CHAPTER 597

An act to amend Sections 7260, 7262.5, and 7264 of the Government Code, relating to housing.

[Approved by Governor October 1, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 3, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7260 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7260. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Public entity" includes the state, the Regents of the University of California, a county, city, city and county, district, public authority, public agency, and any other political subdivision or public corporation in the state or any entity acting on behalf of these agencies when acquiring real property, or any interest therein, in any city or county for public use and any person who has the authority to acquire property by eminent domain under state law.

(b) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, or association.

(c) (1) "Displaced person" means both of the following:

(A) Any person who moves from real property, or who moves his or her personal property from real property, either:

(i) As a direct result of a written notice of intent to acquire or the acquisition of the real property, in whole or in part, for a program or project undertaken by a public entity or by any person having an agreement with or acting on behalf of a public entity.

(ii) As a direct result of the rehabilitation, demolition, or other displacing activity as the public entity may prescribe under a program or project undertaken by a public entity, of real property on which the person is a residential tenant or conducts a business or farm operation, in any case in which the public entity determines that the displacement is permanent. For purposes of this subparagraph, "residential tenant" includes any occupant of a residential hotel unit, as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 50669 of the Health and Safety Code, and any occupant of employee housing, as defined in Section 17008 of the Health and Safety Code, but shall not include any person who has been determined to be in unlawful occupancy of the displacement dwelling.

(B) Solely for the purposes of Sections 7261 and 7262, any person who moves from real property, or moves his or her personal property from real property, either:

(i) As a direct result of a written notice of intent to acquire or the acquisition of other real property, in whole or in part, on which the person conducts a business or farm operation, for a program or project undertaken by a public entity.

(ii) As a direct result of the rehabilitation, demolition, or other displacing activity as the public entity may prescribe under a program or project undertaken by a public entity, of other real property on which the person conducts a business or farm operation, in any case in which the public entity determines that the displacement is permanent.

(2) The definition contained in this subdivision shall be construed so that persons displaced as a result of public action receive relocation benefits in cases where they are displaced as a result of an owner participation agreement or an acquisition carried out by a private person for or in connection with a public use where the public entity is otherwise empowered to acquire the property to carry out the public use. Except persons or families of low and moderate income, as defined in Section 50093 of the Health and Safety Code, who are occupants of housing which was made available to them on a permanent basis by a public agency and who are required to move from the housing, a "displaced person" shall not include any of the following:

(A) Any person who has been determined to be in unlawful occupancy of the displacement dwellings.

(B) Any person whose right of possession at the time of moving arose after the date of the public entity's acquisition of the real property.

(C) Any person who has occupied the real property for the purpose of obtaining assistance under this chapter.

(D) In any case in which the public entity acquires property for a program or project (other than a person who was an occupant of the property at the time it was acquired), any person who occupies the property for a period subject to termination when the property is needed for the program or project.

(3) (A) Notwithstanding Section 7265.3 or any other provision of law, a person who is temporarily displaced for not more than 180 days, and who is offered occupancy of a comparable replacement unit located within the same apartment complex that contains the unit from which he or she has been displaced, shall not be deemed a "displaced person" for the purposes of this chapter. This paragraph shall be applicable only if all of the following conditions are complied with:

(i) All other financial benefits and services otherwise required under this chapter are provided to the tenants temporarily displaced from their units.

(ii) The resident is offered the right to return to his or her original unit, with rent for the first 12 months subsequent to that return being the lower of the following: up to 5 percent higher than the rent at the time of displacement; or up to 30 percent of household income.

(iii) The temporary unit is not unreasonably impacted by the effects of the construction, taking into consideration the ages and physical conditions of the members of the displaced household, and the estimated period of displacement is reasonable.

(iv) The property is a qualified affordable housing preservation project.

(B) For the purposes of this paragraph:

(i) "Apartment complex" means four or more residential rental units subject to common ownership and financing that are also located on the same or contiguous parcels.

(ii) "Qualified affordable housing preservation project" is any complex of four or more units whose owners enter into a recorded regulatory agreement, having a term for the useful life of the project, with any entity for the provision of project rehabilitation financing. For this purpose, the regulatory agreement shall require of the owner and all successors and assigns of the owner, as long as the regulatory agreement is in effect, that at least 49 percent of the tenants in the project shall have, at the time of the recordation of the regulatory agreement required by this section, incomes not in excess of 60 percent of the area median income, adjusted by household size, as determined by the appropriate agency of the State of California. In addition, a project shall be defined as a qualified affordable housing preservation project only if the beneficiary of the regulatory agreement elects this designation by so indicating on the regulatory agreement.

(d) "Business" means any lawful activity, except a farm operation, conducted for any of the following:

(1) Primarily for the purchase, sale, lease, or rental of personal and real property, and for the manufacture, processing, or marketing of products, commodities, or any other personal property.

(2) Primarily for the sale of services to the public.

(3) Primarily by a nonprofit organization.

(4) Solely for the purpose of Section 7262 for assisting in the purchase, sale, resale, manufacture, processing, or marketing of products, commodities, personal property, or services by the erection and maintenance of an outdoor advertising display, whether or not the display is located on the premises on which any of the above activities are conducted.

(e) "Farm operation" means any activity conducted solely or primarily for the production of one or more agricultural products or commodities, including timber, for sale or home use, and customarily producing these products or commodities in sufficient quantity to be capable of contributing materially to the operator's support.

(f) "Affected property" means any real property which actually declines in fair market value because of acquisition by a public entity for public use of other real property and a change in the use of the real property acquired by the public entity.

(g) "Public use" means a use for which real property may be acquired by eminent domain.

(h) "Mortgage" means classes of liens that are commonly given to secure advances on, or the unpaid purchase price of, real property, together with the credit instruments, if any, secured thereby.

(i) "Comparable replacement dwelling" means any dwelling that is all of the following:

(1) Decent, safe, and sanitary.

(2) Adequate in size to accommodate the occupants.

(3) In the case of a displaced person who is a renter, within the financial means of the displaced person. A comparable replacement dwelling is within the financial means of a displaced person if the monthly rental cost of the dwelling, including estimated average monthly utility costs, minus any replacement housing payment available to the person does not exceed 30 percent of the person's average monthly income, unless the displaced person meets one or more of the following conditions, in which case the payment of the monthly rental cost of the comparable replacement dwelling, including estimated average monthly utility costs, minus any replacement housing payment available to the person shall not exceed 25 percent of the person's average monthly income:

(A) Prior to January 1, 1998, the displaced person received a notice to vacate from a public entity, or from a person having an agreement with a public entity.

(B) The displaced person resides on property that was acquired by a public entity, or by a person having an agreement with a public entity, prior to January 1, 1998.

(C) Prior to January 1, 1998, a public entity, or a person having an agreement with a public entity, initiated negotiations to acquire the property on which the displaced person resides.

(D) Prior to January 1, 1998, a public entity, or a person having an agreement with a public entity, entered into an agreement to acquire the property on which the displaced person resides.

(E) Prior to January 1, 1998, a public entity, or a person having an agreement with a public entity, gave written notice of intent to acquire the property on which the displaced person resides.

(F) The displaced person is covered by, or resides in an area or project covered by, a final relocation plan that was adopted by the legislative body prior to January 1, 1998, pursuant to this chapter and the regulations promulgated thereunder.

(G) The displaced person is covered by, or resides in an area or project covered by, a proposed relocation plan that was required to have been submitted prior to January 1, 1998, to the Department of Housing and Community Development or to a local relocation committee, or for which notice was required to have been provided to occupants of the property prior to January 1, 1998, pursuant to this chapter and the regulations promulgated thereunder.

(H) The displaced person is covered by, or resides in an area or project covered by, a proposed relocation plan that was submitted prior to January 1, 1998, to the Department of Housing and Community Development or to a local relocation committee, or for which notice was provided to the public or to occupants of the property prior to January 1, 1998, pursuant to this chapter and the regulations promulgated thereunder, and the person is eventually displaced by the project covered in the proposed relocation plan.

(I) The displaced person resides on property for which a contract for acquisition, rehabilitation, demolition, construction, or other displacing activity was entered into by a public entity, or by a person having an agreement with a public entity, prior to January 1998.

(J) The displaced person resides on property where an owner participation agreement, or other agreement between a public entity and a private party that will result in the acquisition, rehabilitation, demolition, or development of the property or other displacement, was entered into prior to January 1, 1998, and the displaced person resides in the property at the time of the agreement, provides information to the public entity, or person having an agreement with the public entity showing that he or she did reside in the property at the time of the agreement and is eventually displaced by the project covered in the agreement.

(4) Comparable with respect to the number of rooms, habitable space, and type and quality of construction. Comparability under this paragraph shall not require strict adherence to a detailed, feature-by-feature comparison. While a comparable replacement dwelling need not possess every feature of the displacement dwelling, the principal features shall be present.

(5) In an area not subject to unreasonable adverse environmental conditions.

(6) In a location generally not less desirable than the location of the displaced persons dwelling with respect to public utilities, facilities, services, and the displaced person's place of employment.

(j) "Displacing agency" means any public entity or person carrying out a program or project which causes a person to be a displaced person for a public project.

(k) "Appraisal" means a written statement independently and impartially prepared by a qualified appraiser setting forth an opinion of defined value of an adequately described property as of a specific date, supported by the presentation and analysis of relevant market information.

(l) "Small business" means a business as defined in Part 24 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(m) "Lead agency" means the Department of Housing and Community Development.

SEC. 2. Section 7262.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7262.5. (a) Notwithstanding Section 7265.3 or any other provision of law, tenants residing in any multifamily rental project of four or more units who are displaced from the project for a period of 180 days or less as part of a rehabilitation of that project, that is funded in whole or in part by a public entity, shall not be deemed permanently displaced if all of the following criteria are satisfied:

(1) All other financial benefits and services otherwise required under this chapter are provided to the tenants temporarily displaced from their units, including relocation to a comparable replacement unit.

(2) The resident is offered the right to return to his or her original unit, with rent for the first 12 months subsequent to that return being the lower of the following: up to 5 percent higher than the rent at the time of displacement; or up to 30 percent of household income.

(3) The estimated time of displacement is reasonable, and the project is a qualified affordable housing preservation project.

(b) For the purposes of this section, "qualified affordable housing preservation project" shall have the meaning set forth in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) of Section 7260.

SEC. 3. Section 7264 of the Government Code is amended to read:

7264. (a) In addition to the payments required by Section 7262, as a part of the cost of acquisition, the public entity shall make a payment to any displaced person displaced from any dwelling not eligible to receive a payment under Section 7263 which was actually and lawfully occupied by the person as a permanent or customary and usual place of abode for not less than 90 days prior to the initiation of negotiation by the public entity for the acquisition of the dwelling, or in any case in which displacement is not a direct result of acquisition, or any other event which the public entity shall prescribe.

(b) The payment, not to exceed five thousand two hundred fifty dollars ($5,250), shall be the additional amount which is necessary to enable the person to lease or rent a comparable replacement dwelling for a period not to exceed 42 months, unless the displaced person meets one or more of the conditions set forth in paragraph (3) of subdivision (i) of Section 7260, in which case the payment, which shall not exceed five thousand two hundred fifty dollars ($5,250), shall be the additional amount which is necessary to enable the person to lease or rent a comparable replacement dwelling for a period not to exceed 48 months. However, publicly funded transportation projects shall make payments enabling the person to lease or rent a comparable replacement dwelling for a period not to exceed 42 months, including compensation for utilities, as provided in subdivision (b) of Section 24.402 of Part 24 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations. Payments up to the maximum of five thousand two hundred fifty dollars ($5,250) shall be made in a lump sum. Should an agency pay pursuant to Section 7264.5 an amount exceeding the maximum amount, payment may be made periodically. Computation of a payment under this subdivision to a low-income displaced person for a comparable replacement dwelling shall take into account the person's income.

(c) Any person eligible for a payment under subdivision (a) may elect to apply the payment to a downpayment on, and other incidental expenses pursuant to, the purchase of a decent, safe, and sanitary replacement dwelling. The person may, at the discretion of the public entity, be eligible under this subdivision for the maximum payment allowed under subdivision (b), except that, in the case of a displaced homeowner who has owned and occupied the displacement dwelling for at least 90 days but not more than 180 days immediately prior to the initiation of negotiations for the acquisition of the dwelling, the payment shall not exceed the payment which the person would otherwise have received under subdivision (b) of Section 7263 had the person owned and occupied the displacement dwelling 180 days immediately prior to the initiation of the negotiations.

(d) In implementing this chapter, it is the intent of the Legislature that special consideration shall be given to assisting any displaced person 62 years of age or older to locate or lease or rent a comparable replacement dwelling.

SEC. 4. The amendments to Sections 7260, 7262.5, and 7264, made by this act shall apply prospectively only from January 1, 1998, and shall apply only to the extent that they do not adversely affect existing rights of persons or households entitled to benefits under this chapter on or before December 31, 1997.

An act to repeal Part 4 (commencing with Section 330.24) of Division 1 of the Civil Code, to amend Sections 7312 and 25100 of, and to add Part 7 (commencing with Section 14300), Part 8 (commencing with Section 14350), Part 9 (commencing with Section 14400), Part 10 (commencing with Section 14450), Part 11 (commencing with Section 14500), and Part 12 (commencing with Section 14550) to Division 3 of Title 1 of, the Corporations Code, to amend Section 25988 of the Health and Safety Code, and to amend Sections 597d, 597z, 11105, 11165.16, 12031, and 12583 of the Penal Code, relating to corporations.

[Approved by Governor October 1, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 3, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Part 4 (commencing with Section 330.24) of Division 1 of the Civil Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 7312 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

7312. No person may hold more than one membership, and no fractional memberships may be held, provided, however, that:

(a) Two or more persons may have an indivisible interest in a single membership when authorized by, and in a manner or under the circumstances prescribed by, the articles or bylaws subject to Section 7612.

(b) If the articles or bylaws provide for classes of membership and if the articles or bylaws permit a person to be a member of more than one class, a person may hold a membership in one or more classes.

(c) Any branch, division, or office of any person, which is not formed primarily to be a member, may hold a separate membership.

(d) In the case of membership in an owners association, (as defined in Section 11003.1 of the Business and Professions Code, and created in connection with any of the forms of development referred to in Section 11004.5 of the Business and Professions Code) the articles or bylaws may permit a person who owns an interest, or who has a right of exclusive occupancy, in more than one lot, parcel, area, apartment, or unit to hold a separate membership in the owners' association for each lot, parcel, area, apartment, or unit.

(e) In the case of membership in a mutual water company, as defined in Section 14300 of the Corporations Code, the articles or bylaws may permit a person entitled to membership by reason of the ownership, lease, or right of occupancy of more than one lot, parcel, or other service unit to hold a separate membership in the mutual water company for each such lot, parcel, or other service unit.

(f) In the case of membership in a mobilehome park acquisition corporation, as described in Section 11010.8 of the Business and Professions Code, a bona fide secured party who has, pursuant to a security interest in a membership, taken title to the membership by way of foreclosure, repossession or voluntary repossession, and who is actively attempting to resell the membership to a prospective homeowner or resident of the mobilehome park, may own more than one membership.

SEC. 3. Part 7 (commencing with Section 14300) is added to Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, to read:

PART 7. GENERAL PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO CERTAIN CORPORATIONS

CHAPTER 1. WATER COMPANIES

14300. Any corporation organized for or engaged in the business of selling, distributing, supplying or delivering water for irrigation purposes may provide, and any corporation organized for or engaged in the business of selling, distributing, supplying, or delivering water for domestic use shall provide, in its articles or bylaws that water shall be sold, distributed, supplied or delivered only to owners of its shares and that the shares shall be appurtenant to certain lands when the same are described in the certificate issued therefor; and when the certificate is so issued and a certified copy of the articles or bylaws recorded in the office of the county recorder in the county where the lands are situated the shares of stock shall become appurtenant to the lands and shall only be transferred therewith, except after sale or forfeiture for delinquent assessments thereon as provided in Section 14303. Notwithstanding this provision in its articles or bylaws, any such corporation may sell water to the state, or any department or agency thereof, or to any school district, or to any public agency, or, to any other mutual water company or, during any emergency resulting from fire or other disaster involving danger to public health or safety, to any person at the same rates as to holders of shares of the corporations; and provided further, that any corporation may enter into a contract with a county fire protection district to furnish water to fire hydrants and for fire suppression or fire prevention purposes at a flat rate per hydrant or other connection. In the event lands to which any stock is appurtenant are owned or purchased by the state, or any department or agency thereof, or any school district, or public agency, the stock shall be canceled by the secretary, but shall be reissued to any person later acquiring title to the land from the state department, agency, or school district, or public agency.

14301. A corporation, including a nonprofit corporation organized for or engaged in the business of developing, distributing, supplying, or delivering water for irrigation or domestic use, or both, may provide in its articles, or may amend its articles to provide, that its only purpose shall be to develop, distribute, supply, or deliver water for irrigation or domestic use, or both, to its members or shareholders, at actual cost plus necessary expenses.

The amendment of the articles may be accomplished by:

(a) The passage by a three-fourths vote of the members of the board of directors of the corporation of a resolution adopting as the purpose of the corporation the purpose set forth in this section.

(b) The signing, verification, and filing of a certificate setting forth the resolution and the manner of its adoption.

The corporation shall not distribute any gains, profits, or dividends to its members or shareholders except upon the dissolution of the corporation.

14302. Whenever the owner of real property to which water stock by the terms of the certificate thereof is appurtenant at the time of conveyance, by properly executed conveyance, transfers to another the real property with the appurtenances belonging to the property, or whenever title to the property passes by execution sale, or by foreclosure or probate proceedings, the secretary of the water company that issued the stock shall, upon exhibition to him or her of a deed of the land duly recorded, or the necessary court order duly recorded, issue to the grantee named in the conveyance a new certificate of stock for the number of shares appurtenant to the land as shown by the books and records of the company. The secretary of the water company shall enter the name of the grantee upon the books of the company as the owner of the shares of stock and shall cancel on the books the number of former shares of stock so appurtenant to the land in the name of the grantor or of any previous owner of the land, or of any other person.

14303. A corporation organized for or engaged in the business of selling, distributing, supplying, or delivering water for irrigation purposes or domestic use, and not as a public utility, may levy assessments upon its shares, whether or not fully paid, unless otherwise provided in its articles or bylaws. If any shares of the corporation that have been made appurtenant to any land as provided in this chapter, become delinquent in the payment of assessments, the right to receive water or dividends thereon may be denied, and they may be sold and transferred without those lands as if not appurtenant thereto, and the purchaser shall acquire the right to receive water as provided in the articles or bylaws of the corporation, or they may be forfeited to the corporation.

CHAPTER 2. MUTUAL WATER COMPANIES FORMED IN CONNECTION WITH SUBDIVIDED LANDS

14310. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature to ensure both of the following:

(1) That when a mutual water company is formed or is about to be formed in connection with a subdivision, as defined in Sections 11000 and 11004.5 of the Business and Professions Code, an adequate potable water supply and distribution system exists for domestic use and fire protection.

(2) That adequate disclosure and protection to the security holders exist with respect to rights and duties arising from their security holdings in a mutual water company.

(b) For purposes of this chapter, the use of the term "subdivision" has the same definition as "subdivision" as defined in Sections 11000 and 11004.5 of the Business and Professions Code.

14311. A mutual water company formed on or after January 1, 1998, in connection with the offering for sale or lease, or with the sale or lease, of lots within a subdivision and organized to sell, distribute, supply, or deliver water for domestic use to owners of lots in the subdivision shall meet all the requirements of this chapter. A mutual water company described in this section and formed before January 1, 1998, may elect to meet all the requirements of this chapter.

14312. (a) Any person who intends to offer for sale or lease lots within a subdivision within this state and to provide water for domestic use to purchasers of the lots within a subdivision through the formation of a mutual water corporation described in Section 14311, shall include as part of the application for a public report, as described in Section 11010 of the Business and Professions Code, a separate document containing all the following information, representations, and assurances:

(1) That the provisions of this chapter have been complied with.

(2) That the area in which the mutual water company proposes to deliver water encompasses and includes the entire subdivision, and when applicable, will include parcels to be annexed to the subdivision.

(3) That the mutual water company contacted the Public Utilities Commission and the county local agency formation commission to determine if the proposed area described in paragraph (2) will overlap an existing water service area or if an existing water service area could more appropriately serve the subdivision.

(4) That the mutual water company has a source of, and title to, a water supply, distribution, and fire protection system sufficient to satisfy expected demands for water from the subdivision.

(5) That copies of the contracts and other documents relating to the acquisition by the mutual water company of the water supply, distribution, and fire protection system have been delivered to, and are on file with, the mutual water company and that these contracts and documents evidence the mutual water company's title to the water supply, distribution, and fire protection system.

(6) That the subdivider or applicant has executed and entered into a written contract with the mutual water company wherein the subdivider or applicant has agreed to pay monthly a proportional part of the repair and replacement fund according to a ratio of the number of lots owned or controlled by the subdivider or applicant to the total number of lots in the subdivision.

(7) That an engineer's report has been prepared in accordance with this chapter and Sections 260.504.2 to 260.504.2.4, inclusive, of Title 10 of the California Code of Regulations and is on file with the mutual water company.

(8) That the mutual water company will distribute potable water for domestic use and has obtained, and has on file, a copy of the certificate of the Director of Public Health, as required by Sections 116300 to 116385, inclusive, of the Health and Safety Code.

(9) That the securities of the mutual benefit water corporation will be sold or issued only to purchasers of lots in the subdivision, or to successors in interest of purchasers of lots in the subdivision, and not sold or issued to the subdivider, applicant, or to the successor in interest of the subdivider or applicant, and that the securities shall be sold or issued only after a public report for the subdivision has been issued by the Real Estate Commissioner.

(10) That the securities to be issued by the mutual water company are appurtenant to the land pursuant to Section 14300.

(11) That the water supply and distribution system will serve each lot in the subdivision and be completed prior to the issuance of the public report by the Real Estate Commissioner.

(12) That there is a statement, signed by either the engineer who prepared the engineer's report referred to in paragraph (7) or a person employed or acting on behalf of a public agency or other independent qualified person, that the water supply and distribution system has been examined and tested and that the water supply and distribution system operates in accordance with the design standards of the water supply and distribution system required by this chapter, and that a copy of this statement is on file with the mutual water company.

(13) That the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the mutual water company contain all of the following:

(A) A statement to the effect that the mutual water company shall provide water to all members or shareholders. If there will be an owners' association of the subdivision, an additional statement that water shall also be provided to the common areas.

(B) A provision directing the board of directors to establish a rate structure that will result in the accumulation and maintenance of a fund for the repair, administration, maintenance, and replacement of the water supply, distribution, and fire protection system, that the rate charged shall bear a reasonable relationship to the cost of furnishing water and maintaining the system, and that unimproved lots included within the area to be served shall bear a proportionate share of the cost of repair and replacement of the water supply, distribution, and fire protection system, as well as a proportionate share of the cost of maintaining the fund.

(C) A statement evidencing a reasonable relationship between each unit of the securities to be issued and each unit of the area to be served such as one share of common stock issued for each subdivision lot purchased.

(E) A statement, meeting the requirements of Section 14300, that the securities are appurtenant to the land within the area to be served.

(F) Provision for the transfer of the securities, voting rights of the security holders, inspection of books and records by security holders, necessary or contemplated expansion of the facilities of the mutual water company, and further subdivision, where applicable, of the area to be served.

(G) The limitation on the salaries paid to the persons operating, or employed by, the mutual water company, including officers and directors.

(H) A provision for annual meetings of the security holders accompanied by a provision for adequate notice.

(I) A provision for the annual distribution to each security holder of fiscal yearend financial statements within 105 days of the close of the fiscal year.

(J) In the case of a mutual water company that purchases water for distribution from a public utility, municipal water company, or water district, a provision for charging all security holders a pro rata amount of the cost of water supplied to an entity providing fire protection service.

(K) A provision that a share certificate shall be issued to each lot purchased.

(L) In the case of a mutual water company serving a residential subdivision, the following statements: (i) the mutual water company shall be a separate corporation formed and organized for the purpose described in Section 14311; and (ii) if a shareholder becomes delinquent in paying assessments, the right to receive water or dividends may be denied or forfeited but those rights shall not be sold or transferred without the land.

(14) That an offering circular has been prepared and will be used in any offer and sale of the securities of the mutual water company.

(15) That the writings and documents evidencing compliance with all of the above provisions of this subdivision are on file as part of the permanent record of the mutual water company.

(b) The contracts and documents described in paragraph (5) of subdivision (a) shall include all of the following:

(1) Any bill of sale transferring all personal property used and usable in the operation of the mutual water company.

(2) A copy of any recorded deed to the wells and water tanks to be used by the mutual water company in the supply, distribution, and fire protection system.

(3) Copies of any recorded deeds granting easements for construction, repair, maintenance, and improvements of the water supply, distribution, and fire protection system.

(c) The written contract described in paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) shall provide that, in consideration of the transfer by the subdivider or applicant to the mutual water company of the water supply, distribution, and fire protection system, the mutual water company agrees to do all of the following:

(1) Sell and issue securities to the purchasers of the remaining lots in the subdivision on the same terms, except for price, if the difference is justified, for the initial purchasers.

(2) Cooperate with the subdivider or applicant in the operation, maintenance, and improvement of the present and contemplated water supply, distribution, and fire protection system.

(3) Contract with the subdivider, applicant, or a successor in interest, if a reasonable request is made to do so, for the management of the mutual water company for as long as lots in the subdivision remain unsold. The terms of the contract shall be subject to approval by the board of directors of the mutual water company, including terms related to the compensation to the subdivider, applicant, or successor in interest, if any.

(d) The offering circular described in paragraph (14) of subdivision (a) shall be delivered to each prospective purchaser of the securities and shall include, among other things, all of the following:

(2) A summary of the opinion of the engineer along with the engineer's consent, as required by Sections 260.504.2 to 260.504.2.4, inclusive, of Title 10 of the California Code of Regulations.

(4) A discussion of the rights and duties of the security holders of the mutual water company as set forth in its articles of incorporation and bylaws, including the consequence of failure to pay for water or assessments.

(5) The fact that the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide that the shares or securities of the mutual water company may not be sold separately from the right to water evidenced by the security of the mutual water company and prohibit issuance of fractional shares or securities of the mutual water company.

(6) A discussion of the certificate issued by the Director of Public Health certifying that the water is fit for domestic use.

(7) The limitation imposed on salaries to be paid to personnel operating, or employed by, the mutual water company, including officers and directors.

(8) A discussion of the transferability of the securities, the voting rights of the security holders, access to books and records, necessary or contemplated expansion of the facilities of the mutual water company, and further subdivision of the area to be served, if applicable.

(9) A discussion of the subdivider's duties with respect to maintenance and repair or replacement of the water supply, distribution, or fire protection system; and a discussion of the establishment and maintenance of the operating, repair, and replacement fund.

(e) The following exhibits shall also be attached to the offering circular:

(1) A copy of the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the mutual water company, including the articles or bylaws recorded under Section 14300.

(2) A copy of financial statements of the mutual water company. If the mutual water company has not yet commenced operations, a detailed operating budget for the first six months of operations should be included as an exhibit to the offering circular. The operating budget must include estimated monthly fees to be charged to the water users.

(3) A specimen certificate evidencing the security to be issued and meeting the requirements of Section 14300.

(f) The Real Estate Commissioner shall prescribe the form and content of the document required by this section.

14313. The engineer's report prepared pursuant to the document under Section 14312 shall contain all relevant information pertaining to the proposed water supply, distribution, and fire protection system, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) A system map of the area to be served showing all of the following:

(2) The number and location of lots into which the area is or can be subdivided and the location of the connection for water service.

(3) The location of all sources of supply, principal pumping stations, diversion works, water treatment and filter plants, and storage facilities.

(5) The location of all valves and gates, gauges, interconnections with other systems, and fire hydrants.

(7) The layout of all principal pumping stations and water treatment and filter plants to show size, location, and character of all major equipment, pipelines, connections, valves, and other equipment used in connection therewith.

(8) The date of construction and condition of all principal items of plant and extensions of all mains.

(b) A description of the sources of supply, including, in the case of wells, information on the depth, diameter, and casing of the well, and a statement indicating that the proposed water supply and distribution system complies with this section, supported by reports showing the sustained capacity of source of supply, or, if all or some water is to be obtained from another source, copies of contracts for obtaining such water, together with estimates of the present and ultimate water consumption in the area to be served.

(c) A statement indicating in detail the cost of the water supply, distribution, and fire protection system, and indicating the cost of any required repairs or replacement.

(d) An opinion by the engineer to the effect that the water supply, distribution, and fire protection system will adequately, dependably, and safely meet the total requirements for all water consumers under maximum consumption and will meet the requirements of Section 14314. The opinion shall have attached to it the calculations and data used in estimating the water requirements.

(e) A statement by the engineer of the estimated cost of maintenance of the system, the estimated useful life of the components of the system, the estimated cost of replacement of the system, and the monthly or annual amount which should be charged to establish a reasonable reserve for maintenance and replacement of the system based on these estimates.

14314. The water supply and distribution system of a mutual water company described in Section 14311 that proposes to distribute water for domestic use pursuant to this chapter shall comply with all of the following design standards:

(a) The system shall be adequate to maintain normal operating pressure of not less than 25 pounds per square inch, nor more than 125 pounds per square inch, at the service connection; provided, however, that during periods of hourly maximum demand, or at the time of peak seasonal loads, the pressure may be reduced to not less than 20 pounds per square inch, and during periods of hourly minimum demand the pressure may increase to not more than 150 pounds per square inch. Variations in pressure under normal operation shall not exceed 50 percent of the average operating pressure. The average operating pressure shall be determined by computing the arithmetical average of at least 24 consecutive hourly pressure readings.

(b) The quantity of water delivered to the distribution system from all source facilities shall be sufficient to supply adequately, dependably, and safely the total requirements of all water consumers under maximum consumption, and shall be sufficient to maintain the pressure specified by subdivision (a).

(c) The distribution system shall provide at least one connection per service and, to the extent feasible, shall be designed in a property segmented grid so as to do both of the following:

14315. (a) The mutual water company described in Section 14311 shall provide at least a minimum level of water service to its customers for fire protection purposes as an inherent part of the water system design in accordance with the standards set forth in this section. The standards set forth in this section are the minimum levels of water service that the mutual water company shall provide and shall not preclude the mutual water company from designing a fire protection system that meets higher standards, nor preclude any governmental agency from setting higher standards in any area subject to its jurisdiction. A mutual water company may request a fire protection agency to approve a fire protection system that does not meet the standards set forth in this chapter upon a showing by the mutual water company that the proposed system is adequate for fire protection purposes.

(b) In the initial construction, extension, or modification of a water system, any one of which is required to serve (1) a new user or (2) a change in use, the facilities constructed, extended, or modified shall be designed to be capable of providing, for a sustained period of at least two hours, in addition to the requirements of the average daily demand within the area to be served, the minimum flow requirements set forth below opposite the classification of land use to be served:

Land Use	Minimum Flow
1. Rural, residential with a lot density of two or fewer units per acre primarily for recreational and retirement use	250 gpm
2. Lot density of less than one single−family residential unit per acre	500 gpm
3. Lot density of one or two single−family residential units per acre	750 gpm
4. Lot density of three or more single−family residential units per acre	1,000 gpm
5. Duplex residential units, neighborhood business of one story	1,500 gpm
6. Multiple residential, one and two stories; light commercial or light industrial	2,000 gpm
7. Multiple residential, three stories or higher; heavy commercial or heavy industrial	2,500 gpm

14316. The water supply and distribution system of a mutual water company described in Section 14311 that proposes to distribute water for domestic use shall be constructed to conform with currently accepted engineering practices, and shall comply with the following construction standards where possible:

(a) Water mains to be installed below the frost level or otherwise protected to prevent freezing and shall not have less than 30 inches of cover over the top of the pipe in public streets or alleys except where such depth is rendered impossible by underground obstructions or rocky or hardpan conditions.

(b) The size, design, material, and installation of service pipes shall conform to the reasonable requirements of the mutual water company; provided, however, that the minimum size of the pipe shall be $^{3}/_{4}$ inch or greater nominal size. Except where services are not intended for use during freezing weather and arrangements are made to drain service pipes prior to freezing weather, and except at terminations in connection with the meter or water consumer's piping, all service pipes shall be laid at a depth sufficient to prevent freezing.

14317. The fire protection system of a mutual water company shall be constructed to conform with currently accepted engineering practices, and shall comply with the following construction standards:

(a) The flows set forth in Section 14315 shall be calculated on the basis of a residual pressure of 20 p.s.i.g. in the distribution system under flowing conditions.

(b) Fire hydrants shall be attached to the distribution systems at the locations designated by the entity responsible for their use for firefighting purposes. Any new mains to which a hydrant may be attached shall not be less than six inches in diameter.

(c) Each separately operated water system shall not have less than two independent sources of supply.

14318. The mutual water company shall be financially responsible for the maintenance, repair, or replacement of fire hydrants. A mutual water company shall perform and record annual flow tests pursuant to Section 14317 or, in lieu of the annual flow test under Section 14317, any test to determine available flow performed by a fire protection agency. The recorded test results shall become part of the mutual water company's books and records.

SEC. 4. Part 8 (commencing with Section 14350) is added to Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, to read:

PART 8. BRIDGE, FERRY, WHARF, CHUTE, AND PIER CORPORATIONS

14350. A corporation may not construct, or take tolls on, a bridge, ferry, wharf, chute, or pier until authority is granted therefor by the board of supervisors, or other governing body, as appropriate.

14351. Every corporation that has heretofore or may hereafter be incorporated may be dissolved under either of the following conditions:

(a) If within one year from filing its articles of incorporation, it has not obtained authority from the board of supervisors, or other governing body, and if, within one year thereafter, it has not commenced the construction of the bridge, wharf, chute, or pier, and if, within two years after obtaining authority, there has not been actually expended thereon a sum equal to at least 10 percent of the issued capital stock of the corporation obtaining authority.

(b) If within seven years from the time that authority to construct the bridge, wharf, chute, or pier was granted by the board of supervisors, or within that further time as the board may lawfully grant, the bridge, wharf, chute, or pier is not completed. However, the board of supervisors may from time to time by order extend the time of completion beyond seven years, if the actual and physical work of constructing the bridge, wharf, chute, or pier has been diligently prosecuted from the time of commencement thereof up to the time that application for the extension or extensions beyond seven years is presented to the board of supervisors.

(c) If, when the bridge, wharf, chute, or pier of the corporation is destroyed, it is not reconstructed and ready for use within three years thereafter.

(d) If the ferry of a corporation is not in running order within one year after authority is obtained to establish it, or if at any time thereafter it ceases for a like term consecutively to perform the duties imposed by law.

14352. The president and secretary of every bridge, ferry, wharf, chute, or pier corporation shall annually, under oath, report to the board of supervisors, or other governing body having authority in that behalf, of the county in which the articles of incorporation are filed all of the following:

(a) The cost of constructing and providing all necessary appendages and appurtenances for its bridge, ferry, wharf, chute, or pier.

(b) The amount of all moneys expended thereon, since its construction, for repairs and incidental expenses.

(c) The amount of its capital stock, how much paid in, and how much actually expended thereof.

(d) The amount received during the year for tolls, and from all other sources, stating each separately.

(e) The amount of dividends made, and the indebtedness of the corporation, specifying for what it was incurred.

(f) Other facts and particulars respecting the business of the corporation, as the board of supervisors or other governing body having authority in that behalf may require.

The president and secretary shall cause this report to be published for four weeks in a daily newspaper published nearest the bridge, ferry, wharf, pier, or chute, if required by order of the board of supervisors or other governing body having authority in that behalf. A failure to make the report subjects the corporation to a penalty of two hundred dollars ($200) and, for every week permitted to elapse after that failure, an additional penalty of fifty dollars ($50), payable in each case to the county from which the authority of the corporation was derived. All these cases shall be reported by the board of supervisors, or other governing body having authority in that behalf, to the district attorney or city attorney, who must commence an action therefor.

14353. When a bridge, ferry, wharf, chute, or pier is constructed, operated, or owned by a natural person, this part is applicable to that person in like manner as it is applicable to corporations.

SEC. 5. Part 9 (commencing with Section 14400) is added to Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, to read:

PART 9. CABLE TELEVISION CORPORATIONS

14400. Any person who willfully and maliciously does any injury to any property of a cable television corporation is liable to the corporation for three times the amount of actual damages sustained thereby, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

SEC. 6. Part 10 (commencing with Section 14450) is added to Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, to read:

PART 10. WATER AND CANAL CORPORATIONS

14450. No corporation formed to supply any city, city and county, or town with water shall do so unless previously authorized by an ordinance of the authorities thereof, or unless it is done in conformity with a contract entered into between the city, city and county, or town and the corporation. Contracts so made are valid and binding in law, but do not take from the city, city and county, or town the right to regulate the rates for water, nor shall any exclusive right be granted. No contract or grant shall be made for a term exceeding 50 years.

(b) (1) A corporation formed to supply water to cities or towns shall not charge, levy, assess, fix, or collect any charge, tax, fee, rate, assessment, or levy of any kind whatsoever in connection with its water system on or from any entity providing fire protection services to others for supplying water for those fire protection purposes within the service area of the corporation or for any costs of operation, installation, capital, maintenance, repair, alteration, or replacement of facilities related to supplying water for the fire protection purposes within the service area of the corporation, except pursuant to a written agreement with the entity providing fire protection services.

(2) Paragraph (1) of this subdivision does not restrict or limit a corporation formed to supply water to cities or towns from levying charges for water service or facilities, including water for fire protection purposes, on any person, property, or entity, whether public or private, other than on an entity providing fire protection service.

These charges shall be collected from other persons, property, or entities pursuant to existing provisions of law that authorize the charges, or from an entity providing fire protection services only pursuant to the written agreement authorizing the charges.

(3) For the purposes of this subdivision, "entity providing fire protection service" means a city, county, or city and county, whether general law or chartered, or a fire company, fire protection district, or any other person, association, company, corporation, district, municipal corporation, or any other public or private entity, which public or private entity or person provides fire protection services to any other public or private entity or person.

14452. Whenever any corporation, organized under the laws of this state, furnishes water to irrigate lands that the corporation has sold, the right to the flow and use of that water is and shall remain a perpetual easement to the land so sold, at any rates and terms that may be established by the corporation in pursuance of law. Whenever any person who is cultivating land on the line and within the flow of any ditch owned by the corporation, has been furnished water by it with which to irrigate his or her land, that person shall be entitled to the continued use of that water, upon the same terms as those who have purchased their land from the corporation.

SEC. 7. Part 11 (commencing with Section 14500) is added to Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, to read:

PART 11. SOCIETIES FOR THE PREVENTION OF CRUELTY TO CHILDREN AND ANIMALS

14500. This title extends to all corporations heretofore formed and existing for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, but do not extend or apply to any association, society, or corporation that uses or specifies a name or style of the same, or substantially the same, as that of any previously existing society or corporation in this state organized for a like purpose.

14501. Every society, incorporated and organized for the prevention of cruelty to animals, or for the prevention of cruelty to children, may, in each city, or city and county, or county, where the society exists, while actively engaged in enforcing the provisions of laws of this state, now or hereafter enacted, for the prevention of cruelty to animals, or children, or arresting, or prosecuting offenders thereunder or preventing cruelty to animals or children, be paid as compensation therefor, from the city or county, or city and county general fund, by the board of supervisors or other governing body thereof, a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) per calendar month, in the same manner as other claims against said city or county, or city and county, are paid.

14502. (a) (1) (A) (i) On and after July 1, 1996, no entity, other than a humane society or society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, shall be eligible to apply for an appointment of any individual as a level 1 or level 2 humane officer, the duty of which shall be the enforcement of the laws for the prevention of cruelty to animals.

(ii) On and after July 1, 1996, only a person who meets the requirements of this section may be appointed as, or perform the duties of, a humane officer.

(iii) Any person appointed as a humane officer prior to July 1, 1996, may continue to serve as a humane officer until the expiration of the term of appointment only if the appointing agency maintains records pursuant to subparagraph (C) documenting that both the appointing agency and the humane officer meet the requirements of this section.

(B) Each humane society or society for the prevention of cruelty to animals that makes application to the court for the appointment of an individual to act as a level 1 or level 2 humane officer for the humane society or society for the prevention of cruelty to animals shall provide with the application documentation that demonstrates that the person has satisfactorily completed the training requirements set forth in subdivision (i).

(C) Each humane society or society for the prevention of cruelty to animals for which an individual is acting as a level 1 or level 2 humane officer shall maintain complete and accurate records documenting that the individual has successfully completed all requirements established in this section and shall make those records available, upon request, to the superior court, the Attorney General, or any entity duly authorized to review that information, including the State Humane Association of California. The records shall include the full name and address of each level 1 or level 2 humane officer.

(2) Any corporation incorporated for the purpose of the prevention of cruelty to animals that possesses insurance of at least one million dollars ($1,000,000) for liability for bodily injury or property damage may, six months after the date of its incorporation and by resolution of its board of directors or trustees duly entered on its minutes, appoint any number of persons, who shall be citizens of the State of California, as humane officers, provided that the individuals to be appointed have met the training guidelines set forth in subdivision (i).

(3) Each appointment of a humane officer shall be by separate resolution. The resolution shall state the full name and address of the appointing agency, the full name of the person so appointed, and the fact that he or she is a citizen of the State of California, and shall also designate the number of the badge to be allotted to the officer.

(b) The humane society or society for the prevention of cruelty to animals shall recommend any appointee to the judge of the superior court in and for the county or city and county in which the humane society is incorporated, and shall deliver to the judge a copy of the resolution appointing the person, duly certified to be correct by the president and secretary of the corporation and attested by its seal, together with the fingerprints of the appointee taken on standard 8×8-inch cards, proof of the society's proper incorporation in compliance with Part 9 (commencing with Section 10400) of Division 2, a copy of the society's liability for bodily injury or property damage insurance policy in the amount of at least one million dollars ($1,000,000), and documentation establishing that the appointee has satisfactorily completed the training requirements set forth in this section.

(c) The judge shall send a copy of the resolution, together with the fingerprints of the appointee, to the Department of Justice, which shall thereupon submit to the judge, in writing, a report of the record in its possession, if any, of the appointee. If the Department of Justice has no record of the appointee, it shall so report to the judge in writing.

(d) Upon receipt of the report the judge shall review the matter of the appointee's qualifications and fitness to act as a humane officer and, if he or she reaffirms the appointment, shall so state on a court order confirming the appointment. The appointee shall thereupon file a certified copy of the reviewed court order in the office of the county clerk of the county or city and county and shall, at the same time, take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed for constables or other peace officers.

(e) The county clerk shall thereupon immediately enter in a book to be kept in his or her office and designated "Record of Humane Officers" the name of the officer, the name of the agency appointing him or her, the number of his or her badge, the name of the judge appointing him or her, and the date of the filing. At the time of the filing the county clerk shall collect from the officer a fee of five dollars ($5), which shall be in full for all services to be performed by the county clerk under this section.

(f) All appointments of humane officers shall automatically expire if the society disbands or legally dissolves. In addition, all appointments of humane officers shall automatically expire within three years from the date on which the certified copy of the court order was filed with the county clerk. Officers whose appointments are about to expire may only be reappointed after satisfactorily completing the continuing education and training set forth in this section.

(g) (1) The corporation appointing an officer may revoke an appointment at any time by filing in the office of the county clerk in which the appointment of the officer is recorded a copy of the revocation in writing under the letterhead of the corporation and duly certified by its executive officer. Upon the filing the county clerk shall enter the fact of the revocation and the date of the filing thereof opposite the name of the officer in the record of humane officers.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), a revocation hearing may be initiated by petition from any duly authorized sheriff or local police agency or the State Humane Association of California. The petition shall show cause why an appointment should be revoked and shall be made to the superior court in the jurisdiction of the appointment.

(h) The corporation or local humane society appointing the humane officer shall pay the training expenses of the humane officer attending the training required pursuant to this section.

(i) (1) (A) A level 1 humane officer is not a peace officer, but may exercise the powers of a peace officer at all places within the state in order to prevent the perpetration of any act of cruelty upon any animal and to that end may summon to his or her aid any bystander. A level 1 humane officer may use reasonable force necessary to prevent the perpetration of any act of cruelty upon any animal.

(B) A level 1 humane officer may make arrests for the violation of any penal law of this state relating to or affecting animals in the same manner as any peace officer and may also serve search warrants.

(C) A level 1 humane officer is authorized to carry firearms while exercising the duties of a humane officer, upon satisfactory completion of the training specified in subparagraph (D) and the basic training for a level 1 reserve officer by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training pursuant to Section 13510.1 of the Penal Code.

(D) A level 1 humane officer shall, prior to appointment, provide evidence satisfactory to the appointing agency that he or she has successfully completed courses of training in the following subjects:

(i) At least 20 hours of a course of training in animal care sponsored or provided by an accredited postsecondary institution or any other provider approved by the California Veterinary Medical Association, the focus of which shall be the identification of disease, injury, and neglect in domestic animals and livestock.

(ii) At least 40 hours of a course of training in the state humane laws relating to the powers and duties of a humane officer, sponsored or provided by an accredited postsecondary institution, law enforcement agency, or the State Humane Association of California.

(E) A person may not be appointed as a level 1 humane officer until he or she has satisfied the requirements in Sections 1029, 1030, and 1031 of the Government Code. A humane society or society for the prevention of cruelty to animals shall complete a background investigation, using standards defined by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training as guidelines for all level 1 humane officer appointments.

(F) In order to be eligible for reappointment, a level 1 humane officer shall complete ongoing weapons training and range qualifications at least every six months pursuant to subdivision (s) of Section 830.3 of the Penal Code and shall, every three years, complete 40 hours of continuing education and training relating to the powers and duties of a humane officer, which education and training shall be provided by an accredited postsecondary institution, law enforcement agency, or the State Humane Association of California.

(G) (i) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a level 1 humane officer may carry firearms only if authorized by, and only under the terms and conditions specified by, his or her appointing agency.

(ii) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a level 1 humane officer shall not be authorized to carry firearms unless and until his or her appointing agency has adopted a policy on the use of deadly force by its officers and the officer has been instructed in that policy.

(2) (A) A level 2 humane officer is not a peace officer, but may exercise the powers of a peace officer at all places within the state in order to prevent the perpetration of any act of cruelty upon any animal and to that end may summon to his or her aid any bystander. A level 2 humane officer may use reasonable force necessary to prevent the perpetration of any act of cruelty upon any animal.

(B) A level 2 humane officer may make arrests for the violation of any penal law of this state relating to or affecting animals in the same manner as any peace officer and may serve search warrants during the course and within the scope of employment, upon the successful completion of a course relating to the exercise of the police powers specified in Section 832 of the Penal Code, except the power to carry and use firearms.

(C) A level 2 humane officer is not authorized to carry firearms.

(D) A level 2 humane officer shall, prior to appointment, provide evidence satisfactory to the appointing agency that he or she has successfully completed courses of training in the following subjects:

(i) At least 20 hours of a course of training in animal care sponsored or provided by an accredited postsecondary institution or any other provider approved by the California Veterinary Medical Association, the focus of which is the identification of disease, injury, and neglect in domestic animals and livestock.

(ii) At least 40 hours of a course of training in the state humane laws relating to the powers and duties of a humane officer, sponsored or provided by an accredited postsecondary institution, law enforcement agency, or the State Humane Association of California.

(E) In order to be eligible for reappointment, a level 2 humane officer shall, every three years, complete 40 hours of continuing education and training relating to the powers and duties of a humane officer, which education and training shall be provided by an accredited postsecondary institution, law enforcement agency, or the State Humane Association of California.

(j) Every humane officer shall, when making an arrest, exhibit and expose a suitable badge to be adopted by the corporation under this title of which he or she is a member which shall bear its name and a number. Uniforms worn by humane officers shall prominently display the name of the appointing agency. Humane officer uniforms shall not display the words "state" or "California," unless part of the appointing agency's incorporated name.

(k) Any person resisting a humane officer in the performance of his or her duty as provided in this section, is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person who has not been appointed and qualified as a humane officer as provided in this section, or whose appointment has been revoked as provided in this section, or whose appointment, having expired, has not been renewed as provided in this section, who shall represent himself or herself to be or shall attempt to act as an officer shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(l) No humane officer shall serve a search warrant without providing prior notice to local law enforcement agencies operating within that jurisdiction.

(m) Any humane society, society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, or person, who knowingly provides a court with false or forged documentation for the appointment of a humane officer, is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of up to ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(n) A humane society or a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals shall notify the sheriff of the county in which the society is incorporated, prior to appointing a humane officer, of the society's intent to enforce laws for the prevention of cruelty to animals. Humane societies or societies for the prevention of cruelty to animals incorporated and enforcing animal cruelty laws prior to January 1, 1996, that intend to continue to enforce those laws, shall notify the sheriff of the county in which the society is incorporated by March 1, 1996.

(o) Except as otherwise provided by this section, a humane officer shall serve only in the county in which he or she is appointed. A humane officer may serve temporarily in a county other than that in which he or she is appointed if the humane officer gives notice requesting consent to the sheriff of the county in which he or she intends to serve, and acquires consent from the sheriff of the county in which he or she intends to serve, or from a person authorized by the sheriff to give that consent. A sheriff shall promptly respond to any request by a humane officer to serve in his or her jurisdiction and any request shall not be unreasonably denied.

14503. The governing body of a local agency, by ordinance, may authorize employees of public pounds, societies for the prevention of cruelty to animals, and humane societies, who have qualified as humane officers pursuant to Section 14502, and which societies or pounds have contracted with such local agency to provide animal care or protection services, to issue notices to appear in court pursuant to Chapter 5c (commencing with Section 853.5) of Title 3 of Part 2 of the Penal Code for violations of state or local animal control laws. Those employees shall not be authorized to take any person into custody even though the person to whom the notice is delivered does not give his or her written promise to appear in court. The authority of these employees is to be limited to the jurisdiction of the local agency authorizing the employees.

SEC. 8. Part 12 (commencing with Section 14550) is added to Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, to read:

PART 12. NONPROFIT COOPERATIVE AGRICULTURAL MARKETING ASSOCIATIONS

14550. In order to promote, foster, and encourage the intelligent and orderly marketing of agricultural products through cooperation; to eliminate speculation and waste; to make the distribution of agricultural products between producer and consumer as direct as can be efficiently done; and to stabilize the marketing of agricultural products, this act is passed.

14551. It is here recognized that agriculture is characterized by individual production in contrast to the group or factory system that characterizes other forms of industrial production; and that the ordinary form of corporate organization permits industrial groups to combine for the purpose of group production and the ensuing group marketing; and that the public has an interest in permitting farmers to bring their industry to the high degree of efficiency and merchandising skill evidenced in the manufacturing industries; and that the public interest urgently needs to prevent the migration from the farm to the city in order to keep up farm production and to preserve the agricultural supply of the nation; and that the public interest demands that the farmer be encouraged to attain a superior and more direct system of marketing in the substitution of merchandising for the blind, unscientific, and speculative selling of crops.

