(b) To offer coverage to or accept applications from a small employer as defined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (w) of Section 10700 where the small employer is seeking coverage for eligible employees who do not work or reside in a carrier's approved service areas.

(c) To include in a health benefits plan an otherwise eligible employee or dependent, when the eligible employee or dependent does not work or reside within a carrier's approved service area, except as provided in Section 10702.1.

(d) To offer coverage to, or accept applications from, a small employer for a benefits plan design within an area if the commissioner has found that the carrier will not have the capacity within the area in its network of providers to deliver service adequately to the eligible employees and dependents of that employee because of its obligations to existing group contractholders and enrollees and that the action is not unreasonable or clearly inconsistent with the intent of this chapter.

A carrier that cannot offer coverage to small employers in a specific service area because it is lacking sufficient capacity may not offer coverage in the applicable area to new employer groups with more than 50 eligible employees until the carrier notifies the commissioner that it has regained capacity to deliver services to small employers, and certifies to the commissioner that from the date of the notice it will enroll all small groups requesting coverage from the carrier until the carrier has met the requirements of subdivision (h) of Section 10705.

(e) To offer coverage to a small employer, or an eligible employee as defined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (g) of Section 10700, who within 12 months of application for coverage terminated from a health benefit plan offered by the carrier.

SEC. 25. Section 10719.1 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10719.1. Any person or entity subject to the requirements of this chapter shall comply with the standards set forth in Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 3750) of Part 1 of Division 9 of the Family Code and Section 14124.94 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 26. Section 10731.2 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

10731.2. Any person or entity subject to the requirements of this chapter shall comply with the standards set forth in Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 3750) of Part 1 of Division 9 of the Family Code and Section 14124.94 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 27. Section 11516.1 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

11516.1. (a) No group nonprofit hospital service plan which provides hospital, medical, or surgical expense benefits for employees, members, or policyholders and their dependents shall exclude a dependent child from eligibility or benefits solely because the dependent child does not reside with the employee, member, or policyholder.

(b) A group nonprofit hospital service plan which provides hospital, medical, or surgical expense benefits for employees, members, or policyholders and their dependents shall enroll, upon application by the employer or group administrator, a dependent child of the noncustodial parent when that parent is the employee, member, or policyholder of the plan at any time the either parent or the person having custody of the child as defined in Section 3751.5 of the Family Code, or district attorney makes an application for enrollment to the employer or group administrator when a court order for medical support exists. In the case of children who are eligible for medicaid, the State Department of Health Services may also make that application.

SEC. 28. Section 2803.5 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

2803.5. Any employer who offers health care coverage, including employers and insurers, shall comply with the standards set forth in Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 3750) of Part 1 of Division 9 of the Family Code and Section 14124.94 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 29. Section 11350.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11350.3. In any action filed by the district attorney pursuant to Section 11350 or 11350.1, the district attorney shall provide the mother and the alleged father the opportunity to voluntarily acknowledge paternity by signing a paternity declaration as described in Section 7574 of the Family Code prior to a hearing or trial where the paternity of a minor child is at issue. The opportunity to voluntarily acknowledge paternity may be provided either before or after an action pursuant to Section 11350 or 11350.1 is filed and served upon the alleged father. For the purpose of meeting the requirements of this action, the district attorney may afford the defendant an opportunity to enter into a stipulation for judgment of paternity after an action for paternity has been filed in lieu of the voluntary declaration of paternity.

SEC. 30. Section 11350.4 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11350.4. (a) Notwithstanding any other law, an action for child support may be brought by the district attorney on behalf of a minor child or caretaker parent based upon a voluntary declaration of paternity as provided in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 7570) of Part 2 of Division 12 of the Family Code.

(b) Except as provided in Sections 7576 and 7577 of the Family Code, the voluntary declaration of paternity shall be given the same force and effect as a judgment for paternity entered by a court of competent jurisdiction. The court shall make appropriate orders for support of the minor child based upon the voluntary declaration of paternity unless evidence is presented that the voluntary declaration of paternity has been rescinded by the parties or set aside by a court as provided in Section 7575 of the Family Code.

(c) The Judicial Council shall develop the forms and procedures necessary to implement this section.

SEC. 31. Section 11476 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11476. It shall be the duty of the county department to refer all cases where a parent is absent from the home, or where the parents are unmarried and parentage has not been established by the completion and filing of a voluntary declaration of paternity pursuant to Section 7573 of the Family Code or a court of competent jurisdiction, to the district attorney immediately at the time the application for public assistance, including Medi-Cal benefits, or certificate of eligibility, is signed by the applicant or recipient. If an applicant is found to be ineligible, the applicant shall be notified in writing that the referral of the case to the district attorney may be terminated at the applicant's request. The county department shall cooperate with the district attorney and shall make available to him or her all pertinent information as provided in Section 11478.

Upon referral from the county department, the district attorney shall investigate the question of nonsupport or paternity and shall take all steps necessary to obtain child support for the needy child, enforce spousal support as part of the state plan under Section 11475.2, and determine paternity in the case of a child born out of wedlock. Upon the advice of the county department that a child is being considered for adoption, the district attorney shall delay the investigation and other actions with respect to the case until advised that the adoption is no longer under consideration. The granting of public assistance or Medi-Cal benefits to an applicant shall not be delayed or contingent upon investigation by the district attorney.

In cases where Medi-Cal benefits are the only assistance provided, the district attorney shall provide child and spousal support services unless the recipient of the services notifies the district attorney that only services related to securing Medi-Cal benefits are requested.

Where a court order has been obtained, any contractual agreement for support between the district attorney or the county department and the noncustodial parent shall be deemed null and void to the extent that it is not consistent with the court order.

Whenever a family which has been receiving public assistance, including Medi-Cal, ceases to receive assistance, including Medi-Cal, the district attorney shall, to the extent required by federal regulations, continue to enforce support payments from the noncustodial parent until such time as the individual on whose behalf the enforcement efforts are made sends written notice to the district attorney requesting that enforcement services be discontinued.

The district attorney shall, where appropriate, utilize reciprocal arrangements adopted with other states in securing support from an absent parent. In individual cases where utilization of reciprocal arrangements has proven ineffective, the district attorney may forward to the Attorney General a request to utilize federal courts in order to obtain or enforce orders for child or spousal support. If reasonable efforts to collect amounts assigned pursuant to Section 11477 have failed, the district attorney may request that the case be forwarded to the Treasury Department for collection in accordance with federal regulations. The Attorney General, where appropriate, shall forward these requests to the Secretary of Health and Human Services, or a designated representative.

SEC. 32. Section 11478.8 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11478.8. (a) Upon receipt of a written request from a district attorney enforcing the obligation of parents to support their children pursuant to Section 11475.1, every employer, as specified in Section

5210 of the Family Code, and every labor organization shall cooperate with and provide relevant employment and income information which they have in their possession to the district attorney for the purpose of establishing, modifying, or enforcing the support obligation. No employer or labor organization shall incur any liability for providing this information to the district attorney.

Relevant employment and income information shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Whether a named person has or has not been employed by an employer or whether a named person has or has not been employed to the knowledge of the labor organization.

(2) The full name of the employee or member or the first and middle initial and last name of the employee or member.

(3) The employee's or member's last known residence address.

(4) The employee's or member's date of birth.

(5) The employee's or member's Social Security number.

(6) The dates of employment.

(7) All earnings paid to the employee or member and reported as W-2 compensation in the prior tax year and the employee's or member's current basic rate of pay.

(8) Other earnings, as specified in Section 5206 of the Family Code, paid to the employee or member.

(9) Whether the dependent health insurance coverage is available to the employee through employment or membership in the labor organization.

The district attorney shall notify the employer and labor organization of the district attorney case file number in making a request pursuant to this section. The written request shall include at least three of the following elements regarding the person who is the subject of the inquiry: (A) first and last name and middle initial, if known; (B) Social Security number; (C) driver's license number; (D) birth date; (E) last known address; or (F) spouse's name.

The district attorney shall send a notice that a request for this information has been made to the last known address of the person who is the subject of the inquiry.

(b) An employer or labor organization which fails to provide relevant employment information to the district attorney within 30 days of receiving a request pursuant to subdivision (a) may be assessed a civil penalty of a maximum of one thousand dollars ($1,000), plus attorneys' fees and costs. Proceedings to impose the civil penalty shall be commenced by the filing and service of an order to show cause.

(c) "Labor organization," for the purposes of this section means a labor organization as defined in Section 1117 of the Labor Code or any related benefit trust fund covered under the federal Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (Chapter 18 (commencing with Section 1001) of Title 29 of the United States Code).

(d) Any reference to the district attorney in this section shall apply only when the district attorney is otherwise ordered or required to act pursuant to existing law. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to mandate additional enforcement or collection duties upon the district attorney beyond those imposed under existing law on the effective date of this section.

SEC. 33. Section 14124.93 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as added by Section 24 of Chapter 147 of the Statutes of 1994, is repealed.

SEC. 34. Section 14124.94 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14124.94. (a) When the rights of a Medi-Cal beneficiary to health care benefits from an insurer have been assigned to the department, an insurer shall not impose any requirement on the department that is different from any requirement applicable to an agent or any assignee of the covered beneficiary.

(b) The department, in the administration of the Medi-Cal program, may garnish the wages, salary, or other employment income of, and withhold amounts from state tax refunds from, any person to whom both of the following apply:

(1) The person is required by a court or administrative order to provide coverage of the costs of health services to a child who is eligible for medical assistance under the Medi-Cal program.

(2) The person has received payment from a third party for the costs of the health services for the child, but he or she has not used the payments to reimburse, as appropriate, either the other parent or the person having custody of the child, or the provider of the health services, to the extent necessary to reimburse the department for expenditures for those costs under the Medi-Cal program. All claims for current or past due child support shall take priority over claims made by the department for the costs of Medi-Cal services.

(c) For purposes of this section, "insurer" includes every health care service plan, self-insured welfare benefit plan, including those regulated pursuant to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (29 U.S.C. Sec. 1001, et. seq.), self-funded employer plan, disability insurer, nonprofit hospital service plan, labor union trust fund, employer, and any other similar plan, insurer, or entity offering a health coverage plan.

SEC. 35. Section 15200.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

15200.1. (a) There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated, from which the department shall make payments to each county on any support payments collected or distributed, or both, federal incentive funds on the amount received which qualify therefor. In addition, the department shall pay to each county on any support collections distributed, regardless of the date of collection, a state incentive of 7.5 percent. This amount shall be paid on collections used to reduce or repay aid which is paid pursuant to this chapter, on collections paid to an aided family in the form of income which is not included in determining eligibility for assistance pursuant to federal law (also referred to as "disregards"), on collections paid to an aided family in the form of income which is included in determining eligibility (also referred to as "pass-ons" and "excess"), and for aid which is entitled to federal matching funds.

(b) In addition, a county may qualify for an additional state incentive payment under Section 15200.7.

(c) Where more than one county has participated in the enforcement or collection, the federal and state AFDC incentive payments authorized by this section shall be made to the collecting county except that the federal non-AFDC incentive, and any non-AFDC incentive paid under Section 15200.95, shall be paid to the appropriate jurisdiction as determined by the State Department of Social Services.

(d) Where more than one state has participated in the enforcement or collection, the incentive payment, if any, shall be made in accordance with Section 15200.2.

SEC. 36. Section 15200.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

15200.2. (a) There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated, from which the department shall make payments to California counties, on any interstate support collections collected or distributed, or both, federal incentive funds on the amount received which qualify therefor. In addition, the department shall pay to each county on any support collections distributed, regardless of the date of collection, a state incentive of 7.5 percent. This amount shall be paid on collections used to reduce or repay aid which is paid pursuant to this chapter, on collections paid to an aided family in the form of income which is not included in determining eligibility for assistance pursuant to federal law (also referred to as "disregards"), on collections paid to an aided family in the form of income which is included in determining eligibility (also referred to as "pass-ons" and "excess"), and for aid which is entitled to federal matching funds. In addition, a county may qualify for an additional state incentive payment under Section 15200.7.

(b) The department shall, by regulation, pay the incentive payment to the county distributing the support payment from another state.

(c) Where a county makes a collection for another state, the department shall make the federal incentive payment to the county making the collection. No state incentive shall be paid on collections made by a county on behalf of another state.

SEC. 37. Section 15200.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

15200.3. (a) There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the General Fund not otherwise appropriated, amounts from which the department shall make federal incentive payments to each county on nonfederally funded foster care support payments collected or distributed.

(b) The department shall pay to counties, in addition to the federal incentive for nonfederally funded foster care, a state incentive on collections used to repay the state's share of aid. The increased state incentive shall be paid to the extent and as specified in subdivision (c).

(c) The state incentive provided in subdivision (b) for nonfederal foster care cases shall only apply to those statewide collections distributed in a fiscal year in excess of the 1982–83 budget projection. From the excess, 7.5 percent, or the increased incentive, of collections for nonfederal foster care cases shall be set aside for payment of these incentives. At the end of the fiscal year payment to each county of the incentive money shall be in proportion to the percentage of the total nonfederal cases support collection for the state which each county has distributed. The percentage incentive specified in subdivision (a) shall not exceed the total incentive provided by the state for federal foster care cases at any time but shall automatically be adjusted for any reductions. Any remaining funds shall be credited to offset expenditures for AFDC-FC.

(d) The Legislature finds and declares that the state incentive provided pursuant to this section is sufficient to reimburse counties for court and all other costs incurred through enforcement of parental liability in nonfederally funded foster care cases.

SEC. 38. Section 15200.7 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

15200.7. (a) In addition to funds appropriated pursuant to Sections 15200.1 and 15200.2, there is hereby annually appropriated from the General Fund to the State Department of Social Services beginning in fiscal year 1997–98, and based on the increase in fiscal year 1996–97 Aid to Families with Dependent Children child support collections above Aid to Families with Dependent Children child support collections in fiscal year 1995–96, a sum equal to 50 percent of the state's share of those increased collections. The sum shall be computed after payment of the incentive pursuant to increased collections. The sum shall be computed after payment of the incentive pursuant to Sections 15200.1 and 15200.2 has been taken out of the state share. The sum to be appropriated shall be computed in a similar manner annually thereafter.

(b) The sum appropriated pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be allocated by the department to each county which increased its collections and shall be based on each county's percentage of the total increased collections in those counties.

(c) This section shall become operative on July 1, 1998.

SEC. 39. Section 15200.8 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

15200.8. (a) The department shall establish a performance-based incentive system which will provide federal and state incentive funds to counties based on standards of performance in the child support program. The performance standards established shall determine the incentive rates to be paid on any support collections distributed on or after January 1, 1992.

(b) The performance-based incentive system shall have two levels of incentives.

(1) The first level, hereafter referred to as "Tier I," shall provide counties with a base incentive rate (referred to in this article as the base rate). Tier I also shall provide an increased incentive rate (referred to in this article as the compliance rate) to each county determined by the department to be in compliance with all federal and state child support enforcement program requirements. The compliance incentive rate may also be provided to each county that is in the process of conversion to the Statewide Automated Child Support System, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 10815, if the department determines that there is a reasonable likelihood that the county would be in full compliance with all federal and state child support enforcement program requirements except for the fact that the county has been required to divert resources to prepare for conversion to the Statewide Automated Child Support System and if the department further determines that the county's efforts will bring the county into full compliance with all federal and state child support enforcement program requirements within a reasonable period of time.

(2) In determining Tier I county compliance, the department shall assess on at least an annual basis the accuracy and effectiveness of case processing based on the federal and state requirements in effect for the time period being reviewed, using a statistically valid sample of cases. The information for the assessment shall be based on reviews conducted by either state or county staff, as determined by the department.

(A) Counties determined not to be in compliance shall be required to develop and submit a corrective action plan to the department.

(B) Counties under a corrective action plan shall be assessed on a quarterly basis until the department determines that they are in compliance with federal and state child support program requirements.

(3) In addition to determining Tier I compliance, the department shall collect information regarding whether cases on behalf of families receiving Aid to Families with Dependent Children are disproportionately represented in the portion of each county's case sample which is not in compliance. In the event disproportionate representation is found in a county's pool of noncompliant cases, the department shall require corrective action from that county. However, this corrective action shall not affect the county's entitlement to Tier I incentives.

(4) The second level (referred to in this article as Tier II), shall provide an additional incentive rate (referred to in this article as the performance rate), to counties that meet the performance standard levels as established by the department. No county shall qualify for payment of Tier II incentives in any year, month, or quarter in which it was not also eligible for the Tier I compliance rate.

(c) (1) The incentive rates shall be paid as a percentage of total distributed collections.

(2) "Distributed collections" means collections used to reduce or repay aid which is paid pursuant to this chapter; collections paid to an aided family; collections paid to a nonaided family regardless of the date of collection; collections paid to other state child support agencies on behalf of children residing in other states; and any other payments collected which qualify for federal incentives.

(d) Effective January 1, 1992, incentive payments shall be paid to the appropriate county jurisdiction as determined by the department.

(e) Nothing in this section shall preclude the department from adopting regulations pursuant to Section 11479.5.

(f) This section shall become inoperative on June 30, 1998, and as of January 1, 1999, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 40. Section 15200.85 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

15200.85. (a) Effective January 1, 1992, there shall be appropriated from the State Treasury sufficient funds, including federal incentives, from which the department shall pay to each county a base rate of 10 percent on any support collections distributed, regardless of the date of collection. The base incentive rate shall decrease by 1 percent annually each July 1, until July 1, 1995, at which time it shall be 6 percent for that fiscal year and every fiscal year thereafter.

(b) Effective January 1, 1992, the department shall pay to each county that is determined by the department to meet all requirements of Tier I, as described in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 15200.8, a compliance incentive rate of 1 percent on any support collections distributed. This compliance rate shall increase by 1 percent annually each July 1, until July 1, 1995, at which time it shall be 5 percent for that fiscal year and every fiscal year thereafter.

(c) Counties which complete their corrective action plans pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 15200.8, shall qualify for the compliance rate incentive at the start of the quarter following completion.

(d) This section shall become inoperative on June 30, 1998, and as of January 1, 1999, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 41. Section 15200.9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

15200.9. (a) Effective July 1, 1993, there shall be appropriated from the State Treasury sufficient funds, including federal incentives, from which the department shall pay a performance rate to those counties which meet Tier II performance standards, pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 15200.8. The performance rate shall be paid in addition to that provided for under Section 15200.85 and shall be paid on distributed collections, regardless of the date of collection.

(b) The performance rate shall be a graduated scale up to a maximum rate of 1 percent. The maximum performance rate shall increase by 1 percent annually until July 1, 1995, at which time it shall be 3 percent for that fiscal year and every fiscal year thereafter.

(c) This section shall become inoperative on June 30, 1998, and as of January 1, 1999, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 42. Section 15200.91 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

15200.91. The Legislative Analyst's office shall conduct a study of the effectiveness, efficiency, and integrity of the child support performance review and corrective action processes described in Sections 15200.8 to 15200.9, inclusive, the department's regulations, and the operation of these processes at the state and county level and shall report its findings and recommendations for improvement, as appropriate, to the Legislature by March 1, 1997. The study shall be designed by the Legislative Analyst's office in consultation with the department, the State Library Research Bureau, a child support advocate group, and the California Family Support Council.

SEC. 43. Section 15200.95 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by Section 10 of Chapter 481 of the Statutes of 1995, is amended to read:

15200.95. (a) Each county shall be responsible for its nonfederal share of administrative expenditures for administering the child support program.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), effective July 1, 1991, to June 30, 1992, inclusive, counties shall pay the nonfederal share of the administrative costs of conducting the reviews required under Section 15200.8 from the savings counties will obtain as a result of the reduction in the maximum aid payments specified in Section 11450. Effective July 1, 1992, to June 30, 1993, inclusive, the state shall pay the nonfederal share of administrative costs of conducting the reviews required under Section 15200.8. Funding for county costs after June 30, 1993, shall be subject to the availability of funds in the annual Budget Act.

(c) In the event that the federal government does not provide the funding for federal financial participation in administrative costs of the child support program at the scheduled rates of 66 percent for regular federal financial participation and 90 percent for enhanced federal financial participation, the department shall increase the Tier I base incentive rate authorized under Section 15200.85 to supplant the dollar reduction to federal financial participation.

(1) This increase shall be based on the difference between the estimated dollar reimbursement resulting from the scheduled federal financial participation and the estimated dollar reimbursement resulting from the reduced federal financial participation rates. This increase to the base incentive rate, when applied to estimated total collections for the state fiscal year, shall approximately equal the federal reduction.

(2) This increase shall be determined annually, and shall apply to total distributed collections as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 15200.8.

(3) In no event shall the increased incentive rate exceed 4 percent in any fiscal year.

(4) This increase to the base incentive rate shall apply to the period of time in which the federal financial participation rate in administrative expenditures is reduced.

(d) This section shall become inoperative on June 30, 1998, and as of January 1, 1999, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 44. Section 15200.95 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as added by Section 11 of Chapter 481 of the Statutes of 1995, is amended to read:

15200.95. (a) Each county shall be responsible for its nonfederal share of administrative expenditures for administering the child support program.

(b) In the event that the federal government does not provide the funding for federal financial participation in scheduled rates of 66 percent for regular federal financial participation and 90 percent for enhanced federal financial participation, the department shall increase the incentive rates authorized under Sections 15200.1, 15200.2, and 15200.3 to supplant the dollar reduction to federal financial participation.

(1) This increase shall be based on the difference between the estimated dollar reimbursement resulting from the scheduled federal financial participation and the estimated dollar reimbursement resulting from the reduced federal financial participation rates. This increase to the base incentive rate, when applied to estimated total collections for the state fiscal year, shall approximately equal the federal reduction.

(2) This increase shall be determined annually, and shall apply to total distributed collections as defined in Section 15200.1.

(3) In no event shall this increase to the incentive rate exceed 4 percent in any fiscal year.

(4) This increase to the incentive rate shall apply to the period of time in which the federal financial participation rate in administrative expenditures is reduced.

(c) This section shall become operative on July 1, 1998.

SEC. 45. Section 16.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1357 of the Health and Safety Code proposed by this bill, AB 8, and SB 371. It shall only become operative if (1) this bill and either AB 8 or SB 371 or this bill and both AB 8 and SB 371 are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) this bill and either AB 8 or SB 371 or this bill and both AB 8 and SB 371 amend Section 1357 of the Health and Safety Code, and (3) this bill is enacted last, in which case Section 16 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 46. Section 27 of this act shall not become operative if Senate Bill 1866 is enacted and takes effect on or before January 1, 1997.

SEC. 47. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1996. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1996.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 107 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

107. "Trust company" means a corporation or a commercial bank which is authorized to engage in the trust business.

SEC. 2. Section 180 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

180. In this chapter, unless the provision or context requires otherwise:

(a) "New General Corporation Law" means Division 1 (commencing with Section 100), Title 1 of the Corporations Code, as in effect on and after January 1, 1977.

(b) "Prior Banking Law" means this division, as in effect on December 31, 1978.

(c) "Prior General Corporation Law" means Division 1 (commencing with Section 100), Title 1 of the Corporations Code, as in effect on December 31, 1976.

(d) "Revised Banking Law" means this division, as in effect on and after January 1, 1979.

(e) "Subject institution" means:

(1) Any corporation incorporated under the laws of this state which is, with the approval of the superintendent, incorporated for the purpose of engaging in, or which is authorized by the superintendent to engage in, the commercial banking business.

(2) Any corporation incorporated under the laws of this state which is, with the approval of the superintendent, incorporated for the purpose of engaging in, or which is authorized by the superintendent to engage in, the trust business.

(3) Any corporation incorporated under the laws of this state which is, with the approval of the superintendent, incorporated for the purpose of engaging in, or which is authorized by the superintendent to engage in, business under Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500), Chapter 19 of this division.

SEC. 2.1. Section 180 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

180. In this chapter, unless the provision or context requires otherwise:

(a) "New General Corporation Law" means Division 1 (commencing with Section 100), Title 1 of the Corporations Code, as in effect on and after January 1, 1977.

(b) "Prior Banking Law" means this division, as in effect on December 31, 1978.

(c) "Prior General Corporation Law" means Division 1 (commencing with Section 100), Title 1 of the Corporations Code, as in effect on December 31, 1976.

(d) "Revised Banking Law" means this division, as in effect on and after January 1, 1979.

(e) "Subject institution" means:

(1) Any corporation incorporated under the laws of this state which is, with the approval of the commissioner, incorporated for the purpose of engaging in, or which is authorized by the commissioner to engage in, the commercial banking business under Division 1 (commencing with Section 99) of the Financial Code.

(2) Any corporation incorporated under the laws of this state which is, with the approval of the commissioner, incorporated for the purpose of engaging in, or which is authorized by the commissioner to engage in, the trust business under Division 1 (commencing with Section 99) of the Financial Code.

(3) Any corporation incorporated under the laws of this state which is, with the approval of the commissioner, incorporated for the purpose of engaging in, or which is authorized by the commissioner to engage in, business under Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500), Chapter 19 of this division.

SEC. 3. Section 272 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

272. The superintendent in addition to the annual assessment shall collect from each bank authorized to engage in the trust business, to defray the cost of examination, a fee not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200) per diem, for each examiner necessarily engaged in the examination of the trust company, trust business, or trust department. The superintendent shall assess the fee upon completion of the examination of the trust company or trust business and shall mail or otherwise deliver an invoice for the fee to the institution. The institution shall pay the fee within 30 days after the invoice is mailed or otherwise delivered to it.

SEC. 3.1. Section 272 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

272. The commissioner in addition to the annual assessment shall collect from each bank authorized to engage in the trust business, to defray the cost of examination, a fee not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200) per diem, for each examiner necessarily engaged in the examination of the trust company, trust business, or trust department. The commissioner shall assess the fee upon completion of the examination of the trust company or trust business and shall mail or otherwise deliver an invoice for the fee to the institution. The institution shall pay the fee within 30 days after the invoice is mailed or otherwise delivered to it.

SEC. 4. Section 273 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

273. If any bank or trust company fails to make timely payment of any assessment made pursuant to Section 270, 271, or 272, the superintendent may cancel the certificate of authority of the bank or trust company to conduct a banking or trust business.

SEC. 4.1. Section 273 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

273. If any bank or trust company fails to make timely payment of any assessment made pursuant to Section 270, 271, or 272, the commissioner may cancel the certificate of authority of the bank or trust company to conduct a banking or trust business.

SEC. 5. Section 361 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

361. Upon the filing of an application the superintendent shall make or cause to be made a careful investigation and examination relative to the following:

(a) The character, reputation, and financial standing of the organizers or incorporators and their motives in seeking to organize the proposed bank or trust company.

(b) The need for banking or trust facilities or additional banking or trust facilities, as the case may be, giving particular consideration to the adequacy of existing banking or trust facilities and the need for further banking or trust facilities.

(c) The character, financial responsibility, banking or trust experience, and business qualifications of the proposed officers of the bank or trust company.

(d) The character, financial responsibility, business experience, and standing of the proposed stockholders and directors.

(e) Other facts and circumstances bearing on the proposed bank or trust company and its relation to the locality as in the opinion of the superintendent may be relevant.

SEC. 5.1. Section 361 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

361. Upon the filing of an application the commissioner shall make or cause to be made a careful investigation and examination relative to the following:

(a) The character, reputation, and financial standing of the organizers or incorporators and their motives in seeking to organize the proposed bank or trust company.

(b) The need for banking or trust facilities or additional banking or trust facilities, as the case may be, giving particular consideration to the adequacy of existing banking or trust facilities and the need for further banking or trust facilities.

(c) The character, financial responsibility, banking or trust experience, and business qualifications of the proposed officers of the bank or trust company.

(d) The character, financial responsibility, business experience, and standing of the proposed stockholders and directors.

(e) Other facts and circumstances bearing on the proposed bank or trust company and its relation to the locality as in the opinion of the commissioner may be relevant.

SEC. 6. Section 362 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

362. The superintendent may give or withhold approval of the application in his or her discretion, but the superintendent shall not approve the application until he or she has ascertained to his or her satisfaction:

(a) That the public convenience and advantage will be promoted by the establishment of the proposed bank or trust company.

(b) That the proposed bank or trust company will have a reasonable promise of successful operation.

(c) That the bank is being formed for no other purpose than the legitimate objects contemplated by this division.

(d) That the proposed capital structure is adequate.

(e) That the proposed officers and directors have sufficient banking or trust experience, ability, and standing to afford reasonable promise of successful operation.

(f) That the name of the proposed bank or trust company does not resemble, so closely as to be likely to cause confusion, the name of any other bank or trust company transacting business in this state or which had previously transacted business in this state.

(g) That the applicant has complied with all of the applicable provisions of this division.

SEC. 6.1. Section 362 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

362. The commissioner may give or withhold his or her approval of the application in his or her discretion, but he or she shall not approve the application until he or she has ascertained to his or her satisfaction:

(a) That the public convenience and advantage will be promoted by the establishment of the proposed bank or trust company.

(b) That the proposed bank or trust company will have a reasonable promise of successful operation.

(c) That the bank is being formed for no other purpose than the legitimate objects contemplated by this division.

(d) That the proposed capital structure is adequate.

(e) That the proposed officers and directors have sufficient banking or trust experience, ability, and standing to afford reasonable promise of successful operation.

(f) That the name of the proposed bank or trust company does not resemble, so closely as to be likely to cause confusion, the name of any other bank or trust company transacting business in this state or which had previously transacted business in this state.

(g) That the applicant has complied with all of the applicable provisions of this division.

SEC. 7. Section 400 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

400. The articles of incorporation of the proposed bank or trust company shall be submitted to the superintendent for his or her approval before they are filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to the Corporations Code. After the articles have been filed with the Secretary of State the proposed bank or trust company shall:

(a) File with the superintendent a copy of its articles of incorporation, certified by the Secretary of State.

(b) File with the superintendent a statement in the form and with any supporting data as the superintendent may require showing that the entire contributed capital has been fully paid in lawful money, unconditionally, and that the funds representing the contributed capital, less sums spent as authorized by this article for preopening expenditures are on deposit in a state or national bank in this state, subject to withdrawal on demand.

(c) Pay to the superintendent a fee of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500).

SEC. 7.1. Section 400 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

400. The articles of incorporation of the proposed bank or trust company shall be submitted to the commissioner for his or her approval before they are filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to the Corporations Code. After the articles have been filed with the Secretary of State the proposed bank or trust company shall:

(a) File with the commissioner a copy of its articles of incorporation, certified by the Secretary of State.

(b) File with the commissioner a statement in the form and with any supporting data as the commissioner may require showing that the entire contributed capital has been fully paid in lawful money, unconditionally, and that the funds representing the contributed capital, less sums spent as authorized by this article for preopening expenditures are on deposit in a state or national bank in this state, subject to withdrawal on demand.

(c) Pay to the commissioner a fee of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500).

SEC. 8. Section 508 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 510 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

510. (a) A bank or trust company may close or discontinue the operation of any branch office if, before the closing or discontinuance, (1) the bank files with the superintendent a notice containing the information specified in subdivision (b), and (2) the superintendent, within 60 days after the filing of the notice or any longer period to which the bank consents, either (A) issues a written statement not objecting to the notice or (B) does not issue a written objection to the notice.

(b) (1) A notice filed under subdivision (a) shall contain all of the following information:

(A) The name of the California state bank.

(B) The location of the branch office proposed to be closed or discontinued.

(C) The location of the office to which the business of the branch office proposed to be closed or discontinued is proposed to be transferred.

(D) The proposed date of closing or discontinuance.

(E) A detailed statement of the reasons for the decision to close the branch office.

(F) Statistical or other information in support of reasons consistent with the institution's written policy for branch office closings.

(G) Any other information that the superintendent may require.

(2) A notice filed under subdivision (a) shall be in the form, shall be signed in the manner, and shall, if the superintendent requires, be verified in the manner that the superintendent may require.

(c) For purposes of subdivision (a), a notice is deemed to be filed with the superintendent at the time when the complete notice, including any amendments or supplements, containing all the information required by the superintendent, and otherwise complying with subdivision (b), is received by the superintendent.

(d) In determining whether or not to object to a notice filed under subdivision (a), except if the superintendent finds that it is necessary in the interests of safety and soundness that the branch office be closed or discontinued, the superintendent shall consider whether the closing or discontinuance of the branch office will have a seriously adverse effect on the public convenience or advantage.

SEC. 9.1. Section 510 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

510. (a) A bank or trust company may close or discontinue the operation of any branch office if, before the closing or discontinuance, (1) the bank files with the commissioner a notice containing the information in subdivision (b), and (2) the commissioner within 60 days after the filing of the notice or any longer period to which the bank consents, either (A) issues a written statement not objecting to the notice or (B) does not issue a written objection to the notice.

(b) (1) A notice filed under subdivision (a) shall contain all of the following information:

(A) The name of the California state bank.

(B) The location of the branch office proposed to be closed or discontinued.

CHAPTER 9. LEGAL INVESTMENTS FOR SAVINGS BANKS

1000. As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise, the following terms have the following meanings:

(a) "Net direct debt" of any public corporation means all indebtedness of every kind after deducting from the indebtedness sinking funds available for the payment thereof, any indebtedness evidenced by tax anticipation notes for the payment of which nondelinquent taxes are pledged, obligations payable only from special assessments, revenue obligations payable only from special revenues pledged for their payment, and such proportion of any indebtedness issued for revenue producing works, properties, or utilities that have been in operation for at least one year as the amount of the annual net revenue therefrom bears to the amount of the annual debt service requirements of those bonds.

(b) "Net overlapping debt" of any public corporation means the proportion of the net direct debt as above defined of any other public corporation (herein called overlapping corporation) that lies wholly or partially within the boundaries of the public corporation as the assessed valuation of the taxable property of the overlapping public corporation lying within the boundaries of the public corporation as shown by the last official equalized county assessment roll bears to the assessed valuation of all taxable property of the overlapping public corporation as shown by the last official equalized county assessment roll.

(c) "Funded debt," as used in this chapter, means all interest-bearing indebtedness of a corporation not maturing within one year of the date the indebtedness was incurred.

1001. Any securities or other assets that are described in Sections 1003 to 1018, inclusive, are legal investments for savings banks.

1002. Where any laws of this state provide that the moneys of any pension fund, retirement plan, trust fund, or the moneys of any special fund the investment of which is governed by law, or the funds of any political subdivision or public corporation may or shall be invested in securities which are a legal investment for savings banks, that law shall be deemed to authorize or require, as the case may be, that those moneys be invested in securities in which savings banks were authorized to invest their funds by the provisions of the Bank Act as it read prior to January 1, 1949, other than paragraph (f) of subdivision 5 of Section 61 of that act, or in bonds, debentures, and notes legal for investments for savings banks in the State of New York or the State of Massachusetts as of the time the investment is made or in securities in which commercial banks are authorized to invest their funds by the provisions of Sections 1003 to 1018, inclusive.

1003. Gold and silver bullion and United States mint certificates of ascertained value.

1004. Stock of a federal reserve bank or of a federal home loan bank to the extent authorized by Section 754.

1005. Bonds or other interest-bearing notes and obligations of the United States and those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

1006. Bonds of the State of California and those for which the faith and credit of the State of California are pledged for the payment of principal and interest and in registered warrants of the State of California.

1007. Bonds of any flood control and water conservation districts, or any zone thereof, having an assessed valuation on taxable real property of not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000), county, city and county, city, metropolitan water district, municipal utility district, special districts established by and within any municipal utility district, transit district, rapid transit district including sales tax revenue bonds of the district, metropolitan transit authority, flood control district, or school district of the State of California (herein referred to generally as public corporation) except the bonds of any particular such public corporation which may be declared ineligible for investment by savings banks by regulations of the superintendent.

1008. Bonds of any other political subdivision, public corporation, or district of the State of California (herein referred to generally as public corporations) having the power, without limit as to rate or amount; to levy taxes to pay the principal and interest of the bonds upon all property within its boundaries subject to taxation by such public corporation, provided the net direct debt of such public corporation together with its net overlapping debt does not exceed 25 percent of the assessed valuation of the taxable property within its boundaries according to the last official equalized county assessment roll.

1009. (a) Any of the following subject to the conditions set forth in subdivision (b) to (d), inclusive.

(1) Bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of, or which are unconditionally guaranteed by the Dominion of Canada, the State of Israel, the United States of Mexico, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or any state of the United States other than California, for the payment of both principal and interest of which in United States dollars, the faith and credit of the entity is pledged.

(2) Limited obligations of any state of the United States, other than California, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, payable only from special taxes that are pledged to the payment of principal and interest of the limited obligations.

(3) Bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of any city, county, political subdivision, public corporation, or district (herein referred to generally as public corporations) of any state of the United States, other than California, or of the Dominion of Canada, or of the State of Israel, or of the United States of Mexico or of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, having the power without limit as to rate or amount to levy taxes to pay the principal and interest of the bonds upon all property within its boundaries subject to taxation by the public corporation.

(b) In the case of bonds constituting general obligations of any such state, commonwealth, dominion, or country, such state, commonwealth, dominion, or country has not within 10 years prior to the investment defaulted for a period of more than 90 days in the payment of any part of either principal or interest of any of its debts.

(c) In the case of limited obligations of any state, or commonwealth, all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The state or commonwealth has not, within 10 years prior to the date of the investment, defaulted for a period of more than 90 days in the payment of either principal or interest of any of its debts.

(2) The special taxes pledged for the payment of the limited obligations shall have been collected for five years and shall have averaged at least one and one-half times the debt service requirements, including those for principal, interest, and sinking fund, on all special obligations existing at the time.

(3) The special taxes for each of the five fiscal years shall have equaled at least the amount of all the debt service requirements on the special obligations.

(d) In the case of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of any public corporation of any state other than California, or of any commonwealth, all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The public corporation has had a corporate existence or been otherwise established and functioning for at least 10 years prior to the time of the investment.

(2) The public corporation has a population of at least 50,000 inhabitants according to the last federal or state census.

(3) The public corporation for a period of at least 10 years prior to the investment has not defaulted in the payment of any part of the principal or interest of any of its debts for a period of more than 90 days.

(4) The net direct debt together with the net overlapping debt of the public corporation does not exceed 10 percent of the assessed valuation of the property subject to taxation by the public corporation according to the last official equalized assessment roll or list upon the basis of which taxes for debt service are based.

1010. Bonds of any irrigation district, water storage district, water conservation district, county water district, reclamation district, drainage district, and any district the primary function of which is the irrigation, reclamation or drainage of land within its boundaries, located in California, other than bonds referred to in Section 1007, provided either of the following conditions are met:

(a) The bonds qualify under Section 1008.

(b) The bonds have been certified as legal securities for savings banks pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 20000) of Division 10 of the Water Code and the certification remains unrevoked and the total outstanding bonded indebtedness of the district including bonds authorized but not issued, but excluding bonds payable solely from revenues and not directly or indirectly from assessments, does not exceed 50 percent of the aggregate of the assessed value of the lands, exclusive of improvements, subject to assessment by the district, and the value of the property owned by the district or to be acquired or constructed with the proceeds of the bonds under consideration.

1011. (a) Bonds, consolidated bonds, collateral trust debentures, consolidated debentures, or other obligations issued by federal land banks or federal intermediate credit banks established under the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended, and the Farm Credit Act of 1971.

(b) Debentures and consolidated debentures issued by the Central Bank for Cooperatives and banks for cooperatives established under the Farm Credit Act of 1933, as amended, and the Farm Credit Act of 1971.

(c) Bonds or debentures of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board established under the Federal Home Loan Bank Act.

(d) Bonds of any federal home loan bank established under the Federal Home Loan Bank Act.

(e) Stocks, bonds, debentures, participations and other obligations of or issued by the Federal National Mortgage Association, the Student Loan Marketing Association, the Government National Mortgage Association and the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation.

1012. Bonds, notes or other obligations issued by the Federal Financing Bank, the United States Postal Service, or issued or assumed by the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, the Tennessee Valley Authority, the Inter-American Development Bank, the Government Development Bank for Puerto Rico, the Asian Development Bank, the International Finance Corporation, or the African Development Bank.

1013. (a) Notes with a maturity not exceeding 15 months after the date of issue, issued in anticipation of uncollected taxes, income, revenue, cash receipts, and other moneys of the State of California or any city, county, city and county, or school district thereof; provided the notes and warrants and the interest thereon shall be a first lien and charge against, and shall be payable from, the first moneys received by the local agency from such pledged moneys; provided the total amount of the notes issued at any one time or during any specified period does not exceed 85 percent of the receipts or revenues.

(b) Grant anticipation notes issued by the agencies and payable not later than 36 months after the date of issue, provided that the total amount of the notes and interest payable thereon issued at any one time or during any specified period does not exceed 80 percent of the grant funds stated in writing by the granting authority as committed or appropriated, and shall be paid on a specified date or dates within a 36-month period from the dating of the notes.

1014. Revenue securities of any state of the United States, or of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and of any city, county, city and county, political subdivision, public corporation, or district (herein referred to generally as public corporations) of any state or commonwealth and of any department, board, agency, or authority of any state or commonwealth or of any public corporation, if the following conditions are met:

(a) The revenue securities constitute obligations payable out of the revenues from a revenue-producing property owned, controlled, or operated by a state, commonwealth, public corporation, or by a department, board, agency, or authority thereof and are secured by the revenues.

(b) Either of the following paragraphs apply:

(1) (A) The net income from the property available for the payment of the securities for the five fiscal years next preceding any such investment, shall have averaged at least one and one-tenth times all debt service requirements for principal, interest, and sinking fund of all revenue securities payable only out of the revenues from that property during each of those fiscal years, and for each of the five fiscal years shall have equaled at least all debt service requirements for principal, interest, and sinking fund of the securities, and for the last fiscal year shall have amounted to at least the maximum annual debt service requirement for any fiscal year thereafter on all such securities that were outstanding during such last fiscal year and which will be outstanding in any fiscal year thereafter.

(B) The gross income from the property, the net income from which is pledged for the payment of the securities, in the last fiscal year prior to the investment was not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) if located in California, and was not less than five million dollars ($5,000,000) if located elsewhere.

(C) The issuer is obligated to maintain rates at least sufficient to meet debt service requirements and such obligation is legally enforceable.

(2) (A) The issuer of the securities is entitled to receive under a legally enforceable contract with a corporation any of the securities of which are a legal investment for savings banks under this chapter annual payments averaging not less than nine hundred thousand dollars ($900,000) a year commencing with the completion of a project or projects as fixed in the construction contract therefor and continuing during the maximum term for which said revenue securities are to mature.

(B) The issuer of the securities is obligated to maintain rates to produce revenue, or will receive contract payments, either or both of which will be sufficient to meet debt service requirements and such obligation or contract is legally enforceable.

(c) The public corporation or any department, board, agency, or authority thereof which issues the securities, if existing elsewhere than in California, has not within 10 years prior to such investment defaulted for a period of more than 90 days in the payment of principal or interest on any of its debts.

1015. Bonds of any local public housing agency (as defined in the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended) that are secured by either of the following:

(a) An agreement between the public housing agency and the Public Housing Administration in which the public housing agency agrees to borrow from the Public Housing Administration, and the Public Housing Administration agrees to lend to the public housing agency, prior to the maturity of the obligations (which obligations shall have a maturity of not more than 18 months), moneys in an amount that (together with any other moneys irrevocably committed to the payment of interest on such obligations) will suffice to pay the principal of the obligations with interest to maturity thereon, which moneys under the terms of the agreement are required to be used for the purpose of paying the principal of and the interest on such obligations at their maturity.

(b) A pledge of annual contributions under an annual contributions contract between such public housing agency and the Public Housing Administration if the contract shall contain the covenant by the Public Housing Administration that is authorized by subsection (b) of Section 22 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended, and if the maximum sum and the maximum period specified in such contract pursuant to that subsection 22(b) shall not be less than the annual amount and the period for payment that are requisite to provide for the payment when due of all installments of principal and interest on the obligations.

1015.5. Bonds secured by an insurance commitment of the Federal Housing Administration.

1016. Evidences of indebtedness of companies incorporated in the United States and, directly or indirectly, engaged in manufacturing, extraction, merchandising, or commercial financing and in bonds of authorities established pursuant to the California

Industrial Development Financing Act (Title 10 (commencing with Section 91500) of the Government Code), to which these companies are obligated with respect to payment subject to the following conditions:

(a) Any unsecured evidences of indebtedness shall be issued by a company substantially all of whose property is free of mortgage and shall carry a covenant by the obligor that they will be secured equally with any mortgage bond, except a purchase money mortgage, which may be later issued.

(b) The company is of a size as to attract at least statewide interest in its publicly held securities and its gross income shall have averaged not less than ten million dollars ($10,000,000) and its net income shall have averaged not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) for the five fiscal years preceding the investment and its gross income was not less than ten million dollars ($10,000,000) and its net income not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) for at least three of these five fiscal years.

(c) Working capital, as measured by consolidated current assets less consolidated current liabilities as shown in the latest published balance sheet, shall exceed 150 percent of the total of consolidated debt due in longer than one year and "minority interest." For that purpose, "minority interest" means any outstanding interest in a subsidiary having a prior claim on the earnings of the subsidiary. However, the foregoing ratio requirement shall not apply in the case of evidences of indebtedness of any corporation whose consolidated gross assets less any valuation reserves exceed five hundred million dollars ($500,000,000) and whose consolidated current assets exceed consolidated current liabilities by at least one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) as shown by the latest published balance sheet. When new financing is involved, the changes in gross assets, capital structure and working capital shall be considered and reliance may be placed on the representations made in the official prospectus prepared under the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission as to the application of the proceeds of the financing.

(d) The total consolidated debt of the company including current liabilities and "minority interest," as shown on the latest published balance sheet, does not exceed $33^1/_3$ percent of its gross assets less valuation reserves.

(e) The consolidated annual net income for the five fiscal years next preceding the investment, before deduction of state and federal taxes imposed on or measured by income or profits but after deducting all charges, including reserves, regularly recurring charges for amortization of discount, and expense allocable to funded debt (1) shall have averaged not less than six times the annual consolidated interest charges existing at the time the investment is made; (2) in at least three of the five fiscal years shall have been at least four times the annual consolidated interest charges for the same year; and (3) for the fiscal year next preceding the investment shall have been not less than six times the consolidated interest charges for that year and not less than six times the annual consolidated charges on the funded debt outstanding at the time of the investment.

1017. Fixed interest railroad bonds meeting the requirements of subdivisions (a) and (b); bonds secured by a mortgage on jointly operated railroad facilities meeting the requirements of subdivision (c); and railroad equipment trust certificates meeting the requirements of subdivision (d).

(a) The railroad bonds are issued by or are assumed, guaranteed, or provision made unconditionally for the payment of principal and interest on specified dates, by a solvent railroad company that meets all of the following conditions:

(1) Operates at least 500 miles of standard gauge road within the continental United States and which has had average annual operating revenues of at least ten million dollars ($10,000,000) during the five years next preceding the investment.

(2) Has an average annual balance of income available for fixed charges for the last 15 years for which the necessary statistical data are available, when divided by an amount equal to its fixed charges for the last fiscal year, shall produce a quotient which is at least 15 percent higher than the quotient obtained by dividing the average annual balance of income available for fixed charges of all class 1 railroads for the same one 5-year period by an amount equal to the fixed charges of all class 1 railroads for the last year in the period.

(3) Has an average "balance of net income" (computed by deducting the sum of its fixed charges and contingent interest charges for the latest fiscal year from the average annual balance available for fixed charges for the latest 15 years for which the necessary statistical data are available) when divided by its average annual railroad operating income for the same 15-year period, shall produce a quotient at least 15 percent greater than the quotient obtained by dividing the average balance of income of all class 1 railroads, computed in the same manner, by the average annual railway operating income of all class 1 railroads for the same 15-year period.

(4) Has an average balance of income available for fixed charges for the last three fiscal years preceding the investment that has not been less than one and one-half times its fixed charges for the last fiscal year.

(b) The railroad bonds are secured by any of the following:

(1) A mortgage, either direct or collateral, which shall be a first mortgage on not less than 75 percent of the mileage subject to the mortgage.

(2) A first mortgage on terminal properties comprising the company's principal freight or passenger terminal in a city of not less than 250,000 population according to the latest federal or state census.

(3) A refunding mortgage on not less than 75 percent of the railroad mileage owned or operated by the issuing company under which bonds may be issued for retirement or refunding of all debts secured by prior liens on all or any part of the property (other than liens on equipment) subject to the mortgage; provided, that the amount of debt senior to the refunding mortgage is not more than 50 percent of the sum of all senior debt and the refunding mortgage, or that underlying mortgage bonds in an amount equal to at least 50 percent of the debt outstanding under the refunding mortgage are pledged as security under the refunding mortgage.

(4) A first mortgage on railroad property leased to and operated by the company where the lease extends beyond the maturity date of the bonds and the company has guaranteed, assumed, or committed itself under the terms of the lease to pay principal and interest on the bonds.

(c) Bonds secured by a mortgage on jointly operated railroad facilities must be secured by a first mortgage on a terminal, depot, tunnel, or bridge used by or leased to two or more railroads which have jointly and severally agreed unconditionally to pay the interest and principal of the bonds or have unconditionally guaranteed or assumed such payment, one of which railroads must meet the requirements set forth in subdivision (a).

(d) Railroad equipment trust certificates must be issued by a solvent class 1 railroad whose average balance of income available for fixed charges for the last three fiscal years preceding the investment shall be not less than one and one-half times its fixed charges for the last fiscal year. The certificates must be issued to provide funds for the construction or acquisition of new standard gauge railroad equipment made with the approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission and be secured by equipment trust, lease, conditional sales contract, or first lien on such equipment. The aggregate principal amount of such obligations shall not exceed 80 percent of the purchase price of the equipment and the certificates shall mature within 15 years from date of issuance in equal annual, semiannual, or monthly installments, beginning not later than one year after the date of issuance.

(e) As used in this section, the terms "balance of income available for fixed charges," "fixed charges," "contingent interest," and "railway operating income" shall have the same meaning as in the accounting reports filed by common carriers by rail pursuant to regulations of the Interstate Commerce Commission except that "balance of income available for payment of fixed charges" shall be computed before deduction of federal income or excess profits taxes, and "fixed charges" and "contingent interest" of the railroad shall be such charges existing as of the time the computation is made excluding charges with respect to debt which has been retired or will be retired within six months and for the payment of which funds have been or are contemporaneously being set aside in trust but including charges with respect to new debt issued or in the process of being issued.

1018. Bonds and debentures of gas, electric, or gas and electric companies meeting the requirements of subdivision (a); bonds and debentures of telephone companies meeting the requirements of subdivision (b); and bonds and debentures of water companies meeting the requirements of subdivision (c).

(a) Bonds or debentures of a gas, electric, or gas and electric company shall be of an issue that originally amounted to not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) and, if bonds, be secured by a mortgage on substantially all of its physical property, and, if debentures, shall be issued by a company substantially all of whose physical property is free of mortgage and must carry a covenant to be secured equally with any mortgage indebtedness, except a purchase money mortgage, subsequently issued, and both bonds and debentures shall be issued by a public utility corporation that meets all of the following conditions:

(1) Derives more than 50 percent of its gross operating revenue from the business of supplying electricity, artificial gas, or natural gas or all or any of them, and at least 80 percent of its gross operating revenue from all or any of the public utility businesses enumerated in this section.

(2) Shall have had a gross operating revenue of not less than seven million five hundred thousand dollars ($7,500,000) for its most recent fiscal year.

(3) Has a funded debt not exceeding two-thirds of the value of its physical property as shown by the books of the corporation or by a statement of a certified public accountant issued within one year, which statement may be based upon the books of the corporation, less the amount of any reserves for depreciation, retirement, or amortization of that physical property. Physical property of a corporation shall include the physical property of a subsidiary corporation if the corporation owns not less than 90 percent of the outstanding voting shares of the subsidiary corporation.

(4) Shall have had earnings including earnings of subsidiaries mentioned in paragraph (3), available for interest payments, before deduction of state and federal taxes imposed on or measured by income or profits, during four of the five most recent fiscal years and during the most recent fiscal year equal to at least twice the existing annual interest charges on the corporation's total funded debt during those respective fiscal years.

(b) Bonds or debentures of telephone companies shall be of an issue originally amounting to at least one million dollars ($1,000,000) and, if bonds, be secured by a mortgage on substantially all of the physical property of the company, and if debentures shall be issued by a company substantially all of whose physical property is free of mortgage and shall carry a covenant to be secured equally with any mortgage indebtedness, except a purchase money mortgage, subsequently issued, and both bonds and debentures shall be issued by a company that meets all of the following conditions:

(1) During its last fiscal year had gross revenues of at least seven million five hundred thousand dollars ($7,500,000), more than 50 percent of which was derived from owned properties used in furnishing telephone and other communication services and at least 80 percent of its gross revenues from all or any of the public utility businesses enumerated in this section.

(2) Whose funded debt does not exceed two-thirds of the value of its physical property as shown by the books of the corporation or by a statement of a certified public accountant issued within one year, which statement may be based upon the books of the corporation, less the amount of any reserves shown on the statement for depreciation, retirement or amortization of such physical property. Physical property of a corporation shall include the physical property of a subsidiary corporation if the corporation owns not less than 90 percent of the outstanding voting shares of the subsidiary corporation.

(3) Which for four of the five most recent fiscal years and for the last fiscal year had earnings including earnings of subsidiaries mentioned in paragraph (2) available for the payment of interest charges, before deduction of state and federal taxes imposed on or measured by income or profits, at least equal to twice the interest charges on the company's total funded debt during such respective fiscal years.

(c) Water company bonds or debentures shall be of an issue originally amounting to at least one million dollars ($1,000,000) and if bonds, be secured by a first mortgage on the company's property, and if debentures, shall be issued by a company substantially all of whose property is free of mortgage and shall carry a covenant to be secured equally with any mortgage indebtedness, except a purchase money mortgage, subsequently issued, and both bonds and debentures shall be issued by a company that meets all of the following conditions:

(1) Is the supplier of substantially all water for domestic use in a community or communities having a population of not less than 25,000.

(2) Whose funded debt does not exceed two-thirds of the value of its physical property as shown by the published statement of the company for its next preceding fiscal period, less the amount of any reserves shown for depreciation, retirement or amortization of such physical property. Physical property of a corporation shall include the physical property of a subsidiary corporation if the corporation owns not less than 90 percent of the outstanding voting shares of the subsidiary corporation.

(3) Which for four out of the five most recent fiscal years and for the most recent fiscal year shall have had earnings including those of subsidiaries mentioned in paragraph (2) available for the payment of interest charges, before deduction of state and federal taxes imposed on or measured by income or profits, of at least one and one-half times the interest charges on the company's total funded debt during the respective fiscal years.

SEC. 28.1. Section 1007 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1007. Bonds of any flood control and water conservation districts, or any zone thereof, having an assessed valuation on taxable real property of not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000), county, city and county, city, metropolitan water district, municipal utility district, special districts established by and within any municipal utility district, transit district, rapid transit district including sales tax revenue bonds of the district, metropolitan transit authority, flood control district, or school district of the State of California (herein referred to generally as public corporation) except the bonds of any particular such public corporation which may be declared ineligible for investment by savings banks by regulations of the commissioner.

SEC. 29. Section 1227 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1227. A commercial bank may lend on the security of a first lien on real property or a first lien on a leasehold under a lease which does not expire, or which has been extended or renewed so that it does not expire, for at least 10 years beyond the maturity date of the loan, if:

(a) The term of the loan does not exceed 10 years and the amount does not exceed 60 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold, together with the improvements located on the property which are made subject to the lien, as determined by proper appraisal.

(b) The term of the loan does not exceed 30 years, is repayable in substantially equal installments not less often than monthly (or a variation therefrom as may be authorized under a loan executed pursuant to Section 1916.5 or 1916.8 of the Civil Code), with payments commencing not later than 60 days from the date of the loan or, in the case of a construction loan, commencing not later than one year from the date of the loan, and the amount does not exceed 90 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold, together with the improvements located on the property which are made subject to the lien, as determined by proper appraisal, provided, however, the loan may exceed 90 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold if that portion of the loan which is in excess of 90 percent is guaranteed or insured by a private insurer licensed by the Insurance Commissioner.

(c) The loan is made pursuant to and in conformance with regulations adopted under Section 1227.1 of the Financial Code or Section 1916.12 of the Civil Code.

(d) The loan is on a farm or productive agricultural lands, the term does not exceed 30 years, is repayable in substantially equal installments not less often than annually, and the amount does not exceed 90 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold, together with the improvements located on the property which are made subject to the lien, as determined by proper appraisal.

(e) The term of the loan does not exceed six months and the amount does not exceed 85 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold, together with the improvements located on the property which are made subject to the lien, as determined by proper appraisal.

(f) The term of the loan does not exceed 60 months, the amount does not exceed 85 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold, together with the improvements located on the property which are made subject to the lien, as determined by proper appraisal, and the loan is for the purpose of financing building operations under a plan providing for payment of the loan or providing for refinancing by loans otherwise permitted by this chapter.

A commercial bank may make a loan without regard to the above restrictions when necessary to facilitate the sale of real property owned by the bank.

SEC. 29.1. Section 1227 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1227. A commercial bank may lend on the security of a first lien on real property or a first lien on a leasehold under a lease which does not expire, or which has been extended or renewed so that it does not expire, for at least 10 years beyond the maturity date of the loan, if:

(a) The term of the loan does not exceed 10 years and the amount does not exceed 60 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold, together with the improvements located on the property which are made subject to the lien, as determined by proper appraisal.

(b) The term of the loan does not exceed 30 years, is repayable in substantially equal installments not less often than monthly (or a variation therefrom as may be authorized under a loan executed pursuant to Section 1916.5 or 1916.8 of the Civil Code), with payments commencing not later than 60 days from the date of the loan or, in the case of a construction loan, commencing not later than one year from the date of the loan, and the amount does not exceed 90 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold, together with the improvements located on the property which are made subject to the lien, as determined by proper appraisal, provided, however, the loan may exceed 90 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold if that portion of the loan which is in excess of 90 percent is guaranteed or insured by a private insurer licensed by the Insurance Commissioner.

(c) The loan is made pursuant to and in conformance with regulations adopted under Section 1916.12 of the Civil Code.

(d) The loan is on a farm or productive agricultural lands, the term does not exceed 30 years, is repayable in substantially equal installments not less often than annually, and the amount does not exceed 90 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold, together with the improvements located on the property which are made subject to the lien, as determined by proper appraisal.

(e) The term of the loan does not exceed six months and the amount does not exceed 85 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold, together with the improvements located on the property which are made subject to the lien, as determined by proper appraisal.

(f) The term of the loan does not exceed 60 months, the amount does not exceed 85 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold, together with the improvements located on the property which are made subject to the lien, as determined by proper appraisal, and the loan is for the purpose of financing building operations under a plan providing for payment of the loan or providing for refinancing by loans otherwise permitted by this chapter.

A commercial bank may make a loan without regard to the above restrictions when necessary to facilitate the sale of real property owned by the bank.

SEC. 30. Section 1336 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1336. Unless otherwise approved by the superintendent, a commercial bank shall not invest an amount exceeding 15 percent of its shareholders' equity in the securities of any one obligor or maker, except:

(a) Obligations of the United States and those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(b) Bonds, consolidated bonds, collateral trust debentures, or other obligations issued by the Federal Financing Bank, the United States Postal Service, federal land banks or federal intermediate credit banks established under the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended; in debentures and consolidated debentures issued by the Central Bank for Cooperatives and banks for cooperatives established under the Farm Credit Act of 1933, as amended; in consolidated notes, bonds, debentures and other obligations issued by federal land banks, federal intermediate credit banks, and banks for cooperatives under the Farm Credit Act of 1971; in bonds or debentures of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board established under the Federal Home Loan Bank Act; in the bonds of any federal home loan bank established under said act; and in stock, bonds, debentures, participations, and other obligations of or issued by the Student Loan Marketing Association, the Federal National Mortgage Association, the Government National Mortgage Association, and the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation.

(c) Obligations of the State of California and those for which the credit of the State of California is pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(d) Obligations of a local agency or district of the State of California having the power, without limit as to rate or amount, to levy taxes to pay the principal and interest of the bonds upon all property within its boundaries subject to taxation by the local agency or district.

SEC. 30.1. Section 1336 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1336. Unless otherwise approved by the commissioner, a commercial bank shall not invest an amount exceeding 15 percent of its shareholders' equity in the securities of any one obligor or maker, except:

(a) Obligations of the United States and those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

SEC. 55. Section 1667 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1667. From the proceeds of any sale the bank shall deduct the amount set forth in such notice and any further charges which may have accrued since the mailing of the notice and shall record the balance of the proceeds, if any, on its books as a liability payable to the person in whose name the safe-deposit box was rented.

SEC. 56. Section 1668 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1668. Any documents, letters, or other articles found in a safe-deposit box opened pursuant to Section 1662, which in the judgment of at least two officers of the bank have no intrinsic or marketable value, need not be offered for sale. Any documents, letters, and articles and any other contents which have been offered for sale and for which no purchaser has been found, shall be retained by the bank for not less than one year from the date when the box was opened. At any time thereafter, unless sooner delivered to or on the order of the person in whose name the box stood on the records of the bank, the documents, letters, and articles and also those contents which have been offered for sale and for which no purchaser has been found, may be destroyed in the presence of an officer of the bank, but if no notice of intended sale of the contents of the box has been given pursuant to Section 1664, the bank shall mail a notice of its intention to destroy the documents, letters, and articles at least 30 days before the destruction of the same to the person in whose name the box stood on the records of the bank.

SEC. 57. Section 1673 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1673. Any documents, letters, or other articles which, in the judgment of an officer of the bank, have no apparent intrinsic or marketable value, need not be offered for sale. The documents, letters, and articles and any other articles which have been offered for sale and for which no purchaser has been found, shall be retained by the bank for not less than one year from the date when notice of sale was mailed. At any time thereafter, unless sooner delivered to or on the order of the person in whose name the receipt was issued, the documents, letters and articles may be destroyed in the presence of an officer of the bank and of a notary public.

SEC. 58. Section 1678 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1678. (a) Whenever this article requires that notice be sent to a person, and the box stood or stands on the records of the bank or the safekeeping or storage receipt was issued in the names of two or more persons, notice addressed to either or to any one of the two or more persons shall be binding upon and effective as to the remaining person or all remaining persons, and notice addressed to the name of any deceased individual shall be binding upon his or her legal representatives and on his or her heirs and legatees.

(b) Whenever this article requires that notice be published prior to a sale, the notice shall include the name and address of the person in whose name the safe-deposit box stood on the records of the bank or the safekeeping or storage receipt was issued. The names and addresses of all persons whose property is to be sold at the same time and place may be included in a single published notice.

(c) Whenever this article requires that an amount be credited to the account of a person in whose name a safe-deposit box stood on the records of the bank or a safekeeping or storage receipt was issued, and the box stood or the receipt was issued in two or more names, the account shall be in both or all the names, subject to withdrawal by or upon the written order of any one or more of those persons, or by their successors or legal representatives.

(d) Whenever this article requires that a notice shall be mailed to the person in whose name the safe-deposit box stood on the records of the bank or a safekeeping or storage receipt was issued, the notice shall be deemed to have been so mailed if it is enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the person in whose name the safe-deposit box stood in the office of the bank at which the records of the safe-deposit box rentals are kept, or to the person in whose name the receipt was issued, as the case may be, addressed to the person at the address or place appearing on the safe-deposit or storage records of the office, and the envelope with postage prepaid has been deposited by at least first-class mail in the United States mail.

SEC. 59. Section 1726 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1726. (a) (1) No foreign (other nation) bank shall establish or maintain a representative office unless the superintendent shall have first approved the establishment of the office and issued a license authorizing the bank to maintain the office.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not be deemed to prohibit a foreign (other nation) bank that maintains a federal agency or federal branch in this state from establishing or maintaining one or more representative offices in this state.

(b) If the superintendent finds the following with respect to an application by a foreign (other nation) bank for approval to establish a representative office, the superintendent shall approve the application:

(1) That the bank, any controlling person of the bank, the directors and executive officers of the bank or of any controlling person of the bank, and the proposed management of the office are each of good character and sound financial standing.

(2) That the financial history and condition of the bank are satisfactory.

(3) That the management of the bank and the proposed management of the office are adequate.

(4) That it is reasonable to believe that, if licensed to maintain the office, the bank will operate the office in compliance with all applicable laws, regulations, and orders.

If the superintendent finds otherwise, the superintendent shall deny the application.

(c) Whenever an application by a foreign (other nation) bank for approval to establish a representative office has been approved and all conditions precedent to the issuance of a license authorizing the bank to maintain the office have been fulfilled, the superintendent shall issue the license.

SEC. 59.1. Section 1726 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1726. (a) (1) No foreign (other nation) bank shall establish or maintain a representative office unless the commissioner shall have first approved the establishment of the office and issued a license authorizing the bank to maintain the office.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not be deemed to prohibit a foreign (other nation) bank that maintains a federal agency or federal branch in this state from establishing or maintaining one or more representative offices in this state.

(b) If the commissioner finds the following with respect to an application by a foreign (other nation) bank for approval to establish a representative office, the commissioner shall approve the application:

(1) That the bank, any controlling person of the bank, the directors and executive officers of the bank or of any controlling person of the bank, and the proposed management of the office are each of good character and sound financial standing.

(2) That the financial history and condition of the bank are satisfactory.

(3) That the management of the bank and the proposed management of the office are adequate.

(4) That it is reasonable to believe that, if licensed to maintain the office, the bank will operate the office in compliance with all applicable laws, regulations, and orders.

If the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application.

(c) Whenever an application by a foreign (other nation) bank for approval to establish a representative office has been approved and all conditions precedent to the issuance of a license authorizing the bank to maintain the office have been fulfilled, the commissioner shall issue the license.

SEC. 63. Section 1807 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1807. (a) The superintendent may by order or regulation grant exemptions from this section in cases where the superintendent finds that the requirements of this section are not necessary.

(b) Each licensee shall, within 90 days after the end of each fiscal year, or within such extended time as the superintendent may prescribe, file with the superintendent an audit report for the fiscal year.

(c) The audit report called for in subdivision (b) shall comply with all of the following provisions:

(1) The audit report shall contain such audited financial statements of the licensee for, or as of the end of the fiscal year, prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and such other information as the superintendent may require.

(2) The audit report shall be based upon an audit of the bank conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and such other requirements as the superintendent may prescribe.

(3) The audit report shall be prepared by an independent certified public accountant or independent public accountant who is not unsatisfactory to the superintendent.

(4) The audit report shall include or be accompanied by a certificate of opinion of the independent certified public accountant or independent public accountant that is satisfactory in form and content to the superintendent. If the certificate or opinion is qualified, the superintendent may order the licensee to take such action as the superintendent may find necessary to enable the independent or certified public accountant or independent public accountant to remove the qualification.

(d) Each licensee shall, not more than 45 days after the end of each quarter (except the fourth quarter of its fiscal year), or within a longer period as the superintendent may by regulation or order specify, file with the superintendent a report containing all of the following:

(1) Financial statements, including balance sheet, income statement, statement of changes in shareholders' equity, and statement of cash flows, for, or as of the end of, that fiscal quarter, verified by two of the licensee's principal officers. The verification shall state that each of the officers making the verification has a personal knowledge of the matters in the report and that each of them believes that each statement on the report is true.

(2) The current address of the headquarters office and each branch office of the licensee and each agent at which the licensee receives transmission money in this state.

(3) The name and business address of each person who acted as an agent of the licensee during the quarter in this state, and if such person is no longer an agent of the licensee, the date on which such relationship terminated.

(4) Such other information as the superintendent may by regulation or order require.

(e) Each licensee shall file with the superintendent such other reports as and when the superintendent may by regulation or order require.

SEC. 63.1. Section 1807 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1807. (a) The commissioner may by order or regulation grant exemptions from this section in case where the commissioner finds that the requirements of this section are not necessary.

(b) Each licensee shall, within 90 days after the end of each fiscal year, or within such extended time as the commissioner may prescribe, file with the commissioner an audit report for the fiscal year.

(c) The audit report called for in subdivision (b) shall comply with all of the following provisions:

(1) The audit report shall contain such audited financial statements of the licensee for or as of the end of the fiscal year prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and such other information as the commissioner may require.

(2) The audit report shall be based upon an audit of the bank conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and such other requirements as the commissioner may prescribe.

(3) The audit report shall be prepared by an independent certified public accountant or independent public accountant who is not unsatisfactory to the commissioner.

(4) The audit report shall include or be accompanied by a certificate of opinion of the independent certified public accountant or independent public accountant that is satisfactory in form and content to the commissioner. If the certificate or opinion is qualified, the commissioner may order the licensee to take such action as the commissioner may find necessary to enable the independent or certified public accountant or independent public accountant to remove the qualification.

(d) Each licensee shall, not more than 45 days after the end of each quarter (except the fourth quarter of its fiscal year), or within a longer period as the commissioner may by regulation or order specify, file with the commissioner a report containing all of the following:

(1) Financial statements, including balance sheet, income statement, statement of changes in shareholders' equity, and statement of cash flows, for, or as of the end of, that fiscal quarter, verified by two of the licensee's principal officers. The verification shall state that each of the officers making the verification has a personal knowledge of the matters in the report and that each of them believes that each statement on the report is true.

(2) The current address of the headquarters office and each branch office of the licensee and each agent at which the licensee receives transmission money in this state.

(3) The name and business address of each person who acted as an agent of the licensee during the quarter in this state, and if such person is no longer an agent of the licensee, the date on which such relationship terminated.

(4) Such other information as the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

(e) Each licensee shall file with the commissioner such other reports as and when the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

SEC. 64. Section 1807.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1807.5. (a) Each licensee and each agent of a licensee shall make, keep, and preserve within the United States such books, accounts, and other records in such form, in such manner, and for such time as the superintendent may by regulation or order specify.

(b) All references in this chapter to financial statements, balance sheets, income statements, and statements of changes in financial position of a licensee or agent of a licensee mean financial statements, income statements, and statements of cash flows prepared or determined in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles then applicable, fairly presenting in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles the matters which they purport to present.

SEC. 78. Section 33761 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 79. Section 33762 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 80. Section 33901 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33901. Each licensee shall, not more than 90 days after the close of each of its fiscal years or within such longer period as the superintendent may by regulation or order specify, file with the superintendent a report containing:

(a) Financial statements, including balance sheet, statement of income or loss, statement of changes in shareholder's equity, and statement of cash flows, for or as of the end of such fiscal year, prepared with audit by an independent certified public accountant or an independent public accountant in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(b) Report, certificate, or opinion of such independent certified public accountant or independent public accountant, stating that such financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(c) Such other information as the superintendent may by regulation or order require.

SEC. 80.1. Section 33901 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33901. Each licensee shall, not more than 90 days after the close of each of its fiscal years or within such longer period as the commissioner may by regulation or order specify, file with the commissioner a report containing:

(a) Financial statements, including balance sheet, statement of income or loss, statement of changes in shareholder's equity, and statement of cash flows, for or as of the end of such fiscal year, prepared with audit by an independent certified public accountant or an independent public accountant in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(b) Report, certificate, or opinion of such independent certified public accountant or independent public accountant, stating that such financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(c) Such other information as the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

SEC. 81. Section 53651.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53651.2. (a) To be an eligible security under subdivision (m) of Section 53651, a promissory note placed in a securities pool on or after January 1, 1987, shall comply with all of the following provisions:

(1) Each promissory note shall be secured by a first mortgage or first trust deed on improved 1 to 4 unit residential real property located in California, shall be fully amortized over the term of the note, and shall have a term of no more than 30 years. Any first mortgage or first trust deed which secures a promissory note providing for negative amortization shall be removed from the securities pool and replaced with an eligible security under subdivision (m) of Section 53651 if the loan to value ratio exceeds 85 percent of the original appraised value of the security property as a consequence of negative amortization.

(2) Each promissory note shall be eligible for sale to the Federal National Mortgage Association, the Government National Mortgage Association, or the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation; provided, however, that up to 25 percent of the total dollar amount of any promissory note securities pool established pursuant to Section 53658 may consist of promissory notes with loan amounts which exceed the maximum amounts eligible for purchase by the Federal National Mortgage Association, the Government National Mortgage Association, or the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, but which do not exceed: (i) five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) in the case of a single family dwelling; (ii) one million dollars ($1,000,000) in the case of a 2, 3, or 4 unit dwelling.

(b) The following shall not constitute eligible securities under subdivision (m) of Section 53651:

(1) Any promissory note on which any payment is more than 60 days past due.

(2) Any promissory note secured by a mortgage or deed of trust as to which there is a lien prior to the mortgage or deed of trust. For the purposes of this paragraph, no lien specified in Section 766 of the Financial Code shall be considered a prior encumbrance unless any installment or payment thereunder (other than a rental or royalty under a lease) is due and delinquent.

(3) Any promissory note secured by a mortgage or deed of trust as to which a notice of default has been recorded pursuant to Section 2924 of the Civil Code or an action has been commenced pursuant to Section 725a of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(c) The depository may exercise, enforce, or waive any right granted to it by the promissory note, mortgage, or deed of trust.

(d) For purposes of this article, the market value of a promissory note which is an eligible security under subdivision (m) of Section 53651, shall be determined in accordance with the regulations adopted by the Treasurer under paragraph (2) of subdivision (m) of Section 53651, as the regulations and statute were in effect on December 31, 1986. However, if and when regulations on the subject are adopted by the administrator, the market value shall be determined in accordance with those regulations of the administrator.

SEC. 82. Section 53657 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53657. (a) No person shall act as an agent of depository unless that person is a trust company located in this state, the trust department of a bank located in this state, or the Federal Home Loan Bank of San Francisco, and is authorized by the administrator to act as an agent of depository.

(b) (1) An application for authorization shall be in such form, shall contain such information, shall be signed in such manner, and shall (if the administrator so requires) be verified in such manner, as the administrator may prescribe.

(2) The fee for filing an application for authorization with the administrator shall be five hundred dollars ($500).

(3) If the administrator finds, with respect to an application for authorization, that the applicant is competent to act as an agent of depository and that it is reasonable to believe the applicant will comply with all applicable provisions of this article and of any regulation or order issued under this article, the administrator shall approve the application. If the administrator finds otherwise, the administrator shall deny the application.

(4) When an application for authorization has been approved, the applicant shall file with the administrator an agreement to comply with all applicable provisions of this article and of any regulation or order issued under this article. The agreement shall be in such form, shall contain such provisions, and shall be signed in such manner as the administrator may prescribe.

(5) When an application for authorization has been approved, the applicant has complied with paragraph (4), and all conditions precedent to authorizing the applicant to act as agent of depository have been fulfilled, the administrator shall authorize the applicant to act as agent of depository.

SEC. 83. Section 12392 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 84. Section 12393 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 85. Section 12395 of the Insurance Code is repealed.

SEC. 86. Section 12204 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

12204. The tax imposed on insurers by this chapter is in lieu of all other taxes and licenses, state, county, and municipal, upon such insurers and their property, except:

(a) Taxes upon their real estate.

(b) Any retaliatory exactions imposed by paragraph (3) of subdivision (f) of Section 28 of Article XIII of the Constitution.

(c) The tax on ocean marine insurance.

(d) Motor vehicle and other vehicle registration license fees and any other tax or license fee imposed by the state upon vehicles, motor vehicles or the operation thereof.

(e) That each corporate or other attorney in fact of a reciprocal or interinsurance exchange shall be subject to all taxes imposed upon corporations or others doing business in the state, other than taxes on income derived from its principal business as attorney in fact.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1996. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1996.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares as follows:

(a) At present, commercial banks are regulated by the State Banking Department; savings associations, by the Department of Savings and Loan; and credit unions and industrial loan companies, by the Department of Corporations.

(b) In 44 other states of the United States, there is a single state agency that regulates two or more of the following four categories of depository corporations: commercial banks, savings associations, credit unions, and industrial loan companies. In 35 of those states, the agency's jurisdiction includes commercial banks, savings associations, and credit unions.

(c) Consolidating the regulation of depository corporations and other providers of financial services presently regulated by the State Banking Department in a single department is in the public interest.

(d) The regulation of all four categories of depository corporations by a single department is expected and intended to be more efficient and cost-effective than regulation by multiple departments.

(e) Accordingly, this act abolishes the State Banking Department and the Department of Savings and Loan, creates a new Department of Financial Institutions, and transfers to the Department of Financial Institutions all of the functions of the State Banking Department and the Department of Savings and Loan. In addition, this act transfers to the Department of Financial Institutions from the Department of Corporations the regulation of credit unions and industrial loan companies. Under this act, the new Department of Financial Institutions will regulate all four categories of depository corporations as well as the other providers of financial services presently regulated by the State Banking Department. The chief officer of the Department of Financial Institutions will be the Commissioner of Financial Institutions.

(f) While this act consolidates the regulation of the four categories of depository corporations in the Department of Financial Institutions, the four categories shall remain separate and distinct. In administering the Department of Financial Institutions, the Commissioner of Financial Institutions shall respect and give due consideration to the diversities among the four categories and the uniqueness of each category. Although some standards and practices may be common to two or more categories of depository corporations, other standards and practices are unique to each category. Whenever the Commissioner of Financial Institutions takes action with respect to a depository corporation of any particular category, the Commissioner of Financial Institutions shall take into account the differences between that category and other categories and shall apply standards and practices that are appropriate for that category.

SEC. 1.5. Section 7500.3 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7500.3. A repossession agency shall not include any of the following:

(a) Any bank subject to the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of the State of California under Division 1 (commencing with Section 99) of the Financial Code or the Comptroller of the Currency of the United States.

(b) Any person organized, chartered, or holding a license or authorization certificate to make loans pursuant to the laws of this state or the United States who is subject to supervision by any official or agency of this state or the United States.

(c) An attorney at law in performing his or her duties as an attorney at law.

(d) The legal owner of collateral which is subject to a security agreement.

(e) An officer or employee of the United States of America, or of this state or a political subdivision thereof, while the officer or employee is engaged in the performance of his or her official duties.

(f) A person employed exclusively and regularly by one employer in connection with the affairs of that employer only, and where there exists an employer-employee relationship.

SEC. 2. Section 7522 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7522. This chapter does not apply to:

(a) A person employed exclusively and regularly by any employer who does not provide contract security services for other entities or persons, in connection with the affairs of such employer only and where there exists an employer-employee relationship, provided that such person at no time carries or uses any deadly weapon in the performance of his or her duties. For purposes of this subdivision, "deadly weapon" is defined to include any instrument or weapon of the kind commonly known as a blackjack, slungshot, billy, sandclub, sandbag, metal knuckles, any dirk, dagger, pistol, revolver, or any other firearm, any knife having a blade longer than five inches, any razor with an unguarded blade and any metal pipe or bar used or intended to be used as a club.

(b) An officer or employee of the United States of America, or of this state or a political subdivision thereof, while the officer or employee is engaged in the performance of his or her official duties, including uniformed peace officers employed part time by a public agency pursuant to a written agreement between a chief of police or sheriff and the public agency, provided the part-time employment does not exceed 50 hours in any calendar month.

(c) A person engaged exclusively in the business of obtaining and furnishing information as to the financial rating of persons.

(d) A charitable philanthropic society or association duly incorporated under the laws of this state which is organized and maintained for the public good and not for private profit.

(e) An attorney at law in performing his or her duties as an attorney at law.

(f) Admitted insurers and agents and insurance brokers licensed by the state, performing duties in connection with insurance transacted by them.

(g) Any bank subject to the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of the State of California under Division 1 (commencing with Section 99) of the Financial Code or the Comptroller of Currency of the United States.

(h) A person engaged solely in the business of securing information about persons or property from public records.

(i) A peace officer of this state or a political subdivision thereof while the peace officer is employed by a private employer to engage in off-duty employment in accordance with the provisions of Section 1126 of the Government Code. However, nothing herein shall exempt such peace officer who contracts for his or her services or the services of others as a private investigator.

(j) A licensed insurance adjuster in performing his or her duties within the scope of his or her license as an insurance adjuster.

(k) Any savings association subject to the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions or the Office of Thrift Supervision.

(l) Any secured creditor engaged in the repossession of the creditor's collateral and any lessor engaged in the repossession of leased property in which it claims an interest.

SEC. 2.1. Section 7522 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7522. This chapter does not apply to:

(a) A person employed exclusively and regularly by any employer who does not provide contract security services for other entities or persons, in connection with the affairs of such employer only and where there exists an employer-employee relationship, provided that person at no time carries or uses any deadly weapon in the performance of his or her duties. For purposes of this subdivision, "deadly weapon" is defined to include any instrument or weapon of the kind commonly known as a blackjack, slungshot, billy, sandclub, sandbag, metal knuckles, any dirk, dagger, pistol, revolver, or any other firearm, any knife having a blade longer than five inches, any razor with an unguarded blade and any metal pipe or bar used or intended to be used as a club.

(b) An officer or employee of the United States of America, or of this state or a political subdivision thereof, while the officer or employee is engaged in the performance of his or her official duties, including uniformed peace officers employed part time by a public agency pursuant to a written agreement between a chief of police or sheriff and the public agency, provided the part-time employment does not exceed 50 hours in any calendar month.

(c) A person engaged exclusively in the business of obtaining and furnishing information as to the financial rating of persons.

(d) A charitable philanthropic society or association duly incorporated under the laws of this state which is organized and maintained for the public good and not for private profit.

(e) An attorney at law in performing his or her duties as an attorney at law.

(f) Admitted insurers and agents and insurance brokers licensed by the state, performing duties in connection with insurance transacted by them.

(g) Any bank subject to the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of the State of California under Division 1 (commencing with Section 99) of the Financial Code or the Comptroller of Currency of the United States.

(h) A person engaged solely in the business of securing information about persons or property from public records.

(i) A peace officer of this state or a political subdivision thereof while the peace officer is employed by a private employer to engage in off-duty employment in accordance with the provisions of Section 1126 of the Government Code. However, nothing herein shall exempt a peace officer who either contracts for his or her services or the services of others as a private investigator or contracts for his or her services as an armed private investigator. For purposes of this subdivision, "armed private investigator" means an individual who carries or uses a firearm in the course and scope of that employment.

(j) A licensed insurance adjuster in performing his or her duties within the scope of his or her license as an insurance adjuster.

(k) Any savings association subject to the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions or the Office of Thrift Supervision.

(l) Any secured creditor engaged in the repossession of the creditor's collateral and any lessor engaged in the repossession of leased property in which it claims an interest.

SEC. 3. Section 7582.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7582.2. This chapter does not apply to:

(a) A person employed exclusively and regularly by any employer who does not provide contract security services for other entities or persons, in connection with the affairs of the employer only and where there exists an employer-employee relationship, provided that the person at no time carries or uses any deadly weapon in the performance of his or her duties. For purposes of this subdivision, "deadly weapon" is defined to include any instrument or weapon of the kind commonly known as a blackjack, slungshot, billy, sandclub, sandbag, metal knuckles, any dirk, dagger, pistol, revolver, or any other firearm, any knife having a blade longer than five inches, any razor with an unguarded blade and any metal pipe or bar used or intended to be used as a club.

(b) An officer or employee of the United States of America, or of this state or a political subdivision thereof, while the officer or employee is engaged in the performance of his or her official duties, including uniformed peace officers employed part time by a public agency pursuant to a written agreement between a chief of police or sheriff and the public agency, provided the part-time employment does not exceed 50 hours in any calendar month.

(c) A person engaged exclusively in the business of obtaining and furnishing information as to the financial rating of persons.

(d) A charitable philanthropic society or association duly incorporated under the laws of this state which is organized and maintained for the public good and not for private profit.

(i) Any bank subject to the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of the State of California under Division 1 (commencing with Section 99) of the Financial Code or the Comptroller of Currency of the United States.

(j) A person engaged solely in the business of securing information about persons or property from public records.

(k) A peace officer of this state or a political subdivision thereof while the peace officer is employed by a private employer to engage in off-duty employment in accordance with the provisions of Section 1126 of the Government Code. However, nothing herein shall exempt such peace officer who contracts for his or her services or the services of others as a private patrol operator.

(l) A retired peace officer of the state or political subdivision thereof when the retired peace officer is employed by a private employer in employment approved by the chief law enforcement officer of the jurisdiction where the employment takes place, provided that the retired officer is in a uniform of a public law enforcement agency, has registered with the bureau on a form approved by the director, and has met any training requirements or their equivalent as established for security personnel under Section 7583.5. This officer may not carry a loaded or concealed firearm unless he or she is exempted under the provisions of subdivision (a) of Section 12027 of the Penal Code or paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 12031 of the Penal Code or has met the requirements set forth in Section 12033 of the Penal Code. However, nothing herein shall exempt the retired peace officer who contracts for his or her services or the services of others as a private patrol operator.

(m) A licensed insurance adjuster in performing his or her duties within the scope of his or her license as an insurance adjuster.

(n) Any savings association subject to the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions or the Office of Thrift Supervision.

(o) Any secured creditor engaged in the repossession of the creditor's collateral and any lessor engaged in the repossession of leased property in which it claims an interest.

SEC. 3.1. Section 7582.2 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

7582.2. This chapter does not apply to:

(a) A person employed exclusively and regularly by any employer who does not provide contract security services for other entities or persons, in connection with the affairs of the employer only and where there exists an employer-employee relationship, provided that the person at no time carries or uses any deadly weapon in the performance of his or her duties. For purposes of this subdivision, "deadly weapon" is defined to include any instrument or weapon of the kind commonly known as a blackjack, slungshot, billy, sandclub, sandbag, metal knuckles, any dirk, dagger, pistol, revolver, or any other firearm, any knife having a blade longer than five inches, any razor with an unguarded blade and any metal pipe or bar used or intended to be used as a club.

(b) An officer or employee of the United States of America, or of this state or a political subdivision thereof, while the officer or employee is engaged in the performance of his or her official duties, including uniformed peace officers employed part time by a public agency pursuant to a written agreement between a chief of police or sheriff and the public agency, provided the part-time employment does not exceed 50 hours in any calendar month.

(c) A person engaged exclusively in the business of obtaining and furnishing information as to the financial rating of persons.

(d) A charitable philanthropic society or association duly incorporated under the laws of this state which is organized and maintained for the public good and not for private profit.

(e) Patrol special police officers appointed by the police commission of any city, county, or city and county under the express terms of its charter who also under the express terms of the charter (1) are subject to suspension or dismissal after a hearing on charges duly filed with the commission after a fair and impartial trial, (2) must be not less than 18 years of age nor more than 40 years of age, (3) must possess physical qualifications prescribed by the commission, and (4) are designated by the police commission as the owners of a certain beat or territory as may be fixed from time to time by the police commission.

(f) An attorney at law in performing his or her duties as an attorney at law.

(g) A collection agency or an employee thereof while acting within the scope of his or her employment, while making an investigation incidental to the business of the agency, including an investigation of the location of a debtor or his or her property where the contract with an assignor creditor is for the collection of claims owed or due or asserted to be owed or due or the equivalent thereof.

(h) Admitted insurers and agents and insurance brokers licensed by the state, performing duties in connection with insurance transacted by them.

(i) Any bank subject to the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of the State of California under Division 1 (commencing with Section 99) of the Financial Code or the Comptroller of Currency of the United States.

(j) A person engaged solely in the business of securing information about persons or property from public records.

(k) A peace officer of this state or a political subdivision thereof while the peace officer is employed by a private employer to engage in off-duty employment in accordance with the provisions of Section 1126 of the Government Code. However, nothing herein shall exempt such peace officer who either contracts for his or her services or the services of others as a private patrol operator or contracts for his or her services as an armed private security officer. For purposes of this subdivision, "armed security officer" means an individual who carries or uses a firearm in the course and scope of that employment.

(l) A retired peace officer of the state or political subdivision thereof when the retired peace officer is employed by a private employer in employment approved by the chief law enforcement officer of the jurisdiction where the employment takes place, provided that the retired officer is in a uniform of a public law enforcement agency, has registered with the bureau on a form approved by the director, and has met any training requirements or their equivalent as established for security personnel under Section 7583.5. SEC. 5. Section 1916.5 of the Civil Code is amended to read:

1916.5. (a) No increase in interest provided for in any provision for a variable interest rate contained in a security document, or evidence of debt issued in connection therewith, by a lender other than a supervised financial organization shall be valid unless that provision is set forth in the security document, and in any evidence of debt issued in connection therewith, and the document or documents contain the following provisions:

(1) A requirement that when an increase in the interest rate is required or permitted by a movement in a particular direction of a prescribed standard an identical decrease is required in the interest rate by a movement in the opposite direction of the prescribed standard.

(2) The rate of interest shall change not more often than once during any semiannual period, and at least six months shall elapse between any two changes.

(3) The change in the interest rate shall not exceed one-fourth of 1 percent in any semiannual period, and shall not result in a rate more than 2.5 percentage points greater than the rate for the first loan payment due after the closing of the loan.

(4) The rate of interest shall not change during the first semiannual period.

(5) The borrower is permitted to prepay the loan in whole or in part without a prepayment charge within 90 days of notification of any increase in the rate of interest.

(6) A statement attached to the security document and to any evidence of debt issued in connection therewith printed or written in a size equal to at least 10-point bold type, consisting of the following language:

NOTICE TO BORROWER: THIS DOCUMENT CONTAINS PROVISIONS FOR A VARIABLE INTEREST RATE.

(b) (1) This section shall be applicable only to a mortgage contract, deed of trust, real estate sales contract, or any note or negotiable instrument issued in connection therewith, when its purpose is to finance the purchase or construction of real property containing four or fewer residential units or on which four or fewer residential units are to be constructed.

(2) This section shall not apply to unamortized construction loans with an original term of two years or less or to loans made for the purpose of the purchase or construction of improvements to existing residential dwellings.

(c) Regulations setting forth the prescribed standard upon which variations in the interest rate shall be based may be adopted by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions with respect to savings associations and by the Insurance Commissioner with respect to insurers. Regulations adopted by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions shall apply to all loans made by savings associations pursuant to this section prior to January 1, 1990.

(d) As used in this section:

(1) "Supervised financial organization" means a state or federally regulated bank, savings association, savings bank, or credit union, or state regulated industrial loan company, personal property broker, consumer finance lender, or holding company, affiliate, or subsidiary thereof, or institution of the Farm Credit System, as specified in 12 U.S.C. Sec. 2002.

(2) "Insurer" includes, but is not limited to, a nonadmitted insurance company.

(3) "Semiannual period" means each of the successive periods of six calendar months commencing with the first day of the calendar month in which the instrument creating the obligation is dated.

(4) "Security document" means a mortgage contract, deed of trust, or real estate sales contract.

(5) "Evidence of debt" means a note or negotiable instrument.

(e) This section shall be applicable only to instruments executed on and after the effective date of this section.

(f) This section shall not apply to nonprofit public corporations.

(g) This section is not intended to apply to a loan made where the rate of interest provided for is less than the then current market rate for a similar loan in order to accommodate the borrower because of a special relationship, including, but not limited to, an employment or business relationship, of the borrower with the lender or with a customer of the lender and the sole increase in interest provided for with respect to the loan will result only by reason of the termination of that relationship or upon the sale, deed, or transfer of the property securing the loan to a person not having that relationship.

SEC. 6. Section 995.710 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

995.710. (a) Except to the extent the statute providing for a bond precludes a deposit in lieu of bond or limits the form of deposit, the principal may, instead of giving a bond, deposit with the officer any of the following:

(1) Lawful money of the United States. The money shall be maintained by the officer in an interest-bearing trust account.

(2) Bearer bonds or bearer notes of the United States or the State of California.

(3) Certificates of deposit payable to the officer, not exceeding the federally insured amount, issued by banks or savings associations authorized to do business in this state and insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

(4) Savings accounts assigned to the officer, not exceeding the federally insured amount, together with evidence of the deposit in the savings accounts with banks authorized to do business in this state and insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

(5) Investment certificates or share accounts assigned to the officer, not exceeding the federally insured amount, issued by savings associations authorized to do business in this state and insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

(6) Certificates for funds or share accounts assigned to the officer, not exceeding the guaranteed amount, issued by a credit union, as defined in Section 14002 of the Financial Code, whose share deposits are guaranteed by the National Credit Union Administration or guaranteed by any other agency approved by the Department of Financial Institutions.

(b) The deposit shall be in an amount or have a face value, or in the case of bearer bonds or bearer notes have a market value, equal to or in excess of the amount that would be required to be secured by the bond if the bond were given by an admitted surety insurer. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, in the case of a deposit of bearer bonds or bearer notes other than in an action or proceeding, the officer may, in the officer's discretion, require that the amount of the deposit be determined not by the market value of the bonds or notes but by a formula based on the principal amount of the bonds or notes.

(c) The deposit shall be accompanied by an agreement executed by the principal authorizing the officer to collect, sell, or otherwise apply the deposit to enforce the liability of the principal on the deposit. The agreement shall include the address at which the principal may be served with notices, papers, and other documents under this chapter.

(d) The officer may prescribe terms and conditions to implement this section.

SEC. 7. Section 1571 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

1571. (a) The Controller may at reasonable times and upon reasonable notice examine the records of any person if the Controller has reason to believe that such person has failed to report property that should have been reported pursuant to this chapter.

(b) When requested by the Controller, such examination shall be conducted by any licensing or regulating agency otherwise empowered by the laws of this state to examine the records of the holder. For the purpose of determining compliance with this chapter, the Commissioner of Financial Institutions is vested with full authority to examine the records of any banking organization and any savings association doing business within this state but not organized under the laws of or created in this state.

SEC. 8. Section 163 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

163. "Corporation subject to the Banking Law" (Division 1 (commencing with Section 99) of the Financial Code) means:

(a) Any corporation which, with the approval of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions, is incorporated for the purpose of engaging in, or which is authorized by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions to engage in, the commercial banking business under Division 1 (commencing with Section 99) of the Financial Code.

(b) Any corporation (other than a corporation described in subdivision (c)) which, with the approval of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions, is incorporated for the purpose of engaging in, or which is authorized by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions to engage in, the trust business under Division 1 (commencing with Section 99) of the Financial Code.

(c) Any corporation which is authorized by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions and the Commissioner of Insurance to maintain a title insurance department to engage in title insurance business and a trust department to engage in trust business; or

(d) Any corporation which, with the approval of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions, is incorporated for the purpose of engaging in, or which is authorized by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions to engage in, business under Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500), Chapter 19, Division 1 of the Financial Code.

SEC. 9. Section 201 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

201. (a) The Secretary of State shall not file articles setting forth a name in which "bank," " trust," "trustee" or related words appear, unless the certificate of approval of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions is attached thereto. This subdivision does not apply to the articles of any corporation subject to the Banking Law on which is endorsed the approval of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions.

(b) The Secretary of State shall not file articles which set forth a name which is likely to mislead the public or which is the same as, or resembles so closely as to tend to deceive, the name of a domestic corporation, the name of a foreign corporation which is authorized to transact intrastate business or has registered its name pursuant to Section 2101, a name which a foreign corporation has assumed under subdivision (b) of Section 2106, a name which will become the record name of a domestic or foreign corporation upon the effective date of a filed corporate instrument where there is a delayed effective date pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 110 or subdivision (c) of Section 5008, or a name which is under reservation for another corporation pursuant to this section, Section 5122, Section 7122, or Section 9122, except that a corporation may adopt a name that is substantially the same as an existing domestic corporation or foreign corporation which is authorized to transact intrastate business or has registered its name pursuant to Section 2101, upon proof of consent by such domestic or foreign corporation and a finding by the Secretary of State that under the circumstances the public is not likely to be misled.

The use by a corporation of a name in violation of this section may be enjoined notwithstanding the filing of its articles by the Secretary of State.

(c) Any applicant may, upon payment of the fee prescribed therefor in the Government Code, obtain from the Secretary of State a certificate of reservation of any name not prohibited by subdivision (b), and upon the issuance of the certificate the name stated therein shall be reserved for a period of 60 days. The Secretary of State shall not, however, issue certificates reserving the same name for two or more consecutive 60-day periods to the same applicant or for the use or benefit of the same person, partnership, firm or corporation; nor shall consecutive reservations be made by or for the use or benefit of the same person, partnership, firm or corporation of names so similar as to fall within the prohibitions of subdivision (b).

SEC. 10. Section 1001 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

1001. (a) A corporation may sell, lease, convey, exchange, transfer or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its assets when the principal terms are

(1) Approved by the board, and

(2) Unless the transaction is in the usual and regular course of its business, approved by the outstanding shares (Section 152), either before or after approval by the board and before or after the transaction.

A transaction constituting a reorganization (Section 181) is subject to the provisions of Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 1200) and not this section (other than subdivision (d) hereof).

(b) Notwithstanding approval of the outstanding shares (Section 152), the board may abandon the proposed transaction without further action by the shareholders, subject to the contractual rights, if any, of third parties.

(c) Such sale, lease, conveyance, exchange, transfer or other disposition may be made upon such terms and conditions and for such consideration as the board may deem in the best interests of the corporation. The consideration may be money, property or securities of any other corporation, domestic or foreign, or any of them.

(d) If the buyer in a sale of assets pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section or subdivision (g) of Section 2001 is in control of or under common control with the seller, the principal terms of the sale must be approved by at least 90 percent of the voting power unless the sale is to a domestic or foreign corporation in consideration of the nonredeemable common shares of the purchasing corporation or its parent.

(e) Subdivision (d) does not apply to any transaction if the Commissioner of Corporations, the Commissioner of Financial Institutions, the Insurance Commissioner or the Public Utilities Commission has approved the terms and conditions of the transaction and the fairness of such terms and conditions pursuant to Section 25142, Section 696.5 of the Financial Code, Section 838.5 of the Insurance Code or Section 822 of the Public Utilities Code.

SEC. 11. Section 1101.1 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

1101.1. Subdivision (c) of Section 1113 and the last two sentences of Section 1101 do not apply to any transaction if the Commissioner of Corporations, the Commissioner of Financial Institutions, the Insurance Commissioner or, the Public Utilities Commission has approved the terms and conditions of the transaction and the fairness of such terms and conditions pursuant to Section 25142 or Section 696.5, 5750, or 5802 of the Financial Code or Section 838.5 of the Insurance Code.

SEC. 12. Section 5122 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

5122. (a) The Secretary of State shall not file articles setting forth a name in which "bank," "trust," "trustee" or related words appear, unless the certificate of approval of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions is attached thereto.

(b) The Secretary of State shall not file articles which set forth a name which is likely to mislead the public or which is the same as, or resembles so closely as to tend to deceive, the name of a domestic corporation, the name of a foreign corporation which is authorized to transact intrastate business or has registered its name pursuant to Section 2101, a name which a foreign corporation has assumed under subdivision (b) of Section 2106 or a name which will become the record name of a domestic or foreign corporation upon the effective date of a filed corporate instrument where there is a delayed effective date pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 110, or subdivision (c) of Section 5008, or a name which is under reservation pursuant to this section, Section 201, Section 7122, or Section 9122, except that a corporation may adopt a name that is substantially the same as an existing domestic or foreign corporation which is authorized to transact intrastate business or has registered its name pursuant to Section 2101, upon proof of consent by such corporation and a finding by the Secretary of State that under the circumstances the public is not likely to be misled.

The use by a corporation of a name in violation of this section may be enjoined notwithstanding the filing of its articles by the Secretary of State.

(c) Any applicant may, upon payment of the fee prescribed therefor in the Government Code, obtain from the Secretary of State a certificate of reservation of any name not prohibited by subdivision (b), and upon the issuance of the certificate the name stated therein shall be reserved for a period of 60 days. The Secretary of State shall not, however, issue certificates reserving the same name for two or more consecutive 60-day periods to the same applicant or for the use or benefit of the same person; nor shall consecutive reservations be made by or for the use or benefit of the same person of names so similar as to fall within the prohibitions of subdivision (b).

SEC. 13. Section 7122 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

7122. (a) The Secretary of State shall not file articles setting forth a name in which "bank," "trust," "trustee" or related words appear, unless the certificate of approval of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions is attached thereto.

(b) The Secretary of State shall not file articles pursuant to this part setting forth a name which may create the impression that the purpose of the corporation is public, charitable or religious or that it is a charitable foundation.

(c) The Secretary of State shall not file articles which set forth a name which is likely to mislead the public or which is the same as, or resembles so closely as to tend to deceive, the name of a domestic corporation, the name of a foreign corporation which is authorized to transact intrastate business or has registered its name pursuant to Section 2101, a name which a foreign corporation has assumed under subdivision (b) of Section 2106, a name which will become the record name of a domestic or foreign corporation upon the effective date of a filed corporate instrument where there is a delayed effective date pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 110, or subdivision (c) of Section 5008, or a name which is under reservation pursuant to this section, Section 201, Section 5122, or Section 9122 except that a corporation may adopt a name that is substantially the same as an existing domestic or foreign corporation which is authorized to transact intrastate business or has registered its name pursuant to Section 2101, upon proof of consent by such corporation and a finding by the Secretary of State that under the circumstances the public is not likely to be misled.

The use by a corporation of a name in violation of this section may be enjoined notwithstanding the filing of its articles by the Secretary of State.

(d) Any applicant may, upon payment of the fee prescribed therefor in the Government Code, obtain from the Secretary of State a certificate of reservation of any name not prohibited by subdivision (c), and upon the issuance of the certificate the name stated therein shall be reserved for a period of 60 days. The Secretary of State shall not, however, issue certificates reserving the same name for two or more consecutive 60-day periods to the same applicant or for the use or benefit of the same person; nor shall consecutive reservations be made by or for the use or benefit of the same person of names so similar as to fall within the prohibitions of subdivision (c).

SEC. 14. Section 9122 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

9122. (a) The Secretary of State shall not file articles setting forth a name in which "bank," "trust," "trustee" or related words appear, unless the certificate of approval of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions is attached thereto.

(b) The Secretary of State shall not file articles which set forth a name which is likely to mislead the public or which is the same as, or resembles so closely as to tend to deceive, the name of a domestic corporation, the name of a foreign corporation which is authorized to transact intrastate business or has registered its name pursuant to Section 2101, a name which a foreign corporation has assumed under subdivision (b) of Section 2106 or a name which will become the record name of a domestic or foreign corporation upon the effective date of a filed corporate instrument where there is a delayed effective date pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 110 or subdivision (c) of Section 5008, or a name which is under reservation pursuant to this section, Section 201, Section 5122, or Section 7122, except that a corporation may adopt a name that is substantially the same as an existing domestic or foreign corporation which is authorized to transact intrastate business or has registered its name pursuant to Section 2101, upon proof of consent by such corporation and a finding by the Secretary of State that under the circumstances the public is not likely to be misled.

The use by a corporation of a name in violation of this section may be enjoined notwithstanding the filing of its articles by the Secretary of State.

(c) Any applicant may, upon payment of the fee prescribed therefor in the Government Code, obtain from the Secretary of State a certificate of reservation of any name not prohibited by subdivision (b), and upon the issuance of the certificate the name stated therein shall be reserved for a period of 60 days. The Secretary of State shall not, however, issue certificates reserving the same name for two or more consecutive 60-day periods to the same applicant or for the use or benefit of the same person; nor shall consecutive reservations be made by or for the use or benefit of the same person of names so similar as to fall within the prohibitions of subdivision (b).

SEC. 15. Section 12302 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

12302. (a) The Secretary of State shall not file articles setting forth a name in which "bank," "trust," "trustee" or related words appear, unless the certificate of approval of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions is attached thereto.

(b) The Secretary of State shall not file articles which set forth a name which is likely to mislead the public or which is the same as, or resembles so closely as to tend to deceive, the name of a domestic corporation, the name of a foreign corporation which is authorized to transact intrastate business or has registered its name pursuant to Section 2101, a name which a foreign corporation has assumed under subdivision (b) of Section 2106, a name which will become the record name of a domestic or foreign corporation upon the effective date of a filed corporate instrument where there is a delayed effective date pursuant to this title, or a name which is under reservation pursuant to this title, except that a corporation may adopt a name that is substantially the same as an existing domestic or foreign corporation which is authorized to transact intrastate business or has registered its name pursuant to Section 2101, upon proof of consent by such corporation and a finding by the Secretary of State that under the circumstances the public is not likely to be misled.

(c) The use by a corporation of a name in violation of this section may be enjoined notwithstanding the filing of its articles by the Secretary of State.

(d) Any applicant may, upon payment of the fee prescribed therefor in the Government Code, obtain from the Secretary of State a certificate of reservation of any name not prohibited by subdivision (c), and upon the issuance of the certificate the name stated therein shall be reserved for a period of 60 days. The Secretary of State shall not, however, issue certificates reserving the same name for two or more consecutive 60-day periods to the same applicant or for the use or benefit of the same person; nor shall consecutive reservations be made by or for the use or benefit of the same person of names so similar as to fall within the prohibitions of subdivision (c).

SEC. 16. Section 14021 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14021. The board consists of the following membership:

(a) The Commissioner of Financial Institutions or his or her designee.

(b) The Secretary of Trade and Commerce or his or her designee.

(c) The Director of Food and Agriculture or his or her designee.

(d) The Director of the Employment Development Department or his or her designee.

(e) The President of the State Assistance Fund for Energy, California Business and Industrial Development Corporation (SAFE BIDCO) shall serve as an ex officio nonvoting member.

(f) The Director of the California Export Finance Office, California State World Trade Commission shall serve as an ex officio nonvoting member.

(g) The Chief of the Office of Small and Minority Business, Department of General Services shall serve as an ex officio nonvoting member.

(h) The California Small Business Advocate shall serve as an ex officio nonvoting member.

(i) The Chairperson of the Coalition of California Small Business Development Centers shall serve as an ex officio nonvoting member.

(j) Thirteen members appointed by the Governor, including:

(1) Two persons residing in economically disadvantaged areas who are actively engaged in providing leadership and assistance for persons residing in these areas; one each from an urban and rural area.

(2) Two persons to be recommended by the financial institutions participating in the program as of January 1 of each year.

(3) Two persons actively engaged in a commercial, agricultural, or industrial business and who are members of a small, agricultural, minority, or women's business association.

(4) One person who is an officer of an urban labor organization.

(5) One person experienced in financial matters or actively engaged in the banking, savings and loan, or insurance business.

(k) Two Members of the Legislature or their designees, one of whom shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, and one by the Senate Rules Committee, shall advise with the board insofar as it does not conflict with the duties of the legislators. For purposes of this part, the two Members of the Legislature shall constitute a joint interim legislative committee on the subject of this part and shall have all the powers and duties imposed upon these committees by the Joint Rules of the Senate and the Assembly.

(l) Four persons actively involved in the business or agricultural community, two of whom shall be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly, and two by the Senate Rules Committee, each of whom may be removed at the pleasure of the appointing authority.

(m) One person from each small business development corporation, who shall be selected by the board of directors or members of each corporation in accordance with its bylaws, each of whom shall serve as a nonvoting member of the board.

(n) The Chairperson of the Development Board shall be designated by the Governor from the members he or she appoints.

SEC. 17. Section 14025 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14025. The director, as provided for in Section 15335.07 of the Government Code, shall do all of the following:

(a) Administer this part.

(b) In accordance with program resources, stimulate the formation of corporations and the use of branch offices for the purposes of making this program accessible to all areas of the state.

(c) Expeditiously approve or disapprove the articles of incorporation and any subsequent amendments to the articles of incorporation of a corporation.

(d) Require each corporation to submit an annual written plan of operation in the form and containing the information as the board may require by regulation or otherwise.

(e) Review reports from the Department of Financial Institutions and inform corporations as to what corrective action is required.

(f) Examine, or cause to be examined, at any reasonable time, all books, records, and documents of every kind, and the physical properties of a corporation. The inspection shall include the right to make copies, extracts, and search records.

SEC. 17.1. Section 14025 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

14025. The director, as provided for in Section 15335.07 of the Government Code, shall do all of the following:

(a) Administer this part.

(b) In accordance with program resources, stimulate the formation of corporations and the use of branch offices for the purposes of making this program accessible to all areas of the state.

(c) Expeditiously approve or disapprove the articles of incorporation and any subsequent amendments to the articles of incorporation of a corporation.

(d) Require each corporation to submit an annual written plan of operation.

(e) Review reports from the Department of Financial Institutions and inform corporations as to what corrective action is required.

(f) Examine, or cause to be examined, at any reasonable time, all books, records, and documents of every kind, and the physical properties of a corporation. The inspection shall include the right to make copies, extracts, and search records.

SEC. 18. Section 25100 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25100. The following securities are exempted from Sections 25110, 25120, and 25130:

(a) Any security (including a revenue obligation) issued or guaranteed by the United States, any state, any city, county, city and county, public district, public authority, public corporation, public entity, or political subdivision of a state or any agency or corporate or other instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(b) Any security issued or guaranteed by the Dominion of Canada, any Canadian province, any political subdivision or municipality of that province, or by any other foreign government with which the United States currently maintains diplomatic relations, if the security is recognized as a valid obligation by the issuer or guarantor; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(c) Any security issued or guaranteed by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of a national bank or a bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state, and any security issued by a bank to one or more other banks and representing an interest in an asset of the issuing bank.

(d) Any security issued or guaranteed by a federal savings association or federal savings bank or federal land bank or joint land bank or national farm loan association or by any savings association, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 5102 of the Financial Code, which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of this state.

(e) Any security (other than an interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided land or a subdivision or in a real estate development), the issuance of which is subject to authorization by the Insurance Commissioner, the Public Utilities Commission, or the Real Estate Commissioner of this state.

(f) Any security consisting of any interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided lands or a subdivision or in a real estate development; provided that the exemption in this subdivision shall not be applicable to any investment contract sold or offered for sale with, or as part of, any such interest, or to any person engaged in the business of selling, distributing, or supplying water for irrigation purposes or domestic use which is not a public utility.

(g) Any mutual capital certificates or savings accounts, as defined in the Savings Association Law, issued by a savings association, as defined by subdivision (a) of Section 5102 of the Financial Code, and holding a license or certificate of authority then in force from the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of this state.

(h) Any security issued or guaranteed by any federal credit union, or by any credit union organized and supervised, or regulated, under the Credit Union Law.

(i) Any security issued or guaranteed by any railroad, other common carrier, public utility, or public utility holding company which is (1) subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission or (2) a holding company registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 or a subsidiary of that company within the meaning of that act or (3) regulated in respect of the issuance or guarantee of the security by a governmental authority of the United States, of any state, of Canada or of any Canadian province; and the security is subject to registration with or authorization of issuance by that authority.

(j) Any security (except evidences of indebtedness, whether interest bearing or not) of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit, if no part of the net earnings of the issuer inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, or (2) organized as a chamber of commerce or trade or professional association. The fact that amounts received from memberships or dues or both will or may be used to construct or otherwise acquire facilities for use by members of the nonprofit organization does not disqualify the organization for this exemption. This exemption does not apply to the securities of any nonprofit organization if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the organization or operation of that nonprofit organization or from remuneration received from that nonprofit organization.

(k) Any agreement, commonly known as a "life income contract," of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit and (2) which the commissioner designates by rule or order, with a donor in consideration of a donation of property to that issuer and providing for the payment to the donor or persons designated by him or her of income or specified periodic payments from the donated property or other property for the life of the donor or those other persons.

(l) Any note, draft, bill of exchange, or banker's acceptance which is freely transferable and of prime quality, arises out of a current transaction or the proceeds of which have been or are to be used for current transactions, and which evidences an obligation to pay cash within nine months of the date of issuance, exclusive of days of grace, or any renewal of that paper which is likewise limited, or any guarantee of that paper or of any such renewal, provided that the paper is not offered to the public in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser. In addition, the commissioner may, by rule or order, exempt any issuer of any notes, drafts, bills of exchange or banker's acceptances from qualification of those securities when the commissioner finds that the qualification is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

(m) Any security issued by any corporation organized and existing under the provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(n) Any beneficial interest in an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar benefit plan which meets the requirements for qualification under Section 401 of the federal Internal Revenue Code or any statute amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto. A determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service stating that an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar benefit plan meets those requirements shall be conclusive evidence that the plan is an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar plan within the meaning of the first sentence of this subdivision until the date the determination letter is revoked in writing by the Internal Revenue Service, regardless of whether or not the revocation is retroactive.

(o) Any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on a national securities exchange or designated or approved for designation upon notice of issuance as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., if the exchange or interdealer quotation system has been certified by rule or order of the commissioner and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to the security. The exemption afforded by this subdivision does not apply to securities listed or designated, or approved for listing or designation upon notice of issuance, in a rollup transaction unless the rollup transaction is an eligible rollup transaction as defined in Section 25014.7.

That certification of any exchange or system shall be made by the commissioner upon the written request of the exchange or system if the commissioner finds that the exchange or system: (i) in acting on applications for listing of common stock substantially applies the minimum standards set forth in either alternative (A) or (B) of paragraph (1), and (ii) in considering suspension or removal from listing or designation, substantially applies each of the criteria set forth in paragraph (2).

(1) Listing standards:

(A) (i) Shareholders' equity of at least four million dollars ($4,000,000).

(ii) Pretax income of at least seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) in the issuer's last fiscal year or in two of its last three fiscal years.

(iii) Minimum public distribution of 500,000 shares (exclusive of the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders, and other concentrated or family holdings), together with a minimum of 800 public holders or minimum public distribution of 1,000,000 shares together with a minimum of 400 public holders. The exchange or system may also consider the listing or designation of a company's securities if the company has a minimum of 500,000 shares publicly held, a minimum of 400 shareholders and daily trading volume in the issue has been approximately 2,000 shares or more for the six months preceding the date of application. In evaluating the suitability of an issue for listing or designation under this trading provision, the exchange or system shall review the nature and frequency of that activity and any other factors as it may determine to be relevant in ascertaining whether the issue is suitable for trading. A security which trades infrequently shall not be considered for listing or designation under this paragraph even though average daily volume amounts to 2,000 shares per day or more.

Companies whose securities are concentrated in a limited geographical area, or whose securities are largely held in block by institutional investors, normally may not be considered eligible for listing or designation unless the public distribution appreciably exceeds 500,000 shares.

(iv) Minimum price of three dollars ($3) per share for a reasonable period of time prior to the filing of a listing or designation application; provided, however, in certain instances an exchange or system may favorably consider listing an issue selling for less than three dollars ($3) per share after considering all pertinent factors, including market conditions in general, whether historically the issue has sold above three dollars ($3) per share, the applicant's capitalization, and the number of outstanding and publicly held shares of the issue.

(v) An aggregate market value for publicly held shares of at least three million dollars ($3,000,000).

(B) (i) Shareholders' equity of at least four million dollars ($4,000,000).

(ii) Minimum public distribution set forth in clause (iii) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1).

(iii) Operating history of at least three years.

(iv) An aggregate market value for publicly held shares of at least fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000).

(2) Criteria for consideration of suspension or removal from listing:

(i) If a company which (A) has shareholders' equity of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) has sustained net losses in each of its two most recent fiscal years, or (B) has net tangible assets of less than three million dollars ($3,000,000) and has sustained net losses in three of its four most recent fiscal years.

(ii) If the number of shares publicly held (excluding the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders and other concentrated or family holdings) is less than 150,000.

(iii) If the total number of shareholders is less than 400 or if the number of shareholders of lots of 100 shares or more is less than 300.

(iv) If the aggregate market value of shares publicly held is less than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000).

(v) If shares of common stock sell at a price of less than three dollars ($3) per share for a substantial period of time and the issuer shall fail to effectuate a reverse stock split of the shares within a reasonable period of time after being requested by the exchange to take that action.

A national securities exchange or interdealer quotation system of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. certified by rule or order of the commissioner under this subdivision shall file annual reports when requested to do so by the commissioner. The annual reports shall contain, by issuer: the variances granted to an exchange's listing standards or interdealer quotation system's designation criteria, including variances from corporate governance and voting rights' standards, for any security of that issuer; the reasons for the variances; a discussion of the review procedure instituted by the exchange or interdealer quotation system to determine the effect of the variances on investors and whether the variances should be continued; and any other information that the commissioner deems relevant. The purpose of these reports is to assist the commissioner in determining whether the quantitative and qualitative requirements of this subdivision are substantially being met by the exchange or system in general or with regard to any particular security.

The commissioner after appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, may, in his or her discretion, by rule or order, decertify any exchange or interdealer quotation system previously certified which ceases substantially to apply the minimum standards or criteria as set forth in paragraphs (1) and (2).

A rule or order of certification shall conclusively establish that any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on any exchange, or designated or approved for designation upon issuance as a national market system security on any interdealer quotation system, named in a rule or order of certification, and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to any such security, is exempt under this subdivision until the adoption by the commissioner of any rule or order decertifying the exchange or interdealer quotation system.

(p) A promissory note secured by a lien on real property, which is neither one of a series of notes of equal priority secured by interests in the same real property nor a note in which beneficial interests are sold to more than one person or entity.

(q) Any unincorporated interindemnity or reciprocal or interinsurance contract, which qualifies under the provisions of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, between members of a cooperative corporation, organized and operating under Part 2

(commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1, and whose members consist only of physicians and surgeons licensed in California, which contracts indemnify solely in respect to medical malpractice claims against the members, and which do not collect in advance of loss any moneys other than contributions by each member to a collective reserve trust fund or for necessary expenses of administration.

(1) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, the commissioner may in the commissioner's discretion bring an action in the name of the people of the State of California in the superior court to enjoin the acts or practices or to enforce compliance with Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code. Upon a proper showing a permanent or preliminary injunction, restraining order or writ of mandate shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets.

(2) The commissioner may, in the commissioner's discretion, (A) make such public or private investigations within or outside of this state as the commissioner deems necessary to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code or to aid in the enforcement of Section 1280.7, and (B) publish information concerning the violation of Section 1280.7.

(3) For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this section, the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records which the commissioner deems relevant or material to the inquiry.

(4) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to, any person, the superior court, upon application by the commissioner, may issue to the person an order requiring the person to appear before the commissioner, or the officer designated by the commissioner, there to produce documentary evidence, if so ordered, or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt.

(5) No person is excused from attending or testifying or from producing any document or record before the commissioner or in obedience to the subpoena of the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner, or in any proceeding instituted by the commissioner, on the ground that the testimony or evidence (documentary or otherwise), required of the person may tend to incriminate the person or subject the person to a penalty or forfeiture, but no individual may be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which the person is compelled, after validly claiming the privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence (documentary or otherwise), except that the individual testifying is not exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury or contempt committed in testifying.

(6) The cost of any review, examination, audit, or investigation made by the commissioner under Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code shall be paid to the commissioner by the person subject to the review, examination, audit, or investigation, and the commissioner may maintain an action for the recovery of these costs in any court of competent jurisdiction. In determining the cost, the commissioner may use the actual amount of the salary or other compensation paid to the persons making the review, examination, audit, or investigation plus the actual amount of expenses including overhead reasonably incurred in the performance of the work.

The recoverable cost of each review, examination, audit, or investigation made by the commissioner under Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code shall not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), except that costs exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) shall be recoverable if the costs are necessary to prevent a violation of any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code.

(r) Any shares or memberships issued by any corporation organized and existing pursuant to the provisions of Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1, provided the aggregate investment of any shareholder or member in shares or memberships sold pursuant to this subdivision does not exceed three hundred dollars ($300). This exemption does not apply to the shares or memberships of any such corporation if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the corporation or the operation of the corporation or from remuneration, other than reasonable salary, received from the corporation. This exemption does not apply to nonvoting shares or memberships of any such corporation issued to any person who does not possess, and who will not acquire in connection with the issuance of nonvoting shares or memberships, voting power (Section 12253) in the corporation. This exemption also does not apply to shares or memberships issued by a nonprofit cooperative corporation organized to facilitate the creation of an unincorporated interindemnity arrangement that provides indemnification for medical malpractice to its physician and surgeon members as set forth in subdivision (q).

(s) Any security consisting of or representing an interest in a pool of mortgage loans which meets each of the following requirements:

(1) The pool consists of whole mortgage loans or participation interests in those loans, which loans were originated or acquired in the ordinary course of business by a national bank or federal savings association or federal savings bank having its principal office in this state, by a bank incorporated under the laws of this state or by a savings association as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 5102 of the Financial Code and which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions, and each of which loans at the time of transfer to the pool is an authorized investment for such originating or acquiring institution.

(2) The pool of mortgage loans is held in trust by a trustee which is a financial institution specified in paragraph (1) as trustee or otherwise.

(3) The loans are serviced by a financial institution specified in paragraph (1).

(4) The security is not offered in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser.

(5) The security is offered pursuant to a registration under the Securities Act of 1933, or pursuant to an exemption under Regulation A under that act, or in the opinion of counsel for the issuer, is offered pursuant to an exemption under Section 4(2) of that act.

(t) (1) Any security issued or guaranteed by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of an industrial loan company incorporated under the laws of the state and authorized by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions to engage in industrial loan business.

(2) Any investment certificate in or issued by any industrial loan company that is organized under the laws of a state of the United States other than this state, that is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and that maintains a branch office in this state.

SEC. 18.1. Section 25100 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25100. The following securities are exempted from Sections 25110, 25120, and 25130:

(a) Any security (including a revenue obligation) issued or guaranteed by the United States, any state, any city, county, city and county, public district, public authority, public corporation, public entity, or political subdivision of a state or any agency or corporate or other instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(b) Any security issued or guaranteed by the Dominion of Canada, any Canadian province, any political subdivision or municipality of that province, or by any other foreign government with which the United States currently maintains diplomatic relations, if the security is recognized as a valid obligation by the issuer or guarantor; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(c) Any security issued or guaranteed by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of a national bank or a bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state, and any security issued by a bank to one or more other banks and representing an interest in an asset of the issuing bank.

(d) Any security issued or guaranteed by a federal savings association or federal savings bank or federal land bank or joint land bank or national farm loan association or by any savings association, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 5102 of the Financial Code, which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of this state.

(e) Any security (other than an interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided land or a subdivision or in a real estate development), the issuance of which is subject to authorization by the Insurance Commissioner, the Public Utilities Commission, or the Real Estate Commissioner of this state.

(f) Any security consisting of any interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided lands or a subdivision or in a real estate development; provided that the exemption in this subdivision shall not be applicable to any investment contract sold or offered for sale with, or as part of, any such interest, or to any person engaged in the business of selling, distributing, or supplying water for irrigation purposes or domestic use which is not a public utility.

(g) Any mutual capital certificates or savings accounts, as defined in the Savings Association Law, issued by a savings association, as defined by subdivision (a) of Section 5102 of the Financial Code, and holding a license or certificate of authority then in force from the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of this state.

(h) Any security issued or guaranteed by any federal credit union, or by any credit union organized and supervised, or regulated, under the Credit Union Law.

(i) Any security issued or guaranteed by any railroad, other common carrier, public utility, or public utility holding company which is (1) subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission or (2) a holding company registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 or a subsidiary of that company within the meaning of that act or (3) regulated in respect of the issuance or guarantee of the security by a governmental authority of the United States, of any state, of Canada or of any Canadian province; and the security is subject to registration with or authorization of issuance by that authority.

(j) Any security (except evidences of indebtedness, whether interest bearing or not) of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit, if no part of the net earnings of the issuer inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, or (2) organized as a chamber of commerce or trade or professional association. The fact that amounts received from memberships or dues or both will or may be used to construct or otherwise acquire facilities for use by members of the nonprofit organization does not disqualify the organization for this exemption. This exemption does not apply to the securities of any nonprofit organization if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the organization or operation of that nonprofit organization or from remuneration received from that nonprofit organization.

(k) Any agreement, commonly known as a "life income contract," of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit and (2) which the commissioner designates by rule or order, with a donor in consideration of a donation of property to that issuer and providing for the payment to the donor or persons designated by him or her of income or specified periodic payments from the donated property or other property for the life of the donor or those other persons.

(l) Any note, draft, bill of exchange, or banker's acceptance which is freely transferable and of prime quality, arises out of a current transaction or the proceeds of which have been or are to be used for current transactions, and which evidences an obligation to pay cash within nine months of the date of issuance, exclusive of days of grace, or any renewal of that paper which is likewise limited, or any guarantee of that paper or of any such renewal, provided that the paper is not offered to the public in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser. In addition, the commissioner may, by rule or order, exempt any issuer of any notes, drafts, bills of exchange or banker's acceptances from registration of those securities when the commissioner finds that the registration is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

(m) Any security issued by any corporation organized and existing under the provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(n) Any beneficial interest in an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar benefit plan which meets the requirements for qualification under Section 401 of the federal Internal Revenue Code or any statute amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto. A determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service stating that an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar benefit plan meets those requirements shall be conclusive evidence that the plan is an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar plan within the meaning of the first sentence of this subdivision until the date the determination letter is revoked in writing by the Internal Revenue Service, regardless of whether or not the revocation is retroactive.

(o) Any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on a national securities exchange or designated or approved for designation upon notice of issuance as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., if the exchange or interdealer quotation system has been certified by rule or order of the commissioner and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to the security. The exemption afforded by this subdivision does not apply to securities listed or designated, or approved for listing or designation upon notice of issuance, in a rollup transaction unless the rollup transaction is an eligible rollup transaction as defined in Section 25014.7.

That certification of any exchange or system shall be made by the commissioner upon the written request of the exchange or system if the commissioner finds that the exchange or system: (i) in acting on applications for listing of common stock substantially applies the minimum standards set forth in either alternative (A) or (B) of paragraph (1), and (ii) in considering suspension or removal from listing or designation, substantially applies each of the criteria set forth in paragraph (2).

(1) Listing standards:

(A) (i) Shareholders' equity of at least four million dollars ($4,000,000).

(ii) Pretax income of at least seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) in the issuer's last fiscal year or in two of its last three fiscal years.

(iii) Minimum public distribution of 500,000 shares (exclusive of the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders, and other concentrated or family holdings), together with a minimum of 800 publicholders or minimum public distribution of 1,000,000 shares together with a minimum of 400 publicholders. The exchange or system may also consider the listing or designation of a company's securities if the company has a minimum of 500,000 shares publicly held, a minimum of 400 shareholders and daily trading volume in the issue has been approximately 2,000 shares or more for the six months preceding the date of application. In evaluating the suitability of an issue for listing or designation under this trading provision, the exchange or system shall review the nature and frequency of that activity and any other factors as it may determine to be relevant in ascertaining whether the issue is suitable for trading. A security which trades infrequently shall not be considered for listing or designation under this paragraph even though average daily volume amounts to 2,000 shares per day or more.

Companies whose securities are concentrated in a limited geographical area, or whose securities are largely held in block by institutional investors, normally may not be considered eligible for listing or designation unless the public distribution appreciably exceeds 500,000 shares.

(iv) Minimum price of three dollars ($3) per share for a reasonable period of time prior to the filing of a listing or designation application; provided, however, in certain instances an exchange or system may favorably consider listing an issue selling for less than three dollars ($3) per share after considering all pertinent factors, including market conditions in general, whether historically the issue has sold above three dollars ($3) per share, the applicant's capitalization, and the number of outstanding and publicly held shares of the issue.

(v) An aggregate market value for publicly held shares of at least three million dollars ($3,000,000).

(B) (i) Shareholders' equity of at least four million dollars ($4,000,000).

(ii) Minimum public distribution set forth in clause (iii) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1).

(iii) Operating history of at least three years.

(iv) An aggregate market value for publicly held shares of at least fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000).

(2) Criteria for consideration of suspension or removal from listing:

(i) If a company which (A) has shareholders' equity of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) has sustained net losses in each of its two most recent fiscal years, or (B) has net tangible assets of less than three million dollars ($3,000,000) and has sustained net losses in three of its four most recent fiscal years.

(ii) If the number of shares publicly held (excluding the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders and other concentrated or family holdings) is less than 150,000.

(iii) If the total number of shareholders is less than 400 or if the number of shareholders of lots of 100 shares or more is less than 300.

(iv) If the aggregate market value of shares publicly held is less than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000).

(v) If shares of common stock sell at a price of less than three dollars ($3) per share for a substantial period of time and the issuer shall fail to effectuate a reverse stock split of the shares within a reasonable period of time after being requested by the exchange to take that action.

A national securities exchange or interdealer quotation system of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. certified by rule or order of the commissioner under this subdivision shall file annual reports when requested to do so by the commissioner. The annual reports shall contain, by issuer: the variances granted to an exchange's listing standards or interdealer quotation system's designation criteria, including variances from corporate governance and voting rights' standards, for any security of that issuer; the reasons for the variances; a discussion of the review procedure instituted by the exchange or interdealer quotation system to determine the effect of the variances on investors and whether the variances should be continued; and any other information that the commissioner deems relevant. The purpose of these reports is to assist the commissioner in determining whether the quantitative and qualitative requirements of this subdivision are substantially being met by the exchange or system in general or with regard to any particular security.

The commissioner after appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, may, in his or her discretion, by rule or order, decertify any exchange or interdealer quotation system previously certified which ceases substantially to apply the minimum standards or criteria as set forth in paragraphs (1) and (2).

A rule or order of certification shall conclusively establish that any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on any exchange, or designated or approved for designation upon issuance as a national market system security on any interdealer quotation system, named in a rule or order of certification, and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to any such security, is exempt under this subdivision until the adoption by the commissioner of any rule or order decertifying the exchange or interdealer quotation system.

(p) A promissory note secured by a lien on real property, which is neither one of a series of notes of equal priority secured by interests in the same real property nor a note in which beneficial interests are sold to more than one person or entity.

(q) Any unincorporated interindemnity or reciprocal or interinsurance contract, which qualifies under the provisions of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, between members of a cooperative corporation, organized and operating under Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1, and whose members consist only of physicians and surgeons licensed in California, which contracts indemnify solely in respect to medical malpractice claims against the members, and which do not collect in advance of loss any moneys other than contributions by each member to a collective reserve trust fund or for necessary expenses of administration.

(1) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, the commissioner may in the commissioner's discretion bring an action in the name of the people of the State of California in the superior court to enjoin the acts or practices or to enforce compliance with Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code. Upon a proper showing a permanent or preliminary injunction, restraining order or writ of mandate shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets.

(2) The commissioner may, in the commissioner's discretion, (A) make such public or private investigations within or outside of this state as the commissioner deems necessary to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code or to aid in the enforcement of Section

1280.7, and (B) publish information concerning the violation of Section 1280.7.

(3) For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this section, the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records which the commissioner deems relevant or material to the inquiry.

(4) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to, any person, the superior court, upon application by the commissioner, may issue to the person an order requiring the person to appear before the commissioner, or the officer designated by the commissioner, there to produce documentary evidence, if so ordered, or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt.

(5) No person is excused from attending or testifying or from producing any document or record before the commissioner or in obedience to the subpoena of the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner, or in any proceeding instituted by the commissioner, on the ground that the testimony or evidence (documentary or otherwise), required of the person may tend to incriminate the person or subject the person to a penalty or forfeiture, but no individual may be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which the person is compelled, after validly claiming the privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence (documentary or otherwise), except that the individual testifying is not exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury or contempt committed in testifying.

(6) The cost of any review, examination, audit, or investigation made by the commissioner under Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code shall be paid to the commissioner by the person subject to the review, examination, audit, or investigation, and the commissioner may maintain an action for the recovery of these costs in any court of competent jurisdiction. In determining the cost, the commissioner may use the actual amount of the salary or other compensation paid to the persons making the review, examination, audit, or investigation plus the actual amount of expenses including overhead reasonably incurred in the performance of the work.

The recoverable cost of each review, examination, audit, or investigation made by the commissioner under Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code shall not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), except that costs exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) shall be recoverable if the costs are necessary to prevent a violation of any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code.

(r) Any shares or memberships issued by any corporation organized and existing pursuant to the provisions of Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1, provided the aggregate investment of any shareholder or member in shares or memberships sold pursuant to this subdivision does not exceed three hundred dollars ($300). This exemption does not apply to the shares or memberships of any such corporation if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the corporation or the operation of the corporation or from remuneration, other than reasonable salary, received from the corporation. This exemption does not apply to nonvoting shares or memberships of any such corporation issued to any person who does not possess, and who will not acquire in connection with the issuance of nonvoting shares or memberships, voting power (Section 12253) in the corporation. This exemption also does not apply to shares or memberships issued by a nonprofit cooperative corporation organized to facilitate the creation of an unincorporated interindemnity arrangement that provides indemnification for medical malpractice to its physician and surgeon members as set forth in subdivision (q).

(s) Any security consisting of or representing an interest in a pool of mortgage loans which meets each of the following requirements:

(1) The pool consists of whole mortgage loans or participation interests in those loans, which loans were originated or acquired in the ordinary course of business by a national bank or federal savings association or federal savings bank having its principal office in this state, by a bank incorporated under the laws of this state or by a savings association as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 5102 of the Financial Code and which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions, and each of which loans at the time of transfer to the pool is an authorized investment for such originating or acquiring institution.

(2) The pool of mortgage loans is held in trust by a trustee which is a financial institution specified in paragraph (1) as trustee or otherwise.

(3) The loans are serviced by a financial institution specified in paragraph (1).

(4) The security is not offered in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser.

(5) The security is offered pursuant to a registration under the Securities Act of 1933, or pursuant to an exemption under Regulation A under that act, or in the opinion of counsel for the issuer, is offered pursuant to an exemption under Section 4(2) of that act.

(t) (1) Any security issued or guaranteed by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of an industrial loan company incorporated under the laws of the state and authorized by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions to engage in industrial loan business.

(2) Any investment certificate in or issued by any industrial loan company that is organized under the laws of a state of the United States other than this state, that is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and that maintains a branch office in this state.

(u) Any security issued by an issuer registered as an open-end management company or unit investment trust under the Investment Company Act of 1940, provided that all of the following requirements are met:

(1) The registration statement for the securities is currently effective under the Securities Act of 1933.

(2) Prior to any offer or sale in this state of securities claimed to be exempt under this subdivision, there is filed with or paid to the commissioner each of the following:

(A) A notice of intention to sell that has been executed by the issuer and that includes the name and address of the issuer and the name of the securities to be offered and sold under this subdivision.

(B) A copy of the current prospectus to be used in the offer and sale of the security.

(C) The fee provided in subdivision (f) of Section 25608.

If any offer or sale is made pursuant to this exemption more than 12 months after the date the notice was filed under this subdivision, the issuer shall file another notice of intention to sell, a copy of the prospectus the issuer is currently utilizing for the purpose of making that offer, and the fee specified in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2).

SEC. 18.2. Section 25100 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25100. The following securities are exempted from Sections 25110, 25120, and 25130:

(a) Any security (including a revenue obligation) issued or guaranteed by the United States, any state, any city, county, city and county, public district, public authority, public corporation, public entity, or political subdivision of a state or any agency or corporate or other instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(b) Any security issued or guaranteed by the Dominion of Canada, any Canadian province, any political subdivision or municipality of that province, or by any other foreign government with which the United States currently maintains diplomatic relations, if the security is recognized as a valid obligation by the issuer or guarantor; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(c) Any security issued or guaranteed by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of a national bank or a bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state, and any security issued by a bank to one or more other banks and representing an interest in an asset of the issuing bank.

(d) Any security issued or guaranteed by a federal savings association or federal savings bank or federal land bank or joint land bank or national farm loan association or by any savings association, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 5102 of the Financial Code, which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of this state.

(e) Any security (other than an interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided land or a subdivision or in a real estate development), the issuance of which is subject to authorization by the Insurance Commissioner, the Public Utilities Commission, or the Real Estate Commissioner of this state.

(f) Any security consisting of any interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided lands or a subdivision or in a real estate development; provided that the exemption in this subdivision shall not be applicable to any investment contract sold or offered for sale with, or as part of, any such interest, or to any person engaged in the business of selling, distributing, or supplying water for irrigation purposes or domestic use which is not a public utility.

(g) Any mutual capital certificates or savings accounts, as defined in the Savings Association Law, issued by a savings association, as defined by subdivision (a) of Section 5102 of the Financial Code, and holding a license or certificate of authority then in force from the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of this state.

(h) Any security issued or guaranteed by any federal credit union, or by any credit union organized and supervised, or regulated, under the Credit Union Law.

(i) Any security issued or guaranteed by any railroad, other common carrier, public utility, or public utility holding company which is (1) subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission or (2) a holding company registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 or a subsidiary of that company within the meaning of that act or (3) regulated in respect of the issuance or guarantee of the security by a governmental authority of the United States, of any state, of Canada or of any Canadian province; and the security is subject to registration with or authorization of issuance by that authority.

(j) Any security (except evidences of indebtedness, whether interest bearing or not) of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit, if no part of the net earnings of the issuer inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, or (2) organized as a chamber of commerce or trade or professional association. The fact that amounts received from memberships or dues or both will or may be used to construct or otherwise acquire facilities for use by members of the nonprofit organization does not disqualify the organization for this exemption. This exemption does not apply to the securities of any nonprofit organization if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the organization or operation of that nonprofit organization or from remuneration received from that nonprofit organization.

(k) Any agreement, commonly known as a "life income contract," of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit and (2) which the commissioner designates by rule or order, with a donor in consideration of a donation of property to that issuer and providing for the payment to the donor or persons designated by him or her of income or specified periodic payments from the donated property or other property for the life of the donor or those other persons.

(l) Any note, draft, bill of exchange, or banker's acceptance which is freely transferable and of prime quality, arises out of a current transaction or the proceeds of which have been or are to be used for current transactions, and which evidences an obligation to pay cash within nine months of the date of issuance, exclusive of days of grace, or any renewal of that paper which is likewise limited, or any guarantee of that paper or of any such renewal, provided that the paper is not offered to the public in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser. In addition, the commissioner may, by rule or order, exempt any issuer of any notes, drafts, bills of exchange or banker's acceptances from qualification of those securities when the commissioner finds that the qualification is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

(m) Any security issued by any corporation organized and existing under the provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(n) Any beneficial interest in an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar benefit plan which meets the requirements for qualification under Section 401 of the federal Internal Revenue Code or any statute amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto. A determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service stating that an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar benefit plan meets those requirements shall be conclusive evidence that the plan is an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar plan within the meaning of the first sentence of this subdivision until the date the determination letter is revoked in writing by the Internal Revenue Service, regardless of whether or not the revocation is retroactive.

(o) Any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on a national securities exchange or designated or approved for designation upon notice of issuance as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., if the exchange or interdealer quotation system has been certified by rule or order of the commissioner and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to the security. The exemption afforded by this subdivision does not apply to securities listed or designated, or approved for listing or designation upon notice of issuance, in a rollup transaction unless the rollup transaction is an eligible rollup transaction as defined in Section 25014.7.

That certification of any exchange or system shall be made by the commissioner upon the written request of the exchange or system if the commissioner finds that the exchange or system: (i) in acting on applications for listing of common stock substantially applies the minimum standards set forth in either alternative (A) or (B) of paragraph (1), and (ii) in considering suspension or removal from listing or designation, substantially applies each of the criteria set forth in paragraph (2).

(1) Listing standards:

(A) (i) Shareholders' equity of at least four million dollars ($4,000,000).

(ii) Pretax income of at least seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) in the issuer's last fiscal year or in two of its last three fiscal years.

(iii) Minimum public distribution of 500,000 shares (exclusive of the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders, and other concentrated or family holdings), together with a minimum of 800 public holders or minimum public distribution of 1,000,000 shares together with a minimum of 400 public holders. The exchange or system may also consider the listing or designation of a company's securities if the company has a minimum of 500,000 shares publicly held, a minimum of 400 shareholders and daily trading volume in the issue has been approximately 2,000 shares or more for the six months preceding the date of application. In evaluating the suitability of an issue for listing or designation under this trading provision, the exchange or system shall review the nature and frequency of that activity and any other factors as it may determine to be relevant in ascertaining whether the issue is suitable for trading. A security which trades infrequently shall not be considered for listing or designation under this paragraph even though average daily volume amounts to 2,000 shares per day or more.

Companies whose securities are concentrated in a limited geographical area, or whose securities are largely held in block by institutional investors, normally may not be considered eligible for listing or designation unless the public distribution appreciably exceeds 500,000 shares.

(iv) Minimum price of three dollars ($3) per share for a reasonable period of time prior to the filing of a listing or designation application; provided, however, in certain instances an exchange or system may favorably consider listing an issue selling for less than three dollars ($3) per share after considering all pertinent factors, including market conditions in general, whether historically the issue has sold above three dollars ($3) per share, the applicant's capitalization, and the number of outstanding and publicly held shares of the issue.

(v) An aggregate market value for publicly held shares of at least three million dollars ($3,000,000).

(B) (i) Shareholders' equity of at least four million dollars ($4,000,000).

(ii) Minimum public distribution set forth in clause (iii) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1).

(iii) Operating history of at least three years.

(iv) An aggregate market value for publicly held shares of at least fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000).

(2) Criteria for consideration of suspension or removal from listing:

(i) If a company which (A) has shareholders' equity of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) has sustained net losses in each of its two most recent fiscal years, or (B) has net tangible assets of less than three million dollars ($3,000,000) and has sustained net losses in three of its four most recent fiscal years.

(ii) If the number of shares publicly held (excluding the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders and other concentrated or family holdings) is less than 150,000.

(iii) If the total number of shareholders is less than 400 or if the number of shareholders of lots of 100 shares or more is less than 300.

(iv) If the aggregate market value of shares publicly held is less than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000).

(v) If shares of common stock sell at a price of less than three dollars ($3) per share for a substantial period of time and the issuer shall fail to effectuate a reverse stock split of the shares within a reasonable period of time after being requested by the exchange to take that action.

A national securities exchange or interdealer quotation system of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. certified by rule or order of the commissioner under this subdivision shall file annual reports when requested to do so by the commissioner. The annual reports shall contain, by issuer: the variances granted to an exchange's listing standards or interdealer quotation system's designation criteria, including variances from corporate governance and voting rights' standards, for any security of that issuer; the reasons for the variances; a discussion of the review procedure instituted by the exchange or interdealer quotation system to determine the effect of the variances on investors and whether the variances should be continued; and any other information that the commissioner deems relevant. The purpose of these reports is to assist the commissioner in determining whether the quantitative and qualitative requirements of this subdivision are substantially being met by the exchange or system in general or with regard to any particular security.

The commissioner after appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, may, in his or her discretion, by rule or order, decertify any exchange or interdealer quotation system previously certified which ceases substantially to apply the minimum standards or criteria as set forth in paragraphs (1) and (2).

A rule or order of certification shall conclusively establish that any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on any exchange, or designated or approved for designation upon issuance as a national market system security on any interdealer quotation system, named in a rule or order of certification, and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to any such security, is exempt under this subdivision until the adoption by the commissioner of any rule or order decertifying the exchange or interdealer quotation system.

(q) Any unincorporated interindemnity or reciprocal or interinsurance contract, which qualifies under the provisions of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, between members of a cooperative corporation, organized and operating under Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1, and whose members consist only of physicians and surgeons licensed in California, which contracts indemnify solely in respect to medical malpractice claims against the members, and which do not collect in advance of loss any moneys other than contributions by each member to a collective reserve trust fund or for necessary expenses of administration.

(1) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, the commissioner may in the commissioner's discretion bring an action in the name of the people of the State of California in the superior court to enjoin the acts or practices or to enforce compliance with Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code. Upon a proper showing a permanent or preliminary injunction, restraining order or writ of mandate shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets.

(2) The commissioner may, in the commissioner's discretion, (A) make such public or private investigations within or outside of this state as the commissioner deems necessary to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code or to aid in the enforcement of Section

1280.7, and (B) publish information concerning the violation of Section 1280.7.

(3) For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this section, the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records which the commissioner deems relevant or material to the inquiry.

(4) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to, any person, the superior court, upon application by the commissioner, may issue to the person an order requiring the person to appear before the commissioner, or the officer designated by the commissioner, there to produce documentary evidence, if so ordered, or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt.

(5) No person is excused from attending or testifying or from producing any document or record before the commissioner or in obedience to the subpoena of the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner, or in any proceeding instituted by the commissioner, on the ground that the testimony or evidence (documentary or otherwise), required of the person may tend to incriminate the person or subject the person to a penalty or forfeiture, but no individual may be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which the person is compelled, after validly claiming the privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence (documentary or otherwise), except that the individual testifying is not exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury or contempt committed in testifying.

(6) The cost of any review, examination, audit, or investigation made by the commissioner under Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code shall be paid to the commissioner by the person subject to the review, examination, audit, or investigation, and the commissioner may maintain an action for the recovery of these costs in any court of competent jurisdiction. In determining the cost, the commissioner may use the actual amount of the salary or other compensation paid to the persons making the review, examination, audit, or investigation plus the actual amount of expenses including overhead reasonably incurred in the performance of the work.

The recoverable cost of each review, examination, audit, or investigation made by the commissioner under Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code shall not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), except that costs exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) shall be recoverable if the costs are necessary to prevent a violation of any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code.

(r) Any shares or memberships issued by any corporation organized and existing pursuant to the provisions of Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1, provided the aggregate investment of any shareholder or member in shares or memberships sold pursuant to this subdivision does not exceed three hundred dollars ($300). This exemption does not apply to the shares or memberships of any such corporation if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the corporation or the operation of the corporation or from remuneration, other than reasonable salary, received from the corporation. This exemption does not apply to nonvoting shares or memberships of any such corporation issued to any person who does not possess, and who will not acquire in connection with the issuance of nonvoting shares or memberships, voting power (Section 12253) in the corporation. This exemption also does not apply to shares or memberships issued by a nonprofit cooperative corporation organized to facilitate the creation of an unincorporated interindemnity arrangement that provides indemnification for medical malpractice to its physician and surgeon members as set forth in subdivision (q).

(s) Any security consisting of or representing an interest in a pool of mortgage loans which meets each of the following requirements:

(1) The pool consists of whole mortgage loans or participation interests in those loans, which loans were originated or acquired in the ordinary course of business by a national bank or federal savings association or federal savings bank having its principal office in this state, by a bank incorporated under the laws of this state or by a savings association as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 5102 of the Financial Code and which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions, and each of which loans at the time of transfer to the pool is an authorized investment for such originating or acquiring institution.

(2) The pool of mortgage loans is held in trust by a trustee which is a financial institution specified in paragraph (1) as trustee or otherwise.

(3) The loans are serviced by a financial institution specified in paragraph (1).

(4) The security is not offered in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser.

(5) The security is offered pursuant to a registration under the Securities Act of 1933, or pursuant to an exemption under Regulation A under that act, or in the opinion of counsel for the issuer, is offered pursuant to an exemption under Section 4(2) of that act.

(t) (1) Any security issued or guaranteed by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of an industrial loan company incorporated under the laws of the state and authorized by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions to engage in industrial loan business.

(2) Any investment certificate in or issued by any industrial loan company that is organized under the laws of a state of the United States other than this state, that is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and that maintains a branch office in this state.

(u) Any security issued by an issuer registered as an open-end management company or unit investment trust under the Investment Company Act of 1940, provided that all of the following requirements are met:

(1) The registration statement for the securities is currently effective under the Securities Act of 1933.

(2) Prior to any offer or sale in this state of securities claimed to be exempt under this subdivision, there is filed with or paid to the commissioner each of the following:

(A) A notice of intention to sell that has been executed by the issuer and that includes the name and address of the issuer and the name of the securities to be offered and sold under this subdivision.

(B) A copy of the current prospectus to be used in the offer and sale of the security.

(C) The fee provided in subdivision (f) of Section 25608.

If any offer or sale is made pursuant to this exemption more than 12 months after the date the notice was filed under this subdivision, the issuer shall file another notice of intention to sell, a copy of the prospectus the issuer is currently utilizing for the purpose of making that offer, and the fee specified in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2).

SEC. 18.3. Section 25100 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25100. The following securities are exempted from Sections 25110, 25120, and 25130:

(a) Any security (including a revenue obligation) issued or guaranteed by the United States, any state, any city, county, city and county, public district, public authority, public corporation, public entity, or political subdivision of a state or any agency or corporate or other instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(b) Any security issued or guaranteed by the Dominion of Canada, any Canadian province, any political subdivision or municipality of that province, or by any other foreign government with which the United States currently maintains diplomatic relations, if the security is recognized as a valid obligation by the issuer or guarantor; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(c) Any security issued or guaranteed by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of a national bank or a bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state, and any security issued by a bank to one or more other banks and representing an interest in an asset of the issuing bank.

