order, withhold this exemption with respect to securities qualified only pursuant to a limited offering qualification.

SEC. 3. Section 25113 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25113. (a) All securities, whether or not eligible for qualification by coordination under Section 25111 or qualification by notification under Section 25112, may be qualified by permit under this section.

(b) (1) An application for a permit under this section shall contain any information and be accompanied by any documents as shall be required by rule of the commissioner, in addition to the information specified in Section 25160 and the consent to service of process required by Section 25165. For this purpose, the commissioner may classify issuers and types of securities.

(2) An applicant may file a small company application for permit under this section if it meets all of the following conditions:

(A) The applicant is: (i) a California corporation or a foreign corporation, which at the time of filing an application under this subdivision is subject to Section 2115 of the Corporations Code irrespective of the notice filing requirement under Section 2108, and neither corporation is a "blind pool" company, as that term is defined by the commissioner; (ii) not engaged in oil and gas exploration or production, or mining or other extractive industries; (iii) not an investment company subject to the Investment Company Act of 1940; and (iv) not subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

(B) The total offering of voting common stock by the applicant to be sold in a 12-month period, within or outside this state, is limited to one million dollars ($1,000,000), less the aggregate offering price for all securities sold (within the 12 months before the start, and during the offering, of the voting common stock) under Rule 504 of the Securities and Exchange Commission, in reliance on any exemption under subdivision (b) of Section 3 of the Securities Act of 1933, or in violation of subdivision (a) of Section 5 of that act, and immediately after the proposed sale and issuance there will be only one class of voting common stock.

(C) The minimum offering price of the voting common stock to be sold is five dollars ($5) per share and the applicant files an undertaking with the commissioner that there will be no stock splits, stock dividends, spinoffs, or mergers for a period of two years from the close of the offering. The undertaking notwithstanding, the commissioner may approve a spinoff or merger pursuant to an application for qualification filed by an applicant.

(D) The net proceeds from the offering are to be expended in the operations of the business.

(E) The offering is made pursuant to a Small Corporate Offering Registration disclosure document based on the Form U-7 as adopted by the North American Securities Administrators Association and such additional requirements as the commissioner shall prescribe, which may include, but not be limited to, investor suitability and due diligence investigation requirements.

(F) The application and disclosure document is reviewed and signed by each member of the board of directors of the applicant.

(G) The application shall contain that information and be accompanied by those documents required by rule of the commissioner, in addition to the information specified in Section 25610 and the consent to service of process required by Section 25165.

(c) Qualification of securities under this section becomes effective upon the commissioner issuing a permit authorizing the issuance of those securities.

SEC. 4. Section 25608 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25608. (a) The commissioner shall charge and collect the fees fixed in this section. All fees charged and collected under this section shall be transmitted to the Treasurer at least weekly, accompanied by a detailed statement thereof and shall be credited to the State Corporations Fund.

(b) The fee for filing an application for a negotiating permit under subdivision (c) of Section 25102 is fifty dollars ($50).

(c) The fee for filing a notice pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (h) of Section 25102, the fee for filing a notice pursuant to paragraph (4) of subdivision (f) of Section 25102, and the fee for filing a notice pursuant to paragraph (6) of subdivision (h) of Section 25103, in addition to the fee prescribed in those paragraphs, if applicable, shall be determined based on the value of the securities proposed to be sold in the transaction for which the notice is filed and in accordance with subdivision (g), and shall be as follows:

Value of Securities Proposed to be Sold	Filing Fee
$25,000 or less	$ 25
$25,001 to $100,000	$ 35
$100,001 to $500,000	$ 50
$500,001 to $1,000,000	$150
Over $1,000,000	$300

(d) The fee for filing an application for designation of an issuer pursuant to subdivision (k) of Section 25100 is fifty dollars ($50).

(e) The fee for filing an application for qualification of the sale of securities by notification under Section 25112 or by permit under paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 25113 (except applications for qualification by permit of the sale of any guarantee of any security, the fees for which applications are fixed in subdivision (k)) is two hundred dollars ($200) plus one-fifth of 1 percent of the aggregate value of the securities sought to be sold in this state up to a maximum aggregate fee of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500).

The fee for filing a small company application for qualification of the sale of securities by permit under paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 25113 is two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500). In the case where the costs of processing a small company application exceed the filing fee, an additional fee shall be charged, not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), over and above the filing fee based on the costs of the salary or other compensation paid to persons processing the application plus overhead costs reasonably incurred in the performance of the work. In determining the costs, the commissioner may use the estimated average hourly cost for all persons processing applications for the fiscal year.

(f) The fee for filing an application for qualification of the sale of securities by coordination under Section 25111 is two hundred dollars ($200) plus one-fifth of 1 percent of the aggregate value of the securities sought to be sold in this state up to a maximum aggregate fee of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500).

(g) For the purpose of determining the fees fixed in subdivisions (e) and (f):

(1) The value of the securities shall be the price at which the company proposes to sell the securities, or the value, as alleged in the application, or the actual value, as determined by the commissioner, of the consideration (if other than money) to be received in exchange therefor, or of the securities when sold, whichever is greater.

(2) Interim or voting trust certificates shall have a value equal to the aggregate value of the securities to be represented by the interim or voting trust certificates.

(3) The value of a warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to another security of the same or another issuer shall be an amount equal to the consideration to be paid for that warrant or right plus an amount equal to the consideration to be paid upon purchase of the additional securities, provided that if the latter amount is not determinable at the time of qualification, that amount shall be the then value of the additional securities as determined by the commissioner.

(4) In the case of a share dividend where the shareholders are given an option to accept either cash or additional shares of common stock, the value of the securities to be sold shall be the maximum amount of cash which would be payable in the event that all shareholders elected to accept cash.

(h) The fee for filing an application for qualification of the sale of securities by permit under Section 25121 is:

(2) Two hundred dollars ($200) plus one-fifth of 1 percent of the value, as alleged in the application, or the actual value, as determined by the commissioner, of the consideration to be received in exchange therefor, up to a maximum aggregate fee of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), in any exchange of securities by the issuer with its existing security holders exclusively, or in any exchange in connection with any merger or consolidation or purchase of corporate assets in consideration of the issuance of securities.

(i) The fee for filing an application for qualification of the sale of securities by notification under Section 25131 shall be one hundred dollars ($100).

(j) The fee for an application for the removal of any condition under Section 25141 is fifty dollars ($50).

(k) The fee for filing any application for a permit to execute or issue any guarantee of any security is fifty dollars ($50).

(l) The fee for acting as escrow holder for securities under Section 25149 is fifty dollars ($50). In addition, a fee of two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) shall be paid for the deposit with the commissioner of each new certificate or other document resulting from a transfer in escrow.

(m) The fee for filing an application for an order (1) consenting to the transfer in escrow of securities, (2) consenting to the transfer of securities subject to any condition imposed by the commissioner requiring the commissioner's consent to the transfer, or (3) consenting to the transfer of securities subject to a legend stamped or printed on the certificates evidencing the securities pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 25102, is twenty dollars ($20) for each transferor.

(n) The filing fee for an amendment to an application filed after the effective date of the qualification of the sale of securities is fifty dollars ($50) plus any additional fee which would have been required to be paid with the original application for qualification of the sale of securities under this section if the matters set forth in the amendment had been included in the original application.

(o) (1) The fee for filing an application for a broker-dealer certificate under Section 25211 is three hundred dollars ($300).

(2) Each broker-dealer shall pay to the commissioner its pro rata share of all costs and expenses, reasonably incurred in the administration of the broker-dealer program under this division, as estimated by the commissioner for the ensuing year and any deficit actually incurred or anticipated in the administration of the program in the year in which the assessment is made. The pro rata share shall be the proportion which the broker-dealer and the number of its agents in this state bears to the aggregate number of broker-dealers and agents in this state as shown by records maintained by or on behalf of the commissioner. The pro rata share may include the costs of any examinations, audit, or investigation provided for in subdivision (r).

(3) On or before the 30th day of May in each year, the commissioner shall notify each broker-dealer by mail of the amount assessed and levied against it and that amount shall be paid within 20 days thereafter. If payment is not made within 20 days, the commissioner shall assess and collect a penalty in addition to the assessment, of 1 percent of the assessment for each month or part of a month that the payment is delayed or withheld.

(4) In the levying and collection of the assessment, a broker-dealer shall not be assessed for, nor be permitted to pay, less than seventy-five dollars ($75) per year.

(5) In determining the amount assessed, the commissioner shall consider all appropriations from the State Corporations Fund for the support of the broker-dealer program under this division and all reimbursements applicable to the administration of the broker-dealer program under this division.

(6) If a broker-dealer fails to pay the assessment on or before the 30th day of June following the day upon which payment is due, the commissioner may by order summarily suspend or revoke the certificate issued to the broker-dealer. If, after that order is made, a request for hearing is filed in writing and a hearing is not held within 60 days thereafter, the order is deemed rescinded as of its effective date. During any period when its certificate is revoked or suspended, a broker-dealer shall not conduct business pursuant to this division except as may be permitted by order of the commissioner; provided, however, that the revocation, suspension, or surrender of a certificate shall not affect the powers of the commissioner as provided under this division.

(p) The commissioner shall charge a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) for the filing of a notice or report required by rule adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 25210.

(q) The fee for filing an application for an investment adviser under Section 25231 is one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125), and payment of this amount shall keep the certificate, if granted, in effect during the calendar year during which it is granted. Every investment adviser who has secured from the commissioner a certificate shall, in order to keep the certificate in effect for an additional period, pay a renewal fee of one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) on or before the 15th day of December preceding the additional period.

(r) The fee for any examination, audit, or investigation is the amount of the salary or other compensation paid to the persons making the examination, audit, or investigation plus the amount of expenses including overhead reasonably incurred in the performance of the work. In determining the costs associated with an examination, audit, or investigation, the commissioner may use the estimated average hourly cost for all persons performing examinations, audits, or investigations for the fiscal year.

(s) The fee for any hearing held by the commissioner pursuant to Section 25142 shall be the sum determined by the commissioner to cover the actual expense of noticing and holding the hearing.

(t) The commissioner may fix by rule a reasonable charge for any publications issued under his or her authority. The charges shall not apply to reports of the commissioner in the ordinary course of distribution.

(u) The fee for filing an offer under subdivision (b) of Section

25507 shall be the amount of filing fee payable under subdivision (e), (f), (h), or (i) of this section if an application had been filed to qualify the transaction in which the securities upon which the offer is to be made were sold in violation of the qualification provisions of this law.

(v) The fee for filing an application for exemption pursuant to subdivision (l) of Section 25100 is two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(w) The commissioner may by rule require payment of a fee for filing a notice or report required by a rule adopted pursuant to Section 25105. The fee required in connection with a transaction as defined by that rule shall not exceed the fees specified in subdivision (c) based on the value of the securities sold, but the commissioner may permit a single notice for more than one transaction.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to facilitate the ability of small companies to raise capital in the current economic climate, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 194

An act to amend Section 13150 of the Public Resources Code, and to amend Sections 8502.5, 8570, 8572, 8620, 8622, 8623, 8624, 8626, 8650, 8652, 8655, 8671, 8681, 8688, 8705, 8706, 8707, 8770, 8773, 8783, 8784, 8800, 8801, 8802, 8803, 8804, 8805, 8806, 8809, and 8850 of, and to repeal Part 1 (commencing with Section 4000) of Division 6 of, the Streets and Highways Code, relating to assessments.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13150 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

13150. The Municipal Improvement Act of 1913 (Division 12 (commencing with Section 10000)) of the Streets and Highways Code, the Improvement Act of 1911 (Division 7 (commencing with Section 5000)) of the Streets and Highways Code, and the Improvement Bond Act of 1915 (Division 10 (commencing with Section 8500)) of the Streets and Highways Code, as those acts read on January 1, 1994, or as thereafter amended, are applicable to the district.

SEC. 1.5. Part 1 (commencing with Section 4000) of Division 6 of the Streets and Highways Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 8502.5 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8502.5. "Assessed" and "assessment" mean assessments made pursuant to subdivisions (d) and (e) of Section 10204, or other law pursuant to which the assessment was levied, as corrected and modified by the legislative body. "Assessed" and "assessment" do not include assessments to pay administrative costs made pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 10204.

SEC. 3. Section 8570 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8570. The legislative body of any city may determine that serial bonds, term bonds, or both, shall be issued as provided in this division to represent and be secured by assessments to pay the cost of any work or improvement in any of the streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, places, or public ways of the city, or in, over, or through any property or rights-of-way owned by the city authorized by the Improvement Act of 1911 (Division 7 (commencing with Section 5000)), or by the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913 (Division 12 (commencing with Section 10000)), or to pay the cost of any other work or improvement charged and assessed upon real property pursuant to any other law. The legislative body may not issue bonds secured by assessments levied pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 10312 to pay administrative costs.

SEC. 4. Section 8572 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8572. A similar description of the bonds shall be inserted in the assessment issued by the street superintendent to the contractor under the Improvement Act of 1911, or in the assessment prepared by the street superintendent and in the notice of recording the assessment if the work is done under the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913 or other law.

SEC. 5. Section 8620 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8620. After confirmation of the assessment by the legislative body and after the filing of the statement of payments received upon the assessment by the contractor if the assessment was levied under the Improvement Act of 1911, or after 30 days from the date of recording the assessment in the office of the superintendent of streets or district engineer, if the assessment was levied under the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913 or other law, the street superintendent shall make and file with the treasurer a complete list of all unpaid assessments, upon the assessment.

SEC. 6. Section 8622 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8622. The treasurer, if the assessment was levied under the Improvement Act of 1911, or the legislative body, if the assessment was levied under the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913 or other law, shall prescribe the denominations of the bonds, which shall be in convenient amounts, not necessarily equal, and shall provide for their issuance.

SEC. 7. Section 8623 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8623. The bonds shall be immediately delivered to the contractor or its assigns in satisfaction of the balance due upon the assessment and warrant if the assessment was levied under the Improvement Act of 1911, or, if the assessment was levied under the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913 or other law, the bonds shall be sold in the manner determined by the legislative body.

SEC. 8. Section 8624 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8624. The estimated cost of incidental expenses, as defined in the law under which the assessment was levied, shall be included in the assessment.

SEC. 9. Section 8626 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8626. If the assessment was levied under the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913 or other law, the proceeds of the sale of the bonds shall be paid into the fund of the proceeding to represent the assessments for which the bonds were issued. If the bonds are sold for an amount in excess of par, the excess shall be paid into the fund specified in Section 10424 or other special fund specified in the law pursuant to which the assessment was levied to finance the acquisitions or improvements.

SEC. 10. Section 8650 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8650. (a) Except as provided otherwise by the legislative body pursuant to Section 8650.1, the bonds shall be issued in series and an even annual proportion of the aggregate principal sum thereof shall be payable on the second day of September every year succeeding the first 12 months after their date, until the whole is paid. The bonds shall bear interest at a rate not in excess of the maximum rate permitted by law from the 31st day after recording the assessment if the assessment was levied under the Improvement Act of 1911, or from their date if the assessment was levied under the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913 or other law, on all sums unpaid, until the whole of the principal sum and interest are paid.

(b) Interest shall be payable semiannually on the second day of March and September, respectively, of each year. The first payment of interest shall become due on the interest payment date which is six months before the maturity of the first series of bonds, but, if any portion of the interest is funded, the legislative body may specify that the first payment of interest shall become due on any earlier interest payment date following the date of the bonds. Interest shall be payable to the registered holders of the bonds as their names and addresses appeared on the records of the issuing agency or its registration agent on the 15th day of the calendar month preceding the interest payment date.

SEC. 11. Section 8652 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8652. The bonds shall be substantially in the following form:

ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS OF THE BOND

This bond is one of several annual series of bonds of like date, tenor, and effect, but differing in amounts, maturities, and interest rates, issued by the City (or County) of _____ under the Act and the Resolution of Issuance, for the purpose of providing means for paying for the improvements described in the proceedings, and is secured by the moneys in the redemption fund and by the unpaid portion of assessments made for the payment of those improvements, and, including principal and interest, is payable exclusively out of the redemption fund.

This bond is transferable by the registered owner hereof, in person or by the owner's attorney duly authorized in writing, at the office of _____ (issuing agency or its registration agent), subject to the terms and conditions provided in the Resolution of Issuance, including the payment of certain charges, if any, upon surrender and cancellation of this bond. Upon transfer, a new registered bond or bonds, of any authorized denomination or denominations, of the same maturity, for the same aggregate principal amount, will be issued to the transferee in exchange therefor.

Bonds shall be registered only in the name of an individual (including joint owners), a corporation, a partnership, or a trust.

Neither the issuing agency nor the registration agent shall be required to exchange or to register the transfer of bonds during the 15 days immediately preceding any interest payment date.

The issuing agency and the registration agent may treat the owner hereof as the absolute owner for all purposes, and the issuing agency and the registration agent shall not be affected by any notice to the contrary.

This bond or any portion of it in the amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000), or any integral multiple thereof, may be redeemed and paid in advance of maturity upon the second day of March or September in any year by giving at least 30 days' notice by registered or certified mail or by personal service to the registered owner hereof at the owner's address as it appears on the registration books of the _____ (issuing agency or registration agent) by paying principal and accrued interest together with a premium equal to _____ percentum of the principal.

This bond is not subject to refunding pursuant to the procedures of Division 11 (commencing with Section 9000) or Division 11.5 (commencing with Section 9500) of the Streets and Highways Code prior to _____, _____. (If applicable).

I hereby certify that the following is a correct copy of the signed legal opinion of _____

City (or County) Clerk

SEC. 12. Section 8655 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8655. The bonds, by their issuance, shall be conclusive evidence of the regularity of all proceedings had prior thereto under this division and under the law pursuant to which the assessment was levied.

SEC. 13. Section 8671 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8671. The treasurer or designated paying agent shall keep a redemption fund designated by the name of the bonds, in which there shall be placed all sums received from the collection of the assessments made. The fund shall be considered a trust fund for the benefit of the bondholders. The redemption fund shall be used for paying principal and interest and redemption premium, if any, payments on the bonds directly, or money in the fund may be forwarded to the paying agent for these purposes. Under no circumstances shall the bonds or the interest thereon be paid out of any other fund.

SEC. 14. Section 8681 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8681. Interest on all unpaid assessments shall begin to run from the date of filing of the contractor's statement, or as otherwise provided in the law pursuant to which the assessment was levied, or from the date of the bonds if the assessment was levied under the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913 or other law, and shall be computed at the rate specified in the bonds secured by the assessments. For each year interest shall be computed and collected up to the next second day of September succeeding, no deduction being made by reason of any installment of the assessment being due or paid prior thereto in such year.

SEC. 15. Section 8688 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8688. Any interested owner shall have the right to tender to the treasurer in payment or part payment of any installment of the assessment or interest or penalties thereon which may be due or payable, any bond secured thereby, the bond to be taken at par and credit to be given for the accrued interest shown thereby computed to the date of tender. The treasurer shall thereupon cancel the bond and shall cause proper credit therefor to be entered on the records of the assessment, in the office of the auditor and tax collector.

SEC. 16. Section 8705 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8705. If any assessment heretofore or hereafter issued is void or unenforceable, for any cause, or if bonds are issued to represent or be secured by any assessments and that issuance is not effective through the curative provisions in relation thereto under the law pursuant to which the assessment was levied or under this division to make them valid and enforceable, then a reassessment may be made. The reassessment shall be made upon the demand of the owner or holder of bonds aggregating one-third of the principal amount outstanding, or upon order of the legislative body, and shall be made in the manner and form provided by the law pursuant to which the assessment was levied, without regard to whether the acquisition or improvement has been done or is proposed to be done, if any valid procedure is provided, and otherwise as provided by Chapter 19 (commencing with Section 5500) of Part 3 of Division 7.

SEC. 17. Section 8706 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8706. When made, the reassessment shall constitute a trust fund for the redemption and payment of the original bonds issued against the original assessment; or the legislative body may call in the original issue of bonds outstanding and issue new bonds upon the security of the reassessment in lieu thereof. If the legislative body determines that new bonds shall be issued upon the security of the reassessment, the notice of hearing upon the reassessment shall contain a declaration of intention to issue bonds substantially in the form provided for in Section 8573. Upon confirmation of the reassessment the legislative body may issue the new bonds in the manner that it determines.

SEC. 18. Section 8707 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8707. If the legislative body calls in the original issue of outstanding bonds, it may direct the treasurer to, and the treasurer shall thereupon, advance the maturity of the outstanding bonds bearing interest in the manner provided in Part 11 (commencing with Section 8750), notwithstanding the fact that there may not be surplus moneys in the redemption fund with which to pay the same. New bonds shall be issued in an aggregate amount equal to the total balance of the reassessment unpaid and shall bear interest from their date at the rate fixed by the legislative body.

SEC. 19. Section 8770 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8770. If it appears to the treasurer that there is danger of an ultimate loss accruing to the bondholders for any reason, he or she shall withhold payment on all matured bonds and interest and report the facts to the legislative body so that proper action may be taken by that body to equitably protect all bondholders.

SEC. 20. Section 8773 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8773. In order to facilitate the making of proportionate payments, the holders of outstanding bonds shall surrender them to the treasurer for registration and cancellation. Upon cancellation each holder shall be credited with the amount of his bond so canceled. Thereupon the treasurer shall by warrant pay to each holder the proportionate amount of principal and accrued interest due on his or her bonds as may be available from time to time out of the money in the redemption fund. Interest shall cease on payments made on account of principal from the date of payment, but interest shall continue to run on the unpaid principal at the rate specified in the bonds until payment thereof be made. No premiums shall be paid on payments made in advance of the due date. If bonds are not surrendered for registration and payment the treasurer shall give notice to the holder thereof by registered mail, at the holder's address as last known to the treasurer, of the amount available for payment. Thereupon interest shall cease as to the amount so available for payment 10 days from the date of mailing of the notice.

SEC. 21. Section 8783 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8783. All money collected on the supplemental assessment shall be paid into the redemption fund and be applied to the payment of the costs of publishing and posting the notice of hearing and of making the supplemental assessment and then to the payment of the bonds and interest thereon. After satisfaction of the bonds, repayment, if possible, of all funds collected on the supplemental assessment shall be made to those persons paying the same out of recoveries had through the collection of the delinquent installments of the assessments upon which the bonds were originally issued and of the interest and penalties thereon, and then out of any surplus remaining in the redemption fund after repayment to the city of any special taxes levied by it for the purpose of advancing funds under Part 13 (commencing with Section 8800) less its recovery on the sale or redemption of the properties assessed and any costs incurred by it under this division.

SEC. 22. Section 8784 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8784. If there is a surplus remaining in the redemption fund after payment of all bonds and the interest thereon, that surplus shall first be applied to repayment to the city of any special taxes levied by it for the purpose of advancing funds under Part 13 (commencing with Section 8800) less its recovery on the sale or redemption of the properties assessed, and also of any costs incurred by it under this division. The remainder shall be repaid in accordance with the provisions of Section 8783 to persons paying supplemental assessments, if any, and the balance may be proportionately credited upon the final installments due upon the assessments securing the bonds and repaid to those persons whose assessments have been previously paid or may be transferred to the general fund of the city

SEC. 23. Section 8800 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8800. Upon default in the payment of any installment of principal or interest on any assessment or reassessment, the lands securing those installments and assessments shall become tax-defaulted in the same manner in which real property in the city becomes tax-defaulted for the nonpayment of general city taxes, and shall be subject to redemption in the same manner and to the same extent that real property in the city which has become tax-defaulted for the nonpayment of general city taxes may be redeemed.

SEC. 24. Section 8801 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8801. If any lot or parcel of land becomes tax-defaulted property for nonpayment of taxes and of any installment of the assessment thereon, or of the penalties, interest, or costs on the same, or for the nonpayment of any installment of the assessment or of the penalties, interest, or costs on the same, the declaration of default pursuant to Section 3436 of the Revenue and Taxation Code and the deed issued pursuant to Section 3708 of that code, are primary evidence of the regularity of all proceedings had prior thereto, and shall be conclusive evidence of all things of which bonds issued upon the security thereof are conclusive evidence, and prima facie evidence of the regularity of all proceedings subsequent to the issuance of the bonds, and the deed conveys to the grantee the absolute title to the lands described therein, free of all incumbrances, except the lien for other state, county, and city taxes, unpaid installments, interest, and penalties under the same proceeding, and unpaid installments, interest, and penalties, the lien of which is subordinate thereto, and except all public improvement assessments which may have priority thereover.

SEC. 25. Section 8802 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8802. The city may pay and transfer into the redemption fund the amount of the delinquent assessment and of the delinquent interest for which the property has become tax-defaulted.

SEC. 26. Section 8803 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8803. If a county or a city whose taxes are collected by the county is conducting the proceedings and the county or city has advanced available funds either in performance of its obligations in proceedings wherein the assessment was levied prior to September 17, 1986, or under subdivision (a) of Section 8769, or voluntarily under subdivision (b) of Section 8769, the tax collector shall account to the county or the city for any moneys received upon redemption or from the sale of the property. In that case, for the purposes of this division, the county or the city shall be entitled to reimbursement of any amounts so advanced from any moneys so received.

SEC. 27. Section 8804 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

This section applies only to bonds representing unpaid assessments, which assessments were confirmed before June 6, 1978.

SEC. 28. Section 8805 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8805. If the city has made advances as provided in Section 8803 with respect to any installment and any succeeding installment of the assessment or of the interest on the assessment is not paid in any future year, the property shall not be declared in default unless there has previously been a redemption from such declaration or unless under the law the property is then being declared in default for delinquent taxes.

SEC. 29. Section 8806 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8806. Notwithstanding Section 8805, if a city has advanced available funds either in performance of its obligations in proceedings wherein the assessment was levied prior to September 17, 1986, or under subdivision (a) of Section 8769, the city shall, from time to time when due, pay and transfer into the redemption fund the amount of any future delinquent installments of the assessment and interest thereon pending redemption, and no redemption shall be made until any subsequent payments, with interest and penalties, are paid.

SEC. 30. Section 8809 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8809. The legislative body, shall, at the time of fixing the annual tax rate and levying the taxes to be collected for general city purposes, levy a special tax upon the taxable property in the city for the purpose of making advances under this part, and also for the purpose of paying installments of the assessment or of the interest thereon, which the city is required to pay under Section 8806, but not to exceed for each local improvement ten cents ($0.10) on each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessable property in any one year. The special tax shall be in addition to all other taxes levied for city purposes, and shall be computed, entered and collected in the same manner, and by the same persons and at the same time and with the same penalties and interest as are other taxes of the city.

This section applies only to bonds representing unpaid assessments, which assessments were confirmed before June 6, 1978.

SEC. 31. Section 8850 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

CHAPTER 195

An act relating to the Department of Corrections.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Department of Corrections shall submit a written report to the Legislature on or before March 25, 1994, on the department's efforts to accommodate any special religious dietary needs of prison inmates.

CHAPTER 196

An act to amend Section 845 of the Civil Code, relating to real property.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 845 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

845. (a) The owner of any easement in the nature of a private right-of-way, or of any land to which any such easement is attached, shall maintain it in repair.

(b) If the easement is owned by more than one person, or is attached to parcels of land under different ownership, the cost of maintaining it in repair shall be shared by each owner of the easement or the owners of the parcels of land, as the case may be, pursuant to the terms of any agreement entered into by the parties for that purpose. If any owner who is a party to the agreement refuses to perform or fails after demand in writing to pay the owner's proportion of the cost, an action for specific performance or contribution may be brought against that owner in a court of competent jurisdiction by the other owners, either jointly or severally.

(c) In the absence of an agreement, the cost shall be shared proportionately to the use made of the easement by each owner.

Any owner of the easement, or any owner of land to which the easement is attached, may apply to any court where the right-of-way is located and that has jurisdiction over the amount in controversy for the appointment of an impartial arbitrator to apportion the cost. The application may be made before, during, or after performance of the maintenance work. If the arbitration award is not accepted by all of the owners, the court may enter a judgment determining the proportionate liability of each owner. The judgment may be enforced as a money judgment by any party against any other party to the action.

(d) In the event that snow removal is not required under subdivision (a) or under any independent contractual or statutory duty, an agreement entered into pursuant to subdivision (b) to maintain the easement in repair shall be construed to include snow removal within the maintenance obligations of the agreement if all of the following exist:

(1) Snow removal is not expressly precluded by the terms of the agreement.

(2) Snow removal is necessary to provide access to the properties served by the easement.

(3) Snow removal is approved in advance by the property owners or their elected representatives in the same manner as provided by the agreement for repairs to the easement.

(e) The provisions of this section do not apply to rights-of-way held or used by railroad common carriers subject to the jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission.

CHAPTER 197

An act to amend Sections 2621, 2621.5, 2621.7, 2621.8, 2621.9, and 2622 of, and to amend the heading of Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 2621) of Division 2 of, the Public Resources Code, relating to seismic safety.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The heading of Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 2621) of Division 2 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

CHAPTER 7.5. EARTHQUAKE FAULT ZONING

SEC. 2. Section 2621 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

2621. This chapter shall be known, and may be cited, as the Alquist-Priolo Earthquake Fault Zoning Act.

SEC. 3. Section 2621.5 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

2621.5. (a) It is the purpose of this chapter to provide for the adoption and administration of zoning laws, ordinances, rules, and regulations by cities and counties in implementation of the general plan that is in effect in any city or county. The Legislature declares that this chapter is intended to provide policies and criteria to assist cities, counties, and state agencies in the exercise of their responsibility to prohibit the location of developments and structures for human occupancy across the trace of active faults as defined by the board.

(b) This chapter is applicable to any project, as defined in Section 2621.6, upon issuance of the official earthquake fault zones maps to affected local jurisdictions, but does not apply to any development or structure that was in existence prior to May 4, 1975. The implementation of this chapter shall be pursuant to policies and criteria established and adopted by the board.

SEC. 4. Section 2621.7 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

2621.7. This chapter, except Section 2621.9, does not apply to the conversion of an existing apartment complex into a condominium.

This chapter does apply to projects which are located within a delineated earthquake fault zone.

SEC. 5. Section 2621.8 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

2621.8. (a) This chapter does not apply to alterations or additions to any structure within an earthquake fault zone, the value of which does not exceed 50 percent of the value of the structure.

(b) (1) The State Geologist may, pursuant to this section, grant an exemption from this chapter to any structure which is located within the jurisdiction of the City of Berkeley or the City of Oakland which was damaged by fire between October 20, 1991, and October 23, 1991. The city may apply to the State Geologist for an exemption and the exemption shall be granted only if a structure which is located within the earthquake fault zone is not situated upon a trace of an active fault line, as delineated in an official earthquake fault zone map, or more recent geologic data as determined by the State Geologist.

(2) When requesting an exemption pursuant to this subdivision, the city shall supply the State Geologist with all of the following:

(A) Maps noting the parcel numbers of proposed building sites that are at least 50 feet from an identified fault and a statement that there is no more recent information to suggest a geologic hazard.

(B) Identification of any sites within 50 feet of an identified fault.

(C) Proof that the property owner has been notified that an exemption does not guarantee that a geologic hazard does not exist.

(3) The granting of an exemption pursuant to this subdivision does not relieve a seller of real property or an agent for the seller of the obligation to disclose to a prospective purchaser that the property is located within a delineated earthquake fault zone, as required by Section 2621.9.

SEC. 6. Section 2621.9 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

2621.9. (a) A person who is acting as an agent for a seller of real property which is located within a delineated earthquake fault zone, or the seller if, the seller is acting without an agent, shall disclose to any prospective purchaser the fact that the property is located within a delineated earthquake fault zone, if the maps prepared pursuant to this chapter, or the information contained in the maps, are reasonably available.

(b) For the purposes of this section, in all transactions that are subject to Section 1102 of the Civil Code, disclosure shall be provided by one of the following means:

(1) The real estate transfer disclosure statement set out in Section 1102.6 of the Civil Code.

(2) The local option real estate transfer disclosure statement set out in subdivision (a) of Section 1102.6 of the Civil Code.

(3) The real estate contract and receipt for deposit.

(c) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Reasonably available" means that, for any county that includes areas covered by a delineated earthquake fault zone map, a notice has been posted at the offices of the county recorder, county assessor, and county planning commission that identifies the location of the map and the effective date of the notice, which shall not exceed 10 days beyond the date the county received the map from the State Geologist.

(2) "Real estate contract and receipt for deposit" means the document containing the offer to sell or purchase real property, that, when accepted, becomes a binding contract, and that serves as an acknowledgment of a deposit if one is received.

(d) For purposes of the disclosures required by this section, the following persons shall not be deemed agents of the transferor:

(1) Persons specified in Section 1102.11 of the Civil Code.

(2) Persons acting under a power of sale regulated by Section 2924 of the Civil Code.

(e) For purposes of this section, Section 1102.13 of the Civil Code shall apply.

SEC. 7. Section 2622 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

2622. (a) In order to assist cities and counties in their planning, zoning, and building-regulation functions, the State Geologist shall delineate, by December 31, 1973, appropriately wide earthquake fault zones to encompass all potentially and recently active traces of the San Andreas, Calaveras, Hayward, and San Jacinto Faults, and such other faults, or segments thereof, as the State Geologist determines to be sufficiently active and well-defined as to constitute a potential hazard to structures from surface faulting or fault creep. The earthquake fault zones shall ordinarily be one-quarter mile or less in width, except in circumstances which may require the State Geologist to designate a wider zone.

(b) Pursuant to this section, the State Geologist shall compile maps delineating the earthquake fault zones and shall submit those maps to all affected cities, counties, and state agencies, not later than December 31, 1973, for review and comment. Concerned jurisdictions and agencies shall submit all comments to the State Mining and Geology Board for review and consideration within 90 days. Within 90 days of that review, the State Geologist shall provide copies of the official maps to concerned state agencies and to each city or county having jurisdiction over lands lying within that zone.

(c) The State Geologist shall continually review new geologic and seismic data and shall revise the earthquake fault zones or delineate additional earthquake fault zones when warranted by new information. The State Geologist shall submit all revised maps and additional maps to all affected cities, counties, and state agencies for their review and comment. Concerned jurisdictions and agencies shall submit all comments to the State Mining and Geology Board for review and consideration within 90 days. Within 90 days of that review, the State Geologist shall provide copies of the revised and additional official maps to concerned state agencies and to each city or county having jurisdiction over lands lying within the earthquake fault zone.

(d) In order to ensure that sellers of real property and their agents are adequately informed, any county that receives an official map pursuant to this section shall post a notice within five days of receipt of the map at the offices of the county recorder, county assessor, and county planning commission, identifying the location of the map and the effective date of the notice.

CHAPTER 198

An act to add Section 7073.1 to the Government Code, relating to enterprise zones.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7073.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

7073.1. In designating new enterprise zones, the department shall include in its criteria the fact that jurisdictions have been declared disaster areas by the President of the United States within the last seven years.

CHAPTER 199

An act to add Article 1.6 (commencing with Section 53225) to Chapter 2 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, relating to local government.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 1.6 (commencing with Section 53225) is added to Chapter 2 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 1.6. Health Insurance Purchasing Alliance

53225. (a) The Health Insurance Purchasing Alliance Program is hereby authorized. The program shall be administered by the Board of Directors of the Health Insurance Purchasing Alliance Program pursuant to this article.

(b) The governing bodies of any two or more counties that maintain a county retirement system pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 31450) of Part 3 of Division 4 of Title 3 may, after notifying and consulting with all other counties that maintain county retirement systems pursuant to that chapter, elect, by resolution, to form or to participate in, subject to the time limitations set forth in subdivision (c), the program and to appoint one county officer as a member of the board of directors. In any county maintaining a retirement system pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 31450) of Part 3 of Division 4 of Title 3 in which the county board of retirement has elected, pursuant to Section 31691, 31691.1, or 31694.1, to make contributions for health benefits coverage of retirees and their dependents, the election shall be exercised jointly by the board of supervisors of the county and the county board of retirement. In any county of the first class, as defined by Section 20820, as amended by Chapter 1204 of the Statutes of 1971, and Section 20822, as amended by Chapter 43 of the Statutes of 1961, the resolution shall be initiated by the county board of retirement. The county board of supervisors shall contribute a reasonable amount of funds to pay its share of the initial startup costs and the administrative costs of the program.

(c) Once the board of directors has put into operation a health insurance contract year, any county maintaining a county retirement system pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 31450) of Part 3 of Division 4 of Title 3, city, or district that desires to participate in the program may elect, by resolution, adopted at least one year prior to the commencement of the next insurance contract year, to participate in the program. Each city and district that elects to participate may appoint one of its officers as a member of the Advisory Committee to the board of directors. The governing body of the participating public agency shall contribute a reasonable amount of funds, as determined by the board of directors, to pay its share of the initial startup costs and the administrative costs of the program.

(d) Each county, city, or district that elects to participate in the program shall:

(1) Furnish to the alliance such employee information as the board of directors may determine to be necessary.

(2) Provide to its eligible employees and retirees and their dependents only the health insurance plans offered by the alliance.

(3) Make the selected health insurance plans offered by the alliance available to all their eligible employees and retirees and their eligible dependents.

(4) Carry out the purposes of the program and pay its share of the initial startup costs.

(5) Abide by the rules and regulations adopted by the board of directors and all applicable state and federal rules and regulations.

(e) The board of directors may, within 180 days of receipt of an application to participate, reject the application of any city or district.

(f) A request to withdraw from the alliance shall be submitted in writing at least one year prior to the end of the health insurance contract year after which coverage is no longer desired.

(g) The board of directors may, after giving one year's advance written notice, terminate a participating public agency for cause pursuant to the rules and regulations.

53225.1. The board of directors shall:

(a) Negotiate and enter into contractual arrangements with health care insurance providers to provide health benefits coverage for the eligible employees and retirees of participating public agencies and their eligible dependents.

(b) Act upon the requests of counties, cities, and districts to participate in the program.

(c) Gather, compile, and furnish such information as may be needed by the health care insurance providers for premium computation purposes.

(d) Analyze federal and state laws and regulations to assure that the health benefits coverage plans being made available and the operations of the program comply with those statutes and regulations.

(e) Provide appropriate consumer information for use by the participating public agencies during the annual open enrollment periods.

(f) Monitor the utilization of the plans by the participating public agencies for cost effectiveness and potential fraud and abuse, and to assure that the needs of those agencies are being met.

(g) Adopt, after the expiration of a reasonable review and comment period, such rules and regulations as may be necessary to provide for the effective operation of the program, including defining of the eligibility of employees and retirees and their dependents to participate in the program.

(h) Employ such staff and consultants, either directly or by contract, as may be reasonably necessary to carry out the program.

(i) Make copies of its proposed budget available to the board of supervisors of all participating counties for review and comment prior to the adoption of the budget.

(j) Establish, in conjunction with the adoption of the annual budget, a schedule of fees and charges for the equitable distribution of the program operating expenses among the participating public agencies.

53225.2. The Advisory Committee shall provide the board advice and assistance in determining the health insurance coverage needs of the participating public agencies and in the adoption of rules and regulations.

CHAPTER 200

An act to amend Section 9561 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9561 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

9561. (a) When a legal owner or his or her agent repossesses a vehicle on which renewal fees are due, the department shall waive any renewal penalties that are due for late payment if the fees are paid within 60 days of taking possession.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this code, when a repossessed vehicle is sold through a dealer conducting a wholesale vehicle auction as provided in subdivision (e) of Section 5901 and Article 5 (commencing with Section 6100) of Chapter 2 of Division 3, any penalties that may be due are waived, if all renewal fees that are due are paid not later than 60 days after the date of sale at the auction.

CHAPTER 201

An act to add Section 179.5 to, and to repeal Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1290) of Division 6 of, the Military and Veterans Code, relating to military and veterans affairs.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the present accommodations within the State Capitol for the artifacts of the Grand Army of the Republic are inadequate and that the California National Guard Military Museum and Resource Center is a more suitable place for the care and public display of these artifacts in a manner and setting which illustrates the significance and historical context of California's role in the War Between the States.

SEC. 2. Section 179.5 is added to the Military and Veterans Code, to read:

179.5. (a) The Legislature acknowledges that certain artifacts of the Grand Army of the Republic that were at one time stored or displayed in the State Capitol were the personal property of certain members of the Civil War Roundtable. The Legislature acknowledges that those artifacts have been donated to, and are now in the custody of, the California National Guard Military Museum and Resource Center, and are, thus, not the subject of this section.

(b) The Civil War memorabilia that are still located at the State Capitol and that are the subject of this section consist of the following:

(1) A display cabinet that once contained, among other things, artifacts of the Grand Army of the Republic that have since been donated by the Civil War Roundtable to the California National Guard Military Museum and Resource Center mentioned in subdivision (a).

(2) Certain flags of the Grand Army of the Republic that have been, and continue to be, stored or displayed in the State Capitol.

(3) One or more paintings of the Civil War era that were donated to the state.

(4) Other remaining artifacts of the Grand Army of the Republic, and Civil War memorabilia.

(c) The articles specified in subdivision (b) shall be stored, cared for, or displayed as follows:

(1) The Adjutant General shall provide suitable accommodations within the California National Guard Military Museum and Resource Center for the care and display of the display cabinet that was once used to display at the State Capitol the books, papers, and other artifacts relating to the Grand Army of the Republic and may make suitable arrangements for the use of this cabinet for the public display of these articles in locations throughout the state.

(2) Suitable facilities shall be provided at the State Capitol for storage or display within the State Capitol of the flags as set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), of the Civil War era paintings donated to the state as set forth in paragraph (3) of subdivision (b), and of other remaining artifacts and Civil War memorabilia as set forth in paragraph (4) of subdivision (b).

SEC. 3. Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1290) of Division 6 of the Military and Veterans Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 202

An act to amend Section 2472 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to podiatry.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2472 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2472. (a) The certificate to practice podiatric medicine authorizes the holder to practice podiatric medicine.

(b) As used in this chapter, "podiatric medicine" means the diagnosis, medical, surgical, mechanical, manipulative, and electrical treatment of the human foot, including the ankle and tendons that insert into the foot and the nonsurgical treatment of the muscles and tendons of the leg governing the functions of the foot.

(c) No podiatrist shall do any amputation or administer an anesthetic other than local. If an anesthetic other than local is required for any procedure, the anesthetic shall be administered by another health care practitioner licensed under this division, who is authorized to administer the required anesthetic within the scope of his or her practice.

(d) Surgical treatment by a podiatrist of the ankle and tendons at the level of the ankle shall be performed only in the following locations:

(1) Licensed general acute care hospital, as defined in Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code.

(2) A licensed surgical clinic, as defined in Section 1204 of the Health and Safety Code, if the podiatrist has surgical privileges, including the privilege to perform surgery on the ankle, in a general acute care hospital described in subparagraph (1) and meets all the protocols of the surgical clinic.

(3) An ambulatory surgical center that is certified to participate in the Medicare program under Title XVIII (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1395 et seq.) of the federal Social Security Act, if the podiatrist has surgical privileges, including the privilege to perform surgery on the ankle, in a general acute care hospital described in subparagraph (1) and meets all the protocols of the surgical center.

(4) A freestanding physical plant housing outpatient services of a licensed general acute care hospital, as defined in Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code. For purposes of this section, a "freestanding physical plant" means any building that is not physically attached to a building where inpatient services are provided.

(e) The amendment of this section made at the 1983–84 Regular Session of the Legislature is intended to codify existing practice.

CHAPTER 203

An act to add Section 13396.6 to the Water Code, relating to water.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13396.6 is added to the Water Code, to read:

13396.6. No fees may be imposed pursuant to Section 13396.5 on dischargers who discharge into enclosed bays, estuaries, or adjacent waters in the contiguous zone or the ocean from lands managed solely to provide habitat for waterfowl and other water-dependent wildlife.

CHAPTER 204

An act to add Section 60603.5 to the Education Code, relating to private schools.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 60603.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

60603.5. (a) Any private school may adopt the pupil assessment program developed pursuant to Section 60602.5 to use for testing pupils in that school.

(b) The State Department of Education shall calculate its cost in supplying the testing materials to a school, grading the test, distributing the statewide results of the test to a school, and any other reasonably related expenses. That amount shall be reimbursed to the department by any private school that chooses to use the pupil assessment testing program pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) The Superintendent of Public Instruction, or his or her designee, shall appoint a representative of the local public education community to proctor the administration of a pupil assessment test given at any private school.

CHAPTER 205

An act to amend Section 5415 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 13521, 13522, 13523, and 13523.1 of the Water Code, relating to water.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5415 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

5415. No provision in this chapter is a limitation on any of the following:

(a) The authority of a city or county to adopt and enforce additional regulations not in conflict with this chapter imposing additional conditions, restrictions, or limitations relating to the disposal of sewage or other waste.

(b) The authority of any city or county to declare, prohibit, and abate nuisances.

(c) The authority of a state agency in the enforcement or administration of any provision of law which it is specifically permitted or required to enforce or administer.

(d) The right of any person to maintain at any time any appropriate action for relief against any private nuisance as defined in the Civil Code or for relief against any contamination or pollution.

(e) The authority of a city or county to adopt and enforce regulations relating to the use of reclaimed water in accordance with Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 13500) of Division 7 of the Water Code.

SEC. 2. Section 13521 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13521. The State Department of Health Services shall establish uniform statewide reclamation criteria for each varying type of use of reclaimed water where the use involves the protection of public health.

SEC. 3. Section 13522 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13522. (a) Whenever the State Department of Health Services or any local health officer finds that a contamination exists as a result of the use of reclaimed water, the department or local health officer shall order the contamination abated in accordance with the procedure provided for in Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 5400) of Part 3 of Division 5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) The use of reclaimed water in accordance with the uniform statewide reclamation criteria established pursuant to Section 13521, for the purpose of this section, does not cause, constitute, or contribute to, any form of contamination, unless the department or the regional board determines that contamination exists.

SEC. 4. Section 13523 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13523. (a) Each regional board, after consulting with and receiving the recommendations of the State Department of Health Services and any party who has requested in writing to be consulted, and after any necessary hearing, shall, if in the judgment of the board, it is necessary to protect the public health, safety, or welfare, prescribe water reclamation requirements for water which is used or proposed to be used as reclaimed water.

(b) The requirements may be placed upon the person reclaiming water, the user, or both. The requirements shall be established in conformance with the uniform statewide reclamation criteria established pursuant to Section 13521. The regional board may require the submission of a preconstruction report for the purpose of determining compliance with the uniform statewide reclamation criteria. The requirements for a use of reclaimed water not addressed by the uniform statewide reclamation criteria shall be considered on a case-by-case basis.

SEC. 5. Section 13523.1 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13523.1. (a) Each regional board, after consulting with, and receiving the recommendations of, the State Department of Health Services and any party who has requested in writing to be consulted, and after any necessary hearing, may, in lieu of issuing waste discharge requirements pursuant to Section 13263 or water reclamation requirements pursuant to Section 13523 for a user of reclaimed water, issue a master reclamation permit to a supplier or distributor, or both, of reclaimed water.

(b) A master reclamation permit shall include, at least, all of the following:

(1) Waste discharge requirements, adopted pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 13260) of Chapter 4.

(2) A requirement that the permittee comply with the uniform statewide reclamation criteria established pursuant to Section 13521. Permit conditions for a use of reclaimed water not addressed by the uniform statewide water reclamation criteria shall be considered on a case-by-case basis.

(3) A requirement that the permittee establish and enforce rules or regulations for reclaimed water users, governing the design and construction of reclaimed water use facilities and the use of reclaimed water, in accordance with the uniform statewide reclamation criteria established pursuant to Section 13521.

(4) A requirement that the permittee submit a quarterly report summarizing reclaimed water use, including the total amount of reclaimed water supplied, the total number of reclaimed water use sites, and the locations of those sites, including the names of the hydrologic areas underlying the reclaimed water use sites.

(5) A requirement that the permittee conduct periodic inspections of the facilities of the reclaimed water users to monitor compliance by the users with the uniform statewide reclamation criteria established pursuant to Section 13521 and the requirements of the master reclamation permit.

(6) Any other requirements determined to be appropriate by the regional board.

CHAPTER 206

An act to amend Sections 13353.6 and 13369 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

13353.6. (a) If the person's driver's license is a commercial driver's license, as defined in Section 15210, and if the person has not had a separate violation of Section 23103 as specified in Section 23103.5, Section 23152, or Section 23153 of this code, or Section 191.5 or paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 192 of the Penal Code which resulted in a conviction, and if the person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle has not been previously suspended or revoked pursuant to Section 13353 or 13353.2 for an offense which occurred on a separate occasion, notwithstanding Section 13551, the department shall, upon receiving the officer's sworn statement and the receipt of the person's driver's license and after review pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 13353.2, suspend the person's privilege to operate a motor vehicle for 30 days, and then reissue the person a commercial driver's license and endorsements with restrictions, as follows:

(1) The restricted commercial driver's license shall authorize the operation of a motor vehicle only to and from, and in the course and scope of, the person's employment.

(2) The term of the restricted license is 30 days after the date that the order of suspension is effective pursuant to Section 13353.3 until six months after that date.

(b) The person may be issued an unrestricted commercial driver's license after the term of restriction under this section.

(c) This section applies only to the holder of a commercial driver's license who was not operating a commercial vehicle, as defined in Section 15210, at the time of the offense.

SEC. 2. Section 13369 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

13369. This section applies to the following endorsements and certificates: passenger transport vehicle, hazardous materials, schoolbus, school pupil activity bus, youth bus, general public paratransit vehicle, and farm labor vehicle.

(a) The department shall refuse to issue or renew, or shall revoke for any of the following causes, the certificate or endorsement of any person who:

(1) Within the preceding three years, has committed any violation which results in a conviction assigned a violation point count of two or more, as defined in Section 12810 and 12810.5. The department shall not refuse to issue or renew, nor shall it revoke a person's hazardous materials or passenger transportation vehicle endorsement if the violation leading to the conviction occurred in the person's private vehicle and not in a commercial motor vehicle, as defined in Section 15210.

(2) Within the preceding three years, has had his or her driving privilege suspended, revoked, or on probation for any reason involving unsafe operation of a motor vehicle. The department shall not refuse to issue or renew, nor shall it revoke, a person's hazardous materials or passenger transportation vehicle endorsement if the person's driving privilege has, within the preceding three years, been placed on probation only for any reason involving unsafe operation of a motor vehicle, or if Section 13353.6 applies.

(b) The department may refuse to issue or renew, or may suspend or revoke the certificate or endorsement of any person who:

(1) Within the preceding 12 months, has been involved as a driver in three accidents in which the driver caused or contributed to the causes of the accidents.

(2) Within the preceding 24 months, as a driver, caused or contributed to the cause of an accident resulting in a fatality or serious injury or serious property damage in excess of five hundred dollars ($500).

(3) Has violated any provision of this code, or any rule or regulation pertaining to the safe operation of a vehicle for which the certificate or endorsement was issued.

(4) Has violated any restriction of the certificate, endorsement, or commercial driver's license.

(5) Has knowingly made a false statement or concealed a material fact on an application for a certificate or endorsement.

(6) Has been determined by the department to be a negligent or incompetent operator.

(7) Has demonstrated irrational behavior to the extent that a reasonable and prudent person would have reasonable cause to believe that the applicant's ability to perform the duties of a driver may be impaired.

(8) Excessively or habitually uses, or is addicted to, alcoholic beverages, narcotics, or dangerous drugs.

(9) Does not meet the minimum medical standards established or approved by the department.

(c) The department may cancel the certificate or endorsement of any driver who:

(1) Does not have a valid license of the appropriate class.

(2) Has requested cancellation of the certificate or endorsement.

(3) Has failed to meet any of the requirements for issuance or retention of the certificate or endorsement, including, but not limited to, payment of the proper fee, submission of an acceptable medical report and fingerprint cards, and failure to meet prescribed training requirements.

(4) Has had his or her driving privilege suspended or revoked for a cause involving other than the safe operation of a motor vehicle.

(d) With regard to a violation, accident, or departmental action which occurred prior to January 1, 1991, subdivision (a) and paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of subdivision (b) do not apply to a driver holding a valid passenger transport or hazardous materials endorsement, or a valid class 1 or class 2 license who is applying to convert that license to a class A or class B license with a passenger transport or hazardous materials endorsement, if the driver submits proof that he or she is currently employed operating vehicles requiring the endorsement, or a valid class 3 license who is applying for a class C license with a hazardous materials endorsement if the driver submits proof that he or she is currently employed operating vehicles requiring the endorsement.

(e) Subdivision (d) does not apply to drivers applying for a schoolbus, school pupil activity bus, youth bus, general public paratransit vehicle, or farm labor vehicle certificate.

(f) (1) Reapplication following denial or revocation under subdivision (a) or (b) may be made after a period of not less than one year from the effective date of denial or revocation, except in cases where a longer period of suspension or revocation is required by law.

(2) Reapplication following cancellation under subdivision (d) may be made any time without prejudice.

CHAPTER 207

An act to amend Section 4603 of, and to add Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 3200) to Part 1 of Division 3 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to fairs and expositions, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 3200) is added to Part 1 of Division 3 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3. FISCAL PROVISIONS

3200. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, all funds appropriated for California fairs and expositions pursuant to Sections 19622, 19627, 19627.1, and subdivision (c) of Section 19627.2 of the Business and Professions Code for the 1993–94 fiscal year shall not be utilized for the purposes specified in those sections but shall, instead, be utilized for the purposes specified in Section 19630 of the Business and Professions Code, and may be allocated by the Director of Food and Agriculture to all state designated fairs as defined by Section 19418 of the Business and Professions Code, for the purposes specified in Section 19630.

SEC. 2. Section 4603 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

4603. "Citrus fruit fair" means any citrus fruit fair or citrus fruit fair and exposition which satisfies all of the following requirements:

(a) Has been conducted and carried on by an association for not less than four or more than 15 consecutive days during each calendar year for a period of not less than 20 consecutive years.

(b) Citrus fruits are exhibited for prizes and premiums at the fair.

The fair has for its purpose the promotion and encouragement of the citrus fruit industry of this state.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for the changes in the appropriation of the daily license fees in this act to become effective early in the 1993–94 fiscal year, and in order to broaden at the earliest possible time the number of fairs that are eligible to be citrus fruit fairs, it is necessary for this act to become effective immediately.

CHAPTER 208

An act to amend Section 34501.2 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 34501.2 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

34501.2. (a) The regulations adopted pursuant to Section 34501 for vehicles engaged in interstate or intrastate commerce shall establish hours-of-service regulations for drivers of those vehicles that are consistent with the hours-of-service regulations adopted by the United States Department of Transportation in Part 395 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as those regulations now exist or are hereafter amended.

(b) The regulations adopted pursuant to Section 34501 for vehicles engaged in intrastate commerce that are not transporting hazardous substances or hazardous waste, as those terms are defined by regulations in Section 171.8 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as those regulations now exist or are hereafter amended, shall have the following exceptions:

(1) The maximum driving time within a work period shall be 12 hours for a driver of a truck or truck tractor, except for a driver of a tank vehicle with a capacity of more than 500 gallons transporting flammable liquid, who shall not drive for more than 10 hours within a work period.

(2) No motor carrier shall permit or require a driver to drive, nor shall any driver drive, for any period after having been on duty for 80 hours in any consecutive eight days.

(3) A driver employed by an electrical corporation, as defined in Section 218 of the Public Utilities Code, a gas corporation, as defined in Section 222 of that code, or a telephone corporation, as defined in Section 234 of that code, may be permitted or required to drive more than the number of hours specified in subdivision (a) while operating a public utility vehicle during the emergency restoration of public utility service.

(4) Any other exceptions applicable to drivers assigned to governmental fire suppression and prevention, as determined by the department.

(5) A driver employed by a law enforcement agency, as defined in Section 390.3 (f) (2) of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, as that section now exists or is hereafter amended, during an emergency or to restore the public peace.

(c) The regulations adopted pursuant to Section 34501 for vehicles engaged in the transportation of farm products in intrastate commerce shall include all of the following provisions:

(1) A driver employed by an agricultural carrier, as defined in Section 3525 of the Public Utilities Code, including a carrier holding a seasonal permit issued pursuant to Section 3584.2 of the Public Utilities Code, or by a private carrier, as defined in Section 4001 of the Public Utilities Code, when transporting farm products from the field to the first point of processing or packing, shall not drive for any period after having been on duty 16 hours or more following eight consecutive hours off duty and shall not drive for any period after having been on duty for 112 hours in any consecutive eight-day period, except that a driver transporting special situation farm products from the field to the first point of processing or packing, or transporting livestock from pasture to pasture, may be permitted, during one period of not more than 28 consecutive days or a combination of two periods totaling not more than 28 days in a calendar year, to drive for not more than 12 hours during any workday of not more than 16 hours. A driver who thereby exceeds the driving time limits specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) shall maintain a driver's record of duty status, and shall keep a duplicate copy in his or her possession when driving a vehicle subject to this chapter. These records shall be presented immediately upon request by any authorized employee of the department, or any police officer or deputy sheriff.

(2) Upon the request of the Director of Food and Agriculture, the commissioner may, for good cause, temporarily waive the maximum on-duty time limits applicable to any eight-day period when an emergency exists due to inclement weather, natural disaster, or an adverse economic condition that threatens to disrupt the orderly movement of farm products during harvest for the duration of the emergency. For purposes of this paragraph, an emergency does not include a strike or labor dispute.

(3) For purposes of this subdivision, the following terms have the following meanings:

(A) "Farm products" means every agricultural, horticultural, viticultural, or vegetable product of the soil, honey and beeswax, oilseeds, poultry, livestock, milk, or timber.

(B) "First point of processing or packing" means a location where farm products are dried, canned, extracted, fermented, distilled, frozen, ginned, eviscerated, pasteurized, packed, packaged, bottled, conditioned, or otherwise manufactured, processed, or preserved for distribution in wholesale or retail markets.

(C) "Special situation farm products" means fruit, tomatoes, sugar beets, grains, wine grapes, grape concentrate, cotton, or nuts.

CHAPTER 209

An act to amend Section 99234.9 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 99234.9 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

99234.9. Any county, city, county transportation commission, or operator may file claims with the transportation planning agency for rail passenger service operation expenditures and capital improvement expenditures, including construction and maintenance of intermodal transportation facilities. These funds may be used as the entity's required contribution toward the cost of providing these services or capital improvements.

CHAPTER 210

An act to add and repeal Section 8588.7 of the Government Code, relating to the Office of Emergency Services.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8588.7 is added to the Government Code, to read:

8588.7. (a) Pursuant to Section 8588.5, the Office of Emergency Services, under contract with the Police Department of the City of Inglewood, conducted a study and determined the feasibility and effectiveness of cross-training existing law enforcement patrol dog teams or contraband detection dog teams, or both, to function also as disaster search dog teams.

(b) The Office of Emergency Services shall conduct two projects, with any city or county electing to participate, to cross-train existing law enforcement dogs to function as disaster search dogs, as contemplated by Chapter 894 of the Statutes of 1990 and Section 8588.5, and consistent with the conclusions and recommendations of the study conducted by the Office of Emergency Services pursuant to Section 8588.5. Based on an application process, each city or county electing to participate in a project pursuant to this section shall pay all costs of replacing its peace officers engaged in a project. The Office of Emergency Services shall bear all other costs of the projects.

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until December 31, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before December 31, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 211

An act to add Section 5022 to the Penal Code, relating to correctional facilities, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5022 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

5022. (a) Upon the entry of a prisoner into a facility operated by the Department of Corrections, and at least every year thereafter, the Director of Corrections shall obtain from the prisoner the name and last known address and telephone number of any person or persons who shall be notified in the event of the prisoner's death or serious illness or serious injury, as determined by the physician in attendance, and who are authorized to receive his or her body. The persons shall be noted in the order of the prisoner's preference. The Director of Corrections shall provide the prisoner with the opportunity to modify or amend his or her notification list at any time.

(b) The Director of Corrections shall use all reasonable means to contact the person or persons set forth in the notification list upon the death or serious illness or serious injury, as determined by the physician in attendance, of the prisoner while confined in a facility operated by the Department of Corrections.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure that the death or serious illness or serious injury, as determined by the physician in attendance, of any prisoner confined in a state correctional facility is timely reported to the person or persons whom the prisoner has authorized to receive his or her body, and to maintain the public safety at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 212

An act to add Section 48900.6 to the Education Code, relating to schools.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 48900.6 is added to the Education Code, to read:

48900.6. Instead of disciplinary action prescribed by this article, the principal of a school, the principal's designee, or the superintendent of schools, at his or her discretion, may require a pupil to perform community service on school grounds during nonschool hours. For the purposes of this section "community service" may include, but is not limited to, work performed on school grounds in the areas of outdoor beautification, campus betterment, and teacher or peer assistance programs. This section shall not apply to instances where suspension or expulsion is required by this article.

CHAPTER 213

An act to amend Section 11 of, to amend, repeal, and add Section 1 of, and to add Sections 1.2, 1.4, and 1.6 to, the Orange County Water District Act (Chapter 924 of the Statutes of 1933), relating to the Orange County Water District.

[Approved by Governor July 25, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of the Orange County Water District Act (Chapter 924 of the Statutes of 1933) is amended to read:

Section 1. (a) A district is hereby created to be known and designated as "Orange County Water District," located entirely within Orange County, California, including and comprising all of the land within the exterior boundaries of the district, which boundaries are described as follows:

feet; North 0° 52′ 52″ East 1320.36 feet; South 89° 07′ 33″ East 2641.10 feet; North 0° 51′ 35″ East 373.17 feet; South 89° 10′ 28″ East 51.52 feet to a point in the centerline of Harbor Boulevard, being a curve concave northeasterly and having a radius of 1700.00 feet, a radial through said point bearing South 76° 42′ 39″ West; thence along said centerline through a central angle of 17° 43′ 34″ southeasterly an arc distance of 525.94 feet; thence tangent to said curve, continuing along said centerline, South 31° 00′ 55″ East 125.32 feet to the beginning of a tangent curve concave southwesterly and having a radius of 1500.00 feet; thence along said curve through a central angle of 21° 25′ 00″ southeasterly an arc distance of 560.69 feet; thence continuing along said centerline South 9° 35′ 55″ East 226.85 feet; North 80° 22′ 05″ East 269.44 feet; thence North 9° 37′ 55″ West 324.50 feet; South 80° 22′ 05″ West 185 feet; North 9° 37′ 55″ West 25.00 feet; North 20° 34′ 25″ East 597.16 feet; North 1° 35″ East 696.84 feet; thence westerly 800 feet, more or less, to the Northwest corner of the South one-half of the North one-half of the Northeast one-quarter of Section 16, Township 3 South, Range 10 West, San Bernardino Base and Meridian; thence northerly 660 feet, more or less, along the centerline of Harbor Boulevard (formerly North Fullerton Road) to the Northwest corner of the Northeast one-quarter of said Section 16, said point also being the Southwest corner of the Southeast one-quarter of Section 9, Township 3 South, Range 10 West, San Bernardino Base and Meridian; thence continuing along the West line of said Southeast one-quarter of Section 9, northerly 1320.65 feet, more or less, to the Northwest corner of the Southwest one-quarter of said Southeast one-quarter of Section 9; thence along the North line of said Southwest one-quarter of the Southeast one-quarter of Section 9, easterly 1320 feet, more or less, to the Northeast corner of said Southwest one-quarter of the Southeast one-quarter of Section 9; thence along the West line of the Northeast one-quarter of said Southeast one-quarter of Section 9, northerly 1320 feet, more or less, to the Northwest corner of said Northeast one-quarter of the Southeast one-quarter of Section 9; thence along the northerly line of said Southeast one-quarter of Section 9, easterly 1320.58 feet, more or less to the Northeast corner of said Southeast one-quarter of Section 9; thence along the East line of said Section 9, southerly 1320 feet, more or less to the Northeast corner of the Southeast one-quarter of the Southeast one-quarter of said Section 9; thence along the North line of the West one-half of the Southwest one-quarter of the Southwest one-quarter of Section 10, Township 3 South, Range 10 West, San Bernardino Base and Meridian, easterly 660 feet, more or less, to the Northeast corner thereof; thence along the East line of said West one-half of the Southwest one-quarter of the Southwest one-quarter of Section 10 and the southerly prolongation thereof, southerly 1350 feet, more or less, to a point on the southerly right-of-way line of Imperial Highway, 60 feet wide; thence along said southerly right-of-way line, South 88° 28′ 00″ East 1980.00 feet, more or less, to a point 30 feet South of the Southeast corner of the Southwest one-quarter of said Section 10; thence along the East line of the West one-half of Section 15, Township 3 South, Range 10 West, San Bernardino Base and Meridian, southerly 3,300 feet, more or less, to the Northwest corner of the South one-half of the Northwest one-quarter of the Southeast one-quarter of said Section 15; thence South 89° 34' 57" East 728.35 feet, more or less; thence South 0° 25' 03" West 180.57 feet; South 89° 34' 57" East 30.00 feet; South 0° 25' 03" West 120.00 feet; South 60° 12' 37" East 67.88 feet; South 40° 51' 51" East 212.76 feet; South 46° 41' 14" East 100.44 feet; South 56° 28' 22" East 68.42 feet; South 64° 23' 55" East 68.42 feet; South 72° 19' 28" East 68.42 feet; South 80° 34' 05" East 68.39 feet; South 89° 56' 00" East 24.82 feet to the Southeast corner of the Northwest one-quarter of the Southeast one-quarter of said Section 15; thence along the South line of the North one-halves of the Southeast one-quarter of Section 15 and the Southwest one-quarter of Section 14, Township 3 South, Range 10 West, San Bernardino Base and Meridian, easterly 1721.49 feet, more or less, to its intersection with the centerline of Brea Boulevard; thence North 25° 43' 30" East 222.61 feet; South 64° 16' 30" East 467.50 feet; thence South 62° 16' 30" East 262.50 feet; North 25° 43' 30" East 125.00 feet to the South line of the North one-half of said Southwest one-quarter of Section 14; thence along the South line of the North one-half of the South one-half of said Section 14 easterly 3,990.09 feet, more or less, to the Southwest corner of the North one-half of the Southwest one-quarter of Section 13, Township 3 South, Range 10 West, San Bernardino Base and Meridian; thence North 2° 06' 03" East 433.30 feet; South 53° 03' 50" East 717.75 feet to a point on the South line of the North one-half of the Southwest one-quarter of said Section 13; thence along said South line easterly 713.66 feet, more or less; thence North 27° 25' 41" West 253.30 feet; North 16° 25' 08" East 958.97 feet; South 37° O5' 52" West 1068.97 feet; North 37° 31' 46" West 869.87 feet, more or less, North 25° 43' 30" East 341.53 feet, more or less, to a point in the North line of the Southwest one-quarter of said Section 13; thence along said North line North 89° 37' 33" East 1332.13 feet to a point in the South line of Imperial Highway, 100 feet wide, said point being on a nontangent curve concave northerly and having a radius of 3050.00 feet, a radial to said point bears South 8° 02' 34" West; thence easterly along said curve, through a central angle of 8° 02' 34" an arc distance of 428.14 feet; thence continuing along said South line of Imperial Highway North 89° 37' 33" East 502.65 feet; North 89° 27' 13" East 1319.29 feet to the East line of the Northwest one-quarter of the Southeast one-quarter of said Section 13; thence along said East line South 1290 feet to the Northeast corner of the Southwest one-quarter of the Southeast one-quarter of said Section 13; thence easterly one mile to the Northeast corner of the Southwest one-quarter of the Southeast one-quarter of Section 18, Township 3 South, Range 9 West, San Bernardino Base and Meridian; thence South one-quarter mile to the Southeast corner of said Southwest one-quarter of the Southeast one-quarter; thence East one-eighth mile to the southwest corner of the East one-half of the Southeast one-quarter of the Southeast one-quarter of said Section Eighteen (18); thence North one-quarter mile to the Northwest corner of said East one-half; thence East one-eighth mile to the Northeast corner of said East one-half; thence South one-eighth mile to the Northwest corner of the South one-half of the South one-half of the South one-half of fractional Section Seventeen (17), Township Three (3) South, Range 9 West, San Bernardino Base and Meridian; thence East along the North line of the said South one-half of the South one-half of the South one-half of said fractional Section Seventeen (17) to the East line of the Rancho San Juan Cajon de Santa Ana; thence northerly along the said East Rancho line to the Northwest corner of Block One (1) of Yorba Linda Tract as per map recorded in Book 5, pages 17 and 18 of Miscellaneous Maps, Records of Orange County, California; thence easterly along the northerly boundary of said Yorba Linda Tract to the Northeast corner of Lot One (1) in Block Two (2) of said tract; thence southerly along the East line of said Block 2 to an intersection with the westerly prolongation of the North line of Block 25, as shown on a map of Carlton, recorded in Book 29, pages 9 and 10, Miscellaneous Records of Los Angeles County, California, said intersection being on the southerly line of Wabash Avenue as shown on said map of Carlton; thence easterly along the southerly line of said Wabash Avenue to an intersection with the westerly line of First Street, 60 feet in width as now laid out; thence southerly along the westerly line of said First Street to an intersection with the westerly prolongation of the northerly line of Block 6 of said Yorba Linda Tract; thence easterly along said westerly prolongation and along the northerly line of Blocks 6 and 7 of said Yorba Linda Tract to the Northeast corner of said Block 7; thence southerly, easterly, southerly and easterly along the exterior boundary lines of said Yorba Linda Tract; thence southerly along the easterly line of said Block 8 and its southerly prolongation to the South line of Yorba Linda Boulevard, 60 feet wide as now laid out; thence easterly along the easterly prolongation of said southerly line of Yorba Linda Boulevard to an intersection with the East line of the M. Yorba allotment of second class land, as shown on a map showing the subdivision of the Rancho Canon de Santa Ana, by order of the Seventeenth Judicial District; thence North 01° 29′ 51″ West, 30.00 feet, more or less, to a point in the centerline of Yorba Linda Boulevard, extended easterly; thence North 89° 25′ 00″ West along said extended centerline a distance of 338.07 feet; thence North 00° 04′ 28″ East, 2681-55 feet; thence North 89° 59′ 42″ East, 1795.99 feet; thence running North 89° 23′ 16″ East, 386.73 feet along the northerly line of the Rancho Canon de Santa Ana to a point on a curve concave westerly and having a radius of 1200.00 feet; thence northerly along said curve through a central angle of 39° 17′ 20″ an arc distance of 822.87 feet to its intersection with the West line of the Northwest one-quarter of Section 24 Township 3 South, Range 9 West, S.B.B. & M.; thence North 0° 15′ 09″ West, 154.38 feet along the West line of said Northwest one-quarter of Section 24 to the southerly line of that certain 50.00 feet right-of-way conveyed to The Metropolitan Water District of Southern California, by Deed recorded July 11, 1960, in Book 5321, page 448; thence continuing along said West line of the Northwest one-quarter of Section 24, North 0° 41' 30" East 1810.75 feet to the Northwest corner of said Section 24 as shown on a map recorded in Book 97, Pages 1 & 2, Record of Surveys, records of said Orange County, California; thence along the northerly line of said Section 24, South 89° 53' 28" East 2658.08 feet to the Northeast corner of the Northwest one-quarter of said Section 24; thence along said northerly line of said Section 24, South 89° 03' 19" East 2661.15 feet to the Northwest corner of Annexation No. 75-2 to the City of Yorba Linda; thence following the boundary of said Annexation No. 75-2 to the City of Yorba Linda, the following courses and distances: South 87° 20' 11" East 1877.10 feet to the easterly boundary line of the land known as the Dominguez Ranch; thence along said easterly boundary of the Dominguez Ranch, South 01° 38' 23" East 7827.18 feet to a point in a line running northeasterly from a point 2800 feet northerly of the centerline of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company's main track as measured along the East line of the allotment of second class lands to V. Yorba in the partition of the Rancho Canon de Santa Ana to a point 2400 feet northerly of said A. T. & S. F. Railway Company's main track centerline as measures along the East line of the allotment of second class lands to W. McKee in said partition of said Rancho Canon de Santa Ana; thence easterly along said line to a point in the East line of the allotment of second class land to W. McKee in partition of said Rancho Canon de Santa Ana, said point being 2400 feet northerly measured along said East line of allotment to W. McKee, from its intersection with the centerline of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company's main track; thence southerly along the said East line of allotment to W. McKee to its intersection with the southerly line of that certain right-of-way of A. T. & S. F. railroad described in a quitclaim of the Anaheim Union Water Company, recorded in Book 193, page 114, Deeds of Orange County; thence along said southerly right-of-way line, North 71° 26' 00" East, 879.86 feet, more or less to the most westerly point of the 50 foot wide strip of land recorded in Book 1283, page 447, O. R.; thence South 18° 34' 00" East, 50.00 feet; thence along the southerly line of the parcel of land described in said Book 1283, page 447, Official Records, North 71° 26' 00" East, 566.64 feet, more or less, parallel with the centerline of said A. T. & S. F. railroad, to a tangent curve concave northwesterly and having a radius of 3681.1 feet; thence northeasterly along said curve, as described in Parcel 1 in Book 193, page 114, of Deeds and Book 1283, page 447, O. R., and being 100 feet southeasterly and parallel to said railroad centerline, 1313.7 feet, more or less, to a point in the boundary line between the lands of Anaheim Union Water Company and F. H. Bixby, as described in said Deed; thence along said boundary line South 0° 25' 56" East, 450 feet, more or less, to a point in the northerly lines of Lot

4, Tract 865, recorded in Book 28, page 18, M. (b) The district is hereby divided into 10 divisions which shall be numbered first, second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth, and one director shall be elected or appointed as hereinafter provided from each division.

(c) The boundaries of the first, second, third, fourth, fifth, six and seventh divisions are established pursuant to Section 1.2.

(d) The boundaries of the eighth, ninth and tenth divisions are as follows:

(1) Eighth Division: Division No. 8 shall comprise all that area included within the exterior boundary of the Orange County Water District that is located within the boundaries of the municipal corporation known as the City of Santa Ana as it existed at 12 noon, March 6, 1953, or as it may hereafter exist.

(2) Ninth Division: Division No. 9 shall comprise all that area included within the exterior boundary of the Orange County Water District that is located within the boundaries of the municipal corporation known as the City of Anaheim as it existed at 12 o'clock noon, March 6, 1953, or as it may hereafter exist.

(3) Tenth Division: Division No. 10 shall comprise all that area included within the exterior boundary of the Orange County Water District that is located within the boundaries of the municipal corporation known as the City of Fullerton as it existed at 12 o'clock noon, March 6, 1953, or as it may hereafter exist.

(e) Annexations to or enlargements of municipal corporations which constitute Divisions 8, 9 and 10 shall become part of the division which said municipal corporation constitutes without further act of said district; provided, however, that if said annexations or enlargements include land which is not already a part of said district, such land may be included within said district and said division only by inclusion proceedings as provided in this act.

(f) This section shall become operative upon the receipt by the Secretary of State of the notice specified in Section 1, as set forth in the act that added this section.

SEC. 3. Section 1.2 is added to the Orange County Water District Act (Chapter 924 of the Statutes of 1933), to read:

Sec. 1.2. (a) After each federal decennial census, and using population figures as validated by the Population Research Unit of the Department of Finance, the board of directors shall, by resolution, adjust the boundaries of the first, second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, and seventh divisions so that those divisions are, as far as practicable, equal in population and represent, as far as practicable, a commonality of interest.

(b) The resolution requires the vote of not less than six directors for adoption.

(c) At the time of, or after, any annexation of territory to the agency, the board of directors shall designate, by resolution, the division of which the annexed territory shall be a part.

SEC. 4. Section 1.4 is added to the Orange County Water District Act (Chapter 924 of the Statutes of 1933), to read:

1.4. No change in the boundaries of any division may be made within the four months immediately preceding the election of any director.

SEC. 5. Section 1.6 is added to the Orange County Water District Act (Chapter 924 of the Statutes of 1933), to read:

1.6. (a) A change in the boundaries of a division does not affect the term of office of any director.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 11, if the boundaries of a division are adjusted, the director of the division whose boundaries have been adjusted, shall continue to be the director of the division bearing the number of his or her division as formerly comprised until the office becomes vacant by means of term expiration or otherwise, whether or not the director is a resident within the boundaries of the division as adjusted.

(c) The successor to the office in a division whose boundaries have been adjusted shall be a resident of, and voter within the meaning of Section 18 of the Elections Code in, that division.

SEC. 6. Section 11 of the Orange County Water District Act (Chapter 924 of the Statutes of 1933) is amended to read:

Sec. 11. The successor to each director in office on January 1, 1994, and each director thereafter, whether elected or appointed, shall be a resident of, and a voter within the meaning of Section 18 of the Elections Code in, the division the director represents. A public officer, whether elected or appointed, may be elected or appointed to serve as a member of the board of directors of the district.

SEC. 7. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 214

An act to amend Section 1451 of the Elections Code, relating to elections.

[Approved by Governor July 26, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1451 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

1451. (a) Any voter who has any of the following impairments or conditions may apply for permanent absent voter status:

(1) Has lost one or more limbs or the use of one or more limbs.

(2) Has lost both hands or the use of both hands.

(3) Is unable to move about without the aid of an assistant device (e.g., canes, crutches, walker, wheelchair).

(4) Is suffering from lung disease, blindness, or cardiovascular disease.

(5) Has a significant limitation in the use of the lower extremities.

(6) Is suffering from a diagnosed disease or disorder that substantially impairs or interferes with his or her mobility.

(b) The following voters may also apply for permanent absent voter status:

(1) A spouse who resides with, and is the primary caregiver to, a voter described in subdivision (a).

(2) A nonspousal primary caregiver to a voter described in subdivision (a) who resides with the voter. As used in this subdivision, "nonspousal primary caregiver" means a blood relative or family member related by marriage who has primary responsibility for the care of the voter.

(c) Application for permanent absent voter status shall be made in accordance with Section 1002. The voter or other person described in subdivision (b) shall complete an application, which shall be available from the county clerk, and which shall contain:

(1) Applicant's name at length.

(2) Applicant's residence address.

(3) Address where ballot is to be mailed, if different from the place of residence.

(4) Information which establishes the applicant's right to permanent absent voter status.

(5) The signature of the applicant.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 215

An act to amend Section 51228 of the Education Code, relating to pupils.

[Approved by Governor July 26, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature hereby finds and declares the following:

(a) Each child has a fundamental right to an elementary and secondary education under Section 5 of Article IX of the California Constitution. Each child deserves an education that prepares him or her for either entry into business or industry or to continue his or her education at an institution of postsecondary education.

(b) Existing law, Section 51228 of the Education Code, requires each school district maintaining any of grades 7 to 12, inclusive, to offer to all otherwise qualified pupils in those grades a course of study fulfilling the requirements and prerequisites for admission to the California public universities.

Therefore, the Legislature finds and declares that, pursuant to Section 51228 of the Education Code, each school district maintaining any of grades 7 to 12, inclusive, must allow all otherwise qualified pupils to enroll in all of the courses that are requirements or prerequisites for admission to the California public universities prior to graduation from high school.

SEC. 2. Section 51228 of the Education Code is amended to read:

51228. (a) Each school district maintaining any of grades 7 to 12, inclusive, shall offer to all otherwise qualified pupils in those grades a course of study fulfilling the requirements and prerequisites for admission to the California public institutions of postsecondary education and shall provide a timely opportunity to each of those pupils to enroll within a four-year period in each course necessary to fulfill those requirements and prerequisites prior to graduation from high school.

(b) Each school district maintaining any of grades 7 to 12, inclusive, shall offer to all otherwise qualified pupils in those grades a course of study that provides an opportunity for those pupils to attain entry-level employment skills in business or industry upon graduation from high school.

(c) Any school district that adopts a required curriculum that meets or exceeds the model standards developed by the State Board of Education pursuant to Section 51226 shall be deemed to have fulfilled its responsibilities pursuant to subdivision (b).

(d) Any school district that adopts a required curriculum pursuant to subdivision (c) that meets or exceeds the model standards developed by the State Board of Education pursuant to Section 51226, or that adopts alternative means for pupils to complete the prescribed course of study pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 51225.3, may substitute pupil demonstration of competence in the prescribed subjects through a practical demonstration of these skills in a regional occupational center or program, work experience, interdisciplinary study, independent study, credit earned at a postsecondary institution, or other outside school experience, as prescribed by Section 51225.

SEC. 3. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that Section 2 of this act is declaratory of existing law.

CHAPTER 216

An act to repeal Section 17514.5 of, and to repeal Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 17620) of Part 7 of Division 4 of Title 2 of, the Government Code, relating to state-mandated local programs.

[Approved by Governor July 26, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17514.5 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 17620) of Part 7 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 217

An act to amend Section 1357 of, and to add Section 1357.035 to, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Section 10700 of, and to add Section 10705.1 to, the Insurance Code, relating to insurance, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 26, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1357 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1357. As used in this article:

(a) "Dependent" means the spouse or child of an eligible employee, subject to applicable terms of the health care plan contract covering the employee.

(b) "Eligible employee" means any permanent employee who is actively engaged on a full-time basis in the conduct of the business of the small employer with a normal workweek of at least 30 hours, at the small employer's regular places of business, who has met any statutorily authorized applicable waiting period requirements. The term includes sole proprietors or partners of a partnership, if they are actively engaged on a full-time basis in the small employer's business and included as employees under a health care plan contract of a small employer, but does not include employees who work on a part-time, temporary, or substitute basis.

(c) "In force business" means an existing health benefit plan contract issued by the plan to a small employer.

(d) "Late enrollee" means an eligible employee or dependent who has declined enrollment in a health benefit plan offered by a small employer at the time of the initial enrollment period provided under the terms of the health benefit plan and who subsequently requests enrollment in a health benefit plan of that small employer; provided that the initial enrollment period shall be a period of at least 30 days. However, an eligible employee or dependent shall not be considered a late enrollee if: (1) the individual meets all of the following: (A) he or she was covered under another employer health benefit plan at the time the individual was eligible to enroll; (B) he or she certified at the time of the initial enrollment that coverage under another employer health benefit plan was the reason for declining enrollment provided that, if the individual was covered under another employer health plan, the individual was given the opportunity to make the certification required by this subdivision and was notified that failure to do so could result in later treatment as a late enrollee; (C) he or she has lost or will lose coverage under another employer health benefit plan as a result of termination of employment of the individual or of a person through whom the individual was covered as a dependent, change in employment status of the individual or of a person through whom the individual was covered as a dependent, termination of the other plan's coverage, cessation of an employer's contribution toward an employee or dependent's coverage, death of the person through whom the individual was covered as a dependent, or divorce; and (D) he or she requests enrollment within 30 days after termination of coverage or employer contribution toward coverage provided under another employer health benefit plan; (2) the employer offers multiple health benefit plans and the employee elects a different plan during an open enrollment period; (3) a court has ordered that coverage be provided for a spouse or minor child under a covered employee's health benefit plan and request for enrollment is made within 30 days after issuance of the court order; (4) the plan cannot produce a written statement from the employer stating that the individual or the person through whom the individual was eligible to be covered as a dependent, prior to declining coverage, was provided with, and signed acknowledgment of an explicit written notice in bold type specifying that failure to elect coverage during the initial enrollment period permits the plan to impose, at the time of the individual's later decision to elect coverage, an exclusion from coverage for a period of 12 months as well as a six-month preexisting condition exclusion, unless the individual meets the criteria specified in paragraph (1), (2), or (3).

(e) "New business" means a health care service plan contract issued to a small employer that is not the plan's in force business.

(f) "Preexisting condition provision" means a contract provision that excludes coverage for charges or expenses incurred during a specified period following the employee's effective date of coverage, as to a condition for which medical advice, diagnosis, care, or treatment was recommended or received during a specified period immediately preceding the effective date of coverage.

(g) "Qualifying prior coverage" means:

income, Medicare supplement, long-term care, dental, vision, coverage issued as a supplement to liability insurance, insurance arising out of a workers' compensation or similar law, automobile medical payment insurance, or insurance under which benefits are payable with or without regard to fault and that is statutorily required to be contained in any liability insurance policy or equivalent self-insurance.

(2) The federal Medicare program pursuant to Title XVIII of the Social Security Act.

(3) The medicaid program pursuant to Title XIX of the Social Security Act.

(4) Any other publicly sponsored program, provided in this state or elsewhere, of medical, hospital, and surgical care.

(h) "Rating period" means the period for which premium rates established by a plan are in effect and shall be no less than six months.

(i) "Risk adjusted employee risk rate" means the rate determined for an eligible employee of a small employer in a particular risk category after applying the risk adjustment factor.

(j) "Risk adjustment factor" means the percent adjustment to be applied equally to each standard employee risk rate for a particular small employer, based upon any expected deviations from standard cost of services. This factor may not be more than 120 percent or less than 80 percent until July 1, 1996. Effective July 1, 1996, this factor may not be more than 110 percent or less than 90 percent.

(k) "Risk category" means the following characteristics of an eligible employee: age, geographic region, and family composition of the employee, plus the health benefit plan selected by the small employer.

(1) No more than the following age categories may be used in determining premium rates:

Under 30
50–54
55–59
65 and over

(2) Small employer health care service plans shall base rates to small employers using no more than the following family size categories:

(A) Single.

(B) Married couple.

(C) One adult and child or children.

(D) Married couple and child or children.

(3) (A) In determining rates for small employers, a plan that operates statewide shall use no more than nine geographic regions in the state, have no region smaller than an area in which the first three digits of all its ZIP Codes are in common, and divide no county into more than two regions. Plans shall be deemed to be operating statewide if their coverage area includes 90 percent or more of the state's population. Geographic regions established pursuant to this section shall, as a group, cover the entire state, and the area encompassed in a geographic region shall be separate and distinct from areas encompassed in other geographic regions. Geographic regions may be noncontiguous.

(B) In determining rates for small employers, a plan that does not operate statewide shall use no more than the number of geographic regions in the state than is determined by the following formula: the population, as determined in the last federal census, of all counties that are included in their entirety in a plan's service are divided by the total population of the state, as determined in the last federal census, multiplied by nine. The resulting number shall be rounded to the nearest whole integer. No region may be smaller than an area in which the first three digits of all its ZIP Codes are in common and no county may be divided into more than two regions. The area encompassed in a geographic region shall be separate and distinct from areas encompassed in other geographic regions. Geographic regions may be noncontiguous. No plan shall have less than one geographic area.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to require a plan to establish a new service area or to offer health coverage on a statewide basis, outside of the plan's existing service area.

(l) "Small employer" means any person, firm, proprietary or nonprofit corporation, partnership, public agency, or association that is actively engaged in business or service, that, on at least 50 percent of its working days during the preceding calendar quarter, employed at least three, but no more than 50, eligible employees, the majority of whom were employed within this state, which was not formed primarily for purposes of buying health care service plan contracts and in which a bona fide employer-employee relationship exists. However, for purposes of subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) of Section 1357.03, the definition shall include employers with at least five eligible employees until July 1, 1994, four eligible employees until July 1, 1995, and three eligible employees thereafter. In determining the number of eligible employees, companies that are affiliated companies and that are eligible to file a combined tax return for purposes of state taxation shall be considered one employer. Subsequent to the issuance of a health benefit plan contract to a small employer pursuant to this article, and for the purpose of determining eligibility, the size of a small employer shall be determined annually. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this article, provisions of this article that apply to a small employer shall continue to apply until the plan contract anniversary following the date the employer no longer meets the requirements of this definition. "Small employer" includes any guaranteed association, as defined in subdivision (n), acting on behalf of individuals or employers meeting the guaranteed association's membership criteria.

(m) "Standard employee risk rate" means the rate applicable to an eligible employee in a particular risk category in a small employer group.

(n) "Guaranteed association" means a nonprofit organization comprised of a group of individuals or employers who associate based solely on participation in a specified profession or industry, accepting for membership any individual or employer meeting its membership criteria which (1) includes one or more small employers, (2) does not condition membership directly or indirectly on the health or claims history of any person, (3) uses membership dues solely for and in consideration of the membership and membership benefits, except that the amount of the dues shall not depend on whether the member applies for or purchases insurance offered by the association, (4) is organized and maintained in good faith for purposes unrelated to insurance, (5) has been in active existence on January 1, 1992, and for at least five years prior to that date, (6) has been offering health insurance to its members for at least five years prior to January 1, 1992, (7) has a constitution and bylaws, or other analogous governing documents that provide for election of the governing board of the association by its members, (8) has contracted with one or more carriers to offer one or more health benefit plans to all individual members and employer members in this state, and (9) covers at least 1,000 persons with each carrier with which it contracts. The requirement of 1,000 persons may be met if component chapters of a statewide association contracting separately with the same carrier cover at least 1,000 persons in the aggregate.

(o) "Members of an association" means a member of an association and includes individual members, employers of individual members, employees and dependents of individual members, employees and dependents of employers of individual members, association staff, retired members, and surviving spouses and dependents of members.

SEC. 2. Section 1357.035 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1357.035. (a) On the effective date of this chapter, and for 90 days thereafter, an association that meets the definition of guaranteed association, as set forth in Section 1357, except for the requirement that 1,000 persons be covered, shall be entitled to purchase small employer health coverage as if the association were a guaranteed association, except that the coverage shall be guaranteed only for those members of an association, as defined in Section 1357, who were receiving coverage or had successfully applied for coverage through the association as of June 30, 1993, or who were receiving coverage through the association as of December 31, 1992, and whose coverage lapsed at any time thereafter because the employment through which coverage was received ended or an employer's contribution to health coverage ended.

(b) An association obtaining health coverage for its members pursuant to this section shall otherwise be afforded all the rights of a guaranteed association under this chapter including, but not limited to, guaranteed renewability of coverage.

(c) Within 30 days of the effective date of this section, carriers that, at any time during the 1993 calendar year have provided coverage to associations that would be eligible for coverage under this section shall notify those associations of their rights under this section.

SEC. 3. Section 10700 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10700. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Actuarial certification" means a written statement by a member of the American Academy of Actuaries or other individual acceptable to the commissioner that a carrier is in compliance with the provisions of this chapter, based upon the person's examination, including a review of the appropriate records and of the actuarial assumptions and methods used by the carrier in establishing premium rates for applicable health benefit plans.

(b) "Agent or broker" means a person or entity licensed under Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1621) of Part 2 of Division 1.

(c) "Benefit plan design" means a specific health coverage product issued by a carrier to small employers or to trustees of associations that include small employers. It includes services covered and the levels of copayment and deductibles, and it may include the professional providers who are to provide those services and the sites where those services are to be provided. A benefit plan design may also be an integrated system for the financing and delivery of quality health care services which has significant incentives for the covered individuals to use the system.

(d) "Board" means the Major Risk Medical Insurance Board.

(e) "Carrier" means any disability insurance company, nonprofit hospital service plan, or any other entity that writes, issues, or administers group health benefit plans that cover the employees of small employers, regardless of the situs of the contract or master policyholder. For the purposes of Articles 3 (commencing with Section 10719) and 4 (commencing with Section 10730), "carrier" also includes health care service plans.

(f) "Dependent" means the spouse or child of an eligible employee, subject to applicable terms of the health benefit plan covering the employee.

(g) "Eligible employee" means any permanent employee who is actively engaged on a full-time basis in the conduct of the business of the small employer with a normal work week of at least 30 hours, in the small employer's regular place of business, who has met any statutorily authorized applicable waiting period requirements. The term includes sole proprietors or partners of a partnership, if they are actively engaged on a full-time basis in the small employer's business, and they are included as employees under a health benefit plan of a small employer, but does not include employees who work on a part-time, temporary, or substitute basis.

(h) "Enrollee" means an eligible employee or dependent who receives health coverage through the program from a participating carrier.

(i) "Financially impaired" means, for the purposes of this chapter, a carrier that, on or after the effective date of this chapter, is not insolvent and is either:

(1) Deemed by the commissioner to be potentially unable to fulfill its contractual obligations.

(2) Placed under an order of rehabilitation or conservation by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(j) "Fund" means the California Small Group Reinsurance Fund.

(k) "Health benefit plan" means a policy or contract written or administered by a carrier that arranges or provides health care benefits for the enrolled employees of a small employer and their dependents. The term does not include accident only, credit, disability income, coverage of Medicare services pursuant to contracts with the United States government, Medicare supplement, long-term care insurance, dental, vision, coverage issued as a supplement to liability insurance, automobile medical payment insurance, or insurance under which benefits are payable with or without regard to fault and that is statutorily required to be contained in any liability insurance policy or equivalent self-insurance.

(l) "In force business" means an existing health benefit plan issued by the carrier to a small employer.

(m) "Late enrollee" means an eligible employee or dependent who has declined health coverage under a health benefit plan offered by a small employer at the time of the initial enrollment period provided under the terms of the health benefit plan, and who subsequently requests enrollment in a health benefit plan of that small employer; provided that the initial enrollment period shall be a period of at least 30 days. However, an eligible employee or dependent shall not be considered a late enrollee if: (1) the individual meets all of the following: (A) was covered under another employer health benefit plan at the time the individual was eligible to enroll; (B) certified at the time of the initial enrollment, that coverage under another employer health benefit plan was the reason for declining enrollment provided that, if the individual was covered under another employer health plan, the individual was given the opportunity to make the certification required by this subdivision and was notified that failure to do so could result in later treatment as a late enrollee; (C) has lost or will lose coverage under another employer health benefit plan as a result of termination of employment of the individual or of a person through whom the individual was covered as a dependent, change in employment status of the individual, or of a person through whom the individual was covered as a dependent, the termination of the other plan's coverage, cessation of an employer's contribution toward an employee or dependent's coverage, death of the person through whom the individual was covered as a dependent, or divorce; and (D) requests enrollment within 30 days after termination of coverage or employer contribution toward coverage provided under another employer health benefit plan; or (2) the individual is employed by an employer who offers multiple health benefit plans and the individual elects a different plan during an open enrollment period; or (3) a court has ordered that coverage be provided for a spouse or minor child under a covered employee's health benefit plan and request for enrollment is made within 30 days after issuance of the court order; or (4) the carrier cannot produce a written statement from the employer stating that the individual or the person through whom an individual was eligible to be covered as a dependent, prior to declining coverage, was provided with, and signed acknowledgment of, an explicit written notice in bold type specifying that failure to elect coverage during the initial enrollment period permits the carrier to impose, at the time of the individual's later decision to elect coverage, an exclusion from coverage for a period of 12 months as well as a six-month preexisting condition exclusion unless the individual meets the criteria specified in paragraph (1), (2), or (3).

(n) "New business" means a health benefit plan issued to a small employer that is not the carrier's in force business.

(o) "Participating carrier" means a carrier that has entered into a contract with the program to provide health benefits coverage under this part.

(p) "Plan of operation" means the plan of operation of the fund, including articles, bylaws and operating rules adopted by the fund pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 10719).

(q) "Program" means the Voluntary Alliance Uniting Employers Purchasing Program.

(r) "Preexisting condition provision" means a policy provision that excludes coverage for charges or expenses incurred during a specified period following the insured's effective date of coverage, as to a condition for which medical advice, diagnosis, care, or treatment was recommended or received during a specified period immediately preceding the effective date of coverage.

(s) "Qualifying prior coverage" means:

(1) Any individual or group policy, contract, or program, that is written or administered by a disability insurer, nonprofit hospital service plan, health care service plan, fraternal benefits society, self-insured employer plan, or any other entity, in this state or elsewhere, and that arranges or provides medical, hospital, and surgical coverage not designed to supplement other private or governmental plans. The term includes continuation or conversion coverage but does not include accident only, credit, disability income, Medicare supplement, long-term care, dental, vision, coverage issued as a supplement to liability insurance, insurance arising out of a workers' compensation or similar law, automobile medical payment insurance, or insurance under which benefits are payable with or without regard to fault and that is statutorily required to be contained in any liability insurance policy or equivalent self-insurance.

(2) The federal Medicare program pursuant to Title XVIII of the Social Security Act.

(3) The medicaid program pursuant to Title XIX of the Social Security Act.

(4) Any other publicly sponsored program, provided in this state or elsewhere, of medical, hospital, and surgical care.

(t) "Rating period" means the period for which premium rates established by a carrier are in effect and shall be no less than six months.

(u) "Risk adjusted employee risk rate" means the rate determined for an eligible employee of a small employer in a particular risk category after applying the risk adjustment factor.

(v) "Risk adjustment factor" means the percent adjustment to be applied equally to each standard employee risk rate for a particular small employer, based upon any expected deviations from standard claims. This factor may not be more than 120 percent or less than 80 percent until July 1, 1996. Effective July 1, 1996, this factor may not be more than 110 percent or less than 90 percent.

(w) "Risk category" means the following characteristics of an eligible employee: age, geographic region, and family size of the employee, plus the benefit plan design selected by the small employer.

(1) No more than the following age categories may be used in determining premium rates:

Under 30
50–54
55–59
65 and over

(2) Small employer carriers shall base rates to small employers using no more than the following family size categories:

(A) Single.