SEC. 9. Section 25100 of the Corporations Code is amended to read:

25100. The following securities are exempted from Sections 25110, 25120, and 25130:

(a) Any security (including a revenue obligation) issued or guaranteed by the United States, any state, any city, county, city and county, public district, public authority, public corporation, public entity, or political subdivision of a state or any agency or corporate or other instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(b) Any security issued or guaranteed by Canada, any Canadian province, any political subdivision or municipality of that province, or by any other foreign government with which the United States currently maintains diplomatic relations, if the security is recognized as a valid obligation by the issuer or guarantor; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(c) Any security issued or guaranteed by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of a national bank or a bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state, and any security issued by a bank to one or more other banks and representing an interest in an asset of the issuing bank.

(d) Any security issued or guaranteed by a federal savings association or federal savings bank or federal land bank or joint land bank or national farm loan association or by any savings association, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 5102 of the Financial Code, which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of this state.

(e) Any security (other than an interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided land or a subdivision or in a real estate development), the issuance of which is subject to authorization by the Insurance Commissioner, the Public Utilities Commission, or the Real Estate Commissioner of this state.

(f) Any security consisting of any interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided lands or a subdivision or in a real estate development; provided that the exemption in this subdivision shall not be applicable to: (1) any investment contract sold or offered for sale with, or as part of that interest, or (2) any person engaged in the business of selling, distributing, or supplying water for irrigation purposes or domestic use that is not a public utility except that the exemption is applicable to any security of a mutual water company (other than an investment contract described in paragraph (1)) offered or sold in connection with subdivided lands pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 14310) of Part 7 of Division 3 of Title 1.

(g) Any mutual capital certificates or savings accounts, as defined in the Savings Association Law, issued by a savings association, as defined by subdivision (a) of Section 5102 of the Financial Code, and holding a license or certificate of authority then in force from the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of this state.

(h) Any security issued or guaranteed by any federal credit union, or by any credit union organized and supervised, or regulated, under the Credit Union Law.

(i) Any security issued or guaranteed by any railroad, other common carrier, public utility, or public utility holding company which is (1) subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission or its successor or (2) a holding company registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 or a subsidiary of that company within the meaning of that act or (3) regulated in respect of the issuance or guarantee of the security by a governmental authority of the United States, of any state, of Canada or of any Canadian province; and the security is subject to registration with or authorization of issuance by that authority.

(j) Any security (except evidences of indebtedness, whether interest bearing or not) of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit, if no part of the net earnings of the issuer inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, or (2) organized as a chamber of commerce or trade or professional association. The fact that amounts received from memberships or dues or both will or may be used to construct or otherwise acquire facilities for use by members of the nonprofit organization does not disqualify the organization for this exemption. This exemption does not apply to the securities of any nonprofit organization if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the organization or operation of that nonprofit organization or from remuneration received from that nonprofit organization.

(k) Any agreement, commonly known as a "life income contract," of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit and (2) which the commissioner designates by rule or order, with a donor in consideration of a donation of property to that issuer and providing for the payment to the donor or persons designated by him or her of income or specified periodic payments from the donated property or other property for the life of the donor or those other persons.

(l) Any note, draft, bill of exchange, or banker's acceptance which is freely transferable and of prime quality, arises out of a current transaction or the proceeds of which have been or are to be used for current transactions, and which evidences an obligation to pay cash within nine months of the date of issuance, exclusive of days of grace, or any renewal of that paper which is likewise limited, or any guarantee of that paper or of that renewal, provided that the paper is not offered to the public in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser. In addition, the commissioner may, by rule or order, exempt any issuer of any notes, drafts, bills of exchange or banker's acceptances from qualification of those securities when the commissioner finds that the qualification is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

(m) Any security issued by any corporation organized and existing under the provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(n) Any beneficial interest in an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar benefit plan which meets the requirements for qualification under Section 401 of the federal Internal Revenue Code or any statute amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto. A determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service stating that an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar benefit plan meets those requirements shall be conclusive evidence that the plan is an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar benefit plan within the meaning of the first sentence of this subdivision until the date the determination letter is revoked in writing by the Internal Revenue Service, regardless of whether or not the revocation is retroactive.

(o) Any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on a national securities exchange or designated or approved for designation upon notice of issuance as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., if the exchange or interdealer quotation system has been certified by rule or order of the commissioner and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to the security. The exemption afforded by this subdivision does not apply to securities listed or designated, or approved for listing or designation upon notice of issuance, in a rollup transaction unless the rollup transaction is an eligible rollup transaction as defined in Section 25014.7.

That certification of any exchange or system shall be made by the commissioner upon the written request of the exchange or system if the commissioner finds that the exchange or system: (i) in acting on applications for listing of common stock substantially applies the minimum standards set forth in either alternative (A) or (B) of paragraph (1), and (ii) in considering suspension or removal from listing or designation, substantially applies each of the criteria set forth in paragraph (2).

(1) Listing standards:

(ii) Pretax income of at least seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) in the issuer's last fiscal year or in two of its last three fiscal years.

(iii) Minimum public distribution of 500,000 shares (exclusive of the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders, and other concentrated or family holdings), together with a minimum of 800 public holders or minimum public distribution of 1,000,000 shares together with a minimum of 400 public holders. The exchange or system may also consider the listing or designation of a company's securities if the company has a minimum of 500,000 shares publicly held, a minimum of 400 shareholders and daily trading volume in the issue has been approximately 2,000 shares or more for the six months preceding the date of application. In evaluating the suitability of an issue for listing or designation under this trading provision, the exchange or system shall review the nature and frequency of that activity and any other factors as it may determine to be relevant in ascertaining whether the issue is suitable for trading. A security which trades infrequently shall not be considered for listing or designation under this paragraph even though average daily volume amounts to 2,000 shares per day or more.

Companies whose securities are concentrated in a limited geographical area, or whose securities are largely held in block by institutional investors, normally may not be considered eligible for listing or designation unless the public distribution appreciably exceeds 500,000 shares.

(iv) Minimum price of three dollars ($3) per share for a reasonable period of time prior to the filing of a listing or designation application; provided, however, in certain instances an exchange or system may favorably consider listing an issue selling for less than three dollars ($3) per share after considering all pertinent factors, including market conditions in general, whether historically the issue has sold above three dollars ($3) per share, the applicant's capitalization, and the number of outstanding and publicly held shares of the issue.

(v) An aggregate market value for publicly held shares of at least three million dollars ($3,000,000).

(B) (i) Shareholders' equity of at least four million dollars ($4,000,000).

(ii) Minimum public distribution set forth in clause (iii) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1).

(iii) Operating history of at least three years.

(iv) An aggregate market value for publicly held shares of at least fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000).

(2) Criteria for consideration of suspension or removal from listing:

(i) If a company which (A) has shareholders' equity of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) has sustained net losses in each of its two most recent fiscal years, or (B) has net tangible assets of less than three million dollars ($3,000,000) and has sustained net losses in three of its four most recent fiscal years.

(ii) If the number of shares publicly held (excluding the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders and other concentrated or family holdings) is less than 150,000.

(iii) If the total number of shareholders is less than 400 or if the number of shareholders of lots of 100 shares or more is less than 300.

(iv) If the aggregate market value of shares publicly held is less than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000).

(v) If shares of common stock sell at a price of less than three dollars ($3) per share for a substantial period of time and the issuer shall fail to effectuate a reverse stock split of the shares within a reasonable period of time after being requested by the exchange to take that action.

A national securities exchange or interdealer quotation system of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. certified by rule or order of the commissioner under this subdivision shall file annual reports when requested to do so by the commissioner. The annual reports shall contain, by issuer: the variances granted to an exchange's listing standards or interdealer quotation system's designation criteria, including variances from corporate governance and voting rights' standards, for any security of that issuer; the reasons for the variances; a discussion of the review procedure instituted by the exchange or interdealer quotation system to determine the effect of the variances on investors and whether the variances should be continued; and any other information that the commissioner deems relevant. The purpose of these reports is to assist the commissioner in determining whether the quantitative and qualitative requirements of this subdivision are substantially being met by the exchange or system in general or with regard to any particular security.

The commissioner after appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, may, in his or her discretion, by rule or order, decertify any exchange or interdealer quotation system previously certified which ceases substantially to apply the minimum standards or criteria as set forth in paragraphs (1) and (2).

A rule or order of certification shall conclusively establish that any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on any exchange, or designated or approved for designation upon issuance as a national market system security on any interdealer quotation system, named in a rule or order of certification, and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to that security, is exempt under this subdivision until the adoption by the commissioner of any rule or order decertifying the exchange or interdealer quotation system.

(p) A promissory note secured by a lien on real property, which is neither one of a series of notes of equal priority secured by interests in the same real property nor a note in which beneficial interests are sold to more than one person or entity.

(q) Any unincorporated interindemnity or reciprocal or interinsurance contract, which qualifies under the provisions of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, between members of a cooperative corporation, organized and operating under Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1, and whose members consist only of physicians and surgeons licensed in California, which contracts indemnify solely in respect to medical malpractice claims against the members, and which do not collect in advance of loss any moneys other than contributions by each member to a collective reserve trust fund or for necessary expenses of administration.

(1) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, the commissioner may in the commissioner's discretion bring an action in the name of the people of the State of California in the superior court to enjoin the acts or practices or to enforce compliance with Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code. Upon a proper showing a permanent or preliminary injunction, restraining order or writ of mandate shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets.

(2) The commissioner may, in the commissioner's discretion, (A) make public or private investigations within or outside of this state as the commissioner deems necessary to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code or to aid in the enforcement of Section 1280.7, and (B) publish information concerning the violation of Section 1280.7.

(3) For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this section, the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records which the commissioner deems relevant or material to the inquiry.

(4) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to, any person, the superior court, upon application by the commissioner, may issue to the person an order requiring the person to appear before the commissioner, or the officer designated by the commissioner, there to produce documentary evidence, if so ordered, or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt.

(5) No person is excused from attending or testifying or from producing any document or record before the commissioner or in obedience to the subpoena of the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner, or in any proceeding instituted by the commissioner, on the ground that the testimony or evidence (documentary or otherwise), required of the person may tend to incriminate the person or subject the person to a penalty or forfeiture, but no individual may be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which the person is compelled, after validly claiming the privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence (documentary or otherwise), except that the individual testifying is not exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury or contempt committed in testifying.

(6) The cost of any review, examination, audit, or investigation made by the commissioner under Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code shall be paid to the commissioner by the person subject to the review, examination, audit, or investigation, and the commissioner may maintain an action for the recovery of these costs in any court of competent jurisdiction. In determining the cost, the commissioner may use the actual amount of the salary or other compensation paid to the persons making the review, examination, audit, or investigation plus the actual amount of expenses including overhead reasonably incurred in the performance of the work.

The recoverable cost of each review, examination, audit, or investigation made by the commissioner under Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code shall not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), except that costs exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) shall be recoverable if the costs are necessary to prevent a violation of any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code.

(r) Any shares or memberships issued by any corporation organized and existing pursuant to the provisions of Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1, provided the aggregate investment of any shareholder or member in shares or memberships sold pursuant to this subdivision does not exceed three hundred dollars ($300). This exemption does not apply to the shares or memberships of that corporation if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the corporation or the operation of the corporation or from remuneration, other than reasonable salary, received from the corporation. This exemption does not apply to nonvoting shares or memberships of that corporation issued to any person who does not possess, and who will not acquire in connection with the issuance of nonvoting shares or memberships, voting power (Section 12253) in the corporation. This exemption also does not apply to shares or memberships issued by a nonprofit cooperative corporation organized to facilitate the creation of an unincorporated interindemnity arrangement that provides indemnification for medical malpractice to its physician and surgeon members as set forth in subdivision (q).

(s) Any security consisting of or representing an interest in a pool of mortgage loans which meets each of the following requirements:

(1) The pool consists of whole mortgage loans or participation interests in those loans, which loans were originated or acquired in the ordinary course of business by a national bank or federal savings association or federal savings bank having its principal office in this state, by a bank incorporated under the laws of this state or by a savings association as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 5102 of the Financial Code and which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions, and each of which at the time of transfer to the pool is an authorized investment for the originating or acquiring institution.

(2) The pool of mortgage loans is held in trust by a trustee which is a financial institution specified in paragraph (1) as trustee or otherwise.

(4) The security is not offered in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser.

(5) The security is offered pursuant to a registration under the Securities Act of 1933, or pursuant to an exemption under Regulation A under that act, or in the opinion of counsel for the issuer, is offered pursuant to an exemption under Section 4(2) of that act.

(t) (1) Any security issued or guaranteed by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of an industrial loan company incorporated under the laws of the state and authorized by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions to engage in industrial loan business.

(2) Any investment certificate in or issued by any industrial loan company that is organized under the laws of a state of the United States other than this state, that is insured by the Federal Deposit

Insurance Corporation, and that maintains a branch office in this state.

(u) Any security issued by an issuer registered as an open-end management company or unit investment trust under the Investment Company Act of 1940, provided that all of the following requirements are met:

(1) The registration statement for the securities is currently effective under the Securities Act of 1933.

(2) Prior to any offer or sale in this state of securities claimed to be exempt under this subdivision, there is filed with or paid to the commissioner each of the following:

(A) A notice of intention to sell that has been executed by the issuer and that includes the name and address of the issuer and the name of the securities to be offered and sold under this subdivision.

(C) The fee provided in subdivision (f) of Section 25608.

If any offer or sale is made pursuant to this exemption more than 12 months after the date the notice was filed under this subdivision, the issuer shall file another notice of intention to sell, a copy of the prospectus the issuer is currently utilizing for the purpose of making that offer, and the fee specified in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2).

SEC. 9.5. Section 25100 of the Corporations Code, as amended by Chapter 1064 of the Statutes of 1996, is amended to read:

25100. The following securities are exempted from Sections 25110, 25120, and 25130:

(a) Any security (including a revenue obligation) issued or guaranteed by the United States, any state, any city, county, city and county, public district, public authority, public corporation, public entity, or political subdivision of a state or any agency or corporate or other instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(b) Any security issued or guaranteed by Canada, any Canadian province, any political subdivision or municipality of that province, or by any other foreign government with which the United States currently maintains diplomatic relations, if the security is recognized as a valid obligation by the issuer or guarantor; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing.

(c) Any security issued or guaranteed by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of a national bank or a bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state, and any security issued by a bank to one or more other banks and representing an interest in an asset of the issuing bank.

(d) Any security issued or guaranteed by a federal savings association or federal savings bank or federal land bank or joint land bank or national farm loan association or by any savings association, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 5102 of the Financial Code, which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of this state.

(e) Any security (other than an interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided land or a subdivision or in a real estate development), the issuance of which is subject to authorization by the Insurance Commissioner, the Public Utilities Commission, or the Real Estate Commissioner of this state.

(f) Any security consisting of any interest in all or portions of a parcel or parcels of real property which are subdivided lands or a subdivision or in a real estate development; provided that the exemption in this subdivision shall not be applicable to: (1) any investment contract sold or offered for sale with, or as part of, that interest, or (2) any person engaged in the business of selling, distributing, or supplying water for irrigation purposes or domestic use that is not a public utility except that the exemption is applicable to any security of a mutual water company (other than an investment contract as described in paragraph (1)) offered or sold in connection with subdivided lands pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 14310) of Part 7 of Division 3 of Title 1.

(g) Any mutual capital certificates or savings accounts, as defined in the Savings Association Law, issued by a savings association, as defined by subdivision (a) of Section 5102 of the Financial Code, and holding a license or certificate of authority then in force from the Commissioner of Financial Institutions of this state.

(h) Any security issued or guaranteed by any federal credit union, or by any credit union organized and supervised, or regulated, under the Credit Union Law.

(i) Any security issued or guaranteed by any railroad, other common carrier, public utility, or public utility holding company which is (1) subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission or its successor or (2) a holding company registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 or a subsidiary of that company within the meaning of that act or (3) regulated in respect of the issuance or guarantee of the security by a governmental authority of the United States, of any state, of Canada or of any Canadian province; and the security is subject to registration with or authorization of issuance by that authority.

(j) Any security (except evidences of indebtedness, whether interest bearing or not) of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit, if no part of the net earnings of the issuer inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, or (2) organized as a chamber of commerce or trade or professional association. The fact that amounts received from memberships or dues or both will or may be used to construct or otherwise acquire facilities for use by members of the nonprofit organization does not disqualify the organization for this exemption. This exemption does not apply to the securities of any nonprofit organization if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the organization or operation of that nonprofit organization or from remuneration received from that nonprofit organization.

(k) Any agreement, commonly known as a "life income contract," of an issuer (1) organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, religious, charitable, social, or reformatory purposes and not for pecuniary profit and (2) which the commissioner designates by rule or order, with a donor in consideration of a donation of property to that issuer and providing for the payment to the donor or persons designated by him or her of income or specified periodic payments from the donated property or other property for the life of the donor or those other persons.

(l) Any note, draft, bill of exchange, or banker's acceptance which is freely transferable and of prime quality, arises out of a current transaction or the proceeds of which have been or are to be used for current transactions, and which evidences an obligation to pay cash within nine months of the date of issuance, exclusive of days of grace, or any renewal of that paper which is likewise limited, or any guarantee of that paper or of that renewal, provided that the paper is not offered to the public in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser. In addition, the commissioner may, by rule or order, exempt any issuer of any notes, drafts, bills of exchange or banker's acceptances from qualification of those securities when the commissioner finds that the qualification is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

(m) Any security issued by any corporation organized and existing under the provisions of Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code.

(n) Any beneficial interest in an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar benefit plan which meets the requirements for qualification under Section 401 of the federal Internal Revenue Code or any statute amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto. A determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service stating that an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar benefit plan meets those requirements shall be conclusive evidence that the plan is an employees' pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or similar benefit plan within the meaning of the first sentence of this subdivision until the date the determination letter is revoked in writing by the Internal Revenue Service, regardless of whether or not the revocation is retroactive.

(o) Any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on a national securities exchange or designated or approved for designation upon notice of issuance as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., if the exchange or interdealer quotation system has been certified by rule or order of the commissioner and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to the security. The exemption afforded by this subdivision does not apply to securities listed or designated, or approved for listing or designation upon notice of issuance, in a rollup transaction unless the rollup transaction is an eligible rollup transaction as defined in Section 25014.7.

That certification of any exchange or system shall be made by the commissioner upon the written request of the exchange or system if the commissioner finds that the exchange or system: (i) in acting on applications for listing of common stock substantially applies the minimum standards set forth in either alternative (A) or (B) of paragraph (1), and (ii) in considering suspension or removal from listing or designation, substantially applies each of the criteria set forth in paragraph (2).

(1) Listing standards:

(ii) Pretax income of at least seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) in the issuer's last fiscal year or in two of its last three fiscal years.

(iii) Minimum public distribution of 500,000 shares (exclusive of the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders, and other concentrated or family holdings), together with a minimum of 800 public holders or minimum public distribution of 1,000,000 shares together with a minimum of 400 public holders. The exchange or system may also consider the listing or designation of a company's securities if the company has a minimum of 500,000 shares publicly held, a minimum of 400 shareholders and daily trading volume in the issue has been approximately 2,000 shares or more for the six months preceding the date of application. In evaluating the suitability of an issue for listing or designation under this trading provision, the exchange or system shall review the nature and frequency of that activity and any other factors as it may determine to be relevant in ascertaining whether the issue is suitable for trading. A security which trades infrequently shall not be considered for listing or designation under this paragraph even though average daily volume amounts to 2,000 shares per day or more.

Companies whose securities are concentrated in a limited geographical area, or whose securities are largely held in block by institutional investors, normally may not be considered eligible for listing or designation unless the public distribution appreciably exceeds 500,000 shares.

(iv) Minimum price of three dollars ($3) per share for a reasonable period of time prior to the filing of a listing or designation application; provided, however, in certain instances an exchange or system may favorably consider listing an issue selling for less than three dollars ($3) per share after considering all pertinent factors, including market conditions in general, whether historically the issue has sold above three dollars ($3) per share, the applicant's capitalization, and the number of outstanding and publicly held shares of the issue.

(v) An aggregate market value for publicly held shares of at least three million dollars ($3,000,000).

(B) (i) Shareholders' equity of at least four million dollars ($4,000,000).

(ii) Minimum public distribution set forth in clause (iii) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1).

(iii) Operating history of at least three years.

(iv) An aggregate market value for publicly held shares of at least fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000).

(2) Criteria for consideration of suspension or removal from listing:

(i) If a company which (A) has shareholders' equity of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) has sustained net losses in each of its two most recent fiscal years, or (B) has net tangible assets of less than three million dollars ($3,000,000) and has sustained net losses in three of its four most recent fiscal years.

(ii) If the number of shares publicly held (excluding the holdings of officers, directors, controlling shareholders and other concentrated or family holdings) is less than 150,000.

(iii) If the total number of shareholders is less than 400 or if the number of shareholders of lots of 100 shares or more is less than 300.

(iv) If the aggregate market value of shares publicly held is less than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000).

(v) If shares of common stock sell at a price of less than three dollars ($3) per share for a substantial period of time and the issuer shall fail to effectuate a reverse stock split of the shares within a reasonable period of time after being requested by the exchange to take that action.

A national securities exchange or interdealer quotation system of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. certified by rule or order of the commissioner under this subdivision shall file annual reports when requested to do so by the commissioner. The annual reports shall contain, by issuer: the variances granted to an exchange's listing standards or interdealer quotation system's designation criteria, including variances from corporate governance and voting rights' standards, for any security of that issuer; the reasons for the variances; a discussion of the review procedure instituted by the exchange or interdealer quotation system to determine the effect of the variances on investors and whether the variances should be continued; and any other information that the commissioner deems relevant. The purpose of these reports is to assist the commissioner in determining whether the quantitative and qualitative requirements of this subdivision are substantially being met by the exchange or system in general or with regard to any particular security.

The commissioner after appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, may, in his or her discretion, by rule or order, decertify any exchange or interdealer quotation system previously certified which ceases substantially to apply the minimum standards or criteria as set forth in paragraphs (1) and (2).

A rule or order of certification shall conclusively establish that any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on any exchange, or designated or approved for designation upon issuance as a national market system security on any interdealer quotation system, named in a rule or order of certification, and any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to that security, is exempt under this subdivision until the adoption by the commissioner of any rule or order decertifying the exchange or interdealer quotation system.

(p) A promissory note secured by a lien on real property, which is neither one of a series of notes of equal priority secured by interests in the same real property nor a note in which beneficial interests are sold to more than one person or entity.

(q) Any unincorporated interindemnity or reciprocal or interinsurance contract, which qualifies under the provisions of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, between members of a cooperative corporation, organized and operating under Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1, and whose members consist only of physicians and surgeons licensed in California, which contracts indemnify solely in respect to medical malpractice claims against the members, and which do not collect in advance of loss any moneys other than contributions by each member to a collective reserve trust fund or for necessary expenses of administration.

(1) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code, the commissioner may, in the commissioner's discretion, bring an action in the name of the people of the State of California in the superior court to enjoin the acts or practices or to enforce compliance with Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code. Upon a proper showing a permanent or preliminary injunction, a restraining order, or a writ of mandate shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets.

(2) The commissioner may, in the commissioner's discretion, (A) make public or private investigations within or outside of this state as the commissioner deems necessary to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code or to aid in the enforcement of Section

1280.7, and (B) publish information concerning the violation of Section 1280.7.

(3) For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this section, the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records which the commissioner deems relevant or material to the inquiry.

(4) In case of contumacy by, or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to, any person, the superior court, upon application by the commissioner, may issue to the person an order requiring the person to appear before the commissioner, or the officer designated by the commissioner, there to produce documentary evidence, if so ordered, or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt.

(5) No person is excused from attending or testifying or from producing any document or record before the commissioner or in obedience to the subpoena of the commissioner or any officer designated by the commissioner, or in any proceeding instituted by the commissioner, on the ground that the testimony or evidence (documentary or otherwise), required of the person may tend to incriminate the person or subject the person to a penalty or forfeiture, but no individual may be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which the person is compelled, after validly claiming the privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence (documentary or otherwise), except that the individual testifying is not exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury or contempt committed in testifying.

(6) The cost of any review, examination, audit, or investigation made by the commissioner under Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code shall be paid to the commissioner by the person subject to the review, examination, audit, or investigation, and the commissioner may maintain an action for the recovery of these costs in any court of competent jurisdiction. In determining the cost, the commissioner may use the actual amount of the salary or other compensation paid to the persons making the review, examination, audit, or investigation plus the actual amount of expenses including overhead reasonably incurred in the performance of the work.

The recoverable cost of each review, examination, audit, or investigation made by the commissioner under Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code shall not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), except that costs exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) shall be recoverable if the costs are necessary to prevent a violation of any provision of Section 1280.7 of the Insurance Code.

(r) Any shares or memberships issued by any corporation organized and existing pursuant to the provisions of Part 2 (commencing with Section 12200) of Division 3 of Title 1, provided the aggregate investment of any shareholder or member in shares or memberships sold pursuant to this subdivision does not exceed three hundred dollars ($300). This exemption does not apply to the shares or memberships of that corporation if any promoter thereof expects or intends to make a profit directly or indirectly from any business or activity associated with the corporation or the operation of the corporation or from remuneration, other than reasonable salary, received from the corporation. This exemption does not apply to nonvoting shares or memberships of that corporation issued to any person who does not possess, and who will not acquire in connection with the issuance of nonvoting shares or memberships, voting power (Section 12253) in the corporation. This exemption also does not apply to shares or memberships issued by a nonprofit cooperative corporation organized to facilitate the creation of an unincorporated interindemnity arrangement that provides indemnification for medical malpractice to its physician and surgeon members as set forth in subdivision (q).

(s) Any security consisting of or representing an interest in a pool of mortgage loans which meets each of the following requirements:

(1) The pool consists of whole mortgage loans or participation interests in those loans, which loans were originated or acquired in the ordinary course of business by a national bank or federal savings association or federal savings bank having its principal office in this state, by a bank incorporated under the laws of this state or by a savings association as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 5102 of the Financial Code and which is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Commissioner of Financial Institutions, and each of which at the time of transfer to the pool is an authorized investment for the originating or acquiring institution.

(2) The pool of mortgage loans is held in trust by a trustee which is a financial institution specified in paragraph (1) as trustee or otherwise.

(4) The security is not offered in amounts of less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) in the aggregate to any one purchaser.

(5) The security is offered pursuant to a registration under the Securities Act of 1933, or pursuant to an exemption under Regulation A under that act, or in the opinion of counsel for the issuer, is offered pursuant to an exemption under Section 4(2) of that act.

(t) (1) Any security issued or guaranteed by and representing an interest in or a direct obligation of an industrial loan company incorporated under the laws of the state and authorized by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions to engage in industrial loan business.

(2) Any investment certificate in or issued by any industrial loan company that is organized under the laws of a state of the United States other than this state, that is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and that maintains a branch office in this state.

SEC. 10. Section 25988 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

25988. A peace officer, officer of a humane society as qualified under Section 14502 or 14503 of the Corporations Code, or officer of an animal control or animal regulation department of a public agency, as qualified under Section 830.9 of the Penal Code, may issue a citation as prescribed in Section 25988.5, to any person or entity keeping horses or other equine animals for hire, if the person or entity fails to meet any of the following standards of humane treatment regarding the keeping of horses or other equine animals:

(a) Any enclosure where an equine is primarily kept shall be of sufficient size to enable the equine to comfortably stand up, turn around, and lie down, and shall be kept free of excessive urine and waste matter.

(b) Paddocks and corrals shall be of adequate size for the equine to move about freely.

(c) Buildings, premises, and conveyances used in conjunction with equines shall be kept free of sharp objects, protrusions, or other materials that are likely to cause injury.

(d) Equines shall be supplied with nutritionally adequate feed and clean water, in accordance with standards published by the Cooperative Extension of the Division of Agricultural Sciences of the University of California.

(g) When not being ridden, a saddled equine shall have available adequate shelter from the elements, and have loosened saddle straps and girths.

(h) An equine shall not be available for hire or use if the equine has any conditions that violate subdivision (b) of Section 597 or Section 597f of the Penal Code or any of the following conditions:

(1) Sores or abrasions caused or likely to be irritated by the surfaces of saddles, girths, harnesses, or bridles.

(2) Blindness in both eyes.

(3) Improperly or inadequately trimmed and shod feet contrary to the standards published by the Cooperative Extension of the Division of Agricultural Sciences of the University of California.

(i) Each equine shall be individually identified, using humane methods, such as a detailed description, including, but not limited to, name, breed, color, markings, size, age, sex, and photograph.

(j) Farrier and veterinary receipts shall be kept and shall identify each equine treated.

(k) Veterinary, farrier, and feed records shall be made available during normal business hours to the law enforcement officer. Upon failure to provide these records, the equine or equines in question may not be used for hire until such time as the records are produced or an equine veterinarian shall certify that the equine or equines are fit for labor.

SEC. 11. Section 597d of the Penal Code is amended to read:

597d. Any sheriff, police, or peace officer, or officer qualified as provided in Section 14502 of the Corporations Code, may enter any place, building, or tenement, where there is an exhibition of the fighting of birds or animals, or where preparations are being made for such an exhibition, and, without a warrant, arrest all persons present.

SEC. 12. Section 597z of the Penal Code is amended to read:

597z. A humane officer appointed under Section 14502 of the Corporations Code or the State Sealer may enter any facility utilizing a carbon monoxide gas chamber for the purpose of inspecting the operation of such facility to determine whether there is compliance with Section 597u.

SEC. 13. Section 11105 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11105. (a) (1) The Department of Justice shall maintain state summary criminal history information.

(2) As used in this section:

(i) "State summary criminal history information" means the master record of information compiled by the Attorney General pertaining to the identification and criminal history of any person, such as name, date of birth, physical description, fingerprints, photographs, date of arrests, arresting agencies and booking numbers, charges, dispositions, and similar data about the person.

(ii) "State summary criminal history information" does not refer to records and data compiled by criminal justice agencies other than the Attorney General, nor does it refer to records of complaints to or investigations conducted by, or records of intelligence information or security procedures of, the office of the Attorney General and the Department of Justice.

(b) The Attorney General shall furnish state summary criminal history information to any of the following, if needed in the course of their duties, provided that when information is furnished to assist an agency, officer, or official of state or local government, a public utility, or any entity, in fulfilling employment, certification, or licensing duties, Chapter 1321 of the Statutes of 1974 and of Section 432.7 of the Labor Code shall apply:

(2) Peace officers of the state as defined in Section 830.1, subdivisions (a), (b), and (f) of Section 830.2, subdivision (a) of Section 830.3, subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 830.5, and subdivision (a) of Section 830.31.

(3) District attorneys of the state.

(4) Prosecuting city attorneys of any city within the state.
(5) Probation officers of the state.
(6) Parole officers of the state.
(7) A public defender or attorney of record when representing a person in proceedings upon a petition for a certificate of rehabilitation and pardon pursuant to Section 4852.08.
(8) A public defender or attorney of record when representing a person in a criminal case and if authorized access by statutory or decisional law.
(9) Any agency, officer, or official of the state if the criminal history information is required to implement a statute or regulation that expressly refers to specific criminal conduct applicable to the subject person of the state summary criminal history information, and contains requirements or exclusions, or both, expressly based upon that specified criminal conduct.
(10) Any city or county, or city and county, or district, or any officer, or official thereof if access is needed in order to assist that agency, officer, or official in fulfilling employment, certification, or licensing duties, and if the access is specifically authorized by the city council, board of supervisors, or governing board of the city, county, or district if the criminal history information is required to implement a statute, ordinance, or regulation that expressly refers to specific criminal conduct applicable to the subject person of the state summary criminal history information, and contains requirements or exclusions, or both, expressly based upon that specified criminal conduct.
(11) The subject of the state summary criminal history information under procedures established under Article 5 (commencing with Section 11120) of Chapter 1 of Title 1 of Part 4.
(12) Any person or entity when access is expressly authorized by statute if the criminal history information is required to implement a statute or regulation that expressly refers to specific criminal conduct applicable to the subject person of the state summary criminal history information, and contains requirements or exclusions, or both, expressly based upon that specified criminal conduct.
(13) Health officers of a city, county, or city and county, or district, when in the performance of their official duties enforcing Section 120175 of the Health and Safety Code.
(14) Any managing or supervising correctional officer of a county jail or other county correctional facility.
(15) Any humane society, or society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, for the specific purpose of complying with Section 14502 of the Corporations Code for the appointment of level 1 humane officers.
(c) The Attorney General may furnish state summary criminal history information upon a showing of a compelling need to any of the following, provided that when information is furnished to assist an agency, officer, or official of state or local government, a public utility, or any entity, in fulfilling employment, certification, or licensing duties, Chapter 1321 of the Statutes of 1974 and of Section 432.7 of the Labor Code shall apply:

(1) Any public utility as defined in Section 216 of the Public Utilities Code that operates a nuclear energy facility when access is needed in order to assist in employing persons to work at the facility, provided that, if the Attorney General supplies the data, he or she shall furnish a copy of the data to the person to whom the data relates.

(3) To a peace officer of another country.

(4) To public officers (other than peace officers) of the United States, other states, or possessions or territories of the United States, provided that access to records similar to state summary criminal history information is expressly authorized by a statute of the United States, other states, or possessions or territories of the United States if the information is needed for the performance of their official duties.

(5) To any person when disclosure is requested by a probation, parole, or peace officer with the consent of the subject of the state summary criminal history information and for purposes of furthering the rehabilitation of the subject.

(6) The courts of the United States, other states, or territories or possessions of the United States.

(7) Peace officers of the United States, other states, or territories or possessions of the United States.

(8) To any individual who is the subject of the record requested if needed in conjunction with an application to enter the United States or any foreign nation.

(9) Any public utility as defined in Section 216 of the Public Utilities Code, if access is needed in order to assist in employing current or prospective employees who in the course of their employment may be seeking entrance to private residences. The information provided shall be limited to the record of convictions and any arrest for which the person is released on bail or on his or her own recognizance pending trial.

If the Attorney General supplies the data pursuant to this paragraph, the Attorney General shall furnish a copy of the data to the current or prospective employee to whom the data relates.

Any information obtained from the state summary criminal history is confidential and the receiving public utility shall not disclose its contents, other than for the purpose for which it was acquired. The state summary criminal history information in the possession of the public utility and all copies made from it shall be destroyed not more than 30 days after employment or promotion or transfer is denied or granted, except for those cases where a current or prospective employee is out on bail or on his or her own recognizance pending trial, in which case the state summary criminal history information and all copies shall be destroyed not more than 30 days after the case is resolved.

A violation of this paragraph is a misdemeanor, and shall give the current or prospective employee who is injured by the violation a cause of action against the public utility to recover damages proximately caused by the violations. Any public utility's request for state summary criminal history information for purposes of employing current or prospective employees who may be seeking entrance to private residences in the course of their employment shall be deemed a "compelling need" as required to be shown in this subdivision.

Nothing in this section shall be construed as imposing any duty upon public utilities to request state summary criminal history information on any current or prospective employees.

(10) To any campus of the California State University or the University of California, or any four-year college or university accredited by a regional accreditation organization approved by the United States Department of Education, if needed in conjunction with an application for admission by a convicted felon to any special education program for convicted felons, including, but not limited to, university alternatives and halfway houses. Only conviction information shall be furnished. The college or university may require the convicted felon to be fingerprinted, and any inquiry to the department under this section shall include the convicted felon's fingerprints and any other information specified by the department.

(d) Whenever an authorized request for state summary criminal history information pertains to a person whose fingerprints are on file with the Department of Justice and the department has no criminal history of that person, and the information is to be used for employment, licensing, or certification purposes, the fingerprint card accompanying the request for information, if any, may be stamped "no criminal record" and returned to the person or entity making the request.

(e) Whenever state summary criminal history information is furnished as the result of an application and is to be used for employment, licensing, or certification purposes, the Department of Justice may charge the person or entity making the request a fee that it determines to be sufficient to reimburse the department for the cost of furnishing the information. In addition, the Department of Justice may add a surcharge to the fee to fund maintenance and improvements to the systems from which the information is obtained. Notwithstanding any other law, any person or entity required to pay a fee to the department for information received under this section may charge the applicant a fee sufficient to reimburse the person or entity for this expense. All moneys received by the department pursuant to this section, Sections 11105.3 and 12054 of the Penal Code, and Section 13588 of the Education Code shall be deposited in a special account in the General Fund to be available for expenditure by the department to offset costs incurred pursuant to those sections and for maintenance and improvements to the systems from which the information is obtained upon appropriation by the Legislature.

(f) Whenever there is a conflict, the processing of criminal fingerprints and fingerprints of applicants for security guard or alarm agent registrations or firearms qualification permits submitted pursuant to Section 7514 of the Business and Professions Code shall take priority over the processing of applicant fingerprints.

(g) It is not a violation of this section to disseminate statistical or research information obtained from a record, provided that the identity of the subject of the record is not disclosed.

(h) It is not a violation of this section to include information obtained from a record in (1) a transcript or record of a judicial or administrative proceeding or (2) any other public record if the inclusion of the information in the public record is authorized by a court, statute, or decisional law.

(i) Notwithstanding any other law, the Department of Justice or any state or local law enforcement agency may require the submission of fingerprints for the purpose of conducting summary criminal history information checks that are authorized by law.

(j) The state summary criminal history information shall include any finding of mental incompetence pursuant to Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1367) of Title 10 of Part 2 arising out of a complaint charging a felony offense specified in Section 290.

SEC. 14. Section 11165.16 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

11165.16. (a) For the purposes of this article, the following terms have the following meanings:

(1) "Animal control officer" means any person employed by a city, county, or city and county for the purpose of enforcing animal control laws or regulations.

(2) "Humane society officer" means any person appointed or employed by a public or private entity as a humane officer who is qualified pursuant to Section 14502 or 14503 of the Corporations Code.

(b) No firefighter, animal control officer, or humane society officer shall be subject to the reporting requirements of this article unless he or she has received training in identification and reporting of child abuse equivalent to that received by teachers and child care custodians.

SEC. 15. Section 12031 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12031. (a) (1) A person is guilty of carrying a loaded firearm when he or she carries a loaded firearm on his or her person or in a vehicle while in any public place or on any public street in an incorporated city or in any public place or on any public street in a prohibited area of unincorporated territory.

(2) Carrying a loaded firearm in violation of this section is punishable, as follows:

(A) Where the person previously has been convicted of any felony, or of any crime made punishable by this chapter, as a felony.

(B) Where the firearm is stolen and the person knew or had reasonable cause to believe that it was stolen, as a felony.

(C) Where the person is an active participant in a criminal street gang, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 186.22, under the Street Terrorism Enforcement and Prevention Act (Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 18620) of Title 7 of Part 1), as a felony.

(D) Where the person is not in lawful possession of the firearm, as defined in this section, or is within a class of persons prohibited from possessing or acquiring a firearm pursuant to Section 12021 or 12021.1 of this code or Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as a felony.

(E) Where the person has been convicted of a crime against a person or property, or of a narcotics or dangerous drug violation, by imprisonment in the state prison, or by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year, by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine.

(F) In all cases other than those specified in subparagraphs (A) to (E), inclusive, as a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed one year, by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by both that imprisonment and fine.

(G) For purposes of this section, "lawful possession of the firearm" means that the person who has possession or custody of the firearm either owns the firearm or has the permission of the owner or a person who otherwise has apparent authority to possess or have custody of the firearm. A person who takes a firearm without the permission of the owner or without the permission of a person who has custody of the firearm does not have lawful possession of the firearm.

(3) Nothing in this section shall preclude prosecution under Sections 12021 and 12021.1 of this code, Section 8100 or 8103 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or any other law with a greater penalty than this section.

(4) Notwithstanding paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 836, a peace officer may make an arrest without a warrant:

(A) When the person arrested has violated this section, although not in the officer's presence.

(B) Whenever the officer has reasonable cause to believe that the person to be arrested has violated this section, whether or not this section has, in fact, been violated.

(5) (A) Every person convicted under this section who has previously been convicted of an offense enumerated in Section 12001.6, or of any crime made punishable under this chapter, shall serve a term of at least three months in a county jail, or, if granted probation, or if the execution or imposition of sentence is suspended, it shall be a condition thereof that he or she be imprisoned for a period of at least three months.

(B) The court shall apply the three-month minimum sentence except in unusual cases where the interests of justice would best be served by granting probation or suspending the imposition or execution of sentence without the minimum imprisonment required in this subdivision or by granting probation or suspending the imposition or execution of sentence with conditions other than those set forth in this subdivision, in which case, the court shall specify on the record and shall enter on the minutes the circumstances indicating that the interests of justice would best be served by that disposition.

(6) A violation of this section which is punished by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding one year shall not constitute a conviction of a crime punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year for the purposes of determining federal firearms eligibility under Section 922(g)(1) of Title 18 of the United States Code.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to any of the following:

(1) Peace officers listed in Section 830.1 or 830.2, whether active or honorably retired, other duly appointed peace officers, honorably retired peace officers listed in subdivision (c) of Section 830.5, other honorably retired peace officers who during the course and scope of their employment as peace officers were authorized to, and did, carry firearms, full-time paid peace officers of other states and the federal government who are carrying out official duties while in California, or any person summoned by any of those officers to assist in making arrests or preserving the peace while the person is actually engaged in assisting that officer. Any peace officer described in this paragraph who has been honorably retired shall be issued an identification certificate by the law enforcement agency from which the officer has retired. The issuing agency may charge a fee necessary to cover any reasonable expenses incurred by the agency in issuing certificates pursuant to this paragraph and paragraph (3).

Any officer, except an officer listed in Section 830.1, 830.2, or subdivision (c) of Section 830.5 who retired prior to January 1, 1981, shall have an endorsement on the identification certificate stating that the issuing agency approves the officer's carrying of a loaded firearm.

No endorsement or renewal endorsement issued pursuant to paragraph (2) shall be effective unless it is in the format set forth in subparagraph (D) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 12027, except that any peace officer listed in subdivision (f) of Section 830.2 or in subdivision (c) of Section 830.5, who is retired between January 2, 1981, and on or before December 31, 1988, and who is authorized to carry a loaded firearm pursuant to this section, shall not be required to have an endorsement in the format set forth in subparagraph (D) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section

12027 until the time of the issuance, on or after January 1, 1989, of a renewal endorsement pursuant to paragraph (2).

(2) A retired peace officer, except an officer listed in Section 830.1, 830.2, or subdivision (c) of Section 830.5 who retired prior to January 1, 1981, shall petition the issuing agency for renewal of his or her privilege to carry a loaded firearm every five years. An honorably retired peace officer listed in Section 830.1 or 830.2 or subdivision (c) of Section 830.5 who retired prior to January 1, 1981, shall not be required to obtain an endorsement from the issuing agency to carry a loaded firearm. The agency from which a peace officer is honorably retired may, upon initial retirement of the peace officer, or at any time subsequent thereto, deny or revoke, for good cause, the retired officer's privilege to carry a loaded firearm. A peace officer who is listed in Section 830.1 or 830.2 or subdivision (c) of Section 830.5 who is retired prior to January 1, 1981, shall have his or her privilege to carry a loaded firearm denied or revoked by having the agency from which the officer retired stamp on the officer's identification certificate "No CCW privilege."

(3) An honorably retired peace officer who is listed in subdivision (c) of Section 830.5 and authorized to carry loaded firearms by this subdivision shall meet the training requirements of Section 832 and shall qualify with the firearm at least annually. The individual retired peace officer shall be responsible for maintaining his or her eligibility to carry a loaded firearm. The Department of Justice shall provide subsequent arrest notification pursuant to Section 11105.2 regarding honorably retired peace officers listed in subdivision (c) of Section 830.5 to the agency from which the officer has retired.

(4) Members of the military forces of this state or of the United States engaged in the performance of their duties.

(5) Persons who are using target ranges for the purpose of practice shooting with a firearm or who are members of shooting clubs while hunting on the premises of those clubs.

(6) The carrying of pistols, revolvers, or other firearms capable of being concealed upon the person by persons who are authorized to carry those weapons pursuant to Article 3 (commencing with Section 12050) of Chapter 1 of Title 2 of Part 4.

(7) Armored vehicle guards, as defined in Section 7521 of the Business and Professions Code, (A) if hired prior to January 1, 1977; or (B) if hired on or after that date, if they have received a firearms qualification card from the Department of Consumer Affairs, in each case while acting within the course and scope of their employment.

(8) Upon approval of the sheriff of the county in which they reside, honorably retired federal officers or agents of federal law enforcement agencies, including, but not limited to, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Secret Service, the United States Customs Service, the Federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms, the Federal Bureau of Narcotics, the Drug Enforcement Administration, the United States Border Patrol, and officers or agents of the Internal Revenue Service who were authorized to carry weapons while on duty, who were assigned to duty within the state for a period of not less than one year, or who retired from active service in the state.

Retired federal officers or agents shall provide the sheriff with certification from the agency from which they retired certifying their service in the state, the nature of their retirement, and indicating the agency's concurrence that the retired federal officer or agent should be accorded the privilege of carrying a loaded firearm.

Upon approval, the sheriff shall issue a permit to the retired federal officer or agent indicating that he or she may carry a loaded firearm in accordance with this paragraph. The permit shall be valid for a period not exceeding five years, shall be carried by the retiree while carrying a loaded firearm, and may be revoked for good cause.

The sheriff of the county in which the retired federal officer or agent resides may require recertification prior to a permit renewal, and may suspend the privilege for cause. The sheriff may charge a fee necessary to cover any reasonable expenses incurred by the county.

(c) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to any of the following who have completed a regular course in firearms training approved by the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training:

(1) Patrol special police officers appointed by the police commission of any city, county, or city and county under the express terms of its charter who also, under the express terms of the charter, (A) are subject to suspension or dismissal after a hearing on charges duly filed with the commission after a fair and impartial trial, (B) are not less than 18 years of age or more than 40 years of age, (C) possess physical qualifications prescribed by the commission, and (D) are designated by the police commission as the owners of a certain beat or territory as may be fixed from time to time by the police commission.

(2) The carrying of weapons by animal control officers or zookeepers, regularly compensated as such by a governmental agency when acting in the course and scope of their employment and when designated by a local ordinance or, if the governmental agency is not authorized to act by ordinance, by a resolution, either individually or by class, to carry the weapons, or by persons who are authorized to carry the weapons pursuant to Section 14502 of the Corporations Code, while actually engaged in the performance of their duties pursuant to that section.

(d) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to any of the following who have been issued a certificate pursuant to Section 12033. The certificate shall not be required of any person who is a peace officer, who has completed all training required by law for the exercise of his or her power as a peace officer, and who is employed while not on duty as a peace officer.

(1) Guards or messengers of common carriers, banks, and other financial institutions while actually employed in and about the shipment, transportation, or delivery of any money, treasure, bullion, bonds, or other thing of value within this state.

(2) Guards of contract carriers operating armored vehicles pursuant to California Highway Patrol and Public Utilities Commission authority (A) if hired prior to January 1, 1977; or (B) if hired on or after January 1, 1977, if they have completed a course in the carrying and use of firearms which meets the standards prescribed by the Department of Consumer Affairs.

(3) Private investigators and private patrol operators who are licensed pursuant to Chapter 11.5 (commencing with Section 7512) of, and alarm company operators who are licensed pursuant to Chapter 11.6 (commencing with Section 7590) of, Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, while acting within the course and scope of their employment.

(4) Uniformed security guards or night watch persons employed by any public agency, while acting within the scope and course of their employment.

(5) Uniformed security guards, regularly employed and compensated in that capacity by persons engaged in any lawful business, and uniformed alarm agents employed by an alarm company operator, while actually engaged in protecting and preserving the property of their employers or on duty or en route to or from their residences or their places of employment, and security guards and alarm agents en route to or from their residences or employer-required range training. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to prohibit cities and counties from enacting ordinances requiring alarm agents to register their names.

(6) Uniformed employees of private patrol operators and private investigators licensed pursuant to Chapter 11.5 (commencing with Section 7512) of Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code, while acting within the course and scope of their employment.

(e) In order to determine whether or not a firearm is loaded for the purpose of enforcing this section, peace officers are authorized to examine any firearm carried by anyone on his or her person or in a vehicle while in any public place or on any public street in an incorporated city or prohibited area of an unincorporated territory. Refusal to allow a peace officer to inspect a firearm pursuant to this section constitutes probable cause for arrest for violation of this section.

(f) As used in this section, "prohibited area" means any place where it is unlawful to discharge a weapon.

(g) A firearm shall be deemed to be loaded for the purposes of this section when there is an unexpended cartridge or shell, consisting of a case that holds a charge of powder and a bullet or shot, in, or attached in any manner to, the firearm, including, but not limited to, in the firing chamber, magazine, or clip thereof attached to the firearm; except that a muzzle-loader firearm shall be deemed to be loaded when it is capped or primed and has a powder charge and ball or shot in the barrel or cylinder.

(h) Nothing in this section shall prevent any person engaged in any lawful business, including a nonprofit organization, or any officer, employee, or agent authorized by that person for lawful purposes connected with that business, from having a loaded firearm within the person's place of business, or any person in lawful possession of private property from having a loaded firearm on that property.

(i) Nothing in this section shall prevent any person from carrying a loaded firearm in an area within an incorporated city while engaged in hunting, provided that the hunting at that place and time is not prohibited by the city council.

(j) (1) Nothing in this section is intended to preclude the carrying of any loaded firearm, under circumstances where it would otherwise be lawful, by a person who reasonably believes that the person or property of himself or herself or of another is in immediate, grave danger and that the carrying of the weapon is necessary for the preservation of that person or property. As used in this subdivision, "immediate" means the brief interval before and after the local law enforcement agency, when reasonably possible, has been notified of the danger and before the arrival of its assistance.

(2) A violation of this section is justifiable when a person who possesses a firearm reasonably believes that he or she is in grave danger because of circumstances forming the basis of a current restraining order issued by a court against another person or persons who has or have been found to pose a threat to his or her life or safety. This paragraph may not apply when the circumstances involve a mutual restraining order issued pursuant to Division 10 (commencing with Section 6200) of the Family Code absent a factual finding of a specific threat to the person's life or safety. It is not the intent of the Legislature to limit, restrict, or narrow the application of current statutory or judicial authority to apply this or other justifications to defendants charged with violating Section 12025 or of committing other similar offenses.

Upon trial for violating this section, the trier of fact shall determine whether the defendant was acting out of a reasonable belief that he or she was in grave danger.

(k) Nothing in this section is intended to preclude the carrying of a loaded firearm by any person while engaged in the act of making or attempting to make a lawful arrest.

SEC. 16. Section 12583 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12583. Nothing in this article shall prohibit the sale to, purchase by, possession of, or use of blowguns or blowgun ammunition by zookeepers, animal control officers, Department of Fish and Game personnel, humane officers whose names are maintained in the county record of humane officers pursuant to Section 14502 of the Corporations Code, or veterinarians in the course and scope of their business in order to administer medicine to animals.

SEC. 17. It is the intent of the Legislature that Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 14310) of Part 7 of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code as added by the act enacting this section shall not be construed to alter the laws regarding service areas of public water utilities regulated by the Public Utilities Commission.

SEC. 18. Section 9.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 25100 of the Corporations Code proposed by both this bill and AB 721. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, (2) each bill amends Section 25100 of the Corporations Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 721, in which case Section 9 of this bill shall not become operative.