(d) Any security issued or guaranteed by a federal savings and loan association or federal savings bank or federal land bank or joint land bank or national farm loan association or by any savings association, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 5102 of the Financial Code, which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Savings and Loan Commissioner of this state.

(e) Any security (other than an interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided land or a subdivision or in a real estate development), the issuance of which is subject to authorization by the Insurance Commissioner, the Public Utilities Commission, or the Real Estate Commissioner of this state.

(f) Any security consisting of any interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided lands or a subdivision or in a real estate development; provided that the exemption in this subdivision shall not be applicable to any investment contract sold or offered for sale with, or as part of, any such interest, or to any person engaged in the business of selling, distributing, or supplying water for irrigation purposes or domestic use which is not a public utility.

(g) Any mutual capital certificates or savings accounts, as defined in the Savings Association Law, issued by a savings association, as defined by subdivision (a) of Section 5102 of the Financial Code, and holding a license or certificate of authority then in force from the Savings and Loan Commissioner of this state.

(h) Any security issued or guaranteed by any federal credit union, or by any credit union organized and supervised, or regulated, under the Credit Union Law.

(i) Any security issued or guaranteed by any railroad, other common carrier, public utility, or public utility holding company which is (1) subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission or (2) a holding company registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 or a subsidiary of that company within the meaning of that act or (3) regulated in respect of the issuance or guarantee of the security by a governmental authority of the United States, of any state, of Canada or of any Canadian province; and the security is subject to registration with or authorization of issuance by that authority.

(j) Any security (except evidences of indebtedness, whether interest bearing or not) of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit, if no part of the net earnings of the issuer inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, or (2) organized as a chamber of commerce or trade or professional association. The fact that amounts received from memberships or dues or both will or may be used to construct or otherwise acquire facilities for use by members of the nonprofit organization does not disqualify the organization for this exemption. This exemption does not apply to the securities of any nonprofit organization if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the organization or operation of that nonprofit organization or from remuneration received from that nonprofit organization.

(k) Any agreement, commonly known as a "life income contract," of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit and (2) which the commissioner designates by rule or order, with a donor in consideration of a donation of property to that issuer and providing for the payment to the donor or persons designated by him or her of income or specified periodic payments from the donated property or other property for the life of the donor or those other persons.

(l) Any note, draft, bill of exchange, or banker's acceptance which is freely transferable and of prime quality, arises out of a current transaction or the proceeds of which have been or are to be used for current transactions, and which evidences an obligation to pay cash within nine months of the date of issuance, exclusive of days of grace, or any renewal of that paper which is likewise limited, or any guarantee of that paper or of any such renewal, provided that the paper is not offered to the public in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser. In addition, the commissioner may, by rule or order, exempt any issuer of any notes, drafts, bills of exchange or banker's acceptances from registration of those securities when the commissioner finds that the registration is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

(m) Any security issued by any corporation organized and existing under the provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(n) Any beneficial interest in an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar benefit plan which meets the requirements for qualification under Section 401 of the federal Internal Revenue Code or any statute amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto. A determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service stating that an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar benefit plan meets those requirements shall be conclusive evidence that the plan is an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar plan within the meaning of the first sentence of this subdivision until the date the determination letter is revoked in writing by the Internal Revenue Service, regardless of whether or not the revocation is retroactive.

(o) Any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on a national securities exchange or designated or approved for designation upon notice of issuance as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., if the exchange or interdealer quotation system has been certified by rule or order of the commissioner and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to the security. The exemption afforded by this subdivision does not apply to securities listed or designated, or approved for listing or designation upon notice of issuance, in a rollup transaction unless the rollup transaction is an eligible rollup transaction as defined in Section 25014.7.

That certification of any exchange or system shall be made by the commissioner upon the written request of the exchange or system if the commissioner finds that the exchange or system: (i) in acting on applications for listing of common stock substantially applies the minimum standards set forth in either alternative (A) or (B) of paragraph (1), and (ii) in considering suspension or removal from listing or designation, substantially applies each of the criteria set forth in paragraph (2).

(1) Listing standards:

(A) (i) Shareholders' equity of at least four million dollars ($4,000,000).

(ii) Pretax income of at least seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) in the issuer's last fiscal year or in two of its last three fiscal years.

(iii) Minimum public distribution of 500,000 shares (exclusive of the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders, and other concentrated or family holdings), together with a minimum of 800 publicholders or minimum public distribution of 1,000,000 shares together with a minimum of 400 publicholders. The exchange or system may also consider the listing or designation of a company's securities if the company has a minimum of 500,000 shares publicly held, a minimum of 400 shareholders and daily trading volume in the issue has been approximately 2,000 shares or more for the six months preceding the date of application. In evaluating the suitability of an issue for listing or designation under this trading provision, the exchange or system shall review the nature and frequency of that activity and any other factors as it may determine to be relevant in ascertaining whether the issue is suitable for trading. A security which trades infrequently shall not be considered for listing or designation under this paragraph even though average daily volume amounts to 2,000 shares per day or more.

Companies whose securities are concentrated in a limited geographical area, or whose securities are largely held in block by institutional investors, normally may not be considered eligible for listing or designation unless the public distribution appreciably exceeds 500,000 shares.

(iv) Minimum price of three dollars ($3) per share for a reasonable period of time prior to the filing of a listing or designation application; provided, however, in certain instances an exchange or system may favorably consider listing an issue selling for less than three dollars ($3) per share after considering all pertinent factors, including market conditions in general, whether historically the issue has sold above three dollars ($3) per share, the applicant's capitalization, and the number of outstanding and publicly held shares of the issue.

(v) An aggregate market value for publicly held shares of at least three million dollars ($3,000,000).

(B) (i) Shareholders' equity of at least four million dollars ($4,000,000).

(ii) Minimum public distribution set forth in clause (iii) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1).

(iii) Operating history of at least three years.

(iv) An aggregate market value for publicly held shares of at least fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000).

(2) Criteria for consideration of suspension or removal from listing:

(i) If a company which (A) has shareholders' equity of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) has sustained net losses in each of its two most recent fiscal years, or (B) has net tangible assets of less than three million dollars ($3,000,000) and has sustained net losses in three of its four most recent fiscal years.

(ii) If the number of shares publicly held (excluding the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders and other concentrated or family holdings) is less than 150,000.

(iii) If the total number of shareholders is less than 400 or if the number of shareholders of lots of 100 shares or more is less than 300.

(iv) If the aggregate market value of shares publicly held is less than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000).

(v) If shares of common stock sell at a price of less than three dollars ($3) per share for a substantial period of time and the issuer shall fail to effectuate a reverse stock split of the shares within a reasonable period of time after being requested by the exchange to take that action.

A national securities exchange or interdealer quotation system of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. certified by rule or order of the commissioner under this subdivision shall file annual reports when requested to do so by the commissioner. The annual reports shall contain, by issuer: the variances granted to an exchange's listing standards or interdealer quotation system's designation criteria, including variances from corporate governance and voting rights' standards, for any security of that issuer; the reasons for the variances; a discussion of the review procedure instituted by the exchange or interdealer quotation system to determine the effect of the variances on investors and whether the variances should be continued; and any other information that the commissioner deems relevant. The purpose of these reports is to assist the commissioner in determining whether the quantitative and qualitative requirements of this subdivision are substantially being met by the exchange or system in general or with regard to any particular security.

The commissioner after appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, may, in his or her discretion, by rule or order, decertify any exchange or interdealer quotation system previously certified which ceases substantially to apply the minimum standards or criteria as set forth in paragraphs (1) and (2).

A rule or order of certification shall conclusively establish that any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on any exchange, or designated or approved for designation upon issuance as a national market system security on any interdealer quotation system, named in a rule or order of certification, and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to any such security, is exempt under this subdivision until the adoption by the commissioner of any rule or order decertifying the exchange or interdealer quotation system.

(q) Any unincorporated interindemnity or reciprocal or interinsurance contract, which qualifies under the provisions of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, between members of a cooperative corporation, organized and operating under Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1, and whose members consist only of physicians and surgeons licensed in California, which contracts indemnify solely in respect to medical malpractice claims against the members, and which do not collect in advance of loss any moneys other than contributions by each member to a collective reserve trust fund or for necessary expenses of administration.

(1) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, the commissioner may in the commissioner's discretion bring an action in the name of the people of the State of California in the superior court to enjoin the acts or practices or to enforce compliance with Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code. Upon a proper showing a permanent or preliminary injunction, restraining order or writ of mandate shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets.

(2) The commissioner may, in the commissioner's discretion, (A) make such public or private investigations within or outside of this state as the commissioner deems necessary to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code or to aid in the enforcement of Section

1280.7, and (B) publish information concerning the violation of Section 1280.7.

(3) For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this section, the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records which the commissioner deems relevant or material to the inquiry.

(4) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to, any person, the superior court, upon application by the commissioner, may issue to the person an order requiring the person to appear before the commissioner, or the officer designated by the commissioner, there to produce documentary evidence, if so ordered, or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt.

(5) No person is excused from attending or testifying or from producing any document or record before the commissioner or in obedience to the subpoena of the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner, or in any proceeding instituted by the commissioner, on the ground that the testimony or evidence (documentary or otherwise), required of the person may tend to incriminate the person or subject the person to a penalty or forfeiture, but no individual may be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which the person is compelled, after validly claiming the privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence (documentary or otherwise), except that the individual testifying is not exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury or contempt committed in testifying.

(6) The cost of any review, examination, audit, or investigation made by the commissioner under Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code shall be paid to the commissioner by the person subject to the review, examination, audit, or investigation, and the commissioner may maintain an action for the recovery of these costs in any court of competent jurisdiction. In determining the cost, the commissioner may use the actual amount of the salary or other compensation paid to the persons making the review, examination, audit, or investigation plus the actual amount of expenses including overhead reasonably incurred in the performance of the work.

The recoverable cost of each review, examination, audit, or investigation made by the commissioner under Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code shall not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), except that costs exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) shall be recoverable if the costs are necessary to prevent a violation of any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code.

(r) Any shares or memberships issued by any corporation organized and existing pursuant to the provisions of Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1, provided the aggregate investment of any shareholder or member in shares or memberships sold pursuant to this subdivision does not exceed three hundred dollars ($300). This exemption does not apply to the shares or memberships of any such corporation if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the corporation or the operation of the corporation or from remuneration, other than reasonable salary, received from the corporation. This exemption does not apply to nonvoting shares or memberships of any such corporation issued to any person who does not possess, and who will not acquire in connection with the issuance of nonvoting shares or memberships, voting power (Section 12253) in the corporation. This exemption also does not apply to shares or memberships issued by a nonprofit cooperative corporation organized to facilitate the creation of an unincorporated interindemnity arrangement that provides indemnification for medical malpractice to its physician and surgeon members as set forth in subdivision (q).

(s) Any security consisting of or representing an interest in a pool of mortgage loans which meets each of the following requirements:

(1) The pool consists of whole mortgage loans or participation interests in those loans, which loans were originated or acquired in the ordinary course of business by a national bank or federal savings and loan association or federal savings bank having its principal office in this state, by a bank incorporated under the laws of this state or by a savings association as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 5102 of the Financial Code and which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Savings and Loan Commissioner, which at the time of transfer to the pool is an authorized investment for such originating or acquiring institution.

(2) The pool of mortgage loans is held in trust by a trustee which is a financial institution specified in paragraph (1) as trustee or otherwise.

(3) The loans are serviced by a financial institution specified in paragraph (1).

(4) The security is not offered in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser.

(5) The security is offered pursuant to a registration under the Securities Act of 1933, or pursuant to an exemption under Regulation A under that act, or in the opinion of counsel for the issuer, is offered pursuant to an exemption under Section 4(2) of that act.

(t) Any security issued by an issuer registered as an open-end management company or unit investment trust under the Investment Company Act of 1940, provided that all of the following requirements are met:

(1) The registration statement for the securities is currently effective under the Securities Act of 1933.

(2) Prior to any offer or sale in this state of securities claimed to be exempt under this subdivision, there is filed with or paid to the commissioner each of the following:

(A) A notice of intention to sell that has been executed by the issuer and that includes the name and address of the issuer and the name of the securities to be offered and sold under this subdivision.

(B) A copy of the current prospectus to be used in the offer and sale of the security.

(C) The fee provided in subdivision (f) of Section 25608.

If any offer or sale is made pursuant to this exemption more than 12 months after the date the notice was filed under this subdivision, the issuer shall file another notice of intention to sell, a copy of the prospectus the issuer is currently utilizing for the purpose of making that offer, and the fee specified in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2).

SEC. 18.4. Section 25100 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25100. The following securities are exempted from Sections 25110, 25120, and 25130:

(a) Any security (including a revenue obligation) issued or guaranteed by the United States, any state, any city, county, city and county, public district, public authority, public corporation, public entity, or political subdivision of a state or any agency or corporate or other instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(b) Any security issued or guaranteed by the Dominion of Canada, any Canadian province, any political subdivision or municipality of that province, or by any other foreign government with which the United States currently maintains diplomatic relations, if the security is recognized as a valid obligation by the issuer or guarantor; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(c) Any security issued or guaranteed by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of a national bank or a bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state, and any security issued by a bank to one or more other banks and representing an interest in an asset of the issuing bank.

(d) Any security issued or guaranteed by a federal savings association or federal savings bank or federal land bank or joint land bank or national farm loan association or by any savings association, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 5102 of the Financial Code, which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of this state.

(e) Any security (other than an interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided land or a subdivision or in a real estate development), the issuance of which is subject to authorization by the Insurance Commissioner, the Public Utilities Commission, or the Real Estate Commissioner of this state.

(f) Any security consisting of any interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided lands or a subdivision or in a real estate development; provided that the exemption in this subdivision shall not be applicable to any investment contract sold or offered for sale with, or as part of, any such interest, or to any person engaged in the business of selling, distributing, or supplying water for irrigation purposes or domestic use which is not a public utility.

(g) Any mutual capital certificates or savings accounts, as defined in the Savings Association Law, issued by a savings association, as defined by subdivision (a) of Section 5102 of the Financial Code, and holding a license or certificate of authority then in force from the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of this state.

(h) Any security issued or guaranteed by any federal credit union, or by any credit union organized and supervised, or regulated, under the Credit Union Law.

(i) Any security issued or guaranteed by any railroad, other common carrier, public utility, or public utility holding company which is (1) subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission or (2) a holding company registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 or a subsidiary of that company within the meaning of that act or (3) regulated in respect of the issuance or guarantee of the security by a governmental authority of the United States, of any state, of Canada or of any Canadian province; and the security is subject to registration with or authorization of issuance by that authority.

(j) Any security (except evidences of indebtedness, whether interest bearing or not) of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit, if no part of the net earnings of the issuer inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, or (2) organized as a chamber of commerce or trade or professional association. The fact that amounts received from memberships or dues or both will or may be used to construct or otherwise acquire facilities for use by members of the nonprofit organization does not disqualify the organization for this exemption. This exemption does not apply to the securities of any nonprofit organization if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the organization or operation of that nonprofit organization or from remuneration received from that nonprofit organization.

(k) Any agreement, commonly known as a "life income contract," of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit and (2) which the commissioner designates by rule or order, with a donor in consideration of a donation of property to that issuer and providing for the payment to the donor or persons designated by him or her of income or specified periodic payments from the donated property or other property for the life of the donor or those other persons.

(l) Any note, draft, bill of exchange, or banker's acceptance which is freely transferable and of prime quality, arises out of a current transaction or the proceeds of which have been or are to be used for current transactions, and which evidences an obligation to pay cash within nine months of the date of issuance, exclusive of days of grace, or any renewal of that paper which is likewise limited, or any guarantee of that paper or of any such renewal, provided that the paper is not offered to the public in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser. In addition, the commissioner may, by rule or order, exempt any issuer of any notes, drafts, bills of exchange or banker's acceptances from registration of those securities when the commissioner finds that the registration is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

(m) Any security issued by any corporation organized and existing under the provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(n) Any beneficial interest in an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar benefit plan which meets the requirements for qualification under Section 401 of the federal Internal Revenue Code or any statute amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto. A determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service stating that an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar benefit plan meets those requirements shall be conclusive evidence that the plan is an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar plan within the meaning of the first sentence of this subdivision until the date the determination letter is revoked in writing by the Internal Revenue Service, regardless of whether or not the revocation is retroactive.

(o) Any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on a national securities exchange or designated or approved for designation upon notice of issuance as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., if the exchange or interdealer quotation system has been certified by rule or order of the commissioner and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to the security. The exemption afforded by this subdivision does not apply to securities listed or designated, or approved for listing or designation upon notice of issuance, in a rollup transaction unless the rollup transaction is an eligible rollup transaction as defined in Section 25014.7.

That certification of any exchange or system shall be made by the commissioner upon the written request of the exchange or system if the commissioner finds that the exchange or system: (i) in acting on applications for listing of common stock substantially applies the minimum standards set forth in either alternative (A) or (B) of paragraph (1), and (ii) in considering suspension or removal from listing or designation, substantially applies each of the criteria set forth in paragraph (2).

(1) Listing standards:

(A) (i) Shareholders' equity of at least four million dollars ($4,000,000).

(ii) Pretax income of at least seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) in the issuer's last fiscal year or in two of its last three fiscal years.

(iii) Minimum public distribution of 500,000 shares (exclusive of the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders, and other concentrated or family holdings), together with a minimum of 800 publicholders or minimum public distribution of 1,000,000 shares together with a minimum of 400 publicholders. The exchange or system may also consider the listing or designation of a company's securities if the company has a minimum of 500,000 shares publicly held, a minimum of 400 shareholders and daily trading volume in the issue has been approximately 2,000 shares or more for the six months preceding the date of application. In evaluating the suitability of an issue for listing or designation under this trading provision, the exchange or system shall review the nature and frequency of that activity and any other factors as it may determine to be relevant in ascertaining whether the issue is suitable for trading. A security which trades infrequently shall not be considered for listing or designation under this paragraph even though average daily volume amounts to 2,000 shares per day or more.

Companies whose securities are concentrated in a limited geographical area, or whose securities are largely held in block by institutional investors, normally may not be considered eligible for listing or designation unless the public distribution appreciably exceeds 500,000 shares.

(iv) Minimum price of three dollars ($3) per share for a reasonable period of time prior to the filing of a listing or designation application; provided, however, in certain instances an exchange or system may favorably consider listing an issue selling for less than three dollars ($3) per share after considering all pertinent factors, including market conditions in general, whether historically the issue has sold above three dollars ($3) per share, the applicant's capitalization, and the number of outstanding and publicly held shares of the issue.

(v) An aggregate market value for publicly held shares of at least three million dollars ($3,000,000).

(B) (i) Shareholders' equity of at least four million dollars ($4,000,000).

(ii) Minimum public distribution set forth in clause (iii) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1).

(iii) Operating history of at least three years.

(iv) An aggregate market value for publicly held shares of at least fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000).

(2) Criteria for consideration of suspension or removal from listing:

(i) If a company which (A) has shareholders' equity of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) has sustained net losses in each of its two most recent fiscal years, or (B) has net tangible assets of less than three million dollars ($3,000,000) and has sustained net losses in three of its four most recent fiscal years.

(ii) If the number of shares publicly held (excluding the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders and other concentrated or family holdings) is less than 150,000.

(iii) If the total number of shareholders is less than 400 or if the number of shareholders of lots of 100 shares or more is less than 300.

(iv) If the aggregate market value of shares publicly held is less than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000).

(v) If shares of common stock sell at a price of less than three dollars ($3) per share for a substantial period of time and the issuer shall fail to effectuate a reverse stock split of the shares within a reasonable period of time after being requested by the exchange to take that action.

A national securities exchange or interdealer quotation system of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. certified by rule or order of the commissioner under this subdivision shall file annual reports when requested to do so by the commissioner. The annual reports shall contain, by issuer: the variances granted to an exchange's listing standards or interdealer quotation system's designation criteria, including variances from corporate governance and voting rights' standards, for any security of that issuer; the reasons for the variances; a discussion of the review procedure instituted by the exchange or interdealer quotation system to determine the effect of the variances on investors and whether the variances should be continued; and any other information that the commissioner deems relevant. The purpose of these reports is to assist the commissioner in determining whether the quantitative and qualitative requirements of this subdivision are substantially being met by the exchange or system in general or with regard to any particular security.

The commissioner after appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, may, in his or her discretion, by rule or order, decertify any exchange or interdealer quotation system previously certified which ceases substantially to apply the minimum standards or criteria as set forth in paragraphs (1) and (2).

A rule or order of certification shall conclusively establish that any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on any exchange, or designated or approved for designation upon issuance as a national market system security on any interdealer quotation system, named in a rule or order of certification, and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to any such security, is exempt under this subdivision until the adoption by the commissioner of any rule or order decertifying the exchange or interdealer quotation system.

(p) A promissory note secured by a lien on real property, which is neither one of a series of notes of equal priority secured by interests in the same real property nor a note in which beneficial interests are sold to more than one person or entity.

(q) Any unincorporated interindemnity or reciprocal or interinsurance contract, which qualifies under the provisions of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, between members of a cooperative corporation, organized and operating under Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1, and whose members consist only of physicians and surgeons licensed in California, which contracts indemnify solely in respect to medical malpractice claims against the members, and which do not collect in advance of loss any moneys other than contributions by each member to a collective reserve trust fund or for necessary expenses of administration.

(1) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, the commissioner may in the commissioner's discretion bring an action in the name of the people of the State of California in the superior court to enjoin the acts or practices or to enforce compliance with Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code. Upon a proper showing a permanent or preliminary injunction, restraining order or writ of mandate shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets.

(2) The commissioner may, in the commissioner's discretion, (A) make such public or private investigations within or outside of this state as the commissioner deems necessary to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code or to aid in the enforcement of Section 1280.7, and (B) publish information concerning the violation of Section 1280.7.

(3) For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this section, the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records which the commissioner deems relevant or material to the inquiry.

(4) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to, any person, the superior court, upon application by the commissioner, may issue to the person an order requiring the person to appear before the commissioner, or the officer designated by the commissioner, there to produce documentary evidence, if so ordered, or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt.

(5) No person is excused from attending or testifying or from producing any document or record before the commissioner or in obedience to the subpoena of the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner, or in any proceeding instituted by the commissioner, on the ground that the testimony or evidence (documentary or otherwise), required of the person may tend to incriminate the person or subject the person to a penalty or forfeiture, but no individual may be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which the person is compelled, after validly claiming the privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence (documentary or otherwise), except that the individual testifying is not exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury or contempt committed in testifying.

(6) The cost of any review, examination, audit, or investigation made by the commissioner under Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code shall be paid to the commissioner by the person subject to the review, examination, audit, or investigation, and the commissioner may maintain an action for the recovery of these costs in any court of competent jurisdiction. In determining the cost, the commissioner may use the actual amount of the salary or other compensation paid to the persons making the review, examination, audit, or investigation plus the actual amount of expenses including overhead reasonably incurred in the performance of the work.

The recoverable cost of each review, examination, audit, or investigation made by the commissioner under Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code shall not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), except that costs exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) shall be recoverable if the costs are necessary to prevent a violation of any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code.

(r) Any shares or memberships issued by any corporation organized and existing pursuant to the provisions of Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1, provided the aggregate investment of any shareholder or member in shares or memberships sold pursuant to this subdivision does not exceed three hundred dollars ($300). This exemption does not apply to the shares or memberships of any such corporation if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the corporation or the operation of the corporation or from remuneration, other than reasonable salary, received from the corporation. This exemption does not apply to nonvoting shares or memberships of any such corporation issued to any person who does not possess, and who will not acquire in connection with the issuance of nonvoting shares or memberships, voting power (Section 12253) in the corporation. This exemption also does not apply to shares or memberships issued by a nonprofit cooperative corporation organized to facilitate the creation of an unincorporated interindemnity arrangement that provides indemnification for medical malpractice to its physician and surgeon members as set forth in subdivision (q).

(s) Any security consisting of or representing an interest in a pool of mortgage loans which meets each of the following requirements:

(1) The pool consists of whole mortgage loans or participation interests in those loans, which loans were originated or acquired in the ordinary course of business by a national bank or federal savings association or federal savings bank having its principal office in this state, by a bank incorporated under the laws of this state or by a savings association as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 5102 of the Financial Code and which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions, and each of which loans at the time of transfer to the pool is an authorized investment for such originating or acquiring institution.

(2) The pool of mortgage loans is held in trust by a trustee which is a financial institution specified in paragraph (1) as trustee or otherwise.

(3) The loans are serviced by a financial institution specified in paragraph (1).

(4) The security is not offered in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser.

(5) The security is offered pursuant to a registration under the Securities Act of 1933, or pursuant to an exemption under Regulation A under that act, or in the opinion of counsel for the issuer, is offered pursuant to an exemption under Section 4(2) of that act.

(t) (1) Any security issued or guaranteed by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of an industrial loan company incorporated under the laws of the state and authorized by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions to engage in industrial loan business.

(2) Any investment certificate in or issued by any industrial loan company that is organized under the laws of a state of the United States other than this state, that is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and that maintains a branch office in this state.

(u) Any security issued by an issuer registered as an open-end management company or unit investment trust under the Investment Company Act of 1940, provided that all of the following requirements are met:

(1) The registration statement for the securities is currently effective under the Securities Act of 1933.

(2) Prior to any offer or sale in this state of securities claimed to be exempt under this subdivision, there is filed with or paid to the commissioner each of the following:

(A) A notice of intention to sell that has been executed by the issuer and that includes the name and address of the issuer and the name of the securities to be offered and sold under this subdivision.

(B) A copy of the current prospectus to be used in the offer and sale of the security.

(C) The fee provided in subdivision (f) of Section 25608.

If any offer or sale is made pursuant to this exemption more than 12 months after the date the notice was filed under this subdivision, the issuer shall file another notice of intention to sell, a copy of the prospectus the issuer is currently utilizing for the purpose of making that offer, and the fee specified in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2).

SEC. 19. Section 25302 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25302. (a) No person shall publish any advertisement concerning any security in this state after the commissioner finds that the advertisement contains any statement that is false or misleading or omits to make any statement necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading and so notifies the person in writing. Such notification may be given summarily without notice or hearing. At any time after the issuance of a notification under this section, the person desiring to use the advertisement may in writing request that the order be rescinded. Upon the receipt of such a written request, the matter shall be set down for hearing to commence within 15 business days after such receipt unless the person making the request consents to a later date. After such hearing, which shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, the commissioner shall determine whether to affirm and continue or to rescind such order, and the commissioner shall have all the powers granted under such act.

(b) This section does not apply to any advertisement for any security which is subject to the supervision, regulation or examination of any of the following:

(1) The Insurance Commissioner.

(2) The Commissioner of Financial Institutions.

(3) The Public Utilities Commission.

(4) The Office of Thrift Supervision.

(5) The Comptroller of the Currency of the United States.

(6) The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

(7) The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

SEC. 20. Section 31103 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

31103. This division shall not be applicable to any transaction relating to a bank credit card plan. "Bank credit card plan" means a credit card plan in which the issuers of credit cards, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 1747.02 of the Civil Code are only: banks regulated by or under the supervision of the Federal Reserve Board, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Comptroller of the Currency of the United States, or the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of this state under Division 1 (commencing with Section 99) of the Financial Code; or, persons controlling these banks, provided that the assets of such a bank or banks represent a majority of the assets on a consolidated basis of any holding company system of which the card issuers may be a party; or, persons controlled by these banks.

SEC. 21. Section 109 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

109. "Bank" or "banks" embraces commercial banks and trust companies unless the context otherwise requires. However, "bank" does not include a savings association, an industrial loan company, or a credit union.

SEC. 22. Section 112 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

112. "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Financial Institutions and "department" means the Department of Financial Institutions.

SEC. 23. Section 118 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

118. (a) All references in this division and in Division 1 (commencing with Section 100), Title 1 of the Corporations Code to financial statements, balance sheets, income statements and statements of changes in financial position of a bank and all references to assets, liabilities, earnings, retained earnings, shareholders' equity, and similar accounting items of a bank mean such financial statements or such items prepared or determined in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles then applicable, fairly presenting in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles the matters which they purport to present, subject to any specific accounting treatment required by any provision of Division 1 (commencing with Section 100), Title 1 of the Corporations Code, of this division, or of any regulation or order issued under this division.

(b) The commissioner may, by regulation or order, require that any financial statement or accounting item of a bank be prepared or determined in a manner other than in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles if the commissioner finds that such other manner is necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes or provisions of this division.

SEC. 24. Section 134.5 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

134.5. "Credit union" means a corporation of the type described in Section 14002 organized under the laws of this state or a corporation of similar type organized under the laws of the United States or of any state of the United States other than this state.

139.6. "Industrial loan company" means a corporation of the type described in Section 18003 organized under the laws of this state or a corporation of similar type organized under the laws of any state of the United States other than this state.

SEC. 26. Section 143 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

143. "Savings association" includes a savings association, a savings and loan association, and a savings bank. However, "savings association" does not include any savings bank of the type defined in Section 3(g) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. Section 1813(g)).

SEC. 27. Section 180 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

180. In this chapter, unless the provision or context requires otherwise:

(a) "New General Corporation Law" means Division 1 (commencing with Section 100), Title 1 of the Corporations Code, as in effect on and after January 1, 1977.

(b) "Prior Banking Law" means this division, as in effect on December 31, 1978.

(c) "Prior General Corporation Law" means Division 1 (commencing with Section 100), Title 1 of the Corporations Code, as in effect on December 31, 1976.

(d) "Revised Banking Law" means this division, as in effect on and after January 1, 1979.

(e) "Subject institution" means:

(2) Any corporation (other than a corporation described in paragraph (3) of this subdivision) incorporated under the laws of this state which is, with the approval of the commissioner, incorporated for the purpose of engaging in, or which is authorized by the commissioner to engage in, the trust business under Division 1 (commencing with Section 99) of the Financial Code;

(3) Any corporation incorporated under the laws of this state which is authorized by the Commissioner of Insurance and the commissioner to maintain a title insurance department to engage in title insurance business and a trust department to engage in trust business; or

(4) Any corporation incorporated under the laws of this state which is, with the approval of the commissioner, incorporated for the purpose of engaging in, or which is authorized by the superintendent to engage in, business under Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500), Chapter 19 of this division.

SEC. 27.1. Section 180 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

180. In this chapter, unless the provision or context requires otherwise:

(a) "New General Corporation Law" means Division 1 (commencing with Section 100), Title 1 of the Corporations Code, as in effect on and after January 1, 1977.

(b) "Prior Banking Law" means this division, as in effect on December 31, 1978.

(c) "Prior General Corporation Law" means Division 1 (commencing with Section 100), Title 1 of the Corporations Code, as in effect on December 31, 1976.

(d) "Revised Banking Law" means this division, as in effect on and after January 1, 1979.

(e) "Subject institution" means:

(1) Any corporation incorporated under the laws of this state which is, with the approval of the commissioner, incorporated for the purpose of engaging in, or which is authorized by the commissioner to engage in, the commercial banking business under Division 1 (commencing with Section 99) of the Financial Code.

(2) Any corporation incorporated under the laws of this state which is, with the approval of the commissioner, incorporated for the purpose of engaging in, or which is authorized by the commissioner to engage in, the trust business under Division 1 (commencing with Section 99) of the Financial Code.

(3) Any corporation incorporated under the laws of this state which is, with the approval of the commissioner, incorporated for the purpose of engaging in, or which is authorized by the commissioner to engage in, business under Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500), Chapter 19 of this division.

SEC. 28. Section 184 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

184. In case the board of a subject institution has, prior to January 1, 1979, adopted a resolution levying an assessment on the common shares of such subject institution in accordance with an order issued by the commissioner pursuant to Section 661 of the prior Banking Law:

(a) If the assessment has, prior to January 1, 1979, become a lien on the common shares in accordance with Section 2704 of the prior General Corporation Law, the assessment shall be collected pursuant to the prior General Corporation Law:

(b) Otherwise, the resolution shall be deemed to be rescinded on January 1, 1979.

SEC. 28.5. The heading of Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 200) of Division 1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

CHAPTER 2. DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

SEC. 29. Section 200 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

200. (a) In this section:

(1) "Business and industrial development corporation" means a corporation licensed under Division 15 (commencing with Section 31000).

(2) "Payment instrument" has the same meaning as set forth in Section 33059.

(3) "Traveler's check" has the same meaning as set forth in Section 1852.

(b) There is in the state government, in the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency, a Department of Financial Institutions which has charge of the execution of, among other laws, the laws of this state relating to any of the following: (1) banks or trust companies or the banking or trust business; (2) savings associations or the savings association business; (3) credit unions or the credit union business; (4) industrial loan companies or the industrial loan business; (5) persons who engage in the business of receiving money for transmission to foreign nations or such business; (6) issuers of traveler's checks or the traveler's check business; (7) issuers of payment instruments or the payment instrument business; or (8) business and industrial development corporations or the business and industrial development corporation business.

SEC. 29.5. The heading of Article 2 (commencing with Section 210) of Chapter 2 of Division 1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

Article 2. Commissioner of Financial Institutions

SEC. 30. Section 210 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

210. The chief officer of the Department of Financial Institutions is the Commissioner of Financial Institutions. The Commissioner of Financial Institutions is the head of the department and, except as otherwise provided in this code, is subject to the provisions of the Government Code relating to department heads, but need not reside in Sacramento.

SEC. 31. Section 210.5 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

210.5. As of the operative date of this section:

(a) In this section, "order" means any approval, consent, authorization, exemption, denial, prohibition, requirement, or other administrative action, applicable to a specific case.

(b) The office of the Superintendent of Banks and the State Banking Department are abolished. All powers, duties, responsibilities, and functions of the Superintendent of Banks and the State Banking Department are transferred to the Commissioner of Financial Institutions and the Department of Financial Institutions, respectively. The Commissioner of Financial Institutions and the Department of Financial Institutions succeed to all the rights and property of the Superintendent of Banks and the State Banking Department, respectively; the Commissioner of Financial Institutions and the Department of Financial Institutions are subject to all the debts and liabilities of the Superintendent of Banks and the State Banking Department, respectively, as if the Commissioner of Financial Institutions and the Department of Financial Institutions had incurred them. Any action or proceeding by or against the Superintendent of Banks or the State Banking Department may be prosecuted to judgment, which shall bind the Commissioner of Financial Institutions or the Department of Financial Institutions, respectively, or the Commissioner of Financial Institutions or the Department of Financial Institutions may be proceeded against or substituted in place of the Superintendent of Banks or the State Banking Department, respectively. References in the Constitution of the State of California or in any statute or regulation to the Superintendent of Banks or to the State Banking Department mean the Commissioner of Financial Institutions or the Department of Financial Institutions, respectively. All agreements entered into with, and orders and regulations issued by, the Superintendent of Banks or the State Banking Department shall continue in effect as if the agreements were entered into with, and the orders and regulations were issued by, the Commissioner of Financial Institutions or the Department of Financial Institutions, respectively.

(c) The office of the Savings and Loan Commissioner and the Department of Savings and Loan are abolished. All powers, duties, responsibilities, and functions of the Savings and Loan Commissioner and the Department of Savings and Loan are transferred to the Commissioner of Financial Institutions and the Department of Financial Institutions, respectively. The Commissioner of Financial Institutions and the Department of Financial Institutions succeed to all the rights and property of the Savings and Loan Commissioner and the Department of Savings and Loan, respectively; the Commissioner of Financial Institutions and the Department of Financial Institutions are subject to all the debts and liabilities of the Savings and Loan Commissioner and the Department of Savings and Loan, respectively, as if the Commissioner of Financial Institutions and the Department of Financial Institutions had incurred them. Any action or proceeding by or against the Savings and Loan Commissioner or the Department of Savings and Loan may be prosecuted to judgment, which shall bind the Commissioner of Financial Institutions or the Department of Financial Institutions, respectively, or the Commissioner of Financial Institutions or the Department of Financial Institutions may be proceeded against or substituted in place of the Savings and Loan Commissioner or the Department of Savings and Loan, respectively. References in the Constitution of the State of California or in any statute or regulation to the Savings and Loan Commissioner or to the Department of Savings and Loan mean the Commissioner of Financial Institutions or the Department of Financial Institutions, respectively. All agreements entered into with, and orders and regulations issued by, the Savings and Loan Commissioner or the Department of Savings and Loan shall continue in effect as if the agreements were entered into with, and the orders and regulations were issued by, the Commissioner of Financial Institutions or the Department of Financial Institutions.

(d) All powers, duties, responsibilities, and functions of the Commissioner of Corporations and the Department of Corporations with respect to credit unions, the credit union business, industrial loan companies, or the industrial loan business are transferred to the Commissioner of Financial Institutions and the Department of Financial Institutions, respectively. The Commissioner of Financial Institutions and the Department of Financial Institutions succeed to all the rights and property of the Commissioner of Corporations and the Department of Corporations, respectively, with respect to credit unions, the credit union business, industrial loan companies, or the industrial loan business; the Commissioner of Financial Institutions and the Department of Financial Institutions are subject to all the debts and liabilities of the Commissioner of Corporations and the Department of Corporations, respectively, with respect to credit unions, the credit union business, industrial loan companies, or the industrial loan business, as if the Commissioner of Financial Institutions and the Department of Financial Institutions had incurred them. Any action or proceeding by or against the Commissioner of Corporations or the Department of Corporations with respect to credit unions, the credit union business, industrial loan companies, or the industrial loan business may be prosecuted to judgment, which shall bind the Commissioner of Financial Institutions or the Department of Financial Institutions, respectively, or the Commissioner of Financial Institutions or the Department of Financial Institutions may be proceeded against or substituted in place of the Commissioner of Corporations or the Department of Corporations, respectively. References in the Constitution of the State of California or any statute or regulation to the Commissioner of Corporations or to the Department of Corporations with respect to credit unions, the credit union business, industrial loan companies, or the industrial loan business mean the Commissioner of Financial Institutions or the Department of Financial Institutions, respectively. All agreements entered into with, and orders and regulations issued by, the Commissioner of Corporations or the Department of Corporations in the exercise of authority under any law relating to credit unions, the credit union business, industrial loan companies, or the industrial loan business, shall continue in effect as if the agreements were entered into with, and the orders and regulations were issued by, the Commissioner of Financial Institutions or the Department of Financial Institutions.

SEC. 32. Section 211 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

211. The commissioner is appointed by the Governor, and holds office at the pleasure of the Governor. The appointment of the commissioner is subject to confirmation by the Senate.

SEC. 33. Section 212 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

212. The commissioner shall be a citizen of the United States and a resident of the state for at least three years prior to his or her appointment. The commissioner shall be chosen solely for his or her qualifications and fitness to perform the duties of his or her office.

SEC. 34. Section 213 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

213. The annual salary of the commissioner is provided for by Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 11550) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 35. Section 214 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

214. Before entering upon the duties of his or her office, the commissioner shall take and subscribe to the constitutional oath of office and file the same with the Secretary of State.

SEC. 36. Section 215 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

215. The commissioner is responsible for the performance of all duties, the exercise of all powers and jurisdiction, and the assumption and discharge of all responsibilities vested by law in the department. The commissioner has and may exercise all the powers necessary or convenient for the administration and enforcement of, among other laws, the laws described in Section 200. The commissioner may issue such rules and regulations consistent with law as he or she may deem necessary or advisable in executing the powers, duties, and responsibilities of the department.

SEC. 37. Section 216 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

216. (a) The commissioner may make the agreements that he or she deems necessary or appropriate in exercising his or her powers.

(b) (1) The agreements authorized under subdivision (a) may include, but are not limited to, agreements with agencies of this state, of other states of the United States, of the United States, or of foreign nations that regulate financial institutions, relating to examinations of banks, savings associations, credit unions, industrial loan companies, and other matters.

(2) Any agreement with a government agency that regulates financial institutions is exempt from the advertising and competitive bidding requirements of the Public Contract Code.

SEC. 37.5. Section 217 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

217. The authority vested in the Superintendent of Banks under subdivision (2) of Section 1 of Article XV of the California Constitution is delegated to the commissioner.

SEC. 38. Section 230 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

230. The commissioner shall appoint a chief deputy who holds office at the pleasure of the commissioner. The annual salary of the chief deputy shall be fixed by the commissioner with the approval of the Director of Finance. The chief deputy shall have the same qualifications as the commissioner. The commissioner shall also appoint two deputies, one to serve in the City and County of San Francisco and one to serve in the City of Los Angeles.

SEC. 39. Section 231 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

231. The commissioner may employ deputies in addition to the chief deputy, and examiners, appraisers, technical assistants, investigators, administrative assistants, clerks, and other employees that he or she may need to discharge in a proper manner the duties imposed upon him or her by law. He or she shall prescribe their duties and fix their compensation in accordance with classifications made by the State Personnel Board. The commissioner may also, at those times and on those terms as may be approved by the Governor, employ those attorneys as he or she may need.

SEC. 40. Section 233 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

233. The commissioner may require, at any time, of any deputy, examiner, or other employee of the department, an official bond in such amount as the commissioner may deem necessary. The premium for bonds required by the commissioner shall be an expense of the department.

SEC. 41. Section 234 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

234. Neither the commissioner nor any deputy or employee of the department shall do or be any of the following with respect to any bank, savings association, credit union, or industrial loan company supervised by the department:

(a) Be indebted, directly or indirectly, as borrower, endorser, surety, or guarantor to any such bank, savings association, credit union, or industrial loan company.

(b) Be an officer, director, or employee of any such bank, savings association, credit union, or industrial loan company.

(c) Own or deal in directly or indirectly, the shares or obligations of any such bank, savings association, credit union, or industrial loan company.

(d) Be interested in or, directly or indirectly, receive from any such bank, savings association, credit union, or industrial loan company or any officer, director, or employee thereof, any salary, fee, compensation, or other valuable thing by way of gift, credit, compensation for services, or otherwise. However, this subdivision does not prohibit any person from being interested in or directly or indirectly receiving (1) anything which is expressly excluded from a definition of "gift" or "honorarium" in the Political Reform Act of 1974 (Title 9 (commencing with Section 81000) of the Government Code) or in regulations issued under the Political Reform Act of 1974 by the Fair Political Practices Commission or (2) anything which, if received by the commissioner, would constitute a gift or honorarium within the meaning of the Political Reform Act of 1974 or regulations issued under the Political Reform Act of 1974 by the Fair Political Practices Commission but which the commissioner would not be prohibited from receiving under the Political Reform Act of 1974 or regulations issued under the Political Reform Act of 1974 by the Fair Political Practices Commission.

(e) Be interested in or engage in the negotiation of any loan to, obligation of, or accommodation for another person to or with any such bank, savings association, credit union, or industrial loan company.

Notwithstanding the foregoing the commissioner and any deputy or employee may have and maintain one or more deposit or similar accounts in any bank, savings association, credit union, or industrial loan company in this state and may maintain with any bank, savings association, credit union, or industrial loan company in this state a loan which was not obtained in violation of this section if the person reports the loan in writing to the department within 30 days after the person commences his or her term of appointment or employment with the department and if the loan is not renewed, renegotiated, extended, or otherwise modified on or after July 1, 1997.

A violation of this section by any person shall constitute sufficient grounds for his or her removal or discharge.

SEC. 42. Section 235 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

235. If the commissioner is unable to perform his or her duties for more than 30 consecutive days or if the office of the commissioner becomes vacant, the chief deputy shall have all the powers and duties of the commissioner until the return or recovery of the commissioner, or, in case of a vacancy, until a new commissioner is appointed by the Governor and qualifies to hold office.

SEC. 43. Section 250 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

250. The commissioner shall have his or her principal office in the City and County of San Francisco and may also have an office in the City of Sacramento, in the City of Los Angeles and in the City of San Diego. The commissioner shall provide at the expense of the department such office space, furniture, and equipment as may be necessary or convenient for the transaction of the business of the department.

SEC. 44. Section 252 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

252. The commissioner shall adopt and keep an official seal. Papers executed by the commissioner in his or her official capacity pursuant to law and bearing the seal, or copies thereof certified by him or her, shall be received in evidence in like manner as the original and may be recorded in the same manner and with the same effect as a deed regularly acknowledged.

SEC. 45. Section 253 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

253. Whenever it is necessary for the commissioner to approve any instrument and to affix his or her official seal thereto, the commissioner shall charge a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) therefor. Whenever it is proper for the department to furnish a copy of any paper which has been filed therein and to certify to the paper, the commissioner may charge twenty-five cents ($0.25) per folio for each copy and a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) for certifying the copy and for affixing his or her official seal. The department may furnish photographic copies of the paper for a fee sufficient to cover the cost thereof.

SEC. 46. Section 255 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

255. Official reports made by the commissioner and verified reports of an examination made by the commissioner, exclusively or in conjunction with or with assistance from any agency of the United States, of a state of the United States, or of a foreign nation are prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the reports for all purposes.

SEC. 47. Section 256 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 47.5. Section 256 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

256. On or before May 31 of each year, the commissioner shall, through the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency, report to the Governor and to the Legislature. The report shall contain the following information:

(a) A list of the California state banks that were authorized by the commissioner to transact business as of the end of the preceding calendar year.

(b) A list of the foreign (other nation) banks that were licensed by the commissioner to maintain offices in California as of the end of the preceding calendar year.

(c) A list of the California state savings associations that were authorized by the commissioner to transact business as of the end of the preceding calendar year.

(d) A list of the foreign savings associations that were authorized by the commissioner to maintain offices in California as of the end of the preceding calendar year.

(e) A list of the California state credit unions that were authorized by the commissioner to transact business as of the end of the preceding calendar year.

(f) A list of the credit unions organized and qualified as credit unions in other states of the United States that were certified by the commissioner to act as credit unions in California as of the end of the preceding calendar year.

(g) A list of the California state industrial loan companies that were authorized by the commissioner to transact business as of the end of the preceding calendar year.

(h) A list of the persons that were licensed by the commissioner under Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 1800), Chapter 14A (commencing with Section 1851), Division 15 (commencing with Section 31000), or Division 16 (commencing with Section 33000) to transact business as of the end of the preceding calendar year.

(i) In case during the preceding calendar year the commissioner took possession of the property and business of any California state bank, foreign (other nation) bank, savings association, credit union, industrial loan company, or person licensed under any of the laws cited in subdivision (h) to transact business, a list of those California state banks, foreign (other nation) banks, savings associations, credit unions, industrial loan companies, or licensees.

(j) In case at any time during the preceding calendar year the commissioner was the liquidator of any California state banks, foreign (other nation) banks, savings associations, credit unions, or industrial loan companies, or persons licensed under any of the laws cited in subdivision (h) to transact business, a list of those California state banks, foreign (other nation) banks, savings associations, credit unions, industrial loan companies, or licensees.

(k) Other information as the commissioner deems appropriate.

SEC. 48. Section 258 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 48.5. Section 258 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

258. At least once each month, the commissioner shall issue and disseminate as the commissioner deems appropriate a bulletin containing the following information:

(a) Information regarding any the following actions taken since issuance of the previous bulletin:

(1) The filing, approval, or denial under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 350) of an application for authority to organize a California state bank, or the issuance under Chapter 3 of a certificate of authority to a California state bank.

(2) The filing, approval, or denial under Article 1 (commencing with Section 5400) of Chapter 2 of Division 2 of an application for the issuance of an organizing permit for the organization of a California savings association, or for the issuance under Article 2 (commencing with Section 5500) of Chapter 2 of Division 2 of a certificate of authority to a California savings association.

(3) The filing, approval, or denial under Article 2 (commencing with Section 14150) of Chapter 2 of Division 5 of an application for a certificate to act as a credit union, or the issuance of a certificate to engage in the business of a credit union.

(4) The filing, approval, or denial under Article 2 (commencing with Section 18115) of Chapter 2 of Division 7 of an application for authority to engage in the industrial loan business, or the issuance under Section 18101 of this code of a certificate of authority.

(5) The filing, approval, or denial under Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 1800), Chapter 14A (commencing with Section 1851), Division 15 (commencing with Section 31000), or Division 16 (commencing with Section 33000) of an application for a license to engage in business, or the issuance under any of those laws of a license to engage in business.

(6) The filing, approval, or denial under Chapter 13.5 (commencing with Section 1700) of an application by a foreign (other nation) bank to establish its first office of any particular class (as determined under Section 1701) in this state, or the issuance under that chapter of a license in connection with the establishment of such an office.

(7) The filing, approval, or denial under Division 1.5 (commencing with Section 4800) of an application for approval of a sale, merger, or conversion.

(8) The filing, approval, or denial under Article 6 (commencing with Section 5700) of Chapter 2 of Division 2 of an application for approval of a conversion of a federal savings association into a state savings association, or the filing of a federal charter of a state savings association that has converted to a federal savings association.

(9) The filing, approval, or denial under Article 7 (commencing with Section 5750) of Chapter 2 of Division 2 of an application for approval of a reorganization, merger, consolidation, or transfer of assets of a state savings association.

(10) The filing, approval, or denial under Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 15200) of Division 5 of an application for approval of a merger, dissolution, or conversion of a credit union.

(11) The taking of possession of the property and business of a California state bank, savings association, credit union, industrial loan company, or person licensed by the superintendent under any of the laws cited in paragraph (2).

(b) Other information as the commissioner deems appropriate.

SEC. 49. Section 259 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

259. Notwithstanding any other provision of this code, whenever any provision of this division requires the pledge of securities to be deposited with the Treasurer, to insure the performance of any act or duty, the securities after first being approved by the commissioner and upon the written order of the commissioner, shall be deposited with the Treasurer. The Treasurer, with the consent of the owner of the securities deposited or to be deposited with the Treasurer, may place the securities in the custody of a qualified trust company or bank in the same manner and under the same conditions provided in Article 3 (commencing with Section 16550) of Chapter 4 of Part 2 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 50. Section 260 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

260. Whenever the commissioner is notified of or discovers a violation of the state law punishable by criminal penalties, he or she shall promptly advise the Attorney General.

SEC. 51. Section 261 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

261. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the commissioner may deliver fingerprints taken of an applicant for employment, or a director, officer, or employee of a bank, bank holding company, or any subsidiary of a bank or bank holding company, credit union or any subsidiary of a credit union, industrial loan company, industrial loan holding company, or any subsidiary of an industrial loan company or industrial loan holding company, to local, state, or federal law enforcement agencies for the purpose of obtaining information as to the existence and nature of a criminal record, if any, of that person relating to convictions, and to any arrest for which the person is released on bail or on his or her own recognizance pending trial, for the commission or attempted commission of a crime involving robbery, burglary, theft, embezzlement, fraud, forgery, bookmaking, receiving stolen property, counterfeiting, or involving checks or credit cards or using computers.

(b) No request shall be submitted pursuant to this section without the written consent of the person affected.

(c) Any criminal history information obtained pursuant to this section shall be confidential and no recipient shall disclose its contents other than for the purpose for which it was acquired.

SEC. 52. Section 262 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

262. (a) The commissioner shall inform the Commissioner of Corporations and other appropriate state and federal officials charged with the regulation of financial institutions or securities transactions of any enforcement actions, including, but not limited to, civil or criminal actions, cease and desist orders, license or authorization suspensions or revocations, or an open investigation.

(b) The commissioner shall inform the Commissioner of Corporations and other appropriate state and federal officials charged with the regulation of financial institutions or securities transactions if it appears that any bank, bank holding company, savings association, savings and loan holding company, credit union, industrial loan company, industrial loan holding company, or other licensee of the department is conducting its business in a fraudulent, unsafe, unsound, or injurious manner, or has suffered or will suffer substantial financial loss or damage, and it appears to the commissioner that the information is relevant to the regulatory activities of the other agency.

SEC. 52.3. Section 263 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

263. Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code does not apply to hearings conducted by the department.

SEC. 52.5. Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 265) is added to Chapter 2 of Division 1 of the Financial Code, to read:

Article 4.5. Financial Institutions Fund

265. As of the operative date of this section, there is established a Financial Institutions Fund in the State Treasury. Except as otherwise provided in Division 5 (commencing with Section 14000), all money collected or received by the commissioner under this code shall be deposited with the Treasurer to the credit of the Financial Institutions Fund.

SEC. 52.7. The heading of Article 5 (commencing with Section 270) of Chapter 2 of Division 1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

Article 5. State Banking Account

SEC. 53. Section 270 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

270. (a) The commissioner shall annually collect pro rata from the banks and trust companies under the supervision of the department a fund in amount sufficient in the commissioner's judgment to meet the expenses of the department in administering laws relating to banks or trust companies or to the banking or trust business that are not otherwise provided for and to provide a reasonable reserve for contingencies.

(b) The amount of the annual assessment for the fund on any bank or trust company shall not be less than five thousand dollars ($5,000). Above that minimum amount, except as otherwise provided subdivision (c), the annual assessment shall not exceed the sum of the products of a base assessment rate, or percentage thereof, and segregated portions of its total resources, according to the following table:

Next $9	33.0
Next $40	15.0
Next $50	7.5
Next $400	5.0
Next $500	4.5
Next $2,000	4.0
Next $7,000	3.4
Next $10,000	3.2
Excess over $20,000	2.1

(c) (1) For purposes of determining the annual assessment on banks and trust companies that have one or more foreign (other state) branch offices, the resources of foreign (other state) branch offices shall be excluded from total resources, except that the commissioner may order the resources of foreign (other state) branch offices to be included in total resources if and to the extent that it is necessary in the commissioner's judgment to meet the expenses of the department on account of foreign (other state) branch offices and a reasonable reserve for contingencies.

(2) If the commissioner finds that a bank or trust company allocated any resource to a foreign (other state) branch office for the purpose, in whole or in part, of reducing its annual assessment, the commissioner may, for purposes of calculating the annual assessment on the bank or trust company, reallocate the resource to the bank's or trust company's head office.

(d) The base assessment rate shall be set by the commissioner from time to time at the commissioner's discretion, not to exceed two dollars and twenty cents ($2.20) per one thousand dollars ($1,000) of total resources.

SEC. 53.1. Section 270 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

270. (a) The commissioner shall annually collect pro rata from the banks and trust companies under the supervision of the department a fund in amount sufficient in the commissioner's judgment to meet the expenses of the department in administering laws relating to banks or trust companies or to the banking or trust business that are not otherwise provided for and to provide a reasonable reserve for contingencies.

(b) The amount of the annual assessment for the fund on any bank or trust company shall not be less than five thousand dollars ($5,000). Above that minimum amount, except as otherwise provided subdivision (c), the annual assessment shall not exceed the sum of the products of a base assessment rate, or percentage thereof, and segregated portions of its total resources, according to the following table:

Next $18	50.0
Next $80	12.0
Next $100	6.25
Next $800	6.0
Next $1,000	4.0
Next $4,000	3.5
Next $14,000	3.0
Next $20,000	2.5
Excess over $40,000	1.5

(c) (1) For purposes of determining the annual assessment on banks and trust companies that have one or more foreign (other state) branch offices, the resources of foreign (other state) branch offices shall be excluded from total resources, except that the commissioner may order the resources of foreign (other state) branch offices to be included in total resources if and to the extent that it is necessary in the commissioner's judgment to meet the expenses of the department on account of foreign (other state) branch offices and a reasonable reserve for contingencies.

(2) If the commissioner finds that a bank or trust company allocated any resource to a foreign (other state) branch office for the purpose, in whole or in part, of reducing its annual assessment, the commissioner may, for purposes of calculating the annual assessment on the bank or trust company, reallocate the resource to the bank's or trust company's head office.

(d) The base assessment rate shall be set by the commissioner from time to time at the commissioner's discretion, not to exceed two dollars and twenty cents ($2.20) per one thousand dollars ($1,000) of total resources.

SEC. 54. Section 271 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

271. The commissioner shall annually collect from national banking associations and foreign (other state) banks operating trust departments in this state an annual assessment to meet expenses of the department, not exceeding one one-hundredth of 1 percent of the amount required by law to be deposited with the Treasurer as surety for the faithful performance and execution of all court and private trusts accepted by them.

SEC. 55. Section 271.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

271.5. (a) Whenever the commissioner makes an assessment pursuant to Section 270 or 271, the commissioner shall mail or otherwise deliver to each bank and trust company assessed an invoice for the amount of its assessment. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (b) relating to installment payments, the entire amount assessed to a bank or trust company shall become a liability of the bank or trust company at the time when the invoice is mailed or otherwise delivered to it.

(b) Any assessment made by the commissioner pursuant to Section 270 or 271 shall be paid as follows:

(1) If the assessment is two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) or more, it shall be paid in three equal installments. The first installment shall be paid by September 30 next following the making of the assessment, the second installment shall be paid by December 31 of the same year, and the third installment shall be paid by February 28 of the succeeding year.

(2) If the assessment is less than two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) but more than thirty thousand dollars ($30,000), it shall be paid in two equal installments. The first installment shall be paid by September 30 next following the making of the assessment, and the second installment shall be paid by February 28 of the succeeding year.

(3) If the assessment is thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) or less, it shall be paid by September 30 next following the making of the assessment.

SEC. 55.1. Section 271.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

271.5. Whenever the commissioner makes an assessment pursuant to Section 270 or 271, the commissioner shall fix the date when the assessment is due and payable and shall mail or otherwise deliver to each bank and trust company assessed an invoice showing the amount of its assessment and the date when the assessment is due and payable.

SEC. 56. Section 272 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

272. The commissioner in addition to the annual assessment shall collect from each bank authorized to engage in the trust business, and from each corporation doing a departmental business as a title insurance company and as a trust company, to defray the cost of examination, a fee not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200) per diem, for each examiner necessarily engaged in the examination of the trust company, trust business, or trust department. The commissioner shall assess the fee upon completion of the examination of the trust company, trust business, or trust department of the title insurance company and shall mail or otherwise deliver an invoice for the fee to the institution. The institution shall pay the fee within 30 days after the invoice is mailed or otherwise delivered to it.

SEC. 56.1. Section 272 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

272. The commissioner in addition to the annual assessment shall collect from each bank authorized to engage in the trust business, to defray the cost of examination, a fee not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200) per diem, for each examiner necessarily engaged in the examination of the trust company, trust business, or trust department. The commissioner shall assess the fee upon completion of the examination of the trust company or trust business and shall mail or otherwise deliver an invoice for the fee to the institution. The institution shall pay the fee within 30 days after the invoice is mailed or otherwise delivered to it.

SEC. 57. Section 273 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

273. If any bank or trust company or title insurance company fails to make timely payment of any assessment made pursuant to Section 270, 271, or 272, the commissioner may cancel the certificate of authority of the bank or trust company or title insurance company to conduct a banking or trust business.

SEC. 57.1. Section 273 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

273. If any bank or trust company fails to make timely payment of any assessment made pursuant to Section 270, 271, or 272, the commissioner may cancel the certificate of authority of the bank or trust company to conduct a banking or trust business.

SEC. 58. Section 273.5 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

273.5. As of the operative date of this section:

(a) The State Banking Fund is converted into a separate account in the Financial Institutions Fund and designated as the State Banking Account.

(b) All moneys and other assets and all liabilities of the State Banking Fund shall be transferred to the State Banking Account.

SEC. 59. Section 274 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

274. Except as otherwise provided in Section 276 or 277, all salaries and other expenses of the department, other than those incurred in administering laws relating to savings associations or the savings association business, credit unions or the credit union business, or industrial loan companies or the industrial loan business or Article 2 (commencing with Section 53630) of Chapter 4 of Part

1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, shall be paid out of the State Banking Account in the Financial Institutions Fund. Salaries and other expenses incurred in the liquidation or conservation of any bank or of any person licensed under Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 1800), Chapter 14A (commencing with Section 1851), Division 15 (commencing with Section 31000), or Division 16 (commencing with Section 33000), including the compensation of employees of the department to the extent that they are engaged in such liquidation or conservation, if possible, and if advanced from the State Banking Account in the Financial Institutions Fund, shall constitute a first charge against the assets of such bank or licensee, as the case may be.

SEC. 60. Section 275 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

275. The commissioner shall deliver all moneys received or collected by the commissioner under Section 270, 271, or 272 or otherwise, other than moneys received or collected by the commissioner under laws relating to savings associations, the savings association business, credit unions, the credit union business, industrial loan companies, or the industrial loan business or Article 2 (commencing with Section 53630) of Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, to the Treasurer, who shall deposit the moneys to the credit of the State Banking Account of the Financial Institutions Fund.

SEC. 60.3. Section 276 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

276. (a) In this section, "assessment statute" means any statute that authorizes the commissioner to make or collect an assessment (other than a fine) on financial institutions, including the following:

(1) Sections 270 to 271.5, inclusive.

(2) Section 1801.1.

(3) Section 33302.

(4) Article 2 (commencing with Section 8030) of Chapter 7 of Division 2.

(5) Article 4 (commencing with Section 14350) of Chapter 3 of Division 5.

(6) Sections 18350 to 18352, inclusive.

(7) Section 53667 of the Government Code.

(b) The commissioner may charge to and collect from the Financial Institutions Fund, the Credit Union Fund, the Local Agency Deposit Security Fund, each of the accounts included in the Financial Institutions Fund, and each of the programs included in the State Banking Account an amount equal to the fund's, account's, or program's pro rata share of those expenses of the department which in the opinion of the commissioner it is not feasible to attribute to any single one of the funds, accounts, or programs. The fund's, account's, or program's pro rata share shall be determined and paid in the manner and at the time ordered by the commissioner.

(c) The provisions of any assessment statute that authorize the commissioner to make or collect an assessment for the purposes specified in the assessment statute include authority for the commissioner to make and collect an assessment for the additional purpose of providing money in an amount that will, in the commissioner's judgment, be sufficient to make payments that may be required under subdivision (b).

SEC. 60.7. Section 277 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

277. Notwithstanding any other provision of this code or of Section 53667 of the Government Code, the commissioner may, at any time during a fiscal year, pay any expense of the department from any of the following accounts and funds: the State Banking Account, the Savings and Loan Account, the Industrial Loan Account, the Financial Institutions Fund, the Credit Union Fund, and the Local Agency Deposit Security Fund. However, if the commissioner pays an expense of the department from an account or fund from which the expense is not, except for this section, permitted to be paid, the commissioner shall, as of a date within that fiscal year, reimburse the account or fund from which the expense was paid by making a transfer from the account or fund from which the expense would have been permitted to be paid.

SEC. 61. Section 350 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

350. When authorized by the commissioner as provided in this chapter a corporation may be formed by one or more persons in accordance with the laws of this state for the purpose of conducting a commercial banking business or a trust business, or both of them. The Corporate Securities Law shall not apply to securities issued by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of a bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state.

SEC. 62. Section 360 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

360. The request for authority to organize and establish a corporation to engage in the banking or trust business shall be set forth in an application in such form and containing such information as the commissioner may require and shall be accompanied by a fee of five thousand dollars ($5,000).

SEC. 63. Section 360.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

360.5. Upon receiving a request for an application, the commissioner shall inform the prospective applicant in writing that the commissioner is available to confer with such prospective applicant in advance of the filing of an application for the purpose of discussing questions relating to such application. However, no application shall be decided in advance of filing.

SEC. 64. Section 361 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

361. Upon the filing of an application the commissioner shall make or cause to be made a careful investigation and examination relative to the following:

(a) The character, reputation, and financial standing of the organizers or incorporators and their motives in seeking to organize the proposed bank or trust company.

(b) The need for banking or trust facilities or additional banking or trust facilities, as the case may be, in the community where the proposed bank or trust company is to be located, giving particular consideration to the adequacy of existing banking or trust facilities and the need for further banking or trust facilities in the locality.

(c) The ability of the community to support the proposed bank or trust company giving consideration to (1) the competition offered by existing banks or trust companies and other financial institutions; (2) the previous banking history of the community; (3) the opportunities for profitable employment of bank funds as indicated by the average demand for credit, the number of potential depositors, the volume of bank transactions, and the business and industries of the community with particular regard to their stability, diversification and size; and (4) as to trust companies, the opportunities for profitable employment of fiduciary services.

(d) The character, financial responsibility, banking or trust experience, and business qualifications of the proposed officers of the bank or trust company.

(e) The character, financial responsibility, business experience, and standing of the proposed stockholders and directors.

(f) Such other facts and circumstances bearing on the proposed bank or trust company and its relation to the locality as in the opinion of the commissioner may be relevant.

SEC. 64.1. Section 361 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

361. Upon the filing of an application the commissioner shall make or cause to be made a careful investigation and examination relative to the following:

(a) The character, reputation, and financial standing of the organizers or incorporators and their motives in seeking to organize the proposed bank or trust company.

(b) The need for banking or trust facilities or additional banking or trust facilities, as the case may be, giving particular consideration to the adequacy of existing banking or trust facilities and the need for further banking or trust facilities.

(c) The character, financial responsibility, banking or trust experience, and business qualifications of the proposed officers of the bank or trust company.

(d) The character, financial responsibility, business experience, and standing of the proposed stockholders and directors.

(e) Other facts and circumstances bearing on the proposed bank or trust company and its relation to the locality as in the opinion of the commissioner may be relevant.

SEC. 65. Section 362 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

362. The commissioner may give or withhold his or her approval of the application in his or her discretion but he or she shall not approve the application until he or she has ascertained to his or her satisfaction:

(a) That the public convenience and advantage will be promoted by the establishment of the proposed bank or trust company.

(b) That conditions in the locality in which the proposed bank or trust company will transact business afford reasonable promise of successful operation.

(c) That the bank is being formed for no other purpose than the legitimate objects contemplated by this division.

(d) That the proposed capital structure is adequate.

(e) That the proposed officers and directors have sufficient banking or trust experience, ability, and standing to afford reasonable promise of successful operation.

(f) That the name of the proposed bank or trust company does not resemble, so closely as to be likely to cause confusion, the name of any other bank or trust company transacting business in this state or which had previously transacted business in this state.

(g) That the applicant has complied with all of the applicable provisions of this division.

SEC. 65.1. Section 362 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

362. The commissioner may give or withhold his or her approval of the application in his or her discretion, but he or she shall not approve the application until he or she has ascertained to his or her satisfaction:

(a) That the public convenience and advantage will be promoted by the establishment of the proposed bank or trust company.

(b) That the proposed bank or trust company will have a reasonable promise of successful operation.

(c) That the bank is being formed for no other purpose than the legitimate objects contemplated by this division.

(d) That the proposed capital structure is adequate.

(e) That the proposed officers and directors have sufficient banking or trust experience, ability, and standing to afford reasonable promise of successful operation.

(f) That the name of the proposed bank or trust company does not resemble, so closely as to be likely to cause confusion, the name of any other bank or trust company transacting business in this state or which had previously transacted business in this state.

(g) That the applicant has complied with all of the applicable provisions of this division.

SEC. 66. Section 362.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

362.5. (a) In this section:

(1) "Control" has the meaning set forth in Section 700.

(2) "Officer" has the meaning set forth in Section 33057.

(b) For purposes of Section 362, the commissioner may find:

(1) That a proposed officer or director of a proposed bank or trust company does not have sufficient standing to afford reasonable promise of successful operation if such person has been convicted of, or has pleaded nolo contendere to, any crime involving fraud or dishonesty.

(2) That the establishment of a proposed bank or trust company will not promote the public convenience and advantage if any person who is proposed to control the proposed bank or trust company or any director or officer of such person has been convicted of, or has pleaded nolo contendere to, any crime involving fraud or dishonesty.

(c) Subdivision (b) shall not be deemed to be the only grounds upon which the commissioner may find, for purposes of Section 362, that a proposed officer or director of a proposed bank or trust company does not have sufficient standing to afford reasonable promise of successful operation or that the establishment of a proposed bank or trust company will not promote the public convenience and advantage.

SEC. 67. Section 363 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

363. At least 30 days before denying an application, the commissioner shall by mail or other method of service give written notice of the intended denial of an application and of the right of the applicant to meet with the commissioner regarding the reasons for such denial. The request for such meeting shall be in writing and delivered to the commissioner within 20 calendar days of the date of giving of the notice of intended denial. If a request is made for such meeting, the application may not be denied until after the meeting.

SEC. 68. Section 400 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

400. The articles of incorporation of the proposed bank or trust company shall be submitted to the commissioner for his or her approval before they are filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to the Corporations Code. After the articles have been filed with the Secretary of State the proposed bank or trust company shall:

(a) File with the commissioner a copy of its articles of incorporation, certified by the Secretary of State, and a copy of its bylaws certified by its secretary.

(b) File with the commissioner a statement in such form and with such supporting data as the commissioner may require showing that the entire contributed capital has been fully paid in lawful money, unconditionally, and that the funds representing such contributed capital, less sums spent as authorized by this article for preopening expenditures are on deposit in a state or national bank in this state, subject to withdrawal on demand.

(c) Pay to the commissioner a fee of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500).

SEC. 68.1. Section 400 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

400. The articles of incorporation of the proposed bank or trust company shall be submitted to the commissioner for his or her approval before they are filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to the Corporations Code. After the articles have been filed with the Secretary of State the proposed bank or trust company shall:

(a) File with the commissioner a copy of its articles of incorporation, certified by the Secretary of State.

(b) File with the commissioner a statement in the form and with any supporting data as the commissioner may require showing that the entire contributed capital has been fully paid in lawful money, unconditionally, and that the funds representing the contributed capital, less sums spent as authorized by this article for preopening expenditures are on deposit in a state or national bank in this state, subject to withdrawal on demand.

(c) Pay to the commissioner a fee of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500).

SEC. 69. Section 401 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

401. If the commissioner finds that the proposed bank or trust company has in good faith complied with all the requirements of law and fulfilled all the conditions precedent to commencing business imposed by this code or by regulation, the commissioner shall, within 30 days after the statement and supporting data specified in Section 400 have been filed with him or her, issue in duplicate a certificate of authorization to transact business as a bank or trust company, as the case may be, and shall transmit one copy to the bank or trust company and place one copy on file in the department. The certificate of authorization shall state that the corporation named therein has complied with all the provisions of this code governing organization of banks or trust companies and that it is authorized to transact the business specified therein.

SEC. 70. Section 402 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

402. It shall be unlawful to accept payment of subscriptions for shares of any corporation proposing to engage in the banking or trust business unless authority to organize such corporation has been granted by the commissioner.

SEC. 71. Section 403 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

403. No corporation organized to transact a commercial banking or trust business shall transact any business until the commissioner has issued his or her certificate authorizing it to transact such business. No bank or trust company shall incur any indebtedness except that which is incidental to its organization until the amount of its contributed capital has been fully paid in lawful money to the cashier or chief financial officer thereof.

SEC. 72. Section 404 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

404. If the proposed bank or trust company fails to file evidence of incorporation and organization with the commissioner pursuant to Section 400 within one year after the approval of the application for authority to organize the bank or trust company, the right to organize the bank or trust company automatically terminates. The commissioner, however, for good cause on written application filed before the expiration of the original period or any additional period, as the case may be, and payment of a fee of one hundred dollars ($100), may extend for additional periods not in excess of six months each the time within which the bank or trust company may be organized.

SEC. 73. Section 405 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

405. If the proposed bank or trust company fails to open for business within 90 days after the issuance of the certificate of authorization, the right to transact business automatically terminates. The commissioner, however, for good cause on written application filed before the end of said 90-day period, may extend for one additional period of not to exceed 90 days the time within which the bank or trust company may open for business.

SEC. 74. Section 406 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

406. It is unlawful to apply any part of the funds collected from subscribers or shareholders to the payment of commissions or fees for obtaining subscriptions or selling shares or, except with the prior approval of the commissioner, to the payment of preopening noncapital expenditures.

SEC. 75. Section 407 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

407. Every bank and trust company shall keep posted in a conspicuous place in its banking room at its head office the certificate of authority to transact a banking or trust business issued by the commissioner.

SEC. 76. Section 420 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

420. A bank or trust company may change the location of its head office within this state with the written approval of the commissioner. An application for approval shall be in the form and contain the information that the commissioner may require, and shall be accompanied by a fee of two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

SEC. 77. Section 421 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

421. (a) As used in this section:

(1) "Branch office" has the meaning set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 500.

(2) "Redesignation of the head office and a branch office" means the relocation by a bank of its head office to the site of a branch office in this state and the concurrent establishment by the bank of a branch office at the former site of the head office.

(b) A redesignation of the head office and a branch office shall not be subject to Section 420 or to Article 1 (commencing with Section 500) of Chapter 4.

(c) A bank may effect a redesignation of the head office and a branch office, if it files with the commissioner a report on the proposed redesignation not less than 30 days before the redesignation. The report shall be in the form, shall contain the information, shall be signed in the manner, and shall, if the commissioner so requires, be verified in the manner the commissioner may require.

(d) Whenever a bank effects a redesignation of the head office and a branch office, the bank shall do the following:

(1) The bank shall surrender to the commissioner for cancellation the certificate of authority for the head office at the original site and the certificate of authority for the branch office where it is relocating

the head office. The commissioner shall issue to the bank a new certificate of authority authorizing the bank to maintain the head office at the new site and a new certificate of authority authorizing the bank to establish and operate a branch office at the former site of the head office. The bank shall pay to the commissioner a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) for each new certificate.

(2) In the event that the bank has any other certificates of authority which list the bank's head office at the former site, the bank shall surrender the certificates to the commissioner for cancellation. The commissioner shall issue to the bank replacement certificates listing the bank's head office at the new site, and the bank shall pay to the commissioner a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) for each replacement certificate.

SEC. 78. Section 490 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

490. (a) In issuing an exemption under this section, the commissioner may impose any conditions that the commissioner finds necessary or appropriate.

(b) The commissioner may, by order or regulation, exempt from the requirement of authorization by the commissioner set forth in subdivision (b) of Section 500 or Section 541 or 551 any establishment of an office that the commissioner finds not necessary or appropriate to regulate under the section.

(c) The commissioner may, by order or regulation, exempt from the requirement of authorization or approval by the commissioner set forth in Section 507 or 546 any relocation of an office that the commissioner finds not necessary or appropriate to regulate under the section.

SEC. 79. Section 500 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

500. (a) In this article, "branch office" means any branch office other than an automated teller machine branch office as defined in Section 550.

(b) When authorized by the commissioner as provided in this chapter, a bank or trust company, with the approval of its board, may establish and maintain one or more branch offices.

SEC. 80. Section 501 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

501. The request for authority to establish a branch office shall be set forth in an application in such form and containing such information as the commissioner may require and shall be accompanied by an application fee of one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each new branch office.

SEC. 81. Section 503 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

503. In determining whether to approve or disapprove an application by a bank for authority to establish a branch office, the commissioner shall consider all of the following:

(a) The financial history and condition of the bank.

(b) The adequacy of the shareholders' equity in the bank.

(c) The future earnings prospects of the bank.

(d) The management of the bank.

(e) The convenience and needs of the community to be served by the branch office.

SEC. 82. Section 504 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

504. When the commissioner has approved an application for permission to establish a branch office, the commissioner shall issue a certificate in duplicate authorizing the opening and operation of the branch office and specifying the date on which and the conditions under which it may be opened and the place where it will be located. The commissioner shall cause one copy to be transmitted to the applicant and the other copy to be filed in the department.

SEC. 83. Section 505 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

505. The failure of a bank or trust company to open and operate a branch office within one year after the commissioner approves the application therefor shall automatically terminate the right of the bank or trust company to open the branch office except that the commissioner, for good cause on written application made before the expiration of the one-year period and accompanied by a fee of one hundred dollars ($100), may extend for additional periods not in excess of one year each the time within which the branch office may be opened.

SEC. 84. Section 506 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

506. A bank or trust company which opens a branch office without first obtaining the approval of the commissioner shall forfeit to the people of the state the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) for every day during which the branch office is maintained without authority.

SEC. 85. Section 507 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

507. When authorized by the commissioner a bank or trust company may change the location of a branch office from one location to another in the same vicinity. An application for such authorization shall be in such form and contain such information as the commissioner may require and be accompanied by a fee of two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

SEC. 86. Section 508 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

508. Every bank and every trust company shall keep posted in a conspicuous place in each branch office the certificate issued by the commissioner permitting the operation of the branch office.

SEC. 87. Section 510 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

510. With the prior written approval of the commissioner a bank or trust company may close or discontinue the operation of any branch office provided public notice thereof is given in such manner as the commissioner directs at least 90 days before the date of closing or discontinuance.

SEC. 87.1. Section 510 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

510. (a) A bank or trust company may close or discontinue the operation of any branch office if, before the closing or discontinuance, (1) the bank files with the commissioner a notice containing the information in subdivision (b), and (2) the commissioner within 60 days after the filing of the notice or any longer period to which the bank consents, either (A) issues a written statement not objecting to the notice or (B) does not issue a written objection to the notice.

(b) (1) A notice filed under subdivision (a) shall contain all of the following information:

(A) The name of the California state bank.

(B) The location of the branch office proposed to be closed or discontinued.

(C) The location of the office to which the business of the branch office proposed to be closed or discontinued is proposed to be transferred.

(D) The proposed date of closing or discontinuance.

(E) A detailed statement of the reasons for the decision to close the branch office.

(F) Statistical or other information in support of the reasons consistent with the institution's written policy for branch office closings.

(G) Any other information that the commissioner may require.

(2) A notice filed under subdivision (a) shall be in the form, shall be signed in the manner, and shall, if the commissioner requires, be verified in the manner that the commissioner may require.

(c) For purposes of subdivision (a), a notice is deemed to be filed with the commissioner at the time when the complete notice, including any amendments or supplements, containing all the information required by the commissioner, and otherwise complying with subdivision (b), is received by the commissioner.

(d) In determining whether or not to object to a notice filed under subdivision (a), except if the commissioner finds that it is necessary in the interests of safety and soundness that the branch office be closed or discontinued, the commissioner shall consider whether the closing or discontinuance of the branch office will have a seriously adverse effect on the public convenience or advantage.

SEC. 88. Section 511 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

511. A bank may arrange for the collection of savings from school children by the principal of the school, by the teachers, or by collectors, pursuant to regulations issued by the commissioner and approved, in the case of public schools, by the board of education or board of trustees of the city or district in which the school is situated. The principal, teacher, or person authorized by the bank to make collections from the school children shall be the agent of the bank and the bank is liable to the pupil for all deposits made with such principal, teacher, or other authorized person to the same extent as if the deposits were made directly with the bank.

SEC. 89. Section 512 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

512. With the approval of the commissioner and subject to any regulations that the commissioner may prescribe, a bank may transact at a foreign (other state) or foreign (other nation) branch office business that is permissible for banks organized under the laws of the state or nation where the branch office is located but that would not otherwise be permissible for the bank.

SEC. 90. Section 540 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

540. As used in this article, "place of business" means any place of business of a bank other than a head office, a branch office, or a place of business consented to by the commissioner pursuant to Section 776 of this code.

SEC. 91. Section 541 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

541. No bank shall establish or maintain a place of business unless it is authorized to do so by the commissioner.

SEC. 92. Section 542 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

542. An application for authority to establish and maintain a place of business shall be in such form and contain such information as the commissioner may prescribe, and shall be accompanied by a fee of two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

SEC. 93. Section 543 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

543. The commissioner may give or withhold approval of an application in his or her discretion, but he or she shall not approve the application until he or she has ascertained to his or her satisfaction that the public convenience and advantage will be promoted by the proposed place of business.

SEC. 94. Section 544 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

544. When the commissioner has approved an application, the commissioner shall issue a certificate in duplicate authorizing such bank to establish and maintain the place of business. Such certificate shall specify the conditions, if any, under which the place of business may be established and maintained and the place where it will be located. The commissioner shall place one copy of such certificate on file with the department. The commissioner shall transmit one copy of such certificate to the applicant bank, and such bank shall display such copy in a conspicuous place in the place of business.

SEC. 94.1. Section 544 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

544. When the commissioner has approved an application, the commissioner shall issue a certificate in duplicate authorizing the bank to establish and maintain the place of business. The certificate shall specify the conditions, if any, under which the place of business may be established and maintained and the place where it will be located. The commissioner shall place one copy of the certificate on file with the department. The commissioner shall transmit one copy of the certificate to the applicant bank.

SEC. 95. Section 545 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

545. The approval of an application to establish and maintain a place of business shall be revoked by operation of law if the applicant bank does not establish and maintain such place of business within one year after the date of such approval. However, for good cause on written application made before such approval is revoked and accompanied by a fee of one hundred dollars ($100), the commissioner may extend for additional periods not in excess of one year each the time within which such place of business may be established and maintained.

SEC. 96. Section 546 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

546. With the prior written approval of the commissioner, a bank may change the location of a place of business from one location to another in the same vicinity. An application for such approval shall be accompanied by a fee of one hundred dollars ($100).

SEC. 97. Section 547 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

547. With the prior written approval of the commissioner, a bank may close or discontinue the operation of a place of business.

SEC. 97.1. Section 547 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

547. (a) A bank may close or discontinue the operation of a place of business provided it files a notice with the commissioner, containing the information in subdivision (b), at least 30 days prior to the closure or discontinuance, and provided further that the commissioner either (1) issues a written statement not objecting to the notice or (2) does not issue a written objection to the notice.

(b) A notice filed by a California state bank of the closure or discontinuance of a place of business shall contain the following information.

(1) The name of the California state bank.

(2) The name and location of the place of business proposed to be closed or discontinued.

(3) The name and location of the place of business that will assume the business of the branch office proposed to be closed or discontinued.

(4) Any other information that the commissioner may require.

SEC. 98. Section 551 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

551. When authorized by the commissioner as provided in this article:

(a) A California state bank may establish or operate one or more automated teller machine branch offices.

(b) A foreign (other nation) bank may establish and operate one or more automated teller machine branch offices in the state.

SEC. 99. Section 552 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

552. An application for authority to establish and operate one or more automated teller machine branch offices shall be accompanied by a fee of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250), and shall contain the following information:

(a) The location of each automated teller machine branch office.

(b) A description of the type of functions which each automated teller machine branch office will perform.

(c) The institutions who will initially be sharing each automated teller machine branch office.

(d) The total fixed asset bank investment in each automated teller machine branch office.

The application shall also contain such additional information as the commissioner may prescribe regarding the financial condition of the applicant bank, and the sharing, functions, and location of each automated teller machine branch office.

SEC. 99.1. Section 552 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

552. A California state bank or a foreign (other nation) bank that intends to establish or operate an automated teller machine branch office in accordance with the authority of Section 551 shall provide the commissioner with notice at least 30 days prior to the establishment of the automated teller machine branch office. The notice shall contain the following information:

(a) The name of the California state bank or foreign (other nation) bank.

(b) The location of each automated teller machine branch office.

(c) A description of the type of functions which each automated teller machine branch office will perform.

(d) The date on which each automated teller machine branch office will commence operations.

The application shall also contain any additional information as the commissioner may, by regulation or order, prescribe.

SEC. 100. Section 553 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

553. If the commissioner finds, with respect to an application by a bank for authority to establish and operate one or more automated teller machine branch offices, that the financial condition of the bank is satisfactory, the commissioner shall approve the application. If the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application.

SEC. 101. Section 554 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

554. In case an application by a bank for authority to establish and operate one or more automated teller machine branch offices is not denied or approved by the commissioner within 45 days after the application is filed with the commissioner, or, if the bank consents to an extension of the period within which the commissioner may act, within the extended period, the application shall be deemed to be approved by the commissioner as of the first day after the period of 45 days or the extended period, as the case may be.

For purposes of this section, an application for approval to establish and operate one or more automated teller machine branch offices shall be deemed to be filed with the commissioner at the time when the complete application, including any amendments or supplements, containing all the information in the form required by the commissioner, is received by the commissioner.

SEC. 102. Section 555 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

555. The approval of an application for authority to establish and operate one or more automated teller machine branch offices shall be revoked by operation of law with respect to any automated teller machine branch office which the applicant does not establish and operate within one year after the date of approval by the commissioner. However, for good cause on written application made before the approval is revoked and accompanied by a fee of fifty dollars ($50), the commissioner may extend the approval for additional periods not in excess of one year.

SEC. 103. Section 556 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

556. Whenever an application by a bank for approval to establish and operate one or more automated teller machine branch offices has been approved by the commissioner and all conditions precedent to the issuance of a certificate of authority authorizing the bank to establish and operate automated teller machine branch offices have been fulfilled, the commissioner shall issue the certificate of authority.

SEC. 104. Section 557 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

557. Not less than 30 days prior to changing the location of an automated teller machine branch office from one location to another in the same vicinity, a bank shall provide the commissioner with written notice of the change in location.

SEC. 104.1. Section 557 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

557. Not less than 30 days prior to changing the location of an automated teller machine branch office from one location to another in the same vicinity, a bank shall provide the commissioner with written notice of the change in location containing the following information:

(a) The name of the California state bank or foreign (other nation) bank.

(b) The location of each automated teller machine branch office to be relocated.

(c) The date on which each automated teller machine branch office will terminate operations at its old location and the date on which it will commence operations at the new location.

SEC. 105. Section 558 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

558. Not less than 30 days prior to discontinuing the operation of an automated teller machine branch office, a bank shall provide the commissioner with written notice of the discontinuance.

SEC. 105.1. Section 558 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

558. Not less than 30 days prior to discontinuing the operation of an automated teller machine branch office, a bank shall provide the commissioner with written notice of the discontinuance containing the following information:

(a) The name of the California state bank or foreign (other nation) bank.

(b) The location of each automated teller machine branch office to be discontinued.

(c) The date on which each automated teller machine branch office will discontinue operations.

SEC. 106. Section 559 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

559. Subject to applicable laws and regulations, a bank is permitted but not required to share its automated teller machine branch offices with one or more other banks (as defined in Section 102), savings associations, and credit unions, or such other persons as the commissioner may approve.

SEC. 107. Section 561 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

561. A bank may use automated teller machines established or operated by another person, provided that the bank complies with the following requirements:

(a) In case the person is not (1) a bank, (2) a national banking association headquartered in this state, or (3) a foreign (other nation) bank that maintains a federal retail branch office (as defined in Section 1700) in this state, the bank shall, before commencing such use, file with the commissioner satisfactory assurances that the performance of the services by the person will be subject to examination by the commissioner to the same extent as if the services were being performed by the bank itself.

(b) In any case the bank shall, not less than 30 days before commencing such use, file with the commissioner a notice that contains the following information:

(1) The name and primary address of the person establishing or operating the automated teller machines.

(2) A description of the type of functions that the automated teller machines will perform.

The notice shall also contain any additional information that the commissioner may prescribe regarding the financial condition of the notifying bank, and the functions and locations of the automated teller machines.

SEC. 108. Section 600.2 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

600.2. (a) The articles of each bank (other than a bank which is, or is proposed to be, a corporation authorized to maintain a title insurance department to engage in title insurance business and a trust department to engage in trust business) shall provide that the common shares of such bank are subject to assessment by the bank upon order of the commissioner for the purpose of correcting an impairment of contributed capital in the manner and to the extent provided in this division.

(b) The articles of each bank that is a corporation which is, or is proposed to be, authorized to maintain a title insurance department to engage in title insurance business and a trust department to engage in trust business, shall provide that the common shares of such corporation are subject to assessment by the corporation upon order of the commissioner for the purpose of correcting an impairment of the contributed capital apportioned or segregated to the trust department of the corporation in the manner and to the extent provided in this division.

SEC. 108.1. Section 600.2 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

600.2. The articles of each bank shall provide that the common shares of the bank are subject to assessment by the bank upon order of the commissioner for the purpose of correcting an impairment of contributed capital in the manner and to the extent provided in this division.

SEC. 109. Section 600.4 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

600.4. (a) No amendment of the articles of a bank (other than an amendment set forth in an agreement of merger or in a certificate of ownership executed pursuant to Section 1110 of the Corporations Code that requires the approval of the commissioner pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 4880) of Division 1.5) shall become effective unless the certificate of amendment or other instrument setting forth the amendment is filed with the Secretary of State with the commissioner's approval endorsed thereon. Promptly after the amendment becomes effective, the bank shall file with the commissioner a copy of the certificate of amendment or other instrument certified by the Secretary of State.

(b) Any amendment of the articles of a bank set forth in an agreement of merger or in a certificate of ownership executed pursuant to Section 1110 of the Corporations Code that requires the approval of the commissioner pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 4880) of Division 1.5, shall become effective at the time when the merger becomes effective pursuant to this division.

SEC. 110. Section 600.6 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

600.6. No restated articles of a bank shall become effective unless the certificate setting forth such restated articles is filed with the Secretary of State with the commissioner's approval endorsed thereon. Promptly after the restated articles become effective, such bank shall file with the commissioner a copy of such certificate certified by the Secretary of State.

SEC. 111. Section 600.8 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

600.8. No certificate of determination of a bank shall become effective unless such certificate of determination is filed with the Secretary of State with the commissioner's approval endorsed thereon. Promptly after the certificate of determination becomes effective, such bank shall file with the commissioner a copy of the certificate of determination certified by the Secretary of State.

SEC. 112. Section 600.10 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

600.10. No certificate of correction of a bank shall become effective unless such certificate of correction is filed with the Secretary of State with the commissioner's approval endorsed thereon. Promptly after the certificate of correction becomes effective, such bank shall file with the commissioner a copy of the certificate of correction certified by the Secretary of State.

SEC. 113. Section 600.12 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

600.12. No certificate of revocation of a bank shall become effective unless such certificate of revocation is filed with the Secretary of State with the commissioner's approval endorsed thereon. Promptly after the certificate of revocation becomes effective, such bank shall file with the commissioner a copy of the certificate of revocation certified by the Secretary of State.

SEC. 114. Section 601 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

601. The bylaws of a bank or trust company and any amendment thereto shall become effective only when approved by the commissioner, for which approval no fee shall be charged, and when a copy thereof certified by the secretary or assistant secretary of the bank or trust company has been filed with the commissioner.

SEC. 115. Section 602 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

602. (a) A bank may change its name if it files with the commissioner a report on the proposed change not less than 30 days before the change. The report shall be in the form, shall contain the information, shall be signed in the manner, and shall, if the commissioner so requires, be verified in the manner the commissioner may require.

(b) Whenever a bank changes its name, the bank shall surrender to the commissioner for cancellation the certificates of authority under its old name for its head office, any branch offices, and any places of business. The commissioner shall issue to the bank replacement certificates under the bank's new name and the bank shall pay to the commissioner a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) for each replacement certificate.

(c) The commissioner may not deny an application for approval of an amendment of the articles of incorporation of a bank which changes the name of the bank or any other application of a bank relating to a change in the name of the bank because the new name of the bank resembles so closely, as to be likely to cause confusion, the name of any other bank.

SEC. 116. Section 643 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

643. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 642, a bank or a majority-owned subsidiary of a bank may, with the prior approval of the commissioner, make a distribution to the shareholders of such bank in an amount not exceeding the greatest of:

(a) The retained earnings of the bank;

(b) The net income of the bank for its last fiscal year; or

(c) The net income of the bank for its current fiscal year.

SEC. 117. Section 644 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

644. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 642, a bank may:

(a) With the prior approval of the commissioner, make a distribution to its shareholders by means of redeeming its redeemable shares; and

(b) With the prior approval of its outstanding shares and of the commissioner, otherwise make a distribution to its shareholders in connection with a reduction of its contributed capital.

SEC. 118. Section 645 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

645. If the commissioner finds that the shareholders' equity of a bank is not adequate or that the making by a bank or by any majority-owned subsidiary of a bank of a distribution to the shareholders of such bank would be unsafe or unsound for the bank, the commissioner may order such bank and its majority-owned subsidiaries not to make any distribution to the shareholders of the bank.

SEC. 119. Section 646 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

646. (a) For purposes of Section 506 of the Corporations Code, the making by a bank or by any majority-owned subsidiary of a bank of a distribution to any shareholder of such bank in violation of any provision of this article shall be deemed to be prohibited by, and to be a violation of, Section 500 of the Corporations Code.

(b) The commissioner may, in the name of the people of this state, bring or intervene in an action under Section 506 of the Corporations Code for the benefit of a bank against any shareholder of such bank on account of receiving, with knowledge of facts indicating the impropriety thereof, any distribution prohibited by any provision of this article or by any provision of Sections 501, 502, and 503 of the Corporations Code, to the same extent as a creditor of the bank who did not consent to the illegal distribution to such shareholder and who had a valid claim against the bank which arose prior to the time of the illegal distribution to the shareholder and which exceeded the amount of the illegal distribution to the shareholder, might bring such an action in the name of the bank.

SEC. 120. Section 660 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

660. In determining for purposes of this division whether the shareholders' equity of a bank or of a proposed bank is adequate, the commissioner shall consider:

(a) The nature and volume of the business of the bank;

(b) The amount, nature, quality, and liquidity of the assets of the bank;

(c) The amount and nature of the liabilities (including, but not limited to, any capital notes or debentures and any contingent liabilities) of the bank;

(d) The amount and nature of the fixed charges of the bank;

(e) The history of, and prospects for, the bank to earn and retain income;

(f) The quality of the operations of the bank;

(g) The quality of the management of the bank;

(h) The nature and quality of the ownership of the bank; and

(i) Such other factors as are in the opinion of the commissioner relevant.

SEC. 121. Section 662 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

662. (a) Whenever it appears that the contributed capital of a bank or trust company is impaired, the commissioner shall order the bank to correct such impairment within 60 days of the date of his or her order.

(b) The bank or trust company to which an order is issued pursuant to subdivision (a), unless the impairment of contributed capital is otherwise corrected, shall levy and collect an assessment upon its common shares pursuant to Section 423 of the Corporations Code. The date on which the bank or trust company levies the assessment shall be not more than 60 days after the date of the order; the date on which the assessment is payable shall be not more than 60 days after the date of the levy of the assessment; the date on which the assessment becomes delinquent if not paid shall be not later than the time prescribed in Section 423 of the Corporations Code; and the date on which delinquent shares are sold shall be not later than the time prescribed in Section 423 of the Corporations Code. However, the commissioner may, for good cause, shorten any such time period.

(c) The common shares of every corporation doing a banking business in this state are subject to assessment as provided in this section, whether or not the fact that the shares are subject to such assessment is noted on the certificates representing such shares, and if the shares are subject to assessment only upon order of the commissioner as provided in this section no statement of that fact need be noted on the certificates.

SEC. 122. Section 663 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

663. A bank which has deficit retained earnings may, with the prior approval of its outstanding shares and of the commissioner, readjust its accounts in a quasi-reorganization. Such readjustment may include, without limitation, eliminating such deficit retained earnings.

SEC. 123. Section 670 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

670. A bank at any time may, with the approval of its board, issue, sell or hypothecate its capital notes or debentures which may be payable upon such terms and may bear such rate of interest, if any, as may be provided therein or which may be convertible into shares. Such capital notes and debentures shall be subordinate to the claims of creditors and depositors and it shall be provided in any such capital notes or debentures that in the event of liquidation all depositors and other creditors of the bank shall be entitled to be paid in full with such interest as may be provided by law before any payment shall be made on account of principal of or interest on such capital notes or debentures and it may be provided in any such capital notes or debentures that after payment in full of all sums owing to such depositors and creditors the holders of such capital notes or debentures shall be entitled to be paid from the remaining assets of the bank the unpaid principal amount of the capital notes or debentures plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon before any payment or other distribution, whether in cash, property or otherwise, shall be made on account of any shares of the bank. It shall be provided in such capital notes or debentures that no payment shall at any time be made on account of the principal thereof, unless following such payment the aggregate of the shareholders' equity and capital notes or debentures thereafter outstanding shall be the equal of such aggregate at the date of the original issue of such capital notes or debentures, or as may be otherwise authorized by the commissioner.

SEC. 124. Section 684 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

684. (a) The commissioner, whenever in his opinion such action is necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes and provisions of this division, may call a meeting of the board of a bank.

(b) A meeting of the board of a bank called by the commissioner shall be held upon four days' notice by mail or 24 hours' notice delivered personally or by telephone or telegraph. Such notice shall be given by the commissioner or, if the commissioner so orders, by an officer of such bank.

(c) A meeting of the board of a bank called by the commissioner shall be held at such place within this state as may be designated by the commissioner and specified in the notice of such meeting.

(d) The expenses of a meeting of the board of a bank called by the commissioner shall be paid by such bank.

SEC. 125. Section 685 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

685. The commissioner may, in the name of the people of this state, bring or intervene in an action under Section 709 of the Corporations Code to determine the validity of any election or appointment of any director of a bank to the same extent as a shareholder of such bank might bring such an action.

SEC. 126. Section 686 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

686. (a) The commissioner shall be deemed to be a party in interest within the meaning of Section 306 of the Corporations Code with respect to a bank and may, in the name of the people of this state, bring or intervene in an action under Section 306 of the Corporations Code for the appointment of directors of a bank.

(b) The commissioner may, in the name of the people of this state, bring or intervene in an action under Section 308 of the Corporations Code for the appointment of a provisional director or directors of a bank to the same extent as a shareholder who held 50 percent of the voting power of such bank might bring such an action.

SEC. 127. Section 687 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

687. (a) For purposes of Section 316 of the Corporations Code, to the extent that the making by a bank or by any majority-owned subsidiary of a bank of a distribution to any shareholder of such bank is contrary to any provision of Article 3 (commencing with Section 640), the making of such distribution shall, to such extent, be deemed to be contrary to the provisions of Section 500 of the Corporations Code.

(b) The commissioner may, in the name of the people of this state, bring or intervene in an action under Section 316 of the Corporations Code for the benefit of a bank against any or all of the directors of such bank or of any majority-owned subsidiary of such bank on account of the making of a distribution to any shareholder of the bank contrary to any provision of Article 3 (commencing with Section 640) or any provision of Sections 501, 502, and 503 of the Corporations Code, to the same extent as a creditor of the bank who did not consent to the illegal distribution and who had a valid claim against the bank which arose prior to the time of the illegal distribution, and which exceeded the amount of the illegal distribution, might bring such an action in the name of the bank.

SEC. 128. Section 688 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

688. (a) For purposes of Section 316 of the Corporations Code, the making of a loan or guarantee by a bank or any other extending of credit by a bank contrary to any provision of this division shall be deemed to be contrary to Section 315 of the Corporations Code.

(b) The commissioner may, in the name of the people of this state, bring or intervene in an action under Section 316 of the Corporations Code for the benefit of a bank against any or all of the directors of such bank on account of the making of a loan or guarantee or any other extending of credit contrary to any provision of this division, to the same extent as a creditor of the bank who did not consent to the illegal making of the loan or guarantee or the other illegal extending of credit and who had a valid claim against the bank which arose prior to the time of the illegal making of the loan or guarantee or the other illegal extending of credit and which exceeded the amount of loss suffered by the bank as a result of the illegal making of the loan or guarantee or the other illegal extending of credit, might bring such an action in the name of the bank.

SEC. 129. Section 689 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

689. (a) Paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 1501 of the Corporations Code does not apply to the annual report of any bank with respect to any transaction consisting of an extension of credit by such bank or by any of its majority-owned subsidiaries.

(b) The annual report of a bank which would, but for the provisions of subdivision (a), be subject to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 1501 of the Corporations Code, shall disclose such information regarding debts owing to such bank or to any of its majority-owned subsidiaries and transactions consisting of extensions of credit by the bank or by any of its majority-owned subsidiaries, as the commissioner may by regulation require. In issuing any such regulation, the commissioner shall give due consideration to regulations regarding such matters issued by federal bank regulatory agencies under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

SEC. 130. Section 690 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

690. Unless the context otherwise requires, in this article:

(a) "Offer" or "offer to sell" includes every attempt or offer to dispose of, or solicitation of an offer to buy, a security for value.

(b) "Sale" or "sell" includes every contract of sale of, contract to sell, or disposition of, a security for value. "Sale" or "sell" includes any exchange of securities and any change in the rights, preferences, privileges, or restrictions of or on outstanding securities.

(c) "Security" means any stock, capital note, or debenture, or any warrant, right, or option to subscribe to or purchase any of the foregoing.

(d) The terms defined in subdivisions (a) and (b) of this section do not include any stock dividend payable with respect to common stock of a bank solely (except for any cash or script paid for fractional shares) in shares of such common stock, if such bank has no other class of voting stock outstanding; provided, that shares issued in any such dividend shall be subject to any conditions previously imposed by the commissioner applicable to the shares with respect to which they are issued.

SEC. 131. Section 691 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

691. No bank organized under the laws of this state shall offer or sell any security issued by it unless the commissioner has issued a permit authorizing such sale.

SEC. 132. Section 692 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

692. An application for a permit shall be in such form and contain such information as the commissioner may prescribe.

SEC. 133. Section 692.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

692.1. The commissioner shall charge and collect fees for applications filed under this article as fixed in this section.

(a) The fee for a negotiating permit shall be fifty dollars ($50).

(b) The fee for a permit to exchange a security or to make any change in the rights, preferences, privileges, or restrictions of or on outstanding securities shall be fifty dollars ($50).

(c) The fee for any permit to sell securities other than as specified in subdivision (b) shall be one hundred dollars ($100) plus one-tenth of one percent (0.1%) of the aggregate value of the securities sought to be sold, up to a maximum aggregate fee of one thousand seven hundred fifty dollars ($1,750).

SEC. 134. Section 693 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

693. If the commissioner finds that the proposed sale of securities is fair, just, and equitable, he or she shall issue to the applicant a permit authorizing it to offer and sell the securities in such amount and upon such terms and conditions as he or she may provide in the permit. If the commissioner finds otherwise, he or she shall deny the application.

SEC. 135. Section 694 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

694. The commissioner may impose conditions in any permit issued under Section 693, requiring the deposit in escrow of securities, imposing a legend condition restricting the transferability thereof, impounding the proceeds from the sale thereof, limiting the expense in connection with the sale thereof, or such other conditions as he or she deems reasonable and necessary or advisable in the public interest.

SEC. 136. Section 696 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

696. The commissioner may amend, alter, suspend, or revoke any permit issued pursuant to Section 693.

SEC. 137. Section 696.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

696.5. Whenever a bank applies for a permit to issue any security or to deliver any other consideration (whether or not such security or such transaction is exempt from, or not subject to, the provisions of Section 691) in exchange for one or more bona fide outstanding securities (as defined in Section 25019 of the Corporations Code), claims, or property interests, or partly in such exchange and partly for cash, the commissioner is authorized to approve the terms and conditions of such issuance and exchange or such delivery and exchange and the fairness of such terms and conditions and is authorized to hold a hearing on the fairness of such terms and conditions, at which all persons to whom it is proposed to issue any security or to deliver any other consideration in such exchange shall have the right to appear.

SEC. 138. Section 697 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

697. There shall be exempted from the provisions of Section 691 any transaction or security which the commissioner by regulation or order exempts as not being comprehended within the purposes of this article and the regulation of which he or she finds is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

SEC. 139. Section 700 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

700. Unless the context otherwise requires, in this article:

(a) "Bank" means a bank organized under the laws of this state.

(b) "Control" means possession, direct or indirect, of the power:

(1) To vote 25 percent or more of any class of the voting securities issued by a person; or

(2) To direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract (other than a commercial contract for goods or nonmanagement services), or otherwise; provided, however, that no individual shall be deemed to control a person solely on account of being a director, officer, or employee of such person.

For purposes of paragraph (2) of this subdivision, a person who, directly or indirectly, owns, controls, holds with the power to vote, or holds proxies representing, 10 percent or more of the then outstanding voting securities issued by another person is presumed to control such other person.

For purposes of this article, the commissioner may determine whether a person in fact controls another person.

(c) "Controlling person" means a person who, directly or indirectly, controls a bank.

(d) "Person" means an individual, a corporation, an association, a syndicate, a partnership, a limited liability company, a business trust, an estate, a trust, or an organization of any kind, or any combination of any of the foregoing acting in concert.

(e) "Shareholder" means:

(1) In the case of a corporation, a holder of a share of any class or series.

(2) In the case of a nonprofit or charitable corporation, an unincorporated association, or a syndicate, a member.

(3) In the case of a partnership, a partner.

(4) In the case of a business trust, an estate, or a trust, a holder of a beneficial interest.

(5) In the case of an organization of any other kind, a holder of an ownership interest.

SEC. 140. Section 701 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

701. No person shall, directly or indirectly, unless the commissioner has approved such acquisition of control, do any of the following:

(a) Make a tender offer for, a request or invitation for tenders of, or an offer to exchange securities for, any voting security or any security convertible into a voting security of a bank or a controlling person if the person making such tender offer, request or invitation for tenders, or offer to exchange securities would, by consummation thereof, directly or indirectly, acquire control of such bank or such controlling person.

(b) Solicit approval of any shareholder of a controlling person for a merger, consolidation, sale of assets, or other transaction by which any person other than such controlling person would acquire control of the bank controlled by such controlling person.

(c) Acquire control of a bank or a controlling person; provided, however, that nothing in this subdivision shall be deemed to prohibit any person from negotiating to acquire (but not acquiring) control of a bank or a controlling person.

SEC. 141. Section 702 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

702. An application for approval to acquire control of a bank or a controlling person shall be in such form and contain such information as the commissioner may require by regulation or order and shall be accompanied by the following fee:

(a) In case the applicant has been a director or officer of the bank for not less than two years (or, if the bank has been in business for less than two years, for such lesser period), a fee of five hundred dollars ($500); and

(b) In any other case, a fee of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500).

SEC. 142. Section 703 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

703. If the commissioner finds, with respect to the proposed acquisition of control of a bank or a controlling person, that any of the factors set forth in subdivisions (a) to (g), inclusive, is true, he or she shall deny the application. If the commissioner finds that none of such factors is true, he or she shall approve the application.

(a) That the proposed acquisition of control would result in a monopoly or would be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or to attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of this state;

(b) That the effect of the proposed acquisition of control in any section of the state may be substantially to lessen competition or to tend to create a monopoly or that the proposed acquisition of control would in any other manner be in restraint of trade, and that the anticompetitive effects of the proposed acquisition of control are not clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the transaction in meeting the convenience and needs of the community to be served;

(c) That the financial condition of any acquiring person is such as might jeopardize the financial stability of the bank or the controlling person, or prejudice the interests of the depositors, creditors, or shareholders of the bank or the controlling person;

(d) That plans or proposals to liquidate the bank or the controlling person, to sell the assets of the bank or the controlling person, to merge or consolidate the bank or the controlling person, or to make any other major change in the business, corporation structure or management of the bank or the controlling person are not fair and reasonable to the depositors, creditors, and shareholders of the bank or the controlling person;

(e) That the competence, experience, or integrity of any acquiring person indicates that it would not be in the interest of the depositors, creditors, or shareholders of the bank or the controlling person or in the interest of the public to permit such person to control the bank or the controlling person;

(f) That the proposed acquisition is unfair, unjust, or inequitable to the bank or the controlling person or to the depositors, creditors, or shareholders of the bank or the controlling person; or

(g) That the applicant neglects, fails, or refuses to furnish to the commissioner all the information required by the commissioner.

SEC. 143. Section 703.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

703.5. (a) In this section, "officer" has the meaning set forth in Section 33057.

(b) For purposes of Section 703, the commissioner may find:

(1) That the integrity of an acquiring person indicates that it would not be in the interest of the depositors, creditors, or shareholders of a bank or controlling person or in the interest of the public to permit the acquiring person to control the bank or controlling person if the acquiring person or any director or officer of the acquiring person has been convicted of, or has pleaded nolo contendere to, any crime involving fraud or dishonesty.

(2) That a plan to make a major change in the management of a bank or controlling person is not fair and reasonable to the depositors, creditors, or shareholders of the bank or controlling person if the plan provides for a person who has been convicted of, or has pleaded nolo contendere to, any crime involving fraud or dishonesty to become a director or officer of the bank or controlling person.

(c) Subdivision (b) shall not be deemed to be the only grounds upon which the commissioner may find, for purposes of Section 703,

that the integrity of an acquiring person indicates that it would not be in the interest of the depositors, creditors, or shareholders of a bank or controlling person or in the interest of the public to permit the acquiring person to control the bank or controlling person or that a plan to make a major change in the management of a bank or controlling person is not fair and reasonable to the depositors, creditors, or shareholders of the bank or controlling person.

SEC. 144. Section 704 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

704. The commissioner may, in approving a proposal to acquire control of a bank or a controlling person pursuant to Section 703, impose such conditions as the commissioner deems reasonable or necessary or advisable in the public interest.

SEC. 145. Section 705 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

705. The commissioner may, for good cause, amend, alter, suspend, or revoke any approval of a proposal to acquire control of a bank or a controlling person issued pursuant to Section 703.

SEC. 146. Section 706 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

706. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, any application for approval to acquire control of a bank or a controlling person which is not denied or approved by the commissioner within a period of 60 days after such application is filed with the commissioner or, if the applicant consents to an extension of the period within which the commissioner may act, within such extended period, shall be deemed to be approved by the commissioner as of the first day after such period of 60 days or such extended period, as the case may be.

For purposes of this section, an application for approval to acquire control of a bank or a controlling person is deemed to be filed with the commissioner at the time when the complete application, including any amendments or supplements, containing all the information in the form required by the commissioner, is received by him or her.

SEC. 147. Section 707 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

707. (a) The commissioner, before determining whether, for purposes of this article, a person controls another person or before denying or approving an application for approval to acquire control of a bank or controlling person, may hold a hearing.

(b) After determining whether, for purposes of this article, a person controls another person or after denying or approving an application for approval to acquire control of a bank or controlling person, the commissioner, upon the filing of a written request for a hearing by any person prejudiced by the commissioner's decision, shall hold a hearing and upon such hearing shall affirm, modify, or reverse his or her decision. Any such hearing shall commence within a period of 30 days after the written request for the hearing is filed with the commissioner or, if the person filing the written request for the hearing consents to an extension of the period within which the hearing is to commence, within such extended period.

SEC. 148. Section 708 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

708. There shall be exempted from the provisions of Section 701 any transaction which the commissioner by regulation or order exempts as not being comprehended within the purposes of this article and the regulation of which the commissioner finds is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of a bank, a controlling person, or the depositors, creditors, or shareholders of a bank or a controlling person.

SEC. 149. Section 709 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

709. Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has committed or is about to commit a violation of any provision of this article or of any regulation or order of the commissioner issued pursuant to this article, the commissioner may apply to the superior court for an order enjoining such person from violating or continuing to violate this article or any such regulation or order and for other equitable relief as the nature of the case or the interests of the bank, the controlling person, the depositors, creditors, or shareholders of such bank or such controlling person, or the public may require.

SEC. 150. Section 710 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

710. No person shall be entitled to vote or to give a written consent with respect to any security acquired in contravention of any provision of this article or of any regulation or order of the commissioner issued pursuant to this article for a period of three years after such acquisition. If a security of a bank or a controlling person is acquired in contravention of this article or any such regulation or order, such bank, such controlling person, any shareholder of such bank or such controlling person, or the commissioner may apply to the superior court for equitable relief, including costs and (except with respect to the commissioner) attorney fees, to enjoin prospectively any person from voting or giving any written consent with respect to such security for a period of three years after such acquisition, and the commissioner may apply to the superior court for equitable relief, including costs, to void any voting or any giving of a written consent with respect to such security which has occurred since such acquisition.

SEC. 151. Section 750 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

750. A bank or trust company may purchase, acquire, hold, or lease real property or an interest therein only as follows:

(a) Such as may be necessary or convenient for the use, operation or housing of its head office and branch offices, or for the storage of records or other personal property, or for office space for use by its officers or employees, or which may be reasonably necessary for future expansion of its business, or which is otherwise reasonably related to the conduct of its business. Real property used by a bank as its banking premises may include in addition to the space required for the transaction of its business other space which may be let as a source of income.

(b) Such as may be conveyed to it in satisfaction in whole or in part of debts previously contracted in the course of its business.

(c) Such as it may purchase or acquire at foreclosure sales under mortgages or deeds of trust held by it, or under judgments or decrees in its favor.

(d) Such as it may purchase or otherwise acquire when necessary to minimize or prevent the loss or destruction of any lien or interest therein.

(e) Such as it may purchase or otherwise acquire pursuant to Section 751.3.

A bank or trust company may sell, lease, or encumber real property or any interest therein owned by it, or, with the written approval of the commissioner, exchange the same for other real property.

SEC. 152. Section 751.3 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

751.3. (a) The Legislature finds and declares:

(1) That it is necessary to increase job opportunities in real estate development and construction and to provide additional housing and commercial facilities in this state.

(2) That within the commercial banking community there exists the expertise and ability to promote and assist in expansion of real estate development projects in this state.

(3) That it is proper and appropriate to utilize that expertise and ability by authorizing commercial banks to engage in real estate development and management on an entrepreneurial basis.

(b) As used in this section, "real property investment" means all forms of investing in real property, whether direct or in the form of partnerships, joint ventures, or other methods of investment. It includes, but is not limited to, the purchasing, subdividing, and developing of real property or any interest therein, the building of residential housing or commercial improvements, and the owning, renting, leasing, managing, operating for income, or selling of that property.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 1335, a commercial bank may acquire and hold stock of one or more corporations the primary activities of which are engaging in real property investment, in which event the sum of (1) investments made by a commercial bank pursuant to the authority of this subdivision, (2) any loans and guarantees extended by a commercial bank to, or for the benefit of, corporations whose stock it holds pursuant to the authority of this subdivision, and (3) real property investments made pursuant to the authority of subdivision (d), unless a higher percentage is approved by the commissioner in writing, shall not exceed 10 percent of the total assets of the bank.

(d) A commercial bank may engage in real property investment. The total of all real property investments made pursuant to the authority of this subdivision, unless a higher percentage is approved by the commissioner in writing, shall not exceed the total shareholders' equity of the bank.

(e) Prior to initially engaging in real property investment activities authorized by this section, a commercial bank shall make application with the commissioner for approval of its general plan of real property investment. The application for approval shall be in letter form, shall contain a copy of the general plan for real property investment as approved or adopted by the board of directors of the bank, which shall include a brief description of either the activities of the corporations the bank will invest in or the activities the bank will engage in, or both, the approximate amount to be invested, the extent, if any, of diversification of those activities or investment, and the approximate date of the initial investment, and shall be signed by the chief executive officer of the bank. Unless the commissioner finds (1) that the capital, assets, management, earnings, and liquidity of the commercial bank are, on a composite basis, not satisfactory, or (2) that the plan for the commercial bank to engage in real property investment or to acquire and hold the stock of one or more real property investment corporations is unsafe or unsound, the commissioner shall approve the application. An application for approval shall be deemed approved on the 46th day after the application is filed with the commissioner, unless the commissioner earlier makes a final decision on the application or extends the period for approving or denying the application. For purposes of this subdivision, an application for approval shall be deemed to be filed with the commissioner on the date when the application, substantially in compliance with the requirements of this subdivision, is received by the commissioner. Upon the filing of the application for approval, the applicant shall pay to the commissioner a filing fee of five hundred dollars ($500).

(f) The legality of any investment lawfully made pursuant to this section as it read prior to the amendment of this section shall not be affected by the existing form of this section, nor shall this section be construed to require the changing of any investments heretofore lawfully made.

SEC. 153. Section 752 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

752. A bank or trust company may purchase, acquire, and hold not less than 75 percent of the outstanding shares of a corporation engaged exclusively in holding real property of the character described in subdivision (a) of Section 750 for the purposes therein set forth or in holding, separately or in addition to that real property, tangible personal property necessary or convenient for the use of the bank or trust company in the conduct of its business or for future expansion of its business. The purchase or acquisition of stock of any such corporation shall be approved by two-thirds of all the directors of the bank or trust company and be approved in writing by the commissioner. An application for approval shall be in such form and contain such information as the commissioner may by order or regulation require and shall be accompanied by a fee of five hundred dollars ($500).

SEC. 154. Section 753 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

753. (a) (1) In this section, "federal law" includes, but is not limited to, the United States Constitution, any federal statute, any federal court decision, and any regulation, circular, bulletin, interpretation, decision, order, and waiver issued by a federal agency.

(2) The definitions set forth in Section 1700 apply to this section.

(b) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if the commissioner finds that any provision of federal law applicable to national banking associations doing business in this state is substantively different from the provisions of this code applicable to banks organized under the laws of this state, the commissioner may by regulation make that provision of federal law applicable to banks organized under the laws of this state.

(2) If the commissioner finds that any provision of federal law applicable to foreign (other nation) banks with respect to federal agencies or federal branches in this state is substantively different from the provisions of this code applicable to foreign (other nation) banks with respect to agencies or branch offices licensed by the commissioner under Chapter 13.5 (commencing with Section 1700), the commissioner may by regulation make that provision of federal law applicable to foreign (other nation) banks with respect to agencies or branch offices licensed by the commissioner under Chapter 13.5.

(c) (1) Section 11343.4 and Articles 5 (commencing with Section 11346) and 6 (commencing with Section 11349) of Chapter 3.5 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code do not apply to any regulation adopted under this section.

(2) The commissioner shall file any regulation adopted pursuant to this section, together with a citation to this section as authority for the adoption and a citation to the provisions of federal law made applicable by the regulation, with the Office of Administrative Law for filing with the Secretary of State and publication in the California Code of Regulations.

(3) Any regulation adopted under this section shall become effective on the date when it is filed with the Secretary of State unless the commissioner prescribes a later date in the regulation or in a written instrument filed with the regulation.

SEC. 154.1. Section 753 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

753. (a) (1) In this section, "federal law" includes, but is not limited to, the United States Constitution, any federal statute, any federal court decision, and any regulation, circular, bulletin, interpretation, decision, order, and waiver issued by a federal agency.

(2) The definitions set forth in Section 1700 apply to this section.

(b) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, except as provided in subdivision (c), if the commissioner finds that any provision of federal law applicable to national banking associations doing business in this state is substantively different from the provisions of this code applicable to banks organized under the laws of this state, the commissioner may by regulation make that provision of federal law applicable to banks organized under the laws of this state.

(2) If the commissioner finds that any provision of federal law applicable to foreign (other nation) banks with respect to federal agencies or federal branches in this state is substantively different from the provisions of this code applicable to foreign (other nation) banks with respect to agencies or branch offices licensed by the commissioner under Chapter 13.5 (commencing with Section 1700), the commissioner may by regulation make that provision of federal law applicable to foreign (other nation) banks with respect to agencies or branch offices licensed by the commissioner under Chapter 13.5.

(c) (1) Section 11343.4 and Article 5 (commencing with Section 11346) and Article 6 (commencing with Section 11349) of Chapter 3.5 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code do not apply to any regulation adopted under subdivision (b).

(2) The commissioner shall file any regulation adopted pursuant to subdivision (b), together with a citation to this section as authority for the adoption and a citation to the provisions of federal law made applicable by the regulation, with the Office of Administrative Law for filing with the Secretary of State and publication in the California Code of Regulations.

(3) Any regulation adopted under subdivision (b) shall become effective on the date when it is filed with the Secretary of State unless the commissioner prescribes a later date in the regulation or in a written instrument filed with the regulation.

(4) Any regulation adopted under subdivision (b) shall expire at 12 p.m. on December 31 of the year following the calendar year in which it become effective.

(5) Any regulation adopted pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be subject to the following restrictions:

(A) The commissioner shall not renew or reinstate the regulation adopted pursuant to subdivision (b).

(B) The commissioner shall not adopt a new regulation pursuant to subdivision (b), to address the same conformity issue that was addressed by the regulation that expired pursuant to subdivision (c).

(d) The commissioner may adopt regulations pursuant to subdivision (b) that are exempt from the expiration and restrictions of subdivision (c) if the regulations are adopted in compliance with all provisions of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of the Government Code, including those listed in paragraph (1) of subdivision (c).

SEC. 155. Section 754 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

754. A bank or trust company may become a member of the Federal Reserve System, may subscribe for, purchase, and hold such amounts of the capital stock of the Federal Reserve bank serving the district in which such bank or trust company is located as may be required to maintain such membership and, when not in conflict with the laws of this state, may exercise all powers conferred upon such members and may assume and discharge all obligations required of such members.

With the written consent of the commissioner a bank or trust company may become a member of a federal home loan bank in the manner provided in the Federal Home Loan Bank Act, and, for the purpose of becoming a member, may invest such part of its shareholders' equity in the capital stock of such federal home loan bank as may be required by the provisions of the Federal Home Loan Bank Act.

SEC. 156. Section 756 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

756. A bank or trust company may become a member of any federal agency, membership in which is open to banking institutions, and may comply with all the requirements and conditions imposed upon such members when not in conflict with the laws of this state, except that the power conferred by this section shall not be exercised unless the commissioner makes a general order authorizing banks generally as a class, or trust companies generally as a class, or banks doing a commercial or trust business, respectively, as a class, to become such members upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed in such order.

SEC. 157. Section 758 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

758. With the prior written consent of the commissioner, a bank or trust company may purchase and hold not less than 75 percent of the outstanding shares of the stock of a corporation authorized to conduct a safe deposit business, organized and existing under the laws of this state and conducting a safe deposit business in the same city or locality in which an office of such bank or trust company is situated. No such safe deposit corporation shall conduct a safe deposit business in any city or locality in which such bank or trust company does not maintain an office. The aggregate investment of any bank or trust company in such corporation at any one time shall not exceed 10 percent of the shareholders' equity of such bank or trust company.

SEC. 158. Section 759 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

759. With the prior written consent of the commissioner, a bank may purchase and hold the whole or any part of the stock of not more than one corporation authorized to conduct a trust business, organized and existing under the laws of this state and transacting a trust business in the same county in which the head office of such bank is situated. An application for consent shall be in such form and contain such information as the commissioner may by order or regulation require and shall be accompanied by a fee of five hundred dollars ($500). No bank's investment in any such corporation at any one time shall exceed 25 percent of the bank's shareholders' equity.

No such trust company shall engage in or combine the business of a commercial bank or a title insurance company.

SEC. 159. Section 761 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

761. No bank shall purchase, acquire, or hold the stock of any corporation except as expressly authorized by this division, or pursuant to a plan of reorganization approved by the commissioner by which all of the stock of one or more banks organized under the laws of this state shall be acquired and immediately reissued proportionately to the stockholders of the acquiring bank.

SEC. 160. Section 763 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

763. The amount of funds of a bank or trust company which are deposited in any other financial institution (except a Federal Reserve bank) shall not at any time exceed 10 percent of the sum of the shareholders' equity, allowance for loan losses, capital notes, and debentures of the depositing bank or trust company unless the financial institution has been designated as a depositary for the funds of the depositing bank or trust company by the vote of a majority of the directors of the depositing bank or trust company, and unless the financial institution has been approved by the commissioner as a depositary for the purposes of this section. The commissioner may in his or her discretion revoke his or her approval of any such depositary and may in his or her discretion limit the amount of funds that may be deposited by any bank or trust company with any other financial institution. A deposit by one bank or trust company with another financial institution shall not be regarded as a loan.

SEC. 161. Section 771 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

771. With the prior written consent of the commissioner, two or more banks may invest in the stock of a corporation engaged exclusively in the business of performing for one or more banks such bank services as check and deposit sorting and posting, computation and posting of interest and other credits and charges, preparation and mailing of checks, statements, notices and similar items, or any other clerical, bookkeeping, accounting, statistical, or similar functions performed for a bank; provided that the aggregate investment of any bank in such corporation at any one time shall not exceed 10 percent of the shareholders' equity of the bank; and provided, further, that the corporation shall furnish to the commissioner satisfactory assurances that the performance of services by such corporation will be subject to regulation and examination by the commissioner to the same extent as if such services were being performed by the bank itself on its own premises. An application for consent shall be in such form and contain such information as the commissioner may by order or regulation require and shall be accompanied by a fee of five hundred dollars ($500).

SEC. 161.1. Section 771 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

771. Two or more banks may invest in the stock of a corporation engaged exclusively in the business of performing for one or more banks such bank services as check and deposit sorting and posting, computation and posting of interest and other credits and charges, preparation and mailing of checks, statements, notices and similar items, or any other clerical, bookkeeping, accounting, statistical, or similar functions performed for a bank; provided that the aggregate investment of any bank in the corporation at any one time shall not exceed 10 percent of the shareholders' equity of the bank; and provided, further, that the corporation shall furnish to the commissioner satisfactory assurances that the performance of services by the corporation will be subject to regulation and examination by the commissioner to the same extent as if the services were being performed by the bank itself on its own premises.

SEC. 162. Section 772 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

772. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1335, and subject to such regulations and rules as the commissioner may prescribe, a bank may invest in the capital stock, obligations, or other securities of one or more corporations.

(b) No such corporation may act as an insurance company, insurance agent, or insurance broker. This prohibition shall not be deemed to exclude other possible restrictions with respect to the activities of such corporations.

SEC. 163. Section 774 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

774. Subject to such regulations and rules as the commissioner may prescribe, a bank may acquire and hold shares of stock issued by a corporation authorized to be created pursuant to Title IX of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968, and may make investments in a partnership, limited partnership, or joint venture formed pursuant to Section 907(a) or 907(c) of such act.

SEC. 164. Section 775 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

775. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any commercial bank (as defined in Section 105) and any trust company (as defined in Section 107) holding securities in a fiduciary capacity or while engaged in a trust business (as defined in Section 106), or while acting in any capacity under a court or private trust, or while acting in such capacity with one or more persons as cofiduciary or cofiduciaries, unless the instrument creating such trust contains a provision to the contrary, is authorized to deposit or arrange for the deposit of such securities in a securities depository, as defined in Section 30004, which is licensed under Section 30200 or exempted from licensing thereunder by Section 30005 or 30006. When such securities are so deposited, they may be held in the custody of the securities depository in which they are deposited or in the custody of any other securities depository so licensed or exempted and in which the securities depository in which such securities were deposited maintains an account, or in the custody of any bank or trust company with authority to accept custody of such securities, which accepts custody of such securities on behalf of a securities depository. Such securities may be held in the name of the nominee of the securities depository in which they are deposited, or in the name of the nominee of any other securities depository with which the securities depository in which they are deposited maintains an account. The custodian of securities so deposited may merge certificates representing securities of the same class of the same issuer and may hold such certificates in bulk with any other securities deposited in any securities depository by any person regardless of the ownership of such securities, and certificates of small denomination may be merged into one or more certificates of larger denomination. Any commercial bank or trust company which deposits or arranges for the deposit of such securities in such a securities depository shall maintain records which at all times show the ownership of the securities so deposited. A commercial bank or trust company so depositing securities pursuant to this section shall be subject to such rules and regulations as in the case of state-chartered institutions, the commissioner and, in the case of national banking associations, the Comptroller of the Currency may from time to time issue.

This section shall apply to securities now held or hereafter held by a commercial bank or trust company in the above designated capacities. A commercial bank or trust company may but shall not be required to own capital stock of a securities depository in which it deposits securities pursuant to this section.

SEC. 165. Section 775.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

775.1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any commercial bank (as defined in Section 105) and any trust company (as defined in Section 107) holding securities in a fiduciary capacity or while engaged in a trust business (as defined in Section 106), or while acting in any capacity under a court or private trust, or while acting in such capacity with one or more persons as cofiduciary or cofiduciaries, unless the instrument creating such trust contains a provision to the contrary, is authorized to deposit or arrange for the deposit with a federal reserve bank of any such securities the principal and interest of which the United States or any department, agency or instrumentality thereof has agreed to pay, or has guaranteed payment, to be credited to one or more accounts on the books of such federal reserve bank in the name of such commercial bank or trust company, to be designated fiduciary or safekeeping accounts, to which accounts other similar securities may be credited. Any commercial bank or trust company which deposits or arranges for the deposit of such securities pursuant to this section shall maintain records which at all times show the ownership of the securities so deposited. A commercial bank or trust company so depositing securities pursuant to this section shall be subject to such rules and regulations as in the case of state-chartered institutions, the commissioner and, in the case of national banking associations, the Comptroller of the Currency, may from time to time issue. Ownership of, and other interests in, the securities credited to such account may be transferred by entries on the books of said federal reserve bank without physical delivery of any securities. A commercial bank or trust company acting as custodian for a fiduciary shall, on demand by the fiduciary, certify in writing to the fiduciary the securities deposited by such commercial bank or trust company pursuant to this section for the account of the fiduciary. A fiduciary shall, on demand by any party to its accounting, certify in writing to such party the securities deposited for its account as such fiduciary pursuant to this section. This section shall apply to all fiduciaries and custodians for fiduciaries, acting on the effective date of this section or who thereafter may act regardless of the state of the instrument or court order by which they are appointed.

SEC. 166. Section 776 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

776. Every bank and branch shall conduct all of its business in one building or in adjoining buildings except that under special circumstances and with the written consent of the commissioner a bank or branch may conduct a portion of its business elsewhere in the same vicinity. An application for consent shall be in such form and contain such information as the commissioner may by order or regulation require and shall be accompanied by a fee of five hundred dollars ($500).

SEC. 166.1. Section 776 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

776. (a) Every bank and branch shall conduct all of its business in one building or in adjoining buildings except that under special circumstances a bank or branch may conduct a portion of its business at an extension office elsewhere in the same vicinity provided the notice requirements of subdivision (b) are complied with and provided further that the commissioner either (1) issues a written statement not objecting to the notice or (2) does not issue a written objection to the notice.

(b) The California state bank shall file a notice with the commissioner no fewer than 30 days prior to conducting any portion of its business at an extension office, which notice shall provide the following information:

(1) The name of the California state bank, and, if applicable, the popular name of the branch whose business will be conducted at an extension office.

(2) The address of the proposed extension office.

(3) A description of the proposed business to be conducted at the extension.

(4) The date on which the bank proposes to commence business at the extension.

(5) Any other information that the commissioner may, by regulation or order, require.

SEC. 167. Section 782 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

782. Notwithstanding Section 1335, a bank may invest in shares of an investment company (1) registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the federal Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (15 U.S.C. Sec. 80a-1 et seq.) and for which the shares are registered under the federal Securities Act of 1933, as amended (15 U.S.C. Sec. 77a et seq.), and (2) the portfolio of which consists solely of the following:

(a) Debt obligations in which a bank is permitted to invest without limitation pursuant to subdivision (a), (b), (c), or (d) of Section 1336 and repurchase agreements fully collateralized by those obligations.

(b) Loans of federal funds and similar loans of unsecured day(s) funds, maturing in six months or less to institutions insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation [Federal Funds]. Loans under this subdivision are limited to transactions described in subsection (a) or (b) of Section 32.102 of Title 12 of the Code of Federal Regulations involving investment companies in which the entire beneficial interest is held exclusively by depository institutions, as permitted by Section 204.123 of Title 12 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

The commissioner may, by regulation, prescribe further conditions respecting investment by banks under this section as may be necessary for the safety or soundness of banks or as may otherwise be in the public interest.

SEC. 168. Section 800 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

800. In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Authorized agency activities" means receiving deposits, renewing time deposits, closing loans, servicing loans, and receiving payments on loans and other obligations. "Authorized agency activities" includes ministerial functions such as providing loan applications, assembling documents, providing a location for returning documents necessary for making a loan, providing loan account information, receiving payments, disbursing loan funds, evaluating loan applications, and other activities that the commissioner may specify by order or regulation. However, "authorized agency activities" does not include any other activities that the commissioner may specify by order or regulation.

(b) "Insured depository institution" means any bank, savings and loan association, savings association or savings bank the deposits of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. "Insured depository institution" includes any depository institution affiliate within the meaning of Section 18(r) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1828(r)).

SEC. 168.1. Section 800 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

800. In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Authorized agency activities" means receiving deposits, renewing time deposits, closing loans, servicing loans, and receiving payments on loans and other obligations. "Authorized agency activities" includes ministerial functions such as providing loan applications, assembling documents, providing a location for returning documents necessary for making a loan, providing loan account information, receiving payments, disbursing loan funds, evaluating loan applications, and other activities that the commissioner may specify by order or regulation. However,

"authorized agency activities" does not include any other activities that the commissioner may specify by order or regulation.

(b) "Insured depository institution" means any bank, savings and loan association, savings association, savings bank, or industrial loan company the deposits of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. "Insured depository institution" includes any depository institution affiliate within the meaning of Section 18(r) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1828(r)).

SEC. 169. Section 802 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

802. (a) In this section, "affiliated," when used with respect to a California state bank and an insured depository institution, means that the California state bank controls the insured depository institution, the insured depository institution controls the California state bank, or the California state bank and the insured depository institution are under common control, directly or indirectly through one or more intermediaries. For purposes of this subdivision, "control" has the meaning set forth in Section 700.

(b) In case a California state bank and an insured depository institution are affiliated, the prior approval requirement set forth in Section 810 or 820 is deemed to be satisfied if the California state bank files a notice with the commissioner and, within 30 days or any longer period to which the California state bank consents, the commissioner either (1) issues a written statement not objecting to the notice or (2) does not issue a written objection to the notice.

(c) (1) A notice filed by a California state bank under subdivision (b) shall contain the following information:

(A) The name of the California state bank.

(B) The name and location of the main or head office of the affiliated insured depository institution.

(C) A description of the proposed agency, including identification of the institution that is to be the principal, identification of the institution that is to be the agent, and specification of the activities in which the agent is to engage on behalf of the principal.

(D) Any other information that the commissioner may require.

(2) A notice filed by a California state bank under subdivision (b) shall be in the form, shall be signed in the manner, and shall, if the commissioner requires by regulation or order, be verified in the manner that the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

(3) A notice filed by a California state bank under subdivision (b) shall be accompanied by a filing fee of two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(d) For purposes of subdivision (b), a notice by a California state bank is deemed to be filed with the commissioner at the time when the complete notice, including any amendments or supplements, containing all the information required by the commissioner, and otherwise complying with subdivision (c) is received by the commissioner.

(e) In determining whether or not to object to a notice by a California state bank, the commissioner shall consider the factors set forth in Section 813 or 823, as the case may be.

SEC. 170. Section 810 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

810. Notwithstanding the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 500) and Section 776, a California state bank may, with the prior approval of the commissioner and subject to any regulations that the commissioner may prescribe, have an insured depository institution engage in authorized agency activities as its agent.

SEC. 171. Section 811 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

811. An application by a California state bank for approval to have an insured depository institution engage in authorized agency activities as its agent shall be in the form, shall contain the information, shall be signed in the manner, and shall, if the commissioner so requires by regulation or order, be verified in the manner that the commissioner may, by regulation or order, require.

SEC. 172. Section 813 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

813. In determining whether to approve or deny an application by a California state bank for approval to have an insured depository institution engage in authorized agency activities as its agent, the commissioner shall consider both of the following:

(a) Whether the proposed agency arrangement is consistent with the safe and sound operation of the California state bank.

(b) Any other factors that the commissioner deems relevant.

SEC. 173. Section 816 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

816. If the commissioner finds that any activity performed by an insured depository institution as agent for a California state bank is not an authorized agency activity or that the agency arrangement is inconsistent with safe and sound banking practices, the commissioner may order the California state bank to terminate the agency arrangement.

SEC. 174. Section 820 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

820. Notwithstanding the provisions of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 500) and Section 776, a California state bank may, with the prior approval of the commissioner and subject to any regulations that the commissioner may prescribe, engage in authorized agency activities as agent for an insured depository institution.

SEC. 175. Section 821 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

821. An application by a California state bank for approval to engage in authorized agency activities as agent for an insured depository institution shall be in the form, shall contain the information, shall be signed in the manner, and shall, if the commissioner so requires by regulation or order, be verified in the manner that the commissioner may, by regulation or order, require.

SEC. 176. Section 823 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

823. In determining whether to approve or deny an application by a California state bank for approval to engage in authorized agency activities as agent for an insured depository institution, the commissioner shall consider both of the following factors:

(a) Whether the proposed agency arrangement is consistent with the safe and sound operation of the California state bank.

(b) Any other factors that the commissioner deems relevant.

SEC. 177. Section 826 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

826. If the commissioner finds that any activities performed by a California state bank as agent for an insured depository institution are not authorized agency activities or that the agency arrangement is inconsistent with safe and sound banking practices, the commissioner may order the California state bank to terminate the agency arrangement.

SEC. 178. Section 866.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

866.5. The commissioner shall issue administrative regulations to define a reasonable time for permitting customers to draw on items received for deposit in the customer's account. It is the public policy of this state to provide retail banking customers with the right to withdraw against items deposited with any depository institution located in this state within a reasonable period of time.

SEC. 179. Section 866.6 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

866.6. Pursuant to Section 866.5, the commissioner shall promulgate regulations which shall be reviewed annually to establish a reasonable period of time within which a depository institution must permit a customer to draw as a matter of right on an item which has been received for deposit in the customer's account.

In determining what constitutes a reasonable period of time the commissioner shall consider the following factors:

(a) The actual time for processing and transport between the depository and payer institutions.

(b) The fastest air transport time between depository and payer institutions to be used for purposes of setting the reasonable time for transport.

(c) The most expeditious route and means for processing of returned items.

SEC. 180. Section 866.7 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

866.7. The commissioner is authorized to gather from depository institutions such information as may be necessary for the formulation and promulgation of the regulations required by Section 866.5.

SEC. 181. Section 866.9 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

866.9. The commissioner is authorized to issue regulations which provide for a different period of time for withdrawal as a matter of right against deposited items, if there has been a determination that the application of the regulations adopted pursuant to this article would result in unsafe or unsound practices by a depository institution subject to the regulatory jurisdiction of the commissioner.

SEC. 182. Section 867 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

867. (a) Funds deposited in an account at a depository institution shall be available on the second business day after the business day on which those funds are deposited in the case of a cashier's check, certified check, teller's check, or depository check subject to the following:

(1) The check is endorsed only by the person to whom it was issued.

(2) The check is deposited in a receiving depository institution which is staffed by individuals employed by that institution.

(3) The check is deposited with a special deposit slip which indicates it is a cashier's check, certified check, teller's check, or depository check, as the case may be.

(4) The check is deposited into an account in the name of a customer which has maintained any account with the receiving depository institution for a period of 60 days or more.

(5) The face amount of the check is for five thousand dollars ($5,000) or less.

In the case of funds deposited on any business day in an account at a depository institution by depository checks, the aggregate amount of which exceeds five thousand dollars ($5,000), this subdivision shall apply only with respect to the first five thousand dollars ($5,000) of the aggregate amount.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not apply to a depository check if the receiving depository institution reasonably believes that the check is uncollectible from the originating depository institution. For purposes of this subdivision, "reasonable cause to believe" requires the existence of facts which would cause a well-grounded belief in the mind of a reasonable person. These reasons shall include, but not be limited to, a belief that (1) the drawer or drawee of the depository check has been, or will imminently be, adjudicated a bankrupt or placed in receivership or (2) the depository check may be involved in a fraud or in a scheme commonly known as "kiting." In these situations, the depository institution electing to proceed under this subdivision shall so notify the drawer and drawee no later than the close of the next business day following deposit of the depository check.

(c) For purposes of this section the following terms have the following meaning:

(1) "Account" means any demand deposit account and any other similar transaction account at a depository institution.

(2) "Business day" means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.

(3) "Cashier's check" means any check which is subject to the following:

(A) The check is drawn on a depository institution.

(B) The check is signed by an officer or employee of the depository institution.

(C) The check is a direct obligation of the depository institution.

(4) "Certified check" means any check with respect to which a depository institution certifies the following:

(A) That the signature on the check is genuine.

(B) The depository institution has set aside funds which are equal to the amount of the check and will be used only to pay that check.

(5) "Depository check" means any cashier's check, certified check, teller's check, and any other functionally equivalent instrument, as determined by the Board of Governor's of the Federal Reserve System or the commissioner.

(6) "Depository institution" has the meaning given in clauses (i) through (vi) of Section 19(b)(1)(A) of the Federal Reserve Act.

(7) "Teller's check" means any check issued by a depository institution and drawn on another depository institution.

(d) Except for the specific circumstances and checks described in this section, this section is not intended to restrict or preempt the regulatory authority of the commissioner.

(e) In the event of a suspension or modification of any similar provisions in the federal Expedited Funds Availability Act, the effect of this section shall be similarly suspended or modified.

SEC. 182.1. Section 1007 of the Financial Code, as added by Assembly Bill 3012, is amended to read:

1007. Bonds of any flood control and water conservation districts, or any zone thereof, having an assessed valuation on taxable real property of not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000), county, city and county, city, metropolitan water district, municipal utility district, special districts established by and within any municipal utility district, transit district, rapid transit district including sales tax revenue bonds of the district, metropolitan transit authority, flood control district, or school district of the State of California (herein referred to generally as public corporation) except the bonds of any particular such public corporation which may be declared ineligible for investment by savings banks by regulations of the commissioner.

SEC. 183. Section 1201 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1201. Assets hypothecated by a commercial bank as security for moneys borrowed shall not exceed in value the amount borrowed by more than 50 percent except with the prior written consent of the commissioner.

SEC. 184. Section 1202 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1202. A commercial bank may borrow money by discounting or otherwise, and may borrow money secured by real property owned by the bank, to an amount not in excess of its shareholders' equity, but shall not borrow money except as provided in Sections 1204 and 1205 in excess of such amount without the prior written approval of the commissioner.

The amounts of moneys so borrowed by a commercial bank together with the amount of any of its deposits secured by surety bonds shall not at any one time exceed the amount of its shareholders' equity without the prior written approval of the commissioner.

SEC. 185. Section 1203 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1203. A commercial bank may hypothecate its assets in any manner provided by law to secure the deposits of moneys of the United States, of postal savings funds, of bankrupt estates, of the State of California, or of any political subdivision, public corporation, or district of the State of California. With the prior approval of the commissioner a bank may hypothecate its assets to secure moneys payable to other states.

SEC. 186. Section 1208 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1208. A commercial bank located in a place the population of which does not exceed 5,000 persons according to the most recent official federal or state census may act as agent for any fire, life, or other insurance company authorized to do business in California by soliciting and selling insurance and collecting premiums and may receive for such services such fees and commissions as may be agreed upon with the insurance company if the bank is engaged in such business on October 1, 1949, and is duly licensed under the Insurance Code, and may act also as the broker or agent for others in making or procuring loans on real property located within 100 miles of the place in which the bank is located and may receive for such services a fee or a commission if it is engaged in such business on October 1, 1949, and is duly licensed. In engaging in either of such businesses the bank shall comply with all rules and regulations of the commissioner relating thereto and shall not guarantee either the principal or interest of any loan procured by it as broker or agent or assume or guarantee the payment of any premium on insurance policies written through it as agent or broker or guarantee the truth of any statement made by an insured in filing an application for insurance.

SEC. 187. Section 1220 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1220. For the purpose of this article:

(a) "Obligations" means the total sums for the payment of which a person is obligated, primarily or secondarily, to a commercial bank.

(b) Obligations of a person include obligations of others to a commercial bank arising out of loans made by the bank for the benefit of the person.

(c) Obligations of an individual include the obligations of a partnership or association for which obligations the individual is liable.

(d) Obligations of a partnership include the obligations of its members who are liable for its obligations.

(e) Obligations of a corporation include the obligations of all subsidiaries in which it owns or controls a majority interest, except to the extent and under such restrictions as the commissioner may prescribe in specific instances upon special application made by any bank prior to the creation of the obligations.

(f) Obligations of a sovereign government or agency include the obligations of instrumentalities or political subdivisions of the government or agency, except to the extent and under such restrictions as the commissioner may prescribe in specific instances upon special application made by any bank prior to the creation of the obligations.

(g) Obligations of a limited liability company include the obligations of all subsidiaries in which it owns or controls a majority interest, except to the extent and under any restrictions the commissioner may prescribe in specific instances upon special application made by any bank prior to the creation of the obligations.

SEC. 188. Section 1223 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1223. An obligation shall not be deemed secured by personal property or collateral unless the personal property or collateral held as security is of a kind which has not been declared ineligible by the commissioner and unless it has a market value at least 15 percent greater than the amount of the obligations secured thereby or, if the security is a bank deposit, it shall have a face value at least equal to the amount of the obligations secured thereby. The commissioner may by general regulation declare any particular kinds or classes of personal property ineligible as security. An obligation shall not be deemed secured by real property unless the obligation and the lien securing the same conform to the provisions of Section 1227, 1228, 1236, 1238, or 1239 or the first sentence of Section 1235. Secured and unsecured loans shall be represented by separate notes and shall not be combined in any way within one note or notes.

SEC. 189. Section 1224 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1224. (a) In addition to the limitations contained in Section 1221 a commercial bank may issue letters of credit and a commercial bank may accept drafts or bills of exchange drawn upon it having not more than six months' sight to run, exclusive of days of grace, which grow out of transactions involving the importation or exportation of goods; or which grow out of transactions involving the domestic shipment of goods; or which are secured at the time of acceptance by a warehouse receipt or other such document conveying or securing title covering readily marketable staples. A commercial bank shall not accept such drafts or bills in the aggregate to an amount exceeding 150 percent of the sum of its shareholders' equity, allowance for loan losses, capital notes, and debentures or, when authorized by the commissioner, to an amount exceeding 200 percent of the sum of its shareholders' equity, allowance for loan losses, capital notes, and debentures. A commercial bank shall not accept such drafts or bills for any one person to an amount exceeding 10 percent of the sum of its shareholders' equity, allowance for loan losses, capital notes, and debentures, unless the bank is and remains secured by either attached documents or some other actual security growing out of the same transaction as the acceptance.

(b) With respect to a bank which issues an acceptance, the limitations contained in this section shall not apply to that portion of an acceptance which is issued by such bank and which is covered by a participation agreement sold to another institution.

SEC. 190. Section 1225 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1225. With the approval of the commissioner a commercial bank may accept drafts or bills of exchange drawn upon it having not more than three months' sight to run, exclusive of days of grace, drawn by banks or bankers in foreign countries for the purpose of furnishing dollar exchange as required by the usages of trade in the respective countries; provided, no commercial bank shall accept such drafts or bills of exchange for any one bank to any amount exceeding 10 percent of the sum of the shareholders' equity, allowance for loan losses, capital notes, and debentures of the accepting bank unless the draft or bill of exchange is accompanied by documents conveying or securing title or unless the bank is secured by some other adequate security. A commercial bank shall not accept such drafts or bills, whether secured or unsecured, in the aggregate to an amount exceeding 50 percent of the sum of its shareholders' equity, allowance for loan losses, capital notes, and debentures.

SEC. 191. Section 1226 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1226. The limitations of Section 1221 shall not apply to the following and the following shall not be included among the obligations of a person for the purpose of applying such limitations:

(a) Loans secured by obligations of the United States or by obligations unconditionally guaranteed both as to principal and interest by the United States, having a market value at least 10 percent in excess of the loans secured thereby.

(b) Loans in an amount and of a type or class previously approved in writing by the commissioner which are secured by not less than a like amount of obligations of the United States or by obligations unconditionally guaranteed both as to principal and interest by the United States.

(c) Loans to the extent that they are covered by guarantees or by commitments to take over or to purchase without recourse made by (1) any Federal Reserve bank, (2) the United States, (3) any department, bureau, board, commission, agency, or establishment of the United States, including any corporation wholly owned directly or indirectly by the United States or (4) any small business development corporation, urban development corporation, or rural development corporation incorporated pursuant to the California Job Creation Law (Part 5 (commencing with Section 14000) of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code).

(d) Drafts or bills of exchange drawn in good faith against actual existing values with negotiable bills of lading attached, whether or not accepted by the drawee.

(e) Bankers' acceptances of other banks which are eligible for rediscount with a Federal Reserve bank.

(f) Obligations resulting from daily clearances through any clearinghouse association.

(g) Obligations which are fully guaranteed or fully insured or covered by a commitment to fully guarantee or fully insure by the Federal Housing Administrator.

(h) Obligations described in Section 1336.

SEC. 192. Section 1227 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1227. A commercial bank may lend on the security of a first lien on real property or a first lien on a leasehold under a lease which does not expire, or which has been extended or renewed so that it does not expire, for at least 10 years beyond the maturity date of the loan, if:

(a) The term of the loan does not exceed 10 years and the amount does not exceed 60 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold, together with the improvements located on the property which are made subject to the lien, as determined by proper appraisal; or

(b) The term of the loan does not exceed 30 years, is repayable in substantially equal installments not less often than monthly (or such variation therefrom as may be authorized under a loan executed pursuant to Section 1916.5 or 1916.8 of the Civil Code), with payments commencing not later than 60 days from the date of the loan or, in the case of a construction loan, commencing not later than one year from the date of the loan, and the amount does not exceed 90 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold, together with the improvements located on the property which are made subject to the lien, as determined by proper appraisal, provided, however, such loan may exceed 90 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold if that portion of the loan which is in excess of such 90 percent is guaranteed or insured by a qualified private insurer as determined by the commissioner; or

(c) The loan is made pursuant to and in conformance with regulations adopted under Section 1916.12 of the Civil Code; or

(d) The loan is on a farm or productive agricultural lands, the term does not exceed 30 years, is repayable in substantially equal installments not less often than annually, and the amount does not exceed 90 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold, together with the improvements located on the property which are made subject to the lien, as determined by proper appraisal; or

(e) The term of the loan does not exceed six months and the amount does not exceed 85 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold, together with the improvements located on the property which are made subject to the lien, as determined by proper appraisal; or

(f) The term of the loan does not exceed 60 months, the amount does not exceed 85 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold, together with the improvements located on the property which are made subject to the lien, as determined by proper appraisal, and the loan is for the purpose of financing building operations under a plan providing for payment of the loan or providing for refinancing by loans otherwise permitted by this chapter.