(B) Married couple.

(C) One adult and child or children.

(D) Married couple and child or children.

(3) (A) In determining rates for small employers, a carrier that operates statewide shall use no more than nine geographic regions in the state, have no region smaller than an area in which the first three digits of all its ZIP Codes are in common and shall divide no county into more than two regions. Carriers shall be deemed to be operating statewide if their coverage area includes 90 percent or more of the state's population. Geographic regions established pursuant to this section shall, as a group, cover the entire state, and the area encompassed in a geographic region shall be separate and distinct from areas encompassed in other geographic regions. Geographic regions may be noncontiguous.

(B) In determining rates for small employers, a carrier that does not operate statewide shall use no more than the number of geographic regions in the state than is determined by the following formula: the population, as determined in the last federal census, of all counties which are included in their entirety in a carrier's service area divided by the total population of the state, as determined in the last federal census, multiplied by nine. The resulting number shall be rounded to the nearest whole integer. No region may be smaller than an area in which the first three digits of all its ZIP Codes are in common and no county may be divided into more than two regions. The area encompassed in a geographic region shall be separate and distinct from areas encompassed in other geographic regions. Geographic regions may be noncontiguous. No carrier shall have less than one geographic area.

(x) "Small employer" means any person, proprietary or nonprofit firm, corporation, partnership, public agency, or association that is actively engaged in business or service that, on at least 50 percent of its working days during the preceding calendar quarter, employed at least three, but not more than 50, eligible employees, the majority of whom were employed within this state, that was not formed primarily for purposes of buying health insurance and in which a bona fide employer-employee relationship exists. However, for purposes of subdivisions (b) and (h) of Section 10705, the definition shall include employers with at least five eligible employees until July 1, 1994, four eligible employees until July 1, 1995, and three eligible employees thereafter. In determining the number of eligible employees, companies that are affiliated companies, and that are eligible to file a combined income tax return for purposes of state taxation shall be considered one employer. Subsequent to the issuance of a health benefit plan to a small employer pursuant to this chapter, and for the purpose of determining eligibility, the size of a small employer shall be determined annually. Except as otherwise specifically provided, provisions of this chapter that apply to a small employer shall continue to apply until the health benefit plan anniversary following the date the employer no longer meets the requirements of this definition. "Small employer" includes any guaranteed association, as defined in subdivision (aa), acting on behalf of individuals or employers meeting the guaranteed association's membership criteria.

(y) "Standard employee risk rate" means the rate applicable to an eligible employee in a particular risk category in a small employer group.

(z) An association is a nonprofit organization comprised of a group of individuals or employers who associate based solely on participation in a specified profession or industry, accepting for membership any individual or small employer meeting its membership criteria, which do not condition membership directly or indirectly on the health or claims history of any person, which uses membership dues solely for and in consideration of the membership and membership benefits, except that the amount of the dues shall not depend on whether the member applies for or purchases insurance offered by the association, which is organized and maintained in good faith for purposes unrelated to insurance, which has been in active existence on January 1, 1992, and at least five years prior to that date, which has a constitution and bylaws, or other analogous governing documents which provide for election of the governing board of the association by its members, which has contracted with one or more carriers to offer one or more health benefit plans to all individual members and small employer members in this state.

(aa) "Guaranteed association" means a nonprofit organization comprised of a group of individuals or employers who associate based solely on participation in a specified profession or industry, accepting for membership any individual or employer meeting its membership criteria which (1) includes one or more small employers, (2) does not condition membership directly or indirectly on the health or claims history of any person, (3) uses membership dues solely for and in consideration of the membership and membership benefits, except that the amount of the dues shall not depend on whether the member applies for or purchases insurance offered by the association, (4) is organized and maintained in good faith for purposes unrelated to insurance, (5) has been in active existence on January 1, 1992, and for at least five years prior to that date, (6) has been offering health insurance to its members for at least five years prior to January 1, 1992, (7) has a constitution and bylaws, or other analogous governing documents that provide for election of the governing board of the association by its members, (8) has contracted with one or more carriers to offer one or more health benefit plans to all individual members and employer members in this state, and (9) covers at least 1,000 persons with each carrier with which it contracts. The requirement of 1,000 persons may be met if component chapters of a statewide association contracting separately with the same carrier cover at least 1,000 persons in the aggregate.

(ab) "Members of an association" means a member of an association and includes individual members, employers of individual members, employees and dependents of individual members, employees and dependents of employers of individual members, association staff, retired members, and surviving spouses and dependents of members.

SEC. 4. Section 10705.1 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

10705.1. (a) On the effective date of this chapter, and for 90 days thereafter, an association that meets the definition of guaranteed association, as set forth in Section 10700, except for the requirement that 1,000 persons be covered, shall be entitled to purchase small employer health coverage as if the association were a guaranteed association, except that the coverage shall be guaranteed only for those members of an association, as defined in Section 10700, who were receiving coverage or had successfully applied for coverage through the association as of June 30, 1993, or who were receiving coverage through the association as of December 31, 1992, and whose coverage lapsed at any time thereafter because the employment through which coverage was received ended or an employer's contribution to health coverage ended.

(b) An association obtaining health coverage for its members pursuant to this section shall otherwise be afforded all the rights of a guaranteed association under this chapter including, but not limited to, guaranteed renewability of coverage.

(c) Within 30 days of the effective date of this section, carriers that, at any time during the 1993 calendar year have provided coverage to associations that would be eligible for coverage under this section shall notify those associations of their rights under this section.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure the availability and affordability of small employer health coverage at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 218

An act to amend Section 84202.7 of the Government Code, relating to the Political Reform Act of 1974.

[Approved by Governor July 26, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 26, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 84202.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

84202.7. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), during an odd-numbered year, any committee by virtue of Section 82013 which makes contributions totaling five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more to elected state officers, their controlled committees, or committees primarily formed to support or oppose any elected state officer during a period specified below shall file campaign statements on the following dates:

(1) No later than April 30 for the period of January 1 through March 31.

(2) No later than October 31 for the period of July 1 through September 30.

(b) If a committee makes contributions totaling five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more to elected state officers, their controlled committees, or committees primarily formed to support or oppose any elected state officer during a period specified in subdivision (a), and all of those contributions are reported pursuant to Section 84202.5 on or before the time specified in subdivision (a), the committee shall not be required to file additional statements for that period pursuant to this section.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of this act further the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974 within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 81012 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 219

SEC. 63.2. Section 7020 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 63.3. Section 128 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

128. (a) Every court shall have the power to do all of the following:

(1) To preserve and enforce order in its immediate presence.

(2) To enforce order in the proceedings before it, or before a person or persons empowered to conduct a judicial investigation under its authority.

(3) To provide for the orderly conduct of proceedings before it, or its officers.

(4) To compel obedience to its judgments, orders, and process, and to the orders of a judge out of court, in an action or proceeding pending therein.

(5) To control in furtherance of justice, the conduct of its ministerial officers, and of all other persons in any manner connected with a judicial proceeding before it, in every matter pertaining thereto.

(6) To compel the attendance of persons to testify in an action or proceeding pending therein, in the cases and manner provided in this code.

(7) To administer oaths in an action or proceeding pending therein, and in all other cases where it may be necessary in the exercise of its powers and duties.

(8) To amend and control its process and orders so as to make them conform to law and justice.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 1211 or any other law, if an order of contempt is made affecting an attorney, his or her agent, investigator, or any person acting under the attorney's direction, in the preparation and conduct of any action or proceeding, the execution of any sentence shall be stayed pending the filing within three judicial days of a petition for extraordinary relief testing the lawfulness of the court's order, the violation of which is the basis of the contempt except for the conduct as may be proscribed by subdivision (b) of Section 6068 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to an attorney's duty to maintain respect due to the courts and judicial officers.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 1211 or any other law, if an order of contempt is made affecting a public safety employee acting within the scope of employment for reason of the employee's failure to comply with a duly issued subpoena or subpoena duces tecum, the execution of any sentence shall be stayed pending the filing within three judicial days of a petition for extraordinary relief testing the lawfulness of the court's order, a violation of which is the basis for the contempt.

As used in this subdivision, "public safety employee" includes any peace officer, firefighter, paramedic, or any other employee of a public law enforcement agency whose duty is either to maintain official records or to analyze or present evidence for investigative or prosecutorial purposes.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 1211 or any other law, if an order of contempt is made affecting the victim of a sexual assault, where the contempt consists of refusing to testify concerning that sexual assault, the execution of any sentence shall be stayed pending the filing within three judicial days of a petition for extraordinary relief testing the lawfulness of the court's order, a violation of which is the basis for the contempt.

As used in this subdivision, "sexual assault" means any act made punishable by Section 261, 262, 264.1, 285, 286, 288, 288a, or 289 of the Penal Code.

(e) Notwithstanding Section 1211 or any other law, if an order of contempt is made affecting the victim of domestic violence, where the contempt consists of refusing to testify concerning that domestic violence, the execution of any sentence shall be stayed pending the filing within three judicial days of a petition for extraordinary relief testing the lawfulness of the court's order, a violation of which is the basis for the contempt.

As used in this subdivision, the term "domestic violence" means "domestic violence" as defined in Section 6211 of the Family Code.

(f) Notwithstanding Section 1211 or any other provision of law, no order of contempt shall be made affecting a county government or any member of its governing body acting pursuant to its constitutional or statutory authority unless the court finds, based on a review of evidence presented at a hearing conducted for this purpose, that either of the following conditions exist:

(1) That the county has the resources necessary to comply with the order of the court.

(2) That the county has the authority, without recourse to voter approval or without incurring additional indebtedness, to generate the additional resources necessary to comply with the order of the court, that compliance with the order of the court will not expose the county, any member of its governing body, or any other county officer to liability for failure to perform other constitutional or statutory duties, and that compliance with the order of the court will not deprive the county of resources necessary for its reasonable support and maintenance.

SEC. 63.5. Section 527.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

527.6. (a) A person who has suffered harassment as defined in subdivision (b) may seek a temporary restraining order, and an injunction prohibiting harassment as provided in this section.

(b) For the purposes of this section, "harassment" is a knowing and willful course of conduct directed at a specific person which seriously alarms, annoys, or harasses the person, and which serves no legitimate purpose. The course of conduct must be such as would cause a reasonable person to suffer substantial emotional distress, and must actually cause substantial emotional distress to the plaintiff. "Course of conduct" is a pattern of conduct composed of a series of acts over a period of time, however short, evidencing a continuity of purpose. Constitutionally protected activity is not included within the meaning of "course of conduct."

(c) Upon filing a petition for an injunction under this section, the plaintiff may obtain a temporary restraining order in accordance with subdivision (a) of Section 527. A temporary restraining order may be granted with or without notice upon an affidavit which, to the satisfaction of the court, shows reasonable proof of harassment of the plaintiff by the defendant, and that great or irreparable harm would result to the plaintiff. A temporary restraining order granted under this section shall remain in effect, at the court's discretion, for a period not to exceed 15 days, unless otherwise modified or terminated by the court.

(d) Within 15 days of the filing of the petition, a hearing shall be held on the petition for the injunction. The defendant may file a response which explains, excuses, justifies, or denies the alleged harassment or may file a cross-complaint under this section. At the hearing, the judge shall receive any testimony that is relevant, and may make an independent inquiry. If the judge finds by clear and convincing evidence that unlawful harassment exists, an injunction shall issue prohibiting the harassment. An injunction issued pursuant to this section shall have a duration of not more than three years. At any time within the three months before the expiration of the injunction, the plaintiff may apply for a renewal of the injunction by filing a new petition for an injunction under this section.

(e) Nothing in this section shall preclude either party from representation by private counsel or from appearing on his or her own behalf.

(f) In a proceeding under this section where there are allegations or threats of domestic violence, a support person may accompany a party in court and, where the party is not represented by an attorney, may sit with the party at the table that is generally reserved for the party and his or her attorney. The support person is present to provide moral and emotional support for a person who alleges he or she is a victim of domestic violence. The support person is not present as a legal adviser and shall not give legal advice. The support person shall assist the person who alleges he or she is a victim of domestic violence in feeling more confident that he or she will not be injured or threatened by the other party during the proceedings where the person who alleges he or she is a victim of domestic violence and the other party must be present in close proximity. Nothing in this subdivision precludes the court from exercising its discretion to remove the support person from the courtroom if the court believes the support person is prompting, swaying, or influencing the party assisted by the support person.

(g) Upon filing of a petition for an injunction under this section, the defendant shall be personally served with a copy of the petition, temporary restraining order, if any, and notice of hearing of the petition.

(h) The court shall order the plaintiff or the attorney for the plaintiff to deliver a copy of each temporary restraining order or injunction, or modification or termination thereof, granted under this section, by the close of the business day on which the order was granted, to the law enforcement agencies within the court's discretion as are requested by the plaintiff. Each appropriate law enforcement agency shall make available information as to the existence and current status of these orders to law enforcement officers responding to the scene of reported harassment.

(i) The prevailing party in any action brought under this section may be awarded court costs and attorney's fees, if any.

(j) Any willful disobedience of any temporary restraining order or injunction granted under this section is punishable pursuant to Section 273.6 of the Penal Code.

(k) This section does not apply to any action or proceeding covered by Title 1.6C (commencing with Section 1788) of the Civil Code or by Division 10 (commencing with Section 6200) of the Family Code. Nothing in this section shall preclude a plaintiff's right to utilize other existing civil remedies.

(l) The Judicial Council shall promulgate forms and instructions therefor, rules for service of process, scheduling of hearings, and any other matters required by this section. The petition and response forms shall be simple and concise.

SEC. 63.7. Section 529 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

529. (a) On granting an injunction, the court or judge must require an undertaking on the part of the applicant to the effect that the applicant will pay to the party enjoined any damages, not exceeding an amount to be specified, the party may sustain by reason of the injunction, if the court finally decides that the applicant was not entitled to the injunction. Within five days after the service of the injunction, the person enjoined may object to the undertaking. If the court determines that the applicant's undertaking is insufficient and a sufficient undertaking is not filed within the time required by statute, the order granting the injunction must be dissolved.

(b) This section does not apply to any of the following persons:

(1) Either spouse against the other in a proceeding for legal separation or dissolution of marriage.

(2) The applicant for an order described in Division 10 (commencing with Section 6200) of the Family Code.

(3) A public entity or officer described in Section 995.220.

SEC. 63.8. Section 545.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 63.9. Section 547.7 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 64. Section 548 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 65. Section 583.161 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

583.161. No petition filed pursuant to Section 2330 of the Family Code shall be dismissed pursuant to this chapter if an order for child support has been issued in connection with the proceeding and the order has not been (1) terminated by the court or (2) terminated by operation of law pursuant to Sections 3900, 3901, 4007, and 4013 of the Family Code.

SEC. 66. Section 683.130 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

683.130. (a) In the case of a lump-sum money judgment or a judgment for possession or sale of property, the application for renewal of the judgment may be filed at any time before the expiration of the 10-year period of enforceability provided by Section 683.020 or, if the judgment is a renewed judgment, at any time before the expiration of the 10-year period of enforceability of the renewed judgment provided by Section 683.120.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (c), in the case of a money judgment payable in installments, the application for renewal of the judgment may be filed:

(1) If the judgment has not previously been renewed, at any time as to past due amounts that at the time of filing are not barred by the expiration of the 10-year period of enforceability provided by Sections 683.020 and 683.030.

(2) If the judgment has previously been renewed, within the time specified by subdivision (a) as to the amount of the judgment as previously renewed and, as to any past due amounts that became due and payable after the previous renewal, at any time before the expiration of the 10-year period of enforceability provided by Sections 683.020 and 683.030.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b), a judgment for child, family, or spousal support, including a judgment for reimbursement that includes, but is not limited to, reimbursement arising under Section 11350 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or other arrearages, is enforceable as provided in Section 4502 of the Family Code.

SEC. 67. Section 699.560 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

699.560. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), the levying officer to whom the writ of execution is delivered shall return the writ to the court, together with a report of the levying officer's actions and an accounting of amounts collected and costs incurred, at the earliest of the following times:

(1) Two years from the date of issuance of the writ.

(2) Promptly after all of the duties under the writ are performed.

(3) When return is requested in writing by the judgment creditor.

(4) If no levy takes place under the writ within 180 days after its issuance, promptly after the expiration of the 180-day period.

(5) Upon expiration of the time for enforcement of the money judgment.

(b) If a levy has been made under Section 700.200 upon an interest in personal property in the estate of a decedent, the writ shall be returned within the time prescribed in Section 700.200.

(c) If a levy has been made under Section 5103 of the Family Code on the judgment debtor's right to the payment of benefits from an employee pension benefit plan, the writ shall be returned within the time prescribed in that section.

(d) If a levy has been made under the Wage Garnishment Law (Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 706.010)), and the earnings withholding order remains in effect, the writ of execution shall be returned as provided in subdivision (a) and a supplemental return shall be made as provided in Section 706.033.

SEC. 68. Section 704.114 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

704.114. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, service of an earnings assignment order for support on any public entity described in Section 704.110, other than the United States government, creates a lien on all employee contributions in the amount necessary to satisfy a support judgment as determined under Section 695.210 to the extent that the judgment remains enforceable.

(b) The public entity shall comply with any request for a return of employee contributions by an employee named in the order by delivering the contributions to the clerk of the court from which the order issued, unless the entity has received a certified copy of an order terminating the earnings assignment order for support.

(c) Upon receipt of moneys pursuant to this section, the clerk of the court, within 10 days, shall send written notice of the fact to the parties and to the district attorney enforcing any order pursuant to Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(d) Moneys received pursuant to this section are subject to any procedure available to enforce an order for support, but if no enforcement procedure is commenced after 30 days have elapsed from the date the notice of receipt is sent, the clerk shall, upon request, return the moneys to the public entity that delivered the moneys to the court unless the public entity has informed the court in writing that the moneys shall be released to the employee.

(e) A court shall not directly or indirectly condition the issuance, modification, or termination of, or condition the terms or conditions of, any order for support upon the making of a request for the return of employee contributions by an employee.

SEC. 69. Section 704.160 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

704.160. (a) Except as provided by Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 4900) of Part 3 of Division 4 of the Labor Code, before payment, a claim for workers' compensation or workers' compensation awarded or adjudged is exempt without making a claim. Except as specified in subdivision (b), after payment, the award is exempt.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, during the payment of workers' compensation temporary disability benefits described in subdivision (a) to a support judgment debtor, the support judgment creditor may, through the appropriate district attorney, seek to apply the workers' compensation temporary disability benefit payment to satisfy the support judgment as provided by Section 11350.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, during the payment of workers' compensation temporary disability benefits described in subdivision (a) to a support judgment debtor under a support judgment, including a judgment for reimbursement of public assistance, the judgment creditor may, directly or through the appropriate district attorney, seek to apply the temporary disability benefit payments to satisfy the support judgment by an earnings assignment order for support, as defined in Section 5208 of the Family Code, or any other applicable enforcement procedure. The amount to be withheld pursuant to the earnings assignment order for support or other enforcement procedure shall be 25 percent of the amount of each periodic payment or any lower amount specified in writing by the judgment creditor or court order, rounded down to the nearest dollar. Otherwise, the amount to be withheld shall be the amount the court determines under subdivision (c) of Section 703.070. The paying entity may deduct from each payment made pursuant to an order assigning earnings under this subdivision an amount reflecting the actual cost of administration of this assignment, up to two dollars ($2) for each payment.

(d) Unless the provision or context otherwise requires, the following definitions govern the construction of this section.

(1) "Judgment debtor" or "support judgment debtor" means a person who is owing a duty of support.

(2) "Judgment creditor" or "support judgment creditor" means the person to whom support has been ordered to be paid.

(3) "Support" refers to an obligation owing on behalf of a child, spouse, or family; or an amount owing pursuant to Section 11350 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. It also includes past due support or arrearage when it exists.

SEC. 69.5. Section 917.7 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

917.7. The perfecting of an appeal shall not stay proceedings as to those provisions of a judgment or order which award, change, or otherwise affect the custody, including the right of visitation, of a minor child in any civil action, in an action filed under the Juvenile Court Law, or in a special proceeding, or the provisions of a judgment or order for the temporary exclusion of a party from a dwelling, as provided in the Family Code. However, the trial court may in its discretion stay execution of these provisions pending review on appeal or for any other period or periods that it may deem appropriate. Further, in the absence of a writ or order of a reviewing court providing otherwise, the provisions of the judgment or order allowing, or eliminating restrictions against, removal of the minor child from the state are stayed by operation of law for a period of 30 days from the entry of the judgment or order and are subject to any further stays ordered by the trial court, as herein provided.

SEC. 69.7. Section 1219 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1219. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), when the contempt consists of the omission to perform an act which is yet in the power of the person to perform, he or she may be imprisoned until he or she has performed it, and in that case the act shall be specified in the warrant of commitment.

(b) Notwithstanding any other law, no court may imprison or otherwise confine or place in custody the victim of a sexual assault for contempt when the contempt consists of refusing to testify concerning that sexual assault.

(c) In a finding of contempt for a victim of domestic violence who refuses to testify, the court shall not incarcerate the victim, but may require the victim to attend up to 72 hours of a domestic violence program for victims or require the victim to perform up to 72 hours of appropriate community service, provided that in a subsequent finding of contempt for refusing to testify arising out of the same case, the court shall have the option of incarceration pursuant to subdivision (a).

(d) As used in this section:

(1) "Sexual assault" means any act made punishable by Section 261, 262, 264.1, 285, 286, 288, 288a, or 289 of the Penal Code.

(2) "Domestic violence" means "domestic violence" as defined in Section 6211 of the Family Code.

SEC. 70. Section 1699 of the Code of Civil Procedure is repealed.

SEC. 71. Section 2032 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

2032. (a) Any party may obtain discovery, subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 2019, by means of a physical or mental examination of (1) a party to the action, (2) an agent of any party, or (3) a natural person in the custody or under the legal control of a party, in any action in which the mental or physical condition (including the blood group) of that party or other person is in controversy in the action.

(b) A physical examination conducted under this section shall be performed only by a licensed physician or other appropriate licensed health care practitioner. A mental examination conducted under this section shall be performed only by a licensed physician, or by a licensed clinical psychologist who holds a doctoral degree in psychology and has had at least five years of postgraduate experience in the diagnosis of emotional and mental disorders. Nothing in this section affects tests under the Uniform Act on Blood Tests to Determine Paternity (Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 7550) of Part 2 of Division 12 of the Family Code).

(c) (1) As used in this subdivision, plaintiff includes a cross-complainant, and defendant includes a cross-defendant.

(2) In any case in which a plaintiff is seeking recovery for personal injuries, any defendant may demand one physical examination of the plaintiff, provided the examination does not include any diagnostic test or procedure that is painful, protracted, or intrusive, and is conducted at a location within 75 miles of the residence of the examinee. A defendant may make this demand without leave of court after that defendant has been served or has appeared in the action, whichever occurs first. This demand shall specify the time, place, manner, conditions, scope, and nature of the examination, as well as the identity and the specialty, if any, of the physician who will perform the examination.

(3) A physical examination demanded under this subdivision shall be scheduled for a date that is at least 30 days after service of the demand for it unless on motion of the party demanding the examination the court has shortened this time.

(4) The defendant shall serve a copy of the demand for this physical examination on the plaintiff and on all other parties who have appeared in the action.

(5) The plaintiff to whom this demand for a physical examination has been directed shall respond to the demand by a written statement that the examinee will comply with the demand as stated, will comply with the demand as specifically modified by the plaintiff, or will refuse, for reasons specified in the response, to submit to the demanded physical examination. Within 20 days after service of the demand the plaintiff to whom the demand is directed shall serve the original of the response to it on the defendant making the demand, and a copy of the response on all other parties who have appeared in the action, unless on motion of the defendant making the demand the court has shortened the time for response, or unless on motion of the plaintiff to whom the demand has been directed, the court has extended the time for response.

(6) If a plaintiff to whom this demand for a physical examination has been directed fails to serve a timely response to it, that plaintiff waives any objection to the demand. However, the court, on motion, may relieve that plaintiff from this waiver on its determination that (A) the plaintiff has subsequently served a response that is in substantial compliance with paragraph (5), and (B) the plaintiff's failure to serve a timely response was the result of mistake, inadvertence, or excusable neglect.

The defendant may move for an order compelling response and compliance with a demand for a physical examination. The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to compel response and compliance with a demand for a physical examination, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

If a plaintiff then fails to obey the order compelling response and compliance, the court may make those orders that are just, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023. In lieu of or in addition to that sanction the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023.

(7) If a defendant who has demanded a physical examination under this subdivision, on receipt of the plaintiff's response to that demand, deems that any modification of the demand, or any refusal to submit to the physical examination is unwarranted, that defendant may move for an order compelling compliance with the demand. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue presented by the motion.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to compel compliance with a demand for a physical examination, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

(8) The demand for a physical examination and the response to it shall not be filed with the court. The defendant shall retain both the original of the demand, with the original proof of service affixed to it, and the original response until six months after final disposition of the action. At that time, the original may be destroyed, unless the court, on motion of any party and for good cause shown, orders that the originals be preserved for a longer period.

(d) If any party desires to obtain discovery by a physical examination other than that described in subdivision (c), or by a mental examination, the party shall obtain leave of court. The motion for the examination shall specify the time, place, manner, conditions, scope, and nature of the examination, as well as the identity and the specialty, if any, of the person or persons who will perform the examination. The motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt to arrange for the examination by an agreement under subdivision (e). Notice of the motion shall be served on the person to be examined and on all parties who have appeared in the action.

The court shall grant a motion for a physical or mental examination only for good cause shown. If a party stipulates that (1) no claim is being made for mental and emotional distress over and above that usually associated with the physical injuries claimed, and (2) no expert testimony regarding this usual mental and emotional distress will be presented at trial in support of the claim for damages, a mental examination of a person for whose personal injuries a recovery is being sought shall not be ordered except on a showing of exceptional circumstances. The order granting a physical or mental examination shall specify the person or persons who may perform the examination, and the time, place, manner, diagnostic tests and procedures, conditions, scope, and nature of the examination. If the place of the examination is more than 75 miles from the residence of the person to be examined, the order to submit to it shall be (1) made only on the court's determination that there is good cause for the travel involved, and (2) conditioned on the advancement by the moving party of the reasonable expenses and costs to the examinee for travel to the place of examination.

(e) In lieu of the procedures and restrictions specified in subdivisions (c) and (d), any physical or mental examination may be arranged by, and carried out under, a written agreement of the parties.

(f) If a party required by subdivision (c), (d), or (e) to submit to a physical or mental examination fails to do so, the court, on motion of the party entitled to the examination, may make those orders that are just, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023. In lieu of or in addition to that sanction, the court may, on motion of the party, impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023.

If a party required by subdivision (c), (d), or (e) to produce another for a physical or mental examination fails to do so, the court, on motion of the party entitled to the examination, may make those orders that are just, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023, unless the party failing to comply demonstrates an inability to produce that person for examination. In lieu of or in addition to that sanction, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023.

(g) (1) The attorney for the examinee or for a party producing the examinee, or that attorney's representative, shall be permitted to attend and observe any physical examination conducted for discovery purposes, and to record stenographically or by audiotape any words spoken to or by the examinee during any phase of the examination. This observer may monitor the examination, but shall not participate in or disrupt it. If an attorney's representative is to serve as the observer, the representative shall be authorized to so act by a writing subscribed by the attorney which identifies the representative.

If in the judgment of the observer the examiner becomes abusive to the examinee or undertakes to engage in unauthorized diagnostic tests and procedures, the observer may suspend it to enable the party being examined or producing the examinee to make a motion for a protective order. If the observer begins to participate in or disrupt the examination, the person conducting the physical examination may suspend the examination to enable the party at whose instance it is being conducted to move for a protective order.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion for a protective order, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

If the examinee submits or authorizes access to X-rays of any area of his or her body for inspection by the examining physician, no additional X-rays of that area may be taken by the examining physician except with consent of the examinee or on order of the court for good cause shown.

(2) The examiner and examinee shall have the right to record a mental examination on audio tape. However, nothing in this article shall be construed to alter, amend, or affect existing case law with respect to the presence of the attorney for the examinee or other persons during the examination by agreement or court order.

(h) If a party submits to, or produces another for, a physical or mental examination in compliance with a demand under subdivision (c), an order of court under subdivision (d), or an agreement under subdivision (e), that party has the option of making a written demand that the party at whose instance the examination was made deliver to the demanding party (1) a copy of a detailed written report setting out the history, examinations, findings, including the results of all tests made, diagnoses, prognoses, and conclusions of the examiner, and (2) a copy of reports of all earlier examinations of the same condition of the examinee made by that or any other examiner. If this option is exercised, a copy of these reports shall be delivered within 30 days after service of the demand, or within 15 days of trial, whichever is earlier. The protection for work product under Section 2018 is waived, both for the examiner's writings and reports and to the taking of the examiner's testimony.

If the party at whose instance the examination was made fails to make a timely delivery of the reports demanded, the demanding party may move for an order compelling their delivery. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of any issue presented by the motion.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to compel delivery of medical reports, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

If a party then fails to obey an order compelling delivery of demanded medical reports, the court may make those orders that are just, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023. In lieu of or in addition to those sanctions, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023. The court shall exclude at trial the testimony of any examiner whose report has not been provided by a party.

(i) By demanding and obtaining a report of a physical or mental examination under subdivision (h), or by taking the deposition of the examiner, other than under subdivision (i) of Section 2034, the party who submitted to, or produced another for, a physical or mental examination waives in the pending action, and in any other action involving the same controversy, any privilege, as well as any protection for work product under Section 2018, that the party or other examinee may have regarding reports and writings as well as the testimony of every other physician, psychologist, or licensed health care practitioner who has examined or may thereafter examine the party or other examinee in respect of the same physical or mental condition.

(j) A party receiving a demand for a report under subdivision (h) is entitled at the time of compliance to receive in exchange a copy of any existing written report of any examination of the same condition by any other physician, psychologist, or licensed health care practitioner. In addition, that party is entitled to receive promptly any later report of any previous or subsequent examination of the same condition, by any physician, psychologist, or licensed health care practitioner.

If a party who has demanded and received delivery of medical reports under subdivision (h) fails to deliver existing or later reports of previous or subsequent examinations, a party who has complied with subdivision (h) may move for an order compelling delivery of medical reports. This motion shall be accompanied by a declaration stating facts showing a reasonable and good faith attempt at an informal resolution of each issue presented by the motion.

The court shall impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023 against any party, person, or attorney who unsuccessfully makes or opposes a motion to compel delivery of medical reports, unless it finds that the one subject to the sanction acted with substantial justification or that other circumstances make the imposition of the sanction unjust.

If a party then fails to obey an order compelling delivery of medical reports, the court may make those orders that are just, including the imposition of an issue sanction, an evidence sanction, or a terminating sanction under Section 2023. In lieu of or in addition to the sanction, the court may impose a monetary sanction under Section 2023. The court shall exclude at trial the testimony of any health care practitioner whose report has not been provided by a party ordered to do so by the court.

(k) Nothing in this section shall require the disclosure of the identity of an expert consulted by an attorney in order to make the certification required in an action for professional negligence under Sections 411.30 and 411.35.

SEC. 72. Section 22253 of the Education Code is amended to read:

22253. A member's election of disability or death benefit coverage shall meet all of the following requirements:

(a) The member is eligible to participate in the election pursuant to Section 22252.

(b) The election is filed on a form provided by the system.

(c) Except as provided in Section 22253.5, the election document contains the signature of the spouse of the member, unless the member declares, in writing, under penalty of perjury, that one of the following conditions exists:

(1) The member does not know, and has taken all reasonable steps to determine, the whereabouts of the spouse.

(2) The spouse is incapable of executing the acknowledgment because of an incapacitating mental or physical condition.

(3) The member and spouse have executed a marriage settlement agreement pursuant to Part 5 (commencing with Section 1500) of Division 4 of the Family Code which makes the community property law inapplicable to the marriage.

(4) The member is not married.

(5) The current spouse has no identifiable community property interest in future benefits.

(d) The election document is signed and dated during the 180-day election period specified in Section 22251.

(e) The signatures of the member and the member's spouse on the election document are witnessed by a third party who is at least 18 years of age.

(f) The election document is received in the system's office in Sacramento within 30 days after the date of signature but no later than May 1, 1993.

SEC. 73. Section 22253.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

22253.5. If a spouse refuses to sign the election document, the member may bring an action in court to enforce the spousal signature requirement or to waive the spousal signature requirement. Either party may bring an action pursuant to Section 1101 of the Family Code to determine the rights of the party.

SEC. 74. Section 22401.6 of the Education Code is amended to read:

22401.6. (a) Except as provided in Section 22401.7, the signature of the spouse of a member or retirant shall be required on any application for, or cancellation of, an unmodified allowance, the election or cancellation of an option, request for a refund of the member's accumulated retirement contributions or accumulated annuity deposit contributions, or other requests related to the selection of benefits by a member or retirant in which a spousal interest may be present, unless the member or retirant declares, in writing, under penalty of perjury, that one of the following conditions exists:

(1) The member or retirant does not know, and has taken all reasonable steps to determine, the whereabouts of the spouse.

(2) The spouse is incapable of executing the acknowledgment because of an incapacitating mental or physical condition.

(3) The member or retirant and spouse have executed a marriage settlement agreement pursuant to Part 5 (commencing with Section 1500) of Division 4 of the Family Code which makes the community property law inapplicable to the marriage.

(4) The member or retirant is not married.

(5) The current spouse has no identifiable community property interest in the benefit.

(b) This section is not applicable to an application for a disability allowance.

(c) The sole purpose of this section is to provide for spousal protection in the selection of specified benefits made by a member or retirant.

SEC. 75. Section 22401.7 of the Education Code is amended to read:

22401.7. If a spouse refuses to sign an application, as set forth in Section 22401.6, the member or retirant may bring an action in court to enforce the spousal signature requirement or to waive the spousal signature requirement. Either party may bring an action pursuant to Section 1101 of the Family Code to determine the rights of the party.

SEC. 76. Section 621.1 of the Evidence Code is repealed.

SEC. 77. Section 895.5 of the Evidence Code is repealed.

SEC. 77.3. Section 1037.7 of the Evidence Code, as amended by Section 71 of Chapter 163 of the Statutes of 1992, is repealed.

SEC. 77.4. Section 1037.7 is added to the Evidence Code, to read:

1037.7. As used in this article, "domestic violence" means "domestic violence" as defined in Section 6211 of the Family Code.

SEC. 77.5. Section 1107 of the Evidence Code is amended to read:

1107. (a) In a criminal action, expert testimony is admissible by either the prosecution or the defense regarding battered women's syndrome, including the physical, emotional, or mental effects upon the beliefs, perceptions, or behavior of victims of domestic violence, except when offered against a criminal defendant to prove the occurrence of the act or acts of abuse which form the basis of the criminal charge.

(b) The foundation shall be sufficient for admission of this expert testimony if the proponent of the evidence establishes its relevancy and the proper qualifications of the expert witness. Expert opinion testimony on battered women's syndrome shall not be considered a new scientific technique whose reliability is unproven.

(c) For purposes of this section, "abuse" is defined in Section 6203 of the Family Code and "domestic violence" is defined in Section 6211 of the Family Code.

(d) This section is intended as a rule of evidence only and no substantive change affecting the Penal Code is intended.

SEC. 77.7. Section 1152.5 of the Evidence Code is amended to read:

1152.5. (a) Subject to the conditions and exceptions provided in this section, when persons agree to conduct and participate in a mediation for the purpose of compromising, settling, or resolving a dispute:

(1) Evidence of anything said or of any admission made in the course of the mediation is not admissible in evidence, and disclosure of any such evidence shall not be compelled, in any civil action in which, pursuant to law, testimony can be compelled to be given.

(2) Unless the document otherwise provides, no document prepared for the purpose of, or in the course of, or pursuant to, the mediation, or copy thereof, is admissible in evidence, and disclosure of any such document shall not be compelled, in any civil action in which, pursuant to law, testimony can be compelled to be given.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not limit the admissibility of evidence if all persons who conducted or otherwise participated in the mediation consent to its disclosure.

(c) This section does not apply unless, before the mediation begins, the persons who agree to conduct and participate in the mediation execute an agreement in writing that sets out the text of subdivisions (a) and (b) and states that the persons agree that this section shall apply to the mediation.

(d) This section does not apply where the admissibility of the evidence is governed by Section 1818 or 3177 of the Family Code.

(e) Nothing in this section makes admissible evidence that is inadmissible under Section 1152 or any other statutory provision, including, but not limited to, the sections listed in subdivision (d). Nothing in this section limits the confidentiality provided pursuant to Section 65 of the Labor Code.

(f) Paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) does not limit either of the following:

(1) The admissibility of the agreement referred to in subdivision (c).

(2) The effect of an agreement not to take a default in a pending civil action.

SEC. 78. Section 2 of the Family Code is amended to read:

2. A provision of this code, insofar as it is substantially the same as a previously existing provision relating to the same subject matter, shall be considered as a restatement and continuation thereof and not as a new enactment, and a reference in a statute to the provision of this code shall be deemed to include a reference to the previously existing provision unless a contrary intent appears.

SEC. 78.5. Section 55 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 78.7. Section 57 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 79. Section 58 is added to the Family Code, to read:

58. "Child for whom support may be ordered" means a minor child and a child for whom support is authorized under Section 3587, 3901, or 3910.

SEC. 79.1. Section 60 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 79.3. Section 63 is added to the Family Code, to read:

63. "Community estate" includes both community property and quasi-community property.

SEC. 79.5. Section 70 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 79.7. Section 75 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 80. Section 105 is added to the Family Code, to read:

105. "Person" includes a natural person, firm, association, organization, partnership, business trust, corporation, or public entity.

SEC. 81. Section 110 is added to the Family Code, to read:

110. "Proceeding" includes an action.

SEC. 82. Section 150 of the Family Code is amended to read:

150. "Support" refers to a support obligation owing on behalf of a child, spouse, or family, or an amount owing pursuant to Section 11350 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. It also includes past due support or arrearage when it exists. "Support," when used with reference to a minor child or a child described in Section 3901, includes maintenance and education.

SEC. 83. Section 213 of the Family Code is amended to read:

213. (a) In a hearing on an order to show cause, or on a modification thereof, or in a hearing on a motion, other than for contempt, the responding party may seek affirmative relief alternative to that requested by the moving party, on the same issues raised by the moving party, by filing a responsive declaration within the time set by statute or rules of court.

(b) This section applies in any of the following proceedings:

(1) A proceeding for dissolution of marriage, for nullity of marriage, or for legal separation of the parties.

(2) A proceeding relating to a protective order described in Section 6218.

(3) Any other proceeding in which there is at issue the visitation, custody, or support of a child.

SEC. 84. Section 215 of the Family Code is amended to read:

215. After entry of a judgment of dissolution of marriage, nullity of marriage, or legal separation of the parties, or after a permanent order in any other proceeding in which there was at issue the visitation, custody, or support of a child, no modification of the judgment or order, and no subsequent order in the proceedings, is valid unless any prior notice otherwise required to be given to a party to the proceeding is served, in the same manner as the notice is otherwise permitted by law to be served, upon the party. For the purposes of this section, service upon the attorney of record is not sufficient.

SEC. 84.5. Section 231 of the Family Code is amended to read:

231. This part applies to a temporary restraining order in a summons issued under any of the following provisions:

(a) Section 2040 (proceeding for dissolution of marriage, for nullity of marriage, or for legal separation of the parties).

(b) Section 7700 (proceeding under Uniform Parentage Act).

SEC. 84.7. The heading of Part 4 (commencing with Section 240) of Division 2 of the Family Code is amended to read:

PART 4. EX PARTE TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDERS

SEC. 85. Section 240 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 85.1. Section 240 is added to the Family Code, to read:

240. This part applies where a temporary restraining order, including a protective order as defined in Section 6218, is issued under any of the following provisions:

(a) Article 2 (commencing with Section 2045) of Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 6 (dissolution of marriage, nullity of marriage, or legal separation of the parties).

(b) Article 3 (commencing with Section 4620) of Chapter 3 of Part 5 of Division 9 (deposit of assets to secure future child support payments).

(c) Article 1 (commencing with Section 6320) of Chapter 2 of Part 4 of Division 10 (Domestic Violence Prevention Act).

(d) Article 2 (commencing with Section 7710) of Chapter 6 of Part 3 of Division 12 (Uniform Parentage Act).

SEC. 85.2. Section 241 of the Family Code is amended to read:

241. Except as provided in Section 6300, an order described in Section 240 may not be granted without notice to the respondent unless it appears from facts shown by the affidavit in support of the application for the order, or in the application for the order, that great or irreparable injury would result to the applicant before the matter can be heard on notice.

SEC. 85.3. Section 242 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 85.4. Section 242 is added to the Family Code, to read:

242. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), if an order described in Section 240 is issued, the matter shall be made returnable on an order requiring cause to be shown why a permanent order should not be granted, on the earliest day that the business of the court will permit, but not later than 20 days or, if good cause appears to the court, 25 days from the date of the order.

(b) If a hearing is not held within the time provided in subdivision (a), the court may nonetheless hear the matter, but the order is unenforceable unless reissued under Section 245.

SEC. 85.5. Section 243 of the Family Code is amended to read:

243. (a) When the matter first comes up for hearing, the applicant must be ready to proceed.

(b) If an order described in Section 240 has been issued without notice pending the hearing, the applicant must have served on the respondent, at least two days before the hearing, a copy of each of the following:

(1) The order to show cause.

(2) The application and the affidavits and points and authorities in support of the application.

(3) Any other supporting papers filed with the court.

(c) If the applicant fails to comply with subdivisions (a) and (b), the court shall dissolve the order.

(d) If service is made under subdivision (b), the respondent is entitled, as of course, to one continuance for a reasonable period, to respond to the application for the order.

(e) On motion of the applicant or on its own motion, the court may shorten the time provided in this section for service on the respondent.

(f) The respondent may, in response to the order to show cause, present affidavits relating to the granting of the order, and if the affidavits are served on the applicant at least two days before the hearing, the applicant is not entitled to a continuance on account of the affidavits.

SEC. 86. Part 5 (commencing with Section 270) of Division 2 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 87. Part 5 (commencing with Section 270) of Division 2 is added to the Family Code, to read:

PART 5. ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS

270. If a court orders a party to pay attorney's fees or costs under this code, the court shall first determine that the party has or is reasonably likely to have the ability to pay.

271. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this code, the court may base an award of attorney's fees and costs on the extent to which the conduct of each party or attorney furthers or frustrates the policy of the law to promote settlement of litigation and, where possible, to reduce the cost of litigation by encouraging cooperation between the parties and attorneys. An award of attorney's fees and costs pursuant to this section is in the nature of a sanction. In making an award pursuant to this section, the court shall take into consideration all evidence concerning the parties' incomes, assets, and liabilities. The court shall not impose a sanction pursuant to this section that imposes an unreasonable financial burden on the party against whom the sanction is imposed. In order to obtain an award under this section, the party requesting an award of attorney's fees and costs is not required to demonstrate any financial need for the award.

(b) An award of attorney's fees and costs as a sanction pursuant to this section shall be imposed only after notice to the party against whom the sanction is proposed to be imposed and opportunity for that party to be heard.

(c) An award of attorney's fees and costs as a sanction pursuant to this section is payable only from the property or income of the party against whom the sanction is imposed, except that the award may be against the sanctioned party's share of the community property.

272. (a) Where the court orders one of the parties to pay attorney's fees and costs for the benefit of the other party, the fees and costs may, in the discretion of the court, be made payable in whole or in part to the attorney entitled thereto.

(b) Subject to subdivision (c), the order providing for payment of the attorney's fees and costs may be enforced directly by the attorney in the attorney's own name or by the party in whose behalf the order was made.

(c) If the attorney has ceased to be the attorney for the party in whose behalf the order was made, the attorney may enforce the order only if it appears of record that the attorney has given to the former client or successor counsel 10 days' written notice of the application for enforcement of the order. During the 10-day period, the client may file in the proceeding a motion directed to the former attorney for partial or total reallocation of fees and costs to cover the services and cost of successor counsel. On the filing of the motion, the enforcement of the order by the former attorney shall be stayed until the court has resolved the motion.

SEC. 88. Section 300 of the Family Code is amended to read:

300. Marriage is a personal relation arising out of a civil contract between a man and a woman, to which the consent of the parties capable of making that contract is necessary. Consent alone does not constitute marriage. Consent must be followed by the issuance of a license and solemnization as authorized by this division, except as provided by Section 425 and Part 4 (commencing with Section 500).

SEC. 89. Section 306 of the Family Code is amended to read:

306. Except as provided in Section 307, a marriage shall be licensed, solemnized, and authenticated, and the certificate of registry of marriage shall be returned as provided in this part. Noncompliance with this part by a nonparty to the marriage does not invalidate the marriage.

SEC. 90. Section 307 of the Family Code is amended to read:

307. This division, so far as it relates to the solemnizing of marriage, is not applicable to members of a particular religious society or denomination not having clergy for the purpose of solemnizing marriage or entering the marriage relation, if all of the following requirements are met:

(a) The parties to the marriage make, sign, and endorse on or attach to the license a statement, in the form prescribed by the State Department of Health Services, showing all of the following:

(1) The fact, time, and place of entering into the marriage.

(2) The signatures and places of residence of two witnesses to the ceremony.

(3) The religious society or denomination of the parties to the marriage, and that the marriage was entered into in accordance with the rules and customs of that religious society or denomination. The statement of the parties to the marriage that the marriage was entered into in accordance with the rules and customs of the religious society or denomination is conclusively presumed to be true.

(b) The License and Certificate of Declaration of Marriage, endorsed pursuant to subdivision (a), is returned to the county recorder of the county in which the license was issued within 30 days after the ceremony.

SEC. 91. Section 357 of the Family Code is amended to read:

357. (a) The county clerk shall number each marriage license issued and shall transmit at periodic intervals to the county recorder a list or copies of the licenses issued.

(b) Not later than 60 days after the date of issuance, the county recorder shall notify licenseholders whose certificate of registry has not been returned of that fact and that the marriage license will automatically expire on the date shown on its face.

(c) The county recorder shall notify the licenseholders of the obligation of the person solemnizing their marriage to return the certificate of registry and endorsed license to the recorder's office within 30 days after the ceremony.

SEC. 92. Section 359 of the Family Code is amended to read:

359. (a) Applicants for a marriage license shall obtain from the county clerk issuing the license, a certificate of registry of marriage.

(b) The contents of the certificate of registry are as provided in Division 9 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) The certificate of registry shall be filled out by the applicants, in the presence of the county clerk issuing the marriage license, and shall be presented to the person solemnizing the marriage.

(d) The person solemnizing the marriage shall complete the certificate of registry and shall cause to be entered on the certificate of registry the signature and address of one witness to the marriage ceremony.

(e) The certificate of registry shall be returned by the person solemnizing the marriage to the county recorder of the county in which the license was issued within 30 days after the ceremony.

(f) As used in this division, "returned" means presented to the appropriate person in person, or postmarked, before the expiration of the specified time period.

SEC. 93. Section 360 of the Family Code is amended to read:

360. (a) If a certificate of registry of marriage is lost or destroyed after the marriage ceremony but before it is returned to the county recorder, the person solemnizing the marriage, in order to comply with Section 359, shall obtain a duplicate certificate of registry by filing an affidavit setting forth the facts with the county clerk of the county in which the license was issued.

(b) The duplicate certificate of registry may not be issued later than one year after issuance of the original license and shall be returned by the person solemnizing the marriage to the county recorder within 30 days after issuance.

(c) The fee for issuing the duplicate marriage license and certificate of registry is five dollars ($5).

SEC. 94. Section 420 of the Family Code is amended to read:

420. (a) No particular form for the ceremony of marriage is required for solemnization of the marriage, but the parties shall declare, in the presence of the person solemnizing the marriage and necessary witnesses, that they take each other as husband and wife.

(b) No contract of marriage, if otherwise duly made, shall be invalidated for want of conformity to the requirements of any religious sect.

SEC. 95. Section 422 of the Family Code is amended to read:

422. The person solemnizing a marriage shall make, sign, and endorse upon or attach to the marriage license a statement, in the form prescribed by the State Department of Health Services, showing all of the following:

(a) The fact, date (month, day, year), and place (city and county) of solemnization.

(b) The names and places of residence of one or more witnesses to the ceremony.

(c) The official position of the person solemnizing the marriage, or of the denomination of which that person is a priest, minister, rabbi, or member of the clergy.

(d) The person solemnizing the marriage shall also type or print the person's name and address.

SEC. 96. Section 423 of the Family Code is amended to read:

423. The person solemnizing the marriage shall return the marriage license, endorsed as required in Section 422, to the county recorder of the county in which the license was issued within 30 days after the ceremony.

SEC. 97. Section 425 of the Family Code is amended to read:

425. If no record of the solemnization of a marriage previously contracted is known to exist, the parties may purchase a License and Certificate of Declaration of Marriage from the county clerk in the parties' county of residence. The license and certificate shall be returned to the county recorder of the county in which the license was issued.

SEC. 98. Section 506 of the Family Code is amended to read:

506. (a) The confidential marriage license shall be presented to the person solemnizing the marriage.

(b) Upon performance of the ceremony, the confidential marriage certificate shall be filled out by the parties to the marriage and authenticated by the person solemnizing the marriage.

(c) The certificate shall be returned by the person solemnizing the marriage to the office of the county clerk in the county in which the license was issued within 30 days after the ceremony.

SEC. 99. Section 510 of the Family Code is amended to read:

510. (a) If a confidential marriage certificate is lost, damaged, or destroyed after the performance of the marriage and before it is returned, the county clerk may issue a replacement upon the payment of a fee of five dollars ($5).

(b) The duplicate license may not be issued later than one year after issuance of the original license and shall be returned by the person solemnizing the marriage to the county clerk within 30 days after issuance.

SEC. 99.5. Section 753 of the Family Code is amended to read:

753. Notwithstanding Section 752 and except as provided in Article 2 (commencing with Section 2045), Article 3 (commencing with Section 2047), or Article 4 (commencing with Section 2049) of Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 6, neither spouse may be excluded from the other's dwelling.

SEC. 100. Section 853 of the Family Code is amended to read:

853. (a) A statement in a will of the character of property is not admissible as evidence of a transmutation of the property in a proceeding commenced before the death of the person who made the will.

(b) A waiver of a right to a joint and survivor annuity or survivor's benefits under the federal Retirement Equity Act of 1984 (Public Law 98-397) is not a transmutation of the community property rights of the person executing the waiver.

(c) A written joinder or written consent to a nonprobate transfer of community property on death that satisfies Section 852 is a transmutation and is governed by the law applicable to transmutations and not by Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 5010) of Part 1 of Division 5 of the Probate Code.

SEC. 100.3. Section 901 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 100.4. Section 914 of the Family Code is amended to read:

914. (a) Notwithstanding Section 913, a married person is personally liable for the following debts incurred by the person's spouse during marriage:

(1) A debt incurred for necessaries of life of the person's spouse while the spouses are living together.

(2) Except as provided in Section 4302, a debt incurred for common necessaries of life of the person's spouse while the spouses are living separately.

(b) The separate property of a married person may be applied to the satisfaction of a debt for which the person is personally liable pursuant to this section. If separate property is so applied at a time when nonexempt property in the community estate or separate property of the person's spouse is available but is not applied to the satisfaction of the debt, the married person is entitled to reimbursement to the extent such property was available.

SEC. 100.5. Section 915 of the Family Code is amended to read:

915. (a) For the purpose of this part, a child or spousal support obligation of a married person that does not arise out of the marriage shall be treated as a debt incurred before marriage, regardless of whether a court order for support is made or modified before or during marriage and regardless of whether any installment payment on the obligation accrues before or during marriage.

(b) If property in the community estate is applied to the satisfaction of a child or spousal support obligation of a married person that does not arise out of the marriage, at a time when nonexempt separate income of the person is available but is not applied to the satisfaction of the obligation, the community estate is entitled to reimbursement from the person in the amount of the separate income, not exceeding the property in the community estate so applied.

(c) Nothing in this section limits the matters a court may take into consideration in determining or modifying the amount of a support order, including, but not limited to, the earnings of the spouses of the parties.

SEC. 100.6. Section 930 of the Family Code is amended to read:

930. Except as otherwise provided by statute, this part governs the liability of separate property and property in the community estate and the personal liability of a married person for a debt enforced on or after January 1, 1985, regardless of whether the debt was incurred before, on, or after that date.

SEC. 100.7. Section 1000 of the Family Code is amended to read:

1000. (a) A married person is not liable for any injury or damage caused by the other spouse except in cases where the married person would be liable therefor if the marriage did not exist.

(b) The liability of a married person for death or injury to person or property shall be satisfied as follows:

(1) If the liability of the married person is based upon an act or omission which occurred while the married person was performing an activity for the benefit of the community, the liability shall first be satisfied from the community estate and second from the separate property of the married person.

(2) If the liability of the married person is not based upon an act or omission which occurred while the married person was performing an activity for the benefit of the community, the liability shall first be satisfied from the separate property of the married person and second from the community estate.

(c) This section does not apply to the extent the liability is satisfied out of proceeds of insurance for the liability, whether the proceeds are from property in the community estate or from separate property. Notwithstanding Section 920, no right of reimbursement under this section shall be exercised more than seven years after the spouse in whose favor the right arises has actual knowledge of the application of the property to the satisfaction of the debt.

SEC. 100.8. Section 1100 of the Family Code is amended to read:

1100. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b), (c), and (d) and Sections 761 and 1103, either spouse has the management and control of the community personal property, whether acquired prior to or on or after January 1, 1975, with like absolute power of disposition, other than testamentary, as the spouse has of the separate estate of the spouse.

(b) A spouse may not make a gift of community personal property, or dispose of community personal property for less than fair and reasonable value, without the written consent of the other spouse. This subdivision does not apply to gifts mutually given by both spouses to third parties and to gifts given by one spouse to the other spouse.

(c) A spouse may not sell, convey, or encumber community personal property used as the family dwelling, or the furniture, furnishings, or fittings of the home, or the clothing or wearing apparel of the other spouse or minor children which is community personal property, without the written consent of the other spouse.

(d) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), and in Section 1102, a spouse who is operating or managing a business or an interest in a business that is all or substantially all community personal property has the primary management and control of the business or interest. Primary management and control means that the managing spouse may act alone in all transactions but shall give prior written notice to the other spouse of any sale, lease, exchange, encumbrance, or other disposition of all or substantially all of the personal property used in the operation of the business (including personal property used for agricultural purposes), whether or not title to that property is held in the name of only one spouse. Written notice is not, however, required when prohibited by the law otherwise applicable to the transaction.

Remedies for the failure by a managing spouse to give prior written notice as required by this subdivision are only as specified in Section 1101. A failure to give prior written notice shall not adversely affect the validity of a transaction nor of any interest transferred.

(e) Each spouse shall act with respect to the other spouse in the management and control of the community assets and liabilities in accordance with the general rules governing fiduciary relationships which control the actions of persons having relationships of personal confidence as specified in Section 721, until such time as the assets and liabilities have been divided by the parties or by a court. This duty includes the obligation to make full disclosure to the other spouse of all material facts and information regarding the existence, characterization, and valuation of all assets in which the community has or may have an interest and debts for which the community is or may be liable, and to provide equal access to all information, records, and books that pertain to the value and character of those assets and debts, upon request.

SEC. 101. Section 1102 of the Family Code is amended to read:

1102. (a) Except as provided in Sections 761 and 1103, either spouse has the management and control of the community real property, whether acquired prior to or on or after January 1, 1975, but both spouses, either personally or by a duly authorized agent, must join in executing any instrument by which that community real property or any interest therein is leased for a longer period than one year, or is sold, conveyed, or encumbered.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to a lease, mortgage, conveyance, or transfer of real property or of any interest in real property between husband and wife.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b):

(1) The sole lease, contract, mortgage, or deed of the husband, holding the record title to community real property, to a lessee, purchaser, or encumbrancer, in good faith without knowledge of the marriage relation, shall be presumed to be valid if executed prior to January 1, 1975.

(2) The sole lease, contract, mortgage, or deed of either spouse, holding the record title to community real property to a lessee, purchaser, or encumbrancer, in good faith without knowledge of the marriage relation, shall be presumed to be valid if executed on or after January 1, 1975.

(d) No action to avoid any instrument mentioned in this section, affecting any property standing of record in the name of either spouse alone, executed by the spouse alone, shall be commenced after the expiration of one year from the filing for record of that instrument in the recorder's office in the county in which the land is situated.

(e) Nothing in this section precludes either spouse from encumbering his or her interest in community real property, as provided in Section 2033, to pay reasonable attorney's fees in order to retain or maintain legal counsel in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, for nullity of marriage, or for legal separation of the parties.

SEC. 101.5. Section 1816 of the Family Code is amended to read:

1816. (a) Supervising and associate counselors and mediators described in Section 3164 shall participate in programs of continuing instruction in domestic violence, including child abuse, as may be arranged and provided to them. This training may utilize domestic violence training programs conducted by nonprofit community organizations with an expertise in domestic violence issues.

(b) Areas of instruction shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) The effects of domestic violence on children.

(2) The nature and extent of domestic violence.

(3) The social and family dynamics of domestic violence.

(4) Techniques for identifying and assisting families affected by domestic violence.

(5) Interviewing, documentation of, and appropriate recommendations for families affected by domestic violence.

(6) The legal rights of, and remedies available to, victims.

(7) Availability of community and legal domestic violence resources.

(c) The Judicial Council shall solicit the assistance of community organizations concerned with domestic violence and shall seek to develop a training program that will maximize coordination between conciliation courts and local agencies concerned with domestic violence.

SEC. 102. Section 1839 of the Family Code is amended to read:

1839. (a) At or after the hearing, the court may make orders in respect to the conduct of the spouses or parents and the subject matter of the controversy that the court deems necessary to preserve the marriage or to implement the reconciliation of the spouses. No such order shall be effective for more than 30 days from the hearing of the petition unless the parties mutually consent to a continuation of the time the order remains effective.

(b) A reconciliation agreement between the parties may be reduced to writing and, with the consent of the parties, a court order may be made requiring the parties to comply fully with the agreement.

(c) During the pendency of a proceeding under this part, the superior court may order the husband or wife, or father or mother, as the case may be, to pay an amount necessary for the support and maintenance of the wife or husband and for the support, maintenance, and education of the minor children, as the case may be. In determining the amount, the superior court may take into consideration the recommendations of a financial referee if one is available to the court. An order made pursuant to this subdivision shall not prejudice the rights of the parties or children with respect to any subsequent order which may be made. An order made pursuant to this subdivision may be modified or terminated at any time except as to an amount that accrued before the date of filing of the notice of motion or order to show cause to modify or terminate.

SEC. 102.5. Section 1850 of the Family Code is amended to read:

1850. The Judicial Council shall do all of the following:

(a) Assist counties in implementing mediation and conciliation proceedings under this code.

(b) Establish and implement a uniform statistical reporting system relating to proceedings brought for dissolution of marriage, for nullity of marriage, or for legal separation of the parties, including, but not limited to, a custody disposition survey.

(c) Administer a program of grants to public and private agencies submitting proposals for research, study, and demonstration projects in the area of family law, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(1) The development of conciliation and mediation and other newer dispute resolution techniques, particularly as they relate to child custody and to avoidance of litigation.

(2) The establishment of criteria to ensure that a child support order is adequate.

(3) The development of methods to ensure that a child support order is paid.

(4) The study of the feasibility and desirability of guidelines to assist judges in making custody decisions.

(d) Administer a program for the training of court personnel involved in family law proceedings, which shall be available to the court personnel and which shall be totally funded from funds specified in Section 1852. The training shall include, but not be limited to, the order of preference for custody of minor children and the meaning of the custody arrangements under Part 2 (commencing with Section 3020) of Division 8.

(e) Conduct research on the effectiveness of current family law for the purpose of shaping future public policy.

SEC. 103. Section 2010 of the Family Code is amended to read:

2010. In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, for nullity of marriage, or for legal separation of the parties, the court has jurisdiction to inquire into and render any judgment and make orders that are appropriate concerning the following:

(a) The status of the marriage.

(b) The custody of minor children of the marriage.

(c) The support of children for whom support may be ordered.

(d) The support of either party.

(e) The settlement of the property rights of the parties.

(f) The award of attorney's fees and costs.

SEC. 104. Section 2023 of the Family Code is amended to read:

2023. (a) On a determination that payment of an obligation of a party would benefit either party or a child for whom support may be ordered, the court may order one of the parties to pay the obligation, or a portion thereof, directly to the creditor.

(b) The creditor has no right to enforce the order made under this section, nor are the creditor's rights affected by the determination made under this section.

SEC. 105. Section 2024 of the Family Code is amended to read:

2024. (a) A petition for dissolution of marriage, nullity of marriage, or legal separation of the parties, or a joint petition for summary dissolution of marriage, shall contain the following notice:

"Please review your will, insurance policies, retirement benefit plans, credit cards, other credit accounts and credit reports, and other matters that you may want to change in view of the dissolution or annulment of your marriage, or your legal separation. However, some changes may require the agreement of your spouse or a court order (see Part 3 (commencing with Section 231) of Division 2 of the Family Code). Dissolution or annulment of your marriage may automatically change a disposition made by your will to your former spouse."

(b) A judgment for dissolution of marriage, for nullity of marriage, or for legal separation of the parties shall contain the following notice:

"Please review your will, insurance policies, retirement benefit plans, credit cards, other credit accounts and credit reports, and other matters that you may want to change in view of the dissolution or annulment of your marriage, or your legal separation. Dissolution or annulment of your marriage may automatically change a disposition made by your will to your former spouse."

SEC. 106. Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 2030) of Part 1 of Division 6 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 106.1. Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 2030) is added to Part 1 of Division 6 of the Family Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3.5. ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS

2030. (a) During the pendency of a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, for nullity of marriage, or for legal separation of the parties, the court may, upon (1) determining an ability to pay and (2) consideration of the respective incomes and needs of the parties in order to ensure that each party has access to legal representation to preserve all of the party's rights, order any party, except a governmental entity, to pay the amount reasonably necessary for attorney's fees and for the cost of maintaining or defending the proceeding. From time to time and before entry of judgment, the court may augment or modify the original award for attorney's fees and costs as may be reasonably necessary for the prosecution or defense of the proceeding or any proceeding related thereto, including after any appeal has been concluded.

(b) Attorney's fees and costs within this section may be awarded for legal services rendered or costs incurred before or after the commencement of the proceeding.

(c) For services rendered or costs incurred after entry of judgment, the court may award the attorney's fees and costs reasonably necessary to maintain or defend any subsequent proceeding, and may augment or modify an award so made, including after an appeal has been concluded.

(d) Any order requiring a party who is not the spouse of another party to the proceeding to pay attorney's fees or costs shall be limited to an amount reasonably necessary to maintain or defend the action on the issues relating to that party.

2031. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), during the pendency of a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, for nullity of marriage, or for legal separation of the parties, an application for a temporary order making, augmenting, or modifying an award of attorney's fees or costs or both shall be made by motion on notice or by an order to show cause.

(b) An order described in subdivision (a) may be made without notice by an oral motion in open court at either of the following times:

(1) At the time of the hearing of the cause on the merits.

(2) At any time before entry of judgment against a party whose default has been entered pursuant to Section 585 or 586 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

2032. (a) The court may make an award of attorney's fees and costs under Section 2030 or 2031 where the making of the award, and the amount of the award, are just and reasonable under the relative circumstances of the respective parties.

(b) In determining what is just and reasonable under the relative circumstances, the court shall take into consideration the need for the award to enable each party, to the extent practical, to have sufficient financial resources to present the party's case adequately, taking into consideration, to the extent relevant, the circumstances of the respective parties described in Section 4320. The fact that the party requesting an award of attorney's fees and costs has resources from which the party could pay the party's own attorney's fees and costs is not itself a bar to an order that the other party pay part or all of the fees and costs requested. Financial resources are only one factor for the court to consider in determining how to apportion the overall cost of the litigation equitably between the parties under their relative circumstances.

(c) The court may order payment of an award of attorney's fees and costs from any type of property, whether community or separate, principal or income.

(d) Either party may, at any time before the hearing of the cause on the merits, on noticed motion, request the court to make a finding that the case involves complex or substantial issues of fact or law related to property rights, visitation, custody, or support. Upon that finding, the court may in its discretion direct the implementation of a case management plan for the purpose of allocating attorney's fees, court costs, expert fees, and consultant fees equitably between the parties. The case management plan shall focus on specific, designated issues. The plan may provide for the allocation of separate or community assets, security against these assets, and for payments from income or anticipated income of either party for the purpose described in this subdivision and for the benefit of one or both parties. Payments shall be authorized only on agreement of the parties or, in the absence thereof, by court order. The court may order that a referee be appointed pursuant to Section 639 of the Code of Civil Procedure to oversee the case management plan.

(b) Notice of a family law attorney's real property lien shall be served either personally or on the other party's attorney of record at least 15 days before the encumbrance is recorded. This notice shall contain a declaration signed under penalty of perjury containing all of the following:

(1) A full description of the real property.

(2) The party's belief as to the fair market value of the property and documentation supporting that belief.

(3) Encumbrances on the property as of the date of the declaration.

(4) A list of community assets and liabilities and their estimated values as of the date of the declaration.

(5) The amount of the family law attorney's real property lien.

(c) The nonencumbering party may file an ex parte objection to the family law attorney's real property lien. The objection shall include a request to stay the recordation until further notice of the court and shall contain a copy of the notice received. The objection shall also include a declaration signed under penalty of perjury as to all of the following:

(1) Specific objections to the family law attorney's real property lien and to the specific items in the notice.

(2) The objector's belief as to the appropriate items or value and any documentation supporting that belief.

(3) A declaration specifically stating why recordation of the encumbrance at this time would likely result in an unequal division of property or would otherwise be unjust under the circumstances of the case.

(d) Except as otherwise provided by this section, general procedural rules regarding ex parte motions apply.

(e) An attorney for whom a family law attorney's real property lien is obtained shall comply with Rule 3-300 of the Rules of Professional Conduct of the State Bar of California.

2034. (a) On application of either party, the court may deny the family law attorney's real property lien described in Section 2033 based on a finding that the encumbrance would likely result in an unequal division of property because it would impair the encumbering party's ability to meet his or her fair share of the community obligations or would otherwise be unjust under the circumstances of the case. The court may also for good cause limit the amount of the family law attorney's real property lien. A limitation by the court is not to be construed as a determination of reasonable attorney's fees.

(b) On receiving an objection to the establishment of a family law attorney's real property lien, the court may on its own motion determine whether the case involves complex or substantial issues of fact or law related to property rights, visitation, custody, or support. If the court finds that the case involves one or more of these complex or substantial issues, the court may direct the implementation of a case management plan as provided in subdivision (d) of Section 2032.

(c) The court has jurisdiction to resolve any dispute arising from the existence of a family law attorney's real property lien.

SEC. 106.7. Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 2040) is added to Part 1 of Division 6 of the Family Code, to read:

CHAPTER 4. PROTECTIVE AND RESTRAINING ORDERS

Article 1. Orders in Summons

2040. In addition to the contents required by Section 412.20 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the summons shall contain a temporary restraining order:

(a) Restraining both parties from removing the minor child or children of the parties, if any, from the state without the prior written consent of the other party or an order of the court.

(b) Restraining both parties from transferring, encumbering, hypothecating, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property, real or personal, whether community, quasi-community, or separate, without the written consent of the other party or an order of the court, except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life and requiring each party to notify the other party of any proposed extraordinary expenditures at least five business days before incurring those expenditures and to account to the court for all extraordinary expenditures made after service of the summons on that party. However, nothing in the restraining order shall preclude the parties from using community property to pay reasonable attorney's fees in order to retain legal counsel in the proceeding.

(c) Restraining both parties from cashing, borrowing against, canceling, transferring, disposing of, or changing the beneficiaries of any insurance or other coverage, including life, health, automobile, and disability held for the benefit of the parties and their child or children for whom support may be ordered.

2041. Nothing in Section 2040 adversely affects the rights, title, and interest of a purchaser for value, encumbrancer for value, or lessee for value who is without actual knowledge of the restraining order.

Article 2. Ex Parte Orders

2045. During the pendency of the proceeding, on application of a party in the manner provided by Part 4 (commencing with Section 240) of Division 2, the court may issue ex parte any of the following orders:

(a) An order restraining any person from transferring, encumbering, hypothecating, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property, real or personal, whether community, quasi-community, or separate, except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life, and if the order is directed against a party, requiring that party to notify the other party of any proposed extraordinary expenditures and to account to the court for all extraordinary expenditures.

(b) A protective order, as defined in Section 6218, and any other order as provided in Article 1 (commencing with Section 6320) of Chapter 2 of Part 4 of Division 10.

Article 3. Orders After Notice and Hearing

2047. After notice and a hearing, the court may issue a protective order, as defined in Section 6218, and any other restraining order as provided in Article 2 (commencing with Section 6340) of Chapter 2 of Part 4 of Division 10.

Article 4. Orders Included in Judgment

2049. A judgment may include a protective order, as defined in Section 6218, and any other restraining order as provided in Article 3 (commencing with Section 6360) of Chapter 2 of Part 4 of Division 10.

SEC. 107. Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 2100) is added to Part 1 of Division 6 of the Family Code, to read:

CHAPTER 9. DISCLOSURE OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

2100. The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(a) It is the policy of the State of California (1) to marshal, preserve, and protect community and quasi-community assets and liabilities that exist at the date of separation so as to avoid dissipation of the community estate before distribution, (2) to ensure fair and sufficient child and spousal support awards, and (3) to achieve a division of community and quasi-community assets and liabilities on the dissolution of marriage or legal separation of the parties as provided under California law.

(b) Sound public policy further favors the reduction of the adversarial nature of marital dissolution and the attendant costs by fostering full disclosure and cooperative discovery.

(c) In order to promote this public policy, a full and accurate disclosure of all assets and liabilities in which one or both parties have or may have an interest must be made in the early stages of a proceeding for dissolution of marriage or legal separation of the parties, regardless of the characterization as community or separate, together with a disclosure of all income and expenses of the parties. Moreover, each party has a continuing duty to update and augment that disclosure so that at the time the parties enter into an agreement for the resolution of any of these issues, or at the time of trial on these issues, each party will have as full and complete knowledge of the relevant underlying facts as is reasonably possible under the circumstances of the case.

2101. Unless the provision or context otherwise requires, the following definitions apply to this chapter:

(a) "Asset" includes, but is not limited to, any real or personal property of any nature, whether tangible or intangible.

(b) "Earnings and accumulations" includes, but is not limited to, wages, salary, net rents, issues, profits, and business perquisites.

(c) "Expenses" includes, but is not limited to, all personal living expenses, but does not include business related expenses.

(d) "Liability" includes, but is not limited to, any debt or obligation, whether currently existing or contingent.

2102. From the date of separation to the date of the distribution of the community asset or liability in question, each party is subject to the standards provided in Section 721, as to all activities that affect the property rights of the other party, including, but not limited to, the following activities:

(b) The accurate and complete written disclosure of any investment opportunity that presents itself after the date of separation, but that results directly from any activity, involvement, or investment of either spouse from the date of marriage to the date of separation, inclusive. The written disclosure shall be made in sufficient time for the other spouse to make an informed decision as to whether he or she desires to participate in the investment opportunity. In the event of nondisclosure of such an investment opportunity, the division of any gain resulting from that investment opportunity is governed by the standard provided in Section 2556.

2104. (a) Except by court order on good cause or by stipulation of the parties, within 60 days of service of the petition for dissolution of marriage or legal separation of the parties, each party shall serve on the other party a preliminary declaration of disclosure, executed under penalty of perjury on a form prescribed by the Judicial Council. The commission of perjury on the preliminary declaration of disclosure may be grounds for setting aside the judgment, or any part or parts thereof, pursuant to Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 2120), in addition to any and all other remedies, civil or criminal, that otherwise are available under law for the commission of perjury. The parties may agree in writing to accelerate or delay the time within which to exchange preliminary declarations of disclosure.

(b) The preliminary declaration of disclosure shall not be filed with the court, except on court order.

(c) The preliminary declaration of disclosure shall set forth with sufficient particularity, which a person of reasonable and ordinary intelligence can ascertain, all of the following:

(1) The identity of all assets in which the declarant has or may have an interest and all liabilities for which the declarant is or may be liable, regardless of the characterization of the asset or liability as community, quasi-community, or separate.

(2) The declarant's percentage of ownership in each asset and percentage of obligation for each liability where property is not solely owned by one or both of the parties . The preliminary declaration may also set forth his or her characterization of each asset or liability.

(d) A declarant may amend his or her preliminary declaration of disclosure without leave of the court.

(e) Along with the preliminary declaration of disclosure, each party shall provide the other party with a completed income and expense declaration unless an income and expense declaration has already been provided and is current and valid.

2105. (a) Before the time the parties enter into an agreement for the resolution of property or support issues other than pendente lite support, or, in the event the case goes to trial, no later than 30 days before the first trial date is assigned, each party shall file and serve on the other party a final declaration of disclosure and a current income and expense declaration, executed under penalty of perjury on a form prescribed by the Judicial Council. The commission of perjury on the final declaration of disclosure may be grounds for setting aside the judgment, or any part or parts thereof, pursuant to Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 2120), in addition to any and all other remedies, civil or criminal, that otherwise are available under law for the commission of perjury.

(b) Unless it has already been filed, the final declaration of disclosure shall be filed with the court at the time of the filing of the judgment.

(c) The final declaration of disclosure shall include all of the following information:

(1) All material facts and information regarding the characterization of all assets and liabilities.

(2) All material facts and information regarding the valuation of all assets that are contended to be community or in which it is contended the community has an interest.

(3) All material facts and information regarding the amounts of all obligations that are contended to be community obligations or for which it is contended the community has liability.

(4) All material facts and information regarding the earnings, accumulations, and expenses of each party that have been set forth in the income and expense declaration.

(d) Along with the final declaration of disclosure, each party shall serve and file an updated income and expense declaration unless a current income and expense declaration is on file.

2106. No agreement is enforceable, and no judgment shall be entered, with respect to the parties' property rights without each party having executed and filed with the court a copy of the final declaration of disclosure, unless the court finds that denial of entry of judgment would unfairly prejudice a party who has complied with the disclosure requirements of this chapter and who has requested entry of judgment, or the court otherwise finds that the interests of justice would not be served if judgment were not entered.

2107. (a) If one party fails to serve on the other party a preliminary declaration of disclosure under Section 2104 or a final declaration of disclosure under Section 2105, or fails to provide the information required in the respective declarations with sufficient particularity, and if the other party has served the respective declaration of disclosure on the noncomplying party, the complying party may, within a reasonable time, request preparation of the appropriate declaration of disclosure or further particularity.

(b) If the noncomplying party fails to comply with a request under subdivision (a), the complying party may do either or both of the following:

(1) File a motion to compel a further response.

(2) File a motion for an order preventing the noncomplying party from presenting evidence on issues that should have been covered in the declaration of disclosure.

(c) If a party fails to comply with any provision of this chapter, the court shall, in addition to any other remedy provided by law, order the noncomplying party to pay to the complying party any reasonable attorney's fees, expert fees, and any other costs incurred as a result of the failure to comply with any provision of this chapter.

2108. At any time during the proceeding, the court has the authority, on application of a party and for good cause, to order the liquidation of community or quasi-community assets so as to avoid unreasonable market or investment risks, given the relative nature, scope, and extent of the community estate. However, in no event shall the court grant the application unless, as provided in this chapter, the appropriate declaration of disclosure has been served by the moving party.

2109. This chapter applies to any proceeding commenced on or after January 1, 1993.

SEC. 108. Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 2120) is added to Part 1 of Division 6 of the Family Code, to read:

CHAPTER 10. RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT

2120. The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(a) The State of California has a strong policy of ensuring the division of community and quasi-community property in the dissolution of a marriage as set forth in Division 7 (commencing with Section 2500), and of providing for fair and sufficient child and spousal support awards. These policy goals can only be implemented with full disclosure of community, quasi-community, and separate assets, liabilities, income, and expenses, as provided in Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 2100), and decisions freely and knowingly made.

(b) It occasionally happens that the division of property or the award of support, whether made as a result of agreement or trial, is inequitable when made due to the nondisclosure or other misconduct of one of the parties.

(c) The public policy of assuring finality of judgments must be balanced against the public interest in ensuring proper division of marital property, in ensuring sufficient support awards, and in deterring misconduct.

(d) The law governing the circumstances under which a judgment can be set aside, after the time for relief under Section 473 of the Code of Civil Procedure has passed, has been the subject of considerable confusion which has led to increased litigation and unpredictable and inconsistent decisions at the trial and appellate levels.

2121. (a) In proceedings for dissolution of marriage, for nullity of marriage, or for legal separation of the parties, the court may, on any terms that may be just, relieve a spouse from a judgment, or any part or parts thereof, adjudicating support or division of property, after the six-month time limit of Section 473 of the Code of Civil Procedure has run, based on the grounds, and within the time limits, provided in this chapter.

(b) In all proceedings under this chapter, before granting relief, the court shall find that the facts alleged as the grounds for relief materially affected the original outcome and that the moving party would materially benefit from the granting of the relief.

2122. The grounds and time limits for a motion to set aside a judgment, or any part or parts thereof, are governed by this section and shall be one of the following:

(a) Actual fraud where the defrauded party was kept in ignorance or in some other manner, other than his or her own lack of care or attention, was fraudulently prevented from fully participating in the proceeding. Motions based on fraud shall be brought within one year after the date on which the complaining party either did discover, or should have discovered, the fraud.

(b) Perjury in a declaration of disclosure required under Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 2100). Motions based on perjury shall be brought within one year after the date on which the complaining party either did discover, or should have discovered, the perjury.

(c) Duress. Motions based upon duress shall be brought within two years after the date of entry of judgment.

(d) Mental incapacity. Motions based on mental incapacity shall be brought within two years after the date of entry of judgment.

(e) As to stipulated or uncontested judgments or that part of a judgment stipulated to by the parties, mistake, either mutual or unilateral, whether mistake of law or mistake of fact. Motions based on mistake shall be brought within one year after the date of entry of judgment.

2123. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, or any other law, a judgment may not be set aside simply because the court finds that it was inequitable when made, nor simply because subsequent circumstances caused the division of assets or liabilities to become inequitable, or the support to become inadequate.

2124. The negligence of an attorney shall not be imputed to a client to bar an order setting aside a judgment, unless the court finds that the client knew, or should have known, of the attorney's negligence and unreasonably failed to protect himself or herself.

2125. When ruling on a motion to set aside a judgment, the court shall set aside only those provisions materially affected by the circumstances leading to the court's decision to grant relief. However, the court has discretion to set aside the entire judgment, if necessary, for equitable considerations.

2126. As to assets or liabilities for which a judgment or part of a judgment is set aside, the date of valuation shall be subject to equitable considerations. The court shall equally divide the asset or liability, unless the court finds upon good cause shown that the interests of justice require an unequal division.

2127. As to motions filed under this chapter, if a timely request is made, the court shall render a statement of decision where the court has resolved controverted factual evidence.

2128. (a) Nothing in this chapter prohibits a party from seeking relief under Section 2556.

(b) Nothing in this chapter changes existing law with respect to contract remedies where the contract has not been merged or incorporated into a judgment.

(c) Nothing in this chapter is intended to restrict a family law court from acting as a court of equity.

(d) Nothing in this chapter is intended to limit existing law with respect to the modification or enforcement of support orders.

(e) Nothing in this chapter affects the rights of a bona fide lessee, purchaser, or encumbrancer for value of real property.

2129. This chapter applies to judgments entered on or after January 1, 1993.

SEC. 108.5. Section 2255 of the Family Code is amended to read:

2255. The court may grant attorney's fees and costs in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 2030) of Part 1 in proceedings to have the marriage adjudged void and in those proceedings based upon voidable marriage in which the party applying for attorney's fees and costs is found to be innocent of fraud or wrongdoing in inducing or entering into the marriage, and free from knowledge of the then existence of any prior marriage or other impediment to the contracting of the marriage for which a judgment of nullity is sought.

SEC. 109. Section 2334 of the Family Code is amended to read:

2334. (a) If it appears that there is a reasonable possibility of reconciliation, the court shall continue the proceeding for the dissolution of the marriage or for a legal separation of the parties for a period not to exceed 30 days.

(b) During the period of the continuance, the court may make orders for the support and maintenance of the parties, the custody of the minor children of the marriage, the support of children for whom support may be ordered, attorney's fees, and for the preservation of the property of the parties.

(c) At any time after the termination of the period of the continuance, either party may move for the dissolution of the marriage or a legal separation of the parties, and the court may enter a judgment of dissolution of the marriage or legal separation of the parties.

SEC. 110. Section 2335 of the Family Code is amended to read:

2335. Except as otherwise provided by statute, in a pleading or proceeding for dissolution of marriage or legal separation of the parties, including depositions and discovery proceedings, evidence of specific acts of misconduct is improper and inadmissible.

SEC. 110.2. Section 2400 of the Family Code is amended to read:

2400. (a) A marriage may be dissolved by the summary dissolution procedure provided in this chapter if all of the following conditions exist at the time the proceeding is commenced:

(1) Either party has met the jurisdictional requirements of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 2320) with regard to dissolution of marriage.

(2) Irreconcilable differences have caused the irremediable breakdown of the marriage and the marriage should be dissolved.

(3) There are no children of the relationship of the parties born before or during the marriage or adopted by the parties during the marriage, and the wife, to her knowledge, is not pregnant.

(4) The marriage is not more than five years in duration at the time the petition is filed.

(5) Neither party has any interest in real property wherever situated, with the exception of the lease of a residence occupied by either party which satisfies the following requirements:

(A) The lease does not include an option to purchase.

(B) The lease terminates within one year from the date of the filing of the petition.

(6) There are no unpaid obligations in excess of four thousand dollars ($4,000) incurred by either or both of the parties after the date of their marriage, excluding the amount of any unpaid obligation with respect to an automobile.

(7) The total fair market value of community property assets, excluding all encumbrances and automobiles, including any deferred compensation or retirement plan, is less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), and neither party has separate property assets, excluding all encumbrances and automobiles, in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

(8) The parties have executed an agreement setting forth the division of assets and the assumption of liabilities of the community, and have executed any documents, title certificates, bills of sale, or other evidence of transfer necessary to effectuate the agreement.

(9) The parties waive any rights to spousal support.

(10) The parties, upon entry of the judgment of dissolution of marriage pursuant to Section 2403, irrevocably waive their respective rights to appeal and their rights to move for a new trial.

(11) The parties have read and understand the summary dissolution brochure provided for in Section 2406.

(12) The parties desire that the court dissolve the marriage.

(b) On January 1, 1985, and on January 1 of each odd-numbered year thereafter, the amounts in paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) shall be adjusted to reflect any change in the value of the dollar. On January 1, 1993, and on January 1 of each odd-numbered year thereafter, the amounts in paragraph (7) of subdivision (a) shall be adjusted to reflect any change in the value of the dollar. The adjustments shall be made by multiplying the base amounts by the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index as compiled by the Department of Industrial Relations, with the result rounded to the nearest thousand dollars. The Judicial Council shall compute and publish the amounts.

SEC. 110.5. Section 2501 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 111. Section 2556 of the Family Code is amended to read:

2556. In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, for nullity of marriage, or for legal separation of the parties, the court has continuing jurisdiction to award community estate assets or community estate liabilities to the parties that have not been previously adjudicated by a judgment in the proceeding. A party may file a postjudgment motion or order to show cause in the proceeding in order to obtain adjudication of any community estate asset or liability omitted or not adjudicated by the judgment. In these cases, the court shall equally divide the omitted or unadjudicated community estate asset or liability, unless the court finds upon good cause shown that the interests of justice require an unequal division of the asset or liability.

SEC. 111.5. Section 2580 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 111.6. Section 2580 is added to the Family Code, to read:

2580. The Legislature hereby finds and declares as follows:

(a) It is the public policy of this state to provide uniformly and consistently for the standard of proof in establishing the character of property acquired by spouses during marriage in joint title form, and for the allocation of community and separate interests in that property between the spouses.

(b) The methods provided by case and statutory law have not resulted in consistency in the treatment of spouses' interests in property they hold in joint title, but rather, have created confusion as to which law applies to property at a particular point in time, depending on the form of title, and, as a result, spouses cannot have reliable expectations as to the characterization of their property and the allocation of the interests therein, and attorneys cannot reliably advise their clients regarding applicable law.

(c) Therefore, a compelling state interest exists to provide for uniform treatment of property. Thus, former Sections 4800.1 and 4800.2 of the Civil Code, as operative on January 1, 1987, and as continued in Sections 2580 and 2640 of this code, apply to all property held in joint title regardless of the date of acquisition of the property or the date of any agreement affecting the character of the property, and those sections apply in all proceedings commenced on or after January 1, 1984. However, those sections do not apply to property settlement agreements executed before January 1, 1987, or proceedings in which judgments were rendered before January 1, 1987, regardless of whether those judgments have become final.

SEC. 111.7. Section 2581 is added to the Family Code, to read:

2581. For the purpose of division of property on dissolution of marriage or legal separation of the parties, property acquired by the parties during marriage in joint form, including property held in tenancy in common, joint tenancy, or tenancy by the entirety, or as community property, is presumed to be community property. This presumption is a presumption affecting the burden of proof and may be rebutted by either of the following:

(a) A clear statement in the deed or other documentary evidence of title by which the property is acquired that the property is separate property and not community property.

(b) Proof that the parties have made a written agreement that the property is separate property.

SEC. 112. Section 2610 of the Family Code is amended to read:

2610. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the court shall make whatever orders are necessary or appropriate to ensure that each party receives the party's full community property share in any retirement plan, whether public or private, including all survivor and death benefits, including, but not limited to, any of the following:

(1) Order the division of any retirement benefits payable upon or after the death of either party in a manner consistent with this division.

(2) Order a party to elect a survivor benefit annuity or other similar election for the benefit of the other party, as specified by the court, in any case in which a retirement plan provides for such an election, provided that no court shall order a retirement plan to provide increased benefits determined on the basis of actuarial value.

(3) Order the division of accumulated community property contributions and service credit as provided in Article 1.2 (commencing with Section 21215) of Chapter 9 of Part 3 of Division 5 of Title 2 of, or Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 75050) of Chapter 11 of Title 8 of, the Government Code.

(4) Order the division of community property rights in accounts with the State Teachers' Retirement System pursuant to Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 22650) of Part 13 of the Education Code.

(5) Order a retirement plan to make payments directly to a nonmember party of his or her community property interest in retirement benefits.

(b) A court shall not make any order that requires a retirement plan to do either of the following:

(1) Make payments in any manner that will result in an increase in the amount of benefits provided by the plan.

(2) Make the payment of benefits to any party at any time before the member retires, except as provided in paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (a), unless the plan so provides.

(c) This section shall not be applied retroactively to payments made by a retirement plan to any person who retired or died prior to January 1, 1987, or to payments made to any person who retired or died prior to June 1, 1988, for plans subject to paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (a).

SEC. 113. Section 2623 of the Family Code is amended to read:

2623. Debts incurred by either spouse after the date of separation but before entry of a judgment of dissolution of marriage or legal separation of the parties shall be confirmed as follows:

(a) Debts incurred by either spouse for the common necessaries of life of either spouse or the necessaries of life of the children of the marriage for whom support may be ordered, in the absence of a court order or written agreement for support or for the payment of these debts, shall be confirmed to either spouse according to the parties' respective needs and abilities to pay at the time the debt was incurred.

(b) Debts incurred by either spouse for nonnecessaries of that spouse or children of the marriage for whom support may be ordered shall be confirmed without offset to the spouse who incurred the debt.

SEC. 114. Section 2628 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 114.5. Section 2640 of the Family Code is amended to read:

2640. (a) "Contributions to the acquisition of the property," as used in this section, include downpayments, payments for improvements, and payments that reduce the principal of a loan used to finance the purchase or improvement of the property but do not include payments of interest on the loan or payments made for maintenance, insurance, or taxation of the property.

(b) In the division of the community estate under this division, unless a party has made a written waiver of the right to reimbursement or has signed a writing that has the effect of a waiver, the party shall be reimbursed for the party's contributions to the acquisition of the property to the extent the party traces the contributions to a separate property source. The amount reimbursed shall be without interest or adjustment for change in monetary values and shall not exceed the net value of the property at the time of the division.

SEC. 115. Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 3010) of Part 1 of Division 8 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 115.5. Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 3010) is added to Part 1 of Division 8 of the Family Code, to read:

CHAPTER 2. GENERAL PROVISIONS

3010. (a) The mother of an unemancipated minor child and the father, if presumed to be the father under Section 7611, are equally entitled to the custody of the child.

(b) If one parent is dead, is unable or refuses to take custody, or has abandoned the child, the other parent is entitled to custody of the child.

3011. In making a determination of the best interest of the child in a proceeding described in Section 3021, the court shall, among any other factors it finds relevant, consider all of the following:

(a) The health, safety, and welfare of the child.

(b) Any history of abuse by one parent against the child or against the other parent. As a prerequisite to the consideration of allegations of abuse, the court may require substantial independent corroboration, including, but not limited to, written reports by law enforcement agencies, child protective services or other social welfare agencies, courts, medical facilities, or other public agencies or private nonprofit organizations providing services to victims of sexual assault or domestic violence. As used in this subdivision, "abuse against the child" means "child abuse" as defined in Section 11165.6 of the Penal Code and "abuse against the other parent" means "abuse" as defined in Section 6203 of this code.

(c) The nature and amount of contact with both parents.

SEC. 116. Section 3020 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3020. The Legislature finds and declares that it is the public policy of this state to assure minor children frequent and continuing contact with both parents after the parents have separated or dissolved their marriage, and to encourage parents to share the rights and responsibilities of child rearing in order to effect this policy, except where the contact would not be in the best interest of the child, as provided in Section 3011.

SEC. 116.11. Section 3021 is added to the Family Code, to read:

3021. This part applies in any of the following:

(a) A proceeding for dissolution of marriage.

(b) A proceeding for nullity of marriage.

(c) A proceeding for legal separation of the parties.

(d) An action for exclusive custody pursuant to Section 3120.

(e) A proceeding to determine custody or visitation in a proceeding pursuant to the Domestic Violence Prevention Act (Division 10 (commencing with Section 6200).

(f) A proceeding to determine custody or visitation in an action pursuant to the Uniform Parentage Act (Part 3 (commencing with Section 7600) of Division 12).

SEC. 116.12. Section 3021 of the Family Code is amended and renumbered to read:

3022. The court may, during the pendency of a proceeding or at any time thereafter, make an order for the custody of a child during minority that seems necessary or proper.

SEC. 116.13. Section 3022 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 116.14. Section 3023 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3023. (a) If custody of a minor child is the sole contested issue, the case shall be given preference over other civil cases, except matters to which special precedence may be given by law, for assigning a trial date and shall be given an early hearing.

(b) If there is more than one contested issue and one of the issues is the custody of a minor child, the court, as to the issue of custody, shall order a separate trial. The separate trial shall be given preference over other civil cases, except matters to which special precedence may be given by law, for assigning a trial date.

SEC. 116.16. Section 3026 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3026. Family reunification services shall not be ordered as a part of a child custody or visitation rights proceeding. Nothing in this section affects the applicability of Section 16507 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 116.17. Section 3027 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3027. (a) If a court determines that an accusation of child abuse or neglect made during a child custody proceeding is false and the person making the accusation knew it to be false at the time the accusation was made, the court may impose reasonable money sanctions, not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) and reasonable attorney's fees incurred in recovering the sanctions, against the person making the accusation. For the purposes of this section, "person" includes a witness, a party, or a party's attorney.

(b) On motion by any person requesting sanctions under this section, the court shall issue its order to show cause why the requested sanctions should not be imposed. The order to show cause shall be served on the person against whom the sanctions are sought and a hearing thereon shall be scheduled by the court to be conducted at least 15 days after the order is served.

(c) The remedy provided by this section is in addition to any other remedy provided by law.

SEC. 116.18. Section 3028 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3028. (a) The court may order financial compensation for periods when a parent fails to assume the caretaker responsibility or when a parent has been thwarted by the other parent when attempting to exercise custody or visitation rights contemplated by a custody or visitation order, including, but not limited to, an order for joint physical custody, or by a written or oral agreement between the parents.

(b) The compensation shall be limited to (1) the reasonable expenses incurred for or on behalf of a child, resulting from the other parent's failure to assume caretaker responsibility or (2) the reasonable expenses incurred by a parent for or on behalf of a child, resulting from the other parent's thwarting of the parent's efforts to exercise custody or visitation rights. The expenses may include the value of caretaker services but are not limited to the cost of services provided by a third party during the relevant period.

(c) The compensation may be requested by noticed motion or an order to show cause, which shall allege, under penalty of perjury, (1) a minimum of one hundred dollars ($100) of expenses incurred or (2) at least three occurrences of failure to exercise custody or visitation rights or (3) at least three occurrences of the thwarting of efforts to exercise custody or visitation rights within the six months before filing of the motion or order.

(d) Attorney's fees shall be awarded to the prevailing party upon a showing of the nonprevailing party's ability to pay as required by Section 270.

SEC. 116.19. Section 3029 is added to the Family Code, to read:

3029. An order granting custody to a parent who is receiving, or in the opinion of the court is likely to receive, assistance pursuant to the Family Economic Security Act of 1982 (Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code) for the maintenance of the child shall include an order pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 4000) of Part 2 of Division 9 of this code, directing the noncustodial parent to pay any amount necessary for the support of the child, to the extent of the noncustodial parent's ability to pay.

SEC. 116.20. Section 3030 is added to the Family Code, to read:

3030. No parent shall be granted custody of, or unsupervised visitation with, a child if the parent has been convicted under Section 273a, 273d, or 647.6 of the Penal Code unless the court finds that there is no significant risk to the child.

SEC. 116.30. Section 3031 is added to the Family Code, to read:

3031. Where the court considers the issue of custody or visitation the court is encouraged to make a reasonable effort to ascertain whether or not any civil restraining orders or criminal protective orders are in effect that concern the parties or the minor. The court is encouraged not to make a custody or visitation order that is inconsistent with the civil restraining order or criminal protective order, unless the court makes both of the following findings:

(a) The custody or visitation order cannot be made consistent with the civil restraining order or criminal protective order.

(b) The custody or visitation order is in the best interest of the minor.

SEC. 116.40. Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 3040) of Part 2 of Division 8 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 116.50. Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 3040) is added to Part 2 of Division 8 of the Family Code, to read:

CHAPTER 2. MATTERS TO BE CONSIDERED IN GRANTING CUSTODY

3040. (a) Custody should be granted in the following order of preference according to the best interest of the child as provided in Section 3011:

(1) To both parents jointly pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 3080) or to either parent. In making an order granting custody to either parent, the court shall consider, among other factors, which parent is more likely to allow the child frequent and continuing contact with the noncustodial parent, subject to Section 3011, and shall not prefer a parent as custodian because of that parent's sex. The court, in its discretion, may require the parents to submit to the court a plan for the implementation of the custody order.

(2) If to neither parent, to the person or persons in whose home the child has been living in a wholesome and stable environment.

(3) To any other person or persons deemed by the court to be suitable and able to provide adequate and proper care and guidance for the child.

(b) This section establishes neither a preference nor a presumption for or against joint legal custody, joint physical custody, or sole custody, but allows the court and the family the widest discretion to choose a parenting plan that is in the best interest of the child.

3041. Before making an order granting custody to a person or persons other than a parent, without the consent of the parents, the court shall make a finding that granting custody to a parent would be detrimental to the child and that granting custody to the nonparent is required to serve the best interest of the child. Allegations that parental custody would be detrimental to the child, other than a statement of that ultimate fact, shall not appear in the pleadings. The court may, in its discretion, exclude the public from the hearing on this issue.

3042. If a child is of sufficient age and capacity to reason so as to form an intelligent preference as to custody, the court shall consider and give due weight to the wishes of the child in making an order granting or modifying custody.

3043. In determining the person or persons to whom custody should be granted under paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 3040, the court shall consider and give due weight to the nomination of a guardian of the person of the child by a parent under Article 1 (commencing with Section 1500) of Chapter 1 of Part 2 of Division 4 of the Probate Code.

SEC. 116.60. Section 3060 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3060. A petition for a temporary custody order, containing the statement required by Section 3409, may be included with the initial filing of the petition or action or may be filed at any time after the initial filing.

SEC. 116.61. Section 3061 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3061. If the parties have agreed to or reached an understanding on the custody or temporary custody of their children, a copy of the agreement or an affidavit as to their understanding shall be attached to the petition or action. As promptly as possible after this filing, the court shall, except in exceptional circumstances, enter an order granting temporary custody in accordance with the agreement or understanding or in accordance with any stipulation of the parties.