An act to amend Sections 689.030, 695.221, 697.320, 704.130, and 706.030 of the Code of Civil Procedure, to amend Sections 3651, 3751.5, 3767, 4014, 4200, 4201, 4506.2, 4506.3, 5100, 5101, 5206, 5230, 5232, 5234, 5235, 5237, 5238, 5240, 5246, 5253, 7551, 7552, 7552.5, 7555, 7571, 7572, 7575, and 10005 of, to add Sections 3773, 4204, 5201, 5230.1, 5247, 7558, and 7604.5 to, to add Article 9 (commencing with Section 5600) to Chapter 8 of Division 9 of, and to repeal Sections 3780, 3781, 3782, and 5283 of, the Family Code, to amend Section 102425 of the Health and Safety Code, to add Section 19271.5 to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to add Section 1088.7 to the Unemployment Insurance Code, and to amend Sections 11350.1, 11350.6, 11350.7, 11352, 11356, 11478, 11478.1, 11478.2, 11478.5, 11478.51, 11478.8, 11489, and 14008.6 of, and to add Sections 11475.15, 11478.9, and 14008.7 to, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to child support.

[Approved by Governor October 1, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 3, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 689.030 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

689.030. (a) Whenever the district attorney, pursuant to Section 11350.7 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, levies upon property pursuant to a warrant or notice of levy for the collection of a support obligation:

(1) If the debtor is a natural person, the debtor is entitled to the same exemptions to which a judgment debtor is entitled. Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), the claim of exemption shall be made, heard, and determined as provided in Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Division 2 in the same manner as if the property were levied upon under a writ of execution.

(2) A third person may claim ownership or the right to possession of the property or a security interest in or lien on the property. Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c) or as otherwise provided by statute, the third-party claim shall be made, heard, and determined as provided in Division 4 (commencing with Section 720.010) in the same manner as if the property were levied upon under a writ of execution.

(b) In the case of a warrant or notice of levy issued pursuant to Section 11350.7 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the claim of exemption or the third-party claim shall be filed with the district attorney who issued the warrant or notice of levy.

(c) A claim of exemption or a third-party claim pursuant to this section shall be heard and determined in the court specified in Section 689.010 in the county where the district attorney enforcing the support obligation is located.

SEC. 2. Section 695.221 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

695.221. Satisfaction of a money judgment for support shall be credited as follows:

(a) The money shall first be credited against the current month's support.

(b) Any remaining money is next to be credited against the accrued interest that remains unsatisfied.

(c) Any remaining money shall be credited against the principal amount of the judgment remaining unsatisfied. If the judgment is payable in installments, the remaining money shall be credited against the matured installments in the order in which they matured.

(d) In cases enforced pursuant to Part D (commencing with Section 651) of Subchapter 4 of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code, if a lump-sum payment is collected from a support obligor who has money judgments for support owing to more than one family, after the implementation of the Statewide Automated Child Support System, or its replacement, and the interface system between the Statewide Automated Child Support Enforcement System, or its replacement, and the Los Angeles County Automated Child Support Enforcement System (ACSES Replacement System), all support collected shall be distributed pursuant to guidelines developed by the State Department of Social Services.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a), (b), and (c), a collection received as a result of a federal tax refund offset shall first be credited against the interest and then the principal amount of past due support that has been assigned to the state pursuant to Section 11477 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and federal law prior to the interest and then principal amount of any other past due support remaining unsatisfied.

(f) If federal law does not permit states to adopt the same order of distribution for the pre- and post-assistance child support arrears effective October 1, 1998, the following shall be the order of distribution of child support collections through September 30, 2000, except for federal tax refund offset collections, for child support received for families and children who are former recipients of Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) program benefits or former recipients of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program benefits:

(2) Any remaining money shall next be credited against interest that accrued on arrearages owed to the family or children since leaving the AFDC program or the TANF program and then such arrearages.

(3) Any remaining money shall next be credited against interest that accrued on arrearages owed during the time the family or children received benefits under the AFDC program or the TANF program and then such arrearages.

(4) Any remaining money shall next be credited against interest that accrued on arrearages owed to the family or children prior to receiving benefits from the AFDC program or the TANF program and then such arrearages.

(g) If federal law does permit states to adopt the same order of distribution for the pre- and post-assistance child support arrears effective October 1, 1998, or effective October 1, 2000, whichever comes first, the following shall be the order of distribution of child support collections, except for federal tax refund offset collections, for child support received for families and children who are former recipients of AFDC program benefits or former recipients of TANF program benefits:

(2) Any remaining money shall next be credited against interest that accrued on arrearages owed to the family or children since leaving the AFDC program or the TANF program and then such arrearages.

(3) Any remaining money shall next be credited against interest that accrued on arrearages owed to the family or children prior to receiving benefits from the AFDC program or the TANF program and then such arrearages.

(4) Any remaining money shall next be credited against interest that accrued on arrearages owed during the time the family or children received benefits under the AFDC program or the TANF program and then such arrearages.

SEC. 3. Section 697.320 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

697.320. (a) A judgment lien on real property is created under this section by recording an abstract, an interstate lien form promulgated by the federal Secretary of Health and Human Services pursuant to Section 652(a)(11) of Title 42 of the United States Code, or a certified copy of either of the following money judgments with the county recorder:

(2) A judgment entered pursuant to Section 667.7 (judgment against health care provider requiring periodic payments).

(b) Unless the money judgment is satisfied or the judgment lien is released, a judgment lien created under paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) or by recording an interstate lien form, as described in subdivision (a), continues during the period the judgment remains enforceable. Unless the money judgment is satisfied or the judgment lien is released, a judgment lien created under paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) continues for a period of 10 years from the date of its creation. The duration of a judgment lien created under paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) may be extended any number of times by recording during the time the judgment lien is in existence a certified copy of the judgment in the manner provided in this section for the initial recording; this rerecording has the effect of extending the duration of the judgment lien created under paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) until 10 years from the date of the rerecording.

SEC. 4. Section 704.130 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

704.130. (a) Before payment, benefits from a disability or health insurance policy or program are exempt without making a claim. After payment, the benefits are exempt.

(b) Subdivision (a) does not apply to benefits that are paid or payable to cover the cost of health care if the judgment creditor is a provider of health care whose claim is the basis on which the benefits are paid or payable.

(c) During the payment of disability benefits described in subdivision (a) to a judgment debtor under a support judgment, the judgment creditor or district attorney may seek to apply the benefit payments to satisfy the judgment by an earnings assignment order for support, as defined in Section 706.011, or any other applicable enforcement procedure, but the amount to be withheld pursuant to the earnings assignment order or other procedure shall not exceed the amount permitted to be withheld on an earnings assignment order for support under Section 706.052.

SEC. 5. Section 706.030 of the Code of Civil Procedure is amended to read:

706.030. (a) A "withholding order for support" is an earnings withholding order issued on a writ of execution to collect delinquent amounts payable under a judgment for the support of a child, or spouse or former spouse, of the judgment debtor. A withholding order for support shall be denoted as such on its face.

(b) The district attorney may issue a withholding order for support on a notice of levy pursuant to Section 11350.7 of the Welfare and Institutions Code to collect a support obligation.

(1) When the district attorney issues a withholding order for support, a reference in this chapter to a levying officer is deemed to mean the district attorney who issues the withholding order for support.

(2) Service of a withholding order for support issued by the district attorney may be made by first-class mail or in any other manner described in Section 706.101. Service of a withholding order for support issued by the district attorney is complete when it is received by the employer or a person described in paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 706.101, or if service is by first-class mail, service is complete as specified in Section 1013.

(3) The district attorney shall serve upon the employer the withholding order for support, a copy of the order, and a notice informing the support obligor of the effect of the order and of his or her right to hearings and remedies provided in this chapter and in the Welfare and Institutions Code. The notice shall be accompanied by the forms necessary to obtain an administrative review and a judicial hearing and instructions on how to file the forms. Within 10 days from the date of service, the employer shall deliver to the support obligor a copy of the withholding order for support, the forms to obtain an administrative review and judicial hearing, and the notice. If the support obligor is no longer employed by the employer and the employer does not owe the support obligor any earnings, the employer shall inform the district attorney that the support obligor is no longer employed by the employer.

(4) An employer who fails to comply with paragraph (3) shall be subject to a civil penalty of five hundred dollars ($500) for each occurrence.

(5) The district attorney shall provide for an administrative review to reconsider or modify the amount to be withheld for arrearages pursuant to the withholding order for support, if the support obligor requests a review at any time after service of the withholding order. The review shall be completed within 15 working days after the request is received by the district attorney. The district attorney shall notify the employer if the review results in any modifications to the withholding order for support. If the district attorney cannot complete the administrative review within 15 working days, the district attorney shall notify the employer to suspend withholding any disputed amount pending the completion of the review and the determination by the district attorney.

(6) Nothing in this section prohibits the support obligor from seeking a judicial determination of arrearages pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 11350.8 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or from filing a motion for equitable division of earnings pursuant to Section 706.052 either prior to or after the administrative review provided by this section. Within five business days after receiving notice of the obligor having filed for judicial relief pursuant to this section, the district attorney shall notify the employer to suspend withholding any disputed amount pending a determination by the court. The employer shall then adjust the withholding within not more than nine days of receiving the notice from the district attorney.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter:

(1) An employer shall continue to withhold pursuant to a withholding order for support until the earliest of the dates specified in paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 706.022, except that a withholding order for support shall automatically terminate one year after the employment of the employee by the employer terminates.

(2) A withholding order for support has priority over any other earnings withholding order. An employer upon whom a withholding order for support is served shall withhold and pay over earnings of the employee pursuant to such order notwithstanding the requirements of another earnings withholding order.

(3) Subject to paragraph (2) and to Article 3 (commencing with Section 706.050), an employer shall withhold earnings pursuant to both a withholding order for support and another earnings withholding order simultaneously.

(4) An employer who willfully fails to withhold and forward support pursuant to a valid earnings withholding order for support issued and served upon the employer pursuant to this chapter is liable to the support obligee, as defined in Section 5214 of the Family Code, for the amount of support not withheld, forwarded, or otherwise paid to the support obligee.

(5) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an employer shall send all earnings withheld pursuant to a withholding order for support to the levying officer or the Child Support Centralized Collection and Distribution Unit as described in Section 11475.4 of the Welfare and Institutions Code within the time period specified by federal law.

(6) Once the Child Support Centralized Collection and Distribution Unit as described in Section 11475.4 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is operational, all support payments made pursuant to an earnings withholding order shall be made to that unit.

(7) Earnings withheld pursuant to an earnings withholding order for support shall be credited toward satisfaction of a support judgment as specified in Section 695.221.

SEC. 6. Section 3651 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3651. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (c) and (d) and subject to Article 3 (commencing with Section 3680) and Sections

3552, 3587, and 4004, a support order may be modified or terminated at any time as the court determines to be necessary.

(b) Upon the filing of a supplemental complaint pursuant to Section 2330.1, a child support order in the original proceeding may be modified in conformity with the statewide uniform guideline for child support to provide for the support of all of the children of the same parents who were named in the initial and supplemental pleadings, to consolidate arrearages and wage assignments for children of the parties, and to consolidate orders for support.

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (b), a support order may not be modified or terminated as to an amount that accrued before the date of the filing of the notice of motion or order to show cause to modify or terminate.

(d) An order for spousal support may not be modified or terminated to the extent that a written agreement, or, if there is no written agreement, an oral agreement entered into in open court between the parties, specifically provides that the spousal support is not subject to modification or termination.

(e) This section applies whether or not the support order is based upon an agreement between the parties.

(f) This section is effective only with respect to a property settlement agreement entered into on or after January 1, 1970, and does not affect an agreement entered into before January 1, 1970, as to which Chapter 1308 of the Statutes of 1967 shall apply.

SEC. 7. Section 3751.5 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3751.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an employer or insurer shall not deny enrollment of a child under the health insurance coverage of a child's parent on any of the following grounds:

(1) The child was born out of wedlock.

(2) The child is not claimed as a dependent on the parent's federal income tax return.

(3) The child does not reside with the parent or in the insurer's service area.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in any case in which a parent is required by a court or administrative order to provide health insurance coverage for a child and the parent is eligible for family health coverage through an employer or an insurer, the employer or insurer shall do all of the following, as applicable:

(1) Permit the parent to enroll under health insurance coverage any child who is otherwise eligible to enroll for that coverage, without regard to any enrollment period restrictions.

(2) If the parent is enrolled in health insurance coverage but fails to apply to obtain coverage of the child, enroll that child under the health coverage upon presentation of the court order or request by the district attorney, the other parent or person having custody of the child, or the Medi-Cal program.

(3) The employer or insurer shall not disenroll or eliminate coverage of a child unless either of the following applies:

(A) The employer has eliminated family health insurance coverage for all of the employer's employees.

(B) The employer or insurer is provided with satisfactory written evidence that either of the following apply:

(i) The court order or administrative order is no longer in effect or is terminated pursuant to Section 3770.

(ii) The child is or will be enrolled in comparable health insurance coverage through another insurer that will take effect not later than the effective date of the child's disenrollment.

(c) In any case in which health insurance coverage is provided for a child pursuant to a court or administrative order, the insurer shall do all of the following:

(1) Provide any information that may be necessary for the child to obtain benefits through the coverage to both parents or the person having custody of the child and to the district attorney when requested by the district attorney.

(2) Permit the noncovered parent or person having custody of the child, or a provider with the approval of the noncovered parent or person having custody, to submit claims for covered services without the approval of the covered parent.

(3) Make payment on claims submitted in accordance with subparagraph (2) directly to the noncovered parent or person having custody, the provider, or to the Medi-Cal program. Payment on claims for services to the child shall be made to the covered parent for claims submitted or paid by the covered parent.

(d) For purposes of this section, "insurer" includes every health care service plan, self-insured welfare benefit plan, including those regulated pursuant to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (29 U.S.C. Sec. 1001, et seq.), self-funded employer plan, disability insurer, nonprofit hospital service plan, labor union trust fund, employer, and any other similar plan, insurer, or entity offering a health coverage plan.

(e) For purposes of this section, "person having custody of the child" is defined as a legal guardian, a caregiver who is authorized to enroll the child in school or to authorize medical care for the child pursuant to Section 6550, or a person with whom the child resides.

SEC. 8. Section 3767 of the Family Code is amended to read:

3767. The employer or other person providing health insurance shall do all of the following:

(a) Notify the applicant for the assignment order or notice of assignment of the commencement date of the coverage of the child.

(b) Provide evidence of coverage and any information necessary for the child to obtain benefits through the coverage to both parents or the person having custody of the child and to the district attorney when requested by the district attorney.

(c) Upon request by the parents or person having custody of the child, provide all forms and other documentation necessary for the purpose of submitting claims to the insurance carrier which the employer or other person providing health insurance usually provides to insureds.

SEC. 9. Section 3773 is added to the Family Code, to read:

3773. (a) This section applies only to Title IV-D cases where support enforcement services are being provided by the district attorney pursuant to Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(b) After the court has issued a health insurance coverage assignment order pursuant to this article, the district attorney may serve on the employer a notice of health insurance coverage assignment in lieu of the health insurance coverage assignment order. The notice of health insurance coverage assignment may be combined with the notice of earnings assignment that is authorized by Section 5246.

(c) A notice of health insurance coverage assignment shall have the same force and effect as a health insurance coverage assignment order.

(d) The obligor shall have the same right to move to quash or terminate a notice of health insurance coverage assignment as provided in this article for a health insurance coverage assignment order.

(e) The notice of health insurance assignment form shall contain the same information as the forms adopted by Judicial Council pursuant to Section 3772.

SEC. 10. Section 3780 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 3781 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 12. Section 3782 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 4014 of the Family Code is amended to read:

4014. (a) Any order for child support issued or modified pursuant to this chapter shall include a provision requiring the obligor and child support obligee to notify the other parent or, if the order requires payment through an agency designated under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 651, et seq.), the agency named in the order, of the name and address of his or her current employer.

(b) To the extent required by federal law, and subject to applicable confidentiality provisions of state or federal law, any judgment for paternity and any order for child support entered or modified pursuant to any provision of law shall include a provision requiring the child support obligor and obligee to file with the court all of the following information:

(1) Residential and mailing address.

(4) Driver's license number.
(5) Name, address, and telephone number of the employer.
(6) Any other information prescribed by the Judicial Council.

The judgment or order shall specify that each parent is responsible for providing his or her own information, that the information must be filed with the court within 10 days of the court order, and that new or different information must be filed with the court within 10 days after any event causing a change in the previously provided information.

(c) Once the child support registry, as described in Section 16576 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is operational, any judgment for paternity and any order for child support entered or modified pursuant to any provision of law shall include a provision requiring the child support obligor and obligee to file and keep updated the information specified in subdivision (b) with the child support registry.

(d) The Judicial Council shall develop forms to implement this section. These forms shall be available no later than July 1, 1998.

SEC. 14. Section 4200 of the Family Code is amended to read:

4200. In any proceeding where a court makes or has made an order requiring the payment of child support to a parent receiving welfare moneys for the maintenance of children for whom support may be ordered, the court shall do both of the following:

(a) Direct that the payments of support shall be made to the county officer designated by the court for that purpose. Once the Child Support Centralized Collection and Distribution Unit is implemented pursuant to Section 11475.4 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, all payments shall be directed to the Child Support Centralized Collection and Distribution Unit instead of the county officer designated by the court.

(b) Direct the district attorney to appear on behalf of the welfare recipient in any proceeding to enforce the order.

SEC. 15. Section 4201 of the Family Code is amended to read:

4201. In any proceeding where a court makes or has made an order requiring the payment of child support to the person having custody of a child for whom support may be ordered, the court may do either or both of the following:

(a) Direct that the payments shall be made to the county officer designated by the court for that purpose. Once the Child Support Centralized Collection and Distribution Unit is implemented pursuant to Section 11475.4 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, all payments shall be directed to the Child Support Centralized Collection and Distribution Unit instead of the county officer designated by the court.

(b) Direct the district attorney to appear on behalf of the minor children in any proceeding to enforce the order.

SEC. 16. Section 4204 is added to the Family Code, to read:

4204. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in any proceeding where the court has made an order requiring the payment of child support to a person having custody of a child and the child support is subsequently assigned to the county pursuant to Section 11477 of the Welfare and Institutions Code or the person having custody has requested the district attorney to provide child support enforcement services pursuant to Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the district attorney may issue a notice directing that the payments shall be made to the district attorney, another county office, or the Child Support Centralized Collection Distribution Unit pursuant to Section 11475.4 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. The notice shall be served on both the support obligor and obligee in compliance with Section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The district attorney shall file the notice in the action in which the support order was issued.

SEC. 17. Section 4506.2 of the Family Code is amended to read:

4506.2. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, when a support obligation is being enforced pursuant to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act, the agency enforcing the obligation may file and record a substitution of payee, if a judgment or abstract of judgment has previously been recorded pursuant to Section 697.320 of the Code of Civil Procedure by the support obligee or by a different governmental agency.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, when the Title IV-D agency ceases enforcement of a support obligation at the request of the support obligee, the agency may file and record a substitution of payee, if a judgment or abstract of judgment has been previously recorded pursuant to Section 697.320 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(c) The substitution of payee shall contain all of the following:

(1) The name and address of the governmental agency or substituted payee filing the substitution and a notice that the substituted payee is to be contacted when notice to a lienholder may or must be given.

(2) The title of the court, the cause, and number of the proceeding where the substituted payee has registered the judgment.

(3) The name and last known address of the party ordered to pay support.

(4) The recorder identification number or book and page of the recorded document to which the substitution of payee applies.

(5) Any other information deemed reasonable and appropriate by the Judicial Council.

(d) The recorded substitution of payee shall not affect the priorities created by earlier recordations of support judgments or abstracts of support judgments.

(e) An agency enforcing the support obligation pursuant to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act is not required to obtain prior court approval or a clerk's certification when filing and recording a substitution of payee under this section.

SEC. 18. Section 4506.3 of the Family Code is amended to read:

4506.3. The Judicial Council, in consultation with the California Family Support Council, the State Department of Social Services, and title insurance industry representatives, shall develop a single form, which conforms with the requirements of Section 27361.6 of the Government Code, for the substitution of payee, for notice directing payment of support to the district attorney pursuant to Section 4204, and for notice that support has been assigned pursuant to Section 11477 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. The form shall be available no later than July 1, 1998.

SEC. 19. Section 5100 of the Family Code is amended to read:

5100. Notwithstanding Section 291, a child or family support order may be enforced by a writ of execution or a notice of levy pursuant to Section 706.030 of the Code of Civil Procedure or Section 11350.7 of the Welfare and Institutions Code without prior court approval as long as the support order remains enforceable.

SEC. 20. Section 5101 of the Family Code is amended to read:

5101. Notwithstanding Section 291, a spousal support order may be enforced by a writ of execution or a notice of levy pursuant to Section 706.030 of the Code of Civil Procedure or Section 11350.7 of the Welfare and Institutions Code without prior court approval as long as the support order remains enforceable.

SEC. 21. Section 5201 is added to the Family Code, to read:

5201. "Arrearage" or "arrearages" is the amount necessary to satisfy a support judgment or order pursuant to Section 695.210 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 22. Section 5206 of the Family Code is amended to read:

5206. "Earnings," to the extent that they are subject to an earnings assignment order for support under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, include:

(a) Wages, salary, bonus, money, and benefits described in Sections 704.110, 704.113, and 704.115 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(b) Payments due for services of independent contractors, interest, dividends, rents, royalties, residuals, patent rights, or mineral or other natural resource rights.

(c) Payments or credits due or becoming due as a result of written or oral contracts for services or sales whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise.

(d) Payments due for workers' compensation temporary disability benefits.

(e) Payments due as a result of disability from benefits described in Section 704.130 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 23. Section 5230 of the Family Code is amended to read:

5230. When the court orders a party to pay an amount for support or orders a modification of the amount of support to be paid, the court shall include in its order an earnings assignment order for support that orders the employer of the obligor to pay to the obligee that portion of the obligor's earnings due or to become due in the future as will be sufficient to pay an amount to cover both of the following:

(a) The amount ordered by the court for support.

SEC. 24. Section 5230.1 is added to the Family Code, to read:

5230.1. (a) An earnings assignment or income withholding order for support issued by a court or administrative agency of another state is binding upon an employer of the obligor to the same extent as an earnings assignment order made by a court of this state.

(b) When an employer receives an earnings assignment order or an income withholding order for support from a court or administrative agency in another state, all of the provisions of this chapter shall apply.

SEC. 25. Section 5232 of the Family Code is amended to read:

5232. Service on an employer of an assignment order may be made by first-class mail in the manner prescribed in Section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The obligee shall serve the documents specified in Section 5234.

SEC. 26. Section 5234 of the Family Code is amended to read:

5234. Within 10 days of service of an assignment order on an employer, the employer shall deliver both of the following to the obligor:

(b) A written statement of the obligor's rights under the law to seek to quash, modify, or stay service of the earnings assignment order, together with a blank form that the obligor can file with the court to request a hearing to quash, modify, or stay service of the earnings assignment order with instructions on how to file the form and obtain a hearing date.

(c) The Judicial Council shall develop the forms specified in subdivision (b). The forms shall be available no later than July 1, 1998.

SEC. 27. Section 5235 of the Family Code is amended to read:

5235. (a) The employer shall continue to withhold and forward support as required by the assignment order until served with notice terminating the assignment order.

(b) Within 10 days of service of a substitution of payee on the employer, the employer shall forward all subsequent support to the governmental entity or other payee that sent the substitution.

(c) The employer shall send the amounts withheld to the obligee within the timeframe specified in federal law and shall report to the obligee the date on which the amount was withheld from the obligor's wages.

(d) The employer may deduct from the earnings of the employee the sum of one dollar ($1) for each payment made pursuant to the order.

(e) Once the Child Support Centralized Collection and Distribution Unit as required by Section 11475.4 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is operational, the employer shall send all earnings withheld pursuant to this chapter to the Child Support Centralized Collection and Distribution Unit instead of the obligee.

SEC. 28. Section 5237 of the Family Code is amended to read:

5237. (a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b) and (c), the obligee shall notify the employer of the obligor, by first-class mail, postage prepaid, of any change of address within a reasonable period of time after the change.

(b) Where payments have been ordered to be made to a county officer designated by the court, the obligee who is the parent, guardian, or other person entitled to receive payment through the designated county officer shall notify the designated county officer by first-class mail, postage prepaid, of any address change within a reasonable period of time after the change.

(c) If the obligee is receiving support payments from the Child Support Centralized Collection and Distribution Unit as required by Section 11475.4 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the obligee shall notify the Child Support Centralized Collection and Distribution Unit instead of the employer of the obligor as provided in subdivision (a).

(d) If the employer, designated county officer, or the Child Support Centralized Collection and Distribution Unit is unable to deliver payments under the assignment order for a period of six months due to the failure of the obligee to notify the employer or designated county officer of a change of address, the employer or designated county officer shall not make any further payments under the assignment order and shall return all undeliverable payments to the obligor.

SEC. 29. Section 5238 of the Family Code is amended to read:

5238. (a) Where an assignment order or assignment orders include both current support and payments towards the liquidation of arrearages, priority shall be given first to the current child support obligation, then the current spousal support obligation, and thereafter to the liquidation of child and then spousal support arrearages.

(b) Where there are multiple assignment orders for the same employee, the employer shall prorate the withheld payments as follows:

(1) If the obligor has more than one assignment for support, the employer shall add together the amount of support due for each assignment.

(2) If 50 percent of the obligor's net disposable earnings will not pay in full all of the assignments for support, the employer shall prorate it first among all of the current support assignments in the same proportion that each assignment bears to the total current support owed.

(3) The employer shall apply any remainder to the assignments for arrearage support in the same proportion that each assignment bears to the total arrearage owed.

SEC. 30. Section 5240 of the Family Code is amended to read:

5240. Upon the filing and service of a motion and a notice of motion by the obligor, the court shall terminate the service of an assignment order if past due support has been paid in full, including any interest due, and if any of the following conditions exist:

(a) With regard to orders for spousal support, the death or remarriage of the spouse to whom support is owed.

(b) With regard to orders for child support, the death or emancipation of the child for whom support is owed.

(c) The court determines that there is good cause, as defined in Section 5260, to terminate the assignment order. This subdivision does not apply if there has been more than one application for an assignment order.

(d) The obligor meets the conditions of an alternative arrangement specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 5260, and a wage assignment has not been previously terminated and subsequently initiated.

(f) The termination of the stay of an assignment order under Section 5261 was improper, but only if that termination was based upon the obligor's failure to make timely support payments as described in subdivision (b) of Section 5261.

(g) The employer or agency designated to provide services under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act or the Child Support Centralized Collection and Distribution Unit is unable to deliver payment for a period of six months due to the failure of the obligee to notify that employer or agency or the Child Support Centralized Collection and Distribution Unit of a change in the obligee's address.

SEC. 31. Section 5246 of the Family Code is amended to read:

5246. (a) This section applies only to Title IV-D cases where support enforcement services are being provided by the district attorney pursuant to Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(b) In lieu of an earnings assignment order, the district attorney may serve on the employer a notice of assignment in the manner specified in Section 5232. A notice of assignment shall have the same force and effect as an earnings assignment order.

(c) The notice of assignment shall contain, at a minimum, the following information:

(1) The amount of current support ordered by the court.

(2) Any additional amount to be withheld and applied to arrearages.

(3) The date of the most recent support order.

(4) The name and address of the district attorney to whom the support is to be paid or the Child Support Centralized Collection and Distribution Unit.

(5) The amount of arrearages and the date through which the arrearages have been calculated, and a statement as to whether or not the arrearages include interest.

(6) Instructions to the employer on how to comply with the notice of assignment.

(7) A written statement of the obligor's rights under the law to seek to quash or modify the notice of assignment, together with a blank form which the obligor can file with the court to request a hearing to modify or quash the assignment with instructions on how to file the form and obtain a hearing date.

(d) If the underlying court order for support does not provide for an arrearage payment, or if an additional arrearage accrues after the date of the court order for support, the district attorney may send a notice of assignment directly to the employer which specifies the updated arrearage amount and directs the employer to withhold an additional amount not to exceed 3 percent of the arrearage or fifty dollars ($50), whichever is greater, to be applied towards liquidation of the arrearages.

(e) Within 10 days of service of the notice of assignment, the employer shall deliver both of the following to the obligor:

(1) A copy of the notice of assignment.

(f) If the obligor requests a hearing, a hearing date shall be scheduled within 20 days of the filing of the request with the court. The clerk of the court shall provide notice of the hearing to the district attorney and the obligor no later than 10 days prior to the hearing.

(1) If at the hearing the obligor establishes that he or she is not the obligor or good cause or an alternative arrangement as provided in Section 5260, the court may order that service of the notice of assignment be quashed. If the court quashes service of the notice of assignment, the district attorney shall notify the employer within 10 days.

(2) If the obligor contends at the hearing that the payment of arrearages at the rate specified in this section is excessive or that the total arrearages owing is incorrect, and if it is determined that payment of the arrearages at the rate specified in this section creates an undue hardship upon the obligor or that the withholding would exceed the maximum amount permitted by Section 1673(b) of Title 15 of the United States Code Annotated, the rate at which the arrearages must be paid shall be reduced to a rate that is fair and reasonable considering the circumstances of the parties and the best interest of the child. If it is determined at a hearing that the total amount of arrearages calculated is erroneous, the court shall modify the amount calculated to the correct amount. If the court modifies the total amount of arrearages owed or reduces the monthly payment due on the arrearages, the district attorney shall serve the employer with an amended notice of assignment within 10 days.

(g) If an obligor's current support obligation has terminated by operation of law, the district attorney may serve a notice of assignment on the employer which directs the employer to continue withholding from the obligor's earnings an amount not to exceed the current support order that was in effect or 3 percent of the total support arrearages including interest, whichever is greater, until such time that the employer is notified by the district attorney that the arrearages have been paid in full. The employer shall provide the obligor with the same documents as provided in subdivision (e). The obligor shall be entitled to the same rights to a hearing as specified in subdivision (f).

(h) The district attorney shall retain a copy of the notice of assignment and shall file a copy with the court whenever a hearing concerning the notice of assignment is requested.

(i) Nothing in this section prohibits the district attorney from seeking a payment on arrearages which is greater than the amount specified in this section. The district attorney may seek a higher payment on arrearages by filing an ex parte application with the court.

(j) The district attorney may transmit a notice of earnings assignment and other forms required by this section to the employer through electronic means.

SEC. 32. Section 5247 is added to the Family Code, to read:

5247. Neither the district attorney nor an employer shall be subject to any civil liability for any amount withheld and paid to the obligee, the district attorney, or the Child Support Centralized Collection and Distribution Unit pursuant to an earnings assignment order or notice of assignment.

SEC. 33. Section 5253 of the Family Code is amended to read:

5253. Upon receipt of the application, the court shall issue, without notice to the obligor, an assignment order requiring the employer of the obligor to pay to the obligee or the Child Support Centralized Collection and Distribution Unit that portion of the earnings of the obligor due or to become due in the future as will be sufficient to pay an amount to cover both of the following:

(a) The amount ordered by the court for support.

(b) An amount which shall be ordered by the court to be paid toward the liquidation of any arrearage or past due support amount.

SEC. 34. Section 5283 of the Family Code is repealed.

SEC. 35. Article 9 (commencing with Section 5600) is added to Chapter 8 of Division 9 of the Family Code, to read:

Article 9. Intercounty Support Obligations

5600. (a) A district attorney or obligee may register an order for support or earnings withholding, or both, obtained in another county of the state.

(b) An obligee may register a support order in the court of another county of this state in the manner, with the effect, and for the purposes provided in this part. The orders may be registered in any county in which the obligor, the obligee, or the child who is the subject of the order resides, or in any county in which the obligor has income, assets, or any other property.

5601. (a) When the district attorney is responsible for the enforcement of a support order pursuant to Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, the district attorney may register a support order made in another county by utilizing the procedures set forth in Section 5602 or by filing all of the following in the superior court of his or her county:

(2) A statement of arrearages, including an accounting of amounts ordered and paid each month, together with any added costs, fees, and interest.

(3) A statement prepared by the district attorney showing the post office address of the district attorney, the last known place of residence or post office address of the obligor; the most recent address of the obligor set forth in the licensing records of the Department of Motor Vehicles, if known; and a list of other states and counties in California that are known to the district attorney in which the original order of support and any modifications are registered.

(b) The filing of the documents described in subdivision (a) constitutes registration under this chapter.

(c) Promptly upon registration, the district attorney shall, in compliance with the requirements of Section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or in any other manner as provided by law, serve the obligor with copies of the documents described in subdivision (a).

(d) If a motion to vacate registration is filed under Section 5603, any party may introduce into evidence copies of any pleadings, documents, or orders that have been filed in the original court or other courts where the support order has been registered or modified. Certified copies of the documents shall not be required unless a party objects to the authenticity or accuracy of the document in which case it shall be the responsibility of the party who is asserting the authenticity of the document to obtain a certified copy of the questioned document.

(e) Upon registration, the clerk of the court shall forward a notice of registration to the courts in other counties and states in which the original order for support and any modifications were issued or registered. No further proceedings regarding the obligor's support obligations shall be filed in other counties.

(f) The procedure prescribed by this section may also be used to register support or wage and earnings assignment orders of other California jurisdictions that previously have been registered for purposes of enforcement only pursuant to the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act (Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 4800)) in another California county. The district attorney may register such an order by filing an endorsed file copy of the registered California order plus any subsequent orders, including procedural amendments.

(g) The Judicial Council shall develop the forms necessary to effectuate this section. These forms shall be available no later than July 1, 1998.

5602. (a) An obligee other than the district attorney may register an order issued in this state using the same procedures specified in subdivision (a) of Section 5601, except that the obligee shall prepare and file the statement of registration. The statement shall be verified and signed by the obligee showing the mailing address of the obligee, the last known place of residence or mailing address of the obligor, and a list of other states and counties in California in which, to the obligee's knowledge, the original order of support and any modifications are registered.

(b) Upon receipt of the documents described in subdivision (a) of Section 5601, the clerk of the court shall file them without payment of a filing fee or other cost to the obligee. The filing constitutes registration under this chapter.

(c) Promptly upon registration, the clerk of the court shall send, by any form of mail requiring a return receipt from the addressee only, to the obligor at the address given a notice of the registration with a copy of the registered support order and the post office address of the obligee. Proof shall be made to the satisfaction of the court that the obligor personally received the notice of registration by mail or other method of service. A return receipt signed by the obligor shall be satisfactory evidence of personal receipt.

5603. (a) An obligor shall have 20 days after the service of notice of the registration of a California order of support in which to file a noticed motion requesting the court to vacate the registration or for other relief. In an action under this section, there shall be no joinder of actions, coordination of actions, or cross-complaints, and the claims or defenses shall be limited strictly to the identity of the obligor, the validity of the underlying California support order, or the accuracy of the obligee's statement of the amount of support remaining unpaid unless the amount has been previously established by a judgment or order. The obligor shall serve a copy of the motion, personally or by first-class mail, on the office of the district attorney, private attorney representing the obligee, or obligee representing himself or herself who filed the request for registration of the order, not less than 15 days prior to the date on which the motion is to be heard. If service is by mail, Section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure applies. If the obligor does not file the motion within 20 days, the registered California support order and all other documents filed pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 5601 or Section 5602 are confirmed.

(b) At the hearing on the motion to vacate the registration of the order, the obligor may present only matters that would be available to the obligor as defenses in an action to enforce a support judgment. If the obligor shows, and the court finds, that an appeal from the order is pending or that a stay of execution has been granted, the court shall stay enforcement of the order until the appeal is concluded, the time for appeal has expired, or the order is vacated, upon satisfactory proof that the obligor has furnished security for payment of the support ordered. If the obligor shows, and the court finds, any ground upon which enforcement of a California support order may be stayed, the court shall stay enforcement of the order for an appropriate period if the obligor furnishes security for payment of support.

5604. A previous determination of paternity made by another state, whether established through voluntary acknowledgment procedures in effect in that state or through an administrative or judicial process shall be given full faith and credit by the courts in this state, and shall have the same effect as a paternity determination made in this state and may be enforced and satisfied in a like manner.

7551. In a civil action or proceeding in which paternity is a relevant fact, the court may upon its own initiative or upon suggestion made by or on behalf of any person who is involved, and shall upon motion of any party to the action or proceeding made at a time so as not to delay the proceedings unduly, order the mother, child, and alleged father to submit to genetic tests. If a party refuses to submit to the tests, the court may resolve the question of paternity against that party or enforce its order if the rights of others and the interests of justice so require. A party's refusal to submit to the tests is admissible in evidence in any proceeding to determine paternity. For the purposes of this chapter, "genetic tests" means any genetic test that is generally acknowledged as reliable by accreditation bodies designated by the United States Secretary of Health and Human Services.

SEC. 37. Section 7552 of the Family Code is amended to read:

7552. The tests shall be performed by a laboratory approved by any accreditation body that has been approved by the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services. Any party or person at whose suggestion the tests have been ordered may demand that other experts, qualified as examiners of blood types, perform independent tests under order of the court, the results of which may be offered in evidence. The number and qualifications of these experts shall be determined by the court.

SEC. 38. Section 7552.5 of the Family Code is amended to read:

7552.5. (a) A copy of the results of all genetic tests performed under Section 7552 or 7558 shall be served upon all parties, by any method of service authorized under Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 1010) of Title 14 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure except personal service, no later than 20 days prior to any hearing in which the genetic test results may be admitted into evidence. The genetic test results shall be accompanied by a declaration under penalty of perjury of the custodian of records or other qualified employee of the laboratory that conducted the genetic tests, stating in substance each of the following:

(1) The declarant is the duly authorized custodian of the records or other qualified employee of the laboratory, and has authority to certify the records.

(2) A statement which establishes in detail the chain of custody of all genetic samples collected, including the date on which the genetic sample was collected, the identity of each person from whom a genetic sample was collected, the identity of the person who performed or witnessed the collecting of the genetic samples and packaged them for transmission to the laboratory, the date on which the genetic samples were received by the laboratory, the identity of the person who unpacked the samples and forwarded them to the person who performed the laboratory analysis of the genetic sample, and the identification and qualifications of all persons who performed the laboratory analysis and published the results.

(3) A statement which establishes that the procedures used by the laboratory to conduct the tests for which the test results are attached are used in the laboratory's ordinary course of business to ensure accuracy and proper identification of genetic samples.

(4) The genetic test results were prepared at or near the time of completion of the genetic tests by personnel of the business qualified to perform genetic tests in the ordinary course of business.

(b) The genetic test results shall be admitted into evidence at the hearing or trial to establish paternity, without the need for foundation testimony of authenticity and accuracy, unless a written objection to the genetic test results is filed with the court and served on all other parties, by any party no later than five days prior to the hearing or trial where paternity is at issue.

(c) If a written objection is filed by the court and served on all parties within the time specified in subdivision (b), experts appointed by the court shall be called by the court as witnesses to testify to their findings and are subject to cross-examination by the parties.

SEC. 39. Section 7555 of the Family Code is amended to read:

7555. (a) There is a rebuttable presumption, affecting the burden of proof, of paternity, if the court finds that the paternity index, as calculated by the experts qualified as examiners of genetic markers, is 100 or greater. This presumption may be rebutted by a preponderance of the evidence.

(b) As used in this section:

(1) "Genetic markers" mean separate genes or complexes of genes identified as a result of genetic tests.

(2) "Paternity index" means the commonly accepted indicator used for denoting the existence of paternity. It expresses the relative strength of the test results for and against paternity. The paternity index, computed using results of various paternity tests following accepted statistical principles, shall be in accordance with the method of expression accepted at the International Conference on Parentage Testing at Airlie House, Virginia, May 1982, sponsored by the American Association of Blood Banks.

SEC. 40. Section 7558 is added to the Family Code, to read:

7558. (a) This section applies only to cases where support enforcement services are being provided by the district attorney pursuant to Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(b) In any civil action or proceeding in which paternity is a relevant fact, and in which the issue of paternity is contested, the district attorney may issue an administrative order requiring the mother, child, and the alleged father to submit to genetic testing if any of the following conditions exist:

(1) The person alleging paternity has signed a statement under penalty of perjury that sets forth facts that establish a reasonable possibility of the requisite sexual conduct between the mother and the alleged father.

(2) The person denying paternity has signed a statement under penalty of perjury that sets forth facts that establish a reasonable possibility of the nonexistence of the requisite sexual contact between the parties.

(3) The alleged father has filed an answer in the action or proceeding in which paternity is a relevant fact and has requested that genetic tests be performed.

(4) The mother and the alleged father agree in writing to submit to genetic tests.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (b), the district attorney may not order an individual to submit to genetic tests if the individual has been found to have good cause for failure to cooperate in the determination of paternity pursuant to Section 11477 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(d) The district attorney shall pay the costs of any genetic tests that are ordered under subdivision (b), subject to the county obtaining a court order for reimbursement from the alleged father if paternity is established under Section 7553.

(e) Nothing in this section prohibits any person who has been ordered by the district attorney to submit to genetic tests pursuant to this section from filing a notice of motion with the court in the action or proceeding in which paternity is a relevant fact seeking relief from the district attorney's order to submit to genetic tests. In that event, the court shall resolve the issue of whether genetic tests should be ordered as provided in Section 7551. If any person refuses to submit to the tests after receipt of the administrative order pursuant to this section and fails to seek relief from the court from the administrative order either prior to the scheduled tests or within 10 days after the tests are scheduled, the court may resolve the question of paternity against that person or enforce the administrative order if the rights of others or the interest of justice so require. Except as provided in subdivision (c), a person's refusal to submit to tests ordered by the district attorney is admissible in evidence in any proceeding to determine paternity if a notice of motion is not filed within the timeframes specified in this subdivision.

(f) If the original test result creates a rebuttable presumption of paternity under Section 7555 and the result is contested, the district attorney shall order an additional test only upon request and advance payment of the contestant.

SEC. 41. Section 7571 of the Family Code is amended to read:

7571. (a) On and after January 1, 1995, upon the event of a live birth, prior to an unmarried mother leaving any hospital, the person responsible for registering live births under Section 102405 of the Health and Safety Code shall provide to the natural mother and shall attempt to provide, at the place of birth, to the man identified by the natural mother as the natural father, a voluntary declaration of paternity together with the written materials described in Section 7572. The person responsible for registering the birth shall file the declaration, if completed, with the birth certificate, and, if requested, shall transmit a copy of the declaration to the district attorney of the county where the birth occurred. A copy of the declaration shall be made available to each of the attesting parents.

(b) No health care provider shall be subject to any civil, criminal, or administrative liability for any negligent act or omission relative to the accuracy of the information provided, or for filing the declaration with the appropriate state or local agencies.

(c) The district attorney shall pay the sum of ten dollars ($10) to birthing hospitals and other entities that provide prenatal services for each completed declaration of paternity that is filed with the State Office of Vital Records, provided that the district attorney and the hospital or other entity providing prenatal services has entered into a written agreement that specifies the terms and conditions for the payment as required by federal law.

(d) If the declaration is not registered by the person responsible for registering live births at the hospital, it may be completed by the attesting parents, notarized, and mailed to the State Office of Vital Records at any time after the child's birth.

(e) Prenatal clinics may offer prospective parents the opportunity to sign a voluntary declaration of paternity. In order to be paid for their services as provided in subdivision (c), prenatal clinics must ensure that the form is witnessed and forwarded to the State Office of Vital Records.

(f) Declarations shall be made available without charge at all district attorney offices, offices of local registrars of births and deaths, courts, and county welfare departments within this state. Staff in these offices shall witness the signatures of parents wishing to sign a voluntary declaration of paternity and shall be responsible for forwarding the signed declaration to the State Office of Vital Records and Statistics.

(g) The district attorney may, at his or her option, pay the sum of ten dollars ($10) to local registrars of birth and deaths, county welfare departments, or courts for each completed declaration of paternity that is witnessed by staff in these offices and filed with the State Office of Vital Records and Statistics. In order to receive payment, the district attorney and the entity shall enter into a written agreement that specifies the terms and conditions for payment as required by federal law. The State Department of Social Services shall study the effect of the ten dollar ($10) payment on obtaining completed voluntary declaration of paternity forms and shall report to the Legislature on any recommendations to change the ten dollar ($10) optional payment, if appropriate, by January 1, 2000.

(h) The State Department of Social Services and district attorneys shall publicize the availability of the declarations. The district attorney shall make the declaration, together with the written materials described in subdivision (a) of Section 7572, available upon request to any parent. The district attorney shall also provide qualified staff to answer parents' questions regarding the declaration and the process of establishing paternity.

(i) Copies of the declaration filed with the State Office of Vital Records and Statistics shall be made available only to the parents, the child, the district attorney, the county welfare department, the county counsel, and the State Department of Social Services.

SEC. 42. Section 7572 of the Family Code is amended to read:

7572. (a) The State Department of Social Services, in consultation with the State Department of Health Services, the California Association of Hospitals and Health Systems, and other affected health provider organizations, shall work cooperatively to develop written materials to assist providers and parents in complying with this chapter.

(b) The written materials for parents which shall be attached to the form specified in Section 7574 and provided to unmarried parents shall contain the following information:

(1) A signed voluntary declaration of paternity that is filed with the State Office of Vital Records and Statistics legally establishes paternity.

(2) The legal rights and obligations of both parents and the child that result from the establishment of paternity.

(3) An alleged father's constitutional rights to have the issue of paternity decided by a court; to notice of any hearing on the issue of paternity; to have an opportunity to present his case to the court, including his right to present and cross-examine witnesses; to have an attorney represent him; and to have an attorney appointed to represent him if he cannot afford one in a paternity action filed by the district attorney.

(4) That by signing the voluntary declaration of paternity, the father is voluntarily waiving his constitutional rights.

(c) Parents shall also be given oral notice of the rights and responsibilities specified in subdivision (b). Oral notice may be accomplished through the use of audio or videotape programs developed by the State Department of Social Services to the extent permitted by federal law.

(d) The State Department of Social Services shall, free of charge, make available to hospitals, clinics, and other places of birth any and all informational and training materials for the program under this chapter, as well as the paternity declaration form. The State Department of Social Services shall make training available to every hospital, clinic, and other place of birth no later than October 31, 1994.

(e) The State Department of Social Services may adopt regulations, including emergency regulations, necessary to implement this chapter.

SEC. 43. Section 7575 of the Family Code is amended to read:

7575. (a) Either parent may rescind the voluntary declaration of paternity by filing a rescission form with the State Office of Vital Records within 60 days of the date of execution of the declaration by the attesting father or attesting mother, whichever signature is later, unless a court order for custody, visitation, or child support has been entered in an action in which the signatory seeking to rescind was a party. The State Department of Social Services shall develop a form to be used by parents to rescind the declaration of paternity and instruction on how to complete and file the rescission with the State Office of Vital Records. The form shall include a declaration under penalty of perjury completed by the person filing the rescission form that certifies that a copy of the rescission form was sent by any form of mail requiring a return receipt to the other person who signed the voluntary declaration of paternity. A copy of the return receipt shall be attached to the rescission form when filed with the State Office of Vital Records. The form and instructions shall be written in simple, easy to understand language and shall be made available at the local family support office and the office of local registrar of births and deaths.

(b) (1) Notwithstanding Section 7573, if the court finds that the conclusions of all of the experts based upon the results of the genetic tests performed pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 7550) are that the man who signed the voluntary declaration is not the father of the child, the court may set aside the voluntary declaration of paternity.

(2) The notice of motion for genetic tests under this section may be filed not later than two years from the date of the child's birth by either the mother or the man who signed the voluntary declaration as the child's father in an action to determine the existence or nonexistence of the father and child relationship pursuant to Section 7630 or in any action to establish an order for child custody, visitation, or child support based upon the voluntary declaration of paternity.

(3) The notice of motion for genetic tests pursuant to this section shall be supported by a declaration under oath submitted by the moving party stating the factual basis for putting the issue of paternity before the court.

(c) (1) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prejudice or bar the rights of either parent to file an action or motion to set aside the voluntary declaration of paternity on any of the grounds described in, and within the time limits specified in, Section 473 of the Code of Civil Procedure and Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 2120) of Part 1 of Division 6. If the action or motion to set aside the voluntary declaration of paternity is for fraud or perjury, the act must have induced the defrauded parent to sign the voluntary declaration of paternity. If the action or motion to set aside a judgment is required to be filed within a specified time period under Section 473 of the Code of Civil Procedure or Section 2122, the period within which the action or motion to set aside the voluntary declaration of paternity must be filed shall commence on the date that the court makes a finding of paternity based upon the voluntary declaration of paternity in an action for custody, visitation, or child support.

(2) The parent seeking to set aside the voluntary declaration of paternity shall have the burden of proof.

(3) Any order for custody, visitation, or child support shall remain in effect until the court determines that the voluntary declaration of paternity should be set aside, subject to the court's power to modify the orders as otherwise provided by law.

(4) Nothing in this section is intended to restrict a court from acting as a court of equity.

(5) If the voluntary declaration of paternity is set aside pursuant to paragraph (1), the court shall order that the mother, child, and alleged father submit to genetic tests pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 7550). If the court finds that the conclusions of all the experts, as disclosed by the evidence based upon the genetic tests, are that the person who executed the voluntary declaration of paternity is not the father of the child, the question of paternity shall be resolved accordingly. If the person who executed the declaration as the father of the child is not excluded as a possible father, the question of paternity shall be resolved as otherwise provided by law. If the person who executed the declaration of paternity is ultimately determined to be the father of the child, any child support that accrued under an order based upon the voluntary declaration of paternity shall remain due and owing.

(6) The Judicial Council shall develop the forms and procedures necessary to effectuate this subdivision.

SEC. 44. Section 7604.5 is added to the Family Code, to read:

7604.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, bills for pregnancy, childbirth, and genetic testing shall be admissible as evidence without third-party foundation testimony and shall constitute prima facie evidence of costs incurred for those services.

SEC. 45. Section 10005 of the Family Code is amended to read:

10005. (a) By local rule, the superior court may designate additional duties of the family law facilitator, which may include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) Meeting with litigants to mediate issues of child support, spousal support, and maintenance of health insurance, subject to Section 10012. Actions in which one or both of the parties are unrepresented by counsel shall have priority.

(2) Drafting stipulations to include all issues agreed to by the parties, which may include issues other than those specified in Section 10003.

(3) If the parties are unable to resolve issues with the assistance of the family law facilitator, prior to or at the hearing, and at the request of the court, the family law facilitator shall review the paperwork, examine documents, prepare support schedules, and advise the judge whether or not the matter is ready to proceed.

(4) Assisting the clerk in maintaining records.

(5) Preparing formal orders consistent with the court's announced order in cases where both parties are unrepresented.

(6) Serving as a special master in proceedings and making findings to the court unless he or she has served as a mediator in that case.

(7) Providing the services specified in Division 15 (commencing with Section 10100). Except for the funding specifically designated for visitation programs pursuant to Section 669B of Title 42 of the United States Code, Title IV-D child support funds shall not be used to fund the services specified in Division 15 (commencing with Section 10100).

(b) If staff and other resources are available and the duties listed in subdivision (a) have been accomplished, the duties of the family law facilitator may also include the following:

(1) Assisting the court with research and any other responsibilities which will enable the court to be responsive to the litigants' needs.