A commercial bank may make a loan without regard to the above restrictions when necessary to facilitate the sale of real property owned by the bank.

SEC. 192.1. Section 1227 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1227. A commercial bank may lend on the security of a first lien on real property or a first lien on a leasehold under a lease which does not expire, or which has been extended or renewed so that it does not expire, for at least 10 years beyond the maturity date of the loan, if:

(a) The term of the loan does not exceed 10 years and the amount does not exceed 60 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold, together with the improvements located on the property which are made subject to the lien, as determined by proper appraisal.

(b) The term of the loan does not exceed 30 years, is repayable in substantially equal installments not less often than monthly (or a variation therefrom as may be authorized under a loan executed pursuant to Section 1916.5 or 1916.8 of the Civil Code), with payments commencing not later than 60 days from the date of the loan or, in the case of a construction loan, commencing not later than one year from the date of the loan, and the amount does not exceed 90 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold, together with the improvements located on the property which are made subject to the lien, as determined by proper appraisal, provided, however, the loan may exceed 90 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold if that portion of the loan which is in excess of 90 percent is guaranteed or insured by a private insurer licensed by the Insurance Commissioner.

(c) The loan is made pursuant to and in conformance with regulations adopted under Section 1916.12 of the Civil Code.

(d) The loan is on a farm or productive agricultural lands, the term does not exceed 30 years, is repayable in substantially equal installments not less often than annually, and the amount does not exceed 90 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold, together with the improvements located on the property which are made subject to the lien, as determined by proper appraisal.

(e) The term of the loan does not exceed six months and the amount does not exceed 85 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold, together with the improvements located on the property which are made subject to the lien, as determined by proper appraisal.

(f) The term of the loan does not exceed 60 months, the amount does not exceed 85 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold, together with the improvements located on the property which are made subject to the lien, as determined by proper appraisal, and the loan is for the purpose of financing building operations under a plan providing for payment of the loan or providing for refinancing by loans otherwise permitted by this chapter.

A commercial bank may make a loan without regard to the above restrictions when necessary to facilitate the sale of real property owned by the bank.

SEC. 193. Section 1228 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1228. A commercial bank may lend on the security of a first lien on real property or a first lien on a leasehold under a lease which does not expire, or which has been extended or renewed so that it does not expire, for at least 10 years beyond the maturity date of the loan, if the criteria of any of the following subdivisions are satisfied:

(a) The loan is fully guaranteed or insured or covered by a commitment to guarantee or insure by the United States, the Federal Housing Administrator, or by any other agency of the United States which the commissioner shall have approved for the purposes of this subdivision as an issuer of insurance or guarantees of loans on real property, whether the proceeds of the guarantee or insurance is payable in cash or in obligations of the United States.

(b) The loan is fully guaranteed by the United States or any agency thereof pursuant to the "Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944" or any act of Congress supplementary or amendatory thereof, or, if a portion of the loan is so guaranteed, then if the unguaranteed portion of the loan does not exceed 80 percent of the sound market value of the property or leasehold for loan purposes as determined by proper appraisal.

(c) The loan is one in which the Small Business Administration cooperates through agreements to participate on an immediate or deferred basis under the Small Business Act, as amended.

SEC. 194. Section 1232 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1232. A commercial bank shall not make a loan upon the capital stock of any other bank unless such bank has been in existence at least two years and has earned and paid a dividend on its capital stock, nor, without the written approval of the commissioner, shall it make a loan on the security of the capital stock of another bank if by the making of such loan the capital stock of such other bank owned or held as collateral by the lending bank will exceed in the aggregate 25 percent of the stock of such other bank.

SEC. 195. Section 1236 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1236. A commercial bank may lend on the security of a first security interest on stock or a membership certificate issued to a tenant-stockholder or resident-member by a completed fee simple cooperative housing corporation, as defined in Section 216 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code, and the assignment by way of security of the borrower's interest in the proprietary lease or right of tenancy in property issued by such cooperative housing corporation, provided all of the real property owned by such corporation is located within the state, and further provided, that:

(a) The term of the loan does not exceed 30 years, is repayable in substantially equal installments (or such variation therefrom as may be authorized under a loan executed pursuant to Section 1916.5 or 1916.8 of the Civil Code), not less often than monthly, with payments commencing not later than 60 days from the date of the loan, and the amount does not exceed 80 percent of the sound market value of such certificates of stock or membership certificates; and

(b) The proprietary lease or right of tenancy in the property provides:

(1) That no sublease in excess of one year, amendment or modification to such proprietary lease or right of tenancy in the property shall be permitted or created without the lender's prior written consent, and

(2) That in the event of the borrower's default under such loan, the lender shall have the right, without the prior consent or approval of the cooperative housing corporation, to sell such shares or membership certificates at public or private sale following at least 30 days prior written notice to the borrower and to the cooperative housing corporation, at the address of the premises subject to the proprietary lease or right of tenancy in the property, and assign such proprietary lease or right of tenancy in the property to the purchaser who shall agree as a condition of such assignment to cure any defaults thereunder.

For all purposes of this division, such loan shall be considered a secured residential real estate loan and shall be subject to rules and regulations implementing the provisions of this section issued by the commissioner.

SEC. 196. Section 1336 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1336. Unless otherwise approved by the commissioner, a commercial bank shall not invest an amount exceeding 15 percent of its shareholders' equity in the securities of any one obligor or maker, except:

(a) Obligations of the United States and those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(b) Bonds, consolidated bonds, collateral trust debentures, or other obligations issued by the Federal Financing Bank, the United States Postal Service, federal land banks or federal intermediate credit banks established under the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended; in debentures and consolidated debentures issued by the Central Bank for Cooperatives and banks for cooperatives established under the Farm Credit Act of 1933, as amended; in consolidated notes, bonds, debentures and other obligations issued by federal land banks, federal intermediate credit banks, and banks for cooperatives under the Farm Credit Act of 1971; in the bonds of any federal home loan bank established under the Federal Home Loan Bank Act; and in stock, bonds, debentures, participations, and other obligations of or issued by the Student Loan Marketing Association, the Federal National Mortgage Association and the Government National Mortgage Association.

(c) Obligations of the State of California and those for which the credit of the State of California is pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(d) Obligations of a local agency or district of the State of California having the power, without limit as to rate or amount, to levy taxes to pay the principal and interest of such bonds upon all property within its boundaries subject to taxation by the local agency or district.

SEC. 196.1. Section 1336 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1336. Unless otherwise approved by the commissioner, a commercial bank shall not invest an amount exceeding 15 percent of its shareholders' equity in the securities of any one obligor or maker, except:

(a) Obligations of the United States and those for which the faith and credit of the United States are pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(b) Bonds, consolidated bonds, collateral trust debentures, or other obligations issued by the Federal Financing Bank, the United States Postal Service, federal land banks or federal intermediate credit banks established under the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended; in debentures and consolidated debentures issued by the Central Bank for Cooperatives and banks for cooperatives established under the Farm Credit Act of 1933, as amended; in consolidated notes, bonds, debentures and other obligations issued by federal land banks, federal intermediate credit banks, and banks for cooperatives under the Farm Credit Act of 1971; in the bonds of any federal home loan bank established under the Federal Home Loan Bank Act; and in stock, bonds, debentures, participations, and other obligations of or issued by the Student Loan Marketing Association, the Federal National Mortgage Association, the Government National Mortgage Association, and the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation.

(c) Obligations of the State of California and those for which the credit of the State of California is pledged for the payment of principal and interest.

(d) Obligations of a local agency or district of the State of California having the power, without limit as to rate or amount, to levy taxes to pay the principal and interest of the bonds upon all property within its boundaries subject to taxation by the local agency or district.

SEC. 197. Section 1355.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1355.1. In the bonds of any flood control and water conservation districts, or any zone thereof, having an assessed valuation on taxable real property of not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000), county, city and county, city, metropolitan water district, municipal utility district, any special district established by and within any municipal utility district, transit district, rapid transit district including sales tax revenue bonds of such district, metropolitan transit authority, flood control district, or school district of the State of California (herein referred to generally as public corporations) except the bonds of any particular such public corporation which may be declared ineligible for investment by commercial banks by regulations of the commissioner.

SEC. 198. Section 1360 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1360. In bonds, consolidated bonds, collateral trust debentures, consolidated debentures, or other obligations issued by federal land banks or federal intermediate credit banks established under the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended, and the Farm Credit Act of 1971, in debentures and consolidated debentures issued by the Central Bank for Cooperatives and banks for cooperatives established under the Farm Credit Act of 1933, as amended, and the Farm Credit Act of 1971, in the bonds of any federal home loan bank established under the Federal Home Loan Bank Act, and in stocks, bonds, debentures, participations and other obligations of or issued by the Federal National Mortgage Association, the Student Loan Marketing Association, the Government National Mortgage Association and the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation.

SEC. 199. Section 1371 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1371. The commissioner is authorized upon the written application of any person made upon such form and containing such information as the commissioner may prescribe, accompanied by a fee of one hundred dollars ($100), and when in the commissioner's opinion the purposes of this article will be served thereby, to issue a certificate certifying that in the commissioner's opinion and upon the information furnished the commissioner, specifying the same, any particular security which is issued or guaranteed by the State of California, by any city, county, political subdivision, or public corporation of the State of California (herein referred to generally as California public corporations), or by any department, board, agency, or authority of the State of California or of any California public corporation constitutes a legal investment for savings and commercial banks pursuant to the provisions of this article. The commissioner may request any public official in whose office information relative to the assessed valuation of taxable property of any California public corporation is kept, or in whose office information relative to the direct debt or the overlapping debt of any California public corporation is kept, or in whose office any other information pertinent to a determination of whether or not any bonds issued by any California public corporation are qualified as investments for savings and commercial banks under this article is kept, to furnish the commissioner such information, and upon such request being made it shall be the duty of such public official to furnish to the commissioner such information.

SEC. 200. Section 1500 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1500. No corporation shall engage in the trust business unless:

(a) Its articles comply with the requirements of subdivision (b), (c), or (d) of Section 600; and

(b) It has received from the commissioner a certificate of authority pursuant to Section 401 to engage in the trust business, or, if it is a bank, has received the authorization of the commissioner to engage in the trust business pursuant to Section 1500.1; and

(c) It has deposited with the State Treasurer money or securities in compliance with Article 3 (commencing with Section 1540) of this chapter.

SEC. 201. Section 1500.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1500.1. Any commercial bank, with the prior authorization of the commissioner, may engage in the trust business, if its articles comply with the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 600. Any bank so authorized shall, in the conduct of its trust business, comply with and be governed by all of the provisions of this chapter, except the provisions of Section 1560. An application for such authorization shall be in such form and contain such information as the commissioner may require, and be accompanied by a fee of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

SEC. 202. Section 1501 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1501. A corporation authorized to transact a title insurance business under the Insurance Code may engage in the trust business and maintain a trust department as well as a title insurance department if it complies with the following requirements:

(a) It shall first obtain the consent of both the commissioner and the Commissioner of Insurance. The application for such consent of the commissioner shall be in such form and contain such information as the commissioner may require and be accompanied by a fee of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(b) In its application for such consent it shall include a statement making a segregation of its shareholders' equity for each department. When such apportionment is approved by the commissioner and the Commissioner of Insurance the part of such shareholders' equity apportioned to each department shall be segregated and shall be treated as the separate shareholders' equity of each such department as if each such department was a separate business.

(c) (1) It shall amend its articles to comply with the requirements of subdivision (d) of Section 600.

(2) It shall amend its articles to comply with the requirements of subdivision (b) of Section 600.2. Section 904 of the Corporations Code shall not apply to such amendment; however, the amendment must be approved by not less than two-thirds of each class of its outstanding shares which would become assessable under the amendment.

(d) It shall make the deposits of money or securities with the State Treasurer pursuant to Article 3 of this chapter.

(e) As to its trust department it shall be subject to and shall comply with all the requirements of this division applicable to trust companies and the rules and regulations of the commissioner.

SEC. 203. Section 1502 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1502. In this section, "subject national banking association" means a national banking association that (a) maintains its main office or a branch office in this state, (b) is authorized to transact a trust business, and (c) has complied with the requirements of Article 3 (commencing with Section 1540) of this chapter and of all other laws of this state relating to the deposit of securities for the protection of court and private trusts. A subject national banking association may engage in and conduct a trust business and may be appointed by any court to act in any fiduciary capacity in which a trust company is authorized to act. All acts provided in this code to be performed by the commissioner, the State Treasurer, or other public officials for or in respect to the deposit of securities by trust companies, shall be performed for subject national banking associations equally with trust companies. Every subject national banking association shall be permitted to use the word "trust" in its corporate name and to advertise its authority to engage in and conduct a trust business and to advertise for and solicit trust business in this state, notwithstanding any contrary provision in this division or in any other law. The commissioner shall have access to reports of examination made by the Comptroller of the Currency insofar as they relate to the trust department of a subject national banking association. For purposes of Article 3 (commencing with Section 1540), the principal place of business of a national banking association that maintains its main office in another state of the United States and maintains a California branch office shall be deemed to be situated in the city where the California branch office is located or, if the national banking association maintains California branch offices in two or more cities, in the city with the largest population.

SEC. 204. Section 1540 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1540. Every trust company shall deposit with the State Treasurer money or securities of the character described in Section 1542 as security for its court and private trusts as follows:

(a) If the trust company's principal place of business is situated in a city the population of which does not exceed 100,000 persons, it shall deposit with the State Treasurer money or securities having a market value of at least fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) as security for the faithful performance and execution of all court trusts accepted by it, and money or securities having a market value of at least fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) as security for the faithful performance and execution of all private trusts accepted by it.

Whenever any such trust company receives trust funds or property, other than real property, from court trusts accepted by it to the amount of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), it shall forthwith give the commissioner written notice thereof, and within 30 days thereafter shall make an additional deposit with the State Treasurer of money or securities having a market value of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) as security for its court trusts, and money or securities having a market value of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) as additional security for its private trusts.

(b) If the trust company's principal place of business is situated in a city the population of which exceeds 100,000 persons, it shall deposit with the State Treasurer money or securities having a market value of at least one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) as security for the faithful performance and execution of all court trusts accepted by it, and money or securities having a market value of at least one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) as security for the faithful performance and execution of all private trusts accepted by it.

SEC. 205. Section 1541 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1541. Whenever any trust company receives trust funds or property, other than real property, from court trusts accepted by it to the amount of one million dollars ($1,000,000), it shall forthwith give the commissioner written notice thereof, and within 30 days thereafter shall make an additional deposit with the State Treasurer of money or securities having a market value of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). For each additional five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) of such trust funds thereafter received by any trust company from court trusts a similar notification in writing shall forthwith be given to the commissioner and a further deposit of money or securities having a market value of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) shall be made within 30 days thereafter by such trust company with the State Treasurer until money or securities having a market value of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) have been so deposited.

SEC. 206. Section 1543 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1543. Such money or securities shall be approved by the commissioner and be deposited with the Treasurer upon the written order of the commissioner. Upon receiving any such deposit the Treasurer shall give his or her receipt therefor and thereafter subject to the provisions of this chapter shall hold such deposits for the sole benefit of the beneficiaries of the class of trust business for the security and protection of which the same were deposited. The state is responsible for the custody and safe return of any money or securities so deposited. The Treasurer shall deposit any such moneys under the provisions of Sections 16370 to 16375 of the Government Code.

SEC. 207. Section 1544 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1544. Securities deposited pursuant to this article may be exchanged from time to time, with the approval of the commissioner, for other like securities of equal market value. Upon written request to the commissioner, any trust company shall be entitled to withdraw from the Treasurer, from time to time, any amount of its securities so deposited in excess of the amount it is required to maintain on deposit in order to conform with the requirements of this article. Upon receiving a written request for such withdrawal or exchange, and satisfactory proof of the facts warranting the same, the commissioner shall forthwith deliver to the Treasurer a written order directing the withdrawal or exchange of such securities so as to conform with the provisions of this section. The Treasurer shall comply with such written order. So long as the trust company so depositing such securities shall continue solvent, it shall have the right and shall be permitted by the Treasurer to receive the interest and dividends on any securities deposited by it.

SEC. 208. Section 1545 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1545. Should any security deposited pursuant to this article so depreciate in value as to reduce the deposit below the amount required by this article, additional money or securities shall be deposited promptly in amount sufficient to meet such requirements. The commissioner may make an investigation of the value of any security deposited pursuant to this article, at the time such security is presented for deposit or at any time thereafter, whenever in his judgment such investigation is necessary. The commissioner may make such charge as may be reasonable and proper for such investigation.

SEC. 209. Section 1545.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1545.5. When any revaluation of securities is made by the commissioner pursuant to Section 1545, other than at the time such securities are presented for deposit, United States Government securities having a maturity date less than five years from the date of such revaluation shall be valued at not less than par.

SEC. 210. Section 1563 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1563. Any trust company acting in any capacity under a court or private trust or when acting in such capacity with one or more persons as cofiduciary or cofiduciaries, unless the instrument creating such trust contains a provision to the contrary, may, with the consent of such cofiduciary or cofiduciaries cause any stock or other securities held in any such capacity to be registered in the name of a nominee or nominees of such trust company and any trust company when acting as depositary or custodian for the trustee of any other court or private trust, unless the instrument creating the trust contains a provision to the contrary, may, with the consent of the trustee of such other trust, cause any stock or other securities held by it in such capacity to be registered in the name of a nominee or nominees of such trust company. Any such trust company shall be liable for any loss occasioned by the acts of any nominee of such trust company with respect to such stock or other securities so registered. The records of such trust company shall at all times show the ownership of any such stock or other securities and of those held in bearer form. Such stock or other securities and those held in bearer form shall at all times be kept by such trust company separate and apart from its other assets and may be kept by such trust company:

(a) In a manner such that all certificates representing the stock or other securities from time to time constituting the assets of a particular estate, trust or other fiduciary account are held separate from those of all other estates, trusts or accounts; or

(b) In a manner such that, without certification as to ownership attached, certificates representing stock or other securities of the same class of the same issuer and from time to time constituting assets of particular estates, trusts or other fiduciary accounts are held in bulk, including, to the extent feasible, the merging of certificates of small denomination into one or more certificates of large denomination, provided that a trust company, when operating under the method of safekeeping security certificates described in this subdivision, shall be subject to such rules and regulations as, in the case of state chartered institutions, the commissioner and, in the case of national bank associations, the Comptroller of the Currency, may from time to time issue. Such trust company shall, on demand by any party to an accounting by such trust company as fiduciary or on demand by the attorney for such party, certify in writing the stock or other securities held by such trust company as such fiduciary for such party.

No domestic or foreign corporation or the registrar or transfer agent of any such corporation shall be liable for registering or causing to be registered on the books of such corporation any share or shares or other securities in the name of any nominee of such trust company or for transferring or causing to be transferred on the books of any such corporation any share or shares or other securities theretofore registered by such corporation in the name of any nominee of such trust company as herein provided when the transfer is made upon the authorization of such nominee.

SEC. 211. Section 1564 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1564. (a) For purposes of this section, two or more trust companies shall be deemed to be affiliated if they are members of the same affiliated group, within the meaning of Section 1504 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Any trust company may establish and administer common trust funds composed of property permitted by law for the investment of trust funds, for the purpose of furnishing investments to any one or more of the following: (1) itself, as fiduciary; (2) itself and others, as cofiduciaries; (3) any affiliated trust company including, without limitation, any foreign (other state) affiliated trust company, as fiduciary; and (4) any affiliated trust company including, without limitation, any foreign (other state) affiliated trust company and others, as cofiduciaries. Any trust company may as such fiduciary or cofiduciary invest funds which it lawfully holds for investment in interests in common trust funds administered by itself or by any affiliated trust company including, without limitation, any foreign (other state) affiliated trust company, if such investment is not prohibited by the instrument, judgment, decree, order, or statute creating or governing such fiduciary relationship, and if, in the case of cofiduciaries, the trust company procures the consent of its cofiduciaries to such investment.

(c) Each common trust fund established hereunder shall be treated as an entity separate and distinct from the fiduciary relationships participating therein. No fiduciary in administering a participating fiduciary relationship shall be required to make any apportionment or allocation between the principal and income of this relationship different from that made for the common trust fund. No participating fiduciary relationship, nor any person having an interest in that relationship, shall have or be deemed to have any ownership in any particular property of the common trust fund, but each participating fiduciary relationship shall have a proportionate undivided interest in the fund and its income, and the ownership of all property of the common trust fund shall be in the trustee of the fund.

(d) This section shall apply to fiduciary relationships now in existence or hereafter established, whether the same be revocable or irrevocable. The commissioner, at his or her direction, may make an examination of any common trust fund established hereunder at the times and to the extent as he or she may deem advisable. The provisions of the Corporate Securities Law shall not apply to the creation, administration, or termination of common trust funds, nor to participation therein.

SEC. 212. Section 1582 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1582. A trust company, its officers and employees, shall not disclose any information to any person concerning the existence, condition, management, and administration of any private trust confided to it, except:

(a) Where such disclosure is specifically authorized by the terms of the trust.

(b) Where such disclosure is determined by an officer of the trust company to be necessary in the administration of such trust.

(c) Where such disclosure is required by a court of competent jurisdiction or by a subpoena issued by an attorney pursuant to Section 1985 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(d) Where such disclosure is made to, or upon the instructions of, any party executing the trust instrument.

(e) Where such disclosure refers to an irrevocable trust, to, or upon the instructions of, any beneficiary thereunder whether or not presently entitled to receive benefits therefrom.

(f) Where such disclosure is made to the commissioner in the course of an examination.

SEC. 213. Section 1583 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1583. The commissioner shall examine the court trust business of a trust company at least once every two calendar years and shall examine the private trust business at such times and to such extent as he or she may deem necessary or advisable.

SEC. 214. Section 1584 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1584. In making the reports to the commissioner required by this division, every trust company shall report, in addition to the other facts called for, separately, the amount of real property and the amount of personal property held by such trust company in both its court trusts and in its private trusts.

SEC. 215. Section 1585 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1585. Any corporation doing a departmental business as a title insurance company and as a trust company shall, as to its trust department, be subject to the requirements and have the benefit of the following provisions:

(a) It shall be subject to supervision and examination by the commissioner. The charges for this supervision and examination shall be assessed and paid in accordance with Article 5 (commencing with Section 270) of Chapter 2.

(b) It shall make all reports required by the commissioner of trust companies under this division.

(c) It shall be subject to and have the benefit of all provisions and requirements of this division and of all rules and regulations of the commissioner applicable to trust companies.

SEC. 216. Section 1588 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1588. Whenever any corporation desires to withdraw from and discontinue doing a trust business, it shall furnish to the commissioner satisfactory evidence of its release and discharge from all the obligations and trusts which it has assumed or which have been imposed on it by law. Thereupon the commissioner shall revoke his or her certificate of authority to do a trust business, and the State Treasurer shall return to it all of the securities deposited by it. Thereafter such corporation shall not be permitted to use and shall not use the word "trust" in its corporate name, or in connection with its business.

SEC. 217. Section 1589 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1589. The validity or legality of any act or proceeding done or taken by any trust company, relating to or in connection with the administration of its court and private trusts, shall not be affected or impaired by the neglect or failure of such trust company, or of any officer or employee thereof, to comply with any of the provisions of this division. All such acts and proceedings done or taken prior to the revocation of its certificate of authority to do a trust business by the commissioner, under the provisions of this division, or the revocation by any court or judge thereof of the appointment, order, or decree theretofore entered in such trust matter, shall be as valid and effective for all purposes as if any such neglect or failure had not occurred.

SEC. 218. Section 1701.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1701.5. (a) For purposes of this chapter:

(1) Changing a lower class office into a higher class office shall be treated as establishing the higher class office, but not as closing the lower class office.

(2) Changing a higher class office into a lower class office shall be treated as closing the higher class office, but not as establishing the lower class office.

(b) In the case of changing a higher class office into a lower class office, when the application for approval to close the higher class office has been approved and all conditions precedent to the closing have been fulfilled, the foreign (other nation) bank may change the higher class office into the lower class office, and the commissioner shall issue a license authorizing the bank to maintain the lower class office.

SEC. 219. Section 1702 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1702. Fees shall be paid to, and collected by, the commissioner, as follows:

(a) The fee for filing with the commissioner an application by a foreign (other nation) bank that is not licensed to transact business in this state for approval to establish a branch office shall be two thousand dollars ($2,000).

(b) The fee for filing with the commissioner an application by a foreign (other nation) bank that is not licensed to transact business in this state for approval to establish an agency shall be one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500).

(c) The fee for filing with the commissioner an application by a foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed to transact business in this state for approval to establish a branch office shall be one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(d) The fee for filing with the commissioner an application by a foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed to transact business in this state for approval to establish an agency shall be seven hundred fifty dollars ($750).

(e) The fee for filing with the commissioner an application by a foreign (other nation) bank for approval to establish a representative office shall be two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(f) The fee for filing with the commissioner an application by a foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed to maintain an agency or branch office for approval to relocate or to close the office shall be two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(g) The fee for filing with the commissioner an application by a foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed to maintain a representative office for approval to relocate or to close the representative office shall be one hundred dollars ($100).

(h) The fee for issuing a license shall be twenty-five dollars ($25).

(i) Each foreign (other nation) bank that on June 1st of any year is licensed to maintain a representative office but is not licensed to transact business in this state shall pay, on or before the following July 1st, a fee of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each such representative office.

SEC. 220. Section 1703 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1703. Each application filed with the commissioner under this chapter or under any regulation or order issued under this chapter shall be in such form, shall contain such information, shall be signed in such manner, and shall (if the commissioner so requires by regulation or order) be verified in such manner, as the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

SEC. 221. Section 1704 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1704. (a) In this section, "act" includes (without limitation) omission.

(b) For purposes of making findings on an application by a foreign (other nation) bank for approval to establish an office:

(1) The commissioner may, in the absence of credible evidence to the contrary, presume that the directors, executive officers, and any controlling person of the bank and the directors and executive officers of any controlling person of the bank are each of good character and sound financial standing.

(2) The commissioner may find that the bank, a director, executive officer, or a controlling person of the bank, or a director or executive officer of a controlling person of the bank is not of good character if that person has done any of the following:

(A) Has been convicted of, or has pleaded nolo contendere to, any crime involving an act of fraud or dishonesty.

(B) Has consented to or suffered a judgment in any civil action based upon conduct involving an act of fraud or dishonesty.

(C) Has consented to or suffered the suspension or revocation of any professional, occupational, or vocational license based upon conduct involving an act of fraud or dishonesty.

(D) Has willfully made or caused to be made in any application or report filed with the commissioner or in any proceeding before the commissioner, any statement that was at the time and in the light of the circumstances under which it was made false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or has willfully omitted to state in any application or report filed with the commissioner or in any proceeding before the commissioner, any material fact that was required to be stated therein.

(E) Has willfully committed any violation of, or has willfully aided, abetted, counseled, commanded, induced, or procured the violation by any other person of, any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division.

(c) Paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) shall not be deemed to be an exclusive list of the grounds upon which the commissioner may find, for purposes of making findings on an application by a foreign (other nation) bank for approval to establish an office, that the bank, a director, executive officer, or controlling person of the bank, or a director or executive officer of a controlling person of the bank is not of good character.

SEC. 222. Section 1705 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1705. (a) Each foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed to maintain an office shall file with the commissioner reports as and when the commissioner may, by regulation or order, require.

(b) Each report filed with the commissioner under this chapter or under any regulation or order issued under this chapter shall be in the form, shall contain the information, shall be signed in the manner, and shall (if the commissioner so requires by regulation or order) be verified in the manner, that the commissioner may, by regulation or order, require.

SEC. 223. Section 1706 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1706. Each foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed to maintain an office shall make, keep, and preserve at the office or at another place that the commissioner may, by regulation or order, approve, the books, accounts, and other records relating to the business of the office, in the form, in the manner, and for the time that the commissioner may, by regulation or order, provide.

SEC. 224. Section 1710 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1710. (a) (1) No foreign (other nation) bank (other than a bank that is licensed to maintain an agency or branch office) shall be issued a license to maintain a representative office unless it shall have first filed with the commissioner, in the form that the commissioner may by regulation or order require, an appointment irrevocably appointing the commissioner and the commissioner's successor from time to time in office to be the bank's attorney to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal judicial or administrative proceeding against the bank or any of its successors that arises out of the activities in this state of the representative office after the appointment has been filed, with the same force and validity as if served personally on the bank or its successor, as the case may be.

(2) Any foreign (other nation) bank (other than a bank that is licensed to maintain an agency or branch office or that maintains a federal agency or federal branch in this state) that maintains a representative office and that has not filed with the commissioner an appointment pursuant to paragraph (1) shall be deemed by the maintenance of that office to have appointed the commissioner as its attorney to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal judicial or administrative proceeding against the bank or any of its successors that arises out of the activities in this state of the representative office with the same force and validity as if served personally on the bank or its successor, as the case may be.

(b) (1) No foreign (other nation) bank shall be issued a license to maintain an agency or branch office unless it shall have first filed with the commissioner, in the form that the commissioner may by regulation or order require, an appointment irrevocably appointing the commissioner and the commissioner's successor from time to time in office to be the bank's attorney to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal judicial or administrative proceeding against the bank or any of its successors that arises after the appointment has been filed, with the same force and validity as if served personally on the bank or its successor, as the case may be.

(2) Any foreign (other nation) bank that maintains an agency or branch office (other than a federal agency or federal branch) and that has not filed with the commissioner an appointment pursuant to paragraph (1) shall be deemed by the maintenance of that office to have appointed the commissioner as its attorney to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal judicial or administrative proceeding against the bank or any of its successors with the same force and validity as if served personally on the bank or its successor, as the case may be.

(c) Service may be made on a foreign (other nation) bank that has appointed or is deemed to have appointed the commissioner as its attorney for service of process by leaving a copy of the process at any office of the commissioner. However, the service is not effective unless (1) the party making the service, who may be the commissioner, forthwith sends notice of the service and a copy of the process by registered or certified mail to the bank served at its last address on file with the commissioner at any of its offices in this state or at its head office, and (2) an affidavit of compliance with this subdivision by the party making service is filed in the case on or before the return date, if any, or within any further time that the court, in the case of a judicial proceeding, or the administrative agency, in the case of an administrative proceeding, allows.

SEC. 225. Section 1715 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1715. Each foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed to maintain an office shall conduct all of the business of the office in a single building or in adjoining buildings. However, for good cause and with the approval of the commissioner, the bank may conduct part of the business of the office elsewhere in the same vicinity.

SEC. 226. Section 1726 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1726. (a) (1) No foreign (other nation) bank shall establish or maintain a representative office unless the commissioner shall have first approved the establishment of the office and issued a license authorizing the bank to maintain the office.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not be deemed to prohibit a foreign (other nation) bank that maintains a federal agency or federal branch in this state from establishing or maintaining one or more representative offices in this state.

(b) If the commissioner finds the following with respect to an application by a foreign (other nation) bank for approval to establish a representative office, the commissioner shall approve the application:

(1) That the bank, any controlling person of the bank, the directors and executive officers of the bank or of any controlling person of the bank, and the proposed management of the office are each of good character and sound financial standing;

(2) That the financial history and condition of the bank are satisfactory.

(3) That the management of the bank and the proposed management of the office are adequate;

(4) That it is reasonable to believe that, if licensed to maintain the office, the bank will operate the office in compliance with all applicable laws, regulations, and orders; and

(5) That the bank's establishment and maintenance of the office will promote the public convenience and advantage.

If the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application.

(c) Whenever an application by a foreign (other nation) bank for approval to establish a representative office has been approved and all conditions precedent to the issuance of a license authorizing the bank to maintain the office have been fulfilled, the commissioner shall issue the license.

SEC. 226.1. Section 1726 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1726. (a) (1) No foreign (other nation) bank shall establish or maintain a representative office unless the commissioner shall have first approved the establishment of the office and issued a license authorizing the bank to maintain the office.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not be deemed to prohibit a foreign (other nation) bank that maintains a federal agency or federal branch in this state from establishing or maintaining one or more representative offices in this state.

(b) If the commissioner finds the following with respect to an application by a foreign (other nation) bank for approval to establish a representative office, the commissioner shall approve the application:

(1) That the bank, any controlling person of the bank, the directors and executive officers of the bank or of any controlling person of the bank, and the proposed management of the office are each of good character and sound financial standing.

(2) That the financial history and condition of the bank are satisfactory.

(3) That the management of the bank and the proposed management of the office are adequate.

(4) That it is reasonable to believe that, if licensed to maintain the office, the bank will operate the office in compliance with all applicable laws, regulations, and orders.

If the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application.

(c) Whenever an application by a foreign (other nation) bank for approval to establish a representative office has been approved and all conditions precedent to the issuance of a license authorizing the bank to maintain the office have been fulfilled, the commissioner shall issue the license.

SEC. 227. Section 1727 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1727. (a) No foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed to maintain a representative office shall relocate the office unless the commissioner shall have first approved the relocation and issued a license authorizing the bank to maintain the office at the new site.

(b) If the commissioner finds the following with respect to an application by a foreign (other nation) bank for approval to relocate a representative office, the commissioner shall approve the application:

(1) In case the new site of the office is in the same vicinity as the old site, that the relocation of the office will not be substantially detrimental to the public convenience and advantage; or

(2) In case the new site of the office is not in the same vicinity as the old site:

(A) That the relocation of the office from the old site will not be substantially detrimental to the public convenience and advantage in the area that is primarily served by the office at the old site; and

(B) That the relocation of the office to the new site will promote the public convenience and advantage.

If the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application.

(c) Whenever an application by a foreign (other nation) bank for approval to relocate a representative office has been approved and all conditions precedent to the issuance of a license authorizing the bank to maintain the office at the new site have been fulfilled, the commissioner shall issue the license.

(d) Promptly after a foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed to maintain a representative office relocates the office, the bank shall surrender to the commissioner the license that authorized it to maintain the office at the old site.

SEC. 228. Section 1728 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1728. A foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed to maintain a representative office may, subject to any regulations that the commissioner may prescribe, engage in representational functions at the office but shall not solicit or accept deposits or otherwise transact business at the office.

SEC. 229. Section 1729 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1729. (a) (1) No foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed to maintain a representative office shall close the office unless the commissioner shall have first approved the closing.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not be deemed to prohibit a foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed to maintain a representative office from closing the office in accordance with Article 4 (commencing with Section 1775).

(b) If the commissioner finds, with respect to an application by a foreign (other nation) bank for approval to close a representative office, that the closing of the office will not be substantially detrimental to the public convenience and advantage, the commissioner shall approve the application. If the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application.

(c) Whenever an application by a foreign (other nation) bank for approval to close a representative office has been approved and all conditions precedent to the closing have been fulfilled, the bank may close the office and shall promptly thereafter surrender to the commissioner the license that authorized it to maintain the office.

SEC. 230. Section 1753 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1753. (a) (1) No foreign (other nation) bank shall establish or maintain an agency or branch office unless the commissioner shall have first approved the establishment of such office and issued a license authorizing such bank to maintain the office.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not be deemed to prohibit a foreign (other nation) bank from establishing or maintaining a federal agency or federal branch in this state.

(b) If the commissioner finds the following with respect to an application by a foreign (other nation) bank for approval to establish an agency or branch office, the commissioner shall approve such application:

(1) That the bank, any controlling person of the bank, the directors and executive officers of the bank or of any controlling person of the bank, and the proposed management of the office are each of good character and sound financial standing;

(2) That the financial history and condition of the bank are satisfactory.

(3) That the management of the bank and the proposed management of the office are adequate;

(4) That it is reasonable to believe that, if licensed to maintain the office, the bank will operate the office in a safe and sound manner and in compliance with all applicable laws, regulations, and orders;

(5) That the bank's plan to establish and to maintain the office affords reasonable promise of successful operation;

(6) That the bank's establishment and maintenance of the office will promote the public convenience and advantage; and

(7) In case the office is to be a branch office, that the foreign nation where the bank is domiciled permits banks organized under the laws of this state and national banks headquartered in this state to establish and maintain in such foreign nation offices substantially equivalent to agencies, offices substantially equivalent to branch offices, or wholly (except for directors' qualifying shares) owned banks organized under the laws of such foreign nation.

If the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application.

(c) Whenever an application by a foreign (other nation) bank for approval to establish an agency or branch office has been approved and all conditions precedent to the issuance of a license authorizing such bank to maintain such office have been fulfilled, the commissioner shall issue such license.

SEC. 231. Section 1754 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1754. (a) No foreign (other nation) bank which is licensed to maintain an agency or branch office shall relocate such office unless the commissioner shall have first approved such relocation and issued a license authorizing such bank to maintain the office at the new site.

(b) If the commissioner finds the following with respect to an application by a foreign (other nation) bank for approval to relocate any agency or branch office, the commissioner shall approve such application:

(1) In case the new site of the office is in the same vicinity as the old site:

(A) That it will not be unsafe or unsound for the bank to relocate the office; and

(B) That the relocation of the office will not be substantially detrimental to the public convenience and advantage, or that the relocation is necessary in the interests of the safety and soundness of the bank; or

(2) In case the new site of the office is not in the same vicinity as the old site:

(A) That the bank's plan to relocate the office and to maintain the office at the new site affords reasonable promise of successful operation;

(B) That the relocation of the office from the old site will not be substantially detrimental to the public convenience and advantage in the area which is primarily served by the office at the old site, or that the relocation is necessary in the interests of the safety and soundness of the bank; and

(C) That the relocation of the office to the new site will promote the public convenience and advantage.

If the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application.

(c) Whenever an application by a foreign (other nation) bank for approval to relocate an agency or branch office has been approved and all conditions precedent to the issuance of a license authorizing such bank to maintain such office at the new site have been fulfilled, the commissioner shall issue such license.

(d) Promptly after a foreign (other nation) bank which is licensed to maintain an agency or branch office relocates such office, such bank shall surrender to the commissioner the license which authorized it to maintain such office at the old site.

SEC. 232. Section 1755 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1755. (a) A foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed to maintain an agency or branch office may transact commercial banking business at the office, subject to the following:

(1) In case the office is a nondepositary agency, the bank shall not transact the business of accepting deposits.

(2) In case the office is a depositary agency, the bank shall not transact the business of accepting any deposits other than deposits of (A) a foreign nation, (B) an agency or instrumentality of a foreign nation, or (C) a person which resides, is domiciled, and maintains its principal place of business in a foreign nation. For purposes of this paragraph, "person" means any individual, proprietorship, joint venture, partnership, trust, business trust, syndicate, association, joint stock company, corporation, limited liability company, or any other organization or any branch or division thereof.

(3) In case the office is a limited branch office, the bank shall not transact the business of accepting any deposits other than (A) deposits of the kind described in paragraph (2), or (B) deposits that the bank is permitted to accept pursuant to the agreement or undertaking that it enters into with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System in accordance with Section 5(a)(2)(B) of the International Banking Act of 1978.

(4) In case the office is a wholesale branch office, the bank shall not transact the business of accepting any deposits other than (A) deposits of the kind described in paragraph (2), (B) deposits of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or more, or (C) deposits the acceptance of which the commissioner determines by regulation or order do not constitute engaging in domestic retail deposit activities requiring deposit insurance protection.

(5) In case the office is an agency, limited branch office, or wholesale branch office, the bank may, subject to any regulations that the commissioner may prescribe, maintain credit balances.

(6) In any case, the bank shall not transact any business that it is not authorized to transact or is prohibited from transacting under the law of its domicile or that commercial banks organized under the laws of this state are not authorized to transact or are prohibited from transacting.

(b) No foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed to maintain an agency or branch office shall transact any trust business at the office except as permitted under Section 1503.

SEC. 232.1. Section 1755 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1755. (a) A foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed to maintain an agency or branch office may transact commercial banking business at the office, subject to the following:

(1) In case the office is a nondepositary agency, the bank shall not transact the business of accepting deposits.

(2) In case the office is a depositary agency, the bank shall not transact the business of accepting any deposits other than deposits of

(A) a foreign nation, (B) an agency or instrumentality of a foreign nation, or (C) a person which resides, is domiciled, and maintains its principal place of business in a foreign nation. For purposes of this paragraph, "person" means any individual, proprietorship, joint venture, partnership, trust, business trust, syndicate, association, joint stock company, corporation, limited liability company, or any other organization or any branch or division thereof.

(3) In case the office is a limited branch office, the bank shall not transact the business of accepting any deposits other than (A) deposits of the kind described in paragraph (2), or (B) deposits that a corporation organized under Section 25A of the Federal Reserve Act is permitted to accept.

(4) In case the office is a wholesale branch office, the bank shall not transact the business of accepting any deposits other than (A) deposits of the kind described in paragraph (2), (B) deposits of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or more, or (C) deposits the acceptance of which the commissioner determines by regulation or order do not constitute engaging in domestic retail deposit activities requiring deposit insurance protection.

(5) In case the office is an agency, limited branch office, or wholesale branch office, the bank may, subject to any regulations that the commissioner may prescribe, maintain credit balances.

(6) In any case, the bank shall not transact any business that it is not authorized to transact or is prohibited from transacting under the law of its domicile or that commercial banks organized under the laws of this state are not authorized to transact or are prohibited from transacting.

(b) No foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed to maintain an agency or branch office shall transact any trust business at the office except as permitted under Section 1503.

SEC. 233. Section 1757 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1757. (a) Whenever the commissioner calls for a report under Section 1931 from commercial banks organized under the laws of this state, the commissioner shall call for a report from each foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed to transact business in this state.

(b) (1) A foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed to transact business in this state shall prominently display in the lobby of each agency and branch office, except an automated teller machine branch office, as defined in Section 550, a notice that any person may obtain a financial report from the bank. The notice shall include the address and telephone number of the person or office to be contacted for a financial report. The bank shall, after receiving a request for a financial report, promptly mail or otherwise furnish the financial report to the requester. The first financial report shall be provided without charge.

(2) The financial report called for in this subdivision shall contain either (A) the information that the commissioner may require by regulation or (B) in the absence of a regulation the last balance sheet and income statement, each without any schedules, that the bank filed with the commissioner pursuant to Section 1931.

SEC. 233.1. Section 1757 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1757. (a) Whenever the commissioner calls for a report under Section 1931 from commercial banks organized under the laws of this state, the commissioner shall call for a report from each foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed to transact business in this state.

(b) (1) A foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed to transact business in this state shall prominently display in the lobby of each agency and branch office, except an automated teller machine branch office (as defined in Section 550), a notice that any person may obtain a financial report from the bank. The notice shall include the address and telephone number of the person or office to be contacted for a financial report. The bank shall, promptly after receiving a request for a financial report, mail or otherwise furnish the financial report to the requester. The first financial report shall be provided without charge.

(2) The financial report called for in this subdivision shall contain either (A) the information that the commissioner may require by regulation or (B) in the absence of a regulation, the last balance sheet and income statement, each without any schedules, that the bank filed with the commissioner pursuant to Section 1931.

SEC. 234. Section 1758 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1758. Each foreign (other nation) bank which is licensed to maintain a depositary agency, limited branch office, or wholesale branch office shall, in accordance with such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe, give notice that deposits in such office are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

SEC. 235. Section 1759 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1759. (a) In case a foreign (other nation) bank is licensed to maintain a depositary agency or branch office and such office is not subject to the regulations of the Depository Institutions Deregulation Committee, Regulation Q of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, or Part 329 of the regulations of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, such bank shall, with respect to deposits accepted at the office, comply with such regulations regarding maximum interest rates on deposits, prepayment of time deposits, and related matters as the commissioner may prescribe as being necessary and appropriate to maintain competitive equality between foreign (other nation) banks and banks organized under the laws of this state which are subject to the regulations of the Depository Institutions Deregulation Committee, Regulation Q of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, or Part 329 of the regulations of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

(b) For purposes of, and notwithstanding any contrary provisions of, Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340), Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, whenever the commissioner adopts a regulation or order of repeal of a regulation under subdivision (a), the commissioner may, without describing specific facts showing the need for immediate action, find that adoption of such regulation or order of repeal is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, or general welfare, and such regulation or order of repeal shall be deemed to be necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, or general welfare.

SEC. 236. Section 1761 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1761. (a) In this section:

(1) "Adjusted liabilities," when used with respect to a foreign (other nation) bank, means the liabilities of such bank's business in this state, excluding (A) accrued expenses, (B) any liability to an office (whether in or outside of this state) or majority-owned subsidiary of the bank, and (C) such other liabilities as the commissioner may by regulation or order exclude.

(2) "Applicable minimum," when used with respect to eligible assets deposited or to be deposited with an approved depository by a foreign (other nation) bank, means such amount as the commissioner may from time to time by regulation or order determine to be necessary for the maintenance of sound financial condition, for the protection of the interests of creditors of the bank's business in this state, or for the protection of the public interest. However, in the case of a foreign (other nation) bank which is licensed to maintain a branch office, the applicable minimum shall in no event be less than 5 percent of the adjusted liabilities of such bank.

(3) "Approved depository," when used with respect to a foreign (other nation) bank, means a bank organized under the laws of this state or a national bank headquartered in this state which has been selected by such foreign (other nation) bank and approved by the commissioner for the purpose of acting as the approved depository of the foreign (other nation) bank and which has filed with the commissioner, in such form as the commissioner may by regulation or order prescribe, an agreement to comply with all applicable provisions of this section and of any regulation or order issued under this section.

(4) "Eligible assets" when used with respect to a foreign (other nation) bank, means any of the following:

(A) Cash.

(B) Any security of the type described in Section 1542.

(C) Any negotiable certificate of deposit which (i) has a maturity of not more than one year, (ii) is payable in the United States, and (iii) is issued by a bank organized under the laws of a state of the United States, by a national bank, or by a branch office of a foreign (other nation) bank which is located in the United States.

(D) Any commercial paper which is payable in the United States and which is rated P-1 or its equivalent by a nationally recognized rating service; provided, however, that any conflict in rating shall be resolved in favor of the lower rating.

(E) Any banker's acceptance which is payable in the United States and which is eligible for discount with a Federal Reserve bank.

(F) Any other asset which the commissioner by regulation or order determines to be eligible.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, "eligible asset," when used with respect to a foreign (other nation) bank, does not include any instrument the issuer of which (i) is, or is affiliated with, such foreign (other nation) bank, (ii) is domiciled in, or controlled by a bank or other person domiciled in, the same foreign nation as the foreign (other nation) bank, or (iii) is, or is controlled by, such foreign nation. For purposes of the foregoing provision, to be "affiliated" means to control, to be controlled by, or to be under common control with; and to "control" has the meaning set forth in subdivision (b) of Section 700.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) The amount of adjusted liabilities of a foreign (other nation) bank's business in this state shall be computed for such period, in such manner, and on such basis as the commissioner may by regulation or order prescribe.

(2) Any eligible asset shall be valued at the lesser of market or par.

(c) (1) Before any foreign (other nation) bank is licensed to transact business in this state, such bank shall deposit, and each foreign (other nation) bank which is licensed to transact business in this state shall maintain on deposit, with an approved depository eligible assets having a value in an amount not less than the applicable minimum.

(2) Whenever a foreign (other nation) bank which is licensed to transact business in this state ceases to be so licensed, such bank shall thereafter maintain on deposit with an approved depository eligible assets having a value in an amount not less than the applicable minimum for such period of time as the commissioner may determine to be necessary for the protection of creditors of the bank's business in this state or for the protection of the public interest.

(d) (1) No foreign (other nation) bank which maintains eligible assets on deposit with an approved depository pursuant to this section shall withdraw any such eligible assets except with the prior approval of the commissioner.

(2) No approved depository which holds eligible assets on deposit from a foreign (other nation) bank pursuant to this section shall release any such eligible assets except with the prior approval of the commissioner or as otherwise provided in subdivision (h).

(e) Any foreign (other nation) bank which maintains eligible assets on deposit with an approved depository pursuant to this section shall, unless the commissioner shall have suspended or revoked its license to transact business in this state or taken possession of its property and business in this state, be entitled to receive any income paid on such eligible assets.

(f) (1) Whenever a foreign (other nation) bank deposits eligible assets with, or withdraws eligible assets from, an approved depository pursuant to this section, such bank shall do so in accordance with such procedures and requirements as the commissioner may by regulation or order prescribe.

(2) Whenever an approved depository receives, holds, or releases eligible assets pursuant to this section, such approved depository shall do so in accordance with such procedures and requirements as the commissioner may by regulation or order prescribe and shall file with the commissioner such reports as and when the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

(g) Whenever a foreign (other nation) bank maintains eligible assets on deposit with an approved depository pursuant to this section:

(1) The eligible assets shall be deemed to be pledged to the commissioner for the benefit of the creditors of the bank's business in this state; and, notwithstanding any provision of the Uniform Commercial Code to the contrary, the commissioner, for the benefit of such creditors, shall be deemed to have a security interest in such eligible assets.

(2) The eligible assets shall be free from any lien, charge, right of setoff, credit, or preference in connection with any claim of the approved depository against the bank.

(h) (1) In case the commissioner takes possession of the property and business of a foreign (other nation) bank which maintains eligible assets on deposit with an approved depository pursuant to this section, such approved depository shall, upon order of the commissioner, release such eligible assets to the commissioner, as liquidator of the property and business of such bank.

(2) In case a foreign (other nation) bank which maintains eligible assets on deposit with an approved depository pursuant to this section fails to pay any judgment creditor of its business in this state and the commissioner has not taken possession of the property and business of such bank, such approved depository shall release such eligible assets to the commissioner, and the commissioner shall make such disposition of the eligible assets, as a court of competent jurisdiction of this state or of the United States may order for the benefit of such judgment creditor. For purposes of this paragraph, "judgment creditor of its business in this state" means a person to whom the bank is required to pay money under a judgment which (A) arose out of the bank's business in this state, (B) has been entered by a court of this state or of the United States, (C) has become final, in that all possibility of direct attack on such judgment by way of appeal, motion for new trial, motion to vacate, or petition for extraordinary writ has been exhausted, and (D) has remained unpaid for a period of not less than 60 days after becoming final.

SEC. 237. Section 1762 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1762. (a) In this section:

(1) "Adjusted liabilities," when used with respect to a foreign (other nation) bank which is licensed to maintain a branch office in this state, means the liabilities of such bank's business in this state, excluding (A) accrued expenses, (B) any liability to an office (whether in or outside of this state) or majority-owned subsidiary of the bank, and (C) such other liabilities as the commissioner may by regulation or order exclude.

(2) "Eligible assets" means any asset which the commissioner by regulation or order determines to be eligible for purposes of this section. However, "eligible asset," when used with respect to a foreign (other nation) bank which is licensed to maintain a branch office, includes (A) any asset which such bank maintains on deposit pursuant to Section 1761 and (B) any reserves which the bank maintains with respect to its business in this state in accordance with requirements prescribed by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

(b) For purposes of this section, the amount of eligible assets and the amount of adjusted liabilities of a foreign (other nation) bank which is licensed to maintain a branch office in this state shall each be computed for such period, in such manner, and on such basis as the commissioner may by regulation or order prescribe.

(c) A foreign (other nation) bank licensed to maintain a branch office in this state shall hold at its branch offices in this state or at such other places as the commissioner may approve, eligible assets in such amount, if any, as the commissioner may from time to time by regulation or order determine to be necessary for the maintenance of sound financial condition, for the protection of the interests of creditors of the bank's business in this state, or for the protection of the public interest. However, in no event shall such amount exceed 108 percent of the adjusted liabilities of the bank's business in this state.

(d) If the commissioner finds, with respect to a foreign (other nation) bank licensed to maintain a branch office in this state, that such action is necessary for the maintenance of sound financial condition, for the protection of the interests of creditors of such bank's business in this state, or for the protection of the public interest, the commissioner may order the bank to place all or part of the eligible assets which the bank is required to hold under subdivision (c) in the custody of such bank organized under the laws of this state or such national bank headquartered in this state as the commissioner may designate.

SEC. 238. Section 1763 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1763. (a) (1) No foreign (other nation) bank which is licensed to maintain an agency or branch office shall close such office unless the commissioner shall have first approved such closing.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not be deemed to prohibit a foreign (other nation) bank which is licensed to maintain an agency or branch office from closing such office in accordance with Article 4 (commencing with Section 1775).

(b) If the commissioner finds the following with respect to an application by a foreign (other nation) bank for approval to close an agency or branch office, the commissioner shall approve such application:

(1) That it will not be unsafe or unsound for the bank to close the office; and

(2) That the closing of the office will not be substantially detrimental to the public convenience and advantage or that the closing of the office is necessary in the interests of the safety and soundness of the bank.

If the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application.

(c) Whenever an application by a foreign (other nation) bank for approval to close an agency or branch office has been approved and all conditions precedent to such closing have been fulfilled, such bank may close such office and shall promptly thereafter surrender to the commissioner the license which authorized it to maintain the office.

SEC. 239. Section 1775 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1775. (a) Any foreign (other nation) bank that holds a license to maintain an office may voluntarily surrender the license by filing the license and a report with the commissioner. However, any foreign (other nation) bank that holds licenses to maintain two or more offices may not voluntarily surrender less than all of the licenses.

(b) (1) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (2), a voluntary surrender of a license shall be effective on the 30th day after the license and the report called for in subdivision (a) are filed with the commissioner or on an earlier date as the commissioner may by order specify.

(2) If a proceeding to revoke or suspend a license is pending at the time when the license and the report called for in subdivision (a) are filed with the commissioner or if a proceeding to revoke or suspend a license or to impose conditions upon the surrender of a license is instituted before the 30th day after the license and the report called for in subdivision (a) are filed with the commissioner, the voluntary surrender of the license shall become effective at the time and upon the conditions that the commissioner may by order specify.

SEC. 240. Section 1780 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1780. If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds that any person has violated any provision of this chapter or of any regulation or order issued under this chapter, the commissioner may order such person to pay to the commissioner a civil penalty in such amount as the commissioner may specify; provided, however, that the amount of such civil penalty shall not exceed one hundred dollars ($100) for each violation or, in the case of a continuing violation, one hundred dollars ($100) for each day for which such violation continues.

SEC. 241. Section 1781 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1781. If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds any of the following with respect to a foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed to maintain an office, the commissioner may issue an order suspending or revoking the license of the bank:

(a) That the bank has violated any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division or any provision of any other applicable law, regulation, or order;

(b) That the bank, in case it is licensed to transact business in this state, is transacting the business in an unsafe or unsound manner or, in any case, is transacting business elsewhere in an unsafe or unsound manner;

(c) That the bank is in unsafe or unsound condition;

(d) That the bank has ceased to operate its office;

(e) That the bank is insolvent in that it has ceased to pay its debts in the ordinary course of business, it cannot pay its debts as they become due, or its liabilities exceed its assets;

(f) That the bank has suspended payment of its obligations, has made an assignment for the benefit of its creditors, or has admitted in writing its inability to pay its debts as they become due;

(g) That the bank has applied for an adjudication of bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, or other relief under any bankruptcy, reorganization, insolvency, or moratorium law, or that any person has applied for any such relief under any such law against the bank and the bank has by any affirmative act approved of or consented to the action or the relief has been granted;

(h) That a receiver, liquidator, or conservator has been appointed for the bank or that any proceeding for such an appointment or any similar proceeding has been initiated in the place where the bank is domiciled;

(i) That the existence of the bank or the authority of the bank to transact banking business under the laws of the place where the bank is domiciled has been suspended or terminated; or

(j) That any fact or condition exists that, if it had existed at the time when the bank applied for its license to transact business in this state, would have been grounds for denying the application.

SEC. 242. Section 1782 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1782. (a) If the commissioner finds that any of the factors set forth in Section 1781 is true with respect to any foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed to maintain an office and that it is necessary, in case the bank is licensed to transact business in this state, for the protection of the interests of creditors of the bank's business in this state or, in any case, for the protection of the public interest that the commissioner immediately suspend or revoke the license of the bank, the commissioner may issue an order suspending or revoking the license of the bank.

(b) (1) Within 30 days after an order is issued pursuant to subdivision (a), the foreign (other nation) bank to which the order is issued may file with the commissioner an application for a hearing on the order. If the commissioner fails to commence the hearing within 15 business days after the application is filed with the commissioner (or within any longer period to which the bank consents), the order shall be deemed rescinded. Within 30 days after the hearing, the commissioner shall affirm, modify, or rescind the order; otherwise, the order shall be deemed rescinded.

(2) The right of any foreign (other nation) bank to which an order is issued under subdivision (a) to petition for judicial review of the order shall not be affected by the failure of the bank to apply to the commissioner for a hearing on the order pursuant to paragraph (1).

SEC. 243. Section 1783 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1783. Any foreign (other nation) bank whose license to maintain an office is suspended or revoked shall immediately surrender the license to the commissioner.

SEC. 244. Section 1784 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1784. (a) Any foreign (other nation) bank to which an order is issued under Section 1781 or 1782 may apply to the commissioner to modify or rescind such order. The commissioner shall not grant the application unless he or she finds that it is in the public interest to do so and that it is reasonable to believe that the bank will, if and when it is again licensed to maintain an office, comply with all applicable provisions of this division and of any regulation or order issued under this division.

(b) The right of any foreign (other nation) bank to which an order is issued under Section 1781 or 1782 to petition for judicial review of the order shall not be affected by the failure of the bank to apply to the commissioner pursuant to subdivision (a) to modify or rescind the order.

SEC. 245. Section 1785 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1785. (a) If the commissioner finds that any of the factors set forth in Section 1781 is true with respect to any foreign (other nation) bank which is licensed to transact business in this state and that it is necessary for the protection of the interests of the creditors of such bank's business in this state or for the protection of the public interest that he or she take immediate possession of the property and business of the bank, the commissioner may by order forthwith take possession of the property and business of the bank and retain possession until the bank resumes business in this state or is finally liquidated. The bank may, with the consent of the commissioner, resume business in this state upon such conditions as the commissioner may prescribe.

(b) (1) Whenever the commissioner takes possession of the property and business of a foreign (other nation) bank pursuant to subdivision (a), such bank may, within 10 days, apply to the superior court in the county in which the primary office of the bank is located to enjoin further proceedings. The court may, after citing the commissioner to show cause why further proceedings should not be enjoined and after a hearing, dismiss such application or enjoin the commissioner from further proceedings and order him or her to surrender the property and business of the bank to the bank or make such further order as may be just.

(2) The judgment of the court may be appealed by the commissioner or by the bank in the manner provided by law for appeals from the judgment of a superior court. In case the commissioner appeals the judgment of the court, such appeal shall operate as a stay of the judgment, and the commissioner shall not be required to post any bond.

(c) Whenever the commissioner takes possession of the property and business of a foreign (other nation) bank pursuant to subdivision (a), the commissioner shall conserve or liquidate the property and business of such bank pursuant to Articles 1 (commencing with Section 3100), 3 (commencing with Section 3160) and 6 (commencing with Section 3220) of Chapter 17, and the provisions of such articles (except Sections 3100, 3101, 3102, and 3126) shall apply as if the bank were a bank organized under the laws of this state.

(d) When the commissioner has completed the liquidation of the property and business of a foreign (other nation) bank, the commissioner shall transfer any remaining assets to such bank in accordance with such orders as the court may issue. However, in case the bank has an office in another state of the United States which is in liquidation and the assets of such office appear to be insufficient to pay in full the creditors of the office, the court shall order the commissioner to transfer to the liquidator of the office such amount of any such remaining assets as appears to be necessary to cover such insufficiency; if there are two or more such offices and the amount of remaining assets is less than the aggregate amount of insufficiencies with respect to the offices, the court shall order the commissioner to distribute the remaining assets among the liquidators of such offices in such manner as the court finds equitable.

SEC. 246. Section 1800.3 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1800.3. (a) No person shall engage in the business of receiving money for the purpose of transmitting the same or its equivalent to foreign countries without first obtaining a license from the commissioner.

(b) This chapter shall not apply to any of the following:

(1) A bank, the deposits of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or its successor, or any foreign (other nation) bank which is licensed under Article 3 (commencing with Section 1750) of Chapter 13.5 or which is authorized under federal law to maintain a federal agency or federal branch office in this state.

(2) A trust company licensed pursuant to Section 401 or a national association authorized under federal law to engage in a trust banking business.

(3) An association or federal association, as defined in Section 5102 the deposits of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or its successor.

(4) Any federally or state chartered credit union the member accounts of which are insured or guaranteed as provided in Section 14858.

(5) An industrial loan company or thrift and loan company, as defined in Section 18003, the investment certificates of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or its successor.

SEC. 247. Section 1800.4 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1800.4. (a) The receipt of money by an incorporated telegraph company, or its agents, for immediate transmission by telegraph to foreign countries shall be exempt from licensure under this chapter until July 1, 1990, provided each of the following conditions is satisfied.

(1) The company has applied before February 1, 1990, to the commissioner for licensure under this chapter.

(2) The company, and its agents, shall comply with and be subject to all applicable provisions of this chapter.

(3) The company directly, or through agents, on or before February 1, 1989, received money for immediate transmission by telegraph to foreign countries.

(b) The commissioner may extend the licensure exemption period provided in subdivision (a) once for up to 60 days for an applicant incorporated telegraph company in the event that the commissioner is unable to approve or deny the application before July 1, 1990, provided that the applicant incorporated telegraph company shall continue to comply with paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, of subdivision (a) during the extension period.

SEC. 247.1. Section 1800.4 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1800.4. The receipt of money by an incorporated telegraph company, or its agents, for immediate transmission by telegraph to foreign countries shall be exempt from licensure under this chapter until July 1, 1990, provided each of the following conditions is satisfied.

(1) The company has applied before February 1, 1990, to the commissioner for licensure under this chapter.

(2) The company, and its agents, shall comply with and be subject to all applicable provisions of this chapter.

(3) The company directly, or through agents, on or before February 1, 1989, received money for immediate transmission by telegraph to foreign countries.

SEC. 248. Section 1800.7 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1800.7. (a) As used in this section, "designated person" means any agent, any applicant, the officers, directors, and controlling persons of any applicant or agent, and the directors and officers of the controlling persons of any applicant or agent.

(b) For the purposes of Sections 1802.2, 1803.5, and 1804, each of the following applies:

(1) The commissioner may, in the absence of the credible evidence to the contrary, presume that designated persons are each of good character and sound financial standing.

(2) The commissioner may find that a designated person is not of good character if that person has done any of the following:

(A) Been convicted of, or has pleaded nolo contendere to, any crime involving an act of fraud or dishonesty.

(B) Consented to or suffered a judgment in any civil action based on conduct involving an act of fraud or dishonesty.

(C) Consented to or suffered the suspension or revocation of any professional, occupational, or vocational license based upon conduct involving an act of fraud or dishonesty.

(D) Willfully made or caused to be made in any application or report filed with the commissioner or in any proceeding before the commissioner, any statement which was at the time and in the light of the circumstances under which it was made false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or has willfully omitted to state in any application or report any material fact which was required to be stated therein.

(E) Willfully committed any violation of, or has willfully aided, abetted, counseled, commanded, induced, or procured the violation by any other person of, any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division.

(3) Paragraph (2) shall not be deemed to be an exclusive list of grounds upon which the commissioner may find that a designated person is not of good character.

SEC. 249. Section 1800.9 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1800.9. The commissioner may impose on any authorization, approval, license, or order issued pursuant to this chapter any conditions that he or she deems reasonable or necessary to the public interest.

SEC. 250. Section 1801 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1801. (a) Fees shall be paid to, and collected by, the commissioner, as follows:

(1) The fee for filing with the commissioner an application for a license is five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(2) The fee for filing with the commissioner an application for authorization to appoint an agent is seventy-five dollars ($75). This paragraph shall become inoperative as of July 1, 1991.

(3) The fee for filing with the commissioner an application for approval to acquire control of a licensee is three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500).

(4) The fee for filing with the commissioner an application for approval to establish a branch office of a licensee is two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(5) The fee for filing with the commissioner an application for approval to establish a branch office of an agent is fifty dollars ($50).

(6) The fee for filing with the commissioner an application for extension of an approval to establish a branch office is one hundred dollars ($100).

(7) A licensee shall pay to the commissioner annually on or before July 1, a licensee fee of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500).

(8) A licensee shall pay to the commissioner annually on or before July 1, one hundred twenty-five dollars ($125) for each licensee branch office.

(9) A licensee shall pay to the commissioner annually on or before July 1, twenty-five dollars ($25) for each agent headquarter office and each agent branch office.

(10) Whenever the commissioner examines a licensee or any agent of a licensee, the licensee shall pay, within 10 days after receipt of a statement from the commissioner, a fee of four hundred dollars ($400) per day for each examiner engaged in the examination plus, if it is necessary for any examiner engaged in the examination to travel outside this state, the travel expenses of the examiner.

(b) (1) Each fee for filing an application with the commissioner shall be paid at the time the application is filed with the commissioner.

(2) No fee for filing an application with the commissioner shall be refundable, regardless of whether the application is approved, denied, or withdrawn.

SEC. 251. Section 1801.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1801.1. Each fiscal year the commissioner shall levy an assessment on a pro rata basis on those licensees which at any time during the preceding calendar year received transmission money. The total assessment levied on all of those licensees shall be in an amount which, when added to the fees that the commissioner collects during the fiscal year the assessment is levied, is sufficient to meet the expenses of the commissioner in administering this chapter and to provide a reasonable reserve for contingencies. The basis of the apportionment of the assessment among the licensees assessed shall be the proportion that the amount of transmission money received by the licensee bears to the total amount of transmission money received by all licensees as shown by the reports of licensees to the commissioner for the preceding calendar year, as required by Section 1807. The assessment rate shall be fixed from time to time by the commissioner but shall not exceed one dollar ($1) per one thousand dollars ($1,000) of transmission money received by the licensee.

The commissioner shall notify each licensee by mail of the amount levied against it. The licensee shall pay the amount levied within 20 days. If payment is not made to the commissioner within that time, the commissioner shall assess and collect, in addition to the annual assessment, a penalty of 5 percent of the assessment for each month or part thereof that the payment is delinquent.

This section shall not become operative until July 1, 1990.

SEC. 252. Section 1802 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1802. (a) An application for a license shall be in writing, under oath, and in a form prescribed by the commissioner. It shall contain the name and address of the applicant, and of every officer and director thereof. The application shall also contain any other information the commissioner may require.

(b) No person other than a corporation may apply for or be issued a license.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 1819, all licenses issued prior to January 1, 1985, to noncorporate persons shall be automatically revoked on June 30, 1985. Until June 30, 1985, the fee for filing an application for a license shall be waived if a person which controls the applicant is a noncorporate person which held a license on December 31, 1984.

SEC. 252.1. Section 1802 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1802. (a) An application for a license shall be in writing, under oath, and in a form prescribed by the commissioner. It shall contain the name and address of the applicant, and of every officer and director thereof. The application shall also contain any other information the commissioner may require.

(b) No person other than a corporation may apply for or be issued a license.

SEC. 253. Section 1802.2 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1802.2. If the commissioner finds, with respect to an application for a license:

(a) That the applicant has adequate capital as specified in Section 1814 to engage in the business of receiving money for transmission and that the financial condition of the applicant is otherwise such that it will be safe and sound for the applicant to engage in the business of receiving money.

(b) That the applicant, the directors, and officers of, and any person which controls the applicant, and the directors and officers of any person which controls the applicant, are of good character and sound financial standing.

(c) That the applicant is competent to engage in the business of receiving money for transmission.

(d) That the applicant's plan for engaging in the business of receiving money for transmission affords reasonable promise of successful operation.

(e) That it is reasonable to believe that the applicant, if licensed, will engage in the business of receiving money for transmission and will comply with all applicable provisions of this chapter and of any regulation or order issued under this chapter, the commissioner shall approve the application. If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application.

SEC. 254. Section 1802.7 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1802.7. If the application is approved by the commissioner he or she shall, upon the payment of the license fees, issue and deliver to the applicant a license to engage in business in accordance with this chapter.

SEC. 255. Section 1802.8 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1802.8. (a) Before any applicant is issued a license the applicant shall file with the commissioner, in the form required by the commissioner, an irrevocable consent appointing the commissioner to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal judicial or administrative proceeding against the person, that person's successor, executor, or administrator, which arises under this chapter or any regulation or order issued under this chapter after the consent has been filed.

(b) Service of process after consents have been filed pursuant to this section shall have the same force and validity as if personally served on the person.

(c) Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process at any office of the commissioner, but the service is not effective unless (1) the party making the service, who may be the commissioner, immediately sends notice of the service and a copy of the process by registered or certified mail to the party served at his or her last address on file with the commissioner, and (2) an affidavit of compliance with this section by the party making service is filed in the case on or before the return date, if any, or any further time that the court, in the case of a judicial proceeding, or the administrative agency, in the case of an administrative proceeding, allows.

(d) Any consent filed pursuant to this section shall be deemed to have appointed the commissioner and any successor from time to time in office.

SEC. 256. Section 1803 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1803. No licensee shall appoint or continue any person as an agent, unless the licensee and the person have made a written contract which contains each of the following provisions:

(a) That the licensee appoints the person as its agent with authority to receive transmission money on behalf of the licensee.

(b) That the person make and keep accounts, correspondence, memorandums, papers, books, and other records as the commissioner by regulation or order requires and preserve the records for the time specified by the regulation or order.

(c) That all funds, less fees due agents provided for and expressly set forth, received by the person from the receipt of transmission money on behalf of the licensee shall be trust funds owned by and belonging to the person from whom they were received until the time that directions have been given by the licensee or its agents for payment abroad of the remittance and funds provided for the payment.

(d) Any other provisions that the commissioner may find to be necessary to carry out the provisions and purposes of this chapter.

(e) This section shall not apply to any written contract between a licensee and an agent appointed by the licensee prior to February 1, 1989, unless the commissioner, in his or her sole discretion, determines that compliance with this section is necessary and appropriate. For purpose of this subdivision only, "licensee" means an incorporated telegraph company which existed on February 1, 1989, or any wholly owned incorporated subsidiary of that telegraph company.

SEC. 257. Section 1803.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1803.5. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), no person shall act as an agent of a licensee, or act in any other similar capacity, and no licensee shall appoint another person to act as an agent, or to act in any other similar capacity, for the receipt of transmission money on behalf of that licensee without first obtaining the authorization of the commissioner.

(b) (1) Any person appointed as an agent by a licensee before February 1, 1989, may continue to act as an agent for that licensee, without the original appointment having been authorized by the commissioner as provided in this section. However, the licensee shall notify the commissioner by March 31, 1990, of all agents appointed by the licensee prior to February 1, 1989. The commissioner may thereafter issue an order revoking or suspending any agent appointed prior to February 1, 1989, as provided by this section. With respect to any person appointed as an agent by a licensee on or after February 1, 1989, and before January 1, 1990, the licensee shall comply with the requirements for approval set forth in this section on or before March 31, 1990. However, the application fee otherwise required for the application shall be waived. This limited category of agents may continue to serve as an agent of the licensee for 45 days after filing the application with the commissioner but in no event beyond May 15, 1990, without approval of the application by the commissioner under subdivision (d).

(2) Any incorporated telegraph company which had more than 1,000 agents on February 1, 1989, or a wholly owned subsidiary of that telegraph company, either of which applies for licensure under this chapter, shall notify the commissioner at the time of application, or, if the application was filed prior to January 1, 1990, shall notify the commissioner not later than February 1, 1990, of any agent who has been an agent with that company continuously for at least five years prior to February 1, 1989. Any agent that has been with that telegraph company continuously for at least five years prior to February 1, 1989, may, from the time the license is issued by the commissioner, continue to act as an agent for that company without the original appointment having been authorized by the commissioner as provided in this section. The commissioner may thereafter issue an order revoking or suspending any agent appointed by that company who has been an agent with the company continuously for at least five years prior to February 1, 1989, as provided by this section.

(c) An application for the appointment of an agent shall be submitted by a licensee for each proposed agent, shall be in writing, under oath, and in a form prescribed by the commissioner. The application shall contain that information which the commissioner may require.

(d) If the application for the appointment of an agent is not approved or denied within 45 days after the application is filed with the commissioner, the application shall be deemed to be approved by the commissioner as of the first day after the 45-day period.

For purposes of this subdivision, an application for the appointment of an agent is deemed to be filed with the commissioner at the time when the complete application, including any amendments or supplements, containing all the information in the form required by the commissioner, is received by the commissioner.

The commissioner may disapprove the application for the appointment of an agent by a licensee if the commissioner finds any of the following:

(1) That the operations and financial condition of the licensee indicate that the licensee is not competent to appoint the proposed agent to receive transmission money and to supervise the proposed agent.

(2) That the proposed agent, any person who controls the proposed agent, and any director or officer of the proposed agent or of any person who controls the proposed agent, if any, are not of good character or of sound financial standing.

(3) That the proposed agent is not competent to engage in the business of receiving money for transmission.

(4) That it is reasonable to believe that the proposed agent, if it becomes an agent of a licensee, will not comply with all applicable provisions of this chapter and of any regulation or order issued under this chapter.

(e) An agent of a licensee shall not appoint a subagent to receive transmission money.

(f) Each licensee shall be liable as a principal for the transmission of the transmission money at the time when the transmission money is received by the agent.

(g) The commissioner may issue an order revoking or suspending any authorization issued pursuant to this section or revoking authority to continue any agent appointed prior to February 1, 1989, if, after a hearing, the commissioner finds any of the following:

(1) The agent has violated this chapter or any regulation adopted by the commissioner under this chapter.

(2) Any fact or condition exists which would be grounds for denying an application for authorization under subdivision (d).

(3) The agent is conducting its business in an unsafe manner.

(h) (1) If the commissioner finds that any of the factors set forth in subdivision (g) is true with respect to any agent and that it is necessary for the protection of the public interest that the commissioner immediately suspend or revoke the authorization issued pursuant to this section, the commissioner may issue an order suspending or revoking the authorization issued pursuant to this section.

(2) Within 30 days after an order is issued pursuant to paragraph (1), any licensee to whom the order is issued or any agent or former agent with respect to whom the order was issued may file with the commissioner an application for a hearing on the order. If the commissioner fails to commence a hearing within 15 business days after the application is filed with the commissioner, (or within a longer period of time agreed to by a licensee, agent, or former agent) the order shall be deemed rescinded. Within 30 days after the hearing the commissioner shall affirm, modify, or rescind the order. Otherwise the order shall be deemed rescinded. The right of any licensee to which an order has been issued under paragraph (1) or of the agent or former agent with respect to whom the order was issued to petition for judicial review of the order shall not be affected by the failure of the licensee, or the agent or former agent to apply to the commissioner for a hearing on the order pursuant to this paragraph.

(i) Section 1805 shall apply to the establishment of a branch office in this state by an agent of a licensee and Section 1805.5 shall apply to the relocation of a branch office in this state by an agent of a licensee.

SEC. 258. Section 1804 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1804. (a) No person shall, directly or indirectly, acquire control of a licensee unless the commissioner has first approved in writing of the acquisition of control. An application to acquire control of a licensee shall be in writing, under oath, and in a form prescribed by the commissioner. The application shall contain that information which the commissioner may require.

(b) The commissioner shall not approve the application unless the commissioner finds, all of the following:

(1) The applicant and the officers and directors of the applicant are of good character and sound financial standing.

(2) The applicant is competent to engage in the business of receiving money for transmission.

(3) It is reasonable to believe that, if the applicant acquires control of the licensee, the applicant will comply with all applicable provisions of this chapter and any regulation or order issued under this chapter.

(4) The applicant's plans, if any, to make any major change in the business, corporate structure, or management of the licensee are not detrimental to the safety and soundness of the licensee.

(c) For the purposes of subdivision (b), the commissioner may find an applicant's plan to make major changes in the management of a licensee is detrimental to the licensee if the plan provides for a person who is not of good character to become a director or officer of the licensee.

The grounds specified in this subdivision shall not be deemed to be the only grounds upon which the commissioner may find, for the purposes of subdivision (b), that an applicant's plan to make a major change in the management of a licensee is detrimental to the licensee.

(d) If it appears to the commissioner that any person is violating or failing to comply with this section, the commissioner may direct the person to comply with this section by an order issued over the commissioner's official seal.

(e) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has committed or is about to commit a violation of any provision of this section or of any regulation or order of the commissioner issued pursuant to this section, the commissioner may apply to the superior court for an order enjoining the person from violating or continuing to violate this section or that regulation or order, and for other equitable relief as the nature of the case or interests of the licensee, the controlling person, the creditors or shareholders of the licensee or controlling person or the public may require.

(f) The commissioner, may, for good cause, amend, alter, suspend, or revoke any approval of a proposal to acquire control of a licensee issued pursuant to this section.

(g) There shall be exempted from the provisions of this section any transaction which the commissioner by regulation or order exempts as not being comprehended within the purposes of this section and the regulation of which he or she finds is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of a licensee or the customers of a licensee.

SEC. 259. Section 1805 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1805. (a) For the purposes of this section "branch office" means any office in this state, other than the headquarters office of a licensee or agent, at which the licensee receives money for transmission to a foreign country, either directly or through an agent.

(b) A licensee shall not establish a branch office without first obtaining the approval of the commissioner.

(c) An application to establish and operate a branch office shall be in writing and in a form prescribed by the commissioner. The application shall contain that information which the commissioner may require.

(d) The commissioner shall deny an application to establish and operate a branch office where the operations or financial condition of the licensee or of the agent are not satisfactory.

(e) In case an application to establish and operate a branch office is not denied or approved by the commissioner within 60 days after the application is filed with the commissioner, or, if the commissioner extends the period within which the commissioner may act, within the extended period, the application shall be deemed to be approved by the commissioner as of the first day after the 60-day period or the extended period, as the case may be.

For purposes of this subdivision, an application to establish and operate a branch office shall be deemed to be filed with the commissioner at the time when the complete application, including any amendments or supplements, containing all the information in the form required by the commissioner, is received by the commissioner.

(f) The approval of an application for authority to establish and operate a branch office shall be revoked by operation of law with respect to any branch office which the applicant does not establish and operate, as the case may be, within one year after the date of approval by the commissioner. However, for good cause on written application made before the approval is revoked, the commissioner may extend the approval for additional periods not in excess of one year.

(g) Not less than 60 days prior to discontinuing the operation of a branch office, a licensee shall provide the commissioner and the public with written notice of the discontinuance in the manner the commissioner directs. This subdivision does not apply to the discontinuance of a branch office of an agent if the discontinuance of the branch office results from termination of the agency relationship.

SEC. 260. Section 1805.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1805.5. A licensee shall not change the location of a branch office without notifying the commissioner and the public in the manner as the commissioner directs at least 60 days before the date of the proposed relocation. For purposes of this section, "branch office" has the meaning specified in subdivision (a) of Section 1805.

SEC. 260.1. Section 1805.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1805.5. A licensee shall not change the location of a branch office without notifying the commissioner and the public in the manner as the commissioner directs at least 30 days before the date of the proposed relocation. For purposes of this section, "branch office" has the meaning specified in subdivision (a) of Section 1805.

SEC. 261. Section 1807 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1807. (a) Each licensee shall, not more than 90 days after the close of each of its fiscal years or within such longer period as the commissioner may, by regulation or order specify, file with the commissioner a report containing all of the following:

(1) Financial statements (including balance sheet, income statement, statement of changes in shareholders' equity, and statement of changes in financial position) for, or as of the end of, that fiscal year, verified by two of the licensee's principal officers. The verification shall state that each of the officers making it has a personal knowledge of the matters in the report and that each of them believes that each statement on the report is true.

(2) The current address of the headquarters office and each branch office of the licensee and each agent at which the licensee receives transmission money in this state. For the purposes of this paragraph, a branch office has the meaning set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 1805.

(3) The name and business address of each person which acted as an agent of the licensee during the last quarter of that fiscal year in this state, and if the person is no longer an agent of the licensee, the date on which the relationship terminated.

(4) Such other information as the commissioner may, by regulation or order, require.

(b) Each licensee shall, not more than 45 days after the end of each quarter (except the fourth quarter of its fiscal year), or within such longer period as the commissioner may by regulation or order specify, file with the commissioner a report containing all of the following:

(1) Financial statements (including balance sheet, income statement, statement of changes in shareholders' equity, and statement of changes in financial position) for, or as of the end of, that fiscal quarter, verified by two of the licensee's principal officers, in the manner described in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of this section.

(2) The current address of the headquarters office and each branch office of the licensee and each agent at which the licensee receives transmission money in this state.

(3) The name and business address of each person which acted as an agent of the licensee during the quarter in this state, and if such person is no longer an agent of the licensee, the date on which such relationship terminated.

(4) Such other information as the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

(c) Each licensee shall file with the commissioner such other reports as and when the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

SEC. 261.1. Section 1807 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1807. (a) The commissioner may by order or regulation grant exemptions from this section in case where the commissioner finds that the requirements of this section are not necessary.

(b) Each licensee shall, within 90 days after the end of each fiscal year, or within such extended time as the commissioner may prescribe, file with the commissioner an audit report for the fiscal year.

(c) The audit report called for in subdivision (b) shall comply with all of the following provisions:

(1) The audit report shall contain such audited financial statements of the licensee for or as of the end of the fiscal year prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and such other information as the commissioner may require.

(2) The audit report shall be based upon an audit of the bank conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and such other requirements as the commissioner may prescribe.

(3) The audit report shall be prepared by an independent certified public accountant or independent public accountant who is not unsatisfactory to the commissioner.

(4) The audit report shall include or be accompanied by a certificate of opinion of the independent certified public accountant or independent public accountant that is satisfactory in form and content to the commissioner. If the certificate or opinion is qualified, the commissioner may order the licensee to take such action as the commissioner may find necessary to enable the independent or certified public accountant or independent public accountant to remove the qualification.

(d) Each licensee shall, not more than 45 days after the end of each quarter (except the fourth quarter of its fiscal year), or within a longer period as the commissioner may by regulation or order specify, file with the commissioner a report containing all of the following:

(1) Financial statements, including balance sheet, income statement, statement of changes in shareholders' equity, and statement of cash flows, for, or as of the end of, that fiscal quarter, verified by two of the licensee's principal officers. The verification shall state that each of the officers making the verification has a personal knowledge of the matters in the report and that each of them believes that each statement on the report is true.

(2) The current address of the headquarters office and each branch office of the licensee and each agent at which the licensee receives transmission money in this state.

(3) The name and business address of each person who acted as an agent of the licensee during the quarter in this state, and if such person is no longer an agent of the licensee, the date on which such relationship terminated.

(4) Such other information as the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

(e) Each licensee shall file with the commissioner such other reports as and when the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

SEC. 262. Section 1807.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1807.5. (a) Each licensee and each agent of a licensee shall make, keep, and preserve within the United States such books, accounts, and other records in such form, in such manner, and for such time as the commissioner may by regulation or order specify.

(b) All references in this chapter to financial statements, balance sheets, income statements, and statements of changes in financial position of a licensee or agent of a licensee mean financial statements, income statements, and statements of changes in financial position prepared or determined in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles then applicable, fairly presenting in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles the matters which they purport to present.

SEC. 262.1. Section 1807.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1807.5. (a) Each licensee and each agent of a licensee shall make, keep, and preserve within the United States such books, accounts, and other records in such form, in such manner, and for such time as the commissioner may by regulation or order specify.

(b) All references in this chapter to financial statements, balance sheets, income statements, and statements of changes in financial position of a licensee or agent of a licensee mean financial statements, income statements, and statements of cash flows prepared or determined in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles then applicable, fairly presenting in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles the matters which they purport to present.

SEC. 263. Section 1808 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1808. (a) The commissioner may at any time and from time to time examine the business of any licensee or any agent of a licensee in order to ascertain whether that business is being conducted in a lawful manner and whether all moneys received for transmission are properly accounted for.

(b) The directors, officers, and employees of a licensee or agent of a licensee being examined by the commissioner shall exhibit to the commissioner, on request, any or all of the licensee's accounts, books, correspondence, memoranda, papers, and other records and shall otherwise facilitate the examination so far as it may be in their power to do so.

SEC. 264. Section 1809 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1809. (a) Each licensee shall file with the commissioner a certified copy of every receipt form used by it or by its agents for money received for transmission. No licensee or its agents shall use any receipt, a certified copy of which has not first been filed with and approved by the commissioner.

(b) If a receipt is required by this chapter to be in English and another language, the English version of the receipt shall govern any dispute concerning the terms of the receipt. However, any discrepancies between the English version and any other version due to the translation of the receipt from English to another language including errors or ambiguities shall be construed against the licensee or its agent and the licensee or its agent shall be liable for any damages caused by these discrepancies.

(c) Any licensee violating the requirements of this section shall be subject to a fine of fifty dollars ($50) for each violation.

(d) If any licensee or its agent uses a receipt form, a certified copy of which has not first been filed with and approved by the commissioner, the licensee shall be liable for the acts of its agents whether or not the licensee authorized the agent to use that form.

SEC. 265. Section 1811 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1811. (a) As security for the timely and proper delivery of transmission money received by it, each licensee subject to the order of the commissioner, shall deposit and thereafter maintain on deposit with the Treasurer cash in an amount not less than, or securities having a market value not less than, such amount as the commissioner may find and specify as necessary for the protection of transmission money received by such licensee. These securities are subject to the approval of the commissioner and shall consist of interest-bearing bonds, notes, or other obligations of the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or of the State of California, or of any city, county, or city and county, political subdivision or district of the State of California, or which are guaranteed by the United States or the State of California.

(b) So long as a licensee which maintains securities on deposit with the Treasurer pursuant to this section is solvent, that licensee shall be entitled to receive any interest paid on such securities.

SEC. 266. Section 1812 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1812. In lieu of the deposit of cash or securities pursuant to Section 1811, a licensee may deliver to the commissioner the bond of a surety company, in form and written by a company satisfactory to the commissioner, in an amount not less than the amount of the deposit of cash or securities required of the licensee, conditioned upon the timely and proper delivery of all transmission money received by such licensee or its agents for such purpose. The commissioner shall deposit such bond with the Treasurer.

SEC. 267. Section 1814 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1814. (a) Except as provided by subdivision (c), each licensee shall at all times maintain tangible shareholders' equity determined to be adequate by the commissioner of at least two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000).

(b) "Tangible shareholders' equity" means shareholders' equity minus intangible assets as determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(c) All licensees licensed pursuant to this chapter before January 1, 1990, are not subject to this section until January 1, 1991.

SEC. 267.1. Section 1814 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1814. (a) Except as provided by subdivision (c), each licensee shall at all times maintain tangible shareholders' equity determined to be adequate by the commissioner of at least two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000).

(b) "Tangible shareholders' equity" means shareholders' equity minus intangible assets as determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

SEC. 268. Section 1817 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1817. If it appears to the commissioner that a licensee is violating or failing to comply with any law of this state, the commissioner may direct such licensee to comply with the law by an order issued over his or her official seal, or if it appears to the commissioner that any licensee is conducting its business in an unsafe or injurious manner the commissioner may in like manner direct it to discontinue the unsafe or injurious practices. The order shall require the licensee to show cause before the commissioner at a time and place to be fixed by him or her why the order should not be observed.

SEC. 269. Section 1818 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1818. If upon any hearing held pursuant to Section 1817 the commissioner finds that the licensee is violating or failing to comply with any law of this state or is conducting its business in an unsafe or injurious manner he or she may make a final order directing it to comply with the law or to discontinue the unsafe or injurious practices. Unless within 10 days after the issuance of such final order its enforcement is restrained in a proceeding brought by the licensee, it shall forthwith comply therewith.

SEC. 270. Section 1819 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1819. The commissioner may revoke or suspend any license issued pursuant to this article, if, after a hearing, he or she finds any of the following:

(a) The licensee has violated any provision of this chapter or any rule or regulation adopted by the commissioner.

(b) Any fact or condition exists which, if it had existed at the time of the original application for the license, would be grounds for denying an application for a license under Section 1802.2.

(c) The licensee is conducting its business in an unsafe manner.

(d) The licensee has failed to obey a final order issued by the commissioner.

SEC. 271. Section 1820 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1820. Every order, decision, or other official act of the commissioner is subject to review in accordance with law.

SEC. 272. Section 1821 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1821. Whenever it appears to the commissioner that:

(a) Any licensee has violated any law of this state;

(b) Any licensee is conducting its business in an unsafe or unauthorized manner;

(c) Any licensee refuses to submit its books, papers, and affairs to the inspection of the commissioner;

(d) Any licensee or any officer of a licensee, if a corporation, refuses to be examined upon oath touching the concerns of such licensee;

(e) Any licensee has suspended payment of its obligations;

(f) Any licensee is in such condition that it is unsound, unsafe, or inexpedient for it to transact business; or

(g) Any licensee neglects or refuses to observe any order of the commissioner made pursuant to Section 1818 unless the enforcement of such order is restrained in a proceeding brought by the licensee; the commissioner may forthwith take possession of the property and business of such licensee and retain possession until such licensee resumes business or its affairs be finally liquidated as herein provided. Such licensee, with the consent of the commissioner, may resume business upon such conditions as the commissioner may prescribe.

SEC. 273. Section 1822 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1822. Whenever the commissioner has taken possession of the property and business of any licensee, such licensee, within 10 days after such taking, if it deems itself aggrieved thereby, may apply to the superior court in the county in which the head office of such licensee is located to enjoin further proceedings. The court, after citing the commissioner to show cause why further proceedings should not be enjoined and after a hearing and a determination of the facts upon the merits may dismiss such application or enjoin the commissioner from further proceedings and direct him or her to surrender the property and business to such licensee.

SEC. 274. Section 1824 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1824. An appeal may be taken from the judgment of the court by the commissioner or by the licensee in the manner provided by law for appeals from the judgment of a superior court.

SEC. 275. Section 1825 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1825. When the commissioner takes possession of the property or business of any licensee for the purpose of liquidation or conservation, the commissioner shall liquidate or conserve the property or business pursuant to Chapter 17 of this division.

SEC. 276. Section 1826 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1826. Any person who violates this chapter shall be liable to the people of the State of California in an action brought by the commissioner for a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each violation or, in the case of a continuing violation, one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each day or part thereof during which the violation continues.

SEC. 277. Section 1827 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1827. (a) No agent of a licensee who has actual notice that the commissioner has suspended or revoked the license of a licensee or that the commissioner has issued an order taking possession of the property and business of the licensee, shall receive any transmission money on behalf of the licensee.

(b) If any agent of a licensee, after first having actual notice that the commissioner has suspended or revoked the license of a licensee or that the commissioner has issued an order taking possession of the property and business of the licensee, receives any transmission money on behalf of the licensee, the agent shall be jointly and severally liable with the licensee for the timely and proper delivery of transmission money received by the agent of the licensee.

SEC. 278. Section 1852 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1852. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in this section govern the construction of this chapter:

(a) "Agent" means any person authorized by a licensee to sell traveler's checks in this state on behalf of such licensee.

(b) "Business day" means any day other than Saturday, Sunday or any other day which is specified or provided for as a holiday in the Government Code.

(c) "Eligible security" has the meaning set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 1876.1.

(d) (1) "Foreign currency" means any currency other than United States currency.

(2) "Foreign currency," when used with respect to any traveler's check, means a traveler's check which is denominated in a foreign currency.

(e) "Licensee" means a person duly licensed by the commissioner pursuant to this chapter to issue traveler's checks.

(f) "Outstanding traveler's checks" means travelers checks sold in the United States and reported to licensee.

(g) (1) "Payment instrument" means:

(A) Any instrument (whether or not negotiable) for the transmission or payment of money which is designated on its face by the term "money order" or by any substantially similar term; or

(B) Any check, draft, or other instrument (whether or not negotiable) for the transmission or payment of money, if sold to a natural person and payable on demand.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of this subdivision, "payment instrument" does not include:

(A) Any traveler's check;
(B) Any credit card voucher;
(C) Any letter of credit; or
(D) Any instrument which is redeemable by the issuer in goods or services.

(h) "Person" means any individual, partnership, unincorporated association, limited liability company, or corporation.

(i) "Travelers check" means an instrument for the payment of money which:

(1) Is designated on its face by the term "travelers check" or by any substantially similar term or is commonly known and marketed as a traveler's check by a corporation licensed as an issuer of traveler's checks in this state on or prior to January 1, 1978, and not also by the term "money order" or by any substantially similar term;

(2) (A) If issued in United States currency, is in the sum of ten dollars ($10) or a whole multiple thereof, if less than one hundred dollars ($100), or in the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) or a whole multiple thereof;

(B) If issued in any foreign currency, is in an even denomination of such currency;

(3) Contains a provision for a specimen signature of the purchaser to be completed at the time of purchase, and

(4) Contains a provision for a countersignature of the purchaser to be completed at the time of negotiation.

(j) "United States currency", when used with respect to any traveler's check, means a traveler's check which is denominated in United States currency.

SEC. 279. Section 1852.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1852.1. (a) Each fee for filing an application with the commissioner shall be paid at the time when such application is filed with the commissioner.

(b) No fee for filing an application with the commissioner shall be refundable, regardless of whether such application is approved, denied, withdrawn, or abandoned.

SEC. 279.5. Section 1852.2 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1852.2. Fees shall be paid to, and collected by, the commissioner, as follows:

(a) The fee for filing with the commissioner an application for a license shall be two thousand dollars ($2,000).

(b) The fee for issuing a license shall be twenty-five dollars ($25).

(c) Whenever the commissioner examines any licensee or any California agent of a licensee, such licensee shall pay, within 10 days after receipt of a statement from the commissioner, a fee of two hundred dollars ($200) per day for each examiner engaged in such examination plus, in case it is necessary for any examiner engaged in such examination to travel outside this state, the travel expenses of such examiner.

SEC. 280. Section 1852.3 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1852.3. The commissioner shall annually assess and collect from licensees an assessment in accordance with Section 33302.

SEC. 282. Section 1855 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1855. An application for a license shall be in writing, under oath, and in a form prescribed by the commissioner. It shall contain the name and address of the applicant, the location of applicant's principal place of business and, if the applicant is a corporation, the name and address of directors and principal officers thereof.

SEC. 283. Section 1856 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1856. Each application for a license shall be accompanied by such information and documents as the commissioner may by regulation or order reasonably require, including but not limited to:

(a) The most recent audited and unconsolidated statement of income and statement of condition of applicant as prepared by an independent certified public accountant in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis.

(b) Description of applicant's business and mode of operation.

(c) Enumeration of names of parent and active subsidiary organizations of applicant, if any.

(d) Copies of the applicant's filings for the preceding year with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and copies of the most recent filings for the preceding year with the California Corporations Commissioner, or other California state agency.

(e) Detailed statement of eligible securities of applicant, including identification by name and present value, which applicant intends to use in the conduct of its business of issuing traveler's checks.

(f) Amount of issuer's liability for traveler's checks outstanding in California, and in the United States, as of the last business day of the preceding calendar quarter.

(g) Name and principal office of each agent, selling or to be selling traveler's checks in California.

(h) Name of other states, in which applicant has been granted a license or authorization to sell or is selling traveler's checks.

SEC. 284. Section 1857 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1857. The commissioner shall approve an application for a license within 90 days from the date of filing unless after a duly noticed hearing, the commissioner makes any of the following findings, each of which shall constitute sufficient grounds for the denial of such application:

(a) The granting of the license will be against public interest.

(b) The applicant does not intend actively and in good faith to carry on as a business the transactions which would be permitted by the issuance of the license applied for.

(c) The applicant is not of good business reputation.

(d) The applicant is lacking in integrity.

(e) The applicant has been refused a professional, occupational or vocational license or had such a license suspended or revoked, by any licensing authority for reasons that should preclude the granting of the license applied for.

(f) The applicant or any person acting on behalf of the applicant has willfully made or caused to be made in any application or report filed with the commissioner or in any proceeding before the commissioner, any statement which was at the time and in the light of the circumstances under which it was made, false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or has willfully omitted to state in any such application or report any material fact which is required to be stated therein.

(g) The applicant has previously engaged in a fraudulent practice or act or has conducted any business in an unlawful or dishonest manner.

(h) The applicant has shown incompetence or untrustworthiness in the conduct of any business, or has by commission of a wrongful act or practice in the course of any business exposed the public or those dealing with the applicant to the danger of loss.

(i) The applicant has knowingly failed to perform a duty expressly enjoined upon such applicant by a provision of this chapter or the regulations promulgated by the commissioner or has knowingly committed an act expressly forbidden by such a provision or such rules.

(j) The applicant has been convicted of:

(1) A felony; or

(2) Any crime involving moral turpitude.

(k) The applicant has knowingly aided or abetted any person in any act or omission which would constitute grounds for the suspension, revocation or refusal of a license issued under this chapter to the person aided or abetted.

(l) The applicant has knowingly permitted any person in its employ to violate any provision of this chapter.

(m) The applicant does not have an amount of shareholders' equity determined to be adequate by the commissioner but in no case shall that amount, as a condition of granting the license, be required to exceed five million dollars ($5,000,000). The amount shall be computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis.

SEC. 285. Section 1857.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1857.5. (a) In this section:

(1) "Control" has the meaning set forth in Section 700.

(2) "Officer" has the meaning set forth in Section 33057.

(b) For purposes of Section 1857, the commissioner may find that an applicant is lacking in integrity if the applicant, any person who controls the applicant, or any director or officer of the applicant or of any person who controls the applicant has been convicted of, or has pleaded nolo contendere to, any crime involving fraud or dishonesty.

(c) Subdivision (b) shall not be deemed to be the only grounds upon which the commissioner may find, for purposes of Section 1803, that an applicant is lacking in integrity.

SEC. 286. Section 1858 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1858. Prior to the issuance of a license pursuant to this chapter, and as a further condition to the issuance and continuing validity of such license, each applicant shall enter into a contract with the State of California, by and through the commissioner, in form and substance satisfactory to the commissioner, which contract shall provide that applicant shall comply with the laws of the State of California, all regulations and orders issued by the commissioner and all of the provisions, obligations and requirements of this chapter, including, but not limited to, the provisions of Article 6 (commencing with Section 1877) hereof relating to examinations.

SEC. 287. Section 1859 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1859. (a) Prior to the issuance of a license pursuant to this chapter, and as a further condition to the issuance of such license, each applicant shall file with the commissioner, in such form as the commissioner may by regulation or order require, an irrevocable consent appointing the commissioner and any successor from time to time in office to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal judicial or administrative proceeding against such person, his or her successor, executor, or administrator, which arises under this chapter or any regulation or order issued under this chapter after such consent has been filed.

(b) Service of process pursuant to this section shall have the same force and validity as if served personally upon the person.

(c) Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process at any office of the commissioner, but such service is not effective unless (1) the party making such service, who may be the commissioner, forthwith sends notice of such service and a copy of such process by registered or certified mail to the party served at his or her last address on file with the commissioner, and (2) an affidavit of compliance with this section by the party making service is filed in the case on or before the return date, if any, or within such further time as the court, in the case of a judicial proceeding, or the administrative agency, in the case of an administrative proceeding, allows.

SEC. 288. Section 1860 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1860. If the application is approved by the commissioner, and the applicant has complied with Sections 1858 and 1859, the commissioner shall, upon the payment of the license fees, issue and deliver to the applicant a license to engage in business in accordance with this chapter.

SEC. 289. Section 1863 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1863. Each licensee shall file with the commissioner quarterly a report as of the end of the preceding calendar quarter which shall include:

(a) An unaudited unconsolidated statement of income and statement of condition of licensee completed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a consistent basis;

(b) A schedule of eligible securities owned by the licensee pursuant to Section 1876.8.

(c) The names and addresses of agents appointed or terminated during such quarter.

SEC. 290. Section 1863.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1863.1. Each licensee shall, not more than 90 days after the close of each of its fiscal years or within a longer period as the commissioner may by regulation or order specify, file with the commissioner a report containing all of the following:

(a) Financial statements (including balance sheet, statement of income or loss, statement of changes in shareholder's equity, and statement of changes in financial position) for or as of the end of that fiscal year, prepared with audit by an independent certified public accountant or an independent public accountant in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(b) A report, certificate, or opinion of the independent certified public accountant or independent public accountant, stating that the financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(c) Any other information as the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

SEC. 290.1. Section 1863.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1863.1. Each licensee shall, not more than 90 days after the close of each of its fiscal years or within a longer period as the commissioner may by regulation or order specify, file with the commissioner a report containing all of the following:

(a) Financial statements, including balance sheet, statement of income or loss, statement of changes in shareholder's equity, and statement of cash flows, for or as of the end of that fiscal year, prepared with audit by an independent certified public accountant or an independent public accountant in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(b) A report, certificate, or opinion of the independent certified public accountant or independent public accountant, stating that the financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(c) Any other information as the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

SEC. 291. Section 1864 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1864. The commissioner may at any time require any licensee to make and file with the commissioner a special report furnishing such relevant information as the commissioner may reasonably specify to inform the commissioner of the actual financial condition of such licensee.

SEC. 292. Section 1865 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1865. No licensee shall issue any form of traveler's check for sale in this state unless a certified copy of the traveler's check has first been filed with the commissioner.

SEC. 293. Section 1868 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1868. Each licensee shall at all times maintain shareholders' equity determined to be adequate by the commissioner in an amount up to five million dollars ($5,000,000).

SEC. 293.1. Section 1868 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1868. Each licensee shall at all times maintain shareholder equity determined to be adequate by the commissioner.

SEC. 294. Section 1869 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1869. No person shall become or continue to be an agent in California of a licensee, nor shall any licensee appoint or continue any person as its agent in California unless such person and such licensee shall have first made a written agreement setting forth the terms of the agency and including provisions:

(a) That the licensee appoints the person as its agent with authority to sell in California on behalf of the licensee traveler's checks issued by the licensee;

(b) That all funds, less fees due agents provided for and expressly set forth, received by the person from the sale of traveler's checks issued by the licensee shall be trust funds owned by and belonging to the licensee;

(c) That the person make and keep such accounts, correspondence, memorandums, papers, books and other records as the commissioner by regulation or order requires and preserve such records for the time specified by such regulation or order.

(d) That the person will comply with all applicable conditions of this chapter and regulations and orders issued under this chapter.

SEC. 295. Section 1871 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1871. Each agent of a licensee which sells any traveler's check issued by such licensee shall, and each licensee shall require each of its agents which sells any traveler's check issued by such licensee to, report such sale within seven days after the sale and remit the face amount of such traveler's check to such licensee within three business days (or such shorter period as such agent and such licensee may specify in the agreement called for in Section 1869 or in any amendment of such contract) after such sale. This section shall not apply to an agent which is an insured institution pursuant to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation Act (12 U.S.C. 1811 et seq.) or the Federal Credit Union Act (12 U.S.C. 1781 et seq.).

For the purpose of this section, remittance shall include either direct payment of such funds to licensee or its representative, or the deposit of such funds in a bank or savings association in an account in the name of such licensee specifically established for the purpose of receiving such funds. Remittance by such agency to such licensee or its representatives or deposit by such agency in such account in a bank or savings association of funds in advance of the sale of such traveler's checks but in an amount not less than the amount that such agent would normally receive from such sales of payment instruments, shall be deemed compliance with provisions of this section.

SEC. 296. Section 1876.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1876.1. In this article:

(a) "Eligible security" means any United States currency eligible security or foreign currency eligible security.

(b) "Eligible securities rating service" means any securities rating service which the commissioner has by regulation or order declared to be an eligible securities rating service pursuant to Section 1876.5.

(c) "Eligible rating," when used with respect to any security or class of securities and any eligible securities rating service, means any rating assigned to the security, or class of securities, by the eligible securities rating service which the commissioner has by regulation or order declared to be an eligible rating pursuant to Section 1876.6.

(d) "Foreign currency eligible security" means any of the following which are, or are denominated in, a foreign currency and which the commissioner has not by regulation or order declared to be ineligible pursuant to Section 1876.3.

(1) Any of the following which are of comparable quality to the United States currency eligible securities specified in paragraphs (1) to (7), inclusive, of subdivision (g):

(A) Cash.

(B) Any deposit in an office of a bank located in a foreign country.

(C) Any bond, note, or other obligation.

(2) Any other security or class of securities which the commissioner has by regulation or order declared to be eligible securities pursuant to Section 1876.4.

(e) "Insured bank" means any bank the deposits of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. However, "insured bank" does not include any office of a foreign (other nation) bank other than an office which is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

(f) "Insured savings association" means any savings and loan association the accounts of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

(g) "United States currency eligible security" means any of the following which are, or are denominated in, United States currency and which the commissioner has not by regulation or order declared to be ineligible pursuant to Section 1876.3.

(1) Cash.

(2) Any deposit in an insured bank or an insured savings association.

(3) Any bond, note, or other obligation which is issued or guaranteed by the United States or by any agency of the United States.

(4) Any bond, note, or other obligation which is issued or guaranteed by any state of the United States, or by any governmental agency of or within any state of the United States, and which is assigned an eligible rating by an eligible securities rating service.

(5) Any bankers acceptance which is eligible for discount by a federal reserve bank.

(6) Any commercial paper which is assigned an eligible rating by an eligible securities rating service.

(7) Any bond, note, or other obligation or preferred stock which is assigned an eligible rating by an eligible securities rating service.

(8) Any other security or class of securities which the commissioner has by regulation or order declared to be eligible securities pursuant to Section 1876.4.

(9) Any account due to any licensee from any agent of the licensee on account of the sale by the agent of traveler's checks issued by the licensee, which the commissioner has by order declared to be an eligible security for the licensee pursuant to Section 1876.7.

(h) "Value" means:

(1) When used with respect to an eligible security owned by a licensee which consists of an account due to the licensee from an agent of the licensee on account of the sale by the agent of traveler's checks issued by the licensee which the commissioner has declared to be an eligible security for the licensee pursuant to Section 1876.7, net carrying value as determined in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles;

(2) When used with respect to any other eligible security owned by a licensee:

(A) In case the practice and policy of the licensee is to hold eligible securities to maturity, net carrying value as determined in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles;

(B) In any other case, market value.

SEC. 296.1. Section 1876.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1876.1. In this article:

(a) "Eligible security" means any United States currency eligible security or foreign currency eligible security.

(b) "Eligible securities rating service" means any securities rating service which the commissioner has by regulation or order declared to be an eligible securities rating service pursuant to Section 1876.5.

(c) "Eligible rating," when used with respect to any security or class of securities and any eligible securities rating service, means any rating assigned to the security, or class of securities, by the eligible securities rating service which the commissioner has by regulation or order declared to be an eligible rating pursuant to Section 1876.6.

(d) "Foreign currency eligible security" means any of the following which are, or are denominated in, a foreign currency and which the commissioner has not by regulation or order declared to be ineligible pursuant to Section 1876.3.

(1) Any of the following which are of comparable quality to the United States currency eligible securities specified in paragraphs (1) to (7), inclusive, of subdivision (g):

(A) Cash.

(B) Any deposit in an office of a bank located in a foreign country.

(C) Any bond, note, or other obligation.

(2) Any other security or class of securities which the commissioner has by regulation or order declared to be eligible securities pursuant to Section 1876.4.

(e) "Insured bank" means any bank the deposits of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. However, "insured bank" does not include any office of a foreign (other nation) bank other than an office which is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

(f) "Insured savings and loan association" means any savings and loan association the accounts of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

(g) "United States currency eligible security" means any of the following which are, or are denominated in, United States currency and which the commissioner has not by regulation or order declared to be ineligible pursuant to Section 1876.3.

(1) Cash.

(2) Any deposit in an insured bank or an insured savings association.

(3) Any bond, note, or other obligation which is issued or guaranteed by the United States or by any agency of the United States.

(4) Any bond, note, or other obligation which is issued or guaranteed by any state of the United States, or by any governmental agency of or within any state of the United States, and which is assigned an eligible rating by an eligible securities rating service.

(5) Any bankers acceptance which is eligible for discount by a federal reserve bank.

(6) Any commercial paper which is assigned an eligible rating by an eligible securities rating service.

(7) Any bond, note, or other obligation or preferred stock which is assigned an eligible rating by an eligible securities rating service.

(8) Any share of an investment company that is an open-end management company, that is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 80a-1 et seq.), that holds itself out to investors as a money market fund, and that operates in accordance with all provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and of the regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission applicable to money market funds, including Section 270.2a-7 of the regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (17 C.F.R. Sec. 270.2a-7).

For purposes of this paragraph and paragraph (9), "investment company," "management company," and "open-end" have the meanings set forth in Sections 3, 4, and 5, respectively, of the Investment Company Act of 1940 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 80a-3, 80a-4, and 80a-5, respectively).

(9) Any share of an investment company that is an open-end management company, that is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 80a-1 et seq.), and that invests exclusively in securities that constitute United States currency eligible securities under the other provisions of this subdivision.

(10) Any account due to any licensee from any agent of the licensee on account of the sale by the agent of outstanding travelers checks issued by the licensee, if the account is current and not past due or otherwise doubtful of collection.

(11) Any other security or class of securities that the commissioner has by regulation or order declared to be eligible securities pursuant to Section 1876.4.

(h) "Value" means:

(1) When used with respect to an eligible security owned by a licensee which consists of an account due to the licensee from an agent of the licensee on account of the sale by the agent of outstanding travelers checks issued by the licensee, net carrying value as determined in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. However, in computing the value of the account due to the licensee, any amount due on account of the sale of a travelers check shall be excluded if the time elapsed between the sale and the date of computation exceeds the average time that elapses between the time of sale and the time of payment of travelers checks issued by the licensee.

(2) When used with respect to any other eligible security owned by a licensee:

(A) In case the practice and policy of the licensee is to hold eligible securities to maturity, net carrying value as determined in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

(B) In any other case, market value.

SEC. 297. Section 1876.3 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1876.3. If the commissioner finds that any eligible security or class of eligible securities is not of sufficient liquidity or quality to be eligible securities, the commissioner may by regulation or order declare such security or class of securities to be ineligible.

SEC. 298. Section 1876.4 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1876.4. If the commissioner finds that any security or class of securities which is not an eligible security is of sufficient liquidity and quality to be an eligible security, the commissioner may by regulation or order declare such security or class of securities to be eligible securities.

SEC. 299. Section 1876.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1876.5. If the commissioner finds that a securities rating service:

(a) Has been continuously engaged in the business of rating securities for a period of not less than three years;

(b) Is competent to rate securities and is nationally recognized for rating securities in a competent manner; and

(c) Publishes its ratings of securities on a nationwide basis:

The commissioner may by regulation or order declare such securities rating service to be an eligible securities rating service.

SEC. 300. Section 1876.6 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1876.6. If the commissioner finds that a rating assigned to a class of securities by an eligible securities rating service indicates that such class of securities is of sufficient quality to be eligible securities, the commissioner may by regulation or order declare such rating to be an eligible rating.

SEC. 301. Section 1876.7 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1876.7. If the commissioner finds that an account due to any licensee from any agent of such licensee on account of the sale by such agent of traveler's checks issued by the licensee is, in view of the financial condition of the agent and of the licensee, the history of such account, and such other factors as may in the opinion of the commissioner be relevant, of sufficient quality to be an eligible security for the licensee, the commissioner may by order declare such account to be an eligible security for the licensee. However, in computing the value of any such account for purposes of Section 1876.8, there shall be excluded any amount due on account of the sale of a traveler's check if the time elapsed between such sale and the date of computation exceeds the average time that elapses between the time of sale and the time of payment of traveler's checks issued by the licensee.

SEC. 302. Section 1876.9 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1876.9. (a) In computing for purposes of Section 1876.8 the aggregate value of eligible securities owned by a licensee, there shall be excluded the value of any eligible security if and to the extent that the value of such eligible security, when combined with the aggregate value of all other eligible securities owned by such licensee which are issued or guaranteed by the same person or by any affiliate of the same person by whom such eligible security is issued or guaranteed, exceeds 10 percent of the aggregate value of all eligible securities owned by the licensee.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not be deemed to require the exclusion of the value of any of the following eligible securities, and each of the following eligible securities shall be exempted from the limitations of subdivision (a):

(1) The following United States currency eligible securities:

(A) Cash.

(B) Any deposit in an insured bank or an insured savings association.

(C) Any bond, note, or other obligation for the payment of which the full faith and credit of the United States are pledged.

(2) Any eligible security which the commissioner, in view of the financial condition of the obligor or issuer and such other factors as may in the opinion of the commissioner be relevant, finds to be of such quality that exclusion of the value of such eligible security pursuant to subdivision (a) is not necessary for the purposes of this division and which the commissioner by regulation or order exempts from the limitations of subdivision (a).

SEC. 302.1. Section 1876.9 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1876.9. (a) In computing for purposes of Section 1876.8 the aggregate value of eligible securities owned by a licensee, all of the following shall be excluded:

(1) The value of any eligible security if and to the extent that the value of such eligible security, when combined with the aggregate value of all other eligible securities owned by such licensee which are issued or guaranteed by the same person or by any affiliate of the same person by whom such eligible security is issued or guaranteed, exceeds 10 percent of the aggregate value of all eligible securities owned by the licensee.

(2) The aggregate value of all eligible securities of the type described in paragraph (10) of subdivision (g) of Section 1876.1 if and to the extent that that aggregate value exceeds 10 percent of the aggregate value of all eligible securities owned by the licensee or any higher percentage, up to a maximum of 20 percent, that the superintendent may approve for the licensee.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not be deemed to require the exclusion of the value of any of the following eligible securities, and each of the following eligible securities shall be exempted from the limitations of subdivision (a):

(1) The following United States currency eligible securities:

(A) Cash.

(B) Any deposit in an insured bank or an insured savings association.

(C) Any bond, note, or other obligation for the payment of which the full faith and credit of the United States are pledged.

(2) Any eligible security which the commissioner, in view of the financial condition of the obligor or issuer and such other factors as may in the opinion of the commissioner be relevant, finds to be of such quality that exclusion of the value of such eligible security pursuant to subdivision (a) is not necessary for the purposes of this division and which the commissioner by regulation or order exempts from the limitations of subdivision (a).

SEC. 303. Section 1876.12 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1876.12. (a) (1) Upon application, the commissioner may exempt from this article a licensee, or an applicant for licensure under this chapter.

(2) An application for an exemption shall be in writing and in a form prescribed by the commissioner and shall contain whatever information may be necessary to process the application.

(3) The commissioner shall approve an application for exemption if he or she finds that the financial condition, operations, and management of the licensee are satisfactory; otherwise the commissioner shall deny the application.

(b) The commissioner may suspend or revoke any exemption granted pursuant to this section if he or she finds that the financial condition, operations, or management of the licensee is not satisfactory.

SEC. 304. Section 1877 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1877. (a) The commissioner in his or her discretion may at any time make such examinations within or outside of this state of any licensee under this chapter as he or she deems reasonably necessary to determine whether any person has violated any provision of this chapter or any regulation or order hereunder, or to aid in the enforcement of this chapter.

(b) The officers and employees of a licensee under this chapter being examined by the commissioner shall exhibit to the commissioner, or any officer designated by him or her, on request, any or all of its accounts, books, correspondence, papers, memorandums, agreements or other documents or records relevant or material to the examination and shall otherwise facilitate such examination so far as it may be in their power to do so.

(c) For the purposes of any examination or proceeding under this chapter, the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner may administer oaths and affirmations, and may by issuance of a subpoena, compel the appearance of any person, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memorandums, agreements or other documents or records relevant or material to the examination or proceeding.

(d) Where the principal place of business of any licensee under this chapter is located in another state, the commissioner may, in his or her discretion, in lieu of any examination provided for herein, accept a certified copy of the report of examination completed by the licensing or other authority having regulatory jurisdiction over the issuance and sale of traveler's checks of another state.

SEC. 305. Section 1880.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1880.5. (a) No order issued by the commissioner under Section 1883, 1885, or 1886 shall become effective earlier than the 10th business day after the issuance of such order.

(b) No order issued by the commissioner under subdivision (a) of Section 1884 or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 1887 shall become effective earlier than the fifth business day after the issuance of such order.

SEC. 306. Section 1881 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1881. (a) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has violated, or that there is reasonable cause to believe that any person is about to violate, any provision of this chapter or of any regulation or order issued under this chapter, the commissioner may bring an action in the name of the people of this state in the superior court to enjoin such violation or to enforce compliance with this chapter or with any regulation or order issued under this chapter. Upon a proper showing, a restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction, or writ of mandate shall be granted, and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets.

(b) Any receiver or conservator appointed by the court pursuant to subdivision (a) may, with the approval of the court, exercise all of the powers of the defendant's directors, officers, partners, trustees, or persons who exercise similar powers and perform similar duties, including the filing of a petition for bankruptcy. No action at law or in equity may be maintained by any party against the commissioner or such receiver or conservator by reason of the exercise of such powers or the performance of such duties pursuant to the order, or with the approval of, the court.

(c) The commissioner may include in any action authorized under subdivision (a) a claim for ancillary relief, including a claim for restitution or damages on behalf of the persons injured by the act constituting the subject matter of such action, and the court shall have jurisdiction to award such additional relief.

SEC. 307. Section 1882 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1882. (a) If the commissioner finds that any person has violated, or that there is reasonable cause to believe that any person is about to violate, Section 1853, the commissioner may order such person to cease and desist from such violation unless and until such person is issued a license.

(b) (1) Within 30 days after an order is issued pursuant to subdivision (a), the person to whom such order is issued may file with the commissioner an application for a hearing on the order. If the commissioner fails to commence such hearing within 15 business days after such application is filed with the commissioner (or within such longer period to which such person consents), the order shall be deemed rescinded. Within 30 days after the hearing, the commissioner shall affirm, modify, or rescind the order; otherwise, the order shall be deemed rescinded.

(2) The right of any person to whom an order is issued under subdivision (a) to petition for judicial review of such order shall not be affected by the failure of such person to apply to the commissioner for hearing on the order pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subdivision.

SEC. 308. Section 1883 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1883. If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds:

(a) That any licensee or any California agent of a licensee has engaged or participated, is engaging or participating, or that there is reasonable cause to believe that any licensee or any California agent of a licensee is about to engage or participate, in any unsafe or unsound act with respect to the business of such licensee; or

(b) That any licensee or any California agent of a licensee has violated, is violating, or that there is reasonable cause to believe that any licensee or any California agent of a licensee is about to violate, any provision of this chapter or of any regulation or order issued under this chapter or any provision of any other applicable law:

The commissioner may order such licensee or such California agent to cease and desist from such action or violation. The order may require the licensee or such California agent to take affirmative action to correct any condition resulting from the action or violation.

SEC. 309. Section 1884 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1884. (a) If the commissioner finds that any of the factors set forth in Section 1883 is true with respect to any licensee or any California agent of a licensee and that such action or violation is likely:

(1) To cause the insolvency of the licensee;

(2) To cause substantial dissipation of the assets or earnings of the licensee;

(3) To seriously weaken the condition of the licensee; or

(4) To otherwise seriously prejudice the interests of purchasers or holders of traveler's checks issued by the licensee:

The commissioner may order such licensee or such California agent to cease and desist from such action or violation. Such order may require the licensee or the California agent to take affirmative action to correct any condition resulting from the action or violation.

(b) (1) Within 30 days after an order is issued pursuant to subdivision (a), any licensee or California agent of a licensee to whom such order is issued may file with the commissioner an application for a hearing on the order. If the commissioner fails to commence such hearing within 15 business days after such application is filed with the commissioner (or within such longer period to which such licensee or California agent consents), the order shall be deemed rescinded. Within 30 days after the hearing, the commissioner shall affirm, modify, or rescind the order; otherwise, the order shall be deemed rescinded.

(2) The right of any licensee or California agent of a licensee to whom an order is issued under subdivision (a) to petition for judicial review of such order shall not be affected by the failure of such licensee or California agent of a licensee to apply to the commissioner for a hearing on the order pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subdivision.

SEC. 310. Section 1885 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1885. If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds:

(a) (1) That any subject person of a licensee has engaged or participated in any unsafe or unsound act with respect to the business of such licensee;

(2) That any subject person of a licensee has violated any provision of this chapter or of any regulation or order issued under this chapter or any provision of any other applicable law relating to the business of such licensee; or

(3) That any subject person of a licensee has engaged or participated in any act which constitutes a breach of his fiduciary duty as a subject person; and

(b) (1) That such act, violation, or breach of fiduciary duty has caused or is likely to cause substantial financial loss or other damage to the licensee;

(2) That such action, violation, or breach of fiduciary duty has seriously prejudiced, or is likely to seriously prejudice, the interests of purchasers or holders of traveler's checks issued by the licensee; or

(3) That the subject person has received financial gain by reason of such act, violation, or breach of fiduciary duty; and

(c) That such act, violation, or breach of fiduciary duty either involves dishonesty on the part of the subject person or demonstrates the subject person's gross negligence with respect to the business of the licensee or a willful disregard for the safety and soundness of the licensee:

The commissioner may order the licensee to suspend or remove the subject person from his or her office, if any, with the licensee and to preclude such person from further participating in any manner in the conduct of the business of the licensee, except with the prior consent of the commissioner.

SEC. 311. Section 1886 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1886. If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds that any subject person of a licensee has, by engaging or participating in any act with respect to any financial or other business institution which resulted in financial loss or other damage, demonstrated:

(a) (1) Dishonesty;

(2) Gross negligence with respect to the operations of such institution; or

(3) Willful disregard for the safety and soundness of such institution; and

(b) Unfitness to continue as a subject person of such licensee or participate in the conduct of the business of such licensee:

The commissioner may order the licensee to remove the subject person from his or her office, if any, with the licensee and to preclude him or her from further participating in any manner in the conduct of the business of the licensee, except with the prior consent of the commissioner.

SEC. 312. Section 1887 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1887. (a) If the commissioner finds:

(1) That any subject person of a licensee has been charged in an indictment issued by a grand jury or in an information, complaint, or similar pleading issued by a United States attorney, district attorney, or other governmental official or agency authorized to prosecute crimes, with a crime which is punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year and which involves dishonesty or breach of trust; and

(2) That such subject person's continuing to serve as a subject person of the licensee may pose a threat to the interests of purchasers or holders of traveler's checks issued by the licensee or may threaten to impair public confidence in the licensee:

The commissioner may order such licensee to suspend such subject person from his or her office, if any, with the licensee and to preclude such person from further participating in any manner in the conduct of the business of the licensee, except with the prior consent of the commissioner. In case the criminal proceedings are terminated other than by a judgment of conviction, such order shall be deemed rescinded.

(b) If the commissioner finds:

(1) That any subject person or former subject person of a licensee with respect to whom an order was issued pursuant to subdivision (a) or any other subject person of a licensee has been finally convicted of a crime which is punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year and which involves dishonesty or breach of trust; and

(2) That such person's continuing to serve or resumption of service as a subject person of the licensee may pose a threat to the interests of purchasers or holders of traveler's checks issued by the licensee or may threaten to impair confidence in the licensee:

The commissioner may order such licensee to suspend or remove such subject person or former subject person from his or her office, if any, with the licensee and to preclude him or her from further participating in any manner in the conduct of the business of the licensee, except with the prior consent of the commissioner.

(c) (1) Within 30 days after an order is issued pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b), any licensee to which such order is issued or any subject person or former subject person of a licensee with respect to whom such order is issued may file with the commissioner an application for a hearing on the order. If the commissioner fails to commence such hearing within 15 business days after such application is filed with the commissioner (or within such longer period to which such licensee, subject person, or former subject person consents), the order shall be deemed rescinded. Within 30 days after the hearing, the commissioner shall affirm, modify, or rescind the order; otherwise, the order shall be deemed rescinded.

(2) The right of any licensee to which an order is issued under subdivision (a) or (b) or of any subject person or former subject person of a licensee with respect to whom such an order is issued to petition for judicial review of such order shall not be affected by the failure of such person to apply to the commissioner for a hearing on the order pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subdivision.

(d) The fact that any subject person of a licensee charged with a crime involving dishonesty or breach of trust is not finally convicted of such crime shall not preclude the commissioner from issuing an order regarding such licensee or such subject person pursuant to any other section of this chapter.

SEC. 313. Section 1888 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1888. (a) Any licensee to which an order is issued under Section 1885, 1886, or 1887 or any subject person or former subject person of a licensee with respect to whom such an order is issued may apply to the commissioner to modify or rescind such order. The commissioner shall not grant such application unless the commissioner finds that it is in the public interest to do so and that it is reasonable to believe that such subject person or former subject person will, if and when he or she becomes a subject person of a licensee, comply with all applicable provisions of this chapter and of any regulation or order issued under this chapter.

(b) The right of any licensee to which an order is issued under Section 1885, 1886, or 1887 or any subject person or former subject person of a licensee with respect to whom such an order is issued to petition for judicial review of such order shall not be affected by the failure of such licensee, subject person, or former subject person to apply to the commissioner pursuant to subdivision (a) to modify or rescind the order.

SEC. 314. Section 1889 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1889. If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds:

(a) That any licensee has violated any provision of this chapter or of any regulation or order issued under this chapter or any provision of any other applicable law;

(b) That any licensee is conducting its business in an unsafe or unsound manner;

(c) That any licensee is in such condition that it is unsafe or unsound for it to transact the business of selling in this state payment instruments issued by it;

(d) That any licensee has ceased to transact the business of selling in this state payment instruments issued by it;

(e) That any licensee is insolvent;

(f) That any licensee has suspended payment of its obligations, has made an assignment for the benefit of its creditors, or has admitted in writing its inability to pay its debts as they become due;

(g) That any licensee has applied for an adjudication of bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, or other relief under any bankruptcy, reorganization, insolvency, or moratorium law, or that any person has applied for any such relief under any such law against any licensee and such licensee has by any affirmative act approved of or consented to such action or such relief has been granted; or

(h) That any fact or condition exists which, if it had existed at the time when any licensee applied for its license, would have been grounds for denying such application:

The commissioner may issue an order suspending or revoking the license of such licensee.

SEC. 315. Section 1890 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1890. (a) If the commissioner finds that any of the factors set forth in Section 1889 is true with respect to any licensee and that it is necessary for the protection of the interests of purchasers or holders of traveler's checks issued by such licensee or for the protection of the public interest that he or she immediately suspend or revoke the license of such licensee, the commissioner may issue an order suspending or revoking the license of such licensee.

(b) (1) Within 30 days after an order is issued pursuant to subdivision (a), any licensee to whom such order is issued may file with the commissioner an application for a hearing on the order. If the commissioner fails to commence such hearing within 15 business days after such application is filed with the commissioner (or within such longer period to which such licensee consents), the order shall be deemed rescinded. Within 30 days after the hearing, the commissioner shall affirm, modify, or rescind the order; otherwise, the order shall be deemed rescinded.

(2) The right of any licensee to which an order is issued under subdivision (a) to petition for judicial review of such order shall not be affected by the failure of such licensee to apply to the commissioner for a hearing on the order pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subdivision.

SEC. 316. Section 1891 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1891. Any person whose license is suspended or revoked shall immediately deliver such license to the commissioner.

SEC. 317. Section 1892 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1892. (a) Any person to whom an order is issued under Section 1889 or 1890 may apply to the commissioner to modify or rescind such order. The commissioner shall not grant such application unless the commissioner finds that it is in the public interest to do so and that it is reasonable to believe that such person will, if and when it becomes a licensee, comply with all applicable provisions of this division and of any regulation or order issued under this division.

(b) The right of any person to whom an order is issued under Section 1889 or 1890 to petition for judicial review of such order shall not be affected by the failure of such person to apply to the commissioner pursuant to subdivision (a) to modify or rescind the order.

SEC. 318. Section 1893 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1893. (a) If the commissioner finds that any of the factors set forth in Section 1889 is true with respect to any licensee and that it is necessary for the protection of the interests of purchasers or holders of traveler's checks issued by the licensee or for the protection of the public interest that the commissioner take immediate possession of the property and business of the licensee, the commissioner may by order forthwith take possession of the property and business of the licensee and retain possession until the licensee resumes business or is finally liquidated. The licensee may, with the consent of the commissioner, resume business upon such conditions as the commissioner may prescribe.

(b) Whenever the commissioner takes possession of the property and business of a licensee pursuant to subdivision (a), the licensee may, within 10 days, apply to the superior court in any county of this state in which an office of the licensee is located (or, in case the licensee has no office in this state, in the County of Sacramento, in the City and County of San Francisco, or in the County of Los Angeles) to enjoin further proceedings. The court may, after citing the commissioner to show cause why further proceedings should not be enjoined and after a hearing, dismiss the application or enjoin the commissioner from further proceedings and order the commissioner to surrender the property and business of the licensee to the licensee or make such further order as may be just. The judgment of the superior court may be appealed by the commissioner or by the licensee in the manner provided by law for appeals from the judgment of a superior court.

(c) Whenever the commissioner takes possession of the property and business of a licensee pursuant to subdivision (a), the commissioner shall conserve or liquidate the property and business of the licensee pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 3100) of Chapter 17, and the provisions of that article (except Sections 3100, 3101, and 3102) apply as if the licensee were a bank.

SEC. 319. Section 1894 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1894. (a) No California agent of a licensee who has actual notice that the commissioner has suspended or revoked the license of such licensee or that the commissioner has issued an order taking possession of the property and business of the licensee, shall sell any traveler's check issued by the licensee.

(b) If any California agent of a licensee, after first having actual notice that the commissioner has suspended or revoked the license of such licensee or that the commissioner has issued an order taking possession of the property and business of the licensee, sells any traveler's check issued by the licensee, such agent shall be jointly and severally liable with the licensee for the payment of such traveler's check.

SEC. 320. Section 1897 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1897. Any person who violates any provision of this chapter shall be liable to the people of the State of California in an action brought by the commissioner in an amount not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each violation or, in the case of a continuing violation, an amount not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each day for which such violation continues.

SEC. 321. Section 1900 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1900. (a) (1) For purposes of this subdivision, an examination made by the commissioner in conjunction with or with assistance from a bank regulatory agency of the United States, of a state of the United States, or of a foreign nation is deemed to be an examination caused by the commissioner.

(2) No provision of this subdivision shall be deemed to require that the commissioner cause an examination to be made onsite at the offices of a bank.

(3) The commissioner shall cause every California state bank, every California state trust company, the trust department of every California state title insurance company doing a trust business, and the business in this state of every foreign (other nation) bank licensed under Article 3 (commencing with Section 1750) of Chapter 13.5 to be examined to the extent and whenever and as often as the commissioner shall deem it advisable, but in no case less than once every two calendar years.

(b) The commissioner may at any time examine any of the following:

(1) Any foreign (other state) state bank that maintains a branch office in this state.

(2) Any facility (as defined in Section 3800) that a foreign (other state) bank that does not maintain a branch office in this state, maintains in this state.

(3) Any representative office (as defined in Section 1700) that a foreign (other nation) bank is licensed under Article 2 (commencing with Section 1725) of Chapter 13.5 to maintain in this state.

(c) The officers and employees of every California state bank, California state trust company, California state title company's trust department, and foreign bank being examined shall exhibit to the examiners, on request, any or all of its securities, books, records, and accounts and shall otherwise facilitate the examination so far as it may be in their power.

SEC. 321.1. Section 1900 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1900. (a) (1) For purposes of this subdivision, an examination made by the commissioner in conjunction with or with assistance from a bank regulatory agency of the United States, of a state of the United States, or of a foreign nation is deemed to be an examination caused by the commissioner.

(2) No provision of this subdivision shall be deemed to require that the commissioner cause an examination to be made onsite at the offices of a bank.

(3) The commissioner shall cause every California state bank, every California state trust company, and the business in this state of every foreign (other nation) bank licensed under Article 3 (commencing with Section 1750) of Chapter 13.5 to be examined to the extent and whenever and as often as the commissioner shall deem it advisable, but in no case less than once every two calendar years.

(b) The commissioner may at any time examine any of the following:

(1) Any foreign (other state) state bank that maintains a branch office in this state.

(2) Any facility (as defined in Section 3800) that a foreign (other state) bank that does not maintain a branch office in this state, maintains in this state.

(3) Any representative office (as defined in Section 1700) that a foreign (other nation) bank is licensed under Article 2 (commencing with Section 1725) of Chapter 13.5 to maintain in this state.

(c) The officers and employees of every California state bank, California state trust company, and foreign bank being examined shall exhibit to the examiners, on request, any or all of its securities, books, records, and accounts and shall otherwise facilitate the examination so far as it may be in their power.

SEC. 322. Section 1901 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1901. (a) Whenever, in the judgment of the commissioner, the condition of any bank, trust company, or foreign banking corporation renders it necessary or expedient to make an extra examination or to devote any extraordinary attention to its affairs, he or she has the authority to make any necessary extra examinations and to devote any necessary extra attention to the conduct of its affairs and to charge for extra services an amount not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200) a day for each examiner engaged in the examination of the bank.

(b) Whenever in the judgment of the commissioner it is necessary or expedient for any examiner engaged in any examination to travel outside this state, the commissioner may charge for the travel expenses of the examiner.

SEC. 323. Section 1902 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1902. The board of every bank and of every trust company, or a committee thereof composed of at least three directors, none of whom is an officer of such bank or trust company, shall examine such bank or trust company at least once in each calendar year. No such examination shall be commenced within three months of the completion of the examination for the preceding year. Such examination shall show the actual financial condition of the bank or trust company and shall set forth such matters and shall be in such form as the commissioner may require. Such examination shall include an examination of the books, papers, and affairs of the bank and particularly of its loans and discounts and of the security given therefor. The board may employ such assistance in making any examination as it deems necessary. Within 30 days after the examination is completed, a report thereof, verified by the directors who made it, shall be filed with the board and thereafter shall be kept available for inspection by the commissioner.

SEC. 323.1. Section 1902 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1902. (a) The commissioner may by order or regulation grant exemptions from this section in cases where the commissioner finds that the requirements of this section are not necessary.

(b) Each California state bank shall, within 90 days after the end of each fiscal year, or within such extended time as the commissioner may prescribe, file with the commissioner an audit report for the fiscal year.

(c) The audit report called for in subdivision (b) shall comply with all of the following provisions:

(1) The audit report shall contain those audited financial statements of the bank for or as of the end of the fiscal year prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and any other information that the commissioner may require.

(2) The audit report shall be based upon an audit of the bank conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and any other requirements that the commissioner may prescribe.

(3) The audit report shall be prepared by an independent certified public accountant or independent public accountant who is not unsatisfactory to the commissioner.

(4) The audit report shall include or be accompanied by a certificate or opinion of the independent certified public accountant or independent public accountant that is satisfactory in form and content to the commissioner. If the certificate or opinion is qualified, the commissioner may order the bank to take such action as the commissioner may find necessary to enable the independent certified public accountant or independent public accountant to remove the qualification.

SEC. 324. Section 1903 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1903. If the board of any bank or trust company fails to make such examination or to cause it to be made or to file copies of the report in the manner and within the time required by Section 1902, the commissioner may cause an extra examination of such bank or trust company to be made at its expense.

SEC. 325. Section 1904 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1904. In lieu of an examination pursuant to Section 1902, the board of any bank or trust company may request the commissioner to cause a special examination or audit to be made. Within 60 days after the receipt of a certified copy of the board's resolution requesting such examination, the commissioner shall cause a special examination or audit to be made either by the department or by certified public accountants at the expense of such bank or trust company. Within 30 days after the completion of the examination or audit, the commissioner shall deliver to the board a true copy of the report of the examination or audit.

SEC. 326. Section 1905 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1905. In lieu of a directors' examination for any year, the commissioner may accept any examination of a bank or trust company made during such year by the Federal Reserve Bank if such bank or trust company is a member thereof, by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any equivalent federal corporation or agency insuring deposits if such bank or trust company is a member thereof, or by a clearing house association of which such bank or trust company is a member.

SEC. 327. Section 1906 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1906. The commissioner, whenever in his or her opinion the condition of the bank, trust company, or foreign banking corporation is such as to require such audit, may require any bank, trust company, or foreign banking corporation to employ a certified public accountant to make a special audit of the affairs of such bank or trust company at its expense.

SEC. 328. Section 1907 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1907. The commissioner, for good cause, at any time and from time to time may employ appraisers to appraise the value of any investment, asset, or property held or upon which a lien is held as security for a loan. The bank, trust company, or foreign banking corporation shall pay to the commissioner on demand the cost of such appraisal.

SEC. 329. Section 1908 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1908. The commissioner, a deputy commissioner, and every examiner assigned to an examination may administer an oath to any person whose testimony is required for the purposes of any examination authorized by this division and may by issuance of subpena compel the appearance of any person and the production of any evidence for the purposes of the examination.

SEC. 330. Section 1909 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1909. (a) In this section, "governmental agency" includes, without limitation, any agency of this state, of any other state of the United States, of the United States, or of any foreign nation.

(b) The commissioner may furnish information to a governmental agency that regulates financial institutions.

(c) The commissioner may furnish to a governmental agency that administers a loan guarantee or similar program, information relating to a person who participates in the program.

(d) The commissioner may furnish to a governmental agency that regulates business activities, other than the type described in subdivision (b), information relating to:

(1) A suspected violation of a law administered by the agency.

(2) A person involved in an application to the agency for a license, approval, or other authorization.

(e) The commissioner may furnish to a governmental agency that is a law enforcement agency, information relating to a suspected crime.

(f) This section does not prescribe the only circumstances under which the commissioner may furnish information.

SEC. 331. Section 1910 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1910. If a deputy commissioner or any examiner has knowledge of the insolvency or unsafe condition of any bank, trust company, or foreign banking corporation and fails or neglects to forthwith report such fact to the commissioner in writing over his or her signature, he or she is guilty of a felony.

SEC. 332. Section 1911 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1911. A national banking association doing business in this state and receiving deposits of any bank organized under the laws of this state, at the request of the commissioner, shall submit to an examination by him or her, at the expense of such association, should he or she deem it necessary or desirable that such examination be made. If any such association refuses to permit such an examination to be made, the commissioner shall notify every bank depositing its funds with such association to withdraw its deposits therefrom and the banks so notified shall comply with his or her order.

SEC. 333. Section 1912 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1912. If it appears to the commissioner that a bank, trust company, or foreign banking corporation is violating or failing to comply with its articles or with any applicable law, the commissioner may direct the bank, trust company, or foreign banking corporation to comply with its articles or with the law by an order issued over his or her official seal, or if it appears to the commissioner that any bank, trust company, or foreign banking corporation is conducting its business in an unsafe or injurious manner the commissioner may in like manner direct it to discontinue the unsafe or injurious practices. The order shall require the bank, trust company, or foreign banking corporation to show cause before the commissioner at a time and place to be fixed by him or her why the order should not be observed.

SEC. 334. Section 1913 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1913. If upon any hearing held pursuant to Section 1912 it appears to the commissioner that the bank, trust company, or foreign banking corporation is violating or failing to comply with its articles or with any applicable law or is conducting its business in an unsafe or injurious manner the commissioner may make a final order directing it to comply with its articles or with the law or to discontinue the unsafe or injurious practices. Unless within 10 days after the issuance of the final order its enforcement is restrained in a proceeding brought by the bank, trust company, or foreign banking corporation, it shall forthwith comply with the order.

SEC. 335. Section 1913.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1913.5. (a) For the purposes of this section, the following definitions are applicable:

(1) "Account holder" includes, in the case of a deposit account, the depositor; in the case of a trust account, each trustor and beneficiary of the trust account; and, in the case of any other fiduciary account, each person who occupies, with respect to the account, a position that is similar to the position that a trustor or beneficiary occupies with respect to a trust account.

(2) "Bank" means the following:

(A) Any commercial bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state.

(B) Any foreign (other state) state bank that maintains a branch office in this state, with respect to the branch office and any other office in this state.

(C) Any foreign (other state) state bank that is licensed by the commissioner under Article 4 (commencing with Section 3860) of Chapter 22 to maintain a facility (as defined in Section 3800) in this state, with respect to any such office.

(D) Any foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed by the commissioner under Chapter 13.5 (commencing with Section 1700) to maintain an office in this state, with respect to any such office.

(E) Any corporation incorporated under the laws of this state that is incorporated for the purpose of engaging in, or that is authorized by the commissioner to engage in, business under Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500) of Chapter 19.

(F) Any foreign corporation that is licensed by the commissioner under Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500) of Chapter 19 to maintain an office in this state and to transact at that office business under Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500) of Chapter 19, with respect to that office.

(3) "Order" means any approval, consent, authorization, permit, exemption, denial, prohibition, or requirement applicable to a specific case issued by the commissioner, including, without limitation, any condition thereof. "Order" does not include any certificate of authority or license issued by the commissioner but does include any condition of a license and any written agreement made by any person with the commissioner under this division.

(4) "Subject person of a bank" means any director, officer, or employee of the bank, or any person who participates in the conduct of the business of the bank. However, "subject person of a bank" does not include a controlling person of the bank that is registered as a bank holding company with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System pursuant to the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. Sections 1841, et seq.). "Subject person of a bank" does not include an individual who is a director, officer, or employee of a controlling person of the bank unless the individual is a director, officer, or employee of the bank or participates in the conduct of the business of the bank. For purposes of this paragraph, "controlling person" has the meaning set forth in Section 700.

(5) "Violation" includes, without limitation, any act done, alone or with one or more persons, for or toward causing, bringing about, participating in, counseling, aiding, or abetting a violation.

(b) If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds the following, the commissioner may issue an order suspending or removing a subject person of a bank from his or her office with the bank and prohibiting the subject person from further participating in any manner in the conduct of the business of the bank, except with the prior consent of the commissioner:

(1) (A) That the subject person has violated any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division, or any provision of any other applicable law relating to the business of the bank; or

(B) That the subject person has engaged or participated in any unsafe or unsound act with respect to the business of the bank; or

(C) That the subject person has committed or engaged in any act that constitutes a breach of his or her fiduciary duty as a subject person; and

(2) (A) That the bank has suffered or will probably suffer substantial financial loss or other damage by reason of the violation, act, or breach of fiduciary duty; or

(B) That the interests of the bank's accountholders have been or are likely to be seriously prejudiced by reason of the violation, act, or breach of fiduciary duty; or

(C) That the subject person has received financial gain by reason of the violation, act, or breach of fiduciary duty; and

(3) That the violation, act, or breach of fiduciary duty is one involving personal dishonesty on the part of the subject person, or one that demonstrates a willful or continuing disregard for the safety or soundness of the bank.

(c) If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds the following, the commissioner may issue an order suspending or removing a subject person of a bank from his or her office with the bank and prohibiting the subject person from further participating in any manner in the conduct of the business of the bank, except with the prior consent of the commissioner:

(1) That the subject person's conduct or practice with respect to another bank or business institution has resulted in substantial financial loss or other damage; and

(2) That the conduct or practice has evidenced personal dishonesty or willful or continuing disregard for the safety and soundness of the other bank or business institution; and

(3) That the conduct or practice is relevant in that it demonstrates unfitness to continue as a subject person of the bank.

(d) If the commissioner finds the following, the commissioner may immediately issue an order suspending or removing a subject person of a bank from his or her office with the bank and prohibiting the subject person from further participating in any manner in the conduct of the business of the bank, except with the prior consent of the commissioner:

(1) That it is necessary for the protection of the bank or the interests of the bank's accountholders that the commissioner issue the order immediately; and

(2) (A) That any of the factors set forth in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), any of the factors set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), and any of the factors set forth in paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) are true with respect to the subject person; or

(B) That any of the factors set forth in paragraph (1) of subdivision (c), any of the factors set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c), and the factor set forth in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) are true with respect to the subject person.

(e) (1) If the commissioner finds the following, the commissioner may immediately issue an order suspending or removing a subject person of a bank from his or her office with the bank and prohibiting the subject person from further participating in any manner in the conduct of the business of the bank, except with the prior consent of the commissioner:

(A) That the subject person has been charged in an indictment issued by a grand jury or in an information, complaint, or similar pleading issued by a United States attorney, district attorney, or other governmental official or agency authorized to prosecute crimes, with a crime that is punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year and that involves dishonesty or breach of trust; and

(B) That the person's continuing to serve as a subject person of the bank may pose a material threat to the interests of the bank's accountholders or may threaten to materially impair public confidence in the bank. In case the criminal proceedings are terminated other than by a judgment of conviction, the order shall be deemed rescinded.

(2) If the commissioner finds the following, the commissioner may immediately issue an order suspending or removing a subject person of a bank, or a former subject person of a bank, from his or her office, if any, with the bank and prohibiting the person from further participating in any manner in the conduct of the business of the bank, except with the prior consent of the commissioner:

(A) That the person has been finally convicted of a crime that is punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year and that involves dishonesty or breach of trust; and

(B) That the person's continuing to serve or resumption of service as a subject person of the bank may pose a material threat to the interests of the bank's accountholders or may threaten to materially impair public confidence in the bank.

(3) The fact that any subject person of a bank charged with a crime involving dishonesty or breach of trust is not finally convicted of that crime shall not preclude the commissioner from issuing an order regarding the subject person pursuant to other provisions of this division.

(f) (1) Within 30 days after an order is issued pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e), the person to whom the order is issued may file with the commissioner an application for a hearing on the order. The commissioner shall, upon the written request of the person, extend the 30-day period by an additional 30 days provided the request is filed with the commissioner within 30 days after the order is issued. If the commissioner fails to commence the hearing within 15 business days after the application is filed, or within a longer period to which the person consents, the order shall be deemed rescinded. Within 30 days after the hearing, the commissioner shall affirm, modify, or rescind the order; otherwise, the order shall be deemed rescinded.

(2) The right of any person to whom an order is issued under subdivision (d) or (e) to petition for judicial review of the order shall not be affected by the failure of that person to apply to the commissioner for a hearing on the order pursuant to this subdivision.

(g) (1) Any person to whom an order is issued under subdivision (b), (c), (d), or (e) may apply to the commissioner to modify or rescind that order. The commissioner shall not grant that application unless the commissioner finds that it is in the public interest to do so and that it is reasonable to believe that the person will, if and when he or she becomes a subject person of a bank, comply with all applicable provisions of this division and of any regulation or order issued thereunder.

(2) The right of any person to whom an order is issued under subdivision (b), (c), (d), or (e) to petition for judicial review of that order shall not be affected by the failure of the person to apply to the commissioner pursuant to paragraph (1) to modify or rescind the order.

(h) (1) A notice issued under this section shall state the facts constituting the grounds for removal, suspension, or prohibition.

(2) A hearing held before the commissioner pursuant to this section shall be private unless the commissioner, in his or her discretion, after fully considering the view of the party afforded the hearing, determines that a public hearing is necessary to protect the public interest.

(i) (1) It is unlawful for any subject person of a bank or former subject person of a bank to whom an order is issued under subdivision (b), (c), (d), or (e) to do any of the following, except with the prior consent of the commissioner, so long as the order is effective:

(A) To serve or act as a director, officer, employee, or agent of any bank.

(B) To vote any shares or other securities of a bank having voting rights, for the election of any person as a director of the bank.

(C) Directly or indirectly, to solicit, procure, or transfer or attempt to transfer, or vote any proxy, consent, or authorization with respect to any shares or other securities of any bank having voting rights.

(D) Otherwise to participate in any manner in the conduct of the business of any bank.

(2) Any person who violates paragraph (1) shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) or imprisoned in the state prison, or in a county jail not to exceed one year, or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(3) If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds that any person has violated paragraph (1), the commissioner may order that person to pay to the commissioner a civil penalty in an amount as the commissioner may specify; provided, however, that the amount of the civil penalty shall not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each violation or, in the case of a continuing violation, one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each day for which the violation continues.

In determining the amount of a civil penalty to be paid to the commissioner under this paragraph, the commissioner shall consider the financial resources and good faith of the person charged, the gravity of the violation, the history of previous violations by the person, and other factors that in the opinion of the commissioner may be relevant.