SEC. 116.70. Section 3080 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3080. There is a presumption, affecting the burden of proof, that joint custody is in the best interest of a minor child, subject to Section 3011, where the parents have agreed to joint custody or so agree in open court at a hearing for the purpose of determining the custody of the minor child.

SEC. 116.71. Section 3081 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3081. On application of either parent, joint custody may be ordered in the discretion of the court in cases other than those described in Section 3080, subject to Section 3011. For the purpose of assisting the court in making a determination whether joint custody is appropriate under this section, the court may direct that an investigation be conducted pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 3110).

SEC. 116.72. Section 3085 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3085. In making an order for custody with respect to both parents, the court may grant joint legal custody without granting joint physical custody.

SEC. 116.73. Section 3088 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3088. An order for the custody of a minor child entered by a court in this state or any other state may, subject to the jurisdictional requirements in Sections 3403 and 3414, be modified at any time to an order for joint custody in accordance with this chapter.

SEC. 116.74. Section 3100 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3100. (a) In making an order pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 3080), the court shall grant reasonable visitation rights to a parent unless it is shown that the visitation would be detrimental to the best interest of the child. In the discretion of the court, reasonable visitation rights may be granted to any other person having an interest in the welfare of the child.

(b) If a protective order, as defined in Section 6218, has been directed to a parent, the court shall consider whether the best interest of the child requires that any visitation by that parent shall be limited to situations in which a third person, specified by the court, is present. The court shall include in its deliberations a consideration of the nature of the acts from which the parent was enjoined and the period of time that has elapsed since that order. A parent may submit to the court the name of a person that the parent deems suitable to be present during visitation.

SEC. 116.75. Section 3101 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 116.76. Section 3101 is added to the Family Code, to read:

3101. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the court may grant reasonable visitation to a stepparent, if visitation by the stepparent is determined to be in the best interest of the minor child.

(b) If a protective order, as defined in Section 6218, has been directed to a stepparent to whom visitation may be granted pursuant to this section, the court shall consider whether the best interest of the child requires that any visitation by the stepparent be denied.

(c) Visitation rights may not be ordered under this section that would conflict with a right of custody or visitation of a birth parent who is not a party to the proceeding.

(d) As used in this section:

(1) "Birth parent" means "birth parent" as defined in Section 8512.

(2) "Stepparent" means a person who is a party to the marriage that is the subject of the proceeding, with respect to a minor child of the other party to the marriage.

SEC. 116.77. Section 3102 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3102. (a) If either parent of an unemancipated minor child is deceased, the children, parents, and grandparents of the deceased parent may be granted reasonable visitation with the child during the child's minority upon a finding that the visitation would be in the best interest of the minor child.

(b) In granting visitation pursuant to this section to a person other than a grandparent, the court shall consider the amount of personal contact between the person and the child before the application for the visitation order.

(c) This section does not apply if the child has been adopted by a person other than a stepparent or grandparent. Any visitation rights granted pursuant to this section before the adoption of the child automatically terminate if the child is adopted by a person other than a stepparent or grandparent.

SEC. 116.78. Section 3103 is added to the Family Code, to read:

3103. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in a proceeding described in Section 3021, the court may grant reasonable visitation to a grandparent of a minor child of a party to the proceeding if the court determines that visitation by the grandparent is in the best interest of the child.

(b) There is a rebuttable presumption affecting the burden of proof that the visitation of a grandparent is not in the best interest of a minor child if the child's parents agree that the grandparent should not be granted visitation rights.

(c) If a protective order as defined in Section 6218 has been directed to the grandparent during the pendency of the proceeding, the court shall consider whether the best interest of the child requires that visitation by the grandparent be denied.

(d) Visitation rights may not be ordered under this section if that would conflict with a right of custody or visitation of a birth parent who is not a party to the proceeding.

(e) As used in this section, "birth parent" means "birth parent" as defined in Section 8512.

SEC. 116.80. Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 3110) of Part 2 of Division 8 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 116.81. Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 3110) is added to Part 2 of Division 8 of the Family Code, to read:

CHAPTER 6. CUSTODY INVESTIGATION AND REPORT

3110. As used in this chapter, "court-appointed investigator" means a probation officer, domestic relations investigator, or court-appointed evaluator directed by the court to conduct an investigation pursuant to this chapter.

3111. (a) Where directed by the court, the court-appointed investigator shall conduct a custody investigation and file a written confidential report on it. At least 10 days before any hearing regarding custody of the child, the report shall be filed with the clerk of the court in which the custody hearing will be conducted and served on the parties or their attorneys. The report may be considered by the court.

(b) The report shall not be made available other than as provided in subdivision (a).

(c) The report may be received in evidence on stipulation of all interested parties and is competent evidence as to all matters contained in the report.

3112. (a) Where a court-appointed investigator is directed by the court to conduct a custody investigation or to undertake visitation work, including necessary evaluation, supervision, and reporting, the court shall inquire into the financial condition of the parent, guardian, or other person charged with the support of the minor. If the court finds the parent, guardian, or other person able to pay all or part of the expense of the investigation, report, and recommendation, the court may make an order requiring the parent, guardian, or other person to repay the county the amount the court determines proper.

(b) The repayment shall be made to the county officer designated by the board of supervisors, who shall keep suitable accounts of the expenses and repayments and shall deposit the collections in the county treasury.

3113. Where there has been a history of domestic violence between the parties, or where a protective order as defined in Section 6218 is in effect, at the request of the party alleging domestic violence in a written declaration under penalty of perjury or at the request of a party who is protected by the order, the parties shall meet with the court-appointed investigator separately and at separate times.

3114. Nothing in this chapter prohibits a court-appointed investigator from recommending to the court that counsel be appointed pursuant to Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 3150) to represent the minor child. In making that recommendation, the court-appointed investigator shall inform the court of the reasons why it would be in the best interest of the child to have counsel appointed.

3115. The court-appointed investigator who conducted the investigation pursuant to this chapter shall be present at the trial and may be called to testify by the judge or either party as to any matter investigated. The testimony of the court-appointed investigator is subject to questions, direct and cross, that are proper, and is competent evidence.

3116. Nothing in this chapter limits the duty of a court-appointed investigator to assist the appointing court in the transaction of the business of the court.

SEC. 116.85. Section 3150 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3150. (a) If the court determines that it would be in the best interest of the minor child, the court may appoint private counsel to represent the interests of the child in a custody or visitation proceeding.

(b) Upon entering an appearance on behalf of a child pursuant to this chapter, counsel shall continue to represent that child unless relieved by the court upon the substitution of other counsel by the court or for cause.

SEC. 116.86. Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 3155) of Part 2 of Division 8 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 116.87. Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 3160) is added to Part 2 of Division 8 of the Family Code, to read:

CHAPTER 11. MEDIATION OF CUSTODY AND VISITATION ISSUES

Article 1. General Provisions

3160. Each superior court shall make a mediator available. The court is not required to institute a family conciliation court in order to provide mediation services.

3161. The purposes of a mediation proceeding are as follows:

(a) To reduce acrimony that may exist between the parties.

(b) To develop an agreement assuring the child close and continuing contact with both parents that is in the best interest of the child.

(c) To effect a settlement of the issue of visitation rights of all parties that is in the best interest of the child.

3162. (a) Mediation of cases involving custody and visitation concerning children shall be governed by uniform standards of practice adopted by the Judicial Council.

(b) The standards of practice shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Provision for the best interest of the child and the safeguarding of the rights of the child to frequent and continuing contact with both parents.

(2) Facilitation of the transition of the family by detailing factors to be considered in decisions concerning the child's future.

(3) The conducting of negotiations in such a way as to equalize power relationships between the parties.

(c) In adopting the standards of practice, the Judicial Council shall consider standards developed by recognized associations of mediators and attorneys and other relevant standards governing mediation of proceedings for the dissolution of marriage.

(d) The Judicial Council shall offer training with respect to the standards to mediators.

3163. Courts shall develop local rules to respond to requests for a change of mediators or to general problems relating to mediation.

3164. (a) The mediator may be a member of the professional staff of a family conciliation court, probation department, or mental health services agency, or may be any other person or agency designated by the court.

(b) The mediator shall meet the minimum qualifications required of a counselor of conciliation as provided in Section 1815.

Article 2. Availability of Mediation

3170. If it appears on the face of a petition, application, or other pleading to obtain or modify a temporary or permanent custody or visitation order that custody, visitation, or both are contested, the court shall set the contested issues for mediation.

3171. (a) If a stepparent or grandparent has petitioned, or otherwise applied, for a visitation order pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 3100), the court shall set the matter for mediation.

(b) A natural or adoptive parent who is not a party to the proceeding is not required to participate in the mediation proceeding, but failure to participate is a waiver of that parent's right to object to a settlement reached by the other parties during mediation or to require a hearing on the matter.

3172. Mediation shall not be denied to the parties on the basis that paternity is at issue in a proceeding before the court.

3173. (a) Upon the adoption of a resolution by the board of supervisors authorizing the procedure, a petition may be filed pursuant to this chapter for mediation of a dispute relating to an existing order for custody, visitation, or both.

(b) The mediation of a dispute concerning an existing order shall be set not later than 60 days after the filing of the petition.

Article 3. Mediation Proceedings

3175. If a matter is set for mediation pursuant to this chapter, the mediation shall be set before or concurrent with the setting of the matter for hearing.

3176. (a) Notice of mediation and of any hearing to be held pursuant to this chapter shall be given to the following persons:

(1) Where mediation is required to settle a contested issue of custody or visitation, to each party and to each party's counsel of record.

(2) Where a stepparent or grandparent seeks visitation rights, to the stepparent or grandparent seeking visitation rights, to each parent of the child, and to each parent's counsel of record.

(b) Notice shall be given by certified mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, to the last known address.

3177. Mediation proceedings pursuant to this chapter shall be held in private and shall be confidential. All communications, verbal or written, from the parties to the mediator made in the proceeding are official information within the meaning of Section 1040 of the Evidence Code.

3178. An agreement reached by the parties as a result of mediation shall be limited as follows:

(a) Where mediation is required to settle a contested issue of custody or visitation, the agreement shall be limited to the resolution of issues relating to parenting plans, custody, visitation, or a combination of these issues.

(b) Where a stepparent or grandparent seeks visitation rights, the agreement shall be limited to the resolution of issues relating to visitation.

3179. A custody or visitation agreement reached as a result of mediation may be modified at any time at the discretion of the court, subject to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 3020), Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 3040), Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 3080), and Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 3100).

3180. (a) In mediation proceedings pursuant to this chapter, the mediator has the duty to assess the needs and interests of the child involved in the controversy, and is entitled to interview the child where the mediator considers the interview appropriate or necessary.

(b) The mediator shall use his or her best efforts to effect a settlement of the custody or visitation dispute that is in the best interest of the child, as provided in Section 3011.

3181. (a) In a proceeding in which mediation is required pursuant to this chapter, where there has been a history of domestic violence between the parties or where a protective order as defined in Section 6218 is in effect, at the request of the party alleging domestic violence in a written declaration under penalty of perjury or protected by the order, the mediator appointed pursuant to this chapter shall meet with the parties separately and at separate times.

(b) Any intake form that an agency charged with providing family court services requires the parties to complete before the commencement of mediation shall state that, if a party alleging domestic violence in a written declaration under penalty of perjury or a party protected by a protective order so requests, the mediator will meet with the parties separately and at separate times.

3182. (a) The mediator has authority to exclude counsel from participation in the mediation proceedings pursuant to this chapter if, in the mediator's discretion, exclusion of counsel is appropriate or necessary.

(b) The mediator has authority to exclude a domestic violence support person from a mediation proceeding as provided in Section 6303.

3183. (a) The mediator may, consistent with local court rules, submit a recommendation to the court as to the custody of or visitation with the child.

(b) Where the parties have not reached agreement as a result of the mediation proceedings, the mediator may recommend to the court that an investigation be conducted pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 3110) or that other action be taken to assist the parties to effect a resolution of the controversy before a hearing on the issues.

(c) In appropriate cases, the mediator may recommend that restraining orders be issued, pending determination of the controversy, to protect the well-being of the child involved in the controversy.

3184. Nothing in this chapter prohibits the mediator from recommending to the court that counsel be appointed, pursuant to Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 3150), to represent the minor child. In making this recommendation, the mediator shall inform the court of the reasons why it would be in the best interest of the minor child to have counsel appointed.

3185. (a) If issues that may be resolved by agreement pursuant to Section 3178 are not resolved by an agreement of all the parties who participate in mediation, the mediator shall inform the court in writing and the court shall set the matter for hearing on the unresolved issues.

(b) Where a stepparent or grandparent requests visitation, each natural or adoptive parent and the stepparent or grandparent shall be given an opportunity to appear and be heard on the issue of visitation.

3186. (a) An agreement reached by the parties as a result of mediation shall be reported to counsel for the parties by the mediator on the day set for mediation or as soon thereafter as practical, but before the agreement is reported to the court.

(b) An agreement may not be confirmed or otherwise incorporated in an order unless each party, in person or by counsel of record, has affirmed and assented to the agreement in open court or by written stipulation.

(c) An agreement may be confirmed or otherwise incorporated in an order if a party fails to appear at a noticed hearing on the issue involved in the agreement.

SEC. 116.90. Section 3190 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3190. (a) The court may require parents involved in a custody or visitation dispute, and the minor child, to participate in outpatient counseling with a licensed mental health professional, or through other community programs and services that provide appropriate counseling, including, but not limited to, mental health or substance abuse services, for not more than six months if the court finds both of the following:

(1) The dispute between the parents or between a parent and the child poses a substantial danger to the best interest of the child.

(2) The counseling is in the best interest of the child.

(b) If the court finds that the financial burden created by the order for counseling does not otherwise jeopardize a party's other financial obligations, the court shall fix the cost and shall order the entire cost of the services to be borne by the parties in the proportions the court deems reasonable.

(c) The court, in its finding, shall set forth reasons why it has found both of the following:

(1) The dispute poses a substantial danger to the best interest of the child and the counseling is in the best interest of the child.

(2) The financial burden created by the court order for counseling does not otherwise jeopardize a party's other financial obligations.

(d) The court shall not order the parties to return to court upon the completion of counseling. Either party may file a new order to show cause or motion after counseling has been completed, and the court may again order counseling consistent with this chapter.

SEC. 116.91. Section 3191 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3191. The counseling pursuant to this chapter shall be specifically designed to facilitate communication between the parties regarding their minor child's best interest, to reduce conflict regarding custody or visitation, and to improve the quality of parenting skills of each parent.

SEC. 116.92. Section 3192 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3192. In a proceeding in which counseling is ordered pursuant to this chapter, where there has been a history of domestic violence between the parties or where a protective order as defined in Section 6218 is in effect, at the request of a party alleging domestic violence in a written declaration under penalty of perjury or at the request of a party who is protected by the order, the parties shall meet with the mental health professional, or attend other community programs or services, separately at separate times.

SEC. 117. Section 3403 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3403. (a) A court of this state which is competent to decide child custody matters has jurisdiction to make a child custody determination by initial or modification decree if the conditions as set forth in any of the following paragraphs are met:

(1) This state (A) is the home state of the child at the time of commencement of the proceeding, or (B) had been the child's home state within six months before commencement of the proceeding and the child is absent from this state because of removal or retention by a person claiming custody of the child or for other reasons, and a parent or person acting as parent continues to live in this state.

(2) It is in the best interest of the child that a court of this state assume jurisdiction because (A) the child and the child's parents, or the child and at least one contestant, have a significant connection with this state, and (B) there is available in this state substantial evidence concerning the child's present or future care, protection, training, and personal relationships.

(3) The child is physically present in this state and (A) the child has been abandoned or (B) it is necessary in an emergency to protect the child because the child has been subjected to or threatened with mistreatment or abuse or is otherwise neglected or dependent. For the purposes of this subdivision, "subjected to or threatened with mistreatment or abuse" includes a child who has a parent who is a victim of domestic violence, as defined in Section 6211.

(4) Both of the following conditions are satisfied:

(A) It appears that no other state would have jurisdiction under prerequisites substantially in accordance with paragraph (1), (2), or (3) or another state has declined to exercise jurisdiction on the ground that this state is the more appropriate forum to determine the custody of the child.

(B) It is in the best interest of the child that this court assume jurisdiction.

(b) Except under the conditions specified in paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (a), physical presence in this state of the child, or of the child and one of the contestants, is not alone sufficient to confer jurisdiction on a court of this state to make a child custody determination.

(c) Physical presence of the child, while desirable, is not a prerequisite for jurisdiction to determine the custody of the child.

SEC. 118. Section 3408 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3408. (a) If the petitioner for an initial decree has wrongfully taken the child from another state or has engaged in similar reprehensible conduct, the court may decline to exercise jurisdiction for purposes of adjudication of custody if this is just and proper under the circumstances.

(b) Unless required in the interest of the child, the court shall not exercise its jurisdiction to modify a custody decree of another state if the petitioner, without consent of the person entitled to custody, has improperly removed the child from the physical custody of the person entitled to custody or has improperly retained the child after a visit or other temporary relinquishment of physical custody. If the petitioner has violated any other provision of a custody decree of another state, the court may decline to exercise its jurisdiction if this is just and proper under the circumstances.

(c) Where the court declines to exercise jurisdiction upon petition for an initial custody decree pursuant to subdivision (a), the court shall notify the parent or other appropriate person and the prosecuting attorney of the appropriate jurisdiction in the other state. If a request to that effect is received from the other state, the court shall order the petitioner to appear with the child in a custody proceeding instituted in the other state in accordance with Section 3421. If no request is made within a reasonable time after the notification, the court may entertain a petition to determine custody by the petitioner if it has jurisdiction pursuant to Section 3403.

(d) Where the court refuses to assume jurisdiction to modify the custody decree of another state pursuant to subdivision (b) or pursuant to Section 3414, the court shall notify the person who has legal custody under the decree of the other state and the prosecuting attorney of the appropriate jurisdiction in the other state and may order the petitioner to return the child to the person who has legal custody. If it appears that the order will be ineffective and the legal custodian is ready to receive the child within a period of a few days, the court may place the child in a foster care home for that period, pending return of the child to the legal custodian. At the same time, the court shall advise the petitioner that any petition for modification of custody must be directed to (1) the appropriate court of the other state which has continuing jurisdiction or (2) if that court declines jurisdiction, to a court in a state which has jurisdiction pursuant to Section 3403.

(e) In appropriate cases, a court dismissing a petition under this section may charge the petitioner with necessary travel and other expenses, including attorney's fees and the cost of returning the child to another state.

(f) In making a determination pursuant to subdivisions (a) to (e), inclusive, the court shall not consider as a factor weighing against the petitioner any taking of the child, or retention of the child after a visit or other temporary relinquishment of physical custody, from the person who has legal custody, if there is evidence that the taking or retention of the child was a result of domestic violence against the petitioner, as defined in Section 6211.

SEC. 119. Section 3409 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3409. (a) Every party in a custody proceeding in the party's first pleading or in an affidavit attached to that pleading shall give information under oath as to the child's present address, the places where the child has lived within the last five years, and the names and present addresses of the persons with whom the child has lived during that period. However, where there are allegations of domestic violence or child abuse, any addresses of the party alleging abuse and of the child that are unknown to the other party are confidential and may not be disclosed in the pleading or affidavit. In this pleading or affidavit, every party shall further declare under oath as to each of the following whether the party:

(1) Has participated, as a party, witness, or in any other capacity, in any other litigation concerning the custody of the same child in this or any other state.

(2) Has information of any custody proceeding concerning the child pending in a court of this or any other state.

(3) Knows of any person not a party to the proceedings who has physical custody of the child or claims to have custody or visitation rights with respect to the child.

(b) If the declaration as to any of the above items is in the affirmative, the declarant shall give additional information under oath as required by the court. The court may examine the parties under oath as to details of the information furnished and as to other matters pertinent to the court's jurisdiction and the disposition of the case.

(c) Each party has a continuing duty to inform the court of any custody proceeding concerning the child in this or any other state of which the party obtained information during this proceeding.

SEC. 120. Section 3555 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3555. Where support is ordered to be paid through the county officer designated by the court on behalf of a child or other party not receiving public assistance pursuant to the Family Economic Security Act of 1982 (Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code), the designated county officer shall forward the support received to the designated payee within the time standards prescribed by federal law and the State Department of Social Services.

SEC. 120.3. Section 3557 is added to the Family Code, to read:

3557. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, absent good cause to the contrary, the court, upon (1) determining an ability to pay and (2) consideration of the respective incomes and needs of the parties in order to ensure that each party has access to legal representation to preserve all of the party's rights, shall award reasonable attorney's fees to any of the following persons:

(a) A custodial parent or other person to whom payments should be made in any action to enforce any of the following:

(1) An existing order for child support.

(2) A penalty incurred pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 4720) of Part 5 of Division 9.

(b) A supported spouse in an action to enforce an existing order for spousal support.

SEC. 121. Section 3601 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3601. (a) An order for child support entered pursuant to this chapter continues in effect until the order (1) is terminated by the court or (2) terminates by operation of law pursuant to Sections 3900, 3901, 4007, and 4013.

(b) Subject to Section 3602, subdivision (a) applies notwithstanding any other provision of law and notwithstanding that the proceeding has not been brought to trial within the time limits specified in Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 583.110) of Title 8 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 122. Section 3621 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3621. In an action for child support that has been filed and served, the court may, without a hearing, make an order requiring a parent or parents to pay for the support of their minor child or children during the pendency of that action, pursuant to this chapter, the amount required by Section 4055 or, if the income of the obligated parent or parents is unknown to the applicant, then the minimum amount of support as provided in Section 11452 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 123. Section 3622 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3622. The court shall make an expedited support order upon the filing of all of the following:

(a) An application for an expedited child support order, setting forth the minimum amount the obligated parent or parents are required to pay pursuant to Section 4055 of this code or Section 11452 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(b) An income and expense declaration for both parents, completed by the applicant.

(c) A worksheet setting forth the basis of the amount of support requested.

(d) A proposed expedited child support order.

SEC. 124. Section 3623 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3623. (a) An application for the expedited support order confers jurisdiction on the court to hear only the issue of support of the child or children for whom support may be ordered.

(b) Nothing in this chapter prevents either party from bringing before the court at the hearing other separately noticed issues otherwise relevant and proper to the action in which the application for the expedited support order has been filed.

SEC. 124.5. Section 3650 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3650. Unless the provision or context otherwise requires, as used in this chapter, "support order" means a child, family, or spousal support order.

SEC. 124.6. Section 3680 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3680. The purpose of this article is to provide an additional, simplified method for the modification of child and spousal support orders.

SEC. 124.9. Section 3684 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3684. (a) The responding party may, within 30 days after the date of service of the notice of motion pursuant to Section 3683, file an objection and request for hearing. If the responding party files an objection and request for hearing, the responding party is responsible for requesting a hearing date and giving notice of the hearing to the moving party. The responding party shall file the original proof of service of the notice of the objection and request for hearing at the same time as the filing of the objection and the request for hearing.

(b) If it appears in the response to a request for modification of a child support order pursuant to this article that an issue other than support is contested with respect to the child, the other issue shall be set for mediation under Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 3160) of Part 2 of Division 8. A separate hearing shall be scheduled for the other issue. The pendency of the mediation proceeding shall not delay a hearing on the request for modification of the support order under this article.

SEC. 125. Section 3687 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3687. (a) The court may grant a modification of child support, not to exceed an amount equal to 10 percent of the current child support award for each year after the date on which the current child support award was granted, without requiring a showing of changed circumstances by the moving party, to the extent justified by the economic evidence presented by way of the income statements (and expense statements, if the court deems them necessary and relevant) of the parties.

(b) The court may grant an increase of spousal support, not to exceed an amount equal to the increase in the California All Consumer Price Index provided by the federal government for each year after the date on which the current spousal support award was granted, without requiring a showing of changed circumstances by the moving party, to the extent justified by the economic evidence presented by way of income statements (and expense statements, if the court deems them necessary and relevant) of the parties.

(c) If the responding party fails to file a response, the court shall order a modification of the support order without requiring the submission of economic evidence by the moving party.

SEC. 126. Section 3688 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3688. (a) In a case in which the request for modification is based on a significant decrease in the income of the moving party, the moving party shall present evidence of the moving party's decline in economic circumstances. The amount of the modification shall be based on the economic evidence presented by way of income statements (and expense statements, if the court deems them necessary and relevant) of the parties.

(b) If the responding party defaults in a case where the request for the modification is based on a significant decrease in the income of the moving party, the court shall order a modification based on the evidence.

(c) If the court considering the request for modification of an order for spousal support orders support according to guidelines in use within its jurisdiction, the amount of the modification shall be based on the guidelines. If no guidelines are in use, the amount of the modification shall be based on the factors used in determining the existing spousal support award.

(d) The court considering the request for modification of an order for child support shall order support according to the statewide uniform guideline in Article 2 (commencing with Section 4050) of Chapter 2 of Part 2.

SEC. 126.5. Section 3691 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3691. (a) The party filing a notice of motion to modify child support with the clerk pursuant to this article shall also mail a duplicate copy of the notice to the district attorney within five working days after filing.

(b) If the district attorney has previously attempted to enforce the spousal support obligation on which the motion is based, the party filing a notice of motion to modify spousal support with the clerk pursuant to this article shall also mail a duplicate copy of the notice to the district attorney within five working days of filing.

SEC. 127. Section 3761 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3761. (a) Upon application by a party or district attorney in any proceeding where the court has ordered either or both parents to maintain health insurance coverage under Article 1 (commencing with Section 3750), the court shall order the employer of the obligor parent or other person providing health insurance to the obligor to enroll the supported child in the health insurance plan available to the obligor through the employer or other person and to deduct the appropriate premium or costs, if any, from the earnings of the obligor unless the court makes a finding of good cause for not making the order.

(b) The application shall state that the party or district attorney seeking the assignment has given the obligor a written notice of the intent to seek a health insurance coverage assignment in the event of a default in instituting coverage required by court order on behalf of the parties' child and that the notice was transmitted by first-class mail, postage prepaid, or personally served at least 15 days before the date of the filing of the application. The written notice of the intent to seek an assignment required by this subdivision may be given at the time of filing a petition or complaint for support or at any later time, but shall be given at least 15 days before the date of filing the application under this section. The obligor may at any time waive the written notice required by this subdivision.

SEC. 128. Section 3805 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 129. Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 3830) is added to Part 1 of Division 9 of the Family Code, to read:

CHAPTER 9. SOFTWARE USED TO DETERMINE SUPPORT

3830. (a) On and after January 1, 1994, no court shall use any computer software to assist in determining the appropriate amount of child support or spousal support obligations, unless the software conforms to rules of court adopted by the Judicial Council prescribing standards for the software, which shall ensure that it performs in a manner consistent with the applicable statutes and rules of court for determination of child support or spousal support.

(b) The Judicial Council may contract with an outside agency or organization to analyze software to ensure that it conforms to the standards established by the Judicial Council. The cost of this analysis shall be paid by the applicant software producers and fees therefor shall be established by the Judicial Council in an amount that in the aggregate will defray its costs of administering this section.

SEC. 130. Section 3901 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3901. (a) The duty of support imposed by Section 3900 continues as to an unmarried child who has attained the age of 18 years, is a full-time high school student, and who is not self-supporting, until the time the child completes the 12th grade or attains the age of 19 years, whichever occurs first.

(b) Nothing in this section limits a parent's ability to agree to provide additional support or the court's power to inquire whether an agreement to provide additional support has been made.

SEC. 131. Section 3902 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3902. The court may direct that an allowance be made to the parent of a child for whom support may be ordered out of the child's property for the child's past or future support, on conditions that are proper, if the direction is for the child's benefit.

SEC. 132. Section 3930 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3930. A parent does not have the duty to support a child of the parent's child.

SEC. 133. Section 4003 of the Family Code is amended to read:

4003. In any case in which the support of a child is at issue, the court may, upon a showing of good cause, order a separate trial on that issue. The separate trial shall be given preference over other civil cases, except matters to which special precedence may be given by law, for assigning a trial date. If the court has also ordered a separate trial on the issue of custody pursuant to Section 3023, the two issues shall be tried together.

SEC. 134. Section 4004 of the Family Code is amended to read:

4004. In a proceeding where there is at issue the support of a child, the court shall require the parties to reveal whether a party is currently receiving, or intends to apply for, public assistance under the Family Economic Security Act of 1982 (Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code) for the maintenance of the child.

SEC. 135. Section 4005 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 136. Section 4010 of the Family Code is amended to read:

4010. In a proceeding in which the court orders a payment for the support of a child, the court shall, at the time of providing written notice of the order, provide the parties with a document describing the procedures by which the order may be modified.

SEC. 137. Article 2 (commencing with Section 4050) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 9 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 138. Article 2 (commencing with Section 4050) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 9 of the Family Code, to read:

Article 2. Statewide Uniform Guideline

4050. In adopting the statewide uniform guideline provided in this article, it is the intention of the Legislature to ensure that this state remains in compliance with federal regulations for child support guidelines.

4051. This article takes effect on July 1, 1992.

4052. The court shall adhere to the statewide uniform guideline and may depart from the guideline only in the special circumstances set forth in this article.

4053. In implementing the statewide uniform guideline, the courts shall adhere to the following principles:

(a) A parent's first and principal obligation is to support his or her minor children according to the parent's circumstances and station in life.

(b) Both parents are mutually responsible for the support of their children.

(c) The guideline takes into account each parent's actual income and level of responsibility for the children.

(d) Each parent should pay for the support of the children according to his or her ability.

(e) The guideline seeks to place the interests of children as the state's top priority.

(f) Children should share in the standard of living of both parents. Child support may therefore appropriately improve the standard of living of the custodial household to improve the lives of the children.

(g) Child support orders in cases in which both parents have high levels of responsibility for the children should reflect the increased costs of raising the children in two homes and should minimize significant disparities in the children's living standards in the two homes.

(h) The financial needs of the children should be met through private financial resources as much as possible.

(i) It is presumed that a parent having primary physical responsibility for the children contributes a significant portion of available resources for the support of the children.

(j) The guideline seeks to encourage fair and efficient settlements of conflicts between parents and seeks to minimize the need for litigation.

(k) The guideline is intended to be presumptively correct in all cases, and only under special circumstances should child support orders fall below the child support mandated by the guideline formula.

(l) Child support orders must ensure that children actually receive fair, timely, and sufficient support reflecting the state's high standard of living and high costs of raising children compared to other states.

4054. (a) The Judicial Council shall periodically review the statewide uniform guideline to recommend to the Legislature appropriate revisions.

(b) The review shall include economic data on the cost of raising children and analysis of case data, gathered through sampling or other methods, on the actual application of the guideline after the guideline's operative date. The review shall also include analysis of guidelines and studies from other states, and other research and studies available to or undertaken by the Judicial Council.

(c) Any recommendations for revisions to the guideline shall be made to ensure that the guideline results in appropriate child support orders, to limit deviations from the guideline, or otherwise to help ensure that the guideline is in compliance with federal law.

(d) The Judicial Council may also review and report on other matters, including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) The treatment of the income of a subsequent spouse or nonmarital partner.

(2) The treatment of children from prior or subsequent relationships.

(3) The application of the guideline in a case where a payor parent has extraordinarily low or extraordinarily high income, or where each parent has primary physical custody of one or more of the children of the marriage.

(4) The benefits and limitations of a uniform statewide spousal support guideline and the interrelationship of that guideline with the state child support guideline.

(5) Whether the use of gross or net income in the guideline is preferable.

(6) Whether the guideline affects child custody litigation or the efficiency of the judicial process.

(7) Whether the various assumptions used in computer software used by some courts to calculate child support comport with state law and should be made available to parties and counsel.

(e) The initial review by the Judicial Council shall be submitted to the Legislature and to the State Department of Social Services on or before December 31, 1993, and subsequent reviews shall occur at least every four years thereafter unless federal law requires a different interval.

(f) In developing its recommendations, the Judicial Council shall consult with a broad cross-section of groups involved in child support issues, including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) Custodial and noncustodial parents.

(2) Representatives of established women's rights and fathers' rights groups.

(3) Representatives of established organizations that advocate for the economic well-being of children.

(4) Members of the judiciary, district attorney's offices, the Attorney General's office, and the State Department of Social Services.

(5) Certified family law specialists.

(6) Academicians specializing in family law.

(7) Persons representing low-income parents.

(8) Persons representing recipients of assistance under the Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) program seeking child support services.

(g) In developing its recommendations, the Judicial Council shall seek public comment and shall be guided by the legislative intent that children share in the standard of living of both of their parents.

4055. (a) The statewide uniform guideline for determining child support orders is as follows: CS = K [HN − (H%) (TN)].

(b) (1) The components of the formula are as follows:

(A) CS = child support amount.

(B) K = amount of income to be allocated for child support as set forth in paragraph (3).

(C) HN = high earner's net monthly disposable income.

(D) H% = approximate percentage of time that the high earner has or will have primary physical responsibility for the children compared to the other parent. In cases in which parents have different time-sharing arrangements for different children, H% equals the average of the approximate percentages of time the high earner parent spends with each child.

(E) TN = total net monthly disposable income of both parties.

(2) To compute net disposable income, see Section 4059.

(3) K (amount of income allocated for child support) equals one plus H% (if H% is less than or equal to 50 percent) or two minus H% (if H% is greater than 50 percent) times the following fraction:

Total Net Disposable Income Per Month	K
$0–800	0.20 + TN/16,000
$801–7,000	0.25
$7,001–10,000	0.20 + 350/TN
$10,001–20,000	0.16 + 400/TN
Over $20,000	0.12 + 800/TN

For example, if H% equals 20 percent and the total monthly net disposable income of the parents is $1,000, K = (1 + 0.20) × 0.25, or 0.30. If H% equals 80 percent and the total monthly net disposable income of the parents is $1,000, K = (2 − 0.80) × 0.25, or 0.30.

(4) For more than one child, multiply CS by:

2 children	1.6
3 children	2
4 children	2.3
5 children	2.5
6 children	2.625
7 children	2.75
8 children	2.813
9 children	2.844
10 children	2.86

(5) If the amount calculated under the formula results in a positive number, the higher earner shall pay that amount to the lower earner. If the amount calculated under the formula results in a negative number, the lower earner shall pay the absolute value of that amount to the higher earner.

(6) If the children who are the subject of the child support order are receiving assistance under the Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) program, H% shall be set at zero in the formula.

(7) In any default proceeding where proof is by affidavit pursuant to Section 2336, or in any proceeding for child support in which a party fails to appear after being duly noticed, H% shall be set at zero in the formula if the noncustodial parent is the higher earner or at 100 if the custodial parent is the higher earner, where there is no evidence presented demonstrating the percentage of time that the noncustodial parent has primary physical responsibility for the children.

(8) Unless the court orders otherwise, the order for child support shall allocate the support amount so that the amount of support for the youngest child is the amount of support for one child, and the amount for the next youngest child is the difference between that amount and the amount for two children, with similar allocations for additional children. However, this paragraph does not apply to cases where there are different time-sharing arrangements for different children or where the court determines that the allocation would be inappropriate in the particular case.

4056. At the request of any party, the court shall state, in writing or on the record, the following information used in determining the statewide uniform guideline amount:

(a) The net monthly disposable income of each parent.

(b) The actual federal income tax filing status of each parent (for example, single, married, married filing separately, or head of household and number of exemptions).

(c) Deductions from gross income for each parent.

(d) The approximate percentage of time pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 4055 that each parent has primary physical responsibility for the children compared to the other parent.

(e) The amount of support that would be received under the formula.

(f) Any rebuttal factors found under subdivision (b) of Section 4057.

(g) A finding that the revised amount is in the best interests of the children.

(h) Any other findings required by federal law.

4057. (a) The amount of child support established by the formula provided in subdivision (a) of Section 4055 is presumed to be the correct amount of child support to be ordered.

(b) The presumption of subdivision (a) is a rebuttable presumption affecting the burden of proof and may be rebutted by admissible evidence showing that application of the formula would be unjust or inappropriate in the particular case, consistent with the principles set forth in Section 4053, because one or more of the following factors is found to be applicable by a preponderance of the evidence, and the court finds, in writing or on the record, that application of the formula would be unjust or inappropriate in the particular case and that the revised amount is in the best interests of the children:

(1) The parties have stipulated to a different amount of child support under subdivision (a) of Section 4065.

(2) The sale of the family residence is deferred pursuant to Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 3800) of Part 1 and the rental value of the family residence in which the children reside exceeds the mortgage payments, homeowner's insurance, and property taxes. The amount of any adjustment pursuant to this paragraph shall not be greater than the excess amount.

(3) A parent's subsequent spouse or nonmarital partner has income that helps meet that parent's basic living expenses, thus increasing the parent's disposable income available to spend on the children.

(4) The parent being ordered to pay child support has an extraordinarily high income and the amount determined under the formula would exceed the needs of the children.

(5) A party is not contributing to the needs of the children at a level commensurate with that party's custodial time.

(6) Application of the formula would be unjust or inappropriate due to special circumstances in the particular case. These special circumstances include, but are not limited to, the following:

(A) Cases in which the parents have different time-sharing arrangements for different children.

(B) Cases in which both parents have substantially equal time-sharing of the children and one parent has a much lower or higher percentage of income used for housing than the other parent.

(C) Cases in which the children have special medical or other needs that could require child support that would be greater than the formula amount.

4058. (a) The annual gross income of each parent means income from whatever source derived, except as specified in subdivision (c) and includes, but is not limited to, the following:

(1) Income such as commissions, salaries, royalties, wages, bonuses, rents, dividends, pensions, interest, trust income, annuities, workers' compensation benefits, unemployment insurance benefits, disability insurance benefits, social security benefits, and spousal support actually received from a person not a party to the proceeding to establish a child support order under this article.

(2) Income from the proprietorship of a business, such as gross receipts from the business reduced by expenditures required for the operation of the business.

(3) In the discretion of the court, employee benefits or self-employment benefits, taking into consideration the benefit to the employee, any corresponding reduction in living expenses, and other relevant facts.

(b) The court may, in its discretion, consider the earning capacity of a parent in lieu of the parent's income, consistent with the best interests of the children.

(c) Annual gross income does not include any income derived from child support payments actually received, and income derived from any public assistance program, eligibility for which is based on a determination of need. Child support received by a party for children from another relationship shall not be included as part of that party's gross or net income.

4059. The annual net disposable income of each parent shall be computed by deducting from his or her annual gross income the actual amounts attributable to the following items or other items permitted under this article:

(a) The state and federal income tax liability resulting from the parties' taxable income. Federal and state income tax deductions shall bear an accurate relationship to the tax status of the parties (that is, single, married, married filing separately, or head of household) and number of dependents. State and federal income taxes shall be those actually payable (not necessarily current withholding) after considering appropriate filing status, all available exclusions, deductions, and credits. Unless the parties stipulate otherwise, the tax effects of spousal support shall not be considered in determining the net disposable income of the parties for determining child support, but shall be considered in determining spousal support consistent with Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 4330) of Part 3.

(b) Deductions attributed to the employee's contribution or the self-employed worker's contribution pursuant to the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA), or an amount not to exceed that allowed under FICA for persons not subject to FICA, provided that the deducted amount is used to secure retirement or disability benefits for the parent.

(c) Deductions for mandatory union dues and retirement benefits, provided that they are required as a condition of employment.

(d) Deductions for health insurance or health plan premiums for the parent and for any children the parent has an obligation to support and deductions for state disability insurance premiums.

(e) Any child or spousal support actually being paid by the parent pursuant to a court order, to or for the benefit of any person who is not a subject of the order to be established by the court. In the absence of a court order, any child support actually being paid, not to exceed the amount established by the guideline, for natural or adopted children of the parent not residing in that parent's home, who are not the subject of the order to be established by the court, and of whom the parent has a duty of support. Unless the parent proves payment of the support, no deduction shall be allowed under this subdivision.

(f) Job-related expenses, if allowed by the court after consideration of whether the expenses are necessary, the benefit to the employee, and any other relevant facts.

(g) A deduction for hardship, as defined by Sections 4070 to 4073, inclusive, and applicable published appellate court decisions. The amount of the hardship shall not be deducted from the amount of child support, but shall be deducted from the income of the party to whom it applies. In applying any hardship under paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 4071, the court shall seek to provide equity between competing child support orders.

4060. The monthly net disposable income shall be computed by dividing the annual net disposable income by 12. If the monthly net disposable income figure does not accurately reflect the actual or prospective earnings of the parties at the time the determination of support is made, the court may adjust the amount appropriately.

4061. The amounts in Section 4062, if ordered to be paid, shall be considered additional support for the children and shall be computed in accordance with the following:

(a) If there needs to be an apportionment of expenses pursuant to Section 4062, the expenses shall be divided one-half to each parent, unless either parent requests a different apportionment pursuant to subdivision (b) and presents documentation which demonstrates that a different apportionment would be more appropriate.

(b) If requested by either parent, and the court determines it is appropriate to apportion expenses under Section 4062 other than one-half to each parent, the apportionment shall be as follows:

(1) The basic child support obligation shall first be computed using the formula set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 4055, as adjusted for any appropriate rebuttal factors in subdivision (b) of Section 4057.

(2) Any additional child support required for expenses pursuant to Section 4062 shall thereafter be ordered to be paid by the parents in proportion to their net disposable incomes as adjusted pursuant to subdivisions (c) and (d).

(c) In cases where spousal support is or has been ordered to be paid by one parent to the other, for purposes of allocating additional expenses pursuant to Section 4062, the gross income of the parent paying spousal support shall be decreased by the amount of the spousal support paid and the gross income of the parent receiving the spousal support shall be increased by the amount of the spousal support received for as long as the spousal support order is in effect and is paid.

(d) For purposes of computing the adjusted net disposable income of the parent paying child support for allocating any additional expenses pursuant to Section 4062, the net disposable income of the parent paying child support shall be reduced by the amount of any basic child support ordered to be paid under subdivision (a) of Section 4055. However, the net disposable income of the parent receiving child support shall not be increased by any amount of child support received.

4062. (a) The court shall order the following as additional child support:

(1) Child care costs related to employment or to reasonably necessary education or training for employment skills.

(2) The reasonable uninsured health care costs for the children. There is a rebuttable presumption that the costs actually paid for the uninsured health care needs of the children are reasonable.

(b) The court may order the following as additional child support:

(1) Costs related to the educational or other special needs of the children.

(2) Travel expenses for visitation.

4063. Unless there is an assignment of rights pursuant to Section 11477 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, any payment ordered pursuant to Section 4062 may be ordered paid directly to a provider of services.

4064. The court may adjust the child support order as appropriate to accommodate seasonal or fluctuating income of either parent.

4065. (a) Unless prohibited by applicable federal law, the parties may stipulate to a child support amount subject to approval of the court. However, the court shall not approve a stipulated agreement unless the parties declare all of the following:

(1) They are fully informed of their rights concerning child support.

(2) The order is being agreed to without coercion or duress.

(3) The agreement is in the best interests of the children involved.

(4) The needs of the children will be adequately met by the stipulated amount.

(b) A stipulated agreement of child support is not valid unless either of the following occurs:

(1) The parties declare the right to support has not been assigned to the county pursuant to Section 11477 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and no public assistance application is pending.

(2) The district attorney has joined in the stipulation by signing it. The district attorney shall not stipulate to a child support order below the guideline amount if the children are receiving assistance under the Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) program, if an application for public assistance is pending, or if the parent receiving support has not consented to the order.

(c) If the parties to a stipulated agreement stipulate to a child support order below the amount established by the statewide uniform guideline, no change of circumstances need be demonstrated to obtain a modification of the child support order to the applicable guideline level or above.

4066. Orders and stipulations otherwise in compliance with the statewide uniform guideline may designate as "family support" an unallocated total sum for support of the spouse and any children without specifically labeling all or any portion as "child support" as long as the amount is adjusted to reflect the effect of additional deductibility. The amount of the order shall be adjusted to maximize the tax benefits for both parents.

4067. It is the intent of the Legislature that the statewide uniform guideline shall be reviewed by the Legislature at least every four years and shall be revised by the Legislature as appropriate to ensure that its application results in the determination of appropriate child support amounts. The review shall include consideration of changes required by applicable federal laws and regulations or recommended from time to time by the Judicial Council pursuant to Section 4054.

4068. The Judicial Council may develop the following:

(a) Model worksheets to assist parties in determining the approximate amount of child support due under the formula provided in subdivision (a) of Section 4055 and the approximate percentage of time each parent has primary physical responsibility for the children.

(b) A form to assist the courts in making the findings and orders required by this article.

4069. The establishment of the statewide uniform guideline constitutes a change of circumstances for the purpose of any modification of child support order entered before the guideline's operative date.

4070. If a parent is experiencing extreme financial hardship due to justifiable expenses resulting from the circumstances enumerated in Section 4071, on the request of a party, the court may allow the income deductions under Section 4059 that may be necessary to accommodate those circumstances.

4071. (a) Circumstances evidencing hardship include the following:

(1) Extraordinary health expenses for which the parent is financially responsible, and uninsured catastrophic losses.

(2) The minimum basic living expenses of either parent's natural or adopted children for whom the parent has the obligation to support from other marriages or relationships who reside with the parent. The court, on its own motion or on the request of a party, may allow income deductions necessary to accommodate these expenses after making the deductions allowable under paragraph (1).

(b) The maximum hardship deduction under paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) for each child who resides with the parent may be equal to, but shall not exceed, the support awarded each child subject to the order. For purposes of calculating this deduction, the amount of support per child established by the statewide uniform guideline shall be the total amount ordered divided by the number of children and not the amount established under paragraph (8) of subdivision (b) of Section 4055.

(c) The Judicial Council may develop tables in accordance with this section to reflect the maximum hardship deduction, taking into consideration the parent's net disposable income before the hardship deduction, the number of children for whom the deduction is being given, and the number of children for whom the support award is being made.

4072. (a) If a deduction for hardship expenses is allowed, the court shall do both of the following:

(1) State the reasons supporting the deduction in writing or on the record.

(2) Document the amount of the deduction and the underlying facts and circumstances.

(b) Whenever possible, the court shall specify the duration of the deduction.

4073. The court shall be guided by the goals set forth in this article when considering whether or not to allow a financial hardship deduction, and, if allowed, when determining the amount of the deduction.

4074. This article applies to an award for the support of children, including those awards designated as "family support," that contain provisions for the support of children as well as for the support of the spouse.

4075. This article shall not be construed to affect the treatment of spousal support and separate maintenance payments pursuant to Section 71 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C. Sec. 71).

SEC. 139. Article 3 (commencing with Section 4100) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 9 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 139.5. The heading of Article 4 (commencing with Section 4200) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 9 of the Family Code is amended to read:

Article 3. Payment to Court Designated County Officer; Enforcement by District Attorney

SEC. 140. Section 4200 of the Family Code is amended to read:

4200. In any proceeding where a court makes or has made an order requiring the payment of child support to a parent receiving welfare moneys for the maintenance of children for whom support may be ordered, the court shall do both of the following:

(a) Direct that the payments of support shall be made to the county officer designated by the court for that purpose.

(b) Direct the district attorney to appear on behalf of the welfare recipient in any proceeding to enforce the order.

SEC. 141. Section 4201 of the Family Code is amended to read:

4201. In any proceeding where a court makes or has made an order requiring the payment of child support to the person having custody of a child for whom support may be ordered, the court may do either or both of the following:

(a) Direct that the payments shall be made to the county officer designated by the court for that purpose.

(b) Direct the district attorney to appear on behalf of the minor children in any proceeding to enforce the order.

SEC. 141.5. Section 4321 of the Family Code is amended to read:

4321. In a judgment of dissolution of marriage or legal separation of the parties, the court may deny support to a party out of the separate property of the other party in any of the following circumstances:

(a) The party has separate property, or is earning the party's own livelihood, or there is community property or quasi-community property sufficient to give the party proper support.

(b) The custody of the children has been awarded to the other party, who is supporting them.

SEC. 142. Section 4502 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 143. Section 4502 is added to the Family Code, to read:

4502. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a judgment for child, family, or spousal support, including a judgment for reimbursement or other arrearages, is exempt from any requirement that judgments be renewed. A judgment for child, family, or spousal support, including all lawful interest and penalties computed thereon, is enforceable until paid in full.

SEC. 144. Section 4573 of the Family Code is amended to read:

4573. If support is ordered to be paid through the district attorney on behalf of a child not receiving public assistance pursuant to the Family Economic Security Act of 1982 (Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code), the district attorney shall forward the support received pursuant to this chapter to the custodial parent or other person having care or control of the child or children involved.

SEC. 145. Section 4610 of the Family Code is amended to read:

4610. (a) Subject to Sections 4613, 4614, and 4615, in any proceeding where the court has ordered either or both parents to pay any amount for the support of a child for whom support may be ordered, upon an order to show cause or notice of motion, application, and declaration signed under penalty of perjury by the person or county officer to whom support has been ordered to have been paid stating that the parent or parents so ordered is in arrears in payment in a sum equal to the amount of 60 days of payments, the court shall issue to the parent or parents ordered to pay support, following notice and opportunity for a hearing, an order requiring that the parent or parents deposit assets to secure future support payments with the deposit holder designated by the court.

(b) In a proceeding under this article, upon request of any party, the court may also issue an ex parte restraining order as specified in Section 4620.

SEC. 146. Section 4614 of the Family Code is amended to read:

4614. The designation of assets subject to an order pursuant to this article shall be based upon concern for maximizing the liquidity and ready conversion into cash of the deposited asset. In all instances, the assets shall include a sum of money up to or equal in value to one year of support payments or six thousand dollars ($6,000) whichever is less, or any other assets, personal or real, designated by the court which equal in value up to one year of payments for support of the child, or six thousand dollars ($6,000), whichever is less, subject to Section 703.070 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 147. Section 4630 of the Family Code is amended to read:

4630. (a) Upon an obligor-parent's failure, within the time specified by the court, to make reasonable efforts to cure the default in child support payments or to comply with a court-approved payment plan, if payments continue in arrears, the deposit holder shall, not less than 25 days after providing the obligor-parent or parents with a written notice served personally or with return receipt requested, unless a motion or order to show cause has been filed to stop the use or sale, use the money or sell or otherwise process the deposited assets for an amount sufficient to pay the arrearage and the amount ordered by the court for the support currently due for the child for whom support may be ordered.

(b) Assets deposited pursuant to an order issued under Article 2 (commencing with Section 4610) shall be construed as being assets subject to levy pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 701.510) of Chapter 3 of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The sale of assets shall be conducted in accordance with Article 6 (commencing with Section 701.510) and Article 7 (commencing with Section 701.810) of Chapter 3 of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(c) The deposit holder may deduct from the deposited money the sum of one dollar ($1) for each payment made pursuant to this section.

SEC. 148. Section 4729 of the Family Code is amended to read:

4729. The district attorney or any other agency providing support enforcement services pursuant to Title IV-D of the federal Social Security Act shall enforce child support obligations utilizing the penalties provided for by this chapter to the extent permitted by federal law upon implementation of the Statewide Automated Child Support System (SACSS) prescribed in Section 10815 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and certification of the SACSS by the United States Department of Health and Human Services.

SEC. 149. Section 4730 of the Family Code is amended to read:

4730. At any hearing to set or modify the amount payable for the support of a child, the court shall not consider any penalties imposed under this chapter in determining the amount of current support to be paid.

SEC. 150. Section 4733 is added to the Family Code, to read:

4733. Penalties collected pursuant to this chapter shall be paid to the custodian of the child who is the subject of the child support judgment or order, whether or not the child is a recipient of public assistance.

SEC. 151. Section 4849 of the Family Code is amended to read:

4849. The obligee may register a foreign support order in a court of this state in the manner, with the effect, and for the purposes provided in this article.

SEC. 152. Section 4853 of the Family Code is amended to read:

4853. (a) Except as specified in this section, upon registration, the registered foreign support order shall be treated in the same manner as a support order issued by a court of this state. It has the same effect and is subject to the same procedures, defenses, and proceedings for reopening, vacating, or staying as a support order of this state and may be enforced and satisfied in like manner. Except as specified in this section, upon registration, a foreign order for the assignment of wages for support shall be treated for all purposes in the same manner as an earnings assignment order for support entered pursuant to Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 5200).

(b) The obligor has 20 days after the mailing or other service of notice of the registration of a foreign order of support or assignment of wages in which to file a noticed motion requesting the court to vacate the registration or for other relief. In an action under this section, there shall be no joinder of actions, coordination of actions, or cross-complaints, and the claims or defenses shall be limited strictly to the identity of the obligor, the validity of the underlying foreign support order or foreign order for the assignment of wages, or the accuracy of the obligee's statement of the amount of support remaining unpaid unless the amount has been previously established by a judgment or order. The obligor shall serve a copy of the motion, personally or by first-class mail, on the office of the district attorney, private attorney representing the obligee, or obligee representing himself or herself who filed the request for registration of the order, not less than 15 days prior to the date on which the motion is to be heard. If service is by mail, Section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure applies. If the obligor does not file the motion within 20 days, the registered foreign support order or foreign order for the assignment of wages and all other documents filed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 4852 are confirmed.

(c) At the hearing on the motion to vacate the registration of the order, the obligor may present only matters that would be available to the obligor as defenses in an action to enforce a support judgment. If the obligor shows and the court finds that an appeal from the order is pending or that a stay of execution has been granted, the court shall stay enforcement of the order until the appeal is concluded, the time for appeal has expired, or the order is vacated, upon satisfactory proof that the obligor has furnished security for payment of the support ordered as required by the rendering state. If the obligor shows and the court finds any ground upon which enforcement of a support order of this state may be stayed, the court shall stay enforcement of the order for an appropriate period if the obligor furnishes the same security for payment of the support ordered that is required for a support order of this state.

(d) Registration of an out-of-state order for the sole purpose of interstate wage withholding does not confer jurisdiction on the court for any purpose other than income withholding.

SEC. 152.5. Section 5206 of the Family Code is amended to read:

5206. "Earnings," to the extent that they are subject to an earnings assignment order for support under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, include:

(a) Wages, salary, bonus, money, and benefits described in Sections 704.110, 704.113, and 704.115 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(b) Payments due for services of independent contractors, dividends, rents, royalties, residuals, patent rights, or mineral or other natural resource rights.

(c) Payments or credits due or becoming due as a result of written or oral contracts for services or sales whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise.

(d) Payments due for workers' compensation temporary disability benefits.

(e) Any other payments or credits due or becoming due as a result of an enforceable obligation.

SEC. 153. Section 5245 of the Family Code is amended to read:

5245. Nothing in this chapter limits the authority of the district attorney to use any other civil and criminal remedies to enforce support obligations, regardless of whether or not the child or the obligee who is the parent, guardian, or other person entitled to receive payment is the recipient of welfare moneys.

SEC. 153.2. Section 5260 of the Family Code is amended to read:

5260. (a) The court may order that service of the assignment order be stayed only if the court makes a finding of good cause to stay service of the order. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, service of wage assignments issued for foreign orders for support, and service of foreign orders for the assignment of wages registered pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 4820) of Chapter 6, shall not be stayed pursuant to this subdivision.

(b) Good cause to stay service of the assignment order is limited to any of the following:

(1) The obligor has a history of uninterrupted, full, and timely payment, other than through an assignment order or other mandatory process, of previously ordered support during the preceding 12 months. If the obligor has not been subject to an order of support for 12 months before the issuance of the assignment order, the obligor may qualify for good cause under this paragraph if the obligor posts with the clerk of the court a cash bond or cash in an amount equal to three months' support. The court may not find good cause to stay service of the assignment order under this paragraph if the obligor owes an arrearage for prior support.

(2) The obligor proves and the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that service of the assignment order would cause extraordinary hardship upon the obligor. Whenever possible, the court shall specify a date that the stay ordered under this paragraph will automatically terminate.

(3) The parties sign a written agreement which provides for an alternative arrangement to ensure payment of the support obligation as ordered other than through the immediate service of an assignment order. The written agreement may include an agreement relating to the staying of the service of an assignment order. In a case where support is ordered to be paid through a county officer designated for that purpose, an agreement between the parties which includes the staying of the service of an assignment order shall include the agreement of the district attorney. The signing of an agreement pursuant to this paragraph does not preclude the party from seeking an assignment order in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 5261 upon violation of the agreement.

(4) The employer or district attorney has been unable to deliver payments under the assignment order for a period of six months due to the failure of the obligee to notify the employer or district attorney of a change of address.

SEC. 153.5. Division 10 (commencing with Section 5500) of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 154. Division 10 (commencing with Section 6200) is added to the Family Code, to read:

DIVISION 10. PREVENTION OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

PART 1. SHORT TITLE AND DEFINITIONS

6200. This division may be cited as the Domestic Violence Prevention Act.

6201. Unless the provision or context otherwise requires, the definitions in this part govern the construction of this code.

6203. "Abuse" means intentionally or recklessly to cause or attempt to cause bodily injury, or sexual assault, or to place a person in reasonable apprehension of imminent serious bodily injury to that person or to another.

6205. "Affinity," when applied to the marriage relation, signifies the connection existing in consequence of marriage between each of the married persons and the blood relatives of the other.

6209. "Cohabitant" means a person who regularly resides in the household. "Former cohabitant" means a person who formerly regularly resided in the household.

6211. "Domestic violence" is abuse perpetrated against any of the following persons:

(a) A spouse or former spouse.

(b) A cohabitant or former cohabitant, as defined in Section 6209.

(c) A person with whom the respondent is having or has had a dating or engagement relationship.

(d) A person with whom the respondent has had a child, where the presumption applies that the male parent is the father of the child of the female parent under the Uniform Parentage Act (Part 3 (commencing with Section 7600) of Division 12).

(e) A child of a party or a child who is the subject of an action under the Uniform Parentage Act, where the presumption applies that the male parent is the father of the child to be protected.

(f) Any other person related by consanguinity or affinity within the second degree.

6215. "Emergency protective order" means an order issued under Part 3 (commencing with Section 6240).

6218. "Protective order" means an order that includes any of the following restraining orders, whether issued ex parte, after notice and hearing, or in a judgment:

(a) An order described in Section 6320 enjoining specific acts of abuse.

(b) An order described in Section 6321 excluding a person from a dwelling.

(c) An order described in Section 6322 enjoining other specified behavior.

PART 2. GENERAL PROVISIONS

6220. The purposes of this division are to prevent the recurrence of acts of violence and sexual abuse and to provide for a separation of the persons involved in the domestic violence for a period sufficient to enable these persons to seek a resolution of the causes of the violence.

6221. (a) Unless the provision or context otherwise requires, this division applies to any order described in this division, whether the order is issued in a proceeding brought pursuant to this division, in an action brought pursuant to the Uniform Parentage Act (Part 3 (commencing with Section 7600) of Division 12), or in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, for nullity of marriage, or for legal separation of the parties.

(b) Nothing in this division affects the jurisdiction of the juvenile court.

6222. (a) There is no filing fee for a petition or response filed in a proceeding brought pursuant to this division.

(b) Fees otherwise payable by a petitioner to a law enforcement agency for serving an order issued under this division may be waived in any case in which the petitioner has requested a fee waiver on the initiating petition and has filed a declaration that demonstrates, to the satisfaction of the court, the financial need of the petitioner for the fee waiver.

(c) The declaration required by subdivision (b) shall be on one of the following forms:

(1) The form formulated and adopted by the Judicial Council for litigants proceeding in forma pauperis pursuant to Section 68511.3 of the Government Code, but the petitioner is not subject to any other requirements of litigants proceeding in forma pauperis.

(2) Any other form that the Judicial Council may adopt for this purpose pursuant to Section 6226.

(d) In conjunction with a hearing pursuant to this division, the court may make an order for the waiver of fees otherwise payable by the petitioner to a law enforcement agency for serving an order issued under this division.

6223. A custody or visitation order issued in a proceeding brought pursuant to this division is subject to Part 2 (commencing with Section 3020) of Division 8 (custody of children).

6224. An order described in this division shall state on its face the date of expiration of the order and the following statements in substantially the following form:

"This order is effective when made. The law enforcement agency shall enforce it immediately on receipt. It is enforceable anywhere in California by any law enforcement agency that has received the order or is shown a copy of the order. If proof of service on the restrained person has not been received, the law enforcement agency shall advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then shall enforce it."

6225. A petition for an order described in this division is valid and the order is enforceable without explicitly stating the address of the petitioner or the petitioner's place of residence, school, employment, the place where the petitioner's child is provided child care services, or the child's school.

6226. The Judicial Council shall prescribe the form of the orders and any other documents required by this division and shall promulgate forms and instructions for applying for orders described in this division.

6227. The remedies provided in this division are in addition to any other civil or criminal remedies that may be available to the petitioner.

PART 3. EMERGENCY PROTECTIVE ORDERS

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

6240. As used in this part:

(a) "Judicial officer" means a judge, commissioner, or referee designated under Section 6241.

(b) "Law enforcement officer" means one of the following officers who requests or enforces an emergency protective order under this part:

(1) A police officer.

(2) A sheriff's officer.

(3) A peace officer of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 830.2 of the Penal Code.

6241. The presiding judge of the superior court in each county shall designate at least one judge, commissioner, or referee to be reasonably available to issue orally, by telephone or otherwise, emergency protective orders at all times whether or not the court is in session.

CHAPTER 2. ISSUANCE AND EFFECT OF EMERGENCY PROTECTIVE ORDER

6250. A judicial officer may issue an ex parte emergency protective order where a law enforcement officer asserts reasonable grounds to believe either or both of the following:

(a) That a person is in immediate and present danger of domestic violence, based on the person's allegation of a recent incident of abuse or threat of abuse by the person against whom the order is sought.

(b) That a child is in immediate and present danger of abuse by a family or household member, based on an allegation of a recent incident of abuse or threat of abuse by the family or household member.

6251. An emergency protective order may be issued only if the judicial officer finds both of the following:

(a) That reasonable grounds have been asserted to believe that an immediate and present danger of domestic violence exists or that a child is in immediate and present danger of abuse.

(b) That an emergency protective order is necessary to prevent the occurrence or recurrence of domestic violence or child abuse.

6252. An emergency protective order may include any of the following specific orders, as appropriate:

(a) A protective order, as defined in Section 6218.

(b) An order determining the temporary care and control of any minor child of the endangered person and the person against whom the order is sought.

(c) An order authorized in Section 213.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, including provisions placing the temporary care and control of the endangered child and any other minor children in the family or household with the parent or guardian of the endangered child who is not a restrained party.

6253. An emergency protective order shall include all of the following:

(a) A statement of the grounds asserted for the order.

(b) The date and time the order expires.

(c) The address of the superior court for the district or county in which the endangered person resides.

(d) The following statements, which shall be printed in English and Spanish:

(1) "To the Protected Person: This order will last only until the date and time noted above. If you wish to seek continuing protection, you will have to apply for an order from the court, at the address noted above. You may seek the advice of an attorney as to any matter connected with your application for any future court orders. The attorney should be consulted promptly so that the attorney may assist you in making your application."

(2) "To the Restrained Person: This order will last until the date and time noted above. The protected party may, however, obtain a more permanent restraining order from the court. You may seek the advice of an attorney as to any matter connected with the application. The attorney should be consulted promptly so that the attorney may assist you in responding to the application."

(e) In the case of an endangered child, the following statement, which shall be printed in English and Spanish: "This order will last only until the date and time noted above. You may apply for a more permanent restraining order under Section 213.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code from the court at the address noted above. You may seek the advice of an attorney in connection with the application for a more permanent restraining order."

6254. The fact that the endangered person has left the household to avoid abuse does not affect the availability of an emergency protective order.

6255. An emergency protective order shall be issued without prejudice to any person.

6256. An emergency protective order expires not later than the close of judicial business on the second day of judicial business following the day of its issuance.

6257. If an emergency protective order concerns an endangered child, the child's parent or guardian who is not a restrained person, or a person having temporary custody of the endangered child, may apply to the court for a restraining order under Section 213.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

CHAPTER 3. DUTIES OF LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER

6270. A law enforcement officer who requests an emergency protective order shall reduce the order to writing and sign it.

6271. A law enforcement officer who requests an emergency protective order shall do all of the following:

(a) Serve the order on the restrained person, if the restrained person can reasonably be located.

(b) Give a copy of the order to the protected person or, if the protected person is a minor child, to a parent or guardian of the endangered child who is not a restrained person, if the parent or guardian can reasonably be located, or to a person having temporary custody of the endangered child.

(c) File a copy of the order with the court as soon as practicable after issuance.

6272. (a) A law enforcement officer shall use every reasonable means to enforce an emergency protective order.

(b) A law enforcement officer who acts in good faith to enforce an emergency protective order is not civilly or criminally liable.

6273. A law enforcement officer who requests an emergency protective order shall carry copies of the order while on duty.

PART 4. PROTECTIVE ORDERS AND OTHER DOMESTIC VIOLENCE PREVENTION ORDERS

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

6300. An order may be issued under this part, with or without notice, to restrain any person for the purpose of preventing a recurrence of domestic violence and ensuring a period of separation of the persons involved, if an affidavit shows, to the satisfaction of the court, reasonable proof of a past act or acts of abuse.

6301. (a) An order under this part may be granted to any person described in Section 6211.

(b) The right to petition for relief shall not be denied because the petitioner has vacated the household to avoid abuse, and in the case of a marital relationship, notwithstanding that a petition for dissolution of marriage, for nullity of marriage, or for legal separation of the parties has not been filed.

6302. An order issued under this part shall set forth on its face a notice in substantially the following form:

"NOTICE TO RESTRAINED PERSON: If you do not appear at the court hearing specified herein, the court may grant the requested orders for a period of up to 3 years without further notice to you."

6303. (a) It is the function of a support person to provide moral and emotional support for a person who alleges he or she is a victim of domestic violence. The support person shall assist the person in feeling more confident that he or she will not be injured or threatened by the other party during the proceedings where the person and the other party must be present in close proximity. The support person is not present as a legal advisor and shall not give legal advice.

(b) A support person may accompany either party to any proceeding to obtain a protective order, as defined in Section 6218. Where the party is not represented by an attorney, the support person may sit with the party at the table that is generally reserved for the party and the party's attorney.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, if a court has issued a protective order, a support person may accompany a party protected by the order during a mediation session held pursuant to a proceeding described in Section 3021. The agency charged with providing family court services shall advise the party protected by the order of the right to have a support person during mediation. A mediator may exclude a support person from a mediation session if the support person participates in the mediation session, or acts as an advocate, or the presence of a particular support person is disruptive or disrupts the process of mediation. The presence of the support person does not waive the confidentiality of the mediation, and the support person is bound by the confidentiality of the mediation.

(d) In a proceeding subject to this section, a support person may accompany a party in court where there are allegations or threats of domestic violence and, where the party is not represented by an attorney, may sit with the party at the table that is generally reserved for the party and the party's attorney.

(e) Nothing in this section precludes a court from exercising its discretion to remove a person from the courtroom who it believes is prompting, swaying, or influencing the party protected by the order.

6304. When making a protective order, as defined in Section 6218, where both parties are present in court, the court shall inform both the petitioner and the respondent of the terms of the order, including notice that the respondent is prohibited from purchasing or receiving or attempting to purchase or receive a firearm, and including notice of the penalty for violation.

6305. The court may not issue a mutual order enjoining the parties from specific acts of abuse described in Section 6320 unless both parties personally appear and each party presents written evidence of abuse or domestic violence. In this case, written evidence is not required if both parties agree that this requirement does not apply.

CHAPTER 2. ISSUANCE OF ORDERS

Article 1. Ex Parte Orders

6320. The court may issue an ex parte order enjoining a party from contacting, molesting, attacking, striking, threatening, sexually assaulting, battering, telephoning, contacting repeatedly by mail with the intent to harass, or disturbing the peace of the other party, and, in the discretion of the court, on a showing of good cause, of other named family and household members.

6321. (a) The court may issue an ex parte order excluding a party from the family dwelling, the dwelling of the other party, the common dwelling of both parties, or the dwelling of the person who has care, custody, and control of a child to be protected from domestic violence for the period of time and on the conditions the court determines, regardless of which party holds legal or equitable title or is the lessee of the dwelling.

(b) The court may issue an order under subdivision (a) only on a showing of all of the following:

(1) Facts sufficient for the court to ascertain that the party who will stay in the dwelling has a right under color of law to possession of the premises.

(2) That the party to be excluded has assaulted or threatens to assault the other party or any other person under the care, custody, and control of the other party, or any minor child of the parties or of the other party.

(3) That physical or emotional harm would otherwise result to the other party, to any person under the care, custody, and control of the other party, or to any minor child of the parties or of the other party.

6322. The court may issue an ex parte order enjoining a party from specified behavior that the court determines is necessary to effectuate orders under Section 6320 or 6321.

6323. Subject to Section 3064:

(a) The court may issue an ex parte order determining the temporary custody of a minor child on the conditions the court determines.

(b) The court may issue an ex parte order determining the right of a party to visit a minor child on the conditions the court determines in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, nullity of marriage, or legal separation of the parties, in an action under the Uniform Parentage Act (Part 3 (commencing with Section 7600) of Division 12), or in a proceeding commenced under this division in the case of a marital relationship between the parties.

6324. The court may issue an ex parte order determining the temporary use, possession, and control of real or personal property of the parties and the payment of any liens or encumbrances coming due during the period the order is in effect.

6325. The court may issue an ex parte order restraining a married person from specified acts in relation to community, quasi-community, and separate property as provided in Section 2045.

6326. Part 4 (commencing with Section 240) of Division 2 applies to the issuance of an ex parte order under this article.

Article 2. Orders Issuable After Notice and Hearing

6340. (a) The court may issue any of the orders described in Article 1 (commencing with Section 6320) after notice and a hearing.

(b) The court may issue an order described in Section 6321 excluding a person from a dwelling if the court finds that physical or emotional harm would otherwise result to the other party, to a person under the care, custody, and control of the other party, or to a minor child of the parties or of the other party.

6341. (a) If there is a presumption under Section 7611 that the respondent is the natural father of a minor child, and the child is in the custody of the petitioner, after notice and a hearing, the court may order a party to pay an amount necessary for the support and maintenance of the child if the order would otherwise be authorized in an action brought pursuant to the Uniform Parentage Act (Part 3 (commencing with Section 7600) of Division 12).

(b) An order issued pursuant to this section shall be without prejudice in an action brought pursuant to the Uniform Parentage Act (Part 3 (commencing with Section 7600) of Division 12).

6342. (a) After notice and a hearing, the court may issue any of the following orders:

(1) An order that restitution be paid to the petitioner for loss of earnings and out-of-pocket expenses, including, but not limited to, expenses for medical care and temporary housing, incurred as a direct result of the abuse inflicted by the respondent or any actual physical injuries sustained from the abuse.

(2) An order that restitution be paid by the petitioner for out-of-pocket expenses incurred by a party as a result of an ex parte order that is found by the court to have been issued on facts shown at a noticed hearing to be insufficient to support the order.

(3) An order that restitution be paid by the respondent to any public or private agency for the reasonable cost of providing services to the petitioner required as a direct result of the abuse inflicted by the respondent or any actual injuries sustained therefrom.

(b) An order for restitution under this section shall not include damages for pain and suffering.

6343. (a) Subject to subdivision (d), after notice and a hearing, the court may issue an order requiring any party to participate in counseling with a licensed mental health professional, or through other community programs and services that provide appropriate counseling, including, but not limited to, mental health or substance abuse services, where it is shown that the parties intend to continue to reside in the same household or have continued to reside in the same household after previous instances of domestic violence. The court may also order a restrained party to participate in batterer's treatment counseling.

(b) Where there has been a history of domestic violence between the parties or where a protective order, as defined in Section 6218, is in effect, at the request of the party alleging domestic violence in a written declaration under penalty of perjury or who is protected by the order, the parties shall participate in counseling separately and at separate times.

(c) The court shall fix the costs and shall order the entire cost of the services to be borne by the parties in the proportions the court deems reasonable.

(d) Before issuing the court order requiring counseling, the court shall find that the financial burden created by the court order for counseling does not otherwise jeopardize a party's other financial obligations.

6344. After notice and a hearing, the court may issue an order for the payment of attorney's fees and costs of the prevailing party.

6345. (a) In the discretion of the court, an order issued after notice and a hearing under this article may have a duration of not more than three years, unless otherwise terminated or extended by further order of the court either on written stipulation filed with the court or on the motion of a party.

(b) The failure to state the expiration date on the face of the form creates an order with a duration of three years from the date of issuance.

(c) Nothing in this section prohibits parties, by written stipulation, from creating an order with a permanent duration.

Article 3. Orders Included in Judgment

6360. A judgment entered in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, for nullity of marriage, for legal separation of the parties, in a proceeding brought pursuant to this division, or in an action brought pursuant to the Uniform Parentage Act (Part 3 (commencing with Section 7600) of Division 12) may include a protective order as defined in Section 6218.

6361. If an order is included in a judgment pursuant to this article, the judgment shall state on its face both of the following:

(a) Which provisions of the judgment are the orders.

(b) The date of expiration of the orders, which shall be not more than three years from the date the judgment is issued, unless extended by the court after notice and a hearing.

CHAPTER 3. REGISTRATION AND ENFORCEMENT OF ORDERS

6380. The court shall order the petitioner or the attorney for the petitioner to deliver, or the county clerk to mail, a copy of an order issued under this part, or an extension, modification, or termination of the order, and any subsequent proof of service, by the close of the business day on which the order, extension, modification, or termination was made, to each local law enforcement agency designated by the petitioner or the attorney for the petitioner having jurisdiction over the residence of the petitioner, the residence of a party with care, custody, and control of a child to be protected from domestic violence, and other locations where the court determines that acts of domestic violence against the petitioner and any other person protected by the order are likely to occur.

6381. (a) Notwithstanding Section 6380 and subject to subdivision (b), an order issued under this part is enforceable in any place in this state.

(b) An order issued under this part is not enforceable by a law enforcement agency of a political subdivision unless that law enforcement agency has received a copy of the order pursuant to Section 6380 or has otherwise received a copy of the order, or the officer enforcing the order has been shown a copy of the order.

6382. Each appropriate law enforcement agency shall make available to any law enforcement officer responding to the scene of reported domestic violence, through an existing system for verification, information as to the existence, terms, and current status of an order issued under this part.

6383. (a) An order issued under this part may, on request of the petitioner, be served on the respondent by any law enforcement officer who is present at the scene of reported domestic violence involving the parties to the proceeding.

(b) The moving party shall provide the officer with an endorsed copy of the order and a proof of service which the officer shall complete and transmit to the issuing court.

(c) It is a rebuttable presumption that the proof of service was signed on the date of service.

6384. (a) If a person named in an order issued under this part has not been served personally with the order but has received actual notice of the existence and substance of the order through personal appearance in court to hear the terms of the order from the court, no additional proof of service is required for enforcement of the order.

(b) The judicial forms for orders issued under this part shall contain a statement in substantially the following form:

"NO ADDITIONAL PROOF OF SERVICE IS REQUIRED IF THE FACE OF THIS FORM INDICATES THAT BOTH PARTIES WERE PERSONALLY PRESENT AT THE HEARING WHERE THE ORDER WAS ISSUED."

6385. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), on receipt of a copy of a protective order, as defined in Section 6218, together with the subsequent proof of service of the protective order, the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the residence of the petitioner shall immediately notify the Department of Justice regarding the name, race, date of birth, and other personal descriptive information as required by a form prescribed by the Department of Justice, the date of issuance of the order, and the duration of the order or its expiration date.

(b) Proof of service of the protective order is not required for the purposes of this section if the order indicates on its face that both parties were personally present at the hearing where the order was issued and that, for the purpose of Section 6384, no proof of service is required.

(c) The failure of the petitioner to provide the Department of Justice with the personal descriptive information regarding the person restrained does not invalidate the protective order.

(d) If a court issues a modification, extension, or termination of the protective order described in subdivision (a), the court shall notify the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the residence of the petitioner. The law enforcement agency shall then immediately notify the Department of Justice.

(e) There is no civil liability on the part of, and no cause of action arises against, an employee of a local law enforcement agency or the Department of Justice, acting within the scope of employment, if a person described in subdivision (g) of Section 12021 of the Penal Code unlawfully purchases or receives or attempts to purchase or receive a firearm and a person is injured by that firearm or a person who is otherwise entitled to receive a firearm is denied a firearm and either wrongful action is due to a failure of a court to provide the notification provided for in this section.

6386. (a) The court may, in its discretion, appoint counsel to represent the petitioner in a proceeding to enforce the terms of a protective order, as defined in Section 6218.

(b) In a proceeding in which private counsel was appointed by the court pursuant to subdivision (a), the court may order the respondent to pay reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred by the petitioner.

6387. The court shall order the county clerk to provide to a petitioner, without cost, five certified, stamped, and endorsed copies of any order issued under this part, and of an extension, modification, or termination of the order.

6388. A willful and knowing violation of a protective order, as defined in Section 6218, is a crime punishable as provided by Section 273.6 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 155. Section 6924 of the Family Code is amended to read:

6924. (a) As used in this section:

(1) "Mental health treatment or counseling services" means the provision of mental health treatment or counseling on an outpatient basis by any of the following:

(A) A governmental agency.

(B) A person or agency having a contract with a governmental agency to provide the services.

(C) An agency that receives funding from community united funds.

(D) A runaway house or crisis resolution center.

(E) A professional person, as defined in paragraph (2).

(2) "Professional person" means any of the following:

(A) A person designated as a mental health professional in Sections 622 to 626, inclusive, of Article 8 of Subchapter 3 of Chapter 1 of Title 9 of the California Code of Regulations.

(B) A marriage, family and child counselor as defined in Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 4980) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code.

(C) A licensed educational psychologist as defined in Article 5 (commencing with Section 4986) of Chapter 13 of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code.

(D) A credentialed school psychologist as described in Section 49424 of the Education Code.

(E) A clinical psychologist as defined in Section 1316.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(F) The chief administrator of an agency referred to in paragraph (1) or (3).

(3) "Residential shelter services" means any of the following:

(A) The provision of residential and other support services to minors on a temporary or emergency basis in a facility that services only minors by a governmental agency, a person or agency having a contract with a governmental agency to provide these services, an agency that receives funding from community funds, or a licensed community care facility or crisis resolution center.

(B) The provision of other support services on a temporary or emergency basis by any professional person as defined in paragraph (2).

(b) A minor who is 12 years of age or older may consent to mental health treatment or counseling on an outpatient basis, or to residential shelter services, if both of the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) The minor, in the opinion of the attending professional person, is mature enough to participate intelligently in the outpatient services or residential shelter services.

(2) The minor (A) would present a danger of serious physical or mental harm to self or to others without the mental health treatment or counseling or residential shelter services, or (B) is the alleged victim of incest or child abuse.

(c) A professional person offering residential shelter services, whether as an individual or as a representative of an entity specified in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), shall make his or her best efforts to notify the parent or guardian of the provision of services.

(d) The mental health treatment or counseling of a minor authorized by this section shall include involvement of the minor's parent or guardian unless, in the opinion of the professional person who is treating or counseling the minor, the involvement would be inappropriate. The professional person who is treating or counseling the minor shall state in the client record whether and when the person attempted to contact the minor's parent or guardian, and whether the attempt to contact was successful or unsuccessful, or the reason why, in the professional person's opinion, it would be inappropriate to contact the minor's parent or guardian.

(e) The minor's parents or guardian are not liable for payment for mental health treatment or counseling services provided pursuant to this section unless the parent or guardian participates in the mental health treatment or counseling, and then only for services rendered with the participation of the parent or guardian. The minor's parents or guardian are not liable for payment for any residential shelter services provided pursuant to this section unless the parent or guardian consented to the provision of those services.

(f) This section does not authorize a minor to receive convulsive therapy or psychosurgery as defined in subdivisions (f) and (g) of Section 5325 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or psychotropic drugs without the consent of the minor's parent or guardian.

SEC. 156. Section 7120 of the Family Code is amended to read:

7120. (a) A minor may petition the superior court of the county in which the minor resides or is temporarily domiciled for a declaration of emancipation.

(b) The petition shall set forth with specificity all of the following facts:

(1) The minor is at least 14 years of age.

(2) The minor willingly lives separate and apart from the minor's parents or guardian with the consent or acquiescence of the minor's parents or guardian.

(3) The minor is managing his or her own financial affairs. As evidence of this, the minor shall complete and attach a declaration of income and expenses as provided in Section 1285.50 of the California Rules of Court.

(4) The source of the minor's income is not derived from any activity declared to be a crime by the laws of this state or the laws of the United States.

SEC. 157. Section 7121 of the Family Code is amended to read:

7121. (a) Before the petition for a declaration of emancipation is heard, notice the court determines is reasonable shall be given to the minor's parents, guardian, or other person entitled to the custody of the minor, or proof shall be made to the court that their addresses are unknown or that for other reasons the notice cannot be given.

(b) The clerk of the court shall also notify the district attorney of the county where the matter is to be heard of the proceeding. If the minor is a ward or dependent child of the court, notice shall be given to the probation department.

(c) The notice shall include a form whereby the minor's parents, guardian, or other person entitled to the custody of the minor may give their written consent to the petitioner's emancipation. The notice shall include a warning that a court may void or rescind the declaration of emancipation and the parents may become liable for support and medical insurance coverage pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 4000) of Part 2 of Division 9 of this code and Sections 11350, 11350.1, 11475.1, and 11490 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 158. Section 7132 of the Family Code is amended to read:

7132. (a) A petition to rescind a declaration of emancipation on the ground that the minor is indigent and has no means of support may be filed by the minor declared emancipated, by the minor's conservator, or by the district attorney of the county in which the minor resides. The petition shall be filed in the county in which the minor or the conservator resides.

(b) The minor may be considered indigent if the minor's only source of income is from public assistance benefits. The court shall consider the impact of the rescission of the declaration of emancipation on the minor and shall find the rescission of the declaration of emancipation will not be contrary to the best interest of the minor before granting the order to rescind.

SEC. 159. Section 7133 of the Family Code is amended to read:

7133. (a) Before a petition under this article is heard, notice the court determines is reasonable shall be given to the minor's parents or guardian, or proof shall be made to the court that their addresses are unknown or that for other reasons the notice cannot be given.

(b) The notice to parents shall state that if the declaration of emancipation is voided or rescinded, the parents may be liable to provide support and medical insurance coverage for the child pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 4000) of Part 2 of Division 9 of this code and Sections 11350, 11350.1, 11475.1, and 11490 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(c) No liability accrues to a parent or guardian not given actual notice, as a result of voiding or rescinding the declaration of emancipation, until that parent or guardian is given actual notice.

SEC. 160. The heading of Part 1 (commencing with Section 7500) of Division 12 of the Family Code is amended to read:

PART 1. RIGHTS OF PARENTS

SEC. 161. Section 7500 of the Family Code is amended and renumbered to read:

7540. Except as provided in Section 7541, the child of a wife cohabiting with her husband, who is not impotent or sterile, is conclusively presumed to be a child of the marriage.

SEC. 162. Section 7500 is added to the Family Code, to read:

7500. (a) The mother of an unemancipated minor child, and the father, if presumed to be the father under Section 7611, are equally entitled to the services and earnings of the child.

(b) If one parent is dead, is unable or refuses to take custody, or has abandoned the child, the other parent is entitled to the services and earnings of the child.

SEC. 163. Section 7501 of the Family Code is amended and renumbered to read:

7541. (a) Notwithstanding Section 7540, if the court finds that the conclusions of all the experts, as disclosed by the evidence based on blood tests performed pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 7550), are that the husband is not the father of the child, the question of paternity of the husband shall be resolved accordingly.

(b) The notice of motion for blood tests under this section may be filed not later than two years from the child's date of birth by the husband, or for the purposes of establishing paternity by the presumed father or the child through or by the child's guardian ad litem. As used in this subdivision, "presumed father" has the meaning given in Sections 7611 and 7612.

(c) The notice of motion for blood tests under this section may be filed by the mother of the child not later than two years from the child's date of birth if the child's biological father has filed an affidavit with the court acknowledging paternity of the child.

(d) The notice of motion for blood tests pursuant to this section shall be supported by a declaration under oath submitted by the moving party stating the factual basis for placing the issue of paternity before the court.

(e) Subdivision (a) does not apply in any of the following cases:

(1) A case which reached final judgment of paternity on or before September 30, 1980.

(2) A case coming within Section 7613.

(3) A case in which the wife, with the consent of the husband, conceived by means of a surgical procedure.

SEC. 164. Section 7501 is added to the Family Code, to read:

7501. A parent entitled to the custody of a child has a right to change the residence of the child, subject to the power of the court to restrain a removal that would prejudice the rights or welfare of the child.

SEC. 165. Section 7502 is added to the Family Code, to read:

7502. The parent, as such, has no control over the property of the child.

SEC. 166. Section 7503 is added to the Family Code, to read:

7503. The employer of a minor shall pay the earnings of the minor to the minor until the parent or guardian entitled to the earnings gives the employer notice that the parent or guardian claims the earnings.

SEC. 167. Section 7504 is added to the Family Code, to read:

7504. The parent, whether solvent or insolvent, may relinquish to the child the right of controlling the child and receiving the child's earnings. Abandonment by the parent is presumptive evidence of that relinquishment.

SEC. 168. Section 7505 is added to the Family Code, to read:

7505. The authority of a parent ceases on any of the following:

(a) The appointment, by a court, of a guardian of the person of the child.

(b) The marriage of the child.

(c) The child attaining the age of majority.

SEC. 169. Section 7506 is added to the Family Code, to read:

7506. Where a child, after attaining the age of majority, continues to serve and to be supported by the parent, neither party is entitled to compensation, in the absence of an agreement for the compensation.

SEC. 170. Section 7507 is added to the Family Code, to read:

7507. The abuse of parental authority is the subject of judicial cognizance in a civil action brought by the child, or by the child's relative within the third degree, or by the supervisors of the county where the child resides; and when the abuse is established, the child may be freed from the dominion of the parent, and the duty of support and education enforced.

SEC. 171. A part heading is added immediately preceding Section 7540 of the Family Code, to read:

PART 2. PRESUMPTION CONCERNING CHILD OF MARRIAGE AND BLOOD TESTS TO DETERMINE PATERNITY

SEC. 172. A chapter heading is added immediately preceding Section 7540 of the Family Code, to read:

CHAPTER 1. CHILD OF WIFE COHABITING WITH HUSBAND

SEC. 173. The heading of Part 2 (commencing with Section 7550) of Division 12 of the Family Code is amended to read:

CHAPTER 2. BLOOD TESTS TO DETERMINE PATERNITY

SEC. 174. Section 7550 of the Family Code is amended to read:

7550. This chapter may be cited as the Uniform Act on Blood Tests to Determine Paternity.

SEC. 175. Section 7555 of the Family Code is amended to read:

7555. (a) There is a rebuttable presumption, affecting the burden of proof, of paternity, if the court finds that the paternity index, as calculated by the experts qualified as examiners of genetic markers, is 100 or greater. This presumption may be rebutted by a preponderance of the evidence.

(b) As used in this section:

(1) "Genetic markers" mean separate genes or complexes of genes identified as a result of blood tests.

(2) "Paternity index" means the commonly accepted indicator used for denoting the existence of paternity. It expresses the relative strength of the test results for and against paternity. The paternity index, computed using results of various paternity tests following accepted statistical principles, shall be in accordance with the method of expression accepted at the International Conference on Parentage Testing at Airlie House, Virginia, May 1982, sponsored by the American Association of Blood Banks.

SEC. 175.5. Section 7604 of the Family Code is amended to read:

7604. A court may order pendente lite relief consisting of a custody or visitation order pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 3020) of Division 8, if the court finds both of the following:

(a) Based on the tests authorized by Section 7541, a parent and child relationship exists pursuant to Section 7540.

(b) The custody or visitation order would be in the best interest of the child.

SEC. 176. Section 7611 of the Family Code is amended to read:

7611. A man is presumed to be the natural father of a child if he meets the conditions provided in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 7540) of Part 2 or in any of the following subdivisions:

(a) He and the child's natural mother are or have been married to each other and the child is born during the marriage, or within 300 days after the marriage is terminated by death, annulment, declaration of invalidity, or divorce, or after a judgment of separation is entered by a court.

(b) Before the child's birth, he and the child's natural mother have attempted to marry each other by a marriage solemnized in apparent compliance with law, although the attempted marriage is or could be declared invalid, and either of the following is true:

(1) If the attempted marriage could be declared invalid only by a court, the child is born during the attempted marriage, or within 300 days after its termination by death, annulment, declaration of invalidity, or divorce.

(2) If the attempted marriage is invalid without a court order, the child is born within 300 days after the termination of cohabitation.

(c) After the child's birth, he and the child's natural mother have married, or attempted to marry, each other by a marriage solemnized in apparent compliance with law, although the attempted marriage is or could be declared invalid, and either of the following is true:

(1) With his consent, he is named as the child's father on the child's birth certificate.

(2) He is obligated to support the child under a written voluntary promise or by court order.

(d) He receives the child into his home and openly holds out the child as his natural child.

(e) If the child was born and resides in a nation with which the United States engages in an Orderly Departure Program or successor program, he acknowledges that he is the child's father in a declaration under penalty of perjury, as specified in Section 2015.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure. This subdivision shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and on that date shall become inoperative.

SEC. 177. Section 7611.5 is added to the Family Code, to read:

7611.5. Where Section 7611 does not apply, a man shall not be presumed to be the natural father of a child if either of the following is true:

(a) The child was conceived as a result of an act in violation of Section 261 of the Penal Code and the father was convicted of that violation.

(b) The child was conceived as a result of an act in violation of Section 261.5 of the Penal Code, the father was convicted of that violation, and the mother was under the age of 15 years and the father was 21 years of age or older at the time of conception.

SEC. 178. Section 7612 of the Family Code is amended to read:

7612. (a) Except as provided in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 7540) of Part 2 or in Section 20102, a presumption under Section 7611 is a rebuttable presumption affecting the burden of proof and may be rebutted in an appropriate action only by clear and convincing evidence.

(b) If two or more presumptions arise under Section 7611 which conflict with each other, the presumption which on the facts is founded on the weightier considerations of policy and logic controls.

(c) The presumption under Section 7611 is rebutted by a judgment establishing paternity of the child by another man.

SEC. 178.5. Section 7631 of the Family Code is amended to read:

7631. Except as to cases coming within Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 7540) of Part 2, a man not a presumed father may bring an action for the purpose of declaring that he is the natural father of a child having a presumed father under Section 7611, if the mother relinquishes for, consents to, or proposes to relinquish for or consent to, the adoption of the child. An action under this section shall be brought within 30 days after (1) the man is served as prescribed in Section 7666 with a notice that he is or could be the father of the child or (2) the birth of the child, whichever is later. The commencement of the action suspends a pending proceeding in connection with the adoption of the child until a judgment in the action is final.

SEC. 179. Section 7637 of the Family Code is amended to read:

7637. The judgment or order may contain any other provision directed against the appropriate party to the proceeding, concerning the duty of support, the custody and guardianship of the child, visitation privileges with the child, the furnishing of bond or other security for the payment of the judgment, or any other matter in the best interest of the child. The judgment or order may direct the father to pay the reasonable expenses of the mother's pregnancy and confinement.

SEC. 179.5. Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 7700) of Part 3 of Division 12 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 179.6. Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 7700) is added to Part 3 of Division 12 of the Family Code, to read:

CHAPTER 6. PROTECTIVE AND RESTRAINING ORDERS

Article 1. Orders in Summons

7700. In addition to the contents required by Section 412.20 of the Code of Civil Procedure, in a proceeding under this part the summons shall contain a temporary restraining order restraining all parties, without the prior written consent of the other party or an order of the court, from removing from the state any minor child for whom the proceeding seeks to establish a parent and child relationship.

Article 2. Ex Parte Orders

7710. During the pendency of a proceeding under this part, on application of a party in the manner provided by Part 4 (commencing with Section 240) of Division 2, the court may issue ex parte a protective order as defined in Section 6218 and any other order as provided in Article 1 (commencing with Section 6320) of Chapter 2 of Part 4 of Division 10.

Article 3. Orders After Notice and Hearing

7720. After notice and a hearing, the court may issue a protective order as defined in Section 6218 and any other restraining order as provided in Article 2 (commencing with Section 6340) of Chapter 2 of Part 4 of Division 10.

Article 4. Orders Included in Judgment

7730. A judgment entered in a proceeding under this part may include a protective order as defined in Section 6218 and any other restraining order as provided in Article 3 (commencing with Section 6360) of Chapter 2 of Part 4 of Division 10.

SEC. 179.9. Section 7807 of the Family Code is amended to read:

7807. Sections 3020, 3022, 3040 to 3043, inclusive, and 3409 do not apply in a proceeding under this part.

SEC. 180. Section 7850 of the Family Code is amended to read:

7850. Upon the filing of a petition under Section 7841, the clerk of the court shall, in accordance with the direction of the court, immediately notify the juvenile probation officer, qualified court investigator, or the county department designated by the board of supervisors to administer the public social services program, who shall immediately investigate the circumstances of the child and the circumstances which are alleged to bring the child within any of the provisions of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 7820).

SEC. 181. Section 7851 of the Family Code is amended to read:

7851. (a) The juvenile probation officer, qualified court investigator, or the county department shall render to the court a written report of the investigation with a recommendation to the court of the proper disposition to be made in the proceeding in the best interest of the child.

(b) The report shall include all of the following:

(1) A statement that the person making the report explained to the child the nature of the proceeding to end parental custody and control.

(2) A statement of the child's feelings and thoughts concerning the pending proceeding.

(3) A statement of the child's attitude towards the child's parent or parents and particularly whether or not the child would prefer living with his or her parent or parents.

(4) A statement that the child was informed of the child's right to attend the hearing on the petition and the child's feelings concerning attending the hearing.

(c) If the age, or the physical, emotional, or other condition of the child precludes the child's meaningful response to the explanations, inquiries, and information required by subdivision (b), a description of the condition shall satisfy the requirement of that subdivision.

(d) The court shall receive the report in evidence and shall read and consider its contents in rendering the court's judgment.

SEC. 182. Section 7852 is added to the Family Code, to read:

7852. "Qualified court investigator," as used in this article, has the meaning provided by Section 8543.

SEC. 182.5. Section 7891 of the Family Code is amended to read:

7891. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, if the child who is the subject of the petition is 10 years of age or older, the child shall be heard by the court in chambers on at least the following matters:

(1) The feelings and thoughts of the child concerning the custody proceeding about to take place.

(2) The feelings and thoughts of the child about the child's parent or parents.

(3) The child's preference as to custody, according to Section 3042.

(b) The court shall inform the child of the child's right to attend the hearing. However, counsel for the child may waive the hearing in chambers by the court.

(c) This section does not apply if the child is confined because of illness or other incapacity to an institution or residence and is therefore unable to attend.

SEC. 183. Section 8502 is added to the Family Code, to read:

8502. "Adoption service provider" means either of the following:

(a) A licensed private adoption agency.

(b) A licensed clinical social worker with a minimum of five years experience doing adoptions with a licensed California adoption agency or the department.

SEC. 184. Section 8539 is added to the Family Code, to read:

8539. "Place for adoption" means, in the case of an independent adoption, the selection of a prospective adoptive parent or parents for a child by the birth parent or parents and the completion of an adoptive placement agreement on a form prescribed by the department by the birth parents placing the child with prospective adoptive parents.

SEC. 185. Section 8543 is added to the Family Code, to read:

8543. "Qualified court investigator" means a superior court investigator with the same minimum qualifications as a probation officer or county welfare worker designated to conduct stepparent adoption investigations in stepparent adoption proceedings and proceedings to declare a minor free from parental custody and control.

SEC. 186. Section 8620 is added to the Family Code, to read:

8620. The Legislature finds and declares that the purpose of adoption is to promote the interests of children who can benefit from a family that can give them the nurturing, protection, and opportunities essential for their healthy personal growth and development.

SEC. 187. Section 8621 is added to the Family Code, to read:

8621. The department shall adopt regulations regarding the provision of adoption services by the department and licensed adoption agencies and shall monitor the provision of those services by licensed adoption agencies.

SEC. 188. Section 8622 is added to the Family Code, to read:

8622. A licensed private adoption agency whose services are limited to a particular target population shall inform all birth parents and prospective adoptive parents of its service limitations before commencing any services, signing any documents or agreements, or accepting any fees.

SEC. 189. Section 8700 of the Family Code is amended to read:

8700. (a) Either birth parent may relinquish a child to the department or a licensed adoption agency for adoption by a written statement signed before two subscribing witnesses and acknowledged before an authorized official of the department or agency. The relinquishment, when reciting that the person making it is entitled to the sole custody of the child and acknowledged before the officer, is prima facie evidence of the right of the person making it to the sole custody of the child and the person's sole right to relinquish.