(2) Developing programs for bar and community outreach through day and evening programs, videotapes, and other innovative means that will assist unrepresented and financially disadvantaged litigants in gaining meaningful access to family court. These programs shall specifically include information concerning underutilized legislation, such as expedited child support orders (Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 3620) of Part 1 of Division 9), and preexisting, court-sponsored programs, such as supervised visitation and appointment of attorneys for children.

SEC. 46. Section 102425 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

102425. (a) The certificate of live birth for any live birth occurring on or after January 1, 1980, shall contain those items necessary to establish the fact of the birth and shall contain only the following information:

(1) Full name and sex of child.

(4) Full name of father, birthplace, and date of birth of father including month, day, and year. If the mother was not married at the time the child was conceived, the father's name shall not be listed on the birth certificate unless the father and the mother sign a voluntary declaration of paternity before the birth certificate is prepared. The birth certificate may be amended to add the father's name at a later date only if paternity for the child has been established by a judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction or by the filing of a voluntary declaration of paternity.

(5) Full birth name of mother, birthplace, and date of birth of mother including month, day, and year.

(8) Name, title, and mailing address of attending physician and surgeon or principal attendant, signature, and certification of live birth by attending physician and surgeon or principal attendant or certifier, date signed, and name and title of certifier if other than attending physician and surgeon or principal attendant.

(11) A blank space for entry of date of death with a caption reading "Date of Death."

(b) In addition to the items listed in subdivision (a), the certificate of live birth shall contain the following medical and social information, provided that the information is kept confidential pursuant to Sections 102430 and 102447 and is clearly labeled "Confidential Information for Public Health Use Only:"

(3) Race and ethnicity of mother and father.

(8) Description of complications of pregnancy and concurrent illnesses, congenital malformation, and any complication of labor and delivery, including surgery; provided that this information is essential medical information and appears in total on the face of the certificate.

(9) Mother's and father's occupations and kind of business or industry.

(11) Principal source of pay for prenatal care, which shall include all of the following: Medi-Cal, health maintenance organization or prepaid health plan, private insurance companies, medically indigent, self-pay, other sources which shall include, Medicare, workers' compensation, Title V, other government or nongovernment programs, no charge, and other categories as determined by the State Department of Health Services.

This paragraph shall become inoperative on January 1, 1999, or on the implementation date of the decennial birth certificate revision due to occur on or about January 1, 1999, whichever occurs first.

(12) Expected principal source of pay for delivery, which shall include all of the following: Medi-Cal, health maintenance organization or prepaid health plan, private insurance companies, medically indigent, self-pay, other sources which shall include, Medicare, workers' compensation, Title V, other government or nongovernment programs, no charge, and other categories as determined by the State Department of Health Services.

This paragraph shall become inoperative on January 1, 1999, or on the implementation date of the decennial birth certificate revision due to occur on or about January 1, 1999, whichever occurs first.

(13) An indication of whether or not the child's parent desires the automatic issuance of a social security number to the child.

(14) On and after January 1, 1995, the social security numbers of the mother and father, unless subdivision (b) of Section 102150 applies.

(c) Item 8, specified in subdivision (b), shall be completed by the attending physician and surgeon or the attending physician's and surgeon's designated representative. The names and addresses of children born with congenital malformations, who require followup treatment, as determined by the child's physician and surgeon, shall be furnished by the physician and surgeon to the local health officer, if permission is granted by either parent of the child.

(d) The parent shall only be asked to sign the form after both the public portion and the confidential medical and social information items have been entered upon the certificate of live birth.

(e) The State Registrar shall instruct all local registrars to collect the information specified in this section with respect to certificates of live birth. The information shall be transcribed on the certificate of live birth in use at the time and shall be limited to the information specified in this section.

Information relating to concurrent illnesses, complications of pregnancy and delivery, and congenital malformations shall be completed by the physician and surgeon, or physician's and surgeon's designee, inserting in the space provided on the confidential portion of the certificate the appropriate number or numbers listed on the VS-10A supplemental worksheet. The VS-10A supplemental form shall be used as a worksheet only and shall not in any manner be linked with the identity of the child or the mother, nor submitted with the certificate to the State Registrar. All information transferred from the worksheet to the certificate shall be fully explained to the parent or other informant prior to the signing of the certificate. No questions relating to drug or alcohol abuse may be asked.

(f) If the implementation date of the decennial birth certificate revision occurs prior to January 1, 1999, within 30 days of this implementation date the State Department of Health Services shall file a letter with the Secretary of the Senate and with the Chief Clerk of the Assembly, so certifying.

SEC. 47. Section 19271.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

19271.5. (a) A county district attorney enforcing child support obligations pursuant to Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code may refer child support obligations to the Franchise Tax Board to collect child support payments that are not child support delinquencies, as defined in this article, or past due amounts. If a child support obligation becomes a child support delinquency during the time the Franchise Tax Board is administering wage withholding, then the Franchise Tax Board shall commence collection of the delinquency pursuant to Section 19271.

(2) In order to manage the growth in the number of referrals that it will receive, the Franchise Tax Board may phase in the referrals as administratively necessary.

(b) When a child support obligation is referred to the Franchise Tax Board pursuant to subdivision (a), or at any time thereafter, if the obligated parent owes a delinquent personal income tax liability, the Franchise Tax Board shall not engage in, or shall cease, collection of the child support obligation referred under subdivision (a) until the delinquent personal income tax liability is paid in full. However, the Franchise Tax Board may engage in collection of an obligation referred under subdivision (a) under either of the following circumstances:

(1) The delinquent personal income tax liability is discharged from accountability pursuant to Section 13940 of the Government Code.

(2) The obligor has entered into an installment payment agreement for the delinquent personal income tax liability and is in compliance with that agreement and the Franchise Tax Board determines that collection of the child support obligation referred under subdivision (a) would not jeopardize the payments under the terms of the agreement.

(c) For purposes of administering subdivision (b):

(1) "Collection of child support obligation" means administering wage withholding pursuant to Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 5200) of Part 5 of Division 9 of the Family Code or Section 3088 of the Probate Code, that requires an employer to withhold earnings for support.

(2) "Delinquent personal income tax liability" means any taxes, additions to tax, penalties, interest, fees, or other related amounts due and payable under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or this part.

(d) Any services or information available to a district attorney or the Title IV-D agency in collecting child support obligations or locating absent or noncustodial parents shall be available to the Franchise Tax Board for purposes of collecting child support obligations under this section, including, but not limited to, any information that may be disclosed by the Franchise Tax Board to the California Parent Locator Service under Section 19548.

SEC. 48. Section 1088.7 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

The Employment Development Department, in consultation with the Department of Social Services and the Franchise Tax Board, shall prepare and submit a study to the Governor and the Legislature that identifies possible methods for establishing a state mechanism for the reporting of the income of service-providers for the purpose of collecting delinquent child support obligations. The study shall include recommendations as to the most feasible and cost-effective reporting methods. The study shall be submitted no later than June 30, 1998.

SEC. 49. Section 11350.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11350.1. (a) Notwithstanding any other statute, in any action brought by the district attorney for the support of a minor child or children, the action may be prosecuted in the name of the county on behalf of the child, children, or a parent of the child or children. The parent who has requested or is receiving support enforcement services of the district attorney shall not be a necessary party to the action but may be subpoenaed as a witness. Except as provided in subdivision (e), in an action under this section there shall be no joinder of actions, or coordination of actions, or cross-complaints, and the issues shall be limited strictly to the question of parentage, if applicable, and child support, including an order for medical support. A final determination of parentage may be made in any action under this section as an incident to obtaining an order for support. An action for support or parentage pursuant to this section shall not be delayed or stayed because of the pendency of any other action between the parties.

(b) Judgment in an action brought pursuant to this section, and in an action brought pursuant to Section 11350, if at issue, may be rendered pursuant to a noticed motion, which shall inform the defendant that in order to exercise his or her right to trial, he or she must appear at the hearing on the motion.

If the defendant appears at the hearing on the motion, the court shall inquire of him or her if he or she desires to subpoena evidence and witnesses, if parentage is at issue and genetic tests have not already been conducted whether he or she desires genetic tests, and if he or she desires a trial. If his or her answer is in the affirmative, a continuance shall be granted to allow him or her to exercise those rights. A continuance shall not postpone the hearing to more than 90 days from the date of service of the motion. In the event that a continuance is granted, the court may make an order for temporary support without prejudice to the right of the court to make an order for temporary support as otherwise allowed by law.

(c) In any action to enforce a spousal support order the action may be pled in the name of the county in the same manner as an action to establish a child support obligation. The same restrictions on joinder of actions, coordination of actions, and cross-complaints, and delay because of the pendency of any other action as relates to actions to establish a child support obligation shall also apply to actions to enforce a spousal support order.

(d) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prevent the parties from bringing an independent action under the Family Code and litigating the issues of support, custody, visitation, or protective orders. In that event, any support, custody, visitation, or protective order issued by the court in an action pursuant to this section shall be filed in the action commenced under the Family Code and shall continue in effect until modified by a subsequent order of the court. To the extent that the orders conflict, the court order last issued shall supersede all other orders and be binding upon all parties in that action.

(e) (1) After a support order, including a temporary support order and an order for medical support only, has been entered in an action brought pursuant to this section, the parent who has requested or is receiving support enforcement services of the district attorney shall become a party to the action brought pursuant to this section, only in the manner and to the extent provided by this section, and only for the purposes allowed by this section.

(2) Notice of the parent's status as a party shall be given to the parent by the district attorney in conjunction with the notice required by subdivision (e) of Section 11478.2. The complaint shall contain this notice. Service of the complaint on the parent in compliance with Section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure, or as otherwise provided by law, shall constitute compliance with this section. In all actions commenced under the procedures and forms in effect on or before December 31, 1996, the parent who has requested or is receiving support enforcement services of the district attorney shall not become a party to the action until he or she is joined as a party pursuant to an ex parte application or noticed motion for joinder filed by the district attorney or a noticed motion filed by either parent. The district attorney shall serve a copy of any order for joinder of a parent obtained by the district attorney's application on both parents in compliance with Section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(3) The parent who has requested or is receiving support enforcement services of the district attorney is a party to an action brought under this section for issues relating to the support, custody, and visitation of a child, and for restraining orders, and for no other purpose. The district attorney shall not be required to serve or receive service of papers, pleadings, or documents, or participate in, or attend any hearing or proceeding relating to issues of custody or visitation, except as otherwise required by law. Orders concerning custody and visitation may be made in an action pursuant to this subdivision only if orders concerning custody and visitation have not been previously made by a court of competent jurisdiction in this state or another state and the court has jurisdiction and is the proper venue for custody and visitation determinations. All issues regarding custody and visitation shall be heard and resolved in the manner provided by the Family Code. Except as otherwise provided by law, the district attorney shall control support and parentage litigation brought pursuant to this section, and the manner, method, and procedures used in establishing parentage and in establishing and enforcing support obligations unless and until the parent who requested or is receiving support enforcement services has requested in writing that the district attorney close his or her case and the case has been closed in accordance with federal regulation.

(f) (1) A parent who has requested or is receiving support enforcement services of the district attorney may take independent action to modify a support order made pursuant to this section while support enforcement services are being provided by the district attorney. The parent shall serve the district attorney with notice of any action filed to modify the support order and provide the district attorney with a copy of the modified order within 15 calendar days after the date the order is issued.

(2) A parent who has requested or is receiving support enforcement services of the district attorney may take independent action to enforce a support order made pursuant to this section while support enforcement services are being provided by the district attorney with the written consent of the district attorney. At least 30 days prior to filing an independent enforcement action, the parent shall provide the district attorney with written notice of the parent's intent to file an enforcement action which includes a description of the type of enforcement action the parent intends to file. Within 30 days of receiving the notice, the district attorney shall either provide written consent for the parent to proceed with the independent enforcement action or notify the parent that he or she objects to the parent filing the proposed independent enforcement action. The district attorney may object only if the district attorney is currently using an administrative or judicial method to enforce the support obligation or if the proposed independent enforcement action would interfere with an investigation being conducted by the district attorney. If the district attorney does not respond to the parent's written notice within 30 days, the district attorney shall be deemed to have given consent.

(3) The court shall order that all payments of support shall be made to the district attorney in any action filed under this section by the parent who has requested, or is receiving, support enforcement services of the district attorney unless support enforcement services have been terminated by the district attorney by case closure as provided by federal law. Any order obtained by a parent prior to support enforcement services being terminated in which the district attorney did not receive proper notice pursuant to this section shall be voidable upon the motion of the district attorney.

(g) For the purpose of this section, "a parent who is receiving support enforcement services" includes a parent who has assigned his or her rights to support pursuant to Section 11477.

(h) The Judicial Council shall develop forms to implement this section. These forms shall be available no later than July 1, 1998.

SEC. 50. Section 11350.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11350.6. (a) As used in this section:

(1) "Applicant" means any person applying for issuance or renewal of a license.

(2) "Board" means any entity specified in Section 101 of the Business and Professions Code, the entities referred to in Sections 1000 and 3600 of the Business and Professions Code, the State Bar, the Department of Real Estate, the Department of Motor Vehicles, the Secretary of State, the Department of Fish and Game, and any other state commission, department, committee, examiner, or agency that issues a license, certificate, credential, permit, registration, or any other authorization to engage in a business, occupation, or profession, or to the extent required by federal law or regulations, for recreational purposes. This term includes all boards, commissions, departments, committees, examiners, entities, and agencies that issue a license, certificate, credential, permit, registration, or any other authorization to engage in a business, occupation, or profession. The failure to specifically name a particular board, commission, department, committee, examiner, entity, or agency that issues a license, certificate, credential, permit, registration, or any other authorization to engage in a business, occupation, or profession does not exclude that board, commission, department, committee, examiner, entity, or agency from this term.

(3) "Certified list" means a list provided by the district attorney to the State Department of Social Services in which the district attorney verifies, under penalty of perjury, that the names contained therein are support obligors found to be out of compliance with a judgment or order for support in a case being enforced under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.

(4) "Compliance with a judgment or order for support" means that, as set forth in a judgment or order for child or family support, the obligor is no more than 30 calendar days in arrears in making payments in full for current support, in making periodic payments in full, whether court ordered or by agreement with the district attorney, on a support arrearage, or in making periodic payments in full, whether court ordered or by agreement with the district attorney, on a judgment for reimbursement for public assistance, or has obtained a judicial finding that equitable estoppel as provided in statute or case law precludes enforcement of the order. The district attorney is authorized to use this section to enforce orders for spousal support only when the district attorney is also enforcing a related child support obligation owed to the obligee parent by the same obligor, pursuant to Sections 11475.1 and 11475.2.

(5) "License" includes membership in the State Bar, and a certificate, credential, permit, registration, or any other authorization issued by a board that allows a person to engage in a business, occupation, or profession, or to operate a commercial motor vehicle, including appointment and commission by the Secretary of State as a notary public. "License" also includes any driver's license issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles, any commercial fishing license issued by the Department of Fish and Game, and to the extent required by federal law or regulations, any license used for recreational purposes. This term includes all licenses, certificates, credentials, permits, registrations, or any other authorization issued by a board that allows a person to engage in a business, occupation, or profession. The failure to specifically name a particular type of license, certificate, credential, permit, registration, or other authorization issued by a board that allows a person to engage in a business, occupation, or profession, does not exclude that license, certificate, credential, permit, registration, or other authorization from this term.

(6) "Licensee" means any person holding a license, certificate, credential, permit, registration, or other authorization issued by a board, to engage in a business, occupation, or profession, or a commercial driver's license as defined in Section 15210 of the Vehicle Code, including an appointment and commission by the Secretary of State as a notary public. "Licensee" also means any person holding a driver's license issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles, any person holding a commercial fishing license issued by the Department of Fish and Game, and to the extent required by federal law or regulations, any person holding a license used for recreational purposes. This term includes all persons holding a license, certificate, credential, permit, registration, or any other authorization to engage in a business, occupation, or profession, and the failure to specifically name a particular type of license, certificate, credential, permit, registration, or other authorization issued by a board does not exclude that person from this term.

(b) The district attorney shall maintain a list of those persons included in a case being enforced under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act against whom a support order or judgment has been rendered by, or registered in, a court of this state, and who are not in compliance with that order or judgment. The district attorney shall submit a certified list with the names, social security numbers, and last known addresses of these persons and the name, address, and telephone number of the district attorney who certified the list to the State Department of Social Services. The district attorney shall verify, under penalty of perjury, that the persons listed are subject to an order or judgment for the payment of support and that these persons are not in compliance with the order or judgment. The district attorney shall submit to the State Department of Social Services an updated certified list on a monthly basis.

(c) The State Department of Social Services shall consolidate the certified lists received from the district attorneys and, within 30 calendar days of receipt, shall provide a copy of the consolidated list to each board which is responsible for the regulation of licenses, as specified in this section.

(d) On or before November 1, 1992, or as soon thereafter as economically feasible, as determined by the State Department of Social Services, all boards subject to this section shall implement procedures to accept and process the list provided by the State Department of Social Services, in accordance with this section. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, all boards shall collect social security numbers from all applicants for the purposes of matching the names of the certified list provided by the State Department of Social Services to applicants and licensees and of responding to requests for this information made by child support agencies.

(e) (1) Promptly after receiving the certified consolidated list from the State Department of Social Services, and prior to the issuance or renewal of a license, each board shall determine whether the applicant is on the most recent certified consolidated list provided by the State Department of Social Services. The board shall have the authority to withhold issuance or renewal of the license of any applicant on the list.

(2) If an applicant is on the list, the board shall immediately serve notice as specified in subdivision (f) on the applicant of the board's intent to withhold issuance or renewal of the license. The notice shall be made personally or by mail to the applicant's last known mailing address on file with the board. Service by mail shall be complete in accordance with Section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(A) The board shall issue a temporary license valid for a period of 150 days to any applicant whose name is on the certified list if the applicant is otherwise eligible for a license.

(B) Except as provided in subparagraph (D), the 150-day time period for a temporary license shall not be extended. Except as provided in subparagraph (D), only one temporary license shall be issued during a regular license term and it shall coincide with the first 150 days of that license term. As this paragraph applies to commercial driver's licenses, "license term" shall be deemed to be 12 months from the date the application fee is received by the Department of Motor Vehicles. A license for the full or remainder of the license term shall be issued or renewed only upon compliance with this section.

(C) In the event that a license or application for a license or the renewal of a license is denied pursuant to this section, any funds paid by the applicant or licensee shall not be refunded by the board.

(D) This paragraph shall apply only in the case of a driver's license, other than a commercial driver's license. Upon the request of the district attorney or by order of the court upon a showing of good cause, the board shall extend a 150-day temporary license for a period not to exceed 150 extra days.

(3) (A) The State Department of Social Services may, when it is economically feasible for the department and the boards to do so as determined by the department, in cases where the department is aware that certain child support obligors listed on the certified lists have been out of compliance with a judgment or order for support for more than four months, provide a supplemental list of these obligors to each board with which the department has an interagency agreement to implement this paragraph. Upon request by the department, the licenses of these obligors shall be subject to suspension, provided that the licenses would not otherwise be eligible for renewal within six months from the date of the request by the department. The board shall have the authority to suspend the license of any licensee on this supplemental list.

(B) If a licensee is on a supplemental list, the board shall immediately serve notice as specified in subdivision (f) on the licensee that his or her license will be automatically suspended 150 days after notice is served, unless compliance with this section is achieved. The notice shall be made personally or by mail to the licensee's last known mailing address on file with the board. Service by mail shall be complete in accordance with Section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(C) The 150-day notice period shall not be extended.

(D) In the event that any license is suspended pursuant to this section, any funds paid by the licensee shall not be refunded by the board.

(E) This paragraph shall not apply to licenses subject to annual renewal or annual fee.

(f) Notices shall be developed by each board in accordance with guidelines provided by the State Department of Social Services and subject to approval by the State Department of Social Services. The notice shall include the address and telephone number of the district attorney who submitted the name on the certified list, and shall emphasize the necessity of obtaining a release from that district attorney's office as a condition for the issuance, renewal, or continued valid status of a license or licenses.

(1) In the case of applicants not subject to paragraph (3) of subdivision (e), the notice shall inform the applicant that the board shall issue a temporary license, as provided in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (e), for 150 calendar days if the applicant is otherwise eligible and that upon expiration of that time period the license will be denied unless the board has received a release from the district attorney who submitted the name on the certified list.

(2) In the case of licensees named on a supplemental list, the notice shall inform the licensee that his or her license will continue in its existing status for no more than 150 calendar days from the date of mailing or service of the notice and thereafter will be suspended indefinitely unless, during the 150-day notice period, the board has received a release from the district attorney who submitted the name on the certified list. Additionally, the notice shall inform the licensee that any license suspended under this section will remain so until the expiration of the remaining license term, unless the board receives a release along with applications and fees, if applicable, to reinstate the license during the license term.

(3) The notice shall also inform the applicant or licensee that if an application is denied or a license is suspended pursuant to this section, any funds paid by the applicant or licensee shall not be refunded by the board. The State Department of Social Services shall also develop a form that the applicant shall use to request a review by the district attorney. A copy of this form shall be included with every notice sent pursuant to this subdivision.

(g) (1) Each district attorney shall maintain review procedures consistent with this section to allow an applicant to have the underlying arrearage and any relevant defenses investigated, to provide an applicant information on the process of obtaining a modification of a support order, or to provide an applicant assistance in the establishment of a payment schedule on arrearages if the circumstances so warrant.

(2) It is the intent of the Legislature that a court or district attorney, when determining an appropriate payment schedule for arrearages, base its decision on the facts of the particular case and the priority of payment of child support over other debts. The payment schedule shall also recognize that certain expenses may be essential to enable an obligor to be employed. Therefore, in reaching its decision, the court or the district attorney shall consider both of these goals in setting a payment schedule for arrearages.

(h) If the applicant wishes to challenge the submission of his or her name on the certified list, the applicant shall make a timely written request for review on the form specified in subdivision (f) to the district attorney who certified the applicant's name. The district attorney shall, within 75 days of receipt of the written request, inform the applicant in writing of his or her findings upon completion of the review. The district attorney shall immediately send a release to the appropriate board and the applicant, if any of the following conditions are met:

(1) The applicant is found to be in compliance or negotiates an agreement with the district attorney for a payment schedule on arrearages or reimbursement.

(2) The applicant has submitted a request for review, but the district attorney will be unable to complete the review and send notice of his or her findings to the applicant within 75 days. This paragraph applies only if the delay in completing the review process is not the result of the applicant's failure to act in a reasonable, timely, and diligent manner upon receiving notice from the board that his or her name is on the list.

(3) The applicant has filed and served a request for judicial review pursuant to this section, but a resolution of that review will not be made within 150 days of the date of service of notice pursuant to subdivision (f). This paragraph applies only if the delay in completing the judicial review process is not the result of the applicant's failure to act in a reasonable, timely, and diligent manner upon receiving the district attorney's notice of his or her findings.

(i) An applicant is required to act with diligence in responding to notices from the board and the district attorney with the recognition that the temporary license will lapse or the license suspension will go into effect after 150 days and that the district attorney and, where appropriate, the court must have time to act within that period. An applicant's delay in acting, without good cause, which directly results in the inability of the district attorney to complete a review of the applicant's request or the court to hear the request for judicial review within the 150-day period shall not constitute the diligence required under this section which would justify the issuance of a release.

(j) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the district attorney shall not issue a release if the applicant is not in compliance with the judgment or order for support. The district attorney shall notify the applicant in writing that the applicant may, by filing an order to show cause or notice of motion, request any or all of the following:

The notice shall also contain the name and address of the court in which the applicant shall file the order to show cause or notice of motion and inform the applicant that his or her name shall remain on the certified list if the applicant does not timely request judicial review. The applicant shall comply with all statutes and rules of court regarding orders to show cause and notices of motion.

Nothing in this section shall be deemed to limit an applicant from filing an order to show cause or notice of motion to modify a support judgment or order or to fix a payment schedule on arrearages accruing under a support judgment or order or to obtain a court finding of compliance with a judgment or order for support.

(k) The request for judicial review of the district attorney's decision shall state the grounds for which review is requested and judicial review shall be limited to those stated grounds. The court shall hold an evidentiary hearing within 20 calendar days of the filing of the request for review. Judicial review of the district attorney's decision shall be limited to a determination of each of the following issues:

(1) Whether there is a support judgment, order, or payment schedule on arrearages or reimbursement.

(2) Whether the petitioner is the obligor covered by the support judgment or order.

(3) Whether the support obligor is or is not in compliance with the judgment or order of support.

(4) The extent to which the needs of the obligor, taking into account the obligor's payment history and the current circumstances of both the obligor and the obligee, warrant a conditional release as described in this subdivision.

The request for judicial review shall be served by the applicant upon the district attorney who submitted the applicant's name on the certified list within seven calendar days of the filing of the petition. The court has the authority to uphold the action, unconditionally release the license, or conditionally release the license.

If the judicial review results in a finding by the court that the obligor is in compliance with the judgment or order for support, the district attorney shall immediately send a release in accordance with subdivision (h) to the appropriate board and the applicant. If the judicial review results in a finding by the court that the needs of the obligor warrant a conditional release, the court shall make findings of fact stating the basis for the release and the payment necessary to satisfy the unrestricted issuance or renewal of the license without prejudice to a later judicial determination of the amount of support arrearages, including interest, and shall specify payment terms, compliance with which are necessary to allow the release to remain in effect.

(l) The State Department of Social Services shall prescribe release forms for use by district attorneys. When the obligor is in compliance, the district attorney shall mail to the applicant and the appropriate board a release stating that the applicant is in compliance. The receipt of a release shall serve to notify the applicant and the board that, for the purposes of this section, the applicant is in compliance with the judgment or order for support.

If the district attorney determines subsequent to the issuance of a release that the applicant is once again not in compliance with a judgment or order for support, or with the terms of repayment as described in this subdivision, the district attorney may notify the board, the obligor, and the State Department of Social Services in a format prescribed by the State Department of Social Services that the obligor is not in compliance.

The State Department of Social Services may, when it is economically feasible for the department and the boards to develop an automated process for complying with this subdivision, notify the boards in a manner prescribed by the department, that the obligor is once again not in compliance. Upon receipt of this notice, the board shall immediately notify the obligor on a form prescribed by the department that the obligor's license will be suspended on a specific date, and this date shall be no longer than 30 days from the date the form is mailed. The obligor shall be further notified that the license will remain suspended until a new release is issued in accordance with subdivision (h). Nothing in this section shall be deemed to limit the obligor from seeking judicial review of suspension pursuant to the procedures described in subdivision (k).

(m) The State Department of Social Services may enter into interagency agreements with the state agencies that have responsibility for the administration of boards necessary to implement this section, to the extent that it is cost-effective to implement this section. These agreements shall provide for the receipt by the other state agencies and boards of federal funds to cover that portion of costs allowable in federal law and regulation and incurred by the state agencies and boards in implementing this section. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, revenue generated by a board or state agency shall be used to fund the nonfederal share of costs incurred pursuant to this section. These agreements shall provide that boards shall reimburse the State Department of Social Services for the nonfederal share of costs incurred by the department in implementing this section. The boards shall reimburse the State Department of Social Services for the nonfederal share of costs incurred pursuant to this section from moneys collected from applicants and licensees.

(n) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in order for the boards subject to this section to be reimbursed for the costs incurred in administering its provisions, the boards may, with the approval of the appropriate department director, levy on all licensees and applicants a surcharge on any fee or fees collected pursuant to law, or, alternatively, with the approval of the appropriate department director, levy on the applicants or licensees named on a certified list or supplemental list, a special fee.

(o) The process described in subdivision (h) shall constitute the sole administrative remedy for contesting the issuance of a temporary license or the denial or suspension of a license under this section. The procedures specified in the administrative adjudication provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 11400) and Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code) shall not apply to the denial, suspension, or failure to issue or renew a license or the issuance of a temporary license pursuant to this section.

(p) In furtherance of the public policy of increasing child support enforcement and collections, on or before November 1, 1995, the State Department of Social Services shall make a report to the Legislature and the Governor based on data collected by the boards and the district attorneys in a format prescribed by the State Department of Social Services. The report shall contain all of the following:

(2) The number of support obligors who also were applicants or licensees subject to this section.

(3) The number of new licenses and renewals that were delayed, temporary licenses issued, and licenses suspended subject to this section and the number of new licenses and renewals granted and licenses reinstated following board receipt of releases as provided by subdivision (h) by May 1, 1995.

(4) The costs incurred in the implementation and enforcement of this section.

(q) Any board receiving an inquiry as to the licensed status of an applicant or licensee who has had a license denied or suspended under this section or has been granted a temporary license under this section shall respond only that the license was denied or suspended or the temporary license was issued pursuant to this section. Information collected pursuant to this section by any state agency, board, or department shall be subject to the Information Practices Act of 1977 (Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1798) of Title 1.8 of Part 4 of Division 3 of the Civil Code).

(r) Any rules and regulations issued pursuant to this section by any state agency, board, or department may be adopted as emergency regulations in accordance with the rulemaking provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 11340) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code). The adoption of these regulations shall be deemed an emergency and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, or general welfare. The regulations shall become effective immediately upon filing with the Secretary of State.

(s) The State Department of Social Services and boards, as appropriate, shall adopt regulations necessary to implement this section.

(t) The Judicial Council shall develop the forms necessary to implement this section, except as provided in subdivisions (f) and (l).

(u) The release or other use of information received by a board pursuant to this section, except as authorized by this section, is punishable as a misdemeanor.

(v) The State Board of Equalization shall enter into interagency agreements with the State Department of Social Services and the Franchise Tax Board that will require the State Department of Social Services and the Franchise Tax Board to maximize the use of information collected by the State Board of Equalization, for child support enforcement purposes, to the extent it is cost-effective and permitted by the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(w) The suspension or revocation of any driver's license, including a commercial driver's license, under this section shall not subject the licensee to vehicle impoundment pursuant to Section 14602.6 of the Vehicle Code.

(x) If any provision of this section or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, that invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this section which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this section are severable.

(y) All rights to administrative and judicial review afforded by this section to an applicant shall also be afforded to a licensee.

SEC. 51. Section 11350.7 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11350.7. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if any support obligor is delinquent in the payment of support for at least 30 days and the district attorney is enforcing the support obligation pursuant to Section 11475.1, the district attorney may collect the delinquency or enforce any lien by levy served on all persons having in their possession, or who will have in their possession or under their control, any credits or personal property belonging to the delinquent support obligor, or who owe any debt to the obligor at the time they receive the notice of levy.

(b) A levy may be issued by a district attorney for a support obligation which accrued under a court order or judgment if the obligor had notice of the accrued support arrearage as provided in this section, and did not make a timely request for review.

(c) The notice requirement shall be satisfied by the district attorney sending a statement of support arrearages to the obligor at the obligor's last known address by first-class mail, postage prepaid. The notice shall advise the obligor of the amount of the support arrearage. The notice shall advise the obligor that the obligor may have the arrearage determination reviewed by administrative procedures and state how such a review may be obtained. The notice shall also advise the obligor of his or her right to seek a judicial determination of arrearages pursuant to Section 11350.8 and shall include a form to be filed with the court to request a judicial determination of arrearages. If the obligor requests an administrative review of the arrearage determination within 20 days from the date the notice was mailed to the obligor, the district attorney shall review the assessment or determination and shall not issue the levy for a disputed amount of support until the administrative review procedure is completed.

(d) If the obligor requests a judicial determination of the arrearages within 20 days from the date the notice was mailed to the obligor, the district attorney shall not issue the levy for a disputed amount of support until the judicial determination is complete.

(e) Any person upon whom a levy has been served having in his or her possession or under his or her control any credits or personal property belonging to the delinquent support obligor or owing any debts to the delinquent support obligor at the time of receipt of the levy or coming into his or her possession or under his or her control within one year of receipt of the notice of levy, shall surrender the credits or personal property to the district attorney or pay to the district attorney the amount of any debt owing the delinquent support obligor within 10 days of service of the levy, and shall surrender the credits or personal property, or the amount of any debt owing to the delinquent support obligor coming into his or her own possession or control within one year of receipt of the notice of levy within 10 days of the date of coming into possession or control of the credits or personal property or the amount of any debt owing to the delinquent support obligor.

(f) Any person who surrenders any credits or personal property or pays the debts owing the delinquent support obligor to the district attorney pursuant to this section shall be discharged from any obligation or liability to the delinquent support obligor to the extent of the amount paid to the district attorney as a result of the levy.

(g) If the levy is made on a deposit or credits or personal property in the possession or under the control of a bank, savings and loan association, or other financial institution as defined by Section 669A(d)(1) of Title 42 of the United States Code, the notice of levy may be delivered or mailed to a centralized location designated by the bank, savings and loan association, or other financial institution pursuant to Section 689.040 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(h) Any person who is served with a levy pursuant to this section and who fails or refuses to surrender any credits or other personal property or pay any debts owing to the delinquent support obligor shall be liable in his or her own person or estate to the district attorney in an amount equal to the value of the credits or other personal property or in the amount of the levy, up to the amount specified in the levy.

(i) If any amount required to be paid pursuant to a levy under this section is not paid when due, the district attorney may issue a warrant for enforcement of any lien and for the collection of any amount required to be paid to the district attorney under this section. The warrant shall be directed to any sheriff, constable, marshal, or the Department of the California Highway Patrol and shall have the same force and effect as a writ of execution. The warrant shall be levied and sale made pursuant to it in the manner and with the same force and effect as a levy and sale pursuant to a writ of execution. The district attorney may pay or advance to the levying officer the same fees, commissions, and expenses for his or her services under this section as are provided by law for similar services pursuant to a writ of execution, except for those fees and expenses for which the district attorney is exempt by law from paying. The district attorney, and not the court, shall approve the fees for publication in a newspaper.

(j) The fees, commissions, expenses, and the reasonable costs associated with the sale of property levied upon by warrant or levy pursuant to this section, including, but not limited to, appraisers' fees, auctioneers' fees, and advertising fees are an obligation of the support obligor and may be collected from the obligor by virtue of the warrant or levy or in any other manner as though these items were support payments delinquent for at least 30 days.

SEC. 52. Section 11352 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11352. In any action or judgment brought or obtained pursuant to Section 11350, 11350.1, 11475.1, or 11476.1, a supplemental complaint may be filed, pursuant to Section 464 of the Code of Civil Procedure and Section 2330.1 of the Family Code, either before or after a final judgment, seeking a judgment or order of paternity or support for a child of the mother and father of the child whose paternity and support are already in issue before the court. A supplemental judgment entered in such proceedings shall include, when appropriate and requested in the supplemental complaint, an order establishing or modifying support for all children named in the original or supplemental actions in conformity with the statewide uniform guideline for child support. A supplemental complaint for paternity or support of children may be filed without leave of court either before or after final judgment in the underlying action. Service of the supplemental summons and complaint shall be made in the manner provided for the initial service of a summons by the Code of Civil Procedure.

SEC. 53. Section 11356 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by Section 3 of Chapter 14 of the Statutes of 1997, is amended to read:

11356. (a) In any action filed by the district attorney pursuant to Section 11350, 11350.1, or 11475.1, the court may, on any terms that may be just, relieve the defendant from that part of the judgment or order concerning the amount of child support to be paid. This relief may be granted after the six-month time limit of Section 473 of the Code of Civil Procedure has elapsed, based on the grounds, and within the time limits, specified in this section.

(b) This section shall apply only to judgments or orders for support that were based upon presumed income as specified in subdivision (c) of Section 11475.1 and that were entered after the entry of the default of the defendant under Section 11355. This section shall apply only to the amount of support ordered and not that portion of the judgment or order concerning the determination of parentage.

(c) The court may set aside the child support order contained in a judgment described in subdivision (b) if the defendant's income was substantially different for the period of time during which the judgment was effective compared with the income defendant was presumed to have. A "substantial difference" means that amount of income that would result in an order for support that deviates from the order entered by default by 20 percent or more. If the difference between the defendant's actual income and the presumed income would result in an order for support that deviates from the order entered by default by less than 20 percent, the court may set aside the child support order only if the court states in writing or on the record that the defendant is experiencing an extreme financial hardship due to the circumstances enumerated in Section 4071 of the Family Code and that a set aside of the default judgment is necessary to accommodate those circumstances.

(d) Application for relief under this section shall be accompanied by a copy of the answer or other pleading proposed to be filed together with an income and expense declaration or simplified financial statement and tax returns for any relevant years. The Judicial Council may combine the application for relief under this section and the proposed answer into a single form.

(e) The burden of proving that the actual income of the defendant deviated substantially from the presumed income shall be on the defendant.

(f) A motion for relief under this section shall be filed within 90 days of the first collection of money by the district attorney or the obligee. The 90-day time period shall run from the date that the district attorney receives the first collection or from the date that the defendant is served with notice of the collection, whichever date occurs first. If service of the notice is by mail, the date of service shall be as specified in Section 1013 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(g) In all proceedings under this section, before granting relief, the court shall consider the amount of time that has passed since the entry of the order, the circumstances surrounding the defendant's default, the relative hardship on the child or children to whom the duty of support is owed, the caretaker parent, and the defendant, and other equitable factors that the court deems appropriate.

(h) If the court grants the relief requested, the court shall issue a new child support order using the appropriate child support guidelines currently in effect. The new order shall have the same commencement date as the order set aside.

SEC. 54. Section 11475.15 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

11475.15. (a) The district attorney may refer child support obligations that are not delinquent, or past due amounts, to the Franchise Tax Board pursuant to Section 19271.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(b) The district attorney is the public agency responsible for administering wage withholding for the purposes of Title IV-D of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 651 et seq.). To enhance child support enforcement, the district attorney may delegate this responsibility to the Franchise Tax Board for purposes of collecting child support payments that are not delinquent, or past due amounts, as authorized under subdivision (a) of Section 19271.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

Nothing in this section shall limit the authority of the district attorney granted by other sections of this code or otherwise granted by law, except to the extent that the law is inconsistent with the authority to refer child support accounts to the Franchise Tax Board for collection pursuant to Section 19271.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

SEC. 55. Section 11478 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11478. (a) All state, county, and local agencies shall cooperate with the district attorney (1) in carrying out Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 3130) of Part 2 of Division 8 of the Family Code concerning the location, seizure, and recovery of abducted, concealed, or detained minor children, (2) in the enforcement of any child support obligation or to the extent required under the state plan under Section 11475.2 of this code, Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 4800) of Part 5 of Division 9 of the Family Code, and Section 270 of the Penal Code, and (3) the enforcement of spousal support orders and in the location of parents or putative parents. This subdivision applies irrespective of whether the children are or are not receiving aid to families with dependent children.

(b) On request, all state, county, and local agencies shall supply the district attorney of any county in this state or the California Parent Locator Service with all information on hand relative to the location, income, or property of any parents, putative parents, spouses, or former spouses, notwithstanding any other provision of law making the information confidential, and with all information on hand relative to the location and prosecution of any person who has, by means of false statement or representation or by impersonation or other fraudulent device, obtained aid for a child under this chapter.

(c) The State Department of Social Services' Statewide Automated Child Support System, or its replacement, shall be entitled to the same cooperation and information provided to the California Parent Locator Service, to the extent allowed by law. The Statewide Automated Child Support System, or its replacement, shall be allowed access to criminal offender record information only to the extent that access is allowed by law.

(d) Information exchanged between the California Parent Locator Service or the Statewide Automated Child Support System, or its replacement, and state, county, or local agencies as specified in Section 666(c)(1)(D) of Title 42 of the United States Code shall be through automated processes to the maximum extent feasible.

SEC. 56. Section 11478.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11478.1. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature to protect individual rights of privacy, and to facilitate and enhance the effectiveness of the child and spousal support enforcement program, by ensuring the confidentiality of support enforcement and child abduction records, and to thereby encourage the full and frank disclosure of information relevant to all of the following:

(1) The establishment or maintenance of parent and child relationships and support obligations.

(2) The enforcement of the child support liability of absent parents.

(3) The enforcement of spousal support liability of the spouse or former spouse to the extent required by the state plan under Section 11475.2 of this code and Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 4800) of Part 5 of Division 9 of the Family Code.

(b) (1) Except as provided in subdivision (c), all files, applications, papers, documents, and records established or maintained by any public entity pursuant to the administration and implementation of the child and spousal support enforcement program established pursuant to Part D (commencing with Section 651) of Subchapter IV of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code and this article, shall be confidential, and shall not be open to examination or released for disclosure for any purpose not directly connected with the administration of the child and spousal support enforcement program. No public entity shall disclose any file, application, paper, document, or record, or the information contained therein, except as expressly authorized by this section.

(2) In no case shall information be released or the whereabouts of one party disclosed to another party, or to the attorney of any other party, if a protective order has been issued by a court or administrative agency with respect to the former party, a good cause claim under Section 11477.04 has been approved or is pending, or the public agency responsible for establishing paternity or enforcing support has reason to believe that the release of the information may result in physical or emotional harm to the former party.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a proof of service filed by the district attorney shall not disclose the address where service of process was accomplished. Instead, the district attorney shall keep the address in his or her own records. The proof of service shall specify that the address is on record at the district attorney's office and that the address may be released only upon an order from the court pursuant to paragraph (6) of subdivision (c).

(c) Disclosure of the information described in subdivision (b) is authorized as follows:

(1) All files, applications, papers, documents and records as described in subdivision (b) shall be available and may be used by a public entity for all administrative, civil, or criminal investigations, actions, proceedings, or prosecutions conducted in connection with the administration of the child and spousal support enforcement program approved under Part D (commencing with Section 651) of Subchapter IV of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code, and any other plan or program described in Section 303.21 of Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

(2) A document requested by a person who wrote, prepared, or furnished the document may be examined by or disclosed to that person or his or her designee.

(3) The payment history of an obligor pursuant to a support order may be examined by or released to the court, the obligor, or the person on whose behalf enforcement actions are being taken or that person's designee.

(4) Income and expense information of either parent may be released to the other parent for the purpose of establishing or modifying a support order.

(5) Public records subject to disclosure under the Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of the Government Code) may be released.

(6) After a noticed motion and a finding by the court, in a case in which establishment or enforcement actions are being taken, that release or disclosure to the obligor or obligee is required by due process of law, the court may order a public entity that possesses an application, paper, document, or record as described in subdivision (b) to make that item available to the obligor or obligee for examination or copying, or to disclose to the obligor or obligee the contents of that item. Article 9 (commencing with Section 1040) of Chapter 4 of Division 3 of the Evidence Code shall not be applicable to proceedings under this part. At any hearing of a motion filed pursuant to this section, the court shall inquire of the district attorney and the parties appearing at the hearing if there is reason to believe that release of the requested information may result in physical or emotional harm to a party. If the court determines that harm may occur, the court shall issue any protective orders or injunctive orders restricting the use and disclosure of the information as are necessary to protect the individuals.

(7) To the extent not prohibited by federal law or regulation, information indicating the existence or imminent threat of a crime against a minor child, or location of a concealed, detained, or abducted child or the location of the concealing, detaining, or abducting person, may be disclosed to any district attorney, any appropriate law enforcement agency, or to any state or county child protective agency, or may be used in any judicial proceedings to prosecute that crime or to protect the child.

(8) The social security number, most recent address, and the place of employment of the absent parent may be released to an authorized person as defined in Section 653(c) of Title 42 of the United States Code, only if the authorized person has filed a request for the information, and only if the information has been provided to the California Parent Locator Service by the federal Parent Locator Service pursuant to Section 653 of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(d) (1) "Administration and implementation of the child and spousal support enforcement program," as used in this section, means the carrying out of the state and local plans for establishing, modifying, and enforcing child support obligations, enforcing spousal support orders, and determining paternity pursuant to Part D (commencing with Section 651) of Subchapter IV of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code and this article.

(3) As used in this chapter, "putative parent" shall refer to any person reasonably believed to be the parent of a child for whom the district attorney is attempting to establish paternity or establish, modify, or enforce support pursuant to Section 11475.1.

(e) Any person who willfully, knowingly, and intentionally violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(f) Nothing in this section shall be construed to compel the disclosure of information relating to a deserting parent who is a recipient of aid under a public assistance program for which federal aid is paid to this state, if that information is required to be kept confidential by the federal law or regulations relating to the program.

SEC. 57. Section 11478.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11478.2. (a) In all actions involving paternity or support, including, but not limited to, proceedings under the Family Code, and under this division, the district attorney and Attorney General represent the public interest in establishing, modifying, and enforcing support obligations. No attorney-client relationship shall be deemed to have been created between the district attorney or Attorney General and any person by virtue of the action of the district attorney or the Attorney General in carrying out these statutory duties.

(c) In all requests for services of the district attorney or Attorney General pursuant to Section 11475.1 relating to actions involving paternity or support, not later than the same day an individual makes a request for these services in person, and not later than five working days after either (1) a case is referred for services from the county welfare department, (2) receipt of a request by mail for an application for services, or (3) an individual makes a request for services by telephone, the district attorney or Attorney General shall give notice to the individual requesting services or on whose behalf services have been requested that the district attorney or Attorney General does not represent the individual or the children who are the subject of the case, that no attorney-client relationship exists between the district attorney or Attorney General and those persons, and that no such representation or relationship shall arise if the district attorney or Attorney General provides the services requested. Notice shall be in bold print and in plain English and shall be translated into the language understandable by the recipient when reasonable. The notice shall include the advice that the absence of an attorney-client relationship means that communications from the recipient are not privileged and that the district attorney or Attorney General may provide support enforcement services to the other parent in the future.

(d) The district attorney or Attorney General shall give the notice required pursuant to subdivision (c) to all recipients of services under Section 11475.1 who have not otherwise been provided that notice, not later than the date of the next annual notice required under Section 11476.2. This notice shall include notification to the recipient of services under Section 11475.1 that the recipient may inspect the clerk's file at the county clerk's office, and that, upon request, the district attorney, or, if appropriate, the Attorney General, will furnish a copy of the most recent order entered in the case.

(e) The district attorney, or, if appropriate, the Attorney General, shall serve a copy of the complaint for paternity or support, or both on recipients of support services under Section 11475.1, as specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (e) of Section 11350.1. A notice shall accompany the complaint which informs the recipient that the district attorney or Attorney General may enter into a stipulated order resolving the complaint, and that if the recipient wishes to assist the prosecuting attorney, he or she should send all information on the noncustodial parent's earnings and assets to the prosecuting attorney.

(f) (1) The district attorney or Attorney General shall provide written notice to recipients of services under Section 11475.1 of the initial date and time, and purpose of every hearing in a civil action for paternity or support. The notice shall include the following language:

IMPORTANT NOTICE

It may be important that you attend the hearing. The district attorney does not represent you or your children. You may have information about the noncustodial parent, such as information about his or her income or assets, or your need for support that will not be presented to the court unless you attend the hearing. You have the right to be heard in court and tell the court what you think the court should do with the child support order.

If you have a court order for support that arose as part of your divorce, this hearing could change your rights or your children's rights to support. You have the right to attend the hearing and, the right, to be heard.

If you would like to attend the hearing and be told about any changes to the hearing date or time, notify this office by _____. The district attorney or Attorney General will then have to tell you about any changes to the hearing date or time.

(2) The notice shall state the purpose of the hearing or be attached to the motion or other pleading which caused the hearing to be scheduled.

(3) The notice shall be provided separate from all other material and shall be in at least 14-point type. The failure of the district attorney or Attorney General to comply with this subdivision shall not affect the validity of any order.

(4) The notice shall be provided not later than seven calendar days prior to the hearing, or, if the district attorney or Attorney General receives notice of the hearing less than seven days prior to the hearing, within two days of the receipt by the district attorney or Attorney General of the notice of the hearing.

(5) The district attorney or Attorney General shall, in order to implement this subdivision, make reasonable efforts to ensure that the district attorney or Attorney General has current addresses for recipients of support enforcement services.

(g) The district attorney or Attorney General shall give notice to recipients of services under Section 11475.1 of every order obtained by the district attorney or Attorney General that establishes or modifies the support obligation for the recipient or the children who are the subject of the order, by sending a copy of the order to the recipient. The notice shall be made within 30 calendar days after the order has been filed. The district attorney or Attorney General shall also give notice to these recipients of every order obtained in any other jurisdiction, that establishes or modifies the support obligation for the recipient or the children who are the subject of the order, and which is received by the district attorney or Attorney General, by sending a copy of the order to the recipient within the timeframe specified by federal law after the district attorney or Attorney General has received a copy of the order. In any action enforced under Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 4800) of Part 5 of Division 9 of the Family Code, the notice shall be made in compliance with the requirements of that chapter. The failure of the district attorney or Attorney General to comply with this subdivision shall not affect the validity of any order.

(h) The district attorney or Attorney General shall give notice to the noncustodial parent against whom a civil action is filed that the district attorney or Attorney General is not the attorney representing any individual, including, but not limited to, the custodial parent, the child, or the noncustodial parent.

(i) Nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude any person who is receiving services under Section 11475.1 from filing and prosecuting an independent action to establish, modify, and enforce an order for current support on behalf of himself or herself or a child if that person is not receiving public assistance.

(j) A person who is receiving services under Section 11475.1 but who is not currently receiving public assistance on his or her own behalf or on behalf of a child shall be asked to execute, or consent to, any stipulation establishing or modifying a support order in any action in which that person is named as a party, before the stipulation is filed. The district attorney or Attorney General shall not submit to the court for approval a stipulation to establish or modify a support order in such an action without first obtaining the signatures of all parties to the action, their attorneys of record, or persons authorized to act on their behalf.

(k) The district attorney or Attorney General shall not enter into a stipulation which reduces the amount of past due support, including interest and penalties accrued pursuant to an order of current support, on behalf of a person who is receiving support enforcement services under Section 11475.1 and who is owed support arrearages that exceed unreimbursed public assistance paid to the recipient of the support enforcement services, without first obtaining the consent of the person who is receiving services under Section 11475.1 on his or her own behalf or on behalf of the child.

(1) In all cases in which the person receiving services under Section 11475.1 resides in California, notice shall be provided by mailing the item by first-class mail to the last known address of, or personally delivering the item to, that person.

(2) In all actions enforced under Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 4800) of Part 5 of Division 9 of the Family Code, unless otherwise specified, notice shall be provided by mailing the item by first-class mail to the initiating court.

(m) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the notices provided for pursuant to subdivisions (c) to (g), inclusive, shall not be required in foster care cases.

SEC. 58. Section 11478.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11478.5. (a) There is in the Department of Justice the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry which shall collect and disseminate all of the following, with respect to any parent, putative parent, spouse, or former spouse:

(1) The full and true name of the parent together with any known aliases.

(5) Employment history and earnings.

(6) Military status and Veterans Administration or military service serial number.

(7) Last known address, telephone number, and date thereof.

(10) (A) Any additional location, asset, and income information, including income tax return information obtained pursuant to Section 19285.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and the address, telephone number, and social security information obtained from a public utility or cable television corporation that may be of assistance in locating the parent, putative parent, abducting, concealing, or detaining parent, spouse, or former spouse, in establishing a parent and child relationship, in enforcing the child support liability of the absent parent, or enforcing the spousal support liability of the spouse or former spouse to the extent required by the state plan pursuant to Section 11475.2.

(B) For purposes of this subdivision "income tax return information" means all of the following regarding the taxpayer:

(iii) Deductions.

(iv) Exemptions.

(v) Identity.
(vi) Liabilities.
(vii) Nature, source, and amount of income.