SEC. 336. Section 1914 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1914. Whenever he or she deems it expedient, the commissioner may call a meeting of the stockholders of any bank or trust company. Notice of the time and place of the meeting shall be given to each stockholder by a notice mailed to the stockholder by registered mail at the stockholder's last known address at least 15 days before the date of the meeting. Any expenses of such meeting shall be borne by the bank or trust company.

SEC. 337. Section 1915 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1915. During any emergency period declared by the President of the United States, each bank shall conform to any order of the commissioner directed to it, relating to and conforming with regulations, limitations, or restrictions which are applicable thereto prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, the Comptroller of the Currency, or the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System regulating or governing the operations of banks which are members of the Federal Reserve System.

SEC. 338. Section 1916 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1916. During any emergency period declared by the Governor no bank shall transact any banking business except to such extent and subject to such regulations, limitations, or restrictions as may be prescribed by the commissioner, which, as to member banks, shall be as consistent as the exigencies of the situation permit with the provisions of the Federal Reserve Act and regulations issued thereunder or, as to insured banks, shall be as consistent as the exigencies of the situation permit with the rules and regulations governing banks whose deposits are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

SEC. 339. Section 1930 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1930. Every bank and every trust company shall make and file with the commissioner whenever required by him or her a report in such form as he or she may prescribe, verified by two of its principal officers, showing its financial condition and such other information as the commissioner may require at the close of business on any past day designated by him or her. The verification shall state that each of the officers making it has a personal knowledge of the matters in the report and that each of them believes that each statement in the report is true.

SEC. 340. Section 1931 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1931. The commissioner shall call for the report specified in Section 1930 from all California state banks and trust companies at least three times each year, and for at least three times each year shall designate as the day as of which the reports shall be made the day designated by the Comptroller of the Currency for reports from national banking associations.

SEC. 341. Section 1934 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1934. The commissioner may at any time require any bank or trust company to make and file with him or her a special report furnishing such information as he or she may specify when necessary to inform him or her fully of the actual financial condition and affairs of the bank or trust company.

SEC. 342. Section 1935 of the Financial Code, as added by Section 88 of Chapter 480 of the Statutes of 1995, is repealed.

SEC. 343. Section 1935 of the Financial Code, as added by Section 5.5 of Chapter 754 of the Statutes of 1995, is amended to read:

1935. (a) A California state bank shall prominently display in the lobby of its head office and each branch office, except an automated teller machine branch office, as defined in Section 550, a notice that any person may obtain a financial report from the bank. The notice shall include the address and telephone number of the person or office to be contacted for a financial report. The bank shall, after receiving a request for a financial report, promptly mail or otherwise furnish the financial report to the requester. The first financial report shall be provided without charge.

(b) The financial report called for in this section shall contain either (1) the information that the commissioner may require by regulation or (2) in the absence of a regulation the last balance sheet and income statement, each without any schedules, that the bank filed with the commissioner pursuant to Section 1931.

SEC. 343.1. Section 1935 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1935. (a) A California state bank shall prominently display in the lobby of its main office and each branch office, except an automated teller machine branch office, as defined in Section 550, a notice that any person may obtain a financial report from the bank. The notice shall include the address and telephone number of the person or office to be contacted for a financial report. The bank shall, promptly after receiving a request for a financial report, mail or otherwise furnish the financial report to the requester. The first financial report shall be provided without charge.

(b) The financial report called for in this section shall contain either (1) the information that the commissioner may require by regulation or (2) in the absence of a regulation, the last balance sheet and income statement, each without any schedules, that the bank filed with the commissioner pursuant to Section 1931.

SEC. 344. Section 1936 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1936. Every California state bank shall keep its corporate records, financial records, and books of account in words and figures of the English language and in form satisfactory to the commissioner.

SEC. 345. Section 1938 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1938. Each report required under this article, Chapter 13.5 (commencing with Section 1700), or Chapter 22 (commencing with Section 3800) shall be filed with the commissioner at the time that the commissioner may by regulation or order require. If any bank, trust company, or foreign bank fails to make any report required by this article, Chapter 13.5 (commencing with Section 1700), or Chapter 22 (commencing with Section 3800) at the time specified by the commissioner or fails to include therein any matter required by this article, Chapter 13.5 (commencing with Section 1700), or Chapter 22 (commencing with Section 3800) or by the commissioner, it shall be liable to the people of this state in the sum of not more than one hundred dollars ($100) for each day that the report is delayed or withheld by the failure or neglect of the bank, trust company, or foreign bank.

SEC. 346. Section 1939 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1939. (a) Every bank shall file with the commissioner one copy of all material filed by such bank with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System or the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation pursuant to Section 78(l) of Title 15, United States Code, and Section 1817(j) of Title 12, United States Code, and regulations issued thereunder.

(b) Every bank which is required to file information with the appropriate federal banking agency pursuant to Section 907 of the International Lending Supervision Act (12 U.S.C. Sec. 3907), shall file with the commissioner one copy of all material filed with the federal banking agency pursuant to the act.

(c) Each copy required to be filed pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b) shall be filed with the commissioner on or before the date upon which the original is filed with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System or the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and shall be available for inspection by the public except to the extent the information contained therein is accorded confidential treatment under federal law or regulations issued thereunder by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System or the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. All such material shall be open for inspection by the Attorney General.

SEC. 347. Section 1945 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1945. Every bank shall notify the commissioner of any change in the managing officer of the bank.

SEC. 348. Section 1952 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

1952. The commissioner at any time may require a bank to write down any asset held by it to a valuation which will represent its then fair market value.

SEC. 349. Section 3100 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3100. Whenever it appears to the commissioner that:

(a) The contributed capital of any bank is impaired;

(b) Any bank has violated its articles or any law of this state;

(c) Any bank is conducting its business in an unsafe or unauthorized manner;

(d) Any bank refuses to submit its books, papers, and affairs to the inspection of any examiner;

(e) Any officer of any bank refuses to be examined upon oath touching the concerns of such bank;

(f) Any bank has suspended payment of its obligations;

(g) Any bank is in such condition that it is unsound, unsafe, or inexpedient for it to transact business; or the commissioner may forthwith take possession of the property and business of such bank and retain possession until such bank resumes business or its affairs are finally liquidated as herein provided. Such bank, with the consent of the commissioner, may resume business upon such conditions as the commissioner may prescribe. The term "bank" wherever used in this chapter includes trust companies.

(h) Any bank neglects or refuses to observe any order of the commissioner made pursuant to Section 1913 unless the enforcement of such order is restrained in a proceeding brought by the bank;

SEC. 350. Section 3101 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3101. Whenever the commissioner has taken possession of the property and business of any bank, such bank, within 10 days after such taking, if it deems itself aggrieved thereby, may apply to the superior court in the county in which the head office of such bank is located to enjoin further proceedings. The court, after citing the commissioner to show cause why further proceedings should not be enjoined and after a hearing and a determination of the facts upon the merits may dismiss such application or enjoin the commissioner from further proceedings and direct him or her to surrender the property and business to such bank.

SEC. 351. Section 3102 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3102. An appeal may be taken from the judgment of the court by the commissioner or by the bank in the manner provided by law for appeals from the judgment of a superior court.

SEC. 352. Section 3103 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3103. Upon taking possession of the property and business of any bank, the commissioner shall forthwith give notice of such fact to all persons holding or having in their possession any assets of such bank. No person knowing of such taking or who has been notified thereof shall have a lien or charge upon any assets of the bank for any payment, advance, or clearance thereafter made or for any liability thereafter incurred.

The giving of notice in accordance with this section shall not be deemed to be a prerequisite to the taking of possession of the property and business of the bank.

SEC. 353. Section 3104 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3104. Upon taking possession of the property and business of any bank, the commissioner has authority and it is his or her duty to collect all moneys due to such bank and to do such other acts as are necessary or expedient to collect, conserve, or protect its assets, property, and business and he or she shall proceed to conserve or liquidate the affairs thereof as herein provided.

SEC. 354. Section 3106 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3106. The commissioner, from time to time, under his or her official seal, may appoint one or more special deputy commissioners as his or her agent or agents with the powers specified in the certificate of appointment to assist him or her in the duty of conservation or of liquidation and distribution. The certificate of appointment shall be filed in the office of the commissioner and a certified copy in the office of the clerk of the county in which the head office of the bank is located. The commissioner may employ such counsel and procure such expert assistance and advice as may be necessary in the liquidation and distribution of the assets of the bank and for that purpose may retain such of the officers or employees of the bank as he or she may deem necessary.

SEC. 355. Section 3107 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3107. The compensation of special deputies, counsel, and other employees and assistants appointed to assist in the liquidation of any bank and the distribution of its assets and all expenses of supervision and liquidation shall be fixed by the commissioner and shall be paid out of the funds of such bank in the hands of the commissioner. Such expenses of liquidation must be reported to the court upon each application for payment of a dividend.

SEC. 356. Section 3108 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3108. Upon the commissioner taking possession of the business and property of any bank the superior court of the State of California for the county in which the head office of such bank is located shall have exclusive original jurisdiction of all proceedings relating thereto and of any action or other proceedings brought under the provisions of this chapter. All papers relating to such proceeding, including copies of the certificate of appointment of any special deputy and the inventories required to be filed, shall be filed and be made a part of the record of such proceeding without the payment of any additional fees therefor. No damages may be awarded in such proceeding but, if sought, may only be recovered in a separate action.

SEC. 357. Section 3109 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3109. The commissioner may sell, compromise, or compound any bad or doubtful debt owing the bank, which is for a principal sum not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), upon such terms as the commissioner may deem proper, and, if the principal sum thereof exceeds five hundred dollars ($500), the commissioner may compromise, compound, or sell the same upon such terms as the court may approve. If it appears improbable that a recovery on any debt can be had and that the costs of an action to collect would be lost and the principal sum thereof does not exceed five hundred dollars ($500), the commissioner may determine that no suit thereon shall be brought, and if the principal sum thereof exceeds five hundred dollars ($500), the commissioner may determine that no suit thereon be brought after obtaining approval of the court.

SEC. 358. Section 3110 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3110. The commissioner may sell any real or personal property of the bank for cash or on credit and on such other terms and conditions as the commissioner may deem proper, subject to the approval of the court.

SEC. 359. Section 3110.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3110.1. (a) The commissioner may, with the approval of the court and of the commissioner, sell any part or the whole of the business of the bank to any other bank. Such purchase and sale shall be approved by the purchasing bank, as follows:

(1) In case the purchasing bank is a bank organized under the laws of this state, by two-thirds of all of its directors.

(2) In case the bank is any bank other than a bank organized under the laws of this state, in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction under the laws of which the bank is organized.

(b) (1) Subject to any applicable federal statutes and regulations, any bank organized under the laws of this state may, with the approval of two-thirds of all of its directors and of the commissioner, purchase from the receiver of a national banking association the whole or any part of the business of such national banking association.

(2) Subject to any applicable federal statutes and regulations and any applicable laws of the jurisdiction under the laws of which such foreign banking corporation is organized, any foreign banking corporation which is licensed by the commissioner under Article 1 (commencing with Section 1750) of Chapter 14 to transact banking business in this state and which is authorized under Sections 1756 and 1756.1 to accept deposits in this state, may, with the approval of the commissioner, purchase from the receiver of a national banking association the whole or any part of the business of such national banking association.

(c) The provisions of Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 1200) and Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 1300) of Division 1 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code shall not apply to any purchase and sale of the type described in subdivision (a) or (b).

(d) When a purchase and sale of the type described in subdivision (a) or (b) becomes effective or, in case the receiver of a national banking association sells the whole or any part of the business of such national banking association to another national banking association, when such purchase and sale becomes effective, the purchasing bank shall, ipso facto and by operation of law and without further transfer, substitution, act, or deed, to the extent provided in the agreement of the purchase and sale or in the order of the court approving the purchase and sale and except as withheld or limited by such agreement or by such order:

(1) Succeed to the rights, obligations, properties, assets, investments, deposits, demands, and agreements of the bank whose business is sold, subject to the right of every depositor of such bank whose deposit is sold to withdraw his or her deposit in full on demand after such sale, irrespective of the terms under which the deposit was made;

(2) Succeed to the rights, obligations, properties, assets, investments, deposits, demands, and agreements of the bank whose business is sold under all trusts, executorships, administrations, guardianships, conservatorships, agencies, and other fiduciary or representative capacities, to the same extent as though the purchasing bank had originally assumed, acquired, or owned the same, subject to the rights of trustors and beneficiaries under the trusts so sold to nominate another or succeeding trustee of the trust so sold after the sale; and

(3) Succeed to and be entitled to take and execute the appointment to executorships, trusteeships, guardianships, conservatorships, and other fiduciary and representative capacities to which the bank whose business is sold is or may be named in wills, whenever probated, or to which it is or may be named or appointed by any other instrument.

(e) For purposes of subdivision (d), any purchase and sale of the type referred to in subdivision (d) shall be deemed to be effective at such time as is provided in the agreement of such purchase and sale or in the order of the court approving the purchase and sale.

SEC. 360. Section 3111 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3111. Within six months after taking possession of the property and business of any bank the commissioner may terminate or adopt any executory contract to which the bank may be a party including leases of real or personal property. Claims for damages resulting from the termination of any such contract or lease may be filed and allowed, but no claim of a landlord for damages resulting from the rejection of an unexpired lease of real property or under any covenant of such lease shall be allowed in an amount exceeding the rent reserved by the lease, without acceleration, for the year succeeding the date of the surrender of the premises plus the amount of any unpaid accrued rent without acceleration. Any such claim must be filed within 30 days of the date of such termination or within the time that claims must be filed under Section 3118, whichever is longer.

SEC. 361. Section 3112 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3112. The commissioner in his or her own name or in the name of the bank may execute, acknowledge, and deliver any and all conveyances and other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate the sale of any real or personal property or to effectuate any other transaction in connection with the liquidation of the bank or the distribution of its assets. Any conveyance or other instrument executed by the commissioner pursuant to this authority shall be valid and effectual for all purposes as though the same had been executed by the officers of the bank by authority of its board of directors. Whenever the commissioner sells any real property of the bank a certified copy of the order of the court approving the same shall be recorded in the county in which any part of such real property is located.

SEC. 362. Section 3113 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3113. The commissioner in the name of the delinquent bank or in his or her own name may prosecute and defend any and all actions and other legal proceedings appropriate or necessary to the liquidation of such bank.

SEC. 363. Section 3114 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3114. The commissioner from time to time shall deposit all moneys coming into his or her hands in the course of the liquidation of the bank in one or more state banks and in the event of the suspension or insolvency of the depositary they shall be preferred before all other deposits.

SEC. 364. Section 3115 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3115. The commissioner shall make an inventory of the assets of the bank in duplicate and file one in the office of the commissioner and one with the clerk of the county in which the head office of the bank is located to be filed with the papers in the liquidation proceedings. Such inventory shall be open for inspection at all reasonable times.

SEC. 365. Section 3116 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3116. When the time fixed for the presentation of claims has expired the commissioner shall make in duplicate a full and complete list of all claims presented, including and specifying such claims as have been rejected by the commissioner, and a list of all claims of depositors as shown by the books or records of said bank for which claims have not yet been presented, and shall file one copy of said list in the commissioner's office and one with the clerk of the county in which the head office of the bank is located to be filed with the papers in the liquidation proceedings. Before each application to the court for leave to declare a dividend the commissioner shall file a supplemental list of claims presented since the last preceding list was filed, including and specifying such claims as have been rejected by him or her. Such list of claims and of claims of depositors as shown by the books or records of the bank shall be open for inspection at all reasonable times.

SEC. 366. Section 3117 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3117. The commissioner shall cause notice to be given by advertisement in such newspapers of general circulation as he or she may select weekly for three consecutive months, calling on all persons who have claims against the bank to present the same to the commissioner and make legal proof thereof at a place to be specified therein and within four months of the date of the first publication of such notice, which date shall be specified in the notice. Such notice shall also state that all claims other than those of depositors appearing upon the books or records of the bank shall be forever barred if not filed within said four months' period and that all claims of depositors appearing upon the books or records of the bank will be forever barred, except as herein provided, if not filed prior to the filing of a petition for a final dividend. The commissioner shall also mail a similar notice to all persons, including depositors, whose names appear as creditors upon the books of the bank and whose addresses appear upon the books or records of the bank and shall enclose therewith a printed form of notice of claim.

SEC. 367. Section 3118 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3118. All claims of every kind against the bank or against any property owned or held by such bank shall be presented to the commissioner in writing verified by the claimant or someone in his or her behalf within four months of the date of the first publication of the notice to creditors. Any claim, other than the claim of a depositor whose claim appears upon the books or records of the bank, not so presented within said four months' period shall be forever barred and any claim of a depositor whose claim appears upon the books or records of the bank which is not so presented prior to the date of the filing of the petition of the commissioner with the court for approval of the payment of the final dividend shall be forever barred except as to any moneys remaining after all debts for which claims were duly filed have been paid in full with interest. If the commissioner doubts the validity of any claim he or she may reject the same and serve notice of such rejection upon the claimant either by mail or personally. An affidavit of the mailing or personal service of such notice shall be prima facie evidence of the receipt thereof and shall be filed with the commissioner. Any action upon a claim so rejected must be brought within three months after the date of mailing or personal service of the notice of rejection.

SEC. 368. Section 3119 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3119. At any time and from time to time after the expiration of the time fixed for the presentation of claims, the commissioner, after obtaining approval of the court, may declare and pay one or more dividends upon all approved claims out of the funds remaining in his or her hands after the payment of expenses and after setting aside an amount sufficient to pay to all depositors, who have not yet filed claims but whose claims appear upon the books or records of the bank, their pro rata share of the funds then available for the payment of a dividend. At any time after the expiration of one year from the date of the first publication of notice to creditors and after obtaining the approval of the court the commissioner may declare and pay a final dividend.

SEC. 369. Section 3120 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3120. Objections to any claim not rejected by the commissioner may be made by any person interested by filing a copy of such objections with the commissioner, who shall present the same to the court at the time of the next application for approval of the declaration of a dividend. The court shall thereupon dispose of said objections or may order a reference for that purpose, and should the objections to any claim be sustained by the court or by the referee, such claim shall not be allowed by the commissioner until the claimant has established the claim by judgment.

SEC. 370. Section 3121 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3121. Dividends remaining unpaid and any sums available for payment of deposits for which no claim was filed, which remain in the hands of the commissioner six months after the order for the payment of a final dividend, shall be deposited in the State Treasury. Such deposits shall be deemed to have been received under the provisions of Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 1500) of Title 10 of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and shall be subject to claim or other disposition as provided in said Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 1500) of Title 10. The commissioner may pay over the moneys so held by him or her to the persons respectively entitled thereto at any time prior to such deposit, upon being furnished satisfactory evidence of their right to the same.

SEC. 371. Section 3121.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3121.5. Whenever, under the provisions of this chapter, the commissioner is required to transmit unclaimed money or other unclaimed property to any state officer for deposit in the State Treasury, the commissioner, upon request of the Controller, shall transmit to the Controller all signature cards and such other identifying information as may be available from the records of the bank, covering such money or other property. Upon receipt by the Controller of such signature cards or other identifying information, the bank and the commissioner shall be relieved of all responsibility therefor. Such signature cards and other identifying information may be destroyed or otherwise disposed of by the Controller whenever, in his or her discretion, their further retention by him or her is no longer required in the interest of the depositors or this state.

SEC. 372. Section 3122 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3122. All approved claims of depositors and other creditors shall bear interest at the rate provided by law on judgments from the date that the commissioner takes possession of the property and business of the bank.

SEC. 373. Section 3123 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3123. Should the bank have in its possession for safekeeping or storage any jewelry, plate, money, specie, bullion, stocks, bonds, securities, valuable papers, or other valuable personal property or should it have rented any vaults, safes, or safe-deposit boxes, the commissioner shall cause to be mailed by registered mail, postage prepaid, to any known person claiming to be or appearing on the books of the bank to be the owner of such property or to the person in whose name the safe, vault, or box stands a notice notifying such person to remove all such personal property within a specified fixed period of not less than 60 days.

SEC. 374. Section 3125 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3125. If any property be not removed within the time fixed by notice mailed by the commissioner, the commissioner may make such disposition of the property as the court on application thereto shall direct. The commissioner may cause any safe, vault, or box to be opened in his or her presence or in the presence of one of the special deputy commissioners and of a notary public not an officer or employee of the bank or of the commissioner. The contents thereof, if any, shall be sealed up by such notary public in a package upon which such notary public shall distinctly mark the name and address of the person in whose name such safe or box stands upon the books of the bank and shall attach thereto a list and a description of the property therein. The package so sealed and addressed, together with the list and description may be kept by the commissioner in one or more of the safes or boxes of the bank or elsewhere until delivered to the person whose name it bears or until otherwise disposed of as directed by the court.

SEC. 375. Section 3126 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3126. (a) When the commissioner has completed the liquidation of the bank, he or she shall petition the court for an order declaring the bank duly wound up and dissolved.

(b) After such notice as the court may direct and a hearing, the court may make an order declaring the bank duly wound up and dissolved. Such order shall declare:

(1) That the bank has been duly wound up;

(2) That any tax or penalty due under the Bank and Corporation Tax Law has been paid or secured and that the bank's other known debts and liabilities have been paid or adequately provided for, or that such taxes, penalties, debts, and liabilities have been paid so far as the bank's assets permitted, as the case may be. If there are known debts or liabilities for the payment of which adequate provision has been made, the order shall describe such provision, setting forth such information as may be necessary to enable the creditor or other person to whom payment is to be made to appear and claim payment of the debt or liability;

(3) That all known assets of the bank have been distributed to its shareholders or wholly applied on account of the bank's debts and liabilities; and

(4) That the bank is dissolved.

(c) The court may make such additional orders and grant such further relief as it deems proper upon the evidence submitted.

(d) Upon the making of the order declaring the bank dissolved, the corporate existence of the bank shall cease, except for the purposes of any necessary further winding up.

(e) Upon the making of the order declaring the bank dissolved, the commissioner shall forthwith file with the Secretary of State a copy of such order, certified by the clerk of the court. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 23334 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, there need not be filed with the Secretary of State any certificate of satisfaction of the Franchise Tax Board that all taxes due from the bank have been paid or secured.

SEC. 376. Section 3131 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3131. Whenever pursuant to the provisions of this chapter the approval of the court is required of any step in the liquidation proceedings such approval shall be given after a hearing had upon such notice as the court may direct. At any such hearing the court may by order approve the actions of the commissioner for which he or she has petitioned the court's approval or it may, by appropriate order, otherwise direct the commissioner in the matter in connection with which the petition was filed.

SEC. 377. Section 3132 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3132. Whenever in the opinion of the commissioner the liquidation or reorganization of any bank taken in charge by him or her would be facilitated thereby, or the public interests and the interests of depositors or stockholders would be served thereby, the commissioner shall have power to borrow money in behalf of such bank from any federal agency authorized to lend money to receivers, trustees, liquidating agents, or other agents or supervisory authorities in charge of banks which are closed or in process of liquidation, and with approval of the court, the commissioner may secure such borrowings by the pledge of the assets of any such bank in such manner and amount as may to the commissioner seem necessary, proper, or expedient.

SEC. 378. Section 3150 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3150. Any bank which voluntarily has ceased to do a banking business shall immediately notify the commissioner thereof and shall then proceed to liquidate its affairs. Any deposit or other sum which has not been paid to the person entitled thereto within six months after the bank ceased to conduct a banking business shall be paid into the State Treasury. Such deposits shall be deemed to have been received under the provisions of Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 1500) of Title 10 of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and shall be subject to claim or other disposition as provided in said Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 1500) of Title 10. If the commissioner has reason to conclude that the liquidation of such bank is not being safely or expeditiously conducted, he or she may take possession of the business and property of such bank in the same manner and with the same effect and subject to the same rights accorded the bank as if he or she had taken possession pursuant to the provisions of Article 1 of this chapter, and he or she may proceed to liquidate its affairs in the same manner as provided in said Article 1. When such bank has been completely liquidated, its corporate existence shall be dissolved in the manner provided by law.

SEC. 379. Section 3160 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3160. Whenever any bank or trust company is being liquidated or whenever the trust business of any bank or trust company has been discontinued and the bank or trust company has in its possession money or other property held by it in trust or for safekeeping and the beneficiaries or persons entitled thereto are unknown or cannot be found, the commissioner or the bank or trust company, upon obtaining approval of the superior court of the county in which the liquidation proceedings are pending or in which the head office of such trust company or bank is situated, may:

(a) In the case of money, deliver the same to the Treasurer;

(b) In the case of other property, deliver the same to the Controller for deposit in the State Treasury.

SEC. 380. Section 3180 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3180. Whenever the commissioner deems it necessary in order to conserve the assets of any bank for the benefit of the depositors and other creditors, he or she may appoint a conservator of such bank and require of the conservator such bond as the commissioner deems proper. The conservator, under the direction of the commissioner, shall take possession of the books, records, and assets of every description of such bank and take such action as the conservator may deem necessary to conserve the assets of such bank pending further disposition of its business.

SEC. 381. Section 3181 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3181. A conservator so appointed has all of the powers and rights with relation to the business and the property of the bank for which he or she is appointed conservator as are possessed by the commissioner under Article 1 of this chapter with relation to a bank of which he or she has taken possession and the conservator is subject to the same obligations as are imposed upon the commissioner under that article. Upon the appointment of a conservator the bank shall have the same rights as are granted by Sections 3101 and 3102 hereof to a bank whose business and assets have been taken possession of by the commissioner. During the time that the conservator remains in possession of such bank the rights of the bank and of all persons with respect thereto, subject to the other provisions of this article, are the same as if the commissioner had taken possession of the property and business of such bank for the purposes of liquidation. All expenses of any such conservatorship shall be paid out of the assets of the bank and shall be a lien thereon which shall be prior to any other lien. The conservator shall receive a salary in an amount no greater than that which would be paid by the commissioner to a special deputy in charge of the liquidation of a bank.

SEC. 382. Section 3182 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3182. The commissioner shall cause to be made and completed at the earliest possible date such an examination of the affairs of a bank for which the commissioner has appointed a conservator as shall be necessary to inform the commissioner as to its financial condition.

SEC. 383. Section 3183 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3183. While any bank is in the hands of a conservator the commissioner may require the conservator to set aside and make available for withdrawal by depositors and for payment to other creditors on a ratable basis such amounts as in the opinion of the commissioner may safely be used for that purpose.

SEC. 384. Section 3184 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3184. The commissioner in his or her discretion may permit the conservator to receive deposits but any deposits received while the bank is in the hands of a conservator shall be held as trust funds and shall not be subject to any limitation as to payment or withdrawal. Such deposits shall be segregated and shall not be used to liquidate any indebtedness of such bank existing at the time such conservator was appointed or for the payment of any later indebtedness incurred for the purpose of liquidating any indebtedness of such bank existing at the time such conservator was appointed. Such deposits shall be kept on hand in cash, invested in direct obligations of the United States, or deposited with the Federal Reserve Bank.

SEC. 385. Section 3185 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3185. If the commissioner becomes satisfied that it may safely be done and that it would be in the public interest he or she may terminate the conservatorship and permit the bank for whom a conservator was appointed to resume the transaction of its business under the direction of its board, subject to such terms, conditions, restrictions, and limitations as he or she may prescribe.

SEC. 386. Section 3186 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3186. In any case in which a bank for which a conservator has been appointed has been permitted to accept deposits since the appointment of a conservator, the conservator, before the date upon which the bank may be permitted to resume business under direction of its board, shall cause to be published in a newspaper selected by him or her as most likely to give proper notice, a notice giving the date on which the affairs of the bank will be returned to its board and stating that the provisions of Section 3184 will not be effective after 30 days from such date. The form of such notice and the newspaper in which the same is to be published shall be first approved by the commissioner. On the date of the publication of such notice the conservator shall mail to every person who made any deposit in such bank after the date of the appointment of the conservator a copy of such notice addressed to such person at the address appearing upon the books of the bank and shall mail a similar notice to every person making a deposit in the bank after the date of the publication of such notice and prior to the time when the affairs of the bank are returned to its board.

SEC. 387. Section 3187 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3187. The commissioner is authorized to assess and collect from all banks as may become subject to the provisions of this article their ratable share of the costs incurred in the administration thereof.

SEC. 388. Section 3200 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3200. Any bank, including a bank of which the commissioner has taken possession pursuant to Article 1 hereof or a bank for which a conservator has been appointed pursuant to Article 4 hereof may be reorganized under a plan which requires the consent:

(a) Of depositors and other creditors of such bank representing at least 75 percent in amount of its total deposits and other liabilities as shown by the books of the bank, excluding deposits and other liabilities which are to be satisfied in full under the provisions of the plan; or

(b) Of stockholders owning at least two-thirds of the outstanding capital stock as shown by the books of the bank; or

(c) Of depositors and other creditors of such bank representing at least 75 percent in amount of its total deposits and other liabilities as shown by the books of the bank, excluding deposits and other liabilities which are to be satisfied in full under the provisions of the plan, and of stockholders owning at least two-thirds of its outstanding capital stock as shown by the books of the bank.

SEC. 389. Section 3201 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3201. All depositors, creditors, stockholders, and other interested persons shall be given notice of any proposed plan of reorganization in such manner and at such times as the commissioner directs.

SEC. 390. Section 3202 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3202. No plan of reorganization shall become effective until the commissioner finds that the plan is fair and equitable to all depositors, creditors, and stockholders and is in the public interest and until the commissioner approves the same in writing, subject to such conditions, restrictions, and limitations as he or she may prescribe.

SEC. 391. Section 3204 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3204. When any plan of reorganization becomes effective all books, records, and assets of such bank shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the plan and the affairs of the bank shall be conducted by its board in the manner provided by the plan and under the conditions, restrictions, and limitations which may have been prescribed by the commissioner. When any plan of reorganization adopted and approved as herein provided becomes effective all depositors and other creditors and stockholders of the bank, whether or not they have consented to the plan of reorganization, shall be fully and in all respects subject to and bound by its provisions and claims of all depositors and other creditors shall be treated as if they had consented to the plan of reorganization.

SEC. 392. Section 3221 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3221. The commissioner, when he or she has taken possession of the property and assets of a closed insured bank for the purpose of liquidation and if he or she deems it advisable, may tender to the corporation the appointment as receiver of such bank.

SEC. 393. Section 3223 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3223. The corporation as such receiver shall possess with respect to such closed insured bank all the powers, rights, and privileges given the commissioner under Article 1 of this chapter with respect to the liquidation of a bank the property and assets of which he or she has taken possession, except insofar as the same may be in conflict with the provisions of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, as amended.

SEC. 394. Section 3225 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3225. When acting as the receiver of a closed insured bank, the corporation with the consent of the commissioner and the approval of the court may sell to the corporation any part or all of the assets of the bank or borrow from the corporation and furnish any part or all of the assets of the bank as security for the loan.

SEC. 395. Section 3353 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3353. Any director, officer, agent, or employee of a bank who knowingly concurs in making or publishing any written report, exhibit, or statement of its affairs or pecuniary condition containing any material statement which is false, or having the custody of its books wilfully refuses or neglects to make any proper entry in such books as required by law, or to exhibit or allow the same to be inspected or extracts to be taken therefrom by the commissioner or his or her deputies or examiners, is guilty of a felony.

SEC. 396. Section 3354 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3354. (a) In this section, "subject person," when used with respect to a bank, means any director or officer of the bank, any controlling person of the bank, or any director or officer of a controlling person of the bank. For purposes of this subdivision, "controlling person" has the meaning set forth in subdivision (c) of Section 700.

(b) No bank shall purchase any real or personal property or any interest in real or personal property, including, but not limited to, a leasehold, or any contract arising from the sale of real or personal property or any note or bond in which any subject person of such bank is personally or financially interested, directly or indirectly, for such person's own account, for such person, or as the partner or agent of others, without first obtaining the written consent of the commissioner.

SEC. 397. Section 3356 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3356. (a) In this section, "subject person" has the meaning set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 3354.

(b) No subject person of a bank shall purchase, directly or indirectly, or be interested in the purchase of any of the bank's obligations or assets for an amount less than the book value thereof, unless all the directors of such bank previously approve such purchase by resolution, and a copy of such resolution is transmitted to the commissioner immediately after adoption. Every person violating this section shall be liable to the people of the state, for each offense, for twice the face value of the assets so purchased.

SEC. 398. Section 3357 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3357. Whenever by the terms of this division a penalty, liability, or forfeiture is imposed, such penalty, liability, or forfeiture shall be recovered in an action brought at the request of the commissioner, by the Attorney General, in the name of the people of the state, and the sum recovered shall be paid into the State Banking Account in the Financial Institutions Fund and used in payment of claims against such fund. Any pecuniary penalty incurred by any bank or person because of the violation of any provision of this division may be compromised and a lesser amount than that prescribed by this division may be accepted by the commissioner at any time prior to the institution of action to recover the same.

SEC. 399. Section 3359 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3359. (a) For purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

(1) "Carrying a security" means maintaining, reducing, or retiring indebtedness originally incurred to acquire a security.

(2) "Controlling person" has the same meaning specified in Section 700.

(3) "Security" has the following meanings:

(A) When used with respect to a bank, "security" has the same meaning set forth in subdivision (c) of Section 690.

(B) When used with respect to any other person, "security" has the same meaning set forth in Section 25019 of the Corporations Code.

(b) No bank shall acquire, hold, extend credit on the security of, or extend credit for the purpose of acquiring or carrying, any security of the bank or of any controlling person of the bank.

(c) (1) Any bank which acquires or holds securities in violation of this section shall be liable to the people of this state for twice the market, book, or face value of the securities, whichever is greatest.

(2) Any bank which extends credit in violation of this section shall be liable to the people of this state for twice the amount of the credit so extended.

(d) This section does not apply to any of the following transactions:

(1) Any acquisition or extension of credit by a bank which is necessary to reduce or prevent loss to the bank on debts previously contracted in good faith.

(2) Any redemption by a bank of any of its redeemable shares in accordance with applicable provisions of this division and of Division 1 (commencing with Section 100) of Title 1 of the Corporations Code.

(3) Any acquisition by a bank of any of its shares, other than an acquisition of the type described in paragraph (1) or (2), if the acquisition is approved in advance by the commissioner.

SEC. 400. Section 3371 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3371. As used in this article:

(a) "Bank" means:

(1) Any commercial bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state.

(2) Any foreign bank that is licensed by the commissioner under Article 3 (commencing with Section 1750) of Chapter 13.5 of this division to maintain a depositary agency or branch office (as defined in Section 1700) in this state, with respect to any office of that type.

(3) Any corporation incorporated under the laws of this state that is incorporated for the purpose of engaging in, or that is authorized by the commissioner to engage in, business under Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500) of Chapter 19.

(4) Any foreign corporation that is licensed by the commissioner under Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500) of Chapter 19 of this division to maintain an office in this state and to transact at the office business under that article, with respect to any office of that type.

(5) When used to designate a person that extends credit, any subsidiary of a bank, as defined in paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4).

(b) "Company" has the meaning set forth in subdivision (b) of Section 215.2 of Regulation O.

(c) "Executive officer" has the meaning set forth in paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 215.2 of Regulation O. Also, "executive officer," when used with respect to any bank of the type described in paragraph (2) or (4) of subdivision (a), includes the manager of each office of the type referred to in paragraph (2) or (4) of subdivision (a) that the bank maintains in this state.

(d) "Extension of credit" has the meaning set forth in Section 215.3 of Regulation O. However, for purposes of this subdivision, the term "member bank," as used in Section 215.3, means a bank.

(e) "Regulation O" means Regulation O (12 C.F.R., Part 215) of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, as in effect on July 1, 1995.

(f) "Subsidiary" has the meaning set forth in Section 1841(d) of Title 12 of the United States Code. However, for purposes of this subdivision, the term "bank holding company," as used in Section 1841(d) of Title 12 of the United States Code, means a bank holding company, as defined in Section 1841(a) of Title 12 of the United States Code, or a bank, and the term "board," as used in Section 1841(d) of Title 12 of the United States Code, means the commissioner.

SEC. 400.1. Section 3371 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3371. As used in this article:

(a) "Bank" means:

(1) Any commercial bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state.

(2) Any foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed by the commissioner under Article 3 (commencing with Section 1750) of Chapter 13.5 of this division to maintain a depositary agency or branch office (as defined in Section 1700) in this state, with respect to any office of that type.

(3) Any corporation incorporated under the laws of this state that is incorporated for the purpose of engaging in, or that is authorized by the commissioner to engage in, business under Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500) of Chapter 19.

(4) Any foreign corporation that is licensed by the commissioner under Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500) of Chapter 19 of this division to maintain an office in this state and to transact at the office business under that article, with respect to any office of that type.

(5) When used to designate a person that extends credit, any subsidiary of a bank, as defined in paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4).

(b) "Company" has the meaning set forth in subdivision (b) of Section 215.2 of Regulation O.

(c) "Executive officer" has the meaning set forth in paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 215.2 of Regulation O. Also, "executive officer," when used with respect to any bank of the type described in paragraph (2) or (4) of subdivision (a), includes the manager of each office of the type referred to in paragraph (2) or (4) of subdivision (a) that the bank maintains in this state.

(d) "Extension of credit" has the meaning set forth in Section 215.3 of Regulation O. However, for purposes of this subdivision, the term "member bank," as used in Section 215.3, means a bank.

(e) "Regulation O" means Regulation O (12 C.F.R., Part 215) of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, as in effect on July 1, 1995.

(f) "Subsidiary" has the meaning set forth in Section 1841(d) of Title 12 of the United States Code. However, for purposes of this subdivision, the term "bank holding company," as used in Section 1841(d) of Title 12 of the United States Code, means a bank holding company, as defined in Section 1841(a) of Title 12 of the United States Code, or a bank, and the term "board," as used in Section 1841(d) of Title 12 of the United States Code, means the commissioner.

SEC. 401. Section 3373 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3373. (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this article, whenever Section 215.2, 215.3, 215.4, 215.5, 215.7, or 215.8 is changed by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the commissioner may by regulation adopt that same change. Any regulation adopted under this section shall expire at 12 p.m. on December 31 of the year following the calendar year in which it becomes effective.

(b) For the purpose of Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, regulations adopted under this section are subject only to the provisions of Sections 11343.4, 11346.1, and 11349.6 of the Government Code.

SEC. 401.1. Section 3373 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3373. (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this article, whenever Section 215.2, 215.3, 215.4, 215.5, 215.7, or 215.8 is changed by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the commissioner may by regulation adopt that same change. Any regulation adopted under this section shall expire at 12 p.m. on December 31 of the year following the calendar year in which it becomes effective.

(b) (1) Section 11343.4 and Article 5 (commencing with Section 11346) and Article 6 (commencing with Section 11349) of Chapter 3.5 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code do not apply to any regulation adopted under subdivision (a).

(2) The commissioner shall file any regulation adopted pursuant to subdivision (a), together with a citation to subdivision (a) as authority for the adoption and a citation to the provisions of federal law made applicable by the regulation, with the Office of Administrative Law for filing with the Secretary of State and publication in the California Code of Regulations.

(c) A regulation adopted pursuant to subdivision (a) does not expire as provided by subdivision (a) and is not subject to subdivision (b) if the commissioner complies with all of the provisions of Chapter

3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of the Government Code in adopting the regulation, including those listed in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b).

SEC. 402. Section 3390 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3390. No person which has not received a certificate from the commissioner authorizing it to engage in the banking business shall solicit or receive deposits, issue certificates of deposit with or without provision for interest, make payments on check, or transact business in the way or manner of a commercial bank or trust company.

SEC. 403. Section 3391 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3391. No person which has not received a certificate from the commissioner authorizing it to engage in the banking business shall advertise that it is accepting deposits, and issuing notes or certificates therefor, or make use of any office sign, at the place where its business is transacted, having thereon any artificial or corporate name, or other words indicating that such place or office is the place or office of a bank or trust company, that deposits are received there or payments made on check, or any other form of banking business transacted, nor shall any such person make use of or circulate any letterheads, billheads, blank notes, blank receipts, certificates, or circulars, or any written or printed paper, whatever, having thereon any artificial or corporate name or other words indicating that such business is the business of a bank, commercial bank or trust company, or transact business in such a way or manner as to lead the public to believe that its business is that of a bank or trust company, except to the extent expressly authorized by this division.

SEC. 404. Section 3392 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3392. No person which has not received a certificate from the commissioner authorizing it to engage in the banking business shall transact business under any name or title which contains the word "bank" or "banker" or "banking" or "savings bank" or "trust" or "trustee" or "trust company" and which indicates that such business is the business of a bank or trust company. Any building and loan association or savings association having in its corporate name words not clearly indicating the nature of its business shall state, on all signs, letterheads, and advertising matter, "This is a building and loan association" or "This is a savings association" or words to that effect.

SEC. 405. Section 3392.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3392.5. No provision of Section 3390, 3391, or 3392 prohibits any of the following from transacting any business or performing any activity if it is authorized by applicable law to transact the business or perform the activity and is not prohibited by any applicable law (other than Sections 3390, 3391, and 3392) from transacting the business or performing the activity:

(a) Any California state commercial bank or trust company.

(b) Any national bank.

(c) Any insured foreign (other state) state bank.

(d) Any foreign (other state) state bank that is licensed by the commissioner under Article 4 (commencing with Section 3860) of Chapter 22 to maintain a facility (as defined in Section 3800) in this state.

(e) Any foreign (other nation) bank that is licensed by the commissioner under Chapter 13.5 (commencing with Section 1700) to maintain an office in this state.

(f) Any foreign (other nation) bank that maintains a federal agency (as defined in subdivision (g) of Section 1700) or federal branch (as defined in subdivision (h) of Section 1700) in this state.

(g) Any California state corporation that is incorporated for the purpose of engaging in, and that is authorized by the commissioner to engage in, business under Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500) of Chapter 19.

(h) Any corporation incorporated under Section 25A of the Federal Reserve Act (12 U.S.C. Sec. 612 et seq.).

(i) Any foreign corporation that is licensed by the commissioner under Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500) of Chapter 19 to maintain an office in this state and to transact at that office business under Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500) of Chapter 19.

(j) Any industrial loan company that is organized under the laws of this state and authorized by the commissioner under Division 7 (commencing with Section 18000) to engage in the industrial loan business or that is organized under the laws of another state of the United States and is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

SEC. 406. Section 3395 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3395. Any person or any bank violating any provision of the foregoing sections of this article shall be liable to the people of the state in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) a day or part thereof during which such violation continues. Any court of competent jurisdiction in a proceeding brought by the commissioner may enjoin any person from using words in violation of the provisions of this article or from transacting business in violation of this division or in such a way or manner as to lead the public to believe that its business is that of a bank, commercial bank or trust company.

SEC. 407. Section 3396 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3396. No person shall represent by advertisement, circular, or otherwise, or in any manner mislead anyone to believe, that any securities are legal investments for savings banks in this state or conform to the requirements of law relating to such investments, unless such securities are in fact at such time legal investments for such banks or do in fact so conform to such requirements or, unless such person, in making such representation, has acted in good faith and in reliance upon a certificate issued by the commissioner pursuant to Section 1371 issued within one year, upon published reports of the public or private corporations issuing such securities, upon information furnished by a public official in his or her official capacity or upon information furnished by any established statistical agency approved for this purpose by the commissioner. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punishable by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 408. Section 3501 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3501. When authorized by the previous written consent of the commissioner as provided by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 350) one or more persons may organize a corporation.

SEC. 409. Section 3503 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3503. The articles of incorporation shall be submitted to the commissioner for his or her approval before they are filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to the Corporations Code. After the articles have been filed with the Secretary of State the corporation shall file with the commissioner a copy thereof, certified by the Secretary of State, and, after the organization meeting of the directors, a copy of its bylaws certified by its secretary.

SEC. 410. Section 3504 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3504. Each corporation shall have power, under such rules and regulations as the commissioner may prescribe:

(a) To purchase, sell, discount, and negotiate, with or without its endorsement or guaranty, notes, drafts, checks, bills of exchange, acceptances, including bankers' acceptances, cable transfers, and other evidences of indebtedness; to purchase and sell, with or without its endorsement or guaranty, securities, including the obligations of the United States or of any state thereof but not including shares of stock in any corporation except as herein provided; to accept bills or drafts drawn upon it subject to such limitations and restrictions as the commissioner may impose; to issue letters of credit; to purchase and sell coin, bullion, and exchange; to borrow and to lend money; to issue debentures, bonds, and promissory notes under such general conditions as to security and such limitations as the commissioner may prescribe; to receive deposits outside of the United States and to receive only such deposits in this state or in any other state of the United States as may be incidental to or for the purpose of carrying out transactions in foreign countries or dependencies or insular possessions of the United States.

(b) Generally, to exercise such powers as are incidental to the powers conferred by this article or as may be usual, in the determination of the commissioner, in connection with the transaction of the business of banking or other financial operations in the countries, colonies, dependencies, or possessions in which it shall transact business and not inconsistent with the power specifically granted herein. Nothing contained in this article shall be construed to prohibit the commissioner, under his or her power to prescribe rules and regulations, from limiting the aggregate amount of liabilities of any or all classes incurred by the corporation and outstanding at any one time.

(c) To establish and maintain for the transaction of its business branches or agencies in foreign countries, their dependencies or colonies, and in any state of the United States, and in the dependencies or insular possessions of the United States, at such places as may be approved by the commissioner and under such rules and regulations as he or she may prescribe, including any state of the United States, or countries or dependencies not specified in the original organization certificate.

(d) With the consent of the commissioner to purchase and hold stock or other certificates of ownership in any other corporation organized under the laws of this state for the purpose of transacting business pursuant to this article, or under the laws of the United States, or under the laws of any foreign country or a colony of dependency thereof, or under the laws of any state, dependency or insular possession of the United States but not engaged in the general business of buying or selling goods, wares, merchandise, or commodities in the United States, and not transacting any business in the United States except such as in the judgment of the commissioner may be incidental to its international or foreign business.

SEC. 411. Section 3505 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3505. Except with the approval of the commissioner, no corporation shall invest in any one corporation an amount in excess of 10 per centum of its own shareholders' equity, except in a corporation engaged in the business of banking, when 15 per centum of its shareholders' equity may be so invested.

SEC. 412. Section 3507 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3507. Nothing contained in this article shall prevent corporations from purchasing and holding stock in any corporation where such purchase shall be necessary to prevent a loss upon a debt previously contracted in good faith; and stock so purchased or acquired in corporations shall within six months from such purchase be sold or disposed of at public or private sale unless the time to so dispose of same is extended by the commissioner as provided by Section 762.

SEC. 413. Section 3508 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3508. No corporation shall carry on any part of its business in the United States except such as, in the judgment of the commissioner, shall be incidental to its international or foreign business. Except such as is incidental and preliminary to its organization no corporation shall exercise any of the powers conferred by this article until it has been duly authorized by the commissioner to commence business under the provisions of this article.

SEC. 414. Section 3514 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3514. (a) In this section, "foreign bank" means any company organized under the laws of a foreign country, a territory of the United States, Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, or the Virgin Islands, which engages in the business of banking, or any subsidiary or affiliate, organized under such laws, of any such company. "Foreign bank" includes, without limitation, foreign commercial banks, foreign merchant banks, and other foreign institutions that engage in banking activities usual in connection with the business of banking in the countries where such foreign institutions are organized or operating.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (c), a majority of the shares of the capital stock of any corporation shall at all times be held and owned by citizens of the United States, by corporations the controlling interest in which is owned by citizens of the United States, chartered under the laws of the United States or of a state of the United States, or by firms or companies, the controlling interest in which is owned by citizens of the United States.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (b), one or more foreign banks, institutions organized under the laws of foreign countries which own or control foreign banks, or banks organized under the laws of the United States, the states of the United States, or the District of Columbia, the controlling interests in which are owned by any such foreign banks or institutions, may, with the approval of the commissioner and upon such terms and conditions and subject to such rules and regulations as the commissioner may prescribe, own and hold 50 percent or more of the shares of the capital stock of any corporation.

SEC. 415. Section 3515 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3515. Whenever it shall appear to the commissioner that any corporation has violated the provisions of its articles of incorporation or any law of this state, or is conducting its business in an unsafe or unauthorized manner, or if the contributed capital of any such corporation is impaired, or if the corporation shall refuse to submit its books, papers and concerns to the inspection of any examiner of the department or if any officer thereof shall refuse to be examined upon oath touching the concerns of the corporation or if the corporation shall suspend payment of its obligations, or if from any examination or report provided for by this article the commissioner shall have reason to conclude that the corporation is in an unsound or unsafe condition to transact the business for which it is organized, or that it is unsafe and inexpedient for it to continue business, or if any corporation shall neglect or refuse to observe any order of the commissioner specified in Section 662, 1912, or 1913, the commissioner may forthwith take possession of the property and business of such corporation and retain such possession until such corporation shall resume business, or its affairs be finally liquidated as provided by this code for the liquidation of banks.

SEC. 416. Section 3520 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3520. Every corporation shall conform its methods of keeping its books and records to such orders in respect thereto as have been made and promulgated by the commissioner. Any corporation that refuses or neglects to obey such order shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100) for each day it so refuses or neglects.

SEC. 417. Section 3521 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3521. Each official communication directed by the commissioner to a corporation or to any officer thereof, relating to an examination or investigation conducted by the department or containing suggestions or recommendations as to the conduct of the business of such corporation, shall be submitted, by the officer receiving it, to the board at the next meeting of such board, and duly noted in the minutes of the meetings of such board.

SEC. 418. Section 3522 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3522. On or before the first day of February in each year, each corporation and every foreign corporation licensed by the commissioner to transact the business of such a corporation in this state, shall make a written report to the commissioner which shall contain a statement of its condition on the morning of the first day of January in that year and shall be in the form and contain the matters prescribed by the commissioner. The commissioner may, however, in his or her discretion, accept from a corporation, which has branches in a foreign country or countries, a report containing a statement of its condition as of a date not later than the first day of January and not earlier than the first day of November in the preceding year. Every report shall be verified by the oaths of the two principal officers in charge of the affairs of the corporation or foreign corporation at the time of the verification, which shall state that the report is true and correct in all respects to the best of the knowledge and belief of the persons verifying it, and that the usual business of the corporation or foreign corporation has been transacted at the location required by this article and not elsewhere.

SEC. 419. Section 3523 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3523. Every corporation and foreign corporation shall also make such other special reports to the commissioner as he or she may from time to time require, which shall be in such form and filed at such date as may be prescribed by the commissioner and shall, if required by the commissioner, be verified in such manner as he or she may prescribe.

SEC. 420. Section 3524 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3524. If any corporation or foreign corporation shall fail to make any report required by this article on or before the day designated for the making thereof, or shall fail to include therein any matter required by the commissioner, it shall forfeit to the people of the state the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) for every day that such report shall be delayed or withheld, and for every day that it shall fail to report any such omitted matter, unless the time therefor shall have been extended by the commissioner.

SEC. 421. Section 3526 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3526. Every corporation shall keep at its main office, or if its main office is to be located outside of this state, at its branch or other office in this state, books containing the names of all stockholders thereof, and the names and addresses of the members of its board of directors, together with copies of all reports made by it to the commissioner.

SEC. 422. Section 3527 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3527. Every corporation shall make reports to the commissioner at such times and in such form as the commissioner may require and is subject to examination by examiners appointed by the commissioner, to the extent and whenever and as often as the commissioner shall deem it advisable, but in no case less than once every two calendar years. The cost of such examinations shall be fixed by the commissioner and be paid by the corporation examined.

SEC. 423. Section 3531 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3531. Every officer, director, clerk, employee, or agent of any corporation who embezzles, abstracts, or willfully misapplies any of the moneys, funds, credits, securities, evidence of indebtedness or assets of any character of such corporation, or who, without authority from the directors, issues or puts forth any certificate of deposit, draws any order or bill of exchange, makes any acceptance, assigns any note, bond, debenture, draft, bill of exchange, mortgage, judgment, or decree, or who makes any false entry in any book, report, or statement of such corporation with intent, in either case, to injure or defraud such corporation or any other company, body politic or corporate, or any individual person, or to deceive any officer of such corporation, the commissioner, or any agent or examiner appointed to examine the affairs of any such corporation; and every receiver of any corporation and every clerk or employee of such receiver who shall embezzle, abstract, or willfully misapply or wrongfully convert to his or her own use any moneys, funds, credits, or assets of any character which may come into his or her possession or under his or her control in the execution of his or her trust or the performance of the duties of his or her employment; and every such receiver or clerk or employee of such receiver who shall, with intent to injure or defraud any person, body politic or corporate, or to deceive or mislead the commissioner or any agent or examiner appointed to examine the affairs of such receiver, shall make any false entry in any book, report, or record of any matter connected with the duties of such receiver; and every person who with like intent aids or abets any officer, director, clerk, employee, or agent of any corporation, or receiver or clerk or employee of such receiver as aforesaid in any violation of this article shall upon conviction thereof be imprisoned for two, three, or four years, and may also be fined not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000), in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 424. Section 3534 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3534. Every foreign corporation before being licensed by the commissioner to transact in this state the business of a corporation, or any part thereof, shall subscribe and acknowledge and submit to the commissioner at his or her office, an application certificate in duplicate, which shall specifically state:

(a) The name of such foreign corporation.

(b) The place where its business is to be transacted in this state.

(c) The amount of its capital stock actually paid in cash and the amount subscribed for and unpaid.

(d) A complete and detailed statement of its financial condition as of a date within 60 days prior to the date of such application certificate.

SEC. 425. Section 3535 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3535. At the time the application certificate is first submitted to the commissioner, such corporation shall also submit a duly authenticated copy of its charter, or articles, and its bylaws.

SEC. 426. Section 3536 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3536. No foreign corporation shall transact in this state the business defined in this article or any part thereof, unless such corporation shall have:

(a) Been authorized by its charter to carry on such business and shall have complied with the laws of the state or country under which it is incorporated.

(b) Made the deposit with the State Treasurer required by this article.

(c) Designated the commissioner, by an instrument in writing duly executed, its true and lawful attorney upon whom all process in any action or proceeding by any resident of this state against it may be served with the same effect as if it were a domestic corporation and had been lawfully served with process within this state.

(d) Received a license duly issued to it by the commissioner.

SEC. 427. Section 3537 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3537. When the commissioner shall have issued a license to any foreign corporation, it may engage in the business of a corporation of the kind authorized by this article at the location specified in the license.

SEC. 428. Section 3538 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3538. Every foreign corporation, before receiving a license to transact business in this state, shall deposit with the State Treasurer of the State of California upon authorization of the commissioner, in trust as security for the depositors with and creditors of such corporation in this state, lawful money of the United States or securities of the kind and character described in Article 3 (commencing at Section 1540) of Chapter 12 of this division, of the value of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000). Such foreign corporation so long as it shall continue solvent and comply with the laws of this state, may be permitted by the commissioner to collect the interest on the securities so deposited and from time to time to exchange such securities for others, and examine and compare such securities, as provided by said article.

SEC. 429. Section 3540 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3540. Every foreign corporation, duly licensed by the commissioner to transact in this state the business defined and authorized in this article, or any part thereof, shall within 30 days after the date of such license, submit to the commissioner a statement verified by two of its principal officers, which shall contain the full name and business address of every individual, partnership or unincorporated association, who is acting or whom it proposes to have act as its agent or representative in this state. Whenever any such corporation shall engage any person to act for it in this state and the name and address of such person is not contained in such verified statement submitted to the commissioner, such foreign corporation shall forthwith submit to the commissioner an amended statement verified in the same manner as the original. A violation of this provision shall subject such foreign corporation to a forfeiture of one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each offense.

SEC. 430. Section 3541 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3541. Whenever the commissioner shall have revoked the license of any such foreign corporation and shall have taken the action to make such revocation effective, all the rights and privileges of the foreign corporation to transact business in this state shall forthwith cease and determine.

SEC. 431. Section 3543 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3543. An international or foreign banking or financing corporation organized under the laws of the United States may convert into a state international or foreign banking or financing corporation with the approval of the commissioner which he or she shall not grant unless he or she is satisfied that such international or foreign banking or financing corporation organized under the laws of the United States meets all of the requirements set forth in this article for the establishment of a state international or foreign banking or financing corporation.

SEC. 432. Section 3546 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3546. Whenever a state international or foreign banking or financing corporation survives the merger of one or more international or foreign banking or financing corporations and the agreement for merger has been filed with the Secretary of State with the approval of the commissioner endorsed thereon, a copy thereof, certified by the Secretary of State, shall immediately be filed with the commissioner and upon, but not until, such filing the merger shall be and become effective for all purposes.

SEC. 433. Section 3560 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3560. Any bank may, with the consent of the commissioner, upon such conditions and under such regulations as he or she may prescribe, invest in the stock of one or more corporations organized under the laws of the United States for the purpose of engaging in international or foreign banking or other international or foreign financial operations, or in banking or other financial operations in a dependency or insular possession of the United States, either directly or through the agency, ownership or control of local institutions in foreign countries, or in such dependencies or insular possessions and to act when required by the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States as fiscal agents of the United States; provided, however, that the aggregate amount of stock held in all corporations engaged in business of the kind described in this chapter, together with such bank's investment in foreign branches established under the provisions of Article 2 (commencing at Section 530) of Chapter 4, shall not exceed 10 per centum of the subscribing bank's shareholders' equity.

SEC. 433.1. Section 3560 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3560. Any bank may, with the consent of the commissioner, upon such conditions and under such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe, invest in the stock of one or more corporations organized under the laws of the United States for the purpose of engaging in international or foreign banking or other international or foreign financial operations, or in banking or other financial operations in a dependency or insular possession of the United States, either directly or through the agency, ownership or control of local institutions in foreign countries, or in dependencies or insular possessions of the United States and to act when required by the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States as fiscal agents of the United States; provided, however, that the aggregate amount of stock held in all corporations engaged in business of the kind described in this chapter shall not exceed 10 per centum of the subscribing bank's shareholders' equity.

SEC. 434. Section 3561 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3561. Every bank investing in the capital stock of any corporation described in Section 3560 shall be required to furnish information concerning the condition of such corporation to the commissioner upon demand, and the commissioner may order special examinations of said corporation at such time or times as he or she may deem appropriate. The cost of such special examinations shall be paid by said corporation.

SEC. 435. Section 3562 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3562. Before any bank shall be permitted to purchase stock in any corporation described in Section 3560 the said corporation shall enter into an agreement or undertaking with the commissioner to restrict its operations or conduct of its business in such manner or under such limitations and restrictions as the said commissioner may prescribe for the place or places wherein such business is to be conducted. If at any time the commissioner shall ascertain that the regulations prescribed by him or her are not being complied with, said commissioner is hereby authorized and shall have power to institute an investigation of the matter and to send for persons and papers, subpoena witnesses and administer oaths in order to satisfy himself or herself as to the actual nature of the transactions referred to.

Should such investigation result in establishing the failure of the corporation in question, or any bank which may be a stockholder therein, to comply with the regulations laid down by the said commissioner, said bank may be required to dispose of its stockholding in the said corporation upon reasonable notice.

SEC. 436. Section 3570 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3570. Any bank may, with the consent of the commissioner, upon such conditions and under such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe, invest in the stock of one or more corporations organized under the laws of any state of the United States (other than a corporation organized under the laws of this state for the purposes of transacting business under the provisions of Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500) of this chapter) and principally engaged in international or foreign banking, or banking in a dependency or insular possession of the United States either directly or through the agency, ownership, or control of local institutions in foreign countries, or in such dependencies or insular possessions; provided, however, that said stock at the time of the acquisition would constitute a permissible investment for a national bank; and provided, further, that the aggregate amount of stock held in all corporations engaged in business of the kind described in this chapter, together with such bank's investment in foreign branches established under the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 530) of Chapter 4, shall not exceed 10 percent of the subscribing bank's shareholders' equity. Nothing in this section shall be construed in any way to limit the powers conferred by Section 3513.

SEC. 436.1. Section 3570 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3570. Any bank may, with the consent of the commissioner, upon such conditions and under such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe, invest in the stock of one or more corporations organized under the laws of any state of the United States (other than a corporation organized under the laws of this state for the purposes of transacting business under the provisions of Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500) of this chapter) and principally engaged in international or foreign banking, or banking in a dependency or insular possession of the United States either directly or through the agency, ownership, or control of local institutions in foreign countries, or in dependencies or insular possessions of the United States; provided, however, that the stock at the time of the acquisition would constitute a permissible investment for a national bank; and provided, further, that the aggregate amount of stock held in all corporations engaged in business of the kind described in this chapter shall not exceed 10 percent of the subscribing bank's shareholders' equity. Nothing in this section shall be construed in any way to limit the powers conferred by Section 3513.

SEC. 437. Section 3580 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3580. Any bank may, with the consent of the commissioner, upon such conditions and under such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe, acquire and hold, directly or indirectly, the stock or other evidences of ownership in one or more banks organized under the laws of a foreign country or a dependency or insular possession of the United States and not engaged, directly or indirectly, in any activity in the United States except as, in the judgment of the commissioner, shall be incidental to the international or foreign business of such bank. An application for such consent shall be in such form and contain such information as the commissioner may require, and be accompanied by a fee of five hundred dollars ($500). The aggregate amount invested by any bank in such stock or other evidences of ownership shall not in any way be subject to, or included in, the limitations prescribed in Sections 535, 3513, 3560, and 3570, but such aggregate amount invested directly or indirectly (other than through a corporation organized under the laws of this state for the purpose of transacting business under Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500) or operating under Article 2 (commencing with Section 3560) or Article 3 (commencing with Section 3570) in the stock or other evidences of ownership of all foreign banks, taken together with investments by the subscribing bank in the shares of corporations organized under the laws of this state for the purpose of transacting business under Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500) or operating under Article 2 (commencing with Section 3560) or Article 3 (commencing with Section 3570) and in foreign branches established under the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 530) of Chapter 4, shall not at any one time exceed 25 percent of the subscribing bank's shareholders' equity.

SEC. 437.1. Section 3580 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3580. Any bank may, with the consent of the commissioner, upon such conditions and under such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe, acquire and hold, directly or indirectly, the stock or other evidences of ownership in one or more banks organized under the laws of a foreign country or a dependency or insular possession of the United States and not engaged, directly or indirectly, in any activity in the United States except as, in the judgment of the commissioner, shall be incidental to the international or foreign business of the bank. An application for consent shall be in such form and contain such information as the commissioner may require, and be accompanied by a fee of five hundred dollars ($500). The aggregate amount invested by any bank in the stock or other evidences of ownership shall not in any way be subject to, or included in, the limitations prescribed in Sections 3513, 3560, and 3570, but the aggregate amount invested directly or indirectly (other than through a corporation organized under the laws of this state for the purpose of transacting business under Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500) or operating under Article 2 (commencing with Section 3560) or Article

3 (commencing with Section 3570) in the stock or other evidences of ownership of all foreign banks, taken together with investments by the subscribing bank in the shares of corporations organized under the laws of this state for the purpose of transacting business under Article 1 (commencing with Section 3500) or operating under Article 2 (commencing with Section 3560) or Article 3 (commencing with Section 3570), shall not at any one time exceed 25 percent of the subscribing bank's shareholders' equity.

SEC. 438. Section 3602 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3602. Whenever the commissioner determines that an extraordinary situation exists anywhere in this state the commissioner may, by proclamation, authorize banks located in the affected area or areas to close any or all of their offices. The office or offices so closed shall remain closed until the commissioner proclaims that the extraordinary situation has ended or until such earlier time as the officers of the bank determine that one or more closed offices should reopen and in either event for such further time thereafter as may reasonably be required to reopen.

SEC. 439. Section 3603 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3603. (a) Whenever the officers of a bank are of the opinion that an extraordinary situation exists which affects or may affect one or more of a bank's offices, they shall have the authority in the reasonable and proper exercise of their discretion to determine not to open such offices on any business or banking day, or, if such offices have opened to close one or more of them during the continuation of such extraordinary situation even if the commissioner has not issued and does not issue a proclamation of extraordinary situation. The office or offices so closed shall remain closed until such time as the officers determine with respect to each such office that the extraordinary situation has ended and for such further time thereafter as may reasonably be required to be reopened; however, in no case shall such office or offices remain closed for more than 48 consecutive hours excluding other legal holidays without requesting the approval of the commissioner nor, in case such request is denied by the commissioner, for more than 24 consecutive hours excluding other legal holidays after such denial.

(b) The officers of a bank may close one or more of the bank's offices on any day or days designated for mourning, rejoicing, or other special observance by proclamation of the Governor or the President of the United States.

SEC. 440. Section 3604 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3604. A bank closing an office or offices pursuant to the authority granted under subdivision (a) of Section 3603 shall give prompt notice of its action to the commissioner, by any means available.

SEC. 441. Section 3700 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3700. "Bank holding company" means:

(a) Any person or company which:

(1) Directly or indirectly owns, controls, or holds with power to vote, 10 percent or more of the outstanding stock of any domestic bank, or 10 percent or more of the outstanding stock of any domestic bank together with 10 percent or more of the shares or proxy of shares of any national bank located in California;

(2) Controls in any manner whether by the holding of proxy, or otherwise, the election of a majority of the directors of any domestic bank, or of both any domestic bank and any national bank located in California; or

(3) The commissioner determines, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing, directly or indirectly exercises, or has power to exercise, a controlling influence over the management and policies of any domestic bank, or of both any domestic bank and any national bank located in California.

(b) Any company which controls in any manner any company which is or becomes a bank holding company by virtue of this chapter.

(c) Bank holding company does not include a title insurance company authorized to transact a trust business under the provisions of Article 4 (commencing with Section 12390) of Chapter 1, Part 6, of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, or a trust company controlled by or under common control with a title insurance company.

SEC. 441.1. Section 3700 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3700. "Bank holding company" means:

(a) Any person or company which:

(1) Directly or indirectly owns, controls, or holds with power to vote, 10 percent or more of the outstanding stock of any domestic bank, or 10 percent or more of the outstanding stock of any domestic bank together with 10 percent or more of the shares or proxy of shares of any national bank located in California.

(2) Controls in any manner whether by the holding of proxy, or otherwise, the election of a majority of the directors of any domestic bank, or of both any domestic bank and any national bank located in California.

(3) The commissioner determines, after reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing, directly or indirectly exercises, or has power to exercise, a controlling influence over the management and policies of any domestic bank, or of both any domestic bank and any national bank located in California.

(b) Any company which controls in any manner any company which is or becomes a bank holding company by virtue of this chapter.

(c) Bank holding company does not include a trust company controlled by or under common control with a title insurance company.

SEC. 442. Section 3703 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3703. The commissioner may from time to time require, under oath or otherwise, reports from any bank holding company and its subsidiaries in such form and as to such matters as the commissioner may deem necessary and appropriate, and which are relevant to the jurisdiction and responsibilities of the commissioner under this division.

SEC. 443. Section 3704 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3704. Each bank holding company and its subsidiaries shall be subject to examination by the commissioner. The commissioner may use, for this purpose, his or her own examiners or independent public accountants who are disinterested persons. In lieu of making an examination, the commissioner may accept the examination of any holding company made by any federal agency, any other agency of this state, or any agency of any other state of the United States and may examine any such holding company in conjunction with these agencies. If the commissioner examines a bank holding company or any of its subsidiaries, other than a domestic bank, using the commissioner's own examiners, the bank holding company shall pay, within 10 days after receipt of a statement from the commissioner, a fee of two hundred dollars ($200) per day for each examiner engaged in the examination plus, in the event it is necessary for any examiner engaged in the examination to travel outside this state, the travel expenses of the examiner. If the commissioner examines a bank holding company or any of its subsidiaries, other than a domestic bank, using independent public accountants, the bank holding company shall pay, within 10 days after receipt of a statement from the commissioner, the fee of the independent public accountants.

SEC. 444. Section 3705 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3705. With respect to a title insurance company authorized to transact a trust business under the provisions of Article 4 (commencing with Section 12390) of Chapter 1, Part 6, of Division 2 of the Insurance Code or a trust company controlled by or under common control with a title insurance company, the commissioner in cooperation with the Insurance Commissioner shall adopt reasonable rules and regulations for the conduct of the inspection and examination authorized by Sections 3702 and 3704. Any such examination or inspection shall be conducted pursuant to the provisions of Article 4.7 (commencing with Section 1215) of Chapter 2, Part 2, of Division 1 of the Insurance Code.

SEC. 444.1. Section 3705 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3705. With respect to a trust company controlled by or under common control with a title insurance company, the commissioner in cooperation with the Insurance Commissioner shall adopt reasonable rules and regulations for the conduct of the inspection and examination authorized by Sections 3702 and 3704. Any such examination or inspection shall be conducted pursuant to the provisions of Article 4.7 (commencing with Section 1215) of Chapter 2, Part 2, of Division 1 of the Insurance Code.

SEC. 445. Section 3706 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3706. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to authorize the commissioner to require reports from a national bank or to examine a national bank contrary to federal law.

SEC. 446. Section 3750 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3750. This chapter does not apply to any of the following transactions:

(a) An acquisition of control of a California state bank that requires the approval of the commissioner under Article 7 (commencing with Section 700) of Chapter 5.

(b) A sale or merger that requires the approval of the commissioner under Division 1.5 (commencing with Section 4800).

SEC. 447. Section 3751 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3751. Each application filed with the commissioner for an approval under this chapter shall be in the form, shall contain the information, shall be signed in the manner, and shall, if the commissioner requires by regulation or order, be verified in the manner that the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

SEC. 448. Section 3752 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3752. The fee for filing with the commissioner an application for an approval under this chapter is two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500).

SEC. 449. Section 3753 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3753. (a) The definitions that are set forth in or are applicable to Section 3(d) of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1842(d)) apply to this section.

(b) The commissioner may approve an acquisition by a bank holding company that is subject to Section 3(d)(2)(B) and (D)(ii) of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1842(d)(2)(B) and (D)(ii)) if the commissioner finds that the acquisition is consistent with the public convenience and advantage in this state.

SEC. 450. Section 3754 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3754. (a) The definitions that are set forth in or are applicable to Section 44 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1831u) apply to this section.

(b) This section does not apply if each bank involved in an interstate merger transaction (including each insured depository institution that is an affiliate of the surviving, resulting, or purchasing bank) that is organized under the laws of this state, that is organized under federal law and maintains its main or head office in this state, or that maintains a branch office in this state, is an industrial loan company (as defined in Section 4805.10).

(c) The commissioner may approve an interstate merger transaction that is subject to Section 44(b)(2)(B) and (D)(ii) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1831u(b)(2)(B) and (D)(ii)) if the commissioner finds that the transaction is consistent with the public convenience and advantage in this state.

SEC. 450.1. Section 3754 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3754. (a) The definitions that are set forth in or are applicable to Section 44 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1831u) apply to this section.

(b) This section does not apply if each bank involved in an interstate merger transaction (including each insured depository institution that is an affiliate of the surviving, resulting, or purchasing bank) that is organized under the laws of this state or that maintains a branch office in this state, is an industrial loan company (as defined in Section 4805.10).

(c) The commissioner may approve an interstate merger transaction that is subject to Section 44(b)(2)(B) and (D)(ii) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1831u(b)(2)(B) and (D)(ii)) if the commissioner finds that the transaction is consistent with the public convenience and advantage in this state.

SEC. 451. Section 3800 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3800. In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Branch business unit" has the meaning set forth in subdivision (a) of Section 4840.

(b) "Core banking business" means the business of receiving deposits, paying checks, making loans, and other activities that the commissioner may specify by order or regulation. "Core banking business," when used to describe the trust business, includes receiving fiduciary assets and administering fiduciary accounts.

(c) "Facility," when used with respect to a foreign (other state) bank, means an office in this state at which the bank engages in noncore banking business but at which it does not engage in core banking business.

(d) "California industrial loan company" means a corporation of the type described in Section 18003 organized under the laws of this state.

(e) "Noncore banking business" means all activities permissible for commercial banks or trust companies, except core banking business, and except those activities prohibited by law or determined by the commissioner by regulation or order not to be noncore banking business.

(f) "Whole business unit" has the meaning set forth in subdivision (g) of Section 4840.

SEC. 452. Section 3801 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3801. Each application filed with the commissioner under this chapter or under any regulation or order issued under this chapter shall be in the form, shall contain the information, shall be signed in the manner, and shall (if the commissioner requires by regulation or order) be verified in the manner that the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

SEC. 453. Section 3802 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3802. (a) Each foreign (other state) bank that maintains a facility or a California branch office shall file with the commissioner such reports as and when the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

(b) Each report filed with the commissioner under this chapter or under any regulation or order issued under this chapter shall be in the form, shall contain the information, shall be signed in the manner, and shall (if the commissioner requires by regulation or order) be verified in the manner that the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

SEC. 454. Section 3803 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3803. Each foreign (other state) bank that maintains a facility (other than a foreign (other state) national bank that maintains a California branch office) and each foreign (other state) state bank that maintains a California branch office shall make, keep, and preserve at the facility or branch office or at another place that the commissioner may by regulation or order approve, the books, accounts, and other records relating to the business of the office, in the form, in the manner, and for the time that the commissioner may by regulation or order provide.

SEC. 455. Section 3804 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3804. Fees shall be paid to and collected by the commissioner as follows:

(a) The fee for filing with the commissioner an application by an uninsured foreign (other state) bank for approval to establish a facility is two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(b) The fee for filing with the commissioner an application by an uninsured foreign (other state) bank that is licensed pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 3860) to maintain a facility for approval to relocate or to close the facility is one hundred dollars ($100).

(c) The fee for issuing a license pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 3860) is twenty-five dollars ($25).

(d) Each foreign (other state) state bank that on June 1 of any year maintains one or more California branch offices shall pay, on or before the following July 1, a fee of one thousand dollars ($1,000) per California branch office; provided, however, that the minimum fee paid by a foreign (other state) state bank under this subdivision shall be not less than three thousand dollars ($3,000) and the maximum fee shall be not more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000).

(e) Each foreign (other state) bank that on June 1 of any year maintains a facility but no California branch office shall pay, on or before the following July 1, a fee of two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each facility.

(f) If the commissioner makes an examination in connection with a pending application, as described in subdivision (a) or (b), the applicant shall pay a fee for the examination of two hundred dollars

($200) per day for each examiner engaged in the examination plus, if in the opinion of the commissioner it is necessary for any examiner engaged in the examination to travel outside this state, the travel expenses of the examiner.

(g) If the commissioner makes an examination of a foreign (other state) state bank that maintains a California branch office, the bank shall pay a fee for the examination of fifty dollars ($50) per hour for each examiner engaged in the examination plus, if in the opinion of the commissioner it is necessary for any examiner engaged in the examination to travel outside this state, the travel expenses of the examiner.

(h) If the commissioner makes an examination of a facility of an uninsured foreign (other state) bank licensed under Article 4 (commencing with Section 3860), the bank shall pay a fee for the examination of fifty dollars ($50) per hour for each examiner engaged in the examination plus, if in the opinion of the commissioner it is necessary for any examiner engaged in the examination to travel outside this state, the travel expenses of the examiner.

(i) If the commissioner makes an examination of a facility of an insured foreign (other state) bank that does not maintain a California branch office, the bank shall pay a fee for the examination of fifty dollars ($50) per hour for each examiner engaged in the examination plus, if in the opinion of the commissioner it is necessary for any examiner engaged in the examination to travel outside this state, the travel expenses of the examiner.

SEC. 456. Section 3826 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3826. The minimum age requirement set forth in Section 3825 does not apply in any case in which the factor set forth in subdivision (a) and any of the factors set forth in subdivision (b) apply.

(a) The foreign (other state) bank, by itself or in concurrent transactions with other depository corporations (as defined in Section 4805.06), acquires the whole business unit of the California bank or California industrial loan company or, if the California bank or California industrial loan company has been closed or placed in conservatorship, all or substantially all of the insured deposits of the California bank or California industrial loan company.

(b) (1) If the California bank is a national bank, one of the following:

(A) The bank is in default or in danger of default, as defined in Section 3(x) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1813(x)).

(B) The purchase or merger is one with respect to which the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation provides assistance under Section 13(c) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1823(c)).

(2) If the California bank is a state bank, one of the following:

(A) The commissioner has taken possession of the property and business of the bank pursuant to Section 3100.

(B) The purchase or merger is one with respect to which the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation provides assistance under Section 13(c) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1823(c)).

(C) The commissioner finds that one or more of the factors listed in Section 3100 exists and that imposing the minimum age requirement of Section 3825 is not in the public interest.

(3) In the case of a California industrial loan company, one of the following:

(A) The commissioner has taken possession of the property and business of the industrial loan company pursuant to Section 18415.

(B) The purchase or merger is one with respect to which the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation provides assistance under Section 13(c) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1823(c)).

(C) The commissioner finds that one or more of the factors listed in Section 18415 exists and that imposing the minimum age requirement of Section 3825 is not in the public interest.

SEC. 457. Section 3842 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3842. Not less than 30 days before an insured foreign (other state) bank establishes a facility, it shall file with the commissioner a report and the appointment called for in Section 3843.

SEC. 458. Section 3843 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3843. (a) Not less than 30 days before establishing a facility, an insured foreign (other state) bank shall file with the commissioner, in the form that the commissioner may by regulation or order require, an appointment irrevocably appointing the commissioner and the commissioner's successor from time to time in office to be the bank's attorney to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal judicial or administrative proceeding against the bank or any of its successors that arises out of the activities in this state of the facility after the appointment has been filed, with the same force and validity as if served personally on the bank or its successors, as the case may be.

(b) Any insured foreign (other state) bank that maintains a facility and that has not filed with the commissioner an appointment pursuant to subdivision (a) is deemed by the maintenance of the facility to have appointed the commissioner as its attorney to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal judicial or administrative proceeding against the bank or any of its successors that arises out of the activities in this state of the facility, with the same force and validity as if served personally on the bank or its successor, as the case may be.

of the process at any office of the commissioner. However, the service is not effective unless (1) the party making the service, who may be the commissioner, forthwith sends notice of the service and a copy of the process by registered or certified mail to the bank served at the last address on file with the commissioner for any of the bank's offices in this state or at its head office, and (2) an affidavit of compliance with this subdivision by the party making the service is filed in the case on or before the return date, if any, or within any further time that the court, in the case of a judicial proceeding, or the administrative agency, in the case of an administrative proceeding, allows.

SEC. 459. Section 3844 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3844. Not less than 30 days before an insured foreign (other state) bank relocates a facility, it shall file a report with the commissioner.

SEC. 460. Section 3845 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3845. Not less than 30 days before an insured foreign (other state) bank closes a facility, it shall file a report with the commissioner.

SEC. 461. Section 3861 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3861. (a) In this section, "act" includes (without limitation) omission.

(b) For purposes of making findings on an application by an uninsured foreign (other state) bank for approval to establish a facility:

(1) The commissioner may, in the absence of credible evidence to the contrary, presume that the directors, executive officers, and any controlling person of the bank, the directors and executive officers of any controlling person of the bank, and the members of the proposed management of the facility are each of good character and sound financial standing.

(2) The commissioner may find that the bank, a director, executive officer, or controlling person of the bank, a director or executive officer of a controlling person of the bank, or any member of the proposed management of the facility is not of good character if the person has done any of the following:

(A) Has been convicted of, or has pleaded nolo contendere to, any crime involving an act of fraud or dishonesty.

(B) Has consented to or suffered a judgment in any civil action based upon conduct involving an act of fraud or dishonesty.

(C) Has consented to or suffered the suspension or revocation of any professional, occupational, or vocational license based upon conduct involving an act of fraud or dishonesty.

(D) Has willfully made or caused to be made in any application or report filed with the commissioner or in any proceeding before the commissioner any statement that was at the time and in the light of the circumstances under which it was made false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or has willfully omitted to state in any such application or report any material fact that was required to be stated in the application or report.

(E) Has willfully committed any violation of, or has willfully aided, abetted, counseled, commanded, induced, or procured the violation by any other person of, any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division.

(c) Paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) is not an exclusive list of the grounds upon which the commissioner may find, for purposes of making findings on an application by an uninsured foreign (other state) bank for approval to establish a facility, that the bank, a director, executive officer, or controlling person of the bank, a director or executive officer of a controlling person of the bank, or any member of the proposed management of the facility is not of good character.

SEC. 462. Section 3863 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3863. (a) No uninsured foreign (other state) bank may establish or maintain a facility unless the commissioner has first approved the establishment of the office and issued a license authorizing the bank to maintain the office.

(b) If the commissioner finds all the following with respect to an application by an uninsured foreign (other state) bank for approval to establish a facility, the commissioner shall approve the application:

(1) The bank, any controlling person of the bank, the directors and executive officers of the bank or of any controlling person of the bank, and the proposed management of the office are each of good character and sound financial standing.

(2) The financial history and condition of the bank are satisfactory.

(3) The management of the bank and the proposed management of the office are adequate.

(4) It is reasonable to believe that, if licensed to maintain the office, the bank will operate the office in compliance with all applicable laws, regulations, and orders.

(5) The bank's establishment and maintenance of the office will promote the public convenience and advantage.

(6) The activities in which the bank proposes to engage at the office are noncore banking business and do not constitute core banking business.

If the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application.

(c) Whenever an application by an uninsured foreign (other state) bank for approval to establish a facility has been approved and all conditions precedent to the issuance of a license authorizing the bank to maintain the office have been fulfilled, the commissioner shall issue the license.

SEC. 463. Section 3864 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3864. (a) No uninsured foreign (other state) bank that is licensed to maintain a facility may relocate the office unless the commissioner has first approved the relocation and issued a license authorizing the bank to maintain the office at the new site.

(b) If the commissioner finds the following with respect to an application by an uninsured foreign (other state) bank for approval to relocate a facility, the commissioner shall approve the application:

(1) In case the new site of the office is in the same vicinity as the old site, that the relocation of the office will not be substantially detrimental to the public convenience.

(2) In case the new site of the office is not in the same vicinity as the old site, both of the following:

(A) The relocation of the office from the old site will not be substantially detrimental to the public convenience and advantage in the area that is primarily served by the office at the old site.

(B) The relocation of the office to the new site will promote the public convenience and advantage.

If the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application.

(c) Whenever an application by an uninsured foreign (other state) bank for approval to relocate a facility has been approved and all conditions precedent to the issuance of a license authorizing the bank to maintain the office at the new site have been fulfilled, the commissioner shall issue the license.

(d) Promptly after an uninsured foreign (other state) bank that is licensed to maintain a facility relocates the office, the bank shall surrender to the commissioner the license that authorized it to maintain the office at the old site.

SEC. 464. Section 3865 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3865. An uninsured foreign (other state) bank that is licensed to maintain a facility may, subject to any regulations that the commissioner may prescribe, engage in any noncore banking business at the office but may not solicit deposits, receive deposits, pay checks, make loans, or otherwise conduct core banking business at the office.

SEC. 465. Section 3866 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3866. (a) (1) No uninsured foreign (other state) bank that is licensed to maintain a facility may close the office unless the commissioner has first approved the closing.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not prohibit an uninsured foreign (other state) bank that is licensed to maintain a facility from closing the office in accordance with Section 3867.

(b) If the commissioner finds, with respect to an application by an uninsured foreign (other state) bank for approval to close a facility, that the closing of the office will not be substantially detrimental to the public convenience and advantage, the commissioner shall approve the application. If the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application.

(c) Whenever an application by an uninsured foreign (other state) bank for approval to close a facility has been approved and all conditions precedent to the closing have been fulfilled, the bank may close the office and shall promptly thereafter surrender to the commissioner the license that authorized it to maintain the office.

SEC. 466. Section 3867 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3867. (a) Any uninsured foreign (other state) bank that holds a license to maintain a facility may voluntarily surrender the license by filing the license and a report with the commissioner. However, any uninsured foreign (other state) bank that holds licenses to maintain two or more facilities may not voluntarily surrender fewer than all of the licenses.

(b) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), a voluntary surrender of a license is effective on the 30th day after the license and the report called for in subdivision (a) are filed with the commissioner, or on any earlier date that the commissioner may by order specify.

(2) If a proceeding to revoke or suspend a license is pending when the license and the report called for in subdivision (a) are filed with the commissioner, or if a proceeding to revoke or suspend a license or to impose conditions upon the surrender of a license is instituted before the 30th day after the license and the report called for in subdivision (a) are filed with the commissioner, the voluntary surrender of the license is effective at the time and upon the conditions that the commissioner may by order specify.

SEC. 467. Section 3868 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3868. (a) (1) No uninsured foreign (other state) bank may be issued a license to maintain a facility unless it has first filed with the commissioner, in the form that the commissioner may by regulation or order require, an appointment irrevocably appointing the commissioner and the commissioner's successor from time to time in office as the bank's attorney to receive service of process in any noncriminal judicial or administrative proceeding against the bank or any of its successors that arises out of the activities in this state of the facility after the appointment has been filed, with the same force and validity as if served personally on the bank or its successors, as the case may be.

(2) Any uninsured foreign (other state) bank that maintains a facility and that has not filed with the commissioner an appointment pursuant to paragraph (1) is deemed by the maintenance of the facility to have appointed the commissioner and the commissioner's successor from time to time in office as its attorney to receive service of any lawful process in a noncriminal judicial or administrative proceeding against the bank or any of its successors that arises out of the activities in this state of the facility with the same force and validity as if served personally on the bank or its successors, as the case may be.

(b) Service may be made on an uninsured foreign (other state) bank that has appointed or is deemed to have appointed the commissioner as its attorney for service of process by leaving a copy of the process at an office of the commissioner. However, the service is not effective unless (1) the party making the service, who may be the commissioner, forthwith sends notice of the service and a copy of the process by registered or certified mail to the bank served at the last address on file with the commissioner for any of its offices in this state or at its head office, and (2) an affidavit of compliance with this subdivision by the party making the service is filed in the case on or before the return date, if any, or within any further time that the court, in the case of a judicial proceeding, or the administrative agency, in the case of an administrative proceeding, allows.

SEC. 468. Section 3901 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3901. An application for a certificate of approval of the subject name of a nonbank corporation shall be in such form, shall contain such information, shall be signed in such manner, and shall (if the commissioner so requires by regulation or order) be verified in such manner, as the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

SEC. 469. Section 3902 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3902. The fee for filing with the commissioner an application for a certificate of approval of the subject name of a nonbank corporation shall be twenty-five dollars ($25).

SEC. 470. Section 3903 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3903. If the commissioner finds, with respect to an application for a certificate of approval of the subject name of a nonbank corporation, that such subject name does not indicate that such nonbank corporation is engaged in the banking or trust business, the commissioner shall issue a certificate of approval of the subject name. If the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application.

SEC. 471. Section 3904 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

3904. Promptly after the articles of a nonbank corporation, with the certificate of approval of the subject name of such nonbank corporation attached thereto, are filed with the Secretary of State, such nonbank corporation shall file with the commissioner a copy of such articles certified by the Secretary of State.

SEC. 472. Section 4805.02 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 472.5. Section 4805.055 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

4805.055. "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Financial Institutions.

SEC. 472.6. Section 4805.10 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 472.7. Section 4805.14 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 473. Section 4824 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4824. In determining for purposes of this division whether the shareholders' equity of a California state depository corporation will be adequate:

(a) In case the corporation is, or is to convert into, a California state bank, the commissioner shall consider the factors specified in Section 660.

(b) In case the corporation is, or is to convert into, a California state savings association or a California industrial loan company, the commissioner shall consider factors equivalent to those specified in Section 660.

SEC. 474. Section 4827 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4827. Except as expressly provided otherwise in this division:

(a) (1) No sale of a whole business unit (as defined in Section 4840) or merger in which the selling or disappearing depository corporation is a California state savings association or a California industrial loan company, in which the purchasing or surviving depository corporation is a California state bank or a California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank, and which may be effected with the approval of the commissioner pursuant to this division is prohibited or restricted by any provision of Division 2 (commencing with Section 5000) or of Division 7 (commencing with Section 18000) or requires any approval, consent, or other authorization of the commissioner pursuant to Division 2 or Division 7.

(2) No conversion in which the converting depository corporation is a California state bank or a California industrial loan company, in which the resulting depository corporation is a California state savings association, and which may be effected with the approval of the commissioner pursuant to this division is prohibited or restricted by any provision of Division 1 (commencing with Section 99), except the provisions of Chapter 22 (commencing with Section 3800) of Division 1, or of Division 7 (commencing with Section 18000), except the provisions of Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 18660) of Division 7, or requires any approval, consent, or other authorization of the commissioner pursuant to Division 1, except as may be required under the provisions of Chapter 22 (commencing with Section 3800) of Division 1, or pursuant to Division 7, except as may be required under the provisions of Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 18660) of Division 7.

(c) (1) No sale of a whole business unit (as defined in Section 4840) or merger in which the selling or disappearing depository corporation is a California state bank, a California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank, or a California state savings association, in which the purchasing or surviving depository corporation is a California industrial loan company, and which may be effected with the approval of the commissioner pursuant to this division is prohibited or restricted by any provision of Division 1 (commencing with Section 99), except the provisions of Chapter 22 (commencing with Section 3800) of Division 1, or of Division 2 (commencing with Section 5000), or requires any approval, consent, or other authorization of the commissioner pursuant to Division 1, except as may be required under the provisions of Chapter 22 (commencing with Section 3800) of Division 1, or Division 2.

(2) No conversion in which the converting depository corporation is a California state bank or a California state savings association, in which the resulting depository corporation is a California industrial loan company, and which may be effected with the approval of the commissioner pursuant to this division is prohibited or restricted by any provision of Division 1 (commencing with Section 99), except the provisions of Chapter 22 (commencing with Section 3800) of Division 1, or of Division 2 (commencing with Section 5000) or requires any approval, consent, or other authorization of the commissioner pursuant to Division 1, except as may be required under the provisions of Chapter 22 (commencing with Section 3800) of Division 1, or Division 2.

SEC. 475. Section 4828 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4828. Subject to the provisions of Sections 4827.3 and 4827.7 but notwithstanding any other provision of law:

(a) (1) If, as a result of any sale, merger, or conversion effected pursuant to the provisions of this division, a California state bank acquires any asset or liability, or becomes engaged in any activity, which was permitted to the selling, disappearing, or converting depository corporation but which is prohibited to California state banks, the commissioner may permit the California state bank a reasonable period of time, not to exceed 12 months, within which to divest itself of the asset, liability, or activity or to conform it to law. On a case-by-case basis, the commissioner may permit the California state bank a reasonable period of time in excess of 12 months if the commissioner finds that the bank cannot reasonably accomplish the divestment or conformity within the 12-month period.

(2) If, as a result of any sale or merger effected pursuant to the provisions of this division, a California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank acquires any asset or liability, or becomes engaged in any activity, which was permitted to the selling or disappearing depository corporation but which is prohibited to California state-licensed foreign (other nation) banks, the commissioner may permit the California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank a reasonable period of time, not to exceed 12 months, within which to divest itself of the asset, liability, or activity or to conform it to law. On a case-by-case basis, the commissioner may permit the California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank a reasonable period of time in excess of 12 months if the commissioner finds that the bank cannot reasonably accomplish the divestment or conformity within the 12-month period.

(b) If, as a result of a sale, merger, or conversion effected pursuant to the provisions of this division, a California state savings association acquires any asset or liability, or becomes engaged in any activity, which was permitted to the selling, disappearing, or converting depository corporation but which is prohibited to California state savings associations, the commissioner may permit the California state savings association a reasonable period of time, not to exceed 12 months, within which to divest itself of the asset, liability, or activity or to conform it to law. On a case-by-case basis, the commissioner may permit the state savings association a reasonable period of time in excess of 12 months if the commissioner finds that the savings association cannot reasonably accomplish the divestment or conformity within the 12-month period.

(c) If, as a result of a sale, merger, or conversion effected pursuant to the provisions of this division, a California industrial loan company acquires any asset or liability, or becomes engaged in any activity, which was permitted to the selling, disappearing, or converting depository corporation but which is prohibited to California industrial loan companies, the commissioner may permit the California industrial loan company a reasonable period of time, not to exceed 12 months, within which to divest itself of the asset, liability, or activity or to conform it to law. On a case-by-case basis, the commissioner may permit the California industrial loan company a reasonable period of time in excess of 12 months if the commissioner finds that the industrial loan company cannot reasonably accomplish the divestment or conformity within the 12-month period.

SEC. 475.1. Section 4828 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4828. Subject to the provisions of Sections 4827.3 and 4827.7 but notwithstanding any other provision of law:

(a) (1) If, as a result of any sale, merger, or conversion effected pursuant to the provisions of this division, a California state bank acquires any asset or liability, or becomes engaged in any activity, which was permitted to the selling, disappearing, or converting depository corporation but which is prohibited to California state banks, the commissioner may permit the California state bank a reasonable period of time, not to exceed 12 months, within which to divest itself of the asset, liability, or activity or to conform it to law. On a case-by-case basis, the commissioner may permit the California state bank a reasonable period of time in excess of 12 months if the commissioner finds that the bank cannot reasonably accomplish the divestment or conformity within the 12-month period.

(2) If, as a result of any sale or merger effected pursuant to the provisions of this division, a California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank acquires any asset or liability, or becomes engaged in any activity, which was permitted to the selling or disappearing depository corporation but which is prohibited to California state-licensed foreign (other nation) banks, the commissioner may permit the California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank a reasonable period of time, not to exceed 12 months, within which to divest itself of the asset, liability, or activity or to conform it to law. On a case-by-case basis, the commissioner may permit the California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank a reasonable period of time in excess of 12 months if the commissioner finds that the bank cannot reasonably accomplish the divestment or conformity within the 12-month period.

(b) If, as a result of a sale, merger, or conversion effected pursuant to the provisions of this division, a California state savings association acquires any asset or liability, or becomes engaged in any activity, which was permitted to the selling, disappearing, or converting depository corporation but which is prohibited to California state savings associations, the commissioner may permit the California state savings association a reasonable period of time, not to exceed 12 months, within which to divest itself of the asset, liability, or activity or to conform it to law. On a case-by-case basis, the commissioner may permit the California state savings association a reasonable period of time in excess of 12 months if the commissioner finds that the savings association cannot reasonably accomplish the divestment or conformity within the 12-month period.

(c) If, as a result of a sale, merger, or conversion effected pursuant to the provisions of this division, a California industrial loan company acquires any asset or liability, or becomes engaged in any activity, which was permitted to the selling, disappearing, or converting depository corporation but which is prohibited to California industrial loan companies, the commissioner may permit the California industrial loan company a reasonable period of time, not to exceed 12 months, within which to divest itself of the asset, liability, or activity or to conform it to law. On a case-by-case basis, the commissioner may permit the California industrial loan company a reasonable period of time in excess of 12 months if the commissioner finds that the industrial loan company cannot reasonably accomplish the divestment or conformity within the 12-month period.

SEC. 476. Section 4828.3 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4828.3. A California state bank may, with the approval of the commissioner and its board and, if the transaction constitutes a reorganization as defined in Section 181 of the Corporations Code, subject to the provisions of Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 1200) of Division 1 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, acquire in a single transaction all (except directors' qualifying shares, if any) of the outstanding shares of another bank in accordance with a plan that provides either of the following:

(a) That the other bank shall (1) immediately sell its whole business unit (as defined in Section 4840) to the California state bank and (2) shall thereafter wind up and dissolve or, if the other bank is a California state bank and if the commissioner so approves, change into a nonbank corporation by amending its articles and changing its name.

(b) That the other bank shall immediately merge into the California state bank.

SEC. 476.1. Section 4828.3 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4828.3. A California state bank may, with the approval of the commissioner and its board and, if the transaction constitutes a reorganization as defined in Section 181 of the Corporations Code, subject to the provisions of Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 1200) of Division 1 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, acquire in a single transaction all (except directors' qualifying shares, if any) of the outstanding shares of another depository corporation in accordance with a plan that provides either of the following:

(a) That the other depository corporation shall (1) immediately sell its whole business unit (as defined in Section 4840) to the California state bank and (2) shall thereafter wind up and dissolve or, if the other depository corporation is a California state bank and if the commissioner so approves, change into a nonbank corporation by amending its articles and changing its name.

(b) That the other depository corporation shall immediately merge into the California state bank.

SEC. 477. Section 4828.7 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4828.7. (a) The definitions in Section 4840 apply to this section.

(b) In case a California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank sells all or substantially all of its business in this state to another California state-licensed or federally licensed foreign (other nation) bank as part of the sale of a larger partial business unit or the whole business unit of the seller:

(1) No provision of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 4840) applies except as follows:

(A) If the sale is of a partial business unit of the seller, Section 4877.14 applies with respect to the part of the seller's business in this state that is sold as if the sale were a sale of the type defined in Section 4877.01.

(B) If the sale is of the whole business unit of the seller, Section 4859 applies with respect to the seller's business in this state as if the sale were a sale of the type defined in Section 4845.

(2) Promptly after the sale becomes effective, the seller shall:

(A) Surrender to the commissioner for cancellation the licenses issued to it by the commissioner for its business in this state.

(B) File with the commissioner any report regarding the sale that the commissioner may require.

(c) In case a California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank merges into another California state-licensed or federally licensed foreign (other nation) bank:

(1) No provision of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 4880) applies except that the merger has the same effect with respect to the disappearing bank's business in this state as provided in Section 1107 of the Corporations Code and Section 4889 in the case of a merger of the type defined in Section 4880.

(2) Promptly after the merger becomes effective, the surviving bank shall:

(A) Surrender to the commissioner for cancellation the licenses issued to the disappearing bank by the commissioner for its business in this state.

(B) File with the commissioner any report regarding the merger that the commissioner may require.

SEC. 477.1. Section 4828.7 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4828.7. (a) The definitions in Section 4840 apply to this section.

(b) In case a California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank sells all or substantially all of its business in this state to another California state-licensed or federally licensed foreign (other nation) bank as part of the sale of a larger partial business unit or the whole business unit of the seller:

(1) No provision of Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 4840) applies except as follows:

(A) If the sale is of a partial business unit of the seller, Section 4879.14 applies with respect to the part of the seller's business in this state that is sold as if the sale were a sale of the type defined in Section 4879.01.

(B) If the sale is of the whole business unit of the seller, Section 4859 applies with respect to the seller's business in this state as if the sale were a sale of the type defined in Section 4845.

(2) Promptly after the sale becomes effective, the seller shall:

(A) Surrender to the commissioner for cancellation the licenses issued to it by the commissioner for its business in this state.

(B) File with the commissioner any report regarding the sale that the commissioner may require.

(c) In case a California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank merges into another California state-licensed or federally licensed foreign (other nation) bank:

(1) No provision of Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 4880) applies except that the merger has the same effect with respect to the disappearing bank's business in this state as provided in Section 1107 of the Corporations Code and Section 4889 in the case of a merger of the type defined in Section 4880.

(2) Promptly after the merger becomes effective, the surviving bank shall:

(A) Surrender to the commissioner for cancellation the licenses issued to the disappearing bank by the commissioner for its business in this state.

(B) File with the commissioner any report regarding the merger that the commissioner may require.

SEC. 478. Section 4830 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4830. Every final order, decision, license, or other official act of the commissioner under this division is subject to judicial review in accordance with law.

SEC. 479. Section 4831 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4831. (a) The commissioner may from time to time issue regulations and orders as may in his or her opinion be necessary to carry out the provisions and purposes of this division.

(b) Regulations and orders issued under this division may, among other things, define any term used in this division as well as any term not used in this division.

(c) For purposes of regulations and orders issued under this division, the commissioner may classify persons, transactions, and other matters within his or her jurisdiction and may prescribe different regulations or orders for different classes.

(d) The commissioner may waive any provision of any regulation or order which he or she has issued under this division in any case where in his or her opinion the provision is not necessary in the public interest.

SEC. 480. Section 4832 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4832. Whenever the commissioner issues an order or license under this division, he or she may impose conditions as may in his or her opinion be necessary to carry out the provisions and purposes of this division.

SEC. 481. Section 4834 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4834. The commissioner may honor applications from interested persons for interpretive opinions regarding any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division.

SEC. 482. Section 4835 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4835. Each application and report filed with the commissioner under this division or under any regulation or order issued under this division shall be in the form, shall contain the information, shall be signed in the manner, and shall, if the commissioner requires, be verified in the manner that the commissioner may require.

SEC. 483. Section 4836 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4836. No person shall make any untrue statement of any material fact in any application or report filed with the commissioner under this division or under any regulation or order issued under this division, or willfully omit to state in any application or report filed with the commissioner under this division or under any regulation or order issued under this division any material fact which is required to be stated therein.

SEC. 484. Section 4837 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4837. In determining whether to approve any application filed under this division or under any regulation or order issued under this division, the commissioner may consider proposals made by the applicant; and, if in the opinion of the commissioner it is probable that the applicant will be able to implement any such proposal, the commissioner may make findings on the basis of the proposal. However, whenever the commissioner approves an application on the basis, in whole or in part, of a proposal made by the applicant, the commissioner shall impose upon the approval appropriate conditions requiring that the applicant implement the proposal within the period of time that the commissioner may specify.

SEC. 485. Section 4838 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4838. If the commissioner finds, with respect to any application filed under this division or under any regulation or order issued under this division, that not all the information which was required to be provided in or in connection with the application has been provided or that implementation of any proposal contained in the application would violate any applicable law, the commissioner may deny the application.

SEC. 486. Section 4839 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4839. Fees shall be paid to, and collected by, the commissioner, as follows:

(a) The fee for filing an application for approval of a sale under Section 4854 or 4877.09 shall be two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500).

(b) The fee for filing an application for approval of a merger under Section 4884 shall be two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500).

(c) (1) The fee for filing an application for approval of a conversion under Section 4924 or 4944 shall be five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(2) The fee for issuing a certificate of authority or license under Section 4928(a) or 4948(a) shall be two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500).

(d) The fee for issuing a certificate of authority or license for an office under subdivision (b) of Section 4858, subdivision (b) of Section 4877.13, subdivision (b) of Section 4888, or subdivision (b) of Section 4928 or Section 4949 shall be twenty-five dollars ($25).

(e) The fee for issuing a certificate under Section 4862, 4877.17, 4891, 4930, or 4952 shall be twenty-five dollars ($25).

(f) In case the commissioner makes an examination in connection with a pending application, as described in paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4), the applicant shall pay a fee for the examination in the sum of two hundred dollars ($200) per day for each examiner engaged in the examination plus, if in the opinion of the commissioner it is necessary for any examiner engaged in the examination to travel outside this state, the travel expenses of the examiner.

(1) Examination of the selling depository corporation in connection with a pending application for approval of a sale of a whole business unit (as defined in Section 4840) under Article 2 (commencing with Section 4845) of Chapter 3 of this division.

(2) Examination of the partial business unit (as defined in Section 4840) to be sold and any related affairs of the selling depository corporation in connection with a pending application for approval of a sale of a partial business unit (as defined in Section 4840) under Article 2 (commencing with Section 4845) of Chapter 3 of this division.

(3) Examination of the disappearing depository corporation in connection with a pending application for approval of a merger under Article 1 (commencing with Section 4880) or Article 2 (commencing with Section 4895.01) of Chapter 4 of this division.

(4) Examination of the converting depository corporation in connection with a pending application for approval of a conversion under Article 1 (commencing with Section 4920) or Article 2 (commencing with Section 4940) of Chapter 5 of this division.

SEC. 486.1. Section 4839 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4839. Fees shall be paid to, and collected by, the commissioner, as follows:

(a) The fee for filing an application for approval of a sale under this division shall be two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500).

(b) The fee for filing an application for approval of a merger under this division shall be two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500).

(c) (1) The fee for filing an application for approval of a conversion under this division shall be five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(2) The fee for issuing a certificate of authority or license under Section 4928(a) or 4948(a) shall be two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500).

(d) The fee for issuing a certificate of authority or license under any other provision of this division shall be twenty-five dollars ($25).

(e) The fee for issuing a certificate under Section 4862, 4879.17, 4891, 4930, or 4952 shall be twenty-five dollars ($25).

(f) In case the commissioner makes an examination in connection with a pending application, as described in paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4), the applicant shall pay a fee for the examination in the sum of two hundred dollars ($200) per day for each examiner engaged in the examination plus, if in the opinion of the commissioner it is necessary for any examiner engaged in the examination to travel outside this state, the travel expenses of the examiner.

(1) Examination of the selling depository corporation in connection with a pending application for approval of a sale of a whole business unit (as defined in Section 4840) under Article 2 (commencing with Section 4845) of Chapter 3 of this division.

(2) Examination of the partial business unit (as defined in Section 4840) to be sold and any related affairs of the selling depository corporation in connection with a pending application for approval of a sale of a partial business unit (as defined in Section 4840) under Article 2 (commencing with Section 4845) of Chapter 3 of this division.

(3) Examination of the purchasing depository corporation in connection with a pending application for approval of a sale of a whole business unit (as defined in Section 4880) under Article 3.5 (commencing with Section 4876.01) of Chapter 3 or of a partial business unit (as defined in Section 4880) under Article 4.5 (commencing with Section 4878.01) of Chapter 3.

(4) Examination of the surviving depository corporation in connection with a pending application for approval of a merger under Article 4 (commencing with Section 4908.01) of Chapter 4.

(5) Examination of the disappearing depository corporation in connection with a pending application for approval of a merger under Article 1 (commencing with Section 4880) or Article 2 (commencing with Section 4895.01) of Chapter 4 of this division.

(6) Examination of the converting depository corporation in connection with a pending application for approval of a conversion under Article 1 (commencing with Section 4920) or Article 2 (commencing with Section 4940) of Chapter 5 of this division.

SEC. 487. Section 4845 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4845. In this article, unless the context otherwise requires, "sale" means any of the sales described in Section 4846.

SEC. 488. Section 4846 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4846. With the approval of the commissioner:

(a) A bank may sell its whole business unit to a California state bank or a California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank pursuant to (1) this article, (2) in case the seller is a national banking association or a California federally licensed foreign (other nation) bank, federal law, and (3) in case the seller or purchaser is a foreign bank, the law of the foreign bank's domicile.

(b) An industrial loan company may sell its whole business unit to a California industrial loan company pursuant to (1) this article and (2) in case the seller is a foreign (other state) industrial loan company, the law of the foreign industrial loan company's domicile.

(c) A depository corporation of any class may sell its whole business unit to a California state depository corporation of another class or a California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank pursuant to (1) this article, (2) in case the seller is a federal depository corporation or a California federally licensed foreign (other nation) bank, federal law, (3) in case the seller is a foreign depository corporation, the law of the foreign depository corporation's domicile, and (4) in case the purchaser is a California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank, the law of the foreign bank's domicile.

SEC. 489. Section 4851 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4851. In obtaining any approval of outstanding shares required for an agreement of sale, in case the purchaser is a California state depository corporation, the purchaser, and, in case the seller is a California state depository corporation or in case the purchaser is a California state depository corporation that is to issue securities in consideration of the sale, the seller, shall each provide to its shareholders information as the commissioner may require. In determining the information to be required, the commissioner shall give due consideration to regulations relating to proxy statements issued under Section 14 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. Sec. 78n) by (a) the Securities and Exchange Commission, (b) in the case of a depository corporation that is a bank, the federal bank regulatory agencies, and (c) in the case of a depository corporation that is a savings association, the Office of Thrift Supervision.

SEC. 490. Section 4854 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4854. A purchaser shall file the following with the commissioner:

(a) A copy of the agreement of sale.

(b) An officers' certificate of the purchaser, certifying that the agreement of sale has been approved by the purchaser as required by Sections 4848 and 4849.

(c) An officers' certificate of the seller, certifying that the agreement of sale has been approved by the seller as required by Sections 4848 and 4849.

(d) An application for approval of the sale.

SEC. 491. Section 4855 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4855. If the commissioner finds all of the following with respect to an application for approval of a sale, the commissioner shall approve the application:

(a) That the sale will not result in a monopoly and will not be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or to attempt to monopolize the banking, savings association, or industrial loan business in any part of this state.

(b) That the sale will not have the effect in any section of this state of substantially lessening competition, tending to create a monopoly, or otherwise being in restraint of trade, or that the anticompetitive effect is clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the sale in meeting the convenience and needs of the community to be served.

(c) That the shareholders' equity of the purchaser will be adequate and that the financial condition of the purchaser will be satisfactory.

(d) That the directors and executive officers of the purchaser will be satisfactory.

(e) That the purchaser will afford reasonable promise of successful operation and that it is reasonable to believe that the purchaser will be operated in a safe and sound manner and in compliance with all applicable laws.

(f) That the sale will be fair, just, and equitable. For purposes of this subdivision, in the case of any term of the sale that has been determined by agreement between the seller and the purchaser in an arm's length transaction, the commissioner shall find that the term is fair, just, and equitable to the seller and the purchaser.

(g) In the case of a sale where the seller is a California savings association, that the sale will not have a seriously adverse effect on the total availability of financing for housing in the market area of the seller in this state or that any effect of that type is clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the sale in meeting the convenience and needs of the community to be served. Nothing in this subdivision authorizes the commissioner to require the purchaser to make financing for housing available.

If the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application for approval of the sale.

SEC. 492. Section 4856 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4856. (a) Before a sale becomes effective, the seller or purchaser shall give to the depositors of the seller notice of the sale as the commissioner may require.

(b) A depositor of the seller may, subject to the provisions of any applicable federal statute or regulation and to any premature withdrawal penalty prescribed in the deposit contract, withdraw any uninsured deposit on demand at any time during the period commencing with the giving of the notice called for in subdivision (a) and ending on the 60th day after the date on which the sale becomes effective.

SEC. 493. Section 4857 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4857. After an application for approval of a sale has been approved and all conditions precedent to the sale have been fulfilled, the commissioner shall approve the agreement of sale and endorse the approval on the agreement of sale, and at that time the sale shall become effective for all purposes.

SEC. 493.1. Section 4857 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4857. After an application for approval of a sale has been approved and all conditions precedent to the sale have been fulfilled, the commissioner shall approve the agreement of sale and endorse the approval on the original or a copy of the agreement of sale, and at that time the sale shall become effective for all purposes.

SEC. 494. Section 4858 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4858. When a sale becomes effective:

(a) Unless the purchaser provided otherwise in the application for approval of the sale or unless the commissioner provided otherwise in the approval of the application:

(1) The purchaser may establish and maintain a branch office at the head office of the seller and establish and maintain equivalent offices at the branch offices, places of business, extensions of offices, and other facilities, if any, of the seller.

(2) If the seller was authorized to transact and was transacting trust business, the purchaser, if it is a California state bank or savings association, may transact trust business.

(b) The commissioner shall issue to the purchaser certificates of authority, licenses, and other authorizations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of subdivision (a).

SEC. 495. Section 4861 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4861. Promptly after a sale becomes effective:

(a) The seller shall:

(1) Surrender to the commissioner for cancellation the certificates of authority or licenses issued to it by the commissioner.

(2) File with the commissioner any report regarding the sale that the commissioner may require.

(b) In case the seller is a California state depository corporation, the seller shall wind up and dissolve. However, if the seller is a California state bank, the seller may, in the alternative and with the approval of the commissioner, change into a nonbank corporation by amending its articles and changing its name.

SEC. 496. Section 4862 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4862. (a) After a sale becomes effective, the commissioner shall issue, upon application, a certificate under his or her official seal, stating that the seller sold its whole business unit to the purchaser and specifying the time at which the sale became effective.

(b) Any certificate pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be prima facie evidence of the fact of the sale and of the regularity of the proceedings taken for the sale and shall be conclusive evidence of the matters in favor of any innocent purchaser or encumbrancer for value.

SEC. 497. Section 4874 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4874. Promptly after a sale becomes effective:

(a) The seller shall:

(1) Surrender to the commissioner for cancellation the certificates of authority or licenses issued to it by the commissioner.

(2) File with the commissioner any report of the sale that the commissioner may require.

(b) The seller shall wind up and dissolve. However, if the seller is a California state bank, the seller may, in the alternative and with the approval of the commissioner, change into a nonbank corporation by amending its articles and changing its name.

SEC. 497.2. Section 4876.02 of the Financial Code, as added by Assembly Bill 2618, is amended to read:

4876.02. With the approval of the commissioner, a California state independent trust company may sell its whole business unit to an uninsured foreign (other state) state depository corporation pursuant to this article and the law of the purchaser's domicile.

SEC. 497.3. Section 4876.04 of the Financial Code, as added by Assembly Bill 2618, is amended to read:

4876.04. A seller shall file the following with the commissioner:

(a) A copy of the agreement of sale.

(b) An officers' certificate of the purchaser, certifying that the agreement of sale has been approved by the purchaser as required by Sections 4848 and 4849.

(c) An officers' certificate of the seller, certifying that the agreement of sale has been approved by the seller as required by Sections 4848 and 4849.

(d) An application for approval of the sale.

SEC. 497.4. Section 4876.05 of the Financial Code, as added by Assembly Bill 2618, is amended to read:

4876.05. If the commissioner finds all of the following with respect to an application for approval of a sale, the commissioner shall approve the application:

(a) That the shareholders' equity of the purchaser will be adequate and that the financial condition of the purchaser will be satisfactory.

(b) That the directors and executive officers of the purchaser will be satisfactory.

(c) That the purchaser will afford reasonable promise of successful operation and that it is reasonable to believe that the purchaser will operate in a safe and sound manner and in compliance with all applicable laws.

(d) That the sale will be fair, just, and equitable. For purposes of this subdivision, in the case of any term of the sale that has been determined by agreement between the seller and the purchaser in an arm's-length transaction, the commissioner shall find that the term is fair, just, and equitable to the seller and the purchaser.

If the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application for approval of the sale.

SEC. 497.5. Section 4876.06 of the Financial Code, as added by Assembly Bill 2618, is amended to read:

4876.06. After an application for approval of a sale has been approved and all conditions precedent to the sale have been fulfilled, the commissioner shall approve the agreement of sale and endorse the approval on the original or a copy of the agreement of sale. The sale shall become effective for all purposes at that time except that, if the law of the purchaser's domicile provides for the sale to become effective at a later time, it shall become effective at the later time.

SEC. 497.6. Section 4876.08 of the Financial Code, as added by Assembly Bill 2618, is amended to read:

4876.08. Promptly after a sale becomes effective:

(a) The seller shall:

(1) Surrender to the commissioner for cancellation the certificates of authority issued to it by the commissioner.

(2) File with the commissioner any report of the sale that the commissioner may require.

(b) The seller shall wind up and dissolve. However, the seller may, in the alternative and with the approval of the commissioner, change into a nonbank corporation by amending its articles and changing its name.

SEC. 498. Section 4877.01 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4877.01. In this article, unless the context otherwise requires, "sale" means any of the sales described in Section 4877.02.

SEC. 499. Section 4877.06 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4877.06. Promptly after a sale becomes effective, the seller shall:

(a) Surrender to the commissioner for cancellation the certificate of authority or license issued to it by the commissioner that relates to the California branch business unit sold.

(b) File with the commissioner any report of the sale that the commissioner may require.

SEC. 499.2. Section 4878.01 of the Financial Code, as added by Assembly Bill 2618, is amended to read:

4878.01. In this article, unless the context otherwise requires, "sale" means any sale described in Section 4878.02.

SEC. 499.3. Section 4878.02 of the Financial Code, as added by Assembly Bill 2618, is amended to read:

4878.02. With the approval of the commissioner, a California state bank or savings association may sell a partial trust business unit to an uninsured foreign (other state) state depository corporation pursuant to (a) this article and (b) the law of the purchaser's domicile.

SEC. 499.4. Section 4878.04 of the Financial Code, as added by Assembly Bill 2618, is amended to read:

4878.04. If the commissioner finds all of the following with respect to an application for approval of a sale, the commissioner shall approve the application:

(a) That the shareholders' equity of the purchaser will be adequate and that the financial condition of the purchaser will be satisfactory.

(b) That the directors and executive officers of the purchaser will be satisfactory.

(c) That the purchaser will afford reasonable promise of successful operation and that it is reasonable to believe that the purchaser will operate in a safe and sound manner and in compliance with all applicable laws.

(d) That the sale will be fair, just, and equitable. For purposes of this subdivision, in the case of any term of the sale that has been determined by agreement between the seller and the purchaser in an arm's-length transaction, the commissioner shall find that the term is fair, just, and equitable to the seller and the purchaser.

(e) That the sale will not have a seriously adverse effect on the safety or soundness of the seller.

If the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application for approval of the sale.

SEC. 499.5. Section 4878.05 of the Financial Code, as added by Assembly Bill 2618, is amended to read:

4878.05. After an application for approval of a sale has been approved by the commissioner and all conditions precedent to the sale have been fulfilled, the commissioner shall approve the agreement of sale and endorse the approval on the original or a copy of the agreement of sale. The sale shall become effective for all purposes at that time, except that, if the law of the purchaser's domicile provides for the sale to become effective at a later time, it shall become effective at the later time.

SEC. 499.6. Section 4878.07 of the Financial Code, as added by Assembly Bill 2618, is amended to read:

4878.07. (a) In case a seller is a California state commercial bank and sells all of its trust business in a sale:

(1) As of the time when the sale becomes effective, the commissioner shall issue to the seller certificates of authority authorizing it to transact commercial banking business in replacement of the certificates of authority that the seller is required to surrender pursuant to paragraph (2).

(2) Promptly after the sale becomes effective, the seller shall surrender to the commissioner for cancellation its certificates of authority authorizing it to transact commercial banking business and trust business and shall file with the commissioner any report of the sale that the commissioner may require.

(b) In any other case, promptly after the sale becomes effective, the seller shall:

(1) Surrender to the commissioner for cancellation the certificate of authority or license for any office closed as a result of the sale.

(2) File with the commissioner any report of the sale that the commissioner may require.

SEC. 500. Section 4879.01 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4879.01. In this article, unless the context otherwise requires, "sale" means any of the sales described in Section 4879.02.

SEC. 501. Section 4879.02 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4879.02. With the approval of the commissioner:

(a) A bank may sell a partial business unit to a California state bank pursuant to (1) this article, (2) in case the seller is a national banking association or a California federally licensed foreign (other nation) bank, federal law, (3) in case the seller is a foreign bank, the law of the foreign bank's domicile, and (4) in case the partial business unit is located outside this state, the law of the place where the partial business unit is located.

(b) A California state bank may sell a partial business unit to another California state bank, a national banking association, or an insured foreign (other state) state bank, pursuant to (1) this article, (2) in case the purchaser is a national banking association, federal law, (3) in case the purchaser is an insured foreign (other state) state bank, the law of the foreign bank's domicile, and (4) in case the partial business unit is located outside this state, the law of the place where the partial business unit is located. However, this subdivision does not apply to any sale of the type defined in Section 4877.01.

(c) A California state bank may sell a partial business unit located outside this state to a foreign (other nation) bank pursuant to (1) this article, (2) the law of the foreign bank's domicile, and (3) the law of the place where the partial business unit is located.

(d) An industrial loan company may sell a partial business unit to a California industrial loan company pursuant to (1) this article, (2) in case the seller is a foreign (other state) industrial loan company, the law of the foreign industrial loan company's domicile, and (3) in case the partial business unit is located outside this state, the law of the place where the partial business unit is located.

(e) A California industrial loan company may sell a partial business unit to an insured industrial loan company pursuant to (1) this article, (2) in case the purchaser is an insured foreign (other state) industrial loan company, the law of the foreign industrial loan company's domicile, and (3) in case the partial business unit is located outside this state, the law of the place where the partial business unit is located. However, this subdivision does not apply to any sale of the type defined in Section 4877.01.

(f) A depository corporation of any class may sell a partial business unit to a California state depository corporation of another class pursuant to (1) this article, (2) in case the seller is a federal depository corporation, federal law, (3) in case the seller is a foreign (other state) state depository corporation or foreign (other nation) depository corporation, the law of the foreign depository corporation's domicile, and (4) in case the partial business unit is located outside this state, the law of the place where the partial business unit is located.

(g) A California state depository corporation of any class may sell a partial business unit to a federal depository corporation of another class or an insured foreign (other state) state depository corporation of another class pursuant to (1) this article, (2) in case the purchaser is a federal depository corporation, federal law, (3) in case the purchaser is an insured foreign (other state) state depository corporation, the law of the foreign depository corporation's domicile, and (4) in case the partial business unit is located outside this state, the law of the place where the partial business unit is located. However, this subdivision does not apply to any sale of the type defined in Section 4877.01.

(h) A depository corporation may sell a partial business unit located in this state to a California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank pursuant to (1) this article, (2) in case the seller is a federal depository corporation or a California federally licensed foreign (other nation) bank, federal law, (3) in case the seller is a foreign depository corporation, the law of the foreign depository corporation's domicile, and (4) the law of the purchaser's domicile.

(i) A California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank may sell a partial business unit located in this state to a California state depository corporation, a federal depository corporation, an insured foreign (other state) state depository corporation, another California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank, or a California federally licensed foreign (other nation) bank pursuant to (1) this article, (2) in case the purchaser is a federal depository corporation or a California federally licensed foreign (other nation) bank, federal law, (3) in case the purchaser is a foreign depository corporation, the law of the foreign depository corporation's domicile, and (4) the law of the seller's domicile.

(j) A California state depository corporation may sell a partial business unit located in this state to a California federally licensed foreign (other nation) bank pursuant to (1) this article, (2) federal law, and (3) the law of the purchaser's domicile.

(k) A California federally licensed foreign (other nation) bank may sell a partial business unit located in this state to a California state depository corporation pursuant to (1) this article, (2) federal law, and (3) the law of the seller's domicile.

SEC. 502. Section 4879.07 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4879.07. In obtaining any approval of outstanding shares required for an agreement of sale, a purchaser or seller that is a California state depository corporation and, in any case where the purchaser is a California state depository corporation that is to issue securities in consideration of the sale, the seller shall each provide to its shareholders information as the commissioner may require. In determining the information to be required, the commissioner shall give due consideration to regulations relating to proxy statements issued under Section 14 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. Sec. 78n) by (a) the Securities and Exchange Commission, (b) in the case of a depository corporation that is a bank, the federal bank regulatory agencies, and (c) in the case of a depository corporation that is a savings association, the Office of Thrift Supervision.

SEC. 503. Section 4879.09 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4879.09. A purchaser or seller that is a California state depository corporation or California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank, shall file the following with the commissioner:

(a) A copy of the agreement of sale.

(b) An officers' certificate of the purchaser, certifying that the agreement of sale has been approved by the purchaser as required by Sections 4879.04 and 4879.05.

(c) An officers' certificate of the seller, certifying that the agreement of sale has been approved by the seller as required by Sections 4879.04 and 4879.05.

(d) An application for approval of the sale.

SEC. 504. Section 4879.10 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4879.10. (a) In case the purchaser is either, and the seller is not either, a California state depository corporation or California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank, if the commissioner finds all of the following with respect to an application for approval of a sale, he or she shall approve the application:

(1) That the sale will not result in a monopoly and will not be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or to attempt to monopolize the banking, savings association, or industrial loan business in any part of this state.

(2) That the sale will not have the effect in any section of this state of substantially lessening competition, tending to create a monopoly, or otherwise being in restraint of trade, or that the anticompetitive effect is clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the sale in meeting the convenience and needs of the community to be served.

(3) That the shareholders' equity of the purchaser will be adequate and that the financial condition of the purchaser will be satisfactory.

(4) That the directors and executive officers of the purchaser will be satisfactory.

(5) That the purchaser will afford reasonable promise of successful operation and that it is reasonable to believe that the purchaser will be operated in a safe and sound manner and in compliance with all applicable laws.

(6) That the sale will be fair, just, and equitable. For purposes of this subdivision, in the case of any term of the sale that has been determined by agreement between the seller and the purchaser in an arm's length transaction, the commissioner shall find that the term is fair, just, and equitable to the seller and the purchaser.

(7) In the case of a sale where the seller is a California savings association, that the sale will not have a seriously adverse effect on the total availability of financing for housing in any market area of the seller in this state or that any effect of that type is clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the sale in meeting the convenience and needs of the community to be served. Nothing in this subdivision authorizes the commissioner to require the purchaser to make financing for housing available.

If the commissioner finds otherwise, he or she shall deny the application for approval of the sale.

(b) In case the seller is either, and the purchaser is not either, a California state depository corporation or a California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank, if the commissioner finds all of the following with respect to an application for approval of a sale, he or she shall approve the application:

(1) That the sale will not have a seriously adverse effect on the safety or soundness of the seller.

(2) That the sale will be fair, just, and equitable. For purposes of this subdivision, in the case of any term of the sale that has been determined by agreement between the seller and the purchaser in an arm's length transaction, the commissioner shall find that the term is fair, just, and equitable to the seller and the purchaser.

If the commissioner finds otherwise, he or she shall deny the application for approval of the sale.

(c) In case the seller and the purchaser are each either a California state depository corporation or a California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank, if the commissioner finds all of the factors set forth in subdivisions (a) and (b) with respect to an application for approval of a sale, the commissioner shall approve the application. If the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application.

SEC. 504.1. Section 4879.10 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4879.10. (a) In case the purchaser is either, and the seller is not either, a California state depository corporation or California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank, if the commissioner finds all of the following with respect to an application for approval of a sale, he or she shall approve the application:

(1) That the sale will not result in a monopoly and will not be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or to attempt to monopolize the banking, savings association, or industrial loan business in any part of this state.

(2) That the sale will not have the effect in any section of this state of substantially lessening competition, tending to create a monopoly, or otherwise being in restraint of trade, or that the anticompetitive effect is clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the sale in meeting the convenience and needs of the community to be served.

(3) That the shareholders' equity of the purchaser will be adequate and that the financial condition of the purchaser will be satisfactory.

(4) That the directors and executive officers of the purchaser will be satisfactory.

(5) That the purchaser will afford reasonable promise of successful operation and that it is reasonable to believe that the purchaser will be operated in a safe and sound manner and in compliance with all applicable laws.

(6) That the sale will be fair, just, and equitable. For purposes of this paragraph, in the case of any term of the sale that has been determined by agreement between the seller and the purchaser in an arm's length transaction, the commissioner shall find that the term is fair, just, and equitable to the seller and the purchaser.

(7) In the case of a sale where the seller is a California savings association, that the sale will not have a seriously adverse effect on the total availability of financing for housing in any market area of the seller in this state or that any effect of that type is clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the sale in meeting the convenience and needs of the community to be served. Nothing in this subdivision authorizes the commissioner to require the purchaser to make financing for housing available.

If the commissioner finds otherwise, he or she shall deny the application for approval of the sale.

(b) In case the seller is either, and the purchaser is not either, a California state depository corporation or a California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank, if the commissioner finds all of the following with respect to an application for approval of a sale, he or she shall approve the application:

(1) That the sale will not have a seriously adverse effect on the safety or soundness of the seller.

(2) That the sale will be fair, just, and equitable. For purposes of this subdivision, in the case of any term of the sale that has been determined by agreement between the seller and the purchaser in an arm's length transaction, the commissioner shall find that the term is fair, just, and equitable to the seller and the purchaser.

If the commissioner finds otherwise, he or she shall deny the application for approval of the sale.

(c) In case the seller and the purchaser are each either a California state depository corporation or a California state depository corporation or a California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank, if the commissioner finds all of the factors set forth in subdivisions (a) and (b) with respect to an application for approval of a sale, the commissioner shall approve the application. If the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application.

SEC. 505. Section 4879.11 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4879.11. (a) Before a sale becomes effective, the seller or purchaser shall give to the depositors of the seller whose deposits are to be sold notice of the sale as the commissioner may require.

(b) Subject to the provisions of any applicable federal statute or regulation, any depositor of the seller whose deposit is to be or has been sold may, if the deposit is uninsured, withdraw the uninsured deposit on demand at any time during the period commencing with the giving of the notice called for in subdivision (a) and ending on the 60th day after the date on which the sale becomes effective.

SEC. 506. Section 4879.12 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4879.12. After an application for approval of a sale has been approved by the commissioner and all conditions precedent to the sale have been fulfilled, the commissioner shall approve the agreement of sale and endorse the approval on the agreement of sale, and at that time the sale shall become effective for all purposes.

SEC. 506.1. Section 4879.12 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4879.12. After an application for approval of a sale has been approved by the commissioner and all conditions precedent to the sale have been fulfilled, the commissioner shall approve the agreement of sale and endorse the approval on the original or a copy of the agreement of sale, and at that time the sale shall become effective for all purposes.

SEC. 507. Section 4879.13 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4879.13. When a sale becomes effective, in case the purchaser is a California state depository corporation or California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank:

(a) Unless the purchaser provided otherwise in the application for approval of the sale or unless the commissioner provided otherwise in the approval of the application:

(1) The purchaser may establish equivalent offices at any branch offices, places of business, extensions of offices, and other facilities of the seller transferred in the sale.

(2) If the seller was authorized to transact trust business and if the partial business unit sold includes any trust business, the purchaser, if it is a California state bank or savings association, may transact trust business.

(b) The commissioner shall issue to the purchaser certificates of authority, licenses, and other authorizations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of subdivision (a).

SEC. 507.2. Section 4879.135 of the Financial Code, as added by Assembly Bill 2618, is amended to read:

4879.135. In case a seller is a California state commercial bank and sells all of its trust business in a sale:

(a) As of the time when the sale becomes effective, the commissioner shall issue to the seller certificates of authority authorizing it to transact commercial banking business in replacement of the certificates of authority that the seller is required to surrender pursuant to subdivision (b).

(b) Promptly after the sale becomes effective, the seller shall surrender to the commissioner for cancellation its certificates of authority authorizing it to transact commercial banking business and trust business.

SEC. 508. Section 4879.17 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4879.17. (a) After a sale becomes effective, the commissioner shall issue, upon application, a certificate under his or her official seal, stating that the seller sold a partial business unit to the purchaser, describing the business unit, and specifying the time at which the sale became effective.

(b) Any certificate pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be prima facie evidence of the fact of the sale and of the regularity of the proceedings taken for the sale and shall be conclusive evidence of the matters in favor of any innocent purchaser or encumbrancer for value.

SEC. 509. Section 4880 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4880. In this article, unless the context otherwise requires, "merger" means any of the mergers described in Section 4881.

SEC. 509.1. Section 4880 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4880. In this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Agreement of merger" includes a certificate of ownership executed pursuant to Section 1110 of the Corporations Code.

(b) "Merger" means any of the mergers described in Section 4881.

SEC. 510. Section 4881 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4881. (a) With the approval of the commissioner, a bank may merge into a California state bank pursuant to (1) this article, (2) in case the disappearing bank is a national banking association or a California federally licensed foreign (other nation) bank, federal law, and (3) in case the disappearing bank is a foreign bank, the law of the foreign bank's domicile.

(b) With the approval of the commissioner, an industrial loan company may merge into a California industrial loan company pursuant to (1) this article and (2) in case the disappearing industrial loan company is a foreign (other state) industrial loan company, the law of the foreign industrial loan company's domicile.

(c) With the approval of the commissioner, a depository corporation of any class may merge into a California state depository corporation of another class pursuant to (1) this article, (2) in case the disappearing depository corporation is a federal depository corporation or a California federally licensed foreign (other nation) bank, federal law, and (3) in case the disappearing depository corporation is a foreign depository corporation, the law of the disappearing depository corporation's domicile.

SEC. 511. Section 4882 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4882. In obtaining any approval of outstanding shares required for a merger, the surviving depository corporation and, in case the surviving depository corporation is to issue securities in consideration of the merger, the disappearing depository corporation shall each provide to its shareholders such information as the commissioner may require. In determining the information to be required, the commissioner shall give due consideration to regulations relating to proxy statements issued under Section 14 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. Sec. 78n) by (a) the Securities and Exchange Commission, (b) in the case of a depository corporation that is a bank, the federal bank regulatory agencies, and (c) in the case of a depository corporation that is a savings association, the Office of Thrift Supervision.

SEC. 512. Section 4884 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4884. A surviving depository corporation shall file with the commissioner an application for approval of the merger.

SEC. 513. Section 4885 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4885. If the commissioner finds all of the following with respect to an application for approval of a merger, the commissioner shall approve the application:

(a) That the merger will not result in a monopoly and will not be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or to attempt to monopolize the banking, savings association, or industrial loan business in any part of this state.

(b) That the merger will not have the effect in any section of this state of substantially lessening competition, tending to create a monopoly, or otherwise being in restraint of trade, or that the anticompetitive effect is clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the merger in meeting the convenience and needs of the community to be served.

(c) That the shareholders' equity of the surviving depository corporation will be adequate and that the financial condition of the surviving depository corporation will be satisfactory.

(d) That the directors and executive officers of the surviving depository corporation will be satisfactory.

(e) That the surviving depository corporation will afford reasonable promise of successful operation and that it is reasonable to believe that the surviving depository corporation will be operated in a safe and sound manner and in compliance with all applicable laws.

(f) That the merger will be fair, just, and equitable. For purposes of this subdivision, in the case of any term of the merger that has been determined by agreement between the disappearing depository corporation and the surviving depository corporation in an arm's length transaction, the commissioner shall find that the term is fair, just, and equitable to the disappearing depository corporation and the surviving depository corporation.

(g) In the case of a merger where the disappearing depository corporation is a California savings association, that the merger will not have a seriously adverse effect on the total availability of financing for housing in any market area of the disappearing savings association in this state or that any effect of that type is clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the merger in meeting the convenience and needs of the community to be served. Nothing in this subdivision authorizes the commissioner to require the surviving depository corporation to make financing for housing available.

If the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application for approval of the merger.

SEC. 514. Section 4886 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4886. (a) Before a merger becomes effective, the disappearing or surviving depository corporation shall give to the depositors of the disappearing depository corporation notice of the merger as the commissioner may require.

(b) A depositor of the disappearing depository corporation may, subject to the provisions of any applicable federal statute or regulation and to any premature withdrawal penalty prescribed in the deposit contract, withdraw any uninsured deposit on demand at any time during the period commencing with the giving of the notice called for in subdivision (a) and ending on the 60th day after the date on which the merger becomes effective.

SEC. 515. Section 4887 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4887. (a) After an application for approval of a merger has been approved and all conditions precedent to the merger have been fulfilled, the commissioner shall approve the agreement of merger and endorse the approval on the agreement of merger.

(b) After the agreement of merger has been filed with the Secretary of State, the surviving depository corporation shall file with the commissioner a copy of the agreement of merger certified by the Secretary of State, and at that time the merger shall become effective for all purposes.

SEC. 516. Section 4888 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4888. When a merger becomes effective:

(a) Unless the surviving depository corporation provided otherwise in the application for approval of the merger or unless the commissioner provided otherwise in the approval of the application:

(1) The surviving depository corporation may establish and maintain a branch office at the head office of the disappearing depository corporation and may establish and maintain equivalent offices at the branch offices, places of business, extensions of offices, and other facilities, if any, of the disappearing corporation.

(2) If the disappearing depository corporation was authorized to transact and was transacting trust business, the surviving depository corporation, if it is a California state bank or savings association, may transact trust business.

(b) The commissioner shall issue to the surviving depository corporation certificates of authority, licenses, and other authorizations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of subdivision (a).

SEC. 517. Section 4890 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4890. Promptly after a merger becomes effective:

(a) The surviving depository corporation shall:

(1) Surrender to the regulator of the disappearing depository corporation for cancellation the certificates of authority or licenses issued to the disappearing depository corporation by the regulator; and

(2) File with the regulator of the disappearing depository corporation such report regarding the merger as the regulator may require.

(b) The commissioner shall file a report regarding the merger with the Secretary of State.

SEC. 518. Section 4891 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4891. (a) After a merger becomes effective, the commissioner shall, upon application, issue a certificate under his or her official seal, stating that the disappearing depository corporation merged into the surviving depository corporation and specifying the time at which the merger became effective.

(b) Any certificate issued pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be prima facie evidence of the fact of the merger and of the regularity of the proceedings taken for the merger and shall be conclusive evidence of such matters in favor of any innocent purchaser or encumbrancer for value.

SEC. 519. Section 4895.02 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4895.02. With the approval of the commissioner:

(a) A California depository corporation may merge into a California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank pursuant to (1) this article, (2) in case the disappearing depository corporation is a federal depository corporation, federal law, and (3) the law of the foreign bank's domicile.

(b) A foreign (other state) depository corporation that has a branch office in this state may merge into a California state-licensed foreign (other nation) bank pursuant to (1) this article, (2) in case the disappearing depository corporation is a federal depository corporation, federal law, and (3) the laws of the domiciles of the disappearing depository corporation and of the foreign bank.

SEC. 520. Section 4895.05 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4895.05. A merger shall not become effective unless it has been approved by the commissioner.

SEC. 520.1. Section 4895.05 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4895.05. (a) A merger shall not become effective unless it has been approved by the commissioner.

(b) After an application for approval of a merger has been approved and all conditions precedent to the merger have been fulfilled, the commissioner shall approve the merger.

SEC. 521. Section 4904 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4904. Promptly after a merger becomes effective, the surviving depository corporation shall:

(1) Surrender to the commissioner for cancellation the certificates of authority or licenses issued by the commissioner to the disappearing depository corporation; and

(2) File with the commissioner such report of the merger as the commissioner may require.

SEC. 521.2. Section 4908.02 of the Financial Code, as added by Assembly Bill 2618, is amended to read:

4908.02. With the approval of the commissioner, a California state independent trust company may merge into an uninsured foreign (other state) state depository corporation pursuant to this article and the law of the surviving depository corporation's domicile.

SEC. 521.3. Section 4908.04 of the Financial Code, as added by Assembly Bill 2618, is amended to read:

4908.04. A disappearing or surviving depository corporation shall file an application for approval of a merger with the commissioner.

SEC. 521.4. Section 4908.05 of the Financial Code, as added by Assembly Bill 2618, is amended to read:

4908.05. A merger shall not become effective unless it has been approved by the commissioner.

SEC. 521.5. Section 4908.06 of the Financial Code, as added by Assembly Bill 2618, is amended to read:

4908.06. If the commissioner finds all of the following with respect to an application for approval of a merger, the commissioner shall approve the application:

(a) That the shareholders' equity of the surviving depository corporation will be adequate and that the financial condition of the surviving depository corporation will be satisfactory.

(b) That the directors and executive officers of the surviving depository corporation will be satisfactory.

(c) That the surviving depository corporation will afford reasonable promise of successful operation and that it is reasonable to believe that the surviving depository corporation will be operated in a safe and sound manner and in compliance with all applicable laws.

(d) That the merger will be fair, just, and equitable. For purposes of this subdivision, in the case of any term of the merger that has been determined by agreement between the disappearing depository corporation and the surviving depository corporation in an arm's-length transaction, the commissioner shall find that the term is fair, just, and equitable to the disappearing depository corporation and the surviving depository corporation.

If the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application for approval of the merger.

SEC. 521.7. Section 4908.07 of the Financial Code, as added by Assembly Bill 2618, is amended to read:

4908.07. After an application for approval of a merger has been approved and all conditions precedent to the merger have been fulfilled, the commissioner shall approve the merger.

SEC. 521.8. Section 4908.09 of the Financial Code, as added by Assembly Bill 2618, is amended to read:

4908.09. Promptly after a merger becomes effective, the surviving depository corporation shall:

(a) Surrender to the commissioner for cancellation the certificates of authority or licenses issued by the commissioner to the disappearing depository corporation.

(b) File with the commissioner any report regarding the merger that the commissioner may require.

SEC. 522. Section 4920 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4920. In this article, unless the context otherwise requires, "conversion" means any of the conversions described in Section 4921.

SEC. 523. Section 4921 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4921. With the approval of the commissioner, a California state depository corporation of any class may convert into a California state depository corporation of another class pursuant to this article.

SEC. 524. Section 4922 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4922. (a) A converting depository corporation shall adopt, and shall file with the commissioner an application for approval of, such amendments to its articles as may be necessary to carry out the conversion. Section 904 of the Corporations Code shall not apply to the amendments.

(b) A converting depository corporation shall adopt, and shall file with the commissioner an application for approval of, such amendments to its bylaws as may be necessary to carry out the conversion. The amendments shall not take effect until they are approved by the commissioner and the conversion becomes effective.

SEC. 525. Section 4923 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4923. In obtaining the approval of outstanding shares or shareholders required for any amendment to articles or bylaws called for in Section 4922, a converting depository corporation shall provide to its shareholders information as the commissioner may require. In determining the information to be required, the commissioner shall give due consideration to regulations relating to proxy statements issued under Section 14 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. Sec. 78n) by (a) the Securities and Exchange Commission, (b) in the case of a depository corporation that is a bank, the federal bank regulatory agencies, and (c) in the case of a depository corporation that is a savings association, the Office of Thrift Supervision.

SEC. 526. Section 4924 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4924. A converting depository corporation shall file with the commissioner an application for approval of the conversion.

SEC. 527. Section 4925 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4925. If the commissioner finds all of the following with respect to an application for approval of a conversion, the commissioner shall approve the application:

(a) That the shareholders' equity of the resulting depository corporation will be adequate and that the financial condition of the resulting depository corporation will be satisfactory.

(b) That the directors, executive officers, and any controlling person of the resulting corporation will be satisfactory.

(c) That the name of the resulting depository corporation will not resemble so closely as to be likely to cause confusion the name of any other bank, savings association, or industrial loan company, as the case may be, that is transacting or has recently transacted business in this state.

(d) That the resulting depository corporation will afford reasonable promise of successful operation and that it is reasonable to believe that the resulting depository corporation will be operated in a safe and sound manner and in compliance with all applicable laws.

(e) In the case of a conversion of a California state savings association, that the conversion will not have a seriously adverse effect on the total availability of financing for housing in any market area of the converting savings association in this state or that any effect of that type is clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the conversion in meeting the convenience and needs of the community to be served. Nothing in this subdivision authorizes the commissioner to require the resulting depository corporation to make financing for housing available.

If the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application for approval of the conversion.

SEC. 528. Section 4926 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4926. (a) Before a conversion becomes effective, the converting depository corporation shall give to its depositors such notice of the conversion as the commissioner may require.

(b) A depositor of the converting corporation may, subject to the provisions of any applicable federal statute or regulation and to any premature withdrawal penalty prescribed in the deposit contract, withdraw any uninsured deposit on demand at any time during the period commencing with the giving of the notice called for in subdivision (a) and ending on the 60th day after the conversion becomes effective.

SEC. 529. Section 4927 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4927. After an application for approval of a conversion has been approved and all conditions precedent to the conversion have been fulfilled, the commissioner shall approve the amendments to the articles of the converting depository corporation called for in Section 4922, endorse the approval on the certificate of amendment or other instrument containing the amendments, and specify the time at which the certificate of amendment or other instrument is to be filed with the Secretary of State. The certificate of amendment or other instrument shall be filed with the Secretary of State at the time so specified by the commissioner, and at the time of the filing, the conversion shall become effective for all purposes.

SEC. 530. Section 4928 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4928. When a conversion becomes effective, the commissioner shall:

(a) (1) In case the resulting depository corporation is a California state bank, issue to the resulting depository corporation a certificate of authority authorizing it to transact commercial banking business or commercial banking business and trust business, as the case may be.

(2) In case the resulting depository corporation is a California state savings association, issue to the resulting depository corporation a license authorizing it to transact business as a state savings association.

(3) In case the resulting depository corporation is a California industrial loan company, issue to the resulting depository corporation a certificate of authority authorizing it to transact business as an industrial loan company.

(b) In any case, issue to the resulting depository corporation certificates of authority, licenses, or other appropriate authorizations for the branch offices, places of business, extensions of offices, and other facilities, if any, that the converting depository corporation was operating and that the resulting depository corporation is to continue to operate.

SEC. 531. Section 4929 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4929. Promptly after a conversion becomes effective, the resulting depository corporation shall:

(a) Surrender to the commissioner for cancellation the certificates of authority or licenses issued to the converting depository corporation by the commissioner; and

(b) File with the commissioner such report regarding the conversion as the commissioner may require.

SEC. 532. Section 4930 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4930. (a) After a conversion becomes effective, the commissioner shall issue, upon application, a certificate under his or her official seal, stating that the converting depository corporation converted into the resulting depository corporation and specifying the time at which the conversion became effective.

(b) Any certificate issued pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be prima facie evidence of the fact of the conversion and of the regularity of the proceedings taken for the conversion and shall be conclusive evidence of such matters in favor of any innocent purchaser or encumbrancer for value.

SEC. 533. Section 4940 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4940. In this article, unless the context otherwise requires, "conversion" means any of the conversions described in Section 4941.

SEC. 534. Section 4941 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4941. With the approval of the commissioner:

(a) A national banking association may convert into a California state bank pursuant to this article and federal law.

(b) A federal depository corporation of any class may convert into a California state depository corporation of another class pursuant to federal law and this article.

SEC. 535. Section 4943 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4943. In obtaining any approval of outstanding shares required for a plan of conversion, a converting depository corporation shall provide to its shareholders information as the commissioner may require. In determining the information to be required, the commissioner shall give due consideration to regulations relating to proxy statements issued under Section 14 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. Sec. 78n) by (a) the Securities and Exchange Commission, (b) in the case of a depository corporation that is a bank, the federal bank regulatory agencies, and (c) in the case of a depository corporation that is a savings association, the Office of Thrift Supervision.

SEC. 536. Section 4944 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4944. A converting depository corporation shall file the following with the commissioner:

(a) The plan of conversion.

(b) An officer's certificate certifying that the plan of conversion has been approved as required by federal law.

(c) An application for approval of the conversion.

SEC. 537. Section 4945 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4945. If the commissioner finds all of the factors set forth in Section 4925 with respect to an application for approval of a conversion, the commissioner shall approve the application. If the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application for approval of the conversion.

SEC. 538. Section 4946 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4946. After an application for approval of a conversion has been approved by the commissioner but before the conversion becomes effective:

(a) The converting depository corporation shall file with the commissioner an application for approval of the articles of the resulting depository corporation. When the commissioner approves the articles, the commissioner shall endorse the approval on the articles. After the articles are filed with the Secretary of State, the resulting depository corporation shall file with the commissioner a copy of the articles certified by the Secretary of State.

(b) The resulting depository corporation shall file with the commissioner an application for approval of its bylaws. The bylaws shall not take effect unless and until they are approved by the commissioner.

SEC. 539. Section 4947 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4947. (a) Before a conversion becomes effective, the converting depository corporation shall give to its depositors such notice of the conversion as the commissioner may require.

(b) A depositor of the converting depository corporation may withdraw, subject to the provisions of any applicable federal statute or regulation and to any premature withdrawal penalty prescribed in the deposit contract, any uninsured deposit on demand at any time during the period commencing with the giving of the notice called for in subdivision (a) and ending on the 60th day after the conversion becomes effective.

SEC. 540. Section 4948 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4948. (a) After an application for approval of a conversion has been approved and all conditions precedent to the conversion have been fulfilled, the commissioner shall:

(1) In case the resulting depository corporation is a California state bank, issue to the resulting depository corporation a certificate of authority authorizing it to transact commercial banking business or commercial banking business and trust business, as the case may be.

(2) In case the resulting depository corporation is a California state savings association, issue to the resulting depository corporation a license authorizing it to transact business as a California state savings association.

(3) In case the resulting depository corporation is a California industrial loan company, issue to the resulting depository corporation a certificate of authority authorizing it to transact business as an industrial loan company.

(b) Upon the issuance of the certificate of authority or license pursuant to subdivision (a), the conversion shall become effective for all purposes.

SEC. 541. Section 4949 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4949. When a conversion becomes effective, the commissioner shall issue to the resulting depository corporation certificates of authority, licenses, or other appropriate authorizations for the branch offices, places of business, extensions of offices, and other facilities, if any, that the converting depository corporation was operating and that the resulting depository corporation is to continue to operate.

SEC. 543. Section 4952 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4952. (a) After a conversion becomes effective, the commissioner shall issue, upon application, a certificate under his or her official seal, stating that the converting depository corporation was converted into the resulting depository corporation and specifying the time at which the conversion became effective.

(b) Any certificate issued pursuant to subdivision (a) shall be prima facie evidence of the fact of the conversion and of the regularity of the proceedings taken for the conversion and shall be conclusive evidence of such matters in favor of any innocent purchaser or encumbrancer for value.

SEC. 544. Section 4964 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4964. Promptly after a conversion becomes effective, the resulting depository corporation shall:

(a) Surrender to the commissioner for cancellation the certificates of authority or licenses issued by the commissioner to the converting depository corporation; and

(b) File with the commissioner such report of the conversion as the commissioner may require.