(b) A birth parent who is a minor has the right to relinquish the birth parent's child for adoption to the department or a licensed adoption agency, and the relinquishment is not subject to revocation by reason of the minority.

(c) If a birth parent resides outside this state and the child is being cared for and is placed for adoption by the department or a licensed adoption agency, the birth parent may relinquish the child to the department or agency by a written statement signed by the birth parent before a notary on a form prescribed by the department, and previously signed by an authorized official of the department or agency, which signifies the willingness of the department or agency to accept the relinquishment.

(d) The relinquishment authorized by this section has no effect until a certified copy is filed with the department. Upon filing with the department, the relinquishment is final and may be rescinded only by the mutual consent of the department or licensed adoption agency to which the child was relinquished and the birth parent or parents relinquishing the child.

(e) The birth parent may name in the relinquishment the person or persons with whom the birth parent intends that placement of the child for adoption be made by the department or licensed adoption agency.

(f) Notwithstanding subdivision (d), if the relinquishment names the person or persons with whom placement by the department or licensed adoption agency is intended and the child is not placed in the home of the named person or persons or the child is removed from the home prior to the granting of the adoption, the department or agency shall mail a notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the birth parent signing the relinquishment within 72 hours of the decision not to place the child for adoption or the decision to remove the child from the home.

(g) The birth parent has 30 days from the date on which the notice described in subdivision (f) was mailed to rescind the relinquishment.

(1) If the birth parent requests rescission during the 30-day period, the department or licensed adoption agency shall rescind the relinquishment.

(2) If the birth parent does not request rescission during the 30-day period, the department or licensed adoption agency shall select adoptive parents for the child.

(3) If the birth parent and the department or licensed adoption agency wish to identify a different person or persons during the 30-day period with whom the child is intended to be placed, the initial relinquishment shall be rescinded and a new relinquishment identifying the person or persons completed.

(h) The filing of the relinquishment with the department terminates all parental rights and responsibilities with regard to the child, except as provided in subdivisions (f) and (g).

SEC. 190. Section 8714 of the Family Code is amended to read:

8714. (a) A person desiring to adopt a child may for that purpose file a petition in the county in which the petitioner resides. Where a child has been adjudged to be a dependent of the juvenile court pursuant to Section 300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and has thereafter been freed for adoption by the juvenile court, the petition may be filed either in the county where the petitioner resides or in the county where the child was freed for adoption.

(b) The court clerk shall immediately notify the department at Sacramento in writing of the pendency of the proceeding and of any subsequent action taken.

(c) The caption of the adoption petition shall contain the names of the petitioners, but not the child's name. The petition shall state the child's sex and date of birth. The name the child had before adoption shall appear in the joinder signed by the licensed adoption agency.

(d) If the child is the subject of a guardianship petition, the adoption petition shall so state and shall include the caption and docket number or have attached a copy of the letters of the guardianship or temporary guardianship. The petitioners shall notify the court of any petition for guardianship or temporary guardianship filed after the adoption petition. The guardianship proceeding shall be consolidated with the adoption proceeding.

(e) The order of adoption shall contain the child's adopted name, but not the name the child had before adoption.

SEC. 191. Section 8801 of the Family Code is amended to read:

8801. (a) The selection of a prospective adoptive parent or parents shall be personally made by the child's birth parent or parents and may not be delegated to an agent. The act of selection by the birth parent or parents shall be based upon his, her, or their personal knowledge of the prospective adoptive parent or parents.

(b) "Personal knowledge" as used in this section includes, but is not limited to, substantially correct knowledge of all of the following regarding the prospective adoptive parents: their full legal names, ages, religion, race or ethnicity, length of current marriage and number of previous marriages, employment, whether other children or adults reside in their home, whether there are other children who do not reside in their home and the child support obligation for these children and any failure to meet these obligations, any health conditions curtailing their normal daily activities or reducing their normal life expectancies, any convictions for crimes other than minor traffic violations, any removals of children from their care due to child abuse or neglect, and their general area of residence or, upon request, their address.

SEC. 192. Section 8801.3 is added to the Family Code, to read:

8801.3. A child shall not be considered to have been placed for adoption unless each of the following is true:

(a) Each birth parent placing the child for adoption has been advised of his or her rights, and if desired, has been counseled pursuant to Section 8801.5.

(b) The adoption services provider, each prospective adoptive parent, and each birth parent placing the child have signed an adoption placement agreement on a form prescribed by the department. The signing of the agreement shall satisfy all of the following requirements:

(1) The birth parents shall have been advised of their rights at least 10 days before signing the agreement.

(2) The agreement may not be signed by either the birth parents or the prospective adoptive parents until the time of discharge of the birth mother from the hospital. However, if the birth mother remains hospitalized for a period longer than the hospitalization of the child, the birth mother's competency to sign must be verified by her attending physician and surgeon before the birth mother signs the agreement.

(3) The birth parents and prospective adoptive parents shall sign the agreement in the presence of an adoption services provider.

(4) The adoption services provider who witnesses the signatures shall keep the original of the adoption placement agreement and immediately forward it to the department or delegated county adoption agency.

(5) The child may not be released to the prospective adoptive parents until the adoption placement agreement has been signed and witnessed.

(6) If the birth parent is neither a resident of, nor physically present in, this state, the adoption placement agreement shall be signed in the manner in which consents are taken in the state where the birth parent resides or is present for a purpose unrelated to an adoption.

(c) The adoption placement agreement form shall include all of the following:

(1) A statement that the birth parent received the advisement of rights and the date upon which it was received.

(2) A statement that the birth parent understands that the placement is for the purpose of adoption and that if the birth parent takes no further action, on the 121st day after signing the adoption placement agreement, the agreement shall become a permanent and irrevocable consent to the adoption.

(3) A statement that the birth parent signs the agreement having personal knowledge of certain facts regarding the prospective adoptive parents as provided in Section 8801.

(4) A statement that the adoptive parents have been informed of the basic health and social history of the birth parents.

(5) A consent to the adoption that may be revoked as provided by Section 8814.5.

(d) The adoption placement agreement shall also meet the requirements of the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children in Section 7901.

SEC. 193. Section 8801.5 is added to the Family Code, to read:

8801.5. (a) Each birth parent placing a child for adoption shall be advised of his or her rights by an adoption services provider, or in the case of a birth parent who is neither a resident of, nor physically present in, this state, by a representative of an agency licensed or authorized to accept consents to adoption in the state in which the birth parent resides or is physically present for a purpose unrelated to an adoption.

(b) The birth parent shall be advised of his or her rights in a face-to-face meeting in which the birth parent may ask questions and have questions answered, as soon as possible and in no case later than 10 days before the signing of the adoption placement agreement as provided by Section 8801.3.

(c) The department shall prescribe the format and process for advising birth parents of their rights, the content of which shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) The alternatives to adoption.

(2) The alternative types of adoption, including a description of the full procedures and timeframes involved in each type.

(3) The full rights and responsibilities of the birth parent with respect to adoption, including the need to keep the department informed of his or her current address in case of a medical emergency requiring contact and of providing a full health history.

(4) The right to separate legal counsel paid for by the prospective adoptive parents upon the request of the birth parent, as provided for by Section 8800.

(5) The right to a minimum of three separate counseling sessions, each to be held on different days, to be paid for by the prospective adoptive parents upon the request of the birth parents, as provided for by subdivision (d).

(d) Each person advised pursuant to this section shall be offered at least three separate counseling sessions, to be held on different days. Each counseling session shall be not less than 50 minutes in duration. The counseling may be provided by an adoption services provider or by a licensed psychotherapist, as defined by Section 1010 of the Evidence Code, as elected by the person.

(e) The individual counseling owes a duty of care to the birth parent being counseled, similar to the duty of care established by a psychotherapist-patient relationship, regardless of who pays the fees of the counselor. No counselor shall have a contractual relationship with the adoptive parents, an attorney for the adoptive parents, or any other individual or an organization performing any type of services for the adoptive parents and for which the adoptive parents are paying a fee, except as relates to payment of the birth parents' fee.

(f) The adoption service provider's and counseling costs shall be paid by the prospective adoptive parents at the request of the birth parent.

SEC. 194. Section 8801.7 is added to the Family Code, to read:

8801.7. (a) The adoption service provider giving the advisement of rights shall also witness the signature of the adoption placement agreement and interview the birth parent within 10 working days after the placement of the child with prospective adoptive parents. The interview shall include a consideration of any concerns or problems the birth parent has with the placement, a readvisement of the rights of the birth parent, and the taking of the health and social history of the birth parent, if not taken previously.

(b) The adoption service provider shall immediately contact the department or delegated county adoption agency if there are any concerns regarding the placement and if the birth parent wishes to revoke the consent, shall assist the birth parent in obtaining the return of the child.

(c) The adoption service provider owes a very high duty of care to the birth parent being advised, regardless of who pays the provider's fees. No adoption services provider shall have a contractual relationship with prospective adoptive parents, an attorney or representative for prospective adoptive parents, or any individual or organization providing services of any type to prospective adoptive parents for which the adoptive parents are paying a fee, except as relates to the payment of the fees of the birth parents.

SEC. 195. Section 8802 of the Family Code is amended to read:

8802. (a) A grandparent, aunt, uncle, sibling, legal guardian who has been the child's legal guardian for more than three years, person named in the will of a deceased parent as an intended adoptive parent where the child has no other parent, or person with whom a child has been placed for adoption, who desires to adopt a child may, for that purpose, file a petition in the county in which the petitioner resides. If the child has been placed for adoption, a copy of the adoptive placement agreement shall be attached to the petition. The court clerk shall immediately notify the department at Sacramento in writing of the pendency of the proceeding and of any subsequent action taken.

(b) The petition shall contain an allegation that the petitioners will file promptly with the department or delegated county adoption agency information required by the department in the investigation of the proposed adoption. The omission of the allegation from a petition does not affect the jurisdiction of the court to proceed or the validity of an adoption order or other order based on the petition.

(c) The caption of the adoption petition shall contain the names of the petitioners, but not the child's name. The petition shall state the child's sex and date of birth and the name the child had before adoption.

(d) If the child is the subject of a guardianship petition, the adoption petition shall so state and shall include the caption and docket number or have attached a copy of the letters of the guardianship or temporary guardianship. The petitioners shall notify the court of any petition for guardianship or temporary guardianship filed after the adoption petition. The guardianship proceeding shall be consolidated with the adoption proceeding.

(e) The order of adoption shall contain the child's adopted name, but not the name the child had before adoption.

SEC. 196. Section 8804 of the Family Code is amended to read:

8804. If the petitioners move to withdraw the adoption petition or to dismiss the proceeding, the court clerk shall immediately notify the department at Sacramento of the action. The department or delegated county adoption agency shall file a full report with the court recommending a suitable plan for the child in every case where the petitioners move to withdraw the adoption petition or where the department or agency recommends that the adoption petition be denied and shall appear before the court for the purpose of representing the child.

SEC. 197. Section 8808 of the Family Code is amended to read:

8808. The investigating adoption agency shall interview the petitioners and all persons whose consent is required and whose addresses are known as soon as possible and, in the case of residents of this state, within 45 working days, excluding legal holidays, after the filing of the adoption petition. The interview with the placing parent or parents shall include consideration of any concerns or problems that the parent has with the placement and shall give the parent an opportunity to sign either a statement revoking the consent, or a waiver of the right to revoke consent, as provided in Section 8814.5. In order to facilitate these interviews, at the same time the petition is filed with the court, the petitioners shall file with the investigating adoption agency a copy of the petition together with the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of all parties to be interviewed, if known.

SEC. 198. Section 8814 of the Family Code is amended to read:

8814. (a) The consent of the birth parent or parents shall be signed as provided in Section 8801.3. The consent shall be filed with the clerk of the appropriate superior court.

(b) The consent described in subdivision (a), when reciting that the person giving it is entitled to the sole custody of the child and when acknowledged before that agent, is prima facie evidence of the right of the person making it to the sole custody of the child and that person's sole right to consent.

(c) If the birth parent of a child to be adopted resides outside this state or is outside this state for an extended period of time unrelated to the adoption at the time of signing the consent, the consent may be signed before a representative of an agency licensed or authorized to take the consent of a birth parent in the state in which the birth parent resides or is present for the extended period of time.

(d) A birth parent who is a minor has the right to sign a consent for the adoption of the birth parent's child and the consent is not subject to revocation by reason of minority.

SEC. 199. Section 8814.5 is added to the Family Code, to read:

8814.5. (a) After a consent to the adoption is signed by the birth parent or parents pursuant to Sections 8801.3 and 8814, the birth parent or parents signing the consent have 120 days to take one of the following actions:

(1) Sign and deliver to the investigating adoption agency a written statement revoking the consent and requesting the child to be returned to the birth parent or parents.

(2) Sign a waiver of the right to revoke consent on a form prescribed by the department in the presence of a representative of the department or delegated county adoption agency or, if the parent neither resides in this state nor is physically present in this state, in the presence of a representative of an agency licensed or authorized to take consents in the state in which the birth parent resides or is present for a purpose unrelated to an adoption. The waiver of the right to revoke consent may not be signed until an interview has been completed by the State Department of Social Services.

(3) Allow the consent to become a permanent consent on the 121st day after signing.

(b) The consent may not be revoked after a waiver of the right to revoke consent has been signed or after 120 days beginning on the date the consent was signed, whichever occurs first.

SEC. 200. Section 8815 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 201. Section 8815 is added to the Family Code, to read:

8815. (a) Once the revocable consent to adoption has become permanent as provided in Section 8814.5, the consent to the adoption by the prospective adoptive parents may not be withdrawn.

(b) Before the time when the revocable consent becomes permanent as provided in Section 8814.5, the birth parent or parents may request return of the child. In such a case the child shall immediately be returned to the birth parent or parents so requesting.

(c) If the person or persons with whom the child has been placed have concerns that the birth parent or parents requesting return of the child are unfit or present a danger of harm to the child, that person's or those persons' only option is to report their concerns to the investigating adoption agency and the appropriate child welfare agency. These concerns shall not be a basis for failure to immediately return the child.

SEC. 202. Section 8904 of the Family Code is amended to read:

8904. For an intercountry adoption that will be finalized in a foreign country, the licensed adoption agency shall provide all of the following services:

(a) Assessment of the suitability of the applicant's home.

(b) Certification to the Immigration and Naturalization Service that this state's intercountry adoption requirements have been met.

(c) Readoption services as required by the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

SEC. 203. Section 8919 is added to the Family Code, to read:

8919. (a) Each state resident who adopts a child through an intercountry adoption that is finalized in a foreign country shall readopt the child in this state if it is required by the Immigration and Naturalization Service. The readoption shall include, but is not limited to, at least one postplacement in-home visit, the filing of the adoption petition pursuant to Section 8912, the intercountry adoption court report, accounting reports, and the final adoption order. No readoption order shall be granted unless the court receives a report from an adoption agency authorized to provide intercountry adoption services pursuant to Section 8900.

(b) Each state resident who adopts a child through an intercountry adoption that is finalized in a foreign country may readopt the child in this state. The readoption shall meet the standards described in subdivision (a).

SEC. 204. Section 9001 of the Family Code is amended to read:

9001. (a) The probation officer, qualified court investigator, or, at the option of the board of supervisors, the county welfare department in the county in which the adoption proceeding is pending shall make an investigation of each case of stepparent adoption. The court may not make an order of adoption until after the probation officer, qualified court investigator, or welfare department has filed its report and recommendation and they have been considered by the court.

(b) Unless ordered by the court, no home study may be required of the petitioner's home in a stepparent adoption. The agency conducting the investigation or any interested person may request the court to order a home study or the court may order a home study on its own motion.

(c) "Home study" as used in this section means a physical investigation of the premises where the child is residing.

SEC. 205. Section 9002 of the Family Code is amended to read:

9002. In a stepparent adoption, the stepparent is liable for all reasonable costs incurred in connection with the stepparent adoption, including, but not limited to, costs incurred for the investigation required by Section 9001, up to a maximum of two hundred dollars ($200). The probation officer, qualified court investigator, or county welfare department may defer, waive, or reduce the fee if its payment would cause economic hardship to the prospective adoptive parent detrimental to the welfare of the adopted child.

SEC. 206. Section 9003 of the Family Code is amended to read:

9003. (a) In a stepparent adoption, the consent of either or both birth parents shall be signed in the presence of a county clerk, probation officer, qualified court investigator, or county welfare department staff member of any county of this state. The county clerk, probation officer, qualified court investigator, or county welfare department staff member before whom the consent is signed shall immediately file the consent with the clerk of the court where the adoption petition is filed. The clerk shall immediately notify the probation officer or, at the option of the board of supervisors, the county welfare department of that county.

(b) If the birth parent of a child to be adopted is outside this state at the time of signing the consent, the consent may be signed before a notary or other person authorized to perform notarial acts.

(c) The consent, when reciting that the person giving it is entitled to sole custody of the child and when acknowledged before the county clerk, probation officer, qualified court investigator, or county welfare department staff member, is prima facie evidence of the right of the person signing the consent to the sole custody of the child and that person's sole right to consent.

(d) A birth parent who is a minor has the right to sign a consent for the adoption of the birth parent's child and the consent is not subject to revocation by reason of the minority.

SEC. 207. Section 9005 of the Family Code is amended to read:

9005. (a) Consent of the birth parent to the adoption of the child by the stepparent may not be withdrawn except with court approval. Request for that approval may be made by motion, or a birth parent seeking to withdraw consent may file with the clerk of the court where the adoption petition is pending, a petition for approval of withdrawal of consent, without the necessity of paying a fee for filing the petition. The petition or motion shall be in writing, and shall set forth the reasons for withdrawal of consent, but otherwise may be in any form.

(b) The court clerk shall set the matter for hearing and shall give notice thereof to the probation officer, qualified court investigator, or county welfare department, to the prospective adoptive parent, and to the birth parent or parents by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the address of each as shown in the proceeding, at least 10 days before the time set for hearing.

(c) The probation officer, qualified court investigator, or county welfare department shall, before the hearing of the motion or petition for withdrawal, file a full report with the court and shall appear at the hearing to represent the interests of the child.

(d) At the hearing, the parties may appear in person or with counsel. The hearing shall be held in chambers, but the court reporter shall report the proceedings and, on court order, the fee therefor shall be paid from the county treasury. If the court finds that withdrawal of the consent to adoption is reasonable in view of all the circumstances and that withdrawal of the consent is in the child's best interest, the court shall approve the withdrawal of the consent. Otherwise the court shall withhold its approval. Consideration of the child's best interest shall include, but is not limited to, an assessment of the child's age, the extent of bonding with the prospective adoptive parent, the extent of bonding or the potential to bond with the birth parent, and the ability of the birth parent to provide adequate and proper care and guidance to the child. If the court approves the withdrawal of consent, the adoption proceeding shall be dismissed.

(e) A court order granting or withholding approval of a withdrawal of consent to an adoption may be appealed in the same manner as an order of the juvenile court declaring a person to be a ward of the juvenile court.

SEC. 208. Section 9006 of the Family Code is amended to read:

9006. (a) If the petitioner moves to withdraw the adoption petition or to dismiss the proceeding, the court clerk shall immediately notify the probation officer, qualified court investigator, or county welfare department of the action.

(b) If a birth parent has refused to give the required consent, the adoption petition shall be dismissed.

SEC. 209. Part 1 (commencing with Section 20000) of Division 20 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 210. Part 1 (commencing with Section 20000) is added to Division 20 of the Family Code, to read:

PART 1. FAMILY LAW PILOT PROJECTS

CHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

20000. (a) The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(1) Child and spousal support are serious legal obligations. In addition, children are frequently left in limbo while their parents engage in protracted litigation concerning custody and visitation. The current system for obtaining child and spousal support orders is suffering because the family courts are unduly burdened with heavy case loads and personnel insufficient to meet the needs of increased demands on the courts.

(2) There is a compelling state interest in the development of a child and spousal support system that is cost-effective and accessible to families with middle or low incomes.

(3) There is a compelling state interest in first implementing such a system on a small scale.

(4) There is a compelling state interest in the development of a speedy, conflict-reducing method of resolving custody and visitation disputes.

(b) Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this part to provide a means for experimenting with and evaluating procedural innovations with significant potential to improve the California child and spousal support systems, and the system for mediation, evaluation, and litigation of custody and visitation disputes.

20001. The Superior Courts of the Counties of Santa Clara and San Mateo may conduct pilot projects pursuant to this part. Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 20010) shall govern the San Mateo County Pilot Project, and Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 20030) shall govern the Santa Clara County Pilot Project.

20002. The duration of the pilot projects shall be two years.

CHAPTER 2. SAN MATEO COUNTY PILOT PROJECT

20010. The San Mateo County Pilot Project shall apply to hearings on motions for temporary child support, temporary spousal support, and temporary health insurance issuable in proceedings under this code, where at least one party is unrepresented by counsel.

20011. Motions for temporary orders under this chapter shall be heard as soon as practicable, consistent with the rules governing other civil actions.

20012. The court shall appoint a Family Law Evaluator, who shall be available to assist parties. By local rule the superior court may designate the duties of the Family Law Evaluator, which may include, but are not limited to, the following:

(a) Requiring litigants in actions which involve temporary child support, temporary spousal support, and temporary maintenance of health insurance in which at least one litigant is unrepresented, to meet with the Family Law Evaluator prior to the support hearing.

(b) Preparing support schedules based on standardized formulae accessed through existing up-to-date computer technology.

(c) Drafting stipulations to include all issues agreed to by the parties.

(d) Prior to, or at, any hearing pursuant to this chapter, reviewing the paperwork by the court, advising the judge whether or not the matter is ready to proceed, and making a recommendation to the court regarding child support, spousal support, and health insurance.

(e) Assisting the clerk in maintaining records.

(f) Preparing a formal order consistent with the court's announced oral order, unless one of the parties is represented by an attorney.

(g) Assisting the court with research and any other responsibilities which will enable the court to be responsive to the litigants' needs.

20013. The court shall provide the Family Law Evaluator at no cost to the parties.

20014. The clerk shall stamp all moving papers in which a party is not represented by counsel with a notice of a requirement to see the Family Law Evaluator. The unrepresented party shall serve the stamped pleadings on the other party.

20015. The court shall adopt a protocol wherein all litigants, both unrepresented by counsel and represented by counsel, have ultimate access to a hearing before the court.

20016. The court may elect to publish a low-cost booklet describing this program.

20017. The Family Law Evaluator shall be an attorney, licensed to practice in this state.

20018. Orders for temporary support issued pursuant to this chapter shall comply with the statewide uniform guideline set forth in Article 2 (commencing with Section 4050) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 9 and shall be based on the economic evidence supplied by the parties or otherwise available to the court.

20019. Where it appears from a party's application for an order under this chapter or otherwise in the proceedings that the custody of, or visitation with, a minor child is contested, the court shall set those issues for mediation pursuant to Section 3170. The pendency of the mediation proceedings shall not delay a hearing on any other matter for which a temporary order is required, including child support, and a separate hearing, if required, shall be scheduled respecting the custody and visitation issues following mediation in accordance with Section 3170. However, the court may grant a continuance for good cause shown.

20020. In a contested proceeding for temporary child or spousal support under this chapter, both the moving party and the responding party shall provide all of the following documents to the Family Law Evaluator, and to the court at the time of the hearing:

(a) Copies of the last two federal and state income tax returns filed.

(b) Paycheck stubs for all paychecks received in the four months immediately prior to the hearing.

20021. A party who fails to submit documents to the court as required by Section 20020 may, in the court's discretion, not be granted the relief requested, or the court may impose evidentiary sanctions.

20022. The tax return submitted pursuant to Section 20020 may be reviewed by the other party. A party may be examined by the other party as to the contents of the tax return.

20023. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c):

(1) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to apply to a child for whom services are provided or required to be provided by a district attorney pursuant to Section 11475.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(2) The court shall not hear or enter any order under this chapter in a matter involving such a child.

(b) Any order entered contrary to the provisions of subdivision (a) is void and without legal effect.

(c) For purposes of enabling a custodial parent receiving assistance under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code to participate in a pilot project authorized by this chapter, the district attorney, upon the request of the custodial parent, may execute a limited waiver of the obligation or representation under Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. These limited waivers shall be signed by both the district attorney and custodial parent and shall only permit the custodial parent to participate in the proceedings under this chapter. It is not the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to limit the duties of district attorneys with respect to seeking child support payments or to in any way limit or supersede other provisions of this code respecting temporary child support.

20024. (a) The costs of the Family Law Evaluator, any staff necessary to assist the Family Law Evaluator, and the cost of the booklet describing the program, if any, shall be borne by an increase and an equalization of filing fees in San Mateo County to one hundred fifty dollars ($150) for all petitions for marital dissolution, annulment, and legal separation, and all first papers on behalf of respondents in proceedings for marital dissolution, annulment, and legal separation. Alternatively, the costs associated with this pilot program may be paid from other funding sources.

(b) A donation of computers, printers, software, and other equipment shall be solicited from existing hardware and software providers.

20025. (a) The presiding judge of the San Mateo County Superior Court, in conjunction with judges of the family law court and with attorneys practicing therein selected by the presiding judge, shall conduct a study of the effectiveness of the San Mateo Pilot Project in making the California child support system more equitable, responsive, cost-effective, and accessible, particularly to those with middle and low incomes, and shall make a report of findings to the Legislature on or before July 1, 1994.

(b) The satisfaction of participating parties shall be determined by requiring litigants entering the pilot project to fill out a simple exit poll. The response of at least 70 percent of those questionnaires shall be analyzed by the Senate Office of Research to decide whether the program has been deemed satisfactory by the participants.

20026. (a) It is estimated that under the pilot project authorized by this chapter, approximately 2,200 litigants will be served annually and that the following savings will occur:

(1) The program would save 520 hours, or 65 days, of court time per year.

(2) There would be a concomitant saving of time by litigants due to the expedited proceedings and, in addition, there would be a saving to litigants of wages that would otherwise be lost due to time off from work.

(b) The estimated costs of the pilot project are as follows:

(1) The salaries of the Family Law Evaluator and any staff necessary for the evaluator to carry out his or her functions.

(2) The cost of a booklet, if any, describing the program.

(c) There would be no cost for the following:

(1) Computers, printers, or other equipment. This equipment is already available in the family law department.

(2) Training for the Family Law Evaluator or his or her staff. They will be trained by already existing judicial personnel.

CHAPTER 3. SANTA CLARA COUNTY PILOT PROJECT

20030. The Superior Court of the County of Santa Clara may conduct a pilot project pursuant to this chapter.

20031. The pilot project applies to all hearings, for temporary or permanent child or spousal support, modifications thereof, health insurance, custody, or visitation in a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, nullity of marriage, legal separation of the parties, exclusive custody, or pursuant to the Uniform Parentage Act (Part 3 (commencing with Section 7600) of Division 12).

20032. (a) Each and every hearing in a proceeding described in Section 20031 in which child or spousal support is at issue, including related contempt matters, shall be set by the clerk of the court for hearing within 30 days of filing.

(b) At any hearing in which child or spousal support is at issue, each party, both moving and responding, shall bring to the hearing, copies of the last two federal and state income tax returns filed by the party and pay stubs from the last four full months immediately preceding the hearing received by the party, and shall serve those documents on the opposing party at least five days in advance of the hearing date. Willful failure to comply with these requirements or any of the requirements of this pilot project may result in a citation for contempt under Title 5 (commencing with Section 1209) of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or in the court's discretion, the court may refuse to grant relief requested or may impose evidentiary sanctions on a party who fails to submit these documents. The clerk shall cause to be placed on the face sheet of any moving papers for child or spousal support at the time of filing, a notice informing the parties of the requirements of this section. The notice shall also inform the parties that prior to the hearing, they must meet with the Attorney-Mediator pursuant to Section 20034. That meeting may occur in advance of the hearing dates by agreement of the parties, or on the day of the hearing.

(c) No continuance of any hearing involving child or spousal support shall be granted by a court without an order setting an interim support level unless the parties stipulate otherwise or the court finds good cause therefor.

20033. The court may pass a local rule that suspends the use of the Income and Expense Declaration mandated by California Rule of Court 1285.50 in some or all proceedings during the pendency of the pilot project, provided that substitute forms are developed and adopted to solicit substantially the same information in a simplified format. The court may, notwithstanding the adoption of a local form, require the use of the Income and Expense Declaration mandated by California Rule of Court 1285.50 in appropriate cases on the motion of either party or on the court's own motion.

20034. (a) An attorney, known as an Attorney-Mediator, shall be hired to assist the court in resolving child and spousal support disputes , to develop community outreach programs, and to undertake other duties as assigned by the court.

(b) The Attorney-Mediator shall be an attorney, licensed to practice in this state, with mediation or litigation experience, or both, in the field of family law.

(c) By local rule, the superior court may designate the duties of the Attorney-Mediator, which may include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) Meeting with litigants to mediate issues of child support, spousal support, and maintenance of health insurance. Actions in which one or both of the parties are unrepresented by counsel shall have priority.

(2) Preparing support schedules based on statutory guidelines accessed through existing up-to-date computer technology.

(3) Drafting stipulations to include all issues agreed to by the parties, which may include issues other than those specified in Section 20031.

(4) If the parties are unable to resolve issues with the assistance of the Attorney-Mediator, prior to or at the hearing, and at the request of the court, the Attorney-Mediator shall review the paperwork, examine documents, prepare support schedules, and advise the judge whether or not the matter is ready to proceed.

(5) Assisting the clerk in maintaining records.

(6) Preparing formal orders consistent with the court's announced order in cases where both parties are unrepresented.

(7) Serving as a special master to hearing proceedings and making findings to the court unless he or she has served as a mediator in that case.

(8) Assisting the court with research and any other responsibilities which will enable the court to be responsive to the litigants' needs.

(9) Developing programs for bar and community outreach through day and evening programs, videotapes, and other innovative means that will assist unrepresented and financially disadvantaged litigants in gaining meaningful access to Family Court. These programs shall specifically include information concerning underutilized legislation, such as expedited temporary support orders (Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 3620) of Part 1 of Division 9), modification of support orders (Article 3 (commencing with Section 3680) of Chapter 6 of Part 1 of Division 9) and preexisting, court-sponsored programs, such as supervised visitation and appointment of attorneys for children.

(d) The court shall develop a protocol wherein all litigants, both unrepresented by counsel and represented by counsel, have ultimate access to a hearing before the court.

20035. Orders for temporary support issued pursuant to this chapter shall comply with the statewide uniform guideline set forth in Article 2 (commencing with Section 4050) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 9 and shall be based on the economic evidence supplied by the parties or otherwise available to the court.

20036. Upon motion by either party or on the court's own motion, any proceeding that would otherwise fall within this pilot project may by judicial order be exempted from its requirements.

20037. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (c):

(1) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to apply to a child for whom services are provided or required to be provided by a district attorney pursuant to Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(2) The court shall not hear or enter any order under this chapter in a matter involving such a child.

(b) Any order entered contrary to subdivision (a) is void and without legal effect.

(c) For purposes of enabling a custodial parent receiving assistance under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code to participate in a pilot project authorized by this chapter, the district attorney, upon the request of the custodial parent, may execute a limited waiver of the obligation of representation under Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. These limited waivers shall be signed by both the district attorney and custodial parent and shall only permit the custodial parent to participate in the proceedings under this chapter. It is not the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to limit the duties of district attorneys with respect to seeking child support payments or to in any way limit or supersede other provisions of this code respecting temporary child support.

20038. (a) In any case where either party has filed a motion regarding a custody or visitation dispute and has not yet scheduled an appointment for the mediation orientation class by the time of the hearing on the order to show cause, the court shall order all parties to go to Family Court Services that day to schedule an appointment. The mediation orientation shall be scheduled within 14 days. Mediation orientation shall be conducted by Family Court Services and shall include general information on the effect of separation and dissolution on children and parents, the developmental and emotional needs of children in those circumstances, time-sharing considerations and various options concerning legal and physical custody of children, the effect of exposure to domestic violence and extreme conflict on children and parents, the nature of the mediation process and other Family Court Services procedures, and related community resources.

(b) After the mediation orientation, the parties may elect to utilize private mental health professionals, in which case the parties or the court may modify the fast track time guidelines provided for in this section.

(c) If, after orientation, either party requests mediation, and both parties complete Family Court Services mediation petitions, an appointment shall be scheduled within four weeks after both petitions are submitted and both parties shall attend the mediation as scheduled.

(d) At the mediation, if the parties agree to all of the issues regarding custody or visitation, the mediator shall memorialize the agreement in writing, and shall mail copies of the document to the attorneys and parents. Unless written objections to the agreement are sent to Family Court Services within 20 days of mailing the agreement, it will be submitted to the court and become a court order. A copy of the order shall be sent with proof of service to the parties and attorneys by the Family Court.

(e) If mediation is completed and there are remaining disputes, the mediator shall write a memorandum of any partial agreement and shall outline the remaining disputes which shall be sent to the attorneys and parties acting in propria persona. The mediator shall refer the parties to the Early Resolution Project. The parties shall meet and confer within 14 days of the referral to determine if a solution can be formulated. If there are remaining issues to be settled after the meeting, an early resolution judicial conference shall be scheduled within 30 days of the request of either party.

(f) At the early resolution conference, the judge may take stipulations resolving the issues of custody or visitation. The judge may also request the staff of Family Court Services to provide assessments and expedited evaluations to be held on the same day as the conference, in which case the judge, upon stipulation of the parties, may also order a hearing as soon as the same day on the issues. The judge may also order counseling, a mental health special master, psychological testing, or an extended evaluation by Family Court Services or a private evaluator on some or all issues.

(g) When the court at the early resolution judicial conference orders an extended evaluation, the parties shall complete all paperwork, submit deposits to Family Court Services, or both, within five days of the early resolution judicial conference. An evaluator shall be assigned to the case within 10 days thereafter.

(h) Evaluation shall be completed within 60 days of assignment to the evaluator, and the evaluator shall submit a report and recommendations which include a proposed order resolving all disputed issues. This report shall be served by certified mail on the attorneys of record, or on the parties if they are appearing in propria persona. If there are objections to the proposed order, the parties shall file written objections, meet with the evaluator within 30 days of service of the report, and serve a copy of the order on Family Court Services within the 30-day period. If a stipulation is reached, it shall be filed with the court. If a dispute remains, a judicial settlement conference shall be scheduled within 14 days of the meeting with the evaluator. Parties, counsel, and the evaluator shall be present at this judicial settlement conference. If there is no resolution at this settlement conference, a trial shall be set within 30 days from the settlement conference by the settlement conference judge. If no objections are filed, Family Court Services shall file the proposed order with the court, and it shall become the court's order.

(i) For good cause shown, all deadlines in this section may be altered by the court.

20039. (a) The costs of the pilot project shall be borne by an equalization of filing fees in Santa Clara County for all petitions for marital dissolution, annulment, and legal separation, and all first papers on behalf of respondents in proceedings for marital dissolution, annulment, and legal separation and by equalization of filing fees for motions and responsive pleadings.

(b) A donation of computers, printers, software, and other equipment shall be solicited from existing hardware and software providers.

(c) The court shall administer funds for the various components of the pilot program.

20040. The court may elect to publish a low-cost booklet describing the program.

20041. The court shall centralize, augment, and coordinate all presently existing programs under the court's supervision that relate to children, including, but not limited to, mental health special masters, appointment of attorneys for children, supervised visitation, and other supporting personnel.

20042. (a) The presiding judge of the Santa Clara County Superior Court, in conjunction with judges of the family law court and with attorneys practicing therein selected by the presiding judge, shall conduct a study of the effectiveness of the Santa Clara County Pilot Project in making the California child and spousal support system more equitable, responsive, cost-effective, and accessible, particularly to those with middle and low incomes, and the effectiveness of the pilot project in expediting resolution and reducing conflict in custody and visitation disputes, and shall make a report of its findings to the Legislature on or before July 1, 1994.

(b) The satisfaction of participating parties shall be determined by requiring litigants entering the pilot project to fill out a simple exit poll. The response of at least 70 percent of those questionnaires shall be analyzed by the Senate Office of Research to determine whether the program has been deemed satisfactory by the participants.

20043. (a) It is estimated for Santa Clara County's participation in the pilot project authorized by this chapter, that 4,000 litigants will be served annually, and that the following savings will occur:

(1) With an estimated 20 percent reduction in the use of court time over the current system, the county would save approximately 178 hours per year of court time, or approximately 22 workdays per year.

(2) With an estimated cost savings in incomes of judges, court reporters, clerks, bailiffs, and sheriffs, the project is expected to save approximately twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) per year. Cases involving child support obligations which the district attorney's office was required to handle in one participating county, for the 1989–90 fiscal year, number 2,461. The average time spent on a typical child support order is approximately five hours. There is a potential of 12,500 man-hours per year that could be saved, resulting in a savings of three hundred sixty-seven thousand eight hundred seventy-five dollars ($367,875) per year in attorney salaries alone. This does not take into consideration costs for documents, filing, and other district attorney personnel.

(3) The average savings personally to litigants who otherwise would require private representation would be from fifty dollars ($50) to two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per hour of court time and other preparation work.

(b) The satisfaction of participating parties will be determined by requiring the litigants using the pilot project to fill out a simple exit poll. The response of at least 70 percent of those questionnaires will be analyzed to decide whether the program has been deemed satisfactory by the participants.

(c) The estimated cost of the program is as follows:

(1) The estimated salary for an Attorney-Mediator is sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) to sixty-five thousand dollars ($65,000) per year, plus an additional 25 percent of salary to cover the costs of benefits for that position. In addition, there may be other costs connected with this position for support staff at the court.

(2) The costs of exit polling and any informational materials to be handed out to the public by the Attorney-Mediator is undetermined and cannot be estimated.

(d) The estimated income to cover the costs of this program will be as follows:

(1) There are approximately 10,000 dissolution of marriage petitions filed in Santa Clara County each year. Of those cases, approximately one-third of them have responses filed. At the present time, it costs one hundred sixty-five dollars ($165) to have a petition for dissolution of marriage filed and one hundred twenty-seven dollars ($127) to have a response filed, for a cost differential of thirty-eight dollars ($38). By equalizing the response fee with the petition fee, income generated would be approximately one hundred twenty-five thousand four hundred dollars ($125,400) per year. This does not include the cost of fourteen dollars ($14) for each responsive declaration filed to a motion or order to show cause, the annual number of which is significantly greater than 3,300. It is estimated that an additional fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) per year could be generated by equalizing the responsive fees to a motion or order to show cause with the filing of those motions. These fees generated would more than offset the costs of the program.

(2) It is also anticipated that the Attorney-Mediator will develop public information and outreach programs which will be paid for by any excess revenue generated from the pilot project and ultimately will result in savings to the public and the court. The public will save by not having to pay attorneys for certain information regarding child support matters, and the court will save by not having to educate the public from the bench, thus expediting the handling of support and custody cases.

(e) The cost of computers, printers, and other equipment will be defrayed by contributions.

SEC. 211. Part 2 (commencing with Section 20100) is added to Division 20 of the Family Code, to read:

PART 2. PATERNITY PILOT PROJECTS

20100. (a) The State Department of Social Services shall establish pilot projects in one hospital which agrees to participate, in each of three counties to evaluate the cost-effectiveness of establishing paternity at the hospital, the number of parents who sign paternity declarations, the circumstances under which parents volunteer to establish paternity, and the obstacles to establishing paternity through voluntary declaration.

(b) Although the number of pilot projects is limited to one hospital in each of three counties, any county, and any hospital, clinic, or other place of birth within those counties that is not part of the pilot projects, that wishes to implement voluntary paternity establishment by declaration as provided for in this part, may do so by using the forms and procedures set forth in this part, and by informing the State Department of Social Services of their intention to implement voluntary paternity establishment by declaration no later than March 1, 1993.

20101. The State Department of Social Services shall do all of the following:

(a) Establish the pilot projects in accordance with Section 20100.

(b) Consult with representatives of the Senate and Assembly Judiciary Committees, the State Registrar of Vital Statistics, child support advocacy groups, hospital associations, and district attorneys in developing the form to be used to establish paternity in the pilot projects.

(c) With the assistance of the State Registrar of Vital Statistics, furnish and distribute the forms to local registrars of vital statistics in participating counties.

(d) Consult with representatives of the Senate and Assembly Judiciary Committees, the State Registrar of Vital Statistics, child support advocacy groups, hospital associations, and district attorneys in evaluating the pilot projects.

20102. (a) As used in this section, "father" has the meaning provided by Section 7540.

(b) Because of the compelling interest in providing all children in this state with equal rights and access to benefits, including, but not limited to, social security, health insurance, survivors' benefits, military benefits, and inheritance rights, without regard to the marital status of their parents, except as provided in subdivision (d), the child of a woman and a man executing a declaration of paternity under this section, which meets the requirements of subdivision (c), is conclusively presumed to be their child. The presumption under this section has the same force and effect as the presumption under Section 7540.

(c) In order for a conclusive presumption of paternity to be established pursuant to this section, the following must appear on the declaration:

(1) The full name, place, and date of birth of the child.

(2) The full name and current address of the attesting father of the child.

(3) The full name and current address of the attesting mother of the child.

(4) A notice captioned "READ THIS BEFORE SIGNING," preceding the declaration and conspicuously placed, stating all of the following:

(A) Executing this declaration is strictly voluntary. If you have any questions that were not answered in the written information provided to you with this form, consult an attorney.

(B) This declaration is a legal document that creates rights and duties under California law and assures that your child is entitled to receive the same rights and benefits as he or she would receive if you were married to the other parent of your child.

(C) The man signing this declaration unequivocally understands that by signing this document he agrees that he is the father of the child and that he is willingly and knowingly waiving his right to a trial on the question of paternity unless he takes action within two years from the date of signing this document to challenge the paternity established by the declaration as provided by subdivision (d).

(D) The paternity established by the declaration may be rebutted in court by a blood test, as provided by subdivision (d), within two years from the date of signature by the attesting father, or the attesting mother, whichever signature is later.

(E) If the attesting father does not contest paternity within two years after the date he executes the declaration, or from the date the attesting mother executes the declaration, whichever date is later, he will be deemed to be the father of the child regardless of any evidence to the contrary, including blood or genetic tests, offered at any proceeding that takes place more than two years from the date of signing this declaration.

(F) Upon establishing yourself as the father of the child, you are fully and legally responsible for the support of the child, which may include paying child support.

(G) Upon establishing yourself as the father of the child, you, by signing this declaration, are entitled to all rights with regard to the child that a father would have who is or has been married to the mother of the child.

(5) The signature of the father attesting under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the information provided is true and correct, that he has read and fully understands the rights he is waiving and the duties imposed on him as described in paragraph (4), that he is executing this declaration to establish that he is the father of the child and understands that by acknowledging paternity of the child he accepts an obligation to provide child support under the laws of the State of California.

(6) Execution of this declaration authorizes the state to add the signatory's name as the natural father of the child to the child's birth certificate.

(7) The signature of the natural mother attesting under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the information provided is true and correct, that the man named is the natural father of the child, that she is executing this declaration to name the natural father of her child, and that she has read and fully understands that by executing this declaration she is establishing the named natural father as the conclusively presumed father with all the rights and responsibilities of a conclusively presumed father under Section 7540.

(8) The full name and signature of the party registering the declaration and the date of registration.

(d) The presumption established by this section may be rebutted, by any person as provided by subdivision (a) of Section 7541, within two years from the date of execution of the declaration by the attesting father, or by the attesting mother, whichever signature is later. The two-year statute of limitation used in subdivision (b) of Section 7541 is inapplicable for purposes of this section.

(e) A presumption under this section does not override a presumption under Section 7540. A presumption under this section overrides all presumptions except a presumption arising under Section 7540, including presumptions under Section 7611.

20103. (a) Before the mother leaves the hospital, clinic, or other place of birth, the person responsible for registering live births under Sections 10101 and 10102 of the Health and Safety Code shall provide to the natural mother and attempt to provide, at the place of birth, to the man identified by the natural mother as the natural father, a declaration for completion that meets the requirements of Section 20102. The person responsible for registering the birth shall file the declaration, if completed, with the birth certificate, and a copy of the declaration shall be made available to each of the attesting parents.

(b) If the declaration is not registered by the person responsible for registering live births at the hospital, clinic, or place of birth, it may be completed by the attesting parents by means of notarized signatures and mailed to, or registered personally by either or both parents with, the local registrar of the State Office of Vital Statistics at any time after the child's birth.

(c) The declaration, whether filed by the person responsible for registering live births, or by the parents at a later date, shall be attached as an addendum to the public, nonconfidential portion of the birth certificate.

20104. The State Department of Social Services shall report to the Legislature on or before December 31, 1995, on the success of the pilot projects. The evaluation of the effectiveness of the pilot projects shall be based on the following criteria:

(a) A significant increase in the ease of establishing paternity within participating counties.

(b) A significant increase in paternity establishment within participating counties.

(c) An increase in the numbers of children within participating counties, who have greater access to child support and other benefits of paternity due to voluntary establishment of paternity by declaration.

(d) For those families establishing paternity by means of a voluntary declaration, a significant decrease in the time required to establish paternity due to the removal of the need for a lengthy court process to determine and establish paternity.

(e) A notable decrease in costs to the courts and district attorneys due to the establishment of paternity by voluntary declaration.

SEC. 212. Section 6159 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6159. (a) As used in this section:

(1) "Credit card" means any card, plate, coupon book, or other credit device existing for the purpose of being used from time to time upon presentation to obtain money, property, labor, or services on credit.

(2) "Card issuer" means any person who issues a credit card and purchases credit card drafts or the agent of such person for such purposes with respect to such card.

(3) "Cardholder" means any person to whom a credit card is issued or any person who has agreed with the card issuer to pay obligations arising from the issuance of a credit card to another person.

(4) "Draft purchaser" means any person who purchases credit card drafts.

(b) Subject to the provisions of subdivision (c), a court, city, county, city and county, or other public agency may authorize the acceptance of a credit card for any of the following:

(1) The payment for the deposit of bail or for any fine for any offense not declared to be a felony.

(2) The payment of a filing fee or other court fee.

(3) The payment of any towage or storage costs for a vehicle which has been removed from a highway, or from public or private property, as a result of parking violations.

(4) The payment of child, family, or spousal support, including reimbursement of public assistance, related fees, costs, or penalties, with the authorization of the cardholder.

(5) The payment for services rendered by any city, county, or city and county.

(c) A court desiring to authorize the use of a credit card pursuant to subdivision (b) shall obtain the approval of its county board of supervisors. A city desiring to authorize the use of a credit card pursuant to subdivision (b) shall obtain the approval of its city council. Any other public agency desiring to authorize the use of a credit card pursuant to subdivision (b) shall obtain the approval of the governing body which has fiscal responsibility for the agency. After approval is obtained, a contract may be executed with one or more credit card issuers or draft purchasers. The contract shall provide for:

(1) The respective rights and duties of the court, city, county, city and county, or other public agency and card issuer or draft purchaser regarding the presentment, acceptability and payment of credit card drafts.

(2) The establishment of a reasonable means by which to facilitate payment settlements.

(3) The payment to the card issuer or draft purchaser of a reasonable fee or discount.

(4) Such other matters appropriately included in contracts with respect to the purchase of credit card drafts as may be agreed upon by the parties to the contract.

(d) The honoring of a credit card pursuant to subdivision (b) constitutes payment of the amount owing to the court, city, county, city and county, or other public agency as of the date the credit card is honored provided the credit card draft is paid following its due presentment to a card issuer or draft purchaser.

(e) If any credit card draft is not paid following due presentment to a card issuer or draft purchaser or is charged back to the court, city, county, city and county, or other public agency for any reason, any record of payment made by the court, city, or other public agency honoring the credit card shall be void. Any receipt issued in acknowledgment of payment shall also be void. The obligation of the cardholder shall continue as an outstanding obligation as though no payment had been attempted.

(f) Fees or discounts provided for under paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) shall be deducted or accounted for prior to any statutory or other distribution of funds received from the card issuer or draft purchaser.

SEC. 213. Section 21215 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21215. (a) Upon the legal separation or dissolution of marriage of a member, the court shall include in the judgment or a court order the date on which the parties separated.

(b) If the community property is divided in accordance with subdivision (c) of Section 2610 of the Family Code, the court shall order that the accumulated contributions and service credit attributable to periods of service during the marriage be divided into two separate and distinct accounts in the name of the member and the nonmember, respectively. Any service credit or accumulated contributions which are not explicitly awarded by the judgment or court order shall be deemed the exclusive property of the member.

(c) The court shall address the rights of the nonmember to the following:

(1) The right to a retirement allowance, and the consequent right to elect an optional settlement and designate a beneficiary.

(2) The right to a refund of accumulated contributions.

(3) The right to redeposit accumulated contributions which are eligible for redeposit by the member under Sections 20654 and 20654.3.

(4) The right to purchase service credit which is eligible for purchase by the member under Article 4 (commencing with Section 20890) and Article 5 (commencing with Section 20930) of Chapter 7.

(5) The right to designate a beneficiary to receive his or her accumulated contributions payable where death occurs prior to retirement.

(6) The right to designate a beneficiary for any unpaid allowance payable at the time of the nonmember's death.

(7) The right to elect coverage in the second tier for that member service which is subject to the second tier, provided that the election is made within one year of the establishment of the nonmember account or prior to the nonmember's retirement, whichever occurs first. Immediately upon establishment of a nonmember account, the board shall provide, by certified mail, the necessary form and information so that the election may be made.

(d) In the capacity of nonmember, he or she shall not be entitled to any disability or industrial disability retirement allowance, any basic death benefit, any special death benefit, any monthly allowance for survivors of a member or retired person, any insurance benefit, or retired member lump sum death benefit. No survivor continuance allowance shall be payable to a survivor of a nonmember.

SEC. 213.5. Section 26833.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26833.5. No fee shall be charged to an indigent plaintiff for certified copies of any order issued pursuant to any of the following:

(a) Article 2 (commencing with Section 2045), Article 3 (commencing with Section 2047), or Article 4 (commencing with Section 2049) of Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 6 of the Family Code.

(b) Division 10 (commencing with Section 6200) of the Family Code.

(c) Article 2 (commencing with Section 7710), Article 3 (commencing with Section 7720), or Article 4 (commencing with Section 7730) of Chapter 6 of Part 3 of Division 12 of the Family Code.

SEC. 214. Section 26840.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26840.3. (a) The superior court in any county may, for the support of the family conciliation court or for conciliation and mediation services provided pursuant to Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 3160) of Part 2 of Division 8 of the Family Code, upon action of the board of supervisors to provide all space costs and indirect overhead costs from other sources, increase:

(1) The fee for issuing a marriage license, by an amount not to exceed five dollars ($5).

(2) The fee for issuing a marriage certificate pursuant to Part 4 (commencing with Section 500) of Division 3 of the Family Code, by an amount not to exceed five dollars ($5).

(b) The funds shall be paid to the county treasury and an amount equal thereto shall be used exclusively to pay the costs of maintaining the family conciliation court or conciliation and mediation services provided pursuant to Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 3160) of Part 2 of Division 8 of the Family Code.

SEC. 214.5. Section 26841 of the Government Code is amended to read:

26841. The superior court in any county may increase the fee for the filing of any paper in response to an order or an application for a protective order, as defined in Section 6218 of the Family Code, by five dollars ($5), upon the adoption of a resolution to that effect by the board of supervisors. The five dollars ($5) shall be disposed of pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 18290) of Part 6 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 214.7. Section 68085 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68085. (a) There is hereby established the Trial Court Trust Fund, the proceeds of which may only be expended, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for the purpose of funding trial court operations, including, but not limited to, superior and municipal court judges' salaries, benefits, and public agency retirement contributions, and the salary, benefits, and public agency retirement contributions for justice court judges, subordinate judicial officers, other court staff, including all municipal court staff positions specifically prescribed by statute, those deputy marshals, constables, and sheriffs as the court deems necessary for court operations, alternative adjudication techniques for handling minor motor-vehicle-related civil claims, judicial arbitration, court-appointed counsel in juvenile court dependency proceedings, counsel appointed by the court to represent a minor pursuant to Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 3150) of Part 2 of Division 8 of the Family Code, services and supplies relating to court operations, collective bargaining under the Meyers-Milias-Brown Act (Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 3500) of Division 4 of Title 1) with respect to court employees specified in Section 3501.6, and actual indirect costs, not to exceed 18 percent of the block grant, for county general services attributable to court operations.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the fees listed in subdivision (c) shall all be deposited upon collection in a special account in the county treasury, and transmitted therefrom monthly to the Controller for deposit in the Trial Court Trust Fund.

(c) Except as specified in subdivision (d), this section applies to all fees collected pursuant to Sections 26820.4, 26826, 26827, 68086, 68090, 72055, 72056, and 72056.5.

(d) This section does not apply to that portion of a filing fee collected pursuant to Section 26820.4, 26826, 26827, 72055, or 72056 which is allocated for dispute resolution pursuant to Section 470.3 of the Business and Professions Code, the county law library pursuant to Section 6320 of the Business and Professions Code, the small claims advisor pursuant to Section 116.910 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the Judges' Retirement Fund pursuant to Section 26822.3, automated recordkeeping or conversion to micrographics pursuant to Sections 26863 and 68090.7, and courthouse financing pursuant to Section 76238.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, unless approval is first obtained from the Controller, no agency shall take action to change the amounts allocated to any of the above funds.

SEC. 215. Section 75050 of the Government Code is amended to read:

75050. (a) Upon the legal separation or dissolution of marriage of a member, the court shall include in the judgment or a court order the date on which the parties separated.

(b) If the court orders the division of the community property interest in the system pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 2610 of the Family Code, the accumulated contributions and service credit attributable to periods of service during the marriage shall be divided into two separate and distinct accounts in the name of the member and nonmember, respectively. Any service credit or accumulated contributions which are not explicitly awarded by the judgment or court order shall be deemed the exclusive property of the member.

(c) Upon receipt of the court order separating the account of the member and the nonmember pursuant to this section, the board shall determine the rights of the nonmember, taking into consideration the court order and the account of the member. These rights may include the following:

(1) The right to a retirement allowance.

(2) The right to a refund of accumulated retirement contributions.

(3) The right to redeposit accumulated contributions which are eligible for redeposit by the member under Section 75028.5.

(4) The right to purchase service credit which is eligible for purchase by the member under Sections 75029 to 75030.5.

(5) The right to designate a beneficiary to receive his or her accumulated contributions payable where death occurs prior to retirement.

(6) The right to designate a beneficiary for any unpaid allowance payable at the time of the nonmember's death.

(d) In the capacity of nonmember, the nonmember shall not be entitled to any disability retirement allowance.

SEC. 216. Section 10605 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

10605. (a) A fee of three dollars ($3) shall be paid by the applicant for a certified copy of a fetal death or death record.

(b) (1) A fee of three dollars ($3) shall be paid by a public agency or licensed private adoption agency applicant for a certified copy of a birth certificate that the agency is required to obtain in the ordinary course of business. A fee of seven dollars ($7) shall be paid by any other applicant for a certified copy of a birth certificate. Four dollars ($4) of any seven-dollar ($7) fee is exempt from subdivision (e) and shall be paid to either a county children's trust fund or to the State Children's Trust Fund, in conformity with Article 5 (commencing with Section 18965) of Chapter 11 of Part 6 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(2) (A) As a pilot project, Contra Costa, Los Angeles, Orange, Sacramento, San Diego, Santa Clara, and Tulare Counties may increase the fee for a certified copy of a birth certificate by up to three dollars ($3), through December 31, 1996, for the purpose of providing dependency mediation services in the juvenile court. Public agencies shall be exempt from paying this portion of the fee. However, if a county increases this fee, neither the revenue generated from the fee increase nor the increased expenditures made for these services shall be considered in determining the court's progress towards achieving its cost reduction goals pursuant to Section 68113 of the Government Code if the net effect of the revenue and expenditures is a cost increase. In each county participating in the pilot project up to 5 percent of the revenue generated from the fee increase may be apportioned to the county recorder for the additional accounting costs of the program.

(B) On or before December 31, 1995, each participating county shall submit an independent study of the project to the Legislature. The study shall consider the effectiveness of mediation, the cost-avoidance realized, what model of juvenile court mediation should be promoted statewide, and at what point mediation is most effective.

(C) The presiding judge of the superior court of each participating county shall designate a person who will facilitate access to case files and any other data necessary for the independent study.

(D) Variables to be evaluated and measured to indicate the success of the pilot projects shall include, but not be limited to:

(i) At least 75 percent of all participants should be satisfied or very satisfied with the dependency mediation process.

(ii) The range of creative solutions for resolution of the families' problems within the development of the court ordered plan shall increase by 10 percent.

(iii) At least 70 percent of matters coming before the court should be settled in less time using dependency mediation than if adjudicated.

(iv) Dependency mediation shall result in a 25 percent reduction in foster care placements.

(c) A fee of three dollars ($3) shall be paid by a public agency applicant for a certified copy of a marriage record, that has been filed with the county recorder or county clerk, that the agency is required to obtain in the ordinary course of business. A fee of six dollars ($6) shall be paid by any other applicant for a certified copy of a marriage record that has been filed with the county recorder or county clerk. Three dollars ($3) of any six-dollar ($6) fee is exempt from subdivision (e) and shall be transmitted monthly by each local registrar, county recorder, and county clerk to the state for deposit into the General Fund as provided by Section 1852 of the Family Code.

(d) A fee of three dollars ($3) shall be paid by a public agency applicant for a certified copy of a marriage dissolution record obtained from the State Registrar that the agency is required to obtain in the ordinary course of business. A fee of six dollars ($6) shall be paid by any other applicant for a certified copy of a marriage dissolution record obtained from the State Registrar.

(e) Each local registrar, county recorder, or county clerk collecting a fee pursuant to this section shall transmit 15 percent of the fee for each certified copy to the State Registrar by the 10th day of the month following the month in which the fee was received.

(f) The additional three dollars ($3) authorized to be charged to applicants other than public agency applicants for certified copies of marriage records by subdivision (c) may be increased pursuant to Section 114.

SEC. 216.1. Section 11834.11 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11834.11. (a) As used in this chapter, alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facility means any facility, place, or building that provides 24-hour residential nonmedical services in a group setting to adults, which may include, but need not be limited to, mothers over 18 years of age and their children, and emancipated minors, which may include, but need not be limited to, mothers under 18 years of age and their children, who are recovering from alcohol, drug, or drug and alcohol misuse and are currently capable of meeting their life support needs independently, but who temporarily need guidance, counseling, or other alcohol or drug recovery services.

(b) "Emancipated minors" as used in this chapter means persons under 18 years of age who are emancipated under Section 7002 of the Family Code.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), an alcoholism or drug abuse recovery or treatment facility may serve adolescents upon the issuance of a waiver granted by the department pursuant to regulations adopted under subdivision (c) of Section 11834.13.

SEC. 216.4. Section 273.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

273.5. (a) Any person who willfully inflicts upon his or her spouse, or any person who willfully inflicts upon any person of the opposite sex with whom he or she is cohabiting, or any person who willfully inflicts upon any person who is the mother or father of his or her child, corporal injury resulting in a traumatic condition, is guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for 2, 3 or 4 years, or in a county jail for not more than one year, or by a fine of up to six thousand dollars ($6,000) or by both.

(b) Holding oneself out to be the husband or wife of the person with whom one is cohabiting is not necessary to constitute cohabitation as the term is used in this section.

(c) As used in this section, "traumatic condition" means a condition of the body, such as a wound or external or internal injury, whether of a minor or serious nature, caused by a physical force.

(d) For the purpose of this section, a person shall be considered the father or mother of another person's child if the alleged male parent is presumed the natural father under Sections 7611 and 7612 of the Family Code.

(e) In any case in which a person is convicted of violating this section and probation is granted, the court shall require participation in a batterer's treatment program as a condition of probation unless, considering all of the facts and the circumstances, the court finds participation in a batterer's treatment program inappropriate for the defendant.

(f) If probation is granted, or the execution or imposition of a sentence is suspended, for any person convicted under subdivision (a) who previously has been convicted under subdivision (a) for an offense that occurred within seven years of the offense of the second conviction, it shall be a condition thereof that he or she be imprisoned in a county jail for not less than 96 hours and that he or she participate in for no less than one year, and successfully complete, a batterer's treatment program, as designated by the court. However, the court, upon a showing of good cause, may find that the mandatory minimum imprisonment, or the participation in a batterer's treatment program, or both the mandatory minimum imprisonment and participation in a batterer's treatment program, as required by this subdivision, shall not be imposed and grant probation or the suspension of the execution or imposition of a sentence.

(g) If probation is granted, or the execution or imposition of a sentence is suspended, for any person convicted under subdivision (a) who previously has been convicted of two or more violations of subdivision (a) for offenses that occurred within seven years of the most recent conviction, it shall be a condition thereof that he or she be imprisoned in a county jail for not less than 30 days and that he or she participate in for no less than one year, and successfully complete, a batterer's treatment program as designated by the court. However, the court, upon a showing of good cause, may find that the mandatory minimum imprisonment, or the participation in a batterer's treatment program, or both the mandatory minimum imprisonment and participation in a batterer's treatment program, as required by this subdivision, shall not be imposed and grant probation or the suspension of the execution or imposition of a sentence.

(h) If probation is granted upon conviction of a violation of subdivision (a), the conditions of probation may include, in lieu of a fine, one or both of the following requirements:

(1) That the defendant make payments to a battered women's shelter, up to a maximum of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(2) That the defendant reimburse the victim for reasonable costs of counseling and other reasonable expenses that the court finds are the direct result of the defendant's offense.

For any order to pay a fine, make payments to a battered women's shelter, or pay restitution as a condition of probation under this subdivision, the court shall make a determination of the defendant's ability to pay. In no event shall any order to make payments to a battered women's shelter be made if it would impair the ability of the defendant to pay direct restitution to the victim or court ordered child support. Where the injury to a married person is caused in whole or in part by the criminal acts of his or her spouse in violation of this section, the community property may not be used to discharge the liability of the offending spouse for restitution to the injured spouse, required by Section 1203.04, or to a shelter for costs with regard to the injured spouse and dependents, required by this section, until all separate property of the offending spouse is exhausted.

SEC. 216.5. Section 273.6 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

273.6. (a) Any willful and knowing violation of a protective order, as defined in Section 6218 of the Family Code, or of an order issued pursuant to Section 527.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(b) In the event of a violation of an order described in subdivision (a) which results in a physical injury, the person shall be imprisoned in a county jail for at least 48 hours, whether a fine or imprisonment is imposed, or the sentence is suspended.

(c) A second or subsequent conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a) occurring within seven years of a prior conviction for a violation of the order and involving an act of violence or "a credible threat" of violence as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 139 is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year, or in the state prison for 16 months or two or three years.

(d) The prosecuting agency of each county shall have the primary responsibility for the enforcement of orders issued pursuant to subdivisions (a), (b), and (c).

(e) If probation is granted upon conviction of a violation of subdivision (a), (b), or (c), the conditions of probation may include, in lieu of a fine, one or both of the following requirements:

(1) That the defendant make payments to a battered women's shelter, up to a maximum of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(2) That the defendant reimburse the victim for reasonable costs of counseling and other reasonable expenses that the court finds are the direct result of the defendant's offense.

(f) For any order to pay a fine, make payments to a battered women's shelter, or pay restitution as a condition of probation under subdivision (e), the court shall make a determination of the defendant's ability to pay. In no event shall any order to make payments to a battered women's shelter be made if it would impair the ability of the defendant to pay direct restitution to the victim or court ordered child support. Where the injury to a married person is caused in whole or in part by the criminal acts of his or her spouse in violation of this section, the community property may not be used to discharge the liability of the offending spouse for restitution to the injured spouse, required by Section 1203.04, or to a shelter for costs with regard to the injured spouse and dependents, required by this section, until all separate property of the offending spouse is exhausted.

SEC. 217. Section 360 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

360. Every person authorized to solemnize any marriage, who solemnizes a marriage without first being presented with the marriage license, as required by Section 421 of the Family Code; or who solemnizes a marriage pursuant to Part 4 (commencing with Section 500) of Division 3 of the Family Code without the authorization required by that part; or who willfully makes a false return of any marriage or pretended marriage to the recorder or clerk; or who, having solemnized a marriage, fails to return to the recorder or clerk the marriage license with the certificate endorsed thereon, as required by Section 423 of the Family Code; or who having solemnized a marriage pursuant to Part 4 (commencing with Section 500) of Division 3 of the Family Code, fails to return the certificate as required by Section 506 of the Family Code, and every person who willfully makes a false record of any marriage return, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 218. Section 977 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

977. (a) (1) In all cases in which the accused is charged with a misdemeanor only, he or she may appear by counsel only, except as provided in paragraph (2). If the accused agrees, the arraignment and plea may be by video, as provided by subdivision (c).

(2) When the accused is charged with a misdemeanor offense involving domestic violence, as defined in Section 6211 of the Family Code, or a misdemeanor violation of Section 273.6, upon a satisfactory showing of necessity, the court may order through counsel that the accused be personally present in court for the purpose of the service of an order under Section 136.2, unless the court determines that the defendant will make another court appearance within a reasonable period of time and the defendant could be served with a restraining order at that time.

(b) (1) In all cases in which a felony is charged, the accused shall be present at the arraignment, at the time of plea, during the preliminary hearing, during those portions of the trial when evidence is taken before the trier of fact, and at the time of the imposition of sentence. The accused shall be personally present at all other proceedings unless he or she shall, with leave of court, execute in open court, a written waiver of his or her right to be personally present, as provided by paragraph (2). If the accused agrees, the arraignment and plea may be by video, as provided by subdivision (c).

(2) The accused may execute a written waiver of his or her right to be personally present, approved by his or her counsel, and the waiver shall be filed with the court. However, the court may specifically direct the defendant to be personally present at any particular proceeding or portion thereof. The waiver shall be substantially in the following form:

"WAIVER OF DEFENDANT'S PERSONAL PRESENCE"

"The undersigned defendant, having been advised of his or her right to be present at all stages of the proceedings, including, but not limited to, presentation of and arguments on questions of fact and law, and to be confronted by and cross-examine all witnesses, hereby waives the right to be present at the hearing of any motion or other proceeding in this cause. The undersigned defendant hereby requests the court to proceed during every absence of the defendant that the court may permit pursuant to this waiver, and hereby agrees that his or her interest is represented at all times by the presence of his or her attorney the same as if the defendant were personally present in court, and further agrees that notice to his or her attorney that his or her presence in court on a particular day at a particular time is required is notice to the defendant of the requirement of his or her appearance at that time and place."

(c) The court may permit the initial arraignment in municipal or superior court of defendants held in any state, county, or local facility within the county on felony or misdemeanor charges, except for those defendants who were indicted by a grand jury, to be conducted by two-way electronic audiovideo communication between the defendant and the courtroom in lieu of the physical presence of the defendant in the courtroom. If the defendant is represented by counsel, the attorney shall be present with the defendant, and may enter a plea, during the arraignment. The defendant shall have the right to make his or her plea while physically present in the courtroom if he or she so requests. If the defendant decides not to exercise the right to be physically present in the courtroom, he or she shall execute a written waiver of that right. A judge may order a defendant's personal appearance in court for arraignment. In a misdemeanor case, a judge may, pursuant to this subdivision, accept a plea of guilty or no contest from a defendant who is not physically in the courtroom. In a felony case, a judge may, pursuant to this subdivision, accept a plea of guilty or no contest from a defendant who is not physically in the courtroom if the parties stipulate thereto.

SEC. 219. Section 1377 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1377. When the person injured by an act constituting a misdemeanor has a remedy by a civil action, the offense may be compromised, as provided in Section 1378, except when it is committed as follows:

(a) By or upon an officer of justice, while in the execution of the duties of his or her office.

(b) Riotously.

(c) With an intent to commit a felony.

(d) In violation of any court order as described in Section 273.6.

(e) By or upon any family or household member, or upon any person when the violation involves any person described in Section 6211 of the Family Code or subdivision (b) of Section 13700 of this code, and when the defendant has civilly compromised any domestic violence offense committed upon any victim within seven years of the commission of the currently charged offense.

When an offense by or upon any family or household member, or upon any person, when the violation involves any person described in Section 6211 of the Family Code or subdivision (b) of Section 13700 of this code, is sought to be compromised and the prosecution objects to that civil compromise pursuant to this section, the court shall hold a hearing that is noticed within 10 court days where the victim is present and acknowledges and presents proof of satisfaction for injury. During the hearing, the prosecution shall have an opportunity to present evidence and make arguments with regard to the proposed civil compromise, and the court may question the victim in open court on the issue of the satisfaction being presented as a basis for the compromise.

For purposes of this subdivision, a victim of a domestic violence offense is a person described in Section 6211 of the Family Code or subdivision (b) of Section 13700 of this code.

SEC. 220. Section 11105.3 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11105.3. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a human resource agency or an employer may request from the Department of Justice records of all convictions or any arrest pending adjudication involving the offenses specified in subdivision (g) of a person who applies for a license, employment, or volunteer position, in which he or she would have supervisory or disciplinary power over a minor or any person under his or her care. The department shall furnish the information to the requesting employer and shall also send a copy of the information to the applicant.

(b) Any request for records under subdivision (a) shall include the applicant's fingerprints, which may be taken by the requester, and any other data specified by the department. The request shall be on a form approved by the department, and the department may charge a fee to be paid by the employer, human resource agency, or applicant for the actual cost of processing the request. However, no fee shall be charged a nonprofit organization. The department shall destroy an application within six months after the requested information is sent to the employer and applicant.

(c) Nothing in this section supersedes any law requiring criminal record access or dissemination of criminal history information. In any conflict with another statute, dissemination of criminal history information shall be pursuant to the mandatory statute. This subdivision applies to, but is not limited to, requirements pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 1500) of Chapter 3 of, and Chapter 3.2 (commencing with Section 1569) and Chapter 3.4 (commencing with Section 1596.70) of, Division 2 of, and Section 1522 of, the Health and Safety Code, and Sections 8712, 8811, and 8908 of the Family Code.

(d) The department may adopt regulations to implement the provisions of this section as necessary.

(e) As used in this section, "employer" means any nonprofit corporation or other organizations specified by the Attorney General which employs or uses the services of volunteers in positions in which the volunteer or employee has supervisory or disciplinary power over a child or children.

(f) As used in this section, "human resource agency" means a public or private entity, excluding any agency responsible for licensing of facilities pursuant to the California Community Care Facilities Act (Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500)), the California Residential Care Facilities for the Elderly Act (Chapter 3.2 (commencing with Section 1569)), Chapter 3.01 (commencing with Section 1568.01), and the California Child Day Care Facilities Act (Chapter 3.4 (commencing with Section 1596.70)) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, responsible for determining the character and fitness of a person who is (1) applying for a license, employment, or as a volunteer within the human services field that involves the care and security of children, the elderly, the handicapped, or the mentally impaired, or (2) applying to adopt a child or to be a foster parent.

(g) Records of the following offenses shall be furnished as provided in subdivision (a):

(1) Violations or attempted violations of Section 220, 261, 261.5, 262, 266, 266j, 267, 272, 273a, 273d, 273.5, Sections 285 to 289, inclusive, Section 311.4, 311.10, 311.11, 314, 647.6, former Section 647a, or subdivision (a) or (d) of Section 647, or commitment as a mentally disordered sex offender under former Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(2) Any crime described in the California Uniform Controlled Substances Act (Division 10 (commencing with Section 11000) of the Health and Safety Code), provided that, except as otherwise provided in subdivision (c), no record of a misdemeanor conviction shall be transmitted to the requester unless the subject of the request has a total of three or more misdemeanor or felony convictions defined in this section within the immediately preceding 10-year period.

(3) Any felony or misdemeanor conviction within 10 years of the date of the employer's request under subdivision (a), for a violation or attempted violation of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 207), Section 211, wherein it is charged and proved that the defendant personally used a deadly or dangerous weapon, as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 12022, in the commission of that robbery, Section 217.1, Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 236), Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 240), and for a violation of any of the offenses specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, provided that no record of a misdemeanor conviction shall be transmitted to the requester unless the subject of the request has a total of three or more misdemeanor or felony convictions defined in this section within the immediately preceding 10-year period.

(4) A conviction for a violation or attempted violation of an offense committed outside the State of California shall be furnished if the offense would have been a crime as defined in this section if committed in California.

(h) Any criminal history information obtained pursuant to this section is confidential and no recipient shall disclose its contents other than for the purpose for which it was acquired.

SEC. 221. Section 11167 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11167. (a) A telephone report of a known or suspected instance of child abuse shall include the name of the person making the report, the name of the child, the present location of the child, the nature and extent of the injury, and any other information, including information that led that person to suspect child abuse, requested by the child protective agency.

(b) Information relevant to the incident of child abuse may also be given to an investigator from a child protective agency who is investigating the known or suspected case of child abuse.

(c) Information relevant to the incident of child abuse may be given to the licensing agency when it is investigating a known or suspected case of child abuse, including the investigation report, and other pertinent materials.

(d) The identity of all persons who report under this article shall be confidential and disclosed only between child protective agencies, or to counsel representing a child protective agency, or to the district attorney in a criminal prosecution or in an action initiated under Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code arising from alleged child abuse, or to counsel appointed pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 317 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or to the county counsel or district attorney in a proceeding under Part 4 (commencing with Section 7800) of Division 12 of the Family Code or Section 300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or to a licensing agency when abuse in out-of-home care is reasonably suspected, or when those persons waive confidentiality, or by court order.

No agency or person listed in this subdivision shall disclose the identity of any person who reports under this article to that person's employer, except with the employee's consent or by court order.

(e) Persons who may report pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 11166 are not required to include their names.

SEC. 221.1. Section 11170 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11170. (a) The Department of Justice shall maintain an index of all reports of child abuse submitted pursuant to Section 11169. The index shall be continually updated by the department and shall not contain any reports that are determined to be unfounded. The department may adopt rules governing recordkeeping and reporting pursuant to this article.

(b) (1) The Department of Justice shall immediately notify a child protective agency which submits a report pursuant to Section 11169, or a district attorney who requests notification, of any information maintained pursuant to subdivision (a) which is relevant to the known or suspected instance of child abuse reported by the agency. A child protective agency shall make that information available to the reporting medical practitioner, child custodian, guardian ad litem appointed under Section 326, or counsel appointed under Section 317 or 318 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or the appropriate licensing agency, if he or she is treating or investigating a case of known or suspected child abuse.

(2) When a report is made pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 11166, the investigating agency, upon completion of the investigation or after there has been a final disposition in the matter, shall inform the person required to report of the results of the investigation and of any action the agency is taking with regard to the child or family.

(3) The department shall make available to the State Department of Social Services or to any county licensing agency which has contracted with the state for the performance of licensing duties any information received subsequent to January 1, 1981, pursuant to this section concerning any person who is an applicant for licensure or any adult who resides or is employed in the home of an applicant for licensure or who is an applicant for employment in a position having supervisorial or disciplinary power over a child or children, or who will provide 24-hour care for a child or children in a residential home or facility, pursuant to Section 1522.1 or 1596.877 of the Health and Safety Code, or Section 8714, 8802, 8912, or 9000 of the Family Code. If the department has information that has been received subsequent to January 1, 1981, concerning such a person, it also shall make available to the State Department of Social Services or to the county licensing agency any other information maintained pursuant to subdivision (a).

(4) Persons or agencies, as specified in subdivision (b), if investigating a case of known or suspected child abuse, or the State Department of Social Services or any county licensing agency pursuant to paragraph (3), to whom disclosure of any information maintained pursuant to subdivision (a) is authorized, are responsible for obtaining the original investigative report from the reporting agency, and for drawing independent conclusions regarding the quality of the evidence disclosed, and its sufficiency for making decisions regarding investigation, prosecution, or licensing.

(5) Effective January 1, 1993, whenever information contained in the Department of Justice files is furnished as the result of an application for employment or licensing pursuant to paragraph (3), the Department of Justice may charge the person or entity making the request a fee. The fee shall not exceed the reasonable costs to the department of providing the information. The only increase shall be at a rate not to exceed the legislatively approved cost-of-living adjustment for the department. In no case shall the fee exceed fifteen dollars ($15).

All moneys received by the department pursuant to this paragraph shall be deposited in a special account in the General Fund which is hereby created and named the Department of Justice Sexual Habitual Offender Fund. The funds shall be available, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for expenditure by the department to offset the costs incurred pursuant to Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 13885) and Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 13890) of Title 6 of Part 4, and Section 290.2, and for maintenance and improvements to the statewide Sexual Habitual Offender Program and the DNA offender identification file (CAL-DNA) authorized by Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 13885) of Title 6 of Part 4 and Section 290.2.

SEC. 221.3. Section 12021 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12021. (a) Any person who has been convicted of a felony under the laws of the United States, of the State of California, or any other state, government, or country, or of an offense enumerated in Section 12001.6, or who is addicted to the use of any narcotic drug, who owns or has in his or her possession or under his or her custody or control any firearm is guilty of a felony.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), any person who has been convicted of a felony or of an offense enumerated in Section 12001.6, when that conviction results from certification by the juvenile court for prosecution as an adult in an adult court under Section 707 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, who owns or has in his or her possession or under his or her custody or control any firearm is guilty of a felony.

(c) (1) Except as provided in subdivision (a) or paragraph (2) of this subdivision, any person who has been convicted of a misdemeanor violation of Section 136.5, 140, 171b, 171c, 171d, 241, 243, 244.5, 245, 245.5, 246.3, 247, 417, 417.2, 626.9, subdivision (b) or (d) of Section 12034, subdivision (a) of Section 12100, 12320, or 12590 and who, within 10 years of the conviction, owns, or has in his or her possession or under his or her custody or control, any firearm is guilty of a public offense, which shall be punishable by imprisonment in the state prison or in a county jail not exceeding one year, by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine. The court, on forms prescribed by the Department of Justice, shall notify the department of persons subject to this subdivision. However, the prohibition in this paragraph may be reduced, eliminated, or conditioned as provided in paragraph (2).

(2) Any person, whose continued employment or livelihood is dependent on the ability to legally possess a firearm, who is subject to the prohibition imposed by this subdivision because of a conviction prior to the effective date of the amendments which added this paragraph to this section, at any time until January 1, 1993, may petition the court for relief from this prohibition. The court may reduce or eliminate the prohibition, impose conditions on reduction or elimination of the prohibition, or otherwise grant relief from the prohibition as the court deems appropriate. In making its decision, the court may consider the petitioner's continued employment, the interest of justice, any relevant evidence, and the totality of the circumstances. It is the intent of the Legislature that courts exercise broad discretion in fashioning appropriate relief under this paragraph in cases in which relief is warranted. However, nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to require courts to grant relief to any particular petitioner. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this paragraph to permit persons who were convicted of an offense specified in this subdivision prior to the effective date of the amendments which added this paragraph to this section to seek relief from the prohibition imposed by this subdivision.

(d) Any person who, as an express condition of probation, is prohibited or restricted from owning, possessing, controlling, receiving, or purchasing a firearm and who owns, or has in his or her possession or under his or her custody or control, any firearm but who is not subject to subdivision (a) or (c) is guilty of a public offense, which shall be punishable by imprisonment in the state prison or in a county jail not exceeding one year, by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine. The court, on forms provided by the Department of Justice, shall notify the department of persons subject to this subdivision. The notice shall include a copy of the order of probation and a copy of any minute order or abstract reflecting the order and conditions of probation.

(e) Any person who (1) is alleged to have committed an offense listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, (2) is found to be a fit and proper subject to be dealt with under the juvenile court law, and (3) is subsequently adjudged a ward of the juvenile court within the meaning of Section 602 of the Welfare and Institutions Code because the person committed an offense listed in subdivision (b) of Section 707 of the Welfare and Institutions Code shall not own, or have in his or her possession or under his or her custody or control, any firearm until the age of 30 years. A violation of this subdivision shall be punishable by imprisonment in the state prison or in a county jail not exceeding one year, by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine. The juvenile court, on forms prescribed by the Department of Justice, shall notify the department of persons subject to this subdivision. Notwithstanding any other law, the forms required to be submitted to the department pursuant to this subdivision may be used to determine eligibility to acquire a firearm.

(f) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to a person who has been convicted of a felony under the laws of the United States unless either of the following criteria is satisfied:

(1) Conviction of a like offense under California law can only result in imposition of felony punishment.

(2) The defendant was sentenced to a federal correctional facility for more than 30 days, or received a fine of more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or received both punishments.

(g) Every person who purchases or receives, or attempts to purchase or receive, a firearm knowing that he or she is subject to a protective order, as defined in Section 6218 of the Family Code, is guilty of a public offense, which shall be punishable by imprisonment in the state prison or in a county jail not exceeding one year, by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or both that imprisonment and fine. This subdivision does not apply unless the copy of the restraining order personally served on the person against whom the restraining order is issued contains a notice in bold print stating (1) that the person is prohibited from purchasing or receiving or attempting to purchase or receive a firearm and (2) specifying the penalties for violating this subdivision, or a court has provided actual verbal notice of the firearm prohibition and penalty as provided in Section 6304 of the Family Code. However, this subdivision does not apply if the firearm is received as part of the disposition of community property pursuant to Division 7 (commencing with Section 2500) of the Family Code.

SEC. 221.5. Section 12025.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12025.5. (a) A violation of Section 12025 is justifiable when a person who possesses a firearm reasonably believes that he or she is in grave danger because of circumstances forming the basis of a current restraining order issued by a court against another person or persons who has or have been found to pose a threat to his or her life or safety. This section may not apply when the circumstances involve a mutual restraining order issued pursuant to Division 10 (commencing with Section 6200) of the Family Code absent a factual finding of a specific threat to the person's life or safety. It is not the intent of the Legislature to limit, restrict, or narrow the application of current statutory or judicial authority to apply this or other justifications to defendants charged with violating Section 12025 or of committing other similar offenses.

(b) Upon trial for violating Section 12025, the trier of fact shall determine whether the defendant was acting out of a reasonable belief that he or she was in grave danger.

SEC. 221.6. Section 12028.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12028.5. (a) As used in this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Abuse" means intentionally or recklessly causing or attempting to cause bodily injury, or placing another person in reasonable apprehension of imminent serious bodily injury to himself, herself, or another.

(2) "Family violence" has the same meaning as domestic violence as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 13700, and also includes any abuse perpetrated against a family or household member.

(3) "Family or household member" means a spouse, former spouse, parent, child, any person related by consanguinity or affinity within the second degree, or any person who regularly resides or who regularly resided in the household.

The presumption applies that the male parent is the father of any child of the female pursuant to the Uniform Parentage Act (Part 3 (commencing with Section 7600) of Division 12 of the Family Code).

(4) "Deadly weapon" means any weapon, the possession or concealed carrying of which is prohibited by Section 12020.

(b) A sheriff, undersheriff, deputy sheriff, marshal, deputy marshal, or police officer of a city, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 830.1, a member of the University of California Police Department, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 830.2, an officer listed in Section 830.6 while acting in the course and scope of his or her employment as a peace officer, a member of a California State University Police Department, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 830.2, and a peace officer of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 830.2, who is at the scene of a family violence incident involving a threat to human life or a physical assault, may take temporary custody of any firearm or other deadly weapon in plain sight or discovered pursuant to a consensual search as necessary for the protection of the peace officer or other persons present. Upon taking custody of a firearm or other deadly weapon, the officer shall give the owner or person who possessed the firearm a receipt. The receipt shall describe the firearm or other deadly weapon and list any identification or serial number on the firearm. The receipt shall indicate where the firearm or other deadly weapon can be recovered and the date after which the owner or possessor can recover the firearm or other deadly weapon. No firearm or other deadly weapon shall be held less than 48 hours. Except as provided in subdivision (e), if a firearm or other deadly weapon is not retained for use as evidence related to criminal charges brought as a result of the family violence incident or is not retained because it was illegally possessed, the firearm or other deadly weapon shall be made available to the owner or person who was in lawful possession 48 hours after the seizure or as soon thereafter as possible, but no later than 72 hours after the seizure. In any civil action or proceeding for the return of firearms or ammunition or other deadly weapon seized by any state or local law enforcement agency and not returned within 72 hours following the initial seizure, except as provided in subdivision (c), the court shall allow reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party.

(c) Any firearm or other deadly weapon which has been taken into custody which has been stolen shall be restored to the lawful owner, as soon as its use for evidence has been served, upon his or her identification of the firearm or other deadly weapon and proof of ownership.

(d) Any firearm or other deadly weapon taken into custody and held by a police, university police, or sheriff's department or by a marshal's office, or by a peace officer of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 830.2, for longer than 12 months and not recovered by the owner or person who has lawful possession at the time it was taken into custody, shall be considered a nuisance and sold or destroyed as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 12028. Firearms or other deadly weapons not recovered within 12 months due to an extended hearing process as provided in subdivision (i), are not subject to destruction until the court issues a decision, and then only if the court does not order the return of the firearm or other deadly weapon to the owner.

(e) In those cases where a law enforcement agency has reasonable cause to believe that the return of a firearm or other deadly weapon would be likely to result in endangering the victim or the person reporting the assault or threat, the agency shall advise the owner of the firearm or other deadly weapon, and within 10 days of the seizure, initiate a petition in superior court to determine if the firearm or other deadly weapon should be returned.

(f) The law enforcement agency shall inform the owner or person who had lawful possession of the firearm or other deadly weapon, at that person's last known address by registered mail, return receipt requested, that he or she has 30 days from the date of receipt of the notice to respond to the court clerk to confirm his or her desire for a hearing, and that the failure to respond shall result in a default order forfeiting the confiscated firearm or other deadly weapon. For the purposes of this subdivision, the person's last known address shall be presumed to be the address provided to the law enforcement officer by that person at the time of the family violence incident. In the event the person whose firearm or other deadly weapon was seized does not reside at the last address provided to the agency, the agency shall make a diligent, good faith effort to learn the whereabouts of the person and to comply with these notification requirements.

(g) If the person requests a hearing, the court clerk shall set a hearing no later than 30 days from receipt of that request. The court clerk shall notify the person, the law enforcement agency involved, and the district attorney of the date, time, and place of the hearing. Unless it is shown by clear and convincing evidence that the return of the firearm or other deadly weapon would result in endangering the victim or the person reporting the assault or threat, the court shall order the return of the firearm or other deadly weapon and shall award reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party.

(h) If the person does not request a hearing or does not otherwise respond within 30 days of the receipt of the notice, the law enforcement agency may file a petition for an order of default and may dispose of the firearm or other deadly weapon as provided in Section 12028.

(i) If, at the hearing, the court does not order the return of the firearm or other deadly weapon to the owner or person who had lawful possession, that person may petition the court for a second hearing within 12 months from the date of the initial hearing. If the owner or person who had lawful possession does not petition the court within this 12-month period for a second hearing or is unsuccessful at the second hearing in gaining return of the firearm or other deadly weapon, the firearm or other deadly weapon may be disposed of as provided in Section 12028.

(j) The law enforcement agency, or the individual law enforcement officer, shall not be liable for any act in the good faith exercise of this section.

SEC. 221.7. Section 12031 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12031. (a) (1) Except as provided in subdivision (b), (c), or (d), every person who carries a loaded firearm on his or her person or in a vehicle while in any public place or on any public street in an incorporated city or in any public place or on any public street in a prohibited area of unincorporated territory is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 836, a peace officer may make an arrest without a warrant:

(A) When the person arrested has violated this section, although not in the officer's presence.

(B) Whenever the officer has reasonable cause to believe that the person to be arrested has violated this section, whether or not this section has, in fact, been violated.

(3) (A) Every person convicted under this section who has previously been convicted of an offense enumerated in Section 12001.6, or of any crime made punishable under this chapter, shall serve a term of at least three months in a county jail, or, if granted probation, or if the execution or imposition of sentence is suspended, it shall be a condition thereof that he or she be imprisoned for a period of at least three months.

(B) The court shall apply the three-month minimum sentence except in unusual cases where the interests of justice would best be served by granting probation or suspending the imposition or execution of sentence without the minimum imprisonment required in this subdivision or by granting probation or suspending the imposition or execution of sentence with conditions other than those set forth in this subdivision, in which case, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter on the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by such a disposition.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to any of the following:

(1) Peace officers listed in Section 830.1 or 830.2, whether active or honorably retired, other duly appointed peace officers, honorably retired peace officers listed in subdivision (c) of Section 830.5, full-time paid peace officers of other states and the federal government who are carrying out official duties while in California, or any person summoned by any of those officers to assist in making arrests or preserving the peace while the person is actually engaged in assisting that officer. Any peace officer described in this paragraph who has been honorably retired shall be issued an identification certificate by the agency from which the officer has retired. The issuing agency may charge a fee necessary to cover any reasonable expenses incurred by the agency in issuing certificates pursuant to this paragraph and paragraph (3).

Any officer retired after January 1, 1981, shall have an endorsement on the identification certificate stating that the issuing agency approves the officer's carrying of a loaded firearm.

No endorsement or renewal endorsement issued pursuant to paragraph (2) shall be effective unless it is in the format set forth in subparagraph (D) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 12027, except that any peace officer listed in subdivision (f) of Section 830.2 or in subdivision (c) of Section 830.5, who is retired between January 2, 1981, and on or before December 31, 1988, and who is authorized to carry a loaded firearm pursuant to this section, shall not be required to have an endorsement in the format set forth in subparagraph (D) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 12027 until the time of the issuance, on or after January 1, 1989, of a renewal endorsement pursuant to paragraph (2).

(2) A retired peace officer who retired after January 1, 1981, shall petition the issuing agency for renewal of his or her privilege to carry a loaded firearm every five years. An honorably retired peace officer, described in paragraph (1), retired prior to January 1, 1981, shall not be required to obtain an endorsement from the issuing agency to carry a firearm. The agency from which a peace officer is honorably retired may, upon initial retirement of the peace officer, or at any time subsequent thereto, deny or revoke, for good cause, the retired officer's privilege to carry a firearm.

(3) An honorably retired peace officer listed in subdivision (c) of Section 830.5 authorized to carry loaded firearms by this subdivision shall meet the training requirements of Section 832 and shall qualify with the firearm at least annually. The individual retired peace officer shall be responsible for maintaining his or her eligibility to carry a loaded firearm. The Department of Justice shall provide subsequent arrest notification pursuant to Section 11105.2 regarding honorably retired peace officers listed in subdivision (c) of Section 830.5 to the agency from which the officer has retired.

(4) Members of the military forces of this state or of the United States engaged in the performance of their duties.

(5) Persons who are using target ranges for the purpose of practice shooting with a firearm or who are members of shooting clubs while hunting on the premises of those clubs.

(6) The carrying of pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person by persons who are authorized to carry those weapons pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 12050) of Chapter 1 of Title 2 of Part 4.

(7) Armored vehicle guards, as defined in Section 7521 of the Business and Professions Code, (A) if hired prior to January 1, 1977; or (B) if hired on or after that date, if they have received a firearms qualification card from the Department of Consumer Affairs, in each case while acting within the course and scope of their employment.

(8) Upon approval of the sheriff of the county in which they reside, honorably retired federal officers or agents of federal law enforcement agencies including, but not limited to, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Secret Service, the United States Customs Service, the Federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms, the Federal Bureau of Narcotics, the Drug Enforcement Administration, the United States Border Patrol, and officers or agents of the Internal Revenue Service who were authorized to carry weapons while on duty, who were assigned to duty within the state for a period of not less than one year, or who retired from active service in the state.

Retired federal officers or agents shall provide the sheriff with certification from the agency from which they retired certifying their service in the state, the nature of their retirement, and indicating the agency's concurrence that the retired federal officer or agent should be accorded the privilege of carrying a loaded firearm.

Upon approval, the sheriff shall issue a permit to the retired federal officer or agent indicating that he or she may carry a loaded firearm in accordance with this paragraph. The permit shall be valid for a period not exceeding five years, shall be carried by the retiree while carrying a loaded firearm, and may be revoked for good cause.

The sheriff of the county in which the retired federal officer or agent resides may require recertification prior to a permit renewal, and may suspend the privilege for cause. The sheriff may charge a fee necessary to cover any reasonable expenses incurred by the county.

(c) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to any of the following who have completed a regular course in firearms training approved by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training:

(1) Patrol special police officers appointed by the police commission of any city, county, or city and county under the express terms of its charter who also, under the express terms of the charter, (A) are subject to suspension or dismissal after a hearing on charges duly filed with the commission after a fair and impartial trial, (B) are not less than 18 years of age nor more than 40 years of age, (C) possess physical qualifications prescribed by the commission, and (D) are designated by the police commission as the owners of a certain beat or territory as may be fixed from time to time by the police commission.

(2) The carrying of weapons by animal control officers or zookeepers, regularly compensated as such by a governmental agency when acting in the course and scope of their employment and when designated by a local ordinance or, if the governmental agency is not authorized to act by ordinance, by a resolution, either individually or by class, to carry the weapons, or by persons who are authorized to carry the weapons pursuant to Section 607f of the Civil Code, while actually engaged in the performance of their duties pursuant to that section.

(3) Harbor police officers designated pursuant to Section 663.5 of the Harbors and Navigation Code.

(d) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to any of the following who have been issued a certificate pursuant to Section 12033. The certificate shall not be required of any person who is a peace officer, who has completed all training required by law for the exercise of his or her power as a peace officer, and who is employed while not on duty as a peace officer.

(1) Guards or messengers of common carriers, banks, and other financial institutions while actually employed in and about the shipment, transportation, or delivery of any money, treasure, bullion, bonds, or other thing of value within this state.

(2) Guards of contract carriers operating armored vehicles pursuant to California Highway Patrol and Public Utilities Commission authority (A) if hired prior to January 1, 1977; or (B) if hired on or after January 1, 1977, if they have completed a course in the carrying and use of firearms which meets the standards prescribed by the Department of Consumer Affairs.

(3) Private investigators and private patrol operators who are licensed pursuant to Chapter 11.5 (commencing with Section 7512) of, and alarm company operators who are licensed pursuant to Chapter 11.6 (commencing with Section 7590) of, Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, while acting within the course and scope of their employment.

(4) Uniformed security guards or night watch persons employed by any public agency, while acting within the scope and in the course of their employment.

(5) Uniformed security guards, regularly employed and compensated in that capacity by persons engaged in any lawful business, and uniformed alarm agents employed by an alarm company operator, while actually engaged in protecting and preserving the property of their employers or on duty or en route to or from their residences or their places of employment, and security guards and alarm agents en route to or from their residences or employer-required range training. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to prohibit cities and counties from enacting ordinances requiring alarm agents to register their names.

(6) Uniformed employees of private patrol operators and private investigators licensed pursuant to Chapter 11.5 (commencing with Section 7512) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code while acting within the course and scope of their employment.

(e) In order to determine whether or not a firearm is loaded for the purpose of enforcing this section, peace officers are authorized to examine any firearm carried by anyone on his or her person or in a vehicle while in any public place or on any public street in an incorporated city or prohibited area of an unincorporated territory. Refusal to allow a peace officer to inspect a firearm pursuant to this section constitutes probable cause for arrest for violation of this section.

(f) As used in this section, "prohibited area" means any place where it is unlawful to discharge a weapon.

(g) A firearm shall be deemed to be loaded for the purposes of this section when there is an unexpended cartridge or shell, consisting of a case which holds a charge of powder and a bullet or shot, in, or attached in any manner to, the firearm, including, but not limited to, in the firing chamber, magazine, or clip thereof attached to the firearm; except that a muzzle-loader firearm shall be deemed to be loaded when it is capped or primed and has a powder charge and ball or shot in the barrel or cylinder.

(h) Nothing in this section shall prevent any person engaged in any lawful business, including a nonprofit organization, or any officer, employee, or agent authorized by that person for lawful purposes connected with that business, from having a loaded firearm within the person's place of business, or any person in lawful possession of private property from having a loaded firearm on that property.

(i) Nothing in this section shall prevent any person from carrying a loaded firearm in an area within an incorporated city while engaged in hunting, provided that the hunting at that place and time is not prohibited by the city council.

(j) (1) Nothing in this section is intended to preclude the carrying of any loaded firearm, under circumstances where it would otherwise be lawful, by a person who reasonably believes that the person or property of himself or herself or of another is in immediate, grave danger and that the carrying of the weapon is necessary for the preservation of that person or property. As used in this subdivision, "immediate" means the brief interval before and after the local law enforcement agency, when reasonably possible, has been notified of the danger and before the arrival of its assistance.

(2) A violation of this section is justifiable when a person who possesses a firearm reasonably believes that he or she is in grave danger because of circumstances forming the basis of a current restraining order issued by a court against another person or persons who has or have been found to pose a threat to his or her life or safety. This paragraph may not apply when the circumstances involve a mutual restraining order issued pursuant to Division 10 (commencing with Section 6200) of the Family Code absent a factual finding of a specific threat to the person's life or safety. It is not the intent of the Legislature to limit, restrict, or narrow the application of current statutory or judicial authority to apply this or other justifications to defendants charged with violating Section 12025 or of committing other similar offenses.