(b) To effectuate the purposes of this section, the Statewide Automated Child Support System, or its replacement, the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry, and the Franchise Tax Board shall utilize the federal Parent Locator Service to the extent necessary, and may request and shall receive from all departments, boards, bureaus, or other agencies of the state, or any of its political subdivisions, and those entities shall provide, that assistance and data which will enable the State Department of Social Services, the Department of Justice, and other public agencies to carry out their powers and duties to locate parents, spouses, and former spouses, and to identify their assets, to establish parent-child relationships, and to enforce liability for child or spousal support, and for any other obligations incurred on behalf of children, and shall also provide that information to any district attorney in fulfilling the duties prescribed in Section 270 of the Penal Code, and in Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 3130) of Part 2 of Division 8 of the Family Code, relating to abducted, concealed, or detained children. The State Department of Social Services' Statewide Automated Child Support System, or its replacement, shall be entitled to the same cooperation and information as the California Parent Locator Service, to the extent allowed by law. The Statewide Automated Child Support System, or its replacement, shall be allowed access to criminal record information only to the extent that access is allowed by state and federal law.

(c) (1) To effectuate the purposes of this section, and notwithstanding any other provision of California law, regulation, or tariff, and to the extent permitted by federal law, the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry and the Statewide Automated Child Support System, or its replacement, may request and shall receive from public utilities, as defined in Section 216 of the Public Utilities Code, and cable television corporations, as defined in Section 215.5, customer service information, including the full name, address, telephone number, date of birth, employer name and address, and social security number of customers of the public utility or the cable television corporation, to the extent that this information is stored within the computer data base of the public utility or the cable television corporation.

(2) In order to protect the privacy of utility and cable television customers, a request to a public utility or cable television corporation for customer service information pursuant to this section shall meet the following requirements:

(A) Be submitted to the public utility or cable television corporation in writing, on a transmittal document prepared by the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry or the Statewide Automated Child Support System, or its replacement, and approved by all of the public utilities and cable television corporations. The transmittal shall be deemed to be an administrative subpoena for customer service information.

(B) Have the signature of a representative authorized by the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry or the Statewide Automated Child Support System, or its replacement.

(C) Contain at least three of the following data elements regarding the person sought:

(i) First and last name, and middle initial, if known.

(iii) Driver's license number.

(iv) Birth date.

(vi) Spouse's name.

(D) The California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry and the Statewide Automated Child Support System, or its replacement, shall ensure that each public utility and cable television corporation has at all times a current list of the names of persons authorized to request customer service information.

(E) The California Statewide Automated Child Support System, or its replacement, and the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry shall ensure that customer service information supplied by a public utility or cable television corporation is applicable to the person who is being sought before releasing the information pursuant to subdivision (d).

(3) The public utility or cable television corporation may charge a fee to the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry or the Statewide Automated Child Support System, or its replacement, for each search performed pursuant to this subdivision to cover the actual costs to the public utility or cable television corporation for providing this information.

(4) No public utility or cable television corporation, or official or employee thereof, shall be subject to criminal or civil liability for the release of customer service information as authorized by this subdivision.

(d) Notwithstanding Section 14202 of the Penal Code, any records established pursuant to this section shall be disseminated only to the Department of Justice, the Statewide Automated Child Support System or its replacement, the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry, the parent locator services and central registries of other states as defined by federal statutes and regulations, a district attorney of any county in this state, the federal Parent Locator

Service, and official child support enforcement agencies. The State Department of Social Services' Statewide Automated Child Support Enforcement System, or its replacement, shall be allowed access to criminal offender record information only to the extent that access is allowed by law.

(e) (1) At no time shall any information received by the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry or by the Statewide Automated Child Support System, or its replacement, be disclosed to any person, agency, or other entity, other than those persons, agencies, and entities specified pursuant to Section 11478, this section, or any other provision of law.

(2) This subdivision shall not otherwise affect discovery between parties in any action to establish, modify, or enforce child, family, or spousal support, that relates to custody or visitation.

(f) (1) The Department of Justice, in consultation with the State Department of Social Services, shall promulgate rules and regulations to facilitate maximum and efficient use of the California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry.

(2) The State Department of Social Services, the Public Utilities Commission, and the cable television corporations shall develop procedures for obtaining the information described in subdivision (c) from public utilities, and for compensating the public utilities and cable television corporations for providing that information.

(g) The California Parent Locator Service and Central Registry may charge a fee not to exceed eighteen dollars ($18) for any service it provides pursuant to this section that is not performed or funded pursuant to Part D (commencing with Section 651) of Subchapter IV of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code.

SEC. 59. Section 11478.51 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11478.51. The Employment Development Department shall, when requested by the State Department of Social Services, the Franchise Tax Board for purposes of administering Article 5 (commencing with Section 19271) of Chapter 5 of Part 10.2 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, the federal Parent Locator Service, or the California Parent Locator Service, provide access to information collected pursuant to Section 1088.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Code to the requesting department or agency for purposes of administering the child support enforcement program, and for purposes of verifying employment of applicants and recipients of aid under this chapter or food stamps under Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 18900) of Part 6.

SEC. 60. Section 11478.8 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11478.8. (a) Upon receipt of a written request from a district attorney enforcing the obligation of parents to support their children

pursuant to Section 11475.1, or from an agency of another state enforcing support obligations pursuant to Section 654 of Title 42 of the United States Code, every employer, as specified in Section 5210 of the Family Code, and every labor organization shall cooperate with and provide relevant employment and income information which they have in their possession to the district attorney or other requesting agency for the purpose of establishing, modifying, or enforcing the support obligation. No employer or labor organization shall incur any liability for providing this information to the district attorney or other requesting agency.

Relevant employment and income information shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following:

(1) Whether a named person has or has not been employed by an employer or whether a named person has or has not been employed to the knowledge of the labor organization.

(2) The full name of the employee or member or the first and middle initial and last name of the employee or member.

(3) The employee's or member's last known residence address.

(4) The employee's or member's date of birth.

(7) All earnings paid to the employee or member and reported as W-2 compensation in the prior tax year and the employee's or member's current basic rate of pay.

(8) Other earnings, as specified in Section 5206 of the Family Code, paid to the employee or member.

(9) Whether dependent health insurance coverage is available to the employee through employment or membership in the labor organization.

The district attorney or other agency shall notify the employer and labor organization of the district attorney case file number in making a request pursuant to this section. The written request shall include at least three of the following elements regarding the person who is the subject of the inquiry: (A) first and last name and middle initial, if known; (B) social security number; (C) driver's license number; (D) birth date; (E) last known address; or (F) spouse's name.

The district attorney or other requesting agency shall send a notice that a request for this information has been made to the last known address of the person who is the subject of the inquiry.

(b) An employer or labor organization which fails to provide relevant employment information to the district attorney or other requesting agency within 30 days of receiving a request pursuant to subdivision (a) may be assessed a civil penalty of a maximum of one thousand dollars ($1,000), plus attorneys' fees and costs. Proceedings to impose the civil penalty shall be commenced by the filing and service of an order to show cause.

(c) "Labor organization," for the purposes of this section means a labor organization as defined in Section 1117 of the Labor Code or any related benefit trust fund covered under the federal Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (Chapter 18 (commencing with Section 1001) of Title 29 of the United States Code).

(d) Any reference to the district attorney in this section shall apply only when the district attorney is otherwise ordered or required to act pursuant to existing law. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to mandate additional enforcement or collection duties upon the district attorney beyond those imposed under existing law on the effective date of this section.

SEC. 61. Section 11478.9 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

11478.9. (a) It is the intent of the Legislature to protect individual rights of privacy, and to facilitate and enhance the effectiveness of the child abduction and recovery programs, by ensuring the confidentiality of child abduction records, and to thereby encourage the full and frank disclosure of information relevant to all of the following:

(1) The establishment or maintenance of parent and child relationships and support obligations.

(3) The enforcement of spousal support liability of the spouse or former spouse to the extent required by the state plan under Section 11475.2 of this code and Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 4800) of Part 5 of Division 9 of the Family Code.

(b) (1) Except as provided in this subdivision, all files, applications, papers, documents, and records, established or maintained by any public entity for the purpose of locating an abducted child, locating a person who has abducted a child, or prosecution of a person who has abducted a child shall be confidential, and shall not be open to examination or released for disclosure for any purpose not directly connected with locating or recovering the abducted child or abducting person or prosecution of the abducting person.

(2) Except as provided in subdivision (c), no public entity shall disclose any file, application, paper document, or record described in this section, or the information contained therein.

(c) (1) All files, application, papers, documents, and records as described in subdivision (b) shall be available and may be used by a public entity for all administrative, civil, or criminal investigations, actions, proceedings, or prosecution conducted in connection with the child abduction or prosecution of the abducting person.

(2) A document requested by a person who wrote, prepared, or furnished the document may be examined by or disclosed to that person or his or her designee.

(3) Public records subject to disclosure under Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code may be released.

(4) After a noticed motion and a finding by the court, in a case in which child recovery or abduction prosecution actions are being taken, that release or disclosure is required by due process of law, the court may order a public entity that possesses an application, paper, document, or record described in this subdivision to make that item available to the defendant or other party for examination or copying, or to disclose to an appropriate person the contents of that item. Article 9 (commencing with Section 1040) of Chapter 4 of Division 8 of the Evidence Code shall not be applicable to proceedings under this part.

(5) To the extent not prohibited by federal law or regulation, information indicating the existence or imminent threat of a crime against a minor child, or location of a concealed or abducted child or the location of the concealing or abducting person, may be disclosed to any appropriate law enforcement agency, or to any state or county child protective agency, or may be used in any judicial proceedings to prosecute that crime or to protect the child.

(6) Information may be released to any state or local agency for the purposes connected with establishing, modifying, and enforcing child support obligations, enforcing spousal support orders, and determining paternity as required by Part D (commencing with Section 651) of Subchapter IV of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code and this article.

SEC. 62. Section 11489 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11489. After judgment in any court action brought to enforce the support obligation of a noncustodial parent pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, the court shall issue an earnings assignment order for support pursuant to Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 5200) of Part 5 of Division 9 of the Family Code.

SEC. 63. Section 14008.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14008.6. As a condition of eligibility for medical services provided under this chapter or Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 14200), each applicant or beneficiary shall:

(a) Assign to the state any rights to medical support and to payments for medical care from a third party that an individual may have in his of her own behalf or in behalf of any other family member for whom that individual has the legal authority to assign such rights, and is applying for or receiving medical services. Receipt of medical services under this chapter or Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 14200) shall operate as an assignment by operation of law. If those rights are assigned pursuant to this subdivision, the assignee may become an assignee of record by the district attorney or other public official filing with the court clerk an affidavit showing that an assignment has been made or that there has been an assignment by operation of law. This procedure does not limit any other means by which the assignee may become an assignee of record.

(b) Cooperate, as defined by subdivision (b) of Section 11477, with the district attorney in establishing the paternity of a child born out of wedlock with respect to whom medical services are requested or claimed, and for whom that individual can legally assign the rights described in subdivision (a), and in obtaining any medical support, as provided in Section 11475.1, and payments, as described in subdivision (a), due any person for whom medical services are requested or obtained.

(c) Cooperate with the state in identifying and providing information to assist the state in pursuing any third party who may be liable to pay for care and services available under the Medi-Cal program.

(d) The district attorney shall verify that the applicant or recipient refused to offer reasonable cooperation prior to determining that the applicant or recipient is ineligible. The granting of medical services shall not be delayed or denied if the applicant is otherwise eligible, if the applicant completes the necessary forms and agrees to cooperate with the district attorney in securing medical support and determining paternity, where applicable.

(e) An applicant or beneficiary shall be considered to be cooperating with the district attorney's office and shall be eligible for medical services, if otherwise eligible, if the applicant or beneficiary cooperates to the best of his or her ability or has good cause for refusal to cooperate with the requirements in subdivisions (b) and (c), as defined by Section 11477.04. The county welfare department shall make the determination of whether good cause for refusal to cooperate exists.

The county welfare department and the district attorney shall ensure that all applicants for or beneficiaries of medical services under this chapter or Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 14200) are properly notified of the conditions imposed by this section.

SEC. 64. Section 14008.7 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

14008.7. If the applicant or beneficiary does not cooperate in the manner described in subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 14008.6 to establish paternity and medical support orders against the noncustodial parents of each of the children for whom Medi-Cal services are requested or received, without good cause, as described in Section 11477.04, the applicant or beneficiary shall be ineligible for aid under this chapter or Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 14200). An applicant's or beneficiary's refusal to cooperate shall not effect the eligibility of the child or children. If otherwise eligible, the child or children may be granted Medi-Cal or continue to receive Medi-Cal.

SEC. 65. This act shall become operative only if Assembly Bill 1395 and Senate Bill 247, both of the 1997–98 Regular Session, are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998.

An act to amend Sections 18640, 18648, 19008, 19049, 19064, 19104, 19111, 19132, 19280, 19290, 19503, 19717, 21013, 21016, and 21019 of, to add Sections 21022, 21023, 21024, 21025, 21026, and 21027 to, and to repeal Section 18525 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation.

[Approved by Governor October 1, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 3, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 18525 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 18640 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18640. (a) Any corporation allocating amounts as patronage dividends, rebates, or refunds (whether in cash, merchandise, capital stock, revolving fund certificates, retain certificates, certificates of indebtedness, letters of advice, or in some other manner that discloses to each patron the amount of the dividend, refund, or rebate) shall render a correct return that shall contain or be verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalty of perjury, stating both of the following:

(1) The name and address of each patron to whom it has made those allocations amounting to one hundred dollars ($100) or more during the calendar year.

If required by the Franchise Tax Board, any corporation described in this subdivision shall render a correct return, which shall contain or be verified by a written declaration that it is under penalty of perjury, of all patronage dividends, rebates, or refunds made during the calendar year to its patrons. This section shall not apply in the case of any corporation exempt from tax under Article 1 (commencing with Section 23701) of Chapter 4 of Part 11.

(b) Every cooperative required to make a return under subdivision (a) shall furnish to each person whose name is required to be set forth in that return a written statement showing both of the following:

(1) The name, address, and telephone number of the cooperative required to make that return.

(2) The aggregate amount of the allocations required to be made to the person as shown on that return.

(c) The written statement required under subdivision (b) shall be furnished (either in person or in a separate mailing by first-class mail which includes adequate notice that the statement is enclosed) to the person on or before January 31 of the year following the calendar year for which the return under subdivision (a) was required to be made, and shall be in the form which the Franchise Tax Board may prescribe.

(d) The amendments made by this act adding this subdivision are operative for information returns required to be filed on or after January 1, 1999.

SEC. 3. Section 18648 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18648. (a) Any person who is a promoter of tax shelters, as defined in subdivision (c), shall, within 60 days of a request, make a complete return to the Franchise Tax Board containing the full identification of each investment sold during the reporting period. For each investment, all of the following information shall be provided:

(3) Form of investment, such as limited partnership, limited liability company, investment plan, or arrangement.

(4) A list of investors showing full name, address, social security number, and the amount invested by each investor in the investment during the reporting period.

(5) The total amount invested by all investors during the reporting period in the investment.

The return shall be verified by a written declaration that it is made under penalty of perjury.

(b) Every person making a return under subdivision (a) shall furnish, within 60 days of the request, to each investor whose name is set forth in the return a written statement showing all of the following:

(1) The name, address, and telephone number of the person making the return.

(2) The aggregate amount of investments of each investor as shown on that return for each reporting period.

(c) For purposes of this section, the term "a promoter of tax shelters" shall mean any person who:

(1) (A) Organizes (or assists in the organization of) any entity, any investment plan or arrangement, or any other plan or arrangement which generates a loss for any investor in excess of his or her cash investment from an activity described in Section 465(c) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) Participates in the sale of any interest in any entity or plan or arrangement referred to in subparagraph (A).

(2) Makes or furnishes (in connection with that organization or sale):

(A) A statement with respect to the allowability of any deduction or credit, the excludability of any income, or the securing of any other tax benefit by reason of holding an interest in the entity or participating in the plan or arrangement.

(B) A statement as to the value of any property or services.

(d) A promoter of tax shelters shall keep records necessary to substantiate the information required to be contained on a return.

(e) "Reporting period," as used in subdivision (a), shall mean each calendar year specified on the request from the Franchise Tax Board.

(f) A return filed by a partnership or limited liability company classified as a partnership for California income tax purposes under this part shall be deemed to have satisfied the reporting requirement of this section for the reporting period covered by the partnership or limited liability company return with respect to the investors in the partnership.

(g) The Franchise Tax Board shall establish a review process for all requests for information under this section comparable to the process of obtaining an administrative subpoena, including the requirement that a member of the Franchise Tax Board shall approve each request.

(h) The amendments made by the act adding this subdivision are operative for information returns required to be filed on or after January 1, 1999.

SEC. 4. Section 19008 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19008. (a) The Franchise Tax Board may, in cases of financial hardship, as determined by the Franchise Tax Board, allow an individual or fiduciary to enter into installment payment agreements with the Franchise Tax Board to pay taxes due, plus applicable interest and penalties over the life of the installment period. Failure by an individual or fiduciary to comply fully with the terms of the installment payment agreement shall render the agreement null and void, unless the Franchise Tax Board determines that the failure was due to a reasonable cause, and the total amount of tax, interest, and all penalties shall be immediately due and payable.

(b) Except in any case where the Franchise Tax Board finds collection of the tax to which an installment payment agreement relates to be in jeopardy, or there is a mutual consent to terminate, alter, or modify the agreement, the agreement shall not be considered null and void, or otherwise terminated, unless both of the following occur:

(1) A notice of termination is provided to the individual or fiduciary not later than 30 days before the date of termination.

(2) The notice includes an explanation of why the Franchise Tax Board intends to terminate the agreement.

(c) The Taxpayers' Advocate shall establish procedures for an independent departmental administrative review for installment payment agreements that are rendered null and void, or otherwise terminated under this section, for individuals or fiduciaries who request that review. This administrative review shall not stay collection of the tax to which the installment payment agreement relates.

SEC. 5. Section 19049 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19049. (a) When a deficiency is determined and the assessment becomes final, the Franchise Tax Board shall mail notice and demand to the taxpayer for the payment thereof. The deficiency assessed is due and payable at the expiration of 15 days from the date of the notice and demand.

(b) The amendments made by the act adding this subdivision are operative for notices issued on or after January 1, 1998.

SEC. 6. Section 19064 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19064. (a) If any person initiates a motion to quash a subpoena, as provided by Sections 7465 to 7476, inclusive, of the Government Code, and that person is the person with respect to whose liability the subpoena is issued (or is the agent, nominee, or other person acting under the direction or control of that person), then the running of any period of limitations under Section 19057 (relating to deficiency assessments), Section 19087 (relating to false or fraudulent returns), or Section 19704 (relating to criminal prosecutions) with respect to that person shall be suspended for the period during which a proceeding, and appeals therein, with respect to the enforcement of the subpoena is pending.

(b) In the absence of the resolution of a response to a subpoena served to a third-party recordkeeper (as defined in Section 7609(a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by Section 1001 of Public Law 104-168) issued under Section 19504 (power of examination) the running of any period of limitations under Section 19057 (relating to deficiency assessments), Section 19087 (relating to false or fraudulent returns), or Section 19704 (relating to criminal prosecutions) with respect to any person whose liability the subpoena was issued (other than a person taking action as provided by subdivision (a)) shall be suspended for the period beginning on the date which is six months after the service of the subpoena and ending with the final resolution of that response.

SEC. 7. Section 19104 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

(b) If the Franchise Tax Board makes or allows a refund or credit which it determines to be erroneous, in whole or in part, the amount erroneously made or allowed may be assessed and collected after notice and demand pursuant to Section 19051 (pertaining to mathematical errors), except that the rights of protest and appeal shall apply with respect to amounts assessable as deficiencies without regard to the running of any period of limitations provided elsewhere in this part. Notice and demand for repayment must be made within two years after the refund or credit was made or allowed, or during the period within which the Franchise Tax Board may mail a notice of proposed deficiency assessment, whichever period expires the later. Interest on amounts erroneously made or allowed shall not accrue until 30 days from the date the Franchise Tax Board mails a notice and demand for repayment as provided by this subdivision.

(c) (1) In the case of any assessment of interest, the Franchise Tax Board may abate the assessment of all or any part of that interest for any period in either of the following circumstances:

(A) Any deficiency attributable in whole or in part to any unreasonable error or delay by an officer or employee of the Franchise Tax Board (acting in his or her official capacity) in performing a ministerial or managerial act.

(B) Any payment of any tax described in Section 19033 to the extent that any delay in that payment is attributable to that officer or employee being dilatory in performing a ministerial or managerial act.

(C) For purposes of this paragraph:

(i) An error or delay shall be taken into account only if no significant aspect of that error or delay can be attributed to the taxpayer involved, and after the Franchise Tax Board has contacted the taxpayer in writing with respect to that deficiency or payment.

(ii) Within 180 days after the Franchise Tax Board mails its notice of determination not to abate interest, a taxpayer may appeal the Franchise Tax Board's determination to the State Board of Equalization. The State Board of Equalization shall have jurisdiction over the appeal to determine whether the Franchise Tax Board's failure to abate interest under this section was an abuse of discretion, and may order an abatement.

(iii) Except for the amendment adding clause (ii), the amendments made by the act adding this clause are operative with respect to taxable or income years beginning on or after January 1,

1998. The amendment adding clause (ii) is operative for requests for abatement made on or after January 1, 1998.

(2) The Franchise Tax Board shall abate the assessment of all interest on any erroneous refund for which an action for recovery is provided under Section 19411 until 30 days after the date demand for repayment is made, unless either of the following has occurred:

(A) The taxpayer (or a related party) has in any way caused that erroneous refund.

SEC. 8. Section 19111 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19111. (a) If notice is made for payment of any amount, and if that amount is paid within 15 days after the date of the notice, interest under this article on the amount so paid shall not be imposed for the period after the date of the notice.

(b) The amendments made by the act adding this subdivision are operative for notices issued on or after January 1, 1998.

SEC. 9. Section 19132 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19132. (a) (1) Unless it is shown that the failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, a penalty computed in accordance with paragraph (2) is hereby imposed in the case of failure to pay any of the following:

(A) The amount shown as tax on any return on or before the date prescribed for payment of that tax determined with regard to any extension of time for payment.

(B) Any amount in respect of any tax required to be shown on a return which is not so shown including an assessment made pursuant to Section 19051 within 15 days of the date of the notice and demand therefor.

(C) The amount required to be paid by Section 19021, if applicable, that is not paid.

(E) The amount required to be paid by Section 17951 or 23097, if applicable, that is not paid.

(2) The penalty imposed under paragraph (1) shall consist of both of the following:

(B) An amount computed at the rate of 0.5 percent per month of the "remaining tax" as defined in subdivision (d) for each additional month or fraction thereof not to exceed 40 months during which the "remaining tax" is greater than zero.

(3) The aggregate amount of penalty imposed by this subdivision shall not exceed 25 percent of the total unpaid tax and shall be due and payable upon notice and demand by the Franchise Tax Board.

The tender of a check or money order does not constitute payment of the tax for purposes of this section unless the check or money order is paid on presentment.

(b) The penalty prescribed by subdivision (a) shall not be assessed if, for the same taxable year, the sum of any penalties imposed under Section 19131 relating to failure to file return and Section 19133 relating to failure to file return after demand is equal to or greater than the subdivision (a) penalty. In the event the penalty imposed under subdivision (a) is greater than the sum of any penalties imposed under Sections 19131 and 19133, the penalty imposed under subdivision (a) shall be the amount which exceeds the sum of any penalties imposed under Sections 19131 and 19133.

(c) For purposes of this section, total tax unpaid means the amount of tax shown on the return reduced by both of the following:

(1) The amount of any part of the tax which is paid on or before the date prescribed for payment of the tax.

(2) The amount of any credit against the tax which may be claimed upon the return.

(d) For purposes of this section, "remaining tax" means total tax unpaid reduced by the amount of any payment of the tax.

(e) If the amount required to be shown as a tax on a return is less than the amount shown as tax on that return, subdivisions (a), (c), and (d) shall be applied by substituting that lower amount.

(f) No interest shall accrue on the portion of the penalty prescribed in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (a).

(g) The amendments made by the act adding this subdivision are operative for notices issued on or after January 1, 1998.

SEC. 10. Section 19280 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19280. (a) Fines, state or local penalties, forfeitures, restitution fines, or restitution orders imposed by a superior, municipal, or justice court of the State of California upon a person or any other entity that is in an amount totaling no less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250), in the aggregate, and due a county or the state for criminal offenses, including all offenses involving a violation of the Vehicle Code except offenses relating to parking or registration or offenses by pedestrians or bicyclists, may, no sooner than 90 days after payment of that amount becomes delinquent, be referred by the county or the state to the Franchise Tax Board for collection under guidelines prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board. The Franchise Tax Board shall establish criteria for referral, which shall include setting forth a minimum dollar amount subject to referral and collection.

(b) For the period January 1, 1995, to December 31, 1997, inclusive, for purposes of a manageable implementation and evaluation of the program authorized by this article, the Franchise Tax Board may limit referrals to nine counties.

(c) Upon written notice to the obligor from the Franchise Tax Board, any amount referred to the Franchise Tax Board under subdivision (a) and any interest thereon, including any interest on the amount referred under subdivision (a) that accrued prior to the date of referral, shall be treated as final and due and payable to the State of California, and shall be collected from the obligor by the Franchise Tax Board in any manner authorized under the law for collection of a delinquent personal income tax liability, including, but not limited to, issuance of an order and levy under Article 4 (commencing with Section 706.070) of Chapter 5 of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure in the manner provided for earnings withholding orders for taxes.

(d) (1) Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), this part, Part 10.7 (commencing with Section 21001), and Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) shall apply to amounts referred under this article in the same manner and with the same force and effect and to the full extent as if the language of those laws had been incorporated in full into this article, except to the extent that any provision is either inconsistent with this article or is not relevant to this article.

(2) Any information, information sources, or enforcement remedies and capabilities available to the court referring the amount due described in subdivision (a), shall be available to the Franchise Tax Board to be used in conjunction with, or independent of, the information, information sources, or remedies and capabilities available to the Franchise Tax Board for purposes of administering Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), this part, Part 10.7 (commencing with Section 21001), or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

(e) The activities required to implement and administer this part shall not interfere with the primary mission of the Franchise Tax Board to administer Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) and Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

(f) For amounts referred for collection under subdivision (a), interest shall accrue at the greater of the rate applicable to the amount due being collected or the rate provided under Section 19521. When notice of the amount due includes interest and is mailed to the obligor and the amount is paid within 15 days after the date of notice, interest shall not be imposed for the period after the date of notice.

(g) In no event shall a collection under this article be construed as a payment of income taxes imposed under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

(h) The amendments made by the act adding this subdivision are operative for notices issued on or after January 1, 1998.

SEC. 11. Section 19290 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19290. (a) The Department of Industrial Relations shall enter into an agreement with the Franchise Tax Board that transfers responsibility from the department to the Franchise Tax Board for the collection of delinquent fees, wages, penalties, and costs, and any interest thereon, effective July 1, 1995. Under the agreement, the Franchise Tax Board shall collect unsatisfied judgments that are issued pursuant to Sections 98.2, 226.5, 1023, 1289, 2681, and 6650 of the Labor Code. The agreement shall also provide for the collection of delinquent debts that result from a final determination by the department after the exhaustion of appeal remedies pursuant to Sections 98.3, 210, 1174.5, 1193.6, 1194, 1194.2, 1197.1, 1197.5, 1771, 1774, 3722, 7314, 7350, 7721, and 7904 of the Labor Code. The agreement shall specify the terms under which fees, wages, penalties, and costs, and any interest thereon, become subject to collection by the Franchise Tax Board.

The agreement may also provide for reimbursement to the Franchise Tax Board on the basis of a percentage of the amount of revenue realized as a result of the Franchise Tax Board's services, provided that the amount of any reimbursement shall not exceed the actual costs of collection, including court costs and reasonable attorney's fees. Wherever possible the collection costs shall be borne by the judgment debtor. Any fee for the recovery of wages shall not be paid by the workers. The department shall adopt rules and regulations to provide for a reasonable fee to cover actual collection costs. The Franchise Tax Board shall be entitled to court costs and reasonable attorney's fees as a judgment creditor under subdivision (i) of Section 98.2 of the Labor Code.

(b) Upon written notice to the obligor from the Franchise Tax Board, any amount referred to the Franchise Tax Board under subdivision (a) and any interest thereon, including any interest on the amount referred under subdivision (a) that accrued prior to the date of referral and any fee imposed to cover collection costs as provided under subdivision (a), shall be treated as final and due and payable to the State of California, and shall be collected from the obligor by the Franchise Tax Board in any manner authorized under the law for collection of a delinquent personal income tax liability, including, but not limited to, issuance of an order and levy under Article 4 (commencing with Section 706.070) of Chapter 5 of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, in the manner provided for earnings withholding orders for taxes.

(c) (1) Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), this part, Part 10.7 (commencing with Section 21001), and Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) shall apply to amounts referred under this article in the same manner and with the same force and effect and to the full extent as if the language of those laws had been incorporated in full into this article, except to the extent that any provision is either inconsistent with this article or is not relevant to this article.

(2) Any information, information sources, or enforcement remedies and capabilities available to the agency referring the amount due described in subdivision (a), shall be available to the Franchise Tax Board to be used in conjunction with, or independent of, the information, information sources, or remedies and capabilities available to the Franchise Tax Board for purposes of administering Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), this part, Part 10.7 (commencing with Section 21001), or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

(d) The activities required to implement and administer this part shall not interfere with the primary mission of the Franchise Tax Board to administer Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) and Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

(e) For amounts referred for collection under subdivision (a), interest shall accrue at the greater of the rate applicable to the amount due being collected or the rate provided under Section 19521. When notice of the amount due includes interest and is mailed to the obligor, and the amount is paid within 15 days after the date of notice, interest shall not be imposed for the period after the date of notice.

(f) In no event shall a collection under this article be construed as a payment of income taxes imposed under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

(g) The amendments made by the act adding this subdivision are operative for notices issued on or after January 1, 1998.

SEC. 12. Section 19503 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19503. (a) The Franchise Tax Board shall prescribe all rules and regulations necessary for the enforcement of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 10.7 (commencing with Section 21001), Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), and this part and may prescribe the extent to which any ruling (including any judicial decision or any administrative determination other than by regulation) shall be applied without retroactive effect.

(b) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, no regulation relating to Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 10.7 (commencing with Section 21001), Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), or this part shall apply to any taxable or income year ending before the date on which any notice substantially describing the expected contents of any regulation is issued to the public.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to either of the following:

(A) Regulations issued within 24 months of the date of the enactment of the statutory provision to which the regulation relates.

(B) Regulations issued within 24 months of the date that temporary or final federal regulations with respect to statutory provisions to which California conforms are filed with the Federal Register.

(3) The Franchise Tax Board may provide that any regulation may take effect or apply retroactively to prevent abuse.

(4) The Franchise Tax Board may provide that any regulation may apply retroactively to correct a procedural defect in the issuance of any prior regulation.

(5) The limitation of paragraph (1) shall not apply to any regulation relating to the Franchise Tax Board's policies, practices, or procedures.

(6) The limitation of paragraph (1) may be superseded by a legislative grant of authority to the Franchise Tax Board to prescribe the effective date with respect to any regulation.

(7) The Franchise Tax Board may provide for any taxpayer to elect to apply any regulation before the dates specified in paragraph (1).

(c) The amendments made by the act adding this subdivision are operative with respect to regulations which relate to California statutory provisions enacted on or after January 1, 1998.

SEC. 13. Section 19717 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19717. (a) The prevailing party may be awarded a judgment for reasonable litigation costs incurred, in the case of any civil proceeding brought by or against the State of California in a court of record of this state in connection with the determination, collection, or refund of any tax, interest, or penalty under this part.

(b) (1) A judgment for reasonable litigation costs shall not be awarded under subdivision (a) unless the court determines that the prevailing party has exhausted all administrative remedies available to that party under this part, including the filing of an appeal as provided in Section 19324. Any failure to agree to an extension of the time for the assessment of any tax shall not be taken into account for purposes of determining whether the prevailing party meets the requirements of the preceding sentence.

(2) An award under subdivision (a) shall be made only for reasonable litigation costs which are allocable to the State of California and not to any other party to the action or proceeding.

(3) No award for reasonable litigation costs may be made under subdivision (a) with respect to any portion of the civil proceeding during which the prevailing party has unreasonably protracted that proceeding.

(c) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Reasonable litigation costs" includes any of the following:

(A) Reasonable court costs.

(B) Based upon prevailing market rates for the kind or quality of services furnished, any of the following:

(i) The reasonable expenses of expert witnesses in connection with the civil proceeding, except that no expert witness shall be compensated at a rate in excess of the highest rate of compensation for expert witnesses paid by the State of California.

(ii) The reasonable cost of any study, analysis, engineering report, test, or project which is found by the court to be necessary for the preparation of the party's case.

(iii) Reasonable fees paid or incurred for the services of attorneys in connection with the civil proceeding, except that those fees shall not be in excess of one hundred ten dollars ($110) per hour unless the court determines that a special factor, such as the limited availability of qualified attorneys for the proceeding, justifies a higher rate. In the case of each calendar year beginning with calendar year 1999, the Franchise Tax Board shall recompute the dollar amount referred to in the preceding sentence. That computation shall be made by increasing the amount in this clause by an amount equal to the cost-of-living adjustment determined under subdivision (h) of Section 17041. If any resulting dollar amount is not a multiple of ten dollars ($10), that dollar amount shall be rounded to the nearest multiple of ten dollars ($10).

(2) (A) "Prevailing party" means any party to any proceeding described in subdivision (a) (other than the State of California or any creditor of the taxpayer involved) that meets either of the following criteria:

(i) Has substantially prevailed with respect to the amount in controversy.

(ii) Has substantially prevailed with respect to the most significant issue or set of issues presented.

(B) (i) A party shall not be treated as the prevailing party in a proceeding to which subdivision (a) applies if the State of California establishes that its position in the proceeding was substantially justified.

(ii) For purposes of clause (i), the position of the State of California shall be presumed not to be substantially justified if the Franchise Tax Board did not follow its applicable published guidance in the administrative proceeding. This presumption may be rebutted.

(iii) For purposes of clause (ii), the term "applicable published guidance" means either of the following:

(I) A regulation, legal ruling, notice, information release, or announcement.

(II) Any chief counsel ruling or determination letter issued to the taxpayer.

(C) Any determination under this paragraph as to whether a party is a prevailing party shall be made by either of the following:

(3) The term "civil proceeding" includes a civil action.

(d) For purposes of this section, in the case of multiple actions which could have been joined or consolidated, or a case or cases involving a return or returns of the same taxpayer (including joint returns of married individuals) which could have been joined in a single proceeding in the same court, the actions or cases shall be treated as one civil proceeding regardless of whether the joinder or consolidation actually occurs, unless the court in which the action is brought determines, in its discretion, that it would be inappropriate to treat the actions or cases as joined or consolidated for purposes of this section.

(e) An order granting or denying an award for reasonable litigation costs under subdivision (a), in whole or in part, shall be incorporated as a part of the decision or judgment in the case and shall be subject to appeal in the same manner as the decision or judgment.

(f) For purposes of this section, "position of the State of California" includes either of the following:

(2) Any administrative action or inaction by the Franchise Tax Board (and all subsequent administrative action or inaction) upon which that proceeding is based.

(g) The amendments made by the act adding this subdivision are operative for costs and expenses incurred in proceedings beginning on or after January 1, 1998.

SEC. 14. Section 21013 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

21013. (a) (1) Every taxpayer is entitled to be reimbursed for any reasonable fees and expenses related to an appeal before the State Board of Equalization if all of the following conditions are met:

(A) The taxpayer files a claim for the fee and expenses with the State Board of Equalization.

(B) The State Board of Equalization, in its sole discretion, finds that the action taken by the Franchise Tax Board staff was unreasonable.

(2) For purposes of this section, fees and expenses related to an appeal before the State Board of Equalization do not include fees and expenses incurred in cases where an appeal has been filed, but resolved before the Franchise Tax Board's written statement of its position has been submitted to the State Board of Equalization.

(b) (1) To determine whether the Franchise Tax Board staff has been unreasonable, the State Board of Equalization shall consider whether the Franchise Tax Board has established that its position in the appeal was substantially justified.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the position of the Franchise Tax Board shall be presumed not to be substantially justified if its staff did not follow its applicable published guidance in the appeal. This presumption may be rebutted.

(3) For purposes of paragraph (2), the term "applicable published guidance" means either of the following:

(A) A regulation, legal ruling, notice, information release, or announcement.

(c) The amount of reimbursed fees and expenses shall be determined by the State Board of Equalization and shall be limited to the following:

(1) Fees and expenses incurred after the date of filing an appeal of a notice of action with respect to a deficiency assessment or jeopardy assessment, or denials of claims for refunds.

(2) If the State Board of Equalization finds that the Franchise Tax Board staff was unreasonable with respect to certain issues but reasonable with respect to other issues, the amount of reimbursed fees and expenses shall be limited to those which relate to the issues where the Franchise Tax Board staff was unreasonable.

(d) Any proposed determination by the State Board of Equalization pursuant to this section shall be available as a public record for at least 10 days prior to the effective date of that determination.

(e) The amendments made by the act adding this subdivision are operative for fees and expenses related to appeals filed on or after January 1, 1998.

SEC. 15. Section 21016 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

21016. (a) The board shall release any levy issued pursuant to Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401) on any property in the event of any circumstances deemed appropriate by the board, including, but not limited to, the following:

(2) The Taxpayers' Rights Advocate orders the release of the levy upon his or her finding that the levy threatens the health or welfare of the taxpayer or his or her spouse and dependents or family.

(3) The proceeds from the sale would not result in a reasonable reduction of the debt.

(4) The levy was issued not in accordance with administrative procedures.

(5) The taxpayer has entered into an installment payment agreement under Section 19008 to satisfy the tax liability for which the levy was made, unless that or another agreement allows for the levy.

(6) The release of the levy will facilitate the collection of the tax liability or will be in the best interest of the taxpayer and the state.

(b) The board shall not sell any seized property until it has first notified the taxpayer in writing of the exemptions from levy under Chapter 4 (commencing with Section 703.010) of Title 9 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(c) This section shall not apply to the seizure of any property as a result of a jeopardy assessment authorized by Article 5 (commencing with Section 19081) of Chapter 4 of Part 10.2.

SEC. 16. Section 21019 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

21019. (a) At least 30 days prior to the filing or recording of liens under Chapter 14 (commencing with Section 7150) or Chapter 14.5 (commencing with Section 7220) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the board shall mail to the taxpayer a preliminary notice. The notice shall specify the statutory authority of the board for filing or recording the lien, indicate the earliest date on which the lien may be filed or recorded, and state the remedies available to the taxpayer to prevent the filing or recording of the lien. In the event tax liens are filed for the same liability in multiple counties, only one preliminary notice shall be sent.

(b) The lien shall not be filed or recorded if the taxpayer demonstrates to the board by substantial evidence, within 30 days after receiving the notice, that a filing or recording of a lien would be in error. The preliminary notice required by this section shall not apply to jeopardy assessments authorized by Article 5 (commencing with Section 19081) of Chapter 4 of Part 10.2.

(c) If after filing or recording the lien, the board determines that its action was in error, it shall mail a release to the taxpayer and the entity recording the lien as soon as possible, but not later than seven working days, after this determination or the receipt of the lien recording information, whichever is later. The release shall contain a statement that the lien was filed in error. If the erroneous lien is obstructing a lawful transaction, the board shall immediately issue a release of lien to the appropriate party. Upon the request of the taxpayer, a copy of the release shall be mailed to the major credit reporting companies in the county where the lien was filed.

(d) The procedures described in subdivision (c) shall apply to liens that are filed or recorded in either of the following ways:

(2) After the taxpayer has entered into an installment payment agreement under Section 19008 to satisfy the tax liability for which the lien was filed or recorded, unless the agreement provides for the filing or recording of the lien.

(e) If after filing or recording the lien, the board determines that a release of the lien will facilitate the collection of the tax liability or will be in the best interest of the taxpayer and the state, it shall mail a release of that lien to the taxpayer and the entity recording the lien. If the lien is obstructing a lawful transaction and its release will facilitate the collection of the tax liability, or will be in the best interest of the taxpayer and the state, the board shall immediately do both of the following:

(2) Upon the request of the taxpayer, mail a copy of the release to the credit reporting companies, financial institutions, or any creditor whose name and address is provided by the taxpayer.

(f) This section shall not limit the circumstances in which the Franchise Tax Board may release a lien. The Franchise Tax Board may release a lien under any circumstances to facilitate the collection of the tax liability or, if that release is in the best interest of the taxpayer and state, and take any action associated with the release of that lien it deems appropriate.

(g) The amendments made by the act adding this subdivision are operative on or after January 1, 1998.

SEC. 17. Section 21022 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

21022. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (f), if any officer or employee of the board intentionally settles the determination or compromises the collection of any tax due from an attorney, certified public accountant, or tax preparer (as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 19169) representing a taxpayer, in exchange for information conveyed by the taxpayer to the attorney, certified public accountant, or tax preparer for purposes of obtaining advice concerning the taxpayer's tax liability, the taxpayer may bring a civil action for damages against the State of California in superior court. The civil action shall be the exclusive remedy for recovering damages resulting from the acts described in this subdivision.

(b) In any action brought under subdivision (a), upon the finding of liability on the part of the defendant, the defendant shall be liable to the plaintiff in an amount equal to the lesser of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) or the sum of all the following:

(1) Actual, direct economic damages sustained by the plaintiff as a proximate result of the information disclosure.

(c) Damages shall not include the taxpayer's liability for any civil or criminal penalties or other losses attributable to incarceration or the imposition of other criminal sanctions.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an action to enforce liability created under this section may be brought without regard to the amount in controversy, and may be brought only within two years after the date the actions creating the liability would have been discovered by the exercise of reasonable care.

(e) Upon certification of the executive officer of the board, or the executive officer's delegate, that criminal charges have been filed against the taxpayer, the court before which an action under this section is pending shall stay all proceedings with respect to the action, pending the resolution of those criminal charges. Certification authorized by this subdivision shall comply with the requirements of Section 19542.

(f) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to information conveyed to an attorney, certified public accountant, or tax preparer for the purpose of perpetrating a fraud or crime.

(g) This section is operative for actions filed on or after January 1, 1998.

SEC. 18. Section 21023 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

21023. (a) Notwithstanding Article 2 (commencing with Section 19542) of Chapter 7 of Part 10.2, if any amount with respect to a joint return is due and payable and the individuals filing the return are no longer married or no longer reside in the same household, the board shall, upon request in writing by either of these individuals, disclose in writing to the requesting individual whether the board has attempted to collect the amount due from the other individual, the general nature of the collection activities, and the amount collected.

SEC. 19. Section 21024 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

21024. For appeals filed under Section 19045 or 19324, on or after January 1, 1998, the board shall have the burden of producing reasonable and probative information, in addition to the information described in subdivision (a), concerning the amount assessed if a taxpayer does both of the following:

(a) Asserts a reasonable dispute with respect to either of the following:

(1) An item of income reported on an information return filed with the board pursuant to Section 18637, 18638, 18639, 18640, 18641, 18642, 18643, 18644, 18645, 18646, or 18647 by a third party.

(2) Wage information reported or furnished to the Employment Development Department and accessible to the board under subdivision (g) of Section 1088 of, or subdivision (e) of Section 13050 of, the Unemployment Insurance Code or an exchange of information agreement.

(b) Fully cooperates with the board, including, but not limited to, providing, within a reasonable period of time, access to and inspection of all witnesses, information, and documents within the control of the taxpayer as reasonably requested by the board.

SEC. 20. Section 20125 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

20125. If any payment is received on or after January 1, 1998, by the board from any taxpayer and the board cannot associate the payment with the taxpayer, the board shall make reasonable efforts to notify the taxpayer of the inability within 60 days after the receipt of the payment.

SEC. 21. Section 21026 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

21026. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b), for income or taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, the board shall, not less than annually, mail a written notice to each taxpayer who has a tax delinquent account of the amount of the tax delinquency as of the date of the notice.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to accounts where a previously mailed notice to the address of record was returned to the board as undeliverable, or to accounts that are discharged from accountability pursuant to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 13940) of Part 4 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code.

SEC. 22. Section 21027 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

21027. (a) For purposes of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), or this part or any other law that is applicable to the mailing of any returns, payments, or any other items required to be filed under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), or this part, any reference in Section 11003 of the Government Code to the United States mail shall be treated as including a reference to any designated delivery service, and any reference in that section to a post office cancellation mark shall be treated as including a reference to any date recorded electronically by a designated delivery service, kept in the regular course of the designated delivery service's business, or marks on the cover in which any item is to be delivered to the board that indicate the date on which the item was given to the designated delivery service for delivery.

(b) For purposes of this section, "designated delivery service" means any delivery service provided by a trade or business if that service is designated by the Secretary of the Treasury under the authority of Section 7502(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by Public Law 104-168.

(c) This section is operative for items given to designated delivery services on or after January 1, 1998.

SEC. 23. Section 1 of this act is operative for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

CHAPTER 601

An act to amend Section 102425 of the Health and Safety Code, to amend Section 19272 of, and to amend and renumber Section 19532 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, and to amend Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to support.

[Approved by Governor October 1, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 3, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 102425 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

102425. (a) The certificate of live birth for any live birth occurring on or after January 1, 1980, shall contain those items necessary to establish the fact of the birth and shall contain only the following information:

(4) Full name of the father, birthplace, and date of birth of the father including month, day, and year. If the parents are not married to each other, the father's name shall not be listed on the birth certificate unless the father and the mother sign a voluntary declaration of paternity at the hospital before the birth certificate is prepared. The birth certificate may be amended to add the father's name at a later date only if paternity for the child has been established by a judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction or by the filing of a voluntary declaration of paternity.

(5) Full birth name of the mother, birthplace, and date of birth of the mother including month, day, and year.

(8) Name, title, and mailing address of attending physician and surgeon or principal attendant, signature, and certification of live birth by attending physician and surgeon or principal attendant or certifier, date signed, and name and title of certifier if other than attending physician and surgeon or principal attendant.

(11) A blank space for entry of date of death with a caption reading "Date of Death."

(b) In addition to the items listed in subdivision (a), the certificate of live birth shall contain the following medical and social information, provided that the information is kept confidential pursuant to Sections 102430 and 102447 and is clearly labeled "Confidential Information for Public Health Use Only:"

(3) Race and ethnicity of the mother and father.

(8) Description of complications of pregnancy and concurrent illnesses, congenital malformation, and any complication of labor and delivery, including surgery; provided that this information is essential medical information and appears in total on the face of the certificate.

(9) Mother's and father's occupations and kind of business or industry.

(11) Principal source of pay for prenatal care, which shall include all of the following: Medi-Cal, health maintenance organization or prepaid health plan, private insurance companies, medically indigent, self-pay, other sources which shall include, Medicare, workers' compensation, Title V, other government or nongovernment programs, no charge, and other categories as determined by the State Department of Health Services.

This paragraph shall become inoperative on January 1, 1999, or on the implementation date of the decennial birth certificate revision due to occur on or about January 1, 1999, whichever occurs first.

(12) Expected principal source of pay for delivery, which shall include all of the following: Medi-Cal, health maintenance organization or prepaid health plan, private insurance companies, medically indigent, self-pay, other sources which shall include, Medicare, workers' compensation, Title V, other government or nongovernment programs, no charge, and other categories as determined by the State Department of Health Services.

This paragraph shall become inoperative on January 1, 1999, or on the implementation date of the decennial birth certificate revision due to occur on or about January 1, 1999, whichever occurs first.

(13) An indication of whether or not the child's parent desires the automatic issuance of a Social Security number to the child.

(14) On and after January 1, 1995, the Social Security numbers of the mother and father, unless subdivision (b) of Section 102150 applies.

(c) Item 8, specified in subdivision (b), shall be completed by the attending physician and surgeon or the attending physician's and surgeon's designated representative. The names and addresses of children born with congenital malformations, who require followup treatment, as determined by the child's physician and surgeon, shall be furnished by the physician and surgeon to the local health officer, if permission is granted by either parent of the child.

(d) The parent shall only be asked to sign the form after both the public portion and the confidential medical and social information items have been entered upon the certificate of live birth.

(e) The State Registrar shall instruct all local registrars to collect the information specified in this section with respect to certificates of live birth. The information shall be transcribed on the certificate of live birth in use at the time and shall be limited to the information specified in this section.

Information relating to concurrent illnesses, complications of pregnancy and delivery, and congenital malformations shall be completed by the physician and surgeon, or physician's and surgeon's designee, inserting in the space provided on the confidential portion of the certificate the appropriate number or numbers listed on the

VS-10A supplemental worksheet. The VS-10A supplemental form shall be used as a worksheet only and shall not in any manner be linked with the identity of the child or the mother, nor submitted with the certificate to the State Registrar. All information transferred from the worksheet to the certificate shall be fully explained to the parent or other informant prior to the signing of the certificate. No questions relating to drug or alcohol abuse may be asked.

(f) If the implementation date of the decennial birth certificate revision occurs prior to January 1, 1999, within 30 days of this implementation date the State Department of Health Services shall file a letter with the Secretary of the Senate and with the Chief Clerk of the Assembly, so certifying.

SEC. 2. Section 19272 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19272. (a) Any child support delinquency collected by the Franchise Tax Board, including those amounts that result in overpayment of a child support delinquency, shall be deposited in the State Treasury, after clearance of the remittance, to the credit of the Special Deposit Fund and distributed as specified by interagency agreement executed by the Franchise Tax Board and the State Department of Social Services, with the concurrence of the Controller. Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, all moneys deposited in the Special Deposit Fund pursuant to this article are hereby continuously appropriated, without regard to fiscal years, for purposes of making distributions.

(b) When a child support delinquency, or any portion thereof, has been collected by the Franchise Tax Board pursuant to this article, the district attorney shall be notified that the delinquency or some portion thereof has been collected and shall be provided any other necessary relevant information requested.

(c) The referring county district attorney shall receive credit for the amount of collections made pursuant to the referral, and shall receive the applicable child support enforcement incentives pursuant to Section 15200.85 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. Collection costs incurred by the Franchise Tax Board shall be paid by federal reimbursement with any balance to be paid from the General Fund.

SEC. 3. Section 19532 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Chapter 1001 of the Statutes of 1996, is amended and renumbered to read:

19533. In the event the debtor has more than one debt being collected by the Franchise Tax Board and the amount collected by the Franchise Tax Board is insufficient to satisfy the total amount owing, the amount collected shall be applied in the following priority:

(a) Payment of any taxes, additions to tax, penalties, interest, fees, or other amounts due and payable under Part 7.5 (commencing with Section 13201), Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), or this part.

(b) Payment of any debts referred for collection under Article 5 (commencing with Section 19271) of Chapter 5.

(c) Payment of delinquent wages collected pursuant to the Labor Code.

(e) Payment of any amounts due that are referred for collection under Article 6 (commencing with Section 19280) of Chapter 5.

(f) Payment of any amounts that are referred for collection pursuant to Section 62.9 of the Labor Code.

(g) Payment of delinquent penalties collected for the Department of Industrial Relations pursuant to the Labor Code.

(h) Payment of delinquent fees collected for the Department of Industrial Relations pursuant to the Labor Code.