SEC. 545. Section 4966 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4966. (a) Within 60 days after a conversion, the resulting depository corporation shall file with the Secretary of State an officers' certificate reciting the name of the converting depository corporation, the name of the resulting depository corporation, the effective date of the conversion, and that the conversion has been completed in compliance with the provisions of federal law. The Secretary of State shall enter the fact of the conversion on the Secretary of State's corporation records for the converting depository corporation, and the converting depository corporation shall thereafter not be deemed to be a corporation organized under the laws of this state.

(b) As to any conversion, whenever effected, if an officers' certificate has not been filed pursuant to subdivision (a) within 60 days after the completion of the conversion, the commissioner may file a report with the Secretary of State setting forth, to the extent the commissioner has knowledge he or she considers reliable, the recitals specified in subdivision (a), and the Secretary of State shall record the fact of the conversion with the same effect as provided in subdivision (a).

SEC. 546. Section 4990 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

4990. (a) Any person convicted of a felony violation of any of the provisions specified in subdivision (b) shall not serve in any capacity as a director or officer or in any other position involving any management duties with a financial institution in this state with accounts insured by an agency or instrumentality of the United States or a private share insurance or guaranty arrangement. This subdivision does not, however, apply to any director or officer of a financial institution, or to persons serving in managerial positions for financial institutions, whose office or employment with a financial institution commenced, and whose felony conviction occurred, prior to January 1, 1991.

(b) Subdivision (a) applies to felony convictions of offenses specified in Chapter 18 (commencing with Section 3350) of Division 1, Article 4 (commencing with Section 5300) of Chapter 1 of Division 2, Article 8 (commencing with Section 14750) of Chapter 4 of Division 5, and Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 18435) of Division 7. Subdivision (a) also applies to felony convictions of offenses specified in provisions of the laws of the United States added or amended by the federal Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989 (Public Law 101-73).

(c) On and after January 1, 1991, any person who seeks employment by, or a controlling interest in, a financial institution specified in subdivision (a) shall, as a condition to obtaining that employment or controlling interest, permit the financial institution, its regulatory agency, or both to have access to that person's state summary criminal history information, as defined in Section 11105 of the Penal Code, for purposes of determining whether the person has a prior conviction of a felony offense specified in subdivision (b) or any theft offense.

(d) Any state summary criminal history information obtained pursuant to this subdivision shall be kept confidential and no recipient under this subdivision shall disclose the contents other than for the purpose of determining eligibility for employment by, or acquisition of a controlling interest in, a financial institution specified in subdivision (a).

(e) The authority granted by this section to the Commissioner of Financial Institutions and other regulatory agencies shall be in addition to any other authority granted by law to obtain information about the background of any person. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit any authority of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions or any regulatory agency otherwise provided by law.

SEC. 547. Section 5104 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

5104. "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Financial Institutions.

SEC. 548. Section 5106 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

5106. "Department" means the Department of Financial Institutions.

SEC. 549. Section 5320 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

5320. If a person is convicted of a violation of Section 5303, 5304, 5305, or 5306, or is convicted of a felony for a violation of Section 25540 or 25541 of the Corporations Code in connection with the operation of a lending institution subject to the jurisdiction of the department pursuant to this division, or is convicted of a felony violation of Section 487 or 504 of the Penal Code in connection with the operation of a lending institution subject to the jurisdiction of the department pursuant to this division any property which constitutes or is derived from proceeds traceable to that violation is subject to forfeiture pursuant to this article.

SEC. 550. Section 5330 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

5330. The commissioner may impose civil penalties on any savings association, and any institution-affiliated party as follows:

(a) Except as provided in subdivision (b) or in subdivisions (c) and (d), any savings association which, and any institution-affiliated party who, commits any of the following violations shall forfeit and pay a civil penalty of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each day during which the violation continues:

(1) Violation of any statute or regulation.

(2) Violation of any order issued by the commissioner.

(3) Violation of any condition imposed in writing by the commissioner in connection with the grant of any application or other request by the savings association.

(4) Violation of any written agreement between the savings association and the commissioner.

(b) Any savings association which, and any institution-affiliated party who, (1) commits any violation specified in subdivision (a), (2) recklessly engages in an unsafe or unsound practice in conducting the affairs of the savings association, or (3) breaches any fiduciary duty shall forfeit and pay a civil penalty of not more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each day during which the violation, practice, or breach continues if the violation, practice, or breach (1) is part of a pattern of misconduct, (2) causes or is likely to cause more than a minimal loss to the savings association, or (3), was committed by an institution-affiliated party and results in pecuniary gain or other benefit to that institution-affiliated party.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (b), any savings association which, and any institution-affiliated party who, (1) knowingly commits any violation specified in subdivision (a), engages in any unsafe or unsound practice in conducting the affairs of the savings association, or breaches any fiduciary duty, and (2) knowingly or recklessly causes a substantial loss to the savings association or, in the case of an institution-related party, a substantial pecuniary gain or other benefit to the institution-related party results by reason of violation, practice or breach, shall forfeit and pay a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed the maximum amount determined under this subdivision for each day during which the violation, practice, or breach continues. The maximum daily amount of any civil penalty which may be assessed pursuant to this subdivision for any violation, practice, or breach described in the subdivision is as follows:

(1) In the case of any person other than a savings association, an amount not to exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000).

(2) In the case of any savings institution, an amount not to exceed the lesser of one million dollars ($1,000,000) or 1 percent of the total assets of the association.

(d) (1) Any penalty imposed under subdivisions (a), (b), or (c) may be assessed and collected by the commissioner by written notice.

(2) If, with respect to any assessment under paragraph (1) a hearing is not requested pursuant to subdivision (g) within the period of time allowed under subdivision (g), the assessment shall constitute a final and unappealable order.

(e) The commissioner may compromise, modify or remit any penalty which may be assessed or which has been assessed pursuant to subdivision (a), (b), or (c).

(f) In determining the amount of any penalty imposed under subdivision (a), (b), or (c), the commissioner shall take into account the appropriateness of the penalty with respect to all of the following:

(1) The size of financial resources and good faith of the savings association or other person charged.

(2) The gravity of the violation, practice, or breach.

(3) The history of previous violations, unsafe or unsound practices, or breaches of fiduciary duty.

(4) Such other matters as justice may require.

(g) The savings association or other person against whom any penalty is assessed under this section shall be afforded a departmental hearing if the association or person submits a request for a hearing within 20 days after the issuance of the notice of assessment.

(h) (1) If any savings association or institution-related party fails to pay an assessment after any civil monetary penalty assessed under this section has become final, the department shall recover the amount assessed by action in superior court.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, review under Section 8055 of the validity or appropriateness of any civil penalty assessed under this section shall be conducted solely pursuant to Section 1085 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(i) All penalties collected under authority of this section shall be deposited in the Savings and Loan Account in the Financial Institutions Fund.

SEC. 551. Section 5652 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

5652. Except as otherwise authorized under existing law, no person, unless lawfully authorized to do business in this state under the provisions of this division and who is actually engaged in carrying on a savings association business, shall:

(a) Do business under any name or title that contains the following terms:

(1) "Savings association."

(2) "Savings bank."

(3) "Savings and loan association."

(4) "Building and loan association."

(5) "Building association."

(6) Any combination employing either or both of the words "building," or "loan," with one or more of the words "saving," "savings," or words of similar import.

(7) Any combination employing one or more of the words "saving," "savings," or words of similar import with one or more of the words "association," "bank," "institution," "society," "company," "fund," "corporation," or words of similar import.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this subdivision, use of the term "savings bank" in a name or title is not prohibited to any person regulated by the provisions of Division 1 (commencing with Section 99), Division 7 (commencing with Section 18000), or under procedures and regulations promulgated by the Comptroller of the Currency, Federal Reserve Board, Office of Thrift Supervision, Federal Housing Finance Board, or Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Any reference to the term "savings bank" in this division is not intended to apply to any person other than persons authorized to do business in this state under this division.

(b) Use any name or sign or circulate or use any letterhead, billhead, circular or paper whatever, or advertise or represent in any manner that indicates or reasonably implies that the business is the character or kind of business carried on or transacted by an association or is likely to lead any person to believe that the business is that of an association.

SEC. 552. Section 6515 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

6515. (a) Notwithstanding any provisions of Division 1 (commencing with Section 99), Section 202 of the Corporations Code, or any other provisions of law relating to trusts and trust authority, subject to regulations of the commissioner, an association may act as trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, or in any other fiduciary capacity in which banks, trust companies, or other corporations are permitted to act under the laws of this state, directly or through a state or nationally chartered subsidiary.

(b) All acts provided in this code to be performed by the commissioner, the State Treasurer, or other public officials for or in respect to the deposit of securities by trust companies for the protection of court and private trusts shall be performed as well for or in respect to the deposit of securities by any association or the trust companies of any association organized or doing business under the laws of this state, or by any federal association authorized to transact a trust business. An association may advertise its authority to engage in and conduct a trust business and to advertise for and solicit a trust business in this state, notwithstanding any other provision of law.

(c) Pursuant to the authority contained in Section 1 of Article XV of the California Constitution, the restrictions upon rates of interest contained in Section 1 of Article XV of the California Constitution shall not apply to any obligations of, loans made by, or forbearances of, an association or federal association, or a service corporation which is authorized to exercise trust powers, when the association, federal association, or service corporation is acting in its fiduciary capacity as trustee.

(d) Subdivision (c) creates and authorizes an exempt class of persons pursuant to Section 1 of Article XV of the Constitution. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, subdivision (c) does not exempt an association, federal association, or a service corporation of such associations, from complying with all other laws and regulations governing the business in which the association, federal association, or service corporation is engaged.

SEC. 553. Section 7262 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

7262. Bonds of any flood control and water conservation districts, or any zone thereof, having an assessed valuation on taxable real property of not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000), county, city and county, city, metropolitan water district, municipal utility district, any special district established by and within any municipal utility district, transit district, rapid transit district, including sales tax revenue bonds of that district of the State of California (herein referred to generally as public corporations) except the bonds of any particular such public corporation which may be declared ineligible for investment by commercial banks by regulations of the commissioner.

SEC. 554. Section 8000 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 555. Section 8001 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 556. Section 8002 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 557. Section 8003 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 558. Section 8004 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 558.5. Section 8005 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 559. Section 8006 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 560. Section 8007 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 562. Section 8009.5 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 562.3. The heading of Article 2 (commencing with Section 8030) of Chapter 7 of Division 2 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

Article 2. Savings and Loan Account

SEC. 562.5. Section 8030 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

8030. (a) To meet the operating costs and expenses of the department in administering this division and other laws relating to savings associations or the savings association business, for the payment of which no provision is otherwise made, the commissioner shall require each association doing business in this state to pay in advance an annual assessment for its pro rata share of all operating costs and expenses as estimated by the commissioner for the ensuing year.

(b) As used in this article, "association" includes a foreign savings association doing business in this state under an approval issued by the commissioner.

SEC. 563. Section 8035 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

8035. If any domestic association proposes to acquire the assets of any federal association or any state or national bank by transfer, conversion, or otherwise, the initial assessment provided for by this article shall be computed on the same basis as if the federal association or state or national bank had been an association and assessed on or before the 20th day of June in the fiscal year preceding the initial assessment, except that the initial assessment shall be based on the assets of the federal association or of the state or national bank, as shown by the institution's report to the Office of Thrift Supervision, the commissioner, or the Comptroller of the Currency, respectively, next preceding the 20th day of June in the fiscal year preceding the initial assessment and the assessment shall be reduced, if the certificate of authority is not issued in July, by one-twelfth for each full month of the fiscal year which has expired at the time of the issuance of the certificate of authority and shall be payable in full on the date of issuance.

SEC. 563.5. Section 8035.5 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

8035.5. As of the operative date of this section:

(a) The Savings Association Special Regulatory Fund is converted into a separate account in the Financial Institutions Fund and designated as the Savings and Loan Account.

(b) All moneys and other assets and all liabilities of the Savings Association Special Regulatory Fund shall be transferred to the Savings and Loan Account.

SEC. 564. Section 8036 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

8036. All money collected or received by the commissioner under this division or any other law relating to savings associations or the savings association business, except money belonging to associations whose business property and assets are in the possession of the commissioner, shall be deposited with the State Treasurer to the credit of the Savings and Loan Account in the Financial Institutions Fund.

SEC. 565. Section 8037 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 565.5. Section 8037 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

8037. All expenses of the department in administering the division and other laws relating to savings associations or to the savings association business shall be paid by the Savings and Loan Account; and, except as otherwise provided in Section 276 or 277, and the Savings and Loan Account shall be used only for such purposes.

SEC. 565.7. Section 8038 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 566. Section 9000 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

9000. Associations shall pay all fees required by this division to the department.

SEC. 567. Section 12100 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

12100. This division does not apply to any of the following:

(a) Persons or their authorized agents doing business under license and authority of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of the State of California under Division 1 (commencing with Section 99), or under any law of this state or of the United States relating to banks, trust companies, building or savings associations, industrial loan companies, personal property brokers, credit unions, title insurance companies or underwritten title companies (as defined in Section 12402 of the Insurance Code), escrow agents subject to Division 6 (commencing with Section 17000), consumer finance lenders subject to Division 10 (commencing with Section 24000), or commercial finance lenders subject to Division 11 (commencing with Section 26000).

(b) (1) Any person which is licensed under Chapter 14A (commencing with Section 1851) of Division 1 or any agent of such person when selling any travelers check (as defined in Section 1852) which is issued by such person.

(2) Any person which is licensed under Division 16 (commencing with Section 33000) or any agent of the person, when selling any payment instrument (as defined in Section 33059) which is issued by the person.

(c) The services of a person licensed to practice law in this state, when the person renders services in the course of his or her practice as an attorney at law, and the fees and disbursements of such person whether paid by the debtor or other person, are not charges or costs and expenses regulated by or subject to the limitations of this chapter; provided, these fees and disbursements shall not be shared, directly or indirectly with the prorater or check seller.

(d) Any transaction in which money or other property is paid to a "joint control agent" for disbursal or use in payment of the cost of labor, materials, services, permits, fees, or other items of expense incurred in construction of improvements upon real property.

(e) A merchant-owned credit or creditors association, or a member-owned or member-controlled or member-directed association whose principal function is that of servicing the community as a reporting agency.

(f) Any person licensed under Chapter 1 of Part 6 of Division 2 of the Labor Code, when acting in any capacity for which he or she is licensed under such part.

(g) Any person licensed under Part 1, Division 4, of the Business and Professions Code, when acting in any capacity for which he or she is licensed under that part.

(h) A common law or statutory assignment for the benefit of creditors or the operation or liquidation of property or a business enterprise under supervision of a creditor's committee.

(i) The services of a person licensed as a certified public accountant or a public accountant in this state, when the person renders services in a course of his or her practice as a certified public accountant or a public accountant, and the fees and disbursements of the person whether paid by the debtor or other person, are not charges or costs and expenses regulated by or subject to the limitations of this chapter; provided, these fees and disbursements shall not be shared, directly or indirectly, with the prorater or check seller.

(j) Nonprofit community service organizations that are subject to the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law (Part 2 (commencing with Section 5110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code) or are subject to the Nonprofit Mutual Benefit Corporation Law (Part 3 (commencing with Section 7110) of Division 2 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code) and whose membership consists exclusively of retailers, lenders in the consumer credit field, educators, attorneys, social service organizations, employers' or employees' organizations, and related groups, if the principal functions of these organizations are: (1) consumer credit education; (2) counseling on consumer credit problems and family budgets; and (3) arranging, and in certain cases administering, debt settlement plans, for which a charge for administrative services only may be made of 6.5 percent of the money disbursed monthly, or twenty dollars ($20) per month, whichever is the lesser, to offset expenses; provided essential records are kept in accordance with sound accounting practices, consumer funds are banked in a trust account and appropriate fidelity bond and insurance are maintained, that reports are made to debtors, and independent audits made; and further provided, however, that this subdivision shall exempt these organizations from this division only with respect to those activities described in Section 12002.1 and not with respect to those activities described in Section 12002.

(k) Any person licensed under Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 1800) of Division 1 or any agent of such person, when selling any check or draft which is drawn by the person and which is of the type described in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 1800.5.

(l) Any group of banks each of which is organized under the laws of a nation other than the United States and one or more of which are licensed by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of the State of California under Article 3 (commencing with Section 1750) of Chapter 13.5 of Division 1, or any agent of such group, when selling any foreign currency traveler's check (as defined in Section 1852) issued by such group, provided that each bank which is a member of the group is jointly and severally liable to pay such foreign currency traveler's check.

(m) Any transaction of the type described in Section 1854.1.

SEC. 568. Section 14003 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14003. "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of the State of California.

SEC. 569. Section 14200.1 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

14200.1. There is in the Department of Financial Institutions, the Division of Credit Unions. The Division of Credit Unions has charge of the execution of the laws of this state relating to credit unions or to the credit union business.

SEC. 570. Section 14200.2 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

14200.2. The Chief Officer of the Division of Credit Unions is the Deputy Commissioner of Financial Institutions for the Division of Credit Unions. The Deputy Commissioner of Financial Institutions for the Division of Credit Unions shall administer the laws of this state relating to credit unions or the credit union business under the direction of and on behalf of the commissioner. The Deputy Commissioner of Financial Institutions for the Division of Credit Unions shall be appointed by the Governor and shall hold office at the pleasure of the Governor. The Deputy Commissioner of Financial Institutions shall receive an annual salary as fixed by the Governor.

SEC. 571. Section 14204 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14204. If the commissioner upon any examination, or from any report made to the commissioner, finds any credit union is violating the provisions of this division or the rules made pursuant to this division, or has impaired capital, or is insolvent, or is conducting its business in an unsafe or unauthorized manner, the commissioner may notify the credit union to, and the credit union shall, cease these practices. The commissioner may notify the credit union to, and the credit union shall, temporarily suspend or entirely cease the transaction of any new business or the portion thereof as is ordered by the commissioner. Within 10 days from the date of a notification or order pursuant to this section, the credit union may request a hearing. Neither the request for a hearing nor the hearing itself shall stay the notification or order issued by the commissioner under this section.

SEC. 572. Section 14206 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 573. Section 14258 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 574. Section 14350 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14350. To defray the costs of administration of this division and other laws relating to credit unions or the credit union business, including investigations and supervision, but not including the costs of examination referred to in Section 14353, except as otherwise provided therein, the commissioner shall require every credit union licensed by him or her or coming under his or her supervision to pay in advance to the commissioner for the ensuing year charges and assessments in accordance with the following schedule:

Total assets of credit union	Amount of assessment
Assets of $1,000 or less	$20.00
Over $1,000, but not more than $50,000	$20.00 plus $2.00 per $1,000 of assets in excess of $1,000

Over $500,000, but not more than $750,000	$718.00 plus $0.50 per $1,000 of assets in excess of $500,000
Over $750,000	$843.00 plus $0.25 per $1,000 of assets in excess of $750,000

SEC. 574.5. Section 14352 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

14352. If the commissioner determines that the charges and assessments set forth in this division for any year are in excess of the amount necessary, or are insufficient, to meet the expenses of administration of this division and other laws relating to credit unions or the credit union business, including examinations and supervision, for that year, the assessments and charges for the following year shall be adjusted on a pro rata basis in accordance with the percentage of such excess or insufficiency as related to the actual charges and assessments for the year for which such excess or insufficiency occurred, in order to recover the actual costs of administration.

SEC. 575. Section 14354 of the Financial Code is amended and renumbered to read:

14355. All money received or collected by the commissioner under this division or any other law relating to credit unions or the credit union business shall be paid at least once each week, accompanied by a detailed statement thereof, into the State Treasury to the credit of the Credit Union Fund.

SEC. 575.5. Section 14354 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

14354. As of the operative date of this section:

(a) There is established the Credit Union Fund in the State Treasury.

(b) All money on deposit with the Treasurer in the State Corporations Fund that has been received or collected by the Commissioner of Corporations under this division or any other law relating to credit unions or the credit union business, all other assets of the State Corporations Fund that have been acquired by the Commissioner of Corporations under this division or any other law relating to credit unions or the credit union business, and all liabilities of the State Corporations Fund that have been incurred under this division or any other law relating to credit unions or the credit union business shall be transferred to the Credit Union Fund.

SEC. 576. Section 14356 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

14356. All expenses of the department in administering this division and other laws relating to credit unions or the credit union business shall be paid out of the Credit Union Fund; and, except as otherwise provided in Section 276 or 277, the Credit Union Fund shall be used only for such purposes.

SEC. 577. Article 5 (commencing with Section 14380) is added to Chapter 3 of Division 5 of the Financial Code, to read:

Article 5. Credit Union Advisory Committee

14380. There is established in the department a Credit Union Advisory Committee.

14381. The Credit Union Advisory Committee shall advise the commissioner and the Deputy Commissioner of Financial Institutions for the Division of Credit Unions on matters relating to credit unions or the credit union business.

14382. (a) The Credit Union Advisory Committee consists of seven members.

(b) The members of the Credit Union Advisory Committee shall be appointed by the Secretary of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency.

(c) The term of a member of the Credit Union Advisory Committee is two years. However, a member may be reappointed.

(d) Membership in the Credit Union Advisory Committee is voluntary. No person is required to accept an appointment to the Credit Union Advisory Committee, and any member may resign by filing a resignation with the commissioner.

(e) No member of the Credit Union Advisory Committee shall receive any compensation, reimbursement for expenses, or other payment from the state in connection with service on the Credit Union Advisory Committee.

14383. The Credit Union Advisory Committee shall meet at least once each calendar quarter.

14384. The commissioner may by order or regulation prescribe rules governing the Credit Union Advisory Committee and its members, including such matters as meetings, quorum, and actions.

SEC. 582. Section 18002 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18002. "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of the State of California.

SEC. 582.5. Section 18002.5 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

18002.5. "Department" means the Department of Financial Institutions.

SEC. 583. Section 18021 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18021. (a) An industrial loan company shall not deposit its funds except with a bank, trust company, or savings association authorized to do business in this state, except as provided in subdivision (b).

(b) An industrial loan company which is insured, as that term is defined in Section 18003.5, may also deposit its funds in an out-of-state financial institution, the accounts of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

(c) Funds deposited in an out-of-state financial institution shall not in any case exceed the applicable amount of federal deposit insurance.

(d) The depository shall be approved by a majority vote of the board of directors or the executive committee, exclusive of the vote of any director who is an officer, director, trustee, or shareholder of the depository so designated. An out-of-state savings association subject to the Management Consignment Program of the Office of Thrift Supervision shall not be used as a depository.

(e) An industrial loan company shall furnish an authorization for disclosure to the commissioner of the financial records of deposits pursuant to Section 7473 of the Government Code. No deposit shall be made in an out-of-state financial institution unless that institution agrees in writing to disclose financial records of the industrial loan company to the commissioner.

SEC. 584. Section 18026 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 585. Section 18057 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18057. An industrial loan company shall not use any advertising nor make any representations which indicate, imply or might lead a person to believe that the company is a savings association.

SEC. 586. Section 18101.6 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18101.6. Companies authorized to engage in the industrial loan business after the effective date of the act which added this section shall have the words "industrial loan company," "investment and loan," "thrift company," "thrift and loan company," or "bank" as part of the company name included in the articles of incorporation.

SEC. 587. Section 18210.5 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 588. Section 18212.1 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18212.1. As an alternative to the charges authorized by Section 18212 a licensee may contract for and receive charges at a rate not exceeding five-sixths of 1 percent per month plus a percentage per month equal to one-twelfth of the annual rate prevailing on the 25th day of the second month of the quarter preceding the quarter in which the loan is made as established by the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco on advances to member banks under Section 13 and 13a of the Federal Reserve Act as now in effect or hereafter from time to time amended, or if there is no such single determinable rate for advances, the closest counterpart of such rate as shall be designated by the commissioner. Charges shall be calculated on the unpaid principal balance.

SEC. 588.5. Section 18339 is added to Article 1 of Chapter 5 of Division 7 of the Financial Code, to read:

18339. As of the operative date of this section:

(a) There is established an Industrial Loan Account in the Financial Institutions Fund in the State Treasury.

(b) All money on deposit with the Treasurer in the State Corporations Fund that has been received or collected by the Commissioner of Corporations under this division or any other law relating to industrial loan companies or the industrial loan business, all other assets of the State Corporations Fund that have been acquired by the Commissioner of Corporations under this division or any other law relating to industrial loan companies or the industrial loan business, and all liabilities of the State Corporations Fund that have been incurred under this division or any other law relating to industrial loan companies or the industrial loan business shall be transferred to the Industrial Loan Account.

SEC. 589. Section 18340 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18340. All money received or collected by the commissioner under this division or any other law relating to industrial loan companies or the industrial loan business shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Industrial Loan Account of the Financial Institutions Fund.

SEC. 590. Section 18340.5 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

18340.5. All expenses of the department in administering this division and other laws relating to industrial loan companies or the industrial loan business shall be paid out of the Industrial Loan Account; and, except as otherwise provided in Section 276 or 277, the Industrial Loan Account shall be used only for such purposes.

SEC. 591. Section 18348 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 592. Section 18349.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18349.5. (a) For the purposes of this section, the following definitions are applicable:

(1) "Account holder" includes, in the case of an investment certificate account, an investment certificate holder; in the case of a trust account, each trustor and beneficiary of the trust account; and, in the case of any other fiduciary account, each person who occupies, with respect to the account, a position which is similar to the position that a trustor or beneficiary occupies with respect to a trust account.

(2) "Industrial loan company" means any corporation which falls within the definitions of Sections 18003 and 18003.5.

(3) "Order" means any approval, consent, authorization, permit, exemption, denial, prohibition, or requirement applicable to a specific case issued by the commissioner, including without limitation, any condition thereof. "Order" does not include any certificate of authority or license issued by the commissioner, but does include any condition of a license and any written agreement made by any person with the commissioner under this division.

(4) "Subject person of an industrial loan company" means any director, officer, or employee of the industrial loan company, or any person who participates in the conduct of the business of the industrial loan company. However, "subject person of an industrial loan company" does not include an individual who is a director, officer, or employee of a controlling person of an industrial loan company unless the individual is a director, officer, or employee of the industrial loan company or participates in the conduct of the industrial loan company.

(5) "Controlling person" means a person who, directly or indirectly, controls an industrial loan company.

(6) "Violation" includes, without limitation, any act done, alone or with one or more persons, for or toward causing, bringing about, participation in, counseling, aiding or abetting a violation.

(b) If, after notice and opportunity for hearing, the commissioner finds the following, the commissioner may issue an order suspending or removing a subject person of an industrial loan company from his or her office with the industrial loan company and prohibiting the subject person from further participating in any manner in the conduct of the business of the industrial loan company, except with the prior consent of the commissioner:

(1) (A) That the subject person has violated any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division, or any provision of any other applicable law relating to the business of the industrial loan company; or

(B) That the subject person has engaged or participated in any unsafe or unsound act with respect to the business of the industrial loan company; or

(C) That the subject person has committed or engaged in any act which constitutes a breach of his or her fiduciary duty as a subject person; and

(2) (A) That the industrial loan company has suffered or will probably suffer substantial financial loss or other damage by reason of that violation, act, or breach of fiduciary duty; or

(B) That the interests of the industrial loan company's accountholders have been or are likely to be seriously prejudiced by reason of the violation, act, or breach of fiduciary duty; or

(C) That the subject person has received financial gain by reason of that violation, act, or breach of fiduciary duty; and

(3) That the violation, act, or breach of fiduciary duty is one involving personal dishonesty on the part of the subject person, or one which demonstrates a willful or continuing disregard for the safety or soundness of the industrial loan company.

(c) If, after notice and opportunity for hearing, the commissioner finds the following, the commissioner may issue an order suspending or removing a subject person of an industrial loan company from his or her office with the industrial loan company and prohibiting the subject person from further participating in any manner in the conduct of the business of the industrial loan company, except with the prior consent of the commissioner:

(1) That the subject person's conduct or practice with respect to another industrial loan company or business institution has resulted in substantial financial loss or other damage; and

(2) That the conduct or practice has evidenced personal dishonesty or willful or continuing disregard for the safety and soundness of the other industrial loan company or business institution; and

(3) That the conduct or practice is relevant in that it demonstrates unfitness to continue as a subject person of the industrial loan company.

(d) If the commissioner finds the following, the commissioner may immediately issue an order suspending or removing a subject person of an industrial loan company from his or her office with the industrial loan company and prohibiting the subject person from further participating in any manner in the conduct of the business of the industrial loan company, except with the prior consent of the commissioner:

(1) That it is necessary for the protection of the industrial loan company or the interests of the industrial loan company's account holders that the commissioner issue the order immediately, and

(2) (A) That any of the factors set forth in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (b) and any of the factors set forth in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) are true with respect to the subject person; or

(B) That any of the factors set forth in paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of subdivision (c), and the factor set forth in paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) are true with respect to the subject person.

(e) (1) If the commissioner finds the following, the commissioner may immediately issue an order suspending or removing a subject person of an industrial loan company from his or her office with the industrial loan company and prohibiting the subject person from further participating in any manner in the conduct of the business of the industrial loan company, except with the prior consent of the commissioner.

(A) That the subject person has been charged in an indictment issued by a grand jury or in an information, complaint, or similar pleading issued by a United States attorney, district attorney, or other governmental official or agency authorized to prosecute crimes, with a crime which is punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year and which involves dishonesty or breach of trust; and

(B) That the person's continuing to serve as a subject person of the industrial loan company may pose a material threat to the interest of the industrial loan company's account holders or may threaten to materially impair public confidence in the industrial loan company. In case the criminal proceedings are terminated other than by a judgment of conviction the order shall be deemed rescinded.

(2) If the commissioner finds the following, the commissioner may immediately issue an order suspending or removing a subject person of an industrial loan company or a former subject of an industrial loan company, from his or her office, if any, with the industrial loan company and prohibiting the person from further participating in any manner in the conduct of the business of the industrial loan company, except with the prior consent of the industrial loan company:

(A) That the person has been finally convicted of a crime which is punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year and which involves dishonesty or breach of trust; and

(B) That the person's continuing to serve or resumption of service as a subject person of the industrial loan company may pose a material threat to the interests of the industrial loan company's account holders or may threaten to materially impair public confidence in the industrial loan company.

(3) The fact that any subject person of an industrial loan company charged with a crime involving dishonesty or breach of trust is not finally convicted of that crime shall not preclude the commissioner from issuing an order regarding the subject person pursuant to other provisions of this division.

(f) Within 30 days after an order is issued pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e), the person to whom the order is issued may file an application for a hearing.

(g) Any person to whom an order is issued under subdivision (b), (c), (d), or (e) may apply to the commissioner to modify or rescind that order. The commissioner shall not grant that application unless the commissioner finds that it is in the public interest to do so and that it is reasonable to believe that the person will, if and when he or she becomes a subject person of an industrial loan company, comply with all applicable provisions of this division and of any regulation or order issued thereunder.

(h) A hearing held pursuant to this section shall be private unless the commissioner, in his or her discretion, after fully considering the views of the parties, determines that a public hearing is necessary to protect the public interest.

(i) (1) It is unlawful for any subject person of an industrial loan company or former subject person of an industrial loan company to whom an order is issued under subdivision (b), (c), (d), or (e) to do any of the following, except with the prior consent of the commissioner, so long as the order is effective:

(A) To serve or act as a director, officer, employee, or agent of any industrial loan company.

(B) To vote any shares or other securities of an industrial loan company having voting rights, for the election of any person as a director of an industrial loan company.

(C) Directly or indirectly, to solicit, procure, or transfer or attempt to transfer, or vote any proxy, consent, or authorization with respect to any shares or other securities of any industrial loan company having voting rights.

(D) Otherwise to participate in any manner in the conduct of the business of any industrial loan company.

(2) Any person who violates paragraph (1) shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or imprisoned in the state prison, or in a county jail not to exceed one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(3) If the commissioner believes that any person has violated paragraph (1), the commissioner may bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction petitioning the court to assess that person a civil penalty in an amount as the commissioner may specify; provided, however, that the amount of the civil penalty shall not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) for each violation or, in the case of a continuing violation, two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) for each day for which the violation continues.

In determining the amount of a civil penalty to be assessed under this paragraph, the court shall consider the financial resources and good faith of the person charged, the gravity of the violation, the history of previous violations by the person, and such other factors as in the opinion of the court may be relevant.

SEC. 592.5. Section 18350 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18350. Each industrial loan company shall pay to the commissioner its pro rata share of all costs and expenses of the department in administering this division and other laws relating to industrial loan companies or the industrial loan business, as estimated by the commissioner for the ensuing year and of any deficit actually incurred or anticipated in the year in which the assessment is made. The pro rata share shall be the proportion which a company's assets bear to the aggregate assets of all companies as shown by the latest annual reports of the companies to the commissioner. The pro rata share shall not include the costs of any examinations provided for in Section 18392, unless they cannot be collected from the company examined.

SEC. 593. Section 18356 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18356. The commissioner may order any industrial loan company to desist from any conduct which the commissioner finds in violation of this division or any rule or order of the commissioner made pursuant to this division.

SEC. 594. Section 18360 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18360. The company named in any order issued pursuant to this division for which no express hearing right is provided, including Sections 18356, 18357, 18358, 18359, 18363, and 18415.3 may, within 15 days after receipt thereof, file with the commissioner its written request for hearing. The filing of that request shall not operate to postpone or suspend the effectiveness of any order issued by the commissioner unless otherwise directed by the commissioner. The order may be amended or set aside by the commissioner at any time. The commissioner shall, within 30 business days after the receipt of that written request or at a later time as may be mutually agreed with the company, cause that matter to be heard.

SEC. 595. Section 18395 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 596. Section 18409 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18409. The commissioner shall make and file annually with the department as a public record a composite of reports filed by industrial loan companies, and any comments thereon that he or she deems in the public interest.

SEC. 597. Section 18427 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 598. Section 18427 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

18427. Unless the context otherwise requires, in this article:

(a) "Offer" or "offer to sell" includes every attempt or offer to dispose of, or solicitation of an offer to buy, a security for value.

(b) "Sale" or "sell" includes every contract of sale of, contract to sell, or disposition of, a security for value. "Sale" or "sell" includes any exchange of securities and any change in the rights, preferences, privileges, or restrictions of or on outstanding securities.

(c) "Security" means any stock or debenture, or any warrant, right, or option to subscribe to or purchase any of the foregoing.

(d) The terms defined in subdivisions (a) and (b) of this section do not include any stock dividend payable with respect to common stock of an industrial loan company solely (except for any cash or script paid for fractional shares) in shares of such common stock, if such industrial loan company has no other class of voting stock outstanding; provided, that shares issued in any such dividend shall be subject to any conditions previously imposed by the commissioner applicable to the shares with respect to which they are issued.

SEC. 599. Section 18427.1 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 600. Section 18427.1 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

18427.1. No industrial loan company organized under the laws of this state shall offer or sell any security issued by it unless the commissioner has issued a permit authorizing such sale.

SEC. 601. Section 18427.2 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 602. Section 18427.2 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

18427.2. An application for a permit shall be in such form and contain such information as the commissioner may prescribe.

SEC. 603. Section 18427.3 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 604. Section 18427.3 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

18427.3. The commissioner shall charge and collect fees for applications filed under this article as fixed in this section.

(a) The fee for a negotiating permit shall be fifty dollars ($50).

(b) The fee for a permit to exchange a security or to make any change in the rights, preferences, privileges, or restrictions of or on outstanding securities shall be fifty dollars ($50).

(c) The fee for any permit to sell securities other than as specified in subdivision (b) shall be one hundred dollars ($100) plus one-tenth of one percent of the aggregate value of the securities sought to be sold, up to a maximum aggregate fee of one thousand seven hundred fifty dollars ($1,750).

SEC. 605. Section 18427.4 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 606. Section 18427.4 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

18427.4. If the commissioner finds that the proposed sale of securities is fair, just, and equitable, he or she shall issue to the applicant a permit authorizing it to offer and sell the securities in such amount and upon such terms and conditions as he or she may provide in the permit. If the commissioner finds otherwise, he or she shall deny the application.

SEC. 607. Section 18427.5 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

18427.5. The commissioner may impose conditions in any permit issued under Section 18427.4, requiring the deposit in escrow of securities, imposing a legend condition restricting the transferability thereof, impounding the proceeds from the sale thereof, limiting the expense in connection with the sale thereof, or such other conditions as he or she deems reasonable and necessary or advisable in the public interest.

SEC. 608. Section 18427.6 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

18427.6. Every permit issued pursuant to Section 18427.4 shall recite that it is permissive only and does not constitute a recommendation or endorsement of the securities permitted to be sold.

SEC. 609. Section 18427.7 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

18427.7. The commissioner may amend, alter, suspend, or revoke any permit issued pursuant to Section 18427.4.

SEC. 610. Section 18427.8 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

18427.8. Whenever an industrial loan company applies for a permit to issue any security or to deliver any other consideration (whether or not such security or such transaction is exempt from, or not subject to, the provisions of Section 18427.1) in exchange for one or more bona fide outstanding securities (as defined in Section 25019 of the Corporations Code), claims, or property interests, or partly in such exchange and partly for cash, the commissioner is authorized to approve the terms and conditions of such issuance and exchange or such delivery and exchange and the fairness of such terms and conditions and is authorized to hold a hearing on the fairness of such terms and conditions, at which all persons to whom it is proposed to issue any security or to deliver any other consideration in such exchange shall have the right to appear.

SEC. 611. Section 18427.9 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

18427.9. There shall be exempted from the provisions of Section 18427.1 all of the following:

(a) (1) Any offer, not involving a public offering, to an affiliate or to a person of the type described in subdivision (i) of Section 25102 of the Corporations Code or in the regulations of the Commissioner of Corporations adopted thereunder.

(2) The execution and delivery of an agreement for the sale of securities to any person of the type described in paragraph (1), subject to all of the following:

(A) The agreement shall contain substantially the following provision:

"The sale of the securities which are the subject of this agreement has not been authorized by a permit issued by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of the State of California. The issuance of the securities or the payment or receipt of any part of the consideration therefor prior to the issuance of a permit is unlawful, unless the sale of securities is exempt from Section 18427.1 of the California Financial Code. The rights of all parties to this agreement are expressly conditioned upon the issuance of a permit, unless the sale is so exempt."

(B) No part of the purchase price may be paid or received, and none of the securities may be issued, until a permit authorizing the sale of the securities is issued, unless the sale is exempt from Section 18427.1.

(b) Any transaction or security which the commissioner by regulation or order exempts as not being comprehended within the purposes of this article and the regulation of which he or she finds is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

SEC. 612. Section 18427.10 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

18427.10. Nothing contained in this article shall affect the Corporate Securities Law of 1968, Division 1 (commencing with Section 25000) of Title 4 of the Corporations Code.

SEC. 613. Section 18427.11 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

18427.11. The commissioner may by regulation or order restrict, limit, prohibit or otherwise condition the uses of the proceeds from the sale of securities, the extent to which a security may be included within the definition of capital, or the extent to which the proceeds from the sale of securities may be included in the investment certificate ratio as defined by Section 18016, or used to increase outstanding investment certificates.

SEC. 614. Section 18510 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18510. The Board of Directors of Guaranty Corporation shall be composed of five members, at least two of which shall be public members. The five members shall be appointed by the commissioner. The commissioner shall consult with the President of Thrift Guaranty Corporation before making an appointment. Public members shall not be affiliated with any company or affiliate of any company or employed by any state agency. A public member shall not be a relative of any officer or director of any company or its affiliates.

SEC. 615. Section 18654 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18654. The commissioner is authorized to adopt rules to implement this chapter similar to regulations adopted under similar provisions of law contained in Chapter 21.5 (commencing with Section 3750) of Division 1, and for the same or similar reasons. The authority granted to the commissioner by this section is in addition to the authority granted to the commissioner under Section 18347.

SEC. 616. Section 18686 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18686. The minimum age requirement set forth in Section 18685 does not apply in any case in which the factors set forth in subdivision (a) and any of the factors set forth in subdivision (b) apply:

(a) The foreign (other state) industrial loan company, by itself or in concurrent transactions with other depository corporations, as defined in Section 4805.06, acquires the whole business unit of the California industrial loan company or California bank or, if the California industrial loan company or California bank has been closed or placed in conservatorship, all or substantially all of the insured investment certificates or deposits of the California industrial loan company or California bank.

(b) (1) In the case of a California industrial loan company, one of the following:

(A) The commissioner has taken possession of the property and business of the industrial loan company pursuant to Section 18415.

(B) The purchase or merger is one with respect to which the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation provides assistance under Section 13(c) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1823(c)).

(C) The commissioner finds that one or more of the factors listed in Section 18415 exists and that imposing the minimum age requirement of Section 18685 is not in the public interest.

(2) In the case of a California state bank one of the following:

(A) The commissioner has taken possession of the property and business of the bank pursuant to Section 3100.

(B) The purchase or merger is one with respect to which the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation provides assistance under Section 13(c) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1823(c)).

(C) The commissioner finds that one or more of the factors listed in Section 3100 exists and that imposing the minimum age requirement of Section 3825 is not in the public interest.

(3) In the case of a California national bank, one of the following:

(A) The California bank is in default or in danger of default as defined in Section 3(x) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1813(x)).

(B) The purchase or merger is one with respect to which the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation provides assistance under Section 13(c) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1823(c)).

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until September 29, 1997, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 616.1. Section 18686 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

18686. The minimum age requirement set forth in Section 18685 does not apply in any case in which the factors set forth in subdivision (a) and any of the factors set forth in subdivision (b) apply:

(a) The foreign (other state) industrial loan company, by itself or in concurrent transactions with other depository corporations, as defined in Section 4805.06, acquires the whole business unit of the California industrial loan company or California bank or, if the California industrial loan company or California bank has been closed or placed in conservatorship, all or substantially all of the insured investment certificates or deposits of the California industrial loan company or California bank.

(b) (1) In the case of a California industrial loan company, one of the following:

(A) The commissioner has taken possession of the property and business of the industrial loan company pursuant to Section 18415.

(B) The purchase or merger is one with respect to which the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation provides assistance under Section 13(c) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1823(c)).

(C) The commissioner finds that one or more of the factors listed in Section 18415 exists and that imposing the minimum age requirement of Section 18685 is not in the public interest.

(2) In the case of a California state bank, one of the following:

(A) The commissioner has taken possession of the property and business of the bank pursuant to Section 3100.

(B) The purchase or merger is one with respect to which the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation provides assistance under Section 13(c) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1823(c)).

(C) The commissioner finds that one or more of the factors listed in Section 3100 exists and that imposing the minimum age requirement of Section 3825 is not in the public interest.

(3) In the case of a California national bank, one of the following:

(A) The bank is in default or in danger of default as defined in Section 3(x) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1813(x)).

(B) The purchase or merger is one with respect to which the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation provides assistance under Section 13(c) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1823(c)).

(c) This section shall remain in effect only until September 29, 1997, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 617. Section 22304 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

22304. As an alternative to the charges authorized by Section 22303, a licensee may contract for and receive charges at the greater of the following:

(a) A rate not exceeding 1.6 percent per month on the unpaid principal balance.

(b) A rate not exceeding five-sixths of 1 percent per month plus a percentage per month equal to one-twelfth of the annual rate prevailing on the 25th day of the second month of the quarter preceding the quarter in which the loan is made, as established by the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco, on advances to member banks under Sections 13 and 13a of the Federal Reserve Act, as now in effect or hereafter from time to time amended, or if there is no such single determinable rate for advances, the closest counterpart of this rate as shall be determined by the Commissioner of Financial Insititutions of the State of California. Charges shall be calculated on the unpaid principal balance.

This section does not apply to any loan of a bona fide principal amount of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) or more as determined in accordance with Section 22251.

SEC. 618. Section 28000 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

28000. (a) Pursuant to the authority contained in Section 1 of Article XV of the State Constitution, and subject to subdivision (b), educational institutions of collegiate grade are authorized to make loans or forbearances to finance student educational expenses including tuition, room, and board, and other costs of attendance or living at the institution, at rates not to exceed the higher of:

(1) Ten percent per annum.

(2) Five percent per annum plus the rate established by the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco on advances to member banks under Sections 13 and 13(a) of the Federal Reserve Act as now in effect or hereafter from time to time amended or, if there is no such single determinable rate of advances, the closest counterpart of this rate as shall be designated by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of the State of California unless some other person or agency is delegated such authority by the Legislature. The date of determining the applicable rate established by the Federal Reserve bank shall be the 25th day of the month preceding the earlier of the date of execution of the contract to make the loan or forbearance, or the date of making the loan or forbearance.

(b) Where the institution has obtained a loan specifically in order to make loans to finance student educational expenses, the rate of interest shall not exceed the lower of:

(1) The rate determined pursuant to subdivision (a).

(2) One percentage point in excess of the interest rate imposed upon the loan made to the institution, as of the date of execution of the contract to make the student loan to such extent the foregoing creates and authorizes a class of exempt persons pursuant to Section 1 of Article XV of the Constitution.

(c) Solely with respect to loans or forbearances made by educational institutions of collegiate grade to their faculty or staff, secured by real property consisting of a residential dwelling, these institutions are hereby declared to be an exempt class of persons as this term is used in Section 1 of Article XV of the Constitution.

SEC. 622. Section 30005 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

30005. This division does not apply to:

(a) A securities depository which is operated by a corporation, all of the capital stock (other than directors' qualifying shares, if any) of which is held by or for a national securities exchange or association registered under a statute of the United States such as the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or by a corporation all of the capital stock (other than directors' qualifying shares, if any) of which is held by or for such a wholly owned subsidiary of a registered national securities exchange.

(b) A securities depository which is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to any provision of federal law or which is regulated by the Comptroller of the Currency, the Federal Reserve Board, or the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation pursuant to any provision of federal law, or which is regulated by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions under Division 1 (commencing with Section 99) of the Financial Code.

SEC. 623. Section 31002 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31002. No provision of this division imposing any liability applies to any act committed in good faith in conformity with any regulation, order, or written interpretive opinion of the commissioner or any such opinion of the Attorney General, notwithstanding that such regulation, order, or written interpretive opinion may later be amended, rescinded, or repealed or be determined by judicial or other authority to be invalid for any reason.

SEC. 624. Section 31021 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31021. (a) The purposes of this division are:

(1) To provide for the licensing and regulation of business and industrial development corporations which will provide financing assistance and management assistance primarily to business firms in this state.

(2) To provide for the licensing and regulation of business and industrial development corporations so that such corporations will constitute state development companies for purposes of Sections 501 and 502 of the Small Business Investment Act of 1958 and eligible lending institutions for purposes of Section 7(a) of the Small Business Act.

(3) To provide for the safe and sound conduct of the business of licensees.

(4) To maintain the confidence of the Small Business Administration and other governmental agencies in licensees.

(b) The purposes of this division, as set forth in subdivision (a), constitute standards which the commissioner shall observe in administering the provisions of this division.

SEC. 625. Section 31047 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31047. "Order" means any approval, consent, authorization, exemption, denial, prohibition, or requirement applicable to a specific case issued by the commissioner. "Order" includes any condition of a license and any agreement made by any person with the commissioner under this division.

SEC. 626. Section 31052 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31052. "Regulation" means any published regulation, rule, or standard of general application issued by the commissioner.

SEC. 627. Section 31055 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31055. "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Financial Institutions or any person to whom the Commissioner of Financial Institutions delegates the authority to act for him or her in the particular matter.

SEC. 628. Section 31100 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31100. The commissioner shall administer the provisions of this division.

SEC. 629. Section 31101 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31101. (a) The commissioner may from time to time issue such regulations and orders as are in his or her opinion necessary to carry out the provisions and purposes of this division.

(b) Regulations and orders issued under this division may, among other things, define any term used in this division, including (but not limited to) the term "unsafe or unsound act", as well as any term not used in this division.

(c) For purposes of regulations and orders issued under this division, the commissioner may classify persons, transactions, and other matters within his or her jurisdiction, and may prescribe different regulations or orders for different classes.

(d) The commissioner may waive any provision of any regulation or order issued under this division in any case where in his or her opinion such provision is not necessary in the public interest.

SEC. 630. Section 31102 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31102. Whenever the commissioner issues an order or license under this division, he or she may impose such conditions as are in his or her opinion necessary to carry out the provisions and purposes of this division.

SEC. 631. Section 31103 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31103. Every final order, decision, license, or other official act of the commissioner under this division is subject to judicial review in accordance with law.

SEC. 632. Section 31105 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31105. No provision of this division shall be construed to require by implication that the commissioner hold a hearing on any matter.

SEC. 633. Section 31106 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31106. No provision of this division shall be construed to require by implication that the commissioner make written findings on any matter.

SEC. 634. Section 31107 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31107. Any application filed with the commissioner under this division or under any regulation or order issued under this division shall be in such form, shall contain such information, shall be signed in such manner, and shall (if the commissioner so requires by regulation or order) be verified in such manner, as the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

SEC. 635. Section 31108 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31108. In determining whether to approve any application filed under this division or under any regulation or order issued under this division, the commissioner may consider proposals made by the applicant, including (but not limited to) proposals to appoint officers, sell securities, or obtain financing; and, if in the opinion of the commissioner it is probable that such applicant will be able to implement any such proposal, the commissioner may make findings on the basis of such proposal; provided, however, that, whenever the commissioner approves an application on the basis, in whole or in part, of a proposal made by the applicant, the commissioner shall impose upon such approval appropriate conditions requiring that such applicant implement such proposal within such period of time as the commissioner may specify.

SEC. 636. Section 31109 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31109. The commissioner may honor applications from interested persons for interpretive opinions regarding any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division.

SEC. 637. Section 31110 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31110. (a) The commissioner may (1) make such public or private investigations within or outside this state as he or she deems necessary to determine whether to approve any application filed with him or her under this division or under any regulation or order issued under this division, to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division, to aid in the enforcement of any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division, or to aid in the issuing of regulations or orders under this division, and (2) publish information concerning any violation of any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division.

(b) For purposes of any investigation, examination, or other proceeding under this division, the commissioner may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records which the commissioner deems relevant or material to the inquiry.

(c) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to, any person, the superior court, upon application by the commissioner, may issue to such person an order requiring him to appear before the commissioner, there to produce documentary evidence, if so ordered, or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt.

SEC. 638. Section 31110.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31110.5. The commissioner may provide information relating to a licensee to the Small Business Administration or to any governmental agency which licenses or regulates the licensee or any parent or subsidiary of the licensee.

SEC. 639. Section 31111 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31111. Notwithstanding the fact that the commissioner permits any licensee, any affiliate of such licensee, or any governmental agency to inspect or make copies of any record relating to such licensee or to any director, officer, employee, or affiliate of such licensee or that the commissioner provides any such record, or a copy thereof, to any such person, any provision of Section 6254 or 6255 of the Government Code which would, but for such fact, apply to such record, shall continue to apply to such record.

SEC. 640. Section 31112 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31112. The commissioner may refer such evidence as is available concerning any violation of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division which constitutes a crime to the district attorney of the county in which such violation occurred, who may, with or without such a reference, institute appropriate criminal proceedings.

SEC. 641. Section 31113 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31113. Before any applicant for a license is issued a license, such applicant and each parent and subsidiary of such applicant shall file, and each person who becomes a parent or subsidiary of a licensee shall, not less than 30 days after becoming a parent or subsidiary of such licensee, file, with the commissioner, in such form as the commissioner may by regulation or order require, an irrevocable consent appointing the commissioner and his or her successor from time to time in office to be such person's attorney to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal judicial or administrative proceeding against such person, or his or her successor, executor, or administrator, which arises under this division or under any regulation or order issued under this division after such consent has been filed, with the same force and validity as if served personally on such person. Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process at any office of the commissioner, but such service is not effective unless (a) the party making such service, who may be the commissioner, forthwith sends notice of such service and a copy of the process by registered or certified mail to the party served at his or her last address on file with the commissioner, and (b) an affidavit of compliance with this section by the party making service is filed in the case on or before the return date, if any, or within such further time as the court, in the case of a judicial proceeding, or the administrative agency, in the case of an administrative proceeding, allows.

SEC. 642. Section 31114 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31114. Whenever any person, including any nonresident of this state, engages in conduct prohibited or made actionable by this division or by any regulation or order issued under this division, whether or not the person has filed a consent to service of process under Section 31113, and if personal jurisdiction over the person cannot otherwise be obtained in this state, that conduct shall be considered equivalent to the person's appointment of the commissioner and the commissioner's successor from time to time in office to be the person's attorney to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal judicial or administrative proceeding against him or her, or his or her successor, executor, or administrator, which grows out of that conduct and which is brought under this division or under any regulation or order issued under this division, with the same force and validity as if served on him or her personally. Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process in any office of the commissioner, but the service is not effective unless (a) the party making the service, who may be the commissioner, forthwith sends notice of the service and a copy of the process by registered or certified mail to the party served at his or her last known address or takes other steps which are reasonably calculated to give actual notice, and (b) an affidavit of compliance with this section by the party making service is filed in the case on or before the return date, if any, or within such further time as the court, in the case of a judicial proceeding, or the administrative agency, in the case of an administrative proceeding, allows.

SEC. 643. Section 31115 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31115. (a) Fees shall be paid to, and collected by, the commissioner, as follows:

(1) The fee for filing with the commissioner an application for a license shall be two thousand dollars ($2,000).

(2) The fee for filing with the commissioner an application for approval to acquire control of a licensee shall be one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(3) The fee for filing with the commissioner an application for approval for a licensee to merge with another corporation; an application for approval for a licensee to purchase all or substantially all of the business of another person, or an application for approval for a licensee to sell all or substantially all of its business or of the business of any of its offices to another licensee, shall be one thousand dollars ($1,000); provided, however, that whenever two or more such applications relating to the same merger, purchase, or sale are filed with the commissioner, the fee for filing each application shall be the quotient determined by dividing one thousand dollars ($1,000) by the number of the applications.

(4) The fee for filing with the commissioner an application for approval to relocate the head office of a licensee shall be one hundred dollars ($100).

(5) The fee for issuing a license shall be twenty-five dollars ($25).

(6) Each person which is licensed under this division on June 1 of any year shall pay, on or before the following July 1, a fee of two thousand dollars ($2,000).

(7) Whenever the commissioner examines any licensee or any affiliate of a licensee, such licensee shall pay, within 10 days after receipt of a statement from the commissioner, a fee of two hundred dollars ($200) per day for each examiner engaged in such examination plus, in case it is necessary for any examiner engaged in such examination to travel outside this state, the travel expenses of such examiner.

(b) (1) Each fee for filing an application with the commissioner shall be paid at the time when such application is filed with the commissioner.

(2) No fee for filing an application with the commissioner shall be refundable, regardless of whether such application is approved, denied, withdrawn, or abandoned.

SEC. 644. Section 31150 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31150. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), no person transacting business in this state, other than a licensee, shall use any name or title which indicates that it is a business and industrial development corporation or otherwise represent that it is a business and industrial development corporation or that it is a licensee.

(b) Any California corporation which proposes to apply for a license or which has applied for a license, may, before being issued a license, use a name or title which indicates that it is a business and industrial development corporation if it meets all of the following requirements:

(1) The corporation shall append to the name the designation "proposed," "in organization," or "in formation," or any similar designation which the commissioner may approve. The designation shall be set forth at least as conspicuously as the name or title.

(2) The corporation may perform only such acts as may be necessary (A) to apply for and obtain such license and (B) otherwise to prepare to commence transacting business as a licensee.

(3) The corporation shall not represent that it is a licensee.

SEC. 645. Section 31152 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31152. If the commissioner finds all of the following with respect to an application for a license, the commissioner shall approve the application:

(a) That the applicant has net worth in an amount which is not less than one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000) and which is adequate for the applicant to transact business as a business and industrial development corporation.

(b) That the applicant has lendable funds in an amount which is not less than one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000) and which is adequate for the applicant to transact business as a business and industrial development corporation.

(c) That the applicant has, in addition to the requirements of subdivision (b), financial resources in an amount which is adequate for the applicant to pay its expenses in transacting business as a business and industrial development corporation for a period of not less than three years.

(d) That the directors, officers, and controlling persons of the applicant are each of good character and sound financial standing, that the directors and officers of the applicant are each competent to perform their functions with respect to the applicant, and that the directors and officers of the applicant are collectively adequate to manage the business of the applicant as a business and industrial development corporation. For purposes of this subdivision, the commissioner shall accord weight to the prior or current successful operation of a commercial enterprise.

(e) That it is reasonable to believe that the applicant, if licensed, will comply with all applicable provisions of this division and of any regulation or order issued under this division.

(f) That the applicant has reasonable promise of successful operation as a business and industrial development corporation.

(g) That the licensing of the applicant will promote the public convenience and advantage.

If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds otherwise, he or she shall deny the application.

SEC. 646. Section 31152.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31152.5. (a) For purposes of Section 31152, the commissioner may find:

(1) That a director, officer, or controlling person of an applicant is not of good character if the director, officer, or controlling person or any director or officer of the controlling person has been convicted of, or has pleaded nolo contendere to, a crime involving fraud or dishonesty.

(2) That it is not reasonable to believe that an applicant, if licensed, will comply with all applicable provisions of this division and of any regulation or order issued under this division if the applicant has been convicted of, or has pleaded nolo contendere to, a crime involving fraud or dishonesty.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not be deemed to be the only grounds upon which the commissioner may find, for purposes of Section 31152, that a director, officer, or controlling person of an applicant is not of good character or that it is not reasonable to believe that an applicant, if licensed, will comply with all applicable provisions of this division and of any regulation or order issued under this division.

SEC. 647. Section 31153 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31153. Before any applicant for a license is issued a license, each person which is a parent or subsidiary of such applicant shall file, and each person who becomes a parent or subsidiary of a licensee shall, not less than 30 days after becoming a parent or subsidiary of such licensee, file, with the commissioner, in such form as the commissioner may by regulation or order require, an agreement that such person shall comply with all applicable provisions of this division and of any regulation or order issued under this division.

SEC. 648. Section 31154 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31154. Whenever any application for a license has been approved and all conditions precedent to the issuance of such license have been fulfilled, the commissioner shall issue a license to the applicant.

SEC. 649. Section 31157 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31157. No licensee shall represent that it is sponsored, recommended, or approved by, or that its abilities or qualifications have in any respect been passed upon by, the commissioner. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit a licensee from stating that it is licensed if the effect of such license is not misrepresented.

SEC. 650. Section 31201 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31201. No licensee shall, except with the prior approval of the commissioner, transact business under any name other than its corporate name.

SEC. 651. Section 31220 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31220. Notwithstanding any other law of this state, but subject to the provisions of Section 31550:

(a) Any commercial bank or trust company organized under the laws of this state may, with the prior approval of the commissioner, acquire and hold securities issued by a licensee; provided, however, that the aggregate amount of securities issued by licensees which are held by such commercial bank or trust company shall not at any time exceed $2^1/_2$ percent of the shareholders' equity of such commercial bank or trust company. This subdivision shall not apply to any loan or other extension of credit made by a commercial bank organized under the laws of this state to a licensee in accordance with the Banking Law (Division 1 (commencing with Section 99)).

(b) Any savings association organized under the laws of this state may, with the prior approval of the commissioner, acquire and hold securities issued by a licensee; provided, however, that the aggregate amount of securities issued by licensees which are held by such savings association shall not at any time exceed $^1/_2$ percent of the total outstanding loans of such savings association.

(c) Any insurance company admitted to transact insurance business in this state may, with the approval of the Insurance Commissioner, acquire and hold securities issued by a licensee; provided, however, that the aggregate amount of securities issued by licensees which are held by such insurance company shall not at any time exceed $2^1/_2$ percent of the unassigned surplus of such insurance company.

(d) Any public utility licensed or regulated by the Public Utilities Commission may, with the approval of the Public Utilities Commission, acquire and hold securities issued by a licensee; provided, however, that the aggregate amount of securities issued by licensees which are held by such public utility company shall not at any time exceed $^1/_2$ percent of the total assets of such public utility company.

(e) Any industrial loan company organized under the laws of this state may, with the prior approval of the commissioner, acquire and hold securities issued by a licensee; provided, however, that the aggregate amount of securities issued by licensees which are held by such industrial loan companies shall not at any time exceed 5 percent of the net outstanding loans and obligations of such companies.

SEC. 652. Section 31231 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31231. No licensee shall, except with the prior approval of the commissioner, make, or obligate itself to make, any distribution to its shareholders.

SEC. 653. Section 31232 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31232. If the commissioner finds, with respect to an application for approval for a licensee to make, or to obligate itself to make, a distribution to its shareholders:

(a) That for the applicant to make, or to obligate itself to make, the distribution will not endanger the applicant's ability to provide financing assistance and management assistance to business firms in this state; and

(b) That for the applicant to make, or to obligate itself to make, the distribution will not be unsafe or unsound; the commissioner shall approve the application. If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds otherwise, he or she shall deny the application.

SEC. 654. Section 31233 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31233. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 31232, unless an application for approval for a licensee to make, or to obligate itself to make, a distribution to its shareholders is approved, denied, withdrawn, or abandoned within a period of 45 days after such application is filed with the commissioner or, if the applicant consents to an extension of the period, within such extended period, such application shall be deemed to be approved by the commissioner as of the first day after such period of 45 days or such extended period, as the case may be.

For purposes of this section, an application for approval for a licensee to make, or to obligate itself to make, a distribution to its shareholders shall be deemed to be filed with the commissioner when such application, containing all the information required by the commissioner and otherwise complying with Section 31107, is received by the commissioner.

SEC. 655. Section 31302 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31302. Each office of a licensee shall be located in a place which is reasonably accessible to the public and shall, unless the commissioner approves otherwise, be open for the transaction of business during normal business hours on each business day.

SEC. 656. Section 31320 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31320. (a) No licensee shall relocate its head office without the prior approval of the commissioner.

(b) No licensee shall establish, relocate, or close any office (other than its head office) unless it files a report on the action with the commissioner not less than 30 days (or such shorter period as the commissioner may approve) before taking the action.

SEC. 657. Section 31322 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31322. If the commissioner finds, with respect to an application by a licensee for approval to relocate its head office:

(a) That the office at its proposed location will be reasonably accessible to the public;

(b) That it is reasonable to believe that the applicant will operate the office at its proposed location in compliance with all applicable provisions of this division and of any regulation or order issued under this division;

(c) That it will not be unsafe or unsound for the applicant to relocate the office; and

(d) That the relocation of the office will not be detrimental to the public convenience and advantage, or, if the relocation of the office would be detrimental to the public convenience and advantage, that the relocation of the office is necessary in the interests of the safety and soundness of the applicant; the commissioner shall approve the application. If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application.

SEC. 658. Section 31406 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31406. No licensee shall, either by itself or in concert with any of its directors, officers, principal shareholders, or affiliates, any other licensee, or any of the directors, officers, principal shareholders, or affiliates of any other licensee, acquire or hold control of any business firm, except as follows:

(a) Any licensee which has provided financing assistance to a business firm may, if and to the extent necessary to protect its interests as a creditor of, or investor in, such business firm, acquire and hold control of such business firm; provided, however, that such licensee shall divest itself of such control as soon as practicable and in any event within three years after acquiring such control or such longer period as the commissioner may approve.

(b) Any licensee may, with the prior approval of the commissioner, acquire and hold control of a corporation which is licensed as a small business investment company under the Small Business Investment Act of 1958.

(c) Any licensee may, with the prior approval of the commissioner, acquire and hold control of a corporation which is licensed as a personal property broker under Division 9 (commencing with Section 22000).

(d) Any licensee may, with the prior approval of the commissioner, acquire and hold control of a corporation which transacts business as a local development company in accordance with all applicable provisions of the Small Business Investment Act of 1958 and of the regulations of the Small Business Administration.

SEC. 659. Section 31408 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31408. No licensee shall, except with the prior approval of the commissioner, guarantee the debt of any other person or otherwise lend its credit to any other person; provided, however, that, whenever a licensee sells to another person an obligation to pay money, which obligation is owned by such licensee, such licensee may guarantee the payment of such obligation.

SEC. 660. Section 31409 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31409. No licensee shall, except with the prior approval of the commissioner, provide a lien or security interest in any of its property for the purpose of securing an obligation of, or an obligation incurred for the benefit of, any other person.

SEC. 661. Section 31501 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31501. Each licensee shall make and keep such books, accounts, and other records in such form and in such manner as the commissioner may by regulation or order require. All records so required shall be kept at such place and shall be preserved for such time as the commissioner may by regulation or order specify.

SEC. 662. Section 31502 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31502. No licensee shall, except with the prior approval of the commissioner, enter or carry on its books or records any asset at a valuation exceeding the actual cost of such asset to such licensee.

SEC. 663. Section 31503 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31503. The commissioner may by order require a licensee to write down any asset on its books and records to a valuation which represents its then value.

SEC. 664. Section 31504 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31504. Each licensee shall, not more than 90 days after the close of each of its fiscal years or within such longer period as the commissioner may by regulation or order specify, file with the commissioner an audit report containing:

(a) Financial statements (including balance sheet, statement of income or loss, statement of changes in capital accounts, and statement of changes in financial position or, in the case of a licensee which is a California nonprofit corporation, comparable financial statements) for or as of the end of such fiscal year, prepared with audit by an independent certified public accountant or an independent public accountant in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles;

(b) Report, certificate, or opinion of such independent certified public accountant or independent public account, stating that such financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles; and

(c) Such other information as the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

SEC. 665. Section 31506 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31506. Each licensee, each director, officer, and employee of a licensee, and each parent and subsidiary of a licensee shall file with the commissioner such reports as and when the commissioner may by regulation or order require. In addition, each affiliate of a licensee (other than a parent or subsidiary of the licensee) shall file with the commissioner such reports regarding transactions between the affiliate and the licensee as and when the commissioner may require. Each report shall be in such form, shall contain such information, shall be signed in such manner, and shall (if the commissioner so requires by regulation or order) be verified in such manner, as the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

SEC. 666. Section 31507 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31507. (a) The commissioner shall examine each licensee not less frequently than once each calendar year.

(b) (1) The commissioner may at any time examine any licensee or any parent or subsidiary of a licensee.

(2) The commissioner may at any time examine any affiliate of a licensee (other than a parent or subsidiary of the licensee) but only with respect to matters relating to transactions between the affiliate and the licensee.

(c) The directors, officers, and employees of any licensee or of any affiliate of a licensee being examined by the commissioner and any other person having custody of any of the books, accounts, or records of such licensee or of such affiliate shall exhibit to the commissioner, on request, any or all of the books, accounts, and other records of such licensee or of such affiliate and shall otherwise facilitate such examination so far as it may be in their power to do so. However, in the case of an examination of an affiliate of a licensee other than a parent or subsidiary of the licensee, only books, accounts, and records of the affiliate which relate to transactions between the affiliate and the licensee shall be subject to this subdivision.

(d) The commissioner may, if in his or her opinion it is necessary in the examination of any licensee or of any affiliate of a licensee, retain any certified public accountant, attorney, appraiser, or other person to assist him or her, and such licensee shall pay, within 10 days after receipt of a statement from the commissioner, the fees of such person.

SEC. 667. Section 31508 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31508. (a) No licensee shall, except with the prior approval of the commissioner, cause or permit any other person to make or keep any of its books, accounts, or other records.

(b) In case any person other than a licensee makes or keeps any of the books, accounts, or other records of such licensee, the provisions of this division and of any regulation or order issued under this division shall apply to such person with respect to the performance of such services and with respect to such books, accounts, and other records to the same extent as if such person were such licensee.

(c) In case any person other than an affiliate of a licensee makes or keeps any of the books, accounts, or other records of such affiliate or, in the case of an affiliate other than a parent or subsidiary of the licensee, the books, accounts, and other records of the affiliate that relate to transactions between the affiliate and the licensee, the provisions of this division and of any regulation or order issued under this division shall apply to such person with respect to such books, accounts, and other records to the same extent as if such person were such affiliate.

SEC. 668. Section 31509 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31509. The commissioner may publish any report filed with him or her under this division or under any regulation or order issued under this division.

SEC. 669. Section 31550 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31550. No person shall, except with the prior approval of the commissioner, acquire control of a licensee.

SEC. 670. Section 31551 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31551. If the commissioner finds, with respect to an application for approval to acquire control of a licensee:

(a) That the applicant and the directors and officers of the applicant are of good character and sound financial standing;

(b) That it is reasonable to believe that, if the applicant acquires control of the licensee, the applicant will comply with all applicable provisions of this division and of any regulation or order issued under this division; and

(c) That the applicant's plans, if any, to make any major change in the business, corporate structure, or management of the licensee are not detrimental to the safety and soundness of the licensee or to the public convenience and advantage;

The commissioner shall approve the application. If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds otherwise, he or she shall deny the application.

SEC. 671. Section 31551.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31551.5. (a) For purposes of Section 31551, the commissioner may find:

(1) That an applicant or a director or officer of an applicant is not of good character if such person has been convicted of, or has pleaded nolo contendere to, a crime involving fraud or dishonesty.

(2) That an applicant's plan to make a major change in the management of a licensee is detrimental to the safety and soundness of the licensee and to the public convenience and advantage if the plan provides for a person who has been convicted of, or has pleaded nolo contendere to, a crime involving fraud or dishonesty to become a director or officer of the licensee.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not be deemed to be the only grounds upon which the commissioner may find, for purposes of Section 31551, that an applicant or a director or officer of an applicant is not of good character or that an applicant's plan to make a major change in the management of a licensee is detrimental to the safety and soundness of a licensee or to the public convenience and advantage.

SEC. 672. Section 31552 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31552. The commissioner may, by such regulations or orders as he or she deems necessary and appropriate, either unconditionally or upon specified terms and conditions or for specified periods, exempt from the provisions of this chapter any person or transaction or class of persons or transactions, if he or she finds such action to be in the public interest and that the regulation of such persons or transactions is not necessary for the purposes of this division.

SEC. 673. Section 31601 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31601. No licensee shall merge with any other corporation unless:

(a) In case such licensee is the surviving corporation, such merger shall have first been approved by the commissioner;

(b) In case such licensee is a disappearing corporation, the surviving corporation is a licensee and such merger shall have first been approved by the commissioner.

SEC. 674. Section 31602 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31602. No licensee shall purchase all or substantially all of the business of any other person unless such purchase shall have first been approved by the commissioner.

SEC. 675. Section 31603 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31603. No licensee shall sell all or substantially all of its business to any other person unless such other person is a licensee and such sale shall have first been approved by the commissioner.

SEC. 676. Section 31604 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31604. If the commissioner finds, with respect to an application for approval of a merger, purchase, or sale:

(a) That the merger, purchase, or sale will be safe and sound with respect to the acquiring licensee;

(b) That it is reasonable to believe that, upon consummation of the merger, purchase, or sale, the acquiring licensee will comply with all applicable provisions of this division and of any regulation or order issued under this division; and

(c) That the merger, purchase, or sale will not be detrimental to the public convenience and advantage, or, if the merger, purchase, or sale would be detrimental to the public convenience and advantage, that it is necessary in the interests of the safety and soundness of any of the parties to it;

The commissioner shall approve the application. If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds otherwise, he or she shall deny the application.

SEC. 677. Section 31605 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31605. The commissioner may, by such regulations or orders as he or she deems necessary and appropriate, either unconditionally or upon specified terms and conditions or for specified periods, exempt from the provisions of this chapter any person or transaction or class of persons or transactions, if he or she finds such action to be in the public interest and that the regulation of such persons or transactions is not necessary for the purposes of this division.

SEC. 678. Section 31650 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31650. Any licensee may surrender its license by filing with the commissioner such license and a report which shall be in such form, shall contain such information, shall be signed in such manner, and shall (if the commissioner so requires by regulation or order) be verified in such manner, as the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

SEC. 679. Section 31651 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31651. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), a voluntary surrender of a license shall be effective on the 30th day after such license and the report called for in Section 31650 are filed with the commissioner or on such earlier date as the commissioner may by order specify.

(b) If a proceeding to revoke or suspend a license is pending at the time when such license and the report called for in Section 31650 are filed with the commissioner or if a proceeding to revoke or suspend a license or to impose conditions upon the surrender of a license is instituted before the 30th day after such license and the report called for in Section 31650 are filed with the commissioner, the voluntary surrender of such license shall become effective at such time and upon such conditions as the commissioner may by order specify.

SEC. 680. Section 31701 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31701. Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has violated, or that there is reasonable cause to believe that any person is about to violate, any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division, the commissioner may bring an action in the name of the people of this state in the superior court to enjoin such violation or to enforce compliance with this division or with any regulation or order issued under this division. Upon a proper showing, a restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction, or writ of mandate shall be granted, and a receiver or a conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets. The court may not require the commissioner to post a bond.

SEC. 681. Section 31702 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31702. (a) If the commissioner finds that any person has violated, or that there is reasonable cause to believe that any person is about to violate, Section 31150, the commissioner may order the person to cease and desist from such violation unless and until the person is issued a license.

(b) (1) Within 30 days after an order is issued pursuant to subdivision (a), the person to whom the order is directed may file with the commissioner an application for a hearing on the order. If the commissioner fails to commence a hearing within 15 business days after such application is filed with him (or within such longer period to which the person consents), the order shall be deemed rescinded. Upon such hearing, the commissioner shall affirm, modify, or rescind the order.

(2) The right of any person to whom an order is issued under subdivision (a) to petition for judicial review of the order shall not be affected by the failure of the person to apply to the commissioner for a hearing on the order pursuant to paragraph (1).

SEC. 682. Section 31703 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31703. If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds:

(a) That any licensee or any subject person of a licensee has violated, is violating, or that there is reasonable cause to believe that any licensee or any subject person of a licensee is about to violate, any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division or any provision of any other applicable law; or

(b) That any licensee or any subject person of a licensee has engaged or participated, is engaging or participating, or that there is reasonable cause to believe that any licensee or any subject person of a licensee is about to engage or participate, in any unsafe or unsound act with respect to the business of such licensee;

the commissioner may order such licensee or such subject person to cease and desist from such action or violation. Such order may require such licensee or such subject person to take affirmative action to correct any condition resulting from such action or violation.

SEC. 683. Section 31704 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31704. (a) If the commissioner finds:

(1) That any of the factors set forth in Section 31703 is true with respect to any licensee or any subject person of a licensee; and

(2) That such action or violation is likely to cause the insolvency of, or substantial dissipation of the assets or earnings of, the licensee, or is likely to seriously weaken the condition of the licensee or otherwise to seriously prejudice the interests of the licensee, prior to the completion of proceedings conducted pursuant to Section 31703;

the commissioner may order the licensee or the subject person to cease and desist from such action or violation. The order may require the licensee or the subject person to take affirmative action to correct any condition resulting from such action or violation.

(b) (1) Within 30 days after an order is issued pursuant to subdivision (a), any licensee or subject person of a licensee to whom the order is directed may file with the commissioner an application for a hearing on the order. If the commissioner fails to commence a hearing within 15 business days after the application is filed with him (or within such longer period to which the licensee or subject person consents), the order shall be deemed rescinded. Upon such hearing, the commissioner shall affirm, modify, or rescind the order.

(2) The right of any licensee or subject person of a licensee to whom an order is issued under subdivision (a) to petition for judicial review of the order shall not be affected by the failure of the licensee or subject person to apply to the commissioner for a hearing on the order pursuant to paragraph (1).

SEC. 684. Section 31705 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31705. If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds:

(a) (1) That any subject person of a licensee has violated a provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division or any provision of any other applicable law;

(2) That any subject person of a licensee has engaged or participated in any unsafe or unsound act with respect to the business of such licensee; or

(3) That any subject person of a licensee has engaged or participated in any act which constitutes a breach of his fiduciary duty as a subject person; and

(b) (1) That such act, violation, or breach of fiduciary duty has caused or is likely to cause substantial financial loss or other damage to such licensee; or

(2) That the act, violation, or breach of fiduciary duty has seriously prejudiced or is likely to seriously prejudice the interests of the licensee; or

(3) That the subject person has received financial gain by reason of the act, violation, or breach of fiduciary duty; and

(c) That such act, violation, or breach of fiduciary duty either involves dishonesty on the part of the subject person or demonstrates the subject person's gross negligence with respect to the business of the licensee or a willful disregard for the safety and soundness of the licensee;

the commissioner may issue an order removing the subject person from his or her office, if any, with the licensee and prohibiting him or her from further participating in any manner in the conduct of the business of the licensee.

SEC. 685. Section 31706 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31706. If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds that any subject person of a licensee has, by engaging or participating in any act with respect to any financial or other business institution which resulted in substantial financial loss or other damage, demonstrated:

(a) (1) Dishonesty; or

(2) Willful or continuing disregard for the safety and soundness of such financial institution; and

(b) Unfitness to continue as a subject person of the licensee or participate in the conduct of the business of the licensee;

the commissioner may issue an order removing the subject person from his or her office, if any, with the licensee and prohibiting him or her from further participating in any manner in the conduct of the business of the licensee, except with the prior consent of the commissioner.

SEC. 686. Section 31706.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31706.5. (a) If the commissioner finds:

(1) That the factors set forth in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) of Section 31705 or the factors set forth in subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 31706 are true with respect to any subject person of a licensee; and

(2) That it is necessary for the protection of the interests of the licensee or for the protection of the public interest that the commissioner immediately suspend the subject person from his or her office, if any, with the licensee and prohibit him or her from further participating in any manner in the conduct of the business of the licensee;

the commissioner may issue an order suspending the subject person from his or her office, if any, with the licensee and prohibiting him or her from further participating in any manner in the conduct of the business of the licensee, except with the consent of the commissioner.

(b) (1) Within 30 days after an order is issued pursuant to subdivision (a), any subject person of a licensee to whom the order is directed may file with the commissioner an application for a hearing on the order. If the commissioner fails to begin a hearing within 15 business days after the application is filed (or within such longer period to which the subject person consents), the order shall be deemed rescinded. Upon the hearing, the commissioner shall affirm, modify, or rescind the order.

(2) The right of any subject person of a licensee to whom an order is issued under subdivision (a) to petition for judicial review of the order shall not be affected by the failure of the subject person to apply to the commissioner for a hearing on the order pursuant to paragraph (1).

SEC. 687. Section 31707 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31707. (a) If the commissioner finds:

(1) That any subject person of a licensee has been indicted by a grand jury for, or held to answer by a magistrate for, a crime involving dishonesty or breach of trust; and

(2) That the fact that the person continues to be a subject person of the licensee may threaten the interests of the licensee or may threaten to impair public confidence in the licensee;

the commissioner may issue an order suspending the subject person from his or her office, if any, with the licensee and prohibiting him or her from further participating in any manner in the conduct of the business of the licensee, except with the consent of the commissioner.

(b) If the commissioner finds:

(1) That any subject person or former subject person of a licensee to whom an order was issued pursuant to subdivision (a) or any other subject person of a licensee has been finally convicted of a crime which is punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year and which involves dishonesty or breach of trust; and

(2) That the fact that the person continues to be or will resume to be a subject person of the licensee may threaten the interests of the licensee or may threaten to impair public confidence in the licensee;

the commissioner may issue an order suspending or removing the subject person or former subject person from his or her office, if any, with the licensee and prohibiting him or her from further participating in any manner in the conduct of the business of the licensee, except with the prior consent of the commissioner.

(c) (1) Within 30 days after an order is issued pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b), any subject person of a licensee to whom the order is directed may file with the commissioner an application for a hearing on the order. If the commissioner fails to commence a hearing within 15 business days after the application is filed with him (or within such longer period to which the subject person consents), the order shall be deemed rescinded. Upon such hearing, the commissioner shall affirm, modify, or rescind the order.

(2) The right of any subject person or former subject person of a licensee to whom an order is issued under subdivision (a) or (b) to petition for judicial review of the order shall not be affected by the failure of the person to apply to the commissioner for a hearing on the order pursuant to paragraph (1).

(d) The fact that any subject person of a licensee charged with a crime involving dishonesty or breach of trust is not finally convicted of the crime shall not preclude the commissioner from issuing an order to the subject person pursuant to any other section of this division.

SEC. 688. Section 31708 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31708. Any person to whom an order is issued under Section 31705, 31706, 31706.5, or 31707 may apply to the commissioner to modify or rescind the order. The commissioner shall not grant the application unless the commissioner finds that it is in the public interest to do so and that it is reasonable to believe that the person will, if and when he or she becomes a subject person of a licensee, comply with all applicable provisions of this division and of any regulation or order issued under this division.

SEC. 689. Section 31709 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31709. If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds:

(a) That any licensee or any controlling person or affiliate of a licensee has violated any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division or any provision of any other applicable law;

(b) That any licensee is conducting its business in an unsafe and unsound manner;

(c) That any licensee is in such condition that it is unsafe or unsound for it to transact business;

(d) That any licensee has ceased to transact business as a business and industrial development corporation;

(e) That any licensee is insolvent;

(f) That any licensee has suspended payment of its obligations, has made an assignment for the benefit of its creditors, or has admitted in writing its inability to pay its debts as they become due;

(g) That any licensee has applied for an adjudication of bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, or other relief under any bankruptcy, reorganization, insolvency, or moratorium law, or that any person has applied for any such relief under any such law against any licensee and such licensee has by any affirmative act approved of or consented to such action or such relief has been granted; or

(h) That any fact or condition exists which, if it had existed at the time when any licensee applied for its license, would have been grounds for denying such application;

the commissioner may issue an order suspending or revoking the license of such licensee.

SEC. 690. Section 31710 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31710. (a) If the commissioner finds that any of the factors set forth in Section 31709 is true with respect to any licensee and that it is necessary for the protection of the public interest that he or she immediately suspend or revoke the license of such licensee, the commissioner may issue an order suspending or revoking the license of such licensee.

(b) Within 30 days after an order is issued pursuant to subdivision (a), any licensee to whom such order is directed may file with the commissioner a request for a hearing on such order. If the commissioner fails to commence a hearing within 15 business days after such request is filed with him or her (or within such longer period to which such licensee consents), such order shall be deemed rescinded. Upon such hearing, the commissioner shall affirm, modify, or rescind such order.

SEC. 691. Section 31711 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31711. Any person whose license is suspended or revoked shall immediately deliver such license to the commissioner.

SEC. 692. Section 31712 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31712. Any person to whom an order is issued under Section 31709 or 31710 may apply to the commissioner to modify or rescind such order. The commissioner shall not grant such application unless the commissioner finds that it is in the public interest to do so and that it is reasonable to believe that such person will, if and when it becomes a licensee, comply with all applicable provisions of this division and of any regulation or order issued under this division.

SEC. 693. Section 31713 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31713. (a) If the commissioner finds that any of the factors set forth in Section 31709 is true with respect to any licensee and that it is necessary for the protection of the interests of the licensee or for the protection of the public interest that the commissioner take immediate possession of the property and business of the licensee, the commissioner may forthwith take possession of the property and business of the licensee and retain possession until the licensee resumes business or is finally liquidated. The licensee may, with the consent of the commissioner, resume business upon such conditions as he or she may prescribe.

(b) Whenever the commissioner takes possession of the property and business of a licensee pursuant to subdivision (a), the licensee may apply within 10 days to the superior court in the county in which the head office of the licensee is located to enjoin further proceedings. The court, after citing the commissioner to show cause why further proceedings should not be enjoined and after a hearing, may dismiss the application or enjoin the commissioner from further proceedings and order the commissioner to surrender the property and business of the licensee to the licensee or make such further order as may be just.

(c) An appeal may be taken from the judgment of the superior court by the commissioner or by the licensee in the manner provided by law for appeals from the judgment of a superior court. An appeal from the judgment of the superior court shall operate as a stay of the judgment. No bond need be given if the appeal is taken by the commissioner, but if the appeal is taken by the licensee, a bond shall be given as required by the Code of Civil Procedure.

(d) Whenever the commissioner takes possession of the property and business of a licensee pursuant to subdivision (a), the commissioner shall conserve or liquidate the property and business of the licensee pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 3100), Chapter 17, Division 1, and the provisions of that article (except Sections 3100, 3101, and 3102) shall apply as if the licensee were a bank.

SEC. 694. Section 31800 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31800. It shall be unlawful for any person willfully to make any untrue statement of a material fact in any application or report filed with the commissioner under this division or under any regulation or order issued under this division, or willfully to omit to state in any such application or report any material fact which is required to be stated therein.

SEC. 695. Section 31801 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31801. It shall be unlawful for any person having custody of any of the books, accounts, or other records of a licensee willfully to refuse to allow the commissioner, upon request, to inspect or make copies of any of such books, accounts, or other records.

SEC. 696. Section 31802 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31802. It shall be unlawful for any person, with intent to deceive any director, officer, employee, auditor, or attorney of a licensee, the commissioner, or any governmental agency, to make any false entry in any of the books, accounts, or other records of such licensee, to omit to make any entry in such books, accounts, or other records which such person is required to make, or to alter, conceal, or destroy any of such books, accounts, or other records.

SEC. 697. Section 31821 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31821. (a) The commissioner may, by such regulations or orders as he or she deems necessary and appropriate, either unconditionally or upon specified terms and conditions and for specified periods, exempt from the provisions of this article any person or transaction or class of persons or transactions, if the commissioner finds such action to be in the public interest and that the regulation of such persons or transactions is not necessary for the purposes of this division.

(b) In exempting from the provisions of this article any person or transaction or class of persons or transactions, the commissioner shall give due consideration to any conflict of interest provision of federal law or regulation applicable to such person or transaction governing participants in federal financing programs.

SEC. 698. Section 31900 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31900. If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds that any person has violated any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division, the commissioner may order such person to pay to the commissioner a civil penalty in such amount as the commissioner may specify; provided, however, that the amount of such civil penalty shall not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each violation, or in the case of a continuing violation, one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each day for which such violation continues.

SEC. 699. Section 31901 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

31901. The provisions of Section 31900 are additional to, and not alternative to, other provisions of this division which authorize the commissioner to issue orders or to take other action on account of a violation of any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division; provided, however, that no person who has been finally convicted under Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 31800) of this division on account of a violation of any provision of Chapter 12 shall be liable to pay a civil penalty under Section 31900 on account of such violation, nor shall any person who has paid a civil penalty under Section 31900 on account of a violation of any provision of Chapter 12 be liable to criminal prosecution under Chapter 12 on account of such violation.

SEC. 700. Section 33006 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33006. No provision of this division imposing any liability or sanction applies to any act committed in good faith in conformity with any regulation, order, or written interpretive opinion of the commissioner or any such opinion of the Attorney General, notwithstanding that such regulation, order, or written interpretive opinion may later be amended, rescinded, or repealed or be determined by judicial or other authority to be invalid for any reason.

SEC. 701. Section 33021 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33021. (a) The purposes of this division are:

(1) To protect the interests of purchasers and holders of payment instruments sold in this state.

(2) To provide for the safe and sound conduct of the business of licensees.

(3) To maintain public confidence in licensees.

(b) The purposes of this division, as set forth in subdivision (a), constitute standards which the commissioner shall observe in administering the provisions of this division.

SEC. 701.5. Section 33045.5 is added to the Financial Code, to read:

33045.5. "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Financial Institutions or any person to whom the Commissioner of Financial Institutions delegates the authority to act for the Commissioner of Financial Institutions in this matter.

SEC. 702. Section 33053 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33053. "Insured savings and loan association" or "insured savings association" means any savings association the accounts of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

SEC. 703. Section 33058 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33058. "Order" means any approval, consent, authorization, exemption, denial, prohibition, or requirement applicable to a specific case issued by the commissioner, including any condition thereof. "Order" does not include any license issued by the commissioner but does include any condition of such license and any written agreement made by any person with the commissioner under this division.

SEC. 704. Section 33062 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33062. "Regulation" means any published regulation, rule, or standard of general application issued by the commissioner.

SEC. 705. Section 33063 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 706. Section 33102 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33102. The commissioner may, by regulation or order, either unconditionally or upon specified terms and conditions or for specified periods, exempt from this division any person or transaction or class of persons or transactions, if the commissioner finds such action to be in the public interest and that the regulation of such persons or transactions is not necessary for the purposes of this division.

SEC. 707. Section 33200 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33200. The commissioner shall administer the provisions of this division.

SEC. 708. Section 33201 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33201. Every final order, decision, license, or other official act of the commissioner under this division is subject to judicial review in accordance with law.

SEC. 709. Section 33202 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33202. (a) The commissioner may from time to time issue such regulations and orders as are in his or her opinion necessary to carry out the provisions and purposes of this division.

(b) Regulations and orders issued under this division may, among other things, define any term used in this division, including the term "unsafe or unsound act", as well as any term not used in this division.

(c) For purposes of regulations and orders issued under this division, the commissioner may classify persons, transactions, and other matters within his or her jurisdiction, and may prescribe different regulations or orders for different classes.

(d) The commissioner may waive any provision of any regulation or order issued under this division in any case where in his or her opinion such provision is not necessary in the public interest.

SEC. 710. Section 33203 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33203. Whenever the commissioner issues an order or license under this division, the commissioner may impose such conditions as are in his or her opinion necessary to carry out the provisions and purposes of this division.

SEC. 711. Section 33205 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33205. The commissioner may honor applications from interested persons for interpretive opinions regarding any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division.

SEC. 712. Section 33206 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33206. Notwithstanding that the commissioner permits any licensee, any affiliate of such licensee, or any governmental agency to inspect or make copies of any record relating to such licensee or to any director, officer, employee, affiliate, or agent of such licensee or that the commissioner provides any such record, or a copy thereof, to any such person, any provision of Sections 6254 and 6255 of the Government Code which would, but for such fact, apply to such record, shall continue to apply to such record.

SEC. 713. Section 33207 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33207. (a) The commissioner may (1) make such public or private investigations within or outside this state as the commissioner deems necessary to determine whether to approve any application filed with the commissioner under this division or under any regulation or order issued under this division, to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division, to aid in the enforcement of any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division, or to aid in the issuing of regulations or orders under this division, and (2) publish information concerning any violation of any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division.

(b) For purposes of any investigation, examination, or other proceeding under this division, the commissioner may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any documents which the commissioner deems relevant or material to the inquiry.

(c) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to, any person, the superior court, upon application by the commissioner, may issue to such person an order requiring such person to appear before the commissioner, there to produce documentary evidence, if so ordered, or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt.

SEC. 714. Section 33208 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33208. The commissioner may refer such evidence as is available concerning any violation of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division which constitutes a crime to the district attorney of the county in which such violation occurred, who may, with or without such a reference, institute appropriate criminal proceedings.

SEC. 715. Section 33209 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33209. (a) The several powers granted to the commissioner under this division are in addition to, and not in limitation of, each other. The fact that the commissioner possesses, or has exercised, a power under any provision of this division shall not preclude him or her from exercising a power under any other provision of this division.

(b) The several powers granted to the commissioner under this division are in addition to, and not in limitation of, his powers under other provisions of law. The fact that the commissioner possesses, or has exercised, a power under any other provision of law shall not preclude him or her from exercising any power under this division; nor shall the fact that the commissioner possesses, or has exercised, a power under any provision of this division preclude him or her from exercising a power under any other provision of law.

SEC. 716. Section 33220 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33220. Each application filed with the commissioner under this division or under any regulation or order issued under this division shall be in such form, shall contain such information, shall be signed in such manner, and shall (if the commissioner so requires by regulation or order) be verified in such manner, as the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

SEC. 717. Section 33221 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33221. Each report filed with the commissioner under this division or under any regulation or order issued under this division shall be in such form, shall (subject to any limitations set forth in this division) contain such information, shall be signed in such manner, and shall (if the commissioner so requires by regulation or order) be verified in such manner, as the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

SEC. 718. Section 33222 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33222. No person shall make any untrue statement of any material fact in any application or report filed with the commissioner under this division or under any regulation or order issued under this division, or willfully omit to state in any such application or report any material fact which is required to be stated therein.

SEC. 719. Section 33223 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33223. In determining whether to approve any application filed under this division or under any regulation or order issued under this division, the commissioner may consider proposals made by the applicant, including proposals to appoint officers or to sell securities; and, if in the opinion of the commissioner it is probable that the applicant will be able to implement any such proposal, the commissioner may make findings on the basis of such proposal. However, whenever the commissioner approves an application on the basis, in whole or in part, of a proposal made by the applicant, the commissioner shall impose upon such approval appropriate conditions requiring that the applicant implement such proposal within such period of time as the commissioner may specify.

SEC. 720. Section 33224 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33224. If the commissioner finds, with respect to any application filed under this division or under any regulation or order issued under this division, that not all the information which the commissioner required by regulation or order to be provided in or in connection with such application has been provided, the commissioner may deny the application.

SEC. 721. Section 33240 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33240. In determining for purposes of this division whether the shareholders' equity of any corporation which is an applicant for a license or which is a licensee is adequate, the commissioner shall consider:

(a) The nature and volume of the business and proposed business of the corporation;

(b) The amount, nature, quality, and liquidity of the assets of the corporation;

(c) The amount and nature of the liabilities (including contingent liabilities) of the corporation;

(d) The history of, and prospects for, the corporation to earn and retain income;

(e) The quality of the operations of the corporation;

(f) The quality of the management of the corporation;

(g) The nature and quality of the controlling person of the corporation; and

(h) Such other factors as are in the opinion of the commissioner relevant.

SEC. 722. Section 33261 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33261. Before any corporation is issued a license, such corporation shall file with the commissioner, in such form as the commissioner may by regulation or order require, an appointment irrevocably appointing the commissioner and his or her successor from time to time in office to be such corporation's attorney to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal judicial or administrative proceeding against such corporation, or any of its successors, which arises under this division or under any regulation or order issued under this division after such appointment has been filed, with the same force and validity as if served personally on such corporation or its successor, as the case may be. Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process at any office of the commissioner, but such service is not effective unless (a) the party making such service, who may be the commissioner, forthwith sends notice of such service and a copy of the process by registered or certified mail to the party served at its last address on file with the commissioner, and (b) an affidavit of compliance with this section by the party making service is filed in the case on or before the return date, if any, or within such further time as the court, in the case of a judicial proceeding, or the administrative agency, in the case of an administrative proceeding, allows.

SEC. 723. Section 33262 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33262. Whenever any person, including any nonresident of this state, engages in conduct prohibited or made actionable by this division or by any regulation or order issued under this division, whether or not such person has filed an appointment under Section 33261, and if personal jurisdiction over such person cannot otherwise be obtained in this state, such conduct shall be considered equivalent to the appointment of the commissioner and the commissioner's successor from time to time in office to be such person's attorney to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal judicial or administrative proceeding against such person, or any of such person's successors, executors, or administrators, which grows out of such conduct and which is brought under this division, with the same force and validity as if served personally on such person or on such successor, executor, or administrator, as the case may be. Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process in any office of the commissioner but such service is not effective unless (a) the party making such service, who may be the commissioner, forthwith sends notice of such service and a copy of the process by registered or certified mail to the party served at his or her last known address or takes other steps which are reasonably calculated to give actual notice, and (b) an affidavit of compliance with this section by the party making service is filed in the case on or before the return date, if any, or within such further time as the court, in the case of a judicial proceeding, or the administrative agency, in the case of an administrative proceeding, allows.

SEC. 724. Section 33280 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33280. Before any corporation is issued a license, such corporation shall file with the commissioner, in such form as the commissioner may by regulation or order require, an agreement that such corporation will comply with all applicable provisions of this division and of any regulation or order issued under this division.

SEC. 725. Section 33300 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33300. (a) Each fee for filing an application with the commissioner shall be paid at the time when such application is filed with the commissioner.

(b) No fee for filing an application with the commissioner shall be refundable, regardless of whether such application is approved, denied, withdrawn, or abandoned.

SEC. 726. Section 33301 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33301. Fees shall be paid to, and collected by, the commissioner, as follows:

(a) The fee for filing with the commissioner an application for a license shall be two thousand dollars ($2,000).

(b) The fee for issuing a license shall be twenty-five dollars ($25).

(c) Whenever the commissioner examines any licensee or any California agent of a licensee, such licensee shall pay, within 10 days after receipt of a statement from the commissioner, a fee of two hundred dollars ($200) per day for each examiner engaged in such examination plus, in case it is necessary for any examiner engaged in such examination to travel outside this state, the travel expenses of such examiner.

SEC. 727. Section 33302 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33302. In this section, "licensee" means any licensee, as defined in Section 33055, or any person licensed under Chapter 14A (commencing with Section 1851) of Division 1.

The commissioner shall annually assess and collect from licensees on a pro rata basis an amount which is, in his or her judgment, sufficient to meet his or her expenses in administering the provisions of this division and of Chapter 14A (commencing with Section 1851) of Division 1 and to provide a reasonable reserve for contingencies.

The amount of the annual assessment on any licensee shall not exceed the sum of the products determined by multiplying (a) increments of the aggregate face amount of payment instruments and travelers checks issued by the licensee and sold in this state by the licensee, directly or indirectly through agents, in the calendar year next preceding the date of such assessment, by (b) percentages of the base assessment rate, according to the following table:

Aggregate face amount of payment instruments and traveler's checks sold (in millions)	Percentage of base assessment rate
First $1	100.0
Next $9	25.0
Next $40	12.5
Next $50	6.0
Next $400	3
Next $500	2
Excess over $1,000	1

The base assessment rate shall be fixed from time to time by the commissioner but shall not exceed one dollar ($1) per one thousand dollars ($1,000) face amount of payment instruments and traveler's checks sold.

SEC. 728. Section 33320 of the Financial Code is repealed.

SEC. 729. Section 33403 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33403. If the commissioner finds, with respect to an application for a license:

(a) That the applicant has adequate shareholders' equity to engage in the business of selling payment instruments issued by it and that the financial condition of the applicant is otherwise such that it will be safe and sound for the applicant to engage in the business of selling payment instruments issued by it;

(b) That the applicant, the directors, officers, and controlling persons of the applicant, and the directors and officers of the controlling persons of the applicant are each of good character and sound financial standing;

(c) That the applicant is competent to engage in the business of selling payment instruments issued by it;

(d) That the applicant's plan for engaging in the business of selling payment instruments issued by it affords reasonable promise of successful operation; and

(e) That it is reasonable to believe that the applicant, if licensed, will engage in the business of selling payment instruments issued by it and will comply with all applicable provisions of this division and of any regulation or order issued under this division:

The commissioner shall approve the application. If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application.

SEC. 730. Section 33404 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33404. For purposes of Section 33403, the commissioner may, in the absence of credible evidence to the contrary, presume that an applicant, the directors, officers, and controlling persons of an applicant, and the directors and officers of the controlling persons of an applicant are each of good character and sound financial standing.

SEC. 731. Section 33405 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33405. (a) For the purposes of Section 33403, the commissioner may find that an applicant, a director, officer, or controlling person of an applicant, or a director or officer of a controlling person of an applicant is not of good character if such person:

(1) Has been convicted of, or has pleaded nolo contendere to, any crime involving an act of fraud or dishonesty;

(2) Has consented to or suffered a judgment in any civil action based upon conduct involving an act of fraud or dishonesty;

(3) Has consented to or suffered the suspension or revocation of any professional, occupational, or vocational license based upon conduct involving an act of fraud or dishonesty;

(4) Has willfully made or caused to be made in any application or report filed with the commissioner or in any proceeding before the commissioner, any statement which was at the time and in the light of the circumstances under which it was made false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or has willfully omitted to state in any such application or report any material fact which was required to be stated therein; or

(5) Has willfully committed any violation of, or has willfully aided, abetted, counseled, commanded, induced or procured the violation by any other person of, any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not be deemed to be an exclusive list of the grounds upon which the commissioner may find, for purposes of Section 33403, that an applicant, a director, officer, or controlling person of an applicant, or a director or officer of a controlling person of an applicant is not of good character.

SEC. 732. Section 33406 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33406. Whenever any application for a license has been approved by the commissioner and all conditions precedent to the issuance of such license have been fulfilled, the commissioner shall issue the license to the applicant.

SEC. 733. Section 33408 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33408. No licensee shall represent that it is sponsored, recommended, or approved, or that its abilities or qualifications have in any respect been passed upon, by the commissioner. However, this section shall not be deemed to prohibit a licensee from stating that it is licensed if the effect of such license is not misrepresented.

SEC. 734. Section 33521 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33521. (a) No licensee shall, nor shall any licensee cause or permit any of its California agents to, sell in this state any payment instrument issued by such licensee unless such payment instrument shall have first been approved as to form by the commissioner.

(b) If the commissioner finds, with respect to an application by a licensee for approval as to form of a payment instrument to be issued by such licensee, all of the following:

(1) That the payment instrument clearly identifies the licensee as the issuer of the payment instrument.

(2) That the payment instrument is not misleading in any material respect.

(3) That the payment instrument complies with all applicable laws.

The commissioner shall approve the application and shall, after all conditions precedent to the approval of the payment instrument as to form have been fulfilled, approve the payment instrument as to form. If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application.

SEC. 735. Section 33522 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33522. (a) No licensee shall, nor shall any licensee cause or permit any of its California agents to, sell in this state any payment instrument issued by such licensee which is drawn on or is payable through or at a bank, unless such bank shall have first been approved for such purpose by the commissioner.

(b) If the commissioner finds, with respect to an application by a licensee for approval of a bank as a drawee, payable through, or payable at bank for payment instruments to be issued by such licensee, that it will be safe and sound for payment instruments issued by the licensee to be drawn on, payable through, or payable at, such bank, the commissioner shall approve the application and shall, when all conditions precedent to the approval of the bank as a drawee, payable through, or payable at bank have been fulfilled, approve the bank as a drawee, payable through, or payable at bank for payment instruments to be issued by the licensee. If after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds otherwise, the commissioner shall deny the application.

SEC. 736. Section 33560 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33560. In this article:

(a) "Eligible security" means any United States currency eligible security or foreign currency eligible security.

(b) "Eligible securities rating service" means any securities rating service which the commissioner has by regulation or order declared to be an eligible securities rating service pursuant to Section 33564.

(c) "Eligible rating," when used with respect to any security or class of securities and any eligible securities rating service, means any rating assigned to such security or class of securities by such eligible securities rating service which the commissioner has by regulation or order declared to be an eligible rating pursuant to Section 33565.

(d) "Foreign currency eligible security" means any of the following which is, or is denominated in, a foreign currency and which the commissioner has not by regulation or order declared to be ineligible pursuant to Section 33562:

(1) Any of the following which is of comparable quality to the United States currency eligible securities specified in paragraphs (1) to (7), inclusive, of subdivision (f):

(A) Cash.

(B) Any deposit in an office of a bank located in a foreign country.

(C) Any bond, note, or other obligation.

(2) Any other security or class of securities which the commissioner has by regulation or order declared to be eligible securities pursuant to Section 33563.

(e) "Reported outstanding payment instrument," when used with respect to a licensee, means:

(1) Any payment instrument issued by the licensee which has been sold directly by the licensee and which has not yet been paid by the licensee; or

(2) Any payment instrument issued by the licensee which has been sold by an agent of the licensee, which has been reported by such agent to the licensee as having been sold (such report having been received by the licensee), and which has not yet been paid by the licensee.

(f) "United States currency eligible security" means any of the following which is, or is denominated in, United States currency and which the commissioner has not by regulation or order declared to be ineligible pursuant to Section 33562:

(1) Cash.

(2) Any deposit in an insured bank or an insured savings association.

(3) Any bond, note, or other obligation which is issued or guaranteed by the United States or by any agency of the United States.

(4) Any bond, note, or other obligation which is issued or guaranteed by any state of the United States or by any governmental agency of or within any state of the United States and which is assigned an eligible rating by an eligible securities rating service.

(5) Any bankers acceptance which is eligible for discount by a federal reserve bank.

(6) Any commercial paper which is assigned an eligible rating by an eligible securities rating service.

(7) Any bond, note, or other obligation or preferred stock which is assigned an eligible rating by an eligible securities rating service.

(8) Any other security or class of securities which the commissioner has by regulation or order declared to be eligible securities pursuant to Section 33563.

(9) Any account due to any licensee from any agent of such licensee on account of the sale by such agent of payment instruments issued by the licensee, which the commissioner has by order declared to be an eligible security for the licensee pursuant to Section 33566.

(g) "Value" means:

(1) When used with respect to an eligible security owned by a licensee which consists of an account due to such licensee from an agent of the licensee on account of the sale by such agent of payment instruments issued by the licensee which the commissioner has declared to be an eligible security for the licensee pursuant to Section 33566, net carrying value as determined in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles;

(2) When used with respect to any other eligible security owned by a licensee:

(A) In case the practice and policy of such licensee is to hold eligible securities to maturity, net carrying value as determined in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles;

(B) In any other case, market value.

SEC. 736.1. Section 33560 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33560. In this article:

(a) "Eligible security" means any United States currency eligible security or foreign currency eligible security.

(b) "Eligible securities rating service" means any securities rating service which the commissioner has by regulation or order declared to be an eligible securities rating service pursuant to Section 33564.

(c) "Eligible rating," when used with respect to any security or class of securities and any eligible securities rating service, means any rating assigned to such security or class of securities by such eligible securities rating service which the commissioner has by regulation or order declared to be an eligible rating pursuant to Section 33565.

(d) "Foreign currency eligible security" means any of the following which is, or is denominated in, a foreign currency and which the commissioner has not by regulation or order declared to be ineligible pursuant to Section 33562:

(1) Any of the following which is of comparable quality to the United States currency eligible securities specified in paragraphs (1) to (7), inclusive, of subdivision (f):

(A) Cash.

(B) Any deposit in an office of a bank located in a foreign country.

(C) Any bond, note, or other obligation.

(2) Any other security or class of securities which the commissioner has by regulation or order declared to be eligible securities pursuant to Section 33563.

(e) "Reported outstanding payment instrument," when used with respect to a licensee, means any of the following:

(1) Any payment instrument issued by the licensee which has been sold directly by the licensee and which has not yet been paid by the licensee.

(2) Any payment instrument issued by the licensee which has been sold by an agent of the licensee, which has been reported by such agent to the licensee as having been sold (such report having been received by the licensee), and which has not yet been paid by the licensee.

(f) "United States currency eligible security" means any of the following which is, or is denominated in, United States currency and which the commissioner has not by regulation or order declared to be ineligible pursuant to Section 33562:

(1) Cash.

(2) Any deposit in an insured bank or an insured savings and loan association.

(3) Any bond, note, or other obligation which is issued or guaranteed by the United States or by any agency of the United States.

(4) Any bond, note, or other obligation which is issued or guaranteed by any state of the United States or by any governmental agency of or within any state of the United States and which is assigned an eligible rating by an eligible securities rating service.

(5) Any bankers acceptance which is eligible for discount by a federal reserve bank.

(6) Any commercial paper which is assigned an eligible rating by an eligible securities rating service.

(7) Any bond, note, or other obligation or preferred stock which is assigned an eligible rating by an eligible securities rating service.

(8) Any share of an investment company that is an open-end management company, that is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 80a-1 et seq.), that holds itself out to investors as a money market fund, and that operates in accordance with all provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and of the regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission applicable to money market funds, including Section 270.2a-7 of the regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (17 C.F.R. Sec. 270.2a-7).

For purposes of this paragraph and paragraph (9), "investment company," "management company," and "open-end" have the meanings set forth in Sections 3, 4, and 5, respectively, of the Investment Company Act of 1940 (12 U.S.C. Secs. 80a-3, 80a-4, and 80a-5, respectively).

(9) Any share of an investment company that is an open-end management company, that is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 80a-1 et seq.), and that invests exclusively in securities that constitute United States currency eligible securities under the other provisions of this subdivision.

(10) Any account due to any licensee from any agent of such licensee on account of the sale by such agent of reported outstanding payment instruments issued by the licensee, if the account is current and not past due or otherwise doubtful of collection.

(11) Any other security or class of securities that the commissioner has by regulation or order declared to be eligible securities pursuant to Section 33563.

(g) "Value" means:

(1) When used with respect to an eligible security owned by a licensee which consists of an account due to such licensee from an agent of the licensee on account of the sale by such agent of reported outstanding payment instruments issued by the licensee, net carrying value as determined in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. However, in computing the value of the account due to the licensee, any amount due on account of the sale of a payment instrument shall be excluded if the time elapsed between the sale and the date of computation exceeds the average time that elapses between the time of sale and the time of payment of payment instruments issued by the licensee.

(2) When used with respect to any other eligible security owned by a licensee:

(A) In case the practice and policy of such licensee is to hold eligible securities to maturity, net carrying value as determined in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

(B) In any other case, market value.

SEC. 737. Section 33562 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33562. If the commissioner finds that any eligible security or class of eligible securities is not of sufficient liquidity or quality to be eligible securities, the commissioner may by regulation or order declare such security or class of securities to be ineligible.

SEC. 737.5. Section 33563 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33563. If the commissioner finds that any security or class of securities which is not an eligible security is of sufficient liquidity and quality to be an eligible security, the commissioner may by regulation or order declare such security or class of securities to be eligible securities.

SEC. 738. Section 33564 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33564. If the commissioner finds that a securities rating service:

(a) Has been continuously engaged in the business of rating securities for a period of not less than three years;

(b) Is competent to rate securities and is nationally recognized for rating securities in a competent manner; and

(c) Publishes its ratings of securities on a nationwide basis:

The commissioner may by regulation or order declare such securities rating service to be an eligible securities rating service.

SEC. 739. Section 33565 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33565. If the commissioner finds that a rating assigned to a class of securities by an eligible securities rating service indicates that such class of securities is of sufficient quality to be eligible securities, the commissioner may by regulation or order declare such rating to be an eligible rating.

SEC. 740. Section 33566 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33566. If the commissioner finds that an account due to any licensee from any agent of such licensee on account of the sale by such agent of payment instruments issued by the licensee is, in view of the financial condition of the agent and of the licensee, the history of such account, and such other factors as may in the opinion of the commissioner be relevant, of sufficient quality to be an eligible security for the licensee, the commissioner may by order declare such account to be an eligible security for the licensee. However, in computing the value of any such account for purposes of Section 33567, there shall be excluded any amount due on account of the sale of a payment instrument if the time elapsed between such sale and the date of computation exceeds the average time that elapses between the time of sale and the time of payment of payment instruments issued by the licensee.

SEC. 741. Section 33568 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33568. (a) In computing for purposes of Section 33567 the aggregate value of eligible securities owned by a licensee, there shall be excluded the value of any eligible security if and to the extent that the value of such eligible security, when combined with the aggregate value of all other eligible securities owned by such licensee which are issued or guaranteed by the same person or by any affiliate of the same person by whom such eligible security is issued or guaranteed, exceeds 10 percent of the aggregate value of all eligible securities owned by the licensee.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not be deemed to require the exclusion of the value of any of the following eligible securities, and each of the following eligible securities shall be exempted from the limitations of subdivision (a):

(1) The following United States currency eligible securities:

(A) Cash.

(B) Any deposit in an insured bank or an insured savings association.

(C) Any bond, note, or other obligation for the payment of which the full faith and credit of the United States are pledged.

(2) Any eligible security which the commissioner, in view of the financial condition of the obligor or issuer and such other factors as may in the opinion of the commissioner be relevant, finds to be of such quality that exclusion of the value of such eligible security pursuant to subdivision (a) is not necessary for the purposes of this division and which the commissioner by regulation or order exempts from the limitations of subdivision (a).

SEC. 741.1. Section 33568 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33568. (a) In computing for purposes of Section 33567 the aggregate value of eligible securities owned by a licensee, all of the following shall be excluded:

(1) The value of any eligible security if and to the extent that the value of such eligible security, when combined with the aggregate value of all other eligible securities owned by such licensee which are issued or guaranteed by the same person or by any affiliate of the same person by whom such eligible security is issued or guaranteed, exceeds 10 percent of the aggregate value of all eligible securities owned by the licensee.

(2) The portion of the aggregate value of all eligible securities of the type described in paragraph (10) of subdivision (f) of Section 33560 that exceeds 10 percent of the aggregate value of all eligible securities owned by the licensee or any higher percentage, up to a maximum of 20 percent, that the commissioner may approve for the licensee.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not be deemed to require the exclusion of the value of any of the following eligible securities, and each of the following eligible securities shall be exempted from the limitations of subdivision (a):

(1) The following United States currency eligible securities:

(A) Cash.

(B) Any deposit in an insured bank or an insured savings and loan association.

(C) Any bond, note, or other obligation for the payment of which the full faith and credit of the United States are pledged.

(2) Any eligible security which the commissioner, in view of the financial condition of the obligor or issuer and such other factors as may in the opinion of the commissioner be relevant, finds to be of such quality that exclusion of the value of such eligible security pursuant to subdivision (a) is not necessary for the purposes of this division and which the commissioner by regulation or order exempts from the limitations of subdivision (a).

SEC. 742. Section 33600 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33600. Each fidelity bond required by the commissioner pursuant to this article shall be issued by one or more corporations admitted to engage in the surety business in this state.

SEC. 742.1. Section 33600 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33600. Each fidelity bond required by the commissioner pursuant to this article shall be issued by one or more corporations admitted to engage in the surety business in this state and is satisfactory to the commissioner.

SEC. 743. Section 33601 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33601. Whenever the commissioner approves an application for a license, the commissioner may require, as a condition of such approval, if the commissioner finds that such condition is necessary for the protection of the interests of purchasers and holders of payment instruments issued by the applicant, that the applicant obtain and thereafter maintain a fidelity bond covering such persons, having such provisions, and providing coverage in such amounts, as the commissioner may specify.

SEC. 744. Section 33602 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33602. Whenever the commissioner finds that such order is necessary for the protection of the interests of purchasers and holders of payment instruments issued by a licensee which is not then required to maintain a fidelity bond, the commissioner may order such licensee to obtain and thereafter maintain a fidelity bond covering such persons, having such provisions, and providing coverage in such amounts, as the commissioner may specify.

SEC. 745. Section 33603 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33603. Whenever the commissioner finds that it is appropriate or necessary for the protection of the interests of purchasers and holders of payment instruments issued by a licensee which is then required to maintain a fidelity bond that such licensee obtain and thereafter maintain a fidelity bond which differs from the former fidelity bond with respect to persons covered, amounts of coverage, or other provisions, the commissioner may by order relieve the licensee of the requirement that it maintain the former fidelity bond and require that the licensee obtain and thereafter maintain the latter fidelity bond.

SEC. 746. Section 33604 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33604. Whenever the commissioner finds that it is no longer necessary for the protection of the interests of purchasers and holders of payment instruments issued by a licensee which is then required to maintain a fidelity bond that such licensee continue to maintain any fidelity bond, the commissioner may by order relieve the licensee of the requirement that it maintain any fidelity bond.

SEC. 747. Section 33700 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33700. No licensee shall appoint or continue any person as its agent, nor shall any person become or continue to be a California agent of a licensee, unless such licensee and such person shall have first made a written contract which shall contain the following provisions:

(a) That the licensee appoints the person as its agent with authority to sell on behalf of the licensee payment instruments issued by the licensee.

(b) (1) In case the person is a national banking association, a federal savings association, or a federal credit union, provisions substantially corresponding with the provisions of Article 3 (commencing with Section 33730).

(2) In case the person is any California agent other than an agent of the type described in paragraph (1) of this subdivision, that the person shall comply with all applicable provisions of this division and of any regulation or order issued under this division.

(3) In case the person is any agent other than (i) an agent of the type referred to in paragraph (1) of this subdivision or (ii) a California agent:

(A) If the person is an insured bank, an insured savings association, or an insured credit union, provisions substantially corresponding with the provisions of Article 3 (commencing with Section 33730); or

(B) If the person is neither an insured bank nor an insured savings association nor an insured credit union, provisions substantially corresponding with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 33720) which are applicable to California agents of a licensee and with the provisions of Article 3 (commencing with Section 33730).

(c) Such other provisions as the commissioner may find to be necessary to carry out the provisions and purposes of this division.

SEC. 748. Section 33731 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33731. Whenever any provision of this article requires a report by any agent of a licensee of the sale by such agent of a payment instrument issued by such licensee, such report shall contain the following information:

(a) The face amount and serial number of such payment instrument, and the face amount and serial number of any payment instrument issued by the licensee which the agent sold before selling such payment instrument and the sale of which the agent has not yet reported;

(b) In case the agent, at or before the time of any sale reported in the report, voided any payment instrument issued by the licensee and has not yet reported such voiding, the serial number of such payment instrument;

(c) In case the agent (i) is authorized to redeem on behalf of the licensee payment instruments issued by the licensee, (ii) did, at or before the time of any sale reported in the report, redeem any payment instrument issued by the licensee, and (iii) has not yet reported such redemption, the face amount and serial number of such payment instrument; and

(d) Such other information as the licensee (or, in the case of a report made under Section 33733, the commissioner) may provide.

SEC. 749. Section 33733 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33733. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 33732, whenever a California agent of a licensee knows or has reason to know that the commissioner has suspended or revoked the license of such licensee or that the commissioner has issued an order taking possession of the property and business of the licensee, such agent shall immediately report to the licensee (or to the commissioner, if the commissioner so orders) each sale by the agent of a payment instrument issued by the licensee which the agent has not yet reported under this article.

SEC. 750. Section 33743 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33743. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 33742, whenever a California agent of a licensee knows or has reason to know that the commissioner has suspended or revoked the license of such licensee or that the commissioner has issued an order taking possession of the property and business of the licensee, such agent shall immediately remit to the licensee (or to the commissioner, if the commissioner so orders) the face amount of each payment instrument issued by the licensee and sold by the agent which the agent has not yet remitted under this article.

SEC. 751. Section 33760 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33760. Each licensee shall, at the time when it becomes a licensee, register each of its California agents with the commissioner by filing with the commissioner a report regarding such agents.

SEC. 752. Section 33761 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33761. Whenever any licensee appoints any person as a California agent, such licensee shall, not more than 90 days after taking such action, register such agent with the commissioner by filing with the commissioner a report regarding the agent.

SEC. 753. Section 33762 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33762. Whenever any person who is a California agent of a licensee ceases for any reason to be a California agent of such licensee, the licensee shall, not more than 90 days thereafter, terminate the registration of the agent with the commissioner by filing with the commissioner a report regarding the agent.

SEC. 754. Section 33780 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33780. If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds that any California agent of a licensee or any director, officer, employee, or controlling person of such agent:

(a) Has violated any provision of this chapter or of any regulation or order issued under this chapter;

(b) Has engaged or participated in any unsafe or unsound act with respect to the business of selling payment instruments issued by the licensee; or

(c) Has made or caused to be made in any application or report filed with the commissioner or in any proceeding before the commissioner, any statement which was at the time and in the light of the circumstances under which it was made, false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or has omitted to state in any such application or report any material fact which is required to be stated therein:

The commissioner may issue an order suspending or barring such agent from continuing to be or becoming an agent of any licensee or of any person referred to in Section 33100(a), during the period for which such order is in effect.

SEC. 755. Section 33781 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33781. (a) In case a California agent of a licensee is a bank (other than a bank organized under the laws of this state), savings association (other than a savings association organized under the laws of this state), or credit union, the commissioner shall not commence any administrative proceeding under Section 33780 against such agent unless the commissioner shall have first given notice of his or her intent to do so to the governmental agency having primary regulatory authority over the agent and unless, within such time as is in the opinion of the commissioner appropriate in the circumstances of the case (which time shall be specified in such notice), such governmental agency shall have refused or failed to effectuate corrective action by the agent which is satisfactory to the commissioner.

(b) No California agent of a licensee which is a bank, savings association, or credit union shall have standing to raise the provisions of subdivision (a) as a defense in any administrative proceeding under Section 33780 or as a basis for challenging or for refusing to comply with any order issued under Section 33780.

SEC. 756. Section 33784 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33784. (a) Any person to whom an order is issued under Section 33780 may apply to the commissioner to modify or rescind such order. The commissioner shall not grant such application unless the commissioner finds that it is in the public interest to do so and that it is reasonable to believe that such person will, if and when such person becomes a California agent of a licensee, comply with all applicable provisions of this division and of any regulation and order issued under this division.

(b) The right of any person to whom an order is issued under Section 33780 to petition for judicial review of such order shall not be affected by the failure of such person to apply to the commissioner pursuant to subdivision (a) to modify or rescind the order.

SEC. 757. Section 33900 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33900. (a) Each licensee shall make, keep, and preserve within the United States such books, accounts, and other records in such form, in such manner, and for such time as the commissioner may by regulation or order specify.

(b) Each California agent of a licensee shall, and each licensee shall use its best efforts to require each of its California agents to, make and keep such records regarding sales by such agent of payment instruments issued by such licensee and related matters as may be necessary to show at any time the following:

(1) Face amount, serial number, and date of sale of each payment instrument sold, the sale of which the agent has not yet reported to the licensee under Article 3 (commencing with Section 33730) of Chapter 6;

(2) Serial number and date of voiding of each payment instrument voided, the voiding of which the agent has not yet reported to the licensee under Article 3 (commencing with Section 33730) of Chapter 6;

(3) In case the agent is authorized to redeem payment instruments on behalf of the licensee, face amount, serial number, and date of redemption of each payment instrument redeemed, the redemption of which the agent has not yet reported to the licensee under Article 3 (commencing with Section 33730) of Chapter 6;

(4) Total face amount and serial numbers of payment instruments sold, the sale of which the agent reported in its last report to the licensee under Article 3 (commencing with Section 33730) of Chapter 6;

(5) Total face amount and serial numbers of payment instruments sold, on account of which the agent has not yet remitted funds to the licensee under Article 4 (commencing with Section 33740) of Chapter 6; and

(6) Date on which the agent last remitted funds to the licensee under Article 4 (commencing with Section 33740) of Chapter 6 on account of payment instruments sold, total amount of such funds, and serial numbers of such payment instruments.

SEC. 758. Section 33901 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33901. Each licensee shall, not more than 90 days after the close of each of its fiscal years or within such longer period as the commissioner may by regulation or order specify, file with the commissioner a report containing:

(a) Financial statements (including balance sheet, statement of income or loss, statement of changes in shareholder's equity, and statement of changes in financial position) for or as of the end of such fiscal year, prepared with audit by an independent certified public accountant or an independent public accountant in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles;

(b) Report, certificate, or opinion of such independent certified public accountant or independent public accountant, stating that such financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles; and

(c) Such other information as the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

SEC. 758.1. Section 33901 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33901. Each licensee shall, not more than 90 days after the close of each of its fiscal years or within such longer period as the commissioner may by regulation or order specify, file with the commissioner a report containing:

(a) Financial statements, including balance sheet, statement of income or loss, statement of changes in shareholder's equity, and statement of cash flows, for or as of the end of such fiscal year, prepared with audit by an independent certified public accountant or an independent public accountant in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(b) Report, certificate, or opinion of such independent certified public accountant or independent public accountant, stating that such financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

(c) Such other information as the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

SEC. 759. Section 33902 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33902. (a) Each licensee shall file with the commissioner such reports as and when the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

(b) In case the commissioner has initiated proceedings to issue, or has issued, an order imposing conditions upon the surrender of the license of a licensee under Section 34001, an order suspending or revoking the license of a licensee under Section 34109 or 34110, or an order taking possession of the property and business of a licensee under Section 34113, each California agent of such licensee shall, and the licensee shall use its best efforts to require each of its California agents to, file with the commissioner such reports regarding sales by such agent of payment instruments issued by the licensee and related matters, as and when the commissioner may by regulation or order require.

(c) (1) Whenever the commissioner suspects that a licensee has violated, or is about to violate, any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division, the commissioner may by order require any director, officer, or employee of such licensee to file with the commissioner at the time specified in such order a report regarding such suspected violation and any related matters.

(2) Each director, officer, and employee of a licensee to whom an order is issued under paragraph (1) of this subdivision shall, and such licensee shall use its best efforts to require each such director, officer, and employee to, comply with such order.

SEC. 760. Section 33903 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

33903. (a) The commissioner may at any time examine any licensee.

(b) In case the commissioner has initiated proceedings to issue, or has issued, an order imposing conditions upon the surrender of the license of a licensee under Section 34001, an order suspending or revoking the license of a licensee under Section 34109 or 34110, or an order taking possession of the property and business of a licensee under Section 34113, the commissioner may examine any California agent of such licensee with respect to sales by such agent of payment instruments issued by the licensee and related matters.

(c) Any licensee or California agent of a licensee being examined by the commissioner shall, and each licensee shall use its best efforts to require each of its California agents being examined by the commissioner to, exhibit to the commissioner and permit the commissioner to copy, on request, any or all of the books, accounts, and other records of such licensee or such California agent, as the case may be, which may relate to such examination, and otherwise facilitate such examination so far as it may be in its power to do so.

(d) The commissioner may, if in the commissioner's opinion it is necessary in the examination of any licensee or of any California agent of a licensee, retain any certified public accountant, attorney, appraiser, or other person to assist the commissioner, and such licensee shall pay, within 10 days after receipt of a statement from the commissioner, the fees of such person.

SEC. 761. Section 34000 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

34000. Any licensee may surrender its license by filing with the commissioner such license and a report.

SEC. 762. Section 34001 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

34001. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), a voluntary surrender of a license shall be effective on the 30th day after such license and the report called for in Section 34000 are filed with the commissioner or on such earlier date as the commissioner may by order specify.

(b) If a proceeding to revoke or suspend a license is pending at the time when such license and the report called for in Section 34000 are filed with the commissioner or if a proceeding to revoke or suspend a license or to impose conditions upon the surrender of a license is instituted before the 30th day after such license and the report called for in Section 34000 are filed with the commissioner, the voluntary surrender of such license shall become effective at such time and upon such conditions as the commissioner may by order specify.

SEC. 763. Section 34100.5 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

34100.5. (a) No order issued by the commissioner under Section 34103, 34105, or 34106 shall become effective earlier than the 10th business day after the issuance of such order.

(b) No order issued by the commissioner under subdivision (a) of Section 34104 or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 34107 shall become effective earlier than the fifth business day after the issuance of such order.

SEC. 764. Section 34101 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

34101. (a) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has violated, or that there is reasonable cause to believe that any person is about to violate, any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division, the commissioner may bring an action in the name of the people of this state in the superior court to enjoin the violation or to enforce compliance with this division or with any regulation or order issued under this division.

Upon a proper showing, a restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction, or writ of mandate shall be granted, and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets.

(b) Any receiver or conservator appointed by the court pursuant to subdivision (a) may, with the approval of the court, exercise all of the powers of the defendant's directors, officers, partners, trustees, or persons who exercise similar powers and perform similar duties, including the filing of a petition for bankruptcy. No action at law or in equity may be maintained by any party against the commissioner or the receiver or conservator by reason of the exercise of powers or the performance of duties pursuant to the order, or with the approval of, the court.

(c) The commissioner may include in any action authorized under subdivision (a) a claim for ancillary relief, including a claim for restitution or damages on behalf of the persons injured by the act constituting the subject matter of the action, and the court shall have jurisdiction to award such additional relief.

SEC. 765. Section 34102 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

34102. (a) If the commissioner finds that any person has violated, or that there is reasonable cause to believe that any person is about to violate, Section 33400, the commissioner may order such person to cease and desist from such violation unless and until such person is issued a license.

(b) (1) Within 30 days after an order is issued pursuant to subdivision (a), the person to whom such order is issued may file with the commissioner an application for a hearing on the order. If the commissioner fails to commence such hearing within 15 business days after such application is filed with the commissioner (or within such longer period to which such person consents), the order shall be deemed rescinded. Within 30 days after the hearing, the commissioner shall affirm, modify, or rescind the order; otherwise, the order shall be deemed rescinded.

(2) The right of any person to whom an order is issued under subdivision (a) to petition for judicial review of such order shall not be affected by the failure of such person to apply to the commissioner for hearing on the order pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subdivision.

SEC. 766. Section 34103 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

34103. If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds:

(a) That any licensee or any California agent of a licensee has engaged or participated, is engaging or participating, or that there is reasonable cause to believe that any licensee or any California agent of a licensee is about to engage or participate, in any unsafe or unsound act with respect to the business of such licensee; or

(b) That any licensee or any California agent of a licensee has violated, is violating, or that there is reasonable cause to believe that any licensee or any California agent of a licensee is about to violate, any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division or any provision of any other applicable law.

The commissioner may order such licensee or such California agent to cease and desist from such action or violation. The order may require the licensee or such California agent to take affirmative action to correct any condition resulting from the action or violation.

SEC. 767. Section 34104 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

34104. (a) If the commissioner finds that any of the factors set forth in Section 34103 is true with respect to any licensee or any California agent of a licensee and that such action or violation is likely:

(1) To cause the insolvency of the licensee;

(2) To cause substantial dissipation of the assets or earnings of the licensee;

(3) To seriously weaken the condition of the licensee; or

(4) To otherwise seriously prejudice the interests of purchasers or holders of payment instruments issued by the licensee:

The commissioner may order such licensee or such California agent to cease and desist from such action or violation. Such order may require the licensee or the California agent to take affirmative action to correct any condition resulting from the action or violation.

(b) (1) Within 30 days after an order is issued pursuant to subdivision (a), any licensee or California agent of a licensee to whom such order is issued may file with the commissioner an application for a hearing on the order. If the commissioner fails to commence such hearing within 15 business days after such application is filed with the commissioner (or within such longer period to which such licensee or California agent consents), the order shall be deemed rescinded. Within 30 days after the hearing, the commissioner shall affirm, modify, or rescind the order; otherwise, the order shall be deemed rescinded.

(2) The right of any licensee or California agent of a licensee to whom an order is issued under subdivision (a) to petition for judicial review of such order shall not be affected by the failure of such licensee or California agent of a licensee to apply to the commissioner for a hearing on the order pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subdivision.

SEC. 768. Section 34105 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

34105. If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds:

(a) (1) That any subject person of a licensee has engaged or participated in any unsafe or unsound act with respect to the business of such licensee;

(2) That any subject person of a licensee has violated any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division or any provision of any other applicable law relating to the business of such licensee; or

(3) That any subject person of a licensee has engaged or participated in any act which constitutes a breach of his fiduciary duty as a subject person; and

(b) (1) That such act, violation, or breach of fiduciary duty has caused or is likely to cause substantial financial loss or other damage to the licensee;

(2) That such action, violation, or breach of fiduciary duty has seriously prejudiced, or is likely to seriously prejudice, the interests of purchasers or holders of payment instruments issued by the licensee; or

(3) That the subject person has received financial gain by reason of such act, violation, or breach of fiduciary duty; and

(c) That such act, violation, or breach of fiduciary duty either involves dishonesty on the part of the subject person or demonstrates the subject person's gross negligence with respect to the business of the licensee or a willful disregard for the safety and soundness of the licensee:

The commissioner may order the licensee to suspend or remove the subject person from his or her office, if any, with the licensee and to preclude such person from further participating in any manner in the conduct of the business of the licensee, except with the prior consent of the commissioner.

SEC. 769. Section 34106 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

34106. If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds that any subject person of a licensee has, by engaging or participating in any act with respect to any financial or other business institution which resulted in financial loss or other damage, demonstrated:

(a) (1) Dishonesty;

(2) Gross negligence with respect to the operations of such institution; or

(3) Willful disregard for the safety and soundness of such institution; and

(b) Unfitness to continue as a subject person of such licensee or participate in the conduct of the business of such licensee:

The commissioner may order the licensee to remove the subject person from his or her office, if any, with the licensee and to preclude him or her from further participating in any manner in the conduct of the business of the licensee, except with the prior consent of the commissioner.

SEC. 770. Section 34107 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

34107. (a) If the commissioner finds:

(1) That any subject person of a licensee has been charged in an indictment issued by a grand jury or in an information, complaint, or similar pleading issued by a United States attorney, district attorney, or other governmental official or agency authorized to prosecute crimes, with a crime which is punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year and which involves dishonesty or breach of trust; and

(2) That such subject person's continuing to serve as a subject person of the licensee may pose a threat to the interests of purchasers or holders of payment instruments issued by the licensee or may threaten to impair public confidence in the licensee:

The commissioner may order such licensee to suspend such subject person from his or her office, if any, with the licensee and to preclude such person from further participating in any manner in the conduct of the business of the licensee, except with the prior consent of the commissioner. In case the criminal proceedings are terminated other than by a judgment of conviction, such order shall be deemed rescinded.

(b) If the commissioner finds:

(1) That any subject person or former subject person of a licensee with respect to whom an order was issued pursuant to subdivision (a) or any other subject person of a licensee has been finally convicted of a crime which is punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year and which involves dishonesty or breach of trust; and

(2) That such person's continuing to serve or resumption of service as a subject person of the licensee may pose a threat to the interests of purchasers or holders of payment instruments issued by the licensee or may threaten to impair confidence in the licensee:

The commissioner may order such licensee to suspend or remove such subject person or former subject person from his or her office, if any, with the licensee and to preclude him from further participating in any manner in the conduct of the business of the licensee, except with the prior consent of the commissioner.

(c) (1) Within 30 days after an order is issued pursuant to subdivision (a) or (b), any licensee to which such order is issued or any subject person or former subject person of a licensee with respect to whom such order is issued may file with the commissioner an application for a hearing on the order. If the commissioner fails to commence such hearing within 15 business days after such application is filed with the commissioner (or within such longer period to which such licensee, subject person, or former subject person consents), the order shall be deemed rescinded. Within 30 days after the hearing, the commissioner shall affirm, modify, or rescind the order; otherwise, the order shall be deemed rescinded.

(2) The right of any licensee to which an order is issued under subdivision (a) or (b) or of any subject person or former subject person of a licensee with respect to whom such an order is issued to petition for judicial review of such order shall not be affected by the failure of such person to apply to the commissioner for a hearing on the order pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subdivision.

(d) The fact that any subject person of a licensee charged with a crime involving dishonesty or breach of trust is not finally convicted of such crime shall not preclude the commissioner from issuing an order regarding such licensee or such subject person pursuant to any other section of this division.

SEC. 771. Section 34108 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

34108. (a) Any licensee to which an order is issued under Section 34105, 34106, or 34107 or any subject person or former subject person of a licensee with respect to whom such an order is issued may apply to the commissioner to modify or rescind such order. The commissioner shall not grant such application unless the commissioner finds that it is in the public interest to do so and that it is reasonable to believe that such subject person or former subject person will, if and when he or she becomes a subject person of a licensee, comply with all applicable provisions of this division and of any regulation or order issued under this division.

(b) The right of any licensee to which an order is issued under Section 34105, 34106, or 34107 or any subject person or former subject person of a licensee with respect to whom such an order is issued to petition for judicial review of such order shall not be affected by the failure of such licensee, subject person, or former subject person to apply to the commissioner pursuant to subdivision (a) to modify or rescind the order.

SEC. 772. Section 34109 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

34109. If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds:

(a) That any licensee has violated any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division or any provision of any other applicable law;

(b) That any licensee is conducting its business in an unsafe or unsound manner;

(c) That any licensee is in such condition that it is unsafe or unsound for it to transact the business of selling in this state payment instruments issued by it;

(d) That any licensee has ceased to transact the business of selling in this state payment instruments issued by it;

(e) That any licensee is insolvent;

(f) That any licensee has suspended payment of its obligations, has made an assignment for the benefit of its creditors, or has admitted in writing its inability to pay its debts as they become due;

(g) That any licensee has applied for an adjudication of bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, or other relief under any bankruptcy, reorganization, insolvency, or moratorium law, or that any person has applied for any such relief under any such law against any licensee and such licensee has by any affirmative act approved of or consented to such action or such relief has been granted; or

(h) That any fact or condition exists which, if it had existed at the time when any licensee applied for its license, would have been grounds for denying such application:

The commissioner may issue an order suspending or revoking the license of such licensee.

SEC. 773. Section 34110 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

34110. (a) If the commissioner finds that any of the factors set forth in Section 34109 is true with respect to any licensee and that it is necessary for the protection of the interests of purchasers or holders of payment instruments issued by such licensee or for the protection of the public interest that he or she immediately suspend or revoke the license of such licensee, the commissioner may issue an order suspending or revoking the license of such licensee.

(b) (1) Within 30 days after an order is issued pursuant to subdivision (a), any licensee to whom such order is issued may file with the commissioner an application for a hearing on the order. If the commissioner fails to commence such hearing within 15 business days after such application is filed with the commissioner (or within such longer period to which such licensee consents), the order shall be deemed rescinded. Within 30 days after the hearing, the commissioner shall affirm, modify, or rescind the order; otherwise, the order shall be deemed rescinded.

(2) The right of any licensee to which an order is issued under subdivision (a) to petition for judicial review of such order shall not be affected by the failure of such licensee to apply to the commissioner for a hearing on the order pursuant to paragraph (1) of this subdivision.

SEC. 774. Section 34111 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

34111. Any person whose license is suspended or revoked shall immediately deliver such license to the commissioner.

SEC. 775. Section 34112 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

34112. (a) Any person to whom an order is issued under Section 34109 or 34110 may apply to the commissioner to modify or rescind such order. The commissioner shall not grant such application unless he or she finds that it is in the public interest to do so and that it is reasonable to believe that such person will, if and when it becomes a licensee, comply with all applicable provisions of this division and of any regulation or order issued under this division.

(b) The right of any person to whom an order is issued under Section 34109 or 34110 to petition for judicial review of such order shall not be affected by the failure of such person to apply to the commissioner pursuant to subdivision (a) to modify or rescind the order.

SEC. 776. Section 34113 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

34113. (a) If the commissioner finds that any of the factors set forth in Section 34109 is true with respect to any licensee and that it is necessary for the protection of the interests of purchasers or holders of payment instruments issued by the licensee or for the protection of the public interest that the commissioner take immediate possession of the property and business of the licensee, the commissioner may by order forthwith take possession of the property and business of the licensee and retain possession until the licensee resumes business or is finally liquidated. The licensee may, with the consent of the commissioner, resume business upon such conditions as the commissioner may prescribe.

(b) Whenever the commissioner takes possession of the property and business of a licensee pursuant to subdivision (a), the licensee may, within 10 days, apply to the superior court in any county of this state in which an office of the licensee is located (or, in case the licensee has no office in this state, in the County of Sacramento, in the City and County of San Francisco, or in the County of Los Angeles) to enjoin further proceedings. The court may, after citing the commissioner to show cause why further proceedings should not be enjoined and after a hearing, dismiss the application or enjoin the commissioner from further proceedings and order the commissioner to surrender the property and business of the licensee to the licensee or make such further order as may be just. The judgment of the superior court may be appealed by the commissioner or by the licensee in the manner provided by law for appeals from the judgment of a superior court.

(c) Whenever the commissioner takes possession of the property and business of a licensee pursuant to subdivision (a), the commissioner shall conserve or liquidate the property and business of the licensee pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 3100), Chapter 17, Division 1, and the provisions of the article (except Sections 3100, 3101, and 3102) apply as if the licensee were a bank.

SEC. 777. Section 34114 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

34114. (a) No California agent of a licensee who has actual notice that the commissioner has suspended or revoked the license of such licensee or that the commissioner has issued an order taking possession of the property and business of the licensee, shall sell any payment instrument issued by the licensee.

(b) If any California agent of a licensee, after first having actual notice that the commissioner has suspended or revoked the license of such licensee or that the commissioner has issued an order taking possession of the property and business of the licensee, sells any payment instrument issued by the licensee, such agent shall be jointly and severally liable with the licensee for the payment of such payment instrument.

SEC. 778. Section 34300 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

34300. If, after notice and a hearing, the commissioner finds that any person has violated any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division, the commissioner may order such person to pay to the commissioner a civil penalty in such amount as the commissioner may specify; provided, however, that the amount of such civil penalty shall not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each violation or, in the case of a continuing violation, one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each day for which such violation continues.

SEC. 779. Section 34301 of the Financial Code is amended to read:

34301. The provisions of Section 34300 are additional to, and not alternative to, other provisions of this division which authorize the commissioner to issue orders or to take other action on account of a violation of any provision of this division or of any regulation or order issued under this division. However, no person who has been finally convicted under Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 34200) of this division on account of any violation of Section 33222 or 33400 shall be liable to pay a civil penalty under Section 34300 on account of such violation, nor shall any person who has paid a civil penalty under Section 34300 on account of any violation of Section 33222 or 33400 be liable to criminal prosecution under Chapter 10 on account of such violation.

SEC. 780. Section 6254.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6254.5. Notwithstanding any other provisions of the law, whenever a state or local agency discloses a public record which is otherwise exempt from this chapter, to any member of the public, this disclosure shall constitute a waiver of the exemptions specified in Sections 6254, 6254.7, or other similar provisions of law. For purposes of this section, "agency" includes a member, agent, officer, or employee of the agency acting within the scope of his or her membership, agency, office, or employment.

This section, however, shall not apply to disclosures:

(a) Made pursuant to the Information Practices Act (commencing with Section 1798 of the Civil Code) or discovery proceedings.

(b) Made through other legal proceedings or as otherwise required by law.

(c) Within the scope of disclosure of a statute which limits disclosure of specified writings to certain purposes.

(d) Not required by law, and prohibited by formal action of an elected legislative body of the local agency which retains the writings.

(e) Made to any governmental agency which agrees to treat the disclosed material as confidential. Only persons authorized in writing by the person in charge of the agency shall be permitted to obtain the information. Any information obtained by the agency shall only be used for purposes which are consistent with existing law.

(f) Of records relating to a financial institution or an affiliate thereof, if the disclosures are made to the financial institution or affiliate by a state agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of the financial institution or affiliate.

(g) Of records relating to any person that is subject to the jurisdiction of the Department of Corporations, if the disclosures are made to the person that is the subject of the records for the purpose of corrective action by that person, or if a corporation, to an officer, director, or other key personnel of the corporation for the purpose of corrective action, or to any other person to the extent necessary to obtain information from that person for the purpose of an investigation by the Department of Corporations.

(h) Made by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions under Section 1909, 8009, or 18396 of the Financial Code.

SEC. 781. Section 7465 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7465. For the purposes of this chapter:

(a) The term "financial institution" includes state and national banks, state and federal savings associations, trust companies, industrial loan companies, and state and federal credit unions. Such term shall not include a title insurer while engaging in the conduct of the "business of title insurance" as defined by Section 12340.3 of the Insurance Code, an underwritten title company, or an escrow company.

(b) The term "financial records" means any original or any copy of any record or document held by a financial institution pertaining to a customer of the financial institution.

(c) The term "person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, association, trust or any other legal entity.

(d) The term "customer" means any person who has transacted business with or has used the services of a financial institution or for whom a financial institution has acted as a fiduciary.

(e) The term "state agency" means every state office, officer, department, division, bureau, board, and commission or other state agency, including the Legislature.

(f) The term "local agency" includes a county; city, whether general law or chartered; city and county; school district; municipal corporation; district; political subdivision; or any board, commission or agency thereof; or other local public agency.

(g) The term "supervisory agency" means any of the following:

(1) The Department of Financial Institutions.

(2) The Controller.

(3) The Administrator of Local Agency Security.

(4) The Department of Real Estate.

(5) The Department of Insurance.

(h) The term "investigation" includes, but is not limited to, any inquiry by a peace officer, sheriff, or district attorney, or any inquiry made for the purpose of determining whether there has been a violation of any law enforceable by imprisonment, fine, or monetary liability.

(i) The term "subpoena" includes subpoena duces tecum.

SEC. 782. Section 7480 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7480. Nothing in this chapter prohibits any of the following:

(a) The dissemination of any financial information which is not identified with, or identifiable as being derived from, the financial records of a particular customer.

(b) When any police or sheriff's department or district attorney in this state certifies to a bank, credit union, or savings association in writing that a crime report has been filed which involves the alleged fraudulent use of drafts, checks, or other orders drawn upon any bank, credit union, or savings association in this state, the police or sheriff's department or district attorney may request a bank, credit union, or savings association to furnish, and a bank, credit union, or savings association shall supply, a statement setting forth the following information with respect to a customer account specified by the police or sheriff's department or district attorney for a period 30 days prior to and up to 30 days following the date of occurrence of the alleged illegal act involving the account:

(1) The number of items dishonored.

(2) The number of items paid which created overdrafts.

(3) The dollar volume of the dishonored items and items paid which created overdrafts and a statement explaining any credit arrangement between the bank, credit union, or savings association and customer to pay overdrafts.

(4) The dates and amounts of deposits and debits and the account balance on these dates.

(5) A copy of the signature and any addresses appearing on a customer's signature card.

(6) The date the account opened and, if applicable, the date the account closed.

(c) The Attorney General, a supervisory agency, the Franchise Tax Board, the State Board of Equalization, the Employment Development Department, the Controller or an inheritance tax referee when administering the Prohibition of Gift and Death Taxes (Part 8 (commencing with Section 13301) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code), a police or sheriff's department or district attorney, a county welfare department when investigating welfare fraud, or the Department of Corporations when conducting investigations in connection with the enforcement of laws administered by the Commissioner of Corporations, from requesting of an office or branch of a financial institution, and the office or branch from responding to a request, as to whether a person has an account or accounts at that office or branch and, if so, any identifying numbers of the account or accounts.

No additional information beyond that specified in this section shall be released to a county welfare department without either the accountholder's written consent or a judicial writ, search warrant, subpoena, or other judicial order.

(d) The examination by, or disclosure to, any supervisory agency of financial records which relate solely to the exercise of its supervisory function. The scope of an agency's supervisory function shall be determined by reference to statutes which grant authority to examine, audit, or require reports of financial records or financial institutions as follows:

(1) With respect to the Commissioner of Financial Institutions by reference to Division 1 (commencing with Section 99), Division 1.5 (commencing with Section 4800), Division 2 (commencing with Section 5000), Division 5 (commencing with Section 14000), Division 7 (commencing with Section 18000), Division 15 (commencing with Section 31000), and Division 16 (commencing with Section 33000) of the Financial Code.

(2) With respect to the Controller by reference to Title 10 (commencing with Section 1300) of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(3) With respect to the Administrator of Local Agency Security by reference to Article 2 (commencing with Section 53630) of Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

(e) The disclosure to the Franchise Tax Board of (1) the amount of any security interest a financial institution has in a specified asset of a customer or (2) financial records in connection with the filing or audit of a tax return or tax information return required to be filed by the financial institution pursuant to Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), 11 (commencing with Section 23001), or 18 (commencing with Section 38001) of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(f) The disclosure to the State Board of Equalization of any of the following:

(1) The information required by Sections 6702, 6703, 8954, 8957, 30313, 30315, 32383, 32387, 38502, 38503, 40153, 40155, 41122, 41123.5, 43443, 43444.2, 44144, 45603, 45605, 46406, 50134, 50136, and 55205 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(2) The financial records in connection with the filing or audit of a tax return required to be filed by the financial institution pursuant to Parts 1 (commencing with Section 6001), 2 (commencing with Section 7301), 3 (commencing with Section 8601), 13 (commencing with Section 30001), 14 (commencing with Section 32001), and 17 (commencing with Section 37001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(3) The amount of any security interest a financial institution has in a specified asset of a customer, if the inquiry is directed to the branch or office where the interest is held.

(g) The disclosure to the Controller of the information required by Section 7853 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(h) The disclosure to the Employment Development Department of the amount of any security interest a financial institution has in a specified asset of a customer, if the inquiry is directed to the branch or office where the interest is held.

(i) The disclosure by a construction lender, as defined in Section 3087 of the Civil Code, to the Registrar of Contractors, of information concerning the making of progress payments to a prime contractor requested by the registrar in connection with an investigation under Section 7108.5 of the Business and Professions Code.

(j) Upon receipt of a written request from a district attorney referring to a support order pursuant to Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, a financial institution shall disclose the following information concerning the account or the person named in the request, whom the district attorney shall identify, whenever possible, by social security number:

(1) If the request states the identifying number of an account at a financial institution, the name of each owner of the account.

(2) Each account maintained by the person at the branch to which the request is delivered, and, if the branch is able to make a computerized search, each account maintained by the person at any other branch of the financial institution located in this state.

(3) For each account disclosed pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2), the account number, current balance, street address of the branch where the account is maintained, and, to the extent available through the branch's computerized search, the name and address of any other person listed as an owner.

Whenever the request prohibits the disclosure, a financial institution shall not disclose either the request or its response, to an owner of the account or to any other person, except the officers and employees of the financial institution who are involved in responding to the request and to attorneys, auditors, and regulatory authorities who have a need to know in order to perform their duties, and except as disclosure may be required by legal process.

No financial institution, or any officer, employee, or agent thereof, shall be liable to any person for (A) disclosing information in response to a request pursuant to this subdivision, (B) failing to notify the owner of an account, or complying with a request under this paragraph not to disclose to the owner, the request or disclosure under this subdivision, or (C) failing to discover any account owned by the person named in the request pursuant to a computerized search of the records of the financial institution.

