AND DIGESTS OF MEASURES

Constitution of 1879 as Amended

Measures Submitted to Vote of Electors,
Special Statewide Election, November 2, 1993

General Laws, Amendments to the Codes, Resolutions, and Constitutional Amendments passed by the California Legislature

1993–94 Regular Session

Compiled by BION M. GREGORY
Legislative Counsel

(c) The announcements required to be made in open session pursuant to this section may be made at the location announced in the agenda for the closed session, as long as the public is allowed to be present at that location for the purpose of hearing the announcements.

SEC. 16. Section 54959 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54959. Each member of a legislative body who attends a meeting of that legislative body where action is taken in violation of any provision of this chapter, with wrongful intent to deprive the public of information to which it is entitled under this chapter, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 17. Section 54960 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54960. (a) The district attorney or any interested person may commence an action by mandamus, injunction or declaratory relief for the purpose of stopping or preventing violations or threatened violations of this chapter by members of the legislative body of a local agency or to determine the applicability of this chapter to actions or threatened future action of the legislative body, or to determine the validity under the laws of this state or of the United States of any rule or action by the legislative body to penalize or otherwise discourage the expression of one or more of its members, or to compel the legislative body to tape record its closed sessions as hereinafter provided.

(b) The court in its discretion may, upon a judgment of a violation of Section 54956.7, 54956.8, 54956.9, 54956.95, 54957, or 54957.6, order the legislative body to tape record its closed sessions and preserve the tape recordings for the period and under the terms of security and confidentiality the court deems appropriate.

(c) (1) Each recording so kept shall be immediately labeled with the date of the closed session recorded and the title of the clerk or other officer who shall be custodian of the recording.

(2) The tapes shall be subject to the following discovery procedures:

(A) In any case in which discovery or disclosure of the tape is sought by either the district attorney or the plaintiff in a civil action pursuant to Section 54959, 54960, or 54960.1 alleging that a violation of this chapter has occurred in a closed session which has been recorded pursuant to this section, the party seeking discovery or disclosure shall file a written notice of motion with the appropriate court with notice to the governmental agency which has custody and control of the tape recording. The notice shall be given pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1005 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(B) The notice shall include, in addition to the items required by Section 1010 of the Code of Civil Procedure, all of the following:

(i) Identification of the proceeding in which discovery or disclosure is sought, the party seeking discovery or disclosure, the date and time of the meeting recorded, and the governmental agency which has custody and control of the recording.

(ii) An affidavit which contains specific facts indicating that a violation of the act occurred in the closed session.

(3) If the court, following a review of the motion, finds that there is good cause to believe that a violation has occurred, the court may review, in camera, the recording of that portion of the closed session alleged to have violated the act.

(4) If, following the in camera review, the court concludes that disclosure of a portion of the recording would be likely to materially assist in the resolution of the litigation alleging violation of this chapter, the court shall, in its discretion, make a certified transcript of the portion of the recording a public exhibit in the proceeding.

(5) Nothing in this section shall permit discovery of communications which are protected by the attorney-client privilege.

SEC. 18. Section 54960.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54960.1. (a) The district attorney or any interested person may commence an action by mandamus or injunction for the purpose of obtaining a judicial determination that an action taken by a legislative body of a local agency in violation of Section 54953, 54954.2, 54954.5, 54954.6, or 54956 is null and void under this section. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent a legislative body from curing or correcting an action challenged pursuant to this section.

(b) Prior to any action being commenced pursuant to subdivision (a), the district attorney or interested person shall make a demand of the legislative body to cure or correct the action alleged to have been taken in violation of Section 54953, 54954.2, 54954.5, 54954.6, or 54956. The demand shall be in writing and clearly describe the challenged action of the legislative body and nature of the alleged violation.

The written demand shall be made within 90 days from the date the action was taken unless the action was taken in an open session but in violation of Section 54954.2, in which case the written demand shall be made within 30 days from the date the action was taken. Within 30 days of receipt of the demand, the legislative body shall cure or correct the challenged action and inform the demanding party in writing of its actions to cure or correct or inform the demanding party in writing of its decision not to cure or correct the challenged action. If the legislative body takes no action within the 30-day period, the inaction shall be deemed a decision not to cure or correct the challenged action, and the 15-day period to commence the action described in subdivision (a) shall commence to run the day after the 30-day period to cure or correct expires. Within 15 days of receipt of the written notice of the legislative body's decision to cure or correct, or not to cure or correct, or within 15 days of the expiration of the 30-day period to cure or correct, whichever is earlier, the demanding party shall be required to commence the action pursuant to subdivision (a) or thereafter be barred from commencing the action.

(c) An action taken that is alleged to have been taken in violation of Sections 54953, 54954.2, 54954.5, 54954.6, and 54956 shall not be determined to be null and void if any of the following conditions exist:

(1) The action taken was in substantial compliance with Sections 54953, 54954.2, 54954.5, 54954.6, and 54956.

(2) The action taken was in connection with the sale or issuance of notes, bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness or any contract, instrument, or agreement thereto.

(3) The action taken gave rise to a contractual obligation, including a contract let by competitive bid other than compensation for services in the form of salary or fees for professional services, upon which a party has, in good faith and without notice of a challenge to the validity of the action, detrimentally relied.

(4) The action taken was in connection with the collection of any tax.

(5) Any person, city, city and county, county, district, or any agency or subdivision of the state alleging noncompliance with subdivision (a) of Section 54954.2, Section 54956, or Section 54956.5 because of any defect, error, irregularity, or omission in the notice given pursuant to those provisions had actual notice of the item of business at least 72 hours prior to the meeting at which the action was taken if the meeting was noticed pursuant to Section 54954.2, or 24 hours prior to the meeting at which the action was taken if the meeting was noticed pursuant to Section 54956, or prior to the meeting at which the action was taken if the meeting is held pursuant to Section 54956.5.

(d) During any action seeking a judicial determination pursuant to subdivision (a) if the court determines, pursuant to a showing by the legislative body that an action alleged to have been taken in violation of Section 54953, 54954.2, 54954.5, 54954.6, or 54956 has been cured or corrected by a subsequent action of the legislative body, the action filed pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be dismissed with prejudice.

(e) The fact that a legislative body takes a subsequent action to cure or correct an action taken pursuant to this section shall not be construed or admissible as evidence of a violation of this chapter.

SEC. 19. Section 54961 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54961. (a) No legislative body of a local agency shall conduct any meeting in any facility that prohibits the admittance of any person, or persons, on the basis of race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, or sex, or which is inaccessible to disabled persons, or where members of the public may not be present without making a payment or purchase. This section shall apply to every local agency as defined in Section 54951.

(b) No notice, agenda, announcement, or report required under this chapter need identify any victim or alleged victim of tortious sexual conduct or child abuse unless the identity of the person has been publicly disclosed.

SEC. 20. Section 54962 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54962. Except as expressly authorized by this chapter, or by Sections 1461, 32106, and 32155 of the Health and Safety Code or Sections 37606 and 37624.3 of the Government Code as they apply to hospitals, no closed session may be held by any legislative body of any local agency.

SEC. 21. Section 1461 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1461. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the board of directors of any hospital subject to this chapter may order that any hearings on the reports of hospital medical audit or quality assurance committees be held in closed session. An applicant or medical staff member whose staff privileges are the direct subject of a hearing may request a public hearing. Deliberations of the board of directors in connection with matters pertaining to these hearings may be held in closed session.

SEC. 22. This bill shall become operative only if Senate Bill 1140 and Assembly Bill 1426 of the 1993–94 Regular Session of the Legislature are chaptered and become operative.

SEC. 23. This act shall become operative on April 1, 1994.

SEC. 24. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

However, notwithstanding Section 17160 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide costs of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1138

An act to amend Section 35145.5 of the Education Code, and to amend Sections 54952, 54952.3, 54952.7, 54957.6, 54961, and 54962 of, and to repeal Sections 36808, 54951.1, 54951.7, 54952.2, 54952.3, and 54952.5 of, the Government Code, relating to open meetings.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 35145.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

35145.5. It is the intent of the Legislature that members of the public be able to place matters directly related to school district business on the agenda of school district governing board meetings, and that members of the public be able to address the board regarding items on the agenda as such items are taken up. Governing boards shall adopt reasonable regulations to insure that this intent is carried out. Such regulations may specify reasonable procedures to insure the proper functioning of governing board meetings.

This subdivision shall not preclude the taking of testimony at regular meetings on matters not on the agenda which any member of the public may wish to bring before the board, provided that, except as authorized by Section 54954.2 of the Government Code, no action is taken by the board on those matters at the same meeting at which the testimony is taken. Nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to limit further discussion on the same subject matter at a subsequent meeting.

SEC. 2. Section 36808 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 2.3. Section 54951.1 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 2.5. Section 54951.7 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 54952 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54952. As used in this chapter, "legislative body" means:

(a) The governing body of a local agency or any other local body created by state or federal statute.

(b) A commission, committee, board, or other body of a local agency, whether permanent or temporary, decisionmaking or advisory, created by charter, ordinance, resolution, or formal action of a legislative body. However, advisory committees, composed solely of the members of the legislative body which are less than a quorum of the legislative body are not legislative bodies, except that standing committees of a legislative body, irrespective of their composition, which have a continuing subject matter jurisdiction, or a meeting schedule fixed by charter, ordinance, resolution, or formal action of a legislative body are legislative bodies for purposes of this chapter.

(c) A board, commission, committee, or other multimember body that governs a private corporation or entity that either:

(1) Is created by the elected legislative body in order to exercise authority that may lawfully be delegated by the elected governing body to a private corporation or entity.

(2) Receives funds from a local agency and the membership of whose governing body includes a member of the legislative body of the local agency appointed to that governing body by the legislative body of the local agency.

(d) The lessee of any hospital the whole or part of which is first leased pursuant to subdivision (p) of Section 32121 of the Health and Safety Code after January 1, 1994, where the lessee exercises any material authority of a legislative body of a local agency delegated to it by that legislative body whether the lessee is organized and operated by the local agency or by a delegated authority.

SEC. 4. Section 54952.2 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 54952.3 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 6. Section 54952.5 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 54952.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54952.7. A legislative body of a local agency may require that a copy of this chapter be given to each member of the legislative body and any person elected to serve as a member of the legislative body who has not assumed the duties of office. An elected legislative body of a local agency may require that a copy of this chapter be given to each member of each legislative body all or a majority of whose members are appointed by or under the authority of the elected legislative body.

SEC. 8. Section 54957.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54957.6. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a legislative body of a local agency may hold closed sessions with the local agency's designated representatives regarding the salaries, salary schedules, or compensation paid in the form of fringe benefits of its represented and unrepresented employees, and, for represented employees, any other matter within the statutorily-provided scope of representation. Closed sessions of a legislative body of a local agency, as permitted in this section, shall be for the purpose of reviewing its position and instructing the local agency's designated representatives. Closed sessions, as permitted in this section, may take place prior to and during consultations and discussions with representatives of employee organizations and unrepresented employees.

For the purposes enumerated in this section, a legislative body of a local agency may also meet with a state conciliator who has intervened in the proceedings.

(b) For the purposes of this section, the term "employee" shall include an officer or an independent contractor who functions as an officer or an employee, but shall not include any elected official, member of a legislative body, or other independent contractors.

Closed sessions held pursuant to this section shall not include discussions of a local agency's available funds, funding priorities, or budget.

SEC. 9. Section 54961 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54961. No legislative body of a local agency shall conduct any meeting in any facility that prohibits the admittance of any person, or persons, on the basis of race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, or sex, or which is inaccessible to disabled persons, or where members of the public may not be present without making a payment or purchase. This section shall apply to every local agency as defined in Section 54951.

SEC. 10. Section 54962 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54962. Except as expressly authorized by this chapter, or by Sections 32106 and 32155 of the Health and Safety Code as they apply to hospital districts, or by any provision of the Education Code pertaining to school districts and community college districts, no closed session may be held by any legislative body of any local agency.

SEC. 11. This act shall become operative only if Senate Bill 36 and Assembly Bill 1426 of the 1993–94 Regular Session of the Legislature are chaptered and become operative.

SEC. 12. This act shall become operative on April 1, 1994.

SEC. 13. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 12020, 12071, and 12285 of the Penal Code, relating to firearms.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12020 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12020. (a) Any person in this state who manufactures or causes to be manufactured, imports into the state, keeps for sale, or offers or exposes for sale, or who gives, lends, or possesses any cane gun or wallet gun, any plastic firearm, any firearm which is not immediately recognizable as a firearm, any camouflaging firearm container, any ammunition which contains or consists of any fléchette dart, any bullet containing or carrying an explosive agent, any ballistic knife, any multiburst trigger activator, any nunchaku, any short-barreled shotgun, any short-barreled rifle, any metal knuckles, any belt buckle knife, any leaded cane, any zip gun, any shuriken, any unconventional pistol, any lipstick case knife, any cane sword, any shobi-zue, any air gauge knife, any writing pen knife, or any instrument or weapon of the kind commonly known as a blackjack, slungshot, billy, sandclub, sap, or sandbag, or who carries concealed upon his or her person any explosive substance, other than fixed ammunition or who carries concealed upon his or her person any dirk or dagger shall be punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year or in the state prison. A bullet containing or carrying an explosive agent is not a destructive device as that term is used in Section 12301.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not apply to any of the following:

(1) The sale to, purchase by, or possession of short-barreled shotguns or short-barreled rifles by police departments, sheriffs' offices, marshals' offices, the California Highway Patrol, the Department of Justice, or the military or naval forces of this state or of the United States for use in the discharge of their official duties or the possession of short-barreled shotguns and short-barreled rifles by regular, salaried, full-time members of a police department, sheriff's office, marshal's office, the California Highway Patrol, or the Department of Justice when on duty and the use is authorized by the agency and is within the course and scope of their duties.

(2) The manufacture, possession, transportation or sale of short-barreled shotguns or short-barreled rifles when authorized by the Department of Justice pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 12095) of this chapter and not in violation of federal law.

(3) The possession of a nunchaku on the premises of a school which holds a regulatory or business license and teaches the arts of self-defense.

(4) The manufacture of a nunchaku for sale to, or the sale of a nunchaku to, a school which holds a regulatory or business license and teaches the arts of self-defense.

(5) Any antique firearm. For purposes of this section, "antique firearm" means any firearm not designed or redesigned for using rimfire or conventional center fire ignition with fixed ammunition and manufactured in or before 1898 (including any matchlock, flintlock, percussion cap, or similar type of ignition system or replica thereof, whether actually manufactured before or after the year 1898) and also any firearm using fixed ammunition manufactured in or before 1898, for which ammunition is no longer manufactured in the United States and is not readily available in the ordinary channels of commercial trade.

(6) Tracer ammunition manufactured for use in shotguns.

(7) Any firearm or ammunition which is a curio or relic as defined in Section 178.11 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations and which is in the possession of a person permitted to possess the items pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto. Any person prohibited by Section 12021, 12021.1, or 12101 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code from possessing firearms or ammunition who obtains title to these items by bequest or intestate succession may retain title for not more than one year, but actual possession of these items at any time is punishable pursuant to Section 12021, 12021.1, or 12101 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. Within the year the person shall transfer title to the firearms or ammunition by sale, gift, or other disposition. Any person who violates this paragraph is in violation of subdivision (a).

(8) Any other weapon as defined in subsection (e) of Section 5845 of Title 26 of the United States Code and which is in the possession of a person permitted to possess the weapons pursuant to the federal Gun Control Act of 1968 (Public Law 90-618), as amended, and the regulations issued pursuant thereto. Any person prohibited by Section 12021, 12021.1, or 12101 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code from possessing these weapons who obtains title to these weapons by bequest or intestate succession may retain title for not more than one year, but actual possession of these weapons at any time is punishable pursuant to Section 12021, 12021.1, or 12101 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. Within the year, the person shall transfer title to the weapons by sale, gift, or other disposition. Any person who violates this paragraph is in violation of subdivision (a). The exemption provided in this subdivision does not apply to pen guns.

(9) Instruments or devices that are possessed by federal, state, and local historical societies, museums, and institutional collections which are open to the public, provided that these instruments or devices are properly housed, secured from unauthorized handling, and, if the instrument or device is a firearm, unloaded.

(10) Instruments or devices, other than short-barreled shotguns or short-barreled rifles, that are possessed or utilized during the course of a motion picture, television, or video production or entertainment event by an authorized participant therein in the course of making that production or event or by an authorized employee or agent of the entity producing that production or event.

(11) Instruments or devices, other than short-barreled shotguns or short-barreled rifles, that are sold by, manufactured by, exposed or kept for sale by, possessed by, imported by, or lent by persons who are in the business of selling instruments or devices listed in subdivision (a) solely to the entities referred in paragraphs (9) and (10) when engaging in transactions with those entities.

(12) The sale to, possession of, or purchase of any weapon, device, or ammunition, other than a short-barreled rifle or short-barreled shotgun, by any federal, state, county, city and county, or city agency that is charged with the enforcement of any law for use in the discharge of their official duties, or the possession of any weapon, device, or ammunition, other than a short-barreled rifle or short-barreled shotgun, by peace officers thereof when on duty and the use is authorized by the agency and is within the course and scope of their duties.

(13) Weapons, devices, and ammunition, other than a short-barreled rifle or short-barreled shotgun, that are sold by, manufactured by, exposed, or kept for sale by, possessed by, imported by, or lent by, persons who are in the business of selling weapons, devices, and ammunition listed in subdivision (a) solely to the entities referred to in paragraph (12) when engaging in transactions with those entities.

(14) The manufacture for, sale to, exposing or keeping for sale to, importation of, or lending of wooden clubs or batons to special police officers or uniformed security guards authorized to carry any wooden club or baton pursuant to Section 12002 by entities that are in the business of selling wooden batons or clubs to special police officers and uniformed security guards when engaging in transactions with those persons.

(15) Prior to January 1, 1992, the possession of a multiburst trigger activator by a person who is not prohibited by Section 12021, 12021.1, or 12101 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code from possessing firearms.

(c) (1) As used in this section, a "short-barreled shotgun" means any of the following:

(A) A firearm which is designed or redesigned to fire a fixed shotgun shell and having a barrel or barrels of less than 18 inches in length.

(B) A firearm which has an overall length of less than 26 inches and which is designed or redesigned to fire a fixed shotgun shell.

(C) Any weapon made from a shotgun (whether by alteration, modification, or otherwise) if that weapon, as modified, has an overall length of less than 26 inches or a barrel or barrels of less than 18 inches in length.

(D) Any device which may be readily restored to fire a fixed shotgun shell which, when so restored, is a device defined in subparagraphs (A) to (C), inclusive.

(E) Any part, or combination of parts, designed and intended to convert a device into a device defined in subparagraphs (A) to (C), inclusive, or any combination of parts from which a device defined in subparagraphs (A) to (C), inclusive, can be readily assembled if those parts are in the possession or under the control of the same person.

(2) As used in this section, a "short-barreled rifle" means any of the following:

(A) A rifle having a barrel or barrels of less than 16 inches in length.

(B) A rifle with an overall length of less than 26 inches.

(C) Any weapon made from a rifle (whether by alteration, modification, or otherwise) if that weapon as modified has an overall length of less than 26 inches or a barrel or barrels of less than 16 inches in length.

(D) Any device which may be readily restored to fire a fixed cartridge which, when so restored, is a device defined in subparagraphs (A) to (C), inclusive.

(E) Any part, or combination of parts, designed and intended to convert a device into a device defined in subparagraphs (A) to (C), inclusive, or any combination of parts from which a device defined in subparagraphs (A) to (C), inclusive, may be readily assembled if those parts are in the possession or under the control of the same person.

(3) As used in this section, a "nunchaku" means an instrument consisting of two or more sticks, clubs, bars or rods to be used as handles, connected by a rope, cord, wire, or chain, in the design of a weapon used in connection with the practice of a system of self-defense such as karate.

(4) As used in this section, a "wallet gun" means any firearm mounted or enclosed in a case, resembling a wallet, designed to be or capable of being carried in a pocket or purse, if such firearm may be fired while mounted or enclosed in such case.

(5) As used in this section, a "cane gun" means any firearm mounted or enclosed in a stick, staff, rod, crutch, or similar device, designed to be, or capable of being used as, an aid in walking, if such firearm may be fired while mounted or enclosed therein.

(6) As used in this section, a "fléchette dart" means a dart, capable of being fired from a firearm, which measures approximately one inch in length, with tail fins which take up five-sixteenths of an inch of the body.

(7) As used in this section, "metal knuckles" means any device or instrument made wholly or partially of metal which is worn for purposes of offense or defense in or on the hand and which either protects the wearer's hand while striking a blow or increases the force of impact from the blow or injury to the individual receiving the blow. The metal contained in the device may help support the hand or fist, provide a shield to protect it, or consist of projections or studs which would contact the individual receiving a blow.

(8) As used in this section, a "ballistic knife" means a device that propels a knifelike blade as a projectile by means of a coil spring, elastic material, or compressed gas. Ballistic knife does not include any device which propels an arrow or a bolt by means of any common bow, compound bow, crossbow, or underwater spear gun.

(9) As used in this section, a "camouflaging firearm container" means a container which meets all of the following criteria:

(A) It is designed and intended to enclose a firearm.

(B) It is designed and intended to allow the firing of the enclosed firearm by external controls while the firearm is in the container.

(C) It is not readily recognizable as containing a firearm.

"Camouflaging firearm container" does not include any camouflaging covering used while engaged in lawful hunting or while going to or returning from a lawful hunting expedition.

(10) As used in this section, a "zip gun" means any weapon or device which meets all of the following criteria:

(A) It was not imported as a firearm by an importer licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(B) It was not originally designed to be a firearm by a manufacturer licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(C) No tax was paid on the weapon or device nor was an exemption from paying tax on that weapon or device granted under Section 4181 and subchapters F (commencing with Section 4216) and G (commencing with Section 4221) of Chapter 32 of Title 26 of the United States Code, as amended, and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(D) It is made or altered to expel a projectile by the force of an explosion or other form of combustion.

(E) It has a barrel or barrels less than 18 inches in length or an overall length of less than 26 inches.

(11) As used in this section, a "shuriken" means any instrument, without handles, consisting of a metal plate having three or more radiating points with one or more sharp edges and designed in the shape of a polygon, trefoil, cross, star, diamond, or other geometric shape for use as a weapon for throwing.

(12) As used in this section, an "unconventional pistol" means a pistol or revolver that does not have a rifled bore and has a barrel or barrels of less than 18 inches in length or has an overall length of less than 26 inches.

(13) As used in this section, a "belt buckle knife" is a knife which is made an integral part of a belt buckle and consists of a blade with a length of at least 2½ inches.

(14) As used in this section, a "lipstick case knife" means a knife enclosed within and made an integral part of a lipstick case.

(15) As used in this section, a "cane sword" means a cane, swagger stick, stick, staff, rod, pole, umbrella, or similar device, having concealed within it a blade that may be used as a sword or stiletto.

(16) As used in this section, a "shobi-zue" means a staff, crutch, stick, rod, or pole concealing a knife or blade within it which may be exposed by a flip of the wrist or by a mechanical action.

(17) As used in this section, a "leaded cane" means a staff, crutch, stick, rod, pole, or similar device, unnaturally weighted with lead.

(18) As used in this section, an "air gauge knife" means a device that appears to be an air gauge but has concealed within it a pointed, metallic shaft that is designed to be a stabbing instrument which is exposed by mechanical action or gravity which locks into place when extended.

(19) As used in this section, a "writing pen knife" means a device that appears to be a writing pen but has concealed within it a pointed, metallic shaft that is designed to be a stabbing instrument which is exposed by mechanical action or gravity which locks into place when extended or the pointed, metallic shaft is exposed by the removal of the cap or cover on the device.

(20) As used in this section, a "rifle" means a weapon designed or redesigned, made or remade, and intended to be fired from the shoulder and designed or redesigned and made or remade to use the energy of the explosive in a fixed cartridge to fire only a single projectile through a rifled bore for each single pull of the trigger.

(21) As used in this section, a "shotgun" means a weapon designed or redesigned, made or remade, and intended to be fired from the shoulder and designed or redesigned and made or remade to use the energy of the explosive in a fixed shotgun shell to fire through a smooth bore either a number of projectiles (ball shot) or a single projectile for each pull of the trigger.

(22) As used in this section, a "plastic firearm" means any weapon which meets one of the following requirements:

(A) When, after removal of grips, stocks, and magazines, it is not as detectable as the Security Exemplar, by walk-through metal detectors calibrated and operated to detect the Security Exemplar.

(B) When any major component of which, when subjected to inspection by the types of X-ray machines commonly used at airports, does not generate an image that accurately depicts the shape of the component. Barium sulfate or other compounds may be used in the fabrication of the component.

(C) For purposes of this paragraph, the terms "firearm," "major component," and "Security Exemplar" have the same meanings as those terms are defined in Section 922 of Title 18 of the United States Code.

All firearm detection equipment newly installed in nonfederal public buildings in this state shall be of a type identified by either the United States Attorney General, the Secretary of Transportation, or the Secretary of the Treasury, as appropriate, as available state-of-the-art equipment capable of detecting a plastic firearm, as defined, while distinguishing innocuous metal objects likely to be carried on one's person sufficient for reasonable passage of the public.

(23) As used in this section, a "multiburst trigger activator" means one of the following devices:

(A) A device designed or redesigned to be attached to a semiautomatic firearm which allows the firearm to discharge two or more shots in a burst by activating the device.

(B) A manual or power-driven trigger activating device constructed and designed so that when attached to a semiautomatic firearm it increases the rate of fire of that firearm.

(d) Knives carried in sheaths which are worn openly suspended from the waist of the wearer are not concealed within the meaning of this section.

SEC. 2. Section 12020 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12020. (a) Any person in this state who manufactures or causes to be manufactured, imports into the state, keeps for sale, or offers or exposes for sale, or who gives, lends, or possesses any cane gun or wallet gun, any undetectable firearm, any firearm which is not immediately recognizable as a firearm, any camouflaging firearm container, any ammunition which contains or consists of any fléchette dart, any bullet containing or carrying an explosive agent, any ballistic knife, any multiburst trigger activator, any nunchaku, any short-barreled shotgun, any short-barreled rifle, any metal knuckles, any belt buckle knife, any leaded cane, any zip gun, any shuriken, any unconventional pistol, any lipstick case knife, any cane sword, any shobi-zue, any air gauge knife, any writing pen knife, or any instrument or weapon of the kind commonly known as a blackjack, slungshot, billy, sandclub, sap, or sandbag, or who carries concealed upon his or her person any explosive substance, other than fixed ammunition or who carries concealed upon his or her person any dirk or dagger shall be punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year or in the state prison. A bullet containing or carrying an explosive agent is not a destructive device as that term is used in Section 12301.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not apply to any of the following:

(1) The sale to, purchase by, or possession of short-barreled shotguns or short-barreled rifles by police departments, sheriffs' offices, marshals' offices, the California Highway Patrol, the Department of Justice, or the military or naval forces of this state or of the United States for use in the discharge of their official duties or the possession of short-barreled shotguns and short-barreled rifles by regular, salaried, full-time members of a police department, sheriff's office, marshal's office, the California Highway Patrol, or the Department of Justice when on duty and the use is authorized by the agency and is within the course and scope of their duties.

(2) The manufacture, possession, transportation or sale of short-barreled shotguns or short-barreled rifles when authorized by the Department of Justice pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 12095) of this chapter and not in violation of federal law.

(3) The possession of a nunchaku on the premises of a school which holds a regulatory or business license and teaches the arts of self-defense.

(4) The manufacture of a nunchaku for sale to, or the sale of a nunchaku to, a school which holds a regulatory or business license and teaches the arts of self-defense.

(5) Any antique firearm. For purposes of this section, "antique firearm" means any firearm not designed or redesigned for using rimfire or conventional center fire ignition with fixed ammunition and manufactured in or before 1898 (including any matchlock, flintlock, percussion cap, or similar type of ignition system or replica thereof, whether actually manufactured before or after the year 1898) and also any firearm using fixed ammunition manufactured in or before 1898, for which ammunition is no longer manufactured in the United States and is not readily available in the ordinary channels of commercial trade.

(6) Tracer ammunition manufactured for use in shotguns.

(7) Any firearm or ammunition which is a curio or relic as defined in Section 178.11 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations and which is in the possession of a person permitted to possess the items pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto. Any person prohibited by Section 12021, 12021.1, or 12101 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code from possessing firearms or ammunition who obtains title to these items by bequest or intestate succession may retain title for not more than one year, but actual possession of these items at any time is punishable pursuant to Section 12021, 12021.1, or 12101 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. Within the year the person shall transfer title to the firearms or ammunition by sale, gift, or other disposition. Any person who violates this paragraph is in violation of subdivision (a).

(8) Any other weapon as defined in subsection (e) of Section 5845 of Title 26 of the United States Code and which is in the possession of a person permitted to possess the weapons pursuant to the federal Gun Control Act of 1968 (Public Law 90-618), as amended, and the regulations issued pursuant thereto. Any person prohibited by Section 12021, 12021.1, or 12101 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code from possessing these weapons who obtains title to these weapons by bequest or intestate succession may retain title for not more than one year, but actual possession of these weapons at any time is punishable pursuant to Section 12021, 12021.1, or 12101 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. Within the year, the person shall transfer title to the weapons by sale, gift, or other disposition. Any person who violates this paragraph is in violation of subdivision (a). The exemption provided in this subdivision does not apply to pen guns.

(9) Instruments or devices that are possessed by federal, state, and local historical societies, museums, and institutional collections which are open to the public, provided that these instruments or devices are properly housed, secured from unauthorized handling, and, if the instrument or device is a firearm, unloaded.

(10) Instruments or devices, other than short-barreled shotguns or short-barreled rifles, that are possessed or utilized during the course of a motion picture, television, or video production or entertainment event by an authorized participant therein in the course of making that production or event or by an authorized employee or agent of the entity producing that production or event.

(11) Instruments or devices, other than short-barreled shotguns or short-barreled rifles, that are sold by, manufactured by, exposed or kept for sale by, possessed by, imported by, or lent by persons who are in the business of selling instruments or devices listed in subdivision (a) solely to the entities referred in paragraphs (9) and (10) when engaging in transactions with those entities.

(12) The sale to, possession of, or purchase of any weapon, device, or ammunition, other than a short-barreled rifle or short-barreled shotgun, by any federal, state, county, city and county, or city agency that is charged with the enforcement of any law for use in the discharge of their official duties, or the possession of any weapon, device, or ammunition, other than a short-barreled rifle or short-barreled shotgun, by peace officers thereof when on duty and the use is authorized by the agency and is within the course and scope of their duties.

(13) Weapons, devices, and ammunition, other than a short-barreled short-barreled shotgun, that are sold by, manufactured by, exposed, or kept for sale by, possessed by, imported by, or lent by, persons who are in the business of selling weapons, devices, and ammunition listed in subdivision (a) solely to the entities referred to in paragraph (12) when engaging in transactions with those entities.

(14) The manufacture for, sale to, exposing or keeping for sale to, importation of, or lending of wooden clubs or batons to special police officers or uniformed security guards authorized to carry any wooden club or baton pursuant to Section 12002 by entities that are in the business of selling wooden batons or clubs to special police officers and uniformed security guards when engaging in transactions with those persons.

(c) (1) As used in this section, a "short-barreled shotgun" means any of the following:

(A) A firearm which is designed or redesigned to fire a fixed shotgun shell and having a barrel or barrels of less than 18 inches in length.

(B) A firearm which has an overall length of less than 26 inches and which is designed or redesigned to fire a fixed shotgun shell.

(C) Any weapon made from a shotgun (whether by alteration, modification, or otherwise) if that weapon, as modified, has an overall length of less than 26 inches or a barrel or barrels of less than 18 inches in length.

(D) Any device which may be readily restored to fire a fixed shotgun shell which, when so restored, is a device defined in subparagraphs (A) to (C), inclusive.

(E) Any part, or combination of parts, designed and intended to convert a device into a device defined in subparagraphs (A) to (C), inclusive, or any combination of parts from which a device defined in subparagraphs (A) to (C), inclusive, can be readily assembled if those parts are in the possession or under the control of the same person.

(2) As used in this section, a "short-barreled rifle" means any of the following:

(A) A rifle having a barrel or barrels of less than 16 inches in length.

(B) A rifle with an overall length of less than 26 inches.

(C) Any weapon made from a rifle (whether by alteration, modification, or otherwise) if that weapon as modified has an overall length of less than 26 inches or a barrel or barrels of less than 16 inches in length.

(D) Any device which may be readily restored to fire a fixed cartridge which, when so restored, is a device defined in subparagraphs (A) to (C), inclusive.

(E) Any part, or combination of parts, designed and intended to convert a device into a device defined in subparagraphs (A) to (C), inclusive, or any combination of parts from which a device defined in subparagraphs (A) to (C), inclusive, may be readily assembled if those parts are in the possession or under the control of the same person.

(3) As used in this section, a "nunchaku" means an instrument consisting of two or more sticks, clubs, bars or rods to be used as handles, connected by a rope, cord, wire, or chain, in the design of a weapon used in connection with the practice of a system of self-defense such as karate.

(4) As used in this section, a "wallet gun" means any firearm mounted or enclosed in a case, resembling a wallet, designed to be or capable of being carried in a pocket or purse, if such firearm may be fired while mounted or enclosed in such case.

(5) As used in this section, a "cane gun" means any firearm mounted or enclosed in a stick, staff, rod, crutch, or similar device, designed to be, or capable of being used as, an aid in walking, if such firearm may be fired while mounted or enclosed therein.

(6) As used in this section, a "fléchette dart" means a dart, capable of being fired from a firearm, which measures approximately one inch in length, with tail fins which take up five-sixteenths of an inch of the body.

(7) As used in this section, "metal knuckles" means any device or instrument made wholly or partially of metal which is worn for purposes of offense or defense in or on the hand and which either protects the wearer's hand while striking a blow or increases the force of impact from the blow or injury to the individual receiving the blow. The metal contained in the device may help support the hand or fist, provide a shield to protect it, or consist of projections or studs which would contact the individual receiving a blow.

(8) As used in this section, a "ballistic knife" means a device that propels a knifelike blade as a projectile by means of a coil spring, elastic material, or compressed gas. Ballistic knife does not include any device which propels an arrow or a bolt by means of any common bow, compound bow, crossbow, or underwater spear gun.

(9) As used in this section, a "camouflaging firearm container" means a container which meets all of the following criteria:

(A) It is designed and intended to enclose a firearm.

(B) It is designed and intended to allow the firing of the enclosed firearm by external controls while the firearm is in the container.

(C) It is not readily recognizable as containing a firearm.

"Camouflaging firearm container" does not include any camouflaging covering used while engaged in lawful hunting or while going to or returning from a lawful hunting expedition.

(10) As used in this section, a "zip gun" means any weapon or device which meets all of the following criteria:

(A) It was not imported as a firearm by an importer licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(B) It was not originally designed to be a firearm by a manufacturer licensed pursuant to Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(C) No tax was paid on the weapon or device nor was an exemption from paying tax on that weapon or device granted under Section 4181 and subchapters F (commencing with Section 4216) and G (commencing with Section 4221) of Chapter 32 of Title 26 of the United States Code, as amended, and the regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(D) It is made or altered to expel a projectile by the force of an explosion or other form of combustion.

(11) As used in this section, a "shuriken" means any instrument, without handles, consisting of a metal plate having three or more radiating points with one or more sharp edges and designed in the shape of a polygon, trefoil, cross, star, diamond, or other geometric shape for use as a weapon for throwing.

(12) As used in this section, an "unconventional pistol" means a firearm that does not have a rifled bore and has a barrel or barrels of less than 18 inches in length or has an overall length of less than 26 inches.

(13) As used in this section, a "belt buckle knife" is a knife which is made an integral part of a belt buckle and consists of a blade with a length of at least 2½ inches.

(14) As used in this section, a "lipstick case knife" means a knife enclosed within and made an integral part of a lipstick case.

(15) As used in this section, a "cane sword" means a cane, swagger stick, stick, staff, rod, pole, umbrella, or similar device, having concealed within it a blade that may be used as a sword or stiletto.

(16) As used in this section, a "shobi-zue" means a staff, crutch, stick, rod, or pole concealing a knife or blade within it which may be exposed by a flip of the wrist or by a mechanical action.

(17) As used in this section, a "leaded cane" means a staff, crutch, stick, rod, pole, or similar device, unnaturally weighted with lead.

(18) As used in this section, an "air gauge knife" means a device that appears to be an air gauge but has concealed within it a pointed, metallic shaft that is designed to be a stabbing instrument which is exposed by mechanical action or gravity which locks into place when extended.

(19) As used in this section, a "writing pen knife" means a device that appears to be a writing pen but has concealed within it a pointed, metallic shaft that is designed to be a stabbing instrument which is exposed by mechanical action or gravity which locks into place when extended or the pointed, metallic shaft is exposed by the removal of the cap or cover on the device.

(20) As used in this section, a "rifle" means a weapon designed or redesigned, made or remade, and intended to be fired from the shoulder and designed or redesigned and made or remade to use the energy of the explosive in a fixed cartridge to fire only a single projectile through a rifled bore for each single pull of the trigger.

(21) As used in this section, a "shotgun" means a weapon designed or redesigned, made or remade, and intended to be fired from the shoulder and designed or redesigned and made or remade to use the energy of the explosive in a fixed shotgun shell to fire through a smooth bore either a number of projectiles (ball shot) or a single projectile for each pull of the trigger.

(22) As used in this section, an "undetectable firearm" means any weapon which meets one of the following requirements:

(A) When, after removal of grips, stocks, and magazines, it is not as detectable as the Security Exemplar, by walk-through metal detectors calibrated and operated to detect the Security Exemplar.

(B) When any major component of which, when subjected to inspection by the types of X-ray machines commonly used at airports, does not generate an image that accurately depicts the shape of the component. Barium sulfate or other compounds may be used in the fabrication of the component.

(C) For purposes of this paragraph, the terms "firearm," "major component," and "Security Exemplar" have the same meanings as those terms are defined in Section 922 of Title 18 of the United States Code.

All firearm detection equipment newly installed in nonfederal public buildings in this state shall be of a type identified by either the United States Attorney General, the Secretary of Transportation, or the Secretary of the Treasury, as appropriate, as available state-of-the-art equipment capable of detecting an undetectable firearm, as defined, while distinguishing innocuous metal objects likely to be carried on one's person sufficient for reasonable passage of the public.

(23) As used in this section, a "multiburst trigger activator" means one of the following devices:

(A) A device designed or redesigned to be attached to a semiautomatic firearm which allows the firearm to discharge two or more shots in a burst by activating the device.

(B) A manual or power-driven trigger activating device constructed and designed so that when attached to a semiautomatic firearm it increases the rate of fire of that firearm.

(24) As used in this section, a "dirk" or "dagger" means a knife or other instrument with or without a handguard that is primarily designed, constructed, or altered to be a stabbing instrument designed to inflict great bodily injury or death.

(d) Knives carried in sheaths which are worn openly suspended from the waist of the wearer are not concealed within the meaning of this section.

SEC. 3. Section 12071 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12071. (a) (1) As used in this chapter, the term "licensee," "person licensed pursuant to Section 12071," or "dealer" means a person who has (A) a valid federal firearms license, (B) any regulatory or business license, or licenses, required by local government, (C) a valid seller's permit issued by the State Board of Equalization, (D) a certificate of eligibility issued by the Department of Justice pursuant to paragraph (4), and (E) a license issued in the format prescribed by paragraph (6).

(2) The duly constituted licensing authority of a city, county, or a city and county shall accept applications for, and may grant licenses permitting, licensees to sell firearms at retail within the city, county, or city and county. The duly constituted licensing authority shall inform applicants who are denied licenses of the reasons for the denial in writing.

(3) No license shall be granted to any applicant who fails to provide a copy of his or her valid federal firearms license, valid seller's permit issued by the State Board of Equalization, and the certificate of eligibility described in paragraph (4).

(4) A person may request a certificate of eligibility from the Department of Justice and the Department of Justice shall issue a certificate to an applicant when the department's records indicate that the applicant is not a person who is prohibited from possessing firearms.

(5) The department shall adopt regulations to administer the certificate of eligibility program and shall recover the full costs of administering the program by imposing fees assessed to applicants who apply for those certificates.

(6) A license granted by the duly constituted licensing authority of any city, county, or city and county, shall be valid for not more than one year from the date of issuance and shall be in one of the following forms:

(A) In the form prescribed by the Attorney General.

(B) A regulatory or business license which states on its face "Valid for Retail Sales of Firearms" and is endorsed by the signature of the issuing authority.

(C) A letter from the duly constituted licensing authority having primary jurisdiction for the applicant's intended business location stating that the jurisdiction does not require any form of regulatory or business license or does not otherwise restrict or regulate the sale of firearms.

(7) Local licensing authorities may assess fees to recover their full costs of processing applications for licenses.

(b) A license is subject to forfeiture for a breach of any of the following prohibitions and requirements:

(1) (A) Except as provided in subparagraphs (B) and (C), the business shall be conducted only in the buildings designated in the license.

(B) A person licensed pursuant to subdivision (a), for purposes of complying with Section 12082, may take possession of firearms and commence preparation of registers for the sale, delivery, or transfer of firearms at gun shows or events, as defined in Section 178.100 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or its successor, if the gun show or event is not conducted from any motorized or towed vehicle. A person conducting business pursuant to this subparagraph shall be entitled to conduct business as authorized herein at any gun show or event in the state without regard to the jurisdiction within this state that issued the license pursuant to subdivision (a).

A person licensed pursuant to subdivision (a), at gun shows and events, also may sell, lease, or transfer firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, provided the person (i) complies with all other applicable law, including, but not limited to, the 15-day waiting period specified in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (3), and (ii) complies with all applicable local laws, regulations, and fees, if any.

A person conducting business pursuant to this subparagraph shall publicly display his or her license issued pursuant to subdivision (a), or a facsimile thereof, at any gun show or event, as specified in this subparagraph.

(C) A person licensed pursuant to subdivision (a) may engage in the sale and transfer of firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, at events specified in subdivision (g) of Section 12078, subject to the prohibitions and restrictions contained in that subdivision.

A person licensed pursuant to subdivision (a) also may accept delivery of firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, outside the building designated in the license, provided the firearm is being donated for the purpose of sale or transfer at an auction or similar event specified in subdivision (g) of Section 12078.

(2) The license or a copy thereof, certified by the issuing authority, shall be displayed on the premises where it can easily be seen.

(3) No firearm shall be delivered:

(A) Prior to January 1, 1996, within 15 days of the application for the purchase, or, after notice by the department pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 12076, within 15 days of the submission to the department of corrected copies of the register, or within 15 days of the submission to the department of any fee required pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12076, whichever is later. On or after January 1, 1996, within 15 days of the application for the purchase of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, or, after notice by the department pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 12076, within 15 days of the submission to the department of corrected copies of the register, or within 15 days of the submission to the department of any fee required pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12076, whichever is later. On or after January 1, 1996, within 10 days of the application for the purchase of any other firearm, or, after notice by the department pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 12076, within 10 days of the submission to the department of corrected copies of the register, or within 10 days of the submission to the department of any fee required pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12076, whichever is later.

(B) Unless unloaded and securely wrapped or unloaded and in a locked container.

(C) Unless the purchaser or transferee either is personally known to the dealer or presents clear evidence of his or her identity and age to the dealer.

(D) Whenever the dealer is notified by the Department of Justice that the person is in a prohibited class described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(4) No pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person or imitation thereof, or placard advertising the sale or other transfer thereof, shall be displayed in any part of the premises where it can readily be seen from the outside.

(5) The licensee shall agree to and shall act properly and promptly in processing firearms transactions pursuant to Section 12082.

(6) The licensee shall comply with Sections 12073 and 12077 and subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 12072.

(7) The licensee shall post conspicuously within the licensed premises the following warning in block letters not less than one inch in height:

"IF YOU LEAVE A LOADED FIREARM WHERE A CHILD OBTAINS AND IMPROPERLY USES IT, YOU MAY BE FINED OR SENT TO PRISON."

(8) Commencing October 1, 1993, no pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person shall be delivered unless the purchaser or transferee presents to the dealer a basic firearm safety certificate.

(9) Commencing July 1, 1992, the licensee shall offer to provide the purchaser or transferee of a firearm with a copy of the pamphlet described in Section 12080 and may add the cost of the pamphlet, if any, to the sales price of the firearm.

(10) The licensee shall not commit an act of collusion as defined in Section 12072.

(11) The licensee shall post conspicuously within the licensed premises a detailed list of each of the following:

(A) All charges required by governmental agencies for processing firearm transfers required by Sections 12076, 12082, and 12806.

(B) All fees that the licensee charges pursuant to Sections 12082 and 12806.

(12) The licensee shall not misstate the amount of fees charged by a governmental agency pursuant to Sections 12076, 12082, and 12806.

(13) The licensee shall report the loss or theft of any firearm that is merchandise of the licensee, any firearm that the licensee takes possession of pursuant to Section 12082, or any firearm kept at the licensee's place of business within 48 hours of discovery to the appropriate law enforcement agency in the city, county, or city and county where the licensee's business premises are located.

(14) In a city and county, or in the unincorporated area of a county with a population of 200,000 persons or more according to the most recent federal decennial census or within a city with a population of 50,000 persons or more according to the most recent federal decennial census, any time the licensee is not open for business, the licensee shall store all firearms kept in his or her licensed place of business using one of the following methods as to each particular firearm:

(A) Store the firearm in a secure facility that is a part of, or that constitutes, the licensee's business premises.

(B) Secure the firearm with a hardened steel rod or cable of at least one-eighth inch in diameter through the trigger guard of the firearm. The steel rod or cable shall be secured with a hardened steel lock that has a shackle. The lock and shackle shall be protected or shielded from the use of a bolt cutter and the rod or cable shall be anchored in a manner that prevents the removal of the firearm from the premises.

(C) Store the firearm in a locked fireproof safe or vault in the licensee's business premises.

(15) The licensing authority in an unincorporated area of a county with a population less than 200,000 persons according to the most recent federal decennial census or within a city with a population of less than 50,000 persons according to the most recent federal decennial census may impose the requirements specified in paragraph (14).

(16) Paragraph (14) or (15) shall not apply to a licensee organized as a nonprofit public benefit or mutual benefit corporation organized pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110) or Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110) of Division 2 of the Corporations Code, if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

(A) The nonprofit public benefit or mutual benefit corporation obtained the dealer's license solely and exclusively to assist that corporation or local chapters of that corporation in conducting auctions or similar events at which firearms are auctioned off to fund the activities of that corporation or the local chapters of the corporation.

(B) The firearms are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person.

(c) (1) As used in this article, "clear evidence of his or her identity and age" includes, but is not limited to, a motor vehicle operator's license, a state identification card, an armed forces identification card, an employment identification card which contains the bearer's signature and photograph, or any similar documentation which provides the seller reasonable assurance of the identity and age of the purchaser.

(2) As used in this article, "a basic firearm safety certificate" means a basic firearm certificate issued to the purchaser or transferee by the Department of Justice pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 12800) of Chapter 6.

(3) As used in this section, a "secure facility" means a building that meets all of the following specifications:

(A) All perimeter doorways shall meet one of the following:

(i) A windowless steel security door equipped with both a dead bolt and a doorknob lock.

(ii) A windowed metal door that is equipped with both a dead bolt and a doorknob lock. If the window has an opening of five inches or more measured in any direction, the window shall be covered with steel bars of at least one-half inch diameter or metal grating of at least nine gauge affixed to the exterior or interior of the door.

(iii) A metal grate that is padlocked and affixed to the licensee's premises independent of the door and doorframe.

(B) All windows are covered with steel bars.

(C) Heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, and service openings are secured with steel bars, metal grating, or an alarm system.

(D) Any metal grates have spaces no larger than six inches wide measured in any direction.

(E) Any metal screens have spaces no larger than three inches wide measured in any direction.

(F) All steel bars shall be no further than six inches apart.

(4) As used in this section, "licensed premises," "licensed place of business," "licensee's place of business," or "licensee's business premises" means the building designated in the license.

(d) Upon written request from a licensee, the licensing authority may grant an exemption from compliance with the requirements of paragraph (14) of subdivision (b) if the licensee is unable to comply with those requirements because of local ordinances, covenants, lease conditions, or similar circumstances not under the control of the licensee.

SEC. 4. Section 12071 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12071. (a) (1) As used in this chapter, the term "licensee," "person licensed pursuant to Section 12071," or "dealer" means a person who has (A) a valid federal firearms license, (B) any regulatory or business license, or licenses, required by local government, (C) a valid seller's permit issued by the State Board of Equalization, (D) a certificate of eligibility issued by the Department of Justice pursuant to paragraph (4), and (E) a license issued in the format prescribed by paragraph (6).

(2) The duly constituted licensing authority of a city, county, or a city and county shall accept applications for, and may grant licenses permitting, licensees to sell firearms at retail within the city, county, or city and county. The duly constituted licensing authority shall inform applicants who are denied licenses of the reasons for the denial in writing.

(3) No license shall be granted to any applicant who fails to provide a copy of his or her valid federal firearms license, valid seller's permit issued by the State Board of Equalization, and the certificate of eligibility described in paragraph (4).

(4) A person may request a certificate of eligibility from the Department of Justice and the Department of Justice shall issue a certificate to an applicant when the department's records indicate that the applicant is not a person who is prohibited from possessing firearms.

(5) The department shall adopt regulations to administer the certificate of eligibility program and shall recover the full costs of administering the program by imposing fees assessed to applicants who apply for those certificates.

(6) A license granted by the duly constituted licensing authority of any city, county, or city and county, shall be valid for not more than one year from the date of issuance and shall be in one of the following forms:

(A) In the form prescribed by the Attorney General.

(B) A regulatory or business license which states on its face "Valid for Retail Sales of Firearms" and is endorsed by the signature of the issuing authority.

(C) A letter from the duly constituted licensing authority having primary jurisdiction for the applicant's intended business location stating that the jurisdiction does not require any form of regulatory or business license or does not otherwise restrict or regulate the sale of firearms.

(7) Local licensing authorities may assess fees to recover their full costs of processing applications for licenses.

(b) A license is subject to forfeiture for a breach of any of the following prohibitions and requirements:

(1) (A) Except as provided in subparagraphs (B) and (C), the business shall be conducted only in the buildings designated in the license.

(B) A person licensed pursuant to subdivision (a) may take possession of firearms and commence preparation of registers for the sale, delivery, or transfer of firearms at gun shows or events, as defined in Section 178.100 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or its successor, if the gun show or event is not conducted from any motorized or towed vehicle. A person conducting business pursuant to this subparagraph shall be entitled to conduct business as authorized herein at any gun show or event in the state without regard to the jurisdiction within this state that issued the license pursuant to subdivision (a), provided the person complies with (i) all applicable laws, including, but not limited to, the 15-day waiting period specified in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (3), and (ii) all applicable local laws, regulations, and fees, if any.

A person conducting business pursuant to this subparagraph shall publicly display his or her license issued pursuant to subdivision (a), or a facsimile thereof, at any gun show or event, as specified in this subparagraph.

(C) A person licensed pursuant to subdivision (a) may engage in the sale and transfer of firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, at events specified in subdivision (g) of Section 12078, subject to the prohibitions and restrictions contained in that subdivision.

A person licensed pursuant to subdivision (a) also may accept delivery of firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, outside the building designated in the license, provided the firearm is being donated for the purpose of sale or transfer at an auction or similar event specified in subdivision (g) of Section 12078.

(2) The license or a copy thereof, certified by the issuing authority, shall be displayed on the premises where it can easily be seen.

(3) No firearm shall be delivered:

(A) Prior to January 1, 1996, within 15 days of the application for the purchase, or, after notice by the department pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 12076, within 15 days of the submission to the department of corrected copies of the register, or within 15 days of the submission to the department of any fee required pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12076, whichever is later. On or after January 1, 1996, within 15 days of the application for the purchase of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, or, after notice by the department pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 12076, within 15 days of the submission to the department of corrected copies of the register, or within 15 days of the submission to the department of any fee required pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12076, whichever is later. On or after January 1, 1996, within 10 days of the application for the purchase of any other firearm, or, after notice by the department pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 12076, within 10 days of the submission to the department of corrected copies of the register, or within 10 days of the submission to the department of any fee required pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12076, whichever is later.

(B) Unless unloaded and securely wrapped or unloaded and in a locked container.

(C) Unless the purchaser or transferee either is personally known to the dealer or presents clear evidence of his or her identity and age to the dealer.

(D) Whenever the dealer is notified by the Department of Justice that the person is in a prohibited class described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(4) No pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person or imitation thereof, or placard advertising the sale or other transfer thereof, shall be displayed in any part of the premises where it can readily be seen from the outside.

(5) The licensee shall agree to and shall act properly and promptly in processing firearms transactions pursuant to Section 12082.

(6) The licensee shall comply with Sections 12073 and 12077 and subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 12072.

(7) The licensee shall post conspicuously within the licensed premises the following warning in block letters not less than one inch in height:

"IF YOU LEAVE A LOADED FIREARM WHERE A CHILD OBTAINS AND IMPROPERLY USES IT, YOU MAY BE FINED OR SENT TO PRISON."

(8) Commencing October 1, 1993, no pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person shall be delivered unless the purchaser or transferee presents to the dealer a basic firearm safety certificate.

(9) Commencing July 1, 1992, the licensee shall offer to provide the purchaser or transferee of a firearm with a copy of the pamphlet described in Section 12080 and may add the cost of the pamphlet, if any, to the sales price of the firearm.

(10) The licensee shall not commit an act of collusion as defined in Section 12072.

(11) The licensee shall post conspicuously within the licensed premises a detailed list of each of the following:

(A) All charges required by governmental agencies for processing firearm transfers required by Sections 12076, 12082, and 12806.

(B) All fees that the licensee charges pursuant to Sections 12082

and 12806.

(12) The licensee shall not misstate the amount of fees charged by a governmental agency pursuant to Sections 12076, 12082, and 12806.

(13) The licensee shall report the loss or theft of any firearm that is merchandise of the licensee, any firearm that the licensee takes possession of pursuant to Section 12082, or any firearm kept at the licensee's place of business within 48 hours of discovery to the appropriate law enforcement agency in the city, county, or city and county where the licensee's business premises are located.

(14) In a city and county, or in the unincorporated area of a county with a population of 200,000 persons or more according to the most recent federal decennial census or within a city with a population of 50,000 persons or more according to the most recent federal decennial census, any time the licensee is not open for business, the licensee shall store all firearms kept in his or her licensed place of business using one of the following methods as to each particular firearm:

(A) Store the firearm in a secure facility that is a part of, or that constitutes, the licensee's business premises.

(B) Secure the firearm with a hardened steel rod or cable of at least one-eighth inch in diameter through the trigger guard of the firearm. The steel rod or cable shall be secured with a hardened steel lock that has a shackle. The lock and shackle shall be protected or shielded from the use of a bolt cutter and the rod or cable shall be anchored in a manner that prevents the removal of the firearm from the premises.

(C) Store the firearm in a locked fireproof safe or vault in the licensee's business premises.

(15) The licensing authority in an unincorporated area of a county with a population less than 200,000 persons according to the most recent federal decennial census or within a city with a population of less than 50,000 persons according to the most recent federal decennial census may impose the requirements specified in paragraph (14).

(16) Paragraph (14) or (15) shall not apply to a licensee organized as a nonprofit public benefit or mutual benefit corporation organized pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110) or Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110) of Division 2 of the Corporations Code, if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

(A) The nonprofit public benefit or mutual benefit corporation obtained the dealer's license solely and exclusively to assist that corporation or local chapters of that corporation in conducting auctions or similar events at which firearms are auctioned off to fund the activities of that corporation or the local chapters of the corporation.

(B) The firearms are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person.

(c) (1) As used in this article, "clear evidence of his or her identity and age" includes, but is not limited to, a motor vehicle operator's license, a state identification card, an armed forces identification card, an employment identification card which contains the bearer's signature and photograph, or any similar documentation which provides the seller reasonable assurance of the identity and age of the purchaser.

(2) As used in this article, "a basic firearm safety certificate" means a basic firearm certificate issued to the purchaser or transferee by the Department of Justice pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 12800) of Chapter 6.

(3) As used in this section, a "secure facility" means a building that meets all of the following specifications:

(A) All perimeter doorways shall meet one of the following:

(i) A windowless steel security door equipped with both a dead bolt and a doorknob lock.

(ii) A windowed metal door that is equipped with both a dead bolt and a doorknob lock. If the window has an opening of five inches or more measured in any direction, the window shall be covered with steel bars of at least one-half inch diameter or metal grating of at least nine gauge affixed to the exterior or interior of the door.

(iii) A metal grate that is padlocked and affixed to the licensee's premises independent of the door and doorframe.

(B) All windows are covered with steel bars.

(C) Heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, and service openings are secured with steel bars, metal grating, or an alarm system.

(D) Any metal grates have spaces no larger than six inches wide measured in any direction.

(E) Any metal screens have spaces no larger than three inches wide measured in any direction.

(F) All steel bars shall be no further than six inches apart.

(4) As used in this section, "licensed premises," "licensed place of business," "licensee's place of business," or "licensee's business premises" means the building designated in the license.

(d) Upon written request from a licensee, the licensing authority may grant an exemption from compliance with the requirements of paragraph (14) of subdivision (b) if the licensee is unable to comply with those requirements because of local ordinances, covenants, lease conditions, or similar circumstances not under the control of the licensee.

SEC. 5. Section 12071 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12071. (a) (1) As used in this chapter, the term "licensee," "person licensed pursuant to Section 12071," or "dealer" means a person who has (A) a valid federal firearms license, (B) any regulatory or business license, or licenses, required by local government, (C) a valid seller's permit issued by the State Board of Equalization, (D) a certificate of eligibility issued by the Department of Justice pursuant to paragraph (4), and (E) a license issued in the format prescribed by paragraph (6).

(2) The duly constituted licensing authority of a city, county, or a city and county shall accept applications for, and may grant licenses permitting, licensees to sell firearms at retail within the city, county, or city and county. The duly constituted licensing authority shall inform applicants who are denied licenses of the reasons for the denial in writing.

(3) No license shall be granted to any applicant who fails to provide a copy of his or her valid federal firearms license, valid seller's permit issued by the State Board of Equalization, and the certificate of eligibility described in paragraph (4).

(4) A person may request a certificate of eligibility from the Department of Justice and the Department of Justice shall issue a certificate to an applicant when the department's records indicate that the applicant is not a person who is prohibited from possessing firearms.

(5) The department shall adopt regulations to administer the certificate of eligibility program and shall recover the full costs of administering the program by imposing fees assessed to applicants who apply for those certificates.

(6) A license granted by the duly constituted licensing authority of any city, county, or city and county, shall be valid for not more than one year from the date of issuance and shall be in one of the following forms:

(A) In the form prescribed by the Attorney General.

(B) A regulatory or business license which states on its face "Valid for Retail Sales of Firearms" and is endorsed by the signature of the issuing authority.

(C) A letter from the duly constituted licensing authority having primary jurisdiction for the applicant's intended business location stating that the jurisdiction does not require any form of regulatory or business license or does not otherwise restrict or regulate the sale of firearms.

(7) Local licensing authorities may assess fees to recover their full costs of processing applications for licenses.

(b) A license is subject to forfeiture for a breach of any of the following prohibitions and requirements:

(1) (A) Except as provided in subparagraphs (B) and (C), the business shall be conducted only in the buildings designated in the license.

(B) A person licensed pursuant to subdivision (a) may take possession of firearms and commence preparation of registers for the sale, delivery, or transfer of firearms at gun shows or events, as defined in Section 178.100 of Title 27 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or its successor, if the gun show or event is not conducted from any motorized or towed vehicle. A person conducting business pursuant to this subparagraph shall be entitled to conduct business as authorized herein at any gun show or event in the state without regard to the jurisdiction within this state that issued the license pursuant to subdivision (a), provided the person complies with (i) all applicable laws, including, but not limited to, the 15-day waiting period specified in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (3), and (ii) all applicable local laws, regulations, and fees, if any.

A person conducting business pursuant to this subparagraph shall publicly display his or her license issued pursuant to subdivision (a), or a facsimile thereof, at any gun show or event, as specified in this subparagraph.

(C) A person licensed pursuant to subdivision (a) may engage in the sale and transfer of firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, at events specified in subdivision (g) of Section 12078, subject to the prohibitions and restrictions contained in that subdivision.

A person licensed pursuant to subdivision (a) also may accept delivery of firearms other than pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, outside the building designated in the license, provided the firearm is being donated for the purpose of sale or transfer at an auction or similar event specified in subdivision (g) of Section 12078.

(2) The license or a copy thereof, certified by the issuing authority, shall be displayed on the premises where it can easily be seen.

(3) No firearm shall be delivered:

(A) Prior to January 1, 1996, within 15 days of the application for the purchase, or, after notice by the department pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 12076, within 15 days of the submission to the department of corrected copies of the register, or within 15 days of the submission to the department of any fee required pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12076, whichever is later. On or after January 1, 1996, within 15 days of the application for the purchase of a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, or, after notice by the department pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 12076, within 15 days of the submission to the department of corrected copies of the register, or within 15 days of the submission to the department of any fee required pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12076, whichever is later. On or after January 1, 1996, within 10 days of the application for the purchase of any other firearm, or, after notice by the department pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 12076, within 10 days of the submission to the department of corrected copies of the register, or within 10 days of the submission to the department of any fee required pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 12076, whichever is later.

(B) Unless unloaded and securely wrapped or unloaded and in a locked container.

(C) Unless the purchaser or transferee presents clear evidence of his or her identity and age to the dealer.

(D) Whenever the dealer is notified by the Department of Justice that the person is in a prohibited class described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(4) No pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person or imitation thereof, or placard advertising the sale or other transfer thereof, shall be displayed in any part of the premises where it can readily be seen from the outside.

(5) The licensee shall agree to and shall act properly and promptly in processing firearms transactions pursuant to Section 12082.

(6) The licensee shall comply with Sections 12073 and 12077 and subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 12072.

(7) The licensee shall post conspicuously within the licensed premises the following warning in block letters not less than one inch in height:

"IF YOU LEAVE A LOADED FIREARM WHERE A CHILD OBTAINS AND IMPROPERLY USES IT, YOU MAY BE FINED OR SENT TO PRISON."

(8) Commencing April 1, 1994, no pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person shall be delivered unless the purchaser or transferee presents to the dealer a basic firearm safety certificate.

(9) Commencing July 1, 1992, the licensee shall offer to provide the purchaser or transferee of a firearm with a copy of the pamphlet described in Section 12080 and may add the cost of the pamphlet, if any, to the sales price of the firearm.

(10) The licensee shall not commit an act of collusion as defined in Section 12072.

(11) The licensee shall post conspicuously within the licensed premises a detailed list of each of the following:

(A) All charges required by governmental agencies for processing firearm transfers required by Sections 12076, 12082, and 12806.

(B) All fees that the licensee charges pursuant to Sections 12082 and 12806.

(12) The licensee shall not misstate the amount of fees charged by a governmental agency pursuant to Sections 12076, 12082, and 12806.

(13) The licensee shall report the loss or theft of any firearm that is merchandise of the licensee, any firearm that the licensee takes possession of pursuant to Section 12082, or any firearm kept at the licensee's place of business within 48 hours of discovery to the appropriate law enforcement agency in the city, county, or city and county where the licensee's business premises are located.

(14) In a city and county, or in the unincorporated area of a county with a population of 200,000 persons or more according to the most recent federal decennial census or within a city with a population of 50,000 persons or more according to the most recent federal decennial census, any time the licensee is not open for business, the licensee shall store all firearms kept in his or her licensed place of business using one of the following methods as to each particular firearm:

(A) Store the firearm in a secure facility that is a part of, or that constitutes, the licensee's business premises.

(B) Secure the firearm with a hardened steel rod or cable of at least one-eighth inch in diameter through the trigger guard of the firearm. The steel rod or cable shall be secured with a hardened steel lock that has a shackle. The lock and shackle shall be protected or shielded from the use of a bolt cutter and the rod or cable shall be anchored in a manner that prevents the removal of the firearm from the premises.

(C) Store the firearm in a locked fireproof safe or vault in the licensee's business premises.

(15) The licensing authority in an unincorporated area of a county with a population less than 200,000 persons according to the most recent federal decennial census or within a city with a population of less than 50,000 persons according to the most recent federal decennial census may impose the requirements specified in paragraph (14).

(16) Paragraph (14) or (15) shall not apply to a licensee organized as a nonprofit public benefit or mutual benefit corporation organized pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110) or Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110) of Division 2 of the Corporations Code, if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

(A) The nonprofit public benefit or mutual benefit corporation obtained the dealer's license solely and exclusively to assist that corporation or local chapters of that corporation in conducting auctions or similar events at which firearms are auctioned off to fund the activities of that corporation or the local chapters of the corporation.

(B) The firearms are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person.

(17) Commencing January 1, 1994, the licensee shall, upon the issuance or renewal of a license, submit a copy of the same to the Department of Justice.

(c) (1) As used in this article, "clear evidence of his or her identity and age" includes, but is not limited to, a motor vehicle operator's license, a state identification card, an armed forces identification card, an employment identification card which contains the bearer's signature and photograph, or any similar documentation which provides the seller reasonable assurance of the identity and age of the purchaser.

(2) As used in this article, "a basic firearm safety certificate" means a basic firearm certificate issued to the purchaser or transferee by the Department of Justice pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 12800) of Chapter 6.

(3) As used in this section, a "secure facility" means a building that meets all of the following specifications:

(A) All perimeter doorways shall meet one of the following:

(i) A windowless steel security door equipped with both a dead bolt and a doorknob lock.

(ii) A windowed metal door that is equipped with both a dead bolt and a doorknob lock. If the window has an opening of five inches or more measured in any direction, the window shall be covered with steel bars of at least one-half inch diameter or metal grating of at least nine gauge affixed to the exterior or interior of the door.

(iii) A metal grate that is padlocked and affixed to the licensee's premises independent of the door and doorframe.

(B) All windows are covered with steel bars.

(C) Heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, and service openings are secured with steel bars, metal grating, or an alarm system.

(D) Any metal grates have spaces no larger than six inches wide measured in any direction.

(E) Any metal screens have spaces no larger than three inches wide measured in any direction.

(F) All steel bars shall be no further than six inches apart.

(4) As used in this section, "licensed premises," "licensed place of business," "licensee's place of business," or "licensee's business premises" means the building designated in the license.

(d) Upon written request from a licensee, the licensing authority may grant an exemption from compliance with the requirements of paragraph (14) of subdivision (b) if the licensee is unable to comply with those requirements because of local ordinances, covenants, lease conditions, or similar circumstances not under the control of the licensee.

(e) Commencing March 1, 1994, the Department of Justice shall keep a centralized list of all persons licensed pursuant to this section and shall make information about an individual dealer available, upon request, for one of the following purposes:

(1) For law enforcement purposes.

(2) When the information is requested by a manufacturer, an importer, a wholesaler, or a dealer for determining the validity of the license for firearm shipments.

SEC. 6. Section 12285 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12285. (a) Any person who lawfully possesses an assault weapon, as defined in Section 12276, prior to June 1, 1989, shall register the firearm by January 1, 1991, and any person who lawfully possessed an assault weapon prior to the date it was specified as an assault weapon pursuant to Section 12276.5 shall register the firearm within 90 days, with the Department of Justice pursuant to those procedures that the department may establish. The registration shall contain a description of the firearm that identifies it uniquely, including all identification marks, the full name, address, date of birth, and thumbprint of the owner, and any other information as the department may deem appropriate. The department may charge a fee for registration of up to twenty dollars ($20) per person but not to exceed the actual processing costs of the department. After the department establishes fees sufficient to reimburse the department for processing costs, fees charged shall increase at a rate not to exceed the legislatively approved annual cost-of-living adjustment for the department's budget or as otherwise increased through the Budget Act.

(b) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), no assault weapon possessed pursuant to this section may be sold or transferred on or after January 1, 1990, to anyone within this state other than to a licensed gun dealer, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 12290, or as provided in Section 12288. Any person who (A) obtains title to an assault weapon registered under this section by bequest or intestate succession, or (B) lawfully possessed a firearm subsequently declared to be an assault weapon pursuant to Section 12276.5, shall, within 90 days, render the weapon permanently inoperable, sell the weapon to a licensed gun dealer, obtain a permit from the Department of Justice in the same manner as specified in Article 3 (commencing with Section 12230) of Chapter 2, or remove the weapon from this state. A person who lawfully possessed a firearm that was subsequently declared to be an assault weapon pursuant to Section 12276.5 may alternatively register the firearm within 90 days of the declaration issued pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 12276.5.

(2) A person moving into this state, otherwise in lawful possession of an assault weapon, shall do one of the following:

(A) Prior to bringing the assault weapon into this state, that person shall first obtain a permit from the Department of Justice in the same manner as specified in Article 3 (commencing with Section 12230) of Chapter 2.

(B) The person shall cause the assault weapon to be delivered to a licensed dealer in this state in accordance with Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto. If the person obtains a permit from the Department of Justice in the same manner as specified in Article 3 (commencing with Section 12230) of Chapter 2, the dealer shall redeliver that assault weapon to the person. If the licensed dealer is prohibited from delivering the assault weapon to a person pursuant to this paragraph, the dealer shall possess or dispose of the assault weapon as allowed by this chapter.

(c) A person who has registered an assault weapon under this section may possess it only under any of the following conditions unless a permit allowing additional uses is first obtained under Section 12286:

(1) At that person's residence, place of business, or other property owned by that person, or on property owned by another with the owner's express permission.

(2) While on the premises of a target range of a public or private club or organization organized for the purpose of practicing shooting at targets.

(3) While on a target range that holds a regulatory or business license for the purpose of practicing shooting at that target range.

(4) While on the premises of a shooting club which is licensed pursuant to the Fish and Game Code.

(5) While attending any exhibition, display, or educational project which is about firearms and which is sponsored by, conducted under the auspices of, or approved by a law enforcement agency or a nationally or state recognized entity that fosters proficiency in, or promotes education about, firearms.

(6) While transporting the assault weapon between any of the places mentioned in this subdivision, or to any licensed gun dealer, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 12290, for servicing or repair pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 12290, if the assault weapon is transported as required by Section 12026.1.

(d) No person who is under the age of 18 years, no person who is prohibited from possessing a firearm by Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code, and no person described in Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code may register or possess an assault weapon.

(e) The department's registration procedures shall provide the option of joint registration for assault weapons owned by family members residing in the same household.

(f) For 90 days following January 1, 1992, a forgiveness period shall exist to allow persons specified in subdivision (b) of Section 12280 to register with the Department of Justice assault weapons that they lawfully possessed prior to June 1, 1989.

(g) Any person who registers his or her assault weapon during the 90-day forgiveness period described in subdivision (f), and any person whose registration form was received by the Department of Justice after January 1, 1991, and who was issued a temporary registration prior to the end of the forgiveness period, shall not be charged with a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 12280, if law enforcement becomes aware of that violation only as a result of the registration of the assault weapon. This subdivision shall have no effect upon persons charged with a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 12280 of the Penal Code prior to January 1, 1992, provided that law enforcement was aware of the violation before the weapon was registered.

SEC. 7. Section 12285 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12285. (a) Any person who lawfully possesses an assault weapon, as defined in Section 12276, prior to June 1, 1989, shall register the firearm by January 1, 1991, and any person who lawfully possessed an assault weapon prior to the date it was specified as an assault weapon pursuant to Section 12276.5 shall register the firearm within 90 days, with the Department of Justice pursuant to those procedures that the department may establish. The registration shall contain a description of the firearm that identifies it uniquely, including all identification marks, the full name, address, date of birth, and thumbprint of the owner, and any other information that the department may deem appropriate. The department may charge a fee for registration of up to twenty dollars ($20) per person but not to exceed the actual processing costs of the department. After the department establishes fees sufficient to reimburse the department for processing costs, fees charged shall increase at a rate not to exceed the legislatively approved annual cost-of-living adjustment for the department's budget or as otherwise increased through the Budget

Act.

(b) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), no assault weapon possessed pursuant to this section may be sold or transferred on or after January 1, 1990, to anyone within this state other than to a licensed gun dealer, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 12290, or as provided in Section 12288. Any person who (A) obtains title to an assault weapon registered under this section by bequest or intestate succession, or (B) lawfully possessed a firearm subsequently declared to be an assault weapon pursuant to Section 12276.5, shall, within 90 days, render the weapon permanently inoperable, sell the weapon to a licensed gun dealer, obtain a permit from the Department of Justice in the same manner as specified in Article 3 (commencing with Section 12230) of Chapter 2, or remove the weapon from this state. A person who lawfully possessed a firearm that was subsequently declared to be an assault weapon pursuant to Section 12276.5 may alternatively register the firearm within 90 days of the declaration issued pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 12276.5.

(2) A person moving into this state, otherwise in lawful possession of an assault weapon, shall do one of the following:

(A) Prior to bringing the assault weapon into this state, that person shall first obtain a permit from the Department of Justice in the same manner as specified in Article 3 (commencing with Section 12230) of Chapter 2.

(B) The person shall cause the assault weapon to be delivered to a licensed dealer in this state in accordance with Chapter 44 (commencing with Section 921) of Title 18 of the United States Code and the regulations issued pursuant thereto. If the person obtains a permit from the Department of Justice in the same manner as specified in Article 3 (commencing with Section 12230) of Chapter 2, the dealer shall redeliver that assault weapon to the person. If the licensed dealer is prohibited from delivering the assault weapon to a person pursuant to this paragraph, the dealer shall possess or dispose of the assault weapon as allowed by this chapter.

(c) A person who has registered an assault weapon under this section may possess it only under any of the following conditions unless a permit allowing additional uses is first obtained under Section 12286:

(1) At that person's residence, place of business, or other property owned by that person, or on property owned by another with the owner's express permission.

(2) While on the premises of a target range of a public or private club or organization organized for the purpose of practicing shooting at targets.

(3) While on a target range that holds a regulatory or business license for the purpose of practicing shooting at that target range.

(4) While on the premises of a shooting club which is licensed pursuant to the Fish and Game Code.

(5) While attending any exhibition, display, or educational project which is about firearms and which is sponsored by, conducted under the auspices of, or approved by a law enforcement agency or a nationally or state recognized entity that fosters proficiency in, or promotes education about, firearms.

(6) While on publicly owned land if the possession and use of a firearm described in Section 12276 is specifically permitted by the managing agency of the land.

(7) While transporting the assault weapon between any of the places mentioned in this subdivision, or to any licensed gun dealer, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 12290, for servicing or repair pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 12290, if the assault weapon is transported as required by Section 12026.1.

(d) No person who is under the age of 18 years, no person who is prohibited from possessing a firearm by Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code, and no person described in Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code may register or possess an assault weapon.

(e) The department's registration procedures shall provide the option of joint registration for assault weapons owned by family members residing in the same household.

(f) For 90 days following January 1, 1992, a forgiveness period shall exist to allow persons specified in subdivision (b) of Section 12280 to register with the Department of Justice assault weapons that they lawfully possessed prior to June 1, 1989.

(g) Any person who registers his or her assault weapon during the 90-day forgiveness period described in subdivision (f), and any person whose registration form was received by the Department of Justice after January 1, 1991, and who was issued a temporary registration prior to the end of the forgiveness period, shall not be charged with a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 12280, if law enforcement becomes aware of that violation only as a result of the registration of the assault weapon. This subdivision shall have no effect upon persons charged with a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 12280 of the Penal Code prior to January 1, 1992, provided that law enforcement was aware of the violation before the weapon was registered.

SEC. 8. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 12020 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1266. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1994, (2) each bill amends Section 12020 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1266, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 9. (a) Section 4 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 12071 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1648. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1994, (2) each bill amends Section 12071 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 166 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 1648, in which case Sections 3 and 5 of this bill shall not become operative.

(b) Section 5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section

12071 of the Penal Code proposed by this bill, AB 166, and AB 1648. It shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1994, (2) each bill amends Section 12071 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 166 and AB 1648, in which case Section 12071 of the Penal Code, as amended by AB 166, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 5 of this bill shall become operative and Sections 3 and 4 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 10. Section 7 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 12285 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2352. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1994, (2) each bill amends Section 12285 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2352, in which case Section 6 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 11. The amendments to Section 12020 of the Penal Code proposed by this act shall not become operative if Senate Bill 1128 of the 1993–94 Regular Session is enacted, takes effect on January 1, 1994, and effects Section 12020 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 12. The amendments to Section 12285 of the Penal Code proposed by this act shall not become operative if Senate Bill 1128 of the 1993–94 Regular Session is enacted, takes effect on January 1, 1994, and effects Section 12285 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 13. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 84211, 87500, and 91013 of, and to add Section 86112.3 to, the Government Code, relating to the Political Reform Act of 1974.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 84211 of the Government Code is amended to read:

84211. Each campaign statement required by this article shall contain all of the following information:

(a) The total amount of contributions received during the period covered by the campaign statement and the total cumulative amount of contributions received.

(b) The total amount of expenditures made during the period covered by the campaign statement and the total cumulative amount of expenditures made.

(c) The total amount of contributions received during the period covered by the campaign statement from persons who have given a cumulative amount of one hundred dollars ($100) or more.

(d) The total amount of contributions received during the period covered by the campaign statement from persons who have given a cumulative amount of less than one hundred dollars ($100).

(e) The balance of cash and cash equivalents on hand at the beginning and the end of the period covered by the campaign statement.

(f) If the cumulative amount of contributions (including loans) received from a person is one hundred dollars ($100) or more and a contribution or loan has been received from that person during the period covered by the campaign statement, all of the following:

(1) His or her full name.

(2) His or her street address.

(3) His or her occupation.

(4) The name of his or her employer, or if self-employed, the name of the business.

(5) The date and amount received for each contribution received during the period covered by the campaign statement and if the contribution is a loan, the interest rate for the loan.

(6) The cumulative amount of contributions.

(g) For each person, other than the filer, who is directly, indirectly, or contingently liable for repayment of a loan received during the period covered by the campaign statement, all of the following:

(1) His or her full name.

(2) His or her street address.

(3) His or her occupation.

(4) The name of his or her employer, or if self-employed, the name of the business.

(5) The amount of his or her maximum liability.

(h) The total amount of expenditures made during the period covered by the campaign statement to persons who have received one hundred dollars ($100) or more.

(i) The total amount of expenditures made during the period covered by the campaign statement to persons who have received less than one hundred dollars ($100).

(j) For each person to whom an expenditure of one hundred dollars ($100) or more has been made during the period covered by the campaign statement, all of the following:

(1) His or her full name.
(2) His or her street address.
(3) The amount of each expenditure.
(4) A brief description of the consideration for which each expenditure was made.
(5) In the case of an expenditure which is a contribution, the date of the contribution; the cumulative amount of contributions made to a candidate, elected officer, or committee; the full name of the candidate; and the office and district for which he or she seeks nomination or election. In the case of a contribution in support of or opposition to a measure, the number or letter of the measure and the jurisdiction in which the measure or candidate is voted upon.
(6) The information required in paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, for each person, if different from the payee, who has provided consideration for an expenditure of one hundred dollars ($100) or more during the period covered by the campaign statement.
(7) In the case of an expenditure made to pay or reimburse the travel expenses or necessary accommodations of a candidate, his or her representative, or a member of the candidate's immediate family, the date, destination, and total expenditure for each trip.
For purposes of subdivisions (h), (i), and (j) only, the terms "expenditure" or "expenditures" mean any individual payment or accrued expense, unless it is clear from surrounding circumstances that a series of payments or accrued expenses are for a single service or product.
(k) In the case of a controlled committee, an official committee of a political party, or an organization formed or existing primarily for political purposes, the amount and source of any miscellaneous receipt.
(l) If a committee is listed pursuant to subdivision (f), (g), (j), (k), or (p), the number assigned to the committee by the Secretary of State shall be listed, or if no number has been assigned, the full name and street address of the treasurer of the committee.
(m) In a campaign statement filed by a committee supporting or opposing more than one candidate or measure, the amount of expenditures of one hundred dollars ($100) or more for or against each candidate or measure during the period covered by the campaign statement and the cumulative amount of expenditures of one hundred dollars ($100) or more for or against each candidate or measure.
(n) In a campaign statement filed by a candidate who is a candidate in both an election held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June and an election held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, his or her controlled committee, or a committee primarily formed to support or oppose such a candidate, the total amount of contributions received and the total amount of expenditures made for the period January 1 through June 30 and the total amount of contributions received and expenditures made for the period July 1 through December 31.

(o) The full name, residential or business address, and telephone number of the filer, or in the case of a campaign statement filed by a committee defined by subdivision (a) of Section 82013, the name, street address, and telephone number of the committee and of the committee treasurer. In the case of a committee defined by subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 82013, the name that the filer uses on campaign statements shall be the name by which the filer is identified for other legal purposes or any name by which the filer is commonly known to the public.

(p) If the campaign statement is filed by a candidate, the name, street address, and treasurer of any committee of which he or she has knowledge which has received contributions or made expenditures on behalf of his or her candidacy and whether the committee is controlled by the candidate.

(q) A contribution need not be reported nor shall it be deemed accepted if it is not cashed, negotiated, or deposited and is returned to the contributor before the closing date of the campaign statement on which the contribution would otherwise be reported.

(r) If the campaign statement is filed in connection with the qualification of a measure, it shall contain the information required by paragraphs (1) to (4), inclusive, of subdivision (j) for each person who has directly, indirectly, or through an intermediary received payments cumulatively totaling one hundred dollars ($100) or more for circulation of petitions to qualify a measure for the ballot.

(s) If a committee primarily formed for the qualification or support of, or opposition to, an initiative or ballot measure is required to report an expenditure to a business entity pursuant to subdivision (j) and 50 percent or more of the business entity is owned by a candidate or person controlling the committee, by an officer or employee of the committee, or by a spouse of any of these individuals, the committee's campaign statement shall also contain, in addition to the information required by subdivision (j), that person's name, the relationship of that person to the committee, and a description of that person's ownership interest or position with the business entity.

(t) If a committee primarily formed for the qualification or support of, or opposition to, an initiative or ballot measure is required to report an expenditure to a business entity pursuant to subdivision (j), and a candidate or person controlling the committee, an officer or employee of the committee, or a spouse of any of these individuals is an officer, partner, consultant, or employee of the business entity, the committee's campaign statement shall also contain, in addition to the information required by subdivision (j), that person's name, the relationship of that person to the committee, and a description of that person's ownership interest or position with the business entity.

(u) The information required by Sections 84216 and 84216.5.

(v) If the campaign statement is filed by a committee, as defined in subdivision (b) or (c) of Section 82013, information sufficient to identify the nature and interests of the filer, including:

(1) If the filer is an individual, the name and address of the filer's employer, if any, or his or her principal place of business if the filer is self-employed, and a description of the business activity in which the filer or his or her employer is engaged.

(2) If the filer is a business entity, a description of the business activity in which it is engaged.

(3) If the filer is an industry, trade, or professional association, a description of the industry, trade, or profession which it represents, including a specific description of any portion or faction of the industry, trade, or profession which the association exclusively or primarily represents.

(4) If the filer is not an individual, business entity, or industry, trade, or professional association, a statement of the person's nature and purposes, including a description of any industry, trade, profession, or other group with a common economic interest which the person principally represents or from which its membership or financial support is principally derived.

SEC. 2. Section 86112.3 is added to the Government Code, to read:

86112.3. (a) Each person filing a report pursuant to this article who sends any written or printed invitation to an elected state officer, candidate for elective state office, legislative official or agency official, shall include on the invitation or on a letter attached to the invitation the following typed, printed, or handwritten statement that is at least as large and readable as 8-point Roman boldface type, in a color or print that contrasts with the background so as to be easily legible:

Attendance at this event by a public official will constitute acceptance of a reportable gift.

(b) The notice specified in subdivision (a) shall not be required to appear on any invitation wherein attendance at the event described in the invitation will not constitute acceptance of a reportable gift by an elected state officer, candidate for elective state office, legislative official or agency official, pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 87207.

(c) The remedies provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 83100) constitute the exclusive penalty for a violation of this section. The remedies provided in Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 91000) do not apply to this section.

SEC. 3. Section 87500 of the Government Code is amended to read:

87500. Statements of economic interests required by this chapter shall be filed as follows:

(a) Statewide elected officer—one original with the agency which shall make and retain a copy and forward the original to the commission, which shall retain the original and send one copy to the Registrar-Recorder of Los Angeles County and one copy with the Clerk of the City and County of San Francisco. The commission shall be the filing officer.

(b) Candidates for statewide elective office—one original with the person with whom the candidate's declaration of candidacy is filed, who shall forward the original to the commission which shall retain the original and send one copy to the Registrar-Recorder of Los Angeles County and one copy with the Clerk of the City and County of San Francisco. The commission shall be the filing officer.

(c) Members of the Legislature and Board of Equalization—one original with the agency which shall make and retain a copy and forward the original to the commission, which shall retain the original and send one copy to the clerk of the county which contains the largest percentage of registered voters in the election district which the officeholder represents, and one copy to the clerk of the county in which the officeholder resides. No more than one copy of each statement need be filed with the clerk of any one county. The commission shall be the filing officer.

(d) Candidates for the Legislature or the Board of Equalization—one original with the person with whom the candidate's declaration of candidacy is filed, who shall forward the original to the commission which shall retain the original and send one copy to the clerk of the county which contains the largest percentage of registered voters in the election district in which the candidate seeks nomination or election, and one copy to the clerk of the county in which the candidate resides. No more than one copy of each statement need be filed with the clerk of any one county. The commission shall be the filing officer.

(e) Persons holding the office of chief administrative officer and candidates for and persons holding the office of district attorney, county counsel, county treasurer, and member of the board of supervisors—one original with the county clerk who shall make and retain a copy and forward the original to the commission which shall be the filing officer.

(f) Persons holding the office of city manager or, if there is no city manager, the chief administrative officer, the city treasurer, and candidates for and persons holding the office of city council member, city attorney, and mayor—one original with the city clerk who shall make and retain a copy and forward the original to the commission which shall be the filing officer.

(g) Members of the Public Utilities Commission, members of the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, planning commissioners, and members of the California Coastal Commission—one original with the agency which shall make and retain a copy and forward the original to the commission which shall be the filing officer.

(h) Members of the Fair Political Practices Commission—one original with the commission which shall make and retain a copy and forward the original to the office of the Attorney General which shall be the filing officer.

(i) Judges, court commissioners, and candidates for the office of judge—one original with the clerk of the court who shall make and retain a copy and forward the original to the commission which shall be the filing officer.

(j) Except as provided for in subdivision (k), heads of agencies, members of boards or commissions not under a department of state government or members of boards or commissions not under the jurisdiction of a local legislative body—one original with the agency, which shall make and retain a copy and forward the original to the code reviewing body which shall be the filing officer. In its discretion, the code reviewing body may provide that the original be filed directly with the code reviewing body and that no copy be retained by the agency.

(k) Heads of local government agencies and members of local government boards or commissions, for which the Fair Political Practices Commission is the code reviewing body, one original to the agency or board or commission which shall be the filing officer, unless at its discretion the Fair Political Practices Commission elects to act as the filing officer. In this instance, the original shall be filed with the agency, board, or commission, which shall make and retain a copy and forward the original to the Fair Political Practices Commission.

(l) Designated employees of the Legislature—one original with the house of the Legislature by which the designated employee is employed. In its discretion, each house of the Legislature may provide that the originals of statements filed by its designated employees be filed directly with the commission, and that no copies be retained by that house.

(m) Designated employees under contract to more than one joint powers insurance agency and who elect to file a multiagency statement pursuant to Section 87350, the original of the statement with the commission which shall be the filing officer, and a statement with each agency with which they are under contract, declaring that their statement of economic interests is on file with the commission and available upon request.

(n) Members of a state licensing or regulatory board, bureau, or commission—one original with the agency, which shall make and retain a copy and forward the original to the commission, which shall be the filing officer.

(o) Persons not mentioned above—one original with the agency or with the code reviewing body, as provided by the code reviewing body in the agency's conflict of interest code.

SEC. 4. Section 91013 of the Government Code is amended to read:

91013. (a) If any person files an original statement or report after any deadline imposed by this act, he or she shall, in addition to any other penalties or remedies established by this act, be liable in the amount of ten dollars ($10) per day after the deadline until the statement or report is filed, to the officer with whom the statement or report is required to be filed. Liability need not be enforced by the filing officer if on an impartial basis he or she determines that the late filing was not willful and that enforcement of the liability will not further the purposes of the act, except that no liability shall be waived if a statement or report is not filed within 30 days for a statement of economic interest, other than a candidate's statement filed pursuant to Section 87201, five days for a campaign statement required to be filed 12 days before an election, and 10 days for all other statements or reports, after the filing officer has sent specific written notice of the filing requirement.

(b) If any person files a copy of a statement or report after any deadline imposed by this act, he or she shall, in addition to any other penalties or remedies established by this chapter, be liable in the amount of ten dollars ($10) per day, starting 10 days, or five days in the case of a campaign statement required to be filed 12 days before an election, after the officer has sent specific written notice of the filing requirement and until the statement is filed.

(c) The officer shall deposit any funds received under this section into the general fund of the jurisdiction of which he or she is an officer. No liability under this section shall exceed the cumulative amount stated in the late statement or report, or one hundred dollars ($100), whichever is greater.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 6. The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of this act further the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974 within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 81012 of the Government Code.

CHAPTER 1141

An act to amend Sections 1026.2 and 1603 of the Penal Code, relating to criminal procedure.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1026.2 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 2 of Chapter 1343 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

1026.2. (a) An application for the release of a person who has been committed to a state hospital or other treatment facility, as provided in Section 1026, upon the ground that sanity has been restored, may be made to the superior court of the county from which the commitment was made, either by the person, or by the medical director of the state hospital or other treatment facility to which the person is committed or by the community program director where the person is on outpatient status under Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600) of Part 2. The court shall give notice of the hearing date to the prosecuting attorney, the community program director or a designee, and the medical director or person in charge of the facility providing treatment to the committed person at least 15 judicial days in advance of the hearing date.

(b) Pending the hearing, the medical director or person in charge of the facility in which the person is confined shall prepare a summary of the person's programs of treatment and shall forward the summary to the community program director or a designee and to the court. The community program director or a designee shall review the summary and shall designate a facility within a reasonable distance from the court in which the person may be detained pending the hearing on the application for release. The facility so designated shall continue the program of treatment, shall provide adequate security, and shall, to the greatest extent possible, minimize interference with the person's program of treatment.

(c) A designated facility need not be approved for 72-hour treatment and evaluation pursuant to the provisions of the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code); however, a county jail may not be designated unless the services specified above are provided, and accommodations are provided which ensure both the safety of the person and the safety of the general population of the jail. If there is evidence that the treatment program is not being complied with, or accommodations have not been provided which ensure both the safety of the committed person and the safety of the general population of the jail, the court shall order the person transferred to an appropriate facility or make any other appropriate order, including continuance of the proceedings.

(d) No hearing upon the application for release shall be allowed until the person committed shall have been confined or placed on outpatient status or on parole under Section 1611 for a period of not less than 90 days from the date of the order of commitment. If the finding of the court is adverse to releasing the person on the ground that sanity has not been restored, no application shall be filed by the person until one year has elapsed from the date of hearing upon the last preceding application. In any hearing authorized by this section, the burden of proving that sanity has been restored shall be upon the applicant. The court shall notify the community program director or a designee and the medical director or person in charge of the facility providing treatment to the committed person whether or not the defendant was found by the court to have recovered sanity.

(e) If the application for the release is not made by the medical director of the state hospital or other treatment facility to which the person is committed or by the community program director where the person is on outpatient status under Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600), no action on the application shall be taken by the court without first obtaining the written recommendation of the medical director of the state hospital or other treatment facility or by the community program director where the person is on outpatient status under Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600).

(f) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1995.

SEC. 2. Section 1026.2 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 183 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

1026.2. (a) An application for the release of a person who has been committed to a state hospital or other treatment facility, as provided in Section 1026, upon the ground that sanity has been restored, may be made to the superior court of the county from which the commitment was made, either by the person, or by the medical director of the state hospital or other treatment facility to which the person is committed or by the community program director where the person is on outpatient status under Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600). The court shall give notice of the hearing date to the prosecuting attorney, the community program director or a designee, and the medical director or person in charge of the facility providing treatment to the committed person at least 15 judicial days in advance of the hearing date.

(b) Pending the hearing, the medical director or person in charge of the facility in which the person is confined shall prepare a summary of the person's programs of treatment and shall forward the summary to the community program director or a designee and to the court. The community program director or a designee shall review the summary and shall designate a facility within a reasonable distance from the court in which the person may be detained pending the hearing on the application for release. The facility so designated shall continue the program of treatment, shall provide adequate security, and shall, to the greatest extent possible, minimize interference with the person's program of treatment.

(c) A designated facility need not be approved for 72-hour treatment and evaluation pursuant to the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code). However, a county jail may not be designated unless the services specified in subdivision (b) are provided and accommodations are provided which ensure both the safety of the person and the safety of the general population of the jail. If there is evidence that the treatment program is not being complied with or accommodations have not been provided which ensure both the safety of the committed person and the safety of the general population of the jail, the court shall order the person transferred to an appropriate facility or make any other appropriate order, including continuance of the proceedings.

(d) No hearing upon the application shall be allowed until the person committed has been confined or placed on outpatient status for a period of not less than 180 days from the date of the order of commitment.

(e) The court shall hold a hearing to determine whether the person applying for restoration of sanity would be a danger to the health and safety of others, due to mental defect, disease, or disorder, if under supervision and treatment in the community. If the court at the hearing determines the applicant will not be a danger to the health and safety of others, due to mental defect, disease, or disorder, while under supervision and treatment in the community, the court shall order the applicant placed with an appropriate forensic conditional release program for one year. All or a substantial portion of the program shall include outpatient supervision and treatment. The court shall retain jurisdiction. The court at the end of the one year, shall have a trial to determine if sanity has been restored, which means the applicant is no longer a danger to the health and safety of others, due to mental defect, disease, or disorder. The court shall not determine whether the applicant has been restored to sanity until the applicant has completed the one year in the appropriate forensic conditional release program. The court shall notify the persons required to be notified in subdivision (a) of the hearing date.

(f) If the applicant is on parole or outpatient status and has been on it for one year or longer, then it is deemed that the applicant has completed the required one year in an appropriate forensic conditional release program and the court shall, if all other applicable provisions of law have been met, hold the trial on restoration of sanity as provided for in this section.

(g) Before placing an applicant in an appropriate forensic conditional release program, the community program director shall submit to the court a written recommendation as to what forensic conditional release program is the most appropriate for supervising and treating the applicant. If the court does not accept the community program director's recommendation, the court shall specify the reason or reasons for its order on the court record.

Sections 1605 to 1610, inclusive, shall be applicable to the person placed in the forensic conditional release program unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(h) If the court determines that the person should be transferred to an appropriate forensic conditional release program, the community program director or a designee shall make the necessary placement arrangements, and, within 21 days after receiving notice of the court finding, the person shall be placed in the community in accordance with the treatment and supervision plan, unless good cause for not doing so is made known to the court.

(i) If at the trial for restoration of sanity the court rules adversely to the applicant, the court may place the applicant on outpatient status, pursuant to Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600) of Part 2, unless the applicant does not meet all of the requirements of Section 1603.

(j) If the court denies the application to place the person in an appropriate forensic conditional release program or if restoration of sanity is denied, no new application may be filed by the person until one year has elapsed from the date of the denial.

(k) In any hearing authorized by this section, the applicant shall have the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence.

(l) If the application for the release is not made by the medical director of the state hospital or other treatment facility to which the person is committed or by the community program director where the person is on outpatient status under Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600), no action on the application shall be taken by the court without first obtaining the written recommendation of the medical director of the state hospital or other treatment facility or of the community program director where the person is on outpatient status under Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600).

(m) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 1603 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 5 of Chapter 1343 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

1603. (a) Any person subject to subdivision (a) of Section 1601 may be placed on outpatient status if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The director of the state hospital or other treatment facility to which the person has been committed advises the committing court that the defendant is no longer likely to be a danger to the health and safety of others while on outpatient status, and will benefit from that status.

(2) The community program director advises the court that the defendant will benefit from that status, and identifies an appropriate program of supervision and treatment.

(3) After actual notice to the prosecutor and defense counsel, and after a hearing in court, the court specifically approves the recommendation and plan for outpatient status pursuant to Section 1604.

(b) The community program director shall prepare and submit the evaluation and the treatment plan specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) to the court within 30 calendar days after notification by the court to do so.

(c) Any evaluations and recommendations pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a) shall include review and consideration of complete, available information regarding the circumstances of the criminal offense and the person's prior criminal history.

(d) This section shall become operative January 1, 1995.

SEC. 4. Section 1603 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 3 of Chapter 1343 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

1603. (a) Any person subject to subdivision (a) of Section 1601 may be placed on outpatient status if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The director of the state hospital or other treatment facility to which the person has been committed advises the committing court that the defendant would no longer be a danger to the health and safety of others, including himself or herself, while under supervision and treatment in the community, and will benefit from such status.

(2) The community program director advises the court that the defendant will benefit from that status, and identifies an appropriate program of supervision and treatment.

(3) After actual notice to the prosecutor and defense counsel, and to the victim or next of kin of the victim of the offense for which the person was committed where a request for the notice has been filed with the court, and after a hearing in court, the court specifically approves the recommendation and plan for outpatient status pursuant to Section 1604. The burden shall be on the victim or next of kin to the victim to keep the court apprised of the party's current mailing address.

In any case in which the victim or next of kin to the victim has filed a request for notice with the director of the state hospital or other treatment facility, he or she shall be notified by the director at the inception of any program in which the committed person would be allowed any type of day release unattended by the staff of the facility.

(b) The community program director shall prepare and submit the evaluation and the treatment plan specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) to the court within 30 calendar days after notification by the court to do so.

(c) Any evaluations and recommendations pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a) shall include review and consideration of complete, available information regarding the circumstances of the criminal offense and the person's prior criminal history.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 5. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1142

An act to amend Sections 1760 and 1775.4 of the Insurance Code, and to add Part 7.5 (commencing with Section 13201) to Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, and making an appropriation therefore, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1760 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1760. (a) Any person may negotiate and effect insurance on his, her, or its own property with any nonadmitted insurer to indemnify against loss, damage, or liability.

(b) Every person that effects insurance governed by this chapter shall pay the tax imposed by Part 7.5 (commencing with Section 13201) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

SEC. 2. Section 1775.4 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1775.4. (a) The amount of the payment shall be 3 percent of the gross premiums upon business done by the surplus line broker under the authority of his or her license during the calendar quarter ending two calendar months immediately preceding the due date of the payment, as specified in Section 1775.3, less return premiums paid by him or her in that calendar quarter, excluding gross premiums and return premiums paid by him or her upon business governed by the provisions of Section 1760.5. If during any calendar quarter those return premiums paid by a surplus line broker exceed the gross premiums upon the business done by him or her in that calendar quarter, then no payment shall be payable by him or her in respect to that calendar quarter, and he or she may carry forward that excess to the next succeeding calendar quarter or quarters and apply it in reduction of the taxable premiums on business done by him or her in that succeeding calendar quarter or quarters. Even though no payment shall be payable by the broker, he or she shall file a return showing that his or her return premiums exceeded his or her gross premiums.

(b) In determining the applicability of subdivision (a) of Section 1775.1 to a surplus line broker who has acquired the business of another surplus line broker, the amount of tax liability of the acquired broker for the immediately preceding calendar year shall be added to the amount of the tax liability of the acquiring broker for the immediately preceding calendar year.

(c) All amounts paid, other than penalties and interest, shall be allowed as a credit on the annual tax imposed by Section 1775.5.

(d) If the total amount of quarterly installment payments for any calendar year exceeds the amount of annual tax for that year, the excess shall be treated as an overpayment of annual tax and be allowed as a credit or refund.

(e) A penalty of 10 percent of the amount of the quarterly payment due shall be levied upon and paid by any surplus line broker who fails to make the necessary payment within the time required, plus interest at the rate of 1 percent per calendar month or fraction thereof from the due date of the payment until the date payment is received by the commissioner, but not for any period after the due date of the annual tax. The commissioner may remit the penalty in a case where he or she finds, as a result of examination or otherwise, that the failure of, or delay in, payment arose out of excusable mistake or excusable inadvertence.

(f) For any part of a payment required that was not made within the time required by law, when the nonpayment or late payment was due to fraud on the part of the taxpayer, a penalty of 25 percent of the amount unpaid shall be added thereto, in addition to all other penalties otherwise imposed.

(g) The commissioner, upon a showing of good cause, may extend for not to exceed 10 days the time for making a quarterly payment. The extension may be granted at any time, provided that a request therefor is filed with the commissioner within or prior to the period for which the extension may be granted. No interest shall be paid for the period of time for which the extension is granted.

SEC. 3. Part 7.5 (commencing with Section 13201) is added to Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

PART 7.5. NONADMITTED INSURANCE TAX

13201. This part shall be known and may be cited as the Nonadmitted Insurance Tax Law.

13203. For purposes of this part:

(a) "Person" means an individual, bank, corporation, partnership, society, association, organization, joint stock company, estate, or trust, or a receiver, trustee, assignee, referee or any other person acting in a fiduciary capacity, whether appointed by a court or otherwise, or any combination thereof.

(b) "Taxpayer" means any person subject to the tax imposed by this part.

13210. (a) For gross premiums paid or to be paid on insurance contracts that take effect or are renewed on or after January 1, 1994, every person who effects insurance governed by Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1760) of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Insurance Code shall pay a gross premium tax of 3 percent for the use of the state, less 3 percent of returned premiums that were subject to the tax received by reason of cancellation or reduction of premium.

(1) This section shall not apply to either of the following:

(A) Insurance coverage for which a tax on the gross premium is due or has been paid pursuant to Section 1775.5 of the Insurance Code.

(B) Gross premiums paid and returned premiums received by that person upon business governed by the provisions of Section 1760.5 of the Insurance Code.

(2) If during any calendar quarter 3 percent of the returned premiums received that were subject to the tax imposed by this part exceed 3 percent of the gross premiums paid or to be paid by that person on contracts that took effect or were renewed in that calendar quarter, then that person may either carry forward the excess to a succeeding calendar quarter and apply it as a credit against the 3 percent of gross premiums paid or to be paid by that person in the succeeding calendar quarter, or the person may elect to receive, and be paid a refund equal to the amount of taxes paid by the person on the excess of returned premiums received over gross premiums paid or to be paid.

(b) For purposes of determining the tax, the total premium paid or to be paid for all nonadmitted insurance placed in a single transaction with one underwriter or group of underwriters, whether in one or more policies, in that calendar quarter during which the taxable insurance contract or contracts took effect or were renewed, shall be allocated to this state in the proportion that the total premium on the insured properties or operations in this state, as computed on the exposure in this state on the basis of any single standard rating method in use in all states or countries where the insurance applies, bears to the total premium so computed in all states or countries in which that nonadmitted insurance may apply.

(c) Subdivision (b) shall not apply to interstate motor transit operations conducted between this and other states. With respect to those operations, the tax shall be payable on the entire premium charged on all nonadmitted insurance, less both of the following:

(1) The portion of the premium that is determined to have been paid for operations in other states taxing the premium on operations in states of an insured maintaining its headquarters office in this state.

(2) The premium for any operations outside of this state of an insured who maintains a headquarters operating office outside of this state and a branch office in this state.

13220. (a) Every person subject to this part shall file with the Franchise Tax Board a return prescribed by the board on or before the first day of the third month following the close of the calendar quarter during which a taxable insurance contract took effect or was renewed.

(b) In accordance with forms and instructions, the tax, penalties, and interest imposed by this part shall be administered and enforced by the Franchise Tax Board as though they are taxes imposed under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001). Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401), or any other applicable law shall apply for this purpose in the same manner and with the same force and effect as if the language of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401), or the other applicable law is incorporated in full into this part, except to the extent that the provision is either inconsistent with a provision of this part, is not relevant to this part, or is otherwise provided for under this part.

(c) The following penalties shall apply, in lieu of those penalties provided under Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401):

(1) A penalty of 10 percent of the amount of the payment due is imposed upon any person who fails to make the necessary payment within the time required.

(2) For any part of a payment required that was not made within the time required by law, when the nonpayment or late payment was due to fraud on the part of the taxpayer, a penalty of 25 percent of the amount unpaid shall be added thereto, in addition to all other penalties otherwise imposed.

(d) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), interest shall be allowed and paid on any refund provided under paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 13210 from the date the claim for refund is filed. No interest shall be allowed or paid on amounts credited to succeeding calendar quarters as provided under paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 13210.

(2) If an amount refunded as provided under paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 13210 within 120 days after a claim or return is filed, or within 120 days after the last date for filing the tax return, whichever is later, no interest shall be allowed on the amount of the refund.

(e) The period of limitation for allowing or making refunds or credits as provided under paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 13210 shall be the period of limitations for allowing or making refunds or credits of overpayments under Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401), except that the "date of cancellation or reduction of premium" shall be substituted for "date of overpayment."

13221. In the event a person subject to tax imposed under this part is delinquent in the payment of the assessment, and that person also has an amount imposed and due and payable under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401), or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), any amounts collected by the Franchise Tax Board shall be applied first to the payment of those taxes, additions to tax, penalties, interest, fees, or other amounts imposed and due and payable under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401), or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

13222. (a) All amounts collected shall be transmitted to the Treasurer and deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Insurance Tax Fund that is created by Section 13151.

(b) Moneys in the Insurance Tax Fund shall be drawn therefrom for the purpose of paying refunds under this part.

SEC. 4. For purposes of implementing and administering this act in the 1993–94 fiscal year, the sum of three hundred ninety-one thousand dollars ($391,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the Franchise Tax Board, in augmentation of Item 1730-001-001 of the Budget Act of 1993. It is the intent of the Legislature that the funds to administer this act for the 1994–95 fiscal year, and each fiscal year thereafter, shall be provided for in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 5. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1143

An act to amend Section 12400 of the Elections Code, to amend Section 89519 of, and to add Section 89517.5 to, the Government Code, relating to campaign funds.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12400 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

12400. Upon leaving any elective office, or at the end of the postelection reporting period following the defeat of a candidate for elective office, whichever occurs last, surplus campaign funds raised prior to January 1, 1989, under the control of the former candidate or officeholder or his or her controlled committee shall be used or held only for the following purposes:

(a) (1) The repayment of personal or committee loans or other obligations if there is a reasonable relationship to a political, legislative, or governmental activity.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, the payment for, or the reimbursement to the state of, the costs of installing and monitoring an electronic security system in the home or office, or both, of a candidate or elected officer who has received threats to his or her physical safety shall be deemed to have a reasonable relationship to a political, legislative, or governmental activity, provided that the threats arise from his or her activities, duties, or status as a candidate or elected officer and that the threats have been reported to and verified by an appropriate law enforcement agency. Verification shall be determined solely by the law enforcement agency to which the threat was reported. The candidate or elected officer shall report any expenditure of campaign funds made pursuant to this section to the commission. The report to the commission shall include the date that the candidate or elected officer informed the law enforcement agency of the threat, the name and phone number of the law enforcement agency, and a brief description of the threat. No more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) in surplus campaign funds may be used, cumulatively, by a candidate or elected officer pursuant to this subdivision. Payments made pursuant to this subdivision shall be made during the two years immediately following the date upon which the campaign funds became surplus campaign funds. The candidate or elected officer shall reimburse the surplus campaign fund account for the fair market value of the security system no later than two years immediately following the date upon which the campaign funds become surplus campaign funds, upon sale of the property on which the system is installed, or prior to the closing of the surplus campaign fund account, whichever comes first. The electronic security system shall be the property of the campaign committee of the candidate or elected officer.

(b) The payment of the outstanding campaign expenses.

(c) Contributions to any candidate, committee, or political party, except where otherwise prohibited by law.

(d) The pro rata repayment of contributors.

(e) Donations to any religious, scientific, educational, social welfare, civic, or fraternal organization no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual or to any charitable or nonprofit organization which is exempt from taxation under subsection (c) of Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code or Section 17214 or Sections 23701a to 23701j, inclusive, or Section 23701*l*, 23701n, 23701p, or 23701s of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(f) Except where otherwise prohibited by law, held in a segregated fund for future political campaigns, not to be expended except for political activity reasonably related to preparing for future candidacy for elective office.

SEC. 2. Section 89517.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

89517.5. Notwithstanding Section 89517, campaign funds may be used to pay, or reimburse the state, for the costs of installing and monitoring an electronic security system in the home or office, or both, of a candidate or elected officer who has received threats to his or her physical safety, provided that the threats arise from his or her activities, duties, or status as a candidate or elected officer and that the threats have been reported to and verified by an appropriate law enforcement agency. Verification shall be determined solely by the law enforcement agency to which the threat was reported. The candidate or elected officer shall report any expenditure of campaign funds made pursuant to this section to the commission. The report to the commission shall include the date that the candidate or elected officer informed the law enforcement agency of the threat, the name and phone number of the law enforcement agency, and a brief description of the threat. No more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) in campaign funds may be used, cumulatively, by a candidate or elected officer pursuant to this subdivision. The candidate or elected officer shall reimburse the campaign fund account for the costs of the security system upon sale of the property where the security equipment is installed, based on the fair market value of the security equipment at the time the property is sold.

SEC. 3. Section 89519 of the Government Code is amended to read:

89519. Upon leaving any elected office, or at the end of the postelection reporting period following the defeat of a candidate for elective office, whichever occurs last, campaign funds raised after January 1, 1989, under the control of the former candidate or elected officer shall be considered surplus campaign funds and shall be disclosed pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 84100) and shall be used only for the following purposes:

(a) (1) The payment of outstanding campaign debts or elected officer's expenses.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, the payment for, or the reimbursement to the state of, the costs of installing and monitoring an electronic security system in the home or office, or both, of a candidate or elected officer who has received threats to his or her physical safety shall be deemed an outstanding campaign debt or elected officer's expense, provided that the threats arise from his or her activities, duties, or status as a candidate or elected officer and that the threats have been reported to and verified by an appropriate law enforcement agency. Verification shall be determined solely by the law enforcement agency to which the threat was reported. The candidate or elected officer shall report any expenditure of campaign funds made pursuant to this section to the commission. The report to the commission shall include the date that the candidate or elected officer informed the law enforcement agency of the threat, the name and phone number of the law enforcement agency, and a brief description of the threat. No more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) in surplus campaign funds may be used, cumulatively, by a candidate or elected officer pursuant to this subdivision. Payments made pursuant to this subdivision shall be made during the two years immediately following the date upon which the campaign funds became surplus campaign funds. The candidate or elected officer shall reimburse the surplus campaign fund account for the fair market value of the security system no later than two years immediately following the date upon which the campaign funds become surplus campaign funds, upon sale of the property on which the system is installed, or prior to the closing of the surplus campaign fund account, whichever comes first. The electronic security system shall be the property of the campaign committee of the candidate or elected officer.

(b) The pro rata repayment of contributions.

(c) Donations to any bona fide charitable, educational, civic, religious, or similar tax-exempt, nonprofit organization, where no substantial part of the proceeds will have a material financial effect on the former candidate or elected officer, any member of his or her immediate family, or his or her campaign treasurer.

(d) Contributions to a political party or committee so long as the funds are not used to make contributions in support of or opposition to a candidate for elective office.

(e) Contributions to support or oppose any candidate for federal office, any candidate for elective office in a state other than California, or any ballot measure.

(f) The payment for professional services reasonably required by the committee to assist in the performance of its administrative functions, including payment for attorney's fees for litigation which arises directly out of a candidate's or elected officer's activities, duties, or status as a candidate or elected officer, including, but not limited to, an action to enjoin defamation, defense of an action brought of a violation of state or local campaign, disclosure, or election laws, and an action arising from an election contest or recount.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 5. The Legislature finds and declares that the provisions of this act further the purposes of the Political Reform Act of 1974 within the meaning of subdivision (a) of Section 81012 of the Government Code.

An act to amend Sections 22252, 22513, 23800, 23801, 23804.3, 23851, 23854, 23880, 23900, 23903.5, 23911.2, 24152.5, 24155, 24156, 24201, 24203, 24204, 44986 and 44986.1 of the Education Code, to amend Section 21411 of the Government Code, and to amend Section 1095 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to certificated school employees' benefits, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22252 of the Education Code is amended to read:

22252. All members of the State Teachers' Retirement System on October 15, 1992, who are not receiving a disability allowance or a retirement allowance with an effective date prior to October 16, 1992, shall be eligible to make an irrevocable election, pursuant to this chapter, to retain coverage under either the disability allowance and family allowance programs or to have coverage under the disability retirement and survivor benefits programs.

The member's eligibility to participate in the election shall be based on the member's status with the system on October 15, 1992, only, and not on prior or subsequent events.

SEC. 2. Section 22513 of the Education Code is amended to read:

22513. Persons who have not achieved plan vesting shall qualify for eligibility for benefits under this system when total service under both systems equals the minimum required under Sections 23801 and 23804. These persons shall retain vested rights to survivor and disability benefits until they qualify for the similar benefits in the Public Employees' Retirement System.

SEC. 3. Section 23800 of the Education Code is amended to read:

23800. This chapter governs the eligibility, benefit provisions, allowance computations, and related provisions for the death benefits payable upon the death of eligible members. "Members," as used in this chapter, means all members who were disabilitants on October 15, 1992, and all persons who were members of the system on October 15, 1992, who did not elect, pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 22250), to be covered under Chapter 19.5 (commencing with Section 23850).

This chapter also contains three sections related to survivor benefits payable on account of deaths that occurred prior to July 1, 1972.

SEC. 3.5. Section 23801 of the Education Code is amended to read:

23801. (a) A death payment of five thousand dollars ($5,000) shall be paid to the beneficiary upon receipt of proof of death of a member who had one or more years of credited service, at least one of which had been performed subsequent to the most recent refund of accumulated retirement contributions, if the member died during any one of the following periods:

(1) While in active employment.

(2) While disabled, if the disability had been continuous from the last day for which compensation had been paid.

(3) Within four months after terminating employment.

(4) Within four months after termination of a disability allowance if no service was performed after the termination.

(5) Within 12 months of the last day for which compensation was paid, if the member was on an approved leave of absence without compensation for reasons other than disability or military service.

(b) A death payment pursuant to this section shall not be payable for the death of a member that occurs within one year commencing with the effective date of reinstatement from service retirement pursuant to Section 23913.

(c) The board may adjust the death payment amount following each actuarial valuation based on changes in the All Urban California Consumer Price Index.

(d) A designated beneficiary may waive his or her right to the death payment in accordance with the requirements established by the system.

SEC. 4. Section 23804.3 of the Education Code is amended to read:

23804.3. A family allowance is payable in the amount and to the specified persons in the following order of priority:

(a) To the member's or disabilitant's surviving spouse who has financial responsibility for at least one child, an amount equal to 40 percent of the deceased member's final compensation or the disabilitant's projected final compensation plus 10 percent of the deceased member's final compensation or the disabilitant's projected final compensation for each child, up to a maximum allowance of 90 percent.

(b) If there is no surviving spouse or upon the death of the surviving spouse, to each child, an amount equal to 10 percent of the deceased member's final compensation or the disabilitant's projected final compensation, up to a maximum allowance of 50 percent. If there are more than five children, they shall share equally in the maximum allowance of 50 percent.

(c) To the surviving spouse at age 60 or over without children, an amount equal to option three as provided under this part computed on the member's or disabilitant's projected final compensation and projected service to normal retirement age. The allowance payable under this subdivision shall be increased by application of the benefit improvement factor for time that elapses between the date the member or disabilitant would have attained normal retirement age and the date the family allowance under this subdivision begins to accrue. The benefit calculation shall include credit for the unused sick leave that had accrued to the member as of the date of the member's death. Eligibility for the use of sick leave and the calculation of service credit shall be determined pursuant to Section 22719.

(d) If there is no surviving spouse or children upon the member's or disabilitant's death, to the dependent parent age 60 or over, an amount equal to option three as provided under this part computed on the member's or disabilitant's projected final compensation and projected service to normal retirement age. The benefit calculation shall include credit for the unused sick leave that had accrued to the member as of the date of the member's death. Eligibility for the use of sick leave and the calculation of service credit shall be determined pursuant to Section 22719. If there are two dependent parents, a single-family allowance shall be computed on the assumption that the younger parent is the beneficiary and the allowance shall be divided equally for as long as there are two dependent parents. Thereafter, the allowance shall be payable to the surviving dependent parent.

(e) If there are no children who qualify under Section 22112, a spouse or the dependent parent or parents may elect, prior to the receipt of the first payment under subdivision (c) or (d), to receive the accumulated contributions in a lump sum subject to a reduction for any payments made from the account for any prior qualified persons.

SEC. 4.5. Section 23851 of the Education Code is amended to read:

23851. (a) A death payment of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) shall be paid to the beneficiary, as designated pursuant to Section 23702, upon receipt of proof of death of a member who had one or more years of credited service, at least one of which had been performed subsequent to the most recent refund of accumulated retirement contributions, if the member died during any one of the following periods:

(1) While in active employment.

(2) Within four months after terminating employment.

(3) Within 12 months of the last day for which compensation was paid, if the member was on an approved leave of absence without compensation for reasons other than disability or military service.

(b) A death payment pursuant to this section shall not be payable for the death of a member that occurs within one year commencing with the effective date of reinstatement from service retirement pursuant to Section 23913 or during the calendar six months commencing with the effective date of reinstatement from disability retirement pursuant to Section 24166.

(c) The board may adjust the death payment amount following each actuarial valuation based on changes in the All Urban California Consumer Price Index.

(d) A designated beneficiary may waive his or her right to the death payment in accordance with the requirements established by the system.

SEC. 5. Section 23854 of the Education Code is amended to read:

23854. (a) A survivor benefit allowance is payable upon receipt of proof of death of a member, as defined in Section 23850, who had one or more years of credited service, at least one of which had been performed subsequent to the most recent refund of accumulated retirement contributions.

(b) For the survivor benefit allowance to be payable upon the death of a member, all of the following conditions shall be met at the time of death:

(1) Death occurred after October 15, 1992.

(2) A preretirement election of an option is not in effect.

(3) Death occurs during any one of the following periods: (A) while in active employment; (B) within four months after termination of employment; (C) within four months after termination of disability allowance; (D) within four months after reinstatement from disability retirement; or (E) within 12 months following the last day for which compensation was paid if the member was on an approved leave of absence without compensation for reasons other than disability or military service.

(4) At least one-half year of credited service had been performed subsequent to the end of the last break, if a break in service of more than one year had occurred.

(5) At least one year of credited service had been performed subsequent to the last reinstatement date, if reinstated from service retirement.

(c) The survivor benefit allowance is in lieu of the return of the member's accumulated retirement contributions.

(d) The survivor benefit allowance may be terminated, if all eligible beneficiaries formally waive their rights in accordance with the requirements established by the system.

SEC. 6. Section 23880 of the Education Code is amended to read:

23880. (a) A death payment of five thousand dollars ($5,000) shall be paid to the designated beneficiary upon receipt of proof of death of: (1) a retirant; or (2) a member, if the death payment pursuant to Section 23801 would have otherwise been payable or if the conditions specified pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 23854 are met, and if the member's death occurs during one of the following periods: (A) within one year commencing with the effective date of reinstatement from service retirement pursuant to Section 23913, or (B) within six months commencing with the effective date of reinstatement from disability retirement pursuant to Section 24166.

(b) The board may adjust the death payment amount following each actuarial valuation based on changes in the All Urban California Consumer Price Index.

SEC. 7. Section 23900 of the Education Code is amended to read:

23900. A retirement allowance shall become effective upon any date designated by the member, provided all of the following conditions are met:

(a) An application for retirement allowance is filed on a form provided by the system, which is executed no earlier than six months before the effective date of retirement allowance.

(b) The effective date is later than the last day of credited service for which salary is payable to the member.

(c) The effective date is no earlier than the first day of the month in which the application is received by the system in Sacramento.

(d) Either of the following:

(1) The effective date is no earlier than one year following the date on which the member was reinstated under Section 23913, or subdivision (a) of Section 24166, or

(2) The effective date is no earlier than the date upon and continuously after which the member is determined to the satisfaction of the board to have been mentally incompetent.

SEC. 8. Section 23903.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

23903.5. (a) The member shall provide medical documentation related to the impairment qualifying him or her for the disability allowance.

(b) On receipt of an application for disability allowance, the system may order a medical examination of a member to determine whether the member is incapacitated for further service. The medical examination shall be conducted by a practicing physician, selected by the board, with expertise in the member's disability and the board shall pay all costs associated with the examination. The board shall pay all other reasonable costs related to travel and meals in accordance with the rates set for state employees by the Department of Personnel Administration. If the member refuses to submit to the required medical examination, the application for disability allowance shall be rejected. The member shall either remain in the state, or return to this state at the member's own expense, to undergo the initial evaluations or examinations or the application shall be disallowed, unless this requirement is waived by the board. If the member is too ill to be examined, the system shall postpone the examination until the member can be examined. The member or the member's treating physician shall inform the system, in writing, when the medical examination can be rescheduled.

(c) The system may reject the disability allowance application if the member fails to provide requested medical documentation to substantiate a disability, as defined in Section 22122, within 45 days from the date of the request or within 30 days from the time that a legally designated representative is empowered to act on behalf of a member who is too incapacitated mentally or physically to comply.

(d) If the board determines that a member who has applied for a disability allowance may perform his or her usual duties or those of a comparable level position with the assistance of reasonable accommodation, the board may require the member to request reasonable accommodation from the employer. Failure of the member to request reasonable accommodation, as directed by the board, may be grounds for cancellation of the disability allowance application.

(e) In the event that the employer fails or refuses to provide reasonable accommodation, the board may require the member to pursue an administrative appeal of the employer's denial as a condition for receiving a disability allowance.

(f) The system shall inform the member of any rejection of a disability allowance application within 30 days after that determination is made by the system.

SEC. 9. Section 23911.2 of the Education Code is amended to read:

23911.2. If a disability allowance granted after June 30, 1972, is terminated for reasons other than those specified in Section 23911 and the member does not return to employment in a position requiring membership in the system, the service retirement allowance, when payable, shall be based on projected service, projected final compensation, and the age of the member on the last day of the month in which the retirement allowance begins to accrue. The allowance payable under this section, excluding annuities payable from accumulated annuity deposit contributions, shall not be greater than the terminated disability allowance exclusive of increments added for children.

SEC. 10. Section 24152.5 of the Education Code is amended to read:

24152.5. (a) The member shall provide medical documentation related to the impairment qualifying him or her for the disability retirement.

(b) On receipt of an application for disability retirement, the system may order a medical examination of a member to determine whether the member is incapacitated for further service. The medical examination shall be conducted by a practicing physician, selected by the board, with expertise in the member's disability and the board shall pay all costs associated with the examination. The board shall pay all other reasonable costs related to travel and meals in accordance with the rates set for state employees by the Department of Personnel Administration. If the member refuses to submit to the required medical examination, the application for disability retirement shall be rejected. The member shall either remain in this state, or return to this state at the member's own expense, to undergo the initial evaluations or examinations or the application shall be disallowed, unless this requirement is waived by the board. If the member is too ill to comply with this examination, the system shall postpone the examination until a time that the member can be examined. The member or the member's treating physician shall inform the system, in writing, when the medical examination can be rescheduled.

(c) The system may reject the disability retirement application if the member fails to provide requested medical documentation to substantiate a disability, as defined in Section 22122, within 45 days from the date of the request or within 30 days from the time that a legally designated representative is empowered to act on behalf of a member who is too incapacitated mentally or physically to comply.

(d) If the board determines that a member who has applied for disability retirement may perform his or her usual duties or those of a comparable level position with the assistance of reasonable accommodation, the board may require the member to request reasonable accommodation from the employer. Failure of the member to request reasonable accommodation, as directed by the board, may be grounds for cancellation of the disability retirement application.

(e) If the employer fails or refuses to provide reasonable accommodation, the board may require the member to pursue an administrative appeal of the employer's denial as a condition for receiving a disability retirement allowance.

(f) The system shall inform the member of any rejection of a disability retirement application within 30 days after that determination is made by the system.

SEC. 10.5. Section 24155 of the Education Code is amended to read:

24155. Upon retirement for disability pursuant to this chapter, a member shall receive a retirement allowance which shall consist of all of the following:

(a) An annual allowance equal to 50 percent of final compensation payable in monthly installments.

(b) An additional 10 percent of final compensation for each eligible dependent child, up to a maximum of 40 percent of final compensation. If there are more than four children, they shall share equally in the maximum allowance of 40 percent. An eligible child may waive his or her right to his or her portion in accordance with the requirements established by the system.

(c) An annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of the accumulated annuity deposit contributions standing to the credit of the member's account on the effective date of the disability retirement.

SEC. 11. Section 24156 of the Education Code is amended to read:

24156. A disability retirant may elect an option pursuant to Section 24201 to modify the disability retirement allowance payable pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 24155.

SEC. 12. Section 24201 of the Education Code is amended to read:

24201. Any member who has filed an application for a disability retirement pursuant to Chapter 22.5 (commencing with Section 24150) may elect, as provided in Section 24200, to receive an actuarially modified disability retirement allowance. After receipt of a disability retirement application from a member, the board shall mail an acknowledgment notice to the member. A 30-day period shall commence with the mailing of the notice, during which the member may change the option election made on the disability retirement application.

The option shall be effective on the effective date of the disability retirement allowance. The modification of the disability retirement allowance under the option elected shall be based on the ages of the disability retirant and the named option beneficiary as of the effective date of the disability retirement. The modification shall be applicable only to the disability retirement allowance payable pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 24155.

The elected option may not be revoked or changed after the later of the effective date of the disability retirement allowance or 30 days after the mailing of the acknowledgment notice pursuant to this section.

If a member dies prior to electing an unmodified allowance or an option, the member will be considered to have died while in active status, regardless of whether the disability retirement application is or would have been approved.

SEC. 13. Section 24203 of the Education Code is amended to read:

24203. Any member who has qualified to make application for retirement allowance under Section 23901 may elect, as provided in Section 24200, and except as provided in Section 24200.1, without right of revocation or change after the effective date of his or her retirement, to receive an actuarially modified service retirement allowance as of the date of retirement, of the retirement allowance payable to the member when and if the member retires for service. If the death of the member occurs after the date upon which the election has been signed, then the election shall be in full force and effect. The election shall be void if not received in the system's office in Sacramento within 30 days after the date of signature.

Upon the member's death, prior to the effective date of retirement, the beneficiary who was designated under the option elected and who survives shall receive an allowance calculated under the option, upon the assumption that the member retired for service on the date of death. The payment of the allowance to the option beneficiary shall be in lieu of the family allowance provided in Section 23804, the payment provided in subdivision (a) of Section 23802, the survivor benefit allowance provided in Section 23854, and the payment provided in subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 23852, except that if the beneficiary dies before all accumulated contributions are paid the balance, if any, shall be paid to the estate of the person last receiving or entitled to receive the allowance. The accumulated annuity deposit contributions and the death payment provided in Sections 23801 and 23851, shall be paid to the designated beneficiary in a lump sum.

If the member subsequently retires for service, and the elected option has not been canceled pursuant to Section 24205, a modified service retirement allowance computed under Section 24200 and the option elected shall be paid.

The amount of the service retirement allowance prior to applying the option factor shall be calculated as of the earlier of the member's age at death before retirement, or age on the last day of the month in which the member requested service retirement be effective. The modification of the service retirement allowance under the option elected shall be based on the ages of the member and the beneficiary designated under the option, at the date the election was signed.

Any member reinstated to membership pursuant to Section 23913 is not eligible to file a preretirement election of an option until one year after the date of reinstatement.

The system shall inform members who are qualified to make application for a preretirement election of an option, through the annual statements of account, that the option is available.

SEC. 14. Section 24204 of the Education Code is amended to read:

24204. (a) The election of an option as provided in Section 24203 shall preclude the payment of a family allowance to any beneficiary.

(b) The preretirement election of an option made by the member pursuant to Section 24203 shall be voided by the board as of the effective date of an approved disability retirement. Members receiving a disability retirement allowance pursuant to Chapter 22.5 (commencing with Section 24150) may not file an election of option as provided in Section 24203.

(c) The election of an option as provided in Section 24203 shall preclude the payment of a survivor benefit allowance pursuant to Chapter 19.5 (commencing with Section 23850) and shall preclude the payment of the remaining balance of the member's accumulated retirement contributions prior to the death of the option beneficiary.

SEC. 15. Section 44986 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44986. (a) The governing board of a school district may grant a leave of absence to any certificated employee who has applied for disability benefits, not to exceed 30 days beyond final determination of the employee's eligibility for disability benefits by the State Teachers' Retirement System. If the employee is determined to be eligible for the disability benefits by the system, that leave shall be extended for the term of disability, but not more than 39 months.

(b) (1) Governing boards of school districts shall classify as temporary employees those persons employed to fill vacancies caused by the absence of certificated employees who are classified as permanent and are receiving a disability or insurance allowance or benefit from the system or from a group insurance plan for which the employer is paying the cost or deducting the cost from the employees' salaries.

(2) For purposes of this section, the term of employment of the temporary employee shall be equal to the number of days of absence of the employee receiving the disability benefit.

(3) If the term of employment extends beyond this period, the employee shall be credited for all days served as a probationary employee.

SEC. 16. Section 44986.1 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44986.1. Any member for whom the employer makes application for a disability benefit and whom the State Teachers' Retirement System finds not to be disabled under this chapter, shall be reinstated to the former position upon receipt by the employer of notification from the system of the denial of the disability benefit.

SEC. 17. Section 21411 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21411. (a) The board shall contract with carriers offering long-term care insurance plans and enter into health care service plan contracts covering long-term care.

The long-term care insurance plans and health care service plan contracts covering long-term care shall be made available on or before January 1, 1992, and periodically thereafter during open enrollment periods determined by the board.

(b) The board shall award contracts to carriers who are qualified to provide long-term care benefits, and may develop and administer self-funded long-term care insurance plans. The board may offer one or more long-term care insurance plans or health care service plan contracts covering long-term care and may offer service or indemnity-type plans.

(c) The long-term care insurance plans and health care service plan contracts covering long-term care shall include home, community, and institutional care and shall, to the extent determined by the board, provide substantially equivalent coverage to that required under Chapter 2.6 (commencing with Section 10230) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, if the carrier has been approved by the Department of Corporations pursuant to the Knox-Keene Health Care Service Plan Act (Chapter 2.2 (commencing with Section 1340) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code).

(d) Active and retired members and annuitants of the Public Employees' Retirement System, their spouses and parents, and active and retired members and annuitants of any county or district subject to the County Employees Retirement Law of 1937, their spouses, and their parents, and members and retirants of the State Teachers' Retirement System, their spouses, and their parents, shall be eligible to enroll provided they meet the eligibility and underwriting criteria established by the board, except that enrollment of state employees shall be subject to Section 19867.

(e) The board shall establish eligibility criteria for enrollment, establish appropriate underwriting criteria for potential enrollees, define the scope of covered benefits, define the criteria to receive benefits, and set any other standards as needed.

(f) The full cost of enrollment in a long-term care insurance plan or in health care service plan contracts covering long-term care shall be paid by the enrollees.

(g) The long-term care insurance plans and health care service plan contracts covering long-term care shall not become part of, or subject to, the retirement or health benefits programs administered by the system.

(h) For any self-funded long-term care plan developed by the board, the premiums shall be deposited in the Public Employees' Long-term Care Fund.

SEC. 18. Section 1095 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1095. The director shall permit the use of any information in his or her possession to the extent necessary for any of the following purposes:

(a) To properly present a claim for benefits.

(b) To acquaint a worker or his or her authorized agent with his or her existing or prospective right to benefits.

(c) To furnish an employer or his or her authorized agent with information to enable him or her to fully discharge his or her obligations or safeguard his or her rights under this division or Division 3 (commencing with Section 9000). This subdivision, as it relates to Division 3 (commencing with Section 9000), applies only to subdivision (j) of this section.

(d) To enable an employer to receive a reduction in contribution rate.

(e) To enable the Director of Social Services or his or her representatives or the Director of Health Services or his or her representatives, subject to federal law, to verify or determine the eligibility or entitlement of an applicant for, or a recipient of, public social services provided pursuant to the Welfare and Institutions Code, and directly connected with, and limited to, the administration of public social services.

(f) To enable county administrators of general relief or assistance, or their representatives, to determine entitlement to locally provided general relief or assistance, where the determination is directly connected with, and limited to, the administration of general relief or assistance.

(g) To enable county district attorneys, or their representatives, to seek criminal, civil, or administrative remedies in connection with the unlawful application for, or receipt of, relief provided under Division 9 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(h) To enable the director or his or her representative to carry out his or her responsibilities under this code.

(i) To enable county departments of collection or their representatives to determine entitlement to medical assistance services rendered pursuant to Part 5 (commencing with Section 17000) of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and, when appropriate, to enable collection for the county's expenditures for these medical assistance services.

(j) To furnish an employer, or his or her authorized agent, with information including, but not limited to, the applicant's or recipient's name, social security number, address, employable skills, and job placement in order to enable him or her to fully discharge his or her obligations or safeguard his or her rights under the elements of a joint union, management, and Employment Development Department agreement as are deemed necessary to assist displaced workers to obtain new employment under the provisions of Chapter 2.9 (commencing with Section 9970) of Part 1 of Division 3 and related provisions of Division 3 (commencing with Section 9000). The information shall be limited to any information gathered under these divisions by the department and authorized for release by the labor organization which shall act as an agent for the affected workers under terms of the agreement and shall participate in defining the information release provisions.

(k) To provide any law enforcement agency with the name, address, telephone number, birth date, social security number, physical description, and names and addresses of present and past employers, of any victim, suspect, missing person, potential witness, or person for whom a felony arrest warrant has been issued, when a request for this information is made by any investigator or peace officer as defined by Sections 830.1 and 830.2 of the Penal Code and designated by the head of the law enforcement agency and who requests this information in the course of and as a part of an investigation into the commission of a crime where there is a reasonable suspicion that the crime is a felony and that the information would lead to relevant evidence. The information provided pursuant to this subdivision shall be provided to the extent permitted by federal law and regulations, and to the extent the information is available and accessible within the constraints and configurations of existing department records. Any person who receives any information under this subdivision shall make a written report of the information to the law enforcement agency that employs him or her, for filing under the normal procedures of that agency. Any officer or employee of the department who discloses information in violation of this subdivision is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person who obtains information in violation of this subdivision is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(1) This subdivision shall not be construed to authorize the release of a general list identifying individuals applying for or receiving benefits to any law enforcement agency.

(2) The department shall maintain records pursuant to this subdivision only for periods required under regulations or statutes enacted for the administration of its programs.

(3) This subdivision shall not be construed as limiting the information provided to law enforcement agencies to that pertaining only to applicants for, or recipients of, benefits.

(4) The department shall notify all applicants for benefits that release of confidential information from their records will not be protected should there be a felony arrest warrant issued against the applicant or in the event of an investigation by a law enforcement agency into the commission of a felony.

(l) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize or permit the use of information obtained in the administration of this code by any private collection agency.

(m) To provide the State Teachers' Retirement System, pursuant to Section 22242 of the Education Code, with information relating to the earnings of any person who is receiving a disability allowance, or disability retirement allowance, from the State Teachers' Retirement System. The earnings information shall be released to the Teachers' Retirement Board only upon written request from the board specifying that the person is receiving a disability allowance or disability retirement allowance from the system. The request may be made by the chief executive officer of the system or by an employee of the system so authorized and identified by name and title by the chief executive officer in writing.

(n) To provide the Public Employees' Retirement System, pursuant to Section 20143 of the Government Code, with information relating to the earnings of any person who is receiving a disability retirement allowance from the Public Employees' Retirement System. The earnings information shall be released to the Board of Administration of the system only upon written request from the board specifying that the person is receiving a disability retirement allowance from the system. The request may be made by the executive officer of the system or by an employee of the system so authorized and identified by name and title by the executive officer in writing.

(o) To provide the University of California Retirement System with information in its possession relating to the earnings of any person who has applied for or is receiving disability income from the system. The earnings information shall be disclosed only upon written request from the system specifying that the person has applied for or is receiving disability income from the system. The request may be made by the chief administrative officer of the system or by an employee so authorized and identified by name and title by the chief administrative officer in writing. The system shall notify applicants for and recipients of disability income that earnings information from the department's records will be released upon the system's request. The information obtained pursuant to this subdivision shall be used or disclosed by the system only to determine or to verify entitlement to, or continuing eligibility for, disability income. The system shall reimburse the department for all reasonable administrative expenses incurred pursuant to this subdivision.

(p) To enable the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement in the Department of Industrial Relations to seek criminal, civil, or administrative remedies in connection with the failure to pay, or the unlawful payment of, wages pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 200) of Part 1 of Division 2 of, and Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1720) of Part 7 of Division 2 of, the Labor Code. The Division of Labor Standards Enforcement shall reimburse the department for all reasonable administrative expenses incurred pursuant to this subdivision.

(q) To enable the federal Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Child Support Enforcement, Federal Parent Locator Service, to administer its child support enforcement programs under Title IV of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 651 et seq.).

(r) To provide county probation departments with wage and claim information in its possession that will assist those departments in the location of victims of crime who, by state mandate or court order, are entitled to restitution that has been, or can be recovered, and to assist in the collection of money owed to the county or the state by any person who has been directed by state mandate or court order to pay restitution, fines, penalties, assessments, or fees as a result of a violation of law. Information provided about victims of crime shall be limited to data necessary to assist in locating them. The county shall reimburse the department for all reasonable administrative expenses incurred pursuant to this subdivision. Any officer or employee of the department who discloses information in violation of this subdivision is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person who obtains information in violation of this subdivision is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(s) To provide the Student Aid Commission with information concerning any individuals who are delinquent or in default on guaranteed student loans or who owe repayment of funds received through other financial assistance programs administered by the commission. The information obtained pursuant to this subdivision shall be utilized by the commission exclusively to enable the collection of defaulted loans and other funds owed, pursuant to the authority granted in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 69500) of Part 42 of the Education Code and Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 30000) of Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations. The information released by the director for the purposes of this subdivision shall not include any employment, wage, or other information concerning any person who is receiving unemployment insurance benefits. The information shall be released to the commission only upon written request from the director of the commission or by an employee so authorized and identified by name and title by the director. The commission shall reimburse the department for all reasonable administrative expenses incurred pursuant to this subdivision.

(t) To provide an authorized governmental agency with any or all relevant information that relates to any specific workers' compensation insurance fraud investigation. The information shall be provided to the extent permitted by federal law and regulations. For the purposes of this subdivision, "authorized governmental agency" means the district attorney of any county, the office of the Attorney General, the Department of Industrial Relations, and the Department of Insurance. An authorized governmental agency may disclose this information to the State Bar, the Medical Board of California, or any other licensing board or department whose licensee is the subject of a workers' compensation insurance fraud investigation. This subdivision shall not prevent any authorized governmental agency from reporting to any board or department the suspected misconduct of any licensee of that body. The Department of Insurance or Department of Industrial Relations shall reimburse the department for all reasonable administrative expenses incurred relative to a request that it submits pursuant to this subdivision. Relevant information may include, but is not limited to, all of the following:

(1) Copies of unemployment and disability insurance application and claim forms and copies of any supporting medical records, documentation, and records pertaining thereto.

(2) Copies of returns filed by an employer pursuant to Section 1088 and copies of supporting documentation.

(3) Copies of benefit payment checks issued to claimants.

(4) Copies of any documentation that specifically identifies the claimant by social security number, residence address, or telephone number.

SEC. 19. Section 1095 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1095. The director shall permit the use of any information in his or her possession to the extent necessary for any of the following purposes:

(a) To properly present a claim for benefits.

(b) To acquaint a worker or his or her authorized agent with his or her existing or prospective right to benefits.

(c) To furnish an employer or his or her authorized agent with information to enable him or her to fully discharge his or her obligations or safeguard his or her rights under this division or Division 3 (commencing with Section 9000). This subdivision, as it relates to Division 3 (commencing with Section 9000), applies only to subdivision (j) of this section.

(d) To enable an employer to receive a reduction in contribution rate.

(e) To enable the Director of Social Services or his or her representatives or the Director of Health Services or his or her representatives, subject to federal law, to verify or determine the eligibility or entitlement of an applicant for, or a recipient of, public social services provided pursuant to the Welfare and Institutions Code, and directly connected with, and limited to, the administration of public social services.

(f) To enable county administrators of general relief or assistance, or their representatives, to determine entitlement to locally provided general relief or assistance, where the determination is directly connected with, and limited to, the administration of general relief or assistance.

(g) To enable county district attorneys, or their representatives, to seek criminal, civil, or administrative remedies in connection with the unlawful application for, or receipt of, relief provided under Division 9 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(h) To enable the director or his or her representative to carry out his or her responsibilities under this code.

(i) To enable county departments of collection or their representatives to determine entitlement to medical assistance services rendered pursuant to Part 5 (commencing with Section 17000) of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and, when appropriate, to enable collection for the county's expenditures for these medical assistance services.

(j) To furnish an employer, or his or her authorized agent, with information including, but not limited to, the applicant's or recipient's name, social security number, address, employable skills, and job placement in order to enable him or her to fully discharge his or her obligations or safeguard his or her rights under the elements of a joint union, management, and Employment Development Department agreement as are deemed necessary to assist displaced workers to obtain new employment under the provisions of Chapter 2.9 (commencing with Section 9970) of Part 1 of Division 3 and related provisions of Division 3 (commencing with Section 9000). The information shall be limited to any information gathered under these divisions by the department and authorized for release by the labor organization which shall act as an agent for the affected workers under terms of the agreement and shall participate in defining the information release provisions.

(k) To provide any law enforcement agency with the name, address, telephone number, birth date, social security number, physical description, and names and addresses of present and past employers, of any victim, suspect, missing person, potential witness, or person for whom a felony arrest warrant has been issued, when a request for this information is made by any investigator or peace officer as defined by Sections 830.1 and 830.2 of the Penal Code and designated by the head of the law enforcement agency and who requests this information in the course of and as a part of an investigation into the commission of a crime where there is a reasonable suspicion that the crime is a felony and that the information would lead to relevant evidence. The information provided pursuant to this subdivision shall be provided to the extent permitted by federal law and regulations, and to the extent the information is available and accessible within the constraints and configurations of existing department records. Any person who receives any information under this subdivision shall make a written report of the information to the law enforcement agency that employs him or her, for filing under the normal procedures of that agency. Any officer or employee of the department who discloses information in violation of this subdivision is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person who obtains information in violation of this subdivision is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(1) This subdivision shall not be construed to authorize the release of a general list identifying individuals applying for or receiving benefits to any law enforcement agency.

(2) The department shall maintain records pursuant to this subdivision only for periods required under regulations or statutes enacted for the administration of its programs.

(3) This subdivision shall not be construed as limiting the information provided to law enforcement agencies to that pertaining only to applicants for, or recipients of, benefits.

(4) The department shall notify all applicants for benefits that release of confidential information from their records will not be protected should there be a felony arrest warrant issued against the applicant or in the event of an investigation by a law enforcement agency into the commission of a felony.

(l) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize or permit the use of information obtained in the administration of this code by any private collection agency.

(m) To provide the State Teachers' Retirement System, pursuant to Section 22242 of the Education Code, with information relating to the earnings of any person who is receiving a disability allowance, or disability retirement allowance, from the State Teachers' Retirement System. The earnings information shall be released to the Teachers' Retirement Board only upon written request from the board specifying that the person is receiving a disability allowance or disability retirement allowance from the system. The request may be made by the chief executive officer of the system or by an employee of the system so authorized and identified by name and title by the chief executive officer in writing.

(n) To provide the Public Employees' Retirement System, pursuant to Section 20143 of the Government Code, with information relating to the earnings of any person who is receiving a disability retirement allowance from the Public Employees' Retirement System. The earnings information shall be released to the Board of Administration of the system only upon written request from the board specifying that the person is receiving a disability retirement allowance from the system. The request may be made by the executive officer of the system or by an employee of the system so authorized and identified by name and title by the executive officer in writing.

(o) To provide the University of California Retirement System with information in its possession relating to the earnings of any person who has applied for or is receiving disability income from the system. The earnings information shall be disclosed only upon written request from the system specifying that the person has applied for or is receiving disability income from the system. The request may be made by the chief administrative officer of the system or by an employee so authorized and identified by name and title by the chief administrative officer in writing. The system shall notify applicants for and recipients of disability income that earnings information from the department's records will be released upon the system's request. The information obtained pursuant to this subdivision shall be used or disclosed by the system only to determine or to verify entitlement to, or continuing eligibility for, disability income. The system shall reimburse the department for all reasonable administrative expenses incurred pursuant to this subdivision.

(p) To enable the Division of Labor Standards Enforcement in the Department of Industrial Relations to seek criminal, civil, or administrative remedies in connection with the failure to pay, or the unlawful payment of, wages pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 200) of Part 1 of Division 2 of, and Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1720) of Part 7 of Division 2 of, the Labor Code. The Division of Labor Standards Enforcement shall reimburse the department for all reasonable administrative expenses incurred pursuant to this subdivision.

(q) To enable the federal Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Child Support Enforcement, Federal Parent Locator Service, to administer its child support enforcement programs under Title IV of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 651 et seq.).

(r) To provide county probation departments with wage and claim information in its possession that will assist those departments in the location of victims of crime who, by state mandate or court order, are entitled to restitution that has been, or can be recovered, and to assist in the collection of money owed to the county or the state by any person who has been directed by state mandate or court order to pay restitution, fines, penalties, assessments, or fees as a result of a violation of law. Information provided about victims of crime shall be limited to data necessary to assist in locating them. The county shall reimburse the department for all reasonable administrative expenses incurred pursuant to this subdivision. Any officer or employee of the department who discloses information in violation of this subdivision is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person who obtains information in violation of this subdivision is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(s) To provide the Student Aid Commission with information concerning any individuals who are delinquent or in default on guaranteed student loans or who owe repayment of funds received through other financial assistance programs administered by the commission. The information obtained pursuant to this subdivision shall be utilized by the commission exclusively to enable the collection of defaulted loans and other funds owed, pursuant to the authority granted in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 69500) of Part 42 of the Education Code and Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 30000) of Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations. The information released by the director for the purposes of this subdivision shall not include any employment, wage, or other information concerning any person who is receiving unemployment insurance benefits. The information shall be released to the commission only upon written request from the director of the commission or by an employee so authorized and identified by name and title by the director. The commission shall reimburse the department for all reasonable administrative expenses incurred pursuant to this subdivision.

(t) To provide an authorized governmental agency with any or all relevant information that relates to any specific workers' compensation insurance fraud investigation. The information shall be provided to the extent permitted by federal law and regulations. For the purposes of this subdivision, "authorized governmental agency" means the district attorney of any county, the office of the Attorney General, the Department of Industrial Relations, and the Department of Insurance. An authorized governmental agency may disclose this information to the State Bar, the Medical Board of California, or any other licensing board or department whose licensee is the subject of a workers' compensation insurance fraud investigation. This subdivision shall not prevent any authorized governmental agency from reporting to any board or department the suspected misconduct of any licensee of that body. The Department of Insurance or Department of Industrial Relations shall reimburse the department for all reasonable administrative expenses incurred relative to a request that it submits pursuant to this subdivision. Relevant information may include, but is not limited to, all of the following:

(1) Copies of unemployment and disability insurance application and claim forms and copies of any supporting medical records, documentation, and records pertaining thereto.

(2) Copies of returns filed by an employer pursuant to Section 1088 and copies of supporting documentation.

(3) Copies of benefit payment checks issued to claimants.

(4) Copies of any documentation that specifically identifies the claimant by social security number, residence address, or telephone number.

(u) To provide employment tax information to the tax officials of Mexico, if a reciprocal agreement exists. For purposes of this subdivision, "reciprocal agreement" means a formal agreement to exchange information between national taxing officials of Mexico and taxing authorities of the State Board of Equalization, the Franchise Tax Board, and the Employment Development Department. Furthermore, the reciprocal agreement shall be limited to the exchange of information which is essential for tax administration purposes only. Taxing authorities of the State of California shall be granted tax information only on California residents. Taxing authorities of Mexico shall be granted tax information only on Mexican nationals.

SEC. 20. Section 19 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1095 of the Unemployment Insurance Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1881. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1994, (2) each bill amends Section 1095 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1881, in which case Section 18 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1145

An act to amend Sections 25174.1, 25174.7, 25200.2, 25205.1, 25205.2, 25205.5, 25205.7, 25205.12, 25205.15, and 25360 of, to add Sections 25205.3, 25205.17, 25205.18, 25205.19, 25205.20, 25205.21, 25205.22, 25205.23, and 25359.8 to, to repeal and add Sections 25153 and 25343 of, and to repeal Section 25344 of, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 43152.7 and 43551 of, to add Section 43555 to, and to repeal Section 43552 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to hazardous substances and petroleum.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25153 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 25153 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25153. The offsite storage, treatment, transportation, and disposal of extremely hazardous waste is subject to the same requirements specified in this chapter that are applicable to hazardous waste and the department shall not require any special or additional permits for the offsite handling or management of extremely hazardous waste.

SEC. 3. Section 25174.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25174.1. (a) Each person who disposes of hazardous waste, or who annually submits more than 500 pounds of hazardous waste for disposal, including, but not limited to, land treatment, in the state shall pay a fee directly to the State Board of Equalization for the disposal of hazardous waste to land.

(b) "Disposal fee" means the fee imposed by this section.

(c) Each operator at any facility, including, but not limited to, all Class II and Class III landfills, as defined in Sections 2532 and 2533 of Title 23 of the California Code of Regulations, at which hazardous wastes are disposed, shall pay a fee directly to the State Board of Equalization for the disposal of those wastes, except that the site operator is not required to pay the fee for a hazardous waste if the person submitting the waste for disposal provides the operator with a properly completed manifest for that waste which includes that person's Hazardous Waste Tax Account number, as assigned by the State Board of Equalization, and the site operator submits a copy of the manifest to the State Board of Equalization in the time and manner as it may prescribe.

(d) The State Board of Equalization shall deposit the fees collected pursuant to this section in the Hazardous Waste Control Account, for expenditure by the department, upon appropriation by the Legislature, pursuant to this chapter and Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300).

SEC. 4. Section 25174.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25174.7. (a) The fees provided for in Sections 25174.1 and 25205.5 do not apply to any of the following:

(1) Hazardous wastes which result when a government agency, or its contractor, removes or remedies a release of hazardous waste in the state caused by another person.

(2) Hazardous wastes generated or disposed of by a public agency operating a household hazardous waste collection facility in the state pursuant to Article 10.8 (commencing with Section 25218), including, but not limited to, hazardous waste received from conditionally exempt small quantity commercial generators, authorized pursuant to Section 25218.3.

(3) Hazardous wastes generated or disposed of by local vector control agencies which have entered into a cooperative agreement pursuant to Section 2426 or by county agricultural commissioners, if the hazardous wastes result from their control or regulatory activities and if they comply with the requirements of this chapter and regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

(4) Hazardous waste disposed of, or submitted for disposal or treatment, by any person, which is discovered and separated from solid waste as part of a load checking program.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), any person responsible for a release of hazardous waste, which has been removed or remedied by a government agency, or its contractor, shall pay the fee pursuant to Section 25174.1.

(c) Any person who acquires land for the sole purpose of owner-occupied single-family residential use, and who acquires that land without actual or constructive notice or knowledge that there is a tank containing hazardous waste on or under that property, is exempt from the fees imposed pursuant to Sections 25174.1, 25205.5, and 25345, in connection with the removal of the tank.

SEC. 5. Section 25200.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25200.2. (a) The department shall develop a permitting process for transportable hazardous waste treatment units for treating waste in accordance with the requirements of the federal act and with the requirements of this chapter for hazardous wastes which are not otherwise subject to the federal act.

(b) The operator of a transportable hazardous waste treatment unit shall pay the same annual fee as facilities authorized to operate pursuant to a permit-by-rule specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25205.14. The operator of a unit is exempt from paying the facility fee specified in Section 25205.2 for any year or reporting period during which the unit was operating for any activity authorized under permit, except as specified in subdivision (b) of Section 25205.12.

SEC. 6. Section 25205.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.1. For purposes of this article the following definitions apply:

(a) "Board" means the State Board of Equalization.

(b) "Facility" means any units or other structures, and all contiguous land, used for the treatment, storage, disposal, or recycling of hazardous waste, for which a permit or a grant of interim status has been issued by the department for that activity pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200).

(c) "Large storage facility," in those cases where total storage capacity is provided in a permit, interim status document, or federal Part A application for the facility, means a storage facility with capacity to store 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste. In those cases where it is not so provided, "large storage facility" means a storage facility which stores 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste during any one month of the current reporting period commencing on or after July 1, 1991.

(d) "Large treatment facility," in those cases where total treatment capacity is provided in a permit, interim status document, or federal Part A application for the facility, means a treatment facility with capacity to treat, land treat, or recycle 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste. In those cases where it is not so provided, "large treatment facility" means a treatment facility which treats, land treats, or recycles 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste during any one month of the current reporting period commencing on or after July 1, 1991.

(e) "Generator" means a person who generates hazardous waste at an individual site commencing on or after July 1, 1988. A generator includes, but is not limited to, a person who is identified on a manifest as the generator and whose identification number is listed on that manifest, if that identifying information was provided by that person or by an agent or employee of that person.

(f) "Ministorage facility," in those cases where total storage capacity is provided in a permit, interim status document, or federal Part A application for the facility, means a storage facility with capacity to store 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste. In those cases where it is not so provided, "ministorage facility" means a storage facility which stores 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste during any one month of the current reporting period commencing on or after July 1, 1991.

(g) "Minitreatment facility," in those cases where total treatment capacity is provided in a permit, interim status document, or federal Part A application for the facility, means a treatment facility with capacity to treat, land treat, or recycle 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste. In those cases where is it not so provided,

"minitreatment facility, means a treatment facility which treats, land treats, or recycles 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste during any one month of the current reporting period commencing on or after July 1, 1991.

(h) "Site" means the location of an operation which generates hazardous wastes and which is noncontiguous to any other location of these operations owned by the generator.

(i) "Small storage facility," in those cases where total storage capacity is provided in a permit, interim status document, or federal Part A application for the facility, means a storage facility with capacity to store more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons of hazardous waste. In those cases where it is not so provided, "small storage facility, means a storage facility which stores more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during any one month of the current reporting period commencing on or after July 1, 1991.

(j) "Small treatment facility," in those cases where total treatment capacity is provided in a permit, interim status document, or federal Part A application for the facility, means a treatment facility with capacity to treat, land treat, or recycle more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons of hazardous waste. In those cases where it is not so provided, "small treatment facility," means a treatment facility which treats, land treats, or recycles more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during any month of the current reporting period commencing on or after July 1, 1991.

(k) "Unit" means a hazardous waste management unit, as defined in regulations adopted by the department. Where an area is designated as a hazardous waste management unit in a permit it shall be conclusively presumed that the area is a "unit."

(l) "Class 1 modification," "class 2 modification," and "class 3 modification" have the meanings provided in regulations adopted by the department.

(m) "Hazardous waste" has the meaning provided in Section 25117. The total tonnage of hazardous waste, unless otherwise provided by law, includes the hazardous substance as well as any soil or other substance which is commingled with the hazardous substance.

(n) "Land treat" means to apply hazardous waste onto or incorporate it into the soil surface for the sole and express purpose of degrading, transforming, or immobilizing the hazardous constituents.

(o) "Treatment," "storage," and "disposal" means only that treatment, storage, or disposal of hazardous waste engaged in at a facility pursuant to a permit or grant of interim status issued by the department pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 25200). Treatment, storage, or disposal that does not require such a permit or grant of interim status shall not be considered treatment, storage, or disposal for purposes of this article.

(1) "Disposal" includes only the placement of hazardous waste onto or into the ground for permanent disposition and does not include the placement of hazardous waste in surface impoundments, as defined in regulations adopted by the department, or the placement of hazardous waste onto or into the ground solely for purposes of land treatment.

(2) "Storage" does not include the ongoing presence of hazardous wastes in the ground or in surface impoundments after the facility has permanently discontinued accepting new hazardous wastes for placement into the ground or into surface impoundments.

SEC. 7. Section 25205.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.2. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (c) and (h), in addition to the fees specified in Section 25174.1, each operator of a facility shall pay a facility fee for each reporting period, or any portion thereof, to the board based on the size and type of the facility, as specified in Section 25205.4. On or before January 31 of each calendar year, the department annually shall notify the board of all known facility operators by facility type and size. The department shall also notify the board of any operator issued a permit or grant of interim status within 30 days after a permit or grant of interim status is issued to the operator. The fee specified in this section does not apply to facilities operating pursuant to a permit-by-rule, as specified in Section 25205.12.

(b) The board shall deposit all fees collected pursuant to subdivision (a) in the Hazardous Waste Control Account in the General Fund. The fees so deposited may be expended by the department, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for the purposes specified in subdivision (b) of Section 25174.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a person who is issued a variance by the department from the requirement of obtaining a hazardous waste facilities permit or grant of interim status is not subject to the fee, for any reporting period following the reporting period in which the variance was granted by the department.

(d) Operators subject to facility fee liability pursuant to this section shall pay the following amounts:

(1) The operator shall pay the applicable facility fee for each reporting period in which the facility actually engaged in the treatment, storage, or disposal of hazardous waste.

(2) The operator shall pay the applicable facility fee for one additional reporting period immediately following the final reporting period in which the facility actually engaged in that treatment or storage. For the 1994 reporting period and thereafter, the facility's size for that additional reporting period shall be deemed to be the largest size at which the facility has ever been subject to the fee. If the department previously approved a unit or portion of the facility for a variance, closure, or permit-by-rule, the facility's size for that reporting period shall be deemed to be its largest size since the department granted the approval.

(3) The operator of a disposal facility shall pay twice the applicable facility fee for one additional reporting period immediately following the final reporting period in which the facility actually engaged in disposal of hazardous waste.

(4) For the 1994 reporting period and thereafter, a facility shall not be deemed to have stopped treating, storing, or disposing of hazardous waste unless it has actually ceased that activity and has notified the department of its intent to close.

(5) If the reporting period which immediately followed the final reporting period in which a facility actually engaged in the treatment, storage, or disposal of the hazardous waste was the six-month period from July 1, 1991, through December 31, 1991, the operator shall be subject to twice the fee otherwise applicable to that operator for that reporting period under paragraphs (2) and (3).

(e) No facility shall be subject to a facility fee for treatment, storage, or disposal, if that activity took place before July 1, 1986, and if the fee for the activity was not paid prior to January 1, 1994.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a person who ceased actual treatment, storage, or disposal of hazardous waste, whether generated onsite or received from offsite, before July 1, 1986, and who paid facility fees for any reporting period after that date pursuant to a decision of the Board of Equalization and who filed a claim for refund of those fees on or before January 1, 1994, shall be entitled to a refund of those amounts.

(g) Facility operators who treated, stored, or disposed of hazardous waste on or after July 1, 1986, shall be subject to the provisions of this section which were in effect prior to January 1, 1994, as to payments which their operators made prior to January 1, 1994. The operators shall be subject to subdivision (d) as to any other liability for the facility fee.

(h) A treatment facility is not subject to the facility fee established pursuant to this section, if the facility engages in treatment exclusively to accomplish a removal or remedial action or a corrective action in accordance with an order issued by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to the federal act or in accordance with an order issued by the department pursuant to Section 25187, if the facility was put in operation solely for purposes of complying with that order. The department shall instead assess a fee for that facility for the actual time spent by the department for the inspection and oversight of that facility. The department shall base the fee on the department's work standards and shall assess the fee on an hourly basis.

(i) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a facility operating pursuant to a standardized permit, as specified in Section 25201.6, is exempt from the annual facility fee imposed by this section for a period of time equal to the number of years that the facility lawfully operated prior to the operative date of Senate Bill 27 of the 1993–94 Regular Session of the Legislature, pursuant to a hazardous waste facilities permit or other grant of authorization and paid facility fees for the operation of the facility pursuant to this section.

SEC. 8. Section 25205.3 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25205.3. The following facilities are exempt from the fees imposed by this article:

(a) Any household hazardous waste collection facility operated pursuant to Article 10.8 (commencing with Section 25218).

(b) Any facility operated by a local government agency, or by any person operating a hazardous waste collection program under an agreement with a public agency, which is used for wastes which meet the requirements of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 25174.7.

(c) That portion of a solid waste facility permitted pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 44001) of Part 4 of Division 30 of the Public Resources Code, which is used for the segregation, handling, and storage of hazardous waste separated from solid waste loads received by the facility, pursuant to a load checking program.

(d) A facility used solely for the treatment, storage, disposal, or recycling of hazardous waste which results when a public agency or its contractor investigates, removes, or remedies a release of hazardous waste caused by another person.

(e) (1) For purposes of fees assessed in any reporting period beginning July 1, 1990, or subsequently, a facility which has been issued a permit for the purpose of storing hazardous waste onsite, and whose permit has expired, if all of the following has occurred:

(A) The facility has received no waste from offsite since the permit expired.

(B) The owner or operator gave the department timely notification of intent to close the facility, pursuant to regulations adopted by the department.

(C) At least 90 days have elapsed since the owner or operator gave the department that notification.

(D) The department did not complete its review of the closure plan within 90 days of receiving the notification.

(2) This exclusion shall take effect the reporting period following the reporting period in which the facility first satisfied the requirements of paragraph (1) and did not accumulate waste onsite for more than 90 consecutive days.

SEC. 9. Section 25205.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.5. (a) In addition to the fee imposed pursuant to Section 25174.1, every generator of hazardous waste, in the amounts specified in subdivision (b), shall pay the board a generator fee for each generator site for each calendar year, or portion thereof, unless the generator has paid a facility fee, as specified in Section 25205.2, for each specific site, for the calendar year for which the generator fee is due.

(b) (1) Within 30 days of the enactment of the annual Budget Act, the board shall establish the generator fee specified in subdivision (a), as adjusted pursuant to subdivision (c), to be paid by generators subject to this section.