Upon trial for violating this section, the trier of fact shall determine whether the defendant was acting out of a reasonable belief that he or she was in grave danger.

(k) Nothing in this section is intended to preclude the carrying of a loaded firearm by any person while engaged in the act of making or attempting to make a lawful arrest.

(l) Nothing in this section shall prevent any person from having a loaded weapon, if it is otherwise lawful, at his or her place of residence, including any temporary residence or campsite.

SEC. 221.8. Section 12070 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12070. (a) No person shall sell, lease, or transfer firearms unless he or she has been issued a license pursuant to Section 12071. Any person violating this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not include any of the following:

(1) The sale, lease, or transfer of any firearm by a person acting pursuant to operation of law, a court order, or pursuant to the Enforcement of Judgments Law (Title 9 (commencing with Section 680.010) of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure), or by a person who liquidates a personal firearm collection to satisfy a court judgment.

(2) A person acting pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 186.22a or subdivision (c) of Section 12028.

(3) The sale, lease, or transfer of a firearm by a person who obtains title to the firearm by intestate succession or by bequest or as a surviving spouse pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 13500) of Part 2 of Division 8 of the Probate Code, provided the person disposes of the firearm within 60 days of receipt of the firearm.

(4) The infrequent sale, lease, or transfer of firearms.

(5) The sale, lease, or transfer of used firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, at gun shows or events, as specified in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 12071, by a person other than a licensee or dealer, provided the person has a valid federal firearms license and a certificate of eligibility issued by the Department of Justice, as specified in Section 12071, and provided all the sales, leases, or transfers fully comply with subdivision (d) of Section 12072. However, the person shall not engage in the sale, lease, or transfer of used firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person at more than 12 gun shows or events in any calendar year and shall not sell, lease, or transfer more than 15 used firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person at any single gun show or event. In no event shall the person sell more than 75 used firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person in any calendar year.

A person described in this paragraph shall be known as a "Gun Show Trader."

The Department of Justice shall adopt regulations to administer this program and shall recover the full costs of administration from fees assessed applicants.

As used in this paragraph, the term "used firearm" means a firearm that has been sold previously at retail and is more than three years old.

(6) The activities of a law enforcement agency pursuant to Section 12084.

(7) Deliveries, sales, or transfers of firearms between or to importers and manufacturers of firearms licensed to engage in business pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(8) The sale, delivery, or transfer of firearms by manufacturers or importers licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto to dealers or wholesalers.

(9) Deliveries and transfers of firearms made pursuant to Section 12028, 12028.5, or 12030.

(10) The loan of a firearm for the purposes of shooting at targets if the loan occurs on the premises of a target facility which holds a business or regulatory license or on the premises of any club or organization organized for the purposes of practicing shooting at targets upon established ranges, whether public or private, if the firearm is at all times kept within the premises of the target range or on the premises of the club or organization.

(11) Sales, deliveries, or transfers of firearms by manufacturers, importers, or wholesalers licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto to persons who reside outside this state who are licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto if the sale, delivery, or transfer is in accordance with Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(12) Sales, deliveries, or transfers of firearms by persons who reside outside this state and are licensed outside this state pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto to wholesalers, manufacturers, importers, or persons licensed as dealers if the sale, delivery, or transfer is in accordance with Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(13) Sales, deliveries, or transfers of firearms by wholesalers to dealers.

(14) Sales, deliveries, or transfers of firearms by persons who reside outside this state to dealers, if the sale, delivery, or transfer is in accordance with Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code, and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(c) (1) As used in this section, "infrequent" means:

(A) For pistols, revolvers, and other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, less than six transactions per calendar year. For this purpose, "transaction" means a single sale, lease, or transfer of any number of pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person.

(B) For firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, occasional and without regularity.

(2) As used in this section, "operation of law" includes, but is not limited to, any of the following:

(A) The executor or administrator of an estate if the estate includes firearms.

(B) A secured creditor or an agent or employee thereof when the firearms are possessed as collateral for, or as a result of, a default under a security agreement under the Commercial Code.

(C) A levying officer, as defined in Section 481.140, 511.060, or 680.260 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(D) A receiver performing his or her functions as a receiver if the receivership estate includes firearms.

(E) A trustee in bankruptcy performing his or her duties if the bankruptcy estate includes firearms.

(F) An assignee for the benefit of creditors performing his or her functions as an assignee, if the assignment includes firearms.

(G) A transmutation of property between spouses pursuant to Section 850 of the Family Code.

SEC. 221.9. Section 12076 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12076. (a) The purchaser or transferee of any firearm shall be required to present clear evidence of his or her identity and age, as defined in Section 12071, to the dealer, and the dealer shall require him or her to sign his or her current legal name and affix his or her residence address and date of birth to the register in quadruplicate. The salesperson shall affix his or her signature to the register in quadruplicate as a witness to the signature and identification of the purchaser or transferee. Any person furnishing a fictitious name or address or knowingly furnishing any incorrect information or knowingly omitting any information required to be provided for the register and any person violating any provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(b) Two copies of the original sheet of the register, on the date of sale or transfer, shall be placed in the mail, postage prepaid, and properly addressed to the Department of Justice in Sacramento. The third copy of the original shall be mailed, postage prepaid, to the chief of police, or other head of the police department, of the city or county wherein the sale or transfer is made. Where the sale or transfer is made in a district where there is no municipal police department, the third copy of the original sheet shall be mailed to the sheriff of the county wherein the sale or transfer is made.

The third copy for firearms, other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person shall be destroyed within five days of receipt and no information shall be compiled therefrom.

(c) The department shall examine its records, as well as those records that it is authorized to request from the State Department of Mental Health pursuant to Section 8104 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, in order to determine if the purchaser or transferee is a person described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

If the department determines that the purchaser or transferee is a person described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, it shall immediately notify the dealer and the chief of the police department of the city or county in which the sale or transfer was made, or if the sale or transfer was made in a district in which there is no municipal police department, the sheriff of the county in which the sale or transfer was made, of that fact.

If the department determines that the copies of the register submitted to it pursuant to subdivision (b) contain any blank spaces or inaccurate, illegible, or incomplete information, preventing identification of the purchaser or transferee or the pistol, revolver, or other firearm to be purchased or transferred, or if any fee required pursuant to subdivision (d) is not submitted by the dealer in conjunction with submission of copies of the register, the department may notify the dealer of that fact. Upon notification by the department, the dealer shall submit corrected copies of the register to the department, or shall submit any fee required pursuant to subdivision (d), or both, as appropriate and, if notification by the department is received by the dealer at any time prior to delivery of the firearm to be purchased or transferred, the dealer shall withhold delivery until the conclusion of the waiting period described in Sections 12071 and 12072.

(d) The Department of Justice may charge the dealer a fee sufficient to reimburse all of the following:

(1) (A) The department for the cost of furnishing this information.

(B) The department for the cost of meeting its obligations under paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 8100 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(2) Local mental health facilities for state-mandated local costs resulting from the reporting requirements imposed by the amendments to Section 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, made by the act which also added this paragraph.

(3) The State Department of Mental Health for the costs resulting from the requirements imposed by the amendments to Section 8104 of the Welfare and Institutions Code made by the act which also added this paragraph.

(4) Local mental hospitals, sanitariums, and institutions for state-mandated local costs resulting from the reporting requirements imposed by Section 8105 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(5) Local law enforcement agencies for state-mandated local costs resulting from the notification requirements set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 6385 of the Family Code created by the act which also added this paragraph.

(6) Local law enforcement agencies for state-mandated local costs resulting from the notification requirements set forth in subdivision (c) of Section 8105 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

The fee established pursuant to this subdivision shall not exceed the sum of the actual processing costs of the department, the estimated reasonable costs of the local mental health facilities for complying with the reporting requirements imposed by the act which added paragraph (2) to this subdivision, the costs of the State Department of Mental Health for complying with the requirements imposed by the act which added paragraph (3) to this subdivision, the estimated reasonable costs of local mental hospitals, sanitariums, and institutions for complying with the reporting requirements imposed by the act which added paragraph (4) to this subdivision, the estimated reasonable costs of local law enforcement agencies for complying with the notification requirements set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 6385 of the Family Code created by the act which added paragraph (5) to this subdivision, and the estimated reasonable costs of local law enforcement agencies for complying with the notification requirements set forth in subdivision (c) of Section 8105 of the Welfare and Institutions Code created by the act which added paragraph (6) to this subdivision.

(e) (1) The Department of Justice may charge a fee sufficient to reimburse it for each of the following:

(A) For the actual costs associated with the preparation, sale, processing, and filing of forms or reports required or utilized pursuant to Section 12078 if neither a dealer nor a law enforcement agency acting pursuant to Section 12084 is filing the form or report.

(B) For the actual processing costs associated with the submission of a Dealers' Record of Sale to the department by a dealer or of the submission of a LEFT to the department by a law enforcement agency acting pursuant to Section 12084 if the waiting period described in Sections 12071, 12072, and 12084 does not apply.

(C) For the actual costs associated with the preparation, sale, processing, and filing of reports utilized pursuant to subdivision (l) of Section 12078.

(2) If the department charges a fee pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of this subdivision, it shall be charged in the same amount to all categories of transaction that are within that subparagraph.

(3) Any costs incurred by the Department of Justice to implement this subdivision shall be reimbursed from fees collected and charged pursuant to this subdivision. No fees shall be charged to the dealer pursuant to subdivision (d) or to a law enforcement agency acting pursuant to paragraph (6) of subdivision (d) of Section 12084 for costs incurred for implementing this subdivision.

(f) All money received by the department pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Dealers' Record of Sale Special Account of the General Fund, which is hereby created, to be available, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for expenditure by the department to offset the costs incurred pursuant to this section and Section 12289.

(g) Only one fee shall be charged pursuant to this section for a single transaction on the same date for the sale or transfer of any number of firearms that are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person or for the taking of possession of those firearms.

(h) Only one fee shall be charged pursuant to this section for a single transaction on the same date for taking title or possession of any number of firearms pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 12078.

(i) Whenever the Department of Justice acts pursuant to this section as it pertains to firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, the department's acts or omissions shall be deemed to be discretionary within the meaning of the California Tort Claims Act pursuant to Division 3.6 (commencing with Section 810) of Title 1 of the Government Code.

SEC. 222. Section 12078 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12078. (a) (1) The preceding provisions of this article, except subdivision (e) of Section 12076, do not apply to deliveries, transfers, or sales of firearms made to persons properly identified as full-time paid peace officers as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2, provided that the peace officers are authorized by their employer to carry firearms while in the performance of their duties, nor to deliveries, transfers, or sales of firearms made to authorized representatives of cities, cities and counties, counties, state or federal governments for use by those governmental agencies. Proper identification is defined as verifiable written certification from the head of the agency by which the purchaser or transferee is employed, identifying the purchaser or transferee as a peace officer who is authorized to carry firearms while in the performance of his or her duties, and authorizing the purchase or transfer. The certification shall be delivered to the seller or transferor at the time of purchase or transfer and the purchaser or transferee shall identify himself or herself as the person authorized in the certification. On the day the sale, delivery, or transfer is made, where a peace officer is receiving the firearm, and either a dealer is not the seller or transferor, or is not otherwise the person responsible for the delivery of the firearm, or the transfer or sale is not conducted through a law enforcement agency pursuant to Section 12084, the peace officer shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same and the type of information concerning the seller or transferor, the buyer or transferee, the firearm as is indicated in Section 12077, together with the original certification. On the day the sale, delivery, or transfer is made, where a dealer is the seller, transferor, or otherwise responsible for delivery of the firearm, the dealer shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same and the type of information concerning the buyer or transferee and the firearm as is indicated in Section 12077, together with the original certification. On the day the sale, delivery, or transfer is made, where the transfer is conducted pursuant to Section 12084, the law enforcement agency shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same and the type of information concerning the buyer or transferee and the firearm as is indicated in Section 12084, together with the original certification. The reports which peace officers shall complete shall be provided to them by the department. No report need be submitted to the Department of Justice where a peace officer receiving the firearm received it from his or her employer in accordance with the applicable rules, regulations, or procedures of the employer.

(2) The preceding provisions of this article, except subdivision (e) of Section 12076, do not apply to deliveries, transfers, or sales of firearms made to peace officers as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2 made pursuant to Section 10334 of the Public Contract Code. On the day the sale, delivery, or transfer is made, and a dealer is not the person responsible for the delivery of the firearm or the transfer or sale is not conducted through a law enforcement agency pursuant to Section 12084, the peace officer receiving the firearm shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same and the type of information concerning the seller or transferor, the buyer or transferee, and the firearm as is indicated in Section 12077. On the day the sale, delivery, or transfer is made, where a dealer is responsible for delivery of the firearm, the dealer shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same and the type of information concerning the buyer or transferee and the firearm as is indicated in Section 12077. On the day the sale, delivery, or transfer is made where the transfer is conducted pursuant to Section 12084, the law enforcement agency shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same and the type of information concerning the buyer or transferee and the firearm as is indicated in Section 12084. The reports which peace officers shall complete shall be the same as those set forth in paragraph (1) of this subdivision and shall be provided to them by the department.

(3) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 does not apply to sales, deliveries, or transfers of firearms to authorized representatives of cities, cities and counties, counties, or state or federal governments for those governmental agencies where the entity is acquiring the weapon as part of an authorized, voluntary program where the entity is buying or receiving weapons from private individuals. Any weapons acquired pursuant to this subdivision shall be disposed of pursuant to the applicable provisions of Section 12028 or 12032.

(b) Section 12071 and subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to deliveries, sales, or transfers of firearms between or to importers and manufacturers of firearms licensed to engage in that business pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(c) (1) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the infrequent transfer of firearms by gift, bequest, intestate succession, or other means by one individual to another if both individuals are members of the same immediate family.

(2) As used in this subdivision, immediate family member means any one of the following relationships:

(A) Parent and child.

(B) Grandparent and grandchild.

(d) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the infrequent loan of firearms between persons who are personally known to each other for any lawful purpose, if the loan does not exceed 30 days in duration.

(e) Section 12071 and subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the delivery of a firearm to a gunsmith for service or repair.

(f) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the sale, delivery, or transfer of firearms by persons who reside in this state to persons who reside outside this state who are licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto, if the sale, delivery, or transfer is in accordance with Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(g) (1) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the infrequent sale or transfer of a firearm, other than a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, at auctions or similar events conducted by nonprofit mutual or public benefit corporations organized pursuant to the Corporations Code.

As used in this paragraph, the term "infrequent" shall not be construed to prohibit different local chapters of the same nonprofit corporation from conducting auctions or similar events, provided the individual local chapter conducts the auctions or similar events infrequently. It is the intent of the Legislature that different local chapters, representing different localities, be entitled to invoke the exemption created by this paragraph, notwithstanding the frequency with which other chapters of the same nonprofit corporation may conduct auctions of similar events.

(2) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the transfer of a firearm other than a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, if the firearm is donated for an auction or similar event described in paragraph (1) and the firearm is delivered to the nonprofit corporation immediately preceding, or contemporaneous with, the auction or similar event.

(3) The waiting period described in Sections 12071 and 12072 shall not apply to a dealer who delivers a firearm other than a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, at an auction or similar event described in paragraph (1), as authorized by subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 12071. Within 48 hours of the sale, delivery, or transfer, the dealer shall forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice a report of the same as is indicated in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 12077.

(h) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to the loan of a firearm for the purposes of shooting at targets if the loan occurs on the premises of a target facility which holds a business or regulatory license or on the premises of any club or organization organized for the purposes of practicing shooting at targets upon established ranges, whether public or private, if the firearm is at all times kept within the premises of the target range or on the premises of the club or organization.

(i) (1) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to a person who takes title or possession of firearms by operation of law if all the following conditions are met:

(A) The person is not prohibited by Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code from possessing firearms.

(B) If the firearms are pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, and the person is not a levying officer as defined in Section 481.140, 511.060, or 680.210 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the person shall within 30 days of taking possession, forward by prepaid mail to the Department of Justice, a report of the same and the type of information concerning the individual taking possession of the firearm, how title or possession was obtained and from whom, and a description of the firearm in question. The reports which individuals complete pursuant to this paragraph shall be provided to them by the Department of Justice.

(C) In the case of a transmutation of property between spouses made in accordance with Section 850 of the Family Code consisting of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, taking place on or after October 1, 1993, a basic firearm safety certificate shall be required.

(2) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to a person who takes possession of a firearm by operation of law in a representative capacity who transfers ownership of the firearm to himself or herself in his or her individual capacity. In the case of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, on and after October 1, 1993, that individual shall have a basic firearm safety certificate in order for the exemption set forth in this paragraph to apply.

(j) Subdivision (d) of Section 12072 shall not apply to deliveries, transfers, or returns of firearms made pursuant to Section 12028, 12028.5, or 12030.

(k) Section 12071 and subdivision (c) of Section 12072 shall not apply to:

(1) The delivery, sale, or transfer of firearms that are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person by a dealer to another dealer upon proof that the person receiving the firearm is licensed pursuant to Section 12071.

(2) The delivery, sale, or transfer of firearms by dealers to persons who reside outside this state who are licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(3) The delivery, sale, or transfer of firearms to a wholesaler if the firearms are being returned to the wholesaler and are intended as merchandise in the wholesaler's business.

(4) The delivery, sale, or transfer of unloaded firearms by one dealer to another dealer if the firearms are intended as merchandise in the receiving dealer's business upon proof that the person receiving the firearm is licensed pursuant to Section 12071.

(l) A person who is exempt from subdivision (d) of Section 12072 or is otherwise not required by law to report his or her acquisition, ownership, or disposal of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person or who moves out of this state with his or her pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person may submit a report of the same to the Department of Justice in a format prescribed by the department.

(m) As used in this section:

(1) "Infrequent" has the same meaning as in paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 12070.

(2) "A person taking title or possession of firearms by operation of law" includes, but is not limited to, any of the following instances wherein an individual receives title to, or possession of, firearms:

(A) The executor or administrator of an estate if the estate includes firearms.

(B) A secured creditor or an agent or employee thereof when the firearms are possessed as collateral for, or as a result of, a default under a security agreement under the Commercial Code.

(C) A levying officer, as defined in Section 481.140, 511.060, or 680.260 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(D) A receiver performing his or her functions as a receiver if the receivership estate includes firearms.

(E) A trustee in bankruptcy performing his or her duties if the bankruptcy estate includes firearms.

(F) An assignee for the benefit of creditors performing his or her functions as an assignee, if the assignment includes firearms.

(G) A transmutation of property consisting of firearms pursuant to Section 850 of the Family Code.

(H) Firearms passing to a surviving spouse pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 13500) of Part 2 of Division 8 of the Probate Code.

SEC. 222.7. Section 14152 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

14152. (a) The district attorney may refer cases involving conduct which could be charged as a misdemeanor to the community conflict resolution program. In determining whether to refer a case to the community conflict resolution program, the district attorney shall consider, but is not limited to considering, all of the following:

(1) The nature of the conduct in question.

(2) The nature of the relationship between the alleged victim and the person alleged to have committed the conduct.

(3) Whether referral to the community conflict resolution program is likely to help resolve underlying issues which are likely to result in additional conduct which could be the subject of criminal charges.

(b) No case where there has been a history of child abuse, sexual assault, or domestic violence, as that term is defined in Section 6211 of the Family Code, between the alleged victim and the person alleged to have committed the conduct, or where a protective order, as defined in Section 6218 of the Family Code, is in effect, shall be referred to the community conflict resolution program.

SEC. 223. Section 3072 of the Probate Code, as amended by Chapter 163 of the Statutes of 1992, is amended to read:

3072. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), a conservator may join in or consent to a transaction under Section 3071 only after authorization by either of the following:

(1) An order of the court obtained in the conservatorship proceeding upon a petition filed pursuant to Section 2403 or under Article 7 (commencing with Section 2540) or 10 (commencing with Section 2580) of Chapter 6 of Part 4.

(2) An order of the court made in a proceeding pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 3100).

(b) A conservator may consent without court authorization to a sale, conveyance, or encumbrance of community personal property requiring consent under subdivision (c) of Section 1100 of the Family Code if the conservator could sell or transfer the property under Section 2545 without court authorization if the property were a part of the conservatorship estate.

SEC. 224. Section 3073 of the Probate Code, as amended by Chapter 163 of the Statutes of 1992, is amended to read:

3073. (a) The joinder or consent under Section 3071 of a spouse having legal capacity shall be in a manner that complies with Section 1100 or 1102 of the Family Code or other statute that applies to the transaction.

(b) The joinder or consent under Section 3071 of a conservator shall be in the same manner as a spouse would join in or consent to the transaction under the statute that applies to the transaction except that the joinder or consent shall be executed by the conservator and shall refer to the court order, if one is required, authorizing the conservator to join in or consent to the transaction.

SEC. 224.3. Section 5022 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

5022. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), a spouse's written consent to a provision for a nonprobate transfer of community property on death is not a transmutation of the consenting spouse's interest in the property.

(b) This chapter does not apply to a spouse's written consent to a provision for a nonprobate transfer of community property on death that satisfies Section 852 of the Family Code. Such a consent is a transmutation and is governed by the law applicable to transmutations.

SEC. 224.5. Section 5030 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

5030. (a) A spouse's written consent to a provision for a nonprobate transfer of community property on death is revocable during the marriage.

(b) On termination of the marriage by dissolution or on legal separation, the written consent is revocable and the community property is subject to division under Division 7 (commencing with Section 2500) of the Family Code or other disposition on order within the jurisdiction of the court.

(c) On the death of either spouse, the written consent is irrevocable.

SEC. 224.7. Section 5305 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

5305. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 5301 to 5303, inclusive, if parties to an account are married to each other, whether or not they are so described in the deposit agreement, their net contribution to the account is presumed to be and remain their community property.

(b) Notwithstanding Sections 2581 and 2640 of the Family Code, the presumption established by this section is a presumption affecting the burden of proof and may be rebutted by proof of either of the following:

(1) The sums on deposit that are claimed to be separate property can be traced from separate property unless it is proved that the married persons made a written agreement that expressed their clear intent that the sums be their community property.

(2) The married persons made a written agreement, separate from the deposit agreement, that expressly provided that the sums on deposit, claimed not to be community property, were not to be community property.

(c) Except as provided in Section 5307, a right of survivorship arising from the express terms of the account or under Section 5302, a beneficiary designation in a Totten trust account, or a P.O.D. payee designation, may not be changed by will.

(d) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), a multiple-party account created with community property funds does not in any way alter community property rights.

SEC. 225. Section 19001 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19001. (a) When a child support delinquency is reported to the State Department of Social Services pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 4700) of Part 5 of Division 9 of the Family Code, the county district attorney reporting that delinquency may refer, pursuant to the guidelines prescribed by the State Department of Social Services and the Franchise Tax Board for purposes of implementing this article, the delinquency to the Franchise Tax Board for collection. For the period from January 1, 1993, to December 31, 1995, inclusive, for purposes of the manageable implementation and evaluation of the program authorized by this article, requests for referral shall only be made from district attorneys representing six counties, selected upon application, which may include two rural counties, two suburban counties, and two urban counties. These counties shall be selected by the State Department of Social Services and the Franchise Tax Board in consultation with county representatives.

(b) (1) When a delinquency is referred to the Franchise Tax Board pursuant to subdivision (a), the amount of the child support delinquency, and any interest accruing under subdivision (c), shall be collected from obligated parents by the Franchise Tax Board in any manner authorized under this part for the collection of a delinquent personal income tax liability.

(2) Any compensation, fee, commission, expense, or any other fee for service incurred by the Franchise Tax Board in the collection of a child support delinquency authorized under this article shall not be an obligation of, or collected from, the obligated parent. A referred child support delinquency shall be final and due and payable to the State of California upon written notice to the obligated parent by the Franchise Tax Board.

(3) For purposes of administering this article:

(A) This chapter and Chapter 21 (commencing with Section 19251) shall apply, except as otherwise provided by this article.

(B) Any services, information, or enforcement remedies available to a district attorney or the Title IV-D agency in collecting support delinquencies or locating absent or noncustodial parents shall be available to the Franchise Tax Board for purposes of collecting child support delinquencies under this article.

(C) A request by the Franchise Tax Board for information from a financial institution shall be treated in the same manner and to the same extent as a request for information from a district attorney referring to a support order pursuant to Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code for purposes of Chapter 20 (commencing with Section 7460) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code (relating to governmental access to financial records), notwithstanding any other provision of law which is inconsistent or contrary to this paragraph.

(D) "Earnings" may include the items described in Section 5206 of the Family Code.

(c) Interest on the delinquency shall be computed pursuant to Section 685.010 of the Code of Civil Procedure and shall be computed from the day the Franchise Tax Board receives the delinquency from the county. When notice of the amount due, including interest, is mailed by the Franchise Tax Board, and that amount is paid within 10 days after the date of the notice from the Franchise Tax Board, interest shall not be imposed for the period after the date of the notice.

(d) In the event the collection action would cause undue financial hardship to the obligated parent, would threaten the health or welfare of the obligated parent or his or her family, or would cause undue irreparable loss to the obligated parent, the obligated parent may notify the Franchise Tax Board, which shall upon being notified refer the obligated parent to the referring county district attorney, unless the Franchise Tax Board is directed otherwise by the county district attorney for purposes of more effectively administering this article.

(e) (1) In no event shall a collection under this article be construed to be a payment of income taxes imposed under this part.

(2) In the event an obligated parent overpays a liability imposed under this part, the overpayment shall not be credited against any delinquency collected pursuant to this article. In the event an overpayment of a liability imposed under this part is offset and distributed to a referring county district attorney pursuant to Sections 12419.3 and 12419.5 of the Government Code or Section 708.740 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and thereby reduces the amount of the referred delinquency, the referring county district attorney shall immediately notify the Franchise Tax Board of that reduction, unless otherwise directed for purposes of more effectively administering this article.

(f) Except as otherwise provided in this article, any child support delinquency referred to the Franchise Tax Board pursuant to this article shall be treated as a child support delinquency for all other purposes, and any collection action by the county district attorney or the Franchise Tax Board with respect to any delinquency referred pursuant to this article shall have the same priority against attachment, execution, assignment, or other collection action as is provided by any other provision of state law.

(g) For purposes of this article, "child support" means support of a child, spouse, or family as provided in Section 150 of the Family Code.

(h) Nothing in this article shall be construed to modify the tax intercept provisions of Article 8 (commencing with Section 708.710) of Chapter 6 of Division 2 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(i) The child support collection activities authorized by this article shall not interfere with the primary mission of the Franchise Tax Board to fairly and efficiently administer the Revenue and Taxation Code for which it is responsible.

SEC. 225.5. Section 304 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

304. When a minor has been adjudged a dependent child of the juvenile court pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 360, no other division of any superior court may hear proceedings pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 3020) of Division 8 of the Family Code regarding the custody of the minor. While the minor is a dependent child of the court all issues regarding his or her custody shall be heard by the juvenile court. In deciding issues between the parents or between a parent and a guardian regarding custody of a minor who has been adjudicated a dependent of the juvenile court, the juvenile court may review any records that would be available to the domestic relations division of a superior court hearing such a matter. The juvenile court, on its own motion, may issue an order directed to either of the parents enjoining any action described in Section 6218 of the Family Code. The Judicial Council shall adopt forms for these restraining orders. These form orders shall not be confidential and shall be enforceable in the same manner as any other order issued pursuant to Division 10 (commencing with Section 6200) of the Family Code.

This section shall not be construed to divest the domestic relations division of a superior court from hearing any issues regarding the custody of a minor when that minor is no longer a dependent of the juvenile court.

SEC. 226. Section 361.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

361.5. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), whenever a minor is removed from a parent's or guardian's custody, the juvenile court shall order the probation officer to provide child welfare services to the minor and the minor's parents or guardians for the purpose of facilitating reunification of the family within a maximum time period not to exceed 12 months. The court also shall make findings pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 366. When counseling or other treatment services are ordered, the parent shall be ordered to participate in those services, unless the parent's participation is deemed by the court to be inappropriate or potentially detrimental to the child. Services may be extended up to an additional six months if it can be shown that the objectives of the service plan can be achieved within the extended time period. Physical custody of the minor by the parents or guardians during the 18-month period shall not serve to interrupt the running of the period. If at the end of the 18-month period, a child cannot be safely returned to the care and custody of a parent or guardian without court supervision, but the child clearly desires contact with the parent or guardian, the court shall take the child's desire into account in devising a permanency plan.

Except in cases where, pursuant to subdivision (b), the court does not order reunification services, the court shall inform the parent or parents of Section 366.25 or 366.26 and shall specify that the parent's or parents' parental rights may be terminated.

(b) Reunification services need not be provided to a parent described in this subdivision when the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, any of the following:

(1) That the whereabouts of the parents is unknown. A finding pursuant to this paragraph shall be supported by an affidavit or by proof that a reasonably diligent search has failed to locate the parent. The posting or publication of notices is not required in such a search.

(2) That the parent is suffering from a mental disability that is described in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 7820) of Part 4 of Division 12 of the Family Code and that renders him or her incapable of utilizing those services.

(3) That the minor had been previously adjudicated a dependent pursuant to any subdivision of Section 300 as a result of physical or sexual abuse, that following that adjudication the minor had been removed from the custody of his or her parent or guardian pursuant to Section 361, that the minor has been returned to the custody of the parent or parents or guardian or guardians from whom the minor had been taken originally, and that the minor is being removed pursuant to Section 361, due to additional physical or sexual abuse. However, this section is not applicable if the jurisdiction of the juvenile court has been dismissed prior to the additional abuse.

(4) That the parent of the minor has been convicted of causing the death of another child through abuse or neglect.

(5) That the minor was brought within the jurisdiction of the court under subdivision (e) of Section 300 because of the conduct of that parent.

(6) That the minor has been adjudicated a dependent pursuant to any subdivision of Section 300 as a result of severe sexual abuse or the infliction of severe physical harm by a parent or guardian, as defined in this subdivision, and the court makes a factual finding that it would not benefit the child to pursue reunification services with the offending parent or guardian.

A finding of severe sexual abuse, for the purposes of this subdivision, may be based on, but is not limited to, sexual intercourse or stimulation involving genital-genital, oral-genital, anal-genital, or oral-anal contact, whether between the parent or guardian and the child, or between the child and another person or animal with the actual or implied consent of, and for the financial gain or other advantage of, the parent or guardian; or the penetration or manipulation of the child's genital organs or rectum by any animate or inanimate object, for the sexual gratification of the parent or guardian, or for the sexual gratification of another person with the actual or implied consent of, and for the financial gain or other advantage of, the parent or guardian.

A finding of the infliction of severe physical harm, for the purposes of this subdivision, may be based on, but is not limited to, deliberate and serious injury inflicted to or on a child's body by an act or omission of the parent or guardian, or of another individual or animal with the consent of the parent or guardian; deliberate and torturous confinement of the child in a closed space; or any other torturous act or omission which would be reasonably understood to cause serious emotional damage.

(c) In deciding whether to order reunification in any case in which this section applies, the court shall hold a dispositional hearing. The probation officer shall prepare a report which discusses whether reunification services shall be provided. When it is alleged, pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), that the parent is incapable of utilizing services due to mental disability, the court shall order reunification services unless competent evidence from mental health professionals establishes that, even with the provision of services, the parent is unlikely to be capable of adequately caring for the child within 12 months.

When paragraph (3), (4), or (5), inclusive, of subdivision (b) is applicable, the court shall not order reunification unless it finds that, based on competent testimony, those services are likely to prevent reabuse or continued neglect of the child or that failure to try reunification will be detrimental to the child because the child is closely and positively attached to that parent. The probation officer shall investigate the circumstances leading to the removal of the minor and advise the court whether there are circumstances which indicate that reunification is likely to be successful or unsuccessful and whether failure to order reunification is likely to be detrimental to the child.

The failure of the parent to respond to previous services, the fact that the child was abused while the parent was under the influence of drugs or alcohol, a past history of violent behavior, or testimony by a competent professional that the parent's behavior is unlikely to be changed by services are among the factors indicating that reunification services are unlikely to be successful. The fact that a parent or guardian is no longer living with an individual who severely abused the minor may be considered in deciding that reunification services are likely to be successful, provided that the court shall consider any pattern of behavior on the part of the parent that has exposed the child to repeated abuse.

(d) If reunification services are not ordered pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) and the whereabouts of a parent become known within six months of the out-of-home placement of the minor, the court shall order the probation officer to provide family reunification services in accordance with this subdivision. However, the time limits specified in subdivision (a) and Section 366.25 are not tolled by the parent's absence.

(e) (1) If the parent or guardian is incarcerated or institutionalized, the court shall order reasonable services unless the court determines those services would be detrimental to the minor.

In determining detriment, the court shall consider the age of the child, the degree of parent-child bonding, the length of the sentence, the nature of the treatment, the nature of crime or illness, the degree of detriment to the child if services are not offered and, for minors 10 years of age or older, the minor's attitude toward the implementation of family reunification services, and any other appropriate factors. Reunification services are subject to the 18-month limitation imposed in subdivision (a). Services may include, but shall not be limited to, all of the following:

(A) Maintaining contact between parent and child through collect phone calls.

(B) Transportation services, where appropriate.

(C) Visitation services, where appropriate.

(D) Reasonable services to extended family members or foster parents providing care for the child if the services are not detrimental to the child.

An incarcerated parent may be required to attend counseling, parenting classes, or vocational training programs as part of the service plan if these programs are available.

(2) The presiding judge of the juvenile court of each county may convene representatives of the county welfare department, the sheriff's department, and other appropriate entities for the purpose of developing and entering into protocols for ensuring the notification, transportation, and presence of an incarcerated or institutionalized parent at all court hearings involving proceedings affecting the minor pursuant to Section 2625 of the Penal Code.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if the incarcerated parent is a woman seeking to participate in the community treatment program operated by the Department of Corrections pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 3410) of Title 2 of Part 3 of the Penal Code, the court shall determine whether the parent's participation in a program is in the child's best interest and whether it is suitable to meet the needs of the parent and child.

(f) If a court, pursuant to paragraph (2), (3), (4), (5), or (6) of subdivision (b), does not order reunification services, it shall conduct a hearing pursuant to Section 366.25 or 366.26 within 120 days of the dispositional hearing. However, the court shall not schedule a hearing so long as the other parent is being provided reunification services pursuant to subdivision (a). The court may continue to permit the parent to visit the minor unless it finds that visitation would be detrimental to the minor.

(g) Whenever a court orders that a hearing shall be held pursuant to Section 366.25 or 366.26 it shall direct the agency supervising the child and the licensed county adoption agency, or the State Department of Social Services when it is acting as an adoption agency in counties which are not served by a county adoption agency, to prepare an assessment which shall include:

(1) Current search efforts for an absent parent or parents.

(2) A review of the amount of and nature of any contact between the minor and his or her parents since the time of placement.

(3) An evaluation of the minor's medical, developmental, scholastic, mental, and emotional status.

(4) A preliminary assessment of the eligibility and commitment of any identified prospective adoptive parent or guardian, particularly the caretaker, to include a social history including screening for criminal records and prior referrals for child abuse or neglect, the capability to meet the minor's needs, and the understanding of the legal and financial rights and responsibilities of adoption and guardianship.

(5) The relationship of the minor to any identified prospective adoptive parent or guardian, the duration and character of the relationship, the motivation for seeking adoption or guardianship, and a statement from the minor, if the minor is 10 years of age or older, concerning placement and the adoption or guardianship.

(6) An analysis of the likelihood that the minor will be adopted if parental rights are terminated.

(h) In determining whether reunification services will benefit the child pursuant to paragraph (6) of subdivision (b), the court shall consider any information it deems relevant, including the following factors:

(1) The specific act or omission comprising the severe sexual abuse or the severe physical harm inflicted on the child.

(2) The circumstances under which the abuse or harm was inflicted on the child.

(3) The severity of the emotional trauma suffered by the child.

(4) Any history of abuse of other children by the offending parent or guardian.

(5) The likelihood that the child may be safely returned to the care of the offending parent or guardian within 18 months with no continuing supervision.

(6) Whether or not the child desires to be reunified with the offending parent or guardian.

(i) The court shall read into the record the basis for a finding of severe sexual abuse or the infliction of severe physical harm under paragraph (6) of subdivision (b), and shall also specify the factual findings used to determine that the provision of reunification services to the offending parent or guardian would not benefit the child.

SEC. 226.5. Section 362.4 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

362.4. When the juvenile court terminates its jurisdiction over a minor who has been adjudged a dependent child of the juvenile court prior to the minor's attainment of the age of 18 years, and proceedings for dissolution of marriage, for nullity of marriage, or for legal separation, of the minor's parents, or proceedings to establish the paternity of the minor child brought under the Uniform Parentage Act, Part 3 (commencing with Section 7600) of Division

12 of the Family Code, are pending in the superior court of any county, or an order has been entered with regard to the custody of that minor, the juvenile court on its own motion, may issue a protective order, as defined in Section 6218, directed to either of the parents and an order determining the custody of, or visitation with, the child.

Any order issued pursuant to this section shall continue until modified or terminated by a subsequent order of the superior court. The order of the juvenile court shall be filed in the proceeding for nullity, dissolution, or legal separation, or in the proceeding to establish paternity, at the time the juvenile court terminates its jurisdiction over the minor, and shall become a part thereof.

If no action is filed or pending relating to the custody of the minor in the superior court of any county, the juvenile court order may be used as the sole basis for opening a file in the superior court of the county in which the parent, who has been given custody, resides. The court may direct the parent or the clerk of the juvenile court to transmit the order to the clerk of the superior court of the county in which the order is to be filed. The clerk of the superior court shall, immediately upon receipt, open a file, without a filing fee, and assign a case number.

The clerk of the superior court shall, upon the filing of any juvenile court custody order, send by first-class mail a copy of the order with the case number to the juvenile court and to the parents at the address listed on the order.

The Judicial Council shall adopt forms for any custody or restraining order issued under this section. These form orders shall not be confidential.

SEC. 227. Section 366.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

366.2. (a) Every hearing conducted by the juvenile court reviewing the status of a dependent child shall be placed on the appearance calendar. The court shall advise all persons present at the hearing of the date of the future hearing, of their right to be present and represented by counsel.

(b) Except as provided in Section 366.3, notice of the hearing shall be mailed by the probation officer to the same persons as in the original proceeding, to the minor's parent or guardian, to the foster parents, community care facility, or foster family agency having physical custody of the minor in the case of a minor removed from the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian, and to the counsel of record if the counsel of record was not present at the time that the hearing was set by the court, by first-class mail addressed to the last known address of the person to be notified, or shall be personally served on those persons, not earlier than 30 days nor later than 15 days preceding the date to which the hearing was continued. Service of a copy of the notice personally or by certified mail return receipt requested, or any other form of actual notice is equivalent to service by first-class mail.

(c) At least 10 calendar days prior to the hearing the probation officer shall file a supplemental report with the court regarding the services offered to the family, the progress made, and, where relevant, the prognosis for return of the minor to the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian, and make his or her recommendation for disposition. The probation officer shall provide the parent or parents with a copy of the report, including his or her recommendation for disposition, at least 10 calendar days prior to the hearing. In the case of a minor removed from the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian, the probation officer shall provide a summary of his or her recommendation for disposition to the counsel for the minor, any court appointed child advocate, foster parents, community care facility, or foster family agency having the physical custody of the minor at least 10 calendar days before the hearing.

(d) Prior to any hearing involving a minor in the physical custody of a community care facility or foster family agency that may result in the return of the minor to the physical custody of his or her parent or guardian, or in adoption or the creation of a legal guardianship, the facility or agency shall file with the court a report containing its recommendation for disposition. Prior to any such hearing involving a minor in the physical custody of a foster parent, the foster parent may file with the court a report containing its recommendation for disposition. The court shall consider any such report and recommendation prior to determining any disposition.

(e) The court shall proceed as follows at the review hearing: The court shall order the return of the minor to the physical custody of his or her parents or guardians unless, by a preponderance of the evidence, it finds that the return of the child would create a substantial risk of detriment to the physical or emotional well-being of the minor. The probation department shall have the burden of establishing that detriment. The failure of the parent or guardian to participate regularly in any court-ordered treatment programs shall constitute prima facie evidence that return would be detrimental. In making its determination, the court shall review the probation officer's report and shall consider the efforts or progress, or both, demonstrated by the parent or guardian and the extent to which he or she cooperated and availed himself or herself of services provided; shall make appropriate findings; and where relevant, shall order any additional services reasonably believed to facilitate the return of the minor to the custody of his or her parent or guardian. The court shall also inform the parent or guardian that if the minor cannot be returned home by the next review hearing, a proceeding pursuant to Part 4 (commencing with Section 7800) of Division 12 of the Family Code may be instituted. This section does not apply in a case where, pursuant to Section 361.5, the court has ordered that reunification services shall not be provided.

(f) This section shall apply only to minors made dependents of the court pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 360 prior to January 1, 1989.

SEC. 228. Section 903 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

903. (a) A parent of a minor, the estate of a parent, and the estate of the minor, shall be liable for the reasonable costs of support of the minor while the minor is placed, or detained in, or committed to, any institution or other place pursuant to Section 625 or pursuant to an order of the juvenile court. However, a county shall not levy charges for the costs of support of a minor detained pursuant to Section 625 unless, at the detention hearing, the juvenile court determines that detention of the minor should be continued, the petition for the offense for which the minor is detained is subsequently sustained, or the minor agrees to a program of supervision pursuant to Section 654. The liability of these persons and estates shall be a joint and several liability.

(b) It shall be the responsibility of a county to demonstrate to any person against whom it seeks to enforce the liability established by this section, that the charges it seeks to impose are limited to the reasonable costs of support of the minor and that these charges exclude any costs of incarceration, treatment, or supervision for the protection of society and the minor and the rehabilitation of the minor. Nothing in this section shall preclude the district attorney from seeking reimbursement of those costs pursuant to Section 11350 of this code or Article 2 (commencing with Section 4050) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 9 of the Family Code.

(c) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this subdivision to protect the fiscal integrity of the county, to protect persons against whom the county seeks to impose liability from excessive charges, to ensure reasonable uniformity throughout the state in the level of liability being imposed, and to ensure that liability is imposed only on persons with the ability to pay. In evaluating a family's financial ability to pay under this section, the county shall take into consideration the family income, the necessary obligations of the family, and the number of persons dependent upon this income. Except as provided in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3), "costs of support" as used in this section means only actual costs incurred by the county for food and food preparation, clothing, personal supplies, and medical expenses, not to exceed a combined maximum cost of fifteen dollars ($15) per day, except that:

(1) The maximum cost of fifteen dollars ($15) per day shall be adjusted every third year beginning January 1, 1988, to reflect the percentage change in the calendar year annual average of the California Consumer Price Index, All Urban Consumers, published by the Department of Industrial Relations, for the three-year period.

(2) No cost for medical expenses shall be imposed by the county until the county has first exhausted any eligibility the minor may have under private insurance coverage, standard or medically indigent Medi-Cal coverage, and the Robert W. Crown California Children's Services Act (Article 2 (commencing with Section 248) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code).

(3) In calculating the cost of medical expenses, the county shall not charge in excess of 100 percent of the AFDC fee for service average Medi-Cal payment for that county for that fiscal year as calculated by the State Department of Health Services; however, if a minor has extraordinary medical or dental costs that are not met under any of the coverages listed in paragraph (2), the county may impose these additional costs.

SEC. 229. Section 11476.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11476.1. (a) In any case where the district attorney has undertaken enforcement of support, the district attorney may enter into an agreement with the noncustodial parent, on behalf of a minor child or children, a spouse, or former spouse for the entry of a judgment without action determining paternity, if applicable, and for periodic child and spousal support payments based on the noncustodial parent's reasonable ability to pay or, if for spousal support, an amount previously ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction. An agreement for entry of a judgment under this section may be executed prior to the birth of the child and may include a provision that the judgment is not to be entered until after the birth of the child.

(b) A judgment based on the agreement shall be entered only if one of the following requirements is satisfied:

(1) The noncustodial parent is represented by legal counsel and the attorney signs a certificate stating: "I have examined the proposed judgment and have advised my client concerning his or her rights in connection with this matter and the consequences of signing or not signing the agreement for the entry of the judgment and my client, after being so advised, has agreed to the entry of the judgment."

(2) A judge of the court in which the judgment is to be entered, after advising the noncustodial parent concerning his or her rights in connection with the matter and the consequences of agreeing or not agreeing to the entry of the judgment, makes a finding that the noncustodial parent has appeared before the judge and the judge has determined that under the circumstances of the particular case the noncustodial parent has willingly, knowingly, and intelligently waived his or her due process rights in agreeing to the entry of the judgment.

(c) The clerk shall file the agreement, together with any certificate of the attorney or finding of the court, without the payment of any fees or charges. If the requirements of this section are satisfied, the court shall enter judgment thereon without action. The provisions of Article 4 (commencing with Section 4200) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 9 of the Family Code or Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 4350) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Family Code shall apply to the judgment. A judgment for support so entered may be enforced by any means by which any other judgment for support may be enforced.

(d) Upon request of the district attorney in any case under this section, the clerk shall set the matter for hearing by the court. The hearing shall be held within 10 days after the clerk receives the request. The district attorney may require the person who signed the agreement for the entry of judgment to attend the hearing by process of subpoena in the same manner as the attendance of a witness in a civil action may be required. The presence of the person who signed the agreement for entry of judgment at the hearing shall constitute the presence of the person in court at the time the order is pronounced for the purposes of Section 1209.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure if the court makes the findings required by paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(e) The district attorney shall cause the following to be served, in the manner specified in Section 415.10, 415.20, 415.30, or 415.40 of the Code of Civil Procedure, upon the person who signed the agreement for entry of the judgment and shall file proof of service thereof with the court:

(1) A copy of the judgment as entered.

(2) If the judgment includes an order for child or spousal support payments, a notice stating the substance of the following: "The court has continuing authority to make an order increasing or decreasing the amount of the child or spousal support payments. You have the right to request that the court order the child and spousal support payments be decreased or eliminated entirely."

(f) An order for child and spousal support included in a judgment entered under this section may be modified or revoked as provided in Article 1 (commencing with Section 3650) of Chapter 6 of Part 1 of Division 9 of the Family Code and in (1) Article 1 (commencing with Section 4000) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 9 of the Family Code or (2) Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 4320) and Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 4330) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Family Code. The court may modify the order to make the support payments payable to a different person.

(g) For the purposes of this section, in making a determination of the noncustodial parent's reasonable ability to pay, any relevant circumstances set out in Section 4005 of the Family Code shall be considered.

(h) After arrest and before plea or trial, or after conviction or plea of guilty, under Section 270 of the Penal Code, if the defendant appears before the court in which the criminal action is pending and the requirements of paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (b) have been satisfied, the court may suspend proceedings or sentence in the criminal action, but this does not limit the later institution of a civil or criminal action or limit the use of any other procedures available to enforce the judgment entered pursuant to this section.

(i) Nothing in this section applies to a case where a civil action has been commenced.

SEC. 230. Section 11478 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11478. All state, county, and local agencies shall cooperate with the district attorney in carrying out Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 3130) of Part 2 of Division 8 of the Family Code and Section 270 of the Penal Code concerning the location, seizure, and recovery of abducted, concealed, or detained minor children, and in the enforcement of any child support obligation or to the extent required under the state plan under Section 11475.2 of this code and Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 4800) of Part 5 of Division 9 of the Family Code, spousal support orders and in the location of parents or putative parents, irrespective of whether the children are or are not receiving aid to families with dependent children, and shall, on request, supply the district attorney of any county in this state or the California Parent Locator Service with all information on hand relative to the location, income, or property of any parents, putative parents, spouses, or former spouses, notwithstanding any other provision of law making the information confidential, and with all information on hand relative to the location and prosecution of any person who has, by means of false statement or representation or by impersonation or other fraudulent device, obtained aid for a child under this chapter.

SEC. 231. Section 11478.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11478.1. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature to protect individual rights of privacy, and to facilitate and enhance the effectiveness of the child and spousal support enforcement and child abduction and recovery programs, by ensuring the confidentiality of support enforcement and child abduction records, and to thereby encourage the full and frank disclosure of information relevant to all of the following:

(1) The establishment or maintenance of parent and child relationships and support obligations.

(2) The enforcement of the child support liability of absent parents.

(3) The enforcement of spousal support liability of the spouse or former spouse to the extent required by the state plan under Section 11475.2 of this code and Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 4800) of Part 5 of Division 9 of the Family Code.

(4) The location of absent parents.

(5) The location of parents and children abducted, concealed, or detained by them.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), all files, applications, papers, documents, and records established or maintained by any public entity pursuant to the administration and implementation of the child and spousal support enforcement program established pursuant to Part D (commencing with Section 651) of Subchapter IV of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code and this article, shall be confidential, and shall not be open to examination or released for disclosure for any purpose not directly connected with the administration of the child and spousal support enforcement program. No public entity shall disclose any file, application, paper, document, or record, or the information contained therein, except as expressly authorized by this section.

(c) Disclosure of the information described in subdivision (b) is authorized as follows:

(1) All files, applications, papers, documents and records as described in subdivision (b) shall be available and may be used by a public entity for all administrative, civil, or criminal investigations, actions, proceedings, or prosecutions conducted in connection with the administration of the child and spousal support enforcement program approved under Part D (commencing with Section 651) of Subchapter IV of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code, and any other plan or program described in Section 303.21 of Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(2) A document requested by a person who wrote, prepared, or furnished the document may be examined by or disclosed to that person or his or her designee.

(3) The payment history of an obligor pursuant to a support order may be examined by or released to the court, the obligor, or the person on whose behalf enforcement actions are being taken or that person's designee.

(4) Public records subject to disclosure under the Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of the Government Code) may be released.

(5) After a noticed motion and a finding by the court, in a case in which enforcement actions are being taken, that release or disclosure to the obligor is required by due process of law, the court may order a public entity, which possesses an application, paper, document, or record as described in subdivision (b) to make that item available to the obligor for examination or copying, or to disclose to the obligor the contents of that item. Article 9 (commencing with Section 1040) of Chapter 4 of Division 3 of the Evidence Code shall not be applicable to proceedings under this part.

(6) To the extent not prohibited by federal law or regulation, information indicating the existence or imminent threat of a crime against a minor child, or location of a concealed, detained, or abducted child or the location of the concealing, detaining, or abducting person, may be disclosed to any district attorney, any appropriate law enforcement agency, or to any state or county child protective agency, or may be used in any judicial proceedings to prosecute that crime or to protect the child.

(7) The social security number, most recent address, and the place of employment of the absent parent may be released to an authorized person as defined in Section 653(c) of Title 42 of the United States Code, only if the authorized person has filed a request for the information, and only if the information has been provided to the California Parent Locator Service by the federal Parent Locator Service pursuant to Section 653 of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(d) (1) "Administration and implementation of the child and spousal support enforcement program," as used in this section, means the carrying out of the state and local plans for establishing, modifying, and enforcing child support obligations, enforcing spousal support orders, and determining paternity pursuant to Part D (commencing with Section 651) of Subchapter IV of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code and this article.

(2) For purposes of this section, "obligor" means any person owing a duty of support.

(3) As used in this chapter, "putative parent" shall refer to any person reasonably believed to be the parent of a child for whom the district attorney is attempting to establish paternity or establish, modify, or enforce support pursuant to Section 11475.1.

(e) Any person who willfully, knowingly, and intentionally violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(f) Nothing in this section shall be construed to compel the disclosure of information relating to a deserting parent who is a recipient of aid under a public assistance program for which federal aid is paid to this state, if that information is required to be kept confidential by the federal law or regulations relating to the program.

(g) Except as provided in this subdivision, all files, applications, papers, documents, and records, established or maintained by any public entity for the purpose of locating an abducted child, locating a person who has abducted a child, or prosecution of a person who has abducted a child shall be confidential, and shall not be open to examination or released for disclosure for any purpose not directly connected with locating the abducted child or abducting person or prosecution of the abducting person. No public entity shall disclose any file, application, paper, document, or record described in this section, or the information contained therein, except as as follows:

(1) All files, applications, papers, documents, and records as described in subdivision (b) shall be available and may be used by a public entity for all administrative, civil, or criminal investigations, actions, proceedings, or prosecution conducted in connection with the child abduction or prosecution of the abducting person.

(2) A document requested by a person who wrote, prepared, or furnished the document may be examined by or disclosed to that person or his or her designee.

(3) Public records subject to disclosure under the Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code) may be released.

(4) After a noticed motion and a finding by the court, in a case in which enforcement actions are being taken, that release or disclosure is required by due process of law, the court may order a public entity that possesses an application, paper, document, or record described in this subdivision to make that item available to the obligor for examination or copying, or to disclose to an appropriate person the contents of that item. Article 9 (commencing with Section 1040) of Chapter 4 of Division 8 of the Evidence Code shall not be applicable to proceedings under this part.

(5) To the extent not prohibited by federal law or regulation, information indicating the existence or imminent threat of a crime against a minor child, or location of a concealed or abducted child or the location of the concealing or abducting person, may be disclosed to any appropriate law enforcement agency, or to any state or county child protective agency, or may be used in any judicial proceedings to prosecute that crime or to protect the child.

SEC. 232. Section 11478.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11478.5. (a) There is in the Department of Justice the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry which shall collect and disseminate all of the following, with respect to any parent, putative parent, spouse, or former spouse:

(1) The full and true name of the parent together with any known aliases.

(2) Date and place of birth.

(3) Physical description.

(4) Social security number.

(5) Employment history and earnings.

(6) Military status and Veterans Administration or military service serial number.

(7) Last known address, telephone number, and date thereof.

(8) Driver's license number, driving record, and vehicle registration information.

(9) Criminal, licensing, and applicant records and information.

(10) (A) Any additional location, asset, and income information, including income tax return information obtained pursuant to Section 19285.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and the address, telephone number, and social security information obtained from a public utility that may be of assistance in locating the parent, putative parent, abducting, concealing, or detaining parent, spouse, or former spouse, in establishing a parent and child relationship, in enforcing the child support liability of the absent parent, or enforcing the spousal support liability of the spouse or former spouse to the extent required by the state plan pursuant to Section 11475.2.

(B) For purposes of this subdivision "income tax return information" means all of the following regarding the taxpayer:

(i) Assets.

(ii) Credits.

(iii) Deductions.

(iv) Exemptions.

(v) Identity.

(vi) Liabilities.

(vii) Nature, source, and amount of income.

(viii) Net worth.

(ix) Payments.

(x) Receipts.
(xi) Address.
(xii) Social security number.

(b) To effectuate the purposes of this section, the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry shall, to the extent necessary, utilize the federal Parent Locator Service, and may request and shall receive, from all departments, boards, bureaus, or other agencies of the state, or any of its political subdivisions, and those entities shall provide, that assistance and data which will enable the Department of Justice and public agencies to carry out their powers and duties to locate the parents, spouses, and former spouses, and to identify their assets, to establish a parent and child relationship, and to enforce their liability for child or spousal support, and for any other obligations incurred on behalf of their children, and to any district attorney in fulfilling the duties prescribed in Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 3130) of Part 2 of Division 8 of the Family Code and Section 270 of the Penal Code, relating to abducted, concealed, or detained children.

(c) (1) To effectuate the purposes of this section, and notwithstanding any other provision of California law, regulation, or tariff, and to the extent permitted by federal law, the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry may request and shall receive from public utilities, as defined in Section 216 of the Public Utilities Code, customer service information, including the full name, address, telephone number, date of birth, and social security number of customers of the public utility, to the extent that this information is stored within the computer data base of the public utility.

(2) In order to protect the privacy of utility customers, a request to a public utility for customer service information pursuant to this section shall meet the following requirements:

(A) Be submitted to the public utility in writing, on a transmittal document prepared by the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry and approved by all of the public utilities.

(B) Have the signature of a representative authorized by the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry.

(C) Contain at least three of the following data elements regarding the person sought:

(i) First and last name, and middle initial, if known.
(ii) Social security number.
(iii) Driver's license number.
(iv) Birth date.
(v) Last known address.
(vi) Spouse's name.

(D) The California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry shall ensure that each public utility has at all times a current list of the names of persons authorized to request customer service information.

(E) The California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry shall ensure that customer service information supplied by a public utility is applicable to the person who is being sought before releasing the information pursuant to subdivision (d).

(3) The public utility may charge a fee to the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry for each search performed pursuant to this subdivision to cover the actual costs to the public utility for providing this information.

(4) No public utility, or official or employee thereof, shall be subject to criminal or civil liability for the release of customer service information as authorized by this subdivision.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 14202 of the Penal Code, any records established pursuant to this section shall be disseminated only to the Department of Justice, the Central Registry of this state and other states as defined by federal law and regulations, a district attorney of any county in this state, locator services of other states as defined by federal law and regulations, and the federal Parent Locator Service and official child support enforcement agencies.

(e) (1) At no time shall any information received by the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry be disclosed to any person, agency, or other entity, other than those persons, agencies, and entities specified pursuant to Section 11478, this section, or any other provision of law.

(2) This subdivision shall not otherwise affect discovery between parties in any action to establish, modify, or enforce child, family, or spousal support, that relates to custody or visitation.

(f) (1) The Department of Justice, in consultation with the State Department of Social Services, shall promulgate rules and regulations to facilitate maximum and efficient use of the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry.

(2) The Department of Justice, in consultation with the State Department of Social Services and the Public Utilities Commission, shall develop procedures for obtaining the information described in subdivision (c) from public utilities, and for compensating the public utilities for providing that information.

(g) The State Department of Social Services and the Department of Justice shall implement the provisions of this section regarding public utilities, as defined by Section 216 of the Public Utilities Code, only where there is a reasonable likelihood that the cost of obtaining customer service information from public utilities pursuant to this section would be less than the additional collections obtained through use of that information.

(h) The California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry may charge a fee not to exceed eighteen dollars ($18) for any service it provides pursuant to this section that is not performed or funded pursuant to Part D (commencing with Section 651) of Subchapter IV of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(i) This section shall be construed in a manner consistent with the other provisions of this article.

SEC. 233. Section 12300 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

12300. (a) The purpose of this article is to provide in every county in a manner consistent with this chapter and the annual Budget Act those supportive services identified in this section to aged, blind, or disabled persons, as defined under this chapter, who are unable to perform the services themselves and who cannot safely remain in their homes or abodes of their own choosing unless these services are provided.

(b) Supportive services shall include domestic services and services related to domestic services, heavy cleaning, personal care services, accompaniment by a provider when needed during necessary travel to health-related appointments or to alternative resource sites, yard hazard abatement, protective supervision, teaching and demonstration directed at reducing the need for other supportive services, and paramedical services which make it possible for the recipient to establish and maintain an independent living arrangement.

(c) Personal care services shall mean all of the following:

(1) Assistance with ambulation.

(2) Bathing, oral hygiene, and grooming.

(3) Dressing.

(4) Care and assistance with prosthetic devices.

(5) Bowel, bladder, and menstrual care.

(6) Repositioning, skin care, range of motion exercises, and transfers.

(7) Feeding and assurance of adequate fluid intake.

(8) Respiration.

(9) Assistance with self-administration of medications.

(d) Where supportive services are provided by a person having the legal duty pursuant to the Family Code to provide for the care of his or her child who is the recipient, the provider of supportive services shall receive remuneration for the services only when the provider leaves full-time employment or is prevented from obtaining full-time employment because no other suitable provider is available and where the inability of the provider to provide supportive services may result in inappropriate placement or inadequate care.

These providers shall be paid only for the following:

(1) Services related to domestic services.

(2) Personal care services.

(3) Accompaniment by a provider when needed during necessary travel to health-related appointments or to alternative resource sites.

(4) Protective supervision only as needed because of the functional limitations of the child.

(5) Paramedical services.

(e) To encourage maximum voluntary services, so as to reduce governmental costs, respite care shall also be provided. Respite care is temporary or periodic service for eligible recipients to relieve persons who are providing care without compensation.

(f) A person who is eligible to receive a personal care service provided pursuant to Section 14132.95 shall not be eligible to receive that personal care service pursuant to this article.

(g) A service provided pursuant to this article shall be equal to the level of the same service provided pursuant to Section 14132.95, including any adjustments that may be made to that service pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 14132.95.

SEC. 234. Section 16120 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

16120. Adoption Assistance Program benefits shall be provided only on behalf of special needs children for whom all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The department or the county responsible for determining the child's Adoption Assistance Program eligibility status and for providing financial aid and the prospective adoptive parent have signed an adoption assistance agreement which stipulates the need for and the amount of Adoption Assistance Program benefits. The adoption assistance agreement shall, at a minimum, specify the duration of assistance, the responsibility of the adopting family for reporting changes in circumstances, and the periodic recertification required for reevaluating the continuing needs of the family.

(b) The child is under 18 years of age, or under 21 years of age and has a mental or physical handicap which warrants the continuation of assistance.

(c) The adoptive family is responsible for the child pursuant to the terms of an adoptive placement agreement or a final decree of adoption and have signed an adoption assistance agreement.

(d) The adoptive family is legally responsible for the support of the child and the child is receiving support from the adoptive parent.

(e) The child has been either relinquished for adoption to a California agency or freed for adoption through termination of parental rights by a California court, or committed to the department pursuant to Section 8805 or 8918 of the Family Code.

SEC. 235. Any section of any act enacted by the Legislature during the 1993 calendar year, which takes effect on or before January 1, 1994, and which amends, amends and renumbers, repeals and adds, or repeals Section 12021, 12028.5, 12031, 12070, 12076, or 12078 of the Penal Code, shall prevail over the amendment of that section by this act, whether that act is chaptered before or after this act.

SEC. 236. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 220

An act to amend Section 977 of the Penal Code, relating to criminal procedure.

[Approved by Governor July 26, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 27, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 977 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

977. (a) (1) In all cases in which the accused is charged with a misdemeanor only, he or she may appear by counsel only, except as provided in paragraph (2). If the accused agrees, the initial court appearance, arraignment, and plea may be by video, as provided by subdivision (c).

(2) When the accused is charged with a misdemeanor offense involving domestic violence, as defined in Section 542 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or a misdemeanor violation of Section 273.6, upon a satisfactory showing of necessity, the court may order through counsel that the accused be personally present in court for the purpose of the service of an order under Section 136.2, unless the court determines that the defendant will make another court appearance within a reasonable period of time and the defendant could be served with a restraining order at that time.

(b) (1) In all cases in which a felony is charged, the accused shall be present at the arraignment, at the time of plea, during the preliminary hearing, during those portions of the trial when evidence is taken before the trier of fact, and at the time of the imposition of sentence. The accused shall be personally present at all other proceedings unless he or she shall, with leave of court, execute in open court, a written waiver of his or her right to be personally present, as provided by paragraph (2). If the accused agrees, the initial court appearance, arraignment, and plea may be by video, as provided by subdivision (c).

(2) The accused may execute a written waiver of his or her right to be personally present, approved by his or her counsel, and the waiver shall be filed with the court. However, the court may specifically direct the defendant to be personally present at any particular proceeding or portion thereof. The waiver shall be substantially in the following form:

"WAIVER OF DEFENDANT'S PERSONAL PRESENCE"

"The undersigned defendant, having been advised of his or her right to be present at all stages of the proceedings, including, but not limited to, presentation of and arguments on questions of fact and law, and to be confronted by and cross-examine all witnesses, hereby waives the right to be present at the hearing of any motion or other proceeding in this cause. The undersigned defendant hereby requests the court to proceed during every absence of the defendant that the court may permit pursuant to this waiver, and hereby agrees that his or her interest is represented at all times by the presence of his or her attorney the same as if the defendant were personally present in court, and further agrees that notice to his or her attorney that his or her presence in court on a particular day at a particular time is required is notice to the defendant of the requirement of his or her appearance at that time and place."

(c) The court may permit the initial court appearance and arraignment in municipal or superior court of defendants held in any state, county, or local facility within the county on felony or misdemeanor charges, except for those defendants who were indicted by a grand jury, to be conducted by two-way electronic audiovideo communication between the defendant and the courtroom in lieu of the physical presence of the defendant in the courtroom. If the defendant is represented by counsel, the attorney shall be present with the defendant at the initial court appearance and arraignment, and may enter a plea during the arraignment. However, if the defendant is represented by counsel at an initial hearing in superior court, and if the defendant does not plead guilty or nolo contendere to any charge, the attorney shall be present with the defendant or if the attorney is not present with the defendant, the attorney shall be present in court during the hearing. The defendant shall have the right to make his or her plea while physically present in the courtroom if he or she so requests. If the defendant decides not to exercise the right to be physically present in the courtroom, he or she shall execute a written waiver of that right. A judge may order a defendant's personal appearance in court for the initial court appearance and arraignment. In a misdemeanor case, a judge may, pursuant to this subdivision, accept a plea of guilty or no contest from a defendant who is not physically in the courtroom. In a felony case, a judge may, pursuant to this subdivision, accept a plea of guilty or no contest from a defendant who is not physically in the courtroom if the parties stipulate thereto.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (c), if the defendant is represented by counsel, the attorney shall be present with the defendant in any county exceeding 4,000,000 persons in population.

CHAPTER 221

An act to amend Sections 1000.6, 1000.7, 1000.8, 1000.9, and 1001.15 of, to amend and renumber Sections 1000.10 and 1000.11 of, and to add Sections 1000.93, 1000.94, 1000.95, and 1000.96 to, the Penal Code, relating to domestic violence diversion.

[Approved by Governor July 26, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 27, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1000.6 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1000.6. (a) Upon the determination of the judge presiding, this chapter shall apply whenever a case is before the court upon an accusatory pleading for an act of domestic violence which is charged as, or reduced to, a misdemeanor and all of the following apply to the defendant:

(1) The defendant has no conviction for any offense involving violence within 10 years prior to the alleged commission of the charged divertible offense.

(2) The defendant's record does not indicate that probation or parole has ever been revoked without thereafter being completed.

(3) The defendant has not been diverted pursuant to this chapter within 10 years prior to the charged divertible offense.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, this chapter is not applicable to a person who is charged with a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 245 or Section 273.5.

(b) The prosecuting attorney shall, and the defense attorney may, review the defendant's file to determine whether or not paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, of subdivision (a) are applicable to the defendant. If the defendant is found eligible, the prosecuting attorney shall notify the court, the defendant, and the defense attorney, and the defense attorney may move that the defendant be diverted pursuant to this chapter. If the defendant is found by the prosecuting attorney to be ineligible for diversion, the prosecuting attorney shall file with the court a declaration in writing or state for the record the grounds upon which the determination is based, and shall make this information available to the defendant and the defendant's attorney.

(c) No admission of guilt shall be required of a defendant in order for this chapter to be applicable.

(d) As used in this chapter "domestic violence" means intentionally or recklessly causing or attempting to cause bodily injury to a family or household member or placing a family or household member in reasonable apprehension of imminent serious bodily injury to himself or herself or another.

(e) As used in this chapter "family or household member" means a spouse, former spouse, parent, any other person related by consanguinity, or any person who regularly resides or who within the previous six months regularly resided in the household. "Family or household member" does not include a child.

SEC. 2. Section 1000.7 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1000.7. (a) If the prosecuting attorney determines that this chapter may be applicable to the defendant, he or she shall advise the defendant and the defendant's attorney in writing of that determination. This notification shall include:

(1) A full description of the procedures of diversionary investigation.

(2) A general explanation of the roles and authorities of the court, the prosecuting attorney, the probation department, and the community program in the diversion process.

(3) A clear statement that the court may decide in a hearing not to divert the person and that the defendant may have to stand trial for the alleged offense.

(4) A clear statement that, for the period of diversion, the defendant may be enjoined from contacting, and shall be enjoined from annoying, molesting, attacking, striking, threatening, harassing, stalking, sexually assaulting, battering, or disturbing the peace of, the victim.

(5) A clear statement that should the person fail in meeting the terms of his or her diversion, or should he or she be convicted of any offense involving violence, the defendant may be required, after a court hearing, to stand trial for the original alleged offense.

(6) An explanation of criminal record retention and disposition resulting from participation in the diversion and the divertee's rights relative to answering questions about his or her arrest and diversion following successful completion of the diversion program.

(b) If the defendant consents and waives his or her right to a speedy trial the court shall refer the case to the probation department. The probation department shall make an investigation and take into consideration the defendant's age, medical history, employment and service records, educational background, community and family ties, prior incidents of violence, police report, treatment history, if any, demonstrable motivation, and other mitigating factors in determining whether the defendant is a person who would be benefited by education, treatment, or rehabilitation. This information shall be provided to the program if it is requested. To qualify for diversion, the defendant shall exhibit sufficient motivation to comply with the diversion requirements, including the defendant's agreement to attend counseling, refrain from any incidents of domestic violence, keep all program appointments, and pay program fees based upon the ability to pay. The probation department shall also determine which community programs the defendant would benefit from and which of those programs would accept the defendant. The probation department shall report its findings and recommendation to the court. If the probation department concludes that the defendant fails to meet the standards set forth in this section, the basis for that conclusion shall be included in the report.

(c) The court shall advise the defendant that the failure to report to the probation department for the initial investigation, as directed by the court, or the failure to enroll in a specified program, as directed by the court or the probation department, shall result in no rereferral to diversion. The court, in the interests of justice, may relieve the defendant from the prohibition set forth in this subdivision based upon the defendant's mistake or excusable neglect. Application for this relief shall be filed within 20 court days of the missed deadline. This time limitation may not be extended. A copy of any application for relief shall be served on the office of the prosecuting attorney.

SEC. 3. Section 1000.8 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1000.8. (a) The court shall hold a hearing and, after consideration of the probation department's report and any other information considered by the court to be relevant to its decision, shall determine if the defendant consents to further proceedings under this chapter and waives his or her right to a speedy trial and if the defendant should be diverted and referred for a batterer's program directed specifically to the violent conduct of the defendant. The court, in determining the defendant's eligibility for diversion, shall consider the nature and extent of the injury inflicted upon the victim, any prior incidents of domestic violence by the defendant, including, but not limited to, incidents documented in police reports and medical records, if available, and any factors which would adversely influence the likelihood of successful completion of the diversion program. The court also may consider any information provided by the victim. If the court does not deem the defendant a person who would be benefited by diversion, or if the defendant does not consent to participate, the proceedings shall continue as in any other case. If the court orders a defendant to be diverted, the court shall make inquiry into the financial condition of the defendant and upon a finding that the defendant is able in whole or part to pay the expense of the batterer's program the court shall order the defendant to pay for all or part of the batterer's program.

(b) On or before January 1, 1995, nothing in this section shall prohibit the placement of a defendant in another appropriate counseling program approved by the probation department if the court determines that there is no batterer's program currently available. In addition to the above placements, nothing in this section shall prohibit a court from also requiring a defendant to obtain education, treatment, or rehabilitation for a substance abuse problem if the court determines it is a factor in the alleged domestic violence.

(c) The court shall order the defendant to perform a specified amount of appropriate community service, as designated by the court. The defendant shall present the court with proof of completion of community service and the court shall determine if the community service has been satisfactorily completed. If sufficient staff and resources are available, the community service shall be performed under the jurisdiction of the local agency overseeing a community service program.

(d) At the time that the defendant's case is diverted, any bail bond or undertaking, or deposit in lieu thereof, on file by or on behalf of the defendant shall be exonerated, and the court shall enter an order so directing. During the period of diversion, the case shall be held in abeyance until the period of diversion is terminated. During this period, the defendant shall be deemed for all purposes to have no conviction.

(e) The period during which further criminal proceedings against a person may be diverted pursuant to this chapter shall be for no less than one year nor longer than two years.

The court shall set forth in writing or state on the record its reason for granting or denying diversion. The court's decision in the matter shall be final and shall not constitute an appealable order.

(f) The prosecuting attorney shall attempt to notify the victim in the diverted case when diversion is requested.

SEC. 4. Section 1000.9 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1000.9. If it appears to the prosecuting attorney, the court, or the probation department that a defendant under this chapter is performing unsatisfactorily in the assigned program, is not benefiting from counseling, or has engaged in criminal conduct rendering the defendant unsuitable for diversion, after notice to the defendant by way of a motion to terminate diversion, and upon request of the probation officer, the prosecuting attorney, or on its own motion, the court, as a priority calendar item, shall hold a hearing to determine whether the criminal proceedings should be reinstituted. The court may decide unsuitability on factors, including, but not limited to, any violence by the defendant against the former or a new victim while on diversion and noncompliance with any other specific conditions of diversion. If the court finds that the defendant is not performing satisfactorily in the assigned program, is not benefiting from diversion, or has engaged in criminal conduct rendering the defendant unsuitable for diversion, the criminal case shall be referred back to the court for resumption of the criminal proceedings. If the defendant has performed satisfactorily during the period of diversion, at the end of the period of diversion, a hearing shall be held and the criminal charges shall be dismissed. Prior to terminating diversion, the court shall consider whether the defendant has paid the probation department the administrative fee and has met the financial obligations for attending the program that are based upon the defendant's ability to pay.

SEC. 5. Section 1000.10 of the Penal Code is amended and renumbered to read:

1000.91. Any records filed with the Department of Justice shall indicate the disposition in those cases diverted pursuant to this chapter. Upon successful completion of a diversion program the arrest upon which the diversion was based shall be deemed to have never occurred. The defendant may indicate in response to any question concerning his or her prior criminal record that he or she was not arrested or diverted for the offense. A record pertaining to an arrest resulting in successful completion of a diversion program shall not, without the divertee's consent, be used in any way which could result in the denial of any employment, benefit, license, or certificate.

SEC. 6. Section 1000.11 of the Penal Code is amended and renumbered to read:

1000.92. No statement, or any information procured therefrom, with respect to the specific offense with which the defendant is charged, which is made to any probation officer or community program worker during the process of determining the defendant's eligibility for diversion or subsequent to the granting of diversion, shall be admissible in any action or proceeding.

SEC. 7. Section 1000.93 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1000.93. (a) Effective July 1, 1994, the probation department shall refer defendants only to batterer's programs that follow standards outlined in subdivision (b), which may include, but are not limited to, lectures, classes, group discussion, and counseling. The probation department shall design and implement an approval and renewal process for batterer's programs and shall solicit input from criminal justice agencies and domestic violence victim advocacy programs.

(b) The goal of a batterer's program under this chapter shall be to stop the domestic violence. A batterer's program shall consist of the following components:

(1) Strategies to hold the defendant accountable for the violence in a relationship, including, but not limited to, providing the defendant with a written statement that the defendant shall be held accountable for acts or threats of domestic violence.

(2) A requirement that the defendant participate in ongoing same-gender group sessions.

(3) An initial intake that provides written definitions to the defendant of physical, emotional, sexual, economic, and verbal abuse, and the techniques for stopping these types of abuse.

(4) Procedures to inform the victim regarding the requirements for the defendant's participation in the intervention program as well as regarding available victim resources. The victim also shall be informed that attendance in any program does not guarantee that an abuser will not be violent.

(5) A requirement that the defendant attend group sessions free of chemical influence.

(6) Educational programming that examines, at a minimum, gender roles, socialization, the nature of violence, the dynamics of power and control, and the effects of abuse on children and others.

(7) A requirement that excludes any couple counseling or family counseling, or both.

(8) Procedures that give the program the right to assess whether or not the defendant would benefit from the program and refuse to enroll the defendant if it is determined the defendant would not benefit from the program, so long as the refusal is not because of the defendant's inability to pay. If possible, the program shall suggest an appropriate alternative program.

(9) Program staff who, to the extent possible, have specific knowledge regarding, but not limited to, spousal abuse, child abuse, sexual abuse, substance abuse issues, the dynamics of violence and abuse, the law, and procedures of the legal system.

(10) Program staff who are encouraged to utilize the expertise, training, and assistance of local domestic violence centers.

(11) A requirement that the defendant enter into a written agreement with the program that shall include an outline of the contents of the program, the attendance requirements, the requirement to attend group sessions free of chemical influence, and a statement that the defendant can be removed from the program if it is determined that the defendant is not benefiting from the program or is disruptive to the program.

(12) A requirement that the defendant sign a confidentiality statement prohibiting disclosure of any information obtained through participating in the program or during group sessions regarding other participants in the program.

(13) Program content that provides cultural and ethnic sensitivity.

(14) A requirement of a written referral from the court or probation department prior to permitting the defendant to enroll in the program. The written referral shall state the number of minimum sessions required by the court.

(15) Procedures for submitting to the probation department the following uniform written responses:

(A) Proof of enrollment, to be submitted to the court and the probation department and to include the fee determined to be charged to the defendant, based upon the ability to pay, for each session.

(B) Periodic progress reports, that include attendance, fee payment history, and program compliance.

(C) Final evaluation, that includes the program's evaluation of the defendant's progress, using the criteria set forth in subdivision (e) of Section 1000.95 and recommendation for either successful or unsuccessful termination or the continuation of the program.

(16) A sliding fee schedule based on the defendant's ability to pay. The batterer's program shall develop and utilize a sliding fee scale that recognizes both the defendant's ability to pay and the necessity of programs to meet overhead expenses. An indigent defendant may negotiate a deferred payment schedule, but shall pay a nominal fee, if the defendant has the ability to pay the nominal fee. Upon a hearing and a finding by the court that the defendant does not have the financial ability to pay the nominal fee, the court shall waive this fee. The payment of the fee shall be made a condition of diversion if the court determines the defendant has the present ability to pay the fee. The fee shall be paid during the term of diversion unless the program sets other conditions. The acceptance policies shall be in accordance with the scaled fee system.

(c) The court shall refer persons only to batterer programs that have been approved by the probation department pursuant to Section 1000.94. The probation department shall do each of the following:

(1) Provide for the issuance of a provisional approval, provided the applicant is in substantial compliance with applicable laws and regulations and an urgent need for approval exists. A provisional approval shall be considered an authorization to provide services and shall not be considered a vested right.

(2) If the probation department determines that a program is not in compliance with standards set forth by the department, the department shall provide written notice of the noncompliant areas to the program. The program shall submit a written plan of corrections within 14 days from the date of the written notice on noncompliance. A plan of correction shall include, but not be limited to, a description of each corrective action and timeframe for implementation. The department shall review and approve all or any part of the plan of correction and notify the program of approval or disapproval in writing. If the program fails to submit a plan of correction or fails to implement the approved plan of correction, the department shall consider whether to revoke or suspend approval and, upon revoking or suspending approval, shall have the option to cease referrals of defendants under this chapter.

(d) No program, regardless of its source of funding, shall be approved unless it meets the following standards:

(1) The establishment of guidelines and criteria for education services, including standards of services that may include lectures, classes, and group discussions.

(2) Supervision of the defendants for the purpose of evaluating the person's progress in the program.

(3) Adequate reporting requirements to ensure that all persons who, after being ordered to attend and complete a program, may be identified for either failure to enroll in, or failure to successfully complete, the program or for the successful completion of the program as ordered. The program shall notify the court and the probation department in writing within the period of time and in the manner specified by the court of any person who fails to complete the program. Notification shall be given if the program determines that the defendant is performing unsatisfactorily or if the defendant is not benefiting from the education, treatment, or counseling.

(4) No victim shall be compelled to participate in a program or counseling and no program may condition a defendant's enrollment on participation by the victim.

(e) In making referrals of indigent defendants to approved batterer programs, the probation department shall apportion these referrals evenly among the approved programs.

SEC. 8. Section 1000.94 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1000.94. (a) The probation department shall have the sole authority to approve a batterer's program for diversion. The program shall be required to obtain only one approval but shall renew that approval annually.

(b) The procedure for the approval of a new or existing program shall include each of the following:

(1) The completion of a written application containing necessary and pertinent information describing the applicant program.

(2) The demonstration by the program that it possesses adequate administrative and operational capability to operate a batterer's treatment program. The program shall provide documentation to prove that the program has conducted batterer's programs for at least one year prior to application. This requirement may be waived under paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 1000.93, if there is no existing batterer's program in the city, county, or city and county.

(3) The on-site review of the program, including monitoring of a session to determine that the program adheres to applicable statutes and regulations.

(4) The payment of the approval fee.

(c) The probation department shall fix a fee for approval not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) and for approval renewal not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) every year in an amount sufficient to cover its cost in administering the approval process under this chapter. No fee shall be charged for the approval of local governmental entities.

(d) The probation department has the sole authority to approve the issuance, denial, suspension, or revocation of approval and to cease new enrollments or referrals to a batterer's program under this chapter. The probation department shall review information relative to a program's performance or failure to adhere to standards, or both. The probation department may suspend or revoke any approval issued under this chapter or deny an application to renew an approval or to modify the terms and conditions of approval, based on grounds established by probation, including, but not limited to, any of the following:

(1) Violation of this chapter by any person holding approval or by a program employee in a program under this chapter.

(2) Misrepresentation of any material fact in obtaining the approval.

SEC. 9. Section 1000.95 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1000.95. If the court orders the defendant diverted pursuant to Section 1000.8, the following shall apply:

(a) The probation department shall conduct an initial assessment of each defendant, including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) Social, economic, and family background.

(2) Education.
(3) Vocational achievements.
(4) Criminal history.
(5) Medical history.
(6) Substance abuse history.
(7) Consultation with the probation officer.
(8) Verbal consultation with the victim, only if the victim desires to participate.

(b) The probation department shall attempt to notify the victim regarding the requirements for the defendant's participation in the intervention program, as well as regarding available victim resources. The victim also shall be informed that attendance in any program does not guarantee that an abuser will not be violent.

(c) If the court, upon the recommendation of the probation department, refers the defendant to a program and the program finds that the defendant is unsuitable, the program shall immediately contact the probation department. The probation department shall either recalendar the case for hearing or refer the defendant to an appropriate batterer's program.

(d) For defendants who are chronic users or serious abusers of drugs or alcohol, standard components in the program shall include concurrent counseling for substance abuse and violent behavior, and in appropriate cases, detoxification and abstinence from the abused substance.

(e) Each defendant shall be required to complete a minimum of 32 sessions in not less than 32 weeks and within a period of nine months. However, a court may require a defendant to participate in more sessions, as needed, throughout the diversionary period, upon recommendation of the program. In deciding whether the defendant would benefit from more sessions, the court shall consider whether the following conditions exist:

(1) The defendant has been violence free for a minimum of six months.

(2) The defendant has cooperated and participated in the batterer's program.

(3) The defendant demonstrates an understanding of and practices positive conflict resolution skills.

(4) The defendant blames, degrades, or has committed acts which dehumanize the victim or puts at risk the victim's safety, including, but not limited to, molesting, stalking, striking, attacking, threatening, sexually assaulting, or battering the victim.

(5) The defendant demonstrates an understanding that the use of coercion or violent behavior to maintain dominance is unacceptable in an intimate relationship.

(6) The defendant has made threats to harm anyone in any manner.

(7) The defendant has complied with any requirements under subdivision (d) or Section 1000.96 to receive alcohol counseling, drug counseling, or both.

The court shall order any additional number of sessions recommended, unless it finds that it is not in the interests of justice to do so, states its reasons on the record, and enters them into the minutes.

(f) The program shall conduct an exit conference that reflects the defendant's progress during the defendant's participation in the domestic violence diversion program.

SEC. 10. Section 1000.96 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

1000.96. Concurrent with other requirements under this chapter, and in addition to the batterer's program, as described in Sections 1000.93 and 1000.94, and unless prohibited by the referring court, the probation department may make provisions for a defendant to use his or her resources to enroll in a chemical dependency program or to voluntarily enter a licensed chemical dependency recovery hospital or residential treatment program that has a valid license issued by the state to provide alcohol or drug services to receive program participation credit, as determined by the court. The probation department shall document evidence of this hospital or residential treatment participation in the participant's program file.

SEC. 11. Section 1001.15 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1001.15. (a) In addition to the fees authorized or required by other provisions of law, a judge may require the payment of an administrative fee, as part of an enrollment fee in a diversion program, by a defendant accused of a felony to cover the cost of any criminalistics laboratory analysis and the cost of processing a request or application for diversion pursuant to Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 1000), not to exceed one hundred fifty dollars ($150). The fee shall be payable at the time of enrollment in the diversion program. The court shall take into consideration the defendant's ability to pay, and no defendant shall be denied diversion because of his or her inability to pay. One-third of the fee collected shall be deposited in the criminalistics laboratories fund in the county treasury, and two-thirds of the fee collected shall be used to cover the administrative cost of processing the request or application. The portion deposited in the criminalistics laboratories fund shall be expended as provided in Section 11372.5 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) As used in this section, "criminalistics laboratory" means a laboratory operated by, or under contract with a city, county, or other public agency, including a criminalistics laboratory of the Department of Justice, which has not less than one regularly employed forensic scientist engaged in the analysis of solid dose material and body fluids for controlled substances, and which is registered as an analytical laboratory with the Drug Enforcement Administration of the United States Department of Justice for the processing of all scheduled controlled substances.

(c) In addition to the fees authorized or required by other provisions of law, a judge may require the payment of an administrative fee, as part of an enrollment fee in a diversion program, by a defendant accused of an act charged as, or reduced to, a misdemeanor to cover the cost of processing a request or application for diversion pursuant to Chapter 2.6 (commencing with Section 1000.6), the costs of reporting to the court on a defendant's eligibility and suitability for diversion, the cost of supervising the divertee, and for any duties required pursuant to Section 1000.9, not to exceed three hundred dollars ($300). The fee shall be payable at the time of enrollment in the diversion program. The fee shall be determined on a sliding scale according to the defendant's ability to pay, and no defendant shall be denied diversion because of his or her inability to pay.

SEC. 12. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions of applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of the act are severable.

SEC. 13. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 222

An act to amend Sections 2107 and 2111 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utilities.

[Approved by Governor July 26, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 27, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2107 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

2107. Any public utility which violates or fails to comply with any provision of the Constitution of this state or of this part, or which fails or neglects to comply with any part or provision of any order, decision, decree, rule, direction, demand, or requirement of the commission, in a case in which a penalty has not otherwise been provided, is subject to a penalty of not less than five hundred dollars ($500), nor more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for each offense.

SEC. 2. Section 2111 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

2111. Every corporation or person, other than a public utility and its officers, agents, or employees, which or who knowingly violates or fails to comply with, or procures, aids or abets any violation of any provision of the Constitution of this state relating to public utilities or of this part, or fails to comply with any part of any order, decision, rule, direction, demand, or requirement of the commission, or who procures, aids, or abets any public utility in such violation or noncompliance, in a case in which a penalty has not otherwise been provided for such corporation or person, is subject to a penalty of not less than five hundred dollars ($500), nor more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for each offense.

CHAPTER 223

An act to amend Section 9562 of the Vehicle Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor July 26, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 27, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9562 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

9562. (a) When a transferee or purchaser of a vehicle applies for transfer of registration, as provided in Section 5902, and it is determined by the department that registration penalties accrued prior to the purchase of the vehicle, and that the transferee or purchaser was not cognizant of the nonpayment of the fees for registration for the current or prior registration years, the department may waive the registration penalties upon payment of the fees for registration due.

(b) Other provisions of this code notwithstanding, the director may, at his or her discretion, investigate into the circumstances of any application for registration to ascertain if penalties had accrued through no fault or intent of the owner. If the director determines that the circumstances justify it, he or she may waive any penalties upon payment of the fees for registration then due.

(c) When a transferee or purchaser of a vehicle applies for transfer of registration of a vehicle, and it is determined by the department that fees for registration of the vehicle for any year are unpaid and due, that the fees became due prior to the transfer or purchase of the vehicle by the transferee or purchaser and that the transferee or purchaser was not cognizant of the fact that the fees were unpaid and due, the department may waive the fees and any penalty thereon if the license plate assigned to the vehicle displays a validating device issued by the department and the validating device contains the year number of the registration year for which the transferee or purchaser is requesting a waiver of fees and penalties.

(d) Upon the transfer of a vehicle for which fees for registration and any penalties thereon are unpaid and due, the fees and penalties are, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 6 (commencing with Section 9800) of this chapter, the personal debt of the transferor of the vehicle who did not pay the fees and penalties when they became due or accrued. The fees and penalties may be collected by the department in an appropriate civil action if the department has waived the fees and penalties pursuant to subdivision (c).

CHAPTER 224

An act to amend Sections 12027 and 12031 of the Penal Code, relating to peace officers.

[Approved by Governor July 26, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 27, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12027 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12027. Section 12025 does not apply to, or affect, any of the following:

(a) (1) (A) Any peace officer, listed in Section 830.1 or 830.2, whether active or honorably retired, other duly appointed peace officers, honorably retired peace officers listed in subdivision (c) of Section 830.5, full-time paid peace officers of other states and the federal government who are carrying out official duties while in California, or any person summoned by any of these officers to assist in making arrests or preserving the peace while he or she is actually engaged in assisting that officer. Any peace officer described in this paragraph who has been honorably retired shall be issued an identification certificate by the law enforcement agency from which the officer has retired. The issuing agency may charge a fee necessary to cover any reasonable expenses incurred by the agency in issuing certificates pursuant to this subdivision. As used in this section and Section 12031, the term "honorably retired" includes all peace officers who have qualified for, and have accepted, a service or disability retirement. For purposes of this section and Section 12031, the term "honorably retired" does not include an officer who has agreed to a service retirement in lieu of termination.

(B) Any officer retired after January 1, 1981, shall have an endorsement on the identification certificate stating that the issuing agency approves the officer's carrying of a concealed firearm.

(C) No endorsement or renewal endorsement issued pursuant to paragraph (2) shall be effective unless it is in the format set forth in subparagraph (D), except that any peace officer listed in subdivision (f) of Section 830.2 or in subdivision (c) of Section 830.5, who is retired between January 2, 1981, and on or before December 31, 1988, and who is authorized to carry a concealed firearm pursuant to this section, shall not be required to have an endorsement in the format set forth in subparagraph (D) until the time of the issuance, on or after January 1, 1989, of a renewal endorsement pursuant to paragraph (2).

(D) A certificate issued pursuant to this paragraph for persons retiring after January 1, 1981, shall be in the following format: it shall be on a 2x3 inch card, bear the photograph of the retiree, the retiree's name, address, date of birth, the date that the retiree retired, name and address of the law enforcement agency from which the retiree retired, have stamped on it the endorsement "CCW Approved" and the date the endorsement is to be renewed.

(E) For purposes of this section and Section 12031, "CCW" means "carry concealed weapons."

(2) A retired peace officer who retired after January 1, 1981, shall petition the issuing agency for the renewal of his or her privilege to carry a concealed firearm every five years. An honorably retired peace officer, described in paragraph (1), retired prior to January 1, 1981, shall not be required to obtain an endorsement from the issuing agency to carry a concealed firearm. The agency from which a peace officer is honorably retired may, upon initial retirement of that peace officer or at any time subsequent thereto, deny or revoke, for good cause, the retired officer's privilege to carry a concealed firearm.

(3) An honorably retired peace officer who is listed in subdivision (c) of Section 830.5 and authorized to carry concealed firearms by this subdivision shall meet the training requirements of Section 832 and shall qualify with the firearm at least annually. The individual retired peace officer shall be responsible for maintaining his or her eligibility to carry a concealed firearm. The Department of Justice shall provide subsequent arrest notification pursuant to Section 11105.2 regarding honorably retired peace officers listed in subdivision (c) of Section 830.5 to the agency from which the officer has retired.

(b) The possession or transportation of unloaded firearms as merchandise by a person who is engaged in the business of manufacturing, importing, wholesaling, repairing, or dealing in firearms and who is licensed to engage in that business, or the authorized representative or authorized agent of that person while engaged in the lawful course of the business.

(c) Members of the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States, or the National Guard, when on duty, or organizations which are by law authorized to purchase or receive those weapons from the United States or this state.

(d) Duly authorized military or civil organizations while parading, or the members thereof when going to and from the places of meeting of their respective organizations.

(e) Guards or messengers of common carriers, banks, and other financial institutions while actually employed in and about the shipment, transportation, or delivery of any money, treasure, bullion, bonds, or other thing of value within this state.

(f) Members of any club or organization organized for the purpose of practicing shooting at targets upon established target ranges, whether public or private, while the members are using pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person upon the target ranges, or while going to and from the ranges.

(g) Licensed hunters or fishermen while engaged in hunting or fishing, or while going to or returning from the hunting or fishing expedition.

(h) Transportation of unloaded firearms by a person operating a licensed common carrier or an authorized agent or employee thereof when transported in conformance with applicable federal law.

(i) Upon approval of the sheriff of the county in which they reside, honorably retired federal officers or agents of federal law enforcement agencies, including, but not limited to, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Secret Service, the United States Customs Service, the Federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms, the Federal Bureau of Narcotics, the Drug Enforcement Administration, the United States Border Patrol, and officers or agents of the Internal Revenue Service who were authorized to carry weapons while on duty, who were assigned to duty within the state for a period of not less than one year, or who retired from active service in the state.

Retired federal officers or agents shall provide the sheriff with certification from the agency from which they retired certifying their service in the state, the nature of their retirement, and indicating the agency's concurrence that the retired federal officer or agent should be accorded the privilege of carrying a concealed firearm.

Upon that approval, the sheriff shall issue a permit to the retired federal officer or agent indicating that he or she may carry a concealed firearm in accordance with this subdivision. The permit shall be valid for a period not exceeding five years, shall be carried by the retiree while carrying a concealed firearm, and may be revoked for good cause.

The sheriff of the county in which the retired federal officer or agent resides may require recertification prior to a permit renewal, and may suspend the privilege for cause. The sheriff may charge a fee necessary to cover any reasonable expenses incurred by the county.

(j) The carrying of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person by a person who is authorized to carry that weapon in a concealed manner pursuant to Article 3

(commencing with Section 12050).

SEC. 2. Section 12031 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12031. (a) (1) Except as provided in subdivision (b), (c), or (d), every person who carries a loaded firearm on his or her person or in a vehicle while in any public place or on any public street in an incorporated city or in any public place or on any public street in a prohibited area of unincorporated territory is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 836, a peace officer may make an arrest without a warrant:

(A) When the person arrested has violated this section, although not in the officer's presence.

(B) Whenever the officer has reasonable cause to believe that the person to be arrested has violated this section, whether or not this section has, in fact, been violated.

(3) (A) Every person convicted under this section who has previously been convicted of an offense enumerated in Section 12001.6, or of any crime made punishable under this chapter, shall serve a term of at least three months in a county jail, or, if granted probation, or if the execution or imposition of sentence is suspended, it shall be a condition thereof that he or she be imprisoned for a period of at least three months.

(B) The court shall apply the three-month minimum sentence except in unusual cases where the interests of justice would best be served by granting probation or suspending the imposition or execution of sentence without the minimum imprisonment required in this subdivision or by granting probation or suspending the imposition or execution of sentence with conditions other than those set forth in this subdivision, in which case, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter on the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by the disposition.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to any of the following:

(1) Peace officers listed in Section 830.1 or 830.2, whether active or honorably retired, other duly appointed peace officers, honorably retired peace officers listed in subdivision (c) of Section 830.5, full-time paid peace officers of other states and the federal government who are carrying out official duties while in California, or any person summoned by any of those officers to assist in making arrests or preserving the peace while the person is actually engaged in assisting that officer. Any peace officer described in this paragraph who has been honorably retired shall be issued an identification certificate by the law enforcement agency from which the officer has retired. The issuing agency may charge a fee necessary to cover any reasonable expenses incurred by the agency in issuing certificates pursuant to this paragraph and paragraph (3).

Any officer retired after January 1, 1981, shall have an endorsement on the identification certificate stating that the issuing agency approves the officer's carrying of a loaded firearm.

No endorsement or renewal endorsement issued pursuant to paragraph (2) shall be effective unless it is in the format set forth in subparagraph (D) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 12027, except that any peace officer listed in subdivision (f) of Section 830.2 or in subdivision (c) of Section 830.5, who is retired between January 2, 1981, and on or before December 31, 1988, and who is authorized to carry a loaded firearm pursuant to this section, shall not be required to have an endorsement in the format set forth in subparagraph (D) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 12027 until the time of the issuance, on or after January 1, 1989, of a renewal endorsement pursuant to paragraph (2).

(2) A retired peace officer who retired after January 1, 1981, shall petition the issuing agency for renewal of his or her privilege to carry a loaded firearm every five years. An honorably retired peace officer, described in paragraph (1), retired prior to January 1, 1981, shall not be required to obtain an endorsement from the issuing agency to carry a firearm. The agency from which a peace officer is honorably retired may, upon initial retirement of the peace officer, or at any time subsequent thereto, deny or revoke, for good cause, the retired officer's privilege to carry a firearm.