(i) Payment of delinquencies referred by the Student Aid Commission pursuant to Section 16583.5 of the Government Code.

(j) Notwithstanding the payment priority established by this section, voluntary payments made by an obligated parent for a child support obligation pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 19271 shall not be applied pursuant to this priority but shall instead be applied solely to the child support obligation for which the voluntary payment was made.

SEC. 4. Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

(b) Actions brought by the district attorney to establish paternity or child support or to enforce child support obligations shall be completed within the time limits set forth by federal law. The district attorney's responsibility applies to spousal support only where the spousal support obligation has been reduced to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction. In any action brought for modification or revocation of an order that is being enforced under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 651 et seq.), the effective date of the modification or revocation shall be as prescribed by federal law (42 U.S.C. Sec. 666(a)(9)), or any subsequent date.

(c) (1) The Judicial Council, in consultation with the department and representatives of the California Family Support Council, the Senate Committee on Judiciary, the Assembly Committee on Judiciary, and a legal services organization providing representation on child support matters, shall develop simplified summons, complaint, and answer forms for any action for support brought pursuant to this section or Section 11350.1. The Judicial Council may combine the summons and complaint in a single form.

(2) The simplified complaint form shall provide the defendant with notice of the amount of child support that is sought pursuant to the guidelines set forth in Article 2 (commencing with Section 4050) of Chapter 2 of Part 2 of the Family Code based upon the income or income history of the defendant as known to the district attorney. If the defendant's income or income history is unknown to the district attorney, the complaint shall inform the defendant that income shall be presumed in an amount that results in a court order equal to the minimum basic standard of adequate care provided in Section 11452 unless information concerning the defendant's income is provided to the court. The complaint form shall be accompanied by a proposed judgment. The complaint form shall include a notice to the defendant that the proposed judgment will become effective if he or she fails to file an answer with the court within 30 days of service.

(3) (A) The simplified answer form shall be written in simple English and shall permit a defendant to answer and raise defenses by checking applicable boxes. The answer form shall include instructions for completion of the form and instructions for proper filing of the answer.

(B) The answer form shall be accompanied by a blank income and expense declaration or simplified financial statement and instructions on how to complete the financial forms. The answer form shall direct the defendant to file the completed income and expense declaration or simplified financial statement with the answer, but shall state that the answer will be accepted by a court without the income and expense declaration or simplified financial statement.

(C) The clerk of the court shall accept and file answers, income and expense declarations, and simplified financial statements that are completed by hand provided they are legible.

(4) (A) The simplified complaint form prepared pursuant to this subdivision shall be used by the district attorney or the Attorney General in all cases brought under this section or Section 11350.1.

(B) The simplified answer form prepared pursuant to this subdivision shall be served on all defendants with the simplified complaint. Failure to serve the simplified answer form on all defendants shall not invalidate any judgment obtained. However, failure to serve the answer form may be used as evidence in any proceeding under Section 11356 of this code or Section 473 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(C) The Judicial Council shall add language to the governmental summons, for use by the district attorney with the governmental complaint to establish parental relationship and child support, informing defendants that a blank answer form should have been received with the summons and additional copies may be obtained from either the district attorney's office or the superior court clerk.

(d) In any action brought or enforcement proceedings instituted by the district attorney pursuant to this section for payment of child or spousal support, an action to recover an arrearage in support payments may be maintained by the district attorney at any time within the period otherwise specified for the enforcement of a support judgment, notwithstanding the fact that the child has attained the age of majority.

(e) The county shall undertake an outreach program to inform the public that the services described in subdivisions (a) to (c), inclusive, are available to persons not receiving public assistance. There shall be prominently displayed in every public area of every office of the units established by this section a notice, in clear and simple language prescribed by the Director of Social Services, that the services provided in subdivisions (a) to (c), inclusive, are provided to all individuals whether or not they are recipients of public social services.

(f) In any action to establish a child support order brought by the district attorney in the performance of duties under this section, the district attorney may make a motion for an order effective during the pendency of that action, for the support, maintenance, and education of the child or children that are the subject of the action. This order shall be referred to as an order for temporary support. This order shall have the same force and effect as a like or similar order under the Family Code.

The district attorney shall file a motion for an order for temporary support within the following time limits:

(1) If the defendant is the mother, a presumed father under Section 7611 of the Family Code, or any father where the child is at least six months old when the defendant files his answer, the time limit is 90 days after the defendant files an answer.

(2) In any other case where the defendant has filed an answer prior to the birth of the child or not more than six months after the birth of the child, then the time limit is nine months after the birth of the child.

If more than one child is the subject of the action, the limitation on reimbursement shall apply only as to those children whose parental relationship and age would bar recovery were a separate action brought for support of that child or those children.

If the district attorney fails to file a motion for an order for temporary support within time limits specified in this section, the district attorney shall be barred from obtaining a judgment of reimbursement for any support provided for that child during the period between the date the time limit expired and the motion was filed, or, if no such motion is filed, when a final judgment is entered.

Nothing in this section prohibits the district attorney from entering into cooperative arrangements with other county departments as necessary to carry out the responsibilities imposed by this section pursuant to plans of cooperation with the departments approved by the State Department of Social Services.

Nothing in this section shall otherwise limit the ability of the district attorney from securing and enforcing orders for support of a spouse or former spouse as authorized under any other provision of law.

(g) As used in this article, "enforcing obligations" includes, but is not limited to, (1) the use of all interception and notification systems operated by the State Department of Social Services for the purposes of aiding in the enforcement of support obligations, (2) the obtaining by the district attorney of an initial order for child support, which may include medical support or which is for medical support only, by civil or criminal process, (3) the initiation of a motion or order to show cause to increase an existing child support order, and the response to a motion or order to show cause brought by an obligor parent to decrease an existing child support order, or the initiation of a motion or order to show cause to obtain an order for medical support, and the response to a motion or order to show cause brought by an obligor parent to decrease or terminate an existing medical support order, without regard to whether the child is receiving public assistance, (4) the response to a notice of motion or order to show cause brought by an obligor parent to decrease an existing spousal support order when the child or children are residing with the obligee parent and the district attorney is also enforcing a related child support obligation owed to the obligee parent by the same obligor, and (5) the use of the collection services of the Franchise Tax Board to enforce the collection of child support delinquencies under Section 19271 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(h) As used in this section, "out of wedlock" means that the biological parents of the child were not married to each other at the time of the child's conception.

(i) The district attorney is the public agency responsible for administering wage withholding for the purposes of Title IV-D of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 651 et seq.). Notwithstanding any other law, the district attorney shall utilize the collection services of the Franchise Tax Board under Section 19271 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

Nothing in this section shall limit the authority of the district attorney granted by other sections of this code or otherwise granted by law, except to the extent that the law is inconsistent with the requirement to refer child support delinquencies to the Franchise Tax Board for collection pursuant to Section 19271 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(j) In the exercise of the authority granted under this article, the district attorney may intervene, pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 387 of the Code of Civil Procedure, by ex parte application, in any action under the Family Code, or other proceeding wherein child support is an issue or a reduction in spousal support is sought. By notice of motion, order to show cause, or responsive pleading served upon all parties to the action, the district attorney may request such relief as appropriate which the district attorney is authorized to seek.

(k) The district attorney shall comply with any guidelines established by the State Department of Social Services which set time standards for responding to requests for assistance in locating absent parents, establishing paternity, establishing child support awards, and collecting child support payments.

(2) Any other medical support activity mandated by federal law or regulation.

(m) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, venue for an action or proceeding under this part shall be determined as follows:

(A) Venue shall be in the superior court in the county that is currently expending public assistance.

(B) If public assistance is not currently being expended, venue shall be in the superior court in the county where the child who is entitled to current support resides or is domiciled.

(C) If current support is no longer payable through, or enforceable by, the district attorney, venue shall be in the superior court in the county that last provided public assistance for actions to enforce arrearages assigned pursuant to Section 11477.

(D) If subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C) do not apply, venue shall be in the superior court in the county of residence of the support obligee.

(E) If the support obligee does not reside in California, and subparagraphs (A), (B), (C), and (D) do not apply, venue shall be in the superior court of the county of residence of the obligor.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), if the child becomes a resident of another county after an action under this part has been filed, venue may remain in the county where the action was filed until the action is completed.

(n) The district attorney of one county may appear on behalf of the district attorney of any other county in an action or proceeding under this part.

SEC. 5. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because this act provides for offsetting savings to local agencies or school districts that result in no net costs to the local agencies or school districts, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 6. This act shall become operative only if Assembly Bill 573 and Assembly Bill 1395, both of the 1997–98 Regular Session, are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998.

CHAPTER 602

An act to add Chapter 12.93 (commencing with Section 7097) to Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, and to amend Sections 17039, 17276.2, 23036, and 24416.2 of, and to add Sections 17053.33, 17053.34, 17267.6, 23633, 23634, and 24356.6 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to economic development.

[Approved by Governor October 1, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 3, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 12.93 (commencing with Section 7097) is added to Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 12.93. TARGETED TAX AREAS

7097. (a) The Trade and Commerce Agency shall rank applicant communities and shall designate the first ranking community whose governing body is applying as a community to be designated as a targeted tax area which meets at least four of the five following criteria:

(3) The median family income in the applicant community does not exceed thirty-two thousand seven hundred dollars ($32,700).

(4) The percentage of persons in the applicant community below the poverty level is at least 17.5 percent.

(5) The applicant community ranks in the top quartile, among California counties, in the percentage of population receiving Aid for Families with Dependent Children benefits, based on the Cash Grant Caseload Movement and Expenditures Report, July 1995 to June 1996.

(b) For purposes of applying any provision of the Revenue and Taxation Code, any targeted tax area designated pursuant to this section shall not be considered an enterprise zone designated pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070).

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (e), the designation as a targeted tax area pursuant to this section shall be binding for a period of 15 years, commencing January 1, 1998.

(d) Only one targeted tax area shall be designated by the agency, and a renewed or replacement designation shall not be made after the initial designation expires or is revoked.

(e) An audit of the program's operation shall be made by the Trade and Commerce Agency on a periodic basis with the cooperation of the local governing board. If the agency determines that the local jurisdiction is not complying with the terms of the memorandum of understanding, the agency shall provide written notice of the program deficiencies and the governing body shall be given six months to correct the deficiencies. If the deficiencies are not corrected, the designation shall be revoked.

(f) A county and any cities within the county may apply jointly as a community if the combination of the jurisdictions meets the criteria.

SEC. 2. Section 17039 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17039. (a) Notwithstanding any provision in this part to the contrary, for the purposes of computing tax credits, the term "net tax" means the tax imposed under either Section 17041 or 17048 plus the tax imposed under Section 17504 (relating to lump-sum distributions) less the credits allowed by Section 17054 (relating to personal exemption credits) and any amount imposed under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) and paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 17560. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, the "net tax" shall not be less than the tax imposed under Section 17504 (relating to the separate tax on lump-sum distributions), if any. Credits shall be allowed against "net tax" in the following order:

(1) Credits that do not contain carryover or refundable provisions, except those described in paragraphs (4) and (5).

(3) Credits that contain both carryover and refundable provisions.

The order within each paragraph shall be determined by the Franchise Tax Board.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 17053.5 (relating to the renter's credit), 17061 (relating to refunds pursuant to the Unemployment Insurance Code), and 19002 (relating to tax withholding), the credits provided in those sections shall be allowed in the order provided in paragraph (6) of subdivision (a).

(c) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, no tax credit shall reduce the tax imposed under Section 17041 or 17048 plus the tax imposed under Section 17504 (relating to the separate tax on lump-sum distributions) below the tentative minimum tax, as defined by Section 17062, except the following credits, but only after allowance of the credit allowed by Section 17063:

(C) The credit allowed by Section 17052.5 (relating to solar energy).

(F) The credit allowed by Section 17052.15 (relating to Los Angeles Revitalization Zone sales tax credit).

(G) The credit allowed by Section 17053.5 (relating to the renter's credit).

(I) The credit allowed by Section 17053.10 (relating to Los Angeles Revitalization Zone hiring credit).

(J) The credit allowed by former Section 17053.11 (relating to program area hiring credit).

(K) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1994, the credit allowed by Section 17053.17 (relating to Los Angeles Revitalization Zone hiring credit).

(M) The credit allowed by Section 17053.34 (relating to targeted tax area hiring credit).

(Q) The credit allowed by Section 17057 (relating to clinical testing expenses).

(S) The credit allowed by Section 17061 (relating to refunds pursuant to the Unemployment Insurance Code).

(2) Any credit that is partially or totally denied under paragraph (1) shall be allowed to be carried over and applied to the net tax in succeeding taxable years, if the provisions relating to that credit include a provision to allow a carryover when that credit exceeds the net tax.

(d) Unless otherwise provided, any remaining carryover of a credit allowed by a section that has been repealed or made inoperative shall continue to be allowed to be carried over under the provisions of that section as it read immediately prior to being repealed or becoming inoperative.

(e) (1) Unless otherwise provided, if two or more taxpayers (other than husband and wife) share in costs that would be eligible for a tax credit allowed under this part, each taxpayer shall be eligible to receive the tax credit in proportion to his or her respective share of the costs paid or incurred.

(2) In the case of a partnership, the credit shall be allocated among the partners pursuant to a written partnership agreement in accordance with Section 704 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to partner's distributive share.

(3) In the case of a husband and wife who file separate returns, the credit may be taken by either or equally divided between them.

(f) Unless otherwise provided, in the case of a partnership, any credit allowed by this part shall be computed at the partnership level, and any limitation on the expenses qualifying for the credit or limitation upon the amount of the credit shall be applied to the partnership and to each partner.

SEC. 3. Section 17053.33 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17053.33. (a) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1998, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039) for the taxable year an amount equal to the sales or use tax paid or incurred during the taxable year by the qualified taxpayer in connection with the qualified taxpayer's purchase of qualified property.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified property" means property that meets all of the following requirements:

(A) Is any of the following:

(iii) Machinery and machinery parts used for either of the following:

(II) Water pollution control mechanisms.

(iv) Data processing and communications equipment, such as computers, computer-automated drafting systems, copy machines, telephone systems, and faxes.

(v) Motion picture manufacturing equipment central to production and post production, such as cameras, audio recorders, and digital image and sound processing equipment.

(B) The total cost of qualified property purchased and placed in service in any taxable year that may be taken into account by any qualified taxpayer for purposes of claiming this credit shall not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000).

(C) The qualified property is used by the qualified taxpayer exclusively in a targeted tax area.

(D) The qualified property is purchased and placed in service before the date the targeted tax area designation expires, is revoked, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(2) (A) "Qualified taxpayer" means a person or entity that meets both of the following:

(i) Is engaged in a trade or business within a targeted tax area designated pursuant to Chapter 12.93 (commencing with Section 7097) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(ii) Is engaged in those lines of business described in Codes 2000 to 2099, inclusive; 2200 to 3999, inclusive; 4200 to 4299, inclusive; 4500 to 4599, inclusive; and 4700 to 5199, inclusive, of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition.

(B) In the case of any pass-through entity, the determination of whether a taxpayer is a qualified taxpayer under this section shall be made at the entity level and any credit under this section or Section 23633 shall be allowed to the pass-through entity and passed through to the partners or shareholders in accordance with applicable provisions of this part or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001). For purposes of this subparagraph, the term "pass-through entity" means any partnership or S corporation.

(3) "Targeted tax area" means the area designated pursuant to Chapter 12.93 (commencing with Section 7097) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(c) If the qualified taxpayer is allowed a credit for qualified property pursuant to this section, only one credit shall be allowed to the taxpayer under this part with respect to that qualified property.

(d) If the qualified taxpayer has purchased property upon which a use tax has been paid or incurred, the credit provided by this section shall be allowed only if qualified property of a comparable quality and price is not timely available for purchase in this state.

(e) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds the "net tax" for the taxable year, that portion of the credit that exceeds the "net tax" may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest taxable years possible.

(f) Any qualified taxpayer who elects to be subject to this section shall not be entitled to increase the basis of the qualified property as otherwise required by Section 164(a) of the Internal Revenue Code with respect to sales or use tax paid or incurred in connection with the qualified taxpayer's purchase of qualified property.

(g) (1) The amount of the credit otherwise allowed under this section and Section 17053.34, including any credit carryover from prior years, that may reduce the "net tax" for the taxable year shall not exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the qualified taxpayer's business income attributable to the targeted tax area determined as if that attributable income represented all of the income of the qualified taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributable income described in paragraph (1) shall be determined in accordance with Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101) of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(A) Business income shall be apportioned to the targeted tax area by multiplying the total business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) "The targeted tax area" shall be substituted for "this state."

(3) The portion of any credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding taxable years, as if it were an amount exceeding the "net tax" for the taxable year, as provided in subdivision (e).

(4) In the event that a credit carryover is allowable under subdivision (e) for any taxable year after the targeted tax area designation has expired, has been revoked, is no longer binding, or has become inoperative, the targeted tax area shall be deemed to remain in existence for purposes of computing the limitation specified in this subdivision.

SEC. 4. Section 17053.34 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17053.34. (a) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1998, there shall be allowed a credit against the "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039) to a qualified taxpayer who employes a qualified employee in a targeted tax area during the taxable year. The credit shall be equal to the sum of each of the following:

(2) Forty percent of qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent of qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent of qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified wages" means:

(A) That portion of wages paid or incurred by the qualified taxpayer during the taxable year to qualified employees that does not exceed 150 percent of the minimum wage.

(B) Wages received during the 60-month period beginning with the day the employee commences employment with the qualified taxpayer.

(C) Qualified wages do not include any wages paid or incurred by the qualified taxpayer on or after the targeted tax area expiration date. However, wages paid or incurred with respect to qualified employees who are employed by the qualified taxpayer within the targeted tax area within the 60-month period prior to the targeted tax area expiration date shall continue to qualify for the credit under this section after the targeted tax area expiration date, in accordance with all provisions of this section applied as if the targeted tax area designation were still in existence and binding.

(2) "Minimum wage" means the wage established by the Industrial Welfare Commission as provided for in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1171) of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

(3) "Targeted tax area expiration date" means the date the targeted tax area designation expires, is revoked, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(4) (A) "Qualified employee" means an individual who meets all of the following requirements:

(i) At least 90 percent of his or her services for the qualified taxpayer during the taxable year are directly related to the conduct of the qualified taxpayer's trade or business located in a targeted tax area.

(ii) Performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the qualified taxpayer during the taxable year in a targeted tax area.

(iii) Is hired by the qualified taxpayer after the date of original designation of the area in which services were performed as a targeted tax area.

(iv) Is any of the following:

(I) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the qualified taxpayer, was a person eligible for services under the federal Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 1501 et seq.), or its successor, who is receiving, or is eligible to receive, subsidized employment, training, or services funded by the federal Job Training Partnership Act, or its successor.

(II) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the qualified taxpayer, was a person eligible to be a voluntary or mandatory registrant under the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 (GAIN) provided for pursuant to Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or its successor.

(III) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the qualified taxpayer, was an economically disadvantaged individual 14 years of age or older.

(IV) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the qualified taxpayer, was a dislocated worker who meets any of the following:

(aa) Has been terminated or laid off or who has received a notice of termination or layoff from employment, is eligible for or has exhausted entitlement to unemployment insurance benefits, and is unlikely to return to his or her previous industry or occupation.

(bb) Has been terminated or has received a notice of termination of employment as a result of any permanent closure or any substantial layoff at a plant, facility, or enterprise, including an individual who has not received written notification but whose employer has made a public announcement of the closure or layoff.

(cc) Is long-term unemployed and has limited opportunities for employment or reemployment in the same or a similar occupation in the area in which the individual resides, including an individual 55 years of age or older who may have substantial barriers to employment by reason of age.

(dd) Was self-employed (including farmers and ranchers) and is unemployed as a result of general economic conditions in the community in which he or she resides or because of natural disasters.

(ee) Was a civilian employee of the Department of Defense employed at a military installation being closed or realigned under the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Act of 1990.

(ff) Was an active member of the armed forces or National Guard as of September 30, 1990, and was either involuntarily separated or separated pursuant to a special benefits program.

(gg) Is a seasonal or migrant worker who experiences chronic seasonal unemployment and underemployment in the agriculture industry, aggravated by continual advancements in technology and mechanization.

(hh) Has been terminated or laid off, or has received a notice of termination or layoff, as a consequence of compliance with the Clean Air Act.

(V) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the qualified taxpayer, was a disabled individual who is eligible for or enrolled in, or has completed a state rehabilitation plan or is a service-connected disabled veteran, veteran of the Vietnam era, or veteran who is recently separated from military service.

(VI) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the qualified taxpayer, was an ex-offender. An individual shall be treated as convicted if he or she was placed on probation by a state court without a finding of guilty.

(VII) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the qualified taxpayer, was a person eligible for or a recipient of any of the following:

(bb) Aid to Families with Dependent Children.

(cc) Food stamps.

(dd) State and local general assistance.

(VIII) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the qualified taxpayer, was a member of a federally recognized Indian tribe, band, or other group of Native American descent.

(IX) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the qualified taxpayer, was a resident of a targeted tax area.

(B) Priority for employment shall be provided to an individual who is enrolled in a qualified program under the federal Job Training Partnership Act or the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 or who is eligible under the federal Targeted Jobs Tax Credit Program.

(5) (A) "Qualified taxpayer" means a person or entity that meets both of the following:

(i) Is engaged in a trade or business within a targeted tax area designated pursuant to Chapter 12.93 (commencing with Section 7097) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(ii) Is engaged in those lines of business described in Codes 2000 to 2099, inclusive; 2200 to 3999, inclusive; 4200 to 4299, inclusive; 4500 to 4599, inclusive; and 4700 to 5199, inclusive, of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition.

(B) In the case of any pass-through entity, the determination of whether a taxpayer is a qualified taxpayer under this section shall be made at the entity level and any credit under this section or Section 23634 shall be allowed to the pass-through entity and passed through to the partners or shareholders in accordance with applicable provisions of this part or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001). For purposes of this subdivision, the term "pass-through entity" means any partnership or S corporation.

(c) If the qualified taxpayer is allowed a credit for qualified wages pursuant to this section, only one credit shall be allowed to the taxpayer under this part with respect to those qualified wages.

(d) The qualified taxpayer shall do both of the following:

(1) Obtain from either the Employment Development Department, as permitted by federal law, or the local county or city Job Training Partnership Act administrative entity or the local county GAIN office or social services agency, as appropriate, a certification that provides that a qualified employee meets the eligibility requirements specified in clause (iv) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (b). The Employment Development Department may provide preliminary screening and referral to a certifying agency. The Employment Development Department shall develop a form for this purpose.

(e) (1) For purposes of this section:

(A) All employees of trades or businesses, which are not incorporated, that are under common control shall be treated as employed by a single taxpayer.

(B) The credit, if any, allowable by this section with respect to each trade or business shall be determined by reference to its proportionate share of the expense of the qualified wages giving rise to the credit, and shall be allocated in that manner.

(C) Principles that apply in the case of controlled groups of corporations, as specified in subdivision (d) of Section 23634, shall apply with respect to determining employment.

(2) If an employer acquires the major portion of a trade or business of another employer (hereinafter in this paragraph referred to as the "predecessor") or the major portion of a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor, then, for purposes of applying this section (other than subdivision (f)) for any calendar year ending after that acquisition, the employment relationship between a qualified employee and an employer shall not be treated as terminated if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business.

(f) (1) If the employment of any qualified employee, with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (a) is terminated by the qualified taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment (whether or not consecutive) or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that employee completes 90 days of employment with the qualified taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the taxable year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that taxable year and all prior taxable years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that employee.

(2) (A) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any of the following:

(i) A termination of employment of a qualified employee who voluntarily leaves the employment of the qualified taxpayer.

(ii) A termination of employment of a qualified employee who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled and unable to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the qualified taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that employee.

(iii) A termination of employment of a qualified employee, if it is determined under the applicable employment compensation provisions that the termination was due to the misconduct of that employee.

(iv) A termination of employment of a qualified employee due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the qualified taxpayer.

(v) A termination of employment of a qualified employee, if that employee is replaced by other qualified employees so as to create a net increase in both the number of employees and the hours of employment.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the qualified taxpayer and a qualified employee shall not be treated as terminated by reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the qualified taxpayer, if the qualified employee continues to be employed in that trade or business and the qualified taxpayer retains a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(g) In the case of an estate or trust, both of the following apply:

(1) The qualified wages for any taxable year shall be apportioned between the estate or trust and the beneficiaries on the basis of the income of the estate or trust allocable to each.

(2) Any beneficiary to whom any qualified wages have been apportioned under paragraph (1) shall be treated, for purposes of this part, as the employer with respect to those wages.

(h) For purposes of this section, "targeted tax area" means an area designated pursuant to Chapter 12.93 (commencing with Section 7097) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(i) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds the "net tax" for the taxable year, that portion of the credit that exceeds the "net tax" may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in succeeding taxable years, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest taxable years possible.

(j) (1) The amount of the credit otherwise allowed under this section and Section 17053.33, including any credit carryover from prior years, that may reduce the "net tax" for the taxable year shall not exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the qualified taxpayer's business income attributable to the targeted tax area determined as if that attributable income represented all of the income of the qualified taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributable income described in paragraph (1) shall be determined in accordance with Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101) of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(A) Business income shall be apportioned to the targeted tax area by multiplying the total business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) "The targeted tax area" shall be substituted for "this state."

(3) The portion of any credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding taxable years, as if it were an amount exceeding the "net tax" for the taxable year, as provided in subdivision (h).

(4) In the event that a credit carryover is allowable under subdivision (h) for any taxable year after the targeted tax area expiration date, the targeted tax area shall be deemed to remain in existence for purposes of computing the limitation specified in this subdivision.

SEC. 5. Section 17267.6 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17267.6. (a) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1998, a qualified taxpayer may elect to treat 40 percent of the cost of any Section 17267.6 property as an expense that is not chargeable to a capital account. Any cost so treated shall be allowed as a deduction for the taxable year in which the qualified taxpayer places the Section 17267.6 property in service.

(b) In the case of a husband and wife filing separate returns for a taxable year, the applicable amount under subdivision (a) shall be equal to 50 percent of the percentage specified in subdivision (a).

(c) (1) An election under this section for any taxable year shall do both of the following:

(A) Specify the items of Section 17267.6 property to which the election applies and the percentage of the cost of each of those items that are to be taken into account under subdivision (a).

(B) Be made on the qualified taxpayer's original return of the tax imposed by this part for the taxable year.

(2) Any election made under this section, and any specification contained in that election, may not be revoked except with the consent of the Franchise Tax Board.

(d) (1) For purposes of this section, "Section 17267.6 property" means any recovery property that is:

(B) Purchased and placed in service by the qualified taxpayer for exclusive use in a trade or business conducted within a targeted tax area designated pursuant to Chapter 12.93 (commencing with Section 7097) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(C) Purchased and placed in service before the date the targeted tax area designation expires, is revoked, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), "purchase" means any acquisition of property, but only if both of the following apply:

(A) The property is not acquired from a person whose relationship to the person acquiring it would result in the disallowance of losses under Section 267 or Section 707(b) of the Internal Revenue Code. However, in applying Sections 267(b) and 267(c) for purposes of this section, Section 267(c)(4) shall be treated as providing that the family of an individual shall include only the individual's spouse, ancestors, and lineal descendants.

(B) The basis of the property in the hands of the person acquiring it is not determined in whole or in part by reference to the adjusted basis of that property in the hands of the person from whom it is acquired.

(3) For purposes of this section, the cost of property does not include that portion of the basis of the property that is determined by reference to the basis of other property held at any time by the person acquiring the property.

(4) This section shall not apply to estates and trusts.

(5) This section shall not apply to any property for which the qualified taxpayer may not make an election for the taxable year under Section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code because of the application of the provisions of Section 179(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(6) In the case of a partnership, the percentage limitation specified in subdivision (a) shall apply at the partnership level and at the partner level.

(e) (1) For purposes of this section, "qualified taxpayer" means a person or entity that meets both of the following:

(A) Is engaged in a trade or business within a targeted tax area designated pursuant to Chapter 12.93 (commencing with Section 7097) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(B) Is engaged in those lines of business described in Codes 2000 to 2099, inclusive; 2200 to 3999, inclusive; 4200 to 4299, inclusive; 4500 to 4599, inclusive, and 4700 to 5199, inclusive, of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United State Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition.

(2) In the case of any pass-through entity, the determination of whether a taxpayer is a qualified taxpayer under this section shall be made at the entity level and any deduction under this section or Section 24356.6 shall be allowed to the pass-through entity and passed through to the partners or shareholders in accordance with applicable provisions of this part of Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001). For purposes of this subparagraph, the term "pass-through entity" means any partnership or S corporation.

(f) Any qualified taxpayer who elects to be subject to this section shall not be entitled to claim for the same property, the deduction under Section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to an election to expense certain depreciable business assets. However, the qualified taxpayer may claim depreciation by any method permitted by Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code, commencing with the taxable year following the taxable year in which the Section 17267.6 property is placed in service.

(g) The aggregate cost of all Section 17267.6 property that may be taken into account under subdivision (a) for any taxable year shall not exceed the following applicable amount for the taxable year of the designation of the relevant targeted tax area and taxable years thereafter:

	The applicable amount is:
Taxable year of designation	$100,000
1st taxable year thereafter	100,000
2nd taxable year thereafter	75,000
3rd taxable year thereafter	75,000
Each taxable year thereafter	50,000

(h) Any amounts deducted under subdivision (a) with respect to Section 17267.6 property that ceases to be used in the qualified taxpayer's trade or business within a targeted tax area at any time before the close of the second taxable year after the property is placed in service shall be included in income in the taxable year in which the property ceases to be so used.

SEC. 6. Section 17276.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17276.2. The term "qualified taxpayer" as used in Section 17276.1 means any of the following:

(a) A person or entity engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within an enterprise zone designated pursuant to chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(1) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback to any taxable year and a net operating loss for any taxable year beginning on or after the date that the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated as an enterprise zone shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the 15 taxable years following the taxable year of loss.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision:

of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code) prior to the enterprise zone expiration date. That attributable loss shall be determined in accordance with Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101) of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section by substituting "enterprise zone" for "this state."

(B) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to the taxpayer's business income attributable to the enterprise zone (as defined in Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code) determined in accordance with Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101) of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section by substituting "enterprise zone" for "this state."

(C) "Enterprise zone expiration date" means the date the enterprise zone designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(b) A person or entity engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designated pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code.

(1) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback for any taxable year, and a net operating loss for any taxable year beginning on or after the date the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone shall be a net operating loss carryover to each following taxable year that ends before the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone expiration date or to each of the 15 taxable years following the taxable year of loss, if longer.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "Net operating loss" means the loss determined under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 17276.1, attributable to the taxpayer's business activities within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone (as defined in Section 7102 of the Government Code) prior to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone expiration date. The attributable loss shall be determined in accordance with Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101) of Part 11, modified as follows:

(i) Loss shall be apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by multiplying total loss from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(ii) "The Los Angeles Revitalization Zone" shall be substituted for "this state."

(B) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to the taxpayer's business income attributable to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone (as defined in Section 7102 of the Government Code) determined in accordance with paragraph (3).

(3) Attributable income shall be that portion of the taxpayer's California source business income which is apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone. For that purpose, the taxpayer's business income attributable to sources in this state first shall be determined in accordance with Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101) of Part 11. That business income shall be further apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone in accordance with Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11, modified as follows:

(A) Business income shall be apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by multiplying total California business income of the taxpayer by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the taxable year and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state during the taxable year.

(C) The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid by the taxpayer in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the taxable year for compensation, and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid by the taxpayer in this state during the taxable year.

(4) "Los Angeles Revitalization Zone expiration date" means the date the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designation expires, is repealed, or becomes inoperative pursuant to Section 7102, 7103, or 7104 of the Government Code.

(5) This subdivision shall be inoperative on the first day of the taxable year beginning on or after the determination date, and each taxable year thereafter, with respect to the taxpayer's business activities within a geographic area that is excluded from the map pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code, or an excluded area determined pursuant to Section 7104 of the Government Code. The determination date is the earlier of the first effective date of a determination under subdivision (c) of Section 7102 of the Government Code occurring after December 1, 1994, or the first effective date of an exclusion of an area from the amended Los Angeles Revitalization Zone under Section 7104 of the Government Code. However, if the taxpayer has any unused loss amount as of the date this section becomes inoperative, that unused loss amount may continue to be carried forward as provided in this subdivision.

(6) This subdivision shall cease to be operative on January 1, 1998. However, any unused net operating loss may continue to be carried over to following years as provided in this subdivision.

(c) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1995, and before January 1, 2003, a taxpayer engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within a LAMBRA.

(1) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback for any taxable year, and a net operating loss for any taxable year beginning on or after the date the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated a LAMBRA shall be a net operating loss carryover to each following taxable year that ends before the LAMBRA expiration date or to each of the 15 taxable years following the taxable year of loss, if longer.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "LAMBRA" means a local agency military base recovery area designated in accordance with Section 7114 of the Government Code.

(B) "Taxpayer" means a person or entity that conducts a trade or business within a LAMBRA and, for the first two taxable years, has a net increase in jobs (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) of one or more employees in the LAMBRA and this state.

(i) The net increase in the number of jobs shall be determined by subtracting the total number of full-time employees (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) the taxpayer employed in this state in the taxable year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA from the total number of full-time employees the taxpayer employed in this state during the second taxable year after commencing business operations in the LAMBRA. For taxpayers who commence doing business in this state with their LAMBRA business operation, the number of employees for the taxable year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA shall be zero. The deduction shall be allowed only if the taxpayer has a net increase in jobs in the state, and if one or more full-time employees is employed within the LAMBRA.

(ii) The total number of employees employed in the LAMBRA shall equal the sum of both of the following:

(I) The total number of hours worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees (not to exceed 2,000 hours per employee) who are paid an hourly wage divided by 2,000.

(II) The total number of months worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees who are salaried employees divided by 12.

(iii) In the case of a taxpayer who first commences doing business in the LAMBRA during the taxable year, for purposes of subclauses (I) and (II), respectively, of clause (ii) the divisors "2,000" and "12" shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months of the taxable year that the taxpayer was doing business in the LAMBRA and the denominator of which is 12.

(C) "Net operating loss" means the loss determined under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 17276.1, attributable to the taxpayer's business activities within a LAMBRA prior to the LAMBRA expiration date. The attributable loss shall be determined in accordance with Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101) of Part 11, modified as follows:

(i) Loss shall be apportioned to a LAMBRA by multiplying total loss from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(ii) "The LAMBRA" shall be substituted for "this state."

(D) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to the taxpayer's business income attributable to a LAMBRA determined in accordance with Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101) of Part 11, modified as follows:

(i) Business income shall be apportioned to a LAMBRA by multiplying total business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(ii) "The LAMBRA" shall be substituted for "this state."

(iii) If a loss carryover is allowable pursuant to this section for any taxable year after the LAMBRA designation has expired, the LAMBRA shall be deemed to remain in existence for purposes of computing this limitation.

(E) "LAMBRA expiration date" means the date the LAMBRA designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative pursuant to Section 7110 of the Government Code.

(d) (1) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1998, a person or entity that meets both of the following:

(A) Is engaged in a trade or business within a targeted tax area designated pursuant to Chapter 12.93 (commencing with Section 7097) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(B) Is engaged in those lines of business described in Codes 2000 to 2099, inclusive; 2200 to 3999, inclusive; 4200 to 4299, inclusive; 4500 to 4599, inclusive; and 4700 to 5199, inclusive, of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition. In the case of any pass-through entity, the determination of whether a taxpayer is a qualified taxpayer under this section shall be made at the entity level.

(2) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback to any taxable year and a net operating loss for any taxable year beginning on or after the date that the area in which the qualified taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated as a targeted tax area shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the 15 taxable years following the taxable year of loss.

(3) For purposes of this subdivision:

(i) Loss shall be apportioned to the targeted tax area by multiplying total loss from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(ii) "The targeted tax area" shall be substituted for "this state."

(B) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to the qualified taxpayer's business income attributable to the targeted tax area (as defined in Chapter 12.93 (commencing with Section 7097) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code) determined in accordance with Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101) of Part 11, modified for purposes of this subdivision as follows:

(i) Business income shall be apportioned to the targeted tax area by multiplying the total business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(ii) "The targeted tax area" shall be substituted for "this state."

(C) If a loss carryover is allowable pursuant to this subdivision for any taxable year after the targeted tax area expiration date, the targeted tax area designation shall be deemed to remain in existence for purposes of computing the limitation specified in this subparagraph.

(D) "Targeted tax area expiration date" means the date the targeted tax area designation expires, is revoked, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(e) A taxpayer who qualifies as a "qualified taxpayer" shall, for the taxable year of the net operating loss and any taxable year to which that net operating loss may be carried, designate on the original return filed for each year the subdivision of this section which applies to that taxpayer with respect to that net operating loss. If the taxpayer is eligible to qualify under more than one subdivision of this section, the designation is to be made after taking into account subdivision (f).

(f) If a taxpayer is eligible to qualify under more than one subdivision of this section as a "qualified taxpayer," with respect to a net operating loss in a taxable year, the taxpayer shall designate which subdivision of this section is to apply to the taxpayer.

(g) Notwithstanding Section 17276, the amount of the loss determined under this section shall be the only net operating loss allowed to be carried over from that taxable year and the designation under subdivision (d) shall be included in the election under Section 17276.1.

SEC. 7. Section 23036 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23036. (a) (1) The term "tax" includes any of the following:

(C) The tax on unrelated business taxable income, imposed under Section 23731.

(2) The term "tax" does not include any amount imposed under paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 24667 or paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 24667.

(b) For purposes of Article 5 (commencing with Section 18661) of Chapter 2, Article 3 (commencing with Section 19031) of Chapter 4, Article 6 (commencing with Section 19101) of Chapter 4, and Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 19501) of Part 10.2, and for purposes of Sections 18601, 19001, and 19005, the term "tax" shall also include all of the following:

(1) The tax on limited partnerships, imposed under Section 17935 or Section 23081, the tax on limited liability companies, imposed under Section 17941 or Section 23091, and the tax on registered limited liability partnerships and foreign limited liability partnerships imposed under Section 17948 or Section 23097.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, credits shall be allowed against the "tax" in the following order:

(2) Credits that, when the credit exceeds the "tax," allow the excess to be carried over to offset the "tax" in succeeding taxable years. The order of credits within this paragraph shall be determined by the Franchise Tax Board.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, each of the following shall be applicable:

(1) No credit shall reduce the "tax" below the tentative minimum tax (as defined by paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 23455), except the following credits, but only after allowance of the credit allowed by Section 23453:

(C) The credit allowed by Section 23601.5 (relating to solar energy).

(G) The credit allowed by former Section 23612 (relating to sales and use tax credit).

(I) The credit allowed by Section 23612.6 (relating to Los Angeles Revitalization Zone sales tax credit).

(J) The credit allowed by former Section 23622 (relating to enterprise zone hiring credit).

(M) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1994, the credit allowed by Section 23623.5 (relating to Los Angeles Revitalization Zone hiring credit).

(Q) The credit allowed by Section 23649 (relating to qualified property).

(2) No credit against the tax shall reduce the minimum franchise tax imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101).

(e) Any credit which is partially or totally denied under subdivision (d) shall be allowed to be carried over to reduce the "tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, if the provisions relating to that credit include a provision to allow a carryover of the unused portion of that credit.

(f) Unless otherwise provided, any remaining carryover from a credit that has been repealed or made inoperative shall continue to be allowed to be carried over under the provisions of that section as it read immediately prior to being repealed or becoming inoperative.

(g) Unless otherwise provided, if two or more taxpayers share in costs that would be eligible for a tax credit allowed under this part, each taxpayer shall be eligible to receive the tax credit in proportion to its respective share of the costs paid or incurred.

(h) Unless otherwise provided, in the case of an S corporation, any credit allowed by this part shall be computed at the S corporation level, and any limitation on the expenses qualifying for the credit or limitation upon the amount of the credit shall be applied to the S corporation and to each shareholder.

SEC. 8. Section 23633 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

23633. (a) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1998, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 23036) for the income year an amount equal to the sales or use tax paid or incurred during the income year by the qualified taxpayer in connection with the qualified taxpayer's purchase of qualified property.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified property" means property that meets all of the following requirements:

(A) Is any of the following:

(iii) Machinery and machinery parts used for either of the following:

(II) Water pollution control mechanisms.

(iv) Data processing and communications equipment, such as computers, computer-automated drafting systems, copy machines, telephone systems, and faxes.

(v) Motion picture manufacturing equipment central to production and post production, such as cameras, audio recorders, and digital image and sound processing equipment.

(B) The total cost of qualified property purchased and placed in service in any income year that may be taken into account by any qualified taxpayer for purposes of claiming this credit shall not exceed twenty million dollars ($20,000,000).

(C) The qualified property is used by the qualified taxpayer exclusively in a targeted tax area.

(D) The qualified property is purchased and placed in service before the date the targeted tax area designation expires, is revoked, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(2) (A) "Qualified taxpayer" means a corporation that meets both of the following:

(i) Is engaged in a trade or business within a targeted tax area designated pursuant to Chapter 12.93 (commencing with Section 7097) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(ii) Is engaged in those lines of business described in Codes 2000 to 2099, inclusive; 2200 to 3999, inclusive; 4200 to 4299, inclusive; 4500 to 4599, inclusive; and 4700 to 5199, inclusive, of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition.

(B) In the case of any pass-through entity, the determination of whether a taxpayer is a qualified taxpayer under this section shall be made at the entity level and any credit under this section or Section 17053.33 shall be allowed to the pass-through entity and passed through to the partners or shareholders in accordance with applicable provisions of this part or Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001). For purposes of this subparagraph, the term "pass-through entity" means any partnership or S corporation.

(3) "Targeted tax area" means the area designated pursuant to Chapter 12.93 (commencing with Section 7097) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(c) If the qualified taxpayer is allowed a credit for qualified property pursuant to this section, only one credit shall be allowed to the taxpayer under this part with respect to that qualified property.

(d) If the qualified taxpayer has purchased property upon which a use tax has been paid or incurred, the credit provided by this section shall be allowed only if qualified property of a comparable quality and price is not timely available for purchase in this state.

(e) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds the "tax" for the income year, that portion of the credit that exceeds the "tax" may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest income years possible.

(f) Any qualified taxpayer who elects to be subject to this section shall not be entitled to increase the basis of the qualified property as otherwise required by Section 164(a) of the Internal Revenue Code with respect to sales or use tax paid or incurred in connection with the qualified taxpayer's purchase of qualified property.

(g) (1) The amount of credit otherwise allowed under this section and Section 23634, including any credit carryover from prior years, that may reduce the "tax" for the income year shall not exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the qualified taxpayer's business income attributable to the targeted tax area determined as if that attributable income represented all of the income of the qualified taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributable income described in paragraph (1) shall be determined in accordance with Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified for purposes of this section, as follows:

(A) Business income shall be apportioned to the targeted tax area by multiplying the total business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) "The targeted tax area" shall be substituted for "this state."

(3) The portion of any credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding income years, as if it were an amount exceeding the "tax" for the income year, as provided in subdivision (e).

(4) In the event that a credit carryover is allowable under subdivision (e) for any income year after the targeted tax area designation has expired, has been revoked, is no longer binding, or has become inoperative, the targeted tax area shall be deemed to remain in existence for purposes of computing the limitation specified in this subdivision.

SEC. 9. Section 23634 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

23634. (a) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1998, there shall be allowed a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 23036) to a qualified taxpayer who employs a qualified employee in a targeted tax area during the income year. The credit shall be equal to the sum of each of the following:

(2) Forty percent of qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent of qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent of qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified wages" means:

(A) That portion of wages paid or incurred by the qualified taxpayer during the income year to qualified employees that does not exceed 150 percent of the minimum wage.

(B) Wages received during the 60-month period beginning with the day the employee commences employment with the qualified taxpayer.

(C) Qualified wages do not include any wages paid or incurred by the qualified taxpayer on or after the targeted tax area expiration date. However, wages paid or incurred with respect to qualified employees who are employed by the qualified taxpayer within the targeted tax area within the 60-month period prior to the targeted tax area expiration date shall continue to qualify for the credit under this section after the targeted tax area expiration date, in accordance with all provisions of this section applied as if the targeted tax area designation were still in existence and binding.

(2) "Minimum wage" means the wage established by the Industrial Welfare Commission as provided for in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1171) of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

(3) "Targeted tax area expiration date" means the date the targeted tax area designation expires, is revoked, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(4) (A) "Qualified employee" means an individual who meets all of the following requirements:

(i) At least 90 percent of his or her services for the qualified taxpayer during the income year are directly related to the conduct of the qualified taxpayer's trade or business located in a targeted tax area.

(ii) Performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the qualified taxpayer during the income year in a targeted tax area.

(iii) Is hired by the qualified taxpayer after the date of original designation of the area in which services were performed as a targeted tax area.

(iv) Is any of the following:

(I) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the qualified taxpayer, was a person eligible for services under the federal Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 1501 et seq.), or its successor, who is receiving, or is eligible to receive, subsidized employment, training, or services funded by the federal Job Training Partnership Act, or its successor.

(II) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the qualified taxpayer, was a person eligible to be a voluntary or mandatory registrant under the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 (GAIN) provided for pursuant to Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or its successor.

(III) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the qualified taxpayer, was an economically disadvantaged individual 14 years of age or older.

(IV) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the qualified taxpayer, was a dislocated worker who meets any of the following:

(aa) Has been terminated or laid off or who has received a notice of termination or layoff from employment, is eligible for or has exhausted entitlement to unemployment insurance benefits, and is unlikely to return to his or her previous industry or occupation.

(bb) Has been terminated or has received a notice of termination of employment as a result of any permanent closure or any substantial layoff at a plant, facility, or enterprise, including an individual who has not received written notification but whose employer has made a public announcement of the closure or layoff.

(cc) Is long-term unemployed and has limited opportunities for employment or reemployment in the same or a similar occupation in the area in which the individual resides, including an individual 55 years of age or older who may have substantial barriers to employment by reason of age.

(dd) Was self-employed (including farmers and ranchers) and is unemployed as a result of general economic conditions in the community in which he or she resides or because of natural disasters.

(ee) Was a civilian employee of the Department of Defense employed at a military installation being closed or realigned under the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Act of 1990.

(ff) Was an active member of the armed forces or National Guard as of September 30, 1990, and was either involuntarily separated or separated pursuant to a special benefits program.

(gg) Is a seasonal or migrant worker who experiences chronic seasonal unemployment and underemployment in the agriculture industry, aggravated by continual advancements in technology and mechanization.

(hh) Has been terminated or laid off, or has received a notice of termination or layoff, as a consequence of compliance with the Clean Air Act.

(V) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the qualified taxpayer, was a disabled individual who is eligible for or enrolled in, or has completed a state rehabilitation plan or is a service-connected disabled veteran, veteran of the Vietnam era, or veteran who is recently separated from military service.

(VI) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the qualified taxpayer, was an ex-offender. An individual shall be treated as convicted if he or she was placed on probation by a state court without a finding of guilty.

(VII) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the qualified taxpayer, was a person eligible for or a recipient of any of the following:

(bb) Aid to Families with Dependent Children.

(cc) Food stamps.

(dd) State and local general assistance.

(VIII) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the qualified taxpayer, was a member of a federally recognized Indian tribe, band, or other group of Native American descent.

(IX) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the qualified taxpayer, was a resident of a targeted tax area.

(B) Priority for employment shall be provided to an individual who is enrolled in a qualified program under the federal Job Training Partnership Act or the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 or who is eligible under the federal Targeted Jobs Tax Credit Program.

(5) (A) "Qualified taxpayer" means a person or entity that meets both of the following:

(i) Is engaged in a trade or business within a targeted tax area designated pursuant to Chapter 12.93 (commencing with Section 7097) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(ii) Is engaged in those lines of business described in Codes 2000 to 2099, inclusive; 2200 to 3999, inclusive; 4200 to 4299, inclusive; 4500 to 4599, inclusive; and 4700 to 5199, inclusive, of the Standard

Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition.

(B) In the case of any pass-through entity, the determination of whether a taxpayer is a qualified taxpayer under this section shall be made at the entity level and any credit under this section or Section 17053.34 shall be allowed to the pass-through entity and passed through to the partners or shareholders in accordance with applicable provisions of this part or Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001). For purposes of this subparagraph, the term "pass-through entity" means any partnership or S corporation.

(c) If the qualified taxpayer is allowed a credit for qualified wages pursuant to this section, only one credit shall be allowed to the taxpayer under this part with respect to those qualified wages.

(d) The qualified taxpayer shall do both of the following:

(1) Obtain from either the Employment Development Department, as permitted by federal law, or the local county or city Job Training Partnership Act administrative entity or the local county GAIN office or social services agency, as appropriate, a certification that provides that a qualified employee meets the eligibility requirements specified in clause (iv) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (b). The Employment Development Department may provide preliminary screening and referral to a certifying agency. The Employment Development Department shall develop a form for this purpose.

(e) (1) For purposes of this section:

(A) All employees of all corporations that are members of the same controlled group of corporations shall be treated as employed by a single taxpayer.

(B) The credit, if any, allowable by this section to each member shall be determined by reference to its proportionate share of the expense of the qualified wages giving rise to the credit, and shall be allocated in that manner.

(C) For purposes of this subdivision, "controlled group of corporations" means "controlled group of corporations" as defined in Section 1563(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that:

(i) "More than 50 percent" shall be substituted for "at least 80 percent" each place it appears in Section 1563(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) The determination shall be made without regard to subsections (a)(4) and (e)(3)(C) of Section 1563 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) If an employer acquires the major portion of a trade or business of another employer (hereinafter in this paragraph referred to as the "predecessor") or the major portion of a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor, then, for purposes of applying this section (other than subdivision (f)) for any calendar year ending after that acquisition, the employment relationship between a qualified employee and an employer shall not be treated as terminated if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business.

(f) (1) If the employment of any qualified employee with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (a) is terminated by the qualified taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment (whether or not consecutive) or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that employee completes 90 days of employment with the qualified taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the income year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that income year and all prior income years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that employee.

(2) (A) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any of the following:

(i) A termination of employment of a qualified employee who voluntarily leaves the employment of the qualified taxpayer.

(ii) A termination of employment of a qualified employee who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled and unable to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the qualified taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that employee.

(iii) A termination of employment of a qualified employee, if it is determined under the applicable unemployment compensation provisions that the termination was due to the misconduct of that employee.

(iv) A termination of employment of a qualified employee due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the taxpayer.

(v) A termination of employment of a qualified employee, if that employee is replaced by other qualified employees so as to create a net increase in both the number of employees and the hours of employment.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the qualified taxpayer and a qualified employee shall not be treated as terminated by either of the following:

(i) By a transaction to which Section 381(a) of the Internal Revenue Code applies, if the qualified employee continues to be employed by the acquiring corporation.

(ii) By reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the qualified taxpayer, if the qualified employee continues to be employed in that trade or business and the qualified taxpayer retains a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(g) Rules similar to the rules provided in Sections 46(e) and (h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply to both of the following:

(2) A regulated investment company or a real estate investment trust subject to taxation under this part.