(2) (A) The base fee rate is three thousand one hundred ten dollars ($3,110).

(B) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, five tons, but less than 25 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 5 percent of the base rate.

(C) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 25 tons, but less than 50 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 40 percent of the base rate.

(D) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 50 tons, but less than 250 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay the base rate.

(E) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 250 tons, but less than 500 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay five times the base rate.

(F) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 500 tons, but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 10 times the base rate.

(G) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 1,000 tons, but less than 2,000 tons, of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 15 times the base rate.

(H) Each generator who generates an amount equal to, or more than, 2,000 tons of hazardous waste during the prior calendar year shall pay 20 times the base rate.

(c) The base rate established pursuant to subdivision (b) is the base rate for the 1993 calendar year and the board shall adjust the base rate annually to reflect increases or decreases in the cost of living, as measured by the Consumer Price Index issued by the United States Department of Labor or by a successor agency of the federal government.

(d) The establishment of the annual operating fee pursuant to this section is exempt from Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(e) The following materials are not hazardous wastes for purposes of this section:

(1) Hazardous materials which are recycled, and used onsite, and are not transferred offsite.

(2) Aqueous waste treated in a treatment unit operating, or which subsequently operates, pursuant to a permit-by-rule, or pursuant to Section 25200.3 or 25201.5. However, hazardous waste generated by a treatment unit treating waste pursuant to a permit-by-rule, by a unit which subsequently obtains a permit-by-rule, or other authorization pursuant to Section 25200.3 or 25201.5 is hazardous waste for purposes of this section.

(f) The fee imposed pursuant to this section shall be paid in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(g) The amendment of this section made by Chapter 1125 of the Statutes of 1991 does not constitute a change in, but is declaratory of, existing law.

SEC. 10. Section 25205.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.7. (a) The board shall assess a fee for any application for a new hazardous waste facilities permit, a permit for a hazardous waste facility which would manage extremely hazardous waste, a variance, or a permit modification issued by the department pursuant to this chapter or the regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter. The fee shall be nonrefundable, even if the application is withdrawn or the permit, variance, or modification is denied. The department shall provide the board with any information which is necessary to assess fees pursuant to this section. The fee shall be collected in accordance with Part 22 (commencing with Section 43001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and deposited into the Hazardous Waste Control Account. A person who submits a single application for a facility that falls within more than one fee category shall pay only the higher fee.

(b) The amounts stated in this section shall be base rates for the 1989–90 fiscal year. Thereafter the fees shall be adjusted annually to reflect increases or decreases in the cost of living, as measured by the Consumer Price Index for the United States, as reported by the Department of Labor or a successor agency of the United States government. The fee shall be assessed upon application to the department. For a facility operating pursuant to interim status, the submittal of the application shall be the submittal of the Part B application in accordance with regulations adopted by the department. A person who submits an application for renewal of any existing permit shall pay an amount equal to the fee that would have been assessed had the person requested the same changes in a modification application, but not less than one-half the fee required for a new permit.

(c) A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for a land disposal facility shall pay eighty-three thousand dollars ($83,000) for a small facility, one hundred seventy-seven thousand dollars ($177,000) for a medium facility, and three hundred four thousand dollars ($304,000) for a large facility.

(d) A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for any incinerator shall pay fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) for a small facility, one hundred six thousand dollars ($106,000) for a medium facility, and one hundred eighty-two thousand dollars ($182,000) for a large facility.

(e) (1) Except as provided in paragraphs (2) and (3), a person submitting a hazardous waste facility permit application for a storage facility, a treatment facility, or a storage and treatment facility shall pay seventeen thousand dollars ($17,000) for a small facility, thirty-one thousand dollars ($31,000) for a medium facility, and sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) for a large facility.

(2) A person submitting an application for a standardized permit for a storage facility, a treatment facility, or a storage and treatment facility, as specified in Section 25201.6, shall pay thirty thousand fifty-one dollars ($30,051) for a series A standardized permit, eighteen thousand seven hundred sixty-two dollars ($18,762) for a series B standardized permit, and five thousand dollars ($5,000) for a series C standardized permit. The board shall assess these fees based upon the classifications specified in subdivision (a) of Section 25201.6.

(3) In addition to the fees specified in paragraph (2), the board shall assess a fee equal to the department's costs in reviewing and overseeing any corrective action program described in the application for a standardized permit pursuant to subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 25201.6, and in reviewing and overseeing any corrective action work undertaken at the facility pursuant to that corrective action program.

(f) A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for a transportable treatment unit shall pay thirteen thousand dollars ($13,000) for a small unit, thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) for a medium unit, and sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) for a large unit.

(g) (1) A person submitting a request for a variance shall pay three thousand dollars ($3,000) for a variance from any hazardous waste storage requirements imposed by this chapter, three hundred dollars ($300) for a variance issued pursuant to Section 25179.8, three hundred dollars ($300) for a variance to allow the use of a test method or analytical method which is an alternative to the methods prescribed by regulation for use in classifying a waste, eight hundred dollars ($800) for a variance from the requirements for hazardous waste haulers imposed by this chapter.

(A) A person submitting a request for a variance not otherwise listed in this paragraph shall pay eight thousand dollars ($8,000), unless the applicant is a small business and the department determines in its discretion that payment of this fee would cause financial or other unreasonable hardship to the applicant. If that finding is made, the department may assess the applicant up to 50 percent of the standard fee. For the purposes of this subparagraph, "small business" means a business which is independently owned and operated, has 25 employees or less, and has a gross annual income which does not exceed two million dollars ($2,000,000).

(B) If the variance application requests a variance from more than one specific statute or regulation, a separate fee may be assessed for each statute or regulation from which the variance is requested.

(2) If the variance contains no significant changes from a variance previously issued to the same owner or operator, the fee shall be 25 percent of the amount otherwise provided for by this section. A change is a significant change if, had it been made to a permit, it would have been a class 2 or class 3 modification, as specified in subdivision (h).

(3) Any variance granted pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 66260.21) of Chapter 10 of Division 4.5 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations is not subject to a fee under this section.

(h) (1) A person who applies for one or more class 1 permit modifications shall pay a fee of five hundred dollars ($500) for each unit directly impacted by the modification, up to a maximum of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) for each application.

(2) A person who applies for one or more class 2 permit modifications shall pay a fee equal to 20 percent of the fee for a new permit for that facility for each unit directly impacted by the modifications, up to a maximum of 40 percent for each application, except that each person who applies for one or more class 2 permit modifications for a land disposal facility or an incinerator shall pay a fee equal to 15 percent of the fee for a new permit for that facility for each unit directly impacted by the modifications, up to a maximum of 30 percent for each application.

(3) A person who applies for one or more class 3 permit modifications shall pay a fee equal to 40 percent of the fee for a new permit for that facility for each unit directly impacted by the modifications, up to a maximum of 80 percent for each application, except that a person who applies for one or more class 3 permit modifications for a land disposal facility shall pay a fee equal to 30 percent of the fee for a new permit for that facility for each unit directly impacted by the modifications, up to a maximum of 60 percent for each modification.

(i) Permits for postclosure shall be required for hazardous waste facilities if hazardous wastes remain after closure which will not be subject to the requirements of any other hazardous waste facilities permit issued by the department at the time of postclosure permit approval.

(1) A person submitting a hazardous waste facilities permit application for a postclosure permit shall pay a fee of eight thousand dollars ($8,000) for a small facility, eighteen thousand dollars ($18,000) for a medium facility, and thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) for a large facility.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision and paragraph (8) of subdivision (c) of Section 25205.4, and notwithstanding subdivision (j), any facility or unit is "small" if 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste remain after closure, "medium" if more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons of hazardous waste remain after closure, and "large" if 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste remain after closure.

(j) For purposes of this section, and notwithstanding Section 25205.1, any facility or unit is "small" if it manages 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds) or less of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year, "medium" if it manages more than 0.5 tons (1,000 pounds), but less than 1,000 tons, of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year, and "large" if it manages 1,000 or more tons of hazardous waste during any one month of the state's current fiscal year.

(k) The fees assessed pursuant to this section do not apply to any permit or variance to operate a research, development, and demonstration facility, if the duration of the permit or variance is not longer than one year, unless the permit or variance is renewed pursuant to the regulations adopted by the department. For purposes of this section, a "research, development, and demonstration facility" is a facility which proposes to utilize an innovative and experimental hazardous waste treatment technology or process for which regulations prescribing permit standards have not been adopted.

(1) Any variance issued to a public agency to transport wastes for purposes of operating a household hazardous waste collection facility, or to transport waste from a household hazardous waste collection facility, which receives household hazardous waste or hazardous waste from conditionally exempted small quantity generators pursuant to Article 10.8 (commencing with Section 25218).

(2) A permanent household hazardous waste collection facility.

(3) Any variance issued to a public agency to conduct a collection program for agricultural wastes.

(m) Except as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (e), the department shall not access any fees for the department's costs in reviewing and overseeing a corrective action taken in conjunction with a hazardous waste facility permit application.

(n) The fees assessed pursuant to subdivision (h) do not apply to any government agency for hazardous wastes which result when the government agency, or its contractor, investigates, removes, or remedies a release of hazardous waste caused by another person.

(o) Any person producing or transporting extremely hazardous waste shall pay a fee to the department of two hundred dollars ($200) per calendar year, in addition to any other fee imposed by this section. The fee shall be collected by the department annually.

SEC. 11. Section 25205.12 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.12. (a) The owner of a hazardous waste facility authorized by the department to operate pursuant to a permit-by-rule, authorized under a grant of conditional authorization pursuant to Section 25200.3, exempted pursuant to subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 25201.5, or exempted pursuant to Section 25144.6 is exempt from the facility fee specified in Section 25205.2 for any activities authorized by the permit-by-rule, under a grant of conditional authorization pursuant to Section 25200.3, exempted pursuant to subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 25201.5, or exempted pursuant to Section 25144.6 at that facility for any year or reporting period during which the facility is operating.

(b) The retroactive portion of the facility fee exemption provided by subdivision (a) does not apply to any facility which was authorized by the department to operate on or before June 1, 1991, for any fees paid or billed prior to September 1, 1992.

(c) The operator of a hazardous waste facility authorized by the department to clean and recycle excavated underground storage tanks is exempt from the facility fee specified in Section 25205.2 with regard to these activities conducted before January 1, 1994, and these activities conducted after that date, until the effective date of a regulation adopted by the department governing the statewide requirements for the issuance of a permit for tank cleaning and recycling facilities.

(d) The operator of a hazardous waste facility eligible to operate pursuant to a standardized permit, as specified in Section 25201.6, is exempt from the facility fee specified in Sections 25205.2 and 25205.4 for any year or reporting period prior to January 1, 1993, during which the facility operated, if the hazardous waste treatment or storage activity was conducted prior to January 1, 1993, and the owner or operator is in compliance with the notification and application requirements of Section 25201.6, as amended in the 1993–94 Regular Session of the Legislature, or as amended thereafter, and either of the following circumstances apply:

(1) The owner or operator was not authorized by the department before July 1, 1993, to conduct the eligible treatment or storage activity.

(2) The owner or operator did not pay a hazardous waste facility fee, as specified in Section 25205.2, for that year or reporting period prior to July 1, 1993, for the facility that is the subject of the standardized permit.

SEC. 12. Section 25205.15 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25205.15. (a) Except for the first four manifests used in a calendar year by a business with less than 100 employees, the department shall impose a fee of twelve dollars ($12) for each California Uniform Hazardous Waste Manifest form used by any person in the following manner:

(1) The Governor may, in his or her discretion, order the department to refund three-quarters of the amount of manifest fees paid on manifests used during the 1991 calendar year.

(2) On and after the 1992 calendar year, the manifest fee shall be assessed on all manifests used in the calendar year ending prior to the start of the fiscal year in which the billing occurs.

(B) The manifest fee for any manifest that is used solely for wastes which are to be recycled is six dollars ($6) and the total amount of manifest fees paid in a calendar year for these manifests shall not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each hazardous waste identification number issued either by the department or the Environmental Protection Agency.

(c) The manifest fees shall be deposited in the Hazardous Waste Control Account and be available for expenditure, upon appropriation by the Legislature, in accordance with this chapter and Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300).

SEC. 13. Section 25205.17 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25205.17. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no facility for any reporting period prior to 1994 shall be a "disposal facility" for purposes of the annual facility fee if that facility had a permit or interim status document issued by the department which designated that facility or any part of its process as "storage" or "treatment" and did not designate that facility or any part of its process as "disposal" or "landfill."

SEC. 14. Section 25205.18 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25205.18. (a) If a facility has a permit or an interim status document which sets forth the facility's allowable capacity for treatment or storage, the facility's size for purposes of the annual facility fee shall be based upon that capacity, except as provided in subdivision (d).

(b) If a facility's allowable capacity changes or is initially established as a result of a permit modification, or a submission of a certification pursuant to subdivision (d), the fee that is due for the reporting period in which the change occurs shall be the lower fee until December 31, 1994. After that date, the fee that is due for the reporting period in which a change occurs shall be the higher fee.

(c) The department may require the facility to submit an application to modify its permit to provide for an allowable capacity. An application required by the department pursuant to this subdivision shall not be subject to a modification application fee pursuant to Section 25205.7.

(d) A facility may reduce its allowable capacity below the amounts specified in subdivision (a) or (c) by submitting a certification signed by the owner or operator in which owner or operator pledges that the facility will not handle hazardous waste at a capacity above the amount specified in the certification. In that case, the facility's size for purposes of the annual facility fee shall be based upon the capacity specified in the certification, until the certification is withdrawn. Exceeding the capacity limits specified in a certification that has not been withdrawn shall be a violation of the hazardous waste control law and may subject a facility or its operator to a penalty and corrective action as provided in this chapter, including, but not limited to, an augmentation pursuant to Section 25191.1.

(e) This section shall have no bearing on the imposition of the annual postclosure facility fee.

SEC. 15. Section 25205.19 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25205.19. (a) If a facility has a permit or an interim status document which sets forth the facility's type, pursuant to Section 25205.1, as either treatment, storage, or disposal, the facility's type for purposes of the annual facility fee shall be rebuttably presumed to be what is set forth in that permit or document.

(b) If the facility's type changes as a result of a permit or interim status modification, any change in the annual facility fee shall be effective the reporting period following the one in which the modification becomes effective.

(c) If the facility's permit or interim status document does not set forth its type, the department may require the facility to submit an application to modify the permit or interim status document to provide for a facility type. An application pursuant to this subdivision shall not be subject to a modification application fee pursuant to Section 25205.7.

(d) A permit or interim status document may set forth more than one facility type or size. In accordance with subdivision (e) of Section 25205.4, the facility shall be subject only to the highest applicable fee.

SEC. 16. Section 25205.20 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25205.20. (a) In issuing a variance, the department may, for purposes of the annual facility fee only, make the variance retroactive to not earlier than one year after the date of the variance application's submittal to the department, or January 1, 1994, whichever is later.

(b) A facility which is subject to the annual facility fee shall pay such fee while the variance application is pending. Within one year of the issuance of the variance, the board shall issue a refund of facility fees paid for all reporting periods following the period to which the variance is retroactive. The refund shall not include interest.

(c) Variance, for purposes of this section, means a variance from the requirement of obtaining a hazardous waste facilities permit or grant of interim status.

SEC. 17. Section 25205.21 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25205.21. (a) Notwithstanding Section 25205.4, a disposal facility operator which is a government agency shall be subject to a maximum facility fee of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for any reporting period of 12 months and five thousand dollars ($5,000) for any reporting period of six months, for that disposal facility for any reporting period in which it did not at any time dispose of hazardous waste therein. This section shall apply to all reporting periods since the inception of the facility fee up to and including the reporting period ending December 31, 1998.

(b) Prior to January 1, 1998, no interest or penalty shall accrue on any amount owed by an operator pursuant to subdivision (a).

(c) This section shall not affect the imposition of the annual postclosure facility fee.

SEC. 18. Section 25205.22 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25205.22. Any facility receiving non-RCRA hazardous waste imported into this state for purposes of treatment, recycling, or disposal shall be considered the generator of that waste and the facility shall be considered the site of generation for purposes of payment of the generator fee pursuant to Section 25205.5, and the facility operator shall pay the applicable generator fee even if the operator has also paid a facility fee, but no generator fee shall be assessed for non-RCRA hazardous waste imported prior to January 1, 1994.

SEC. 19. Section 25205.23 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25205.23. Notwithstanding Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 43151) of Part 22 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, at the request of any party contesting any fee imposed pursuant to this chapter or Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300), the department may hold an informal conference to attempt to settle the dispute. Upon the payment of any sum agreed upon between the contesting party and the department in settlement of the disputed fee liability, the liable person shall be released from any further liability for payment of the disputed fee.

SEC. 20. Section 25343 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 21. Section 25343 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

25343. (a) Upon request by the department, the board shall assess a fee of eight thousand dollars ($8,000) for the costs incurred by the department for its oversight of a preliminary endangerment assessment at a site. The fee may be assessed upon any potentially responsible parties for that site or upon any persons who have notified the department of their intent to undertake removal or remediation at the site, but the total amount retained from all parties shall not exceed eight thousand dollars ($8,000). This section shall not be a limitation on the department's authority to recover its costs in excess of the amount it receives pursuant to this section.

(b) A person who is subject to the fee pursuant to this section shall pay the fee prior to the commencement of the preliminary endangerment assessment. The amount specified in this section is the base rate for the 1993–94 fiscal year. Thereafter, the board shall adjust the fee annually to reflect increases or decreases in the cost-of-living, as measured by the Consumer Price Index issued by the Department of Labor or a successor agency of the United States Government.

(c) If a person pays the department an amount equal to or exceeding eight thousand dollars ($8,000) pursuant to an agreement which expressly provides the payment is for recovery of costs incurred by the department in connection with oversight of a preliminary endangerment assessment, the department shall notify the board to withdraw the assessment.

SEC. 22. Section 25344 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 23. Section 25359.8 is added to the Health and Safety Code,

to read:

25359.8. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, non-RCRA hazardous waste, excluding asbestos, generated in a remedial action, a removal action, or a corrective action taken pursuant to this chapter, Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100), Chapter 6.7 (commencing with Section 25280) or Chapter 6.75 (commencing with Section 25299.10), or generated in another cleanup, removal, or remediation of a hazardous substance shall be subject to any fees due under Article 7 (commencing with Section 25170) of Chapter 6.5, at a rate of twelve dollars ($12) per ton, unless the hazardous waste is otherwise exempt from the fee under Article 7 (commencing with Section 25170) of Chapter 6.5.

(b) For purposes of this section, "remedial action" has the same meaning as defined in Section 25322 and "removal action" has the same meaning as defined in Section 25323.

SEC. 24. Section 25360 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25360. (a) Any costs incurred and payable from the state account, the Site Remediation Account, or the Hazardous Substance Cleanup Fund shall be recovered by the Attorney General, upon the request of the department, from the liable person or persons. The amount of any costs which may be recovered pursuant to this section, for a remedial or removal action paid from the Hazardous Substance Cleanup Fund, shall include the amount paid from that fund and interest on that amount calculated at a rate equal to the interest rate of the bonds sold pursuant to Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 25385).

(b) In addition to the costs specified in subdivision (a), the person or persons are liable to the department for administrative costs in an amount equal to 10 percent of the reasonable cost actually incurred, or five hundred dollars ($500), whichever is greater.

(c) A person who is liable for costs incurred at a site, which are payable from the state account, the Site Remediation Account, or the Hazardous Substance Cleanup Fund, shall have the liability reduced by any fee pursuant to this chapter that was actually paid by that person in connection with that site, including any fee paid pursuant to Section 25343.

(d) The amount of cost determined pursuant to this section shall be recoverable at the discretion of the department, either in a separate action or by way of intervention as of right in an action for contribution or indemnity. Nothing in this section deprives a party of any defense he or she may have.

(e) Moneys recovered by the Attorney General pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the state account, except that, if the costs incurred were paid from the Hazardous Substance Cleanup Fund, the Attorney General shall deposit the amounts recovered into the Hazardous Substance Clearing Account. Moneys deposited in the Hazardous Substance Clearing Account pursuant to this section are available to pay the principal of, and interest on, bonds sold pursuant to Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 25385).

SEC. 25. Section 43152.7 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

43152.7. (a) The fee imposed pursuant to Section 25205.5 of the Health and Safety Code which is collected and administered under Section 43053 is due and payable on the last day of the month following the end of the calendar year.

(b) Every operator subject to the fee imposed pursuant to Section 25205.5 of the Health and Safety Code shall, on forms prescribed by the board, file an annual return and pay the proper amount of fee due.

(c) The fee imposed by Section 25205.5 of the Health and Safety Code shall be offset by any fees paid by the generator for the preceding calendar year for a local hazardous waste management program conducted by a local agency pursuant to a memorandum of understanding with the department. The amount of the credit provided under this subdivision shall not exceed an amount equal to the fees paid to the local agency or the generator fee due under Section 25205.5 of the Health and Safety Code, whichever is less. The credit for local fees paid shall not include fees required under Chapter 6.7 (commencing with Section 25280) or Chapter 6.95 (commencing with Section 25500) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 26. Section 43551 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

43551. All taxes, interest, and penalties imposed and all amounts of tax required to be paid to the state pursuant to Sections 43051, 43053, 43054, and 43055, shall be paid to the board in the form of remittances payable to the State Board of Equalization of the State of California. The board shall transmit the payments to the Treasurer to be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Hazardous Waste Control Account.

SEC. 27. Section 43552 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 28. Section 43555 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

43555. Notwithstanding Section 43551, all amounts required to be paid to the state pursuant to Section 43051, 43053, 43054, and 43055 by the United States and its agencies and instrumentalities shall be paid to the board in the form of remittances payable to the State Board of Equalization of the State of California. The board shall transmit the payment to the Treasurer to be deposited into the State Treasury to the credit of the Federal Receipts Account, which is hereby created as a subaccount of the Hazardous Waste Control Account, and which may be expended by the department, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for those administrative purposes allowed by federal law.

SEC. 29. It is the intent of the Legislature that any provision of Section 25205.2, 25205.17, 25205.21, or 25205.22 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended or added at the 1993 session of the 1993–94 Regular Session of the Legislature, that reduces or eliminates hazardous waste facility fees required to be paid under existing law, shall provide amnesty from those fees not yet paid for all persons who failed to pay the required fee under that law. It is the further intent of the Legislature that, except as otherwise provided in subdivision (f) of Section 25205.2 of the Health and Safety Code, those persons who paid the then applicable fees are not entitled to any refund of the fees paid.

SEC. 30. The Legislature finds and declares that any increase in revenues to the Hazardous Waste Control Account resulting from the changes made by this act are offset by the decrease in revenues resulting from the exemptions provided by this act, and therefore, since this act would not result in any net increase in revenues, the act would not impose a tax for purposes of Article XIII A of the California Constitution.

SEC. 31. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Sections 1357, 1357.02, 1357.03, 1357.035, 1357.06, 1357.09, 1357.11, and 1357.12 of, and to add Section 1357.025 to, the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 10700, 10705, 10705.1, 10706, 10706.5, 10708, 10711, 10713, 10714, 10731, and 12710.1 of, and to add Section 10733.5 to, the Insurance Code, relating to health care, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1357 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Chapter 217 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

1357. As used in this article:

(a) "Dependent" means the spouse or child of an eligible employee, subject to applicable terms of the health care plan contract covering the employee, and includes dependents of guaranteed association members if the association elects to include dependents under its health coverage at the same time it determines its membership composition pursuant to subdivision (o).

(b) "Eligible employee" means either of the following:

(1) Any permanent employee who is actively engaged on a full-time basis in the conduct of the business of the small employer with a normal workweek of at least 30 hours, at the small employer's regular places of business, who has met any statutorily authorized applicable waiting period requirements. The term includes sole proprietors or partners of a partnership, if they are actively engaged on a full-time basis in the small employer's business and included as employees under a health care plan contract of a small employer, but does not include employees who work on a part-time, temporary, or substitute basis. It includes any eligible employee as defined in this paragraph who obtains coverage through a guaranteed association. Employees of employers purchasing through a guaranteed association shall be deemed to be eligible employees if they would otherwise meet the definition except for the number of persons employed by the employer.

(2) Any member of a guaranteed association as defined in subdivision (o).

(c) "In force business" means an existing health benefit plan contract issued by the plan to a small employer.

(d) "Late enrollee" means an eligible employee or dependent who has declined enrollment in a health benefit plan offered by a small employer at the time of the initial enrollment period provided under the terms of the health benefit plan and who subsequently requests enrollment in a health benefit plan of that small employer; provided that the initial enrollment period shall be a period of at least 30 days. It also means any member of an association that is a guaranteed association as well as any other person eligible to purchase through the guaranteed association when that person has failed to purchase coverage during the initial enrollment period provided under the terms of the guaranteed association's plan contract and who subsequently requests enrollment in the plan, provided that the initial enrollment period shall be a period of at least 30 days. However, an eligible employee, an other person eligible for coverage through a guaranteed association pursuant to subdivision (o), or dependent shall not be considered a late enrollee if: (1) the individual meets all of the following: (A) he or she was covered under another employer health benefit plan at the time the individual was eligible to enroll; (B) he or she certified at the time of the initial enrollment that coverage under another employer health benefit plan was the reason for declining enrollment provided that, if the individual was covered under another employer health plan, the individual was given the opportunity to make the certification required by this subdivision and was notified that failure to do so could result in later treatment as a late enrollee; (C) he or she has lost or will lose coverage under another employer health benefit plan as a result of termination of employment of the individual or of a person through whom the individual was covered as a dependent, change in employment status of the individual or of a person through whom the individual was covered as a dependent, termination of the other plan's coverage, cessation of an employer's contribution toward an employee or dependent's coverage, death of the person through whom the individual was covered as a dependent, or divorce; and (D) he or she requests enrollment within 30 days after termination of coverage or employer contribution toward coverage provided under another employer health benefit plan; (2) the employer offers multiple health benefit plans and the employee elects a different plan during an open enrollment period; (3) a court has ordered that coverage be provided for a spouse or minor child under a covered employee's health benefit plan and request for enrollment is made within 30 days after issuance of the court order; (4) (A) in the case of an eligible employee as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), the plan cannot produce a written statement from the employer stating that the individual or the person through whom the individual was eligible to be covered as a dependent, prior to declining coverage, was provided with, and signed acknowledgment of an explicit written notice in bold type specifying that failure to elect coverage during the initial enrollment period permits the plan to impose, at the time of the individual's later decision to elect coverage, an exclusion from coverage for a period of 12 months as well as a six-month preexisting condition exclusion, unless the individual meets the criteria specified in paragraph (1), (2), or (3); (B) in the case of an association member who did not purchase coverage through a guaranteed association, the plan cannot produce a written statement from the association stating that the association sent a written notice in bold type to all potentially eligible association members at their last known address prior to the initial enrollment period informing members that failure to elect coverage during the initial enrollment period permits the plan to impose, at the time of the member's later decision to elect coverage, an exclusion from coverage for a period of 12 months as well as a six-month preexisting condition exclusion unless the member can demonstrate that he or she meets the requirements of subparagraphs (A), (C), and (D) of paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) or (3); or (C) in the case of an employer or person who is not a member of an association, was eligible to purchase coverage through a guaranteed association, and did not do so, and would not be eligible to purchase guaranteed coverage unless purchased through a guaranteed association, the employer or person can demonstrate that he or she meets the requirements of subparagraphs (A), (C), and (D) of paragraph (1), or paragraph (2) or (3), or that he or she recently had a change in status that would make him or her eligible and that application for enrollment was made within 30 days of the change.

(e) "New business" means a health care service plan contract issued to a small employer that is not the plan's in force business.

(f) "Preexisting condition provision" means a contract provision that excludes coverage for charges or expenses incurred during a specified period following the employee's effective date of coverage, as to a condition for which medical advice, diagnosis, care, or treatment was recommended or received during a specified period immediately preceding the effective date of coverage.

(g) "Qualifying prior coverage" means:

(1) Any individual or group policy, contract, or program, that is written or administered by a disability insurer, nonprofit hospital service plan, health care service plan, fraternal benefits society, self-insured employer plan, or any other entity, in this state or elsewhere, and that arranges or provides medical, hospital, and surgical coverage not designed to supplement other private or governmental plans. The term includes continuation or conversion coverage but does not include accident only, credit, disability income, Medicare supplement, long-term care, dental, vision, coverage issued as a supplement to liability insurance, insurance arising out of a workers' compensation or similar law, automobile medical payment insurance, or insurance under which benefits are payable with or without regard to fault and that is statutorily required to be contained in any liability insurance policy or equivalent self-insurance.

(2) The federal Medicare program pursuant to Title XVIII of the Social Security Act.

(3) The medicaid program pursuant to Title XIX of the Social Security Act.

(4) Any other publicly sponsored program, provided in this state or elsewhere, of medical, hospital, and surgical care.

(h) "Rating period" means the period for which premium rates established by a plan are in effect and shall be no less than six months.

(i) "Risk adjusted employee risk rate" means the rate determined for an eligible employee of a small employer in a particular risk category after applying the risk adjustment factor.

(j) "Risk adjustment factor" means the percent adjustment to be applied equally to each standard employee risk rate for a particular small employer, based upon any expected deviations from standard cost of services. This factor may not be more than 120 percent or less than 80 percent until July 1, 1996. Effective July 1, 1996, this factor may not be more than 110 percent or less than 90 percent.

(k) "Risk category" means the following characteristics of an eligible employee: age, geographic region, and family composition of the employee, plus the health benefit plan selected by the small employer.

(1) No more than the following age categories may be used in determining premium rates:

Under 30
55–59

65 and over

However, for the 65 and over age category, separate premium rates may be specified depending upon whether coverage under the plan contract will be primary or secondary to benefits provided by the federal Medicare program pursuant to Title XVIII of the federal Social Security Act.

(2) Small employer health care service plans shall base rates to small employers using no more than the following family size categories:

(A) Single.

(B) Married couple.

(C) One adult and child or children.

(D) Married couple and child or children.

(3) (A) In determining rates for small employers, a plan that operates statewide shall use no more than nine geographic regions in the state, have no region smaller than an area in which the first three digits of all its ZIP Codes are in common within a county, and divide no county into more than two regions. Plans shall be deemed to be operating statewide if their coverage area includes 90 percent or more of the state's population. Geographic regions established pursuant to this section shall, as a group, cover the entire state, and the area encompassed in a geographic region shall be separate and distinct from areas encompassed in other geographic regions. Geographic regions may be noncontiguous.

(B) In determining rates for small employers, a plan that does not operate statewide shall use no more than the number of geographic regions in the state than is determined by the following formula: the population, as determined in the last federal census, of all counties that are included in their entirety in a plan's service are divided by the total population of the state, as determined in the last federal census, multiplied by nine. The resulting number shall be rounded to the nearest whole integer. No region may be smaller than an area in which the first three digits of all its ZIP Codes are in common within a county and no county may be divided into more than two regions. The area encompassed in a geographic region shall be separate and distinct from areas encompassed in other geographic regions. Geographic regions may be noncontiguous. No plan shall have less than one geographic area.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to require a plan to establish a new service area or to offer health coverage on a statewide basis, outside of the plan's existing service area.

(1) Any person, firm, proprietary or nonprofit corporation, partnership, public agency, or association that is actively engaged in business or service, that, on at least 50 percent of its working days during the preceding calendar quarter, employed at least three, but no more than 50, eligible employees, the majority of whom were employed within this state, which was not formed primarily for purposes of buying health care service plan contracts and in which a bona fide employer-employee relationship exists. However, for purposes of subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) of Section 1357.03, the definition shall include employers with at least five eligible employees until July 1, 1994, four eligible employees until July 1, 1995, and three eligible employees thereafter. In determining the number of eligible employees, companies that are affiliated companies and that are eligible to file a combined tax return for purposes of state taxation shall be considered one employer. Subsequent to the issuance of a health care service plan contract to a small employer pursuant to this article, and for the purpose of determining eligibility, the size of a small employer shall be determined annually. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this article, provisions of this article that apply to a small employer shall continue to apply until the plan contract anniversary following the date the employer no longer meets the requirements of this definition. It includes any small employer as defined in this paragraph who purchases coverage through a guaranteed association, and any employer purchasing coverage for employees through a guaranteed association.

(2) Any guaranteed association, as defined in subdivision (n), that purchases health coverage for members of the association.

(m) "Standard employee risk rate" means the rate applicable to an eligible employee in a particular risk category in a small employer group.

(n) "Guaranteed association" means a nonprofit organization comprised of a group of individuals or employers who associate based solely on participation in a specified profession or industry, accepting for membership any individual or employer meeting its membership criteria which (1) includes one or more small employers as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (l), (2) does not condition membership directly or indirectly on the health or claims history of any person, (3) uses membership dues solely for and in consideration of the membership and membership benefits, except that the amount of the dues shall not depend on whether the member applies for or purchases insurance offered to the association, (4) is organized and maintained in good faith for purposes unrelated to insurance, (5) has been in active existence on January 1, 1992, and for at least five years prior to that date, (6) has included health insurance as a membership benefit for at least five years prior to January 1, 1992, (7) has a constitution and bylaws, or other analogous governing documents that provide for election of the governing board of the association by its members, (8) offers any plan contract that is purchased to all individual members and employer members in this state, (9) includes any member choosing to enroll in the plan contracts offered to the association provided that the member has agreed to make the required premium payments, and (10) covers at least 1,000 persons with the health care service plan with which it contracts. The requirement of 1,000 persons may be met if component chapters of a statewide association contracting separately with the same carrier cover at least 1,000 persons in the aggregate.

This subdivision applies regardless of whether a contract issued by a plan is with an association or a trust formed for, or sponsored by, an association to administer benefits for association members.

For purposes of this subdivision, an association formed by a merger of two or more associations after January 1, 1992, and otherwise meeting the criteria of this subdivision shall be deemed to have been in active existence on January 1, 1992, if its predecessor organizations had been in active existence on January 1, 1992, and for at least five years prior to that date and otherwise met the criteria of this subdivision.

(o) "Members of a guaranteed association" means any individual or employer meeting the association's membership criteria if that person is a member of the association and chooses to purchase health coverage through the association. At the association's discretion, it may also include employers and employees of association members, employees of employers of association members, association staff, retired members, retired employees of members, and surviving spouses and dependents of deceased members. However, if an association chooses to include these persons as members of the guaranteed association, the association shall make that election in advance of purchasing a plan contract. Health care service plans may require an association to adhere to the membership composition it selects for up to 12 months.

SEC. 1.2. Section 1357.02 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1357.02. (a) A health care service plan providing or arranging for the provision of basic health care services to small employers shall be subject to this article if either of the following conditions are met:

(1) Any portion of the premium is paid by a small employer, or any covered individual is reimbursed, whether through wage adjustments or otherwise, by a small employer for any portion of the premium.

(2) The plan contract is treated by the small employer or any of the covered individuals as part of a plan or program for the purposes of Section 106 or 162 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) This article shall not apply to health plan contracts for coverage of Medicare services pursuant to contracts with the United States government, Medicare supplement, Medi-Cal contracts with the State Department of Health Services, long-term care coverage, or specialized health plan contracts.

SEC. 1.4. Section 1357.025 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1357.025. Nothing in this article shall be construed to preclude the application of this chapter to either of the following:

(a) An association, trust, or other organization acting as a "health care service plan" as defined under Section 1345.

(b) An association, trust, or other organization or person presenting information regarding a health care service plan to persons who may be interested in subscribing or enrolling in the plan.

SEC. 2. Section 1357.03 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1357.03. (a) Upon the effective date of this article, a plan shall fairly and affirmatively offer, market, and sell all of the plan's health care service plan contracts that are sold to small employers or to associations that include small employers to all small employers in each service area in which the plan provides or arranges for the provision of health care services. A plan contracting to participate in the voluntary purchasing pool for small employers provided for under Article 4 (commencing with Section 10730) of Chapter 14 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code shall be deemed in compliance with this requirement for a contract offered through the voluntary purchasing pool established under Article 4 (commencing with Section 10730) of Chapter 14 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code in those geographic regions in which plans participate in the pool, if the contract is offered exclusively through the pool. Each plan shall make available to each small employer all small employer health care service plan contracts which the plan offers and sells to small employers or to associations that include small employers in this state. No plan or solicitor shall induce or otherwise encourage a small employer to separate or otherwise exclude an eligible employee from a health care service plan contract that is provided in connection with the employee's employment or membership in a guaranteed association.

(b) Every plan shall file with the commissioner the reasonable employee participation requirements and employer contribution requirements that will be applied in offering its plan contracts. Participation requirements shall be applied uniformly among all small employer groups, except that a plan may vary application of minimum employee participation requirements by the size of the small employer group and whether the employer contributes 100 percent of the eligible employee's premium. Employer contribution requirements shall not vary by employer size. Members of an association eligible for health coverage eligible under subdivision (o) of Section 1357 but not electing any health coverage through the association shall not be counted as eligible employees for purposes of determining whether the guaranteed association meets a plan's reasonable participation standards.

(c) The plan may not reject an application from a small employer for a health care service plan contract if all of the following are met:

(1) The small employer, as defined by paragraph (1) of subdivision (l) of Section 1357 offers health benefits to 100 percent of its eligible employees, as defined by paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 1357. Employees who waive coverage on the grounds that they have other group coverage shall not be counted as eligible employees.

(2) The small employer agrees to make the required premium payments.

(3) The small employer agrees to inform the small employers' employees of the availability of coverage and the provision that those not electing coverage must wait one year to obtain coverage through the group if they later decide they would like to have coverage.

(4) The employees and their dependents who are to be covered by the plan contract work or reside in the service area in which the plan provides or otherwise arranges for the provision of health care services.

(d) No plan or solicitor shall, directly or indirectly, engage in the following activities:

(1) Encourage or direct small employers to refrain from filing an application for coverage with a plan because of the health status, claims experience, industry, occupation of the small employer, or geographic location provided that it is within the plan's approved service area.

(2) Encourage or direct small employers to seek coverage from another plan or the voluntary purchasing pool established under Article 4 (commencing with Section 10730) of Chapter 14 of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code because of the health status, claims experience, industry, occupation of the small employer, or geographic location provided that it is within the plan's approved service area.

(e) No plan shall, directly or indirectly, enter into any contract, agreement, or arrangement with a solicitor that provides for or results in the compensation paid to a solicitor for the sale of a health care service plan contract to be varied because of the health status, claims experience, industry, occupation, or geographic location of the small employer. This subdivision shall not apply with respect to a compensation arrangement that provides compensation to a solicitor on the basis of percentage of premium, provided that the percentage shall not vary because of the health status, claims experience, industry, occupation, or geographic area of the small employer.

SEC. 2.5. Section 1357.035 of the Health and Safety Code, as added by Chapter 217 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

1357.035. (a) Between July 26, 1993, and October 24, 1993, as well as 60 days prior to the expiration of an existing plan contract that expires prior to July 1, 1994, or, for plan contracts expiring after July 1, 1994, 60 days prior to July 1, 1994, an association that meets the definition of guaranteed association, as set forth in Section 1357, except for the requirement that 1,000 persons be covered, shall be entitled to purchase small employer health coverage as if the association were a guaranteed association, except that the coverage shall be guaranteed only for those members of an association, as defined in Section 1357, (1) who were receiving coverage or had successfully applied for coverage through the association as of June 30, 1993, (2) who were receiving coverage through the association as of December 31, 1992, and whose coverage lapsed at any time thereafter because the employment through which coverage was received ended or an employer's contribution to health coverage ended, or (3) who were covered at any time between June 30, 1993, and July 1, 1994, under a contract that was in force on June 30, 1993.

(b) An association obtaining health coverage for its members pursuant to this section shall otherwise be afforded all the rights of a guaranteed association under this chapter including, but not limited to, guaranteed renewability of coverage.

(c) No later than August 25, 1993, plans that, at any time during the 1993 calendar year have provided coverage to associations that would be eligible for coverage under this section shall notify those associations of their rights under this section. Ninety days prior to the expiration of a plan contract that expires prior to July 1, 1994, or, for plan contracts expiring after July 1, 1994, 90 days prior to July 1, 1994, health plans that have in force coverage with an association that would be eligible for coverage under this section shall notify the association of its rights under this section.

SEC. 3. Section 1357.06 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1357.06. (a) Preexisting condition provisions of a plan contract shall not exclude coverage for a period beyond six months following the individual's effective date of coverage and may only relate to conditions for which medical advice, diagnosis, care, or treatment, including prescription drugs, was recommended or received from a licensed health practitioner during the six months immediately preceding the effective date of coverage.

(b) A plan that does not utilize a preexisting condition provision may impose a waiting period, not to exceed 60 days, before the coverage issued subject to this article shall become effective. During the waiting period no premiums shall be charged to the enrollee or the subscriber.

(c) In determining whether a preexisting condition provision or a waiting period applies to any person, a plan shall credit the time the person was covered under qualifying prior coverage, provided the person becomes eligible for coverage under the succeeding plan contract within 30 days of termination of prior coverage, exclusive of any waiting period, and applies for coverage with the succeeding plan contract within the applicable enrollment period. However, if a person's employment has ended, the availability of health coverage offered through employment or sponsored by an employer has terminated, or an employer's contribution toward health coverage has terminated, a plan shall credit the time the person was covered under qualifying prior coverage if the person becomes eligible for health coverage offered through employment or sponsored by an employer within 90 days, exclusive of any waiting period, and applies for coverage under the succeeding plan contract within the applicable enrollment period.

(d) In addition to the preexisting condition exclusions authorized by subdivision (a) and the waiting period authorized by subdivision (b), health plans providing coverage to a guaranteed association may impose on employers or individuals purchasing coverage who would not be eligible for guaranteed coverage if they were not purchasing through the association a waiting period, not to exceed 60 days, before the coverage issued subject to this article shall become effective. During the waiting period, no premiums shall be charged to the enrollee or the subscriber.

SEC. 3.5. Section 1357.09 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Chapter 113 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

1357.09. No plan shall be required to offer a health care service plan contract or accept applications for such a contract pursuant to this article in the case of any of the following:

(a) To a small employer, where the small employer is not physically located in a plan's approved service areas, or where an eligible employee and dependents who are to be covered by the plan contract do not work or reside within a plan's approved service areas.

(b) Within a specific service area or portion of a service area where a plan reasonably anticipates and demonstrates to the satisfaction of the commissioner that it will not have sufficient health care delivery resources to assure that health care services will be available and accessible to the eligible employee and dependents of the employee because of its obligations to existing enrollees.

(1) A plan that cannot offer a health care service plan contract to small employers because it is lacking in sufficient health care delivery resources within a service area or a portion of a service area may not offer a contract in the area in which the plan is not offering coverage to small employers to new employer groups with more than 50 eligible employees until the plan notifies the commissioner that it has the ability to deliver services to small employer groups, and certifies to the commissioner that from the date of the notice it will enroll all small employer groups requesting coverage in that area from the plan unless the plan has met the requirements of subdivision (d).

(2) Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit the commissioner's authority to develop and implement a plan of rehabilitation for a health care service plan whose financial viability or organizational and administrative capacity have become impaired.

(c) Offer coverage to a small employer or an eligible employee as defined under paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 1357 which, within 12 months of application for coverage, disenrolled from a plan contract offered by the plan.

(d) The commissioner approves the plan's certification that the number of eligible employees and dependents enrolled under contracts issued during the current calendar year equals or exceeds (1) in the case of a plan that administers any self-funded health coverage arrangements in California, 10 percent of the total enrollment of the plan in California as of December 31 of the preceding year, or (2) in the case of a plan that does not administer any self-funded health coverage arrangements in California, 8 percent of the total enrollment of the plan in California as of December 31 of the preceding year. If that certification is approved, the plan shall not offer any health care service plan contract to any small employers during the remainder of the current year.

(1) If a health care service plan treats an affiliate or subsidiary as a separate carrier for the purpose of this article because one health care service plan is qualified under the federal Health Maintenance Organization Act and does not offer coverage to small employers, while the affiliate or subsidiary offers a plan contract that is not qualified under the federal Health Maintenance Organization Act and offers plan contracts to small employers, the health care service plan offering coverage to small employers shall enroll new eligible employees and dependents, equal to the applicable percentage of the total enrollment of both the health care service plan qualified under the federal Health Maintenance Organization Act and its affiliate or subsidiary.

(2) The certified statement filed pursuant to this subdivision shall state the following:

(A) Whether the plan administers any self-funded health coverage arrangements in California.

(B) The plan's total enrollment as of December 31 of the preceding year.

(C) The number of eligible employees and dependents enrolled under contracts issued to small employer groups during the current calendar year.

The commissioner shall, within 45 days, approve or disapprove the certified statement. If the certified statement is disapproved, the plan shall continue to issue coverage as required by Section 1357.03 and be subject to disciplinary action as set forth in Article 7 (commencing with Section 1386).

(e) A health care service plan that, as of December 31 of the prior year, had a total enrollment of fewer than 100,000 and 50 percent or more of the plan's total enrollment have premiums paid by the Medi-Cal program.

(f) A social health maintenance organization, as described in subdivision (a) of Section 2355 of the federal Deficit Reduction Act of 1984 (Public Law 97-369), that, as of December 31 of the prior year, had a total enrollment of fewer than 100,000 and has 50 percent or more of the organization's total enrollment premiums paid by the Medi-Cal program or Medicare programs, or by a combination of Medi-Cal and Medicare. In no event shall this exemption be based upon enrollment in Medicare supplement contracts, as described in Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 1358).

SEC. 4. Section 1357.11 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1357.11. All health care service plan contracts offered to a small employer shall be renewable with respect to all eligible employees or dependents at the option of the contractholder or small employer except:

(a) For nonpayment of the required premiums by the contractholder or small employer.

(b) For fraud or misrepresentation by the contractholder or small employer or, with respect to coverage of individuals, the individuals or their representatives.

(c) For noncompliance with a plan's participation or employer contribution requirements at the time of renewal.

(d) When the plan ceases to provide or arrange for the provision of health care services for new small employer health care service plan contracts in this state; provided, however, that the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) Notice of the decision to cease new or existing small employer health benefits plans in this state is provided to the commissioner and to either the contractholder or small employer.

(2) Small employer health care service plan contracts subject to this chapter shall not be canceled for 180 days after the date of the notice required under paragraph (1) and for that business of a plan which remains in force, any plan that ceases to offer for sale new small employer health care service plan contracts shall continue to be governed by this article with respect to business conducted under this article.

(3) Except as authorized under subdivision (d) of Section 1357.09 and Section 1357.10, a plan that ceases to write new small employer business in this state after the effective date of this article shall be prohibited from offering for sale new small employer health care service plan contracts in this state for a period of three years from the date of notice to the commissioner.

(e) When the plan withdraws a health care service plan contract from the small employer market; provided, the plan makes available to the small employer all plan contracts that it makes available to new small employer business; and provided, that the premium for the new plan contract complies with the renewal increase requirements set forth in Section 1357.12.

SEC. 4.5. Section 1357.12 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1357.12. Premiums for contracts offered or delivered by plans on or after the effective date of this article shall be subject to the following requirements:

(a) (1) The premium for new business shall be determined for an eligible employee in a particular risk category after applying a risk adjustment factor to the plan's standard employee risk rates. The risk adjusted employee risk rate may not be more than 120 percent or less than 80 percent of the plan's applicable standard employee risk rate until July 1, 1996. Effective July 1, 1996, this factor may not be more than 110 percent or less than 90 percent.

(2) The premium charged a small employer for new business shall be equal to the sum of the risk adjusted employee risk rates.

(3) The premium charged a small employer for new business shall be in effect for no less than six months.

(b) (1) The premium for renewal of in force business shall be determined for an eligible employee in a particular risk category after applying a risk adjustment factor to the plan's standard employee risk rates. The risk adjusted employee risk rates may not be more than 120 percent or less than 80 percent of the plan's applicable standard employee risk rate until July 1, 1996. Effective July 1, 1996, this factor may not be more than 110 percent or less than 90 percent. The risk adjustment factor applied to a small employer may not increase by more than 10 percentage points from the risk adjustment factor applied in the prior rating period. The risk adjustment factor for a small employer may not be modified more frequently than every 12 months.

(2) The premium charged a small employer for renewal of in force business shall be equal to the sum of the risk adjusted employee risk rates and shall be in effect for no less than six months.

(3) For a contract that a plan has discontinued offering, the risk adjustment factor applied to the standard employee risk rates for the first rating period of the new contract that the small employer elects to purchase shall be no greater than the risk adjustment factor applied in the prior rating period to the discontinued contract. However, the risk adjusted employee risk rate may not be more than 120 percent or less than 80 percent of the plan's applicable standard employee risk rate until July 1, 1996. Effective July 1, 1996, this factor may not be more than 110 percent or less than 90 percent. The risk adjustment factor for a small employer may not be modified more frequently than every 12 months.

(c) (1) For any small employer, a plan may, with the consent of the small employer, establish composite employee and dependent rates for either new business or renewal of in force business. The composite rates shall be determined as the average of the risk adjusted employee risk rates for the small employer, as determined in accordance with the requirements of subdivisions (a) and (b). The sum of the composite rates so determined shall be equal to the sum of the risk adjusted employee risk rates for the small employer.

(2) The composite rates shall be used for all employees and dependents covered throughout a rating period of no less than six months nor more than 12 months, except that a plan may reserve the right to redetermine the composite rates if the enrollment under the contract changes by more than a specified percentage during the rating period. Any redetermination of the composite rates shall be based on the same risk adjusted employee risk rates used to determine the initial composite rates for the rating period. If a plan reserves the right to redetermine the rates and the enrollment changes more than the specified percentage, the plan shall redetermine the composite rates if the redeterminated rates would result in a lower premium for the small employer. A plan reserving the right to redetermine the composite rates based upon a change in enrollment shall use the same specified percentage to measure that change with respect to all small employers electing composite rates.

SEC. 5. Section 10700 of the Insurance Code, as amended by Chapter 217 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

10700. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Agent or broker" means a person or entity licensed under Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1621) of Part 2 of Division 1.

(b) "Benefit plan design" means a specific health coverage product issued by a carrier to small employers, to trustees of associations that include small employers, or to individuals if the coverage is offered through employment or sponsored by an employer. It includes services covered and the levels of copayment and deductibles, and it may include the professional providers who are to provide those services and the sites where those services are to be provided. A benefit plan design may also be an integrated system for the financing and delivery of quality health care services which has significant incentives for the covered individuals to use the system.

(c) "Board" means the Major Risk Medical Insurance Board.

(d) "Carrier" means any disability insurance company, nonprofit hospital service plan, or any other entity that writes, issues, or administers health benefit plans that cover the employees of small employers, regardless of the situs of the contract or master policyholder. For the purposes of Articles 3 (commencing with Section 10719) and 4 (commencing with Section 10730), "carrier" also includes health care service plans.

(e) "Dependent" means the spouse or child of an eligible employee, subject to applicable terms of the health benefit plan covering the employee, and includes dependents of guaranteed association members if the association elects to include dependents under its health coverage at the same time it determines its membership composition pursuant to subdivision (z).

(f) "Eligible employee" means either of the following:

(1) Any permanent employee who is actively engaged on a full-time basis in the conduct of the business of the small employer with a normal work week of at least 30 hours, in the small employer's regular place of business, who has met any statutorily authorized applicable waiting period requirements. The term includes sole proprietors or partners of a partnership, if they are actively engaged on a full-time basis in the small employer's business, and they are included as employees under a health benefit plan of a small employer, but does not include employees who work on a part-time, temporary, or substitute basis. It includes any eligible employee as defined in this paragraph who obtains coverage through a guaranteed association. Employees of employers purchasing through a guaranteed association shall be deemed to be eligible employees if they would otherwise meet the definition except for the number of persons employed by the employer.

(2) Any member of a guaranteed association as defined in subdivision (z).

(g) "Enrollee" means an eligible employee or dependent who receives health coverage through the program from a participating carrier.

(h) "Financially impaired" means, for the purposes of this chapter, a carrier that, on or after the effective date of this chapter, is not insolvent and is either:

(1) Deemed by the commissioner to be potentially unable to fulfill its contractual obligations.

(2) Placed under an order of rehabilitation or conservation by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(i) "Fund" means the California Small Group Reinsurance Fund.

(j) "Health benefit plan" means a policy or contract written or administered by a carrier that arranges or provides health care benefits for the covered eligible employees of a small employer and their dependents. The term does not include accident only, credit, disability income, coverage of Medicare services pursuant to contracts with the United States government, Medicare supplement, long-term care insurance, dental, vision, coverage issued as a supplement to liability insurance, automobile medical payment insurance, or insurance under which benefits are payable with or without regard to fault and that is statutorily required to be contained in any liability insurance policy or equivalent self-insurance.

(k) "In force business" means an existing health benefit plan issued by the carrier to a small employer.

(l) "Late enrollee" means an eligible employee or dependent who has declined health coverage under a health benefit plan offered by a small employer at the time of the initial enrollment period provided under the terms of the health benefit plan, and who subsequently requests enrollment in a health benefit plan of that small employer; provided that the initial enrollment period shall be a period of at least 30 days. It also means any member of an association that is a guaranteed association as well as any other person eligible to purchase through the guaranteed association when that person has failed to purchase coverage during the initial enrollment period provided under the terms of the guaranteed association's health benefit plan and who subsequently requests enrollment in the plan, provided that the initial enrollment period shall be a period of at least 30 days. However, an eligible employee, another person eligible for coverage through a guaranteed association pursuant to subdivision (z), or dependent shall not be considered a late enrollee if: (1) the individual meets all of the following: (A) was covered under another employer health benefit plan at the time the individual was eligible to enroll; (B) certified at the time of the initial enrollment, that coverage under another employer health benefit plan was the reason for declining enrollment provided that, if the individual was covered under another employer health plan, the individual was given the opportunity to make the certification required by this subdivision and was notified that failure to do so could result in later treatment as a late enrollee; (C) has lost or will lose coverage under another employer health benefit plan as a result of termination of employment of the individual or of a person through whom the individual was covered as a dependent, change in employment status of the individual, or of a person through whom the individual was covered as a dependent, the termination of the other plan's coverage, cessation of an employer's contribution toward an employee or dependent's coverage, death of the person through whom the individual was covered as a dependent, or divorce; and (D) requests enrollment within 30 days after termination of coverage or employer contribution toward coverage provided under another employer health benefit plan; or (2) the individual is employed by an employer who offers multiple health benefit plans and the individual elects a different plan during an open enrollment period; or (3) a court has ordered that coverage be provided for a spouse or minor child under a covered employee's health benefit plan and request for enrollment is made within 30 days after issuance of the court order; or (4) (A) in the case of an eligible employee as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), the carrier cannot produce a written statement from the employer stating that the individual or the person through whom an individual was eligible to be covered as a dependent, prior to declining coverage, was provided with, and signed acknowledgment of, an explicit written notice in bold type specifying that failure to elect coverage during the initial enrollment period permits the carrier to impose, at the time of the individual's later decision to elect coverage, an exclusion from coverage for a period of 12 months as well as a six-month preexisting condition exclusion unless the individual meets the criteria specified in paragraph (1), (2), or (3); (B) in the case of an eligible employee who is a guaranteed association member, the plan cannot produce a written statement from the guaranteed association stating that the association sent a written notice in bold type to all association members at their last known address prior to the initial enrollment period informing members that failure to elect coverage during the initial enrollment period permits the plan to impose, at the time of the member's later decision to elect coverage, an exclusion from coverage for a period of 12 months as well as a six-month preexisting condition exclusion unless the member can demonstrate that he or she meets the requirements of subparagraphs (A), (C), and (D) of paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) or (3); or (C) in the case of an employer or person who is not a member of an association, was eligible to purchase coverage through a guaranteed association, and did not do so, and would not be eligible to purchase guaranteed coverage unless purchased through a guaranteed association, the employer or person can demonstrate that he or she meets the requirements of subparagraphs (A), (C), and (D) of paragraph (1), or paragraph (2) or (3), or that he or she recently had a change in status that would make him or her eligible and that application for coverage was made within 30 days of the change.

(m) "New business" means a health benefit plan issued to a small employer that is not the carrier's in force business.

(n) "Participating carrier" means a carrier that has entered into a contract with the program to provide health benefits coverage under this part.

(o) "Plan of operation" means the plan of operation of the fund, including articles, bylaws and operating rules adopted by the fund pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 10719).

(p) "Program" means the Voluntary Alliance Uniting Employers Purchasing Program.

(q) "Preexisting condition provision" means a policy provision that excludes coverage for charges or expenses incurred during a specified period following the insured's effective date of coverage, as to a condition for which medical advice, diagnosis, care, or treatment was recommended or received during a specified period immediately preceding the effective date of coverage.

(r) "Qualifying prior coverage" means:

(1) Any individual or group policy, contract, or program, that is written or administered by a disability insurer, nonprofit hospital service plan, health care service plan, fraternal benefits society, self-insured employer plan, or any other entity, in this state or elsewhere, and that arranges or provides medical, hospital, and surgical coverage not designed to supplement other private or governmental plans. The term includes continuation or conversion coverage but does not include accident only, credit, disability income, Medicare supplement, long-term care, dental, vision, coverage issued as a supplement to liability insurance, insurance arising out of a workers' compensation or similar law, automobile medical payment insurance, or insurance under which benefits are payable with or without regard to fault and that is statutorily required to be contained in any liability insurance policy or equivalent self-insurance.

(2) The federal Medicare program pursuant to Title XVIII of the Social Security Act.

(3) The medicaid program pursuant to Title XIX of the Social Security Act.

(4) Any other publicly sponsored program, provided in this state or elsewhere, of medical, hospital, and surgical care.

(s) "Rating period" means the period for which premium rates established by a carrier are in effect and shall be no less than six months.

(t) "Risk adjusted employee risk rate" means the rate determined for an eligible employee of a small employer in a particular risk category after applying the risk adjustment factor.

(u) "Risk adjustment factor" means the percent adjustment to be applied equally to each standard employee risk rate for a particular small employer, based upon any expected deviations from standard claims. This factor may not be more than 120 percent or less than 80 percent until July 1, 1996. Effective July 1, 1996, this factor may not be more than 110 percent or less than 90 percent.

(v) "Risk category" means the following characteristics of an eligible employee: age, geographic region, and family size of the employee, plus the benefit plan design selected by the small employer.

(1) No more than the following age categories may be used in determining premium rates:

Under 30
50–54
55–59
65 and over

However, for the 65 and over age category, separate premium rates may be specified depending upon whether coverage under the health benefit plan will be primary or secondary to benefits provided by the federal Medicare program pursuant to Title XVIII of the federal Social Security Act.

(2) Small employer carriers shall base rates to small employers using no more than the following family size categories:

(A) Single.
(B) Married couple.
(C) One adult and child or children.
(D) Married couple and child or children.

(3) (A) In determining rates for small employers, a carrier that operates statewide shall use no more than nine geographic regions in the state, have no region smaller than an area in which the first three digits of all its ZIP Codes are in common within a county and shall divide no county into more than two regions. Carriers shall be deemed to be operating statewide if their coverage area includes 90 percent or more of the state's population. Geographic regions established pursuant to this section shall, as a group, cover the entire state, and the area encompassed in a geographic region shall be separate and distinct from areas encompassed in other geographic regions. Geographic regions may be noncontiguous.

(B) In determining rates for small employers, a carrier that does not operate statewide shall use no more than the number of geographic regions in the state than is determined by the following formula: the population, as determined in the last federal census, of all counties which are included in their entirety in a carrier's service area divided by the total population of the state, as determined in the last federal census, multiplied by nine. The resulting number shall be rounded to the nearest whole integer. No region may be smaller than an area in which the first three digits of all its ZIP Codes are in common within a county and no county may be divided into more than two regions. The area encompassed in a geographic region shall be separate and distinct from areas encompassed in other geographic regions. Geographic regions may be noncontiguous. No carrier shall have less than one geographic area.

(w) "Small employer" means either of the following:

(1) Any person, proprietary or nonprofit firm, corporation, partnership, public agency, or association that is actively engaged in business or service that, on at least 50 percent of its working days during the preceding calendar quarter, employed at least three, but not more than 50, eligible employees, the majority of whom were employed within this state, that was not formed primarily for purposes of buying health insurance and in which a bona fide employer-employee relationship exists. However, for purposes of subdivisions (b) and (h) of Section 10705, the definition shall include employers with at least five eligible employees until July 1, 1994, four eligible employees until July 1, 1995, and three eligible employees thereafter. In determining the number of eligible employees, companies that are affiliated companies, and that are eligible to file a combined income tax return for purposes of state taxation shall be considered one employer. Subsequent to the issuance of a health benefit plan to a small employer pursuant to this chapter, and for the purpose of determining eligibility, the size of a small employer shall be determined annually. Except as otherwise specifically provided, provisions of this chapter that apply to a small employer shall continue to apply until the health benefit plan anniversary following the date the employer no longer meets the requirements of this definition. It includes any small employer as defined in this paragraph who purchases coverage through a guaranteed association, and any employer purchasing coverage for employees through a guaranteed association.

(2) Any guaranteed association, as defined in subdivision (y), that purchases health coverage for members of the association.

(x) "Standard employee risk rate" means the rate applicable to an eligible employee in a particular risk category in a small employer group.

(y) "Guaranteed association" means a nonprofit organization comprised of a group of individuals or employers who associate based solely on participation in a specified profession or industry, accepting for membership any individual or employer meeting its membership criteria which (1) includes one or more small employers as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (w), (2) does not condition membership directly or indirectly on the health or claims history of any person, (3) uses membership dues solely for and in consideration of the membership and membership benefits, except that the amount of the dues shall not depend on whether the member applies for or purchases insurance offered by the association, (4) is organized and maintained in good faith for purposes unrelated to insurance, (5) has been in active existence on January 1, 1992, and for at least five years prior to that date, (6) has been offering health insurance to its members for at least five years prior to January 1, 1992, (7) has a constitution and bylaws, or other analogous governing documents that provide for election of the governing board of the association by its members, (8) offers any benefit plan design that is purchased to all individual members and employer members in this state, (9) includes any member choosing to enroll in the benefit plan design offered to the association provided that the member has agreed to make the required premium payments, and (10) covers at least 1,000 persons with the carrier with which it contracts. The requirement of 1,000 persons may be met if component chapters of a statewide association contracting separately with the same carrier cover at least 1,000 persons in the aggregate.

This subdivision applies regardless of whether a master policy by an admitted insurer is delivered directly to the association or a trust formed for or sponsored by an association to administer benefits for association members.

For purposes of this subdivision, an association formed by a merger of two or more associations after January 1, 1992, and otherwise meeting the criteria of this subdivision shall be deemed to have been in active existence on January 1, 1992, if its predecessor organizations had been in active existence on January 1, 1992, and for at least five years prior to that date and otherwise met the criteria of this subdivision.

(z) "Members of a guaranteed association" means any individual or employer meeting the association's membership criteria if that person is a member of the association and chooses to purchase health coverage through the association. At the association's discretion, it may also include employers and employees of association members, employees of employers of association members, association staff, retired members, retired employees of members, and surviving spouses and dependents of deceased members. However, if an association chooses to include such persons as members of the guaranteed association, the association must so elect in advance of purchasing coverage from a plan. Health plans may require an association to adhere to the membership composition it selects for up to 12 months.

SEC. 5.6. Section 10705 of the Insurance Code, as amended by Chapter 113 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

10705. Upon the effective date of this act:

(a) No group or individual policy or contract or certificate of group insurance or statement of group coverage providing benefits to employees of small employers as defined in this chapter shall be issued or delivered by a carrier subject to the jurisdiction of the commissioner regardless of the situs of the contract or master policyholder or of the domicile of the carrier nor, except as otherwise provided in Sections 10270.91 and 10270.92, shall a carrier provide coverage subject to this chapter until a copy of the form of the policy, contract, certificate, or statement of coverage is filed with and approved by the commissioner in accordance with Sections 10290 and 10291, and the carrier has complied with the requirements of Section 10717.

(b) Each carrier, except a self-funded employer, shall fairly and affirmatively offer, market, and sell all of the carrier's benefit plan designs that are sold to, offered through, or sponsored by, small employers or associations that include small employers to all small employers in each geographic region in which the carrier makes coverage available or provides benefits. A carrier contracting to participate in the Voluntary Alliance Uniting Employers Purchasing Program shall be deemed to be in compliance with this requirement for a benefit plan design offered through the program in those geographic regions in which the carrier participates in the program and the benefit plan design is offered exclusively through the program.

(1) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require an association, or a trust established and maintained by an association to receive a master insurance policy issued by an admitted insurer and to administer the benefits thereof solely for association members, to offer, market or sell a benefit plan design to those who are not members of the association. However, if the association markets, offers or sells a benefit plan design to those who are not members of the association it is subject to the requirements of this section. This shall apply to an association that otherwise meets the requirements of paragraph (5) formed by merger of two or more associations after January 1, 1992, if the predecessor organizations had been in active existence on January 1, 1992, and for at least five years prior to that date and met the requirements of paragraph (5).

(2) A carrier which (A) effective January 1, 1992, and at least 20 years prior to that date, markets, offers, or sells benefit plan designs only to all members of one association and (B) does not market, offer or sell any other individual, selected group, or group policy or contract providing medical, hospital and surgical benefits shall not be required to market, offer, or sell to those who are not members of the association. However, if the carrier markets, offers or sells any benefit plan design or any other individual, selected group, or group policy or contract providing medical, hospital and surgical benefits to those who are not members of the association it is subject to the requirements of this section.

(3) Each carrier that sells health benefit plans to members of one association pursuant to paragraph (2) shall submit an annual statement to the commissioner which states that the carrier is selling health benefit plans pursuant to paragraph (2) and which, for the one association, lists all the information required by paragraph (4).

(4) Each carrier that sells health benefit plans to members of any association shall submit an annual statement to the commissioner which lists each association to which the carrier sells health benefit plans, the industry or profession which is served by the association, the association's membership criteria, a list of officers, the state in which the association is organized, and the site of its principal office.

(5) For purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2), an association is a nonprofit organization comprised of a group of individuals or employers who associate based solely on participation in a specified profession or industry, accepting for membership any individual or small employer meeting its membership criteria, which do not condition membership directly or indirectly on the health or claims history of any person, which uses membership dues solely for and in consideration of the membership and membership benefits, except that the amount of the dues shall not depend on whether the member applies for or purchases insurance offered by the association, which is organized and maintained in good faith for purposes unrelated to insurance, which has been in active existence on January 1, 1992, and at least five years prior to that date, which has a constitution and bylaws, or other analogous governing documents which provide for election of the governing board of the association by its members, which has contracted with one or more carriers to offer one or more health benefit plans to all individual members and small employer members in this state.

(c) Each carrier shall make available to each small employer all benefit plan designs that the carrier offers or sells to small employers or to associations that include small employers. Notwithstanding subdivision (d) of Section 10700, for purposes of this subdivision, companies that are affiliated companies or that are eligible to file a consolidated income tax return shall be treated as one carrier.

(d) Each carrier shall do all of the following:

(1) Prepare a brochure that summarizes all of its benefit plan designs and make this summary available to small employers, agents and brokers upon request. The summary shall include for each benefit plan design information on benefits provided, a generic description of the manner in which services are provided, such as how access to providers is limited, benefit limitations, required copayments and deductibles, standard employee risk rates, and a phone number that can be called for more detailed benefit information. Carriers are required to keep the information contained in the brochure accurate and up to date, and, upon updating the brochure, send copies to agents and brokers representing the carrier. Any entity that provides administrative services only with regard to a benefit plan design written or issued by another carrier shall not be required to prepare a summary brochure which includes that benefit plan design.

(2) For each benefit plan design, prepare a more detailed evidence of coverage and make it available to small employers, agents and brokers upon request. The evidence of coverage shall contain all information that a prudent buyer would need to be aware of in making selections of benefit plan designs. An entity that provides administrative services only with regard to a benefit plan design written or issued by another carrier shall not be required to prepare an evidence of coverage for that benefit plan design.

(3) Provide to small employers, agents, and brokers, upon request, for any given small employer the sum of the standard employee risk rates and the sum of the risk adjusted standard employee risk rates. When requesting this information, small employers, agents and brokers shall provide the carrier with the information the carrier needs to determine the small employer's risk adjusted employee risk rate.

(4) Provide copies of the current summary brochure to all agents or brokers who represent the carrier and, upon updating the brochure, send copies of the updated brochure to agents and brokers representing the carrier for the purpose of selling health benefit plans.

(5) Notwithstanding subdivision (d) of Section 10700, for purposes of this subdivision, companies that are affiliated companies or that are eligible to file a consolidated income tax return shall be treated as one carrier.

(e) Every agent or broker representing one or more carriers for the purpose of selling health benefit plans to small employers shall do all of the following:

(1) When providing information on a health benefit plan to a small employer but making no specific recommendations on particular benefit plan designs:

(A) Advise the small employer of the carrier's obligation to sell to any small employer any of the benefit plan designs it offers to small employers and provide them, upon request, with the actual rates that would be charged to that employer for a given benefit plan design.

(B) Notify the small employer that the agent or broker will procure rate and benefit information for the small employer on any benefit plan design offered by a carrier for whom the agent or broker sells health benefit plans.

(C) Notify the small employer that, upon request, the agent or broker will provide the small employer with the summary brochure required in paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) for any benefit plan design offered by a carrier whom the agent or broker represents.

(2) When recommending a particular benefit plan design or designs, advise the small employer that, upon request, the agent will provide the small employer with the brochure required by paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) containing the benefit plan design or designs being recommended by the agent or broker.

(3) Prior to filing an application for a small employer for a particular health benefit plan:

(A) For each of the benefit plan designs offered by the carrier whose benefit plan design the agent or broker is presenting, provide the small employer with the benefit summary required in paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) and the sum of the standard employee risk rates for that particular employer.

(B) Notify the small employer that, upon request, the agent or broker will provide the small employer with an evidence of coverage brochure for each benefit plan design the carrier offers.

(C) Notify the small employer that, from July 1, 1993 to July 1,

1996, actual rates may be 20 percent higher or lower than the sum of the standard employee risk rates, and from July 1, 1996, and thereafter, actual rates may be 10 percent higher or lower than the sum of the standard employee risk rates depending on how the carrier assesses the risk of the small employer's group.

(D) Notify the small employer that, upon request, the agent or broker will submit information to the carrier to ascertain the small employer's sum of the risk adjusted standard employee risk rate for any benefit plan design the carrier offers.

(E) Obtain a signed statement from the small employer acknowledging that the small employer has received the disclosures required by paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) and by Section 10716.

(f) No carrier, agent, or broker shall induce or otherwise encourage a small employer to separate or otherwise exclude an eligible employee from a health benefit plan which, in the case of an eligible employee meeting the definition in paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 10700, is provided in connection with the employee's employment or which, in the case of an eligible employee as defined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 17000, is provided in connection with a guaranteed association.

(g) No carrier shall reject an application from a small employer for a benefit plan design provided:

(1) The small employer as defined by paragraph (1) of subdivision (w) of Section 10700 offers health benefits to 100 percent of its eligible employees as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (f) of Section 10700. Employees who waive coverage on the grounds that they have other group coverage shall not be counted as eligible employees.

(2) The small employer agrees to make the required premium payments.

(h) No carrier or agent or broker shall, directly or indirectly, engage in the following activities:

(1) Encourage or direct small employers to refrain from filing an application for coverage with a carrier because of the health status, claims experience, industry, occupation, or geographic location within the carrier's approved service area of the small employer or the small employer's employees.

(2) Encourage or direct small employers to seek coverage from another carrier or the program because of the health status, claims experience, industry, occupation, or geographic location within the carrier's approved service area of the small employer or the small employer's employees.

(i) No carrier shall, directly or indirectly, enter into any contract, agreement, or arrangement with an agent or broker that provides for or results in the compensation paid to an agent or broker for a health benefit plan to be varied because of the health status, claims experience, industry, occupation, or geographic location of the small employer or the small employer's employees. This subdivision shall not apply with respect to a compensation arrangement that provides compensation to an agent or broker on the basis of percentage of premium, provided that the percentage shall not vary because of the health status, claims experience, industry, occupation, or geographic area of the small employer.

(j) If a carrier enters into a contract, agreement, or other arrangement with a third-party administrator or other entity to provide administrative, marketing, or other services related to the offering of health benefit plans to small employers in this state, the third-party administrator shall be subject to this chapter.

(k) (1) With respect to the obligation to provide coverage newly issued under subdivision (d), the carrier may cease enrolling new small employer groups and new eligible employees as defined by paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 10700 if it certifies to the commissioner that the number of eligible employees and dependents, of the employers newly enrolled or insured during the current calendar year by the carrier equals or exceeds: (A) in the case of a carrier that administers any self-funded health benefits arrangement in California, 10 percent of the total number of eligible employees, or eligible employees and dependents, respectively, enrolled or insured in California by that carrier as of December 31 of the preceding year, or (B) in the case of a carrier that does not administer any self-funded health benefit arrangements in California, 8 percent of the total number of eligible employees, or eligible employees and dependents, respectively, enrolled or insured by the carrier in California as of December 31 of the preceding year.

(2) Certification shall be deemed approved if not disapproved within 45 days after submission to the commissioner. If that certification is approved, the small employer carrier shall not offer coverage to any small employers under any health benefit plans during the remainder of the current year. If the certification is not approved, the carrier shall continue to issue coverage as required by subdivision (d) and be subject to administrative penalties as established in Section 10718.

SEC. 5.7. Section 10705.1 of the Insurance Code, as added by Chapter 217 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

10705.1. (a) Between July 26, 1993, and October 24, 1993, as well as 60 days prior to the expiration of an existing contract that expires prior to July 1, 1994, or, for contracts expiring after July 1, 1994, 60 days prior to July 1, 1994, an association that meets the definition of guaranteed association, as set forth in Section 10700, except for the requirement that 1,000 persons be covered, shall be entitled to purchase small employer health coverage as if the association were a guaranteed association, except that the coverage shall be guaranteed only for those members of an association, as defined in Section 10700, (1) who were receiving coverage or had successfully applied for coverage through the association as of June 30, 1993, (2) who were receiving coverage through the association as of December 31, 1992, and whose coverage lapsed at any time thereafter because the employment through which coverage was received ended or an employer's contribution to health coverage ended, or (3) who were covered at any time between June 30, 1993, and July 1, 1994, under a contract that was in force on June 30 1993.

(b) An association obtaining health coverage for its members pursuant to this section shall otherwise be afforded all the rights of a guaranteed association under this chapter including, but not limited to, guaranteed renewability of coverage.

(c) No later than August 25, 1993, carriers that, at any time during the 1993 calendar year have provided coverage to associations that would be eligible for coverage under this section shall notify those associations of their rights under this section. Ninety days prior to the expiration of a contract that expires prior to July 1, 1994, or, for contracts expiring after July 1, 1994, 90 days prior to July 1, 1994, carriers that have in force coverage with an association that would be eligible for coverage under this section shall notify the association of its rights under this section.

SEC. 6. Section 10706 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10706. Every carrier shall file with the commissioner the reasonable participation requirements and employer contribution requirements that are to be included in its health benefit plans. Participation requirements shall be applied uniformly among all small employer groups, except that a carrier may vary application of minimum employer participation requirements by the size of the small employer group and whether the employer contributes 100 percent of the eligible employee's premium. Employer contribution requirements shall not vary by employer size. Members of an association eligible for health coverage eligible under subdivision (z) of Section 10700 but not electing any health coverage through the association shall not be counted as eligible employees for purposes of determining whether the guaranteed association meets a carrier's reasonable participation standards.

SEC. 6.5. Section 10706.5 of the Insurance Code, as amended by Chapter 113 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

10706.5. (a) After a small employer submits a completed application, the carrier shall, within 30 days notify the employer of the employer's actual rates in accordance with Section 10714. The employer shall have 30 days in which to exercise the right to buy coverage at the quoted rates.

(b) When a small employer submits a premium payment, based on the quoted rates, and that payment is delivered or postmarked, whichever occurs earlier, within the first 15 days of a month, coverage shall become effective no later than the first day of the following month. When that payment is neither delivered nor postmarked until after the 15th day of a month, coverage shall become effective no later than the first day of the second month following delivery or postmark of the payment.

(c) During the first 30 days of coverage, the small employer shall have the option of changing coverage to a different benefit plan design offered by the same carrier. If a small employer notifies the carrier of the change within the first 15 days of a month, coverage under the new benefit plan design shall become effective no later than the first day of the following month. If a small employer notifies the carrier of the change after the 15th day of a month, coverage under the new benefit plan design shall become effective no later than the first day of the second month following notification.

(d) All eligible employees and dependents listed on the small employer's completed application shall be covered on the effective date of the health benefit plan.

SEC. 7. Section 10708 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10708. (a) Preexisting condition provisions of health benefit plans shall not exclude coverage for a period beyond six months following the individual's effective date of coverage and may only relate to conditions for which medical advice, diagnosis, care, or treatment, including the use of prescription medications, was recommended by or received from a licensed health practitioner during the six months immediately preceding the effective date of coverage.

(b) A carrier that does not utilize a preexisting condition provision may impose a waiting period, not to exceed 60 days, before the coverage issued subject to this chapter shall become effective. During the waiting period, the carrier is not required to provide health care benefits and no premiums shall be charged to the subscriber or enrollee.

(c) In determining whether a preexisting condition provision or a waiting period applies to any person, a plan shall credit the time the person was covered under qualifying prior coverage, provided the person becomes eligible for coverage under the succeeding plan contract within 30 days of termination of prior coverage, exclusive of any waiting period, and applies for coverage with the succeeding plan contract within the applicable enrollment period. However, if a person's employment has ended, the availability of health coverage offered through employment or sponsored by an employer has terminated, or an employer's contribution toward health coverage has terminated, a plan shall credit the time the person was covered under qualifying prior coverage if the person becomes eligible for health coverage offered through employment or sponsored by an employer within 90 days, exclusive of any waiting period, and applies for coverage under the succeeding health benefit plan within the applicable enrollment period.

(d) A carrier providing aggregate or specific stop loss coverage or any other assumption of risk with reference to a health benefit plan shall provide that the plan meets all requirements of this section concerning preexisting condition provisions and waiting periods.

(e) In addition to the preexisting condition exclusions authorized by subdivision (a) and the waiting period authorized by subdivision (b), carriers providing coverage to a guaranteed association may impose on employers or individuals purchasing coverage who would not be eligible for guaranteed coverage if they were not purchasing through the association a waiting period, not to exceed 60 days, before the coverage issued subject to this chapter shall become effective. During the waiting period, the carrier is not required to provide health care benefits and no premiums shall be charged to the enrollee or the subscriber.

SEC. 8. Section 10711 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10711. No carrier shall be required by the provisions of this chapter:

(a) To offer coverage to, or accept applications from, a small employer as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (w) of Section 10700, where the small employer is not physically located in a carrier's approved service areas.

(b) To offer coverage to or accept applications from a small employer as defined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (w) of Section 10700 where the small employer is seeking coverage for eligible employees who do not work or reside in a carrier's approved service areas.

(c) To include in a health benefits plan an otherwise eligible employee or dependent, when the eligible employee or dependent does not work or reside within a carrier's approved service area.

(d) To offer coverage to, or accept applications from, a small employer for a benefits plan design within an area if the commissioner has found that the carrier will not have the capacity within the area in its network of providers to deliver service adequately to the eligible employees and dependents of that employee because of its obligations to existing group contractholders and enrollees and that the action is not unreasonable or clearly inconsistent with the intent of this chapter.

A carrier that cannot offer coverage to small employers in a specific service area because it is lacking sufficient capacity may not offer coverage in the applicable area to new employer groups with more than 50 eligible employees until the carrier notifies the commissioner that it has regained capacity to deliver services to small employers, and certifies to the commissioner that from the date of the notice it will enroll all small groups requesting coverage from the carrier until the carrier has met the requirements of subdivision (h) of Section 10705.

(e) To offer coverage to a small employer, or an eligible employee as defined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (g) of Section 10700, who within 12 months of application for coverage terminated from a health benefit plan offered by the carrier.

SEC. 9. Section 10713 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10713. All health benefit plans written, issued, or administered by carriers on or after the effective date of this chapter, and all health benefit plans in force on or after the effective date of this chapter shall be renewable with respect to all eligible employees or dependents at the option of the policyholder, contractholder, or small employer except as follows:

(a) For nonpayment of the required premiums by the policyholder, contractholder, or small employer.

(b) For fraud or misrepresentation by the policyholder, contractholder, or small employer or, with respect to coverage of individual enrollees, the enrollees or their representative.

(c) For noncompliance with a carrier's participation or employer contribution requirements at the time of renewal.

(d) When the carrier ceases to write, issue, or administer new small employer health benefit plans in this state, provided, however, that the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) Notice of the decision to cease writing, issuing, or administering new or existing small employer health benefits plans in this state is provided to the commissioner, and to either the policyholder, contractholder, or small employer.

(2) Small employer health benefit plans subject to this chapter shall not be canceled for 180 days after the date of the notice required under paragraph (1). For that business of a carrier that remains in force, any carrier that ceases to write, issue, or administer new health benefit plans shall continue to be governed by this chapter.

(3) Except in the case where a certification has been approved pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 10705 or the commissioner has made a determination pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 10712, a carrier that ceases to write, issue, or administer new health benefit plans to small employers in this state after the passage of this chapter shall be prohibited from writing, issuing, or administering new health benefit plans to small employers in this state for a period of three years from the date of notice to the commissioner.

(e) When a carrier withdraws a benefit plan design from the small employer market, provided that the carrier makes available to the small employer all small employer benefit plan designs which it markets and satisfies the requirements of paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 10714.

SEC. 9.5. Section 10714 of the Insurance Code, as amended by Chapter 113 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

10714. Premiums for benefit plan designs written, issued, or administered by carriers on or after the effective date of this act, shall be subject to the following requirements:

(a) (1) The premium for new business shall be determined for an eligible employee in a particular risk category after applying a risk adjustment factor to the carrier's standard employee risk rates. The risk adjusted employee risk rate may not be more than 120 percent or less than 80 percent of the carrier's applicable standard employee risk rate until July 1, 1996. Effective July 1, 1996, the risk adjusted employee risk rate may not be more than 110 percent or less than 90 percent.

(2) The premium charged a small employer for new business shall be equal to the sum of the risk adjusted employee risk rates.

(3) The premium charged a small employer for new business shall be in effect for no less than six months.

(b) (1) The premium for renewal of in force business shall be determined for an eligible employee in a particular risk category after applying a risk adjustment factor to the carrier's standard employee risk rates. The risk adjusted employee risk rates may not be more than 120 percent or less than 80 percent of the carrier's applicable standard employee risk rate until July 1, 1996. Effective July 1, 1996, the risk adjusted employee risk rate may not be more than 110 percent or less than 90 percent. The risk adjustment factor applied to a small employer may not increase by more than 10 percentage points from the risk adjustment factor applied in the prior rating period. The risk adjustment factor for a small employer may not be modified more frequently than every 12 months.

(2) The premium charged a small employer for renewal of in force business shall be equal to the sum of the risk adjusted employee risk rates and shall be in effect for no less than six months.

(3) For a benefit plan design that a carrier has discontinued offering, the risk adjustment factor applied to the standard employee risk rates for the first rating period of the new benefit plan design that the small employer elects to purchase shall be no greater than the risk adjustment factor applied in the prior rating period to the discontinued benefit plan design. However, the risk adjusted employee rate may not be more than 120 percent or less than 80 percent of the carrier's applicable standard employee risk rate until July 1, 1996. Effective July 1, 1996, the risk adjusted employee risk rate may not be more than 110 percent or less than 90 percent. The risk adjustment factor for a small employer may not be modified more frequently than every 12 months.

(c) (1) For any small employer, a carrier may, with the consent of the small employer, establish composite employee and dependent rates for either new business or renewal of in force business. The composite rates shall be determined as the average of the risk adjusted employee risk rates for the small employer, as determined in accordance with the requirements of subdivisions (a) and (b). The sum of the composite rates so determined shall be equal to the sum of the risk adjusted employee risk rates for the small employer.

(2) The composite rates shall be used for all employees and dependents covered throughout a rating period of no less than six months, nor more than 12 months, except that a carrier may reserve the right to redetermine the composite rates if the enrollment under the health benefit plan changes by more than a specified percentage during the rating period. Any redetermination of the composite rates shall be based on the same risk adjusted employee risk rates used to determine the initial composite rates for the rating period. If a carrier reserves the right to redetermine the rates and the enrollment changes more than the specified percentage, the carrier shall redetermine the composite rates if the redeterminated rates would result in a lower premium for the small employer. A carrier reserving the right to redetermine the composite rates based upon a change in enrollment shall use the same specified percentage to measure that change with respect to all small employers electing composite rates.

SEC. 9.7. Section 10731 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10731. The board may do any of the following:

(a) Enter into contracts with carriers to provide health benefits coverage to eligible employees and their dependents. Any contract entered into pursuant to this part shall be exempt from any provision of law relating to competitive bidding, and shall be exempt from the review or approval of any division of the Department of General Services. The board shall not be required to specify the amounts encumbered for each contract, but may allocate funds to each contract based on projected and actual subscriber enrollments.

(b) Enter into other contracts as are necessary or proper to carry out the provisions of this part.

(c) Employ necessary staff.

(d) Sue or be sued, including taking any legal actions necessary or proper for recovering any penalties for, on behalf of, or against, the program or any board member.

(e) Define the health benefits coverage which the program will contract to purchase from participating carriers.

(f) Appoint committees, as necessary, to provide technical assistance in the operation of the program.

(g) Assess participating employers a reasonable fee for necessary costs in connection with the program.

(h) Undertake activities necessary to administer the program, including marketing and publicizing the program, and assuring carrier, employer, and enrollee compliance with program requirements.

(i) Establish rules, conditions, and procedures for participation for small employers.

(j) Establish rules, conditions, and procedures for participation for participating carriers.

(k) Establish a financial relationship directly with agents or brokers to provide services pursuant to this program.

(l) Approve the benefit plan designs sold by carriers participating in the pool.

(m) Issue rules and regulations as necessary to administer the program. Any rules and regulations issued pursuant to this subdivision may be adopted as emergency regulations in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code). Until December 31, 1994, the adoption of these regulations shall be deemed an emergency and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, or general welfare.

(n) Exercise all powers reasonably necessary to carry out the powers and responsibilities expressly granted or imposed by this part.

(o) From money appropriated to the Major Risk Medical Insurance Fund, the Major Risk Medical Insurance Board may loan funds for operating expenses to establish the program. These funds shall be repaid to the Major Risk Medical Insurance Fund prior to transitioning administrative and financial responsibility for the program to a qualified nonprofit entity pursuant to Sections 10748.5 and 10748.6.

SEC. 10. Section 10733.5 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

10733.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an employer purchasing coverage through the program shall not be determined to be no longer eligible to participate in the program solely because the employer employs more than 50 eligible employees, provided the employer employs no more than 100 eligible employees.

SEC. 10.5. Section 12710.1 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

12710.1. The Major Risk Medical Insurance Board is hereby renamed the Managed Risk Medical Insurance Board. Any contract or agreement entered into by the Major Risk Medical Insurance Board shall constitute contracts or agreements entered into by the Managed Risk Medical Insurance Board. Any reference in any statute, regulation, contract, or any other document to the Major Risk Medical Insurance Board as of the effective date of this act shall be deemed a reference to the Managed Risk Medical Insurance Board.

SEC. 11. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 12. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure the availability and affordability of small employer health coverage at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1147

An act to add Article 11 (commencing with Section 44380) to Chapter 2 of Part 25 of the Education Code, relating to teachers.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 11 (commencing with Section 44380) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 25 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 11. Alternative Certification

44380. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the teaching profession must be able to recruit talented individuals, in addition to college students, from a variety of sources to address geographic and subject area shortages. Many persons changing careers and early retirees from industry and the military are interested in the challenge of teaching.

(b) The Legislature further finds that, in California, there is a serious shortage of qualified teachers in the subjects of mathematics, science, and technology, of teachers who work with limited-English-proficient pupils, and of minority teachers.

(c) Therefore, in enacting this article, the Legislature intends to encourage public school districts, county offices of education, and colleges and universities to design concentrated programs leading to a permanent credential for people with work experience and others who already have a bachelor's degree.

44381. As used in this article, "alternative certification program" is a program operated by a school district, county office of education, college or university, or other public education entity, individually or in collaboration with other public education entities in the region to be served, and designed to provide a concentrated program leading to a permanent teaching credential.

44382. Alternative certification programs shall address geographic and subject matter shortage areas, and shall be targeted toward people with work experience and others who already have a bachelor's degree in the field in which they plan to teach.

44383. School districts or county offices of education operating, or that propose to operate, an alternative certification program pursuant to this article, may apply to the Commission on Teacher Credentialing for incentive grant funding that has been appropriated for the purposes of this article.

44384. An alternative certification program that receives grant funding pursuant to this article shall be operated pursuant to either Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 44325) of this chapter or Article 3 (commencing with Section 44450) of Chapter 3, or both.

The commission shall encourage, and may provide funding to, programs that include innovative training, assessment, or support models and strategies that have the potential of improving the quality of the teaching force. The commission shall encourage collaboration among school districts in funding alternative certification programs.

44385. The commission, with the assistance of representatives of classroom teachers, school administrators, parents, university and college educators, and others, as appropriate, shall establish criteria for selecting grant applicants to be funded. The criteria shall be limited to the following:

(a) The geographic distribution.

(b) The demonstrated need.

(c) The number of participants to be served.

(d) The quality of the curriculum, instruction, support, and assessment.

(e) The cost-effectiveness.

44386. From funds appropriated for the purposes of this article, the Commission on Teacher Credentialing shall award incentive grants to qualifying school districts or county offices of education. Each school district or county office of education that receives a grant shall provide matching funds from any available source in an amount equal to 50 percent of the cost of the alternative certification program . Grants shall be awarded by the commission for the remaining 50 percent of the cost of the alternative certification program, but in no event shall the grant amount awarded to any school district or county office of education exceed one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) per intern per year, except that the commission may require a lesser local contribution, or provide a larger grant per intern per year, in hardship cases.

SEC. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature that funding for the purposes of this act be provided in the annual Budget Act, commencing in the 1993–94 fiscal year.

CHAPTER 1148

An act to add Section 74.6 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 74.6 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

74.6. (a) For purposes of paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 2 of Article XIII A of the California Constitution, "newly constructed" and "new construction" does not include the construction, installation, removal, or modification of any portion or structural component of an existing building or structure to the extent that it is done for the purpose of making the building or structure more accessible to, or more usable by, a disabled person.

(b) For the purposes of this section, "disabled person" means a person who suffers from a physical impairment that substantially limits one or more of that person's major life activities.

(c) The exclusion provided for in subdivision (a) shall apply to all buildings or structures except for those buildings or structures that qualify for the exclusion provided for in subdivision (a) of Section 74.3.

(d) The exclusion provided for in this section does not apply to the construction of an entirely new building or structure, or to the construction of an entirely new addition to an existing building or structure.

(e) For purposes of the exclusion provided for in subdivision (a), the property owner, primary contractor, civil engineer, or architect shall submit to the assessor a statement that shall identify those specific portions of the project that constitute construction, installation, removal, or modification improvements to the building or structure to make the building or structure more accessible to, or usable by, a disabled person.

(f) For the purposes of the exclusion provided for in subdivision (a), the construction, improvement, modification, or alteration of an existing building or structure may include, but is not limited to, access ramps, widening of doorways and hallways, barrier removal, access modifications to restroom facilities, elevators, and any other accessibility modification of a building or structure that would cause it to meet or exceed the accessibility standards of the 1990 Americans with Disabilities Act (Public Law 101-336) and the most recent edition to the California Building Standards Code that is in effect on the date of the application for a building permit.

(g) In order to receive the exclusion provided for in this section, the property owner shall notify the assessor prior to, or within 30 days of, completion of any project covered by this section that he or she intends to claim the exclusion for making improvements of the type specified in subdivision (a). The State Board of Equalization shall prescribe the manner and form for claiming the exclusion. All documents necessary to support the exclusion shall be filed by the property owner with the assessor not later than six months after the completion of the project.

(h) This section applies to any construction, installation, removal, or modification completed on or after June 7, 1994.

SEC. 2. This act shall only become operative if Assembly Constitutional Amendment 8 is adopted by the voters.

CHAPTER 1149

An act to amend Sections 7210.7 and 7215 of, and to add Section 7211.1 to, the Business and Professions Code, to amend Section 54.1 of the Civil Code, to amend Section 365.5 of, and to add Section 365.6 to, the Penal Code, and to amend Section 21963 of the Vehicle Code, relating to guide dogs for the blind.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7210.7 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7210.7. The board may authorize schools licensed by the board or instructors employed by those schools to provide home training in the use of guide dogs.

If a school desires to provide home training in the use of guide dogs, it shall apply to the board and provide the board with a written plan and procedure for conducting that home training, which shall be approved by the board prior to conducting any home training.

Schools providing home training in the use of guide dogs shall, annually, provide the board with the names and addresses of those persons who are receiving home training and shall include those persons who have received home training from the school subsequent to the last report filed with the board.

The guide dog user, as a condition of receiving home training, shall have completed a formal in-residence training program from a school licensed by the board to provide guide dog training, or from a school recognized by another state to provide guide dog training.

The requirement for a formal in-residence training program from a school licensed by the board may be waived by the school when that requirement imposes an undue hardship on the guide dog user.

Home training, as provided in this section, shall consist of not less than 20 hours of training.

This section shall only apply to those schools that are licensed by the board to furnish guide dogs and to train persons to use guide dogs, who desire to provide home training in the use of guide dogs, and who apply to the board for approval to provide that home training.

SEC. 2. Section 7211.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

7211.1. (a) As a condition of renewal of an instructor's license, the instructor shall provide proof of completion of not less than 8 hours of continuing education. The board shall determine the form of proof.

(b) Continuing education shall meet the criteria specified in Section 166, and shall be in one or more of the following subject matter areas:

(1) Blindness and mobility.

(2) Health issues relating to blindness.

(3) Instructing blind persons.

(4) Care and training of dogs.

(c) This section shall apply to renewal of instructors' licenses which expire on or after June 30, 1996.

SEC. 3. Section 7215 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7215. No person shall sell, give, or furnish any guide dog or seeing-eye dog to a blind person unless the following requirements have been met:

(a) The dog has been immunized against distemper and rabies.

(b) The dog has been neutered.

(c) The dog has been examined by a licensed veterinarian and found to be in good health.

A certificate from a veterinarian certifying to the foregoing shall be delivered to the recipient of the dog at the time of delivery of the dog.

SEC. 4. Section 54.1 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

54.1. (a) Individuals with disabilities shall be entitled to full and equal access, as other members of the general public, to accommodations, advantages, facilities, and privileges of all common carriers, airplanes, motor vehicles, railroad trains, motorbuses, streetcars, boats, or any other public conveyances or modes of transportation (whether private, public, franchised, licensed, contracted, or otherwise provided), telephone facilities, adoption agencies, private schools, hotels, lodging places, places of public accommodation, amusement, or resort, and other places to which the general public is invited, subject only to the conditions and limitations established by law, or state or federal regulation, and applicable alike to all persons.

As used in this section, "telephone facilities" means tariff items and other equipment and services which have been approved by the Public Utilities Commission to be used by individuals with disabilities in a manner feasible and compatible with the existing telephone network proved by the telephone companies.

"Full and equal access," for purposes of this section in its application to transportation, means access that meets the standards of Titles II and III of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336) and federal regulations adopted pursuant thereto, except that, if the laws of this state prescribe higher standards, it shall mean access that meets those higher standards.

(b) (1) Individuals with disabilities shall be entitled to full and equal access, as other members of the general public, to all housing accommodations offered for rent, lease, or compensation in this state, subject to the conditions and limitations established by law, or state or federal regulation, and applicable alike to all persons.

(2) "Housing accommodations" means any real property, or portion thereof, which is used or occupied, or is intended, arranged, or designed to be used or occupied, as the home, residence, or sleeping place of one or more human beings, but shall not include any accommodations included within subdivision (a) or any single-family residence the occupants of which rent, lease, or furnish for compensation not more than one room therein.

(3) Nothing in this subdivision shall require any person renting, leasing, or providing for compensation real property to modify his or her property in any way or provide a higher degree of care for an individual with a disability than for an individual who is not disabled.

(4) Except as provided in paragraph (5) of this subdivision, nothing in this part shall require any person renting, leasing, or providing for compensation real property, if that person refuses to accept tenants who have dogs, to accept as a tenant an individual with a disability who has a dog.

(5) It shall be deemed a denial of equal access to housing accommodations within the meaning of this subdivision for any person, firm, or corporation to refuse to lease or rent housing accommodations to an individual who is blind or visually impaired on the basis that the individual uses the services of a guide dog, an individual who is deaf or hearing impaired on the basis that the individual uses the services of a signal dog, or to an individual with a physical disability on the basis that the individual uses the services of a service dog, or to refuse to permit an individual who is blind or visually impaired to keep a guide dog, an individual who is deaf or hearing impaired to keep a signal dog, or an individual with a physical disability to keep a service dog on the premises.

Except in the normal performance of duty as a mobility or signal aid, nothing contained in this paragraph shall be construed to prevent the owner of a housing accommodation from establishing terms in a lease or rental agreement which reasonably regulate the presence of guide dogs, signal dogs, or service dogs on the premises of a housing accommodation, nor shall this paragraph be construed to relieve a tenant from any liability otherwise imposed by law for real and personal property damages caused by such a dog when proof of same exists.

As used in this subdivision, "guide dog" means any guide dog which was trained by a person licensed under the provisions of Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 7200) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code or as defined in the regulations implementing Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336), or trained by a school recognized in another state to train guide or seeing-eye dogs.

As used in this subdivision, "signal dog" means any dog trained to alert an individual who is deaf or hearing impaired to intruders or sounds.

As used in this subdivision, "service dog" means any dog individually trained to the individual with a physical disability's requirements including, but not limited to, minimal protection work, rescue work, pulling a wheelchair, or fetching dropped items.

(6) It shall be deemed a denial of equal access to housing accommodations within the meaning of this subdivision for any person, firm, or corporation to refuse to lease or rent housing accommodations to an individual who is blind or visually impaired, an individual who is deaf or hearing impaired, or other individual with a disability on the basis that the individual with a disability is partially or wholly dependent upon the income of his or her spouse, if the spouse is a party to the lease or rental agreement. Nothing in this subdivision shall, however, prohibit a lessor or landlord from considering the aggregate financial status of an individual with a disability and his or her spouse.

(c) Persons licensed to train guide dogs for individuals who are visually impaired or blind pursuant to Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 7200) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code or guide dogs as defined in the regulations implementing Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336), and persons authorized to train signal dogs for individuals who are deaf or hearing impaired, and persons authorized to train service dogs for individuals with physical disabilities, may take dogs, for the purpose of training them as guide dogs, signal dogs, or service dogs in any of the places specified in subdivisions (a) and (b). These persons shall carry and display identification if issued as an authorization, upon request.

SEC. 4.5. Section 54.1 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

54.1. (a) Individuals with disabilities shall be entitled to full and equal access, as other members of the general public, to accommodations, advantages, facilities, and privileges of all common carriers, airplanes, motor vehicles, railroad trains, motorbuses, streetcars, boats, or any other public conveyances or modes of transportation (whether private, public, franchised, licensed, contracted, or otherwise provided), telephone facilities, adoption agencies, private schools, hotels, lodging places, places of public accommodation, amusement, or resort, and other places to which the general public is invited, subject only to the conditions and limitations established by law, or state or federal regulation, and applicable alike to all persons.

As used in this section, "telephone facilities" means tariff items and other equipment and services which have been approved by the Public Utilities Commission to be used by individuals with disabilities in a manner feasible and compatible with the existing telephone network provided by the telephone companies.

"Full and equal access," for purposes of this section in its application to transportation, means access that meets the standards of Titles II and III of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336) and federal regulations adopted pursuant thereto, except that, if the laws of this state prescribe higher standards, it shall mean access that meets those higher standards.

(b) (1) Individuals with disabilities shall be entitled to full and equal access, as other members of the general public, to all housing accommodations offered for rent, lease, or compensation in this state, subject to the conditions and limitations established by law, or state or federal regulation, and applicable alike to all persons.

(2) "Housing accommodations" means any real property, or portion thereof, which is used or occupied, or is intended, arranged, or designed to be used or occupied, as the home, residence, or sleeping place of one or more human beings, but shall not include any accommodations included within subdivision (a) or any single-family residence the occupants of which rent, lease, or furnish for compensation not more than one room therein.

(3) Nothing in this subdivision shall require any person renting, leasing, or providing for compensation real property to modify his or her property in any way or provide a higher degree of care for an individual with a disability than for an individual who is not disabled.

(4) Except as provided in paragraph (5) of this subdivision, nothing in this part shall require any person renting, leasing, or providing for compensation real property, if that person refuses to accept tenants who have dogs, to accept as a tenant an individual with a disability who has a dog.

(5) It shall be deemed a denial of equal access to housing accommodations within the meaning of this subdivision for any person, firm, or corporation to refuse to lease or rent housing accommodations to an individual who is blind or visually impaired on the basis that the individual uses the services of a guide dog, an individual who is deaf or hearing impaired on the basis that the individual uses the services of a signal dog, or to an individual with a physical disability on the basis that the individual uses the services of a service dog, or to refuse to permit an individual who is blind or visually impaired to keep a guide dog, an individual who is deaf or hearing impaired to keep a signal dog, or an individual with a physical disability to keep a service dog on the premises.

Except in the normal performance of duty as a mobility or signal aid, nothing contained in this paragraph shall be construed to prevent the owner of a housing accommodation from establishing terms in a lease or rental agreement which reasonably regulate the presence of guide dogs, signal dogs, or service dogs on the premises of a housing accommodation, nor shall this paragraph be construed to relieve a tenant from any liability otherwise imposed by law for real and personal property damages caused by such a dog when proof of same exists.

As used in this subdivision, "guide dog" means any guide dog which was trained by a person licensed under the provisions of Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 7200) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code or as defined in the regulations implementing Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336), or trained by a school recognized in another state to train guide or seeing-eye dogs.

As used in this subdivision, "signal dog" means any dog trained to alert an individual who is deaf or hearing impaired to intruders or sounds.

As used in this subdivision, "service dog" means any dog individually trained to the requirements of an individual with physical disabilities, including, but not limited to, minimal protection work, rescue work, pulling a wheelchair, or fetching dropped items.

(6) It shall be deemed a denial of equal access to housing accommodations within the meaning of this subdivision for any person, firm, or corporation to refuse to lease or rent housing accommodations to an individual who is blind or visually impaired, an individual who is deaf or hearing impaired, or other individual with a disability on the basis that the individual with a disability is partially or wholly dependent upon the income of his or her spouse, if the spouse is a party to the lease or rental agreement. Nothing in this subdivision shall, however, prohibit a lessor or landlord from considering the aggregate financial status of an individual with a disability and his or her spouse.

(c) Persons licensed to train guide dogs for individuals who are visually impaired or blind pursuant to Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 7200) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code or guide dogs as defined in the regulations implementing Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336), and persons authorized to train signal dogs for individuals who are deaf or hearing impaired, and persons authorized to train service dogs for individuals with physical disabilities, may take dogs, for the purpose of training them as guide dogs, signal dogs, or service dogs in any of the places specified in subdivisions (a) and (b). These persons shall carry and display identification if issued as an authorization, upon request.

SEC. 5. Section 365.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

365.5. (a) Any blind person, deaf person, or physically disabled person who is a passenger on any common carrier, airplane, motor vehicle, railway train, motorbus, streetcar, boat, or any other public conveyance or mode of transportation operating within this state, shall be entitled to have with him or her a specially trained guide dog, signal dog, or service dog.

(b) No blind person, deaf person, or physically disabled person and his or her specially trained guide dog, signal dog, or service dog shall be denied admittance to hotels, restaurants, lodging places, places of public accommodation, amusement, or resort or other places to which the general public is invited within this state because of that guide dog, signal dog, or service dog.

(c) Any person, firm, association, or corporation, or the agent of any person, firm, association, or corporation, who prevents a blind person, deaf person, or physically disabled person from exercising the rights specified in this section is guilty of an infraction, punishable by a fine not exceeding two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(d) As used in this section, "guide dog" means any guide dog or seeing-eye dog which was trained by a person licensed under Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 7200) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code or which meets the definitional criteria under federal regulations adopted to implement Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336), or trained by a school recognized in another state to train guide or seeing-eye dogs.

(e) As used in this section, "signal dog" means any dog trained to alert a deaf person, or a person whose hearing is impaired, to intruders or sounds.

(f) As used in this section, "service dog" means any dog individually trained to do work or perform tasks to meet the requirements of a physically disabled person, including, but not limited to, minimal protection work, rescue work, pulling a wheelchair, or fetching dropped items.

(g) Nothing in this section is intended to affect any civil remedies available for a violation of this section.

SEC. 6. Section 365.6 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

365.6. (a) Any person who, with no legal justification, intentionally interferes with the use of a guide dog by harassing or obstructing the guide dog user or his or her guide dog, is guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by a fine of not less than one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) nor more than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), or both.

(b) As used in this section, "guide dog" means any guide dog or seeing-eye dog which was trained by a person licensed under Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 7200) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code or as defined in the regulations implementing Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336), or trained by a school recognized in another state to train guide or seeing-eye dogs.

(c) Nothing in this section is intended to affect any civil remedies available for a violation of this section.

SEC. 7. Section 21963 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

21963. A totally or partially blind pedestrian who is carrying a predominantly white cane (with or without a red tip), or using a guide dog, shall have the right-of-way, and the driver of any vehicle approaching this pedestrian, who fails to yield the right-of-way, or to take all reasonably necessary precautions to avoid injury to this blind pedestrian, is guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars ($500) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or both. This section shall not preclude prosecution under any other applicable provision of law.

SEC. 8. Section 4.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 54.1 of the Civil Code proposed by both this bill and AB 551. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1994, (2) each bill amends Section 54.1 of the Civil Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 551, in which case Section 4 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 9. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1150

An act to amend Section 27536.5 of, and to add Sections 27842, 27843, 27844, 27845, 27846, 27847, 27848, and 27849 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to food facilities, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 27536.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

27536.5. "Satellite food distribution facility" means either of the following:

(a) A location where only prepackaged, unit servings of food are distributed, that have been prepared or stored in an approved food facility operated by a school, governmental agency, or nonprofit organization.

(b) A stand, kiosk, cart, or other semi-permanent, remote, food-dispensing facility located within a defined and securable perimeter, including, but not limited to, an amusement park, stadium, arena, or enclosed shopping mall that operates a food establishment on the site.

SEC. 2. Section 27842 is added to the Health and Safety Code to read:

27842. Under the controls and conditions specified in this article, a satellite food distribution facility as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 27536.5 may do any of the following:

(a) Hold, portion, and dispense any foods that are prepared or prepackaged by the on-site food establishment or prepackaged by another approved source.

(b) Prepare foods other than potentially hazardous foods, remove the packaging of foods described in subdivision (a), prepare hot dogs, and coat ice cream bars with chocolate and nuts, if all food preparation and handling is within a compartment complying with subdivision (a) of Section 27675.

(c) Add condiments, sauces, garnishes, and similar accompaniments to foods at the time of sale, regardless of whether the accompaniments are potentially hazardous foods.

(d) Bake potatoes in enclosed ovens.

SEC. 3. Section 27843 is added to the Health and Safety Code to read:

27843. During periods of inoperation, a satellite food distribution facility as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 27536.5 may store foods, other than potentially hazardous foods , except prepackaged frozen potentially hazardous foods, in lockable food storage compartments or containers if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The food is adequately protected at all times from contamination, exposure to the elements, ingress of rodents and other pests, and temperature abuse.

(b) The compartments or container have been approved by the enforcement officer.

SEC. 4. Section 27844 is added to the Health and Safety Code to read:

27844. The onsite food establishment shall support a satellite food distribution facility as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 27536.5 by doing all of the following where appropriate:

(a) Unpacking from bulk potentially hazardous foods.

(b) Filling suitable dispensers with condiments.

(c) Mixing, blending, forming, cooking or otherwise preparing all unpackaged potentially hazardous foods.

(d) Heating to a minimum temperature of 140 degrees Fahrenheit all potentially hazardous foods that are intended to be served or held hot.

(e) Chilling to a maximum temperature of 45 degrees Fahrenheit all potentially hazardous foods that are intended to be served or held cold.

(f) Packing any unpackaged food into suitable, covered containers prior to transport.

(g) Providing storage for foods not described in Section 27843 during periods of inoperation.

(h) Cleaning and sanitizing all multi-use utensils and easily removable food contact surfaces per the requirements of Section 27623.

SEC. 5. Section 27845 is added to the Health and Safety Code to read:

27845. Restrooms shall comply with Sections 27625 or 27626.1.

SEC. 6. Section 27846 is added to the Health and Safety Code to read:

27846. A satellite food distribution facility as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 27536.5 is exempt from Section 27607 if it is designed and operated with overhead protection, sneeze-guards and food container covers to assure that unpackaged food complies with Section 27591. The satellite food distribution facility shall be designed and operated so as to prevent contamination of food under normal operating conditions with regard to employee sanitation, and minimize exposure to airborne contaminants, birds, pests, leaves, rain, condensation, and customer contact. The operator shall immediately cease food preparation, holding, portioning, and dispensing at a satellite food distribution facility if unsanitary conditions exist whereby the food may become contaminated with filth or otherwise be rendered unwholesome.

SEC. 7. Section 27847 is added to the Health and Safety Code to read:

27847. A satellite food distribution facility as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 27536.5 may be moved, operated, or stored at any location within the perimeter. If the facility is to be stored, all food shall be removed and the facility shall be appropriately cleaned prior to storage. While stored, the facility shall be protected from contamination, tampering, and weather. Prior to reuse, it shall be recleaned and sanitized.

SEC. 8. Section 27848 is added to the Health and Safety Code to read:

27848. A satellite food distribution facility as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 27536.5 shall do all of the following:

(a) If unpackaged potentially hazardous food is held, portioned, or dispensed, have a two-compartment sink with integral drainboards with hot and cold water for cleaning and sanitizing multi-use utensils, when multi-use utensils are used.

(b) If there is a likelihood that employees may contact unpackaged food or food contact surfaces, have a handwashing sink and supplies as specified for vehicles in subdivision (b) of Section 27675.

(c) If water is required for hand and utensil washing, the facility shall be connected to an approved potable water supply and sewer pursuant to Section 27625.

(d) If electricity is required for mechanical refrigeration or the operation of lights and equipment, the facility shall be connected to an approved power supply.

(e) Provide adequate lighting pursuant to Section 27635.

(f) If applicable, have equipment pursuant to Section 27614.

SEC. 9. Section 27849 is added to the Health and Safety Code to read:

27849. Prior to the issuance of any permit to a satellite food distribution facility as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 27536.5, the enforcement officer shall review and approve written procedures, schedules, and record exemplars to assure all of the following:

(a) That in-place cleaning procedures for equipment and structures are adequate in frequency, soil removal, sanitizing, and disposal of waste water, wash water, and refuse.

(b) That food transported to and from the onsite food establishment will not be exposed to contamination.

(c) That potentially hazardous food will be held at or below 45 degrees Fahrenheit or at or above 140 degrees Fahrenheit at all times.

This section also applies to vehicles, as defined in Section 27540, that operate within a defined and securable perimeter as prescribed in subdivision (b) of Section 27536.5.

SEC. 10. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution as a result of costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

Moreover, no reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for other costs because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

Also, notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 11. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure that proper health and sanitation standards are provided for satellite food distribution facilities of all types, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1151

An act to amend Section 603.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to minors.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 603.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

603.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in counties which adopt the provisions of this section, jurisdiction over the case of a minor alleged to have committed only a violation of the Vehicle Code classified as an infraction or a violation of a local ordinance involving the driving, parking, or operation of a motor vehicle, is with the municipal or justice court, except that the municipal or justice court may refer to the juvenile court for adjudication, cases involving a minor who has been adjudicated a ward of the juvenile court, or who has other matters pending in the juvenile court. An alleged violation of subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 40508 of the Vehicle Code may be referred to the juvenile court for adjudication.

(b) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (3), the municipal or justice court shall use the procedures established by the juvenile court law in hearing the following traffic cases where a minor who had attained the age of 16 years but had not attained the age of 18 years on the date of the violation has been issued a notice to appear:

(A) Infractions involving an unlicensed driver, as specified in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 12500) of Division 6 of the Vehicle Code, or driving on a suspended license, as specified in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 14600) of Division 6 of the Vehicle Code.

(B) Infractions relating to financial responsibility, as specified in Division 7 (commencing with Section 16000) of the Vehicle Code.

(C) Speeding violations, as specified in Division 11 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Vehicle Code, where the speed limit was exceeded by more than 15 miles per hour.

(D) Infractions involving the use or possession of alcoholic beverages or drugs, as specified in Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 23100) of Division 11 of the Vehicle Code.

(E) Infractions involving a violation of Section 27360 of the Vehicle Code.

(F) Infractions involving a second violation of the Vehicle Code after the minor has once posted bail.

(2) With respect to the above exceptions, whenever possible, or as required by the court, the parent or guardian of the minor shall appear with the minor and traffic matters involving minors may not be resolved by a bail forfeiture in lieu of a court appearance.

(3) In all traffic cases heard in the municipal or justice court pursuant to this section:

(A) The notice to appear shall serve as a petition.

(B) Any provisions of juvenile court law requiring that confidentiality be observed as to cases and proceedings, prohibiting or restricting the disclosure of juvenile court records, or restricting attendance by the public at juvenile court proceedings shall not apply.

(c) The provisions of this section shall apply only in a county in which the board of supervisors, with the concurrence of the presiding judges of the superior, municipal, and justice courts, adopts a resolution making the section applicable in the county.

CHAPTER 1152

An act to amend Section 1280 of, and to add Sections 1280.1, 1280.2, and 1288.4 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to health facilities.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1280 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1280. (a) The state department may provide consulting services upon request to any health facility to assist in the identification or correction of deficiencies or the upgrading of the quality of care provided by the health facility.

(b) The state department shall notify the health facility of all deficiencies in its compliance with this chapter and the rules and regulations adopted hereunder, and the health facility shall agree with the state department upon a plan of correction that shall give the health facility a reasonable time to correct these deficiencies. If at the end of the allotted time, as revealed by inspection, the health facility has failed to correct the deficiencies, the director may take action to revoke or suspend the license.

(c) (1) In addition to subdivision (a), if the health facility is licensed under subdivision (a), (b), or (f) of Section 1250, and if the facility fails to implement a plan of correction that has been agreed upon by both the facility and the state department within a reasonable time, the state department may order implementation of the plan of correction previously agreed upon by the facility and the state department. If the facility and the state department fail to agree upon a plan of correction within a reasonable time and if the deficiency poses an immediate and substantial hazard to the health or safety of patients, then the director may take action to order implementation of a plan of correction devised by the state department. The order shall be in writing and shall contain a statement of the reasons for the order. If the facility does not agree that the deficiency poses an immediate and substantial hazard to the health or safety of patients or if the facility believes that the plan of correction will not correct the hazard, or if the facility proposes a more efficient or effective means of remedying the deficiency, the facility may, within 10 days of receiving the plan of correction from the department, appeal the order to the director. The director shall review information provided by the facility, the department, and other affected parties and within a reasonable time render a decision in writing that shall include a statement of reasons for the order. During the period which the director is reviewing the appeal, the order to implement the plan of correction shall be stayed.

(2) If any condition within a health facility licensed under subdivision (a), (b), or (f) of Section 1250 poses an immediate and substantial hazard to the health or safety of patients, the state department may order either of the following until the hazardous condition is corrected:

(A) Reduction in the number of patients.

(B) Closure of the unit or units within the facility that pose the risk. If the unit to be closed is an emergency room in a designated facility, as defined in Section 1797.67, the state department shall notify and coordinate with the local emergency medical services agency.

(3) The facility may appeal an order pursuant to paragraph (2) by appealing to the superior court of the county in which the facility is located.

(4) Paragraph (2) shall not apply to a deficiency for which the facility was cited prior to January 1, 1994.

(d) Reports on the results of each inspection of a health facility shall be prepared by the inspector or inspector team and shall be kept on file in the state department along with the plan of correction and health facility comments. The inspection report may include a recommendation for reinspection. Inspection reports of an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled habilitative or an intermediate care facility/developmentally disabled—nursing shall be provided by the state department to the appropriate regional center pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 4620) of Division 4.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) All inspection reports and lists of deficiencies shall be open to public inspection when the state department has received verification that the health facility has received the report from the state department. All plans of correction shall be open to public inspection upon receipt by the state department.

(f) In no event shall the act of providing a plan of correction, the content of the plan of correction, or the execution of a plan of correction, be used in any legal action or administrative proceeding as an admission within the meaning of Sections 1220 to 1227, inclusive, of the Evidence Code against the health facility, its licensee, or its personnel.

SEC. 2. Section 1280.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1280.1. (a) If a licensee of a health facility licensed under subdivision (a), (b), or (f) of Section 1250 fails to correct a deficiency within the time specified in a plan of correction, the state department may assess the licensee a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed fifty dollars ($50) per patient affected by the deficiency for each day that the deficiency continues beyond the date specified for correction. The civil penalties shall be assessed only for deficiencies that pose an immediate and substantial hazard to the health or safety of patients. If the licensee disputes a determination by the state department regarding alleged failure to correct a deficiency or regarding the reasonableness of the proposed deadline for correction, the licensee may, within 10 days, request a hearing pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. Penalties shall be paid when appeals pursuant to those provisions have been exhausted.

(b) This section shall not apply to a deficiency for which a facility was cited prior to January 1, 1994.

SEC. 3. Section 1280.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1280.2. (a) No deficiency cited pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 1280 or Section 1280.1 shall be for the failure of a facility to meet the requirements of the California Building Standards Code if, as of January 1, 1994, the hospital building was approved under Chapter 12.5 (commencing with Section 15000) of Division 12.5, or if the hospital building was exempt from that approval under any other provision of law in effect on that date.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that neither the amendments made to Section 1280 by the act that added this section, nor Section 1280.1 shall be construed to require the retrofitting of hospital buildings built prior to January 1, 1994, to meet seismic standards in effect on that date.

SEC. 4. Section 1288.4 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1288.4. A health facility licensed under subdivision (a), (b), or (f) of Section 1250 shall post conspicuously, in a prominent location within the premises and accessible to public view, a notice providing the telephone number of the state department's regional licensing office where complaints regarding the facility may be reported. The state department shall inform the health facility of the telephone number to be included in the notice.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to amend Section 116.950 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to amend Section 32321 of the Financial Code, to amend Section 58576 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to amend Sections 7072, 7073, 7073.5, 7074, 7075, 7076, 7078, 7082, 7083, 7085, 7086, 7087, 7087.5, 7092, 8257, 8258, 8684.2, 8850, 8850.2, 13899.5, 14998.1, 14998.2, 14998.3, 14998.6, 14998.7, 14998.8, 14998.9, 14999.21, 14999.31, 15323.5, 15325, 15326, 15327, 15327.1, 15327.5, 15328, 15330, 15330.1, 15331, 15331.2, 15333, 15333.6, 15334, 15334.2, 15335.07, 15335.09, 15335.11, 15335.13, 15335.20, 15335.22, 15336, 15337, 15338, 15339, 15339.29, 15339.30, 15341, 15345, 15345.1, 15345.2, 15345.3, 15345.4, 15350, 15350.1, 15353, 15354, 15355.7, 15364.4, 15364.8, 15364.20, 15364.21, 15364.22, 15364.23, 15364.51, 15364.52, 15365, 15365.2, 15365.8, 15365.12, 15365.40, 15365.44, 15367, 15371, 15372, 15372.10, 15372.11, 15372.13, 15372.15, 15372.16, 15372.17, 15372.18, 15372.19, 15372.21, 15373.07, 15373.1, 15373.2, 15373.25, 15373.51, 15373.52, 15373.53, 15373.54, 15373.7, 15373.8, 15373.9, 15373.91, 15373.92, 15373.93, 15373.94, 15373.95, 15373.955, 15373.96, 15373.97, 15373.98, 15379, 15379.1, 15379.3, 15379.5, 15379.8, 15379.9, 15379.10, 15379.11, 15379.12, 15382, 15383, 15384, 15385, 15386, 15387, 15392.1, 15394, 15394.1, 15395.4, 15395.5, 15396.2, 15398.3, 15398.9, 15399.1, 15399.2, 15399.4, 15399.6, 15399.8, 15399.10, 15399.11, 15399.12, 15399.13, 15399.14, 15399.15, 15399.16, 15399.17, 15399.18, 15399.20, 15399.21, 15399.41, 66503, and 91550 of, to amend and renumber Sections 15363.5, 15363.6, 15363.7, 15363.8, and 15364.1 of, to add Sections 15330.2, 15399.50, 15399.51, 15399.52, 15399.53, 15399.54, 15399.55, 15399.56, and 15399.60 to, to repeal Sections 7079, 15311, 15320, 15321, 15322, 15323, 15328.5, 15336.3, 15347, 15348, 15349, 15355.9, 15360, 15361, 15362, 15363, 15364.56, 15364.70, 15364.72, 15364.73, 15364.90, 15365.11, 15365.30, 15365.31, 15365.32, 15365.33, 15373.3, 15373.4, 15373.5, and 15379.13 of, to repeal and add Section 15310 of, and to repeal Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 15399.30) of Division 3 of Title 2 of, the Government Code, to amend Sections 40448.6 and 42803 of the Health and Safety Code, to amend Section 2802 of the Penal Code, to amend Sections 30301, 30301.5, and 36300 of, the Public Resources Code, and to amend Section 17053.11 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to trade and commerce, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 116.950 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

116.950. (a) This section shall become operative only if the Department of Consumer Affairs determines that sufficient private or public funds are available in addition to the funds available in the department's current budget to cover the costs of implementing this section.

(b) There shall be established an advisory committee, constituted as set forth in this section, to study small claims practice and procedure, with particular attention given to the improvement of procedures for the enforcement of judgments.

(c) The members of the advisory committee shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for expenses actually and necessarily incurred by them in the performance of their duties. The advisory committee shall report its findings and recommendations to the Judicial Council and the Legislature.

(d) The advisory committee shall be composed as follows:

(1) The Attorney General or a representative.

(2) Two consumer representatives from consumer groups or agencies, appointed by the Secretary of the State and Consumer Services Agency.

(3) One representative appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly and one representative appointed by the President pro Tempore of the Senate.

(4) Two representatives, appointed by the Board of Governors of the State Bar.

(5) Two representatives of the business community, appointed by the Secretary of the Trade and Commerce Agency.

(6) Six judges of the municipal court or justice court who have had extensive experience as judges of small claims court, appointed by the Judicial Council.

(7) One representative appointed by the Governor.

(8) Two clerks of the court, appointed by the Judicial Council.

(e) Staff assistance to the advisory committee shall be provided by the Department of Consumer Affairs, with the assistance of the Judicial Council, as needed.

SEC. 2. Section 32321 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

32321. (a) The official members of the board shall be:

(1) The Secretary of Trade and Commerce, or his or her designee.

(2) One member of the Energy Commission, selected and appointed by the members of the Energy Commission.

(3) The chairperson of the Small Business Development Board or his or her designee.

(b) The public members of the board shall be:

(1) One member selected and appointed by the Senate Rules Committee.

(2) One member selected and appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly.

(3) Two members selected and appointed by the Governor as follows:

(A) One member with a minimum three years' experience as an owner, partner, officer, or employee of a California-based small business.

(B) One member with a minimum three years' experience as an officer or employee of a financial institution.

SEC. 3. Section 58576 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

58576. An advisory committee shall be established to review and make recommendations to the director on which project proposals to fund. The advisory committee consists of all of the following:

(a) The President of the State Board of Food and Agriculture or his or her designee.

(b) The Secretary of Trade and Commerce or his or her designee.

(c) Two appointees of the director who have demonstrated international agricultural marketing experience and have had no fiduciary interest for the last two years in international marketing of agricultural products.

(d) Two appointees of the Governor who have demonstrated international agricultural marketing and financial experience and have had no fiduciary interest for the last two years in either marketing of agricultural products or finance.

(e) One appointee of the Senate Committee on Rules who has demonstrated international agricultural marketing experience and has had no fiduciary interest for the last two years in international marketing of agricultural products.

(f) One appointee of the Speaker of the Assembly who has demonstrated international agricultural marketing experience and has had no fiduciary interest for the last two years in international marketing of agricultural products.

(g) The Executive Director of the World Trade Commission or his or her designee.

The terms of the appointees shall be four years, except that the appointees first appointed to the advisory committee shall classify themselves by lot so that the term of two appointees shall expire on January 15, 1988, the term of two appointees shall expire on January 15, 1989, and the term of two appointees shall expire on January 15, 1990. In no event shall any appointee serve more than two consecutive terms.

The director shall designate one member of the advisory committee as its chairperson.

SEC. 4. Section 7072 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7072. For purposes of this chapter:

(a) "Agency" means the Trade and Commerce Agency.

(b) "Enterprise zone" means any area within a city, county, or city and county which is designated as such by the agency in accordance with the provisions of Section 7073.

(c) "Governing body" means a county board of supervisors or a city council, as appropriate.

(d) "High technology industries" include, but are not limited to, the computer, biological engineering, electronics, and telecommunications industries.

(e) "Eligible area" means a geographic area meeting the criteria described in Section 7073.5.

SEC. 5. Section 7073 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7073. (a) The governing body of a city or county may, either by ordinance or resolution, propose an eligible area plus one commercial or industrial area or both within its respective jurisdiction as the geographic area for an enterprise zone. A county may propose an area within the unincorporated area as the geographic area for an enterprise zone, but shall not propose an area within an incorporated area. This proposed geographic area shall be based upon findings by the governing body that the area is a depressed area and that the designation as an enterprise zone is necessary in order to assist in attracting private sector investment in the area. The city or county shall establish definitive boundaries for the area to be included in the application for designation and, if designated by the agency, the designation shall be binding for a period of 15 years.

(b) Following the application for designation of an enterprise zone by a city or county, the governing body shall apply to the agency for designation. The agency shall adopt regulations and guidelines concerning the necessary contents of each application for designation.

(c) Any city, county, or city and county with an eligible area within its jurisdiction may complete a preliminary application. A maximum of 20 applications may be chosen each year to complete a final application.

(d) (1) From the applications received, the agency may designate by December 1991, not more than 25 enterprise zones within the state, one of which may be designated an airport enterprise zone and not more than three of which may be designated high technology enterprise zones.

(2) In the case of any existing enterprise zone or area established pursuant to Chapter 12.9 (commencing with Section 7080), or any new enterprise zone or area established pursuant to Chapter 12.9 (commencing with Section 7080) designated on or after the effective date of the act adding this paragraph, a city or county may propose that the enterprise zone or area established pursuant to Chapter 12.9 (commencing with Section 7080) within the incorporated area be expanded by 15 percent to include definitive boundaries that are contiguous to the enterprise zone or area established pursuant to Chapter 12.9 (commencing with Section 7080). The agency may approve that expansion for enterprise zones based upon the criterion specified in subdivision (e), and for expansion of areas established pursuant to Chapter 12.9 (commencing with Section 7080), the criterion specified in Section 7082.

(e) In designating enterprise zones, the agency shall select from the applications submitted those proposed enterprise zones which, based on those applications, meet, to the extent possible, the following criterion:

Those proposed enterprise zones which, upon a comparison of all of the applications submitted, indicate that they propose the most effective, innovative, and comprehensive regulatory, tax, program, and other incentives in attracting private sector investment in the zone proposed.

For purposes of this paragraph, regulatory incentives include, but are not limited to, all of the following: the suspension or relaxation of locally originated or modified building codes, zoning laws, general development plans, or rent controls; the elimination or reduction of fees for applications, permits, and local government services; and the establishment of a streamlined permit process.

Tax incentives include, but are not limited to, the elimination or reduction of construction taxes or business license taxes.

Program and other incentives may include, but are not limited to, all of the following: the provision or expansion of infrastructure; the targeting of federal block grant moneys, including small cities, education, and health and welfare block grants; the targeting of economic development grants and loan moneys, including grant and loan moneys provided by the federal Urban Development Action Grant program and the federal Economic Development Administration; the targeting of state and federal job disadvantaged and vocational education grant moneys, including moneys provided by the federal Job Partnership Training Act of 1982; the targeting of federal or state transportation grant moneys; and the targeting of federal or state low-income housing and rental assistance moneys.

In the process of designating new zones, the agency shall take into consideration the location of existing zones and make every effort to locate new zones in a manner that will not adversely affect any existing zones.

(f) In evaluating applications for designation, the agency shall ensure that applications are not disqualified solely because of technical deficiencies and shall provide applicants with an opportunity to correct the deficiencies. Applications shall be disqualified if the deficiencies are not corrected within two weeks.

(g) For purposes of this section, "high technology enterprise zone" means an enterprise zone which is intended to attract private sector investment in high technology industries and is proposed to be located in an area which would permit the association of those industries with an urban university or college.

(h) The applications and selection criteria for designation adopted pursuant to Section 7076 prior to the effective date of the act adding this subdivision shall apply to this section, as amended by the act adding this subdivision.

(i) Section 7076 shall not apply to the extent it conflicts with the provisions of the act adding this subdivision.

(j) For purposes of this section, "airport enterprise zone" means an enterprise zone intended to attract private sector investment in aviation-dependent industries, commercial aviation, and other commercial and industrial activity and which includes a rural airport located within unincorporated territory.

SEC. 6. Section 7073.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7073.5. (a) An enterprise zone shall consist of both one eligible area plus one commercial or industrial area or both.

(b) An eligible area is a geographic area which, based upon the determination of the agency, fulfills at least one of the following:

(1) The proposed geographic area meets the Urban Development Action Grant criteria of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development.

(2) The area within the proposed zone has experienced plant closures within the past two years affecting more than 100 workers.

(3) The city or county has submitted material to the agency for a finding that the proposed geographic area meets criteria of economic distress related to those used in determining eligibility under the Urban Development Action Grant Program and is therefore an eligible area.

(4) The area within the proposed zone has a history of gang-related activity, whether or not crimes of violence have been committed.

SEC. 7. Section 7074 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7074. (a) Individuals residing within an enterprise zone may establish, under the provisions of this chapter, a nonprofit neighborhood enterprise association corporation (NEAC) as follows:

(1) There shall be only one nonprofit neighborhood enterprise association corporation chartered for each, or any portion of, a geographic neighborhood area.

(2) The geographic neighborhood area to which each corporation applies shall be defined by the incorporating residents.

(3) An association shall become a chartered, nonprofit NEAC by a resolution of each governing body that has any of its area within the proposed NEAC area.

(b) The incorporating residents shall draft articles of incorporation and bylaws for a nonprofit mutual benefit corporation pursuant to the Nonprofit Mutual Benefit Corporation Law (Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code). The articles and bylaws of each corporation shall provide for each of the following:

(1) Describe the geographic neighborhood area to which the incorporating association applies.

(2) Describe the manner in which a membership interest in that corporation shall be offered to each resident and business owner of the neighborhood.

(3) Contain provisions for the amendment of the articles and bylaws by a majority of the members.

(4) Authorize the corporation to engage in business only within the particular zone in which the neighborhood area of the corporation is located.

(5) Establish only one class of membership, which shall have voting rights.

(6) Provide technical and financial assistance to private sector investors within an enterprise zone.

(c) The incorporating residents shall send to all residents and business owners of the corporation's neighborhood area each of the following:

(1) An explanation of the proposed new corporation and their rights in it.

(2) A copy of the corporate articles and bylaws.

(3) An offer of a membership interest to which each particular resident and business owner is entitled without any charge for that membership.

(d) The board of directors of the corporation shall apply to the Secretary of State for certification of its articles of incorporation establishing the corporation as a nonprofit corporation. The Secretary of State shall provide technical assistance to zone residents attempting to incorporate under this section.

(e) Upon certification of its articles of incorporation and compliance with paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), the NEAC shall send the agency a copy of its articles of incorporations and bylaws, the names of its officers, and an official copy of each resolution required in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a). The NEAC shall send the agency a copy of any and all changes in the above items or in the geographic neighborhood area to which the incorporating association applies.

(f) All property which is owned by the state or local government within the neighborhood area of a certified corporation and is not in current use by that government and which is not necessary for a public purpose of the state or local agency owning the property may be leased to the corporation at a price below fair market value, provided that it serves a public purpose to lease at below fair market value. Any lease agreement so executed shall permit the corporation to sublease or assign its leasehold interest to private entities conducting or intending to conduct business operations within the zone. The lease may be renewed upon expiration if the corporation has continuously complied with the requirements of this chapter.

SEC. 8. Section 7075 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7075. Upon filing a preliminary application, the applicant, as lead agency, shall submit an initial study and a notice of preparation to the agency, the state clearinghouse, and all responsible agencies. Only a city, county, or city and county chosen by the agency as a final applicant shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a draft environmental impact report, which shall set forth the potential environmental impacts of any and all development planned within the enterprise zone. The draft environmental impact report shall be submitted to the agency with the final application. Prior to final designation by the agency, the applicant shall complete and certify the final environmental impact report. The environmental impact report shall comply with the information disclosure provisions and the substantive requirements of Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code. No further environmental impact report shall be required if the effects of the project were either (1) mitigated or avoided as a result of the environmental impact report prepared for the area, or (2) examined at a sufficient level of detail in the environmental impact report for the area to enable those effects to be mitigated or avoided by specific site revisions, the imposition of conditions, or other means in connection with the designation of the area, or (3) identified in the final environmental impact report and the lead agency made written findings that specific economic, social, or other considerations made infeasible the mitigation measures or project alternatives identified in the final environmental impact report.

SEC. 9. Section 7076 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7076. (a) The agency shall design, develop, and make available the applications and the criteria for selection of enterprise zones, and shall adopt all regulations necessary to carry out this chapter.

(b) The applications, selection criteria, and all necessary regulations for designation shall be adopted and made available not later than 250 days following the effective date of this chapter.

(c) The agency may commence the designation of areas for the program on the effective date of the regulations described in subdivision (a) and shall complete those designations as expeditiously as practicable, but in no event later than four years from the effective date of this chapter.

(d) The agency shall adopt regulations concerning the designation procedures and application process as emergency regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2. For the purpose of the Administrative Procedure Act, the adoption of the regulations shall be deemed to be an emergency and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, or general welfare, notwithstanding subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1. Notwithstanding subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1, the regulations shall not remain in effect more than 180 days unless the agency complies with all provisions of Chapter 3.5 as required by subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1.

SEC. 10. Section 7078 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7078. The agency shall submit a report to the Legislature no later than March 20, 1987, and every five years thereafter, which evaluates the effect of the program on employment, investment, and incomes, and on state and local tax revenues in designated enterprise zones. The Franchise Tax Board shall make available to the agency and the Legislature aggregate information on the dollar value of enterprise zone tax credits that are claimed each year by businesses.

SEC. 11. Section 7079 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 12. Section 7082 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7082. For purposes of this chapter:

(a) "Block group" means the smallest area for which the United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, provides data on personal income.

(b) "Cluster of block groups" means one or more contiguous block groups.

(c) "Poverty level" means the poverty level, as defined by the United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, as periodically updated.

(d) "High density unemployment area" means any of the following:

(1) A metropolitan statistical area or nonmetropolitan statistical area within this state, as identified by the Department of Commerce, which contains at least 4,000 people (in the case of a metropolitan statistical area) or at least 2,500 people (in the case of a nonmetropolitan statistical area) in a cluster of block groups, each of which meets the following criteria according to the most recent available decennial census information:

(A) The average unemployment rate for the block group for the most recent 12-month period for which data are available was at least one and one-half times the average national rate of unemployment for that 12-month period.

(B) The average poverty rate for the block group for the most recent 12-month period was at least one and one-half times the average national poverty rate for that 12-month period.

(C) At least 70 percent of the household earnings for the block group for the most recent 12-month period was a maximum of 80 percent of the average state household earnings for that 12-month period.

(D) The area excludes nondistressed areas.

(2) If an area does not meet the criteria of a high density unemployment area specified above, an applicant may petition to the department for the designation based upon compliance with one or more of the following:

(A) A special census is conducted and approved by the population research unit of the Department of Finance which demonstrates compliance with paragraph (1).

(B) The applicant's jurisdiction has experienced a major economic dislocation resulting from plant closure or closure of a federal installation within the last 12 months prior to the application.

(C) The applicant's jurisdiction contains a specifically defined geographic area that meets the eligibility criteria for pockets of poverty under the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development's Urban Development Action Grant (UDAG) program as described in 24 CFR Part 570, Sections 570.466(a) (2) and (a) (3), and as periodically updated.

(D) A block group meets substantially similar criteria measuring economic distress as that measured in paragraph (1). Each census block shall meet the "substantially similar" criteria.

(E) The area consists of the entire geographic area of a community. Area boundaries shall be synonymous with the boundaries of the community. As used in this subparagraph, "community" means a subdivision of a city or county (not including a city), including a neighborhood or suburb which has distinct boundaries, is recognized as a community by the individuals residing and working within the community, and has existed prior to the program planning process. Documentation demonstrating that the area meets the definition of "community" may include a map prepared for purposes other than the program, which lists both the name and boundaries of the community. The area shall meet the following criteria:

(i) Complies with the above definition of "community."

(ii) A minimum of 51 percent of the geographic area or population of the area meets the criteria of subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C) of paragraph (1), and the remainder of the area has substantially similar economic distress.

(3) A petition for designation of a high density unemployment area received by the agency after April 1, 1985, shall be reviewed by the agency pursuant to the criteria specified in paragraph (2).

(e) "Nondistressed area" means any block group which does not meet the definition of a high density unemployment area.

(f) "One-stop service" means an efficient and expeditious method for providing services to qualified businesses.

(g) "Agency" means the Trade and Commerce Agency.

(h) "Qualified business" means any person, corporation, or other entity certified during the taxable or income year by the agency as meeting paragraphs (1) and (2).

(1) During the period of designation, the entity is engaged in the active conduct of a trade or business within the program area.

(2) Meets any of the following requirements:

(A) Has an average of at least 50 percent of its employees who are residents of a high density unemployment area.

(B) Has an average of at least 30 percent of its employees who are residents of a high density unemployment area, and has set up a community service program or a substantial equivalent as defined by regulations, or programs approved by the local government entity and the community advisory council in which the program area is located, or both.

(C) Is a business at least 30 percent owned and operated by a resident or residents of a high density unemployment area. For purposes of this subparagraph, "owned and operated" means that the resident or residents of a high density unemployment area who are owners of the business are responsible for at least 30 percent of the work performed by the business and share in at least 30 percent of the ownership, control, management responsibility, risks, and profits of the business.

For purposes of this subdivision, "a high density unemployment area" means the high density unemployment area contained in the applicant's final application to the agency if the population of that high density unemployment area is in excess of 150,000.

A business entity shall be certified prior to obtaining any benefits of a qualified business, and shall be recertified no less than every three years, as determined by the agency. The agency shall periodically audit qualified businesses for compliance with this section, and decertify any business found not in compliance. Priority shall be given to auditing qualified businesses within 18 months of the original certification of a business. A business may appeal to the secretary of the agency a decision to deny certification or recertification or a decision to decertify, within 30 days of the decision.

Financial institutions shall not be qualified businesses.

(3) A person, corporation, or other entity shall not be a qualified business if the business uses a residential structure in a high density unemployment area for a nonresidential use, unless the structure has been unoccupied for at least one year prior to designation of the program area.

(i) "Program area" means one targeted economic development area and, where applicable, one neighborhood economic development area in the Employment and Economic Incentive Program. The term applies both to areas contained in an application for designation, and an area awarded designation. In an application containing a high density unemployment area with a population in excess of 75,000, "program area" means the targeted economic development area, the high density unemployment area, and, where applicable, the neighborhood economic development area. The benefits of the Employment and Economic Incentive Program shall only accrue to program areas after designation.

(j) "Agent" means the person or entity designated by an applicant to facilitate the operations of the Employment and Economic Incentive Program as described in subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 7087.

(k) "Applicant" means a city, county, or city and county applying for designation under the Employment and Economic Incentive Act.

(l) "Resident" means, unless otherwise defined, a person whose principal place of residence is within a high density unemployment area and who has lived in that area for six months prior to employment by the qualified business.

(m) "Infrastructure" means the physical systems and services which support development and people, including, but not limited to, streets and highways, transit services, airports, and water and sewer systems.

(n) "Community services" means any type of emergency assistance, counseling and advice, medical care, instructional, or social services, or recreational programs and facilities furnished to individuals or groups in high density unemployment areas or program areas.

(o) "Neighborhood economic development area" means an area which meets all of the following criteria:

(1) It shall be located entirely within or contiguous to the high density unemployment area contained in the application for designation.

(2) It shall be zoned primarily commercial.

(3) Its boundary shall be continuous.

(4) It shall be of sufficient size to sustain a diverse mix of commercial businesses and its size and location shall be appropriate to reducing the economic distress within the high density unemployment area.

(5) At least a part of its area shall be within the territorial jurisdiction of the applicant. If an area for which designation is sought encompasses the territorial jurisdiction of two or more local governmental entities, all of those entities shall be a party to the application for designation, except that any one or more of those entities by resolution or ordinance may specify that it shall not participate in the application as an applicant, but shall agree to complete all actions stated within the application which apply to its jurisdiction, if the area is designated.

The area may have, but is not required to have, a history of gang-related activity whether or not crimes of violence have been committed.

No residential structure may be used for nonresidential use unless the structure has been unoccupied for at least one year prior to designation as a program area, or unless comparable replacement housing is provided for all persons displaced in accordance with Section 33413 of the Health and Safety Code. No person shall be displaced under this section unless relocation assistance is provided pursuant to Section 33415 of the Health and Safety Code.

An agricultural area shall not be designated as a neighborhood economic development area.

(p) "Targeted economic development area" means an area which meets all of the following criteria:

(1) Its boundary shall be continuous.

(2) It shall be zoned primarily industrial or other mixed business uses.

(3) It shall be of sufficient size to sustain a diverse mix of businesses and its size and location shall be appropriate to reducing the economic distress within the high density unemployment area.

(4) At least a part of its area shall be within the territorial jurisdiction of the applicant. If an area for which designation is sought encompasses the territorial jurisdiction of two or more local governmental entities, all of those entities shall be a party to the application for designation, except that any one or more of those entities by resolution or ordinance may specify that it shall not participate in the application as an applicant, but shall agree to complete all actions stated within the application which apply to its jurisdiction, if the area is designated.

The area may have, but is not required to have, a history of gang-related activity, whether or not crimes of violence have been committed.

The area may be, but is not required to be, within a high density unemployment area. However, if the area is outside a high density unemployment area, it shall be within reasonable commuting distance of the high density unemployment area which is contained in the application for designation. If the area is outside a high density unemployment area, the applicant jurisdiction in which the area is located, in making its application, shall secure the endorsement of its application from at least one city or county which has jurisdiction within the high density unemployment area and is in close geographic proximity to the high density unemployment area.

The area may include vacant or sparsely developed parcels of land or abandoned facilities.

No residential structure may be used for nonresidential use unless the structure has been unoccupied for at least one year prior to designation as a program area, or unless comparable replacement housing is provided for all persons displaced in accordance with Section 33413 of the Health and Safety Code. No person shall be displaced under this section unless relocation assistance is provided pursuant to Section 33415 of the Health and Safety Code.

An agricultural area shall not be designated as a targeted economic development area.

(q) "Application area" means the program area and high density unemployment area contained in an application for designation.

SEC. 13. Section 7083 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7083. There shall be in the state an Employment and Economic Incentive Program, a demonstration program for economic development. Targeted economic development and neighborhood economic development areas shall be designated. These areas shall receive tax incentives, special assistance, startup capital, and other incentives for private investment and employment.

The agency shall use the most recent decennial census data to identify all high density unemployment areas in a statewide map according to county. The agency shall distribute the county maps to the respective counties and provide for statewide public notification of the availability of the maps. Cities, counties, and the agency are authorized to charge a reasonable fee to members of the public requesting copies of the maps.

SEC. 14. Section 7085 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7085. (a) An applicant may apply to the agency to have an area designated as a targeted economic development area, and if applicable, a neighborhood economic development area for a 15-year period.

(b) The applicant shall first file with the agency a preliminary application which shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) One program area and one high density unemployment area, including the eligibility and geographic location and proximity of each.

(2) An economic development plan for the program area.

(c) The agency shall select no more than 20 final applicants annually to complete a final application. The final application shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) A comprehensive economic development strategy for the program area which provides for meaningful involvement of community residents, community businesses, and other community entities in the planning and preparation of that strategy. The strategy shall only be approved by local ordinance or resolution following a public hearing. The applicant shall provide for public notice of the hearing on the strategy.

(2) A community impact statement which analyzes the impact of designation on the community and includes both of the following:

(A) An evaluation of the effect of the new development on the area's infrastructure.

(B) The effect of the new development on the provision of community services.

(3) A plan which specifies economic development objectives and assigns a priority to each objective.

(4) The manner and level in which community services and infrastructure, particularly through experimentation with community and private sector involvement, will be improved to accommodate new development.

(5) A description of current economic development projects in the application area and an analysis of how participation in the application area will supplement existing economic development activities.

(6) An identification of funds for economic development activities from federal, state, local, and private sources which are planned for use in the application area.

(7) An evaluation of the employment, job skills, and management training needs of businesses and residents in the application area.

(8) An estimate of the number of new jobs that will result from the program based on the employment needs evaluation made pursuant to paragraph (7).

(9) A description of specific actions and timetables to reduce, remove, simplify, or streamline local requirements and the local permit process within the application area without endangering the public health, safety, and welfare in the community.

(10) Proposed involvement in the program by private entities, organizations, neighborhood organizations, and neighborhood groups.

(d) The agency shall design, develop, and make available the applications, the criteria for selection, and all regulations regarding this chapter.

(e) In competitively evaluating the applications for the program designation, the agency shall give special preference to those areas with respect to which the strongest and highest quality contributions described in subdivision (b) are indicated. The form and manner in which applications are required to be submitted shall minimize the paperwork of the applicant.

(f) The agency shall also give preference to those applications that provide a plan for local efforts to reduce impediments to economic development and maintain the quality of life of the community, which include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) A proposal for program areas close enough for easy access to the high density unemployment areas or which route transit service to serve employees.

(2) A plan to encourage the retention and expansion of existing businesses.

(3) A strategy for the recruitment of new businesses into the program area.

(4) A realistic projection of the new job opportunities that are suitable to the needs of application area residents.

(5) A plan to demonstrate innovative and comprehensive strategies to improve community services through the utilization of contracts with private entities, organizations, neighborhood organizations, and neighborhood groups.

(6) A plan to provide insurance for qualified businesses in the program area.

(7) A plan to establish a loan bank or fund to provide capital to qualified businesses in the program area.

(8) A plan to rehabilitate existing abandoned and vacant structures.

(g) The agency shall establish regulations and make available the applications for the program not later than 250 days after the effective date of this chapter.

(h) The agency may designate areas for the program beginning on the effective date of the regulations described in subdivision (g).

(i) The agency may designate not more than a total of nine program areas. In complying with this limitation, the agency shall designate not more than three program areas by the end of 1985, not more than six program areas by the end of 1986, and not more than nine program areas by the end of 1987. The agency may not designate pursuant to this chapter any area that has been designated for economic development as an enterprise zone under any other provision of state law.

In evaluating applications for designation, the agency shall ensure that applications are not disqualified solely because of technical deficiencies and shall provide applicants with an opportunity to correct the deficiencies. Applications shall be disqualified if the deficiencies are not corrected within two weeks.

(j) The agency shall adopt regulations concerning the designation procedures and application process as emergency regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2. For the purpose of the Administrative Procedure Act, the adoption of the regulations shall be deemed to be an emergency and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, or general welfare, notwithstanding subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1. Notwithstanding subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1, the regulations shall not remain in effect more than 180 days unless the agency complies with all provisions of Chapter 3.5 as required by subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1.

SEC. 14.5. Section 7086 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7086. (a) The agency shall provide technical assistance to the areas designated pursuant to this chapter with respect to all of the following activities:

(1) Furnish limited onsite assistance to the program areas when appropriate.

(2) Ensure that the agent has developed a method to make residents, businesses, and neighborhood organizations aware of the opportunities to participate in the program.

(3) Help the locality develop a marketing program for the program areas.

(4) Coordinate activities of other state agencies regarding the program areas.

(5) Monitor the progress of the program.

(6) Help qualified businesses to participate in the program.

Notwithstanding existing law, the provision of services in paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive, shall be a high priority of the agency.

The agency may, at its discretion, undertake other activities in providing management and technical assistance for successful implementation of this section.

(b) The agency shall submit a report to the Legislature no later than March 20, 1987, and every five years thereafter, which evaluates the effect of the program on employment, investment, and incomes, and on state and local tax revenues in designated program areas.

(c) The applicant shall be required to begin implementation of the program plan contained in the final application within six months after notification of final designation or the program area shall lose its designation.

(d) No designation of a neighborhood economic development area shall be made without an accompanying designation of a targeted economic development area serving the same high density unemployment area. However, designation of a targeted economic development area does not require concurrent designation of a neighborhood economic development area.

SEC. 15. Section 7087 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7087. (a) The applicant shall designate an agent which shall be the prime facilitator of all activities relating to the Employment and Economic Incentive Program. In designating an agent, the applicant may consider the designation of a community-based nonprofit organization, a joint venture between the public and private sector, or an agency of the applicant as the agent.

(b) The responsibilities of the agent shall include, but are not limited to, assisting and coordinating in all of the following:

(1) Providing one-stop service for permit processing for qualified businesses in the program area. Facilitating the development of qualified businesses shall be the primary responsibility of the agent.

(2) Coordinating the sequence of all inspections to minimize delay to businesses.

(3) Helping the qualified businesses find low-interest capital.

(4) Maintaining labor availability data, which may be obtained from the Employment Development Department.

(5) Assisting in employment recruitment and screening.

(6) Reducing the processing time of the permit process for builders.

(7) Centralizing the processing of documents, permits, and licenses.

(8) Informing all qualified businesses of all the various incentives offered by, and available from, local, state, and the federal government, including, but not limited to, incentives relating to taxation, fee schedules and structures, and modified procedures for permits.

(9) Working with the local and state job training and recruitment resources to make those resources available to qualified businesses.

(c) A community advisory council shall be formed in conjunction with each application for designation, the purpose of which is to allow community involvement in the program. The members of the council shall be appointed by the local governing body and shall consist of at least one representative from each of the following groups:

(1) Program area residents.

(2) High density unemployment area residents.

(3) Businesses located in a program area.

(4) Local government representatives.

(5) Private industry council members.

(6) Agency officials, when necessary.

(7) Small business development corporations created pursuant to the Small Business Development Corporation Law, where available.

(8) Community-based organizations.

(d) Any existing community advisory council which contains substantially the same membership may serve as the advisory council provided for by this section.

(e) The advisory council shall do all of the following:

(1) Meet at least once a month during the formulation of the comprehensive economic development strategy for the final application.

(2) Following designation, meet at least once every three months throughout the duration of the program to monitor the progress of the program and to aid and assist the agent with plan implementation.

(3) Initiate or coordinate community programs which may include programs providing for the following:

(A) Neighborhood crime prevention and improved security.

(B) Recreation.

(C) Health care.

(D) Senior citizens nutrition.

(E) Child care.

(F) Job training.

SEC. 16. Section 7087.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7087.5. Upon filing a preliminary application, the applicant, as lead agency, shall submit an initial study and a notice of preparation to the agency, the state clearinghouse, and all responsible agencies. Only a city, county, or city and county chosen by the agency as a final applicant shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a draft environmental impact report, which shall set forth the potential environmental impacts of any and all development planned within the program area. The draft environmental impact report shall be submitted to the agency with the final application. Prior to final designation by the agency, the applicant shall complete and certify the final environmental impact report. The environmental impact report shall comply with the information disclosure provisions and the substantive requirements of Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code. No further environmental impact report shall be required if the effects of the project were either (1) mitigated or avoided as a result of the environmental impact report prepared for the program area, or (2) examined at a sufficient level of detail in the environmental impact report for the program area to enable those effects to be mitigated or avoided by specific site revisions, the imposition of conditions, or other means in connection with the designation of the program area, or (3) identified in the final environmental impact report and the lead agency made written findings that specific economic, social, or other considerations made infeasible the mitigation measures or project alternatives identified in the final environmental impact report.

SEC. 17. Section 7092 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7092. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and to the extent permitted by federal law, the Employment Development Department and the State Department of Education shall give high priority to the training of unemployed individuals who reside in a high density unemployment area, designated program area, or any enterprise zone which is designated under any other provision of state law. The agency may assist local agents in designating local business, labor, and education consortia to broker activities between the employment community and educational and training institutions. Any available discretionary funds may be used to assist the creation of those consortia.

SEC. 18. Section 8257 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8257. The Legislature hereby creates the Displaced Homemaker Emergency Loan Act which shall be administered by the California Commission on the Status of Women as a pilot project in the Counties of Marin, San Francisco, Alameda, Los Angeles, Orange, and San Diego.

(a) The commission is authorized to make any regulations, guidelines, and agreements deemed necessary by the commission to carry out the purposes and provisions of this act.

(b) An advisory committee shall be formed including a representative each from the California Commission on the Status of Women; the Treasurer's Office; the Trade and Commerce Agency; the County of Marin Commission on the Status of Women; the Student Aid Commission; and a displaced homemaker service provider and a displaced homemaker selected by the California Commission on the Status of Women. The commission shall consult with the advisory committee and other appropriate officials in developing and administering this act.

(c) Loans may be made to displaced homemakers in amounts not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) per displaced homemaker.

(d) Applications for loan guarantees shall be filed with the commission within 18 months from the displacement date.

(e) Loans shall not be made for purposes for which other public assistance is available.

(f) Priority shall be given to applicants who are participating in job search or educational programs designed to improve the employability of the individual or who meet the requirements of paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of Section 8257.2. Loans shall not be made for this purpose if other assistance is available.

(g) Repayment of a loan shall commence no later than nine months after receipt of the loan, with an option to postpone the commencement of payments another six months in cases of need which are verified by the commission.

(h) Full payment shall be made within 48 months after commencing loan repayment but the time required for repayment may be extended in cases of need that are verified by the commission.

(i) The minimum monthly payment on each loan shall be twenty-five dollars ($25).

(j) Loans shall be made only to displaced homemakers who are being served by displaced homemaker resource centers which have developed a collaborative effort of local communities and state agencies into a one stop source of supportive services for displaced homemakers.

SEC. 19. Section 8258 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8258. (a) The commission, the Trade and Commerce Agency, and the State Treasurer shall select participating eligible lenders.

(b) An application to guaranty a loan made pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be made by an eligible lender on such form as the commission may require. The application shall set forth the amount of the loan, its maturity, interest rate, amortization, and any other information required by the commission.

(c) If, upon application by an eligible lender, the commission finds that the lender has made an eligible loan, the commission shall cause the loan to be guaranteed.

SEC. 20. Section 8684.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8684.2. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature:

(1) To provide the Governor with appropriate emergency powers in order to enable utilization of available emergency funding to provide guarantees for interim loans to be made by lending institutions, in connection with relief provided for those persons affected by natural disasters or a state of emergency in affected areas during periods of disaster relief assistance, for the purpose of supplying interim financing to enable small businesses to continue operations pending receipt of federal disaster assistance.

(2) That the Governor should utilize this authority to prevent business insolvencies and loss of employment in areas affected by these disasters.

(b) In addition to the allocations authorized by Section 8683 and the loan guarantee provisions of Section 14030.1 of the Corporations Code, the Governor may allocate funds made available for the purposes of this chapter, in connection with relief provided, in affected areas during the period of federal disaster relief, to the Small Business Expansion Fund for use by the Office of Small Business, pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 14000) of Part 5 of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, to provide guarantees for low-interest interim loans to be made by lending institutions for the purpose of providing interim financing to enable small businesses that have suffered actual physical damage or significant economic losses, as a result of the natural disaster or state of emergency for which funding under this section is made available, to continue or resume operations pending receipt of loans made or guaranteed by the federal Small Business Administration. The maximum amount of any loan guarantee funded under this paragraph shall not exceed two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000). Each loan guarantee shall not exceed 95 percent of the loan amount, except that a loan guarantee may be for 100 percent of the loan amount if the applicant can demonstrate that access to business records pertinent to the loan application has been precluded by official action prohibiting necessary reentry into the affected business premises or that those business records pertinent to the loan application have been destroyed. The term of the loan shall be determined by the lending institution providing the loan or shall be made payable on the date the proceeds of a loan made or guaranteed by the federal Small Business Administration with respect to the same damage or loss are made available to the borrower, whichever event first occurs.

(c) Loan guarantees for which the initial 12-month term has expired and for which an application for disaster assistance funding from the federal Small Business Administration is still pending may be extended until the Small Business Administration has reached a final decision on the application. Applications for interim loans shall be processed in an expeditious manner. Wherever possible, lending institutions shall fund nonconstruction loans within 60 calendar days of application. Loan guarantees for loans which have been denied funding by the federal Small Business Administration, may be extended by the financial institution provided that the loan is for no longer than a maximum of seven years, if the business demonstrates the ability to repay the loan with an extended loan term, and a new credit analysis is provided. All loans extended under this provision shall be repaid in installments of principal and interest, and be fully amortized over the term of the loan. Nothing in this section shall preclude the lender from charging reasonable administrative fees in connection with the loan.

(d) Allocations pursuant to this section shall, for purposes of all provisions of law, be deemed to be for extraordinary emergency or disaster response operation costs, as provided in Section 8690.6, incurred by the Office of Small Business.

(e) The Trade and Commerce Agency may adopt regulations to implement the loan guarantee program authorized by this section. The department may adopt these regulations as emergency regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of the Government Code, and for purposes of that chapter, including Section 11349.6, the adoption of the regulations shall be considered by the Office of Administrative Law to be necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and general welfare. Notwithstanding subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1 of the Government Code, the regulations shall be repealed within 180 days after their effective date unless the agency complies with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of the Government Code, as provided in subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1 of the Government Code.

(f) Within 60 days of the conclusion of the period for guaranteeing loans under any small business disaster loan guarantee program conducted for a disaster as authorized by Section 8684.2 of the Government Code or Section 14075, the agency shall provide a report to the Legislature on loan guarantees approved and rejected by gender, ethnic group, type of business and location, and each participating loan institution.

SEC. 21. Section 8850 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8850. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that it is in the public interest to aid, counsel, assist, and protect, insofar as is possible, the interests of small business concerns in order to preserve free competitive enterprise and maintain a healthy state economy.

(b) In order to advocate the causes of small business and to provide small businesses with the information they need to survive in marketplace, there is created in the Trade and Commerce Agency a California Small Business Advocate.

SEC. 22. Section 8850.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8850.2. (a) The advocate shall be appointed by, and shall serve at the pleasure of, the Governor.

(b) To accomplish the purposes of this chapter, the Secretary of the Trade and Commerce Agency may assign other employees from within the various departments of the agency, or request the assistance of other civil service and exempt positions in the various executive branch departments to assist the advocate for such periods of time as are necessary to enable the advocate to carry out his or her responsibilities.

(c) The Director of the Office of Small Business may also serve as the advocate.

SEC. 23. Section 13899.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

13899.5. The working group shall be composed of not more than 15 members, of which one shall be the Secretary of the Trade and Commerce Agency or designee. The working group shall be broadly representative of the geographic, gender, and cultural diversity of the state, and shall include, but not be limited to, representatives of the following groups:

(a) Local elected officials representing regions significantly affected by federal spending.

(b) Businesses significantly affected by federal spending.

(c) Local economic development associations.

(d) Private and public sector economists.

(e) Institutions of higher education engaged in federally supported research.

(f) Public employment training programs.

(g) Public interest groups.

(h) Labor unions.

Of the members of the working group, at least three shall be from among a list of names submitted by the Chairman of the Assembly Committee on Local Government and at least three from a list of names submitted by the Chairman of the Senate Rules Committee.

The working group shall be voluntary, and the commission shall expend no state funds for per diem, including travel expenses, for the members of the working group.

SEC. 24. Section 14998.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14998.1. The Legislature finds that motion picture production in California provides unique and significant contributions to the economy of California and to the cultural enrichment of its citizens, as well as providing a unique form of entertainment for the state, country, and the world at large. The Legislature finds that expenditures for hotels, catered food, leases of equipment and property, transportation, and wages and salaries paid to individuals in California as a result of motion picture production benefit the California economy directly and indirectly.

However, the Legislature finds that the significant benefits provided to California by motion picture production are in jeopardy as a result of the concerted efforts of other states and countries to lure this production away from California.

Therefore, the Legislature finds a need for concerted efforts by California state and local governments to provide an environment supportive of, and conducive to, the undertakings of the motion picture industry in this state. A key element of this effort is to make California as uniform as possible in the local regulation and permitting of the film industry; as close to a "one-stop permitting" approach as possible.

SEC. 25. Section 14998.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14998.2. (a) There is in the Trade and Commerce Agency, the California Film Commission consisting of 26 members. The Governor shall appoint 13 members, the Senate Rules Committee shall appoint four members, the Speaker of the Assembly shall appoint four members, and five members shall be ex officio. The members of the commission appointed by the Governor may include representatives of state and local government, motion picture development companies, employee and professional organizations composed of persons employed in the motion picture industry, and other appropriate members of this or related industries.

All members of the commission, except legislators who are appointed either by the Senate Rules Committee or by the Speaker of the Assembly, shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing authority for a term of two years from the effective date of the appointment.

(b) One of the members appointed by the Senate Rules Committee shall, and another one may, be a Senator and one of the members appointed by the Speaker shall, and another one may, be a Member of the Assembly. Such persons shall be appointed for terms of four years.

Of the legislators appointed to the commission, no more than three legislators from the same political party may be appointed to or serve on the commission at the same time.

(c) Any legislator appointed shall serve as a voting member of the commission, and shall meet with, and participate in the activities of, the commission to the extent that participation is not incompatible with his or her position as a Member of the Legislature, but shall only serve in that capacity while concurrently serving as a Member of the Legislature. Whenever a legislator vacates an office, the appointing power shall appoint another person for a new full term.