(3) An honorably retired peace officer who is listed in subdivision (c) of Section 830.5 and authorized to carry loaded firearms by this subdivision shall meet the training requirements of Section 832 and shall qualify with the firearm at least annually. The individual retired peace officer shall be responsible for maintaining his or her eligibility to carry a loaded firearm. The Department of Justice shall provide subsequent arrest notification pursuant to Section 11105.2 regarding honorably retired peace officers listed in subdivision (c) of Section 830.5 to the agency from which the officer has retired.

(4) Members of the military forces of this state or of the United States engaged in the performance of their duties.

(5) Persons who are using target ranges for the purpose of practice shooting with a firearm or who are members of shooting clubs while hunting on the premises of those clubs.

(6) The carrying of pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person by persons who are authorized to carry those weapons pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 12050) of Chapter 1 of Title 2 of Part 4.

(7) Armored vehicle guards, as defined in Section 7521 of the Business and Professions Code, (A) if hired prior to January 1, 1977; or (B) if hired on or after that date, if they have received a firearms qualification card from the Department of Consumer Affairs, in each case while acting within the course and scope of their employment.

(8) Upon approval of the sheriff of the county in which they reside, honorably retired federal officers or agents of federal law enforcement agencies, including, but not limited to, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Secret Service, the United States Customs Service, the Federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms, the Federal Bureau of Narcotics, the Drug Enforcement Administration, the United States Border Patrol, and officers or agents of the Internal Revenue Service who were authorized to carry weapons while on duty, who were assigned to duty within the state for a period of not less than one year, or who retired from active service in the state.

Retired federal officers or agents shall provide the sheriff with certification from the agency from which they retired certifying their service in the state, the nature of their retirement, and indicating the agency's concurrence that the retired federal officer or agent should be accorded the privilege of carrying a loaded firearm.

Upon approval, the sheriff shall issue a permit to the retired federal officer or agent indicating that he or she may carry a loaded firearm in accordance with this paragraph. The permit shall be valid for a period not exceeding five years, shall be carried by the retiree while carrying a loaded firearm, and may be revoked for good cause.

The sheriff of the county in which the retired federal officer or agent resides may require recertification prior to a permit renewal, and may suspend the privilege for cause. The sheriff may charge a fee necessary to cover any reasonable expenses incurred by the county.

(c) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to any of the following who have completed a regular course in firearms training approved by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training:

(1) Patrol special police officers appointed by the police commission of any city, county, or city and county under the express terms of its charter who also, under the express terms of the charter, (A) are subject to suspension or dismissal after a hearing on charges duly filed with the commission after a fair and impartial trial, (B) are not less than 18 years of age or more than 40 years of age, (C) possess physical qualifications prescribed by the commission, and (D) are designated by the police commission as the owners of a certain beat or territory as may be fixed from time to time by the police commission.

(2) The carrying of weapons by animal control officers or zookeepers, regularly compensated as such by a governmental agency when acting in the course and scope of their employment and when designated by a local ordinance or, if the governmental agency is not authorized to act by ordinance, by a resolution, either individually or by class, to carry the weapons, or by persons who are authorized to carry the weapons pursuant to Section 607f of the Civil Code, while actually engaged in the performance of their duties pursuant to that section.

(3) Harbor police officers designated pursuant to Section 663.5 of the Harbors and Navigation Code.

(d) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to any of the following who have been issued a certificate pursuant to Section 12033. The certificate shall not be required of any person who is a peace officer, who has completed all training required by law for the exercise of his or her power as a peace officer, and who is employed while not on duty as a peace officer.

(1) Guards or messengers of common carriers, banks, and other financial institutions while actually employed in and about the shipment, transportation, or delivery of any money, treasure, bullion, bonds, or other thing of value within this state.

(2) Guards of contract carriers operating armored vehicles pursuant to California Highway Patrol and Public Utilities Commission authority (A) if hired prior to January 1, 1977; or (B) if hired on or after January 1, 1977, if they have completed a course in the carrying and use of firearms which meets the standards prescribed by the Department of Consumer Affairs.

(3) Private investigators and private patrol operators who are licensed pursuant to Chapter 11.5 (commencing with Section 7512) of, and alarm company operators who are licensed pursuant to Chapter 11.6 (commencing with Section 7590) of, Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, while acting within the course and scope of their employment.

(4) Uniformed security guards or night watch persons employed by any public agency, while acting within the scope and course of their employment.

(5) Uniformed security guards, regularly employed and compensated in that capacity by persons engaged in any lawful business, and uniformed alarm agents employed by an alarm company operator, while actually engaged in protecting and preserving the property of their employers or on duty or en route to or from their residences or their places of employment, and security guards and alarm agents en route to or from their residences or employer-required range training. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to prohibit cities and counties from enacting ordinances requiring alarm agents to register their names.

(6) Uniformed employees of private patrol operators and private investigators licensed pursuant to Chapter 11.5 (commencing with Section 7512) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, while acting within the course and scope of their employment.

(e) In order to determine whether or not a firearm is loaded for the purpose of enforcing this section, peace officers are authorized to examine any firearm carried by anyone on his or her person or in a vehicle while in any public place or on any public street in an incorporated city or prohibited area of an unincorporated territory. Refusal to allow a peace officer to inspect a firearm pursuant to this section constitutes probable cause for arrest for violation of this section.

(f) As used in this section, "prohibited area" means any place where it is unlawful to discharge a weapon.

(g) A firearm shall be deemed to be loaded for the purposes of this section when there is an unexpended cartridge or shell, consisting of a case which holds a charge of powder and a bullet or shot, in, or attached in any manner to, the firearm, including, but not limited to, in the firing chamber, magazine, or clip thereof attached to the firearm; except that a muzzle-loader firearm shall be deemed to be loaded when it is capped or primed and has a powder charge and ball or shot in the barrel or cylinder.

(h) Nothing in this section shall prevent any person engaged in any lawful business, including a nonprofit organization, or any officer, employee, or agent authorized by that person for lawful purposes connected with that business, from having a loaded firearm within the person's place of business, or any person in lawful possession of private property from having a loaded firearm on that property.

(i) Nothing in this section shall prevent any person from carrying a loaded firearm in an area within an incorporated city while engaged in hunting, provided that the hunting at that place and time is not prohibited by the city council.

(j) (1) Nothing in this section is intended to preclude the carrying of any loaded firearm, under circumstances where it would otherwise be lawful, by a person who reasonably believes that the person or property of himself or herself or of another is in immediate, grave danger and that the carrying of the weapon is necessary for the preservation of that person or property. As used in this subdivision, "immediate" means the brief interval before and after the local law enforcement agency, when reasonably possible, has been notified of the danger and before the arrival of its assistance.

(2) A violation of this section is justifiable when a person who possesses a firearm reasonably believes that he or she is in grave danger because of circumstances forming the basis of a current restraining order issued by a court against another person or persons who has or have been found to pose a threat to his or her life or safety. This paragraph may not apply when the circumstances involve a mutual restraining order issued pursuant to Sections 2035 and 2036 of the Family Code, Sections 5514 and 5550 of the Family Code, or Sections 7710 and 7711 of the Family Code absent a factual finding of a specific threat to the person's life or safety. It is not the intent of the Legislature to limit, restrict, or narrow the application of current statutory or judicial authority to apply this or other justifications to defendants charged with violating Section 12025 or of committing other similar offenses.

Upon trial for violating this section, the trier of fact shall determine whether the defendant was acting out of a reasonable belief that he or she was in grave danger.

(k) Nothing in this section is intended to preclude the carrying of a loaded firearm by any person while engaged in the act of making or attempting to make a lawful arrest.

(l) Nothing in this section shall prevent any person from having a loaded weapon, if it is otherwise lawful, at his or her place of residence, including any temporary residence or campsite.

CHAPTER 225

An act to amend Sections 11521.1 and 11521.3 of, and to add Section 11520.6 to, the Insurance Code, relating to grants and annuities.

[Approved by Governor July 26, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 27, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11520.6 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

11520.6. (a) Before granting a certificate of authority or amended certificate of authority as a grants and annuities society to any applicant, the commissioner shall consider the qualifications of the applicant with respect to the following subjects:

(1) Minimum net worth and working capital.
(2) Lawfulness and quality of investments.
(3) Financial stability.
(4) Reinsurance agreements.
(5) Competency, character, and integrity of management.
(6) Ownership and control.
(7) Fairness and honesty of methods of doing business.
(8) Risk to the public.

(b) Upon consideration of all relevant qualifications, the commissioner shall issue a certificate of authority to an applicant, unless the commissioner finds that the applicant is materially deficient with respect to one or more of the subjects set forth in subdivision (a).

SEC. 2. Section 11521.1 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11521.1. (a) The funds and other property, together with interest and dividends thereon and proceeds therefrom, conditioned upon issuance of the certificate holder's contracts to pay annuities, shall be maintained under a separate trust agreement for reserves held for the benefit of California annuitants and shall be held legally and physically segregated from the other assets of the certificate holder. The amendments to this subdivision enacted during the 1993 portion of the 1993–94 Regular Session shall apply to any organization that is issued a new certificate of authority on or after January 1, 1994. Any grants and annuities society that holds a certificate of authority on January 1, 1994, and that is not in compliance with this subdivision as of that date, shall comply with these amendments by January 1, 1998.

(b) Nothing in subdivision (a) shall prevent the certificate holder from withdrawing from time to time, pursuant to an appropriate resolution of its board of trustees, that amount or amounts as are determined, in a manner which is satisfactory to the commissioner, to be excess over and above its reserve required to be maintained under the provisions of Section 11521.

(c) If the grants and annuities society will manage and direct investment of the reserve funds required under Section 11521, the California reserves may be held under a declaration of trust stating that the grants and annuities society will hold the funds in trust and invest funds or property held in trust in accordance with the requirements of this code. If a bank will manage or direct the investment of the California reserves fund, a trust agreement shall be executed with that institution that will act as a trustee.

SEC. 3. Section 11521.3 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11521.3. (a) Prior to admission each applicant shall file with the commissioner an accurate and complete financial statement consisting of a balance sheet and income and expense statement, showing the current condition of the applicant and sworn to by the officer of the applicant having the responsibility for preparing the statement.

(b) If the applicant is already transacting a grants and annuities business in another state, an accurate and complete financial statement showing the condition of the present grants and annuities business, sworn to by the officer having the responsibility for preparing the statement, shall be submitted.

(c) One hundred and twenty days after the end of their fiscal year, every certificate holder shall make and file with the commissioner an accurate and complete financial statement, consisting of a balance sheet and income and expense statement, showing the current condition of the certificate holder's grants and annuities operation on a form prescribed by the commissioner.

CHAPTER 226

An act to amend Sections 2154 and 7319 of, to amend the heading of Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 3600) of Division 2 of, and to add Section 2453.5 to, the Business and Professions Code, to amend Sections 597.5 and 1029.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to amend Sections 49452 and 69799 of the Education Code, to amend Section 1158 of the Evidence Code, to amend Section 1157 of the Government Code, to amend Section 7150.1 of the Health and Safety Code, to amend Section 11588 of the Insurance Code, to amend Section 139 of the Labor Code, to amend Section 656 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, and to amend Section 12522 of the Vehicle Code, relating to osteopathic medicine.

[Approved by Governor July 26, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 27, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2154 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2154. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the Osteopathic Medical Board of California shall issue an osteopathic physician's and surgeon's certificate on reciprocity to an applicant providing he or she meets the following requirements:

(a) The applicant holds an unlimited license to engage in the practice of osteopathic medicine in another state whose written licensing examination is recognized and approved by the board to be equivalent in content to that administered in California. For the purposes of this section, the board may recognize and approve as equivalent an examination prepared by the Federation of State Medical Boards if an applicant had been licensed in another state as a result of the successful completion, prior to December 31, 1993, of that examination. In lieu of a board recognized and approved state written license examination, the board may require the applicant to successfully complete a special examination in general medicine and osteopathic principles prepared by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners, or the Osteopathic Medical Board of California. The board may also utilize a special purpose examination prepared by the Federation of State Medical Boards.

(b) The board determines that no disciplinary action has been taken against the applicant by any medical licensing authority and that the applicant has not been the subject of adverse judgments or settlements resulting from the practice of medicine which the board determines constitutes evidence of a pattern of negligence or incompetence.

(c) The applicant successfully completes an oral, clinical, and practical examination, as determined by the board.

SEC. 2. Section 2453.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

2453.5. Individuals possessing physician's and surgeon's certificates issued by the Osteopathic Medical Board of California shall not hold themselves out to be board certified unless the board certification has been granted by the appropriate certifying board, as authorized by the American Osteopathic Association or the American Board of Medical Specialties, or is the result of a postgraduate training program approved by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education.

SEC. 3. The heading of Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 3600) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

CHAPTER 8. OSTEOPATHIC MEDICINE

SEC. 4. Section 7319 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7319. The following persons are exempt from this chapter:

(a) All persons authorized by the laws of this state to practice medicine, surgery, dentistry, pharmacy, osteopathic medicine, chiropractic, naturopathy, podiatry, or nursing and acting within the scope of practice for which they are licensed.

(b) Commissioned officers of the United States Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, members of the United States Public Health Service, and attendants attached to those services when engaged in the actual performance of their official duties.

(c) Persons employed to render barbering, cosmetology, or electrolysis services in the course of and incidental to the business of employers engaged in the theatrical, radio, television or motion picture production industry.

(d) Persons engaged in any practice within its scope when done outside of a licensed establishment, without compensation.

(e) Persons engaged in the administration of hair, skin, or nail products for the exclusive purpose of recommending, demonstrating, or selling those products.

SEC. 5. Section 597.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

597.5. In an action against a physician or surgeon, dentist, registered nurse, dispensing optician, optometrist, registered physical therapist, podiatrist, licensed psychologist, osteopathic physician and surgeon, chiropractor, clinical laboratory bioanalyst, clinical laboratory technologist, veterinarian, or a licensed hospital as the employer of any such person, based upon the person's alleged professional negligence, or for rendering professional services without consent, or for error or omission in the person's practice, if the answer pleads that the action is barred by the statute of limitations, and if any party so moves or the court upon its own motion requires, the issues raised thereby must be tried separately and before any other issues in the case are tried. If the issue raised by the statute of limitations is finally determined in favor of the plaintiff, the remaining issues shall then be tried.

SEC. 6. Section 1029.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1029.6. (a) Whenever a complaint for damages for personal injuries is filed against a physician and surgeon, dentist, registered nurse, dispensing optician, optometrist, pharmacist, registered physical therapist, podiatrist, licensed psychologist, osteopathic physician and surgeon, chiropractor, clinical laboratory bioanalyst, clinical laboratory technologist, or veterinarian, duly licensed as such under the laws of this state, or a licensed hospital as the employer of any such person, in an action for error, omission, or negligence in the performance of professional services, or performance of professional services without consent, any such defendant may, within six months after service of summons, move the court for an order, upon notice to plaintiff and all defendants having appeared in the action, and hearing, requiring the plaintiff to file an undertaking in a sum not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) as security for the costs of defense as provided in subdivision (d), which may be awarded against the plaintiff. The motion shall be supported by affidavit showing that the claim against the defendant is frivolous. Any defendant having appeared in the action and within 30 days after receipt of notice may join with the moving party requesting an order under this section as to the additional defendant. The failure of any defendant to join with the moving party shall preclude that defendant from subsequently requesting an order under this section.

At the hearing upon the motion, the court shall order the plaintiff to file the undertaking if the defendant shows to the satisfaction of the court that: (i) the plaintiff would not suffer undue economic hardship in filing the undertaking and (ii) there is no reasonable possibility that the plaintiff has a cause of action against each named defendant with respect to whom the plaintiff would otherwise be required to file the undertaking.

A determination by the court that an undertaking either shall or shall not be filed or shall be filed as to one or more defendants and not as to others, shall not be deemed a determination of any one or more issues in the action or of the merits thereof. If the court, upon any such motion, makes a determination that an undertaking be filed by the plaintiff as to any one or more defendants, the action shall be dismissed as to that defendant or defendants, unless the undertaking required by the court shall have been filed within the reasonable time as may be fixed by the court.

(b) This section does not apply to a complaint in an action commenced in a small claims court.

(c) Whenever more than one defendant is named, the undertaking shall be increased to the extent of not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) for each additional defendant in whose favor the undertaking is ordered, not to exceed the total of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(d) In any action requiring an undertaking as provided in this section, upon the dismissal of the action or the award of judgment to the defendant, the court shall require the plaintiff to pay the defendant's court costs. Any sureties shall be liable for those costs in an amount not to exceed the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) or the amount of the undertaking, whichever is lesser, for each defendant with respect to whom the sureties have executed an undertaking. If the plaintiff prevails in the action against any defendant with respect to whom an undertaking has been filed, the defendant shall pay the costs to plaintiff incurred in defending the motion for dismissal authorized by this section.

(e) Any defendant filing a motion under this section or joining with a moving party under this section is precluded from subsequently filing a motion for summary judgment.

(f) Any defendant filing a motion for summary judgment is precluded from subsequently filing a motion, or joining with a moving party, under this section.

SEC. 7. Section 49452 of the Education Code is amended to read:

49452. The governing board of any school district shall, subject to Section 49451, provide for the testing of the sight and hearing of each pupil enrolled in the schools of the district. The test shall be adequate in nature and shall be given only by duly qualified supervisors of health employed by the district; or by certificated employees of the district or of the county superintendent of schools who possess the qualifications prescribed by the Commission for Teacher Preparation and Licensing; or by contract with an agency duly authorized to perform those services by the county superintendent of schools of the county in which the district is located, under guidelines established by the State Board of Education; or accredited schools or colleges of optometry, osteopathic medicine, or medicine. The records of the tests shall serve as evidence of the need of the pupils for the educational facilities provided physically handicapped individuals. The equipment necessary to conduct the tests may be purchased or rented by governing boards of school districts. The state, any agency, or political subdivision thereof may sell or rent any such equipment owned by it to the governing board of any school district upon terms as may be mutually agreeable.

SEC. 8. Section 69799 of the Education Code is amended to read:

69799. The Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall do all of the following:

(a) Provide technical and staff support to the foundation in meeting all of its responsibilities.

(b) Provide financial management for the Minority Health Professions Education Fund.

(c) Enter into contractual agreements with students from underrepresented minority groups for the disbursement of scholarships or loans in return for the commitment of these students to practice their profession in an area in California designated as deficient in primary care services.

(d) Disseminate information regarding the areas in the state that are deficient in primary care services to potential applicants for the scholarships or loans.

(e) Monitor the practice locations of the recipients of the scholarships or loans.

(f) Recover funds, in accordance with the terms of the contractual agreements, from recipients of scholarships or loans who fail to begin or complete their obligated service. Funds so recovered shall be redeposited in the Minority Health Professions Education Fund.

(g) Contract with the institutions that train family practice residents, in order to increase the participation of students from underrepresented minority groups in entering the specialty of family practice. The director may seek the recommendations of the commission or foundation as to which programs best demonstrate the ability to meet this objective.

(h) Contract with training institutions which are involved in osteopathic postgraduate training in general or family practice medicine, in order to increase the participation of students from underrepresented minority groups participating in the practice of osteopathic medicine. The director may seek the recommendations of the commission or foundation as to which programs have demonstrated the ability to meet this objective.

(i) Enter into contractual agreements with graduated health professionals to repay some or all of the debts they incurred in health professional schools in return for practicing their professions in an area in California designated as deficient in primary care services.

(j) Contract with institutions that award baccalaureate of science of nursing degrees in order to increase the participation of students from underrepresented minority groups in the nursing profession. The director may seek the recommendations of the commission as to which programs have demonstrated the ability to meet this objective.

SEC. 9. Section 1158 of the Evidence Code is amended to read:

1158. Whenever, prior to the filing of any action or the appearance of a defendant in an action, an attorney at law or his or her representative presents a written authorization therefor signed by an adult patient, by the guardian or conservator of his or her person or estate, or, in the case of a minor, by a parent or guardian of the minor, or by the personal representative or an heir of a deceased patient, or a copy thereof, a physician and surgeon, dentist, registered nurse, dispensing optician, registered physical therapist, podiatrist, licensed psychologist, osteopathic physician and surgeon, chiropractor, clinical laboratory bioanalyst, clinical laboratory technologist, or pharmacist or pharmacy, duly licensed as such under the laws of the state, or a licensed hospital, shall make all of the patient's records under his, hers or its custody or control available for inspection and copying by the attorney at law or his, or her, representative, promptly upon the presentation of the written authorization.

No copying may be performed by any medical provider enumerated above, or by an agent thereof, when the requesting attorney has employed a professional photocopier or anyone identified in Section 22451 of the Business and Professions Code as his or her representative to obtain or review the records on his or her behalf. The presentation of the authorization by the agent on behalf of the attorney shall be sufficient proof that the agent is the attorney's representative.

Failure to make the records available, during business hours, within five days after the presentation of the written authorization, may subject the person or entity having custody or control of the records to liability for all reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred in any proceeding to enforce this section.

All reasonable costs incurred by any person or entity enumerated above in making patient records available pursuant to this section may be charged against the person whose written authorization required the availability of the records.

"Reasonable cost," as used in this section, shall include, but not be limited to, the following specific costs: ten cents ($0.10) per page for standard reproduction of documents of a size 8½ by 14 inches or less; twenty cents ($0.20) per page for copying of documents from microfilm; actual costs for the reproduction of oversize documents or the reproduction of documents requiring special processing which are made in response to an authorization; reasonable clerical costs incurred in locating and making the records available to be billed at the maximum rate of sixteen dollars ($16) per hour per person, computed on the basis of four dollars ($4) per quarter hour or fraction thereof; actual postage charges; and actual costs, if any, charged to the witness by a third person for the retrieval and return of records held by that third person.

Where the records are delivered to the attorney or the attorney's representative for inspection or photocopying at the record custodian's place of business, the only fee for complying with the authorization shall not exceed fifteen dollars ($15), plus actual costs, if any, charged to the record custodian by a third person for retrieval and return of records held offsite by the third person.

SEC. 10. Section 1157 of the Government Code is amended to read:

1157. Officers and employees of a public agency, other than those under the uniform payroll system provided for in Article 5 (commencing with Section 12470) of Chapter 5 of Part 2 of Division 3 of Title 2, may authorize the governing body of the public agency to make deductions from their salaries or wages for the payment of premiums on life, accident, health, disability, legal expense, or automobile liability insurance, or on any two or more, under a system of insurance approved by or adopted and carried into effect by the governing body, or for the payment of premiums on National Service Life Insurance or United States Government Converted Insurance. Officers and employees of the public agency may authorize the governing body of the public agency to make deductions from their salaries or wages for the payment of dues or subscription charges of nonprofit membership corporations for defraying the cost of medical service (including services rendered by doctors of medicine, doctors of osteopathic medicine, or doctors of chiropractic), or hospital care, or legal services, or, any of them, under system of medical service, or hospital care, or legal services, or, any of them, approved by or adopted and carried into effect by the governing body.

SEC. 11. Section 7150.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

7150.1. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Anatomical gift" means a donation of all or part of a human body or a pacemaker to take effect upon or after death.

(b) "Decedent" means a deceased individual and includes a stillborn infant or fetus.

(c) "Document of gift" means a card, a statement attached to or imprinted on a motor vehicle operator's or chauffeur's license, a will, or other writing used to make an anatomical gift.

(d) "Donor" means an individual who makes an anatomical gift of all or part of the individual's body or a pacemaker.

(e) "Enucleator" means an individual who removes or processes eyes or parts of eyes.

(f) "Hospital" means a facility licensed, accredited, or approved as a hospital under the law of any state or a facility operated as a hospital by the United States government, a state, or a subdivision of a state.

(g) "Part" means an organ, tissue, eye, bone, artery, blood, fluid, or other portion of a human body or a pacemaker.

(h) "Person" means an individual, corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, joint venture, association, government, governmental subdivision or agency, or any other legal or commercial entity.

(i) "Physician" or "surgeon" means an individual licensed or otherwise authorized to practice medicine and surgery or osteopathic medicine and surgery under the laws of any state.

(j) "Procurement organization" means a person licensed, accredited, or approved under the laws of any state or by the State Department of Health Services for procurement, distribution, or storage of human bodies or parts.

(k) "State" means a state, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

(l) "Technician" means an individual who has completed training in removal of parts for transplant, therapeutic, or scientific purposes, which the donee determines to be adequate for the purpose.

SEC. 12. Section 11588 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11588. No insurer authorized to do business in this state and to provide professional liability insurance to persons lawfully engaged in the practice of medicine or osteopathic medicine, health plans, and to partnerships or corporations lawfully engaged in the operation of hospitals, sanitariums, clinics, or other health care facilities, shall refuse to issue or renew insurance at rates which are not excessive or unfairly discriminatory as defined in Section 1852 to those persons, partnerships or corporations, solely on the grounds that those persons, partnerships or corporations have entered, or intend to enter, into valid written agreements with patients or prospective patients for the arbitration of cases or controversies arising out of the professional or business relationships between those persons, partnerships or corporations and said patients.

SEC. 13. Section 139 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

139. (a) The Industrial Medical Council shall consist of nine doctors of medicine, at least one of whom shall be a psychiatrist and at least one of whom shall specialize in occupational medicine, two doctors of osteopathic medicine, two doctors of chiropractic, and one doctor of psychology, all of whom shall be licensed to practice in this state. The administrative director shall be an ex officio, nonvoting member of the council, and the medical director appointed pursuant to Section 122, shall serve as executive secretary of the council.

(b) The Governor shall appoint four doctors of medicine, two doctors of osteopathic medicine, and one doctor of chiropractic to the council. The Senate Committee on Rules shall appoint two doctors of medicine, one of whom shall be a psychiatrist, and the doctor of chiropractic. The Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint two doctors of medicine, one of whom shall be an occupational medicine specialist, and the doctor of psychology. The Speaker of the Assembly and the Senate Committee on Rules, alternately, shall appoint the remaining doctor of medicine. The Speaker of the Assembly shall make the initial appointment of this member.

The term of office of members of the council shall be four years, and a member shall hold office until the appointment of a successor. However, the initial terms of three of the doctors of medicine appointed by the Governor shall expire, respectively, on December 31, 1991, December 31, 1992, and December 31, 1993, and the initial terms of the doctors of medicine appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly shall expire, respectively, on December 31, 1991, December 31, 1992, and December 31, 1993. The initial term of one doctor of osteopathic medicine and the doctor of psychology shall both expire on December 31, 1991. Any vacancy shall be filled by the original appointing authority for the unexpired term.

(c) The nine doctors of medicine and the doctors of osteopathic medicine of the council shall represent medical specialities concerned with the treatment of industrial injury and disease. The doctors of medicine shall be appointed after consultation with the statewide and local associations of the medical profession. The doctors of osteopathic medicine and psychology shall be appointed after consultation with the statewide associations of the osteopathic medical profession and psychologists. The doctors of chiropractic shall be appointed after consultation with statewide and local associations of the chiropractic profession.

(d) Any physician of a type which must be represented pursuant to subdivision (a) may be considered for appointment to the council if the following qualifications are met:

(1) A physician and surgeon shall be board certified in his or her specialty or, if a doctor of chiropractic, shall be certified in a chiropractic specialty recognized and approved by the California Chiropractic Association, the International Chiropractors Association of California, or the American Chiropractic Association, or if a psychologist, shall be board certified in clinical psychology, or hold a doctoral degree in psychology from an accredited university or professional school and have not less than five years' postdoctoral experience in the diagnosis and treatment of emotional and mental disorders.

(2) The physician shall be experienced in treating and evaluating industrial injuries and shall maintain an active practice, of which at least 20 percent of the total practice time is devoted to direct patient treatment.

(e) Members of the council shall, within the scope of each member's professional training, do all of the following:

(1) Maintain liaisons with the medical, osteopathic, chiropractic, and psychological professions.

(2) Counsel and assist the administrative director and perform other duties as the administrative director may request.

(3) Assist in recruiting physicians for the medical bureau of the division.

(4) Assist in developing guidelines for the determination of disputed questions of clinical fact, including guidelines for the range of time normally required to perform an initial comprehensive medical-legal evaluation or any other evaluation, as well as the content of those procedures. The guidelines shall include the range of time normally required for direct patient contact between the physician and the patient in each such procedure.

(5) Suggest standards for improving care furnished to injured employees.

(6) Undertake continuing studies of developments in the field of rehabilitation, and continuously inform treating physicians of these developments.

(7) Recommend reasonable levels of fees for physicians performing services under Division 4 (commencing with Section 3200).

(8) In coordination with the administrative director, monitor and measure changes in the cost and frequency of the most common medical services.

(f) The council shall appoint an advisory committee on psychiatric injuries with both psychologists and psychiatrists as members and shall consider the advisory committee's recommendations concerning psychiatric injuries. The council may appoint advisory committees for other specialties as may be necessary to the performance of its duties.

(g) No action of the council shall be taken unless concurred in by not less than eight members present and voting at a meeting.

(h) Members of the council shall receive actual, necessary traveling expenses and a per diem allowance of one hundred dollars ($100) for each day spent in meetings of the council.

SEC. 14. Section 656 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

656. "Employment" does not include professional services performed by a consultant working as an independent contractor.

For the purpose of this section, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that services provided by an individual engaged in work requiring specialized knowledge and skills attained through completion of recognized courses of instruction or experience are rendered as an independent contractor. These services shall be limited to those provided by attorneys, physicians, dentists, engineers, architects, accountants, and the various types of physical, chemical, natural, and biological scientists. Professional services shall not include services generally provided by persons who do not have a degree from a four-year institution of higher learning relating to the specialized knowledge and skills of the professional service being provided.

For the purposes of this section, the rebuttable presumption shall not apply to an individual who enters into a contract agreement with the recipient of the professional services which establishes an employer-employee relationship. However, the existence of a contract between a nonprofit, licensed, primary care clinic, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 1204 of the Health and Safety Code, and a health care practitioner who is licensed as a physician and surgeon, osteopathic physician and surgeon, podiatrist, optometrist, or psychologist shall not constitute an employer-employee relationship if the contract stipulates that the professional services rendered to the clinic are by an independent contractor, not an employee. Independent contractors who conform to the provisions of this section or primary care clinics which contract with these individuals or organizations shall not be liable for any payments that may be required under an employer-employee relationship pursuant to this code.

SEC. 15. Section 12522 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

12522. (a) Every person who operates a schoolbus or youth bus in the transportation of school pupils shall, in addition to any other requirement for a schoolbus or youth bus driver's certificate, qualify by an examination on first aid practices deemed necessary for schoolbus operators or youth bus operators. Standards for examination shall be determined by the Emergency Medical Services Authority after consultation with the State Department of Education, the Department of Motor Vehicles, and the Department of the California Highway Patrol. The local school authority employing the applicant shall provide a course of instruction concerning necessary first aid practices.

(b) The Department of the California Highway Patrol shall conduct the first aid examination as part of the examination of applicants for a schoolbus or youth bus driver's certificate and shall certify to the Department of Motor Vehicles that the applicant has satisfactorily demonstrated his or her qualifications in first aid practices, knowledge of schoolbus or youth bus laws and regulations, and ability to operate a schoolbus or youth bus. The first aid certifications shall be valid for the term of the schoolbus or youth bus driver's certificate.

(c) The first aid examination may be waived if the applicant possesses either of the following minimum qualifications:

(1) A current first aid certificate issued by the American Red Cross or by an organization whose first aid training program is at least equivalent to the American Red Cross first aid training program, as determined by the Emergency Medical Services Authority. The Emergency Medical Services Authority may charge a fee, sufficient to cover its administrative costs of approval, to an organization that applies to have its first aid training program approved for purposes of this paragraph.

(2) A current license as a physician and surgeon, osteopathic physician and surgeon, or registered nurse, or a current certificate as a physician's assistant or emergency medical technician. The first aid certificate or license shall be maintained throughout the term of the schoolbus or youth bus driver's certificate and shall be presented upon demand of any traffic officer. The schoolbus or youth bus driver's certificate shall not be valid during any time that the driver fails to maintain and possess that license or certificate after the first aid examination has been waived.

CHAPTER 227

An act to amend Section 139 of, to add Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 75) to Division 1 of, and to repeal Section 55.5 of, the Labor Code, relating to workers' compensation.

[Approved by Governor July 27, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 28, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 55.5 of the Labor Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 75) is added to Division 1 of the Labor Code, to read:

CHAPTER 3. COMMISSION ON HEALTH AND SAFETY AND WORKERS' COMPENSATION

75. (a) There is in the department the Commission on Health and Safety and Workers' Compensation. The commission shall be composed of eight voting members. Four voting members shall represent organized labor, and four voting members shall represent employers. Not more than one employer member shall represent public agencies. Two of the employer and two of the labor members shall be appointed by the Governor. The Senate Committee on Rules and the Speaker of the Assembly shall each appoint one employer and one labor representative. The public employer representative shall be appointed by the Governor. No action of the commission shall be valid unless agreed to by a majority of the membership and by not less than two members representing organized labor and two members representing employers.

(b) The commission shall select one of the members representing organized labor to chair the commission during the 1994 calendar year, and thereafter the commission shall alternatively select an employer and organized labor representative to chair the commission for one-year terms.

(c) The initial terms of the members of the commission shall be four years, and they shall hold office until the appointment of a successor. However, the initial terms of one employer and one labor member appointed by the Governor shall expire on December 31, 1995; the initial terms of the members appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules shall expire December 31, 1996; the initial terms of the members appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly shall expire on December 31, 1997; and the initial term of one employer and one labor member appointed by the Governor shall expire on December 31, 1998. Any vacancy shall be filled by appointment to the unexpired term.

(d) The commission shall meet every other month and upon the call of the chair. Meetings shall be open to the public. Members of the commission shall receive one hundred dollars ($100) for each day of their actual attendance at meetings of the commission and other official business of the commission and shall also receive their actual and necessary traveling expenses incurred in the performance of their duty as a member. Payment of per diem and traveling expenses may be made from the Workplace Health and Safety Revolving Fund, when appropriated by the Legislature.

76. The commission may employ officers, assistants, experts, and other employees it deems necessary. All personnel of the commission shall be under the supervision of the chair or an executive officer to whom he or she delegates this responsibility. All personnel shall be appointed pursuant to the State Civil Service Act (Part 2 (commencing with Section 18500) of Division 5 of Title 2 of the Government Code), except for the one exemption allowed by subdivision (e) of Section 4 of Article VII of the California Constitution.

77. (a) The commission shall conduct a continuing examination of the workers' compensation system, as defined in Section 4 of Article XIV of the California Constitution, and of the state's activities to prevent industrial injuries and occupational diseases. The commission may conduct or contract for studies it deems necessary to carry out its responsibilities. In carrying out its duties, the commission shall examine other states' workers' compensation programs and activities to prevent industrial injuries and occupational diseases. All state departments and agencies, and any rating organization licensed by the Insurance Commissioner pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 11750) of Chapter 3 of Part 3 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, shall cooperate with the commission and upon reasonable request provide information and data in their possession that the commission deems necessary for the purpose of carrying out its responsibilities. The commission shall issue an annual report on the state of the workers' compensation system, including recommendations for administrative or legislative modifications which would improve the operation of the system. The report shall be made available to the Governor, the Legislature, and the public on request.

(b) The commission succeeds to, and is vested with, all of the powers, duties, purposes, responsibilities, and jurisdiction of the Health and Safety Commission which is hereby abolished, including the administration of grants to assist in establishing effective occupational injury and illness prevention programs.

78. (a) The commission shall review and approve applications from employers and employee organizations, as well as applications submitted jointly by an employer organization and an employee organization, for grants to assist in establishing effective occupational injury and illness prevention programs. The commission shall establish policies for the evaluation of these applications and shall give priority to applications proposing to target high-risk industries and occupations, including those with high injury or illness rates, and those in which employees are exposed to one or more hazardous substances or conditions or where there is a demonstrated need for research to determine effective strategies for the prevention of occupational illnesses or injuries.

(b) Civil and administrative penalties assessed pursuant to Sections 129.5 and 4628 shall be deposited in the Workplace Health and Safety Revolving Fund, which is hereby created in the State Treasury. Proceeds of the fund, when appropriated by the Legislature, shall be expended by the department, upon approval by the commission, for funding the grants under subdivision (a), and by the commission for payment of the commission's expenses incurred under this chapter.

SEC. 3. Section 139 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

139. (a) The Industrial Medical Council shall consist of nine doctors of medicine, at least one of whom shall be a psychiatrist and at least one of whom shall specialize in occupational medicine, two doctors of osteopathy, two doctors of chiropractic, one physical therapist, and one doctor of psychology, all of whom shall be licensed to practice in this state, and one medical economist. The administrative director shall be an ex officio, nonvoting member of the council, and the medical director appointed pursuant to Section 122, shall serve as executive secretary of the council.

(b) The Governor shall appoint four doctors of medicine, two doctors of osteopathy, one doctor of chiropractic to the council, and one medical economist. The Senate Committee on Rules shall appoint three doctors of medicine, one of whom shall be a psychiatrist, and the doctor of chiropractic. The Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint two doctors of medicine, one of whom shall be an occupational medicine specialist, one physical therapist, and the doctor of psychology.

The term of office of members of the council shall be four years, and a member shall hold office until the appointment of a successor. However, the initial terms of three of the doctors of medicine appointed by the Governor shall expire, respectively, on December 31, 1991, December 31, 1992, and December 31, 1993, and the initial terms of the doctors of medicine appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly shall expire, respectively, on December 31, 1991, December 31, 1992, and December 31, 1993. The initial term of one doctor of osteopathy and the doctor of psychology shall both expire on December 31, 1991. Any vacancy shall be filled by the original appointing authority for the unexpired term.

(c) The nine doctors of medicine and the doctors of osteopathy of the council shall represent medical specialties concerned with the treatment of industrial injury and disease. The doctors of medicine shall be appointed after consultation with the statewide and local associations of the medical profession. The doctors of osteopathy and psychology shall be appointed after consultation with the statewide associations of the osteopathic medical profession and psychologists. The doctors of chiropractic shall be appointed after consultation with statewide and local associations of the chiropractic profession.

(d) Any physician of a type which must be represented pursuant to subdivision (a) may be considered for appointment to the council if the following qualifications are met:

(1) A physician and surgeon shall be board certified in his or her specialty or, if a doctor of chiropractic, shall be certified in a chiropractic specialty recognized and approved by the California Chiropractic Association, the International Chiropractors Association of California, or the American Chiropractic Association, or if a psychologist, shall be board certified in clinical psychology, or hold a doctoral degree in psychology from an accredited university or professional school and have not less than five years' postdoctoral experience in the diagnosis and treatment of emotional and mental disorders.

(2) The physician shall be experienced in treating and evaluating industrial injuries and shall maintain an active practice, of which at least one-third of the total practice time is devoted to direct patient treatment.

(e) Members of the council shall, within the scope of each member's professional training, do all of the following:

(1) Maintain liaisons with the medical, osteopathic, chiropractic, and psychological professions.

(2) Counsel and assist the administrative director and perform other duties as the administrative director may request.

(3) Assist in recruiting physicians for the medical bureau of the division.

(4) Assist in developing guidelines for the determination of disputed questions of clinical fact, including guidelines for the range of time normally required to perform a comprehensive medical-legal evaluation, as well as the content of those procedures. The guidelines shall include the range of time normally required for direct patient contact between the physician and the patient in each such procedure.

(5) Suggest standards for improving care furnished to injured employees.

(6) Undertake continuing studies of developments in the field of rehabilitation, and continuously inform treating physicians of these developments.

(7) Recommend reasonable levels of fees for physicians performing services under Division 4 (commencing with Section 3200).

(8) In coordination with the administrative director, monitor and measure changes in the cost and frequency of the most common medical services, and adopt guidelines for the treatment of common industrial injuries on or before July 1, 1994. The guidelines shall reflect practices as generally accepted by the health care community, and shall apply the current standards of care, including, but not limited to, appropriate and inappropriate diagnostic techniques, treatment modalities, adjustive modalities, length of treatment, and appropriate specialty referrals. On or before July 1, 1994, the administrative director shall adopt model utilization protocols in order to provide utilization review standards. All insurers shall comply with this protocol by July 1, 1995.

(9) In consultation with the administrative director, promulgate a form which may be used by treating physicians to report on medical issues necessary to determine an employee's compensation.

(f) The council shall appoint an advisory committee on psychiatric injuries with both psychologists and psychiatrists as members and shall consider the advisory committee's recommendations concerning psychiatric injuries. The council may appoint advisory committees for other specialties as may be necessary to the performance of its duties.

(g) No action of the council shall be taken unless concurred in by not less than eight members present and voting at a meeting.

(h) Members of the council shall receive actual, necessary traveling expenses and a per diem allowance of one hundred dollars ($100) for each day spent in meetings of the council.

CHAPTER 228

An act to amend Sections 11750.1, 11750.3, and 11751.1 of, to add Section 11752.8 to, and to repeal and add Article 2 (commencing with Section 11730) of Chapter 3 of Part 3 of Division 2 of, the Insurance Code, relating to workers' compensation.

[Approved by Governor July 27, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 28, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 2 (commencing with Section 11730) of Chapter 3 of Part 3 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Article 2 (commencing with Section 11730) is added to Chapter 3 of Part 3 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, to read:

Article 2. State Rate Supervision

11730. The following definitions govern the construction and meaning of the terms used in this article:

(a) "Advisory organization" means an entity licensed by the commissioner pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 11750).

(b) "Classification system" or "classification" means a plan, system, or arrangement for recognizing differences in exposure to hazards among industries, occupations, or operations of insurance policyholders.

(c) "Expenses" means that portion of any rate attributable to acquisition, field supervision, collection expenses, general expenses, taxes, licenses, and fees.

(d) "Experience rating" means a rating procedure utilizing past insurance experience of the individual policyholder to forecast future losses by measuring the policyholder's loss experience against the loss experience of policyholders in the same classification to produce a prospective premium credit, debit, or unity modification.

(e) "Loss trending" means any procedure for projecting developed losses to the average date of loss for the period during which the policies are to be effective.

(f) "Market" means the interaction between buyers and sellers of workers' compensation insurance within this state pursuant to the provisions of this article.

(g) "Pure premium rate" means that portion of the rate which represents the loss cost per unit of exposure, including loss adjustment expense.

(h) "Rate" means the cost of insurance per exposure base unit, prior to any application of individual risk variations based on loss or expenses considerations and does not include minimum premiums.

(i) "Statistical plan" means the plan, system, or arrangement used in collecting data.

(j) "Supplementary rate information" means any manual or plan of rates, classification system, rating schedule, minimum premium, policy fee, rating rule, rating plan, and any other similar information needed to determine the applicable premium for an insured.

(k) "Supporting information" means the experience and judgment of the filer and the experience or data of other insurers or organizations relied on by the filer, the interpretation of any statistical data relied on by the filer, descriptions of methods used in making the rates, and any other similar information required to be filed by the commissioner.

11731. This article applies to workers' compensation insurance and employers' liability insurance written in connection therewith.

11732. Rates shall not, if continued in use, tend to impair or threaten the solvency of an insurer or tend to create a monopoly in the market. For the purpose of this section, the rates of any individual insurer are presumed to create a monopoly in the market if the insurer has a market share, based on percentage of statewide workers' compensation premium, equivalent to 20 percent or more of the premium written by all insurers other than the State Compensation Insurance Fund.

11733. In determining whether rates comply with Section 11732, the following criteria shall apply:

(a) Due consideration may be given to past and prospective loss and expenses experience within this state, to catastrophe hazards and contingencies, to events or trends within this state, to loadings for leveling premium rates over time or for dividends or savings to be allowed or returned by insurers to their policyholders, members or subscribers, and to all other relevant factors, including judgment. For purposes of determining whether rates would tend to impair or threaten the solvency of an insurer, the commissioner shall consider the insurer's experience in other states.

(b) The expense provisions included in the rates to be used by an insurer shall reflect the operating methods of the insurer and, so far as is credible, its own actual and anticipated expense experience.

(c) The rates may contain provision for contingencies and an allowance permitting a reasonable profit. In determining the reasonableness of profit, consideration should be given to all investment income attributable to premiums and the reserves associated with those premiums.

11734. (a) Every workers' compensation insurer shall adhere to a uniform experience rating plan filed with the commissioner by an advisory organization designated by the commissioner and subject to his or her disapproval.

(b) The commissioner shall designate an advisory organization to assist him or her in gathering, compiling, and reporting relevant statistical information, and to develop a classification system. An insurer may develop its own classification system upon which a rate may be made or adopt the classification system developed by the designated advisory organization; provided, however, that any classification system developed by an insurer must be filed with the commissioner 30 days prior to its use. The commissioner shall disapprove a classification system filed by an insurer pursuant to this section if the insurer fails to demonstrate that the data thereby produced can be reported consistent with the uniform statistical plan or the classification system developed by the advisory organization. Every workers' compensation insurer shall record and report its workers' compensation experience to the designated advisory organization as set forth in the uniform statistical plan approved by the commissioner.

(c) The designated advisory organization shall develop and file manual rules, subject to the approval of the commissioner, reasonably related to the recording and reporting of data pursuant to the uniform statistical plan, uniform experience rating plan, and such classification systems as may be in effect. Every workers' compensation insurer shall adhere to the approved manual rules and experience rating plan in writing and reporting its business. No insurer shall agree with any other insurer or with an advisory organization to adhere to manual rules which are not reasonably related to the recording and reporting of data pursuant to the uniform statistical plan or classification system developed by the advisory organization.

11735. (a) Every insurer shall file with the commissioner all rates, rating plans, and supplementary rate information which are to be used in this state. The rates and supplementary information shall be filed not later than 30 days prior to the effective date. If the commissioner finds, after a hearing, that an insurer's rates require closer supervision because of the insurer's financial condition, as determined pursuant to Section 11733, the insurer shall file with the commissioner at least 30 days before the effective date, all of those rates and the supplementary rate information and supporting information as prescribed by the commissioner. Upon application by the filer, the commissioner may authorize an earlier effective date.

(b) Rates filed pursuant to this section shall be filed in the form and manner prescribed by the commissioner. All rates, supplementary information and any supporting information for rates filed under this article shall, as soon as filed, be open to public inspection at any reasonable time. Copies may be obtained by any person on request and upon payment of a reasonable charge.

(c) Upon the written application of the insurer and insured, stating its reasons therefor, filed with the commissioner, a rate in excess of that provided by a filing otherwise applicable may be used on any specific risk.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 679.70, no advisory organization may issue nor may any insurer use any classification system or rate, as applied or used, that violates Section 679.71 or 679.72 or that violates the Unruh Civil Rights Act which shall also include any arbitrary economic discrimination by an insurer as a prohibited basis of discrimination.

11736. The experience rating plan shall contain reasonable eligibility standards, provide adequate incentives for loss prevention, and shall provide for sufficient premium differentials so as to encourage safety.

11737. (a) The commissioner may disapprove a rate if the insurer fails to comply with the filing requirements under Section 11736.

(b) If the commissioner believes that rates may violate any of the requirements of this article, he or she shall call a hearing prior to any disapproval. The commissioner shall disapprove a rate if he or she finds that the rate would, if continued in use, tend to impair or threaten the solvency of an insurer or tend to create a monopoly in the market pursuant to Section 11732.

(c) Every insurer or advisory organization shall provide within this state reasonable means whereby any person aggrieved by the application of its filings may be heard on written request to review the manner in which the rating system has been applied in connection with the insurance afforded or offered. If the insurer or advisory organization fails to grant or reject the request within 30 days, the applicant may proceed in the same manner as if the application had been rejected. Any party affected by the action of the insurer or advisory organization on the request may, within 30 days after written notice of the action, appeal to the commissioner who, after a hearing held upon not less than 10 days' written notice to the appellant and to the insurer or advisory organization, may affirm, modify, or reverse such action.

(d) If the commissioner disapproves a rate, the commissioner shall issue an order specifying in what respects it fails to meet the requirements of this article and stating when within a reasonable period thereafter such rate shall be discontinued for any policy issued or renewed after a date specified in the order. The order shall be issued within 30 days after the close of the hearing or within such reasonable time extension as the commissioner may fix. The order may include a provision for premium adjustment for the period after the effective date of the order for policies in effect on that date.

(e) Whenever an insurer has no legally effective rates as a result of the commissioner's disapproval of rates or other act, the commissioner shall on request of the insurer specify interim rates for the insurer that are adequate to protect the interests of all parties and may order that a specified portion of the premiums be placed in an escrow account approved by him or her. When new rates become legally effective, the commissioner shall order the escrowed funds or any overcharge in the interim rates to be distributed appropriately, except that refunds of less than ten dollars ($10) per policyholder shall not be required.

11738. A classification shall take no account of any physical impairment of employees or the extent to which employees may have persons dependent upon them for support.

11739. (a) An insurer shall not use any plan for the payment of dividends to policyholders by reason of a participating provision in a workers' compensation insurance policy which is unfairly discriminatory.

(b) Every insurer issuing workers' compensation insurance policies under the laws of this state shall file annually with the rating organization designated by the commissioner information relating to dividend payments made to its policyholders. Information filed shall be in sufficient detail to permit the rating organization to prepare for the commissioner's review and approval, a report showing in the aggregate for all companies premiums earned, losses incurred, and dividends paid the preceding calendar year under policies containing a participating provision, separately by premium size and loss ratio categories, as may reasonably be prescribed by the commissioner.

(c) Information submitted by individual companies pursuant to this section shall be confidential and not subject to public disclosure under any law of this state.

SEC. 3. Section 11750.1 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11750.1. As used in this article, unless a different meaning is manifest, the term:

(a) "Insurer" means every insurer authorized to transact workers' compensation insurance and employer's liability insurance incidental thereto and written in connection therewith in this state, including the State Compensation Insurance Fund;

(b) "Rating organization" means any organization which has as its primary object or purpose the collecting of rating information, the making of pure premiums and those rating plans authorized by Article 2 (commencing with Section 11730) for workers' compensation insurance and employer's liability insurance incidental thereto and written in connection therewith and presenting them to the commissioner for issuance or approval;

(c) "Insurance" means workers' compensation insurance and employer's liability insurance incidental thereto and written in connection therewith;

(d) "Willful" or "willfully" in relation to an act or omission which constitutes a violation of this article means with actual knowledge or belief that such act or omission constitutes such violation and with specific intent to commit such violation.

(e) "Advisory organization" means every person, group or organization, other than an insurer, whether located within or without this state, which prepares policy forms or underwriting rules incidental to or in connection with workers' compensation insurance and employer's liability insurance incidental thereto and written in connection therewith or which collects and furnishes to admitted insurers or rating organizations loss statistics or other statistical information and data relating to workers' compensation insurance and employer's liability insurance incidental thereto and written in connection therewith and acts in an advisory capacity to such insurers or rating organizations as distinguished from a ratemaking capacity. No duly authorized attorney at law acting in the usual course of his profession shall be deemed to be an advisory organization.

(f) "Employer's liability insurance incidental thereto and written in connection therewith" means insurance of any liability of employers for injuries to, or death of, employees arising out of, and in the course of, employment when this insurance is incidental to, and written in connection with, the workers' compensation insurance issued to the same employer and covering the same employer interests.

SEC. 4. Section 11750.3 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11750.3. A rating organization may be organized pursuant to this article and maintained in this state for the following purposes:

(a) To provide reliable statistics and rating information in respect to workers' compensation insurance and employer's liability insurance incidental thereto and written in connection therewith.

(b) To collect and tabulate information and statistics for the purpose of developing pure premium rates to be submitted to the commissioner for issuance or approval.

(c) To formulate rules and regulations in connection with pure premium rates and the administration of classifications and rating systems.

(d) To inspect risks for classification or rate purposes and to furnish to the insurer and upon request of the employer and after notice to the insurer, to furnish to the employer full information concerning the rates applicable to the employer's insurance.

(e) To examine policies, daily reports, endorsements or other evidences of insurance for the purpose of ascertaining whether they comply with the provisions of law and to make reasonable rules governing their submission.

(f) Within one year after expiration of any workers' compensation insurance policy, to initiate test audits of insured employer's payrolls and insurer's audits of such payrolls to check the accuracy and reliability thereof, and to examine all records relative thereto and premises of insured employers.

(g) To exchange information and experience data with rating organizations, advisory organizations, and insurers in this and other states, in respect to ratemaking.

(h) To become a member or subscriber of any lawfully authorized ratemaking or advisory organization whenever membership in such organization is necessary or helpful to the rating organization.

(i) To perform all acts necessary, incidental or convenient to carry out the foregoing purposes or the provisions of this chapter relating to rating organizations.

SEC. 5. Section 11751.1 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11751.1. To obtain and retain a license, a rating organization shall provide satisfactory evidence to the commissioner that it shall do all of the following:

(a) Permit any insurer to become a member at a reasonable cost and without discrimination, or to withdraw therefrom.

(b) Neither have nor adopt any rule or exact any agreement, the effect of which would be to require any member as a condition of membership to adhere to any rates.

(c) Neither adopt any rule nor exact any agreement, the effect of which would be to prohibit or regulate the payment of dividends, savings, or unabsorbed premium deposits allowed or returned by insurers to their policyholders or members.

(d) Neither practice nor sanction any plan or act of boycott, coercion, or intimidation.

(e) Neither enter into nor sanction any contract or act by which any person is restrained from lawfully engaging in the insurance business.

(f) Notify the commissioner promptly of every change in its constitution or articles of incorporation, agreement of association, or in its bylaws, rules and regulations governing the conduct of its business; its list of members; and the name and address of the resident of this state designated by it upon whom notices or orders of the commissioner or process affecting the organization may be served.

(g) Agree that the commissioner or his or her representative may attend all meetings of the organization or any of its committees.

(h) Agree to permit four members of the public, two representing organized labor and two representing insured employers, to serve on the managing or governing committee of the organization as specified in Section 11751.35.

(i) Maintain reasonable records of the experience of its members and of the data, statistics or information collected or used in connection with the pure premium rates, classifications, manual rules, and policy and endorsement forms used by its members so that these records will be available at all reasonable times to enable the commissioner to determine whether the rating organization and its members comply with the provisions of this chapter applicable to them. These records shall be maintained in an office within this state. The commissioner may prescribe a uniform system for the keeping of the records which shall be reasonably adapted to the rating organization and its members' method of operation and which shall be applicable to all rating organizations licensed under this article and their members.

SEC. 6. Section 11752.8 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

11752.8. All policies of insurance issued or renewed for the first time between January 1, 1995, and January 1, 1996, shall include a notice to the policyholder, in easily understandable language, containing a summary of the changes in the rating laws enacted during the 1993–94 Regular Session of the Legislature.

SEC. 7. Sections 1 to 5, inclusive of this act shall become operative January 1, 1995.

CHAPTER 229

An act to amend Sections 10217, 22830, 22835, 22836, 22840, 22840.5, 22843.5, 27333, and 27334 of, and to repeal Section 22844 of, the Elections Code, and to amend Sections 34902 and 36512 of the Government Code, relating to elections, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 29, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State July 29, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10217 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

10217. The Secretary of State shall conduct a drawing of the letters of the alphabet, the result of which shall be known as a randomized alphabet. The procedure shall be as follows:

(a) Each letter of the alphabet shall be written on a separate slip of paper each of which shall be folded and inserted into a capsule. Each capsule shall be opaque and of uniform weight, color, size, shape, and texture. The capsules shall be placed in a container which shall be shaken vigorously in order to mix them thoroughly. The container then shall be opened and the capsules removed at random one at a time. As each is removed, it shall be opened and the letter on the slip of paper read aloud and written down. The resulting random order of letters constitutes the randomized alphabet which is to be used in the same manner as the conventional alphabet in determining the order of all candidates in all elections. For example, if two candidates with the surnames Campbell and Carlson are running for the same office, their order on the ballot will depend on the order in which the letters M and R were drawn in the randomized alphabet drawing.

(b) There shall be four drawings, three in each even-numbered year and one in each odd-numbered year. Each drawing shall be held at 11 a.m. on the date specified in this subdivision. The results of each drawing shall be mailed immediately to each county clerk or other official responsible for conducting an election to which the drawing is applicable who shall use it in determining the order on the ballot of the names of the candidates for office.

The first such drawing shall take place on the 82nd day before the April general law city elections and shall apply to those elections and any other elections held at the same time.

The second shall take place on the 82nd day before the direct primary in June of an even-numbered year and shall apply to all candidates on the ballot in that election.

The third shall take place on the 82nd day before the November general election of an even-numbered year and shall apply to all candidates on the ballot in the November general election.

In the case of the June primary election and the November general election, the Secretary of State shall certify and transmit to each county clerk the order in which the names of federal and state candidates, with the exception of candidates for State Senate and Assembly, shall appear on the ballot. The clerk shall determine the order on the ballot of all other candidates using the appropriate randomized alphabet for that purpose.

The fourth drawing shall take place on the 82nd day before the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of the odd-numbered year and shall apply to all candidates on the ballot in the elections held on that date.

In the event there is to be an election of candidates to a special district, school district, charter city, or other local government body at the same time as one of the four major election dates specified above and the last possible day to file nomination papers for the local election would occur after the date of the drawing for the major election date, the procedure set forth in Section 10217.5 shall apply.

(c) Each randomized alphabet drawing shall be open to the public. At least 10 days prior to a drawing, the Secretary of State shall notify the news media and other interested parties of the date, time, and place of it. The president of each statewide association of local officials with responsibilities for conducting elections shall be invited by the Secretary of State to attend each drawing or send a representative. The state chairman of each qualified political party shall be invited to attend or send a representative in the case of drawings held to determine the order of candidates on the June primary election ballot, the November general election ballot, or a special election ballot as provided for in subdivision (d).

(d) In the case of any special election for State Assembly, State Senate, or Representative in Congress, on the first weekday after the close of filing of nomination papers for the office, the Secretary of State shall conduct a public drawing to produce a randomized alphabet in the same manner as provided for in subdivisions (a) and (c). The resulting randomized alphabet shall be used for determining the order on the ballot of the candidates in both the primary election for the special election and in the special election.

SEC. 2. Section 22830 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

22830. (a) Not earlier than the 127th nor later than the 113th day before any municipal election to fill offices, the city clerk shall publish a notice of the election in the city pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code. The notice shall be headed "Notice of Election," and shall contain a statement of:

(1) The time of the election.

(2) The offices to be filled, specifying full term or short term, as the case may be.

(b) With respect to a special election to fill a vacancy in office, unless the city has enacted an ordinance as referred to in subdivision (b) of Section 22844, and the ordinance does not allow for appointment to fill the vacancy and requires the vacancy to be filled in the special election, the notice shall also state that if no one or only one person is nominated for an elected office, appointment to the elective office may be made as prescribed by Section 22844.

(c) If there is no newspaper of general circulation published and circulated in the city, the notice shall be typewritten and copies shall be posted conspicuously within the time prescribed in at least three public places in the city.

SEC. 3. Section 22835 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

22835. In case of a municipal election on any measure, the city clerk shall publish a synopsis of the measure in the city pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code. If there is no newspaper of general circulation published and circulated in the city, the notice shall be typewritten and copies shall be posted conspicuously within the time prescribed in at least three public places in the city. The notice shall be headed "Measure To Be Voted On" in conspicuous type and shall be substantially in the following form:

MEASURE TO BE VOTED ON

Notice is hereby given that the following measure is to be voted on at the _____ (general or special) municipal election to be held in the City of _____, on Tuesday, the _____ day of _____, 19__.

(Synopsis of measure or measures)

Dated _____

City Clerk of the City of _____

The city clerk shall consolidate the notice of election and the notice of measure to be voted on into one notice if the measure was placed on the ballot before the notice of election is published pursuant to Section 22830.

SEC. 4. Section 22836 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

22836. Candidates may be nominated for any of the elective offices of the city in the manner following:

Not earlier than the 113th day nor later than the 88th day before a municipal election during normal office hours, as posted, the voters may nominate candidates for election by signing a nomination paper. Each candidate shall be proposed by not less than 20 nor more than 30 voters in a city of 1,000 registered voters or more, and not less than five nor more than 10 voters in a city of less than 1,000 registered voters, but only one candidate may be named in any one nomination paper. No voter may sign more than one nomination paper for the same office, and in the event the voter does so, that voter's signature shall count only on the first nomination paper filed which contains the voter's signature. Nomination papers subsequently filed and containing that voter's signature shall be considered as though that signature does not appear thereon. Each seat on the governing body is a separate office. Any person registered to vote at the election may circulate a nomination paper. Where there are full terms and short terms to be filled, the term shall be specified in the nomination paper.

SEC. 5. Section 22840 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

22840. All nomination papers shall be filed with the city clerk during regular business hours as posted, not later than the 88th day before the election. Until that time, but no later than then, a candidate may withdraw his or her nomination paper after it is filed with the city clerk as provided in this section.

SEC. 6. Section 22840.5 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

22840.5. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 22836 and 22840, if nomination papers for an incumbent officer of the city are not filed by on the 88th day before the election, during normal business hours, as posted, the voters shall have until the 83rd day before the election during normal business hours, as posted, to nominate candidates, other than the person who was the incumbent on the 88th day, for that incumbent's elective office.

(b) This section is not applicable where there is no incumbent eligible to be elected. If this section is applicable, notwithstanding Section 22840, a candidate may withdraw his or her nomination paper until the 83rd day before the election during normal business hours, as posted.

SEC. 7. Section 22843.5 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

22843.5. (a) If, by 5 p.m. on the 88th day prior to the day fixed for a regularly scheduled municipal election or the 83rd day if an incumbent fails to file pursuant to Section 22840.5, (i) no one or only one person has been nominated for any office which is elected on a citywide basis, or (ii) no one or only one person is nominated to be elected from or by a legislative district, or (iii) in the case of any office or offices to be elected at large, the number of persons who have been nominated for those offices does not exceed the number to be filled at that election; or, if, by the 88th day, during normal business hours, as posted, before a municipal election to fill any vacancy in office, no one or only one person has been nominated for any elective office to be filled at that election, and the election is subject to Section 36512 of the Government Code, the city clerk shall submit a certificate of these facts to the governing body of the city and inform the governing body of the city that it may, at a regular or special meeting held before the municipal election, adopt one of the following courses of action:

(1) Appoint to the office the person who has been nominated.

(2) Appoint to the office any eligible elector if no one has been nominated.

(3) Hold the election if either no one or only one person has been nominated. The city clerk shall publish a notice of the facts described in this section and the courses of action available under this subdivision. Publication shall be made pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code in any newspaper of general circulation as designated by the clerk.

After the fifth day following the date of posting or publication, the governing body of the city may make the appointment or direct an election to be held in the affected territory. The person appointed, if any, shall qualify and take office and serve exactly as if elected at a municipal election for the office.

Notwithstanding Section 23302, if, by the 75th day before the municipal election, no person has been appointed to office pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2), the election shall be held.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not apply if, at the regularly scheduled municipal election, more than one person has been nominated to another city office to be elected on a citywide basis or, a city measure has qualified and is to be submitted to the voters at that municipal election.

(c) Notwithstanding Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 7300) of Division 6 or any other provision of the law to the contrary, if the governing body of a city makes an appointment pursuant to subdivision (a), the clerk shall not accept for filing any statement of write-in candidacy which is submitted after the appointment is made.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent a city from enacting an ordinance pursuant to Section 36512.1 of the Government Code requiring that a special election be held, or from enacting an ordinance pursuant to Section 36512.2 of the Government Code providing that a person appointed to fill a vacancy on the city council shall hold office only until the date of the special election, or both. Any ordinance or ordinances may allow for appointment consistent with subdivision (a) without requiring or providing for a special election.

In the event that an appointment to office is made in a particular legislative district pursuant to subdivision (a), that appointment shall not affect the conduct of the municipal election in other legislative districts of the city.

SEC. 8. Section 22844 of the Elections Code is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 27333 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

27333. If the recall prevails and a majority of those voting on the question of filling the vacancy favor a special election for that purpose, the legislative body shall at its next regular meeting call an election to be held to fill the vacancy not less than 114 nor more than 129 days after the date of the order. If a regular municipal election is to occur not more than 144 nor less than 114 days from the date of canvassing the vote the legislative body may provide for filling the vacancy at that regular municipal election instead of at a special election. If a special election is not favored by a majority of the voters, the legislative body shall at once fill the vacancy by appointment. In either case the person elected or appointed shall hold office for the unexpired term of the former incumbent.

The recalled officer may not be a candidate to succeed himself or herself at a special election held to fill the vacancy created by his or her recall or any other vacancy created by another recalled officer on the same governing board, nor may he or she be appointed by the legislative body to fill the vacancy created by his or her recall.

SEC. 10. Section 27334 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

27334. If a majority of the legislative body is recalled at the same election, the members recalled shall retain their offices until their successors are elected and qualified. Immediately after the canvass of votes of a recall election at which a majority of the legislative body is recalled, and regardless of the results of the vote on the question set forth in Section 27311, the clerk shall call a special election to fill the vacancies arising as a result of the recall election, which special election shall be held not less than 114 nor more than 129 days after the canvass of votes of the election at which they were recalled. The duties of the governing body of the city with respect to the holding of the special election shall be performed by the clerk. The vote of the special election shall be canvassed by the clerk, who shall declare the result. If the clerk has also been recalled, then the board of supervisors shall perform the clerk's duties.

SEC. 11. Section 34902 of the Government Code is amended to read:

34902. (a) If a majority of the votes cast on the proposition is for it, the office of mayor shall thereafter be an elective office, except as provided in subdivision (b). At the next succeeding general municipal election held in the city one of the offices of city councilperson, to be filled at the election, shall be designated as the office of mayor, to be filled at the election. The person elected at the election as mayor shall hold office from the Tuesday succeeding his or her election, and until his or her successor is elected and qualifies.

In the case of a vacancy in the office of the mayor for any reason, the council shall fill the vacancy by appointment. If the council fails to fill it within 30 days, it shall call an election to fill the vacancy to be held on the next established election date to be held not less than 114 days thereafter. A person appointed or elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired term of the former incumbent.

(b) After an office of elective mayor has been established, the city council may subsequently submit to the electors the question of whether or not to eliminate the elective office of mayor, pursuant to the procedures enumerated in this article, and thereby reestablish the procedure of selection of the mayor by the city council. If a majority of the votes cast on the proposition are in favor of the elimination of the office of elective mayor, the office shall be eliminated on the expiration date of the incumbent's term, and on the date the procedure of selection of the mayor by the city council shall be reestablished.

SEC. 12. Section 36512 of the Government Code is amended to read:

36512. (a) If a vacancy occurs in an appointive office provided for in this chapter, the council shall fill the vacancy by appointment. A person appointed to fill a vacancy holds office for the unexpired term of the former incumbent.

(b) If a vacancy occurs in an elective office provided for in this chapter, the council shall, within 30 days from the commencement of the vacancy, either fill the vacancy by appointment or call a special election to fill the vacancy. The special election shall be held on the next regularly established election date not less than 114 days from the call of the special election. A person appointed or elected to fill a vacancy holds office for the unexpired term of the former incumbent.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b) and Section 34902, a city may enact an ordinance which:

(1) Requires that a special election be called immediately to fill every city council vacancy and the office of mayor designated pursuant to Section 34902. The ordinance shall provide that the special election shall be held on the next regularly established election date not less than 114 days from the call of the special election.

(2) Requires that a special election be held to fill a city council vacancy and the office of mayor designated pursuant to Section 34902 when petitions bearing a specified number of verified signatures are filed. The ordinance shall provide that the special election shall be held on the next regularly established election date not less than 114 days from the filing of the petition. A governing body which has enacted such an ordinance may also call a special election pursuant to subdivision (b) without waiting for the filing of a petition.

(3) Provides that a person appointed to fill a vacancy on the city council holds office only until the date of a special election which shall immediately be called to fill the remainder of the term. The special election may be held on the date of the next regularly established election or regularly scheduled municipal election to be held throughout the city not less than 114 days from the call of the special election.

(d) (1) Notwithstanding subdivision (b) and Section 34902, an appointment shall not be made to fill a vacancy on a city council if the appointment would result in a majority of the members serving on the council having been appointed. The vacancy shall be filled in the manner provided by this subdivision.

(2) The city council may call an election to fill the vacancy, to be held on the next regularly established election date not less than 114 days after the call.

(3) If the city council does not call an election pursuant to paragraph (2), the vacancy shall be filled at the next regularly established election date.

SEC. 13. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the election to fill vacancies created on a city council due to a recall election held in July of 1993, may be consolidated with the November 2, 1993, statewide special election.

SEC. 14. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 15. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide elections officials sufficient time to accomplish the translation of voting materials as required by the latest amendments to the Federal Voting Rights Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1971 et seq.), to ensure that the federal requirements are implemented in time for the next scheduled elections, and to decrease the costs of conducting a local election for city council, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 230

An act to amend Section 87406 of the Government Code, relating to the Political Reform Act of 1974.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 87406 of the Government Code is amended to read:

87406. (a) This section shall be known, and may be cited, as the Milton Marks Postgovernment Employment Restrictions Act of 1990.

(b) No Member of the Legislature, for a period of one year after leaving office, shall, for compensation, act as agent or attorney for, or otherwise represent, any other person by making any formal or informal appearance, or by making any oral or written communication, before the Legislature, any committee or subcommittee thereof, any present Member of the Legislature, or any officer or employee thereof, if the appearance or communication is made for the purpose of influencing legislative action.

(c) No elected state officer, other than a Member of the Legislature, for a period of one year after leaving office, shall, for compensation, act as agent or attorney for, or otherwise represent, any other person by making any formal or informal appearance, or by making any oral or written communication, before any state administrative agency, or any officer or employee thereof, if the appearance or communication is for the purpose of influencing administrative action, or influencing any action or proceeding involving the issuance, amendment, awarding, or revocation of a permit, license, grant, or contract, or the sale or purchase of goods or property. For purposes of this subdivision, an appearance before a "state administrative agency" does not include an appearance in a court of law, before an administrative law judge, or before the Worker's Compensation Appeals Board.

(d) (1) No designated employee of a state administrative agency, any officer, employee, or consultant of a state administrative agency who holds a position which entails the making, or participation in the making, of decisions which may foreseeably have a material effect on any financial interest, and no member of a state administrative agency, for a period of one year after leaving office or employment, shall, for compensation, act as agent or attorney for, or otherwise represent, any other person, by making any formal or informal appearance, or by making any oral or written communication, before any state administrative agency, or officer or employee thereof, for which he or she worked or represented during the 12 months before leaving office or employment, if the appearance or communication is made for the purpose of influencing administrative or legislative action, or influencing any action or proceeding involving the issuance, amendment, awarding, or revocation of a permit, license, grant, or contract, or the sale or purchase of goods or property. For purposes of this paragraph, an appearance before a state administrative agency does not include an appearance in a court of law, before an administrative law judge, or before the Worker's Compensation Appeals Board. The prohibition of this paragraph shall only apply to designated employees employed by a state administrative agency on or after January 7, 1991.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), a state administrative agency of a designated employee of the Governor's office includes any state administrative agency subject to the direction and control of the Governor.

(e) The prohibitions contained in subdivisions (b), (c), and (d) shall not apply to any individual subject to this section who is or becomes an officer or employee of another state agency, board, or commission if the appearance or communication is for the purpose of influencing legislative or administrative action on behalf of the state agency, board, or commission.

(f) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1991, but only if Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 32 of the 1989–90 Regular Session is approved by the voters. With respect to Members of the Legislature whose current term of office on January 1, 1991, began in December 1988, this section shall not apply until January 1, 1993.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 3. The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of this act further the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974 within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 81012 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 231

An act making an appropriation for the payment of claims against the State of California, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

Senate Bill 76 appropriates funding to pay claims approved by the Board of Control.

I believe that one of the claims included is inappropriate and I am therefore reducing the total appropriated amount from $2,380,263.63 to $2,378,480.01.

I am reducing the General Fund appropriation from the Department of Health Services 1993 Budget by $1,783.62 to conform to my veto of claim number G260565. The Department of Health Services reports that the claimant could have avoided incurring these costs by verifying the types of health benefits available to her with the appropriate personnel rather than relying on the erroneous information provided by an unqualified fellow employee.

With this reduction, I approve Senate Bill 76.

PETE WILSON, Governor

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of two million three hundred eighty thousand two hundred sixty-three dollars and sixty-three cents ($2,380,263.63) is hereby appropriated to the Secretary of the State Board of Control for the payment of claims accepted by the State Board of Control in accordance with the following schedule:

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to pay claims against the state and end hardship to claimants as quickly as possible, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 232

An act to repeal and add Section 1212 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1212 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 1212 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

1212. (a) Any domestic incorporated insurer having aggregate capital and surplus as of the preceding December 31 of at least twenty-five million dollars ($25,000,000), after investing an amount equal to its required minimum paid-in capital in securities specified in Article 3 (commencing with Section 1170), may purchase insurance futures contracts, purchase call options on insurance futures contracts, and sell put options on insurance futures contracts in bona fide hedging transactions, subject to the limitations set forth in this section.

Domestic insurers may sell insurance futures contracts, sell call options on insurance futures contracts, and purchase put options on insurance futures contracts only for the purpose of a closing transaction. No other sales of insurance futures contracts, sales of call options on insurance futures contracts, or purchases of put options on insurance futures contracts are authorized under this section.

(b) For purposes of this section, "insurance futures contracts" mean contracts based on indices of loss performance of insurance contracts and traded in accordance with the rules and procedures of a board of trade regulated by the Commodity Futures Trading Commission, or any successor agency, and subject to the terms and conditions of the Commodity Exchange Act (7 U.S.C. Sec. 1 et seq.), as amended. For purposes of this section, "put and call options on insurance futures contracts" mean put or call options, regulated in accordance with the rules of the board of trade on which the options are traded, on insurance futures contracts.

(c) No domestic insurer may purchase insurance futures contracts, purchase call options on insurance futures contracts, or sell put options on insurance futures contracts unless the insurance futures contracts are required to be settled in cash within nine months after the end of the loss period underlying the insurance futures contracts, and the relevant type of insurance futures contracts have attained an average daily trading volume of at least 250 contracts and an open interest of 1,000 contracts as reported by the relevant board of trade for the one-month period prior to the insurer initiating the transaction.

(d) A transaction will be considered a bona fide hedging transaction only if, upon execution, (1) the insurance futures contract or option is specifically identified with a group of insurance policies issued or reasonably expected to be issued by the insurer in the ordinary course of business and (2) the insurer's relevant underwriting or insurance-related risk exposures bear a correlation to the risk exposures of the index underlying the insurance futures contracts or options thereon entered into as part of the hedging transaction. For purposes of this section, "correlation" means that the loss experience of the policies hedged is, at the date of purchase of the insurance futures contracts, expected to develop similarly to the loss experience of the policies underlying the insurance futures contract when exposed to similar occurrences and conditions. The insurer shall identify this hedging transaction and the policies and written premiums hedged on its books and records and any insurance futures contract or option position shall be terminated as soon as possible after this correlation does not exist.

(e) Notwithstanding other limitations of this section, an insurer may hold open insurance futures contracts and put and call options on insurance futures contracts which do not exceed the equivalent of 75 percent of the insurer's written premium for each line of business, as designated in the annual statement required by Section 923, being hedged pursuant to this section. For purposes of this subdivision, equivalence shall be based on the par dollar value of the insurance futures contracts and an insurer's written premium shall be measured based on the loss period reflected in the underlying futures contracts.

(f) A domestic insurer shall not enter into hedging transactions in insurance futures contracts or options on insurance futures contracts unless the transaction is authorized or approved by the insurer's board of directors or a committee designated by the board. This authorization or approval shall be entered on the records or minutes of the domestic insurer and, if made upon the authority of a committee of directors, shall be submitted to the full board of directors for ratification at their next meeting. The entry of approval shall show the fact of entering into the hedging transaction, the specific policies hedged, the size of the hedge as measured pursuant to subdivision (e), and the name of each director voting to approve the hedging transaction.

(g) The commissioner may, in his or her discretion, by written order require the disposal of any insurance futures contracts or options on insurance futures contracts made in violation of this section. Pending a disposal pursuant to an order by the commissioner, the insurance futures contracts or options on insurance futures contracts shall not be given any effect on any statement required by this code purporting to show the financial condition of the domestic insurer or in measuring the financial condition of the domestic insurer for the purpose of determining whether the domestic insurer is solvent or insolvent. The commissioner may also, for good cause shown, order the disposal of any insurance futures contract or option on insurance futures contracts.

(h) Insurance futures contracts and put and call options on insurance futures contracts shall not be deemed to be investments for purposes of any investment limitations or authorizations contained in this code.

(i) The commissioner may adopt rules and guidelines establishing standards and requirements relative to practices authorized in this section. The commissioner shall issue a bulletin by June 30, 1994, setting forth the accounting, reporting, and valuation practices and procedures for insurance futures contracts. However, a bulletin shall not be required if, prior to June 30, 1994, accounting practices and procedures are officially promulgated by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners. The bulletin issued pursuant to this subdivision shall not be superseded by any action of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners that conflicts with or that fails to address matters addressed by the bulletin. No insurer shall engage in hedging transactions with respect to insurance futures contracts or put and call options on insurance futures contracts until the earlier of the date a bulletin is issued or the date accounting practices and procedures are officially promulgated by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners and except pursuant to this section.

CHAPTER 233

An act to add Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 6350) to Division 3 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to utilities, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. In enacting this chapter, the Legislature finds and declares that changes in the public utility regulatory environment have inadvertently provided for the potential erosion of the franchise fee base upon which local government has become quite dependent for its financial stability. Further, the Legislature has determined that there exists the possibility that these same regulatory changes may not ensure equitable treatment between customers purchasing gas or electricity from a utility and customers purchasing gas or electricity from other sources. Therefore, the purpose of this act is to provide protection for the financial integrity of local government and to ensure that all customers purchasing gas or electricity who transport gas or electricity on transmission systems that are subject to a franchise agreement share equitably in the burden of compensating local government for the private use of public lands.

SEC. 2. Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 6350) is added to Division 3 of the Public Utilities Code, to read:

CHAPTER 2.5. MUNICIPAL PUBLIC LANDS USE SURCHARGE

Article 1. Intent

6350. There is hereby created a surcharge to be applied to natural gas and electricity transported over utility and nonutility transmission or distribution systems, or both, constructed under, along, across, or upon the public streets, ways, alleys, and places within a municipality, to replace, but not increase, franchise fees that would have been collected pursuant to this division if not for changes in the regulatory environment such as the "unbundling" of the gas industry.

Article 2. Definitions

6351. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Municipality" includes counties.

(b) "Energy transporter" means and includes every utility and nonutility owner or operator, or both, of a natural gas or electric transmission or distribution system, or both, subject to a franchise agreement executed pursuant to this division, provided that proprietary gas pipelines whose franchise fees are set forth in Article 2 (commencing with Section 6231) of Chapter 2 shall not be covered by this chapter.

(c) "Transportation customer" means every person, firm, or corporation, other than the State of California or a political subdivision thereof, transporting gas or electricity on an energy transporter's transmission or distribution system, or both, when the gas or electricity was purchased by the transportation customer from a third party. Transportation customer shall not include one gas utility transporting gas, for end use in its commission designated service area through another gas utility's service area, nor shall transportation customer include a utility transporting its own gas through its own gas transmission or distribution system, or both, for purposes of generating electricity or for use in its own operations.

(d) "Surcharge" means a municipal surcharge for the use of public lands by a transportation customer as defined in subdivision (c).

Article 3. Surcharge

6352. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a transportation customer who receives transportation service on a natural gas or electric transmission or distribution system, or both, subject to a franchise agreement executed pursuant to this division from an energy transporter shall be subject to a surcharge as defined in Section 6353. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, no county shall impose a surcharge pursuant to this chapter in an incorporated area.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the surcharge assessed for gas used to generate electricity by a nonutility facility shall be the same as the surcharge assessed for gas used to generate electricity by the electric utility for that quantity of gas described in Section 454.4, and the surcharge shall not apply to the electric output of a cogeneration facility which is sold to an electric utility.

(c) Nothing in this chapter permits a municipality to recover surcharges imposed pursuant to this chapter on the commodity cost of gas or electricity transported for transportation customers in addition to franchise fees calculated on the imputed value of the same quantities of gas or electricity. If a municipality has a franchise agreement with an energy transporter that requires the energy transporter to pay a franchise fee based upon an imputed value for the commodity cost of gas or electricity transported but not sold by the energy transporter, the energy transporter may apply the surcharge imposed by this chapter toward the amount of the franchise fee due under the franchise agreement.

(d) Nothing in this chapter shall in any way affect the rights of the parties to existing franchise agreements executed pursuant to this division that are in force on the effective date of this chapter.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the surcharge shall not apply to corporations transporting natural gas pursuant to a "gas transportation only" agreement in effect prior to January 1, 1986.

(f) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), an energy transporter of gas that is required to obtain a franchise agreement with a municipality, and that is subject to the jurisdiction of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, shall not be required to collect the surcharge imposed by this chapter, but shall be required to negotiate with the municipality under the provisions of this division, franchise fees that recover amounts equivalent to those amounts that would otherwise have been recovered pursuant to this chapter.

6353. For purpose of calculating the surcharge required in Section 6352, the energy transporter shall do the following:

(a) For each transportation customer, determine the volume of transported gas or electricity, in therms or kilowatt hours respectively, subject to the surcharge.

(b) Determine the weighted average cost of the energy transporter's gas or electricity. For gas, the energy transporter will use its tariffed core subscription weighted average cost of gas (WACOG) exclusive of any California sourced franchise fee factor. For an energy transporter that does not provide gas or electricity at a commission tariffed rate, the energy transporter will use the equivalent tariffed rate of the commission regulated energy transporter operating in the same service area.

(c) Determine a product for each transportation customer by multiplying the volume determined pursuant to subdivision (a) by the weighted average cost determined pursuant to subdivision (b).

(d) Determine the surcharge applicable to each transportation customer by multiplying the product determined pursuant to subdivision (c) by the sum of the franchise fee factor plus any franchise fee surcharge authorized for the energy transporter as approved by the commission in the energy transporter's most recent proceeding in which those factors and surcharges were set. Energy transporters not regulated by the commission shall multiply the product determined in subdivision (c) by the franchise fee rate contained in their individual franchise agreements in effect in each municipality.

(e) The surcharge assessed pursuant to this chapter applies only to the end use point.

Article 4. Rights, Restrictions, and Compensation

6354. (a) Surcharges calculated pursuant to Section 6353 shall be recovered from the transportation customer through the energy transporter's normal billing process.

(b) Surcharges collected from the transportation customer shall be remitted to the municipality granting a franchise pursuant to this division in the manner and at the time prescribed for payment of franchise fees in the energy transporter's franchise agreement. In recognition of costs to be incurred by energy transporters in administering the surcharge established by this chapter, the energy transporter may retain interest earned on cash balances resulting from the timing difference between the monthly collection of the surcharge and the remittance thereof, as required by individual franchise agreements.

(c) In the event that payment on a transportation customer account becomes more than 90 days delinquent, the energy transporter shall, within 30 days, notify the municipality of the delinquency and provide information on the name and address of the delinquent transportation customer and the surcharge amount owed. The energy transporter shall not be liable for these delinquent surcharges.

(d) The municipality, including its authorized officials, employees and agents shall use the delinquent transportation customer information only for the purpose of enforcing the surcharge and shall not disclose the information to any officials, employees, agents, or any third parties who are not responsible for and involved in the enforcement of the municipality's franchise agreements. Nothing herein precludes the municipality, through appropriate officials, employees or agents, from contacting the transportation customers in order to collect any surcharges due from the transportation customer.

(e) By March 31 of each year, every person, firm, or corporation that transports gas or electricity to any other person, firm, or corporation within a municipality, upon request of the municipality, shall provide the names and addresses of each of its transportation customers and such other information for the preceding calendar year as may be necessary for the municipality to enforce its taxes and fees.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any transportation customer information provided by an energy transporter to a municipality pursuant to this chapter or pursuant to a utility user tax ordinance is not a public record within the definitions contained in the Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code).

(g) In acknowledgment of the potential for systems startup costs to be incurred by the energy transporters in implementing this chapter, authorization is hereby granted for each energy transporter to retain 10 percent of the added fees collected pursuant to this chapter on transported gas or electricity for systems startup costs not to exceed seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000), provided that the portion of collections withheld by the energy transporter shall be apportioned to all municipalities based upon each municipality's share of total franchise fees allocated by the transporter in the prior calendar year.

(h) Surcharges collected pursuant to this chapter shall be separately identified on the transportation customer's normal bill. At the request of the energy transporter, the municipality shall publish notice in a newspaper of general circulation announcing the change in method of collecting franchise fees brought about by deregulation. Energy transporters may send out notice to transportation customers announcing the change in method of collecting franchise fees through the surcharge. The mailing costs incurred by the energy transporter shall be considered to be part of the implementation costs referenced in subdivision (g).

(i) In the case of partial payment by a transportation customer, the transportation customer payment shall first be applied to the energy transporter charges. Only after all energy transporter charges have been satisfied, shall remaining payment amounts be used to satisfy the municipality's surcharge requirement.

(j) Energy transporter collection of the surcharge shall begin on or before April 1, 1994. During the interim period between expiration of the targeted sales program and implementation of the energy transporters surcharge collection program, upon request of the municipality, the energy transporter shall provide the municipality with a monthly list of the names and addresses of the transportation customers within the municipality's jurisdiction, the volume of transported gas in therms, the applicable tariffed core subscription weighted average cost of gas (WACOG) exclusive of any California sourced franchise factor, and the franchise fee factor authorized by the commission to enable the municipality to collect the surcharge directly from the transportation customers.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, except as provided in Section 6352, a municipality is hereby authorized to collect an interim surcharge computed in accordance with Section 6353 until the energy transporter commences billing of the surcharge pursuant to this chapter.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

It is anticipated that, in August 1993, the California Public Utilities Commission will terminate the "Targeted Sales Program" which has required local gas utilities to collect, on behalf of municipalities, the equivalent of franchise fees on gas marketed by nonutility marketers and brokers. This program may be replaced by "capacity brokering," which would no longer impose that requirement on gas utilities. It is estimated that on a statewide basis, municipalities stand to lose up to fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) in annual franchise fee revenues. Therefore, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 234

An act to amend Section 9 of the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990), relating to the Monterey County Water Resources Agency.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9 of the Monterey County Water Resources Agency Act (Chapter 1159 of the Statutes of 1990) is amended to read:

Sec. 9. The agency has perpetual succession and may do any of the following:

(a) Sue and be sued in the name of the agency in all actions and proceedings in all courts and tribunals of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Adopt a seal and alter it at pleasure.

(c) Acquire by grant, purchase, lease, gift, devise, contract, construction, or otherwise, and hold, use, enjoy, sell, let, and dispose of real and personal property of every kind, including lands, structures, buildings, rights-of-way, easements, and privileges, and construct, maintain, alter, and operate any and all works or improvements, within or outside the agency, necessary or proper to carry out any of the purposes of this act and complete, extend, add to, alter, remove, repair, or otherwise improve any works, or improvements, or property acquired by it as authorized by this act.

(d) (1) Store water in surface or underground reservoirs within or outside the agency for the common benefit of the agency of any zones affected.

(2) Conserve and reclaim water for present and future use within the agency.

(3) Appropriate and acquire water and water rights, and import water into the agency and conserve within or outside the agency, water for any purpose useful to the agency.

(4) Commence, maintain, intervene in, defend, or compromise, in the name of the agency on behalf of the landowners therein, or otherwise, and assume the costs and expenses of any action or proceeding involving or affecting the ownership or use of waters or water rights within or outside the agency, used or useful for any purpose of the agency or of common benefit to any land situated therein, or involving the wasteful use of water therein.

(5) Commence, maintain, intervene in, defend, and compromise and to assume the cost and expenses of any and all actions and proceedings.

(6) Prevent interference with, or diminution of, or declare rights in, the natural flow of any stream or surface or subterranean supply of waters used or useful for any purpose of the agency or of common benefit to the lands within the agency or to its inhabitants.

(7) Prevent unlawful exportation of water from the agency.

(8) Prevent contamination, pollution, or otherwise rendering unfit for beneficial use the surface or subsurface water used or useful in the agency, and commence, maintain, and defend actions and proceedings to prevent any interference with those waters which endangers or damages the inhabitants, lands, or use of water in, or flowing into, the agency. However, the agency may not intervene or take part in, or pay the cost or expenses of, actions or controversies between the owners of lands or water rights which do not affect the interests of the agency.

(e) Control the flood and storm waters of the agency and the flood and storm waters of streams that have their sources outside the agency, but which streams and the flood waters thereof, flow into the agency, and conserve those waters for beneficial and useful purposes of the agency by spreading, storing, retaining, and causing to percolate into the soil within or outside the agency, or save or conserve in any manner all or any of those waters and protect from damage from those flood or storm waters the watercourses, watersheds, public highways, life, and property in the agency, and the watercourses of streams outside the agency flowing into the agency.

(f) Cooperate and act in conjunction with, the state, or any of its engineers, officers, boards, commissions, departments, or agencies, or with the United States, or any of its engineers, officers, boards, commissions, departments, or agencies, or with any public or private corporation, or with the county, in the construction of any work for the controlling of flood or storm waters of, or flowing into, the agency, or for the protection of life or property therein, or for the purpose of conserving those waters for beneficial use within the agency, or in any other works, acts, or purposes provided for herein, and adopt and carry out any definite plan or system of work for any such purpose.

(g) Carry on technical and other necessary investigations, make measurements, collect data, make analyses, studies, and inspections pertaining to water supply, water rights, control of flood and storm waters, and use of water both within and without the agency relating to watercourses or streams flooding in or into the agency. For those purposes, the agency has the right of access through its authorized representatives to all properties within the agency and elsewhere relating to watercourses and streams flowing in or into the agency. The agency, through its authorized representatives, may enter upon those lands and make examinations, surveys, and maps thereof.

(h) (1) Enter upon any land, to make surveys and locate the necessary works of improvement and the lines for channels, conduits, canals, pipelines, roadways, and other rights-of-way.

(2) Acquire by purchase, lease, contract, gift, devise, or other legal means all lands and water and water rights and other property necessary or convenient for the construction, use, supply maintenance, repair, and improvement of those works, including works constructed and being constructed by private owners, lands for reservoirs for storage of necessary water, and all necessary appurtenances, if necessary to that end, and acquire and hold in the name of the state, the capital stock of any mutual water company or corporation, domestic or foreign, owning water or water rights, canals, waterworks, franchises, concessions, or rights, if the ownership of the stock is necessary to secure a water supply required by the agency or any part thereof, and if when holding that stock, the agency is entitled to all the rights, powers, and privileges, and is subject to all the obligations and liability conferred or imposed by law upon other holders of that stock in the same company.

(3) Perform acts necessary or proper for the performance of any agreement with the United States, or any state, county, city, district of any kind, public or private corporation, association, firm, or individual, or any number of them, for the joint acquisition, construction, leasing, ownership, disposition, use, management, maintenance, repair, or operation of any rights, works, or other property of a kind which might be lawfully acquired or owned by the agency.

(4) Acquire the right to store water in any reservoirs, or carry water through any canal, ditch, or conduit not owned or controlled by the agency.

(5) Grant to any owner or lessee the right to the use of any water or right to store water in any reservoir of the agency, or to carry water through any tunnels, canal, ditch, or conduit of the agency.

(6) Perform acts necessary or proper for the performance of any agreement with any district of any kind, public or private corporation, association, firm, or individual, or any number of them for the transfer or delivery to any district, corporation, association, firm, or individual of any water right or water pumped, stored, appropriated, or otherwise acquired or secured, for the use of the agency, or for the purpose of exchanging the same for other water, water right, or water supply in exchange for water, water right, or water supply to be delivered to the agency by the other party to the agreement.

(7) Cooperate with, and act in conjunction with, the state, or any of its engineers, officers, boards, commissions, departments, or agencies, or with the United States, or any of its engineers, officers, boards, commissions, departments, or agencies, or with any public or private corporation, in the construction of any work for controlling flood or storm waters of streams in or running into the agency, or for the protection of life or property therein, or for the purpose of conserving the waters for beneficial use within the agency, or for the protection, enhancement, and use of groundwater within the agency, or in any other works, acts, or purposes provided for herein, and adopt and carry out any definite plan or system of work for any such purpose.

(i) Incur indebtedness and issue bonds in the manner provided in this act.

(j) Cause taxes or assessments to be levied and collected in order to pay any obligation of the agency and carry out any of the purposes of this act.

(k) Make contracts, and employ labor, and do all acts necessary for the full exercise of all powers vested in the agency or any of the officers thereof, by this act.

(l) Buy, provide, sell, and deliver water.

(m) Exchange water.

(n) Develop and distribute water to persons in exchange for ceasing or reducing groundwater extractions, and prevent groundwater extractions which are determined to be harmful to the groundwater basin.

(o) Transport, reclaim, purify, desalinate, treat, or otherwise manage and control water for the beneficial use of persons or property within the agency.

(p) Construct, maintain, improve, and operate public recreational facilities appurtenant to any water reservoir operated or contracted to be operated by the agency whether within or without the agency, subject to the limitations as to eminent domain use for recreational purposes outside the agency set forth in Section 4, and provide by ordinance regulations binding upon all persons to govern the use of those facilities, including regulations imposing reasonable charges for the use thereof.

(q) Regulate, inspect, and license all structures, including docks and wharves, or structures used as docks or wharves, and their anchorage or mooring system, that float on, or are designed to float on, the surface of reservoirs operated or contracted to be operated by the agency or that are located within the area subject to its flowage easement, or that are located on real property of the agency, and charge a reasonable fee for licensing those structures.

Any of those structures that are unlicensed more than 30 days after notice to license the structure has been posted thereon, or any unlicensed structure that is neither anchored nor moored, or is found on property owned in fee by the agency, is a nuisance. The agency may have injunctive relief for any of those nuisances, or may summarily abate any untended structure floating on the surface of the reservoir that is neither anchored nor moored, or any untended structure found on property owned in fee by the agency. It is a misdemeanor to maintain, anchor, or moor or suffer to be maintained, anchored, or moored on property of which one is possessed any unlicensed structure when that structure is required to be licensed pursuant to this act. The misdemeanor is punishable by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500), or by imprisonment in the county jail for not to exceed six months, or by both that fine and imprisonment. Each day of violation of these provisions constitutes a separate offense.

(r) Use any part of its water, and any part of its works, facilities, improvements, and property used for the development, storage, and transportation of water pursuant to this section to provide, generate, and deliver hydroelectric power, and acquire, construct, operate, and maintain any and all works, facilities, improvements, and property necessary or convenient therefor.

(s) (1) Pursuant to contract, provide, generate, sell, and deliver hydroelectric power to the United States or any board, department, or agency thereof, to the state for the purposes of the State Water Resources Development System, and to any public agency, public utility, private corporation, or other person or public entity, or any combination thereof, engaged in the sale of electric power.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision, "public agency" means a city, county, city and county, district, local agency, public authority, or public corporation.

(t) Construct, maintain, and operate works, facilities, improvements, and property of the agency useful or necessary for the provision, generation, and delivery of hydroelectric power, pursuant to subdivisions (r) and (s).

(u) Prevent the export of groundwater from the Salinas River Groundwater Basin, except that use of water from the basin on any part of Fort Ord shall not be deemed an export. Nothing in this act prevents the development and use of the Seaside Groundwater Basin for use on any lands within or outside that basin.

(v) Require the installation of flowmeters on groundwater extraction facilities and water distribution system service connections in the County of Monterey, except that no public entity may use flowmeters installed pursuant to this section on privately owned groundwater extraction facilities or service connections, or the data obtained from those flowmeters, in connection with the imposition or collection of any taxes, or for any other purpose other than one or more of the following:

(1) To facilitate the collection of water supply and water use data.

(2) To facilitate the development and implementation of water management plans, including, but not limited to, water allocation plans, water conservation plans, and water supply projects.

(3) (A) To impose fees, charges, water tolls, or assessments solely to pay for the planning, development, acquisition, construction, operation, and maintenance of water supply projects, and for other water management activities, including, but not limited to, the development and implementation of water allocation or conservation plans.

(B) The fees, charges, water tolls, or assessments described in subparagraph (A) may be imposed only to pay for projects and activities that benefit the land on which the water extraction facility is located or the land on which the water is used.

(C) The fees, charges, water tolls, or assessments described in subparagraph (A) that are imposed to pay for water supply projects may only be imposed to pay for projects that commence operation on or after January 1, 1994.

CHAPTER 235

An act to amend Section 1202.1 of the Elections Code, relating to elections.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1202.1 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

1202.1. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, a special absentee voter who qualifies pursuant to this section may apply for a special absentee voter ballot. Any application made pursuant to this section which is received by the elections official prior to the 60th day before the election shall be kept and processed on or after the 60th day before the election.