(h) For purposes of this section, "targeted tax area" means an area designated pursuant to Chapter 12.93 (commencing with Section 7097) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(i) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds the "tax" for the income year, that portion of the credit that exceeds the "tax" may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in succeeding income years, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest income years possible.

(j) (1) The amount of the credit otherwise allowed under this section and Section 23633, including any credit carryover from prior years, that may reduce the "tax" for the income year shall not exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the qualified taxpayer's business income attributable to the targeted tax area determined as if that attributable income represented all of the income of the qualified taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributable income described in paragraph (1) shall be determined in accordance with Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(A) Business income shall be apportioned to the targeted tax area by multiplying the total business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) "The targeted tax area" shall be substituted for "this state."

(3) The portion of any credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding income years, as if it were an amount exceeding the "tax" for the income year, as provided in subdivision (h).

(4) In the event that a credit carryover is allowable under subdivision (h) for any income year after the targeted tax area designation has expired or been revoked, the targeted tax area shall be deemed to remain in existence for purposes of computing the limitation specified in this subdivision.

SEC. 10. Section 24356.6 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

24356.6. (a) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1998, a qualified taxpayer may elect to treat 40 percent of the cost of any Section 24356.6 property as an expense that is not chargeable to a capital account. Any cost so treated shall be allowed as a deduction for the income year in which the qualified taxpayer places the Section 24356.6 property in service.

(b) (1) An election under this section for any income year shall do both of the following:

(A) Specify the items of Section 24356.6 property to which the election applies and the percentage of the cost of each of those items that are to be taken into account under subdivision (a).

(B) Be made on the qualified taxpayer's original return of the tax imposed by this part for the income year.

(2) Any election made under this section, and any specification contained in that election, may not be revoked except with the consent of the Franchise Tax Board.

(c) (1) For purposes of this section, "Section 24356.6 property" means any recovery property that is:

(B) Purchased and placed in service by the qualified taxpayer for exclusive use in a trade or business conducted within a targeted tax area designated pursuant to Chapter 12.93 (commencing with Section 7097) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(C) Purchased and placed in service before the date the targeted tax area designation expires, is revoked, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), "purchase" means any acquisition of property, but only if all of the following apply:

(A) The property is not acquired from a person whose relationship to the person acquiring it would result in the disallowance of losses under Section 267 or 707(b) of the Internal Revenue Code. However, in applying Sections 267(b) and 267(c) for purposes of this section, Section 267(c)(4) shall be treated as providing that the family of an individual shall include only the individual's spouse, ancestors, and lineal descendants.

(B) The property is not acquired by one member of an affiliated group from another member of the same affiliated group.

(C) The basis of the property in the hands of the person acquiring it is not determined in whole or in part by reference to the adjusted basis of that property in the hands of the person from who it is acquired.

(3) For purposes of this section, the cost of property does not include that portion of the basis of that property that is determined by reference to the basis of other property held at any time by the person acquiring that property.

(4) This section shall not apply to any property for which the qualified taxpayer may not make an election under Section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code because of the application of the provisions of Section 179(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(5) For purposes of subdivision (b), both of the following apply:

(B) The qualified taxpayer shall apportion the dollar limitation contained in subdivision (f) among the members of the affiliated group in whatever manner the board shall prescribe.

(6) For purposes of paragraphs (2) and (5), "affiliated group" means "affiliated group" as defined in Section 1504 of the Internal Revenue Code, except that, for these purposes, the phrase "more than 50 percent" shall be substituted for the phrase "at least 80 percent" each place it appears in Section 1504(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(d) (1) For purposes of this section, "qualified taxpayer" means a corporation that meets both of the following:

(A) Is engaged in conducting a trade or business within a targeted tax area designated pursuant to Chapter 12.93 (commencing with Section 7097) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(B) Is engaged in those lines of business described in Codes 2000 to 2099, inclusive; 2200 to 3999, inclusive; 4200 to 4299, inclusive; 4500 to 4599, inclusive, and 4700 to 5199, inclusive, of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition.

(2) In the case of any pass-through entity, the determination of whether a taxpayer is a qualified taxpayer under this section shall be made at the entity level and any deduction under this section or Section 17267.6 shall be allowed to the pass-through entity and passed through to the partners or shareholders in accordance with applicable provisions of this part or Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001). For purposes of this subparagraph, the term "pass-through entity" means any partnership or S corporation.

(e) Any qualified taxpayer who elects to be subject to this section shall not be entitled to claim additional depreciation pursuant to Section 24356 with respect to any property that constitutes Section 24356.6 property. However, the qualified taxpayer may claim depreciation by any method permitted by Section 24349 commencing with the income year following the income year in which Section 24356.6 property is placed in service.

(f) The aggregate cost of all Section 24356.6 property that may be taken into account under subdivision (a) for any income year shall not exceed the following applicable amount for the income year of the designation of the relevant targeted tax area and income years thereafter:

	The applicable amount is:
Income year of designation	$100,000
1st income year thereafter	100,000
2nd income year thereafter	75,000
3rd income year thereafter	75,000
Each income year thereafter	50,000

(g) Any amounts deducted under subdivision (a) with respect to Section 24356.6 property that ceases to be used in the qualified taxpayer's trade or business within a targeted tax area at any time before the close of the second income year after the property is placed in service shall be included in income in the income year in which the property ceases to be so used.

SEC. 11. Section 24416.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24416.2. The term "qualified taxpayer" as used in Section 24416.1 means any of the following:

(a) A bank or corporation engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within an enterprise zone designated pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(1) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback for any income year and a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after the date that the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated as an enterprise zone shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the 15 income years following the income year of loss.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision:

(B) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to the taxpayer's business income attributable to the enterprise zone (as defined in Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code) determined in accordance with Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified for purposes of this section by substituting "enterprise zone" for "this state."

(C) "Enterprise zone expiration date" means the date the enterprise zone designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(b) A bank or corporation engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designated pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code.

(1) (A) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback for any income year and, except as provided in subparagraph (B), a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after the date the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated the Los Angeles

Revitalization Zone shall be a net operating loss carryover to each following income year that ends before the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone expiration date or to each of the 15 income years following the income year of loss, if longer.

(B) In the case of a financial institution to which Section 585, 586, or 593 of the Internal Revenue Code applies, a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after January 1, 1984, shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the five years following the income year of the loss. Subdivision (b) of Section 24416.1 shall not apply.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "Net operating loss" means the loss determined under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 24416.1, attributable to the taxpayer's business activities within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone (as defined in Section 7102 of the Government Code) prior to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone expiration date. The attributable loss shall be determined in accordance with Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified as follows:

(i) The loss shall be apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by multiplying the loss from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to the taxpayer's business income attributable to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone (as defined in Section 7102 of the Government Code) determined in accordance with paragraph (3).

(3) Attributable income shall be that portion of the taxpayer's California source business income which is apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone. For that purpose, the taxpayer's business income attributable to sources in this state first shall be determined in accordance with Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101). That business income shall be further apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone in accordance with Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17, modified as follows:

(A) Business income shall be apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by multiplying total California business income of the taxpayer by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the income year and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state during the income year.

(C) The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid by the taxpayer in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the income year for compensation, and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid by the taxpayer in this state during the income year.

(4) "Los Angeles Revitalization Zone expiration date" means the date the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designation expires, is repealed, or becomes inoperative pursuant to Section 7102, 7103, or 7104 of the Government Code.

(5) This subdivision shall be inoperative on the first day of the income year beginning on or after the determination date, and each income year thereafter, with respect to the taxpayer's business activities within a geographic area that is excluded from the map pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code, or an excluded area determined pursuant to Section 7104 of the Government Code. The determination date is the earlier of the first effective date of a determination under subdivision (c) of Section 7102 of the Government Code occurring after December 1, 1994, or the first effective date of an exclusion of an area from the amended Los Angeles Revitalization Zone under Section 7104 of the Government Code. However, if the taxpayer has any unused loss amount as of the date this section becomes inoperative, that unused loss amount may continue to be carried forward as provided in this subdivision.

(6) This subdivision shall cease to be operative on January 1, 1998. However, any unused net operating loss may continue to be carried over to following years as provided in this subdivision.

(c) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1995, and before January 1, 2003, a taxpayer engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within a LAMBRA.

(1) (A) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback for any income year and, except as provided in subparagraph (B), a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after the date the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated a LAMBRA shall be a net operating loss carryover to each following income year that ends before the LAMBRA expiration date or to each of the 15 income years following the income year of loss, if longer.

(B) In the case of a financial institution to which Section 585, 586, or 593 of the Internal Revenue Code applies, a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after January 1, 1984, shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the five years following the income year of the loss. Subdivision (b) of Section 24416.1 shall not apply.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "LAMBRA" means a local agency military base recovery area designated in accordance with Section 7114 of the Government Code.

(B) "Taxpayer" means a bank or corporation that conducts a trade or business within a LAMBRA and, for the first two income years, has a net increase in jobs (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) of one or more employees in the LAMBRA and this state.

(i) The net increase in the number of jobs shall be determined by subtracting the total number of full-time employees (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) the taxpayer employed in this state in the income year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA from the total number of full-time employees the taxpayer employed in this state during the second income year after commencing business operations in the LAMBRA. For taxpayers who commence doing business in this state with their LAMBRA business operation, the number of employees for the income year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA shall be zero. The deduction shall be allowed only if the taxpayer has a net increase in jobs in the state, and if one or more full-time employees is employed within the LAMBRA.

(ii) The total number of employees employed in the LAMBRA shall equal the sum of both of the following:

(I) The total number of hours worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees (not to exceed 2,000 hours per employee) who are paid an hourly wage divided by 2,000.

(II) The total number of months worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees who are salaried employees divided by 12.

(iii) In the case of a taxpayer that first commences doing business in the LAMBRA during the income year, for purposes of subclauses (I) and (II), respectively, of clause (ii) the divisors "2,000" and "12" shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months of the income year that the taxpayer was doing business in the LAMBRA and the denominator of which is 12.

(C) "Net operating loss" means the loss determined under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 24416.1, attributable to the taxpayer's business activities within a LAMBRA prior to the LAMBRA expiration date. The attributable loss shall be determined in accordance with Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified as follows:

(i) Loss shall be apportioned to a LAMBRA by multiplying the loss from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(ii) "The LAMBRA" shall be substituted for "this state."

(D) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to the taxpayer's business income attributable to a LAMBRA determined in accordance with Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified as follows:

(i) Business income shall be apportioned to a LAMBRA by multiplying total business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(ii) "The LAMBRA" shall be substituted for "this state."

(iii) If a loss carryover is allowable pursuant to this section for any income year after the LAMBRA designation has expired, the LAMBRA shall be deemed to remain in existence for purposes of computing this limitation.

(E) "LAMBRA expiration date" means the date the LAMBRA designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative pursuant to Section 7110 of the Government Code.

(d) (1) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1998, a corporation that meets both of the following:

(A) Is engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within a targeted tax area designated pursuant to Chapter 12.93 (commencing with Section 7097) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(B) Is engaged in those lines of business described in Codes 2000 to 2099, inclusive; 2200 to 3999, inclusive; 4200 to 4299, inclusive; 4500 to 4599, inclusive; and 4700 to 5199, inclusive, of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition. In the case of any pass-through entity, the determination of whether a taxpayer is a qualified taxpayer shall be made at the entity level.

(2) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback for any income year and a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after the date that the area in which the qualified taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated as a targeted tax area shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the 15 income years following the income year of loss.

(3) For purposes of this subdivision:

(i) Loss shall be apportioned to the targeted tax area by multiplying total loss from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(ii) "The targeted tax area" shall be substituted for "this state."

(B) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to the qualified taxpayer's business income attributable to the targeted tax area (as defined in Chapter 12.93 (commencing with Section 7097) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code)

determined in accordance with Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified for purposes of this subdivision as follows:

(i) Business income shall be apportioned to the targeted tax area by multiplying the total business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(ii) "The targeted tax area" shall be substituted for "this state."

(C) If a loss carryover is allowable pursuant to this subdivision for any income year after the targeted tax area expiration date, the targeted tax area designation shall be deemed to remain in existence for purposes of computing the limitation specified in this subparagraph.

(D) "Targeted tax area expiration date" means the date the targeted tax area designation expires, is revoked, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(e) A taxpayer who qualifies as a "qualified taxpayer" shall, for the income year of the net operating loss and any income year to which that net operating loss may be carried, designate on the original return filed for each year the subdivision of this section which applies to that taxpayer with respect to that net operating loss. If the taxpayer is eligible to qualify under more than one subdivision of this section, the designation is to be made after taking into account subdivision (f).

(f) If a taxpayer is eligible to qualify under more than one subdivision of this section as a "qualified taxpayer," with respect to a net operating loss in an income year, the taxpayer shall designate which subdivision of this section is to apply to the taxpayer.

(g) Notwithstanding Section 24416, the amount of the loss determined under this section shall be the only net operating loss allowed to be carried over from that income year and the designation under subdivision (d) shall be included in the election under Section 24416.1.

An act to add Section 7089 to the Government Code, and to amend Sections 17053.17, 17053.74, 17256, 17260, 23036, 23622.7, 23623.5, 24345, 24349.1, 24356.5, 24422, and 24916 of, to repeal Sections 17053.70, 17053.73, 17053.8, 17235, 17267, 23612.2, 23622, 23622.5, 24356.7, and 24384.5 of, and to repeal and amend Section 17053.75 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to economic development, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7089 is added to the Government Code, to read:

7089. For purposes of the Revenue and Taxation Code, each of the following shall apply:

(a) Enterprise zones designated pursuant to former Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070), as that chapter read prior to January 1, 1997, shall be deemed to remain in existence for taxable or income years beginning on or after January 1, 1996, and before January 1, 1997.

(b) Program areas designated pursuant to former Chapter 12.9 (commencing with Section 7080), as that chapter read prior to January 1, 1997, shall be deemed to remain in existence for taxable or income years beginning on or after January 1, 1996, and before January 1, 1997.

(c) For taxable or income years beginning on or after January 1, 1996, and before January 1, 1997, a taxpayer conducting business activities located in an enterprise zone designated pursuant to this chapter shall be treated as conducting business activities in an enterprise zone designated pursuant to former Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070), as that chapter read prior to January 1, 1997, or a program area designated pursuant to former Chapter 12.9 (commencing with Section 7080), as that chapter read prior to January 1, 1997.

(d) For taxable or income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, the carryover of any unused credits or deductions attributable to a taxpayer's business activities in an enterprise zone designated pursuant to former Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070), as that chapter read prior to January 1, 1997, or a program area designated pursuant to former Chapter 12.9 (commencing with Section 7080), as that chapter read prior to January 1, 1997, from taxable or income years beginning prior to January 1, 1997, shall be allowed, but shall be treated as if earned by a taxpayer or entity engaged in a trade or business within an enterprise zone designated pursuant to this chapter. The amount of carryovers of unused enterprise zone or program area credits shall not be recomputed under the enterprise zone tax provisions that become effective for taxable or income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 2. Section 17053.17 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17053.17. (a) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, and before January 1, 1998, the taxpayer shall be allowed for hiring qualified disadvantaged individuals on or after May 1, 1992, a credit against the "net tax," as defined in Section 17039, for the taxable year equal to the sum of each of the following:

(2) Forty percent of qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent of qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent of qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified wages" means all of the following:

(A) That portion of wages paid or incurred by the taxpayer during the taxable year to qualified disadvantaged individuals that does not exceed 150 percent of the minimum wage.

(B) Wages received during the 60-month period beginning with the day the individual commences employment with the taxpayer.

(C) Qualified wages do not include any wages paid or incurred by the taxpayer on or after the zone expiration date.

(D) If, after a taxpayer hires a qualified disadvantaged individual, the geographic area in which the taxpayer's trade or business is located is excluded from the map of the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by the Trade and Commerce Agency pursuant to Section 7102 or 7104 of the Government Code, wages paid or incurred with respect to the disadvantaged individual may continue to be qualified wages and may qualify for the credit under this section, provided all provisions of this section are satisfied, applied as if the taxpayer's trade or business was still located within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone.

(2) "Minimum wage" means the wage established by the Industrial Welfare Commission as provided for in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1171) of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

(3) "Qualified disadvantaged individual" means an individual who is a qualified employee and a resident of the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone.

(4) "Los Angeles Revitalization Zone" means the area designated under Section 7102 of the Government Code.

(5) "Qualified employee" means an individual that meets both of the following:

(A) At least 90 percent of whose services for the taxpayer during the taxable year are directly related to the conduct of the taxpayer's trade or business located in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone.

(B) Who performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the taxpayer during the taxable year in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone.

(7) "Taxpayer" means a person or entity engaged in a trade or business within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone.

(8) "Zone expiration date" means the date the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designation expires, is repealed, or becomes inoperative pursuant to Section 7102, 7103, or 7104 of the Government Code.

(9) (A) All employees of trades or businesses, that are not incorporated, that are under common control shall be treated as employed by a single taxpayer.

(B) The credit, if any, allowable by this section with respect to each trade or business shall be determined by reference to its proportionate share of the expense of the qualified wages giving rise to the credit and allocated in that manner.

Principles similar to the principles that apply in the case of controlled groups of corporations as specified in paragraph (9) of subdivision (b) of Section 23623.5 shall apply with respect to determining common control of employees.

(10) If an employer acquires the major portion of a trade or business of another employer (hereafter in this paragraph referred to as the "predecessor") or the major portion of a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor, then, for the purposes of applying this section (other than subdivision (c)) for any calendar year ending after that acquisition, the employment relationship between a disadvantaged individual and an employer shall not be treated as terminated if the individual continues to be employed in that trade or business.

(c) (1) If the employment of any disadvantaged individual, with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (a), is terminated by the taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment, whether or not consecutive, or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that individual completes 90 days of employment with the taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the taxable year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that taxable year and all prior taxable years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that individual.

(2) (A) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any of the following:

(i) A termination of employment of a disadvantaged individual who voluntarily leaves the employment of the taxpayer.

(ii) A termination of employment of a disadvantaged individual who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled and unable to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that individual.

(iii) A termination of employment of a disadvantaged individual, if it is determined under the applicable employment compensation provisions that the termination was due to the misconduct of that individual.

(iv) A termination of employment of a disadvantaged individual due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the taxpayer.

(v) A termination of employment of a disadvantaged individual, if that individual is replaced by other qualified employees so as to create a net increase in both the number of employees and the hours of employment.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the taxpayer and a disadvantaged individual shall not be treated as terminated by reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the taxpayer, if the individual continues to be employed in that trade or business and the taxpayer retains a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(d) In the case of an estate or trust, both of the following apply:

(1) The qualified wages for any taxable year shall be apportioned between the estate or trust and the beneficiaries on the basis of the income of the estate or trust allocable to each.

(2) Any beneficiary to whom any qualified wages have been apportioned under paragraph (1) shall be treated, for purposes of this part, as the employer with respect to those wages.

(e) The credit shall be reduced by the credits allowed under Sections 17053.7, 17053.10, and 17053.74, claimed for the same disadvantaged individual. The credit shall also be reduced by the federal credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for the wages or salaries paid or incurred by the taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit, prior to any reduction required by subdivision (f) or (g).

(f) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds the net tax for the taxable year, that portion of the credit that exceeds the net tax may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in succeeding taxable years while the designation of the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone under Section 7102 of the Government Code is operative, or 15 taxable years, if longer, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest taxable years possible.

(g) (1) The amount of the credit otherwise allowed under this section and Sections 17052.15 and 17053.10, including any credit carryover from prior years, that may reduce the net tax for the taxable year shall not exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the taxpayer's business income attributable to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone determined as if that attributable income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributable income described in paragraph (1) shall be that portion of the taxpayer's California source business income which is apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone. For that purpose, the taxpayer's business income attributable to sources in this state first shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101) of Part 11. That business income shall be further apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11, modified as follows:

(A) Business income shall be apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by multiplying total California business income of the taxpayer by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the taxable year and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state during the taxable year.

(C) The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid by the taxpayer in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the taxable year for compensation, and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid by the taxpayer in this state during the taxable year.

(3) The portion of the credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding taxable years, as if it were an amount exceeding the net tax for the taxable year, as provided in subdivision (f).

(h) Except as provided in subparagraph (D) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), this section shall cease to be operative as of the first day of the taxable year beginning on or after the determination date, and each taxable year thereafter, with respect to the taxpayer's business activities within a geographic area that is excluded from the map pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code, or an excluded area determined pursuant to Section 7104 of the Government Code. For purposes of this subdivision, "determination date" means the earlier of the first effective date of a determination under subdivision (c) of Section 7102 of the Government Code occurring after December 1, 1994, or the first effective date of an exclusion of an area from the amended Los Angeles Revitalization Zone under Section 7104 of the Government Code. However, if the taxpayer has any unused credit amount as of the date this section becomes inoperative, that unused credit amount may continue to be carried forward as provided in subdivision (f).

(i) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1998, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as specified in subdivision (f).

SEC. 3. Section 17053.70 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Section 9 of Chapter 953 of the Statutes of 1996, is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 17053.73 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 5. Section 17053.74 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17053.74. (a) There shall be allowed a credit against the "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039) to a taxpayer who employs a qualified employee in an enterprise zone during the taxable year. The credit shall be equal to the sum of each of the following:

(2) Forty percent of qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent of qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent of qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified wages" means:

(A) (i) Except as provided in clause (ii), that portion of wages paid or incurred by the taxpayer during the taxable year to qualified employees that does not exceed 150 percent of the minimum wage.

(ii) For up to 1,350 qualified employees who are employed by the taxpayer in the Long Beach Enterprise Zone in aircraft manufacturing activities described in Codes 3721 to 3728, inclusive, and Code 3812 of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition, "qualified wages" means that portion of hourly wages that does not exceed 202 percent of the minimum wage.

(B) Wages received during the 60-month period beginning with the day the employee commences employment with the taxpayer.

(C) Qualified wages do not include any wages paid or incurred by the taxpayer on or after the zone expiration date. However, wages paid or incurred with respect to qualified employees who are employed by the taxpayer within the enterprise zone within the 60-month period prior to the zone expiration date shall continue to qualify for the credit under this section after the zone expiration date, in accordance with all provisions of this section applied as if the enterprise zone designation were still in existence and binding.

(2) "Minimum wage" means the wage established by the Industrial Welfare Commission as provided for in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1171) of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

(3) "Zone expiration date" means the date the enterprise zone designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(4) (A) "Qualified employee" means an individual who meets all of the following requirements:

(i) At least 90 percent of whose services for the taxpayer during the taxable year are directly related to the conduct of the taxpayer's trade or business located in an enterprise zone.

(ii) Performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the taxpayer during the taxable year in an enterprise zone.

(iii) Is hired by the taxpayer after the date of original designation of the area in which services were performed as an enterprise zone.

(iv) Is any of the following:

(I) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a person eligible for services under the federal Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 1501 et seq.), or its successor, who is receiving, or is eligible to receive, subsidized employment, training, or services funded by the federal Job Training Partnership Act, or its successor.

(II) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a person eligible to be a voluntary or mandatory registrant under the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 (GAIN) provided for pursuant to Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or its successor.

(III) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was an economically disadvantaged individual 14 years of age or older.

(IV) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a dislocated worker who meets any of the following:

Has been terminated or laid off or who has received a notice of termination or layoff from employment, is eligible for or has exhausted entitlement to unemployment insurance benefits, and is unlikely to return to his or her previous industry or occupation.

Has been terminated or has received a notice of termination of employment as a result of any permanent closure or any substantial layoff at a plant, facility, or enterprise, including an individual who has not received written notification but whose employer has made a public announcement of the closure or layoff.

Is long-term unemployed and has limited opportunities for employment or reemployment in the same or a similar occupation in the area in which the individual resides, including an individual 55 years of age or older who may have substantial barriers to employment by reason of age.

Was self-employed (including farmers and ranchers) and is unemployed as a result of general economic conditions in the community in which he or she resides or because of natural disasters.

Was a civilian employee of the Department of Defense employed at a military installation being closed or realigned under the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Act of 1990.

Was an active member of the armed forces or National Guard as of September 30, 1990, and was either involuntarily separated or separated pursuant to a special benefits program.

Is a seasonal or migrant worker who experiences chronic seasonal unemployment and underemployment in the agriculture industry, aggravated by continual advancements in technology and mechanization.

Has been terminated or laid off, or has received a notice of termination or layoff, as a consequence of compliance with the Clean Air Act.

(V) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a disabled individual who is eligible for or enrolled in, or has completed a state rehabilitation plan or is a service-connected disabled veteran, veteran of the Vietnam era, or veteran who is recently separated from military service.

(VI) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was an ex-offender. An individual shall be treated as convicted if he or she was placed on probation by a state court without a finding of guilt.

(VII) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a person eligible for or a recipient of any of the following:

Federal Supplemental Security Income benefits.

Aid to Families with Dependent Children.

Food stamps.

State and local general assistance.

(VIII) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a member of a federally recognized Indian tribe, band, or other group of Native American descent.

(IX) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a resident of a targeted employment area, as defined in Section 7072 of the Government Code.

(X) An employee who qualified the taxpayer for the enterprise zone hiring credit under former Section 17053.8 or the program area hiring credit under former Section 17053.11.

(XI) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a member of a targeted group, as defined in Section 51(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, or its successor.

(B) Priority for employment shall be provided to an individual who is enrolled in a qualified program under the federal Job Training Partnership Act or the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 or who is eligible as a member of a targeted group under the Work Opportunity Tax Credit (Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code), or its successor.

(5) "Taxpayer" means a person or entity engaged in a trade or business within an enterprise zone designated pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of the Government Code.

(c) The taxpayer shall do both of the following:

(1) Obtain from either the Employment Development Department, as permitted by federal law, or the local county or city Job Training Partnership Act administrative entity or the local county GAIN office or social services agency, as appropriate, a certification which provides that a qualified employee meets the eligibility requirements specified in clause (iv) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (b). The Employment Development Department may provide preliminary screening and referral to a certifying agency. The Employment Development Department shall develop a form for this purpose.

(d) (1) For purposes of this section:

(A) All employees of trades or businesses, which are not incorporated, that are under common control shall be treated as employed by a single taxpayer.

(B) The credit, if any, allowable by this section with respect to each trade or business shall be determined by reference to its proportionate share of the expense of the qualified wages giving rise to the credit, and shall be allocated in such manner.

(C) Principles that apply in the case of controlled groups of corporations, as specified in subdivision (d) of Section 23622.7, shall apply with respect to determining employment.

(2) If an employer acquires the major portion of a trade or business of another employer (hereinafter in this paragraph referred to as the "predecessor") or the major portion of a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor, then, for purposes of applying this section (other than subdivision (e)) for any calendar year ending after that acquisition, the employment relationship between a qualified employee and an employer shall not be treated as terminated if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business.

(e) (1) If the employment of any qualified employee, with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (a) is terminated by the taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment (whether or not consecutive) or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that employee completes 90 days of employment with the taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the taxable year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that taxable year and all prior taxable years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that employee.

(2) (A) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any of the following:

(i) A termination of employment of a qualified employee who voluntarily leaves the employment of the taxpayer.

(ii) A termination of employment of a qualified employee who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled and unable to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that employee.

(iii) A termination of employment of a qualified employee, if it is determined under the applicable employment compensation provisions that the termination was due to the misconduct of that employee.

(iv) A termination of employment of a qualified employee due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the taxpayer.

(v) A termination of employment of a qualified employee, if that employee is replaced by other qualified employees so as to create a net increase in both the number of employees and the hours of employment.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the taxpayer and a qualified employee shall not be treated as terminated by reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the taxpayer, if the qualified employee continues to be employed in that trade or business and the taxpayer retains a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(f) In the case of an estate or trust, both of the following apply:

(1) The qualified wages for any taxable year shall be apportioned between the estate or trust and the beneficiaries on the basis of the income of the estate or trust allocable to each.

(2) Any beneficiary to whom any qualified wages have been apportioned under paragraph (1) shall be treated, for purposes of this part, as the employer with respect to those wages.

(g) For purposes of this section, "enterprise zone" means an area designated pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(h) The credit allowable under this section shall be reduced by the credit allowed under Sections 17053.10, 17053.17 and 17053.46 claimed for the same employee. The credit shall also be reduced by the federal credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for the wages or salaries paid or incurred by the taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit, prior to any reduction required by subdivision (i) or (j).

(i) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds the "net tax" for the taxable year, that portion of the credit that exceeds the "net tax" may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in succeeding taxable years, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest taxable years possible.

(j) (1) The amount of the credit otherwise allowed under this section and Section 17053.70, including any credit carryover from prior years, that may reduce the "net tax" for the taxable year shall not exceed the amount of tax which would be imposed on the taxpayer's business income attributable to the enterprise zone determined as if that attributable income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributable income described in paragraph (1) shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101) of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section by substituting "the enterprise zone" for "this state."

(3) The portion of any credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding taxable years, as if it were an amount exceeding the "net tax" for the taxable year, as provided in subdivision (i).

(k) The changes made to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 6. Section 17053.75 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Section 11 of Chapter 953 of the Statutes of 1996, is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 17053.75 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Section 11 of Chapter 955 of the Statutes of 1996, is amended to read:

17053.75. (a) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined by Section 17039) for the taxable year an amount equal to five percent of the qualified wages received by the taxpayer during the taxable year.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified employee" means a taxpayer who meets both of the following:

(A) Is described in clauses (i) and (ii) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of Section 17053.74.

(B) Is not an employee of the federal government or of this state or of any political subdivision of this state.

(2) (A) "Qualified wages" means "wages," as defined in subsection (b) of Section 3306 of the Internal Revenue Code, attributable to services performed for an employer with respect to whom the taxpayer is a qualified employee in an amount that does not exceed one and one-half times the dollar limitation specified in that subsection.

(B) "Qualified wages" does not include any compensation received from the federal government or this state or any political subdivision of this state.

(C) "Qualified wages" does not include any wages received on or after the date the enterprise zone designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(3) "Enterprise zone" means any area designated pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(c) For each dollar of income received by the taxpayer in excess of qualified wages, as defined in this section, the credit shall be reduced by nine cents ($0.09).

(d) The amount of the credit allowed by this section in any taxable year shall not exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the taxpayer's income attributable to employment within the enterprise zone as if that income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

SEC. 8. Section 17053.8 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 17235 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Section 13 of Chapter 953 of the Statutes of 1996, is repealed.

SEC. 10. Section 17256 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17256. Section 179A of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to deduction for clean-fuel vehicles and certain refueling property, shall apply to property placed in service after June 30, 1993, without regard to taxable year, and is modified as follows:

(a) Section 179A(e)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to property used outside the United States, is modified to also refer to Section 17266 or 17267.2.

(b) Section 179A(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to termination, is modified to substitute "December 31, 1994" for "December 31, 2004."

SEC. 11. Section 17260 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17260. (a) No deduction, other than depreciation, shall be allowed for expenditures for tertiary injectants as provided by Section 193 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Section 263(a) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply to expenditures for which a deduction is allowed under Section 17266 or 17267.2.

SEC. 12. Section 17267 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Section 16 of Chapter 953 of the Statutes of 1996, is repealed.

SEC. 13. Section 23036 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23036. (a) (1) The term "tax" includes any of the following:

(C) The tax on unrelated business taxable income, imposed under Section 23731.

(2) The term "tax" does not include any amount imposed under paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 24667 or paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 24667.

(b) For purposes of Article 5 (commencing with Section 18661) of Chapter 2, Article 3 (commencing with Section 19031) of Chapter 4, Article 6 (commencing with Section 19101) of Chapter 4, and Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 19501) of Part 10.2, and for purposes of Sections 18601, 19001, and 19005, the term "tax" shall also include all of the following:

(1) The tax on limited partnerships, imposed under Section 17935 or Section 23081, the tax on limited liability companies, imposed under Section 17941 or Section 23091, and the tax on registered limited liability partnerships and foreign limited liability partnerships imposed under Section 17948 or Section 23097.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, credits shall be allowed against the "tax" in the following order:

(2) Credits that, when the credit exceeds the "tax," allow the excess to be carried over to offset the "tax" in succeeding taxable years. The order of credits within this paragraph shall be determined by the Franchise Tax Board.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, each of the following shall be applicable:

(1) No credit shall reduce the "tax" below the tentative minimum tax (as defined by paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 23455), except the following credits, but only after allowance of the credit allowed by Section 23453:

(C) The credit allowed by Section 23601.5 (relating to solar energy).

(G) The credit allowed by former Section 23612 (relating to sales and use tax credit).

(I) The credit allowed by Section 23612.6 (relating to Los Angeles Revitalization Zone sales tax credit).

(J) The credit allowed by former Section 23622 (relating to enterprise zone hiring credit).

(M) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1994, the credit allowed by Section 23623.5 (relating to Los Angeles Revitalization Zone hiring credit).

(2) No credit against the tax shall reduce the minimum franchise tax imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101).

(e) Any credit which is partially or totally denied under subdivision (d) shall be allowed to be carried over to reduce the "tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, if the provisions relating to that credit include a provision to allow a carryover of the unused portion of that credit.

(f) Unless otherwise provided, any remaining carryover from a credit that has been repealed or made inoperative shall continue to be allowed to be carried over under the provisions of that section as it read immediately prior to being repealed or becoming inoperative.

(g) Unless otherwise provided, if two or more taxpayers share in costs that would be eligible for a tax credit allowed under this part, each taxpayer shall be eligible to receive the tax credit in proportion to its respective share of the costs paid or incurred.

(h) Unless otherwise provided, in the case of an S corporation, any credit allowed by this part shall be computed at the S corporation level, and any limitation on the expenses qualifying for the credit or limitation upon the amount of the credit shall be applied to the S corporation and to each shareholder.

SEC. 14. Section 23612.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Section 20 of Chapter 953 of the Statutes of 1996, is repealed.

SEC. 15. Section 23622 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 16. Section 23622.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 17. Section 23622.7 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23622.7. (a) There shall be allowed a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 23036) to a taxpayer who employs a qualified employee in an enterprise zone during the income year. The credit shall be equal to the sum of each of the following:

(2) Forty percent of qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent of qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent of qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified wages" means:

(A) (i) Except as provided in clause (ii), that portion of wages paid or incurred by the taxpayer during the income year to qualified employees that does not exceed 150 percent of the minimum wage.

(ii) For up to 1,350 qualified employees who are employed by the taxpayer in the Long Beach Enterprise Zone in aircraft manufacturing activities described in Codes 3721 to 3728, inclusive, and Code 3812 of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition, "qualified wages" means that portion of hourly wages that does not exceed 202 percent of the minimum wage.

(B) Wages received during the 60-month period beginning with the day the employee commences employment with the taxpayer.

(C) Qualified wages do not include any wages paid or incurred by the taxpayer on or after the zone expiration date. However, wages paid or incurred with respect to qualified employees who are employed by the taxpayer within the enterprise zone within the 60-month period prior to the zone expiration date shall continue to qualify for the credit under this section after the zone expiration date, in accordance with all provisions of this section applied as if the enterprise zone designation were still in existence and binding.

(2) "Minimum wage" means the wage established by the Industrial Welfare Commission as provided for in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1171) of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

(3) "Zone expiration date" means the date the enterprise zone designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(4) (A) "Qualified employee" means an individual who meets all of the following requirements:

(i) At least 90 percent of whose services for the taxpayer during the income year are directly related to the conduct of the taxpayer's trade or business located in an enterprise zone.

(ii) Performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the taxpayer during the income year in an enterprise zone.

(iii) Is hired by the taxpayer after the date of original designation of the area in which services were performed as an enterprise zone.

(iv) Is any of the following:

(I) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a person eligible for services under the federal Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 1501 et seq.), or its successor, who is receiving, or is eligible to receive, subsidized employment, training, or services funded by the federal Job Training Partnership Act, or its successor.

(II) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a person eligible to be a voluntary or mandatory registrant under the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 (GAIN) provided for pursuant to Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or its successor.

(III) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was an economically disadvantaged individual 14 years of age or older.

(IV) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a dislocated worker who meets any of the following:

Has been terminated or laid off or who has received a notice of termination or layoff from employment, is eligible for or has exhausted entitlement to unemployment insurance benefits, and is unlikely to return to his or her previous industry or occupation.

Has been terminated or has received a notice of termination of employment as a result of any permanent closure or any substantial layoff at a plant, facility, or enterprise, including an individual who has not received written notification but whose employer has made a public announcement of the closure or layoff.

Is long-term unemployed and has limited opportunities for employment or reemployment in the same or a similar occupation in the area in which the individual resides, including an individual 55 years of age or older who may have substantial barriers to employment by reason of age.

Was self-employed (including farmers and ranchers) and is unemployed as a result of general economic conditions in the community in which he or she resides or because of natural disasters.

Was a civilian employee of the Department of Defense employed at a military installation being closed or realigned under the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Act of 1990.

Was an active member of the armed forces or National Guard as of September 30, 1990, and was either involuntarily separated or separated pursuant to a special benefits program.

Is a seasonal or migrant worker who experiences chronic seasonal unemployment and underemployment in the agriculture industry, aggravated by continual advancements in technology and mechanization.

Has been terminated or laid off, or has received a notice of termination or layoff, as a consequence of compliance with the Clean Air Act.

(V) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a disabled individual who is eligible for or enrolled in, or has completed a state rehabilitation plan or is a service-connected disabled veteran, veteran of the Vietnam era, or veteran who is recently separated from military service.

(VI) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was an ex-offender. An individual shall be treated as convicted if he or she was placed on probation by a state court without a finding of guilt.

(VII) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a person eligible for or a recipient of any of the following:

Federal Supplemental Security Income benefits.

Aid to Families with Dependent Children.

Food stamps.

State and local general assistance.

(VIII) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a member of a federally recognized Indian tribe, band, or other group of Native American descent.

(IX) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a resident of a targeted employment area (as defined in Section 7072 of the Government Code).

(X) An employee who qualified the taxpayer for the enterprise zone hiring credit under former Section 23622 or the program area hiring credit under former Section 23623.

(XI) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a member of a targeted group, as defined in Section 51(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, or its successor.

(B) Priority for employment shall be provided to an individual who is enrolled in a qualified program under the federal Job Training Partnership Act or the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 or who is eligible as a member of a targeted group under the Work Opportunity Tax Credit (Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code), or its successor.

(5) "Taxpayer" means a bank or corporation engaged in a trade or business within an enterprise zone designated pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(c) The taxpayer shall do both of the following:

(1) Obtain from either the Employment Development Department, as permitted by federal law, or the local county or city Job Training Partnership Act administrative entity or the local county GAIN office or social services agency, as appropriate, a certification that provides that a qualified employee meets the eligibility requirements specified in clause (iv) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (b). The Employment Development Department may provide preliminary screening and referral to a certifying agency. The Employment Development Department shall develop a form for this purpose.

(d) (1) For purposes of this section:

(A) All employees of all corporations which are members of the same controlled group of corporations shall be treated as employed by a single taxpayer.

(B) The credit, if any, allowable by this section to each member shall be determined by reference to its proportionate share of the expense of the qualified wages giving rise to the credit, and shall be allocated in that manner.

(C) For purposes of this subdivision, "controlled group of corporations" means "controlled group of corporations" as defined in Section 1563(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that:

(i) "More than 50 percent" shall be substituted for "at least 80 percent" each place it appears in Section 1563(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) The determination shall be made without regard to subsections (a)(4) and (e)(3)(C) of Section 1563 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) If an employer acquires the major portion of a trade or business of another employer (hereinafter in this paragraph referred to as the "predecessor") or the major portion of a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor, then, for purposes of applying this section (other than subdivision (e)) for any calendar year ending after that acquisition, the employment relationship between a qualified employee and an employer shall not be treated as terminated if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business.

(e) (1) If the employment of any qualified employee with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision

(a) is terminated by the taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment, whether or not consecutive, or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that employee completes 90 days of employment with the taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the income year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that income year and all prior income years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that employee.

(2) (A) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any of the following:

(i) A termination of employment of a qualified employee who voluntarily leaves the employment of the taxpayer.

(ii) A termination of employment of a qualified employee who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled and unable to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that employee.

(iii) A termination of employment of a qualified employee, if it is determined under the applicable unemployment compensation provisions that the termination was due to the misconduct of that employee.

(iv) A termination of employment of a qualified employee due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the taxpayer.

(v) A termination of employment of a qualified employee, if that employee is replaced by other qualified employees so as to create a net increase in both the number of employees and the hours of employment.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the taxpayer and a qualified employee shall not be treated as terminated by either of the following:

(i) By a transaction to which Section 381(a) of the Internal Revenue Code applies, if the qualified employee continues to be employed by the acquiring corporation.

(ii) By reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the taxpayer, if the qualified employee continues to be employed in that trade or business and the taxpayer retains a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(f) Rules similar to the rules provided in Section 46(e) and (h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply to both of the following:

(1) An organization to which Section 593 of the Internal Revenue Code applies:

(2) A regulated investment company or a real estate investment trust subject to taxation under this part.

(g) For purposes of this section, "enterprise zone" means an area designated pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(h) The credit allowable under this section shall be reduced by the credit allowed under Sections 23623.5, 23625, and 23646 claimed for the same employee. The credit shall also be reduced by the federal credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for the wages or salaries paid or incurred by the taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit, prior to any reduction required by subdivision (i) or (j).

(i) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds the "tax" for the income year, that portion of the credit that exceeds the "tax" may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in succeeding income years, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest income years possible.

(j) (1) The amount of the credit otherwise allowed under this section and Section 23612.2, including any credit carryover from prior years, that may reduce the "tax" for the income year shall not exceed the amount of tax which would be imposed on the taxpayer's business income attributable to the enterprise zone determined as if that attributable income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributable income described in paragraph (1) shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified for purposes of this section by substituting "the enterprise zone" for "this state."

(3) The portion of any credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding income years, as if it were an amount exceeding the "tax" for the income year, as provided in subdivision (i).

(k) The changes made to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall apply to income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 18. Section 23623.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23623.5. (a) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, and before January 1, 1998, the taxpayer shall be allowed for hiring qualified disadvantaged individuals on or after May 1, 1992, a credit against the "tax," as defined in Section 23036, for the income year equal to the sum of each of the following:

(2) Forty percent of qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent of qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent of qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified wages" means:

(A) That portion of wages paid or incurred by the taxpayer during the income year to qualified disadvantaged individuals that does not exceed 150 percent of the minimum wage.

(B) Wages received during the 60-month period beginning with the day the disadvantaged individual commences employment with the taxpayer.

(C) Qualified wages does not include any wages paid or incurred by the taxpayer on or after the zone expiration date.

(D) If, after a taxpayer hires a qualified disadvantaged individual, the geographic area in which the taxpayer's trade or business is located is excluded from the map of the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by the Trade and Commerce Agency pursuant to Section 7102 or 7104 of the Government Code, wages paid or incurred with respect to the disadvantaged individual may continue to be qualified wages and may qualify for the credit under this section, provided all provisions of this section are satisfied, applied as if the taxpayer's trade or business was still located within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone.

(2) "Minimum wage" means the wage established by the Industrial Welfare Commission as provided for in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1171) of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

(3) "Qualified disadvantaged individual" means an individual who is a qualified employee and a resident of the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone.

(4) "Los Angeles Revitalization Zone" means the area designated under Section 7102 of the Government Code.

(5) "Qualified employee" means an individual that meets both of the following:

(A) At least 90 percent of whose services for the taxpayer during the income year are directly related to the conduct of the taxpayer's trade or business located in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone.

(B) Who performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the taxpayer during the income year in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone.

(7) "Taxpayer" means a bank or corporation engaged in a trade or business within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone.

(8) "Zone expiration date" means the date the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designation expires, is repealed, or becomes inoperative pursuant to Section 7102, 7103, or 7104 of the Government Code.

(9) (A) All employees of all corporations that are members of the same controlled group of corporations shall be treated as employed by a single taxpayer.

(B) The credit, if any, allowable by this section to each member shall be determined by reference to its proportionate share of the expense of the qualified wages giving rise to the credit and allocated in that manner.

(C) "Controlled group of corporations" means "controlled group of corporations" as defined in Section 1563(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that:

(i) "More than 50 percent" shall be substituted for "at least 80 percent" each place it appears in Section 1563(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) The determination shall be made without regard to Sections 1563(a)(4) and 1563(e)(3)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(10) If a taxpayer acquires the major portion of a trade or business of another employer (hereafter in this paragraph referred to as the "predecessor") or the major portion of a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor, then, for the purposes of applying this section (other than subdivision (c)) for any calendar year ending after that acquisition, the employment relationship between a disadvantaged individual and an employer shall not be treated as terminated if the individual continues to be employed in that trade or business.

(c) (1) If the employment of any disadvantaged individual, with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (a), is terminated by the taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment (whether or not consecutive) or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that individual completes 90 days of employment with the taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the income year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that income year and all prior income years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that individual.

(2) (A) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any of the following:

(i) A termination of employment of a disadvantaged individual who voluntarily leaves the employment of the taxpayer.

(ii) A termination of employment of a disadvantaged individual who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled and unable to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that individual.

(iii) A termination of employment of a disadvantaged individual, if it is determined under the applicable employment compensation provisions that the termination was due to the misconduct of that individual.

(iv) A termination of employment of a disadvantaged individual due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the taxpayer.

(v) A termination of employment of a disadvantaged individual, if that individual is replaced by other qualified employees so as to create a net increase in both the number of employees and the hours of employment.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the taxpayer and a disadvantaged individual shall not be treated as terminated by either of the following:

(i) By a transaction to which Section 381(a) of the Internal Revenue Code applies, if the individual continues to be employed by the acquiring corporation.

(ii) By reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the taxpayer, if the individual continues to be employed in that trade or business and the taxpayer retains a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(d) In the case of an organization to which Section 593 of the Internal Revenue Code applies, and a regulated investment company or a real estate investment trust subject to taxation under this part, rules similar to the rules provided in Sections 46(e) and 46(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply.

(e) The credit shall be reduced by the credits allowed under Sections 23621, 23622.7, 23623, and 23625, claimed for the same disadvantaged individual. The credit shall also be reduced by the federal credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for the wages or salaries paid or incurred by the taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit, prior to any reduction required by subdivision (f) or (g).

(f) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds tax for the income year, that portion of the credit that exceeds the tax may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in succeeding income years while the designation of the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone under Section 7102 of the Government Code is operative or 15 income years, if longer, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest income years possible.

(g) (1) The amount of credit otherwise allowed under this section and Sections 23612.6 and 23625, including any credit carryover from prior years, that may reduce the tax for the income year shall not exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the taxpayer's business income attributable to the Los Angeles

Revitalization Zone determined as if that attributable income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributable income described in paragraph (1) shall be that portion of the taxpayer's California source business income which is apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone. For that purpose, the taxpayer's business income attributable to sources in this state first shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101). That business income shall be further apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17, modified as follows:

(A) Business income shall be apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by multiplying total California business income of the taxpayer by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the income year and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state during the income year.

(C) The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid by the taxpayer in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the income year for compensation, and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid by the taxpayer in this state during the income year.

(3) The portion of the credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding income years, as if it were an amount exceeding the tax for the income year, as provided in subdivision (f).

(h) Except as provided in subparagraph (D) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), this section shall be inoperative on the first day of the income year beginning on or after the determination date, and each income year thereafter, with respect to the taxpayer's business activities within a geographic area that is excluded from the map pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code, or an excluded area determined pursuant to Section 7104 of the Government Code. The determination date is the earlier of the first effective date of a determination under subdivision (c) of Section 7102 of the Government Code occurring after December 1, 1994, or the first effective date of an exclusion of an area from the amended Los Angeles Revitalization Zone under Section 7104 of the Government Code. However, if the taxpayer has any unused credit amount as of the date this section becomes inoperative, that unused credit amount may continue to be carried forward as provided in subdivision (f).

(i) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1998, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as specified in subdivision (f).

SEC. 19. Section 24345 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24345. A deduction shall be allowed for taxes or licenses paid or accrued during the income year, except:

(a) Taxes paid to the state under this part.

(b) Taxes on or according to or measured by income or profits paid or accrued within the income year imposed by the authority of any of the following:

(1) The Government of the United States or any foreign country.

(2) Any state, territory, county, school district, municipality, or other taxing subdivision of any state or territory.

(c) Taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed, but this does not exclude the allowance as a deduction of so much of the taxes assessed against local benefits as is properly allocable to maintenance or interest charges. Nor does this exclude the allowance of any irrigation or other water district taxes or assessments which are levied for the payment of the principal of any improvement or other bonds for which a general assessment on all lands within the district is levied as distinguished from a special assessment levied on part of the area within the district.

(d) Federal stamp taxes (not described in subdivision (b) or (c)); but this subdivision shall not prevent such taxes from being deducted under Section 24343 (relating to trade or business expenses).

(e) State and local general sales or use taxes. However, there shall be allowed as a deduction, state and local sales or use taxes which are paid or accrued within the income year in carrying on a trade or business or an activity described in Section 212 of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to expenses for production of income). Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, any sales or use tax (except where a tax credit is claimed under Section 23612.2) which is paid or accrued by the taxpayer in connection with an acquisition or disposition of property shall be treated as part of the cost of the acquired property or, in the case of a disposition, as a reduction in the amount realized on the disposition.

(f) For purposes of subdivision (b), "taxes on or according to or measure by income" shall include any taxes imposed on a dividend that is eliminated from the income of the recipient under Section 25106.

SEC. 20. Section 24349.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24349.1. (a) Section 280F of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to limitations on depreciation for luxury automobiles and certain property used for personal purposes, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(b) Except as provided in subdivision (c), Section 280F of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) The terms "deduction" or "recovery deduction," relating to amounts allowable as a deduction under Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code, mean the amount allowable as a deduction for depreciation under this part.

(2) The term "recovery period," relating to property under Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code, means the class life asset depreciation range allowable under this part.

(3) The provisions of Section 280F of the Internal Revenue Code which relate to the investment tax credit shall not be applicable for purposes of this part.

(c) Paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (b) shall not apply to Section 24356.7 property.

SEC. 21. Section 24356.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24356.5. (a) Section 179A of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to deduction for clean-fuel vehicles and certain refueling property, shall apply to property placed in service after June 30, 1993, without regard to income year, except as otherwise provided.

(b) Section 179A(e)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to property used outside the United States, is modified to also refer to Section 24356.4 or 24356.7.

(c) Section 179A(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to termination, is modified to substitute "December 31, 1994" for "December 31, 2004."

SEC. 22. Section 24356.7 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Section 26 of Chapter 953 of the Statutes of 1996, is repealed.

SEC. 23. Section 24384.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Section 28 of Chapter 953 of the Statutes of 1996, is repealed.

SEC. 24. Section 24422 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24422. No deduction shall be allowed for both of the following:

(a) Any amount paid out for new buildings or for permanent improvements or betterments made to increase the value of any property or estate. This subdivision shall not apply to:

(1) Expenditures for the development of mines or deposits deductible under Section 616 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(8) Expenditures for removal of architectural and transportation barriers to the handicapped and elderly that the taxpayer elects to deduct under Section 24383.

(b) Any amount expended in restoring property or in making good the exhaustion thereof for which an allowance is or has been made.