(d) Six of the 13 members appointed by the Governor shall be as follows:

(1) One shall be a person who is a member or employee of a union or guild of motion picture artists.

(2) One shall be a person who is a member or employee of a union or guild representing motion picture craftsmen, technicians, or photographers.

(3) Two shall be from major motion picture studios.

(4) One shall be a member of the city council or a member of the county board of supervisors of a city or a county with a population of at least two million people.

(5) One shall be a member of the city council or a member of the county board of supervisors of a city or a county with a population of less than two million people.

(e) The Director of Transportation shall serve as an ex officio nonvoting member.

(f) The Director of Parks and Recreation shall serve as an ex officio nonvoting member.

(g) The Commissioner of the California Highway Patrol shall serve as an ex officio nonvoting member.

(h) The State Fire Marshal shall serve as an ex officio nonvoting member.

(i) The director of the commission shall serve as an ex officio nonvoting member.

SEC. 26. Section 14998.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14998.3. The commission shall submit a list of recommended candidates for the position of Director of the Film Office to the Governor for consideration. The Governor shall appoint the director.

(b) The Director of the Film Office shall receive a salary to be determined by the Department of Personnel Administration.

(c) The secretary, or his or her designee, shall act as the director during the absence from the state or other temporary absence, disability, or unavailability of the director, or during a vacancy in that position.

SEC. 27. Section 14998.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14998.6. The director and staff of the Film Office, shall provide staff support to the California Film Commission. When needed, the secretary may assign additional staff on a temporary or permanent basis.

SEC. 28. Section 14998.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14998.7. Any funds appropriated to, or for use by, the California Film Commission or to the agency for purposes of this chapter, shall be under the control of the secretary or his or her designee.

SEC. 29. Section 14998.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14998.8. (a) The Director of the Film Office shall be the permitting authority for the use of state-owned property and state employee services for the purpose of making commercial motion pictures. The commission may establish fees not to exceed the actual cost of the affected state agency for this purpose. All fees collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Film Transfer Account, which is hereby created in the Special Deposit Fund, for disbursement by the director to reimburse the operating departments for their actual costs.

(b) The Director of the Film Office shall assure a "one-stop" permit process for applications for permission to use state-owned property for motion pictures. In so doing, applications for permission to use state property for making motion pictures shall be made to the director of the commission who, promptly upon receipt of such an application, shall contact the state agency having jurisdiction over the property specified in the application for the concurrence of the agency in the use of property. The denial of an application may be made on the basis of any of the following:

(1) The use would unduly interfere with the conduct of state business.

(2) Failure of the permittee to provide full insurance or bond coverage, if required by the Department of General Services, or the affected agency, sufficient to reimburse the state for any user-caused damage to the property and to provide adequate personal liability insurance coverage.

The use of state property shall be denied, if it is determined that the use would violate or be in conflict with existing provisions of statute or regulation by the director of the department, agency, or commission responding to a permit request.

(c) Any state agency having management and control over state property, the use of which is sought by an application, shall permit the property to be used, unless otherwise denied by the provisions of this section.

(d) Nothing in this section requires a state agency to take any action not authorized by law or to make any decision in a manner or by a method not authorized by law or which is prohibited by law.

(e) If in connection with the use of roads, highways, and freeways, the assistance, control, or protection by California Highway Patrol officers is desired, applications to the director to utilize services of California Highway Patrol officers in the production of motion pictures shall be made directly to the Commissioner of the California Highway Patrol. The commissioner may approve the application if employees are available and the agency is fully reimbursed for additional costs incurred. Applications to utilize California Highway Patrol employee services shall be approved or disapproved by the commissioner.

(f) The Director of the Film Office, whenever feasible, shall approve or deny any application within 24 hours. In the event that the director of the department or agency having jurisdiction over the property specified in the application permit takes no action to disapprove the application within five working days, the application shall be deemed approved by the director. If the director of the department or agency determines that he or she is unable to concur or deny an application within five working days and so notifies the director within five working days of the application, the director shall then have a total of 10 days from receipt of the application to deny the application. In the event no action is taken by the director within the 10-day period, the application shall be deemed approved by the director.

(g) At least 30 days prior to adoption of state regulations, rules, written guidelines, or policies that would have clear, explicit, and definite implications for the production of motion pictures on state-owned property by a state agency, including any of that agency's district or regional offices, other than for immediate health and safety purposes, the agency shall submit a written copy to the Director of the Film Office. The commission shall review the proposal and report its findings to the submitting agency within five working days of receipt of the materials sent. The submitting agency shall consider the commission's findings prior to final adoption of the regulations, rules, written guidelines, or policies, unless the commission's findings are not made available to the submitting agency within the above prescribed time limits. Any and all findings made by the commission pursuant to this section shall be advisory. The submitting agency shall provide the commission with a final written copy of its adopted regulations, rules, written guidelines, or policies.

SEC. 29.5. Section 14998.9 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14998.9. The Director of the Film Office shall prepare and implement a program to promote the production of motion pictures and still photography for the benefit of the state's economy.

The program shall do, but shall not be limited to doing, all of the following:

(a) Administer a one-stop permit office, pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 14998.8, which shall issue permits for the use of state property for filmmaking.

(b) Implement the guidelines or regulations for a standardized permit procedure for all state agencies pursuant to guidelines adopted by the commission under Section 14998.4.

(c) Update and expand the location resource library.

(d) Produce and implement a marketing and promotion plan for filmmaking in California which shall be subject to the approval of the commission. The purpose of the plan shall be to design a program for the preparation and distribution of appropriate promotional and informational materials pointing out desirable locations within the state for the production of motion pictures, explaining the benefits and advantages of producing motion pictures within the state government, as well as those services available at the local level and within the industry.

(e) Conduct workshops to assist local governments to adopt uniform permit procedures and to establish film development offices.

(f) Request and obtain any information from state entities necessary to carry out the purposes of this section.

(g) Accept grant moneys for the purpose of implementing this section.

(h) Accept gifts and donations for the purpose of implementing this section.

SEC. 30. Section 14999.21 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14999.21. (a) The California Film Commission shall send to each city and county a copy of the model process for granting film permits for local consideration. Not later than December 31, 1989, each jurisdiction shall adopt this process or inform the California Film Commission in writing as to why they cannot or need not adopt this model process.

(b) At least 30 days prior to the adoption of or an amendment to the written filming policy of a local government, the local government shall submit a draft of the ordinance or amendment to the Director of the Film Office. The Film Office shall review drafts submitted to it and report its findings to the local government within five working days of receipt of the draft. The local legislative body shall consider the Film Office's findings prior to final adoption of the ordinance or amendment unless the commission's findings are not available within the above prescribed time limits. Any and all findings made by the commission pursuant to this section shall be advisory to local government.

(c) Each local government shall provide the commission with a copy of its adopted filming ordinance or amendments.

SEC. 31. Section 14999.31 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14999.31. The Film Office and its director shall encourage the use of the uniform application form described in Section 14999.32 for obtaining a local permit to engage in film production within the jurisdiction of a county, city, or city and county. As used in this chapter "film" includes, but is not limited to, feature motion pictures, videotapes, television motion pictures, commercials, and stills. "Production" means the activity of making a film for commercial or noncommercial purposes on property owned by a county, city, or city and county or on private property within the jurisdiction of a county, city, or city and county.

SEC. 32. Section 15310 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 41. Section 15326 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15326. Each office shall be in the charge of a director under the direction of the secretary. The directors shall be appointed, upon recommendation by the secretary, by the Governor. The directors shall hold office at the pleasure of the secretary, and shall receive a salary as shall be fixed by the secretary with the approval of the Department of Personnel Administration.

SEC. 42. Section 15327 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15327. In order to carry out the provisions of this chapter, there is hereby created in the State Treasury the California Economic Development Grant and Loan Fund.

The California Economic Development Grant and Loan Fund is created only for the purpose of: (a) receiving federal, state, and local money for subsequent allocation by the agency in the form of grants or loans to public agencies and private entities; (b) receiving repayments of loans or grants and interest on those loans and grants for subsequent reallocation as grants or loans without regard to a federal matching share so long as the proceeds are used for economic development in a manner consistent with Section 304 of Public Law 89-136 (42 U.S.C. 3153); and (c) receiving fees for subsequent expenditure as authorized by Section 15328.

State funds allocated to the fund in excess of any amount needed to match the federal, state, and local funds, shall be available for economic development grants or loans or both, without regard to the matching share.

Notwithstanding Section 13340, all money deposited in the California Economic Development Grant and Loan Fund and the Grant and Loan Collection Account established pursuant to Section 15327.6 shall remain available, and is continuously appropriated to the agency, until expended or obligated without regard to fiscal years for purposes of this part.

At the request of the secretary, the Treasurer shall invest existing moneys in the fund and in the account pursuant to Sections 16470 through 16475 and to the extent and under the conditions specified by present law.

The agency may advance to the recipient up to 50 percent of the state's share of any loan or grant awarded once final approvals have been made by the state.

SEC. 43. Section 15327.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15327.1. (a) All or a portion of the funds in the California Economic Development Grant and Loan Fund may be paid out, with the approval of the Department of Finance, to lending institutions eligible under Sections 16521 and 16611 to receive state deposits. Funds paid out to those institutions shall be expended solely for the purposes of the Economic Development Grant and Loan Fund. Those payments shall be made by the Treasurer on warrants drawn by the Controller and requisitioned by, and at the request of, the agency or pursuant to a grant or contract conditions. These conditions apply retroactively to all federal, state, and local money, including interest received by, and allocated by, the agency since 1984.

(b) No outside bank accounts shall be established pursuant to subdivision (a) without the prior approval of the Director of Finance. The director may, at any time, withdraw that approval.

(c) The state has a residual interest in the revenues from the investment and any principal of the funds deposited or transferred to eligible lending institutions pursuant to this section. Any accrued interest from those investments shall be considered as part of the Economic Development Grant and Loan Fund and shall be expended for the purposes of the fund.

The state is not liable or obligated in any way beyond the state money which was paid out or transferred to eligible institutions pursuant to this section.

SEC. 44. Section 15327.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15327.5. (a) Notwithstanding Section 15327, the agency may pool the loans and sell any notes or other evidence of indebtedness derived from grants or loans of moneys on deposit in the California Economic Development Grant and Loan Fund. In addition, the agency may insure those loans.

(b) The proceeds derived from the sale of notes or other evidence of indebtedness shall be used for economic development in a manner consistent with Section 304 of the Public Works and Economic Development Act of 1965, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 3153).

(c) Any local development corporation may participate in a transaction by the department of notes or other evidence of indebtedness pursuant to subdivision (a).

SEC. 45. Section 15328 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15328. (a) In order to defray costs to the agency for administration of its direct loans and grant programs, the agency may do all of the following:

(1) Impose reasonable charges on all applications, approved grants, and approved loans.

(2) Recover collection costs from the borrower, grantee, or other party.

(3) Earn income on any asset recovered pursuant to a loan default.

(b) The agency may use these fees or other charges for those costs necessary to protect the state's position as a lender-creditor. These costs shall be broadly construed to include, but are not limited to, foreclosure expenses, auction fees, title searches, appraisals, real estate brokerage fees, attorney fees, mortgage payments, insurance payments, utility costs, repair costs, removal and storage costs for repossessed equipment and inventory, and additional expenditures to purchase a senior lien in foreclosure or bankruptcy proceedings.

SEC. 46. Section 15328.5 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 47. Section 15330 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15330. The agency shall be the principal state agency responsible for:

(a) Coordinating federal-state-local relationships in economic development, the continual evaluation of the impact of policies and programs affecting economic development, and encouraging the full utilization of programs available for assisting the residents of the state and local public entities in satisfying the economic development needs of the state.

(b) Applying for and allocating federal funds available under the Public Works and Economic Development Act of 1965, as amended, and such other federal funds as may be available which will promote and assist economic development in the state.

(c) Assisting state agencies, offices, and departments to implement the state economic policy pursuant to Part 12 (commencing with Section 15900) of Division 3 of Title 2 and serving as an advisory agency to the Governor in the preparation of the Economic Report of the Governor as required by Section 15901.

(d) Responding to inquiries and providing statistics and other information on the economy, visitor attractions, international trade, products and processes, and services provided by the agency.

(e) The agency in carrying out its responsibilities shall make maximum use of base data and studies currently being prepared and distributed by other state agencies. It shall avoid duplication of these efforts where possible.

(f) Assisting employees of a business or place of work in the formation of an employee-owned corporation, as defined by Section 91502.1, at that business or place of work, at the request of the employees and when that business or place of work is closing or is in danger of closing, by providing technical assistance, information, or access to sources of financing. The responsibilities created by this subdivision shall be permissive in the absence of nonstate funds unless state funds are specifically authorized by the Legislature for the purposes of this subdivision.

(g) Marketing California as a cost-effective and advantageous place for businesses to locate or expand. This subdivision shall not be construed to require any local government to participate, except in a voluntary manner, in this program.

(h) In order to defray costs to the General Fund of providing publications, as defined in Section 14902, when warranted in the opinion of the secretary, the agency may charge fees to cover estimated printing and mailing costs for publications, except for publications distributed pursuant to Sections 14900, 14901, 14903, 14904, 14905.1, and 14907.

The agency may adopt and enforce rules and regulations in order to implement the above responsibilities.

SEC. 48. Section 15330.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15330.1. Trademarks developed by the department, including, but not limited to, "The Californias," that enhance the fulfilling of the agency's responsibilities and programs shall not be construed as an agency of, or official endorsement by, the State of California.

SEC. 49. Section 15330.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15330.2. The Film Office shall perform the following functions and activities:

(a) Provide staff for the California Film Commission.

(b) Implement the Cooperative Motion Picture Marketing Plan.

(c) Provide services necessary to increase the amount of filming within California.

SEC. 50. Section 15331 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15331. The Office of Economic Research shall perform the following functions and activities:

(a) Gather, analyze, and interpret pertinent information on the economy developed by itself, other governmental and private agencies and publish and disseminate statistics and other information useful to industry, commerce, and agriculture. A fee may be charged for such publications to cover the cost of publication and dissemination.

(b) Provide assistance to other state agencies in the development of information or other pertinent data on the economy and the economic development of the state.

(c) Prepare or sponsor studies on the economic potential of various types of business, commercial, or industrial development in improving the economy of the state, the creation of job opportunities and the effect on resources and environment of the state.

(d) Study, recommend, and report to the secretary on the impact of governmental policies and regulations and the expected impact of proposed policies and regulations which do or may unduly restrict beneficial economic development.

(e) Respond to inquiries by persons in industry, business, commerce, or other governmental units concerning the economy and economic conditions in the state.

SEC. 50.5. Section 15331.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15331.2. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that while a myriad of sources of technical assistance and information are available within the state on small businesses, lack of integration of those sources and lack of adequate information on the state's small businesses remains a problem when addressing the status of small business from a legislative perspective.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that, in order to provide a better framework for consideration of the issues regarding the state's small businesses, the agency shall maintain a centralized information system on small business. The data shall be compiled from, but not limited to, the following:

(1) State Board of Equalization.

(2) Franchise Tax Board.

(3) Office of Small and Minority Business within the Department of General Services.

(4) Employment Development Department.

(5) Small Business Advocate within the Trade and Commerce Agency.

(6) United States Small Business Administration.

(7) United States Census Bureau.

This data shall include, but not be limited to, any pertinent information regarding the numbers of small businesses, demographics, minority- and women-owned, net income, payroll, employee benefits, funding sources, size classification, and any other information deemed necessary by the agency to carry out the objectives of this chapter.

The above-named departments and units within the California state government shall be responsible for full cooperation with the agency to explore opportunities for expanding the scope and amount of information on the state's small business economy.

Nothing in this section shall require an agency providing the information required under this section to disclose any confidential information that would link the data to the individual to whom it pertains.

(c) A statistical abstract of data compiled under subdivision (b) shall be provided by the agency to the Legislature and to each of the Senate and Assembly Select Committees on Small Business Enterprise on an annual basis thereafter.

SEC. 51. Section 15333 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15333. The Office of Business Development shall perform the following functions and activities:

(a) Represent the Secretary of the Trade and Commerce Agency in establishing clear lines of communication with California business.

(b) Advise the secretary on the problems and concerns of the business community, particularly those unique to California's small businesses.

(c) Review recommendations from the business community and advise the secretary on proposals affecting business conditions in California.

(d) Act as liaison between the business community and all departments of state government on issues affecting business development and insure that the findings and recommendations of each department are reported to the secretary.

(e) Cooperate with public and private agencies engaged in promoting and encouraging the location and development of new businesses in the state as well as the maintaining and expanding of existing businesses.

(f) Aid business concerns in their relationships with appropriate federal and state agencies such as procurement and lending agencies and the Small Business Administration.

(g) Market California as a cost-effective and advantageous place for businesses to locate or expand. This subdivision shall not be construed to require any local government to participate, except in a voluntary manner, in this program.

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1992.

SEC. 52. Section 15333.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15333.6. (a) There is within the agency the Competitive

Technology Advisory Committee, which shall not exceed 18 members. The Speaker of the Assembly and the Senate Committee on Rules shall each appoint three members. The Governor shall appoint the remaining members of the committee upon nomination by the secretary and shall appoint one member as chair. All members of the committee shall be California residents with an advanced level of education or experience in science or technology obtained through service in higher education, research laboratories, or the private sector. Included in the committee shall be representatives from the University of California, the California State University, the independent colleges and universities in California, and federal laboratories. A majority of the members of the committee shall represent the private sector. All members of the committee shall serve for a two-year term.

(b) Each committee member shall serve without compensation but may be reimbursed for actual and necessary travel expenses incurred in the performance of duties. No member shall, by virtue of serving as a member of the committee, be deemed to be an officer of the state.

(c) The committee shall advise the agency regarding the following:

(1) Establishing priorities for the California Competitive Technology Program pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 15379), taking into account the technological problems faced by California companies and competitive challenges facing the economy of this state.

(2) Scientific and technological expertise pursuant to Section 15379.8.

(3) The California Competitive Technology Program as needed and upon request of the agency.

(d) Staff for the committee shall be supplied by the agency and records of the council shall be maintained by the agency.

SEC. 53. Section 15334 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15334. The Office of Tourism shall perform the following functions and activities:

(a) Develop data on numbers of visitors, expenditures by visitors, points of origin and destination, and other relevant information on tourism and visitors.

(b) Provide advice and technical assistance to regional, county and city tourism development organizations and to similar private organizations in planning programs to attract visitors and develop literature for distribution to visitors and potential visitors to this state.

(c) Prepare literature suitable for distribution by the agency and by regional, county and city tourism development organizations to persons requesting the literature. It shall provide information which will enable visitors to contact tourism organizations in areas which they plan to visit. A fee may be charged for these publications to cover the cost of publication and dissemination.

(d) Prepare material for distribution to other countries through the United States Travel Service.

(e) Assist and submit recommendations to other state departments and agencies in providing facilities and services which will promote and facilitate the travel of visitors throughout the state.

SEC. 54. Section 15334.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15334.2. There is in the Office of Tourism the position of Rural Tourism Liaison, who shall provide, among other responsibilities as determined by the office, liaison services between local rural tourism agencies and the office, and who shall act as an advocate for rural tourism needs within the office. The secretary of the agency may fill this position from the existing staff allocation.

SEC. 55. Section 15335.07 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15335.07. The Governor may appoint, upon the recommendation of the secretary of the agency, the director of the office. A recommendation shall be selected from a list of three candidates submitted by the Small Business Development Board, as described in Sections 14020, 14021, and 14022 of the Corporations Code. The director of the office shall receive a salary as shall be fixed by the secretary of the agency with the approval of the Department of Personnel Administration. The director shall be in charge of the Office of Small Business under the direction of the secretary of the agency, consistent with duties as set forth in this part. The director may be dismissed by the secretary of the agency.

SEC. 56. Section 15335.09 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15335.09. The director, following notification to the secretary, may do all of the following:

(a) Appoint such advisory groups as may be necessary to carry out his or her powers and duties. These persons may be reimbursed per diem and travel expenses pursuant to state regulations.

(b) Call upon and reimburse for services any state agency or department for assistance in carrying out the Office of Small Business's objectives.

(c) Participate with government or private industry in programs for technical assistance, loans, technology transfer or any other programs related to this part and Part 5 (commencing with Section 14000) of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code.

(d) Exercise such other powers as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this part and Part 5 (commencing with Section 14000) of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code.

SEC. 57. Section 15335.11 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15335.11. The Office of Small Business shall include in the agency's report to the Legislature and to the Governor, as required by subdivision (e) of Section 15323, the steps which have been taken to fulfill the purpose of this part and Part 5 (commencing with Section 14000) of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, which report shall describe:

(a) Action taken to encourage the formation of small business, urban and rural, development corporations.

(b) Evaluation of corporations formed under this part, including the most recent annual financial statements of each corporation.

(c) The number of businesses financially assisted through small business and employment-incentive loans, and the number of jobs created or retained through employment-incentive loans made pursuant to this part and Part 5 (commencing with Section 14000) of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code.

(d) The number of persons requesting information and attending conferences cosponsored by the office, and the total number of publications issued or sold under this part and Part 5 (commencing with Section 14000) of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code.

(e) Recommendations for action by the Governor and the Legislature to carry out the purposes of this part and Part 5 (commencing with Section 14000) of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code.

SEC. 58. Section 15335.13 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15335.13. To the extent permitted by the resources allocated to the office, the office may, in the manner the director determines fair and reasonable, provide to small businesses in this state qualifying under any of the programs under the jurisdiction of the office, all of the following:

(a) Financial assistance in the form of loan and loan guarantees through the California small business development corporations.

(b) Management and technical assistance.

(c) Public relations services.

(d) Representation of their interests before Congress, the Legislature, and state and federal agencies. State agencies shall cooperate and respond to inquiries of the office when it represents the interests of small businesses.

(e) Planning and research functions.

(f) In providing services and assistance under subdivisions (a) to (e), inclusive, the office may charge fees for workshops and seminars only, in an amount not to exceed the actual costs of providing the workshops and seminars.

SEC. 59. Section 15335.20 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15335.20. There is within the agency, the California Film Commission established pursuant to Section 14998.2.

SEC. 60. Section 15335.22 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15335.22. (a) (1) The California Film Commission shall develop and oversee the implementation of a Cooperative Motion Picture Marketing Plan. The plan shall increase the marketing efforts of the commission, and offer state resources to local film commissions and local government liaisons to the film industry for the purpose of marketing their locales to the motion picture industry.

(2) In addition to paragraph (1), the resources offered under the plan for marketing shall be used to recruit local government participation in, and development of, local film commissions.

(3) For purposes of this section, resources offered to local film commissions and local government liaisons to the motion picture industry shall include all of the following:

(A) Grants for partial or full funding of the cost to develop or participate in workshops, trade shows, seminars, or meetings that assist local governments to promote and market the use of their locales by the motion picture industry. Eligible meetings shall also include those called or approved by the Director of the Film Office to further the purposes of the Cooperative Motion Picture Marketing Plan.

(B) The services of a professional photographer, including material and expenses, to take still photographs of motion picture locations for inclusion in the location resource library established pursuant to Section 15335.21. Whenever possible, the photographer shall be hired from the local area participating in the Cooperative Motion Picture Marketing Plan.

(C) Appropriate promotional and informational materials for the purpose of mailing or distributing to the motion picture industry. The materials shall include, but not be limited to, brochures, print ads, and direct marketing materials which state the benefits and advantages of producing motion pictures within the state or the locales participating in the Cooperative Motion Picture Marketing Plan.

(b) Any resource requested under the provisions of the Cooperative Motion Picture Marketing Plan not specified in this section shall be subject to the approval of the California Film Commission.

(c) The California Film Commission shall expand and upgrade the location resource library through the use of a librarian, a computerized catalog system, and a professional photographer.

(d) As a condition of eligibility for the use of resources pursuant to this section, a local government shall demonstrate substantial compliance with the model process for granting film permits described in Section 14999.20.

(e) The commission shall adopt additional guidelines as needed for the implementation of the plan.

(f) The purpose of the Cooperative Motion Picture Marketing Plan is in no way to discourage, limit, or impede the participation of local governments in the Film Liaisons in California, Statewide, commonly referred to as F.L.I.C.S.

(g) As used in this section, "motion picture" shall include, but not be limited to, production in film, video, television, commercial, and still photography.

SEC. 61. Section 15336 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15336. The agency may contract with other state or private agencies, universities, firms, or individuals for the performance of technical or specialized work or for services such as econometric models, data bases, and other similar services.

SEC. 62. Section 15336.3 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 63. Section 15337 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15337. (a) As one means to carry out the agency's purposes of job creation and business development through the tourism and industrial development marketing programs, there is hereby created in the State Treasury, the Commerce Marketing Fund.

(b) The Treasurer shall invest moneys contained in the Commerce Marketing Fund not needed to meet current obligations in the same manner as other public funds are invested. Interest which accrues from the investments shall be credited to the fund.

(c) Proceeds which accrue to the state from the merchandising of tourism and industrial development ideas, products, and designs, including written material, shall be deposited in the fund.

(d) The agency may receive and accept for deposit in the Commerce Marketing Fund, moneys from any and all public or private sources which are for tourism and industrial development purposes.

(e) Moneys in the Commerce Marketing Fund shall be available for expenditure by the agency, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for activities performed consistent with Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 15355) and activities performed consistent with Chapter 1.6 (commencing with Section 15364.50).

SEC. 64. Section 15338 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15338. All public agencies in the exercise of their statutory responsibilities shall consider, when relevant, the policies of this chapter and specific recommendations or comments made by the agency pursuant to its authority granted by this chapter.

SEC. 65. Section 15339 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15339. The agency, with the approval of the Department of General Services, may sell real property acquired by the agency in a foreclosure, by deed in lieu of foreclosure, judgment, or sale under a power of sale on a deed of trust, lien, or by exercise of any other security interest on real property securing repayment of a loan or performance under a grant or loan made by the agency. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, real property so acquired shall be sold for its market value and the sale proceeds shall be deposited in the fund from which the secured loan or grant was made.

The sales shall be conducted on behalf of the agency by the Department of General Services, except that the agency, with the approval of the Department of General Services, may conduct the sale, utilize the assistance of any local public agency, or contract with a real estate broker to conduct the sale, if the agency determines that one of those options will result in a more prompt or cost-efficient sale.

SEC. 66. Section 15339.29 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15339.29. It is the intent of the Legislature that the University of California's California Policy Seminar report the study's findings to the Governor, the Legislature, and the Small Business Development Board under the agency on or before March 30, 1993.

SEC. 66.5. Section 15339.30 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15339.30. To accomplish the purposes of this article, the secretary shall cooperate with the university in its conduct of the study and may assign employees from within the various departments of the agency, or request the assistance of other civil service and exempt positions in the various executive branch departments, to assist the university in conducting and completing the study. State agencies which shall make data available for the project, include, but are not limited to, the Franchise Tax Board, the State Board of Equalization, the Employment Development Department, and the Office of Small and Minority Business within the Department of General Services. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require an agency to disclose any confidential information that would link the data to the individual or business to whom it pertains.

SEC. 67. Section 15341 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15341. There is hereby established in the agency the Economic Adjustment Unit. The primary role of the unit shall be to save California jobs and serve business, labor, and communities by averting plant closures, and where closures are unavoidable, to assist in creating new jobs for the dislocated workers.

SEC. 68. Section 15345 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15345. The following definitions govern construction of this article:

(a) "Data base" means a collection of data that is organized, stored, and available for access.

(b) "Network" means a coordinated system allowing users to share access to data and other information.

SEC. 69. Section 15345.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15345.1. The agency shall initiate a contract for a manufacturing competitiveness network planning study, by January 1, 1993, contingent upon the receipt of nonstate public and private funding specified under Section 15345.5. The agency shall serve as contract manager, in consultation with the planning project partners specified in Section 15345.2. The study model shall include all of the following:

(a) An assessment of the costs and feasibility of establishing an effective information network and data base for the following purposes:

(1) Identification of California manufacturing firms experiencing competitiveness pressures leading to planned relocations outside of the state or region.

(2) Responses to planned relocations of this state's manufacturing firms, including small businesses and minority- and women-owned manufacturing firms, to other regions, states, or countries through full utilization of available economic development resources within both the private and public sectors.

(3) Identification of industry trends, by industrial sector and geographic location, in order to assess competitiveness in the state's business environment.

(4) Identification of industries migrating to California.

(5) Establishment of a mechanism for coordination and cooperation among economic development resource providers in order to facilitate early warning on company relocation plans.

(b) An evaluation of the need for data-specific information regarding California manufacturing relocations.

(c) An evaluation of the availability of, and access to, data from state, regional, and local sources.

(d) An inventory of studies and other information currently available regarding California's business climate.

(e) A feasible system and structure to allow access of shared data and other information among users concerning California manufacturers, as specified in Section 15345.4.

SEC. 70. Section 15345.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15345.2. (a) In conducting the study specified in Section 15345.1, the secretary shall identify appropriate planning project partners among entities that may contribute to the acquisition of information relevant to the proposed data base and network. Planning project partners may include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

(1) California utilities.

(2) Chambers of commerce.

(3) Local economic development organizations.

(4) California manufacturing associations.

(5) Small business manufacturing enterprises.

(6) Large business manufacturing enterprises.

(7) Organized labor.

(8) California community colleges and universities.

(9) The Employment Development Department.

(10) The Franchise Tax Board.

(b) In gathering required information, the secretary may utilize plant closure information provided through the federal Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 2101 and following) and employment data provided through the Employment Development Department's Labor Market Information Survey, as well as market research, site inventory analysis, survey instruments, and other appropriate data gathering strategies.

SEC. 71. Section 15345.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15345.3. Not later than October 1, 1993, the secretary shall report study findings and recommendations to the Governor and the Legislature.

SEC. 72. Section 15345.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15345.4. (a) Pursuant to recommendations contained in the study, and contingent upon an annual appropriation by the Legislature, the secretary shall establish, not later than April 1, 1994, an information network and data base that would utilize regional data collection resources to provide nonconfidential information that may include, but shall not be limited to, the following components:

(1) Type of business, industry sector, defense, or commercial production.

(2) Size of business, number of employees, and value of production.

(3) Corporate structure, parent company, division, and group.

(4) Business mix of domestic and international sales.

(5) Reasons for planned relocation or restrictions against instate expansion including regulatory issues, tax issues, housing and facilities costs, employment costs, labor pool, support from local and state agencies or officials, quality and quantity of public services, infrastructure issues, and state and local business incentives.

(6) Employment training needs of California's manufacturing industries.

(b) The network shall be designed to provide accessibility of information to users for the purpose of increasing knowledge of, and access to, state and regional business retention and economic development resources.

(c) The network shall also track corporate decisions to restrict instate expansions of California manufacturing enterprises.

(d) The network shall provide an early warning system for effective business retention, including a mechanism for facilitating rapid response to business concerns that may be mitigated by the state through technical assistance, incentives, job training resources, and loan packaging or other capital formation tools.

(e) The network shall be designed to provide an information resource that may be used to assist the state in developing new programs and incentives designed to retain manufacturing industries and attract new business including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) Specific programs that may be expanded or initiated to assist industry, in both rural and urban locations, to maintain a competitive position within the context of the existing regulatory climate.

(2) Technology development programs to effectively utilize the educational and scientific infrastructure of the state.

(3) Policy recommendations regarding legislative and regulatory issues affecting manufacturing.

SEC. 74. Section 15348 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 75. Section 15349 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 76. Section 15350 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15350. An advisory council not to exceed 21 persons shall be created to advise the secretary in carrying out the functions of the agency. One member of the council shall be appointed by the chairman of the Commission for Economic Development. The other members of the advisory council shall be appointed by the Governor upon the nomination of the secretary. The terms of appointees shall expire two years after the expiration date of the previous appointment to that position. The chairman of the advisory council shall be designated by the Governor from the members appointed by him or her.

SEC. 77. Section 15350.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15350.1. If any of the initial members of the council have not been nominated by the secretary or appointed by the Governor by June 30, 1978, the Senate Rules Committee and the Speaker of the Assembly shall each appoint persons to one-half of the vacancies on the council (with the Senate Rules Committee to make the appointment to any odd-numbered vacancy) and the Governor shall have no authority after June 30, 1978, to appoint any initial member to the council.

SEC. 78. Section 15353 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15353. The council shall meet at 10 o'clock in the morning on the first Monday of February, May, August and November in the office of the agency in Sacramento, unless the council or the chairman shall set a different time, day or place. The chairman may also call special meetings, setting the day, time and place thereof, on not less than seven days written notice to all members and to the secretary. Those members present at any regular or duly noticed special meeting shall constitute a quorum to transacting business.

SEC. 79. Section 15354 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15354. Staff for the council shall be supplied by the agency and records of the council shall be maintained by the agency.

SEC. 79.3. Section 15355.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15355.7. (a) No funds expended by the agency for the industrial marketing program shall be used to publicize or feature any elected official or political party in paid advertising.

(b) Media advertisements and publications prepared or purchased with agency funds shall equally present the contributions of the executive and legislative branches of state government to the fostering of a positive state business climate if either branch is mentioned.

(c) The agency shall be authorized to fund the marketing program from all sources, both public and private, to accomplish the goals of this article.

(d) The agency shall be authorized to enter into cooperative or shared cost programs, or opportunities for these ventures, with private entities.

SEC. 79.5. Section 15355.9 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 80. Section 15360 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 81. Section 15361 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 82. Section 15362 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 83. Section 15363 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 84. Section 15363.5 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

15311. The Trade and Commerce Agency consists of the California State World Trade Commission and the Department of Commerce. The agency is administered by the Secretary of Trade and Commerce who shall be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate, and who shall be paid a salary at the amount prescribed under Section 11550.

SEC. 85. Section 15363.6 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

15312. The secretary shall have the following responsibilities:

(a) Coordinating the various trade, investment, and tourism activities of the agency to ensure that the resources that the state has invested in these programs are used effectively and efficiently and that they foster the state's reputation as a source of high quality, cost-effective goods and services including tourism destinations.

(b) Coordinating the use of the overseas trade offices by any state export program not under the agency, such as those that are operated by the Department of Food and Agriculture and the California Energy Commission, and by any state agency which may have occasion to need the services of the overseas trade offices in carrying out that agency's official duties and responsibilities.

(c) Reporting to the Governor and the Legislature on an annual basis about the policies, plans, budgeting, and accomplishments of the agency and its programs.

(d) In his or her capacity as a member of the Governor's cabinet, coordinating the development of a state policy on economic development and trade. The initial policy and implementation strategy shall be included as a part of the secretary's first annual report to the Governor and the Legislature following enactment of this chapter. Each year thereafter, the secretary's annual report shall discuss economic development and trade policies including accomplishments and needed modifications.

(e) Serve as the Governor's principal staff adviser on economic development.

(f) Serve as executive director of the state economic development regional commission as designated by the Secretary of the United States Department of Commerce pursuant to Title V of the Public Works and Economic Development Act of 1965, as amended.

(g) Advise the Governor and the Legislature on the problems, recommendations, and concerns of the business community, including the impact of governmental policies and regulations and the expected impact of proposed policies and regulations which may adversely affect beneficial economic development.

(h) Perform all duties, exercise all powers, discharge all responsibilities, and administer and enforce all laws, rules, and regulations under the jurisdiction of the agency.

(i) Keep all books and records necessary for the proper and efficient administration of the agency.

(j) Provide technical, financial, marketing, and management assistance to minority-owned, women-owned, and disabled veteran-owned businesses to assist these businesses in competing for contracts, grants, and projects related to defense conversion and strategic technology.

SEC. 86. Section 15363.7 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

15313. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this chapter that the duties of the Business Transportation and Housing Agency regarding the California State World Trade Commission and the Department of Commerce be transferred to the Trade and Commerce Agency. Any reference in this code to duties of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency with regard to the department and office shall be deemed to mean the Trade and Commerce Agency.

SEC. 87. Section 15363.8 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

15314. (a) The agency shall be funded from the existing resources of other state agencies and departments. The Governor may direct the transfer of personnel from other agencies and departments for agency operations.

(b) The provisions of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11150) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 shall apply to the agency, and the secretary is the head of the agency within the meaning of those provisions.

(c) The agency is the successor to the Department of Commerce.

SEC. 88. Section 15364.1 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

15315. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that the expansion of international trade is vital to the overall growth of California's economy. The Legislature further finds and declares that current state efforts to develop relations with foreign countries are insufficient for effective coordination and mobilization of the resources necessary to promote economic growth and international trade.

(b) In order to encourage international trade and development, there is created in the Trade and Commerce Agency the California

State World Trade Commission. It shall be comprised of leading representatives of California government and private industry, and shall address policies that affect California's ability to trade internationally, and provide research in international trade that can be utilized by the commission in developing and implementing effective and aggressive marketing strategies. "Commission" as used in this chapter, means the California State World Trade Commission. "International trade" as used in this chapter, consists of the export and import of agricultural, mineral, and manufacturing products, business services, and banking.

(c) In addition, the commission may create an advisory council comprised of commission-appointed private industry leaders and representatives of the executive and legislative branches of state government. They shall have the responsibility of assisting and advising the commission. Advisory council members shall receive travel and other expenses equal to those of state employees when on authorized commission business.

SEC. 89. Section 15364.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15364.4. (a) Each office of the commission, including any overseas trade office, shall be in the charge of an office director who shall be appointed, upon the recommendation of the director of the commission, by the Governor, unless otherwise specified. The office directors shall hold office at the pleasure of the director and shall receive a salary as fixed by the director with the approval of the Department of Personnel Administration.

(b) All employees of the California State World Trade Commission, as created in the Governor's office by Chapter 1387 of the Statutes of 1986, who, on the operative date of this section, are serving on the commission staff, other than as temporary employees, shall be transferred to the California State World Trade Commission established in the Trade and Commerce Agency. In accordance with Section 19050.9, the status, positions, and rights of these persons shall not be affected by the transfer, and, except as to positions exempt from civil service, they shall be subject to state civil service.

(c) The State Personal Board shall authorize temporary appointment authority under Section 5 of Article VII of the California Constitution and Section 19059, and shall conduct examinations necessary to accomplish the prompt filling of employee positions in the California World Trade Commission. All persons employed by the California World Trade Commission on January 1, 1993, may participate in departmental promotional examinations for the California World Trade Commission for a period of one year following the enactment of this legislation.

SEC. 90. Section 15364.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15364.8. (a) There is hereby established the California State World Trade Commission Fund in the State Treasury, moneys for which shall be appropriated in the annual Budget Act. The fund shall consist also of private sector moneys as may be made available; federal funds, when available; state funds; and fees for services rendered, if levied.

The Controller shall disburse such moneys as is available in the fund, upon the request of the agency.

(b) The agency shall submit an annual budget, for inclusion in the Governor's Budget, showing funding from all sources.

(c) The agency shall have access to information and reports developed and maintained by state offices and departments pursuant to the State Records Management Act (Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 14740) of Part 5.5).

SEC. 91. Section 15364.20 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15364.20. There is hereby created in the California State World Trade Commission the Global Applied Technology Extension Service (GATES) to be headed by a manager or director designated by, and reporting to, the Director of the California State World Trade Commission.

SEC. 92. Section 15364.21 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15364.21. The service shall do all of the following consistent with federal law and national and state policy:

(a) Consult with and coordinate all state government agencies with duties pertaining to international matters, including, but not limited to, the California State World Trade Commission, the State Offices of Trade and Investment, the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, and the Department of Food and Agriculture, in order to implement the provisions of this article.

(b) Promote rapid global commercialization of California products and technologies by identifying and developing product and capital market linkages between California universities and colleges (including community colleges), private sector entities engaged in public/private partnerships with these universities and colleges, and their global private and public counterparts.

(c) Contribute to the development of immediate and long-term policy strategies, in close consultation with the California Council on Science and Technology, the President of the University of California, the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, and the Chancellor of the California State University, with attention to stimulating California's economy towards meeting economic adjustment needs and fulfilling California's yet untapped potential in the six areas of economic development as follows:

(1) Employment generation.
(2) Education and human resource development.
(3) Export development.
(4) Environmental remediation and preservation.
(5) Entrepreneurship.
(6) Equal access to knowledge.

(d) Facilitate global market access for California enterprises by studying the feasibility of, and coordinating the development of, a statewide interactive electronic data base and network utilizing appropriate technologies such as CD-ROM (compact disk-read only memory) and on-line, recording global market needs and resources identified through various state and other sources, and linking these needs with the needs and capabilities of subscribing California enterprises. In studying the feasibility of, and coordinating the development of, the data base and network, the service shall work closely with the President of the University of California, the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges, and the Chancellor of the California State University, and with other California public and private universities and colleges, state and federal government agencies, and industry, including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) The California Education Research and Federation Network headquartered at the San Diego Supercomputer Center, and affiliates, including the California Internet Federation, the Federation of American Research Networks, and the National Research and Education Network.

(2) The Automated Trade Lead System project of the California State World Trade Commission, in association with the California State University of Fresno.

(3) The Pacific Rim Commercial Exchange Project at the California State University at Sacramento.

(4) The MEMEX Institute at the California State University of Chico.

(5) The California Community Colleges ED-NET system.

(e) Promote access for California enterprises in emerging growth opportunities in developed and developing economies and assist California enterprises in benefiting from the growth of free market forces in developing nations' economies, including selected countries in Asia, Southern Africa, Central America, Latin America, the Caribbean, and Eastern Europe, by doing the following:

(1) Providing assistance and information to private enterprises in these countries, and, with the approval of the United States Secretary of State, to their governments, with the exception of the government of the Republic of South Africa.

(2) Providing support for and assisting, to the extent practicable, in soliciting private sector or other nonstate support and in-kind contributions on behalf of select teams of academicians, technical specialists, and professionals associated with California universities and colleges (including community colleges) for purposes of conducting extended stays and providing onsite technical assistance in regions and to entities indicated in paragraph (1). The service shall select teams on the merits of their ability to contribute to fulfilling the mandate of the service as stipulated in subdivisions (b) to (h), inclusive. While it is the intent of the Legislature that the selected teams be self-funding or funded by nonstate sources to the extent possible, the service may pay for travel expenses and increases in living expenses incurred by the teams. The service may also provide members of the teams with stipends for reports to the Legislature and Governor documenting the respective teams' contributions to fulfilling the mandate of the service.

(3) Providing technical assistance and information to California enterprises, leveraging existing public resources, and utilizing existing delivery systems, including, but not limited to, technical assistance and training networks such as the California Community Colleges Economic Development Network, among others.

(4) Identifying and acting as the intermediary between foreign entities and California-based enterprises with products and services reflecting low, intermediate, and advanced technology capabilities, including, but not limited to, the following disciplines: electronics, biosciences, environmental sciences, commodity and specialty agriculture, food processing, computer hardware and software, telecommunications, and other manufacturing sectors.

(f) Facilitate the transformation of the technological infrastructure of developing countries in order to generate demand for California exports, including California-based information services and technology-based products, among other related services and products, while meeting the needs of the peoples of developing countries in their pursuit of an improved quality of life.

(g) Coordinate and focus existing public and private entities in California towards developing technological collaborations with counterparts throughout the world, with particular attention to Europe, Japan, the newly industrialized countries of Asia, Australia and nearby nations, and Canada, in addition to developing countries, in order to facilitate the export of California-based information services and technology-based products among other related services and products.

(h) Develop immediate and long-term policy strategies regarding access to global markets for information services and technology-based products, among other related services and products, with attention to stimulating California's economy towards meeting economic adjustment needs and fulfilling California's yet untapped potential in the six areas of economic development specified in subdivision (c).

SEC. 93. Section 15364.22 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15364.22. The Director of the California State World Trade Commission and the director or manager of the service shall, in consultation with the Coordinating Council for International Programs created by the Governor's Executive Order No. D84-90, issued April 5, 1990, administer the Global Applied Technology Extension Service pursuant to this article, and shall fund development efforts for purposes of creating and integrating interactive data bases and networks as provided in this article.

SEC. 94. Section 15364.23 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15364.23. The Director of the California State World Trade Commission and the director or manager of the service shall consult with the Coordinating Council for International Programs as follows:

(a) To develop guidelines for the operation of the service including technical criteria to direct the nature of the assistance offered to private enterprises and their respective governments in accordance with subdivision (d) of Section 15364.21.

(b) Regarding disbursement of funds appropriated for purposes of the Global Applied Technology Extension Service.

SEC. 95. Section 15364.51 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15364.51. It is the intention of the Legislature in enacting this part to do all of the following:

(a) Reaffirm a commitment to the fostering of the economic activity inherent in tourism promotion as delineated as a mandate to the agency and to the Office of Tourism.

(b) To provide for an effective means of promoting and marketing the State of California as a destination for tourists on a worldwide basis, to provide the private sector with a more effective means of promoting tourism efforts and a forum for removing obstacles to overall tourism growth in order for California to remain competitive in the world tourism marketplace.

(c) Optimize the contribution of the tourism-related industries to the state's economic prosperity and to expand employment opportunities.

(d) Make the opportunity for, and benefits of, tourism in the state accessible to its residents and visitors and insure that present and future generations are afforded adequate tourism resources and attractions.

(e) Encourage the preservation and use of California historic and scenic environments to enhance the state's appeal as a destination for domestic and international tourism.

(f) Encourage California residents to take maximum advantage of travel and tourism opportunities within the State of California by enabling them to obtain accurate, timely, up-to-date travel and tourism information benefiting both urban and rural travelers in various regions of the state.

(g) Contribute to personal growth, health, education, and intercultural appreciation of the geography, history, arts, and ethnicity of the State of California.

(h) Encourage the free and welcome entry of individuals traveling to the state in order to enhance international understanding and goodwill, consistent with immigration laws, the laws protecting the public health, and laws governing the importation of goods into the United States and state law.

(i) Encourage investment in new tourism facilities and renovation of older facilities.

(j) Assist in the collection, analysis, and timely dissemination of data which accurately measure the economic and social impact of tourism to, and within, the state in order to facilitate planning in the public and private sectors.

(k) Harmonize, to the maximum extent possible, all state activities in support of tourism and recreation with the needs of the general public, local governments, and the private sector, and to give leadership to all concerned with tourism in California.

SEC. 96. Section 15364.52 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15364.52. (a) There is hereby created in state government a California Tourism Commission, located within the Department of Commerce, which shall consist of the Secretary of Trade and Commerce who shall serve as the chairperson of the commission; the Deputy Secretary of the Office of Tourism, who shall serve as vice chairperson of the commission and nine other members appointed as follows:

(1) Five members shall be appointed by the Governor who are able persons, professionally active in the tourism industry representing diverse segments of that industry.

(2) One Member of the Senate shall be appointed by the Senate Rules Committee and one Member of the Assembly shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly. These members shall be ex officio, nonvoting members of the commission.

(3) Two members, who are able persons professionally active in the tourism industry representing diverse segments of that industry, shall be appointed one each by the Senate Rules Committee and the Speaker of the Assembly.

(b) The Director of the Office of Tourism shall serve as secretary to the commission, and shall keep the minutes and records of all commission meetings and provide staff and whatever supportive services necessary to the activities of the commission.

(c) The commission shall meet quarterly and at other times and places as the chairperson may designate for the purpose of transacting the commission's business. Each commission member shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for traveling and other expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of duties.

(d) The commission shall, in cooperation with the Office of Tourism, the department, and the agency, adopt, and annually update, a tourism marketing plan for the State of California which includes both domestic and international tourism promotion. The plan shall, to the extent practical and feasible, do all of the following:

(1) Serve as a guide for effectuating the California Tourism Policy Act, within available resources.

(2) Include an assessment of the activities and accomplishments of the Office of Tourism.

(3) Outline the intended program of tourism promotion and visitor service activities for the oncoming year.

(4) Delineate the ways, means, and programs by which tourism shall be promoted, including any cost-effective marketing methods and techniques to be employed.

(5) Identify resources as are reasonably necessary, from all sources both public and private, to accomplish these promotion and marketing activities.

(6) Identify and articulate cooperative or shared cost programs, or opportunities for these ventures, with private entities.

(7) Identify licensing opportunities, including licensing agents.

(8) Contain other information, data, or recommendations which may be germane to the marketing efforts of California pursuant to the intent of this chapter.

(e) The commission, in cooperation with the Office of Tourism, may convene such committees consisting of qualified professionals and experts in various segments of the tourism industry as may be required to aid in the preparation of, or revision of, the marketing plan, or parts thereof, and as may from time to time be appropriate to further the purposes of this chapter.

(f) The commission shall work to the maximum extent practicable with those private associations, nonprofit corporations, organizations, or other private entities whose purpose includes the promotion of California tourism.

(g) Members of the California Tourism Commission and the staff of the Office of Tourism, when traveling to foreign countries or attending international travel trade shows, shall do so in cooperation with the California State World Trade Commission to preserve its ambassadorial function.

15365.2. The purposes of the California Office of Trade Policy and Research are the following:

(a) To support vigorous enforcement of trade laws against unfair foreign trade practices in United States markets, in the markets of offending countries, and in third-country markets.

(b) To encourage international negotiations to reduce and eliminate restrictive trade practices abroad, including quotas, tariffs, subsidies, nontariff barriers, and commercial counterfeiting.

(c) To participate in the development of international agreements which affect California's economic interests in cooperation with the Office of the United States Trade Representative.

(d) To respond to industry complaints concerning foreign trade barriers, and help represent their interests before appropriate agencies.

SEC. 106. Section 15365.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15365.8. The purpose of the California Office of Export Development is to strengthen the state's activities in marketing its agricultural, manufacturing, and service industries overseas. The office shall be responsible for conducting market research; disseminating trade leads; sponsoring trade delegations, missions, marts, seminars, and other appropriate promotional events. The office shall consult with the Department of Food and Agriculture on the promotion of agricultural commodities overseas.

SEC. 107. Section 15365.11 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 108. Section 15365.12 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15365.12. The office shall also do all of the following:

(a) Issue a biennial report for inclusion in the commission's biennial report required by Section 15364.7. The report shall include all of the following information:

(1) A list of the trade promotional activities and events in which the office has participated and descriptions of the nature of its participation.

(2) An accounting of its financial participation in trade promotion activities.

(3) An assessment of the export sales and other benefits that have accrued to the state as a result of the state's participation in these events.

(b) Submit, at least annually, to the World Trade Commission, a proposed program of trade promotional activities and events for the office. The commission shall have approval authority over the events in which the office proposes to participate, and may appoint a subcommittee or advisory group to assist the commission in determining the approved list of trade promotion events for the office.

(c) Coordinate its trade promotional activities with the Department of Food and Agriculture and the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission in order to avoid duplication of effort and to maximize the effectiveness of the state's participation in these events.

15367. The agency shall compile a comprehensive listing of all state licenses, permits, and registrations required of any person desiring to operate a business enterprise in California, except permits for a development project as defined in Section 65928.

The agency shall categorize the required permits, licenses, and registrations into a comprehensive handbook that is readily available to persons interested in establishing a business enterprise.

The handbook shall be as comprehensive as is practical and effective in order to provide a broad service to California citizens seeking to create or operate an enterprise which must comply with the wide range of California license, permit, and registration requirements, except in regard to permits for development projects as provided in Section 15367. To the extent possible, the handbook shall indicate state licenses, permits, or registrations required of a person interested in establishing an enterprise according to the type of enterprise.

The following information shall be indicated regarding each agency appearing in the handbook: the name of the agency; the address to which license, permit, or registration materials should be sent; and the phone number of the agency.

The handbook provided for in this section shall be completed by the agency and in use no later than July 1, 1980, and shall be updated by the agency to assure that the information provided reflects current requirements. The agency shall make the handbook available to public libraries, educational institutions, and the state and local agencies listed in the handbook.

The agency shall adopt the format for the handbook that it deems most appropriate to comply with the provisions of this chapter.

The agency shall charge a fee to cover the actual costs of publication and distribution of the handbook.

SEC. 115. Section 15371 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15371. Each state agency appearing in the handbook shall notify the agency within five days of a change in any of the information specified in the handbook.

SEC. 116. Section 15372 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15372. All state agencies shall cooperate with the agency in the compilation of license, permit, and registration requirements, and shall respond to requests by the agency for information in a timely manner.

SEC. 117. Section 15372.10 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15372.10. The Legislature expressly recognizes that it is in the state's interest to continue to register dry cleaning plants with a state agency. It is the intent of the Legislature that nothing in this chapter be construed to affect any existing statutes or regulations relating to the handling, storage, or disposal of toxic chemicals, or to impede the vesting of existing jurisdiction over dry cleaning plants by the appropriate agency of state government. The Legislature also understands that this chapter will be implemented by the agency solely as a registration requirement, and that the agency has no staff or expertise in the area of regulatory enforcement.

Further, it is the intent of the Legislature to give due consideration in the future to the enactment of a system of private industry certification as a possible alternative to complete deregulation in this field.

SEC. 118. Section 15372.11 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15372.11. As used in this chapter "dry cleaning plant" includes any premises, building, room, or establishment commonly known in the trade as a cleaning plant or cleaning and dyeing plant, equipped to perform the service of dry cleaning by immersion and agitation, or immersion only, in a volatile, commercially moisture-free solvent, and including self-service or coin-operated equipment in whole or in part.

SEC. 119. Section 15372.13 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15372.13. (a) A registration issued under this chapter expires two years from the date of issuance. To renew a registration, the registrant shall, on or before the date on which the registration would otherwise expire, apply for renewal on a form prescribed by the agency, and pay the prescribed renewal fee. If the registration is not renewed before its expiration, a delinquency fee may be added to the renewal fee. The delinquency fee shall be fifty dollars ($50).

(b) The agency shall establish registration periods and renewal dates for registrations issued under this chapter in such manner as best to distribute the renewal work throughout each year and permit the most efficient and economical use of personnel and equipment. To the extent practicable, provision shall be made for the proration of other adjustment of fees.

SEC. 120. Section 15372.15 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15372.15. The agency is responsible solely for the maintenance and compilation of the registration list pursuant to Section 15372.12. The agency shall not be responsible for responding to consumer complaints or disputes related to dry cleaning operations.

SEC. 121. Section 15372.16 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15372.16. (a) The agency shall require that all registrants maintain a surety bond in the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or post security in the form of a bearer bond issued by the United States or the State of California in the amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or post five thousand dollars ($5,000) in cash, unless, after a determination as hereinafter provided, the bond or security is waived. A surety bond shall be duly executed by an admitted surety insurer, shall be continuous in form, shall be in favor of the people of the State of California, and the total aggregate liability on the bond shall in no event exceed the face amount thereof.

The surety bond shall be conditioned that the principal shall and will be liable for fraud and for all claims for damaged articles of clothing of persons with whom the registrant may deal as a registrant.

(b) Payments which are to be made from any security or pursuant to any bond which is required by this section shall be limited to payments of claims which have been approved by the final decision of a court.

(c) Any person injured by the breach of any condition, for which the bond is given to secure, shall have a cause of action upon the bond in any court of competent jurisdiction to recover his or her damages not in excess of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) suffered by reason of that breach. The aggregate liability of the surety to all such persons shall not, however, exceed the sum of the bond.

(d) Bonds pursuant to this chapter shall remain in full force and effect until the surety has terminated future liability by 30-day written notice to the agency.

(e) In lieu of furnishing the bond required by this section, licensees may deposit with the agency a bearer bond or bearer bonds having a market value of five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more, and the deposit shall be permitted to receive annually any interest payable on such bond.

(f) The agency shall waive the filing of the security or bond upon application and proof, as evidenced by a financial statement certified by a certified public accountant, that a third party has a net worth of at least one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) and that the registrant's financial responsibility is guaranteed by that third party.

The guaranty shall be on a form provided by the agency.

SEC. 122. Section 15372.17 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15372.17. The agency may require the submission of any other additional information deemed necessary for registration. Additional registration information may include, but is not limited to, written certification to ensure compliance with the surety bond requirement, the types of chemicals used in all processes of the plant, and the current methods used by the plant for treatment or disposal of these chemicals.

SEC. 123. Section 15372.18 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15372.18. A registration issued under this chapter shall not be transferable to any other person or entity. A registration ceases to be valid upon change of ownership, change of corporate officers, or change of business location, in which event a new registration and fee shall be filed with the agency. All information provided on the registration form shall be subject to the provisions of the Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of the Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code).

SEC. 124. Section 15372.19 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15372.19. The secretary shall, by regulation, fix the registration and biennial renewal fees in an amount not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) nor more than seventy-five dollars ($75). The fees shall be fixed in an amount sufficient to cover the costs of administering the registration requirements of this chapter, the actual cost of developing and maintaining a registration list, as well as the promotion of environmental and business loan programs and technical assistance programs related to this industry. All funds remaining in the Dry Cleaning Account in the Bureau of Home Furnishings Fund on January 1, 1993, shall be transferred to the Dry Cleaning Fund within the agency, which is hereby created. All fees collected by the agency pursuant to this chapter shall be deposited in the Dry Cleaning Fund, and shall be used solely by the agency for program support. Notwithstanding Section 13340, all moneys in the Dry Cleaning Fund are continuously appropriated to the agency for carrying out this chapter.

SEC. 125. Section 15372.21 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15372.21. The agency shall adopt regulations to implement this chapter. The agency shall adopt these regulations as emergency regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and for purposes of that chapter, including Section 11349.6, the adoption of the regulations shall be considered by the Office of Administrative Law to be necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and general welfare, and notwithstanding subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1, the regulations shall be repealed within 180 days after their effective date, unless the agency complies with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 as provided in subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1 of the Government Code.

SEC. 126. Section 15373.07 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15373.07. The agency shall adopt regulations necessary to implement and make specific Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 15373.51) and Article 5.5 (commencing with Section 15373.91) as emergency regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3, and for purposes of that chapter, including Section 11349.6, the adoption of the regulations shall be considered by the Office of Administrative Law to be necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and general welfare. Notwithstanding subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1, the regulations shall be repealed within 180 days after their effective date unless the agency complies with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1.

SEC. 127. Section 15373.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15373.1. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions in this section govern the construction of this chapter.

(a) "County" means either of the following:

(1) A county with both 200,000 or less in population according to the 1980 Federal Census and an average annual unemployment rate equal to or greater than the state's 1984 annual average unemployment rate as determined by the Employment Development Department.

(2) A county with both 600,000 or less in population according to the 1980 Federal Census and an average annual unemployment rate of 130 percent or greater than the state's 1984 annual average unemployment rate as determined by the Employment Development Department.

(b) "Fund" means the Rural Economic Development Fund.

(c) "Local agency" means any of the following:

(1) A county as defined in subdivision (a).

(2) Any city within a county as defined in subdivision (a).

(3) A county that is not defined in subdivision (a) or a city which is outside of an urbanized area as designated by the United States Bureau of the Census from the 1980 Federal Census and which is within that county.

(d) "Panel" means the Rural Economic Development Infrastructure Panel.

SEC. 128. Section 15373.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15373.2. (a) In order to carry out this chapter, there is hereby created in the State Treasury the Rural Economic Development Fund.

(b) The fund shall receive state funds appropriated to it, repayment of loans and interest on those loans pursuant to this chapter, interest which accrues to the moneys in the fund pursuant to subdivision (c), fees or charges pursuant to subdivision (d), and penalties prescribed by the panel.

(c) (1) The Treasurer shall invest moneys contained in the fund not needed to meet current obligations in the same manner as other public funds are invested. The moneys resulting from this investment shall be used to support the three rural small business assistance and development centers previously established through the agency and the Employment Development Department. The agency shall grant these interest moneys to the centers upon request to provide for the continued operation of the centers.

(2) If sufficient interest moneys are not available at a time when the centers require additional funds, the agency shall lend the centers necessary funds from the Rural Economic Development Fund, if the expected interest earnings from the fund will repay the loans. Funds received under this subdivision shall not be considered when the agency reviews and approves applications pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 15397.3). Each center shall receive a maximum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) each fiscal year.

(3) Interest earnings in excess of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) per fiscal year shall be available for expenditure by the agency pursuant to this chapter. The expenditures of these interest earnings in excess of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) shall include the costs associated with the provision of ongoing legal counsel to the Infrastructure Review Panel, created pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 15373.6) and reimbursement of expenses incurred by designated panel members while in the conduct of official panel business. The interest earnings in excess of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) may also be used by the agency for administrative support and local assistance costs of activities consistent with the purposes of this chapter.

(4) In addition to centers specified in paragraph (1), centers which are located in a county subject to this chapter may also be funded from interest earnings in an amount not to exceed two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) annually for all additional centers, if there are sufficient funds available after support is provided for the three existing rural centers, and after the funding of other priorities established by this chapter.

(5) If sufficient interest earnings are available after support is provided to centers specified in paragraphs (1) and (4), and to other priorities established by this chapter, an amount not to exceed seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) annually may be used for support of the California Main Street Program (Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 15399)). Services rendered as a result of this increased support shall be targeted for Main Street Demonstration and Self-Initiated Cities in counties subject to this

chapter.

(d) In order to defray costs to the agency for administration of Article 5 (commencing with Section 15373.6), the agency may impose reasonable charges on all applications, and approved loans. The agency may use these fees or other charges for those costs necessary to protect the state's position as a lender-creditor. These costs include, but are not limited to, foreclosure expenses, auction fees, title searches, appraisals, real estate brokerage fees, removal and storage for repossessed equipment and inventory, and additional expenditures to purchase a senior lien in foreclosure or bankruptcy proceedings.

(e) Notwithstanding Section 13340, all moneys in the fund are continuously appropriated to, and shall remain available for expenditure by, the agency for the purposes of this chapter only until July 1, 1994, and on that date any remaining funds shall revert to the Special Account for Capital Outlay.

(f) Unless deemed appropriate by the local agency, no money in the fund shall be used in lieu of any existing state infrastructure financing program, including, but not limited to, the State Transportation Improvement Program or the Clean Water Bond Program.

SEC. 129. Section 15373.25 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15373.25. The agency shall be responsible for all of the following:

(a) Providing comprehensive technical and financial assistance to rural-based local public, private, and nonprofit agencies in order to facilitate the planning and implementation of rural economic development projects.

(b) Coordinating state and federal economic development programs on behalf of rural agencies to ensure that the needs of rural California are adequately and effectively addressed. To the extent possible, the agency shall endeavor to serve as the single source for rural agencies seeking economic development assistance from the state.

(c) Administering the economic development programs established pursuant to this chapter.

(d) Serving as a clearinghouse of information on available state and federal programs which may be of assistance to improving job opportunities and general economic conditions in rural California.

(e) Report, as a part of the annual report required under subdivision (e) of Section 15323, its activities pursuant to this chapter. This report shall include a list of applications received for funding under Article 4 (commencing with Section 15373.3) and Article 5 (commencing with Section 15373.6), a list of approved applications, a summary of actual revenues and expenditures for the preceding fiscal year, and an estimate of the revenues and expenditures for the coming fiscal year. The report shall also include an evaluation of the success of the promotion and infrastructure programs including, but not limited to, information on the number of jobs created, businesses attracted, and tax revenues generated. The report shall also include an accounting of the percentage of rural economic promotion program grants awarded under this chapter to rural tourism organizations.

SEC. 130. Section 15373.3 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 131. Section 15373.4 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 132. Section 15373.5 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 133. Section 15373.51 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15373.51. (a) There is hereby established within the agency the Rural Economic Development Grant Program. Grants shall be made from the Rural Economic Development Fund, and in any fiscal year shall total not more than the lesser of 10 percent of the balance of the fund or seven hundred thousand dollars ($700,000).

(b) The purpose of the program is to encourage economic development, including tourism promotion and business attraction and retention activities.

(c) Eligible applicants shall be local agencies, as defined in this chapter, or other public agencies or nonprofit organizations principally involved in economic development or tourism promotion.

SEC. 134. Section 15373.52 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15373.52. (a) Eligible applicants shall submit grant proposals to the agency's Office of Local Development. The director of the office shall approve or deny all applications within 45 days after the grant application is deemed complete by the agency.

(b) Grant funds shall be used to fund projects which lead to both of the following:

(1) Retention or creation of permanent jobs.

(2) Increased local tax revenue.

SEC. 135. Section 15373.53 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15373.53. (a) Grant awards shall range from twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) to fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) and shall be awarded to applicants on a competitive basis.

(b) The highest priority shall be given to projects which lead to the most employment and tax revenue. In calculating tax revenue and employment, the agency shall take into consideration the size and economic distress of the locality.

(c) Priority shall be given to applications which accomplish one or more of the following:

(1) Effectively identify and address significant economic needs within the local economy.

(2) Facilitate a specific business development project leading to the creation of permanent private sector jobs.

(3) Support community-specific or industry-specific business retention or expansion efforts.

(4) Promote a regional business or tourism development activity.

(5) Encourage public-private cooperative efforts in economic development.

SEC. 136. Section 15373.54 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15373.54. (a) Eligible uses for grant funds shall be all of the following:

(1) Promotion and advertising of economic development and tourism.

(2) Staffing and operating costs of local economic development programs.

(3) Data collection, site inventories, and brochure development and printing.

(4) Market studies, project feasibility studies, and local economic development strategic plans.

(5) Other direct job creation and retention activities.

(b) Counties shall not use more than 15 percent of the grant for administrative costs.

(c) Grant funds shall not be expended for any of the following:

(1) Any promotional effort of activity which is derogatory or detrimental to any other area of the state.

(2) Any activity which would effect the relocation of any substantial operations of a company from one area of the state to another, or in the abandonment of any substantial operations of a company within other areas of the state.

SEC. 137. Section 15373.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15373.7. (a) The program shall be guided by the Rural Economic Development Infrastructure Panel, which is hereby created. The panel shall consist of the secretary, who shall serve as chairperson, the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency, and the Director of the Office of Local Government Affairs in the Governor's Office of Planning and Research. In addition, the panel shall consist of two public members with expertise in the economic development of rural areas. One public member shall be appointed by the Senate Rules Committee and the other shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly.

(b) The panel shall do all of the following:

(1) Establish guidelines and rules to carry out the purposes of this article. This shall include establishing criteria for projects in addition to those specified in this article.

(2) Request assistance and information from any department, division, board, commission, or other agency of the state as the panel may need to carry out the purposes of this article.

(3) Prepare and promulgate regulations to carry out the purposes of this article.

(4) Adopt bylaws for the regulation of its affairs and conduct of its business.

SEC. 138. Section 15373.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15373.8. (a) (1) The panel shall meet regularly to conduct its business and to review and approve projects pursuant to this article for funding from the Rural Economic Development Fund. The panel shall make a decision on any application within 90 days after a local agency submits the application to the department. This financing shall be in the form of loans and grants.

(A) Loans shall be limited to a maximum of one million dollars ($1,000,000) per project. The terms of any approved loan shall be specified in a loan agreement between the local agency and the panel. Repayment of loans shall begin within nine months of the date of the loan and shall be made semiannually. Each loan shall be for a term not to exceed 15 years from the date of loan disbursement. The local agency shall pay interest at a rate specified in the loan agreement which shall not exceed 2 percent less than the rate earned by the state Surplus Money Investment Fund. Penalties, if established by the panel, shall be uniformly applied. Any loan or grant approved for a local agency shall not be considered debt within the meaning of Section 18 of Article XVI of the California Constitution.

(B) Grants shall be limited to two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) per project and shall be made only if a local agency demonstrates an inability to repay a loan or similar extraordinary circumstances. In no event shall more than 20 percent of the available moneys in the fund in any fiscal year be allocated as grants for purposes of funding projects under this section.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), a local agency which submits an application pursuant to Section 15373.9 may, at the time the application is submitted, request the panel to approve a loan amount, term, interest rate, beginning payment, or frequency of repayment which differs from the requirements of paragraph (1). The panel may approve the request or may change and approve the request only if all of the following exist:

(A) The local agency provides sufficient documentation to the panel that the local agency or special district responsible for repaying the loan will be unable to repay a loan under the conditions specified in paragraph (1).

(B) The loan is equal to or less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) or the loan is for more than one million dollars ($1,000,000) and the local agency provides sufficient documentation of special circumstances.

(3) The panel shall not approve a loan in an amount of more than two million dollars ($2,000,000), nor shall it approve a loan which provides for an indefinite deferral of the repayment of principal and interest, or for a term for more than 50 years. The panel shall make a decision on any request made pursuant to paragraph (2) at the time the panel makes a decision on the loan application.

(b) Loans and grants may be made to a local agency for projects which meet the criteria specified in Section 15373.9, for the purpose of assisting in financing public improvements, including, but not limited to, sewer and water facilities, streets, storm drains, bridges, and related costs, such as engineering design. Funds may be used for the development of new facilities, or the rehabilitation, alteration, expansion, or improvement of existing facilities.

(c) Preliminary design work, including a cost estimate for the project, shall be completed before a loan or grant is awarded. Costs for preliminary design work, project cost estimates, planning, preliminary engineering, and other costs necessary for preparation of the application may be reimbursed from a loan or grant, subject to approval by the panel.

(d) Any county which does not meet the definition of a county provided for under subdivision (a) of Section 15373.1 may apply for a loan or grant under this article only with respect to an unincorporated area outside of an urbanized area as designated by the United States Bureau of the Census from the 1980 Federal Census.

(e) Projects financed under this article shall meet all of the following requirements:

(1) Be associated with either an expansion, retention, relocation, or new location of an identified private sector firm. This firm shall be a manufacturing, service, research and development, production, assembly, warehousing, or industrial distribution facility. Commercial business activity, as well as tourist and recreation facilities, which are found by the panel to significantly increase permanent private sector employment and substantially improve the economic prosperity of an area may also qualify the project.

(2) Directly lead to the creation or retention of permanent private sector jobs within the applicant's jurisdictional boundaries. Projects shall also create at least one full-time job for every fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) in loan funds received except in the case of research and development facilities in which the economic job creation standard shall be set by the panel.

(f) Loans and grants may also be made, pursuant to this article and under criteria established by the agency, to local agencies in high unemployment areas to develop infrastructure for industrial parks or other sites for businesses where there is no specific business already committed to the project, when the agency determines that there is little likelihood of business expansion into the community prior to the development of the parks or sites, and that the loan or grant has a high probability of leading to the creation or retention of permanent private sector jobs within the applicant's jurisdictional boundaries. The loan or grant cannot exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000). Notwithstanding subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of this section, repayment of any loan directed towards a specific business expansion, retention, relocation, or new location shall begin when the industrial park or other development has enough occupancy to produce adequate revenues for repayment. The amount and the timing of the repayment shall be specified in the loan agreement between the local agency and the panel.

(g) Priority shall be given to those projects which create jobs in communities with particularly high levels of unemployment and declining resource-based economics. Consideration shall be given to other community factors in awarding loans and grants, including, but not limited to, those communities which are facing local government fiscal crises, a high poverty rate, or which exhibit an active commitment to diversifying and expanding their economic base. To the extent possible, loans and grants shall be equitably distributed throughout the various rural regions of the state.

(h) Financing shall not be provided for projects which would result in increased production or availability of goods, materials, or services where sufficient capacity exists in the community to meet current and future demands.

(i) Loans or grants may not finance projects which would either affect the relocation of any substantial operations of the company from one area of the state to another, or result in the abandonment of any substantial operations of the company within other areas of the state, unless completion of the project or operation of the facility is reasonably necessary to prevent the relocation of any substantial operations of the company from an area within the state to an area outside the state.

(j) The proceeds of repayment of loan principal and the payment of interest prior to July 1, 1994, shall be deposited in the fund. The proceeds of repayment of loan principal and the payment of interest on and after July 1, 1994, shall be deposited in the Special Account for Capital Outlay.

SEC. 139. Section 15373.9 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15373.9. A local agency may submit an application to the agency for loan or grant funds pursuant to this article. A local agency may submit an application on behalf of a special district. Any application shall include information concerning the project which shall do all of the following:

(a) Demonstrate community need for economic development.

(b) Demonstrate financial need for state assistance.

(c) Demonstrate financial source of loan repayment and interest.

(d) Provide evidence of firm financial commitment on the part of the business or enterprise associated with the project.

(e) Provide evidence of site control, including any leases, easements, covenants, or encumbrances which may affect the project.

(f) Demonstrate that the applicant has the ability to administer the project and state assistance requirements.

(g) Demonstrate that the project is consistent with a city, county, or city and county general plan.

(h) Demonstrate that the project will comply with the California Environmental Quality Act as set forth in Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 140. Section 15373.91 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15373.91. There is hereby established within the agency the Rural Revolving Loan Program.

SEC. 141. Section 15373.92 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15373.92. (a) The purpose of the program is to provide fully collateralized loans to encourage the expansion, new location, and retention of existing businesses within rural areas of the state.

(b) Eligible applicants shall be forprofit small businesses.

(c) Eligible projects shall consist of manufacturing, warehousing, or product distribution, and shall be located within the jurisdiction of a local agency.

(d) Loan funds shall only be used for any or all of the following:

(1) Acquisition of real property.

(2) Take-out financing for the construction or rehabilitation of a structure owned and occupied by the borrower.

(3) Purchase of machinery and equipment by the borrower to be used solely at the project location.

(e) The loan amounts shall range from fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) to three hundred fifty thousand dollars ($350,000). The term of the loan shall be 20 years for the financing of real property or structures, and seven years for the financing of machinery or equipment. The interest rate for loans shall be set at the rate earned by the state Surplus Money Investment Fund at the time of the loan commitment.

(f) Collateral for 20-year loans shall include, at a minimum, a deed of trust on the real property financed. Collateral for seven-year loans shall include, at a minimum, a first security interest on all equipment and machinery purchased with loan funds.

(g) Applicants must demonstrate, within two years of the date that the loan agreement is executed, that the project will result in a minimum of one full-time permanent job for every twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) of loan funds. The agency shall stipulate in the loan agreement that failure to meet this condition may result in the calling due of the loan.

(h) The agency may assess a loan fee. The fee shall be deposited in the Rural Revolving Loan Collection Account.

SEC. 142. Section 15373.93 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15373.93. The agency shall finance no more than one-third the cost of any project. Each borrower shall be required to pay a minimum of 10 percent of the project costs from its own funds. The remaining funds shall be provided by a financial institution chartered by a state or federal governmental entity.

SEC. 143. Section 15373.94 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15373.94. As part of the application form developed for this program, the agency shall provide a list of financial and legal documents necessary to demonstrate the applicant's ability to repay and collateralize the loan. The agency may also request additional financial and legal documents not provided on the list from individual applicants, and the application shall not be deemed complete until the applicant has provided all additional information requested by the agency.

SEC. 144. Section 15373.95 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15373.95. (a) Loan applications reviewed by the agency shall be reviewed by a loan committee, appointed by the secretary, consisting of the Director of the Office of Local Development, an additional member from the agency, two members employed by financial institutions with expertise in evaluating loan proposals, and one local economic development professional with expertise in small business lending. This committee shall then approve or deny the loan request.

(b) Applicants shall receive a final funding decision within 45 days after the loan application is deemed complete by the agency.

SEC. 145. Section 15373.955 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15373.955. (a) There is hereby created in the Rural Economic Development Fund the Rural Revolving Loan Collection Account. The Rural Revolving Loan Collection Account is created solely for the purpose of receiving charges, fees, income, and collections, and paying costs necessary to protect the state's interests as specified in subdivision (c).

(b) In order to defray costs to the agency for administration of its rural revolving loan program, the agency may do all of the following:

(1) Impose reasonable charges on all applications, approved grants, and approved loans.

(2) Recover collection costs from the borrower, grantee, or other party.

(3) Earn income on any asset recovered pursuant to a loan default.

(c) The agency may use these fees or other charges for those costs necessary to protect the state's position as a lender-creditor. These costs shall be broadly construed to include, but are not limited to, foreclosure expenses, auction fees, title searches, appraisals, real estate brokerage fees, attorney fees, mortgage payments, insurance payments, utility costs, repair costs, removal and storage costs for repossessed equipment and inventory, and additional expenditures to purchase a senior lien in foreclosure or bankruptcy proceedings.

(d) In the event that collection costs exceed the funds available in the Rural Revolving Loan Collection Account, the agency may pay collection costs from the funds in the Rural Economic Development Fund.

SEC. 146. Section 15373.96 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15373.96. There is hereby established within the agency, the Rural Emergency Assistance Housing Infrastructure Program. Under the program, grants shall be made from the Rural Economic Development Fund to "local agencies" as defined by this chapter which have received designation as federal disaster assistance areas. Grant funds shall be used for the purpose of financing public improvements (infrastructure) necessary to serve emergency or temporary housing units, the location or designation of which has been made necessary by a natural disaster.

SEC. 147. Section 15373.97 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15373.97. Eligible applicants shall submit proposals for funding to the Office of Local Development of the agency. Proposals shall specifically describe the public improvements proposed for grant funding and shall additionally include the best available estimate of costs for the improvements. Grant applications shall further include a resolution of support by the local agency's governing body.

SEC. 148. Section 15373.98 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15373.98. The Office of Local Development shall prepare a staff recommendation on all proposals and shall submit these recommendations to the secretary and the Director of the Department of Housing and Community Development. The director and secretary shall make all final funding decisions under this article. All applications for grant funding shall either be approved or denied within 30 days after an application has been found complete by the Office of Local Development.

SEC. 149. Section 15379 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15379. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) California companies must compete in world markets against foreign manufacturers who are supported in technology development by their national governments.

(b) Companies in this state, as well as throughout the United States, are losing markets for manufactured goods, yet America has led the world in basic research.

(c) To retain California manufacturing and service jobs and maintain our industrial competitiveness, California must make use of its universities and national laboratories for solutions to technological problems. California has the benefit of unique federal laboratories, such as Lawrence Berkeley Laboratory, Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory, Jet Propulsion Laboratory, Ames Research Center, and Stanford Linear Accelerator Center, and world renowned universities such as the University of California, Stanford University, the California Institute of Technology, and the University of Southern California to draw upon for this purpose.

(d) The state should facilitate, promote, and enhance technology transfer programs which will make the unparalleled resources of our universities and national laboratories available to private industry, and ultimately into the marketplace.

(e) The state should support collaborative research projects, involving the state, academia, and private industry, which have been carefully screened and offer a likely return on the state's investment. The agency should identify and facilitate collaborative research projects which may solve critical industry and environmental problems.

SEC. 150. Section 15379.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15379.1. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions in this section govern the construction of this chapter.

(a) "Collaborative research" means technological or scientific research that accelerates existing research towards the commercialization of products, processes, and services, and is conducted jointly or funded jointly by some or all of the following:

(1) The private sector, including intra-industry groups, California-based private foundations, industry associations, and nonprofit cooperative associations.

(2) The federal government.

(3) The state.

(4) Public or private universities, colleges, and laboratories.

(b) "Program" means the California Competitive Technology Program.

(c) "Technology transfer" means the movement of the results of basic or applied technological or scientific research to the design, development, and production of new or improved products, services, or processes.

(d) "Consortia" means jointly funded or jointly operated nonprofit independent research and development organizations. "Consortia development" means the establishment of consortia to manage and fund a variety of technology transfer projects within a specific technology or industry priority.

(e) "Industry association" is a nonprofit organization with a substantial presence in California whose membership consists in whole or in part of California-based companies, and whose funding is derived in whole or in part from California-based companies.

(f) "Nonprofit cooperative association" means an association, organized and operating pursuant to either Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code or Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code.

(g) "California-based foundation" means an organization defined in the Internal Revenue Code as a private foundation, which is incorporated in, and primarily conducts its activities within, the state and receives funding in whole or in substantial part from California-based companies.

SEC. 151. Section 15379.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15379.3. (a) There is within the agency the California Competitive Technology Program to provide grants to technology transfer projects. The agency may fund a variety of technology transfer projects, including, but not limited to, the following: access to ongoing research and research findings, exchange or transfer of personnel, research support services, including capital outlay, consortia development, and collaborative research.

(b) The agency shall fund projects that include, but are not limited to, environmental improvement, energy development, advanced materials, automated manufacturing, biotechnology, optoelectronics, manufacturing technologies, medical technologies, electronics, computer science, software, robotics, and superconductivity.

(c) The agency shall award grants based upon a competitive application process addressing the project's eligibility and ability to fulfill the goals of the program. This process shall include:

(1) An eligibility screening.

(2) A proposal review which shall include a peer review of the proposal's scientific and technological aspects.

The request for application may include categories of technologies, programs, or industries for project funding. The agency shall periodically determine and update the categories of technologies, programs, and industries based upon advice from the Competitive Technology Advisory Committee. The request for application may also indicate the allocation of grant funds between the categories of technologies, programs, and industries.

(d) The agency may award grants for a multiyear period of time not to exceed five years. Funds for the second and subsequent years of a multiyear grant shall be contingent upon satisfactory completion by the grantee of the prior year grant.

(e) Grant funds awarded for consortia development projects may be used to fund third-party projects upon compliance with all of the following provisions:

(1) The projects are within one or more specified technology or industry priorities.

(2) The agency has approved the process used for selecting the projects.

(3) The entity conducting the project is a public agency or a not-for-profit or nonprofit organization.

SEC. 152. Section 15379.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15379.5. In awarding grants, the agency shall consider the following:

(a) The likelihood of commercialization of a product, service, or process.

(b) The potential impact on the state's economy.

(c) The cost-effectiveness of the project.

(d) The importance of state funding for the viability of the project.

(e) Cost sharing by other participants.

(f) Inclusion within the categories of technology and industries as determined as priorities pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 15379.3.

(g) The involvement of small businesses and minority- and women-owned businesses.

(h) Other criteria that the agency determines are consistent with the purposes of the program.

SEC. 153. Section 15379.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15379.8. The agency may obtain scientific and technological expertise as needed to provide advice and input on the program, the establishment of program priorities and categories, the review of grant applications, and the review of project performance.

SEC. 154. Section 15379.9 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15379.9. The agency shall adopt regulations to implement this chapter. The agency shall adopt these regulations as emergency regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1, and for purposes of that chapter, including Section 11349.6, the adoption of the regulations shall be considered by the Office of Administrative Law to be necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and general welfare. Notwithstanding subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1, the regulations shall be repealed within 180 days after their effective date, unless the agency complies with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 as provided in (e) of Section 11346.1.

SEC. 155. Section 15379.10 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15379.10. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 15379.3, 15379.4, 15379.45, and 15379.5, and the regulations implementing this chapter, the secretary may award discretionary technology transfer grants totaling not more than 5 percent or one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), whichever is greater, of the funds appropriated each year for this program.

(b) Notwithstanding Sections 15379.3, 15379.4, 15379.45, 15379.5, and subdivision (a) of this section, the secretary may award up to 15 percent of the funds appropriated for a given fiscal year for consortia development projects which do not have private sector match but will have private sector match within six months from the date of the award of funding. For purposes of this subdivision, "private sector match" means a cash or in-kind contribution available for expenditure or use to a consortium development project. If, after six months, no private sector match is available, funding under the program shall cease and all moneys previously received shall be returned to the state.

SEC. 156. Section 15379.11 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15379.11. (a) In order to carry out the provisions of this chapter, there is hereby created in the State Treasury the California Competitive Technology Fund.

(b) The fund shall receive state funds appropriated to it, contributions from nonstate sources, reimbursements, federal funds, and interest which accrues to the moneys in the fund pursuant to subdivision (c).

(c) The Treasurer shall invest moneys contained in the fund not needed to meet current obligations in the same manner as other public funds are invested.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 13340, all moneys in the fund are continuously appropriated without regard to fiscal years to the agency for the purposes of this chapter, Sections 15333.5 and 15333.6, and for the purposes for which moneys were provided. Except for state funds appropriated to, or transferred into, the fund for local assistance, moneys in the fund, including all interest, may be spent for support.

SEC. 157. Section 15379.12 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15379.12. The agency shall report on this program in its annual report as required by subdivision (e) of Section 15323.

SEC. 158. Section 15379.13 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 159. Section 15382 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15382. For the purposes of this chapter:

(a) "SBDC" means a Small Business Development Center which is the local service delivery unit.

(b) "SBDC Plan" means the plan prepared by the agency.

SEC. 160. Section 15383 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15383. (a) There is hereby created within the agency, in the Office of Small Business, a California Small Business Development Center Program which shall operate according to a statewide plan developed by the department.

The plan shall describe the objectives of the program, the purpose of the centers, the geographical distribution of the centers based on need, the services to be provided to small businesses, the timetable for the operation of the center, how services will be delivered to the small business community, budget and cost considerations, and public and private financial support.

(b) The plan shall also describe how the SBDC will provide at least all of the following:

(1) Referrals and dissemination of information regarding such topics as legal requirements for starting a business, public and private financing opportunities, local business development profiles, site inventory, and listing of professional service providers.

(2) Specialized one-on-one counseling and technical assistance in the areas of business planning and management, financing, and marketing for small business with the greatest potential for job retention and creation.

(3) Regional workshops and conferences in cooperation with the department and local "how to" workshops, courses and seminars with local cosponsors such as community colleges, federal Minority Business Development Agency grantees, federal Small Business Administration, and Chambers of Commerce.

(4) Coordination with employee training and placement programs.

(5) Services whereby small businesses can be linked to research and development institutions for the purposes of transferring new technology to a new or expanding small business.

(6) Information on, and promotion of, small business incubators. As used in this subdivision, small business incubators means facilities that allow new small businesses to increase their probability of success by sharing needed capital equipment, services, and facilities. Information on small business incubators shall include:

(A) Methods of funding without the expenditure of state tax dollars.

(B) Other possible sources of funds.

SEC. 161. Section 15384 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15384. (a) The agency shall establish SBDCs according to the SBDC Plan.

(b) The three designated SBDCs which are funded pursuant to Section 15373.2 shall be subject to the statewide SBDC plan as described in this chapter.

(c) The services to be provided by the SBDC may be performed by independent contractors, private nonprofit corporations, public institutions, and local governments. Contracts shall be awarded on a competitive basis by a request for proposal process. Each SBDC shall include in its organization, but is not limited to, the following components:

(1) Advisory board or board of directors comprised of six or more members who will establish general policies and market the program. The board shall consist of at least one representative from each of the following groups: small business, finance, Chambers of Commerce, education, and government.

(2) Staff of the SBDC shall include a least one full-time professional business counselor and one full-time administrative assistant.

(3) Participation agreements with private individuals and firms to provide professional services either pro bono or at a reduced fee. Examples of participants include accountants, loan packagers, attorneys, business counselors, and economic development specialists.

(4) Cooperative agreements with private nonprofit corporations, public institutions, and local jurisdictions who shall coordinate services such as information dissemination, counseling and technical assistance, job training and placement, and special projects such as "how to" workshops for individuals starting businesses, technology transfer, government procurement, innovative research, and international trade.

Examples of participants include Minority Business Development Agency (MBDA) grantees, Regional Small Business Development Corporations, Small Business Administration, Service Core of Retired Executives (SCORE), California Community Colleges and State Universities, Small Business Institutes (SBI), local job training and placement agencies, California Office of Small and Minority Business, local economic development programs, redevelopment agencies, and coordinators of state enterprise zones, employment incentive areas and main street projects, and projects of the California Certified Development Corporation.

SEC. 162. Section 15385 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15385. (a) SBDC grants shall be awarded by the agency on a three-year cycle. All grantees shall be required to provide a minimum cash match of the total grant as specified in the SBDC plan. The percentage of cash match required shall be a minimum of 5 percent in the first year, not to exceed 25 percent in the third year.

(b) Extension of grants to the second and third years shall be based on the SBDC successfully meeting performance milestones during the previous funded year, as outlined in their grant contract.

(c) Grantees may be eligible to compete for a second three-year term. However, those grantees shall be required to provide a minimum of 15 percent cash match of the total grant amount each year during the second grant cycle.

(d) In order to reduce cost to the state, the agency may pursue funds from the federal Small Business Administration SBDC program.

(e) SBDCs may institute a policy for charging reasonable fees for services.

(f) SBDCs shall be required to submit quarterly progress reports to the agency.

(g) The agency may review and approve the expenditures of funds to ensure conformity with the provisions and intent of this chapter.

SEC. 163. Section 15386 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15386. The program shall have a director, who shall be appointed by the Governor upon recommendation by the secretary. The director shall hold office at the pleasure of the Governor, and shall receive a salary as shall be fixed by the secretary with the approval of the Department of Personnel Administration.

SEC. 164. Section 15387 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15387. There is hereby established the California Small Business Development Center Fund, moneys for which shall be appropriated in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 166. Section 15392.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15392.1. (a) The Director of the California Export Finance

Office shall be appointed, upon consultation with the Export Finance Board and upon the recommendation of the director of the commission, by the secretary. The director shall be knowledgeable about private and public export assistance and export financing programs.

(b) The director shall serve at the pleasure of the director of the commission and shall receive a salary as fixed by the director of the commission with the approval of the Department of Personnel Administration.

(c) The director shall administer the programs of the office and perform such duties as shall be delegated by the board.

SEC. 167. Section 15394 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15394. (a) There is hereby created the California Export Finance Board in the California Export Finance Office. The board shall consist of nine members as follows:

(1) The Director of Food and Agriculture or his or her designee.

(2) The Director of the Office of Small Business or his or her designee.

(3) One appointment by the Governor. The appointee shall be knowledgeable about, and experienced in, the exporting and export finance needs of California agriculture.

(4) Two appointments from export firms, one each by the California State World Trade Commission and the Speaker of the Assembly.

(5) Two appointments from financial institutions, one each by the California State World Trade Commission and the President pro Tempore of the Senate.

(6) Two appointments by the California State World Trade Commission. The appointees shall be accomplished credit evaluation representatives experienced in analyzing financial statements (such as loan applications) and in evaluating the credit worthiness of the types of loans, loan guarantees, and firms that are likely to come before the board.

Export representatives appointed under paragraph (4) shall be experienced in exporting, knowledgeable about the needs and problems of small and entrepreneurial exporters, and actively employed with an exporting firm, export trading company, or export management company.

Financial institution representatives appointed under paragraph (5) shall be experienced in export financing, knowledgeable about the export financing needs and problems of small and entrepreneurial exporters, and actively employed with a financial institution.

(b) The appointments shall be made for two-year terms. Appointees shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing authority and vacancies shall be filled by the appointing authority.

(c) Board members who are not employees of the state shall receive the per diem authorized in Section 11564.5 for each day they attend board meetings. In addition, they shall be reimbursed for their expenses in accordance with the rules of the Department of Personnel Administration when attending board meetings and conducting board business as determined by the board.

SEC. 168. Section 15394.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15394.1. The board shall do all of the following:

(a) Elect a chair and vice chair from among its members. The chair shall preside at meetings of the board.

(b) Oversee the California Export Finance Program Law, promulgate rules and regulations which are necessary to carry out the responsibilities under this chapter, particularly with respect to establishing California Export Finance Office programs to insure, coinsure, and provide loan guarantees to support export transactions prior to the expenditure of moneys from the Export Finance Fund. The board shall ensure that these programs conform to international trade agreements of the United States. The programs' rules and regulations shall be reviewed and approved by the commission prior to final adoption by the board.

(c) Adopt subsequent bylaws as are required to govern the conduct and operation of the board.

(d) Provide for the appointment of advisory groups necessary to carry out the powers and duties of the board.

(e) Hold regularly scheduled meetings, at least quarterly, in order to carry out the objectives and responsibilities of the board.

(f) Issue an annual report critiquing the program, its needs and recommended changes. The report shall include an evaluation of the program's impact on all of the following:

(1) Participation of private banks in export financing programs.

(2) Access of California firms to federal export financing programs.

(3) Export volume of California firms.

(4) Other economic and social benefits to the state.

(g) Adopt criteria establishing which exporters and export transactions shall be eligible for the insurance, coinsurance, and loan guarantees as may be extended by the board. Pursuant to this subdivision, the board shall adopt regulations to ensure that all of the following criteria are met:

(1) Borrowers have a minimum equity interest in the business as determined by the board.

(2) That loan guarantees, insurance, and coinsurance are extended exclusively to support the export of goods, services, and agricultural commodities produced or grown primarily in California by companies or agricultural enterprises which are domiciled in California as defined by subdivision (b) of Section 25120 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(3) That financing assistance using state funds shall only be extended in one or both of the following circumstances:

(A) As part of a state match which may be required to secure participation of California firms or agricultural enterprises in federal, state, or private financing programs.

(B) If adequate financing assistance is not readily available from public or private sources in a timely manner.

(h) Adopt collateral or security requirements to ensure the full repayment of loan guarantees and solvency of any insurance and coinsurance program extended under this chapter and to assist in evaluating the program.

(i) Approve any and all extensions of insurance, coinsurance, or loan guarantees under this chapter.

(1) The board may elect to delegate this approval authority to a committee consisting of no fewer than three members of the board. Members of the committee shall be knowledgeable in the export financing needs of small or medium-sized businesses, agriculture, or financial institutions.

(2) In order to expedite the functions of the California Export Finance Program Law, when a loan does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), the board may elect to delegate this approval authority to an office loan committee. The office loan committee shall be composed of the Director of the California Export Finance Office and two others who shall be selected by, and who shall be responsible to, the board. All approvals made by the office loan committee shall be reported to, and shall be reviewed by, the board at the next regular board meeting.

(j) Consult with the Office of Small Business to ensure that the respective loan guarantee programs are not duplicative and that each program makes full use of, to the extent practicable, the resources of the other.

(k) Work to secure a delegated line of authority from the U.S. Export-Import Bank in order to take advantage of this possible new federal funding source.

(l) Develop a streamlined application and review process.

SEC. 169. Section 15395.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15395.4. The board may request the Treasurer to invest those funds in the Export Finance Fund which are not immediately encumbered by administrative or program costs, in securities issued by the Treasury of the United States government or the government of the State of California. Returns from these investments shall be deposited in the Export Finance Fund and shall be used to support loan guarantees, insurance, and coinsurance as provided by this chapter.

SEC. 170. Section 15395.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15395.5. Moneys in the Export Finance Fund shall be paid out by the Treasurer on warrants drawn by the Controller upon order of the board in furtherance of the purposes of this chapter, including the payment of claims under loan guarantee and insurance programs, payments for reinsurance, and payments required by state, federal, or private export programs conducted by the board.

SEC. 171. Section 15396.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15396.2. The director shall submit an annual budget, as part of the agency's budget, for inclusion in the Governor's Budget, showing funding from all sources.

SEC. 172. Section 15398.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15398.3. (a) The corporation shall be governed by a board of directors consisting of seven members as follows:

(1) The secretary of the agency or his or her designee.

(2) The Treasurer or his or her designee.

(3) The Executive Director of the Office of Small Business or his or her designee.

(4) Two members to be appointed by the Governor as follows:

(A) One member with a minimum of three years' experience as an officer or employee of a financial institution.

(B) One member with a minimum of three years' experience as an owner or employee of a small business.

(5) One member to be appointed by the Senate Rules Committee.

(6) One member to be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly.

(b) The terms of the Governor's initial appointees shall be two years. The terms of subsequent appointees by the Governor and all appointees by the Senate Rules Committee and the Speaker of the Assembly shall be three years. The terms shall expire on December 31. All appointees shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing authority and vacancies shall be filled by the appointing authority.

(c) Initial appointments to the board shall be made within 90 days of the operative date of this chapter.

SEC. 173. Section 15398.9 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15398.9. (a) The secretary of the agency or his or her designee shall act as the interim chair of the board of directors and shall continue in that capacity until a permanent chair is elected by the board. The interim chair shall, as soon after the operative date of this chapter as is practical, convene a meeting of the board.

(b) The board may request the Office of Small Business to provide staff support and other necessary assistance in establishing the corporation.

SEC. 174. Section 15399.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15399.1. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature to establish in the agency a program, the California Main Street Program, to provide technical assistance and training for small cities' government, business organizations, and merchants and property owners to accomplish community and economic revitalization and development of older central business districts and neighborhoods.

It is the further intent of the Legislature that this program shall employ the techniques developed by the National Trust of Historic Preservation's Main Street Center which are designed to stimulate business reinvestment, restore building facades, retain existing small businesses, strengthen the local tax base, create employment opportunities, promote new businesses in downtown areas, and help to create a renewed sense of community pride. The Legislature further intends that this program be a joint state, local government, and private sector partnership utilizing private and public financial resources.

(b) It is the further intent of the Legislature to expand the California Main Street Program enacted pursuant to Chapter 1577 of the Statutes of 1985 to include assistance for commercial areas in medium-sized cities and larger urban communities.

SEC. 175. Section 15399.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15399.2. (a) There is hereby created within the agency a California Main Street Program which shall operate according to a plan developed by the agency with the assistance of all of the following:

(1) Organizations representing merchants and governments of small cities, historic preservation interests, financial institutions, and economic development groups.

(2) The California private industry councils.

(3) The Office of Small Business, the Office of Business Development, and the Small Business Development Center within the agency.

(4) The Office of Historic Preservation.

(5) The Department of Housing and Community Development.

(6) The chairpersons of the following committees of the Legislature:

(A) The Assembly Select Committee on Small Business.

(B) The Senate Select Committee on Small Business Enterprises.

(C) The Assembly Committee on Economic Development and New Technologies.

(D) The Joint Committee on the State's Economy.

These chairpersons shall assist in the development of the plan to the extent that their participation is not incompatible with their positions as Members of the Legislature.

(7) The California Preservation Foundation.

(b) The agency shall modify and expand the California Main Street Program plan pursuant to Chapter 1577 of the Statutes of 1985 to include program elements designed to assist merchants and residents in the neighborhoods of larger and medium-sized cities.

SEC. 176. Section 15399.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15399.4. In order to implement this program, the agency shall do all of the following:

(a) Contract with the National Main Street Center of the National Trust for Historic Preservation to assist in accomplishing the program's objectives, to provide technical assistance to the agency, and to assist in developing criteria for the selection of, and aid in selecting, the participating and demonstration communities.

(b) Designate a program manager and staff.

(c) Develop objective criteria for selecting the participating and demonstration communities. The criteria shall include, but shall not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Evidence of interest and commitment to downtown economic development and historic preservation by both the private and public sectors.

(2) Evidence of potential private investment in the downtown area.

(3) A downtown with sufficient historic fabric to become a foundation for an enhanced community image.

(4) Organization and financial commitment to implement a long-term economic revitalization program which includes a commitment to employ a full-time, professional project manager with an operating budget.

(d) Devise a method of inviting eligible communities to submit applications, select demonstration communities, and additional participating communities in subsequent years.

(e) Include in the program, in addition to the demonstration communities, any city which has on the effective date of this chapter a contract with the National Trust's Main Street Center for a local main street program.

SEC. 177. Section 15399.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15399.6. In order to reduce costs to the state, the agency shall include in the plan a means to solicit private contributions for state and local operations of the program.

SEC. 178. Section 15399.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15399.8. The agency shall include in its annual report to the Legislature a special report on the effectiveness of this program.

SEC. 179. Section 15399.10 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15399.10. (a) "Board" means the State Water Resources Control Board.

(b) "Loan applicant" means a small business which applies to the agency for a loan pursuant to this chapter.

(c) "Tank" means an underground storage tank, as defined in Section 25281 of the Health and Safety Code, used for the purpose of storing petroleum, as defined in Section 25299.21 of the Health and Safety Code.

(d) "Project tank" means one or more tanks that would be upgraded, replaced, or removed with loan funds.

SEC. 180. Section 15399.11 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15399.11. The agency shall conduct a loan program pursuant to this chapter, to assist small businesses in upgrading, replacing, or removing tanks to meet applicable local, state, or federal standards. Loan funds may also be used for corrective actions, as defined in Section 25299.14 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 181. Section 15399.12 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15399.12. The agency shall only make loan funds available to loan applicants which meet all of the following eligibility requirements:

(a) The loan applicant is a small business, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 14837.

(b) The loan applicant owns or operates a project tank.

(c) Loan funds are not obtainable, upon reasonable terms, from private financial institutions, the Hazardous Substance Cleanup Financing Authority, the California Pollution Control Financing Authority, or any other government agency.

(d) The loan applicant demonstrates the ability to repay the loan, and the availability of adequate collateral to secure the loan.

(e) All tanks owned or operated by the loan applicant are subject to compliance with Chapter 6.7 (commencing with Section 25280) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code and the regulations adopted pursuant to that chapter.

(f) The loan applicant has complied, or will comply, with the financial responsibility requirements specified in Section 25299.31 of the Health and Safety Code and the regulations adopted pursuant to this section.

SEC. 182. Section 15399.13 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15399.13. A complete loan application shall include the following:

(a) Evidence of eligibility.

(b) An environmental audit, as specified in Section 5268 of Title 10 of the California Code of Regulations.

(c) Financial and legal documents necessary to demonstrate the applicant's ability to repay and provide collateral for the loan. The agency shall develop a standard list of documents required of all applicants, and may also request from individual applicants additional financial and legal documents not provided on this list.

(d) An explanation of the reasons the project tank is not in compliance with applicable local, state, or federal standards, and evidence that tanks not included in the list of project tanks are currently in compliance with applicable local, state, or federal standards.

(e) A detailed cost estimate of the tasks which are required to be completed in order for the project tanks to comply with applicable local, state, or federal standards.

(f) Any other information which the agency determines to be necessary to include in an application form.

SEC. 183. Section 15399.14 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15399.14. (a) The maximum amount the agency may loan for one project tank is fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), the minimum amount the agency may loan an applicant is thirty thousand dollars ($30,000), and the maximum amount the agency may loan an applicant is three hundred fifty thousand dollars ($350,000). A loan applicant shall not have more than one loan, pursuant to this article, outstanding at any one time.

(b) The term of the loan is a maximum of 20 years if secured by real property, and 10 years if not secured by real property. The interest rate for loans shall be set at the rate earned by the Surplus Money Investment Fund at the time of the loan commitment.

(c) Loan funds shall not be used to finance any more than 90 percent of the costs necessary to upgrade, remove, or replace project tanks, including corrective actions, to meet applicable local, state, or federal standards.

(d) The repeal of this chapter pursuant to Section 15399.21 shall not extinguish a loan obligation and shall not impair the deed of trust or other collateral made pursuant to this chapter or the authority of the state to pursue appropriate action for collection.

(e) The agency may charge a loan fee to loan applicants of up to 2 percent of the requested loan amount. The loan fee shall be deposited in the Petroleum Financing Collection Account.

SEC. 184. Section 15399.15 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15399.15. A local agency designated pursuant to Section 25283 of the Health and Safety Code, which has jurisdiction over the project tank shall determine whether the project proposed for funding will result in the project tank meeting the applicable local, state, or federal standards. The agency shall carry out all the other requirements of this chapter.

SEC. 185. Section 15399.16 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15399.16. The agency shall adopt regulations necessary to implement and make specific this chapter as emergency regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3, and for purposes of that chapter, including Section 11349.6, the adoption of the regulations shall be considered by the Office of Administrative Law to be necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and general welfare. Notwithstanding subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1, the regulations shall be repealed 180 days after their effective date unless the agency complies with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1.

SEC. 186. Section 15399.17 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15399.17. (a) The Petroleum Underground Storage Tank Financing Account is hereby created in the General Fund. The Petroleum Underground Storage Tank Financing Account is created for both of the following purposes:

(1) Receiving federal, state, and local money.

(2) Receiving repayments of loans and interest and late fees on those accounts.

(b) The funds deposited into the account may be expended by the agency, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for making loans pursuant to this chapter.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 16305.7, all interest or other increments resulting from the investment of the funds in the Petroleum Underground Storage Tank Financing Account pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 16470) of Chapter 3 of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 shall be deposited in the Petroleum Underground Storage Tank Financing Account.

(d) All interest accruing on interest payments from loan applicants or interest earned on the funds in the Petroleum Underground Storage Tank Financing Account shall be deposited in a subaccount of the account.

SEC. 187. Section 15399.18 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15399.18. (a) There is hereby created, in the California Economic Development Grant and Loan Fund, the Petroleum Financing Collection Account. The Petroleum Financing Collection Account is created solely for the purpose of receiving charges, fees, and income, including, but not limited to, the charges and costs collected pursuant to subdivision (c).

(b) To defray the costs of the agency in administrating the loan program created pursuant to this chapter, the agency may do all of the following:

(1) Impose reasonable charges on all applications and impose the loan fee specified in subdivision (e) of Section 15399.14.

(2) Recover collection costs from the borrower or other party.

(3) Earn income on any asset recovered pursuant to a loan default.

(c) The agency shall deposit the charges and costs collected pursuant to subdivision (b), including the loan fees charged pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 15399.14, in the Petroleum Financing Collection Account. Notwithstanding Section 13340, all money deposited in the Petroleum Financing Collection Account shall be continuously appropriated to the agency for those costs necessary to protect the state's position as a lender-creditor. These costs shall be broadly construed to include, but not be limited to, foreclosure expenses, auction fees, title searches, appraisals, real estate brokerage fees, attorney fees, mortgage payments, insurance payments, utility costs, repair costs, removal and storage costs for repossessed equipment and inventory, and additional expenditures to purchase a senior lien in foreclosure or bankruptcy proceedings.

SEC. 188. Section 15399.20 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15399.20. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the agency may, upon appropriation by the Legislature, expend an amount not more than one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) in any fiscal year for administrative expenses in carrying out this chapter from the subaccount in the Petroleum Underground Storage Tank Financing Account specified in subdivision (d) of Section 15399.17.

(b) The agency may transfer an amount of not more than two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) from the Petroleum Underground Storage Tank Financing Account to the Petroleum Financing Collection Account.

SEC. 189. Section 15399.21 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15399.21. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), this chapter shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1998, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is chaptered before January 1, 1998, deletes or extends that date.

(b) The repeal of this chapter shall not terminate the following obligations or authorities necessary to administer the obligations until these obligations are satisfied:

(1) The payment of claims filed prior to January 1, 1998, against the Underground Storage Tank Cleanup Fund pursuant to Chapter 6.75 (commencing with Section 25299.10) of the Health and Safety Code, until the moneys in the fund are exhausted. Upon exhaustion of the Underground Storage Tank Cleanup Fund, any remaining claims shall be invalid.

(2) The repayment of loans, outstanding as of January 1, 1998, due and payable to the agency under the terms of this chapter.

(3) The resolution of any cost recovery action filed prior to January 1, 1998, pursuant to Chapter 6.75 (commencing with Section 25299.10) of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 190. Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 15399.30) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 191. Section 15399.41 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15399.41. The sum of one million seven hundred thousand dollars ($1,700,000) is hereby appropriated from the Supercomputer Center Account which is created in the General Fund, to the agency for expenditure in the 1992–93 fiscal year for purchase of additional computer memory and capacity equipment by the University of California at San Diego to be used at the San Diego Supercomputer Center pursuant to Section 15399.40.

SEC. 191.1. Section 15399.50 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15399.50. (a) The Office of Permit Assistance is hereby created in the Trade and Commerce Agency. The office succeeds to, and is vested with, all of the duties, purposes, and responsibilities required to be performed by the Office of Planning and Research and the Office of Permit Assistance relating to permit assistance. The office shall develop guidelines to provide technical assistance to counties and cities in establishing and operating and expedited development permit process. The guidelines shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following elements of a local permit process:

SEC. 191.2. Section 15399.51 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15399.51. (a) (1) Every city, county, or city and county shall provide for coordination of review and decisionmaking and the provision of information regarding the status of all applications and permits for residential, commercial, and industrial developments, as required by the city, county, or city and county, by a single administrative entity. The city, county, or city and county may charge fees to defray costs which are directly attributable to the coordination of an application of a developer by a single administrative entity.

(2) For the purposes of this section, "administrative entity" means a person or agency designated by the legislative body of the city, county, or city and county to coordinate the review and decisionmaking and provide information regarding the status of all permits or applications required by the local agency.

(3) A city, county, or city and county may adopt, by resolution or ordinance, procedures for the implementation of this section by the designated administrative entity.

(b) (1) At the request of an applicant, the administrative entity may coordinate the review and decisionmaking process with affected special districts and the administrative entity designated by the legislative body of any other city, county, or city and county within whose jurisdiction application for approval of the development is also being made in order to provide concurrent processing within those jurisdictions.

(2) The office shall evaluate the extent to which this subdivision has resulted in an expedited development permit process and shall report its findings and conclusions to the Legislature on or before January 1, 1996.

(3) This subdivision shall have no application or effect on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 191.3. Section 15399.52 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15399.52. The guidelines established by the office pursuant to Section 15399.50 shall be advisory in nature. In no way shall these guidelines constitute a mandate upon cities or counties to take any of the actions contained therein.

SEC. 191.4. Section 15399.53 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15399.53. The office shall provide technical assistance and, subject to availability of funds appropriated, grants-in-aid, to assist counties and cities in establishing an expedited permit process pursuant to Section 15399.50. Any city or county receiving such a grant shall enact an expedited permit process within 10 months of the date of receipt. Nothing in this section or in Section 15399.50, shall in any way preclude a county or city from establishing an expedited permit process pursuant to a procedure established solely by that county or city. If the office has adopted guidelines pursuant to Section 15399.50, and a county or city has established an expedited permit process pursuant to its own procedures, in all cases the process established by the city or county shall prevail over conflicting provisions of the guidelines.

SEC. 191.5. Section 15399.54 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15399.54. The office shall provide information to developers explaining the permit approval process at the state and local level. The office shall ensure that all state agencies comply with applicable requirements of this chapter and Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 65920) of Division 1 of Title 7.

SEC. 191.6. Section 15399.55 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15399.55. (a) The office may call a conference of parties to resolve questions or mediate disputes arising from permit applications on any proposed development project.

(b) The office shall assist state and local agencies in an attempt to streamline the permit approval process at the state and local level.

(c) The office shall provide information to developers to assist them in meeting the requirements of the California Environmental Quality Act (Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code).

SEC. 191.7. Section 15399.56 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15399.56. (a) The office, in consultation with the Resources Agency and the Environmental Protection Agency, shall develop a consolidated project information form which may be used for sufficient information to allow state agencies to determine whether or not the project will be subject to the requirement for a permit from the agency.

(b) Applicants for development projects may submit the form provided by subdivision (a) to the office for distribution to state agencies that have permit responsibilities for development projects. The office shall send copies of the form to these agencies within three days of receipt.

(c) Within 30 days of receipt of the form, each agency shall notify the office in writing whether or not a permit from that agency may be required. The agency shall then send the office the appropriate permit application forms.

(d) Within 15 days of receipt of the completed form from the agencies, the office shall notify the applicant for a development project in writing of any permits required for the project specified, and it shall send the applicant the appropriate permit application forms received from the state agencies.

(e) The office, in consultation with the Resources Agency, and the Environmental Protection Agency shall develop a consolidated project application form which may be used by applicants for development projects. The application form shall contain sufficient information to allow other state agencies, departments, commissions, boards, and other administrative divisions within the agencies, to act on a permit for the project.

(f) Each state agency may develop an agency consolidated project application form which may be used by applicants for development projects. The application form shall contain sufficient information to allow the agency and any department, commission, board, and other administrative division within that agency to act on a permit.

(g) The office, in consultation with local governments, shall develop a consolidated project application form which may be used by applicants for development projects. The application form shall contain sufficient information to allow local agencies to act on a permit for the project and shall allow for additional information needs of local agencies.

(h) The office may charge an applicant for a development project a fee, not to exceed the estimated reasonable cost of providing the services performed pursuant to this section. Before levying or charging a fee, the office shall adopt or amend regulations pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 2). The office shall make available to the public upon request data indicating the amount of cost, or estimated cost, required to provide the service, including general or special fund revenues.

SEC. 191.8. Section 15399.60 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15399.60. (a) All employees of the Office of Permit Assistance, as created in the Office of Planning and Research by Chapter 1599 of the Statutes of 1985, relating to permit assistance, who, on the operative date of this section, are serving on the office staff, other than as temporary employees, shall be transferred to the Office of Permit Assistance established in the Trade and Commerce Agency. In accordance with Section 19050.9, the status, positions, and rights of these persons shall not be affected by the transfer, and, except as to positions exempt from civil service, they shall be subject to state civil service.

(b) The State Personnel Board shall authorize temporary appointment authority under Section 5 of Article VII of the California Constitution and Section 19059, and shall conduct examinations necessary to accomplish the prompt filling of employee positions in the Office of Permit Assistance. All persons employed by the Office of Permit Assistance on July 1, 1993, may participate in departmental examinations for the Office of Permit Assistance for a period of one year following the enactment of this section.

SEC. 192. Section 66503 of the Government Code is amended to read:

66503. The commission shall consist of 19 members as follows:

(a) Two members each from the City and County of San Francisco and the Counties of Alameda, Contra Costa, San Mateo, and Santa Clara. With respect to the members from San Francisco, the mayor shall appoint one member and the board of supervisors shall appoint one member. With respect to the members from Alameda, Contra Costa, San Mateo, and Santa Clara Counties, the city selection committee organized in each county pursuant to Article 11 (commencing with Section 50270) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 1 of Title 5, shall appoint one member and the board of supervisors shall appoint one member.

(b) One member each from Marin, Napa, Solano, and Sonoma Counties. The city selection committee of these counties shall furnish to the board of supervisors the names of three nominees and the board of supervisors shall appoint one of the nominees to represent the county.

(c) One representative each appointed by the Association of Bay Area Governments and the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission.

(d) One representative, who shall be a nonvoting member, appointed by the Secretary of the Trade and Commerce Agency.

(e) One representative each appointed by the United States Department of Transportation and Department of Housing and Urban Development, provided such representatives shall serve only if the agencies they represent are amenable to such appointments. These representatives shall be nonvoting members.

SEC. 194. Section 40448.6 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

40448.6. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(a) It is necessary to increase the availability of financial assistance to small businesses which are subject to the rules and regulations of the south coast district, in order to minimize economic dislocation and adverse socioeconomic impacts.

(b) It is in the public interest that a portion of the funds collected by the south coast district from violators of air pollution regulations be allocated for the purpose of guaranteeing or otherwise reducing the financial risks of providing financial assistance to small businesses which face increased borrowing requirements in order to comply with air pollution control requirements.

(c) Public agencies and private lenders have a variety of methods available for providing financing assistance to small businesses and other employers, including taxable bonds, composite or pooled financing instruments, loan guarantees, and credit insurance, which could be utilized in combination with the penalties collected by the south coast district to expand the availability and reduce the cost of financing assistance.

(d) The California Pollution Control Financing Authority has funds set aside from previous bond issues, which could be used to guarantee the issuance of bonds or other financing for small businesses for the purchase and installation of pollution control equipment.

(e) The Office of Small Business in the Trade and Commerce Agency, through the regional small business development corporations, has the ability to provide state loan guarantees and technical assistance to small businesses needing financial assistance.

(f) The Job Training Partnership Division of the Employment Development Department makes funds available for job training programs, including funds for dislocated workers, through the federal Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 1501 et seq.).

(g) It is the policy of the state that the Job Training Partnership Division of the Employment Development Department, in cooperation with the districts and the state board, are encouraged to provide job training programs for workers who, as determined by the department or the local private industry council, have been laid off or dislocated as a result of actions resulting from air quality regulations.

(h) It is the policy of the state that the California Pollution Control Financing Authority, the Office of Small Business in the Trade and Commerce Agency, and other state agencies implementing small business assistance programs, in cooperation with the districts and the state board, are encouraged to provide technical and financial assistance to small businesses to facilitate compliance with air quality regulations.

SEC. 200. Section 17053.11 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17053.11. (a) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039) for the taxable year the amount determined in subdivisions (c) and (d) for a qualified business which hires a qualified employee.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified business" means either (A) a qualified business, as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code, or (B) a qualified business, as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code, except that the percentage requirements with respect to employment of residents of a high-density unemployment area shall be applicable only to those employees hired within the 12 months immediately preceding the date that the business seeks certification from the Trade and Commerce Agency and not to the entire work force of the business. A business that qualifies under clause (B) shall be a qualified business only for the purposes of this section, provided that the Trade and Commerce Agency certifies that the business meets the standards set forth in this paragraph.

(2) "Qualified employee" means an employee who has been an unemployed resident of a high-density unemployment area (as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code) prior to being employed by the qualified business. For the purposes of this section, participation by a prospective employee in a state or federally funded job training or work demonstration program shall not constitute employment, or effect the eligibility of an otherwise qualified employee. Qualified employee includes an otherwise qualified employee who is employed by a qualified business in the 90 days prior to its certification by the Trade and Commerce Agency as a qualified business for the purpose of becoming eligible for that certification.

(c) The credit provided for each qualified employee who has been unemployed for at least six months prior to being employed pursuant to subdivision (a), shall be an amount equal to the sum of each of the following:

(1) Fifty percent for qualified wages in the first year of employment.

(2) Forty percent for qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent for qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent for qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(5) Ten percent for qualified wages in the fifth year of employment.

(d) The credit provided for each qualified employee who has been unemployed for at least three months but less than six months prior to being employed shall be 25 percent of qualified wages for the first year of employment; however, the credit for the second year of employment shall be that provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c), the credit for the third year of employment shall be that provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c), the credit for the fourth year of employment shall be that provided in paragraph (4) of subdivision (c), and the credit for the fifth year of employment shall be that provided in paragraph (5) of subdivision (c).

(e) For purposes of this section, "qualified wages" means that portion of wages not in excess of 150 percent of the minimum hourly wage paid or incurred by the qualified business during the taxable year to the qualified employee.

(f) (1) If the employment of any employee with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (c) or (d) is terminated by the taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment (whether or not consecutive) or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that employee completes 90 days of employment with the taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the taxable year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that taxable year and all prior taxable years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that employee.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any of the following:

(A) A termination of employment of an employee who voluntarily leaves the employment of the taxpayer.

(B) A termination of employment of an individual who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that individual.

(C) A termination of employment of an individual, if it is determined under the applicable unemployment compensation provisions that the termination was due to the misconduct of that individual.

(D) A termination of employment of an individual due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the taxpayer other than regularly occurring seasonal reductions.

(E) A termination of employment of an individual, if that individual is replaced by other qualified employees so as to create a net increase in both number of employees and hours of employment.

(F) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the taxpayer and an employee shall not be treated as terminated by reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the taxpayer, if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business and the taxpayer retained a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(g) In the case of an estate or trust—

(1) The qualified wages for any taxable year shall be apportioned between the estate or trust and the beneficiaries on the basis of the income of the estate or trust allocable to each, and

(2) Any beneficiary to whom any qualified wages have been apportioned under paragraph (1) shall be treated (for purposes of this part) as the employer with respect to those wages.

(h) The credit shall be reduced by the credit allowed under Section 17053.7. The credit shall also be reduced by the federal credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for the wages or salaries paid or incurred by the taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit.

(i) In the case where the credit allowed under this section exceeds the "net tax" for the taxable year, that portion of the credit which exceeds the "net tax" may be carried over to the "net tax" in succeeding taxable years until the credit is used. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest taxable years possible.

(j) The amount of the credit allowed by this section for any taxable year shall not exceed the amount of tax which would be imposed on the income attributed to business activities of the taxpayer within the program area (as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code) as if that attributed income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part. The amount of that attributed income shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(1) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and ending on or before December 31, 1996, income shall be apportioned to the program area by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(2) "The program area" shall be substituted for "this state."

SEC. 201. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), any section of any act enacted by the Legislature during the 1993 calendar year that takes effect on or before January 1, 1994, and that amends, amends and renumbers, adds, repeals and adds, or repeals a section amended, amended and renumbered, repealed and added, or repealed by this act, shall prevail over this act, whether that act is enacted prior to, or subsequent to, this act. The repeal, or repeal and addition, of any article, chapter, part, title, or division of any code by this act shall not become operative if any section of any other act amends, amends and renumbers, adds, repeals and adds, or repeals any section contained in that article, chapter, part, title, or division.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the provisions of Sections 15399.50, 15399.51, 15399.52, 15399.53, 15399.54, 15399.55, 15399.56, and 15399.60 of the Government Code, as added by Sections 191.1, 191.2, 191.3, 191.4, 191.5, 191.6, 191.7, and 191.8 of this act, shall prevail over the provisions of AB 2351, Chapter 56 of the Statutes of 1993.

SEC. 202. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide for the orderly and efficient civil service testing of the World Trade Commission and Office of Permit Assistance employees and the clarification of powers residing with and within the agency, it is necessary that this act go into effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1154

An act to add Section 1367.23 to the Health and Safety Code, and to add Sections 10199.44 and 10199.46 to the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1367.23 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1367.23. (a) On and after January 1, 1994, every group health care service plan contract, which is issued, amended, or renewed, shall include a provision requiring the health care service plan to notify the group contractholders in writing of the cancellation of the plan contract and shall include in their contract with group contractholders a provision requiring the group contractholder to mail promptly to each subscriber a legible, true copy of any notice of cancellation of the plan contract which may be received from the plan and to provide promptly to the plan proof of that mailing and the date thereof.

(b) The notice of cancellation from the group contractholder to the subscriber required by subdivision (a) shall include information regarding the conversion rights of persons covered under the plan contract upon termination of the plan contract. This information shall be in clear and easily understandable language.

SEC. 2. Section 10199.44 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

10199.44. (a) On or after January 1, 1994, every insurer issuing, amending, or renewing group disability insurance which covers hospital, medical, or surgical expenses shall notify the group policyholders in writing of the cancellation of the group policy and shall include in their contract with group policyholders, regardless of the situs of that contract, a provision requiring the group policyholder to mail promptly to each person covered under the group policy a legible, true copy of any notice of cancellation of the policy which may be received from the insurer and to provide promptly to the insurer proof of that mailing and the date thereof.

(b) The notice of cancellation required by subdivision (a) shall include information regarding the conversion rights of persons covered under the group policy upon termination of the group policy. This information shall be in clear and easily understandable language.

SEC. 3. Section 10199.46 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

10199.46. (a) On or after January 1, 1994, every nonprofit hospital service plan issued, amended, or renewed that covers hospital, medical, or surgical expenses on a group basis shall notify the group contractholders in writing of the cancellation of the plan contract and shall include in their contract with group contractholders a provision requiring the group contractholder to mail promptly to each subscriber a legible, true copy of any notice of cancellation of the plan contract which may be received from the plan and to provide promptly to the plan proof of that mailing and the date thereof.

(b) The notice of cancellation required by subdivision (a) shall include information regarding the conversion rights of persons covered under the plan contract upon termination of the plan contract. This information shall be in clear and easily understandable language.

SEC. 4. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

An act to add Sections 5506.3, 5538.3, and 5539.3 to the Public Resources Code, relating to regional park or open-space districts.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5506.3 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

5506.3. (a) (1) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the population of San Diego County continues to grow at an increasing rate, and already the county is far behind other urban areas in the state in providing adequate park, recreational, and open-space facilities for its residents. Formation of a regional district with boundaries coterminous with those of San Diego County is critical to help address the growing and unmet park and recreational needs in San Diego County.

(2) Proceedings for the formation of a regional park and open-space district or a regional open-space district with boundaries coterminous with those of San Diego County may be initiated by resolution of the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Diego after a hearing noticed in accordance with Section 6064 of the Government Code, in lieu of the petition and proceedings related to the petition specified in this article.

(b) As used in this section and Sections 5538.3 and 5539.3:

(1) "Regional district" means a district formed pursuant to this section that contains all of the territory within San Diego County, including all incorporated cities.

(2) "Capital outlay project" means the acquisition or improvement of real property, but, for purposes of subdivision (c) includes the servicing of bonds issued pursuant to Section 5539.3.

(c) The resolution specified in subdivision (a) shall do all of the following:

(1) Name the proposed regional district and state the reasons for forming it.

(2) Specify that the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Diego shall act, ex officio, as the governing body of the regional district. The provisions of this article pertaining to district directors do not apply, and all powers and authority of the regional district shall be vested in the board of supervisors in its capacity as the governing body of the regional district.

(3) Describe the territory to be included in the regional district.

(4) Describe the methods by which the regional district will be financed.

(5) (A) Specify that all revenue generated by the regional district, including the proceeds from the issuance of any bonds, shall be allocated among all affected public agencies within the territory of the district, for expenditure consistent with the purposes of this article, to adequately address the needs specified in subdivision (a) of Section 5539.3.

(B) For the purposes of this paragraph, "all affected public agencies" means the County of San Diego, all incorporated cities within the county, and any joint powers authority or agency established for the purpose of acquiring land for park, recreational, open-space, and conservation purposes.

(6) (A) Call and give notice of an election to be held in the proposed regional district for the purpose of determining whether the regional district shall be formed.

(B) Notwithstanding Section 5518, the County Counsel of the County of San Diego shall prepare the language in the ballot label. The proposition shall specify the matters set forth in the resolution, except for subparagraph (A). The analysis and review of the measure shall be carried out pursuant to Section 3781 of the Elections Code.

(7) State that, in the first 20 years after the date that an assessment is levied pursuant to Section 5539.3, a minimum of 80 percent of all proceeds of assessments levied by the regional district shall be used for capital outlay projects.

(8) Include an expenditure plan consisting of a list of capital outlay projects, including acquisition areas, and a general description of proposed outlays for operation and maintenance to be funded, over a 20-year period from the date on which the assessment is first levied, with proceeds of assessments levied by the regional district.

(9) State the proposed rate and method of apportionment to be used in levying annual assessments for all categories of property.

(10) Include any other matters determined to be necessary by the board of supervisors.

(d) (1) The formation of the regional district is not subject to Section 5517.1 or to the Cortese-Knox Local Government Reorganization Act of 1985 (Division 3 (commencing with Section 56000) of Title 5 of the Government Code).

(2) The regional district shall be formed if a majority of voters voting on the proposition vote in favor of formation of the regional district.

(e) (1) No proceeds from any bonds issued pursuant to Section 5539.3 shall be expended for operation and maintenance. Bond proceeds may be expended to pay all costs incidental to the preparation and issuance of the bonds.

(2) The regional district may use the proceeds from the levy of assessments for the operation and maintenance of capital outlay projects.

(f) The San Diego Association of Governments, serving as the Regional Planning and Growth Management Review Board, should review the expenditure plan for consistency with the open-space element of the Regional Growth Management Strategy.

SEC. 2. Section 5538.3 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

5538.3. The officers and employees of the County of San Diego may act, ex officio, as officers and employees of the regional district formed pursuant to Section 5506.3 and may discharge the authority and responsibility specified in this article. The County of San Diego may provide the services and facilities needed to carry out the functions of the regional district. The proceeds of assessments levied pursuant to Section 5539.3 may be expended to reimburse the county for the actual costs of those services and facilities.

SEC. 3. Section 5539.3 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

5539.3. (a) (1) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the land acquisition, improvements, and services provided by the regional district formed pursuant to Section 5506.3 will specifically benefit the properties assessed and the persons paying the assessments authorized in this section in at least the following respects:

(A) Enhanced recreational opportunities and expanded access to recreational facilities for all residents throughout the regional district.

(B) Improved quality of life for all communities in the regional district by protecting, restoring, and improving the regional district's irreplaceable park, wildlife, open-space, and beach lands.

(C) Preservation of canyons, foothills, and mountains and development of public access to these lands throughout the regional district.

(D) Protection of the diverse historical, cultural, and archaeological values of the territory of the regional district.

(E) Increased economic activity and expanded employment opportunities within the regional district.

(F) Increased property values, resulting from the benefits specified in this subdivision.

(G) Provision of benefits to all properties within the regional district, including positive impacts on air and water quality, capacity of roads, transportation and other public infrastructure systems, schools, and public utilities.

(2) The Legislature further finds and declares all of the following:

(A) The expansion, restoration, and improvement of park, recreational, beach, and open-space lands throughout the regional district benefits all residents in the regional district.

(B) Protection, restoration, and improvement of the lands within the regional district are vital to the quality of life for all residents in the regional district.

(C) Increased park and recreational opportunities in the densely populated and heavily urbanized areas of the regional district are vital to the health and well-being of all residents in the regional district, and providing those opportunities is a high priority.

(D) Portions of parcels of land that are in commercial agricultural use do not benefit from park or open-space lands, facilities, or services funded pursuant to this section.

(b) In addition to the authority conferred in Section 5539.5, to the extent not inconsistent with this section, all provisions of the Landscaping and Lighting Act of 1972 (Part 2 (commencing with Section 22500) of Division 15 of the Streets and Highways Code), are applicable to the regional district, except as follows:

(1) Article 2 (commencing with Section 22605) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of Division 15 of the Streets and Highways Code does not apply.

(2) No changes shall be made pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 22620) of Part 2 of Division 15 of the Streets and Highways Code or Section 5572 of this code with respect to the rate and method of apportionment of assessments, the use of proceeds of assessments, the use of proceeds of bonds, and the territory included within the district, except that the governing body may correct errors in assessments, rule on appeals of assessments against particular parcels, and annually adjust the assessments levied against particular parcels of real property to reflect changes in the uses of those parcels.

(3) No changes shall be made to the rate and method of apportionment of any assessment approved by the voters and levied pursuant to this section.

(4) In addition to the items required by Section 22567 of the Streets and Highways Code, the regional district's annual report shall include all of the following:

(A) Changes in the total number of parcels assessed and changes in the number of parcels with respect to use code.

(B) The amount of revenue expected to be received by the regional district in the next fiscal year.

(C) The proposed allocation of funds for operation and maintenance for the next fiscal year.

(D) The expenditure of funds in the current fiscal year.

(5) Any notice required pursuant to the Landscaping and Lighting Act of 1972, Section 54954.6 of the Government Code, or Section 5511 shall be published pursuant to Section 6064 of the Government Code.

(6) (A) (i) The governing body shall not levy any assessment unless a proposition authorizing the regional district to levy the assessment is first approved by a majority of the voters voting on the proposition. The proposition shall include the matters specified in subdivision (c) of Section 5506.3, except for paragraph (6). The election held pursuant to this paragraph shall satisfy the requirement for any election that may be required under Section 22525.5 of the Streets and Highways Code.

(ii) No additional assessment shall be levied pursuant to this section, including any assessment for time periods beyond those specified in paragraphs (7) and (8) of subdivision (c) of Section 5506.3, unless a proposition, including the provisions specified in paragraphs (5), (8), and (9) of subdivision (c) of Section 5506.3, is approved by a majority of the voters in the regional district voting on the proposition.

(B) Notwithstanding Section 5518, the County Counsel of the County of San Diego shall prepare the language in the ballot label. The analysis and review of the measure shall be carried out pursuant to Section 3781 of the Elections Code.

(C) The Board of Supervisors of San Diego County may consolidate a proposition submitted to the voters pursuant to this paragraph into a single ballot measure with the proposition whether to form the regional district submitted pursuant to paragraph (6) of subdivision (c) of Section 5506.3.

(D) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Landscaping and Lighting Act of 1972, any assessment proposed pursuant to that act shall be deemed levied upon approval of a majority of the voters voting on the proposition.

(7) (A) All proceeds of assessments levied or bonds issued by the regional district shall be allocated in accordance with paragraphs (5) and (8) of subdivision (c) of Section 5506.3.

(B) Any future expenditure plan shall include a division of funds between expenditures for capital outlay projects and expenditures for operation and maintenance, a list of proposed capital outlay projects, and a description of areas proposed for acquisition. No expenditure plan shall contain any provision that may impair the payment of debt service on bonds or other evidence of indebtedness previously issued pursuant to this section. Any assessment levied pursuant to this section may include an annual amount to pay the costs of operation and maintenance and may be collected in annual installments.

(c) Prior to the election required by paragraph (6) of subdivision (b), the Board of Supervisors of San Diego County may undertake proceedings on behalf of the proposed regional district in accordance with Part 2 (commencing with Section 22500) of Division 15 of the Streets and Highways Code to create an assessment district with the same boundaries as the proposed regional district. Hearings required pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 22500) of Division 15 of the Streets and Highways Code may be consolidated with those required pursuant to this article. Those proceedings shall be deemed to be the proceedings required by Part 2 (commencing with Section 22500) of Division 15 of the Streets and Highways Code.

(d) (1) The governing body shall exempt from assessment any uninhabited parcel that is substantially used in agriculture and any parcel enforceably restricted as open-space land during the time that the parcel is so used or restricted, if the governing body determines that the parcel will not benefit from the expenditure of the proceeds of assessments.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, lands that are enforceably restricted as open-space lands include, but are not limited to, lands restricted under contract pursuant to the Williamson Act (Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 51200) of Part 1 of Division 1 of Title

5 of the Government Code) and lands restricted pursuant to a conservation easement.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision in the acts specified in Section 5539.5 and in subdivision (b), the net amount to be assessed upon lands within an assessment district may be apportioned by any formula or method which fairly distributes the net amount among all assessable lots or parcels in proportion to the estimated benefits to be received by each lot or parcel from the improvements.

(f) The regional district shall not levy assessments beyond the last maturity date of any bonds issued pursuant to Section 5539.3 nor longer than 30 years from the date on which the assessment is first levied.

(g) The regional district shall not levy an assessment within a city or within the unincorporated territory of the county if the city or the county has adopted an ordinance limiting rents, which ordinance applies to real property other than mobilehome parks, unless one of the following applies:

(1) Under the ordinance, the owner of the real property is permitted to increase directly without filing requirements, the rent rate owed by a tenant under an existing lease in an amount not less than that tenant's proportional share of one-half of the increased assessment applied to the real property.

(2) An amount not less than a tenant's proportional share of one-half of the increased assessment applied to the real property is added to an annual general adjustment to the rental rate owed by that tenant.

SEC. 4. The Legislature hereby declares that this measure is intended to provide an additional mechanism to fund park, open-space, and recreational projects and programs in San Diego County. This measure is not intended to affect or otherwise limit the ability of any public agency to exercise any authority that the public agency may otherwise have under existing law.

SEC. 5. If any provision of this act or the application thereof is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

CHAPTER 1156

An act to amend Sections 4055, 4056, 4057, 4065, 4069, and 4071 of, and to add Section 4076 to, the Family Code, relating to family law.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4055 of the Family Code, as added by Section 138 of Chapter 219 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

4055. (a) The statewide uniform guideline for determining child support orders is as follows: CS = K [HN − (H%) (TN).

(b) (1) The components of the formula are as follows:

(A) CS = child support amount.

(B) K = amount of both parents' income to be allocated for child support as set forth in paragraph (3).

(C) HN = high earner's net monthly disposable income.

(D) H% = approximate percentage of time that the high earner has or will have primary physical responsibility for the children compared to the other parent. In cases in which parents have different time-sharing arrangements for different children, H% equals the average of the approximate percentages of time the high earner parent spends with each child.

(E) TN = total net monthly disposable income of both parties.

(2) To compute net disposable income, see Section 4059.

(3) K (amount of both parents' income allocated for child support) equals one plus H% (if H% is less than or equal to 50 percent) or two minus H% (if H% is greater than 50 percent) times the following fraction:

Total Net Disposable Income Per Month	K
$0–800	0.20 + TN/16,000
$801–6,666	0.25
$6,667–10,000	0.10 + 1000/TN
Over $10,000	0.12 + 800/TN

For example, if H% equals 20 percent and the total monthly net disposable income of the parents is $1,000, K = (1 + 0.20) × 0.25, or 0.30. If H% equals 80 percent and the total monthly net disposable income of the parents is $1,000, K = (2 − 0.80) × 0.25, or 0.30.

(4) For more than one child, multiply CS by:

2 children	1.6
3 children	2
4 children	2.3
5 children	2.5
6 children	2.625
7 children	2.75
8 children	2.813
9 children	2.844

(5) If the amount calculated under the formula results in a positive number, the higher earner shall pay that amount to the lower earner. If the amount calculated under the formula results in a negative number, the lower earner shall pay the absolute value of that amount to the higher earner.

(6) In any default proceeding where proof is by affidavit pursuant to Section 2336, or in any proceeding for child support in which a party fails to appear after being duly noticed, H% shall be set at zero in the formula if the noncustodial parent is the higher earner or at 100 if the custodial parent is the higher earner, where there is no evidence presented demonstrating the percentage of time that the noncustodial parent has primary physical responsibility for the children.

(7) Unless the court orders otherwise, the order for child support shall allocate the support amount so that the amount of support for the youngest child is the amount of support for one child, and the amount for the next youngest child is the difference between that amount and the amount for two children, with similar allocations for additional children. However, this paragraph does not apply to cases where there are different time-sharing arrangements for different children or where the court determines that the allocation would be inappropriate in the particular case.

SEC. 2. Section 4056 of the Family Code, as added by Section 138 of Chapter 219 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

4056. (a) To comply with federal law, the court shall state, in writing or on the record, the following information whenever the court is ordering an amount for support that differs from the statewide uniform guideline formula amount under this article:

(1) The amount of support that would have been ordered under the guideline formula.

(2) The reasons the amount of support ordered differs from the guideline formula amount.

(3) The reasons the amount of support ordered is consistent with the best interests of the children.

(b) At the request of any party, the court shall state in writing or on the record the following information used in determining the guideline amount under this article:

(1) The net monthly disposable income of each parent.

(2) The actual federal income tax filing status of each parent (for example, single, married, married filing separately, or head of household and number of exemptions).

(3) Deductions from gross income for each parent.

(4) The approximate percentage of time pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 4055 that each parent has primary physical responsibility for the children compared to the other parent.

SEC. 3. Section 4057 of the Family Code, as added by Section 138 of Chapter 219 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

4057. (a) The amount of child support established by the formula provided in subdivision (a) of Section 4055 is presumed to be the correct amount of child support to be ordered.

(b) The presumption of subdivision (a) is a rebuttable presumption affecting the burden of proof and may be rebutted by admissible evidence showing that application of the formula would be unjust or inappropriate in the particular case, consistent with the principles set forth in Section 4053, because one or more of the following factors is found to be applicable by a preponderance of the evidence, and the court states in writing or on the record the information required in subdivision (a) of Section 4056:

(1) The parties have stipulated to a different amount of child support under subdivision (a) of Section 4065.

(2) The sale of the family residence is deferred pursuant to Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 3800) of Part 1 and the rental value of the family residence in which the children reside exceeds the mortgage payments, homeowner's insurance, and property taxes. The amount of any adjustment pursuant to this paragraph shall not be greater than the excess amount.

(3) A parent's subsequent spouse or nonmarital partner has income that helps meet that parent's basic living expenses, thus increasing the parent's disposable income available to spend on the children.

(4) The parent being ordered to pay child support has an extraordinarily high income and the amount determined under the formula would exceed the needs of the children.

(5) A party is not contributing to the needs of the children at a level commensurate with that party's custodial time.

(6) Application of the formula would be unjust or inappropriate due to special circumstances in the particular case. These special circumstances include, but are not limited to, the following:

(A) Cases in which the parents have different time-sharing arrangements for different children.

(B) Cases in which both parents have substantially equal time-sharing of the children and one parent has a much lower or higher percentage of income used for housing than the other parent.

(C) Cases in which the children have special medical or other needs that could require child support that would be greater than the formula amount.

SEC. 3.5. Section 4057 of the Family Code, as added by Section

138 of Chapter 219 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

4057. (a) The amount of child support established by the formula provided in subdivision (a) of Section 4055 is presumed to be the correct amount of child support to be ordered.

(b) The presumption of subdivision (a) is a rebuttable presumption affecting the burden of proof and may be rebutted by admissible evidence showing that application of the formula would be unjust or inappropriate in the particular case, consistent with the principles set forth in Section 4053, because one or more of the following factors is found to be applicable by a preponderance of the evidence, and the court states in writing or on the record the information required in subdivision (a) of Section 4056:

(1) The parties have stipulated to a different amount of child support under subdivision (a) of Section 4065.

(2) The sale of the family residence is deferred pursuant to Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 3800) of Part 1 and the rental value of the family residence in which the children reside exceeds the mortgage payments, homeowner's insurance, and property taxes. The amount of any adjustment pursuant to this paragraph shall not be greater than the excess amount.

(3) The parent being ordered to pay child support has an extraordinarily high income and the amount determined under the formula would exceed the needs of the children.

(4) A party is not contributing to the needs of the children at a level commensurate with that party's custodial time.

(5) Application of the formula would be unjust or inappropriate due to special circumstances in the particular case. These special circumstances include, but are not limited to, the following:

(A) Cases in which the parents have different time-sharing arrangements for different children.

(B) Cases in which both parents have substantially equal time-sharing of the children and one parent has a much lower or higher percentage of income used for housing than the other parent.

(C) Cases in which the children have special medical or other needs that could require child support that would be greater than the formula amount.

SEC. 4. Section 4065 of the Family Code, as added by Section 138 of Chapter 219 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

4065. (a) Unless prohibited by applicable federal law, the parties may stipulate to a child support amount subject to approval of the court. However, the court shall not approve a stipulated agreement for child support below the guideline formula amount unless the parties declare all of the following:

(1) They are fully informed of their rights concerning child support.

(2) The order is being agreed to without coercion or duress.

(3) The agreement is in the best interests of the children involved.

(4) The needs of the children will be adequately met by the stipulated amount.

(5) The right to support has not been assigned to the county pursuant to Section 11477 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and no public assistance application is pending.

(b) A stipulated agreement of child support is not valid unless the district attorney has joined in the stipulation by signing it in any case in which the district attorney is providing services pursuant to Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. The district attorney shall not stipulate to a child support order below the guideline amount if the children are receiving assistance under the Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) program, if an application for public assistance is pending, or if the parent receiving support has not consented to the order.

(c) If the parties to a stipulated agreement stipulate to a child support order below the amount established by the statewide uniform guideline, no change of circumstances need be demonstrated to obtain a modification of the child support order to the applicable guideline level or above.

SEC. 5. Section 4069 of the Family Code, as added by Section 138 of Chapter 219 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

4069. The establishment of the statewide uniform guideline constitutes a change of circumstances.

SEC. 6. Section 4071 of the Family Code, as added by Section 138 of Chapter 219 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

4071. (a) Circumstances evidencing hardship include the following:

(1) Extraordinary health expenses for which the parent is financially responsible, and uninsured catastrophic losses.

(2) The minimum basic living expenses of either parent's natural or adopted children for whom the parent has the obligation to support from other marriages or relationships who reside with the parent. The court, on its own motion or on the request of a party, may allow these income deductions as necessary to accommodate these expenses after making the deductions allowable under paragraph (1).

(b) The maximum hardship deduction under paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) for each child who resides with the parent may be equal to, but shall not exceed, the support allocated each child subject to the order. For purposes of calculating this deduction, the amount of support per child established by the statewide uniform guideline shall be the total amount ordered divided by the number of children and not the amount established under paragraph (8) of subdivision (b) of Section 4055.

(c) The Judicial Council may develop tables in accordance with this section to reflect the maximum hardship deduction, taking into consideration the parent's net disposable income before the hardship deduction, the number of children for whom the deduction is being given, and the number of children for whom the support award is being made.

SEC. 7. Section 4076 is added to the Family Code, to read:

4076. (a) Whenever the court is requested to modify a child support order issued prior to July 1, 1992, for the purpose of conforming to the statewide child support guideline, and it is not using its discretionary authority to depart from the guideline pursuant to paragraph (4), (5), or (6) of subdivision (b) of Section 4057, and the amount of child support to be ordered is the amount provided under the guideline formula in subdivision (a) of Section 4055, the court may, in its discretion, order a two-step phasein of the formula amount of support to provide the obligor with time for transition to the full formula amount if all of the following are true:

(1) The period of the phasein is carefully limited to the time necessary for the obligor to rearrange his or her financial obligations in order to meet the full formula amount of support.

(2) The obligor is immediately being ordered to pay not less than 30 percent of the amount of the child support increase, in addition to the amount of child support required under the prior order.

(3) The obligor has not unreasonably increased his or her financial obligations following notice of the motion for modification of support, has no arrearages owing, and has a history of good faith compliance with prior support orders.

(b) Whenever the court grants a request for a phasein pursuant to this section, the court shall state the following in writing:

(1) The specific reasons why (A) the immediate imposition of the full formula amount of support would place an extraordinary hardship on the obligor, and (B) this extraordinary hardship on the obligor would outweigh the hardship caused the supported children by the temporary phasein of the full formula amount of support.

(2) The full guideline amount of support, the date and amount of each phasein, and the date that the obligor must commence paying the full formula amount of support, which in no event shall be later than one year after the filing of the motion for modification of support.

(c) In the event the court orders a phasein pursuant to this section, and the court thereafter determines that the obligor has violated the phasein schedule or has intentionally lowered the income available for the payment of child support during the phasein period, the court may order the immediate payment of the full formula amount of child support and the difference in the amount of support that would have been due without the phasein and the amount of support due with the phasein, in addition to any other penalties provided for by law.

SEC. 7.5. Section 4076 is added to the Family Code, to read:

4076. (a) Whenever the court is requested to modify a child support order issued prior to July 1, 1992, for the purpose of conforming to the statewide child support guideline, and it is not using its discretionary authority to depart from the guideline pursuant to paragraph (3), (4), or (5) of subdivision (b) of Section 4057, and the amount of child support to be ordered is the amount provided under the guideline formula in subdivision (a) of Section

4055, the court may, in its discretion, order a two-step phasein of the formula amount of support to provide the obligor with time for transition to the full formula amount if all of the following are true:

(1) The period of the phasein is carefully limited to the time necessary for the obligor to rearrange his or her financial obligations in order to meet the full formula amount of support.

(2) The obligor is immediately being ordered to pay not less than 30 percent of the amount of the child support increase, in addition to the amount of child support required under the prior order.

(3) The obligor has not unreasonably increased his or her financial obligations following notice of the motion for modification of support, has no arrearages owing, and has a history of good faith compliance with prior support orders.

(b) Whenever the court grants a request for a phasein pursuant to this section, the court shall state the following in writing:

(1) The specific reasons why (A) the immediate imposition of the full formula amount of support would place an extraordinary hardship on the obligor, and (B) this extraordinary hardship on the obligor would outweigh the hardship caused the supported children by the temporary phasein of the full formula amount of support.

(2) The full guideline amount of support, the date and amount of each phasein, and the date that the obligor must commence paying the full formula amount of support, which in no event shall be later than one year after the filing of the motion for modification of support.

(c) In the event the court orders a phasein pursuant to this section, and the court thereafter determines that the obligor has violated the phasein schedule or has intentionally lowered the income available for the payment of child support during the phasein period, the court may order the immediate payment of the full formula amount of child support and the difference in the amount of support that would have been due without the phasein and the amount of support due with the phasein, in addition to any other penalties provided for by law.

SEC. 8. Section 3.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 4057 of the Family Code proposed by both this bill and SB 145. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1994, (2) each bill amends Section 4057 of the Family Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 145, in which case Section 3 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 9. Section 7.5 of this bill shall only become operative if Section 3.5 of this bill becomes operative, in which case Section 7 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1157

An act to amend Sections 13392.5, 13393, 13393.5, 13394, and 13396.5 of, and to add Sections 13394.6 and 13396.7 to, the Water Code, relating to water.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) A significant source of beach contamination results from urban runoff.

(b) The public use of beaches has declined 25 to 30 percent. That decline is attributable in part to concerns about contamination.

(c) The number of beach closures by local public officials continues to increase each year.

SEC. 2. Section 13392.5 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13392.5. (a) Each regional board that has regulatory authority for one or more enclosed bays or estuaries shall, on or before January 30, 1994, develop for each enclosed bay or estuary, a consolidated data base which identifies and describes all known and potential toxic hot spots. Each regional board shall, in consultation with the state board, also develop an ongoing monitoring and surveillance program that includes, but is not limited to, the following components:

(1) Establishment of a monitoring and surveillance task force that includes representation from agencies, including, but not limited to, the State Department of Health Services and the Department of Fish and Game, that routinely monitor water quality, sediment, and aquatic life.

(2) Suggested guidelines to promote standardized analytical methodologies and consistency in data reporting.

(3) Identification of additional monitoring and analyses that are needed to develop a complete toxic hot spot assessment for each enclosed bay and estuary.

(b) Each regional board shall make available to state and local agencies and the public all information contained in the consolidated data base, as well as the results of new monitoring and surveillance data.

SEC. 3. Section 13393 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13393. (a) The state board shall adopt sediment quality objectives pursuant to the workplan submitted pursuant to Section 13392.6.

(b) The state board shall adopt the sediment quality objectives pursuant to the procedures established by this division for adopting or amending water quality control plans. The sediment quality objectives shall be based on scientific information, including, but not limited to, chemical monitoring, bioassays, or established modeling procedures, and shall provide adequate protection for the most sensitive aquatic organisms. The state board shall base the sediment quality objectives on a health risk assessment if there is a potential for exposure of humans to pollutants through the food chain to edible fish, shellfish, or wildlife.

(c) (1) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), in adopting sediment quality objectives pursuant to this section, the state board shall consider the federal sediment criteria for toxic pollutants that are being prepared, or that have been adopted, by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to Section 1314 of Title 33 of the United States Code.

(2) If federal sediment criteria have been adopted, the state board shall review the federal sediment criteria and determine if the criteria meet the requirements of this section. If the state board determines that a federal sediment criterion meets the requirements of this section, the state board shall adopt the criterion as a sediment quality objective pursuant to this section. If the state board determines that a federal sediment criterion fails to meet the requirements of this section, the state board shall adopt a sediment quality objective that meets the requirements of this section.

SEC. 4. Section 13393.5 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13393.5. On or before January 30, 1994, the state board, in consultation with the State Department of Health Services and the Department of Fish and Game, shall adopt general criteria for the assessment and priority ranking of toxic hot spots. The criteria shall take into account the pertinent factors relating to public health and environmental quality, including, but not limited to, potential hazards to public health, toxic hazards to fish, shellfish, and wildlife, and the extent to which the deferral of a remedial action will result, or is likely to result, in a significant increase in environmental damage, health risks, or cleanup costs.

SEC. 5. Section 13394 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13394. On or before January 1, 1998, each regional board shall complete and submit to the state board a toxic hot spots cleanup plan. On or before June 30, 1999, the state board shall submit to the Legislature a consolidated statewide toxic hot spots cleanup plan. The cleanup plan submitted by each regional board and the state board shall include, but not be limited to, the following information:

(a) A priority ranking of all hot spots, including the state board's recommendations for remedial action at each toxic hot spot site.

(b) A description of each hot spot site including a characterization of the pollutants present at the site.

(c) An estimate of the total costs to implement the plan.

(d) An assessment of the most likely source or sources of pollutants.

(e) An estimate of the costs that may be recoverable from parties responsible for the discharge of pollutants that have accumulated in sediment.

(f) A preliminary assessment of the actions required to remedy or restore a toxic hot spot.

(g) A two-year expenditure schedule identifying state funds needed to implement the plan.

(h) A summary of actions that have been initiated by the regional board to reduce the accumulation of pollutants at existing hot spot sites and to prevent the creation of new hot spots.

(i) The plan submitted by the state board shall include findings and recommendations concerning the need for establishment of a toxic hot spots cleanup program.

SEC. 6. Section 13394.6 is added to the Water Code, to read:

13394.6. (a) The state board shall establish an advisory committee to assist in the implementation of this chapter. The members of the advisory committee shall be appointed by the state board to represent all of the following interests:

(1) Trade associations whose members are businesses that use the bay, estuaries, and coastal waters of the state as a resource in their business activities.

(2) Dischargers required to pay fees pursuant to Section 13396.5.

(3) Environmental, public interest, public health, and wildlife conservation organizations.

(b) The members of the advisory committee shall select a member as the chairperson of the committee. The chairperson shall convene meetings of the committee every three months in any calendar year. The members of the advisory committee shall serve without compensation.

(c) The advisory committee shall have access to all information and documents, except for internal communications, that are prepared to implement this chapter and may provide the state board with its views on how that information should be interpreted and used.

SEC. 7. Section 13396.5 of the Water Code is amended to read:

13396.5. (a) The state board shall establish fees applicable to all point and nonpoint dischargers who discharge into enclosed bays, estuaries, or any adjacent waters in the contiguous zone or the ocean as defined in Section 502 of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act (33 U.S.C. Sec. 1362), which shall be collected annually.

(b) The fees shall create incentives to reduce discharges to the ocean, bays, and estuaries and shall be based on the relative threat to water quality from point and nonpoint dischargers. The schedule of fees shall be set at an amount sufficient to fund the responsibilities and duties of the state board, the Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment, and the Department of Fish and Game established by this chapter. The total amount of fees collected pursuant to this section shall not exceed four million dollars ($4,000,000) per year. Nothing in this section limits or restricts the funding of activities required by this chapter from sources in addition to the fees established by this section.

(c) Fees collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Bay Protection and Toxic Cleanup Fund which is hereby created, and shall be available for expenditure by the state board, upon appropriation by the Legislature, for the purposes of carrying out this chapter.

(d) Fees collected pursuant to this section shall be in addition to fees established pursuant to Section 13260 and shall not be subject to the maximum fee established in subdivision (d) of Section 13260, provided that the annual fee under this section shall not exceed the amount of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) per discharger.

(e) Any person failing to pay a fee established under this section when so requested by the state board is guilty of a misdemeanor and may be liable civilly in accordance with subdivision (d) of Section 13261.

(f) On or before January 1, 1996, the state board shall report to the Legislature on the progress made toward meeting the requirements of this chapter and the adequacy of the fee levels established in subdivisions (b) and (d).

(g) No fee may be imposed pursuant to this section on any agricultural nonpoint source discharger.

(h) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1998, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1998, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 8. Section 13396.7 is added to the Water Code, to read:

13396.7. (a) The state board, in consultation with the State Department of Health Services, shall contract with an independent contractor to conduct a study to determine the adverse health effects of urban runoff on swimmers at urban beaches. The contract shall include a provision that requires the study to be conducted as prescribed in the study proposal approved by the Santa Monica Bay Restoration Project. The study shall be paid for by using available resources or state funds appropriated in the annual Budget Act.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that the state board and the State Department of Health Services use the results of the study undertaken pursuant to subdivision (a) to establish recreational water quality standards.

CHAPTER 1158

An act to amend Section 8613 of, and to add and repeal Section 8810 of, the Family Code, relating to adoption.

[Approved by Governor October 10, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8613 of the Family Code is amended to read:

8613. (a) If the prospective adoptive parent is commissioned or enlisted in the military service, or auxiliary thereof, of the United States, or of any of its allies, or is engaged in service on behalf of any governmental entity of the United States, or in the American Red Cross, or in any other recognized charitable or religious organization, so that it is impossible or impracticable, because of the prospective adoptive parent's absence from this state, or otherwise, to make an appearance in person, and the circumstances are established by satisfactory evidence, the appearance may be made for the prospective adoptive parent by counsel, commissioned and empowered in writing for that purpose. The power of attorney may be incorporated in the adoption petition.

(b) Where the prospective adoptive parent is permitted to appear by counsel, the agreement may be executed and acknowledged by the counsel, or may be executed by the absent party before a notary public, or any other person authorized to take acknowledgments including the persons authorized by Sections 1183 and 1183.5 of the Civil Code.

(c) Where the prospective adoptive parent is permitted to appear by counsel, or otherwise, the court may, in its discretion, cause an examination of the prospective adoptive parent, other interested person, or witness to be made upon deposition, as it deems necessary. The deposition shall be taken upon commission, as prescribed by the Code of Civil Procedure, and the expense thereof shall be borne by the petitioner.

(d) The petition, relinquishment or consent, agreement, order, report to the court from any investigating agency, and any power of attorney and deposition shall be filed in the office of the county clerk.

(e) The provisions of this section permitting an appearance through counsel are equally applicable to the spouse of a prospective adoptive parent who resides with the prospective adoptive parent outside this state.

(f) Where, pursuant to this section, neither prospective adoptive parent need appear before the court, the child proposed to be adopted need not appear. If the law otherwise requires that the child execute any document during the course of the hearing, the child may do so through counsel.

(g) Where none of the parties appears, the court may not make an order of adoption until after a report has been filed with the court pursuant to Section 8715, 8807, 8914, or 9001.

SEC. 2. Section 8810 is added to the Family Code, to read:

8810. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, if a petition is filed under this chapter for the adoption of a child, the petitioner shall pay a fee to the department or delegated county adoption agency, as follows:

(1) For petitions filed from March 5, 1993, through June 30, 1993, five hundred dollars ($500) before the filing of a favorable report in the court by the department or delegated county adoption agency.

(2) For petitions filed on and after July 1, 1993, one thousand two hundred fifty dollars ($1,250).

The department or agency may defer, waive, or reduce the fee when in its judgment the payment would cause economic hardship to the prospective adoptive parents and would be detrimental to the welfare of the adopted child.

(3) Where the adoption is interrupted prior to the filing of the report of the department or delegated county adoption agency, the adoption petition may be withdrawn and no adoption fee shall be assessed for any services rendered by the department or delegated county adoption agency, and any such fees already paid shall be refunded.

(b) Revenues produced by fees collected by the department pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be used, when appropriated by the Legislature, to fund only the direct costs associated with the state program for independent adoptions. Revenues produced by fees collected by the delegated county adoption agency pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be used by the county to fund the county program for independent adoptions.

(c) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1994, or upon such later date as the Family Code added by Chapter 162 of the Statutes of 1992 becomes operative.

(d) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before that date, deletes or extends that date.

CHAPTER 1159

An act to add and repeal Section 18032.5 to the Health and Safety Code, to add Chapter 10.7 (commencing with Section 25920) to Division 15 of the Public Resources Code, to add Section 740.6 to the Public Utilities Code, and to add Section 257 to, and to add and repeal Section 5062 of, the Vehicle Code, relating to energy resources, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18032.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

18032.5. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(1) California's energy efficiency standards for new residential buildings have provided significant savings to homeowners and renters.

(2) As a result of past federal preemption of the field and the exemption of manufactured homes from building standards under California law, California's energy efficiency residential building standards have not been applied to manufactured housing.

(3) The Energy Policy Act of 1992 (P.L. 102-486) authorizes the Secretary of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development to adopt regulations establishing thermal insulation and energy efficiency standards for manufactured housing. If the secretary has not issued, within one year after October 24, 1992, the date of the enactment of the act, final regulations that establish standards that take effect before January 1, 1995, states may establish specified energy efficiency standards for manufactured housing.

(4) The 1992–93 California Energy Plan, endorsed by the Governor, recommends that the federal government adopt significantly more stringent, cost-effective energy efficiency standards for manufactured housing, or, in the alternative, allow states to adopt these standards.

(5) It is in the interest of this state to participate in any federal rulemaking proceeding establishing energy efficiency standards for manufactured housing, and, in the absence of timely final federal regulations, it is in the interest of this state to adopt its own energy efficiency standards for manufactured housing as authorized under federal law.

(b) The Department of Housing and Community Development, in consultation with the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, shall develop and implement cost-effective energy efficiency standards for manufactured housing, to take effect before January 1, 1995. These standards shall include, but are not limited to, lighting, insulation, climate control systems, and other design and construction features that increase efficiency in energy use for manufactured housing. The standards shall be cost-effective when taken in their entirety, and when amortized over the economic life of the structure. The department shall have responsibility for enforcing the standards. The standards shall be developed in consultation with members of the manufactured housing industry.

(c) This section shall become operative only if the Secretary of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development does not issue, on or before October 24, 1993, final regulations that establish thermal insulation and energy efficiency standards for manufactured housing that take effect before January 1, 1995. If the secretary does issue those final regulations, this section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Chapter 10.7 (commencing with Section 25920) is added to Division 15 of the Public Resources Code, to read:

CHAPTER 10.7. ENERGY EFFICIENT MORTGAGES

25920. The Legislature hereby finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The Energy Policy Act of 1992 (P.L. 102-486) directs the federal government to establish an energy efficient mortgage pilot program in five states to promote the purchase of existing energy efficient residential buildings and the installation of cost-effective improvements in existing residential buildings. The act also establishes a training program regarding the benefits of energy efficient mortgages and the operation of a pilot program, and authorizes the appropriation of federal funds to carry out those pilot programs and training programs.

(b) The high cost of housing is a critical problem in California, as less than one-half of California households can afford to buy a median-priced home.

(c) Reducing a home's monthly energy costs through energy efficiency improvements can make the home more affordable by increasing the homeowner's disposable income, which allows the homeowner to qualify for a higher mortgage and increases the number of Californians that can afford to buy a home.

(d) More than 60 percent of California homes were built before energy standards were adopted for new homes in the mid-1970s. These older homes are disproportionate energy consumers. The average home built in 1968 consumes twice the energy of a home built after 1983.

(e) A wide range of cost-effective energy efficiency improvements can be made to homes, resulting in lower energy use, lower utility energy bills, reduced societal demand for new energy sources, and reduced environmental degradation related to the generation of energy.

(f) Energy efficient mortgages provide money to fund energy efficiency improvements in residential homes, resulting in lower energy costs to the homeowner. Energy efficient mortgages also increase the number of Californians, particularly of low- and moderate-income, who can qualify for home financing, because the incremental increase in monthly mortgage cost is more than offset by lower monthly energy bills.

(g) Although energy efficient mortgages have been available for a number of years, they are rarely used because borrowers are unaware of their existence or of the benefits that they can provide, and most lenders and real estate licensees are unaware of, or unfamiliar with, the energy efficient mortgage.

(h) The 1992–93 California Energy Plan, endorsed by the Governor, recommends that the state support the marketing of mortgages that account for energy efficiency.

25921. The Legislature further finds and declares all of the following:

(a) It is in the interest of the people of this state that energy efficient mortgages be marketed and made available statewide, to increase awareness of their availability and their benefits.

(b) It is also in the interest of the state to seek to participate in federal government programs in this area, including energy efficient mortgage pilot and related training programs, and to seek federal funding to promote the use of energy efficient mortgages.

25922. The commission shall develop and implement a pilot program to determine how best to inform homeowners and potential homeowners of the availability, methods, and benefits of obtaining an energy efficient mortgage.

25923. The pilot program shall be designed to do all of the following:

(a) Meet the eligibility requirements of the energy efficient mortgage pilot program and training program established by the federal government pursuant to the Energy Policy Act of 1992 (P.L. 102-486) if this state is chosen to participate in the federal government's pilot program.

(b) Familiarize mortgage lenders, real estate licensees, home appraisers, home inspectors, energy utilities, energy service providers, and other participants with the features of the energy efficient mortgage and the benefits that can result from its use.

(c) Identify and implement effective methods of informing the public of the availability and benefits of the energy efficient mortgage.

(d) Develop methods of incorporating the use of the energy efficient mortgage into the regular business practices of mortgage lenders, real estate licensees, home appraisers, home inspectors, and other persons involved in the sale, refinancing, and remodeling of residential real estate.

(e) Encourage the use of a home energy rating analysis as a precondition to qualification for an energy efficient mortgage.