(b) If a special absentee voter submits an application containing a statement that provides that due to military or other contingencies that preclude normal mail delivery, as specified by the voter, the voter cannot vote an absentee ballot during the normal absentee voting period, and the voter is otherwise qualified to vote as a special absentee voter, the elections official shall immediately send the voter a ballot in a form prescribed and provided by the Secretary of State, or a ballot and voter registration card if required by Section 1200. The elections official shall send with the ballot a list of all candidates who have qualified for the ballot by the 60th day before the election and a list of all measures that are to be submitted to the voters and on which the voter is qualified to vote. The voter shall be entitled to write in the name of any specific candidate seeking nomination or election to any office listed on the ballot.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 17101 or any other provision of law, any name written upon a ballot for a particular office pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be counted for the office or nomination.

(d) The elections official shall receive and canvass special absentee voter ballots described in this section under the same procedure as absent voter ballots, insofar as that procedure is not inconsistent with this section, except that prior to election day, special absentee voter ballots shall be secured separately in a sealed ballot box reserved for that purpose.

(e) In the event that a voter executes a special absentee ballot pursuant to this section and the military or other contingency does not exist during the normal absentee voting period, that voter may make an application for an absentee ballot pursuant to Sections 1200 and 1201. If an application is made pursuant to this subdivision, the clerk shall reject the voted ballot previously cast and process the application in accordance with Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1000).

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a special absentee voter who qualifies pursuant to this section may, by facsimile transmission, register to vote and apply for an absent voter's ballot. Upon request, the elections official shall send to the qualified special absentee voter either by mail or facsimile transmission the special absentee ballot or, if available, an absent's voter ballot pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1000).

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 236

An act to add Sections 1798.182 and 1798.183 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to poison control centers.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1798.182 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1798.182. The authority may authorize a poison control center, instead of providing poison control services directly, to contract with an entity in another state to provide poison control services during any part of the 24-hour period for which the center is required to provide poison control services, if both of the following conditions are met:

(a) The center is unable to provide poison control services 24 hours a day.

(b) The entity in the other state provides substantially the same poison control services as required under Section 1798.180, and regulations adopted pursuant thereto. An entity in another state shall not be deemed not to provide substantially the same poison control services solely because the staff of the entity is licensed in the other state, and not licensed in the State of California.

SEC. 2. Section 1798.183 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1798.183. The authority may authorize a poison control center to provide poison control services for fewer than 24 hours a day, as the authority deems necessary.

CHAPTER 237

An act to add Section 42103.3 to the Education Code, relating to school district budgets, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature under this act to improve the collection of budget and accounting data for local educational agencies so as to do all of the following:

(a) Increase the development of budget information that will permit the public to become more informed about school district revenues and expenditures, including program and salary information, and thereby improve public participation in public hearings on school district budgets.

(b) Reduce the current demands upon local educational agencies to prepare various reports for fiscal accountability purposes, so that additional time can be directed to addressing the very real financial problems facing public schools in California.

(c) Ensure the accurate and timely reporting of statewide financial data to the federal government for purposes of computing accurate allocations and entitlements of federal funds to California.

(d) Ensure that adequate accounting flexibility exists to support increased budgetary decisionmaking at the schoolsite level.

(e) Support laws that were recently enacted to improve the financial integrity and stability of local educational agencies.

(f) Expand the fiscal information capability of the State Department of Education without adding costly or time-consuming reporting requirements.

SEC. 2. Section 42103.3 is added to the Education Code, to read:

42103.3. In the 1994–95 fiscal year, and in each fiscal year thereafter, the State Department of Education shall request, from a representative sampling of school districts throughout the state, a copy of the budget information provided to the public by each of those districts regarding school operating costs and revenue projections. Based on that information, the department shall communicate to all school districts any improvements suggested by the department to make the information more useful to school districts and to members of the public.

SEC. 3. (a) The State Department of Education shall contract for the development of a model accounting and budget structure for use by school districts and county offices of education. The model structure shall be completed no later than July 1, 1994, and shall include, but not be limited to, both of the following:

(1) A method of program cost accounting that separately identifies costs by major object of expenditure category within each program.

(2) A process for updating the structure on an ongoing basis.

(b) The structure developed pursuant to subdivision (a) shall take into account the reporting requirements set forth in Section 42103.3 of the Education Code.

(c) No later than July 1, 1994, the State Department of Education shall complete the development of a plan for conversion, over a period of three years, from the accounting and budget structure currently used by school districts and county offices of education to the model structure developed pursuant to subdivision (a). The plan shall include an estimate of implementation costs for school districts, county offices of education, and the State Department of Education on a statewide basis, including, but not limited to, costs associated with the training of personnel and the development of software to enhance the electronic transmission of data.

(d) No later than September 1, 1994, the State Department of Education shall submit to the Legislature and the Department of Finance the model structure and plan for conversion developed pursuant to this section. It is the intent of the Legislature that the Governor consider funding for the plan for conversion in developing the Budget Bill for the 1995–96 fiscal year.

(e) A 13-member committee is hereby established to advise the State Department of Education on the development of the accounting and budget structure under subdivision (a). The committee shall be selected by the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and shall include representatives of the Department of Finance, the Controller's office, the Legislature, and the California education community, including members of the public. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the members of the committee shall not be entitled to any per diem or other compensation for their services, or for any travel costs relating to those services. The committee shall complete its work and disband no later than September 1, 1994.

SEC. 4. The sum of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Education without regard to fiscal year to fund the costs of developing a model accounting and budget structure pursuant to Section 3.

CHAPTER 238

An act to amend Sections 23358 and 25608 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 23358 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

23358. Licensed winegrowers, notwithstanding any other provisions of this division, may also sell wine and brandy to any person holding a license authorizing the sale of wine or brandy, and to consumers for consumption off the premises where sold, and may also sell all beers, wines, and brandies, regardless of source, to consumers for consumption on the premises in a bona fide eating place as defined in Section 23038 of this code, which is located on the licensed premises or on premises owned by the licensee that are contiguous to the licensed premises and which is operated by and for the licensee. At such bona fide public eating place beer, wine, and brandy may be used in the preparation of food and beverages to be consumed on the premises. A winegrower may also have upon the premises all beers, wines, and brandies, regardless of source, for sale or service only to guests during private events or private functions not open to the general public. Alcoholic beverage products sold at the premises that are not produced and bottled by, or produced and packaged for, the winegrower shall be purchased by the winegrower only from a licensed wholesaler. A winegrower shall actually produce on his licensed premises by conversion of grapes, berries or other fruit, into wine, not less than 50 percent of all wines sold to consumers on his licensed premise or premises and any licensed branch premise or premises.

The department may, if it shall determine for good cause that the granting of such privilege would be contrary to public welfare or morals, deny the right to exercise the on-sale privilege authorized by this section in any bona fide eating place the main entrance to which is within 200 feet of a school or church.

SEC. 2. Section 25608 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

25608. Every person who possesses, consumes, sells, gives, or delivers to any other person, any alcoholic beverage in or on any public schoolhouse or any of the grounds thereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor. This section does not, however, make it unlawful for any person to acquire, possess, or use any alcoholic beverage in or on any public schoolhouse, or on any grounds thereof, if any of the following applies:

(a) The alcoholic beverage is acquired, possessed, or used in connection with a course of instruction given at the school and the person has been authorized to acquire, possess, or use it by the governing body or other administrative head of the school.

(b) The public schoolhouse is surplus school property and the grounds thereof are leased to a lessee which is a general law city with a population of less than 50,000, or the public schoolhouse is surplus school property and the grounds thereof are located in an unincorporated area and are leased to a lessee which is a civic organization, and the property is to be used for community center purposes and no public school education is to be conducted thereon by either the lessor or the lessee and the property is not being used by persons under the age of 21 years for recreational purposes at any time during which alcoholic beverages are being sold or consumed on the premises.

(c) The alcoholic beverages are acquired, possessed, or used during events at a college-owned or operated veterans stadium with a capacity of over 12,000 people, located in a county with a population of over six million people. As used in this subdivision, "events" mean football games sponsored by a college, other than a public community college, or other events sponsored by noncollege groups.

(d) The alcoholic beverages are acquired, possessed, or used during an event not sponsored by any college at a performing arts facility built on property owned by a community college district and leased to a nonprofit organization which is a public benefit corporation formed under Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code. As used in this subdivision, "performing arts facility" means an auditorium with more than 300 permanent seats.

(e) The alcoholic beverage is wine for sacramental or other religious purposes and is used only during authorized religious services held on or before January 1, 1995.

(f) The alcoholic beverages are acquired, possessed, or used during an event at a community center owned by a community services district and the event is not held at a time when students are attending a public school sponsored activity at the center.

(g) The alcoholic beverage is wine which is acquired, possessed, or used during an event sponsored by a community college district or an organization operated for the benefit of the community college district where the college district maintains both an instructional program in viticulture on no less than 5 acres of land owned by the district and an instructional program in enology, which includes sales and marketing.

(h) The alcoholic beverage is acquired, possessed, or used at a professional minor league baseball game conducted at the stadium of a community college located in a county with a population of less than 250,000 inhabitants, and the baseball game is conducted pursuant to a contract between the community college district and a professional sports organization.

Any person convicted of a violation of this section shall, in addition to the penalty imposed for the misdemeanor, be barred from having or receiving any privilege of the use of public school property which is accorded by Article 2 (commencing with Section 82530) of Chapter 8 of Part 49 of the Education Code.

CHAPTER 239

An act to amend Section 7501.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to state hospitals, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7501.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

7501.5. (a) The Department of General Services, in cooperation with the State Department of Developmental Services and the State Department of Mental Health, may lease property within the boundaries of Camarillo State Hospital described in subdivision (c) to Ventura County, which may sublet the property to one or more responsible organizations selected by Ventura County for the purposes of constructing housing or operating residential care services, or both, designed to meet the identified treatment and rehabilitation needs of mentally disordered persons from Ventura County. The lease between the state and Ventura County shall contain a provision that requires that the lease shall terminate and that full title, possession, and control of the property shall return to the state if permits have not been issued for construction of the housing prior to January 1, 1995. The sublease between Ventura County and the responsible bidder shall contain a provision that requires that permits for construction of the housing be issued prior to January 1, 1995, and shall contain a provision that requires that the sublease shall terminate and full title, possession, and control of the property shall return to the state if permits have not been issued for construction of the housing prior to January 1, 1995.

(b) In selecting a service provider pursuant to subdivision (a), Ventura County shall only consider a sublease with organizations that comply with subdivision (b) of Section 5705 and Section 523 of Title 9 of the California Code of Regulations.

(c) (1) The property consists of a 15 plus acre portion of a 58.5 acre parcel at Camarillo State Hospital that has previously been declared surplus by the State Department of Developmental Services. The acreage is on Lewis Road at the entrance to Camarillo State Hospital. Specific metes and bounds shall be established for the 15 plus acre parcel prior to the actual lease of the property.

(2) The Department of General Services may enter into a lease at less than fair market value. The department is authorized to lease the parcel for not less than 40, and not more than 99, years.

(d) If there is available space, mentally disordered persons from Los Angeles, San Luis Obispo, and Santa Barbara Counties may be eligible for placement at this center if an agreement to that effect is entered into between those counties and Ventura County. The agreement shall specify that Los Angeles, San Luis Obispo, and Santa Barbara Counties shall retain responsibility for monitoring and maintenance of mentally disordered persons placed through those agreements and for payment of costs incurred or services rendered by Ventura County.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that needed services for mentally disordered persons in Ventura County may be implemented at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 240

An act to amend Section 2553.5 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to registered dispensing opticians.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2553.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2553.5. (a) A registered dispensing optician may fit and adjust spectacle lenses and frames or take facial measurements in any of the following locations:

(1) A health facility as defined in Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code for a person admitted to that facility or an employee of that facility.

(2) A business location as defined in subdivision (f) for an employee or independent contractor of the person operating the business at that location.

(3) Any certified place of business pursuant to Section 2553.

(b) A registered dispensing optician who fits and adjusts spectacle lenses at a health facility or business location shall provide to the patient written information disclosing the registrant's regular business address, certificate of registration number, phone number, and the name and phone number of the person designated by the licensee to receive complaints and inquiries, as specified in Section 2554.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to permit a registered dispensing optician or registered contact lens dispenser to fit or adjust contact lenses at a health facility or at a business location, as defined in subdivision (f).

(d) A registered spectacle lens dispenser may fit and adjust spectacle lenses at a health facility or at a business location, as defined in subdivision (f), only if he or she is in personal attendance at a certified place of business pursuant to Section 2553 at least 40 percent of his or her regular working hours each week.

(e) A registered spectacle lens dispenser who fits and adjusts spectacle lenses at a health facility or at a business location, as defined in subdivision (f), other than on a temporary basis, shall maintain an emergency patient response system. This system shall consist of a telephone answering machine or service or a telephone paging device and the registered spectacle lens dispenser shall respond to patient inquiries received through the emergency system within 24 hours excluding weekends and holidays.

(f) "Business location" means the place at which any business employs more than 25 persons at any single business address, but shall not include a health facility, as defined in Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, or a certified place of business as specified in Section 2553.

(g) This section shall not affect the requirements regarding fitting and adjusting as set forth in Sections 2559.1 and 2560.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 241

An act relating to local agency costs, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sum of one hundred fifteen million one hundred sixty-two thousand dollars ($115,162,000) is hereby appropriated to the Controller for the payment of claims for reimbursement of state-mandated costs, according to the following schedule:

(a) One hundred fourteen million seven hundred twenty-nine thousand dollars ($114,729,000) from the General Fund, to be allocated as follows:

(1) One million eight hundred seventy-three thousand dollars ($1,873,000) for the reimbursement of claims of school districts and community colleges, as specified, to be allocated as follows:

(A) Eight hundred seventy-three thousand dollars ($873,000) for the payment of claims of school districts seeking reimbursable state-mandated costs incurred pursuant to Chapter 1607 of the Statutes of 1984, Chapter 78 of the Statutes of 1988, and Chapter 1457 of the Statutes of 1989 (School Crimes Statistics Reporting and Validation), for the 1993–94 fiscal year.

(B) One million dollars ($1,000,000) to cover deficiencies resulting from the enactment of Chapter 369 of the Statutes of 1992 in accordance with the following schedule:

One million dollars ($1,000,000) for the payment of claims of school districts seeking reimbursable state-mandated costs incurred pursuant to Chapter 1659 of the Statutes of 1984 (Emergency Procedures) for the 1993–94 fiscal year.

(2) One hundred twelve million eight hundred fifty-six thousand dollars ($112,856,000) for the reimbursement of claims of other local governmental entities, as specified, to be allocated as follows:

(A) Five million three hundred twelve thousand dollars ($5,312,000) for the payment of claims of counties seeking reimbursable state-mandated costs incurred pursuant to Chapter 955 of the Statutes of 1989 and State Department of Health Services Protocols (Sudden Infant Death Syndrome), for the 1990-91 through 1993-94 fiscal years.

(B) Ninety-five million six hundred fifty-nine thousand dollars ($95,659,000) for the payment of claims of counties seeking reimbursable state-mandated costs incurred pursuant to Chapter 1747 of the Statutes of 1984; Chapter 1274 of the Statutes of 1985; and Division 9 of Title 2 of the California Code of Regulations (Handicapped and Disabled Students), for the 1986-87 through 1993-94 fiscal years.

(C) Nine million eight hundred eighty-five thousand dollars ($9,885,000) to provide reimbursement of costs incurred under state-mandated programs for local agencies for the period of July 1, 1992, through September 2, 1992, to reimburse for those mandated programs identified in Provision 4 of Item 8885-111-101 of Chapter 587 of the Statutes of 1992, which was not in operation for this time period.

(D) Two million dollars ($2,000,000) to restore funding for the 1992–93 fiscal year for the state-mandated program contained in Chapter 641 of the Statutes of 1986 (Open Meetings Act) for local agencies.

(b) Four hundred thirty-three thousand dollars ($433,000) from the Restitution Fund to provide reimbursement of costs incurred under state-mandated programs.

(c) All amounts appropriated in subdivision (a) are for the purposes of meeting the funding guarantee for education programs pursuant to Section 8 of Article XVI of the California Constitution.

(d) If any of the scheduled amounts in subdivisions (a) and (b) are insufficient to provide full reimbursement of costs, the Controller may, upon notifying the Director of Finance in writing, augment those deficient amounts from the unencumbered balance of any other scheduled amounts therein, except that unencumbered balances in any paragraph of subdivision (a) or (b) may be used to augment deficient amounts only in those items. No order may be issued pursuant to this provision unless written notification of necessity is provided to the chairperson of the committee in each house which considers appropriations and the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee or his or her designee.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to settle local government claims against the state for mandated costs and end hardship to local governments, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 242

An act to amend Sections 1339.30, 1339.34, and 1339.37 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to health facilities.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature to extend the duration of the Special Hospital: Hospice Pilot Project specially designed for patients and their families facing terminal illness as enacted by Chapter 1 of the Statutes of 1989.

SEC. 2. Section 1339.30 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1339.30. A Special Hospital: Hospice Pilot Project is hereby created. This pilot project shall be established and administered by the department, and shall consist of up to three pilot projects, one of which shall be located in San Diego. The department shall license facilities that are part of the pilot project for the duration of the pilot project as a special hospital: hospice. No person or entity shall be licensed as a special hospital: hospice unless that person or entity is participating in this pilot project.

The purpose of the pilot project is to determine the need of hospice patients for acute inpatient hospital care.

This article shall not preclude the provision of appropriate hospice services in other settings.

The pilot project does not constitute an approved project as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 429.71.

SEC. 3. Section 1339.34 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1339.34. (a) Each facility that is part of the pilot project shall report to the Legislature at the end of each year of operation on the following factors: acuity levels of patients using the pilot project facilities; relative cost effectiveness of the pilot facilities; quality of care in the pilot facilities; utilization of the pilot facilities; and staffing requirements of the pilot facilities. Reports shall be submitted to the Legislature no later than three months after the close of the 12-month period for which the report is made. However, the Legislature may approve requests to extend this deadline that are submitted no later than 30 days prior to the deadline and that state the reason for the delay and corrective measures that have been taken to avoid future delays. No report deadline will be extended for more than three months beyond the original report date.

(b) This section shall remain in effect until January 1, 1998, and on that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute enacted before January 1, 1998, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 1339.37 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1339.37. Except for Section 1339.34, this article shall remain in effect until January 1, 1997, and on that date is repealed, unless a statute enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes or extends the date.

CHAPTER 243

An act to amend Section 3505 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to vehicles.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3505 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

3505. This chapter does not apply to any of the following:

(a) The transportation of baggage and express which is incidental to the transportation of passengers by a passenger stage corporation, as defined in Section 226.

(b) The transportation by towing of a disabled vehicle.

(c) The transportation other than by towing of not more than four vehicles, or not more than three vehicles in addition to one towed vehicle, when those vehicles are in transit to be repaired or dismantled.

(d) The transportation by towing of a vehicle which was illegally parked.

(e) Providing pickup and delivery services for express packages, newspapers, or mail in a commercial zone, as defined in paragraph (1) of subsection (b) of Section 10526 of Title 49 of the United States Code, if the shipment has had or will have a prior or subsequent movement by a passenger stage corporation.

(f) The transportation by towing of a vehicle which has been stolen or abandoned, or whenever directed by a peace officer having authority or jurisdiction.

(g) The transportation by towing of a vehicle for purposes of replacement of or substitution for a vehicle which has been wrecked or disabled.

CHAPTER 244

An act to add Section 18031.8 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to manufactured housing.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18031.8 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

18031.8. (a) Nothing in this part or the regulations promulgated thereunder shall prohibit the replacement in manufactured homes or mobilehomes of ovens, ranges, or clothes dryers with fuel gas burning ovens, ranges, or clothes dryers not specifically listed for use in a manufactured home or mobilehome.

(b) Replacement fuel gas burning ovens, ranges, or clothes dryers shall be listed for residential use and installed in accordance with the specifications of that listing to include tiedown and bracing to prevent displacement.

(c) Replacement fuel gas burning ovens, ranges, or clothes dryers installed in accordance with subdivision (b) shall bear a label in compliance with subdivision (c) of Section 18031.7.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 245

An act to amend Section 11167.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to controlled substances.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11167.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

11167.5. (a) An order for a controlled substance classified in Schedule II in a licensed skilled nursing facility, an intermediate care facility, or a licensed home health agency providing hospice care may be dispensed upon an oral prescription. Prior to filling the prescription, the pharmacist shall reduce it to writing in ink or indelible pencil in the handwriting of the pharmacist upon an official prescription form issued by the Department of Justice for that purpose. The prescriptions shall be prepared in triplicate and shall contain the date the prescription was orally transmitted by the prescriber, the name of the person for whom the prescription was authorized, the name and address of the licensed facility or home health agency providing hospice care in which that person is a patient, the name and quantity of the controlled substance prescribed, the directions for use, and the name, address, category of professional licensure, and federal controlled substance registration number of the prescriber. The duplicate shall be retained by the pharmacist, and the triplicate shall be forwarded to the prescriber by the end of the month in which the prescription was issued. The original shall be properly endorsed by the pharmacist with the pharmacy's state license number, the signature of the pharmacist, the name and address of the pharmacy, and the signature of the person who received the controlled substances for the licensed facility or home health agency providing hospice care and shall be forwarded by the pharmacist to the Department of Justice at the end of the month in which the prescription was filled. A skilled nursing facility, intermediate care facility, or licensed home health agency providing hospice care shall forward to the dispensing pharmacist a copy of any signed telephone order, chart order, or related documentation substantiating each oral prescription transaction under this section.

(b) For the purposes of this section, "hospice care" means interdisciplinary health care which is designed to alleviate the physical, emotional, social, and spiritual discomforts of an individual who is experiencing the last phases of a terminal disease and to provide supportive care for the primary care person and the family of the patient under hospice care.

CHAPTER 246

An act to amend Section 1596.955 of, and to add Sections 1596.956 and 1597.059 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to child day care, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1596.955 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1596.955. (a) The department shall develop guidelines and procedures to permit licensed child day care centers serving preschool age children to create a special program component for children between the ages of 18 months and 30 months. This optional toddler program shall be subject to the following basic conditions:

(1) An amended application is submitted to and approved by the department.

(2) No child shall be placed in the preschool program before the age of 30 months without parental permission. A child who is more than 30 months of age may participate in the toddler program with parental permission.

(3) Parents give permission for the placement of their children in the toddler program.

(4) A ratio of six children to each teacher is maintained for all children in attendance at the toddler program. An aide who is participating in on-the-job-training may be substituted for a teacher when directly supervised by a fully qualified teacher.

(5) The maximum group size, with two teachers, or one fully qualified teacher and one aide, does not exceed 12 toddlers.

(6) The toddler program is conducted in areas separate from those used by older or younger children. Plans to alternate use of outdoor play space may be approved to achieve separation.

(7) All other preschool regulations are complied with.

(b) The toddler program shall be considered an extension of the preschool license, without the need for a separate license.

(c) The department shall immediately prepare proposed regulations for public hearing which would consider the foregoing basic conditions as well as any additional health and safety safeguards deemed necessary for this age group.

(d) The guidelines in subdivision (a) shall remain in force and effect only until regulations implementing this section are adopted by the department. A status report on development of the regulations shall be submitted by the department to the Legislature no later than June 1, 1990.

SEC. 2. Section 1596.956 is added to the Health and Safety Code, immediately following Section 1596.955, to read:

1596.956. (a) The department shall develop guidelines and procedures to authorize licensed child day care centers serving infants to create a special program component for children between the ages of 18 months and 30 months. The optional toddler program shall be subject to the following basic conditions.

(1) An amended application shall be submitted to and approved by the department.

(2) No child under the age of 18 months shall be moved into the toddler program. A child who is more than 18 months of age shall not be required to be in the toddler program.

(3) Parents shall give permission for the placement of their children in the toddler program.

(4) A ratio of six children to each teacher shall be maintained for all children in attendance at the toddler program. An aide who is participating in on-the-job-training may be substituted for a teacher when directly supervised by a fully qualified teacher.

(5) The maximum group size, with two teachers, or one fully qualified teacher and one aide, shall not exceed 12 toddlers.

(6) The toddler program shall be conducted in areas separate from those used by older or younger children. Plans to alternate use of outdoor play space may be approved to achieve separation.

(7) All other infant center regulations shall be complied with.

(b) The toddler program shall be considered an extension of the infant center license, without the need for a separate license.

(c) The department shall immediately prepare proposed regulations for public hearing that would consider the foregoing basic conditions as well as any additional health and safety safeguards deemed necessary for this age group.

(d) The guidelines in subdivision (a) shall remain in force and effect only until regulations implementing this section are adopted by the department.

SEC. 3. Section 1597.059 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1597.059. (a) The State Department of Social Services shall adopt guidelines and procedures to permit an aide to assist a fully qualified child care teacher in the supervision of up to 18 preschool age children, with the requirement that the aide shall complete at least two accredited postsecondary semester units or equivalent quarter units of early childhood education or child development per semester or quarter, commencing with the first semester or quarter following initial employment and continuing until six units have been completed.

(b) For purposes of this section, "preschool age children" means children who are enrolled in a child day care center licensed by the department and who are not enrolled in either an infant care center or a schoolage child day care center, as these terms are defined in Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(c) This section shall not become operative prior to June 30, 1993.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

This act is necessary to continue and expand an effective program.

CHAPTER 247

An act to amend Section 1569.72 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to residential care for the elderly.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1569.72 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Section 5 of Chapter 1169 of the Statutes of 1992, is amended to read:

1569.72. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (d), no resident shall be admitted or retained in a residential care facility for the elderly if any of the following apply:

(1) The resident requires 24-hour, skilled nursing or intermediate care.

(2) The resident is bedridden, other than for a temporary illness or for recovery from surgery.

(b) For the purposes of this section, "bedridden" means an applicant or resident who requires assistance in turning and repositioning in bed and is unable to leave a building unassisted under emergency conditions.

(c) For the purposes of this section, "temporary illness" means any illness which persists for 14 days or less.

(d) A bedridden resident may be retained in a residential care facility for the elderly in excess of 14 days if all of the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) The facility notifies the department in writing regarding the temporary illness or recovery from surgery.

(2) The facility submits to the department, with the notification, a physician and surgeon's written statement to the effect that the resident's illness or recovery is of a temporary nature. The statement shall contain an estimated date upon which the illness or recovery will end or upon which the resident will no longer be confined to a bed.

(3) The department determines that the health and safety of the resident is adequately protected in that facility and that transfer to a higher level of care is not necessary.

(e) Notwithstanding the length of stay of a bedridden resident, every facility admitting or retaining a bedridden resident, as defined in this section, shall, within 48 hours of the resident's admission or retention in the facility, notify the local fire authority with jurisdiction in the bedridden resident's location of the estimated length of time the resident will retain his or her bedridden status in the facility.

(f) Nothing in this section shall be used for purposes of Section 1569.70 to determine the appropriateness of residents being admitted or retained in a residential care facility for the elderly on the basis of health related conditions and the need for these services until the three levels of care set forth in Section 1569.70 are fully implemented. This section shall not prohibit the Community Care Licensing Division of the State Department of Social Services from continuing to implement the regulations of Article 8 (commencing with Section 87700) of Chapter 8 of Division 6 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, as promulgated and approved on February 13, 1990.

(g) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1995, and shall have no force or effect on or after that date, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 1569.72 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Section 6 of Chapter 1169 of the Statutes of 1992, is amended to read:

1569.72. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (d), no resident shall be admitted or retained in a residential care facility for the elderly if any of the following apply:

(1) The resident requires 24-hour, skilled nursing or intermediate care.

(2) The resident is bedridden, other than for a temporary illness or for recovery from surgery.

(b) For the purposes of this section, "bedridden" means any of the following:

(1) An applicant or resident who requires assistance in turning and repositioning in bed and is unable to leave a building unassisted under emergency conditions.

(2) An applicant or resident who is unable to independently transfer to and from bed and is unable to leave a building unassisted under emergency conditions.

(c) For the purposes of this section, "temporary illness" means any illness which persists for 14 days or less.

(d) A bedridden resident may be retained in a residential care facility for the elderly in excess of 14 days if all of the following requirements are satisfied:

(1) The facility notifies the department in writing regarding the temporary illness or recovery from surgery.

(2) The facility submits to the department, with the notification, a physician and surgeon's written statement to the effect that the resident's illness or recovery is of a temporary nature. The statement shall contain an estimated date upon which the illness or recovery will end or upon which the resident will no longer be confined to a bed.

(3) The department determines that the health and safety of the resident is adequately protected in that facility and that transfer to a higher level of care is not necessary.

(e) Notwithstanding the length of stay of a bedridden resident, every facility admitting or retaining a bedridden resident, as defined in this section, shall, within 48 hours of the resident's admission or retention in the facility, notify the local fire authority with jurisdiction in the bedridden resident's location of the estimated length of time the resident will retain his or her bedridden status in the facility.

(f) Nothing in this section shall be used for purposes of Section 1569.70 to determine the appropriateness of residents being admitted or retained in a residential care facility for the elderly on the basis of health related conditions and the need for these services until the three levels of care set forth in Section 1569.70 are fully implemented. This section shall not prohibit the Community Care Licensing Division of the State Department of Social Services from continuing to implement the regulations of Article 8 (commencing with Section 87700) of Chapter 8 of Division 6 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, as promulgated and approved on February 13, 1990.

(g) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1995.

CHAPTER 248

An act to amend Sections 1502, 1506, and 1530.5 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to community care facilities, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1502 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1502. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Community care facility" means any facility, place, or building which is maintained and operated to provide nonmedical residential care, day treatment, adult day care, or foster family agency services for children, adults, or children and adults, including, but not limited to, the physically handicapped, mentally impaired, incompetent persons, and abused or neglected children, and includes the following:

(1) "Residential facility" means any family home, group care facility, or similar facility determined by the director, for 24-hour nonmedical care of persons in need of personal services, supervision, or assistance essential for sustaining the activities of daily living or for the protection of the individual.

(2) "Adult day care facility" means any facility that provides nonmedical care to persons 18 years of age or older in need of personal services, supervision, or assistance essential for sustaining the activities of daily living or for the protection of the individual on less than a 24-hour basis.

(3) "Therapeutic day services facility" means any facility that provides nonmedical care, counseling, educational or vocational support, or social rehabilitation services on less than a 24-hour basis to persons under 18 years of age who would otherwise be placed in foster care or who are returning to families from foster care. Program standards for these facilities shall be developed by the department, pursuant to Section 1530, in consultation with therapeutic day services and foster care providers.

(4) "Foster family agency" means any organization engaged in the recruiting, certifying, and training of, and providing professional support to, foster parents, or in finding homes or other placements for the temporary or permanent care of children who require that level of care as an alternative to a group home. Private foster family agencies shall be organized and operated on a nonprofit basis.

(5) "Foster family home" means any residential facility providing 24-hour care for six or fewer foster children that is owned, leased, or rented and is the residence of the foster parent or parents, including their family, in whose care the foster children have been placed. The placement may be by a public or private child placement agency, by a court order, or by voluntary placement by a child's parent, parents, or guardian.

(6) "Small family home" means any residential facility, in the licensee's family residence, that provides 24-hour care for six or fewer foster children who have mental disorders or developmental or physical disabilities and who require special care and supervision as a result of their disabilities. A small family home may accept children with special health care needs, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 17710 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. In addition to placing children with special health care needs, the department may approve placement of children without special health care needs, up to the licensed capacity.

(7) "Social rehabilitation facility" means any residential facility that provides social rehabilitation services for no longer than 18 months in a group setting to adults recovering from mental illness who temporarily need assistance, guidance, or counseling. Program components shall be subject to program standards pursuant to Section 5671 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(8) "Community treatment facility" means any residential facility that provides mental health treatment services to children in a group setting. Program components shall be subject to program standards developed by the State Department of Mental Health pursuant to Sections 5671, 5671.5, and 5672 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit or discourage placement of persons who have mental or physical disabilities into any category of community care facility that meets the needs of the individual placed, if the placement is consistent with the licensing regulations of the department.

(9) "Full-service adoption agency" means any licensed entity engaged in the business of providing adoption services, that does all of the following:

(A) Assumes care, custody, and control of a child through relinquishment of the child to the agency or involuntary termination of parental rights to the child.

(B) Assesses the birth parents, prospective adoptive parents, or child.

(C) Places children for adoption.

(D) Supervises adoptive placements.

Private full-service adoption agencies shall be organized and operated on a nonprofit basis.

(10) "Noncustodial adoption agency" means any licensed entity engaged in the business of providing adoption services, that does all of the following:

(A) Assesses the prospective adoptive parents.

(B) Cooperatively matches children freed for adoption, who are under the care, custody, and control of a licensed adoption agency, for adoption, with assessed and approved adoptive applicants.

(C) Cooperatively supervises adoptive placements with a full-service adoptive agency, but does not disrupt a placement or remove a child from a placement.

Private noncustodial adoption agencies shall be organized and operated on a nonprofit basis.

(b) "Department" or "state department" means the State Department of Social Services.

(c) "Director" means the Director of Social Services.

SEC. 2. Section 1506 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1506. (a) (1) Any holder of a valid license issued by the department that authorizes the licensee to engage in any foster family agency functions, may use only a certified family home that has been certified by that agency or a licensed foster family home approved for this use by the licensing county pursuant to Section 1506.5.

(2) Any home selected and certified for the reception and care of children by that licensee shall not, during the time it is certified and used only by that agency for these placements or care, be subject to Section 1508. A certified family home may not be concurrently licensed as a foster family home or as any other licensed residential facility.

(3) A child with a developmental disability who is placed in a certified family home by a foster family agency that is operating under agreement with the regional center responsible for that child may remain in the certified family home after the age of 18 years. The determination regarding whether and how long he or she may remain as a resident after the age of 18 years shall be made through the agreement of all parties involved, including the resident, the foster parent, the foster family agency social worker, the resident's regional center case manager, and the resident's parent, legal guardian, or conservator, as appropriate. This determination shall include a needs and service plan that contains an assessment of the child's needs to ensure continued compatibility with the other children in placement. The needs and service plan shall be completed no more than six months prior to the child's eighteenth birthday. The assessment shall be documented and maintained in the child's file with the foster family agency.

(b) (1) A foster family agency shall certify to the department that the home has met the department's licensing standards. A foster family agency may require a family home to meet additional standards or be compatible with its treatment approach.

(2) The foster family agency shall issue a certificate of approval to the certified family home upon its determination that it has met the standards established by the department and before the placement of any child in the home. The certificate shall be valid for a period not to exceed one year. The annual recertification shall require a certified family home to complete at least 12 hours of structured applicable training or continuing education. At least one hour of training during the first six months following initial certification shall be dedicated to meeting the requirements of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 11174.1 of the Penal Code.

(3) If the agency determines that the home no longer meets the standards, it shall notify the department and the local placing agency.

(c) The department shall develop licensing regulations differentiating between foster family agencies that provide treatment of children in foster families and those that provide nontreatment services.

(d) As used in this chapter, "certified family home" means a family residence certified by a licensed foster family agency and issued a certificate of approval by that agency as meeting licensing standards, and used only by that foster family agency for placements.

(e) Requirements for social work personnel for a foster family agency shall be a master's degree from an accredited or state approved graduate school in social work or social welfare, marriage, family, and child counseling, child psychology, child development, counseling psychology, social psychology, or equivalent education and experience, as determined by the state department.

(f) (1) In addition to the degree specifications in subdivision (e), all of the following coursework and field practice or experience shall be required of all new hires for the position of social work personnel effective January 1, 1993:

(A) At least three semester units, or 100 days, of field practice or experience in a public or private social service agency setting at the master's level.

(B) At least nine semester units of coursework related to children and families, or 18 months of experience in working with children and families.

(C) At least three semester units in working with minority populations or six months of experience in working with minority populations or six months of in-service training in working with minority populations within the first year of employment as a condition of employment.

(D) At least three semester units in child welfare, or two years' experience in a public or private child welfare social services setting.

(2) (A) Persons who do not meet the master's degree requirements specified in subdivision (e) may apply for an exception as provided for in subdivisions (g) and (h), provided the applicant satisfies the coursework and field practice or experience requirements in paragraph (1).

(B) Exceptions granted by the department prior to January 1, 1993, shall remain in effect.

(3) (A) Persons who are hired as social work personnel on or after January 1, 1992, but prior to January 1, 1993, who do not meet the requirements listed in this subdivision shall be required to successfully meet those requirements by December 31, 1994, in order to remain employed as social work personnel in a foster family agency.

(B) Employees who were hired prior to January 1, 1992, shall not be required to meet the requirements of this subdivision in order to remain employed as social work personnel in a foster family agency.

(g) Individuals seeking an exception to the requirements of subdivision (e) or (f) based on completion of equivalent education and experience shall apply to the department by the process established by the department.

(h) The State Department of Social Services shall be required to complete the process for the exception to minimum education and experience requirements for social work personnel in subdivisions (e) and (f) within 30 days of receiving the exception application of social work personnel qualifications from the foster family agency.

(i) The department shall review the feasibility of instituting a licensure category to cover foster homes that are established specifically to care for and supervise adults with developmental disabilities, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 4512 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to prevent the institutionalization of those individuals.

SEC. 3. Section 1530.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1530.5. (a) The state department, in establishing regulations, including provisions for periodic inspections, under this chapter for foster family homes and certified family homes of foster family agencies, shall consider these homes as private residences, and shall establish regulations for these foster family homes and certified family homes of foster family agencies as an entirely separate regulation package from regulations for all other community care facilities. These foster family homes and certified family homes of foster family agencies shall not be subject to civil penalties pursuant to Section 1548. The department, in adopting and amending regulations for these foster family homes and certified family homes of foster family agencies, shall consult with foster parent and foster family agency organizations in order to ensure compliance with the requirement of this section.

(b) This section shall not apply to small family homes or foster family agencies as defined in Section 1502.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that needed foster care services may be made available to persons with developmental disabilities at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 249

An act to amend Section 443.31 of, and to add Section 443.39 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to health facilities.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 443.31 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

443.31. Every organization that operates, conducts, or maintains a health facility and the officers thereof, shall make and file with the office, at the times as the office shall require, all of the following reports on forms specified by the office that shall be in accord where applicable with the systems of accounting and uniform reporting required by this part, except the reports required pursuant to subdivision (g) shall be limited to hospitals:

(a) A balance sheet detailing the assets, liabilities, and net worth of the health facility at the end of its fiscal year.

(b) A statement of income, expenses, and operating surplus or deficit for the annual fiscal period, and a statement of ancillary utilization and patient census.

(c) A statement detailing patient revenue by payer, including, but not limited to, Medicare, Medi-Cal, and other payers, and revenue center except that hospitals authorized to report as a group pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 443.34 are not required to report revenue by revenue center.

(d) A statement of cash-flows, including, but not limited to, ongoing and new capital expenditures and depreciation.

(e) A statement reporting the information required in subdivisions (a), (b), (c), and (d) for each separately licensed health facility operated, conducted, or maintained by the reporting organization, except those hospitals authorized to report as a group pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 443.34.

(f) The office shall consult with the County Hospital Committee of the California Hospital Association, the County Supervisors Association of California, and the California Association of Public Hospitals to improve the accuracy of indigent care revenue reporting and shall present legislative or regulatory recommendations for such improvements by March 30, 1985.

(g) A Hospital Discharge Abstract Data Record that includes all of the following:

(1) Date of birth.
(2) Sex.
(3) Race.
(4) Zip code.
(5) Patient social security number, if it is contained in the patient's medical record.
(6) Admission date.
(7) Source of admission.
(8) Type of admission.
(9) Discharge date.
(10) Principal diagnosis.
(11) Other diagnoses.
(12) External cause of injury.
(13) Principal procedure and date.
(14) Other procedures and dates.
(15) Total charges.
(16) Disposition of patient.
(17) Expected source of payment.

It is the expressed intent of the Legislature that the patient's rights of confidentiality shall not be violated in any manner. Patient social security numbers and any other data elements that the office believes could be used to determine the identity of an individual patient shall be exempt from the disclosure requirements of the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code).

No person reporting data pursuant to this section shall be liable for damages in any action based on the use or misuse of patient-identifiable data that has been mailed or otherwise transmitted to the office pursuant to the requirements of this subdivision.

A hospital or its designee shall semiannually file the Hospital Discharge Abstract Data Record not later than six months after the end of each semiannual period, commencing six months after January 1, 1986. A hospital may submit the Hospital Discharge Abstract Data Record in a computer tape format, and a hospital shall use coding from the International Classification of Diseases in reporting diagnoses and procedures.

SEC. 2. Section 443.39 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

443.39. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, upon the request of a small and rural hospital, as defined in Section 1188.855, that did not file financial reports with the office by electronic media as of January 1, 1993, the office shall, on a case-by-case basis, do one of the following:

(a) Exempt the small and rural hospital from any electronic filing requirements of the office regarding annual or quarterly financial disclosure reports specified in Sections 443.31 and 443.32.

(b) Provide a one-time reduction in the fee charged to the small and rural hospital not to exceed the maximum amount assessed pursuant to Section 439 by an amount equal to the costs incurred by the small and rural hospital to purchase the computer hardware and software necessary to comply with any electronic filing requirements of the office regarding annual or quarterly financial disclosure reports specified in Sections 443.31 and 443.32.

CHAPTER 250

An act to amend Section 20323 of the Public Contract Code, and to amend Sections 99232.5, 99401.5, 102284, and 102288 of, and to add Section 99232.4 to, the Public Utilities Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20323 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

20323. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the award of purchase contracts by the Sacramento Regional Transit District under competitive bid procedures may not be feasible for products and materials which are undergoing rapid technological changes or for the introduction of new technologies into district operations, and that in these circumstances it is in the public interest to consider the broadest possible range of competing products and materials available, fitness of purpose, manufacturer's warranty, vendor financing, performance reliability, standardization, life-cycle costs, delivery timetables, support logistics, and other similar factors in addition to price in the award of these contracts.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Board of Directors of the Sacramento Regional Transit District may direct the purchase of (1) computers, telecommunications equipment, fare collection equipment, microwave equipment, and other related electronic equipment and apparatus; (2) specialized rail transit equipment, including, but not limited to, rail cars; and (3) electric powered transit vehicles, by competitive negotiation upon a finding by two-thirds vote of all members of the board of the district that the purchase of that equipment in compliance with provisions of this code generally applicable to the purchase does not constitute a method of procurement adequate for the district's needs. Competitive negotiations may also be used for the purchase of replacement radio equipment, if the initial purchase of the radio equipment was done by competitive bidding. This section does not apply to contracts for construction or for the procurement of any product available in substantial quantities to the general public.

(c) Competitive negotiation, for the purposes of this section includes, but is not limited to, all of the following requirements:

(1) A request for proposal shall be prepared and submitted to an adequate number of qualified sources, as determined by the district in its discretion, to permit reasonable competition consistent with the nature and requirements of the procurement. In addition, notice of the request for proposal shall be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation, which publication shall be made at least 10 days before the date for receipt of the proposals. The district shall make every effort to generate the maximum feasible number of proposals from qualified sources and shall make a finding to that effect before proceeding to negotiate if only a single response to the request for proposal is received.

(2) The request for proposal shall identify all significant evaluation factors, including price, and their relative importance.

(3) The district shall provide reasonable procedures for technical evaluation of the proposals received, identification of qualified sources, and selection for contract award.

(4) Prior to making an award, the district shall prepare a price analysis and shall find that the final negotiated price is fair and reasonable based upon comparable procurements in the marketplace.

(5) Award shall be made to the qualified proposer whose proposal will be most advantageous to the district with price and other factors considered. If award is not made to the proposer whose proposal contains the lowest price, the board shall make a finding setting forth the basis for the award.

(d) The district may reject any and all proposals and issue a new request for proposals at its discretion.

(e) Upon making an award to a qualified proposer, the district, upon request, shall make available to all other proposers and to the public, an analysis of the award which provides the basis for the selection of that particular qualified proposal.

(f) A person who submits, or who plans to submit, a proposal may protest any acquisition conducted in accordance with this section as follows:

(1) Protests based on the content of the request for proposals shall be filed with the district within 10 calendar days after the request for proposals is first advertised in accordance with subdivision (c). The district shall issue a written decision on the protest prior to opening of proposals. A protest may be renewed by refiling the protest with the district within 15 calendar days after the mailing of the notice of the recommended award.

(2) Any bidder may protest the recommended award on any ground not based upon the content of the request for proposals by filing a protest with the district within 15 calendar days after the mailing of the notice of the recommended award.

(3) Any protest shall contain a full and complete written statement specifying in detail the grounds of the protest and the facts supporting the protest. Protesters shall have an opportunity to appear and be heard before the board prior to the opening of proposals in the case of protests based on the content of the request for proposals, or prior to final award in the case of protests based on other grounds or the renewal of protests based on the content of the request for proposals.

(g) Provisions in any contract concerning women and minority business enterprises, which provisions are in accordance with the request for proposals, shall not be subject to negotiation with the successful bidder.

SEC. 2. Section 99232.4 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

99232.4. (a) Notwithstanding Section 99231, and subject to subdivision (a) of Section 99232.5, the apportionment area for the Sacramento Regional Transit District includes all of the incorporated and unincorporated area of the County of Sacramento, excluding cities in the county that have retained the right to join the district at a later time. However, the apportionment restriction in Section 99232 only applies to the area of the Sacramento Regional Transit District described in subdivision (a) of Section 99231.

(b) (1) The Sacramento Regional Transit District may file a claim under Article 8 (commencing with Section 99400), but not under Article 4 (commencing with Section 99260), for the apportionment not subject to Section 99232 and subdivision (a) of Section 99232.5.

(2) The County of Sacramento may also file a claim under Article 8 (commencing with Section 99400) for the apportionment not subject to the restriction in Section 99232. However, a claim for the purposes of subdivision (a) of Section 99400 shall not be approved unless it is determined by the Sacramento Area Council of Governments, at a public hearing for which 15 days' notice has been given pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code, that there are no unmet transit needs, as defined in Section 99401.5, within the area of the Sacramento Regional Transit District described under subdivision (a) of Section 99231.

(c) This section shall become operative on July 1, 1994.

SEC. 2.1. Section 99232.5 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

99232.5. (a) Notwithstanding Section 99232, cities within the County of Sacramento which are outside the activated boundaries of the Sacramento Regional Transit District, but which provide transit service or which contract with the district for transit service, may also file claims under Article 8 (commencing with Section 99400) if it is determined by the Sacramento Area Council of Governments, at a public hearing for which 15 days' notice has been given pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code, that the transit needs of these cities can be met with use of an amount less than the total apportionment of these cities.

(b) With respect to such a city, not less than 25 percent of its apportionment shall be allocated for Article 4 (commencing with Section 99260) purposes.

SEC. 3. Section 99401.5 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

99401.5. Prior to making any allocation not directly related to public transportation services, specialized transportation services, or facilities provided for the exclusive use of pedestrians and bicycles, the transportation planning agency shall annually do all of the following:

(a) Consult with the social services transportation advisory council established pursuant to Section 99238.

(b) Identify the transit needs of the jurisdiction which have been considered as part of the transportation planning process, including the following:

(1) An annual assessment of the size and location of identifiable groups likely to be transit dependent or transit disadvantaged, including, but not limited to, the elderly, the handicapped, including individuals eligible for paratransit and other special transportation services pursuant to Section 12143 of Title 42 of the United States Code (the federal Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 12101, et seq.)), and persons of limited means.

(2) An analysis of the adequacy of existing public transportation services and specialized transportation services, including privately and publicly provided services necessary to implement the plan prepared pursuant to Section 12143 (c) (7) of Section 12143 of Title 42 of the United States Code, in meeting the transit demand identified pursuant to paragraph (1).

(3) An analysis of the potential alternative public transportation and specialized transportation services and service improvements that would meet all or part of the transit demand.

(c) Identify the unmet transit needs of the jurisdiction and those needs that are reasonable to meet. The transportation planning agency shall hold at least one public hearing pursuant to Section 99238.5 for the purpose of soliciting comments on the unmet transit needs that may exist within the jurisdiction and that might be reasonable to meet by establishing or contracting for new public transportation or specialized transportation services or by expanding existing services. The definition adopted by the transportation planning agency for the terms "unmet transit needs" and "reasonable to meet" shall be documented by resolution or in the minutes of the agency. The fact that an identified transit need cannot be fully met based on available resources shall not be the sole reason for finding that a transit need is not reasonable to meet. An agency's determination of needs that are reasonable to meet shall not be made by comparing unmet transit needs with the need for streets and roads.

(d) Adopt by resolution a finding for the jurisdiction, after consideration of all available information compiled pursuant to subdivisions (a), (b), and (c). The finding shall be that (1) there are no unmet transit needs, (2) there are no unmet transit needs that are reasonable to meet, or (3) there are unmet transit needs, including needs that are reasonable to meet. The resolution shall include information developed pursuant to subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) which provides the basis for the finding.

(e) If the transportation planning agency adopts a finding that there are unmet transit needs, including needs that are reasonable to meet, then the unmet transit needs shall be funded before any allocation is made for streets and roads within the jurisdiction.

SEC. 4. Section 102284 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

102284. (a) The district may enter into agreements for the joint use of any property and rights by the district and any public agency or public utility operating transit facilities; may enter into agreements with any public agency or public utility operating any transit facilities, and wholly or partially within or without the district, for the joint use of any property of the district or of the public agency or public utility, or the establishment of through routes, joint fares, transfer of passengers or pooling arrangements.

(b) In addition to any power described in subdivision (a), the district may enter into agreements for the joint use or joint development of any property or rights by the district and any public agency, or public utility operating transit facilities or nontransit facilities, or both, or any other person, firm, corporation, association, organization, or other entity, public or private, either, in whole or in part, within or outside the district, for the joint use or development of any nontransit facilities of the district or of the public agency, public utility, person, firm, corporation, association, organization, or other entity, public or private, for the establishment of through routes, joint fares, transfer of passengers, pooling arrangements, station cost-sharing, connector fees, or land, air, or development rights, sales or leasing, necessary for, incidental to, or convenient for, the full exercise of the powers granted in this chapter. For the purpose of this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

(1) "Joint development" includes, but is not limited to, agreements with any person, firm, corporation, association, organization, or other entity, public or private, to develop or to engage in the planning, financing, construction, or operation of nontransit district facilities or development projects adjacent, or physically or functionally related, to district transit facilities.

(2) "Development project" includes, but is not limited to, projects for any use or mixed use including public, commercial, or residential uses.

(3) "Nontransit facilities," includes, but is not limited to, any land, buildings, or equipment, or interest therein, that is used for the production of transit revenue not arising from the operation of a transit system.

(c) Construction projects or works of improvement for facilities authorized by the district under the terms of a joint development agreement that is approved under the authority conferred by this section shall be considered a public works project subject to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1720) of Part 7 of Division 2 of the Labor Code and shall be enforced by the Department of Industrial Relations in the same manner in which it carries out this responsibility under the Labor Code.

SEC. 5. Section 102288 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

102288. (a) The district may acquire, construct, own, operate, control, or use rights-of-way, rail lines, buslines, stations, platforms, switches, yards, terminals, parking lots, and any and all facilities necessary or convenient for transit service, within or partly outside the district, underground, upon, or above the ground and under, upon or over public streets or other public ways or waterways, together with all physical structures necessary or convenient for the access of persons or vehicles thereto, and may acquire any interest in or rights to use or joint use of any or all of the foregoing; however, installations in state freeways are subject to the approval of the Department of Transportation, and installations in other state highways are subject to Article 2 (commencing with Section 670) of Chapter 3 of Division 1 of the Streets and Highways Code. Installations in county highways and city streets are subject to similar encroachment permits.

(b) In addition to any power described in subdivision (a), the district may, to the extent that it is not expressly provided for in subdivision (a), develop, lease, jointly develop, or jointly use air rights, land rights, development rights, rights-of-way, rail trackage, entrances and exits, and any and all fixed facilities and structures physically or functionally related to transit service.

(c) Construction projects or works of improvement for facilities authorized by the district under the terms of a joint development agreement that is approved under the authority conferred by this section shall be considered a public works project subject to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1720) of Part 7 of Division 2 of the Labor Code and shall be enforced by the Department of Industrial Relations in the same manner in which it carries out this responsibility under the Labor Code.

SEC. 6. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 251

An act to amend Sections 2272 and 41871 of the Food and Agricultural Code, and to repeal Section 2 of, and to add Section 2 to, Chapter 252 of the Statutes of 1990, relating to agriculture.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2272 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

2272. The commissioner shall make an annual report to the director on the condition of agriculture in his or her county and on what is being done to eradicate, control, or manage pests, and actions relating to the exclusion of pests or quarantine against pests. The commissioner may include in the annual report information relating to organic farming methods, biotechnology, integrated pest management, and biological control activities in the county. The commissioner shall also furnish from time to time to the director any other information the director may require.

SEC. 1.5. Section 41871 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

41871. This chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 2 of Chapter 252 of the Statutes of 1990 is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 2 is added to Chapter 252 of the Statutes of 1990, to read:

Sec. 2. With respect to any costs incurred by a local agency pursuant to this act on or after January 1, 1994, no appropriation is made by this act, nor is any obligation created under Section 17610 of the Government Code, for the reimbursement of any local agency for any costs that may be incurred by it in carrying on any program or performing any service required to be carried on or performed by it by this act.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by Section 1.5 of this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 252

An act to amend Section 243.2 of the Penal Code, relating to battery.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 243.2 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

243.2. (a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 243.6, when a battery is committed on school property, park property, or the grounds of a public or private hospital, against any person, the battery is punishable by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(b) For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

(1) "Hospital" means a facility for the diagnosis, care, and treatment of human illness that is subject to, or specifically exempted from, the licensure requirements of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code.

(2) "Park" means any publicly maintained or operated park. It does not include any facility when used for professional sports or commercial events.

(3) "School" means any elementary school, junior high school, four-year high school, senior high school, adult school or any branch thereof, opportunity school, continuation high school, regional occupational center, evening high school, technical school, or community college.

(c) This section shall not apply to conduct arising during the course of an otherwise lawful labor dispute.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 253

An act to add Section 11475.8 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to child support.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11475.8 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

11475.8. (a) The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(1) The Legislative Analyst has found that county child support enforcement programs provide a net increase in revenues to the state.

(2) The state has a fiscal interest in ensuring that county child support enforcement programs perform efficiently.

(3) The state does not provide information to counties on child support enforcement programs, based on common denominators that would facilitate comparison of program performance.

(4) Providing this information would allow county officials to monitor program performance and to make appropriate modifications to improve program efficiency.

(b) The department shall compile information on each county child support enforcement program beginning with the 1992–93 fiscal year, and for each subsequent fiscal year, using all of the following performance measures:

(1) The amount, in dollars, that a county received from federal and state incentive payments and from recoupment of Aid to Families with Dependent Children program payments, per county dollar spent on child support enforcement administrative costs.

(2) The ratio, in percentage terms, of children in cases for whom paternity was established during the fiscal year, as compared to the number of children in open cases for whom paternity had not yet been established during the fiscal year.

(3) The ratio, in percentage terms, of cases where a parent was located during the fiscal year, as compared to the number of open cases where a parent had not yet been located during the fiscal year.

(4) The ratio, in percentage terms, of cases where a support order was established during the fiscal year, as compared to the number of cases where a support order had not yet been established during the fiscal year.

(c) The department shall provide the information for all counties for the 1992–93 fiscal year to each member of a county board of supervisors, county executive officer, district attorney, and the appropriate policy committees and fiscal committees of the Legislature by March 31, 1994. The department shall provide the information for each subsequent fiscal year no later than nine months following the end of the fiscal year. The department shall present the information in a manner that facilitates comparison of county performance.

CHAPTER 254

An act to amend Section 33213 of the Public Resources Code, relating to the Santa Monica Mountains Conservancy.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33213 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

33213. (a) The Santa Monica Mountains Conservancy Advisory Committee is hereby created. The advisory committee consists of 17 members, as follows:

(1) Six representatives of local governments from jurisdictions including the Santa Monica Mountains, one of whom shall be appointed by the Mayor of the City of Los Angeles, one of whom shall be appointed by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles, one of whom shall be appointed by the City Council of the City of Thousand Oaks, one of whom shall be appointed by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Ventura, one of whom shall be jointly appointed by the City Councils of the Cities of Agoura Hills and Westlake Village, and one of whom shall be jointly appointed by the City Councils of the Cities of Malibu and Calabasas.

(2) Six public members, two of whom shall be appointed by the Governor, two of whom shall be appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules, and two of whom shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly.

(3) One representative of the Rancho Simi Recreation and Park District, to be appointed by the district board of directors.

(4) One representative of the Conejo Recreation and Park District, to be appointed by the district board of directors.

(5) One representative of the Pleasant Valley Recreation and Park District, to be appointed by the district board of directors.

(6) One representative of the City of Santa Clarita, to be appointed by the city council.

(7) One representative of the City of Moorpark, to be appointed by the city council.

(b) The appointing powers shall make every effort to ensure that the ethnic and racial composition of the advisory committee reflects the racial and ethnic composition of the population of the state.

(c) The advisory committee shall select from among its members a chairperson and a vice chairperson.

(d) The members of the advisory committee shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

(e) The advisory committee has the following duties:

(1) Propose and review projects for conservancy action and report to the conservancy regarding the conformity of the projects with the plan.

(2) Review proposed amendments to the plan.

(3) Provide opportunities for public participation.

(f) Nine members of the advisory committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business of the advisory committee.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 255

An act relating to auctions, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The licensing requirements for auctioneers and auction companies, set forth in Article 3 (commencing with Section 5730) of Chapter 3.7 of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, are hereby suspended and shall be inoperative upon the effective date of this section. This section shall remain in effect only until Article 3 (commencing with Section 5730) of Chapter 3.7 of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed or until a state agency or commission is designated to permit and enforce compliance with these provisions.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

The Budget Act for the 1992–1993 fiscal year does not provide funding for the Auctioneer Commission, but requires that moneys in the Auctioneer Commission Fund be transferred to the General Fund, thereby eliminating funds for the commission. However, the commission continues to have authority to operate, but has no funding to license auctioneers or auction companies or to renew their licenses. In order to eliminate confusion over the commission's operation, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 256

An act to add Section 130110 to the Public Utilities Code, relating to transportation.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 130110 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

130110. (a) For employees of the Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority not in a bargaining unit represented by a labor organization, the authority shall establish retirement benefits pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 30400) and Article 2 (commencing with Section 30430) of Chapter 4 of Part 3 of Division 10.

(b) Retirement benefits for employees of the authority in a bargaining unit represented by a labor organization shall be established pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 30450) of Chapter 4 of Part 3 of Division 10.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 257

An act to amend Sections 6359.4 of, and to repeal Sections 6015.5 and 6359.5 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6015.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 6359.4 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

6359.4. (a) Any vending machine operator is a consumer of, and shall not be considered a retailer of, food products which sell at retail for fifteen cents ($0.15) or less and which are actually sold through a vending machine.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), any vending machine operator is a consumer of, and shall not be considered a retailer of, food products, other than beverages or hot prepared food products, which are sold through a coin-operated bulk vending machine if the amount of each sale is twenty-five cents ($0.25) or less. For purposes of this subdivision, "bulk vending machine" means a vending machine containing unsorted food products, other than beverages or hot prepared food products which, upon insertion of a coin, dispenses those food products, including candy and confectionery, in approximately equal portions, at random, and without selection by the customer.

SEC. 3. Section 6359.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

CHAPTER 258

An act to amend Sections 17053.11, 17250, and 23623 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17053.11 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17053.11. (a) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039) for the taxable year the amount determined in subdivisions (c) and (d) for a qualified business which hires a qualified employee.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified business" means either (A) a qualified business, as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code, or (B) a qualified business, as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code, except that the percentage requirements with respect to employment of residents of a high-density unemployment area shall be applicable only to those employees hired within the 12 months immediately preceding the date that the business seeks certification from the Department of Commerce and not to the entire workforce of the business. A business that qualifies under clause (B) shall be a qualified business only for the purposes of this section, provided that the Department of Commerce certifies that the business meets the standards set forth in this paragraph.

(2) "Qualified employee" means an employee who has been an unemployed resident of a high-density unemployment area (as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code) prior to being employed by the qualified business. For the purposes of this section, participation by a prospective employee in a state or federally funded job training or work demonstration program shall not constitute employment, or affect the eligibility of an otherwise qualified employee. Qualified employee includes an otherwise qualified employee who is employed by a qualified business in the 90 days prior to its certification by the Department of Commerce as a qualified business for the purpose of becoming eligible for that certification.

(c) The credit provided for each qualified employee who has been unemployed for at least six months prior to being employed pursuant to subdivision (a), shall be an amount equal to the sum of each of the following:

(1) Fifty percent for qualified wages in the first year of employment.

(2) Forty percent for qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent for qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent for qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(5) Ten percent for qualified wages in the fifth year of employment.

(d) The credit provided for each qualified employee who has been unemployed for at least three months but less than six months prior to being employed shall be 25 percent of qualified wages for the first year of employment; however, the credit for the second year of employment shall be that provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c), the credit for the third year of employment shall be that provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c), the credit for the fourth year of employment shall be that provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (c), and the credit for the fifth year of employment shall be that provided in paragraph (5) of subdivision (c).

(e) For purposes of this section, "qualified wages" means that portion of wages not in excess of 150 percent of the minimum hourly wage paid or incurred by the qualified business during the taxable year to the qualified employee.

(f) (1) If the employment of any employee with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (c) or (d) is terminated by the taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment (whether or not consecutive) or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that employee completes 90 days of employment with the taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the taxable year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that taxable year and all prior taxable years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that employee.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any of the following:

(A) A termination of employment of an employee who voluntarily leaves the employment of the taxpayer.

(B) A termination of employment of an individual who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that individual.

(C) A termination of employment of an individual, if it is determined under the applicable unemployment compensation provisions that the termination was due to the misconduct of that individual.

(D) A termination of employment of an individual due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the taxpayer other than regularly occurring seasonal reductions.

(E) A termination of employment of an individual, if that individual is replaced by other qualified employees so as to create a net increase in both number of employees and hours of employment.

(F) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the taxpayer and an employee shall not be treated as terminated by reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the taxpayer if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business and the taxpayer retained a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(g) In the case of an estate or trust—

(1) The qualified wages for any taxable year shall be apportioned between the estate or trust and the beneficiaries on the basis of the income of the estate or trust allocable to each, and

(2) Any beneficiary to whom any qualified wages have been apportioned under paragraph (1) shall be treated (for purposes of this part) as the employer with respect to those wages.

(h) The credit shall be reduced by the credit allowed under Section 17053.7. The credit shall also be reduced by the federal credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for the wages or salaries paid or incurred by the taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit.

(i) In the case where the credit allowed under this section exceeds the "net tax" for the taxable year, that portion of the credit which exceeds the "net tax" may be carried over to the "net tax" in succeeding taxable years until the credit is used. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest taxable years possible.

(j) The amount of the credit allowed by this section for any taxable year shall not exceed the amount of tax which would be imposed on the income attributed to business activities of the taxpayer within the program area (as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code) as if that attributed income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part. The amount of that attributed income shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(1) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and ending on or before December 31, 1996, income shall be apportioned to the program area by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(2) "The program area" shall be substituted for "this state."

SEC. 2. Section 17250 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17250. (a) (1) Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the accelerated cost recovery system, shall apply to assets placed in service on or after January 1, 1987, in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987.

(2) In the case of assets placed in service on or after January 1, 1987, in taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1987, a taxpayer may elect to have Sections 168 and 179 of the Internal Revenue Code apply by doing all of the following:

(A) Making an election on the return for the first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1987.

(B) Establishing a depreciation adjustment account for each asset (or group of assets) in an amount equal to the difference between the depreciation allowed on the federal return for each asset (or group of assets) and the depreciation allowed under this part.

(C) The depreciation adjustment account (or accounts) established under subparagraph (B) shall be amortized over 60 months beginning with the first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1987.

(3) In the case of assets placed in service prior to January 1, 1987, in taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1987, Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply only to residential rental property as provided by former Section 17250.5 (as amended by Chapter 1461 of the Statutes of 1985).

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a), any reference to "tax imposed by this chapter" in Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code means "net tax," as defined in Section 17039.

(c) For purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) Section 168(e)(3) shall be modified to provide that any grapevine, replaced in a vineyard in California in any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, as a direct result of a phylloxera infestation in that vineyard, shall be "five-year property," rather than "10-year property."

(2) Section 168(g)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified to provide that any grapevine, replaced in a vineyard in California in any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, as a direct result of a phylloxera infestation in that vineyard, shall have a class life of 10 years.

(d) Every taxpayer claiming a depreciation deduction with respect to grapevines as described in subdivision (c) shall obtain a written certification from an independent state-certified integrated pest management advisor, or a state agricultural commissioner or advisor, that specifies that the replanting was necessary to restore a vineyard infested with phylloxera. The taxpayer shall retain the certification for future audit purposes.

(e) The deduction for amortization of pollution control facilities shall be determined in accordance with Section 169 of the Internal Revenue Code, except that the deduction shall be available only with respect to facilities located in this state, and the "state certifying authority," as defined in Section 169(d)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, means the State Air Resources Board, in the case of air pollution, and the State Water Resources Control Board, in the case of water pollution.

(f) For property used in a trade or business, or held for production of income, there shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction a reasonable allowance for the cost of a solar energy system and allowable conservation measures over a 60-month period for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1987.

(g) The provisions of Section 7622(c)[e] of Public Law 101-239, relating to the effective date of changes in treatment of transfers of franchises, trademarks, and trade names, shall apply.

(h) The provisions of Section 7645(b) of Public Law 101-239, relating to the effective date of disallowance of depreciation for certain term interests, shall apply.

SEC. 3. Section 23623 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23623. (a) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 23036) the amount determined in subdivisions (c) and (d) for a qualified business which hires a qualified employee.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified business" means either (A) a qualified business, as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code, or (B) a qualified business, as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code, except that the percentage requirements with respect to employment of residents of a high-density unemployment area shall be applicable only to those employees hired within the 12 months immediately preceding the date that the business seeks certification from the Department of Commerce and not to the entire workforce of the business. A business that qualifies under clause (B) shall be a qualified business only for the purposes of this section, provided that the Department of Commerce certifies that the business meets the standards set forth in this paragraph.

(2) "Qualified employee" means an employee who has been an unemployed resident of a high-density unemployment area (as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code) prior to being employed by the qualified business. For the purposes of this section, participation by a prospective employee in a state or federally funded job training or work demonstration program shall not constitute employment, or affect the eligibility of an otherwise qualified employee. Qualified employee includes an otherwise qualified employee who is employed by a qualified business in the 90 days prior to its certification by the Department of Commerce as a qualified business for the purpose of becoming eligible for that certification.

(c) The credit provided for each qualified employee who has been unemployed for at least six months prior to being employed pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be an amount equal to the sum of each of the following:

(1) Fifty percent for qualified wages in the first year of employment.

(2) Forty percent for qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent for qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent for qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(5) Ten percent for qualified wages in the fifth year of employment.

(d) The credit provided for each qualified employee who has been unemployed for at least three months but less than six months prior to being employed shall be 25 percent of qualified wages for the first year of employment; however, the credit for the second year of employment shall be that provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c), the credit for the third year of employment shall be that provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c), the credit for the fourth year of employment shall be that provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (c), and the credit for the fifth year of employment shall be that provided in paragraph (5) of subdivision (c).

(e) For purposes of this section, "qualified wages" means that portion of wages not in excess of 150 percent of the minimum hourly wage paid or incurred by the qualified business during the income year to the qualified employee.

(f) (1) If the employment of any employee with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (c) or (d) is terminated by the taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment (whether or not consecutive) or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that employee completes 90 days of employment with the taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the income year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that income year and all prior income years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that employee.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any of the following:

(A) A termination of employment of an employee who voluntarily leaves the employment of the taxpayer.

(B) A termination of employment of an individual who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that individual.

(C) A termination of employment of an individual, if it is determined under the applicable unemployment compensation provisions that the termination was due to the misconduct of that individual.

(D) A termination of employment of an individual due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the taxpayer other than regularly occurring seasonal reductions.

(E) A termination of employment of an individual, if that individual is replaced by other qualified employees so as to create a net increase in both number of employees and hours of employment.

(F) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the taxpayer and an employee shall not be treated as terminated by reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the taxpayer, if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business and the taxpayer retained a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(g) The credit shall be reduced by the credit allowed under Section 23621. The credit shall also be reduced by the federal credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for wages or salaries paid or incurred by the taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit.

(h) In the case where the credit allowed under this section exceeds the "tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(i) The amount of the credit allowed by this section for any year shall not exceed the amount of tax which would be imposed on the income attributed to business activities of the taxpayer within the program area (as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code) as if that attributed income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part. The amount of that attributed income shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(1) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and ending on or before December 31, 1996, income shall be apportioned to the program area by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(2) "The program area" shall be substituted for "this state."

CHAPTER 259

An act to amend Sections 10664, 10904, and 10906 of, and to add Sections 10502.6 and 10667 to, the Fish and Game Code, relating to marine life refuges, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10502.6 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

10502.6. (a) The director may appoint a Director of the Dana Point Marine Life Refuge.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this section, no state funds, including, but not limited to, the Fish and Game Preservation Fund, shall be used to pay the compensation or expenses of the Director of the Dana Point Marine Life Refuge. A city, county, or special district may use any funds, including state funds appropriated to the city, county, or special district, to pay the compensation and expenses of the director and a public postsecondary educational institution may use private or state funds to pay the compensation and expenses of the director.

(c) The Director of the Dana Point Marine Life Refuge may issue a permit authorizing any person to enter the Dana Point Marine Life Refuge for the purpose of taking fish or marine plants under the conditions that the department determines to be necessary for the protection and propagation of fish and wildlife and related scientific purposes in that refuge.

(d) The Director of the Dana Point Marine Life Refuge shall erect and maintain signs identifying the boundaries of the Dana Point Marine Life Refuge. The signs shall contain notification regarding the permit requirements of the refuge. The signs shall specify that an access permit shall be obtained from the Director of the Dana Point Marine Life Refuge and a scientific collector's permit from the department in order to take any fish or specimen of marine plant life.

SEC. 2. Section 10664 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

10664. In the Laguna Beach, Newport Beach, Point Fermin, South Laguna Beach, Niguel, Irvine Coast, and Doheny Beach Marine Life Refuges, the following fish, mollusks, and crustaceans may be taken under the authority of a sportfishing license as authorized by this code: abalone, lobster, rockfish (Scorpaenidae), greenling, ling cod, cabezon, yellowtail, mackerel, bluefin tuna, kelp bass, spotted sand bass, barred sand bass, sargo, croaker, queenfish, corbina, white seabass, opaleye, halfmoon, surfperch (Embiotocidae), blacksmith, barracuda, sheephead, bonito, California halibut, sole, turbot, and sanddab. Fin fish shall be taken only by hook and line or by spearfishing gear. All other fish and forms of aquatic life are protected and may not be taken without a written permit from the department.

SEC. 3. Section 10667 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

10667. (a) In the Dana Point Marine Life Refuge below the intertidal zone, the following fish, mollusks, and crustaceans may be taken under the authority of a sportfishing license as authorized by this code: abalone, lobster, rockfish (Scorpaenidae), greenling, ling cod, cabezon, yellowtail, mackerel, bluefin tuna, kelp bass, spotted sand bass, barred sand bass, sargo, croaker, queenfish, corbina, white seabass, opaleye, halfmoon, surfperch (Embiotocidae), blacksmith, barracuda, sheephead, bonito, California halibut, sole, turbot, and sanddab. Fin fish shall be taken only by hook and line or by spearfishing gear. All other fish and forms of aquatic life are protected and may not be taken without a written permit from the department.

(b) Except as expressly provided in this section, it is unlawful to enter the intertidal zone in the Dana Point Marine Life Refuge for the purpose of taking or possessing, or to take or possess, any species of fish, plant, or invertebrate, or part thereof, to use or have in possession any contrivance designed to be used for catching fish, to disturb any native plant, fish, wildlife, aquatic organism, or to take or disturb any natural geological feature. This subdivision does not prohibit persons from entering the intertidal zone for the purpose of entertainment, recreation, and education while having a minimum impact on the intertidal environment and the living organisms therein. For this purpose, minimum impact includes foot traffic, general observation of organisms in their environment with immediate replacement of any unattached organisms to their natural location after temporary lifting for examination, and photography. Minimum impact does not include removal of attached organisms from their environment, gathering of fishing bait, littering, collecting rocks and shells, or turning rocks or other acts destructive to the environment.

(c) For the purposes of this section, "intertidal zone" means the area of the refuge between the mean lower low-water mark and the mean high-tide line described in Section 10907.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) or (b), the Director of the Dana Point Marine Life Refuge, or any person, who has a scientific collector's permit from the department, to whom the Director of the Dana Point Marine Life Refuge has issued a permit pursuant to Section 10502.6, may take, for scientific purposes, any fish or specimen of marine plant life under the conditions prescribed by the department pursuant to Section 10502.6.

(e) This section does not prohibit the entry of state and local law enforcement officers, fire suppression agencies, and employees of the department in the performance of their official duties. This section does not prohibit or restrict navigation in the Dana Point Marine Life Refuge pursuant to federal law.

SEC. 4. Section 10904 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

10904. The following constitutes a marine life refuge and shall be designated as the Laguna Beach Marine Life Refuge:

That portion of District 19 consisting of that certain parcel of land bounded by a line commencing at the mean high tide of the Pacific Ocean lying on the northern boundary of the City of Laguna Beach and running for a distance of 600 feet into the Pacific Ocean along that boundary, and thence generally southeastward and generally parallel to the shoreline at a distance of approximately 600 feet to the northern boundary of the South Laguna Beach Marine Life Refuge, and thence generally northeastward for a distance of approximately 700 feet to the mean high tide, and thence generally northwestward along the line of mean high tide to the point of beginning.

SEC. 5. Section 10906 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

10906. The following constitutes a marine life refuge and shall be designated as the South Laguna Beach Marine Life Refuge:

That portion of District 19 consisting of land and ocean waters bounded by a line commencing at the intersection of the line of mean high tide of the Pacific Ocean and a line which bears South 48° 50′ 00″ West from the most westerly point of Lot 75 of Tract No. 702, as that tract is shown on a map recorded in Book 21, pages 1 to 3, Miscellaneous Maps, on file in the Office of the County Recorder of Orange County; thence running South 48° 50′ 00″ West approximately 600 feet to the minus 20 foot mean lower low water contour; thence southeasterly and generally parallel to the shoreline to the northerly boundary of the Niguel Marine Life Refuge; thence North 35° 57′ 06″ East to the line of mean high tide of the Pacific Ocean; thence northwesterly along the line of mean high tide of the Pacific Ocean to the point of beginning.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 260

An act to amend Sections 15001, 15047, 15051, 15055, 15080, and 15081 of, add Sections 15082, 15084, and 15084.5 to, to repeal Section 15085 of, and to amend and renumber Sections 15083, 15084, and 15086 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to hospital buildings.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15001 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

15001. It is the intent of the Legislature that hospitals, which house patients who have less than the capacity of normally healthy persons to protect themselves, and which must be reasonably capable of providing services to the public after a disaster, shall be designed and constructed to resist, insofar as practical, the forces generated by earthquakes, gravity, and winds. In order to accomplish this purpose, the Legislature intends to establish proper building standards for earthquake resistance based upon current knowledge, and intends that procedures for the design and construction of hospitals be subjected to independent review. It is the intent of the Legislature to preempt from local jurisdictions the enforcement of all building standards published in the California Building Standards Code relating to the regulation of hospital projects and the enforcement of other regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter, and all other applicable state laws, including plan checking and inspection of the design and details of the architectural, structural, mechanical, plumbing, electrical, and fire and panic safety systems, and the observation of construction. The Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development shall assume these responsibilities by establishing, maintaining, and operating separate, but coordinated, plan review and field inspection units within the statewide office.

It is the intent of the Legislature that where local jurisdictions have more restrictive requirements for the enforcement of building standards, other building regulations, and construction supervision, these requirements shall be enforced by the statewide office.

It shall be the responsibility of each local jurisdiction to keep the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development advised as to the existence of any more restrictive local requirements. Where a reasonable doubt exists as to whether the requirements of the local jurisdiction are more restrictive, the effect of these requirements shall be determined by the Hospital Building Safety Board.

It is further the intent of the Legislature that the Office of Statewide Health Planning and Development, with the advice of the Hospital Building Safety Board, may conduct or enter into contracts for research regarding the reduction or elimination of seismic or other safety hazards in hospital buildings or research regarding hospital building standards.

SEC. 2. Section 15047 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

15047. All fees shall be paid into the State Treasury and credited to the Hospital Building Fund, which is hereby created and continuously appropriated without regard to fiscal years for the use of the statewide office, subject to approval of the Department of Finance, in carrying out this chapter. Adjustments in the amounts of the fees, as determined by the statewide office and approved by the Department of Finance, shall be made within the limits set in Section 15046 in order to maintain a reasonable working balance in the account. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any moneys collected pursuant to this chapter contained in the hospital building fund established by the Department of Finance, that are in the fund on January 1, 1994, shall be available for expenditure in accordance with this section.

SEC. 3. Section 15051 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

15051. (a) The hospital governing board or authority shall provide for and require competent and adequate inspection during construction or alteration by an inspector satisfactory to the architect or structural engineer, or both, and the statewide office. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), the inspector shall act under the direction of the architect or structural engineer, or both, and be responsible to the board or authority. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit any licensed architect, structural engineer, mechanical engineer, electrical engineer, or any facility maintenance personnel, if approved by the statewide office, from performing the duties of an inspector.

(b) If alterations or repairs are to be conducted under the supervision of a professional engineer pursuant to Section 15048, the inspector need only be satisfactory to the statewide office and to the professional engineer, and the inspector shall act under the direction of the professional engineer.

(c) The statewide office shall make an inspection of the hospital buildings and of the work of construction or alteration as in its judgment is necessary or proper for the enforcement of this chapter and the protection of the safety of the public.

Whenever the statewide office finds a violation of this chapter which requires correction, the citation of the violation shall be issued to the hospital governing board or authority in writing and shall include a proper reference to the regulation or statute being violated.

(d) The statewide office shall approve one or more classes of inspectors that shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) "A" inspectors, who may inspect all phases of construction, including, but not limited to, structural.

(2) "B" inspectors, who may inspect all phases of construction, except structural.

(3) "C" inspectors, who may inspect all phases of construction projects that the statewide office determines do not materially alter the mechanical, electrical, architectural, or structural integrity of the health facility.

SEC. 4. Section 15055 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

15055. Except as provided in Sections 18929 and 18930, the statewide office shall from time to time make rules and regulations as it deems necessary, proper, or suitable to effectually carry out this chapter. The statewide office shall also propose and submit building standards to the California Building Standards Commission for adoption and approval pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 of Division 13 relating to seismic safety for hospital buildings.

SEC. 5. Section 15080 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

15080. There is in the statewide office a Hospital Building Safety Board that shall be appointed by the director. The board shall advise the director and, notwithstanding Section 13142.6 and except as provided in Section 18945, shall act as a board of appeals in all matters relating to the administration and enforcement of building standards relating to the design, construction, alteration, and seismic safety of hospital building projects submitted to the statewide office pursuant to this chapter.

Further, notwithstanding Section 13142.6, the board shall act as the board of appeals in matters relating to all fire and panic safety regulations and alternate means of protection determinations for hospital building projects submitted to the statewide office pursuant to this chapter.

SEC. 6. Section 15081 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

15081. The board shall consist of 16 members appointed by the director of the statewide office. Of the appointive members, two shall be structural engineers, two shall be architects, one shall be an engineering geologist, one shall be a geotechnical engineer, one shall be a mechanical engineer, one shall be an electrical engineer, one shall be a hospital facilities manager, one shall be a local building official, one shall be a general contractor, one shall be a fire and panic safety representative, one shall be a hospital inspector of record, and three shall be members of the general public.

SEC. 7. Section 15082 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

15082. (a) Each member shall be appointed by the director for a term of four years and shall hold office until the appointment and qualification of his or her successor or until one year has elapsed since the expiration of the term for which he or she was appointed, whichever first occurs. No person shall serve as a member of the board for more than two consecutive terms. The director may remove any member of the board for neglect of duty or other just cause.

(b) The terms of the appointive members of the board who are in office before January 1, 1994, shall expire as follows:

(1) The terms of two members shall expire January 1, 1994.

(2) The terms of two members shall expire January 1, 1995.

(3)p The terms of two members shall expire January 1, 1996.

(4) The terms of two members shall expire January 1, 1997.

(5) The terms of three members shall expire January 1, 1998.

(6) The terms of three members shall expire January 1, 1999.

The terms shall expire in the same relative order as the original appointment dates.

(c) Vacancies occurring during a term shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term.

SEC. 8. Section 15083 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

15085. The chair of the board shall be an appointive member and shall be elected by a majority of the appointive members.

SEC. 9. Section 15084 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

15086. The board shall be served by an executive director who shall be a member of the statewide office staff.

SEC. 10. Section 15084 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

15084. (a) There shall be six ex officio members of the board, who shall be the director of the statewide office, the State Fire Marshal, the State Geologist, the Executive Director of the California Building Standards Commission, the State Director of Health Services, and the Deputy Director of the Division of Facilities Development in the statewide office, or their officially designated representatives.

(b) The director may also appoint up to three additional ex officio members, with the advice of the chair. On January 1, 1994, director-appointed ex officio members may continue to serve until appointment of their successors by the director.

SEC. 11. Section 15084.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

15084.5. (a) Only appointed members shall vote at board meetings.

(b) Appointed members, ex officio members, and others appointed to a committee, including an appeal committee, by the chair, may vote at committee meetings.

SEC. 12. Section 15085 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 15086 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

15083. Appointive members, except for the public members, shall be qualified by close connection with hospital design and construction and highly knowledgeable in their respective fields with particular reference to seismic safety. Appointive members, except for the public members, shall be appointed from nominees recommended by the governing bodies of the Structural Engineers Association of California; the American Institute of Architects; the Earthquake Engineering Research Institute; the Association of Engineering Geologists; the Consulting Engineers and Land Surveyors of California; the California Association of Local Building Officials; the American Society for Heating, Refrigerating, and Air-Conditioning Engineers, Inc.; the California Association of Hospitals and Health Systems; the Associated General Contractors of California; the American Construction Inspectors' Association; and the California Fire Chiefs' Association. Board members shall be residents of California.

CHAPTER 261

An act to amend Sections 44951 and 44955.5 of the Education Code, relating to school employees.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44951 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44951. Unless a certificated employee holding a position requiring an administrative or supervisory credential is sent written notice deposited in the United States registered mail with postage prepaid and addressed to his or her last known address by March 15 that he or she may be released from his or her position for the following school year, or unless the signature of the employee is obtained by March 15 on the written notice that he or she may be released from his or her position for the following year, he or she shall be continued in the position. The provisions of this section do not apply to a certificated employee who holds a written contract with an expiration date beyond the current school year, or to a certificated employee holding a position that is funded for less than a school year, or to a certificated employee assigned to an acting position whose continuing right to hold this position depends on being selected from an eligible list established for the position, or to the termination of employment pursuant to Section 44955.

SEC. 2. Section 44955.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44955.5. During the time period between five days after the enactment of the Budget Act and August 15 of the fiscal year to which that Budget Act applies, if the governing board of a school district determines that its total revenue limit per unit of average daily attendance for the fiscal year of that Budget Act has not increased by at least 2 percent, and if in the opinion of the governing board it is therefore necessary to decrease the number of permanent employees in the district, the governing board may terminate the services of any permanent or probationary certificated employees of the district, including employees holding a position that requires an administrative or supervisory credential. The termination shall be pursuant to Sections 44951 and 44955 but, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Sections 44951 and 44955, in accordance with a schedule of notice and hearing adopted by the governing board.

CHAPTER 262

An act to amend Section 5134 of, and to add Section 5070.1 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to accountants, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5070.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

5070.1. (a) Upon application, an individual who holds a permit to practice public accountancy, including an expired permit which remains subject to renewal, may be issued a seal as evidence of the individual's status as a retired certified public accountant or retired public accountant. The seal shall be affixed to the individual's certificate of licensure.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 3 (commencing with Section 5050), an individual issued a seal pursuant to subdivision (a) may be styled and known as a retired certified public accountant or retired public accountant.

SEC. 2. Section 5134 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

5134. The amount of fees prescribed by this chapter is as follows:

(a) The fee to be charged to each applicant for the certified public accountant examination shall be fixed by the board at an amount to equal the actual cost to the board of the purchase or development of the written examination, plus the estimated cost to the board of administering the written examination and shall not exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250). The board may charge a reexamination fee equal to the actual cost to the board of the purchase or development of the written examination or any of its component parts, plus the estimated cost to the board of administering the written examination and not to exceed fifty dollars ($50) for each part that is subject to reexamination.

(b) The fee to be charged to out-of-state candidates for the certified public accountant examination shall be fixed by the board at an amount equal to the estimated cost to the board of administering the examination and shall not exceed one hundred fifty dollars ($150) per candidate.

(c) The application fee to be charged to each applicant for issuance of a certified public accountant certificate shall be fixed by the board at an amount equal to the estimated administrative cost to the board of processing and issuing the certificate and shall not exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(d) The application fee to be charged to each applicant for issuance of a certified public accountant certificate by waiver of examination shall be fixed by the board at an amount equal to the estimated administrative cost to the board of processing and issuing the certificate and shall not exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(e) The fee to be charged to each applicant for registration shall be fixed by the board and shall not exceed one hundred fifty dollars ($150).

(f) The board shall fix the biennial renewal fee so that, together with the estimated amount from revenue other than that generated by subdivisions (a) to (d), inclusive, the reserve balance in the board's contingent fund shall be equal to approximately three months of annual authorized expenditures. Any increase in the renewal fee made after July 1, 1990, shall be effective upon a determination by the board, by regulation adopted pursuant to subdivision (k), that additional moneys are required to fund authorized expenditures other than those specified in subdivisions (a) to (d), inclusive, and maintain the board's contingent fund reserve balance equal to three months of estimated annual authorized expenditures in the fiscal year in which the expenditures will occur. The biennial renewal fee shall not exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(g) The delinquency fee shall be 50 percent of the accrued renewal fee.

(h) The initial permit fee is an amount equal to the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date before the date on which the permit is issued, except that, if the permit is issued one year or less before it will expire, then the initial permit fee is an amount equal to 50 percent of the renewal fee in effect on the last regular renewal date before the date on which the permit is issued. The board may, by regulation, provide for the waiver or refund of the initial permit fee where the permit is issued less than 45 days before the date on which it will expire.

(i) The fee to be charged for filing of sponsor agreements for continuing education courses shall be fixed by the board at not more than one hundred dollars ($100). Universities, colleges, or other four-year institutions of learning accredited by a regional or national accrediting agency or association included in a list of those agencies or associations published by the United States Commissioner of Education under the requirements of Section 253 of the Veteran's Readjustment Assistance Act of 1952, known as Public Law 550 of the 82nd Congress, as amended, are exempted from the payment of this filing fee.

(j) The actual and estimated costs referred to in this section shall be calculated every two years using a survey of all costs attributable to the applicable subdivision.

(k) Upon the effective date of this section the board shall fix the fees in accordance with the limits of this section and, on and after July 1, 1990, any increase in any fee fixed by the board shall be pursuant to regulation duly adopted by the board in accordance with the limits of this section.

(l) Fees collected pursuant to subdivisions (a) to (d), inclusive, shall be fixed by the board in amounts necessary to recover the actual costs of providing the service for which the fee is assessed, as projected for the fiscal year commencing on the date the fees become effective.

(m) The application fee to be charged to each applicant for issuance of a retired certified public accountant seal or a retired public accountant seal pursuant to Section 5070.1 shall be fixed by the board at an amount equal to the estimated administrative cost to the board of processing and issuing the seal and shall not exceed one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125).

CHAPTER 263

An act to amend Sections 1175, 1175.1, and 1175.2 of, to amend the heading of Part 3.5 (commencing with Section 1175) of Division 1 of, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 14499.5 and 14499.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to health care.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The heading of Part 3.5 (commencing with Section 1175) of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

PART 3.5. SANTA BARBARA REGIONAL HEALTH AUTHORITY ACT

SEC. 2. Section 1175 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1175. This part shall be known and may be cited as the Santa Barbara Regional Health Authority Act.

SEC. 3. Section 1175.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1175.1. The Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Barbara may, by ordinance or resolution, order the formation of the Santa Barbara Regional Health Authority under this part which shall include all of the incorporated and unincorporated areas of the county.

SEC. 4. Section 1175.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1175.2. Unless the context otherwise requires, the provisions of this chapter govern the construction of this part. As used in this part:

(a) "Authority" means the Santa Barbara Regional Health Authority.

(b) "Board" means the Santa Barbara Regional Health Authority Board of Directors.

(c) "County" means the County of Santa Barbara.

(d) "Health care system" means any system established to arrange for the provision of medical services.

(e) "Public agency" means the United States, the State of California, any political subdivision, county, municipality, district, or agency of the State of California or of the United States and any department, bureau or commission of the State of California or of the United States.

(f) "Person" means any individual, firm, partnership, association, corporation, trust, business trust, or the receiver or trustee or conservator for any of the above, but does not include a public agency.

(g) "Professional advisory boards" means the boards appointed by the board of directors of the authority pursuant to its rules which shall consist of a representative cross-section of professional providers of health care services within the county.

(h) "Community advisory boards" means advisory boards to the authority's board appointed by the board of directors of the authority which shall consist of persons who represent community and consumer interests and who do not directly earn their income from the provision of medical health services.

SEC. 5. Section 14499.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14499.5. (a) (1) In carrying out the intent of this article, the director shall contract for the operation of one local pilot program. Special consideration shall be given to approving a program contracted through county government in Santa Barbara County.

(2) Notwithstanding the limitations contained in Section 14490, the director may enter into, or extend, contracts with the local pilot program in Santa Barbara County pursuant to paragraph (1) for periods that do not exceed three years.

(b) The establishment of a pilot program pursuant to this section shall be contingent upon the availability of state and federal funding. The program shall include the following components:

(1) Local authority for administration, fiscal management, and delivery of services, but not including eligibility determination.

(2) Physician case management.

(3) Cost containment through provider incentives and other means.

(c) The program for the pilot project shall include a plan and budget for delivery of services, administration, and evaluation. During the first year of the pilot program, the amount of the state contract shall equal 95 percent of total projected Medi-Cal expenditures for delivery of services and for administration based on fee-for-service conditions in the program county. During the remaining years of the pilot project, Medi-Cal expenditures in the program county shall be no more than 100 percent of total projected expenditures for delivery of services and for administration based on any combination of the following paragraphs:

(1) Relevant prior fee-for-service Medi-Cal experience in the program county.

(2) The fee-for-service Medi-Cal experience in comparable counties or groups of counties.

(3) Medi-Cal experience of the pilot project in the program county if, as determined by the state department, the scope, level, and duration of, and expenditures for, any services used in setting the rates under this paragraph would be comparable to fee-for-service conditions were they to exist in the program county and would be more actuarially reliable for use in ratesetting than data available for use in applying paragraph (1) or (2).

The projected total expenditure shall be determined annually according to an acceptable actuarial process. The data elements used by the department shall be shared with the proposed contractor.

(d) The director shall accept or reject the proposal within 30 days after the date of receipt. If a decision is made to reject the proposal, the director shall set forth the reasons for this decision in writing. Upon approval of the proposal, a contract shall be written within 60 days. After signature by the local contractor, the State Department of Health Services, the Department of General Services, and the Department of Finance shall execute the contract within 60 days.

(e) The director shall seek the necessary state and federal waivers to enable operation of the program. If the federal waivers for delivery of services under this plan are not granted, the department is under no obligation to contract for implementation of the program.

(f) For purposes of Section 1343 of the Health and Safety Code, the Santa Barbara Regional Health Authority shall be considered to be a county-operated pilot program contracting with the State Department of Health Services pursuant to this article, and notwithstanding any other provision of law, during the period that this contract is in effect, the contractor shall be exempt from the provisions of the Knox-Keene Health Care Service Plan Act of 1975, Chapter 2.2 (commencing with Section 1340) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, relative to the services provided to Medi-Cal beneficiaries under the terms and provisions of the pilot program.

(g) Dental services may be included within the services provided in this pilot program.

(h) Any federal demonstration funding for this pilot program shall be made available to the county within 60 days upon notification of the award without the state retaining any portion not previously specified in the grant application as submitted.

(i) An independent evaluation of the program shall be conducted and a report submitted to the Legislature and the director by January 1, 1988. The independent evaluation of the program commissioned by the federal Health Care Financing Administration may fulfill the purposes of this part. This evaluation and report shall include, but is not limited to, the following:

(1) An assessment of the cost of medical services as compared to the cost of the existing Medi-Cal fee-for-service delivery mode.

(2) An assessment of utilization levels of specialist and emergency services.

(3) An assessment of the quality of care.

(4) Recommendations for future policy on delivery of services.

SEC. 6. Section 14499.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14499.6. (a) The Santa Barbara Regional Health Authority may arrange with out-of-county Selective Provider Contracting Program hospitals that have negotiated hospital contracts and per diem rates under Article 5.1 (commencing with Section 14165) of Chapter 7, to provide medically justified emergency services or to provide specialized hospital services not available within Santa Barbara County to Medi-Cal beneficiaries who reside in Santa Barbara County. The authority may arrange medically justified inpatient hospital services with out-of-county program hospitals for those beneficiaries whose county of residence for purposes of eligibility determination is Santa Barbara, but who for medical or legal reasons physically reside in a county other than Santa Barbara.

(b) The out-of-county program hospitals shall not charge the authority more than their program negotiated rates when providing hospital services to authority patients under this section, except as provided in subdivision (c).

(c) In cases where an out-of-county program hospital can demonstrate that the cost of the services it is rendering to authority patients was not contemplated in the case mix and acuity assumptions on which the program rates are based, the program hospital and the authority shall negotiate in good faith equitable rates for payment for the provision of hospital services to authority patients. The established program rate shall serve as the base for those negotiations.

(d) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any records maintained by the authority which would enable a determination to be made regarding rates negotiated pursuant to Article 5.1 (commencing with Section 14165) of Chapter 7, shall be exempt from the Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code).

(2) The authority shall establish guidelines to ensure that these rates are maintained as confidential records and that access to these records is restricted.

(3) The authority shall submit the established guidelines to the department for approval.

CHAPTER 264

An act to amend Section 740.4 of the Public Utilities Code, relating to economic development.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 740.4 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

740.4. (a) The commission shall authorize public utilities to engage in programs to encourage economic development.

(b) Reasonable expenses for economic development programs, as specified in this section, shall be allowed, to the extent of ratepayer benefit, when setting rates to be charged by public utilities electing to initiate these programs.

(c) Economic development activities may include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) Community marketing and development.

(2) Technical assistance to support technology transfer.

(3) Market research.

(4) Site inventories.

(5) Industrial and commercial expansion and relocation assistance.

(6) Business retention and recruitment.

(7) Management assistance.

(d) This section shall not be interpreted to permit the funding of economic development activities that benefit any affiliated companies or parent holding companies beyond that which is authorized by law as of January 1, 1992.

(e) (1) This section shall not authorize the commission to establish discriminatory rates for the purpose of attracting or benefiting specific industries or business entities, except that incentives may be provided for the benefit of industries or business entities located within the boundaries of enterprise zones or economic incentive areas in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) and Article 1 (commencing with Section 7080) of Chapter 12.9 of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(2) The commission may apply the incentives authorized by this subdivision that benefit industries or business entities located within the boundaries of economic enterprise zones or incentive areas to attract a federal Department of Defense Finance and Accounting Service Center at the existing site of Norton Air Force Base in San Bernardino County. This paragraph shall become inoperative if the federal Department of Defense Finance and Accounting Service Center is not located upon the premises known as Norton Air Force Base in San Bernardino County and shall also become inoperative on February 1, 1994, if that facility has not been awarded to that site before that date.

(f) The commission may provide incentives pursuant to subdivision (e) to industries or business entities located within the boundaries of an enterprise zone that engage in activities in connection with the conversion of Fort Ord to other uses.

(g) It is the intent of the Legislature that the Public Utilities Commission, in implementing this chapter, shall allow rate recovery of expenses supporting economic development programs within the geographic area served by any public utility to the extent the utility incurring or proposing to incur, those expenses demonstrates that the ratepayers of the public utility will derive a benefit from those programs. Further, it is the intent of the Legislature that expenses for economic development programs incurred prior to the effective date of this chapter, which have not been previously authorized to be recovered in rates, shall not be subject to rate recovery.