The district attorney may request information pursuant to this subdivision only when the district attorney has received at least one of the following types of physical evidence:

(A) Any of the following, dated within the last three years:

(i) Form 599.

(ii) Form 1099.

(iii) A bank statement.

(iv) A check.

(v) A bank passbook.

(vi) A deposit slip.

(vii) A copy of a federal or state income tax return.

(viii) A debit or credit advice.

(ix) Correspondence that identifies the child support obligor by name, the bank, and the account number.

(x) Correspondence that identifies the child support obligor by name, the bank, and the banking services related to the account of the obligor.

(xi) An asset identification report from a federal agency.

(B) A sworn declaration of the custodial parent during the 12 months immediately preceding the request that the person named in the request has had or may have had an account at an office or branch of the financial institution to which the request is made.

Information obtained by a district attorney pursuant to this subdivision shall be used only for purposes that are directly connected within the administration of the duties of the district attorney pursuant to Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 782.1. Section 7480 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7480. Nothing in this chapter prohibits any of the following:

(a) The dissemination of any financial information which is not identified with, or identifiable as being derived from, the financial records of a particular customer.

(b) When any police or sheriff's department or district attorney in this state certifies to a bank, credit union, or savings association in writing that a crime report has been filed which involves the alleged fraudulent use of drafts, checks, or other orders drawn upon any bank, credit union, or savings association in this state, the police or sheriff's department or district attorney may request a bank, credit union, or savings association to furnish, and a bank, credit union, or savings association shall supply, a statement setting forth the following information with respect to a customer account specified by the police or sheriff's department or district attorney for a period 30 days prior to and up to 30 days following the date of occurrence of the alleged illegal act involving the account:

(1) The number of items dishonored.

(2) The number of items paid which created overdrafts.

(3) The dollar volume of the dishonored items and items paid which created overdrafts and a statement explaining any credit arrangement between the bank, credit union, or savings association and customer to pay overdrafts.

(4) The dates and amounts of deposits and debits and the account balance on these dates.

(5) A copy of the signature and any addresses appearing on a customer's signature card.

(6) The date the account opened and, if applicable, the date the account closed.

(c) The Attorney General, a supervisory agency, the Franchise Tax Board, the State Board of Equalization, the Employment Development Department, the Controller or an inheritance tax referee when administering the Prohibition of Gift and Death Taxes (Part 8 (commencing with Section 13301) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code), a police or sheriff's department or district attorney, a county welfare department when investigating welfare fraud, or the Department of Corporations when conducting investigations in connection with the enforcement of laws administered by the Commissioner of Corporations, from requesting of an office or branch of a financial institution, and the office or branch from responding to a request, as to whether a person has an account or accounts at that office or branch and, if so, any identifying numbers of the account or accounts.

No additional information beyond that specified in this section shall be released to a county welfare department without either the accountholder's written consent or a judicial writ, search warrant, subpoena, or other judicial order.

(d) The examination by, or disclosure to, any supervisory agency of financial records which relate solely to the exercise of its supervisory function. The scope of an agency's supervisory function shall be determined by reference to statutes which grant authority to examine, audit, or require reports of financial records or financial institutions as follows:

(1) With respect to the Commissioner of Financial Institutions by reference to Division 1 (commencing with Section 99), Division 1.5 (commencing with Section 4800), Division 2 (commencing with Section 5000), Division 5 (commencing with Section 14000), Division 7 (commencing with Section 18000), Division 15 (commencing with Section 31000), and Division 16 (commencing with Section 33000) of the Financial Code.

(2) With respect to the Controller by reference to Title 10 (commencing with Section 1300) of Part 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(3) With respect to the Administrator of Local Agency Security by reference to Article 2 (commencing with Section 53630) of Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

(e) The disclosure to the Franchise Tax Board of (1) the amount of any security interest a financial institution has in a specified asset of a customer or (2) financial records in connection with the filing or audit of a tax return or tax information return required to be filed by the financial institution pursuant to Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), 11 (commencing with Section 23001), or 18 (commencing with Section 38001) of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(f) The disclosure to the State Board of Equalization of any of the following:

(1) The information required by Sections 6702, 6703, 8954, 8957, 30313, 30315, 32383, 32387, 38502, 38503, 40153, 40155, 41122, 41123.5, 43443, 43444.2, 44144, 45603, 45605, 46404, 46406, 50134, 50136, 55203, 55205, 60404, and 60407 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(2) The financial records in connection with the filing or audit of a tax return required to be filed by the financial institution pursuant to Parts 1 (commencing with Section 6001), 2 (commencing with Section 7301), 3 (commencing with Section 8601), 13 (commencing with Section 30001), 14 (commencing with Section 32001), and 17 (commencing with Section 37001) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(3) The amount of any security interest a financial institution has in a specified asset of a customer, if the inquiry is directed to the branch or office where the interest is held.

(g) The disclosure to the Controller of the information required by Section 7853 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(h) The disclosure to the Employment Development Department of the amount of any security interest a financial institution has in a specified asset of a customer, if the inquiry is directed to the branch or office where the interest is held.

(i) The disclosure by a construction lender, as defined in Section 3087 of the Civil Code, to the Registrar of Contractors, of information concerning the making of progress payments to a prime contractor requested by the registrar in connection with an investigation under Section 7108.5 of the Business and Professions Code.

(j) Upon receipt of a written request from a district attorney referring to a support order pursuant to Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, a financial institution shall disclose the following information concerning the account or the person named in the request, whom the district attorney shall identify, whenever possible, by social security number:

(1) If the request states the identifying number of an account at a financial institution, the name of each owner of the account.

(2) Each account maintained by the person at the branch to which the request is delivered, and, if the branch is able to make a computerized search, each account maintained by the person at any other branch of the financial institution located in this state.

(3) For each account disclosed pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2), the account number, current balance, street address of the branch where the account is maintained, and, to the extent available through the branch's computerized search, the name and address of any other person listed as an owner.

Whenever the request prohibits the disclosure, a financial institution shall not disclose either the request or its response, to an owner of the account or to any other person, except the officers and employees of the financial institution who are involved in responding to the request and to attorneys, auditors, and regulatory authorities who have a need to know in order to perform their duties, and except as disclosure may be required by legal process.

No financial institution, or any officer, employee, or agent thereof, shall be liable to any person for (A) disclosing information in response to a request pursuant to this subdivision, (B) failing to notify the owner of an account, or complying with a request under this paragraph not to disclose to the owner, the request or disclosure under this subdivision, or (C) failing to discover any account owned by the person named in the request pursuant to a computerized search of the records of the financial institution.

The district attorney may request information pursuant to this subdivision only when the district attorney has received at least one of the following types of physical evidence:

(A) Any of the following, dated within the last three years:

(i) Form 599.

(ii) Form 1099.

(iii) A bank statement.

(iv) A check.

(v) A bank passbook.

(vi) A deposit slip.

(vii) A copy of a federal or state income tax return.

(viii) A debit or credit advice.

(ix) Correspondence that identifies the child support obligor by name, the bank, and the account number.

(x) Correspondence that identifies the child support obligor by name, the bank, and the banking services related to the account of the obligor.

(xi) An asset identification report from a federal agency.

(B) A sworn declaration of the custodial parent during the 12 months immediately preceding the request that the person named in the request has had or may have had an account at an office or branch of the financial institution to which the request is made.

Information obtained by a district attorney pursuant to this subdivision shall be used only for purposes that are directly connected within the administration of the duties of the district attorney pursuant to Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 786. Section 12586 of the Government Code is amended to read:

12586. (a) Except as otherwise provided and except corporate trustees which are subject to the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of the State of California under Division 1 (commencing with Section 99) of the Financial Code or to the Comptroller of the Currency of the United States, every charitable corporation and trustee subject to this article shall, in addition to filing copies of the instruments previously required, file with the Attorney General periodic written reports, under oath, setting forth information as to the nature of the assets held for charitable purposes and the administration thereof by the corporation or trustee, in accordance with rules and regulations of the Attorney General.

(b) The Attorney General shall make rules and regulations as to the time for filing reports, the contents thereof, and the manner of executing and filing them. The Attorney General may classify trusts and other relationships concerning property held for a charitable purpose as to purpose, nature of assets, duration of the trust or other relationship, amount of assets, amounts to be devoted to charitable purposes, nature of trustee, or otherwise, and may establish different rules for the different classes as to time and nature of the reports required to the ends (1) that he or she shall receive reasonably current, periodic reports as to all charitable trusts or other relationships of a similar nature, which will enable him or her to ascertain whether they are being properly administered, and (2) that periodic reports shall not unreasonably add to the expense of the administration of charitable trusts and similar relationships. The Attorney General may suspend the filing of reports as to a particular charitable trust or relationship for a reasonable, specifically designated time upon written application of the trustee filed with the Attorney General and after the Attorney General has filed in the register of charitable trusts a written statement that the interests of the beneficiaries will not be prejudiced thereby and that periodic reports are not required for proper supervision by his or her office.

(c) A copy of an account filed by the trustee in any court having jurisdiction of the trust or other relationship, if the account substantially complies with the rules and regulations of the Attorney General, may be filed as a report required by this section.

(d) The first report for a trust or similar relationship hereafter established, unless the filing thereof is suspended as herein provided, shall be filed not later than four (4) months and fifteen (15) days following the close of the first calendar or fiscal year in which any part of the income or principal is authorized or required to be applied to a charitable purpose. If any part of the income or principal of a trust previously established is authorized or required to be applied to a charitable purpose at the time this article takes effect, the first report shall be filed at the close of the calendar or fiscal year in which it was registered with the Attorney General or not later than four (4) months and fifteen (15) days following the close of such calendar or fiscal period.

SEC. 787. Section 13975 of the Government Code is amended to read:

13975. The Business and Transportation Agency in state government is hereby renamed the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency. The agency consists of the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, the Department of the California Highway Patrol, the Department of Corporations, the Department of Housing and Community Development, the Department of Motor Vehicles, the Department of Real Estate, the Department of Transportation, the Department of Financial Institutions, the Stephen P. Teale Consolidated Data Center; and the California Housing Finance Agency is also located within the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency, as specified in Division 31 (commencing with Section 50000) of the Health and Safety Code.

SEC. 788. Section 53638 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53638. (a) The deposit shall not exceed the shareholder's equity of any depository bank. For the purposes of this subdivision, shareholder's equity shall be determined in accordance with Section 118 of the Financial Code, but shall be deemed to include capital notes and debentures.

(b) The deposit shall not exceed the total of the net worth of any depository savings association or federal association, except that deposits not exceeding a total of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) may be made to a savings association or federal association without regard to the net worth of that depository, if such deposits are insured or secured as required by law.

(c) The deposit to the share accounts of any regularly chartered credit union shall not exceed the total of the unimpaired capital and surplus of the credit union, as defined by rule of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions, except that the deposit to any credit union share account in an amount not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) may be made if the share accounts of that credit union are insured or guaranteed pursuant to Section 14858 of the Financial Code or are secured as required by law.

(d) The deposit in investment certificates of a federally insured industrial loan company shall not exceed the total of the unimpaired capital and surplus of the insured industrial loan company.

SEC. 789. Section 53661 of the Government Code is amended to read:

53661. (a) The Commissioner of Financial Institutions shall act as Administrator of Local Agency Security and shall be responsible for the administration of Sections 53638, 53651, 53651.2, 53651.4, 53651.6, 53652, 53654, 53655, 53656, 53657, 53658, 53659, 53660, 53661, 53663, 53664, 53665, 53666, and 53667.

(b) The administrator shall have the powers necessary or convenient to administer and enforce the sections specified in subdivision (a).

(c) (1) The administrator shall issue regulations consistent with law as the administrator may deem necessary or advisable in executing the powers, duties, and responsibilities assigned by this article. The regulations may include regulations prescribing standards for the valuation, marketability, and liquidity of the eligible securities of the class described in subdivision (m) of Section 53651, regulations prescribing procedures and documentation for adding, withdrawing, substituting, and holding pooled securities, and regulations prescribing the form, content, and execution of any application, report, or other document called for in any of the sections specified in subdivision (a) or in any regulation or order issued under any of those sections.

(2) The administrator, for good cause, may waive any provision of any regulation adopted pursuant to paragraph (1) or any order issued under this article, where the provision is not necessary in the public interest.

(d) The administrator may enter into any contracts or agreements as may be necessary, including joint underwriting agreements, to sell or liquidate eligible securities securing local agency deposits in the event of the failure of the depository or if the depository fails to pay all or part of the deposits of a local agency.

(e) The administrator shall require from every depository a report certified by the agent of depository listing all securities, and the market value thereof, which are securing local agency deposits together with the total deposits then secured by the pool, to determine whether there is compliance with Section 53652. These reports may be required whenever deemed necessary by the administrator, but shall be required at least four times each year at the times designated by the Comptroller of the Currency for reports from national banking associations. These reports shall be filed in the office of the administrator by the depository within 20 business days of the date the administrator calls for the report.

(f) The administrator may have access to reports of examination made by the Comptroller of the Currency insofar as the reports relate to national banking association trust department activities which are subject to this article.

(g) (1) The administrator shall require the immediate substitution of an eligible security, where the substitution is necessary for compliance with Section 53652, if (i) the administrator determines that a security listed in Section 53651 is not qualified to secure public deposits, or (ii) a treasurer, who has deposits secured by the securities pool, provides written notice to the administrator and the administrator confirms that a security in the pool is not qualified to secure public deposits.

(2) The failure of a depository to substitute securities, where the administrator has required the substitution, shall be reported by the administrator promptly to those treasurers having money on deposit in that depository and, in addition, shall be reported as follows:

(A) When that depository is a national bank, to the Comptroller of the Currency of the United States.

(B) When that depository is a state bank, to the Commissioner of Financial Institutions.

(C) When that depository is a federal association, to the Office of Thrift Supervision.

(D) When that depository is a savings association, to the Commissioner of Financial Institutions.

(E) When that depository is a federal credit union, to the National Credit Union Administration.

(F) When that depository is a state credit union or a federally insured industrial loan company, to the Commissioner of Financial Institutions.

(h) The administrator may require from each treasurer a registration report and at appropriate times a report stating the amount and location of each deposit together with other information deemed necessary by the administrator for effective operation of this article. The facts recited in any report from a treasurer to the administrator are conclusively presumed to be true for the single purpose of the administrator fulfilling responsibilities assigned to him or her by this article and for no other purpose.

(i) (1) If, after notice and opportunity for hearing, the administrator finds that any depository or agent of depository has violated or is violating, or that there is reasonable cause to believe that any depository or agent of depository is about to violate, any of the sections specified in subdivision (a) or any regulation or order issued under any of those sections, the administrator may order the depository or agent of depository to cease and desist from the violation or may by order suspend or revoke the authorization of the agent of depository. The order may require the depository or agent of depository to take affirmative action to correct any condition resulting from the violation.

(2) (A) If the administrator makes any of the findings set forth in paragraph (1) with respect to any depository or agent of depository and, in addition, finds that the violation or the continuation of the violation is likely to seriously prejudice the interests of treasurers, the administrator may order the depository or agent of depository to cease and desist from the violation or may suspend or revoke the authorization of the agent of depository. The order may require the depository or agent of depository to take affirmative action to correct any condition resulting from the violation.

(B) Within five business days after an order is issued under subparagraph (A), the depository or agent of depository may file with the administrator an application for a hearing on the order. The administrator shall schedule a hearing at least 30 days, but not more than 40 days, after receipt of an application for a hearing or within a shorter or longer period of time agreed to by a depository or an agent of depository. If the administrator fails to schedule the hearing within the specified or agreed to time period, the order shall be deemed rescinded. Within 30 days after the hearing, the administrator shall affirm, modify, or rescind the order; otherwise, the order shall be deemed rescinded. The right of a depository or agent of depository to which an order is issued under subparagraph (A) to petition for judicial review of the order shall not be affected by the failure of the depository or agent of depository to apply to the administrator for a hearing on the order pursuant to this subparagraph.

(3) Whenever the administrator issues a cease and desist order under paragraph (1) or (2), the administrator may in the order restrict the right of the depository to withdraw securities from a security pool; and, in that event, both the depository to which the order is directed and the agent of depository which holds the security pool shall comply with the restriction.

(4) In case the administrator issues an order under paragraph (1) or (2) suspending or revoking the authorization of an agent of depository, the administrator may order the agent of depository at its own expense to transfer all pooled securities held by it to such agent of depository as the administrator may designate in the order. The agent of depository designated in the order shall accept and hold the pooled securities in accordance with this article and regulations and orders issued under this article.

(j) In the discretion of the administrator, whenever it appears to the administrator that any person has violated or is violating, or that there is reasonable cause to believe that any person is about to violate, any of the sections specified in subdivision (a) or any regulation or order issued thereunder, the administrator may bring an action in the name of the people of the State of California in the superior court to enjoin the violation or to enforce compliance with those sections or any regulation or order issued thereunder. Upon a proper showing a permanent or preliminary injunction, restraining order, or writ of mandate shall be granted, and the court may not require the administrator to post a bond.

(k) In addition to other remedies, the administrator shall have the power and authority to impose the following sanctions for noncompliance with the sections specified in subdivision (a) after a hearing if requested by the party deemed in noncompliance. Any fine assessed pursuant to this subdivision shall be paid within 30 days after receipt of the assessment.

(1) Assess against and collect from a depository a fine not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each day the depository fails to maintain with the agent of depository securities as required by Section 53652.

(2) Assess against and collect from a depository a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) for each day beyond the time period specified in subdivision (b) of Section 53663 the depository negligently or willfully fails to file in the office of the administrator a written report required by that section.

(3) Assess against and collect from a depository a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) for each day beyond the time period specified in subdivision (e) that a depository negligently or willfully fails to file in the office of the administrator a written report required by that subdivision.

(4) Assess and collect from an agent of depository a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) for each day the agent of depository fails to comply with any of the applicable sections specified in subdivision (a) or any applicable regulation or order issued thereunder.

(l) (1) In the event that a depository or agent of depository fails to pay a fine assessed by the administrator pursuant to subdivision (k) within 30 days of receipt of the assessment, the administrator may assess and collect an additional penalty of 5 percent of the fine for each month or part thereof that the payment is delinquent.

(2) If a depository fails to pay the fines or penalties assessed by the administrator, the administrator may notify local agency treasurers with deposits in the depository.

(3) If an agent of depository fails to pay the fines or penalties assessed by the administrator, the administrator may notify local agency treasurers who have authorized the agent of depository as provided in Sections 53649 and 53656, and may by order revoke the authorization of the agent of depository as provided in subdivision (i).

SEC. 790. Section 35201 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

35201. If the commissioner takes possession of the property and business of any corporation he or she has the same powers and duties with respect to it as are conferred upon the Commissioner of Financial Institutions under Division 1 (commencing with Section 99) of the Financial Code with respect to banking institutions and the commissioner may liquidate the corporation pursuant to the Financial Code so far as it is applicable.

SEC. 791. Section 44559.2 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

44559.2. (a) The authority may contract with any financial institution for the purpose of allowing the financial institution to participate in the Capital Access Loan Program established by this article.

(b) For purposes of this section, the authority may contract with participating financial institutions and shall utilize a standard form of contract that is reviewed and approved by the Department of General Services. The standard form of contract shall provide for all of the following:

(1) The creation of a loss reserve account by the authority for the benefit of the financial institution.

(2) The financial institution, qualified business, and the authority will deposit moneys to the credit of the institution's loss reserve account when the financial institution makes a qualified loan to a qualified business.

(3) The liability of the state and the authority to the financial institution under the contract is limited to the amount of money credited to the loss reserve account of the institution.

(4) The financial institution shall provide the information that the authority may require, including financial information that is identifiable with, or identifiable from the financial records of a particular customer who is the recipient of a qualified loan. In addition to any other information that the authority may require, the financial institution shall provide the complete Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) code for the qualified business and information that provides the precise geographic location of both the qualified business and the borrower, if different.

(5) The financial institution will file a report with the executive director setting out a full description of the board of directors, including size, race, ethnicity, and gender.

(6) The participating financial institution will require each borrower, prior to receiving a loan under the program, to sign a written representation to the participating financial institution that the borrower has no legal, beneficial, or equitable interest in the nonrefundable premium charges or any other funds credited to the loss reserve account established by the authority for the participating financial institution.

(7) Other terms that the authority may require for purposes of this article.

(8) Any qualified business loan under the program that receives matching contributions from the Small Business Assistance Fund shall be to a business that has operations that affect the environment of the state by producing air, water, solid waste, or hazardous waste products or emissions, or otherwise affects the environment.

(c) A financial institution is not subject to laws restricting the disclosure of financial information when the financial institution provides information to the authority as required by paragraph (4) of subdivision (b).

(d) A credit union operating pursuant to a certificate issued under the California Credit Union Law (Division 5 (commencing with Section 14000) of the Financial Code) may participate in the Capital Access Loan Program established pursuant to this article only to the extent participation is in compliance with the California Credit Union Law. Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit the authority of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions to regulate credit unions subject to the commissioner's jurisdiction under the California Credit Union Law.

(e) Any individual, company, corporation, institution, utility, government agency, or other entity, including any consortium of these persons or entities, whether public or private, may participate in the Capital Access Loan Program established pursuant to this article by depositing funds in the California Capital Access Fund under those terms and conditions as may be deemed appropriate by the authority.

SEC. 792. Section 771 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

771. Sections 770 and 770.1 shall not prevent:

(a) The exercise by any person engaged in such business of his right to approve or disapprove, for reasonable cause, as determined by appropriate regulatory authority, of the insurer selected to underwrite the insurance, nor of his right to furnish such insurance or to renew any insurance required by the contract of sale or trust deed or other loan agreement if the borrower or purchaser shall have failed to furnish the insurance or renewal thereof within such reasonable time or form as may be specified in the sale or loan agreement. The lender shall not refuse to accept insurance provided by an acceptable insurer on the ground that such insurance provides more coverage than is required in the sale or loan agreement, unless the additional coverage consists of automobile, life or disability insurance.

The Commissioner of Financial Institutions and the Commissioner of Corporations, in conjunction with the Insurance Commissioner, shall issue appropriate regulations defining "reasonable cause."

(b) Any lender from recommending to any borrower or prospective borrower the placing of insurance with a specified insurer or through a specified insurance agent or broker as long as such recommendation, with respect to a sale of real property or a loan upon the security of real property, clearly sets forth both the name and the mailing address of the recommended insurer or insurance agent or broker and does not violate the provisions of Section 770 or of any other section of this code. On and after July 1, 1972, such recommendation clearly setting forth the name and the mailing address of the recommended insurer or insurance agent or broker, shall be in writing.

(c) The free choice of insurance agent or broker by any borrower or purchaser at any time, and he or she may revoke any designation of insurance agent or broker at any time irrespective of the provisions of any loan or purchase agreement or trust deed.

(d) The exercise of any person engaged in such business of his right to furnish such insurance or to renew such insurance, and to charge the account of the borrower or purchaser with the costs thereof, if the borrower or purchaser fails to deliver to the lender such insurance at least 30 days prior to the expiration of the policy. If an insurance policy renewing or replacing, at expiration time, the policy then in force is received by the lender less than 15 days prior to the expiration of the policy held by the lender, or if an insurance policy procured by the borrower or purchaser is subsequently substituted for that then in force, the lender may impose a reasonable service charge as determined by the Insurance Commissioner for the transaction, the payment of which charge by the agent or broker is not a violation of any other provision of this code. No service charges shall be imposed for normal insurance changes made during the term of the policy.

(e) The commissioner is authorized to adopt a uniform statewide schedule of permissive maximum charges for the substitution of policies authorized in subdivision (d).

SEC. 793. Section 12393 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12393. When such title insurer desires to do such a departmental business, it shall first obtain the consent of both the Commissioner of Financial Institutions and of the commissioner. In its application for such consent, it shall include a statement making a segregation of its capital and surplus for each such department. At least two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) of its capital shall be apportioned by such statement to its trust department. When such apportionment is approved by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions and by the commissioner, the part of such capital and surplus apportioned to each department shall be treated as the separate capital and surplus of each such department, as if each such department was a separate business.

SEC. 794. Section 12395 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12395. Such insurer, as to its trust department, shall be subject to and shall comply with all the requirements of the banking laws and rules and regulations of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of this state, and may invest its assets apportioned to its trust department, the accumulations therefrom, and trust funds received by it, in accordance with the laws of this state relative to the investment of funds of trust companies.

SEC. 795. Section 12524 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12524. Upon the segregation and assignment of each such security, copies of the appraisement and certificate shall be transmitted promptly to the commissioner and to the Commissioner of Financial Institutions. Each such copy of appraisement so transmitted shall bear an endorsement or certificate executed by the trustee of the trust in which each such security is held. Such certificate or endorsement shall set forth the unpaid amount of the unpaid principal named in the security which covers the property described in such appraisement.

SEC. 796. Section 12527 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12527. Every mortgage participation trust and the administration thereof shall at all times be and hereby is expressly made subject to the inspection, supervision and control of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions as fully and completely as if the same constituted a court trust under the provisions of the Banking Law (Division 1 (commencing with Section 99) of the Financial Code).

SEC. 797. Section 12581 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12581. Such appointment of appraiser shall not be valid or effective unless and until approved by both the commissioner and the Commissioner of Financial Institutions. Such appointment shall be revocable at any time by either the commissioner or the Commissioner of Financial Institutions should they or either of them consider said appointee incompetent or any appraisals made by said appointee improper, after a hearing upon due notice thereof first given to the appraiser and the appointing insurer.

SEC. 798. Section 12583 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12583. Such appraiser's report shall state whether such property is improved or productive and shall contain a general statement showing:

(a) The character of the property appraised.

(b) The purposes for which it is being used.

(c) The kind and condition of the improvements.

(d) The fair market value of each parcel of land and of the improvements thereon.

(e) Such other information as is ordered by the commissioner or the Commissioner of Financial Institutions.

SEC. 799. Section 12603 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

12603. Concurrently with the filing of the monthly report to the commissioner, a verified copy of such report, together with a copy of all appraisements filed therewith, shall be sent by the insurer to the Commissioner of Financial Institutions.

SEC. 800. Section 14022 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

14022. This chapter does not apply to:

(a) A person employed exclusively and regularly by one employer in connection with the affairs of such employer only and where there exists an employer-employee relationship.

(b) An officer or employee of the United States of America, or of this state or a political subdivision thereof, while such officer or employee is engaged in the performance of his or her official duties.

(c) A person engaged exclusively in the business of obtaining and furnishing information as to the financial rating of persons.

(d) A charitable philanthropic society or association duly incorporated under the laws of this state, which is organized and maintained for the public good and not for private profit.

(e) An attorney at law in performing his or her duties as such attorney at law.

(f) A licensed collection agency or an employee thereof while acting within the scope of his or her employment, while making an investigation incidental to the business of the agency, including an investigation of the location of a debtor or his or her property where the contract with an assignor creditor is for the collection of claims owed or due or asserted to be owed or due or the equivalent thereof.

(g) Admitted insurers and agents and insurance brokers licensed by the state, performing duties in connection with insurance transacted by them.

(h) The legal owner of personal property which has been sold under a conditional sales agreement or a mortgagee under the terms of a chattel mortgage.

(i) Any bank subject to the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of the State of California under Division 1 (commencing with Section 99) of the Financial Code or the Comptroller of the Currency of the United States.

(j) A person engaged solely in the business of securing information about persons or property from public records.

SEC. 800.1. Section 14022 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

14022. This chapter does not apply to:

(a) A person employed exclusively and regularly by one employer in connection with the affairs of such employer only and where there exists an employer- employee relationship.

(b) An officer or employee of the United States of America, or of this state or a political subdivision thereof, while such officer or employee is engaged in the performance of his or her official duties.

(c) A person engaged exclusively in the business of obtaining and furnishing information as to the financial rating of persons.

(d) A charitable philanthropic society or association duly incorporated under the laws of this state, which is organized and maintained for the public good and not for private profit.

(e) An attorney at law in performing his or her duties as such attorney at law.

(f) A licensed collection agency or an employee thereof while acting within the scope of his or her employment, while making an investigation incidental to the business of the agency, including an investigation of the location of a debtor or his or her property where the contract with an assignor creditor is for the collection of claims owed or due or asserted to be owed or due or the equivalent thereof.

(g) Admitted insurers and agents and insurance brokers licensed by the state, performing duties in connection with insurance transacted by them.

(h) The legal owner of personal property which has been sold under a conditional sales agreement or a mortgagee under the terms of a chattel mortgage.

(i) Any bank subject to the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of the State of California under Division 1 (commencing with Section 99) of the Financial Code or the Comptroller of the Currency of the United States.

(j) A person engaged solely in the business of securing information about persons or property from public records.

(k) Any building contractor, engineer, technical expert, or other person who is engaged by an insurer or licensed adjuster to provide an expert or professional evaluation of the extent, cause, or origin of damage to the insured property, but who does not otherwise participate in the process of adjusting claims.

SEC. 801. Section 14053 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

14053. In lieu of the surety bond required by this article there may be deposited with the State of California the sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000) in cash, or evidence of deposit of the sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000) in banks authorized to do business in this state and insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, or investment certificates or share accounts in the amount of two thousand dollars ($2,000) issued by a savings association doing business in this state and insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, or evidence of a certificate of funds or share account of the sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000) in a credit union, as defined in Section 14000 of the Financial Code, whose share deposits are guaranteed by the National Credit Union Administration or guaranteed by any other agency approved by the Department of Financial Institutions.

SEC. 802. Section 15036 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

15036. In lieu of the surety bond required by this chapter there may be deposited with the State of California the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) in cash, or evidence of deposit of the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) in banks authorized to do business in this state and insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, or investment certificates or share accounts in the amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000) issued by a savings association doing business in this state and insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, or evidence of a certificate of funds or share account of the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) in a credit union as defined in Section 14000 of the Financial Code whose share deposits are guaranteed by the National Credit Union Administration or guaranteed by any other agency approved by the Department of Financial Institutions.

SEC. 803. Section 830.11 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

830.11. (a) The following persons are not peace officers but may exercise the powers of arrest of a peace officer as specified in Section 836 and the power to serve warrants as specified in Sections 1523 and 1530 during the course and within the scope of their employment, if they receive a course in the exercise of those powers pursuant to Section 832. The authority and powers of the persons designated under this section shall extend to any place in the state:

(1) Persons employed by the Department of Financial Institutions designated by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions, provided that the primary duty of those persons shall be the enforcement of, and investigations relating to, the provisions of law administered by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions.

(2) Persons employed by the Department of Real Estate designated by the Real Estate Commissioner, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of the laws set forth in Part 1 (commencing with Section 10000) and Part 2 (commencing with Section 11000) of Division 4 of the Business and Professions Code. The Real Estate Commissioner may designate persons under this section, who at the time of their designation, are assigned to the Special Investigations Unit, internally known as the Crisis Response Team.

(3) Persons employed by the State Lands Commission designated by the executive officer, provided that the primary duty of those persons shall be the enforcement of the law relating to the duties of the State Lands Commission.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, persons designated pursuant to this section shall not carry firearms.

(c) Persons designated pursuant to this section shall be included as "peace officers of the state" under paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 11105 for the purpose of receiving state summary criminal history information and shall be furnished that information on the same basis as peace officers of the state designated in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 11105.

SEC. 803.1. Section 830.11 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

830.11. (a) The following persons are not peace officers but may exercise the powers of arrest of a peace officer as specified in Section 836 and the power to serve warrants as specified in Sections 1523 and 1530 during the course and within the scope of their employment, if they receive a course in the exercise of those powers pursuant to Section 832. The authority and powers of the persons designated under this section shall extend to any place in the state:

(1) Persons employed by the Department of Financial Institutions designated by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions, provided that the primary duty of those persons shall be the enforcement of, and investigations relating to, the provisions of law administered by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions.

(2) Persons employed by the Department of Real Estate designated by the Real Estate Commissioner, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of the laws set forth in Part 1 (commencing with Section 10000) and Part 2 (commencing with Section 11000) of Division 4 of the Business and Professions Code. The Real Estate Commissioner may designate persons under this section, who at the time of their designation, are assigned to the Special Investigations Unit, internally known as the Crisis Response Team.

(3) Persons employed by the State Lands Commission designated by the executive officer, provided that the primary duty of those persons shall be the enforcement of the law relating to the duties of the State Lands Commission.

(4) Persons employed by the Safety and Enforcement Division of the Public Utilities Commission who are designated by the Director of the Safety and Enforcement Division, and approved by the commission, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of the law as that duty is set forth in Section 308.5 of the Public Utilities Code.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, persons designated pursuant to this section shall not carry firearms.

(c) Persons designated pursuant to this section shall be included as "peace officers of the state" under paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 11105 for the purpose of receiving state summary criminal history information and shall be furnished that information on the same basis as peace officers of the state designated in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 11105.

SEC. 804. Section 25924 of the Public Resources Code is amended to read:

25924. (a) The commission shall convene one or more workshops with mortgage lenders, real estate licensees, home appraisers, home inspectors, energy utilities, energy service providers, and other appropriate parties to solicit recommendations on the implementation of the pilot program. The commission shall encourage those parties to participate in the pilot program.

(b) The commission shall consult, as needed, with the Department of Financial Institutions, the Department of Real Estate, and the Department of Housing and Community Development in carrying out this chapter.

SEC. 805. Section 408 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

408. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (b), (c), (d), and (e) any information and records in the assessor's office which are not required by law to be kept or prepared by the assessor, and homeowners' exemption claims, are not public documents and shall not be open to public inspection. Property receiving the homeowners' exemption shall be clearly identified on the assessment roll. The assessor shall maintain records which shall be open to public inspection to identify those claimants who have been granted the homeowners' exemption.

(b) The assessor may provide any appraisal data in his or her possession to the assessor of any county.

The assessor shall disclose information, furnish abstracts, or permit access to all records in his or her office to law enforcement agencies, the county grand jury, the board of supervisors or their duly authorized agents, employees or representatives when conducting an investigation of the assessor's office pursuant to Section 25303 of the Government Code, the Controller, employees of the Controller for property tax postponement purposes, probate referees, employees of the Franchise Tax Board for tax administration purposes only, staff appraisers of the Department of Financial Institutions, the Department of Transportation, the Department of General Services, the State Board of Equalization, the State Department of Social Services, and other duly authorized legislative or administrative bodies of the state pursuant to their authorization to examine the records. Whenever the assessor discloses information, furnishes abstracts, or permits access to records in his or her office to staff appraisers of the Department of Financial Institutions, the Department of Transportation, or the Department of General Services pursuant to this section, the department shall reimburse the assessor for any costs incurred as a result thereof.

(c) Upon the request of the tax collector, the assessor shall disclose and provide to the tax collector information used in the preparation of that portion of the unsecured roll for which the taxes thereon are delinquent. The tax collector shall certify to the assessor that he or she needs the information requested for the enforcement of the assessor's tax lien in collecting those delinquent taxes. Information requested by the tax collector may include social security numbers, and the assessor shall recover from the tax collector his or her actual and reasonable costs for providing the information. The tax collector shall add the costs described in the preceding sentence to the assessee's delinquent tax lien and collect those costs subject to subdivision (e) of Section 2922.

(d) The assessor shall, upon the request of an assessee or his or her designated representative, permit the assessee or representative to inspect or copy any market data in the assessor's possession. For purposes of this subdivision, "market data" means any information in the assessor's possession, whether or not required to be prepared or kept by him or her, relating to the sale of any property comparable to the property of the assessee, if the assessor bases his or her assessment of the assessee's property, in whole or in part, on that comparable sale or sales. The assessor shall provide the names of the seller and buyer of each property on which the comparison is based, the location of that property, the date of the sale, and the consideration paid for the property, whether paid in money or otherwise. However, for purposes of providing market data, the assessor shall not display any document relating to the business affairs or property of another.

(e) (1) With respect to information, documents, and records, other than market data as defined in subdivision (d), the assessor shall, upon request of an assessee of property, or his or her designated representative, permit the assessee or representative to inspect or copy all information, documents, and records, including auditors' narrations and workpapers, whether or not required to be kept or prepared by the assessor, relating to the appraisal and the assessment of the assessee's property, and any penalties and interest thereon.

(2) After enrolling an assessment, the assessor shall respond to a written request for information supporting the assessment, including, but not limited to, any appraisal and other data requested by the assessee.

(3) Except as provided in Section 408.1, an assessee, or his or her designated representative, shall not be permitted to inspect or copy information and records that also relate to the property or business affairs of another, unless that disclosure is ordered by a competent court in a proceeding initiated by a taxpayer seeking to challenge the legality of the assessment of his or her property.

(f) (1) Permission for the inspection or copying requested pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e) shall be granted as soon as reasonably possible to the assessee or his or her designated representative.

(2) If the assessee, or his or her designated representative, requests the assessor to make copies of any of the requested records, the assessee shall reimburse the assessor for the reasonable costs incurred in reproducing and providing the copies.

(3) If the assessor fails to permit the inspection or copying of materials or information as requested pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e) and the assessor introduces any requested materials or information at any assessment appeals board hearing, the assessee or his or her representative may request and shall be granted a continuance for a reasonable period of time. The continuance shall extend the two-year period specified in subdivision (c) of Section 1604 for a period of time equal to the period of continuance.

SEC. 805.1. Section 408 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

408. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (b), (c), (d), and (e) any information and records in the assessor's office which are not required by law to be kept or prepared by the assessor, and homeowners' exemption claims, are not public documents and shall not be open to public inspection. Property receiving the homeowners' exemption shall be clearly identified on the assessment roll. The assessor shall maintain records which shall be open to public inspection to identify those claimants who have been granted the homeowners' exemption.

(b) The assessor may provide any appraisal data in his or her possession to the assessor of any county.

The assessor shall disclose information, furnish abstracts, or permit access to all records in his or her office to law enforcement agencies, the county grand jury, the board of supervisors or their duly authorized agents, employees or representatives when conducting an investigation of the assessor's office pursuant to Section 25303 of the Government Code, the Controller, employees of the Controller for property tax postponement purposes, employees of the Franchise Tax Board for tax administration purposes only, staff appraisers of the Department of Financial Institutions, the Department of Transportation, the Department of General Services, the State Board of Equalization, the State Department of Social Services, and other duly authorized legislative or administrative bodies of the state pursuant to their authorization to examine the records. Whenever the assessor discloses information, furnishes abstracts, or permits access to records in his or her office to staff appraisers of the Department of Financial Institutions, the Department of Transportation, or the Department of General Services pursuant to this section, the department shall reimburse the assessor for any costs incurred as a result thereof.

(c) Upon the request of the tax collector, the assessor shall disclose and provide to the tax collector information used in the preparation of that portion of the unsecured roll for which the taxes thereon are delinquent. The tax collector shall certify to the assessor that he or she needs the information requested for the enforcement of the assessor's tax lien in collecting those delinquent taxes. Information requested by the tax collector may include social security numbers, and the assessor shall recover from the tax collector his or her actual and reasonable costs for providing the information. The tax collector shall add the costs described in the preceding sentence to the assessee's delinquent tax lien and collect those costs subject to subdivision (e) of Section 2922.

(d) The assessor shall, upon the request of an assessee or his or her designated representative, permit the assessee or representative to inspect or copy any market data in the assessor's possession. For purposes of this subdivision, "market data" means any information in the assessor's possession, whether or not required to be prepared or kept by him or her, relating to the sale of any property comparable to the property of the assessee, if the assessor bases his or her assessment of the assessee's property, in whole or in part, on that comparable sale or sales. The assessor shall provide the names of the seller and buyer of each property on which the comparison is based, the location of that property, the date of the sale, and the consideration paid for the property, whether paid in money or otherwise. However, for purposes of providing market data, the assessor shall not display any document relating to the business affairs or property of another.

(e) (1) With respect to information, documents, and records, other than market data as defined in subdivision (d), the assessor shall, upon request of an assessee of property, or his or her designated representative, permit the assessee or representative to inspect or copy all information, documents, and records, including auditors' narrations and workpapers, whether or not required to be kept or prepared by the assessor, relating to the appraisal and the assessment of the assessee's property, and any penalties and interest thereon.

(2) After enrolling an assessment, the assessor shall respond to a written request for information supporting the assessment, including, but not limited to, any appraisal and other data requested by the assessee.

(3) Except as provided in Section 408.1, an assessee, or his or her designated representative, shall not be permitted to inspect or copy information and records that also relate to the property or business affairs of another, unless that disclosure is ordered by a competent court in a proceeding initiated by a taxpayer seeking to challenge the legality of the assessment of his or her property.

(f) (1) Permission for the inspection or copying requested pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e) shall be granted as soon as reasonably possible to the assessee or his or her designated representative.

(2) If the assessee, or his or her designated representative, requests the assessor to make copies of any of the requested records, the assessee shall reimburse the assessor for the reasonable costs incurred in reproducing and providing the copies.

(3) If the assessor fails to permit the inspection or copying of materials or information as requested pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e) and the assessor introduces any requested materials or information at any assessment appeals board hearing, the assessee or his or her representative may request and shall be granted a continuance for a reasonable period of time. The continuance shall extend the two-year period specified in subdivision (c) of Section 1604 for a period of time equal to the period of continuance.

SEC. 805.2. Section 408 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

408. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (b), (c), (d), and (e) any information and records in the assessor's office that are not required by law to be kept or prepared by the assessor, and homeowners' exemption claims, are not public documents and shall not be open to public inspection. Property receiving the homeowners' exemption shall be clearly identified on the assessment roll. The assessor shall maintain records which shall be open to public inspection to identify those claimants who have been granted the homeowners' exemption.

(b) The assessor may provide any appraisal data in his or her possession to the assessor of any county.

The assessor shall disclose information, furnish abstracts, or permit access to all records in his or her office to law enforcement agencies, the county grand jury, the board of supervisors or their duly authorized agents, employees or representatives when conducting an investigation of the assessor's office pursuant to Section 25303 of the Government Code, the Controller, employees of the Controller for property tax postponement purposes, probate referees, employees of the Franchise Tax Board for tax administration purposes only, staff appraisers of the Department of Financial Institutions, the Department of Transportation, the Department of General Services, the State Board of Equalization, the State Department of Social Services, the Department of Water Resources, and other duly authorized legislative or administrative bodies of the state pursuant to their authorization to examine the records. Whenever the assessor discloses information, furnishes abstracts, or permits access to records in his or her office to staff appraisers of the Department of Financial Institutions, the Department of Transportation, or the Department of General Services, or the Department of Water Resources pursuant to this section, the department shall reimburse the assessor for any costs incurred as a result thereof.

(c) Upon the request of the tax collector, the assessor shall disclose and provide to the tax collector information used in the preparation of that portion of the unsecured roll for which the taxes thereon are delinquent. The tax collector shall certify to the assessor that he or she needs the information requested for the enforcement of the assessor's tax lien in collecting those delinquent taxes. Information requested by the tax collector may include social security numbers, and the assessor shall recover from the tax collector his or her actual and reasonable costs for providing the information. The tax collector shall add the costs described in the preceding sentence to the assessee's delinquent tax lien and collect those costs subject to subdivision (e) of Section 2922.

(d) The assessor shall, upon the request of an assessee or his or her designated representative, permit the assessee or representative to inspect or copy any market data in the assessor's possession. For purposes of this subdivision, "market data" means any information in the assessor's possession, whether or not required to be prepared or kept by him or her, relating to the sale of any property comparable to the property of the assessee, if the assessor bases his or her assessment of the assessee's property, in whole or in part, on that comparable sale or sales. The assessor shall provide the names of the seller and buyer of each property on which the comparison is based, the location of that property, the date of the sale, and the consideration paid for the property, whether paid in money or otherwise. However, for purposes of providing market data, the assessor shall not display any document relating to the business affairs or property of another.

(e) (1) With respect to information, documents, and records, other than market data as defined in subdivision (d), the assessor shall, upon request of an assessee of property, or his or her designated representative, permit the assessee or representative to inspect or copy all information, documents, and records, including auditors' narrations and workpapers, whether or not required to be kept or prepared by the assessor, relating to the appraisal and the assessment of the assessee's property, and any penalties and interest thereon.

(2) After enrolling an assessment, the assessor shall respond to a written request for information supporting the assessment, including, but not limited to, any appraisal and other data requested by the assessee.

(3) Except as provided in Section 408.1, an assessee, or his or her designated representative, shall not be permitted to inspect or copy information and records that also relate to the property or business affairs of another, unless that disclosure is ordered by a competent court in a proceeding initiated by a taxpayer seeking to challenge the legality of the assessment of his or her property.

(f) (1) Permission for the inspection or copying requested pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e) shall be granted as soon as reasonably possible to the assessee or his or her designated representative.

(2) If the assessee, or his or her designated representative, requests the assessor to make copies of any of the requested records, the assessee shall reimburse the assessor for the reasonable costs incurred in reproducing and providing the copies.

(3) If the assessor fails to permit the inspection or copying of materials or information as requested pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e) and the assessor introduces any requested materials or information at any assessment appeals board hearing, the assessee or his or her representative may request and shall be granted a continuance for a reasonable period of time. The continuance shall extend the two-year period specified in subdivision (c) of Section 1604 for a period of time equal to the period of continuance.

SEC. 805.3. Section 408 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

408. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (b), (c), (d), and (e) any information and records in the assessor's office that are not required by law to be kept or prepared by the assessor, and homeowners' exemption claims, are not public documents and shall not be open to public inspection. Property receiving the homeowners' exemption shall be clearly identified on the assessment roll. The assessor shall maintain records which shall be open to public inspection to identify those claimants who have been granted the homeowners' exemption.

(b) The assessor may provide any appraisal data in his or her possession to the assessor of any county.

The assessor shall disclose information, furnish abstracts, or permit access to all records in his or her office to law enforcement agencies, the county grand jury, the board of supervisors or their duly authorized agents, employees or representatives when conducting an investigation of the assessor's office pursuant to Section 25303 of the Government Code, the Controller, employees of the Controller for property tax postponement purposes, employees of the Franchise Tax Board for tax administration purposes only, staff appraisers of the Department of Savings and Loan, the Department of Transportation, the Department of General Services, the State Board of Equalization, the State Department of Social Services, the Department of Water Resources, and other duly authorized legislative or administrative bodies of the state pursuant to their authorization to examine the records. Whenever the assessor discloses information, furnishes abstracts, or permits access to records in his or her office to staff appraisers of the Department of Savings and Loan, the Department of Transportation, the Department of General Services, or the Department of Water Resources pursuant to this section, the department shall reimburse the assessor for any costs incurred as a result thereof.

(c) Upon the request of the tax collector, the assessor shall disclose and provide to the tax collector information used in the preparation of that portion of the unsecured roll for which the taxes thereon are delinquent. The tax collector shall certify to the assessor that he or she needs the information requested for the enforcement of the assessor's tax lien in collecting those delinquent taxes. Information requested by the tax collector may include social security numbers, and the assessor shall recover from the tax collector his or her actual and reasonable costs for providing the information. The tax collector shall add the costs described in the preceding sentence to the assessee's delinquent tax lien and collect those costs subject to subdivision (e) of Section 2922.

(d) The assessor shall, upon the request of an assessee or his or her designated representative, permit the assessee or representative to inspect or copy any market data in the assessor's possession. For purposes of this subdivision, "market data" means any information in the assessor's possession, whether or not required to be prepared or kept by him or her, relating to the sale of any property comparable to the property of the assessee, if the assessor bases his or her assessment of the assessee's property, in whole or in part, on that comparable sale or sales. The assessor shall provide the names of the seller and buyer of each property on which the comparison is based, the location of that property, the date of the sale, and the consideration paid for the property, whether paid in money or otherwise. However, for purposes of providing market data, the assessor shall not display any document relating to the business affairs or property of another.

(e) (1) With respect to information, documents, and records, other than market data as defined in subdivision (d), the assessor shall, upon request of an assessee of property, or his or her designated representative, permit the assessee or representative to inspect or copy all information, documents, and records, including auditors' narrations and workpapers, whether or not required to be kept or prepared by the assessor, relating to the appraisal and the assessment of the assessee's property, and any penalties and interest thereon.

(2) After enrolling an assessment, the assessor shall respond to a written request for information supporting the assessment, including, but not limited to, any appraisal and other data requested by the assessee.

(3) Except as provided in Section 408.1, an assessee, or his or her designated representative, shall not be permitted to inspect or copy information and records that also relate to the property or business affairs of another, unless that disclosure is ordered by a competent court in a proceeding initiated by a taxpayer seeking to challenge the legality of the assessment of his or her property.

(f) (1) Permission for the inspection or copying requested pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e) shall be granted as soon as reasonably possible to the assessee or his or her designated representative.

(2) If the assessee, or his or her designated representative, requests the assessor to make copies of any of the requested records, the assessee shall reimburse the assessor for the reasonable costs incurred in reproducing and providing the copies.

(3) If the assessor fails to permit the inspection or copying of materials or information as requested pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e) and the assessor introduces any requested materials or information at any assessment appeals board hearing, the assessee or his or her representative may request and shall be granted a continuance for a reasonable period of time. The continuance shall extend the two-year period specified in subdivision (c) of Section 1604 for a period of time equal to the period of continuance.

SEC. 805.4. Section 408 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

408. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (b), (c), (d), and (e) any information and records in the assessor's office that are not required by law to be kept or prepared by the assessor, and homeowners' exemption claims, are not public documents and shall not be open to public inspection. Property receiving the homeowners' exemption shall be clearly identified on the assessment roll. The assessor shall maintain records which shall be open to public inspection to identify those claimants who have been granted the homeowners' exemption.

(b) The assessor may provide any appraisal data in his or her possession to the assessor of any county.

The assessor shall disclose information, furnish abstracts, or permit access to all records in his or her office to law enforcement agencies, the county grand jury, the board of supervisors or their duly authorized agents, employees or representatives when conducting an investigation of the assessor's office pursuant to Section 25303 of the Government Code, the Controller, employees of the Controller for property tax postponement purposes, employees of the Franchise Tax Board for tax administration purposes only, staff appraisers of the Department of Financial Institutions, the Department of Transportation, the Department of General Services, the State Board of Equalization, the State Department of Social Services, the Department of Water Resources, and other duly authorized legislative or administrative bodies of the state pursuant to their authorization to examine the records. Whenever the assessor discloses information, furnishes abstracts, or permits access to records in his or her office to staff appraisers of the Department of Financial Institutions, the Department of Transportation, the Department of General Services, or the Department of Water Resources pursuant to this section, the department shall reimburse the assessor for any costs incurred as a result thereof.

(c) Upon the request of the tax collector, the assessor shall disclose and provide to the tax collector information used in the preparation of that portion of the unsecured roll for which the taxes thereon are delinquent. The tax collector shall certify to the assessor that he or she needs the information requested for the enforcement of the assessor's tax lien in collecting those delinquent taxes. Information requested by the tax collector may include social security numbers, and the assessor shall recover from the tax collector his or her actual and reasonable costs for providing the information. The tax collector shall add the costs described in the preceding sentence to the assessee's delinquent tax lien and collect those costs subject to subdivision (e) of Section 2922.

(d) The assessor shall, upon the request of an assessee or his or her designated representative, permit the assessee or representative to inspect or copy any market data in the assessor's possession. For purposes of this subdivision, "market data" means any information in the assessor's possession, whether or not required to be prepared or kept by him or her, relating to the sale of any property comparable to the property of the assessee, if the assessor bases his or her assessment of the assessee's property, in whole or in part, on that comparable sale or sales. The assessor shall provide the names of the seller and buyer of each property on which the comparison is based, the location of that property, the date of the sale, and the consideration paid for the property, whether paid in money or otherwise. However, for purposes of providing market data, the assessor shall not display any document relating to the business affairs or property of another.

(e) (1) With respect to information, documents, and records, other than market data as defined in subdivision (d), the assessor shall, upon request of an assessee of property, or his or her designated representative, permit the assessee or representative to inspect or copy all information, documents, and records, including auditors' narrations and workpapers, whether or not required to be kept or prepared by the assessor, relating to the appraisal and the assessment of the assessee's property, and any penalties and interest thereon.

(2) After enrolling an assessment, the assessor shall respond to a written request for information supporting the assessment, including, but not limited to, any appraisal and other data requested by the assessee.

(3) Except as provided in Section 408.1, an assessee, or his or her designated representative, shall not be permitted to inspect or copy information and records that also relate to the property or business affairs of another, unless that disclosure is ordered by a competent court in a proceeding initiated by a taxpayer seeking to challenge the legality of the assessment of his or her property.

(f) (1) Permission for the inspection or copying requested pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e) shall be granted as soon as reasonably possible to the assessee or his or her designated representative.

(2) If the assessee, or his or her designated representative, requests the assessor to make copies of any of the requested records, the assessee shall reimburse the assessor for the reasonable costs incurred in reproducing and providing the copies.

(3) If the assessor fails to permit the inspection or copying of materials or information as requested pursuant to subdivision (d) or (e) and the assessor introduces any requested materials or information at any assessment appeals board hearing, the assessee or his or her representative may request and shall be granted a continuance for a reasonable period of time. The continuance shall extend the two-year period specified in subdivision (c) of Section 1604 for a period of time equal to the period of continuance.

SEC. 806. Section 24370 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24370. There shall also be allowed as a deduction, under Chapter 2 of this part, in the case of a mutual savings bank, the entire amount of interest paid to depositors possessing no proprietary interest in the institution or in its surplus, and interest on their deposits to members possessing a proprietary interest in the institution or in its surplus at a rate determined by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions to be the going rate of interest upon savings deposits in this state during the calendar year preceding the taxable year, such rate to be certified by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions to the Franchise Tax Board on or before the first day of March of each year.

SEC. 807. Section 8851 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

8851. Upon the application of the legislative body or of any holder or other interested party, the Commissioner of Financial Institutions shall examine into the regularity of the issuance of bonds under this division and the sufficiency of the security provided for the payment thereof and if satisfied therewith he or she may certify the same as suitable for investment by savings banks and trustees whereupon the bonds may be used for investment of savings deposits and trust funds. The cost of any such examination may on approval of the legislative body be paid out of any surplus money in the redemption fund not required for the payment of the interest or principal of the bonds.

SEC. 808. Section 27154 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

27154. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of law, or any limitation or restriction contained in any law, the board may:

(a) Invest and reinvest all or any part of lapsed, unallocated, unappropriated or other surplus moneys belonging to any fund of which the board has custody or control in bonds and other obligations for which the faith and credit of the United States of America are pledged or in any obligation, bond or security approved by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions as legal for investment by savings banks. All such investments heretofore made are legalized.

(b) Use all or any part of lapsed, unallocated, unappropriated or other surplus or reserve moneys of the district for the refunding or partial refunding or purchase of any existing bonded indebtedness against the district.

The interest or income from any funds invested under this section may be made a part of the fund from which the investment was made and may itself be so invested.

Any investment previously made in bonds and other obligations for which the faith and credit of the United States of America are pledged or in any obligation, bond or security which under the Financial Code is legal for investment by savings banks is hereby validated and made legal investments for the purposes of this section, whether such bonds or obligations are negotiable or not.

SEC. 809. Section 30240 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

30240. The Commissioner of Financial Institutions may investigate and ascertain the status or sufficiency as investments for commercial banks in this state of any such bonds. If upon investigation it is determined in the Commissioner of Financial Institutions' opinion that such bonds constitute a proper investment for commercial banks, he or she shall so certify. The Commissioner of Financial Institutions may revoke any such certificate issued by him or her at any time in his or her discretion.

SEC. 810. Section 30241 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

30241. All bonds which have been issued by the commission pursuant to this chapter or its predecessor, and which have been first certified by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions, are legal investments for all trust funds, for the funds of all insurance companies, commercial and savings banks, and trust companies, and for state school funds.

SEC. 811. Section 31172 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

31172. The Commissioner of Financial Institutions may investigate and ascertain the status or sufficiency as investments for savings banks in this state of any such bonds. If upon investigation it is determined in his or her opinion that such bonds constitute a proper investment for savings banks, he or she shall so certify. The Commissioner of Financial Institutions may revoke any such certificate issued by him or her at any time in his or her discretion.

SEC. 812. Section 31173 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

31173. All bonds issued by the authority pursuant to this chapter, and which have been first certified by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions, are legal investments for all trust funds, for the funds of all insurance companies, commercial and savings banks, and trust companies, and for state school funds.

SEC. 813. On or before May 15, 1997, the State Banking Department shall report to the chairs of the legislative fiscal committees with respect to a detailed plan for the organization and functions of the new department created by this act. The report shall include, but not be limited to, a description of plans for the new Department of Financial Institutions relative to all of the following:

(a) Achieving cost efficiencies.

(b) Consolidating office space and management.

(c) Developing standards for measuring efficiency and performance of the Department of Financial Institutions.

SEC. 814. Except as provided in Section 813, this act shall become operative on July 1, 1997.

SEC. 815. Section 2.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 7522 of the Business and Professions Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1375. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 7522 of the Business and Professions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1375, in which case Section 7522 of the Business and Professions Code as amended by SB 1375, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 2.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 816. Section 3.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 7582.2 of the Business and Professions Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1375. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 7582.2 of the Business and Professions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1375, in which case Section 7582.2 of the Business and Professions Code, as amended by SB 1375, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 3.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 3 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 817. If (1) this bill and AB 1684 are both enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, and this bill is chaptered last and (2) each bill amends Section 14021 of the Corporations Code, Section 16 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 818. Section 17.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 14025 of the Corporations Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1684. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 14025 of the Corporations Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1684, in which case Section 14025 of the Corporations Code as amended by AB 1684, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 17.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 17 of this bill shall not become operative.

It shall become operative only if (1) this bill and AB 2465 are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) both bills amend Section 25100 of the Corporations Code, (3) SB 1729 does not amend Section 25100 of the Corporations Code, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 2465, in which case Section 25100 of the Corporations Code as amended by AB 2465 shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 18.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Sections 18, 18.2, 18.3, and 18.4 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 820. Section 18.2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 25100 of the Corporations Code proposed by this bill and SB 1729. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 25100 of the Corporations Code, (3) AB 2465 does not amend Section 25100 of the Corporations Code, and (4) this bill is enacted after SB 1729, in which case Section 25100 of the Corporations Code as amended by SB 1729, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 18.2 of this bill shall become operative, and Sections 18, 18.1, 18.3, and 18.4 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 821. Section 18.4 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 25100 of the Corporations Code proposed by this bill, AB 2465, and SB 1729. It shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 25100 of the Corporations Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2465 and SB 1729, in which case Section 18.3 of this bill, which incorporates amendments to Section 25100 of the Corporations Code proposed by AB 2465 and SB 1729, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 18.4 of this bill shall become operative, and Sections 18, 18.1, 18.2, and 18.3 of this bill shall not be operative.

SEC. 822. Section 27.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 180 of the Financial Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3012. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 180 of the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3012, in which case Section 180 of the Financial Code, as amended by AB 3012, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 27.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 27 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 823. Section 53.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 270 of the Financial Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2618. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 270 of the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2618, in which case Section 270 of the Financial Code, as amended by AB 2618, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 53.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 53 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 824. Section 55.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 271.5 of the Financial Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2618. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 271.5 of the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2618, in which case Section 271.5 of the Financial Code, as amended by AB 2618, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 55.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 55 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 825. Section 56.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 272 of the Financial Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3012. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 272 of the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3012, in which case Section 272 of the Financial Code as amended by AB 3012, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 56.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 56 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 826. Section 57.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 273 of the Financial Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3012. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 273 of the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3012, in which case Section 273 of the Financial Code as amended by AB 3012, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 57.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 57 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 827. Section 64.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 361 of the Financial Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3012. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 361 of the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3012, in which case Section 361 of the Financial Code, as amended by AB 3012, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 64.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 64 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 828. Section 65.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 362 of the Financial Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3012. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 362 of the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3012, in which case Section 362 of the Financial Code, as amended by AB 3012, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 65.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 65 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 829. Section 68.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 400 of the Financial Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3012. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 400 of the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3012, in which case Section 400 of the Financial Code, as amended by AB 3012, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 68.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 68 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 830. If (1) this bill and AB 3012 are both enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, and this bill is chaptered last and (2) AB 3012 repeals Section 508 of the Financial Code, Section 86 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 831. Section 87.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 510 of the Financial Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3012. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 510 of the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3012, in which case Section 510 of the Financial Code, as amended by AB 3012, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 87.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 87 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 832. Section 94.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 544 of the Financial Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3012. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 544 of the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3012, in which case Section 544 of the Financial Code, as amended by

AB 3012, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 94.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 94 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 833. Section 97.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 547 of the Financial Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3012. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 547 of the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3012, in which case Section 547 of the Financial Code, as amended by AB 3012, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 97.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 97 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 834. If (1) this bill and AB 3012 are both enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, and this bill is chaptered last and (2) each bill amends Section 551 of the Financial Code, Section 98 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 835. Section 99.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 552 of the Financial Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3012. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 552 of the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3012, in which case Section 552 of the Financial Code, as amended by AB 3012, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 99.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 99 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 836. If (1) this bill and AB 3012 are both enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, and this bill is chaptered last and (2) AB 3012 repeals Section 553 of the Financial Code, Section 100 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 837. If (1) this bill and AB 3012 are both enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, and this bill is chaptered last and (2) AB 3012 repeals Section 554 of the Financial Code, Section 101 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 838. If (1) this bill and AB 3012 are both enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, and this bill is chaptered last and (2) AB 3012 repeals Section 555 of the Financial Code, Section 102 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 839. If (1) this bill and AB 3012 are both enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, and this bill is chaptered last and (2) AB 3012 repeals Section 556 of the Financial Code, Section 103 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 840. Section 104.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 557 of the Financial Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3012. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 557 of the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3012, in which case Section 557 of the Financial Code, as amended by AB 3012, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 104.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 104 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 841. Section 105.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 558 of the Financial Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3012. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 558 of the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3012, in which case Section 558 of the Financial Code, as amended by AB 3012, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 105.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 105 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 897. Section 499.3 of this bill incorporates the addition of Section 4878.02 to the Financial Code proposed by AB 2618 and the amendment of Section 4878.02 proposed by this bill. It shall only become operative if (1) this bill and AB 2618 are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) AB 2618 adds Section 4878.02 to the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2618, in which case Section 4878.02 of the Financial Code, as added by AB 2618, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 499.3 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 898. Section 499.4 of this bill incorporates the addition of Section 4878.04 to the Financial Code proposed by AB 2618 and the amendment of Section 4878.04 proposed by this bill. It shall only become operative if (1) this bill and AB 2618 are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) AB 2618 adds Section 4878.04 to the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2618, in which case Section 4878.04 of the Financial Code, as added by AB 2618, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 499.4 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 899. Section 499.5 of this bill incorporates the addition of Section 4878.05 to the Financial Code proposed by AB 2618 and the amendment of Section 4878.05 proposed by this bill. It shall only become operative if (1) this bill and AB 2618 are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) AB 2618 adds Section 4878.05 to the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2618, in which case Section 4878.05 of the Financial Code, as added by AB 2618, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 499.5 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 900. Section 499.6 of this bill incorporates the addition of Section 4878.07 to the Financial Code proposed by AB 2618 and the amendment of Section 4878.07 proposed by this bill. It shall become operative if (1) this bill and AB 2618 are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) AB 2618 adds Section 4878.07 to the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2618, in which case Section 4878.07 of the Financial Code, as added by AB 2618, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 499.6 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 901. Section 504.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 4879.10 of the Financial Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2618. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 4879.10 of the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2618, in which case Section 4879.10 of the Financial Code, as amended by AB 2618, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 504.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 504 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 902. If (1) this bill and AB 2618 are both enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, and this bill is chaptered last and (2) AB 2618 repeals Section 4879.11 of the Financial Code, Section 505 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 903. Section 506.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 4879.12 of the Financial Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2618. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 4879.12 of the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2618, in which case Section 4879.12 of the Financial Code as amended by AB 2618, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 506.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 506 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 904. Section 507.2 of this bill incorporates the addition of Section 4879.135 to the Financial Code proposed by AB 2618 and the amendment of Section 4879.135 proposed by this bill. It shall only become operative if (1) this bill and AB 2618 are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) AB 2618 adds Section 4879.135 to the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2618, in which case Section 4878.135 of the Financial Code, as added by AB 2618, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 507.2 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 905. Section 509.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 4880 of the Financial Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2618. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 4880 of the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2618, in which case Section 4880 of the Financial Code, as amended by AB 2618, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 509.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 509 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 906. If (1) this bill and AB 2618 are both enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, and this bill is chaptered last and (2) AB 2618 repeals Section 4886 of the Financial Code, Section 514 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 907. Section 520.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 4895.05 of the Financial Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2618. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 4895.05 of the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2618, in which case Section 4895.05 of the Financial Code, as amended by AB 2618, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 520.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 520 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 908. Section 521.2 of this bill incorporates the addition of Section 4908.02 to the Financial Code proposed by AB 2618 and the amendment of Section 4908.02 proposed by this bill. It shall only become operative if (1) this bill and AB 2618 are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) AB 2618 adds Section 4908.02 to the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2618, in which case Section 4908.02 of the Financial Code, as added by AB 2618, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 521.2 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 909. Section 521.3 of this bill incorporates the addition of Section 4908.04 to the Financial Code proposed by AB 2618 and the amendment of Section 4908.04 proposed by this bill. It shall only become operative if (1) this bill and AB 2618 are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) AB 2618 adds Section 4908.04 to the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB

2618, in which case Section 4908.04 of the Financial Code, as added by AB 2618, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 521.3 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 910. Section 521.4 of this bill incorporates the addition of Section 4908.05 to the Financial Code proposed by AB 2618 and the amendment of Section 4908.05 proposed by this bill. It shall only become operative if (1) this bill and AB 2618 are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) AB 2618 adds Section 4908.05 to the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2618, in which case Section 4908.05 of the Financial Code, as added by AB 2618, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 521.4 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 911. Section 521.5 of this bill incorporates the addition of Section 4908.06 to the Financial Code proposed by AB 2618 and the amendment of Section 4908.06 proposed by this bill. It shall only become operative if (1) this bill and AB 2618 are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) AB 2618 adds Section 4908.06 to the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2618, in which case Section 4908.06 of the Financial Code, as added by AB 2618, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 521.5 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 912. Section 521.7 of this bill incorporates the addition of Section 4908.07 to the Financial Code proposed by AB 2618 and the amendment of Section 4908.07 proposed by this bill. It shall only become operative if (1) this bill and AB 2618 are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) AB 2618 adds Section 4908.07 to the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2618, in which case Section 4908.07 of the Financial Code, as added by AB 2618, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 521.7 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 913. Section 521.8 of this bill incorporates the addition of Section 4908.09 to the Financial Code proposed by AB 2618 and the amendment of Section 4908.09 proposed by this bill. It shall only become operative if (1) this bill and AB 2618 are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) AB 2618 adds Section 4908.09 to the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2618, in which case Section 4908.09 of the Financial Code, as added by AB 2618, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 521.8 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 914. If (1) this bill and AB 2618 are both enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, and this bill is chaptered last and (2) AB 2618 repeals Section 4926 of the Financial Code, Section 528 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 915. If (1) this bill and AB 2618 are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, and this bill is chaptered last, and (2) AB 2618 repeals Section 4947 of the Financial Code, Section 539 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 916. If (1) this bill and AB 2313 are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, and (2) AB 2313 amends Section 18427 of the Financial Code and this bill repeals Section 18427 of the Financial Code and is enacted last, Section 18427 of the Financial Code, as amended by AB 2313 shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 597 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 917. Section 616.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 18686 of the Financial Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2618. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 18686 of the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2618, in which case Section 18686 of the Financial Code, as amended by AB 2618, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 616.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 616 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 918. Section 736.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 33560 of the Financial Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3260. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 33560 of the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3260, in which case Section 33560 of the Financial Code, as amended by AB 3260, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 736.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 736 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 919. Section 741.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 33568 of the Financial Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3260. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 33568 of the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3260, in which case Section 33568 of the Financial Code, as amended by AB 3260, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 741.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 741 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 920. If (1) this bill and AB 3260 are both enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, and this bill is chaptered last and (2) AB 3260 repeals Section 33566 of the Financial Code, Section 740 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 921. Section 742.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 33600 of the Financial Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3012. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 33600 of the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3012, in which case Section 33600 of the Financial Code, as amended by AB 3012, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 742.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 742 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 922. If (1) this bill and AB 3012 are both enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, and this bill is chaptered last and (2) AB 3012 repeals Section 33760 of the Financial Code, Section 751 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 923. If (1) this bill and AB 3012 are both enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, and this bill is chaptered last and (2) AB 3012 repeals Section 33761 of the Financial Code, Section 752 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 924. If (1) this bill and AB 3012 are both enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, and this bill is chaptered last and (2) AB 3012 repeals Section 33762 of the Financial Code, Section 753 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 925. Section 758.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 33901 of the Financial Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3012. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 33901 of the Financial Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3012, in which case Section 33901 of the Financial Code, as amended by AB 3012, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 758.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 758 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 926. Section 782.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 7480 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1828. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 7480 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1828, in which case Section 7480 of the Government Code, as amended by SB 1828, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 782.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 782 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 927. Section 783.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 11121 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1497. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 11121 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1497, in which case Section 11121 of the Government Code, as amended by SB 1497, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 783.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 783 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 928. Section 785.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 11552 of the Government Code proposed by both this bill and SB 956. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends

Section 11552 of the Government Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 956, in which case Section 11552 of the Government Code, as amended by SB 956, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 785.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 785 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 929. If (1) this bill and SB 611 are both enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, and this bill is chaptered last and (2) SB 611 repeals Section 44559.2 of the Health and Safety Code, Section 791 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 930. If (1) this bill and AB 3012 are both enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, and this bill is chaptered last and (2) AB 3012 repeals Section 12393 of the Insurance Code, Section 793 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 931. If (1) this bill and AB 3012 are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, and this bill is chaptered last (2) and AB 3012 repeals Section 12395 of the Insurance Code, Section 794 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 932. If (1) this bill and SB 1862 are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, and this bill is chaptered last and (2) SB 1862 repeals Section 12603 of the Insurance Code, Section 799 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 933. Section 800.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 14022 of the Insurance Code proposed by both this bill and SB 876. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 14022 of the Insurance Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 876, in which case Section 14022 of the Insurance Code, as amended by SB 876, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 800.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 800 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 934. Section 803.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 830.11 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2713. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 830.11 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2713, in which case Section 830.11 of the Penal Code, as amended by AB 2713, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 803.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 803 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 935. If (1) this bill and SB 956 are both enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, and this bill is chaptered last and (2) SB 956 repeals Section 25924 of the Public Resources Code, Section 804 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 936. (a) Section 805.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 408 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2682. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 408 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, (3)

SB 1904 does not amend Section 408 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 2682, in which case Section 408 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by AB 2682, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 805.1 of this bill shall become operative, and Sections 805, 805.2, 805.3, and 805.4 of this bill shall not be operative. However, Section 805.1 of this bill shall not become operative if this bill and SB 1904 are enacted, become effective on or before January 1, 1997, and amend Section 408 of the Revenue and Taxation Code and if this bill is enacted after SB 1904.

(b) Section 805.2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 408 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1904. It shall become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 408 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, (3) AB 2682 does not amend Section 408 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (4) this bill is enacted after SB 1904, in which case Section 408 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by SB 1904, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 805.2 of this bill shall become operative, and Sections 805, 805.1, 805.3, and 805.4 of this bill shall not become operative. However, Section 805.2 of this bill shall not become operative if this bill and AB 2682 are enacted, become effective on or before January 1, 1997, and amend Section 408 of the Revenue and Taxation Code and if this bill is enacted after AB 2682.

(c) Sections 805.3 and 805.4 of this bill incorporate amendments to Section 408 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by this bill, AB 2682, and SB 1904. They shall become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 408 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2682 and SB 1904, in which case Section 408 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by SB 1904, shall remain operative only until the operative date of AB 2682, at which time Section 805.3 of this bill shall become operative, and remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 805.4 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 805, 805.1, 805.2, and 805.3 of this bill shall not be operative.

CHAPTER 1065

An act to amend Sections 830.7 and 830.11 of the Penal Code, and to add Sections 308.5 and 5322 to the Public Utilities Code, relating to public utilities.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1996. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1996.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature that the changes effected by this act shall serve only to define peace officers, the extent of their jurisdiction, and the nature and scope of their authority, powers and duties, and that there shall be no change in the status of individuals for purposes of retirement, workers' compensation or similar injury or death benefits, or other employee benefits.

SEC. 2. Section 830.7 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

830.7. The following persons are not peace officers but may exercise the powers of arrest of a peace officer as specified in Section 836 during the course and within the scope of their employment, if they successfully complete a course in the exercise of those powers pursuant to Section 832:

(a) Persons designated by a cemetery authority pursuant to Section 8325 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) Persons regularly employed as security officers for institutions of higher education, recognized under subdivision (a) of Section 94310.1 of the Education Code, if the institution has concluded a memorandum of understanding, permitting the exercise of that authority, with the sheriff or chief of police within whose jurisdiction the institution lies.

(c) Persons regularly employed as security officers for health facilities, as defined in Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, which are owned and operated by cities, counties, and cities and counties, if the facility has concluded a memorandum of understanding, permitting the exercise of that authority, with the sheriff or chief of police within whose jurisdictions the facility lies.

(d) Employees or classes of employees of the California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection designated by the Director of Forestry and Fire Protection, provided that the primary duty of the employee shall be the enforcement of the law as that duty is set forth in Section 4156 of the Public Resources Code.

(e) Persons regularly employed as inspectors, supervisors, or security officers for transit districts, as defined in Section 99213 of the Public Utilities Code, if the district has concluded a memorandum of understanding permitting the exercise of that authority, with, as applicable, the sheriff, chief of police, or California Highway Patrol within whose jurisdiction the district lies. For purposes of this subdivision, the exercise of peace officer authority may include the authority to remove a vehicle from a railroad right-of-way as set forth in Section 22656 of the Vehicle Code.

(f) Nonpeace officers regularly employed as county parole officers pursuant to Section 3089.

SEC. 2.5. Section 830.7 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

830.7. The following persons are not peace officers but may exercise the powers of arrest of a peace officer as specified in Section 836 during the course and within the scope of their employment, if they successfully complete a course in the exercise of those powers pursuant to Section 832:

(a) Persons designated by a cemetery authority pursuant to Section 8325 of the Health and Safety Code.

(b) Persons regularly employed as security officers for institutions of higher education, recognized under subdivision (a) of Section 94310.1 of the Education Code, if the institution has concluded a memorandum of understanding, permitting the exercise of that authority, with the sheriff or chief of police within whose jurisdiction the institution lies.

(c) Persons regularly employed as security officers for health facilities, as defined in Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, which are owned and operated by cities, counties, and cities and counties, if the facility has concluded a memorandum of understanding, permitting the exercise of that authority, with the sheriff or chief of police within whose jurisdictions the facility lies.

(d) Employees or classes of employees of the California Department of Forestry and Fire Protection designated by the Director of Forestry and Fire Protection, provided that the primary duty of the employee shall be the enforcement of the law as that duty is set forth in Section 4156 of the Public Resources Code.

(e) Persons regularly employed as inspectors, supervisors, or security officers for transit districts, as defined in Section 99213 of the Public Utilities Code, if the district has concluded a memorandum of understanding permitting the exercise of that authority, with, as applicable, the sheriff, chief of police, or California Highway Patrol within whose jurisdiction the district lies. For purposes of this subdivision, the exercise of peace officer authority may include the authority to remove a vehicle from a railroad right-of-way as set forth in Section 22656 of the Vehicle Code.

(f) Nonpeace officers regularly employed as county parole officers pursuant to Section 3089.

(g) Persons appointed by the Executive Director of the California Museum of Science and Industry pursuant to Section 4108 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

SEC. 3. Section 830.11 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

830.11. (a) The following persons are not peace officers but may exercise the powers of arrest of a peace officer as specified in Section 836 and the power to serve warrants as specified in Sections 1523 and 1530 during the course and within the scope of their employment, if they receive a course in the exercise of those powers pursuant to Section 832. The authority and powers of the persons designated under this section shall extend to any place in the state:

(1) Persons employed by the State Banking Department designated by the Superintendent of Banks, provided that the primary duty of those persons shall be the enforcement of, and investigations relating to, the provisions of law administered by the State Banking Department.

(2) Persons employed by the Department of Savings and Loan designated by the Commissioner of Savings and Loan, provided that the primary duty of those persons shall be the enforcement of, and investigations relating to, the provisions of law administered by the Department of Savings and Loan.

(3) Persons employed by the Department of Real Estate designated by the Real Estate Commissioner, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of the laws set forth in Part 1 (commencing with Section 10000) and Part 2 (commencing with Section 11000) of Division 4 of the Business and Professions Code. The Real Estate Commissioner may designate persons under this section, who at the time of their designation, are assigned to the Special Investigations Unit, internally known as the Crisis Response Team.

(4) Persons employed by the State Lands Commission designated by the executive officer, provided that the primary duty of those persons shall be the enforcement of the law relating to the duties of the State Lands Commission.

(5) Persons employed by the Safety and Enforcement Division of the Public Utilities Commission who are designated by the Director of the Safety and Enforcement Division, and approved by the commission, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of the law as that duty is set forth in Section 308.5 of the Public Utilities Code.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, persons designated pursuant to this section shall not carry firearms.

(c) Persons designated pursuant to this section shall be included as "peace officers of the state" under paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 11105 for the purpose of receiving state summary criminal history information and shall be furnished that information on the same basis as peace officers of the state designated in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 11105.

SEC. 3.1. Section 830.11 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

830.11. (a) The following persons are not peace officers but may exercise the powers of arrest of a peace officer as specified in Section 836 and the power to serve warrants as specified in Sections 1523 and 1530 during the course and within the scope of their employment, if they receive a course in the exercise of those powers pursuant to Section 832. The authority and powers of the persons designated under this section shall extend to any place in the state:

(1) Persons employed by the Department of Financial Institutions designated by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions, provided that the primary duty of those persons shall be the enforcement of, and investigations relating to, the provisions of law administered by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions.

(2) Persons employed by the Department of Real Estate designated by the Real Estate Commissioner, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of the laws set forth in Part 1 (commencing with Section 10000) and Part 2 (commencing with Section 11000) of Division 4 of the Business and Professions Code. The Real Estate Commissioner may designate persons under this section, who at the time of their designation, are assigned to the Special Investigations Unit, internally known as the Crisis Response Team.

(3) Persons employed by the State Lands Commission designated by the executive officer, provided that the primary duty of those persons shall be the enforcement of the law relating to the duties of the State Lands Commission.

(4) Persons employed by the Safety and Enforcement Division of the Public Utilities Commission who are designated by the Director of the Safety and Enforcement Division, and approved by the commission, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of the law as that duty is set forth in Section 308.5 of the Public Utilities Code.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, persons designated pursuant to this section shall not carry firearms.

(c) Persons designated pursuant to this section shall be included as "peace officers of the state" under paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 11105 for the purpose of receiving state summary criminal history information and shall be furnished that information on the same basis as peace officers of the state designated in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 11105.

SEC. 4. Section 308.5 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

308.5. Persons employed as investigators and investigator supervisors of the Safety and Enforcement Division of the commission who are designated by the Director of the Safety and Enforcement Division and approved by the commission have the authority of peace officers, as specified in paragraph (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 830.11 of the Penal Code, while engaged in exercising the powers granted to or performing the duties imposed upon them in investigating the laws administered by the commission or commencing directly or indirectly any criminal prosecution arising from any investigation conducted under these laws. All persons herein referred to shall be deemed to be acting within the scope of employment with respect to all acts and matters set forth in this section.

SEC. 5. Section 5322 is added to the Public Utilities Code, to read:

5322. (a) The Legislature finds and declares that advertisement and use of telephone service is essential for household goods carriers to obtain business and conduct intrastate moving services. The unlawful advertisement by unlicensed household goods carriers, has required properly licensed and regulated household goods carriers to compete with unlicensed household goods carriers using unfair business practices. Unlicensed household goods carriers have also exposed citizens of the State of California to unscrupulous persons who portray themselves as properly licensed, qualified, and insured household goods carriers. Many of these unlicensed household goods carriers have been found to have perpetrated acts of theft, fraud, and dishonesty upon unsuspecting citizens of the State of California.

(b) The Legislature finds and declares that the termination of telephone service utilized by unlicensed household goods carriers is essential to ensure the public safety and welfare. Therefore, the commission should take enforcement action as specified in this section to disconnect telephone service of unlicensed household goods carriers who unlawfully advertise moving services in yellow page directories, and other publications. The enforcement action provided in this section is consistent with the decision of the Supreme Court of the State of California in Goldin, et al. v. Public Utilities Commission et al., 23 Cal. 3d 638.

(c) Any telephone utility operating under the jurisdiction of the commission shall refuse telephone service to a new customer and shall disconnect telephone service of an existing customer only after it is shown that other available enforcement remedies of the commission have failed to terminate unlawful activities detrimental to the public welfare and safety, and upon receipt from any authorized official of the commission of a writing, signed by a magistrate, as defined by Sections 807 and 808 of the Penal Code, finding that probable cause exists to believe that the customer is advertising or holding out to the public to perform, or is performing, household goods carrier services without having in force a permit issued by the commission authorizing those services, or that the telephone service is otherwise being used or is to be used as an instrumentality, directly or indirectly, to violate or to assist in violation of the laws requiring a household goods carrier permit. Included in the writing of the magistrate shall be a finding that there is probable cause to believe that the subject telephone facilities have been or are to be used in the commission or facilitation of holding out to the public to perform, or in performing, household goods carrier services without having in force a permit issued by the commission authorizing those service, and that, absent immediate and summary action, a danger to public welfare or safety will result.

(d) Any person aggrieved by any action taken pursuant to this section shall have the right to file a complaint with the commission and may include therein a request for interim relief. The commission shall schedule a public hearing on the complaint to be held within 21 calendar days of the filing and assignment of a docket number to the complaint. The remedy provided by this section shall be exclusive. No other action at law or in equity shall accrue against any telephone utility because of, or as a result of, any matter or thing done or threatened to be done pursuant to the provisions of this section.

(e) At any hearing on complaint pursuant to subdivision (d), the commission staff shall have the right to participate, including the right to present evidence and argument and to present and cross-examine witnesses. The commission staff shall have both the burden of providing that the use made or to be made of the telephone service is to hold out to the public to perform, or to assist in performing, services as a household goods carrier, or that the telephone service is being or is to be used as an instrumentality, directly or indirectly, to violate or to assist in violation of the licensing laws as applicable to household goods carriers and that the character of the acts is such that, absent immediate and summary action, a danger to public welfare or safety will result, and the burden of persuading the commission that the telephone services should be refused or should not be restored.

(f) The telephone utility immediately upon refusal or disconnection of service in accordance with subdivision (c), shall notify the customer or subscriber in writing that the refusal or disconnection of telephone service has been made pursuant to a request of the commission and the writing of a magistrate, and shall include with the notice of a copy of this section, a copy of the writing of the magistrate, and a statement that the customer or subscriber may request information from the commission at its San Francisco or Los Angeles office concerning any provision of this section and the manner in which a complaint may be filed.

(g) Each contract for telephone service, by operation of law, shall be deemed to contain the provisions of this section. The provisions shall be deemed to be a part of any application for telephone service. Applicants and customers for telephone service shall be deemed to have consented to the provisions of this section as a consideration for the furnishing of the service.

(h) The terms "person," "customer," and "subscriber" as used in this section, include a subscriber to telephone service, an applicant for that service, a corporation, a company, a partnership, an association, and an individual.

(i) The term "telephone utility," as used in this section, includes a "telephone corporation" and a "telegraph corporation," as defined in Division 1 (commencing with Section 201).

(j) The term "authorized official" as used in this section shall include the Director of the Safety and Enforcement Division of the Public Utilities Commission or any commission employee designated pursuant to paragraph (5) of subdivision (a) of Section 830.11 of the Penal Code.

SEC. 6. Section 2.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 830.7 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1205. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 830.7 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1205, in which case Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 7. Section 3.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 830.11 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3351. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, but this bill becomes operative first, (2) each bill amends Section 830.11 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3351, in which case Section 830.11 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 3 of this bill, shall remain operative only until the operative date of AB 3351, at which time Section 3.1 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 8. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1066

An act to amend Section 830.11 of the Penal Code, relating to peace officers.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1996. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1996.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 830.11 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

830.11. (a) The following persons are not peace officers but may exercise the powers of arrest of a peace officer as specified in Section 836 and the power to serve warrants as specified in Sections 1523 and 1530 during the course and within the scope of their employment, if they receive a course in the exercise of those powers pursuant to Section 832. The authority and powers of the persons designated under this section shall extend to any place in the state:

(1) Persons employed by the State Banking Department designated by the Superintendent of Banks, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of, and investigations relating to, the provisions of law administered by the State Banking Department.

(2) Persons employed by the Department of Savings and Loan designated by the Commissioner of Savings and Loan, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of, and investigations relating to, the provisions of law administered by the Department of Savings and Loan.

(3) Persons employed by the Department of Real Estate designated by the Real Estate Commissioner, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of the laws set forth in Part 1 (commencing with Section 10000) and Part 2 (commencing with Section 11000) of Division 4 of the Business and Professions Code. The Real Estate Commissioner may designate persons under this section, who at the time of their designation, are assigned to the Special Investigations Unit, internally known as the Crisis Response Team.

(4) Persons employed by the State Lands Commission designated by the executive officer, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of the law relating to the duties of the State Lands Commission.

(5) Persons employed as investigators of the Investigations Bureau of the Department of Insurance, who are designated by the Chief of the Investigations Bureau, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of the Insurance Code and other laws relating to persons and businesses, licensed and unlicensed by the Department of Insurance, who are engaged in the business of insurance.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, persons designated pursuant to this section shall not carry firearms.

(c) Persons designated pursuant to this section shall be included as "peace officers of the state" under paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 11105 for the purpose of receiving state summary criminal history information and shall be furnished that information on the same basis as peace officers of the state designated in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 11105.

SEC. 1.1. Section 830.11 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

830.11. (a) The following persons are not peace officers but may exercise the powers of arrest of a peace officer as specified in Section 836 and the power to serve warrants as specified in Sections 1523 and 1530 during the course and within the scope of their employment, if they receive a course in the exercise of those powers pursuant to Section 832. The authority and powers of the persons designated under this section shall extend to any place in the state:

(1) Persons employed by the State Banking Department designated by the Superintendent of Banks, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of, and investigations relating to, the provisions of law administered by the State Banking Department.

(3) Persons employed by the Department of Real Estate designated by the Real Estate Commissioner, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of the laws set forth in Part 1 (commencing with Section 10000) and Part 2 (commencing with Section 11000) of Division 4 of the Business and Professions Code. The Real Estate Commissioner may designate persons under this section, who at the time of their designation, are assigned to the Special Investigations Unit, internally known as the Crisis Response Team.

(4) Persons employed by the State Lands Commission designated by the executive officer, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of the law relating to the duties of the State Lands Commission.

(5) Persons employed as investigators of the Investigations Bureau of the Department of Insurance, who are designated by the Chief of the Investigations Bureau, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of the Insurance Code and other laws relating to persons and businesses, licensed and unlicensed by the Department of Insurance, who are engaged in the business of insurance.

(6) Persons employed by the Safety and Enforcement Division of the Public Utilities Commission who are designated by the Director of the Safety and Enforcement Division, and approved by the commission, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of the law as that duty is set forth in Section 308.5 of the Public Utilities Code.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, persons designated pursuant to this section shall not carry firearms.

(c) Persons designated pursuant to this section shall be included as "peace officers of the state" under paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 11105 for the purpose of receiving state summary criminal history information and shall be furnished that information on the same basis as peace officers of the state designated in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 11105.

SEC. 1.2. Section 830.11 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

830.11. (a) The following persons are not peace officers but may exercise the powers of arrest of a peace officer as specified in Section 836 and the power to serve warrants as specified in Sections 1523 and 1530 during the course and within the scope of their employment, if they receive a course in the exercise of those powers pursuant to Section 832. The authority and powers of the persons designated under this section shall extend to any place in the state:

(1) Persons employed by the Department of Financial Institutions designated by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of, and investigations relating to, the provisions of law administered by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions.

(2) Persons employed by the Department of Real Estate designated by the Real Estate Commissioner, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of the laws set forth in Part 1 (commencing with Section 10000) and Part 2 (commencing with Section 11000) of Division 4 of the Business and Professions Code. The Real Estate Commissioner may designate persons under this section, who at the time of their designation, are assigned to the Special Investigations Unit, internally known as the Crisis Response Team.

(3) Persons employed by the State Lands Commission designated by the executive officer, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of the law relating to the duties of the State Lands Commission.

(4) Persons employed as investigators of the Investigations Bureau of the Department of Insurance, who are designated by the Chief of the Investigations Bureau, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of the Insurance Code and other laws relating to persons and businesses, licensed and unlicensed by the Department of Insurance, who are engaged in the business of insurance.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, persons designated pursuant to this section shall not carry firearms.

(c) Persons designated pursuant to this section shall be included as "peace officers of the state" under paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 11105 for the purpose of receiving state summary criminal history information and shall be furnished that information on the same basis as peace officers of the state designated in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 11105.

SEC. 1.3. Section 830.11 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

830.11. (a) The following persons are not peace officers but may exercise the powers of arrest of a peace officer as specified in Section 836 and the power to serve warrants as specified in Sections 1523 and 1530 during the course and within the scope of their employment, if they receive a course in the exercise of those powers pursuant to Section 832. The authority and powers of the persons designated under this section shall extend to any place in the state:

(1) Persons employed by the Department of Financial Institutions designated by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of, and investigations relating to, the provisions of law administered by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions.

(2) Persons employed by the Department of Real Estate designated by the Real Estate Commissioner, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of the laws set forth in Part 1 (commencing with Section 10000) and Part 2 (commencing with Section 11000) of Division 4 of the Business and Professions Code. The Real Estate Commissioner may designate persons under this section, who at the time of their designation, are assigned to the Special Investigations Unit, internally known as the Crisis Response Team.

(3) Persons employed by the State Lands Commission designated by the executive officer, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of the law relating to the duties of the State Lands Commission.

(4) Persons employed as investigators of the Investigations Bureau of the Department of Insurance, who are designated by the Chief of the Investigations Bureau, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of the Insurance Code and other laws relating to persons and businesses, licensed and unlicensed by the Department of Insurance, who are engaged in the business of insurance.

(5) Persons employed by the Safety and Enforcement Division of the Public Utilities Commission who are designated by the Director of the Safety and Enforcement Division, and approved by the commission, provided that the primary duty of these persons shall be the enforcement of the law as that duty is set forth in Section 308.5 of the Public Utilities Code.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, persons designated pursuant to this section shall not carry firearms.

(c) Persons designated pursuant to this section shall be included as "peace officers of the state" under paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 11105 for the purpose of receiving state summary criminal history information and shall be furnished that information on the same basis as peace officers of the state designated in paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of Section 11105.

SEC. 2. (a) Section 1.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 830.11 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2713. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 830.11 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 3351 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 2713, in which case Sections 1, 1.2, and 1.3 of this bill shall not become operative.

(b) Section 1.2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 830.11 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3351. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, but this bill becomes operative first, (2) each bill amends Section 830.11 of the Penal Code, (3) AB 2713 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 3351, in which case Section 830.11 of the Penal Code as amended by Section 1 of this bill shall remain operative only until the operative date of AB 3351, at which time Section 1.2 of this bill shall become operative, and Sections 1.1 and 1.3 of this bill shall not become operative.

(c) Section 1.3 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 830.11 of the Penal Code proposed by this bill, AB 2713, and AB 3351. It shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, but this bill and AB

2713 become operative first, (2) all three bills amend Section 830.11 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2713 and AB 3351, in which case Section 830.11 of the Penal Code as amended by Section 1.1 of this bill shall remain operative only until the operative date of AB 3351, at which time Section 1.3 of this bill shall become operative, and Sections 1 and 1.2 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1067

An act to amend Section 44262 of, and to add Sections 8208, 8244, 8360, 8360.1, 8363, and 44254 to, the Education Code, relating to teaching credentials.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1996. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1996.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8208 of the Education Code, as amended by Chapter 204 of the Statutes of 1996, is amended to read:

8208. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Alternative payments" includes payments that are made by one child care agency to another agency or child care provider for the provision of child care and development services, and payments that are made by an agency to a parent for the parent's purchase of child care and development services.

(b) "Applicant or contracting agency" means a school district, community college district, college or university, county superintendent of schools, county, city, public agency, private non-tax-exempt agency, private tax-exempt agency, or other entity that is authorized to establish, maintain, or operate services pursuant to this chapter. Private agencies and parent cooperatives, duly licensed by law, shall receive the same consideration as any other authorized entity with no loss of parental decisionmaking prerogatives as consistent with the provisions of this chapter.

(c) "Assigned reimbursement rate" is that rate established by the contract with the agency and is derived by dividing the total dollar amount of the contract by the minimum child day of average daily enrollment level of service required.

(d) "Attendance" means the number of children present at a child care and development facility. "Attendance," for the purposes of reimbursement, includes excused absences by children because of illness, quarantine, illness or quarantine of their parent, family emergency, or to spend time with a parent or other relative as required by a court of law or that is clearly in the best interest of the child.

(e) "Capital outlay" means the amount paid for the renovation and repair of child care and development facilities to comply with state and local health and safety standards, and the amount paid for the state purchase of relocatable child care and development facilities for lease to qualifying contracting agencies.

(f) "Caregiver" means a person who provides direct care, supervision, and guidance to children in a child care and development facility.

(g) "Child care and development facility" means any residence or building or part thereof in which child care and development services are provided.

(h) "Child care and development programs" means those programs that offer a full range of services for children from infancy to 14 years of age, for any part of a day, by a public or private agency, in centers and family child care homes. These programs include, but are not limited to, all of the following:

(1) Campus child care and development.
(2) General child care and development.
(3) Intergenerational child care and development.
(4) Migrant child care and development.
(5) Schoolage parenting and infant development.
(6) State preschool.
(7) Resource and referral.
(8) Severely handicapped.
(9) Family day care.
(10) Alternative payment.
(11) Child abuse protection and prevention services.
(12) Schoolage community child care.

(i) "Child care and development services" means those services designed to meet a wide variety of needs of children and their families, while their parents or guardians are working, in training, seeking employment, incapacitated, or in need of respite. These services include direct care and supervision, instructional activities, resource and referral programs, and alternative payment arrangements.

(j) "Children at risk of abuse, neglect, or exploitation" means children who are so identified in a written referral from a legal, medical, or social service agency, or emergency shelter.

(k) "Children with exceptional needs" means children who have been determined to be eligible for special education and related services by an individualized education program team according to the special education requirements contained in Part 30 (commencing with Section 56000), and meeting eligibility criteria described in Section 56026 and Sections 56333 to 56338, inclusive, and Sections 3030 and 3031 of Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations. These children have an active individualized education program, and are receiving appropriate special education and services, unless they are under three years of age and permissive special education programs are available. These children may be mentally retarded, hard of hearing, deaf, speech impaired, visually handicapped, seriously emotionally disturbed, orthopedically impaired, other health impaired, deaf-blind, multihandicapped, or children with specific learning disabilities, who require the special attention of adults in a child care setting.

(l) "Children with special needs" includes infants and toddlers under the age of three years; limited-English-speaking-proficient children; children with exceptional needs; limited-English-proficient handicapped children; and children at risk of neglect, abuse, or exploitation.

(m) "Closedown costs" means reimbursements for all approved activities associated with the closing of operations at the end of each growing season for migrant child development programs only.

(n) "Cost" includes, but is not limited to, expenditures that are related to the operation of child development programs. "Cost" may include a reasonable amount for state and local contributions to employee benefits, including approved retirement programs, agency administration, and any other reasonable program operational costs. "Reasonable and necessary costs" are costs that, in nature and amount, do not exceed what an ordinary prudent person would incur in the conduct of a competitive business.

(o) "Elementary school," as contained in Section 425 of Title 20 of the United States Code (the National Defense Education Act of 1958, Public Law 85-864, as amended), includes early childhood education programs and all child development programs, for the purpose of the cancellation provisions of loans to students in institutions of higher learning.

(p) "Health services" includes, but is not limited to, all of the following:

(1) Referral, whenever possible, to appropriate health care providers able to provide continuity of medical care.

(2) Health screening and health treatment, including a full range of immunization recorded on the appropriate state immunization form to the extent provided by the Medi-Cal Act (Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 14000) of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code) and the Child Health and Disability Prevention Program (Article 3.4 (commencing with Section 320) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 1 of the Health and Safety Code), but only to the extent that ongoing care cannot be obtained utilizing community resources.

(3) Health education and training for children, parents, staff, and providers.

(4) Followup treatment through referral to appropriate health care agencies or individual health care professionals.

(q) "Higher educational institutions" means the Regents of the University of California, the Trustees of the California State University, the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges, and the governing bodies of any accredited private nonprofit institution of postsecondary education.

(r) "Intergenerational staff" means persons of various generations.

(s) "Limited-English-speaking-proficient and non-English-speaking-proficient children" means children who are unable to benefit fully from an English-only child care and development program as a result of either of the following:

(1) Having used a language other than English when they first began to speak.

(2) Having a language other than English predominantly or exclusively spoken at home.

(t) "Parent" means any person living with a child who has responsibility for the care and welfare of the child.

(u) "Program director" means a person who, pursuant to Sections 8244 and 8360.1, is qualified to serve as a program director.

(v) "Proprietary child care agency" means an organization or facility providing child care, which is operated for profit.

(w) "Resource and referral programs" means programs that provide information to parents, including referrals and coordination of community resources for parents and public or private providers of care. Services frequently include, but are not limited to: technical assistance for providers, toy-lending libraries, equipment-lending libraries, toy- and equipment-lending libraries, staff development programs, health and nutrition education, and referrals to social services.

(x) "Severely handicapped children" are children who require instruction and training in programs serving pupils with the following profound disabilities: autism, blindness, deafness, severe orthopedic impairments, serious emotional disturbance, or severe mental retardation. These children, ages birth to 21 years, inclusive, may be assessed by public school special education staff, regional center staff, or another appropriately licensed clinical professional.

(y) "Short-term respite child care" means child care service to assist families whose children have been identified through written referral from a legal, medical, or social service agency, or emergency shelter as being neglected, abused, exploited, or homeless, or a at risk of being neglected, abused, exploited, or homeless. Child care is provided for less than 24 hours per day in child care centers, treatment centers for abusive parents, family child care homes, or in the child's own home.

(z) (1) "Site supervisor" means a person who, regardless of his or her title, has operational program responsibility for a child care and development program at a single site. A site supervisor shall hold a permit issued by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing that authorizes supervision of a child care and development program operating in a single site. The Superintendent of Public Instruction may waive the requirements of this subdivision if the superintendent determines that the existence of compelling need is appropriately documented.

(2) In respect to state preschool programs, a site supervisor may qualify under any of the provisions in this subdivision, or may qualify by holding an administrative credential or an administrative services credential. A person who meets the qualifications of a site supervisor under both Section 8244 and subdivision (e) of Section 8360.1 is also qualified under this subdivision.

(aa) "Standard reimbursement rate" means that rate established by the Superintendent of Public Instruction pursuant to Section 8265.

(bb) "Startup costs" means those expenses an agency incurs in the process of opening a new or additional facility prior to the full enrollment of children.

(cc) "State preschool services" means part-day educational programs for low-income or otherwise disadvantaged prekindergarten-age children.

(dd) "Support services" means those services which, when combined with child care and development services, help promote the healthy physical, mental, social, and emotional growth of children. Support services include, but are not limited to: protective services, parent training, provider and staff training, transportation, parent and child counseling, child development resource and referral services, and child placement counseling.

(ee) "Teacher" means a person with the appropriate permit issued by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing who provides program supervision and instruction which includes supervision of a number of aides, volunteers, and groups of children.

(ff) "Workday" means the time that the parent requires temporary care for a child for any of the following reasons:

(1) To undertake training in preparation for a job.

(2) To undertake or retain a job.

(3) To undertake other activities that are essential to maintaining or improving the social and economic function of the family, are beneficial to the community, or are required because of health problems in the family.

SEC. 2. Section 8244 of the Education Code is amended to read:

8244. (a) (1) Any entity operating child care and development programs funded pursuant to this chapter that provide direct services to children at two or more sites, including through more than one contract or subcontract funded pursuant to this chapter, shall employ a program director.

(2) Programs providing direct services to children, for the purposes of this section, are general child care and development programs pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 8240), migrant child care and development programs pursuant to Article 6 (commencing with Section 8230), campus child care and development programs pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 8225), state preschool programs pursuant to Article 7

(commencing with Section 8235), child care and development services for children with special needs programs pursuant to Article 9 (commencing with Section 8250), infant care and development services programs pursuant to Article 17 (commencing with Section 8390), and any of these programs operated through family child care homes.

(b) (1) For purposes of this section, the following definitions shall apply:

(A) "Administrative responsibility" means awareness of the financial and business circumstances of the program, and, in appropriate cases, supervision of administrative and support personnel and the knowledge and authority to direct or modify administrative practices and procedures to ensure compliance to administrative and financial standards imposed by law.

(B) "Program director" means a person who, regardless of his or her title, has programmatic and administrative responsibility for a child care and development program that provides direct services to children at two or more sites.

(C) "Programmatic responsibility" means overall supervision of curriculum and instructional staff, including instructional aides, and the knowledge and authority to direct or modify program practices and procedures to ensure compliance to applicable quality and health and safety standards imposed by law.

(2) Administrative and programmatic responsibility also includes the responsibility to act as the representative for the child development program to the State Department of Education. With respect to programs operated through family child care homes, administrative and programmatic responsibility includes ensuring that quality services are provided in the family child care homes.

(c) The program director also may serve as the site supervisor at one of the sites, provided that he or she both fulfills the duties of a "day care center director," as set forth in Section 101315 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, and meets the qualifications for a site supervisor as set forth in subdivision (aa) of Section 8208.

(d) The Superintendent of Public Instruction may waive the qualifications for program director described in Sections 8360.1 and 8360.3 upon a finding of one of the following circumstances:

(1) The applicant is making satisfactory progress toward securing a permit issued by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing authorizing supervision of a child care and development program operating in two or more sites or fulfilling the qualifications for program directors in severely handicapped programs, as specified in Section 8360.3.

(2) The place of employment is so remote from institutions offering the necessary coursework as to make continuing education impracticable and the contractor has made a diligent search but has been unable to hire a more qualified applicant.

(e) The Superintendent of Public Instruction, upon good cause, may by rule identify and apply grounds in addition to those specified in subdivision (d) for granting a waiver of the qualifications for program director.

SEC. 3. Section 8360 of the Education Code is amended to read:

8360. (a) (1) Child development programs shall include a career ladder program for classroom staff. Persons who are 18 years of age and older may be employed as aides and may be eligible for salary increases upon the completion of additional semester units in early childhood education or child development. The governing board of each contracting agency shall be encouraged to provide teachers and aides with salary increases for the successful completion of early childhood education or child development courses in six semester unit increments.

(2) Persons employed as teachers shall possess a permit issued by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing authorizing service in the care, development, and instruction of children in a child care and development program.

(b) Any person who meets the following criteria is eligible to serve in an instructional capacity in a child care and development program:

(1) Possesses a current credential issued by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing authorizing teaching service in elementary school or a single subject credential in home economics.

(2) Twelve units in early childhood education or child development, or both, or two years' experience in early childhood education or a child care and development program.

SEC. 4. Section 8360.1 of the Education Code is amended to read:

8360.1. Except as waived under Section 8242 and except as stated in Section 18203 of Title 5 of the California Code of Regulations regarding program directors in schoolage community child care services programs, any entity operating child care and development programs providing direct services to children, as defined in Section 8244, at two or more sites, shall employ a program director who possesses one of the following:

(a) A permit issued by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing authorizing supervision of a child care and development program operating in multiple sites.

(b) Any person who meets the following criteria is eligible to supervise a child care and development program operating in multiple sites and serve in an instructional capacity in a child care and development program:

(1) Possesses a current credential issued by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing authorizing teaching service in elementary school or a single subject credential in home economics.

(2) Six units in administration and supervision of early childhood education or child development, or both. The requirement set forth in this paragraph does not apply to any person who was employed as a program director prior to January 1, 1993, in a child care and development program receiving funding under this chapter.

(3) Twelve units in early childhood education or child development, or both, or at least two years' experience in early childhood education or a child care and development program.

(c) A waiver issued by the Superintendent of Public Instruction pursuant to Section 8244.

This section shall become operative on January 1, 1997.

SEC. 5. Section 8363 of the Education Code is amended to read:

8363. The Commission on Teacher Credentialing shall by rule or regulation establish the requirements for the following:

(a) The issuance and the renewal of permits authorizing service in the care, development, and instruction of children in child care and development programs, as well as the issuance of emergency permits for this purpose.

(b) The issuance and renewal of permits authorizing supervision of a child care and development program, as well as the issuance of emergency permits for this purpose.

(c) The periods of duration of the permits set forth in this section.

SEC. 6. Section 44254 is added to the Education Code, to read:

44254. (a) The commission shall establish standards for a restricted reading certificate to enable holders of a teaching credential to provide the early development of reading and language arts skills and the early correction of a pupil's reading difficulties.

(b) (1) The standards and qualifications for the restricted reading certificate shall include demonstrated knowledge of both of the following:

(A) Current and confirmed research in teaching basic reading skills that train the candidate for the restricted reading certificate in ongoing, diagnostic techniques that inform teaching and assessment.

(B) Teaching techniques for basic reading skills that include direct instruction in phonemic awareness, systematic, explicit phonics, and comprehension skills.

(2) The candidate shall also demonstrate knowledge of early intervention techniques, and shall receive guided practice with all of the aforementioned skills within a clinical setting. For the purposes of this section, "direct, systematic, explicit phonics" means spelling patterns, direct instruction in the relationships among sounds and symbols, and practice in connected, decodable text.

(c) The commission shall be authorized to issue a restricted reading certificate to holders of a teaching credential who meet the commission's standards.

SEC. 7. Section 44262 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44262. Upon the recommendation of the governing board of a school district, the commission may issue an eminence credential to any person who has achieved eminence in a field of endeavor taught or service practiced in the public schools of California. This credential shall authorize teaching or the performance of services in the public schools in the subject or subject area or service and at the level or levels approved by the commission as designated on the credential.

Each credential so issued shall be issued initially for a two-year period and may be renewed for a three-year period by the commission upon the request of the governing board of the school district. Upon completion of the three-year renewal period, the holder of an eminence credential shall be eligible upon application for a professional clear teaching credential.

CHAPTER 1068

An act to add Sections 44254 and 53023 to the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor September 28, 1996. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1996.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44254 is added to the Education Code, to read:

44254. (a) The commission shall establish standards for a restricted reading certificate to enable holders of a teaching credential to provide the early and continuing development of reading and language arts skills and the earliest possible correction of a pupil's reading difficulties.

(b) The standards and qualifications for the restricted reading certificate shall include, but not be limited to, demonstrated knowledge of the following:

(A) Current and confirmed research in the teaching of basic reading skills, including research in ongoing, diagnostic techniques that inform teaching and assessment.

(B) Techniques for teaching basic reading skills that include direct instruction in phonemic awareness, direct systematic, explicit phonics, and comprehension skills.

(C) Early intervention techniques.

(c) A candidate for a restricted reading certificate shall receive, within a clinical setting, guided practice in all of the skills set forth in subdivision (b).

(d) The commission shall be authorized to issue a restricted reading certificate to holders of a teaching credential who meet the commission's standards.

(e) For purposes of this section, "direct systematic, explicit phonics" means spelling patterns, the direct instruction of sound and symbol relationships, and practice in reading connected, decodable text.

SEC. 2. Section 53023 is added to the Education Code, to read:

53023. For the 1996–97 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, as a condition of receiving funding pursuant to the Categorical Program Funding Restructuring Act of 1996, as enacted by Assembly Bill No. 2769 of the 1995-96 Regular Session, a school district shall maintain the same level of expenditures on reading specialists that it expended in the 1995-96 fiscal year, unless the governing board of the school district, at a public hearing, finds that the district has redirected the funds to a higher direct instruction or classroom priority or a more cost-effective and research based tutorial reading strategy will be employed to assist poor readers.

SEC. 3. Section 2 of this act shall be operative only if Assembly Bill No. 2769 of the 1995–96 Regular Session is enacted and adds the Categorical Program Funding Restructuring Act of 1996 to the Education Code.

CHAPTER 1069

An act to add Chapter 2.65 (commencing with Section 7286.25) to Part 1.7 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to local taxation.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1996. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1996.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 2.65 (commencing with Section 7286.25) is added to Part 1.7 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

CHAPTER 2.65. AVALON TRANSACTIONS AND USE TAX

7286.25. (a) The City Council of Avalon may levy a transactions and use tax at a rate of 0.5 percent, if the ordinance or resolution proposing that tax is approved by a majority vote of all members of the city council and the tax is approved by a two-thirds vote of the qualified voters of the city voting in an election on the issue pursuant to Section 53722 of the Government Code. The transactions and use tax shall conform to Part 1.6 (commencing with Section 7251).

(b) The transactions and use tax imposed pursuant to this chapter shall be deemed a special tax pursuant to Article 3.7 (commencing with Section 53720) of Chapter 4 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of this section or any other provision of law, no tax authorized under this section shall be submitted to the voters unless and until every tax that currently is imposed by the city that is seeking authority to impose a new tax pursuant to this section and that was not approved by the voters in a manner consistent with the holding of the California Supreme Court in the case of Santa Clara County Local Transportation Authority v. Guardino (1995), 11 Cal. 4th 220, and in accordance with the requirements of Article 3.7 (commencing with Section 53720) of Chapter 4 of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, has been placed before the voters for continued approval or rescission.

7286.26. The net proceeds of the tax imposed by Section 7286.25 shall be used exclusively for the Avalon Municipal Hospital and Clinic.

SEC. 2. The Legislature finds and declares that a special law is necessary and that a general law cannot be made applicable within the meaning of Section 16 of Article IV of the California Constitution because of the uniquely difficult fiscal pressures being experienced by the City of Avalon in providing essential medical and hospital services.

CHAPTER 1070

An act to amend and supplement the Budget Act of 1996 by amending Item 9210-103-0001 of, and adding Item 9210-490 to, Section 2.00 thereof, relating to local government finance, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1996. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1996.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Item 9210-103-0001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1996 is amended to read:

9210–103–0001—For local assistance, Local Government Financing. For assistance to redevelopment agencies, to be allocated by the State Controller 5,000,000

Provisions:

1. The appropriation made by this item shall be in lieu of any appropriation required pursuant to Chapter 1.5 (commencing with Section 16110) of Part 1 of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

2. The Controller shall allocate funds appropriated in this item to redevelopment agencies that have pledged, pursuant to bond instruments and supporting documents, special supplemental subventions as security for payment of the principal and interest on bonds, and have demonstrated that gross tax increment revenues allocated to them in the 1995–96 fiscal year (as reported for inclusion in the Controller's "Annual Report of Financial Transactions Concerning Community Redevelopment Agencies of California, Fiscal Year 1995–96"), less housing set−aside amounts not available for debt service, and less any reserve requirement deficiency existing as of December 31, 1996, would be insufficient to cover their maximum annual debt service requirements on bonds to which special supplemental subventions have been pledged. The amount allocated to any redevelopment agency shall not exceed the lesser of: (a) the amount that the redevelopment agency would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 16111 of the Government Code, or (b) the amount required by the redevelopment agency to cover its maximum annual debt service requirements on bonds to which special supplemental subventions have been pledged, plus any reserve requirement deficiency existing as of December 31, 1996, less the amount of gross tax increment revenues allocated to it in the 1995–96 fiscal year, less housing set−aside amounts not available for debt service.
3. If the allocation required pursuant to Provision 2 would exceed the amount of the appropriation in this item, the Controller shall prorate the allocation to those redevelopment agencies that meet the requirements of Provision 2.
4. Notwithstanding Section 2.00, the Controller shall allocate 50 percent of the appropriation in this item on or before December 31, 1996, and 50 percent of the appropriation in this item on July 31, 1997. Expenditure of the amount to be allocated on July 31, 1997, shall be accounted by the Controller as an expenditure of the 1997–98 fiscal year.

5. The Controller shall allocate any funds remaining following the allocation required pursuant to Provision 2 to those redevelopment agencies that met the requirements of Provision 2 of Item 9210−103−001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1994 (Chapter 139, Statutes of 1994), in an amount sufficient to eliminate any then remaining shortfall in payment of eligible claims from the 1994–95 fiscal year.
6. If the allocation required by Provision 5 would exceed the amount of the appropriation remaining following the allocation required pursuant to Provision 2, the Controller shall prorate the allocation required pursuant to Provision 5.
7. Any allocation required pursuant to Provision 5 shall be made by the Controller on or before September 30, 1997.

SEC. 2. Item 9210-490 is added to Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1996, to read:

9210–490—Reappropriation, Local Government Financing. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any unencumbered balance of the appropriation made by Item 9210–103–001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1995 (Chapter 303, Statutes of 1995) subsequent to July 31, 1996, for allocations as described in Provision 4 of that item, is hereby reappropriated for allocation by the Controller to those redevelopment agencies that met the requirements of Provision 2 of Item 9210–103–001 of Section 2.00 of the Budget Act of 1994 (Chapter 139, Statutes of 1994), and received prorated allocations, in an amount sufficient to eliminate any shortfall in the payment of eligible claims for the 1994–95 fiscal year. If the allocations required by this item would exceed the amount of the reappropriation, the Controller shall prorate the allocations required by this item. The allocations required by this item shall be made by the Controller on or before September 30, 1996.

SEC. 3. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide timely and essential fiscal relief to redevelopment agencies that have pledged, pursuant to bond instruments and supporting documents, special supplemental subventions as security for payment of the principal and interest on the bonds, and to safeguard the credit rating of those redevelopment agencies, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1071

An act to amend Sections 17850, 17882, 17883, and 17899.3 of, and to add and repeal Section 17899.4 of, the Education Code, relating to school facilities, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1996. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1996.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17850 of the Education Code is amended to read:

17850. (a) Upon the approval by the governing board of the school district to proceed with the issuance of certificates of participation revenue bonds or to enter into any agreement for financing school construction pursuant to Chapter 28 (commencing with Section 17870), the school district shall notify the county superintendent of schools and the county auditor. The superintendent of the school district shall provide the repayment schedules for that debt obligation, and evidence of the ability of the school district to repay that obligation, to the county auditor, the county superintendent, the governing board, and the public. Within 15 days of the receipt of the information, the county superintendent of schools and the county auditor may comment publicly to the governing board of the school district regarding the capability of the school district to repay that debt obligation.

(b) Upon the approval by the county board of education to proceed with the issuance of certificates of participation or revenue bonds or to enter into any agreement for financing pursuant to Chapter 28 (commencing with Section 17870), the county superintendent of schools or superintendent of a school district for which the county board serves as governing board shall notify the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The county superintendent of schools or the superintendent of a school district for which the county board serves as the governing board shall provide the repayment schedules for that debt obligation and evidence of the ability of the county office of education or school district to repay that obligation, to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the governing board, and the public. Within 15 days of the receipt of the information the Superintendent of Public Instruction may comment publicly to the county board of education regarding the capability of the county office of education or school district to repay that debt obligation.

SEC. 1.5. Section 17850 of the Education Code is amended to read:

17850. (a) Upon the approval by the governing board of the school district to proceed with the issuance of certificates of participation revenue bonds or to enter into any agreement for financing school construction pursuant to Chapter 28 (commencing with Section 17870), the school district shall notify the county superintendent of schools. The superintendent of the school district shall provide the repayment schedules for that debt obligation, and evidence of the ability of the school district to repay that obligation, to the county superintendent, the governing board, and the public. Within 15 days of the receipt of the information, the county superintendent of schools may comment publicly to the governing board of the school district regarding the capability of the school district to repay that debt obligation.

(b) Upon the approval by the county board of education to proceed with the issuance of certificates of participation or revenue bonds or to enter into any agreement for financing school construction pursuant to Chapter 28 (commencing with Section 17870), the county superintendent of schools or superintendent of a school district for which the county board serves as governing board shall notify the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The county superintendent of schools or the superintendent of a school district for which the county board serves as the governing board shall provide the repayment schedules for that debt obligation and evidence of the ability of the county office of education or school district to repay that obligation, to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the governing board, and the public. Within 15 days of the receipt of the information the Superintendent of Public Instruction may comment publicly to the county board of education regarding the capability of the county office of education or school district to repay that debt obligation.

SEC. 2. Section 17882 of the Education Code is amended to read:

17882. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), all expenses incurred by the authority in implementing this chapter shall be payable solely from funds appropriated for purposes of this chapter, and the authority shall not incur liabilities in excess of the amount of those funds.

(b) The authority may request a loan by the Pooled Money Investment Board from the Pooled Money Investment Account, in accordance with Section 16312 of the Government Code, and may execute those documents required by the Pooled Money Investment Board to obtain and repay the loan. The loan shall be deposited in the fund for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of this chapter. The amount of the loan shall not exceed the amount of the unsold bonds that the authority by resolution, has authorized to be sold for the purposes of this chapter.

SEC. 3. Section 17883 of the Education Code is amended to read:

17883. (a) From time to time, the authority may, by resolution, issue its revenue bonds in order to provide funds for any of the purposes of this chapter. Bonds may be issued to finance any of the following:

(1) A single project or financing of working capital for a single participating district.

(2) A series of projects or financings of working capital for a single participating district.

(3) A single project or financing of working capital for several participating districts.

(4) Several projects or financing of working capital for several participating districts.

(5) A joint venture school facilities construction project undertaken pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 17760) of Chapter 22.

(b) Except as otherwise expressly provided by the authority, all revenue bonds shall be payable from any available revenues or moneys of the authority not otherwise pledged, subject only to any agreements with holders of particular bonds or notes pledging any particular revenue or moneys. Notwithstanding that revenue bonds issued pursuant to this section may be payable from a special fund, the revenue bonds shall be, and shall be deemed to be for all purposes, negotiable instruments, subject only to the provisions of the revenue bonds for registration.

(c) The revenue bonds of the authority may be issued as serial bonds, term bonds, or the authority, in its discretion, may issue bonds of both types. The issuance shall be in accordance with the indenture, trust agreement, or resolution relating to the revenue bonds, which shall provide all of the following:

(1) The date or dates of the bonds.

(2) The date or dates upon which the bonds will mature, not to exceed 40 years from their respective dates.

(3) The interest rate or rates, or methods of determining the interest rate or rates, of the bonds.

(4) When the bonds are payable.

(5) The denominations of the bonds.

(6) The form of the bonds, which shall be either bearer or registered.

(7) The registration privileges of the bonds.

(8) The manner in which the bonds are to be executed.

(9) The place or places at which the bonds shall be payable in lawful money of the United States of America.

(10) The terms of redemption of the bonds.

(d) After giving due consideration to the recommendations of the participating district or districts, the revenue bonds of the authority shall be sold by the Treasurer at either a public or private sale at a price or prices, and upon the terms and conditions prescribed by the authority. The revenue bonds of the authority may be sold at, above, or below the par value of the bonds.

(e) Pending the preparation of the definitive bonds, the authority may issue interim receipts or certificates or temporary bonds which shall be exchanged for the definitive bonds.

(f) Any resolution authorizing the issuance of any bonds of the authority, or any issue of revenue bonds of the authority, may include any of the following provisions:

(1) Provisions pledging all or any part of the proceeds of the bonds or revenue of a project or loan.

(2) Provisions concerning the replacement of mutilated, destroyed, stolen, or lost bonds.

(3) Provisions specifying insurance to be maintained on the project and the authorized uses of the proceeds of the insurance.

(4) Covenants against the mortgaging or otherwise encumbering, selling, leasing, pledging, placing a charge upon, or otherwise disposing of the project prior to the payment of the bonds issued to finance the project.

(5) Provisions specifying the events of default, terms upon which the bonds may be declared due before maturity, and the terms upon which the declaration and its consequences may be waived.

(6) The rights, liabilities, powers, and duties arising upon the breach of any covenants, conditions, or obligations.

(7) Vesting of the right to enforce covenants in a trustee.

(8) The terms upon which all or any percentage of the bondholders may enforce covenants or duties.

(9) Procedures for amending the terms of the resolution, with or without the consent of the holders of a specified number of bonds.

(10) Provision for any other acts or things deemed necessary, convenient, or desirable by the authority to secure the bonds or improve their marketability.

(g) The validity of the authorization and issuance of any bond issue shall not be affected by proceedings for the acquisition, construction, or improvement of any project, or by contracts relating to those proceedings. Any resolution authorizing the issuance of any bonds of the authority may provide authorization for the bonds to bear a statement certifying that they are issued pursuant to this chapter. Bonds bearing such a statement shall be conclusively deemed valid and issued in conformity with this chapter. Reference on the face of the bonds to the resolution by its date of adoption shall incorporate the provisions of the resolution and of this chapter into the terms of the bonds.

(h) Members of the authority, or any person executing the revenue bonds of the authority, shall not incur personal liability on the bonds, nor shall these persons incur personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance of the revenue bonds of the authority.

(i) The authority is authorized, out of any funds available for that purpose, to purchase revenue bonds of the authority. The authority may hold, pledge, cancel, or resell any bonds purchased under the authority of this subdivision, subject to, and in accordance with, agreements with bondholders.

(j) The financing or refinancing of projects or working capital may be provided pursuant to this chapter by means other than revenue bonds, at the discretion of the authority, including financing or refinancing through certificates of participation, or other interests, in bonds, loans, leases, installment sales, or other agreements of the participating district or districts. In this connection, the authority may do all things and execute and deliver all documents and instruments as may be necessary or desirable with regard to issuance of the certificates of participation or other means of financing or refinancing.

(k) The authority may by resolution issue its revenue bonds in the form of commercial paper.

SEC. 4. Section 17899.3 of the Education Code is amended to read:

17899.3. (a) The total amount of revenue bonds which may be issued and outstanding at any time for purposes of this chapter, other than those revenue bonds under Section 17899.4, shall not exceed four hundred million dollars ($400,000,000).

(b) The total amount of revenue bonds that may be issued under this chapter each fiscal year, for purposes of Section 17899.4 only, shall not exceed four hundred million dollars ($400,000,000). Of that total amount of revenue bonds, not more than one hundred fifty million dollars ($150,000,000) in revenue bonds may be issued for the purposes of joint venture school facilities construction projects undertaken pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 17760) of Chapter 22. The total amount that may be outstanding at any time under this chapter, for purposes of Section 17899.4 only, shall not exceed four billion dollars ($4,000,000,000).

(c) For purposes of subdivisions (a) and (b), bonds which meet any of the following conditions shall not be deemed to be outstanding:

(1) Bonds which have been refunded pursuant to Section 17888.

(2) Bonds for which money or securities in amounts necessary to pay or redeem the principal, interest, or any redemption premium on the bonds have been deposited in trust.

(3) Bonds which have been issued to provide working capital.

SEC. 5. Section 17899.4 is added to the Education Code, to read:

17899.4. (a) Notwithstanding any other law, any participating school district or county office of education, in connection with securing financing or refinancing of projects, except working capital, pursuant to this chapter may elect to guarantee or provide for payment of the bonds in accordance with the following conditions:

(1) If a participating school district or county office of education adopts a resolution by a majority vote of its board to participate under this section, it shall provide notice to the Controller of that election. The notice shall include a schedule for the repayment of principal and interest on the bonds and identify a trustee appointed by the participating school district or county office of education or the authority for purposes of this section. The notice shall be provided not later than the date of issuance of the bonds.

(2) If, for any reason, the school district or county office of education will not make the payment of principal and interest at the time the payment is required, the participating school district or county office of education shall notify the trustee of that fact and of the amount of the deficiency. The trustee shall immediately communicate that information to the Controller.

(3) Upon receipt of the notice required by paragraph (2), the Controller shall make an apportionment to the trustee in the amount of the deficiency for the purpose of making the required payment of principal or interest, or both. The Controller shall make that apportionment only from moneys in Section A of the State School Fund designated for apportionment to the district pursuant to Section 42238 or to the county office of education pursuant to Section 2558.

(4) As an alternative to the procedures set forth in paragraphs (2) and (3), the participating school district or county office of education may provide a transfer schedule in its notice to the Controller of its election to participate under this section. The transfer schedule shall set forth amounts to be transferred to the trustee and the date for the transfers. The Controller shall, subject to the limitation in the last sentence of paragraph (3), make apportionments to the trustee of those amounts on the specified date for the purpose of making those transfers.

(b) The amount apportioned for a school district or for a county office of education pursuant to this section shall be deemed to be an allocation to the district or the county office of education for purposes of subdivision (b) of Section 8 of Article XVI of the California Constitution. For purposes of computing revenue limits pursuant to Section 42238 for any school district or pursuant to Section 2558 for any county office of education, the revenue limit for any fiscal year in which funds are apportioned for the district or for the county office of education pursuant to this section shall include any amounts apportioned by the Controller pursuant to paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (a).

(c) (1) School districts or county offices of education that elect to participate under this section shall apply to the authority. The authority shall consider each of the following priorities in making funds available:

(A) First priority shall be given to school districts or county offices of education that apply for funding for instructional classroom space.

(B) Second priority shall be given to school districts or county offices of education that apply for funding of modernization of instructional classroom space.

(C) Third priority shall be given to all other eligible costs, as defined in Section 17873.

(2) The authority shall prioritize applications at appropriate intervals.

(3) A school district electing to participate under this section that has applied for revenue bond moneys for the purposes of joint venture school facilities construction projects, pursuant to Article 5 (commencing with Section 17760) of Chapter 22, shall not be subject to the priorities set forth in paragraph (1) of this subdivision.

(d) This section shall not be construed to make the State of California liable for any payment of principal or interest on any bonds or certificates of participation within the meaning of Section 1 of Article XVI of the California Constitution or otherwise, except as expressly provided in this section.

(e) A school district that has a qualified or negative certification pursuant to Section 42131, or a county office of education that has a qualified or negative certification pursuant to Section 1240, may not participate under this section.

(f) The authority shall report to the Legislature by January 1, 2001, on the number of school districts or county offices of education electing to participate under this section and on the financial stability of the participating school districts and county offices of education.

(g) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2006, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that is enacted before January 1, 2006, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 6. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 17850 of the Education Code proposed by both this bill and AB 3472. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 17850 of the Education Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 3472, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 1072

An act to amend Sections 15300, 15301, 15303, 15320, 15322, 15323, 15324, 15326, 15327, 15336, 15342, 15349, 15350, 15351, 15352, 15353, 15356, 15357, 15358, 15359, 15359.1, 15359.2, 15380, 15381, 15384, 15390, 15391, 15400, 15401, 15403, 15404, 15405, 15410, 15411, 15412, 15421, and 15425 of, and to add Section 15334.5 to, the Education Code, relating to school bonds.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1996. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1996.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 15300 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15300. This chapter provides a method for the formation of school facilities improvement districts consisting of a portion of the territory within a school district or community college district and for the issuance of general obligation bonds by a school facilities improvement district.

SEC. 2. Section 15301 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15301. (a) Any school district or community college district that has a community facilities district formed pursuant to the Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act of 1982, as set forth in Chapter 2.5

(commencing with Section 53311) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government Code, that has as one of its purposes the construction of school facilities within a portion of the territory of the school district or community college district, may proceed under this chapter.

(b) The boundaries of any school facilities improvement district formed pursuant to this chapter shall include all of the portion of the territory within the boundaries of the school district or community college district that is not located within the boundaries of the community facilities district as described in subdivision (a).

(c) A school district or community college district may proceed under this chapter without meeting the requirements of subdivisions (a) and (b) if the governing board of the school district or community college district determines that it is necessary and in the best interest of the school district or community college district, respectively, to form a school facilities improvement district pursuant to this chapter to finance any or all of the improvements set forth in Section 15302. As a part of that determination, the governing board of the school district or community college district shall make a finding that the overall cost of financing the bonds issued pursuant to this chapter would be less than the overall cost of other school facilities financing options available to the school district or community college district, including, but not limited to, issuing bonds pursuant to the Mello-Roos Communities Facilities Act of 1982 (Ch. 2.5 (commencing with Sec. 53311), Pt. 1, Div. 2, Title 5, Gov. C.). The governing board of the school district or community college district proceeding under this subdivision shall define the boundaries of the school facilities improvement district to include any portion of territory within the jurisdiction of the school district or community college district, except that the boundaries may not include all or a portion of the territory of the community facilities district described in subdivision (a).

SEC. 3. Section 15303 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15303. This chapter shall not be operative in any county or counties until the board of supervisors of either the county in which the county superintendent of schools having jurisdiction over the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located or, if a school facilities improvement district lies in two or more counties, the board of supervisors for those counties, by resolution adopted by a majority vote of the board of supervisors, makes this chapter applicable in the county or counties.

SEC. 4. Section 15320 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15320. Whenever the governing board of a school district or community college district meeting the requirements set forth in Section 15301 determines that a school facilities improvement district is necessary, the governing board shall adopt a resolution of intention that states all of the following:

(a) The intention of the governing board to form the proposed school facilities improvement district.

(b) The purpose for which the proposed school facilities improvement district is to be formed, consistent with the requirements set forth in Section 15302.

(c) The estimated cost of the school facilities improvement project.

(d) That any taxes levied for the purpose of financing the general obligation bonds issued to finance the project shall be levied exclusively upon the lands in the proposed school facilities improvement district.

(e) That a map showing the exterior boundaries of the proposed school facilities improvement district is on file with the governing board of the school district or community college district and is available for inspection by the public. The boundaries of the school facilities improvement district shall meet the requirements set forth in subdivision (b) of Section 15301.

(f) The time and place for a hearing by the governing board on the formation of the proposed school facilities improvement district.

(h) That any interested persons, including all persons owning lands in the school district or community college district, or in the proposed school facilities improvement district, may appear and be heard.

SEC. 5. Section 15322 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15322. The governing board of the school district or community college district shall hold the hearing provided for by resolution of intention at the time and place fixed by that resolution. Any interested person, including, but not limited to, all persons owning land in the school district, or in the proposed school facilities improvement district or community college district, may appear and be heard concerning any matters set forth in the resolution of intention.

SEC. 6. Section 15323 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15323. At the hearing, the governing board of the school district or community college district may adopt a resolution proposing modifications, consistent with Section 15302, of the purpose stated in the resolution of intention. A resolution proposing modification shall describe the proposed modifications, state the change, if any, in the estimated cost of carrying out the purpose, and shall fix a time and place for hearing by the governing board.

SEC. 7. Section 15324 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15324. The governing board of the school district or community college district shall publish the resolution proposing the modifications to the resolution of intention once in the same newspaper in which the resolution of intention was published at least 14 days prior to the date of hearing on the proposed modifications.

SEC. 8. Section 15326 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15326. At the conclusion of the hearing on the resolution of intention and of the hearing, if any, upon proposed modifications, the governing board may by resolution order the school facilities improvement district formed for the purpose and with the boundaries described in the resolution of intention, and, if relevant, the resolution proposing modifications. The resolution ordering the school facilities improvement district formed shall state the estimated cost of carrying out the purpose described in the resolution. The resolution shall also number and designate the school facilities improvement district substantially as "School Facilities Improvement District of the _____ School District" or "School Facilities Improvement District of the _____ Community College District."

SEC. 9. Section 15327 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15327. The governing board of the school district or community college district in which a school facilities improvement district has been formed shall have the same rights, powers, duties and responsibilities with respect to the formation and government of school facilities improvement district as the governing board has with respect to the school district or community college district.

SEC. 10. Section 15334.5 is added to the Education Code, to read:

15334.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no bonded indebtedness may be incurred pursuant to this chapter in an amount that would cause the bonded indebtedness of the territory of the school district or community college district of which the school facilities improvement district is a part, to exceed the limitation of indebtedness specified in Sections 15102 and 15106. No bonded indebtedness may be incurred pursuant to this chapter in an amount that would cause the bonded indebtedness of the territory of the school facilities improvement district to exceed the limitation of indebtedness specified in Sections 15330 and 15332.

SEC. 11. Section 15336 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15336. Within 30 days after the end of each fiscal year, the governing board of the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located shall submit a report containing the information to an election held pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 15340), to the county superintendent of schools who has jurisdiction over the school district or community college district:

(a) The total amount of the bond issue, bonded indebtedness, or other indebtedness involved.

(b) The percentage of qualified electors who are residents of the school facilities improvement district who voted at the election.

(c) The results of the election, with the percentage of votes cast for and against the proposition involved.

SEC. 12. Section 15342 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15342. Any one or more of the purposes enumerated in Section 15302, except that of refunding any outstanding valid indebtedness of the school facilities improvement district evidenced by bonds, may, by order of the governing board of the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located, be united and voted upon in a single proposition.

SEC. 13. Section 15349 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15349. If it appears from the certificate of election results that two-thirds of the votes cast by the voters voting on the proposition of issuing bonds of the school facilities improvement district are in favor of issuing the bonds, the governing board of the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located shall cause an entry of that fact to be made upon its minutes. The governing board of the school district or community college district shall then certify to the board of supervisors of the county whose superintendent of schools has jurisdiction over the school district or community college district, all proceedings had in the premises. The county superintendent of schools shall send a copy of the certificate of election results to the board of supervisors of the county.

SEC. 14. Section 15350 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15350. Bonds of a school facilities improvement district shall be offered for sale by the board of supervisors of the county in which the county superintendent of schools has jurisdiction over the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located as soon as possible, when appropriate, following receipt of a resolution duly adopted by the governing board of that school district or community college district. The resolution shall prescribe the total amount of bonds to be sold. The resolution may also prescribe the maximum acceptable interest rate, not to exceed 8 percent, and the time or times when the whole or any part of the principal of the bonds shall be payable, which shall not be more than 25 years from the date of the bonds.

SEC. 15. Section 15351 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15351. When authorized by the governing board of the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located, bonds of the school facilities improvement district may be offered for sale as a group by the board of supervisors of the county in which the county superintendent of schools has jurisdiction over the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located, at a time determined by the board of supervisors following receipt of a resolution duly adopted by the governing board of that school district or community college district. The resolution shall prescribe the total amount of bonds to be sold. The resolution may also prescribe the maximum acceptable interest rate, not to exceed 8 percent, and the time or times when the whole or any part of the principal of the bonds shall be payable, which shall not be more than 25 years from the date of the bonds. Bidders shall be required to bid a lump-sum bid on all bonds as a group. If bids satisfactory to the governing board of each school district or community college district in which a school facilities improvement district is located are received, the bonds offered for sale shall be awarded to the bidder whose bid will result in the lowest net interest cost for the group or for the bonds of any district included within the group. Bonds shall be issued and sold in the name of each school facilities improvement district in the same manner as provided in this chapter.

SEC. 16. Section 15352 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15352. The bonds shall be issued in the name of the school facilities improvement district and shall be designated "Bonds of the School Facilities Improvement District of the _____ School District" or "Bonds of the School Facilities Improvement District of the _____ Community College District" and each bond and all interest coupons shall state that the tax for the payment thereof shall be limited to annual taxes to be levied upon and collected from the lands within the school facilities improvement district.

SEC. 17. Section 15353 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15353. The bonds shall be issued in the denomination or denominations as the board of supervisors of the county in which the county superintendent of schools has jurisdiction over the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located may prescribe.

SEC. 18. Section 15356 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15356. (a) (1) The board of supervisors of the county in which the county superintendent of schools has jurisdiction over the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located shall prescribe the form of the bonds by an order entered upon its minutes.

(2) The bonds shall be signed by the chairperson of the board of supervisors, or by any other member thereof as the board of supervisors shall, by resolution adopted by a four-fifths vote of all its members, authorize and designate for that purpose, and also signed by the treasurer of the county, and shall be countersigned by the clerk of the board of supervisors or by a deputy of either of the officers. Unless the board of supervisors otherwise provides, all the signatures and countersignatures may be printed, lithographed, engraved, or otherwise mechanically reproduced except that one of the signatures or countersignatures to the bonds shall be manually affixed. Any signature may be affixed in accordance with the provisions of the Uniform Facsimile Signatures of Public Officials Act, Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 5500) of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(3) All expenses incurred for the preparation, sale, and delivery of the school facilities improvement bonds, including but not limited to, fees of an independent financial consultant, the publication of the official notice of sale of the bonds, the preparation, printing, and distribution of the official statement, the obtaining of a rating, the purchase of insurance insuring the prompt payment of interest and principal, the preparation of the certified copy of the transcript for the successful bidder, the printing of the bonds, and legal fees of independent bond counsel retained by the school facilities improvement district issuing the bonds are legal charges against the funds of the school facilities improvement district issuing the bonds and may be paid from the proceeds of sale of the bonds.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the board of supervisors may, in its discretion, determine that all of the required signatures and countersignatures shall be by facsimiles, provided, however, that the bonds shall not be valid or become obligatory for any purpose until manually signed by an authenticating agent duly appointed by the board or its authorized designee.

SEC. 19. Section 15357 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15357. The board of supervisors shall establish within the county treasury a school facilities improvement fund for each school facilities improvement district the purpose of depositing the proceeds of the bonds issued pursuant to this chapter. The board of supervisors shall also establish within the county treasury a school facilities improvement bond interest and sinking fund for each school facilities improvement district.

SEC. 20. Section 15358 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15358. (a) The bonds shall be issued by the board of supervisors, payable out of the interest and sinking fund of the school facilities improvement district. The board of supervisors, in its discretion, and without further authorization from the governing board of the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located, may sell the bonds at a negotiated sale or by competitive bidding. The bonds may be sold at a discount not to exceed 5 percent and at an interest rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by Section 15354. If the sale is by competitive bid, the board of supervisors shall comply with the provisions of Sections 15359 and 15359.1. The bonds shall be sold by the board of supervisors no later than the date designated by the governing board of the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located as the final date for the sale of the bonds.

(b) The proceeds of the sale of the bonds, exclusive of any premium received, shall be deposited in the county treasury to the credit of the school facilities improvement fund of the school facilities improvement district. The proceeds deposited shall be drawn out as necessary to finance the purposes approved by the voters pursuant to this chapter. The bond proceeds withdrawn shall not be applied to any other purposes than those for which the bonds were issued. Any premium or accrued interest received from the sale of the bonds shall be deposited in the interest and sinking fund of the county treasury established for the school facilities improvement district.

SEC. 21. Section 15359 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15359. Before selling the bonds, or any part of them, the board of supervisors as appropriate, shall advertise for bids at least two weeks in some daily or weekly newspaper of general circulation published in the county whose county superintendent of schools has jurisdiction over the governing board of the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located or if there is no newspaper published in the county, in a newspaper published in some other county in the state having a general circulation in the county.

SEC. 22. Section 15359.1 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15359.1. (a) If satisfactory bids are received, the bonds offered for sale shall be awarded to the highest responsible bidder or bidders, and the county clerk shall prepare and certify to all of the proceedings on file in his or her office relative to the issuance and sale of the bonds, which transcript of proceedings shall be delivered to the successful bidder or bidders without charge. If no bids are received, or if the board determines that the bids received exceed either the maximum acceptable interest rate prescribed by the governing board or the maximum rate prescribed by Section 15353, or that they are not satisfactory as to price or responsibility of the bidders, the board may reject all bids received, if any, and without further authorization from the governing board of the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located, either readvertise or sell the bonds at private sale.

(b) For the purpose of determining whether or not a bid exceeds the maximum acceptable interest rate, the interest rate of that bid shall be deemed to be the interest rate resulting from the total net interest cost arrived at by computing the total amount of interest that the school facilities improvement district would be required to pay from the date of the bonds to the respective maturity dates thereof at the rate or rates specified in the bid and by deducting therefrom any premium bid.

SEC. 23. Section 15359.2 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15359.2. (a) The issuing school facilities improvement district, by action of the governing board of the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located, may prepare, or have prepared, bond brochures to serve as a prospectus for bond buyers to assist in the satisfactory sale of the bonds, the expense of the brochures shall be payable out of the funds of the district. The brochures may be prepared only after the issuance of the bonds to be sold has been approved by the electors of the school facilities improvement district pursuant to Article 4 (commencing with Section 15340).

(b) The issuing school facilities improvement district by action of the governing board in which the school facilities improvement district is located may expend funds of the school facilities improvement district for the purposes of advertising the availability of the bonds for purchase in any publication or newspaper that in the opinion of that governing board will give notice to prospective bond buyers that the bonds are available for purchase by bond buyers.

SEC. 24. Section 15380 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15380. If any bonds authorized under this chapter have not been offered for sale for one year from the date of the election at which they were authorized or remain unsold for a period of six months after having been offered for sale in the manner prescribed by the board of supervisors, the governing board of the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located and for which the bonds were authorized, may petition the board of supervisors that has jurisdiction of the issuance and sale of the bonds to cause the unsold bonds to be canceled.

SEC. 25. Section 15381 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15381. Upon receiving the petition, signed by a majority of the members of the governing board of the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located, the board of supervisors shall fix a time for a hearing, which shall not be more than 30 days after receipt of the petition, and shall cause a notice stating the time and place of the hearing, and the object of the petition in general terms, to be published for 10 days prior to the hearing, in a newspaper published in the school facilities improvement district if there is one, and if there is no newspaper published in the school facilities improvement district, in a newspaper published at the county seat of the county.

SEC. 26. Section 15384 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15384. The governing board of a school district or community college district in which a school facilities improvement district is located may petition the board of supervisors to cancel the remaining authorization of that district to issue and sell bonds resulting from any particular school bond election after the sale of at least 90 percent of the bonds authorized at the election if the amount of the remaining authorization is not more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) and in the opinion of the governing board the sale of the remaining bonds would not be economically justified. Sections 15381 and 15382 shall be applicable and at or following the hearing therein provided for, the board of supervisors, if it determines that the public interest will be served thereby, may make and enter an order in the minutes of its proceedings that the remaining authorization be canceled. Upon the entry of the order, the vote by which the remaining authorization was created shall cease to be of any validity with respect to the remaining authorization.

SEC. 27. Section 15390 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15390. The governing board of a school district or community college district in which a school facilities improvement district is located may purchase in the open market bonds issued by the school facilities improvement district with available funds from the school facilities improvement fund.

SEC. 28. Section 15391 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15391. When any bonds issued by a school facilities improvement district have been purchased by the governing board of the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located, the bonds shall be deemed canceled and of no further validity. The governing board of the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located shall immediately, after purchasing the bonds, notify the board of supervisors of its action, describing the bonds purchased. At its first meeting thereafter, the board of supervisors shall note the purchase and cancellation of the bonds in the minutes of its proceedings.

SEC. 29. Section 15400 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15400. (a) The board of supervisors, by an order entered upon its minutes, shall fix the time when the whole or any part of the principal of the bonds shall be payable, which shall not be more than 25 years from the date of the bonds. If the governing board of the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located has prescribed in its resolution the time or times when the whole or any part of the bonds shall be payable, the times and amounts shall be fixed by the order of the board of supervisors.

(b) Any bonds may be issued subject to call and redemption before maturity at the option of the governing board of the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district exists. The governing board may include in its resolution a requirement that all or any part of the bonds shall be issued subject to call and redemption before maturity and the price or prices at which said bonds shall be redeemed. The board of supervisors, in its order fixing the form of the bonds and the maturities thereof, shall provide that the bonds be redeemable at the option of the governing board and at the price or prices fixed in the resolution. Bonds issued subject to call and redemption prior to maturity shall contain a recital to that effect, and no bond shall be subject to call or redemption prior to maturity unless it contains the recital. The board of supervisors in its order shall fix the method of giving notice of redemption to holders of bonds to be redeemed.

SEC. 30. Section 15401 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15401. The board of supervisors, at the direction of the governing board of the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located, may divide the principal amount of bonds authorized at any election into two or more series and may fix different dates for the bonds of each series, in which event the maximum maturity date of the bonds shall be calculated from the date of each series respectively. When the issuance of bonds shall have been authorized pursuant to two or more propositions submitted at the same or different elections, all or any part of the bonds not theretofore issued may be combined and issued and sold as one or more series.

SEC. 31. Section 15403 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15403. The principal and interest on the bonds shall be paid by the county treasurer of the county in which the superintendent of schools has jurisdiction of the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located, at the place required by the terms of the bonds, upon presentation and surrender of warrants drawn by the county auditor in payment thereof, after he or she has canceled the bonds and coupons, or upon the receipt of the registered owner, if the bonds are registered, after a proper warrant has been drawn by the auditor, out of the fund provided for their payment.

SEC. 32. Section 15404 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15404. Upon the order of the auditor, any money remaining in the interest and sinking fund of any school facilities improvement district after the payment of all bonds and coupons payable from the fund, or any money in excess of an amount sufficient to pay all unpaid bonds and coupons payable from the fund, shall be transferred to the general fund of the governing board of the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located .

SEC. 33. Section 15405 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15405. Any money paid into the county treasury of the county and credited to the interest and sinking fund of any school facilities improvement district remaining after the payment of all bonds and coupons payable from the fund, or which is in excess of an amount sufficient to pay all unpaid bonds and coupons payable from the fund, shall be transferred to the special reserve fund of the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located and may be used only for the purpose specified in Section 42840.

SEC. 34. Section 15410 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15410. The board of supervisors of the county in which the county superintendent of schools has jurisdiction over a school district or community college district in which a school facilities improvement district is located shall annually at the time of making the levy of taxes for county purposes levy a tax for that year upon the property in the school facilities improvement district for the interest and redemption of all outstanding bonds of the district. The tax shall not be less than sufficient to pay the interest on the bonds as it becomes due and to provide a sinking fund for the payment of the principal on or before maturity and may include an allowance for an annual reserve, established for the purpose of avoiding fluctuating tax levies. The tax shall be sufficient to provide funds for the payment of the interest on the bonds as it becomes due and also that part of the principal and interest as is to become due before the proceeds of a tax levied at the time for making the next general tax levy can be made available for the payment of the principal and interest.

SEC. 35. Section 15411 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15411. All taxes levied, when collected, shall be paid into the county treasury of the county whose superintendent of schools has jurisdiction over the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located and on behalf of which the tax was levied. All collected tax revenues shall be used exclusively for the payment of the principal and interest of the bonds of the school facilities improvement district, including any sinking fund.

SEC. 36. Section 15412 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15412. The board of supervisors of the county whose superintendent of schools has jurisdiction over the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located, shall annually at the time of making the levy of taxes for county purposes estimate the amount of money required to meet the payment of the principal and interest on bonds of the district authorized by the electors of the district and not sold, and that the governing board of the school district or community college district informs the board on their belief will be sold before the next tax levy, and the board of supervisors shall levy a tax sufficient to pay the principal and interest so estimated.

SEC. 37. Section 15421 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15421. (a) The tax shall be entered upon the assessment roll and collected in the same manner as other on real property.

(b) The tax when collected shall be paid into the county treasury of the county. The treasurer of any county, other than the one whose superintendent of schools has jurisdiction over the school district or community college district in which the school facilities improvement district is located, shall, upon order of the county auditor, pay the sum collected on account of the tax into the treasury of the county whose superintendent of schools has jurisdiction over the school district or community college district in which the community facilities district is located.

SEC. 38. Section 15425 of the Education Code is amended to read:

15425. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, it is the intent of the Legislature that the rate of taxes levied annually upon the property in a school facilities improvement district formed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 15301 not be greater than the rate of the annual special tax levied upon parcels in the same school district or community college district that are part of a community facilities district formed pursuant to the Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act of 1982, as set forth in Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 53311) of Part 1 of Division 2 of Title 5 of the Government

Code. A determination by the governing board of a school district or community college district, made at the time bonds are sold pursuant to this chapter, that the rate of taxes to be levied annually upon the property in the school facilities improvement district, based upon tax rate estimates prepared pursuant to Section 9401 of the Elections Code, does not exceed the rate of the annual special tax levied upon parcels in the same school district or community college district that are part of a community facilities district formed pursuant to the Mello-Roos Community Facilities Act of 1982, shall be conclusive evidence of compliance with the intent of this section.

CHAPTER 1073

An act to amend Section 95.3 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1996. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1996.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Counties in California no longer receive ad valorem property tax revenues in an amount sufficient to adequately maintain the property tax administration system, and incentives designed to assist counties with the burdens of property tax administration have been diluted or eliminated.