(f) Identify obstacles to the use of energy efficient mortgages and recommend ways to mitigate or eliminate the obstacles.

25924. (a) The commission shall convene one or more workshops with mortgage lenders, real estate licensees, home appraisers, home inspectors, energy utilities, energy service providers, and other appropriate parties to solicit recommendations on the implementation of the pilot program. The commission shall encourage those parties to participate in the pilot program.

(b) The commission shall consult, as needed, with the State Banking Department, the Department of Savings and Loan, the Department of Real Estate, and the Department of Housing and Community Development in carrying out this chapter.

25925. The commission shall report to the Governor and the Legislature upon the completion of the pilot program. Copies of the report shall also be sent to the appropriate policy committees of the Legislature, including the housing committees of the Senate and the Assembly. The report shall include all of the following:

(a) Results of the pilot program, including, but not limited to, the number of energy efficient mortgages used and the number of people who qualified for home financing as a result of using an energy efficient mortgage.

(b) Obstacles to the use of energy efficient mortgages.

(c) Recommendations on how to improve the use and effectiveness of energy efficient mortgages.

SEC. 3. Section 740.6 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

740.6. (a) The commission may authorize investor-owned gas and electric utilities to match grants provided to nonprofit agencies and local governments to participate in the Department of Economic Opportunity's pilot program to identify and counsel low-income individuals and group facilities that are eligible to receive rate discounts and weatherization benefits offered by those utilities. The amount of utility matching funds for the pilot program shall be limited to a statewide total of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000). The commission shall require that utility expenditures for those purposes be recoverable in rates.

(b) If federal funds become available for low-income energy assistance or weatherization programs that may be secured with matching funds from states or utilities, the commission may authorize investor-owned gas and electric utilities to match those federal funds, and shall require that utility expenditures for those purposes be recoverable in rates.

SEC. 4. Section 257 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

257. A "clean fuel vehicle" means any passenger or commercial vehicle or pickup truck that is fueled by alternative fuels, as defined in Section 301 of the Energy Policy Act of 1992 (P.L. 102-486), and produces emissions which do not exceed whichever of the following standards, as defined by regulations of the State Air Resources Board in effect on January 1, 1994, is applicable to the model year of the vehicle:

(a) For a vehicle of the 1994 to 1996, inclusive, model year, the emission standard applicable to a transitional low-emission vehicle.

(b) For a vehicle of the 1997 model year, the emission standard applicable to a low-emission vehicle.

(c) For a vehicle of the 1998 to 2000, inclusive, model year, the emission standard applicable to an ultra low-emission vehicle.

SEC. 5. Section 5062 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

5062. (a) This section shall be known, and may be cited, as the Rosenthal Blue Sky License Plate Program.

(b) The Legislature hereby finds and declares that CALSTART is a California nonprofit consortium dedicated to the development and commercialization of advanced transportation technologies, including clean fuel vehicles, and that CALSTART should be authorized to undertake a special environmental "Blue Sky" license plate program to facilitate the purchase and use of clean fuel vehicles in the state.

(c) CALSTART may, with the approval of the department, participate in this special interest license plate program.

(d) CALSTART may, with the approval of the department, develop a distinctive design, in conformance with Section 5060, for inclusion on a special interest license plate. The license plate shall be known as the Blue Sky license plate and shall signify that the vehicle to which it is assigned is a clean fuel vehicle.

(e) Any person who owns or leases a clean fuel vehicle, as defined in Section 257, and who applies for an original or renewal registration of that vehicle, may apply, through CALSTART, for a set of Blue Sky license plates in lieu of regular license plates.

(f) The Blue Sky license plate is subject to Sections 5106 and 5108. The revenues derived from the sale of the license plates shall be deposited in the California Environmental License Plate Fund, after the department has deducted its costs for developing and administering the program.

(g) Notwithstanding Section 5060, a Blue Sky license plate may, upon application of the holder, be transferred to another clean fuel vehicle. If the vehicle to which transfer is sought is not a clean fuel vehicle, the plates shall be surrendered to the department.

(h) CALSTART, in coordination with the State Air Resources Board, the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, and the Public Utilities Commission, shall undertake efforts to publicize the availability of Blue Sky license plates.

(i) Notwithstanding Section 5060, CALSTART shall have 12 months, commencing November 1, 1995, to receive the required applications and to notify the department that the requisite number of applications have been received. If, after that 12-month period, 5,000 applications have not been received, CALSTART shall immediately notify the department and refund to all applicants any fees or deposits which have been collected.

(j) If, on November 1, 1996, the department has not received a notice from CALSTART pursuant to subdivision (i) or if, on or before that date CALSTART notifies the department that the requisite number of applications have not been received, the department shall provide that information to the Secretary of State, and this section shall become inoperative upon receipt of that information by the Secretary of State, and shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 6. Notwithstanding Sections 13340 and 16361 of the Government Code, and to the extent permitted by federal law, the sum of seventeen million seven hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($17,775,000) of the money in the Federal Trust Fund, created by Section 16360 of the Government Code, received by the state from federal oil overcharge funds in the Petroleum Violation Escrow Account, as defined by Section 155 of the Further Continuing Appropriations Act of 1983 (P.L. 97-377) or other federal law, and consisting of federal oil overcharge funds available pursuant to court judgments or federal agency orders, is hereby appropriated, for expenditure in the 1993–94 fiscal year as follows:

(4) Energy efficient lighting for city facilities for the City of Garden Grove in the amount of sixty thousand dollars ($60,000).

(5) Energy efficient conversion of public pool chlorination system for the City of Woodlake in the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

SEC. 8. Money in the Federal Trust Fund, received by the state from federal oil overcharge funds in the Petroleum Violation Escrow Account, which is available for appropriation during the 1993–94 fiscal year, shall be used, upon appropriation, in accordance with subdivision (b) of Section 4 of Chapter 1426 of the Statutes of 1988, which declared the intent of the Legislature to appropriate one-half of each future disbursement received by the state from the account to complete the implementation of a one hundred million dollar ($100,000,000) Katz Safe Schoolbus Clean Fuel Efficiency Demonstration Program (Part 10.7 (commencing with Section 17910) of the Education Code).

SEC. 9. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1160

An act to amend Sections 21382, 21382.2, 21382.4, 21385, and 21385.7 of, and to add Sections 21382.5 and 21388 to, the Government Code, relating to the Public Employees' Retirement System.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 21382 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21382. (a) If the death benefit provided by Section 21361 is payable on account of a member's death which occurs under circumstances other than those described in subdivision (a) (5) of Section 21360, or if an allowance under Section 21365.5 is payable, the payment pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be made, in the following order of priority:

(1) The surviving wife or surviving husband of the member, who has the care of unmarried children, including stepchildren, of the member who are under 22 years of age, or are incapacitated because of disability which began before and has continued without interruption after attainment of that age.

(2) The guardian or conservator of surviving unmarried children, including stepchildren, of the member who are under 22 years of age or are so incapacitated.

(3) The surviving wife or surviving husband of the member, who does not qualify under paragraph (1).

(4) Each surviving parent of the member.

(b) Regardless of the benefit provided by Section 21361 and of the beneficiary designated by the member under that section, or regardless of the allowance provided under Section 21365.5, the following applicable 1959 survivor allowance, under the conditions stated and from contributions of the state, shall be paid:

(1) A surviving spouse who was either continuously married to the member for at least one year prior to death, or was married to the member prior to the occurrence of the injury or onset of the illness which resulted in death, and has the care of unmarried children, including stepchildren, of the deceased member who are under 22 years of age or are so incapacitated, shall be paid three hundred sixty dollars ($360) if there is one such child or four hundred thirty dollars ($430) per month if there are two or more such children. If there also are such children who are not in the care of the surviving spouse, the portion of the allowance payable under this paragraph, assuming that these children were in the care of the surviving spouse, which is in excess of one hundred eighty dollars ($180) per month, shall be divided equally among all those children and payments made to the spouse and other children, as the case may be.

(2) If there is no such surviving spouse, or if the surviving spouse dies or remarries, and if there are unmarried children, including stepchildren, of the deceased member who are under 22 years of age or are so incapacitated, or if there are such children not in the care of the spouse, the children shall be paid an allowance as follows:

(A) If there is only one child, the child shall be paid one hundred eighty dollars ($180) per month.

(B) If there are two children, the children shall be paid three hundred sixty dollars ($360) per month divided equally between them.

(C) If there are three or more children, the children shall be paid four hundred thirty dollars ($430) per month divided equally among them.

(3) A surviving spouse who has attained or attains the age of 62 years and, with respect to that surviving spouse, who was either continuously married to the member for at least one year prior to death, or who was married to the member prior to the occurrence of the injury or onset of the illness which resulted in death and has not remarried subsequent to the member's death, shall be paid one hundred eighty dollars ($180) per month. No allowance shall be paid under this paragraph, while the surviving spouse is receiving an allowance under paragraph (1), or while an allowance is being paid under subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2). The allowance paid under this paragraph shall be seventy dollars ($70) per month while an allowance is being paid under subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2).

(4) If there is no surviving spouse or surviving child who qualifies for a 1959 survivor allowance, or if such surviving spouse dies or remarries and there is no such surviving child, or if the surviving spouse dies or remarries and the children die or marry or, if not incapacitated, reach age 22, each of the member's dependent parents who has attained or attains the age of 62, and who received at least one-half of his or her support from the member at the time of the member's death, shall be paid one hundred eighty dollars ($180) per month.

(c) "Stepchildren," for purposes of this section, shall include only stepchildren of the member living with him in a regular parent-child relationship at the time of his death.

(d) The amendments to this section enacted at the 1971 Regular Session of the Legislature shall apply only to 1959 survivor allowances payable April 1, 1972, and thereafter.

(e) This section shall not apply to any member in the employ of an employer not subject to this section on January 1, 1994.

SEC. 2. Section 21382.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21382.2. (a) In lieu of benefits provided in Section 21382, if the death benefit provided by Section 21361 is payable on account of a state member's death which occurs under circumstances other than those described in subdivision (a) (5) of Section 21360, or if an allowance under Section 21365.5 is payable, the payment pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be made, in the following order of priority:

(1) The surviving wife or surviving husband of the member, who has the care of unmarried children, including stepchildren, of the member who are under 22 years of age, or are incapacitated because of disability which began before and has continued without interruption after attainment of that age.

(2) The guardian of surviving unmarried children, including stepchildren, of the member who are under 22 years of age or are so incapacitated.

(3) The surviving wife or surviving husband of the member, who does not qualify under paragraph (1).

(4) Each surviving parent of the member.

(b) Regardless of the benefit provided by Section 21361 and of the beneficiary designated by the member under that section, or regardless of the allowance provided under Section 21365.5, the following applicable 1959 survivor allowance, under the conditions stated and from contributions of the state, shall be paid:

(1) A surviving spouse who was either continuously married to the member for at least one year prior to death, or was married to the member prior to the occurrence of the injury or onset of the illness which resulted in death, and has the care of unmarried children, including stepchildren, of the deceased member who are under 22 years of age or are so incapacitated, shall be paid four hundred fifty dollars ($450) if there is one such child or five hundred thirty-eight dollars ($538) per month if there are two or more such children. If there also are such children who are not in the care of the surviving spouse, the portion of the allowance payable under this paragraph, assuming that these children were in the care of the surviving spouse, which is in excess of two hundred twenty-five dollars ($225) per month, shall be divided equally among all those children and payments made to the spouse and other children, as the case may be.

(2) If there is no such surviving spouse, or if the surviving spouse dies or remarries, and if there are unmarried children, including stepchildren, of the deceased member who are under 22 years of age or are so incapacitated, or if there are such children not in the care of the spouse, the children shall be paid an allowance as follows:

(A) If there is only one child, the child shall be paid two hundred twenty-five dollars ($225) per month.

(B) If there are two children, the children shall be paid four hundred fifty dollars ($450) per month divided equally between them.

(C) If there are three or more children, the children shall be paid five hundred thirty-eight dollars ($538) per month divided equally among them.

(3) A surviving spouse who has attained or attains the age of 62 years and, with respect to that surviving spouse, who was either continuously married to the member for at least one year prior to death, or was married to the member prior to the occurrence of the injury or onset of the illness which resulted in death and has not remarried subsequent to the member's death, shall be paid two hundred twenty-five dollars ($225) per month. No allowance shall be paid under this paragraph, while the surviving spouse is receiving an allowance under paragraph (1), or while an allowance is being paid under subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2). The allowance paid under this paragraph shall be eighty-eight dollars ($88) per month while an allowance is being paid under subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2).

(4) If there is no surviving spouse or surviving child who qualifies for a 1959 survivor allowance, or if such surviving spouse dies or remarries and there is no such surviving child, or if the surviving spouse dies or remarries and the children die or marry or, if not incapacitated, reach age 22, each of the member's dependent parents who has attained or attains the age of 62, and who received at least one-half of his or her support from the member at the time of the member's death, shall be paid two hundred twenty-five dollars ($225) per month.

(c) "Stepchildren," for purposes of this section, shall include only stepchildren of the member living with him or her in a regular parent-child relationship at the time of his or her death.

(d) This section shall apply to beneficiaries receiving 1959 survivor allowances on July 1, 1975, as well as to beneficiaries with respect to the death of a state member occurring on or after July 1, 1975.

(e) This section shall apply, with respect to benefits payable on and after July 1, 1981, to all members employed by a school employer, and school safety members employed with a school district or community college district as defined in subdivision (i) of Section 20009.1, except that it shall not apply, without contract amendment, with respect to safety members who became members after July 1, 1981. All assets and liabilities of all school employers, and their employees, on account of benefits provided under this article shall be pooled into a single account, and a single employer rate shall be established to provide benefits under this section on account of all miscellaneous members employed by a school employer and all safety members who are members on July 1, 1981.

(f) This section shall not apply to any member in the employ of an employer not subject to this section on January 1, 1994.

A contracting agency may, by amending its contract, elect to make this section applicable to local members employed by the agency.

SEC. 3. Section 21382.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21382.4. (a) In lieu of benefits provided in Section 21382 or Section 21382.2, if the death benefit provided by Section 21361 is payable on account of a state member's death which occurs under circumstances other than those described in paragraph (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 21360, or if an allowance under Section 21365.5 is payable, the payment pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be made in the following order of priority:

(1) The surviving wife or surviving husband of the member, who has the care of unmarried children, including stepchildren, of the member who are under 22 years of age, or are incapacitated because of disability which began before and has continued without interruption after attainment of that age.

(2) The guardian of surviving unmarried children, including stepchildren, of the member who are under 22 years of age or are so incapacitated.

(3) The surviving wife or surviving husband of the member, who does not qualify under paragraph (1).

(4) Each surviving parent of the member.

(b) Regardless of the benefit provided by Section 21361 and of the beneficiary designated by the member under that section, or regardless of the allowance provided under Section 21365.5, the following applicable 1959 survivor allowance, under the conditions stated and from contributions of the state, shall be paid:

(1) A surviving spouse who was either continuously married to the member for at least one year prior to death, or who was married to the member prior to the occurrence of the injury or onset of the illness which resulted in death, and has the care of unmarried children, including stepchildren, of the deceased member who are under 22 years of age or are so incapacitated, shall be paid seven hundred dollars ($700) per month if there is one such child, or eight hundred forty dollars ($840) per month if there are two or more such children. If there also are such children who are not in the care of the surviving spouse, the portion of the allowance payable under this paragraph, assuming that these children were in the care of the surviving spouse, which is in excess of three hundred fifty dollars ($350) per month, shall be divided equally among all those children and payments made to the spouse and other children, as the case may be.

(2) If there is no such surviving spouse, or if the surviving spouse dies or remarries, and if there are unmarried children, including stepchildren, of the deceased member who are under 22 years of age or are so incapacitated, or if there are such children not in the care of the spouse, the children shall be paid an allowance as follows:

(A) If there is only one child, the child shall be paid three hundred fifty dollars ($350) per month.

(B) If there are two children, the children shall be paid seven hundred dollars ($700) per month divided equally between them.

(C) If there are three or more children, the children shall be paid eight hundred forty dollars ($840) per month divided equally among them.

(3) A surviving spouse who has attained or attains the age of 62 years, and, with respect to that surviving spouse, who was either continuously married to the member for at least one year prior to death, or who was married to the member prior to the occurrence of the injury or onset of the illness which resulted in death and has not remarried subsequent to the member's death, shall be paid three hundred fifty dollars ($350) per month. No allowance shall be paid under paragraph (1), or while an allowance is being paid under subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2). The allowance paid under this paragraph shall be one hundred forty dollars ($140) per month while an allowance is being paid under subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2).

(4) If there is no surviving spouse or surviving child who qualifies for the 1959 survivor allowance, or if the surviving spouse dies or remarries and there is no such surviving child, or if the surviving spouse dies or remarries and the children die or marry or, if not incapacitated, reach 22 years of age, each of the member's dependent parents who has attained or attains the age of 62 years, and who received at least one-half of his or her support from the member at the time of the member's death, shall be paid three hundred fifty dollars ($350) per month.

(c) "Stepchildren," for purposes of this section, shall include only stepchildren of the member living with the member in a regular parent-child relationship at the time of the death of the member.

(d) This section shall apply to beneficiaries of state members whose death occurred before January 1, 1985. Where a surviving spouse attained age 62 prior to January 1, 1987, entitlement shall exist retroactive to January 1, 1985, or to his or her 62nd birthday, whichever is later. All assets and liabilities of all state agencies and their employees on account of benefits provided to beneficiaries specified in this subdivision shall be pooled into a single account. The board shall transfer from the reserve for 1959 survivor contributions retained in the retirement fund, an amount sufficient to pay the cost of the increased benefits provided by this subdivision for beneficiaries of members who died on or before December 31, 1984.

(e) This section shall not apply to beneficiaries with respect to the death of a state member, except as provided in subdivision (i), occurring on or after January 1, 1985, unless provided for in a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Section 3517.5, or authorized by the Director of Personnel Administration for classifications of state employees who are excluded from, or not subject to, collective bargaining. The memorandum of understanding adopting this section shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if those provisions of a memorandum of understanding require the expenditure of funds, those provisions shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature as provided by law.

(f) This section shall apply, with respect to benefits payable on and after January 1, 1985, to school members and to school safety members, as defined in Section 20019.6. All assets and liabilities of all school employers, and their employees, on account of benefits provided under this article shall be pooled into a single account, and a single employer rate shall be established to provide benefits under this section on account of school members employed by a school employer.

(g) This section shall apply to members of a contracting agency which, by, in its original contract, or amending its contract, first elects effective on or after January 1, 1985, to make this article applicable to local members employed by the agency. On and after January 1, 1985, contracting agencies already subject to Section 21382 or Section 21382.2 may elect by contract amendment to be subject to this section. All assets and liabilities of all contracting agencies subject to this section, and their employees, on account of benefits provided under this article shall be pooled into a single account, and a single employer rate shall be established to provide benefits under this section on account of members employed by a contracting agency which is subject to this section. Any public agency first contracting with the board on and after January 1, 1994, or any contracting agency amending its contract to remove exclusions of member classifications on or after January 1, 1994, which has not, pursuant to Section 218 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 418), entered into an agreement with the federal government for the coverage of its employees under the federal system shall be subject to this section.

(h) The rate of contribution of an employer subject to this section shall be figured using the term insurance valuation method. If a contracting agency which is subject to this section has a surplus in its 1959 survivor benefit account as of the date the contracting agency becomes subject to this section, the surplus shall be applied to reduce its rate of contribution. If a contracting agency which is subject to this section has a deficit in its 1959 survivor benefit account as of the date the contracting agency becomes subject to this section, its rate of contribution shall be increased until the deficit is paid.

(i) This section shall not apply to beneficiaries with respect to the death of a state member employed by the California State University occurring on or after January 1, 1988, unless provided for in a memorandum of understanding reached pursuant to Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 3560) of Division 4 of Title 1, or authorized by the Trustees of the California State University for employees excluded from collective bargaining. The memorandum of understanding shall be controlling without further legislative action, except that if the provisions of a memorandum of understanding require the expenditure of funds, the provisions shall not become effective unless approved by the Legislature in the annual Budget Act.

SEC. 4. Section 21382.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

21382.5. (a) In lieu of benefits provided in Section 21382, 21382.2, or 21382.4, if the death benefit provided by Section 21361 is payable on account of a local member's death that occurs under circumstances other than those described in subparagraph (F) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 21360, or if an allowance under Section 21365.5 is payable, the payment pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be made in the following order of priority:

(1) The surviving spouse of the member, who has the care of unmarried children, including stepchildren, of the member who are under 22 years of age, or are incapacitated because of disability which began before and has continued without interruption after the attainment of that age.

(2) The guardian of surviving unmarried children, including stepchildren, of the member who are 22 years of age or are so incapacitated.

(3) The surviving spouse of the member, who does not qualify under paragraph (1).

(4) Each surviving parent of the member.

(b) Regardless of the benefit provided by Section 21361 and of the beneficiary designated by the member under that section, or regardless of the allowance provided under Section 21365.5, the following applicable 1959 survivor allowance, under the conditions stated and from contributions of the contracting agency, shall be paid:

(1) A surviving spouse who was married to the member prior to the occurrence of the injury or onset of the illness which resulted in death, and has the care of unmarried children, including stepchildren, of the deceased member who are under 22 years of age or are so incapacitated, shall be paid one thousand nine hundred dollars ($1,900) per month if there is one child or two thousand two hundred eighty dollars ($2,280) per month if there are two or more children. If there also are children who are not in the care of the surviving spouse, the portion of the allowance payable under this paragraph, assuming that these children were in the care of the surviving spouse, which is in excess of nine hundred fifty dollars ($950) per month, shall be divided equally among all those children and payments made to the spouse and other children, as the case may be.

(2) If there is no surviving spouse, or if the surviving spouse dies or remarries, and if there are unmarried children, including stepchildren, of the deceased member who are under 22 years of age or are so incapacitated, or if there are children not in the care of the spouse, the children shall be paid an allowance as follows:

(A) If there is only one child, the child shall be paid nine hundred fifty dollars ($950) per month.

(B) If there are two children, the children shall be paid one thousand nine hundred dollars ($1,900) per month divided equally between them.

(C) If there are three or more children, the children shall be paid two thousand two hundred eighty dollars ($2,280) per month divided equally among them.

(3) A surviving spouse who has attained or attains the age of 60 years, and who was married to the member prior to the occurrence of the injury or onset of the illness which resulted in death and has not remarried subsequent to the member's death, shall be paid nine hundred fifty dollars ($950) per month. No allowance shall be paid under paragraph (1), or while an allowance is being paid under subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2). The allowance paid under this paragraph shall be three hundred eighty dollars ($380) per month while an allowance is being paid under subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2).

(4) If there is no surviving spouse or surviving child who qualifies for the 1959 survivor allowance, or if the surviving spouse dies or remarries and there is no surviving child, or if the surviving spouse dies or remarries and the children die or marry or, if not incapacitated, reach 22 years of age, each of the member's dependent parents who has attained or attains the age of 60 years, and who received at least one-half of his or her support from the member at the time of the member's death, shall be paid nine hundred fifty dollars ($950) per month.

(c) "Stepchildren," for purposes of this section, shall include only stepchildren of the member living with the member in a regular parent-child relationship at the time for the death of the member.

(d) This section shall only apply to members of a contracting agency, which by amending its contract, first elects effective on or after January 1, 1994, to make this section applicable to local members employed by the agency. On and after January 1, 1994, contracting agencies already subject to Section 21382, 21382.2, or 21382.4 may elect by contract amendment to be subject to this section. Notwithstanding Section 21382.4, a public agency first contracting with the board on and after January 1, 1994, may include this section in its contract. All assets and liabilities of all contracting agencies subject to this section, and their employees, on account of benefits provided under this article shall be pooled into a single account, and a single employer rate shall be established to provide benefits under this section on account of members employed by a contracting agency which is subject to this section.

(e) The rate of contribution of an employer subject to this section shall be calculated using the term insurance valuation method. If a contracting agency which is subject to this section has a surplus in its 1959 survivor benefit account as of the date the contracting agency becomes subject to this section, the surplus shall be applied to reduce its rate of contribution. If a contracting agency which is subject to this section has a deficit in its 1959 survivor benefit account as of the date the contracting agency becomes subject to this section, its rate of contribution shall be increased until the deficit is paid.

SEC. 5. Section 21385 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21385. This article shall not apply to any contracting agency nor to the employees of any contracting agency unless and until the agency elects to be subject to the provisions of this article by amendment to its contract made in the manner prescribed for approval of contracts, except that an election among the employees pursuant to Section 20457 is not required, or, in the case of contracts made after the time this article takes effect, by express provision in the contract making the contracting agency subject to the provisions of this article. Any public agency first contracting with the board on and after January 1, 1994, which has not, pursuant to Section 218 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 418), entered into an agreement with the federal government for the coverage of its employees under the federal system shall be subject to this section.

Except as provided in Section 21385.5, this article shall not in any event apply to employees of a contracting agency whose services are included in the federal system. Members who are employees of a contracting agency when the agency becomes subject to this article and whose services are not included in the federal system shall have the right to elect to be subject to this article, that election to be made in the manner, and within the time periods, specified in rules adopted by the board. Employees of that contracting agency becoming members thereafter shall be subject to this article without election.

SEC. 6. Section 21385.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21385.7. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Sections 21382, 21382.2, 21382.4, and 21382.5, this article shall apply to a surviving spouse of a local member who has attained or attains the age of 60 years and, with respect to that surviving spouse, who was either continuously married to the member for at least one year prior to death, or who was married to the member prior to the occurrence of the injury or onset of the illness which resulted in death and has not remarried subsequent to the member's death.

A contracting agency that is already subject to this article, on and after January 1, 1993, may elect to be subject to this section by amendment to its contract made in the manner prescribed for approval of contracts, except that an election among the employees shall not be required. In the case of contracts made on or after January 1, 1993, this section shall apply to members of a contracting agency which either expressly includes this section in its contract or subsequently elects to amend its contract to make this section applicable to local members employed by the agency.

SEC. 7. Section 21388 is added to the Government Code, to read:

21388. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a local member may elect, within 90 days after the effective date of the amended contract, to have the 1959 survivor allowance coverage under this article.

The effective date of coverage shall be the date that the member first became eligible for the 1959 survivor allowance. The member shall contribute two dollars ($2) for every month from the date of original eligibility.

This section shall not apply to any contracting agency unless and until the agency elects to be subject to this section by amendment to its contract made in the manner prescribed for the approval of contracts, except that an election among the employees is not required.

This section shall not apply to members while their services are included in the federal system.

CHAPTER 1161

An act to amend Section 14105.39 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to, Medi-Cal, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14105.39 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14105.39. (a) (1) A manufacturer of a new single-source drug may request inclusion of its drug on the list of contract drugs pursuant to Section 14105.33 provided all of the following conditions are met:

(A) The request is made within 18 months of approval for marketing by the federal Food and Drug Administration.

(B) The manufacturer agrees to negotiate a contract with the department to provide the drug at the manufacturer's best price.

(C) (i) The manufacturer provides the department with necessary information, as specified by the department, in the request.

(ii) Notwithstanding clause (i), either of the following may be submitted by the manufacturer in lieu of the Summary Basis of Approval prepared by the federal Food and Drug Administration for that drug:

(I) The federal Food and Drug Administration's approval or approvable letter for the drug and federal Food and Drug Administration's approved labeling.

(II) The federal Food and Drug Administration's medical officers' and pharmacologists' reviews and the federal Food and Drug Administration's approved labeling.

(D) The department had concluded contracting for the therapeutic category in which the drug is included prior to approval of the drug by the federal Food and Drug Administration.

(2) Within 90 days from receipt of the request, the department shall evaluate the request using the criteria identified in subdivision (d), and shall submit the drug to the Medi-Cal Contract Drug Advisory Committee.

(b) Any petition for the addition to or deletion of a drug to the Medi-Cal drug formulary submitted prior to July 31, 1990, shall be deemed to be denied. A manufacturer who has submitted a petition deemed denied may request inclusion of that drug on the list of contract drugs provided all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The manufacturer agrees to negotiate for a contract with the department to provide the drug at the manufacturer's best price.

(2) The manufacturer provides the department with necessary information, as specified by the department, in the request.

(3) The manufacturer submits the request to the department prior to October 1, 1990.

(c) Any new drug designated as having an important therapeutic gain and approved for marketing by the federal Food and Drug Administration on or after July 31, 1990, shall immediately be included on the list of contract drugs for a period of three years provided that all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The manufacturer offers the department its best price.

(2) The drug is typically administered in an outpatient setting.

(3) The drug is prescribed only for the indications and usage specified in the federal Food and Drug Administration approved labeling.

(4) The drug is determined by the director to be safe, relative to other drugs in the same therapeutic category on the list of contract drugs.

(d) (1) To ensure that the health needs of Medi-Cal beneficiaries are met consistent with the intent of this chapter, the department shall, when evaluating a decision to execute a contract, and when evaluating drugs for retention on, addition to, or deletion from, the list of contract drugs, use all of the following criteria:

(A) The safety of the drug.

(B) The effectiveness of the drug.

(C) The essential need for the drug.

(D) The potential for misuse of the drug.

(E) The cost of the drug.

(2) The deficiency of a drug when measured by one of these criteria may be sufficient to support a decision that the drug should not be added or retained, or should be deleted from the list. However, the superiority of a drug under one criterion may be sufficient to warrant the addition or retention of the drug, notwithstanding a deficiency in another criterion.

(e) (1) A manufacturer of single-source drugs denied a contract pursuant to this section or Section 14105.33 or 14105.37, may file an appeal of that decision with the director within 30 calendar days of the department's written decision.

(2) Within 30 calendar days of the manufacturer's appeal, the director shall request a recommendation regarding the appeal from the Medi-Cal Contract Drug Advisory Committee. The committee shall provide its recommendation in writing, within 30 calendar days of the director's request.

(3) The director shall issue a final decision on the appeal within 30 calendar days of the recommendation.

(f) Changes made to the list of contract drugs, including those made pursuant to Section 14105.37, shall become effective no sooner than 30 days after publication of the changes in provider bulletins.

(g) Changes made to the list of contract drugs under this or any other section are exempt from the requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340), Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 11370), and Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code), and shall not be subject to the review and approval of the Office of Administrative Law.

(h) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 14105.39 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14105.39. (a) (1) A manufacturer of a new single-source drug may request inclusion of its drug on the list of contract drugs pursuant to Section 14105.33 provided all of the following conditions are met:

(A) The request is made within 18 months of approval for marketing by the federal Food and Drug Administration.

(B) The manufacturer agrees to negotiate a contract with the department to provide the drug at the manufacturer's best price.

(C) (i) The manufacturer provides the department with necessary information, as specified by the department, in the request.

(ii) Notwithstanding clause (i), either of the following may be submitted by the manufacturer in lieu of the Summary Basis of Approval prepared by the federal Food and Drug Administration for that drug:

(I) The federal Food and Drug Administration's approval or approvable letter for the drug and federal Food and Drug Administration's approved labeling.

(II) The federal Food and Drug Administration's medical officers' and pharmacologists' reviews and the federal Food and Drug Administration's approved labeling.

(D) The department had concluded contracting for the therapeutic category in which the drug is included prior to approval of the drug by the federal Food and Drug Administration.

(2) Within 90 days from receipt of the request, the department shall evaluate the request using the criteria identified in subdivision (d), and shall submit the drug to the Medi-Cal Drug Advisory Committee.

(b) Any petition for the addition to or deletion of a drug to the Medi-Cal drug formulary submitted prior to July 31, 1990, shall be deemed to be denied. A manufacturer who has submitted a petition deemed denied may request inclusion of that drug on the list of contract drugs provided all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The manufacturer agrees to negotiate for a contract with the department to provide the drug at the manufacturer's best price.

(2) The manufacturer provides the department with necessary information, as specified by the department, in the request.

(3) The manufacturer submits the request to the department prior to October 1, 1990.

(c) Any new drug designated as having an important therapeutic gain and approved for marketing by the federal Food and Drug Administration on or after July 31, 1990, shall immediately be included on the list of contract drugs for a period of three years provided that all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The manufacturer offers the department its best price.

(2) The drug is typically administered in an outpatient setting.

(3) The drug is prescribed only for the indications and usage specified in the federal Food and Drug Administration approved labeling.

(4) The drug is determined by the director to be safe, relative to other drugs in the same therapeutic category on the list of contract drugs.

(d) (1) To ensure that the health needs of Medi-Cal beneficiaries are met consistent with the intent of this chapter, the department shall, when evaluating a decision to execute a contract, and when evaluating drugs for retention on, addition to, or deletion from, the list of contract drugs, use all of the following criteria:

(A) The safety of the drug.

(B) The effectiveness of the drug.

(C) The essential need for the drug.

(D) The potential for misuse of the drug.

(E) The cost of the drug, including both of the following:

(i) The cost per day or course of therapy taking into account the cure rate of the drug.

(ii) Whether the utilization of the drug product will reduce or avoid hospitalizations, skilled nursing, intermediate care facility costs, or outpatient services through any of the following:

(I) Reduction in the need for other drugs or therapies.

(II) Reduction in the rate of hospitalization or the need for other remedial health care services, or both.

(III) Reduction in the severity of adverse drug reactions or drug interactions, or both, resulting in a reduction of hospitalizations or outpatient services.

(IV) Reduction in diagnostic or other testing procedures performed on an inpatient or outpatient basis necessitated by currently utilized therapies.

(2) The deficiency of a drug when measured by one of these criteria may be sufficient to support a decision that the drug should not be added or retained, or should be deleted from the list. However, the superiority of a drug under one criterion may be sufficient to warrant the addition or retention of the drug, notwithstanding a deficiency in another criterion.

(e) (1) A manufacturer of single-source drugs denied a contract pursuant to this section or Section 14105.33 or 14105.37, may file an appeal of that decision with the director within 30 calendar days of the department's written decision.

(2) Within 30 calendar days of the manufacturer's appeal, the director shall request a recommendation regarding the appeal from the Medi-Cal Contract Drug Advisory Committee. The committee shall provide its recommendation in writing, within 30 calendar days of the director's request.

(3) The director shall issue a final decision on the appeal within 30 calendar days of the recommendation.

(f) Changes made to the list of contract drugs, including those made pursuant to Section 14105.37, shall become effective no sooner than 30 days after publication of the changes in provider bulletins.

(g) Changes made to the list of contract drugs under this or any other section are exempt from the requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340), Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 11370), and Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code), and shall not be subject to the review and approval of the Office of Administrative Law.

(h) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 14105.39 of the Welfare and Institutions Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1180. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1994, but this bill becomes operative first, (2) each bill amends Section 14105.39 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1180, in which case Section 14105.39 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by Section 1 of this bill, shall remain operative only until the operative date of SB 1180, at which time, Section 2 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to implement the savings to the Medi-Cal program made by this act at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1162

An act to amend Section 14105.33 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14105.33 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14105.33. (a) The department may enter into contracts with manufacturers of single-source and multiple-source drugs, on a bid or nonbid basis, for drugs from each major therapeutic category, and shall maintain a list of those drugs for which contracts have been executed. It is the intent of the Legislature that, in the implementation of this section during the 1992–93 fiscal year, the director negotiate as aggressively as necessary to achieve the savings related to pharmaceutical contracting identified in the Budget Act of 1992 (Chapter 587 of the Statutes of 1992).

(b) (1) Contracts executed pursuant to this section shall be for the manufacturer's best price, as defined in Section 14105.31, which shall be specified in the contract, and subject to agreed upon price escalators, as defined in that section. The contracts shall provide for an equalization payment amount, as defined in Section 14105.31, to be remitted to the department quarterly. The department shall submit an invoice to each manufacturer for the equalization payment amount, based on utilization data from the department's prescription drug paid claims tapes. The drugs of any manufacturer with an existing contract that does not execute a contract amendment with the department within 60 days of the effective date of the amendment of this section enacted in 1992, pursuant to the requirements of this subdivision as amended, or a manufacturer without an existing contract that does not execute a contract with the department within 60 days of the effective date of this amendment of this section enacted in 1992, pursuant to the requirements of this subdivision as amended, shall be available to Medi-Cal beneficiaries only through prior authorization.

(2) The department shall provide for an annual audit of utilization data used to calculate the equalization amount to verify the accuracy of that data. The findings of the audit shall be documented in a written audit report to be made available to manufacturers within 90 days of receipt of the report from the auditor. Any manufacturer may receive a copy of the audit report upon written request. Contracts between the department and manufacturers shall provide for any equalization payment adjustments determined necessary pursuant to an audit.

(3) Utilization data used to determine an equalization payment amount shall exclude data from both of the following:

(A) Health maintenance organizations, as defined in Section 300e(a) of Title 42 of the United States Code, including those organizations that contract under Section 1396b(m) of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(B) Capitated plans that include a prescription drug benefit in the capitated rate, and that have negotiated contracts for rebates or discounts with manufacturers.

(c) In order that Medi-Cal beneficiaries may have access to a comprehensive range of therapeutic agents, the department shall ensure that there is representation on the list of contract drugs in all major therapeutic categories. Except as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 14105.35, the department shall not be required to contract with all manufacturers who negotiate for a contract in a particular category. The department shall ensure that there is sufficient representation of single-source and multiple-source drugs, as appropriate, in each major therapeutic category.

(d) (1) The department shall select the therapeutic categories to be included on the list of contract drugs, and the order in which it seeks contracts for those categories. The department may establish different contracting schedules for single-source and multiple-source drugs within a given therapeutic category.

(2) The department shall make every attempt to complete the initial contracting process for each major therapeutic category by January 1, 1997.

(e) (1) In order to fully implement subdivision (d), the department shall, to the extent necessary, negotiate or renegotiate contracts to ensure there are as many single-source drugs within each therapeutic category or subcategory as the department determines necessary to meet the health needs of the Medi-Cal population. The department may determine in selected therapeutic categories or subcategories that no single-source drugs are necessary because there are currently sufficient multiple-source drugs in the therapeutic category or subcategory on the list of contract drugs to meet the health needs of the Medi-Cal population. However, in no event shall a beneficiary be denied continued use of a drug which is part of a prescribed therapy in effect as of September 2, 1992, until the prescribed therapy is no longer prescribed.

(2) In the development of decisions by the department on the required number of single-source drugs in a therapeutic category or subcategory, and the relative therapeutic merits of each drug in a therapeutic category or subcategory, the department shall consult with the Medi-Cal Contract Drug Advisory Committee. The committee members shall communicate their comments and recommendations to the department within 10 business days of a request for consultation, and shall disclose any associations with pharmaceutical manufacturers or any remuneration from pharmaceutical manufacturers.

(3) In order to expedite implementation of paragraph (1), the requirements of Sections 14105.37, 14105.38, subdivisions (a), (c), (e), and (f) of Sections 14105.39, 14105.4, and 14105.405 are waived for the purposes of this section until January 1, 1994.

(f) In order to achieve maximum cost savings, the Legislature declares that an expedited process for contracts under this section is necessary. Therefore, contracts entered into on a nonbid basis shall be exempt from Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 10290) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code.

(g) In no event shall a beneficiary be denied continued use of a drug that is part of a prescribed therapy in effect as of September 2, 1992, until the prescribed therapy is no longer prescribed.

(h) Contracts executed pursuant to this section shall be confidential and shall be exempt from disclosure under the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code).

(i) The department shall provide individual notice to Medi-Cal beneficiaries at least 60 calendar days prior to the effective date of the deletion or suspension of any drug from the list of contract drugs. The notice shall include a description of the beneficiary's right to a fair hearing and shall encourage the beneficiary to consult a physician to determine if an appropriate substitute medication is available from Medi-Cal.

(j) In carrying out the provisions of this section, the department may contract either directly, or through the fiscal intermediary, for pharmacy consultant staff necessary to initially accomplish the treatment authorization request reviews. This authority shall extend for a maximum of 18 months from the date of the initial contract.

(k) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 14105.33 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14105.33. (a) The department may enter into contracts with manufacturers of single-source and multiple-source drugs, on a bid or nonbid basis, for drugs from each major therapeutic category, and shall maintain a list of those drugs for which contracts have been executed. It is the intent of the Legislature that, in the implementation of this section during the 1992–93 fiscal year, the director negotiate as aggressively as necessary to achieve the savings related to pharmaceutical contracting identified in the Budget Act of 1992 (Chapter 587 of the Statutes of 1992).

(b) (1) Contracts executed pursuant to this section shall be for the manufacturer's best price, as defined in Section 14105.31, which shall be specified in the contract, and subject to agreed upon price escalators, as defined in that section. The contracts shall provide for an equalization payment amount, as defined in Section 14105.31, to be remitted to the department quarterly. The department shall submit an invoice to each manufacturer for the equalization payment amount, based on utilization data from the department's prescription drug paid claims tapes. The drugs of any manufacturer with an existing contract that does not execute a contract amendment with the department within 60 days of the effective date of the amendment of this section enacted in 1992, pursuant to the requirements of this subdivision as amended, or a manufacturer without an existing contract that does not execute a contract with the department within 60 days of the effective date of this amendment of this section enacted in 1992, pursuant to the requirements of this subdivision as amended, shall be available to Medi-Cal beneficiaries only through prior authorization.

(2) The department shall provide for an annual audit of utilization data used to calculate the equalization amount to verify the accuracy of that data. The findings of the audit shall be documented in a written audit report to be made available to manufacturers within 90 days of receipt of the report from the auditor. Any manufacturer may receive a copy of the audit report upon written request. Contracts between the department and manufacturers shall provide for any equalization payment adjustments determined necessary pursuant to an audit.

(3) (A) The department shall provide for an annual written report of Medi-Cal pharmacy costs or Medi-Cal drug costs, as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 14105.31.

(B) The annual report shall be consistent with the relevant sections of the Quarterly Report of Expenditures for the Medi-Cal Assistance Program, known as the HCFA-64 Report, provided to the Health Care Financing Administration. The report shall include the following expenditure and receipt information:

(i) The total annual equalization payment amounts received by the department pursuant to agreements with the Health Care Financing Administration of the United States Department of Health and Human Services.

(ii) The total annual equalization payment amounts received pursuant to state contracts with drug manufacturers.

(iii) Total drug cost amounts upon which equalization payments were made.

(4) Utilization data used to determine an equalization payment amount shall exclude data from both of the following:

(A) Health maintenance organizations, as defined in Section 300e(a) of Title 42 of the United States Code, including those organizations that contract under Section 1396b(m) of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(B) Capitated plans that include a prescription drug benefit in the capitated rate, and that have negotiated contracts for rebates or discounts with manufacturers.

(c) In order that Medi-Cal beneficiaries may have access to a comprehensive range of therapeutic agents, the department shall ensure that there is representation on the list of contract drugs in all major therapeutic categories. Except as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 14105.35, the department shall not be required to contract with all manufacturers who negotiate for a contract in a particular category. The department shall ensure that there is sufficient representation of single-source and multiple-source drugs, as appropriate, in each major therapeutic category.

(d) (1) The department shall select the therapeutic categories to be included on the list of contract drugs, and the order in which it seeks contracts for those categories. The department may establish different contracting schedules for single-source and multiple-source drugs within a given therapeutic category.

(2) The department shall make every attempt to complete the initial contracting process for each major therapeutic category by January 1, 1997.

(e) (1) In order to fully implement subdivision (d), the department shall, to the extent necessary, negotiate or renegotiate contracts to ensure there are as many single-source drugs within each therapeutic category or subcategory as the department determines necessary to meet the health needs of the Medi-Cal population. The department may determine in selected therapeutic categories or subcategories that no single-source drugs are necessary because there are currently sufficient multiple-source drugs in the therapeutic category or subcategory on the list of contract drugs to meet the health needs of the Medi-Cal population. However, in no event shall a beneficiary be denied continued use of a drug which is part of a prescribed therapy in effect as of September 2, 1992, until the prescribed therapy is no longer prescribed.

(2) In the development of decisions by the department on the required number of single-source drugs in a therapeutic category or subcategory, and the relative therapeutic merits of each drug in a therapeutic category or subcategory, the department shall consult with the Medi-Cal Contract Drug Advisory Committee. The committee members shall communicate their comments and recommendations to the department within 10 business days of a request for consultation, and shall disclose any associations with pharmaceutical manufacturers or any remuneration from pharmaceutical manufacturers.

(3) In order to expedite implementation of paragraph (1), the requirements of Sections 14105.37, 14105.38, subdivisions (a), (c), (e), and (f) of Sections 14105.39, 14105.4, and 14105.405 are waived for the purposes of this section until January 1, 1994.

(f) In order to achieve maximum cost savings, the Legislature declares that an expedited process for contracts under this section is necessary. Therefore, contracts entered into on a nonbid basis shall be exempt from Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 10290) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code.

(g) In no event shall a beneficiary be denied continued use of a drug that is part of a prescribed therapy in effect as of September 2, 1992, until the prescribed therapy is no longer prescribed.

(h) Contracts executed pursuant to this section shall be confidential and shall be exempt from disclosure under the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code).

(i) The department shall provide individual notice to Medi-Cal beneficiaries at least 60 calendar days prior to the effective date of the deletion or suspension of any drug from the list of contract drugs. The notice shall include a description of the beneficiary's right to a fair hearing and shall encourage the beneficiary to consult a physician to determine if an appropriate substitute medication is available from Medi-Cal.

(j) In carrying out the provisions of this section, the department may contract either directly, or through the fiscal intermediary, for pharmacy consultant staff necessary to initially accomplish the treatment authorization request reviews. This authority shall extend for a maximum of 18 months from the date of the initial contract.

(k) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Section 14105.33 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14105.33. (a) The department may enter into contracts with manufacturers of single-source and multiple-source drugs, on a bid or nonbid basis, for drugs from each major therapeutic category, and shall maintain a list of those drugs for which contracts have been executed. It is the intent of the Legislature that, in the implementation of this section during the 1992–93 fiscal year, the director negotiate as aggressively as necessary to achieve the savings related to pharmaceutical contracting identified in the Budget Act of 1992 (Chapter 587 of the Statutes of 1992).

(b) (1) Contracts executed pursuant to this section shall be for the manufacturer's best price, as defined in Section 14105.31, which shall be specified in the contract, and subject to agreed upon price escalators, as defined in that section. The contracts shall provide for an equalization payment amount, as defined in Section 14105.31, to be remitted to the department quarterly. The department shall submit an invoice to each manufacturer for the equalization payment amount, based on utilization data from the department's prescription drug paid claims tapes. The drugs of any manufacturer with an existing contract that does not execute a contract amendment with the department within 60 days of the effective date of the amendment of this section enacted in 1992, pursuant to the requirements of this subdivision as amended, or a manufacturer without an existing contract that does not execute a contract with the department within 60 days of the effective date of this amendment of this section enacted in 1992, pursuant to the requirements of this subdivision as amended, shall be available to Medi-Cal beneficiaries only through prior authorization.

(2) The department shall provide for an annual audit of utilization data used to calculate the equalization amount to verify the accuracy of that data. The findings of the audit shall be documented in a written audit report to be made available to manufacturers within 90 days of receipt of the report from the auditor. Any manufacturer may receive a copy of the audit report upon written request. Contracts between the department and manufacturers shall provide for any equalization payment adjustments determined necessary pursuant to an audit.

(3) In negotiating contracts, the department shall, upon request, provide manufacturers reasonable disclosure of the methods used to develop cost estimates.

(4) Utilization data used to determine an equalization payment amount shall exclude data from both of the following:

(A) Health maintenance organizations, as defined in Section 300e(a) of Title 42 of the United States Code, including those organizations that contract under Section 1396b(m) of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(B) Capitated plans that include a prescription drug benefit in the capitated rate, and that have negotiated contracts for rebates or discounts with manufacturers.

(c) In order that Medi-Cal beneficiaries may have access to a comprehensive range of therapeutic agents, the department shall ensure that there is representation on the list of contract drugs in all major therapeutic categories. Except as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 14105.35, the department shall not be required to contract with all manufacturers who negotiate for a contract in a particular category. The department shall ensure that there is sufficient representation of single-source and multiple-source drugs, as appropriate, in each major therapeutic category.

(d) (1) The department shall select the therapeutic categories to be included on the list of contract drugs, and the order in which it seeks contracts for those categories. The department may establish different contracting schedules for single-source and multiple-source drugs within a given therapeutic category.

(2) The department shall make every attempt to complete the initial contracting process for each major therapeutic category by January 1, 1997.

(e) (1) In order to fully implement subdivision (d), the department shall, to the extent necessary, negotiate or renegotiate contracts to ensure there are as many single-source drugs within each therapeutic category or subcategory as the department determines necessary to meet the health needs of the Medi-Cal population. The department may determine in selected therapeutic categories or subcategories that no single-source drugs are necessary because there are currently sufficient multiple-source drugs in the therapeutic category or subcategory on the list of contract drugs to meet the health needs of the Medi-Cal population. However, in no event shall a beneficiary be denied continued use of a drug which is part of a prescribed therapy in effect as of September 2, 1992, until the prescribed therapy is no longer prescribed.

(2) In the development of decisions by the department on the required number of single-source drugs in a therapeutic category or subcategory, and the relative therapeutic merits of each drug in a therapeutic category or subcategory, the department shall consult with the Medi-Cal Contract Drug Advisory Committee. The committee members shall communicate their comments and recommendations to the department within 10 business days of a request for consultation, and shall disclose any associations with pharmaceutical manufacturers or any remuneration from pharmaceutical manufacturers.

(3) In order to expedite implementation of paragraph (1), the requirements of Sections 14105.37, 14105.38, subdivisions (a), (c), (e), and (f) of Sections 14105.39, 14105.4, and 14105.405 are waived for the purposes of this section until January 1, 1994.

(f) In order to achieve maximum cost savings, the Legislature declares that an expedited process for contracts under this section is necessary. Therefore, contracts entered into on a nonbid basis shall be exempt from Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 10290) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code.

(g) In no event shall a beneficiary be denied continued use of a drug that is part of a prescribed therapy in effect as of September 2, 1992, until the prescribed therapy is no longer prescribed.

(h) Contracts executed pursuant to this section shall be confidential and shall be exempt from disclosure under the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code).

(i) The department shall provide individual notice to Medi-Cal beneficiaries at least 60 calendar days prior to the effective date of the deletion or suspension of any drug from the list of contract drugs. The notice shall include a description of the beneficiary's right to a fair hearing and shall encourage the beneficiary to consult a physician to determine if an appropriate substitute medication is available from Medi-Cal.

(j) In carrying out the provisions of this section, the department may contract either directly, or through the fiscal intermediary, for pharmacy consultant staff necessary to initially accomplish the treatment authorization request reviews. This authority shall extend for a maximum of 18 months from the date of the initial contract.

(k) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 14105.33 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14105.33. (a) The department may enter into contracts with manufacturers of single-source and multiple-source drugs, on a bid or nonbid basis, for drugs from each major therapeutic category, and shall maintain a list of those drugs for which contracts have been executed. It is the intent of the Legislature that, in the implementation of this section during the 1992–93 fiscal year, the director negotiate as aggressively as necessary to achieve the savings related to pharmaceutical contracting identified in the Budget Act of 1992 (Chapter 587 of the Statutes of 1992).

(b) (1) Contracts executed pursuant to this section shall be for the manufacturer's best price, as defined in Section 14105.31, which shall be specified in the contract, and subject to agreed upon price escalators, as defined in that section. The contracts shall provide for an equalization payment amount, as defined in Section 14105.31, to be remitted to the department quarterly. The department shall submit an invoice to each manufacturer for the equalization payment amount, based on utilization data from the department's prescription drug paid claims tapes. The drugs of any manufacturer with an existing contract that does not execute a contract amendment with the department within 60 days of the effective date of the amendment of this section enacted in 1992, pursuant to the requirements of this subdivision as amended, or a manufacturer without an existing contract that does not execute a contract with the department within 60 days of the effective date of this amendment of this section enacted in 1992, pursuant to the requirements of this subdivision as amended, shall be available to Medi-Cal beneficiaries only through prior authorization.

(2) The department shall provide for an annual audit of utilization data used to calculate the equalization amount to verify the accuracy of that data. The findings of the audit shall be documented in a written audit report to be made available to manufacturers within 90 days of receipt of the report from the auditor. Any manufacturer may receive a copy of the audit report upon written request. Contracts between the department and manufacturers shall provide for any equalization payment adjustments determined necessary pursuant to an audit.

(3) In negotiating contracts, the department shall, upon request, provide manufacturers reasonable disclosure of the methods used to develop cost estimates.

(4) (A) The department shall provide for an annual written report of Medi-Cal pharmacy costs or Medi-Cal drug costs, as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 14105.31.

(B) The annual report shall be consistent with the relevant sections of the Quarterly Report of Expenditures for the Medi-Cal Assistance Program, known as the HCFA-64 Report, provided to the Health Care Financing Administration. The report shall include the following expenditure and receipt information:

(i) The total annual equalization payment amounts received by the department pursuant to agreements with the Health Care Financing Administration of the United States Department of Health and Human Services.

(ii) The total annual equalization payment amounts received pursuant to state contracts with drug manufacturers.

(iii) Total drug cost amounts upon which equalization payments were made.

(5) Utilization data used to determine an equalization payment

amount shall exclude data from both of the following:

(A) Health maintenance organizations, as defined in Section 300e(a) of Title 42 of the United States Code, including those organizations that contract under Section 1396b(m) of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(B) Capitated plans that include a prescription drug benefit in the capitated rate, and that have negotiated contracts for rebates or discounts with manufacturers.

(c) In order that Medi-Cal beneficiaries may have access to a comprehensive range of therapeutic agents, the department shall ensure that there is representation on the list of contract drugs in all major therapeutic categories. Except as provided in subdivision (a) of Section 14105.35, the department shall not be required to contract with all manufacturers who negotiate for a contract in a particular category. The department shall ensure that there is sufficient representation of single-source and multiple-source drugs, as appropriate, in each major therapeutic category.

(d) (1) The department shall select the therapeutic categories to be included on the list of contract drugs, and the order in which it seeks contracts for those categories. The department may establish different contracting schedules for single-source and multiple-source drugs within a given therapeutic category.

(2) The department shall make every attempt to complete the initial contracting process for each major therapeutic category by January 1, 1997.

(e) (1) In order to fully implement subdivision (d), the department shall, to the extent necessary, negotiate or renegotiate contracts to ensure there are as many single-source drugs within each therapeutic category or subcategory as the department determines necessary to meet the health needs of the Medi-Cal population. The department may determine in selected therapeutic categories or subcategories that no single-source drugs are necessary because there are currently sufficient multiple-source drugs in the therapeutic category or subcategory on the list of contract drugs to meet the health needs of the Medi-Cal population. However, in no event shall a beneficiary be denied continued use of a drug which is part of a prescribed therapy in effect as of September 2, 1992, until the prescribed therapy is no longer prescribed.

(2) In the development of decisions by the department on the required number of single-source drugs in a therapeutic category or subcategory, and the relative therapeutic merits of each drug in a therapeutic category or subcategory, the department shall consult with the Medi-Cal Contract Drug Advisory Committee. The committee members shall communicate their comments and recommendations to the department within 10 business days of a request for consultation, and shall disclose any associations with pharmaceutical manufacturers or any remuneration from pharmaceutical manufacturers.

(3) In order to expedite implementation of paragraph (1), the requirements of Sections 14105.37, 14105.38, subdivisions (a), (c), (e), and (f) of Sections 14105.39, 14105.4, and 14105.405 are waived for the purposes of this section until January 1, 1994.

(f) In order to achieve maximum cost savings, the Legislature declares that an expedited process for contracts under this section is necessary. Therefore, contracts entered into on a nonbid basis shall be exempt from Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 10290) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code.

(g) In no event shall a beneficiary be denied continued use of a drug that is part of a prescribed therapy in effect as of September 2, 1992, until the prescribed therapy is no longer prescribed.

(h) Contracts executed pursuant to this section shall be confidential and shall be exempt from disclosure under the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code).

(i) The department shall provide individual notice to Medi-Cal beneficiaries at least 60 calendar days prior to the effective date of the deletion or suspension of any drug from the list of contract drugs. The notice shall include a description of the beneficiary's right to a fair hearing and shall encourage the beneficiary to consult a physician to determine if an appropriate substitute medication is available from Medi-Cal.

(j) In carrying out the provisions of this section, the department may contract either directly, or through the fiscal intermediary, for pharmacy consultant staff necessary to initially accomplish the treatment authorization request reviews. This authority shall extend for a maximum of 18 months from the date of the initial contract.

(k) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1997, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1997, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 5. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 14105.33 of the Welfare and Institutions Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1705. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1994, (2) each bill amends Section 14105.33 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1705, in which case Sections 1, 3, and 4 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 6. Section 3 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 14105.33 of the Welfare and Institutions Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1180 and SB 1216. It shall only become operative if (1) this bill and either SB 1180 or SB 1216, or both, are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1994, (2) each bill amends Section 14105.33 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1180 or SB 1216, in which case Sections 1, 2, and 4 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 7. Section 4 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 14105.33 of the Welfare and Institutions Code proposed by both this bill, AB 1705, SB 1180, and SB 1216. It shall only become operative if (1) this bill, AB 1705 and SB 1180 or SB 1216, or both, are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1994, (2) each bill amends Section 14105.33 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1705 SB 1180 and SB 1216, in which case Sections 1, 2, and 3 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1163

An act to amend Section 44548 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to pollution control.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44548 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44548. (a) Subject to any prior contractual obligations to any of its bondholders, the authority may establish one or more small business assistance funds in order to assist small businesses to achieve financing of pollution control facilities. For the purpose of establishing and maintaining small business assistance funds as it determines to be necessary or desirable to secure its bonds or any issuance thereof or for other authorized purposes, the authority, pursuant to its contracts with participating parties, may levy fees or other charges on, or require deposits from, participating parties receiving financing for a project under this division. The total amount of these fees, charges, and deposits with respect to a single issue of bonds shall not exceed 3 percent of the principal amount of that issue of bonds. Prior to levying any fees or charges or requiring deposits, the authority shall adopt regulations for the operation of the small business assistance funds, the amounts and any payment schedule for the fees, charges, or deposits, eligibility standards for small businesses desiring to use or benefit from the small business assistance funds, and any other matters the authority determines to be necessary for the establishment and maintenance of small business assistance funds. The regulations may provide for differential fees from participating parties based upon the size of a project financed by the authority or other factors determined to be relevant by the authority, and the regulations may restrict any benefits to those eligible small businesses as may be specified in the regulations. The authority may transfer any funds available to it or set aside for its administrative expenses to any small business assistance fund established under this section.

(b) The forms of financial assistance which the authority may provide under this section include, but are not limited to, payments to reduce, but not eliminate, the interest rate on loans; payments of part or all of the cost of acquiring letters of credit, insurance, guarantees, or other forms of credit support; and payment of part or all of the authority's expenses in issuing revenue bonds or providing other assistance. The authority may pledge any small business assistance fund, on an individual or pooled basis, to repay, directly or indirectly, the principal of, or interest or premium on, any issue of bonds of the authority or any loan made or acquired pursuant to this section. In addition to other purposes set forth in this section, the authority may use moneys in a small business assistance fund to make or acquire loans to participating parties eligible for assistance from those funds. Any moneys repaid or returned to the authority in connection with or as a result of any loan or financial assistance made pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the small business assistance fund from which the loan or assistance was originally provided. The authority may contract with qualified financial institutions, including, but not limited to, banks, investment and mortgage bankers, insurance companies, sureties, and guarantors, to provide any necessary assistance in the granting of credit for these purposes.

(c) Each small business assistance fund established pursuant to this section shall be deposited in a special account which the Controller shall create. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and subject to any requirements of federal tax law or regulations relative to maintaining the tax-exempt status of the obligations of the authority, all interest or other gains earned by investment or deposit of money in the special account pursuant to any provision of Part 2 (commencing with Section 16300) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code or pursuant to any other provision of law shall be credited to, and deposited in, the account.

(d) In carrying out this section, the authority shall participate with air pollution control districts and air quality management districts in providing financial assistance in their lending programs.

CHAPTER 1164

An act to repeal Chapter 22 (commencing with Section 3800) of Division 1 of the Financial Code, and to amend Sections 44537.5 and 44548 of, and to add Article 8 (commencing with Section 44559) to Chapter 1 of Division 27 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to economic development, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 22 (commencing with Section 3800) of Division 1 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 44537.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44537.5. The authority shall provide maximum opportunity for use of their financing by individuals and small businesses or corporations by providing information, assistance, and coordination to facilitate financing for small projects and other financing that benefits the environment, with special attention to the needs of businesses that do not meet standard commercial lending requirements but provide public benefits, such as job creation or retention.

SEC. 3. Section 44548 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44548. (a) Subject to any prior contractual obligations to any of its bondholders, the authority may establish one or more small business assistance funds in order to assist small businesses to achieve financing of pollution control facilities or to strengthen environmental compliance by funding a capital access program for small businesses pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 44559). For the purpose of establishing and maintaining small business assistance funds as it determines to be necessary or desirable to secure its bonds or any issuance thereof or for other authorized purposes, the authority, pursuant to its contracts with participating parties, may levy fees or other charges on, or require deposits from, participating parties receiving financing for a project under this division. The total amount of these fees, charges, and deposits with respect to a single issue of bonds shall not exceed 3 percent of the principal amount of that issue of bonds. Prior to levying any fees or charges or requiring deposits, the authority shall adopt regulations for the operation of the small business assistance funds, the amounts and any payment schedule for the fees, charges, or deposits, eligibility standards for small businesses desiring to use or benefit from the small business assistance funds, and any other matters the authority determines to be necessary for the establishment and maintenance of small business assistance funds. The regulations may provide for differential fees from participating parties based upon the size of a project financed by the authority or other factors determined to be relevant by the authority, and the regulations may restrict any benefits to those eligible small businesses as may be specified in the regulations. The authority may transfer any funds available to it or set aside for its administrative expenses to any small business assistance fund established under this section.

(b) The forms of financial assistance which the authority may provide under this section include, but are not limited to, payments to reduce, but not eliminate, the interest rate on loans; payments of part or all of the cost of acquiring letters of credit, insurance, guarantees, or other forms of credit support; and payment of part or all of the authority's expenses in issuing revenue bonds or providing other assistance. The authority may also pledge any small business assistance fund, on an individual or pooled basis, to repay, directly or indirectly, the principal of, or interest or premium on, any issue of bonds of the authority or any loan made or acquired pursuant to this section. In addition to other purposes set forth in this section, the authority may use moneys in a small business assistance fund to make or acquire loans or guarantee commercial loans to participating parties eligible for assistance from those funds. Any moneys repaid or returned to the authority in connection with or as a result of any loan or financial assistance made pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the small business assistance fund from which the loan or assistance was originally provided. The authority may contract with qualified financial institutions, including, but not limited to, banks, investment and mortgage bankers, insurance companies, sureties, and guarantors, to provide any necessary assistance in the granting of credit for these purposes.

(c) Each small business assistance fund established pursuant to this section shall be deposited in a special account which the Controller shall create. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and subject to any requirements of federal tax law or regulations relative to maintaining the tax-exempt status of the obligations of the authority, all interest or other gains earned by investment or deposit of money in the special account pursuant to any provision of Part 2 (commencing with Section 16300) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code or pursuant to any other provision of law shall be credited to, and deposited in, the account.

(d) In carrying out this section, the authority shall participate with the air pollution control districts and air quality management districts in providing financial assistance in its lending programs.

SEC. 4. Article 8 (commencing with Section 44559) is added to Chapter 1 of Division 27 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 8. Capital Access Loan Program for Small Businesses

44559. The Legislature finds that small businesses engaged in manufacturing or other operations are responsible for a significant amount of environmental emissions in the state, but are less able than larger businesses to afford the investment in new equipment or process modifications needed to comply with environmental regulations, both with regard to controlling emissions and preventing the creation of pollutants, contaminants, or waste products. Additionally, small businesses faced with financial pressures will be likely to reduce expenditures for environmental compliance. Better access to capital will allow small businesses to more easily comply with environmental mandates, to the benefit of all the residents of the state.

44559.1. As used in this article, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Authority" means the California Pollution Control Financing Authority.

(b) "Executive director" means the Executive Director of the California Pollution Control Financing Authority.

(c) "Financial institution" means a federal or state-chartered bank, savings association, or credit union.

(d) "Loss reserve account" means an account in the State Treasury or any financial institution that is established and maintained by the authority for the benefit of a financial institution participating in the capital access loan program established pursuant to this article for the purpose of the following:

(1) Depositing all required fees paid by the participating financial institution and the qualified business.

(2) Depositing contributions made by the state and, if applicable, the federal government.

(3) Covering losses on enrolled qualified loans sustained by the participating financial institution by disbursing funds accumulated in the loss reserve account.

(e) "Participating financial institution" means a financial institution that has been approved by the authority to enroll qualified loans in the program and has agreed to all terms and conditions set forth in this article and as may be required by any applicable federal law providing matching funding.

(f) "Passive real estate ownership" means ownership of real estate for the purpose of deriving income from speculation, trade, or rental, but does not include any of the following:

(1) The ownership of that portion of real estate being used or intended to be used for the operation of the business of the owner of the real estate.

(2) The ownership of real estate for the purpose of construction or renovation, until the completion of the construction or renovation phase.

(g) "Program" means the Capital Access Loan Program created pursuant to this article.

(h) "Qualified business" means a small business concern that meets all of the following criteria:

(1) It is a corporation, partnership, cooperative, or other entity, whether that entity is a nonprofit entity or an entity established for profit, that is authorized to conduct business in the state.

(2) It has its primary business location within the boundaries of the state.

(3) It has operations that affect the environment of the state by producing air, water, solid waste, or hazardous waste products or emissions, or otherwise affects the environment.

(i) "Qualified loan" means a loan or a portion of a loan made by a participating financial institution to a qualified business for any business activity that has its primary economic effect in California. A qualified loan may be made in the form of a line of credit, in which case the amount of the loan enrolled shall be considered to be the maximum amount that can be drawn against the line of credit. A qualified loan made under the program may be made with such interest rates, fees, and other terms and conditions as agreed upon by the participating financial institution and the borrower.

"Qualified loan" does not include any of the following:

(1) A loan for the construction or purchase of residential housing.

(2) A loan to finance passive real estate ownership.

(3) A loan for the refinancing of an existing loan when and to the extent that the outstanding balance is not increased.

(4) A loan, the proceeds of which will be used in any manner that could cause the interest on any bonds previously issued by the authority to become subject to federal income tax.

(j) "Severely affected community" means any area classified as an enterprise zone pursuant to the Enterprise Zone Act, and any other comparable economically distressed geographic area so designated by the executive director from time to time.

(k) "Small business concern" has the same meaning as in Section 3 of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. Sec. 631 et seq.), or as otherwise provided in regulations of the authority.

44559.2. (a) The authority may contract with any financial institution for the purpose of allowing the financial institution to participate in the capital access loan program established by this article.

(b) A contract between the authority and a financial institution under this section shall provide for all of the following:

(1) The creation of a loss reserve account by the authority for the benefit of the financial institution.

(2) The financial institution, qualified business, and the authority will deposit moneys to the credit of the institution's loss reserve account when the financial institution makes a qualified loan to a qualified business.

(3) The liability of the state and the authority to the financial institution under the contract is limited to the amount of money credited to the loss reserve account of the institution.

(4) The financial institution shall provide the information that the authority may require, including financial information that is identifiable with, or identifiable from the financial records of a particular customer who is the recipient of a qualified loan. In addition to any other information that the authority may require, the financial institution shall provide the complete Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) code for the qualified business and information that provides the precise geographic location of both the qualified business and the borrower, if different.

(5) The financial institution will file a report with the executive director setting out a full description of the board of directors, including size, race, ethnicity, and gender.

(6) The participating financial institution will require each borrower, prior to receiving a loan under the program, to sign a written representation to the participating financial institution that the borrower has no legal, beneficial, or equitable interest in the nonrefundable premium charges or any other funds credited to the loss reserve account established by the authority for the participating financial institution.

(7) Other terms that the authority may require for purposes of this article.

(c) A financial institution is not subject to laws restricting the disclosure of financial information when the financial institution provides information to the authority as required by paragraph (4) of subdivision (b).

(d) A credit union operating pursuant to a certificate issued under the California Credit Union Law (Division 5 (commencing with Section 14000) of the Financial Code) may participate in the capital access loan program established pursuant to this article only to the extent participation is in compliance with the California Credit Union Law. Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit the authority of the Commissioner of Corporations to regulate credit unions subject to the commissioner's jurisdiction under the California Credit Union Law.

44559.3. (a) The authority shall establish a loss reserve account for each financial institution with which the authority makes a contract.

(b) The loss reserve account for a financial institution shall consist of moneys paid as fees by borrowers and the financial institution, moneys transferred to the account from a small business assistance fund, any matching federal moneys, and any other moneys provided by the authority or other source.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the authority may establish and maintain loss reserve accounts with any financial institution under such policies as the authority may adopt.

(d) All moneys in a loss reserve account established pursuant to this article are the exclusive property of, and solely controlled by, the authority. Interest or income earned on moneys credited to the loss reserve account shall be deemed to be part of the loss reserve account. The authority may withdraw any time from the loss reserve account not more than 50 percent of all interest or other income that has been credited to the loss reserve account, except that subsequent to the first such withdrawal, the authority may not withdraw more than 50 percent of all interest or other income that has been credited to the loss reserve account since the time of the last such withdrawal. Any withdrawal made pursuant to this subdivision may be made prior to paying any claim and shall be used for the sole purpose of offsetting administrative costs associated with carrying out the program.

(e) The combined amount to be deposited by the participating financial institution into any individual loss reserve account over a three-year period, in connection with any single borrower or any group of borrowers among which a common enterprise exists, shall be not more than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).

44559.4. (a) When a financial institution participates in the capital access loan program established pursuant to this article, if the financial institution decides to enroll a qualified loan under the program in order to obtain the protection against loss provided by its loss reserve account, the financial institution shall notify the authority in writing on a form prescribed by the authority, within 10 days after the date on which the loan is made, of all of the following:

(1) The disbursement of the loan.

(2) The dollar amount of the loan enrolled.

(3) The interest rate applicable to and the term of the loan.

(4) The amount of the agreed upon premium.

(b) When making a qualified loan that will be enrolled under the program, the participating financial institution shall require the qualified business to which the loan is made to pay a fee of not less than 2 percent of the principal amount of the loan, but not more than 3½ percent of such principal amount. The financial institution shall also pay a fee in an amount equal to the fee paid by the borrower. The financial institution shall deliver the fees collected under this subdivision to the authority for deposit in the loss reserve account for the institution. The financial institution may recover from the borrower the cost of its payments to the loss reserve account through the financing of the loan, upon the agreement of the financial institution and the borrower.

(c) When depositing fees collected under subdivision (b) to the credit of the loss reserve account for a participating financial institution, the authority shall do the following:

(1) If no matching funds are available under a federal capital access program or other source, the authority shall transfer to the loss reserve account an amount that is not less than the total amount of the combined fees paid by the borrower and the participating financial institution. However, if the qualified business is located within a severely affected community, the authority shall transfer to the loss reserve account an amount equal to 150 percent of the total amount of the fees paid by the borrower and the participating financial institution.

(2) If matching funds are available under a federal capital access program or other source, the authority shall transfer, on an immediate or deferred basis, to the loss reserve account the amount required by such federal program or other source. However, the total amount deposited into the loss reserve account shall not be less than the amount which would have been deposited in the absence of matching funds.

44559.5. (a) The authority shall establish procedures under which financial institutions participating in the program established pursuant to this article may submit claims for reimbursement for losses incurred as a result of qualified loan defaults. A participating financial institution that charges off all or part of an enrolled loan to the loss reserve account may file a claim for reimbursement with the authority if both of the following conditions are met:

(1) The claim occurs contemporaneously with the action of the participating financial institution to charge off all or part of the loan.

(2) The charge off on an enrolled loan is made in a manner that is consistent with the participating financial institution's usual method for making determinations on business loans that are not enrolled loans.

(b) Costs for which a financial institution may be reimbursed from its loss reserve account include the amount of loan principal charged off, accrued interest on the principal, reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in pursuing its collection efforts, including preservation of collateral, and any other related costs. Proper documentation of the expenses shall be presented at the time of the claim.

(c) If a participating financial institution files two or more claims contemporaneously, and there are insufficient funds in the reserve fund at that time to cover the entire amount of such claims, the institution may designate the order of priority in which the claims shall be paid.

(d) A financial institution may seek reimbursement of loan losses prior to the liquidation of collateral from defaulted loans. The financial institution shall repay its loss reserve account for any moneys received as reimbursement under this section if the financial institution recovers moneys from the borrower or from the liquidation of collateral for the defaulted loan, less any reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in collection of such amount.

(e) In any case in which the payment of a claim under this section has fully covered a participating financial institution's loss on an enrolled loan, the participating financial institution shall assign to the authority, and to any applicable federal agency in the event federal matching funds are involved, any right, title, or interest to any collateral, security, or other right of recovery in connection with a loan made under the program.

(f) The executive director may adopt necessary rules for the authority to carry out its duties, functions, and powers relating to the program established pursuant to this article.

44559.6. The authority shall annually prepare a report to the Governor and the Legislature that describes the financial condition and programmatic results of the capital access loan program for small businesses authorized under this article.

44559.7. The authority may enter into agreements with commercial banks or other financial institutions, or with other agencies of the state, to provide necessary assistance in carrying out the program authorized by this article, including origination and servicing of loans.

CHAPTER 1165

An act to amend Section 42400 of, and to add Section 41512.7 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 41512.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

41512.7. (a) No district with an annual budget of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) shall increase any existing fees for authority to construct permits or permits to operate by more than 30 percent in any calendar year.

(b) No district with an annual budget of one million dollars ($1,000,000) or more shall increase any existing fees for authority to construct permits or permits to operate by more than 15 percent in any calendar year.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), this section shall not apply to the south coast district.

SEC. 2. Section 42400 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

42400. (a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 42400.1 or 42400.2, any person who violates any provision of this part, or any order, permit, rule, or regulation of the state board or of a district, including a district hearing board, adopted pursuant to Part 1 (commencing with Section 39000) to Part 4 (commencing with Section 41500), inclusive, is guilty of a misdemeanor and is subject to a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or both.

(b) If a violation under subdivision (a) with regard to the failure to operate a vapor recovery system on a gasoline cargo tank is directly caused by the actions of an employee under the supervision of, or of any independent contractor working for, any person subject to this part, the employee or independent contractor, as the case may be, causing the violation is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable as provided in subdivision (a). That liability shall not extend to the person employing the employee or retaining the independent contractor, unless that person is separately guilty of any action violating any provision of this part.

(c) The recovery of civil penalties pursuant to Section 42402, 42402.1, 42402.2, or 42402.3 precludes prosecution pursuant to this section for the same offense. When a district refers a violation to a prosecuting agency, the filing of a criminal complaint is grounds requiring the dismissal of any civil action brought pursuant to this article for the same offense.

(d) Each day during any portion of which a violation of subdivision (a) occurs is a separate offense.

(e) Any violation described in subdivision (a) shall be prosecuted under this article and not under any provision of the Business and Professions Code.

CHAPTER 1166

An act to amend Sections 40507, 40752, 42300, 42301, 42350, 42400, 42400.3, 42402, and 42402.3 of, and to add Sections 39053.3, 39053.5, 42301.10, 42301.11, 42301.12, and 42400.4 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature that this act provide authority in state law for the implementation of the operating permit program required by Title V of the federal Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. 7661 et seq.) without affecting the issuance of permits as required by any other provision of state law.

SEC. 2. Section 39053.3 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

39053.3. "Title V" means Title V of the federal Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 7661 et seq.).

SEC. 3. Section 39053.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

39053.5. "Title V source" means only a stationary source required by federal law to be included in an operating permit program established pursuant to Title V of the federal Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. Secs. 7661 to 7661f, incl.) and the federal regulations adopted pursuant to Title V.

SEC. 4. Section 40507 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

40507. The south coast district board, in making any order granting a permit, may specify the time during which the order shall be effective and may require the payment of fees established by the south coast district board.

SEC. 5. Section 40752 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

40752. The air pollution control officer shall observe and enforce all of the following:

(a) This part and Part 4 (commencing with Section 41500).

(b) All orders, regulations, and rules prescribed by the district board.

(c) All variances and standards which the district hearing board has prescribed.

(d) All permit conditions imposed pursuant to Sections 42301 to 42301.10, inclusive.

SEC. 6. Section 42300 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

42300. (a) Every district board may establish, by regulation, a permit system that requires, except as otherwise provided in Section 42310, that before any person builds, erects, alters, replaces, operates, or uses any article, machine, equipment, or other contrivance which may cause the issuance of air contaminants, the person obtain a permit to do so from the air pollution control officer of the district.

(b) The regulations may provide that a permit shall be valid only for a specified period. However, the expiration date of any permit shall be extended upon completion of the annual review required pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 42301 and payment of the fees required pursuant to Section 42311, unless the air pollution control officer or the hearing board has initiated action to suspend or revoke the permit pursuant to Section 42304, 42307, or 42390, that action has resulted in a final determination by the officer or the board to suspend or revoke the permit, and all appeals have been exhausted or the time for appeals from that final determination has been exhausted.

(c) The annual extension of a permit's expiration date pursuant to subdivision (b) does not constitute permit issuance, renewal, reopening, amendment, or any other action subject to the requirements specified in Title V.

SEC. 7. Section 42301 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

42301. A permit system established pursuant to Section 42300 shall do all of the following:

(a) Ensure that the article, machine, equipment, or contrivance for which the permit was issued does not prevent or interfere with the attainment or maintenance of any applicable air quality standard.

(b) Prohibit the issuance of a permit unless the air pollution control officer is satisfied, on the basis of criteria adopted by the district board, that the article, machine, equipment, or contrivance will comply with all of the following:

(1) All applicable orders, rules, and regulations of the district and of the state board.

(2) All applicable provisions of this division.

(c) Prohibit the issuance of a permit to a Title V source if the Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency objects to its issuance in a timely manner as provided in Title V. This subdivision is not intended to provide any authority to the Environmental Protection Agency to object to the issuance of a permit other than that authority expressly granted by Title V.

(d) Provide that the air pollution control officer may issue to a Title V source a permit to operate or use if the owner or operator of the Title V source presents a variance exempting the owner or operator from Section 41701, any rule or regulation of the district, or any permit condition imposed pursuant to this section, or presents an abatement order that has the effect of a variance and that meets all of the requirements of this part pertaining to variances, and the requirements for the issuance of permits to operate are otherwise satisfied. The terms and conditions of any variance or abatement order may be incorporated into the permit as a compliance schedule, to the extent required by Title V.

(e) Require, upon annual renewal, that each permit be reviewed to determine that the permit conditions are adequate to ensure compliance with, and the enforceability of, district rules and regulations applicable to the article, machine, equipment, or contrivance for which the permit was issued which were in effect at the time the permit was issued or modified, or which have subsequently been adopted and made retroactively applicable to an existing article, machine, equipment, or contrivance, by the district board and, if the permit conditions are not consistent, require that the permit be revised to specify the permit conditions in accordance with all applicable rules and regulations.

(f) Provide for the reissuance or transfer of a permit to a new owner or operator of an article, machine, equipment, or contrivance. An application for transfer of ownership only, or change in operator only, of any article, machine, equipment, or contrivance which had a valid permit to operate within the two-year period immediately preceding the application is a temporary permit to operate. Issuance of the final permit to operate shall be conditional upon a determination by the district that the criteria specified in subdivisions (b) and (e) are met, if the permit was not surrendered as a condition to receiving emission reduction credits pursuant to banking or permitting rules of the district. However, under no circumstances shall the criteria specify that a change of ownership or operator alone is a basis for requiring more stringent emission controls or operating conditions than would otherwise apply to the article, machine, equipment, or contrivance.

SEC. 8. Section 42301.10 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

42301.10. In any district that has a permit system established pursuant to Section 42300, the air pollution control officer may include, in any permit issued to a Title V source, emission limits, standards, and other requirements that ensure compliance with all federal Clean Air Act "applicable requirements," as that term is defined in regulations adopted by the Environmental Protection Agency pursuant to Title V, including those requirements specified in an applicable implementation plan as defined by Section 7602(q) of Title 42 of the United States Code, and Parts C (42 U.S.C. Sec. 7470 et seq.) and D (42 U.S.C. Sec. 7501 et seq.) of Title 1 of the Clean Air Act.

SEC. 9. Section 42301.11 is added to the Health and Safety Code,

to read:

42301.11. It is the intent of the Legislature that, in implementing Title V, districts do all of the following:

(a) Develop, in recognition that districts are obligated to issue one-third of the Title V permits within one year of the Title V program's approval by the Environmental Protection Agency, and in recognition that sources are allowed one year to submit a Title V permit application, an equitable program for ensuring that all sources receive as much time as feasible to develop and submit permit applications. In developing the program the districts shall recognize the complexity and size of the facilities, the number and similarity of facilities within each industry category, the level of effort required to develop the permit application, and the resources available to complete the application. The districts should also consider potential incentive programs to promote voluntary early permit application submissions.

(b) Consider the merits and benefits of including the permit shield authorized by subsection (f) of Section 70.6 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations in all Title V permits to clarify the federal compliance responsibilities of Title V sources.

(c) Consistent with state and federal regulations, allow the use of emission monitoring alternatives, when available and having the accuracy required to ensure enforcement and compliance, in lieu of the use of continuous emission monitors.

(d) Give priority to the issuance of Title V permits for five-year terms.

SEC. 10. Section 42301.12 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

42301.12. (a) Any district permit system or permit provision established by a district board to meet the requirements of Title V shall minimize the regulatory burden on Title V sources and the district and shall meet all of the following criteria:

(1) Apply only to Title V sources, as defined in Section 39053.5.

(2) Issue permits pursuant to Title V only after the Environmental Protection Agency has approved the district's Title V permit program.

(3) Identify in the permit, to the greatest extent feasible, permit terms and conditions which are federally enforceable and those which are not federally enforceable, so that requirements imposed only by the state are not made federally enforceable solely as a result of being included as part of a Title V permit. A district may make that identification by either of the following means:

(A) Identifying in the permit the terms and conditions which are federally enforceable because they are imposed pursuant to a federal requirement.

(B) Identifying in the permit the terms and conditions which are imposed pursuant to state law or district rules and are not federally enforceable.

(4) Utilize, to the extent reasonably feasible, general permits and similar methods to reduce source and district permitting burdens for Title V sources.

(5) Establish clear and simple application completeness criteria.

(6) To the extent possible, minimize the burden of federally mandated paperwork such as recordkeeping and reporting documents.

(7) Allow sources maximum flexibility in selecting cost-effective, reliable, and representative monitoring methods consistent with applicable state and federal requirements.

(8) If a permit is required to be reopened to comply with Title V requirements, base the reopening upon the federal criteria for reopening and limit the reopening to only the federal component of the Title V permit. This paragraph is not intended to limit in any way the authority under state law to reopen permits.

(9) Authorize administrative permit amendments and minor permit modifications as required by federal law.

(10) Provide that, unless the district determines that a Title V application is not complete within 60 days of receipt of the application, the application shall be deemed to be complete.

(11) Authorize, to the extent consistent with existing state law, mandatory operational flexibility provisions required pursuant to subparagraphs (i) and (iii) of paragraph (12) of subsection (b) of Section 70.4 of, and paragraphs (9) and (10) of subsection (a) of Section 70.6 of, Part 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations, and consider optional operational flexibility provisions established pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (12) of, and paragraphs (14) and (15) of, subsection (b) of Section 70.4 of, and subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (1) of subsection (a) of Section 70.6 of, Part 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Nothing in this paragraph is intended to affect whatsoever any pending litigation.

(12) Make every reasonable effort, in partnership with Title V sources and the state board, to evaluate and respond to the substance of any objection to a proposed permit and to obtain expeditious approval of Title V permits submitted to the Environmental Protection Agency.

SEC. 11. Section 42350 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

42350. (a) Any person may apply to the hearing board for a variance from Section 41701 or from the rules and regulations of the district.

(b) (1) If the district board has established a permit system by regulation pursuant to Section 42300, a variance, or an abatement order which has the effect of a variance, may not be granted from the requirement for a permit to build, erect, alter, or replace.

(2) Title V sources shall not be granted a variance, or an abatement order which has the effect of a variance, from the requirement for a permit to operate or use.

SEC. 12. Section 42400 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

42400. (a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 42400.1, 42400.2, or 42400.3, any person who violates this part, or any rule, regulation, permit, or order of the state board or of a district, including a district hearing board, adopted pursuant to Part 1 (commencing with Section 39000) to Part 4 (commencing with Section 41500), inclusive, is guilty of a misdemeanor and is subject to a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or both.

(b) If a violation under subdivision (a) with regard to the failure to operate a vapor recovery system on a gasoline cargo tank is directly caused by the actions of an employee under the supervision of, or of any independent contractor working for, any person subject to this part, the employee or independent contractor, as the case may be, causing the violation is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable as provided in subdivision (a). That liability shall not extend to the person employing the employee or retaining the independent contractor, unless that person is separately guilty of an action that violates this part.

(c) The recovery of civil penalties pursuant to Section 42402, 42402.1, 42402.2, or 42402.3 precludes prosecution pursuant to this section for the same offense. When a district refers a violation to a prosecuting agency, the filing of a criminal complaint is grounds requiring the dismissal of any civil action brought pursuant to this article for the same offense.

(d) Each day during any portion of which a violation of subdivision (a) occurs is a separate offense.

SEC. 13. Section 42400.3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

42400.3. (a) Any person who willfully and intentionally emits an air contaminant in violation of any provision of this part or any rule, regulation, permit, or order of the state board or of a district, pertaining to emission regulations or limitations is guilty of a misdemeanor and is subject to a fine of not more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year, or both.

(b) The recovery of civil penalties pursuant to Section 42402, 42402.1, 42402.2 or 42402.3 precludes prosecution pursuant to this section for the same offense. When a district refers a violation to a prosecuting agency, the filing of a criminal complaint is grounds requiring the dismissal of any civil action brought pursuant to this article for the same offense.

(c) Each day during any portion of which a violation occurs constitutes a separate offense.

SEC. 14. Section 42400.4 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

42400.4. (a) In any district where a Title V permit program has been fully approved by the Environmental Protection Agency, any person who knowingly violates any federally enforceable permit condition or any fee or filing requirement applicable to a Title V source is guilty of a misdemeanor and is subject to a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(b) In any district in which a Title V permit program has been fully approved by the Environmental Protection Agency, any person who knowingly makes any false material statement, representation, or certification in any form or in any notice or report required of a Title V source of a federally enforceable permit requirement, or who knowingly renders inaccurate any monitoring device or method required of a Title V source, is guilty of a misdemeanor and is subject to a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(c) The recovery of civil penalties pursuant to Section 42402, 42401.1, 42402.2, or 42404.3 precludes prosecution pursuant to this section for the same offense. When a district refers a violation to a prosecuting agency, the filing of a criminal complaint is grounds requiring the dismissal of any civil action brought pursuant to this article for the same offense.

(d) Each day during any portion of which a violation of subdivision (a) or (b) occurs is a separate offense.

(e) This section shall not become operative in a district until the Environmental Protection Agency fully approves that district's Title V permit program.

(f) This section is applicable only to federally enforceable permit conditions which are not otherwise enforceable pursuant to Sections 42400, 42400.1, 42400.2, and 42400.3.

SEC. 15. Section 42402 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

42402. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b) or in Section 42402.1, 42402.2, or 42402.3, any person who violates this part, any order issued pursuant to Section 42316, or any rule, regulation, permit, or order of a district, including a district hearing board, or of the state board issued pursuant to Part 1 (commencing with Section 39000) to Part 4 (commencing with Section 41500), inclusive, is strictly liable for a civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(b) (1) Any person who violates any provision of this part, any order issued pursuant to Section 42316, or any rule, regulation, permit, or order of a district, including a district hearing board, or of the state board issued pursuant to Part 1 (commencing with Section 39000) to Part 4 (commencing with Section 41500), inclusive, is strictly liable for a civil penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(2) Where a civil penalty in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each day in which the violation occurs is sought, there is no liability under this subdivision if the person accused of the violation alleges by affirmative defense and establishes that the violation was caused by an act which was not the result of intentional or negligent conduct. In a district in which a Title V permit program has been fully approved, this paragraph shall not apply to a violation of federally enforceable requirements that occurs at a Title V source.

(c) Each day during any portion of which a violation occurs is a separate offense.

SEC. 15.5. Section 42402 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

42402. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b) or in Section 42402.1, 42402.2, or 42402.3, any person who violates this part, any order issued pursuant to Section 42316, or any rule, regulation, permit, or order of a district, including a district hearing board, or of the state board issued pursuant to Part 1 (commencing with Section 39000) to Part 4 (commencing with Section 41500), inclusive, is strictly liable for a civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(b) (1) Any person who violates any provision of this part, any order issued pursuant to Section 42316, or any rule, regulation, permit, or order of a district, including a district hearing board, or of the state board issued pursuant to Part 1 (commencing with Section 39000) to Part 4 (commencing with Section 41500), inclusive, is strictly liable for a civil penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(2) (A) Where a civil penalty in excess of one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each day in which the violation occurs is sought, there is no liability under this subdivision if the person accused of the violation alleges by affirmative defense and establishes that the violation was caused by an act which was not the result of intentional or negligent conduct. In a district in which a Title V permit program has been fully approved, this paragraph shall not apply to a violation of federally enforceable requirements that occurs at a Title V source.

(B) This paragraph does not apply to a person who is determined to have violated an annual facility emissions cap established pursuant to a market-based incentive program under Section 39620.

(c) Each day during any portion of which a violation occurs is a separate offense.

SEC. 16. Section 42402.3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

42402.3. (a) Any person who willfully and intentionally emits an air contaminant in violation of this part or any rule, regulation, permit, or order of the state board, or of a district, pertaining to emission regulations or limitations, is liable for a civil penalty of not more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

(b) Each day during any portion of which a violation occurs is a separate offense.

SEC. 17. Section 15.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 42402 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2107. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1994, (2) each bill amends Section 42402 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2107, in which case Section 15 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 18. (a) No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

(b) No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution to the extent that the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1167

An act to amend Sections 11106, 12050, 12051, and 12054 of, and to repeal and add Section 12053 of, the Penal Code, relating to weapons.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 11106 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11106. (a) In order to assist in the investigation of crime, the arrest and prosecution of criminals, and the recovery of lost, stolen, or found property, the Attorney General shall keep and properly file a complete record of all copies of fingerprints, copies of applications for licenses to carry firearms issued pursuant to Section 12050, information reported to the Department of Justice pursuant to Section 12053, dealers' records of sales of firearms, reports provided pursuant to Section 12078, forms provided pursuant to Section 12084, and reports of stolen, lost, found, pledged, or pawned property in any city or county of this state, and shall, upon proper application therefor, furnish to the officers mentioned in Section 11105, hard copy printouts of those records as photographic, photostatic, and nonerasable optically stored reproductions.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the Attorney General shall not retain or compile any information from reports filed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 12078 for firearms that are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, from forms submitted pursuant to Section 12084 for firearms that are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, or from dealers' records of sales for firearms that are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person. All copies of the forms submitted pursuant to Section 12084 for firearms that are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person, or of the dealers' records of sales for firearms that are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person shall be destroyed within five days of the clearance by the Attorney General, unless the purchaser or transferor is ineligible to take possession of the firearm. All copies of the reports filed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 12078 for firearms that are not pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person shall be destroyed within five days of the receipt by the Attorney General, unless retention is necessary for use in a criminal prosecution.

A violation of this subdivision is a misdemeanor.

SEC. 2. Section 12050 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12050. (a) (1) The sheriff of a county or the chief or other head of a municipal police department of any city or city and county, upon proof that the person applying is of good moral character, that good cause exists for the issuance, and that the person applying is a resident of the county, may issue to that person a license to carry a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person in either one of the following formats:

(A) A license to carry concealed a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person.

(B) Where the population of the county is less than 200,000 persons according to the most recent federal decennial census, a license to carry loaded and exposed in that county a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person.

(2) A license issued pursuant to this section is valid for any period of time not to exceed one year from the date of the license, or in the case of a peace officer appointed pursuant to Section 830.6, three years from the date of the license.

(b) A license may include any reasonable restrictions or conditions which the issuing authority deems warranted, including restrictions as to the time, place, manner, and circumstances under which the person may carry a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person.

(c) Any restrictions imposed pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be indicated on any license issued.

(d) A license shall not be issued if the Department of Justice determines that the person is within a prohibited class described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(e) (1) The license shall be revoked by the local licensing authority if at any time either the local licensing authority is notified by the Department of Justice that a licensee is within a prohibited class described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or the local licensing authority determines that the person is within a prohibited class described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of the code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(2) If at any time the Department of Justice determines that a licensee is within a prohibited class described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the department shall immediately notify the local licensing authority of the determination.

(3) If the local licensing authority revokes the license, the Department of Justice shall be notified of the revocation pursuant to Section 12053. The licensee shall also be immediately notified of the revocation in writing.

(f) (1) A person issued a license pursuant to this section may apply to the licensing authority for an amendment to the license to do one or more of the following:

(A) Add or delete authority to carry a particular pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person.

(B) Authorize the licensee to carry concealed a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person.

(C) If the population of the county is less than 200,000 persons according to the most recent federal decennial census, authorize the licensee to carry loaded and exposed in that county a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person.

(D) Change any restrictions or conditions on the license, including restrictions as to the time, place, manner, and circumstances under which the person may carry a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person.

(2) When the licensee changes his or her address, the license shall be amended to reflect the new address and a new license shall be issued pursuant to paragraph (3).

(3) If the licensing authority amends the license, a new license shall be issued to the licensee reflecting the amendments.

(4) The licensee shall notify the licensing authority in writing within 10 days of any change in the licensee's place of residence. If the license is one to carry concealed a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, then it may not be revoked solely because the licensee changes his or her place of residence to another county if the licensee has not breached any conditions or restrictions set forth in the license or has not fallen into a prohibited class described in Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. If the license is one to carry loaded and exposed a pistol, revolver, or other firearm capable of being concealed upon the person, the license shall be revoked immediately if the licensee changes his or her place of residence to another county.

(5) An amendment to the license does not extend the original expiration date of the license and the license shall be subject to renewal at the same time as if the license had not been amended.

(6) An application to amend a license does not constitute an application for renewal of the license.

SEC. 3. Section 12051 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12051. (a) (1) Applications for licenses shall be filed in writing, signed by the applicant, and shall state the name, occupation, residence and business address of the applicant, his or her age, height, weight, color of eyes and hair, and reason for desiring a license to carry the weapon. Any license issued upon the application shall set forth the foregoing data and shall, in addition, contain a description of the weapon or weapons authorized to be carried, giving the name of the manufacturer, the serial number, and the caliber.

(2) Applications for amendments to licenses shall be filed in writing and signed by the applicant, and shall state what type of amendment is sought pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 12050 and the reason for desiring the amendment.

(3) Applications for amendments to licenses, applications for licenses, amendments to licenses, and licenses shall be uniform throughout the state, upon forms to be prescribed by the Attorney General. The forms shall contain a provision whereby the applicant attests to the truth of statements contained in the application.

(b) Any person who files an application required by subdivision (a) knowing that statements contained therein are false is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(c) Any person who knowingly makes a false statement on the application regarding any of the following shall be guilty of a felony:

(1) The denial or revocation of a license, or the denial of an amendment to a license, issued pursuant to Section 12050.

(2) A criminal conviction.

(3) A finding of not guilty by reason of insanity.

(4) The use of a controlled substance.

(5) A dishonorable discharge from military service.

(6) A commitment to a mental institution.

(7) A renunciation of United States citizenship.

SEC. 4. Section 12053 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 4.5. Section 12053 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

12053. (a) A record of the following shall be maintained in the office of the licensing authority:

(1) The denial of a license.

(2) The denial of an amendment to a license.

(3) The issuance of a license.

(4) The amendment of a license.

(5) The revocation of a license.

(b) Copies of each of the following shall be filed immediately by the issuing officer or authority with the Department of Justice:

(1) The denial of a license.

(2) The denial of an amendment to a license.

(3) The issuance of a license.

(4) The amendment of a license.

(5) The revocation of a license.

SEC. 5. Section 12054 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12054. (a) Each applicant for a new license or for the renewal of a license shall pay at the time of filing his or her application a fee determined by the Department of Justice not to exceed the application processing costs of the Department of Justice for the direct costs of furnishing the report required by Section 12052. After the department establishes fees sufficient to reimburse the department for processing costs, fees charged shall increase at a rate not to exceed the legislatively approved annual cost-of-living adjustments for the department's budget. The officer receiving the application and the fee shall transmit the fee, with the fingerprints if required, to the Department of Justice. The licensing authority of any city or county may charge an additional fee, not to exceed three dollars ($3), for processing the application, and shall transmit the additional fee, if any, to the city or county treasury.

(b) In the case of an amended license pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 12050, the licensing authority of any city or county may charge a fee, not to exceed three dollars ($3), for processing the amended license and shall transmit the fee to the city or county treasury.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1168

An act to amend Sections 20006, 20006.1, 20026, 20026.1, 20026.2, 20034, 20130, 20132.6, 20137, 20654, and 21235.5 of, to add Section 21361.2, to repeal and add Section 20334 of, and to repeal Sections 20336 and 20652.5 of, the Government Code, relating to the Public Employees' Retirement System.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 20006 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20006. "Actuary" means an actuary regularly employed on a full-time or part-time basis by the board.

SEC. 2. Section 20006.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20006.1. As of June 30, 1991, and thereafter at the end of periods not to exceed four years, the actuary shall make an actuarial investigation into the mortality, service, and compensation experience of members and persons receiving benefits and an actuarial valuation of the assets and liabilities of this system. From time to time, the actuary shall determine the rate of interest being earned on the Retirement Fund after deducting from earnings amounts applied to costs of administration of the system.

SEC. 3. Section 20026 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20026. "Regular interest" means interest at the annual interest rate for purposes of crediting of interest, compounded annually.

SEC. 4. Section 20026.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20026.1. "Annual interest rate" means the net earnings rate reduced by 110 basis points for purposes of crediting interest.

SEC. 5. Section 20026.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20026.2. "Actuarial interest rate" means the interest rate fixed by the board for purposes of actuarial valuation of the assets and liabilities of this system.

SEC. 6. Section 20034 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20034. "Actuarial equivalent" means a benefit of equal value when computed upon the basis of the mortality tables adopted and the actuarial interest rate fixed by the board.

SEC. 7. Section 20130 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20130. (a) Upon the basis of any investigation, valuation, or determination, or all of these, the board shall adopt such mortality, service and other tables and annual and actuarial interest rates as it deems necessary.

(b) A change in interest rate adopted by the board shall not apply to any election of a member to deposit or redeposit contributions, including interest, filed prior to the date the change was placed into effect.

SEC. 8. Section 20132.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20132.6. (a) The board shall credit all contributions of members in the retirement fund with interest at an interest crediting rate of 6 percent compounded at each June 30. The retired member reserves in the retirement fund shall be credited with the lesser of the current actuarial interest rate or the current annual interest rate compounded at each June 30. The interest amount that would have been credited to the member's account on and after the effective date of this section, had the account been credited with the lesser of the current actuarial interest rate or the current annual interest rate, rather than at the 6 percent interest crediting rate, shall be credited to retirement member reserves.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the difference between the interest amount that was credited to the account of any member of this system who was paid his or her accumulated contributions on or after the effective date of this section, and the lesser of the current actuarial interest rate or the current annual interest rate, shall be transferred to the account established by the board under Section 21235.5 to fund the purchasing power protection allowance.

(c) If the current net earnings rate exceeds the interest rate used to credit the retired member accounts, in addition to the amount transferred to the fund established under Section 21235.5, the remaining amount shall be credited to employer accounts.

(d) The current annual interest rate may be lower than the current actuarial interest rate.

SEC. 9. Section 20137 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20137. The board shall report to the Governor and the Legislature, not later than December 1 of each year, on the extent to which the purpose of Section 21220 is being achieved under the provisions of this article and the amount of supplementary increases in retirement allowances required to meet the objective of preserving the purchasing power of benefits provided by the system. The board shall also determine and report on the increase in the state contribution rate required to provide the supplementary increases for state members, other than school members.

SEC. 10. Section 20334 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 20334 is added to the Government Code, to read:

20334. (a) An employee serving on a less than full-time basis is excluded from this system unless:

(1) He or she is a member at the time he or she renders less than full-time service and is not otherwise excluded pursuant to this article or by a provision of a contract.

(2) His or her position requires regular, part-time service for one year or longer for at least an average of 20 hours a week, or requires service that is equivalent to at least an average of 20 hours a week, unless he or she elects membership pursuant to Section 20365.

(3) His or her employment is, in the opinion of the board, on a seasonal, limited-term, on-call, emergency, intermittent, substitute, or other irregular basis, and is compensated and meets one of the following conditions:

(A) The appointment or employment contract fixes a term of full-time, continuous employment in excess of six months or, if a term is not fixed, full-time employment continues for longer than six months, in which case membership shall be effective not later than the first day of the first pay period of the seventh month of employment.

(B) The person works more than 125 days, if employed on a per diem basis or, if employed on other than a per diem basis, 1,000 hours within the fiscal year, in which case, membership shall be effective not later than the first day of the first pay period of the month following the month in which 125 days or 1,000 hours of service were completed. For purposes of this subdivision, "day" means each eight-hour period of employment worked by an employee paid on a per diem basis so that membership is effective after he or she has completed 1,000 hours of compensated service in a fiscal year.

(C) The person is employed by the Department of Forestry and Fire Protection in one of the positions that provide state safety membership pursuant to Section 20017.6 or state peace officer/firefighter membership pursuant to Section 20017.96.

(4) He or she is a temporary faculty member of the California State University who works two consecutive semesters or three consecutive quarters at half-time or more and is not otherwise excluded pursuant to this article, in which case, membership shall be effective with the start of the next consecutive semester or quarter if the appointment requires service of half-time or more.

(5) He or she is a member of the Board of Prison Terms, the State Personnel Board, or the State Air Resources Board and elects to become a member pursuant to Section 20360.

(6) He or she is participating in partial service retirement, pursuant to Article 1.7 (commencing with Section 19996.30) of Chapter 7 of Part 2.6.

(7) He or she is included by specific provision of the board relating to the exclusion of less than full-time employees.

(b) This section shall supersede any contract provision excluding persons in any temporary or seasonal employment basis and shall apply only to persons entering employment on and after January 1, 1975. Except as provided in Section 20492, no contract or contract amendment entered into after January 1, 1981, shall contain any provision excluding persons on an irregular employment basis.

SEC. 12. Section 20336 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 20652.5 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 14. Section 20654 of the Government Code is amended to read:

20654. Subject to regulations adopted by the board, a member may file an election with the board to redeposit in the retirement fund, in a lump sum or by installment payments, (1) an amount equal to the accumulated contributions that he or she has withdrawn at one or more terminations of service, or for one withdrawal at a time, but in reverse chronological order in which they occurred, and (2) an amount equal to the interest that would have been credited to his or her account to the date of completion of payments had the contributions not been withdrawn, and (3) if he or she elects to redeposit in other than one sum, interest on the unpaid balance of the amount payable to the retirement fund, beginning on the date of the election to redeposit, as if the member interest crediting rate in effect on the date of the election to redeposit had been and continued to be in effect through the completion of the payments.

SEC. 15. Section 21235.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

21235.5. (a) On an annual basis, the board shall transfer the lesser of either of the following:

(1) The amount necessary to increase all monthly allowances paid by the system to 75 percent of the purchasing power of the initial monthly allowances.

(2) Up to 1.1 percent of the net earnings on member contributions, as determined by Section 20132.6, to a supplemental account to fund the purchasing power protection allowance.

(b) The funds so transferred to the supplemental account shall be utilized to increase all monthly allowances paid by the system up to a maximum of 75 percent of the purchasing power, as determined by the board, of the initial monthly allowances that were received by every retired person or survivor or beneficiary of a state, school, or local member or retired person who was eligible to receive any allowance at the end of each fiscal year. Funds remaining in the account after the payment of benefits under this section shall be transferred to the employer accounts.

SEC. 16. Section 21361.2 is added to the Government Code, to read:

21361.2. Notwithstanding Section 20132.6, for member deaths occurring on or after January 1, 1994, the accumulated contributions of a member payable pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 21361 shall be increased by a factor determined by the board that is based on the difference, at each June 30 subsequent to January 1, 1994, between the lesser of the current interest rate or the current annual interest rate and the 6 percent interest crediting rate on member contributions.

CHAPTER 1169

An act to amend Sections 40430, 40502, 40973, 41780.2, 41781.2, 41782, 41794, 41821, 43600, and 43602 of, to add Sections 40120.1, 40976, and 41791.5 to, and to repeal and add Section 43604 of, the Public Resources Code, relating to solid waste, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 40120.1 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

40120.1. Except as otherwise provided in Part 2 (commencing with Section 40900), for purposes of Part 2 (commencing with Section 40900), "disposal" means the management of solid waste through landfill disposal or transformation at a permitted solid waste facility.

SEC. 2. Section 40430 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

40430. The board shall appoint an executive director who may be exempt from civil service laws. The board may delegate any power, duty, purpose, function, and jurisdiction to the executive director which the board determines to be appropriate. The board shall prescribe the duties and fix the salary of the executive director. The executive director shall perform and discharge the powers, duties, purposes, functions, and jurisdiction vested in the board and delegated to the executive director by the board. The executive director may redelegate any of the powers, duties, purposes, functions, and jurisdiction which are delegated to him or her by the board to his or her subordinates.

SEC. 3. Section 40502 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

40502. (a) The board shall adopt rules and regulations, as necessary, to carry out this division in conformity with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. The board shall make available to any person, upon request, copies of proposed regulations.

(b) (1) The board shall adopt regulations regarding city, county, and regional agency source reduction and recycling elements and nondisposal facility elements, required to be submitted to the board pursuant to Section 41791.5, which shall be deemed to be emergency regulations and shall be considered by the Office of Administrative Law as necessary for the immediate preservation of public peace, health and safety, or general welfare. These emergency regulations shall not alter the deadlines for the submission of countywide and regional agency integrated waste management plans specified in

Section 41791.

(2) Prior to adopting the emergency regulations required pursuant to paragraph (1), the board shall do all of the following:

(A) Make available to any person, upon request, a copy of the proposed regulations at least 30 days prior to adoption.

(B) Hold at least two public hearings in different parts of the state in order to receive public comment on the regulations.

(C) Publish notice in the California Regulatory Notice Register of the proposed adoption of the emergency regulations, the identity of a contact person at the board from whom copies of the proposed regulations may be obtained, and the dates, times, and locations of the public hearings that are required pursuant to subparagraph (B).

(c) Any emergency regulations adopted by the board pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) shall be filed with the Office of Administrative Law at the earliest feasible date, but not later than December 31, 1993. Notwithstanding subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1 of the Government Code, any emergency regulations adopted pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) shall remain in effect for not more than three years from the date of adoption.

SEC. 4. Section 40973 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

40973. (a) The regional agency, and not the cities or counties which are member agencies of the regional agency, may be responsible for compliance with Article 1 (commencing with Section 41780) of Chapter 6 if specified in the agreement pursuant to which the regional agency is formed.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 41782, if a regional agency has been specified in the regional agency formation agreement as the responsible party for compliance with Article 1 (commencing with Section 41780) of Chapter 6 of Part 1, neither the regional agency nor any member agency of the regional agency shall be eligible for a reduction of the diversion requirements of Section 41780.

(c) (1) If, pursuant to subdivision (a), a regional agency is specified in the regional agency formation agreement as the responsible party for compliance with Article 1 (commencing with Section 41780) of Chapter 6 of Part 1, the regional agency shall not be comprised of more than two counties and all of the cities within those two counties, except as otherwise authorized by the board.

(2) The board may authorize the formation of a regional agency that exceeds two counties and all of the cities within those two counties, for purposes of compliance with Article 1 (commencing with Section 41780) of Chapter 6 of Part 1, if the board finds that the formation of such a regional agency will not adversely affect compliance with this part.

SEC. 5. Section 40976 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

40976. A city, county, or regional agency may enter into a memorandum of understanding with another city, county, regional agency, agency formed under a joint exercise of powers agreement, or district established to manage solid waste for the purpose of preparing and implementing source reduction and recycling elements, household hazardous waste elements, or a countywide or regional agency integrated waste management plan.

SEC. 6. Section 41770.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

41770.5. A city, county, or regional agency may revise or amend its source reduction and recycling element and household hazardous waste element at any time to incorporate new or revised data, to give descriptions of new or revised source reduction, recycling, or composting programs, or to make other changes that are necessary to comply with the diversion requirements of Section 41780.

SEC. 7. Section 41780.2 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

41780.2. (a) Each city, county, or member agency of a regional agency shall determine the amount of reduction in solid waste disposal and the amount of additional diversion required from the base-year amounts by using the methods set forth in this section.

(b) The city, county, or member agency of a regional agency shall multiply the total amount of base-year solid waste generation, as adjusted using the methods described in subdivision (c) of Section 41780.1, by 0.75 to determine the maximum amount of total disposal allowable in 1995 to meet the diversion requirements of Section 41780.

(c) The city, county, or member agency of a regional agency shall multiply the total amount of base-year solid waste generation, as adjusted using the methods described in subdivision (c) of Section 41780.1, by 0.50 to determine the maximum amount of total disposal allowable in 2000 to meet the diversion requirements of Section 41780.

(d) The city, county, or member agency of a regional agency shall multiply the total amount of base-year solid waste generation, as adjusted using the methods described in subdivision (c) of Section 41780.1, by 0.25 to determine the minimum amount of total diversion needed in 1995 to meet the diversion requirements of Section 41780.

(e) The city, county, or member agency of a regional agency shall multiply the total amount of base-year solid waste generation, as adjusted using the methods described in subdivision (c) of Section 41780.1, by 0.50 to determine the minimum amount of total diversion needed in 2000 to meet the diversion requirements of Section 41780.

(f) The city, county, or member agency of a regional agency shall subtract the total amount of base-year existing diversion from the minimum total diversion required as determined in subdivision (d) or (e) to determine the amount of additional diversion needed to meet the diversion requirements of Section 41780. This amount of additional diversion shall be equal to the minimum amount of additional reduction in disposal amounts which is needed to comply with Section 41780.

SEC. 8. Section 41781.2 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

(2) It is further the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to ensure that compliance with the diversion requirements of Section 41780 shall be accurately determined based upon a correlation between solid waste which was disposed of at permitted disposal facilities and diversion claims which are subsequently made for that solid waste.

(b) For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meaning:

(1) "Action by a city, county, regional, or local governing body" means franchise or contract conditions, rate or fee schedules, zoning or land use decisions, disposal facility permit conditions, or activities by a waste hauler, recycler, or disposal facility operator acting on behalf of a city, county, regional agency, or local governing body, or other action by the local governing body if the local government action is specifically related to the claimed diversion.

(2) "Scrap metal" includes ferrous metals, nonferrous metals, aluminum scrap, other metals, and auto bodies, but does not include aluminum cans, steel cans, or bimetal cans.

(3) "Inert solids" includes rock, concrete, brick, sand, soil, fines, asphalt, and unsorted construction and demolition waste.

(4) "Agricultural wastes" includes solid wastes of plant and animal origin, which result from the production and processing of farm or agricultural products, including manures, orchard and vineyard prunings, and crop residues, which are removed from the site of generation for solid waste management. Agriculture refers to SIC Codes 011 to 0291, inclusive.

(c) For purposes of determining the base amount of solid waste from which the diversion requirements of this article shall be calculated, "solid waste" does not include the diversion of agricultural wastes; inert solids, including inert solids used for structural fill; discarded, white-coated, major appliances; and scrap metals; unless all of the following criteria are met:

(1) The city, county, or regional agency demonstrates that the material was diverted from a permitted disposal facility through an action by the city, county, or regional agency which specifically resulted in the diversion.

(2) The city, county, or regional agency demonstrates that, prior to January 1, 1990, the solid waste which is claimed to have been diverted was disposed of at a permitted disposal facility in the quantity being claimed as diversion. If historical disposal data is not available, that demonstration may be based upon information available to the city, county, or regional agency which substantiates a reasonable estimate of disposal quantities which is as accurate as is feasible in the absence of historical disposal data.

(3) The city, county, or regional agency is implementing, and will continue to implement, source reduction, recycling, and composting programs, as described in its source reduction and recycling element.

(d) If a city, county, or regional agency source reduction and recycling element submitted pursuant to this chapter includes the diversion of any of the wastes specified in subdivision (c) for years preceding the year commencing January 1, 1990, that diversion shall not apply to the diversion requirements of Section 41780, unless the criteria in subdivision (c) are met.

(e) If a city, county, or regional agency source reduction and recycling element submitted pursuant to this chapter does not contain information sufficient for the city, county, or regional agency to demonstrate to the board whether the criteria in subdivision (c) have been met, the city, county, or regional agency may provide additional information following board review of the source reduction and recycling element pursuant to Section 41791.5. In providing the additional information, Sections 41801.5 and 41811.5 shall apply.

(f) In demonstrating whether the requirements of paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) have been met, the city, county, or regional agency shall submit information to the board on local government programs which are specifically related to the claimed diversion.

SEC. 9. Section 41782 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

41782. (a) Except as specified in subdivision (b) of Section 40973, the board may reduce the diversion requirements of Section 41780 if a city or county demonstrates, and the board concurs, based upon substantial evidence in the record, that achievement of the diversion requirements of Section 41780 is not feasible due to both of the following circumstances:

(1) The small geographic size or low population density of the city or county.

(2) The small quantity of solid waste generated within the city or county.

(b) The board shall establish alternative, but less comprehensive, requirements for a city or county that is granted a reduction pursuant to this section which will ensure compliance with this division.

(c) If a city or county which receives or has received a reduction in diversion requirements pursuant to this section is or becomes a member agency of a regional agency for the purpose of complying with the diversion requirements of Section 41780, a reduction in those requirements previously granted by the board pursuant to subdivision (a) shall no longer apply.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), it is the intent of the Legislature that any city or county that is granted a reduction in diversion requirements shall establish programs to meet the requirements of this division to the maximum extent feasible.

SEC. 10. Section 41791.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

41791.5. (a) Notwithstanding Section 41791, each city, county, and regional agency shall submit its source reduction and recycling element and its nondisposal facility element to the board in accordance with the following schedule:

(1) For any jurisdiction with less than eight years of remaining disposal site capacity, the source reduction and recycling element and the nondisposal facility element shall be submitted on or before April 30, 1994.

(2) For any jurisdiction with eight or more years, but less than 15 years, of remaining disposal site capacity, the source reduction and recycling element and the nondisposal facility element shall be submitted on or before August 31, 1994.

(3) For any jurisdiction with 15 or more years of remaining disposal site capacity, the source reduction and recycling element and the nondisposal facility element shall be submitted on or before December 31, 1994.

(b) For purposes of this section, "remaining disposal site capacity" means capacity remaining as of January 1, 1990. For each jurisdiction, disposal site capacity shall be deemed to be the countywide permitted disposal site capacity.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 41791, a county or regional agency that has adopted a countywide or regional agency integrated waste management plan may submit the plan and its elements to the board for review and approval pursuant to the schedule contained in subdivision (a).

SEC. 11. Section 41794 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

41794. Any city may submit its city source reduction and recycling element or nondisposal facility element to the board for review before the dates in the schedule in Section 41791.5.

SEC. 12. Section 41821 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

41821. (a) Each city, county, and regional agency shall submit a report to the board summarizing its progress in achieving the diversion requirements of Section 41780. The report shall be submitted with the source reduction and recycling element required pursuant to Section 41791.5, or by October 1, 1994, except that jurisdictions which are required to submit a source reduction and recycling element by December 31, 1994, pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 41791.5, shall submit the report not later than October 1, 1994. The report shall not be used for purposes of enforcing the requirements of this division.

(b) The board shall, by December 30, 1993, prepare a brief reporting form and shall provide the form to each jurisdiction for use in submitting the following information:

(1) Any change in the tonnage of solid waste disposed of by the jurisdiction when compared to the information reported for the base year, as defined in Section 41781.

(2) Any change in the tonnage of solid waste diverted through facilities or programs operated by the jurisdiction.

(3) A status report on programs described in the source reduction and recycling element.

(c) The board may request additional information as necessary, but shall not require any jurisdiction to prepare a solid waste generation study or other significant analysis.

(d) It is the intent of the Legislature that the board, in preparing the reporting form pursuant to subdivision (b), only require information which is necessary to determine the progress that a jurisdiction is making toward meeting the diversion requirements of Section 41780 and to provide assistance to local governments in the preparation of the forms so as to minimize to the greatest extent practicable any additional time and expense to local governments.

(e) On or before January 1, 1995, the board shall submit to the Governor and the Legislature a report summarizing information from the reports submitted pursuant to subdivision (a) describing city, county, regional agency, and statewide progress in achieving the diversion requirements of Section 41780.

(f) Each year following the board's approval of a city, county, or regional agency source reduction and recycling element or a countywide or regional agency integrated waste management plan, the city, county, or regional agency shall submit a report to the board summarizing its progress in reducing solid waste as required by Section 41780. The report shall describe any new or revised source reduction, recycling, or composting programs, or any other changes which have been implemented for purposes of complying with Section 41780. The report shall include information on increases in waste generated or disposed of due to increases or decreases in the quantity of waste caused only by changes in population or changes in the number or the size of governmental, industrial, or commercial operations in the city, county, or regional agency so that the board may determine if the source reduction and recycling requirements of Section 41780 need to be revised. In preparing annual reports pursuant to this section, cities, counties, and regional agencies shall use disposal information, and information on the diversion programs which the city, county, or regional agency operates, to track the success of diversion programs.

SEC. 13. Section 43600 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

43600. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), any person owning or operating a solid waste landfill, as defined in Section 46027, shall, with the closure plan and postclosure maintenance plan submitted pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 43501, submit to the board evidence of financial ability to provide for the cost of closure and postclosure maintenance, in an amount equal to the estimated cost of closure and 15 years of postclosure maintenance, contained in the closure plan and the postclosure maintenance plan submitted.

(b) On and after the effective date of the federal regulations set forth in Subpart G (commencing with Section 258.70) of Part 258 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations, any person owning or operating a solid waste landfill, shall, with the closure plan and postclosure maintenance plan submitted pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 43501, submit to the board evidence of financial ability to provide for closure and postclosure maintenance, in an amount equal to the estimated cost of closure and 30 years of postclosure maintenance, contained in the closure plan and the postclosure maintenance plan submitted.

SEC. 14. Section 43602 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

43602. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), evidence of financial ability required of an owner or operator of a solid waste landfill, as defined in Section 46027, shall be adjusted to equal the estimated costs of closure and 15 years of postclosure maintenance in the approved plans. Revisions in the plans prior to closure shall be accompanied by corresponding revisions in cost estimates and financial assurances.

(b) On and after the effective date of the federal regulations set forth in Subpart G (commencing with Section 258.70) of Part 258 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations, the evidence of financial ability required of an owner or operator of a solid waste landfill shall be adjusted to equal the estimated costs of closure and 30 years of postclosure maintenance in the approved plans. Revisions in the plans prior to closure shall be accompanied by corresponding revisions in cost estimates and financial assurances.

SEC. 15. Section 43604 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 16. Section 43604 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

43604. (a) During the closure and postclosure maintenance period, a solid waste landfill owner or operator shall maintain evidence of financial ability sufficient to pay postclosure maintenance costs, except that the owner or operator may request reimbursement for costs of postclosure maintenance as they are incurred if the remaining amount of funds is at least equal to the remaining postclosure maintenance cost.

(b) Notwithstanding the effective date of this section, owners and operators shall be required to comply with this section on the effective date of those regulations set forth in Part 258 (commencing with Section 258.1) of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

SEC. 17. (a) The board may reduce the diversion requirements of Section 41780 for a portion of the unincorporated part of a county of the seventh class, as specified in Section 28028 of the Government Code, if the county demonstrates, and the board concurs, based upon substantial evidence in the record, that the achievement of those diversion requirements is not feasible in that area due to both of the following circumstances:

(1) The low population density of the area.

(2) The small quantity of waste generated within the area.

(b) The board shall establish alternative, but less comprehensive, requirements for the area if the board grants a reduction in diversion requirements, which will ensure compliance with this division.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), it is the intent of the Legislature that any area that is granted a reduction in diversion requirements shall establish programs to meet the requirements of this division to the maximum extent feasible.

SEC. 18. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 19. This is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to ensure the timely implementation of state law intended to promote the reduction and recycling of solid waste and the safe disposal of solid waste, including household hazardous waste, thereby protecting health and safety and the environment, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1170

An act to repeal Chapter 3.7 (commencing with Section 5700) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, to add Title 2.95 (commencing with Section 1812.600) to Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, and to amend Section 535 of the Penal Code, relating to auctions, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 3.7 (commencing with Section 5700) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Title 2.95 (commencing with Section 1812.600) is added to Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, to read:

TITLE 2.95. AUCTIONEER AND AUCTION COMPANIES

1812.600. (a) Every auctioneer and auction company shall maintain a bond issued by a surety company admitted to do business in this state. The principal sum of the bond shall be twenty thousand dollars ($20,000). A copy of the bond shall be filed with the Secretary of State. The Secretary of State shall charge a filing fee to cover the cost of filing the bond or the deposit filed in lieu of a bond as set forth in Section 995.710 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(b) The bond required by this section shall be in favor of, and payable to, the people of the State of California and shall be for the benefit of any person or persons damaged by any fraud, dishonesty, misstatement, misrepresentation, deceit, unlawful acts or omissions, or failure to provide the services of the auctioneer or auction company in performance of the auction by the auctioneer or auction company or its agents, representatives, or employees while acting within the scope of their employment.

(c) (1) No auctioneer or auction company shall conduct any business without having a current surety bond in the amount prescribed by this section and without filing a copy of the bond with the Secretary of State.

(2) Thirty days prior to the cancellation or termination of any surety bond required by this section, the surety shall send a written notice of that cancellation or termination to both the auctioneer or auction company and the Secretary of State, identifying the bond and the date of cancellation or termination.

(3) If any auctioneer or auction company fails to obtain a new bond and file a copy of that bond with the Secretary of State by the effective date of the cancellation or termination of the former bond, the auctioneer or auction company shall cease to conduct any business unless and until that time as a new surety bond is obtained and a copy of that bond is filed with the Secretary of State.

(d) (1) A deposit may be made in lieu of a bond as set forth in Section 995.710 of the Code of Civil Procedure. When a deposit is made in lieu of the bond, the person asserting the claim against the deposit shall establish the claim by furnishing evidence to the Secretary of State of a money judgment entered by a court together with evidence that the claimant is a person described in subdivision (b).

(2) Approval and payment of the claims by the Secretary of State shall be in accordance with subdivisions (b), (c), (d), and (e) of Section 1812.105.

(3) When a deposit has been made in lieu of bond, the amount of the deposit shall not be subject to attachment, garnishment, or execution with respect to an action or judgment against the auctioneer or auction company, other than as to that amount that is no longer needed or required for the purpose of this section which otherwise would be returned to the auctioneer or auction company by the Secretary of State.

(4) When any claim or claims against a deposit in lieu of bond have been paid so as to reduce the principal amount of the deposit remaining available to pay claims below the principal amount required by this section, the auctioneer or auction company shall cease to conduct any business unless and until that time as sufficient additional moneys have been deposited in the agency's deposit account with the Secretary of State to bring the deposit account balance available for the payment of claims up to the minimum amount required by this section.

(e) If an auctioneer fails to perform any of the duties specifically imposed upon him or her pursuant to this title, any person may maintain an action for enforcement of those duties or to recover a civil penalty in the amount of one thousand dollars ($1,000), or for both enforcement and recovery.

(f) In any action to enforce these duties or to recover civil penalties, or for both enforcement and recovery, the prevailing plaintiff shall be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs, in addition to the civil penalties provided under subdivision (e).

(g) The Secretary of State shall enforce the provisions of this title that govern the filing and maintenance of bonds.

(h) Notwithstanding the repeal of Chapter 3.7 (commencing with Section 5700) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code by the act adding this chapter, any cash security in lieu of the surety bond formerly required and authorized by former Chapter 3.7 (commencing with Section 5700) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, shall be transferred to, and maintained by, the Secretary of State.

1812.601. (a) "Advertisement" means any of the following:

(1) Any written or printed communication for the purpose of soliciting, describing, or offering to act as an auctioneer or provide auction company services, including any brochure, pamphlet, newspaper, periodical, or publication.

(2) A telephone or other directory listing caused or permitted by an auctioneer or auction company to be published that indicates the offer to practice auctioneering or auction company services.

(3) A radio, television, or similar airwave transmission that solicits or offers the practice of auctioneering or auction company services.

(b) "Auction" means a sale transaction conducted by means of oral or written exchanges between an auctioneer and the members of his or her audience, which exchanges consist of a series of invitations for offers for the purchase of goods made by the auctioneer and offers to purchase made by members of the audience and culminate in the acceptance by the auctioneer of the highest or most favorable offer made by a member of the participating audience. However, auction does not include a sale of real estate or a sale in any sequence of real estate with personal property or fixtures or both in a unified sale pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of subdivision (4) of Section 9501 of the Commercial Code.

(c) "Auction company" means any person who arranges, manages, sponsors, advertises, accounts for the proceeds of, or carries out auction sales at locations, including, but not limited to, any fixed location, including an auction barn, gallery place of business, sale barn, sale yard, sale pavilion, and the contiguous surroundings of each.

(d) "Auctioneer" means any individual who is engaged in, or who by advertising or otherwise holds himself or herself out as being available to engage in, the calling for, the recognition of, and the acceptance of, offers for the purchase of goods at an auction.

(e) "Employee" means an individual who works for an employer, is listed on the employer's payroll records, and is under the employer's control.

(f) "Employer" means a person who employs an individual for wages or salary, lists the individual on the person's payroll records, and withholds legally required deductions and contributions.

(g) "Goods" means any goods, wares, chattels, merchandise, or other personal property, including domestic animals and farm products.

(h) "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, trust, including a business trust, firm, association, organization, or any other form of business enterprise.

1812.602. The superior court for the county in which any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act that constitutes a violation of this title may, upon a petition filed by any person, issue an injunction or other appropriate order restraining the violative conduct. Proceedings under this section shall be governed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, except that no undertaking shall be required.

1812.603. (a) The superior court for the county in which any person has engaged in any act that constitutes a violation of this title may, upon a petition filed by any person, order the person who committed the violation to make restitution to any person injured as a result of the violation.

(b) The court may order any person against whom an injunction or restraining order pursuant to subdivision (a), or an order requiring restitution pursuant to subdivision (b), is directed, to reimburse the petitioner for expenses incurred in the investigation related to its petition.

(c) The remedies set forth in this section are in addition to, and not a limitation on, the authority provided for in any other section of this code.

1812.604. Except as otherwise provided in this title, any person who violates any provision of this title is guilty of a misdemeanor, which offense is punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, or by both that fine and imprisonment. In addition, upon a conviction of any violation of this chapter, or of any crime related to the conduct of an auctioneer, the court may issue an injunction and prohibit the convicted person from acting as an auctioneer or an auction company in this state, in which case the court shall inform the Secretary of State of that action.

1812.605. In conducting the business of auctioneering, each auctioneer and auction company, and the company's owners, partners, officers, agents, and employees, shall do all of the following:

(a) Follow all lawful requests of the owner or consignor of the goods being sold at auction with regard to the sale of those goods.

(b) Perform his or her duties so that the highest or most favorable offer made by a member of his or her audience is accepted, except to the extent that any item or sale is offered with reserve or subject to confirmation.

(c) Truthfully represent the goods to be auctioned.

(d) Otherwise perform his or her duties in accordance with the laws of this state.

1812.606. Every auctioneer who operates his or her own auction company as a sole proprietor, and every auction company, together with its owners, partners, and officers, that employs an auctioneer, shall be responsible for all violations committed by the auctioneer or by any company employee in the conduct of auction business. An auctioneer who is employed by an auctioneer or auction company shall be responsible for all violations committed by him or her in the conduct of auction business.

It is a violation of this title for any auctioneer or auction company, or the company's owners, partners, and officers, to direct or knowingly permit any violation of this title by any auctioneer employed by or under contract with that auctioneer or auction company, or by any owner, partner, officer, agent, or employee of the auction company.

1861.607. Every auction company and auctioneer shall do all of the following:

(a) Disclose his or her name, trade or business name, telephone number, and bond number in all advertising of auctions. A first violation of this subdivision is an infraction subject to a fine of fifty dollars ($50); a second violation is subject to a fine of seventy-five dollars ($75); and a third or subsequent violation is subject to a fine of one hundred dollars ($100). This section shall not apply to business cards, business stationery, or to any advertisement which does not specify an auction date.

(b) Post a sign, the dimensions of which shall be at least 18 inches by 24 inches, at the main entrance to each auction, stating that the auction is being conducted in compliance with Section 2328 of the Commercial Code, Section 535 of the Penal Code, and the provisions of the California Civil Code. A first violation of this subdivision is an infraction subject to a fine of fifty dollars ($50); a second violation is subject to a fine of seventy-five dollars ($75); and a third or subsequent violation is subject to a fine of one hundred dollars ($100).

(c) Post or distribute to the audience the terms, conditions, restrictions, and procedures whereby goods will be sold at the auction, and announce any changes to those terms, conditions, restrictions, and procedures prior to the beginning of the auction sale. A first violation of this subdivision is an infraction subject to a fine of fifty dollars ($50); a second violation is subject a fine of one hundred dollars ($100); and a third or subsequent violation is subject to a fine of two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(d) Notify the Secretary of State of any change in address of record within 30 days of the change. A violation of this subdivision is an infraction subject to a fine of fifty dollars ($50).

(e) Notify the Secretary of State of any change in the officers of a corporate license within 30 days of the change. A violation of this subdivision is an infraction subject to a fine of fifty dollars ($50).

(f) Notify the Secretary of State of any change in the business or trade name of the auctioneer or auction company within 30 days of the change. A violation of this subdivision is an infraction subject to a fine of fifty dollars ($50).

(g) Keep and maintain, at the auctioneer's or auction company's address of record, complete and correct records and accounts pertaining to the auctioneer's or auction company's activity for a period of not less than two years. The records shall include the name and address of the owner or consignor and of any buyer of goods at any auction sale engaged in or conducted by the auctioneer or auction company, a description of the goods, the terms and conditions of the acceptance and sale of the goods, all written contracts with owners and consignors, and accounts of all moneys received and paid out, whether on the auctioneer's or auction company's own behalf or as agent, as a result of those activities. A first violation of this subdivision is a misdemeanor subject to a fine of five hundred dollars ($500); and a second or subsequent violation is subject to a fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(h) Within 30 working days after the sale transaction, provide, or cause to be provided, an account to the owner or consignor of all goods that are the subject of an auction engaged in or conducted by the auctioneer or auction company. A first violation of this subdivision is a misdemeanor subject to a fine of five hundred dollars ($500); and a second or subsequent violation is subject to a fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(i) Within 30 working days after a sale transaction of goods, pay or cause to be paid, all moneys and proceeds due to the owner or the consignor of all goods that were the subject of an auction engaged in or conducted by the auctioneer or auction company, unless delay is compelled by legal proceedings or the inability of the auctioneer or auction company, through no fault of his or her own, to transfer title to the goods or to comply with any provision of this chapter, the Commercial Code, the Code of Civil Procedure, or any other applicable provision of law. A first violation of this subdivision is a misdemeanor subject to a fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000); a second violation is subject to a fine of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500); and a third or subsequent violation is subject to a fine of two thousand dollars ($2,000).

(j) Maintain the funds of all owners, consignors, buyers, and other clients and customers, separate from his or her personal funds and accounts. A violation of this subdivision is an infraction subject to a fine of two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(k) Immediately prior to offering any item for sale, disclose to the audience the existence and amount of any liens or other encumbrances on the item, unless the item is sold as free and clear. For the purposes of this subdivision, an item is "free and clear" if all liens and encumbrances on the item are to be paid prior to the transfer of title. A violation of this subdivision is an infraction subject to a fine of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) in addition to the requirement that the buyer be refunded, upon demand, the amount paid for any item that is the subject of the violation.

(l) Within two working days after an auction sale, return the blank check or deposit of each buyer who purchased no goods at the sale. A first violation of this subdivision is an infraction subject to a fine of one hundred dollars ($100); and a second or subsequent violation is subject to a fine of two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(m) Within 30 working days of any auction sale, refund that portion of the deposit of each buyer that exceeds the cost of the goods purchased, unless delay is compelled by legal proceedings, by the inability of the auctioneer or auction company, through no fault of his or her own, to transfer title to the goods or to comply with any provision of this chapter, the Commercial Code, the Code of Civil Procedure, or other applicable provisions of law, or unless the buyer violated the terms of a written agreement that he or she take possession of purchased goods within a specified period of time. A first violation of this subdivision is an infraction subject to a fine of one hundred dollars ($100); and a second or subsequent violation is subject to a fine of two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

1861.608. In addition to other requirements and prohibitions of this title, it is a violation of this title for any person to do any of the following:

(a) Fail to comply with any provision of this code, or with any provision of the Vehicle Code, the Commercial Code, any regulation of the Secretary of State, the Code of Civil Procedure, the Penal Code, or any law administered by the State Board of Equalization, relating to the auctioneering business, including, but not limited to, sales and the transfer of title of goods.

(b) Aid or abet the activity of any other person that violates any provision of this title. A violation of this subdivision is a misdemeanor subject to a fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(c) Place or use any misleading or untruthful advertising or statements or make any substantial misrepresentation in conducting auctioneering business. A first violation of this subdivision is a misdemeanor subject to a fine of five hundred dollars ($500); and a second or subsequent violation is subject to a fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(d) Sell goods at auction before the auctioneer or auction company involved has first entered into a written contract with the owner or consignor of the goods, which contract sets forth the terms and conditions upon which the auctioneer or auction company accepts the goods for sale. The written contract shall include all of the following:

(1) The auctioneer's or auction company's name, trade or business name, business address, and business telephone number.

(2) An inventory of the item or items to be sold at auction.

(3) A description of the services to be provided and the agreed consideration for the services, which description shall explicitly state which party shall be responsible for advertising and other expenses.

(4) The approximate date or dates when the item or items will be sold at auction.

(5) A statement as to which party shall be responsible for insuring the item or items against loss by theft, fire, or other means.

(6) A disclosure that the auctioneer or auction company has a bond on file with the Secretary of State. A first violation of this subdivision is an infraction subject to a fine of two hundred fifty dollars ($250); a second violation is subject to a fine of five hundred dollars ($500); and a third or subsequent violation is subject to a fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(e) Sell goods at auction before the auctioneer or auction company involved has first entered into a written contract with the auctioneer who is to conduct the auction. A first violation of this subdivision is an infraction subject to a fine of one hundred dollars ($100); and a second or subsequent violation is subject to a fine of two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(f) Fail to reduce to writing all amendments or addenda to any written contract with an owner or consignor or an auctioneer. A first violation of this subdivision is an infraction subject to a fine of one hundred dollars ($100); and a second or subsequent violation is subject to a fine of two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(g) Fail to abide by the terms of any written contract required by this section. A first violation of this subdivision is an infraction subject to a fine of one hundred dollars ($100); and a second or subsequent violation is subject to a fine of two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(h) Cause or allow any person to bid at a sale for the sole purpose of increasing the bid on any item or items being sold by the auctioneer, except as authorized by Section 2328 of the Commercial Code or by this title. A violation of this subdivision includes, but is not limited to, either of the following:

(1) Stating any increased bid greater than that offered by the last highest bidder when, in fact, no person has made such a bid.

(2) Allowing the owner, consignor, or agent thereof, of any item or items to bid on the item or items, without disclosing to the audience that the owner, consignor, or agent thereof has reserved the right to so bid.

A violation of this subdivision is an infraction subject to a fine of one hundred dollars ($100).

(i) Knowingly misrepresent the nature of any item or items to be sold at auction, including, but not limited to, age, authenticity, value, condition, or origin. A violation of this subdivision is an infraction subject to a fine of two hundred fifty dollars ($250); in addition, it shall be required that the buyer of the misrepresented item be refunded the purchase price of the item or items within 24 hours of return to the auctioneer or auction company of the item by the buyer, provided that the item is returned within five days after the date of the auction sale.

(j) Misrepresent the terms, conditions, restrictions, or procedures under which goods will be sold at auction. A violation of this subdivision is an infraction subject to a fine of seventy-five dollars ($75).

(k) Sell any item subject to sales tax without possessing a valid and unrevoked seller's permit from the State Board of Equalization. A violation of this subdivision is an infraction subject to a fine of five hundred dollars ($500).

SEC. 3. Section 535 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

535. Every person who obtains any money or property from another, or obtains the signature of another to any written instrument, the false making of which would be forgery, by means of any false or fraudulent sale of property or pretended property, by auction, or by any of the practices known as mock auctions, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, or in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by both such fine and imprisonment, and, in addition, is disqualified for a period of three years from acting as an auctioneer in this state.

SEC. 4. In enacting this act, the Legislature hereby expresses its intent to completely occupy the field of auctioneer licensing to preempt any local regulation affecting auctioneer licensing. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the fines authorized by this act shall be paid to the county treasurer in the jurisdiction in which the fine or penalty is levied to be used exclusively to the benefit of the district attorney of that county.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for those costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 6. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to facilitate the transfer of authority for the licensing of auctioneers at the earliest possible time and to provide for regulation of that occupation, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1171

An act to add Section 3.2 to, and to repeal Sections 3.1 and 32.5 of, the Mojave Water Agency Law (Chapter 2146 of the Statutes of 1959), relating to the Mojave Water Agency.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that the Mojave Water Agency is divided into seven divisions from which directors are elected. These divisions need to be periodically adjusted to reflect the changes in population within each division.

SEC. 2. Section 3.1 of the Mojave Water Agency Law (Chapter 2146 of the Statutes of 1959) is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 3.2 is added to the Mojave Water Agency Law (Chapter 2146 of the Statutes of 1959), to read:

Sec. 3.2. (a) After each federal decennial census, and using population figures as validated by the Population Research Unit of the Department of Finance, the board of directors shall, by resolution, adjust the boundaries of any divisions so that the divisions are, as far as practicable, equal in population and represent, as far as practicable, a commonality of interest.

(b) The resolution requires the vote of not less than four directors for adoption.

(c) At the time of, or after, any annexation of territory to the agency, the board of directors shall designate, by resolution, the division of which the annexed territory shall be a part.

(d) No change in division boundaries may be made within four months preceding the election of any director.

(e) (1) A change in division boundaries does not affect the term of office of any director.

(2) If division boundaries are adjusted, the director of the division whose boundaries have been adjusted, shall continue to be the director of the division bearing the number of his or her division as formerly comprised until the office becomes vacant by means of term expiration or otherwise, whether or not the director is a resident within the boundaries of the division as adjusted.

(f) The successor to the office in a division whose boundaries have been adjusted shall be a resident and voter of that division.

SEC. 4. Section 32.5 of the Mojave Water Agency Law (Chapter 2146 of the Statutes of 1959) is repealed.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1172

An act to amend Sections 76708, 78407, 78475, 78486, 78500, 78527, 78550, 78552, 78563, and 78564 of, and to add Section 78415 to, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to marketing of seafood.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 76708 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

76708. (a) The notice requesting nominations shall indicate that nominations shall be mailed to the director at his or her office in Sacramento and that the director will consider nominations received by mail postmarked not later than March 1.

(b) Nominations shall set forth all of the following:

(1) The name and address of each nominee.

(2) Whether each nominee is being nominated as a member or alternate member.

(3) The type of category for which the nominee is being nominated.

(4) The list of qualifications and supporters, if any, for the nominee.

(5) The name and address of the nominating marketing association, organization, or individual.

SEC. 2. Section 78407 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

78407. "Fisheries" means:

(a) All species of fish and shellfish harvested in ocean waters landed in California which are treated as a unit for purposes of research, development, promotion, and marketing, except abalone, anchovy, dungeness crab, herring and herring roe, pink shrimp, salmon, sea urchins, all fish collected for scientific experiment or aquaria, all fish classified as groundfish taken by use of trawl nets, and all tuna landed for canning in this state or for transshipment for canning in other states or nations.

(b) Any economic activity involving the harvesting, receiving, processing, manufacturing, or distributing of fisheries described in subdivision (a) and products therefrom.

SEC. 3. Section 78415 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

78415. "Sponsor" means a person or company that is not a member of the council but who supports and wishes to contribute to programs established by the director on behalf of the council for a specified voluntary contribution and benefit, as authorized by Section 78563.

SEC. 4. Section 78475 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

78475. There is in the State of California the California Seafood Council. The council shall be composed of 11 voting members and their alternates, and six nonvoting members.

SEC. 5. Section 78486 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

78486. One nonvoting member of the council shall be appointed by the director to represent each of the following entities:

(a) The department.

(b) The Department of Fish and Game.

(c) The California Sea Grant Program.

(d) The West Coast Fisheries Development Foundation or the Coastal Resources Center.

(e) The California State World Trade Commission.

(f) The State Department of Health Services.

SEC. 6. Section 78500 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

78500. The duties of the council shall be advisory, except as to those duties that may be delegated to it by the director or as otherwise designated in this chapter. The council may, subject to the approval of the director, exercise any of the following powers that may be delegated to the council by the director:

(a) To recommend to the director regulations that relate to the administration and enforcement of this chapter.

(b) To investigate all matters that affect the administration of this chapter, and to report violations of this chapter to the director.

(c) To employ and, at its pleasure, discharge, a manager and any other employees it deems necessary, and to prescribe their duties and powers and fix their compensation.

(d) To contract for the services of any person.

(e) To establish offices and incur expenses incidental thereto.

(f) To make contracts and other agreements to research, develop, market, and promote the sale of seafood and seafood products from fisheries, as defined by subdivision (a) of Section 78407, and landed in California, on either a local, state, national, or international basis.

(g) (1) To cooperate with any other local, state, or national commission, organization, or agency, whether voluntary or created by state or federal law, including, but not limited to, the West Coast Fisheries Development Foundation, the California Salmon Council, and the National Fish and Seafood Promotion Council, which is engaged in work or activities similar to the work and activities of the council, and to recommend to the director the making of contracts and agreements with those organizations or agencies for carrying on joint programs of education, communication, research, publicity, and advertising.

(2) To recommend to the director the making of contracts and agreements with other councils, commodity commissions, or producer organizations for joint programs of publicity and advertising where those products are compatible with the promotion of seafood and seafood products from fisheries, as defined by subdivision (a) of Section 78407, and landed in California.

(3) In matters of research, to cooperate with organizations of recognized professional standing that are adequately equipped with facilities for the research that is contemplated.

(h) To recommend to the director the institution and promotion of scientific research to develop or discover, or both, the health, food, therapeutic, dietetic, and other uses of seafood.

(i) To recommend or contract for scientific research for the promotion, utilization, and benefit of seafood and seafood products for the purpose of successful seafood marketing.

(j) To recommend or contract for the development of voluntary product quality standards.

(k) To promote accurate labeling of California seafood as a means to educate consumers and the public about the benefits of California seafood.

(l) To receive, invest, and disburse funds pursuant to Article 7

(commencing with Section 78550).

(2) To allocate funds to agencies not specifically or solely engaged in carrying on research or promotion for seafood, if the council and the director are satisfied that those allocations will be beneficial to the California commercial fisheries and will tend to effectuate the declared purposes of this chapter.

(l) To establish and regulate the permissive use of an official brand, service mark, trade name, label, or other distinctive designation of grade, quality, condition, or other promotional or educational description. Permissive use of any such official designation shall be limited to producers, handlers, or other persons designated by the council who are in compliance with all regulations or rules established by the council for use of the designation. Any designation established pursuant to this section shall not be construed as a private brand or trade name.

SEC. 7. Section 78527 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

78527. The council shall not expend council funds for advertising brand name seafood products as determined by the council, except for promotions carried out on behalf of the council in markets outside of the State of California. The council may expend council funds to conduct cost-sharing advertising with nonbrand name seafood products from the California commercial fisheries.

SEC. 8. Section 78550 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

78550. In order to carry out the programs and administer the activities that are conducted pursuant to this chapter, except as specified in Section 78557, a fee shall be established by the director and, thereafter, shall be recommended to the director by the council, based on an amount which is four-tenths of 1 percent of the ex-vessel price per pound paid for each pound of fish or shellfish specified in subdivision (a) of Section 78407 sold to a receiver, or sold by a fisherman directly to the public pursuant to Section 8033.5 of the Fish and Game Code. The fee shall be paid by the receiver or the fisherman, or both, and remitted to the director as specified in Section 78552. The amount of the fee for each species shall be established annually by the council for recommendation to the director, calculated to the nearest $1/10000$ of one cent ($0.0001) based on the formulation in this section. Individual fees shall be established for species identified in subdivision (a) of Section 78407. The council, with assistance from the Department of Fish and Game, may determine the fee structure for individual species and may average or consolidate fees for similar species to simplify landing fee reporting and accounting requirements. The amount of the fee shall be based on the landed weight of the fish or shellfish, as reported on the fish landing receipt made under Section 8043 of the Fish and Game Code. A fisherman selling to the public pursuant to Section 8033.5 of the Fish and Game Code shall remit the fee directly to the director as specified in Section 78552.

To facilitate collection of fees from receivers or fishermen who handle a small volume of fish and shellfish specified in subdivision (a) of Section 78407, receivers or fishermen whose estimated monthly fee payments do not exceed ten dollars ($10) may file reports and submit fees on a quarterly basis. Payments are delinquent if not submitted within 60 days following the end of the quarter in which they are due.

SEC. 9. Section 78552 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

78552. The fees, whether from fishermen or receivers, or both, that are collected pursuant to this article shall be forwarded by the receivers, except as provided under Section 78550, to the director at the same time landing taxes are paid to the Department of Fish and Game pursuant to Section 8053 of the Fish and Game Code. The director shall supply forms necessary for the remittance of fees. The director may consult with the Director of Fish and Game and enter into agreements with the Department of Fish and Game, when he or she deems it necessary and reasonable, to assist in the administration of this article and to ensure compliance with this article. The director and the Director of Fish and Game may enter into an interagency agreement on behalf of the council to provide names and addresses of commercial fish businesses selected annually by the Department of Fish and Game for fish landing tax examinations. The listing of names and addresses is a confidential document.

SEC. 10. Section 78563 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

78563. The director may accept contributions from any source or may receive grants or contracts for funds from the Secretary of Environmental Affairs pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 35062 of the Public Resources Code to advance the purposes of this chapter. If requested by the donor, the contributions shall be segregated and separately maintained for the use of the council. The director may also establish categories of voluntary contributions paid by sponsors, as defined by Section 78415. Categories of voluntary contributions, suggested voluntary contributions, and benefits may be recommended to the director by the council.

SEC. 11. Section 78564 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

78564. The council may develop guidelines for the establishment and operation of a "credit-back" program for receivers and fishermen, which authorizes the reimbursement of a percentage of individual contributions to the council, not to exceed 50 percent, for specified individual expenditures benefiting the fishing industry. Individual expenditures eligible for reimbursement may include, but are not necessarily limited to, promotion, research and development, and advertising. The council shall appoint a review committee from its membership and from the fishing industry to review and approve applications for the credit. Any guidelines that require the assistance of, or impact the operation of, the Department of Fish and Game are subject to Section 78552.

Upon submittal of a statement of completion of a credit-back program, and its acceptance by the review committee, the review committee may direct the council to reimburse a percentage of individual contributions, not to exceed 50 percent, at the end of the fiscal year for which the credit-back application and expenditure were made.

CHAPTER 1173

An act to add Section 5009.2 to the Public Resources Code, relating to the state park system.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature that any state funds which are allocated for the maintenance or operation of any unit of the state park system shall continue to be used for the enhancement of the state park system and shall not be redirected to any other purpose as a result of any financial savings resulting from this act.

SEC. 2. Section 5009.2 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

5009.2. (a) The department may enter into an agreement to accept funds from any person, business entity, or organization for the maintenance or operation of a state beach, any other unit of the state park system that encompasses a beach, or any area or facility of the state beach or other unit. Any funds so received shall be deposited in a separate account in the State Park Contingent Fund. The funds received shall supplement existing resources for the purposes of enhancing the maintenance or operation of the state beach, other unit of the state park system that encompasses a beach, or area or facility of the state beach or other unit. The department and the sponsoring person, business entity, or organization may specify in the agreement the level of maintenance or operation that will be performed.

(b) The department may also enter into an agreement to accept services from any person, business entity, or organization for the operation, maintenance, or enhancement of a state beach, other unit of the state park system that encompasses a beach, or area or facility of the state beach or other unit, on a nonprofit basis. Under the direction of the department, those services shall supplement existing staff resources for the purposes of operation, maintenance, or enhancement of the state beach, area, or facility.

(c) The director may authorize the erection of an appropriate sign in recognition of that sponsorship, in accordance with department rules and regulations regarding signs in the state park system.

(d) The activities authorized by this section shall be implemented as part of the department's Adopt-A-Beach program.

CHAPTER 1174

An act to amend, repeal, and add Section 9051 of, to add and repeal Section 5517 of, and to add and repeal Article 20 (commencing with Section 8599) of Chapter 2 of Division 6 of, the Fish and Game Code, relating to white sharks, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) The white shark occurs throughout California waters, especially off the Farallon Islands, Ano Nuevo, and the Channel Islands.

(b) The white shark, as the principal apex predator off the California coast, plays a vital role in maintaining the overall health and stability of California's marine environment and is also a species of great interest to the public.

(c) A healthy white shark population off the California coast is critical to maintaining a balance in our marine ecosystems.

(d) The white shark has been, and continues to be, uncommon, and its population off the California coast is sensitive to any increased level of sport or commercial taking, as has been demonstrated in the recent past.

(e) An insignificant level of incidental take of white sharks presently occurs in several net fisheries.

(f) It is desirable for the Department of Fish and Game and the fishing and scientific communities to cooperate in collecting more information on this fascinating, important, and uncommon fish.

SEC. 2. Section 5517 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

5517. (a) It is unlawful to take any white shark (Carcharodon carcharias), except under permits issued pursuant to Section 1002 for scientific or educational purposes.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 3. Article 20 (commencing with Section 8599) is added to Chapter 2 of Division 6 of the Fish and Game Code, to read:

Article 20. White Sharks

8599. (a) It is unlawful to take any white shark (Carcharodon carcharias) for commercial purposes, except under permits issued pursuant to Section 1002 for scientific or educational purposes or pursuant to subdivision (b) for scientific or live display purposes.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), white sharks may be taken incidentally by commercial fishing operations using set gill nets, drift gill nets, or roundhaul nets. White shark taken pursuant to this subdivision shall not have the pelvic fin severed from the carcass until after the white shark is brought ashore. White shark taken pursuant to this subdivision, if landed alive, may be sold for scientific or live display purposes.

(c) Any white shark killed or injured by any person in self-defense may not be landed.

8599.3. The department shall cooperate, to the extent that it determines feasible, with appropriate scientific institutions to facilitate data collection on white sharks taken incidentally by commercial fishing operations.

8599.6. This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 9051 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

9051. (a) Spears, harpoons, and bows and arrows may be used for taking all varieties of skates, rays, and sharks, except soupfin sharks and white sharks.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 5. Section 9051 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

9051. (a) Spears, harpoons, and bows and arrows may be used for taking all varieties of skates, rays, and sharks, except soupfin sharks.

(b) This section shall become operative January 1, 1999.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1175

An act to amend Section 14825.1 of the Government Code, to add Section 12113.5 to, and to add Chapter 1.6 (commencing with Section 1600) to Part 1 of Division 2 of, the Public Contract Code, relating to state procurement.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(a) As fiscal resources continue to erode the state's capacity to fulfill the traditional responsibilities of government, new strategies are needed to reduce costs, increase efficiency, and strengthen the overall economy.

(b) A 1992 study by the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University entitled Information Technology and Government Procurement noted, "Information technology has more potential to change the way our government operates than any other single technology or body of knowledge."

(c) Several models exist, including a technologically advanced model being developed and implemented for the Department of Defense at the Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory. The application of these programs has demonstrated significant cost savings through the use of information technology by increasing competitiveness and reducing cost in the process of public procurement of goods and services.

(d) In 1992, the State of Oregon implemented a Vendor Information Program, the first statewide fully automated bid access system in the country. To date, that state has realized significant cost savings as a result of that system.

(e) It is the intent of this act to expand and improve the state's procurement markets by making it easier, through innovative applications of information technology, for buyers and sellers to find and communicate interactively with each other, as well as realize overall cost savings and operational efficiency.

(f) It is the further intent of this chapter to enact necessary statutory revisions to procurement policies to allow electronic procurement transactions to occur.

SEC. 2. Section 14825.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

14825.1. The California State Contracts Register shall be published not less than twice a month and shall include information deemed appropriate by the Department of General Services, and shall include all of the following:

(a) Contract identification number.

(b) A description of the contract to be performed.

(c) All deadlines for submitting bid proposals or other required steps in the contract process, including the location and estimated duration of the contract where appropriate.

(d) Any eligibility requirements and preferences.

(e) Department, name, and telephone number of the person or persons to contact for further bid and submittal information.

The department may make the register available to the general public electronically through a computer-accessed service.

SEC. 3. Chapter 1.6 (commencing with Section 1600) is added to Part 1 of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code, to read:

CHAPTER 1.6. ELECTRONIC TRANSMISSIONS

1600. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, state agencies may enter into and make payment on contracts by way of electronic transmission, including but not limited to, the issuance of solicitation documents, and the receipt of responses thereto.

SEC. 4. Section 12113.5 is added to the Public Contract Code, to read:

12113.5. (a) The Director of General Services shall conduct a feasibility study assessing fiscal, technical, and operational factors to be considered in reforming the state's procurement process from a labor and paper intensive procurement process to an end-to-end all electronic system of on-line procurement whereby data bases of open procurements are made accessible to vendors by computer and modem. A component of the feasibility study shall establish, not later than January 1, 1994, a pilot program to define the requirements of an end-to-end all electronic procurement system. The feasibility study shall encompass all aspects of procurement, including construction, electronic data processing and telecommunications, commodities, supplies, materials, and physical or consulting services.

(b) The feasibility study shall be designed to explore the potential for realizing, through applications of appropriate end-to-end all electronic procurement systems and information technology applications, procurement enhancements that may include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) Providing capacity to electronically categorize procurements by approximate dollar value, geography, and due date.

(2) Offering ability for immediate access of status of procurements, through posting of completed procurements.

(3) Realizing cost savings through a resulting shift from a labor and paper intensive system to an electronic system.

(4) Achieving long-term savings in procurements by expanding the network of qualified suppliers through electronic marketing of public contract opportunities.

(5) Developing strategies to ensure equitable access to contract opportunities and procurement information to small and emerging business enterprises.

(c) The feasibility study shall include recommendations, based on study findings, to validate the requirements and value of an end-to-end all electronic procurement system, and provide for the development of specified data. Study recommendations shall also include a timeline from a pilot phase to full implementation of an electronic system for all aspects of procurement, including construction, electronic data processing and telecommunications, commodities, supplies, materials, and physical or consulting services.

(d) The feasibility study shall include consideration of the Controller's prepayment claim audit requirements and identify means to incorporate these requirements into any payment system resulting from this study.

(e) Notwithstanding Section 7550.5 of the Government Code, the results of the feasibility study shall be submitted, not later than August 1, 1994, to the Office of Information Technology as a feasibility study report, and shall also be reported to the Governor and the Legislature.

CHAPTER 1176

An act to amend Sections 12841, 12841.1, 12847, and 12999.4 of, to add Section 12971.5 to, and to add Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 12115) to Chapter 7 of Division 6, and Article 4.6 (commencing with Section 12848) to Chapter 2 of Division 7 of, the Food and Agricultural Code, relating to economic poisons.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 12115) is added to Chapter 7 of Division 6 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

Article 1.5. Assessments

12115. (a) Each licensed pesticide dealer shall pay to the director an assessment of 9 mills ($0.009) per dollar of the dealer's acquisition price or the registrant's sales price, whichever is higher, for all sales by the dealer into or within this state of economic poisons registered by the director and labeled for agricultural use where the dealer is the person who first sold the economic poison into or within this state.

(b) Until June 30, 1997, each pesticide dealer shall pay an additional assessment of 12 mills ($0.012) per dollar of sales for all sales by the dealer of its registered and labeled economic poisons for use in this state.

12115.1. In addition to any assessment required to be paid pursuant to Section 12115, each dealer shall pay to the director an assessment of one mill ($0.001) per dollar of the dealer's acquisition price or the registrant's sales price, whichever is higher, for all sales by the dealer into or within this state of economic poisons registered by the director and labeled for agricultural use where the dealer is the person who first sold the economic poison into or within this state. Revenue received under this section shall be distributed as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 12841.1.

12115.2. The payments required by Sections 12115 and 12115.1 shall include assessments from branch locations of licensed pesticide dealers, identified by the particular branch location and principal place of business, and shall be made quarterly one calendar month after March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31 of each year. For any delinquency in making a payment or any deficiency in payment, the director may add a penalty of 10 percent of the amount that is due to defray the cost of collection of the delinquent or deficient payment.

12115.3. (a) Each licensed pesticide dealer shall maintain at its principal place of business the records of its purchases, sales, and distributions of economic poisons into or within this state, including those of its branch locations, for four years. Each dealer shall also maintain the pesticide broker license number of any pesticide broker from whom the dealer purchased economic poisons registered by the director and labeled for agricultural use. The records shall be available for audit by the director.

(b) Each licensed pesticide dealer shall report quarterly to the director the dealer's acquisition price, the registrant's sale price, the total dollars of sales, and total pounds or gallons sold into or within this state of each economic poison registered by the director and labeled for agricultural use, for all sales subject to Sections 12115 and 12115.1. The quarterly report shall be in the form prescribed by the director and shall include information from the dealer's licensed branch locations, if any, and any other information specified on the form or required by the director. The report shall include a certification, under penalty of perjury, that the information contained in the report is true and correct. The report shall accompany payment of assessments required by Sections 12115 and 12115.1.

12115.4. Notwithstanding Section 11513 or any other provision of law, all moneys derived from this article shall be paid to the Pesticide Regulation Fund and expended only for purposes specified in Sections 12784 and 12841.1.

12115.5. Any licensed pesticide dealer who purchases economic poison products that are registered by the director pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 12751) of Division 7 and labeled for agricultural use from a person other than a registrant or a licensed pesticide dealer, shall report in writing the name, address, telephone number, and pesticide broker license number issued by the director, if any, of those persons to the director annually, by December 1 each year.

12115.6. It is unlawful for a licensed pesticide dealer to purchase for sale in this state a pesticide that is labeled for agricultural use except from a registrant, a pesticide dealer licensed pursuant to Section 12107, or a pesticide broker licensed pursuant to Section 12848.2.

SEC. 2. Section 12841 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

12841. (a) (1) Except as provided in subdivision (d), each registrant shall pay to the director an assessment not to exceed nine mills ($0.009) per dollar of sales for all sales by the registrant of its registered and labeled economic poisons for use in this state. There is a rebuttable presumption that economic poison products that are sold or distributed into or within this state by any person are sold or distributed for use in this state.

(2) From July 1, 1992, to June 30, 1997, inclusive, each registrant shall pay an additional assessment of twelve mills ($0.012) per dollar of sales for all sales by the registrant of its registered and labeled economic poisons for use in this state.

(3) A registrant is not required to pay an assessment on his or her products registered and labeled only for use in further manufacturing or formulating of economic poisons. The director may reduce the assessment if he or she determines that a lesser assessment rate, together with other available funds, will provide adequate revenue to administer and enforce Division 6 (commencing with Section 11401), this chapter, Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 14001), and Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 14101).

(b) Upon application of any registrant, the director shall determine whether a fertilizer or paper product is used as a carrier for economic poison, and is sold in combination, and whether the mill assessment under this section shall be on the economic poison value only, when the product is designed, developed, manufactured, and sold primarily for other than an economic poison use. If the director finds that the combination product has such a major component and is designed, developed, manufactured, and sold primarily for other than an economic poison use, the assessment provided by this section shall be paid on the equivalent percentage of the sales price of the active ingredients of the economic poison product. The director shall establish this percentage of the sales price. The percentage shall be the ratio of that portion of the sales price attributable to the economic poison portion to the total sales price of the combination product.

(c) For purposes of this section, "active ingredient" means any active ingredient which is required to be stated on the label on any registered economic poison under Section 12883.

(d) Assessments provided for in this article for sales of registered poisons that are labeled for agricultural use and sold for use in this state shall be paid by the registrant except in those cases where the registrant did not first sell the economic poison into or within this state or have actual knowledge, at the time of its sale, that the economic poison would be sold for use in this state. In those cases, the assessment shall be paid by the licensed pesticide broker or licensed pesticide dealer who first sold the economic poison into or within this state, as set forth in Article 1.5 (commencing with Section 12115) of Chapter 7 of Division 6 and Article 4.6 (commencing with Section 12848).

(e) It has been and continues to be the intent of the Legislature that this division requires the department to register all economic poisons prior to their sale for use in this state and, except as otherwise provided by law, requires the department to regulate and control the use of economic poison in accordance with this division. The department shall continue to collect the assessment as provided in this section at the same rate on all registered agricultural and registered nonagricultural economic poisons.

SEC. 3. Section 12841.1 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

12841.1. (a) In addition to the assessment paid pursuant to Section 12841, from July 1, 1992, to June 30, 1997, inclusive, each registrant shall pay to the director an assessment of one mill ($0.001) per dollar of sales for all sales by the registrant of its registered and labeled economic poisons for use in this state. A registrant not required to pay an assessment pursuant to 12841 is not required to pay the assessment imposed by this section.

(b) Sixty-seven and one-half percent of the revenue received pursuant to this section shall be deposited monthly in a separate account in the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund. These revenues shall be expended only by the Department of Food and Agriculture, upon appropriation, to provide consultation to the department pursuant to Section 11454.2. No funds may be expended prior to the execution of a memorandum of understanding pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 11454.2. The consultation activities to be undertaken by the Department of Food and Agriculture are limited solely to those specifically authorized in the memorandum of understanding executed pursuant to Section 11454.2. In no case shall these funds be expended for scientific risk assessment activities.