CHAPTER 265

An act to amend Section 65863.8 of the Government Code, relating to zoning.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 65863.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

65863.8. A local agency to which application has been made for the conversion of a mobilehome park to another use shall, at least 30 days prior to a hearing or any other action on the application, inform the applicant in writing of the provisions of Section 798.56 of the Civil Code and all applicable local requirements which impose upon the applicant a duty to notify residents and mobilehome owners of the mobilehome park of the proposed change in use, and shall specify therein the manner in which the applicant shall verify that residents and mobilehome owners of the mobilehome park have been notified of the proposed change in use. Neither a hearing on the application, nor any other action thereon, shall be taken by the local agency before the applicant has satisfactorily verified that the residents and mobilehome owners have been so notified, in the manner prescribed by law or local regulation.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 266

An act to amend Sections 9300 and 9306 of the Family Code, relating to adult adoption.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9300 of the Family Code is amended to read:

9300. (a) An adult may be adopted by another adult, including a stepparent, as provided in this part.

(b) A married minor may be adopted in the same manner as an adult under this part.

SEC. 2. Section 9306 of the Family Code is amended to read:

9306. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the birth parents of a person adopted pursuant to this part are, from the time of the adoption, relieved of all parental duties towards, and all responsibility for, the adopted person, and have no right over the adopted person.

(b) Where an adult is adopted by the spouse of a birth parent, the parental rights and responsibilities of that birth parent are not affected by the adoption.

CHAPTER 267

An act relating to school district reorganization.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) The governing boards of the Alexander Valley Union Elementary School District, the Healdsburg Union Elementary School District, the Healdsburg Union High School District, and the West Side Union Elementary School District have initiated or may in the future initiate an action pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 35700) of Part 21 of the Education Code to unify the Healdsburg Union Elementary School District and the Healdsburg Union High School District while leaving the Alexander Valley Union Elementary School District and the West Side Union Elementary School District as independent elementary school districts that feed into the Healdsburg Union High School District.

(b) Pursuant to the unification described in subdivision (a), the Alexander Valley Union Elementary School District and the West Side Union Elementary School District shall be excluded from the unification action, shall continue as independent elementary school districts within the boundaries of the newly unified school district, and shall continue to serve pupils in kindergarten and grades 1 to 6, inclusive. All students in grades 7 to 12, inclusive, within the attendance areas of the Alexander Valley Union Elementary School District and the West Side Union Elementary School District shall attend school in the newly unified district.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the action to unify the Healdsburg Union Elementary School District and the Healdsburg Union High School District shall be effective only if the Alexander Valley Union Elementary School District and the West Side Union Elementary School District remain as independent elementary school districts within the newly formed unified district. Notwithstanding Section 35542 of the Education Code, if unification occurs pursuant to Section 1 of this act, the Alexander Valley Union Elementary School District and the West Side Union Elementary School District shall remain as independent elementary school districts within the newly unified district. The Alexander Valley Union Elementary School District or the West Side Union Elementary School District may subsequently reorganize to unify with the newly formed unified district pursuant to Section 35700 of the Education Code.

SEC. 3. (a) If the unification specified in Section 1 of this act is completed, the pupils in grades 7 to 12, inclusive, who reside in the portions of the newly unified district served by the Alexander Valley Union Elementary School District and the West Side Union Elementary School District shall attend grades 7 to 12, inclusive, in the newly unified district under the same terms that they would have attended high school in the Healdsburg Union High School District.

(b) If the unification described in Section 1 of this act is completed, the pupils in grades kindergarten to 6, inclusive, who reside in the Alexander Valley Union Elementary School District and the West Side Union Elementary School District shall attend school in the Alexander Valley Union Elementary School District or the West Side Union Elementary School District under the same terms that they would have attended those districts prior to the unification action.

SEC. 4. Due to unique circumstances concerning the proposed unification of the Healdsburg Union High School District and the Healdsburg Union Elementary School District, the Legislature finds and declares that a general statute cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution.

SEC. 5. Sections 1 to 4, inclusive, of this act shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1996, and as of that date are repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 268

An act to amend Section 1337.6 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to nurse assistants.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1337.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1337.6. (a) Certificates issued under this article shall be renewed every two years and renewal shall be conditional upon the certificate holder submitting documentation of completion of 48 hours of in-service training every two years obtained through an approved training program, or taught by a director of staff development for a licensed skilled nursing or intermediate care facility who has been approved by the state department, or by individuals or through programs approved by the state department. At least 12 of the 48 hours of in-service training shall be completed in each of the two years.

(b) Certificates issued under this article shall expire on the certificate holder's birthday. If the certificate is renewed more than 30 days after its expiration, the certificate holder, as a condition precedent to renewal, shall also pay the delinquency fee prescribed by this article.

(c) To renew an unexpired certificate, the certificate holder shall, on or before the certificate expiration date, apply for renewal on a form provided by the state department, pay the renewal fee prescribed by this article, and submit documentation of the required in-service training.

(d) The state department shall give written notice to a certificate holder 90 days in advance of the renewal date and, 90 days in advance of the expiration of the fourth year that a renewal fee has not been paid, and shall give written notice informing the certificate holder, in general terms, of the provisions of this article.

(e) Except as otherwise provided in this article, an expired certificate may be renewed at any time within four years after its expiration on the filing of an application for renewal on a form prescribed by the state department, and payment of the renewal fee in effect on the date the application is filed, and documentation of the required in-service education.

Renewal under this article shall be effective on the date on which the application is filed, on the date when the renewal fee is paid, or on the date on which the delinquency fee is paid, whichever occurs last. If so renewed, the certificate shall continue in effect until the date provided for in this article, when it shall expire if it is not again renewed.

(f) If a certified nurse assistant applies for renewal more than 30 days after expiration but within four years after the expiration, and demonstrates in writing to the state department's satisfaction why the renewal application was late, then the state department shall issue a renewal, upon payment of the renewal fee. If the certified nurse assistant demonstrates in writing to the state department's satisfaction why the certified nurse assistant cannot pay the delinquency fee, then the state department on a case-by-case basis shall consider waiving the delinquency fee. A suspended certificate is subject to expiration and shall be renewed as provided in this article, but this renewal does not entitle the certificate holder, while the certificate remains suspended, and, until it is reinstated, to engage in the certified activity, or in any other activity or conduct in violation of the order or judgment by which the certificate was suspended.

(g) A revoked certificate is subject to expiration as provided in this article, but it cannot be renewed. If reinstatement of the certificate is approved by the state department, the certificate holder, as a condition precedent to reinstatement, shall pay a reinstatement fee in an amount equal to the renewal fee in effect on the date the application for reinstatement is filed, plus the delinquency fee, if any, accrued at the time of its revocation.

(h) A certificate that is not renewed within four years after its expiration cannot be renewed, restored, reissued, or reinstated except upon completion of a certification program unless deemed otherwise by the state department if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) No fact, circumstance, or condition exists that, if the certificate were issued, would justify its revocation or suspension.

(2) The person pays the application fee provided for by this article.

(3) The person takes and passes any examination that may be required of an applicant for a new certificate at that time, that shall be given by an approved provider of a certification training program.

CHAPTER 269

An act to amend Sections 8516 and 8610 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to structural pest control.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8516 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8516. (a) This section, and Section 8519, apply only to wood destroying pests or organisms, but do not apply to work conducted pursuant to Section 8516.1.

(b) No registered company or licensee shall commence work on a contract, or sign, issue, or deliver any documents expressing an opinion or statement relating to the absence or presence of wood destroying pests or organisms until an inspection has been made. The registered company shall retain for three years all field reports from which a verbal or written estimate of or solutions for work are made. A written inspection report conforming to this section and on a form prescribed by the board shall be prepared and delivered to the person requesting the inspection or to the person's designated agent. A copy of each report shall be filed with the board at the time the report is delivered or not later than five working days after the date the inspection is made. The report shall be delivered to the person requesting the inspection, or to the person's designated agent, before work is commenced. The following shall be set forth in the report:

(1) The date of the inspection and the name of the licensee making the inspection.

(2) The name and address of the person or firm ordering the report.

(3) The name and address of any person who is a party in interest to whom the board is to send certified copies of inspection reports and completion notices as provided in subdivision (i).

(4) The address or location of the property.

(5) A general description of the building or premises inspected.

(6) A foundation diagram or sketch of the structure or structures or portions of the structure or structures inspected, indicating thereon the approximate location of any infested or infected areas evident, and the parts of the structure where conditions which would ordinarily subject those parts to attack by wood destroying pests or organisms exist.

(7) Information regarding the substructure, foundation walls and footings, porches, patios and steps, air vents, abutments, attic spaces, roof framing that includes the eaves, rafters, fascias, exposed timbers, exposed sheathing, ceiling joists, and attic walls, or other parts subject to attack by wood destroying pests or organisms. Conditions usually deemed likely to lead to infestation or infection, such as earth contacts, excessive cellulose debris, faulty grade levels, excessive moisture conditions, evidence of roof leaks, and insufficient ventilation are to be reported.

(8) One of the following statements, as appropriate, printed in bold type:

(A) The exterior surface of the roof will not be inspected. If you want the water tightness of the roof determined, you should contact a roofing contractor who is licensed by the Contractors' State License Board.

(B) The exterior surface of the roof was inspected to determine whether or not wood destroying pests or organisms are present.

(9) Indication or description of any areas that are inaccessible or not inspected with suggestion for further inspection if practicable. If, after the report has been made in compliance with this section, authority is given later to open inaccessible areas, a supplementary report on conditions in these areas shall be made.

(10) Recommendations for corrective measures.

(11) Information regarding the pesticide or pesticides to be used for their control as set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 8538.

(12) The inspection report shall clearly disclose that if requested by the person ordering the original report, a reinspection of the structure will be performed if an estimate or bid for making repairs was given with the original inspection report, or thereafter.

An estimate or bid for repairs shall be given separately allocating the costs to perform each and every recommendation for corrective measures as specified in subdivision (c) with the original inspection report if the person who ordered the original inspection report so requests, and if the registered company is regularly in the business of performing corrective measures.

If no estimate or bid was given with the original inspection report, or thereafter, then the registered company shall not be required to perform a reinspection.

A reinspection shall be an inspection of those items previously listed on an original report to determine if the recommendations have been completed. Each reinspection shall be reported on an original inspection report form and shall be labeled "Reinspection" in capital letters by rubber stamp or typewritten. Each reinspection shall also identify the original report by date and stamp numbers.

After four months from an original inspection, all inspections shall be original inspections and not reinspections.

Any reinspection shall be performed for not more than the price of the registered company's original inspection price and shall be completed within 10 working days after a reinspection has been ordered.

(c) At the time a report is ordered, the registered company or licensee shall inform the person or entity ordering the report, that a separated report is available pursuant to this subdivision. If a separated report is requested at the time the inspection report is ordered, the registered company or licensee shall separately identify on the report each recommendation for corrective measures as follows:

(1) The infestation or infection which is evident.

(2) The conditions that are present which are deemed likely to lead to infestation or infection.

If a registered company or licensee fails to inform as required by this subdivision and a dispute arises, or if any other dispute arises as to whether this subdivision has been complied with, a separate report shall be provided within 24 hours of the request but, in no event, later than the next business day, and at no additional cost.

(d) When a corrective condition is identified, either as paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (c), and the responsible party, as negotiated between the buyer and the seller, chooses not to correct those conditions, the registered company or licensee shall not be liable for damages resulting from a failure to correct those conditions or subject to any disciplinary action by the board. Nothing in this subdivision, however, shall relieve a registered company or a licensee of any liability resulting from negligence, fraud, dishonest dealing, other violations pursuant to this chapter, or contractual obligations between the registered company or licensee and the responsible parties.

(e) The inspection report form prescribed by the board shall separately identify paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (c). Additionally, the form shall explain paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (c) conditions and the difference between those conditions. In no event, however, shall conditions described pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) be characterized as actual "defects" or as actual "active" infestations or infections or in need of correction as a precondition to issuing a certification pursuant to Section 8519.

(f) The report and any contract entered into shall also state specifically when any guarantee for the work is made, and if so, the specific terms of the guarantee and the period of time for which the guarantee shall be in effect.

(g) Control service is defined as the regular reinspection of a property after a report has been made in compliance with this section and such corrections as have been agreed upon have been completed. Under a control service agreement a registered company shall refer to the original report and contract in a manner as to identify them clearly, and the report shall be assumed to be a true report of conditions as originally issued, except it may be modified after a control service inspection. A registered company is not required to issue a report as outlined in paragraphs (1) to (9), inclusive, of subdivision (b) after each control service inspection. If after control service inspection, no modification of the original report is made in writing, then it will be assumed that conditions are as originally reported. A control service contract shall state specifically the particular wood destroying pests or organisms and the portions of the buildings or structures covered by the contract.

(h) A registered company or licensee may enter into and maintain a control services agreement provided the following requirements are met:

(1) The control services agreement shall be in writing, signed by both parties, and shall specifically include the following:

(A) The wood destroying pests and organisms deemed likely to lead to infestations or infections.

(B) The wood destroying pests and organisms covered by the control services agreement. Any pest or organism which is deemed likely to lead to infestations or infections that is not covered must be specifically listed.

(C) The type and manner of treatment to be used to correct the infestations or infections.

(D) The structures or buildings, or portions thereof, covered by the agreement, including a statement specifying whether the coverage for purposes of periodic inspections is limited or full. Any exclusions from those described in the original report must be specifically listed.

(E) A reference to the original inspection report and agreement.

(F) The frequency of the inspections to be provided, the fee to be charged for each renewal, and the duration of the agreement.

(G) Whether the fee includes structural repairs.

(H) If the services provided are guaranteed, and, if so, the terms of the guarantee.

(I) A statement that all corrections of infestations or infections covered by the control services agreement shall be completed within six months of discovery, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by both parties.

(2) Inspections made pursuant to a control services agreement shall be conducted by a Branch 3 licensee. Section 8506.1 does not modify this provision.

(3) A full inspection of the property covered by the control services agreement shall be conducted and a report filed pursuant to subdivision (b) at least once every three years from the date that the agreement was entered into, unless the consumer cancels the contract within three years from the date the agreement was entered into.

(4) A written report shall be required for the correction of any infestation or infection unless all of the following conditions are met:

(A) The infestation or infection has been previously reported.

(B) The infestation or infection is covered by the control services agreement.

(C) There is no additional charge for correcting the infestation or infection.

(D) Correction of the infestation or infection takes place within 45 days of its discovery.

(E) Correction of the infestation or infection does not include fumigation.

(5) All notice requirements pursuant to Section 8538 shall apply to all pesticide treatments conducted under control services agreements.

(6) For purposes of this section, "control services agreement" means any agreement, including extended warranties, to have a licensee conduct over a period of time regular inspections and other activities related to the control or eradication of wood destroying pests and organisms.

(i) Whenever a report is filed pursuant to subdivision (b), the board shall forthwith send to any person or firm designated under paragraph (3) of that subdivision a certified copy of all inspection reports and completion notices made on the property and filed with the board during the preceding two years, if so requested and upon payment of an appropriate search fee.

(j) All work recommended by a registered company, where an estimate or bid for making repairs was given with the original inspection report, or thereafter, shall be recorded on this report or a separate work agreement and shall specify a price for each recommendation. This information shall be provided to the person requesting the inspection, and shall be retained by the registered company with the inspection report copy for two years.

This section shall become operative on July 1, 1989.

SEC. 2. Section 8610 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

8610. (a) Every company that engages in the practice of structural pest control, as a sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation, or other organization or any combination thereof, shall be registered with the Structural Pest Control Board. Each application for a company registration shall include the name of the company's owner if it is a sole proprietorship, the names of the partners, if it is a partnership, or the names of its officers and shareholders with 10 percent or more ownership interest, if it is a corporation, and the address of the company's principal office in this state.

(b) (1) A company registration shall not be issued to an applicant that has an officer, director, qualifying manager, responsible managing employee, or an individual who otherwise exercises dominion or control over the company, whose license or registration is revoked or suspended at the time of the application as the result of disciplinary action pursuant to this chapter.

(2) A company registration shall not be issued to an applicant that has an officer, director, qualifying manager, responsible managing employee, or an individual who otherwise exercises dominion or control over the company, who owns or has owned in the past more than a 10 percent interest in another sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation, or other organization that has its license or registration revoked or suspended at the time of the application as the result of disciplinary action pursuant to this chapter.

(c) Each registered company shall designate an individual or individuals who hold an operator's license to act as its qualifying manager or managers. The qualifying manager or managers must be licensed in each branch of pest control in which the company engages in business. The designated qualifying manager or managers shall supervise the daily business of the company and shall be available to supervise and assist all employees of the company, in accordance with regulations which the board may establish.

CHAPTER 270

An act to add Section 25659.5 to the Business and Professions Code, relating to alcoholic beverages.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25659.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

25659.5. (a) Retail licensees selling keg beer for consumption off licensed premises shall place an identification tag on all kegs of beer at the time of sale and shall require the signing of a receipt for the keg of beer by the purchaser in order to allow kegs to be traced if the contents are used in violation of this article. The keg identification shall be in the form of a numbered label prescribed and supplied by the department that identifies the seller. The receipt shall be on a form prescribed and supplied by the department and shall include the name and address of the purchaser and the purchaser's driver's license number or equivalent form of identification number. A retailer shall not return any deposit upon the return of any keg that does not have the identification label required pursuant to subdivision (a).

(b) Any licensee selling keg beer for off premise consumption who fails to require the signing of a receipt at the time of sale and fails to place a numbered identification label on the keg shall be subject to disciplinary action pursuant to this division. The licensee shall retain a copy of the receipt, which shall be retained on the licensed premise for a period of six months. The receipt records shall be available for inspection and copying by the department or other authorized law enforcement agency.

(c) Possession of a keg containing beer with knowledge that the keg is not identified as required by subdivision (a) is a misdemeanor.

(d) Any purchaser of keg beer who knowingly provides false information as required by subdivision (a) is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(e) The identification label required pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be constructed of material and made attachable in such a manner as to make the label easily removable for the purpose of cleaning and reusing the keg by a beer manufacturer.

(f) The department is authorized to charge a fee not to exceed the actual cost of supplying receipt forms and identification labels required pursuant to subdivision (a). Fees collected pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited in the Alcohol Beverage Control Fund.

(g) As used in this section, "keg" means any brewery-sealed, individual container of beer having a liquid capacity of six gallons or more.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 271

An act to amend Section 3260 of the Civil Code, relating to works of improvement.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3260 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

3260. (a) This section is applicable with respect to all contracts entered into on or after July 1, 1991, relating to the construction of any private work of improvement. However, the amendments made to this section during the 1992 portion of the 1991–92 Regular Session of the Legislature are applicable only with respect to contracts entered into on or after January 1, 1993, relating to the construction of any private work of improvement. Moreover, the amendments made to this section during the 1993 portion of the 1993-94 Regular Session of the Legislature are applicable only with respect to contracts entered into on or after January 1, 1994, relating to the construction of any private work of improvement.

(b) The retention proceeds withheld from any payment by the owner from the original contractor, or by the original contractor from any subcontractor, shall be subject to this section.

(c) Within 45 days after the date of completion, the retention withheld by the owner shall be released. "Date of completion," for purposes of this section, means any of the following:

(1) The date of issuance of any certificate of occupancy covering the work by the public agency issuing the building permit.

(2) The date of completion indicated on a valid notice of completion recorded pursuant to Section 3093.

(3) The date of completion as defined in Section 3086.

However, release of retentions withheld for any portion of the work of improvement which ultimately will become the property of a public agency, may be conditioned upon the acceptance of the work by the public agency. In the event of a dispute between the owner and the original contractor, the owner may withhold from the final payment an amount not to exceed 150 percent of the disputed amount.

(d) Subject to subdivision (e), within 10 days from the time that all or any portion of the retention proceeds are received by the original contractor, the original contractor shall pay each of its subcontractors from whom retention has been withheld, each subcontractor's share of the retention received. However, if a retention payment received by the original contractor is specifically designated for a particular subcontractor, payment of the retention shall be made to the designated subcontractor, if the payment is consistent with the terms of the subcontract.

(e) The original contractor may withhold from a subcontractor its portion of the retention proceeds if a bona fide dispute exists between the subcontractor and the original contractor. The amount withheld from the retention payment shall not exceed 150 percent of the estimated value of the disputed amount.

(f) Within 10 days of receipt of written notice by the owner from the original contractor or by the original contractor from the subcontractor, as the case may be, that any work in dispute has been completed in accordance with the terms of the contract, the owner or original contractor shall advise the notifying party of the acceptance or rejection of the disputed work. Within 10 days of acceptance of the disputed work, the owner or original contractor, as the case may be, shall release the retained portion of the retention proceeds.

(g) In the event that retention payments are not made within the time periods required by this section, the owner or original contractor withholding the unpaid amounts shall be subject to a charge of 2 percent per month on the improperly withheld amount, in lieu of any interest otherwise due. Additionally, in any action for the collection of funds wrongfully withheld, the prevailing party shall be entitled to his or her attorney's fees and costs.

(h) It shall be against public policy for any party to require any other party to waive any provision of this section.

(i) This section shall not be construed to apply to retentions withheld by a lender in accordance with the construction loan agreement.

CHAPTER 272

An act to amend Sections 39005 and 81033 of, and to repeal Section 81034 of, the Education Code, to amend Section 14007 of the Government Code, to amend Sections 21602, 99234, and 102051 of the Public Utilities Code, to amend Section 101.8 of, and to add Section 2121 to, the Streets and Highways Code, and to amend Sections 410, 635, 4453, 4461, 4604, 11713.3, 12500, 12502, 12505, 12517.2, 12524, 12802, 12804.2, 12804.7, 12810.5, 12812, 13352, 14606, 15250.5, 15250.6, 15255, 15255.1, 15275, 21456.1, 21801, 22450, 22651, 22658, 23157, 23161, 23166, 23168, 23186, 23195, 34500, 34505.1, 34505.6, 35581, 35780.3, 36305, and 40508 of, and to amend and repeal Sections 12804.9 and 12804.12 of, and to repeal Sections 12804 and 23157 of, the Vehicle Code, relating to transportation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor July 30, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State August 2, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Omnibus Transportation Act of 1993.

SEC. 2. Section 39005 of the Education Code is amended to read:

39005. (a) The requirements set forth in this section are designed to promote the safety of pupils, comprehensive community planning, and greater educational usefulness of schoolsites.

(b) Before acquiring title to property for a new schoolsite, or for an addition to a present site, as to any site that is within two miles, measured by air line, of any point on an airport runway, or a runway proposed by an airport master plan, that is nearest the site, the governing board of each school district, including any district governed by a city board of education, shall give the Department of Transportation written notice of the proposed acquisition and shall submit any information required by the department. If the Department of Transportation is no longer in operation, the school district governing board shall, in lieu of notifying the Department of Transportation, notify the United States Department of Transportation or any other appropriate agency, in writing, of the proposed acquisition for the purpose of obtaining from the department or other agency any information or assistance that it may desire to give.

The Department of Transportation shall investigate the proposed site and, within 30 working days after receipt of the notice, shall submit to the governing board a written report and its recommendations concerning acquisition of the site. The governing board shall not acquire title to the property until the report of the Department of Transportation has been received. If the report does not favor the acquisition of the property for a schoolsite or an addition to a present schoolsite, the governing board shall not acquire title to the property until 30 days after the department's report is received and until the department's report has been read at a public hearing duly called after 10 days' notice published once in a newspaper of general circulation within the school district or, if there is no such newspaper, in a newspaper of general circulation within the county in which the property is located.

SEC. 3. Section 81033 of the Education Code is amended to read:

81033. (a) The governing board of a community college district, prior to acquiring any site on which it proposes to construct any school building as defined in Section 81131 shall have the site, or sites, under consideration investigated by competent personnel to ensure that the final site selection is determined by an evaluation of all factors affecting the public interest and is not limited to selection on the basis of raw land cost only. If the prospective college site is located within the boundaries of any special studies zone or within an area designated as geologically hazardous in the safety element of the local general plan as provided in subdivision (g) of Section 65302 of the Government Code, the investigation shall include any geological and soil engineering studies by competent personnel needed to provide an assessment of the nature of the site and potential for earthquake or other geological hazard damage.

The geological and soil engineering studies of the site shall be of a nature as will preclude siting of a college in any location where the geological and site characteristics are such that the construction effort required to make the school building safe for occupancy is economically unfeasible. No studies are required to be made if the site or sites under consideration have been the subject of adequate prior studies. The evaluation shall also include location of the site with respect to population, transportation, water supply, waste disposal facilities, utilities, traffic hazards, surface drainage conditions, and other factors affecting the operating costs, as well as the initial costs, of the total project.

For the purposes of this article, a special studies zone is an area which is identified as a special studies zone on any map, or maps, compiled by the State Geologist pursuant to Chapter 7.5 (commencing with Section 2621) of Division 2 of the Public Resources Code. A copy of the report of each investigation conducted pursuant to this section shall be submitted to the board of governors.

(b) Geological and soil engineering studies as described in subdivision (a) shall be made, within the boundaries of any special studies zone, for the construction of any building as defined in Section 81131 or, if the estimated cost exceeds twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), for the reconstruction or alteration of or addition to any such building for work which alters structural elements. The Department of General Services may require similar geological and soil engineering studies for the construction or alteration of any building on a site located outside of the boundaries of any special studies zone. These studies need not be made if the site under consideration has been the subject of adequate prior studies.

No building shall be constructed, reconstructed, or relocated on the trace of a geological fault along which surface rupture can reasonably be expected to occur within the life of the school building.

A copy of the report of each investigation conducted pursuant to this section shall be submitted to the Department of General Services pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 81130) and to the Chancellor's office of the California Community Colleges. The cost of geological and soil engineering studies and investigations conducted pursuant to this section may be treated as a capital expenditure.

(c) To promote the safety of students, comprehensive community planning, and greater educational usefulness of community college sites, the governing board of each community college district, if the proposed site is within two miles, measured by air line, of that point on an airport runway, or runway proposed by an airport master plan, which is nearest the site and excluding them if the property is not so located, before acquiring title to property for a new community college site or for an addition to a present site, shall give the board of governors notice in writing of the proposed acquisition and shall submit any information required by the board of governors.

Immediately after receiving notice of the proposed acquisition of property which is within two miles, measured by air line, of that point on an airport runway, or runway proposed by an airport master plan, which is nearest the site, the board of governors shall notify the Division of Aeronautics of the Department of Transportation, in writing, of the proposed acquisition. The Division of Aeronautics shall make an investigation and report to the board of governors within 30 working days after receipt of the notice. If the Division of Aeronautics is no longer in operation, the board of governors shall, in lieu of notifying the Division of Aeronautics, notify the Federal Aviation Administration or any other appropriate agency, in writing, of the proposed acquisition for the purpose of obtaining from the authority or other agency any information or assistance it may desire to give.

The board of governors shall investigate the proposed site and within 35 working days after receipt of the notice shall submit to the governing board a written report and its recommendations concerning acquisition of the site. The governing board shall not acquire title to the property until the report of the board of governors has been received. If the report does not favor the acquisition of the property for a community college site or an addition to a present community college site, the governing board shall not acquire title to the property until 30 days after the department's report is received and until the board of governors' report has been read at a public hearing duly called after 10 days' notice published once in a newspaper of general circulation within the community college district, or if there is no such newspaper, then in a newspaper of general circulation within the county in which the property is located.

(d) If, with respect to a proposed site located within two miles of an operative airport runway, the report of the board of governors submitted to a community college district governing board under subdivision (c) does not favor the acquisition of the site on the sole or partial basis of the unfavorable recommendation of the Division of Aeronautics of the Department of Transportation, no state agency or officer shall grant, apportion, or allow to that community college district for expenditure in connection with that site, any state funds otherwise made available under any state law whatever for community college site acquisition or college building construction, or for expansion of existing sites and buildings, and no funds of the community college district or of the county in which the district lies shall be expended for such purposes. However, the provisions of this section shall not be applicable to sites acquired prior to January 1, 1966, nor to any additions or extensions to those sites.

If the recommendation of the Division of Aeronautics is unfavorable, the recommendation shall not be overruled without the express approval of the board of governors and the State Allocation Board.

(e) No action undertaken by the board of governors or by any other state agency or by any political subdivision pursuant to this chapter, or in compliance with this chapter, shall be construed to affect any rights arising under the provisions of Section 19 of Article I of the California Constitution.

SEC. 4. Section 81034 of the Education Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 14007 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14007. For the purpose of administration, the director shall organize the department with the approval of the Governor and the secretary in the manner that they deem necessary properly to segregate and conduct the work of the department.

The work of the department shall be divided into at least five divisions, known as the Division of Highways, Division of Aeronautics, Division of Mass Transportation, Division of Procurement and Services, and the Legal Division.

With the approval of the Governor and the secretary, the director may create, change, or abolish such other divisions and subdivisions as may be necessary.

Any reference in any law or regulation to the Division of Bay Toll Crossings shall be deemed to refer to the department.

SEC. 6. Section 21602 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

21602. (a) Subject to the terms and within the limits of special appropriations made by the Legislature, the department may render financial assistance by grant or loan, or both, to political subdivisions jointly, in the planning, acquisition, construction, improvement, maintenance, or operation of an airport owned or controlled, or to be owned or controlled, by a political subdivision or subdivisions, if the financial assistance has been shown by public hearing to be appropriate to the proper development or maintenance of a statewide system of airports. Financial assistance may be furnished in connection with federal or other financial aid for the same purpose.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of Section 21681, a city or county designated by the Airport Land Use Commission is eligible to compete for funds held in the Aeronautics Account in the State Transportation Fund on behalf of any privately owned, public use airport that is included in a Comprehensive Land Use Plan. However, the city or county shall be eligible to compete for the funds only when zoning on the parcel is tantamount to a taking of all reasonable uses that might otherwise be permitted on the parcel. The eligible airport and aviation purposes are limited to those specified in paragraphs (4), (5), (6), (9), and (14) of subdivision (f) of Section 21681, and, further, any such capital improvements or acquisitions shall become the property of the designated city or county. Matching funds pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 21684 may include the in-kind contribution of real property, with the approval of the department.

(c) Any grant of funds held in the Aeronautics Account in the State Highway Account on behalf of any privately owned airports shall contain a covenant that the airport remain open for public use for 20 years. Any grant made to a city or county on behalf of a privately owned airport shall contain a payback provision based upon existing market value at the time the private airport ceases to be open for public use.

(d) Upon request, California Aid to Airports Program (CAAP) projects included within the adopted Aeronautics Program, may be funded in advance of the year programmed, with the concurrence of the department, in order to better utilize funds in the account.

(e) There is, in the Aeronautics Account in the State Transportation Fund, a subaccount for the management of funds for loans to local entities pursuant to this chapter. All funds for airport loans in the Special Deposit Fund are hereby transferred to the subaccount. With the approval of the Department of Finance, the department shall deposit in the subaccount all money received by the department from repayments of and interest on existing and future airport loans including, but not limited to, the sums of five hundred forty thousand dollars ($540,000) in repayments from the General Fund due in July 1987, and July 1988, and may, upon appropriation, transfer additional funds from the Aeronautics Account in the State Transportation Fund to the subaccount as the department deems appropriate. Interest on money in the subaccount shall be credited to the subaccount as it accrues.

(f) Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, the money in the subaccount created by subdivision (e) is hereby continuously appropriated to the department without regard to fiscal years for purposes of loans to political subdivisions for airport purposes.

SEC. 7. Section 99234 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

99234. (a) Claims for facilities provided for the exclusive use of pedestrians and bicycles or for bicycle safety education programs shall be filed according to the rules and regulations adopted by the transportation planning agency.

(b) The money shall be allocated for the construction, including related engineering expenses, of those facilities pursuant to procedures or criteria established by the transportation planning agency for the area within its jurisdiction, or for bicycle safety education programs.

(c) The money may be allocated for the maintenance of bicycling trails which are closed to motorized traffic pursuant to procedures or criteria established by the transportation planning agency for the area within its jurisdiction.

(d) The money may be allocated without respect to Section 99231 and shall not be included in determining the apportionments to a city or county for purposes of Sections 99233.7 to 99233.9, inclusive.

(e) Facilities provided for the use of bicycles may include projects that serve the needs of commuting bicyclists, including, but not limited to, new trails serving major transportation corridors, secure bicycle parking at employment centers, park and ride lots, and transit terminals where other funds are unavailable.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a planning agency established in Title 7.1 (commencing with Section 66500) of the Government Code may allocate the money to the Association of Bay Area Governments for activities required by Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 5850) of Division 5 of the Public Resources Code.

(g) Within 30 days after receiving a request for a review from any city or county, the transportation planning agency shall review its allocations made pursuant to Section 99233.3.

(h) In addition to the purposes authorized in this section, a portion of the amount available to a city or county pursuant to Section 99233.3 may be allocated to develop a comprehensive bicycle and pedestrian facilities plan, with an emphasis on bicycle projects intended to accommodate bicycle commuters rather than recreational bicycle users. An allocation under this subdivision may not be made more than once every five years.

SEC. 8. Section 102051 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

102051. The district may comprise the Cities of Davis, Folsom, Roseville, Sacramento, and Woodland, and the following described unincorporated territory of the Counties of Sacramento and Yolo:

(a) The unincorporated territory of the County of Sacramento which may be included is described as follows:

(2) Beginning at the intersection of State Highway Route 113 and the Yolo County line southern boundary; thence easterly along the Yolo County line southern boundary to the Davis City Limits; thence meandering along the Davis City Limits to Russell Boulevard; thence westerly along Russell Boulevard to Route 113; thence southerly along Route 113 to the point of beginning.

For purposes of this section, any reference to an avenue, boulevard, highway, railroad, road, or street includes the right-of-way thereof.

SEC. 9. Section 101.8 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

101.8. (a) The department may design, place, and maintain, or cause to be designed, placed, and maintained, along state highways, signs to inform motorists of rail transportation services which receive public funding, in whole or in part, unless the sign would result in incurring the penalty specified in subsection (b) of Section 131 of Title 23 of the United States Code.

(b) These signs may only be placed within the right-of-way of state highways that are parallel or adjacent to publicly funded passenger rail routes.

(c) The signs are information structures or information signs as those terms are used in Sections 5203 and 5221 of the Business and Professions Code.

SEC. 10. Section 2121 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

2121. (a) In May of each year each county shall submit to the department any additions or exclusions from its mileage of maintained county highways, specifying the termini and mileage of each route added or excluded from its county maintained roads. The department shall either approve or disapprove each such inclusion or exclusion and in the event of a disapproval the county shall have the right to appeal as provided in Section 74. The department shall as required by the Controller certify to him or her county mileage figures. No appeal shall affect any apportionment made by the Controller pending the determination of the appeal. If, on appeal, additional mileage is allowed the county, the department shall immediately certify the corrected figure to the Controller, and the same shall be used for subsequent apportionments.

On relinquishing any state highway or portion thereof to a county, the department shall immediately certify to the Controller the mileage so relinquished and the same shall immediately be added to the county's maintained mileage of county roads for purposes of subsequent apportionments.

SEC. 11. Section 410 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

410. A "motor truck" or "motortruck" is a motor vehicle designed, used, or maintained primarily for the transportation of property.

SEC. 12. Section 635 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

635. A "trailer coach" is a vehicle, other than a motor vehicle, designed for human habitation or human occupancy for industrial, professional, or commercial purposes, for carrying property on its own structure, and for being drawn by a motor vehicle. A "park trailer," as described in subdivision (b) of Section 18010 of the Health and Safety Code, is a trailer coach.

SEC. 13. Section 4453 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

4453. (a) The registration card shall contain upon its face, the date issued, the name and residence or business address of the owner and of the legal owner, if any, the registration number assigned to the vehicle, and a description of the vehicle as complete as that required in the application for registration of the vehicle.

(b) A motor vehicle of a type included in this subdivision shall be identified as such on the face of the registration card, whenever the department is able to ascertain that fact, at the time application is made for initial registration or transfer of ownership of the vehicle.

(1) A motor vehicle rebuilt and restored to operation which was previously declared to be a total loss salvage vehicle because the cost of repairs exceeds the retail value of the vehicle.

(2) A motor vehicle rebuilt and restored to operation which was previously reported to be dismantled pursuant to Section 11520.

(3) A motor vehicle previously registered to a law enforcement agency and operated in law enforcement work.

(4) A motor vehicle formerly operated as a taxicab.

(5) A motor vehicle manufactured outside of the United States and not intended by the manufacturer for sale in the United States.

(6) A park trailer, as described in subdivision (b) of Section 18010 of the Health and Safety Code, which when moved upon the highway is required to be moved under a permit pursuant to Section 35780.

(7) A motor vehicle returned to a dealer or manufacturer pursuant to a consumer warranty law due to a defect, including vehicles with out-of-state titling documents that reflect a return.

(c) The director may modify the form, arrangement, and information appearing on the face of the registration card and may provide for standardization and abbreviation of fictitious or firm names on the registration card whenever the director finds that the efficiency of the department will be promoted by so doing, except that general delivery or post office box numbers shall not be permitted as the address of the registered owner unless there is no other address.

SEC. 14. Section 4461 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

4461. (a) No person shall lend any certificate of ownership, registration card, license plate, special plate, validation tab, or permit issued to him or her if the person desiring to borrow it would not be entitled to its use, nor shall any person knowingly permit its use by one not entitled to it.

(b) No person to whom a disabled person placard has been issued shall lend the placard to any other person, nor shall any disabled person knowingly permit the use of the placard by one not entitled to it. A person to whom a disabled person placard has been issued may permit another person to use the placard only while in the presence or reasonable proximity of the disabled person for the purpose of transporting the disabled person. A violation of this subdivision is a misdemeanor.

(c) Except for the purpose of transporting disabled persons as specified in subdivision (b), no person shall display any disabled person placard that was not issued to him or her or that has been canceled or revoked pursuant to Section 22511.6. A violation of this subdivision is a misdemeanor.

(d) For the purposes of subdivisions (b) and (c), "disabled person placard" means a placard issued pursuant to Section 22511.55.

SEC. 15. Section 4604 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

4604. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (d), prior to the expiration of the registration of a vehicle, if that registration is not to be renewed prior to its expiration, the owner of the vehicle shall file, under penalty of perjury, a certification that the vehicle will not be operated, moved, or left standing upon any highway during the subsequent registration year without first making an application for registration of the vehicle, including full payment of all fees. The certification is valid only for the following registration year for the vehicle, but may be renewed annually not more than 60 days prior to its expiration.

(b) Each certification filed pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be accompanied by a filing fee of five dollars ($5).

(c) (1) An application for renewal of registration, except when accompanied by an application for transfer of title to, or any interest in, the vehicle, shall be submitted to the department with payment of the required fees for the current registration year and without penalty for delinquent payment of fees imposed under this code or under Part 5 (commencing with Section 10701) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code if the department receives the application prior to or on the date the vehicle is first operated, moved, or left standing upon any highway during the current registration year and the certification required pursuant to subdivision (a) was timely filed with the department.

(2) If an application for renewal of registration is accompanied by an application for transfer of title, that application may be made without incurring a penalty for delinquent payment of fees not later than 20 days after the date the vehicle is first operated, moved, or left standing on any highway if a certification pursuant to subdivision (a) was timely filed with the department.

(d) A certification is not required to be filed pursuant to subdivision (a) for any of the following:

(1) A vehicle on which the registration expires while being held as inventory by a dealer or lessor-retailer or while being held pending a lien sale by the keeper of a garage or operator of a towing service.

(2) A vehicle registered pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 8050) of Chapter 4 of Division 3.

(3) A vehicle described in Section 5004, 5004.5, 5004.6, or 5051, as provided in Section 4604.2. However, the registered owner may file a certificate of nonoperation in lieu of the certification specified in subdivision (a).

(4) A vehicle registered pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 9700) of Chapter 6 if the registered owner has complied with subdivision (c) of Section 9706.

(e) For purposes of this section, a "vehicle" is, notwithstanding Section 670, a device by which any person or property may be propelled, moved, or driven upon a highway having intact and assembled its major component parts including, but not limited to, the frame or chassis, cowl, and floor pan or, in the case of a trailer, the frame and wheels or, in the case of a motorcycle, the frame, front fork, and engine. For purposes of this section, "vehicle" does not include a device moved exclusively by human power, a device used exclusively upon stationary rails or tracks, or a motorized wheelchair.

SEC. 16. Section 11713.3 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

11713.3. It is unlawful and a violation of this code for any manufacturer, manufacturer branch, distributor, or distributor branch licensed under this code to do any of the following:

(a) To refuse or fail to deliver in reasonable quantities and within a reasonable time after receipt of an order from a dealer having a franchise for the retail sale of any new vehicle sold or distributed by the manufacturer or distributor, any new vehicle or parts or accessories to new vehicles as are covered by the franchise, if the vehicle, parts, or accessories are publicly advertised as being available for delivery or actually being delivered. This subdivision is not violated, however, if the failure is caused by acts or causes beyond the control of the manufacturer, manufacturer branch, distributor, or distributor branch.

(b) To prevent or require, or attempt to prevent or require, by contract or otherwise, any change in the capital structure of a dealership or the means by or through which the dealer finances the operation of the dealership, provided that the dealer at all times meets any reasonable capital standards agreed to by the dealer and the manufacturer or distributor, and also provided that no change in capital structure shall cause a change in the principal management or have the effect of a sale of the franchise without the consent of the manufacturer or distributor.

(c) To prevent or require, or attempt to prevent or require, a dealer to change the executive management of a dealership, other than the principal dealership operator or operators if the franchise was granted the dealer in reliance upon the personal qualifications of such person or persons.

(d) To prevent or require, or attempt to prevent or require, by contract or otherwise, any dealer, or any officer, partner, or stockholder of any dealership, the sale or transfer of any part of the interest of any of them to any other person or persons. No dealer, officer, partner, or stockholder shall, however, have the right to sell, transfer, or assign the franchise, or any right thereunder, without the consent of the manufacturer or distributor except that the consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(e) To prevent, or attempt to prevent, a dealer from receiving fair and reasonable compensation for the value of the franchised business. There shall be no transfer or assignment of the dealer's franchise without the consent of the manufacturer or distributor, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(f) To obtain money, goods, service, or any other benefit from any other person with whom the dealer does business, on account of, or in relation to, the transaction between the dealer and that other person, other than for compensation for services rendered, unless the benefit is promptly accounted for, and transmitted to, the dealer.

(g) To require a dealer to prospectively assent to a release, assignment, novation, waiver, or estoppel which would relieve any person from liability to be imposed by this article or to require any controversy between a dealer and a manufacturer, distributor, or representative, to be referred to any person other than the board, if the referral would be binding on the dealer. This subdivision does not, however, prohibit arbitration before an independent arbitrator.

(h) To increase prices of motor vehicles which the dealer had ordered for private retail consumers prior to the dealer's receipt of the written official price increase notification. A sales contract signed by a private retail consumer is evidence of each such order. In the event of manufacturer price reductions, the amount of the reduction received by a dealer shall be passed on to the private retail consumer by the dealer if the retail price was negotiated on the basis of the previous higher price to the dealer. Price reductions apply to all vehicles in the dealer's inventory which were subject to the price reduction. Price differences applicable to new model or series motor vehicles at the time of the introduction of new models or series shall not be considered a price increase or price decrease. Price changes caused by either (1) the addition to a motor vehicle of required or optional equipment pursuant to state or federal law, or (2) revaluation of the United States dollar in the case of foreign-make vehicles, are not subject to this subdivision.

(i) To fail to pay to a dealer, within a reasonable time following receipt of a valid claim by a dealer thereof, any payment agreed to be made by the manufacturer or distributor to the dealer by reason of the fact that a new vehicle of a prior year model is in the dealer's inventory at the time of introduction of new model vehicles. A manufacturer or distributor shall not authorize or enable any new model or series passenger vehicle or station wagon to be delivered by dealers at retail more than 30 days prior to the eligibility date of the model change allowance payment for prior year model vehicles.

(j) To deny the widow or heirs designated by a deceased owner of a dealership, the opportunity to participate in the ownership of the dealership or successor dealership under a valid franchise for a reasonable time after the death of the owner.

(k) To offer any refunds or other types of inducements to any person for the purchase of new motor vehicles of a certain line-make to be sold to the state or any political subdivision thereof without making the same offer to all other dealers in the same line-make within the relevant market area.

(l) To modify, replace, enter into, relocate, terminate or refuse to renew a franchise in violation of Article 4 (commencing with Section 3060) of Chapter 6 of Division 2.

(m) To employ a person as a representative who has not been licensed pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 11900) of Chapter 4 of Division 5.

(n) To deny any dealer the right of free association with any other dealer for any lawful purpose.

(o) To compete with a dealer in the same line-make operating under an agreement or franchise from a manufacturer or distributor in the relevant market area. A manufacturer or distributor shall not, however, be deemed to be competing when operating a dealership either temporarily for a reasonable period, or in a bona fide retail operation which is for sale to any qualified independent person at a fair and reasonable price, or in a bona fide relationship in which an independent person has made a significant investment subject to loss in the dealership and can reasonably expect to acquire full ownership of the dealership on reasonable terms and conditions. A distributor shall not be deemed to be competing when a wholly owned subsidiary corporation of the distributor sells motor vehicles at retail, if, for at least three years prior to January 1, 1973, the subsidiary corporation has been a wholly owned subsidiary of the distributor and engaged in the sale of vehicles at retail.

(p) To unfairly discriminate among its franchisees with respect to warranty reimbursement or authority granted its franchisees to make warranty adjustments with retail customers.

(q) To sell vehicles to persons not licensed under this chapter for resale.

(r) To fail to affix an identification number to any park trailer, as described in subdivision (b) of Section 18010 of the Health and Safety

Code, which is manufactured on or after January 1, 1987, and which does not clearly identify the unit as a park trailer to the department. The configuration of the identification number shall be approved by the department.

SEC. 17. Section 12500 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

12500. (a) No person shall drive a motor vehicle upon a highway, unless the person then holds a driver's license issued under this code, except those persons who are expressly exempted under this code.

(b) No person shall drive any motorcycle, motor-driven cycle, or motorized bicycle upon a highway, unless the person then holds a driver's license or endorsement issued under this code for that class, except those persons who are expressly exempted under this code, or those persons specifically authorized to operate motorized bicycles with a class C licenses as specified in subdivision (g) of Section 12804.9.

(c) No person shall drive a motor vehicle or combination of vehicles that is not of a type for which the person is licensed.

(d) No person shall drive a motor vehicle in or upon any offstreet parking facility, unless the person then holds a driver's license of the appropriate class or certification to operate the vehicle. As used in this subdivision, "offstreet parking facility" means any offstreet facility held open for use by the public for parking vehicles and includes any publicly owned facilities for offstreet parking, and privately owned facilities for offstreet parking where no fee is charged for the privilege to park and which are held open for the common public use of retail customers.

SEC. 18. Section 12502 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

12502. (a) The following persons may operate a motor vehicle in this state without obtaining a driver's license under this code:

(1) A nonresident over the age of 18 years having in his or her immediate possession a valid driver's license issued by a foreign jurisdiction of which he or she is a resident, except as provided in Section 12505.

(2) A nonresident having in his or her immediate possession a valid driver's license, issued by the Diplomatic Motor Vehicle Office of the Office of Foreign Missions of the United States Department of State, for the type of motor vehicle or combination of vehicles that the person is operating.

(b) Any person entitled to the exemption contained in subdivision (a), while operating, within this state, a commercial vehicle, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 15210, shall have in his or her possession a current medical certificate of a type described in subdivision (c) of Section 12804.9, which has been issued within two years of the date of operation of that vehicle.

SEC. 19. Section 12505 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

12505. (a) For purposes of this division only and notwithstanding Section 516, residency shall be determined as a person's state of domicile. "State of domicile" means the state where a person has his or her true, fixed, and permanent home and principal residence and to which he or she has manifested the intention of returning whenever he or she is absent.

Prima facie evidence of residency for driver's licensing purposes includes, but is not limited to, the following:

(1) Address where registered to vote.

(2) Payment of resident tuition at a public institution of higher education.

(3) Filing a homeowner's property tax exemption.

(4) Other acts, occurrences, or events that indicate presence in the state is more than temporary or transient.

(b) The presumption of residency in this state may be rebutted by satisfactory evidence that the licensee's primary residence is in another state.

(c) Any person entitled to an exemption under Section 12502, 12503, or 12504 may operate a motor vehicle in this state for not to exceed 10 days from the date he or she establishes residence in this state, except that he or she shall obtain a license from the department upon becoming a resident before being employed for compensation by another for the purpose of driving a motor vehicle on the highways.

(d) Subject to Section 12504, any person over the age of 16 years who is a resident of a foreign jurisdiction other than a state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or Canada, having a valid driver's license issued to him or her by any other foreign jurisdiction having licensing standards deemed by the Department of Motor Vehicles equivalent to those of this state, may operate a motor vehicle in this state without obtaining a license from the department, except that he or she shall obtain a license before being employed for compensation by another for the purpose of driving a motor vehicle on the highways.

(e) Any person from a foreign country, except a territory or possession of the United States, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or Canada, shall obtain a class A or a class B license from the department before operating on the highways a motor vehicle for which a class A or class B license is required, as described in Section 12804.9. The medical examination form required for issuance of a class A or class B driver's license shall be completed by a physician licensed to practice medicine in the United States of America. This subdivision does not apply to (1) drivers of schoolbuses operated in California on a trip for educational purposes or (2) drivers of vehicles used to provide the services of a local public agency.

(f) Nothing in this section authorizes the employment of a person in violation of Section 12515.

SEC. 20. Section 12517.2 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

12517.2. (a) Applicants for an original or renewal certificate to drive a schoolbus, school pupil activity bus, youth bus, general public paratransit vehicle, or farm labor vehicle shall submit a report of a medical examination of the applicant given not more than two years prior to the date of the application by a physician licensed to practice medicine. The report shall be on a form approved by the department, the Federal Highway Administration, or the Federal Aviation Administration.

(b) Schoolbus drivers, within the same month of reaching the age of 65 and each 12th month thereafter, shall undergo a physical examination, pursuant to Section 12804.9, and submit a report of medical examination on a form as specified in subdivision (a).

SEC. 21. Section 12524 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

12524. (a) No class A, class B, or class C driver's licenseholder shall operate a vehicle hauling fissile class III shipments or large quantity radioactive materials, as defined in Section 173.403 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, unless the driver possesses a valid license of the appropriate class and a radioactive materials driver's certificate, issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles, which permits the driver to operate those vehicles.

(b) Applicants for the certificates shall present evidence to the Department of Motor Vehicles that they have successfully completed the radioactive materials hauler driving training course developed by the Department of Motor Vehicles and the Department of the California Highway Patrol before a certificate may be issued. Either the employer of the driver or a driving school licensed pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 11100) of Division 5 may administer the training course.

(c) The certificate shall be issued only to applicants qualified by examinations prescribed by the Department of Motor Vehicles and the Department of the California Highway Patrol. These examinations shall be conducted by the Department of Motor Vehicles, and an examination fee of twelve dollars ($12) shall be paid by the applicant to the Department of Motor Vehicles.

(d) Any application for an original radioactive materials driver's certificate or renewal of the certificate and any radioactive materials driver's certificate issued pursuant to this section shall be subject to the provisions of Section 13369.

SEC. 22. Section 12802 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

12802. Every original application shall be signed and verified by the applicant before a person authorized to administer oaths and the applicant shall submit such evidence of age as the department may require, and, if the applicant is a minor, the application shall also be signed and verified as provided in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 17700) of Division 9.

SEC. 23. Section 12804 of the Vehicle Code is repealed.

SEC. 24. Section 12804.2 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

12804.2. (a) Notwithstanding Section 15275, a person with at least a class C driver's license is exempt from the endorsement requirements of Section 15275 if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The person is employed in an agricultural operation and is driving a vehicle, other than a vehicle used in common or contract motor carriage, controlled by a farmer and transporting agricultural products or farm machinery or supplies to or from a farm.

(2) (A) The person has completed an agricultural hazardous materials transportation program offered or approved by the Department of the California Highway Patrol. The Department of the California Highway Patrol shall make the program available at no cost, and the program shall contain information specifically applicable to the safe transportation of agricultural chemicals and shall not be less than two hours in length. If the commissioner determines that the program cannot be offered in a particular area of the state because of personnel constraints, a person in that area may instead comply with this requirement by receiving agricultural hazardous materials training, in a program and manner approved by the Department of the California Highway Patrol, from an organization or a person in a supervisory position that has been certified by the Department of the California Highway Patrol.

(B) Upon successful completion of the program specified in subparagraph (A), a verification of training, valid for four years, shall be issued by the instructor and shall be carried by the person when operating an implement of husbandry or a motor vehicle required to display placards or markings pursuant to Section 27903 or which is hauling hazardous waste, as defined in Sections 25115 and 25117 of the Health and Safety Code. Within 10 days of issuance by the instructor, a copy of the verification shall be forwarded by the person completing the training to the department for inclusion on the permanent driving record of the person, together with a fee of twelve dollars ($12).

(C) The department, in consultation with the Department of the California Highway Patrol, shall develop a suitable form for verification of training.

(3) The person has, within the vehicle, informational material approved by the Department of the California Highway Patrol, in both English and Spanish, outlining basic safety procedures to be followed in the event of an accident. The Department of the California Highway Patrol shall provide the information required by this subdivision and make it available at no cost to the person.

(4) The person is operating a vehicle which is an implement of husbandry or a motor vehicle requiring a class C driver's license and the distance which the vehicle is being operated between the final point of distribution and the ultimate point of application or from part of a farm to another part thereof, or from one farm to another, is not more than 50 miles.

(5) In lieu of a report of a medical examination required by Section 12804.9, an applicant for a certificate pursuant to paragraph (3) shall, upon application and every two years thereafter, submit medical information on a form approved by the department. A person who obtains a verification of training pursuant to this section, but does not meet the medical requirements for a hazardous materials endorsement established by the department under Section 12804.9, is not qualified to transport hazardous materials.

(6) For purposes of the penalties and sanctions prescribed by Article 7 (commencing with Section 15300) of Chapter 7, the operation of a vehicle pursuant to this subdivision is deemed to be the operation of a commercial motor vehicle.

(b) Implementation dates for this section may be established by the Department of Motor Vehicles by regulation in order to accomplish an orderly certification program.

SEC. 25. Section 12804.7 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

12804.7. Notwithstanding subdivision (b) of Section 12804.9, class C also includes any two-axle motortruck or implement of husbandry weighing 4,000 pounds or more unladen when towing an implement of husbandry as specified in subdivision (n) of Section 36005, except that those vehicles shall not be operated in excess of 25 miles per hour on the highways and for not more than 25 miles on the highway from their point of origin.

SEC. 26. Section 12804.9 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by Section 19 of Chapter 928 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

12804.9. (a) (1) The examination shall include all of the following:

(A) A test of the applicant's knowledge and understanding of the provisions of this code governing the operation of vehicles upon the highways.

(B) A test of the applicant's ability to read and understand simple English used in highway traffic and directional signs.

(C) A test of the applicant's understanding of traffic signs and signals, including the bikeway signs, markers, and traffic control devices established by the Department of Transportation.

(D) An actual demonstration of the applicant's ability to exercise ordinary and reasonable control in operating a motor vehicle by driving it under the supervision of an examining officer. The applicant shall submit to an examination appropriate to the type of motor vehicle or combination of vehicles he or she desires a license to drive, except that the department may waive the driving test part of the examination of any applicant who holds a valid license issued by another state, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. The examining officer may request to see evidence of financial responsibility for the vehicle prior to supervising the demonstration of the applicant's ability to operate the vehicle. The examining officer may refuse to examine an applicant who is unable to provide proof of financial responsibility for the vehicle, unless proof of financial responsibility is not required by this code.

(E) A test of the hearing and eyesight of the applicant, and of other matters that may be necessary to determine the applicant's mental and physical fitness to operate a motor vehicle upon the highways, and whether any ground exists for refusal of a license under this code.

(2) The examination for a class A or class B license under subdivision (b) shall also include a report of a medical examination of the applicant given not more than two years prior to the date of the application by a physician licensed to practice medicine or by a licensed physician's assistant or nurse practitioner under the supervision of a physician and surgeon licensed to practice medicine. The report shall be on a form approved by the department, the Federal Highway Administration, or the Federal Aviation Administration. In establishing the requirements, consideration may be given to the standards presently required of motor carrier drivers by the Federal Highway Administration.

(3) Any physical defect of the applicant, which, in the opinion of the department, is compensated for to ensure safe driving ability, shall not prevent the issuance of a license to the applicant.

(b) Beginning on January 1, 1989, in accordance with the following classifications, any applicant for a driver's license shall be required to submit to an examination appropriate to the type of motor vehicle or combination of vehicles the applicant desires a license to drive:

(1) Class A includes the following:

(A) Any combination of vehicles, if any vehicle being towed has a gross vehicle weight rating of more than 10,000 pounds.

(B) Any vehicle towing more than one vehicle.

(C) Any trailer bus.

(D) The operation of all vehicles under class B and class C.

(2) Class B includes the following:

(A) Any single vehicle with a gross vehicle weight rating of more than 26,000 pounds.

(B) Any single vehicle with three or more axles, except any three-axle vehicle weighing less than 6,000 pounds.

(C) Any bus except a trailer bus.

(D) Any farm labor vehicle.

(E) Any single vehicle with three or more axles or a gross vehicle weight rating of more than 26,000 pounds towing another vehicle with a gross vehicle weight rating of 10,000 pounds or less.

(F) The operation of all vehicles covered under class C.

(3) Class C includes the following:

(A) Any two-axle vehicle with a gross vehicle weight rating of 26,000 pounds or less, including when the vehicle is towing a trailer or semitrailer with a gross vehicle weight rating of 10,000 pounds or less.

(B) Notwithstanding subparagraph (A), any two-axle vehicle weighing 4,000 pounds or more unladen when towing a trailer coach not exceeding 9,000 pounds gross.

(C) Any housecar.

(D) Any three-axle vehicle weighing 6,000 pounds or less gross.

(E) Any housecar or vehicle towing another vehicle with a gross vehicle weight rating of 10,000 pounds or less, including when a tow dolly is used. No vehicle shall tow another vehicle in violation of Section 21715.

(F) (i) Any two-axle vehicle weighing 4,000 pounds or more unladen when towing either a trailer coach or a fifth-wheel travel trailer not exceeding 10,000 pounds gross vehicle weight rating, when the towing of the trailer is not for compensation.

(ii) Any two-axle vehicle weighing 4,000 pounds or more unladen when towing a fifth-wheel travel trailer exceeding 10,000 pounds, but not exceeding 15,000 pounds, gross vehicle weight rating, when the towing of the trailer is not for compensation, and if the person has passed a specialized written examination provided by the department relating to the knowledge of this code and other safety aspects governing the towing of recreational vehicles upon the highway. The authority to operate combinations of vehicles under this subparagraph shall be granted by endorsement on a class C license upon completion of that written examination.

(G) Class C does not include any two-wheel motorcycle or any two-wheel motor-driven cycle.

(4) Class M1. Any two-wheel motorcycle. Authority to operate vehicles included in a class M1 license may be granted by endorsement on a class A, B, or C license upon completion of an appropriate examination.

(5) Class M2. Any two-wheel motor-driven cycle, including, but not limited to, a motorized bicycle or moped, or any bicycle with an attached motor. Authority to operate vehicles included in Class M2 may be granted by endorsement on a class A, B, or C license upon completion of an appropriate examination. Persons holding a class M1 license or endorsement may operate vehicles included in class M2 without further examination.

(c) No driver's license or driver certificate shall be valid for operating any commercial motor vehicle, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 15210, any other motor vehicle defined in paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (b), or any other vehicle requiring a driver to hold any driver certificate or any driver's license endorsement under Section 15275, unless a medical certificate approved by the department, the Federal Highway Administration, or the Federal Aviation Administration, which has been issued within two years of the date of the operation of that vehicle, is within the licensee's immediate possession, and a copy of the medical examination report from which the certificate was issued is on file with the department. Otherwise the license shall be valid only for operating class C vehicles which are not commercial vehicles, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 15210, and for operating class M1 or M2 vehicles, if so endorsed, which are not commercial vehicles, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 15210.

(d) A license or driver certificate issued prior to the enactment of Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 15200) shall be valid to operate the class or type of vehicles specified under the law in existence prior to that enactment until the license or certificate expires or is otherwise suspended, revoked, or canceled.

(e) The department may accept a certificate of driving skill that is issued by an employer, authorized by the department to issue a certificate under Section 15250, of the applicant, in lieu of a driving test, on class A or B applications, if the applicant has first qualified for a class C license and has met the other examination requirements for the license for which he or she is applying. The certificate may be submitted as evidence of the applicant's skill in the operation of the types of equipment covered by the license for which he or she is applying.

(f) The department may accept a certificate of competence in lieu of a driving test on class M1 or M2 applications, when the certificate is issued by a law enforcement agency for its officers who operate class M1 or M2 vehicles in their duties, if the applicant has met the other examination requirements for the license for which he or she is applying.

(g) (1) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), until December 31, 1993, any person holding a valid California driver's license of any class may operate a motorized bicycle without taking any special examination for the operation of a motorized bicycle, and without having a class M1 or M2 endorsement on that license.

(2) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), any person holding a valid California driver's license of any class may operate a short-term rental motorized bicycle without taking any special examination for the operation of a motorized bicycle, and without having a class M2 endorsement on that license. As used in this paragraph, "short-term" means 48 hours or less.

(h) No person under the age of 21 years shall be issued a class M1 or M2 license or endorsement unless he or she provides evidence satisfactory to the department of completion of a motorcycle safety training program that is operated pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 2930) of Chapter 5 of Division 2.

(i) Drivers of vanpool vehicles, may operate with class C licenses, but shall possess evidence of a medical examination required for a class B license when operating vanpool vehicles. In order to be eligible to drive the vanpool vehicle, the driver shall keep in the vanpool vehicle a statement, signed under penalty of perjury, that he or she has not been convicted of reckless driving, drunk driving, or a hit and run offense in the last five years.

(j) During the implementation of this section, from January 1, 1989, through December 31, 1992, provisions of this code pertaining to persons holding class 1, 2, 3, or 4 licenses pursuant to Section 12804, shall apply to persons holding class A, B, C, M1, or M2 licenses pursuant to this section, to the extent that class A, B, C, M1, or M2 vehicles under this section fall within the definition of class 1, 2, 3, or 4 vehicles under Section 12804.

(k) A class M license issued between January 1, 1989, and December 31, 1992, shall permit the holder to operate any motorcycle, motor-driven cycle, or motorized bicycle until the expiration of the license.

(l) The amendments made to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) by Chapter 1270 of the Statutes of 1989 shall become operative only after federal regulations are adopted which permit physician's assistants and nurse practitioners to complete the physicals described in that paragraph.

SEC. 26.5. Section 12804.9 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by Section 19 of Chapter 928 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

12804.9. (a) (1) The examination shall include all of the following:

(A) A test of the applicant's knowledge and understanding of the provisions of this code governing the operation of vehicles upon the highways.

(B) A test of the applicant's ability to read and understand simple English used in highway traffic and directional signs.

(C) A test of the applicant's understanding of traffic signs and signals, including the bikeway signs, markers, and traffic control devices established by the Department of Transportation.

(D) An actual demonstration of the applicant's ability to exercise ordinary and reasonable control in operating a motor vehicle by driving it under the supervision of an examining officer. The applicant shall submit to an examination appropriate to the type of motor vehicle or combination of vehicles he or she desires a license to drive, except that the department may waive the driving test part of the examination of any applicant who holds a valid license issued by another state, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. The examining officer may request to see evidence of financial responsibility for the vehicle prior to supervising the demonstration of the applicant's ability to operate the vehicle. The examining officer may refuse to examine an applicant who is unable to provide proof of financial responsibility for the vehicle, unless proof of financial responsibility is not required by this code.

(E) A test of the hearing and eyesight of the applicant, and of other matters that may be necessary to determine the applicant's mental and physical fitness to operate a motor vehicle upon the highways, and whether any ground exists for refusal of a license under this code.

(2) The examination for a class A or class B license under subdivision (b) shall also include a report of a medical examination of the applicant given not more than two years prior to the date of the application by a physician licensed to practice medicine or by a licensed physician's assistant or nurse practitioner under the supervision of a physician and surgeon licensed to practice medicine. The report shall be on a form approved by the department, the Federal Highway Administration, or the Federal Aviation Administration. In establishing the requirements, consideration may be given to the standards presently required of motor carrier drivers by the Federal Highway Administration.

(3) Any physical defect of the applicant, which, in the opinion of the department, is compensated for to ensure safe driving ability, shall not prevent the issuance of a license to the applicant.

(b) Beginning on January 1, 1989, in accordance with the following classifications, any applicant for a driver's license shall be required to submit to an examination appropriate to the type of motor vehicle or combination of vehicles the applicant desires a license to drive:

(1) Class A includes the following:

(A) Any combination of vehicles, if any vehicle being towed has a gross vehicle weight rating of more than 10,000 pounds.

(B) Any vehicle towing more than one vehicle.

(C) Any trailer bus.

(D) The operation of all vehicles under class B and class C.

(2) Class B includes the following:

(A) Any single vehicle with a gross vehicle weight rating of more than 26,000 pounds.

(B) Any single vehicle with three or more axles, except any three-axle vehicle weighing less than 6,000 pounds.

(C) Any bus except a trailer bus.

(D) Any farm labor vehicle.

(E) Any single vehicle with three or more axles or a gross vehicle weight rating of more than 26,000 pounds towing another vehicle with a gross vehicle weight rating of 10,000 pounds or less.

(F) The operation of all vehicles covered under class C.

(3) Class C includes the following:

(A) Any two-axle vehicle with a gross vehicle weight rating of 26,000 pounds or less, including when the vehicle is towing a trailer or semitrailer with a gross vehicle weight rating of 10,000 pounds or less.

(B) Notwithstanding subparagraph (A), any two-axle vehicle weighing 4,000 pounds or more unladen when towing a trailer coach not exceeding 9,000 pounds gross.

(C) Any housecar.

(D) Any three-axle vehicle weighing 6,000 pounds or less gross.

(E) Any housecar or vehicle towing another vehicle with a gross vehicle weight rating of 10,000 pounds or less, including when a tow dolly is used. No vehicle shall tow another vehicle in violation of Section 21715.

(F) (i) Any two-axle vehicle weighing 4,000 pounds or more unladen when towing either a trailer coach or a fifth-wheel travel trailer not exceeding 10,000 pounds gross vehicle weight rating, when the towing of the trailer is not for compensation.

(ii) Any two-axle vehicle weighing 4,000 pounds or more unladen when towing a fifth-wheel travel trailer exceeding 10,000 pounds, but not exceeding 15,000 pounds, gross vehicle weight rating, when the towing of the trailer is not for compensation, and if the person has passed a specialized written examination provided by the department relating to the knowledge of this code and other safety aspects governing the towing of recreational vehicles upon the highway. The authority to operate combinations of vehicles under this subparagraph shall be granted by endorsement on a class C license upon completion of that written examination.

(G) Class C does not include any two-wheel motorcycle or any two-wheel motor-driven cycle.

(4) Class M1. Any two-wheel motorcycle. Authority to operate vehicles included in a class M1 license may be granted by endorsement on a class A, B, or C license upon completion of an appropriate examination.

(5) Class M2. Any two-wheel motor-driven cycle, including, but not limited to, a motorized bicycle or moped, or any bicycle with an attached motor. Authority to operate vehicles included in class M2 may be granted by endorsement on a class A, B, or C license upon completion of an appropriate examination. Persons holding a class M1 license or endorsement may operate vehicles included in class M2 without further examination.

(c) No driver's license or driver certificate shall be valid for operating any commercial motor vehicle, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 15210, any other motor vehicle defined in paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (b), or any other vehicle requiring a driver to hold any driver certificate or any driver's license endorsement under Section 15275, unless a medical certificate approved by the department, the Federal Highway Administration, or the Federal Aviation Administration, which has been issued within two years of the date of the operation of that vehicle, is within the licensee's immediate possession, and a copy of the medical examination report from which the certificate was issued is on file with the department. Otherwise the license shall be valid only for operating class C vehicles which are not commercial vehicles, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 15210, and for operating class M1 or M2 vehicles, if so endorsed, which are not commercial vehicles, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 15210.

(d) A license or driver certificate issued prior to the enactment of Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 15200) shall be valid to operate the class or type of vehicles specified under the law in existence prior to that enactment until the license or certificate expires or is otherwise suspended, revoked, or canceled.

(e) The department may accept a certificate of driving skill that is issued by an employer, authorized by the department to issue a certificate under Section 15250, of the applicant, in lieu of a driving test, on class A or B applications, if the applicant has first qualified for a class C license and has met the other examination requirements for the license for which he or she is applying. The certificate may be submitted as evidence of the applicant's skill in the operation of the types of equipment covered by the license for which he or she is applying.

(f) The department may accept a certificate of competence in lieu of a driving test on class M1 or M2 applications, when the certificate is issued by a law enforcement agency for its officers who operate class M1 or M2 vehicles in their duties, if the applicant has met the other examination requirements for the license for which he or she is applying.

(g) (1) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), until December 31, 1993, any person holding a valid California driver's license of any class may operate a motorized bicycle without taking any special examination for the operation of a motorized bicycle, and without having a class M1 or M2 endorsement on that license.

(2) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), any person holding a valid California driver's license of any class may operate a short-term rental motorized bicycle without taking any special examination for the operation of a motorized bicycle, and without having a class M2 endorsement on that license. As used in this paragraph, "short-term" means 48 hours or less.

(h) No person under the age of 21 years shall be issued a class M1 or M2 license or endorsement unless he or she provides evidence satisfactory to the department of completion of a motorcycle safety training program that is operated pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 2930) of Chapter 5 of Division 2.

(i) Drivers of vanpool vehicles, may operate with class C licenses, but shall possess evidence of a medical examination required for a class B license when operating vanpool vehicles. In order to be eligible to drive the vanpool vehicle, the driver shall keep in the vanpool vehicle a statement, signed under penalty of perjury, that he or she has not been convicted of reckless driving, drunk driving, or a hit and run offense in the last five years.

(j) During the implementation of this section, from January 1, 1989, through December 31, 1992, provisions of this code pertaining to persons holding class 1, 2, 3, or 4 licenses pursuant to Section 12804, shall apply to persons holding class A, B, C, M1, or M2 licenses pursuant to this section, to the extent that class A, B, C, M1, or M2 vehicles under this section fall within the definition of class 1, 2, 3, or 4 vehicles under Section 12804.

(k) A class M license issued between January 1, 1989, and December 31, 1992, shall permit the holder to operate any motorcycle, motor-driven cycle, or motorized bicycle until the expiration of the license.

(l) The amendments made to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) by Chapter 1270 of the Statutes of 1989 shall become operative only after federal regulations are adopted which permit physician's assistants and nurse practitioners to complete the physicals described in that paragraph.

(m) For purposes of this section, evidence of financial responsibility means any of the following: (i) a copy of an insurance policy or bond, (ii) an identification card containing an insurance policy number, name of the insurer, identify of the vehicle by make and vehicle identification number, effective date of the coverage, and expiration date of coverage, (iii) written confirmation from an insurer that the vehicle is insured at the time of the driving test, (iv) if the owner is a self-insurer, as provided in Section 16052, or a depositor, as provided in Section 16054.2, the certificate or deposit number issued by the department, (v) an insurance covering note, as specified in Section 382 of the Insurance Code, (vi) a showing that the vehicle is owned or leased by, or under the direction of, the United States or any public entity, as defined in Section 811.2 of the Government Code, or (vii) the identifying symbol issued to a highway carrier by the Public Utilities Commission pursuant to Section 3543 of the Public Utilities Code, if it is displayed on the motor vehicle.

SEC. 27. Section 12804.9 of the Vehicle Code, as added by Section 31.7 of Chapter 1360 of the Statutes of 1990, is repealed.

SEC. 28. Section 12804.12 of the Vehicle Code, as added by Section 5 of Chapter 1358 of the Statutes of 1990, is amended to read:

12804.12. (a) The department may issue a restricted class A driver's license for the operation of any two-axle vehicle weighing 4,000 pounds or more unladen when towing a trailer coach exceeding 10,000 pounds gross vehicle weight rating, or a fifth-wheel travel trailer exceeding 15,000 pounds gross vehicle weight rating, when the towing of the trailer is not for compensation.

(b) In lieu of a report of a medical examination required by Section 12804.9, an applicant for a restricted license issued pursuant to subdivision (a) shall, upon application and every two years thereafter, submit medical information on a form approved by the department.

SEC. 29. Section 12804.12 of the Vehicle Code, as added by Section 6 of Chapter 1358 of the Statutes of 1990 is repealed.

SEC. 30. Section 12810.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

12810.5. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), any person whose driving record shows a violation point count of four or more points in 12 months, six or more points in 24 months, or eight or more points in 36 months shall be prima facie presumed to be a negligent operator of a motor vehicle. In applying this subdivision to a driver, if the person requests and appears at a hearing conducted by the department, the department shall give due consideration to the amount of use or mileage traveled in the operation of a motor vehicle.

(b) (1) Any class A or class B licensed driver, except persons holding certificates pursuant to Section 2512, 12517, 12519, 12523, or 12523.5, or an endorsement issued pursuant to paragraph (2) or (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 15278, who is presumed to be a negligent operator pursuant to subdivision (a), and who requests and appears at a hearing and is found to have a driving record violation point count of six or more points in 12 months, eight or more points in 24 months, or 10 or more points in 36 months is presumed to be a prima facie negligent operator. However, the higher point count shall not apply if the department reasonably determines that four or more points in 12 months, six or more points in 24 months, or eight or more points in 36 months are attributable to the driver's operation of a vehicle requiring only a class C license, and not requiring a certificate or endorsement, or a class M license.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, each point assigned pursuant to Section 12810 shall be valued at one and one-half times the value otherwise required by that section for each violation reasonably determined by the department to be attributable to the driver's operation of a vehicle requiring a class A or class B license, or requiring any certificate or endorsement described in this section.

(c) The department may require a negligent operator whose driving privilege is suspended or revoked pursuant to this section to submit proof of financial responsibility, as defined in Section 16430, on or before the date of reinstatement following the suspension or revocation. The proof of financial responsibility shall be maintained with the department for three years following that date of reinstatement.

(d) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1993.

SEC. 31. Section 12812 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

12812. If a driver with a class C or M license, who is not required to have a certificate under any provision of this code, is presumed to be a negligent operator pursuant to Section 12810.5, the department may, as a condition of probation, issue a restricted driver's license to permit driving of a vehicle while in the course of the driver's employment during specified hours of employment or any other restrictions as determined by the department. The restrictions shall be noted on the driver's license.

SEC. 32. Section 13352 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

13352. (a) The department shall immediately suspend or revoke, or record the court-administered suspension or revocation of, the privilege of any person to operate a motor vehicle upon receipt of a duly certified abstract of the record of any court showing that the person has been convicted of a violation of Section 23152 or 23153 or subdivision (a) of Section 23109, or upon receipt of a report of a judge of the juvenile court, a juvenile traffic hearing officer, or a referee of a juvenile court showing that the person has been found to have committed a violation of Section 23152 or 23153 or subdivision (a) of Section 23109. For purposes of this section, suspension or revocation shall be as follows:

(1) Upon a conviction or finding of a violation of Section 23152 punishable under Section 23160, the privilege shall be suspended for a period of six months if the court orders the department to suspend the privilege, or if the court does not grant probation, or if the offense occurred in a vehicle requiring a driver with a class A or class B driver's license or with a certificate. However, where (A) the driving privilege is required to be suspended by this paragraph due to the violation having occurred in vehicles requiring a class A or class B driver's license, and (B) the court grants probation and imposes the condition specified in subdivision (b) of Section 23161, the department shall issue the person a class C driver's license restricted in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as specified in subdivision (e) of Section 13352.5. If the person gives proof of ability to respond in damages as defined in Section 16430, the department shall issue the restricted license upon receipt of an abstract of record from the court pursuant to Section 1803 certifying that the court has granted probation to the person on conditions which include the condition specified in subdivision (b) of Section 23161.

(2) Upon a conviction or finding of a violation of Section 23153 punishable under Section 23180, the privilege shall be suspended for a period of one year. The privilege shall not be reinstated until the person gives proof of ability to respond in damages.

(3) Except as provided in Section 13352.5, upon a conviction or finding of a violation of Section 23152 punishable under Section 23165, the privilege shall be suspended for 18 months. The privilege shall not be reinstated until the person gives proof of ability to respond in damages.

(4) Except as provided in Section 13352.5, upon a conviction or finding of a violation of Section 23153 punishable under Section 23185, the privilege shall be revoked for a period of three years. The privilege shall not be reinstated until evidence satisfactory to the department establishes that no grounds exist which would authorize the refusal to issue a license and until the person gives proof of ability to respond in damages.

(5) Upon a conviction or finding of a violation of Section 23152 punishable under Section 23170, the privilege shall be revoked for a period of three years. The privilege shall not be reinstated until the person files proof of ability to respond in damages and gives proof satisfactory to the department of successful completion, subsequent to the most recent underlying conviction, of one of the following programs: an 18-month program or, if available in the county of the person's residence or employment, a 30-month program licensed pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 11836) of Part 2 of Division 10.5 of the Health and Safety Code, or a program specified in Section 8001 of the Penal Code. The court shall advise the person at the time of sentencing that completion of one of the programs authorized by this paragraph is required in order to become eligible for a California driver's license. The court shall also advise the person that after the completion of 24 months of the revocation period, the person may apply to the court for an order granting a restricted driver's license, subject to the following conditions:

(A) The person has satisfactorily completed, subject to the current underlying conviction, either of the following:

(i) A licensed 18-month program pursuant to Section 11836 of the Health and Safety Code.

(ii) The initial 18 months of a licensed 30-month program, if available in the county of the person's residence or employment, pursuant to Section 11836 of the Health and Safety Code.

(B) The person agrees, as a condition of the restriction, to continue satisfactory participation in the 30-month program, if applicable, and to have installed and maintained, as described in Section 23235, an ignition interlock device.

(C) The person provides proof of responsibility to respond in damages.

(D) The person has not applied for and received an order in conjunction with the current underlying conviction or a prior conviction for violation of Section 23103, 23152, or 23153, if the prior conviction was within the previous seven years.

(E) Any individual convicted of a violation of Section 23152 punishable under Section 23170 may also, at any time after sentencing, petition the court for referral to an 18-month program or, if available in the county of the person's residence or employment, a 30-month program licensed pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 11836) of Part 2 of Division 10.5 of the Health and Safety Code. Unless good cause is shown, the court shall order the referral.

(6) Upon a conviction or finding of a violation of Section 23153 punishable under Section 23190, the privilege shall be revoked for a period of five years. The privilege shall not be reinstated until evidence satisfactory to the department establishes that no grounds exist which would authorize the refusal to issue a license and until the person gives proof of ability to respond in damages and gives proof satisfactory to the department of successful completion, subsequent to the most recent underlying conviction, of one of the following programs: a 30-month program, if available in the county of the person's residence or employment or, if not available, an 18-month program licensed pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 11836) of Part 2 of Division 10.5 of the Health and Safety Code, or a program specified in Section 8001 of the Penal Code. The court shall advise the person at the time of sentencing that completion of one of the programs authorized by this paragraph is required in order to become eligible for a California driver's license. The court shall also advise the person that after the completion of 24 months of the revocation period, the person may apply to the court for an order granting a restricted driver's license, subject to the following conditions:

(A) (i) The person has satisfactorily completed, subject to the current underlying conviction, the 18-month program or the initial 18 months of a licensed 30-month program, as applicable, pursuant to Section 11836 of the Health and Safety Code.

(ii) The person agrees, as a condition of the restriction, to continue satisfactory participation in the 30-month program, if applicable, and to have installed and maintained, as described in Section 23235, an ignition interlock device.

(iii) The person provides proof of responsibility to respond in damages.

(iv) The person has not applied for and received an order in conjunction with the current underlying conviction or a prior conviction for a violation of Section 23103, 23152, or 23153, if the prior conviction was within the previous seven years.

(B) Any individual convicted of a violation of Section 23153 punishable under Section 23190 may also, at any time after sentencing, petition the court for referral to an 18-month program or, if available in the county of the person's residence or employment, a 30-month program licensed pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 11836) of Part 2 of Division 10.5 of the Health and Safety Code. Unless good cause is shown, the court shall order the referral.

(7) Upon a conviction or finding of a violation of Section 23152 punishable under Section 23175, the privilege shall be revoked for a period of four years. The privilege shall not be reinstated until evidence satisfactory to the department establishes that no grounds exist which would authorize the refusal to issue a license and until the person gives proof of ability to respond in damages and gives proof satisfactory to the department of successful completion, subsequent to the most recent underlying conviction, of one of the following programs: an 18-month program or, if available in the county of the person's residence or employment, a 30-month program licensed pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 11836) of Part 2 of Division 10.5 of the Health and Safety Code, or a program specified in Section 8001 of the Penal Code. The court shall advise the person at the time of sentencing that completion of one of the programs authorized by this paragraph is required in order to become eligible for a California driver's license. The court shall also advise the person that after the completion of 24 months of the revocation period, the person may apply to the court for an order granting a restricted driver's license, subject to the following conditions:

(A) The person has satisfactorily completed, subject to the current underlying conviction, the initial 18 months of a licensed 30-month program pursuant to Section 11836 of the Health and Safety Code.

(B) The person agrees, as a condition of the restriction, to continue satisfactory participation in the 30-month program, if applicable, and to have installed and maintained, as described in Section 23235, an ignition interlock device.

(C) The person provides proof of responsibility to respond in damages.

(D) The person has not applied for and received an order in conjunction with the current underlying conviction or a prior conviction for violation of Section 23103, 23152, or 23153, if the prior conviction was within the previous seven years.

(E) Any individual convicted of a violation of Section 23152 punishable under Section 23175 may also, at any time after sentencing, petition the court for referral to an 18-month program or, if available in the county of the person's residence or employment, a 30-month program licensed pursuant to Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 11836) of Part 2 of Division 10.5 of the Health and Safety Code. Unless good cause is shown, the court shall order the referral.

(8) Upon a conviction or finding of a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 23109 punishable under subdivision (e) of that section, the privilege shall be suspended for a period of 90 days to six months, if and as ordered by the court.

(9) Upon a conviction or finding of a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 23109 punishable under subdivision (f) of that section, the privilege shall be suspended for a period of six months, if the court orders the department to suspend the privilege. The privilege shall not be reinstated until the person gives proof of ability to respond in damages.

(b) For the purpose of paragraphs (2) to (9), inclusive, of subdivision (a), the finding of the juvenile court judge, the juvenile traffic hearing officer, or the referee of a juvenile court of a commission of a violation of Section 23152 or 23153 or subdivision (a) of Section 23109, as specified in subdivision (a) of this section, is a conviction.

(c) Each judge of a juvenile court, juvenile traffic hearing officer, or referee of a juvenile court shall immediately report the findings specified in subdivision (a) to the department.

(d) A conviction of an offense in any state, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or Canada which, if committed in this state, would be a violation of Section 23152, is a conviction of Section 23152 for purposes of this section, and a conviction of an offense which, if committed in this state, would be a violation of Section 23153, is a conviction of Section 23153 for purposes of this section. The department shall suspend or revoke the privilege to operate a motor vehicle pursuant to this section upon receiving notice of that conviction.

(e) Whenever the driving privilege is restricted, suspended, or revoked pursuant to this section, the department shall not issue a restricted driver's license or reinstate the driving privilege unless the person gives proof of ability to respond in damages and maintains that proof for three years. If, at any time during that three-year period, a person who is required to maintain that proof fails to maintain that proof, the department shall suspend that person's driving privilege until the proof of ability to respond in damages is again given to the department.

SEC. 33. Section 14606 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

14606. (a) No person shall employ or hire any person to drive a motor vehicle nor shall he knowingly permit or authorize the driving of a motor vehicle, owned by him or her or under his or her control, upon the highways by any person unless the person is then licensed for the appropriate class of vehicle to be driven.

(b) Whenever any person employs or hires any person, including a subhauler, to drive a class A or class B vehicle, the employer shall ascertain that the person has in his or her possession a medical certificate as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 12804.9 which has been issued within two years prior to the date of the person's employment or hiring. Whenever the person fails to qualify for a medical certificate on reexamination, the employer shall report that failure to the department.

SEC. 34. Section 15250.5 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

15250.5. (a) No person shall operate firefighting equipment unless that person has in his or her immediate possession a valid driver's license for the appropriate class of vehicle operated, or a license issued pursuant to subdivision (b).

(b) The department may issue a restricted driver's license for the appropriate class of vehicle to a firefighter for the operation of firefighting equipment. The restricted license shall be valid only for operating (1) firefighting equipment within this state, or in another state during a response under a mutual aid pact, or (2) any vehicle for which a class C driver's license is required.

(c) The restricted firefighter's license may be issued only to an applicant qualified by examination prescribed and conducted by the department.

The pretrip inspection and driving test required to receive the license shall be the same as required to obtain a license under Section 15250.

The written examination shall be developed by the department with the cooperation of the State Fire Marshal. The department shall include a sufficient number of questions from the examinations required to obtain a license under Section 15250 to ensure that passing the special examination under this section assures a level of safety comparable to examinations given under Section 15250.

(d) In lieu of a report of medical examination required by Section 12804.9, an applicant for a restricted license issued pursuant to subdivision (b) shall, upon application and every two years thereafter, submit medical information on a form approved by the department.

(e) Upon application for issuance of an original driver's license pursuant to subdivision (b), there shall be paid to the department a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25).

(f) A "firefighter" is any person employed as a firefighter by a federal or state agency or by a regularly organized fire department of a city, county, city and county, or district, or registered as a volunteer member of a regularly organized fire department having official recognition of the city, county, city and county, or district in which the department is located.

(g) "Firefighting equipment" means a motor vehicle used to travel to and to suppress fires, or to transport equipment used to suppress fires, and which is owned by, or under the exclusive control of, a federal or state agency, a regularly organized fire department of a city, county, city and county, or district, or a volunteer fire department having official recognition of the city, county, city and county, or district in which the department is located.

(h) For purposes of the penalties and sanctions prescribed by Article 7 (commencing with Section 15300), the operation of firefighting equipment under a license issued pursuant to subdivision (b) is deemed to be the operation of a commercial motor vehicle.

(i) This section applies to an application for an original driver's license issued pursuant to subdivision (b) on or before December 31, 1991. If the fee specified by this section was not paid by December 31, 1991, Section 15250.6 applies.

SEC. 35. Section 15250.6 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

15250.6. (a) No person shall operate firefighting equipment unless that person has in his or her immediate possession a valid driver's license for the appropriate class of vehicle operated, or a license issued pursuant to subdivision (b).

(b) The department may issue a restricted driver's license for the appropriate class of vehicle to a firefighter for the operation of firefighting equipment. The restricted license shall be valid only for operating (1) firefighting equipment within this state, or in another state during a response under a mutual aid pact, or (2) any vehicle for which a class C driver's license is required.

(c) The restricted firefighter's license may be issued only to an applicant qualified by examination prescribed and conducted by the department.

The pretrip inspection and driving test required to receive the license shall be the same as required to obtain a license under Section 15250.

The written examination shall be developed by the department with the cooperation of the State Fire Marshal. The department shall include a sufficient number of questions from the examinations required to obtain a license under Section 15250 to ensure that passing the special examination under this section assures a level of safety comparable to examinations given under Section 15250.

(d) In lieu of a report of medical examination required by Section 12804.9, an applicant for a restricted license issued pursuant to subdivision (b) shall, upon application and every two years thereafter, submit medical information on a form approved by the department.

(e) Upon application for issuance of an original driver's license pursuant to subdivision (b), or for a duplicate driver's license or renewal of a driver's license issued pursuant to subdivision (b), there shall be paid to the department a fee of twenty-seven dollars ($27).

(f) A "firefighter" is any person employed as a firefighter by a federal or state agency or by a regularly organized fire department of a city, county, city and county, or district, or registered as a volunteer member of a regularly organized fire department having official recognition of the city, county, city and county, or district in which the department is located.

(g) "Firefighting equipment" means a motor vehicle used to travel to and to suppress fires, or to transport equipment used to suppress fires, and which is owned by, or under the exclusive control of, a federal or state agency, a regularly organized fire department of a city, county, city and county, or district, or a volunteer fire department having official recognition of the city, county, city and county, or district in which the department is located.

(h) For purposes of the penalties and sanctions prescribed by Article 7 (commencing with Section 15300), the operation of firefighting equipment under a license issued pursuant to subdivision (b) is deemed to be the operation of a commercial motor vehicle.

(i) The fees imposed by this section apply in lieu of the fee specified in Section 15250.5 to (1) an application for an original or duplicate driver's license on or after January 1, 1992, (2) an application for renewal of a driver's license which expires on or after January 1, 1992, and (3) an application for an original or duplicate driver's license or for renewal of a driver's license on or before December 31, 1991, for which the fee is not paid until on or after January 1, 1992.

SEC. 36. Section 15255 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

15255. (a) Except as otherwise specified in subdivisions (b) and (c), upon an application for an original commercial driver's license, there shall be paid to the department a fee of fifty-five dollars ($55). A fee of fifty-five dollars ($55) shall also be paid to the department upon an application to change a license classification or to remove a restriction if the change or removal requires a driving-skill test.

(b) Upon application for issuance of an original commercial driver's license by a currently licensed class A or class B driver who meets the driver record requirements and all other requirements established by Section 383.77 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, there shall be paid to the department a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25).

(c) Upon application for an original class C commercial driver's license which requires an endorsement as provided in Section 15278, there shall be paid to the department a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25).

(d) Following failure in taking a driving-skill test, there shall be paid to the department a fee of thirty dollars ($30) for each subsequent administration of the driving-skill test required by the application.

(e) This section applies to (1) an application for an original driver's license on or before December 31, 1991. If the fees specified in this section were not paid by December 31, 1991, Section 15255.1 applies.

SEC. 37. Section 15255.1 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

15255.1. (a) Except as otherwise specified in subdivisions (b) and (c), upon an application for an original commercial driver's license, there shall be paid to the department a fee of fifty-seven dollars ($57). A fee of fifty-seven dollars ($57) shall also be paid to the department upon an application to change a license classification or to remove a restriction if the change or removal requires a driving-skill test.

(b) Upon application for an original commercial driver's license by a currently licensed class A or class B, or class A or class B, driver who meets the driver record requirements and all other requirements established by Section 383.77 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, there shall be paid to the department a fee of twenty-seven dollars ($27).

(c) Upon application for renewal of or a duplicate commercial driver's license by a currently licensed class A or class B, driver who meets the driver record requirements and all other requirements established by Section 383.77 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, there shall be paid to the department a fee of twenty-seven dollars ($27).

(d) Upon application for an original class C commercial driver's license which requires an endorsement as provided in Section 15278, there shall be paid to the department a fee of twenty-seven dollars ($27).

(e) Upon application for a renewal of or a duplicate class C commercial driver's license which requires an endorsement as provided in Section 15278, there shall be paid to the department a fee of twenty-seven dollars ($27).

(f) Following failure in taking a driving-skill test, there shall be paid to the department a fee of thirty dollars ($30) for each subsequent administration of the driving-skill test required by the application.

(g) The fees imposed by this section apply in lieu of the fees specified in Section 15255 to (1) an application for an original commercial driver's license on or after January 1, 1992, (2) an application for an original or duplicate commercial driver's license on or after January 1, 1992, by a currently licensed class A or class B, driver who meets the driver record requirements and all other requirements established by Section 383.77 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, (3) an application for renewal of a commercial driver's license which expires on or after January 1, 1992, by a currently licensed class A or class B, driver who meets the driver record requirements and all other requirements established by Section 383.77 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, (4) an application for an original or duplicate class C commercial driver's license which requires an endorsement as provided in Section 15278, (5) an application for renewal of a class C commercial driver's license which requires an endorsement as provided in Section 15278 which expires on or after January 1, 1992, and (6) an application for an original or duplicate of, or renewal of, any of those driver's licenses on or before December 31, 1991, for which the fee is not paid until on or after January 1, 1992.

SEC. 38. Section 15275 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

15275. (a) No person may operate a commercial motor vehicle described in this chapter unless that person has in his or her possession a valid commercial driver's license for the appropriate class, and an endorsement issued by the department to permit the operation of the vehicle.

(b) An endorsement to drive vehicles specified in this article shall be issued only to applicants qualified by examinations prescribed by the department and that meet the minimum standards established in Part 383 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(c) The department may deny, suspend, revoke, or cancel an endorsement to drive vehicles specified in this article when the applicant does not meet the qualifications for the issuance or retention of the endorsement.

SEC. 39. Section 21456.1 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

21456.1. Whenever an official traffic control signal exhibiting an approved "Walking Person" symbol, an approved "Upraised Hand" symbol, or the words "WALK" or "WAIT" or "DON'T WALK" is shown concurrently with official traffic control signals exhibiting the words "GO" or "CAUTION" or "STOP" or exhibiting different colored lights successively, one at a time or with arrows, a pedestrian facing those traffic control signals shall obey the "Walking Person," "Upraised Hand," "WALK" or "WAIT" or "DON'T WALK" control signal as provided in Section 21456.

SEC. 40. Section 21801 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

21801. (a) The driver of a vehicle intending to turn to the left or to complete a U-turn upon a highway, or to turn left into public or private property, or an alley, shall yield the right-of-way to all vehicles approaching from the opposite direction which are close enough to constitute a hazard at any time during the turning movement, and shall continue to yield the right-of-way to the approaching vehicles until the left turn or U-turn can be made with reasonable safety.

(b) A driver having yielded as prescribed in subdivision (a), and having given a signal when and as required by this code, may turn left or complete a U-turn, and the drivers of vehicles approaching the intersection or the entrance to the property or alley from the opposite direction shall yield the right-of-way to the turning vehicle.

SEC. 41. Section 22450 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

22450. (a) The driver of any vehicle approaching a stop sign at the entrance to, or within, an intersection, or railroad grade crossing shall stop at a limit line, if marked, otherwise before entering the crosswalk on the near side of the intersection.

If there is no limit line or crosswalk, the driver shall stop at the entrance to the intersecting roadway or railroad grade crossing.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a local authority may adopt rules and regulations by ordinance or resolution providing for the placement of a stop sign at any location on a highway under its jurisdiction where the stop sign would enhance traffic safety.

SEC. 42. Section 22651 of the Vehicle Code, as amended by Section 5 of Chapter 1244 of the Statutes of 1992, is amended to read:

22651. Any peace officer, as defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2 of the Penal Code; or any regularly employed and salaried employee, who is engaged in directing traffic or enforcing parking laws and regulations, of a city or a county in which a vehicle is located, may remove a vehicle located within the territorial limits in which the officer or employee may act, under any of the following circumstances:

(a) When any vehicle is left unattended upon any bridge, viaduct, or causeway or in any tube or tunnel where the vehicle constitutes an obstruction to traffic.

(b) When any vehicle is parked or left standing upon a highway in a position so as to obstruct the normal movement of traffic or in a condition so as to create a hazard to other traffic upon the highway.

(c) When any vehicle is found upon a highway or any public lands and a report has previously been made that the vehicle has been stolen or a complaint has been filed and a warrant thereon issued charging that the vehicle has been embezzled.

(d) When any vehicle is illegally parked so as to block the entrance to a private driveway and it is impractical to move the vehicle from in front of the driveway to another point on the highway.

(e) When any vehicle is illegally parked so as to prevent access by firefighting equipment to a fire hydrant and it is impracticable to move the vehicle from in front of the fire hydrant to another point on the highway.

(f) When any vehicle, except any highway maintenance or construction equipment, is stopped, parked, or left standing for more than four hours upon the right-of-way of any freeway which has full control of access and no crossings at grade and the driver, if present, cannot move the vehicle under its own power.

(g) When the person or persons in charge of a vehicle upon a highway or any public lands are, by reason of physical injuries or illness, incapacitated to an extent so as to be unable to provide for its custody or removal.

(h) When an officer arrests any person driving or in control of a vehicle for an alleged offense and the officer is, by this code or other law, required or permitted to take, and does take, the person into custody.

(i) (1) When any vehicle, other than a rented vehicle, is found upon a highway or any public lands, or is removed pursuant to any subdivision of this section, and it is known to have been issued five or more notices of parking violation over a period of five or more days, to which the owner or person in control of the vehicle has not responded to the agency responsible for processing notices of parking violation or the registered owner of the vehicle is known to have been issued five or more notices for failure to pay or failure to appear in court for traffic violations for which no certificate has been issued by the magistrate or clerk of the court hearing the case showing that the case has been adjudicated or concerning which the registered owner's record has not been cleared pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 41500) of Division 17, the vehicle may be impounded until that person furnishes to the impounding law