(b) Recent economic difficulties in California have, in combination with other factors, given rise to a massive increase in the number of property tax assessment appeals filed throughout the state.

(c) As a result of limited resources and legal restrictions, counties are unable to adequately respond to the increased numbers of assessment appeals, to the great detriment of both the counties and taxpayers.

(d) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this act to specify that the equalization of local property tax assessments is an inseparable part of administering the property tax, the costs of which are required to be offset by financial assistance under state law.

SEC. 2. Section 95.3 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

95.3. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for the 1990–91 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the auditor shall divide the sum of the amounts calculated with respect to each jurisdiction, Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund (ERAF), or community redevelopment agency pursuant to Sections 96.1 and 100, or their predecessor sections, and Section 33670 of the Health and Safety Code, by the countywide total of those calculated amounts. The resulting ratio shall be known as the "administrative cost apportionment factor" and shall be multiplied by the sum of the property tax administrative costs incurred in the immediately preceding fiscal year by the assessor, tax collector, county board of equalization and assessment appeals boards, and auditor to determine the fiscal year property tax administrative costs proportionately attributable to each jurisdiction, ERAF, or community redevelopment agency. For purposes of this paragraph, property tax administrative costs shall also include applicable administrative overhead costs allowed by the federal Office of Management and Budget Circular A-87 standards, but shall not include any amount reimbursed pursuant to Section 75.60 and former Section 98.6, or include any amount in excess of the amounts reimbursable pursuant to Section 75.60, unless a county meets the conditions of paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 75.60. However, no amount of funds appropriated to counties for purposes of property tax administration in Item 9100-102-001 of the Budget Act of 1994 or any subsequent Budget Act shall result in any deduction from those property tax administrative costs that are eligible for reimbursement pursuant to this subdivision.

(b) (1) Each proportionate share of property tax administrative costs determined pursuant to subdivision (a), except for those proportionate shares determined with respect to a school entity or ERAF, shall be deducted from the property tax revenue allocation of the relevant jurisdiction or community redevelopment agency, and shall be added to the property tax revenue allocation of the county. For purposes of applying this paragraph for the 1990–91 fiscal year, each proportionate share of property tax administrative costs shall be deducted from those amounts allocated to the relevant jurisdiction or community redevelopment agency after January 1, 1991.

(2) It is the intent of the Legislature that the portion of those shares of property tax administrative costs that are calculated by the auditor for each fiscal year pursuant to subdivision (a) for school entities and the county's ERAF, that is attributable to the county's costs in providing boards and hearing officers for the review of property tax assessment appeals, be calculated by local officials and reimbursed by the state in the time and manner specified by a future act of the Legislature that makes an appropriation for purposes of that reimbursement.

(c) Reductions made pursuant to this section to property tax revenue allocations shall be made without regard to Section 907 of the Government Code.

(d) Any additional amounts of property tax revenue allocated to the county pursuant to this section shall be used only to fund costs incurred by the county in assessing, equalizing, and collecting property taxes, and in allocating property tax revenues, and shall constitute charges for those services, not exceeding the actual and reasonable costs incurred by the county in performing those services.

(e) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to recognize that since the adoption of Article XIII A of the California Constitution by the voters, county governments have borne an unfair and disproportionate part of the financial burden of assessing, collecting, and allocating property tax revenues for other jurisdictions and for redevelopment agencies. The Legislature finds and declares that this section is intended to fairly apportion the burden of collecting property tax revenues and is not a reallocation of property tax revenue shares or a transfer of any financial or program responsibility.

(f) Commencing with the 1992–93 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, this section shall supersede and replace Section 95.2, as authority for a county to recover property tax administrative costs.

(g) This section shall apply to the entire 1993–94 fiscal year, regardless of the operative date of the act adding the predecessor to this section, and to each fiscal year thereafter.

SEC. 3. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because a local agency or school district has the authority to levy service charges, fees, or assessments sufficient to pay for the program or level of service mandated by this act, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 4. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to provide timely and essential fiscal and legal relief to counties with respect to property tax administration, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 1074

An act to amend Sections 44010 and 44237 of, and to add Section 44020 to, the Education Code, relating to education.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1996. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1996.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 44010 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44010. "Sex offense," as used in Sections 44020, 44237, 44346, 44425, 44436, 44836, 45123, and 45304, means any one or more of the offenses listed below:

(a) Any offense defined in Section 220, 261, 261.5, 262, 264.1, 266, 266j, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 289, 311.3, 311.4, 313.1, 647b, 647.6, or former Section 647a, subdivision (a), (b), or (c) of Section 243.4, subdivisions (b), (c), and (d) of Section 311.2, or subdivision (a) or (d) of Section 647 of the Penal Code.

(b) Any offense defined in former subdivision (5) of former Section 647 of the Penal Code repealed by Chapter 560 of the Statutes of 1961, or any offense defined in former subdivision (2) of former Section 311 of the Penal Code repealed by Chapter 2147 of the Statutes of 1961, if the offense defined in those sections was committed prior to September 15, 1961, to the same extent that an offense committed prior to that date was a sex offense for the purposes of this section prior to September 15, 1961.

(c) Any offense defined in Section 314 of the Penal Code committed on or after September 15, 1961.

(d) Any offense defined in former subdivision (1) of former Section 311 of the Penal Code repealed by Chapter 2147 of the Statutes of 1961 committed on or after September 7, 1955, and prior to September 15, 1961.

(e) Any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272 of the Penal Code committed on or after September 15, 1961.

(f) Any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under former Section 702 of the Welfare and Institutions Code repealed by Chapter 1616 of the Statutes of 1961, if that offense was committed prior to September 15, 1961, to the same extent that an offense committed prior to that date was a sex offense for the purposes of this section prior to September 15, 1961.

(g) Any offense defined in Section 286 or 288a of the Penal Code prior to the effective date of the amendment of either section enacted at the 1975–76 Regular Session of the Legislature committed prior to the effective date of the amendment.

(h) Any attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses.

(i) Any offense committed or attempted in any other state which, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the above-mentioned offenses.

(j) Any conviction for an offense resulting in the requirement to register as a sex offender pursuant to Section 290 of the Penal Code.

(k) Commitment as a mentally disordered sex offender under former Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as repealed by Chapter 928 of the Statutes of 1981.

SEC. 2. Section 44020 is added to the Education Code, to read:

44020. Every person, firm, association, partnership, or corporation offering or conducting private school instruction on the elementary or high school level shall notify, in writing, the parents or guardians who reside with each pupil of that school whenever that school hires an employee who, in the course of his or her employment, will come in contact with minor pupils and who has been convicted of a sex offense, as defined in Section 44010. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any person who conveys or receives information in good-faith conformity with this section is exempt from prosecution under Section 11142 or 11143 of the Penal Code for that conveying or receiving of information.

SEC. 3. Section 44237 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44237. (a) Commencing October 1, 1985, every person, firm, association, partnership, or corporation offering or conducting private school instruction on the elementary or high school level shall require each new employee having contact with minor pupils and not possessing a valid California state teaching credential, or not currently licensed by another state agency that requires a criminal record summary, to submit on or before the first day of his or her employment, two sets of fingerprints to the Department of Justice for the purpose of obtaining a criminal record summary from the Department of Justice and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. This requirement is a condition of employment. It is the intent of the Legislature under this section to assist in the employment decision. This section shall not be construed, however, to prohibit the employment of any person based upon his or her criminal record.

(b) The Department of Justice shall furnish a criminal record summary to the employer designated by a new employee submitting fingerprints pursuant to subdivision (a). The criminal record summary shall contain only arrests resulting in a conviction and arrests pending final adjudication. The criminal record summary furnished to the employer shall be maintained by the employer in a secured file separate from personnel files, and shall be maintained in accordance with regulations for Criminal Offender Record Information Security as specified in Subchapter 7 (commencing with Section 700) of Chapter 1 of Title 11 of the California Administrative Code.

(c) The Department of Justice shall review the criminal record summary it obtains from the Federal Bureau of Investigation to ascertain whether or not a new employee has a conviction record or an arrest pending final adjudication for any sex offense, controlled substance offense, or crime of violence. The Department of Justice shall provide written notification to the private school employer only as to whether or not a new employee has any convictions or arrests pending final adjudication for any of those crimes, but shall not provide information identifying any offense for which an employee was convicted or arrested.

(d) The employer may request subsequent arrest service from the Department of Justice as is provided under Section 11105.2 of the Penal Code.

(e) As used in this section, the following terms shall have the following definitions:

(1) "Crime of violence" means a conviction for any of the offenses specified in Section 273a of, in Section 273d of, or in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 of, the Penal Code, or a violation or attempted violation of Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 236) or Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 240) of Title 8 of Part 1 of the Penal Code.

An out-of-state conviction for any violation or attempted violation of any crime prescribed in this paragraph shall also be deemed a crime of violence.

(2) "Controlled substance offense" means a felony conviction for a violation or attempted violation of Division 10 (commencing with Section 11000) of the Health and Safety Code.

An out-of-state conviction for any violation or attempted violation of any crime prescribed in this paragraph shall also be deemed a crime of violence.

(3) "Employer" means every person, firm, association, partnership, or corporation offering or conducting private school instruction on the elementary or high school level.

(4) "New employee" means any person hired to work in a private school on or after July 1, 1985, on a regular, paid full-time, or regular, paid part-time, basis who will have contact with minor pupils.

(5) "Sex offense" has the same meaning as defined in Section 44010.

(f) Any new employee who wishes to have his or her employer consider information relevant to his or her criminal record, such as evidence of rehabilitation, shall be responsible for submitting these facts or documentation to his or her employer.

(g) The Commission on Teacher Credentialing shall send on a monthly basis to each private school a list of all teachers who have had their state teaching credential revoked or suspended. The list shall be identical to the list compiled for public schools in the state. The commission shall also send on a quarterly basis a complete and updated list of all teachers who have had their teaching credentials revoked or suspended, excluding teachers who have had their credentials reinstated, or who are deceased.

(h) The Department of Justice may charge each applicant for a criminal record summary a reasonable fee to cover costs associated with the processing, reviewing, and supplying of the criminal record summary as required by this section. In no event, shall the fee exceed the actual costs incurred by the department.

CHAPTER 1075

An act to amend Section 2236.1 of the Business and Professions Code, to amend Sections 44237, 67380, and 87010 of the Education Code, to amend Sections 352.1, 782, and 1103 of the Evidence Code, to amend Sections 358 and 3021 of the Family Code, to amend Sections 6254, 12970, 13960, and 19702 of the Government Code, to amend Section 273.5 of, and to add Section 679.04 to, the Penal Code, and to amend Sections 1732, 1767.1, 1781, 6500, 8103, and 15610.63 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to crimes.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1996. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1996.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2236.1 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

2236.1. (a) A physician and surgeon's certificate shall be suspended automatically during any time that the holder of the certificate is incarcerated after conviction of a felony, regardless of whether the conviction has been appealed. The Division of Medical Quality shall, immediately upon receipt of the certified copy of the record of conviction, determine whether the certificate of the physician and surgeon has been automatically suspended by virtue of his or her incarceration, and if so, the duration of that suspension. The division shall notify the physician and surgeon of the license suspension and of his or her right to elect to have the issue of penalty heard as provided in this section.

(b) Upon receipt of the certified copy of the record of conviction, if after a hearing it is determined therefrom that the felony of which the licensee was convicted was substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of a physician and surgeon, the Division of Medical Quality shall suspend the license until the time for appeal has elapsed, if no appeal has been taken, or until the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal or has otherwise become final, and until further order of the division. The issue of substantial relationship shall be heard by an administrative law judge from the Medical Quality Hearing Panel sitting alone or with a panel of the division, in the discretion of the division.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), a conviction of any crime referred to in Section 2237, or a conviction of Section 187, 261, 262, or 288 of the Penal Code, shall be conclusively presumed to be substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of a physician and surgeon and no hearing shall be held on this issue. Upon its own motion or for good cause shown, the division may decline to impose or may set aside the suspension when it appears to be in the interest of justice to do so, with due regard to maintaining the integrity of and confidence in the medical profession.

(d) (1) Discipline may be ordered in accordance with Section 2227, or the Division of Licensing may order the denial of the license when the time for appeal has elapsed, the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal, or an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence, irrespective of a subsequent order under Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code allowing the person to withdraw his or her plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty, setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, complaint, information, or indictment.

(2) The issue of penalty shall be heard by an administrative law judge from the Medical Quality Hearing Panel sitting alone or with a panel of the division, in the discretion of the division. The hearing shall not be had until the judgment of conviction has become final or, irrespective of a subsequent order under Section 1203.4 of the Penal Code, an order granting probation has been made suspending the imposition of sentence; except that a licensee may, at his or her option, elect to have the issue of penalty decided before those time periods have elapsed. Where the licensee so elects, the issue of penalty shall be heard in the manner described in this section at the hearing to determine whether the conviction was substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of a physician and surgeon. If the conviction of a licensee who has made this election is overturned on appeal, any discipline ordered pursuant to this section shall automatically cease. Nothing in this subdivision shall prohibit the division from pursuing disciplinary action based on any cause other than the overturned conviction.

(e) The record of the proceedings resulting in the conviction, including a transcript of the testimony therein, may be received in evidence.

(f) The other provisions of this article setting forth a procedure for the suspension or revocation of a physician and surgeon's certificate shall not apply to proceedings conducted pursuant to this section.

SEC. 2. Section 44237 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44237. (a) Commencing October 1, 1985, every person, firm, association, partnership, or corporation offering or conducting private school instruction on the elementary or high school level shall require each new employee having contact with minor pupils and not possessing a valid California state teaching credential, or not currently licensed by another state agency that requires a criminal record summary, to submit on or before the first day of his or her employment, two sets of fingerprints to the Department of Justice for the purpose of obtaining a criminal record summary from the Department of Justice and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. This requirement is a condition of employment. It is the intent of the Legislature under this section to assist in the employment decision.

This section shall not be construed, however, to prohibit the employment of any person based upon his or her criminal record.

(b) The Department of Justice shall furnish a criminal record summary to the employer designated by a new employee submitting fingerprints pursuant to subdivision (a). The criminal record summary shall contain only arrests resulting in a conviction and arrests pending final adjudication. The criminal record summary furnished to the employer shall be maintained by the employer in a secured file separate from personnel files, and shall be maintained in accordance with regulations for Criminal Offender Record Information Security as specified in Subchapter 7 (commencing with Section 700) of Chapter 1 of Title 11 of the California Code of Regulations.

(c) The Department of Justice shall review the criminal record summary it obtains from the Federal Bureau of Investigation to ascertain whether or not a new employee has a conviction record or an arrest pending final adjudication for any sex offense, controlled substance offense, or crime of violence. The Department of Justice shall provide written notification to the private school employer only as to whether or not a new employee has any convictions or arrests pending final adjudication for any of those crimes, but shall not provide information identifying any offense for which an employee was convicted or arrested.

(d) The employer may request subsequent arrest service from the Department of Justice as is provided under Section 11105.2 of the Penal Code.

(e) As used in this section, the following terms shall have the following definitions:

(1) "Crime of violence" means a conviction for any of the offenses specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 of the Penal Code, or a violation or attempted violation of Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 236) or Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 240) of Title 8 of Part 1 of the Penal Code.

Out-of-state convictions for any violation or attempted violation of any crime prescribed in this paragraph shall also be deemed a crime of violence.

(2) "Controlled substance offense" means a felony conviction for a violation or attempted violation of Division 10 (commencing with Section 11000) of the Health and Safety Code.

Out-of-state convictions for any violation or attempted violation of any crime prescribed in this paragraph shall also be deemed a crime of violence.

(3) "Employer" means every person, firm, association, partnership, or corporation offering or conducting private school instruction on the elementary or high school level.

(5) "Sex offense" means a conviction for any violation or attempted violation of Section 220, 261, 261.5, 262, 264, 266, 266j, 267, 273a, 273d, 285, 286, 288, 289, 311.2, 311.3, 311.4, 313.1, 314, 647b, or 647d of the Penal Code, or former Section 647a of the Penal Code, or commitment as a mentally disordered sex offender under former Article 1 (commencing with Section 6300) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code as repealed by Chapter 928 of the Statutes of 1981.

Out-of-state convictions for any violation or attempted violation of any crime prescribed in this paragraph shall also be deemed a sex offense.

(f) Any new employee who wishes to have his or her employer consider information relevant to his or her criminal record, such as evidence of rehabilitation, shall be responsible for submitting these facts or documentation to his or her employer.

(g) The Commission on Teacher Credentialing shall send on a monthly basis to each private school a list of all teachers who have had their state teaching credential revoked or suspended. The list shall be identical to the list compiled for public schools in the state. The commission shall also send on a quarterly basis a complete and updated list of all teachers who have had their teaching credentials revoked or suspended, excluding teachers who have had their credentials reinstated, or who are deceased.

(h) The Department of Justice may charge each applicant for a criminal record summary a reasonable fee to cover costs associated with the processing, reviewing, and supplying of the criminal record summary as required by this section. In no event shall the fee exceed the actual costs incurred by the department.

SEC. 2.5. Section 44237 of the Education Code is amended to read:

44237. (a) Commencing October 1, 1985, every person, firm, association, partnership, or corporation offering or conducting private school instruction on the elementary or high school level shall require each new employee having contact with minor pupils and not possessing a valid California state teaching credential, or not currently licensed by another state agency that requires a criminal record summary, to submit on or before the first day of his or her employment, two sets of fingerprints to the Department of Justice for the purpose of obtaining a criminal record summary from the Department of Justice and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. This requirement is a condition of employment. It is the intent of the Legislature under this section to assist in the employment decision. This section shall not be construed, however, to prohibit the employment of any person based upon his or her criminal record.

(b) The Department of Justice shall furnish a criminal record summary to the employer designated by a new employee submitting fingerprints pursuant to subdivision (a). The criminal record summary shall contain only arrests resulting in a conviction and arrests pending final adjudication. The criminal record summary furnished to the employer shall be maintained by the employer in a secured file separate from personnel files, and shall be maintained in accordance with regulations for Criminal Offender Record Information Security as specified in Subchapter 7 (commencing with Section 700) of Chapter 1 of Title 11 of the California Code of Regulations.

(c) The Department of Justice shall review the criminal record summary it obtains from the Federal Bureau of Investigation to ascertain whether or not a new employee has a conviction record or an arrest pending final adjudication for any sex offense, controlled substance offense, or crime of violence. The Department of Justice shall provide written notification to the private school employer only as to whether or not a new employee has any convictions or arrests pending final adjudication for any of those crimes, but shall not provide information identifying any offense for which an employee was convicted or arrested.

(d) The employer may request subsequent arrest service from the Department of Justice as is provided under Section 11105.2 of the Penal Code.

(e) As used in this section, the following terms shall have the following definitions:

(1) "Crime of violence" means a conviction for any of the offenses specified in Section 273a of, in Section 273d of, or in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 of the Penal Code, or a violation or attempted violation of Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 236) or Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 240) of Title 8 of Part 1 of the Penal Code.

An out-of-state conviction for any violation or attempted violation of any crime prescribed in this paragraph shall also be deemed a crime of violence.

(2) "Controlled substance offense" means a felony conviction for a violation or attempted violation of Division 10 (commencing with Section 11000) of the Health and Safety Code.

An out-of-state conviction for any violation or attempted violation of any crime prescribed in this paragraph shall also be deemed a crime of violence.

(3) "Employer" means every person, firm, association, partnership, or corporation offering or conducting private school instruction on the elementary or high school level.

(4) "New employee" means any person hired to work in a private school on or after July 1, 1985, on a regular, paid full-time or regular, paid part-time basis who will have contact with minor pupils.

(5) "Sex offense" has the same meaning as defined in Section 44010.

An out-of-state conviction for any violation or attempted violation of any crime prescribed in this paragraph shall also be deemed a sex offense.

(f) Any new employee who wishes to have his or her employer consider information relevant to his or her criminal record, such as evidence of rehabilitation, shall be responsible for submitting these facts or documentation to his or her employer.

(g) The Commission on Teacher Credentialing shall send on a monthly basis to each private school a list of all teachers who have had their state teaching credential revoked or suspended. The list shall be identical to the list compiled for public schools in the state. The commission shall also send on a quarterly basis a complete and updated list of all teachers who have had their teaching credentials revoked or suspended, excluding teachers who have had their credentials reinstated, or who are deceased.

(h) The Department of Justice may charge each applicant for a criminal record summary a reasonable fee to cover costs associated with the processing, reviewing, and supplying of the criminal record summary as required by this section. In no event shall the fee exceed the actual costs incurred by the department.

SEC. 3. Section 67380 of the Education Code is amended to read:

67380. (a) The governing board of each community college district, the Trustees of the California State University, the Board of Directors of the Hastings College of the Law, the Regents of the University of California, and the governing board of any postsecondary institution receiving public funds for student financial assistance shall do all of the following:

(1) Require the appropriate officials at each campus within their respective jurisdictions to compile records of both of the following:

(A) All occurrences reported to campus police, campus security personnel, or campus safety authorities of, and arrests for, crimes that are committed on campus and that involve violence, hate violence, theft or destruction of property, illegal drugs, or alcohol intoxication.

(B) All occurrences of noncriminal acts of hate violence reported to, and for which a written report is prepared by, designated campus authorities.

(2) Require any written record of a noncriminal act of hate violence to include, but not be limited to, the following:

(A) A description of the act of hate violence.

(B) Victim characteristics.

(C) Offender characteristics, if known.

(3) Make the information concerning the crimes compiled pursuant to subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) available within two business days following the request of any student or employee of, or applicant for admission to, any campus within their respective jurisdictions, or to the media, unless the information is the type of information exempt from disclosure pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 6254 of the Government Code, in which case the information is not required to be disclosed. Notwithstanding paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 6254 of the Government Code, the name of a victim of any crime defined by Section 261, 262, 264, 264.1, 273a, 273d, 273.5, 286, 288, 288a, 289, 422.6, 422.7, or 422.75 of the Penal Code shall not be disclosed without the permission of the victim, or the victim's parent or guardian if the victim is a minor.

For purposes of this paragraph and subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1), the campus police, campus security personnel, and campus safety authorities described in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) shall be included within the meaning of "state or local police agency" and "state and local law enforcement agency," as those terms are used in subdivision (f) of Section 6254 of the Government Code.

(4) Require the appropriate officials at each campus within their respective jurisdictions to prepare, prominently post, and copy for distribution on request a campus safety plan that sets forth all of the following: the availability and location of security personnel, methods for summoning assistance of security personnel, any special safeguards that have been established for particular facilities or activities, any actions taken in the preceding 18 months to increase safety, and any changes in safety precautions expected to be made during the next 24 months. For the purposes of this section, posting and distribution may be accomplished by including relevant safety information in a student handbook or brochure that is made generally available to students.

(5) Require the appropriate officials at each campus within their respective jurisdictions to report information compiled pursuant to paragraph (1) relating to hate violence to the governing board, trustees, board of directors, or regents, as the case may be. The governing board, trustees, board of directors, or regents, as the case may be, shall, upon collection of that information from all of the campuses within their jurisdiction, transmit a report containing a compilation of that information to the California Postsecondary Education Commission no later than January 1 of each year, commencing January 1, 1993. The commission shall submit a report to the Legislature and the Governor on July 1, 1993, and every two years thereafter, on the type and number of incidents of hate violence occurring in institutions of public higher education in California. It is the intent of the Legislature that the governing board of each community college district, the Trustees of the California State University, the Board of Directors of the Hastings College of the Law, the Regents of the University of California, and the governing board of any postsecondary institution receiving public funds for student financial assistance establish guidelines for identifying and reporting occurrences of hate violence. It is the intent of the Legislature that the guidelines established by these institutions of higher education be as consistent with each other as possible. These guidelines shall be developed in consultation with the California Postsecondary Education Commission, the Department of Fair Employment and Housing, and the California Association of Human Rights Organizations. The report shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(A) A comparison of incidents occurring in the year being reported to previous years for which there is hate violence data.

(B) To the extent possible, a comparison of incidents of hate violence occurring at community colleges, the California State University, the Hastings College of the Law, the University of California, and postsecondary institutions receiving funds for student financial assistance with incidents occurring at colleges and universities in other states and private universities in California.

(C) Findings and recommendations to the Legislature on the means of addressing hate violence at community colleges, the California State University, the Hastings College of the Law, the University of California, and postsecondary institutions receiving public funds for student financial assistance.

(b) Any person who is refused information required to be made available pursuant to subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) may maintain a civil action for damages against any institution that refuses to provide the information, and the court shall award that person an amount not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) if the court finds that the institution refused to provide the information.

(c) For purposes of this section, "hate violence" means any act of physical intimidation or physical harassment, physical force or physical violence, or the threat of physical force or physical violence, that is directed against any person or group of persons, or the property of any person or group of persons because of the ethnicity, race, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, disability, or political or religious beliefs of that person or group.

(d) This section does not apply to the governing board of any private postsecondary institution receiving funds for student financial assistance with a full-time enrollment of less than 1,000 students.

(e) This section shall apply to a campus of one of the public postsecondary educational systems identified in subdivision (a) only if that campus has a full-time equivalent enrollment of more than 1,000 students.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, this section shall not apply to the California Community Colleges unless and until the Legislature makes funds available to the California Community Colleges for the purposes of this section.

SEC. 4. Section 87010 of the Education Code is amended to read:

87010. "Sex offense," as used in Sections 87405, 88022, and 88123, means any one or more of the offenses listed below:

(a) Any offense defined in Section 261.5, 266, 267, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 647.6, or former Section 647a, paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 261, paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 262, or subdivision (a) or (d) of Section 647 of the Penal Code.

(b) Any offense defined in former subdivision 5 of former Section 647 of the Penal Code repealed by Chapter 560 of the Statutes of 1961, or any offense defined in former subdivision 2 of former Section 311 of the Penal Code repealed by Chapter 2147 of the Statutes of 1961, if the offense defined in those sections was committed prior to September 15, 1961, to the same extent that such an offense committed prior to that date was a sex offense for the purposes of this section prior to September 15, 1961.

(c) Any offense defined in Section 314 of the Penal Code committed on or after September 15, 1961.

(d) Any offense defined in former subdivision 1 of former Section 311 of the Penal Code repealed by Chapter 2147 of the Statutes of 1961 committed on or after September 7, 1955, and prior to September 15, 1961.

(e) Any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under Section 272 of the Penal Code committed on or after September 15, 1961.

(f) Any offense involving lewd and lascivious conduct under former Section 702 of the Welfare and Institutions Code repealed by Chapter 1616 of the Statutes of 1961, if the offense was committed prior to September 15, 1961, to the same extent that such an offense committed prior to that date was a sex offense for the purposes of this section prior to September 15, 1961.

(g) Any offense defined in Section 286 or 288a of the Penal Code prior to the effective date of the amendment of either section enacted at the 1975–76 Regular Session of the Legislature committed prior to the effective date of the amendment.

(h) Any attempt to commit any of the above-mentioned offenses.

(i) Any offense committed or attempted in any other state that, if committed or attempted in this state, would have been punishable as one or more of the above-mentioned offenses.

SEC. 5. Section 352.1 of the Evidence Code is amended to read:

352.1. In any criminal proceeding under Section 261, 262, or 264.1, subdivision (d) of Section 286, or subdivision (d) of Section 288a of the Penal Code, or in any criminal proceeding under subdivision (c) of Section 286 or subdivision (c) of Section 288a of the Penal Code in which the defendant is alleged to have compelled the participation of the victim by force, violence, duress, menace, or threat of great bodily harm, the district attorney may, upon written motion with notice to the defendant or the defendant's attorney, if he or she is represented by an attorney, within a reasonable time prior to any hearing, move to exclude from evidence the current address and telephone number of any victim at the hearing.

The court may order that evidence of the victim's current address and telephone number be excluded from any hearings conducted pursuant to the criminal proceeding if the court finds that the probative value of the evidence is outweighed by the creation of substantial danger to the victim.

Nothing in this section shall abridge or limit the defendant's right to discover or investigate the information.

SEC. 6. Section 782 of the Evidence Code is amended to read:

782. (a) In any prosecution under Section 261, 262, 264.1, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289 of the Penal Code, or for assault with intent to commit, attempt to commit, or conspiracy to commit any crime defined in any of those sections, except where the crime is alleged to have occurred in a local detention facility, as defined in Section 6031.4, or in a state prison, as defined in Section 4504, if evidence of sexual conduct of the complaining witness is offered to attack the credibility of the complaining witness under Section 780, the following procedure shall be followed:

(1) A written motion shall be made by the defendant to the court and prosecutor stating that the defense has an offer of proof of the relevancy of evidence of the sexual conduct of the complaining witness proposed to be presented and its relevancy in attacking the credibility of the complaining witness.

(2) The written motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit in which the offer of proof shall be stated.

(3) If the court finds that the offer of proof is sufficient, the court shall order a hearing out of the presence of the jury, if any, and at the hearing allow the questioning of the complaining witness regarding the offer of proof made by the defendant.

(4) At the conclusion of the hearing, if the court finds that evidence proposed to be offered by the defendant regarding the sexual conduct of the complaining witness is relevant pursuant to Section 780, and is not inadmissible pursuant to Section 352 of this code, the court may make an order stating what evidence may be introduced by the defendant, and the nature of the questions to be permitted. The defendant may then offer evidence pursuant to the order of the court.

(b) As used in this section, "complaining witness" means the alleged victim of the crime charged, the prosecution of which is subject to this section.

SEC. 7. Section 1103 of the Evidence Code is amended to read:

1103. (a) In a criminal action, evidence of the character or a trait of character (in the form of an opinion, evidence of reputation, or evidence of specific instances of conduct) of the victim of the crime for which the defendant is being prosecuted is not made inadmissible by Section 1101 if the evidence is:

(1) Offered by the defendant to prove conduct of the victim in conformity with the character or trait of character.

(2) Offered by the prosecution to rebut evidence adduced by the defendant under paragraph (1).

(b) In a criminal action, evidence of the defendant's character for violence or trait of character for violence (in the form of an opinion, evidence of reputation, or evidence of specific instances of conduct) is not made inadmissible by Section 1101 if the evidence is offered by the prosecution to prove conduct of the defendant in conformity with the character or trait of character and is offered after evidence that the victim had a character for violence or a trait of character tending to show violence has been adduced by the defendant under paragraph (1) of subdivision (a).

(c) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this code to the contrary, and except as provided in this subdivision, in any prosecution under Section 261, 262, or 264.1 of the Penal Code, or under Section 286, 288a, or 289 of the Penal Code, or for assault with intent to commit, attempt to commit, or conspiracy to commit a crime defined in any of those sections, except where the crime is alleged to have occurred in a local detention facility, as defined in Section 6031.4, or in a state prison, as defined in Section 4504, opinion evidence, reputation evidence, and evidence of specific instances of the complaining witness' sexual conduct, or any of that evidence, is not admissible by the defendant in order to prove consent by the complaining witness.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not be applicable to evidence of the complaining witness' sexual conduct with the defendant.

(3) If the prosecutor introduces evidence, including testimony of a witness, or the complaining witness as a witness gives testimony, and that evidence or testimony relates to the complaining witness' sexual conduct, the defendant may cross-examine the witness who gives the testimony and offer relevant evidence limited specifically to the rebuttal of the evidence introduced by the prosecutor or given by the complaining witness.

(4) Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to make inadmissible any evidence offered to attack the credibility of the complaining witness as provided in Section 782.

(5) As used in this section, "complaining witness" means the alleged victim of the crime charged, the prosecution of which is subject to this subdivision.

SEC. 8. Section 358 of the Family Code is amended to read:

358. (a) The State Department of Health Services shall prepare and publish a brochure which shall contain the following:

(1) Information concerning the possibilities of genetic defects and diseases and contain a listing of centers available for the testing and treatment of genetic defects and diseases.

(2) Information concerning acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS) and the availability of testing for antibodies to the probable causative agent of AIDS.

(3) Information concerning domestic violence, including resources available to victims and a statement that physical, emotional, psychological, and sexual abuse, and assault and battery, are against the law.

(b) The State Department of Health Services shall make the brochures available to county clerks who shall distribute a copy of the brochure to each applicant for a marriage license, including applicants for a confidential marriage license and notary publics receiving a confidential marriage license pursuant to Section 503.

(c) Each notary public authorizing a confidential marriage under Section 503 shall distribute a copy of the brochure to the applicants for a confidential marriage license.

(d) To the extent possible, the State Department of Health Services shall seek to combine in a single brochure all statutorily required information for marriage license applicants.

SEC. 8.5. Brochures containing the information required by Section 8 of this act, which amends Section 358 of the Family Code, shall not be required to be prepared and published until the existing supply of brochures is depleted.

SEC. 9. Section 3021 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3021. This part applies in any of the following:

(a) A proceeding for dissolution of marriage.

(b) A proceeding for nullity of marriage.

(c) A proceeding for legal separation of the parties.

(d) An action for exclusive custody pursuant to Section 3120.

(e) A proceeding to determine custody or visitation in a proceeding pursuant to the Domestic Violence Prevention Act (Division 10 (commencing with Section 6200).

Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to authorize custody or visitation rights to be granted to any nonparent party to a Domestic Violence Prevention Act proceeding. As used in this section, "nonparent" does not include a biological parent, alleged or presumed parent, adoptive parent, pending adoptive parent, foster parent, or step parent. By amending this subdivision during the 1995–96 Regular Session, it is the intent of the Legislature to restate existing law, and to clarify that nonparent parties may not seek a determination of custody or visitation rights through a Domestic Violence Prevention Act proceeding, but only through a proceeding for dissolution or legal separation, or an action to determine paternity or a petition for guardianship in accordance with the Uniform Parentage Act (Part 3 (commencing with Section 7600) of Division 12).

(f) A proceeding to determine custody or visitation in an action pursuant to the Uniform Parentage Act (Part 3 (commencing with Section 7600) of Division 12).

SEC. 11. Section 6254 of the Government Code is amended to read:

6254. Except as provided in Sections 6254.7 and 6254.13, nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require disclosure of records that are any of the following:

(a) Preliminary drafts, notes, or interagency or intra-agency memoranda that are not retained by the public agency in the ordinary course of business, provided that the public interest in withholding those records clearly outweighs the public interest in disclosure.

(b) Records pertaining to pending litigation to which the public agency is a party, or to claims made pursuant to Division 3.6 (commencing with Section 810), until the pending litigation or claim has been finally adjudicated or otherwise settled.

(c) Personnel, medical, or similar files, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

(d) Contained in or related to:

(1) Applications filed with any state agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of the issuance of securities or of financial institutions, including, but not limited to, banks, savings and loan associations, industrial loan companies, credit unions, and insurance companies.

(2) Examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of, any state agency referred to in paragraph (1).

(3) Preliminary drafts, notes, or interagency or intra-agency communications prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of, any state agency referred to in paragraph (1).

(4) Information received in confidence by any state agency referred to in paragraph (1).

(e) Geological and geophysical data, plant production data, and similar information relating to utility systems development, or market or crop reports, which are obtained in confidence from any person.

(f) Records of complaints to, or investigations conducted by, or records of intelligence information or security procedures of, the office of the Attorney General and the Department of Justice, and any state or local police agency, or any investigatory or security files compiled by any other state or local police agency, or any investigatory or security files compiled by any other state or local agency for correctional, law enforcement, or licensing purposes, except that state and local law enforcement agencies shall disclose the names and addresses of persons involved in, or witnesses other than confidential informants to, the incident, the description of any property involved, the date, time, and location of the incident, all diagrams, statements of the parties involved in the incident, the statements of all witnesses, other than confidential informants, to the victims of an incident, or an authorized representative thereof, an insurance carrier against which a claim has been or might be made, and any person suffering bodily injury or property damage or loss, as the result of the incident caused by arson, burglary, fire, explosion, larceny, robbery, carjacking, vandalism, vehicle theft, or a crime as defined by subdivision (c) of Section 13960, unless the disclosure would endanger the safety of a witness or other person involved in the investigation, or unless disclosure would endanger the successful completion of the investigation or a related investigation. However, nothing in this division shall require the disclosure of that portion of those investigative files that reflect the analysis or conclusions of the investigating officer.

Other provisions of this subdivision notwithstanding, state and local law enforcement agencies shall make public the following information, except to the extent that disclosure of a particular item of information would endanger the safety of a person involved in an investigation or would endanger the successful completion of the investigation or a related investigation:

(1) The full name and occupation of every individual arrested by the agency, the individual's physical description including date of birth, color of eyes and hair, sex, height and weight, the time and date of arrest, the time and date of booking, the location of the arrest, the factual circumstances surrounding the arrest, the amount of bail set, the time and manner of release or the location where the individual is currently being held, and all charges the individual is being held upon, including any outstanding warrants from other jurisdictions and parole or probation holds.

(2) Subject to the restrictions imposed by Section 841.5 of the Penal Code, the time, substance, and location of all complaints or requests for assistance received by the agency and the time and nature of the response thereto, including, to the extent the information regarding crimes alleged or committed or any other incident investigated is recorded, the time, date, and location of occurrence, the time and date of the report, the name and age of the victim, the factual circumstances surrounding the crime or incident, and a general description of any injuries, property, or weapons involved. The name of a victim of any crime defined by Section 220, 261, 262, 264, 264.1, 273a, 273d, 273.5, 286, 288, 288a, 289, 422.6, 422.7, 422.75, or 646.9 of the Penal Code may be withheld at the victim's request, or at the request of the victim's parent or guardian if the victim is a minor. When a person is the victim of more than one crime, information disclosing that the person is a victim of a crime defined by Section 220, 261, 262, 264, 264.1, 273a, 273d, 286, 288, 288a, 289, 422.6, 422.7, 422.75, or 646.9 of the Penal Code may be deleted at the request of the victim, or the victim's parent or guardian if the victim is a minor, in making the report of the crime, or of any crime or incident accompanying the crime, available to the public in compliance with the requirements of this paragraph.

(3) Subject to the restrictions of Section 841.5 of the Penal Code and this subdivision, the current address of every individual arrested by the agency and the current address of the victim of a crime, where the requester declares under penalty of perjury that the request is made for a scholarly, journalistic, political, or governmental purpose, or that the request is made for investigation purposes by a licensed private investigator as described in Chapter 11.3 (commencing with Section 7512) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, except that the address of the victim of any crime defined by Section 220, 261, 262, 264, 264.1, 273a, 273d, 273.5, 286, 288, 288a, 289, 422.6, 422.7, 422.75, or 646.9 of the Penal Code shall remain confidential. Address information obtained pursuant to this paragraph shall not be used directly or indirectly to sell a product or service to any individual or group of individuals, and the requester shall execute a declaration to that effect under penalty of perjury.

(g) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a licensing examination, examination for employment, or academic examination, except as provided for in Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 99150) of Part 65 of the Education Code.

(h) The contents of real estate appraisals or engineering or feasibility estimates and evaluations made for or by the state or local agency relative to the acquisition of property, or to prospective public supply and construction contracts, until all of the property has been acquired or all of the contract agreement obtained. However, the law of eminent domain shall not be affected by this provision.

(i) Information required from any taxpayer in connection with the collection of local taxes that is received in confidence and the disclosure of the information to other persons would result in unfair competitive disadvantage to the person supplying the information.

(j) Library circulation records kept for the purpose of identifying the borrower of items available in libraries, and library and museum materials made or acquired and presented solely for reference or exhibition purposes. The exemption in this subdivision shall not apply to records of fines imposed on the borrowers.

(k) Records the disclosure of which is exempted or prohibited pursuant to federal or state law, including, but not limited to, provisions of the Evidence Code relating to privilege.

(l) Correspondence of and to the Governor or employees of the Governor's office or in the custody of or maintained by the Governor's legal affairs secretary, provided that public records shall not be transferred to the custody of the Governor's legal affairs secretary to evade the disclosure provisions of this chapter.

(m) In the custody of or maintained by the Legislative Counsel, except those records in the public data base maintained by the Legislative Counsel that are described in Section 10248.

(n) Statements of personal worth or personal financial data required by a licensing agency and filed by an applicant with the licensing agency to establish his or her personal qualification for the license, certificate, or permit applied for.

(o) Financial data contained in applications for financing under Division 27 (commencing with Section 44500) of the Health and Safety Code, where an authorized officer of the California Pollution Control Financing Authority determines that disclosure of the financial data would be competitively injurious to the applicant and the data is required in order to obtain guarantees from the United States Small Business Administration. The California Pollution Control Financing Authority shall adopt rules for review of individual requests for confidentiality under this section and for making available to the public those portions of an application which are subject to disclosure under this chapter.

(p) Records of state agencies related to activities governed by Chapter 10.3 (commencing with Section 3512), Chapter 10.5 (commencing with Section 3525), and Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 3560) of Division 4 of Title 1, that reveal a state agency's deliberative processes, impressions, evaluations, opinions, recommendations, meeting minutes, research, work products, theories, or strategy, or that provide instruction, advice, or training to employees who do not have full collective bargaining and representation rights under these chapters. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit the disclosure duties of a state agency with respect to any other records relating to the activities governed by the employee relations acts referred to in this subdivision.

(q) Records of state agencies related to activities governed by Articles 2.6 (commencing with Section 14081), 2.8 (commencing with Section 14087.5), and 2.91 (commencing with Section 14089) of Chapter 7 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, that reveal the special negotiator's deliberative processes, discussions, communications, or any other portion of the negotiations with providers of health care services, impressions, opinions, recommendations, meeting minutes, research, work product, theories, or strategy, or that provide instruction, advice, or training to employees.

Except for the portion of a contract containing the rates of payment, contracts for inpatient services entered into pursuant to these articles, on or after April 1, 1984, shall be open to inspection one year after they are fully executed. In the event that a contract for inpatient services that is entered into prior to April 1, 1984, is amended on or after April 1, 1984, the amendment, except for any portion containing the rates of payment, shall be open to inspection one year after it is fully executed. If the California Medical Assistance Commission enters into contracts with health care providers for other than inpatient hospital services, those contracts shall be open to inspection one year after they are fully executed.

Three years after a contract or amendment is open to inspection under this subdivision, the portion of the contract or amendment containing the rates of payment shall be open to inspection.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the entire contract or amendment shall be open to inspection by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee. The Joint Legislative Audit Committee shall maintain the confidentiality of the contracts and amendments until the time a contract or amendment is fully open to inspection by the public.

(r) Records of Native American graves, cemeteries, and sacred places maintained by the Native American Heritage Commission.

(s) A final accreditation report of the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals that has been transmitted to the State Department of Health Services pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1282 of the Health and Safety Code.

(t) Records of a local hospital district, formed pursuant to Division 23 (commencing with Section 32000) of the Health and Safety Code, or the records of a municipal hospital, formed pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 37600) or Article 8 (commencing with Section 37650) of Chapter 5 of Division 3 of Title 4 of this code, that relate to any contract with an insurer or nonprofit hospital service plan for inpatient or outpatient services for alternative rates pursuant to Section 10133 or 11512 of the Insurance Code. However, the record shall be open to inspection within one year after the contract is fully executed.

(u) Information contained in applications for licenses to carry firearms issued pursuant to Section 12050 of the Penal Code by the sheriff of a county or the chief or other head of a municipal police department that indicates when or where the applicant is vulnerable to attack or that concerns the applicant's medical or psychological history or that of members of his or her family.

(v) (1) Records of the Major Risk Medical Insurance Program related to activities governed by Part 6.3 (commencing with Section 12695), and Part 6.5 (commencing with Section 12700), of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, and that reveal the deliberative processes, discussions, communications, or any other portion of the negotiations with health plans, or the impressions, opinions, recommendations, meeting minutes, research, work product, theories, or strategy of the board or its staff, or records that provide instructions, advice, or training to employees.

(2) (A) Except for the portion of a contract that contains the rates of payment, contracts for health coverage entered into pursuant to Part 6.3 (commencing with Section 12695), or Part 6.5 (commencing with Section 12700), of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, on or after July 1, 1991, shall be open to inspection one year after they have been fully executed.

(B) In the event that a contract for health coverage that is entered into prior to July 1, 1991, is amended on or after July 1, 1991, the amendment, except for any portion containing the rates of payment shall be open to inspection one year after the amendment has been fully executed.

(3) Three years after a contract or amendment is open to inspection pursuant to this subdivision, the portion of the contract or amendment containing the rates of payment shall be open to inspection.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the entire contract or amendments to a contract shall be open to inspection by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee. The Joint Legislative Audit Committee shall maintain the confidentiality of the contracts and amendments thereto, until the contract or amendments to a contract is open to inspection pursuant to paragraph (3).

(w) (1) Records of the Major Risk Medical Insurance Program related to activities governed by Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 10700) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, and that reveal the deliberative processes, discussions, communications, or any other portion of the negotiations with health plans, or the impressions, opinions, recommendations, meeting minutes, research, work product, theories, or strategy of the board or its staff, or records that provide instructions, advice, or training to employees.

(2) Except for the portion of a contract that contains the rates of payment, contracts for health coverage entered into pursuant to Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 10700) of Part 2 of Division 2 of the Insurance Code, on or after January 1, 1993, shall be open to inspection one year after they have been fully executed.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the entire contract or amendments to a contract shall be open to inspection by the Joint Legislative Audit Committee. The Joint Legislative Audit Committee shall maintain the confidentiality of the contracts and amendments thereto, until the contract or amendments to a contract is open to inspection pursuant to paragraph (2).

(x) Financial data contained in applications for registration, or registration renewal, as a service contractor filed with the Director of the Department of Consumer Affairs pursuant to Chapter 20 (commencing with Section 9800) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, for the purpose of establishing the service contractor's net worth, or, financial data regarding the funded accounts held in escrow for service contracts held in force in this state by a service contractor.

Nothing in this section prevents any agency from opening its records concerning the administration of the agency to public inspection, unless disclosure is otherwise prohibited by law.

Nothing in this section prevents any health facility from disclosing to a certified bargaining agent relevant financing information pursuant to Section 8 of the National Labor Relations Act.

SEC. 12. Section 12970 of the Government Code is amended to read:

12970. (a) If the commission finds that a respondent has engaged in any unlawful practice under this part, it shall state its findings of fact and determination and shall issue and cause to be served on the parties an order requiring the respondent to cease and desist from the unlawful practice and to take action, including, but not limited to, any of the following:

(1) The hiring, reinstatement or upgrading of employees, with or without backpay.

(2) The admission or restoration to membership in any respondent labor organization.

(3) The payment of actual damages as may be available in civil actions under this part, except as otherwise provided in this section. Actual damages include, but are not limited to, damages for emotional injuries if the accusation or amended accusation prays for those damages. Actual damages awarded under this section for emotional pain, suffering, inconvenience, mental anguish, loss of enjoyment of life, and other nonpecuniary losses shall not exceed, in combination with the amounts of any administrative fines imposed pursuant to subdivision (c), fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) per aggrieved person per respondent.

(4) Notwithstanding paragraph (3), the payment of actual damages up to one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) assessed against a respondent for a violation of Section 51.7 of the Civil Code, as an unlawful practice under this part.

(5) Affirmative or prospective relief to prevent the recurrence of the unlawful practice.

(6) A report to the commission as to the manner of compliance with the commission's order.

(b) An unlawful practice under this part alone is not sufficient to sustain an award of actual damages pursuant to this section. The department is required to prove, by a preponderance of the evidence, that an aggrieved person has sustained actual injury. In determining whether to award damages for emotional injuries, and the amount of any award for these damages, the commission shall consider relevant evidence of the effects of discrimination on the aggrieved person with respect to any or all of the following:

(1) Physical and mental well-being.

(2) Personal integrity, dignity, and privacy.

(3) Ability to work, earn a living, and advance in his or her career.

(4) Personal and professional reputation.

(5) Family relationships.

(6) Access to the job and ability to associate with peers and coworkers.

The commission shall also consider the duration of the emotional injury, and whether that injury was caused or exacerbated by an aggrieved person's knowledge of a respondent's failure to respond adequately to, or to correct, the discriminatory practice or by the egregiousness of the discriminatory practice.

(c) In addition to the foregoing, in order to vindicate the purposes and policies of this part, the commission may assess against the respondent, if the accusation or amended accusation so prays, an administrative fine per aggrieved person per respondent, the amount of which shall be determined in accordance with the combined amount limitation of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a).

(d) In determining whether to assess an administrative fine pursuant to this section, the commission shall find that the respondent has been guilty of oppression, fraud, or malice, expressed or implied, as required by Section 3294 of the Civil Code. In determining the amount of fines, the commission shall consider relevant evidence of, including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) Willful, intentional, or purposeful conduct.

(2) Refusal to prevent or eliminate discrimination.
(3) Conscious disregard for the rights of employees.
(4) Commission of unlawful conduct.
(5) Intimidation or harassment.
(6) Conduct without just cause or excuse.
(7) Multiple violations of the Fair Employment and Housing Act.

The moneys derived from an administrative fine assessed pursuant to this subdivision shall be deposited in the General Fund. No administrative fine shall be assessed against a public entity. The commission shall have no authority to award punitive damages as a remedy for a finding of employment discrimination.

(e) In addition to the foregoing, in order to vindicate the purposes and policies of this part, the commission may assess against the respondent if the accusation or amended accusation so prays, a civil penalty of up to twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) to be awarded to a person denied any right provided for by Section 51.7 of the Civil Code, as an unlawful practice prohibited under this part.

(f) If the commission finds the respondent has engaged in an unlawful practice under this part, and the respondent is licensed or granted a privilege by an agency of the state to do business, provide a service, or conduct activities, and the unlawful practice is determined to have occurred in connection with the exercise of that license or privilege, the commission shall provide the licensing or privilege granting agency with a copy of its decision or order.

(g) If the commission finds that a respondent has not engaged in an unlawful practice under this part, the commission shall state its findings of fact and determination and issue and cause to be served on the parties an order dismissing the accusation as to that respondent.

(h) Any findings and determination made or any order issued pursuant to this section shall be written and shall indicate the identity of the members of the commission who participated herein.

(i) Any order issued by the commission shall have printed on its face references to the rights of appeal of any party to the proceeding to whose position the order is adverse.

(j) If the commission finds that a respondent has engaged in an unlawful practice under this part, and it appears that this practice consisted of acts described in Section 243.4, 261, 262, 286, 288, 288a, or 289 of the Penal Code, the commission, with the consent of the complainant, shall provide the local district attorney's office with a copy of its decision and order.

(k) Notwithstanding Section 12960, if the commission finds that a respondent has engaged in unlawful discrimination in housing under Section 12948, the remedies afforded in Section 12987 or any other provision in this part pertaining to housing discrimination, shall apply.

SEC. 13. Section 13960 of the Government Code is amended to read:

13960. As used in this article:

(a) (1) "Victim" means a resident of the State of California, a member of the military stationed in California, or a family member living with a member of the military stationed in California who sustains injury or death as a direct result of a crime.

(2) "Derivative victim" means a resident of California who is one of the following:

(A) At the time of the crime was the parent, sibling, spouse, or child of the victim.

(B) At the time of the crime was living in the household of the victim.

(C) A person who had previously lived in the household of the victim for a period of not less than two years in a relationship substantially similar to a relationship listed in subparagraph (A).

(D) Is another family member of the victim, including the victim's fiance, and witnessed the crime.

(b) "Injury" includes physical or emotional injury, or both. However, this article does not apply to emotional injury unless that injury is incurred by a victim who also sustains physical injury or threat of physical injury. For purposes of this article, a victim of a crime committed in violation of Section 261, 262, 270, 270a, 270c, 271, 272, 273a, 273b, 273d, 285, 286, 288, 288.1, 288a, or 289 of the Penal Code, who sustains emotional injury is presumed to have sustained physical injury.

(c) "Crime" means a crime or public offense that would constitute a misdemeanor or a felony if committed in California by a competent adult that results in injury to a resident of this state, including a crime or public offense, wherever it may take place, when the resident is temporarily absent from the state. No act involving the operation of a motor vehicle, aircraft, or water vehicle that results in injury or death constitutes a crime for the purposes of this article, except that a crime shall include any of the following:

(1) Injury or death intentionally inflicted through the use of a motor vehicle, aircraft, or water vehicle.

(2) Injury or death caused by a driver in violation of Section 20001 of the Vehicle Code.

(3) Injury or death caused by a person who is under the influence of any alcoholic beverage or drug.

(4) Injury or death caused by a driver of a motor vehicle in the immediate act of fleeing the scene of a crime in which he or she knowingly and willingly participated.

For the purpose of the limitations imposed by this article, a crime shall mean one act or series of related acts arising from the same course of conduct with the same perpetrator or perpetrators.

(d) "Pecuniary loss" means the following expenses for which the victim or derivative victim has not been and will not be reimbursed from any other source:

(1) The amount of medical or medical-related expenses incurred by the victim, including in-patient psychological or psychiatric expenses, and including, but not limited to, eyeglasses, hearing aids, dentures, or any prosthetic device taken, lost, or destroyed during the commission of the crime, or the use of which became necessary as a direct result of the crime.

(2) The amount of out-patient mental health counseling related expenses that became necessary as a direct result of the crime. These counseling services may be provided by a person licensed as a clinical social worker or a person licensed as a marriage, family, and child counselor practicing within the scope of licensure, or within the scope of his or her respective practice acts.

(3) The loss of income that the victim or the loss of support that the derivative victim has incurred or will incur as a direct result of an injury or death.

(4) Pecuniary loss also includes nonmedical remedial care and treatment rendered in accordance with a religious method of healing recognized by state law.

(5) The amount of family psychiatric, psychological, or mental health counseling expenses necessary as a direct result of the crime for the successful treatment of the victim, provided to family members of the victim in the presence of the victim, whether or not the family member relationship existed at the time of the crime.

(e) "Board" means the State Board of Control.

(f) "Victim centers" means those centers as specified in Section 13835.2 of the Penal Code.

(g) "Peer counselor" means a provider of mental health counseling services who has completed a specialized course in rape crisis counseling skills development, participates in continuing education in rape crisis counseling skills development, and provides rape crisis counseling in consultation with a mental health practitioner licensed within the State of California.

SEC. 14. Section 19702 of the Government Code is amended to read:

19702. (a) A person shall not be discriminated against under this part because of sex, race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, marital status, physical disability, or mental disability. A person shall not be retaliated against because he or she has opposed any practice made an unlawful employment practice, or made a charge, testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under this part. For purposes of this article, "discrimination" includes harassment. This subdivision is declaratory of existing law.

(b) As used in this section, "physical disability" includes, but is not limited to, impairment of sight, hearing, or speech, or impairment of physical ability because of amputation or loss of function or coordination, or any other health impairment which requires special education or related services.

(c) As used in this section, "mental disability" includes, but is not limited to, any mental or psychological disorder, such as mental retardation, organic brain syndrome, emotional or mental illness, and specific learning disabilities.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivisions (b) and (c), if the definition of disability used in the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-336) would result in broader protection of the civil rights of individuals with a mental disability or physical disability, as defined in subdivision (b) or (c), then that broader protection shall be deemed incorporated by reference into, and shall prevail over conflicting provisions of, the definitions in subdivisions (b) and (c). The definitions of subdivisions (b) and (c) shall not be deemed to refer to or include conditions excluded from the federal definition of "disability" pursuant to Section 511 of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 12211).

(e) If the board finds that a person has engaged in discrimination under this part, and it appears that this practice consisted of acts described in Section 243.4, 261, 262, 286, 288, 288a, or 289 of the Penal Code, the board, with the consent of the complainant, shall provide the local district attorney's office with a copy of its decision and order.

(f) If the board finds that discrimination has occurred in violation of this part, the board shall issue and cause to be served on the appointing authority an order requiring the appointing authority to cause the discrimination to cease and desist and to take any action, including, but not limited to, hiring, reinstatement or upgrading of employees, with or without backpay, and compensatory damages, which, in the judgment of the board, will effectuate the purposes of this part. Consistent with this authority, the board may establish rules governing the award of compensatory damages. The order shall include a requirement of reporting the manner of compliance.

(g) Any person claiming discrimination within the state civil service may submit a complaint which shall be in writing and set forth the particulars of the alleged discrimination, the name of the appointing authority, the persons alleged to have committed the unlawful discrimination, and any other information that may be required by the board. The complaint shall be filed with the appointing authority or, in accordance with board rules, with the board itself.

(h) Complaints shall be filed within one year of the alleged unlawful discrimination or the refusal to act in accordance with this section, except that this period may be extended for not to exceed 90 days following the expiration of that year, if a person allegedly aggrieved by unlawful discrimination first obtained knowledge of the facts of the alleged unlawful discrimination after the expiration of one year from the date of its occurrence. Complaints of discrimination in adverse actions or rejections on probation shall be filed in accordance with Sections 19175 and 19575.

(i) When an employee of the appointing authority refuses, or threatens to refuse, to cooperate in the investigation of a complaint of discrimination, the appointing authority may seek assistance from the board. The board may provide for direct investigation or hearing of the complaint, the use of subpoenas, or any other action which will effect the purposes of this section.

SEC. 15. Section 273.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

273.5. (a) Any person who willfully inflicts upon his or her spouse, or any person who willfully inflicts upon any person with whom he or she is cohabiting, or any person who willfully inflicts upon any person who is the mother or father of his or her child, corporal injury resulting in a traumatic condition, is guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years, or in a county jail for not more than one year, or by a fine of up to six thousand dollars ($6,000), or by both.

(b) Holding oneself out to be the husband or wife of the person with whom one is cohabiting is not necessary to constitute cohabitation as the term is used in this section.

(c) As used in this section, "traumatic condition" means a condition of the body, such as a wound or external or internal injury, whether of a minor or serious nature, caused by a physical force.

(d) For the purpose of this section, a person shall be considered the father or mother of another person's child if the alleged male parent is presumed the natural father under Sections 7611 and 7612 of the Family Code.

(e) In any case in which a person is convicted of violating this section and probation is granted, the court shall require participation in a batterer's treatment program as a condition of probation, as specified in Section 1203.097.

(f) If probation is granted, or the execution or imposition of a sentence is suspended, for any person convicted under subdivision (a) who previously has been convicted under subdivision (a) for an offense that occurred within seven years of the offense of the second conviction, the person shall be punished pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 273.56.

(g) If probation is granted, or the execution or imposition of a sentence is suspended, for any person convicted under subdivision (a) who previously has been convicted of two or more violations of subdivision (a) for offenses that occurred within seven years of the most recent conviction, the person shall be punished pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 273.56.

(h) If probation is granted upon conviction of a violation of subdivision (a), the conditions of probation may include, in lieu of a fine, one or both of the following requirements:

(1) That the defendant make payments to a battered women's shelter, up to a maximum of five thousand dollars ($5,000), pursuant to Section 1203.097.

(2) That the defendant reimburse the victim for reasonable costs of counseling and other reasonable expenses that the court finds are the direct result of the defendant's offense.

For any order to pay a fine, make payments to a battered women's shelter, or pay restitution as a condition of probation under this subdivision, the court shall make a determination of the defendant's ability to pay. In no event shall any order to make payments to a battered women's shelter be made if it would impair the ability of the defendant to pay direct restitution to the victim or court-ordered child support. Where the injury to a married person is caused in whole or in part by the criminal acts of his or her spouse in violation of this section, the community property may not be used to discharge the liability of the offending spouse for restitution to the injured spouse, required by Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, or Section 1202.4, or to a shelter for costs with regard to the injured spouse and dependents, required by this section, until all separate property of the offending spouse is exhausted.

SEC. 16. Section 679.04 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

679.04. A victim of sexual assault, as defined in subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 11165.1, or spousal rape has the right to have advocates present at any evidentiary, medical, or physical examination or interview by law enforcement authorities or defense attorneys. As used in this section, "advocates" means a sexual assault victim counselor, as defined in Section 1035.2 of the Evidence Code, and at least one additional support person chosen by the victim.

SEC. 17. Section 1732 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

1732. No person convicted of violating Section 261, 262, or 264.1, subdivision (b) of Section 288, Section 289, or of sodomy or oral copulation by force, violence, duress, menace or threat of great bodily harm as provided in Section 286 or 288a of the Penal Code committed when that person was 18 years of age who has previously been convicted of any such felony shall be committed to the Youth Authority. This section does not prohibit the adjournment of criminal proceedings pursuant to Division 3 (commencing with Section 3000) or Division 6 (commencing with Section 6000) of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 18. Section 1767.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

1767.1. At least 30 days before the Youthful Offender Parole Board meets to review or consider the parole of any person who has been committed to the control of the Department of the Youth Authority for the commission of any offense described in subdivision (b), paragraph (2) of subdivision (d), or subdivision (e) of Section 707, or for the commission of an offense in violation of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 or paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 261 of the Penal Code, the board shall send written notice of the hearing to each of the following persons: the judge of the court that committed the person to the authority, the attorney for the person, the district attorney of the county from which the person was committed, and the law enforcement agency that investigated the case. The Youthful Offender Parole Board shall also send a progress report regarding the ward, prepared by the Department of the Youth Authority, to the judge of the court that committed the person at the same time it sends the written notice to the judge.

Each of the persons so notified shall have the right to submit a written statement to the board at least 10 days prior to the scheduled hearing for the board's consideration at the hearing. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to permit any person so notified to attend the hearing. With respect to the parole of any person over the age of 18 years, the presiding officer shall state findings and supporting reasons for the decision of the board at the hearing. The findings and reasons shall be reduced to writing, and shall be made available for inspection by members of the public no later than 30 days from the date of the hearing.

SEC. 19. Section 1781 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

1781. Upon the filing of a petition under this article, the court shall notify the person whose liberty is involved, and if he or she is a minor, his or her parent or guardian if practicable, of the application and shall afford him or her an opportunity to appear in court with the aid of counsel and of process to compel attendance of witnesses and production of evidence. When he or she is unable to provide his or her own counsel, the court shall appoint counsel to represent him or her.

In the case of any person who is the subject of such a petition and who is under the control of the Youth Authority for the commission of any offense of rape in violation of paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 or subdivision (2) or subdivision (3) of Section 261 of the Penal Code, or murder, the Youthful Offender Parole Board shall send written notice of the petition and of any hearing set for the petition to each of the following persons: the attorney for the person who is the subject of the petition, the district attorney of the county from which the person was committed, and the law enforcement agency that investigated the case. The board shall also send written notice to the victim of the rape or the next of kin of the person murdered if he or she requests notice from the board and keeps it apprised of his or her current mailing address. Notice shall be sent at least 30 days before the hearing.

SEC. 20. Section 6500 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6500. On and after July 1, 1971, no mentally retarded person may be committed to the State Department of Developmental Services pursuant to this article, unless he or she is a danger to himself or herself or others. For the purposes of this article, dangerousness to self or others shall be considered to include, but not be limited to, a finding of incompetence to stand trial pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1367) of Title 10 of Part 2 of the Penal Code when the defendant has been charged with murder, mayhem, aggravated mayhem, a violation of Section 207, 209, or 209.5 of the Penal Code in which the victim suffers intentionally inflicted great bodily injury, robbery perpetrated by torture or by a person armed with a dangerous or deadly weapon or in which the victim suffers great bodily injury, carjacking perpetrated by torture or by a person armed with a dangerous or deadly weapon or in which the victim suffers great bodily injury, a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 451 of the Penal Code, a violation of paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 or paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 261 of the Penal Code, a violation of Section 459 of the Penal Code in the first degree, assault with intent to commit murder, a violation of Section 220 of the Penal Code in which the victim suffers great bodily injury, a violation of Section 12303.1, 12303.3, 12308, 12309, or 12310 of the Penal Code, or if the defendant has been charged with a felony involving death, great bodily injury, or an act that poses a serious threat of bodily harm to another person.

Any order of commitment made pursuant to this article shall expire automatically one year after the order of commitment is made. This section shall not be construed to prohibit any party enumerated in Section 6502 from filing subsequent petitions for additional periods of commitment. In the event subsequent petitions are filed, the procedures followed shall be the same as with an initial petition for commitment.

In any proceedings conducted under the authority of this article the alleged mentally retarded person shall be informed of his or her right to counsel by the court; and if the person does not have an attorney for the proceedings the court shall immediately appoint the public defender or other attorney to represent him or her. The person shall pay the cost for that legal service if he or she is able to do so. At any judicial proceeding under the provisions of this article, allegations that a person is mentally retarded and a danger to himself or herself or to others shall be presented by the district attorney for the county unless the board of supervisors, by ordinance or resolution, delegates this authority to the county counsel.

SEC. 21. Section 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

8103. (a) (1) No person who after October 1, 1955, has been adjudicated by a court of any state to be a danger to others as a result of a mental disorder or mental illness, or who has been adjudicated to be a mentally disordered sex offender, shall purchase or receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, or have in his or her possession, custody, or control any firearm or any other deadly weapon unless there has been issued to the person a certificate by the court of adjudication upon release from treatment or at a later date stating that the person may possess a firearm or any other deadly weapon without endangering others, and the person has not, subsequent to the issuance of the certificate, again been adjudicated by a court to be a danger to others as a result of a mental disorder or mental illness.

(2) The court shall immediately notify the Department of Justice of the court order finding the individual to be a person described in paragraph (1). The court shall also notify the Department of Justice of any certificate issued as described in paragraph (1).

(b) (1) No person who has been found, pursuant to Section 1026 of the Penal Code or the law of any other state or the United States, not guilty by reason of insanity of murder, mayhem, a violation of Section 207, 209, or 209.5 of the Penal Code in which the victim suffers intentionally inflicted great bodily injury, carjacking or robbery in which the victim suffers great bodily injury, a violation of Section 451 or 452 of the Penal Code involving a trailer coach, as defined in Section 635 of the Vehicle Code, or any dwelling house, a violation of paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 or paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 261 of the Penal Code, a violation of Section 459 of the Penal Code in the first degree, assault with intent to commit murder, a violation of Section 220 of the Penal Code in which the victim suffers great bodily injury, a violation of Section 12303.1, 12303.2, 12303.3, 12308, 12309, or 12310 of the Penal Code, or of a felony involving death, great bodily injury, or an act which poses a serious threat of bodily harm to another person, or a violation of the law of any other state or the United States that includes all the elements of any of the above felonies as defined under California law, shall purchase or receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, or have in his or her possession or under his or her custody or control any firearm or any other deadly weapon.

(2) The court shall immediately notify the Department of Justice of the court order finding the person to be a person described in paragraph (1).

(c) (1) No person who has been found, pursuant to Section 1026 of the Penal Code or the law of any other state or the United States, not guilty by reason of insanity of any crime other than those described in subdivision (b) shall purchase or receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, or shall have in his or her possession, custody, or control any firearm or any other deadly weapon unless the court of commitment has found the person to have recovered sanity, pursuant to Section 1026.2 of the Penal Code or the law of any other state or the United States.

(2) The court shall immediately notify the Department of Justice of the court order finding the person to be a person described in paragraph (1). The court shall also notify the Department of Justice when it finds that the person has recovered his or her sanity.

(d) (1) No person found by a court to be mentally incompetent to stand trial, pursuant to Section 1370 or 1370.1 of the Penal Code or the law of any other state or the United States, shall purchase or receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, or shall have in his or her possession, custody, or control any firearm or any other deadly weapon, unless there has been a finding with respect to the person of restoration to competence to stand trial by the committing court, pursuant to Section 1372 of the Penal Code or the law of any other state or the United States.

(2) The court shall immediately notify the Department of Justice of the court order finding the person to be mentally incompetent as described in paragraph (1). The court shall also notify the Department of Justice when it finds that the person has recovered his or her competence.

(e) (1) No person who has been placed under conservatorship by a court, pursuant to Section 5350 or the law of any other state or the United States, because the person is gravely disabled as a result of a mental disorder or impairment by chronic alcoholism shall purchase or receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, or shall have in his or her possession, custody, or control any firearm or any other deadly weapon while under the conservatorship if, at the time the conservatorship was ordered or thereafter, the court which imposed the conservatorship found that possession of a firearm or any other deadly weapon by the person would present a danger to the safety of the person or to others. Upon placing any person under conservatorship, and prohibiting firearm or any other deadly weapon possession by the person, the court shall notify the person of this prohibition.

(2) The court shall immediately notify the Department of Justice of the court order placing the person under conservatorship and prohibiting firearm or any other deadly weapon possession by the person as described in paragraph (1). The notice shall include the date the conservatorship was imposed and the date the conservatorship is to be terminated. If the conservatorship is subsequently terminated before the date listed in the notice to the Department of Justice or the court subsequently finds that possession of a firearm or any other deadly weapon by the person would no longer present a danger to the safety of the person or others, the court shall immediately notify the Department of Justice.

(3) All information provided to the Department of Justice pursuant to paragraph (2) shall be kept confidential, separate, and apart from all other records maintained by the department, and shall be used only to determine eligibility to purchase or possess firearms or other deadly weapons. Any person who knowingly furnishes that information for any other purpose is guilty of a misdemeanor. All the information concerning any person shall be destroyed upon receipt by the Department of Justice of notice of the termination of conservatorship as to that person pursuant to paragraph (2).

(f) (1) No person who has been (A) taken into custody as provided in Section 5150 because that person is a danger to himself, herself, or to others, (B) assessed within the meaning of Section 5151, and (C) admitted to a designated facility within the meaning of Sections 5151 and 5152 because that person is a danger to himself, herself, or others, shall own, possess, control, receive, or purchase, or attempt to own, possess, control, receive, or purchase any firearm for a period of five years after the person is released from the facility. A person described in the preceding sentence, however, may own, possess, control, receive, or purchase, or attempt to own, possess, control, receive, or purchase any firearm if the superior court has, pursuant to paragraph (4), upon petition of the person, found, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the person is likely to use firearms in a safe and lawful manner.

(2) For each person subject to this subdivision, the facility shall immediately, on the date of admission, submit a report to the Department of Justice, on a form prescribed by the department, containing information that includes, but is not limited to, the identity of the person and the legal grounds upon which the person was admitted to the facility.

Any report prescribed by this subdivision shall be confidential, except for purposes of the court proceedings described in this subdivision and for determining the eligibility of the person to own, possess, control, receive, or purchase a firearm.

(3) Prior to, or concurrent with, the discharge, the facility shall inform a person subject to this subdivision that he or she is prohibited from owning, possessing, controlling, receiving, or purchasing any firearm for a period of five years. Simultaneously, the facility shall inform the person that he or she may petition a court, as provided in this subdivision, for an order permitting the person to own, possess, control, receive, or purchase a firearm.

(4) Any person who is subject to paragraph (1) may petition the superior court of his or her county of residence for an order that he or she may own, possess, control, receive, or purchase firearms. At the time the petition is filed, the clerk of the court shall set a hearing date and notify the person, the Department of Justice, and the district attorney. The People of the State of California shall be the respondent in the proceeding and shall be represented by the district attorney. Upon motion of the district attorney, or on its own motion, the superior court may transfer the petition to the county in which the person resided at the time of his or her detention, the county in which the person was detained, or the county in which the person was evaluated or treated. Within seven days after receiving notice of the petition, the Department of Justice shall file copies of the reports described in this section with the superior court. The reports shall be disclosed upon request to the person and to the district attorney. The district attorney shall be entitled to a continuance of the hearing to a date of not less than 14 days after the district attorney was notified of the hearing date by the clerk of the court. The district attorney may notify the county mental health director of the petition who shall provide information about the detention of the person that may be relevant to the court and shall file that information with the superior court. That information shall be disclosed to the person and to the district attorney. The court, upon motion of the person subject to paragraph (1) establishing that confidential information is likely to be discussed during the hearing that would cause harm to the person, shall conduct the hearing in camera with only the relevant parties present, unless the court finds that the public interest would be better served by conducting the hearing in public. Notwithstanding any other law, declarations, police reports, including criminal history information, and any other material and relevant evidence that is not excluded under Section 352 of the Evidence Code, shall be admissible at the hearing under this section. If the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the person would be likely to use firearms in a safe and lawful manner, the court may order that the person may own, control, receive, possess, or purchase firearms. A copy of the order shall be submitted to the Department of Justice. Upon receipt of the order, the Department of Justice shall delete any reference to the prohibition against firearms from the person's state summary criminal history information.

(5) Nothing in this subdivision shall prohibit the use of reports filed pursuant to this section to determine the eligibility of persons to own, possess, control, receive, or purchase a firearm if the person is the subject of a criminal investigation, a part of which involves the ownership, possession, control, receipt, or purchase of a firearm.

(g) (1) No person who has been certified for intensive treatment under Section 5250, 5260, or 5270.15 shall own, possess, control, receive, or purchase, or attempt to own, possess, control, receive, or purchase any firearm for a period of five years.

Any person who meets the criteria contained in subdivision (e) or (f) who is released from intensive treatment shall nevertheless, if applicable, remain subject to the prohibition contained in subdivision (e) or (f).

(2) For each person certified for intensive treatment under paragraph (1), the facility shall immediately submit a report to the Department of Justice, on a form prescribed by the department, containing information regarding the person, including, but not limited to, the legal identity of the person and the legal grounds upon which the person was certified. Any report submitted pursuant to this paragraph shall only be used for the purposes specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (f).

(3) Prior to, or concurrent with, the discharge of each person certified for intensive treatment under paragraph (1), the facility shall inform the person of that information specified in paragraph (3) of subdivision (f).

(4) Any person who is subject to the prohibition contained in paragraph (1) may fully invoke paragraph (4) of subdivision (f).

(h) For all persons identified in subdivisions (f) and (g), facilities shall report to the Department of Justice as specified in those subdivisions, except facilities shall not report persons under subdivision (g) if the same persons previously have been reported under subdivision (f).

Additionally, all facilities shall report to the Department of Justice upon the discharge of persons from whom reports have been submitted pursuant to subdivision (f) or (g). However, a report shall not be filed for persons who are discharged within 31 days after the date of admission.

(i) Every person who owns or possesses or has under his or her custody or control, or purchases or receives, or attempts to purchase or receive, any firearm or any other deadly weapon in violation of this section shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison or in a county jail for not more than one year.

(j) "Deadly weapon," as used in this section, has the meaning prescribed by Section 8100.

SEC. 22. Section 15610.63 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

15610.63. "Physical abuse" means any of the following:

(a) Assault, as defined in Section 240 of the Penal Code.

(b) Battery, as defined in Section 242 of the Penal Code.

(c) Assault with a deadly weapon or force likely to produce great bodily injury, as defined in Section 245 of the Penal Code.

(d) Unreasonable physical constraint, or prolonged or continual deprivation of food or water.

(e) Sexual assault, that means any of the following:

(1) Sexual battery, as defined in Section 243.4 of the Penal Code.

(2) Rape, as defined in Section 261 of the Penal Code.

(3) Rape in concert, as described in Section 264.1 of the Penal Code.

(4) Spousal rape, as defined in Section 262 of the Penal Code.

(5) Incest, as defined in Section 285 of the Penal Code.

(6) Sodomy, as defined in Section 286 of the Penal Code.

(7) Oral copulation, as defined in Section 288a of the Penal Code.

(8) Penetration of a genital or anal opening by a foreign object, as defined in Section 289 of the Penal Code.

(f) Use of a physical or chemical restraint or psychotropic medication under any of the following conditions:

(1) For punishment.

(2) For a period beyond that for which the medication was ordered pursuant to the instructions of a physician and surgeon licensed in the State of California, who is providing medical care to the elder or dependent adult at the time the instructions are given.

(3) For any purpose not authorized by the physician and surgeon.

SEC. 23. Section 2.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 44237 of the Education Code proposed by both this bill and Assembly Bill 2738. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 44237 of the Education Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after Assembly Bill 2738, in which case Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 24. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 1076

An act to amend Sections 1370 and 1370.1 of the Penal Code, and to amend Sections 4800, 4801, 6500, 6504.5, 6506, 6509, and 6513 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to criminal procedure.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1996. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1996.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1370 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1370. (a) (1) (A) If the defendant is found mentally competent, the criminal process shall resume, the trial on the offense charged shall proceed, and judgment may be pronounced. If the defendant is found mentally incompetent, the trial or judgment shall be suspended until the person becomes mentally competent, and the court shall order that (i) in the meantime, the defendant be delivered by the sheriff to a state hospital for the care and treatment of the mentally disordered or to any other available public or private treatment facility approved by the community program director that will promote the defendant's speedy restoration to mental competence, or placed on outpatient status as specified in Section 1600, and (ii) upon the filing of a certificate of restoration to competence, the defendant be returned to court in accordance with Section 1372. The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the community program director or a designee.

(B) A defendant charged with a violent felony may not be delivered to a state hospital or treatment facility pursuant to this subdivision unless the state hospital or treatment facility has a secured perimeter or a locked and controlled treatment facility, and the judge determines that the public safety will be protected.

(C) For purposes of this paragraph, "violent felony" means an offense specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5.

(D) A defendant charged with a violent felony may be placed on outpatient status, as specified in Section 1600, only if the court finds that the placement will not pose a danger to the health or safety of others.

(2) Prior to making the order directing that the defendant be confined in a state hospital or other treatment facility or placed on outpatient status, the court shall order the community program director or a designee to evaluate the defendant and to submit to the court within 15 judicial days of the order a written recommendation as to whether the defendant should be required to undergo outpatient treatment, or committed to a state hospital or to any other treatment facility. No person shall be admitted to a state hospital or other treatment facility or placed on outpatient status under this section without having been evaluated by the community program director or a designee.

(3) When the court, after considering the placement recommendation of the community program director that is required in paragraph (2), orders that the defendant be confined in a state hospital or other public or private treatment facility, the court shall provide copies of the following documents which shall be taken with the defendant to the state hospital or other treatment facility where the defendant is to be confined:

(A) The commitment order, including a specification of the charges.

(B) A computation or statement setting forth the maximum term of commitment in accordance with subdivision (c).

(C) A computation or statement setting forth the amount of credit for time served, if any, to be deducted from the maximum term of commitment.

(D) State Summary Criminal History information.

(E) Any arrest reports prepared by the police department or other law enforcement agency.

(F) Any court-ordered psychiatric examination or evaluation reports.

(G) The community program director's placement recommendation report.

(4) When directing that the defendant be confined in a state hospital pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall select the hospital in accordance with the policies established by the State Department of Mental Health.

(5) If the defendant is committed or transferred to a state hospital pursuant to this section, the court may, upon receiving the written recommendation of the medical director of the state hospital and the community program director that the defendant be transferred to a public or private treatment facility approved by the community program director, order the defendant transferred to that facility. If the defendant is committed or transferred to a public or private treatment facility approved by the community program director, the court may, upon receiving the written recommendation of the community program director, transfer the defendant to a state hospital or to another public or private treatment facility approved by the community program director. In the event of dismissal of the criminal charges before the defendant recovers competence, the person shall be subject to the applicable provisions of the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code). Where either the defendant or the prosecutor chooses to contest either kind of order of transfer, a petition may be filed in the court for a hearing, which shall be held if the court determines that sufficient grounds exist. At the hearing, the prosecuting attorney or the defendant may present evidence bearing on the order of transfer. The court shall use the same standards as are used in conducting probation revocation hearings pursuant to Section 1203.2.

Prior to making an order for transfer under this section, the court shall notify the defendant, the attorney of record for the defendant, the prosecuting attorney, and the community program director or a designee.

(b) (1) Within 90 days of a commitment made pursuant to subdivision (a), the medical director of the state hospital or other treatment facility to which the defendant is confined shall make a written report to the court and the community program director for the county or region of commitment, or a designee, concerning the defendant's progress toward recovery of mental competence. Where the defendant is on outpatient status, the outpatient treatment staff shall make a written report to the community program director concerning the defendant's progress toward recovery of mental competence. Within 90 days of placement on outpatient status, the community program director shall report to the court on this matter. If the defendant has not recovered mental competence, but the report discloses a substantial likelihood that the defendant will regain mental competence in the foreseeable future, the defendant shall remain in the state hospital or other treatment facility or on outpatient status. Thereafter, at six-month intervals or until the defendant becomes mentally competent, where the defendant is confined in a treatment facility, the medical director of the hospital or person in charge of the facility shall report in writing to the court and the community program director or a designee regarding the defendant's progress toward recovery of mental competence. Where the defendant is on outpatient status, after the initial 90-day report, the outpatient treatment staff shall report to the community program director on the defendant's progress toward recovery, and the community program director shall report to the court on this matter at six-month intervals. A copy of these reports shall be provided to the prosecutor and defense counsel by the court. If the report indicates that there is no substantial likelihood that the defendant will regain mental competence in the foreseeable future, the committing court shall order the defendant to be returned to the court for proceedings pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (c). The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the community program director or a designee.

(2) Any defendant who has been committed or has been on outpatient status for 18 months and is still hospitalized or on outpatient status shall be returned to the committing court where a hearing shall be held pursuant to the procedures set forth in Section 1369. The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the community program director or a designee.

(3) If it is determined by the court that no treatment for the defendant's mental impairment is being conducted, the defendant shall be returned to the committing court. The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the community program director or a designee.

(4) At each review by the court specified in this subdivision, the court shall determine if the security level of housing and treatment is appropriate and may make an order in accordance with its determination.

(c) (1) At the end of three years from the date of commitment or a period of commitment equal to the maximum term of imprisonment provided by law for the most serious offense charged in the information, indictment, or misdemeanor complaint, whichever is shorter, a defendant who has not recovered mental competence shall be returned to the committing court. The court shall notify the community program director or a designee of the return and of any resulting court orders.

(2) Whenever any defendant is returned to the court pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (b) or paragraph (1) of this subdivision and it appears to the court that the defendant is gravely disabled, as defined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 5008 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the court shall order the conservatorship investigator of the county of commitment of the defendant to initiate conservatorship proceedings for the defendant pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 5350) of Part 1 of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. Any hearings required in the conservatorship proceedings shall be held in the superior court in the county that ordered the commitment. The court shall transmit a copy of the order directing initiation of conservatorship proceedings to the community program director or a designee and shall notify the community program director or a designee of the outcome of the proceedings.

(3) Where the defendant is confined in a treatment facility, a copy of any report to the committing court regarding the defendant's progress toward recovery of mental competence shall be provided by the committing court to the prosecutor and to the defense counsel.

(d) The criminal action remains subject to dismissal pursuant to Section 1385. If the criminal action is dismissed, the court shall transmit a copy of the order of dismissal to the community program director or a designee.

(e) If the criminal charge against the defendant is dismissed, the defendant shall be released from any commitment ordered under this section, but without prejudice to the initiation of any proceedings that may be appropriate under the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act, Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(f) As used in this chapter, "community program director" means the person, agency, or entity designated by the State Department of Mental Health pursuant to Section 1605 of this code and Section 4360 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

SEC. 1.5. Section 1370 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1370. (a) (1) (A) If the defendant is found mentally competent, the criminal process shall resume, the trial on the offense charged shall proceed, and judgment may be pronounced.

(B) If the defendant is found mentally incompetent, the trial or judgment shall be suspended until the person becomes mentally competent.

(i) In the meantime, the court shall order that the mentally incompetent defendant be delivered by the sheriff to a state hospital for the care and treatment of the mentally disordered, or to any other available public or private treatment facility approved by the community program director that will promote the defendant's speedy restoration to mental competence, or placed on outpatient status as specified in Section 1600.

(ii) However, if the action against the defendant who has been found mentally incompetent is on a complaint charging a felony offense specified in Section 290, the prosecutor shall determine whether the defendant previously has been found mentally incompetent to stand trial pursuant to this chapter on a charge of a Section 290 offense, or whether the defendant is currently the subject of a pending Section 1368 proceeding arising out of a charge of a Section 290 offense. If either determination is made, the prosecutor shall so notify the court and defendant in writing. After this notification, and opportunity for hearing, the court shall order that the defendant be delivered by the sheriff to a state hospital or other secure treatment facility for the care and treatment of the mentally disordered unless the court makes specific findings on the record that an alternative placement would provide more appropriate treatment for the defendant and would not pose a danger to the health and safety of others.

(iii) If the action against the defendant who has been found mentally incompetent is on a complaint charging a felony offense specified in Section 290 and the defendant has been denied bail pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 12 of Article I of the California

Constitution because the court has found, based upon clear and convincing evidence, a substantial likelihood that the person's release would result in great bodily harm to others, the court shall order that the defendant be delivered by the sheriff to a state hospital for the care and treatment of the mentally disordered unless the court makes specific findings on the record that an alternative placement would provide more appropriate treatment for the defendant and would not pose a danger to the health and safety of others.

(iv) The clerk of the court shall notify the Department of Justice in writing of any finding of mental incompetence with respect to a defendant who is subject to clause (ii) or (iii) for inclusion in his or her state summary criminal history information.

(C) Upon the filing of a certificate of restoration to competence, the court shall order that the defendant be returned to court in accordance with Section 1372. The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the community program director or a designee.

(D) A defendant charged with a violent felony may not be delivered to a state hospital or treatment facility pursuant to this subdivision unless the state hospital or treatment facility has a secured perimeter or a locked and controlled treatment facility, and the judge determines that the public safety will be protected.

(E) For purposes of this paragraph, "violent felony" means an offense specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5.

(F) A defendant charged with a violent felony may be placed on outpatient status, as specified in Section 1600, only if the court finds that the placement will not pose a danger to the health or safety of others.

(2) Prior to making the order directing that the defendant be confined in a state hospital or other treatment facility or placed on outpatient status, the court shall order the community program director or a designee to evaluate the defendant and to submit to the court within 15 judicial days of the order a written recommendation as to whether the defendant should be required to undergo outpatient treatment, or committed to a state hospital or to any other treatment facility. No person shall be admitted to a state hospital or other treatment facility or placed on outpatient status under this section without having been evaluated by the community program director or a designee.

(3) When the court orders that the defendant be confined in a state hospital or other public or private treatment facility, the court shall provide copies of the following documents which shall be taken with the defendant to the state hospital or other treatment facility where the defendant is to be confined:

(A) The commitment order, including a specification of the charges.

(B) A computation or statement setting forth the maximum term of commitment in accordance with subdivision (c).

(C) A computation or statement setting forth the amount of credit for time served, if any, to be deducted from the maximum term of commitment.

(D) State summary criminal history information.

(E) Any arrest reports prepared by the police department or other law enforcement agency.

(F) Any court-ordered psychiatric examination or evaluation reports.

(G) The community program director's placement recommendation report.

(H) Records of any finding of mental incompetence pursuant to this chapter arising out of a complaint charging a felony offense specified in Section 290 or any pending Section 1368 proceeding arising out of a charge of a Section 290 offense.

(4) When the defendant is committed to a treatment facility pursuant to clause (i) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) or the court makes the findings specified in clause (ii) or (iii) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) to assign the defendant to a treatment facility other than a state hospital or other secure treatment facility, the court shall order that notice be given to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction at the site of the placement facility of any finding of mental incompetence pursuant to this chapter arising out of a charge of a Section 290 offense.

(5) When directing that the defendant be confined in a state hospital pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall select the hospital in accordance with the policies established by the State Department of Mental Health.

(6) (A) If the defendant is committed or transferred to a state hospital pursuant to this section, the court may, upon receiving the written recommendation of the medical director of the state hospital and the community program director that the defendant be transferred to a public or private treatment facility approved by the community program director, order the defendant transferred to that facility. If the defendant is committed or transferred to a public or private treatment facility approved by the community program director, the court may, upon receiving the written recommendation of the community program director, transfer the defendant to a state hospital or to another public or private treatment facility approved by the community program director. In the event of dismissal of the criminal charges before the defendant recovers competence, the person shall be subject to the applicable provisions of the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code). Where either the defendant or the prosecutor chooses to contest either kind of order of transfer, a petition may be filed in the court for a hearing, which shall be held if the court determines that sufficient grounds exist. At the hearing, the prosecuting attorney or the defendant may present evidence bearing on the order of transfer. The court shall use the same standards as are used in conducting probation revocation hearings pursuant to Section 1203.2.

Prior to making an order for transfer under this section, the court shall notify the defendant, the attorney of record for the defendant, the prosecuting attorney, and the community program director or a designee.

(B) If the defendant is initially committed to a state hospital or secure treatment facility pursuant to clause (ii) or (iii) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) and is subsequently transferred to any other facility, copies of the documents specified in paragraph (3) shall be taken with the defendant to each subsequent facility to which the defendant is transferred. The transferring facility shall also notify the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction at the site of the new facility that the defendant is a person subject to clause (ii) or (iii) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1).

(b) (1) Within 90 days of a commitment made pursuant to subdivision (a), the medical director of the state hospital or other treatment facility to which the defendant is confined shall make a written report to the court and the community program director for the county or region of commitment, or a designee, concerning the defendant's progress toward recovery of mental competence. Where the defendant is on outpatient status, the outpatient treatment staff shall make a written report to the community program director concerning the defendant's progress toward recovery of mental competence. Within 90 days of placement on outpatient status, the community program director shall report to the court on this matter. If the defendant has not recovered mental competence, but the report discloses a substantial likelihood that the defendant will regain mental competence in the foreseeable future, the defendant shall remain in the state hospital or other treatment facility or on outpatient status. Thereafter, at six-month intervals or until the defendant becomes mentally competent, where the defendant is confined in a treatment facility, the medical director of the hospital or person in charge of the facility shall report in writing to the court and the community program director or a designee regarding the defendant's progress toward recovery of mental competence. Where the defendant is on outpatient status, after the initial 90-day report, the outpatient treatment staff shall report to the community program director on the defendant's progress toward recovery, and the community program director shall report to the court on this matter at six-month intervals. A copy of these reports shall be provided to the prosecutor and defense counsel by the court. If the report indicates that there is no substantial likelihood that the defendant will regain mental competence in the foreseeable future, the committing court shall order the defendant to be returned to the court for proceedings pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (c).

The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the community program director or a designee.

(2) Any defendant who has been committed or has been on outpatient status for 18 months and is still hospitalized or on outpatient status shall be returned to the committing court where a hearing shall be held pursuant to the procedures set forth in Section 1369. The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the community program director or a designee.

(3) If it is determined by the court that no treatment for the defendant's mental impairment is being conducted, the defendant shall be returned to the committing court. The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the community program director or a designee.

(4) At each review by the court specified in this subdivision, the court shall determine if the security level of housing and treatment is appropriate and may make an order in accordance with its determination.

(c) (1) At the end of three years from the date of commitment or a period of commitment equal to the maximum term of imprisonment provided by law for the most serious offense charged in the information, indictment, or misdemeanor complaint, whichever is shorter, a defendant who has not recovered mental competence shall be returned to the committing court. The court shall notify the community program director or a designee of the return and of any resulting court orders.

(2) Whenever any defendant is returned to the court pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (b) or paragraph (1) of this subdivision and it appears to the court that the defendant is gravely disabled, as defined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (h) of Section 5008 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the court shall order the conservatorship investigator of the county of commitment of the defendant to initiate conservatorship proceedings for the defendant pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 5350) of Part 1 of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. Any hearings required in the conservatorship proceedings shall be held in the superior court in the county that ordered the commitment. The court shall transmit a copy of the order directing initiation of conservatorship proceedings to the community program director or a designee and shall notify the community program director or a designee of the outcome of the proceedings.

(3) Where the defendant is confined in a treatment facility, a copy of any report to the committing court regarding the defendant's progress toward recovery of mental competence shall be provided by the committing court to the prosecutor and to the defense counsel.

(d) The criminal action remains subject to dismissal pursuant to Section 1385. If the criminal action is dismissed, the court shall transmit a copy of the order of dismissal to the community program director or a designee.

(e) If the criminal charge against the defendant is dismissed, the defendant shall be released from any commitment ordered under this section, but without prejudice to the initiation of any proceedings that may be appropriate under the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act, Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(f) As used in this chapter, "community program director" means the person, agency, or entity designated by the State Department of Mental Health pursuant to Section 1605 of this code and Section 4360 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(g) For the purpose of this section, "secure treatment facility" shall not include, except for state mental hospitals, state developmental centers, and correctional treatment facilities, any facility licensed pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) of, Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500) of, or Chapter 3.2 (commencing with Section 1569) of, Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, or any community board and care facility.

SEC. 2. Section 1370.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1370.1. (a) (1) (A) If the defendant is found mentally competent, the criminal process shall resume, the trial on the offense charged shall proceed, and judgment may be pronounced. If the defendant is found mentally incompetent and is developmentally disabled, the trial or judgment shall be suspended until the defendant becomes mentally competent, and the court shall consider a recommendation for placement, which recommendation shall be made to the court by the director of a regional center or designee, and shall order that (i) in the meantime, the defendant be delivered by the sheriff or other person designated by the court to a state hospital or developmental center for the care and treatment of the developmentally disabled or any other available residential facility approved by the director of a regional center for the developmentally disabled established under Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 4500) of the Welfare and Institutions Code as will promote the defendant's speedy attainment of mental competence, or be placed on outpatient status pursuant to the provisions of Section 1370.4 and Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600) of Part 2, and (ii) upon becoming competent, the defendant be returned to the committing court pursuant to the procedures set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 1372 or by another person designated by the court. The court shall further determine conditions under which the person may be absent from the placement for medical treatment, social visits, and other similar activities. Required levels of supervision and security for these activities shall be specified. The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the regional center director or designee and to the Director of Developmental Services.

(B) A defendant charged with a violent felony may not be placed in a facility or delivered to a state hospital, developmental center, or residential facility pursuant to this subdivision unless the facility, state hospital, developmental center, or residential facility has a secured perimeter or a locked and controlled treatment facility, and the judge determines that the public safety will be protected.

(C) For purposes of this paragraph, "violent felony" means an offense specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5.

(D) A defendant charged with a violent felony may be placed on outpatient status, as specified in Section 1370.4 or 1600, only if the court finds that the placement will not pose a danger to the health or safety of others.

(E) As used in this section, "developmental disability" means a disability that originates before an individual attains age 18, continues, or can be expected to continue, indefinitely and constitutes a substantial handicap for the individual, and shall not include other handicapping conditions that are solely physical in nature. As defined by the Director of Developmental Services, in consultation with the Superintendent of Public Instruction, this term shall include mental retardation, cerebral palsy, epilepsy, and autism. This term shall also include handicapping conditions found to be closely related to mental retardation or to require treatment similar to that required for mentally retarded individuals, but shall not include other handicapping conditions that are solely physical in nature.

(2) Prior to making the order directing the defendant be confined in a state hospital, developmental center, or other residential facility or be placed on outpatient status, the court shall order the regional center director or designee to evaluate the defendant and to submit to the court within 15 judicial days of the order a written recommendation as to whether the defendant should be committed to a state hospital or developmental center or to any other available residential facility approved by the regional center director. No person shall be admitted to a state hospital, developmental center, or other residential facility or accepted for outpatient status under Section 1370.4 without having been evaluated by the regional center director or designee.

If the defendant is committed or transferred to a state hospital or developmental center pursuant to this section, the court may, upon receiving the written recommendation of the executive director of the state hospital or developmental center and the regional center director that the defendant be transferred to a residential facility approved by the regional center director, order the defendant transferred to the facility. If the defendant is committed or transferred to a residential facility approved by the regional center director, the court may, upon receiving the written recommendation of the regional center director, transfer the defendant to a state hospital or developmental center or to another residential facility approved by the regional center director.

In the event of dismissal of the criminal charges before the defendant recovers competence, the person shall be subject to the applicable provisions of the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code) or to commitment or detention pursuant to a petition filed pursuant to Section 6502 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

The defendant or prosecuting attorney may contest either kind of order of transfer by filing a petition with the court for a hearing, which shall be held if the court determines that sufficient grounds exist. At the hearing the prosecuting attorney or the defendant may present evidence bearing on the order of transfer. The court shall use the same standards as used in conducting probation revocation hearings pursuant to Section 1203.2.

Prior to making an order for transfer under this section, the court shall notify the defendant, the attorney of record for the defendant, the prosecuting attorney, and the regional center director or designee.

(b) (1) Within 90 days of admission of a person committed pursuant to subdivision (a), the executive director or designee of the state hospital, developmental center, or other facility to which the defendant is committed or the outpatient supervisor where the defendant is placed on outpatient status shall make a written report to the committing court and the regional center director or a designee concerning the defendant's progress toward becoming mentally competent. If the defendant has not become mentally competent, but the report discloses a substantial likelihood the defendant will become mentally competent within the next 90 days, the court may order that the defendant shall remain in the state hospital, developmental center, or other facility or on outpatient status for that period of time. Within 150 days of an admission made pursuant to subdivision (a) or if the defendant becomes mentally competent, the executive director or designee of the hospital or developmental center or person in charge of the facility or the outpatient supervisor shall report to the court and the regional center director or his or her designee regarding the defendant's progress toward becoming mentally competent. The court shall provide to the prosecutor and defense counsel copies of all reports under this section. If the report indicates that there is no substantial likelihood that the defendant has become mentally competent, the committing court shall order the defendant to be returned to the court for proceedings pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (c). The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the regional center director or designee and to the executive director of the developmental center.

(2) Any defendant who has been committed or has been on outpatient status for 18 months, and is still hospitalized or on outpatient status shall be returned to the committing court where a hearing shall be held pursuant to the procedures set forth in Section

1369. The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the regional center director or designee and the executive director of the developmental center.

(3) If it is determined by the court that no treatment for the defendant's mental impairment is being conducted, the defendant shall be returned to the committing court. A copy of this order shall be sent to the regional center director or designee and to the executive director of the developmental center.

(4) At each review by the court specified in this subdivision, the court shall determine if the security level of housing and treatment is appropriate and may make an order in accordance with its determination.

(c) (1) (A) At the end of three years from the date of commitment or a period of commitment equal to the maximum term of imprisonment provided by law for the most serious offense charged in the information, indictment, or misdemeanor complaint, whichever is shorter, any defendant who has not become mentally competent shall be returned to the committing court.

(B) The court shall notify the regional center director or designee and the executive director of the developmental center of that return and of any resulting court orders.

(2) In the event of dismissal of the criminal charges before the defendant becomes mentally competent, the defendant shall be subject to the applicable provisions of the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code), or to commitment and detention pursuant to a petition filed pursuant to Section 6502 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. If it is found that the person is not subject to commitment or detention pursuant to the applicable provision of the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code) or to commitment or detention pursuant to a petition filed pursuant to Section 6502 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the individual shall not be subject to further confinement pursuant to this article and the criminal action remains subject to dismissal pursuant to Section 1385. The court shall notify the regional center director and the executive director of the developmental center of any dismissal.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the criminal action remains subject to dismissal pursuant to Section 1385. If at any time prior to the maximum period of time allowed for proceedings under this article, the regional center director concludes that the behavior of the defendant related to the defendant's criminal offense has been eliminated during time spent in court-ordered programs, the court may, upon recommendation of the regional center director, dismiss the criminal charges. The court shall transmit a copy of any order of dismissal to the regional center director and to the executive director of the developmental center.

SEC. 2.5. Section 1370.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1370.1. (a) (1) (A) If the defendant is found mentally competent, the criminal process shall resume, the trial on the offense charged shall proceed, and judgment may be pronounced.

(B) If the defendant is found mentally incompetent and is developmentally disabled, the trial or judgment shall be suspended until the defendant becomes mentally competent.

(i) Except as provided in clause (ii) or (iii), the court shall consider a recommendation for placement, which recommendation shall be made to the court by the director of a regional center or designee. In the meantime, the court shall order that the mentally incompetent defendant be delivered by the sheriff or other person designated by the court to a state hospital or developmental center for the care and treatment of the developmentally disabled or any other available residential facility approved by the director of a regional center for the developmentally disabled established under Division 4.5 (commencing with Section 4500) of the Welfare and Institutions Code as will promote the defendant's speedy attainment of mental competence, or be placed on outpatient status pursuant to the provisions of Section 1370.4 and Title 15 (commencing with Section 1600) of Part 2.

(ii) However, if the action against the defendant who has been found mentally incompetent is on a complaint charging a felony offense specified in Section 290, the prosecutor shall determine whether the defendant previously has been found mentally incompetent to stand trial pursuant to this chapter on a charge of a Section 290 offense, or whether the defendant is currently the subject of a pending Section 1368 proceeding arising out of a charge of a Section 290 offense. If either determination is made, the prosecutor shall so notify the court and defendant in writing. After this notification, and opportunity for hearing, the court shall order that the defendant be delivered by the sheriff to a state hospital or other secure treatment facility for the care and treatment of the developmentally disabled unless the court makes specific findings on the record that an alternative placement would provide more appropriate treatment for the defendant and would not pose a danger to the health and safety of others.

(iii) If the action against the defendant who has been found mentally incompetent is on a complaint charging a felony offense specified in Section 290 and the defendant has been denied bail pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 12 of Article I of the California Constitution because the court has found, based upon clear and convincing evidence, a substantial likelihood that the person's release would result in great bodily harm to others, the court shall order that the defendant be delivered by the sheriff to a state hospital for the care and treatment of the developmentally disabled unless the court makes specific findings on the record that an alternative placement would provide more appropriate treatment for the defendant and would not pose a danger to the health and safety of others.

(iv) The clerk of the court shall notify the Department of Justice in writing of any finding of mental incompetence with respect to a defendant who is subject to clause (ii) or (iii) for inclusion in his or her state summary criminal history information.

(C) Upon becoming competent, the court shall order that the defendant be returned to the committing court pursuant to the procedures set forth in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 1372 or by another person designated by the court. The court shall further determine conditions under which the person may be absent from the placement for medical treatment, social visits, and other similar activities. Required levels of supervision and security for these activities shall be specified.

(D) The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the regional center director or designee and to the Director of Developmental Services.

(E) A defendant charged with a violent felony may not be placed in a facility or delivered to a state hospital, developmental center, or residential facility pursuant to this subdivision unless the facility, state hospital, developmental center, or residential facility has a secured perimeter or a locked and controlled treatment facility, and the judge determines that the public safety will be protected.

(F) For purposes of this paragraph, "violent felony" means an offense specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5.

(G) A defendant charged with a violent felony may be placed on outpatient status, as specified in Section 1370.4 or 1600, only if the court finds that the placement will not pose a danger to the health or safety of others.

(H) As used in this section, "developmental disability" means a disability that originates before an individual attains age 18, continues, or can be expected to continue, indefinitely and constitutes a substantial handicap for the individual, and shall not include other handicapping conditions that are solely physical in nature. As defined by the Director of Developmental Services, in consultation with the Superintendent of Public Instruction, this term shall include mental retardation, cerebral palsy, epilepsy, and autism. This term shall also include handicapping conditions found to be closely related to mental retardation or to require treatment similar to that required for mentally retarded individuals, but shall not include other handicapping conditions that are solely physical in nature.

(2) Prior to making the order directing the defendant be confined in a state hospital, developmental center, or other residential facility or be placed on outpatient status, the court shall order the regional center director or designee to evaluate the defendant and to submit to the court within 15 judicial days of the order a written recommendation as to whether the defendant should be committed to a state hospital or developmental center or to any other available residential facility approved by the regional center director. No person shall be admitted to a state hospital, developmental center, or other residential facility or accepted for outpatient status under Section 1370.4 without having been evaluated by the regional center director or designee.

(3) When the court orders that the defendant be confined in a state hospital or other secure treatment facility pursuant to clause (ii) or (iii) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1), the court shall provide copies of the following documents which shall be taken with the defendant to the state hospital or other secure treatment facility where the defendant is to be confined:

(A) State summary criminal history information.

(B) Any arrest reports prepared by the police department or other law enforcement agency.

(C) Records of any finding of mental incompetence pursuant to this chapter arising out of a complaint charging a felony offense specified in Section 290 or any pending Section 1368 proceeding arising out of a charge of a Section 290 offense.

(4) When the defendant is committed to a residential facility pursuant to clause (i) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) or the court makes the findings specified in clause (ii) or (iii) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) to assign the defendant to a facility other than a state hospital or other secure treatment facility, the court shall order that notice be given to the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction at the site of the placement facility of any finding of mental incompetence pursuant to this chapter arising out of a charge of a Section 290 offense.

(5) (A) If the defendant is committed or transferred to a state hospital or developmental center pursuant to this section, the court may, upon receiving the written recommendation of the executive director of the state hospital or developmental center and the regional center director that the defendant be transferred to a residential facility approved by the regional center director, order the defendant transferred to that facility. If the defendant is committed or transferred to a residential facility approved by the regional center director, the court may, upon receiving the written recommendation of the regional center director, transfer the defendant to a state hospital or developmental center or to another residential facility approved by the regional center director.

In the event of dismissal of the criminal charges before the defendant recovers competence, the person shall be subject to the applicable provisions of the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code) or to commitment or detention pursuant to a petition filed pursuant to Section 6502 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

The defendant or prosecuting attorney may contest either kind of order of transfer by filing a petition with the court for a hearing, which shall be held if the court determines that sufficient grounds exist. At the hearing the prosecuting attorney or the defendant may present evidence bearing on the order of transfer. The court shall use the same standards as used in conducting probation revocation hearings pursuant to Section 1203.2.

Prior to making an order for transfer under this section, the court shall notify the defendant, the attorney of record for the defendant, the prosecuting attorney, and the regional center director or designee.

(B) If the defendant is committed to a state hospital or secure treatment facility pursuant to clause (ii) or (iii) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) and is subsequently transferred to any other facility, copies of the documents specified in paragraph (3) shall be taken with the defendant to the new facility. The transferring facility shall also notify the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction at the site of the new facility that the defendant is a person subject to clause (ii) or (iii) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1).

(b) (1) Within 90 days of admission of a person committed pursuant to subdivision (a), the executive director or designee of the state hospital, developmental center, or other facility to which the defendant is committed or the outpatient supervisor where the defendant is placed on outpatient status shall make a written report to the committing court and the regional center director or a designee concerning the defendant's progress toward becoming mentally competent. If the defendant has not become mentally competent, but the report discloses a substantial likelihood the defendant will become mentally competent within the next 90 days, the court may order that the defendant shall remain in the state hospital, developmental center, or other facility or on outpatient status for that period of time. Within 150 days of an admission made pursuant to subdivision (a) or if the defendant becomes mentally competent, the executive director or designee of the hospital or developmental center or person in charge of the facility or the outpatient supervisor shall report to the court and the regional center director or his or her designee regarding the defendant's progress toward becoming mentally competent. The court shall provide to the prosecutor and defense counsel copies of all reports under this section. If the report indicates that there is no substantial likelihood that the defendant has become mentally competent, the committing court shall order the defendant to be returned to the court for proceedings pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (c). The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the regional center director or designee and to the executive director of the developmental center.

(2) Any defendant who has been committed or has been on outpatient status for 18 months, and is still hospitalized or on outpatient status shall be returned to the committing court where a hearing shall be held pursuant to the procedures set forth in Section 1369. The court shall transmit a copy of its order to the regional center director or designee and the executive director of the developmental center.

(3) If it is determined by the court that no treatment for the defendant's mental impairment is being conducted, the defendant shall be returned to the committing court. A copy of this order shall be sent to the regional center director or designee and to the executive director of the developmental center.

(4) At each review by the court specified in this subdivision, the court shall determine if the security level of housing and treatment is appropriate and may make an order in accordance with its determination.

(c) (1) (A) At the end of three years from the date of commitment or a period of commitment equal to the maximum term of imprisonment provided by law for the most serious offense charged in the information, indictment, or misdemeanor complaint, whichever is shorter, any defendant who has not become mentally competent shall be returned to the committing court.

(B) The court shall notify the regional center director or designee and the executive director of the developmental center of that return and of any resulting court orders.

(2) In the event of dismissal of the criminal charges before the defendant becomes mentally competent, the defendant shall be subject to the applicable provisions of the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code), or to commitment and detention pursuant to a petition filed pursuant to Section 6502 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. If it is found that the person is not subject to commitment or detention pursuant to the applicable provision of the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act (Part 1 (commencing with Section 5000) of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code) or to commitment or detention pursuant to a petition filed pursuant to Section 6502 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the individual shall not be subject to further confinement pursuant to this article and the criminal action remains subject to dismissal pursuant to Section 1385. The court shall notify the regional center director and the executive director of the developmental center of any dismissal.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the criminal action remains subject to dismissal pursuant to Section 1385. If at any time prior to the maximum period of time allowed for proceedings under this article, the regional center director concludes that the behavior of the defendant related to the defendant's criminal offense has been eliminated during time spent in court-ordered programs, the court may, upon recommendation of the regional center director, dismiss the criminal charges. The court shall transmit a copy of any order of dismissal to the regional center director and to the executive director of the developmental center.

(e) For the purpose of this section, "secure treatment facility" shall not include, except for state mental hospitals, state developmental centers, and correctional treatment facilities, any facility licensed pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250) of, Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500) of, or Chapter 3.2 (commencing with Section 1569) of, Division 2 of the Health and Safety Code, or any community board and care facility.

SEC. 3. Section 4800 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

4800. (a) Every adult who is or has been admitted or committed to a state hospital, developmental center, community care facility, as defined in Section 1502 of the Health and Safety Code, health facility, as defined in Section 1250 of the Health and Safety Code, or any other appropriate placement permitted by law, as a developmentally disabled patient shall have a right to a hearing by writ of habeas corpus for his or her release from the hospital, developmental center, community care facility, or health facility after he or she or any person acting on his or her behalf makes a request for release to any member of the staff of the state hospital, developmental center, community care facility, or health facility or to any employee of a regional center.

(b) The member of the staff or regional center employee to whom a request for release is made shall promptly provide the person making the request for his or her signature or mark a copy of the form set forth below. The member of the staff, or regional center employee, as the case may be, shall fill in his or her own name and the date, and, if the person signs by mark, shall fill in the person's name, and shall then deliver the completed copy to the medical director of the state hospital or developmental center, the administrator or director of the community care facility, or the administrator or director of the health facility, as the case may be, or his or her designee, notifying him or her of the request. As soon as possible, the person notified shall inform the superior court for the appropriate county, as indicated in Section 4801, of the request for release and shall transmit a copy of the request for release to the person's parent or conservator together with a statement that notice of judicial proceedings taken pursuant to that request will be forwarded by the court. The copy of the request for release and the notice shall be sent by the person notified by registered or certified mail with proper postage prepaid, addressed to the addressee's last known address, and with a return receipt requested. The person notified shall also transmit a copy of the request for release and the name and address of the person's parent or conservator to the court.

(c) Any person who intentionally violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(d) The form for a request for release shall be substantially as follows:

(Name of the state hospital, developmental center, community care facility, or health facility or regional center) _____ day of _____ 19____

I, _____ (member of the staff of the state hospital, developmental center, community care facility, or health facility or employee of the regional center), have today received a request for the release from _____ (name of state hospital, developmental center, or community care facility) State Hospital, developmental center, community care facility, or health facility of _____ (name of patient) from the undersigned patient on his or her own behalf or from the undersigned person on behalf of the patient.

Signature or mark of patient making request for release

Signature or mark of person making request on behalf of patient

SEC. 4. Section 4801 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

4801. (a) Judicial review shall be in the superior court for the county in which the state hospital, developmental center, community care facility, or health facility is located, except that, if the adult has been found incompetent to stand trial and has been committed pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1367) of Title 10 of Part 2 of the Penal Code, judicial review shall be in the superior court of the county that determined the question of the mental competence of the defendant. The adult requesting to be released shall be informed of his or her right to counsel by a member of the staff of the state hospital, developmental center, community care facility, or health facility and by the court; and if he or she does not have an attorney for the proceedings, the court shall immediately appoint the public defender or other attorney to assist him or her in the preparation of a petition for the writ of habeas corpus and to represent him or her in the proceedings. The person shall pay the costs of those legal services if he or she is able.

(b) At the time the petition for the writ of habeas corpus is filed with the court, the clerk of the court shall transmit a copy of the petition, together with notification as to the time and place of any evidentiary hearing in the matter, to the parent or conservator of the person seeking release or for whom release is sought and to the director of the appropriate regional center. Notice shall also be provided to the director of the appropriate developmental center if the person seeking release or for whom release is sought resides in a developmental center. The notice shall be sent by registered or certified mail with proper postage prepaid, addressed to the addressee's last known address, and with a return receipt requested.

(c) The court shall either release the adult or order an evidentiary hearing to be held not sooner than five judicial days nor more than 10 judicial days after the petition and notice to the adult's parent or conservator and to the director of the appropriate regional center and developmental center are deposited in the United States mail pursuant to this section.

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), if the court finds (A) that the adult requesting release or for whom release is requested is not developmentally disabled, or (B) that he or she is developmentally disabled and that he or she is able to provide safely for his or her basic personal needs for food, shelter, and clothing, he or she shall be released within 72 hours. If the court finds that he or she is developmentally disabled and that he or she is unable to provide safely for his or her basic personal needs for food, shelter, or clothing, but that a responsible person or a regional center or other public or private agency is willing and able to provide therefor, the court shall release the developmentally disabled adult to the responsible person or regional center or other public or private agency, as the case may be, subject to any conditions that the court deems proper for the welfare of the developmentally disabled adult and that are consistent with the purposes of this division.

(2) If the person is charged with a violent felony and has been committed to his or her current placement pursuant to Section 1370.1 of the Penal Code or Section 6500, and the court finds (A) that the adult requesting release or for whom release is requested is not developmentally disabled or mentally retarded, or (B) that he or she is able to provide safely for his or her basic personal needs for food, shelter, and clothing, the court shall, before releasing the person, determine that the release will not pose a danger to the health or safety of others due to the person's known behavior. If the court finds there is no danger pursuant to the finding required by subparagraph (D) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 1370.1 of the Penal Code, the person shall be released within 72 hours. If the person's release poses a danger to the health or safety of others, the court may grant or deny the request, taking into account the danger to the health or safety of others posed by the person. If the court finds that release of the person can be made subject to conditions that the court deems proper for the preservation of public health and safety and the welfare of the person, the person shall be released subject to those conditions.

(d) If in any proceeding under this section, the court finds that the adult is developmentally disabled and has no parent or conservator, and is in need of a conservator, the court shall order the appropriate regional center or the state department to initiate, or cause to be initiated, proceedings for the appointment of a conservator for the developmentally disabled adult.

(e) This section shall become operative January 1, 1988.

SEC. 5. Section 6500 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6500. On and after July 1, 1971, no mentally retarded person may be committed to the State Department of Developmental Services pursuant to this article, unless he or she is a danger to himself or herself, or others. For the purposes of this article, dangerousness to self or others shall be considered to include, but not be limited to, a finding of incompetence to stand trial pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1367) of Title 10 of Part 2 of the Penal Code when the defendant has been charged with murder, mayhem, aggravated mayhem, a violation of Section 207, 209, or 209.5 of the Penal Code in which the victim suffers intentionally inflicted great bodily injury, robbery perpetrated by torture or by a person armed with a dangerous or deadly weapon or in which the victim suffers great bodily injury, carjacking perpetrated by torture or by a person armed with a dangerous or deadly weapon or in which the victim suffers great bodily injury, a violation of subdivision (b) of Section 451 of the Penal Code, a violation of paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 or paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 261 of the Penal Code, a violation of Section 288 of the Penal Code, any of the following acts when committed by force, violence, duress, menace, fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the victim or another person: a violation of paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 262 of the Penal Code, a violation of Section 264.1, 286, or 288a of the Penal Code, or a violation of subdivision (a) of Section 289 of the Penal Code; a violation of Section 459 of the Penal Code in the first degree, assault with intent to commit murder, a violation of Section 220 of the Penal Code in which the victim suffers great bodily injury, a violation of Section 12303.1, 12303.3, 12308, 12309, or 12310 of the Penal Code, or if the defendant has been charged with a felony involving death, great bodily injury, or an act which poses a serious threat of bodily harm to another person.

If the mentally retarded person is in the care or treatment of a state hospital, developmental center, or other facility at the time a petition for commitment is filed pursuant to this article, proof of a recent overt act while in the care and treatment of a state hospital, developmental center, or other facility is not required in order to find that the person is a danger to self or others.

Any order of commitment made pursuant to this article shall expire automatically one year after the order of commitment is made. This section shall not be construed to prohibit any party enumerated in Section 6502 from filing subsequent petitions for additional periods of commitment. In the event subsequent petitions are filed, the procedures followed shall be the same as with an initial petition for commitment.

In any proceedings conducted under the authority of this article, the alleged mentally retarded person shall be informed of his or her right to counsel by the court, and if the person does not have an attorney for the proceedings, the court shall immediately appoint the public defender or other attorney to represent him or her. The person shall pay the cost for the legal services if he or she is able to do so. At any judicial proceeding under the provisions of this article, allegations that a person is mentally retarded and a danger to himself or herself or to others shall be presented by the district attorney for the county unless the board of supervisors, by ordinance or resolution, delegates this authority to the county counsel.

SEC. 6. Section 6504.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6504.5. Wherever a petition is filed pursuant to this article, the court shall appoint the director of a regional center for the developmentally disabled established under Division 4.5 of this code, or the designee of the director, to examine the alleged mentally retarded person.

Within 15 judicial days after his or her appointment, the regional center director or designee shall submit to the court in writing a report containing his or her evaluation of the alleged mentally retarded person. The report shall contain a recommendation of a facility or facilities in which the alleged developmentally disabled person may be placed.

The report shall include a description of the least restrictive residential placement necessary to achieve the purposes of treatment. In determining the least restrictive residential placement, consideration shall be given to public safety. If placement into or out of a developmental center is recommended, the regional center director or designee simultaneously shall submit the report to the executive director of the developmental center or his or her designee. The executive director of the developmental center or his or her designee may, within 15 days of receiving the regional center report, submit to the court a written report evaluating the ability of the developmental center to achieve the purposes of treatment for this person and whether the developmental center placement can adequately provide the security measures or systems required to protect the public health and safety from the potential dangers posed by the person's known behaviors.

The reports prepared by the regional center director and developmental center director, if applicable, shall also address suitable interim placements for the person as provided for in Section 6506.

SEC. 7. Section 6506 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6506. Pending the hearing, the court may order that the alleged dangerous mentally retarded person may be left in the charge of his or her parent, guardian, conservator, or other suitable person, or placed in a state hospital for the developmentally disabled, in the county psychiatric hospital, or in any other suitable placement as determined by the court. Prior to the issuance of an order under this section, the regional center and developmental center, if applicable, shall recommend to the court a suitable person or facility to care for the alleged mentally retarded person. The determination of a suitable person or facility shall be the least restrictive option that provides for the person's treatment needs and that has existing security systems or measures in place to adequately protect the public safety from any known dangers posed by the person. In determining whether the public safety will be adequately protected, the court shall make the finding required by subparagraph (D) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 1370.1 of the Penal Code.

Pending the hearing, the court may order that the person receive necessary habilitation, care, and treatment, including medical and dental treatment.

Orders made pursuant to this section shall expire at the time set for the hearing pursuant to Section 6503. If the court upon a showing of good cause grants a continuance of the hearing on the matter, it shall order that the person be detained pursuant to this section until the hearing on the petition is held.

SEC. 8. Section 6509 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6509. If the court finds that the person is mentally retarded, and that he or she is a danger to himself, herself, or to others, the court may make an order that the person be committed to the State Department of Developmental Services for suitable treatment and habilitation services. Suitable treatment and habilitation services is defined as the least restrictive residential placement necessary to achieve the purposes of treatment. Care and treatment of a person committed to the State Department of Developmental Services may include placement in any state hospital, developmental center, any licensed community care facility, as defined in Section 1504, or any health facility, as defined in Section 1250, or any other appropriate placement permitted by law. The court shall hold a hearing as to the available placement alternatives and consider the reports of the regional center director or designee and the developmental center director or designee submitted pursuant to Section 6504.5. After hearing all the evidence, the court shall order that the person be committed to that placement that the court finds to be the most appropriate alternative. If the court finds that release of the person can be made subject to conditions that the court deems proper and adequate for the protection and safety of others and the welfare of the person, the person shall be released subject to those conditions.

The court, however, may commit a mentally retarded person who is not a resident of this state under Section 4460 for the purpose of transportation of the person to the state of his or her legal residence pursuant to Section 4461. The State Department of Developmental Services shall receive the person committed to it and shall place the person in the placement ordered by the court.

If the Department of Developmental Services decides that a change in placement is necessary, it shall notify in writing the court of commitment, the district attorney, and the attorney of record for the person and the regional center of its decision at least 15 days in advance of the proposed change in placement. The court may hold a hearing and (a) approve or disapprove of the change, or (b) take no action, in which case the change shall be deemed approved. At the request of the district attorney or of the attorney for the person, a hearing shall be held.

SEC. 8.5. Section 6509 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6509. (a) If the court finds that the person is mentally retarded, and that he or she is a danger to himself, herself, or to others, the court may make an order that the person be committed to the State Department of Developmental Services for suitable treatment and habilitation services. Suitable treatment and habilitation services is defined as the least restrictive residential placement necessary to achieve the purposes of treatment. Care and treatment of a person committed to the State Department of Developmental Services may include placement in any state hospital, developmental center, any licensed community care facility, as defined in Section 1504, or any health facility, as defined in Section 1250, or any other appropriate placement permitted by law. The court shall hold a hearing as to the available placement alternatives and consider the reports of the regional center director or designee and the developmental center director or designee submitted pursuant to Section 6504.5. After hearing all the evidence, the court shall order that the person be committed to that placement that the court finds to be the most appropriate alternative. If the court finds that release of the person can be made subject to conditions that the court deems proper and adequate for the protection and safety of others and the welfare of the person, the person shall be released subject to those conditions.

The court, however, may commit a mentally retarded person who is not a resident of this state under Section 4460 for the purpose of transportation of the person to the state of his or her legal residence pursuant to Section 4461. The State Department of Developmental Services shall receive the person committed to it and shall place the person in the placement ordered by the court.

(b) If the person has at any time been found mentally incompetent pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1367) of Title 10 of Part 2 of the Penal Code arising out of a complaint charging a felony offense specified in Section 290 of the Penal Code, the court shall order the State Department of Developmental Services to give notice of that finding to the designated placement facility and the appropriate law enforcement agency or agencies having local jurisdiction at the site of the placement facility.

(c) If the Department of Developmental Services decides that a change in placement is necessary, it shall notify in writing the court of commitment, the district attorney, and the attorney of record for the person and the regional center of its decision at least 15 days in advance of the proposed change in placement. The court may hold a hearing and (1) approve or disapprove of the change, or (2) take no action in which case the change shall be deemed approved. At the request of the district attorney or of the attorney for the person, a hearing shall be held.

SEC. 9. Section 6513 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

6513. (a) The State Department of Developmental Services shall pay for the costs, as defined in this section, of judicial proceedings, including commitment, placement, or release, under this article under both of the following conditions:

(1) The judicial proceedings are in a county within which a state hospital or developmental center maintains a treatment program for mentally retarded persons who are a danger to themselves or others.

(2) The judicial proceedings relate to a mentally retarded person who is at the time residing in the state hospital or developmental center located in the county of the proceedings.

(b) The county clerk of a county described in subdivision (a) may prepare a statement of all costs incurred by the county in the investigation, preparation for, and conduct of the proceeding, including any costs of the district attorney or county counsel and any public defender or court-appointed counsel representing the person, and including any costs incurred by the county for the guarding or keeping of the person while away from the state hospital and for transportation of the person to and from the hospital. The statement shall be certified to by a judge of the superior court and shall be sent to the State Department of Developmental Services. In lieu of sending statements after each proceeding, the statements may be held and submitted quarterly for the preceding three-month period.

SEC. 10. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1370 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2104. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 1370 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2104, in which case Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 11. Section 2.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 1370.1 of the Penal Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2104. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends

Section 1370.1 of the Penal Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2104, in which case Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 12. Section 8.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 6509 of the Welfare and Institutions Code proposed by both this bill and AB 2104. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1997, (2) each bill amends Section 6509 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 2104, in which case Section 8 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 13. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for certain costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district because in that regard this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 14. This act shall become operative only if Assembly Bill 3130 of the 1995–96 Regular Session is enacted and becomes operative on or before January 1, 1997.

CHAPTER 1077

An act to amend Section 704.090 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to amend Sections 13960, 13962, 13963, 13965, 13966.01, 13967.2, 13967.5, 13968, 13969.3, and 13969.4 of the Government Code, to amend Section 4903 of the Labor Code, to amend Sections 166, 243, 262, 273.5, 273.6, 484.1, 1203.044, 1203.097, 1203.1, 1205, 1205.3, 1214, 1463.18, 1464, and 2900.5 of, and to repeal Section 1205.5 of, the Penal Code, to amend Section 42003 of the Vehicle Code, and to amend Sections 653.5, 654.3, 656, 729.7, 730.6, 1752.82, and 1766.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to victims of crime.

[Approved by Governor September 29, 1996. Filed with Secretary of State September 30, 1996.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 704.090 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

704.090. (a) The funds of a judgment debtor confined in a prison or facility under the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections or the Department of the Youth Authority or confined in any county or city jail, road camp, industrial farm, or other local correctional facility, held in trust for or to the credit of the judgment debtor, in an inmate's trust account or similar account by the state, county, or city, or any agency thereof, are exempt without making a claim in the amount of one thousand dollars ($1,000). If the judgment debtor is married, each spouse is entitled to a separate exemption under this section or the spouses may combine their exemptions.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), if the judgment is for a restitution fine or order imposed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 13967 of the Government Code, as operative on or before September 28, 1994, or Section 1203.04 of the Penal Code, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, or Section 1202.4 of the Penal Code, the funds held in trust for, or to the credit of, a judgment debtor described in subdivision (a) are exempt in the amount of three hundred dollars ($300) without making a claim.

SEC. 2. Section 13960 of the Government Code is amended to read:

13960. As used in this article:

(a) (1) "Victim" means a resident of the State of California, a member of the military stationed in California, or a family member living with a member of the military stationed in California who sustains injury or death as a direct result of a crime.

(2) "Derivative victim" means a resident of California who is one of the following:

(A) At the time of the crime was the parent, sibling, spouse, or child of the victim.

(B) At the time of the crime was living in the household of the victim.

(C) A person who had previously lived in the household of the victim for a period of not less than two years in a relationship substantially similar to a relationship listed in subparagraph (A).

(D) Is another family member of the victim, including the victim's fiancé, and witnessed the crime.

(b) "Injury" includes physical or emotional injury, or both. However, this article does not apply to emotional injury unless that injury is incurred by a victim who also sustains physical injury or threat of physical injury. For purposes of this article, a victim of a crime committed in violation of Section 261, 262, 271, 273a, 273d, 285, 286, 288, 288a, 288.5, or 289, or subdivision (a) or (c) of Section 311.4, of the Penal Code, who sustains emotional injury is presumed to have sustained physical injury. For purposes of this article, a victim of a crime committed in violation of Section 270 of the Penal Code, as a result of conduct other than a failure to pay child support, who sustains emotional injury is presumed to have sustained physical injury if criminal charges were filed or a prosecuting attorney expresses the opinion that the child is a victim of that section.

(c) "Crime" means a crime or public offense that would constitute a misdemeanor or a felony if committed in California by a competent adult which results in injury to a resident of this state, including a crime or public offense, wherever it may take place, when the resident is temporarily absent from the state. "Crime" includes an act of terrorism, as defined in Section 2331 of Title 18 of the United States Code, committed against a resident of the state, whether or not the act occurs within the state. No act involving the operation of a motor vehicle, aircraft, or water vehicle which results in injury or death constitutes a crime for the purposes of this article, except that a crime shall include any of the following:

(1) Injury or death intentionally inflicted through the use of a motor vehicle, aircraft, or water vehicle.

(2) Injury or death caused by a driver in violation of Section 20001 of the Vehicle Code.

(3) Injury or death caused by a person who is under the influence of any alcoholic beverage or drug.

(4) Injury or death caused by a driver of a motor vehicle in the immediate act of fleeing the scene of a crime in which he or she knowingly and willingly participated.

For the purpose of the limitations imposed by this article, a crime shall mean one act or series of related acts arising from the same course of conduct with the same perpetrator or perpetrators.

(d) "Pecuniary loss" means the following expenses for which the victim or derivative victim has not been and will not be reimbursed from any other source:

(1) The amount of medical or medical-related expenses incurred by the victim, including in-patient psychological or psychiatric expenses, and including, but not limited to, eyeglasses, hearing aids, dentures, or any prosthetic device taken, lost, or destroyed during the commission of the crime, or the use of which became necessary as a direct result of the crime.

(2) The amount of out-patient psychiatric, psychological, or other mental health counseling related expenses which became necessary as a direct result of the crime. These counseling services may only be reimbursed if provided by any of the following individuals:

(A) A person licensed as a physician who is certified in psychiatry by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology or who has completed a residency in psychiatry.

(B) A person licensed as a psychologist under Chapter 6.6 (commencing with Section 2900) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code.

(C) A person licensed as a clinical social worker under Article 4 (commencing with Section 4996) of Chapter 14 of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code.

(D) A person licensed as a marriage, family, and child counselor under Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 4980) of Division 2 of the Business and Professions Code.

(E) A person registered as a psychological assistant who is under the supervision of a licensed psychologist or board certified psychiatrist as required by Section 2913 of the Business and Professions Code.

(F) A person registered with the Board of Psychology who is providing services in a nonprofit community agency pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 2909 of the Business and Professions Code.

(G) A person registered as a marriage, family, and child counselor intern who is under the supervision of a licensed marriage, family, and child counselor, a licensed clinical social worker, a licensed psychologist, or a licensed physician certified in psychiatry, as specified in Section 4980.44 of the Business and Professions Code.

(H) A person registered as an associate clinical social worker, as defined in Section 4996.18 of the Business and Professions Code, who is under the supervision of a licensed clinical social worker, a licensed psychologist, or a board certified psychiatrist.

(3) The loss of income that the victim or the loss of support that the derivative victim has incurred or will incur as a direct result of an injury or death.

(4) Pecuniary loss also includes nonmedical remedial care and treatment rendered in accordance with a religious method of healing recognized by state law.

(5) The amount of family psychiatric, psychological, or mental health counseling expenses necessary as a direct result of the crime for the successful treatment of the victim, provided to family members of the victim in the presence of the victim, whether or not the family member relationship existed at the time of the crime.

(e) "Board" means the State Board of Control.

(f) "Victim centers" means those centers as specified in Section 13835.2 of the Penal Code.

(g) "Peer counselor" means a provider of mental health counseling services who has completed a specialized course in rape crisis counseling skills development, participates in continuing education in rape crisis counseling skills development, and provides rape crisis counseling in consultation with a mental health practitioner licensed within the State of California.

SEC. 3. Section 13962 of the Government Code is amended to read:

13962. (a) The staff of the board shall review all applications for assistance in order to ensure that they are complete. If an application is not complete, it shall be returned to the applicant with a brief statement of the additional information required. The applicant, within 30 days of receipt thereof, may either supply the additional information or appeal the action to the board which shall review the application to determine whether or not it is complete.

(b) The board shall approve or deny applications accepted in accordance with subdivision (a) within an average of 90 calendar days. Each individual claim shall be approved or denied within 180 calendar days. These specified time periods shall operate from the date the claim is accepted by the board or local contract agency, to the date of approval or denial of the claim. Any verification of the claim which is deemed necessary shall be performed during these specified time periods. The verification process shall include sending supplemental forms to all hospitals, physicians, law enforcement officials, and other interested parties involved, verifying the treatment of the victim or derivative victim, circumstances of the crime, amounts paid or received by or for the victim or derivative victim, and other pertinent information as may be deemed necessary by the board. Verification forms shall be provided by the board and shall be returned to the board within 10 business days. All of this information shall be provided at no cost to the applicant, the board, or local victim centers. Verification forms shall require sufficient information to clearly identify the victim or derivative victim. The board shall include on the verification forms a statement certifying that a signed authorization by the applicant is retained in the applicant's file and that this certification constitutes actual authorization for the release of information, notwithstanding any other provision of law. Each request from the board to a physician for a copy or summary of medical records shall include a copy of the signed authorization for the release of information. The board shall include on the verification forms reference to this section with respect to the prompt return of the verification forms. The board, thereupon, shall consider the application at a hearing at a time and place of its choosing.

(c) The victim and the applicant, if other than the victim, shall cooperate with the staff of the board or the local victim center in the verification of the information contained in the application. Failure to cooperate shall be reported to the board, which, in its discretion, may reject the application on this ground alone.

(d) The board may contract with local victim centers to provide verification of claims processed by the centers pursuant to conditions stated in subdivision (b).

SEC. 4. Section 13963 of the Government Code is amended to read:

13963. (a) The board shall grant an applicant for benefits a hearing to contest a staff recommendation to deny an application for benefits or to deny an application to submit a late claim.

(b) The board shall notify all interested persons not less than five days prior to the date of the hearing.

(c) At the hearing, the applicant shall have the burden of establishing by a preponderance of the evidence that, as a direct result of a crime, the victim or derivative victim incurred an injury that resulted in a pecuniary loss.

(d) The hearing shall be informal and need not be conducted according to the technical rules relating to evidence and witnesses. The board may rely on any relevant evidence if it is the sort of evidence on which responsible persons are accustomed to rely in the conduct of serious affairs, regardless of the existence of any common law or statutory rule that might make improper the admission of the evidence over objection in a civil action.

(e) The board may rely on written reports prepared for the board, or other information received, from the law enforcement agency or other governmental agency responsible for investigating the crime.

(f) If the applicant or the applicant's representative chooses not to appear at the hearing, the board may act solely upon the application for assistance, the staff's report, and other evidence that appears in the record.

(g) Hearings shall be held in various locations with the frequency necessary to provide for the speedy adjudication of the applications. If the applicant's presence is required at the hearing, the board shall schedule the applicant's hearing in as convenient a location as possible.

(h) At the hearing, the board shall:

(1) Provide those claimants present with information on the rules, regulations, and any other procedures and guidelines used by the board at these hearings.

(2) Review the application for assistance and the report prepared thereon and any other evidence obtained as a result of the verification.

(3) Receive any other evidence as the board finds necessary or desirable properly to evaluate the application.

(i) The board may delegate the hearings of applications to hearing examiners.

SEC. 5. Section 13965 of the Government Code is amended to read:

13965. (a) If the application for assistance is approved, the board shall determine what type of state assistance will best aid the victim or derivative victim. The board may take any or all of the following actions:

(1) Reimburse the following persons for the expense of their out-patient mental health counseling when that mental health counseling is necessary as a direct result of the crime:

(A) A victim in an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(B) A derivative victim who is the surviving parent, sibling, child, spouse, or fiancé of a victim of a crime which directly resulted in the death of the victim in an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(C) A derivative victim who is the primary caretaker of a minor victim of sexual or physical abuse whose claim is not denied or reduced pursuant to subdivision (b) or (d) of Section 13964 in a total amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for not more than two derivative victims described in this subparagraph.

(D) A derivative victim not eligible for reimbursement pursuant to subparagraph (B) or (C) in an amount not to exceed three thousand dollars ($3,000).

The board may authorize a direct cash payment to a provider of psychological or psychiatric treatment or mental health counseling services, including peer counseling services provided by a rape crisis center as defined by Section 13837 of the Penal Code or to either the victim or the derivative victim, equal to the pecuniary loss attributable to medical or medical-related expenses, including counseling, directly resulting from the injury. Reimbursement on the initial claim for any psychological, psychiatric, or mental health counseling services, including peer counseling services provided by a rape crisis center, shall, if the application has been approved, be paid by the board within 90 days of the date of receipt of the claim for payment, with subsequent payments to be made to the provider within one month of the receipt of a claim for payment. However, the board may not authorize without good cause a direct cash payment to a licensed health care provider or rape crisis center over the objection of the applicant.

When a public agency, including a court or district attorney or a police, county child protective services, or other state or local governmental agency, refers a victim of crime to a private nonprofit agency for treatment for that victim, the private nonprofit agency shall be reimbursed for those services at the level of the normal and customary fee charged by the private nonprofit agency to clients with adequate means of payment for its services, except that this reimbursement shall not exceed the maximum reimbursement rates set by the board and may be made only to the extent that the victim otherwise qualifies for services under the victims of crime program and that other reimbursement or direct subsidies are not available to serve the victim.

Payments authorized pursuant to this paragraph for peer counseling services provided by a rape counseling center shall not exceed fifteen dollars ($15) for each hour of services provided. Those services shall be limited to individual, in-person counseling on a face-to-face basis for a period not to exceed 10 weeks plus one series of facilitated support group counseling sessions.

(2) Authorize a cash payment to the victim equal to the pecuniary loss resulting from loss of wages directly resulting from the injury. Loss of wages shall not be paid by the board for more than two years following the crime. However, loss of wages may be extended for one additional year if the victim is either enrolled in a program of retraining or other rehabilitation approved by the board or has established to the satisfaction of the board that because of his or her disability arising from the crime he or she is unable to participate in any retraining or rehabilitation. If the board determines, after review of an application for assistance, including the evaluation of a qualified provider, that pecuniary loss for which payment may be made under this paragraph is expected to continue more than six months after the date of approval of the victim's application for assistance, disbursement shall commence and continue on a monthly basis for the period of time pecuniary loss is expected to continue.

(3) Authorize a cash payment to a derivative victim described in subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 13960 who was legally dependent on the victim at the time of the crime for the loss of support incurred by that person as a direct result of the crime.

(A) Loss of support shall not be paid by the board for income lost by an adult for a period of more than two years and shall not extend more than three years following the date of the crime.

(B) Loss of support shall not be paid by the board on behalf of a minor for a period beyond the child's attaining the age of 18 years.

(C) The total amount payable to all derivative victims for loss of support pursuant to this paragraph as the result of one crime shall not exceed forty-six thousand dollars ($46,000).

(4) Authorize cash payments to or on behalf of the victim for job retraining or similar employment-oriented rehabilitative services.

(5) Obtain an independent examination and report from any provider of psychological or psychiatric treatment or mental health counseling services, if it believes there is a reasonable basis for requesting an additional evaluation. In cases where the crime involves sexual assault, the provider shall have expertise in the needs of sexual assault victims. In cases where the crime involves child abuse or molestation, the provider shall have expertise in the needs of victims of child abuse or molestation, as appropriate. When a reevaluation is obtained, payments shall not be discontinued prior to completion of the reevaluation.

(6) When a victim dies as a direct result of a crime, the board may reimburse any individual who voluntarily, and without anticipation of personal gain, pays or assumes the obligation to pay, the medical or burial expenses incurred as a direct result of the crime for the medical or burial expenses incurred in an amount not to exceed the rates or limitations established by the board.

(7) The total award to or on behalf of the victim or a derivative victim shall not exceed twenty-three thousand dollars ($23,000), and may be increased only in accordance with this section.

(8) In the event that the victim requests that the board give priority to reimbursement of loss of wages, the board shall not pay medical expenses or mental health counseling expenses except upon the request of the victim or after determining that payment of these expenses will not decrease the funds available to the victim for payment of loss of wages.

(9) The board may authorize a direct cash payment to a provider of services that are reimbursable pursuant to this article. However, the board may not, without good cause, authorize a direct cash payment to a provider over the objection of the victim or applicant.

(b) Assistance granted pursuant to this article shall not disqualify an otherwise eligible victim or derivative victim from participation in any other public assistance program.

(c) Cash payments made pursuant to this article may be on a one-time or periodic basis. If periodic, the board may increase, reduce, or terminate the amount of assistance according to the victim's or derivative victim's need, subject to the maximum limits provided in this section.

(d) The board shall pay attorney's fees representing the reasonable value of legal services rendered to the applicant, in an amount equal to 10 percent of the amount of the award, or five hundred dollars ($500), whichever is less for each victim and each derivative victim. An attorney receiving fees from another source may waive the right to receive fees under this section. Payments under this section shall be in addition to any amount authorized or ordered under subdivision (d) of Section 13969.1.

(e) No attorney shall charge, demand, receive, or collect any amount for services rendered in connection with any proceedings under this article except as awarded under this article.

(f) The maximum cash payments authorized in paragraph (7) of subdivision (a) shall be increased to forty-six thousand dollars ($46,000) if federal funds for those increases are available.

(g) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (f), a victim injured between January 1, 1985, and December 31, 1985, shall be entitled to receive a maximum cash payment of forty-six thousand dollars ($46,000) if federal funds for these increases are available, but only for costs in excess of limitations provided for in subdivision (a) which are attributable to medical or medical-related expenses, except for psychological or psychiatric treatment, or mental health counseling services.

(h) Notwithstanding any conflicting provision of this chapter, the board may make additional payments for purposes described in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) to any victim who filed an application with the board on or after December 1, 1982, who was a victim of a crime involving sexual assault, and who is a minor at the time the additional payments pursuant to this subdivision are made. The payments authorized by this subdivision shall not exceed the limits imposed by subdivisions (a) and (j).

(i) Reimbursement for any medical or medical-related services shall, if the victim's application has been approved, be paid by the board within an average of 90 days from receipt of the claim for payment. Payments to a medical or mental health provider under this subdivision or paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) shall not be discontinued prior to completion of any reevaluation. Whether or not a reevaluation is obtained, if the board determines that payments to a provider shall be discontinued, the board shall notify the provider of their discontinuance within 30 days of its determination.

(j) The board may establish maximum rates and service limitations for reimbursement of medical and medical-related expenses, including counseling expenses, for which restitution is requested pursuant to this section. For mental health and counseling services, rates shall not exceed the statewide average. The adoption, amendment, and repeal of these maximum rates shall not be subject to the Administrative Procedure Act under Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1. An informational copy of the maximum rates shall be filed with the Secretary of State upon adoption by the board. A provider who accepts payment from the program for a service shall accept the program's rates as payment in full and shall not accept any payment on account of the service from any other source if the total of payments accepted would exceed the maximum rate set by the board for that service.

To assure service limitations which are uniform and appropriate to the levels of treatment required by the victim or derivative victim, the board may review all claims for these services as necessary to ensure their medical necessity. The board may further require additional documentation, information, or medical review of cases of continuing treatment which are projected to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) to determine the need to continue treatment in excess of that amount. The board may accept or reject claims for the amount in excess of five thousand dollars ($5,000) by applying the same standards applicable to processing the initial claim or may approve a continuing treatment regimen for a specific interval or subject to periodic review as appropriate. All information requested of the treating therapist shall be provided at no cost to the applicant, the board, or to local victim centers, pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 13962. Requests for additional information shall be made in a timely manner so as not to interfere with necessary treatment.

(k) The authority provided by this section shall not be construed to in any way diminish, enhance, or otherwise affect any authority which the board may have under current law except as explicitly provided in this section.

(l) The board, in its discretion, may make payments directly to providers prior to verification.

(m) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), the board may reimburse a victim or derivative victim for mental health counseling in excess of that authorized by that paragraph if the claim is based on dire or exceptional circumstances that require more extensive treatment, as approved by the board.

(n) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), if, as of December 31, 1993, a person has incurred mental health counseling expenses pursuant to this article in excess of one-half of the amount specified in that subdivision, the board may award, in addition to amounts awarded for previously incurred expenses, an amount equal to not more than one-half of the applicable maximum amount specified in that paragraph or any additional amounts as the board determines is necessary.

(o) The limitations on the amounts which the board may reimburse for loss of support and loss of wages pursuant to paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (a) shall not apply to victims or derivative victims whose claims for loss of wages and loss of support had been approved prior to January 1, 1994.

SEC. 6. Section 13966.01 of the Government Code is amended to read:

13966.01. (a) The State of California shall be subrogated to the rights of the victim to whom cash payments are granted to the extent of the cash payments granted. The subrogation rights shall be against the perpetrator of the crime or any person liable for the pecuniary loss, including a carrier held liable in accordance with the provision of a policy of insurance issued pursuant to Section 11580.2 of the Insurance Code.

(b) The state shall also be entitled to a lien on the judgment, award, or settlement in the amount of the cash payments on any recovery made by or on behalf of the victim. The state may recover this amount in a separate action, or may intervene in an action brought by or on behalf of the victim. If a claim is filed within one year of the date of recovery, the state shall pay 25 percent of the amount of the recovery that is subject to a lien on the judgment, award, or settlement, to the victim responsible for recovery thereof from the perpetrator of the crime, provided the total amount of the lien is recovered. The remaining 75 percent of the amount and any amount not claimed within one year pursuant to this section, shall be deposited in the Restitution Fund.

(c) The board may compromise or settle and release any lien pursuant to this article if it is found that the action is in the best interest of the state or the collection would cause undue hardship upon the victim. Repayment obligations to the Restitution Fund shall be enforceable as a summary judgment.

(d) No judgment, award, or settlement in any action or claim by a victim to recover damages for injuries, where the state has an interest, shall be satisfied without first giving the board notice and a reasonable opportunity to perfect and satisfy the lien. The notice shall be given to the board in Sacramento except in cases where the board specifies that the notice shall be given otherwise. The notice shall include the complete terms of the award, settlement, or judgment and the name and address of any carrier directly or indirectly providing for the satisfaction.

(e) In the event that the victim, his or her guardian, personal representative, estate, or survivors, or any of them, bring an action or assert a claim for damages against the person or persons liable for the injury or death giving rise to an award by the board under this article, notice of institution of legal proceedings, notice of settlement, and all other notices required to be given to the judgment debtor pursuant to Chapters 1 (commencing with Section 681) and 2 (commencing with Section 714) of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, shall be given to the board in Sacramento except in cases where the board specifies that notice shall be given to the Attorney General. Notice of institution of legal proceedings shall be given to the board within 30 days of filing the action. All notices shall be given by the attorney employed to bring the action for damages or by the victim, his or her guardian, personal representative, estate, or survivors, if no attorney is employed. Notice shall include: the names of all parties to the claim or action; the address of all parties to the claim or action except for those persons represented by attorneys and in that case the name of the party and the name and address of the attorney; the nature of the claim asserted or action brought; in the case of actions before courts or administrative agencies the full title of the case including the identity of the court or agency, the names of the parties, and the case or docket number. When the victim or his or her attorney has reason to believe that a person from whom damages are sought is receiving a defense provided in whole or in part by a carrier, or is insured by a carrier for the injury caused to the victim, notice shall include statement of the fact and the name and address of the carrier. Upon request of the board a person obligated to provide notice shall provide the board with a copy of the current written claim or complaint.

(f) The state shall pay the county probation department or other county agency responsible for collection of funds owed to the Restitution Fund under Section 13967, as operative on or before September 28, 1994, Section 1202.4 of the Penal Code, Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, of the Penal Code, or Section 730.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, 10 percent of the funds so owed and collected by the county agency and deposited in the Restitution Fund. This payment shall be made only when the funds are deposited in the Restitution Fund within 45 days of the end of the month in which the funds are collected. Receiving 10 percent of the moneys collected as being owed to the Restitution Fund shall be considered an incentive for collection efforts and shall be used for furthering these collection efforts. The 10 percent rebates shall be used to augment the budgets for the county agencies responsible for collection of funds owed to the Restitution Fund, as provided in Section 13967, as operative on or before September 28, 1994, Section 1202.4 of the Penal Code, Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, of the Penal Code, or Section 730.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. The 10 percent rebates shall not be used to supplant county funding.

SEC. 7. Section 13967.2 of the Government Code is amended to read:

13967.2. Upon entry of a restitution order under subdivision (c) of Section 13967, as operative on or before September 28, 1994, paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 1202.4 of the Penal Code, or Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, of the Penal Code, the following shall apply:

(a) The court shall enter a separate order for income deduction upon determination of the defendant's ability to pay, regardless of the probation status, in accordance with Section 1203 of the Penal Code. Determination of a defendant's ability to pay may include his or her future earning capacity. A defendant shall bear the burden of demonstrating lack of his or her ability to pay. Express findings by the court as to the factors bearing on the amount of the fine shall not be required.

(b) (1) In any case in which the court enters a separate order for income deduction under this section, the order shall be stayed until the agency in the county responsible for collection of restitution determines that the defendant has failed to meet his or her obligation under the restitution order and the defendant has not provided the agency with good cause for the failure in accordance with paragraph (2).

(2) If the agency responsible for collection of restitution receives information that the defendant has failed to meet his or her obligation under the restitution order, the agency shall request the defendant to provide evidence indicating that timely payments have been made or provide information establishing good cause for the failure. If the defendant fails to provide the agency with the evidence or fails to establish good cause within five days of the request, the agency shall immediately inform the defendant of that fact, and shall inform the clerk of the court in order that an income deduction order shall be served pursuant to subdivision (f) following a 15-day appeal period. The defendant may apply for a hearing to contest the lifting of the stay pursuant to subdivision (f).

(c) The income deduction order shall direct a payer to deduct from all income due and payable to the defendant the amount required by the court to meet the defendant's obligation.

(d) The income deduction order shall be effective so long as the order for restitution upon which it is based is effective or until further order of the court.