(c) Thirty-two and one-half percent of the revenue received pursuant to this section, upon appropriation, shall be paid to the counties in a manner prescribed by the director as partial reimbursement for costs incurred by the counties in the administration of Section 12979.

SEC. 4. Section 12847 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

12847. Sales invoices for economic poisons labeled for agricultural use and first sold into or within this state by the registrant, a pesticide broker, or a pesticide dealer shall show that the assessment specified in Sections 12115, 12115.1, 12841, 12841.1, 12848.6, and 12848.7 will be paid by the registrant, broker, or dealer, respectively. All other sales invoices for economic poisons labeled for agricultural use and sold into or within this state by the registrant, a pesticide broker, or a pesticide dealer shall show that the assessment will be paid, and may show an amount or rate that represents the assessment. However, only the person who actually will pay the assessment may show the amount or rate of the assessment as a line item on the sales invoice.

SEC. 5. Article 4.6 (commencing with Section 12848) is added to Chapter 2 of Division 7 of the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

Article 4.6. Pesticide Brokers

12848. It is unlawful for any person, other than the registrant or pesticide dealer licensed pursuant to Section 12107 to sell or distribute into or within this state any economic poison products that have been registered by the director and that are labeled for agricultural use, unless the person is licensed by the director as a pesticide broker. This article does not apply to persons who operate as sellers or distributors of economic poisons that are labeled only for nonagricultural uses.

12848.1. (a) Application for a pesticide broker license, or renewal of a license, shall be in the form prescribed by the director. Each application for a license, or license renewal, shall state the name and address of the applicant, and any other information specified on the application or required by the director, and be accompanied by a fee of one hundred dollars ($100).

(b) An additional license fee, or license renewal fee, of fifty dollars ($50) shall be paid for each branch location of the applicant that sells or distributes into or within the state any economic poison products that are labeled for agricultural use.

12848.2. The director shall issue to each applicant that satisfies the requirements of this article a pesticide broker license that shall be valid for one year from the date of issuance, unless the license is sooner revoked or suspended.

12848.3. All licenses issued pursuant to this article may be renewed annually upon application to the director.

12848.4. A penalty of twenty-five dollars ($25) shall be added to any license renewal fee that is not paid by the date of expiration of a previously issued license or license renewal.

12848.5. Each licensed pesticide broker that changes the address of its place of business, or that of a branch location, shall immediately give the director written notification of the change.

12848.6. (a) Each licensed pesticide broker shall pay to the director an assessment of 9 mills ($0.009) per dollar of sales for all sales by the broker into or within this state of economic poisons registered by the director and labeled for agricultural use where the broker is the person who first sold the economic poison into or within this state.

(b) Until June 30, 1997, each pesticide broker shall pay an additional assessment of 12 mills ($0.012) per dollar of sales for all sales by the broker of its registered and labeled economic poisons for use in this state.

12848.7. In addition to any assessment required to be paid pursuant to Section 12848.6, each broker shall pay to the director an assessment of one mill ($0.001) per dollar of sales for all sales by the broker into or within this state of economic poisons registered by the director and labeled for agricultural use where the broker is the person who first sold the economic poison into or within this state. Revenue received under this section shall be distributed as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 12841.1.

12848.8. The payments required by Sections 12848.6 and 12848.7 shall include assessments from branch locations of licensed pesticide brokers, identified by the particular branch location and principal place of business and shall be made quarterly one calendar month after March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31 of each year. For any delinquency in making a payment or any deficiency in payment, the director may add a penalty of 10 percent of the amount that is due to defray the cost of collection of the delinquent or deficient payment.

12848.9. (a) Each licensed pesticide broker shall maintain at its principal place of business the records of its purchases and sales and distributions of economic poisons into or within this state, including those of its branch locations, for four years. The records shall be available for audit by the director.

(b) Each licensed pesticide broker shall report quarterly to the director the total dollars of sales and total pounds or gallons sold into or within this state of each economic poison registered by the director and labeled for agricultural use, for all sales subject to Sections 12848.6 and 12848.7. The quarterly report shall be in the form prescribed by the director and shall include information from the broker's licensed branch locations, if any, and any other information specified on the form or required by the director. The report shall include a certification, under penalty of perjury, that the information contained in the report is true and correct. The report shall accompany payment of assessments required by Sections 12848.6 and 12848.7.

12848.10. It is unlawful for any person required to be licensed as a pesticide broker pursuant to this article to make any false or fraudulent statements or misrepresent or fail to disclose any material fact in making application for a license or renewal of a license or in any reports submitted to the director, or to make any false or misleading statements concerning any products specified in Section 12847 that the person sells or distributes.

12848.11. The director, after a hearing, may refuse, revoke, or suspend a pesticide broker license for any violation of this division or any regulations adopted pursuant to this division.

SEC. 6. Section 12971.5 is added to the Food and Agricultural Code, to read:

12971.5. No person, by himself, herself, or through another, shall purchase for use in this state a pesticide that is labeled for agricultural use except from a person licensed as a pesticide dealer pursuant to Section 12107. Persons using those products shall retain receipts of the purchase of the products for four years and make the receipts available for inspection upon request of the director or the commissioner.

SEC. 7. Section 12999.4 of the Food and Agricultural Code is amended to read:

12999.4. (a) In lieu of civil prosecution by the director, the director may levy a civil penalty against a person violating Sections 12115, 12115.1, 12115.5, 12115.6, 12671, 12847, 12993, Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 12841), or Article 4.6 (commencing with Section 12848) of Chapter 2 of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each violation.

(b) Before a civil penalty is levied, the person charged with the violation shall receive notice of the nature of the violation and shall be given an opportunity to be heard, including the right to review the director's evidence and a right to present evidence on his or her own behalf.

(c) Review of the decision of the director may be sought by the person against whom the penalty was levied within 30 days of the date of the decision pursuant to Section 1094.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(d) After the exhaustion of the review procedure provided in this section, the director or his or her representative, may file a certified copy of a final decision of the director that directs the payment of a civil penalty and, if applicable, any order that denies a petition for a writ of administrative mandamus, with the clerk of the superior court of any county. Judgment shall be entered immediately by the clerk in conformity with the decision or order. No fees shall be charged by the clerk of the superior court for the performance of any official service required in connection with the entry of judgment pursuant to this section.

(e) Any money recovered under this section shall be paid into the Department of Food and Agriculture Fund for use by the department, upon appropriation, in administering this division and Division 6 (commencing with Section 11401).

SEC. 8. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1177

An act to amend Section 7147 of, to amend, repeal, and add Sections 7921, 7921.1, and 7921.5 of, the Fish and Game Code, relating to commercial fishing, and making appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7147 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

7147. (a) The owner or operator of a boat or vessel licensed pursuant to Section 7920 shall not permit any person to fish from that boat or vessel unless that person has, in his or her possession, a valid sportfishing license, sport ocean fishing license, or sport ocean fin fishing license and any required license stamp.

(b) On or before March 1, 1995, the department shall submit to the Legislature a report evaluating the effect of this section and its recommendations on whether the operation of this section should be continued. The report shall include a summary of comments compiled by organizations representing commercial passenger fishing vessel owners if those comments are submitted to the department on or before January 1, 1995.

SEC. 2. Section 7921 of the Fish and Game Code, as added by Section 14 of Chapter 1703 of the Statutes of 1990, is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 7921 of the Fish and Game Code, as amended by Section 9 of Chapter 701 of the Statutes of 1992, is amended to read:

7921. The license shall be valid during the period from April 1 to March 31 of the year following, or, if issued after the beginning of that term, for the remainder thereof, and, for a fee of four hundred dollars ($400), shall be issued to the holder of a certificate of boat registration issued pursuant to Section 7890.

This section shall become operative April 1, 1993, and shall remain in effect only until March 31, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before March 31, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 4. Section 7921 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

7921. (a) The license shall be valid during the period from April 1 to March 31 of the year following, or, if issued after the beginning of that term, for the remainder thereof, and for a fee of two hundred dollars ($200) shall be issued to the holder of a certificate of boat registration issued pursuant to Section 7890.

(b) This section shall become operative on April 1, 1995.

SEC. 5. Section 7921.1 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

7921.1. (a) Notwithstanding Section 7921, the fee for a license for a vessel with a home port in the Klamath Management Zone, as defined by regulations adopted pursuant to the Magnuson Fishery Conservation and Management Act (16 U.S.C. Sec. 1801 et seq.), shall be three hundred dollars ($300).

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until March 31, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted on or before March 31, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 6. Section 7921.1 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

7921.1. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 7921 and 7921.5, the fee for a license for a vessel with a home port in the Klamath Management Zone, as defined by regulations adopted pursuant to the Magnuson Fishery Conservation and Management Act (16 U.S.C. Sec. 1801 et seq.), shall be one hundred dollars ($100).

(b) This section shall become operative April 1, 1995, and shall remain in effect only until March 31, 1996, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted on or before March 31, 1996, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 7. Section 7921.5 of the Fish and Game Code is amended to read:

7921.5. (a) Persons obtaining a license required by Section 7920 shall receive a credit or reduction in the fee equal to the fees paid by that person pursuant to Section 6596, subdivision (b) of Section 8235, and Section 8610.8 and an amount equal to the cost of one stamp that the person has obtained pursuant to Section 7860.

(b) This section shall remain in effect only until March 31, 1995, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted on or before March 31, 1995, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 8. Section 7921.5 is added to the Fish and Game Code, to read:

7921.5. (a) Notwithstanding Section 7921 and except as provided in Section 7921.1, the fee for a license for a vessel, the owner or operator of which has acquired a stamp pursuant to Section 7860, shall be one hundred fifty dollars ($150).

(b) This section shall become operative on April 1, 1995.

CHAPTER 1178

An act to amend Section 15814.11 of, and to add Sections 15814.24 and 15814.25 to, the Government Code, and to add Section 749 to the Public Utilities Code, relating to energy.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) Up to five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000) in revenue bonds is permitted to finance the cost of energy-efficient equipment at certain specified public buildings, including California state universities and colleges, and community colleges.

(b) To date, two issues of Energy Efficiency Revenue Bonds totaling one hundred seventeen million eight hundred ten thousand dollars ($117,810,000) have been authorized by the Public Works Board.

(c) The balance of three hundred eighty-two million one hundred ninety thousand dollars ($382,190,000) may be authorized until January 1, 2000.

(d) Publicly funded schools that include kindergarten through grade 12 are experiencing serious budget constraints.

(e) These schools are large energy users and significant opportunities exist to reduce energy consumption by cost-effective measures, including the replacement of inefficient heating, lighting, and cooling equipment with energy-efficient equipment. Significant opportunities also exist to reduce water consumption by cost-effective measures.

(f) It is in the interest of the people of the State of California to implement all cost-effective energy efficient measures in publicly funded schools that include kindergarten through grade 12.

(g) It is therefore the intent of the Legislature to include publicly funded schools that include kindergarten through grade 12, or any portion of those grades, in the Energy Efficiency Revenue Bond program to enable them to finance appropriate conservation measures, as defined in subdivisions (e) and (g) of Section 15814.11 of the Government Code.

(h) Utilities have in place conservation and efficiency programs that schools may utilize in conjunction with proceeds of Energy Efficiency Revenue Bonds.

SEC. 2. Section 15814.11 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15814.11. For purposes of this part and Part 10.5 (commencing with Section 15750), the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) "Public building" means a public building as defined in Section 15802, and includes the cogeneration and alternative energy equipment, water conservation equipment, and conservation measures which the board is authorized by this chapter to acquire and construct. "Public Building" also means any publicly funded school that includes kindergarten through grade 12, or any portion of those grades, provided that publicly funded schools that include kindergarten through grade 12 shall be authorized to finance only conservation measures and water conservation equipment as defined in subdivisions (e) and (g).

(b) "Energy service contract" means a contract entered into by the board or any other state agency with any person, including, but not limited to, an individual, company, corporation, partnership, state agency, or other entity or group of entities, pursuant to which the person will provide electrical or thermal energy or water or water conservation or energy conservation measures.

(c) "Cogeneration equipment" means equipment for cogeneration, as defined in Section 218.5 of the Public Utilities Code.

(d) "Alternative energy equipment" means equipment for the production or conversion of energy from alternative sources, including, but not limited to, solar, biomass, wind, geothermal, hydroelectricity under 30 megawatts, or any other source of energy or water, the efficient use of which will reduce the use of fossil or nuclear fuels or water from established sources of supply.

(e) "Conservation measures" means equipment, maintenance, meters, load management techniques and equipment, or other measures to reduce energy or water use or make for a more efficient use of energy or water.

(f) "State agency" means any state agency, board, department or commission, including, but not limited to, the entities specified in Section 15814.12, and any school district as defined in Section 80 of the Education Code.

(g) "Water conservation equipment" means any device or modification that reduces water use from established water sources.

SEC. 3. Section 15814.24 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15814.24. (a) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall apportion state aid equal to the amount necessary for each school district to meet its energy service contract obligation determined pursuant to this chapter. It is the intent of the Legislature that these funds be appropriated annually as a part of the state's general apportionment funds for kindergarten through grade 12 schools.

(b) If a school district enters into an energy service contract with the Public Works Board pursuant to this chapter, the district shall, as a part of that energy service contract, authorize the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Controller to withhold from its annual apportionment the amount of funds necessary to satisfy its annual energy service contract obligation to the Public Works Board. The agreement shall include authorization to withhold the additional apportionment amount and the amount determined to be the district's proportional share of the energy service contract obligation as determined pursuant to subdivision (a). The superintendent shall certify the amounts, by district, to the Controller. The Controller shall withhold the amount so reported for each district and shall, acting on behalf of each district, transfer the appropriate amount from Section B of the State School Fund to the Public Works Board for the purpose of payment of the debt service obligation for the bonds sold to finance the projects. Any payment made from an apportionment by the Controller pursuant to this section shall be deemed to be an allocation to a school district for purposes of subdivision (b) of Section 8 of Article XVI of the California Constitution for purposes of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 41200) of Part 24 of the Education Code.

SEC. 4. Section 15814.25 is added to the Government Code, to read:

15814.25. (a) Energy conservation measures eligible for financing by kindergarten through grade 12 schools shall be limited to those measures recommended pursuant to an energy audit provided by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission under its existing authority.

(b) The State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission shall, in consultation with the Department of General Services, publish and transmit to the Legislature no later than December 31, 1994, a report describing the activities related to financing energy conservation measures at kindergarten through grade 12 schools.

SEC. 5. Section 749 is added to Public Utilities Code, to read:

749. Public utilities shall develop programs in cooperation with local school districts in reducing their electricity and gas bills through conservation and improvements in efficiency. Utilities may offer to school districts on a priority basis, and school districts may utilize, any programs or incentives for commercial customers developed by the utility and approved by the commission, including rebates, loan programs and incentives for the installation of efficient lighting, heating, or cooling systems.

SEC. 6. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1179

An act to amend Sections 3202, 3205.1, 3234, and 3752 of, and to repeal Section 3242 of, the Public Resources Code, relating to oil, gas, and geothermal resources.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 3202 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3202. Every person who acquires the ownership or operation of any well, whether by purchase, transfer, assignment, conveyance, exchange, or otherwise, shall, within 30 days after acquiring the well and the land, owned or leased, upon which it is located, notify the supervisor or the district deputy, in writing, of the person's ownership or operation. The acquisition of a well is not final for the purposes of this division until the new operator provides all of the following:

(a) The name and address of the person from whom the well was acquired.

(b) The name and location of the well.

(c) The date of acquisition.

(d) The date when possession was acquired.

(e) A description of the land upon which the well is situated.

(f) A bond or deposit for any well that has not produced oil or gas or has not been used for injection during the five years prior to the date of acquisition. The bond or deposit shall be in an amount as provided in Section 3204 or Section 3205. The conditions of the bond or deposit shall be the same as the conditions stated in Section 3204. An operator that has provided the bond required by this subdivision shall not be required additionally to provide the bond or pay the fee required by Section 3206. However, the bond or fee required by Section 3206 shall not be substituted for the bond required by this subdivision.

SEC. 2. Section 3205.1 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3205.1. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 3204 and 3205, any person who engages in the drilling, redrilling, deepening, or in any operation permanently altering the casing, of one or more wells located on submerged lands under ocean waters within the jurisdiction of this state, shall file with the supervisor a blanket indemnity bond for two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) to cover all his or her operations in drilling, redrilling, deepening, or permanently altering the casing in any of his or her wells located on those submerged lands. The bond shall be executed by the person, as principal, and by an authorized surety company, as surety, and the conditions of the bond shall be the same as the conditions stated in Section 3204, except for the difference in the amount.

(b) In addition to providing the bond required by subdivision (a), any person who operates one or more wells that are located on tide or submerged lands within the jurisdiction of this state shall provide an additional amount of security acceptable to the supervisor, covering the full costs of plugging and abandoning all of the operator's wells. The supervisor shall determine the amount of the security required of each operator, based on his or her determination of the reasonable costs of that plugging and abandonment. The supervisor may not adjust the amount of security required of each operator more frequently than once every three years, to reflect changes in those costs. An operator may self-insure this security obligation if the supervisor, at his or her discretion, determines that the operator has sufficient financial resources to plug and abandon the wells for which the operator is responsible. The security shall remain in effect until all wells are plugged and abandoned in accordance with Section 3208, but the supervisor shall reduce the amount of the security required of an operator to reflect reduced obligations as wells are plugged and abandoned.

(c) If the state lease or other agreement that sets forth obligations or performance requirements under the lease provides security that is equal to, or greater than, the total of the additional security required pursuant to subdivision (b), plus all other liabilities under the lease or other agreement, the supervisor shall not require the additional security.

SEC. 3. Section 3234 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3234. (a) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, all the well records, including production reports, of any owner or operator which are filed pursuant to this chapter are public records for purposes of the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code).

(2) Those records are public records when filed with the division unless the owner or operator requests, in writing, that the division maintain the well records of onshore exploratory wells or offshore exploratory wells as confidential information. The records of other wells may be maintained as confidential information if, based upon information in a written request of the owner or operator, the supervisor determines there are extenuating circumstances. For onshore wells, the confidential period shall not exceed two years from the cessation of drilling operations as defined in subdivision (e). For offshore wells, the confidential period shall not exceed five years from the cessation of drilling operations as specified in subdivision (e).

(3) Well records maintained as confidential information by the division shall be open to inspection by those persons who are authorized by the owner or operator in writing. Confidential status shall not apply to state officers charged with regulating well operations, the director, or as provided in subdivision (c).

(4) On receipt by the supervisor of a written request documenting extenuating circumstances relating to a particular well, including a well on an expired or terminated lease, the supervisor may extend the period of confidentiality for six months. For onshore wells, the total period of confidentiality, including all extensions, shall not exceed four years from the cessation of drilling operations as specified in subdivision (e), and for offshore wells the total period of confidentiality, including all extensions, shall not exceed seven years from the cessation of drilling operations as specified in subdivision (e), unless the director approves a longer period after a 30-day public notice and comment period. The director shall initiate and conduct a public hearing on receipt of a written complaint.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) regarding the period of confidentiality, the well records for onshore and offshore wells shall become public records when the supervisor is notified that the lease has expired or terminated.

(c) Production reports filed pursuant to Section 3227 shall be open to inspection by the State Board of Equalization or its duly appointed representatives when making a survey pursuant to Section 1815 of the Revenue and Taxation Code or when valuing state-assessed property pursuant to Section 755 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and by the assessor of the county in which a well referred to in Section 3227 is located.

(d) For the purposes of this section, "well records" does not include either experimental logs and tests or interpretive data not generally available to all operators, as defined by the supervisor by regulation.

(e) The cessation of drilling operations occurs on the date of removal of drilling machinery from the well site.

SEC. 4. Section 3242 of the Public Resources Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 3752 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

3752. (a) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, all the well records, including production records, of any owner or operator which are filed pursuant to this chapter are public records for purposes of the California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code).

(2) Those records are public records when filed with the division, unless the owner or operator requests, in writing, that the division maintain the well records as confidential information. The confidential period shall not exceed five years from the date of production or injection for other than testing purposes or abandonment, whichever occurs first. Well records which are maintained as confidential information by the division shall be open to inspection by those persons who the owner or operator authorizes in writing. For purposes of this section, "date of production for other than testing purposes" means the date on which, in the judgment of the supervisor, sustainable production commenced into a power generating plant, greenhouse, space heating unit, chemical or mineral extraction plant, or other facility dependent wholly or in part upon geothermal resources for its operation. Confidential status shall not apply to state officers charged with regulating well operations, the director, or as provided in subdivision (b).

(3) On receipt by the supervisor of a written request documenting extenuating circumstances relating to a particular well, the supervisor may extend the period of confidentiality for six months. The total period of confidentiality, including all extensions, shall not exceed seven years from the date of production or injection for other than testing purposes or abandonment, unless the director approves a longer period after a 30-day public notice and comment period. The director shall initiate and conduct a public hearing on receipt of a written complaint.

(b) Production reports filed pursuant to Section 3745 shall be open to inspection by the State Board of Equalization or its duly appointed representative when making a survey pursuant to Section 1815 of the Revenue and Taxation Code or when valuing state-assessed property pursuant to Section 755 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and by the assessor of the county in which a well referred to in Section 3745 is located.

(c) For the purposes of this section, "well records" does not include either experimental logs and tests or interpretive data not generally available to all operators, as defined by the supervisor by regulation.

CHAPTER 1180

An act to add Sections 42301.3 and 42322.5 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to air pollution.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 42301.3 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

42301.3. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature that districts expedite permits for the installation of air pollution control equipment.

(b) This section applies only to the permitting of air pollution control projects required by law.

(c) Each district shall prepare, with input from the regulated community, a list of permitting criteria that identifies streamlined permit application requirements for each type of mandated air pollution control project. The list shall be consistent with the requirements of this section but may also include general facility information, a general description of the equipment affected by the air pollution control project, and specific information regarding the pollution control equipment or operational changes that will reduce emissions.

(d) (1) Within 30 days of the date that the applicant submits the information specified in paragraph (2), the district shall commence evaluation and deem the application complete, subject to the final as-built design submittal being consistent with the preliminary engineering and design information specified in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2), for the purpose of issuing a permit to construct. Notwithstanding the limitations of Sections 65944, 65950, and 65952 of the Government Code, if final design information results in a material change in the permit evaluation that was based on the preliminary submittal, the application shall undergo a new evaluation based on the final design and the district shall promptly notify the applicant of any further information that is necessary to complete the evaluation.

(2) The applicant shall provide the following information:

(A) The information specified in the list prepared pursuant to subdivision (c).

(B) Either of the following:

(i) Preliminary engineering and design information or other technical equipment specification data reasonably available during the initial design phase.

(ii) The manufacturer's performance warranty and the associated preliminary engineering data on which the bidding documents for the contract with the manufacturer were based.

(C) Any reasonably required information regarding an air contaminant for which emissions will increase as a result of installation of the air pollution control project.

(e) Prior to the final approval of the applicant's permit to operate, the applicant shall provide the district with final engineering and design information and other data reasonably necessary to ensure compliance with applicable emission limitations. The information may be based on source test results and other operating data available after startup and shakedown of the control equipment. Once the applicant has provided the information specified in this subdivision, and the final design is consistent with the preliminary design data specified in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) for purposes of permit evaluation, the district shall deem the application complete for the purpose of issuing a permit to operate.

(f) For projects subject to this section for which the use of continuous emission monitoring systems is required, the air quality permit conditions that relate to emissions monitored by the continuous emission monitoring systems shall be sufficient for measurements and reporting as required to meet the specified emission limit as required by the rule or regulation.

(g) An applicant may petition the district hearing board for a variance from the underlying requirement if there is a delay in the approval of the permit to construct or permit to operate for projects under this section. If the hearing board finds that the delay is not due to the lack of due diligence on the part of the applicant in the permitting process, and the delay results in the inability of the applicant to legally comply with the rule or compliance schedule that requires the installation and operation of the pollution control equipment, the hearing board shall find that all of the findings required pursuant to Section 42352 are met and grant the variance. The variance shall extend, at a minimum, for the period of time that the hearing board finds that the delay was not due to the lack of diligence on the part of the applicant.

(h) If a supplemental or other environmental impact report or other environmental assessment is required for the project pursuant to the California Environmental Quality Act (Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code) and the district is the lead agency, the district shall prepare and act upon the report or assessment and the permit to construct concurrently in order to streamline the approval process.

(i) For purposes of this section, "material change" means a change that would result in a material impact on the level of emission calculated.

SEC. 2. Section 42322.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

42322.5. Districts with a population of more than 500,000 persons shall additionally implement the following permit streamlining measures:

(a) Upon a permit applicant's request, the district shall allow the permit applicant to meet with district staff prior to the submittal of a permit to construct in order to identify issues and ways to expedite the permitting process.

(b) The district shall allow the permit applicant to propose conditions that are consistent with the applicable rules or regulations for the district's consideration.

(c) Before a district implements a rule or regulation for categories of emission sources for which significant capital expenditures will be required, the district shall develop, with input from the regulated community, a permitting protocol for any permits that will be required for common types of operating equipment, processes, or related air pollution control equipment as a result of the rule or regulation. Each district shall compile those protocols and make them available to businesses that are regulated by the rule or regulation.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1181

An act to create the Willow Creek Valley Groundwater Management District, relating to water.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Willow Creek Valley Groundwater Basin Act. It is intended to supplement the Water Code and reads as follows:

WILLOW CREEK VALLEY GROUNDWATER BASIN ACT

Article 1. Creation

101. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Willow Creek Valley Groundwater Basin Act.

102. A groundwater management district is hereby created in Lassen County to be known as the Willow Creek Valley Groundwater Management District. The district shall be governed by a board of directors as specified in Section 401, shall have the boundaries specified in Section 201, and shall exercise the powers granted by this act for purposes of groundwater management within the boundaries of the district, together with such other powers as are reasonably implied and necessary and proper to carry out the purposes of the district. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the preservation of the groundwater resources within the Willow Creek Valley Groundwater Basin for agricultural, municipal, and industrial uses is in the public interest and that the creation of the district pursuant to this act is for the common benefit of water users within the district and for the protection of agricultural and economic productivity.

Article 2. Boundaries

201. For the purposes of this act, the boundaries of the district are as follows:

(a) Of Township 31 North, Range 11 East-Sections 12 SE ¼ and 13.

(b) Of Township 31 North, Range 12 East-Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, and 26.

(c) Of Township 31 North, Range 13 East-Sections 7, 18, 19, and 30.

Article 3. Definitions

301. Unless otherwise indicated by their context, the terms defined in this article govern the construction of this act.

302. "Available supply" means the quantity of groundwater that can be withdrawn annually from the groundwater basin without resulting in, or aggravating, conditions of overdraft, subsidence, or groundwater quality degradation. Available supply of the groundwater basin includes the average annual natural water supply, or other water which has been spread to the basin or otherwise added to the basin, and return flows to the basin attributable to these sources reaching the groundwater basin in the course of use.

303. "Board of directors" or "board" means the board of directors of the district.

304. "County" means the County of Lassen.

305. "Development project" means a project undertaken for the purpose of development of property involving the issuance to a person of a lease, permit, license, certificate, or other entitlement for use granted by one or more public agencies, including, but not limited to, any of the following:

(a) A tentative map or tentative parcel map required by local ordinance or the Subdivision Map Act (Division 2 (commencing with Section 66410) of Title 7 of the Government Code).

(b) A special or conditional use permit.

(c) A zone amendment.

306. "District" means the Willow Creek Valley Groundwater Management District.

307. "Export" means groundwater extracted for use outside the boundaries of the district.

308. "Extraction" means the act of obtaining groundwater by pumping or other controlled means.

309. "Extraction facility" means any device or method for the extraction of groundwater within the groundwater basin.

310. "Groundwater" means water beneath the surface of the earth within the zone below the water tables in which the soil is completely saturated with water. "Groundwater" does not include any water which on January 1, 1994, is subject to appropriation under Part 2 (commencing with Section 1200) of Division 2 of the Water Code.

311. "Groundwater basin" means the Willow Creek Valley Groundwater Basin as described in Section 201.

312. "Metering device" means a water flow measuring device as approved by the board of directors.

313. "Operator" means the person who operates an extraction facility. "Operator" also means the person whom the county assessor assesses for the extraction facility or, if not separately assessed, the person who owns the land upon which an extraction facility is located.

314. "Overdraft" means the condition of the groundwater basin where the average annual amount of water extracted exceeds the average annual supply of water to the basin, plus any temporary surplus.

315. "Person" includes any state or local governmental agency, private corporation, firm, partnership, individual, group of individuals, nonprofit association, or, to the extent authorized by law, any federal agency.

316. "Program" means a groundwater management program prepared by the district pursuant to this act.

317. "Replenishment" means spreading water over a permeable area for the purpose of allowing it to percolate to the groundwater basin, or otherwise adding water to the groundwater basin which without such effort would not augment the groundwater supply.

318. "Supplemental water" means surface water or groundwater imported from outside the watershed or watersheds of the groundwater basin and flood waters that are conserved and saved within the watershed or watersheds which would otherwise have been lost or would not have reached the groundwater basin.

319. "Temporary surplus" means the amount of water that can be extracted from the groundwater basin, without adversely affecting the available supply of the groundwater basin, to provide storage space for natural recharge that would be lost during wet years if it could not be stored in the groundwater basin.

320. "Water year" means the period from October 1 of one calendar year to September 30 of the following calendar year.

321. "Well interference" means a substantial water level decline in a localized area caused by pumping from extraction facilities.

322. "Zone of benefit" means an area, including, but not limited to, subbasins within the district which will benefit from planning, studies, or any management program undertaken by the district in a manner different from other areas or subbasins within the district.

Article 4. General Provisions

401. The district shall be governed by a board of directors consisting of five directors who are eligible voters in the district. Five directors shall be elected, at large, by eligible voters in accordance with Section 402.

402. (a) Only eligible voters may vote at district elections. An eligible voter is an owner of land with an extraction facility or facilities which is capable of extracting 100 gallons per minute, exclusive of domestic use. At the initial district election, voting rights shall be determined on the basis of initial groundwater extraction statements filed with the district for a specified period.

(b) (1) Each eligible voter has one vote for each acre of land owned and irrigated by one or more extraction facilities described in subdivision (a), as determined by the district.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), any eligible voter who has more than 50 percent of the total eligible votes for any election shall have the number of his or her votes reduced to 50 percent of the total eligible votes for that election.

403. The board of supervisors of the county shall appoint the initial members of the board of directors. The appointed members of the board of directors shall so serve until extraction facilities within the district are registered, and initial groundwater extraction statements are filed with the district, at which time the board of supervisors shall call an election of directors. At the initial district election, the five persons receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected.

404. For land in multiple ownership, the owners shall designate in writing to the district, prior to the deadline set by the district, the eligible voter for voting purposes. If applicable, the owners shall designate in writing, prior to the deadline set by the district, the legal representative who shall be entitled to vote on behalf of the owners.

405. An eligible voter may vote at any district election either in person or by a person duly appointed as his or her proxy. The proxy may be executed by the legal representative or by the single owner designated pursuant to Section 404.

406. (a) No appointment of a proxy shall be valid, accepted, or vote allowed thereon at any district election unless it is in writing, executed by the eligible voter who is entitled to cast the votes for which the proxy is given, notarized, and specifies the election at which it is to be used. An appointment of a proxy may be used only at the specified election.

(b) An appointment of a proxy is revocable at the pleasure of the eligible voter who is entitled to cast the votes for which the proxy is given at any time before the person appointed as proxy has cast a ballot representing the votes for which the appointment was given.

407. Except as otherwise provided in this act, the county clerk shall conduct all elections. The board may, by resolution, determine that the district shall conduct an election and designate an officer who shall perform the duties of the county clerk in conducting the election.

408. The board may, by resolution, direct that any district election be conducted by all-mailed ballot under the procedure for mailed ballot elections set forth in the Elections Code. For a mailed ballot, eligible voters shall cast votes directly and not by proxy.

409. (a) Except for the initial elected directors, the elected directors shall serve for terms of four years. The terms shall be concurrent with the terms of district officials elected under the Uniform District Election Law (Part 3 (commencing with Section 23500) of Division 14 of the Elections Code).

(b) The five directors initially elected shall determine, by lot, the expiration dates for their initial terms. The term of two directors shall expire concurrently with the terms of officials subject to election at the next general election to be held under the Uniform District Election Law. The terms of the other three directors shall expire concurrently with the terms of officials to be elected at the subsequent general election to be held under the Uniform District

Election Law.

410. Prior to taking office, each elected director shall take the official oath and execute any bond that may be set by the board.

411. All vacancies occurring in the office of an elected director shall be filled pursuant to Section 1780 of the Government Code.

412. Each director may receive compensation in an amount set by the board and recorded in its official minutes, not to exceed fifty dollars ($50) per day for each day's attendance at meetings of the board or for each day's service rendered as a director by request of the board, not to exceed six days in any calendar month, together with actual, necessary, and reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of duties required or authorized by the board.

413. At its first meeting and at its regular meeting in January, and each year thereafter, the board shall elect a chairperson and vice chairperson from its members.

414. (a) No change in the date of the regular meeting of the board of directors shall be effective until notice thereof has been published in a newspaper of general circulation within the district at least seven days prior to the effective date of the change.

(b) Special meetings of the board may be called and conducted in the manner provided for in the Ralph M. Brown Act (Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 54950) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code).

415. A majority of the board constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business.

416. The vote of a majority of the directors present at any meeting attended by a quorum is necessary to take action, unless otherwise specified in this act.

417. Any extraction facility which is not capable of extracting 100 gallons per minute, exclusive of domestic use, is exempt from the requirements of this act, including charges levied and imposed pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 801) and Article 9 (commencing with Section 901).

418. This act may not be construed to deny the county or any other district any rights or powers they already have or which they may be granted.

419. The district may establish penalties for violations of district ordinances that are in addition to the remedies specified in this act.

420. (a) Any ordinance adopted pursuant to this act shall become effective 30 days after adoption. Within 10 days after its adoption, the ordinance shall be published pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code. From and after the effective date of adoption, any person who does not comply with the ordinance may be liable civilly for a sum not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each day an ordinance is not complied with, in addition to any penalties established pursuant to Section 419.

(b) Without following the procedures otherwise required prior to the adoption of an ordinance pursuant to subdivision (a), the board of directors, to protect the public safety, health, and welfare, may adopt as an urgency measure an interim ordinance. That urgency measure shall require a four-fifths vote of the board for adoption. The interim ordinance is without force and effect 45 days from its adoption. After notice pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code and a public hearing, the board may extend the interim ordinance for 10 months and 15 days by a four-fifths vote of the board.

421. Within 60 days after publication of any ordinance or resolution establishing, or in furtherance of, a groundwater management program, any interested party may file with the superior court a petition for writ of mandate for the review thereof. Failure to file an action does not preclude a party from challenging the validity of the ordinance or resolution in any judicial proceedings brought to enforce the ordinance or resolution or for any other civil remedies, including the imposition of civil penalties. The right to seek judicial review shall not be affected by the failure to seek reconsideration from the board of directors.

422. The board of directors may reconsider all or part of a decision on petition of any person affected by the decision. Any such petition shall be filed with the district within 15 days after adoption of the decision by the board of directors. The board of directors shall decide whether to reconsider its decision within 60 days after the petition is filed.

424. The board may employ and appoint any agents, officers, employees, attorneys, accountants, and consultants as may be required, prescribe their duties, fix their compensation, and prescribe the terms and conditions of their employment.

425. The district may enter into memorandums of agreement or joint powers agreements for the purpose of carrying out this act, including agreements with the County of Lassen or other local or state agencies.

Article 5. Studies and Investigations

501. The district may carry on technical and other necessary investigations of all kinds and collect data necessary to carry out this act. The district shall have the right of access to all properties within the district to the extent permitted by the United States Constitution and the California Constitution.

502. The district may cooperate and contract with federal, state, and local governmental agencies in the conduct and performance of all investigations, studies, and data collection.

503. The district may not implement groundwater management programs until the board of directors has received the recommendations of its engineers, consultants, and staff based on these investigations and studies.

504. The district shall prepare annually a report on groundwater supplies and conditions in the district. If the district makes a determination that groundwater management activities are necessary, the annual report shall include groundwater management objectives and a plan for the implementation of those objectives.

Article 6. Registration of Groundwater Extraction Facilities

601. The district may require extraction facilities to be registered with the district and measured with a water flow measuring device installed and calibrated by the district or, at its option, by the extraction facility operator. The district may also require any new extraction facility which is constructed, existing extraction facility which is deepened, or abandoned extraction facility which is reactivated to be registered with the district within 60 days of completion of construction, deepening, or reactivation, and measured with a water flow measuring device installed and calibrated by the district or, at its option, by the extraction facility operator.

602. In addition to other information which the district may require, the district may require for each registered extraction facility information as to the operator of each extraction facility, the owner of the land upon which each extraction facility is located, and a general description of the equipment associated with each extraction facility and the location of each water extraction facility.

603. No person may extract groundwater from any extraction facility required to be registered unless the extraction facility has been registered with the district and, if required, has a water flow measuring device affixed. Any person who does not comply with this section shall be liable civilly for a sum not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each day this section is not complied with, in addition to any penalties established pursuant to Section 419.

604. The district may, after notice and a hearing, and based upon the findings and determinations from the hearing, require the operator of each extraction facility, until the extraction facility has been permanently abandoned, to file with the district, by a date established by the board of directors, a statement relative to groundwater extraction, including, but not limited to, the gallons per minute which may be extracted from each extraction facility, the static groundwater level for each extraction facility, a general description or number locating each extraction facility, use and acreage served by the extraction facility, and the method of measuring or computing groundwater extraction. The statement shall be verified by a written declaration that it is made under penalty of perjury. The operator of an extraction facility which has been permanently abandoned shall give written notice of the abandonment to the district.

605. When a water flow measuring device is used at an extraction facility, the record of extraction, as disclosed by the water flow measuring device, shall be presumed to be accurate and shall be used as the basis for computing the water extraction of the extraction facility in completing the groundwater extraction statement. The district may require proof of the accuracy of the water flow measuring device from the operator and may, absent adequate proof of accuracy, order the operator to have the water flow measuring device calibrated in a manner acceptable to the district. If the district has probable cause to believe that the extraction of groundwater from any extraction facility is in excess of the amount reported in groundwater extraction statements, or if no statements are filed covering an extraction facility, the district may investigate the extraction of water from each such extraction facility.

606. The board of directors may establish reasonable methods to be used in computing the amount of water extracted by extraction facilities.

607. Any person who does not file a groundwater extraction statement, if required to do so, or any person who injures, alters, removes, resets, adjusts, manipulates, obstructs, or in any manner interferes or tampers with, or procures, causes, or directs any person to injure, alter, remove, reset, adjust, manipulate, obstruct, or in any manner interfere or tamper with, any water flow measuring device affixed to any extraction facility as required by this act so as to cause the water flow measuring device to improperly or inaccurately measure and record water extraction, or any person who, with intent to evade any provision or requirement of this act, files with the district any false or fraudulent groundwater extraction statement, shall be liable civilly in a sum of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

Article 7. Powers of the District

701. If, upon receipt of the recommendations of its engineers, consultants, and staff, the board of directors determines that groundwater management activities may be necessary, the board of directors shall, after compliance with the California Environmental Quality Act (Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code), give notice of, and hold, a hearing to receive evidence on the need for a program and on the form and scope of the management activities required. The requirement in this section for compliance with the California Environmental Quality Act does not affect any requirement under existing law to comply with that act in connection with other discretionary actions undertaken by the board.

702. If, upon conclusion of the hearing, and consideration of any relevant investigation, study, or data collection performed pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 501) or Article 6 (commencing with Section 601), the board of directors determines that management in the form proposed is necessary for the sound management of the groundwater within the groundwater basin, the district may, by ordinance, exercise any of the following powers:

(a) The district may store water in, and recapture water from, surface reservoirs or groundwater basins within the district.

(b) The district may conserve and reclaim water within or outside the district and require conservation practices and measures within the district.

(c) The district may construct conveyance, storage, or other water facilities to carry out this act.

(d) The district, in order to improve and protect the quality of groundwater supplies or to respond to, and rectify, conditions of subsidence, may treat, inject, extract, or otherwise regulate water, including, but not limited to, the regulation of extractions and drainage problems. These powers include the right to regulate, limit, or suspend extractions from extraction facilities, the construction of new extraction facilities, the enlarging of existing facilities, or the reactivation of abandoned extraction facilities.

(e) The district may regulate groundwater replenishment programs and recapture supplemental groundwater. The district may determine the amount of groundwater basin storage space available and to allocate groundwater basin storage space within the groundwater basin.

(f) The district may commence and prosecute actions to enjoin unreasonable uses or methods of use of groundwater within the district or outside the district to the extent those uses or methods of use affect the groundwater supply within the district.

703. The district may impose spacing requirements on new extraction facility construction to minimize well interference.

704. The district may, at the request of a district water user, impose reasonable operating regulations on extraction facilities to minimize well interference. The regulations may, if necessary and feasible, require the operation of extraction facilities on a rotation basis. Rotation is not feasible if it would require an overlying owner to construct a new well to irrigate the acreage being irrigated by a single existing well.

705. (a) The district may, at the request of a water user, and after notice to all affected persons, convene a hearing to ascertain if the legal rights of the complaining water user have been infringed through well interference by the operation of other extraction facilities within the district.

(b) If, on the basis of the hearing record, the board of directors determines that the legal rights of the complaining water user have been infringed, the board of directors may make necessary orders to provide the complaining water user with an adequate remedy to the well interference.

(c) The district may petition the appropriate superior court for enforcement of its order.

706. (a) (1) No groundwater shall be exported from the district unless the exporter has applied for and obtained a permit from the district which establishes the quantity of water which may be exported and the conditions on the export. Notwithstanding any conditions specified in the permit, exporters are subject to Section 707.

(2) In implementing this section, the district shall coordinate with the county to ensure that the applicant obtains any additional permits required by other provisions of law. This section does not grant the county any additional permitting authority or require any action by the county.

(b) The district shall not issue any permit to export water from the district unless the applicant has established that there is an available supply as defined in this act, in excess of the amount currently required for reasonable and beneficial uses within the district, and the board of directors determines that the export, if permitted, would not adversely affect the rights of groundwater users within the district. The district shall issue permits for export for such time periods and under such terms and conditions as it deems appropriate. All permits shall state that they are subject to the right of the district to reduce or suspend exports as provided for in this act.

707. The district shall, after published notice and a hearing which discloses evidence of overdraft, or threat of overdraft, reduce or suspend extractions by exporters regardless of whether a permit to export has been granted pursuant to this act.

708. If the evidence produced at the hearing specified in Section 707, or in any subsequent hearing, tends to show that reduction or suspension of extraction by exporters will be insufficient to eliminate existing or threatened conditions of overdraft, the district may limit or suspend extractions by district users in accordance with Section 709.

709. If the district limits or suspends extractions by district users in order to eliminate existing or threatened conditions of overdraft, rights to the use of the available supply of groundwater shall be allocated primarily on the basis of the number of irrigable acres overlying the basin or subbasin that a user owns or leases in proportion to the total number of irrigable acres overlying the basin or subbasin. The district may adjust any limitation or suspension of extraction on the basis of any of the following factors:

(a) The number of acres actually irrigated compared to the number of acres owned or leased.

(b) Crop type.

(c) Wasteful or inefficient use.

(d) Reasonable need.

(e) Water conservation activities.

(f) Prior industrial use and the need for water supply for continued operation.

(g) Any other factors that the district reasonably feels it should consider in order to reach an equitable distribution within the entire district.

710. If the district has imposed reductions on district users pursuant to Section 708, no person operating extraction facilities may extract groundwater from a new, enlarged, or reactivated extraction facility for use within the district until the operator has applied for and received a permit from the district.

711. (a) The district shall grant a permit referred to in Section 710 upon determining the operator's share of the available supply from the groundwater basin or subbasin in the manner described in Section 709 and may limit the right to extract groundwater to that share. To the extent necessary, the district shall adjust the authorized extractions by other district users.

(b) The district may postpone the effective date of any increase authorized in subdivision (a) to the start of the next water year. The district may also establish a date by which any application is required to be submitted in order to be effective at the start of the next water year.

712. If any court is petitioned to adjudicate the groundwater basin or any part thereof, whether the petition is filed by the district or by any person, the court may base any judgment, ruling, or findings of fact primarily on the number of overlying irrigable acres that the parties own in proportion to the total number of overlying irrigable acres in the basin or subbasin. In order to reach an equitable distribution, the court may adjust any amounts so arrived at on the basis of any of the following factors:

(a) Historical pumpage.

(b) Wasteful or inefficient use.

(c) Reduction or suspension of extractions required by the district.

(d) Water conservation activities.

(e) Any other factors determined by the court to be appropriate.

(f) Reasonable need.

713. In order to preserve and manage the groundwater resources of the district, the district may commence, maintain, intervene in, defend and compromise, and assume the costs and expenses incurred by the district in actions and proceedings involving groundwater, including, but not limited to, groundwater rights adjudication.

Article 8. Groundwater Extraction Charges

801. (a) Groundwater extraction charges imposed pursuant to this act are declared to be in furtherance of district activities to manage groundwater resources in the groundwater basin which are necessary for the health, welfare, and safety of the public. Groundwater extraction charges are charges for the groundwater management services rendered by the district and shall only be used to finance or otherwise support those services.

(b) Groundwater extraction charges may be imposed for the benefit of all who rely directly upon the groundwater resources of the district. Groundwater extraction charges may be imposed upon the extraction of groundwater from all groundwater extraction facilities that are subject to this act, except the extraction of water stored pursuant to a groundwater storage agreement or other storage commenced before the creation of the district, and except upon the use of supplemental water as an alternate source in lieu of groundwater.

802. (a) Groundwater extraction charges may be imposed for the purpose of paying the costs of initiating, carrying out, and completing any of the powers, projects, and purposes set forth in Article 6 (commencing with Section 601) and Article 7 (commencing with Section 701), except that the charge may not exceed the annual cost to the district incurred in carrying out the powers, projects, and purposes of this act. These activities shall be consistent with the rendering of groundwater management services by the district.

(b) Groundwater extraction charges shall be imposed only within a zone or zones of benefit of the district that will benefit from the management activities set forth in Article 6 (commencing with Section 601) and Article 7 (commencing with Section 701).

803. (a) Before groundwater extraction charges may be imposed, the board of directors shall, after notice and a hearing, identify the activities required to prepare or implement any groundwater management program for the district and to initiate, carry out, or complete any of the other powers, projects, and purposes set forth in Article 6 (commencing with Section 601) and Article 7 (commencing with Section 701) and the amount of money necessary for the next water year for those activities.

(b) The board of directors shall determine the need and desirability of imposing a groundwater extraction charge for the purpose of paying the costs of initiating, carrying out, and completing any of the powers, projects, and purposes set forth in Article 6 (commencing with Section 601) and Article 7 (commencing with Section 701). The board of directors shall find that the charge is necessary to pay for or otherwise support the groundwater management services provided by the district, except that the charge may not exceed the annual cost to the district incurred in carrying out the powers, projects, and purposes of this act.

804. The groundwater extraction charge rate shall be uniform for groundwater extraction within each zone of benefit in the district.

805. Groundwater extraction charges shall be calculated on the basis of groundwater extraction statements required to be filed pursuant to this act.

806. The total of the groundwater extraction charges imposed in any year shall not exceed an amount of money found to be necessary to pay the costs of initiating, carrying out, and completing any of the powers, projects, and purposes set forth in Article 6 (commencing with Section 601) and Article 7 (commencing with Section 701).

807. The groundwater extraction charge may, at the option of the district, be collected on the tax rolls of the county in the same manner, by the same persons, and at the same time as, together with and not separately from, county ad valorem property taxes. In lieu of this election, the district shall collect groundwater extraction charges at the same time, together with penalties and interest at the same rates, as is prescribed for the collection of county ad valorem property taxes. The amount of an unpaid groundwater extraction charge, together with any penalty or interest thereon, constitute a lien on that land as of the same time and in the same manner as does the tax lien securing county ad valorem property taxes.

Article 9. Management Charges

901. Management charges are hereby declared to be charges imposed on an operator or operators within the district for the benefit of all who rely directly upon the groundwater resources of the district.

902. Each year the district may fix a management charge for the purpose of paying the costs of initiating, carrying on, and completing any of the powers, projects, and purposes for which the district is organized, except that the charge shall not exceed the annual cost to the district incurred in carrying out the powers, projects, and purposes of this act.

903. Before the management charges may be imposed, the board of directors shall, after notice and a hearing, identify the portions of the district to be benefited by management and planning activities, the need for management charges for the purpose of paying the costs of these activities, and the amount of the charges to be imposed.

904. The management charge shall be collected on the tax rolls of the county in the same manner, by the same persons, and at the same time as, together with and not separately from, county ad valorem property taxes.

905. The amount of an unpaid management charge, together with any penalty and interest thereon, constitute a lien on that land as of the same time and in the same manner as does the tax lien securing county ad valorem property taxes.

Article 10. Zones of Benefit and Assessment Districts

1001. The district may use the Revenue Bond Law of 1941 (Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 54300) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, the Improvement Act of 1911 (Division 7 (commencing with Section 5000) of the Streets and Highways Code), the Improvement Act of 1915 (Division 10 (commencing with Section 8500) of the Streets and Highways Code), and the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913 (Division 12 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Streets and Highways Code), for the construction of any facilities authorized to be constructed by the district.

1002. (a) The board of directors may establish zones of benefit within the district. Resolutions of the board of directors shall describe the boundaries of the zones of benefit.

(b) The board of directors may amend zone of benefit boundaries by annexing property to, or by withdrawing property from, a zone, or may divide a zone into two or more zones. The board of directors shall, by resolution, describe the boundaries of the amended or divided zones.

Article 11. Development Projects

1101. After creation of the district, any person seeking approval from a local agency having land use jurisdiction of a development project proposed to be located wholly or in part within the boundaries of the district and which proposes to extract groundwater for service of water shall, at the time of filing an application with the local agency, file with the district documents describing the proposed sources of water, the amount of water required, the amounts of groundwater previously used on the property proposed to be developed, and other information that the district may reasonably require.

1102. The district shall be considered a "responsible agency," as defined in Section 65933 of the Government Code, and shall submit the finding described in Section 1103 within the time period established by Section 65952 of the Government Code. The district shall comply with Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 65920) of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code. The application for the development project shall be deemed complete for purposes of Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 65920) of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code when the information required by Section 1101 has been provided to the district and when the information required by Section 65943 of the Government Code has been provided to the local agency with land use jurisdiction.

1103. (a) The district shall determine whether sufficient groundwater is available for the proposed use by a development project based on the projected use of groundwater by the project. The district shall determine that sufficient groundwater is available for use by a development project upon demonstration to the district's satisfaction by the person seeking approval of the development project that the development project will not use more water than is found to be available pursuant to subdivision (b).

(b) In determining whether sufficient groundwater is available for a development project, the district shall take into account that groundwater is to be allocated primarily on the basis of the number of irrigable acres overlying the basin or subbasin that the development project occupies in proportion to the total number of irrigable acres overlying the basin or subbasin, but that the allocation may be adjusted on the basis of any of the following factors:

(1) The total number of overlying acres actually irrigated or reasonably susceptible of irrigation compared to the total number of overlying acres in the basin.

(2) The number of overlying acres being irrigated from surface water sources.

(3) Crop types.

(4) Wasteful or inefficient use.

(5) Reasonable needs of water users within the district.

(6) Any possible reduction or suspension of exports which would allow in-district groundwater use to take place.

(7) Water conservation activities.

(8) Any other factors that the district determines to be appropriate for consideration.

1104. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no local agency having land use jurisdiction shall approve a proposed development project which proposes to use groundwater from the basin unless one of the following occurs:

(1) The district determines that sufficient groundwater is available to the development project pursuant to Section 1103.

(2) The local agency having land use jurisdiction conditions their approval on a determination by the district, pursuant to Section 1103, that there is sufficient groundwater available for use by the development project.

(b) If, pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), a local agency having land use jurisdiction conditionally approves a proposed development project, and if the district subsequently finds that sufficient groundwater is not available for the development project, the development project shall be deemed to be denied by the local agency as a matter of law without the local agency taking further action.

1105. Nothing in this article limits the district's general powers to regulate groundwater extraction and use in development projects in the same manner as other extractions and use within the district.

Article 12. Enforcement Powers

1201. Upon the failure of any person to comply with any of the provisions of this act, including, but not limited to, the registration of extraction facilities and installation of measuring devices, filing of statements, payment of extraction charges, or payment of management charges, or upon the failure of any person to comply with any ordinance adopted by the board of directors pursuant to this act, the district may petition the superior court of the county for a temporary restraining order or preliminary or permanent injunction prohibiting the person from operating an extraction facility or for other injunctive relief that may be appropriate. The temporary restraining order shall be returnable to the court on or before 10 days after its issuance.

1202. The right to proceed for injunctive relief is in addition to other rights which may be granted elsewhere in this act or otherwise allowed by law. The district shall not be required to provide an undertaking or bond as a condition of a grant of injunctive relief.

1203. In any action brought pursuant to this act in which a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, or permanent injunction is sought, it is not necessary to allege or prove at any stage of the proceeding that irreparable damage will occur should the temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, or permanent injunction not be issued, or that the remedy at law is inadequate, and the temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, or permanent injunction shall issue without those allegations and without that proof.

1204. The district may petition the superior court of the county to recover any sums due to the district pursuant to this act. The district shall make that request only after a hearing with due notice of the hearing provided to all affected persons.

1205. Remedies under this article are in addition to, and do not supersede or limit, any and all other civil or criminal remedies.

1206. All money collected by the district pursuant to this act shall be deposited in an account and shall be available without regard to fiscal year for expenditure by the district in carrying out its groundwater management functions pursuant to this act.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that this act, which is applicable only to the Willow Creek Valley Groundwater Management District, is necessary because of the unique and special groundwater management opportunities and potential groundwater problems in the area included in the district. It is, therefore, hereby declared that a general law within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution cannot be made applicable to the district and that the enactment of this special law is necessary for the conservation, development, control, and use of that water for the public good.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1182

An act to add Section 14036.8 to the Government Code, relating to railroads.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14036.8 is added to the Government Code, to read:

14036.8. (a) The department, using existing rail marketing funds, shall fully participate in the railroad public safety awareness program known as "Operation Lifesaver." The department shall work with school officials to develop a school assembly program designed to enhance student awareness of the dangers of trespassing on railroad property, and the operating characteristics of trains. Initially, the school assembly program shall be implemented on the route of the department-sponsored Capitol Corridor. School officials shall cooperate with the department to identify the schools most affected by the operation of higher speed passenger trains.

(b) The department shall provide appropriate signs to be posted on or adjacent to railroad property within 1,000 feet of schools where upgrading of railroad lines has resulted in an increase of operating speeds of passenger trains on those lines by 20 mph or more on or after December 1, 1991. The signs shall be designed to communicate both in words and in pictures, using internationally recognized symbols, to warn of train-related hazards. The signs shall be posted on the school side of the railroad property at a site to be determined by school officials and railroad representatives. At the request of the department, a railroad that owns the property specified in this subdivision shall install and maintain the signs.

(c) For the purposes of this section, a "school" is any public school that maintains classes in kindergarten or of grades 1 to 12, inclusive.

(d) The installation or maintenance of signs pursuant to this section shall not in any way affect the liability of the state or any of its agencies, officers, or employees, or of the owner of the railroad right-of-way, on account of personal injury or property damage alleged to have been caused, in whole or in part, by a sign, or the installation or maintenance of a sign, installed and maintained pursuant to this section.

CHAPTER 1183

An act to add Section 597o to the Penal Code, relating to animals.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 597o is added to the Penal Code, to read:

597o. (a) Any person who transports an equine in a vehicle to slaughter shall meet the following requirements:

(1) The vehicle shall have sufficient clearance to allow the equine to be transported in a standing position with its head in a normal upright position above its withers.

(2) Any ramps and floors in the vehicle shall be covered with a nonskid surface to prevent the equine from slipping.

(3) The vehicle shall provide adequate ventilation to the equine while the equine is being transported.

(4) The sides and overhead of the vehicle shall be constructed to withstand the weight of any equine which may put pressure against the sides or overhead.

(5) Any compartments in the interior of the vehicle shall be constructed of smooth materials and shall contain no protrusions or sharp objects.

(6) The size of the vehicle shall be appropriate for the number of equine being transported and the welfare of the equine shall not be jeopardized by overcrowding.

(7) Stallions shall be segregated during transportation to slaughter.

(8) Diseased, sick, blind, dying, or otherwise disabled equine shall not be transported out of this state.

(9) Any equine being transported shall be able to bear weight on all four feet.

(10) Unweaned foals shall not be transported.

(11) Mares in their last trimester of pregnancy shall not be transported.

(12) The person shall notify a humane officer having jurisdiction 72 hours before loading the equine in order that the humane officer may perform a thorough inspection of the vehicle to determine if all requirements of this section have been satisfied.

(b) (1) Any person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and is subject to a fine of one hundred dollars ($100) per equine being transported.

(2) Any person who violates this section for a second or subsequent time is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined five hundred dollars ($500) per equine being transported.

(c) Whenever a person is taken into custody by an officer for a violation of this section, the officer shall take charge of the vehicle and its contents and deposit the property in some place of custody.

(d) (1) Any necessary expense incurred for taking care of and keeping the property described in subdivision (c) is a lien thereon, to be paid before the property can be lawfully recovered.

(2) If the expense, or any part thereof, remains unpaid, it may be recovered by the person incurring the expense from the owner of the equine in an action therefor.

(e) For the purposes of this section, "equine" means any horse, pony, burro, or mule.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1184

An act to amend Section 25359.5 of, and to add Chapter 6.65 (commencing with Section 25260) to Division 20 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to hazardous materials.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 6.65 (commencing with Section 25260) is added to Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

CHAPTER 6.65. UNIFIED AGENCY REVIEW OF HAZARDOUS MATERIALS RELEASE SITES

25260. The definitions set forth in this section shall govern the interpretation of this chapter. Unless the context requires otherwise and except as provided in this chapter, the definitions contained in Article 2 (commencing with Section 25310) of Chapter 6.8 shall apply to the terms used in this chapter.

(a) "Administering agency" means the agency designated by the committee pursuant to Section 25262.

(b) "Advisory team" means the team convened by the committee pursuant to Section 25263.

(c) "Agency" means any city, county, district, commission, the state, or any department, agency, or political subdivision thereof, that has jurisdiction under a state or local law, ordinance, or regulation to supervise, oversee, or approve a site investigation and a remedial action at a hazardous materials release site.

(d) "Hazardous material" means a substance or waste that, because of its physical, chemical, or other characteristics, may pose a risk of endangering human health or safety or of degrading the environment. "Hazardous material" includes, but is not limited to, all of the following:

(1) A hazardous substance, as defined in Section 25281 or 25316.

(2) A hazardous waste, as defined in Section 25117.

(3) A waste, as defined in Section 470 or as defined in Section 13050 of the Water Code.

(e) "Hazardous materials release site" or "site" means any area, location, or facility where a hazardous material has been released or threatens to be released into the environment. "Hazardous materials release site" does not include a site subject to a response and cleanup operation under Chapter 7.4 (commencing with Section 8670.1) of Division 1 of Title 2 of the Government Code or a corrective action under Part 6 (commencing with Section 46000) of Division 30 of the Public Resources Code.

(f) "Committee" means the Site Designation Committee created by Section 25261.

(g) "Remedial action" means actions required by state or local laws, ordinances, or regulations that are necessary to prevent, minimize, or mitigate damage that may otherwise result from a release or threatened release of a hazardous material, and that are consistent with a permanent remedy for a hazardous materials release. "Remedial action" includes, but is not limited to, the cleanup or removal of released hazardous materials from the environment, monitoring, testing and analysis of the site, site operation and maintenance, and the placing of conditions, limitations, or restrictions on the uses of the site after remedial action has been completed.

(h) "Responsible party" means any person, except for an independent contractor, who agrees to carry out a site investigation and remedial action at a hazardous materials release site for one of the following reasons:

(1) The person is liable under a state or local law, ordinance, or regulation for the site investigation or remedial action.

(2) The site investigation or remedial action is required by a state or local law, ordinance, or regulation because of a hazardous materials release.

(i) "Site investigation" means those actions that are necessary to determine the full extent of a release or threatened release of a hazardous material at a hazardous materials release site, identify the public health and safety or environmental threat posed by the release or threatened release, collect data on possible remedies, and otherwise evaluate the hazardous materials release site for the purpose of implementing remedial action.

25261. (a) There is within the California Environmental Protection Agency a Site Designation Committee. The membership of the committee consists of the following five persons:

(1) Secretary for Environmental Protection.

(2) Director of Toxic Substances Control.

(3) Chairperson of the State Water Resources Control Board.

(4) Director of Fish and Game.

(5) Director of the Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment.

(b) The committee shall carry out the functions described in Sections 25262, 25263, and 25265 and shall meet as necessary to ensure that those functions are carried out in a timely manner. The decisions of the committee shall be subject to the concurrence of four members. The committee shall choose a chairperson from among its members. A committee member may designate an employee of the member's agency to participate in committee meetings in the member's place.

25262. (a) A responsible party for a hazardous materials release site may request the committee at any time to designate an administering agency to oversee a site investigation and remedial action at the site. The committee shall designate an administering agency as responsible for the site within 45 days of the date the request is received. A request to designate an administering agency may be denied only if the committee makes one of the following findings:

(1) No single agency in state or local government has the expertise needed to adequately oversee a site investigation and remedial action at the site.

(2) Designating an administering agency will have the effect of reversing a regulatory or enforcement action initiated by an agency that has jurisdiction over the site, a facility on the site, or an activity at the site.

(3) Designating an administering agency will prevent a regulatory or enforcement action required by federal law or regulations.

(b) A responsible party who requests the designation of an administering agency for a hazardous materials release site shall provide the committee with a brief description of the site, an analysis of the known or suspected nature of the release or threatened release that is the subject of required site investigation or remedial action, a description of the type of facility from which the release occurred or the type of activity that caused the release, a specification of the regulatory or enforcement actions that have been taken, or are pending, with respect to the release, and a statement of which agency the responsible party believes should be designated as administering agency for the site.

(c) (1) The committee shall take all of the following factors into account in determining which agency to designate as administering agency for a site:

(A) The type of release that is the subject of site investigation and remedial action.

(B) The nature of the threat that the release poses to human health and safety or to the environment.

(C) The source of the release, the type of facility or activity from which the release occurred, the regulatory programs that govern the facility or activity involved, and the agency or agencies that administer those regulatory programs.

(D) The regulatory history of the site, the types of regulatory actions or enforcement actions that have been taken with respect to the site or the facility or activity from which the release occurred, and the experience and involvement that various agencies have had with the site.

(E) The capabilities and expertise of the agencies that are candidates for designation as the administering agency for the site and the degree to which those capabilities and that expertise are applicable to the type of release at the site, the nature of the threat that the release poses to health and safety or the environment and the probable remedial measures that will be required.

(2) After weighing the factors described in paragraph (1) as they apply to the site, the committee shall use the criteria specified in subparagraphs (A), (B), (C), and (D) as guidelines for designating the administering agency. If more than one of the criteria apply to the site, the committee shall use its best judgment, taking into account the known facts concerning the hazardous materials release at the site and its regulatory history, in determining which agency may best serve as the administering agency. The criteria are as follows:

(A) The administering agency shall be the Department of Toxic Substances Control if one of the following applies:

(i) The department has issued an order, or otherwise initiated action, with respect to the release at the site pursuant to Section 25355, 25355.5, or 25358.3.

(ii) The department has issued an order for corrective action at the site pursuant to Section 25187.

(iii) The source of the release is a facility or hazardous waste management unit or an activity that is, or was, regulated by the department pursuant to Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100).

(iv) The department is conducting, or has conducted, oversight of the site investigation and remedial action at the site at the request of the responsible party.

(B) The administering agency shall be the California regional water quality control board for the region in which the site is located, if one of the following applies:

(i) The California regional water quality control board has issued a cease and desist order pursuant to Section 13301, or a cleanup and abatement order pursuant to Section 13304 of the Water Code in connection with the release at the site.

(ii) The source of the release is a facility or an activity that is subject to waste discharge requirements issued by the California regional water quality control board pursuant to Section 13263 of the Water Code or that is regulated by the California regional water quality control board pursuant to Article 5.5 (commencing with Section 25159.10) of, or Article 9.5 (commencing with Section 25208) of, Chapter 6.5, or pursuant to Chapter 6.67 (commencing with Section 25270).

(iii) The California regional water quality control board has jurisdiction over the site pursuant to Chapter 5.6 (commencing with Section 13390) of Division 7 of the Water Code.

(C) The administering agency shall be the Department of Fish and Game if the release has polluted or contaminated the waters of the state and the department has taken action against the responsible party pursuant to Section 2014 or 12015 of, or Article 1 (commencing with Section 5650) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 6 of, the Fish and Game Code, subsection (f) of Section 107 of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, as amended, (42 U.S.C. Sec. 9607 (f)), or Section 311 of the Federal Water Pollution Act, as amended (33 U.S.C. Sec. 1321).

(D) The administering agency shall be a local agency if any one of the following circumstances is applicable:

(i) The source of the release at the site is an underground storage tank, as defined in subdivision (x) of Section 25281, the local agency is the agency described in subdivision (g) of Section 25281, and there is no evidence of any extensive groundwater contamination at the site.

(ii) The local agency has accepted responsibility for overseeing the site investigation or remedial action at the site and a state agency is not involved.

(iii) The local agency has agreed to oversee the site investigation or remedial action at the site and is certified, or has been approved, by a state agency to conduct that oversight.

(d) A responsible party for a hazardous materials release site may request the designation of an administering agency for the site pursuant to this section only once. The action of the committee on the request is a final action and is not subject to further administrative or judicial review.

25263. Any agency, including the administering agency, may request the committee at any time to convene an advisory team for the purpose of providing the administering agency with guidance in overseeing site investigation and remedial action at a hazardous materials release site. The committee shall create such an advisory team within 30 calendar days of the date of receipt of the request and shall designate the members of the advisory team after consulting with interested agencies. The advisory team shall be chaired by the representative of the agency that requested the advisory team to be convened and shall meet within five working days of the date that any agency requests a meeting. A representative of the administering agency shall attend all advisory team meetings.

25264. (a) The administering agency for a hazardous materials release site shall supervise all aspects of a site investigation and remedial action conducted by the responsible party and, for that purpose, the administering agency shall, notwithstanding any other provision of law, including, but not limited to, this division and Division 7 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Water Code, have sole jurisdiction over all activities that may be required to carry out a site investigation and remedial action necessary to respond to the hazardous materials release at the site. For purposes of this chapter, the administering agency shall do all of the following:

(1) Administer all state and local laws, ordinances, regulations, and standards that are applicable to, and govern, the activities involved with the site investigation and remedial action at the site.

(2) Determine the adequacy of site investigation and remedial action activities at the site and the extent to which the activities comply, or fail to comply, with applicable state and local laws, ordinances, regulations, and standards. In making these determinations, the administering agency shall consult with the advisory team if one has been convened pursuant to Section 25263.

(3) Issue permits or other forms of authorization that may be required by state and local laws, ordinances, and regulations and that are necessary to undertake activities related to the site investigation and remedial action at the site. Before issuing a permit or other authorization pursuant to this paragraph, the administering agency shall consult with the appropriate agency and ensure that required procedures are followed and adequate permit requirements and conditions are imposed.

(b) Upon determining that a site investigation and remedial action at a hazardous materials release site has been satisfactorily completed and that a permanent remedy to the release has been accomplished, the administering agency shall issue the responsible party a certificate of completion. The certificate shall describe the release of hazardous materials that was the subject of the remedial action and the remedial action that was taken and shall certify that applicable remedial action standards and objectives were achieved.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in Section 25265 and this subdivision, the issuance of a certificate of completion by the administering agency shall constitute a determination that the responsible party has complied with the requirements of all state and local laws, ordinances, regulations, and standards that are applicable to the site investigation and remedial action for which the certificate is issued. No agency that has jurisdiction over hazardous materials releases pursuant to those state and local laws, ordinances, or regulations may take action against the responsible party with respect to the hazardous materials release that was the subject of the site investigation and remedial action for which a certificate of completion is issued unless one of the following applies:

(1) Monitoring, testing, or analysis of the hazardous materials release site subsequent to the issuance of the certificate of completion indicates that the remedial action standards and objectives were not achieved or are not being maintained.

(2) One or more of the conditions, restrictions, or limitations imposed on the site as part of the remedial action or certificate of completion are violated.

(3) Site monitoring or operation and maintenance activities that are required as part of the remedial action or certificate of completion for the site are not adequately funded or are not properly carried out.

(4) A hazardous materials release is discovered at the site that was not the subject of the site investigation and remedial action for which the certificate of completion was issued.

(5) A material change in the facts known to the administering agency at the time the certificate of completion was issued, or new facts, causes an agency to find that further site investigation and remedial action are required in order to prevent a significant risk to human health and safety or to the environment.

(6) The responsible party induced the administering agency to issue the certificate of completion by fraud, negligent or intentional nondisclosure of information, or misrepresentation.

25265. (a) Any agency may petition the chairperson of the committee at any time to review either of the following:

(1) The manner in which the administering agency is implementing state and local laws, ordinances, regulations, and standards applicable to the site investigation and remedial action that is being carried out by the responsible party at a hazardous materials release site.

(2) The decision to issue a certificate of completion for the site.

(b) The petition specified in subdivision (a) shall state the reasons why the review is warranted, the basis for believing that applicable state and local laws, ordinances, regulations, and standards are not being implemented properly, or the grounds for objecting to the issuance of a certificate of completion.

(c) The committee shall review the petition submitted pursuant to subdivision (a), consult with the petitioning and administering agencies, and make a decision regarding the validity of the petition within 30 calendar days of the date the petition is received. If the committee finds that the petition is not valid, it shall deny the petition. If it finds that the administering agency is not properly implementing a state or local law, ordinance, regulation, or standard, the administering agency shall be divested of exclusive jurisdiction over the implementation of that law, ordinance, regulation, or standard and the jurisdiction shall revert to the appropriate agency. If the committee finds that there are valid grounds for objecting to the issuance of a certificate of completion, the committee shall specify the actions that the responsible party and the administering agency shall be required to take before the certificate may be issued.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect or limit the jurisdiction of the administering agency in connection with the administration of any state or local law, ordinance, regulation, or standard that has not been challenged under this section.

25266. The responsible party for a hazardous materials release site may, with the approval of the administering agency, terminate the application of this chapter to the site. The administering agency shall notify the committee, the advisory team, and any agency that may have jurisdiction over site investigation or remedial action at the site that the application of this chapter has been terminated. If the application of this chapter is terminated, the responsible party may not request the designation of another administering agency pursuant to Section 25262.

25267. If, at any time after site investigation or remedial action at a hazardous materials release site has begun, the administering agency determines that the information concerning the site that was available at the time the administering agency was designated was not accurate or was incomplete and that new information would likely have resulted in the designation of a different administering agency, the administering agency may request the committee to review the original designation. If, after reviewing the new information and considering the factors and guidelines specified in subdivision (c) of Section 25262, the committee concludes that the original designation was not in the public interest, it may rescind the original designation and designate a different administering agency.

25268. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as infringing on the right of any agency to obtain from the administering agency for a site the information which may be necessary for the agency to carry out its responsibilities under this chapter, including, but not limited to, its responsibilities under Section 25263, subdivisions (a) and (c) of Section 25264, and Section 25265.

SEC. 2. Section 25359.4 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25359.4. (a) A person shall not release, or allow or cause a release of, a reportable quantity of a hazardous substance into the environment which is not authorized or permitted pursuant to state law.

(b) Any release of a reportable quantity of hazardous substance shall be reported to the department in writing within 30 days of discovery, unless any of the following apply:

(1) The release is permitted or in the permit process.

(2) The release is authorized by state law.

(3) The release requires immediate reporting to the Office of Emergency Services pursuant to Section 11002 or 11004 of Title 42 of the United States Code, or pursuant to Section 25507.

(4) The release has previously been reported to the department or the Office of Emergency Services.

(c) For the purposes of this section, "reportable quantity" means either of the following:

(1) Any reportable quantity of a hazardous substance established in Section 302.4 of Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(2) Any quantity of a hazardous substance that is not reportable pursuant to paragraph (1), but that may pose a significant threat to public health and safety or to the environment. The department may establish guidelines for determining which releases are reportable under this paragraph.

(d) The owner of property on which a release of a reportable quantity has occurred and any person who releases, or causes a release of, a reportable quantity and who fails to make the written report required by subdivision (b), shall be liable for a penalty not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each separate violation and for each day that a violation continues. Each day on which the released hazardous substance remains is a separate violation unless the person has either filed the report or is in compliance with an order issued by a local, state, or federal agency with regard to the release.

(e) Liability under this section may be imposed in a civil action or may be administratively imposed by the department pursuant to Section 25359.3, as added by Chapter 1344 of the Statutes of 1992.

(f) If the violation of subdivision (b) results in, or significantly contributes to, an emergency, including, but not limited to, a fire, to which a county, city, or district is required to respond, the responsible party may be assessed the full cost of the emergency response by the city, county, or district.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1185

b. A state leasehold interest in property acquired by a nonstate public agency with conservancy grant funds, unless the lease terms are approved by the Director of General Services. Except as otherwise specified above in this provision, the expenditures of funds for grants to public agencies and nonprofit organizations shall be exempt from State Public Works Board review.

3. The amount appropriated in this item is available for expenditure for either capital outlay or local assistance.

4. The funds appropriated by this item shall be used to develop beneficial uses of material dredged from San Francisco Bay, including design, acquisition, and development of the Sonoma Baylands Marsh restoration and Leonard Ranch Rehandling Facility projects, and associated project mitigation and environmental enhancement.

CHAPTER 1187

An act to amend Sections 680.280 and 700.020 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to amend Sections 7510, 24350, 24353, 27001, 27557, and 29820 of, to amend and renumber Section 29826 of, to add Section 29826 to, to repeal Section 29827 of, and to repeal and add Sections 29821, 29822, 29823, 29824, and 29825 of, the Government Code, and to amend Sections 19, 254.5, 1256, 3692, 3698.5, and 4946 of, to add Sections 2910.1 and 7283 to, to repeal Sections 2910 and 2913.5 of, and to repeal and add Section 2913 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to local government finance.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 680.280 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

680.280. "Person" includes a natural person, a corporation, a partnership or other unincorporated association, a general partner of a partnership, and a public entity.

SEC. 1.5. Section 700.020 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

700.020. (a) To levy upon (1) growing crops, (2) timber to be cut, or (3) minerals or the like (including oil and gas) to be extracted or accounts receivable resulting from the sale thereof at the wellhead or minehead, the levying officer shall record with the recorder of the county where those crops, timber, or minerals or the like are located a copy of the writ of execution and a notice of levy that describes the property levied upon and states that the judgment debtor's interest in the described property has been levied upon and describes the real property where the crops, timber, or minerals or the like are located. If the judgment debtor's interest in the crops, timber, minerals or the like, or if the real property where the crops, timber, or minerals or the like are located, stands upon the records of the county in the name of a person other than the judgment debtor, the notice of levy shall identify the third person and the recorder shall index the copy of the writ and notice of levy in the names of both the judgment debtor and the third person.

(b) At the time of levy or promptly thereafter, the levying officer shall serve a copy of the writ and a notice of levy personally or by mail on the following persons:

(1) Any third person in whose name the judgment debtor's interest in the crops, timber, minerals or the like stands upon the records of the county and any third person in whose name the real property stands upon the records of the county. If service on the third person is by mail, it shall be sent to the person at the address for the person, if any, shown by the records of the office of the assessor of the county where the real property is located or, if no address is so shown, to the person at the address used by the county recorder for the return of the instrument creating the interest of the third person in the property.

(2) Any secured party who has filed a financing statement with respect to the crops, timber, or minerals or the like or the accounts receivable, prior to the date of levy on the property.

(c) At the time of levy or promptly thereafter, the levying officer shall serve a copy of the writ and a notice of levy on one occupant of the real property where the crops, timber, or minerals or the like are located. Service on the occupant shall be made by leaving the copy of the writ and a notice of levy with the occupant personally or, in the occupant's absence, with a person of suitable age and discretion found upon the real property when service is attempted who is either an employee or agent of the occupant or a member of the occupant's household. If he or she is unable to serve an occupant or suitable person at the time service is attempted, the levying officer shall post the copy of the writ and the notice of levy in a conspicuous place on the real property. However, the posting requirement of the preceding sentence shall not apply where the levy is made upon minerals or the like (but not including oil or gas) and no dwelling is located on the real property. If the real property described in the notice of levy consists of more than one distinct lot, parcel, or governmental subdivision and any of the lots, parcels, or governmental subdivisions lies with relation to any of the others so as to form one or more continuous, unbroken tracts, only one service or posting need be made under this subdivision as to each continuous, unbroken tract.

SEC. 2. Section 7510 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7510. (a) (1) Except as provided in subdivision (b), a public retirement system, which has invested assets in real property and improvements thereon for business or residential purposes for the production of income, shall pay annually to the city or county, in whose jurisdiction the real property is located and has been removed from the secured roll, a fee for general governmental services equal to the difference between the amount that would have accrued as real property secured taxes and the amount of possessory interest unsecured taxes paid for that property. The governing bodies of local entities may adopt ordinances and regulations authorizing retirement systems to invest assets in real property subject to the foregoing requirements.

(2) This subdivision shall not apply to any retirement system which is established by a local governmental entity if that entity is presently authorized by statute or ordinance to invest retirement assets in real property.

(3) This subdivision shall not apply to property owned by any state public retirement system.

(b) (1) Whenever a state public retirement system, which has invested assets in real property and improvements thereon for business or residential purposes for the production of income, leases the property, the lease shall provide, pursuant to Section 107.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, that the lessee's possessory interest may be subject to property taxation and that the party in whom the possessory interest is vested may be subject to the payment of property taxes levied on that interest. The lease shall also provide that the full cash value, as defined in Sections 110 and 110.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, of the possessory interest upon which property taxes will be based shall equal the greater of (A) the full cash value of the possessory interest, or (B), if the lessee has leased less than all of the property, the lessee's allocable share of the full cash value of the property that would have been enrolled if the property had been subject to property tax upon acquisition by the state public retirement system. The lessee's allocable share shall be the lessee's leasable square feet divided by the total leasable square feet of the property.

(2) Except as provided in this subdivision, the property shall be assessed and its taxes computed and collected in the same manner as privately owned property. The lessee's possessory interest shall be placed on the unsecured roll and the tax on the possessory interest shall be subject to the collection procedures for unsecured property taxes.

(3) An investment by a state public retirement system in a legal entity that invests assets in real property and improvements thereon shall not constitute an investment by the state public retirement system of assets in real property and improvements thereon. For purposes of this paragraph, "legal entity" includes, but is not limited to, partnership, joint venture, corporation, trust, or association. When a state public retirement system invests in a legal entity, the state public retirement system shall be deemed to be a person for the purpose of determining a change in ownership under Section 64 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, fees charged pursuant to this section and collected prior to July 1, 1992, shall be deemed valid and not refundable under any circumstance. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, fees, interest and penalties, if any, asserted to be due pursuant to this section that were not charged or collected prior to July 1, 1992, shall be deemed invalid and not collectable under any circumstance.

(5) This subdivision shall apply to the assessment, computation, and collection of taxes for the fiscal year beginning on July 1, 1992, and each fiscal year thereafter. For the 1992–93 and 1993–94 fiscal years, in the case where a lessee's possessory interest existed for less than the full fiscal year for which the tax was levied, the amount of tax shall be prorated in accordance with the number of months for which the lessee's interest existed.

SEC. 2.5. Section 24350 of the Government Code is amended to read:

24350. Each salaried officer of a county or judicial district shall charge and collect for the use of his or her county and pay into the county treasury on or before the fifth day of each month the fees allowed by law in all cases, except those or a percentage of them allowed him or her, and those which are a charge against the county. No salaried officer who collects fees pursuant to this section shall be required to accept coin in payment of those fees.

SEC. 3. Section 24353 of the Government Code is amended to read:

24353. Each officer of a county or judicial district authorized to collect money shall pay into the county treasury all money collected by him or her or under his or her control that is payable into the treasury in the form and at the time the auditor requires. No officer who collects money as described in this section shall be required to accept payment in coin.

SEC. 4. Section 27001 of the Government Code is amended to read:

27001. The treasurer shall file and keep the certificates of the auditor delivered to him or her when money is paid into the treasury.

Notwithstanding Sections 26201, 26202 and 26205, the treasurer may destroy any certificate pursuant to this section if all of the following conditions are complied with:

(a) The record, paper, or document is photographed, microphotographed, or reproduced on film of a type approved for permanent photographic records by the National Bureau of Standards.

(b) The device used to reproduce the record, paper, or document on film is one that accurately reproduces the original thereof in all details.

(c) The photographs, microphotographs, or other reproductions on film are placed in conveniently accessible files and provision is made for preserving, examining, and using the same.

SEC. 4.5. Section 27557 of the Government Code is amended to read:

27557. The surveyor shall plat, trace, blueprint, or otherwise make all county, road, district, and other maps and, at the request of the assessor, make all assessors' block-books for the county.

SEC. 5. Section 29820 of the Government Code is amended to read:

29820. When a warrant is presented for payment, if there is money in the fund for that purpose, the treasurer shall pay it by any of the following methods:

(a) By stamping thereon or perforating therein the word "Paid" and the date of payment.

(b) In accordance with those practices with respect to form, issuance, delivery, endorsement, and payment as approved by the governing board pursuant to Section 53910.

(c) By accepting the paid data per the treasurer's bank.

At the option of the treasurer, warrants may be payable at the treasurer's office or at any bank at which money of the county is deposited.

SEC. 6. Section 29821 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 29821 is added to the Government Code, to read:

29821. Whenever an issuing officer draws a warrant upon the fund in an amount that exceeds the balance of the fund and the issuing officer determines that the warrant requires registration, the issuing officer shall, prior to the issuance of that warrant, present it to the treasurer for registration pursuant to Section 29823.

SEC. 8. Section 29822 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 29822 is added to the Government Code, to read:

29822. The governing board of any local agency may, by the affirmative vote of a majority of its members, adopt a resolution authorizing the issuing of registered warrants. Any resolution adopted pursuant to this section shall state all of the following:

(a) The reason for issuing registered warrants.

(b) The treasurer's fund number or numbers upon which the warrants are to be drawn.

(c) The maturity date of the registered warrants where the warrants are issued for a period of fixed duration.

Any resolution adopted pursuant to this section shall be submitted to the issuing officer prior to the time any claims or orders are presented.

All approved local agency claims or orders drawn against a fund or funds subject to the issuance of registered warrants authorized pursuant to this section shall be clearly stamped with the following: "Submitted for Registered Warrant Pursuant to Board Authorization No. _____, dated _____."

Each warrant issued pursuant to a resolution adopted pursuant to this section shall, prior to issuance, be presented to the treasurer for registration pursuant to Section 29823.

SEC. 10. Section 29823 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 29823 is added to the Government Code, to read:

29823. The treasurer shall register any warrant presented to him or her pursuant to Section 29821 or 29822 by endorsing upon the back of that warrant all of the following:

(a) The date the warrant was presented to him or her.

(b) That the warrant is not paid for lack of funds.

(c) That the warrant bears interest at the rate fixed by law from the date of registration to and including the date of maturity, or the date of the treasurer's first notice pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 29826.

Any warrant registered pursuant to this section shall be returned to the issuing officer for disbursement.

SEC. 12. Section 29824 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 29824 is added to the Government Code, to read:

29824. (a) The rate of interest payable on a registered warrant shall be determined by a ratesetting committee upon the affirmative vote of a majority of its members. A ratesetting committee shall consist of the auditor, the treasurer, and one representative of the issuing local agency, and shall in its discretion set a rate of interest payable on registered warrants that is consistent with sound business principles.

(b) Interest on registered warrants shall be paid on the basis of actual days and a 365-day year, and shall accrue to the holder of the warrant on the date of redemption. A registered warrant shall cease to bear interest on any maturity date endorsed on its face, if on that date unapplied money is available for its payment, or on the date of the treasurer's notice pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 29826.

SEC. 14. Section 29825 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 15. Section 29825 is added to the Government Code, to read:

29825. The treasurer shall maintain a separate register for registered warrants that records for each registered warrant all of the following information:

(a) The date on which the warrant is presented.

(b) The rate of interest payable on that warrant.

(c) Any specified maturity date of that warrant.

SEC. 16. Section 29826 of the Government Code is amended and renumbered to read:

29827. When the treasurer pays any warrant upon which any interest is due, he or she shall note on the warrant the amount of interest paid and enter on his or her account the amount of the interest distinct from the principal.

SEC. 17. Section 29826 is added to the Government Code, to read:

29826. (a) Registered warrants shall be paid out of money in the fund that may be properly applied to those warrants according to the order in which each warrant was presented to the treasurer for registration. Upon receipt of money into the fund, the treasurer shall set apart so much of that money that may be properly applied to the payment of registered warrants as is necessary for the payment of principal and interest.

(b) When there is sufficient money in the fund to pay the warrants drawing interest, the treasurer shall give notice to the registered warrantholder by mail, or by published notice in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county, or if none is published therein, by written notice posted in an appropriate public notice location in the courthouse. When advertising warrants in a newspaper, the treasurer shall not publish the warrants in detail, but shall give notice only that certain warrant numbers or series of numbers stated in the notice are payable. From the date of mailing, or first publication or posting of the notice, the warrants cease to draw interest.

(c) A registered warrant that bears a maturity date shall be paid by the county treasurer upon that date out of moneys then available. However, if on the maturity date endorsed on a registered warrant, there is no money available for its payment, the registered warrant shall continue to bear interest and shall become payable in the same manner as registered warrants not bearing maturity dates.

(d) If a registered warrant is not presented for payment within 60 days from the date of the notice required by subdivision (b), the moneys set aside for its payment shall be applied by the treasurer to the payment of unpaid warrants next in order of registry. When finally presented, any properly endorsed warrant so bypassed shall be paid by the treasurer when sufficient funds that may be properly applied to the payment of registered warrants are next available.

SEC. 18. Section 29827 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 19. Section 19 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19. "Person" includes any person, firm, partnership, general partner of a partnership, association, corporation, company, syndicate, estate, trust, business trust, or organization of any kind.

SEC. 19.3. Section 254.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

254.5. (a) Affidavits for the welfare exemption and the veterans' organization exemption shall be filed in duplicate on or before March 15 of each year with the assessor. Affidavits of organizations filing for the first time shall be accompanied by duplicate certified copies of the financial statements of the owner and operator. Thereafter, financial statements shall be submitted only if requested in writing by either the assessor or the board. Copies of the affidavits and financial statements shall be forwarded not later than April 1 by the assessor with his or her recommendations for approval or denial to the board which shall review all such affidavits and statements and may institute an independent audit or verification of the operations of the owner and operator to ascertain whether both the owner and operator meet the requirements of Section 214 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. In this connection the board shall consider, among other matters, whether:

(1) The services and expenses of the owner or operator (including salaries) are excessive, based upon like services and salaries in comparable public institutions;

(2) The operations of the owner or operator, either directly or indirectly, materially enhance the private gain of any individual or individuals;

(3) Any capital investment of the owner or operator for expansion of physical plant is justified by the contemplated return thereon, and required to serve the interests of the community.

(4) The property on which exemption is claimed is used for the actual operation of an exempt activity and does not exceed an amount of property reasonably necessary to the accomplishment of the exempt purpose.

(b) The board shall make a finding as to the eligibility of each applicant and the applicant's property and shall forward its finding to the assessor concerned. In a case where the board conducts a hearing with respect to the eligibility of the applicant and the applicant's property, the finding shall be forwarded to the assessor concerned within 30 days after the decision is made by the board following the hearing. The assessor may deny the claim of an applicant the board finds eligible but may not grant the claim of an applicant the board finds ineligible.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), an applicant, granted a welfare exemption and owning any property exempted pursuant to Section 231, shall not be required to reapply for the welfare exemption in any subsequent year in which there has been no transfer of, or other change in title to, the exempted property and the property is used exclusively by a governmental entity for its interest and benefit. The applicant shall notify the assessor on or before March 15 if, on or before the preceding lien date, the applicant became ineligible for the welfare exemption or if, on or before that lien date, the property was no longer owned by the applicant or otherwise failed to meet all requirements for the welfare exemption.

Prior to the lien date, the assessor shall annually mail a notice to every applicant relieved of the requirement of filing an annual application by this subdivision.

The notice shall be in a form and contain that information which the board may prescribe, and shall set forth the circumstances under which the property may no longer be eligible for exemption and advise the applicant of the duty to inform the assessor if the property is no longer eligible for exemption.

The notice shall include a card which is to be returned to the assessor by any applicant desiring to maintain eligibility for the welfare exemption under Section 231. The card shall be in the following form:

To all persons who have received a welfare exemption under Section 231 of the Revenue and Taxation Code for the _____ fiscal year.

Question: Will the property to which the exemption applies in the _____ fiscal year continue to be used exclusively by government for its interest and benefit in the _____ fiscal year?

YES _____ NO _____

Signature: _____
Title: _____

Failure to return this card does not of itself constitute a waiver of exemption as called for by the California Constitution, but may result in onsite inspection to verify exempt activity.

(d) Upon any indication that a welfare exemption has been incorrectly granted, the assessor shall redetermine eligibility for the exemption. If the assessor determines that the property, or any portion thereof, is no longer eligible for the exemption, he or she shall immediately cancel the exemption on so much of the property as is no longer eligible for the exemption.

(e) If a welfare exemption has been incorrectly allowed, an escape assessment as provided by Article 4 (commencing with Section 531) of Chapter 3 in the amount of the exemption, with interest as provided in Section 506, shall be made, and a penalty shall be assessed for any failure to notify the assessor as required by this section in an amount equaling 10 percent of the escape assessment, but in no event exceeding two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

SEC. 19.5. Section 1256 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

1256. At the request of the assessor, the board of supervisors shall authorize and direct the assessor to prepare, or to supervise the preparation of, maps and block-books as may be needed for the assessor's office to meet the requirements of the state board with respect thereto. All costs incurred in connection therewith shall be a charge against the county general fund, payable in the same manner as other county charges. This procedure shall be in addition to any other procedure relating to matters as may otherwise be provided by law.

SEC. 20. Section 2910 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 21. Section 2910.1 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

2910.1. The tax collector may, no later than 30 days prior to the date on which taxes are delinquent and as soon as reasonably possible after receipt of the extended assessment roll, mail a tax bill for every assessment on the unsecured roll on which taxes are due.

SEC. 22. Section 2913 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 23. Section 2913 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

2913. The tax collector shall record a payment of taxes on the unsecured roll by either of the following methods:

(a) By marking the fact and date of payment on the unsecured roll opposite the tax to which the payment relates.

(b) By recording the fact and date of payment on a machine prepared list or in the form of an electronic data processing record.

SEC. 24. Section 2913.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 25. Section 3692 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

3692. (a) The tax collector shall attempt to sell tax-defaulted property as provided in this chapter within four years of the time that the property becomes subject to sale for nonpayment of taxes unless by other provisions of law the property is not subject to sale. If there are no acceptable bids at the attempted sale, the tax collector shall with the approval of the Controller attempt to sell the property at intervals of no more than six years until the property is sold.

(b) When oil, gas, or mineral rights are subject to sale for nonpayment of taxes, the tax collector may offer the interest at minimum bid to the holders of outstanding interests where the interest subject to sale is a partial interest or, where the interest subject to sale is a complete and undivided interest, to the owner or owners of the property to which the oil, gas, or mineral rights are appurtenant.

(c) When parcels that are rendered unusable by their size, location or other conditions are subject to sale for nonpayment of taxes, the tax collector may offer the parcel at a minimum bid to owners of contiguous parcels, or may require that an unusable parcel be joined with a contiguous parcel as a condition of sale.

(d) Sealed bid sale procedures shall be used when offers are made pursuant to subdivision (b) or (c), and the property shall be sold to the highest eligible bidder. The offers shall remain in effect for 30 days or until notice is given pursuant to Section 3702, whichever is later.

SEC. 26. Section 3698.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

3698.5. (a) The minimum price at which property may be offered for sale pursuant to this chapter shall be an amount not less than the total amount necessary to redeem, plus costs. For purposes of this subdivision:

(1) The "total amount necessary to redeem" is the sum of the following:

(A) The amount of defaulted taxes.

(B) Delinquent penalties and costs.

(C) Redemption penalties.

(D) A redemption fee.

(2) "Costs" are those amounts described in subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 4112, Sections 4672, 4672.1, 4672.2, 4673, and subdivision (b) of Section 4673.1.

(b) This section shall not apply to property or interests which qualify for sale in accordance with the provisions of subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 3692.

(c) Where property or property interests have been offered for sale at least once and no acceptable bids therefor have been received, the tax collector may, in his or her discretion and with the approval of the board of supervisors, offer that property or those interests at the next scheduled sale at a minimum price that the tax collector deems appropriate.

SEC. 27. Section 4946 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

4946. All or any portion of any uncollected tax, penalty, or costs, heretofore or hereafter levied, may on satisfactory proof submitted by the tax collector be canceled by the auditor on order of the board of supervisors upon a showing that the collection of the delinquent tax can not be enforced because of any errors in description, assessment, equalization, levy, or any other proceeding. If all or any portion of the property was taxable for the year or years for which the cancellation is made, the clerk shall send a notice to the last assessee of the property respecting the cancellation. A similar notice shall be sent to the last assessee, except that the grounds of cancellation need not be stated, in the event that any tax, penalty, or costs, or any portion thereof, is ordered canceled or held void or ordered refunded by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

SEC. 28. Section 7283 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

7283. A board of supervisors may, by ordinance or resolution, establish procedures for the collection of delinquent amounts of any tax levied pursuant to this chapter.

SEC. 29. It is the intent of the Legislature that the amendment made to Section 7510 of the Government Code by Section 2 of this act apply to the assessment, computation, and collection of property taxes levied for the 1992–93 fiscal year, to address the case in which a lessee's possessory interest existed on the March 1 lien date, but did not exist during, or ceased to exist prior to the end of, that fiscal year.

SEC. 30. The amendments made by Chapter 1180 of the Statutes of 1992 to subdivision (g) of Section 214 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to veterans' organizations, shall be operative with respect to taxes levied for the 1989–90 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter.

SEC. 31. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1188

An act to amend Section 7137 of, and to add Section 7135.1 to, the Business and Professions Code, relating to contractors, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7135.1 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

7135.1. It is the intent of the Legislature that, each fiscal year the board shall designate, if appropriated in the Budget Act and to the extent that it does not conflict with the control language of the Budget Act, no less than 20 percent of the annual amount collected as a result of the fees increased by statutes enacted during the 1993 portion of the 1993–94 Regular Session to be used to enforce the provision of this chapter relative to unlicensed activity.

SEC. 2. Section 7137 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7137. The amount of the fees prescribed by this chapter shall be fixed by the board according to the following schedule:

(a) The application fee for an original license in a single classification shall be two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

The application fee for each additional classification applied for in connection with an original license shall be fifty dollars ($50).

The application fee for each additional classification pursuant to Section 7059 shall be fifty dollars ($50).

The application fee to replace a responsible managing officer or employee pursuant to Section 7068.2 shall be fifty dollars ($50).

(b) The fee for rescheduling an examination for an applicant who has applied for an original license, additional classification, a change of responsible managing officer or responsible managing employee, or for an asbestos certification or hazardous substance removal certification, shall be fifty dollars ($50).

(c) The initial license fee for an active or inactive license shall be one hundred fifty dollars ($150).

(d) The renewal fee for an active license shall be three hundred dollars ($300).

The renewal fee for an inactive license shall be one hundred fifty dollars ($150).

(e) The delinquency fee is an amount equal to 50 percent of the renewal fee, but not more than twenty-five dollars ($25).

(f) The registration fee for a home improvement salesperson shall be fifty dollars ($50).

(g) The renewal fee for a home improvement salesperson registration shall be seventy-five dollars ($75).

(h) The application fee for an asbestos certification examination shall be fifty dollars ($50).

(i) The application fee for a hazardous substance removal or remedial action certification examination shall be fifty dollars ($50).

SEC. 3. The sum of one million five hundred seventy thousand dollars ($1,570,000) is appropriated from the Contractors' License Fund in augmentation of Item 1230-001-735, Budget Act of 1993, to restore the unallocated reduction that was proposed in the 1994–95 Governor's Budget due to insufficient fund reserves.

CHAPTER 1189

An act to amend Sections 6489, 6490, and 7201 of, and to add Sections 6489.3 and 6555 to, the Elections Code, relating to elections, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6489 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

6489. For the purposes of this article, "nomination documents" means a statement of intention and a declaration of candidacy.

SEC. 2. Section 6489.3 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

6489.3. (a) Each candidate for a party nomination for the office of State Senator or Member of the Assembly, any state constitutional office, or Insurance Commissioner at the direct primary election shall file a written and signed statement of his or her intention to become a candidate for his or her party's nomination for that office. The statement of intention shall be filed with either the Secretary of State or the elections official of the county in which the candidate is a resident. The statement of intention shall be filed, on a form to be supplied by the county elections official, not more than 14 nor less than five days prior to the first day on which a declaration of candidacy may be presented for filing. However, if the incumbent fails to file a statement of intention by the end of that period, persons other than the incumbent may file statements of intention no later than the first day for filing declarations of candidacy. The statement of intention provided for in this section shall be in substantially the following form:

I hereby declare my intention to become a candidate for the _____ (Name of political party)

Party's nomination for the office of

(Name of office and district, if any) at the direct primary election.

(Signature of candidate)

(Address of candidate)

(b) No person may be a candidate nor have his or her name printed upon any ballot as a candidate for a party nomination for the office of State Senator or Member of the Assembly, any state constitutional office, or Insurance Commissioner at the direct primary election unless he or she has filed the statement of intention provided for in this section. However, if the incumbent of the office who is affiliated with any qualified political party files a statement of intention, but for any reason fails to qualify for nomination for the office by the last day prescribed for the filing of a declaration of candidacy an additional five days shall be allowed for the filing of declaration of candidacy for the office, and any person other than the incumbent if otherwise qualified, may file a declaration of candidacy for the office during the extended period, notwithstanding that he or she has not filed a written and signed statement of intention to become a candidate for the office as provided in subdivision (a).

SEC. 3. Section 6490 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

6490. (a) No candidate's name shall be printed on the ballot to be used at the direct primary unless the following nomination documents are delivered for filing to the county elections official:

(1) Declaration of candidacy pursuant to Section 6491.

(2) Statement of intention, if required, pursuant to Section 6489.3.

(b) The forms shall first be available on the 113th day prior to the direct primary election and shall be delivered not later than 5 p.m. on the 88th day prior to the direct primary.

(c) Upon the receipt of an executed nomination document, the county elections official shall give the person delivering the document a receipt, properly dated, indicating that the document was delivered to the county elections official.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 6490.5, upon request of a candidate, the county elections official shall provide the candidate with a declaration of candidacy. The county elections official shall not require a candidate to sign, file, or sign and file, a declaration of candidacy as a condition of receiving nomination documents.

SEC. 4. Section 6555 is added to the Elections Code, to read:

6555. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, a candidate may submit a petition containing signatures of registered voters in lieu of a filing fee as follows:

(1) For the office of California State Assembly, 1,500 signatures.

(2) For the office of California State Senate and the United States House of Representatives, 3,000 signatures.

(3) For candidates running for statewide office, 10,000 signatures.

(4) For all other offices for which a filing fee is required, if the number of registered voters in the district in which he or she seeks nomination is 2,000 or more, a candidate may submit a petition containing four signatures of registered voters for each dollar of the filing fee, or 10 percent of the total of registered voters in the district in which he or she seeks nomination, whichever is less.

(5) For all other offices for which a filing fee is required, if the number of registered voters in the district in which he or she seeks nomination is less than 2,000, a candidate may submit a petition containing four signatures of registered voters for each dollar of the filing fee, or 20 percent of the total of registered voters in the district in which he or she seeks nomination, whichever is less.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a candidate seeking the nomination of a qualified party with whom he or she is registered, the registered voters of which who were eligible to vote at the last statewide election constituted less than 5 percent of all registered voters eligible to vote at the last statewide election, may submit a petition containing signatures of 10 percent of the registered voters of that party in the district in which he or she seeks nomination, or 150 signatures, whichever is less.

(7) A voter may sign both a candidate's nomination papers and his or her in-lieu-filing-fee petition. However, if signatures appearing on the documents are counted towards both the nomination paper and the in-lieu-filing-fee petition signature requirements, a person may only sign one of the documents.

(b) The Secretary of State or an elections official shall furnish to each candidate, upon request, and without charge therefor, forms for securing signatures. The number of forms which the elections official shall furnish a candidate shall be a quantity which provides the candidates with spaces for signatures sufficient in number to equal the number of signatures which the candidate is required to secure pursuant to subdivision (a) if the candidate desires that number of forms. However, the elections official may, rather than provide the candidate with the number of forms set forth in the preceding sentence, or, upon the request of a candidate, provide the candidate with a master form, which may be duplicated by the candidate at the candidate's expense for the purpose of circulating additional petitions. The Secretary of State shall provide the master form. The elections official may provide candidates a form other than the master form provided by the Secretary of State. However, that form shall meet all statutory requirements, and the elections official shall also make available and accept the master form provided by the Secretary of State. All forms shall be made available commencing 45 days before the first day for circulating nomination papers. However, in cases of vacancies for which a special election is authorized or required to be held to fill the vacancy, and where the prescribed nomination period would commence less than 45 days after the creation of the vacancy, the forms shall be made available within five working days after the creation of the vacancy. No other form except the form furnished by the Secretary of State or the elections official or forms duplicated from a master form shall be used to secure signatures. Each petition section shall bear an affidavit signed by the circulator, in substantially the same form as set forth in Section 6494. The substitution of signatures for fees shall be subject to the following provisions:

(1) Any registered voter may sign an in-lieu-filing-fee petition for any candidate for whom he or she is eligible to vote.

(2) If a voter signs more candidates' petitions than there are offices to be filled, the voter's signatures shall be valid only on those petitions which, taken in the order they were filed, do not exceed the number of offices to be filled.

(3) In-lieu-filing-fee petitions shall be filed at least 15 days prior to the close of the nomination period. Upon receipt of the minimum number of in-lieu-filing-fee signatures required, or a sufficient combination of signatures and pro rata filing fee, the elections official shall issue nomination papers provisionally. Within 10 days after receipt of a petition, the elections official shall notify the candidate of any deficiency. The candidate shall then, prior to the close of the nomination period, either submit a supplemental petition, or pay a pro rata portion of the filing fee, to cover the deficiency.

(4) If the petition is circulated for an office in more than one county, the candidate shall submit the signatures to the elections official in the county in which the petition was circulated. The elections official shall at least two days after verifying the signatures on the petition, notify the Secretary of State of the total number of valid signatures. If the number of signatures is insufficient, the Secretary of State shall notify the candidate and the elections officials of the fact. The candidate may submit the necessary number of valid signatures at any time prior to the close of the period for circulating nomination papers. Each circulator of an in-lieu-filing-fee petition shall be a registered voter of the district or political subdivision in which the candidate is to be voted on. The circulator shall serve within the county in which he or she resides.

(5) Each candidate may submit a greater number of signatures to allow for subsequent losses due to invalidity of some signatures. The elections official shall not be required to determine the validity of a greater number of signatures than that required by this section.

(c) For the purposes of this section, the requisite number of signatures shall be computed from the latest registration figures forwarded to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 607 prior to the first day on which petitions are available.

(d) All valid signatures obtained pursuant to this section shall be counted towards the number of voters required to sign a nomination paper in accordance with Section 6494.1 or 6834.1.

SEC. 5. Section 7201 of the Elections Code is amended to read:

7201. A special primary election shall be held in the district in which the vacancy occurred on the eighth Tuesday or, if the eighth Tuesday is the day of or the day following a state holiday, the ninth Tuesday preceding the day of the special general election at which the vacancy is to be filled. Candidates at the primary election shall be nominated in the manner set forth in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6400), except that nomination papers shall not be circulated more than 63 days before the primary election, shall be left with the county elections official for examination not less than 43 days before the primary election, and shall be filed with the Secretary of State not less than 39 days before the primary election.

Notwithstanding Section 1002, applications for absent voter ballots may be submitted not more than 25 days before the primary election, except that Section 1002 shall apply if the special election or special primary election is consolidated with a statewide election. Applications received by the elections official prior to the 25th day shall not be returned to the sender, but shall be held by the elections official and processed by him or her following the 25th day prior to the election in the same manner as if received at that time.

SEC. 6. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if AB 1173 is chaptered and takes effect on or before January 1, 1994, whether AB 1173 is chaptered prior to, or subsequent to, this act, any section of AB 1173 that adds Section 6555 to the Elections Code shall prevail over Section 4 of this act, and Section 4 of this act shall not become operative.

SEC. 7. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 8. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that changes in the elections procedures proposed by this bill be in effect at the earliest possible time, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1190

An act to amend Sections 8670.48, 8670.48.5, 8670.49, 8670.51.1, and 8670.59 of, and to add Section 8670.17.1 to, the Government Code, to amend Section 8750 of the Public Resources Code, and to amend Sections 46012, 46054, and 46653 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to oil spills, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8670.17.1 is added to the Government Code, to read:

8670.17.1. The administrator may, for purposes of efficiency, safety, or implementation consistency, provide for services to vessels, ports, and port users which are necessary to achieve requirements mandated pursuant to this article. The administrator may establish or authorize reimbursement for those services which do not exceed the reasonable costs incurred in implementing and administering the service.

SEC. 2. Section 8670.48 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8670.48. (a) (1) A uniform oil spill response fee in an amount not exceeding twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each barrel of petroleum products, as set by the administrator pursuant to subdivision (f), shall be imposed upon every person owning petroleum products at the time the petroleum products are received at a marine terminal within this state by means of a vessel from a point of origin outside this state. The fee shall be remitted to the State Board of Equalization by the terminal operator on the 25th day of each month based upon the number of barrels of petroleum products received during the preceding month.

(2) Every owner of petroleum products is liable for the fee until it has been paid to the state, except that payment to a marine terminal operator registered under this chapter is sufficient to relieve the owner from further liability for the fee.

(b) Every operator of a pipeline shall also pay a uniform oil spill response fee in an amount not exceeding twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each barrel of petroleum products, as set by the administrator pursuant to subdivision (f), transported into the state by means of a pipeline operating across, under, or through the marine waters of the state. The fee shall be paid on the 25th day of each month based upon the number of barrels of petroleum products so transported into the state during the preceding month.

(c) (1) Every operator of a refinery shall pay a uniform oil spill response fee in an amount not exceeding twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each barrel of crude oil, as set by the administrator pursuant to subdivision (f), received at a refinery within the state. The fee shall be paid on the 25th day of each month based upon the number of barrels of crude oil so received during the preceding month.

(2) The fee shall not be imposed by a refiner, or a person or entity acting as an agent for a refiner, on crude oil produced by an independent crude oil producer as defined in paragraph (3). The board shall not identify a company as exempt from the fee requirements of this section if that company was reorganized, sold, or otherwise modified with the intent of circumventing the requirements of this section.

(3) For purposes of this chapter, "independent crude oil producer" means any person or entity producing crude oil within this state who performs no refining of crude oil into product, and who possesses or owns no retail gasoline marketing facilities.

(d) Every marine terminal operator shall pay a uniform oil spill response fee in an amount not exceeding twenty-five cents ($0.25), in accordance with subdivision (g), for each barrel of crude oil, as set by the administrator pursuant to subdivision (f), that is transported from within this state by means of marine vessel to a destination outside this state.

(e) Every operator of a pipeline shall pay a uniform oil spill response fee in an amount not exceeding twenty-five cents ($0.25), in accordance with subdivision (g), for each barrel of crude oil, as set by the administrator pursuant to subdivision (f), transported out of the state by pipeline.

(f) (1) The fees required pursuant to this section shall be collected during any period that the administrator determines that either the amount in the fund is less than or equal to 95 percent of the amount specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (h), or additional moneys are required to pay for the purposes specified in subdivision (k).

(2) Whenever the administrator, in consultation with the State

Board of Equalization, estimates that the amount in the fund will reach the amount specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (h), and the money in the fund is not required for the purposes specified in subdivision (k), the administrator shall direct the State Board of Equalization to cease collecting the fee. In no event shall the fee cease to be imposed if the Treasurer has borrowed money pursuant to Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 8670.53.1) and principal, interest, premium, fees, charges, or costs of any kind imposed in connection with those borrowings remain outstanding or unpaid, unless the Treasurer has certified to the administrator that the continued imposition of the fee is not required for the purposes specified in paragraph (7) of subdivision (k).

(3) The administrator, in consultation with the State Board of Equalization, shall set the amount of the oil spill response fees. The oil spill response fees shall be imposed on all feepayers in the same amount. The administrator shall not set the amount of the fee at less than twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each barrel of petroleum products or crude oil, unless the administrator finds that the assessment of a lesser fee will cause the fund to reach the designated amount within four months. The fee shall not be less than twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each barrel of petroleum products or crude oil if the Treasurer has borrowed money pursuant to Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 8670.53.1) and principal, interest, premium, fees, charges, or costs of any kind imposed in connection with those borrowings remain outstanding or unpaid, unless the Treasurer has certified to the administrator that the money in the fund is not required for the purposes specified in paragraph (7) of subdivision (k).

(g) The fees imposed by subdivisions (d) and (e) shall be imposed in any calendar year beginning the month following the month when the total cumulative year-to-date barrels of crude oil transported outside the state by all feepayers by means of vessel or pipeline exceeds 6 percent by volume of the total barrels of crude oil and petroleum products subject to oil spill response fees under subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) for the prior calendar year.

(h) For purposes of this chapter, "designated amount" means an amount equal to one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000), adjusted for inflation after January 1, 1991, according to an index which the administrator may reasonably choose, subject to the following:

(1) Fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) shall be retained in the fund as cash, adjusted for inflation.

(2) Fifty million dollars ($50,000,000), adjusted for inflation, shall be immediately accessible in the fund in the form of financial security obtained by the Treasurer as authorized by subdivision (p).

(i) (1) The administrator shall authorize refunds of any money collected, for reporting periods after January 31, 1991, in excess of the total of the amount specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) and any amounts determined by the administrator to be necessary to provide for any of the purposes specified in paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive, of subdivision (k) and, if the Treasurer has borrowed money pursuant to Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 8670.53.1) and principal, interest, premium, fees, charges, or costs of any kind imposed in connection with those borrowings remain outstanding or unpaid, any amounts the Treasurer has certified to the administrator are required for the purposes specified in paragraph (7) of subdivision (k). The board, as directed by the administrator and in accordance with Section 46653 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, shall refund the excess amount of fees collected to each feepayer who paid the fee to the state, in proportion to the amount that each feepayer paid into the fund during the preceding 12 monthly reporting periods in which there was a fee due, including the month in which the fund exceeded the specified amount, and only for those periods which commenced on or after January 31, 1991. If the total amount of money in the fund exceeds the amount specified in this subdivision by 10 percent or less, refunds need not be ordered by the administrator. Nothing in this section shall require the refund of excess fees as provided in this subdivision more frequently than once each year.

(2) Any amount of fees collected in excess of the specified amount for periods prior to February 1, 1991, shall be refunded as follows:

(A) First, to feepayers who paid oil spill response fees under subdivision (d) or (e) of Section 8670.48 of the Government Code as added by Chapter 1248 of the Statutes of 1990.

(B) Second, to feepayers in proportion to the amount each feepayer paid into the fund for the period from September 24, 1990, to January 31, 1991, inclusive, less any amounts refunded pursuant to paragraph (1).

(j) The board shall collect the fee and adopt regulations implementing the fee collection program. All fees collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Oil Spill Response Trust Fund.

(k) The fee described in this section shall be collected solely for any of the following purposes:

(1) To provide funds to cover promptly the costs of response, containment, and cleanup of oil spills into marine waters, including damage assessment costs, and wildlife rehabilitation as provided in Section 8670.61.5.

(2) To provide emergency loans and to cover response and cleanup costs and other damages suffered by the state or other persons or entities from oil spills into marine waters which cannot otherwise be compensated by responsible parties or the federal government.

(3) To pay claims for damages pursuant to Section 8670.51.

(4) To pay claims for damages, except for damages described in paragraph (7) of subdivision (g) of Section 8670.56.5, pursuant to Section 8670.51.1.

(5) To pay for the arrangement of fifty million dollars ($50,000,000), adjusted for inflation, of financial security as authorized by subdivision (p).

(6) To pay indemnity and related costs and expenses as authorized by Section 8670.56.6.

(7) To pay principal, interest, premium, if any, and fees, charges, and costs of any kind imposed in connection with funds borrowed pursuant to Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 8670.53.1).

(l) The interest that the state earns on the funds deposited into the Oil Spill Response Trust Fund shall be deposited in the fund and shall be used to maintain the fund at the designated amount. If the fund exceeds the designated amount, the interest not needed to bring the fund to the designated amount shall be deposited into the Oil Spill Prevention and Administration Fund.

(m) The Legislature finds and declares that effective response to oil spills requires that the state have available sufficient funds in a response fund. The Legislature further finds and declares that maintenance of that fund is of utmost importance to the state and that the moneys in the fund shall be used solely for the purposes specified in subdivision (k).

(n) For the purposes of this section, "marine waters" includes the waterways used for waterborne commercial vessel traffic to the Port of Stockton and the Port of Sacramento.

(o) It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this section, that the fee shall not be imposed by a refiner, or a person or entity acting as an agent for a refiner, on crude oil produced by an independent crude oil producer.

(p) The Treasurer shall purchase fifty million dollars ($50,000,000), adjusted for inflation, of financial security which may be drawn upon immediately by the administrator upon making the determinations as required by Section 8670.49. The financial security shall be in a form as described in subdivision (a) of Section 8670.53.3.

(q) Nothing in this section limits the authority of the administrator to raise the oil spill response fees pursuant to Section 8670.48.5 of the Government Code.

SEC. 2.5. Section 8670.48 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8670.48. (a) (1) A uniform oil spill response fee in an amount not exceeding twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each barrel of petroleum products, as set by the administrator pursuant to subdivision (f), shall be imposed upon every person owning petroleum products at the time the petroleum products are received at a marine terminal within this state by means of a vessel from a point of origin outside this state. The fee shall be remitted to the State Board of Equalization by the terminal operator on the 25th day of each month based upon the number of barrels of petroleum products received during the preceding month.

(2) Every owner of petroleum products is liable for the fee until it has been paid to the state, except that payment to a marine terminal operator registered under this chapter is sufficient to relieve the owner from further liability for the fee.

(b) Every operator of a pipeline shall also pay a uniform oil spill response fee in an amount not exceeding twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each barrel of petroleum products, as set by the administrator pursuant to subdivision (f), transported into the state by means of a pipeline operating across, under, or through the marine waters of the state. The fee shall be paid on the 25th day of each month based upon the number of barrels of petroleum products so transported into the state during the preceding month.

(c) (1) Every operator of a refinery shall pay a uniform oil spill response fee in an amount not exceeding twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each barrel of crude oil, as set by the administrator pursuant to subdivision (f), received at a refinery within the state. The fee shall be paid on the 25th day of each month based upon the number of barrels of crude oil so received during the preceding month.

(2) The fee shall not be imposed by a refiner, or a person or entity acting as an agent for a refiner, on crude oil produced by an independent crude oil producer as defined in paragraph (3). The board shall not identify a company as exempt from the fee requirements of this section if that company was reorganized, sold, or otherwise modified with the intent of circumventing the requirements of this section.

(3) For purposes of this chapter, "independent crude oil producer" means any person or entity producing crude oil within this state who performs no refining of crude oil into product, and who possesses or owns no retail gasoline marketing facilities.

(d) Every marine terminal operator shall pay a uniform oil spill response fee in an amount not exceeding twenty-five cents ($0.25), in accordance with subdivision (g), for each barrel of crude oil, as set by the administrator pursuant to subdivision (f), that is transported from within this state by means of marine vessel to a destination outside this state.

(e) Every operator of a pipeline shall pay a uniform oil spill response fee in an amount not exceeding twenty-five cents ($0.25), in accordance with subdivision (g), for each barrel of crude oil, as set by the administrator pursuant to subdivision (f), transported out of the state by pipeline.

(f) (1) The fees required pursuant to this section shall be collected during any period that the administrator determines that either the amount in the fund is less than or equal to 95 percent of the amount specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (h), or additional moneys are required to pay for the purposes specified in subdivision (k).

(2) Whenever the administrator, in consultation with the State Board of Equalization, estimates that the amount in the fund will reach the amount specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (h), and the money in the fund is not required for the purposes specified in subdivision (k), the administrator shall direct the State Board of Equalization to cease collecting the fee. In no event shall the fee cease to be imposed if the Treasurer has borrowed money pursuant to Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 8670.53.1) and principal, interest, premium, fees, charges, or costs of any kind imposed in connection with those borrowings remain outstanding or unpaid, unless the Treasurer has certified to the administrator that the continued imposition of the fee is not required for the purposes specified in paragraph (7) of subdivision (k).

(3) The administrator, in consultation with the State Board of Equalization, shall set the amount of the oil spill response fees. The oil spill response fees shall be imposed on all feepayers in the same amount. The administrator shall not set the amount of the fee at less than twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each barrel of petroleum products or crude oil, unless the administrator finds that the assessment of a lesser fee will cause the fund to reach the designated amount within four months. The fee shall not be less than twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each barrel of petroleum products or crude oil if the Treasurer has borrowed money pursuant to Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 8670.53.1) and principal, interest, premium, fees, charges, or costs of any kind imposed in connection with those borrowings remain outstanding or unpaid, unless the Treasurer has certified to the administrator that the money in the fund is not required for the purposes specified in paragraph (7) of subdivision (k).

(g) The fees imposed by subdivisions (d) and (e) shall be imposed in any calendar year beginning the month following the month when the total cumulative year-to-date barrels of crude oil transported outside the state by all feepayers by means of vessel or pipeline exceeds 6 percent by volume of the total barrels of crude oil and petroleum products subject to oil spill response fees under subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) for the prior calendar year.

(h) For purposes of this chapter, "designated amount" means an amount equal to one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000), adjusted for inflation after January 1, 1991, according to an index which the administrator may reasonably choose, subject to the following:

(1) Fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) shall be retained in the fund as cash, adjusted for inflation.

(2) Fifty million dollars ($50,000,000), adjusted for inflation, shall be immediately accessible in the fund in the form of financial security obtained by the Treasurer as authorized by subdivision (p).

(3) The adjustment for inflation shall be suspended for the three-year period commencing July 1, 1993, and ending July 1, 1996, and no adjustment shall be made until July 1, 1997. The designated amount as of June 30, 1993, shall remain the designated amount until adjusted for inflation on July 1, 1997.

(i) (1) The administrator shall authorize refunds of any money collected, for reporting periods after January 31, 1991, in excess of the amount specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) and any amounts determined by the administrator to be necessary to provide for any of the purposes specified in paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive, of subdivision (k) and, if the Treasurer has borrowed money pursuant to Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 8670.53.1) and principal, interest, premium, fees, charges, or costs of any kind imposed in connection with those borrowings remain outstanding or unpaid, any amounts the Treasurer has certified to the administrator are required for the purposes specified in paragraph (7) of subdivision (k). The board, as directed by the administrator and in accordance with Section 46653 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, shall refund the excess amount of fees collected to each feepayer who paid the fee to the state, in proportion to the amount that each feepayer paid into the fund during the preceding 12 monthly reporting periods in which there was a fee due, including the month in which the fund exceeded the specified amount, and only for those periods which commenced on or after January 31, 1991. If the total amount of money in the fund exceeds the amount specified in this subdivision by 10 percent or less, refunds need not be ordered by the administrator. Nothing in this section shall require the refund of excess fees as provided in this subdivision more frequently than once each year.

(2) Any amount of fees collected in excess of the specified amount for periods prior to February 1, 1991, shall be refunded as follows:

(A) First, to feepayers who paid oil spill response fees under subdivision (d) or (e) of Section 8670.48 of the Government Code as added by Chapter 1248 of the Statutes of 1990.

(B) Second, to feepayers in proportion to the amount each feepayer paid into the fund for the period from September 24, 1990, to January 31, 1991, inclusive, less any amounts refunded pursuant to paragraph (1).

(j) The board shall collect the fee and adopt regulations implementing the fee collection program. All fees collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Oil Spill Response Trust Fund.

(k) The fee described in this section shall be collected solely for any of the following purposes:

(1) To provide funds to cover promptly the costs of response, containment, and cleanup of oil spills into marine waters, including damage assessment costs, and wildlife rehabilitation as provided in Section 8670.61.5.

(2) To provide emergency loans and to cover response and cleanup costs and other damages suffered by the state or other persons or entities from oil spills into marine waters which cannot otherwise be compensated by responsible parties or the federal government.

(3) To pay claims for damages pursuant to Section 8670.51.

(4) To pay claims for damages, except for damages described in paragraph (7) of subdivision (g) of Section 8670.56.5, pursuant to Section 8670.51.1.

(5) To pay for the arrangement of fifty million dollars ($50,000,000), adjusted for inflation, of financial security as authorized by subdivision (p).

(6) To pay indemnity and related costs and expenses as authorized by Section 8670.56.6.

(7) To pay principal, interest, premium, if any, and fees, charges, and costs of any kind imposed in connection with funds borrowed pursuant to Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 8670.53.1).

(l) The interest that the state earns on the funds deposited into the Oil Spill Response Trust Fund shall be deposited in the fund and shall be used to maintain the fund at the designated amount. Interest earned for three years commencing on July 1, 1994, on funds deposited pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) in the Oil Spill Response Trust Fund, as determined jointly by the Controller and the Director of Finance, shall be available upon appropriation by the Legislature in the Budget Act, to establish rescue and rehabilitation stations for oiled wildlife as described in Section 8670.37.5. Interest earned on the financial security portion of the fund, pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (h), shall not be available for this purpose. If the fund exceeds the designated amount, the interest not needed to bring the fund to the designated amount shall be deposited into the Oil Spill Prevention and Administration Fund.

(m) The Legislature finds and declares that effective response to oil spills requires that the state have available sufficient funds in a response fund. The Legislature further finds and declares that maintenance of that fund is of utmost importance to the state and that the moneys in the fund shall be used solely for the purposes specified in subdivision (k).

(n) For the purposes of this section, "marine waters" includes the waterways used for waterborne commercial vessel traffic to the Port of Stockton and the Port of Sacramento.

(o) It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this section, that the fee shall not be imposed by a refiner, or a person or entity acting as an agent for a refiner, on crude oil produced by an independent crude oil producer.

(p) The Treasurer shall purchase fifty million dollars ($50,000,000), adjusted for inflation, of financial security which may be drawn upon immediately by the administrator upon making the determinations as required by Section 8670.49. The financial security shall be in a form as described in subdivision (a) of Section 8670.53.3.

(q) Nothing in this section limits the authority of the administrator to raise the oil spill response fees pursuant to Section 8670.48.5 of the Government Code.

SEC. 3. Section 8670.48.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8670.48.5. (a) The administrator may raise the fees specified in Section 8670.48 to a maximum of one dollar ($1) per barrel, provided that the fee may only be raised by maximum increments of twenty-five cents ($0.25) not more frequently than once every three months. The administrator shall raise the fee only upon making the following findings:

(1) A calamitous or unforeseen event, or series of events, has severely depleted or exhausted, or will severely deplete or exhaust, the fund.

(2) The Governor has requested the Treasurer to borrow the funds and the Treasurer finds that the fee is insufficient for the Treasurer to borrow enough money to meet the reasonably anticipated demands on the fund for authorized expenditures, including providing funds for the costs of response, containment, and cleanup of oil spills, damage assessment costs, wildlife rehabilitation, emergency loans, and damage claims, or the Treasurer has previously borrowed funds pursuant to the Governor's request, and the Treasurer finds that the fee is insufficient to repay and secure existing borrowings.

(3) Failure to raise the fee in the amount proposed will result in unmet, or unpaid, authorized expenditures.

(b) At least 30 days prior to the day the increased fee shall be effective, the administrator shall inform the Legislature of his or her intent to raise the fee.

(c) A single, incremental increase shall be effective until the later of (1) the delivery by the Treasurer of a certificate to the administrator as authorized by subdivision (e) of Section 8670.53.3 or (2) the expiration date established by the administrator not to exceed one year. The increase may be renewed by the administrator before its expiration upon making the findings required by subdivision (a).

(d) It is the intent of the Legislature that the fund shall not be used for any purpose other than those set forth in this chapter.

SEC. 4. Section 8670.49 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8670.49. (a) Except to pay for the arrangement of the financial security as authorized by paragraph (5) of subdivision (k) and subdivision (p) of Section 8670.48, the administrator may only expend money from the fund if a discharge of oil into marine waters has occurred and the following determinations have been made:

(1) Except as authorized by Section 8670.51.1, a responsible party does not exist or the responsible party is unable or unwilling to provide adequate and timely cleanup and to pay for the damages resulting from the spill. The administrator shall make a reasonable effort to have the party responsible remove the oil or agree to pay for any actions resulting from the spill that may be required by law, provided that the efforts are not detrimental to fish, plant, animal, or bird life in the affected waters. The reasonable effort of the administrator shall include attempting to access the responsible parties' insurance or other proof of financial responsibility.

(2) Federal oil spill funds are not available or will not be available in an adequate period of time. Notwithstanding this subdivision, the administrator may expend money from the fund for authorized expenditures when a reimbursement procedure is in place to receive reimbursements from federal oil spill funds.

(b) Upon making the determinations specified in subdivision (a), the administrator shall immediately make whatever payments are necessary for responding to, containing, or cleaning up, the spill, including any wildlife rehabilitation required by law and payment of claims pursuant to Sections 8670.51 and 8670.51.1.

SEC. 4.5. Section 8670.49 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8670.49. (a) Except to pay for the arrangement of the financial security as authorized by paragraph (5) of subdivision (k) and subdivision (p) of Section 8670.48 and to pay for the construction and initial equipping of rescue and rehabilitation facilities from interest earned on funds deposited in the fund as authorized by subdivision (l) of Section 8670.48, the administrator may only expend money from the fund if a discharge of oil into marine waters has occurred and the following determinations have been made:

(1) Except as authorized by Section 8670.51.1, a responsible party does not exist or the responsible party is unable or unwilling to provide adequate and timely cleanup and to pay for the damages resulting from the spill. The administrator shall make a reasonable effort to have the party responsible remove the oil or agree to pay for any actions resulting from the spill that may be required by law, provided that the efforts are not detrimental to fish, plant, animal, or bird life in the affected waters. The reasonable effort of the administrator shall include attempting to access the responsible parties' insurance or other proof of financial responsibility.

(2) Federal oil spill funds are not available or will not be available in an adequate period of time. Notwithstanding this subdivision, the administrator may expend money from the fund for authorized expenditures when a reimbursement procedure is in place to receive reimbursements from federal oil spill funds.

(b) Upon making the determinations specified in subdivision (a), the administrator shall immediately make whatever payments are necessary for responding to, containing, or cleaning up, the spill, including any wildlife rehabilitation required by law and payment of claims pursuant to Sections 8670.51 and 8670.51.1.

SEC. 5. Section 8670.51.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8670.51.1. (a) (1) Upon learning of an oil spill, the administrator shall immediately designate the responsible party, who, if that designation is not challenged, shall immediately, widely advertise the manner in which it shall accept and pay claims.

(2) If the designation of the administrator is challenged, the administrator shall immediately, widely advertise the manner in which he or she shall accept, process, and pay claims. If the administrator's designation is later upheld, all costs incurred by the administrator, including interest and appropriate penalties, shall be assessed against the responsible party.

(3) If the administrator is unable to designate a responsible party, the administrator shall immediately, widely advertise the manner in which the administrator shall accept, process, and pay claims. In the absence of a designated responsible party the claimant shall submit his or her claim to the federal fund. If there is no response within 60 days, the claimant may submit his or her claim to the fund.

(b) Claims under the amount of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) may be submitted directly to the fund. The claimant shall not be required to make a demand on the responsible party or any federal fund. It is the intent of the Legislature that these claims be processed as expeditiously as possible, and the administrator shall contract with professional adjusters to handle the claims as fairly and professionally as possible. Claimants shall assign or subrogate all rights against the responsible party to the fund before payment and release.

(c) Claims in excess of the amount of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) shall first be presented to the designated responsible party for payment. If a satisfactory response is not forthcoming within 60 days, the claimant shall submit his or her claim to the appropriate federal fund. If a satisfactory response is not forthcoming from the appropriate federal fund within 60 days, the claimant may submit the claim to the fund. If the administrator does not designate a responsible party, the claim shall be submitted directly to the appropriate federal fund.

(d) (1) If the federal fund completely rejects a claim, makes a partial offer, or the claimant rejects an offer, the claimant may, nevertheless, apply for reimbursement from the fund, provided that all evidence developed during the federal fund process shall be admissible during the processing of the claim. The administrator shall specifically consider any federal offer.

(2) Any federal payment shall be offset against any payment from the fund.

(3) The claimant shall assign or subrogate all rights under federal law to the fund. Any payment of claims from the fund shall require assignment or subrogation of the claimant's rights under state law to the fund.

(e) The administrator may levy fines against frivolous claims pursuant to Section 128.5 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(f) Entities that pay into the fund shall have no standing to contest claims against the fund for claims less than one million dollars ($1,000,000). The entities may petition the administrator to have standing for claims between one million dollars ($1,000,000) and three million dollars ($3,000,000). The entities shall have standing for claims in excess of three million dollars ($3,000,000).

(g) An advisory committee comprised of entities that pay into the fund and other interested parties shall be created and the administrator shall consult with the committee on the manner in which payments are made from the fund.

(h) Claims for reimbursement from the fund shall be made within three years from the date the loss occurred.

(i) Dissatisfied claimants may sue the fund within six months of the administrator's final decision regarding a claim.

(j) The administrator shall develop and adopt regulations regarding the manner in which claims shall be required to be submitted, processed, heard, and challenged.

(k) Punitive damages shall not be paid from the fund.

SEC. 6. Section 8670.59 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8670.59. (a) Any civil action brought pursuant to this chapter or Division 7.8 (commencing with Section 8750) of the Public Resources Code, shall be brought in the county in which the spill, discharge, or violation occurred, the county in which the principal place of business of the defendant is located, or the county in which the defendant is doing business in this state.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, all criminal misdemeanor violations of this chapter and Division 7.8 (commencing with Section 8750) of the Public Resources Code shall be commenced within one year of the discovery of the facts or circumstances which constitute the violation.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, except as provided in subdivision (d), any action to recover civil damages or penalties shall be commenced within three years from the date of discovery of the facts or circumstances which constitute a violation of this chapter or Division 7.8 (commencing with Section 8750) of the Public Resources Code.

(d) Any action to recover civil damages or penalties pursuant to paragraph (3), (4), (5), (6), or (7) of subdivision (g) of Section 8670.56.5 because of effects on natural resources shall be commenced within five years from the date of the discovery of the facts or circumstances which are the basis for the cause of action.

(e) Any action to compel the removal of oil or the restoration and rehabilitation of wildlife and wildlife habitat shall be commenced within five years from the date of discovery of the facts or circumstances which constitute a violation of this chapter or Division 7.8 (commencing with Section 8750) of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 7. Section 8750 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

8750. Unless the context requires otherwise, the following definitions govern the construction of this division:

(a) "Administrator" means the administrator for oil spill response appointed by the Governor pursuant to Section 8670.4 of the Government Code.

(b) "Barges" means any vessel that carries oil in commercial quantities as cargo but is not equipped with a means of self-propulsion.

(c) (1) "Best achievable protection" means the highest level of protection which can be achieved through both the use of the best achievable technology and those manpower levels, training procedures, and operational methods which provide the greatest degree of protection achievable. The administrator's determination of best achievable protection shall be guided by the critical need to protect valuable coastal resources and marine waters, while also considering (A) the protection provided by the measures, (B) the technological achievability of the measures, and (C) the cost of the measures.

(2) It is not the intent of the Legislature that the administrator use a cost-benefit or cost-effectiveness analysis or any particular method of analysis in determining which measures to require. Instead, it is the intent of the Legislature that the administrator give reasonable consideration to the protection provided by the measures, the technological achievability of the measures, and the cost of the measures when establishing the requirements to provide the best achievable protection for coastal and marine resources.

(d) "Best achievable technology" means that technology which provides the greatest degree of protection taking into consideration (1) processes which are being developed, or could feasibly be developed anywhere in the world, given overall reasonable expenditures on research and development, and (2) processes which are currently in use anywhere in the world. In determining what is best achievable technology, the administrator shall consider the effectiveness and engineering feasibility of the technology.

(e) "Commission" means the State Lands Commission.

(f) "Local government" means any chartered or general law city, chartered or general law county or any city and county.

(g) "Marine facility" means any facility of any kind, other than a vessel, which is or was used for the purposes of exploring for, drilling for, producing, storing, handling, transferring, processing, refining, or transporting oil and is located in marine waters, or is located where a discharge could impact marine waters unless the facility (1) is subject to Chapter 6.67 (commencing with Section 25270) or Chapter 6.75 (commencing with Section 25299.10) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code or (2) is placed on a farm, nursery, logging site, or construction site and does not exceed 20,000 gallons in a single storage tank. For the purposes of this division, a drill ship, semisubmersible drilling platform, jack-up type drilling rig, or any other floating or temporary drilling platform is a "marine facility." For the purposes of this division, a small craft refueling dock is not a "marine facility."

(h) "Marine terminal" means any marine facility used for transferring oil to or from tankers or barges. For the purposes of this section, a marine terminal includes all piping not integrally connected to a tank facility as defined in subdivision (k) of Section 25270.2 of the Health and Safety Code.

(i) "Marine waters" means those waters subject to tidal influence, except for waters in the Sacramento-San Joaquin Rivers and Delta upstream from a line running north and south through the point where Contra Costa, Sacramento, and Solano Counties meet.

(j) "Nonpersistent oil" means a petroleum-based oil, such as gasoline, diesel, or jet fuel, which evaporated relatively quickly. Specifically, it is an oil with hydrocarbon fractions, at least 50 percent of which, by volume, distills at a temperature of 645 Fahrenheit, and at least 95 percent of which, by volume, distills at a temperature of 700 Fahrenheit.

(k) "Oil" means any kind of petroleum, liquid hydrocarbons, or petroleum products or any fraction or residues therefrom, including, but not limited to, crude oil, bunker fuel, gasoline, diesel fuel, aviation fuel, oil sludge, oil refuse, oil mixed with waste, and liquid distillates from unprocessed natural gas.

(l) "Onshore facility" means any facility of any kind which is located entirely on lands not covered by marine waters.

(m) "Operator" when used in connection with vessels, marine terminals, pipelines, or facilities, means any person or entity which owns, has an ownership interest in, charters, leases, rents, operates, participates in the operation of or uses that vessel, terminal, pipeline, or facility. "Operator" does not include any entity which owns the land underlying the facility or the facility itself, where the entity is not involved in the operations of the facility.

(n) "Person" means an individual, trust, firm, joint stock company, or corporation, including, but not limited to, a government corporation, partnership, and association. "Person" also includes any city, county, city and county, district, and the state or any department or agency thereof, and the federal government, or any department or agency thereof, to the extent permitted by law.

(o) "Pipeline" means any pipeline used at any time to transport oil.

(p) "Responsible party" or "party responsible" means either of the following:

(1) The owner or transporter of oil or a person or entity accepting responsibility for the oil.

(2) The owner, operator, or lessee of, or person who charters by demise, any vessel or marine facility or a person or entity accepting responsibility for the vessel or marine facility.

(q) "Small craft refueling dock" means a fixed facility having tank storage capacity not exceeding 20,000 gallons in any single storage tank and that dispenses nonpersistent oil to small craft.

(r) "Spill" or "discharge" means any release of at least one barrel (42 gallons) of oil not authorized by any federal, state, or local government entity.

(s) "State oil spill contingency plan" means the state oil spill contingency plan prepared pursuant to Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 8574.1) of Chapter 7 of Division 1 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(t) "Tanker" means any self-propelled, waterborne vessel, constructed or adapted for the carriage of oil in bulk or in commercial quantities as cargo.

(u) "Vessel" means a tanker or barge as defined in this section.

SEC. 8. Section 46012 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

46012. "Designated amount" means an amount equal to one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000), adjusted for inflation after January 1, 1991, subject to the following:

(a) Fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) shall be retained in the Oil Spill Response Trust Fund as cash, adjusted for inflation.

(b) Fifty million dollars ($50,000,000), adjusted for inflation, shall be accessible in the Oil Spill Response Trust Fund in the form of financial security obtained by the Treasurer.

SEC. 9. Section 46054 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

46054. (a) Whenever the administrator, in consultation with the board, estimates that the amount in the Oil Spill Response Trust Fund, collected pursuant to Section 46052, will reach the amount specified in subdivision (a) of Section 46012, and the money in that fund is not required for the purposes specified in subdivision (k) of Section 8670.48 of the Government Code, the board shall notify the feepayers that, as of the first of the month following the notification, the fee will not be imposed. In no event shall the fee cease to be imposed if the Treasurer has borrowed money pursuant to Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 8670.53.1) of Chapter 7.4 of Division 1 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and principal, interest, premium, fees, charges, or costs of any kind imposed in connection with those borrowings remain outstanding or unpaid, unless the Treasurer has certified to the administrator that the continued imposition of the fee is not required for the purposes specified in paragraph (7) of subdivision (k) of Section 8670.48 of the Government Code.

(b) Whenever the fee has ceased to be imposed in accordance with subdivision (a) and the administrator, in consultation with the board, determines that either (1) the amount in the Oil Spill Response Trust Fund is less than or equal to 95 percent of the amount specified in subdivision (a) of Section 46012, or (2) additional money is required for the purposes specified in subdivision (k) of Section 8670.48 of the Government Code, the board shall notify the feepayers that, as of the first of the month following the notification, the fee will be imposed.

SEC. 10. Section 46653 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

46653. Whenever the total amount in the Oil Spill Response Trust Fund, collected pursuant to Section 46052, exceeds the total of the amount specified in subdivision (a) of Section 46012 and any amounts determined by the administrator to be necessary to provide for the purposes specified in paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive, of subdivision (k) of Section 8670.48 of the Government Code and, if the Treasurer has borrowed money pursuant to Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 8670.53.1) of Chapter 7.4 of Division 1 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and principal, interest, premium, fees, charges, or costs of any kind imposed in connection with those borrowings remain outstanding or unpaid, any amounts the Treasurer has certified to the administrator are required for the purposes of paragraph (7) of subdivision (k) of Section 8670.48 of the Government Code, the administrator shall direct the board to provide refunds of the excess money. The board, as directed by the administrator, shall refund the excess money in that fund to each person who paid the fee to the state in proportion to the amount that person paid into the fund during the preceding 12 monthly reporting periods in which there was a fee due, including the month in which the fund exceeded the amount specified in subdivision (a) of Section 46012. If the amount of money in the fund exceeds the amount specified in this section by 10 percent or less, refunds need not be ordered by the administrator. Nothing in this section shall require the refund of excess fees more frequently than once each year.

SEC. 11. The sum of one million dollars ($1,000,000) is hereby appropriated from the Oil Spill Prevention and Administration Fund to the administrator for oil spill response for purposes of making a loan to the Marine Exchange of Los Angeles-Long Beach Harbor, Inc., as designated in Article 4 (commencing with Section 445) of Chapter 1 of Division 3 of the Harbors and Navigation Code, to establish an interim Vessel Traffic Service (VTS) system for the ports of Los Angeles and Long Beach in order to provide for implementation of the VTS system authorized by Section 8670.21 of the Government Code. The loan shall be repaid, commencing with the 1994–95 fiscal year, in five equal annual installments with interest on the outstanding balance at the rate equal to that earned by the Pooled Money Investment Fund. The loan shall be repaid from fees imposed by the ports of Los Angeles and Long Beach to fund the interim VTS system, as authorized by paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 8670.21 of the Government Code, resale of any purchased equipment, and any fees imposed on the maritime industry by the administrator, as authorized by subdivision (c) of Section 8670.21 of the Government Code. Any loan proceeds that are not encumbered for the purpose of establishing the interim VTS system within one year from the date of the loan, as determined by the administrator, shall revert to the Oil Spill Prevention and Administration Fund.

SEC. 12. Of the money appropriated to the Department of Fish and Game from the Oil Spill Prevention and Administration Fund for local assistance by Item 3600-101-320 of the Budget Act of 1993 (Chapter 55 of the Statutes of 1993), the department may transfer any estimated savings to the money appropriated to the department from the fund for support of the department by Item 3600-001-320 of the Budget Act of 1993, to provide for an interagency agreement with the California Coastal Commission to review oil spill contingency plans, as required pursuant to Section 8670.36 of the Government Code.

SEC. 13. Section 2.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 8670.48 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and SB 775. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1994, but this bill becomes operative first, (2) each bill amends Section 8670.48 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 775, in which case Section 8670.48 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 2 of this bill, shall remain operative only until the operative date of SB 775, at which time Section 2.5 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 14. Section 4.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 8670.49 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and SB 775. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1994, but this bill becomes operative first, (2) each bill amends Section 8670.49 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 775, in which case Section 8670.49 of the Government Code, as amended by Section 4 of this bill, shall remain operative only until the operative date of SB 775, at which time Section 4.5 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 15. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to authorize the Treasurer to borrow funds in a timely and cost-effective manner in accordance with the Lempert-Keene-Seastrand Oil Spill Prevention and Response Act so as to ensure the ability of the state to adequately respond to oil spills, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1191

An act to amend Sections 116.550 and 1161.2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to courts.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares the following:

(a) In many counties within the State of California, unscrupulous eviction defense services utilize records of court filings in unlawful detainer cases to solicit and defraud tenants.

(b) In 1991, the Legislature enacted Senate Bill 892 as Chapter 1007 of the Statutes of 1991, which, among other things, amended Section 1161.2 of the Code of Civil Procedure to restrict public access to court files during the first 30 days after an unlawful detainer action is filed. As a pilot project, Senate Bill 892 was to be deemed a success if it reduced by 15 percent the number of false "Arrieta" claims or reduced by 15 percent the number of bankruptcy petitions filed while an unlawful detainer action was pending against the petitioner. As originally enacted the provisions of Section 1161.2 were limited to the municipal courts of the San Diego Judicial District and the Counties of Los Angeles, Orange, and Alameda.

(c) The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California and the Los Angeles Municipal Court, the courts most affected by the actions of unscrupulous eviction defense services, have demonstrated through statistical information that during its first year of operation Senate Bill 892 has meet both criteria to be determined a success. Significantly, in one county not subject to the provisions of Senate Bill 892, there has been an increase in bankruptcy petition filings for eviction delay purposes.

(d) Unscrupulous eviction defense services are still, however, able to gain access to unlawful detainer filings after the 30-day period and thereby continue to solicit and defraud California tenants. Both the United States Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals' Ad Hoc Committee on Unlawful Detainer and Bankruptcy Mills and the United States Attorney's Office have found that a 60-day ban on the release of unlawful detainer files would reduce access and result in fewer tenants being victimized by unscrupulous eviction defense services.

(e) A 60-day restriction on access to unlawful detainer filings affecting residential tenancies will significantly impede the ability of unscrupulous eviction defense services to continue their practice of defrauding tenants.

SEC. 2. Section 116.550 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

116.550. (a) If the court determines that a party does not speak or understand English sufficiently to comprehend the proceedings or give testimony, and needs assistance in so doing, the court may permit another individual (other than an attorney) to assist that party.

(b) Each small claims court shall make a reasonable effort to maintain and make available to the parties a list of interpreters who are able and willing to aid parties in small claims actions either for no fee, or for a fee which is reasonable considering the nature and complexity of the claims. The list shall include interpreters for all languages that require interpretation before the court, as determined by the court in its discretion and in view of the court's experience.

(c) Failure to maintain a list of interpreters, or failure to include an interpreter for a particular language, shall not invalidate any proceedings before the court.

(d) If a court interpreter or other competent interpreter is not available to aid a party in a small claims action, at the first hearing of the case the court shall postpone the hearing one time only to allow the party the opportunity to obtain another individual (other than an attorney) to assist that party. Any additional continuances shall be at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 3. Section 1161.2 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1161.2. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (g), in any case filed under this chapter, the clerk of a court shall not allow access to the court file, index, register of actions, or other court records until 60 days following the date the complaint is filed, except pursuant to an ex parte court order upon a showing of good cause therefor by any person including, but not limited to, a newspaper publisher. However, the clerk of the court shall allow access to the court file to a party in the action, an attorney of a party in the action, or any other person who (1) provides to the clerk the names of at least one plaintiff, one defendant, and the address, including the apartment, unit, or space number, if applicable, of the subject premises, or (2) provides to the clerk the name of one of the parties or the case number and can establish through proper identification that he or she resides at the subject premises.

(b) For purposes of this section "good cause" includes, but is not limited to, the gathering of newsworthy facts by a person described in Section 1070 of the Evidence Code. It is the intent of the Legislature that a simple procedure be established to request the ex parte order described in subdivision (a).

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (g), upon the filing of any case so restricted, the clerk of the municipal court shall mail notice to each defendant named in the action. The notice shall be mailed to the address provided in the complaint. The notice shall contain a statement that an unlawful detainer complaint (eviction action) has been filed naming that party as a defendant, and that access to the court file will be delayed for 60 days except to a party, an attorney for one of the parties, or any other person who (1) provides to the clerk the names of at least one plaintiff and one defendant in the action and provides to the clerk the address, including any applicable apartment, unit, or space number, of the subject premises, or (2) provides to the clerk the name of one of the parties in the action or the case number and can establish through proper identification that he or she lives at the subject premises. The notice shall also contain a statement that access to the court index, register of actions, or other records is not permitted until 60 days after the complaint is filed, except pursuant to an ex parte order upon a showing of good cause therefor. The notice shall contain on its face the name and phone number of the county bar association and the name and phone number of an office funded by the federal Legal Services Corporation which provides legal services to low-income persons in the county in which the action is filed. The notice shall state that these numbers may be called for legal advice regarding the case. The notice shall be issued between 24 and 48 hours of the filing of the complaint, excluding weekends and holidays. One copy of the notice shall be addressed to "all occupants" and mailed separately to the subject premises. The notice shall not constitute service of the summons and complaint.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the court shall, upon adoption of a resolution by the board of supervisors requiring such a fee, charge an additional fee for filing a first appearance by the plaintiff in an amount equal in the aggregate to the actual cost of complying with this section, but which shall not exceed a maximum of four dollars ($4). This fee shall be included as part of the total filing fee for actions filed under this chapter. Any such board resolution in effect on January 1, 1994, shall remain in effect until it is repealed.

(e) A municipal court, after consultation with local associations of rental property owners, tenant groups, and providers of legal services to tenants, may exempt itself from the operation of this section upon a finding that unscrupulous eviction defense services are not a substantial problem in the judicial district. The court shall review the finding every 12 months. An exempt court shall not charge the additional fee authorized in subdivision (d).

(f) The Judicial Council shall examine the extent to which requests for access to files pursuant to an ex parte order under subdivision (a) are granted or denied, and if denied, the reason for the denial of access.

(g) This section shall not apply to a case which seeks to terminate a mobilehome park tenancy if the statement of the character of the proceeding in the caption of the complaint clearly indicates that the complaint seeks termination of a mobilehome park tenancy.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1192

An act to amend Sections 1161, 1163, 1164, 1166, 1167, and 1190 of the Harbors and Navigation Code, relating to pilotage.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1161 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1161. All amounts generated by the pension plan shall be used solely to pay pensions to retired pilots and inland pilots, disabled pilots and inland pilots, the surviving spouses of pilots and inland pilots, and to pay the expenses of the plan.

SEC. 2. Section 1163 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1163. (a) (1) (A) Each retired pilot and inland pilot, who has completed 25 full years of service as a pilot or inland pilot, or both, shall receive, as a target monthly pension, an amount that is initially equal to 46 percent of an amount which is an average of the highest three of the last five years of audited annual average net income per pilot, prior to the pilot's or inland pilot's retirement, divided by 12, which initial target monthly pension amount shall be subject to periodic adjustment pursuant to Section 1167. Pilots or inland pilots with other than 25 full years of service as a pilot or inland pilot, or both, shall receive a monthly pension in an amount that is determined by multiplying the above calculated target monthly pension by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of full years of service that the pilot or inland pilot has rendered, and the denominator of which shall be 25 years, which initial monthly pension amount shall be subject to periodic adjustment pursuant to Section 1167.

(B) Each disabled pilot or inland pilot shall receive as an initial target monthly pension an amount that is based on 46 percent of the greater of the following, which amount shall be subject to periodic adjustment pursuant to Section 1167:

(i) An amount that is the average of the highest three of the last five years of audited annual average net income per pilot or inland pilot divided by 12 and multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of full years of service that the pilot or inland pilot has rendered, and the denominator of which shall be 25 years.

(ii) The audited annual average net income, per pilot, for the last year prior to the pilot's or inland pilot's disability, divided by 12 and multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of full years of service that the pilot or inland pilot has rendered, and the denominator of which shall be 25 years.

(C) Each pilot who retired before January 1, 1985, shall receive as an initial target monthly pension an amount that is one hundred seventy-eight dollars ($178) multiplied by the number of full years of service he or she performed as a pilot licensed under this division, which amount shall be subject to periodic adjustment pursuant to Section 1167.

(D) Each pilot who retired on or after January 1, 1985, or each inland pilot who retired after January 1, 1993, shall receive as an initial target monthly pension an amount that is the greater of the following, which amount shall be subject to periodic adjustment pursuant to Section 1167:

(i) An amount that is calculated by multiplying one hundred seventy-eight dollars ($178) by the number of full years of service the pilot or inland pilot performed as a pilot or inland pilot licensed under this division.

(ii) An amount that is 46 percent of the average of the highest three of the last five years of audited annual average net income per pilot or inland pilot, prior to the pilot's or inland pilot's retirement, divided by 12 and multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the pilot's or inland pilot's actual number of full years of service and the denominator of which is 25 years.

(2) A pilot or inland pilot who retires or becomes disabled shall not begin to receive a pension until the beginning of the benefit payment period next following the date on which the pilot or inland pilot retires or becomes disabled.

(3) A pilot or inland pilot shall not receive any benefits pursuant to the pension plan in any benefit payment period unless the pilot's or inland pilot's resignation as an active pilot or inland pilot specifying a proposed date of retirement was submitted, in writing, to the board, prior to November if the pilot's or inland pilot's retirement is to be effective the first day of the following January, prior to February if the pilot's or inland pilot's retirement is to be effective the first day of the following April, prior to May if the pilot's or inland pilot's retirement is to be effective the first day of the following July, or prior to August if the pilot's or inland pilot's retirement is to be effective the first day of the following October. The pilot's or inland pilot's resignation as an active pilot or inland pilot shall become effective on either January 1, April 1, July 1, or October 1, as specified in the written resignation.

(4) If a retired or disabled pilot or inland pilot who is receiving a pension dies without a surviving spouse, the pilot's or inland pilot's successor in interest shall receive the monthly pension for the remainder of the benefit payment period within which the death occurs, after which time the monthly pension shall cease.

(b) (1) The surviving spouse of a deceased pilot who is eligible for a pension pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 1164 and the surviving spouse of a deceased inland pilot who is eligible for a pension pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (e) of Section 1164 shall each receive, as a monthly pension, three-fourths of the amount that the deceased pilot or inland pilot would have received as a monthly pension pursuant to this section had the pilot or inland pilot lived, calculated as if the deceased pilot or inland pilot had been disabled pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(2) If a retired or disabled pilot or inland pilot, who was receiving a pension, dies, the surviving spouse shall continue to receive the full amount of the monthly pension to which the deceased pilot or inland pilot was entitled for the balance of the benefit payment period within which the death occurs, after which the surviving spouse shall receive the amount specified in paragraph (1).

(3) If a surviving spouse receiving a pension dies, the surviving spouse's successor in interest shall receive the monthly pension for the remainder of the benefit payment period within which the death occurs, after which time the monthly pension shall cease.

(c) For the purpose of the computations described in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), six months or more of service by a pilot or inland pilot shall be considered a full year.

(d) Except as provided otherwise in this section and paragraph (4) of subdivision (e) of Section 1164, monthly pension amounts payable pursuant to this section to retired pilots and inland pilots and to their surviving spouses are payable for the life of that retired pilot, inland pilot, or spouse.

(e) To determine an inland pilot's full years of service under this chapter, any periods of service that an inland pilot has performed as a pilot shall be added to any service time performed as an inland pilot after January 1, 1993.

SEC. 3. Section 1164 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1164. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), a pilot shall be eligible for the pension provided in Section 1163 if the pilot meets all of the following requirements:

(1) Held a license as a pilot and served at least 10 years in that capacity or has attained 62 years of age, whichever occurs first.

(2) Retired after January 1, 1972.

(3) Is at least 60 years of age.

(b) A disabled pilot shall be eligible for the pension provided in Section 1163 if it has been determined by the board, based upon competent medical evidence, that the pilot is unable to perform the duties of a pilot. As used in this chapter, "disabled" means a disability of permanent or extended and uncertain duration, as determined by the board, on the basis of competent medical opinion.

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (d), an inland pilot shall be eligible for the pension provided in Section 1163 if the inland pilot meets all of the following requirements:

(1) Held a license as an inland pilot and served at least 10 years in that capacity after January 1, 1993, or has attained 62 years of age, whichever occurs first.

(2) Retired after January 1, 1993.

(3) Is at least 60 years of age.

(4) Since January 1, 1991, has held himself or herself out as providing pilotage assistance to the entire shipping industry consistent with the inland pilot's license.

(5) For services provided after January 1, 1994, performs a minimum of 75 assignments per calender year unless excused from performance of that requirement due to medical needs satisfactory to the board.

(d) A disabled inland pilot who meets the requirements of paragraph (4) of subdivision (c) shall be eligible for the pension provided in Section 1163 if it has been determined by the board, based upon competent medical evidence, that the inland pilot is unable to perform the duties of an inland pilot.

(e) (1) A surviving spouse of a deceased pilot shall be eligible for the pension provided in subdivision (b) of Section 1163 if that deceased pilot died after January 1, 1972, and that deceased pilot had held a license as a pilot.

(2) A surviving spouse of a deceased inland pilot shall be eligible for the pension provided in subdivision (b) of Section 1163 if the deceased inland pilot died after January 1, 1993, had held a license as an inland pilot, and since January 1, 1991, had held himself or herself out as providing pilotage assistance to the entire shipping industry consistent with the inland pilot's license.

(3) In order for a surviving spouse to be eligible for any pension benefits pursuant to this chapter, the surviving spouse shall have been legally married to the deceased pilot or inland pilot for at least one year prior to the deceased pilot's or inland pilot's death.

(4) A surviving spouse of a deceased pilot or inland pilot shall neither be eligible for, nor receive, pension benefits pursuant to this chapter if the surviving spouse remarries. If a surviving spouse who is receiving a monthly pension under this chapter remarries, the surviving spouse's successor in interest shall receive the amount of the monthly pension for the remainder of the benefit payment period as if the surviving spouse had died, in accordance with paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of Section 1163.

SEC. 4. Section 1166 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1166. (a) The benefits actually paid out each month by the fiduciary agent or agents designated by the board to all retired and disabled pilots and inland pilots, to surviving spouses of deceased pilots and inland pilots, and to successors in interest shall be equal to the revenue received pursuant to Section 1165 during the preceding month less the expenses of the fiduciary agent or agents incurred during that month. The revenue, whether greater or less than the amount used in determining the tonnage rates under this chapter to provide the aggregate target pensions to which those persons are entitled according to Section 1163, shall be paid to each of them in proportion to the relative target amounts to which they are entitled, after payment of the expenses of the fiduciary agent or agents.

(b) Revenues for any month or year are the amounts to be received pursuant to the pension plan for pilotage during that month or year. The fiduciary agent or agents shall determine which accounting system shall be used to make the payment, provided that, if the accrual method is used, it shall be subject to later equitable adjustments for unpaid receivables.

(c) Benefits pursuant to the new rate calculations shall be paid commencing in February, May, August, and November of each year and shall continue through, and include, the next following April, July, October, and January, respectively, so that each benefit pension period equals three months of payments. The period during which benefits are paid is the benefit payment period.

SEC. 5. Section 1167 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1167. (a) The board shall review the benefits received by retired or disabled pilots and inland pilots and their surviving spouses every three years or when the cumulative percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index (San Francisco Bay Area) has exceeded 12 percent, whichever occurs first.

(b) The board may increase the monthly pensions specified in Section 1163. Those increases shall take into consideration the maritime industry practice in the United States as brought to the attention of the board by the pilots, inland pilots, or the industry. The increase shall not exceed 50 percent of the cumulative increase in the Consumer Price Index (San Francisco Bay Area). Monthly pensions for retired pilots, inland pilots, or their surviving spouses who have been retired less than the full three-year interval between adjustments shall increase on a pro rata basis according to the number of months that those persons have been retired prior to that adjustment.

SEC. 6. Section 1190 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1190. (a) Every vessel spoken inward or outward bound, shall pay the following rate of bar pilotage through the Golden Gate and into or out of the Bays of San Francisco, San Pablo, and Suisun:

(1) Seven dollars and thirty-five cents ($7.35) per draft foot of the vessel's deepest draft and fractions of a foot pro rata, and an additional charge of 60.70 mills per high gross registered ton.

(A) This additional charge of 60.70 mills may be augmented by an incremental rate of 0.78 additional mill for each pilot appointed by the board in excess of 60 pilots.

(B) In addition to the rate augmentation specified in subparagraph (A), the additional charge of 60.70 mills per high gross registered ton shall be adjusted quarterly effective on April 1, July 1, October 1, and January 1 of each year based solely upon a quarterly recalculation of actual gross registered tonnage made during the quarter preceding the effective date of change, based upon the most recent four quarters' traffic volume. This quarterly adjustment shall be calculated by the fiduciary selected by the board pursuant to Section 1162. The fiduciary shall determine the quarterly adjusted rate by a calculation wherein the total revenue to be generated by the mill rate, as approved by the board at a public hearing on June 5, 1992, pursuant to Section 1201.6, is the dividend and the total of the actual gross registered tonnage from the four most recent quarters preceding the quarter ending immediately before the effective date of the adjustment is the divisor. The resultant quotient, calculated to the nearest one-hundredth of a mill, shall be the new mill rate effective on the first day of the succeeding quarter and will remain in effect for that quarter or until otherwise adjusted.

(2) A minimum charge for bar pilotage shall be six hundred dollars ($600) for each vessel piloted.

(3) The vessel's deepest draft shall be the maximum draft attained, on a stillwater basis, at any part of the vessel during the course of such transit inward or outward.

(b) The rate specified in subdivision (a) shall apply only to a pilotage which passes through the Golden Gate to or from the high seas to or from a berth within an area bounded by the Southern Pacific Bridge to the north and Hunter's Point to the south. The rate for pilotage to or from the high seas to or from a point past the Southern Pacific Bridge or Hunter's Point shall include a movement fee in addition to the basic bar pilotage rate as specified by the board pursuant to Section 1191.

(c) The rate established in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) shall be for a trip from the high seas to dock or from the dock to high seas. The rate specified in Section 1191 shall not be charged by pilots for docking and undocking vessels. This subdivision does not apply to the rates charged by inland pilots for their services.

(d) The board shall determine the number of pilots to be licensed based on the 1986 manpower study adopted by the board.

CHAPTER 1193

An act to amend Sections 53312.7, 53313.5, 53313.7, 53316.2, 53327, 53338, 53340.2, 53341.5, 53345.8, and 53359.5 of, and to add Section 53359.7 to, the Government Code, relating to local agencies.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 53312.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53312.7. (a) On and after January 1, 1994, a local agency may initiate proceedings to establish a district pursuant to this chapter only if it has first considered and adopted local goals and policies concerning the use of this chapter. The policies shall include at least the following:

(1) A statement of the priority that various kinds of public facilities shall have for financing through the use of this chapter, including public facilities to be owned and operated by other public agencies, including school districts.

(2) A statement concerning the credit quality to be required of bond issues, including criteria to be used in evaluating the credit quality.

(3) A statement concerning steps to be taken to ensure that prospective property purchasers are fully informed about their taxpaying obligations imposed under this chapter.

(4) A statement concerning criteria for evaluating the equity of tax allocation formulas, and concerning desirable and maximum amounts of special tax to be levied against any parcel pursuant to this chapter.

(5) A statement of definitions, standards, and assumptions to be used in appraisals required by Section 53345.8.

(b) The goals and policies adopted by any school district pursuant to subdivision (a) shall include, but not be limited to, a priority access policy which gives priority attendance access to students residing in a community facilities district whose residents have paid special taxes which have, in whole or in part, financed the construction of school district facilities. The degree of priority shall reflect the proportion of each school's financing provided through the community facilities district. In developing a priority access policy for residents of a community facilities district, a school district may incorporate a school district attendance policy including criteria for student assignment such as goals to achieve ethnic, racial, or socioeconomic diversity; federal, state, or court mandates; transportation needs, safe pedestrian routes; grade levels for which facilities were designed; and ensuring students continuity of schooling within any single school year.

SEC. 2. Section 53313.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53313.5. A community facilities district may also finance the purchase, construction, expansion, improvement, or rehabilitation of any real or other tangible property with an estimated useful life of five years or longer or may finance planning and design work that is directly related to the purchase, construction, expansion, or rehabilitation of any real or tangible property. The facilities need not be physically located within the district. A district may not lease out facilities which it has financed except pursuant to a lease agreement or annexation agreement entered into prior to January 1, 1988. A district may only finance the purchase of facilities whose construction has been completed, as determined by the legislative body, before the resolution of formation to establish the district is adopted pursuant to Section 53325.1, except that a district may finance the purchase of facilities completed after the adoption of the resolution of formation if the facility was constructed as if it had been constructed under the direction and supervision, or under the authority of, the local agency. For example, a community facilities district may finance facilities, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) Local park, recreation, parkway, and open-space facilities.

(b) Elementary and secondary schoolsites and structures provided that the facilities meet the building area and cost standards established by the State Allocation Board.

(c) Libraries.

(d) Child care facilities, including costs of insuring the facilities against loss, liability insurance in connection with the operation of the facility, and other insurance costs relating to the operation of the facilities, but excluding all other operational costs. However, the proceeds of bonds issued pursuant to this chapter shall not be used to pay these insurance costs.

(e) The district may also finance the construction or undergrounding of water transmission and distribution facilities, natural gas pipeline facilities, telephone lines, facilities for the transmission or distribution of electrical energy, and cable television lines to provide access to those services to customers who do not have access to those services or to mitigate existing visual blight. The district may enter into an agreement with a public utility to utilize those facilities to provide a particular service and for the conveyance of those facilities to the public utility. "Public utility" shall include all utilities, whether public and regulated by the Public Utilities Commission, or municipal. If the facilities are conveyed to the public utility, the agreement shall provide that the cost or a portion of the cost of the facilities that are the responsibility of the utility shall be refunded by the public utility to the district or improvement area thereof, to the extent that refunds are applicable pursuant to (1) the Public Utilities Code or rules of the Public Utilities Commission, as to utilities regulated by the commission, or (2) other laws regulating public utilities. Any reimbursement made to the district shall be utilized to reduce or minimize the special tax levied within the district or improvement area, or to construct or acquire additional facilities within the district or improvement area, as specified in the resolution of formation.

(f) The district may also finance the acquisition, improvement, rehabilitation, or maintenance of any real or other tangible property, whether privately or publicly owned, for the purposes described in subdivision (e) of Section 53313.

(g) The district may also pay in full all amounts necessary to eliminate any fixed special assessment liens or to pay, repay, or defease any obligation to pay or any indebtedness secured by any tax, fee, charge, or assessment levied within the area of a community facilities district or may pay debt service on that indebtedness. In addition, tax revenues of a district may be used to make lease or debt service payments on any lease, lease purchase contract, or certificate of participation used to finance authorized district facilities.

(h) Any other governmental facilities which the legislative body creating the community facilities district is authorized by law to contribute revenue to, or construct, own, or operate. However, the district shall not operate or maintain or, except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (e) and (f), have any ownership interest in any facilities for the transmission or distribution of natural gas, telephone service, or electrical energy.

(i) (1) A district may also pay for the following:

(A) Work deemed necessary to bring buildings or real property, including privately owned buildings or real property, into compliance with seismic safety standards or regulations. Only work certified as necessary to comply with seismic safety standards or regulations by local building officials may be financed. No project involving the dismantling of an existing building and its replacement by a new building, nor the construction of a new or substantially new building may be financed pursuant to this subparagraph. Work on qualified historical buildings or structures shall be done in accordance with the State Historical Building Code (Part 2.7

(commencing with Section 18950) of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code).

(B) In addition, within any county or area designated by the President of the United States or by the Governor as a disaster area or for which the Governor has proclaimed the existence of a state of emergency because of earthquake damage, a district may also pay for any work deemed necessary to repair any damage to real property directly or indirectly caused by the occurrence of an earthquake cited in the President's or the Governor's designation or proclamation, or by aftershocks associated with that earthquake, including work to reconstruct, repair, shore up, or replace any building damaged or destroyed by the earthquake, and specifically including, but not limited to, work on any building damaged or destroyed in the Loma Prieta earthquake which occurred on October 17, 1989, or by its aftershocks. Work may be financed pursuant to this subparagraph only on property or buildings identified in a resolution of intention to establish a community facilities district adopted within seven years of the date on which the county or area is designated as a disaster area by the President or by the Governor or on which the Governor proclaims for the area the existence of a state of emergency.

(2) Work on privately owned property, including reconstruction or replacement of privately owned buildings pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1), may only be financed by a tax levy if all of the votes cast on the question of levying the tax, vote in favor of levying the tax, or with the prior written consent to the tax of the owners of all property which may be subject to the tax, in which case the prior written consent shall be deemed to constitute a vote in favor of the tax and any associated bond issue. Any district created to finance seismic safety work on privately owned buildings, including repair, reconstruction, or replacement of privately owned buildings pursuant to this subdivision, shall consist only of lots or parcels on which the legislative body finds that the buildings to be worked on, repaired, reconstructed, or replaced, pursuant to this subdivision, are located or were located before being damaged or destroyed by the earthquake cited pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) or by the aftershocks of that earthquake.

(j) (1) A district may also pay for the following:

(A) Work deemed necessary to repair and abate damage caused to privately owned buildings and structures by soil deterioration. "Soil deterioration" means a chemical reaction by soils that causes structural damage or defects in construction materials including concrete, steel, and ductile or cast iron. Only work certified as necessary by local building officials may be financed. No project involving the dismantling of an existing building or structure and its replacement by a new building or structure, nor the construction of a new or substantially new building or structure may be financed pursuant to this subparagraph.

(B) Work on privately owned buildings and structures pursuant to this subdivision, including reconstruction, repair, and abatement of damage caused by soil deterioration, may only be financed by a tax levy if all of the votes cast on the question of levying the tax vote in favor of levying the tax. Any district created to finance the work on privately owned buildings or structures, including reconstruction, repair, and abatement of damage caused by soil deterioration, shall consist only of lots or parcels on which the legislative body finds that the buildings or structures to be worked on pursuant to this subdivision suffer from soil deterioration.

SEC. 3. Section 53313.7 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53313.7. (a) Upon making the findings pursuant to Section 53313.6, the legislative body may, with the concurrence of the legislative body which levied the property tax described in subdivision (a) of Section 53313.6, by ordinance, determine that the total annual amount of ad valorem property tax revenue due from parcels within the proposed community facilities district, for purposes of paying principal and interest on the debt identified in Section 53313.6, shall not be increased after the date on which the resolution of formation for the community facilities district is adopted, or after a later date determined by the legislative body creating the community facilities district with the concurrence of the legislative body which levied the property tax in question.

(b) The legislative body may, by ordinance, with the concurrence of the legislative body that levied the property tax described in subdivision (a) of Section 53313.6, determine to cease and eliminate the freeze on property tax revenue established pursuant to subdivision (a), upon determining that the community facilities district's special tax or portion thereof levied on the parcels in question to pay for the capital facilities specified in subdivision (b) of Section 53313.6 shall cease to be levied and collected.

SEC. 4. Section 53316.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53316.2. (a) A community facilities district may finance facilities to be owned or operated by an entity other than the agency that created the district, or services to be provided by an entity other than the agency that created the district, or any combination, only pursuant to a joint community facilities agreement or a joint exercise of powers agreement adopted pursuant to this section.

(b) At any time prior to the adoption of the resolution of formation creating a community facilities district or a resolution of change to alter a district, the legislative bodies of two or more local agencies may enter into a joint community facilities agreement pursuant to this section and Sections 53316.4 and 53316.6 or into a joint exercise of powers agreement pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 7 of Title 1 to exercise any power authorized by this chapter with respect to the community facilities district being created or changed if the legislative body of each entity adopts a resolution declaring that such a joint agreement would be beneficial to the residents of that entity.

(c) Notwithstanding Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 6500) of Division 7 of Title 1, a contracting party may use the proceeds of any special tax or charge levied pursuant to this chapter or of any bonds or other indebtedness issued pursuant to this chapter to provide facilities or services which that contracting party is otherwise authorized by law to provide, even though another contracting party does not have the power to provide those facilities or services.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), nothing in this section shall prevent entry into or amendment of a joint community facilities agreement or a joint exercise of powers agreement, after adoption of a resolution of formation, if the new agreement or amendment is necessary, as determined by the legislative body, for either of the following reasons:

(1) To allow an orderly transition of governmental facilities and finances in the case of any change in governmental organization approved pursuant to the Cortese-Knox Local Government Reorganization Act of 1985 (Division 1 (commencing with Section 56000) of Title 6).

(2) To allow participation in the agreement by a state or federal agency that could or would not otherwise participate, including, but not limited to, the California Department of Transportation.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, no local agency which is party to a joint exercise of powers agreement or joint community facilities agreement shall have primary responsibility for formation of a district or an improvement area within a district, or for an extension of authorized facilities and services or a change in special taxes pursuant to Article 3, unless that local agency is one or more of the following:

(1) A city, a county, or a city and county.

(2) An agency created pursuant to a joint powers agreement that is separate from the parties to the agreement, is responsible for the administration of the agreement, and is subject to the notification requirement of Section 6503.5.

(3) An agency that is reasonably expected to have responsibility for providing facilities or services to be financed by a larger share of the proceeds of special taxes and bonds of the district or districts created or changed pursuant to the joint exercise of powers agreement or the joint community facilities agreement than any other local agency.

SEC. 5. Section 53327 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53327. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the provisions of law regulating elections of the local agency that calls an election pursuant to this chapter, insofar as they may be applicable, shall govern all elections conducted pursuant to this chapter. Except as provided in subdivision (b), there shall be prepared and included in the ballot material provided to each voter, an impartial analysis pursuant to Section 3781 or 5011 or 5321 of the Elections Code, and arguments and rebuttals, if any, pursuant to Sections 3782 to 3787, inclusive, and 3795 of the Elections Code or pursuant to Sections 5012 to 5016, inclusive, and 5025 of the Elections Code, or pursuant to Sections 5322 to 5328, inclusive, of the Elections Code, or pursuant to other provisions of law applicable to other special districts as appropriate.

(b) If the vote is to be by the landowners of the proposed district, analysis and arguments may be waived with the unanimous consent of all the landowners and shall be so stated in the order for the election. When the local agency is a school district and the vote is to be by the landowners of the proposed district, the school district's legislative body may authorize an official of the district to conduct the election, including preparation of analysis and compilation of arguments.

SEC. 6. Section 53338 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53338. (a) The hearing may be continued from time to time, but shall be completed within 30 days, except that if the legislative body finds that the complexity of the proposed changes or the need for public participation requires additional time, the hearing may be continued from time to time for a period not to exceed six months. At the conclusion of the hearing the legislative body may abandon the proceedings or may, after passing upon all protests, submit the question of levying a new special tax or of changing the rate or method of apportionment of an existing special tax or of changing the types of facilities and services to be financed by the district, or any combination, to the qualified electors of the district as specified in Article 2 (commencing with Section 53318).

(b) After the canvass of any election conducted pursuant to this section, the legislative body shall adopt a resolution of change determining that the proposed levy of a new special tax or of changes in the types of facilities and services to be financed by the district, or any combination, are lawfully authorized, if two-thirds of the votes cast on the proposition are in favor of the proposed levy or changes.

(c) Upon adoption of a resolution of change, the clerk of the legislative body shall record notice of the changes pursuant to Section 3117.5 of the Streets and Highways Code.

SEC. 7. Section 53340.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53340.2. (a) The legislative body levying the special tax shall designate an office, department, or bureau of the local agency which shall be responsible for annually preparing the current roll of special tax levy obligations by assessor's parcel number on nonexempt property within the district and which will be responsible for estimating future special tax levies. The designated office, department, or bureau shall establish procedures to promptly respond to inquiries concerning current and future estimated tax liability. Neither the designated office, department, or bureau, nor the legislative body, shall be liable if any estimate of future tax liability is inaccurate, nor for any failure of any seller to request a Notice of Special Tax or to provide the notice to a buyer.

(b) For purposes of enabling sellers of real property subject to the levy of special taxes to satisfy the notice requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 1102.6 of the Civil Code, the designated office, department, or bureau shall furnish a Notice of Special Tax to any individual requesting the notice or any owner of property subject to a special tax levied by the local agency within five working days of receiving a request for such notice. The local agency may charge a reasonable fee for this service not to exceed ten dollars ($10.00).

(c) The notice shall contain the heading "NOTICE OF SPECIAL TAX" in type no smaller than 8-point type, and shall be in substantially the following form. The form may be modified as needed to clearly and accurately describe the tax structure and other characteristics of districts created before January 1, 1993, or to clearly and accurately consolidate information about the tax structure and other characteristics of two or more districts that levy or are authorized to levy special taxes with respect to the lot, parcel, or unit. The notice shall be completed by the designated office, department, or bureau except for the signatures and date of signing:

THIS IS A NOTIFICATION TO YOU PRIOR TO YOUR PURCHASING THIS PROPERTY.

This property is subject to a special tax, which is in addition to the regular property taxes and any other charges and benefit assessments on the parcel. This special tax may not be imposed on all parcels within the city or county where the property is located. If you fail to pay this tax when due each year, the property may be foreclosed upon and sold. The tax is used to provide public facilities or services that are likely to particularly benefit the property. YOU SHOULD TAKE THIS TAX AND THE BENEFITS FROM THE PUBLIC FACILITIES AND SERVICES FOR WHICH IT PAYS INTO ACCOUNT IN DECIDING WHETHER TO BUY THIS PROPERTY.

(2) The maximum special tax which may be levied against this parcel to pay for public facilities is $_____ during the _____–____ tax year. This amount will increase by ____ percent per year after that (if applicable). The special tax will be levied each year until all of the authorized facilities are built and all special tax bonds are repaid, but in any case not after the _____-____ tax year.

An additional special tax will be used to pay for ongoing services, if applicable. The maximum amount of this tax is _____ dollars ($_____) during the _____-____ tax year. This amount may increase by _____, if applicable, and may be levied until the _____-____ tax year (or forever, as applicable).

(3) The authorized facilities which are being paid for by the special taxes, and by the money received from the sale of bonds which are being repaid by the special taxes, are:

These facilities may not yet have all been constructed or acquired and it is possible that some may never be constructed or acquired.

In addition, the special taxes may be used to pay for costs of the following services:

YOU MAY OBTAIN A COPY OF THE RESOLUTION OF FORMATION WHICH AUTHORIZED CREATION OF THE COMMUNITY FACILITIES DISTRICT, AND WHICH SPECIFIES MORE PRECISELY HOW THE SPECIAL TAX IS APPORTIONED AND HOW THE PROCEEDS OF THE TAX WILL BE USED, FROM THE _____ (name of jurisdiction) BY CALLING _____ (telephone number). SEC. 8. Section 53341.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53341.5. (a) If a lot, parcel, or unit of a subdivision is subject to a special tax levied pursuant to this chapter, the subdivider, his or her agent, or representative, shall not sell, or lease for a term exceeding five years, or permit a prospective purchaser or lessor to sign a contract of purchase or a deposit receipt or any substantially equivalent document in the event of a lease with respect to the lot, parcel, or unit, or cause it to be sold or leased for a term exceeding five years, until the prospective purchaser or lessee of the lot, parcel, or unit has been furnished with and has signed a written notice as provided in this section. The notice shall contain the heading "NOTICE OF SPECIAL TAX" in type no smaller than 8-point type, and shall be in substantially the following form. The form may be modified as needed to clearly and accurately describe the tax structure and other characteristics of districts created before January 1, 1993, or to clearly and accurately consolidate information about the tax structure and other characteristics of two or more districts that levy or are authorized to levy special taxes with respect to the lot, parcel, or unit:

(b) "Subdivision," as used in subdivision (a), means improved or unimproved land that is divided or proposed to be divided for the purpose of sale, lease, or financing, whether immediate or future, into two or more lots, parcels, or units and includes a condominium project, as defined by Section 1350 of the Civil Code, a community apartment project, a stock cooperative, and a limited-equity housing cooperative, as defined in Sections 11004, 11003.2, and 11003.4, respectively, of the Business and Professions Code.

(c) The buyer shall have three days after delivery in person or five days after delivery by deposit in the mail of any notice required by this section, to terminate his or her agreement by delivery of written notice of that termination to the owner, subdivider, or agent.

(d) The failure to furnish the notice to the buyer or lessee, and failure of the buyer or lessee to sign the notice of a special tax, shall not invalidate any grant, conveyance, lease, or encumbrance.

(e) Any person or entity who willfully violates the provisions of this section shall be liable to the purchaser of a lot or unit which is subject to the provisions of this section, for actual damages, and in addition thereto, shall be guilty of a public offense punishable by a fine in an amount not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500). In an action to enforce such liability or fine, the prevailing party shall be awarded reasonable attorney's fees.

SEC. 9. Section 53345.8 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53345.8. (a) The legislative body may sell bonds pursuant to this chapter only if it determines prior to the award of sale of bonds that the value of the real property that would be subject to the special tax to pay debt service on the bonds will be at least three times the principal amount of the bonds to be sold and the principal amount of all other bonds outstanding that are secured by a special tax levied pursuant to this chapter on property within the community facilities district or a special assessment levied on property within the community facilities district. Any determination made pursuant to this subdivision shall be based upon the full cash value as shown on the ad valorem assessment roll or upon an appraisal of the subject property made in a manner consistent with the policies adopted pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 53312.7 by a state certified real estate appraiser, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 11340 of the Business and Professions Code. The Treasurer may recommend definitions, standards, and assumptions to be used for these appraisals. These definitions, standards, and assumptions are advisory only, and the definitions, standards, and assumptions to be applied to appraisals will be those adopted by the local agency pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 53312.7.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), if the legislative body selling the bonds finds and determines that the proposed bonds do not present any unusual credit risk due to the availability of credit enhancements or for other reasons specified by the legislative body, the provisions of subdivision (a) may be disregarded.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a), if the legislative body selling the bonds finds and determines by a vote of not less than four-fifths of all of its members that the proposed bond issue should proceed for specified public policy reasons, the provisions of subdivision (a) may be disregarded.

A finding and determination by the legislative body pursuant to this subdivision shall be final and conclusive upon all persons in the absence of actual fraud, and neither the legislative body nor the district shall have any liability of any kind whatsoever out of, or in connection with, any finding and determination.

SEC. 10. Section 53359.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53359.5. (a) The legislative body shall, no later than 30 days prior to the sale of any bonds pursuant to this article, give written notice of the proposed sale to the California Debt Advisory Commission by mail, postage prepaid, as required by Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 8855) of Division 1 of Title 2.

(b) On and after January 1, 1993, each year after the sale of any bonds, including refunding bonds, pursuant to this article, and until the final maturity of the bonds, the legislative body shall, not later than October 30 of each year, supply the following information to the California Debt Advisory Commission by mail, postage prepaid:

(1) The principal amount of bonds outstanding.

(2) The balance in the bond reserve fund.

(3) The balance in the capitalized interest fund, if any.

(4) The number of parcels which are delinquent with respect to their special tax payments, the amount that each parcel is delinquent, the length of time that each has been delinquent, and when foreclosure was commenced for each delinquent parcel.

(5) The balance in any construction funds.

(6) The assessed value of all parcels subject to special tax to repay the bonds as shown on the most recent equalized roll.

(c) In addition, with respect to any bonds sold pursuant to this article, regardless when sold, and until the final maturity of the bonds, the legislative body shall notify the California Debt Advisory Commission by mail, postage prepaid, within 10 days if any of the following events occur:

(1) The local agency or its trustee fails to pay principal and interest due on any scheduled payment date.

(2) Funds are withdrawn from a reserve fund to pay principal and interest on the bonds beyond levels set by the California Debt Advisory Commission.

(d) Neither the legislative body nor the California Debt Advisory Commission shall be liable for any inadvertent error in reporting the information required by this section.

SEC. 11. Section 53359.7 is added to the Government Code, to read:

53359.7. Current information on the items listed in Section 53359.5 is a matter of public record, within the meaning of the California Public Records Act, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1, even if the information is physically held by an agent or trustee of the public agency. Neither the legislative body, nor any of its officers, agents, or trustees shall be liable in any way for making that financial information available to anyone requesting it or for otherwise making it available to the public.

SEC. 12. Any proceedings to create or make changes in or issue bonds of a community facilities district pursuant to the Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act of 1982, Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 53311) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, for which a resolution of intention was adopted to establish the district or a resolution of consideration was adopted to make changes in the district or an improvement area within the district prior to the effective date of this act, and for which a special tax was first levied after January 1, 1994, may have been conducted in accordance with the terms of the Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act of 1982 in effect at the time the proceedings were initiated, or those proceedings may have been conducted in accordance with the Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act of 1982 as affected by this act, as nearly as practicable, as determined by the legislative body and with the concurrence of the official conducting the election, as if this act had been in effect when the proceedings were commenced.

SEC. 13. Any proceedings to create or make changes in or issue bonds of a community facilities district pursuant to the Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act of 1982, Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 53311) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, for which a resolution of intention was adopted to establish the district or a resolution of consideration was adopted to make changes in the district or an improvement area within the district prior to January 1, 1993, and for which a special tax was first levied after January 1, 1993, may be or may have been conducted in accordance with the terms of the Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act of 1982 in effect at the time the proceedings were initiated, or those proceedings may have been conducted in accordance with the Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act of 1982 as affected by Chapter 772 of 1992, as nearly as practicable, as determined by the legislative body and with the concurrence of the official conducting the election, as if this act had been in effect when the proceedings were commenced.

SEC. 14. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1194

An act to amend Sections 50078.6, 54954.6, and 61712 of the Government Code, to amend Section 2291.2 of the Health and Safety Code, to amend Sections 2850, 2853, 5194, 9527, 10301, 11302, 18070, 18343, 18663, 22090, 22526, 22556, 22588, 22590, 22624, 22626, 22629, 22631, and 36523 of, to add Sections 22630.5 and 36523.5 to, and to repeal Section 11300 of the Streets and Highways Code, relating to assessments, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 50078.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

50078.6. The clerk of the local agency shall cause a copy of the notice of the filing of the report and of the time, date, and place of hearing thereon to be mailed to each parcel or property owner whose property would be subject to the assessment. The notice shall be mailed at least 45 days prior to the date set for hearing pursuant to Section 54954.6 by name to those persons whose name and address appear on the last equalized county assessment roll, the State Board of Equalization assessment roll, or as known to the clerk. The envelope or cover of the mailing shall include the name of the local agency and the return address of the sender. The mailed notice shall include the name of the local agency, the return address of the sender, the amount of the initial assessment, the amount of the maximum assessment, the duration and basis of the assessment, and a summary of the procedures for making a protest pursuant to Sections 50078.11 and 50078.12. The notice shall also contain the name and telephone number of the person designated by the legislative body to answer inquiries regarding the protest proceedings.

SEC. 2. Section 54954.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

54954.6. (a) (1) Before adopting any new or increased general tax or any new or increased assessment, the legislative body of a city, county, special district, or joint powers authority shall conduct at least one public meeting at which local officials must allow public testimony regarding the proposed new or increased general tax or new or increased assessment in addition to the noticed public hearing at which the legislative body proposes to enact or increase the general tax or assessment.

For purposes of this section, the term "new or increased assessment" does not include any of the following:

(A) A fee which does not exceed the reasonable cost of providing the services, facilities, or regulatory activity for which the fee is charged.

(B) A service charge or benefit charge, unless a special district's principal act requires service charges or benefit charges to conform to the requirements of this section.

(C) An ongoing annual assessment if it is imposed at the same or lower amount as any previous year.

(D) An assessment which does not exceed an assessment formula or range of assessments previously adopted by the agency or approved by the voters in the area where the assessment is imposed.

(E) Standby or immediate availability charges.

(2) The legislative body shall provide at least 45 days' public notice of the public hearing at which the legislative body proposes to enact or increase the general tax or assessment. The legislative body shall provide notice for the public meeting at the same time and in the same document as the notice for the public hearing, but the meeting shall occur prior to the hearing.

(b) (1) The joint notice of both the public meeting and the public hearing required by subdivision (a) with respect to a proposal for a new or increased general tax shall be accomplished by placing a display advertisement of at least one-eighth page in a newspaper of general circulation for three weeks pursuant to Section 6063 and by a first-class mailing to those interested parties who have filed a written request with the local agency for mailed notice of public meetings or hearings on new or increased general taxes. The public meeting pursuant to subdivision (a) shall take place no earlier than 10 days after the first publication of the joint notice pursuant to this subdivision. The public hearing shall take place no earlier than seven days after the public meeting pursuant to this subdivision. Notwithstanding paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the joint notice need not include notice of the public meeting after the meeting has taken place. The public hearing pursuant to subdivision (a) shall take place no earlier than 45 days after the first publication of the joint notice pursuant to this subdivision. The public hearing shall take place no earlier than seven days after the public meeting pursuant to this subdivision. Any written request for mailed notices shall be effective for one year from the date on which it is filed unless a renewal request is filed. Renewal requests for mailed notices shall be filed on or before April 1 of each year. The legislative body may establish a reasonable annual charge for sending notices based on the estimated cost of providing the service.

(2) The notice required by paragraph (1) of this subdivision shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(A) The amount or rate of the tax. If the tax is proposed to be increased from any previous year, the joint notice shall separately state both the existing tax rate and the proposed tax rate increase.

(B) The activity to be taxed.

(C) The estimated amount of revenue to be raised by the tax annually.

(D) The method and frequency for collecting the tax.

(E) The dates, times, and locations of the public meeting and hearing described in subdivision (a).

(F) The phone number and address of an individual, office, or organization that interested persons may contact to receive additional information about the tax.

(c) (1) The joint notice of both the public meeting and the public hearing required by subdivision (a) with respect to a proposal for a new or increased assessment on real property shall be accomplished through a mailing, postage prepaid, in the United States mail and shall be deemed given when so deposited. The public meeting pursuant to subdivision (a) shall take place no earlier than 10 days after the joint mailing pursuant to this subdivision. The public hearing shall take place no earlier than seven days after the public meeting pursuant to this subdivision. The envelope or the cover of the mailing shall include the name of the local agency and the return address of the sender. This mailed notice shall be in at least 10-point type and shall be given to all property owners proposed to be subject to the new or increased assessment by a mailing by name to those persons whose names and addresses appear on the last equalized county assessment roll or the State Board of Equalization assessment roll, as the case may be.

(2) The joint notice required by paragraph (1) of this subdivision shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(A) The estimated amount of the assessment per parcel. If the assessment is proposed to be increased from any previous year, the joint notice shall separately state both the amount of the existing assessment and the proposed assessment increase.

(B) A general description of the purpose or improvements that the assessment will fund.

(C) The address to which property owners may mail a protest against the assessment.

(D) The phone number and address of an individual, office, or organization that interested persons may contact to receive additional information about the assessment.

(E) A statement that a majority protest will cause the assessment to be abandoned if the assessment act used to levy the assessment so provides. Notice must also state the percentage of protests required to trigger an election, if applicable.

(F) The dates, times, and locations of the public meeting and hearing described in subdivision (a).

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), in the case of an assessment which is proposed exclusively for operation and maintenance expenses for an entire city, county, or district, or operation and maintenance assessments proposed to be levied on 50,000 parcels or more, notice may be provided pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) and shall include the information required by paragraph (2) of subdivision (c).

(4) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), in the case of an assessment proposed to be levied pursuant to Part 2 (commencing with Section 22500) of Division 2 of the Streets and Highways Code by a regional park district, regional park and open-space district, or regional open-space district formed pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 5500) of Chapter 3 of Division 5 of, or pursuant to Division 26 (commencing with Section 35100) of, the Public Resources Code, notice may be provided pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b).

(d) The notice requirements imposed by this section shall be construed as additional to, and not to supersede, existing provisions of law, and shall be applied concurrently with the existing provisions so as to not delay or prolong the governmental decisionmaking process.

(e) This section shall not apply to any new or increased general tax or any new or increased assessment that requires an election of either of the following:

(1) The property owners subject to the assessment.

(2) The voters within the city, county, special district, or joint powers authority imposing the tax or assessment.

(f) Nothing in this section shall prohibit a local agency from holding a consolidated meeting or hearing at which the legislative body discusses multiple tax or assessment proposals.

(g) The local agency may recover the reasonable costs of public meetings, public hearings, and notice required by this section from the proceeds of the tax or assessment. The costs recovered for these purposes, whether recovered pursuant to this subdivision or any other provision of law, shall not exceed the reasonable costs of the public meetings, public hearings, and notice.

SEC. 3. Section 61712 of the Government Code is amended to read:

61712. Assessments in an improvement district in a district shall be levied, collected and enforced at the same time and in as nearly the same manner as practicable as annual taxes for purposes of the district in which formed, except that the assessment shall be made in the same manner as provided with respect to improvement districts in irrigation districts, and that notice for a new or increased assessment shall be pursuant to Section 54954.6.

SEC. 4. Section 2291.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

2291.2. (a) (1) The district board may institute projects for one or more zones, for the financing and execution of vector surveillance and control projects of common benefit to the zone or zones.

(2) Before beginning a project, the district board shall adopt a resolution which shall specify its intention to undertake the project, estimate the cost to be borne by the zones, state the duration of the assessment, state the general objectives of the surveillance or control project, and fix a time and place for a public hearing and a public meeting on the project. In the case of more than one zone, the resolution shall specify the proportionate cost to be borne by each of the zones.

(3) Notice of the public meeting and the public hearing shall be given pursuant to Section 54954.6 of the Government Code.

(b) At any time before the time set for the hearing, any owner of any property which is proposed to be assessed may make written protest against the proposed project and assessment. The written protest shall contain a description of the property sufficient to identify the property. If the signer is not shown on the last equalized assessment roll as the owner of that property, the written protest shall contain written evidence that the signer is an owner of the property proposed to be assessed.

(c) At the time and place stated in the notice for the public meeting and the public hearing, the district board shall hear and consider any objections and protests to the proposed project and assessments.

The district board may continue the public meeting and the public hearing from time to time. Any written protest may be withdrawn in writing by the person making the protest at any time before the conclusion of the hearing.

(d) Following the conclusion of the hearing, if the district board finds that the written protests filed and not withdrawn represent 50 percent or more of the total amount of expected revenue from the proposed assessment, the board shall abandon the proposed project and assessment. If the district board finds that the written protests filed and not withdrawn represent less than 50 percent of the total amount of expected revenue from the proposed assessment, the district board may, at its discretion, proceed with or abandon the proposed project and assessment.

(e) The assessments levied pursuant to this section shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as county taxes. The county may deduct its actual costs incurred for collecting the assessments before remitting the balance to the district. The assessments shall be a lien on all the property benefited thereby. Liens for the assessments shall be of the same force and effect as liens for taxes, and their collection may be enforced by the same means as provided for the enforcement of liens for county taxes.

(f) For the purposes of an assessment levied under this section, the property so assessed within a given zone is equally benefited.

SEC. 5. Section 2850 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

2850. The legislative body shall fix a time and place of hearing on the approved report and may order the hearing to be held by the legislative body or by other public officers or public board of the city or county governed by the legislative body as may be designated by it. The public officers or public board shall serve without additional compensation.

SEC. 6. Section 2853 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

2853. The notice of the hearing must be mailed at least 30 days prior to the date of the hearing.

SEC. 7. Section 5194 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

5194. The legislative body shall appoint the time and place of the hearing on the resolution of intention and shall cause notice of that hearing and the public meeting required by Section 54954.6 of the Government Code to be mailed as provided in subdivision (c) of that section.

SEC. 8. Section 9527 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

9527. Notice of the hearing shall be given by publication, pursuant to Section 6062a of the Government Code, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the city or, if there is no newspaper published in the city, then in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the city is located, and by mailing in the time and manner required by Section 10306; or, if the reassessment will not be in the same or lesser amount than the original assessments, in the manner set forth in Section 54954.6 of the Government Code. The notice shall set forth the fact and date of the adoption of the resolution of intention and of the filing of the report and all of the following:

(a) A statement of the time, place, and purpose of the hearing on the resolution of intention and report.

(b) A statement of the total estimated cost of the proposed reassessment and refunding.

(c) The amount, as shown by the report, to be reassessed against the particular parcel covered by the notice.

(d) A statement that any person interested may file a protest in writing as provided in this division.

(e) A reference to the resolution of intention and report on file in the office of the city clerk for particulars.

Any consents of landowners required by the state or federal constitutions shall be obtained in the time, form, and manner required by Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 9180) of Division 11, the terms of which are hereby referred to and incorporated herein by reference.

SEC. 9. Section 10301 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

10301. After passing on the report, the legislative body shall by resolution appoint the time and place for hearing protests to the proposed assessment and shall cause notice of that hearing and a public meeting required by Section 54954.6 of the Government Code to be mailed as provided in subdivision (c) of that section.

SEC. 10. Section 11300 of the Streets and Highways Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 11302 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

11302. A copy of the resolution shall be mailed, not less than 45 days prior to the hearing to each person to whom any of the following described lands is assessed as shown on the last equalized assessment roll, at his address as shown upon such roll, and to any person, whether owner in fee or having a lien upon, or legal or equitable interest in, any of such lands whose name and address and a designation of the land in which he is interested is on file in the office of the city clerk or county clerk, as the case may be. Such lands are as follows:

(a) All parcels of land abutting upon any portion of the pedestrian mall or any portion of any intersecting street.

(b) If assessments are to be levied as contemplated by Section 11202, then all parcels of land within the assessment district described in the resolution pursuant to such section.

The legislative body may determine that such resolution shall also be mailed to such other persons as it may specify.

SEC. 12. Section 18070 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

18070. After the adoption of the resolution of intention, the city council shall direct the clerk to give notice and set the time and date for a public meeting and public hearing pursuant to Section 54954.6 of the Government Code.

SEC. 13. Section 18343 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

18343. The city council shall cause notice to be mailed and set the time and date for a public meeting and public hearing pursuant to Section 54954.6 of the Government Code.

SEC. 14. Section 18663 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

18663. The resolution of intention shall contain:

(a) A statement of the public ways to be lighted.

(b) A general description of the lighting systems to be maintained and operated.

(c) A statement of the general items of expense of maintenance and operation proposed to be furnished for the street lighting systems, the cost of which is to be assessed in whole or in part against the lands within the district. Such items may include electric power, gas, repairs, replacements, and any other items necessary for the proper maintenance of the street lighting systems.

(d) A statement of the estimated cost of all other items of maintenance and operation to be furnished the systems in the district for the first year and in addition thereto a separate estimate of the amount of gas or electric power necessary for the systems each year.

(e) A general description of the boundaries of the district to be benefited by and to be assessed to pay the costs of the maintenance and operation.

(f) A statement of the length of time, which shall not exceed five years from the date of the formation of the district, that the maintenance and operation shall be furnished for the systems.

(g) Notice of a public meeting and public hearing shall be given pursuant to Section 54954.6 of the Government Code. All persons having any interest in lands within the district liable to be assessed for the expenses of the maintenance and operation may be heard at the public meeting and the public hearing and any of these persons may present any objections that they may have by written protest filed with the clerk at or before the time set for the hearing.

SEC. 15. Section 22090 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

22090. The city council shall cause notice to be mailed and set the time and date for a public meeting and public hearing pursuant to Section 54954.6 of the Government Code.

SEC. 16. Section 22526 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

22526. "Incidental expenses" include all of the following:

(a) The costs of preparation of the report, including plans, specifications, estimates, diagram, and assessment.

(b) The costs of printing, advertising, and the giving of published, posted, and mailed notices.

(c) Compensation payable to the county for collection of assessments.

(d) Compensation of any engineer or attorney employed to render services in proceedings pursuant to this part.

(e) Any other expenses incidental to the construction, installation, or maintenance and servicing of the improvements.

(f) Any expenses incidental to the issuance of bonds or notes pursuant to Section 22662.5.

(g) Costs associated with any elections held for the approval of a new or increased assessment.

SEC. 17. Section 22556 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

22556. Prior to levying a new assessment pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 22585), the legislative body shall cause notice of a public meeting and public hearing to be mailed pursuant to Section 54954.6 of the Government Code.

SEC. 18. Section 22588 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

22588. The clerk shall give notice of hearing as provided in Section 22556.

SEC. 19. Section 22590 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

22590. The legislative body shall hold the public meeting and public hearing held pursuant to Section 54954.6 of the Government Code to establish the proposed district at the time and place fixed in the resolution of intention and in any order continuing the hearing. All interested persons shall be afforded the opportunity to hear and be heard. The legislative body shall consider all oral statements and all written protests or communications made or filed by any interested persons.

SEC. 20. Section 22624 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

22624. After approval of the report, either as filed or as modified, the legislative body shall adopt a resolution of intention. The resolution shall:

(a) Declare the intention of the legislative body to levy and collect assessments within the assessment district for the fiscal year stated therein, except that it shall not impose an assessment upon a federal or state governmental agency or another local agency.

(b) Generally describe the existing and proposed improvements and any substantial changes proposed to be made in existing improvements.

(c) Refer to the assessment district by its distinctive designation and indicate the general location of the district.

(d) Refer to the report of the engineer, on file with the clerk, for a full and detailed description of the improvements, the boundaries of the assessment district and any zones therein, and the proposed assessments upon assessable lots and parcels of land within the district.

(e) Give notice of the time, as fixed by Section 22625, and the place for hearing by the legislative body on the levy of the proposed assessment.

(f) State whether the assessment is proposed to increase from the previous year.

SEC. 21. Section 22626 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

22626. Notice of the hearing shall be given by either of the following methods:

(a) If the assessments are to be levied in the same or lesser amounts than in any previous year, the clerk shall give notice by causing the resolution of intention to be published pursuant to Sections 22552 and 22553.

(b) If the assessments are to be increased from the previous year, notice of the public meeting and public hearing required by Section 54954.6 of the Government Code shall be mailed as provided in subdivision (c) of that section.

SEC. 22. Section 22629 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

22629. If notice is given pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 22626, the legislative body shall hold the public hearing at the time and place specified in the resolution of intention and in any order continuing the hearing. If notice is given pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 22626, the legislative body shall hold the public meeting and public hearing held pursuant to Section 54954.6 of the Government Code at the time and place specified in the joint notice and in any order continuing the hearing. All interested persons shall be afforded the opportunity to hear and be heard. The legislative body shall consider all oral statements and all written protests made or filed by any interested person. The legislative body may continue the hearing from time to time, provided, that no continuance shall be made to a date subsequent to August 10 without the prior consent of the county auditor.

SEC. 23. Section 22630.5 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

22630.5. If there is a majority protest against the levy of an annual assessment after the formation of the assessment district that is increased from any previous year, the proposed increase in the assessment shall be abandoned. A majority protest exists if, upon the conclusion of the hearing, written protests filed and not withdrawn represent property owners owning more than 50 percent of the area of assessable lands within the proposed district. For purposes of this section, "increased assessment" shall have the same meaning as provided in Section 54954.6 of the Government Code.

SEC. 24. Section 22631 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

22631. If a majority protest has not been filed, the legislative body may adopt a resolution confirming the diagram and assessment, either as originally proposed or as changed by it. The adoption of the resolution shall constitute the levy of an assessment for the fiscal year referred to in the assessment.

SEC. 25. Section 36523 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

36523. Notice of a public hearing held under Section 36524, 36541, 36542, or 36550 shall be given by both of the following:

(a) Publishing the resolution of intention in a newspaper of general circulation in the city once, for at least seven days before the public hearing.

(b) Mailing of a complete copy of the resolution of intention by first-class mail to each business owner in the area within seven days of the city council's adoption of the resolution of intention.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), in the case of an area established primarily to promote tourism, a copy of the resolution of intention shall be mailed by first-class mail within seven days of the city council's adoption of the resolution of intention, to the owner of each business in the area which will be subject to assessment.

SEC. 26. Section 36523.5 is added to the Streets and Highways Code, to read:

36523.5. Notwithstanding Section 36523, prior to adopting any new or increased assessment, the city council shall give notice pursuant to Section 54954.6 of the Government Code in lieu of publishing notice pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 36523.

SEC. 27. The provisions of this act are declarative of existing law.

SEC. 28. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 29. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the California Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are as follows:

In order to clarify the procedures for levying new and increased local general taxes and assessments, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1195

An act to amend Sections 4201, 6159, 8162.9, 8180, 23101, 23119, 23130, 23133, 24000, 24250, 24256, 24304, 25332, 25845, 27008, 29088, 36934, 37110, 53080.1, 53534, 53901, 56844, 57025, and 68096.1 of, to add Sections 25521.5, 26990, 57330, and 65352.5 to, to repeal Section 40101 of, and to repeal Article 5.5 (commencing with Section 65958) of Chapter 4.5 of Division 1 of Title 7 of, the Government Code, to amend Sections 6937 and 6944 of, and to repeal Section 6832 of the Harbors and Navigation Code, to amend Sections 6487, 13800, and 13893 of, and to add Sections 4730.8 and 6480.7 to, the Health and Safety Code, to amend Sections 20206.9 and 22300 of, to add Section 20131 to, and to repeal Sections 9202, 20206.7, and 20206.8 of, the Public Contract Code, to add Sections 5541.2 and 5552.1 to the Public Resources Code, to add Section 97.05 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to amend Section 1806 of the Streets and Highways Code, to amend Sections 21102, 21375, 21560, 22980, 74661, and 74466 of, and to add Section 75601 to, the Water Code, to amend Section 11 of Chapter 129 of the Statutes of 1868, to amend Sections 26.6 and 26.9 of Chapter 1405 of the Statutes of 1951, to amend Section 7.1 of Chapter 2137 of the Statutes of 1959, and to amend Section 700 of Chapter 1399 of the Statutes of 1987, relating to local agencies.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Local Government Omnibus Act of 1993. The Legislature finds and declares that Californians desire their governments to be run efficiently and economically and that public officials should avoid waste and duplication whenever possible. The Legislature further finds and declares that it desires to reduce its own operating costs by reducing the number of separate bills affecting related topics. Therefore, in enacting this act, it is the intent of the Legislature to combine several minor, noncontroversial statutory changes relating to public agencies into a single measure.

SEC. 1.5. Section 4201 of the Government Code is amended to read:

4201. Any local agency that undertakes or contracts for an excavation for the installation, removal, maintenance, or repair of underground facilities may backfill that excavation in any local agency public road or highway with native spoil if the conditions in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) are met. Where the excavation is performed by contract, use of native spoil shall be permitted unless otherwise specified in the contract documents.

(a) The native spoil is competent spoil.

(b) Compaction meets the local agency's requirements, using industry standards for testing compaction.

(c) The local agency or its contractor has no physical evidence of, or substantial reason to believe that there has been, contamination of the soil from hazardous waste.

SEC. 2. Section 6159 of the Government Code, as amended by Chapter 219 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

6159. (a) As used in this section:

(1) "Credit card" means any card, plate, coupon book, or other credit device existing for the purpose of being used from time to time upon presentation to obtain money, property, labor, or services on credit.

(2) "Card issuer" means any person who issues a credit card and purchases credit card drafts or the agent of such person for such purposes with respect to such card.

(3) "Cardholder" means any person to whom a credit card is issued or any person who has agreed with the card issuer to pay obligations arising from the issuance of a credit card to another person.

(4) "Draft purchaser" means any person who purchases credit card drafts.

(b) Subject to the provisions of subdivision (c), a court, city, county, city and county, or other public agency may authorize the acceptance of a credit card for any of the following:

(1) The payment for the deposit of bail or for any fine for any offense not declared to be a felony.

(2) The payment of a filing fee or other court fee.

(3) The payment of any towage or storage costs for a vehicle which has been removed from a highway, or from public or private property, as a result of parking violations.

(4) The payment of child, family, or spousal support, including reimbursement of public assistance, related fees, costs, or penalties, with the authorization of the cardholder.

(5) The payment for services rendered by any city, county, city and county, or other public agency.

(6) The payment of any fee, charge, or tax due a city, county, city and county, or other public agency.

(c) A court desiring to authorize the use of a credit card pursuant to subdivision (b) shall obtain the approval of its county board of supervisors. A city desiring to authorize the use of a credit card pursuant to subdivision (b) shall obtain the approval of its city council. Any other public agency desiring to authorize the use of a credit card pursuant to subdivision (b) shall obtain the approval of the governing body which has fiscal responsibility for such agency. After approval is obtained, a contract may be executed with one or more credit card issuers or draft purchasers. The contract shall provide for:

(1) The respective rights and duties of the court, city, county, city and county, or other public agency and card issuer or draft purchaser regarding the presentment, acceptability and payment of credit card drafts.

(2) The establishment of a reasonable means by which to facilitate payment settlements.

(3) The payment to the card issuer or draft purchaser of a reasonable fee or discount.

(4) Such other matters appropriately included in contracts with respect to the purchase of credit card drafts as may be agreed upon by the parties to the contract.

(d) The honoring of a credit card pursuant to subdivision (b) hereof constitutes payment of the amount owing to the court, city, county, city and county, or other public agency as of the date the credit card is honored provided the credit card draft is paid following its due presentment to a card issuer or draft purchaser.

(e) If any credit card draft is not paid following due presentment to a card issuer or draft purchaser or is charged back to the court, city, county, city and county, or other public agency for any reason, any record of payment made by the court, city, or other public agency honoring the credit card shall be void. Any receipt issued in acknowledgment of payment shall also be void. The obligation of the cardholder shall continue as an outstanding obligation as though no payment had been attempted.

(f) Notwithstanding Title 1.3 (commencing with Section 1747) of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code, a court, city, county, city and county, or any other public agency may impose a fee for the use of a credit card, not to exceed the costs incurred by the agency in providing for payment by credit card. These costs may include, but shall not be limited to, the payment of fees or discounts as specified in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c). Any fee imposed pursuant to this subdivision for the use of a credit card shall be approved by the governing body responsible for the fiscal decisions of the public agency.

(g) Fees or discounts provided for under paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) shall be deducted or accounted for prior to any statutory or other distribution of funds received from the card issuer or draft purchaser to the extent not recovered from the cardholder pursuant to subdivision (f).

SEC. 2.3. Section 8162.9 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8162.9. (a) Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of Section 8162.7, a 96-foot height limit shall apply to construction, exclusively for the purposes of residential development, for Lot 4, Block 223 (known as Capitol Area Development Authority Residential Site 21) surrounded by N Street on the north, 14th Street on the east, 120 feet west of 14th Street on the west, and one quarter of a half block to the south of N Street on the south.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, development on the city blocks surrounding the Stanford Mansion located at 802 N Street, and the Heilbron Mansion located at 704 O Street, shall be environmentally sensitive to these historic mansions. Copies of environmental documents for any development on the city blocks surrounding these mansions shall be distributed by the State Clearinghouse within the Governor's Office of Planning and Research to the State Office of Historic Preservation, and other agencies as required by the California Environmental Quality Act, Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code.

SEC. 2.4. Section 8180 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8180. The following terms, used in this article, shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Project area" means the area within the City of Sacramento which is bounded on the north by "L" Street, on the south by "R" Street, excepting that portion lying between 11th and 12th Streets which southern boundary shall be the alley lying between "R" and "S" Street on the west by Seventh Street, and on the east by 17th Street, excepting any portion of such area which is within the boundaries of a redevelopment project area adopted prior to April 1, 1979, by the City of Sacramento pursuant to the Community Redevelopment Law.

The streets bounding the project area are included therein, and this does not constitute a change in, but is declaratory of the existing law.

Pursuant to an agreement between the authority and the City of Sacramento, the boundaries of the project area established by this section may be amended by a resolution adopted by the authority to include all or any portion of the blocks bounded on the west by 5th Street, on the north by "N" Street, on the east by 7th Street, and on the south by "P" Street, upon the effective date of an ordinance adopted by the City of Sacramento amending the boundaries of the city's redevelopment project area to detach all or any portion of those blocks from the city's redevelopment project area for the purpose of including that area within the project area established by this section. For the purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 8183, the assessed value of the property detached from the city's redevelopment project area and included within the project area established by this section shall be that portion of the assessed value of that property upon which taxes were allocated to the taxing agencies immediately prior to the effective date of the resolution and shall exclude that portion of the assessed value of that property upon which taxes were allocated to the city's redevelopment agency.

In the event that the project area is not amended as described in this section, the city's redevelopment agency may satisfy any replacement housing obligations that result from the development of any portion of the blocks bounded on the west by 5th Street, on the north by "N" Street, on the east by 7th Street, and on the south by "P" Street within that portion of the project area agreed to by the authority and the City of Sacramento.

(b) "Redevelopment plan" means the Capitol Area Plan approved by the Director of General Services on March 15, 1977, and referred to in Section 8160, together with documents adopted pursuant to Section 8183.

(c) "Authority" means the Capitol Area Development Authority created by the joint powers agreement executed pursuant to Section 8169.4 by the Director of General Services of the State of California and the Mayor of the City of Sacramento on July 1, 1978.

SEC. 2.5. Section 23101 of the Government Code is amended to read:

23101. The boundaries of Alameda County are as follows:

Beginning at the southwest corner, being the common corner of San Mateo, Santa Clara, and Alameda; thence easterly along the northerly boundary of Santa Clara to the corner common to Santa Clara, San Joaquin, Stanislaus and Alameda; thence northwesterly and northerly along the boundary line between Alameda and San Joaquin, as described in the field notes of the survey of said line, as adopted by the Board of Supervisors of Alameda County, California, on February 6, 1869, to the corner common to Alameda, Contra Costa and San Joaquin; thence in a general westerly direction along the boundary line between Alameda and Contra Costa, as described in the field notes of the survey of said boundary line, filed November 19, 1877, in the office of the Clerk of Alameda County, to the most westerly point where said line is coincident with the line dividing the Rancho San Pablo from the Rancho San Antonio;

Thence westerly along the northerly boundary line of the Rancho San Antonio to its intersection thereof with the northeastern line of a 12-foot path, said intersection being on the corporate limits of the City of Oakland as said limits were established by Ordinance No. 1132, changing said limits, adopted May 14, 1991, by the city council of said city; thence northerly and northwesterly along said northeastern line and corporate limits from a tangent which bears north 28°43'22" east, on a curve to the left having a radius of 71 feet and arc length of 85.47 feet to a point of compound curvature; thence from a tangent which bears north 40°25' west, on a curve to the left having a radius of 306 feet and arc length of 121.06 feet to a point where said northeastern line, being also said corporate limits, intersects the northern line of Villanova Drive, 50 feet wide; thence continuing northwesterly along said northern line, being also said corporate limits, from a tangent which bears north 7°48'59" west, on a curve to the left having a radius of 200 feet and arc length of 241.06 feet; thence north 76°52'30" west 133.94 feet; thence tangent to the last mentioned course, on a curve to the right having a radius of 175 feet and arc length 131.97 feet to a point of reverse curvature; thence from a tangent which bears north 33°40' west on a curve to the left having a radius of 200 feet and arc length of 151.33 feet to the intersection of said northern line, being also said corporate limits, with the corporate limits of the City of Oakland, being also the common boundary of Alameda and Contra Costa Counties, as same existed prior to Ordinance No. 1132, said intersection being a point in the aforementioned northerly boundary line of the Rancho San Antonio; thence continuing westerly along said northerly line to the initial point of the description thereof, as recorded in Liber "B" of patents, page 30, records of Alameda County; thence southwesterly in a direct line to a point in San Francisco Bay, said point being four and one-half statute miles due southeast of the northwest point of Golden Rock (also known as Red Rock); thence southeasterly in a direct line to a point from which the lighthouse on the most southerly point of Yerba Buena Island bears south 72 degrees W., 4,700 feet; thence southeasterly in a direct line to a point on the southerly line of T. 2 S., R. 4 W., M. D. B. & M., distant thereon two statute miles west of the southeast corner of said township, forming the corner common to San Francisco, San Mateo and Alameda; thence southeasterly along the eastern line of San Mateo to the place of beginning.

SEC. 3. Section 23119 of the Government Code is amended to read:

23119. The boundaries of Los Angeles County are as follows:

Beginning at a point in the southwesterly boundary line of the State of California, said point being on the southerly prolongation of the westerly boundary line of Rancho Topanga Malibu Sequit; thence northerly along said prolongation and westerly line of said rancho to the northwesterly corner thereof; thence northeasterly in a direct line to corner number seven of the boundary of Rancho Simi; thence easterly along line number seven, northerly along line number eight, easterly along line number nine of the boundary of Rancho Simi to corner number ten of the boundary of Rancho Simi; thence following the boundary line as surveyed by E. T. Wright and J. T. Stow, county surveyors, in June and July, 1881, as shown on map recorded in book 43, page 25 et seq., miscellaneous records of Los Angeles County as follows: north 105.01 chains to a point; thence north 07 degrees 29 minutes W., 157.50 chains to a point; thence north 21 degrees 57 minutes W., to a point in the north line of Sec. 4, T. 8 N., R. 19 W., S. B. M., distant westerly along said north line 1,400 feet, more or less, from the northeast corner of said Sec. 4, said point being common to the boundaries of Kern, Ventura and Los Angeles; thence east along the north line of T. 8 N., S. B. M., to the northeast corner of T. 8 N., R. 8 W., S. B. M., said corner being a point common to the boundaries of San Bernardino, Kern, and Los Angeles;

Thence south along the range line between R. 7 and 8 W., to the southeast corner of T. 6 N., R. 8 W., S. B. M.; thence east along the township line between T. 5 and 6 N., to the northeast corner of T. 5 N., R. 8 W., S. B. M.; thence south along the range line between R. 7 and 8 W., to a point in the east line of Sec. 12, T. 4 N., R. 8 W., S. B. M., distant southerly 940 feet, measured along said east line, from the northeast corner of said Sec. 12; thence southerly in a direct line to the summit of San Antonio Peak; thence southerly along a straight line which passes through the northwest corner of the Rancho Cucamonga to a point in said straight line distant south 11°51'04" west thereon, 333.81 feet from its intersection with the north line of Tract 37, T. 2 N., R. 7 W., S. B. M.; thence north 25°38'59" west, 15.06 feet; thence south 70°15'29" west, 47.76 feet; thence south 09°57'30" east, 62.51 feet; thence south 34°17'02" east, 36.94 feet to said straight line; thence continuing southerly along said straight line to a point in said straight line distant north 11°51'04" east, 547.37 feet from its intersection with the south line of said Tract 37; thence south 84°57'02" west, 35.25 feet; thence south 23°47'27" west, 75.70 feet to the beginning of a nontangent curve concave to the southwest having a radius of 181.00 feet and to which beginning a radial line bears south 29°24'24" west; thence southeasterly along said curve through a central angle of 12°08'32" an arc distance of 38.36 feet to the beginning of a reverse curve concave to the northeast having a radius of 169.00 feet; thence southeasterly 16.07 feet along said curve through a central angle of 05°26'52" to said straight line; thence southwest in a direct line to the northwest corner of Rancho Cucamonga, thence southwesterly along the northwesterly boundary line of Rancho Cucamonga to the most westerly corner of Rancho Cucamonga; thence southwesterly in a direct line to the northeast corner of Rancho San Jose; thence southwesterly and westerly along the easterly and southerly boundary lines of Rancho San Jose to the range line between R. 8 and 9 W. in T. 2 S., S. B. M.;

Thence south along the range line between R. 8 and 9 W., to the southeast corner of Sec. 12, T. 2 S., R. 9 W., S. B. M., said corner being an angle point in the boundary line of the Rancho Santa Ana del Chino; thence westerly, southwesterly, southerly, easterly, and southerly along the boundary line of the Rancho Santa Ana del Chino to the southwest corner of the Rancho Santa Ana del Chino, said corner being the center of Sec. 35, T. 2 S., R. 9 W., S. B. M.; thence southeasterly in a straight line to a point in the south line of Sec. 36, T. 2 S., R. 9 W., S. B. M., distant 52.84 feet easterly thereon from the southwest corner of said Sec. 36, said point being common to the boundaries of San Bernardino, Orange, and Los Angeles; thence westerly along the northern line of Orange to the southwesterly boundary line of the State of California; thence northwesterly along the southwesterly boundary line of the State of California to the point of beginning. Also the islands of Santa Catalina and San Clemente.

SEC. 4. Section 23130 of the Government Code is amended to read:

23130. The boundaries of Orange County are as follows:

SEC. 6.3. Section 24250 of the Government Code is amended to read:

24250. Sheriffs, clerks, recorders, treasurers, and auditors, shall have their offices at the county seat in the courthouse, hall of records, jail, or other buildings. However, these officials may situate their offices outside the county seat, provided that the offices are conveniently located and easily accessible to the public, and notice of their location is prominently displayed in the county administration building and other appropriate county facilities.

SEC. 6.5. Section 24256 of the Government Code is amended to read:

24256. Whenever the law specifies that an office or building shall be located at the county seat and an incorporated city has been designated as the county seat, the location of that office or building may be either within or in the immediate vicinity of the corporate limits of said city. However, the prescribed offices and buildings may be situated outside the county seat or its immediate vicinity, provided that those offices and buildings are conveniently located and easily accessible to the public, and notice of their location is prominently displayed in the county administration building and other appropriate county facilities.

SEC. 7. Section 24304 of the Government Code is amended to read:

24304. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 24300, in counties of the 13th to 58th classes, inclusive, the board of supervisors by ordinance may consolidate the duties of certain of the county offices in one or more of these combinations:

(a) Sheriff and tax collector.
(b) Auditor and recorder.
(c) County clerk, auditor, and recorder.
(d) County clerk and public administrator.
(e) County clerk and recorder.
(f) County clerk and auditor.

(v) Sheriff, coroner, and public administrator.
(w) Treasurer, tax collector, and public administrator.
(x) County clerk, assessor, and recorder.
(y) Assessor and recorder.
(z) Tax collector/county clerk and treasurer.

SEC. 9. Section 25332 of the Government Code is amended to read:

25332. (a) The boards of supervisors of Butte, Los Angeles, Merced, Orange, San Bernardino, and Ventura Counties may enter into contracts with private enterprise to provide services that require special experience, education, training, or other capabilities which the county possesses. In addition, the boards of supervisors of Butte, Los Angeles, Merced, Orange, San Bernardino, and Ventura Counties may charge a fee for optional services and enhanced services provided to the public which require special experience, education, training, or other capability which the county possesses.

These services may include, but shall not be limited to, any of the following:

(1) The production and dissemination of published documents, either on an isolated basis or on a regular or semiregular basis resulting from the compilation, organization, and dissemination of data from a variety of departmental and public records retained by county departments.

(2) The production and dissemination of training materials, or provision of consulting services, resulting from the special or unique experiences derived from the magnitude, diversity, or distinctive nature of the county's services such as law enforcement, fire protection, public health care, welfare and public social programs, public works projects, and the acquisition and management of real and personal property.

(3) The expedited retrieval or copying, or both, after regular hours, of officially recorded documents that are open to public review and research during regular business hours.

(b) Prior to entering into a contract pursuant to this section, the board of supervisors shall find, based on evidence in record, that the provision of the special service described in the proposed contract will not adversely impact the provision of similar services by private sector companies or individuals within the county.

SEC. 9.5. Section 25521.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

25521.5. The Board of Supervisors of the County of Riverside may transfer to the Riverside County Regional Park and Open Space District, without a vote of the electors of the county first being taken, any real or personal property belonging to the county.

SEC. 10. Section 25845 of the Government Code is amended to read:

25845. (a) The board of supervisors, by ordinance, may establish a procedure for the abatement of a nuisance. The ordinance shall, at a minimum, provide that the owner of the parcel, and anyone known to the board of supervisors to be in possession of the parcel, be given notice of the abatement proceeding and an opportunity to appear before the board of supervisors and be heard prior to the abatement of the nuisance by the county. However, nothing in this section prohibits the summary abatement of a nuisance upon order of the board of supervisors, or upon order of any other county officer authorized by law to summarily abate nuisances, if the board or officer determines that the nuisance constitutes an immediate threat to public health or safety.

(b) If the owner fails to pay the costs of the abatement upon demand by the county, the board of supervisors may order the cost of the abatement to be specially assessed against the parcel. The assessment may be collected at the same time and in the same manner as ordinary county taxes are collected, and shall be subject to the same penalties and the same procedure and sale in case of delinquency as are provided for ordinary county taxes. All laws applicable to the levy, collection, and enforcement of county taxes are applicable to the special assessment.

(c) If the board of supervisors specially assesses the cost of the abatement against the parcel, the board also may cause a notice of abatement lien to be recorded. The notice shall, at a minimum, identify the record owner or possessor of property, set forth the last known address of the record owner or possessor, set forth the date upon which abatement of the nuisance was ordered by the board of supervisors and the date the abatement was complete, and include a description of the real property subject to the lien and the amount of the abatement cost.

(d) However, if the board of supervisors does not cause the recordation of a notice of abatement lien pursuant to subdivision (c), and any real property to which the costs of abatement relates has been transferred or conveyed to a bona fide purchaser for value, or a lien on a bona fide encumbrancer for value has been created and attaches to that property, prior to the date on which the first installment of county taxes would become delinquent, then the cost of abatement shall not result in a lien against that real property but shall be transferred to the unsecured roll for collection.

(e) Recordation of a notice of abatement lien pursuant to subdivision (c) has the same effect as recordation of an abstract of a money judgment recorded pursuant to Article 2 (commencing with Section 697.310) of Chapter 2 of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The lien created has the same priority as a judgment lien on real property and continues in effect until released. Upon order of the board of supervisors, or any county officer authorized by the board of supervisors to act on its behalf, an abatement lien created under this section may be released or subordinated in the same manner as a judgment lien on real property may be released or subordinated.

(f) In counties with a population of 1,000,000 or more, the board of supervisors may delegate the hearing required by subdivision (a), prior to abatement of a public nuisance, to a hearing board designated by the board of supervisors. The hearing board shall make a written recommendation to the board of supervisors. The board of supervisors may adopt the recommendation without further notice of hearing, or may set the matter for a de novo hearing before the board of supervisors.

SEC. 10.3. Section 26990 is added to the Government Code, to read:

26990. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, with the exception of the Revenue and Taxation Code, commencing with the 1993–94 fiscal year, the duties and responsibilities previously conferred on the auditor, controller, or director of finance of any county to any independent local agency other than the county may be eliminated or modified if the independent local agency agrees to and is able to assume those duties and responsibilities and the auditor, controller, or director of finance concurs in writing to transfer those duties and responsibilities to the independent local agency.

(b) As used in this section, "auditor," "controller," and "director of finance" refers to those county officers provided by Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 26880), Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 26900), Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 26970), and Chapter 4.6 (commencing with Section 26980) of this part. Those terms shall not refer to a county treasurer described in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 27000) of this part.

SEC. 10.5. Section 27008 of the Government Code is amended to read:

27008. (a) The treasurer shall not receive money into the treasury or for deposit with him or her as treasurer, unless it is accompanied by the certificate of the auditor.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the auditor and treasurer may establish alternate control procedures.

SEC. 11. Section 29088 of the Government Code is amended to read:

29088. (a) After the conclusion of the hearing, and not later than August 30 of each year, and after making any revisions of, deductions from, or increases or additions to, the proposed budget it deems advisable during or after the public hearing, the board shall by resolution adopt the budget as finally determined. Increases or additions shall not be made after the public hearing, unless the items were proposed in writing and filed with the clerk of the board before the close of the public hearing or unless approved by the board by four-fifths vote. The changes made pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 29064 may be recorded as changes to the final budget.

(b) Whenever the state budget is enacted after July 1, the board may, by resolution, extend the date specified by subdivision (a) for a period not to exceed 60 days from the date of the enactment of the state budget or October 2, whichever is later, or 15 days beyond the date specified in Section 29080.

SEC. 12. Section 36934 of the Government Code is amended to read:

36934. Ordinances shall not be passed within five days of their introduction, nor at other than a regular meeting or at an adjourned regular meeting. However, an urgency ordinance may be passed immediately upon introduction and either at a regular or special meeting. Except when, after reading the title, further reading is waived by regular motion adopted by majority vote all ordinances shall be read in full either at the time of introduction or passage. When ordinances, other than urgency ordinances, are altered after introduction, they shall be passed only at a regular or at an adjourned regular meeting held at least five days after alteration. Corrections of typographical or clerical errors are not alterations within the meaning of this section.

SEC. 12.3. Section 37110 of the Government Code is amended to read:

37110. The legislative body may spend money from the general fund for music and promotion, including promotion of sister city and town affiliation programs.

SEC. 12.5. Section 40101 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 12.7. Section 53080.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53080.1. (a) Any resolution adopting or increasing a fee, charge, dedication, or other requirement pursuant to Section 53080, for application to residential, commercial, or industrial development, shall be enacted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 66000) of Division 1 of Title 7, with Section 54994.1, and with the procedures for mailed notice set forth in Section 54992. The adoption, increase, or imposition of any fee, charge, dedication, or other requirement pursuant to Section 53080 shall not be subject to Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code. The adoption of, or increase in, the fee, charge, dedication, or other requirement shall be effective no sooner than 60 days following the final action on that adoption or increase, except as specified in subdivision (b).

(b) Without following the procedure otherwise required for adopting or increasing a fee, charge, dedication, or other requirement, the governing board of a school district may adopt an urgency measure as an interim authorization for a fee, charge, dedication, or other requirement, or increase in a fee, charge, dedication, or other requirement, where necessary to respond to a current and immediate threat to the public health, welfare, or safety. The interim authorization shall require a four-fifths vote of the governing board for adoption, and shall contain findings describing the current and immediate threat to the public health, welfare, or safety. The interim authorization shall have no force or effect on and after a date 30 days after its adoption. After notice and hearing in accordance with subdivision (a), the governing board, upon a four-fifths vote of the board, may extend the interim authority for an additional 30 days. Not more than two extensions may be granted.

(c) Upon adopting or increasing a fee, charge, dedication, or other requirement pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b), the school district shall transmit a copy of the resolution to each city and each county in which the district is situated, accompanied by all relevant supporting documentation and a map clearly indicating the boundaries of the area subject to the fee, charge, dedication, or other requirement. The school district governing board shall specify, pursuant to that notification, whether or not the collection of the fee or other charge is subject to the restriction set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 66007.

(d) Any party on whom a fee, charge, dedication, or other requirement has been directly imposed pursuant to Section 53080 may protest the establishment or imposition of that fee, charge, dedication, or other requirement in accordance with Section 66020, except that the procedures set forth in Section 66021 are deemed to apply, for this purpose, to commercial and industrial development, as well as to residential development.

(e) In the case of any commercial or industrial development, the following procedures shall also apply:

(1) The school district governing board shall, in the course of making the findings required under subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 66001, do all of the following:

(A) Make the findings on either an individual project basis or on the basis of categories of commercial or industrial development. Those categories may include, but are not limited to, the following uses: office, retail, transportation, communications and utilities, light industrial, heavy industrial, research and development, and warehouse.

(B) Conduct a study to determine the impact of the increased number of employees anticipated to result from the commercial or industrial development upon the cost of providing school facilities within the district. For the purpose of making that determination, the study shall utilize employee generation estimates that are calculated on either an individual project or categorical basis, in accordance with subparagraph (A). Those employee generation estimates shall be based upon commercial and industrial factors within the district or upon, in whole or in part, the applicable employee generation estimates set forth in the January 1990 edition of "San Diego Traffic Generators," a report of the San Diego Association of Governments.

(C) The governing board shall take into account the results of that study in making the findings described in this subdivision.

(2) In addition to any other requirement imposed by law, in the case of any development project against which a fee, charge, dedication, or other requirement is to be imposed pursuant to Section 53080 on the basis of a category of commercial or industrial development, as described in paragraph (1), the governing board shall provide a process that permits the party against whom the fee, charge, dedication, or other requirement is to be imposed the opportunity for a hearing to appeal that imposition. The grounds for that appeal include, but are not limited to, the inaccuracy of including the project within the category pursuant to which the fee, charge, dedication, or other requirement is to be imposed, or that the employee generation or pupil generation factors utilized under the applicable category are inaccurate as applied to the project. The party appealing the imposition of the fee, charge, dedication, or other requirement shall bear the burden of establishing that the fee, charge, dedication, or other requirement is improper.

SEC. 13. Section 53534 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53534. Any provision of law to the contrary notwithstanding, a city, county, or city and county may enter into contracts commonly known as "interest rate swap agreements" or "forward payment conversion agreements" with any person providing for the exchange of payments between the person and the city, county, or city and county, including, without limitation, contracts providing for the exchange of fixed interest payments for floating payments or floating interest payments for fixed payments, or a combination thereof. The contracts may be made upon the terms and conditions established by the legislative body of the city, county, or city and county. The authority conferred by this section includes the authority to enter into any and all contracts incident to the exercise of the authority conferred by this section including, without limitation, contracts to obtain credit enhancement devices and contracts for the performance of professional services. However, these contracts may be made only if all securities or bonds included in the contracts are rated in one of the three highest rating categories by two nationally recognized rating agencies selected by the legislative body of the city, county, or city and county, and if there has been receipt, from any rating agency rating the bonds, of written evidence that the contract will not adversely affect the rating.

SEC. 14. Section 53901 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53901. Unless exempted by the county auditor 60 days after the beginning of its fiscal year, every local agency, including every special purpose assessing or taxing district with the county shall file with the county auditor of the county in which it conducts its principal operations, a copy of its annual budget. The county auditor shall hold on file the annual budget of such special purpose assessing or taxing district or local agency for public inspection at all reasonable hours. If a local agency or special purpose assessing or taxing district does not have a formal budget, it shall file a listing of its anticipated revenues, together with its expenditures and expenses for the fiscal year in progress. The county auditor shall hold on file such statement for public inspection at all reasonable hours.

SEC. 14.3. Section 56844 of the Government Code is amended to read:

56844. Any change of organization or reorganization may provide for, or be made subject to one or more of, the following terms and conditions. However, none of the following terms and conditions shall directly regulate land use, property development, or subdivision requirements:

(a) The payment of a fixed or determinable amount of money, either as a lump sum or in installments, for the acquisition, transfer, use or right of use of all or any part of the existing property, real or personal, of any city, county, or district.

(b) The levying or fixing and the collection of any of the following, for the purpose of providing for any payment required pursuant to subdivision (a):

(1) Special, extraordinary, or additional taxes or assessments.

(2) Special, extraordinary, or additional service charges, rentals, or rates.

(3) Both taxes or assessments and service charges, rentals, or rates.

(c) The imposition, exemption, transfer, division, or apportionment, as among any affected cities, affected counties, affected districts, and affected territory of liability for payment of all or any part of principal, interest, and any other amounts which shall become due on account of all or any part of any outstanding or then authorized but thereafter issued bonds, including revenue bonds, or other contracts or obligations of any city, county, district, or any improvement district within a local agency, and the levying or fixing and the collection of any (1) taxes or assessments, or (2) service charges, rentals, or rates, or (3) both taxes or assessments and service charges, rentals, or rates, in the same manner as provided in the original authorization of the bonds and in the amount necessary to provide for that payment.

(d) If, as a result of any term or condition made pursuant to subdivision (c), the liability of any affected city, affected county, or affected district for payment of the principal of any bonded indebtedness is increased or decreased, the term and condition may specify the amount, if any, of that increase or decrease which shall be included in, or excluded from, the outstanding bonded indebtedness of that entity for the purpose of the application of any statute or charter provision imposing a limitation upon the principal amount of outstanding bonded indebtedness of the entity.

(e) The formation of a new improvement district or districts or the annexation or detachment of territory to, or from, any existing improvement district or districts.

(f) The incurring of new indebtedness or liability by, or on behalf of, all or any part of any local agency, including territory being annexed to any local agency, or of any existing or proposed new improvement district within that local agency. The new indebtedness may be the obligation solely of territory to be annexed if the local agency has the authority to establish zones for incurring indebtedness. The indebtedness or liability shall be incurred substantially in accordance with the laws otherwise applicable to the local agency.

(g) The issuance and sale of any bonds, including authorized but unissued bonds of a local agency, either by that local agency or by a local agency designated as the successor to any local agency which is extinguished as a result of any change of organization or reorganization.

(h) The acquisition, improvement, disposition, sale, transfer, or division of any property, real or personal.

(i) The disposition, transfer, or division of any moneys or funds, including cash on hand and moneys due but uncollected, and any other obligations.

(j) The fixing and establishment of priorities of use, or right of use, of water, or capacity rights in any public improvements or facilities or of any other property, real or personal.

(k) The establishment, continuation, or termination of any office, department, or board, or the transfer, combining, consolidation, or separation of any offices, departments, or boards, or any of the functions of those offices, departments, or boards, if, and to the extent that, any of those matters is authorized by the principal act.

(l) The employment, transfer, or discharge of employees, the continuation, modification, or termination of existing employment contracts, civil service rights, seniority rights, retirement rights, and other employee benefits and rights.

(m) The designation of a city, county, or district, as the successor to any local agency which is extinguished as a result of any change of organization or reorganization, for the purpose of succeeding to all of the rights, duties, and obligations of the extinguished local agency with respect to enforcement, performance, or payment of any outstanding bonds, including revenue bonds, or other contracts and obligations of the extinguished local agency.

(n) The designation (1) of the method for the selection of members of the legislative body of a district or (2) the number of those members, or (3) both, where the proceedings are for a consolidation, or a reorganization providing for a consolidation or formation of a new district and the principal act provides for alternative methods of that selection or for varying numbers of those members, or both.

(o) The initiation, conduct, or completion of proceedings on a proposal made under, and pursuant to, this division.

(p) The fixing of the effective date of any change of organization, subject to the limitations of Section 57202.

(q) Any terms and conditions authorized or required by the principal act with respect to any change of organization.

(r) The continuation or provision of any service provided at that time, or previously authorized to be provided by an official act of the local agency.

(s) The levying of assessments, including the imposition of a fee pursuant to Section 50029 or 66484.3 or the approval by the voters of general or special taxes. For the purposes of this section, imposition of a fee as a condition of the issuance of a building permit does not constitute direct regulation of land use, property development, or subdivision requirements.

(t) The extension or continuation of any previously authorized charge, fee, assessment, or tax by the local agency or a successor local agency in the affected territory.

(u) The transfer of authority and responsibility among any affected cities, affected counties, and affected districts for the administration of special tax and special assessment districts, including, but not limited to, the levying and collecting of special taxes and special assessments, including the determination of the annual special tax rate within authorized limits; the management of redemption, reserve, special reserve, and construction funds; the issuance of bonds which are authorized but not yet issued at the time of the transfer, including not yet issued portions or phases of bonds which are authorized; supervision of construction paid for with bond or special tax or assessment proceeds; administration of agreements to acquire public facilities and reimburse advances made to the district; and all other rights and responsibilities with respect to the levies, bonds, funds, and use of proceeds that would have applied to the local agency that created the special tax or special assessment district.

(v) Any other matters necessary or incidental to any of the terms and conditions specified in this section.

SEC. 14.5. Section 57025 of the Government Code is amended to read:

57025. (a) Upon receipt of a copy of the commission's resolution making determinations, the clerk of the conducting authority shall give notice of the hearing to be held on the proposal by publication pursuant to Sections 56153 and 56154 and by posting pursuant to Sections 56158 and 56159.

(b) The clerk shall also give mailed notice to each affected city, affected district, or affected county, the commission, the chief petitioners, if any, all landowners owning land within any territory proposed to be formed into, or to be annexed to, or detached from, an improvement district within any city or district, and to persons requesting special notice, in accordance with the provisions of Sections 56155 to 56157, inclusive.

(c) In the case of a proposed annexation to a city of affected territory consisting of 75 acres or less, the clerk of the conducting authority shall give mailed notice to each landowner within the affected territory.

(d) In the case of a proposed change of organization or reorganization that would result in the extension of any previously authorized special tax or benefit assessment to the affected territory, the clerk of the conducting authority shall give mailed notice to each landowner within the affected territory.

SEC. 14.7. Section 57330 is added to the Government Code, to read:

57330. Any territory annexed to a city or district shall be subject to the levying or fixing and collection of any previously authorized taxes, benefit assessments, fees, or charges of the city or district.

SEC. 15. Section 65352.5 is added to the Government Code, to read:

65352.5. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that it is vital that there be close coordination and consultation between California's water supply agencies and California's land use approval agencies to ensure that proper water supply planning occurs in order to accommodate projects that will result in increased demands on water supplies.

(b) It is, therefore, the intent of the Legislature to provide a standardized process for determining the adequacy of existing and planned future water supplies to meet existing and planned future demands on these water supplies.

(c) Upon receiving, pursuant to Section 65352, notification of a city's or a county's proposed action to adopt or substantially amend a general plan, a public water system, as defined in Section 4010.1 of the Health and Safety Code, with 3,000 or more service connections, shall provide the planning agency with the following information, as is appropriate and relevant:

(1) The current version of its urban water management plan, adopted pursuant to Part 2.6 (commencing with Section 10610) of Division 6 of the Water Code.

(2) The current version of its capital improvement program or plan, as reported pursuant to Section 31144.73 or the Water Code.

(3) A description of the source or sources of the total water supply currently available to the water supplier by water right or contract, taking into account historical data concerning wet, normal, and dry runoff years.

(4) A description of the quantity of surface water that was purveyed by the water supplier in each of the previous five years.

(5) A description of the quantity of groundwater that was purveyed by the water supplier in each of the previous five years.

(6) A description of all proposed additional sources of water supplies for the water supplier, including the estimated dates by which these additional sources should be available and the quantities of additional water supplies that are being proposed.

(7) A description of the total number of customers currently served by the water supplier, as identified by the following categories and by the amount of water served to each category:

(A) Agricultural users.

(B) Commercial users.

(C) Industrial users.

(D) Residential users.

(8) Quantification of the expected reduction in total water demand, identified by each customer category set forth in paragraph (7), associated with future implementation of water use reduction measures identified in the water supplier's urban water management plan.

(9) Any additional information that is relevant to determining the adequacy of existing and planned future water supplies to meet existing and planned future demands on these water supplies.

SEC. 16. Article 5.5 (commencing with Section 65958) of Chapter 4.5 of Division 1 of Title 7 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 17. Section 68096.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

68096.1. (a) Any employee of a local agency who is obliged by a subpoena to attend a civil action or proceeding as a witness in litigation in a matter regarding an event or transaction which he or she perceived or investigated in the course of his or her duties, to which that local agency is not a party, shall receive the salary or other compensation to which he or she is normally entitled from that local agency during the time that he or she prepares for his or her response and appearance, during the time that he or she travels to and from the place where the court or other tribunal is located and while he or she is required to remain at that place pursuant to the subpoena. He or she shall also receive from that local agency the actual necessary and reasonable traveling expenses he or she incurred in complying with the subpoena.

(b) The party at whose request the subpoena is issued shall reimburse the local agency for the full cost incurred by the local agency in paying the employee his or her salary or other compensation and traveling expenses as provided for in this section, for each day that the employee is required to remain in attendance pursuant to the subpoena. The amount of one hundred fifty dollars ($150), together with the subpoena, shall be tendered to that local agency for each day that the employee is required to remain in attendance pursuant to the subpoena.

(c) If the actual expenses should later prove to be less than the amount tendered, the excess of the amount tendered shall be refunded.

(d) If the actual expenses should later prove to be more than the amount tendered, the difference shall be paid to the local agency by the party at whose request the subpoena was issued.

(e) If a court continues a proceeding on its own motion, no additional witness fee shall be required prior to the issuance of a subpoena or the making of any order directing the employee to appear on the date to which the proceeding is continued.

(f) As used in this section, "local agency" means a city, county, city and county, special district, redevelopment agency, or any other political subdivision of the state.

SEC. 18. Section 6832 of the Harbors and Navigation Code, as added by Chapter 680 of the Statutes of 1991, is repealed.

SEC. 18.1. Section 6937 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

6937. The issuance of said bonds shall be authorized by ordinance adopted by five-sevenths of all the members of the board, to take effect upon its publication.

SEC. 18.3. Section 6944 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

6944. (a) The district may, in any year, levy assessments, reassessments, or special taxes and issue bonds to finance waterway construction projects and related operations and maintenance, or operations and maintenance projects independent of construction projects in accordance with, and pursuant to, the Improvement Act of 1911 (Division 7 (commencing with Section 5000) of the Streets and Highways Code), the Improvement Bond Act of 1915 (Division 10 (commencing with Section 8500) of the Streets and Highways Code), the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913 (Division 12 (commencing with Section 10000) of the Streets and Highways Code), the Benefit Assessment Act of 1982 (Chapter 6.4 (commencing with Section 54703) of the Government Code), the Integrated Financing District Act (Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 53175) of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code), the Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act of 1982 (Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 53311) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code), and the Marks-Roos Local Bond Pooling Act of 1985 (Article 4 (commencing with Section 6584) of Chapter 5 of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code).

(b) Sections 5116, 5117, 5118, 5119, 5190, 5191, 5192, 5193, 10104, and 10302 of the Streets and Highways Code shall not apply to assessment proceedings undertaken pursuant to this section.

(c) Notwithstanding the related provisions of any assessment act which the district is authorized to use, any assessment diagram which any of those acts requires to be prepared prior to final approval of the assessment district may show only the exterior boundaries of the assessment district and the boundaries of any assessment zones or improvement areas within the district. The diagram may refer to the county assessor's maps and records for a detailed description of each lot or parcel.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the district may levy and collect assessments and reassessments in the same manner as provided in Article 3 (commencing with Section 51320) of Chapter 2 of Part 7 of Division 15 of the Water Code, to pay any or all of the following:

(1) For the operation and maintenance of projects, including maintenance of lands, easements, rights-of-way, dredge material disposal areas, and remediation.

(2) For the satisfaction of liabilities arising from projects.

(3) To accumulate a fund which may be used to advance the cost of district projects, provided that the advances be repaid, with interest as determined by the commissioners, from assessments, reassessments, special taxes, or fees charged by the district pursuant to this section.

(4) To acquire real property, easements, or rights-of-way for a navigation project or the maintenance of a navigation project.

(5) To acquire real property within the district for disposal of dredged material.

(e) For purposes of this section, functions designated by Article 3 (commencing with Section 51320) of Chapter 2 of Part 7 of Division 15 of the Water Code to be performed by the board of supervisors, the board of trustees, or valuation commissioners shall be performed by the district's board.

(f) For purposes of this section, the board may order the creation of a separate assessment roll to pay the allowable expenses of any single project or any group or system of projects.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, all assessments, reassessments, and taxes levied by the district may be collected together with, and not separately from, taxes for county purposes. Any county in which the district is located may collect, at the request of the district, all assessments, reassessments, and special taxes levied by the district and shall cause those revenues to be deposited into the county treasury to the credit of the district. Each county may deduct its reasonable collection and administrative costs.

(h) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any assessment or reassessment levied pursuant to this section may be apportioned on the basis of land use category, tonnage shipped on the waterway, size and type of vessel using the waterway, front footage, acreage, capital improvements, or other reasonable basis, separately or in combination, as determined by the district commissioners.

(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, Division 4 (commencing with Section 2800) of the Streets and Highways Code shall not apply to any assessment levied by the district.

(j) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no bond issued pursuant to this section shall be used to fund the routine maintenance dredging of channels.

(k) Any assessment levied pursuant to subdivision (a) or (d) to be payable in two or more installments over a period of greater than one year shall be authorized by a five-sevenths or greater vote of all of the members of the board.

SEC. 18.5. Section 4730.8 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

4730.8. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections, 4730, 4730.1, and 4730.2, or any other provision of law, the governing board of a sanitation district in the County of Riverside that includes no territory within a city shall be the county board of supervisors.

The sanitation district may include all or a part of the territory of one or more previously existing sanitary districts that lie within the unincorporated territory of the county.

If the sanitation district includes any part of a sanitary district, the sanitation district shall not perform any of the functions of the sanitary district within the boundaries of the sanitary district if the sanitary district has performed that function within the 10 years immediately preceding January 1, 1994.

The sanitation district may handle, treat, and manage solid waste, as defined pursuant to the California Integrated Waste Management Act of 1989, Division 30 (commencing with Section 40000) of the Public Resources Code, in the same manner as the County of Riverside is authorized pursuant to that act.

SEC. 19. Section 6480.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

6480.7. If a consolidation involving the Capistrano Beach Sanitary District and the Dana Point Sanitary District is approved, the board of directors of the consolidated district shall initially consist of 10 members who shall be the members of the boards of directors of the two districts as of the effective date of the consolidation. Notwithstanding Section 56844 of the Government Code, those board members shall determine within 60 days from the effective date of the consolidation whether the board of directors shall consist of 5, 7, 9, or 11 members, and they shall further determine within that time the persons who shall thereafter be members of the board of directors. If those board members determine that the board of directors shall consist of 11 members, they shall appoint the eleventh member whose term shall be the same as the terms of the members of the board of directors whose terms will first expire. Upon making those determinations, the members so selected shall notify by resolution the Board of Supervisors and the Registrar of Voters of the County of Orange of the number of members and the names of the persons who have been selected or appointed as members of the board of directors, and of the expiration dates of their terms of office. If that selection and appointment process is not completed within 60 days of the effective date of the consolidation, the Board of Supervisors of the County of Orange shall determine the number of members of the board of directors and shall select the members of the board of directors from among those 10 persons, or call a special election for the election of the directors of the consolidated district on the next available election date. In that event, those 10 persons shall serve as the board of directors until the results of the special election are declared by the board of supervisors.

SEC. 20. Section 6487 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

6487. All contracts, deeds, warrants, releases, receipts, and documents shall be signed in the name of the district by its president, and countersigned by its secretary, except that the board may, by resolution, authorize the district manager or other district employees specified by the board to sign contracts, warrants, releases, receipts, and similar documents in the name of the district.

SEC. 20.5. Section 13800 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

13800. This part shall be known and may be cited as the Fire Protection District Law of 1987 or as the Bergeson Fire District Law.

SEC. 21. Section 13893 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

13893. (a) On or before June 30 of each year, a district board shall publish a notice stating all of the following:

(1) That it has adopted a preliminary budget which is available for inspection at a time and place within the district specified in the notice.

(2) The date, time, and place when the board will meet to adopt the final budget and that any person may appear and be heard regarding any item in the budget or regarding the addition of other items.

(b) The notice shall be published pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the district. The first publication shall be at least two weeks before the date of the meeting. If there is no newspaper published in the district, the notice shall be posted in three public places in the district at least two weeks before the date of the meeting.

SEC. 22. Section 9202 of the Public Contract Code is repealed.

SEC. 22.5. Section 20131 is added to the Public Contract Code, to read:

20131. Counties which employ purchasing agents may:

(a) Authorize the agent to employ state-licensed independent contractors and purchase materials, furnishings, and supplies used in the construction or repair of public works estimated as costing not more than six thousand five hundred dollars ($6,500) without the formality of obtaining bids, letting contracts, preparing specifications, and the other things required by this article.

(b) In counties containing a population of 500,000 or more, authorize the agent to purchase materials and supplies used in the construction or repair of public works estimated as costing not more than three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500) without the formality of obtaining bids, letting contracts, preparing specifications, and the other things required by this article.

(c) Authorize the agent to purchase or contract for medical or surgical equipment or supplies, or for professional services, for a county hospital without competitive bidding, so long as an appropriation for the costs of those purchases or contracts is included in the county budget.

As used in this subdivision, "medical or surgical equipment or supplies" means only equipment or supplies commonly, necessarily, and directly used by or under the direction of a physician and surgeon in caring for or treating a patient in a hospital.

SEC. 23. Section 20206.7 of the Public Contract Code is repealed.

SEC. 24. Section 20206.8 of the Public Contract Code is repealed.

SEC. 25. Section 20206.9 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

20206.9. The clerk shall furnish printed blanks for all proposals and contracts.

SEC. 25.5. Section 22300 of the Public Contract Code is amended to read:

22300. (a) Provisions shall be included in any invitation for bid and in any contract documents to permit the substitution of securities for any moneys withheld by a public agency to ensure performance under a contract, provided that substitution of securities provisions shall not be required in contracts in which there will be financing provided by the Farmers Home Administration of the United States Department of Agriculture pursuant to the Consolidated Farm and Rural Development Act (7 U.S.C. Sec. 1921 et seq.), and where federal regulations or policies, or both, do not allow the substitution of securities. At the request and expense of the contractor, securities equivalent to the amount withheld shall be deposited with the public agency, or with a state or federally chartered bank in California as the escrow agent, who shall then pay those moneys to the contractor. Upon satisfactory completion of the contract, the securities shall be returned to the contractor.

(b) Alternatively, the contractor may request and the owner shall make payment of retentions earned directly to the escrow agent at the expense of the contractor. At the expense of the contractor, the contractor may direct the investment of the payments into securities and the contractor shall receive the interest earned on the investments upon the same terms provided for in this section for securities deposited by the contractor. Upon satisfactory completion of the contract, the contractor shall receive from the escrow agent all securities, interest, and payments received by the escrow agent from the owner, pursuant to the terms of this section. The contractor shall pay to each subcontractor, not later than 20 days of receipt of the payment, the respective amount of interest earned, net of costs attributed to retention withheld from each subcontractor, on the amount of retention withheld to insure the performance of the contractor.

(c) Securities eligible for investment under this section shall include those listed in Section 16430 of the Government Code, bank or savings and loan certificates of deposit, interest bearing demand deposit accounts, standby letters of credit, or any other security mutually agreed to by the contractor and the public agency.

The contractor shall be the beneficial owner of any securities substituted for moneys withheld and shall receive any interest thereon.

Failure to include these provisions in bid and contract documents shall void any provisions for performance retentions in a public agency contract.

For purposes of this section, the term "public agency" shall include, but shall not be limited to, chartered cities.

(d) The Legislature hereby declares that the provisions of this section are of statewide concern and are necessary to encourage full participation by contractors in public contract procedures.

(e) The escrow agreement used hereunder shall be null, void, and unenforceable unless it is substantially similar to the following form:

ESCROW AGREEMENT FOR SECURITY DEPOSITS IN LIEU OF RETENTION

This Escrow Agreement is made and entered into by and between _____ whose address is _____ _____ hereinafter called "Owner," _____ whose address is _____ _____ hereinafter called "Contractor"

and _____ whose address is _____ _____ hereinafter called "Escrow Agent."

For the consideration hereinafter set forth, the Owner, Contractor, and Escrow Agent agree as follows:

(1) Pursuant to Section 22300 of the Public Contract Code of the State of California, Contractor has the option to deposit securities with Escrow Agent as a substitute for retention earnings required to be withheld by Owner pursuant to the Construction Contract entered into between the Owner and Contractor for _____ in the amount of _____ dated _____ (hereinafter referred to as the "Contract"). Alternatively, on written request of the Contractor, the Owner shall make payments of the retention earnings directly to the escrow agent. When the Contractor deposits the securities as a substitute for Contract earnings, the Escrow Agent shall notify the Owner within 10 days of the deposit. The market value of the securities at the time of the substitution shall be at least equal to the cash amount then required to be withheld as retention under the terms of the Contract between the Owner and Contractor. Securities shall be held in the name of _____, and shall designate the Contractor as the beneficial owner.

(2) The Owner shall make progress payments to the Contractor for those funds which otherwise would be withheld from progress payments pursuant to the Contract provisions, provided that the Escrow Agent holds securities in the form and amount specified above.

(3) When the Owner makes payment of retentions earned directly to the Escrow Agent, the Escrow Agent shall hold them for the benefit of the Contractor until the time that the escrow created under this contract is terminated. The Contractor may direct the investment of the payments into securities. All terms and conditions of this agreement and the rights and responsibilities of the parties shall be equally applicable and binding when the Owner pays the Escrow Agent directly.

(4) Contractor shall be responsible for paying all fees for the expenses incurred by Escrow Agent in administering the Escrow Account and all expenses of the Owner. These expenses and payment terms shall be determined by the Owner, Contractor, and Escrow Agent.

(5) The interest earned on the securities or the money market accounts held in escrow and all interest earned on that interest shall be for the sole account of Contractor and shall be subject to withdrawal by Contractor at any time and from time to time without notice to the Owner.

(6) Contractor shall have the right to withdraw all or any part of the principal in the Escrow Account only by written notice to Escrow Agent accompanied by written authorization from the Owner to the Escrow Agent that Owner consents to the withdrawal of the amount sought to be withdrawn by Contractor.

(7) The Owner shall have a right to draw upon the securities in the event of default by the Contractor. Upon seven days' written notice to the Escrow Agent from the owner of the default, the Escrow Agent shall immediately convert the securities to cash and shall distribute the cash as instructed by the Owner.

(8) Upon receipt of written notification from the Owner certifying that the Contract is final and complete, and that the Contractor has complied with all requirements and procedures applicable to the Contract, Escrow Agent shall release to Contractor all securities and interest on deposit less escrow fees and charges of the Escrow Account. The escrow shall be closed immediately upon disbursement of all moneys and securities on deposit and payments of fees and charges.

(9) Escrow Agent shall rely on the written notifications from the Owner and the Contractor pursuant to Sections (5) to (8), inclusive, of this agreement and the Owner and Contractor shall hold Escrow Agent harmless from Escrow Agent's release and disbursement of the securities and interest as set forth above.

(10) The names of the persons who are authorized to give written notice or to receive written notice on behalf of the Owner and on behalf of Contractor in connection with the foregoing, and exemplars of their respective signatures are as follows:

On behalf of Owner:	On behalf of Contractor:
Title	Title
Name	Name
Signature	Signature
Address	Address

On behalf of Escrow Agent:

SEC. 25.7. Section 5541.2 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

5541.2. The Riverside County Regional Park and Open-Space District may plan, acquire, preserve, protect, and otherwise improve, extend, control, operate, and maintain open-space areas, greenbelt areas, wildlife habitat areas, and regional parks for the use and enjoyment of all the inhabitants of the district. The district may select, designate, and acquire land, or rights in land, within or without the district, to be used and appropriated for those purposes.

SEC. 25.8. Section 5552.1 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

5552.1. Notwithstanding Section 5552, the board of directors of the Riverside County Regional Park and Open-Space District may, by resolution, eliminate the requirement that demands against the district which are paid without the prior, specific approval of the board be presented to the board at the next regular meeting for its review and approval.

SEC. 25.9. Section 97.05 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

97.05. For the purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 97.03, "multicounty district" includes District 2 of the Alameda Contra Costa Transit District. This section shall be deemed to have become operative July 1, 1992, and the auditor is hereby authorized to adjust the 1993–94 distributions to the Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund accordingly.

SEC. 26. Section 1806 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

1806. (a) No city shall be held liable for failure to maintain any road until it has been accepted into the city street system in accordance with subdivision (b) or (c).

(b) Except as provided by Section 989, or by Section 57329 or 57385 of the Government Code, no public or private street or road shall become a city street or road until the governing body, by resolution, has caused the street or road to be accepted into the city street system.

(c) In lieu of the procedure set forth in subdivision (b), the governing body of a city may, by ordinance, designate a city officer to accept, on behalf of the governing body, streets and roads or portions thereof, into the city street system and to record conveyances to the city of real property interests for street and road uses and purposes. The designee shall, prior to recording any conveyance under this section, affix a certificate to the instrument stating the acceptance into the city street system and designating the name or number, or both, of the city street or road.

SEC. 26.1. Section 21102 of the Water Code is amended to read:

21102. Prior to the first Friday in December next following the general district election each elective officer shall take and subscribe the official oath and file it in the office of the district and execute the bond required of him or her.

SEC. 27. Section 21375 of the Water Code is amended to read:

21375. On the first Tuesday after the original directors qualify, and on the day on which the board holds its first regular monthly meeting after the first Friday in December of the year in which a general district election is held, the directors shall meet and organize as a board and may transact any other business of the district.

SEC. 28. Section 21560 of the Water Code is amended to read:

21560. If an order made pursuant to this article changes the number of divisions, the terms of office of all directors shall expire at noon on the first Friday in December following the next general district election after the order, and the directors elected at that election shall be equal in number to the number of divisions as changed and these directors shall at their first meeting classify themselves and determine the length of their respective terms in the manner provided in subdivision (c) of Section 23506 of the Elections Code.

SEC. 29. Section 22980 of the Water Code is amended to read:

22980. For purposes of this chapter, "district" means the Byron-Bethany Irrigation District, the Merced Irrigation District, or the East Contra Costa Irrigation District.

SEC. 30. Section 74461 of the Water Code is amended to read:

74461. The change may be initiated by the board by resolution or may be initiated by a petition signed by not less than 5 percent of the electors of the district. The resolution or petition shall state the new number of members of the board or the new basis for dividing the district into divisions based either on area or population or changes to the boundaries of the divisions of a district based on population.

SEC. 30.5. Section 74466 of the Water Code is amended to read:

74466. (a) The board of supervisors shall hear all interested persons and may adjourn the hearing from time to time. Following the hearing, the board of supervisors may further change the proposed division boundaries provided that the change is in accordance with this chapter and the resolution and petition. The board of supervisors shall make an order describing the proposed divisions of the district, numbering such divisions consecutively, and directing that such proposed redivision be submitted to the electors of the district at a special election to be consolidated with the next district general election to be held not earlier than 120 days thereafter.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a redivision involving only changes to the boundaries of the divisions of a district based upon population, independent of a change in the basis of dividing the district into divisions, shall not be submitted to the electors of the district.

SEC. 31. Section 75601 is added to the Water Code, to read:

75601. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board may amend the report prepared pursuant to Section 75561 at any time during the water year. Upon completion of any amended report, the board shall deliver the report to the secretary.

(b) The secretary shall publish a notice of the receipt of the amended report and of a public hearing. The notice shall be published pursuant to Section 75571.

(c) The board shall hold a public hearing within 30 days after the receipt of the amended report. Persons may appear and submit evidence at the public hearing concerning the groundwater conditions and the surface water supplies of the district. Any person may protest or support the amended report.

(d) The board may modify a groundwater charge levied pursuant to Section 75591 if, in the judgment of the board, based on the findings and determinations from the hearing held pursuant to subdivision (c), the modification is necessary.

(e) Any groundwater charge modified pursuant to subdivision (d) is subject to Sections 75592, 75593, 75594, 75595, and 75596.

(f) Upon the modification of the groundwater charge pursuant to subdivision (d), the board shall notify, in writing, the board of supervisors and the auditor of each county of the modification.

SEC. 31.1. Section 11 of Chapter 129 of the Statutes of 1868 is amended to read:

Sec. 11. The Board of Supervisors may, in their discretion, and to the extent that the interests of the town require it, designate from any of the lands or lots mentioned in section eight of this Act, and set forth in such petition for public uses, such lands or lots as may be deemed eligible and adapted to such uses; and upon an order to that effect being made, the County Judge of said county shall, if the proceedings upon which such order is based appear to be regular, issue a certificate to that effect, and file the same with the Recorder of said county; and said Recorder shall thereupon record it in the proper record of deeds of conveyance of real estate for said county, and thereafter the lands and lots so embraced in such certificate shall be deemed to be dedicated to such public use until such time as the Legislature determines that the purpose for which the land has been dedicated no longer represents the best public use for the named property. That property is defined as the "Red Bluff Veterans Memorial Hall Property" and more specifically as: "All of Block 63 of the Town [now City of Red Bluff, as the same is shown on the map entitled, 'Official Map of the Town and Townsite of Red Bluff Tehama County California,' filed in the office of the County Recorder of the County of Tehama, State of California, May 29, 1878, and now appearing on file therein in Book 'A' at page 79," is designated by the Legislature for use by the Tehama County Board of Supervisors for the construction of a new Red Bluff Veterans Memorial Hall and to those other uses as the board deems to be in the public interest. This power specifically includes, but is not limited to, the power to lease or convey the "Red Bluff Veterans Memorial Hall Property" or any part thereof upon any terms and conditions that the board deems appropriate in the public interest.

SEC. 31.3. Section 7.1 of the Amador County Water Agency Act, Chapter 2137 of the Statutes of 1959, is amended to read:

Sec. 7.1. The governing body of the agency shall be a board of five directors, each of whom shall be a voter of, and nominated and elected from, a supervisorial district of the county.

The directors representing Amador County supervisorial districts 1, 4, and 5, who were elected at the direct primary election on June 5, 1990, shall hold office until their successors take office pursuant to Section 23556 of the Elections Code as a result of the 1994 general agency election. The directors representing supervisorial districts 2 and 3, who were elected at the direct primary election on June 2, 1992, shall hold office until their successors take office pursuant to Section 23556 of the Elections Code as a result of the 1996 general agency election. Except as otherwise provided in this section, general agency elections shall be conducted pursuant to the Uniform District Election Law, Part 3 (commencing with Section 23500) of Division 14 of the Elections Code. The provisions of the Elections Code relating to the qualification of electors, so far as they may be applicable, shall govern all agency elections. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, agency elections shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of each even-numbered year.

All vacancies occurring in the office of director, including the failure of a person elected to qualify, shall be filled pursuant to Section 1780 of the Government Code.

SEC. 31.4. Section 26.6 of the Santa Clara Valley Water District Act, Chapter 1405 of the Statutes of 1951, as amended by Section 3 of Chapter 530 of the Statutes of 1971, is amended to read:

Sec. 26.6. On or before the first Tuesday in April of each year the report shall be delivered to the clerk of the district board in writing. The clerk shall publish, pursuant to Section 6061 of the Government Code, a notice of the receipt of the report and of the public hearing to be held on or before the fourth Tuesday in April in a newspaper of general circulation printed and published within the district, at least 10 days prior to the date at which the public hearing regarding the report shall be held. The notice, among other information which the district may provide, shall contain an invitation to all operators of water-producing facilities within the district and to any person interested in the district's activities in the protection and augmentation of the water supplies of the district to call at the offices of the district to examine the report. There shall be held on or before the fourth Tuesday of April of each year, in the chambers of the board, a public hearing at which time any operator of a water-producing facility within the district, or any person interested in the district's activities in the protection and augmentation of the water supplies of the district, may in person, or by representative, appear and submit evidence concerning the subject of the written report.

SEC. 31.5. Section 26.9 of the Santa Clara Valley Water District Act, Chapter 1405 of the Statutes of 1951, as amended by Section 1 of Chapter 6 of the First Extraordinary Session of 1991–92, is amended to read:

Sec. 26.9. (a) After the establishment of a zone in which a groundwater charge may be levied, each owner or operator of a water-producing facility within the zone, until the time that the water-producing facility has been permanently abandoned, shall file with the district, on or before the 30th day following the end of collection periods established by the board, a water production statement setting forth the total production in acre-feet of water for the preceding collection period, a general description or number locating each water-producing facility, the method or basis of the computation of the water production, and the amount of the groundwater charge based on the computation. The collection periods may be established at intervals of not more than one year or less than one month. If no water has been produced from the water-producing facility during a preceding collection period, this statement shall be filed as provided for in this section, setting forth that no water has been produced during the applicable period. The statement shall be verified by a written declaration under penalty of perjury.

(b) The groundwater charge is payable to the district on or before the last date upon which the water production statements shall be filed, and is computed by multiplying the production in acre-feet of water for each classification as disclosed in the statement by the groundwater charge for each classification of water. The owner or operator of a water-producing facility which is being permanently abandoned shall give written notice of the abandonment to the district. If any owner or operator of a water-producing facility fails to pay the groundwater charge when due, the district shall charge interest at the rate of 1 percent each month on the delinquent amount of the groundwater charge.

(c) If any owner or operator of a water-producing facility fails to register each water-producing facility, or fails to file the water production statements as required by this act, the district shall, in addition to charging interest, assess a penalty charge against the owner or operator in an amount of 10 percent of the amount found by said district to be due. The board may adopt regulations to provide that in excusable or justifiable circumstances the penalty may be reduced or waived.

(d) If any owner or operator of a water-producing facility fails to file a water production statement as required by this act, the district shall, in addition to charging interest and assessing a penalty charge, assess an administrative charge to recover the costs of collection. The board may adopt regulations to provide that in excusable or justifiable circumstances the administrative charge may be reduced or waived.

(e) If a water-measuring device is permanently attached to a water-producing facility, the record of production as disclosed by the water-measuring device shall be presumed to be accurate and shall be used as the basis for computing the water production of the water-producing facility in completing the water production statement, unless it can be shown that the water-measuring device is not measuring accurately.

(f) If a water-measuring device is not permanently attached to a water-producing facility, the board may establish a method or methods to be used in computing the amount of water produced from the water-producing facilities. The methods may be based upon any or all of the following criteria: the minimum charge sufficient to cover administrative costs of collection, size of water-producing facility discharge opening, area served by the water-producing facility, number of persons served by the water-producing facility, use of land served by the water-producing facility, crops grown on land served by the water-producing facility, or any other criteria or criteria which may be used to determine with reasonable accuracy the amount of water produced from that water-producing facility. The district may levy an annual charge upon a water-producing facility for which no production has been recorded but which has not been permanently abandoned if that charge does not exceed the annual cost to the district of maintaining and administering the registration of that facility.

SEC. 31.7. Section 700 of the Colusa Basin Drainage District Act, Chapter 1399 of the Statutes of 1987, is amended to read:

Sec. 700. The district may levy benefit assessments on a districtwide basis or within any zone, upon land only, as follows:

(a) An initial assessment for district expenses may be levied on the basis of an equal amount per acre as shown on the assessment rolls, but not to exceed ten cents ($0.10) per acre. It is hereby declared for that purpose that the benefit of district activities is received equally by all land. This initial assessment may be levied annually in lieu of the assessment specified in subdivision (b) until a plan has been approved pursuant to Section 610.

(b) Annual assessments pursuant to Sections 703 to 708, inclusive.

SEC. 32. With respect to Sections 9 and 19 of this act, the Legislature finds and declares that a special law is necessary and that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitutions because of the unique circumstances of the Counties of Butte, Merced, Orange, Riverside, and Ventura and the Riverside County Regional Park and Open-Space District, Capistrano Beach Sanitary District and the Dana Point Sanitary District.

SEC. 33. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act is in accordance with the request of a local agency or school district which desired legislative authority to carry out the program specified in this act. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1196

An act to add Section 5009.1 to the Public Resources Code, relating to the state park system.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) State parks are a vital and valuable resource to the people of the state, and programs that maintain access to parks and enhance the experience of park visitors are in the best interest of the people of the state.

(b) Many individuals and organizations wish to volunteer their time or resources to state parks.

Therefore, it is the intent of the Legislature to encourage Californians to volunteer their time and resources to help keep parks clean, in good repair, and open. These volunteers, under the direction of state park personnel, may provide valuable volunteer services and funds to aid California's parks.

It is further the intent of the Legislature that funds and services received by the Department of Parks and Recreation pursuant to this act shall supplement existing resources and shall not supplant existing staffing resources.

SEC. 2. Section 5009.1 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

5009.1. (a) The department may enter into an agreement to accept funds from any person, corporation or other business entity, or organization for the maintenance or operation, on a nonprofit basis, of a designated state park system unit or facility. Any funds so received shall be deposited in a separate account in the State Park Contingent Fund. The funds received shall supplement existing resources for the purpose of enhancing the maintenance or operation of the unit or facility, with priority given to preventing closure or reduced hours of service to the public. The department and the sponsoring person, entity, or organization shall specify in the agreement the level of service which is to be performed.

(b) The department may enter into an agreement to accept services from any person, corporation or other business entity, or organization for the cleanup, repair, or enhancement of any designated state park system unit or facility. Under the direction of the department, these services shall supplement existing staff resources for the purpose of enhancing the maintenance and operation of the unit or facility.

(c) The director may authorize the erection of an appropriate sign in recognition of the sponsorship, consistent with existing law and with the rules and regulations of the department regarding signs in units of the state park system.

CHAPTER 1197

An act to amend Sections 1171.5, 1177, 1692, 1700, and 1704 of, and to add Sections 1180.3, 1180.6, and 1184 to, the Harbors and Navigation Code, relating to harbors and navigation, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1171.5 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1171.5. (a) The board shall adopt, by regulation, licensing standards which shall be equal to, or exceed, standards for obtaining federal endorsements and which shall conform with and support the state policy specified in Sections 1100 and 1101.

(b) The board shall adopt reasonable rules and regulations which require pilots to be qualified to perform all pilot duties.

(c) The board shall adopt, by regulation, training standards and a training program for pilots, inland pilots, and pilot trainees. In the case of pilot trainees, the training program shall be for a minimum of one year and a maximum of three years. In the case of pilots and inland pilots, the board shall specify the type, nature, duration, and frequency of the training required and the identity of the pilots or inland pilots who are required to undergo training in the next 12-month period. Pursuant to Section 1182, the license of a pilot or inland pilot may be revoked or suspended if he or she fails to complete the training required by this subdivision during the period specified. The board shall also require that an evaluation of the pilot's or inland pilot's performance be prepared by the institution selected by the board to provide pilot training, and the institution shall provide copies of the evaluation to the pilot or inland pilot and to the pilot evaluation committee.

(d) The board shall adopt, by regulation, the qualifications, standards, and rating criteria for admission of pilot trainees to the training program. Notwithstanding subdivision (f), the board shall administer and conduct the pilot trainee admission selection in accordance with the regulations for admission.

(e) The board shall establish a pilot evaluation committee consisting of five active pilots who each have at least 10 years' experience as a pilot on the Bays of San Francisco, San Pablo, and Suisun. The board shall select the members of the pilot evaluation committee. A member may not serve for more than two four-year terms, except that two of the initial members appointed to the pilot evaluation committee shall serve terms of two years.

(f) The pilot evaluation committee shall conduct and supervise the pilot training programs pursuant to the direction and regulation of the board and consistent with the intent of this division.

(g) The board shall issue a certificate of completion to each pilot trainee who satisfactorily completes the training program. The board shall not issue a pilot's license to any person who does not receive a certificate of completion of the training program by the board, although the board may refuse to issue a pilot license to a pilot trainee who has received this certificate.

(h) The training program for pilots, inland pilots, and pilot trainees shall be funded from the Board of Pilot Commissioners Special Fund pursuant to Section 1159.

SEC. 2. Section 1177 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1177. (a) All pilots licensed pursuant to this division shall have and maintain proper federal endorsements allowing them to pilot on the high seas and on all waters of the Bays of San Francisco, San Pablo, and Suisun, excluding the San Joaquin River and the Sacramento deep water ship channel.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), all pilots issued original licenses pursuant to this division after December 31, 1987, shall have and maintain proper federal endorsements allowing them to pilot on the high seas and on all waters of the Bays of San Francisco, San Pablo, and Suisun, including the San Joaquin River and the Sacramento deep water ship channel.

SEC. 3. Section 1180.3 is added to the Harbors and Navigation Code, to read:

1180.3. (a) The board shall establish an incident review committee, which shall be composed of one public member of the board and the executive director. The board shall delegate to the incident review committee the responsibility to review all reports of misconduct or navigational incidents involving pilots or inland pilots or other matters for which a license issued by the board may be revoked or suspended.

(b) The incident review committee shall, with the assistance of one or more investigators, investigate the incident, misconduct, or other matter and prepare a written report. The incident review committee may call witnesses and request additional information if the incident review committee considers it necessary to conduct a complete investigation. In performing their duties, the members of the incident review committee and its investigators shall act fairly and impartially and shall treat all matters developed or maintained as required by law. The members of the incident review committee and the investigators shall not discuss any investigation with the board or any member of the board until the matter has been finally disposed of by the incident review committee or final action has been taken by the board, as appropriate. The board shall specify, by regulation, the information to be contained in the report, which shall include, but need not be limited to, the following information relating to the incident, misconduct, or other matter:

(1) The name of the vessel, date, location, and identification of the pilot or inland pilot.

(2) A description of the weather and sea conditions.

(3) An illustration and description of the incident, misconduct, or other matter under investigation.

(4) An estimate of the damages, if any.

(5) The names of the witnesses providing information relating to the incident, misconduct, or other matter under investigation.

(6) The nature and extent of any injuries.

(7) A summary of any prior investigations of incidents, misconduct, or other matters involving the same pilot or inland pilot designated pursuant to paragraph (1).

(8) Any relevant correspondence or records from the United States Coast Guard relating to the incident, misconduct, or other matter under investigation.

(9) A historical record of the actions taken in the investigation and the action taken pursuant to Section 1180.6.

(10) A summary of the factual background of the incident, misconduct, or other matter investigated.

(11) The following information that is not a part of the public record:

(A) The report from the pilot or inland pilot.

(B) The confidential report of the investigator.

(c) Unless an accusation for suspension or revocation of the pilot's or inland pilot's license is served on the pilot or inland pilot as provided in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, the incident review committee shall present the completed investigation report to the board at the first monthly meeting of the board after the completion of the report. Unless an extension is granted by the board, the report shall be presented within 90 days of the date of the incident, misconduct, or other matter investigated.

(d) The record of the investigation prepared pursuant to subdivision (b) and the final disposition of the incident, misconduct, or other matter shall be retained in the records of the board for 10 years after the completion of the investigation and, except for the items listed in paragraph (11) of subdivision (b), shall be a public record.

SEC. 4. Section 1180.6 is added to the Harbors and Navigation Code, to read:

1180.6. (a) The incident review committee, after full consideration of the evidence relating to the investigation of an incident, misconduct, or other matter pursuant to Section 1180.3, shall, at the conclusion of the investigation, take one of the following actions:

(1) Serve an accusation for suspension or revocation of the pilot's or inland pilot's license on the pilot or inland pilot, as provided in Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, pursuant to Sections 1181 and 1182.

(2) Enter into a written stipulation for corrective action to be performed by the pilot or inland pilot, which may include, but is not limited to, further training or supervised practice trips. A written stipulation may provide that it may be referred to and considered following a finding of fault in any subsequent accusation brought against the same pilot or inland pilot for the purpose of considering an appropriate sanction. A written stipulation shall not be used for any purpose more than five years after the date of its execution.

(3) Provide counselling for the pilot or inland pilot relating to the duties and obligations of a pilot.

(4) Issue a warning letter of reprimand to the pilot or inland pilot.

(5) Take any other action, as provided in the guidelines adopted pursuant to subdivision (e).

(6) Close the investigation without further action.

(b) Action shall be taken by the incident review committee pursuant to subdivision (a) only if both members of the incident review committee agree on the course of action. If agreement cannot be reached between the board member serving on the incident review committee and the executive director concerning appropriate action, the president of the board shall appoint one additional public member of the board to serve on the incident review committee until there is final disposition of the case. Action required pursuant to subdivision (a) shall then be taken by a majority vote of the incident review committee.

(c) No member of the board shall sit on the board as a trier of fact for those cases where he or she has served on the incident review committee recommending action to the board.

(d) The executive director shall establish a suspense file to ensure that all training, practice trips, or other corrective action required to be performed pursuant to subdivision (a) by the pilot or inland pilot are completed as required. The executive director shall report to the board each month on the progress of any training, supervised practice trips, or other corrective action or the completion of any other action required pursuant to subdivision (a).

(e) The board shall adopt guidelines for the determination by the incident review committee of the action to be taken pursuant to subdivision (a) at the completion of any investigation conducted pursuant to Section 1180.3.

SEC. 5. Section 1184 is added to the Harbors and Navigation Code, to read:

1184. The board shall formally review the executive director with respect to the performance of his or her duties pursuant to this article at least once each year.

SEC. 6. Section 1692 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1692. "Authority" means a joint powers entity or nonprofit public benefit corporation created in accordance with Section 1700.

SEC. 7. Section 1700 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1700. (a) Any two or more harbor agencies may, pursuant to the joint powers law, establish an authority, separate from the parties to the agreement, for the purpose, in addition to any other purpose permitted under the joint powers law, of establishing an infrastructure fund and financing port or harbor infrastructure pursuant to this part.

(b) An authority may be formed as a nonprofit public benefit corporation subject to the nonprofit corporation law (Division 2 (commencing with Section 5000) of Title 1 of the Corporations Code), for the purpose of establishing an infrastructure fund and financing port or harbor infrastructure pursuant to this part.

SEC. 8. Section 1704 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

1704. In addition to any purpose authorized under the joint powers law for which bonds may be issued, an authority may issue bonds in the manner set forth in Article 4 (commencing with Section 6584) of Chapter 5 of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, to finance or refinance any port or harbor infrastructure or to make deposits into the infrastructure fund or any subaccount thereof, except that a nonprofit public benefit corporation may issue bonds only to the extent authorized by a joint powers agreement.

CHAPTER 1198

An act to amend Section 676.2 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 676.2 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

676.2. (a) This section applies only to policies of commercial insurance which are subject to Section 675.5.

(b) After a policy has been in effect for more than 60 days, or if the policy is a renewal, effective immediately, no notice of cancellation shall be effective unless it complies with Section 677.2 and it is based on the occurrence, after the effective date of the policy, of one or more of the following:

(1) Nonpayment of premium, including payment due on a prior policy issued by the insurer and due during the current policy term covering the same risks.

(2) A judgment by a court or an administrative tribunal that the named insured has violated any law of this state or of the United States having as one of its necessary elements an act which materially increases any of the risks insured against.

(3) Discovery of fraud or material misrepresentation by either of the following:

(A) The insured or his or her representative in obtaining the insurance.

(B) The named insured or his or her representative in pursuing a claim under the policy.

(4) Discovery of willful or grossly negligent acts or omissions, or of any violations of state laws or regulations establishing safety standards, by the named insured or his or her representative, which materially increase any of the risks insured against.

(5) Failure by the named insured or his or her representative to implement reasonable loss control requirements which were agreed to by the insured as a condition of policy issuance or which were conditions precedent to the use by the insurer of a particular rate or rating plan, if the failure materially increases any of the risks insured against.

(6) A determination by the commissioner that the loss of, or changes in, an insurer's reinsurance covering all or part of the risk would threaten the financial integrity or solvency of the insurer. A certification made under penalty of perjury to the commissioner by an officer of the insurer of the loss of, or change in, reinsurance and that the loss or change will threaten the financial integrity or solvency of the insurer if the cancellation of the policy is not permitted shall constitute such a determination unless disapproved by the commissioner within 30 days of the filing. There shall be no extensions to this 30-day period.

(7) A determination by the commissioner that a continuation of the policy coverage would place the insurer in violation of the laws of this state or the state of its domicile or that the continuation of coverage would threaten the solvency of the insurer.

(8) A change by the named insured or his or her representative in the activities or property of the commercial or industrial enterprise which results in a material added risk, a materially increased risk or a materially changed risk, unless the added, increased, or changed risk is included in the policy.

(c) After a policy has been in effect for more than 60 days, or if the policy is a renewal, effective immediately upon renewal, no increase in the rate upon which the premium is based, reduction in limits, or change in the conditions of coverage shall be effective during the policy period unless a written notice is mailed or delivered to the named insured and the producer of record at the mailing address shown on the policy, at least 30 days prior to the effective date of the increase, reduction, or change. Subdivision (a) of Section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure is applicable if the notice is mailed. The notice shall state the effective date of, and the reasons for, the increase, reduction, or change.

That increase, reduction, or change shall not be effective unless based upon one of the following reasons:

(1) Discovery of willful or grossly negligent acts or omissions, or of any violations of state laws or regulations establishing safety standards by the named insured which materially increase any of the risks or hazards insured against.

(2) Failure by the named insured to implement reasonable loss control requirements which were agreed to by the insured as a condition of policy issuance or which were conditions precedent to the use by the insurer of a particular rate or rating plan, if the failure materially increases any of the risks insured against.

(3) A determination by the commissioner that loss of or changes in an insurer's reinsurance covering all or part of the risk covered by the policy would threaten the financial integrity or solvency of the insurer unless the change in the terms or conditions or rate upon which the premium is based is permitted.

(4) A change by the named insured in the activities or property of the commercial or industrial enterprise which results in a materially added risk, a materially increased risk, or a materially changed risk, unless the added, increased, or changed risk is included in the policy.

(5) With respect to a change in the rate of a policy of professional liability insurance for a health care provider, the insurer's offer of renewal notifies the policyholder that the insurer has an application filed pursuant to Section 1861.05 pending with the commissioner for approval of a change in the rate upon which the premium is based, and the commissioner subsequently approves the rate change, or some different amount for the policy period. The change shall not be retroactive.

(d) The Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340), Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 11370), and Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Title 2 of Division 3 of the Government Code) shall not apply to a determination pursuant to paragraph (6) or (7) of subdivision (b) or paragraph (3) of subdivision (c). The commissioner shall charge an insurer who requests a determination pursuant to paragraph (6) or (7) of subdivision (b) a fee sufficient to recover the costs of making the determination. If the commissioner does not act upon a request by a insurer to cancel or change a policy pursuant to those provisions within 30 days, the request shall be deemed to be approved.

(e) This section shall not prohibit an insurer from increasing a premium during the policy period, if the increase is calculated in accordance with the current rating manual of the insurer, and is justified by a physical change in the insured property or by a change in the activities of the commercial or industrial enterprise which materially increases any of the risks insured against.

(f) This section shall not apply to a transfer of a policy without a change in its terms or conditions or the rate upon which the premium is based between insurers which are members of the same insurance group.

CHAPTER 1199

An act to amend Sections 30803, 30805, 30810, 30820, 30821.6, and 30822 of, to amend and renumber Section 30826 of, and to add Section 30805.5 to, the Public Resources Code, relating to coastal resources.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 30803 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30803. (a) Any person may maintain an action for declaratory and equitable relief to restrain any violation of this division, of a cease and desist order issued pursuant to Section 30809 or 30810, or of a restoration order issued pursuant to Section 30811. On a prima facie showing of a violation of this division, preliminary equitable relief shall be issued to restrain any further violation of this division. No bond shall be required for an action under this section.

(b) A court may stay the operation of the cease and desist order after it provides notice to the commission and holds a hearing. Any such stay may be imposed or continued only if it is not against the public interest.

SEC. 2. Section 30805 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30805. Any person may maintain an action for the recovery of civil penalties provided for in Section 30820 or 30821.6.

SEC. 3. Section 30805.5 is added to the Public Resources Code, to read:

30805.5. Any action pursuant to Sections 30805 or 30822 to recover civil fines or penalties under this chapter shall be commenced not later than three years from the date on which the cause of action for the recovery is known or should have been known.

SEC. 4. Section 30810 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30810. (a) If the commission, after public hearing, determines that any person or governmental agency has undertaken, or is threatening to undertake, any activity that (1) requires a permit from the commission without securing a permit or (2) is inconsistent with any permit previously issued by the commission, the commission may issue an order directing that person or governmental agency to cease and desist. The order may also be issued to enforce any requirements of a certified local coastal program or port master plan, or any requirements of this division which are subject to the jurisdiction of the certified program or plan, under any of the following circumstances:

(1) The local government or port governing body requests the commission to assist with, or assume primary responsibility for, issuing a cease and desist order.

(2) The commission requests and the local government or port governing body declines to act, or does not take action in a timely manner, regarding an alleged violation which could cause significant damage to coastal resources.

(3) The local government or port governing body is a party to the violation.

(b) The cease and desist order may be subject to such terms and conditions as the commission may determine are necessary to ensure compliance with this division, including immediate removal of any development or material or the setting of a schedule within which steps shall be taken to obtain a permit pursuant to this division.

(c) Notice of the public hearing on a proposed cease and desist order shall be given to all affected persons and agencies and the order shall be final and effective upon the issuance of the order. Copies shall be served immediately by certified mail upon the person or governmental agency subject to the order and upon other affected persons and agencies who appeared at the hearing or requested a copy. The notice shall include a description of the civil remedy to a cease and desist order, authorized by Section 30803.

SEC. 5. Section 30820 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30820. (a) Any person who violates any provision of this division may be civilly liable in accordance with this subdivision as follows:

(1) Civil liability may be imposed by the superior court in accordance with this article on any person who performs or undertakes development that is in violation of this division or that is inconsistent with any coastal development permit previously issued by the commission, a local government that is implementing a certified local coastal program, or a port governing body that is implementing a certified port master plan, in an amount that shall not exceed thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) and shall not be less than five hundred dollars ($500).

(2) Civil liability may be imposed for any violation of this division other than that specified in paragraph (1) in an amount that shall not exceed thirty thousand dollars ($30,000).

(b) Any person who performs or undertakes development that is in violation of this division or that is inconsistent with any coastal development permit previously issued by the commission, a local government that is implementing a certified local coastal program, or a port governing body that is implementing a certified port master plan, when the person intentionally and knowingly performs or undertakes the development in violation of this division or inconsistent with any previously issued coastal development permit, may, in addition to any other penalties, be civilly liable in accordance with this subdivision. Civil liability may be imposed by the superior court in accordance with this article for a violation as specified in this subdivision in an amount which shall not be less than one thousand dollars ($1,000), nor more than fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000), per day for each day in which the violation persists.

(c) In determining the amount of civil liability, the following factors shall be considered:

(1) The nature, circumstance, extent, and gravity of the violation.

(2) Whether the violation is susceptible to restoration or other remedial measures.

(3) The sensitivity of the resource affected by the violation.

(4) The cost to the state of bringing the action.

(5) With respect to the violator, any voluntary restoration or remedial measures undertaken, any prior history of violations, the degree of culpability, economic profits, if any, resulting from, or expected to result as a consequence of, the violation, and such other matters as justice may require.

SEC. 6. Section 30821.6 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30821.6. (a) Any person or governmental agency who intentionally or negligently violates any cease and desist order issued, reissued, or amended by the executive director or the commission, or any restoration order issued, reissued, or amended by the commission, a local government that is implementing a certified local coastal program, or a port governing body that is implementing a certified port master plan may be liable civilly in a sum of not to exceed six thousand dollars ($6,000) for each day in which that violation persists. Any actual penalty imposed shall be reasonably proportionate to the damage suffered as a consequence of the violation.

(b) Sections 30809 and 30810 and subdivision (a) of this section do not authorize the issuance or enforcement of any cease and desist order as to any activity undertaken by a local governmental agency pursuant to a declaration of emergency by the board of supervisors of the county in which the activity is being or may be undertaken.

SEC. 7. Section 30822 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

30822. Where a person has intentionally and knowingly violated any provision of this division or any order issued pursuant to this division, the commission may maintain an action, in addition to Section 30803 or 30805, for exemplary damages and may recover an award, the size of which is left to the discretion of the court. In exercising its discretion, the court shall consider the amount of liability necessary to deter further violations.

SEC. 8. Section 30826 of the Public Resources Code is amended and renumbered to read:

30811. In addition to any other authority to order restoration, the commission, a local government that is implementing a certified local coastal program, or a port governing body that is implementing a certified port master plan may, after a public hearing, order restoration of a site if it finds that the development has occurred without a coastal development permit from the commission, local government, or port governing body, the development is inconsistent with this division, and the development is causing continuing resource damage.

CHAPTER 1200

An act to amend Section 62.1 of, and to to amend, repeal, and add Section 5802 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 62.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

62.1. Change in ownership shall not include either of the following:

(a) Any transfer, on or after January 1, 1985, of a mobilehome park to a nonprofit corporation, stock cooperative corporation, limited equity stock cooperative, or other entity formed by the tenants of a mobilehome park, for the purpose of purchasing the mobilehome park, provided that, with respect to any transfer of a mobilehome park on or after January 1, 1989, subject to this subdivision, the individual tenants who were renting at least 51 percent of the spaces in the mobilehome park prior to the transfer participate in the transaction through the ownership of an aggregate of at least 51 percent of the voting stock of, or other ownership or membership interests in, the entity which acquires the park.

(b) Any transfer or transfers on or after January 1, 1985, and before January 1, 2000, of rental spaces in a mobilehome park to the individual tenants of the rental spaces, provided that (1) at least 51 percent of the rental spaces are purchased by individual tenants renting their spaces prior to purchase, and (2) the individual tenants of these spaces form, within one year after the first purchase of a rental space by an individual tenant, a resident organization as described in subdivision (k) of Section 50781 of the Health and Safety Code, to operate and maintain the park. If, on or after January 1, 1985, and before January 1, 2000, an individual tenant or tenants notify the county assessor of the intention to comply with the conditions set forth in the preceding sentence, any mobilehome park rental space which is purchased by an individual tenant in that mobilehome park during that period shall not be reappraised by the assessor. However, if all of the conditions set forth in the first sentence of this subdivision are not satisfied, the county assessor shall thereafter levy escape assessments for the spaces so transferred. This subdivision shall apply only to those rental mobilehome parks which have been in operation for five years or more.

(c) (1) If the transfer of a mobilehome park has been excluded from a change in ownership pursuant to subdivision (a) and the park has not been converted to condominium, stock cooperative ownership, or limited equity cooperative ownership, any transfer on or after January 1, 1989, of shares of the voting stock of, or other ownership or membership interests in, the entity which acquired the park in accordance with subdivision (a) shall be a change in ownership of a pro rata portion of the real property of the park unless the transfer is for the purpose of converting the park to condominium, stock cooperative ownership, or limited equity cooperative ownership or is excluded from change in ownership by Section 62, 63, or 63.1.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision, "pro rata portion of the real property" means the total real property of the mobilehome park multiplied by a fraction consisting of the number of shares of voting stock, or other ownership or membership interests, transferred divided by the total number of outstanding issued or unissued shares of voting stock of, or other ownership or membership interests in, the entity which acquired the park in accordance with subdivision (a).

(3) Any pro rata portion or portions of real property which changed ownership pursuant to this subdivision may be separately assessed as provided in Section 2188.10.

(d) Subdivisions (a) and (b) shall remain operative only until January 1, 2000.

(e) It is the intent of the Legislature that, in order to facilitate affordable conversions of mobilehome parks to tenant ownership, subdivision (a) apply to all bona fide transfers of rental mobilehome parks to tenant ownership, including, but not limited to, those parks converted to tenant ownership as a nonprofit corporation made on or after January 1, 1985, and before the termination date of subdivision (a).

SEC. 2. Section 5802 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

5802. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), "base year value" as used in this part means the full cash value of a manufactured home on the date the manufactured home is purchased or changes ownership. If the manufactured home undergoes any new construction after it is purchased or changes ownership, the base year value of the new construction is its full cash value on the date on which the new construction is completed, and if uncompleted, on the lien date.

(b) The base year value of a manufactured home for which the license fee is delinquent shall be its full cash value on the lien date for the fiscal year in which it is first enrolled.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the assessor shall determine the base year value of a manufactured home, located in a resident-owned mobilehome park or a rental park in the process of being changed to resident ownership, that is converted to property taxation by the registered owner pursuant to Section 18555 of the Health and Safety Code, so that the property taxes levied, after adjustment for any applicable exemption, shall be the same amount as the vehicle license fee that was imposed for the registration year in which the home was converted to property taxation.

(d) This section shall remain in effect until January 1, 1999, and on that date is repealed.

SEC. 3. Section 5802 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

5802. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), "base year value" as used in this part means the full cash value of a manufactured home on the date the manufactured home is purchased or changes ownership. If the manufactured home undergoes any new construction after it is purchased or changes ownership, the base year value of the new construction is its full cash value on the date on which the new construction is completed, and if uncompleted, on the lien date.

(b) The base year value of a manufactured home for which the license fee is delinquent shall be its full cash value on the lien date for the fiscal year in which it is first enrolled.

(c) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1999.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 2229 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, the requirements of that section relating to any exemption of property for more than five years or for more than 75 percent of the value thereof, shall not apply to any exemption made by this act. In addition, no appropriation is made by this act and the state shall not reimburse any local agency for any property tax revenues lost by it pursuant to this act.

SEC. 5. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1201

An act relating to off-highway motor vehicle recreation.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature that, to the extent funds are available, and subject to completion and certification of a master plan and environmental impact report by the County of Los Angeles, the sum of two million dollars ($2,000,000) be appropriated in the Budget Act each fiscal year, commencing with the 1995–96 fiscal year and ending with the 2014–15 fiscal year, from the Off-Highway Vehicle Fund to the Division of Off-Highway Motor Vehicle Recreation of the Department of Parks and Recreation for a grant to the County of Los Angeles for the acquisition and development of land for an off-highway vehicle park. Any grant pursuant to this act shall be subject to approval pursuant to subdivision (e) of Section 5090.24 and to the restrictions of Section 5090.45. Any money appropriated for the purposes of this act each fiscal year shall not exceed the funds generated in Los Angeles County for deposit in the Off-Highway Vehicle Fund for that year.

SEC. 2. Funds granted to the County of Los Angeles pursuant to Section 1 of this act for the acquisition and development of land for an off-highway vehicle park, including the proceeds of any state bond act hereafter approved by the voters for that purpose, may be expended for the payment of principal of, and interest on, certificates of participation or other indebtedness authorized to be issued for the purpose. Any indebtedness incurred by the County of Los Angeles for the purposes of an off-highway vehicle park shall be the sole responsibility of the county.

CHAPTER 1202

An act to amend Sections 8670.37.5, 8670.48, 8670.49, and 8670.56.6 of the Government Code, relating to oil spills.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8670.37.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8670.37.5. (a) The administrator shall establish rescue and rehabilitation stations for sea birds, sea otters, and other marine mammals. These facilities shall be established and maintained in a state of preparedness to provide the best achievable treatment for marine mammals and birds affected by an oil spill in marine waters.

(b) The first rescue and rehabilitation station established pursuant to this section shall be located within the sea otter range on the central coast, and the administrator shall proceed to bid on the construction contract by July 1, 1994. The administrator shall establish regional oiled wildlife rescue and rehabilitation facilities in the Los Angeles Harbor area, the San Francisco Bay area, the San Diego area, the Monterey Bay area, the Humboldt County area, and the Santa Barbara area, and may establish those facilities in other coastal areas of the state as the administrator determines to be necessary. One or more of the oiled wildlife rescue and rehabilitation stations shall be open to the public for educational purposes and shall be available for marine wildlife health research. Wherever possible in the establishment of these facilities, the administrator shall improve existing authorized marine mammal rehabilitation facilities and may expand or take advantage of existing educational or scientific programs and institutions for oiled wildlife rehabilitation purposes. Expenditures shall be reviewed by the agencies and organizations specified in subdivision (c).

(c) Not later than July 1, 1992, the administrator shall consult with the United States Fish and Wildlife Service, the National Marine Fisheries Service, the California Coastal Commission, the Marine Mammal Center, and the International Bird Rescue Center in the design, planning, construction, and operation of the rescue and rehabilitation stations. All proposals for the rescue and rehabilitation stations shall be presented before a public hearing prior to the construction and operation of any rehabilitation station, and, upon completion of the coastal protection element of the state oil spill contingency plan, shall be consistent with the coastal protection element.

(d) The administrator may enter into agreements with nonprofit organizations to establish and equip wildlife rescue and rehabilitation stations and to ensure that they are operated in a professional manner in keeping with the pertinent guidance documents issued by the Office of Oil Spill Prevention and Response in the Department of Fish and Game. The implementation of any such agreement shall not constitute a state public works project.

(e) (1) Five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) of federal escrow funds received by the state pursuant to Section 8(g) of the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act, as amended (43 U.S.C. Sec. 1337(g)), shall, upon approval in the 1991–92 Budget Act, be appropriated or allocated for appropriation, as the case may be, from the Federal Trust Fund, each year for three years for the purposes described in subdivision (a).

(2) Additional funding shall be provided for the purposes described in subdivision (a) from three years of interest earned on the funds deposited in the Oil Spill Response Trust Fund as authorized in subdivision (l) of Section 8670.48 or through the Budget Act process upon the request by the administrator.

SEC. 2. Section 8670.48 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8670.48. (a) (1) A uniform oil spill response fee in an amount not exceeding twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each barrel of petroleum products, as set by the administrator pursuant to subdivision (f), shall be imposed upon every person owning petroleum products at the time the petroleum products are received at a marine terminal within this state by means of a vessel from a point of origin outside this state. The fee shall be remitted to the State Board of Equalization by the terminal operator on the 25th day of each month based upon the number of barrels of petroleum products received during the preceding month.

(2) Every owner of petroleum products is liable for the fee until it has been paid to the state, except that payment to a marine terminal operator registered under this chapter is sufficient to relieve the owner from further liability for the fee.

(b) Every operator of a pipeline shall also pay a uniform oil spill response fee in an amount not exceeding twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each barrel of petroleum products, as set by the administrator pursuant to subdivision (f), transported into the state by means of a pipeline operating across, under, or through the marine waters of the state. The fee shall be paid on the 25th day of each month based upon the number of barrels of petroleum products so transported into the state during the preceding month.

(c) (1) Every operator of a refinery shall pay a uniform oil spill response fee in an amount not exceeding twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each barrel of crude oil, as set by the administrator pursuant to subdivision (f), received at a refinery within the state. The fee shall be paid on the 25th day of each month based upon the number of barrels of crude oil so received during the preceding month.

(2) The fee shall not be imposed by a refiner, or a person or entity acting as an agent for a refiner, on crude oil produced by an independent crude oil producer as defined in paragraph (3). The board shall not identify a company as exempt from the fee requirements of this section if that company was reorganized, sold, or otherwise modified with the intent of circumventing the requirements of this section.

(3) For purposes of this chapter, "independent crude oil producer" means any person or entity producing crude oil within this state who performs no refining of crude oil into product, and who possesses or owns no retail gasoline marketing facilities.

(d) Every marine terminal operator shall pay a uniform oil spill response fee in an amount not exceeding twenty-five cents ($0.25), in accordance with subdivision (g), for each barrel of crude oil, as set by the administrator pursuant to subdivision (f), that is transported from within this state by means of marine vessel to a destination outside this state.

(e) Every operator of a pipeline shall pay a uniform oil spill response fee in an amount not exceeding twenty-five cents ($0.25), in accordance with subdivision (g), for each barrel of crude oil, as set by the administrator pursuant to subdivision (f), transported out of the state by pipeline.

(f) The fees required pursuant to this section shall be collected during any period that the fund contains less than the designated amount, as defined in subdivision (h). The administrator, in consultation with the State Board of Equalization, shall set the amount of the oil spill response fees. The oil spill response fees shall be imposed on all feepayers in the same amount. The administrator shall not set the amount of the fee at less than twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each barrel of petroleum products or crude oil, unless the administrator finds that the assessment of a lesser fee will cause the fund to reach the designated amount within four months. The fee shall not be less than twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each barrel of petroleum products or crude oil during any period which the state has borrowed money pursuant to Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 8670.53.1).

(g) The fees imposed by subdivisions (d) and (e) shall be imposed in any calendar year beginning the month following the month when the total cumulative year-to-date barrels of crude oil transported outside the state by all feepayers by means of vessel or pipeline exceeds 6 percent by volume of the total barrels of crude oil and petroleum products subject to oil spill response fees under subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) for the prior calendar year.

(h) For purposes of this chapter, "designated amount" means an amount equal to one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000), adjusted for inflation after January 1, 1991, according to an index which the administrator may reasonably choose, subject to the following:

(1) Fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) shall be retained in the fund as cash, adjusted for inflation.

(2) Fifty million dollars ($50,000,000), adjusted for inflation, shall be immediately accessible in the fund in the form of financial security obtained by the Treasurer as authorized by subdivision (p).

(3) The adjustment for inflation shall be suspended for the three-year period commencing July 1, 1993, and ending July 1, 1996, and no adjustment shall be made until July 1, 1997. The designated amount as of June 30, 1993, shall remain the designated amount until adjusted for inflation on July 1, 1997.

(i) (1) The administrator shall authorize refunds of any fees collected, for reporting periods after January 31, 1991, in excess of the amount specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (h). The board, as directed by the administrator and in accordance with Section 46653 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, shall refund the excess amount of fees collected to each feepayer who paid the fee to the state, in proportion to the amount that each feepayer paid into the fund during the preceding 12 monthly reporting periods, including the month in which the fund exceeded the specified amount, and only for those periods which commenced on or after January 31, 1991.

(2) Any amount of fees collected in excess of the specified amount for periods prior to February 1, 1991, shall be refunded as follows:

(A) First, to feepayers who paid oil spill response fees under subdivision (d) or (e) of Section 8670.48 of the Government Code as added by Chapter 1248 of the Statutes of 1990.

(B) Second, to feepayers in proportion to the amount each feepayer paid into the fund for the period from September 24, 1990, to January 31, 1991, inclusive, less any amounts refunded pursuant to paragraph (1).

(j) The board shall collect the fee and adopt regulations implementing the fee collection program. All fees collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Oil Spill Response Trust Fund.

(k) The fee described in this section shall be collected solely for any of the following purposes:

(1) To provide funds to cover promptly the costs of response, containment, and cleanup of oil spills into marine waters, including damage assessment costs, and wildlife rehabilitation as provided in Section 8670.61.5.

(2) To provide emergency loans and to cover response and cleanup costs and other damages suffered by the state or other persons or entities from oil spills into marine waters which cannot otherwise be compensated by responsible parties or the federal government.

(3) To pay claims for damages pursuant to Section 8670.51.

(4) To pay claims for damages, except for damages described in paragraph (7) of subdivision (g) of Section 8670.56.5, pursuant to Section 8670.51.1.

(5) To pay for the arrangement of fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) of financial security as authorized by subdivision (p).

(6) To pay indemnity and related costs and expenses as authorized by Section 8670.56.6.

(l) The interest that the state earns on the funds deposited into the Oil Spill Response Trust Fund shall be deposited in the fund and shall be used to maintain the fund at the designated amount. Interest earned for three years commencing on July 1, 1994, on funds deposited pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) in the Oil Spill Response Trust Fund, as determined jointly by the Controller and the Director of Finance, shall be available, upon appropriation by the Legislature in the Budget Act, to establish rescue and rehabilitation stations for oiled wildlife as described in Section 8670.37.5. Interest earned on the financial security portion of the fund pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) shall not be available for this purpose. If the fund exceeds the designated amount, the interest not needed to bring the fund to the designated amount shall be deposited into the Oil Spill Prevention and Administration Fund.

(m) The Legislature finds and declares that effective response to oil spills requires that the state have available sufficient funds in a response fund. The Legislature further finds and declares that maintenance of that fund is of utmost importance to the state and that the moneys in the fund shall be used solely for the purposes specified in subdivision (k).

(n) For the purposes of this section, "marine waters" includes the waterways used for waterborne commercial vessel traffic to the Port of Stockton and the Port of Sacramento.

(o) It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this section, that the fee shall not be imposed by a refiner, or a person or entity acting as an agent for a refiner, on crude oil produced by an independent crude oil producer.

(p) The Treasurer shall purchase fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) of financial security which may be drawn upon immediately by the administrator upon making the determinations as required by Section 8670.49. The financial security shall be in a form as described in subdivision (a) of Section 8670.53.3.

(q) Nothing in this section limits the authority of the administrator to raise the oil spill response fees pursuant to Section 8670.48.5 of the Government Code.

SEC. 2.5. Section 8670.48 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8670.48. (a) (1) A uniform oil spill response fee in an amount not exceeding twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each barrel of petroleum products, as set by the administrator pursuant to subdivision (f), shall be imposed upon every person owning petroleum products at the time the petroleum products are received at a marine terminal within this state by means of a vessel from a point of origin outside this state. The fee shall be remitted to the State Board of Equalization by the terminal operator on the 25th day of each month based upon the number of barrels of petroleum products received during the preceding month.

(2) Every owner of petroleum products is liable for the fee until it has been paid to the state, except that payment to a marine terminal operator registered under this chapter is sufficient to relieve the owner from further liability for the fee.

(b) Every operator of a pipeline shall also pay a uniform oil spill response fee in an amount not exceeding twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each barrel of petroleum products, as set by the administrator pursuant to subdivision (f), transported into the state by means of a pipeline operating across, under, or through the marine waters of the state. The fee shall be paid on the 25th day of each month based upon the number of barrels of petroleum products so transported into the state during the preceding month.

(c) (1) Every operator of a refinery shall pay a uniform oil spill response fee in an amount not exceeding twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each barrel of crude oil, as set by the administrator pursuant to subdivision (f), received at a refinery within the state. The fee shall be paid on the 25th day of each month based upon the number of barrels of crude oil so received during the preceding month.

(2) The fee shall not be imposed by a refiner, or a person or entity acting as an agent for a refiner, on crude oil produced by an independent crude oil producer as defined in paragraph (3). The board shall not identify a company as exempt from the fee requirements of this section if that company was reorganized, sold, or otherwise modified with the intent of circumventing the requirements of this section.

(3) For purposes of this chapter, "independent crude oil producer" means any person or entity producing crude oil within this state who performs no refining of crude oil into product, and who possesses or owns no retail gasoline marketing facilities.

(d) Every marine terminal operator shall pay a uniform oil spill response fee in an amount not exceeding twenty-five cents ($0.25), in accordance with subdivision (g), for each barrel of crude oil, as set by the administrator pursuant to subdivision (f), that is transported from within this state by means of marine vessel to a destination outside this state.

(e) Every operator of a pipeline shall pay a uniform oil spill response fee in an amount not exceeding twenty-five cents ($0.25), in accordance with subdivision (g), for each barrel of crude oil, as set by the administrator pursuant to subdivision (f), transported out of the state by pipeline.

(f) (1) The fees required pursuant to this section shall be collected during any period that the administrator determines that either the amount in the fund is less than or equal to 95 percent of the amount specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (h), or additional moneys are required to pay for the purposes specified in subdivision (k).

(2) Whenever the administrator, in consultation with the State Board of Equalization, estimates that the amount in the fund will reach the amount specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (h), and the money in the fund is not required for the purposes specified in subdivision (k), the administrator shall direct the State Board of Equalization to cease collecting the fee. In no event shall the fee cease to be imposed if the Treasurer has borrowed money pursuant to Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 8670.53.1) and principal, interest, premium, fees, charges, or costs of any kind imposed in connection with those borrowings remain outstanding or unpaid, unless the Treasurer has certified to the administrator that the continued imposition of the fee is not required for the purposes specified in paragraph (7) of subdivision (k).

(3) The administrator, in consultation with the State Board of Equalization, shall set the amount of the oil spill response fees. The oil spill response fees shall be imposed on all feepayers in the same amount. The administrator shall not set the amount of the fee at less than twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each barrel of petroleum products or crude oil, unless the administrator finds that the assessment of a lesser fee will cause the fund to reach the designated amount within four months. The fee shall not be less than twenty-five cents ($0.25) for each barrel of petroleum products or crude oil if the Treasurer has borrowed money pursuant to Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 8670.53.1) and principal, interest, premium, fees, charges, or costs of any kind imposed in connection with those borrowings remain outstanding or unpaid, unless the Treasurer has certified to the administrator that the money in the fund is not required for the purposes specified in paragraph (7) of subdivision (k).

(g) The fees imposed by subdivisions (d) and (e) shall be imposed in any calendar year beginning the month following the month when the total cumulative year-to-date barrels of crude oil transported outside the state by all feepayers by means of vessel or pipeline exceeds 6 percent by volume of the total barrels of crude oil and petroleum products subject to oil spill response fees under subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) for the prior calendar year.

(h) For purposes of this chapter, "designated amount" means an amount equal to one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000), adjusted for inflation after January 1, 1991, according to an index which the administrator may reasonably choose, subject to the following:

(1) Fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) shall be retained in the fund as cash, adjusted for inflation.

(2) Fifty million dollars ($50,000,000), adjusted for inflation, shall be immediately accessible in the fund in the form of financial security obtained by the Treasurer as authorized by subdivision (p).

(3) The adjustment for inflation shall be suspended for the three-year period commencing July 1, 1993, and ending July 1, 1996, and no adjustment shall be made until July 1, 1997. The designated amount as of June 30, 1993, shall remain the designated amount until adjusted for inflation on July 1, 1997.

(i) (1) The administrator shall authorize refunds of any money collected, for reporting periods after January 31, 1991, in excess of the amount specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) and any amounts determined by the administrator to be necessary to provide for any of the purposes specified in paragraphs (1) to (6), inclusive, of subdivision (k) and, if the Treasurer has borrowed money pursuant to Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 8670.53.1) and principal, interest, premium, fees, charges, or costs of any kind imposed in connection with those borrowings remain outstanding or unpaid, any amounts the Treasurer has certified to the administrator are required for the purposes specified in paragraph (7) of subdivision (k). The board, as directed by the administrator and in accordance with Section 46653 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, shall refund the excess amount of fees collected to each feepayer who paid the fee to the state, in proportion to the amount that each feepayer paid into the fund during the preceding 12 monthly reporting periods in which there was a fee due, including the month in which the fund exceeded the specified amount, and only for those periods which commenced on or after January 31, 1991. If the total amount of money in the fund exceeds the amount specified in this subdivision by 10 percent or less, refunds need not be ordered by the administrator. Nothing in this section shall require the refund of excess fees as provided in this subdivision more frequently than once each year.

(2) Any amount of fees collected in excess of the specified amount for periods prior to February 1, 1991, shall be refunded as follows:

(A) First, to feepayers who paid oil spill response fees under subdivision (d) or (e) of Section 8670.48 of the Government Code as added by Chapter 1248 of the Statutes of 1990.

(B) Second, to feepayers in proportion to the amount each feepayer paid into the fund for the period from September 24, 1990, to January 31, 1991, inclusive, less any amounts refunded pursuant to paragraph (1).

(j) The board shall collect the fee and adopt regulations implementing the fee collection program. All fees collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Oil Spill Response Trust Fund.

(k) The fee described in this section shall be collected solely for any of the following purposes:

(1) To provide funds to cover promptly the costs of response, containment, and cleanup of oil spills into marine waters, including damage assessment costs, and wildlife rehabilitation as provided in Section 8670.61.5.

(2) To provide emergency loans and to cover response and cleanup costs and other damages suffered by the state or other persons or entities from oil spills into marine waters which cannot otherwise be compensated by responsible parties or the federal government.

(3) To pay claims for damages pursuant to Section 8670.51.

(4) To pay claims for damages, except for damages described in paragraph (7) of subdivision (g) of Section 8670.56.5, pursuant to Section 8670.51.1.

(5) To pay for the arrangement of fifty million dollars ($50,000,000), adjusted for inflation, of financial security as authorized by subdivision (p).

(6) To pay indemnity and related costs and expenses as authorized by Section 8670.56.6.

(7) To pay principal, interest, premium, if any, and fees, charges, and costs of any kind imposed in connection with funds borrowed pursuant to Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 8670.53.1).

(l) The interest that the state earns on the funds deposited into the Oil Spill Response Trust Fund shall be deposited in the fund and shall be used to maintain the fund at the designated amount. Interest earned for three years commencing on July 1, 1994, on funds deposited pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) in the Oil Spill Response Trust Fund, as determined jointly by the Controller and the Director of Finance, shall be available upon appropriation by the Legislature in the Budget Act to establish rescue and rehabilitation stations for oiled wildlife as described in Section 8670.37.5. Interest earned on the financial security portion of the fund, pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (h), shall not be available for this purpose. If the fund exceeds the designated amount, the interest not needed to bring the fund to the designated amount shall be deposited into the Oil Spill Prevention and Administration Fund.

(m) The Legislature finds and declares that effective response to oil spills requires that the state have available sufficient funds in a response fund. The Legislature further finds and declares that maintenance of that fund is of utmost importance to the state and that the moneys in the fund shall be used solely for the purposes specified in subdivision (k).

(n) For the purposes of this section, "marine waters" includes the waterways used for waterborne commercial vessel traffic to the Port of Stockton and the Port of Sacramento.

(o) It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this section, that the fee shall not be imposed by a refiner, or a person or entity acting as an agent for a refiner, on crude oil produced by an independent crude oil producer.

(p) The Treasurer shall purchase fifty million dollars ($50,000,000), adjusted for inflation, of financial security which may be drawn upon immediately by the administrator upon making the determinations as required by Section 8670.49. The financial security shall be in a form as described in subdivision (a) of Section 8670.53.3.

(q) Nothing in this section limits the authority of the administrator to raise the oil spill response fees pursuant to Section 8670.48.5 of the Government Code.

SEC. 3. Section 8670.49 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8670.49. (a) Except to pay for the arrangement of the financial security as authorized by paragraph (5) of subdivision (k) and subdivision (p) of Section 8670.48 and to pay for the construction and initial equipping of rescue and rehabilitation facilities from interest earned on funds deposited in the fund as authorized by subdivision (l) of Section 8670.48, the administrator may only expend money from the fund if a discharge of oil into marine waters has occurred and the following determinations have been made:

(1) Except as authorized by Section 8670.51.1, a responsible party does not exist or the responsible party is unable or unwilling to provide adequate and timely cleanup and to pay for the damages resulting from the spill. The administrator shall make a reasonable effort to have the party responsible remove the oil or agree to pay for any actions resulting from the spill that may be required by law, provided that the efforts are not detrimental to fish, plant, animal, or bird life in the affected waters. The reasonable effort of the administrator shall include attempting to access the responsible parties' insurance or other proof of financial responsibility.

(2) Federal oil spill funds are not available or will not be available in an adequate period of time.

(b) Upon making the determinations specified in subdivision (a), the administrator shall immediately make whatever payments are necessary for responding to, containing, or cleaning up, the spill, including any wildlife rehabilitation required by law and payment of claims pursuant to Sections 8670.51 and 8670.51.1.

SEC. 3.5. Section 8670.49 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8670.49. (a) Except to pay for the arrangement of the financial security as authorized by paragraph (5) of subdivision (k) and subdivision (p) of Section 8670.48 and to pay for the construction and initial equipping of rescue and rehabilitation facilities from interest earned on funds deposited in the fund as authorized by subdivision (l) of Section 8670.48, the administrator may only expend money from the fund if a discharge of oil into marine waters has occurred and the following determinations have been made:

(1) Except as authorized by Section 8670.51.1, a responsible party does not exist or the responsible party is unable or unwilling to provide adequate and timely cleanup and to pay for the damages resulting from the spill. The administrator shall make a reasonable effort to have the party responsible remove the oil or agree to pay for any actions resulting from the spill that may be required by law, provided that the efforts are not detrimental to fish, plant, animal, or bird life in the affected waters. The reasonable effort of the administrator shall include attempting to access the responsible parties' insurance or other proof of financial responsibility.

(2) Federal oil spill funds are not available or will not be available in an adequate period of time. Notwithstanding this subdivision, the administrator may expend money from the fund for authorized expenditures when a reimbursement procedure is in place to receive reimbursements from federal oil spill funds.

(b) Upon making the determinations specified in subdivision (a), the administrator shall immediately make whatever payments are necessary for responding to, containing, or cleaning up, the spill, including any wildlife rehabilitation required by law and payment of claims pursuant to Sections 8670.51 and 8670.51.1.

SEC. 4. Section 8670.56.6 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8670.56.6. (a) (1) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (d), and subject to subdivision (c), no person, including, but not limited to, an oil spill cooperative, its agents, subcontractors, or employees, shall be liable under this chapter or the laws of the state to any person for costs, damages, or other claims or expenses as a result of actions taken or omitted in good faith in the course of rendering care, assistance, or advice in accordance with the National Contingency Plan, the state oil spill contingency plan, or at the direction of the administrator, onsite coordinator, or the Coast Guard in response to a spill or threatened spill of oil.

(2) The qualified immunity under this section shall not apply to any oil spill response action which is inconsistent with the following:

(A) The directions of the unified command, consisting of at least the Coast Guard and the administrator.

(B) In the absence of a unified command, the directions of the administrator pursuant to Section 8670.27.

(C) In the absence of directions pursuant to subparagraph (A) or (B), applicable contingency plans implemented under this division.

(3) Nothing in this section shall, in any manner or respect, affect or impair any cause of action against or any liability of any person or persons responsible for the spill, for the discharged oil, or for the tanker, barge, terminal, pipeline, or facility from which the oil was discharged. The responsible person or persons shall remain liable for any and all damages arising from the discharge, including damages arising from improperly carried out response efforts, as otherwise provided by law.

(b) Nothing in this section shall, in any manner or respect, affect or impair any cause of action against or any liability of any party or parties responsible for the spill, or the responsible party's agents, employees, or subcontractors, except persons immunized under subdivision (a) for response efforts, for the discharged oil, or for the tanker, terminal, pipeline, or marine facility from which the oil was discharged.

(c) The responsible party or parties shall:

(1) Notwithstanding subdivision (b) or (h) of Section 8670.56.5, or any other provision of law, be strictly and jointly and severally liable for all damages arising pursuant to subdivision (g) of Section 8670.56.5 from the response efforts of its agents, employees, subcontractors, or an oil spill cooperative of which it is a member or with which it has a contract or other arrangement for cleanup of its oil spills, unless it would have a defense to the original spill.

(2) Remain strictly liable for any and all damages arising from the response efforts of a person other than a person specified in paragraph (1).

(d) Nothing in this section shall immunize a cooperative or any other person from liability for acts of gross negligence or willful misconduct in connection with the cleanup of a spill.

(e) This section shall not apply to any action for personal injury or wrongful death.

(f) As used in this section, a "cooperative" means an organization of private persons which is established for the primary purpose and activity of preventing or rendering care, assistance, or advice in response to a spill or threatened spill.

(g) Except for the responsible party, membership in a cooperative shall not, in and of itself, be grounds for liability resulting from cleanup activities of the cooperative.

(h) For purposes of this section, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that an act or omission described in subdivision (a) was taken in good faith.

(i) In any situation in which immunity is granted pursuant to subdivision (a) and a responsible party is not liable, is not liable for noneconomic damages caused by another, or is partially or totally insolvent, the fund provided for in Article 7 (commencing with Section 8670.46) shall, in accordance with its terms, reimburse claims of any injured party for which a person who is granted immunity pursuant to this section would otherwise be liable.

(j) (1) The immunity granted by this section shall only apply to response efforts that are undertaken after the administrator certifies that contracts with qualified and responsible persons are in place to ensure an adequate and expeditious response to any foreseeable oil spill that may occur in marine waters for which the responsible party (A) cannot be identified or (B) is unable or unwilling to respond, contain, and cleanup the oil spill in an adequate and timely manner. In negotiating these contracts, the administrator shall, to the maximum extent practicable, procure the services of persons who are willing to respond to oil spills with no, or lesser, immunity than that conferred by this section, but, in no event, a greater immunity. The administrator shall make the certification required by this subdivision on an annual basis. Upon certification, the immunity conferred by this section shall apply to all response efforts undertaken during the calendar year to which the certification applies. In the absence of the certification required by this subdivision, the immunity conferred by this section shall not attach to any response efforts undertaken by any person in marine waters.

(2) In addition to the authority to negotiate contracts described in paragraph (1), the administrator may also negotiate and enter into indemnification agreements with qualified and financially responsible persons to respond to oil spills that may occur in marine waters for which the responsible party (A) cannot be identified or (B) is unable or unwilling to respond, contain, and cleanup the oil spill in an adequate and timely manner.

(3) The administrator may indemnify response contractors for (A) all damages payable by means of settlement or judgment that arise from response efforts to which the immunity conferred by this section would otherwise apply, and (B) reasonably related legal costs and expenses incurred by the responder, provided that indemnification shall only apply to response efforts undertaken after the expiration of any immunity that may exist as the result of the contract negotiations authorized in this subdivision. In negotiating these contracts, the administrator shall, to the maximum extent practicable, procure the services of persons who are willing to respond to oil spills with no, or as little, right to indemnification as possible. All indemnification shall be paid by the administrator from the Oil Spill Response Trust Fund.

(4) (A) The contracts required by this section, and any other contracts entered into by the administrator for response, containment, or cleanup of an existing spill, the payment of which is to be made from the Oil Spill Response Trust Fund created pursuant to Section 8670.46, or for response to an imminent threat of a spill, the payment of which is to be made out of the Oil Spill Prevention and Administration Fund created pursuant to Section 8670.38, shall be exempt from Part 2 (commencing with Section 10100) of Division 2 of the Public Contract Code and Article 6 (commencing with Section 999) of Chapter 6 of Division 4 of the Military and Veterans Code.

(B) The exemption specified in subparagraph (A) applies only to contracts for which the services are used for a period of less than 90 days, cumulatively, per year.

(C) This paragraph shall not be construed as limiting the administrator's authority to exercise the emergency powers granted pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 8670.62, including the authority to enter into emergency contracts that are exempt from approval by the Department of General Services.

(k) (1) With regard to a person who is regularly engaged in the business of responding to oil spills, the immunity conferred by this section shall not apply to any response efforts by that person that occur later than 60 days after the first day the person's response efforts commence.

(2) Notwithstanding the limitation contained in paragraph (1), the administrator may, upon making all the following findings, extend the period of time, not to exceed 30 days, during which the immunity conferred by this section applies to response efforts:

(A) Due to inadequate or incomplete containment and stabilization, there exists a substantial probability that the size of the spill will significantly expand and (i) threaten previously uncontaminated marine or land resources, (ii) threaten already contaminated marine or land resources with substantial additional contamination, or (iii) otherwise endanger the public health and safety or harm the environment.

(B) The remaining work is of such a difficult or perilous nature that extension of the immunity is clearly in the public interest.

(C) No other qualified and financially responsible contractor is prepared and willing to complete the response effort in the absence of the immunity, or a lesser immunity, as negotiated by contract.

(3) The administrator shall provide five days' notice of his or her proposed decision to either extend, or not extend, the immunity conferred by this section. Interested parties shall be given an opportunity to present oral and written evidence at an informal hearing. In making his or her proposed decision, the administrator shall specifically seek and consider the advice of the relevant Coast Guard representative. The administrator's decision to not extend the immunity shall be announced at least 10 working days before the expiration of the immunity to provide persons an opportunity to terminate their response efforts as contemplated by paragraph (4).

(4) No person or their agents, subcontractors, or employees shall incur any liability under this chapter or any other provision of law solely as a result of that person's decision to terminate their response efforts because of the expiration of the immunity conferred by this section. A person's decision to terminate response efforts because of the expiration of the immunity conferred by this section shall not in any manner impair, curtail, limit, or otherwise affect the immunity conferred on the person with regard to the person's response efforts undertaken during the period of time the immunity applied to such response efforts.

(5) The immunity granted under this section shall attach, without the limitation contained in this subdivision, to the response efforts of persons who are not regularly engaged in the business of responding to oil spills. Persons who are not regularly engaged in the business of responding to oil spills includes, but is not limited to, (A) persons who are primarily dedicated to the preservation and rehabilitation of wildlife and (B) persons who derive their livelihood primarily from fishing.

(l) As used in this section, "response efforts" means rendering care, assistance, or advice in accordance with the National Contingency Plan, the state oil spill contingency plan, or at the direction of the administrator, onsite coordinator, or the Coast Guard in response to a spill or threatened spill.

SEC. 5. Section 2.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 8670.48 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and SB 171. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1994, (2) each bill amends Section 8670.48 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 171, in which case Section 8670.48 of the Government Code, as amended by SB 171, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 2.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 6. Section 3.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 8670.49 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and SB 171. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1994, (2) each bill amends Section 8670.49 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 171, in which case Section 8670.49 of the Government Code, as amended by SB 171, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 3.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 3 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1203

An act to amend Section 25201 of the Health and Safety Code, and to add Section 13263.2 to the Water Code, relating to hazardous waste.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 25201 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25201. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (c) and (d) and in Section 25201.5, no owner or operator of a storage facility, treatment facility, transfer facility, resource recovery facility, or disposal site shall accept, treat, store, or dispose of a hazardous waste at the facility, area, or site, unless the owner or operator holds a hazardous waste facilities permit or other grant of authorization from the department to use and operate the facility, area, or site.