(e) When the court orders the income deduction, the court shall furnish to the defendant a statement of his or her rights, remedies, and duties in regard to the income deduction order. The statement shall state the following:

(1) All fees or interest that shall be imposed.

(2) The total amount of income to be deducted for each pay period.

(3) That the income deduction order applies to current and subsequent payers and periods of employment.

(4) That a copy of the income deduction order will be served on the defendant's payer or payers.

(5) That enforcement of the income deduction order may only be contested on the ground of mistake of fact regarding the amount of restitution owed.

(6) That the defendant is required to notify the clerk of the court within seven days after changes in the defendant's address, payers, and the addresses of his or her payers.

(7) That the court order will be stayed in accordance with subdivision (b) and that a hearing is available in accordance with subdivision (f).

(f) (1) Upon receiving the notice described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), the clerk of the court or officer of the agency responsible for collection of restitution shall serve an income deduction order and the notice to payer on the defendant's payer unless the defendant has applied for a hearing to contest the enforcement of the income deduction order.

(2) (A) Service by or upon any person who is a party to a proceeding under this section shall be made in the manner prescribed for service upon parties in a civil action.

(B) Service upon the defendant's payer or successor payer under this section shall be made by prepaid certified mail, return receipt requested.

(3) The defendant, within 15 days after being informed that the order staying the income deduction order shall be lifted, may apply for a hearing to contest the enforcement of the income deduction order on the ground of mistake of fact regarding the amount of restitution owed or on the ground that the defendant has established good cause for the nonpayment. The timely request for a hearing shall stay the service of an income deduction order on all payers of the defendant until a hearing is held and a determination is made as to whether the enforcement of the income deduction order is proper.

(4) The notice to payer shall contain only information necessary for the payer to comply with the income deduction order. The notice shall do all of the following:

(A) Require the payer to deduct from the defendant's income the amount specified in the income deduction order, and to pay that amount to the clerk of the court.

(B) Instruct the payer to implement the income deduction order no later than the first payment date that occurs more than 14 days after the date the income deduction order was served on the payer.

(C) Instruct the payer to forward, within two days after each payment date, to the clerk of the court the amount deducted from the defendant's income and a statement as to whether the amount totally or partially satisfies the periodic amount specified in the income deduction order.

(D) Specify that if a payer fails to deduct the proper amount from the defendant's income, the payer is liable for the amount the payer should have deducted, plus costs, interest, and reasonable attorney's fees.

(E) Provide that the payer may collect up to five dollars ($5) against the defendant's income to reimburse the payer for administrative costs for the first income deduction and up to one dollar ($1) for each deduction thereafter.

(F) State that the income deduction order and the notice to payer are binding on the payer until further notice by the court or until the payer no longer provides income to the defendant.

(G) Instruct the payer that, when he or she no longer provides income to the defendant, he or she shall notify the clerk of the court and shall also provide the defendant's last known address and the name and address of the defendant's new payer, if known, and that, if the payer violates this provision, the payer is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for the first violation or five hundred dollars ($500) for any subsequent violation.

(H) State that the payer shall not discharge, refuse to employ, or take disciplinary action against the defendant because of an income deduction order and shall state that a violation of this provision subjects the payer to a civil penalty not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for the first violation or five hundred dollars ($500) for any subsequent violation.

(I) Inform the payer that when he or she receives income deduction orders requiring that the income of two or more defendants be deducted and sent to the same clerk of a court, he or she may combine the amounts that are to be paid to the depository in a single payment as long as he or she identifies that portion of the payment attributable to each defendant.

(J) Inform the payer that if the payer receives more than one income deduction order against the same defendant, he or she shall contact the court for further instructions.

(5) The clerk of the court shall enforce income deduction orders against the defendant's successor payer who is located in this state in the same manner prescribed in this subdivision for the enforcement of an income deduction order against a payer.

(6) A person may not discharge, refuse to employ, or take disciplinary action against an employee because of the enforcement of an income deduction order. An employer who violates this provision is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for the first violation or five hundred dollars ($500) for any subsequent violation.

(7) When a payer no longer provides income to a defendant, he or she shall notify the clerk of the court and shall provide the defendant's last known address and the name and address of the defendant's new payer, if known. A payer who violates this provision is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for the first violation or five hundred dollars ($500) for a subsequent violation.

(g) As used in this section, "good cause" for failure to meet an obligation or "good cause" for nonpayment means, but shall not be limited to, any of the following:

(1) That there has been a substantial change in the defendant's economic circumstances, such as involuntary unemployment, involuntary cost-of-living increases, or costs incurred as the result of medical circumstances or a natural disaster.

(2) That the defendant reasonably believes there has been an administrative error with regard to his or her obligation for payment.

(3) Any other similar and justifiable reasons.

SEC. 8. Section 13967.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

13967.5. (a) The restitution fine imposed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 13967, as operative on or before September 28, 1994, subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, of the Penal Code, or Section 1202.4 of the Penal Code shall be payable to the clerk of the court, the probation officer, or any other person responsible for the collection of criminal fines. If the defendant is unable or otherwise fails to pay that fine in a felony case and there is an amount unpaid of one thousand dollars ($1,000) or more within 60 days after the imposition of sentence, or in a case in which probation is granted, within the period of probation, the clerk of the court, probation officer, or other person to whom the fine is to be paid shall forward to the Controller the abstract of judgment along with any information which may be relevant to the present and future location of the defendant and his or her assets, if any, and any verifiable amount which the defendant may have paid to the victim as a result of the crime.

(b) A restitution fine shall be deemed a debt of the defendant owing to the state for the purposes of Sections 12418 and 12419.5 of the Government Code, excepting any amounts the defendant has paid to the victim as a result of the crime. Upon request by the Controller, the district attorney of a county or the Attorney General may take any necessary action to recover amounts owing on a restitution fine. The amount of the recovery shall be increased by a sum sufficient to cover any costs incurred by any state or local agency in the administration of this section. The remedies provided by this subdivision are in addition to any other remedies provided by law for the enforcement of a judgment.

SEC. 9. Section 13968 of the Government Code is amended to read:

13968. (a) The board is hereby authorized to make all needful rules and regulations for the purposes of carrying into effect this article. All rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this subdivision shall be adopted in accordance with Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3.

(b) It shall be the duty of every hospital licensed under the laws of this state to display prominently in its emergency room posters giving notification of the existence and general provisions of this chapter, and the existence and locations of local victim centers. The board, in cooperation with local victim centers, shall set standards for the location of a display and shall provide posters, application forms, and general information regarding the provisions of this chapter to each hospital and physician licensed to practice in the State of California.

(c) It shall be the duty of every local law enforcement agency to inform victims of crimes of the provisions of this chapter, of the existence of local victim centers, and in counties where no local victim center exists, to provide application forms to victims who desire to seek assistance pursuant to this article. The board shall provide application forms and all other documents which local law enforcement agencies and victim centers may require to comply with this section. The board, in cooperation with local victim centers shall set standards to be followed by local law enforcement agencies for this purpose and may require them to file with the board a description of the procedures adopted by each agency to comply.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 827 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or any other provision of law, every law enforcement and social service agency in the state shall provide to the board or to the designated local victim centers, upon request, a copy of a petition filed in a juvenile court proceeding, reports of the probation officer, any other document made available to the probation officer or to the judge, referee, or other hearing officer, a complete copy of the report regarding the incident and any supplemental reports involving the crime, public offense, or incident giving rise to a claim, for the specific purpose of the submission of a claim or the determination of eligibility to submit a claim filed pursuant to this article. The board or designated local victim centers shall refuse to allow inspection of a document that personally identifies a minor by anyone other than the minor who is so identified, his or her custodial parent or guardian, the attorneys for those parties, and any other persons as may be designated by court order of the judge of the juvenile court. Any information received pursuant to this section shall be received in confidence for the limited purpose for which it was provided and shall not be further disseminated. A violation of this subdivision is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500).

(e) The law enforcement agency supplying the information may, at its discretion, withhold the names of witnesses or informants from the board, if the release of such names would be detrimental to the parties or to an investigation currently in progress.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, every state agency, department, division, board, or commission, upon receipt of a copy of a release signed in accordance with the Information Practices Act of 1977 by the applicant or other authorized representative, shall provide to the board or local victim center the information necessary to complete the verification of an application filed pursuant to this article.

(g) The Department of Justice shall furnish, upon application of the board, all information necessary to verify the eligibility of any applicant for benefits pursuant to Section 13960.2, to recover any restitution fine or order obligations that are owed to the Restitution Fund or to any victim of crime, or to evaluate the status of any criminal disposition.

SEC. 10. Section 13969.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

13969.3. A person who has been overpaid or on whose behalf any provider or other person has been overpaid under this chapter is liable for that amount unless both of the following facts exist:

(a) The overpayment was not due to fraud, misrepresentation, or willful nondisclosure on the part of the recipient.

(b) The overpayment was received without fault on the part of the recipient, and its recovery would be against equity and good conscience.

For overpayments which are not in excess of two thousand dollars ($2,000), the board may authorize the executive officer to establish limits for the administration of this section. For overpayments which are in excess of two thousand dollars ($2,000), the board shall report to the Legislature in the manner prescribed by Section 13928 and the relief from liability described above shall be subject to legislative approval.

SEC. 11. Section 13969.4 of the Government Code is amended to read:

13969.4. The executive officer or his or her designees, subject to this article, may do the following to recover moneys owed to the Restitution Fund:

(a) File a civil action against the liable person for the recovery of the amount of moneys owed. This action shall be filed within one year of either of the following events, or within three years of either of the following events if the liable person was overpaid benefits due to fraud, misrepresentation, or nondisclosure as described in Section 13969.3:

(1) The mailing or personal service of the notice of the moneys owed if the person affected does not file an appeal with the board or person designated by the board.

(2) The mailing of the decision of the board if the person affected does not initiate a further appeal.

(b) Initiate proceedings for a summary judgment against the liable person. However, this subdivision shall apply only where the executive officer has found, pursuant to Section 13969.3, that the overpayment may not be waived. The executive officer may, not later than three years after the overpayment became final, file with the clerk of the proper court in the county from which the overpayment of benefits was paid or in the county in which the claimant resides, a certificate containing all of the following:

(1) The amount due, plus interest from the date that the initial determination of the moneys owed was made.

(2) A statement that the executive officer has complied with all the provisions of this article prior to the filing of the certificate.

(3) A request that the judgment be entered against the liable person in the amount set forth in the certificate.

The clerk, immediately upon the filing of the certificate, shall enter a judgment for the state against the liable person in the amount set forth in the certificate.

SEC. 12. Section 4903 of the Labor Code is amended to read:

4903. The appeals board may determine, and allow as liens against any sum to be paid as compensation, any amount determined as hereinafter set forth in subdivisions (a) through (i). If more than one lien is allowed, the appeals board may determine the priorities, if any, between the liens allowed. The liens which may be allowed hereunder are as follows:

(a) A reasonable attorney's fee for legal services pertaining to any claim for compensation either before the appeals board or before any of the appellate courts, and the reasonable disbursements in connection therewith. No fee for legal services shall be awarded to any representative who is not an attorney, except with respect to those claims for compensation for which an application, pursuant to Section 5501, has been filed with the appeals board on or before December 31, 1991, or for which a disclosure form, pursuant to Section 4906, has been sent to the employer, or insurer or third-party administrator, if either is known, on or before December 31, 1991.

(b) The reasonable expense incurred by or on behalf of the injured employee, as provided by Article 2 (commencing with Section 4600) and, to the extent the employee is entitled to reimbursement under Section 4621, medical-legal expenses as provided by Article 2.5 (commencing with Section 4620) of Chapter 2 of Part 2.

(c) The reasonable value of the living expenses of an injured employee or of his or her dependents, subsequent to the injury.

(d) The reasonable burial expenses of the deceased employee, not to exceed the amount provided for by Section 4701.

(e) The reasonable living expenses of the spouse or minor children of the injured employee, or both, subsequent to the date of the injury, where the employee has deserted or is neglecting his or her family. These expenses shall be allowed in the proportion that the appeals board deems proper, under application of the spouse, guardian of the minor children, or the assignee, pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 11477 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, of the spouse, a former spouse, or minor children. A collection received as a result of a lien against a workers' compensation award imposed pursuant to this subdivision for payment of child support ordered by a court shall be credited as provided in Section 695.221 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(f) The amount of unemployment compensation disability benefits that have been paid under or pursuant to the Unemployment Insurance Code in those cases where, pending a determination under this division there was uncertainty whether the benefits were payable under the Unemployment Insurance Code or payable hereunder; provided, however, that any lien under this subdivision shall be allowed and paid as provided in Section 4904.

(g) The amount of unemployment compensation benefits and extended duration benefits paid to the injured employee for the same day or days for which he or she receives, or is entitled to receive, temporary total disability indemnity payments under this division; provided, however, that any lien under this subdivision shall be allowed and paid as provided in Section 4904.

(h) The amount of indemnification granted by the California Victims of Crime Program pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 13959) of Chapter 5 of Part 4 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

(i) The amount of compensation, including expenses of medical treatment, and recoverable costs that have been paid by the Asbestos Workers' Account pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 4401) of Part 1.

SEC. 13. Section 166 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

166. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), every person guilty of any contempt of court, of any of the following kinds, is guilty of a misdemeanor:

(1) Disorderly, contemptuous, or insolent behavior committed during the sitting of any court of justice, in immediate view and presence of the court, and directly tending to interrupt its proceedings or to impair the respect due to its authority.

(2) Behavior as specified in paragraph (1) committed in the presence of any referee, while actually engaged in any trial or hearing, pursuant to the order of any court, or in the presence of any jury while actually sitting for the trial of a cause, or upon any inquest or other proceedings authorized by law.

(3) Any breach of the peace, noise, or other disturbance directly tending to interrupt the proceedings of any court.

(4) Willful disobedience of any process or order lawfully issued by any court.

(5) Resistance willfully offered by any person to the lawful order or process of any court.

(6) The contumacious and unlawful refusal of any person to be sworn as a witness; or, when so sworn, the like refusal to answer any material question.

(7) The publication of a false or grossly inaccurate report of the proceedings of any court.

(8) Presenting to any court having power to pass sentence upon any prisoner under conviction, or to any member of the court, any affidavit or testimony or representation of any kind, verbal or written, in aggravation or mitigation of the punishment to be imposed upon the prisoner, except as provided in this code.

(b) (1) Any person who is guilty of contempt of court under paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) by willfully contacting a victim by phone, mail, or directly and who has been previously convicted of a violation of Section 646.9 shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, by a fine of five thousand dollars ($5,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(2) For the purposes of sentencing under this subdivision, each contact shall constitute a separate violation of this subdivision.

(3) The present incarceration of a person who makes contact with a victim in violation of paragraph (1) is not a defense to a violation of this subdivision.

(c) (1) Notwithstanding paragraph (4) of subdivision (a), any willful and knowing violation of any protective order or stay away court order issued pursuant to Section 136.2, in a pending criminal proceeding involving domestic violence, as defined in Section 13700, or issued as a condition of probation after a conviction in a criminal proceeding involving domestic violence, as defined in Section 13700, which is an order described in paragraph (3), shall constitute contempt of court, a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and the fine.

(2) If a violation of paragraph (1) results in a physical injury, the person shall be imprisoned in a county jail for at least 48 hours, whether a fine or imprisonment is imposed, or the sentence is suspended.

(3) Paragraphs (1) and (2) shall apply to the following court orders:

(A) An order enjoining any party from molesting, attacking, striking, threatening, sexually assaulting, battering, harassing, contacting repeatedly by mail with the intent to harass, or disturbing the peace of the other party, or other named family and household members.

(B) An order excluding one party from the family dwelling or from the dwelling of the other.

(C) An order enjoining a party from specified behavior that the court determined was necessary to effectuate the orders described in paragraph (1).

(4) A second or subsequent conviction for a violation of any order described in paragraph (1) occurring within seven years of a prior conviction for a violation of any of those orders and involving an act of violence or "a credible threat" of violence, as provided in subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 139, is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year, or in the state prison for 16 months or two or three years.

(5) The prosecuting agency of each county shall have the primary responsibility for the enforcement of the orders described in paragraph (1).

(d) (1) If probation is granted upon conviction of a violation of subdivision (c), the court shall require participation in a batterer's treatment program as a condition of probation, unless, considering all of the facts and circumstances, the court finds participating in a batterer's treatment program inappropriate for the defendant.

(2) If probation is granted upon conviction of a violation of subdivision (c), the conditions of probation may include, in lieu of a fine, one or both of the following requirements:

(A) That the defendant make payments to a battered women's shelter, up to a maximum of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(B) That the defendant provide restitution to reimburse the victim for reasonable costs of counseling and other reasonable expenses that the court finds are the direct result of the defendant's offense.

(3) For any order to pay a fine, make payments to a battered women's shelter, or pay restitution as a condition of probation under this subdivision or subdivision (c), the court shall make a determination of the defendant's ability to pay. In no event shall any order to make payments to a battered women's shelter be made if it would impair the ability of the defendant to pay direct restitution to the victim or court-ordered child support.

(4) Where the injury to a married person is caused in whole or in part by the criminal acts of his or her spouse in violation of subdivision (c), the community property may not be used to discharge the liability of the offending spouse for restitution to the injured spouse, required by Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, or Section 1202.4, or to a shelter for costs with regard to the injured spouse and dependents, required by this subdivision, until all separate property of the offending spouse is exhausted.

(5) Any person violating any order described in subdivision (c), may be punished for any substantive offenses described under Section 136.1 or 646.9. No finding of contempt shall be a bar to prosecution for a violation of Section 136.1 or 646.9. However, any person held in contempt for a violation of subdivision (c) shall be entitled to credit for any punishment imposed as a result of that violation against any sentence imposed upon conviction of an offense described in Section 136.1 or 646.9. Any conviction or acquittal for any substantive offense under Section 136.1 or 646.9 shall be a bar to a subsequent punishment for contempt arising out of the same act.

SEC. 13.1. Section 166 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

166. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), every person guilty of any contempt of court, of any of the following kinds, is guilty of a misdemeanor:

(1) Disorderly, contemptuous, or insolent behavior committed during the sitting of any court of justice, in immediate view and presence of the court, and directly tending to interrupt its proceedings or to impair the respect due to its authority.

(2) Behavior as specified in paragraph (1) committed in the presence of any referee, while actually engaged in any trial or hearing, pursuant to the order of any court, or in the presence of any jury while actually sitting for the trial of a cause, or upon any inquest or other proceedings authorized by law.

(3) Any breach of the peace, noise, or other disturbance directly tending to interrupt the proceedings of any court.

(4) Willful disobedience of any process or order lawfully issued by any court.

(5) Resistance willfully offered by any person to the lawful order or process of any court.

(6) The contumacious and unlawful refusal of any person to be sworn as a witness; or, when so sworn, the like refusal to answer any material question.

(7) The publication of a false or grossly inaccurate report of the proceedings of any court.

(8) Presenting to any court having power to pass sentence upon any prisoner under conviction, or to any member of the court, any affidavit or testimony or representation of any kind, verbal or written, in aggravation or mitigation of the punishment to be imposed upon the prisoner, except as provided in this code.

(b) (1) Any person who is guilty of contempt of court under paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) by willfully contacting a victim by phone, mail, or directly and who has been previously convicted of a violation of Section 646.9 shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, by a fine of five thousand dollars ($5,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(2) For the purposes of sentencing under this subdivision, each contact shall constitute a separate violation of this subdivision.

(3) The present incarceration of a person who makes contact with a victim in violation of paragraph (1) is not a defense to a violation of this subdivision.

(c) (1) Notwithstanding paragraph (4) of subdivision (a), any willful and knowing violation of any protective order or stay away court order issued pursuant to Section 136.2, in a pending criminal proceeding involving domestic violence, as defined in Section 13700, or issued as a condition of probation after a conviction in a criminal proceeding involving domestic violence, as defined in Section 13700, which is an order described in paragraph (3), shall constitute contempt of court, a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and the fine.

(2) If a violation of paragraph (1) results in a physical injury, the person shall be imprisoned in a county jail for at least 48 hours, whether a fine or imprisonment is imposed, or the sentence is suspended.

(3) Paragraphs (1) and (2) shall apply to the following court orders:

(A) Any order issued pursuant to Section 6320 of the Family Code.

(B) An order excluding one party from the family dwelling or from the dwelling of the other.

(C) An order enjoining a party from specified behavior that the court determined was necessary to effectuate the orders described in paragraph (1).

(4) A second or subsequent conviction for a violation of any order described in paragraph (1) occurring within seven years of a prior conviction for a violation of any of those orders and involving an act of violence or "a credible threat" of violence, as provided in subdivisions (c) and (d) of Section 139, is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year, or in the state prison for 16 months or two or three years.

(5) The prosecuting agency of each county shall have the primary responsibility for the enforcement of the orders described in paragraph (1).

(d) (1) If probation is granted upon conviction of a violation of subdivision (c), the court shall require participation in a batterer's treatment program as a condition of probation, unless, considering all of the facts and circumstances, the court finds participating in a batterer's treatment program inappropriate for the defendant.

(2) If probation is granted upon conviction of a violation of subdivision (c), the conditions of probation may include, in lieu of a fine, one or both of the following requirements:

(A) That the defendant make payments to a battered women's shelter, up to a maximum of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(B) That the defendant provide restitution to reimburse the victim for reasonable costs of counseling and other reasonable expenses that the court finds are the direct result of the defendant's offense.

(3) For any order to pay a fine, make payments to a battered women's shelter, or pay restitution as a condition of probation under this subdivision or subdivision (c), the court shall make a determination of the defendant's ability to pay. In no event shall any order to make payments to a battered women's shelter be made if it would impair the ability of the defendant to pay direct restitution to the victim or court-ordered child support.

(4) Where the injury to a married person is caused in whole or in part by the criminal acts of his or her spouse in violation of subdivision (c), the community property may not be used to discharge the liability of the offending spouse for restitution to the injured spouse, required by Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, or Section 1202.4, or to a shelter for costs with regard to the injured spouse and dependents, required by this subdivision, until all separate property of the offending spouse is exhausted.

(5) Any person violating any order described in subdivision (c), may be punished for any substantive offenses described under Section 136.1 or 646.9. No finding of contempt shall be a bar to prosecution for a violation of Section 136.1 or 646.9. However, any person held in contempt for a violation of subdivision (c) shall be entitled to credit for any punishment imposed as a result of that violation against any sentence imposed upon conviction of an offense described in Section 136.1 or 646.9. Any conviction or acquittal for any substantive offense under Section 136.1 or 646.9 shall be a bar to a subsequent punishment for contempt arising out of the same act.

SEC. 13.2. Section 166 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

166. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), every person guilty of any contempt of court, of any of the following kinds, is guilty of a misdemeanor:

(1) Disorderly, contemptuous, or insolent behavior committed during the sitting of any court of justice, in immediate view and presence of the court, and directly tending to interrupt its proceedings or to impair the respect due to its authority.

(2) Behavior as specified in paragraph (1) committed in the presence of any referee, while actually engaged in any trial or hearing, pursuant to the order of any court, or in the presence of any jury while actually sitting for the trial of a cause, or upon any inquest or other proceedings authorized by law.

(3) Any breach of the peace, noise, or other disturbance directly tending to interrupt the proceedings of any court.

(4) Willful disobedience of any process or order lawfully issued by any court.

(5) Resistance willfully offered by any person to the lawful order or process of any court.

(6) The contumacious and unlawful refusal of any person to be sworn as a witness; or, when so sworn, the like refusal to answer any material question.

(7) The publication of a false or grossly inaccurate report of the proceedings of any court.

(8) Presenting to any court having power to pass sentence upon any prisoner under conviction, or to any member of the court, any affidavit or testimony or representation of any kind, verbal or written, in aggravation or mitigation of the punishment to be imposed upon the prisoner, except as provided in this code.

(b) (1) Any person who is guilty of contempt of court under paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) by willfully contacting a victim by phone, mail, or directly and who has been previously convicted of a violation of Section 646.9 shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, by a fine of five thousand dollars ($5,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(2) For the purposes of sentencing under this subdivision, each contact shall constitute a separate violation of this subdivision.

(3) The present incarceration of a person who makes contact with a victim in violation of paragraph (1) is not a defense to a violation of this subdivision.

(c) (1) Notwithstanding paragraph (4) of subdivision (a), any willful and knowing violation of any protective order or stay away court order issued pursuant to Section 136.2, in a pending criminal proceeding involving domestic violence, as defined in Section 13700, or issued as a condition of probation after a conviction in a criminal proceeding involving domestic violence, as defined in Section 13700, which is an order described in paragraph (3), shall constitute contempt of court, a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and the fine.

(2) If a violation of paragraph (1) results in a physical injury, the person shall be imprisoned in a county jail for at least 48 hours, whether a fine or imprisonment is imposed, or the sentence is suspended.

(3) Paragraphs (1) and (2) shall apply to the following court orders:

(A) An order enjoining any party from molesting, attacking, striking, threatening, sexually assaulting, battering, harassing, contacting repeatedly by mail with the intent to harass, or disturbing the peace of the other party, or other named family and household members.

(B) An order excluding one party from the family dwelling or from the dwelling of the other.

(C) An order enjoining a party from specified behavior that the court determined was necessary to effectuate the orders described in paragraph (1).

(4) (A) A second or subsequent conviction for a violation of any order described in paragraph (1), occurring within seven years of a prior conviction for a violation of any of those orders, is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year, or in the state prison for 16 months or two or three years.

(B) A felony conviction under subparagraph (A) shall not constitute a current felony conviction for purposes of subdivisions (b) to (i), inclusive, of Section 667 or Section 1170.12.

(5) The prosecuting agency of each county shall have the primary responsibility for the enforcement of the orders described in paragraph (1).

(d) (1) If probation is granted upon conviction of a violation of subdivision (c), the court shall require participation in a batterer's treatment program as a condition of probation, unless, considering all of the facts and circumstances, the court finds participating in a batterer's treatment program inappropriate for the defendant.

(2) If probation is granted upon conviction of a violation of subdivision (c), the conditions of probation may include, in lieu of a fine, one or both of the following requirements:

(A) That the defendant make payments to a battered women's shelter, up to a maximum of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(B) That the defendant provide restitution to reimburse the victim for reasonable costs of counseling and other reasonable expenses that the court finds are the direct result of the defendant's offense.

(3) For any order to pay a fine, make payments to a battered women's shelter, or pay restitution as a condition of probation under this subdivision or subdivision (c), the court shall make a determination of the defendant's ability to pay. In no event shall any order to make payments to a battered women's shelter be made if it would impair the ability of the defendant to pay direct restitution to the victim or court-ordered child support.

(4) Where the injury to a married person is caused in whole or in part by the criminal acts of his or her spouse in violation of subdivision (c), the community property may not be used to discharge the liability of the offending spouse for restitution to the injured spouse, required by Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, or Section 1202.4, or to a shelter for costs with regard to the injured spouse and dependents, required by this subdivision, until all separate property of the offending spouse is exhausted.

(5) Any person violating any order described in subdivision (c), may be punished for any substantive offenses described under Section 136.1 or 646.9. No finding of contempt shall be a bar to prosecution for a violation of Section 136.1 or 646.9. However, any person held in contempt for a violation of subdivision (c) shall be entitled to credit for any punishment imposed as a result of that violation against any sentence imposed upon conviction of an offense described in Section 136.1 or 646.9. Any conviction or acquittal for any substantive offense under Section 136.1 or 646.9 shall be a bar to a subsequent punishment for contempt arising out of the same act.

SEC. 13.3. Section 166 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

166. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), every person guilty of any contempt of court, of any of the following kinds, is guilty of a misdemeanor:

(1) Disorderly, contemptuous, or insolent behavior committed during the sitting of any court of justice, in immediate view and presence of the court, and directly tending to interrupt its proceedings or to impair the respect due to its authority.

(2) Behavior as specified in paragraph (1) committed in the presence of any referee, while actually engaged in any trial or hearing, pursuant to the order of any court, or in the presence of any jury while actually sitting for the trial of a cause, or upon any inquest or other proceedings authorized by law.

(3) Any breach of the peace, noise, or other disturbance directly tending to interrupt the proceedings of any court.

(4) Willful disobedience of any process or order lawfully issued by any court.

(5) Resistance willfully offered by any person to the lawful order or process of any court.

(6) The contumacious and unlawful refusal of any person to be sworn as a witness; or, when so sworn, the like refusal to answer any material question.

(7) The publication of a false or grossly inaccurate report of the proceedings of any court.

(8) Presenting to any court having power to pass sentence upon any prisoner under conviction, or to any member of the court, any affidavit or testimony or representation of any kind, verbal or written, in aggravation or mitigation of the punishment to be imposed upon the prisoner, except as provided in this code.

(b) (1) Any person who is guilty of contempt of court under paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) by willfully contacting a victim by phone, mail, or directly and who has been previously convicted of a violation of Section 646.9 shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, by a fine of five thousand dollars ($5,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(2) For the purposes of sentencing under this subdivision, each contact shall constitute a separate violation of this subdivision.

(3) The present incarceration of a person who makes contact with a victim in violation of paragraph (1) is not a defense to a violation of this subdivision.

(c) (1) Notwithstanding paragraph (4) of subdivision (a), any willful and knowing violation of any protective order or stay away court order issued pursuant to Section 136.2, in a pending criminal proceeding involving domestic violence, as defined in Section 13700, or issued as a condition of probation after a conviction in a criminal proceeding involving domestic violence, as defined in Section 13700, which is an order described in paragraph (3), shall constitute contempt of court, a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and the fine.

(2) If a violation of paragraph (1) results in a physical injury, the person shall be imprisoned in a county jail for at least 48 hours, whether a fine or imprisonment is imposed, or the sentence is suspended.

(3) Paragraphs (1) and (2) shall apply to the following court orders:

(A) Any order issued pursuant to Section 6320 of the Family Code.

(B) An order excluding one party from the family dwelling or from the dwelling of the other.

(C) An order enjoining a party from specified behavior that the court determined was necessary to effectuate the orders described in paragraph (1).

(4) (A) A second or subsequent conviction for a violation of any order described in paragraph (1) occurring within seven years of a prior conviction for a violation of any of those orders, is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year, or in the state prison for 16 months or two or three years.

(B) A felony conviction under subparagraph (A) shall not constitute a current felony conviction for purposes of subdivisions (b) to (i), inclusive, of Section 667 or Section 1170.12.

(5) The prosecuting agency of each county shall have the primary responsibility for the enforcement of the orders described in paragraph (1).

(d) (1) If probation is granted upon conviction of a violation of subdivision (c), the court shall require participation in a batterer's treatment program as a condition of probation, unless, considering all of the facts and circumstances, the court finds participating in a batterer's treatment program inappropriate for the defendant.

(2) If probation is granted upon conviction of a violation of subdivision (c), the conditions of probation may include, in lieu of a fine, one or both of the following requirements:

(A) That the defendant make payments to a battered women's shelter, up to a maximum of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(B) That the defendant provide restitution to reimburse the victim for reasonable costs of counseling and other reasonable expenses that the court finds are the direct result of the defendant's offense.

(3) For any order to pay a fine, make payments to a battered women's shelter, or pay restitution as a condition of probation under this subdivision or subdivision (c), the court shall make a determination of the defendant's ability to pay. In no event shall any order to make payments to a battered women's shelter be made if it would impair the ability of the defendant to pay direct restitution to the victim or court-ordered child support.

(4) Where the injury to a married person is caused in whole or in part by the criminal acts of his or her spouse in violation of subdivision (c), the community property may not be used to discharge the liability of the offending spouse for restitution to the injured spouse, required by Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, or Section 1202.4, or to a shelter for costs with regard to the injured spouse and dependents, required by this subdivision, until all separate property of the offending spouse is exhausted.

(5) Any person violating any order described in subdivision (c), may be punished for any substantive offenses described under Section 136.1 or 646.9. No finding of contempt shall be a bar to prosecution for a violation of Section 136.1 or 646.9. However, any person held in contempt for a violation of subdivision (c) shall be entitled to credit for any punishment imposed as a result of that violation against any sentence imposed upon conviction of an offense described in Section 136.1 or 646.9. Any conviction or acquittal for any substantive offense under Section 136.1 or 646.9 shall be a bar to a subsequent punishment for contempt arising out of the same act.

SEC. 14. Section 243 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

243. (a) A battery is punishable by a fine of not exceeding two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding six months, or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(b) When a battery is committed against the person of a peace officer, custodial officer, firefighter, emergency medical technician, mobile intensive care paramedic, lifeguard, process server, traffic officer, or animal control officer engaged in the performance of his or her duties, whether on or off duty, including when the peace officer is in a police uniform and is concurrently performing the duties required of him or her as a peace officer while also employed in a private capacity as a part-time or casual private security guard or patrolman, or a physician or nurse engaged in rendering emergency medical care outside a hospital, clinic, or other health care facility, and the person committing the offense knows or reasonably should know that the victim is a peace officer, custodial officer, firefighter, emergency medical technician, mobile intensive care paramedic, lifeguard, process server, traffic officer, or animal control officer engaged in the performance of his or her duties, or a physician or nurse engaged in rendering emergency medical care, the battery is punishable by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(c) When a battery is committed against a peace officer, custodial officer, firefighter, emergency medical technician, mobile intensive care paramedic, lifeguard, process server, traffic officer, or animal control officer engaged in the performance of his or her duties, whether on or off duty, including when the peace officer is in a police uniform and is concurrently performing the duties required of him or her as a peace officer while also employed in a private capacity as a part-time or casual private security guard or patrolman, or a physician or nurse engaged in rendering emergency medical care outside a hospital, clinic, or other health care facility, and the person committing the offense knows or reasonably should know that the victim is a peace officer, custodial officer, firefighter, emergency medical technician, mobile intensive care paramedic, lifeguard, process server, traffic officer, or animal control officer engaged in the performance of his or her duties, or a physician or nurse engaged in rendering emergency medical care, and an injury is inflicted on that victim, the battery is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for a period of not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years.

(d) When a battery is committed against any person and serious bodily injury is inflicted on the person, the battery is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for a period of not more than one year or imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years.

(e) (1) When a battery is committed against a noncohabiting former spouse, fiancé, fiancée, or a person with whom the defendant currently has, or has previously had, a dating relationship, the battery is punishable by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for a period of not more than one year, or by both. If probation is granted, or the execution or imposition of the sentence is suspended, it shall be a condition thereof that the defendant participate in, for no less than one year, and successfully complete, a batterer's treatment program, as defined in Section 1203.097, or if none is available, another appropriate counseling program designated by the court. However, this provision shall not be construed as requiring a city, a county, or a city and county to provide a new program or higher level of service as contemplated by Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

(2) Upon conviction of a violation of this subdivision, if probation is granted, the conditions of probation may include, in lieu of a fine, one or both of the following requirements:

(A) That the defendant make payments to a battered women's shelter, up to a maximum of five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(B) That the defendant reimburse the victim for reasonable costs of counseling and other reasonable expenses that the court finds are the direct result of the defendant's offense.

For any order to pay a fine, make payments to a battered women's shelter, or pay restitution as a condition of probation under this subdivision, the court shall make a determination of the defendant's ability to pay. In no event shall any order to make payments to a battered women's shelter be made if it would impair the ability of the defendant to pay direct restitution to the victim or court-ordered child support. Where the injury to a married person is caused in whole or in part by the criminal acts of his or her spouse in violation of this section, the community property may not be used to discharge the liability of the offending spouse for restitution to the injured spouse, required by Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, or Section 1202.4, or to a shelter for costs with regard to the injured spouse and dependents, required by this section, until all separate property of the offending spouse is exhausted.

(3) Upon conviction of a violation of this subdivision, if probation is granted or the execution or imposition of the sentence is suspended and the person has been previously convicted of a violation of this subdivision and sentenced under paragraph (1), the person shall be imprisoned for not less than 48 hours in addition to the conditions in paragraph (1). However, the court, upon a showing of good cause, may elect not to impose the mandatory minimum imprisonment as required by this subdivision and may, under these circumstances, grant probation or order the suspension of the execution or imposition of the sentence.

The Legislature finds and declares that these specified crimes merit special consideration when imposing a sentence so as to display society's condemnation for these crimes of violence upon victims with whom a close relationship has been formed.

(f) As used in this section:

(1) "Peace officer" means any person defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2.

(2) "Emergency medical technician" means a person possessing a valid course completion certificate from a program approved by the State Department of Health Services for the medical training and education of ambulance personnel, and who meets the standards of Division 2.5 (commencing with Section 1797) of the Health and Safety Code.

(3) "Mobile intensive care paramedic" means any person who meets the standards set forth in Section 1797.84 of, and Division 2.5 (commencing with Section 1797) of, the Health and Safety Code.

(4) "Nurse" means a person who meets the standards of Division 2.5 (commencing with Section 1797) of the Health and Safety Code.

(5) "Serious bodily injury" means a serious impairment of physical condition, including, but not limited to, the following: loss of consciousness; concussion; bone fracture; protracted loss or impairment of function of any bodily member or organ; a wound requiring extensive suturing; and serious disfigurement.

(6) "Injury" means any physical injury which requires professional medical treatment.

(7) "Custodial officer" means any person who has the responsibilities and duties described in Section 831 and who is employed by a law enforcement agency of any city or county or who performs those duties as a volunteer.

(8) "Lifeguard" means a person defined in paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 241.

(9) "Traffic officer" means any person employed by a city, county, or city and county, to monitor and enforce state laws and local ordinances relating to parking and the operation of vehicles.

(10) "Animal control officer" means any person employed by a city, county, or city and county for purposes of enforcing animal control laws or regulations.

(11) "Dating relationship" means frequent, intimate associations primarily characterized by the expectation of affectional or sexual involvement independent of financial considerations.

It is the intent of the Legislature by amendments to this section at the 1981–82 and 1983–84 Regular Sessions to abrogate the holdings in cases such as People v. Corey, 21 Cal. 3d 738, and Cervantez v. J.C. Penney Co., 24 Cal. 3d 579, and to reinstate prior judicial interpretations of this section as they relate to criminal sanctions for battery on peace officers who are employed, on a part-time or casual basis, while wearing a police uniform as private security guards or patrolmen and to allow the exercise of peace officer powers concurrently with that employment.

SEC. 14.5. Section 243 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

243. (a) A battery is punishable by a fine of not exceeding two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding six months, or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(b) When a battery is committed against the person of a peace officer, custodial officer, firefighter, emergency medical technician, mobile intensive care paramedic, lifeguard, process server, traffic officer, or animal control officer engaged in the performance of his or her duties, whether on or off duty, including when the peace officer is in a police uniform and is concurrently performing the duties required of him or her as a peace officer while also employed in a private capacity as a part-time or casual private security guard or patrolman, or a physician or nurse engaged in rendering emergency medical care outside a hospital, clinic, or other health care facility, and the person committing the offense knows or reasonably should know that the victim is a peace officer, custodial officer, firefighter, emergency medical technician, mobile intensive care paramedic, lifeguard, process server, traffic officer, or animal control officer engaged in the performance of his or her duties, or a physician or nurse engaged in rendering emergency medical care, the battery is punishable by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(c) When a battery is committed against a peace officer, custodial officer, firefighter, emergency medical technician, mobile intensive care paramedic, lifeguard, process server, traffic officer, or animal control officer engaged in the performance of his or her duties, whether on or off duty, including when the peace officer is in a police uniform and is concurrently performing the duties required of him or her as a peace officer while also employed in a private capacity as a part-time or casual private security guard or patrolman, or a physician or nurse engaged in rendering emergency medical care outside a hospital, clinic, or other health care facility, and the person committing the offense knows or reasonably should know that the victim is a peace officer, custodial officer, firefighter, emergency medical technician, mobile intensive care paramedic, lifeguard, process server, traffic officer, or animal control officer engaged in the performance of his or her duties, or a physician or nurse engaged in rendering emergency medical care, and an injury is inflicted on that victim, the battery is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for a period of not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in the state prison for 16 months, or two or three years.

(d) When a battery is committed against any person and serious bodily injury is inflicted on the person, the battery is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for a period of not more than one year or imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years.

(e) (1) When a battery is committed against a spouse, person with whom the defendant is cohabiting, person who is the parent of the defendant's child, noncohabiting former spouse, fiancé, fiancée, or a person with whom the defendant currently has, or has previously had, a dating relationship, the battery is punishable by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for a period of not more than one year, or by both. If probation is granted, or the execution or imposition of the sentence is suspended, it shall be a condition thereof that the defendant participate in, for no less than one year, and successfully complete, a batterer's treatment program, as defined in Section 1203.097, or if none is available, another appropriate counseling program designated by the court. However, this provision shall not be construed as requiring a city, a county, or a city and county to provide a new program or higher level of service as contemplated by Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

(2) Upon conviction of a violation of this subdivision, if probation is granted, the conditions of probation may include, in lieu of a fine, one or both of the following requirements:

(A) That the defendant make payments to a battered women's shelter, up to a maximum of five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(B) That the defendant reimburse the victim for reasonable costs of counseling and other reasonable expenses that the court finds are the direct result of the defendant's offense.

For any order to pay a fine, make payments to a battered women's shelter, or pay restitution as a condition of probation under this subdivision, the court shall make a determination of the defendant's ability to pay. In no event shall any order to make payments to a battered women's shelter be made if it would impair the ability of the defendant to pay direct restitution to the victim or court-ordered child support. Where the injury to a married person is caused in whole or in part by the criminal acts of his or her spouse in violation of this section, the community property may not be used to discharge the liability of the offending spouse for restitution to the injured spouse, required by Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, or Section 1202.4, or to a shelter for costs with regard to the injured spouse and dependents, required by this section, until all separate property of the offending spouse is exhausted.

(3) Upon conviction of a violation of this subdivision, if probation is granted or the execution or imposition of the sentence is suspended and the person has been previously convicted of a violation of this subdivision and sentenced under paragraph (1), the person shall be imprisoned for not less than 48 hours in addition to the conditions in paragraph (1). However, the court, upon a showing of good cause, may elect not to impose the mandatory minimum imprisonment as required by this subdivision and may, under these circumstances, grant probation or order the suspension of the execution or imposition of the sentence.

The Legislature finds and declares that these specified crimes merit special consideration when imposing a sentence so as to display society's condemnation for these crimes of violence upon victims with whom a close relationship has been formed.

(f) As used in this section:

(1) "Peace officer" means any person defined in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 830) of Title 3 of Part 2.

(2) "Emergency medical technician" means a person possessing a valid course completion certificate from a program approved by the State Department of Health Services for the medical training and education of ambulance personnel, and who meets the standards of Division 2.5 (commencing with Section 1797) of the Health and Safety Code.

(3) "Mobile intensive care paramedic" means any person who meets the standards set forth in Section 1797.84 of, and Division 2.5 (commencing with Section 1797) of, the Health and Safety Code.

(4) "Nurse" means a person who meets the standards of Division 2.5 (commencing with Section 1797) of the Health and Safety Code.

(5) "Serious bodily injury" means a serious impairment of physical condition, including, but not limited to, the following: loss of consciousness; concussion; bone fracture; protracted loss or impairment of function of any bodily member or organ; a wound requiring extensive suturing; and serious disfigurement.

(6) "Injury" means any physical injury which requires professional medical treatment.

(7) "Custodial officer" means any person who has the responsibilities and duties described in Section 831 and who is employed by a law enforcement agency of any city or county or who performs those duties as a volunteer.

(8) "Lifeguard" means a person defined in paragraph (5) of subdivision (c) of Section 241.

(9) "Traffic officer" means any person employed by a city, county, or city and county, to monitor and enforce state laws and local ordinances relating to parking and the operation of vehicles.

(10) "Animal control officer" means any person employed by a city, county, or city and county for purposes of enforcing animal control laws or regulations.

(11) "Dating relationship" means frequent, intimate associations primarily characterized by the expectation of affectional or sexual involvement independent of financial considerations.

It is the intent of the Legislature by amendments to this section at the 1981–82 and 1983–84 Regular Sessions to abrogate the holdings in cases such as People v. SEC. 15. Section 262 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

262. (a) Rape of a person who is the spouse of the perpetrator is an act of sexual intercourse accomplished under any of the following circumstances:

(1) Where it is accomplished against a person's will by means of force, violence, duress, menace, or fear of immediate and unlawful bodily injury on the person or another.

(2) Where a person is prevented from resisting by any intoxicating or anesthetic substance, or any controlled substance, and this condition was known, or reasonably should have been known, by the accused.

(3) Where a person is at the time unconscious of the nature of the act, and this is known to the accused. As used in this paragraph, "unconscious of the nature of the act" means incapable of resisting because the victim meets one of the following conditions:

(A) Was unconscious or asleep.

(B) Was not aware, knowing, perceiving, or cognizant that the act occurred.

(C) Was not aware, knowing, perceiving, or cognizant of the essential characteristics of the act due to the perpetrator's fraud in fact.

(4) Where the act is accomplished against the victim's will by threatening to retaliate in the future against the victim or any other person, and there is a reasonable possibility that the perpetrator will execute the threat. As used in this paragraph, "threatening to retaliate" means a threat to kidnap or falsely imprison, or to inflict extreme pain, serious bodily injury, or death.

(5) Where the act is accomplished against the victim's will by threatening to use the authority of a public official to incarcerate, arrest, or deport the victim or another, and the victim has a reasonable belief that the perpetrator is a public official. As used in this paragraph, "public official" means a person employed by a governmental agency who has the authority, as part of that position, to incarcerate, arrest, or deport another. The perpetrator does not actually have to be a public official.

(b) Section 800 shall apply to this section. However, no prosecution shall be commenced under this section unless the violation was reported to medical personnel, a member of the clergy, an attorney, a shelter representative, a counselor, a judicial officer, a rape crisis agency, a prosecuting agency, a law enforcement officer, or a firefighter within one year after the date of the violation. This reporting requirement shall not apply if the victim's allegation of the offense is corroborated by independent evidence that would otherwise be admissible during trial.

(c) As used in this section, "duress" means a direct or implied threat of force, violence, danger, or retribution sufficient to coerce a reasonable person of ordinary susceptibilities to perform an act which otherwise would not have been performed, or acquiesce in an act to which one otherwise would not have submitted. The total circumstances, including the age of the victim, and his or her relationship to the defendant, are factors to consider in apprising the existence of duress.

(d) As used in this section, "menace" means any threat, declaration, or act that shows an intention to inflict an injury upon another.

(e) If probation is granted upon conviction of a violation of this section, the conditions of probation may include, in lieu of a fine, one or both of the following requirements:

(1) That the defendant make payments to a battered women's shelter, up to a maximum of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(2) That the defendant reimburse the victim for reasonable costs of counseling and other reasonable expenses that the court finds are the direct result of the defendant's offense.

For any order to pay a fine, make payments to a battered women's shelter, or pay restitution as a condition of probation under this subdivision, the court shall make a determination of the defendant's ability to pay. In no event shall any order to make payments to a battered women's shelter be made if it would impair the ability of the defendant to pay direct restitution to the victim or court-ordered child support. Where the injury to a married person is caused in whole or in part by the criminal acts of his or her spouse in violation of this section, the community property may not be used to discharge the liability of the offending spouse for restitution to the injured spouse, required by Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, or Section 1202.4, or to a shelter for costs with regard to the injured spouse and dependents, required by this section, until all separate property of the offending spouse is exhausted.

SEC. 16. Section 273.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

273.5. (a) Any person who willfully inflicts upon his or her spouse, or any person who willfully inflicts upon any person with whom he or she is cohabiting, or any person who willfully inflicts upon any person who is the mother or father of his or her child, corporal injury resulting in a traumatic condition, is guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years, or in a county jail for not more than one year, or by a fine of up to six thousand dollars ($6,000) or by both.

(b) Holding oneself out to be the husband or wife of the person with whom one is cohabiting is not necessary to constitute cohabitation as the term is used in this section.

(c) As used in this section, "traumatic condition" means a condition of the body, such as a wound or external or internal injury, whether of a minor or serious nature, caused by a physical force.

(d) For the purpose of this section, a person shall be considered the father or mother of another person's child if the alleged male parent is presumed the natural father under Sections 7611 and 7612 of the Family Code.

(e) In any case in which a person is convicted of violating this section and probation is granted, the court shall require participation in a batterer's treatment program as a condition of probation, as specified in Section 1203.097.

(f) If probation is granted, or the execution or imposition of a sentence is suspended, for any person convicted under subdivision (a) who previously has been convicted under subdivision (a) for an offense that occurred within seven years of the offense of the second conviction, it shall be a condition thereof that he or she be imprisoned in a county jail for not less than 96 hours and that he or she participate in, for no less than one year, and successfully complete, a batterer's treatment program, as designated by the court pursuant to Section 1203.097. However, the court, upon a showing of good cause, may find that the mandatory minimum imprisonment, as required by this subdivision, shall not be imposed and grant probation or the suspension of the execution or imposition of a sentence.

(g) If probation is granted, or the execution or imposition of a sentence is suspended, for any person convicted under subdivision (a) who previously has been convicted of two or more violations of subdivision (a) for offenses that occurred within seven years of the most recent conviction, it shall be a condition thereof that he or she be imprisoned in a county jail for not less than 30 days and that he or she participate in for no less than one year, and successfully complete, a batterer's treatment program as designated by the court pursuant to Section 1203.097. However, the court, upon a showing of good cause, may find that the mandatory minimum imprisonment, as required by this subdivision, shall not be imposed and grant probation or the suspension of the execution or imposition of a sentence.

(h) If probation is granted upon conviction of a violation of subdivision (a), the conditions of probation may include, in lieu of a fine, one or both of the following requirements:

(1) That the defendant make payments to a battered women's shelter, up to a maximum of five thousand dollars ($5,000), pursuant to Section 1203.097.

(2) That the defendant reimburse the victim for reasonable costs of counseling and other reasonable expenses that the court finds are the direct result of the defendant's offense.

For any order to pay a fine, make payments to a battered women's shelter, or pay restitution as a condition of probation under this subdivision, the court shall make a determination of the defendant's ability to pay. In no event shall any order to make payments to a battered women's shelter be made if it would impair the ability of the defendant to pay direct restitution to the victim or court-ordered child support. Where the injury to a married person is caused in whole or in part by the criminal acts of his or her spouse in violation of this section, the community property may not be used to discharge the liability of the offending spouse for restitution to the injured spouse, required by Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, or Section 1202.4, or to a shelter for costs with regard to the injured spouse and dependents, required by this section, until all separate property of the offending spouse is exhausted.

SEC. 16.5. Section 273.5 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

273.5. (a) (1) Any person who willfully inflicts upon any of the following persons corporal injury resulting in a traumatic condition, is guilty of a felony:

(A) His or her spouse.

(B) A person with whom he or she is cohabiting.

(C) A person who is the mother or father of his or her child.

(D) A person described in paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 243.

(2) A person convicted of violating paragraph (1) shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three, or four years, or in a county jail for not more than one year, or by a fine of up to six thousand dollars ($6,000), or by both that fine and imprisonment.

(b) Holding oneself out to be the husband or wife of the person with whom one is cohabiting is not necessary to constitute cohabitation as the term is used in this section.

(c) As used in this section, "traumatic condition" means a condition of the body, such as a wound or external or internal injury, whether of a minor or serious nature, caused by a physical force.

(d) For the purpose of this section, a person shall be considered the father or mother of another person's child if the alleged male parent is presumed the natural father under Sections 7611 and 7612 of the Family Code.

(e) If a person is convicted of violating this section and probation is granted, the court shall require participation in a batterer's treatment program as a condition of probation, as specified in Section 1203.097.

(f) If probation is granted, or the execution or imposition of a sentence is suspended, for any person convicted under subdivision (a) who previously has been convicted under subdivision (a) for an offense that occurred within seven years of the offense of the second conviction, it shall be a condition thereof that he or she be imprisoned in a county jail for not less than 96 hours and that he or she participate in for no less than one year, and successfully complete, a batterer's treatment program, as designated by the court pursuant to Section 1203.097. However, the court, upon a showing of good cause, may find that the mandatory minimum imprisonment, as required by this subdivision, shall not be imposed and grant probation or the suspension of the execution or imposition of a sentence.

(g) If probation is granted, or the execution or imposition of a sentence is suspended, for any person convicted under subdivision (a) who previously has been convicted of two or more violations of subdivision (a) for offenses that occurred within seven years of the most recent conviction, it shall be a condition thereof that he or she be imprisoned in a county jail for not less than 30 days and that he or she participate in for no less than one year, and successfully complete, a batterer's treatment program as designated by the court pursuant to Section 1203.097. However, the court, upon a showing of good cause, may find that the mandatory minimum imprisonment, as required by this subdivision, shall not be imposed and grant probation or the suspension of the execution or imposition of a sentence.

(h) If probation is granted upon conviction of a violation of subdivision (a), the conditions of probation may include, in lieu of a fine, one or both of the following requirements:

(1) That the defendant make payments to a battered women's shelter, up to a maximum of five thousand dollars ($5,000), pursuant to Section 1203.097.

(2) That the defendant reimburse the victim for reasonable costs of counseling and other reasonable expenses that the court finds are the direct result of the defendant's offense.

For any order to pay a fine, make payments to a battered women's shelter, or pay restitution as a condition of probation under this subdivision, the court shall make a determination of the defendant's ability to pay. In no event shall any order to make payments to a battered women's shelter be made if it would impair the ability of the defendant to pay direct restitution to the victim or court-ordered child support. Where the injury to a married person is caused in whole or in part by the criminal acts of his or her spouse in violation of this section, the community property may not be used to discharge the liability of the offending spouse for restitution to the injured spouse, required by Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, or Section 1202.4, or to a shelter for costs with regard to the injured spouse and dependents, required by this section, until all separate property of the offending spouse is exhausted.

SEC. 17. Section 273.6 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

273.6. (a) Any intentional and knowing violation of a protective order, as defined in Section 6218 of the Family Code, or of an order issued pursuant to Section 527.6 or 527.8 of the Code of Civil Procedure is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(b) In the event of a violation of subdivision (a) which results in physical injury, the person shall be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not less than 30 days nor more than one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment. However, if the person is imprisoned in a county jail for at least 48 hours, the court may, in the interests of justice and for reasons stated on the record, reduce or eliminate the 30-day minimum imprisonment required by this subdivision. In determining whether to reduce or eliminate the minimum imprisonment pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall consider the seriousness of the facts before the court, whether there are additional allegations of a violation of the order during the pendency of the case before the court, the probability of future violations, the safety of the victim, and whether the defendant has successfully completed or is making progress with counseling.

(c) Subdivisions (a) and (b) shall apply to the following court orders:

(1) An order enjoining any party from molesting, attacking, striking, threatening, sexually assaulting, battering, harassing, contacting repeatedly by mail with the intent to harass, or disturbing the peace of the other party, or other named family and household members.

(2) An order excluding one party from the family dwelling or from the dwelling of the other.

(3) An order enjoining a party from specified behavior which the court determined was necessary to effectuate the order under subdivision (a).

(d) A subsequent conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a), occurring within seven years of a prior conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a) and involving an act of violence or "a credible threat" of violence, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 139, is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year, or in the state prison.

(e) In the event of a subsequent conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a) for an act occurring within one year of a prior conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a) which results in physical injury to the same victim, the person shall be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not less than six months nor more than one year, by both that fine and imprisonment, or by imprisonment in the state prison. However, if the person is imprisoned in a county jail for at least 30 days, the court may, in the interests of justice and for reasons stated in the record, reduce or eliminate the six-month minimum imprisonment required by this subdivision. In determining whether to reduce or eliminate the minimum imprisonment pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall consider the seriousness of the facts before the court, whether there are additional allegations of a violation of the order during the pendency of the case before the court, the probability of future violations, the safety of the victim, and whether the defendant has successfully completed or is making progress with counseling.

(f) The prosecuting agency of each county shall have the primary responsibility for the enforcement of orders issued pursuant to subdivisions (a), (b), (d), and (e).

(g) The court may order a person convicted under this section to undergo counseling, and, if appropriate, to complete a batterer's treatment program.

(h) If probation is granted upon conviction of a violation of subdivision (a), (b), or (c), the conditions of probation may include, in lieu of a fine, one or both of the following requirements:

(1) That the defendant make payments to a battered women's shelter, up to a maximum of five thousand dollars ($5,000), pursuant to Section 1203.097.

(2) That the defendant reimburse the victim for reasonable costs of counseling and other reasonable expenses that the court finds are the direct result of the defendant's offense.

(i) For any order to pay a fine, make payments to a battered women's shelter, or pay restitution as a condition of probation under subdivision (e), the court shall make a determination of the defendant's ability to pay. In no event shall any order to make payments to a battered women's shelter be made if it would impair the ability of the defendant to pay direct restitution to the victim or court-ordered child support. Where the injury to a married person is caused in whole or in part by the criminal acts of his or her spouse in violation of this section, the community property may not be used to discharge the liability of the offending spouse for restitution to the injured spouse, required by Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, or Section 1202.4, or to a shelter for costs with regard to the injured spouse and dependents, required by this section, until all separate property of the offending spouse is exhausted.

SEC. 17.1. Section 273.6 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

273.6. (a) Any intentional and knowing violation of a protective order, as defined in Section 6218 of the Family Code, or of an order issued pursuant to Section 527.6 or 527.8 of the Code of Civil Procedure is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(b) In the event of a violation of subdivision (a) which results in physical injury, the person shall be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not less than 30 days nor more than one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment. However, if the person is imprisoned in a county jail for at least 48 hours, the court may, in the interests of justice and for reasons stated on the record, reduce or eliminate the 30-day minimum imprisonment required by this subdivision. In determining whether to reduce or eliminate the minimum imprisonment pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall consider the seriousness of the facts before the court, whether there are additional allegations of a violation of the order during the pendency of the case before the court, the probability of future violations, the safety of the victim, and whether the defendant has successfully completed or is making progress with counseling.

(c) Subdivisions (a) and (b) shall apply to the following court orders:

(1) Any order issued pursuant to Section 6320 of the Family Code.

(2) An order excluding one party from the family dwelling or from the dwelling of the other.

(3) An order enjoining a party from specified behavior which the court determined was necessary to effectuate the order under subdivision (a).

(d) A subsequent conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a), occurring within seven years of a prior conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a) and involving an act of violence or "a credible threat" of violence, as defined in subdivision (c) of Section 139, is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year, or in the state prison.

(e) In the event of a subsequent conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a) for an act occurring within one year of a prior conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a) that results in physical injury to the same victim, the person shall be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not less than six months nor more than one year, by both that fine and imprisonment, or by imprisonment in the state prison. However, if the person is imprisoned in a county jail for at least 30 days, the court may, in the interests of justice and for reasons stated in the record, reduce or eliminate the six-month minimum imprisonment required by this subdivision. In determining whether to reduce or eliminate the minimum imprisonment pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall consider the seriousness of the facts before the court, whether there are additional allegations of a violation of the order during the pendency of the case before the court, the probability of future violations, the safety of the victim, and whether the defendant has successfully completed or is making progress with counseling.

(f) The prosecuting agency of each county shall have the primary responsibility for the enforcement of orders issued pursuant to subdivisions (a), (b), (d), and (e).

(g) The court may order a person convicted under this section to undergo counseling, and, if appropriate, to complete a batterer's treatment program.

(h) If probation is granted upon conviction of a violation of subdivision (a), (b), or (c), the conditions of probation may include, in lieu of a fine, one or both of the following requirements:

(1) That the defendant make payments to a battered women's shelter, up to a maximum of five thousand dollars ($5,000), pursuant to Section 1203.097.

(2) That the defendant reimburse the victim for reasonable costs of counseling and other reasonable expenses that the court finds are the direct result of the defendant's offense.

(i) For any order to pay a fine, make payments to a battered women's shelter, or pay restitution as a condition of probation under subdivision (e), the court shall make a determination of the defendant's ability to pay. In no event shall any order to make payments to a battered women's shelter be made if it would impair the ability of the defendant to pay direct restitution to the victim or court-ordered child support. Where the injury to a married person is caused in whole or in part by the criminal acts of his or her spouse in violation of this section, the community property may not be used to discharge the liability of the offending spouse for restitution to the injured spouse, required by Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, or Section 1202.4, or to a shelter for costs with regard to the injured spouse and dependents, required by this section, until all separate property of the offending spouse is exhausted.

SEC. 17.2. Section 273.6 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

273.6. (a) Any intentional and knowing violation of a protective order, as defined in Section 6218 of the Family Code, or of an order issued pursuant to Section 527.6 or 527.8 of the Code of Civil Procedure is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(b) In the event of a violation of subdivision (a) which results in physical injury, the person shall be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not less than 30 days nor more than one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment. However, if the person is imprisoned in a county jail for at least 48 hours, the court may, in the interests of justice and for reasons stated on the record, reduce or eliminate the 30-day minimum imprisonment required by this subdivision. In determining whether to reduce or eliminate the minimum imprisonment pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall consider the seriousness of the facts before the court, whether there are additional allegations of a violation of the order during the pendency of the case before the court, the probability of future violations, the safety of the victim, and whether the defendant has successfully completed or is making progress with counseling.

(c) Subdivisions (a) and (b) shall apply to the following court orders:

(1) An order enjoining any party from molesting, attacking, striking, threatening, sexually assaulting, battering, harassing, contacting repeatedly by mail with the intent to harass, or disturbing the peace of the other party, or other named family and household members.

(2) An order excluding one party from the family dwelling or from the dwelling of the other.

(3) An order enjoining a party from specified behavior which the court determined was necessary to effectuate the order under subdivision (a).

(d) (1) A subsequent conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a), occurring within seven years of a prior conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a), is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year, or in the state prison.

(2) A felony conviction under paragraph (1) shall not constitute a current felony conviction for purposes of subdivisions (b) to (i), inclusive, of Section 667 or Section 1170.12.

(e) In the event of a subsequent conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a) for an act occurring within one year of a prior conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a) that results in physical injury to the same victim, the person shall be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not less than six months nor more than one year, by both that fine and imprisonment, or by imprisonment in the state prison. However, if the person is imprisoned in a county jail for at least 30 days, the court may, in the interests of justice and for reasons stated in the record, reduce or eliminate the six-month minimum imprisonment required by this subdivision. In determining whether to reduce or eliminate the minimum imprisonment pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall consider the seriousness of the facts before the court, whether there are additional allegations of a violation of the order during the pendency of the case before the court, the probability of future violations, the safety of the victim, and whether the defendant has successfully completed or is making progress with counseling.

(f) The prosecuting agency of each county shall have the primary responsibility for the enforcement of orders issued pursuant to subdivisions (a), (b), (d), and (e).

(g) The court may order a person convicted under this section to undergo counseling, and, if appropriate, to complete a batterer's treatment program.

(h) If probation is granted upon conviction of a violation of subdivision (a), (b), or (c), the conditions of probation may include, in lieu of a fine, one or both of the following requirements:

(1) That the defendant make payments to a battered women's shelter, up to a maximum of five thousand dollars ($5,000), pursuant to Section 1203.097.

(2) That the defendant reimburse the victim for reasonable costs of counseling and other reasonable expenses that the court finds are the direct result of the defendant's offense.

(i) For any order to pay a fine, make payments to a battered women's shelter, or pay restitution as a condition of probation under subdivision (e), the court shall make a determination of the defendant's ability to pay. In no event shall any order to make payments to a battered women's shelter be made if it would impair the ability of the defendant to pay direct restitution to the victim or court-ordered child support. Where the injury to a married person is caused in whole or in part by the criminal acts of his or her spouse in violation of this section, the community property may not be used to discharge the liability of the offending spouse for restitution to the injured spouse, required by Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, or Section 1202.4, or to a shelter for costs with regard to the injured spouse and dependents, required by this section, until all separate property of the offending spouse is exhausted.

SEC. 17.3. Section 273.6 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

273.6. (a) Any intentional and knowing violation of a protective order, as defined in Section 6218 of the Family Code, or of an order issued pursuant to Section 527.6 or 527.8 of the Code of Civil Procedure is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment.

(b) In the event of a violation of subdivision (a) which results in physical injury, the person shall be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not less than 30 days nor more than one year, or by both the fine and imprisonment. However, if the person is imprisoned in a county jail for at least 48 hours, the court may, in the interests of justice and for reasons stated on the record, reduce or eliminate the 30-day minimum imprisonment required by this subdivision. In determining whether to reduce or eliminate the minimum imprisonment pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall consider the seriousness of the facts before the court, whether there are additional allegations of a violation of the order during the pendency of the case before the court, the probability of future violations, the safety of the victim, and whether the defendant has successfully completed or is making progress with counseling.

(c) Subdivisions (a) and (b) shall apply to the following court orders:

(1) Any order issued pursuant to Section 6320 of the Family Code.

(2) An order excluding one party from the family dwelling or from the dwelling of the other.

(3) An order enjoining a party from specified behavior which the court determined was necessary to effectuate the order under subdivision (a).

(d) (1) A subsequent conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a), occurring within seven years of a prior conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a), is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year, or in the state prison.

(2) A felony conviction under paragraph (1) shall not constitute a current felony conviction for purposes of subdivisions (b) to (i), inclusive, of Section 667 or Section 1170.12.

(e) In the event of a subsequent conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a) for an act occurring within one year of a prior conviction for a violation of an order described in subdivision (a) that results in physical injury to the same victim, the person shall be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000), or by imprisonment in a county jail for not less than six months nor more than one year, by both that fine and imprisonment, or by imprisonment in the state prison. However, if the person is imprisoned in a county jail for at least 30 days, the court may, in the interests of justice and for reasons stated in the record, reduce or eliminate the six-month minimum imprisonment required by this subdivision. In determining whether to reduce or eliminate the minimum imprisonment pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall consider the seriousness of the facts before the court, whether there are additional allegations of a violation of the order during the pendency of the case before the court, the probability of future violations, the safety of the victim, and whether the defendant has successfully completed or is making progress with counseling.

(f) The prosecuting agency of each county shall have the primary responsibility for the enforcement of orders issued pursuant to subdivisions (a), (b), (d), and (e).

(g) The court may order a person convicted under this section to undergo counseling, and, if appropriate, to complete a batterer's treatment program.

(h) If probation is granted upon conviction of a violation of subdivision (a), (b), or (c), the conditions of probation may include, in lieu of a fine, one or both of the following requirements:

(1) That the defendant make payments to a battered women's shelter, up to a maximum of five thousand dollars ($5,000), pursuant to Section 1203.097.

(2) That the defendant reimburse the victim for reasonable costs of counseling and other reasonable expenses that the court finds are the direct result of the defendant's offense.

(i) For any order to pay a fine, make payments to a battered women's shelter, or pay restitution as a condition of probation under subdivision (e), the court shall make a determination of the defendant's ability to pay. In no event shall any order to make payments to a battered women's shelter be made if it would impair the ability of the defendant to pay direct restitution to the victim or court-ordered child support. Where the injury to a married person is caused in whole or in part by the criminal acts of his or her spouse in violation of this section, the community property may not be used to discharge the liability of the offending spouse for restitution to the injured spouse, required by Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, or Section 1202.4, or to a shelter for costs with regard to the injured spouse and dependents, required by this section, until all separate property of the offending spouse is exhausted.

SEC. 18. Section 484.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

484.1. (a) Any person who knowingly gives false information or provides false verification as to the person's true identity or as to the person's ownership interest in property or the person's authority to sell property in order to receive money or other valuable consideration from a pawnbroker or secondhand dealer and who receives money or other valuable consideration from the pawnbroker or secondhand dealer is guilty of theft.

(b) Upon conviction of the offense described in subdivision (a), the court may require, in addition to any sentence or fine imposed, that the defendant make restitution to the pawnbroker or secondhand dealer in an amount not exceeding the actual losses sustained pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (c) of Section 13967, as operative on or before September 28, 1994, of the Government Code, if the defendant is denied probation, or Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, if the defendant is granted probation or Section 1202.4.

SEC. 18.5. Section 484.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

484.1. (a) Any person who knowingly gives false information or provides false verification as to the person's true identity or as to the person's ownership interest in property or the person's authority to sell property in order to receive money or other valuable consideration from a pawnbroker or secondhand dealer and who receives money or other valuable consideration from the pawnbroker or secondhand dealer is guilty of theft.

(b) Upon conviction of the offense described in subdivision (a), the court may require, in addition to any sentence or fine imposed, that the defendant make restitution to the pawnbroker or secondhand dealer in an amount not exceeding the actual losses sustained pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (c) of Section 13967 of the Government Code, as operative on or before September 28, 1994, if the defendant is denied probation, or Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, if the defendant is granted probation or Section 1202.4.

(c) Upon the setting of a court hearing date for sentencing of any person convicted under this section, the probation officer, if one is assigned, shall notify the pawnbroker or secondhand dealer or coin dealer of the time and place of the hearing.

SEC. 19. Section 1203.044 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.044. (a) This section shall apply only to a defendant convicted of a felony for theft of an amount exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) in a single transaction or occurrence. This section shall not apply unless the fact that the crime involved the theft of an amount exceeding fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) in a single transaction or occurrence is charged in the accusatory pleading and either admitted by the defendant in open court or found to be true by the trier of fact. Aggregate losses from more than one criminal act shall not be considered in determining if this section applies.

(b) Notwithstanding any other law, probation shall not be granted to a defendant convicted of a crime to which subdivision (a) applies if the defendant was previously convicted of an offense for which an enhancement pursuant to Section 12022.6 was found true even if that enhancement was not imposed by the sentencing court. The prior conviction shall be alleged in the accusatory pleading and either admitted by the defendant in open court or found to be true by the trier of fact.

(c) In deciding whether to grant probation to a defendant convicted of a crime to which subdivision (a) applies, the court shall consider all relevant information, including the extent to which the defendant has attempted to pay restitution to the victim between the date upon which the defendant was convicted and the date of sentencing. A defendant claiming inability to pay restitution before the date of sentencing shall provide a statement of assets, income, and liabilities, as set forth in subdivision (j) to the court, the probation department, and the prosecution.

(d) In addition to the restrictions on probation imposed by subdivisions (b) and (c), probation shall not be granted to any person convicted of theft in an amount exceeding one hundred thousand dollars ($l00,000) in a single transaction or occurrence, except in unusual cases if the interests of justice would best be served if the person is granted probation. The fact that the theft was of an amount exceeding one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) in a single transaction or occurrence, shall be alleged in the accusatory pleading and either admitted by the defendant in open court or found to be true by the trier of fact. This subdivision shall not authorize a grant of probation otherwise prohibited under subdivision (b) or (c). If probation is granted pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter on the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by that disposition. Aggregate losses from more than one criminal act shall not be considered in determining whether this subdivision applies.

(e) Subject to subdivision (f), if a defendant is convicted of a crime to which subdivision (a) applies and the court grants probation, a court shall impose at least a 90-day sentence in a county jail as a condition of probation. If the defendant was convicted of a crime to which subdivision (d) applies, and the court grants probation, the court shall impose at least a 180-day sentence in a county jail as a condition of probation.

(f) The court shall designate a portion of any sentence imposed pursuant to subdivision (e) as a mandatory in-custody term. For the purpose of this section only, "mandatory in-custody term" means that the defendant shall serve that term, notwithstanding credits pursuant to Section 4019, in custody in the county jail. The defendant shall not be allowed release on any program during that term, including work furlough, work release, public service program, or electronic monitoring. The court shall designate the mandatory in-custody term as follows:

(1) If the defendant was convicted of a crime to which subdivision (a) applies, the mandatory in-custody term shall be no less than 30 days. If the person serves a mandatory in-custody term of at least 30 days, the court may, in the interests of justice, and for reasons stated in the record, reduce the mandatory minimum 90-day sentence required by subdivision (e).

(2) If the defendant was convicted of a crime to which subdivision (d) applies, the mandatory in-custody term shall be no less than 60 days. If the person serves a mandatory in-custody term of at least 60 days, the court may, in the interests of justice, and for reasons stated in the record, reduce the mandatory minimum 180-day sentence required by subdivision (e).

(g) If a defendant is convicted of a crime to which subdivision (a) applies, and the court grants probation, the court shall require the defendant as a condition of probation to pay restitution to the victim and to pay a surcharge to the county in the amount of 20 percent of the restitution ordered by the court, as follows:

(1) The surcharge is not subject to any assessments otherwise imposed by Section 1464. The surcharge shall be paid into the county treasury and placed in the general fund to be used exclusively for the investigation and prosecution of white collar crime offenses and to pay the expenses incurred by the county in administering this section, including increased costs incurred as a result of offenders serving mandatory in-custody terms pursuant to this section.

(2) The court shall also enter an income deduction order as provided in Section 13967.2 of the Government Code to secure payment of the surcharge. That order may be enforced to secure payment of the surcharge as provided by those provisions.

(3) The county board of supervisors shall not charge the fee provided for by Section 1203.1, subdivision (l) of Section 1202.4, or subdivision (d) of Section 13967, as operative on or before September 28, 1994, of the Government Code for the collection of restitution or any restitution fine.

(4) The defendant shall not be required to pay the costs of probation as otherwise required by subdivision (b) of Section 1203.1.

(h) Notwithstanding any other law, if a defendant is convicted of a crime to which subdivision (a) applies and the court grants probation, as a condition of probation, within 30 court days after being granted probation, and annually thereafter, the defendant shall provide the county financial officer with all of the following documents and records:

(1) True and correct copies of all income tax and personal property tax returns for the previous tax year, including W-2 forms filed on the defendant's behalf with any state tax agency. If the defendant is unable to supply a copy of a state tax return, the defendant shall provide a true and correct copy of all income tax returns for the previous tax year filed on his or her behalf with the federal government. The defendant is not required to provide any particular document if to do so would violate federal law or the law of the state in which the document was filed. However, this section shall supersede all other laws in this state concerning the right to privacy with respect to tax returns filed with this state. If, during the term of probation, the defendant intentionally fails to provide the county financial officer with any document that he or she knows is required to be provided under this subdivision, that failure shall constitute a violation of probation.

(2) A statement of income, assets, and liabilities as defined in subdivision (j).

(i) The submission by the defendant of any tax document pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) that the defendant knows does not accurately state the defendant's income, or if required, the defendant's personal property, if the inaccuracy is material, constitutes a violation of probation.

(j) A statement of income, assets, and liabilities form, that is consistent with the disclosure requirements of this section, may be established by the financial officer of each county. That statement shall require the defendant to furnish relevant financial information identifying the defendant's income, assets, possessions, or liabilities, actual or contingent. The statement may include the following:

(1) All real property in which the defendant has any interest.

(2) Any item of personal property worth more than three thousand dollars ($3,000) in which the defendant has any interest, including, but not limited to, vehicles, airplanes, boats, computers, and consumer electronics. Any collection of jewelry, coins, silver, china, artwork, antiques, or other collectibles in which the defendant has any interest, if that collection is worth more than three thousand dollars ($3,000).

(3) All domestic and foreign assets in the defendant's name, or in the name of the defendant's spouse or minor children, of a value over three thousand dollars ($3,000) and in whatever form, including, but not limited to, bank accounts, securities, stock options, bonds, mutual funds, money market funds, certificates of deposits, annuities, commodities, precious metals, deferred compensation accounts, individual retirement accounts, and related or analogous accounts.

(4) All insurance policies in which the defendant or the defendant's spouse or minor children retain a cash value.

(5) All pension funds in which the defendant has a vested right.

(6) All insurance policies of which the defendant is a beneficiary.

(7) All contracts, agreements, judgments, awards, or prizes granting the defendant the right to receive money or real or personal property in the future, including alimony and child support.

(8) All trusts of which the defendant is a beneficiary.

(9) All unrevoked wills of a decedent if the defendant or defendant's spouse or minor child is a beneficiary.

(10) All lawsuits currently maintained by the defendant or by or against a corporation in which the defendant owns more than a 25 percent interest if the suit includes a prayer for damages.

(11) All corporations of which the defendant is an officer. If the defendant is an officer in a corporation sole, subchapter S corporation, or closely held corporation, and controls more equity of that corporation than any other individual, the county financial officer shall have authority to request other records of the corporation.

(12) All debts in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000) owed by the defendant to any person or entity.

(13) Copies of all applications for loans made by the defendant during the last year.

(14) All encumbrances on any real and personal property in which the defendant has any interest.

(15) All sales, transfers, assignments, quitclaims, conveyances, or encumbrances of any interest in real or personal property of a value exceeding three thousand dollars ($3,000) made by the defendant during the period beginning one year before charges were filed to the present, including the identity of the recipient of same, and relationship, if any, to the defendant.

(k) The information contained in the statement of income, assets, and liabilities shall not be available to the public. Information received pursuant to this subdivision shall not be disclosed to any member of the public. Any disclosure in violation of this section shall be a contempt of court punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), and shall also create a civil cause of action for damages.

(l) After providing the statement of income, assets, and liabilities, the defendant shall provide the county financial officer with copies of any documents representing or reflecting the financial information set forth in subdivision (j) as requested by that officer.

(m) The defendant shall sign the statement of income, assets, and liabilities under penalty of perjury. The provision of information known to be false, or the intentional failure to provide material information knowing that it was required to have been provided, shall constitute a violation of probation.

(n) The Franchise Tax Board and the Employment Development Department shall release copies of income tax returns filed by the defendant and other information concerning the defendant's current income and place of employment to the county financial officer upon request. That information shall be kept confidential and shall not be made available to any member of the public. Any unauthorized release shall be subject to subdivision (k). The county shall reimburse the reasonable administrative expenses incurred by those agencies in providing this information.

(o) During the term of probation, the defendant shall notify the county financial officer in writing within 30 days, after receipt from any source of any money or real or personal property that has a value of over five thousand dollars ($5,000), apart from the salary from the defendant's and the defendant's spouse's regular employment. The defendant shall report the source and value of the money or real or personal property received. This information shall not be made available to the public or the victim. Any unauthorized release shall be subject to subdivision (k).

(p) The term of probation in all cases shall be 10 years. However, after the defendant has served five years of probation, the defendant shall be released from all terms and conditions of probation except those terms and conditions included within this section. A court may not revoke or otherwise terminate probation within 10 years unless and until the defendant has satisfied both the restitution judgment and the surcharge, or the defendant is imprisoned for a violation of probation. Upon satisfying the restitution judgment, the defendant is entitled to a court order vacating that judgment and removing it from the public record. Amounts owing on the surcharge are forgiven upon completion of the term of probation.

(q) The county financial officer shall establish a suggested payment schedule each year to ensure that the defendant remits amounts to make restitution to the victim and pay the surcharge. The county financial officer shall evaluate the defendant's current earnings, future earning capacity, assets (including assets that are in trust or in accounts where penalties may be incurred upon premature withdrawal of funds), and liabilities, and set payments to the county based upon the defendant's ability to pay. The defendant shall bear the burden of demonstrating the lack of his or her ability to pay. If the defendant objects to the suggested payment schedule, the court shall set the schedule. Express findings by the court as to the factors bearing on the payment schedule shall not be required. After the payment schedule is set, a defendant may request a change in the schedule upon a change of circumstances. The restitution schedule shall set a reasonable payment amount and shall not set payments in an amount that is likely to cause severe financial hardship to the defendant or his or her family.

(r) The willful failure to pay the amounts required by the payment schedule or to comply with the requirements of the county financial officer or the probation department pursuant to this section, if the defendant is able to pay or comply, is a violation of probation.

(s) In determining the defendant's ability to pay, the court shall consider whether the annual payment required, including any money or property seized to satisfy the restitution judgment, exceeds 15 percent of the defendant's taxable income for the previous year as identified on the defendant's tax return for the defendant's state of residence or on the defendant's federal tax return. If the defendant has filed a joint return, the defendant's income for purposes of this section shall be presumed to be the total of all wages earned by the defendant, plus one-half of all other nonsalary income listed on the tax return and accompanying schedules, unless the defendant demonstrates otherwise. The court shall also consider the defendant's current income and future earning capacity. A defendant shall bear the burden of demonstrating lack of his or her ability to pay. Express findings by the court as to the factors bearing on the payment schedule shall not be required.

(t) The defendant shall personally appear at any hearing held pursuant to any provision of this section unless the defendant is incarcerated or otherwise excused by the court, in which case the defendant may appear through counsel.

(u) Notwithstanding subdivision (d) of Section 1203.1, the county financial officer shall distribute proceeds collected by the county pursuant to this section as follows:

(1) If the restitution judgment has been satisfied, but the surcharge remains outstanding, all amounts paid by the defendant shall be kept by the county and applied to the surcharge.

(2) If the surcharge has been satisfied, but the restitution judgment has not been satisfied, all amounts submitted to the county shall be remitted to the victim.

(3) If neither judgment has been satisfied, the county shall remit 70 percent of the amounts collected to the victim. Those amounts shall be credited to the restitution judgment. The remaining 30 percent shall be retained by the county and credited toward the surcharge.

(v) Neither this section, nor the amendments to Section 12022.6 of the Penal Code enacted pursuant to Chapter 104 of the Statutes of 1992, are intended to lessen or otherwise mitigate sentences that could otherwise be imposed under any law in effect when the offense was committed.

(w) For the purpose of this section, a county may designate an appropriate employee of the county probation department, the department revenue, or any other analogous county department to act as the county financial officer pursuant to this section.

(x) This act shall be known as the Economic Crime Act of 1992.

SEC. 20. Section 1203.097 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.097. (a) If a person is granted probation for a crime in which the victim is a person defined in Section 6211 of the Family Code, the terms of probation shall include all of the following:

(1) A minimum period of probation of 36 months, which may include a period of summary probation as appropriate.

(2) A criminal court protective order protecting the victim from further acts of violence, threats, stalking, sexual abuse, and harassment, and, if appropriate, containing residence exclusion or stay-away conditions.

(3) Notice to the victim of the disposition of the case.

(4) Booking the defendant within one week of sentencing if the defendant has not already been booked.

(5) The defendant shall pay a minimum of a two-hundred-dollar ($200) payment to be disbursed as specified in this paragraph. If, after a hearing in court on the record, the court finds that the defendant does not have the ability to pay, the court may reduce or waive this fee.

Out of moneys deposited with the county treasurer pursuant to this section, one-third shall be retained by counties and deposited in the domestic violence programs special fund created pursuant to Section 18305 of the Welfare and Institutions Code to be expended for the purposes of Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 18290) of Part 6 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. The remainder shall be transferred, once a month, to the Controller for deposit in the Domestic Violence Fund, which is hereby created, in an amount equal to two-thirds of funds collected during the preceding month. Moneys deposited in the Domestic Violence Fund pursuant to this section shall be available upon appropriation by the Legislature, and shall be distributed as follows:

(A) One-half shall be distributed to the counties, based on the number of restraining orders issued and registered in the state domestic violence restraining order registry maintained by the Department of Justice, for the development and maintenance of the domestic violence restraining order data bank system.

(B) One-half shall support the development of a statewide training and education program to increase public awareness of domestic violence and to improve the scope and quality of services provided to the victims of domestic violence. Grants to support this program shall be awarded on a competitive basis and be administered by the State Department of Health Services, in consultation with the statewide domestic violence coalition, which is eligible to receive funding under this section.

(6) Successful completion of a batterer's program, as defined in subdivision (c), or if none is available, another appropriate counseling program designated by the court, for a period not less than one year with periodic progress reports by the program to the court every three months or less and weekly sessions of a minimum of two hours classtime duration.

(7) (A) The court shall order the defendant to comply with all probation requirements, including the requirements to attend counseling, keep all program appointments, and pay program fees based upon the ability to pay.

(B) Upon request by the batterer's program, the court shall provide the defendant's arrest report, prior incidents of violence, and treatment history to the program.

(8) The court also shall order the defendant to perform a specified amount of appropriate community service, as designated by the court. The defendant shall present the court with proof of completion of community service and the court shall determine if the community service has been satisfactorily completed. If sufficient staff and resources are available, the community service shall be performed under the jurisdiction of the local agency overseeing a community service program.

(9) If the program finds that the defendant is unsuitable, the program shall immediately contact the probation department or the court. The probation department or court shall either recalendar the case for hearing or refer the defendant to an appropriate alternative batterer's program.

(10) (A) Upon recommendation of the program, a court shall require a defendant to participate in additional sessions throughout the probationary period, unless it finds that it is not in the interests of justice to do so, states its reasons on the record, and enters them into the minutes. In deciding whether the defendant would benefit from more sessions, the court shall consider whether any of the following conditions exist:

(i) The defendant has been violence free for a minimum of six months.

(ii) The defendant has cooperated and participated in the batterer's program.

(iii) The defendant demonstrates an understanding of and practices positive conflict resolution skills.

(iv) The defendant blames, degrades, or has committed acts that dehumanize the victim or puts at risk the victim's safety, including, but not limited to, molesting, stalking, striking, attacking, threatening, sexually assaulting, or battering the victim.

(v) The defendant demonstrates an understanding that the use of coercion or violent behavior to maintain dominance is unacceptable in an intimate relationship.

(vi) The defendant has made threats to harm anyone in any manner.

(vii) The defendant has complied with applicable requirements under paragraph (6) of subdivision (c) or subparagraph (C) to receive alcohol counseling, drug counseling, or both.

(viii) The defendant demonstrates acceptance of responsibility for the abusive behavior perpetrated against the victim.

(B) The program shall immediately report any violation of the terms of the protective order, including any new acts of violence or failure to comply with the program requirements, to the court, the prosecutor, and, if formal probation has been ordered, to the probation department. The probationer shall file proof of enrollment in a batterer's program with the court within 30 days of conviction.

(C) Concurrent with other requirements under this section, in addition to, and not in lieu of, the batterer's program, and unless prohibited by the referring court, the probation department or the court may make provisions for a defendant to use his or her resources to enroll in a chemical dependency program or to enter voluntarily a licensed chemical dependency recovery hospital or residential treatment program that has a valid license issued by the state to provide alcohol or drug services to receive program participation credit, as determined by the court. The probation department shall document evidence of this hospital or residential treatment participation in the defendant's program file.

(11) The conditions of probation may include, in lieu of a fine, but not in lieu of the fund payment required under paragraph (5), one or more of the following requirements:

(A) That the defendant make payments to a battered women's shelter, up to a maximum of five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(B) That the defendant reimburse the victim for reasonable expenses that the court finds are the direct result of the defendant's offense.

For any order to pay a fine, to make payments to a battered women's shelter, or to pay restitution as a condition of probation under this subdivision, the court shall make a determination of the defendant's ability to pay. Determination of a defendant's ability to pay may include his or her future earning capacity. A defendant shall bear the burden of demonstrating lack of his or her ability to pay. Express findings by the court as to the factors bearing on the amount of the fine shall not be required. In no event shall any order to make payments to a battered women's shelter be made if it would impair the ability of the defendant to pay direct restitution to the victim or court-ordered child support. Where the injury to a married person is caused in whole or in part by the criminal acts of his or her spouse in violation of this section, the community property shall not be used to discharge the liability of the offending spouse for restitution to the injured spouse, as required by Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, or Section 1202.4, or to a shelter for costs with regard to the injured spouse, until all separate property of the offending spouse is exhausted.

(12) If it appears to the prosecuting attorney, the court, or the probation department that the defendant is performing unsatisfactorily in the assigned program, is not benefiting from counseling, or has engaged in criminal conduct, upon request of the probation officer, the prosecuting attorney, or on its own motion, the court, as a priority calendar item, shall hold a hearing to determine whether further sentencing should proceed. The court may consider factors, including, but not limited to, any violence by the defendant against the former or a new victim while on probation and noncompliance with any other specific condition of probation. If the court finds that the defendant is not performing satisfactorily in the assigned program, is not benefiting from the program, has not complied with a condition of probation, or has engaged in criminal conduct, the court shall terminate the defendant's participation in the program and shall proceed with further sentencing.

(b) If a person is granted formal probation for a crime in which the victim is a person defined in Section 6211 of the Family Code, in addition to the terms specified in subdivision (a), all of the following shall apply:

(1) The probation department shall make an investigation and take into consideration the defendant's age, medical history, employment and service records, educational background, community and family ties, prior incidents of violence, police report, treatment history, if any, demonstrable motivation, and other mitigating factors in determining which batterer's program would be appropriate for the defendant. This information shall be provided to the batterer's program if it is requested. The probation department shall also determine which community programs the defendant would benefit from and which of those programs would accept the defendant. The probation department shall report its findings and recommendations to the court.

(2) The court shall advise the defendant that the failure to report to the probation department for the initial investigation, as directed by the court, or the failure to enroll in a specified program, as directed by the court or the probation department, shall result in possible further incarceration. The court, in the interests of justice, may relieve the defendant from the prohibition set forth in this subdivision based upon the defendant's mistake or excusable neglect. Application for this relief shall be filed within 20 court days of the missed deadline. This time limitation may not be extended. A copy of any application for relief shall be served on the office of the prosecuting attorney.

(3) After the court orders the defendant to a batterer's program, the probation department shall conduct an initial assessment of the defendant, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

(A) Social, economic, and family background.
(B) Education.
(C) Vocational achievements.
(D) Criminal history.
(E) Medical history.
(F) Substance abuse history.
(G) Consultation with the probation officer.

(H) Verbal consultation with the victim, only if the victim desires to participate.

(I) Assessment of the future probability of the defendant committing murder.

(4) The probation department shall attempt to notify the victim regarding the requirements for the defendant's participation in the batterer's program, as well as regarding available victim resources. The victim also shall be informed that attendance in any program does not guarantee that an abuser will not be violent.

(c) The court or the probation department shall refer defendants only to batterer's programs that follow standards outlined in paragraph (1), which may include, but are not limited to, lectures, classes, group discussions, and counseling. The probation department shall design and implement an approval and renewal process for batterer's programs and shall solicit input from criminal justice agencies and domestic violence victim advocacy programs.

(1) The goal of a batterer's program under this section shall be to stop domestic violence. A batterer's program shall consist of the following components:

(A) Strategies to hold the defendant accountable for the violence in a relationship, including, but not limited to, providing the defendant with a written statement that the defendant shall be held accountable for acts or threats of domestic violence.

(B) A requirement that the defendant participate in ongoing same-gender group sessions.

(C) An initial intake that provides written definitions to the defendant of physical, emotional, sexual, economic, and verbal abuse, and the techniques for stopping these types of abuse.

(D) Procedures to inform the victim regarding the requirements for the defendant's participation in the intervention program as well as regarding available victim resources. The victim also shall be informed that attendance in any program does not guarantee that an abuser will not be violent.

(E) A requirement that the defendant attend group sessions free of chemical influence.

(F) Educational programming that examines, at a minimum, gender roles, socialization, the nature of violence, the dynamics of power and control, and the effects of abuse on children and others.

(G) A requirement that excludes any couple counseling or family counseling, or both.

(H) Procedures that give the program the right to assess whether or not the defendant would benefit from the program and refuse to enroll the defendant if it is determined the defendant would not benefit from the program, so long as the refusal is not because of the defendant's inability to pay. If possible, the program shall suggest an appropriate alternative program.

(I) Program staff who, to the extent possible, have specific knowledge regarding, but not limited to, spousal abuse, child abuse, sexual abuse, substance abuse, the dynamics of violence and abuse, the law, and procedures of the legal system.

(J) Program staff who are encouraged to utilize the expertise, training, and assistance of local domestic violence centers.

(K) A requirement that the defendant enter into a written agreement with the program that shall include an outline of the contents of the program, the attendance requirements, the requirement to attend group sessions free of chemical influence, and a statement that the defendant may be removed from the program if it is determined that the defendant is not benefiting from the program or is disruptive to the program.

(L) A requirement that the defendant sign a confidentiality statement prohibiting disclosure of any information obtained through participating in the program or during group sessions regarding other participants in the program.

(M) Program content that provides cultural and ethnic sensitivity.

(N) A requirement of a written referral from the court or probation department prior to permitting the defendant to enroll in the program. The written referral shall state the number of minimum sessions required by the court.

(O) Procedures for submitting to the probation department all of the following uniform written responses:

(i) Proof of enrollment, to be submitted to the court and the probation department and to include the fee determined to be charged to the defendant, based upon the ability to pay, for each session.

(ii) Periodic progress reports that include attendance, fee payment history, and program compliance.

(iii) Final evaluation that includes the program's evaluation of the defendant's progress, using the criteria set forth in paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) and recommendation for either successful or unsuccessful termination or continuation in the program.

(P) A sliding fee schedule based on the defendant's ability to pay. The batterer's program shall develop and utilize a sliding fee scale that recognizes both the defendant's ability to pay and the necessity of programs to meet overhead expenses. An indigent defendant may negotiate a deferred payment schedule, but shall pay a nominal fee, if the defendant has the ability to pay the nominal fee. Upon a hearing and a finding by the court that the defendant does not have the financial ability to pay the nominal fee, the court shall waive this fee. The payment of the fee shall be made a condition of probation if the court determines the defendant has the present ability to pay the fee. The fee shall be paid during the term of probation unless the program sets other conditions. The acceptance policies shall be in accordance with the scaled fee system.

(2) The court shall refer persons only to batterer programs that have been approved by the probation department pursuant to paragraph (5). The probation department shall do all of the following:

(A) Provide for the issuance of a provisional approval, provided that the applicant is in substantial compliance with applicable laws and regulations and an urgent need for approval exists. A provisional approval shall be considered an authorization to provide services and shall not be considered a vested right.

(B) If the probation department determines that a program is not in compliance with standards set by the department, the department shall provide written notice of the noncompliant areas to the program. The program shall submit a written plan of corrections within 14 days from the date of the written notice on noncompliance. A plan of correction shall include, but not be limited to, a description of each corrective action and timeframe for implementation. The department shall review and approve all or any part of the plan of correction and notify the program of approval or disapproval in writing. If the program fails to submit a plan of correction or fails to implement the approved plan of correction, the department shall consider whether to revoke or suspend approval and, upon revoking or suspending approval, shall have the option to cease referrals of defendants under this section.

(3) No program, regardless of its source of funding, shall be approved unless it meets all of the following standards:

(A) The establishment of guidelines and criteria for education services, including standards of services that may include lectures, classes, and group discussions.

(B) Supervision of the defendant for the purpose of evaluating the person's progress in the program.

(C) Adequate reporting requirements to ensure that all persons who, after being ordered to attend and complete a program, may be identified for either failure to enroll in, or failure to successfully complete, the program or for the successful completion of the program as ordered. The program shall notify the court and the probation department in writing within the period of time and in the manner specified by the court of any person who fails to complete the program. Notification shall be given if the program determines that the defendant is performing unsatisfactorily or if the defendant is not benefiting from the education, treatment, or counseling.

(D) No victim shall be compelled to participate in a program or counseling and no program may condition a defendant's enrollment on participation by the victim.

(4) In making referrals of indigent defendants to approved batterer programs, the probation department shall apportion these referrals evenly among the approved programs.

(5) The probation department shall have the sole authority to approve a batterer's program for probation. The program shall be required to obtain only one approval but shall renew that approval annually.

(A) The procedure for the approval of a new or existing program shall include all of the following:

(i) The completion of a written application containing necessary and pertinent information describing the applicant program.

(ii) The demonstration by the program that it possesses adequate administrative and operational capability to operate a batterer's treatment program. The program shall provide documentation to prove that the program has conducted batterer's programs for at least one year prior to application. This requirement may be waived under subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2), if there is no existing batterer's program in the city, county, or city and county.

(iii) The on-site review of the program, including monitoring of a session to determine that the program adheres to applicable statutes and regulations.

(iv) The payment of the approval fee.

(B) The probation department shall fix a fee for approval not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) and for approval renewal not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250) every year in an amount sufficient to cover its cost in administering the approval process under this section. No fee shall be charged for the approval of local governmental entities.

(C) The probation department has the sole authority to approve the issuance, denial, suspension, or revocation of approval and to cease new enrollments or referrals to a batterer's program under this section. The probation department shall review information relative to a program's performance or failure to adhere to standards, or both. The probation department may suspend or revoke any approval issued under this subdivision or deny an application to renew an approval or to modify the terms and conditions of approval, based on grounds established by probation, including, but not limited to, any of the following:

(i) Violation of this section by any person holding approval or by a program employee in a program under this section.

(ii) Misrepresentation of any material fact in obtaining the approval.

(6) For defendants who are chronic users or serious abusers of drugs or alcohol, standard components in the program shall include concurrent counseling for substance abuse and violent behavior, and in appropriate cases, detoxification and abstinence from the abused substance.

(7) The program shall conduct an exit conference that reflects the defendant's progress during the defendant's participation in the batterer's program.

SEC. 21. Section 1203.1 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.1. (a) The court, or judge thereof, in the order granting probation, may suspend the imposing or the execution of the sentence and may direct that the suspension may continue for a period of time not exceeding the maximum possible term of the sentence, except as hereinafter set forth, and upon those terms and conditions as it shall determine. The court, or judge thereof, in the order granting probation and as a condition thereof, may imprison the defendant in a county jail for a period not exceeding the maximum time fixed by law in the case.

However, where the maximum possible term of the sentence is five years or less, then the period of suspension of imposition or execution of sentence may, in the discretion of the court, continue for not over five years. The following shall apply to this subdivision:

(1) The court may fine the defendant in a sum not to exceed the maximum fine provided by law in the case.

(2) The court may, in connection with granting probation, impose either imprisonment in a county jail or a fine, both, or neither.

(3) The court shall provide for restitution in proper cases.

(4) The court may require bonds for the faithful observance and performance of any or all of the conditions of probation.

(b) The court shall consider whether the defendant as a condition of probation shall make restitution to the victim or the Restitution Fund. Any restitution payment received by a probation department in the form of cash or money order shall be forwarded to the victim within 30 days from the date the payment is received by the department. Any restitution payment received by a probation department in the form of a check or draft shall be forwarded to the victim within 45 days from the date the payment is received by the department, provided, that payment need not be forwarded to a victim until 180 days from the date the first payment is received, if the restitution payments for that victim received by the probation department total less than fifty dollars ($50). In cases where the court has ordered the defendant to pay restitution to multiple victims and where the administrative cost of disbursing restitution payments to multiple victims involves a significant cost, any restitution payment received by a probation department shall be forwarded to multiple victims when it is cost effective to do so, but in no event shall restitution disbursements be delayed beyond 180 days from the date the payment is received by the probation department.

(c) In counties or cities and counties where road camps, farms, or other public work is available the court may place the probationer in the road camp, farm, or other public work instead of in jail. In this case, Section 25359 of the Government Code shall apply to probation and the court shall have the same power to require adult probationers to work, as prisoners confined in the county jail are required to work, at public work. Each county board of supervisors may fix the scale of compensation of the adult probationers in that county.

(d) In all cases of probation the court may require as a condition of probation that the probationer go to work and earn money for the support of his or her dependents or to pay any fine imposed or reparation condition, to keep an account of his or her earnings, to report them to the probation officer and apply those earnings as directed by the court.

(e) The court shall also consider whether the defendant as a condition of probation shall make restitution to a public agency for the costs of an emergency response pursuant to Article 8 (commencing with Section 53150) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 2 of the Government Code.

(f) In all cases in which, as a condition of probation, a judge of the superior court sitting by authority of law elsewhere than at the county seat requires a convicted person to serve his or her sentence at intermittent periods the sentence may be served on the order of the judge at the city jail nearest to the place at which the court is sitting, and the cost of his or her maintenance shall be a county charge.

(g) (1) The court and prosecuting attorney shall consider whether any defendant who has been convicted of a nonviolent or nonserious offense and ordered to participate in community service as a condition of probation shall be required to engage in the removal of graffiti in the performance of the community service. For the purpose of this subdivision, a nonserious offense shall not include the following:

(A) Offenses in violation of the Dangerous Weapons' Control Law (Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 12000) of Title 2 of Part 4).

(B) Offenses involving the use of a dangerous or deadly weapon, including all violations of Section 417.

(C) Offenses involving the use or attempted use of violence against the person of another or involving injury to a victim.

(D) Offenses involving annoying or molesting children.

(2) Notwithstanding subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1), any person who violates Section 12101 shall be ordered to perform not less than 100 hours and not more than 500 hours of community service as a condition of probation.

(3) The court and the prosecuting attorney need not consider a defendant pursuant to paragraph (1) if the following circumstances exist:

(A) The defendant was convicted of any offense set forth in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 or subdivision (c) of Section 1192.7.

(B) The judge believes that the public safety may be endangered if the person is ordered to do community service or the judge believes that the facts or circumstances or facts and circumstances call for imposition of a more substantial penalty.

(h) The probation officer or his or her designated representative shall consider whether any defendant who has been convicted of a nonviolent and nonserious offense and ordered to participate in community service as a condition of probation shall be required to engage in the performance of house repairs or yard services for senior citizens and the performance of repairs to senior centers through contact with local senior service organizations in the performance of the community service.

(i) Upon conviction of any offense involving child abuse or neglect, the court may require, in addition to any or all of the above-mentioned terms of imprisonment, fine, and other reasonable conditions, that the defendant shall participate in counseling or education programs, or both, including, but not limited to, parent education or parenting programs operated by community colleges, school districts, other public agencies, or private agencies.

(j) The court may impose and require any or all of the above-mentioned terms of imprisonment, fine, and conditions, and other reasonable conditions, as it may determine are fitting and proper to the end that justice may be done, that amends may be made to society for the breach of the law, for any injury done to any person resulting from that breach, and generally and specifically for the reformation and rehabilitation of the probationer, and that should the probationer violate any of the terms or conditions imposed by the court in the matter, it shall have authority to modify and change any and all the terms and conditions and to reimprison the probationer in the county jail within the limitations of the penalty of the public offense involved. Upon the defendant being released from the county jail under the terms of probation as originally granted or any modification subsequently made, and in all cases where confinement in a county jail has not been a condition of the grant of probation, the court shall place the defendant or probationer in and under the charge of the probation officer of the court, for the period or term fixed for probation. However, upon the payment of any fine imposed and the fulfillment of all conditions of probation, probation shall cease at the end of the term of probation, or sooner, in the event of modification. In counties and cities and counties in which there are facilities for taking fingerprints, those of each probationer shall be taken and a record of them kept and preserved.

(k) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, except as provided in Section 13967, as operative on or before September 28, 1994, of the Government Code and Section 13967.5 of the Government Code and Sections 1202.4, 1463.16, paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 1463.18, and Section 1464, and Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, all fines collected by a county probation officer in any of the courts of this state, as a condition of the granting of probation or as a part of the terms of probation, shall be paid into the county treasury and placed in the general fund for the use and benefit of the county.

(l) If the court orders restitution to be made to the victim, the board of supervisors may add a fee to cover the actual administrative cost of collecting restitution but not to exceed 10 percent of the total amount ordered to be paid. The fees shall be paid into the general fund of the county treasury for the use and benefit of the county.

SEC. 22. Section 1205 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1205. (a) A judgment that the defendant pay a fine, with or without other punishment, may also direct that he or she be imprisoned until the fine is satisfied and may further direct that the imprisonment begin at and continue after the expiration of any imprisonment imposed as a part of the punishment or of any other imprisonment to which he or she may theretofore have been sentenced. Each of these judgments shall specify the extent of the imprisonment for nonpayment of the fine, which shall not be more than one day for each thirty dollars ($30) of the fine, nor exceed in any case the term for which the defendant might be sentenced to imprisonment for the offense of which he or she has been convicted. A defendant held in custody for nonpayment of a fine shall be entitled to credit on the fine for each day he or she is so held in custody, at the rate specified in the judgment. When the defendant has been convicted of a misdemeanor, a judgment that the defendant pay a fine may also direct that he or she pay the fine within a limited time or in installments on specified dates and that in default of payment as therein stipulated he or she be imprisoned in the discretion of the court either until the defaulted installment is satisfied or until the fine is satisfied in full; but unless the direction is given in the judgment, the fine shall be payable forthwith.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in case of fines imposed, including restitution fines or restitution orders, as conditions of probation, the defendant shall pay the fine to the clerk of the court, or to the judge thereof if there is no clerk, unless the defendant is taken into custody for nonpayment of the fine, in which event payments made while he or she is in custody shall be made to the officer who holds him or her in custody and all amounts so paid shall be forthwith paid over by the officer to the court which rendered the judgment. The clerk shall report to the court every default in payment of a fine or any part thereof, or if there is no clerk, the court shall take notice of the default. If time has been given for payment of a fine or it has been made payable in installments, the court shall, upon any default in payment, immediately order the arrest of the defendant and order him or her to show cause why he or she should not be imprisoned until the fine or installment thereof, as the case may be, is satisfied in full. If the fine, restitution fine, restitution order, or installment, is payable forthwith and it is not so paid, the court shall without further proceedings, immediately commit the defendant to the custody of the proper officer to be held in custody until the fine or installment thereof, as the case may be, is satisfied in full.

(c) This section applies to any violation of any of the codes or statutes of this state punishable by a fine or by a fine and imprisonment.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the clerk of the court, or the judge thereof if there is no clerk, from turning these accounts over to another county department or a collecting agency for processing and collection.

(d) The defendant shall pay to the clerk of the court or the collecting agency a fee for the processing of installment accounts. This fee shall equal the administrative and clerical costs, as determined by the board of supervisors, except that the fee shall not exceed thirty-five dollars ($35). The Legislature hereby authorizes the establishment of the following program described in this section, to be implemented in any county, upon the adoption of a resolution by the board of supervisors authorizing it. The board of supervisors in any county may establish a fee for the processing of accounts receivable that are not to be paid in installments. The defendant shall pay to the clerk of the court or the collecting agency the fee established for the processing of the accounts. The fee shall equal the administrative and clerical costs, as determined by the board of supervisors, except that the fee shall not exceed thirty dollars ($30).

(e) This section shall only apply to restitution fines and restitution orders if the defendant has defaulted on the payment of other fines.

SEC. 23. Section 1205.3 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1205.3. In any case in which a defendant is convicted of an offense and granted probation, and the court orders the defendant either to pay a fine or to perform specified community service work as a condition of probation, the court shall specify that if community service work is performed, it shall be performed in place of the payment of all fines and restitution fines on a proportional basis, and the court shall specify in its order the amount of the fine and restitution fine and the number of hours of community service work that shall be performed as an alternative to payment of the fine.

SEC. 24. Section 1205.5 of the Penal Code is repealed.

SEC. 25. Section 1214 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1214. (a) If the judgment is for a fine, including a restitution fine ordered pursuant to Section 1202.4 or Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, or Section 13967, as operative on or before September 28, 1994, of the Government Code, with or without imprisonment, the judgment may be enforced in the manner provided for the enforcement of money judgments generally.

(b) In any case in which a defendant is ordered to pay restitution, the order to pay restitution is deemed a money judgment if the defendant was informed of his or her right to have a judicial determination of the amount and was provided with a hearing, waived a hearing, or stipulated to the amount of the restitution ordered, and shall constitute a civil judgment enforceable in the same manner as is provided for the enforcement of any other money judgment. Upon the victim's request, the court shall provide the victim in whose favor the order of restitution is entered with a certified copy of that order. In addition, upon request, the court shall provide the State Board of Control with a certified copy of any order imposing a restitution fine or order.

(c) Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 683.010) of Division 1 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall not apply to a judgment for any fine or restitution ordered pursuant to Section 1202.4 or Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, or Section 13967 of the Government Code, as operative on or before September 28, 1994.

SEC. 25.5. Section 1214 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1214. (a) If the judgment is for a fine, including a restitution fine ordered pursuant to Section 1202.4 or Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, or Section 13967 of the Government Code, as operative on or before September 28, 1994, with or without imprisonment, the judgment may be enforced in the manner provided for the enforcement of money judgments generally.

(b) In any case in which a defendant is ordered to pay restitution, the order to pay restitution (1) is deemed a money judgment if the defendant was informed of his or her right to have a judicial determination of the amount and was provided with a hearing, waived a hearing, or stipulated to the amount of the restitution ordered, and (2) shall be fully enforceable by a victim as if the restitution order were a civil judgment, and enforceable in the same manner as is provided for the enforcement of any other money judgment. Upon the victim's request, the court shall provide the victim in whose favor the order of restitution is entered with a certified copy of that order. In addition, upon request, the court shall provide the State Board of Control with a certified copy of any order imposing a restitution fine or order. A victim shall have access to all resources available under the law to enforce the restitution order, including, but not limited to, access to the defendant's financial records, use of wage garnishment and lien procedures, information regarding the defendant's assets, and the ability to apply for restitution from any fund established for the purpose of compensating victims in civil cases. Any portion of a restitution order that remains unsatisfied after a defendant is no longer on probation or parole is enforceable by the victim pursuant to this section. Victims and the State Board of Control shall inform the court whenever an order to pay restitution is satisfied.

(c) Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 683.010) of Division 1 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure shall not apply to a judgment for any fine or restitution ordered pursuant to Section 1202.4 or Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, or Section 13967 of the Government Code, as operative on or before September 28, 1994.

SEC. 26. Section 1463.18 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1463.18. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1463, moneys which are collected for a conviction of a violation of Section 23152 or 23153 of the Vehicle Code and which are required to be deposited with the county treasurer pursuant to Section 1463 shall be allocated as follows:

(1) The first twenty dollars ($20) of any amount collected for a conviction shall be transferred to the Restitution Fund. This amount shall be aggregated by the county treasurer and transferred to the State Treasury once per month for deposit in the Restitution Fund.

(2) The balance of the amount collected, if any, shall be deposited by the county treasurer pursuant to Section 1463.

(b) The amount transferred to the Restitution Fund pursuant to this section shall be in addition to any amount of any additional fine or assessment imposed pursuant to Sections 1202.4 and 1203.04, as operative on or before August 3, 1995, or Section 13967, as operative on or before September 28, 1994, of the Government Code. The amount deposited to the Restitution Fund pursuant to this section shall be used for the purpose of indemnification of victims pursuant to Section 13965 of the Government Code, with priority given to victims of alcohol-related traffic offenses.

SEC. 27. Section 1464 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1464. (a) Subject to Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 76000) of Title 8 of the Government Code, there shall be levied a state penalty, in an amount equal to ten dollars ($10) for every ten dollars ($10) or fraction thereof, upon every fine, penalty, or forfeiture imposed and collected by the courts for criminal offenses, including all offenses, except parking offenses as defined in subdivision (i) of Section 1463, involving a violation of a section of the Vehicle Code or any local ordinance adopted pursuant to the Vehicle Code. Any bail schedule adopted pursuant to Section 1269b may include the necessary amount to pay the state penalties established by this section and Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 76000) of Title 8 of the Government Code for all matters where a personal appearance is not mandatory and the bail is posted primarily to guarantee payment of the fine.

(b) Where multiple offenses are involved, the state penalty shall be based upon the total fine or bail for each case. When a fine is suspended, in whole or in part, the state penalty shall be reduced in proportion to the suspension.

(c) When any deposited bail is made for an offense to which this section applies, and for which a court appearance is not mandatory, the person making the deposit shall also deposit a sufficient amount to include the state penalty prescribed by this section for forfeited bail. If bail is returned, the state penalty paid thereon pursuant to this section shall also be returned.

(d) In any case where a person convicted of any offense, to which this section applies, is in prison until the fine is satisfied, the judge may waive all or any part of the state penalty, the payment of which would work a hardship on the person convicted or his or her immediate family.

(e) After a determination by the court of the amount due, the clerk of the court shall collect the penalty and transmit it to the county treasury. The portion thereof attributable to Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 76000) of Title 8 of the Government Code shall be deposited in the appropriate county fund and the balance shall then be transmitted to the State Treasury, with 70 percent to be deposited in the State Penalty Fund, which is hereby created, and 30 percent to remain on deposit in the General Fund. The transmission to the State Treasury shall be carried out in the same manner as fines collected for the state by a county.

(f) The moneys so deposited in the State Penalty Fund shall be distributed as follows:

(1) Once a month there shall be transferred into the Fish and Game Preservation Fund an amount equal to 0.33 percent of the state penalty funds deposited in the State Penalty Fund during the preceding month, except that the total amount shall not be less than the state penalty levied on fines or forfeitures for violation of state laws relating to the protection or propagation of fish and game. These moneys shall be used for the education or training of department employees which fulfills a need consistent with the objectives of the Department of Fish and Game.

(2) Once a month there shall be transferred into the Restitution Fund an amount equal to 32.02 percent of the state penalty funds deposited in the State Penalty Fund during the preceding month. Those funds shall be made available in accordance with Section 13967 of the Government Code.

(3) Once a month there shall be transferred into the Peace Officers' Training Fund an amount equal to 23.99 percent of the state penalty funds deposited in the State Penalty Fund during the preceding month.

(4) Once a month there shall be transferred into the Driver Training Penalty Assessment Fund an amount equal to 25.70 percent of the state penalty funds deposited in the State Penalty Fund during the preceding month.

(5) Once a month there shall be transferred into the Corrections Training Fund an amount equal to 7.88 percent of the state penalty funds deposited in the State Penalty Fund during the preceding month. Money in the Corrections Training Fund is not continuously appropriated and shall be appropriated in the Budget Act.

(6) Once a month there shall be transferred into the Local Public Prosecutors and Public Defenders Training Fund established pursuant to Section 11503 an amount equal to 0.78 percent of the state penalty funds deposited in the State Penalty Fund during the preceding month. The amount so transferred shall not exceed the sum of eight hundred fifty thousand dollars ($850,000) in any fiscal year. The remainder in excess of eight hundred fifty thousand dollars ($850,000) shall be transferred to the Restitution Fund.

(7) Once a month there shall be transferred into the Victim-Witness Assistance Fund an amount equal to 8.64 percent of the state penalty funds deposited in the State Penalty Fund during the preceding month.

(8) (A) Once a month there shall be transferred into the Traumatic Brain Injury Fund, created pursuant to Section 4358 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, an amount equal to 0.66 percent of the state penalty funds deposited into the State Penalty Fund during the preceding month, until the amount deposited in the Traumatic Brain Injury Fund, as determined by the Department of Finance, for any fiscal year equals five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000). All moneys in excess of that amount shall be distributed pro rata pursuant to paragraphs (1) to (7), inclusive, and utilized in accordance with this subdivision.

(B) Any moneys deposited in the State Penalty Fund attributable to the assessments made pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 27315 of the Vehicle Code on or after the date that Chapter 6.6 (commencing with Section 5564) of Part 1 of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed shall be utilized in accordance with paragraphs (1) to (8), inclusive, of this subdivision.

SEC. 27.5. Section 1464 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1464. (a) Subject to Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 76000) of Title 8 of the Government Code, there shall be levied a state penalty, in an amount equal to ten dollars ($10) for every ten dollars ($10) or fraction thereof, upon every fine, penalty, or forfeiture imposed and collected by the courts for criminal offenses, including all offenses, except parking offenses as defined in subdivision (i) of Section 1463, involving a violation of a section of the Vehicle Code or any local ordinance adopted pursuant to the Vehicle Code. Any bail schedule adopted pursuant to Section 1269b may include the necessary amount to pay the state penalties established by this section and Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 76000) of Title 8 of the Government Code for all matters where a personal appearance is not mandatory and the bail is posted primarily to guarantee payment of the fine.

(b) Where multiple offenses are involved, the state penalty shall be based upon the total fine or bail for each case. When a fine is suspended, in whole or in part, the state penalty shall be reduced in proportion to the suspension.

(c) When any deposited bail is made for an offense to which this section applies, and for which a court appearance is not mandatory, the person making the deposit shall also deposit a sufficient amount to include the state penalty prescribed by this section for forfeited bail. If bail is returned, the state penalty paid thereon pursuant to this section shall also be returned.

(d) In any case where a person convicted of any offense, to which this section applies, is in prison until the fine is satisfied, the judge may waive all or any part of the state penalty, the payment of which would work a hardship on the person convicted or his or her immediate family.

(e) After a determination by the court of the amount due, the clerk of the court shall collect the penalty and transmit it to the county treasury. The portion thereof attributable to Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 76000) of Title 8 of the Government Code shall be deposited in the appropriate county fund and the balance shall then be transmitted to the State Treasury, with 70 percent to be deposited in the State Penalty Fund, which is hereby created, and 30 percent to remain on deposit in the General Fund. The transmission to the State Treasury shall be carried out in the same manner as fines collected for the state by a county.

(f) The moneys so deposited in the State Penalty Fund shall be distributed as follows:

(1) Once a month there shall be transferred into the Fish and Game Preservation Fund an amount equal to 0.33 percent of the state penalty funds deposited in the State Penalty Fund during the preceding month, except that the total amount shall not be less than the state penalty levied on fines or forfeitures for violation of state laws relating to the protection or propagation of fish and game. These moneys shall be used for the education or training of department employees which fulfills a need consistent with the objectives of the Department of Fish and Game.

(2) Once a month there shall be transferred into the Restitution Fund an amount equal to 32.02 percent of the state penalty funds deposited in the State Penalty Fund during the preceding month. Those funds shall be made available in accordance with Section 13967 of the Government Code.

(3) Once a month there shall be transferred into the Peace Officers' Training Fund an amount equal to 23.99 percent of the state penalty funds deposited in the State Penalty Fund during the preceding month.

(4) Once a month there shall be transferred into the Driver Training Penalty Assessment Fund an amount equal to 25.70 percent of the state penalty funds deposited in the State Penalty Fund during the preceding month.

(5) Once a month there shall be transferred into the Corrections Training Fund an amount equal to 7.88 percent of the state penalty funds deposited in the State Penalty Fund during the preceding month. Money in the Corrections Training Fund is not continuously appropriated and shall be appropriated in the Budget Act.

(6) Once a month there shall be transferred into the Local Public Prosecutors and Public Defenders Training Fund established pursuant to Section 11503 an amount equal to 0.78 percent of the state penalty funds deposited in the State Penalty Fund during the preceding month. The amount so transferred shall not exceed the sum of eight hundred fifty thousand dollars ($850,000) in any fiscal year. The remainder in excess of eight hundred fifty thousand dollars ($850,000) shall be transferred to the Restitution Fund.

(7) Once a month there shall be transferred into the Victim-Witness Assistance Fund an amount equal to 8.64 percent of the state penalty funds deposited in the State Penalty Fund during the preceding month.

(8) (A) Once a month there shall be transferred into the Traumatic Brain Injury Fund, created pursuant to Section 4358 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, an amount equal to 0.66 percent of the state penalty funds deposited into the State Penalty Fund during the preceding month. However, the amount of funds transferred into the Traumatic Brain Injury Fund for the 1996–97 fiscal year shall not exceed the amount of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000). Thereafter, funds shall be transferred pursuant to the requirements of this section.

(B) Any moneys deposited in the State Penalty Fund attributable to the assessments made pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 27315 of the Vehicle Code on or after the date that Chapter 6.6 (commencing with Section 5564) of Part 1 of Division 5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed shall be utilized in accordance with paragraphs (1) to (8), inclusive, of this subdivision.

SEC. 28. Section 2900.5 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 7 of Chapter 770 of the Statutes of 1994, is amended to read:

2900.5. (a) In all felony and misdemeanor convictions, either by plea or by verdict, when the defendant has been in custody, including, but not limited to, any time spent in a jail, camp, work furlough facility, halfway house, rehabilitation facility, hospital, prison, juvenile detention facility, or similar residential institution, all days of custody of the defendant, including days served as a condition of probation in compliance with a court order, and including days credited to the period of confinement pursuant to Section 4019, shall be credited upon his or her term of imprisonment, or credited to any fine on a proportional basis, including, but not limited to, base fines and restitution fines, which may be imposed, at the rate of not less than thirty dollars ($30) per day, or more, in the discretion of the court imposing the sentence. If the total number of days in custody exceeds the number of days of the term of imprisonment to be imposed, the entire term of imprisonment shall be deemed to have been served. In any case where the court has imposed both a prison or jail term of imprisonment and a fine, any days to be credited to the defendant shall first be applied to the term of imprisonment imposed, and thereafter the remaining days, if any, shall be applied to the fine on a proportional basis, including, but not limited to, base fines and restitution fines.

(b) For the purposes of this section, credit shall be given only where the custody to be credited is attributable to proceedings related to the same conduct for which the defendant has been convicted. Credit shall be given only once for a single period of custody attributable to multiple offenses for which a consecutive sentence is imposed.

(c) For the purposes of this section, "term of imprisonment" includes any period of imprisonment imposed as a condition of probation or otherwise ordered by a court in imposing or suspending the imposition of any sentence, and also includes any term of imprisonment, including any period of imprisonment prior to release on parole and any period of imprisonment and parole, prior to discharge, whether established or fixed by statute, by any court, or by any duly authorized administrative agency.

(d) It shall be the duty of the court imposing the sentence to determine the date or dates of any admission to, and release from, custody prior to sentencing and the total number of days to be credited pursuant to this section. The total number of days to be credited shall be contained in the abstract of judgment provided for in Section 1213.

(e) It shall be the duty of any agency to which a person is committed to apply the credit provided for in this section for the period between the date of sentencing and the date the person is delivered to the agency.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of this code as it pertains to the sentencing of convicted offenders, nothing in this section is to be construed as authorizing the sentencing of convicted offenders to any of the facilities or programs mentioned herein.

(g) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1999.

SEC. 28.5. Section 2900.5 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 7 of Chapter 770 of the Statutes of 1994, is amended to read:

2900.5. (a) (1) In all felony and misdemeanor convictions, either by plea or by verdict, when the defendant has been in custody, including, but not limited to, any time spent in a jail, camp, work furlough facility, halfway house, rehabilitation facility, hospital, prison, juvenile detention facility, or similar residential institution, all days of custody of the defendant, including days served as a condition of probation in compliance with a court order, and including days credited to the period of confinement pursuant to Section 4019, shall be credited upon his or her term of imprisonment, or credited to any fine on a proportional basis, including, but not limited to, base fines and restitution fines, which may be imposed, at the rate of not less than thirty dollars ($30) per day, or more, in the discretion of the court imposing the sentence. If the total number of days in custody exceeds the number of days of the term of imprisonment to be imposed, the entire term of imprisonment shall be deemed to have been served. In any case where the court has imposed both a prison or jail term of imprisonment and a fine, any days to be credited to the defendant shall first be applied to the term of imprisonment imposed, and thereafter the remaining days, if any, shall be applied to the fine on a proportional basis, including, but not limited to, base fines, and restitution fines.

(2) Notwithstanding, and in addition to, paragraph (1), any person convicted of a misdemeanor who has been under the custody of the County Correctional Administrator, including, custody as provided in paragraph (1) or placement in any community-based punishment program authorized under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 8050) of Title 9 of Part 3, shall have all days of that custody credited upon his or her term of imprisonment, or credited to any fine which may be imposed, as provided in paragraph (1). Credit under this paragraph for days in custody shall apply to any mandatory minimum term of imprisonment.

(b) For the purposes of this section, credit shall be given only where the custody to be credited is attributable to proceedings related to the same conduct for which the defendant has been convicted. Credit shall be given only once for a single period of custody attributable to multiple offenses for which a consecutive sentence is imposed.

(c) For the purposes of this section, "term of imprisonment" includes any period of imprisonment imposed as a condition of probation or otherwise ordered by a court in imposing or suspending the imposition of any sentence, and also includes any term of imprisonment, including any period of imprisonment prior to release on parole and any period of imprisonment and parole, prior to discharge, whether established or fixed by statute, by any court, or by any duly authorized administrative agency.

(d) It shall be the duty of the court imposing the sentence to determine the date or dates of any admission to, and release from, custody prior to sentencing and the total number of days to be credited pursuant to this section. The total number of days to be credited shall be contained in the abstract of judgment provided for in Section 1213.

(e) It shall be the duty of any agency to which a person is committed to apply the credit provided for in this section for the period between the date of sentencing and the date the person is delivered to the agency.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of this code as it pertains to the sentencing of convicted offenders, nothing in this section is to be construed as authorizing the sentencing of convicted offenders to any of the facilities or programs mentioned herein.

(g) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1999.

SEC. 29. Section 2900.5 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 6 of Chapter 770 of the Statutes of 1994, is amended to read:

2900.5. (a) In all felony and misdemeanor convictions, either by plea or by verdict, when the defendant has been in custody, including, but not limited to, any time spent in a jail, camp, work furlough facility, halfway house, rehabilitation facility, hospital, prison, juvenile detention facility, similar residential institution, or home detention program, all days of custody of the defendant, including days served as a condition of probation in compliance with a court order, and including days credited to the period of confinement pursuant to Section 4019, shall be credited upon his or her term of imprisonment, or credited to any fine on a proportional basis, including, but not limited to, base fines and restitution fines, which may be imposed, at the rate of not less than thirty dollars ($30) per day, or more, in the discretion of the court imposing the sentence.

If the total number of days in custody exceeds the number of days of the term of imprisonment to be imposed, the entire term of imprisonment shall be deemed to have been served. In any case where the court has imposed both a prison or jail term of imprisonment and a fine, any days to be credited to the defendant shall first be applied to the term of imprisonment imposed, and thereafter the remaining days, if any, shall be applied to the fine on a proportional basis, including, but not limited to, base fines and restitution fines.

(b) For the purposes of this section, credit shall be given only where the custody to be credited is attributable to proceedings related to the same conduct for which the defendant has been convicted. Credit shall be given only once for a single period of custody attributable to multiple offenses for which a consecutive sentence is imposed.

(c) For the purposes of this section, "term of imprisonment" includes any period of imprisonment imposed as a condition of probation or otherwise ordered by a court in imposing or suspending the imposition of any sentence, and also includes any term of imprisonment, including any period of imprisonment prior to release on parole and any period of imprisonment and parole, prior to discharge, whether established or fixed by statute, by any court, or by any duly authorized administrative agency.

(d) It shall be the duty of the court imposing the sentence to determine the date or dates of any admission to and release from custody prior to sentencing, and the total number of days to be credited pursuant to this section. The total number of days to be credited shall be contained in the abstract of judgment provided for in Section 1213.

(e) It shall be the duty of any agency to which a person is committed to apply the credit provided for in this section for the period between the date of sentencing and the date the person is delivered to the agency.

(f) If a defendant serves time in a camp, work furlough facility, halfway house, rehabilitation facility, hospital, juvenile detention facility, similar residential facility, or home detention program in lieu of imprisonment in county jail, and the statute under which the defendant is sentenced requires a mandatory minimum period of time in jail, the time spent in these facilities or programs shall qualify as mandatory time in jail.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of this code as it pertains to the sentencing of convicted offenders, nothing in this section is to be construed as authorizing the sentencing of convicted offenders to any of the facilities or programs mentioned herein.

(h) This section shall remain operative until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 29.5. Section 2900.5 of the Penal Code, as amended by Section 6 of Chapter 770 of the Statutes of 1994, is amended to read:

2900.5. (a) (1) In all felony and misdemeanor convictions, either by plea or by verdict, when the defendant has been in custody, including, but not limited to, any time spent in a jail, camp, work furlough facility, halfway house, rehabilitation facility, hospital, prison, juvenile detention facility, similar residential institution, or home detention program, all days of custody of the defendant, including days served as a condition of probation in compliance with a court order, and including days credited to the period of confinement pursuant to Section 4019, shall be credited upon his or her term of imprisonment, or credited to any fine on a proportional basis, including, but not limited to, base fines and restitution fines, which may be imposed, at the rate of not less than thirty dollars ($30) per day, or more, in the discretion of the court imposing the sentence. If the total number of days in custody exceeds the number of days of the term of imprisonment to be imposed, the entire term of imprisonment shall be deemed to have been served. In any case where the court has imposed both a prison or jail term of imprisonment and a fine, any days to be credited to the defendant shall first be applied to the term of imprisonment imposed, and thereafter the remaining days, if any, shall be applied to the fine on a proportional basis, including, but not limited to, base fines and restitution fines.

(2) Notwithstanding, and in addition to, paragraph (1), any person convicted of a misdemeanor who has been under the custody of the County Correctional Administrator, including, custody as provided in paragraph (1) or placement in any community-based punishment program authorized under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 8050) of Title 9 of Part 3, shall have all days of that custody credited upon his or her term of imprisonment, or credited to any fine which may be imposed, as provided in paragraph (1). Credit under this paragraph for days in custody shall apply to any mandatory minimum term of imprisonment.

(b) For the purposes of this section, credit shall be given only where the custody to be credited is attributable to proceedings related to the same conduct for which the defendant has been convicted. Credit shall be given only once for a single period of custody attributable to multiple offenses for which a consecutive sentence is imposed.

(c) For the purposes of this section, "term of imprisonment" includes any period of imprisonment imposed as a condition of probation or otherwise ordered by a court in imposing or suspending the imposition of any sentence, and also includes any term of imprisonment, including any period of imprisonment prior to release on parole and any period of imprisonment and parole, prior to discharge, whether established or fixed by statute, by any court, or by any duly authorized administrative agency.

(d) It shall be the duty of the court imposing the sentence to determine the date or dates of any admission to and release from custody prior to sentencing, and the total number of days to be credited pursuant to this section. The total number of days to be credited shall be contained in the abstract of judgment provided for in Section 1213.

(e) It shall be the duty of any agency to which a person is committed to apply the credit provided for in this section for the period between the date of sentencing and the date the person is delivered to the agency.

(f) If a defendant serves time in a camp, work furlough facility, halfway house, rehabilitation facility, hospital, juvenile detention facility, similar residential facility, or home detention program in lieu of imprisonment in county jail, and the statute under which the defendant is sentenced requires a mandatory minimum period of time in jail, the time spent in these facilities or programs shall qualify as mandatory time in jail.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of this code as it pertains to the sentencing of convicted offenders, nothing in this section is to be construed as authorizing the sentencing of convicted offenders to any of the facilities or programs mentioned herein.

(h) This section shall remain operative until January 1, 1999, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 30. Section 42003 of the Vehicle Code is amended to read:

42003. (a) A judgment that a person convicted of an infraction be punished by a fine may also provide for the payment to be made within a specified time or in specified installments. A judgment granting a defendant time to pay the fine shall order that if the defendant fails to pay the fine or any installment thereof on the date that it is due, he or she shall appear in court on that date for further proceedings. Willful violation of the order is punishable as contempt.

(b) A judgment that a person convicted of any other violation of this code be punished by a fine may also order, adjudge, and decree that the person be imprisoned until the fine is satisfied. In all of these cases, the judgment shall specify the extent of the imprisonment which shall not exceed one day for every thirty dollars ($30) of the fine, nor extend in this case beyond the term for which the defendant might be sentenced to imprisonment for the offense of which he or she was convicted.

(c) In any case when a person appears before a traffic referee or judge of the municipal court or superior court for adjudication of a violation of this code, the court, upon request of the defendant, shall consider the defendant's ability to pay. Consideration of a defendant's ability to pay may include his or her future earning capacity. A defendant shall bear the burden of demonstrating lack of his or her ability to pay. Express findings by the court as to the factors bearing on the amount of the fine shall not be required. The reasonable cost of these services and of probation shall not exceed the amount determined to be the actual average cost thereof. The court shall order the defendant to appear before a county officer designated by the court to make an inquiry into the ability of the defendant to pay all or a portion of those costs or the court or traffic referee may make this determination at a hearing. At that hearing, the defendant shall be entitled to have, but shall not be limited to, the opportunity to be heard in person, to present witnesses and other documentary evidence, to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses, to disclosure of the evidence against him or her, and to a written statement of the findings of the court or the county officer. If the court determines that the defendant has the ability to pay all or part of the costs, the court shall set the amount to be reimbursed and order the defendant to pay that sum to the county in the manner in which the court believes reasonable and compatible with the defendant's financial ability; or, with the consent of a defendant who is placed on probation, the court shall order the probation officer to set the amount of payment, which shall not exceed the maximum amount set by the court, and the manner in which the payment shall be made to the county. In making a determination of whether a defendant has the ability to pay, the court shall take into account the amount of any fine imposed upon the defendant and any amount the defendant has been ordered to pay in restitution.

The court may hold additional hearings during the probationary period. If practicable, the court or the probation officer shall order payments to be made on a monthly basis. Execution may be issued on the order in the same manner as a judgment in a civil action. The order to pay all or part of the costs shall not be enforced by contempt.

A payment schedule for reimbursement of the costs of presentence investigation based on income shall be developed by the probation department of each county and approved by the presiding judges of the municipal and superior courts.

(d) The term "ability to pay" means the overall capability of the defendant to reimburse the costs, or a portion of the costs, of conducting the presentence investigation, preparing the presentence report, and probation, and includes, but is not limited to, all of the following regarding the defendant:

(1) Present financial position.

(2) Reasonably discernible future financial position. In no event shall the court consider a period of more than six months from the date of the hearing for purposes of determining reasonably discernible future financial position.

(3) Likelihood that the defendant will be able to obtain employment within the six-month period from the date of the hearing.

(4) Any other factors that may bear upon the defendant's financial capability to reimburse the county for the costs.

(e) At any time during the pendency of the judgment rendered according to the terms of this section, a defendant against whom a judgment has been rendered may petition the rendering court to modify or vacate its previous judgment on the grounds of a change of circumstances with regard to the defendant's ability to pay the judgment. The court shall advise the defendant of this right at the time of rendering of the judgment.

SEC. 31. Section 653.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

653.5. (a) Whenever any person applies to the probation officer to commence proceedings in the juvenile court, the application shall be in the form of an affidavit alleging that there was or is within the county, or residing therein, a minor within the provisions of Section 602, or that a minor committed an offense described in Section 602 within the county, and setting forth facts in support thereof. The probation officer shall immediately make any investigation he or she deems necessary to determine whether proceedings in the juvenile court shall be commenced.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), if the probation officer determines that proceedings pursuant to Section 650 should be commenced to declare a person to be a ward of the juvenile court on the basis that he or she is a person described in Section 602, the probation officer shall cause the affidavit to be taken to the prosecuting attorney.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), the probation officer shall cause the affidavit to be taken within 48 hours to the prosecuting attorney in all of the following cases:

(1) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has been referred to the probation officer for any violation of an offense listed in subdivision (b), paragraph (2) of subdivision (d), or subdivision (e) of Section 707.

(2) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor is under 14 years of age at the date of the offense and that the offense constitutes a second felony referral to the probation officer.

(3) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor was 14 years of age or older at the date of the offense and that the offense constitutes a felony referral to the probation officer.

(4) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has been referred to the probation officer for the sale or possession for sale of a controlled substance as defined in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11053) of Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code.

(5) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has been referred to the probation officer for a violation of Section 11350 or 11377 of the Health and Safety Code where the violation takes place at a public or private elementary, vocational, junior high school, or high school, or a violation of Section 245.5, 626.9, or 626.10 of the Penal Code.

(6) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has been referred to the probation officer for a violation of Section 186.22 of the Penal Code.

(7) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has previously been placed in a program of informal probation pursuant to Section 654.

(8) If it appears to the probation officer that the minor has committed an offense in which the restitution owed to the victim exceeds one thousand dollars ($1,000). For purposes of this paragraph, the definition of "victim" in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 730.6 and "restitution" in subdivision (h) of Section 730.6 shall apply.

Except for offenses listed in paragraph (5), the provisions of subdivision (c) shall not apply to a narcotics and drug offense set forth in Section 1000 of the Penal Code.

The prosecuting attorney shall within his or her discretionary power institute proceedings in accordance with his or her role as public prosecutor pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 650 and Section 26500 of the Government Code. However, if it appears to the prosecuting attorney that the affidavit was not properly referred, that the offense for which the minor was referred should be charged as a misdemeanor, or that the minor may benefit from a program of informal supervision, he or she shall refer the matter to the probation officer for whatever action the probation officer may deem appropriate.

(d) In all matters where the minor is not in custody and is already a ward of the court or a probationer under Section 602, the prosecuting attorney, within five judicial days of receipt of the affidavit from the probation officer, shall institute proceedings in accordance with his or her role as public prosecutor pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 650 of this code and Section 26500 of the Government Code, unless it appears to the prosecuting attorney that the affidavit was not properly referred or that the offense for which the minor was referred requires additional substantiating information, in which case he or she shall immediately notify the probation officer of what further action he or she is taking.

(e) This section shall become operative on January 1, 1997.

SEC. 32. Section 654.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

654.3. No minor shall be eligible for the program of supervision set forth in Section 654 or 654.2 in the following cases, except in an unusual case where the interests of justice would best be served and the court specifies on the record the reasons for its decision:

(a) A petition alleges that the minor has violated an offense listed in subdivision (b) or (e) or paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 707.

(b) A petition alleges that the minor has sold or possessed for sale a controlled substance as defined in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11053) of Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code.

(c) A petition alleges that the minor has violated Section 11350 or 11377 of the Health and Safety Code where the violation takes place at a public or private elementary, vocational, junior high school, or high school, or a violation of Section 245.5, 626.9, or 626.10 of the Penal Code.

(d) A petition alleges that the minor has violated Section 186.22 of the Penal Code.

(e) The minor has previously participated in a program of supervision pursuant to Section 654.

(f) The minor has previously been adjudged a ward of the court pursuant to Section 602.

(g) A petition alleges that the minor has violated an offense in which the restitution owed to the victim exceeds one thousand dollars ($1,000). For purposes of this subdivision, the definition of "victim" in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 730.6 and "restitution" in subdivision (h) of Section 730.6 shall apply.

SEC. 33. Section 656 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

656. A petition to commence proceedings in the juvenile court to declare a minor a ward of the court shall be verified and shall contain all of the following:

(a) The name of the court to which it is addressed.

(b) The title of the proceeding.

(c) The code section and subdivision under which the proceedings are instituted.

(d) The name, age, and address, if any, of the minor upon whose behalf the petition is brought.

(e) The names and residence addresses, if known to the petitioner, of both of the parents and any guardian of the minor. If there is no parent or guardian residing within the state, or if his or her place of residence is not known to the petitioner, the petition shall also contain the name and residence address, if known, of any adult relative residing within the county, or, if there are none, the adult relative residing nearest to the location of the court.

(f) A concise statement of facts, separately stated, to support the conclusion that the minor upon whose behalf the petition is being brought is a person within the definition of each of the sections and subdivisions under which the proceedings are being instituted.

(g) The fact that the minor upon whose behalf the petition is brought is detained in custody or is not detained in custody, and if he or she is detained in custody, the date and the precise time the minor was taken into custody.

(h) A notice to the father, mother, spouse, or other person liable for support of the minor child, that: (1) Section 903 may make that person, the estate of that person, and the estate of the minor child, liable for the cost of the care, support, and maintenance of the minor child in any county institution or any other place in which the child is placed, detained, or committed pursuant to an order of the juvenile court; (2) Section 903.1 may make that person, the estate of that person, and the estate of the minor child, liable for the cost to the county of legal services rendered to the minor by a private attorney or a public defender appointed pursuant to the order of the juvenile court; (3) Section 903.2 may make that person, the estate of that person, and the estate of the minor child, liable for the cost to the county of the probation supervision of the minor child by the probation officer pursuant to the order of the juvenile court; and (4) the liabilities established by these sections are joint and several.

(i) In a proceeding alleging that the minor comes within Section 601, notice to the parent, guardian, or other person having control or charge of the minor that failure to comply with the compulsory school attendance laws is an infraction, which may be charged and prosecuted before the juvenile court judge sitting as a municipal court judge. In those cases, the petition shall also include notice that the parent, guardian, or other person having control or charge of the minor has the right to a hearing on the infraction before a judge different than the judge who has heard or is to hear the proceeding pursuant to Section 601. The notice shall explain the provisions of Section 170.6 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(j) If a proceeding is pending against a minor child for a violation of Section 594.2, 640.5, 640.6, or 640.7 of the Penal Code, a notice to the parent or legal guardian of the minor that if the minor is found to have violated either or both of these provisions that (1) any community service which may be required of the minor may be performed in the presence, and under the direct supervision, of the parent or legal guardian pursuant to either or both of these provisions; and (2) if the minor is personally unable to pay any fine levied for the violation of either or both of these provisions, that the parent or legal guardian of the minor shall be liable for payment of the fine pursuant to those sections.

(k) A notice to the parent or guardian of the minor that if the minor is ordered to make restitution to the victim pursuant to Section 729.6, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, Section 731.1, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, or Section 730.6, or to pay fines or penalty assessments, the parent or guardian may be liable for the payment of restitution, fines, or penalty assessments.

SEC. 34. Section 729.7 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

729.7. At the request of the victim, the probation officer shall assist in mediating a service contract between the victim and the minor under which the amount of restitution owed to the victim by the minor pursuant to Section 729.6, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, or Section 730.6 may be paid by performance of specified services. If the court approves of the contract, the court may make performance of services under the terms of the contract a condition of probation. Successful performance of service shall be credited as payment of restitution in accordance with the terms of the contract approved by the court.

SEC. 35. Section 730.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

730.6. (a) (1) It is the intent of the Legislature that a victim of conduct for which a minor is found to be a person described in Section 602 who incurs any economic loss as a result of the minor's conduct shall receive restitution directly from that minor.

(2) Upon a minor being found to be a person described in Section 602, the court shall consider levying a fine in accordance with Section 730.5. In addition, the court shall order the minor to pay, in addition to any other penalty provided or imposed under the law, both of the following:

(A) A restitution fine in accordance with subdivision (b).

(B) Restitution to the victim or victims, if any, in accordance with subdivision (h).

(b) In every case where a minor is found to be a person described in Section 602, the court shall impose a separate and additional restitution fine. The restitution fine shall be set at the discretion of the court and commensurate with the seriousness of the offense as follows:

(1) If the minor is found to be a person described in Section 602 by reason of the commission of one or more felony offenses, the restitution fine shall not be less than one hundred dollars ($100) and not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000). A separate hearing for the fine shall not be required.

(2) If the minor is found to be a person described in Section 602 by reason of the commission of one or more misdemeanor offenses, the restitution fine shall not exceed one hundred dollars ($100). A separate hearing for the fine shall not be required.

(c) The restitution fine shall be in addition to any other disposition or fine imposed and shall be imposed regardless of the minor's present ability to pay. This fine shall be deposited in the Restitution Fund, the proceeds of which shall be distributed pursuant to Section 13967 of the Government Code.

(d) (1) In setting the amount of the fine pursuant to subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the court shall consider any relevant factors including, but not limited to, the minor's ability to pay, the seriousness and gravity of the offense and the circumstances of its commission, any economic gain derived by the minor as a result of the offense, and the extent to which others suffered losses as a result of the offense. The losses may include pecuniary losses to the victim or his or her dependents as well as intangible losses such as psychological harm caused by the offense.

(2) The consideration of a minor's ability to pay may include his or her future earning capacity. A minor shall bear the burden of demonstrating a lack of his or her ability to pay.

(e) Express findings of the court as to the factors bearing on the amount of the fine shall not be required.

(f) Except as provided in subdivision (g), under no circumstances shall the court fail to impose the separate and additional restitution fine required by subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a). This fine shall not be subject to penalty assessments pursuant to Section 1464 of the Penal Code.

(g) In a case in which the minor is a person described in Section 602 by reason of having committed a felony offense, if the court finds that there are compelling and extraordinary reasons, the court may waive imposition of the restitution fine required by subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a). When a waiver is granted, the court shall state on the record all reasons supporting the waiver.

(h) Restitution ordered pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall be imposed in the amount of the losses, as determined. The court shall order full restitution unless it finds clear and compelling reasons for not doing so, and states them on the record. A restitution order pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), to the extent possible, shall be of a dollar amount sufficient to fully reimburse the victim or victims for all determined economic losses incurred as the result of the minor's conduct for which the minor was found to be a person described in Section 602, including all of the following:

(1) Full or partial payment for the value of stolen or damaged property. The value of stolen or damaged property shall be the replacement cost of like property, or the actual cost of repairing the property when repair is possible.

(2) Medical expenses.

(3) Wages or profits lost due to injury incurred by the victim, and if the victim is a minor, wages or profits lost by the minor's parent, parents, guardian, or guardians, while caring for the injured minor.

(4) Wages or profits lost by the victim, and if the victim is a minor, wages or profits lost by the minor's parent, parents, guardian, or guardians, due to time spent as a witness or in assisting the police or prosecution.

(i) A restitution order imposed pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) shall identify the losses to which it pertains, and shall be enforceable as a civil judgment. The making of a restitution order pursuant to this subdivision shall not affect the right of a victim to recovery from the Restitution Fund in the manner provided elsewhere, except to the extent that restitution is actually collected pursuant to the order. Restitution collected pursuant to this subdivision shall be credited to any other judgments for the same losses obtained against the minor arising out of the offense for which the minor was found to be a person described in Section 602.

(j) For purposes of this section, "victim" shall include the immediate surviving family of the actual victim.

(k) Nothing in this section shall prevent a court from ordering restitution to any corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, association, joint venture, government, governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality, or any other legal or commercial entity when that entity is a direct victim of an offense.

(l) Upon a minor being found to be a person described in Section 602, the court shall require as a condition of probation the payment of restitution fines and orders imposed under this section.

(m) Probation shall not be revoked for failure of a person to make restitution pursuant to this section as a condition of probation unless the court determines that the person has willfully failed to pay or failed to make sufficient bona fide efforts to legally acquire the resources to pay.

(n) If the court finds and states on the record compelling and extraordinary reasons why restitution should not be required as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a), the court shall order, as a condition of probation, that the minor perform specified community service.

(o) The court may avoid ordering community service as a condition of probation only if it finds and states on the record compelling and extraordinary reasons not to order community service in addition to the finding that restitution pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) should not be required.

(p) When a minor is committed to the Department of the Youth Authority, the court shall order restitution to be paid to the victim or victims, if any. Payment of restitution to the victim or victims pursuant to this subdivision shall take priority in time over payment of any other restitution fine imposed pursuant to this section.

(q) At its discretion, the board of supervisors of any county may impose a fee to cover the actual administrative cost of collecting the restitution fine, not to exceed 10 percent of the amount ordered to be paid, to be added to the restitution fine and included in the order of the court, the proceeds of which shall be deposited in the general fund of the county.

SEC. 36. Section 1752.82 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

1752.82. (a) Whenever an adult or minor is committed to or housed in a Youth Authority facility and he or she owes restitution to a victim or a restitution fine imposed pursuant to Section 13967, as operative on or before September 28, 1994, of the Government Code, or Section 1202.4 of the Penal Code, or Section 1203.04, as operative on or before August 2, 1994, of the Penal Code, or pursuant to Section 729.6, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, Section 730.6 or 731.1, as operative on or before August 2, 1995, the director may deduct a reasonable amount not to exceed 50 percent from the wages of that adult or minor and the amount so deducted, exclusive of the costs of administering this section, which shall be retained by the director, shall be transferred to the State Board of Control for deposit in the Restitution Fund in the State Treasury in the case of a restitution fine, or, in the case of a restitution order, and upon the request of the victim, shall be paid directly to the victim. Any amount so deducted shall be credited against the amount owing on the fine or to the victim. The committing court shall be provided a record of any payments.

(b) A victim who has requested that restitution payments be paid directly to him or her pursuant to subdivision (a) shall provide a current address to the Youth Authority to enable the Youth Authority to send restitution payments collected on the victim's behalf to the victim.

(c) In the case of a restitution order, whenever the victim has died, cannot be located, or has not requested the restitution payment, the director may deduct a reasonable amount not to exceed 50 percent of the wages of that adult or minor and the amount so deducted, exclusive of the costs of administering this section, which shall be retained by the director, shall be transferred to the State Board of Control, pursuant to subdivision (d), after one year has elapsed from the time the ward is discharged by the Youthful Offender Parole Board. Any amount so deducted shall be credited against the amount owing to the victim. The funds so transferred shall be deposited in the Restitution Fund.

(d) Where the Youth Authority has collected restitution payments on behalf of a victim, the victim shall request those payments no later than one year after the ward has been discharged by the Youthful Offender Parole Board. Any victim who fails to request those payments within that time period shall have relinquished all rights to the payments, unless he or she can show reasonable cause for failure to request those payments within that time period.

(e) The director shall transfer to the State Board of Control all restitution payments collected prior to the effective date of this section on behalf of victims who have died, cannot be located, or have not requested restitution payments. The State Board of Control shall deposit these amounts in the Restitution Fund.

(f) For purposes of this section, "victim" includes a victim's immediate surviving family member, on whose behalf restitution has been ordered.

SEC. 37. Section 1766.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

1766.1. When permitting an adult or minor committed to the Youth Authority his or her liberty pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1766, the Youthful Offender Parole Board shall impose as a condition thereof that the adult or minor pay in full any restitution fine or restitution order imposed pursuant to Section 13967, as operative on or before September 28, 1994, of the Government Code, or Section 1202.4 of the Penal Code, or Section 1203.4, as operative on or before August 2, 1994, of the Penal Code, or Section 730.6 or 731.1, as operative on or before August 2, 1995.