(b) Except as necessary to comply with Section 25159.18, any person planning to construct a new hazardous waste facility or a new hazardous waste management unit, which would manage RCRA hazardous waste, shall obtain a hazardous waste facilities permit or a permit amendment from the department prior to commencing construction.

(c) A hazardous waste facilities permit is not required for a household hazardous waste collection facility operated by a public agency, or by any person under a written agreement with a public agency, if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The collection facility accepts only the following hazardous materials for subsequent transport to an authorized recycling facility or an authorized household hazardous waste collection facility:

(A) Latex paint.

(B) Used oil.

(C) Antifreeze.

(D) Spent lead-acid batteries.

(E) Nickel-cadmium, alkaline, carbon-zinc, or other small batteries, if the collection facility is in compliance with Section 25216.1.

(2) No hazardous wastes are received and handled at the collection facility other than the materials specified in paragraph (1).

(3) The materials are transported to the collection facility by either of the following:

(A) The person who generated the material.

(B) A curbside collection program operated, or authorized to operate, by a public agency.

(4) The combined volume or weight of latex paint, antifreeze, and small batteries transported to the collection facility by any one individual or collected from a single residence at one time does not exceed a total volume of 10 gallons or a total weight of 100 pounds. Up to two spent lead-acid batteries and 20 gallons of used oil may be additionally transported to the collection facility at the same time in the same vehicle.

(5) Used oil transported to the collection facility by either a person or by a curbside collection program shall meet the following conditions, whichever is applicable:

(A) A person that is not a curbside collection program transporting used oil to the collection facility shall not transport more than 20 gallons per shipment, the contents of any single container shall not exceed five gallons, and the volume of each individual container shall not exceed five gallons.

(B) A curbside collection program transporting used oil to a collection facility shall not collect more than five gallons of used oil from a single residence at one time, and the volume of the individual containers collected which contain used oil shall not exceed five gallons.

(6) The materials collected are not stored at the collection facility for more than 180 days, except that less than one ton of spent lead-acid batteries may be stored at the facility for up to one year. Over one ton of lead-acid batteries shall not be stored at the collection facility for more than 180 days.

(7) The materials collected are managed in accordance with the hazardous waste labeling, containerization, emergency response, and personnel training requirements of this chapter.

(8) The public agency, or the person operating the collection facility under a written agreement with a public agency, notifies the department in writing of all of the following:

(A) The facility will be operated in accordance with this section and any other requirements imposed by the department.

(B) The location of the facility, the date the facility will begin operation, and the facility's operating schedule.

(C) The total annual volume of recyclable household hazardous waste actually collected at the facility, and the annual volume of recyclable household hazardous waste actually transported from the facility to recycling facilities.

(d) A hazardous waste facilities permit is not required for a facility that meets the requirements of Section 13263.2 of the Water Code.

SEC. 2. Section 25201 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25201. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (c) and (d) and in Section 25201.5, no owner or operator of a storage facility, treatment facility, transfer facility, resource recovery facility, or disposal site shall accept, treat, store, or dispose of a hazardous waste at the facility, area, or site, unless the owner or operator holds a hazardous waste facilities permit or other grant of authorization from the department to use and operate the facility, area, or site.

(b) Except as necessary to comply with Section 25159.18, any person planning to construct a new hazardous waste facility or a new hazardous waste management unit, which would manage RCRA hazardous waste, shall obtain a hazardous waste facilities permit or a permit amendment from the department prior to commencing construction.

(c) A hazardous waste facilities permit is not required for a recycle-only household hazardous waste collection facility operated in accordance with subdivision (b) of Section 25218.8.

(d) A hazardous waste facilities permit is not required for a facility that meets the requirements of Section 13263.2 of the Water Code.

SEC. 3. Section 13263.2 is added to the Water Code, to read:

13263.2. The owner or operator of a facility that treats groundwater which qualifies as a hazardous waste pursuant to Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code is exempt from the requirement to obtain a hazardous waste facility permit pursuant to Section 25201 of the Health and Safety Code for the treatment of groundwater if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The facility treats groundwater which is extracted for the purposes of complying with one or more of the following:

(1) Waste discharge requirements prescribed pursuant to Section 13263.

(2) A cleanup or abatement order issued pursuant to Section 13304.

(3) A written authorization issued by a regional board or local agency designated pursuant to Section 25283 of the Health and Safety

Code.

(4) An order or approved remedial action plan issued pursuant to Chapter 6.8 (commencing with Section 25300) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) The facility meets, at a minimum, all of the following operating standards:

(1) The treatment does not require a hazardous waste facilities permit pursuant to the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, as amended (42 U.S.C. Sec. 6901 et seq.).

(2) The facility operator prepares and maintains written operating instructions and a record of the dates, amounts, and types of waste treated.

(3) The facility operator prepares and maintains a written inspection schedule and log of inspections conducted.

(4) The records specified in paragraphs (2) and (3) are maintained by the owner or operator of the facility for a period of three years.

(5) The owner or operator maintains adequate records to demonstrate that it is in compliance with all of the pretreatment standards and with all of the applicable industrial waste discharge requirements issued by the agency operating the publicly owned treatment works into which the wastes are discharged.

(6) (A) Upon terminating the operation of any treatment process or unit exempted pursuant to this section, the owner or operator that conducted the treatment removes or decontaminates all waste residues, containment system components, soils, and other structures or equipment contaminated with hazardous waste from the unit. The removal of the unit from service shall be conducted in a manner that does both of the following:

(i) Minimizes the need for further maintenance.

(ii) Eliminates the escape of hazardous waste, hazardous constituents, leachate, contaminated runoff, or waste decomposition products to the environment after the treatment process ceases operation.

(B) Any owner or operator who permanently ceases operation of a treatment process or unit that is exempted pursuant to this section shall provide written notification to the regional board or local agency upon completion of all activities required by this subdivision.

(7) The waste is managed in accordance with all applicable requirements for generators of hazardous waste under Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code and the regulations adopted by the Department of Toxic Substances Control pursuant to that chapter.

(c) The groundwater is treated at the site where it is extracted in compliance with one or more of paragraphs (1), (2), (3), and (4) of subdivision (a).

(d) All other regulatory requirements applicable to the facility pursuant to Chapter 6.5 (commencing with Section 25100) of Division 20 of the Health and Safety Code are met by the owner or operator.

(e) The treatment of the contaminated groundwater is not performed under corrective action required by Section 25200.10 of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 4. Section 2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 25201 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1091. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1994, (2) each bill amends Section 25201 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1091, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1204

An act to add Section 12113 to the Public Contract Code, relating to public agency contracts.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12113 is added to the Public Contract Code, to read:

12113. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, state and local agencies may enter into agreements to pay for telecommunications services to be utilized beyond the current fiscal year. "Telecommunications services" for purposes of this section shall include, but not be limited to, central office-based leased communications systems equipped with primary station lines, capable of receiving in-dialed voice and data communications and capable of out-dialing voice and data communications and any customer premised equipment, software and installation costs necessary for utilization by the state or local agency.

(b) State and local agencies may enter into financing agreements for the procurement of telecommunications services whenever the state or local agency may derive monetary benefit and greater services as a result of its ability to acquire capital at lower interest cost than the supplier of those services can provide directly to the agency or whenever the state or local agency may obtain a reduced cost of service based on length of agreement if offered by the supplier of telecommunications service.

(c) Procurement requirements for financing of telecommunications equipment and services shall be considered to have been met whenever the financing is within the scope of public sector requests for proposals or whenever the financing is offered by a sole source provider or that provider's assignee.

(d) The provisions of this section shall not be construed to alter or circumvent any existing procurement procedure or requirement, nor to alter or circumvent the procurement authority of any state or local agency.

CHAPTER 1205

An act to amend Section 22825.17 of the Government Code, relating to state employees, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 22825.17 of the Government Code is amended to read:

22825.17. Notwithstanding Section 22825.16, a health benefit plan offered by the California Association of Highway Patrolmen pursuant to Section 22790 may rebate funds to participants enrolled in the employee organization's sponsored basic and supplement to Medicare plans in order to ensure that participant out-of-pocket costs remain at a reasonable and competitive level as determined by the Board of Trustees of the California Association of Highway Patrolmen Health Benefits Trust. The payments shall be made from the special reserves of the health benefits trust fund for that health benefit plan. The amount of funds shall be limited to that portion of special reserves that is in excess of the amount necessary to fund the risk up to the reinsurance attachment level. Administrative costs incurred by the state shall be reimbursed by the health benefits trust fund for that health benefit plan.

This section shall become operative on July 1, 1992.

SEC. 2. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order that the rebate for certain health care costs may be applied most equitably at the earliest possible time, and undue hardship on members of the Public Employees' Retirement System may be avoided, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1206

An act to amend Section 1157.2 of, and to add Section 1157.6 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to public health, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1157.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1157.2. Any counties which were eligible for organization and operation of local public health services by the State Department of Health Services pursuant to Section 1157 as of January 1, 1988, shall thereafter continue to be eligible therefor, notwithstanding an increase in total population beyond the 40,000 population limit of that section.

This section shall remain in effect until January 1, 1998, and on that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1998, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Section 1157.6 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1157.6. (a) Counties contracting with the department pursuant to Section 1157.1 may enter into a contract with the department whereby the department's program that administers the Section 1157.1 contract agrees to assume responsibility for some or all of the administrative activities for some or all of the public health categorical programs of that county listed in subdivision (g). The responsibility for the provision of services under those programs shall remain with the county board of supervisors.

(b) For the purposes of this section, "public health categorical programs" means a public health program that is funded by federal or state allocation supported by specific legislation or regulations, and that is identified by the department to be implemented by local jurisdictions.

(c) Administrative costs, associated with the administration of those contracts between the department and the counties pursuant to this section, shall be capped at the maximum allowable under each of the public health categorical programs.

(d) Each county intending to contract with the department for the fiscal year commencing July 1, 1994, shall submit to the department a notice of intent to contract adopted by the board of supervisors within 60 days of the effective date of this section. For each fiscal year thereafter, a notice of intent to contract adopted by the board of supervisors shall be submitted no later than August 1 of the fiscal year preceding the fiscal year for which the agreement will be in effect, in accordance with procedures established by the department. A county may withdraw this notice no later than September 15 of the fiscal year preceding the fiscal year for which the agreement will be in effect in accordance with procedures established by the department. If a county fails to withdraw its notice by this date, it shall be responsible for any and all necessary costs incurred by the department in providing or preparing to provide public health services in that county pursuant to this section.

(e) As a condition of contracting with the department, the department may establish uniform standards, forms, and procedures for conducting the administrative activities for those categorical programs.

(f) Any county that elects to contract with the department pursuant to this section shall, after receipt of program funds, pay by the 15th of each month, the agreed-upon contract amount for reimbursement for departmental costs of administration services. If a county does not make the agreed monthly payment, the department may after 60 days' written notice to the county terminate the services provided by the department pursuant to this section.

(g) The programs that may be subject to this section include, but are not limited to, all of the following:

(1) All maternal and child health programs, including, but not limited to, the following:

(A) California Children's Services, Article 2 (commencing with Section 248) of Chapter 2 of Part 1.

(B) Child Health and Disability Prevention Program, Article 3.4 (commencing with Section 320) of Chapter 2 of Part 1.

(C) Perinatal Health Care, Article 2.6 (commencing with Section 289) of Chapter 2 of Part 1.

(2) The California Aids Program, Chapter 1.16 (commencing with Section 199.70) of Part 1.

(3) Tobacco Use Prevention, Chapter 1.2 (commencing with Section 24160) of Division 20.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

Due to the precarious state of public health administration in certain counties, and the necessity of enabling those counties to consolidate the administration of public health programs at the earliest possible time, it is necessary for this act to take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1207

An act to add Section 51226.2 to the Education Code, and to amend Section 2 of Chapter 775 of the Statutes of 1989, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that consumer and home economics education assists pupils to do all the following:

(a) Develop personal self-esteem.

(b) Acquire skills to become positive family and community members as well as productive members of the state's work force.

(c) Balance home and work life successfully.

(d) Develop skills for positive parenting.

(e) Acquire knowledge and skills that enable individuals to practice good nutrition and develop a lifelong commitment to healthy living.

(f) Develop personal and life management skills.

The Legislature further finds and declares that the most efficient and effective manner to deliver consumer and home economics education instruction is by using a comprehensive approach which assures that content areas are taught as an integrated body of knowledge.

SEC. 2. Section 51226.2 is added to the Education Code, to read:

51226.2. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall inform county offices of education and each school district that maintains any of grades 6 to 12, inclusive, of the availability of the consumer and home economics education model performance standards and framework. The superintendent shall provide a copy of the consumer and home economics education model performance standards and framework to each county office of education and school district that requests one.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of Chapter 775 of the Statutes of 1989 is amended to read:

Sec. 2. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall develop model performance standards and a framework for instruction in consumer and home economics. The State Department of Education shall prepare and disseminate information to school districts and county offices of education offering instruction in consumer and home economics education that includes all of the following:

(a) A definition of the content areas as delineated in the consumer and home economics education model curriculum standards and framework as well as the scope and sequence of the instruction to be provided in grades 6 to 12, inclusive.

(b) Guidelines for the incorporation or implementation or incorporation and implementation of the model curriculum standards into existing consumer and home economics education programs.

(c) A clarification of the qualifications required of personnel assigned to teach consumer and home economics education courses.

(d) A delineation of how consumer and home economics education instruction should be articulated in grades 6 to 12, inclusive, as well as with other home economics occupational programs at the secondary and postsecondary education levels.

(e) Specific information as to how consumer and home economics education courses can be strengthened pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 51225.3 of the Education Code in adopting alternative means for pupils to complete the prescribed course of study for graduation.

(f) Quality criteria to ensure an effective consumer and home economics education instructional program.

CHAPTER 1208

An act to add Section 1367.67 to the Health and Safety Code, and to add Sections 10123.185 and 11512.24 to the Insurance Code, relating to health coverage.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(1) Osteoporosis, or porous bone, is a condition characterized by an excessive loss of bone tissue and an increased susceptibility to fractures of the hip, spine, and wrist.

(2) An estimated 25 million Americans have osteoporosis, with many cases undiagnosed because the condition develops without symptoms until a strain, bump, or fall causes a fracture.

(3) Between 3 and 4 million Americans have Paget's disease, osteogenesis imperfecta, and other related metabolic bone disorders.

(4) Osteoporosis is responsible for 1,300,000 bone fractures annually, including more than 250,000 hip fractures, 500,000 vertebral fractures, 200,000 fractures of the wrist, and the remaining fractures of other limbs.

(5) Osteoporosis affects one-third to one-half of all postmenopausal women and nearly half of all people over age 75.

(6) Direct medical costs of osteoporosis reached an estimated ten billion dollars ($10,000,000,000) in 1988 for the United States, not including the costs of family care and lost work for caregivers.

(7) Direct medical costs of osteoporosis are expected to increase precipitously because the proportion of the population comprised of older persons is expanding and each generation of older persons tends to have a higher incidence of osteoporosis than preceding generations.

(8) Technology now exists, and new technology is developing, that will permit early diagnosis of osteoporosis as well as appropriate management of the condition once it has developed.

SEC. 2. Section 1367.67 is added to the Health and Safety Code, immediately following Section 1367.66, to read:

1367.67. Every health care service plan contract that provides hospital, medical, or surgical coverage, that is issued, amended, delivered, or renewed in this state on or after January 1, 1994, shall be deemed to include coverage for services related to diagnosis, treatment, and appropriate management of osteoporosis. The services may include, but need not be limited to, all Food and Drug Administration approved technologies, including bone mass measurement technologies as deemed medically appropriate.

SEC. 3. Section 10123.185 is added to the Insurance Code, immediately following Section 10123.18, to read:

10123.185. (a) Every policy of disability insurance that covers hospital, medical, or surgical expenses and is issued, amended, delivered, or renewed in this state and certificate of group disability insurance issued, amended, delivered, or renewed in this state pursuant to a master group policy issued, amended, delivered, or renewed in another state on or after January 1, 1994, shall be deemed to include coverage for services related to diagnosis, treatment, and appropriate management of osteoporosis. The services may include, but need not be limited to, all Food and Drug Administration approved technologies, including bone mass measurement technologies as deemed medically appropriate.

(b) This section shall not apply to specified accident, specified disease, hospital indemnity, Medicare supplement, or long-term care health insurance policies.

SEC. 4. Section 11512.24 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

11512.24. Every nonprofit hospital service plan contract that provides hospital, medical, or surgical coverage, that is issued, amended, delivered, or renewed in this state on or after January 1, 1994, shall be deemed to include coverage for services related to diagnosis, treatment, and appropriate management of osteoporosis. The services may include, but need not be limited to, all Food and Drug Administration approved technologies, including bone mass measurement technologies as deemed medically appropriate.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1209

An act to add Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 1389.1) to Chapter 2.2 of Division 2 of, the Health and Safety Code, to amend Sections 799.03, 10291.5, 10350.2, 10380, 10508, 12683, and 12684 of, and to add Sections 10112.5 and 10384 to, the Insurance Code, and to add Section 2808 to the Labor Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Health Insurance Access and Equity Act.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) Despite having the most advanced medical technology of any country in the world, a large percentage of the population does not have access to health care due to the inability to pay for insurance coverage.

(b) The dramatic increase in medical costs as well as the increasingly restrictive underwriting of applications by insurance companies has further reduced access to health care.

(c) Employers, who have traditionally provided health insurance for their employees, have also been caught in the financial spiral. What was originally an inexpensive fringe benefit has grown until insurance costs are often second only to wages as a business expense. An increasing number of employers, especially small employers, have been forced to reduce or discontinue their group health insurance coverage entirely, leaving even more people uninsured or inadequately insured.

(d) One area of concern to persons acquiring insurance either individually or as part of a group is limitations on coverage due to preexisting conditions. Most contracts contain a provision that limits the benefits a new insured may receive for a condition that existed prior to coverage.

(e) Many Californians with HIV have no health insurance and lack the means to pay for the substantial medical expenses incurred to fight the disease. This fundamental predicament underlies most of the insurance issues relating to HIV.

SEC. 3. Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 1389.1) is added to Chapter 2.2 of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 7.5. Underwriting Practices

1389.1. (a) The commissioner shall not approve any plan contract unless the commissioner finds that the application conforms to both of the following requirements:

(1) All applications for coverage which include health-related questions shall contain clear and unambiguous questions designed to ascertain the health condition or history of the applicant.

(2) The application questions related to an applicant's health shall be based on medical information that is reasonable and necessary for medical underwriting purposes. The application shall include a prominently displayed notice that shall read:

"California law prohibits an HIV test from being required or used by health care service plans as a condition of obtaining coverage."

(b) Nothing in this section shall authorize the commissioner to establish or require a single or standard application form for application questions.

1389.2. At the request of the commissioner, a health care service plan shall provide a written statement of the actuarial basis for any medical underwriting decision on any application form, or contract issued or delivered to, or denied a resident of this state.

1389.3. No health care service plan shall engage in the practice of postclaims underwriting. For purposes of this section, "postclaims underwriting" means the rescinding, canceling, or limiting of a plan contract due to the plan's failure to complete medical underwriting and resolve all reasonable questions arising from written information submitted on or with an application before issuing the plan contract. This section shall not limit a plan's remedies upon a showing of willful misrepresentation.

SEC. 4. Section 799.03 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

799.03. No insurer shall test for HIV or for the presence of antibodies to HIV for the purpose of determining insurability other than in accordance with the informed consent, counseling, and privacy protection provisions of this article and Article 6.6 (commencing with Section 791). Notwithstanding any other provision of law, this constitutes the exclusive requirements for counseling, informed consent, and privacy protection for that testing.

(a) An insurer that requests an applicant to take an HIV-related test shall obtain the applicant's written informed consent for the test. Written informed consent shall include a description of the test to be performed, including its purpose, potential uses, and limitations, the meaning of its results, procedures for notifying the applicant of the results, and the right to confidential treatment of the results. Prior to the applicant's execution of the consent, the insurer shall:

(1) Provide the applicant printed material describing HIV, its causes and symptoms, the manner in which it is spread, the test or tests used to detect HIV or the HIV antibody, and what a person can do whose test results are positive or negative.

(2) Provide the applicant a list of counseling resources available, where the applicant can obtain assistance in understanding the meaning of the test and its results. The list may be provided from publicly available information.

(b) The insurer shall notify an applicant of a positive test result by notifying the applicant's designated physician. If the applicant tested has not given written consent authorizing a physician to receive the test results, the applicant shall be urged, at the time the applicant is informed of the positive test results, to contact a private physician, the county department of health, the State Department of Health Services, local medical societies, or alternative test sites for appropriate counseling.

(c) The commissioner shall develop and adopt standardized language for the informed consent disclosure form required by this section to be given to any applicant for life or disability income insurance who takes an HIV-related test.

SEC. 5. Section 10112.5 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

10112.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, every policy or certificate of disability insurance covering hospital, medical, or surgical expenses marketed, issued, or delivered to a resident of this state, regardless of the situs of the contract or master group policyholder, shall be subject to the provisions of this code, except those policies of disability insurance that cover hospital, medical, or surgical expenses which are issued outside of California to an employer whose principle place of business and majority of employees are located outside of California.

SEC. 7. Section 10291.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10291.5. (a) The purpose of this section is to achieve both of the following:

(1) Prevent, in respect to disability insurance, fraud, unfair trade practices, and insurance economically unsound to the insured.

(2) Assure that the language of all insurance policies can be readily understood and interpreted.

(b) The commissioner shall not approve any disability policy for insurance or delivery in this state in any of the following circumstances:

(1) If the commissioner finds that it contains any provision, or has any label, description of its contents, title, heading, backing, or other indication of its provisions which is unintelligible, uncertain, ambiguous, or abstruse, or likely to mislead a person to whom the policy is offered, delivered or issued.

(2) If it contains any provision for payment at a rate, or in an amount (other than the product of rate times the periods for which payments are promised) for loss caused by particular event or events (as distinguished from character of physical injury or illness of the insured) more than triple the lowest rate, or amount, promised in the policy for the same loss caused by any other event or events (loss caused by sickness, loss caused by accident, and different degrees of disability each being considered, for the purpose of this paragraph, a different loss); or if it contains any provision for payment for any confining loss of time at a rate more than six times the least rate payable for any partial loss of time or more than twice the least rate payable for any nonconfining total loss of time; or if it contains any provision for payment for any nonconfining total loss of time at a rate more than three times the least rate payable for any partial loss of time.

(3) If it contains any provision for payment for disability caused by particular event or events (as distinguished from character of physical injury or illness of the insured) payable for a term more than twice the least term of payment provided by the policy for the same degree of disability caused by any other event or events; or if it contains any benefit for total nonconfining disability payable for lifetime or for more than 12 months and any benefit for partial disability, unless the benefit for partial disability is payable for at least three months; or if it contains any benefit for total confining disability payable for lifetime or for more than 12 months, unless it also contains benefit for total nonconfining disability caused by the same event or events payable for at least three months, and, if it also contains any benefit for partial disability, unless the benefit for partial disability is payable for at least three months. The provisions of this paragraph shall apply separately to accident benefits and to sickness benefits.

(4) If it contains provision or provisions which would have the effect, upon any termination of the policy, of reducing or ending the liability as the insurer would have, but for the termination, for loss of time resulting from accident occurring while the policy is in force or for loss of time commencing while the policy is in force and resulting from sickness contracted while the policy is in force or for other losses resulting from accident occurring or sickness contracted while the policy is in force, and also contains provision or provisions reserving to the insurer the right to cancel or refuse to renew the policy, unless it also contains other provision or provisions the effect of which is that termination of the policy as the result of the exercise by the insurer of any such right shall not reduce or end the liability in respect to the hereinafter specified losses as the insurer would have had under the policy, including its other limitations, conditions, reductions, and restrictions, had the policy not been so terminated.

The specified losses referred to in the preceding paragraph are:

(i) Loss of time which commences while the policy is in force and results from sickness contracted while the policy is in force.

(ii) Loss of time which commences within 20 days following and results from accident occurring while the policy is in force.

(iii) Losses which result from accident occurring or sickness contracted while the policy is in force and arise out of the care or treatment of illness or injury and which occur within 90 days from the termination of the policy or during a period of continuous compensable loss or losses which period commences prior to the end of such 90 days.

(iv) Losses other than those specified in clause (i), (ii), or (iii) of this paragraph which result from accident occurring or sickness contracted while the policy is in force and which losses occur within 90 days following the accident or the contraction of the sickness.

(5) If by any caption, label, title, or description of contents the policy states, implies, or infers without reasonable qualification that it provides loss of time indemnity for lifetime, or for any period of more than two years, if the loss of time indemnity is made payable only when house confined or only under special contingencies not applicable to other total loss of time indemnity.

(6) If it contains any benefit for total confining disability payable only upon condition that the confinement be of an abnormally restricted nature unless the caption of the part containing any such benefit is accurately descriptive of the nature of the confinement required and unless, if the policy has a description of contents, label, or title, at least one of them contain reference to the nature of the confinement required.

(7) (A) If, irrespective of the premium charged therefor, any benefit of the policy is, or the benefits of the policy as a whole are, not sufficient to be of real economic value to the insured.

(B) In determining whether benefits are of real economic value to the insured, the commissioner shall not differentiate between insureds of the same or similar economic or occupational classes and shall give due consideration to all of the following:

(i) The right of insurers to exercise sound underwriting judgment in the selection and amounts of risks.

(ii) Amount of benefit, length of time of benefit, nature or extent of benefit, or any combination of those factors.

(iii) The relative value in purchasing power of the benefit or benefits.

(iv) Differences in insurance issued on an industrial or other special basis.

(C) To be of real economic value, it shall not be necessary that any benefit or benefits cover the full amount of any loss which might be suffered by reason of the occurrence of any hazard or event insured against.

(8) If it substitutes a specified indemnity upon the occurrence of accidental death for any benefit of the policy, other than a specified indemnity for dismemberment, which would accrue prior to the time of that death or if it contains any provision which has the effect, other than at the election of the insured exercisable within not less than 20 days in the case of benefits specifically limited to the loss by removal of one or more fingers or one or more toes or within not less than 90 days in all other cases, of doing any of the following:

(A) Of substituting, upon the occurrence of the loss of both hands, both feet, one hand and one foot, the sight of both eyes or the sight of one eye and the loss of one hand or one foot, some specified indemnity for any or all benefits under the policy unless the indemnity so specified is equal to or greater than the total of the benefit or benefits for which such specified indemnity is substituted and which, assuming in all cases that the insured would continue to live, could possibly accrue within four years from the date of such dismemberment under all other provisions of the policy applicable to the particular event or events (as distinguished from character of physical injury or illness) causing the dismemberment.

(B) Of substituting, upon the occurrence of any other dismemberment some specified indemnity for any or all benefits under the policy unless the indemnity so specified is equal to or greater than one-fourth of the total of the benefit or benefits for which the specified indemnity is substituted and which, assuming in all cases that the insured would continue to live, could possibly accrue within four years from the date of the dismemberment under all other provisions of the policy applicable to the particular event or events (as distinguished from character of physical injury or illness) causing the dismemberment.

(C) Of substituting a specified indemnity upon the occurrence of any dismemberment for any benefit of the policy which would accrue prior to the time of dismemberment.

As used in this section, loss of a hand shall be severance at or above the wrist joint, loss of a foot shall be severance at or above the ankle joint, loss of an eye shall be the irrecoverable loss of the entire sight thereof, loss of a finger shall mean at least one entire phalanx thereof and loss of a toe the entire toe.

(9) If it contains provision, other than as provided in Section 10370, reducing any original benefit more than 50 percent on account of age of the insured.

(10) If the insuring clause or clauses contain no reference to the exceptions, limitations, and reductions (if any) or no specific reference to, or brief statement of, each abnormally restrictive exception, limitation, or reduction.

(11) If it contains benefit or benefits for loss or losses from specified diseases only unless:

(A) All of the diseases so specified in each provision granting the benefits fall within some general classification based upon the following:

(i) The part or system of the human body principally subject to all such diseases.

(ii) The similarity in nature or cause of such diseases.

(iii) In case of diseases of an unusually serious nature and protracted course of treatment, the common characteristics of all such diseases with respect to severity of affliction and cost of treatment.

(B) The policy is entitled and each provision granting the benefits is separately captioned in clearly understandable words so as to accurately describe the classification of diseases covered and expressly point out, when that is the case, that not all diseases of the classification are covered.

(12) If it does not contain provision for a grace period of at least the number of days specified below for the payment of each premium falling due after the first premium, during which grace period the policy shall continue in force provided, that the grace period to be included in the policy shall be not less than seven days for policies providing for weekly payment of premium, not less than 10 days for policies providing for monthly payment of premium and not less than 31 days for all other policies.

(13) If it fails to conform in any respect with any law of this state.

(c) The commissioner shall not approve any disability policy covering hospital, medical, or surgical expenses unless the commissioner finds that the application conforms to both of the following requirements:

(1) All applications for disability insurance covering hospital, medical, or surgical expenses, except that which is guaranteed issue, which include questions relating to medical conditions shall contain clear and unambiguous questions designed to ascertain the health condition or history of the applicant.

(2) The application questions designed to ascertain the health condition or history of the applicant shall be based on medical information that is reasonable and necessary for medical underwriting purposes. The application shall include a prominently displayed notice that states:

"California law prohibits an HIV test from being required or used by health insurance companies as a condition of obtaining health insurance coverage."

(d) Nothing in this section authorizes the commissioner to establish or require a single or standard application form for application questions.

(e) The commissioner may, from time to time as conditions warrant, after notice and hearing, promulgate such reasonable rules and regulations, and amendments and additions thereto, as are necessary or convenient, to establish, in advance of the submission of policies, the standard or standards conforming to subdivision (b), by which he or she shall disapprove or withdraw approval of any disability policy.

In promulgating any such rule or regulation the commissioner shall give consideration to the criteria herein established and to the desirability of approving for use in policies in this state uniform provisions, nationwide or otherwise, and is hereby granted the authority to consult with insurance authorities of any other state and their representatives individually or by way of convention or committee, to seek agreement upon those provisions.

Any such rule or regulation shall be promulgated in accordance with the procedure provided in Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(f) The commissioner may withdraw approval of filing of any policy or other document or matter required to be approved by the commissioner, or filed with him or her, by this chapter when the commissioner would be authorized to disapprove or refuse filing of the same if originally submitted at the time of the action of withdrawal.

Any such withdrawal shall be in writing and shall specify reasons. An insurer adversely affected by any such withdrawal may, within a period of 30 days following mailing or delivery of the writing containing the withdrawal, by written request secure a hearing to determine whether the withdrawal should be annulled, modified, or confirmed. Unless, at any time, it is mutually agreed to the contrary, a hearing shall be granted and commenced within 30 days following filing of the request and shall proceed with reasonable dispatch to determination. Unless the commissioner in writing in the withdrawal, or subsequent thereto, grants an extension, any such withdrawal shall, in the absence of any such request, be effective, prospectively and not retroactively, on the 91st day following the mailing or delivery of the withdrawal, and, if request for the hearing is filed, on the 91st day following mailing or delivery of written notice of the commissioner's determination.

(g) No proceeding under this section is subject to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(h) Except as provided in subdivision (i), any action taken by the commissioner under this section is subject to review by the courts of this state and proceedings on review shall be in accordance with the Code of Civil Procedure.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, petition for any such review may be filed at any time before the effective date of the action taken by the commissioner. No action of the commissioner shall become effective before the expiration of 20 days after written notice and a copy thereof are mailed or delivered to the person adversely affected, and any action so submitted for review shall not become effective for a further period of 15 days after the filing of the petition in court. The court may stay the effectiveness thereof for a longer period.

(i) This section shall be liberally construed to effectuate the purpose and intentions herein stated; but shall not be construed to grant the commissioner power to fix or regulate rates for disability insurance or prescribe a standard form of disability policy, except that the commissioner shall prescribe a standard supplementary disclosure form for presentation with all disability insurance policies, pursuant to Section 10603.

(j) This section shall be effective on and after July 1, 1950, as to all policies thereafter submitted and on and after January 1, 1951, the commissioner may withdraw approval pursuant to subdivision (d) of any policy thereafter issued or delivered in this state irrespective of when its form may have been submitted or approved, and prior to those dates the provisions of law in effect on January 1, 1949, shall apply to those policies.

(k) Any such policy issued by an insurer to an insured on a form approved by the commissioner, and in accordance with the conditions, if any, contained in the approval, at a time when that approval is outstanding shall, as between the insurer and the insured, or any person claiming under the policy, be conclusively presumed to comply with, and conform to, this section.

SEC. 8. Section 10350.2 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10350.2. A disability policy shall contain a provision which shall be in one of the two forms set forth herein. Policies other than noncancellable policies shall use Form A. Noncancellable policies shall use either Form A or Form B. In Form B the clause in parentheses in paragraph (a) may be omitted at the insurer's option. Paragraph (a) in Form A shall not be so construed as to affect any legal requirement for avoidance of a policy or denial of a claim during the initial two-year period, nor to limit the application of Sections 10369.2 to 10369.6, inclusive, in the event of misstatement with respect to age or occupation or other insurance.

Form A.

Time Limit on Certain Defenses: (a) After two years from the date of issue of this policy no misstatements, except fraudulent misstatements, made by the applicant in the application for such policy shall be used to void the policy or to deny a claim for loss incurred or disability (as defined in the policy) commencing after the expiration of such two-year period.

(b) No claim for loss incurred or disability (as defined in the policy) commencing after two years from the date of issue of this policy shall be reduced or denied on the ground that a disease or physical condition not excluded from coverage by name or specific description effective on the date of loss had existed prior to the effective date of coverage of this policy.

Form B.

Incontestable: (a) After this policy has been in force for a period of two years during the lifetime of the insured (excluding any period during which the insured is disabled), it shall become incontestable as to the statements contained in the application.

(b) No claim for loss incurred or disability (as defined in the policy) commencing after two years from the date of issue of this policy shall be reduced or denied on the ground that a disease or physical condition not excluded from coverage by name or specific description effective on the date of loss had existed prior to the effective date of coverage of this policy.

SEC. 9. Section 10380 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10380. The falsity of any statement in the application for any policy covered by this chapter shall not bar the right to recovery under the policy unless such false statement was made with actual intent to deceive or unless it materially affected either the acceptance of the risk or the hazard assumed by the insurer.

SEC. 10. Section 10384 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

10384. No insurer issuing or providing any policy of disability insurance covering hospital, medical, or surgical expenses shall engage in the practice of postclaims underwriting. For purposes of this section, "postclaims underwriting" means the rescinding, canceling or limiting of a policy or certificate due to the insurer's failure to complete medical underwriting and resolve all reasonable questions arising from written information submitted on or with an application before issuing the policy or certificate.

SEC. 11. Section 10508 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10508. (a) It is the obligation of every insurer admitted in this state to transact life or disability insurance, or both, to maintain certain records specified in this article pertaining to the activities of its life, life and disability, and disability agents and any other agents for the inspection and examination of the commissioner.

(b) The original or certified copies of the records shall be delivered to the commissioner within a period of 30 days following receipt of written demand therefor.

(c) The records required to be maintained or made available in this state may be in the form of originals, carbon, or facsimile copies, microfilm copies, or electronic data-processing records if printouts are available within a reasonable period of time, and shall include, to the extent the data are pertinent and available for each insurance transaction, the names, dates, amounts and policy numbers involved. The records are composed of all of the following:

(1) The original application for each insurance policy or contract sold in this state.

(2) Records showing, for each insurance policy or contract issued, the premiums received by the insurer.

(3) Production records showing all insurance policies or contracts sold by each agent or other agent in the expired portion of the current calendar year and the whole of each of the preceding five calendar years.

(4) Records showing, for each insurance policy or contract issued, the amount of commissions paid and to whom.

(5) Records or memoranda identifying any agent other, than the agent whose name appears on the application who, to the actual knowledge of the insurer, handled any part of an insurance transaction for which the other agent was not compensated.

(6) Correspondence, written solicitations or proposals, or other written communications sent by the insurer to a prospect, applicant, or insured, or received from him or her by the insurer, excluding printed material in general use distributed by the insurer, either directly or indirectly through its life agents.

(7) Correspondence, written proposals, notices, a statement of reasons, or other written communications, if any, pertaining to the rescission, termination, or nonrenewal of a policy or contract, or the election of nonforfeiture values thereunder, sent by an insurer to a policyholder or contractholder or received from him or her by an insurer.

(8) A copy of a written comparison of benefits, limitations, exclusions, and costs of existing accident, sickness, or long-term care coverage and proposed coverage.

(9) A copy of the outline of coverage or disclosure statement required by law or regulation.

(10) Copies of any correspondence between the policyholder or prospective policyholder and the agent or insurer.

(11) Copies of correspondence between anyone acting on behalf of the policyholder or prospective policyholder and the agent or insurer.

(d) Except as otherwise provided, the records shall be maintained for a minimum period of two years following the actual delivery of the insurance policy or contract to which each pertains, or, if no policy or contract was issued, for a minimum period of two years after the date of the application therefor.

SEC. 12. Section 12683 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12683. Subject to the provisions and conditions of this part, if the group policy from which conversion is made covers the employee or member for basic hospital or surgical expense, the employee or member shall be entitled to obtain a converted policy providing at least the following minimum benefits:

(a) Plan A.

(1) Hospital room and board daily expense benefits up to two hundred dollars ($200) for a duration of 70 days.

(2) Miscellaneous hospital expense benefits up to an amount of 10 times the hospital room and board daily expense benefits.

(3) Surgical expense benefits according to a surgical procedures schedule consistent with those customarily offered by the insurer under a group or individual health insurance policy and providing a maximum benefit of four thousand eight hundred dollars ($4,800).

(b) Plan B—75 percent of the dollar amounts of Plan A.

(c) Plan C—50 percent of the dollar amounts of Plan A.

(d) The maximum dollar amount for Plan A's hospital room and board daily expense and surgical benefit may be redetermined by the Insurance Commissioner as to conversion coverage issued subsequent to that redetermination. The redetermination shall not be made more often than once in three years. The maximum dollar amount redetermined by the commissioner for hospital room and board shall not exceed 80 percent of the average semiprivate room rate then charged in the state.

(e) Covered expenses under this section shall include benefits for expense incurred by the employee, member, or spouse in connection with pregnancy, provided that:

(1) The pregnancy commenced while covered under the group policy from which conversion was made.

(2) The expense is of a type which would have been covered under such group policy.

(3) The conversion policy is in force when the expense is incurred.

SEC. 13. Section 12684 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12684. Subject to the provisions and conditions of this part, if the group policy from which conversion is made provides the employee or member with major medical or comprehensive medical insurance, the employee or member shall be entitled to obtain a converted policy providing comprehensive medical coverage providing at least the following benefits:

(a) A payment per covered person for all covered medical expenses incurred during the person's lifetime equal to one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000); provided, however, that for treatment of mental illness payment may be limited to ten thousand dollars ($10,000) during the person's lifetime.

(b) Payment of benefits at the rate of 75 percent of covered medical expenses; provided, however, that if coverage is provided for expenses incurred for outpatient treatment of mental illness, payment of benefits may be at the rate of 50 percent of such covered expenses, and the insurer may limit the amount of covered expense for each outpatient visit and the amount of benefits payable for expenses incurred during each calendar year for that outpatient treatment.

(c) A cash deductible for each benefit period at the option of the insured of two hundred dollars ($200), five hundred dollars ($500), or one thousand dollars ($1,000), but not less than the cash deductible which applied to the insured under the group policy which entitles him or her to a converted policy.

(d) Covered medical expenses shall include the charges for a semiprivate hospital room and board, but need not exceed the lesser of two hundred dollars ($200) per day or the hospital's most common charge for a semiprivate room, covered expenses for intensive care shall be at least two and one-half times the covered hospital room and board charge. The maximum dollar amount for hospital room and board daily covered expense may be redetermined by the commissioner as to conversion coverage issued after the redetermination. That redetermination shall not be made more often than once in three years. The maximum dollar amount redetermined by the commissioner shall not exceed the average semiprivate room rate then charged in the state.

(e) Covered expenses under this section shall include benefits for expense incurred by the employee, member, or spouse in connection with pregnancy, provided that:

(1) The pregnancy commenced while covered under the group policy from which conversion was made.

(2) The expense is of a type which would have been covered under such group policy.

(3) The conversion policy is in force when the expense is incurred.

(f) Covered expense under this section need not include expense for dental or vision care, or other optional benefits not normally offered by the insurer under a major medical or comprehensive medical expense plan.

SEC. 14. Section 2808 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

2808. (a) It is the responsibility of all employers, whether public or private, to provide to all eligible employees an outline of coverage or similar explanation of all benefits provided under employer-sponsored health coverage, including, but not limited to, provider information for health maintenance organizations and preferred provider organizations.

(b) All employers, whether public or private, shall provide to employees, upon termination, notification of all continuation, disability extension, and conversion coverage options under any employer-sponsored coverage for which the employee may remain eligible after employment with that employer terminates.

CHAPTER 1210

An act to add Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 1389.1) to Chapter 2.2 of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, to amend Sections 799.03, 10291.5, 10350.2, 10508, 12683, and 12684 of, and to add Sections 10112.5 and 10384 to, the Insurance Code, and to add Section 2808 to the Labor Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Health Insurance Access and Equity Act.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) Despite having the most advanced medical technology of any country in the world, a large percentage of the population does not have access to health care due to the inability to pay for insurance coverage.

(b) The dramatic increase in medical costs as well as the increasingly restrictive underwriting of applications by insurance companies has further reduced access to health care.

(c) Employers, who have traditionally provided health insurance for their employees, have also been caught in the financial spiral. What was originally an inexpensive fringe benefit has grown until insurance costs are often second only to wages as a business expense. An increasing number of employers, especially small employers, have been forced to reduce or discontinue their group health insurance coverage entirely, leaving even more people uninsured or inadequately insured.

(d) One area of concern to persons acquiring insurance either individually or as part of a group is limitations on coverage due to preexisting conditions. Most contracts contain a provision that limits the benefits a new insured may receive for a condition that existed prior to coverage.

(e) Many Californians with HIV have no health insurance and lack the means to pay for the substantial medical expenses incurred to fight the disease. This fundamental predicament underlies most of the insurance issues relating to HIV.

SEC. 3. Article 7.5 (commencing with Section 1389.1) is added to Chapter 2.2 of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 7.5. Underwriting Practices

1389.1. (a) The commissioner shall not approve any plan contract unless the commissioner finds that the application conforms to both of the following requirements:

(1) All applications for coverage which include health-related questions shall contain clear and unambiguous questions designed to ascertain the health condition or history of the applicant.

(2) The application questions related to an applicant's health shall be based on medical information that is reasonable and necessary for medical underwriting purposes. The application shall include a prominently displayed notice that shall read:

"California law prohibits an HIV test from being required or used by health care service plans as a condition of obtaining coverage."

(b) Nothing in this section shall authorize the commissioner to establish or require a single or standard application form for application questions.

1389.2. At the request of the commissioner, a health care service plan shall provide a written statement of the actuarial basis for any medical underwriting decision on any application form, or contract issued or delivered to, or denied a resident of this state.

1389.3. No health care service plan shall engage in the practice of postclaims underwriting. For purposes of this section, "postclaims underwriting" means the rescinding, canceling, or limiting of a plan contract due to the plan's failure to complete medical underwriting and resolve all reasonable questions arising from written information submitted on or with an application before issuing the plan contract. This section shall not limit a plan's remedies upon a showing of willful misrepresentation.

SEC. 4. Section 799.03 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

799.03. No insurer shall test for HIV or for the presence of antibodies to HIV for the purpose of determining insurability other than in accordance with the informed consent, counseling, and privacy protection provisions of this article and Article 6.6 (commencing with Section 791). Notwithstanding any other provision of law, this constitutes the exclusive requirements for counseling, informed consent, and privacy protection for that testing.

(a) An insurer that requests an applicant to take an HIV-related test shall obtain the applicant's written informed consent for the test. Written informed consent shall include a description of the test to be performed, including its purpose, potential uses, and limitations, the meaning of its results, procedures for notifying the applicant of the results, and the right to confidential treatment of the results. Prior to the applicant's execution of the consent, the insurer shall:

(1) Provide the applicant printed material describing HIV, its causes and symptoms, the manner in which it is spread, the test or tests used to detect HIV or the HIV antibody, and what a person can do whose test results are positive or negative.

(2) Provide the applicant a list of counseling resources available, where the applicant can obtain assistance in understanding the meaning of the test and its results. The list may be provided from publicly available information.

(b) The insurer shall notify an applicant of a positive test result by notifying the applicant's designated physician. If the applicant tested has not given written consent authorizing a physician to receive the test results, the applicant shall be urged, at the time the applicant is informed of the positive test results, to contact a private physician, the county department of health, the State Department of Health Services, local medical societies, or alternative test sites for appropriate counseling.

(c) The commissioner shall develop and adopt standardized language for the informed consent disclosure form required by this section to be given to any applicant for life or disability income insurance who takes an HIV-related test.

SEC. 5. Section 10112.5 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

10112.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, every policy or certificate of disability insurance covering hospital, medical, or surgical expenses marketed, issued, or delivered to a resident of this state, regardless of the situs of the contract or master group policyholder, shall be subject to the provisions of this code, except those policies of disability insurance that cover hospital, medical, or surgical expenses which are issued outside of California to an employer whose principle place of business and majority of employees are located outside of California.

SEC. 6. Section 10291.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10291.5. (a) The purpose of this section is to achieve both of the following:

(1) Prevent, in respect to disability insurance, fraud, unfair trade practices, and insurance economically unsound to the insured.

(2) Assure that the language of all insurance policies can be readily understood and interpreted.

(b) The commissioner shall not approve any disability policy for insurance or delivery in this state in any of the following circumstances:

(1) If the commissioner finds that it contains any provision, or has any label, description of its contents, title, heading, backing, or other indication of its provisions which is unintelligible, uncertain, ambiguous, or abstruse, or likely to mislead a person to whom the policy is offered, delivered or issued.

(2) If it contains any provision for payment at a rate, or in an amount (other than the product of rate times the periods for which payments are promised) for loss caused by particular event or events (as distinguished from character of physical injury or illness of the insured) more than triple the lowest rate, or amount, promised in the policy for the same loss caused by any other event or events (loss caused by sickness, loss caused by accident, and different degrees of disability each being considered, for the purpose of this paragraph, a different loss); or if it contains any provision for payment for any confining loss of time at a rate more than six times the least rate payable for any partial loss of time or more than twice the least rate payable for any nonconfining total loss of time; or if it contains any provision for payment for any nonconfining total loss of time at a rate more than three times the least rate payable for any partial loss of time.

(3) If it contains any provision for payment for disability caused by particular event or events (as distinguished from character of physical injury or illness of the insured) payable for a term more than twice the least term of payment provided by the policy for the same degree of disability caused by any other event or events; or if it contains any benefit for total nonconfining disability payable for lifetime or for more than 12 months and any benefit for partial disability, unless the benefit for partial disability is payable for at least three months; or if it contains any benefit for total confining disability payable for lifetime or for more than 12 months, unless it also contains benefit for total nonconfining disability caused by the same event or events payable for at least three months, and, if it also contains any benefit for partial disability, unless the benefit for partial disability is payable for at least three months. The provisions of this paragraph shall apply separately to accident benefits and to sickness benefits.

(4) If it contains provision or provisions which would have the effect, upon any termination of the policy, of reducing or ending the liability as the insurer would have, but for the termination, for loss of time resulting from accident occurring while the policy is in force or for loss of time commencing while the policy is in force and resulting from sickness contracted while the policy is in force or for other losses resulting from accident occurring or sickness contracted while the policy is in force, and also contains provision or provisions reserving to the insurer the right to cancel or refuse to renew the policy, unless it also contains other provision or provisions the effect of which is that termination of the policy as the result of the exercise by the insurer of any such right shall not reduce or end the liability in respect to the hereinafter specified losses as the insurer would have had under the policy, including its other limitations, conditions, reductions, and restrictions, had the policy not been so terminated.

The specified losses referred to in the preceding paragraph are:

(i) Loss of time which commences while the policy is in force and results from sickness contracted while the policy is in force.

(ii) Loss of time which commences within 20 days following and results from accident occurring while the policy is in force.

(iii) Losses which result from accident occurring or sickness contracted while the policy is in force and arise out of the care or treatment of illness or injury and which occur within 90 days from the termination of the policy or during a period of continuous compensable loss or losses which period commences prior to the end of such 90 days.

(iv) Losses other than those specified in clause (i), (ii), or (iii) of this paragraph which result from accident occurring or sickness contracted while the policy is in force and which losses occur within 90 days following the accident or the contraction of the sickness.

(5) If by any caption, label, title, or description of contents the policy states, implies, or infers without reasonable qualification that it provides loss of time indemnity for lifetime, or for any period of more than two years, if the loss of time indemnity is made payable only when house confined or only under special contingencies not applicable to other total loss of time indemnity.

(6) If it contains any benefit for total confining disability payable only upon condition that the confinement be of an abnormally restricted nature unless the caption of the part containing any such benefit is accurately descriptive of the nature of the confinement required and unless, if the policy has a description of contents, label, or title, at least one of them contain reference to the nature of the confinement required.

(7) (A) If, irrespective of the premium charged therefor, any benefit of the policy is, or the benefits of the policy as a whole are, not sufficient to be of real economic value to the insured.

(B) In determining whether benefits are of real economic value to the insured, the commissioner shall not differentiate between insureds of the same or similar economic or occupational classes and shall give due consideration to all of the following:

(i) The right of insurers to exercise sound underwriting judgment in the selection and amounts of risks.

(ii) Amount of benefit, length of time of benefit, nature or extent of benefit, or any combination of those factors.

(iii) The relative value in purchasing power of the benefit or benefits.

(iv) Differences in insurance issued on an industrial or other special basis.

(C) To be of real economic value, it shall not be necessary that any benefit or benefits cover the full amount of any loss which might be suffered by reason of the occurrence of any hazard or event insured against.

(8) If it substitutes a specified indemnity upon the occurrence of accidental death for any benefit of the policy, other than a specified indemnity for dismemberment, which would accrue prior to the time of that death or if it contains any provision which has the effect, other than at the election of the insured exercisable within not less than 20 days in the case of benefits specifically limited to the loss by removal of one or more fingers or one or more toes or within not less than 90 days in all other cases, of doing any of the following:

(A) Of substituting, upon the occurrence of the loss of both hands, both feet, one hand and one foot, the sight of both eyes or the sight of one eye and the loss of one hand or one foot, some specified indemnity for any or all benefits under the policy unless the indemnity so specified is equal to or greater than the total of the benefit or benefits for which such specified indemnity is substituted and which, assuming in all cases that the insured would continue to live, could possibly accrue within four years from the date of such dismemberment under all other provisions of the policy applicable to the particular event or events (as distinguished from character of physical injury or illness) causing the dismemberment.

(B) Of substituting, upon the occurrence of any other dismemberment some specified indemnity for any or all benefits under the policy unless the indemnity so specified is equal to or greater than one-fourth of the total of the benefit or benefits for which the specified indemnity is substituted and which, assuming in all cases that the insured would continue to live, could possibly accrue within four years from the date of the dismemberment under all other provisions of the policy applicable to the particular event or events (as distinguished from character of physical injury or illness) causing the dismemberment.

(C) Of substituting a specified indemnity upon the occurrence of any dismemberment for any benefit of the policy which would accrue prior to the time of dismemberment.

As used in this section, loss of a hand shall be severance at or above the wrist joint, loss of a foot shall be severance at or above the ankle joint, loss of an eye shall be the irrecoverable loss of the entire sight thereof, loss of a finger shall mean at least one entire phalanx thereof and loss of a toe the entire toe.

(9) If it contains provision, other than as provided in Section 10370, reducing any original benefit more than 50 percent on account of age of the insured.

(10) If the insuring clause or clauses contain no reference to the exceptions, limitations, and reductions (if any) or no specific reference to, or brief statement of, each abnormally restrictive exception, limitation, or reduction.

(11) If it contains benefit or benefits for loss or losses from specified diseases only unless:

(A) All of the diseases so specified in each provision granting the benefits fall within some general classification based upon the following:

(i) The part or system of the human body principally subject to all such diseases.

(ii) The similarity in nature or cause of such diseases.

(iii) In case of diseases of an unusually serious nature and protracted course of treatment, the common characteristics of all such diseases with respect to severity of affliction and cost of treatment.

(B) The policy is entitled and each provision granting the benefits is separately captioned in clearly understandable words so as to accurately describe the classification of diseases covered and expressly point out, when that is the case, that not all diseases of the classification are covered.

(12) If it does not contain provision for a grace period of at least the number of days specified below for the payment of each premium falling due after the first premium, during which grace period the policy shall continue in force provided, that the grace period to be included in the policy shall be not less than seven days for policies providing for weekly payment of premium, not less than 10 days for policies providing for monthly payment of premium and not less than 31 days for all other policies.

(13) If it fails to conform in any respect with any law of this state.

(c) The commissioner shall not approve any disability policy covering hospital, medical, or surgical expenses unless the commissioner finds that the application conforms to both of the following requirements:

(1) All applications for disability insurance covering hospital, medical, or surgical expenses, except that which is guaranteed issue, which include questions relating to medical conditions, shall contain clear and unambiguous questions designed to ascertain the health condition or history of the applicant.

(2) The application questions designed to ascertain the health condition or history of the applicant shall be based on medical information that is reasonable and necessary for medical underwriting purposes. The application shall include a prominently displayed notice that states:

"California law prohibits an HIV test from being required or used by health insurance companies as a condition of obtaining health insurance coverage."

(d) Nothing in this section authorizes the commissioner to establish or require a single or standard application form for application questions.

(e) The commissioner may, from time to time as conditions warrant, after notice and hearing, promulgate such reasonable rules and regulations, and amendments and additions thereto, as are necessary or convenient, to establish, in advance of the submission of policies, the standard or standards conforming to subdivision (b), by which he or she shall disapprove or withdraw approval of any disability policy.

In promulgating any such rule or regulation the commissioner shall give consideration to the criteria herein established and to the desirability of approving for use in policies in this state uniform provisions, nationwide or otherwise, and is hereby granted the authority to consult with insurance authorities of any other state and their representatives individually or by way of convention or committee, to seek agreement upon those provisions.

Any such rule or regulation shall be promulgated in accordance with the procedure provided in Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(f) The commissioner may withdraw approval of filing of any policy or other document or matter required to be approved by the commissioner, or filed with him or her, by this chapter when the commissioner would be authorized to disapprove or refuse filing of the same if originally submitted at the time of the action of withdrawal.

Any such withdrawal shall be in writing and shall specify reasons. An insurer adversely affected by any such withdrawal may, within a period of 30 days following mailing or delivery of the writing containing the withdrawal, by written request secure a hearing to determine whether the withdrawal should be annulled, modified, or confirmed. Unless, at any time, it is mutually agreed to the contrary, a hearing shall be granted and commenced within 30 days following filing of the request and shall proceed with reasonable dispatch to determination. Unless the commissioner in writing in the withdrawal, or subsequent thereto, grants an extension, any such withdrawal shall, in the absence of any such request, be effective, prospectively and not retroactively, on the 91st day following the mailing or delivery of the withdrawal, and, if request for the hearing is filed, on the 91st day following mailing or delivery of written notice of the commissioner's determination.

(g) No proceeding under this section is subject to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(h) Except as provided in subdivision (i), any action taken by the commissioner under this section is subject to review by the courts of this state and proceedings on review shall be in accordance with the Code of Civil Procedure.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, petition for any such review may be filed at any time before the effective date of the action taken by the commissioner. No action of the commissioner shall become effective before the expiration of 20 days after written notice and a copy thereof are mailed or delivered to the person adversely affected, and any action so submitted for review shall not become effective for a further period of 15 days after the filing of the petition in court. The court may stay the effectiveness thereof for a longer period.

(i) This section shall be liberally construed to effectuate the purpose and intentions herein stated; but shall not be construed to grant the commissioner power to fix or regulate rates for disability insurance or prescribe a standard form of disability policy, except that the commissioner shall prescribe a standard supplementary disclosure form for presentation with all disability insurance policies, pursuant to Section 10603.

(j) This section shall be effective on and after July 1, 1950, as to all policies thereafter submitted and on and after January 1, 1951, the commissioner may withdraw approval pursuant to subdivision (d) of any policy thereafter issued or delivered in this state irrespective of when its form may have been submitted or approved, and prior to those dates the provisions of law in effect on January 1, 1949, shall apply to those policies.

(k) Any such policy issued by an insurer to an insured on a form approved by the commissioner, and in accordance with the conditions, if any, contained in the approval, at a time when that approval is outstanding shall, as between the insurer and the insured, or any person claiming under the policy, be conclusively presumed to comply with, and conform to, this section.

SEC. 7. Section 10350.2 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10350.2. A disability policy shall contain a provision which shall be in one of the two forms set forth herein. Policies other than noncancellable policies shall use Form A. Noncancellable policies shall use either Form A or Form B. In Form B the clause in parentheses in paragraph (a) may be omitted at the insurer's option. Paragraph (a) in Form A shall not be so construed as to affect any legal requirement for avoidance of a policy or denial of a claim during the initial two-year period, nor to limit the application of Sections 10369.2 to 10369.6, inclusive, in the event of misstatement with respect to age or occupation or other insurance.

Form A.

Time Limit on Certain Defenses: (a) After two years from the date of issue of this policy no misstatements, except fraudulent misstatements, made by the applicant in the application for such policy shall be used to void the policy or to deny a claim for loss incurred or disability (as defined in the policy) commencing after the expiration of such two-year period.

(b) No claim for loss incurred or disability (as defined in the policy) commencing after two years from the date of issue of this policy shall be reduced or denied on the ground that a disease or physical condition not excluded from coverage by name or specific description effective on the date of loss had existed prior to the effective date of coverage of this policy.

Form B.

Incontestable: (a) After this policy has been in force for a period of two years during the lifetime of the insured (excluding any period during which the insured is disabled), it shall become incontestable as to the statements contained in the application.

(c) No claim for loss incurred or disability (as defined in the policy) commencing after two years from the date of issue of this policy shall be reduced or denied on the ground that a disease or physical condition not excluded from coverage by name or specific description effective on the date of loss had existed prior to the effective date of coverage of this policy.

SEC. 8. Section 10384 is added to the Insurance Code, to read:

10384. No insurer issuing or providing any policy of disability insurance covering hospital, medical, or surgical expenses shall engage in the practice of postclaims underwriting. For purposes of this section, "postclaims underwriting" means the rescinding, canceling, or limiting of a policy or certificate due to the insurer's failure to complete medical underwriting and resolve all reasonable questions arising from written information submitted on or with an application before issuing the policy or certificate.

SEC. 9. Section 10508 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10508. (a) It is the obligation of every insurer admitted in this state to transact life or disability insurance, or both, to maintain certain records specified in this article pertaining to the activities of its life, life and disability, and disability agents and any other agents for the inspection and examination of the commissioner.

(b) The original or certified copies of the records shall be delivered to the commissioner within a period of 30 days following receipt of written demand therefor.

(c) The records required to be maintained or made available in this state may be in the form of originals, carbon, or facsimile copies, microfilm copies, or electronic data-processing records if printouts are available within a reasonable period of time, and shall include, to the extent the data are pertinent and available for each insurance transaction, the names, dates, amounts and policy numbers involved. The records are composed of all of the following:

(1) The original application for each insurance policy or contract sold in this state.

(2) Records showing, for each insurance policy or contract issued, the premiums received by the insurer.

(3) Production records showing all insurance policies or contracts sold by each agent or other agent in the expired portion of the current calendar year and the whole of each of the preceding five calendar years.

(4) Records showing, for each insurance policy or contract issued, the amount of commissions paid and to whom.

(5) Records or memoranda identifying any agent other, than the agent whose name appears on the application who, to the actual knowledge of the insurer, handled any part of an insurance transaction for which the other agent was not compensated.

(6) Correspondence, written solicitations or proposals, or other written communications sent by the insurer to a prospect, applicant, or insured, or received from him or her by the insurer, excluding printed material in general use distributed by the insurer, either directly or indirectly through its life agents.

(7) Correspondence, written proposals, notices, a statement of reasons, or other written communications, if any, pertaining to the recision, termination, or nonrenewal of a policy or contract, or the election of nonforfeiture values thereunder, sent by an insurer to a policyholder or contract holder or received from him or her by an insurer.

(8) A copy of a written comparison of benefits, limitations, exclusions, and costs of existing accident, sickness, or long-term care coverage and proposed coverage.

(9) A copy of the outline of coverage or disclosure statement required by law or regulation.

(10) Copies of any correspondence between the policyholder or prospective policyholder and the agent or insurer.

(11) Copies of correspondence between anyone acting on behalf of the policyholder or prospective policyholder and the agent or insurer.

(d) Except as otherwise provided, the records shall be maintained for a minimum period of two years following the actual delivery of the insurance policy or contract to which each pertains, or, if no policy or contract was issued, for a minimum period of two years after the date of the application therefor.

SEC. 10. Section 12683 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12683. Subject to the provisions and conditions of this part, if the group policy from which conversion is made covers the employee or member for basic hospital or surgical expense, the employee or member shall be entitled to obtain a converted policy providing at least the following minimum benefits:

(a) Plan A.

(1) Hospital room and board daily expense benefits up to two hundred dollars ($200) for a duration of 70 days.

(2) Miscellaneous hospital expense benefits up to an amount of 10 times the hospital room and board daily expense benefits.

(3) Surgical expense benefits according to a surgical procedures schedule consistent with those customarily offered by the insurer under a group or individual health insurance policy and providing a maximum benefit of four thousand eight hundred dollars ($4,800).

(b) Plan B—75 percent of the dollar amounts of Plan A.

(c) Plan C—50 percent of the dollar amounts of Plan A.

(d) The maximum dollar amount for Plan A's hospital room and board daily expense and surgical benefit may be redetermined by the Insurance Commissioner as to conversion coverage issued subsequent to that redetermination. The redetermination shall not be made more often than once in three years. The maximum dollar amount redetermined by the commissioner for hospital room and board shall not exceed 80 percent of the average semiprivate room rate then charged in the state.

(e) Covered expenses under this section shall include benefits for expense incurred by the employee, member, or spouse in connection with pregnancy, provided that:

(1) The pregnancy commenced while covered under the group policy from which conversion was made.

(2) The expense is of a type which would have been covered under such group policy.

(3) The conversion policy is in force when the expense is incurred.

SEC. 11. Section 12684 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12684. Subject to the provisions and conditions of this part, if the group policy from which conversion is made provides the employee or member with major medical or comprehensive medical insurance, the employee or member shall be entitled to obtain a converted policy providing comprehensive medical coverage providing at least the following benefits:

(a) A payment per covered person for all covered medical expenses incurred during the person's lifetime equal to one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000); provided, however, that for treatment of mental illness payment may be limited to ten thousand dollars ($10,000) during the person's lifetime.

(b) Payment of benefits at the rate of 75 percent of covered medical expenses; provided, however, that if coverage is provided for expenses incurred for outpatient treatment of mental illness, payment of benefits may be at the rate of 50 percent of such covered expenses, and the insurer may limit the amount of covered expense for each outpatient visit and the amount of benefits payable for expenses incurred during each calendar year for that outpatient treatment.

(c) A cash deductible for each benefit period at the option of the insured of two hundred dollars ($200), five hundred dollars ($500), or one thousand dollars ($1,000), but not less than the cash deductible which applied to the insured under the group policy which entitles him or her to a converted policy.

(d) Covered medical expenses shall include the charges for a semiprivate hospital room and board, but need not exceed the lesser of two hundred dollars ($200) per day or the hospital's most common charge for a semiprivate room, covered expenses for intensive care shall be at least two and one-half times the covered hospital room and board charge. The maximum dollar amount for hospital room and board daily covered expense may be redetermined by the commissioner as to conversion coverage issued after the redetermination. That redetermination shall not be made more often than once in three years. The maximum dollar amount redetermined by the commissioner shall not exceed the average semiprivate room rate then charged in the state.

(e) Covered expenses under this section shall include benefits for expense incurred by the employee, member, or spouse in connection with pregnancy, provided that:

(1) The pregnancy commenced while covered under the group policy from which conversion was made.

(2) The expense is of a type which would have been covered under such group policy.

(3) The conversion policy is in force when the expense is incurred.

(f) Covered expense under this section need not include expense for dental or vision care, or other optional benefits not normally offered by the insurer under a major medical or comprehensive medical expense plan.

SEC. 12. Section 2808 is added to the Labor Code, to read:

2808. (a) It is the responsibility of all employers, whether public or private, to provide to all eligible employees an outline of coverage or similar explanation of all benefits provided under employer-sponsored health coverage, including, but not limited to, provider information for health maintenance organizations and preferred provider organizations.

(b) All employers, whether public or private, shall provide to employees, upon termination, notification of all continuation, disability extension, and conversion coverage options under any employer-sponsored coverage for which the employee may remain eligible after employment with that employer terminates.

CHAPTER 1211

An act to repeal and add Chapter 5.6 (commencing with Section 19994.30) of Part 2.6 of Division 5 of Title 2 of the Government Code, relating to smoking.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 5.6 (commencing with Section 19994.30) of Part 2.6 of Division 5 of Title 2 of the Government Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Chapter 5.6 (commencing with Section 19994.30) is added to Part 2.6 of Division 5 of Title 2 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 5.6. SMOKING IN STATE BUILDINGS

19994.30. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Building" means a building owned and occupied, or leased and occupied, by the state.

(b) (1) "Inside a state-owned and state-occupied building" includes all indoor areas of the building, except for covered parking lots, residential space, and state prison yard areas.

(2) "Inside a state-leased and state-occupied building" includes any indoor space leased to the state, except for covered parking lots, and residential space.

(3) "Residential space" means a private living area, but it does not include common areas such as lobbies, lounges, waiting areas, elevators, stairwells, and restrooms that are a structural part of a multicomplex building such as a dormitory.

(c) "State" or "state agency" means a state agency, as defined pursuant to Section 11000, the Legislature, the Supreme Court and the courts of appeal, and each California Community College campus and each campus of the California State University and the University of California.

(d) "State employee" means an employee of a state agency.

19994.31. Commencing January 1, 1994, no state employee or member of the public shall smoke any tobacco product inside a state-owned and state-occupied or a state-leased and state-occupied building, or, in an outdoor area within five feet of a main exit or entrance to such a building, or in a passenger vehicle, as defined by Section 465 of the Vehicle Code, owned by the state.

19994.32. Except as specified in Section 19994.31, a state employee or other person may smoke in any outdoor area of a state-owned and state-occupied or a state-leased and state-occupied building unless otherwise prohibited by state law and a sign describing the prohibition is posted by the state agency or other appropriate entity.

19994.33. (a) The State Department of Health Services may develop guidelines for the content and effective presentation of tobacco smoking control programs designed to assist an individual in either a self-help or group environment. The guidelines may be distributed to state agencies. The State Department of Health Services may provide a copy of the guidelines to any individual or group, upon request, and may charge a fee that shall not exceed the actual cost of producing a copy.

(b) State agencies may offer tobacco smoking control programs to their employees. A state agency may use existing employee training funds to pay for the presentation of tobacco smoking control programs offered to state employees at a state-owned or state-leased building during normal work hours.

(c) Not later than January 31, 1994, and thereafter upon initial employment, each state agency shall inform its employees about the smoking prohibition contained in Section 19994.31, areas where smoking is permitted, and the availability of tobacco smoking control programs.

(d) Enrollment in a tobacco smoking control program by any state employee shall be voluntary.

19994.34. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an agency specified in Division 3 (commencing with Section 3001) of the Food and Agricultural Code may accommodate the smoking public where it is economically feasible, provided state employees are not required to work in enclosed areas where the probability of exposure to secondhand smoke exists and the nonsmoking public is provided with a smoke-free environment in all enclosed buildings.

19994.35. (a) No tobacco product advertising shall be allowed in any state-owned and state-occupied building excepting advertising contained in a program, leaflet, newspaper, magazine, or other written material lawfully sold, brought, or distributed within a state building.

(b) "Advertise," for purposes of this section, means the display of any poster, sign, or other written or visual material that is intended to communicate commercial information or images to the public.

(c) "Tobacco product," for purposes of this section, means any product containing tobacco, the prepared leaves of plants of the nicotiana family, including, but not limited to, cigarettes, loose tobacco, cigars, snuff, chewing tobacco, or any other preparation of tobacco.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1212

An act to add and repeal Article 6 (commencing with Section 18175) to Chapter 2 of Part 11 of, the Education Code, relating to school libraries, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 6 (commencing with Section 18175) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 11 of the Education Code, to read:

Article 6. Library Education

18175. This article shall be known and may be cited as the "California Public School Library Protection Act."

18176. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that a need exists to ensure that all schools have libraries with adequate and up-to-date resource materials and to assist school districts in staffing their library media centers, in order to achieve equity in learning opportunity in all school districts in this state. A 1987 study of California's public school libraries conducted by the State Department of Education and entitled "The Crisis in California School Libraries—A Special Study," concluded that declining support for school libraries over the last decade has resulted in inadequate and outdated book collections and support materials to meet the scholastic needs of pupils. Further, the study revealed that 68 percent of California's public school libraries have no certificated library media center teacher on staff.

(b) Whereas the study, identified in subdivision (a), concluded that the "school library is the neglected stepchild of educational reform," it is the intent of the Legislature to ensure that services and materials in public school library media programs and centers in kindergarten and grades 1 to 12, inclusive, be maintained at a level sufficient to enable pupils to become independent learners during their school years and as adults, and to enhance inservice training to public school teachers under the direction of certificated library media teachers. The Legislature intends that, by encouraging literacy in the elementary grades under this article, the high rate of pupils who drop out of school prior to graduation from high school will be reduced.

18177. (a) In order to qualify for funding under this article on behalf of any school, a school district shall demonstrate to the State Department of Education all of the following:

(1) That a school library improvement plan has been developed by the school library media teacher, classroom teachers, and the school principal, that has been approved by the local governing board. If a school library media teacher is not employed at a school, a school library media teacher employed by the district or county office of education shall be involved in the development of the plan. The plan shall provide for the selection and procurement of library materials and technology-based materials so as to conform the school's library media program to the California Curriculum Standards and Frameworks, as adopted by the State Department of Education, or to a comparable standard that is designed to use library media program materials and resources to improve teaching strategies, enhance staff development, and implement curriculum objectives in each subject area described in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 51200) of Part 28.

(2) A proposed budget showing current and proposed expenditures for both the funding of library media technology, and the purchase of materials, including books, reference materials, periodicals, laser discs, CD-ROMs, maps, charts, globes, and other media, that are designed to meet the information needs appropriate to the grade level of pupils at the school. For the purposes of this section, the term "library media technology" includes any automated library management program or system designed to enhance the efficiency and delivery of library services to pupils.

(b) Of the total amount available in the fund created pursuant to Section 18178, 50 percent shall be made available to schools where a credentialed library media teacher is or will be employed at least one-half time. The other 50 percent of the money in that fund shall be available for schools that do not have a credentialed library media teacher that is or will be employed at least one-half time, but that have a school library improvement plan that includes provisions for appropriate maintenance of the materials collection and for supervision of pupils using the materials.

18178. (a) The State Department of Education shall issue to applicant school districts, from the California Public School Library Protection Fund created under subdivision (d), grants for the benefit of schools that qualify for funding under Section 18177. The funds deposited in any fiscal year into the California Public School Library Protection Fund, other than those funds applied to administrative costs in accordance with subdivision (d), shall be allocated as follows:

(1) An amount of no more than 30 percent of the moneys available in the fund, on behalf of schools that currently do not have a school library. No more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) shall be allocated to any one school pursuant to this paragraph. The funding allocated under this paragraph shall be used to purchase, for the school library, core literature or other library materials that are directly related to courses of study offered by the school.

(2) At least 70 percent of the moneys available in the fund, to replace outdated library materials. No more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) shall be allocated to any one school pursuant to this paragraph.

(b) Schoolsites shall not be eligible to receive more than one grant every five years from the fund. This restriction may be waived by the Superintendent of Public Instruction if all eligible applicant districts have been funded and funds remain in the California Public School Library Protection Fund.

(c) In apportioning grant funding under this section, the department shall accord highest priority to those schools for which the greatest funding need is demonstrated in the plan adopted pursuant to Section 18177. The department shall look to the following criteria to demonstrate need:

(1) Age of nonfiction materials in the current library.

(2) Size of the collection. The smaller the collection, the greater the funding need.

(3) Ability of pupils to use the education technology materials.

(d) The California Public School Library Protection Fund is hereby created in the State Treasury. It is the intent of the Legislature, that all money in the fund, including any money deposited in the fund from any source whatsoever, shall be appropriated by the Budget Act each fiscal year for expenditure pursuant to this article. The State Department of Education may apportion funds to school districts from the fund as authorized under this article.

(e) The funding provided under this section shall be expended as provided for in the school library improvement plan, and shall supplement, and not supplant, other expenditures by a school district for the support of a school library.

(f) The sole source of funding for this article shall be the fund created pursuant to subdivision (d).

18179. This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. An amount equal to 5 percent of the funds deposited in the California Public School Library Protection Fund, but not to exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) is hereby appropriated from the California Public School Library Protection Fund to the State Department of Education for the administrative costs of Article 6 (commencing with Section 18175) of Chapter 2 of Part 6 of the Education Code.

SEC. 3. This bill shall become operative only if Senate Bill 170 of the 1993–94 Regular Session is enacted and becomes effective on or before January 1, 1994.

CHAPTER 1213

An act to add Section 597x to the Penal Code, relating to animals.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 597x is added to the Penal Code, to read:

597x. (a) Notwithstanding Section 18734 of the Food and Agricultural Code or any other provision of law, it is unlawful for any person to sell, attempt to sell, load, cause to be loaded, transport, or attempt to transport any live horse, mule, burro, or pony that is disabled, if the animal is intended to be sold, loaded, or transported for commercial slaughter out of the state.

(b) For the purposes of this section, "disabled animal" includes, but is not limited to, any animal that has broken limbs, is unable to stand and balance itself without assistance, cannot walk, or is severely injured.

(c) A person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to the same penalties imposed upon a person convicted of a misdemeanor under Section 597a.

SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1214

An act to amend Sections 54.1 and 54.8 of the Civil Code, to amend Section 224 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to amend Sections 4450 and 12926 of the Government Code, and to amend Section 19952 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to disabled persons.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 54.1 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

54.1. (a) Individuals with disabilities shall be entitled to full and equal access, as other members of the general public, to accommodations, advantages, facilities, and privileges of all common carriers, airplanes, motor vehicles, railroad trains, motorbuses, streetcars, boats, or any other public conveyances or modes of transportation (whether private, public, franchised, licensed, contracted, or otherwise provided), telephone facilities, adoption agencies, private schools, hotels, lodging places, places of public accommodation, amusement, or resort, and other places to which the general public is invited, subject only to the conditions and limitations established by law, or state or federal regulation, and applicable alike to all persons.

As used in this section, "telephone facilities" means tariff items and other equipment and services which have been approved by the Public Utilities Commission to be used by individuals with disabilities in a manner feasible and compatible with the existing telephone network provided by the telephone companies.

"Full and equal access," for purposes of this section in its application to transportation, means access that meets the standards of Titles II and III of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336) and federal regulations adopted pursuant thereto, except that, if the laws of this state prescribe higher standards, it shall mean access that meets those higher standards.

(b) (1) Individuals with disabilities shall be entitled to full and equal access, as other members of the general public, to all housing accommodations offered for rent, lease, or compensation in this state, subject to the conditions and limitations established by law, or state or federal regulation, and applicable alike to all persons.

(2) "Housing accommodations" means any real property, or portion thereof, which is used or occupied, or is intended, arranged, or designed to be used or occupied, as the home, residence, or sleeping place of one or more human beings, but shall not include any accommodations included within subdivision (a) or any single-family residence the occupants of which rent, lease, or furnish for compensation not more than one room therein.

(3) Nothing in this subdivision shall require any person renting, leasing, or providing for compensation real property to modify his or her property in any way or provide a higher degree of care for an individual with a disability than for an individual who is not disabled.

(4) Except as provided in paragraph (5) of this subdivision, nothing in this part shall require any person renting, leasing, or providing for compensation real property, if that person refuses to accept tenants who have dogs, to accept as a tenant an individual with a disability who has a dog.

(5) It shall be deemed a denial of equal access to housing accommodations within the meaning of this subdivision for any person, firm, or corporation to refuse to lease or rent housing accommodations to an individual who is blind or visually impaired on the basis that the individual uses the services of a guide dog, an individual who is deaf or hearing impaired on the basis that the individual uses the services of a signal dog, or to an individual with a physical disability on the basis that the individual uses the services of a service dog, or to refuse to permit such an individual who is blind or visually impaired to keep a guide dog, an individual who is deaf or hearing impaired to keep a signal dog, or an individual with a physical disability to keep a service dog on the premises.

Except in the normal performance of duty as a mobility or signal aid, nothing contained in this paragraph shall be construed to prevent the owner of a housing accommodation from establishing terms in a lease or rental agreement which reasonably regulate the presence of guide dogs, signal dogs, or service dogs on the premises of a housing accommodation, nor shall this paragraph be construed to relieve a tenant from any liability otherwise imposed by law for real and personal property damages caused by such a dog when proof of same exists.

As used in this subdivision, "guide dog" means any guide dog which was trained by a person licensed under the provisions of Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 7200) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code or as defined in the regulations implementing Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336).

As used in this subdivision, "signal dog" means any dog trained to alert an individual who is deaf or hearing impaired to intruders or sounds.

As used in this subdivision, "service dog" means any dog individually trained to the requirements of an individual with physical disabilities, including, but not limited to, minimal protection work, rescue work, pulling a wheelchair, or fetching dropped items.

(6) It shall be deemed a denial of equal access to housing accommodations within the meaning of this subdivision for any person, firm, or corporation to refuse to lease or rent housing accommodations to an individual who is blind or visually impaired, an individual who is deaf or hearing impaired, or other individual with a disability on the basis that the individual with a disability is partially or wholly dependent upon the income of his or her spouse, if the spouse is a party to the lease or rental agreement. Nothing in this subdivision shall, however, prohibit a lessor or landlord from considering the aggregate financial status of an individual with a disability and his or her spouse.

(c) Persons licensed to train guide dogs for individuals who are visually impaired or blind pursuant to Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 7200) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code or guide dogs as defined in the regulations implementing Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336), and persons authorized to train signal dogs for individuals who are deaf or hearing impaired, and persons authorized to train service dogs for individuals with physical disabilities, may take dogs, for the purpose of training them as guide dogs, signal dogs, or service dogs in any of the places specified in subdivisions (a) and (b). These persons shall carry and display identification if issued as an authorization, upon request.

SEC. 1.5. Section 54.1 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

54.1. (a) Individuals with disabilities shall be entitled to full and equal access, as other members of the general public, to accommodations, advantages, facilities, and privileges of all common carriers, airplanes, motor vehicles, railroad trains, motorbuses, streetcars, boats, or any other public conveyances or modes of transportation (whether private, public, franchised, licensed, contracted, or otherwise provided), telephone facilities, adoption agencies, private schools, hotels, lodging places, places of public accommodation, amusement, or resort, and other places to which the general public is invited, subject only to the conditions and limitations established by law, or state or federal regulation, and applicable alike to all persons.

As used in this section, "telephone facilities" means tariff items and other equipment and services which have been approved by the Public Utilities Commission to be used by individuals with disabilities in a manner feasible and compatible with the existing telephone network provided by the telephone companies.

"Full and equal access," for purposes of this section in its application to transportation, means access that meets the standards of Titles II and III of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336) and federal regulations adopted pursuant thereto, except that, if the laws of this state prescribe higher standards, it shall mean access that meets those higher standards.

(b) (1) Individuals with disabilities shall be entitled to full and equal access, as other members of the general public, to all housing accommodations offered for rent, lease, or compensation in this state, subject to the conditions and limitations established by law, or state or federal regulation, and applicable alike to all persons.

(2) "Housing accommodations" means any real property, or portion thereof, which is used or occupied, or is intended, arranged, or designed to be used or occupied, as the home, residence, or sleeping place of one or more human beings, but shall not include any accommodations included within subdivision (a) or any single-family residence the occupants of which rent, lease, or furnish for compensation not more than one room therein.

(3) Nothing in this subdivision shall require any person renting, leasing, or providing for compensation real property to modify his or her property in any way or provide a higher degree of care for an individual with a disability than for an individual who is not disabled.

(4) Except as provided in paragraph (5) of this subdivision, nothing in this part shall require any person renting, leasing, or providing for compensation real property, if that person refuses to accept tenants who have dogs, to accept as a tenant an individual with a disability who has a dog.

(5) It shall be deemed a denial of equal access to housing accommodations within the meaning of this subdivision for any person, firm, or corporation to refuse to lease or rent housing accommodations to an individual who is blind or visually impaired on the basis that the individual uses the services of a guide dog, an individual who is deaf or hearing impaired on the basis that the individual uses the services of a signal dog, or to an individual with a physical disability on the basis that the individual uses the services of a service dog, or to refuse to permit an individual who is blind or visually impaired to keep a guide dog, an individual who is deaf or hearing impaired to keep a signal dog, or an individual with a physical disability to keep a service dog on the premises.

Except in the normal performance of duty as a mobility or signal aid, nothing contained in this paragraph shall be construed to prevent the owner of a housing accommodation from establishing terms in a lease or rental agreement which reasonably regulate the presence of guide dogs, signal dogs, or service dogs on the premises of a housing accommodation, nor shall this paragraph be construed to relieve a tenant from any liability otherwise imposed by law for real and personal property damages caused by such a dog when proof of same exists.

As used in this subdivision, "guide dog" means any guide dog which was trained by a person licensed under the provisions of Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 7200) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code or as defined in the regulations implementing Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336), or trained by a school recognized in another state to train guide or seeing-eye dogs.

As used in this subdivision, "signal dog" means any dog trained to alert an individual who is deaf or hearing impaired to intruders or sounds.

As used in this subdivision, "service dog" means any dog individually trained to the requirements of an individual with physical disabilities, including, but not limited to, minimal protection work, rescue work, pulling a wheelchair, or fetching dropped items.

(6) It shall be deemed a denial of equal access to housing accommodations within the meaning of this subdivision for any person, firm, or corporation to refuse to lease or rent housing accommodations to an individual who is blind or visually impaired, an individual who is deaf or hearing impaired, or other individual with a disability on the basis that the individual with a disability is partially or wholly dependent upon the income of his or her spouse, if the spouse is a party to the lease or rental agreement. Nothing in this subdivision shall, however, prohibit a lessor or landlord from considering the aggregate financial status of an individual with a disability and his or her spouse.

(c) Persons licensed to train guide dogs for individuals who are visually impaired or blind pursuant to Chapter 9.5 (commencing with Section 7200) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code or guide dogs as defined in the regulations implementing Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336), and persons authorized to train signal dogs for individuals who are deaf or hearing impaired, and persons authorized to train service dogs for individuals with physical disabilities, may take dogs, for the purpose of training them as guide dogs, signal dogs, or service dogs in any of the places specified in subdivisions (a) and (b). These persons shall carry and display identification if issued as an authorization, upon request.

SEC. 2. Section 54.8 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

54.8. (a) In any civil or criminal proceeding, including, but not limited to, traffic, small claims court, family court proceedings and services, and juvenile court proceedings, in any court-ordered or court-provided alternative dispute resolution, including mediation and arbitration, or in any administrative hearing of a public agency, where a party, witness, attorney, judicial employee, judge, juror, or other participant who is hearing impaired, the individual who is hearing impaired, upon his or her request, shall be provided with a functioning assistive listening system or a computer-aided transcription system. Any individual requiring this equipment shall give advance notice of his or her need to the appropriate court or agency at the time the hearing is set or not later than five days before the hearing.

(b) Assistive listening systems include, but are not limited to, special devices which transmit amplified speech by means of audio-induction loops, radio frequency systems (AM or FM), or infrared transmission. Personal receivers, headphones, and neck loops shall be available upon request by individuals who are hearing impaired.

(c) If a computer-aided transcription system is requested, sufficient display terminals shall be provided to allow the individual who is hearing impaired to read the real time transcript of the proceeding without difficulty.

(d) A sign shall be posted in a prominent place indicating the availability of, and how to request, an assistive listening system and a computer-aided transcription system. Notice of the availability of the systems shall be posted with notice of trials.

(e) Each county shall have at least one portable assistive listening system for use by any court within the county. The system shall be in a location jointly determined by the county board of supervisors and the judges.

(f) The Judicial Council shall develop and approve official forms for notice of the availability of assistive listening systems and computer-aided transcription systems for individuals who are hearing impaired. The Judicial Council shall also develop and maintain a system to record utilization by the courts of these assistive listening systems and computer-aided transcription systems.

(g) If the individual who is hearing impaired is a juror, the jury deliberation room shall be equipped with an assistive listening system or a computer-aided transcription system upon the request of the juror.

(h) A court reporter may be present in the jury deliberating room during a jury deliberation if the services of a court reporter for the purpose of operating a computer-aided transcription system are required for a juror who is hearing impaired.

(i) In any of the proceedings referred to in subdivision (a), or in any administrative hearing of a public agency, in which the individual who is hearing impaired is a party, witness, attorney, judicial employee, judge, juror, or other participant, and has requested use of an assistive listening system or computer-aided transcription system, the proceedings shall not commence until the system is in place and functioning.

(j) As used in this section, "individual who is hearing impaired" means an individual with a hearing loss, who, with sufficient amplification or a computer-aided transcription system, is able to fully participate in the proceeding.

(k) In no case shall this section be construed to prescribe a lesser standard of accessibility or usability than that provided by Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336) and federal regulations adopted pursuant to that act.

SEC. 3. Section 224 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

224. (a) If a party does not cause the removal by challenge of an individual juror who is deaf, hearing impaired, blind, visually impaired, or speech impaired and who requires auxiliary services to facilitate communication, the party shall (1) stipulate to the presence of a service provider in the jury room during jury deliberations, and (2) prepare and deliver to the court proposed jury instructions to the service provider.

(b) As used in this section, "service provider" includes, but is not limited to, a person who is a sign language interpreter, oral interpreter, deaf-blind interpreter, reader, or speech interpreter. If auxiliary services are required during the course of jury deliberations, the court shall instruct the jury and the service provider that the service provider for the juror with a disability is not to participate in the jury's deliberations in any manner except to facilitate communication between the juror with a disability and other jurors.

(c) The court shall appoint a service provider whose services are needed by a juror with a disability to facilitate communication or participation. A sign language interpreter, oral interpreter, or deaf-blind interpreter appointed pursuant to this section shall be a qualified interpreter, as defined in subdivision (f) of Section 754 of the Evidence Code. Service providers appointed by the court under this subdivision shall be compensated in the same manner as provided in subdivision (i) of Section 754 of the Evidence Code.

SEC. 4. Section 4450 of the Government Code is amended to read:

4450. (a) It is the purpose of this chapter to ensure that all buildings, structures, sidewalks, curbs, and related facilities, constructed in this state by the use of state, county, or municipal funds, or the funds of any political subdivision of the state shall be accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities. The State Architect shall develop and submit proposed building standards to the California Building Standards Commission for adoption, pursuant to Section 18949.1 of the Health and Safety Code, in accordance with Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code and shall develop and submit to the California Building Standards Commission other proposed regulations for making buildings, structures, sidewalks, curbs, and related facilities accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities. The regulations and building standards relating to access for persons with disabilities shall be consistent with the standards for buildings and structures which are contained in pertinent provisions of the latest edition of the Uniform Building Code, as adopted by the International Conference of Building Officials, and these regulations and building standards shall contain such additional requirements relating to buildings, structures, sidewalks, curbs, and other related facilities as the California Building Standards Commission determines are necessary to assure access and usability for persons with disabilities. In developing and revising these proposed additional requirements, the State Architect shall consult with the Department of Rehabilitation, the League of California Cities, the County Supervisors Association of California, and at least one private organization representing and comprised of persons with disabilities.

(b) However, in no case shall the regulations and building standards prescribe a lesser standard of accessibility or usability than provided by the Accessibility Guidelines prepared by the federal Access Board as adopted by the United States Department of Justice to implement the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336).

SEC. 5. Section 12926 of the Government Code is amended to read:

12926. As used in this part in connection with unlawful practices, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

(a) "Affirmative relief" or "prospective relief" includes the authority to order reinstatement of an employee, awards of backpay, reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses, hiring, transfers, reassignments, grants of tenure, promotions, cease and desist orders, posting of notices, training of personnel, testing, expunging of records, reporting of records, and any other similar relief that is intended to correct unlawful practices under this part.

(b) "Age" refers to the chronological age of any individual who has reached his or her 40th birthday.

(c) "Employee" does not include any individual employed by his or her parents, spouse, or child, or any individual employed under a special license in a nonprofit sheltered workshop or rehabilitation facility.

(d) "Employer" includes any person regularly employing five or more persons, or any person acting as an agent of an employer, directly or indirectly; the state or any political or civil subdivision thereof and cities, except as follows:

(1) "Employer" does not include a religious association or corporation not organized for private profit.

(2) "Employer," for purposes of provisions defining unlawful employment practices related to mental disability, means any person regularly employing 15 or more persons, or any person directly or indirectly acting as an agent of such an employer, and also includes the state and municipalities and political subdivisions of the state.

(e) "Employment agency" includes any person undertaking for compensation to procure employees or opportunities to work.

(f) "Essential functions" means the fundamental job duties of the employment position the individual with a disability holds or desires. "Essential functions" does not include the marginal functions of the position.

(1) A job function may be considered essential for any of several reasons, including, but not limited to, any one or more of the following:

(A) The function may be essential because the reason the position exists is to perform that function.

(B) The function may be essential because of the limited number of employees available among whom the performance of that job function can be distributed.

(C) The function may be highly specialized, so that the incumbent in the position is hired for his or her expertise or ability to perform the particular function.

(2) Evidence of whether a particular function is essential includes, but is not limited to, the following:

(A) The employer's judgment as to which functions are essential.

(B) Written job descriptions prepared before advertising or interviewing applicants for the job.

(C) The amount of time spent on the job performing the function.

(D) The consequences of not requiring the incumbent to perform the function.

(E) The terms of a collective bargaining agreement.

(F) The work experiences of past incumbents in the job.

(G) The current work experience of incumbents in similar jobs.

(g) "Labor organization" includes any organization which exists and is constituted for the purpose, in whole or in part, of collective bargaining or of dealing with employers concerning grievances, terms or conditions of employment, or of other mutual aid or protection.

(h) "Medical condition" includes any health impairment related to or associated with a diagnosis of cancer, for which a person has been rehabilitated or cured, based on competent medical evidence.

(i) "Mental disability" includes any mental or psychological disorder, such as mental retardation, organic brain syndrome, emotional or mental illness, and specific learning disabilities. However, "mental disability" does not include conditions excluded from the federal definition of "disability" pursuant to Section 511 of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C., Sec. 12211). Additionally, for purposes of this part, the unlawful use of controlled substances or other drugs shall not be deemed, in and of itself, to constitute a mental disability.

(j) "On the bases enumerated in this part" means or refers to discrimination on the basis of one or more of the following: race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, marital status, sex, or age.

(k) "Physical disability" includes, but is not limited to, all of the following:

(1) Having any physiological disease, disorder, condition, cosmetic disfigurement, or anatomical loss that does both of the following:

(A) Affects one or more of the following body systems: neurological, immunological, musculoskeletal, special sense organs, respiratory, including speech organs, cardiovascular, reproductive, digestive, genitourinary, hemic and lymphatic, skin, and endocrine.

(B) Limits an individual's ability to participate in major life activities.

(2) Any other health impairment not described in paragraph (1) that requires special education or related services.

(3) Being regarded as having or having had a disease, disorder, condition, cosmetic disfigurement, anatomical loss, or health impairment described in paragraph (1) or (2).

(4) Being regarded as having, or having had, a disease, disorder, condition, cosmetic disfigurement, anatomical loss, or health impairment that has no present disabling effect but may become a physical disability as described in paragraph (1) or (2).

It is the intent of the Legislature that the definition of "physical disability" in this subdivision shall have the same meaning as the term "physical handicap" formerly defined by this subdivision and construed in American National Ins. Co. v. Fair Employment & Housing Com., 32 Cal. 3d 603. However, "physical disability" does not include conditions excluded from the federal definition of "disability" pursuant to Section 511 of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C., Sec. 12211). Additionally, for purposes of this part, the unlawful use of controlled substances or other drugs shall not be deemed, in and of itself, to constitute a physical disability.

(l) Notwithstanding subdivisions (i) and (k), if the definition of "disability" used in the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336) would result in broader protection of the civil rights of individuals with a mental disability or physical disability, as defined in subdivision (i) or (k), or would include any medical condition not included within those definitions, then that broader protection or coverage shall be deemed incorporated by reference into, and shall prevail over conflicting provisions of, the definitions in subdivisions (i) and (k).

(m) "Reasonable accommodation" may include either of the following:

(1) Making existing facilities used by employees readily accessible to, and usable by, individuals with disabilities.

(2) Job restructuring, part-time or modified work schedules, reassignment to a vacant position, acquisition or modification of equipment or devices, adjustment or modifications of examinations, training materials or policies, the provision of qualified readers or interpreters, and other similar accommodations for individuals with disabilities.

(n) "Religious creed," "religion," "religious observance," "religious belief," and "creed" include all aspects of religious belief, observance, and practice.

(o) "Sex" includes, but is not limited to, pregnancy, childbirth, or medical conditions related to pregnancy or childbirth.

(p) "Undue hardship" means an action requiring significant difficulty or expense, when considered in light of the following factors: (1) the nature and cost of the accommodation needed, (2) the overall financial resources of the facilities involved in the provision of the reasonable accommodations, the number of persons employed at the facility, and the effect on expenses and resources or the impact otherwise of these accommodations upon the operation of the facility, (3) the overall financial resources of the covered entity, the overall size of the business of a covered entity with respect to the number of employees, and the number, type, and location of its facilities, (4) the type of operations, including the composition, structure, and functions of the workforce of the entity, (5) the geographic separateness, administrative, or fiscal relationship of the facility or facilities.

SEC. 6. Section 19952 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

19952. (a) Any person, or public or private firm, organization, or corporation, who owns or manages places of public amusement and resort including theaters, concert halls, and stadiums shall provide seating or accommodations for physically disabled persons in a variety of locations within the facility, to the extent that this variety can be provided while meeting fire and panic safety requirements of the State Fire Marshal, so as to provide these persons a choice of admission prices otherwise available to members of the general public.

(b) Readily removable seats may be installed in wheelchair spaces when the spaces are not required to accommodate wheelchair users.

(c) The requirements of this section shall apply with respect to publicly and privately owned facilities or structures for the purposes specified in subdivision (a) for which a building permit or a building plan for new construction has been issued on or after January 1, 1985.

(d) In no case shall this section be construed to prescribe a lesser standard of accessibility or usability than provided by the Accessibility Guidelines prepared by the federal Access Board and adopted by the United States Department of Justice to implement the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336).

SEC. 7. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 54.1 of the Civil Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1419. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1994, (2) each bill amends Section 54.1 of the Civil Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1419, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 8. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1215

An act to amend Sections 1568.01, 1568.02, 1568.03, 1568.06, 1568.07, 1771, 1777, and 1777.2 of, to add Section 1568.041 to, and to repeal Chapter 3.35 (commencing with Section 1596.60) of Division 2 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to residential care.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1568.01 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1568.01. For purposes of this chapter, the following definitions shall apply:

(a) "Activities of daily living" means housework, meals, laundry, taking medication, money management, appropriate transportation, correspondence, telephoning, dressing, feeding, toileting, bathing, grooming, mobility, and related tasks.

(b) "Care and supervision" means ongoing assistance with activities of daily living without which a resident's physical health, mental health, safety, or welfare would be endangered.

(c) "Chronic, life-threatening illness" means HIV disease or AIDS.

(d) "Department" means the State Department of Social Services.

(e) "Director" means the Director of Social Services.

(f) "Family dwelling" includes, but is not limited to, single-family dwellings, units in multifamily dwellings, including units in duplexes and units in apartment dwellings, mobilehomes, including mobilehomes located in mobilehome parks, units in cooperatives, units in condominiums, units in townhouses, and units in planned unit developments.

(g) "Family unit" means at least one parent or guardian and one or more of that parent or guardian's children. For purposes of this chapter, each family unit shall include at least one adult with HIV disease or AIDS, or at least one child with HIV disease or AIDS, or both.

(h) "Fund" means the Residential Care Facilities for Persons with Chronic Life-Threatening Illness Fund created by subdivision (c) of Section 1568.05.

(i) "Placement agency" means any state agency, county agency, or private agency which receives public funds, in part, to identify housing options for persons with chronic, life-threatening illness and refers these persons to housing.

(j) "Residential care facility" means a residential care facility for persons with chronic, life-threatening illness who are 18 years of age or older or are emancipated minors, and for family units.

(k) "Six or fewer persons" does not include the licensee or members of the licensee's family or persons employed as facility staff.

SEC. 2. Section 1568.02 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1568.02. (a) The department shall license residential care facilities for persons with chronic, life-threatening illness under a separate category.

(b) The licensee of every facility required to be licensed pursuant to this chapter shall provide the following basic services for each resident:

(1) Room and board. No more than two residents shall share a bedroom, except that the director, in his or her discretion, may waive this limitation.

(2) Access to adequate common areas, including recreation areas and shared kitchen space with adequate refrigerator space for the storage of medications.

(3) Consultation with a nutritionist, including consultation on cultural dietary needs.

(4) Personal care services, as needed, including, but not limited to, activities of daily living. A facility may have a written agreement with another agency to provide personal care services, except that the facility shall be responsible for meeting the personal care needs of each resident.

(5) Access to case management for social services. A facility may have a written agreement with another agency to provide case management.

(6) Development, implementation, and monitoring of an individual services plan. All health services components of the plan shall be developed and monitored in coordination with the home health agency and shall reflect the elements of the resident's plan of treatment developed by the home health agency.

(7) Intake and discharge procedures, including referral to outplacement resources.

(8) Access to psychosocial support services.

(9) Access to community-based and county services system.

(10) Access to a social and emotional support network of the resident's own choosing, within the context of reasonable visitation rules established by the facility.

(11) Access to intermittent home health care services in accordance with paragraph (1) of subdivision (c).

(12) Access to substance abuse services in accordance with paragraph (3) of subdivision (c).

(13) Adequate securable storage space for personal items.

(c) The licensee of every facility required to be licensed pursuant to this chapter shall demonstrate, at the time of application, all of the following:

(1) Written agreement with a licensed home health agency.

(2) Written agreement with a psychosocial services agency, unless the services are provided by the facility's professional staff.

(3) Written agreement with a substance abuse agency, unless the services are provided by the facility's professional staff.

(4) Ability to provide linguistic services for residents who do not speak English.

(5) Ability to provide culturally appropriate services.

(6) Ability to reasonably accommodate residents with physical disabilities, including, but not limited to, residents with motor impairments, physical access to areas of the facility utilized by residents, and access to interpreters for hearing-impaired residents.

(7) Written nondiscrimination policy which shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the facility.

(8) Written policy on drug and alcohol use, including, but not limited to, a prohibition on the use of illegal substances.

(d) Any facility licensed pursuant to this chapter which intends to serve a specific population, such as women, family units, minority and ethnic populations, or homosexual men or women, shall demonstrate, at the time of application, the ability and resources to provide services that are appropriate to the targeted population.

(e) No facility licensed pursuant to this chapter shall house more than 25 residents, except that the director may authorize a facility to house up to 50 residents.

(f) If the administrator is responsible for more than two facilities, the facility manager shall meet the qualifications of both the administrator and the facility manager, as described in Sections 87864 and 87864.1 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations.

(g) Each licensee shall employ additional personnel as necessary to meet the needs of the residents and comply with the requirements of this chapter and the regulations adopted by the department pursuant to this chapter. On-call personnel shall be able to be on the facility premises within 30 minutes of the receipt of a telephone call.

SEC. 3. Section 1568.03 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1568.03. (a) No person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation within the state and no state or local public agency shall operate, establish, manage, conduct, or maintain a residential care facility in this state without first obtaining and maintaining a valid license therefor, as provided in this chapter.

(b) A facility may accept or retain residents requiring varying levels of care. However, a facility shall not accept or retain residents who require a higher level of care than the facility is authorized to provide. Persons who require 24-hour skilled nursing intervention shall not be appropriate for a residential care facility.

(c) This chapter shall not apply to the following:

(1) Any health facility, as defined in Section 1250.

(2) Any clinic, as defined in Section 1200.

(3) Any arrangement for the receiving and care of persons with chronic, life-threatening illness by a relative, guardian or conservator, significant other, or close friend; or any arrangement for the receiving and care of persons with chronic, life-threatening illness from only one family as respite for the relative, guardian or conservator, significant other, or close friend, if the arrangement is not for financial profit and occurs only occasionally and irregularly, as defined by regulations of the department.

(4) Any house, institution, hotel, foster home, shared housing project, or other similar facility that is limited to providing housing, meals, transportation, housekeeping, or recreational and social activities, as long as all residents thereof independently obtain care and supervision and medical services without the assistance of any person or entity with an organizational or financial connection with that facility, and if no resident thereof has an unmet need for care and supervision or protective supervision. In determining the applicability of this paragraph, the department shall determine the residents' need for care and supervision, if any, and shall identify the persons or entities providing or assisting in the provision of care and supervision.

(d) A holder of a residential care facility license may hold or obtain an additional license or a child day care facility license, as long as the services required by each license are provided at separate locations or distinctly separate sections of the building.

(e) The director may bring an action to enjoin the violation or threatened violation of this section in the superior court in and for the county in which the violation occurred or is about to occur. Any proceeding under this section shall conform to the requirements of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 525) of Title 7 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, except that the director shall not be required to allege facts necessary to show or tending to show lack of adequate remedy at law or irreparable damage or loss. The court shall, if it finds the allegations to be true, issue its order enjoining continuance of the violation.

SEC. 4. Section 1568.041 is added to the Health and Safety Code, immediately following Section 1568.04, to read:

1568.041. (a) The department shall designate at least one person in each region to be responsible for all activities pertaining to license application as well as prescribed monitoring of licensees. In those regions which have a concentration of licensees, the department shall make every effort to identify at least one person in each district office whose sole responsibility will be for facilities licensed pursuant to this chapter.

(b) The department shall ensure that those personnel identified in subdivision (a) receive periodic training regarding the most recent developments in the HIV epidemic and the care and supervision of people with HIV disease.

SEC. 5. Section 1568.06 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1568.06. (a) Upon initial application for licensure, residential care facilities shall be provided a printed copy of all applicable regulations for the operation of these facilities by the department, without charge. The department shall provide all licensees with copies of proposed changes in regulations applicable to residential care facilities prior to public hearings on those proposed changes, and copies of all adopted changes in regulations applicable to residential care facilities immediately upon their adoption.

(b) As a requirement for licensure, an applicant shall attend an orientation given by the department which outlines the applicable rules and regulations and the scope and responsibility for operation of a residential care facility. The orientation shall include information on relevant community services.

SEC. 6. Section 1568.07 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1568.07. (a) (1) Within 90 days of initial licensure, the department shall inspect the facility to evaluate compliance with rules and regulations and to assess the facility's continuing ability to meet regulatory requirements.

(2) The department may take appropriate remedial action as provided for in this chapter.

(b) (1) Every licensed residential care facility shall be periodically inspected and evaluated for quality of care by a representative or representatives designated by the director. Evaluations shall be conducted at least annually and as often as necessary to ensure the quality of care being provided.

(2) During each licensing inspection the department shall determine if the facility meets regulatory standards, including, but not limited to, providing residents with the appropriate level of care based on the facility's license, providing adequate staffing and services, updated resident records and assessments, and compliance with basic health and safety standards.

(3) If the department determines that a resident requires a higher level of care than the facility is authorized to provide, the department may initiate a professional level of care assessment by an assessor approved by the department. An assessment shall be conducted in consultation with the resident, the resident's physician and surgeon, and the resident's case manager, and shall reflect the desires of the resident, the resident's physician and surgeon, and the resident's case manager. The assessment also shall recognize that certain illnesses are episodic in nature and that the resident's need for a higher level of care may be temporary.

(4) The department shall notify the residential care facility in writing of all deficiencies in its compliance with this chapter and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter, and shall set a reasonable length of time for compliance by the facility.

(5) Reports on the results of each inspection, evaluation, or consultation shall be kept on file in the department, and all inspection reports, consultation reports, lists of deficiencies, and plans of correction shall be open to public inspection in the county in which the facility is located.

(c) Any duly authorized officer, employee, or agent of the department may, upon presentation of proper identification, enter and inspect any place providing personal care, supervision, and services, at any time, with or without advance notice, to secure compliance with, or to prevent a violation of, this chapter.

(d) No licensee shall discriminate or retaliate in any manner against any person receiving the services of the facility of the licensee, or against any employee of the facility, on the basis, or for the reason, that a person or employee or any other person has initiated or participated in an inspection pursuant to Section 1568.071.

(e) Any person who, without lawful authorization from a duly authorized officer, employee, or agent of the department, informs an owner, operator, employee, agent, or resident of a residential care facility, of an impending or proposed inspection or evaluation of that facility by personnel of the department, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed 180 days, or by both a fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 7. Chapter 3.35 (commencing with Section 1596.60) of Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 8. Section 1771 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1771. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions in this section govern the construction of this chapter.

(a) "Annual report" means audited financial statements with an accompanying certified public accountant's opinion thereof, reserve calculations, resident listing, evidence of surety bond, and certification that the contract in use for new residents has been approved by the department, all submitted to the department by each provider annually.

(b) "Applicant" means any entity that submits an application to the department for a permit to sell deposit subscriptions and certificate of authority.

(c) "Basic services" means the following services, which are required to be provided to the residents, as necessary or appropriate, in order to obtain and maintain a license as a residential care facility for the elderly:

(1) Regular observation of the resident's physical and mental condition.

(2) Safe and healthful living accommodations, including housekeeping services and utilities.

(3) Maintenance of house rules for the protection of residents.

(4) A planned activities program, which includes social and recreational activities appropriate to the interests and capabilities of the residents.

(5) Supervision of residents' schedules and activities.

(6) Three balanced, nutritious meals and snacks made available daily, including special diets prescribed by a physician and surgeon as a medical necessity.

(7) Monitoring food intake or special diets.

(8) Personal assistance and care in activities of daily living, such as dressing, grooming, bathing, and other personal hygiene.

(9) Assistance with taking medication.

(10) Central storing and distribution of medications.

(11) Arrangements to meet health needs, including arranging transportation.

(d) "Cancellation" means to destroy the force and effectiveness of an agreement or contract, by making or declaring it void or invalid.

(e) "Cancellation period" means the 90-day period, beginning when the transferor receives a signed copy of the continuing care contract, during which time the resident or transferor may rescind the contract.

(f) "Care" means nursing, medical, or other health related services, protection or supervision, or assistance with the personal activities of daily living, or any combination of those services.

(g) "Certificate" or "certificate of authority" means the written authorization from the department for a specified provider to enter into one or more continuing care contracts at a single specified facility.

(h) "Committee" means the Committee on Continuing Care Contracts of the State Department of Social Services.

(i) "Consideration" means some right, interest, profit, or benefit accruing to one party, or some forbearance, detriment, loss, or responsibility, given, suffered, or undertaken by the other.

(j) "Continuing care contract" means a written contract, which includes a promise by a provider to provide one or more elements of care to an elderly resident for the duration of his or her life or for a term in excess of one year, in exchange for the payment of an entrance fee, or payment of periodic charges, or both types of payments. A continuing care contract may consist of one or a series of agreements and may have other writings incorporated by reference. A continuing care contract includes a life care contract, as defined in subdivision (w).

(k) "Contract" means a continuing care contract.

(l) "Department" means the State Department of Social Services.

(m) "Deposit subscription" means the installment payment made by a subscriber to an applicant during development or construction of a facility.

(n) "Director" means the Director of the State Department of Social Services.

(o) "Elderly" means an individual who is 60 years of age or older.

(p) "Entity" means an organization or being that possesses separate existence for tax purposes. Entity includes person, sole proprietorship, estate, trust, association, joint venture, partnership, and corporation.

(q) "Entrance fee" means an initial or deferred transfer of consideration made or promised to be made by a person entering into a continuing care contract, for the purpose of assuring care or related services pursuant to that contract or as full or partial payment for the promise to provide a facility. The entrance fee may include previously paid deposit subscriptions, which are credited at the time of the parties signing the continuing care contracts to the total entrance fee due. The term "accommodation fee" may be synonymously used to mean an entrance fee.

(r) "Equity" means the residual value of a business or property beyond any mortgage or deed of trust thereon and liability therein.

(s) "Equity project" means a continuing care development project wherein the residents are given an equity interest in the facility property or in a membership in a residence association.

(t) "Escrow agent" means any of the following entities approved by the director as capable of ensuring the safety of the funds and properties entrusted to it and capable and willing to perform the terms of the escrow pursuant to the escrow agreement and the provisions of this chapter:

(1) A bank which is a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

(2) A savings and loan association which is a member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

(u) "Facility" means any place or accommodation in which a provider undertakes to provide a resident with care or related services pursuant to a continuing care contract, whether or not the place or accommodation is constructed, owned, leased, rented, or otherwise contracted for by the provider. For the purposes of meeting the enrollment criteria of this chapter, a distinct phase of development may be considered to be the facility when a project is being developed in successive multiple phases over a period of time.

(v) "Installment payment" means one of several successive payments made at previously agreed upon intervals toward the settlement of a debt.

(w) "Life care contract" means a continuing care contract which includes a promise by a provider to provide all levels of care, including acute care and physicians and surgeons' services, to a resident for the duration of his or her life. Care shall be provided in a facility having a comprehensive continuum of care, including a skilled nursing facility, under the ownership and supervision of the provider on, or adjacent to, the premises. In a life care contract, no change is made in the monthly fee based on level of service. A life care contract shall also include provisions to subsidize residents who become financially unable to pay their monthly care fees.

(x) "Life lease" means a landlord-tenant relationship wherein the tenant obtains only the right to possess a defined living unit for life. In a life lease there is no obligation, or intent, to provide care and services to the tenant at any time, present or future.

(y) "Limit" and "limitation" means a restriction on any activity related to a provisional or final certificate of authority, which prohibits the provider from entering into any new contract.

(z) "Living unit" means a specifically identified apartment, room, or other area within a facility.

(aa) "Market test unit" means a living unit of a facility which is not used exclusively for personal care or nursing services.

(bb) "Membership" means a body, class, or group of individuals admitted to the responsibilities and privileges of the collective whole and typically requiring payment of dues, adherence to a program, or compliance with some other requirements of the group.

(cc) "Monthly care fee" means the monthly charge to a resident for accommodations and services rendered pursuant to a continuing care contract, exclusive of entrance fees or other prepayments, including care, board, or lodging, and any other periodic charges to the resident, determined on a monthly or other recurring basis, pursuant to the provisions of a contract.

(dd) "Monthly fee contract" means a continuing care contract that provides by its terms for the monthly payment of a fee for accommodations and services rendered.

(ee) "Nonambulatory person" means a person who is unable to leave a building unassisted under emergency conditions, as required by Section 13131.

(ff) "Per capita cost" means a facility's operating expenses divided by the average number of residents. Depreciation is excluded when computing cash per capita cost for calculating reserve requirements.

(gg) "Permit to sell deposit subscriptions" means a written authorization by the department for an applicant to enter into one or more deposit subscription agreements at a single specified facility.

(hh) "Personal care" means assistance with personal activities of daily living, including dressing, feeding, toileting, bathing, grooming, mobility, and associated tasks, to help provide for and maintain physical and psychosocial comfort.

(ii) "Personal care unit" means a living unit within a physical area of a facility specifically designed to provide ongoing personal care.

(jj) "Prepaid contract" means a continuing care contract in which the monthly care fee, if any, may not be adjusted to cover the actual cost of care and services.

(kk) "Processing fee" means an advance payment by the transferor to cover administrative costs of processing the application of a subscriber or prospective resident.

(ll) "Promise to provide care" means any representation made by one or more than one entity that care will be provided or will be available, whether the representation is part of a continuing care contract, other agreement, or series of agreements, or contained in any advertisement, brochure, or other material, either written or oral.

(mm) "Proposes" means a representation that an applicant or provider plans to make a future promise to provide care, which may be subject to the happening of certain events, such as facility construction or obtaining a certificate of authority.

(nn) "Provider" means an entity which provides, promises to provide, or proposes to promise to provide, care for life or for more than one year, and has obtained a provisional or final certificate of authority. Homeowner's associations, cooperatives, or condominium associations cannot be solely responsible for fulfilling the obligations of any continuing care contract.

(oo) "Refundable contract" means a proposed or current continuing care contract form that includes promises, expressed or implied, to pay refunds of entrance fees or to repurchase the transferor's unit, membership, stock, or other interest in the project or facility, after the end of the trial residence period, in the event of voluntary termination by the transferor or resident, when the specified refund right is not fully amortized within the first six years of residency, or in the event a provider terminates a resident.

(pp) "Refund reserve" means the amount calculated and deposited in a special trust fund to ensure the availability of funds for specified refunds of entrance fees.

(qq) "Resident" means a person who enters into a continuing care contract with a provider, or who is designated in a continuing care contract to be a person being provided or to be provided services, including care, board, or lodging.

(rr) "Subscriber" means a person who has applied to be a resident in a facility under development or construction, and who has entered into a deposit subscription agreement.

(ss) "Termination" means the ending of a contract without the terms of the contract being broken by either side.

(tt) "Transfer" means conveyance of a right, title, or interest.

(uu) "Transfer fee" means a levy against the proceeds from the sale of a transferor's equity interest.

(vv) "Transfer trauma" means death, depression, or regressive behavior, caused by the abrupt and involuntary transfer of an elderly resident from one home to another, resulting in a loss of familiar physical environment, loss of well-known neighbors, attendants, nurses and medical personnel, the stress of an abrupt break in the small routines of daily life, and the major loss of visits from friends and relatives who may be unable to reach the new facility.

(ww) "Transferor" means a person who transfers or promises to transfer a sum of money or property for the purpose of assuring care or related services pursuant to a continuing care contract, whether for the benefit of the transferor or another.

SEC. 9. Section 1777 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1777. (a) The Committee on Continuing Care Contracts of the State Department of Social Services shall act in an advisory capacity to the department on matters relating to continuing care contracts.

(b) The members of the committee shall include:

(1) Three representatives of nonprofit providers of continuing care contracts pursuant to this chapter, each of whom shall have offered continuing care services for at least five years prior to appointment.

(2) Three senior citizens who are not eligible for appointment pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (4) who shall represent consumers of continuing care services, at least two of whom shall be residents of continuing care retirement communities.

(3) A certified public accountant with experience in the community care industry, who is not a provider of continuing care services.

(4) One representative of a for-profit provider of continuing care contracts pursuant to this chapter.

(5) An actuary.

(c) Committee members shall be appointed as follows:

(1) Five members shall be appointed by the Governor.

(2) Two members shall be appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules, one of whom shall be appointed pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(3) Two members shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, one of whom shall be appointed pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (b).

(4) All members shall be appointed based on their interest and expertise in the subject area. The Governor shall designate the chairperson for the committee with the advice and consent of the Senate. All members shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing power. It shall be the duty of the appointing power to fill all vacancies on the committee within 60 days.

(d) The members of the committee shall serve without compensation, except that each member shall be paid a per diem of twenty-five dollars ($25) for each day's attendance at a meeting of the committee not to exceed six days in any month. The members of the committee shall also receive their actual and necessary traveling expenses incurred in the course of their duties.

SEC. 10. Section 1777.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1777.2. (a) The Committee on Continuing Care Contracts shall:

(1) Review the financial and managerial condition of each facility operating under a certificate of authority.

(2) Review the financial condition of any facility that the committee determines is indicating signs of financial difficulty and may be in need of close supervision.

(3) Monitor the condition of facilities at times and places as the department or the chair of the committee may direct.

(4) Make available consumer information on the selection and necessary contract protections in the purchase of life care contracts.

(5) Review new applications regarding financial, actuarial, and marketing feasibility as requested by the department.

(b) The committee shall make recommendations to the department regarding needed changes in its rules and regulations and upon request provide advice regarding the feasibility of new facilities and the correction of problems relating to the management or operation of any facility. The committee shall also perform any other advisory functions necessary to improve the management and operation of continuing care facilities.

(c) The committee may report on its recommendations directly to the director.

(d) The committee may hold meetings, as deemed necessary to the performance of its duties.

SEC. 11. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1216

An act to add Chapter 12.97 (commencing with Section 7105) to Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, and to amend Sections 17276.2 and 24416.2 of, and to add and repeal Sections 17053.45, 17053.46, 17268, 23645, 23646, and 24356.8 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to local agencies, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 12.97 (commencing with Section 7105) is added to Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 12.97. LOCAL AGENCY MILITARY BASE RECOVERY AREA ACT

7105. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Local Agency Military Base Recovery Area Act.

7106. The Legislature finds and declares that the health, safety, and welfare of the people of California depend upon the development, stability, and expansion of private business, industry, and commerce, and that there are certain areas within the state that have been and will be severely economically impacted because of the closure of military bases by the Department of Defense.

The Legislature further finds and declares that while it is necessary for the Department of Defense to close military bases in California because of the cuts in Department of Defense funding, military bases have historically been crucial to the State of California and its local economies and that their closure creates an economic emergency for many communities.

The Legislature further finds and declares that more than 147,700 California military and civilian personnel have lost their jobs as a result of the military base closures and another 180,000 are at stake in the next round of base closures, and that because of military base closures statewide more than thirteen billion dollars ($13,000,000,000) of revenues have been lost by the state and localities since 1988.

The Legislature further finds and declares that many communities want and need to attract new business and private investment to compensate for the loss of revenue that occurs when a military base closes or downsizes, but that many communities have insufficient means to do so.

The Legislature further finds and declares that many military bases have significant soil contamination and hazardous waste cleanup problems that must be addressed in any reuse plan. In order to encourage the safe and beneficial use of this land, it is important that these problems be addressed in a safe and cost-effective manner. Therefore, it is intended that this law shall encourage the development of adequate treatment capacity for hazardous waste generated at military bases. In addition, special consideration shall be given to reuse plans incorporating the development of commercial offsite facilities, as part of the reuse plan to address California's treatment capacity shortfall.

Therefore, it is the purpose of this act to stimulate business and industrial growth in those areas that are experiencing military base closures by relaxing regulatory controls and thereby encouraging private investment, cooperation, and innovation between local government and private business and industry.

The Legislature further finds and declares that nothing in this chapter shall be construed to infringe upon regulations relating to civil rights, equal employment rights, equal opportunity rights, or fair housing rights of any person.

The Legislature further finds and declares that no local agency military base recovery area shall be designated in which any boundary thereof is drawn in a manner as to include any area outside former base property or outside base property of a base that is scheduled to be closed.

7107. For purposes of this chapter:

(a) "Agency" means the Trade and Commerce Agency.

(b) "Base" means a federal military installation or subinstallation as defined by regulations of the Departments of the Army, Navy, and Air Force, and other defense activities.

(c) "Critically needed hazardous waste facilities" means a facility that will provide necessary offsite treatment capacity for which there is a substantial shortfall or lack of capacity. This shortfall shall be as identified in any of the following documents:

(1) The State Hazardous Waste Management Plan.

(2) The State's Capacity Assurance Plan required by federal law.

(3) Other reports of the Department of Toxic Substances Control.

(d) "Downsizing" means a significant reduction in federal funding, personnel, and equipment on a base.

(e) "Economic development plan" includes, but is not limited to, a marketing plan, a job development plan, and an analysis of infrastructure.

(f) "Eligible area" means a geographic area meeting the criteria described in Section 7111.

(g) "Governing body" means a city, county, city and county, joint powers agency, council, or board, as appropriate.

(h) "Local agency military base recovery area" means any military base or former military base or portion thereof which is designated in accordance with the provisions of Section 7114.

(i) "Region One" includes the following counties: Del Norte, Siskiyou, Modoc, Humboldt, Trinity, Shasta, Lassen, Mendocino, Tehama, Glenn, Butte, Plumas, Marin, Napa, Sonoma, Lake, Colusa, Sutter, Yuba, Nevada, Sierra, Placer, Yolo, Solano, Sacramento, El Dorado, and Amador.

(j) "Region Two" includes the following counties: Contra Costa, San Francisco, Santa Cruz, Santa Clara, Alameda, and San Mateo.

(k) "Region Three" includes the following counties: Monterey, San Benito, San Joaquin, Merced, Fresno, Stanislaus, Kings, Madera, Mariposa, Tuolumne, Calaveras, Alpine, Mono, Inyo, and Tulare.

(l) "Region Four" includes the following counties: San Diego, San Bernardino, Riverside, and Imperial.

(m) "Region Five" includes the following counties: Los Angeles, Orange, Ventura, Santa Barbara, San Luis Obispo, and Kern.

(n) "Reuse plan" includes, but is not limited to, an evaluation of community goals for the future as they relate to potential use of the former military facilities and land areas, market studies or surveys to evaluate the regional economic setting, trends, and pressures affecting base reuse, surveys or inventories of on-base facilities to determine their condition, quality and reuse potential and liability, development of reuse alternatives responding to market conditions, community goals, and reuse of potential of existing assets, review of alternative strategies with the community at large and consensus building of a preferred development strategy.

7110. (a) The governing body may, either by ordinance or resolution, propose an eligible area within its respective jurisdiction as the geographic area for a local agency military base recovery area. A county may propose an area within the unincorporated area as the geographic area for a local agency military base recovery area, but shall not propose an area within an incorporated area. A city may propose an area within the incorporated area as the geographic area for a local agency military base recovery area, but shall not propose an area within an unincorporated area. A city and county may propose an area within the city and county for designation as a local agency military base recovery area. This proposed geographic area shall be based upon findings by the governing body that the area meets the criteria in Section 7111 and that the designation as a local agency military base recovery area is necessary in order to assist in attracting private sector investment in the area. The governing body shall establish definitive boundaries, not to exceed former base property, for the area to be included in the application for designation and, if designated by the agency, the designation shall be binding for a period of eight years.

(b) Following the application for designation of a local agency military base recovery area, the governing body shall apply to the agency for designation. The agency shall adopt regulations and guidelines concerning the necessary contents of each application for designation.

(c) Any governing body with an eligible area within its jurisdiction may complete a preliminary application.

(d) In designating a local agency military base recovery area, the agency shall select from the applications submitted those proposed local agency military base recovery areas which, based on a comparison of those applications, propose the most effective, innovative, and comprehensive regulatory, tax, program, and other incentives to attract private sector investment in the proposed local agency military base recovery area. For purposes of this paragraph:

(1) "Regulatory incentives" include, but are not limited to, the elimination or reduction of fees for applications, permits, and local government facilities and services; and the establishment of a streamlined permit process.

(2) "Tax incentives" include, but are not limited to, the elimination or reduction of business license taxes and utility user taxes.

(3) "Program" and "other incentives" may include, but are not limited to the provision or expansion of infrastructure; the targeting of federal block grant moneys, including small cities, education, and health and welfare block grants; the targeting of economic development grants and loan moneys, including grant and loan moneys provided by the federal Urban Development Action Grant program and the federal Economic Development Administration; the targeting of state and federal job disadvantaged and vocational education grant moneys, including moneys provided by the federal Job Partnership Training Act of 1982; the targeting of federal or state transportation grant moneys; and the targeting of federal or state low-income housing and rental assistance moneys.

(e) The agency shall also consider the following:

(1) The unemployment rate for the area under the jurisdiction of the local governing body.

(2) The number of civilian and military jobs lost as a result of the base closure when compared to the number of jobs available in the area.

(3) Whether the local agency has a comprehensive economic development plan that is consistent with the reuse plan.

(4) Whether the local agency has a prepared plan for appropriate hazardous waste management facilities as an integral part of the base and shall give extra consideration for any plan which includes provisions for critically needed hazardous waste facilities.

(5) The governing body has resolved, as part of the reuse plan approval, to prepare a program environmental impact report that is in compliance with the California Environmental Quality Control Act and associated guidelines.

(f) In evaluating applications for designation, the agency shall ensure that applications are not disqualified solely because of technical deficiencies and shall provide applicants with an opportunity to correct the deficiencies. Applications shall be disqualified if the deficiencies are not corrected within two weeks. The agency shall provide technical assistance to applicants that request it.

7111. (a) An eligible area is a military base or former military base which, based upon the determination of the agency, fulfills the following:

(1) The base is scheduled for closure or downsizing by a base closure act.

(2) The governing body has approved a reuse plan for the base.

(b) A base is ineligible if any portion of the base is included in an enterprise zone established pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) or an area established pursuant to Chapter 12.9 (commencing with Section 7080).

7112. All property which is owned by or leased to the state or governing body within the boundaries of the closed military base or the military base that is proposed to be closed which is not in current use by that government and which is not necessary for a public purpose of the state or governing body owning the property may be leased or subleased to a qualified business at a price below fair market value, provided that it serves a public purpose to lease at below fair market value. The lease may be renewed upon expiration if the governing body has continuously complied with these requirements.

7113. (a) Upon filing a preliminary application, the applicant, as lead agency, shall submit an initial study and a notice of preparation to the department, the state clearinghouse, all responsible agencies, and any public agency that has jurisdiction by law with respect to the project.

(b) A governing body selected by the agency as a final applicant shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, an environmental impact report pursuant to Division 13 (commencing with Section 21000) of the Public Resources Code for any and all projects planned within the local agency military base recovery area. Whenever a project requires compliance with both the California Environmental Quality Act and the National Environmental Policy Act, the lead agency shall, to the greatest extent feasible, prepare a joint environmental impact report and environmental impact statement. The draft environmental impact report shall be submitted to the agency with the final application.

(c) Prior to final designation by the agency, the applicant shall complete and certify the final environmental impact report and act on the project.

7113.5. When selecting successful applicants for a local agency military base recovery area, the agency shall limit the number of local agency military base recovery areas to five, which shall be awarded by the following criteria, in addition to the criteria set forth in Section 7111.

(a) The agency shall designate no more than one local agency military base recovery area in a region.

(b) If the agency finds that none of the applications in a competition are satisfactory in meeting the selection criteria, the agency shall inform all applicants on the deficiencies in their application and shall reopen competition for a period not to exceed six months. Local governing bodies who originally applied, may reapply in the new competition.

(c) If, after following the procedures specified in (c), the agency determines that there are no applications that are satisfactory, the agency may not designate a local agency military base recovery area.

(d) Eligible bases shall compete for approval of a local agency military base recovery area against other eligible bases in the same region.

7114. (a) The agency shall design, develop, and make available the applications and the criteria for selection of a local agency military base recovery area, and shall adopt all regulations necessary to carry out this chapter.

(b) The applications, selection criteria, and all necessary regulations for designation shall be adopted by the agency and made available not later than 120 days following the effective date of this chapter.

(c) The agency shall commence the designation of areas on the effective date of the regulations described in subdivision (a) and shall complete those designations as expeditiously as practicable, but not later than one year from the effective date of those regulations except pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 7113.5.

(d) The agency shall adopt regulations concerning the designation procedures and application process as emergency regulations in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2. For the purpose of the Administrative Procedure Act, the adoption of the regulations shall be deemed to be an emergency and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, or general welfare, notwithstanding subdivision (f) of Section 11346.1. Notwithstanding subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1, the regulations shall not remain in effect more than 180 days unless the agency complies with all provisions of Chapter 3.5 as required by subdivision (e) of Section 11346.1.

7114.5. (a) The agency shall provide, as a high priority, to a designated local agency military base recovery area:

(1) Technical assistance for state and federal grant applications as requested by the governing body.

(2) Technical assistance for small business loans through the State of California and the federal government as requested by the governing body.

(b) The California Environmental Protection Agency shall provide, as a high priority, to a designated local agency military base recovery area technical permit assistance for those permits that fall under the jurisdiction of the agency as requested by the governing body.

(c) The Office of Permit Assistance shall provide, as a high priority, to a designated local agency military base recovery area technical assistance on permits as requested by the governing body.

7115. The agency shall submit a report to the Legislature on or before July 1, 1996, and every year thereafter, which:

(a) Evaluates the effect of the program on employment, investment, and incomes, and on state and local tax revenues in designated local agency military base recovery areas.

(b) Indicates whether the number of existing local agency military base recovery areas should be expanded, by how many, and under what applicable time schedules.

(c) Information from the Franchise Tax Board on the dollar value of local agency military base recovery area tax credits that are claimed each year by businesses.

7116. (a) A local agency military base recovery area governing body shall provide information at the request of the agency as necessary for the agency to prepare the report required pursuant to Section 7115.

(b) A local agency military base recovery area governing body shall provide information at the request of the agency as necessary for the agency to determine whether the governing body is complying with the terms of the approved application.

(c) If the agency determines that a local agency military base recovery area governing body is not complying with the terms of the approved application for designation, the agency shall provide written notice of the program deficiencies and the governing body shall be given six months to correct the deficiencies.

(d) The agency shall revoke the designation of a local agency military base recovery area if the agency determines that the governing body granted the designation has not complied with the terms of the approved application for designation within six months after written notice pursuant to subdivision (c), and shall not be considered a local agency military base recovery area until the deficiencies are corrected.

(e) Any companies located in the local agency military base recovery area shall not be penalized during any period of revocation and may continue to operate with incentives provided pursuant to this chapter.

7117. A business located within a local agency military base recovery area shall be eligible for the tax benefits set forth within Sections 17053.45, 17053.46, 17268, 17276.2, 23645, 23646, 24356.8, and 24416.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code only if it provides a net increase in jobs in the local agency military base recovery area within the first two years from the business' initial date of operation. If the business fails to meet its obligations under the local agency military base recovery area plan or the requirements of this act, any tax benefits received under those sections shall be recaptured, as provided in each of those sections.

SEC. 2. Section 17053.45 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17053.45. (a) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1995, and before January 1, 2003, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined by Section 17039) an amount equal to the sales or use tax paid or incurred by the taxpayer in connection with the purchase of qualified property to the extent that the qualified property does not exceed a value of one million dollars ($1,000,000).

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "LAMBRA" means a local agency military base recovery area designated in accordance with Section 7114 of the Government Code.

(2) "Taxpayer" means a taxpayer or partnership that conducts a trade or business within a LAMBRA and, for the first two taxable years, has a net increase in jobs (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) of one or more employees in the LAMBRA.

(A) The net increase in the number of jobs shall be determined by subtracting the total number of full-time employees (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) the taxpayer employed in this state in the taxable year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA from the total number of full-time employees the taxpayer employed in this state during the second taxable year after commencing business operations in the LAMBRA. For taxpayers who commence doing business in this state with their LAMBRA business operation, the number of employees for the taxable year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA shall be zero. If the taxpayer has a net increase in jobs in the state, the credit shall be allowed only if one or more full-time employees is employed within the LAMBRA.

(B) The total number of employees employed in the LAMBRA shall equal the sum of both of the following:

(i) The total number of hours worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees (not to exceed 2,000 hours per employee) who are paid an hourly wage divided by 2,000.

(ii) The total number of months worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees who are salaried employees divided by 12.

(C) In the case of a taxpayer who first commences doing business in the LAMBRA during the taxable year, for purposes of clauses (i) and (ii), respectively, of subparagraph (B) the divisors "2,000" and "12" shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months of the taxable year that the taxpayer was doing business in the LAMBRA and the denominator of which is 12.

(3) "Qualified property" means the purchase of any of the following for exclusive use in a LAMBRA:

(A) High technology equipment, including, but not limited to, computers and electronic processing equipment.

(B) Aircraft maintenance equipment, including, but not limited to, engine stands, hydraulic mules, power carts, test equipment, handtools, aircraft start carts, and tugs.

(C) Aircraft components, including, but not limited to, engines, fuel control units, hydraulic pumps, avionics, starts, wheels, and tires.

(D) Any property that is Section 1245 property, as defined in Section 1245(a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) The credit provided under subdivision (a) shall be allowed only for qualified property manufactured in California unless qualified property of a comparable quality and price is not available for timely purchase and delivery from a California manufacturer.

(d) In the case where the credit allowed under subdivision (a) exceeds the limitation set forth in subdivision (f), that portion of the credit which exceeds the limitation may be carried over and added to the credit computed under subdivision (a) in succeeding years, until the credit is exhausted.

(e) Any taxpayer who elects to be subject to this section shall not be entitled to increase the basis of the property as otherwise required by Section 164(a) of the Internal Revenue Code with respect to sales or use tax paid or incurred in connection with the purchase of qualified property.

(f) The amount of the credit provided by this section, including credit carryover from prior years, in any taxable year shall not exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the income attributed to business activities of the taxpayer within a LAMBRA as if that attributable income represented all the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part. In the event that a credit carryover is allowable under subdivision (d) for any taxable year after the LAMBRA designation has expired, the LAMBRA shall be deemed to remain in existence for purposes of computing this limitation. The amount of that income shall be determined in accordance of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(1) Income shall be apportioned to a LAMBRA by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor, plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is 2.

(2) "The LAMBRA" shall be substituted for "this state."

(g) (1) If the qualified property is disposed of or no longer used by the taxpayer in the local agency military base recovery area, at any time before the close of the second taxable year after the property is placed in service, the amount of the credit previously claimed, with respect to that property, shall be added to the taxpayer's tax liability in the taxable year of that disposition or nonuse.

(2) At the close of the second taxable year, if the taxpayer has not increased the number of its employees as determined by paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), then the amount of the credit previously claimed shall be added to the taxpayer's net tax for the taxpayer's second taxable year.

(h) In the case where "qualified property" qualifies for a credit under more than one section in this part, the taxpayer shall make an election as to which section applies to that qualified property.

(i) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 2003, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward as provided in subdivision (d), until the credit is exhausted.

SEC. 3. Section 17053.46 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17053.46. (a) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1995, and before January 1, 2003, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039) to a qualified taxpayer for hiring a qualified disadvantaged individual or a qualified displaced employee during the taxable year for employment in the LAMBRA. The credit shall be equal to the sum of each of the following:

(1) Fifty percent of the qualified wages in the first year of employment.

(2) Forty percent of the qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent of the qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent of the qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(5) Ten percent of the qualified wages in the fifth year of employment.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified wages" means the wages paid or incurred by the employer during the taxable year to qualified disadvantaged individuals or qualified displaced employees. "Qualified wages" means that portion of hourly wages which does not exceed 150 percent of the minimum wage. Qualified wages paid or incurred by the qualified taxpayer during qualified years one through five used to calculate this credit shall not exceed two million dollars ($2,000,000).

(2) "Qualified years one through five wages" means, with respect to any individual, qualified wages received during the 60-month period beginning with the day the individual commences employment within a LAMBRA.

(3) "Minimum wage" means the wage established by the Industrial Welfare Commission as provided for in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1171) of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

(4) "LAMBRA" means a local agency military base recovery area designated in accordance with the provisions of Section 7114 of the Government Code.

(5) "Qualified disadvantaged individual" means an individual who satisfies all of the following requirements:

(A) (i) At least 90 percent of whose services for the taxpayer during the taxable year are directly related to the conduct of the taxpayer's trade or business located in a LAMBRA.

(ii) Who performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the taxpayer during the taxable year in the LAMBRA.

(B) Who is hired by the employer after the designation of the area as a LAMBRA in which the individual's services were primarily performed.

(C) Any of the following:

(i) An individual who has been determined eligible for services under the federal Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 1501 et seq.).

(ii) Any voluntary or mandatory registrant under the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 provided for pursuant to Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(iii) Any individual who has been certified eligible by the Employment Development Department under the federal Targeted Jobs Tax Credit Program whether or not this program is in effect.

(6) "Qualified taxpayer" means a taxpayer or partnership that conducts a trade or business within a LAMBRA and, for the first two taxable years, has a net increase in jobs (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) of one or more employees in the LAMBRA.

(A) The net increase in the number of jobs shall be determined by subtracting the total number of full-time employees (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) the taxpayer employed in this state in the taxable year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA from the total number of full-time employees the taxpayer employed in this state during the second taxable year after commencing business operations in the LAMBRA. For taxpayers who commence doing business in this state with their LAMBRA business operation, the number of employees for the taxable year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA shall be zero. If the taxpayer has a net increase in jobs in the state, the credit shall be allowed only if one or more full-time employees is employed within the LAMBRA.

(B) The total number of employees employed in the LAMBRA shall equal the sum of both of the following:

(i) The total number of hours worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees (not to exceed 2,000 hours per employee) who are paid an hourly wage divided by 2,000.

(ii) The total number of months worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees who are salaried employees divided by 12.

(C) In the case of a taxpayer who first commences doing business in the LAMBRA during the taxable year, for purposes of clauses (i) and (ii), respectively, of subparagraph (B) the divisors "2,000" and "12" shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months of the taxable year that the taxpayer was doing business in the LAMBRA and the denominator of which is 12.

(7) "Qualified displaced employee" means an individual who satisfies all of the following requirements:

(A) Any civilian or military employee of a base or former base that has been displaced as a result of a federal base closure act.

(B) (i) At least 90 percent of whose services for the taxpayer during the taxable year are directly related to the conduct of the taxpayer's trade or business located in a LAMBRA.

(ii) Who performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the taxpayer during the taxable year in a LAMBRA.

(C) Who is hired by the employer after the designation of the area in which services were performed as a LAMBRA.

(c) (1) For purposes of this section, both of the following apply:

(A) All employees of trades or businesses that are under common control shall be treated as employed by a single employer.

(B) The credit (if any) allowable by this section with respect to each trade or business shall be determined by reference to its proportionate share of the qualified wages giving rise to the credit.

The regulations prescribed under this paragraph shall be based on principles similar to the principles that apply in the case of controlled groups of corporations as specified in subdivision (e) of Section 23622.

(2) If an employer acquires the major portion of a trade or business of another employer (hereinafter in this paragraph referred to as the "predecessor") or the major portion of a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor, then, for purposes of applying this section (other than subdivision (f)) for any calendar year ending after that acquisition, the employment relationship between an employee and an employer shall not be treated as terminated if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business.

(d) (1) If the employment of any employee, with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (a) is terminated by the taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment (whether or not consecutive) or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that employee completes 90 days of employment with the taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the taxable year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount (determined under those regulations) equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that taxable year and all prior taxable years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that employee.

(2) (A) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any of the following:

(i) A termination of employment of an employee who voluntarily leaves the employment of the taxpayer.

(ii) A termination of employment of an individual who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that individual.

(iii) A termination of employment of an individual, if it is determined under the applicable employment compensation laws that the termination was due to the misconduct of that individual.

(iv) A termination of employment of an individual due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the taxpayer.

(v) A termination of employment of an individual, if that individual is replaced by other qualified employees so as to create a net increase in both the number of employees and the hours of employment.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the taxpayer and an employee shall not be treated as terminated by reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the taxpayer, if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business and the taxpayer retains a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(4) At the close of the second taxable year, if the taxpayer has not increased the number of its employees as determined by paragraph (6) of subdivision (b), then the amount of the credit previously claimed shall be added to the taxpayer's net tax for the taxpayer's second taxable year.

(e) In the case of an estate or trust, both of the following apply:

(1) The qualified wages for any taxable year shall be apportioned between the estate or trust and the beneficiaries on the basis of the income of the estate or trust allocable to each.

(2) Any beneficiary to whom any qualified wages have been apportioned under paragraph (1) shall be treated (for purposes of this part) as the employer with respect to those wages.

(f) The credit shall be reduced by the credit allowed under Section 17053.7. The credit shall also be reduced by the federal credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for the wages or salaries paid or incurred by the taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit.

(g) In the case where the credit allowed under subdivision (a) exceeds the limitation set forth in subdivision (h), that portion of the credit that exceeds the limitation may be carried over and added to the credit computed under subdivision (a) in succeeding years, until the credit is exhausted.

(h) The amount of the credit including prior year carryovers allowed by this section in any taxable year shall not exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the income attributed to business activities of the taxpayer within a LAMBRA as if that attributed net income represented all of the net income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part. In the event that a credit carryover is allowable under subdivision (g) for any taxable year after the LAMBRA designation has expired, the LAMBRA shall be deemed to remain in existence for purposes of computing this limitation. The amount of that attributed income shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(1) Income shall be apportioned to a LAMBRA by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(2) "The LAMBRA" shall be substituted for "this state."

(i) (1) In the case where "qualified wages" qualify for a credit under more than one section in this part, the taxpayer shall make an election as to which section applies to those qualified wages.

(2) Any election made under this section, and any specification contained in that election, may not be revoked except with the consent of the Franchise Tax Board.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 2003, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward as provided is subdivision (g), until the credit is exhausted.

SEC. 4. Section 17268 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17268. (a) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1995, and before January 1, 2003, a taxpayer may elect to treat the cost of any Section 17268 property as an expense that is not chargeable to the capital account. Any cost so treated shall be allowed as a deduction for the taxable year in which Section 17268 property is placed in service.

(b) In the case of a husband or wife filing separate returns for a taxable year in which a spouse is entitled to the deduction under subdivision (a), the applicable amount shall be equal to 50 percent of the amount otherwise determined under subdivision (a).

(c) (1) An election under this section for any taxable year shall meet both of the following requirements:

(A) Specify the items of Section 17268 property to which the election applies and the portion of the cost of each of those items that is to be taken into account under subdivision (a).

(B) Be made on the taxpayer's return of the tax imposed by this part for the taxable year.

(2) Any election made under this section, and any specification contained in that election, may not be revoked except with the consent of the Franchise Tax Board.

(d) (1) For purposes of this section, "Section 17268 property" means any recovery property that is Section 1245 property (as defined in Section 1245(a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code) and that the taxpayer acquires by purchase for exclusive use in a trade or business conducted within a LAMBRA.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), "purchase" means any acquisition of property, but only if both of the following apply:

(A) The property is not acquired from a person whose relationship to the person acquiring it would result in the disallowance of losses under Section 267 or 707(b) of the Internal Revenue Code (but, in applying Section 267 (b) and Section 267 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code for purposes of this section, Section 267(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be treated as providing that the family of an individual shall include only his or her spouse, ancestors, and lineal descendants).

(B) The basis of the property in the hands of the person acquiring it is not determined by either of the following:

(i) In whole or in part by reference to the adjusted basis of such property in the hands of the person from whom acquired.

(ii) Under Section 1014 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to basis of property acquired from a decedent.

(3) For purposes of this section, the cost of property does not include that portion of the basis of the property that is determined by reference to the basis of other property held at any time by the person acquiring the property.

(4) This section shall not apply to estates and trusts.

(5) This section shall not apply to any property for which the taxpayer may not make an election for the taxable year under Section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code because of the provisions of Section 179(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(6) In the case of a partnership, the dollar limitation in subdivision (f) shall apply at the partnership level and at the partner level.

(7) This section shall not apply to any property described in Section 168(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to property to which Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code does not apply.

(e) For purposes of this section:

(1) "LAMBRA" means a local agency military base recovery area designated in accordance with the provisions of Section 7114 of the Government Code.

(2) "Taxpayer" means a taxpayer or partnership that conducts a trade or business within a LAMBRA and, for the first two taxable years, has a net increase in jobs (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) of one or more employees in the LAMBRA.

(A) The net increase in the number of jobs shall be determined by subtracting the total number of full-time employees (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) the taxpayer employed in this state in the taxable year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA from the total number of full-time employees the taxpayer employed in this state during the second taxable year after commencing business operations in the LAMBRA. For taxpayers who commence doing business in this state with their LAMBRA business operation, the number of employees for the taxable year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA shall be zero. If the taxpayer has a net increase in jobs in the state, the credit shall be allowed only if one or more full-time employees is employed within the LAMBRA.

(B) The total number of employees employed in the LAMBRA shall equal the sum of both of the following:

(i) The total number of hours worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees (not to exceed 2,000 hours per employee) who are paid an hourly wage divided by 2,000.

(ii) The total number of months worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees who are salaried employees divided by 12.

(C) In the case of a taxpayer who first commences doing business in the LAMBRA during the taxable year, for purposes of clauses (i) and (ii), respectively, of subparagraph (B) the divisors "2,000" and "12" shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months of the taxable year that the taxpayer was doing business in the LAMBRA and the denominator of which is 12.

(f) The deduction allowable under subdivision (a) for any taxable year shall not exceed the following applicable amount for the taxable year of the designation of a LAMBRA and each taxable year thereafter:

The applicable amount is:
Taxable year of designation	$ 5,000
1st taxable year thereafter	5,000
2nd taxable year thereafter	7,500
3rd taxable year thereafter	7,500
Each taxable year thereafter	10,000

(g) This section shall apply only to property that is used exclusively in a trade or business conducted within a LAMBRA.

(h) (1) Any amounts deducted under subdivision (a) with respect to property that ceases to be used in the trade or business within a LAMBRA at any time before the close of the second taxable year after the property was placed in service shall be included in income for that year.

(2) At the close of the second taxable year, if the taxpayer has not increased the number of its employees as determined by paragraph (2) of subdivision (e), then the amount of the deduction previously claimed shall be added to the taxpayer's taxable income for the taxpayer's second taxable year.

(i) Any taxpayer who elects to be subject to this section shall not be entitled to claim for the same property the deduction under Section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to an election to expense certain depreciable business assets.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 2003, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 17276.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17276.2. The term "qualified taxpayer" as used in Section 17276.1 means any of the following:

(a) A taxpayer engaged in the conduct of a qualified business within a program area (as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code).

(1) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback to any taxable year and a net operating loss for any taxable year beginning on or after the date that the taxpayer becomes a qualified business shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the 15 taxable years following the taxable year of loss.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "Net operating loss" means the loss determined under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 17276.1, attributable to the business activities of the taxpayer within the program area (as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code). That attributed loss shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(i) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and ending on or before December 31, 1996, loss shall be apportioned to the program area by multiplying total loss from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is 2.

(ii) "The program area" shall be substituted for "this state."

(B) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to income attributed to the business activities of the taxpayer within the program area (as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code) determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(i) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and ending on or before December 31, 1996, income shall be apportioned to the program area by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is 2.

(ii) "The program area" shall be substituted for "this state."

(b) A taxpayer who is engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within an enterprise zone designated pursuant to Section 7073 of the Government Code on or after that designation.

(1) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback to any taxable year and a net operating loss for any taxable year beginning on or after the date that the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated an enterprise zone shall be a net operating loss carryover to each following taxable year that ends before the expiration or revocation of the designation of the enterprise zone under Section 7073 of the Government Code or to each of 15 taxable years following the taxable year of loss, if longer.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "Net operating loss" means the loss determined under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 17276.1, attributable to the business activities of the taxpayer within the enterprise zone (as defined in Section 7073 of the Government Code). The attributed loss shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(i) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and ending on or before December 31, 1996, loss shall be apportioned to the enterprise zone by multiplying total loss from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is 2.

(ii) "The enterprise zone" shall be substituted for "this state."

(B) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to income attributed to the business activities of the taxpayer within the enterprise zone (as defined in Section 7073 of the Government Code) determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(i) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and ending on or before December 31, 1996, income shall be apportioned to the enterprise zone by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is 2.

(ii) "The enterprise zone" shall be substituted for "this state."

(c) A taxpayer engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designated pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code.

(1) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback for any taxable year, and a net operating loss for any taxable year beginning on or after the date the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone shall be a net operating loss carryover to each following taxable year that ends before the expiration or revocation of the designation of the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone under Section 7102 of the Government Code or to each of the 15 taxable years following the taxable year of loss, if longer.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "Net operating loss" means the loss determined under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 17276.1, attributable to the business activities of the taxpayer within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone (as defined in Section 7102 of the Government Code). The attributable loss shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11, modified as follows:

(i) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, and ending before January 1, 1998, loss shall be apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by multiplying total loss from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is 2.

(ii) "The Los Angeles Revitalization Zone" shall be substituted for "this state."

(B) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to income attributed to the business activities of the taxpayer within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone (as defined in Section 7102 of the Government Code) determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11, modified as follows:

(i) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, and before January 1, 1998, income shall be apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is 2.

(ii) "The Los Angeles Revitalization Zone" shall be substituted for "this state."

(3) This subdivision shall cease to be operative on January 1, 1998. However, any unused net operating loss may continue to be carried over to following years as provided in this subdivision until the net operating loss has been used.

(d) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1995, and before January 1, 2003, a taxpayer engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within a LAMBRA.

(1) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback for any taxable year, and a net operating loss for any taxable year beginning on or after the date the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated a LAMBRA shall be a net operating loss carryover to each following taxable year that ends before the expiration or revocation of the designation of a LAMBRA under Section 7116 of the Government Code or to each of the 15 taxable years following the taxable year of loss, if longer.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "LAMBRA" means a local agency military base recovery area designated in accordance with Section 7114 of the Government Code.

(B) "Taxpayer" means a taxpayer or partnership that conducts a trade or business within a LAMBRA and, for the first two taxable years, has a net increase in jobs (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) of one or more employees in the LAMBRA.

(i) The net increase in the number of jobs shall be determined by subtracting the total number of full-time employees (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) the taxpayer employed in this state in the taxable year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA from the total number of full-time employees the taxpayer employed in this state during the second taxable year after commencing business operations in the LAMBRA. For taxpayers who commence doing business in this state with their LAMBRA business operation, the number of employees for the taxable year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA shall be zero. If the taxpayer has a net increase in jobs in the state, the credit shall be allowed only if one or more full-time employees is employed within the LAMBRA.

(ii) The total number of employees employed in the LAMBRA shall equal the sum of both of the following:

(I) The total number of hours worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees (not to exceed 2,000 hours per employee) who are paid an hourly wage divided by 2,000.

(II) The total number of months worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees who are salaried employees divided by 12.

(iii) In the case of a taxpayer who first commences doing business in the LAMBRA during the taxable year, for purposes of subclauses (I) and (II), respectively, of clause (ii) the divisors "2,000" and "12" shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months of the taxable year that the taxpayer was doing business in the LAMBRA and the denominator of which is 12.

(C) "Net operating loss" means the loss determined under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 17276.1, attributable to the business activities of the taxpayer within a LAMBRA. The attributable loss shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11, modified as follows:

(i) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1995, loss shall be apportioned to a LAMBRA by multiplying total loss from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is 2.

(ii) "The LAMBRA" shall be substituted for "this state."

(D) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to income attributed to the business activities of the taxpayer within a LAMBRA determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11, modified as follows:

(i) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1995, and before January 1, 2003, income shall be apportioned to a LAMBRA by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is 2.

(ii) "The LAMBRA" shall be substituted for "this state."

(iii) If a loss carryover is allowable pursuant to this section for any taxable year after the LAMBRA designation has expired, the LAMBRA shall be deemed to remain in existence for purposes of computing this limitation.

(e) A taxpayer who qualifies as a "qualified taxpayer" shall, for the taxable year of the net operating loss and any taxable year to which that net operating loss may be carried, designate on the return filed for each year the subdivision of this section which applies to that taxpayer with respect to that net operating loss. If the taxpayer is eligible to qualify under more than one subdivision of this section, the designation is to be made after taking into account subdivision (f).

(f) If a taxpayer is eligible to qualify under more than one subdivision of this section as a "qualified taxpayer," with respect to a net operating loss in a taxable year, the taxpayer shall designate which subdivision of this section is to apply to the taxpayer.

(g) Notwithstanding Section 17276, the amount of the loss determined under this section shall be the only net operating loss allowed to be carried over from that taxable year and the designation under subdivision (e) shall be included in the election under Section 17276.1.

SEC. 6. Section 23645 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

23645. (a) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1995, and before January 1, 2003, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 23036) for the income year an amount equal to the sales or use tax paid or incurred by the taxpayer in connection with the purchase of qualified property to the extent that the qualified property does not exceed a value of twenty million dollars ($20,000,000).

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "LAMBRA" means a local agency military base recovery area designated in accordance with Section 7114 of the Government Code.

(2) "Taxpayer" means a bank or corporation that conducts a trade or business within a LAMBRA and, for the first two income years, has a net increase in jobs (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) of one or more employees in the LAMBRA.

(A) The net increase in the number of jobs shall be determined by subtracting the total number of full-time employees (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) the taxpayer employed in this state in the income year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA from the total number of full-time employees the taxpayer employed in this state during the second income year after commencing business operations in the LAMBRA. For taxpayers who commence doing business in this state with their LAMBRA business operation, the number of employees for the income year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA shall be zero. If the taxpayer has a net increase in jobs in the state, the credit shall be allowed only if one or more full-time employees is employed within the LAMBRA.

(B) The total number of employees employed in the LAMBRA shall equal the sum of both of the following:

(i) The total number of hours worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees (not to exceed 2,000 hours per employee) who are paid an hourly wage divided by 2,000.

(ii) The total number of months worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees that are salaried employees divided by 12.

(C) In the case of a taxpayer who first commences doing business in the LAMBRA during the income year, for purposes of clauses (i) and (ii), respectively, of subparagraph (B) the divisors "2,000" and "12" shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months of the income year that the taxpayer was doing business in the LAMBRA and the denominator of which is 12.

(3) "Qualified property" means the purchase of any of the following for exclusive use in a LAMBRA.

(A) High technology equipment, including, but not limited to, computers and electronic processing equipment.

(B) Aircraft maintenance equipment, including, but not limited to, engine stands, hydraulic mules, power carts, test equipment, handtools, aircraft start carts, and tugs.

(C) Aircraft components, including, but not limited to, engines, fuel control units, hydraulic pumps, avionics, starts, wheels, and tires.

(D) Any property that is Section 1245 property, as defined in Section 1245(a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) The credit provided under subdivision (a) shall only be allowed for qualified property manufactured in California unless qualified property of a comparable quality and price is not available for timely purchase and delivery from a California manufacturer.

(d) In the case where the credit allowed under subdivision (a) exceeds the limitation set forth in subdivision (f), that portion of the credit which exceeds the limitation may be carried over and added to the credit computed under subdivision (a) in succeeding years, until the credit is exhausted.

(e) Any taxpayer who elects to be subject to this section shall not be entitled to increase the basis of the property as otherwise required by Section 164(a) of the Internal Revenue Code with respect to sales or use tax paid or incurred in connection with the purchase of qualified property.

(f) The amount of the credit provided by this section, including credit carryovers from prior years, in any income year shall not exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the income attributed to business activities of the taxpayer within a LAMBRA as if that attributable income represented all the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part. In the event that a credit carryover is allowable under subdivision (d) for any income year after the LAMBRA designation has expired, the LAMBRA shall be deemed to remain in existence for purposes of computing this limitation. The amount of that income shall be determined in accordance of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(1) Income shall be apportioned to a LAMBRA by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor, plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is 2.

(2) "The LAMBRA" shall be substituted for "this state."

(g) (1) If the qualified property is disposed of or no longer used by the taxpayer in the local agency military base recovery area, at any time before the close of the second taxable year after the property is placed in service, the amount of the credit previously claimed, with respect to that property, shall be added to the taxpayer's tax liability in the taxable year of that disposition or nonuse.

(2) At the close of the second income year, if the taxpayer has not increased the number of its employees as determined by paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), then the amount of the credit previously claimed shall be added to the taxpayer's tax for the taxpayer's second income year.

(h) In the case where "qualified property" qualifies for a credit under more than one section in this part, the taxpayer shall make an election as to which section applies to the qualified property.

(i) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 2003, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward as provided in subdivision (d), until the credit is exhausted.

SEC. 7. Section 23646 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

23646. (a) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1995, and before January 1, 2003, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined in Section 23036) to a qualified taxpayer for hiring a qualified disadvantaged individual or a qualified displaced employee during the income year for employment in the LAMBRA. The credit shall be equal to the sum of each of the following:

(1) Fifty percent of the qualified wages in the first year of employment.

(2) Forty percent of the qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent of the qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent of the qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(5) Ten percent of the qualified wages in the fifth year of employment.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified wages" means the wages paid or incurred by the employer during the income year to qualified disadvantaged individuals or qualified displaced employees. "Qualified wages" means that portion of hourly wages which does not exceed 150 percent of the minimum wage. Qualified wages paid or incurred by the employers during qualified years one through five used to calculate this credit shall not exceed two million dollars ($2,000,000).

(2) "Qualified years one through five wages" means, with respect to any individual, qualified wages received during the 60-month period beginning with the day the individual commences employment within a LAMBRA.

(3) "Minimum wage" means the wage established by the Industrial Welfare Commission as provided for in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1171) of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

(4) "LAMBRA" means a local agency military base recovery area designated in accordance with the provisions of Section 7114 of the Government Code.

(5) "Qualified disadvantaged individual" means an individual who satisfies all of the following requirements:

(A) (i) At least 90 percent of whose services for the taxpayer during the income year are directly related to the conduct of the taxpayer's trade or business located in a LAMBRA.

(ii) Who performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the taxpayer during the income year in the LAMBRA.

(B) Who is hired by the employer after the designation of the area as a LAMBRA in which such individual's services were primarily performed.

(C) Any of the following:

(i) An individual who has been determined eligible for services under the federal Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 1501 et seq.).

(ii) Any voluntary or mandatory registrant under the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 provided for pursuant to Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(iii) Any individual who has been certified eligible by the Employment Development Department under the federal Targeted Jobs Tax Credit Program whether or not this program is in effect.

(6) "Qualified taxpayer" means a bank or corporation that conducts a trade or business within a LAMBRA and, for the first two income years, has a net increase in jobs (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) of one or more employees as determined below in the LAMBRA.

(A) The net increase in the number of jobs shall be determined by subtracting the total number of full-time employees (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) the taxpayer employed in this state in the income year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA from the total number of full-time employees the taxpayer employed in this state during the second income year after commencing business operations in the LAMBRA. For taxpayers who commence doing business in this state with their LAMBRA business operation, the number of employees for the income year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA shall be zero. If the taxpayer has a net increase in jobs in the state, the credit shall be allowed only if one or more full-time employees is employed within the LAMBRA.

(B) The total number of employees employed in the LAMBRA shall equal the sum of both of the following:

(i) The total number of hours worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees (not to exceed 2,000 hours per employee) who are paid an hourly wage divided by 2,000.

(ii) The total number of months worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees who are salaried employees divided by 12.

(C) In the case of a qualified taxpayer that first commences doing business in the LAMBRA during the income year, for purposes of clauses (i) and (ii), respectively, of subparagraph (B) the divisors "2,000" and "12" shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months of the income year that the taxpayer was doing business in the LAMBRA and the denominator of which is 12.

(7) "Qualified displaced employee" means an individual who satisfies all of the following requirements:

(A) Any civilian or military employee of a base or former base that has been displaced as a result of a federal base closure act.

(B) (i) At least 90 percent of whose services for the taxpayer during the income year are directly related to the conduct of the taxpayer's trade or business located in a LAMBRA.

(ii) Who performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the taxpayer during the income year in a LAMBRA.

(C) Who is hired by the employer after the designation of the area in which services were performed as a LAMBRA.

(c) (1) For purposes of this section, both of the following apply:

(A) All employees of all corporations that are members of the same controlled group of corporations shall be treated as employed by a single employer.

(B) The credit (if any) allowable by this section to each member shall be determined by reference to its proportionate share of the qualified wages giving rise to the credit.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, "controlled group of corporations" has the meaning given to that term by Section 1563(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that both of the following apply:

(A) "More than 50 percent" shall be substituted for "at least 80 percent" each place it appears in Section 1563(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) The determination shall be made without regard to Section 1563(a)(4) and Section 1563(e)(3)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) If an employer acquires the major portion of a trade or business of another employer (hereinafter in this paragraph referred to as the "predecessor") or the major portion of a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor, then, for purposes of applying this section (other than subdivision (f)) for any calendar year ending after that acquisition, the employment relationship between an employee and an employer shall not be treated as terminated if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business.

(d) (1) If the employment of any employee with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (a) is terminated by the taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment (whether or not consecutive) or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that employee completes 90 days of employment with the taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the income year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that income year and all prior income years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that employee.

(2) (A) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any of the following:

(i) A termination of employment of an employee who voluntarily leaves the employment of the taxpayer.

(ii) A termination of employment of an individual who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that individual.

(iii) A termination of employment of an individual, if it is determined under the applicable unemployment compensation laws that the termination was due to the misconduct of that individual.

(iv) A termination of employment of an individual due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the taxpayer.

(v) A termination of employment of an individual, if that individual is replaced by other qualified employees so as to create a net increase in both the number of employees and the hours of employment.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the taxpayer and an employee shall not be treated as terminated by either of the following:

(i) A transaction to which Section 381 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code applies, if the employee continues to be employed by the acquiring corporation.

(ii) A mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the taxpayer, if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business and the taxpayer retains a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(4) At the close of the second income year, if the taxpayer has not increased the number of its employees as determined by paragraph (6) of subdivision (b), then the amount of the credit previously claimed shall be added to the taxpayer's tax for the taxpayer's second income year.

(e) In the case of an organization to which Section 593 of the Internal Revenue Code applies, and a regulated investment company or a real estate investment trust subject to taxation under this part, rules similar to the rules provided in Section 46(e) and Section 46(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply.

(f) The credit shall be reduced by the credit allowed under Section 23621. The credit shall also be reduced by the federal credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for the wages or salaries paid or incurred by the taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit.

(g) In the case where the credit allowed under subdivision (a) exceeds the limitation set forth in subdivision (h), that portion of the credit that exceeds the limitation may be carried over and added to the credit computed under subdivision (a) in succeeding years, until the credit is exhausted.

(h) The amount of the credit including prior year carryovers allowed by this section shall not in any year exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the income attributed to business activities of the taxpayer within a LAMBRA as if that attributed income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part. In the event that a credit carryover is allowable under subdivision (g) for any income year after the LAMBRA designation has expired, the LAMBRA shall be deemed to remain in existence for purposes of computing this limitation. The amount of that attributed income shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(1) Income shall be apportioned to a LAMBRA by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is 2.

(2) "The LAMBRA" shall be substituted for "this state."

(i) (1) In the case where "qualified wages" qualify for a credit under more than one section in this part, the taxpayer shall make an election as to which section applies to those qualified wages.

(2) Any election made under this section, and any specification contained in that election, may not be revoked except with the consent of the Franchise Tax Board.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 2003, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried over as provided in subdivision (g), until the credit is exhausted.

SEC. 8. Section 24356.8 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

24356.8. (a) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1995, and before January 1, 2003, a taxpayer may elect to treat the cost of any Section 24356.8 property as an expense that is not chargeable to the capital account. Any cost so treated shall be allowed as a deduction for the income year in which the Section 24356.8 property is placed in service.

(b) (1) An election under this section for any income year shall meet both of the following requirements:

(A) Specify the items of Section 24356.8 property to which the election applies and the portion of the cost of each of those items that is to be taken into account under subdivision (a).

(B) Be made on the taxpayer's return of the tax imposed by this part for the income year.

(2) Any election made under this section, and any specification contained in that election, may not be revoked except with the consent of the Franchise Tax Board.

(c) (1) For purposes of this section, "Section 24356.8 property" means any recovery property that is Section 1245 property (as defined in Section 1245(a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code) and that the taxpayer acquires by purchase for exclusive use in a trade or business conducted within a LAMBRA.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), "purchase" means any acquisition of property, but only if all of the following apply:

(A) The property is not acquired from a person whose relationship to the person acquiring it would result in the disallowance of losses under Section 267 or 707(b) of the Internal Revenue Code (but, in applying Sections 267(b) and 267(c) of the Internal Revenue Code for purposes of this section, Section 267(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be treated as providing that the family of an individual shall include only his or her spouse, ancestors, and lineal descendants).

(B) The property is not acquired by one component member of an affiliated group from another component member of the same affiliated group.

(C) The basis of the property in the hands of the person acquiring it is not determined in whole or in part by reference to the adjusted basis of that property in the hands of the person from whom acquired.

(3) For purposes of this section, the cost of property does not include so much of the basis of that property as is determined by reference to the basis of other property held at any time by the person acquiring that property.

(4) This section shall not apply to any property for which the taxpayer may not make an election for the income year under Section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code because of the provisions of Section 179(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(5) For purposes of subdivision (b), both of the following apply:

(A) All members of an affiliated group shall be treated as one taxpayer.

(B) The taxpayer shall apportion the dollar limitation contained in subdivision (f) among the component members of the affiliated group in whatever manner the board shall by regulations prescribe.

(6) For purposes of paragraphs (2) and (5), "affiliated group" has the meaning assigned to it by Section 1504 of the Internal Revenue Code, except that, for these purposes, the phrase "more than 50 percent" shall be substituted for the phrase "at least 80 percent" each place it appears in Section 1504(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(7) This section shall not apply to any property described in Section 168(f) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(8) In the case of an S corporation, the dollar limitation contained in subdivision (f) shall be applied at the entity level and at the shareholder level.

(d) For purposes of this section:

(1) "LAMBRA" means a local agency military base recovery area designated in accordance with the provisions of Section 7114 of the Government Code.

(2) "Taxpayer" means a bank or corporation that conducts a trade or business within a LAMBRA and, for the first two income years, has a net increase in jobs (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) of one or more employees in the LAMBRA.

(A) The net increase in the number of jobs shall be determined by subtracting the total number of full-time employees (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) the taxpayer employed in this state in the income year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA from the total number of full-time employees the taxpayer employed in this state during the second income year after commencing business operations in the LAMBRA. For taxpayers who commence doing business in this state with their LAMBRA business operation, the number of employees for the income year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA shall be zero. If the taxpayer has a net increase in jobs in the state, the credit shall be allowed only if one or more full-time employees is employed within the LAMBRA.

(B) The total number of employees employed in the LAMBRA shall equal the sum of both of the following:

(i) The total number of hours worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees (not to exceed 2,000 hours per employee) who are paid an hourly wage divided by 2,000.

(ii) The total number of months worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees who are salaried employees divided by 12.

(C) In the case of a taxpayer that first commences doing business in the LAMBRA during the income year, for purposes of clauses (i) and (ii), respectively, of subparagraph (B) the divisors "2,000" and "12" shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months of the income year that the taxpayer was doing business in the LAMBRA and the denominator of which is 12.

(e) Any taxpayer who elects to be subject to this section shall not be entitled to claim additional depreciation pursuant to Section 24356 with respect to any property that constitutes Section 24356.8 property.

(f) The deduction allowable under subdivision (a) for any income year shall not exceed the following applicable amount for the income year of the designation of a LAMBRA and each income year thereafter:

The applicable amount is:

Income year of designation	$ 5,000
1st income year thereafter	5,000
2nd income year thereafter	7,500
3rd income year thereafter	7,500
Each income year thereafter	10,000

(g) This section shall apply only to property that is used exclusively in a trade or business conducted within a LAMBRA.

(h) (1) Any amounts deducted under subdivision (a) with respect to property that ceases to be used in the trade or business within a LAMBRA at any time before the close of the second income year after the property was placed in service shall be included in income for that year.

(2) At the close of the second income year, if the taxpayer has not increased the number of its employees as determined by paragraph (2) of subdivision (d), then the amount of the deduction previously claimed shall be added to the taxpayer's net income for the taxpayer's second income year.

(i) Any taxpayer who elects to be subject to this section shall not be entitled to claim for the same property the deduction under Section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to an election to expense certain depreciable business assets.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 2003, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 24416.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24416.2. The term "qualified taxpayer" as used in Section 24416.1 means any of the following:

(a) A taxpayer engaged in the conduct of a qualified business within a program area (as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code).

(1) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback for any income year and a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after the date that the taxpayer becomes a qualified business shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the 15 income years following the income year of loss.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "Net operating loss" means the loss determined under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 24416.1, attributable to the business activities of the taxpayer within the program area (as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code). That attributed loss shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(i) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and ending on or before December 31, 1996, loss shall be apportioned to the program area by multiplying total loss from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is 2.

(ii) "The program area" shall be substituted for "this state."

(B) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to income attributed to the business activities of the taxpayer within the program area (as defined in Section 7082 of the Government Code) determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(i) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and ending on or before December 31, 1996, income shall be apportioned to the program area by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is 2.

(ii) "The program area" shall be substituted for "this state."

(b) A taxpayer who is engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within an enterprise zone designated pursuant to Section 7073 of the Government Code on or after that designation.

(1) (A) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback to any income year and, except as provided in subparagraph (B), a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after the date that the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated an enterprise zone shall be a net operating loss carryover to each following income year that ends before the expiration or revocation of the designation of the enterprise zone under Section 7073 of the Government Code or to each of 15 income years following the income year of loss, if longer.

(B) In the case of a financial institution to which Section 585, 586, or 593 of the Internal Revenue Code applies, a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after January 1, 1984, shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the five income years following the income year of the loss. Subdivision (b) of Section 24416.1 shall not apply.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "Net operating loss" means the loss determined under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 24416.1, attributable to the business activities of the taxpayer within the enterprise zone (as defined in Section 7073 of the Government Code). The attributed loss shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(i) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and ending on or before December 31, 1996, loss shall be apportioned to the enterprise zone by multiplying total loss from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is 2.

(ii) "The enterprise zone" shall be substituted for "this state."

(B) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to income attributed to the business activities of the taxpayer within the enterprise zone (as defined in Section 7073 of the Government Code) determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(i) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and ending on or before December 31, 1996, income shall be apportioned to the enterprise zone by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is 2.

(ii) "The enterprise zone" shall be substituted for "this state."

(c) A taxpayer engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designated pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code.

(1) (A) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback for any income year and, except as provided in subparagraph (B), a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after the date the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone shall be a net operating loss carryover to each following income year that ends before the expiration or revocation of the designation of the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone under Section 7102 of the Government Code or to each of the 15 income years following the income year of loss, if longer.

(B) In the case of a financial institution to which Section 585, 586, or 593 of the Internal Revenue Code applies, a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after January 1, 1984, shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the five years following the income year of the loss. Subdivision (b) of Section 24416.1 shall not apply.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "Net operating loss" means the loss determined under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 24416.1, attributable to the business activities of the taxpayer within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone (as defined in Section 7102 of the Government Code). The attributable loss shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120), modified as follows:

(i) The loss shall be apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by multiplying the loss from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is 2.

(ii) "The Los Angeles Revitalization Zone" shall be substituted for this state.

(B) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to income attributable to the business activities of the taxpayer within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone (as defined in Section 7102 of the Government Code) determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11, modified as follows:

(i) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, and before January 1, 1998, income shall be apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is 2.

(ii) "The Los Angeles Revitalization Zone" shall be substituted for "this state."

(3) This subdivision shall cease to be operative on January 1, 1998. However, any unused net operating loss may continue to be carried over to following years as provided in this subdivision until the net operating loss has been used.

(d) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1995, and before January 1, 2003, a taxpayer engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within a LAMBRA.

(1) (A) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback for any income year and, except as provided in subparagraph (B), a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after the date the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated a LAMBRA shall be a net operating loss carryover to each following income year that ends before the expiration or revocation of the designation of a LAMBRA under Section 7116 of the Government Code or to each of the 15 income years following the income year of loss, if longer.

(B) In the case of a financial institution to which Section 585, 586, or 593 of the Internal Revenue Code applies, a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after January 1, 1984, shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the five years following the income year of the loss. Subdivision (b) of Section 24416.1 shall not apply.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "LAMBRA" means a local agency military base recovery area designated in accordance with Section 7114 of the Government Code.

(B) "Taxpayer" means a bank or corporation that conducts a trade or business within a LAMBRA and, for the first two income years, has a net increase in jobs (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) of one or more employees in the LAMBRA.

(i) The net increase in the number of jobs shall be determined by subtracting the total number of full-time employees (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) the taxpayer employed in this state in the income year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA from the total number of full-time employees the taxpayer employed in this state during the second income year after commencing business operations in the LAMBRA. For taxpayers who commence doing business in this state with their LAMBRA business operation, the number of employees for the income year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA shall be zero. If the taxpayer has a net increase in jobs in the state, the credit shall be allowed only if one or more full-time employees is employed within the LAMBRA.

(ii) The total number of employees employed in the LAMBRA shall equal the sum of both of the following:

(I) The total number of hours worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees (not to exceed 2,000 hours per employee) who are paid an hourly wage divided by 2,000.

(II) The total number of months worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees who are salaried employees divided by 12.

(iii) In the case of a taxpayer that first commences doing business in the LAMBRA during the income year, for purposes of subclauses (I) and (II), respectively, of clause (ii) the divisors "2,000" and "12" shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months of the income year that the taxpayer was doing business in the LAMBRA and the denominator of which is 12.

(C) "Net operating loss" means the loss determined under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 24416.1, attributable to the business activities of the taxpayer within a LAMBRA. The attributable loss shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120), modified as follows:

(i) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1995, the loss shall be apportioned to a LAMBRA by multiplying the loss from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is 2.

(ii) "The LAMBRA" shall be substituted for "this state."

(D) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to income attributable to the business activities of the taxpayer within a LAMBRA determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11, modified as follows:

(i) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1995, and before January 1, 2003, income shall be apportioned to a LAMBRA by multiplying total income from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is 2.

(ii) "The LAMBRA" shall be substituted for "this state."

(iii) If a loss carryover is allowable pursuant to this section for any income year after the LAMBRA designation has expired, the LAMBRA shall be deemed to remain in existence for purposes of computing this limitation.

(e) A taxpayer who qualifies as a "qualified taxpayer" shall, for the income year of the net operating loss and any income year to which that net operating loss may be carried, designate on the return filed for each year the subdivision of this section which applies to that taxpayer with respect to that net operating loss. If the taxpayer is eligible to qualify under more than one subdivision of this section, the designation is to be made after taking into account subdivision

(f).

(f) If a taxpayer is eligible to qualify under more than one subdivision of this section as a "qualified taxpayer," with respect to a net operating loss in an income year, the taxpayer shall designate which subdivision of this section is to apply to the taxpayer.

(g) Notwithstanding Section 24416, the amount of the loss determined under Section 24416.1 shall be the only net operating loss allowed to be carried over from that income year and the designation under subdivision (e) shall be included in the election under Section 24416.1.

SEC. 10. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order for the economic benefits of this act to be achieved as soon as possible, this act must take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1217

An act to amend Sections 33349, 33385, and 33388 of, and to add Section 33385.3 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to redevelopment.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33349 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33349. (a) The agency shall publish notice of the hearing not less than once a week for four successive weeks prior to the hearing. The notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation, printed and published in the community, or if there is none, in a newspaper selected by the agency. The notice of hearing shall include a legal description of the boundaries of the area or areas designated in the proposed redevelopment plan and a general statement of the scope and objectives of the plan.

(b) Copies of the notices published pursuant to this section shall be mailed, by first-class mail, to the last known assessee of each parcel of land in the area designated in the redevelopment plan, at his or her last known address as shown on the last equalized assessment roll of the county; or where a city assesses, levies, and collects its own taxes, as shown on the last equalized assessment roll of the city; or to the owner of each parcel of land within the boundaries of the area or areas designated in the proposed redevelopment plan, as shown on the records of the county recorder 30 days prior to the date the notice is published.

(c) (1) Notice shall also be provided, by first-class mail, to all residents and businesses within the project area at least 30 days prior to the hearing.

(2) The mailed notice requirement of this subdivision shall only apply when mailing addresses to all individuals and businesses, or to all occupants, are obtainable by the agency at a reasonable cost. The notice shall be mailed by first-class mail, but may be addressed to "occupant." If the agency has acted in good faith to comply with the notice requirements of this subdivision, the failure of the agency to provide the required notice to residents or businesses unknown to the agency or whose addresses cannot be obtained at a reasonable cost, shall not, in and of itself, invalidate a redevelopment plan or amendment to a redevelopment plan.

(d) Copies of the notices published pursuant to this section shall also be mailed to the governing body of each of the taxing agencies that levies taxes upon any property in the project area designated in the proposed redevelopment plan. Notices sent pursuant to this subdivision shall be mailed by certified mail, return receipt requested.

SEC. 2. Section 33385 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33385. (a) The legislative body of a city or county shall call upon the residents and existing community organizations in a redevelopment project area to form a project area committee in either of the following situations:

(1) A substantial number of low-income persons or moderate-income persons, or both, reside within the project area, and the redevelopment plan as adopted will contain authority for the agency to acquire, by eminent domain, property on which any persons reside.

(2) The redevelopment plan as adopted contains one or more public projects that will displace a substantial number of low-income persons or moderate-income persons, or both.

(b) The legislative body shall, by resolution, adopt a procedure pursuant to this section for the formation of the project area committee. The procedure shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Publicizing the opportunity to serve on the project area committee, by providing written notice by first-class mail to all residents, businesses, and community organizations, including religious institutions and other nonprofit organizations, within the project area at least 30 days prior to the formation of the project area committee.

(2) The agency shall conduct a minimum of one public meeting to explain the establishment of, functions of, and opportunity to serve on, the project area committee. At the public meeting, the agency shall distribute copies of this article, copies of Sections 33347.5 and 33366, copies of the procedure adopted pursuant to this subdivision, copies of the redevelopment plan or preliminary plan or the pertinent portions thereof, and any other materials the agency determines would be useful.

(3) Providing published notice of all meetings, hearings, or plebiscites conducted by, or on behalf of, the agency or legislative body relative to the formation and selection of the project area committee in the same manner as specified in subdivision (a) of Section 65090 of the Government Code.

(4) (A) Providing written notice to all residents, businesses, and community organizations in the project area of all meetings, hearings, or plebiscites conducted by, or on behalf of, the agency or legislative body relative to the formation and selection of the project area committee. This mailed notice requirement shall only apply when mailing addresses to all individuals and businesses, or to all occupants, are obtainable by the agency at a reasonable cost. The notice shall be mailed by first-class mail, but may be addressed to "occupant." In lieu of providing separate notice for each meeting, hearing, or plebiscite, the agency may provide a single notice pursuant to this paragraph stating all dates, times, and locations of any meetings, hearings, and plebiscites relative to the formation and selection of the project area committee.

(B) If the agency has acted in good faith to comply with the notice requirements of this paragraph, the failure of the agency to provide the required notice to residents or businesses unknown to the agency or whose addresses cannot be obtained at a reasonable cost, shall not, in and of itself, invalidate the formation or actions of the project area committee.

(5) Providing other forms of notice appropriate to the community in which the project area is to be established, as determined by the agency. Notice provided pursuant to this paragraph may include public service announcements, advertisements in foreign-language publications, or flyers.

(6) The number of community organizations and the method of selection, which may include election, appointment, or both.

(7) Any other forms of assistance which the legislative body requires in connection with the formation of the project area committee.

(c) The project area committee shall only include, when applicable, elected representatives of residential owner occupants, residential tenants, business owners, and existing organizations within the project area. Each group shall be adequately represented. Each organization represented pursuant to this subdivision shall appoint one of its members to the project area committee. No project area committee member may be appointed by the legislative body or the redevelopment agency or any member of either body. The members of the committee shall serve without compensation.

(d) (1) The election of a representative project area committee shall be held in each project area within 100 days after the project area is selected. The legislative body shall adopt, after a duly noticed public hearing, communitywide procedures for filing for election, publicizing an election, holding an election, and for reviewing disputed elections, filling vacated seats, and other matters related to the electoral process. These procedures shall prohibit crossover voting between categories of residential owner occupants, residential tenants, and business owners to ensure, for example, that a business owner cannot vote for a tenant representative. However, if the legislative body determines that the method of selection of community organizations shall include election pursuant to subdivision (b), the legislative body shall determine the appropriate electorate and may authorize crossover voting in the election of community organizations.

(2) The procedures adopted pursuant to this subdivision shall provide that a challenge to an election or to an electoral procedure shall be filed with the legislative body no more than 15 calendar days after the election. The legislative body shall adopt a finding that all adopted procedures of the legislative body were followed in the election. The procedures shall require that the validity of all challenges be determined within 30 days following the date of the election.

(e) For project areas selected prior to March 7, 1973, the legislative body may, but shall not be required to, call upon the residents and existing community organizations to form a project area committee.

(f) If the project does not contain a substantial number of low- and moderate-income individuals, the agency shall either call upon the residents and existing community organizations to form a project area committee or the agency shall consult with, and obtain the advice of, residents and community organizations as provided for project area committees in Section 33386 and provide those persons and organizations with the redevelopment plan prior to submitting it to the legislative body.

(g) Nothing contained in this section shall prevent an agency, or the legislative body of any city or county, from creating any other committee for a project area. However, these committees shall not be merged into the project area committee subsequent to the formation thereof, and a member of any of these other committees shall not be entitled to vote in meetings of the project area committee, unless he or she is also a member of the project area committee.

(h) The meeting of a project area committee shall be subject to the Ralph M. Brown Act (Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 54950) of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code).

(i) The agency may charge fees to persons purchasing or leasing property from the agency in the project area and to persons participating in redevelopment of the project area under an owner participation agreement to defray any cost to the agency or legislative body in implementing this section.

(j) The amendments made to this section by the act that adds this subdivision shall be applicable only to a redevelopment plan that is adopted or amended on or after the effective date of the act that adds this subdivision.

SEC. 3. Section 33385.3 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

33385.3. (a) If a project area committee does not exist, and the agency proposes to amend a redevelopment plan, the agency shall establish a project area committee pursuant to Section 33385 if the proposed amendment to a redevelopment plan would do either of the following:

(1) Grant the authority to the agency to acquire by eminent domain property on which persons reside in a project area in which a substantial number of low- and moderate-income persons reside.

(2) Add territory in which a substantial number of low- and moderate-income persons reside and grant the authority to the agency to acquire by eminent domain property on which persons reside in the added territory. The project area committee may be composed of persons from only the added territory or both the added area and the existing project area.

(b) Once a project area committee is formed, the requirements of Section 33385.5, except for project area committee expansion, shall be followed.

SEC. 4. Section 33388 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

33388. (a) Upon recommendation of the project area committee, funds as determined necessary by the legislative body for the operation of the project area committee shall be allocated to the committee by the legislative body. This allocation shall include funds or equivalent resources for a committee office, equipment and supplies, legal counsel, and adequate staff for the purposes set forth in Section 33386.

(b) No funds allocated under this section shall be used for any litigation, other than litigation to enforce or defend the rights of the project area committee under this part.

SEC. 5. The Legislature finds and declares that subdivision (h) of Section 33385, as amended by this act, is declaratory of, and does not constitute a change in, existing law.

CHAPTER 1218

An act to amend Sections 8880.28, 8880.39, and 8880.55 of the Government Code, relating to the state lottery, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8880.28 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8880.28. (a) The commission shall promulgate rules and regulations specifying the types of lottery games to be conducted by the Lottery, provided:

(1) No lottery game may use the theme of bingo, roulette, dice, baccarat, blackjack, Lucky 7's, draw poker, slot machines, dog racing, or horse racing.

(2) In lottery games utilizing tickets, each ticket in these games shall bear a unique number distinguishing it from every other ticket in that game; and no name of an elected official shall appear on these tickets.

(3) In games utilizing computer terminals or other devices, no coins or currency shall be dispensed to players from these computer terminals or devices.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), no changes in the types of games or methods of delivery of these games that incorporate technologies or mediums that did not exist, were not widely available, or were not commercially feasible at the time of the enactment of this chapter in 1984 shall be made, unless all of the following conditions are met:

(1) This chapter is amended by statute to expressly authorize these changes.

(2) The act making the amendments contains express legislative findings that the amendments are consistent with the terms of, and further the purposes of, this chapter.

(3) The amendments comport with applicable state and federal law.

(c) For purposes of this section, a change in the method of delivery means a material change in the way a consumer directly interacts with the game.

(d) Subdivision (b) shall not apply to technological changes implemented prior to the effective date of this subdivision.

(e) This section shall not be construed to limit any internal technological changes made to the equipment or components utilized by the Lottery.

SEC. 2. Section 8880.39 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8880.39. The director shall confer as frequently as necessary or desirable, but not less than once every quarter, with the commission, on the operation and administration of the lottery. The director shall make available for inspection by the commission, upon request, all books, records, files, and other information and documents of the lottery, advise the commission and recommend any matters as he or she deems necessary and advisable to improve the operation and administration of the lottery.

SEC. 3. Section 8880.55 of the Government Code is amended to read:

8880.55. (a) No payment by lottery game retailers to the lottery for tickets or shares shall be in cash. All payments for tickets or shares shall be in the form of a check, bank draft, electronic fund transfer, or other recorded financial instrument as determined by the director.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the lottery may pay to lottery game retailers, by electronic fund transfer, subject to approval by the Controller's office, any credit balances that may result from lottery activities.

SEC. 4. The Legislature finds and declares that this act furthers the purposes of the California State Lottery Act of 1984.

SEC. 5. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to clarify Section 8880.28 of the Government Code, as amended by Chapter 322 of the Statutes of 1993, and to improve lottery services, as soon as possible, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1219

An act to amend Section 1855.5 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1855.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1855.5. (a) All insurance policy or bond forms, or manuals, including policy writing rules, rating plans, classification codes and descriptions, territory codes and descriptions, and rules that include factors or relativities such as increased limits factors, classification relativities, or similar factors, of an advisory organization shall prior to being used by insurers be submitted in writing to the commissioner for his or her consideration and approval, together with any information the commissioner may reasonably require. All of those documents shall be available for public inspection at the office of the commissioner. The commissioner shall approve only those policy forms or bonds forms, or manuals, that are found by him or her to contemplate activities and practices that are not unfair, unreasonable, or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this code, including Sections 1861.02 and 1861.05.

(b) Upon submission of any policy forms or bond forms, or manuals, the commissioner may review them, and if after a hearing, at which representatives of consumers and other interested parties may participate, upon not less than 10 days' notice to an advisory organization he or she finds that the policy forms or bond forms, or manuals, are unfair or unreasonable, or are otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, he or she may issue a written order to the advisory organization specifying in what respect the policy forms, bond forms, or manuals, are unfair or unreasonable or otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter and disapprove the use of the forms or manuals. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, if the commissioner fails to act within 90 days of the submission of a proposed policy or bond form, or manual by an advisory organization, the policy or bond form, or manual, shall be deemed approved. For good cause, and after a hearing, at which representatives of consumers and other interested parties may participate, upon not less than 10 days' notice to the advisory organization, the commissioner may revoke approval of any policy form or bond form or manual.

(c) Nothing in this chapter shall be interpreted to allow an advisory organization to set or establish rates or to issue any manual that contains final rates for any insurance coverage, policy endorsement, or bond.

CHAPTER 1220

An act to amend Sections 4450 and 4451 of the Government Code, and to amend Sections 19955.5 and 19956 of the Health and Safety Code, relating to accessibility standards.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4450 of the Government Code is amended to read:

4450. (a) It is the purpose of this chapter to ensure that all buildings, structures, sidewalks, curbs, and related facilities, constructed in this state by the use of state, county, or municipal funds, or the funds of any political subdivision of the state shall be accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities. The State Architect shall develop and submit proposed building standards to the California Building Standards Commission for approval and adoption pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 18935) of Part 2.5 of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code and shall develop other regulations for making buildings, structures, sidewalks, curbs, and related facilities accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities. The regulations and building standards relating to access for persons with disabilities shall be consistent with the standards for buildings and structures which are contained in pertinent provisions of the latest edition of the Uniform Building Code, as adopted by the International Conference of Building Officials, and these regulations and building standards shall contain additional requirements relating to buildings, structures, sidewalks, curbs, and other related facilities as the State Architect determines are necessary to assure access and usability for persons with disabilities. In developing and revising these additional requirements, the State Architect shall consult with the Department of Rehabilitation, the League of California Cities, the County Supervisors Association of California, and at least one private organization representing and comprised of persons with disabilities.

(b) However, in no case shall the State Architect's regulations and building standards prescribe a lesser standard of accessibility or usability than provided by the Accessibility Guidelines prepared by the federal Access Board as adopted by the United States Department of Justice to implement the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336).

SEC. 2. Section 4451 of the Government Code is amended to read:

4451. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, this chapter shall be limited in its application to all buildings and facilities stated in Section 4450 intended for use by the public, with any reasonable availability to, or usage by, persons with disabilities, including all facilities used for education and instruction, including the University of California, the California State University, and the various community college districts, that are constructed in whole or in part by the use of state, county, or municipal funds, or the funds of any political subdivision of the state.

(b) Buildings, structures, and facilities, occupied 50 percent or more, that are leased, rented, contracted, sublet, or hired for periods exceeding two years by any municipal, county, or state division of government, or special district shall be made accessible to, and usable by, persons with disabilities. Exceptions to this paragraph may be made upon application to, and approval by, the Department of Rehabilitation.

(c) Except as otherwise provided by law, buildings, structures, sidewalks, curbs, and related facilities subject to the provisions of this chapter or Part 5.5 (commencing with Section 19955) of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code shall conform to the building standards published in the California Building Standards Code relating to access for the persons with disabilities and the other regulations adopted pursuant to Section 4450 that are in effect on the date of an application for a building permit. With respect to buildings, structures, sidewalks, curbs, and related facilities not requiring a building permit, building standards published in the California Building Standards Code relating to access for persons with disabilities and other regulations adopted pursuant to Section 4450, and in effect at the time construction is commenced shall be applicable.

(d) Until building standards are published in the California Building Standards Code and other regulations are developed by the State Architect and adopted by the California Building Standards Commission pursuant to Section 4450, buildings, structures, sidewalks, curbs, and related facilities subject to the provisions of this chapter or Part 5.5 (commencing with Section 19955) of Division 13 of the Health and Safety Code shall meet or exceed the requirements of Title III of Subpart D of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990.

(e) This chapter shall apply to temporary or emergency construction as well as permanent buildings.

(f) Administrative authorities, as designated under Section 4453, may grant exceptions from the literal requirements of the building standards published in the California Building Standards Code relating to access for persons with disabilities, or the other regulations adopted pursuant to this section, or permit the use of other methods or materials, but only when it is clearly evident that equivalent facilitation and protection are thereby secured.

SEC. 3. Section 19955.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

19955.5. All passenger vehicle service stations, shopping centers, offices of physicians and surgeons, and office buildings constructed in this state with private funds shall adhere to the provisions of Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 4450) of Division 5 of Title 1 of the Government Code. As used in this section, "office building" means a structure wherein commercial activity or service is performed or a profession is practiced, or wherein any combination thereof is performed or practiced in all or the majority of the building or structure.

When sanitary facilities are made available for the public, clients, or employees in these stations, centers, or buildings, they shall be made available for persons with disabilities.

Any new requirements imposed by the amendments to this section by Chapter 931 of the Statutes of 1973 shall only apply to those stations, centers, or office buildings constructed on or after September 30, 1973. Any other new requirements imposed by amendments to this section by Chapter 995 of the Statutes of 1974 shall only apply to those offices or office buildings constructed on or after January 1, 1975.

SEC. 4. Section 19956 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

19956. All public accommodations constructed in this state shall conform to the provisions of Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 4450) of Division 5 of Title 1 of the Government Code. However, the following types of privately funded multistory buildings do not require accessibility by ramp or elevator above and below the first floor:

(a) Multistoried office buildings, other than the professional office of a health care provider, and passenger vehicle service stations less than three stories high, or less than 3,000 square feet per story.

(b) Any other privately funded multistoried building that is not a shopping center, shopping mall, or the professional office of a health care provider, and that is less than three stories high or less than 3,000 square feet per story if a reasonable portion of all facilities and accommodations normally sought and used by the public in such a building are accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities.

CHAPTER 1221

An act to add Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 1340) to, and to add and repeal Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 1330) of, Division 6 of the Military and Veterans Code, and to add and repeal Section 18517 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to veterans memorials, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 1330) is added to Division 6 of the Military and Veterans Code, to read:

CHAPTER 7. CALIFORNIA MEXICAN AMERICAN VETERANS' MEMORIAL BEAUTIFICATION AND ENHANCEMENT

1330. (a) There is in state government the California Mexican American Veterans' Memorial Beautification and Enhancement Commission composed of 11 members as follows:

(1) Two members appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, at least one of whom shall be a Member of the Assembly, and at least one of whom shall be a veteran, as defined in Section 980.

(2) Two members appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules, at least one of whom shall be a Member of the Senate, and at least one of whom shall be a veteran, as defined in Section 980.

(3) Seven members appointed by the Governor, at least two of whom shall be veterans, as defined in Section 980.

(b) The members shall elect one of their number to serve as chairperson.

1331. Members of the Legislature shall serve on the commission as ex officio members without vote and shall participate in the activities of the commission to the extent that the participation is not incompatible with their legislative duties. Members of the commission shall receive no compensation.

1332. The commission may request staff support and facilities for its activities from the Department of Veterans Affairs, and the department may provide that support and be reimbursed for the cost of this support.

1333. The commission shall be responsible for setting policy consistent with the purposes of this chapter. The staff hired by the commission shall carry out that policy.

1334. (a) The beautification and enhancement of an existing memorial on state grounds is hereby authorized. For the purposes of this act, "state grounds" means that property in the City of Sacramento bounded by "Ninth," "Tenth," "L," and "N" Streets. The actual site for the beautification and enhancement of the memorial shall be the site of the existing memorial and surrounding ground.

(b) Funds for the beautification and enhancement of the memorial shall be provided through private contributions and by designation through a voluntary checkoff on tax returns. The commission may receive contributions for this purpose. However, the commission shall not solicit any funds for construction of the memorial until the Veterans Memorial Commission has completed construction of a memorial to California's veterans pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1310).

1335. With respect to the design and construction of an enhanced memorial, the commission may do all of the following:

(a) Establish a schedule for the design, construction, and dedication of the enhanced memorial.

(b) Implement procedures to solicit designs for beautifying and enhancing the memorial and devise a selection process for the choice of the design.

(c) Select individuals or organizations to provide fundraising services and to construct the enhanced memorial.

(d) Review and monitor the design and construction of the memorial and establish a program for the rededication of the memorial.

(e) Report to the Legislature through the Assembly Committee on Governmental Organization and the Senate Veterans Affairs Committee at least once on the progress of the memorial.

(f) Consult with the Department of General Services to determine parameters for the final size of the memorial.

(g) Consult with and obtain final design and site orientation approval from the Department of General Services.

1336. The design of the enhanced memorial shall be as politically neutral as possible.

1338. The commission shall notify the Governor and the Franchise Tax Board when beautification and enhancement of the memorial pursuant to this chapter is complete. This chapter shall remain in effect only until, and shall be repealed on, January 1 of the year following that notification, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before that date, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 2. Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 1340) is added to Division 6 of the Military and Veterans Code, to read:

CHAPTER 8. CALIFORNIA MEXICAN AMERICAN VETERANS' MEMORIAL BEAUTIFICATION AND ENHANCEMENT ACCOUNT

1340. The California Mexican American Veterans' Memorial Beautification and Enhancement Account is hereby created in the General Fund. All funds received by the California Mexican American Veterans' Memorial Beautification and Enhancement Commission under Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 1330) and under Section 18517 of the Revenue and Taxation Code shall be deposited in the account for the design and construction of the California Mexican American Veterans' Memorial as specified in Section 18517 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

SEC. 3. Section 18517 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

18517. (a) Any taxpayer may designate on the tax return that a contribution in excess of the tax liability, if any, be made to the California Mexican American Veterans' Memorial Beautification and Enhancement Account in the General Fund established by Section 1340 of the Military and Veterans Code. That designation is to be used as a voluntary checkoff on the tax return only after the Veterans' Memorial Commission has notified the Franchise Tax Board in writing that the Veterans Memorial is completely constructed pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1310). If the Veterans Memorial is completed and the Franchise Tax Board is notified in writing prior to September 1 of any taxable year, then the California Mexican American Veterans' Memorial Beautification and Enhancement Account shall first appear for contribution on the tax return filed for the taxable year beginning on or after January 1 of the year of completion. If the Veterans Memorial is completed and the Franchise Tax Board is notified in writing on or after September 1 of any taxable year, the California Mexican American Veterans' Memorial Beautification and Enhancement Account shall first appear for contribution on the tax return filed for the taxable year beginning on or after January 1 of the following year.

(b) The contributions shall be in full dollar amounts and may be made individually by each signatory on the joint return.

(c) A designation under subdivision (a) shall be made on the initial return for that taxable year, and once made shall be irrevocable. In the event that payments and credits reported on the return, together with any other credits associated with the taxpayer's account, do not exceed the taxpayer's liability, the return shall be treated as though no designation has been made.

(d) In the event a taxpayer designates a contribution to more than one account or fund listed on the tax return, and the amount available is insufficient to satisfy the total amount designated, the contribution shall be allocated among the designees on a pro rata basis.

(e) The Franchise Tax Board shall revise the forms of the return to include a space labeled the "California Mexican American Veterans' Memorial" to allow for the designation permitted under subdivision (a). The forms shall also include in the instructions information that the contribution may be in the amount of one dollar ($1) or more and that the contribution shall be used to beautify and enhance an existing memorial.

(f) A deduction shall be allowed under Article 6 (commencing with Section 17201) of Chapter 3 for any contribution made pursuant to subdivision (a).

(g) The Franchise Tax Board shall notify the Controller of both the amount of money paid by the taxpayer in excess of his or her tax liability and the amount of refund money that the taxpayer has designated pursuant to this section that is to be transferred to the California Mexican American Veterans' Memorial Beautification and Enhancement Account. The Controller shall transfer from the Personal Income Tax Fund to the California Mexican American Veterans' Memorial Beautification and Enhancement Account an amount not in excess of the amounts designated by individuals pursuant to this section for payment into that account.

(h) Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, all funds deposited in the California Mexican American Veterans' Memorial Beautification and Enhancement Account established pursuant to Section 1340 of the Military and Veterans Code are hereby continuously appropriated, without regard to fiscal year, to the California Mexican American Veterans' Memorial Beautification and Enhancement Commission for all of the following purposes:

(1) Reimbursement of all costs incurred by the Franchise Tax Board and the Controller in connection with their duties under this section.

(2) Beautification, and enhancement, of an existing memorial and surrounding grounds at the State Capitol pursuant to Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 1330), and Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 1340) of Division 6 of the Military and Veterans Code.

(i) This section shall remain in effect only until, and shall be repealed on, January 1 of the fifth taxable year following the notification required under subdivision (a), unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before that date, deletes that date.

(j) Notwithstanding subdivision (i), if, in any calendar year the Franchise Tax Board estimates by September 1 that contributions described in this article made on returns filed in that calendar year will be less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), then this section is repealed with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1 of that calendar year. The Franchise Tax Board shall estimate the annual contribution amount by September 1 of each year using the actual amounts known to be contributed and an estimate of the remaining year's contributions.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding the repeal of Section 18571 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, any contribution amounts designated pursuant to that section prior to its repeal shall continue to be transferred and disbursed in accordance with that section as it read immediately prior to that repeal.

SEC. 5. The sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) is hereby appropriated from the General Fund to the California Mexican American Veterans' Memorial Beautification and Enhancement Commission for deposit in the California Mexican American Veterans' Memorial Beautification and Enhancement Account as a loan for purposes of Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 1330) of Division 6 of the Military and Veterans Code. The commission shall reimburse the amount of this appropriation, plus interest at the same rate of interest as that earned by moneys invested in the Pooled Money Investment Account during the term of the loan, from the first contributions received by the commission under Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 1330) of Division 6 of the Military and Veterans Code.

CHAPTER 1222

An act to amend Sections 17058 and 23610.5 of, and to add Sections 12205 and 12206 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 12205 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

12205. It is the intent of the Legislature that the amount of the state low-income housing tax credit allocated to a project pursuant to Section 12206 shall not exceed an amount in addition to the federal tax credit that is necessary for the financial feasibility of the project and its viability throughout the extended use period.

SEC. 2. Section 12206 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

12206. (a) (1) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 12201) a state low-income housing tax credit in an amount equal to the amount determined in subdivision (c), computed in accordance with Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(2) "Taxpayer," for purposes of this section, means the sole owner in the case of a C corporation, the partners in the case of a partnership, and the shareholders in the case of an S corporation.

(3) "Housing sponsor," for purposes of this section, means the sole owner in the case of a C corporation, the partnership in the case of a partnership, and the S corporation in the case of an S corporation.

(b) (1) The amount of the credit allocated to any housing sponsor shall be authorized by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee, or any successor thereof, based on a project's need for the credit for economic feasibility in accordance with the requirements of this section.

(A) The low-income housing project shall be located in California and shall meet either of the following requirements:

(i) The project's housing sponsor shall have been allocated by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee a credit for federal income tax purposes under Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) It shall qualify for a credit under Section 42(h) (4) (B) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) The California Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall not require fees for the credit under this section in addition to those fees required for applications for the tax credit pursuant to Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code. The committee may require a fee if the application for the credit under this section is submitted in a calendar year after the year the application is submitted for the federal tax credit.

(2) (A) The California Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall certify to the housing sponsor the amount of tax credit under this section allocated to the housing sponsor for each credit period.

(B) In the case of a partnership or an S corporation, the housing sponsor shall provide a copy of the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee certification to the taxpayer.

(C) The taxpayer shall attach a copy of the certification to any return upon which a tax credit is claimed under this section.

(D) In the case of a failure to attach a copy of the certification for the year to the return in which a tax credit is claimed under this section, no credit under this section shall be allowed for that year until a copy of that certification is provided.

(E) All elections made by the taxpayer pursuant to Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply to this section.

(F) No credit shall be allocated under this section to buildings located in a difficult development area or a qualified census tract as defined in Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code for which the eligible basis of a new building or the rehabilitation expenditure of an existing building is 130 percent of that amount pursuant to Section 42(d) (5) (c) of the Internal Revenue Code, unless the committee reduces the amount of federal credit, with the approval of the applicant, so that the combined amount of federal and state credit shall not exceed the total credit allowable pursuant to this section and Section 42(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, computed without regard to Section 42(d)(5)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) Section 42(b) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) In the case of any qualified low-income building that receives an allocation after 1989 and is a new building not federally subsidized, the term "applicable percentage" means the following:

(A) For each of the first three years, the percentage prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury for new buildings that are not federally subsidized for the taxable year, determined in accordance with the requirements of Section 42(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, in lieu of the percentage prescribed in Section 42(b)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) For the fourth year, the difference between 30 percent and the sum of the applicable percentages for the first three years.

(2) In the case of any qualified low-income building that receives an allocation after 1989 and that is a new building that is federally subsidized or that is an existing building that is "at risk of conversion," the term "applicable percentage" means the following:

(A) For each of the first three years, the percentage prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury for new buildings that are federally subsidized for the taxable year.

(B) For the fourth year, the difference between 13 percent and the sum of the applicable percentages for the first three years.

(3) For purposes of this section, the term "at risk of conversion," with respect to an existing building means a building that satisfies all of the following criteria:

(A) The building is presently owned by a housing sponsor other than a qualified nonprofit organization.

(B) The building is a federally assisted building for which the low-income use restrictions will terminate or the mortgage on the building is eligible for prepayment under Subtitle 13 of the Emergency Low Income Housing Assistance Act of 1987 or under Section 502(c) of the Housing Act of 1949, anytime in the three calendar years after the year of application to the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee.

(C) The person acquiring the building enters into a regulatory agreement that requires the building to be operated in accordance with the requirements of this section for a period equal to the greater of 55 years or the life of the building.

(D) The building satisfies the requirements of Section 42(e) of the Internal Revenue Code regarding rehabilitation expenditures, except that the provisions of Section 42(e)(3)(A)(ii)(I) shall not apply.

(d) The term "qualified low-income housing project" as defined in Section 42(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by adding the following requirements:

(1) The taxpayer shall be entitled to receive a cash distribution from the operations of the project, after funding required reserves, which, at the election of the taxpayer, is equal to:

(A) An amount not to exceed 8 percent of the lesser of:

(i) The owner equity which shall include the amount of the capital contributions actually paid to the housing sponsor and shall not include any amounts until they are paid on an investor note; or

(ii) Twenty percent of the adjusted basis of the building as of the close of the first income year of the credit period; or

(B) The amount of the cash-flow from those units in the building that are not low-income units. For purposes of computing cash-flow under this subparagraph, operating costs shall be allocated to the low-income units using the "floor space fraction," as defined in Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(C) Any amount allowed to be distributed under subparagraph (A) that is not available for distribution during the first five years of the compliance period may accumulate and be distributed any time during the first 15 years of the compliance period but not thereafter.

(2) The limitation on return shall apply in the aggregate to the partners if the housing sponsor is a partnership and in the aggregate to the shareholders if the housing sponsor is an S corporation.

(3) The housing sponsor shall apply any cash available for distribution in excess of the amount eligible to be distributed under paragraph (1) to reduce the rent on rent-restricted units or to increase the number of rent-restricted units subject to the tests of Section 42(g)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(e) The provisions of Section 42(f) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) The term "credit period" as defined in Section 42(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by substituting "four income years" for "10 taxable years."

(2) The special rule for the first taxable year of the credit period under Section 42(f)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply to the tax credit under this section.

(3) Section 42(f)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read:

If, as of the close of any income year in the compliance period, after the first year of the credit period, the qualified basis of any building exceeds the qualified basis of that building as of the close of the first year of the credit period, the housing sponsor, to the extent of its tax credit allocation, shall be eligible for a credit on the excess in an amount equal to the applicable percentage determined pursuant to subdivision (c) for the four-year period beginning with the later of the income years in which the increase in qualified basis occurs.

(f) The provisions of Section 42(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) Section 42(h)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable and instead the following provisions shall be applicable:

The total amount for the four-year credit period of the housing credit dollars allocated in a calendar year to any building shall reduce the aggregate housing credit dollar amount of the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee for the calendar year in which the allocation is made.

(2) Paragraphs (3), (4), (6), (7), and (8) of Section 42(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable.

(g) Notwithstanding subdivision (m), the aggregate housing credit dollar amount that may be allocated annually by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee pursuant to this section, Section 17058, and Section 23610.5 shall be an amount equal to the sum of the following:

(1) Thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000).

(2) The unused housing credit ceiling, if any, for the preceding calendar years; and

(3) The amount of housing credit ceiling returned in the calendar year. For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of housing credit dollar amount returned in the calendar year equals the housing credit dollar amount previously allocated to any project that does not become a qualified low-income housing project within the period required by this section or to any project with respect to which an allocation is canceled by mutual consent of the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee and the allocation recipient.

(h) (1) The term "compliance period" as defined in Section 42(i)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to mean, with respect to any building, the period of 30-consecutive income years beginning with the first income year of the credit period with respect thereto, subject to the limitation in paragraph (2).

(2) If, after the first 18 years of the compliance period, a qualified low-income housing project is not economically feasible, the housing sponsor shall be entitled to remove one or more low-income units from the set-aside and rent requirements of Section 42(g) of the Internal Revenue Code as is necessary for the project to become economically feasible, provided that once a project is again economically feasible, the housing sponsor designates the next available units as low-income units subject to the set-aside and rent requirements, up to the number of low-income units necessary to arrive at the original applicable fraction, while keeping the project economically feasible.

(3) For purposes of paragraph (2), "economically feasible" means that project revenue equals or exceeds project operating expenses excluding any return on investment.

(4) For purposes of paragraph (3), "operating expenses" means the reasonable expenses necessary to operate and maintain the project in habitable condition, debt service, taxes, and reasonable reserves. For purposes of this paragraph, debt service shall not include that portion of payments of principal and interest attributable to any excess refinanced principal over the outstanding principal of the loan that was refinanced, except to the extent the excess was used for the rehabilitation of the project.

(i) (1) Section 42(j) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable and the provisions in paragraph (2) shall be substituted in its place.

(2) The requirements of this section shall be set forth in a regulatory agreement between the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee and the housing sponsor, which agreement shall be subordinated, when required, to any lien or encumbrance of any banks or other institutional lenders to the project. The regulatory agreement entered into pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 50199.14 of the Health and Safety Code, shall apply, providing the agreement includes all of the following provisions:

(A) A term not less than the compliance period.

(B) A requirement that the agreement be filed in the official records of the county in which the qualified low-income housing project is located.

(C) A provision stating which state and local agencies can enforce the regulatory agreement in the event the housing sponsor fails to satisfy any of the requirements of this section.

(D) A provision that the regulatory agreement shall be deemed a contract enforceable by tenants as third-party beneficiaries thereto and which allows individuals, whether prospective, present, or former occupants of the building, who meet the income limitation applicable to the building, the right to enforce the regulatory agreement in any state court.

(E) A provision incorporating the requirements of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code as modified by this section.

(F) A requirement that the housing sponsor provide the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee or its designee and the local agency that can enforce the regulatory agreement with advance notice if the housing sponsor intends to reduce the number of low-income units to make a project economically feasible.

(G) A requirement that the housing sponsor notify the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee or its designee and the local agency that can enforce the regulatory agreement if there is a determination by the Internal Revenue Service that the project is not in compliance with Section 42(g) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(H) A requirement that the housing sponsor, as security for the performance of the housing sponsor's obligations under the regulatory agreement, assign the housing sponsor's interest in rents that it receives from the project, provided that until there is a default under the regulatory agreement, the housing sponsor is entitled to collect and retain the rents.

(I) The remedies available in the event of a default under the regulatory agreement that is not cured within a reasonable cure period, include, but are not limited to, allowing any of the parties designated to enforce the regulatory agreement to collect all rents with respect to the project; taking possession of the project and operating the project in accordance with the regulatory agreement until the enforcer determines the housing sponsor is in a position to operate the project in accordance with the regulatory agreement; applying to any court for specific performance; securing the appointment of a receiver to operate the project; or any other relief as may be appropriate.

(j) (1) The committee shall allocate the housing credit on a regular basis consisting of not less than three periods in each calendar year during which applications may be filed and considered. The committee shall establish application filing deadlines, the maximum percentage of federal and state low-income housing tax credit ceiling which may be allocated by the committee in that period, and the approximate date on which allocations shall be made. If the enactment of federal or state law, the adoption of rules or regulations, or other similar events prevent the use of three allocation periods, the committee may reduce the number of periods and adjust the filing deadlines, maximum percentage of credit allocated, and the allocation dates.

(2) The committee shall adopt a qualified allocation plan, as provided in Section 42(m)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code. In adopting this plan, the committee shall comply with the provisions of Sections 42(m)(1)(B) and 42(m)(1)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 42(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall allocate housing credits in accordance with the qualified allocation plan and regulations, which shall include the following provisions:

(A) All housing sponsors, as defined by paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), shall demonstrate at the time the application is filed with the committee that the project meets the following threshold requirements:

(i) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate there is a need for low-income housing in the community or region for which it is proposed.

(ii) The project's proposed financing, including tax credit proceeds, shall be sufficient to complete the project and shall be adequate to operate the project for the extended use period.

(iii) The project shall have enforceable financing commitments, either construction or permanent financing, for at least 50 percent of the total estimated financing of the project.

(iv) The housing sponsor shall have and maintain control of the site for the project.

(v) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate that the project complies with all applicable local land use and zoning ordinances.

(vi) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate that the project development team has the experience and the financial capacity to ensure project completion and operation for the extended use period.

(vii) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate the amount of tax credit that is necessary for the financial feasibility of the project and its viability as a qualified low-income housing project throughout the extended use period, taking into account operating expenses, a supportable debt service, reserves, funds set aside for rental subsidies, and required equity, for the low-income units, and a development fee that does not exceed a specified percentage of the qualified basis of the project prior to inclusion of the development fee in the qualified basis, as determined by the committee.

(B) The committee shall give a preference to those projects satisfying all of the threshold requirements of subparagraph (A) if:

(i) The project serves the lowest income tenants at rents affordable to those tenants; or

(ii) The project is obligated to serve qualified tenants for the longest period.

(C) In addition to the provisions of subparagraphs (A) and (B), the committee shall use the following criteria in allocating housing credits:

(i) Projects serving large families in which the greatest percentage of total square feet of all residential units is comprised of low-income units with three or more bedrooms.

(ii) Projects providing single room occupancy units serving very low income tenants.

(iii) Existing projects that are "at risk of conversion," as defined by paragraph (4) of subdivision (c).

(iv) Projects for which a public agency provides direct or indirect long-term financial support for at least 15 percent of the total project development costs or projects for which the owner's equity constitutes at least 30 percent of the total project development costs.

(v) Projects that provide tenant amenities not generally available to residents of low-income housing projects.

(vi) Projects located within a "difficult to develop area" or a "qualified census tract" as defined in Section 42(d)(5)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(4) For purposes of allocating credits pursuant to this section, the committee shall not give preference to any project by virtue of the date of submission of its application except to break a tie when two or more of the projects have an equal rating.

(5) Not less than 20 percent of the low-income housing tax credits available annually under this section, Section 17058, and Section 23610.5 shall be set aside for allocation to rural areas as defined in Section 50199.21 of the Health and Safety Code. Any amount of credit set aside for rural areas remaining on or after October 31 of any calendar year shall be available for allocation to any eligible project. No amount of credit set aside for rural areas shall be considered available for any eligible project so long as there are eligible rural applications pending on October 31.

(k) Section 42(l) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

The term "secretary" shall be replaced by the term "California Tax Credit Allocation Committee."

(l) In the case where the state credit allowed under this section exceeds the "tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(m) The aggregate amount of tax credits granted pursuant to this section, Section 17058, and Section 23610.5 shall not exceed thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000) per year. The California Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall not authorize any credit if the total amount of credits authorized in any year under the Personal Income Tax Law and the Bank and Corporation Tax Law exceeds thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000).

(n) The provisions of Section 11407(a) of Public Law 101-508, relating to the effective date of the extension of the low-income housing credit, shall apply to calendar years after 1993.

(o) The provisions of Section 11407(c) of Public Law 101-508, relating to election to accelerate credit, shall not apply.

(p) This section shall remain in effect for as long as Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to low-income housing credits, remains in effect.

SEC. 3. Section 17058 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17058. (a) (1) There shall be allowed as a credit against the amount of net tax (as defined in Section 17039) a state low-income housing credit in an amount equal to the amount determined in subdivision (c), computed in accordance with the provisions of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(2) "Taxpayer" for purposes of this section means the sole owner in the case of an individual, the partners in the case of a partnership, and the shareholders in the case of an S corporation.

(3) "Housing sponsor" for purposes of this section means the sole owner in the case of an individual, the partnership in the case of a partnership, and the S corporation in the case of an S corporation.

(b) (1) The amount of the credit allocated to any housing sponsor shall be authorized by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee, or any successor thereof, based on a project's need for the credit for economic feasibility in accordance with the requirements of this section.

(A) The low-income housing project shall be located in California and shall meet either of the following requirements:

(i) The project's housing sponsor shall have been allocated by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee a credit for federal income tax purposes under Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) It shall qualify for a credit under Section 42(h)(4)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) The California Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall not require fees for the credit under this section in addition to those fees required for applications for the tax credit pursuant to Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code. The committee may require a fee if the application for the credit under this section is submitted in a calendar year after the year the application is submitted for the federal tax credit.

(2) (A) The California Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall certify to the housing sponsor the amount of tax credit under this section allocated to the housing sponsor for each credit period.

(B) In the case of a partnership or an S corporation, the housing sponsor shall provide a copy of the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee certification to the taxpayer.

(C) The taxpayer shall attach a copy of the certification to any return upon which a tax credit is claimed under this section.

(D) In the case of a failure to attach a copy of the certification for the year to the return in which a tax credit is claimed under this section, no credit under this section shall be allowed for that year until a copy of that certification is provided.

(E) All elections made by the taxpayer pursuant to Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply to this section.

(F) No credit shall be allocated under this section to buildings located in a difficult development area or a qualified census tract as defined in Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code for which the eligible basis of a new building or the rehabilitation expenditure of an existing building is 130 percent of that amount pursuant to Section 42(d)(5)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code, unless the committee reduces the amount of federal credit, with the approval of the applicant, so that the combined amount of federal and state credit shall not exceed the total credit allowable pursuant to this section and Section 42(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, computed without regard to Section 42(d)(5)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) Section 42(b) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) In the case of any qualified low-income building placed in service by the housing sponsor during 1987, the term "applicable percentage" means 9 percent for each of the first three years and 3 percent for the fourth year for new buildings (whether or not the building is federally subsidized) and for existing buildings.

(2) In the case of any qualified low-income building that receives an allocation after 1989 and is a new building not federally subsidized, the term "applicable percentage" means the following:

(A) For each of the first three years, the percentage prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury for new buildings that are not federally subsidized for the taxable year, determined in accordance with the requirements of Section 42(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, in lieu of the percentage prescribed in Section 42(b)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) For the fourth year, the difference between 30 percent and the sum of the applicable percentages for the first three years.

(3) In the case of any qualified low-income building that receives an allocation after 1989 and that is a new building that is federally subsidized or that is an existing building that is "at risk of conversion," the term "applicable percentage" means the following:

(A) For each of the first three years, the percentage prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury for new buildings that are federally subsidized for the taxable year.

(B) For the fourth year, the difference between 13 percent and the sum of the applicable percentages for the first three years.

(4) For purposes of this section, the term "at risk of conversion," with respect to an existing building means a building that satisfies all of the following criteria:

(A) The building is presently owned by a housing sponsor other than a qualified nonprofit organization.

(B) The building is a federally assisted building for which the low-income use restrictions will terminate or the mortgage on the building is eligible for prepayment under Subtitle 13 of the Emergency Low Income Housing Preservation Act of 1987 or under Section 502(c) of the Housing Act of 1949, anytime in the three calendar years after the year of application to the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee.

(C) The person acquiring the building enters into a regulatory agreement that requires the building to be operated in accordance with the requirements of this section for a period equal to the greater of 55 years or the life of the building.

(D) The building satisfies the requirements of Section 42(e) of the Internal Revenue Code regarding rehabilitation expenditures, except that the provisions of Section 42(e)(3)(A)(ii)(I) shall not apply.

(d) The term "qualified low-income housing project" as defined in Section 42(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by adding the following requirements:

(1) The taxpayer shall be entitled to receive a cash distribution from the operations of the project, after funding required reserves, that, at the election of the taxpayer, is equal to:

(A) An amount not to exceed 8 percent of the lesser of:

(i) The owner equity that shall include the amount of the capital contributions actually paid to the housing sponsor and shall not include any amounts until they are paid on an investor note; or

(ii) Twenty percent of the adjusted basis of the building as of the close of the first taxable year of the credit period; or

(B) The amount of the cash-flow from those units in the building that are not low-income units. For purposes of computing cash-flow under this subparagraph, operating costs shall be allocated to the low-income units using the "floor space fraction," as defined in Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(C) Any amount allowed to be distributed under subparagraph (A) that is not available for distribution during the first five years of the compliance period may be accumulated and distributed any time during the first 15 years of the compliance period but not thereafter.

(2) The limitation on return shall apply in the aggregate to the partners if the housing sponsor is a partnership and in the aggregate to the shareholders if the housing sponsor is an S corporation.

(3) The housing sponsor shall apply any cash available for distribution in excess of the amount eligible to be distributed under paragraph (1) to reduce the rent on rent-restricted units or to increase the number of rent-restricted units subject to the tests of Section 42(g)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(e) The provisions of Section 42(f) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) The term "credit period" as defined in Section 42(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by substituting "four taxable years" for "10 taxable years."

(2) The special rule for the first taxable year of the credit period under Section 42(f)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply to the tax credit under this section.

(3) Section 42(f)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read:

If, as of the close of any taxable year in the compliance period, after the first year of the credit period, the qualified basis of any building exceeds the qualified basis of that building as of the close of the first year of the credit period, the housing sponsor, to the extent of its tax credit allocation, shall be eligible for a credit on the excess in an amount equal to the applicable percentage determined pursuant to subdivision (c) for the four-year period beginning with the taxable year in which the increase in qualified basis occurs.

(f) The provisions of Section 42(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) Section 42(h)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable and instead the following provisions shall be applicable:

The total amount for the four-year period of the housing credit dollars allocated in a calendar year to any building shall reduce the aggregate housing credit dollar amount of the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee for the calendar year in which the allocation is made.

(2) Paragraphs (3), (4), (6), (7), and (8) of Section 42(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable to this section.

(g) Notwithstanding subdivision (m), the aggregate housing credit dollar amount which may be allocated annually by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee pursuant to this section, Section 12206, and Section 23610.5 shall be an amount equal to the sum of the following:

(1) Thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000).

(2) The unused housing credit ceiling, if any, for the preceding calendar years; and

(3) The amount of housing credit ceiling returned in the calendar year. For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of housing credit dollar amount returned in the calendar year equals the housing credit dollar amount previously allocated to any project that does not become a qualified low-income housing project within the period required by this section or to any project with respect to which an allocation is canceled by mutual consent of the California Tax Credit

Allocation Committee and the allocation recipient.

(h) (1) The term "compliance period" as defined in Section 42(i)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to mean, with respect to any building, the period of 30 consecutive taxable years beginning with the first taxable year of the credit period with respect thereto, subject to the limitation in paragraph (2).

(2) If, after the first 18 years of the compliance period, a qualified low-income housing project is not economically feasible, the housing sponsor shall be entitled to remove one or more low-income units from the set-aside and rent requirements of Section 42(g) of the Internal Revenue Code as is necessary for the project to become economically feasible, provided that once a project is again economically feasible, the housing sponsor designates the net available units as low-income units subject to the set-aside and rent requirements, up to the number of low-income units necessary to arrive at the original applicable fraction, while keeping the project economically feasible.

(3) For purposes of paragraph (2), "economically feasible" means that project revenue equals or exceeds project operating expenses excluding any return on investment.

(4) For purposes of paragraph (3), "operating expenses" means the reasonable expenses necessary to operate and maintain the project in habitable condition, debt service, taxes, and reasonable reserves. For purposes of this paragraph, debt service shall not include that portion of payments of principal and interest attributable to any excess refinanced principal over the outstanding principal of the loan that was refinanced, except to the extent the excess was used for the rehabilitation of the project.

(i) Section 42(j) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable and the following requirements of this section shall be set forth in a regulatory agreement between the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee and the housing sponsor, which agreement shall be subordinated, when required, to any lien or encumbrance of any banks or other institutional lenders to the project. The regulatory agreement entered into pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 50199.14 of the Health and Safety Code shall apply, providing the agreement includes all of the following provisions:

(1) A term not less than the compliance period.

(2) A requirement that the agreement be filed in the official records of the county in which the qualified low-income housing project is located.

(3) A provision stating which state and local agencies can enforce the regulatory agreement in the event the housing sponsor fails to satisfy any of the requirements of this section.

(4) A provision that the regulatory agreement shall be deemed a contract enforceable by tenants as third-party beneficiaries thereto and which allows individuals, whether prospective, present, or former occupants of the building, who meet the income limitation applicable to the building, the right to enforce the regulatory agreement in any state court.

(5) A provision incorporating the requirements of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code as modified by this section.

(6) A requirement that the housing sponsor provide the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee or its designee and the local agency that can enforce the regulatory agreement with advance notice if the housing sponsor intends to reduce the number of low-income units to make a project economically feasible.

(7) A requirement that the housing sponsor notify the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee or its designee and the local agency that can enforce the regulatory agreement if there is a determination by the Internal Revenue Service that the project is not in compliance with Section 42(g) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(8) A requirement that the housing sponsor, as security for the performance of the housing sponsor's obligations under the regulatory agreement, assign the housing sponsor's interest in rents that it receives from the project, provided that until there is a default under the regulatory agreement, the housing sponsor is entitled to collect and retain the rents.

(9) The remedies available in the event of a default under the regulatory agreement that is not cured within a reasonable cure period, include, but are not limited to, allowing any of the parties designated to enforce the regulatory agreement to collect all rents with respect to the project; taking possession of the project and operating the project in accordance with the regulatory agreement until the enforcer determines the housing sponsor is in a position to operate the project in accordance with the regulatory agreement; applying to any court for specific performance; securing the appointment of a receiver to operate the project; or any other relief as may be appropriate.

(j) (1) The committee shall allocate the housing credit on a regular basis consisting of not less than three periods in each calendar year during which applications may be filed and considered. The committee shall establish application filing deadlines, the maximum percentage of federal and state low-income housing tax credit ceiling that may be allocated by the committee in that period, and the approximate date on which allocations shall be made. If the enactment of federal or state law, the adoption of rules or regulations or other similar events prevent the use of three allocation periods, the committee may reduce the number of periods and adjust the filing deadlines, maximum percentage of credit allocated, and the allocation dates.

(2) The committee shall adopt a qualified allocation plan, as provided in Section 42(m)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code. In adopting this plan, the committee shall comply with the provisions of Sections 42(m)(1)(B) and 42(m)(1)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 42(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall allocate housing credits in accordance with the qualified allocation plan and regulations, which shall include the following provisions:

(A) All housing sponsors, as defined by paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), shall demonstrate at the time the application is filed with the committee that the project meets the following threshold requirements:

(i) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate there is a need for low-income housing in the community or region for which it is proposed.

(ii) The project's proposed financing, including tax credit proceeds, shall be sufficient to complete the project and shall be adequate to operate the project for the extended use period.

(iii) The project shall have enforceable financing commitments, either construction or permanent financing, for at least 50 percent of the total estimated financing of the project.

(iv) The housing sponsor shall have and maintain control of the site for the project.

(v) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate that the project complies with all applicable local land use and zoning ordinances.

(vi) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate that the project development team has the experience and the financial capacity to ensure project completion and operation for the extended use period.

(vii) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate the amount of tax credit that is necessary for the financial feasibility of the project and its viability as a qualified low-income housing project throughout the extended use period, taking into account operating expenses, a supportable debt service, reserves, funds set aside for rental subsidies, and required equity, for the low-income units, and a development fee that does not exceed a specified percentage of the qualified basis of the project prior to inclusion of the development fee in the qualified basis, as determined by the committee.

(B) The committee shall give a preference to those projects satisfying all of the threshold requirements of subparagraph (A) if:

(i) The project serves the lowest income tenants at rents affordable to those tenants; or

(ii) The project is obligated to serve qualified tenants for the longest period.

(C) In addition to the provisions of subparagraphs (A) and (B), the committee shall use the following criteria in allocating housing credits:

(i) Projects serving large families in which the greatest percentage of total square feet of all residential units is comprised of low-income units with three or more bedrooms.

(ii) Projects providing single room occupancy units serving very low-income tenants.

(iii) Existing projects that are "at risk of conversion," as defined by paragraph (4) of subdivision (c).

(iv) Projects for which a public agency provides direct or indirect long-term financial support for at least 15 percent of the total project development costs or projects for which the owner's equity constitutes at least 30 percent of the total project development costs.

(v) Projects that provide tenant amenities not generally available to residents of low-income housing projects.

(vi) Projects located within a "difficult to develop area" or a "qualified census tract" as defined in Section 42(d)(5)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(4) For purposes of allocating credits pursuant to this section, the committee shall not give preference to any project by virtue of the date of submission of its application.

(5) Not less than 20 percent of the low-income housing tax credits available annually under this section, Section 12206, and Section 23610.5 shall be set aside for allocation to rural areas as defined in Section 50199.21 of the Health and Safety Code. Any amount of credit set aside for rural areas remaining on or after October 31 of any calendar year shall be available for allocation to any eligible project. No amount of credit set aside for rural areas shall be considered available for any eligible project so long as there are eligible rural applications pending on October 31.

(k) Section 42(l) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

The term "secretary" shall be replaced by the term "California Tax Credit Allocation Committee."

(l) In the case where the credit allowed under this section exceeds the net tax, the excess credit may be carried over to reduce the net tax in the following year, and succeeding taxable years, if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(m) The aggregate amount of tax credits granted pursuant to this section, Section 12206, and Section 23610.5 shall not exceed thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000) per year. The California Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall not authorize any credit if the total amount of credits authorized in any year under the Personal Income Tax Law and the Bank and Corporation Tax Law exceeds thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000).

The aggregate amount of credit granted pursuant to this section and Section 23610.5 in 1989 may exceed thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000) by an amount equal to the unallocated credit from 1987 and 1988.

(n) A project that received an allocation of a 1989 federal housing credit dollar amount shall be eligible to receive an allocation of a 1990 state housing credit dollar amount, subject to all of the following conditions:

(1) The project was not placed in service prior to 1990.

(2) To the extent the amendments made to this section by the Statutes of 1990 conflict with any provisions existing in this section prior to those amendments, the prior provisions of law shall prevail.

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (2), a project applying for an allocation under this subdivision shall be subject to the requirements of paragraph (3) of subdivision (j).

(o) The credit period with respect to an allocation of credit in 1989 by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee of which any amount is attributable to unallocated credit from 1987 or 1988 shall not begin until after December 31, 1989.

(p) The provisions of Section 11407(a) of Public Law 101-508, relating to the effective date of the extension of the low-income housing credit, shall apply to calendar years after 1989.

(q) The provisions of Section 11407(c) of Public Law 101-508, relating to election to accelerate credit, shall not apply.

(r) (1) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1990, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (l), until the credit has been exhausted.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), this section shall remain in effect on and after December 1, 1990, for as long as Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code pertaining to low-income housing credits remains in effect.

(s) The amendments to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall apply only to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1993.

SEC. 4. Section 23610.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23610.5. (a) (1) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 23036) a state low-income housing tax credit in an amount equal to the amount determined in subdivision (c), computed in accordance with Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(2) "Taxpayer," for purposes of this section, means the sole owner in the case of a C corporation, the partners in the case of a partnership, and the shareholders in the case of an S corporation.

(3) "Housing sponsor," for purposes of this section, means the sole owner in the case of a C corporation, the partnership in the case of a partnership, and the S corporation in the case of an S corporation.

(b) (1) The amount of the credit allocated to any housing sponsor shall be authorized by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee, or any successor thereof, based on a project's need for the credit for economic feasibility in accordance with the requirements of this section.

(A) The low-income housing project shall be located in California and shall meet either of the following requirements:

(i) The project's housing sponsor shall have been allocated by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee a credit for federal income tax purposes under Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) It shall qualify for a credit under Section 42(h)(4)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) The California Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall not require fees for the credit under this section in addition to those fees required for applications for the tax credit pursuant to Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code. The committee may require a fee if the application for the credit under this section is submitted in a calendar year after the year the application is submitted for the federal tax credit.

(2) (A) The California Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall certify to the housing sponsor the amount of tax credit under this section allocated to the housing sponsor for each credit period.

(B) In the case of a partnership or an S corporation, the housing sponsor shall provide a copy of the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee certification to the taxpayer.

(C) The taxpayer shall attach a copy of the certification to any return upon which a tax credit is claimed under this section.

(D) In the case of a failure to attach a copy of the certification for the year to the return in which a tax credit is claimed under this section, no credit under this section shall be allowed for that year until a copy of that certification is provided.

(E) All elections made by the taxpayer pursuant to Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply to this section.

(F) No credit shall be allocated under this section to buildings located in a difficult development area or a qualified census tract as defined in Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code for which the eligible basis of a new building or the rehabilitation expenditure of an existing building is 130 percent of that amount pursuant to Section 42(d)(5)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code, unless the committee reduces the amount of federal credit, with the approval of the applicant, so that the combined amount of federal and state credit shall not exceed the total credit allowable pursuant to this section and Section 42(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, computed without regard to Section 42(d)(5)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) Section 42(b) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) In the case of any qualified low-income building placed in service by the housing sponsor during 1987, the term "applicable percentage" means 9 percent for each of the first three years and 3 percent for the fourth year for new buildings (whether or not the building is federally subsidized) and for existing buildings.

(2) In the case of any qualified low-income building that receives an allocation after 1989 and is a new building not federally subsidized, the term "applicable percentage" means the following:

(A) For each of the first three years, the percentage prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury for new buildings that are not federally subsidized for the taxable year, determined in accordance with the requirements of Section 42(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, in lieu of the percentage prescribed in Section 42(b)(1)(A).

(B) For the fourth year, the difference between 30 percent and the sum of the applicable percentages for the first three years.

(3) In the case of any qualified low-income building that receives an allocation after 1989 and that is a new building that is federally subsidized or that is an existing building that is "at risk of conversion," the term "applicable percentage" means the following:

(A) For each of the first three years, the percentage prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury for new buildings that are federally subsidized for the taxable year.

(B) For the fourth year, the difference between 13 percent and the sum of the applicable percentages for the first three years.

(4) For purposes of this section, the term "at risk of conversion," with respect to an existing building means a building that satisfies all of the following criteria:

(A) The building is presently owned by a housing sponsor other than a qualified nonprofit organization.

(B) The building is a federally assisted building for that the low-income use restrictions will terminate or the mortgage on the building is eligible for prepayment under Subtitle 13 of the Emergency Low Income Housing Assistance Act of 1987 or under Section 502(c) of the Housing Act of 1949, anytime in the three calendar years after the year of application to the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee.

(C) The person acquiring the building enters into a regulatory agreement that requires the building to be operated in accordance with the requirements of this section for a period equal to the greater of 55 years or the life of the building.

(D) The building satisfies the requirements of Section 42(e) of the Internal Revenue Code regarding rehabilitation expenditures, except that the provisions of Section 42(e)(3)(A)(ii)(I) shall not apply.

(d) The term "qualified low-income housing project" as defined in Section 42(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by adding the following requirements:

(1) The taxpayer shall be entitled to receive a cash distribution from the operations of the project, after funding required reserves, which, at the election of the taxpayer, is equal to:

(A) An amount not to exceed 8 percent of the lesser of:

(i) The owner equity that shall include the amount of the capital contributions actually paid to the housing sponsor and shall not include any amounts until they are paid on an investor note; or

(ii) Twenty percent of the adjusted basis of the building as of the close of the first income year of the credit period; or

(B) The amount of the cash-flow from those units in the building that are not low-income units. For purposes of computing cash-flow under this subparagraph, operating costs shall be allocated to the low-income units using the "floor space fraction," as defined in Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(C) Any amount allowed to be distributed under subparagraph (A) that is not available for distribution during the first five years of the compliance period may accumulate and be distributed any time during the first 15 years of the compliance period but not thereafter.

(2) The limitation on return shall apply in the aggregate to the partners if the housing sponsor is a partnership and in the aggregate to the shareholders if the housing sponsor is an S corporation.

(3) The housing sponsor shall apply any cash available for distribution in excess of the amount eligible to be distributed under paragraph (1) to reduce the rent on rent-restricted units or to increase the number of rent-restricted units subject to the tests of Section 42(g)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(e) The provisions of Section 42(f) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) The term "credit period" as defined in Section 42(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by substituting "four income years" for "10 taxable years."

(2) The special rule for the first taxable year of the credit period under Section 42(f)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply to the tax credit under this section.

(3) Section 42(f)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read:

If, as of the close of any income year in the compliance period, after the first year of the credit period, the qualified basis of any building exceeds the qualified basis of that building as of the close of the first year of the credit period, the housing sponsor, to the extent of its tax credit allocation, shall be eligible for a credit on the excess in an amount equal to the applicable percentage determined pursuant to subdivision (c) for the four-year period beginning with the later of the income years in which the increase in qualified basis occurs.

(f) The provisions of Section 42(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) Section 42(h)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable and instead the following provisions shall be applicable:

The total amount for the four-year credit period of the housing credit dollars allocated in a calendar year to any building shall reduce the aggregate housing credit dollar amount of the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee for the calendar year in which the allocation is made.

(2) Paragraphs (3), (4), (6), (7), and (8) of Section 42(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable.

(g) Notwithstanding subdivision (m), the aggregate housing credit dollar amount which may be allocated annually by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee pursuant to this section, Section 12206, and Section 17058 shall be an amount equal to the sum of the following:

(1) Thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000).

(2) The unused housing credit ceiling, if any, for the preceding calendar years; and

(3) The amount of housing credit ceiling returned in the calendar year. For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of housing credit dollar amount returned in the calendar year equals the housing credit dollar amount previously allocated to any project that does not become a qualified low-income housing project within the period required by this section or to any project with respect to which an allocation is canceled by mutual consent of the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee and the allocation recipient.

(h) (1) The term "compliance period" as defined in Section 42(i)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to mean, with respect to any building, the period of 30-consecutive income years beginning with the first income year of the credit period with respect thereto, subject to the limitation in paragraph (2).

(2) If, after the first 18 years of the compliance period, a qualified low-income housing project is not economically feasible, the housing sponsor shall be entitled to remove one or more low-income units from the set-aside and rent requirements of Section 42(g) of the Internal Revenue Code as is necessary for the project to become economically feasible, provided that once a project is again economically feasible, the housing sponsor designates the next available units as low-income units subject to the set-aside and rent requirements, up to the number of low-income units necessary to arrive at the original applicable fraction, while keeping the project economically feasible.

(3) For purposes of paragraph (2), "economically feasible" means that project revenue equals or exceeds project operating expenses excluding any return on investment.

(4) For purposes of paragraph (3), "operating expenses" means the reasonable expenses necessary to operate and maintain the project in habitable condition, debt service, taxes, and reasonable reserves. For purposes of this paragraph, debt service shall not include that portion of payments of principal and interest attributable to any excess refinanced principal over the outstanding principal of the loan that was refinanced, except to the extent the excess was used for the rehabilitation of the project.

(i) Section 42(j) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable and the following shall be substituted in its place:

(1) The requirements of this section shall be set forth in a regulatory agreement between the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee and the housing sponsor, which agreement shall be subordinated, when required, to any lien or encumbrance of any banks or other institutional lenders to the project. The regulatory agreement entered into pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 50199.14 of the Health and Safety Code, shall apply, providing the agreement includes all of the following provisions:

(A) A term not less than the compliance period.

(B) A requirement that the agreement be filed in the official records of the county in which the qualified low-income housing project is located.

(C) A provision stating which state and local agencies can enforce the regulatory agreement in the event the housing sponsor fails to satisfy any of the requirements of this section.

(D) A provision that the regulatory agreement shall be deemed a contract enforceable by tenants as third-party beneficiaries thereto and which allows individuals, whether prospective, present, or former occupants of the building, who meet the income limitation applicable to the building, the right to enforce the regulatory agreement in any state court.

(E) A provision incorporating the requirements of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code as modified by this section.

(F) A requirement that the housing sponsor provide the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee or its designee and the local agency that can enforce the regulatory agreement with advance notice if the housing sponsor intends to reduce the number of low-income units to make a project economically feasible.

(G) A requirement that the housing sponsor notify the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee or its designee and the local agency that can enforce the regulatory agreement if there is a determination by the Internal Revenue Service that the project is not in compliance with Section 42(g) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(H) A requirement that the housing sponsor, as security for the performance of the housing sponsor's obligations under the regulatory agreement, assign the housing sponsor's interest in rents that it receives from the project, provided that until there is a default under the regulatory agreement, the housing sponsor is entitled to collect and retain the rents.

(I) The remedies available in the event of a default under the regulatory agreement that is not cured within a reasonable cure period, include, but are not limited to, allowing any of the parties designated to enforce the regulatory agreement to collect all rents with respect to the project; taking possession of the project and operating the project in accordance with the regulatory agreement until the enforcer determines the housing sponsor is in a position to operate the project in accordance with the regulatory agreement; applying to any court for specific performance; securing the appointment of a receiver to operate the project; or any other relief as may be appropriate.

(j) (1) The committee shall allocate the housing credit on a regular basis consisting of not less than three periods in each calendar year during which applications may be filed and considered. The committee shall establish application filing deadlines, the maximum percentage of federal and state low-income housing tax credit ceiling which may be allocated by the committee in that period, and the approximate date on which allocations shall be made. If the enactment of federal or state law, the adoption of rules or regulations, or other similar events prevent the use of three allocation periods, the committee may reduce the number of periods and adjust the filing deadlines, maximum percentage of credit allocated, and the allocation dates.

(2) The committee shall adopt a qualified allocation plan, as provided in Section 42(m)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code. In adopting this plan, the committee shall comply with the provisions of Sections 42(m)(1)(B) and 42(m)(1)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 42(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall allocate housing credits in accordance with the qualified allocation plan and regulations, which shall include the following provisions:

(A) All housing sponsors, as defined by paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), shall demonstrate at the time the application is filed with the committee that the project meets the following threshold requirements:

(i) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate there is a need for low-income housing in the community or region for which it is proposed.

(ii) The project's proposed financing, including tax credit proceeds, shall be sufficient to complete the project and shall be adequate to operate the project for the extended use period.

(iii) The project shall have enforceable financing commitments, either construction or permanent financing, for at least 50 percent of the total estimated financing of the project.

(iv) The housing sponsor shall have and maintain control of the site for the project.

(v) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate that the project complies with all applicable local land use and zoning ordinances.

(vi) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate that the project development team has the experience and the financial capacity to ensure project completion and operation for the extended use period.

(vii) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate the amount of tax credit that is necessary for the financial feasibility of the project and its viability as a qualified low-income housing project throughout the extended use period, taking into account operating expenses, a supportable debt service, reserves, funds set aside for rental subsidies, and required equity, for the low-income units, and a development fee that does not exceed a specified percentage of the qualified basis of the project prior to inclusion of the development fee in the qualified basis, as determined by the committee.

(B) The committee shall give a preference to those projects satisfying all of the threshold requirements of subparagraph (A) if:

(i) The project serves the lowest income tenants at rents affordable to those tenants; or

(ii) The project is obligated to serve qualified tenants for the longest period.

(C) In addition to the provisions of subparagraphs (A) and (B), the committee shall use the following criteria in allocating housing credits:

(i) Projects serving large families in which the greatest percentage of total square feet of all residential units is comprised of low-income units with three or more bedrooms.

(ii) Projects providing single room occupancy units serving very low income tenants.

(iii) Existing projects that are "at risk of conversion," as defined by paragraph (4) of subdivision (c).

(iv) Projects for which a public agency provides direct or indirect long-term financial support for at least 15 percent of the total project development costs or projects for which the owner's equity constitutes at least 30 percent of the total project development costs.

(v) Projects that provide tenant amenities not generally available to residents of low-income housing projects.

(vi) Projects located within a "difficult to develop area" or a "qualified census tract" as defined in Section 42(d)(5)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(4) For purposes of allocating credits pursuant to this section, the committee shall not give preference to any project by virtue of the date of submission of its application except to break a tie when two or more of the projects have an equal rating.

(5) Not less than 20 percent of the low-income housing tax credits available annually under this section, Section 12206, and Section 17058 shall be set aside for allocation to rural areas as defined in Section 50199.21 of the Health and Safety Code. Any amount of credit set aside for rural areas remaining on or after October 31 of any calendar year shall be available for allocation to any eligible project. No amount of credit set aside for rural areas shall be considered available for any eligible project so long as there are eligible rural applications pending on October 31.

(k) Section 42(l) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

The term "secretary" shall be replaced by the term "California Tax Credit Allocation Committee."

(l) In the case where the state credit allowed under this section exceeds the "tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(m) The aggregate amount of tax credits granted pursuant to this section, Section 12206, and Section 17058 shall not exceed thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000) per year. The California Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall not authorize any credit if the total amount of credits authorized in any year under the Personal Income Tax Law and the Bank and Corporation Tax Law exceeds thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000).

The aggregate amount of credit granted pursuant to this section and Section 17058 in 1989 may exceed thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000) by an amount equal to the unallocated credit from 1987 and 1988.

(n) A project that received an allocation of a 1989 federal housing credit dollar amount shall be eligible to receive an allocation of a 1990 state housing credit dollar amount, subject to all of the following conditions:

(1) The project was not placed in service prior to 1990.

(2) To the extent the amendments made to this section by the Statutes of 1990 conflict with any provisions existing in this section prior to those amendments, the prior provisions of law shall prevail.

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (2), a project applying for an allocation under this subdivision shall be subject to the requirements of paragraph (3) of subdivision (j).

(o) The credit period with respect to an allocation of credit in 1989 by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee of which any amount is attributable to unallocated credit from 1987 or 1988 shall not begin until after December 31, 1989.

(p) The provisions of Section 11407(a) of Public Law 101-508, relating to the effective date of the extension of the low-income housing credit, shall apply to calendar years after 1989.

(q) The provisions of Section 11407(c) of Public Law 101-508, relating to election to accelerate credit, shall not apply.

(r) (1) A bank or corporation may elect to assign any portion of any credit allowed under this section to one or more affiliated banks or corporations for each income year in which the credit is allowed. For purposes of this subdivision, "affiliated bank or corporation" has the meaning provided in subdivision (b) of Section 25110, as of the last date of the income year in which the credit is allowed, except that "100 percent" is substituted for "more than 50 percent" wherever it appears in the section.

(2) The election provided in paragraph (1):

(A) May be based on any method selected by the corporation that originally receives the credit.

(B) Shall be irrevocable for the income year the credit is allowed, once made.

(C) May be changed for any subsequent year if the election to make the assignment is expressly shown on each of the returns of the affiliated banks or corporations that assign and receive the credits.

(s) (1) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1990, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (l), until the credit has been exhausted.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), this section shall remain in effect on or after December 1, 1990, for as long as Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code, pertaining to low-income housing credits, remains in effect.

(t) The amendments to this section by the act enacting this subdivision shall apply only to income years beginning on or after January 1, 1993.

SEC. 5. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 1223

An act to add and repeal Article 6.9 (commencing with Section 18518) of Chapter 17 of Part 10 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 6.9 (commencing with Section 18518) is added to Chapter 17 of Part 10 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

Article 6.9. Designations to the California Firefighters' Memorial Fund

18518. (a) Any taxpayer may designate on the tax return that a contribution in excess of the tax liability, if any, be made to the California Firefighters' Memorial Fund, which is established by Section 18518.2. That designation is to be used as a voluntary checkoff on the tax return.

(b) The contributions shall be in full dollar amounts and may be made individually by each signatory on the joint return.

(c) A designation shall be made for any taxable year on the initial return for that taxable year, and once made shall be irrevocable. In the event that payments and credits reported on the return, together with any other credits associated with the taxpayer's account, do not exceed the taxpayer's liability, the return shall be treated as though no designation has been made. In the event that no designee is specified, the contribution shall be transferred to the General Fund, after reimbursement of the direct actual costs of the Franchise Tax Board for the collection and the administration of funds under this article.

(d) In the event a taxpayer designates a contribution to more than one account or fund listed on the tax return, and the amount available for designation is insufficient to satisfy the total amount designated, the contribution shall be allocated among the designees on a pro rata basis.

(e) The Franchise Tax Board shall revise the forms of the return to include a space labeled the "California Firefighters' Memorial Fund" to allow for the designation permitted. The forms shall also include in the instructions information that the contribution may be in the amount of one dollar ($1) or more and that the contribution shall be used to construct a memorial to California firefighters on the grounds of the State Capitol.

(f) A deduction shall be allowed under Article 6 (commencing with Section 17201) of Chapter 3 for any contribution made pursuant to subdivision (a).

18518.2. There is in the State Treasury the California Firefighters' Memorial Fund to receive contributions made pursuant to Section 18518. The Franchise Tax Board shall notify the Controller of both the amount of money paid by taxpayers in excess of their tax liability and the amount of refund money which taxpayers have designated pursuant to Section 18518 to be transferred to the California Firefighters' Memorial Fund. The Controller shall transfer from the Personal Income Tax Fund to the California Firefighters' Memorial Fund an amount not in excess of the sum of the amounts designated by individuals pursuant to Section 18518 for payment into that fund. It is the intent of the Legislature that the 1993 tax return include a space for the California Firefighters' Memorial Fund.

18518.4. All money transferred to the California Firefighters' Memorial Fund, upon appropriation by the Legislature, shall be allocated as follows:

(a) To the Franchise Tax Board and the Controller for reimbursement of all costs incurred by the Franchise Tax Board and the Controller in connection with their duties under this article.

(b) To the California Fire Foundation for the construction of a memorial to California firefighters on the grounds of the State Capitol as provided by Section 13081 of the Health and Safety Code.

18518.5. (a) This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 1999, deletes that date.

(b) If, in any calendar year the Franchise Tax Board estimates by September 1 that contributions described in this article made on returns filed in that calendar year will be less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), or the adjusted amount specified in subdivision (c), as may be applicable, then this article is repealed with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1 of that calendar year. The Franchise Tax Board shall estimate the annual contribution amount by September 1 of each year using the actual amounts known to be contributed and an estimate of the remaining year's contributions.

(c) For each calendar year, beginning with calendar year 1994, the Franchise Tax Board shall adjust, on or before September 1 of that calendar year, the minimum estimated contribution amount specified in subdivision (b) as follows:

(1) The minimum estimated contribution amount for the calendar year shall be an amount equal to the product of the minimum estimated contribution amount for the prior September 1 multiplied by the inflation factor adjustment as specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041, rounded off to the nearest dollar.

(2) The inflation factor adjustment used for the calendar year shall be based on the figures for the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index received on or before August 1 of the calendar year pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041.

(d) Notwithstanding the repeal of this article, any contribution amounts designated pursuant to this article prior to its repeal shall continue to be transferred and disbursed in accordance with this article as in effect immediately prior to that repeal.

CHAPTER 1224

An act to add Article 1.8 (commencing with Section 26639) to Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 2 of Title 3 of the Government Code, relating to county officers.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 1.8 (commencing with Section 26639) is added to Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 2 of Title 3 of the Government Code, to read:

Article 1.8. Sheriff-Marshal Consolidation

26639. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Board of Supervisors of Los Angeles County may, no later than October 1, 1993, commence public hearings regarding the consolidation of court-related services provided by the marshal and sheriff within the county. Within 30 days of the commencement of public hearings as authorized by this section, the board shall make a final determination as to the most cost-effective and most efficient manner of consolidation.

(b) Concurrently, an election may be conducted among all of the judges of the superior and municipal courts of that county to provide an advisory recommendation to the board of supervisors as to the preferred agency, either the marshal or the sheriff, under which court-related services and the service of civil and criminal process may be consolidated. The outcome shall be determined by a simple majority of votes cast. The vote of the judges shall then be forwarded to the board of supervisors prior to the close of the public hearing, and the board of supervisors shall take into advisement the recommendation of the judges provided by the election report.

26639.1. The consolidation shall occur pursuant to the board's determination, and shall be concluded no later than July 1, 1994.

26639.2. The courtroom assignment of bailiffs after consolidation pursuant to this article shall be determined by a three-member committee comprised of the presiding judge of the superior court; the Chairperson of the Municipal Court Judges' Association and the bailiff's management representative; or their designees. Any new bailiff assignments shall be made only after consultation with the affected judge or commissioner in whose courtroom a new assignment is planned, the bailiff's management representative, and with the bargaining unit of the bailiff employee, if the employee is represented.

It is the intent of the Legislature, in enacting this section, to ensure that courtroom assignments are made in a manner which best assures that the interests of the affected judge or commissioner and bailiff are protected.

26639.3. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the marshal, sheriff, and all personnel of the marshal's office or personnel of the sheriff's office affected by a consolidation of court-related services and the service of civil and criminal process under this article shall become employees of that consolidated office at their existing or equivalent classifications, salaries, and benefits, and except as may be necessary for the operation of the agency under which court-related services and the service of civil and criminal process are consolidated, shall not be involuntarily transferred out of the consolidated office for a period of five years following the consolidation.

(b) Permanent employees of the marshal's office or sheriff's office on the effective date of consolidation under this article shall be deemed qualified, and no other qualifications shall be required for employment or retention. Probationary employees of the marshal's office or the sheriff's office on the effective date of a consolidation under this article shall retain their probationary status and rights, and shall not be deemed to have transferred so as to require serving a new probationary period.

(c) All county service or service by employees of the marshal's office or the sheriff's office on the effective date of a consolidation under this article shall be counted toward seniority in the consolidated office, and all time spent in the same, equivalent, or higher classification shall be counted toward classification seniority.

(d) No employee of the marshal's office or the sheriff's office on the effective date of a consolidation under this article shall lose peace officer status, be demoted, or otherwise adversely affected as a result of the consolidation.

CHAPTER 1225

An act to amend Section 33020 of, and to add and repeal Article 10.5 (commencing with Section 33427) to Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 24 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to redevelopment.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 33020 of the Health and Safety Code, as amended by Chapter 68 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

33020. (a) "Redevelopment" means the planning, development, replanning, redesign, clearance, reconstruction, or rehabilitation, or any combination of these, of all or part of a survey area, and the provision of those residential, commercial, industrial, public, or other structures or spaces as may be appropriate or necessary in the interest of the general welfare, including recreational and other facilities incidental or appurtenant to them and payments to school and community college districts in the 1992–93, 1993–94, and 1994–95 fiscal years as provided in Sections 33681 and 33681.5.

(b) "Redevelopment" means, for the purpose of providing authority pursuant to Section 33427, the provision of loan guarantees to a small business and the financing of a private nonprofit corporation-sponsored small business incubator or a public small business incubator.

SEC. 2. Article 10.5 (commencing with Section 33427) is added to Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 24 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 10.5. Small Business Development

33427. (a) In addition to any other authority granted under this part, an agency may, within a project area, for the purposes of redevelopment, assist public agencies or private nonprofit corporations to establish and maintain a small business incubator.

(b) In addition to any other authority granted under this part, an agency may, for the purposes of redevelopment, provide loan guarantees for small businesses located within a project area.

(c) For the purposes of this section, "small business" shall have the same meaning as defined in Section 11342 of the Government Code.

(d) This section shall apply only to a project area that is located within the City of Healdsburg, the City of Long Beach, the City of Los Angeles, the City of Oakland, or the City of Signal Hill. Any agency operating within one of those cities which uses the authority granted by this section shall separately identify those actions in the annual report to its legislative body prepared pursuant to Section 33080.1.

(e) No agency may amend a redevelopment plan to increase the tax increment revenue limit pursuant to Section 33333.2 or 33333.4 for the purpose of implementing this section.

33427.1. This article shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before July 1, 1999, deletes or extends that date. However, loan guarantees made pursuant to this article shall remain in effect for the duration of the loan guarantee as if this article were still in effect.

CHAPTER 1226

An act amend Sections 212 and 3511 of, and to add Chapter 2.7 (commencing with Section 4120) to Division 2 of, the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utilities, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that:

(a) Consumers in California benefit from competition in the provision of small package delivery service, between points within California and between points inside and outside of California.

(b) Small package delivery service is provided by a number of companies operating in both interstate and intrastate commerce, using both trucks and aircraft in intermodal configurations.

(c) The decision of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit in Public Utilities Commission v. Federal Express Corp. (1991), 936 F.2d 1075 has seriously compromised the ability of the State of California to ensure the safety of the operations of providers of intermodal small package service organized as air carriers, by holding that state regulation of those carriers is preempted by federal law.

(d) The decision of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit in Public Utilities Commission v. Federal Express Corp., (1991), 936 F.2d 1075 has created a significant competitive imbalance favoring certain providers of intermodal small package service organized as air carriers by holding that state regulation of those carriers is preempted by federal law, while preserving state regulation of other intermodal carriers.

(e) Maintaining inconsistent safety and regulatory standards for entities providing comparable and competitive services may deny California consumers the full benefits of competition, and may expose the public to unsafe or inadequate operations and financial responsibility.

(f) The creation of a consistent approach to ensuring safe operation of vehicles on the public highways of California and financial responsibility for all providers of intermodal small package delivery service is in the public interest.

SEC. 2. Section 212 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

212. "Common carrier" shall not include:

(a) Any corporation or person owning, controlling, operating, or managing any vessel, by reason of the furnishing of water transportation service between points upon the inland waters of this state or upon the high seas between points within this state for affiliated or parent or subsidiary companies or for the products of other corporations or persons engaged in the same industry, if the water transportation service is furnished in tank vessels or barges specially constructed to hold liquids or fluids in bulk and if the service is not furnished to others not engaged in the same industry.

(b) Any corporation or person who operates any vessel for the transportation of persons for compensation, between points in this state if one terminus of every trip operated by the corporation or person is within the boundaries of a U.S. military reservation and is performed under a contract with an agency of the federal government which specifies the terms of service to be provided; and provided that the corporation or person does not perform any service between termini within this state which are outside of a U.S. military reservation. For the purposes of this subdivision, the conditions of this exemption shall be reviewed by the Public Utilities Commission annually as of the first day of January of each year.

(c) Any corporation or person owning, controlling, operating, or managing any recreational conveyance such as a ski lift, ski tow, J-bar, T-bar, chair lift, aerial tramway, or other device or equipment used primarily while participating in winter sports activities.

(d) Any highway permit carrier as defined in Section 3515.

(e) Any corporation or person furnishing or otherwise providing transportation by horse, mule, or other equine animal for entertainment or recreational purposes.

(f) Any integrated intermodal small package carrier which is registered subject to Chapter 2.7 (commencing with Section 4120) of Division 2.

SEC. 3. Section 3511 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

3511. "Highway carrier" means every corporation or person, their lessees, trustees, receivers or trustees appointed by any court whatsoever, engaged in transportation of property for compensation or hire as a business over any public highway in this state by means of a motor vehicle, except that "highway carrier" does not include:

(a) Any farmer resident of this state who occasionally transports from the place of production to a warehouse, regular market, place of storage, or place of shipment the farm products of neighboring farmers in exchange for like services or for a cash consideration or farm products for compensation.

(b) Persons or corporations hauling their own property.

(c) Any farmer operating a motor vehicle used exclusively in the transportation of his or her livestock and agricultural commodities or in the transportation of supplies to his or her farm.

(d) Any nonprofit agricultural cooperative association organized and acting within the scope of its powers under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Agricultural Code to the extent only that it is engaged in transporting its own property or the property of its members.

(e) Any person exclusively transporting United States mail pursuant to a contract with the United States government.

(f) Any integrated intermodal small package carrier which is registered subject to Chapter 2.7 (commencing with Section 4120).

SEC. 4. Chapter 2.7 (commencing with Section 4120) is added to Division 2 of the Public Utilities Code, to read:

CHAPTER 2.7. INTEGRATED INTERMODAL SMALL PACKAGE CARRIERS

Article 1. General Provision and Definitions

4120. For purposes of this chapter, "integrated intermodal small package carrier" means any person or corporation that transports by motor vehicle packages or articles weighing not more than 150 pounds and that provides, by itself or through a company affiliated through common ownership, intermodal air-ground transportation service for the packages or articles in both interstate and intrastate commerce. The incidental or occasional use of aircraft in transporting packages or articles does not constitute integrated intermodal operation within the meaning of this section.

4121. For purposes of this chapter, "department" means the Department of the California Highway Patrol.

4122. For purposes of this chapter, "pull notice program" means the program of driver identification maintained by the Department of Motor Vehicles pursuant to Section 1808.1 of the Vehicle Code.

4123. For purposes of this chapter, "terminal inspection program" means the program of terminal inspection maintained by the department pursuant to Section 34501.12 of the Vehicle Code.

Article 2. Registration of Integrated Intermodal Small Package Carriers

4125. (a) Except as provided in Section 4129, no integrated intermodal small package carrier shall operate a motor vehicle on any public highway of this state unless it is currently registered with the commission.

(b) The commission shall grant registration upon the filing of the application and the payment of the fee as required by this article, and shall assign an identification number to the carrier.

(c) The transportation of packages or articles larger than 150 pounds by a person or corporation registered pursuant to Section 4125 does not relieve that person of any obligation imposed by this chapter.

4126. A person or corporation seeking registration as an integrated intermodal small package carrier shall file an application under oath with the commission showing all of the following:

(a) A description of the service offered demonstrating a limitation to packages and articles weighing not more than 150 pounds.

(b) Intermodal air-ground operation in interstate and intrastate commerce, including a description of the manner in which air transportation and ground transportation are integrated in the provision of transportation service.

(c) Insurance in compliance with Article 3 (commencing with Section 4130).

(d) Compliance with the pull notice program.

(e) Compliance with the terminal inspection program.

(f) Vehicle identification numbers for each vehicle issued by the department pursuant to Section 34507.5 of the Vehicle Code.

4127. (a) A fee of five thousand dollars ($5,000) shall be paid to the commission at the time of filing of the application for registration as an integrated intermodal small package carrier.

(b) A registration renewal fee of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750) plus fifty dollars ($50) per self-propelled motor vehicle utilized in providing the small package delivery service shall be paid to the commission annually.

(c) During the first year any carrier is registered pursuant to this chapter, the carrier shall pay to the commission, in equal quarterly installments, one hundred dollars ($100) per self-propelled motor vehicle used to provide the small package delivery service. During the second year, and following, the per vehicle fee shall be as provided in subdivision (b).

(d) The commission may assess reinstatement fees in the amount of its and the department's actual costs associated with suspension and reinstatement of registration pursuant to Section 4132 or 4138.

(e) The fees paid pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the Transportation Rate Fund to be utilized in the commission's safety-related supervision and enforcement activities. The commission shall remit the department's portion of the reinstatement fee to the department.

(f) The fees established by and paid pursuant to this section shall be in lieu of the fees established by and paid pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 5001).

4128. An integrated intermodal small package carrier granted registration under this chapter shall display the identification number on all vehicles operated pursuant to the registration.

4128.5. (a) Any person or corporation who subhauls for an integrated intermodal small package carrier shall be a highway contract carrier.

(b) No integrated intermodal small package carrier may utilize subhaulers or otherwise directly or indirectly purchase transportation by motor vehicle to provide services for which registration is required under this chapter, if the total amount paid to all subhaulers or for the purchased transportation exceeds 10 percent of the gross intrastate revenue of the integrated intermodal small package carrier derived from transporting packages or articles described by Section 4120 in any calendar year.

4129. (a) The State of California and its agencies and political subdivisions are exempt from the registration requirements of this chapter.

(b) The United States and its agencies and instrumentalities are exempt from the registration requirements of this chapter.

Article 3. Insurance

4130. A permit to operate shall not be granted to an applicant until there is filed with and accepted by the commission, in the form that it prescribes, proof of protection against liability, as follows:

(a) A currently effective certificate of insurance or a surety bond issued by an admitted insurer evidencing protection against liability in an amount imposed by law for the payment of damages for personal injury to or death of any person or for property damage, or both; or evidence of a qualification of the applicant as a self-insurer for public liability and property damage as may be authorized by the commission under any applicable general orders of the commission.

(b) A currently effective certificate of insurance or surety bond issued by an admitted insurer evidencing protection against liability for the transportation and handling of hazardous materials as imposed by state law; or evidence of the qualification of the applicant as a self-insurer for liability for the transportation and handling of hazardous materials as may be authorized by the commission under any applicable general orders of the commission; or a statement made under penalty of perjury, stating that the applicant, in its operations as a motor carrier in this state, does not engage in the transportation or handling of hazardous materials and will not engage in the transportation or handling or hazardous materials without first obtaining and providing to the commission proof of protection against liability for the transportation and handling.

(c) A currently effective certificate of workers' compensation insurance coverage for the applicant's employees or a surety bond issued by an admitted insurer evidencing protection against liability in an amount imposed by the state's workers' compensation laws; or a certificate of consent to self-insure issued by the Director of Industrial Relations, and the identity of the administrator of the applicant's workers' compensation self-insurance plan; or a statement made under penalty of perjury, stating that the applicant, in its operations as a motor carrier in this state, does not employ any person in any manner so as to become subject to the workers' compensation laws of this state.

(d) Valid proof of protection against liability as required in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) shall be continued in force and effect by the applicant throughout the active life of the permit. If the protection against liability consists of one or more policies of insurance or surety bonds, no policy of insurance or surety bond shall be cancelable on less than 30 days' written notice to the commission, except in the event that the carrier ceases operations as a permitted carrier with approval of the commission. In no event shall the protection against liability for any of the harms enumerated in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) be less than the protection required for highway carriers subject to the jurisdiction of the commission. If a certificate of insurance or self-insurance or a statement under penalty of perjury as required in subdivision (a), (b), or (c) ceases to be effective, or if the circumstances underlying the certificate or statement under penalty of perjury change, a permitted carrier under Section 4125 shall promptly notify the commission of the changed circumstances and shall promptly submit updated proof of protection against liability as required by this section.

4131. Whenever the commission determines that the certificate of insurance or surety bond of an integrated intermodal small package carrier has lapsed or been terminated, the commission shall suspend the registration of the integrated intermodal small package carrier. The commission shall notify the integrated intermodal small package carrier of any action taken under this section.

4132. The commission shall reinstate the registration of an integrated intermodal small package carrier suspended pursuant to Section 4131 upon receipt of appropriate evidence of financial responsibility as determined by the commission.

Article 4. Enforcement

4135. Upon the receipt of a written determination from the department that an integrated intermodal small package carrier is engaged in unsafe operation, has failed the terminal inspection program or has failed to enroll its drivers in the pull notice program, the commission shall suspend the registration of the integrated intermodal small package carrier.

4136. (a) The commission shall determine that the department has complied with Section 4137 before suspending any registration pursuant to Section 4135.

(b) The commission shall notify the integrated intermodal small package carrier of any action taken pursuant to Section 4135.

(c) Whenever the commission suspends the registration of an integrated intermodal small package carrier pursuant to Section 4135, the commission shall furnish the carrier written notice of the suspension and shall hold a hearing within a reasonable time, not to exceed 21 days, after a written request therefore is filed with the commission.

(d) At the hearing, the carrier shall show cause why the suspension should not be continued. At the conclusion of the hearing, the commission may terminate the suspension, continue the suspension, or cancel the carrier's registration.

(e) The commission may cancel the registration of any carrier suspended pursuant to Section 4135 at any time 90 days or more after its suspension if the commission has not received a written recommendation for reinstatement from the department and the carrier has not filed a written request for a hearing with the commission.

4137. (a) Before transmitting a determination pursuant to Section 4135, the department shall notify in writing an integrated intermodal small package carrier at risk for suspension of all of the following:

(1) The department has determined that the carrier's safety record or compliance with safety requirements, including the terminal inspection program or the pull notice program, is unsatisfactory, furnishing a copy of any documentation supporting the determination.

(2) The determination may result in a suspension or cancellation of the carrier's registration by the commission.

(3) The carrier may request a review of the determination by the department within five days of its receipt of the notice required by this section.

(b) If a review is requested by the carrier, the department shall conduct and evaluate that review prior to transmitting the determination to the commission.

4138. (a) An integrated intermodal small package carrier whose registration is suspended pursuant to Section 4135 may obtain a reinspection of its terminal and vehicles by the department by submitting a written request for a reinspection to the department. The department shall perform a reinspection within a reasonable time, and shall transmit its recommendation for reinstatement to the commission, along with a statement of the costs of the reinspection.

(b) The commission shall promptly reinstate the registration of an integrated intermodal small package carrier suspended pursuant to Section 4135 upon receipt of a written recommendation of reinstatement from the department and payment of the reinstatement fee. The reinstatement fee shall include the department's costs.

4138.5. (a) Every carrier registered pursuant to Section 4125 shall furnish the commission annually as specified by the commission a list prepared under penalty of perjury of all vehicles used in transportation for compensation within this state during the preceding year. The commission shall furnish a copy of this list to the department and to the carrier's insurer, if the carrier's accident liability protection is provided by a policy of insurance.

(b) If the carrier's insurer informs the commission that the carrier has failed to obtain insurance coverage for any vehicle reported on the list, the commission may, in addition to any other applicable penalty provided in this chapter, for a first occurrence suspend the carrier's registration or impose a fine or both, and for a second and subsequent occurrence may suspend or revoke the carrier's registration or impose a fine or both.

4139. Any person who violates any provision of this chapter is guilty of an infraction and is punishable by a fine of not more than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) or by imprisonment in a county jail for not more three months for each day of unlawful operation, and in addition shall be liable for any unpaid registration and renewal fees imposed by Section 4127 during the period of unlawful operation, together with the costs of enforcement.

4140. The commission may bring an action for injunction to prevent operation of motor vehicles in violation of this chapter.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1227

An act to amend Sections 9351.3 and 9359.1 of, and to add Section 9355.41 to, the Government Code, and to amend Section 12900 of the Insurance Code, relating to insurance.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 9351.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

9351.3. "Legislator" means a Member of the Assembly or a Member of the Senate, an elective officer of the state whose office is provided by the Constitution, the Insurance Commissioner, or a legislative statutory officer.

SEC. 2. Section 9355.41 is added to the Government Code, to read:

9355.41. The Insurance Commissioner may become a member of this system as provided in this section. An Insurance Commissioner who is elected after January 1, 1994, may file an election within 90 days after the commencement of the term of office for which he or she is elected. Upon the filing of the election he or she becomes a member of this system on the first day of the month following the filing of the election.

SEC. 3. Section 9359.1 of the Government Code is amended to read:

9359.1. (a) The retirement allowance for a member all of whose credited service was rendered as a Member of the Senate or Assembly except as provided in subdivision (d) is an annual amount equal to five percent (5%) of the compensation payable, at the time payments of the allowance fall due, to incumbent Members of the Senate or Assembly, multiplied by the number of years of service with which the member is credited at the time of his or her retirement, not to exceed 15 years. In no event shall any retirement allowance payable under this chapter to any such member exceed the compensation payable to Members of the Legislature at the time the payment of the allowance is made, except that the retirement allowance of any such member who is credited with more than 15 years shall be increased by an amount equal to 3 percent of the compensation payable, at the time payment of the allowance falls due, to incumbent Members of the Senate or Assembly for each year or fraction of a year in excess of 15 years.

(b) The retirement allowance for a member all of whose credited service was rendered as the Insurance Commissioner or as an elective officer of the state whose office is provided for by the Constitution other than a judge (and other than a Member of the Senate or Assembly) the sum of (1) is an annual amount equal to five percent (5%) of the highest compensation received by the officer while serving in that office, multiplied by the number of years of service with which the member is credited at the time of his or her retirement, not to exceed eight (8) years, plus, if the member is credited with 24 or more years of service, (2) one and two-thirds percent (1⅔%) of the compensation to which the five percent (5%) rate is applicable under subparagraph (1) of this subdivision for his or her first eight years of credited service, multiplied by the number of years of service in excess of eight years with which the member is credited at the time of his or her retirement, not to exceed 12 years of such credited service in excess of the eight years of service referred to in subparagraph (1) of this subdivision.

(c) The retirement allowance for a member part of whose credited service was rendered as a Member of the Senate or Assembly and part of whose credited service was rendered as the Insurance Commissioner or as an elective officer of the state whose office is provided for by the Constitution, other than a judge (and other than a Member of the Senate or Assembly) is the sum of (1) an annual amount equal to five percent (5%) of all the compensation, at the time payment of the allowance falls due, to the officer holding the highest salaried office which the member held at any time during his or her service prior to retirement, multiplied by the number of years of service with which the member is credited at the time of his or her retirement, not to exceed eight (8) years, plus, if the member is credited with 24 or more years of service, (2) one and two-thirds percent (1⅔%) of the compensation to which the five percent (5%) rate is applicable under subparagraph (1) of this subdivision for his or her first eight years of credited service, multiplied by the number of years of service rendered as the Insurance Commissioner or as an elective officer of the state whose office is provided for by the Constitution, other than a judge and other than a Member of the Senate or Assembly, with which the member is credited at the time of his or her retirement, not to exceed 12 years of that credited service in excess of the eight years referred to in subparagraph (1) of this subdivision. If, however, the member would be entitled to receive a greater allowance under subdivision (a), (b), or (d) of this section if all of his or her credited service had been rendered as a Member of the Senate or Assembly or as the Insurance Commissioner or as an elective officer of the state whose office is provided for by the Constitution other than a judge (and other than a Member of the Senate or Assembly), then all of his or her credited service shall be deemed to have been rendered as a Member of the Senate or Assembly or as such other elective officer, and he or she shall receive a retirement allowance computed under subdivision (a), (b), or (d) of this section, whichever is greater.

(d) The retirement allowance for a member, all of whose service was rendered as a Member of the Senate or Assembly, who is the surviving spouse of a deceased Member of the Senate or Assembly and who becomes the immediate successor in office of such deceased Member of the Senate or Assembly is an annual amount equal to five percent (5%) of the compensation payable, at the time the payments of the allowance fall due, to incumbent Members of the Senate or Assembly, multiplied by the number of years of service with which the member is credited at the time of retirement plus the number of years of service as a Member of the Senate or Assembly rendered by the member's deceased husband or wife plus any period in the term, for which the deceased member was elected, following his or her death, not to exceed 15 years. In no event shall any retirement allowance payable under this chapter to any such member exceed the compensation payable to Members of the Legislature at the time the payment of the allowance is made, except that the retirement allowance of any such member, whose total service creditable under this subdivision is in excess of 15 years, shall be increased by an amount equal to 3 percent of the compensation payable, at the time payment of the allowance falls due, to incumbent Members of the Senate or Assembly for each year or fraction of a year in excess of 15 years. This same computation of total service creditable shall be used as a basis in determining eligibility for retirement, under Sections 9359 and 9359.16, of a member described in this subdivision. Any member to whom this subdivision applies shall redeposit an amount equal to the contributions which were required to be contributed by his or her deceased spouse while he or she was a member of the system for his or her service, computed on the basis of the salary and rate of contribution in effect at the time such service was rendered, or would have been rendered, in the Legislators' Retirement Fund on account of the service of his or her deceased spouse in order to use such service for the purposes of this section and Sections 9359 and 9359.16.

The amendments to this section enacted at the 1969 Regular Session shall apply with respect to any member who retired or retires, or died or dies while eligible to retire on or after May 1, 1969, and any allowance payable with respect to such a member who retired or died prior to the effective date of such amendment, shall be adjusted effective from the date of retirement or death to the amount it would have been had the amendment been in effect on that date.

The provisions of Sections 9359.11 and 9359.12 shall control over any conflicting provisions of this section.

The amendments to this section during the 1973–74 Second Extraordinary Session shall not be applicable to members who are retired on the effective date of the amendments.

SEC. 4. Section 12900 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12900. (a) The commissioner shall be elected by the people in the same time, place, and manner as the Governor not to exceed two four-year terms.

(b) Should a vacancy occur during the term of office, legislative confirmation shall be required for the position of commissioner in the same manner and procedure as that required by Section 5 of Article V of the California Constitution.

SEC. 5. The term limitations provided for pursuant to the amendments to Section 12900 of the Insurance Code, as contained in Section 4 of this act, shall apply only to terms beginning on or after January 1, 1995.

CHAPTER 1228

An act to add and repeal Article 10 (commencing with Section 18811) of Chapter 3 of Part 10.2 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Article 10 (commencing with Section 18811) is added to Chapter 3 of Part 10.2 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

Article 10. Designations to the California Public School Library Protection Fund

18811. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) School libraries are an integral part of a public school, teaching students basic library skills and setting students out on the path to lifelong learning. California has the worst ratio of librarians to pupils in the nation. The ratio is 600 librarians for 5 million public school students—one for every 8,000 pupils. In California, 68 percent of the schools with a library did not have a fully credentialed librarian. In contrast, in the rest of the nation, only 21 percent of the schools did not have a fully credentialed librarian. Because of budget cuts, university libraries are also closing their doors to high school students. This means pupils are graduating without the ability to identify resources and get information from a public library.

(b) Adequate and up-to-date resource materials are the foundation of a school library. According to a 1987 study of California's public school libraries conducted by the State Department of Education, entitled "The Crisis in California School Libraries—A Special Study," many library collections were extremely out-of-date with 85 percent of nonfiction books copyrighted 10 years ago and 40 percent copyrighted at least 20 years ago. An average of only four dollars and seventy-six cents ($4.76) per pupil is spent for new and replacement library books in California.

(c) For the last two years, school districts have eliminated public school librarians, resorting to volunteers and noncredentialed employees, so that almost no elementary school has a school librarian. This trend is now showing up at the high school level. Funding for library books and technology has been reduced or eliminated.

(d) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this article to begin to reverse these trends and to provide a dedicated source of funding for K-12 public school libraries to purchase books and library media technology and to halt the elimination of credentialed librarian positions.

18812. (a) Any taxpayer may designate on the tax return that a contribution in excess of the tax liability, if any, be made to the California Public School Library Protection Fund, which is established by Section 18813. That designation is to be used as a voluntary checkoff on the tax return.

(b) The contributions shall be in full dollar amounts and may be made individually by each signatory on the joint return.

(c) A designation shall be made for any taxable year on the initial return for that taxable year, and once made shall be irrevocable. In the event that payments and credits reported on the return, together with any other credits associated with the taxpayer's account, do not exceed the taxpayer's liability, the return shall be treated as though no designation has been made. In the event that no designee is specified, the contribution shall be transferred to the General Fund, after reimbursement of the direct actual costs of the Franchise Tax

Board for the collection and the administration of funds under this article.

(d) In the event a taxpayer designates a contribution to more than one account or fund listed on the tax return, and the amount available for designation is insufficient to satisfy the total amount designated, the contribution shall be allocated among the designees on a pro rata basis.

(e) The Franchise Tax Board shall revise the forms of the return to include a space labeled the "California Public School Library Protection Fund" to allow for the designation permitted. The forms shall also include in the instructions information that the contribution may be in the amount of one dollar ($1) or more and that the contribution shall be used to purchase books and library media technology for schools as described in Sections 18177 and 18178 of the Education Code.

(f) A deduction shall be allowed under Article 6 (commencing with Section 17201) of Chapter 3 of Part 10 for any contribution made pursuant to subdivision (a).

18813. There is in the State Treasury the California Public School Library Protection Fund to receive contributions made pursuant to Section 18812. The Franchise Tax Board shall notify the Controller of both the amount of money paid by taxpayers in excess of their tax liability and the amount of refund money which taxpayers have designated pursuant to Section 18812 to be transferred to the California Public School Library Protection Fund. The Controller shall transfer from the Personal Income Tax Fund to the California Public School Library Protection Fund an amount not in excess of the sum of the amounts designated by individuals pursuant to Section 18812 for payment into that fund. It is the intent of the Legislature that the 1993 tax return include a space for the California Public School Library Protection Fund.

18814. All money transferred to the California Public School Library Protection Fund, upon appropriation by the Legislature, shall be allocated as follows:

(a) To the Franchise Tax Board and the Controller for reimbursement of all costs incurred by the Franchise Tax Board and the Controller in connection with their duties under this article.

(b) To the State Department of Education. These funds shall be expended for the purchase of books and library media technology through grants awarded to schools pursuant to Sections 18177 and 18178 of the Education Code, and for the payment of related administrative costs of the department.

18816. (a) This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed.

(b) If, in any calendar year, the Franchise Tax Board estimates by September 1 that contributions described in this article made on returns filed in that calendar year will be less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), or the adjusted amount specified in subdivision (c), as may be applicable, then this article is repealed with respect to taxable years beginning on and after January 1 of that calendar year. The Franchise Tax Board shall estimate the annual contribution amount by September 1 of each year using the actual amounts known to be contributed and an estimate of the remaining year's contributions.

(c) For each calendar year, beginning with calendar year 1994, the Franchise Tax Board shall adjust, on or before September 1 of that calendar year, the minimum estimated contribution amount specified in subdivision (b) as follows:

(1) The minimum estimated contribution amount for the calendar year shall be an amount equal to the product of the minimum estimated contribution amount for the prior September 1 multiplied by the inflation factor adjustment as specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041, rounded off to the nearest dollar.

(2) The inflation factor adjustment used for the calendar year shall be based on the figures for the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index received on or before August 1 of the calendar year pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) of Section 17041.

(d) Notwithstanding the repeal of this article, any contribution amounts designated pursuant to this article prior to its repeal shall continue to be transferred and disbursed in accordance with this article as in effect immediately prior to that repeal.

SEC. 2. This bill shall become operative only if Assembly Bill 323 is enacted and becomes effective on or before January 1, 1994.

CHAPTER 1229

An act to amend Sections 6240 and 6256 of the Family Code, and to amend Section 13700 of the Penal Code, relating to domestic violence.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6240 of the Family Code, as added by Section 154 of Chapter 219 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

6240. As used in this part:

(a) "Judicial officer" means a judge, commissioner, or referee designated under Section 6241.

(b) "Law enforcement officer" means one of the following officers who requests or enforces an emergency protective order under this part:

(1) A police officer.

(2) A sheriff's officer.

(3) A peace officer of the California Highway Patrol.

(4) A peace officer of the California State Police.

(5) A peace officer of the University of California Police Department.

(6) A peace officer of the California State University and College Police Departments.

(7) A peace officer of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 830.2 of the Penal Code.

(8) A housing authority patrol officer, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 830.31 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 2. Section 6256 of the Family Code, as added by Section 154 of Chapter 219 of the Statutes of 1993, is amended to read:

6256. An emergency protective order expires at the earlier of the following times:

(a) The close of judicial business on the fifth court day following the day of its issuance.

(b) The seventh calendar day following the day of its issuance.

SEC. 3. Section 13700 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13700. As used in this title:

(a) "Abuse" means intentionally or recklessly causing or attempting to cause bodily injury, or placing another person in reasonable apprehension of imminent serious bodily injury to himself or herself, or another.

(b) "Domestic violence" is abuse committed against an adult or a fully emancipated minor who is a spouse, former spouse, cohabitant, former cohabitant, or person with whom the suspect has had a child or is having or has had a dating or engagement relationship.

(c) "Officer" means any officer or employee of a local police department or sheriff's office, and any peace officer of the California Highway Patrol, the California State Police, the Department of Parks and Recreation, the University of California Police Department, or the California State University and College Police Departments, as defined in Section 830.2, or a housing authority patrol officer, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 830.31.

(d) "Victim" means a person who is a victim of domestic violence.

SEC. 4. Section 13700 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13700. As used in this title:

(a) "Abuse" means intentionally or recklessly causing or attempting to cause bodily injury, or placing another person in reasonable apprehension of imminent serious bodily injury to himself or herself, or another.

(b) "Domestic violence" means abuse committed against an adult or a fully emancipated minor who is a spouse, former spouse, person with whom the suspect is having or has had a consensual sexual relationship , person with whom the suspect lives or has lived, or person with whom the suspect has had a child or is having or has had a dating or engagement relationship.

(c) "Officer" means any officer or employee of a local police department or sheriff's office, and any peace officer of the California Highway Patrol, the California State Police, the Department of Parks and Recreation, the University of California Police Department, or the California State University and College Police Departments, as defined in Section 830.2, or a housing authority patrol officer, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 830.31.

(d) "Victim" means a person who is a victim of domestic violence.

SEC. 5. Section 4 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 13700 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2250. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1994, (2) each bill amends Section 13700 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2250, in which case Section 3 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1230

An act to amend Sections 13700 and 13730 of the Penal Code, relating to domestic violence.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 13700 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13700. As used in this title:

(a) "Abuse" means intentionally or recklessly causing or attempting to cause bodily injury, or placing another person in reasonable apprehension of imminent serious bodily injury to himself or herself, or another.

(b) "Domestic violence" means abuse committed against an adult or a fully emancipated minor who is a spouse, former spouse, cohabitant, former cohabitant, or person with whom the suspect has had a child or is having or has had a dating or engagement relationship. For purposes of this subdivision, "cohabitant" means two unrelated adult persons living together for a substantial period of time, resulting in some permanency of relationship. Factors that may determine whether persons are cohabiting include, but are not limited to, (1) sexual relations between the parties while sharing the same living quarters, (2) sharing of income or expenses, (3) joint use or ownership of property, (4) whether the parties hold themselves out as husband and wife, (5) the continuity of the relationship, and (6) the length of the relationship.

(c) "Officer" means any officer or employee of a local police department or sheriff's office, any peace officer of the Department of Parks and Recreation, as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 830.2, any peace officer of the University of California Police Department, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 830.2, or any peace officer of the California State University Police Department, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 830.2.

(d) "Victim" means a person who is a victim of domestic violence.

SEC. 1.5. Section 13700 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13700. As used in this title:

(a) "Abuse" means intentionally or recklessly causing or attempting to cause bodily injury, or placing another person in reasonable apprehension of imminent serious bodily injury to himself or herself, or another.

(b) "Domestic violence" means abuse committed against an adult or a fully emancipated minor who is a spouse, former spouse, cohabitant, former cohabitant, or person with whom the suspect has had a child or is having or has had a dating or engagement relationship. For purposes of this subdivision, "cohabitant" means two unrelated adult persons living together for a substantial period of time, resulting in some permanency of relationship. Factors that may determine whether persons are cohabiting include, but are not limited to, (1) sexual relations between the parties while sharing the same living quarters, (2) sharing of income or expenses, (3) joint use or ownership of property, (4) whether the parties hold themselves out as husband and wife, (5) the continuity of the relationship, and (6) the length of the relationship.

(c) "Officer" means any officer or employee of a local police department or sheriff's office, and any peace officer of the California Highway Patrol, the California State Police, the Department of Parks and Recreation, the University of California Police Department, or the California State University and College Police Departments, as defined in Section 830.2, or a housing authority patrol officer, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 830.31.

(d) "Victim" means a person who is a victim of domestic violence.

SEC. 2. Section 13730 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

13730. (a) Each law enforcement agency shall develop a system, by January 1, 1986, for recording all domestic violence-related calls for assistance made to the department including whether weapons are involved. All domestic violence-related calls for assistance shall be supported with a written incident report, as described in subdivision (c), identifying the domestic violence incident. Monthly, the total number of domestic violence calls received and the numbers of those cases involving weapons shall be compiled by each law enforcement agency and submitted to the Attorney General.

(b) The Attorney General shall report annually to the Governor, the Legislature, and the public the total number of domestic violence-related calls received by California law enforcement agencies, the number of cases involving weapons, and a breakdown of calls received by agency, city, and county.

(c) Each law enforcement agency shall develop an incident report form that includes a domestic violence identification code by January 1, 1986. In all incidents of domestic violence, a report shall be written and shall be thus identified on the face of the report as a domestic violence incident.

SEC. 3. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 13700 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 224. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on January 1, 1994, (2) each bill amends Section 13700 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 224, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1231

An act to add Section 10607.5 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to public social services.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 10607.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

10607.5. (a) In order to better inform the public as to the range of social services available to aid children and their families, and to provide a concise summary of programs caseworkers may access to aid clients, the State Department of Social Services shall prepare a guide to all programs administered by county departments of social services for children and their families, and that are regulated by the State Department of Social Services. This guide shall include brief descriptions of programs and succinct summaries of their eligibility requirements for all programs available on a statewide basis or in at least two counties. The guide shall not exceed five letter-sized pages. It is not the intent of the Legislature that the guide be a comprehensive training manual for social workers. The guide shall, therefore, be written in language tailored for comprehension by the general public. The guide shall be updated on an annual basis.

(b) The State Department of Social Services shall provide one master copy of the guide, prepared pursuant to subdivision (a), to each county department of social services office that serves children and their families. The State Department of Social Services and county social services departments may make copies of the guide available to members of the public upon request on a fee-for-service basis, provided that the fee shall not exceed the cost of duplication and mailing.

CHAPTER 1232

An act to amend Sections 9765 and 9784 of, and to add Section 9720 to, the Business and Professions Code, and to amend Sections 7002, 7009, 7010, 7011, 7051, 7051.5, 7052, 7054.1, 7054.7, 7100, 7110, 7111, 7112, and 8341 of, and to add Sections 7006.3, 7006.5, 7006.7, 7010.3, 7010.5, 7010.7, 7011.2, 7025, 8112, 8343, 8344, 8344.5, 8345, 8345.5, 8346, 8346.5, and 8347 to, the Health and Safety Code, relating to human remains, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares that lack of well-defined operational standards for the cremation of human remains has contributed to uncertainties regarding all of the following:

(a) The degree to which human remains can be legally commingled during cremation.

(b) The responsibility of the crematory for materials that are foreign to the human body.

(c) The extent of procedures necessary to ensure that human remains are properly identified throughout the cremation process. Therefore, the Legislature enacts the Cremation Standards Act to define the responsibilities of a crematory and to ensure that the rights and expectations of the public are protected.

SEC. 2. Section 9720 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

9720. The board shall annually conduct a minimum of one unannounced inspection of each licensed crematory.

SEC. 3. Section 9765 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9765. Every cemetery authority operating a cemetery shall pay an annual regulatory charge for each cemetery to be fixed by the board at not more than four hundred dollars ($400), plus an additional charge of not more than fifty cents ($.50) for each burial, entombment, or inurnment, and not more than one dollar ($1) for each cremation, made during the preceding full calendar year, which charges shall be deposited in the Cemetery Fund. If the cemetery authority performed the cremation and either the burial, entombment, or inurnment then there shall only be one additional charge due.

SEC. 4. Section 9784 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

9784. No crematory licensee under this article shall conduct any cremations:

(a) Unless the licensee has a written contract with the person or persons entitled to custody of the remains clearly stating the location, manner, and time of disposition to be made of the remains, agreeing to pay the regular fees of the licensee for cremation, disposition, and other services rendered, and any other contractual provisions as may be required by the board.

(b) Of any remains more than 24 hours after delivery of the remains, unless the remains have been preserved in the interim by refrigeration or embalming.

(c) Unless the licensee has a contractual relationship with a licensed cemetery authority for final disposition of cremated human remains by burial, entombment or inurnment of any and all remains which are not lawfully disposed of or which are not called for or accepted by the person or persons entitled to the custody and control of the disposition thereof within 90 days of the date of death.

SEC. 5. Section 7002 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

7002. "Cremated remains" means human remains after cremation in a crematory.

SEC. 6. Section 7006.3 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

7006.3. "Cremation chamber" means the enclosed space within which the cremation of human remains is performed.

SEC. 7. Section 7006.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

7006.5. "Cremation container" means a combustible, closed container resistant to leakage of bodily fluids into which the body of a deceased person is placed prior to insertion in a cremation chamber for cremation.

SEC. 8. Section 7006.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

7006.7. "Cremated remains container" means a receptacle in which cremated remains are placed after cremation.

SEC. 9. Section 7009 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

7009. "Interment" means the disposition of human remains by entombment or burial in a cemetery or, in the case of cremated remains, by inurnment, placement or burial in a cemetery, or burial at sea as provided in Section 7117.

SEC. 10. Section 7010 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

7010. "Cremation" means the combination of all of the following:

(a) The reduction of the body of a deceased human to its essential elements by incineration.

(b) The repositioning or movement of the body or remains during incineration to facilitate the process.

(c) The processing of the remains after removal from the cremation chamber.

SEC. 11. Section 7010.3 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

7010.3. "Processing" means the removal of foreign objects, pursuant to Section 7051, and the reduction of the particle size of cremated remains by mechanical means including, but not limited to, grinding, crushing, and pulverizing to a consistency appropriate for disposition.

SEC. 12. Section 7010.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

7010.5. "Residue" means human ashes, bone fragments, prostheses, and disintegrated material from the chamber itself, imbedded in cracks and uneven spaces of a cremation chamber, that cannot be removed through reasonable manual contact with sweeping or scraping equipment. Material left in the cremation chamber, after the completion of a cremation, that can be reasonably removed shall be considered to be in excess of "residue."

SEC. 13. Section 7010.7 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

7010.7. "Scattering" means the authorized dispersal of cremated remains at sea, or commingling in a defined area within a dedicated cemetery, in accordance with this chapter.

SEC. 14. Section 7011 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

7011. "Inurnment" means placing cremated remains in a cremated remains container suitable for placement, burial, or shipment.

SEC. 15. Section 7011.2 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

7011.2. "Placement" means the placing of a container holding cremated remains in a crypt, vault, or niche.

SEC. 16. Section 7025 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

7025. "Disposition" means the interment of human remains within California, or the shipment outside of California, for lawful interment or scattering elsewhere, including release of remains pursuant to Section 10376.5.

SEC. 17. Section 7051 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

7051. Every person who removes any part of any human remains from any place where it has been interred, or from any place where it is deposited while awaiting interment or cremation, with intent to sell it or to dissect it, without authority of law, or written permission of the person or persons having the right to control the remains under Section 7100, or with malice or wantonness, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison.

This section shall not prohibit the removal of foreign materials, pacemakers, or prostheses from cremated remains by an employee of a licensed crematory prior to final processing of ashes. Dental gold or silver, jewelry, or mementos, to the extent that they can be identified, may be removed by the employee prior to final processing if the equipment is such that it will not process these materials. However, any dental gold and silver, jewelry, or mementos that are removed shall be returned to the urn or cremation container, unless otherwise directed by the person or persons having the right to control the disposition.

SEC. 18. Section 7051.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

7051.5. Every person who removes or possesses dental gold or silver, jewelry, or mementos from any human remains without specific written permission of the person or persons having the right to control those remains under Section 7100 is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison. The fact that residue and any unavoidable dental gold or dental silver, or other precious metals remain in the cremation chamber or other equipment or any container used in a prior cremation is not a violation of this section.

SEC. 19. Section 7052 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

7052. Every person who willfully mutilates, disinters, or removes from the place of interment any human remains, without authority of law, is guilty of a felony. This section does not apply to any person who, under authority of law, removes the remains for reinterment, or performs a cremation.

SEC. 20. Section 7054.1 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

7054.1. No cremated remains shall be removed from the place of cremation, nor shall there be any charge for the cremation, unless the cremated remains have been processed so that they are suitable for placement within a cremated remains container or an urn. Every contract for cremation services shall include specific written notification of the processing to the person having the right to control the disposition of the remains under Section 7100.

SEC. 21. Section 7054.7 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

7054.7. (a) Except with the express written permission of the person entitled to control the disposition of the remains, no person shall:

(1) Cremate the remains of more than one person at the same time in the same cremation chamber, or introduce the remains of a second person into a cremation chamber until incineration of any preceding remains has been terminated and reasonable efforts have been employed to remove all fragments of the preceding remains. The fact that there is residue in the cremation chamber or other equipment or any container used in a prior cremation is not a violation of this section.

(2) Dispose of or scatter cremated remains in a manner or in a location that the remains are commingled with those of another person. This paragraph shall not apply to the burial of cremated remains at sea from individual containers, to the scattering or burial of cremated remains in a dedicated cemetery, or to the disposal in a dedicated cemetery of accumulated residue removed from a cremation chamber or other cremation equipment.

(3) Place cremated or uncremated remains of more than one person in the same container or the same interment space. This paragraph shall not apply to the following:

(A) Interment of members of the same family in a common container designed for the cremated remains of more than one person.

(B) Interment in a space or container that has been previously designated at the time of sale as being intended for the interment of remains of more than one person.

(C) Disposal in a dedicated cemetery of residue removed from a cremation chamber or other cremation equipment.

(b) Written acknowledgement from the person entitled to control the disposition of the cremated remains shall be obtained by the person with whom arrangements are made for disposition of the remains on a form that includes, but is not limited to, the following information: "The human body burns with the casket, container, or other material in the cremation chamber. Some bone fragments are not combustible at the incineration temperature and, as a result, remain in the cremation chamber. During the cremation, the contents of the chamber may be moved to facilitate incineration. The chamber is composed of ceramic or other material which disintegrates slightly during each cremation and the product of that disintegration is commingled with the cremated remains. Nearly all of the contents of the cremation chamber, consisting of the cremated remains, disintegrated chamber material, and small amounts of residue from previous cremations, are removed together and crushed, pulverized, or ground to facilitate inurnment or scattering. Some residue remains in the cracks and uneven places of the chamber. Periodically, the accumulation of this residue is removed and interred in a dedicated cemetery property, or scattered at sea." The acknowledgment shall be filed and retained, for at least five years, by the person who disposes of or inters the remains.

(c) Any person, including any corporation or partnership, knowingly violating any provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 22. Section 7100 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

7100. (a) The right to control the disposition of the remains of a deceased person, including the location and conditions of interment, unless other directions have been given by the decedent, vests in, and the duty of interment and the liability for the reasonable cost of interment of the remains devolves upon the following in the order named:

(1) The surviving spouse.

(2) The surviving child or children of the decedent, provided that, in the absence of actual knowledge to the contrary, a funeral director or cemetery authority may rely on instruction given by a child or children who represent (A) that they are the sole surviving child or children; (B) that they constitute a majority of the surviving children; or (C) that they have used reasonable efforts to notify all other surviving children of their instructions and are not aware of any opposition to those instructions on the part of one-half or more of all surviving children.

(3) The surviving parent or parents of the decedent.

(4) The person or persons respectively in the next degrees of kindred.

(5) The public administrator when the deceased has sufficient assets.

(b) A funeral director or cemetery authority shall have complete authority to control the disposition of the remains, and to proceed under this chapter to recover usual and customary charges for the disposition, when both of the following apply:

(1) Either of the following applies:

(A) The funeral director or cemetery authority has knowledge that none of the persons described in paragraphs (1) to (4) of subdivision (a) exists.

(B) None of the persons described in paragraphs (1) to (4) of subdivision (a) can be found after reasonable inquiry, or contacted by reasonable means.

(2) The public administrator fails to assume responsibility for disposition of the remains within 24 hours after having been given written notice of the facts. Written notice may be delivered by hand, U.S. mail, facsimile transmission, or telegraph.

(c) The liability for the reasonable cost of final disposition devolves jointly and severally upon all kin of the decedent in the same degree of kindred and upon the estate of the decedent; provided, that should a person accept the gift of an entire body under subdivision (a) of Section 7155.5, that person, subject to the terms of the gift, shall be liable for the reasonable cost of final disposition of the decedent.

(d) (1) A decedent, prior to his death, may direct the preparation for, type, or place of interment of his remains, either by oral or written instructions, but a written contract for funeral services may only be modified in writing. The person or persons otherwise entitled to control the disposition of the remains under the provisions of this section shall faithfully carry out the directions of the decedent subject only to the provisions of this chapter with respect to the duties of the coroner.

(2) If the instructions are contained in a will, they shall be immediately carried out, regardless of the validity of the will in other respects or of the fact that the will may not be offered for or admitted to probate until a later date.

(e) This section shall be administered and construed to the end that the expressed instructions of the decedent or the person entitled to control the disposition shall be faithfully and promptly performed.

(f) A funeral director or cemetery authority shall not be liable to any person or persons for carrying out the instructions of the decedent or the person entitled to control the disposition.

SEC. 23. Section 7110 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

7110. Any person signing any authorization for the interment or cremation of any remains warrants the truthfulness of any fact set forth in the authorization, the identity of the person whose remains are sought to be interred or cremated, and his or her authority to order interment or cremation. He or she is personally liable for all damage occasioned by or resulting from breach of such warranty.

SEC. 24. Section 7111 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

7111. A cemetery authority may make an interment or cremation of any remains upon the receipt of a written authorization of a person representing himself or herself to be a person having the right to control the disposition of the remains pursuant to Section 7100.

A cemetery authority is not liable for cremating, making an interment, or for other disposition of remains permitted by law, pursuant to that authorization, unless it has actual notice that the representation is untrue.

SEC. 25. Section 7112 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

7112. No action shall lie against any cemetery authority relating to the cremated remains of any person which have been left in its possession for a period of one year, unless a written contract has been entered into with the cemetery authority for their care or unless permanent interment has been made.

No licensed funeral director shall be liable in damages for the lawful disposition of any cremated human remains.

SEC. 26. Section 8112 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

8112. Records required to be kept under Division 7 (commencing with Section 7000) or this division may be kept in original form or by photocopy, microfilm, microfiche, laser disc, or any other method that can produce an accurate reproduction of the original record.

SEC. 27. Section 8341 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

8341. All cremated remains not disposed of in accordance with this chapter, within one year, shall be interred.

SEC. 28. Section 8343 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

8343. A crematory shall maintain on its premises, or other business location within the State of California, an accurate record of all cremations performed, including all of the following information:

(a) Name of referring funeral director, if any.

(b) Name of deceased.

(c) Date of cremation.

(d) Name of cremation chamber operator.

(e) Time and date that body was inserted in cremation chamber.

(f) Time and date that body was removed from cremation chamber.

(g) Time and date that final processing of cremated remains was completed.

(h) Disposition of cremated remains.

(i) Name and address of authorizing agent.

(j) The identification number assigned to the deceased pursuant to Section 8344.

(k) A photocopy of the disposition permit filed in connection with the disposition.

This information shall be maintained for at least 10 years after the cremation is performed and shall be subject to inspection by the Cemetery Board.

SEC. 29. Section 8344 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

8344. A crematory shall maintain an identification system allowing identification of each decedent beginning from the time the crematory accepts delivery of human remains until the point at which it releases the cremated remains to a third party. After cremation, an identifying disk, tab, or other permanent label shall be placed within the urn or cremated remains container before the cremated remains are released from the crematory. Each identification disk, tab, or label shall have a unique number that shall be recorded on all paperwork regarding the decedent's case and in the crematory log. Each crematory shall maintain a written procedure for identification of remains.

On or after March 1, 1994, any crematory that fails, when requested by an official of the board to produce a written procedure for identification of remains, shall have 15 working days from the time of the request to produce an identification procedure for review by the Executive Officer of the Cemetery Board. The license of the crematory shall be suspended pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, if no identification procedure is produced for review after 15 working days have elapsed.

SEC. 30. Section 8344.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

8344.5. A crematory regulated by the Cemetery Board shall knowingly cremate only human remains in cremation chambers, along with the cremation container and no more than a negligible amount of chlorinated plastic pouches utilized for disease control when necessary.

SEC. 31. Section 8345 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

8345. If a cremated remains container is of insufficient capacity to accommodate all cremated remains of a given deceased, the crematory shall provide a larger cremated remains container at no additional cost, or place the excess remains in a secondary cremated remains container and attach the second container, in a manner so as not to be easily detached through incidental contact, to the primary cremated remains container for interment, scattering, or other disposition by the person entitled to control the disposition.

SEC. 32. Section 8345.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

8345.5. A crematory shall not accept human remains for cremation unless the remains meet all of the following requirements:

(a) The remains shall be in a cremation container, as defined.

(b) The cremation container shall be labeled with the identity of the decedent.

SEC. 33. Section 8346 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

8346. Within two hours after a crematory licensed by the State of California, takes custody of a body, it shall store the body at a temperature not greater than 50 degrees Fahrenheit unless the cremation process will begin within 24 hours of the time that crematory took custody.

SEC. 34. Section 8346.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

8346.5. Every crematory operator, or duly authorized representative shall provide to any person who inquires in person, a written, or printed list of prices for cremation and storage, cremation containers, cremated remains containers and urns, and requirements for cremation containers. This information shall be provided over the telephone when requested. Commencing July 1, 1994, any written or printed list shall identify the crematorium and shall contain, at a minimum, the current address and phone number of the Cemetery Board in 8-point boldface type, or larger.

SEC. 35. Section 8347 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

8347. (a) The crematory licensee, or his or her authorized representative shall provide instruction to all crematory personnel involved in the cremation process. This instruction shall lead to a demonstrated knowledge on the part of an employee regarding identification procedures used during cremation, operation of the cremation chamber and processing equipment and all laws relevant to the handling of a body and cremated remains. This instruction shall be outlined in a written plan maintained by the crematory licensee for inspection and comment by an inspector of the Cemetery Board.

(b) No employee shall be allowed to operate any cremation equipment until he or she has demonstrated to the licensee or authorized representative that he or she understands procedures required to ensure that health and safety conditions are maintained at the crematory and that cremated remains are not commingled other than for acceptable residue, as defined. The crematory licensee shall maintain a record to document that an employee has received the training specified in this section.

(c) On or after March 1, 1994, any crematory that fails, when requested by an official of the board, to produce a written employee instruction plan, or record of employee training for inspection, shall have 15 working days from the time of the request to produce a plan or training record for review by the executive officer of the Cemetery Board. The license of the crematory shall be suspended, pursuant to Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, if no plan or training record is produced for review after 15 working days have elapsed.

SEC. 36. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1233

An act to amend Section 2884.2 of, and to add Article 4 (commencing with Section 2895) to Chapter 10 of Part 2 of Division 1 of, the Public Utilities Code, relating to telecommunications.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2884.2 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

2884.2. (a) Except as specified in subdivision (b), the billing and collection practices of a telephone corporation for services rendered to or for an information service that contains harmful matter, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 313 of the Penal Code, are not subject to the jurisdiction and control of the commission, notwithstanding Section 2884, but are a matter for contractual arrangement between the telephone corporation and the information provider.

(b) Nothing in subdivision (a) affects the commission's jurisdiction over billing and collection for any other information service.

(c) The commission may, on complaint or on its own motion, after a hearing, find and determine that circumstances including, but not limited to, anticompetitive results, require the exercise of jurisdiction and control by it over those matters removed from its jurisdiction and control by subdivision (a), and may then exercise that jurisdiction and control.

(d) Subdivision (a) applies only to that class of information-access telephone service furnished within or between service areas, as defined in Section 230.3, through the use of either a "976" prefix or a "900" access code telephone number, and applies only to billing and collection services in that class of service.

(e) The commission shall prepare and submit to the Legislature, on or before January 1, 1990, and annually thereafter, a report on all of the following:

(1) Any anticompetitive effects it finds and determines to have resulted from the implementation of this section.

(2) Any significant proposals for further deregulation made to the commission based on this section.

(3) The commission's findings and recommendations concerning the effectiveness and continuing need for this section.

(f) The commission may investigate and consider, for purposes of establishing telephone rates, revenues and expenses related to any billing or collection services rendered by a telephone corporation to or for an information provider.

(g) A telephone corporation shall, before refusing to provide billing and collection services for any information service, give the information provider of that service and the commission not less than 30 days' advance notice.

(h) If a telephone corporation elects to enter into a contractual arrangement to provide billing and collection services to an information provider, the telephone corporation shall provide those services to the information provider under the same terms, conditions, and rates that the service is offered to all other information providers contracting for the services. The telephone corporation shall provide copies of the contracts to the commission and, on request, to any other interested party.

(i) Notwithstanding Section 17024 of the Business and Professions Code, billing and collection services described in subdivision (a) are services subject to Part 2 (commencing with Section 16600) of Division 7 of that code. A person or firm claiming a violation of Section 17045 of that code, with respect to those services, may proceed in accordance with Article 4 (commencing with Section 17070) of Chapter 4 of Part 2 of Division 7 of that code, or pursue any other remedy available under law.

(j) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1995, and, as of January 1, 1996, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1996, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 2. Article 4 (commencing with Section 2895) is added to Chapter 10 of Part 2 of Division 1 of the Public Utilities Code, to read:

Article 4. Telecommunication Services

2895. This article shall be known and may be cited as the Telecommunications Customer Service Act of 1993.

2896. The commission shall require telephone corporations to provide customer service to telecommunication customers that includes, but is not limited to, all the following:

(a) Sufficient information upon which to make informed choices among telecommunications services and providers. This includes, but is not limited to, information regarding the provider's identity, service options, pricing, and terms and conditions of service. A provider need only provide information to its customers on the services which it offers.

(b) Ability to access a live operator by dialing the numeral "0" as an available, free option. The commission may authorize rates and charges for any operator assistance service provided subsequent to access.

(c) Reasonable statewide service quality standards, including, but not limited to, standards regarding network technical quality, customer service, installation, repair, and billing.

(d) Information concerning the regulatory process and how customers can participate in that process, including the process of resolving complaints.

2897. Consistent with other provisions of this code, orders, rules, and applicable tariffs of telecommunications service providers, the commission shall apply these policies to all providers of telecommunications services in California. These policies are not exclusive and may be supplemented by the commission.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs which may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, changes the definition of a crime or infraction, changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, or eliminates a crime or infraction. Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified in this act, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1234

An act to amend Sections 2089, 2191, 2736.1, 2811.5, 2914, 2915, 4980.41, and 4996.2 of, and to add Sections 2091.2, 2196.5, 4980.57, and 4997 to, the Business and Professions Code, and to add Sections 1233.5 and 1259.5 to the Health and Safety Code, relating to spousal abuse detection.

[Approved by Governor October 11, 1993. Filed with Secretary of State October 11, 1993.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2089 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2089. (a) Each applicant for a physician's and surgeon's certificate shall show by official transcript or other official evidence satisfactory to the Division of Licensing that he or she has successfully completed a medical curriculum extending over a period of at least four academic years, or 32 months of actual instruction, in a medical school or schools located in the United States or Canada approved by the division, or in a medical school or schools located outside the United States or Canada which otherwise meets the requirements of this section. The total number of hours of all courses shall consist of a minimum of 4,000 hours. At least 80 percent of actual attendance shall be required. If an applicant has matriculated in more than one medical school, the applicant must have matriculated in the medical school awarding the degree of doctor of medicine or its equivalent for at least the last full academic year of medical education received prior to the granting of the degree.

(b) The curriculum for all applicants shall provide for adequate instruction in the following subjects:

Alcoholism and other chemical substance dependency, detection and treatment.

Anatomy, including embryology, histology, and neuroanatomy.

Anesthesia.

Biochemistry.

Child abuse detection and treatment.

Dermatology.

Geriatric medicine.

Human sexuality.

Medicine, including pediatrics.

Neurology.

Obstetrics and gynecology.

Ophthalmology.

Otolaryngology.

Pathology, bacteriology, and immunology.

Pharmacology.

Physical medicine.
Physiology.
Preventive medicine, including nutrition.
Psychiatry.
Radiology, including radiation safety.
Spousal or partner abuse detection and treatment.
Surgery, including orthopedic surgery.
Therapeutics.
Tropical medicine.
Urology.

SEC. 2. Section 2091.2 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

2091.2. The requirements that instruction in spousal or partner abuse detection and treatment be provided shall apply only to applicants who matriculate on or after September 1, 1994. The requirement for coursework in spousal or partner abuse detection and treatment shall be satisfied by, and the board shall accept in satisfaction of the requirement, a certification from the chief academic officer of the educational institution from which the applicant graduated that the required coursework is included within the institution's required curriculum for graduation.

SEC. 3. Section 2191 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2191. (a) In determining its continuing education requirements, the Division of Licensing shall consider including a course in human sexuality as defined in Section 2090 and nutrition to be taken by those licensees whose practices may require knowledge in those areas.

(b) The division shall consider including a course in child abuse detection and treatment to be taken by those licensees whose practices are such that there is a likelihood of contact with abused or neglected children.

(c) The division shall consider including a course in acupuncture to be taken by those licensees whose practices may require knowledge in the area of acupuncture and whose education has not included instruction in acupuncture.

(d) The division shall encourage every physician and surgeon to take nutrition as part of his or her continuing education, particularly a physician and surgeon involved in primary care.

(e) The division shall consider including a course in elder abuse detection and treatment to be taken by those licensees whose practices are of a nature that there is a likelihood of contact with abused or neglected persons 65 years of age and older.

(f) In determining its continuing education requirements, the division shall consider including a course in the early detection and treatment of substance abusing pregnant women to be taken by those licensees whose practices are of a nature that there is a likelihood of contact with these women.

(g) In determining its continuing education requirements, the division shall consider including a course in the special care needs of drug addicted infants to be taken by those licensees whose practices are of a nature that there is a likelihood of contact with these infants.

(h) In determining its continuing education requirements, the division shall consider including a course providing training and guidelines on how to routinely screen for signs exhibited by abused women, particularly for physicians and surgeons in emergency, surgical, primary care, pediatric, prenatal, and mental health settings. In the event the division establishes a requirement for continuing education coursework in spousal or partner abuse detection or treatment, that requirement shall be met by each licensee within no more than four years from the date the requirement is imposed.

SEC. 4. Section 2196.5 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

2196.5. The board shall periodically disseminate information and educational material regarding the detection and treatment of spousal or partner abuse to each licensed physician and surgeon and to each general acute care hospital in the state.

SEC. 5. Section 2736.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2736.1. (a) The course of instruction for an applicant who matriculates on or after September 1, 1985, shall include training in the detection and treatment of alcohol and chemical substance dependency.

(b) The course of instruction for an applicant who matriculates on or after January 1, 1995, shall include training in the detection and treatment of client abuse, including, but not limited to, spousal or partner abuse. The requirement for coursework in spousal or partner abuse detection and treatment shall be satisfied by, and the board shall accept in satisfaction of the requirement, a certification from the chief academic officer of the educational institution from which the applicant graduated that the required coursework is included within the institution's required curriculum for graduation.

SEC. 6. Section 2811.5 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2811.5. (a) Each person renewing his or her license under Section 2811 shall submit proof satisfactory to the board that, during the preceding two-year period, he or she has been informed of the developments in the registered nurse field or in any special area of practice engaged in by the licensee, occurring since the last renewal thereof, either by pursuing a course or courses of continuing education in the registered nurse field or relevant to the practice of the licensee, and approved by the board; or by other means deemed equivalent by the board.

(b) For purposes of this section, the board shall, by regulation, establish standards for continuing education. The standards shall be established in a manner to assure that a variety of alternative forms of continuing education are available to licensees including, but not limited to, academic studies, in-service education, institutes, seminars, lectures, conferences, workshops, extension studies, and home study programs. The standards shall take cognizance of specialized areas of practice. The continuing education standards established by the board shall not exceed 30 hours of direct participation in a course or courses approved by the board, or its equivalent in the units of measure adopted by the board.

(c) The board shall encourage continuing education in spousal or partner abuse detection and treatment. In the event the board establishes a requirement for continuing education coursework in spousal or partner abuse detection or treatment, that requirement shall be met by each licensee within no more than four years from the date the requirement is imposed.

(d) This section shall not apply to licensees during the first two years immediately following their initial licensure in California or any other governmental jurisdiction.

(e) The board may, in accordance with the intent of this section, make exceptions from continuing education requirements for licensees residing in another state or country, or for reasons of health, military service, or other good cause.

This section shall become operative on July 1, 1978.

SEC. 7. Section 2914 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2914. Each applicant for licensure shall comply with all of the following requirements:

(a) Is not subject to denial of licensure under Division 1.5.

(b) Possess an earned doctorate degree (1) in psychology, (2) in education psychology, (3) in education with the field of specialization in counseling psychology or educational psychology, or (4) possess an earned doctorate degree deemed equivalent by the board in regulations duly adopted under this chapter. This degree or training shall be obtained from an accredited or approved university, college, professional school, or any other educational institution approved by the board as offering a comparable program in regulations duly adopted under this chapter.

No educational institution shall be denied recognition as an accredited or approved academic institution solely because its program is not accredited by any professional organization of psychologists, and nothing in this chapter or in the administration of this chapter shall require the registration with the board by educational institutions of their departments of psychology or their doctoral programs in psychology.

(c) Have engaged for at least two years in supervised professional experience under the direction of a licensed psychologist, the specific requirements of which shall be defined by the board in its regulations, or under suitable alternative supervision as determined by the board in regulations duly adopted under this chapter, at least one year of which shall be after being awarded the doctorate in psychology. If the supervising licensed psychologist fails to provide verification to the board of the experience required by this subdivision within 30 days after being so requested by the applicant, the applicant may provide written verification directly to the board.

If the applicant sends verification directly to the board, the applicant shall file with the board a declaration of proof of service, under penalty of perjury, of the request for verification. A copy of the completed verification forms shall be provided to the supervising psychologist and the applicant shall prove to the board that a copy has been sent to the supervising psychologist by filing a declaration of proof of service under penalty of perjury, and shall file this declaration with the board when the verification forms are submitted.

Upon receipt by the board of the applicant's verification and declarations, a rebuttable presumption affecting the burden of producing evidence is created that the supervised, professional experience requirements of this subdivision have been satisfied. The supervising psychologist shall have 20 days from the day the board receives the verification and declaration to file a rebuttal with the board.

The authority provided by this subdivision for an applicant to file written verification directly shall apply only to an applicant who has acquired the experience required by this subdivision in the United States.

The board shall establish qualifications by regulation for supervising psychologists and shall review and approve applicants for this position on a case-by-case basis.

(d) Take and pass the examination required by Section 2941 unless otherwise exempted by the board under this chapter.

(e) Show by evidence satisfactory to the board that he or she has completed training in the detection and treatment of alcohol and other chemical substance dependency. This requirement applies only to applicants who matriculate on or after September 1, 1985.

(f) Show by evidence satisfactory to the board that he or she has completed coursework, in spousal or partner abuse assessment, detection, and intervention. Coursework required under this subdivision may be satisfactory if taken either in fulfillment of other educational requirements for licensure or in a separate course. This requirement applies to applicants who begin graduate training on or after January 1, 1995. This requirement for coursework in spousal or partner abuse detection and treatment shall be satisfied by, and the board shall accept in satisfaction of the requirement, a certification from the chief academic officer of the educational institution from which the applicant graduated that the required coursework is included within the institution's required curriculum for graduation.

SEC. 8. Section 2915 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2915. (a) Except as provided in this section, on or after January 1, 1996, the board shall not issue any renewal license unless the applicant submits proof that he or she has completed no less than 18 hours of approved continuing education in the preceding year. On or after January 1, 1997, except as provided in this section, the board shall issue renewal licenses only to those applicants who have completed 36 hours of approved continuing education in the preceding two years.

(b) Each person renewing his or her license issued pursuant to this chapter shall submit proof of compliance with this section to the board. False statements submitted pursuant to this section shall be a violation of Section 2970.

(c) A person applying for relicensure or for reinstatement to an active license status shall certify under penalty of perjury that he or she is in compliance with this section.

(d) (1) The continuing education requirement shall include, but shall not be limited to, courses required pursuant to Sections 25 and 28. The requirement may include courses pursuant to Sections 32 and 2914.1 and those in spousal or partner abuse assessment, detection, and intervention.

(2) In the event the board establishes a requirement for continuing education coursework in spousal or partner abuse detection or treatment, that requirement shall be met by each licensee within no more than four years from the date the requirement is imposed.

(3) Continuing education instruction approved to meet the requirements of this section shall be completed within the State of California, or shall be approved for continuing education credit by the American Psychological Association or its equivalent as approved by the board.

(e) The board may establish a policy for exceptions from the continuing education requirement of this section.

(f) The board may recognize continuing education courses that have been approved by one or more private nonprofit organizations that have at least 10 years' experience managing continuing education programs for psychologists on a statewide basis, including, but not limited to:

(1) Maintaining and managing related records and data.

(2) Monitoring and approving courses.

(g) The board shall adopt regulations as necessary for implementation of this section.

(h) A licensed psychologist shall choose continuing education instruction that is related to the assessment, diagnosis, and intervention for the client population being served or to the fields of psychology in which the psychologist intends to provide services, that may include new theoretical approaches, research, and applied techniques. Continuing education instruction shall include required courses specified in subdivision (d).

(i) A psychologist shall not practice outside his or her particular field or fields of competence as established by his or her education, training, continuing education, and experience.

(j) The administration of this section may be funded through professional license fees and continuing education provider and course approval fees, or both. The fees related to the administration of this section shall not exceed the costs of administering the corresponding provisions of this section.

(k) Continuing education credit may be approved for those licensees who serve as commissioners on any examination pursuant to Section 2947, subject to limitations established by the board.

SEC. 9. Section 4980.41 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4980.41. All applicants for licensure shall complete the following coursework or training in order to be eligible to sit for the licensing examinations:

(a) A two semester or three quarter unit course in California law and professional ethics for marriage, family, and child counselors, which shall include, but not be limited to, the following areas of study:

(1) Contemporary professional ethics and statutory, regulatory, and decisional laws that delineate the profession's scope of practice.

(2) The therapeutic, clinical, and practical considerations involved in the legal and ethical practice of marriage, family, and child counseling, including family law.

(3) The current legal patterns and trends in the mental health profession.

(4) The psychotherapist/patient privilege, confidentiality, the patient dangerous to self or others, and the treatment of minors with and without parental consent.

(5) A recognition and exploration of the relationship between a practitioner's sense of self and human values and his or her professional behavior and ethics.

This course may be considered as part of the 48 semester or 72 quarter unit requirements contained in Section 4980.40.

(b) A minimum of seven contact hours of training or coursework in child abuse assessment and reporting as specified in Section 28 or any regulations promulgated thereunder.

(c) A minimum of 10 contact hours of training or coursework in human sexuality as specified in Section 25, and any regulations promulgated thereunder. When coursework in a master's or doctor's degree program is acquired to satisfy this requirement, it shall be considered as part of the 48 semester or 72 quarter unit requirement contained in Section 4980.40.

(d) Except for persons who have started graduate study prior to January 1, 1986, a master's or doctor's degree qualifying for licensure shall include specific instruction in alcoholism and other chemical substance dependency as specified by regulation. When coursework in a master's or doctor's degree program is acquired to satisfy this requirement, it shall be considered as part of the 48 semester or 72 quarter unit requirement contained in Section 4980.40.

(e) Except for persons who began graduate study prior to January 1, 1995, a master's or doctor's degree qualifying for licensure shall include coursework in spousal or partner abuse assessment, detection, and intervention. Coursework required under this subdivision may be satisfactory if taken either in fulfillment of other educational requirements for licensure or in a separate course. The requirement for coursework in spousal or partner abuse detection and treatment shall be satisfied by, and the board shall accept in satisfaction of the requirement, a certification from the chief academic officer of the educational institution from which the applicant graduated that the required coursework is included within the institution's required curriculum for graduation.

SEC. 9.5. Section 4980.57 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

4980.57. (a) The board shall encourage marriage, family, and child counselors to take continuing education classes in spousal or partner abuse assessment, detection, and intervention.

(b) In the event the board establishes a requirement for continuing education coursework in spousal or partner abuse detection or treatment, that requirement shall be met by each licensee within no more than four years from the date the requirement is imposed.

(c) This section shall only become operative if Senate Bill 404, adding Sections 4980.56 and 4996.22, is enacted and takes effect on or before January 1, 1995.

SEC. 10. Section 4996.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

4996.2. Each applicant shall furnish evidence satisfactory to the board that he or she complies with all of the following requirements:

(a) Is at least 21 years of age.

(b) Has received a master's degree from an accredited school of social work.

(c) Has had two years of supervised post-masters degree experience, as specified in Section 4996.20.

(d) Has not committed any crimes or acts constituting grounds for denial of licensure under Section 480.

(e) Has completed adequate instruction and training in the subject of alcoholism and other chemical substance dependency. This requirement applies only to applicants who matriculate on or after January 1, 1986.

(f) Has completed instruction and training in spousal or partner abuse assessment, detection, and intervention. Coursework required under this subdivision may be satisfactory if taken either in fulfillment of other educational requirements for licensure or in a separate course. This requirement applies only to applicants who begin graduate training on or after January 1, 1995. This requirement for coursework in spousal or partner abuse detection and treatment shall be satisfied by, and the board shall accept in satisfaction of the requirement, a certification from the chief academic officer of the educational institution from which the applicant graduated that the required coursework is included within the institution's required curriculum for graduation.

SEC. 11. Section 4997 is added to the Business and Professions Code, to read:

4997. (a) The board shall encourage social workers to take continuing education classes in spousal or partner abuse assessment, detection, and intervention.

(b) In the event the board establishes a requirement for continuing education coursework in spousal or partner abuse detection or treatment, that requirement shall be met by each licensee within no more than four years from the date the requirement is imposed.

(c) This section shall only become operative if Senate Bill 404, adding Sections 4980.56 and 4996.22, is enacted and takes effect on or before January 1, 1995.

SEC. 12. Section 1233.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1233.5. By January 1, 1995, a licensed clinic board of directors and its medical director shall establish and adopt written policies and procedures to screen patients for purposes of detecting spousal or partner abuse. The policies shall include procedures to accomplish all of the following:

(a) Identifying, as part of its medical screening, spousal or partner abuse among patients.

(b) Documenting in the medical record patient injuries or illnesses attributable to spousal or partner abuse.

(c) Providing to patients who exhibit signs of spousal or partner abuse a current referral list of private and public community agencies that provide, or arrange for, the evaluation, counseling, and care of persons experiencing spousal or partner abuse, including, but not limited to, hot lines, local battered women's shelters, legal services, and information about temporary restraining orders.

(d) Designating licensed clinical staff to be responsible for the implementation of these guidelines.

It is the intent of the Legislature that clinics, for purposes of satisfying the requirements of this section, adopt guidelines similar to those developed by the American Medical Association regarding domestic violence detection and referral. The Legislature recognizes that while guidelines evolve and change, the American Medical Association's guidelines may serve, at this time, as a model for clinics to follow.

SEC. 13. Section 1259.5 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1259.5. By January 1, 1995, a general acute care hospital, acute psychiatric hospital, special hospital, psychiatric health facility, and chemical dependency recovery hospital shall establish written policies and procedures to screen patients routinely for purposes of detecting spousal or partner abuse. The policies shall include guidelines on all of the following:

(a) Identifying, through routine screening, spousal or partner abuse among patients.

(b) Documenting patient injuries or illnesses attributable to spousal or partner abuse.

(c) Educating appropriate hospital staff about the criteria for identifying, and the procedures for handling, patients whose injuries or illnesses are attributable to spousal or partner abuse.

(d) Advising patients exhibiting signs of spousal or partner abuse of crisis intervention services that are available either through the hospital facility or through community based crisis intervention and counseling services.

(e) Providing to patients who exhibit signs of spousal or partner abuse information on domestic violence and a referral list, to be updated periodically, of private and public community agencies that provide, or arrange for, the evaluation and care for persons experiencing spousal or partner abuse, including, but not limited to, hot lines, local battered women's shelters, legal services, and information about temporary restraining orders.