SEC. 25. Section 24916 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24916. Proper adjustment with regard to the property shall in all cases be made as follows:

(a) For expenditures, receipts, losses, or other items properly chargeable to capital account. However, no adjustment shall be made for any of the following:

(1) Sales or use tax paid or incurred in connection with the acquisition of property for which a tax credit is claimed pursuant to Section 23612.2.

(2) Taxes or other carrying charges described in Section 24426, or for expenditures described in Sections 24364 and 24369 for which deductions have been taken in determining net income for the income year or any prior income year.

(b) For exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, amortization, and depletion:

(1) In the case of banks or corporations subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101), to the extent sustained prior to January 1, 1928, and to the extent allowed (but not less than the amount allowable) under this part, except that no deduction shall be made for amounts in excess of the amount which would have been allowable had depreciation not been computed on the basis of January 1, 1928, value and amounts in excess of the adjustments required by Section 113(b)(1)(B) of the Federal Revenue Act of 1938 for depletion prior to January 1, 1932.

(2) In the case of a taxpayer subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 3, to the extent sustained prior to January 1, 1937, and for periods thereafter to the extent allowed (but not less than the amount allowable) under the provisions of this part.

(3) If a taxpayer has not claimed an amortization deduction for an emergency facility, the adjustment under paragraph (1) shall be made only to the extent ordinarily provided under Sections 24349 and 24372.

(c) In the case of stock (to the extent not provided for in the foregoing subdivisions) for the amount of distributions previously made which, under the law applicable to the year in which the distribution was made, either were tax free or were applicable in reduction of basis (not including distributions made by a corporation, which was classified as a personal service corporation under the provisions of the Federal Revenue Act of 1918 or 1921, out of its earnings or profits which were taxable in accordance with the provisions of Section 218 of the Federal Revenue Act of 1918 or 1921).

(d) (1) In the case of banks or corporations subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 2, in the case of any bond, as defined in Section 24363, to the extent of the deductions allowable pursuant to Section 24360 with respect thereto.

(2) In the case of taxpayers subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 3, in the case of any bond, as defined in Section 24363, the interest on which is wholly exempt from the tax imposed by this part, to the extent of the amortizable bond premium disallowable as a deduction pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 24360, and in the case of any other bond, as defined in Section 24363, to the extent of the deductions allowable pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 24360 (or the amount applied to reduce interest payments under paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 24363.5) with respect thereto.

(3) In the case of property pledged to the Commodity Credit Corporation, to the extent of the amount received as a loan from the Commodity Credit Corporation and treated by the taxpayer as income for the year in which received pursuant to Section 24273, and to the extent of any deficiency on that loan with respect to which the taxpayer has been relieved from liability.

(e) For amounts allowed as deductions as deferred expenses under Section 616(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain expenditures in the development of mines, and resulting in a reduction of the taxpayer's tax, but not less than the amounts allowable under that section for the income year and prior years.

(f) For amounts allowable as deductions as deferred expenses under Section 617(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain exploration expenditures, and resulting in a reduction of the taxpayer's tax, but not less than the amounts allowable under that section for the income year and prior years.

(g) For amounts allowed as deductions as deferred expenses under subdivision (a) of Section 24366, relating to research and experimental expenditures, and resulting in a reduction of the bank or corporations' taxes under this part, but not less than the amounts allowable under that section for the income year and prior years.

(i) (1) To the extent provided in Section 179A(e)(6)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to basis reduction for clean-fuel vehicles and certain refueling property.

(2) This subdivision shall apply to property placed in service after June 30, 1993, without regard to income year.

SEC. 26. It is the intent of the Legislature that the changes to the Personal Income Tax Law and the Bank and Corporation Tax Law made by this act shall be deemed to be in effect as of January 1, 1997, and for those purposes shall be given retroactive application.

SEC. 27. The Legislature finds and declares that this act fulfills a statewide public purpose because it provides for incentives for the economic development of depressed areas of the state.

SEC. 28. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 604

An act to amend Section 30 of the Business and Professions Code, to amend Section 1666.5 of the Insurance Code, to amend Section 1203.1d of the Penal Code, to amend Sections 17053.49, 17062, 17220, 17276.2, 17502, 17570, 17935, 18633, 18633.5, 19021, 19024, 19141.6, 19280, 19282, 19283, 19340, 23183.1, 23183.2, 23221, 23332, 23332.5, 23455, 23649, 23802, 23809, 23811, 24416.2, 24602, 24710, and 24918 of, to amend and renumber Section 19532 of, to amend and renumber the heading of Article 6 (commencing with Section 19280) of Chapter 5 of Part 10.2 of Division 2 of, to add Sections 17936, 23114, and 24954 to, and to repeal Sections 23184, 23184.5, 23185, 23185a, 23185b, and 24903 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, to amend Section 1088.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, and to amend Section 56 of Chapter 952 of the Statutes of 1996, relating to taxation, and making an appropriation therefor, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 30 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

30. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any board, as defined in Section 22, and the State Bar and the Department of Real Estate shall at the time of issuance or renewal of the license require that any licensee provide its federal employer identification number if the licensee is a partnership or his or her social security number for all others.

(b) Any licensee failing to provide the federal identification number or social security number shall be reported by the licensing board to the Franchise Tax Board and, if failing to provide after notification pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 19528 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, shall be subject to the penalty provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 19528 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(c) In addition to the penalty specified in subdivision (b), a licensing board may not process any application for an original license or for renewal of a license unless the applicant or licensee provides its federal employer identification number or social security number where requested on the application.

(d) A licensing board shall, upon request of the Franchise Tax Board, furnish to the Franchise Tax Board the following information with respect to every licensee:

(2) Address or addresses of record.

(3) Federal employer identification number if the entity is a partnership or social security number for all others.

(6) Expiration date of license.

(7) Whether license is active or inactive, if known.

(8) Whether license is new or renewal.

(e) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Licensee" means any entity, other than a corporation, authorized by a license, certificate, registration, or other means to engage in a business or profession regulated by this code or referred to in Section 1000 or 3600.

(2) "License" includes a certificate, registration, or any other authorization needed to engage in a business or profession regulated by this code or referred to in Section 1000 or 3600.

(3) "Licensing board" means any board, as defined in Section 22, the State Bar, and the Department of Real Estate.

(f) The reports required under this section shall be filed on magnetic media or in other machine-readable form, according to standards furnished by the Franchise Tax Board.

(g) Licensing boards shall provide to the Franchise Tax Board the information required by this section at a time that the Franchise Tax Board may require.

(h) Notwithstanding Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the social security number and federal employer identification number furnished pursuant to this section shall not be deemed to be a public record and shall not be open to the public for inspection.

(i) Any deputy, agent, clerk, officer, or employee of any licensing board described in subdivision (a), or any former officer or employee or other individual who in the course of his or her employment or duty has or has had access to the information required to be furnished under this section, may not disclose or make known in any manner that information, except as provided in this section to the Franchise Tax Board or as provided in subdivision (k).

(j) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to utilize the social security account number or federal employer identification number for the purpose of establishing the identification of persons affected by state tax laws and for purposes of compliance with Section 11350.6 of the Welfare and Institutions

Code and, to that end, the information furnished pursuant to this section shall be used exclusively for those purposes.

(k) If the board utilizes a national examination to issue a license, and if a reciprocity agreement or comity exists between the State of California and the state requesting release of the social security number, any deputy, agent, clerk, officer, or employee of any licensing board described in subdivision (a) may release a social security number to an examination or licensing entity, only for the purpose of verification of licensure or examination status.

SEC. 2. Section 1666.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1666.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the commissioner shall at the time of issuance or renewal of any license under this chapter or Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1760), Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 1800), or Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 1831) require that any licensee provide its federal employer identification number if the licensee is a partnership or his or her social security number for all others.

(b) Any licensee failing to provide the federal identification number or social security number shall be reported by the commissioner to the Franchise Tax Board and, if failing to provide after notification pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 19528 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, shall be subject to the penalty provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 19528 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(c) The commissioner shall, upon request of the Franchise Tax Board, furnish to the board all of the following information with respect to every licensee:

(3) Federal employer identification number if the entity is a partnership or owner's name and social security number for all others.

(7) Whether license is active or inactive, if known.

(8) Whether license is new or renewal.

(d) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Licensee" means any entity, other than a corporation, authorized by a license, certificate, registration, or other means to engage in the insurance business regulated by this code.

(2) "License" includes a certificate, registration, or any other authorization needed to engage in the insurance business regulated by this code.

(e) The reports required under this section shall be filed on magnetic media or in other machine-readable form, according to standards furnished by the Franchise Tax Board.

(f) The commissioner shall begin providing to the Franchise Tax Board the information required by this section as soon as economically feasible, but no later than July 1, 1987. The information shall be furnished at a time that the Franchise Tax Board may require.

(g) Notwithstanding Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the information furnished pursuant to this section shall not be deemed to be a public record and shall not be open to the public for inspection.

(h) Any deputy, agent, clerk, officer, or employee of the commissioner, or any former officer or employee or other individual who in the course of his or her employment or duty has or has had access to the information required to be furnished under this section, shall not disclose or make known in any manner that information, except as provided in this section to the Franchise Tax Board.

(i) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to utilize the social security account number or federal employer identification number for the purpose of establishing the identification of persons affected by state tax laws and, to that end, the information furnished pursuant to this section shall be used exclusively for tax enforcement purposes.

SEC. 3. Section 1203.1d of the Penal Code is amended to read:

1203.1d. In determining the amount and manner of disbursement under an order made pursuant to this code requiring a defendant to make reparation or restitution to a victim of a crime, to pay any money as reimbursement for legal assistance provided by the court, to pay any cost of probation or probation investigation, or to pay any cost of jail or other confinement, or to pay any other reimbursable costs, the court, after determining the amount of any fine and penalty assessments, and a county financial evaluation officer when making a financial evaluation, shall first determine the amount of restitution to be ordered paid to any victim, and shall then determine the amount of the other reimbursable costs.

If payment is made in full, the payment shall be apportioned and disbursed in the amounts ordered by the court.

If reasonable and compatible with the defendant's financial ability, the court may order payments to be made in installments.

With respect to installment payments and amounts collected by the Franchise Tax Board pursuant to Section 19280 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, the board of supervisors may establish the priorities of payment, first between fines, penalty assessments, and reparation or restitution, and then between other reimbursable costs. The board of supervisors may also establish priorities of payment between orders or parts of orders in cases where defendants have been ordered to pay more than one court order.

Documentary evidence, as bills, receipts, repair estimates, insurance payment statements, payroll stubs, business records, and similar documents relevant to the value of the stolen or damaged property, medical expenses, and wages and profits lost shall not be excluded as hearsay evidence.

SEC. 3.5. Section 17053.49 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17053.49. (a) (1) A qualified taxpayer shall be allowed a credit against the "net tax," as defined in Section 17039, equal to 6 percent of the qualified cost of qualified property that is placed in service in this state.

(2) In the case of any qualified costs paid or incurred on or after January 1, 1994, and prior to the first taxable year of the qualified taxpayer beginning on or after January 1, 1995, the credit provided under paragraph (1) shall be claimed by the qualified taxpayer on the qualified taxpayer's return for the first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1995. No credit shall be claimed under this section on a return filed for any taxable year commencing prior to the qualified taxpayer's first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1995.

(b) (1) For purposes of this section, "qualified cost" means any cost that satisfies each of the following conditions:

(A) Except as otherwise provided in this subparagraph, is a cost paid or incurred by the qualified taxpayer for the construction, reconstruction, or acquisition of qualified property on or after January 1, 1994, and prior to the date this section ceases to be operative under paragraph (2) of subdivision (i). In the case of any qualified property constructed, reconstructed, or acquired by the qualified taxpayer (or any person related to the qualified taxpayer within the meaning of Section 267 or 707 of the Internal Revenue Code) pursuant to a binding contract in existence on or prior to January 1, 1994, costs paid pursuant to that contract shall be subject to allocation as follows: contract costs shall be allocated to qualified property based on a ratio of costs actually paid prior to January 1, 1994, and total contract costs actually paid. "Cost paid" shall include, without limitation, contractual deposits and option payments. To the extent of costs allocated, whether or not currently deductible or depreciable for tax purposes, to a period prior to January 1, 1994, the cost shall be deemed allocated to property acquired before January 1, 1994, and is thus not a "qualified cost."

(B) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) and subparagraph (B) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (d), is an amount upon which the qualified taxpayer has paid, directly or indirectly, as a separately stated contract amount or as determined from the records of the qualified taxpayer, sales or use tax under Part 1 (commencing with Section 6001).

(C) Is an amount properly chargeable to the capital account of the qualified taxpayer.

(2) (A) For purposes of this subdivision, any contract entered into on or after January 1, 1994, that is a successor or replacement contract to a contract that was binding prior to January 1, 1994, shall be treated as a binding contract in existence prior to January 1, 1994.

(B) If a successor or replacement contract is entered into on or after January 1, 1994, and the subject of the successor or replacement contract relates both to amounts for the construction, reconstruction, or acquisition of qualified property described in the original binding contract and to costs for the construction, reconstruction, or acquisition of qualified property not described in the original binding contract, then the portion of those amounts described in the successor or replacement contract that were not described in the original binding contract shall not be treated as costs paid or incurred pursuant to a binding contract in existence on or prior to January 1, 1994, under subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1).

(3) (A) For purposes of this section, an option contract in existence prior to January 1, 1994, under which a qualified taxpayer (or any other person related to the qualified taxpayer within the meaning of Section 267 or 707 of the Internal Revenue Code) had an option to acquire qualified property, shall be treated as a binding contract under the rules in paragraph (2). For purposes of this subparagraph, an option contract shall not include an option under which the option holder will forfeit an amount less than 10 percent of the fixed option price in the event the option is not exercised.

(B) For purposes of this section, a contract shall be treated as binding even if the contract is subject to a condition.

(c) (1) For purposes of this section, "qualified taxpayer" means any taxpayer or partnership engaged in those lines of business described in Codes 2011 to 3999, inclusive, of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition.

(2) In the case of any passthrough entity, the determination of whether a taxpayer is a qualified taxpayer under this section shall be made at the entity level and any credit under this section or Section 23649 shall be allowed to the passthrough entity and passed through to the partners or shareholders in accordance with applicable provisions of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001). For purposes of this paragraph, the term "passthrough entity" means any partnership or S corporation.

(3) The Franchise Tax Board may prescribe regulations to carry out the purposes of this section, including any regulations necessary to prevent the avoidance of the effect of this section through splitups, shell corporations, partnerships, tiered ownership structures, sale-leaseback transactions, or otherwise.

(d) For purposes of this section, "qualified property" means property that is described as either of the following:

(1) Tangible personal property that is defined in Section 1245(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for use by a qualified taxpayer in those lines of business described in Codes 2011 to 3999, inclusive, of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition, that is primarily used for any of the following:

(A) For the manufacturing, processing, refining, fabricating, or recycling of property, beginning at the point at which any raw materials are received by the qualified taxpayer and introduced into the process and ending at the point at which the manufacturing, processing, refining, fabricating, or recycling has altered tangible personal property to its completed form, including packaging, if required.

(C) To maintain, repair, measure, or test any property described in this paragraph.

(D) For pollution control that meets or exceeds standards established by the state or by any local or regional governmental agency within the state.

(2) The value of any capitalized labor costs that are directly allocable to the construction or modification of property described in paragraph (1).

(3) In the case of any qualified taxpayer engaged in manufacturing activities described in SIC Code 357 or 367, those activities related to biotechnology described in SIC Code 8731, those activities related to biopharmaceutical establishments only that are described in SIC Codes 2833 to 2836, inclusive, those activities related to space vehicles and parts described in SIC Codes 3761 to 3769, inclusive, those activities related to space satellites and communications satellites and equipment described in SIC Codes 3663 and 3812 (but only with respect to "qualified property" that is placed in service on or after January 1, 1996), or those activities related to semiconductor equipment manufacturing described in SIC Code 3559 (but only with respect to "qualified property" that is placed in service on or after January 1, 1997), "qualified property" also includes the following:

(A) Special purpose buildings and foundations that are constructed or modified for use by the qualified taxpayer primarily in a manufacturing, processing, refining, or fabricating process, or as a research or storage facility primarily used in connection with a manufacturing process.

(B) The value of any capitalized labor costs that are directly allocable to the construction or modification of special purpose buildings and foundations that are used primarily in the manufacturing, processing, refining, or fabricating process, or as a research or storage facility primarily used in connection with a manufacturing process.

(C) (i) For purposes of this paragraph, "special purpose building and foundation" means only a building and the foundation immediately underlying the building that is specifically designed and constructed or reconstructed for the installation, operation, and use of specific machinery and equipment with a special purpose, which machinery and equipment, after installation, will become affixed to or a fixture of the real property, and the construction or reconstruction of which is specifically designed and used exclusively for the specified purposes as set forth in subparagraph (A) ("qualified purpose").

(ii) A building is specifically designed and constructed or modified for a qualified purpose if it is not economical to design and construct the building for the intended purpose and then use the structure for a different purpose.

(iii) For purposes of clause (i) and clause (vi), a building is used exclusively for a qualified purpose only if its use does not include a use for which it was not specifically designed and constructed or modified. Incidental use of a building for nonqualified purposes does not preclude the building from being a special purpose building. "Incidental use" means a use which is both related and subordinate to the qualified purpose. It will be conclusively presumed that a use is not subordinate if more than one-third of the total usable volume of the building is devoted to a use which is not a qualified purpose.

(iv) In the event an entire building does not qualify as a special purpose building, a taxpayer may establish that a portion of a building, and the foundation immediately underlying the portion, qualifies for treatment as a special purpose building and foundation if the portion satisfies all of the definitional provisions in this subparagraph.

(v) To the extent that a building is not a special purpose building as defined above, but a portion of the building qualifies for treatment as a special purpose building, then all equipment which exclusively supports the qualified purpose occurring within that portion and which would qualify as Internal Revenue Code Section 1245 property if it were not a fixture or affixed to the building shall be treated as a cost of the portion of the building which qualifies for treatment as a special purpose building.

(vi) Buildings and foundations which do not meet the definition of a special purpose building and foundation set forth above include, but are not limited to: buildings designed and constructed or reconstructed principally to function as a general purpose manufacturing, industrial, or commercial building; research facilities that are used primarily prior to or after, or prior to and after, the manufacturing process; or storage facilities that are used primarily prior to or after, or prior to and after, completion of the manufacturing process. A research facility shall not be considered to be used primarily prior to or after, or prior to and after, the manufacturing process if its purpose and use relate exclusively to the development and regulatory approval of the manufacturing process for specific biopharmaceutical products. A research facility which is used primarily in connection with the discovery of an organism from which a biopharmaceutical product or process is developed does not meet the requirements of the preceding sentence.

(4) Subject to the provisions in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), qualified property also includes computer software that is primarily used for those purposes set forth in paragraph (1) of this subdivision.

(5) Qualified property does not include any of the following:

(C) Inventory.

(G) Any vehicle for which a credit is claimed pursuant to Section 17052.11 or 23603.

(e) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Biopharmaceutical activities" means those activities which use organisms or materials derived from organisms, and their cellular, subcellular, or molecular components, in order to provide pharmaceutical products for human or animal therapeutics and diagnostics. Biopharmaceutical activities make use of living organisms to make commercial products, as opposed to pharmaceutical activities which make use of chemical compounds to produce commercial products.

(2) "Fabricating" means to make, build, create, produce, or assemble components or property to work in a new or different manner.

(3) "Manufacturing" means the activity of converting or conditioning property by changing the form, composition, quality, or character of the property for ultimate sale at retail or use in the manufacturing of a product to be ultimately sold at retail. Manufacturing includes any improvements to tangible personal property that result in a greater service life or greater functionality than that of the original property.

(4) "Other biotechnology activities" means activities consisting of the application of recombinant DNA technology to produce commercial products, as well as activities regarding pharmaceutical delivery systems designed to provide a measure of control over the rate, duration, and site of pharmaceutical delivery.

(5) "Primarily" means tangible personal property used 50 percent or more of the time in an activity described in subdivision (d).

(6) "Process" means the period beginning at the point at which any raw materials are received by the qualified taxpayer and introduced into the manufacturing, processing, refining, fabricating, or recycling activity of the qualified taxpayer and ending at the point at which the manufacturing, processing, refining, fabricating, or recycling activity of the qualified taxpayer has altered tangible personal property to its completed form, including packaging, if required. Raw materials shall be considered to have been introduced into the process when the raw materials are stored on the same premises where the qualified taxpayer's manufacturing, processing, refining, or recycling activity is conducted. Raw materials that are stored on premises other than where the qualified taxpayer's manufacturing, processing, refining, fabricating, or recycling activity is conducted, shall not be considered to have been introduced into the manufacturing, processing, refining, fabricating, or recycling process.

(7) "Processing" means the physical application of the materials and labor necessary to modify or change the characteristics of property.

(8) "Refining" means the process of converting a natural resource to an intermediate or finished product.

(9) "Research and development" means those activities that are described in Section 174 of the Internal Revenue Code or in any regulations thereunder.

(10) "Small business" means a qualified taxpayer that meets any of the following requirements during the taxable year for which the credit is allowed:

(C) Has a total credit of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000).

(D) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, is engaged in biopharmaceutical activities or other biotechnology activities that are described in Codes 2833 to 2836, inclusive, of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition, and has not received regulatory approval for any product from the United States Food and Drug Administration.

(f) The credit allowed under subdivision (a) shall apply to qualified property that is acquired by or subject to lease by a qualified taxpayer, subject to the following special rules:

(1) A lessor of qualified property, irrespective of whether the lessor is a qualified taxpayer, shall not be allowed the credit provided under subdivision (a) with respect to any qualified property leased to another qualified taxpayer.

(2) For purposes of paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (b), "binding contract" shall include any lease agreement with respect to the qualified property.

(3) (A) For purposes of determining the qualified cost paid or incurred by a lessee in any leasing transaction that is not treated as a sale under Part 1 (commencing with Section 6001), the following rules shall apply:

(i) Except as provided by subparagraph (C) of this paragraph, subparagraphs (A) and (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) shall not apply.

(ii) Except as provided in subparagraph (B) and clause (iii), the "qualified cost" upon which the lessee shall compute the credit provided under this section shall be equal to the original cost to the lessor (within the meaning of Section 18031) of the qualified property that is the subject of the lease.

(iii) Except as provided in clause (iv), the requirement of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) shall be treated as satisfied only if the lessor has made a timely election under either Section 6094.1 or subdivision (d) of Section 6244 and has paid sales tax reimbursement or use tax measured by the purchase price of the qualified property (within the meaning of paragraph (5) of subdivision (g) of Section 6006). For purposes of this subdivision and clause (iv), the amount of original cost to the lessor which may be taken into account under clause (ii) shall not exceed the purchase price upon which sales tax reimbursement or use tax has been paid under the preceding sentence or under clause (iv).

(iv) With respect to leases entered into between January 1, 1994, and the effective date of this clause, the lessor may elect to pay use tax measured by the purchase price of the property by reporting and paying the tax with the return of the lessor for the fourth calendar quarter of 1994. In computing the use tax under the preceding sentence, a credit shall be allowed under Part 1 (commencing with Section 6001) for all sales or use tax previously paid on the lease.

(B) For purposes of applying subparagraph (A) only, the following special rules shall apply:

(i) The original cost to the lessor of the qualified property shall be reduced by the amount of any original cost of that property that was taken into account by any predecessor lessee in computing the credit allowable under this section.

(ii) Clause (i) shall not apply in any case where the predecessor lessee was required to recapture the credit provided under this section pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (g).

(iii) For purposes of this section only, in any case where a successor lessor has acquired qualified property from a predecessor lessor in a transaction not treated as a sale under Part 1 (commencing with Section 6001), the original cost to the successor lessor of the qualified property shall be reduced by the amount of the original cost of the qualified property that was taken into account by any lessee of the predecessor lessor in computing the credit allowable under this section.

(C) In determining the original cost of any qualified property under this paragraph, only amounts paid or incurred by the lessor on or after January 1, 1994, and prior to the date this section ceases to be operative under paragraph (2) of subdivision (i), shall be taken into account. In the case of any qualified property constructed, reconstructed, or acquired by a lessor pursuant to a binding contract in existence on or prior to January 1, 1994, the allocation rule specified in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) shall apply in determining the original cost to the lessor of qualified property.

(D) Notwithstanding subparagraph (A), in the case of any leasing transaction for which the lessee is allowed the credit under this section and thereafter the lessee (or any party related to the lessee within the meaning of Section 267 or 318 of the Internal Revenue Code) acquires the qualified property from the lessor (or any successor lessor) within one year from the date the qualified property is first used by the lessee under the terms of the lease, the lessee's (or related party's) acquisition of the qualified property from the lessor (or successor lessor) shall be treated as a disposition by the lessee of the qualified property that was subject to the lease under subdivision (g).

(4) For purposes of determining the qualified cost paid or incurred by a lessee in any leasing transaction that is treated as a sale under Part 1 (commencing with Section 6001), the following rules shall apply:

(A) Subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) shall be applied by substituting the term "purchase" for the term "construction, reconstruction, or acquisition."

(C) The requirement of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) shall be treated as satisfied at the time that either the lessor or the qualified taxpayer pays sales or use tax under Part 1 (commencing with Section 6001).

(5) (A) In the case of any leasing transaction described in paragraph (3), the lessor shall provide a statement to the lessee specifying the amount of the lessor's original cost of the qualified property and the amount of that cost upon which a sales or use tax was paid within 45 days after the close of the lessee's taxable year in which the credit is allowable to the lessee under this section.

(B) The statement required under subparagraph (A) shall be made available to the Franchise Tax Board upon request.

(g) No credit shall be allowed if the qualified property is removed from the state, is disposed of to an unrelated party, or is used for any purpose not qualifying for the credit provided in this section in the same taxable year in which the qualified property is first placed in service in this state. If any qualified property for which a credit is allowed pursuant to this section is thereafter removed from this state, disposed of to an unrelated party, or used for any purpose not qualifying for the credit provided in this section within one year from the date the qualified property is first placed in service in this state, the amount of the credit allowed by this section for that qualified property shall be recaptured by adding that credit amount to the net tax of the qualified taxpayer for the taxable year in which the qualified property is disposed of, removed, or put to an ineligible use.

(h) In the case where the credit allowed by this section exceeds the "net tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "net tax" in the following year, and succeeding years as follows:

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), for the seven succeeding years if necessary, until the credit is exhausted.

(2) In the case of a small business, for the nine succeeding years, if necessary, until the credit is exhausted.

(i) (1) This section shall remain in effect until the date specified in paragraph (2), on which date this section shall cease to be operative, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (h), until the credit is exhausted.

(2) (A) This section shall cease to be operative on January 1, 2001, or on January 1 of the earliest year thereafter, if the total employment in this state, as determined by the Employment Development Department on the preceding January 1, does not exceed by 100,000 jobs the total employment in this state on January 1, 1994. The department shall report to the Legislature annually with respect to the determination required by the preceding sentence.

(B) For purposes of this paragraph, "total employment" means the total employment in the manufacturing sector, excluding employment in the aerospace sector.

(j) The amendments made by the act adding this subdivision shall be operative for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, except as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (d).

SEC. 4. Section 17062 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17062. (a) In addition to the other taxes imposed by this part, there is hereby imposed for each taxable year, a tax equal to the excess, if any, of—

(1) The tentative minimum tax for the taxable year, over

(b) For purposes of this chapter, each of the following shall apply:

(1) The tentative minimum tax shall be computed in accordance with Sections 55 to 59, inclusive, of the Internal Revenue Code, except as otherwise provided in this part.

(2) The regular tax shall be the amount of tax imposed by Section 17041 or 17048, before reduction for any credits against the tax, less any amount imposed under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) and paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 17560.

(3) (A) The provisions of Section 55(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified to provide that the tentative minimum tax for the taxable year shall be equal to the following percent of so much of the alternative minimum taxable income for the taxable year as exceeds the exemption amount, before reduction for any credits against the tax:

(i) For any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and before January 1, 1996, 8.5 percent.

(ii) For any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1996, 7 percent.

(B) In the case of a nonresident or part-year resident, the tentative minimum tax shall be computed as if the nonresident or part-year resident were a resident for the entire year multiplied by the ratio of California adjusted gross income (as modified for purposes of this chapter) to total adjusted gross income from all sources (as modified for purposes of this chapter). For purposes of computing the tax under subparagraph (A) and gross income from all sources, the net operating loss deduction provided in Section 56(d) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be computed as if the taxpayer were a resident for all prior years.

(C) For purposes of this section, the term "California adjusted gross income" includes each of the following:

(i) For any period during which the taxpayer was a resident of this state (as defined by Section 17014), all items of adjusted gross income (as modified for purposes of this chapter), regardless of source.

(ii) For any period during which the taxpayer was not a resident of this state, only those items of adjusted gross income (as modified for purposes of this chapter) which were derived from sources within this state, determined in accordance with Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 17951).

(4) The provisions of Section 55(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to alternative minimum taxable income, shall be modified to provide that alternative minimum taxable income shall not include the income, adjustments, and items of tax preference attributable to any trade or business of a qualified taxpayer.

(A) For purposes of this paragraph, "qualified taxpayer" means a taxpayer who meets both of the following:

(i) Is the owner of, or has an ownership interest in, a trade or business.

(ii) Has aggregate gross receipts, less returns and allowances, of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) during the taxable year from all trades or businesses of which the taxpayer is the owner or has an ownership interest, in the amount of that taxpayer's proportionate interest in each trade or business.

(B) For purposes of this paragraph, "aggregate gross receipts, less returns and allowances" means the sum of the gross receipts of the trades or businesses which the taxpayer owns and the proportionate interest of the gross receipts of the trades or businesses which the taxpayer owns and of passthrough entities in which the taxpayer holds an interest.

(C) For purposes of this paragraph, "gross receipts, less returns and allowances" means the sum of the gross receipts from the production of business income, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 25120, and the gross receipts from the production of nonbusiness income, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 25120.

(D) For purposes of this paragraph, "proportionate interest" means:

(i) In the case of a passthrough entity which reports a profit for the taxable or income year, the taxpayer's profit interest in the entity at the end of the taxpayer's taxable year.

(ii) In the case of a passthrough entity which reports a loss for the taxable or income year, the taxpayer's loss interest in the entity at the end of the taxpayer's taxable year.

(iii) In the case of a passthrough entity which is sold or liquidates during the taxable or income year, the taxpayer's capital account interest in the entity at the time of the sale or liquidation.

(E) (i) For purposes of this paragraph, "proportionate interest" includes an interest in a passthrough entity.

(ii) For purposes of this paragraph, "passthrough entity" means any of the following:

(II) An S corporation, as provided in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 23800) of Part 11.

(III) A regulated investment company, as provided in Section 24871.

(IV) A real estate investment trust, as provided in Section 24872.

(c) (1) Section 56(b)(1)(E) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to standard deduction and deduction for personal exemptions not allowed, is modified, for purposes of this part, to deny the standard deduction allowed by Section 17073.5.

(2) Section 56(b)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to treatment of incentive stock options, shall be modified to additionally provide the following:

(A) Section 421 of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply to the transfer of stock acquired pursuant to the exercise of a California qualified stock option under Section 17502.

(B) Section 422(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply in any case where the disposition and inclusion of a California qualified stock option for purposes of this chapter are within the same taxable year and that section shall not apply in any other case.

(C) The adjusted basis of any stock acquired by the exercise of a California qualified stock option shall be determined on the basis of the treatment prescribed by this paragraph.

(3) The provisions of Section 56(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to adjustment based on energy preferences, shall not apply.

(d) The provisions of Section 57(a)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax-exempt interest shall not apply.

(e) The last two sentences of Section 57(a)(6)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tangible personal property, shall not apply.

(f) Section 57(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to items of tax preference, is modified to include as an item of tax preference an amount equal to one-half of the amount excluded from gross income for the taxable year under Section 18152.5.

(g) The provisions of Section 59(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the alternative minimum tax foreign tax credit, shall not apply.

SEC. 5. Section 17220 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17220. (a) Section 164(a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the deductibility of state, local, and foreign income, war profits, and excess profits taxes, shall not apply.

(b) In addition to the provisions of Section 164(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to deduction denied in case of certain taxes, no deduction shall be allowed for any tax imposed under Chapter 10.5 (commencing with Section 17935), Chapter 10.6 (commencing with Section 17941), or Chapter 10.7 (commencing with Section 17951) of this part or under Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

SEC. 6. Section 17276.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17276.2. The term "qualified taxpayer" as used in Section 17276.1 means any of the following:

(a) A person or entity engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within an enterprise zone designated pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(1) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback to any taxable year and a net operating loss for any taxable year beginning on or after the date that the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated as an enterprise zone shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the 15 taxable years following the taxable year of loss.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision:

(B) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to the taxpayer's business income attributable to the enterprise zone (as defined in Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code) determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101) of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section by substituting "enterprise zone" for "this state."

(C) If a loss carryover is allowable pursuant to this section for any taxable year after the enterprise zone designation has expired, the enterprise zone shall be deemed to remain in existence for purposes of computing the limitation set forth in subparagraph (B) and allowing a net operating loss deduction.

(D) "Enterprise zone expiration date" means the date the enterprise zone designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(b) A person or entity engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designated pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code.

(1) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback for any taxable year, and a net operating loss for any taxable year beginning on or after the date the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone shall be a net operating loss carryover to each following taxable year that ends before the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone expiration date or to each of the 15 taxable years following the taxable year of loss, if longer.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "Net operating loss" means the loss determined under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 17276.1, attributable to the taxpayer's business activities within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone (as defined in Section 7102 of the Government Code) prior to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone expiration date. The attributable loss shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101) of Part 11, modified as follows:

(i) Loss shall be apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by multiplying total loss from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(ii) "The Los Angeles Revitalization Zone" shall be substituted for "this state."

(B) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to the taxpayer's business income attributable to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone (as defined in Section 7102 of the Government Code) determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (3).

(C) If a loss carryover is allowable pursuant to this section for any taxable year after the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designation has expired, the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone shall be deemed to remain in existence for purposes of computing the limitation set forth in subparagraph (B) and allowing a net operating loss deduction.

(3) Attributable income shall be that portion of the taxpayer's California source business income which is apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone. For that purpose, the taxpayer's business income attributable to sources in this state first shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101) of Part 11. That business income shall be further apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11, modified as follows:

(A) Business income shall be apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by multiplying total California business income of the taxpayer by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the taxable year and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state during the taxable year.

(C) The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid by the taxpayer in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the taxable year for compensation, and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid by the taxpayer in this state during the taxable year.

(4) "Los Angeles Revitalization Zone expiration date" means the date the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designation expires, is repealed, or becomes inoperative pursuant to Section 7102, 7103, or 7104 of the Government Code.

(5) This subdivision shall be inoperative on the first day of the taxable year beginning on or after the determination date, and each taxable year thereafter, with respect to the taxpayer's business activities within a geographic area that is excluded from the map pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code, or an excluded area determined pursuant to Section 7104 of the Government Code. The determination date is the earlier of the first effective date of a determination under subdivision (c) of Section 7102 of the Government Code occurring after December 1, 1994, or the first effective date of an exclusion of an area from the amended Los Angeles Revitalization Zone under Section 7104 of the Government Code. However, if the taxpayer has any unused loss amount as of the date this section becomes inoperative, that unused loss amount may continue to be carried forward as provided in this subdivision.

(6) This subdivision shall cease to be operative on January 1, 1998. However, any unused net operating loss may continue to be carried over to following years as provided in this subdivision.

(c) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1995, and before January 1, 2003, a taxpayer engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within a LAMBRA.

(1) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback for any taxable year, and a net operating loss for any taxable year beginning on or after the date the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated a LAMBRA shall be a net operating loss carryover to each following taxable year that ends before the LAMBRA expiration date or to each of the 15 taxable years following the taxable year of loss, if longer.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "LAMBRA" means a local agency military base recovery area designated in accordance with Section 7114 of the Government Code.

(B) "Taxpayer" means a person or entity that conducts a trade or business within a LAMBRA and, for the first two taxable years, has a net increase in jobs (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) of one or more employees in the LAMBRA and this state.

(i) The net increase in the number of jobs shall be determined by subtracting the total number of full-time employees (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) the taxpayer employed in this state in the taxable year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA from the total number of full-time employees the taxpayer employed in this state during the second taxable year after commencing business operations in the LAMBRA. For taxpayers who commence doing business in this state with their LAMBRA business operation, the number of employees for the taxable year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA shall be zero. The deduction shall be allowed only if the taxpayer has a net increase in jobs in the state, and if one or more full-time employees is employed within the LAMBRA.

(ii) The total number of employees employed in the LAMBRA shall equal the sum of both of the following:

(I) The total number of hours worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees (not to exceed 2,000 hours per employee) who are paid an hourly wage divided by 2,000.

(II) The total number of months worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees who are salaried employees divided by 12.

(iii) In the case of a taxpayer who first commences doing business in the LAMBRA during the taxable year, for purposes of subclauses (I) and (II), respectively, of clause (ii) the divisors "2,000" and "12" shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months of the taxable year that the taxpayer was doing business in the LAMBRA and the denominator of which is 12.

(C) "Net operating loss" means the loss determined under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 17276.1, attributable to the taxpayer's business activities within a LAMBRA prior to the LAMBRA expiration date. The attributable loss shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101) of Part 11, modified as follows:

(i) Loss shall be apportioned to a LAMBRA by multiplying total loss from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(ii) "The LAMBRA" shall be substituted for "this state."

(D) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to the taxpayer's business income attributable to a LAMBRA determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101) of Part 11, modified as follows:

(i) Business income shall be apportioned to a LAMBRA by multiplying total business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(ii) "The LAMBRA" shall be substituted for "this state."

(iii) If a loss carryover is allowable pursuant to this section for any taxable year after the LAMBRA designation has expired, the LAMBRA shall be deemed to remain in existence for purposes of computing this limitation.

(E) "LAMBRA expiration date" means the date the LAMBRA designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative pursuant to Section 7110 of the Government Code.

(d) A taxpayer who qualifies as a "qualified taxpayer" shall, for the taxable year of the net operating loss and any taxable year to which that net operating loss may be carried, designate on the original return filed for each year the subdivision of this section which applies to that taxpayer with respect to that net operating loss. If the taxpayer is eligible to qualify under more than one subdivision of this section, the designation is to be made after taking into account subdivision (e).

(e) If a taxpayer is eligible to qualify under more than one subdivision of this section as a "qualified taxpayer," with respect to a net operating loss in a taxable year, the taxpayer shall designate which subdivision of this section is to apply to the taxpayer.

(f) Notwithstanding Section 17276, the amount of the loss determined under this section shall be the only net operating loss allowed to be carried over from that taxable year and the designation under subdivision (d) shall be included in the election under Section 17276.1.

SEC. 7. Section 17502 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17502. (a) In addition to the application of Part II (commencing with Section 421) of Subchapter D of Chapter 1 of Subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain stock options, paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of Section 421(a) of the Internal Revenue Code shall also apply to any California qualified stock option that is granted to an individual whose earned income from the corporation granting the California qualified stock option for the taxable year in which that option is exercised does not exceed forty thousand dollars ($40,000).

In the event that the option does not meet the necessary qualifications, the option shall be treated as a nonqualified stock option.

(b) For purposes of this section, "California qualified stock option" means a stock option that is issued and exercised pursuant to this section and that is designated by the corporation issuing the option as a California qualified stock option at the time the option is granted.

(c) (1) This section shall apply only to those stock options that are issued on or after January 1, 1997, and before January 1, 2002, by a corporation to its employee and are exercised by the employee, while employed by the corporation that issued those stock options (or within three months thereof, or within one year thereof if permanently and totally disabled as defined in Section 22(e)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code), during the taxable year with respect to any class of shares, or combination thereof, issued by the corporation, to the extent that the number of shares transferable by the exercise of the options does not exceed a total of 1,000 and have a combined fair market value of less than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000). The combined fair market value of any stock shall be determined as of the time the option with respect to that stock is granted.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall be applied by taking options into account in the order in which they were granted.

(d) In the case of a California qualified stock option, no amount shall be included in the gross income of the employee until the time of the disposition of the option (or the stock acquired upon exercise of the option).

No deduction shall be allowed under Section 162 of the Internal Revenue Code to the employer on the grant or exercise of a California qualified stock option.

(e) Subdivision (d) shall not apply to any stock option for which an election has been made under Section 83(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to election to include in gross income in year of transfer.

SEC. 8. Section 17570 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17570. (a) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, Section 475 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to mark to market accounting method for securities dealers, as added by Section 13223 of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(b) Section 13233(c)(2)(C) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to the effective date for changes in the mark to market accounting method for securities dealers, is modified to provide that the amount taken into account under Section 481 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 shall be taken into account ratably over the five-taxable-year period beginning with the first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 9. Section 17935 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17935. (a) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, every limited partnership doing business in this state (as defined by Section 23101) and required to file a return under Section 18633 shall pay annually to this state a tax for the privilege of doing business in this state in an amount equal to the applicable amount specified in Section 23153.

(b) In addition to any limited partnership that is doing business in this state and therefore is subject to the tax imposed by subdivision (a), for each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, every limited partnership that has executed, acknowledged, and filed a certificate of limited partnership with the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 15621 of the Corporations Code, and every foreign limited partnership that has registered with the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 15692 of the Corporations Code, shall pay annually the tax prescribed in subdivision (a). The tax shall be paid for each taxable year, or part thereof, until a certificate of cancellation is filed on behalf of the limited partnership with the office of the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 15623 or 15696 of the Corporations Code.

(c) The tax imposed under this section shall be due and payable on the date the return is required to be filed under former Section 18432 or Section 18633.

(d) For purposes of this section, "limited partnership" means any partnership formed by two or more persons under the laws of this state or any other jurisdiction and having one or more general partners and one or more limited partners.

SEC. 10. Section 17936 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17936. A limited partnership shall not be subject to the taxes imposed by this chapter if the limited partnership did no business in this state during the taxable year and the taxable year was 15 days or less.

SEC. 11. Section 18633 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18633. (a) (1) Every partnership, within three months and 15 days after the close of its taxable year, shall make a return for that taxable year, stating specifically the items of gross income and the deductions allowed by Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001). Except as otherwise provided in Section 18621.5, the return shall include the names, addresses, and taxpayer identification numbers of the persons, whether residents or nonresidents, who would be entitled to share in the net income if distributed and the amount of the distributive share of each person. The return shall contain or be verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury, signed by one of the partners.

(2) In addition to returns required by paragraph (1), every limited partnership subject to the tax imposed by subdivision (b) of Section 17935 or 23081, within three months and 15 days after the close of its taxable year, shall make a return for that year. In the case of a limited partnership not doing business in this state, the Franchise Tax Board shall prescribe the manner and extent to which the information identified in paragraph (1) shall be included with the return required by this paragraph.

(b) Each partnership required to file a return under subdivision (a) for any taxable year shall (on or before the day on which the return for that taxable year was required to be filed) furnish to each person who is a partner or who holds an interest in that partnership as a nominee for another person at any time during that taxable year a copy of that information required to be shown on that return as may be required by regulations.

(c) Any person who holds an interest in a partnership as a nominee for another person shall do both of the following:

(1) Furnish to the partnership, in the manner prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, the name, address, and taxpayer identification number of that other person, and any other information for that taxable year as the Franchise Tax Board may by form and regulation prescribe.

(2) Furnish to that other person, in the manner prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, the information provided by that partnership under subdivision (b).

(d) The provisions of Section 6031(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the separate statement of items of unrelated business taxable income, shall apply.

(e) The amendments made to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall apply to returns required to be filed under subdivision (a) after the effective date of that act.

(f) The amendments made to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall apply to returns required to be filed on or after January 1, 1998.

SEC. 12. Section 18633.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18633.5. (a) Every limited liability company which is classified as a partnership for California tax purposes that is doing business in this state, organized in this state, or registered with the Secretary of State shall file its return within three months and 15 days after the close of its taxable or income year, shall make a return for that taxable year, stating specifically the items of gross income and the deductions allowed by Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001). The return shall include the names, addresses, and taxpayer identification numbers of the persons, whether residents or nonresidents, who would be entitled to share in the net income if distributed and the amount of the distributive share of each person. The return shall contain or be verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury, signed by one of the limited liability company members. In the case of a limited liability company not doing business in this state and subject to the tax imposed by subdivision (b) of Section 17941 or 23091, the Franchise Tax Board shall prescribe the manner and extent to which the information identified in this subdivision shall be included with the return required by this subdivision.

(b) Each limited liability company required to file a return under subdivision (a) for any limited liability company taxable or income year shall, on or before the day on which the return for that taxable or income year was required to be filed, furnish to each person who holds an interest in that limited liability company at any time during that taxable or income year a copy of that information required to be shown on that return as may be required by forms and instructions prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board.

(c) Any person who holds an interest in a limited liability company as a nominee for another person shall do both of the following:

(1) Furnish to the limited liability company, in the manner prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, the name, address, and taxpayer identification number of that person, and any other information for that taxable or income year as the Franchise Tax Board may prescribe by forms and instructions.

(2) Furnish to that other person, in the manner prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, the information provided by that limited liability company under subdivision (b).

(d) The provisions of Section 6031(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the separate statement of items of unrelated business taxable income, shall apply.

(e) (1) A limited liability company shall file with its return required under subdivision (a), in the form required by the Franchise Tax Board, the agreement of each nonresident member to file a return pursuant to Section 18501, to make timely payment of all taxes imposed on the member by this state with respect to the income of the limited liability company, and to be subject to personal jurisdiction in this state for purposes of the collection of income taxes, together with related interest and penalties, imposed on the member by this state with respect to the income of the limited liability company. If the limited liability company fails timely to file the agreements on behalf of each of its nonresident members, then the limited liability company shall, at the time set forth in subdivision (f), pay to this state on behalf of each nonresident member of whom an agreement has not been timely filed an amount equal to the highest marginal tax rate in effect under Section 17041 in the case of members which are individuals, estates, or trusts, and Section 23151 in the case of members which are corporations, multiplied by the amount of the member's distributive share of the income source to the state reflected on the limited liability company's return for the taxable period. A limited liability company shall be entitled to recover the payment made from the member on whose behalf the payment was made.

(2) If a limited liability company fails to attach the agreement or to timely pay the payment required by paragraph (1), the payment shall be considered the tax of the limited liability company for purposes of the penalty prescribed by Section 19132 and interest prescribed by Section 19101 for failure to timely pay tax. Payment of the penalty and interest imposed on the limited liability company for failure to timely pay the amount required by this subdivision shall extinguish the liability of a nonresident member for the penalty and interest for failure to make timely payment of all taxes imposed on that member by this state with respect to the income of the limited liability company.

(3) No penalty or interest shall be imposed on the limited liability company under paragraph (2) if the nonresident member timely files and pays all taxes imposed on the member by this state with respect to the income of the limited liability company.

(f) Any agreement of a nonresident member required to be filed pursuant to subdivision (e) shall be filed at either of the following times:

(1) The time the annual return is required to be filed pursuant to this section for the first taxable period for which the limited liability company became subject to tax pursuant to Chapter 1.6 (commencing with Section 23091).

(2) The time the annual return is required to be filed pursuant to this section for any taxable period in which the limited liability company had a nonresident member on whose behalf the agreement has not been previously filed.

(g) Any amount paid by the limited liability company to this state pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) shall be considered to be a payment by the member on account of the income tax imposed by this state on the member for the taxable period.

(h) Every limited liability company that is classified as a corporation for California tax purposes shall be subject to the requirement to file a tax return under the provisions of Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401) and subject to the applicable taxes imposed by Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), including Section 23221, relating to the prepayment of the minimum tax to the Secretary of State.

(i) The amendments made to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall apply to returns required to be filed on or after January 1, 1998.

SEC. 13. Section 19021 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19021. In the case of taxpayers subject to the tax imposed by Article 3 (commencing with Section 23181) of Chapter 2 of Part 11, there shall be due and payable on or before the 15th day of the third month following the close of the preceding year from each taxpayer a percentage of its net income as disclosed by its return which is equal to the rate applicable to corporations subject to the tax imposed by Article 2 (commencing with Section 23151) of Chapter 2 of Part 11 plus the personal property tax rate equivalent included in the bank and financial corporation tax rate determination by the Franchise Tax Board pursuant to Sections 23186 and 23186.1. The payment required by this section shall not be less than the minimum tax specified in Section 23153.

SEC. 14. Section 19024 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19024. (a) In the case of banks and financial corporations, "estimated tax" means the amount which the bank or financial corporation estimates as the amount of the tax imposed by Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) at the rate determined by the Franchise Tax Board for the preceding year pursuant to Section 23186.1, but in no event shall the estimated tax of a financial corporation be less than the minimum tax prescribed in Section 23153.

(b) In case of an increase or decrease in the rate of tax imposed under Section 23151 (tax on general corporations), a bank or financial corporation shall be required to increase or decrease the rate determined by the Franchise Tax Board for the preceding year by the same amount as the change in the rate imposed under Section 23151 determined in accordance with Section 24251 (relating to computation of tax when law changed).

SEC. 15. Section 19141.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19141.6. (a) Each taxpayer determining its income subject to tax pursuant to Section 25101 or electing to file pursuant to Section 25110 shall, for income years beginning on or after January 1, 1994, maintain (in the location, in the manner, and to the extent prescribed in regulations which shall be promulgated by the Franchise Tax Board on or before December 31, 1995) and make available upon request all of the following:

(1) Any records as may be appropriate to determine the correct treatment of the components that are a part of one or more unitary businesses for purposes of determining the income derived from or attributable to this state pursuant to Section 25101 or 25110.

(2) Any records as may be appropriate to determine the correct treatment of amounts that are attributable to the classification of an item as business or nonbusiness income for purposes of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11.

(3) Any records as may be appropriate to determine the correct treatment of the apportionment factors for purposes of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11.

(4) Documents and information, including any questionnaires completed and submitted to the Internal Revenue Service that are necessary to audit issues involving attribution of income to the United States or foreign jurisdictions under Section 882, Subpart F (commencing with Section 951) of, Part III (commencing with Section 901) of Subchapter N, or similar sections, of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) Information for any year shall be retained for that period of time in which the taxpayers' income or franchise tax liability to this state may be subject to adjustment, including all periods in which additional income or franchise taxes may be assessed, not to exceed eight years from the due date or extended due date of the return, or during which a protest is pending before the Franchise Tax Board, or an appeal is pending before the State Board of Equalization or a lawsuit is pending in the courts of this state or the United States with respect to California franchise or income tax.

(2) "Related party" means banks and corporations that are related because one owns or controls directly or indirectly more than 50 percent of the stock of the other or because more than 50 percent of the voting stock of each is owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by the same interests.

(c) (1) If a bank or corporation subject to this section fails to maintain or fails to cause another to maintain records as required by subdivision (a), that bank or corporation shall pay a penalty of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each income year with respect to which the failure occurs.

(2) If any failure described in paragraph (1) continues for more than 90 days after the day on which the Franchise Tax Board mails notice of the failure to the bank or corporation, that bank or corporation shall pay a penalty (in addition to the amount required under paragraph (1)) of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each 30-day period (or fraction thereof) during which the failure continues after the expiration of the 90-day period. The additional penalty imposed by this subdivision shall not exceed a maximum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) if the failure to maintain or the failure to cause another to maintain is not willful. This maximum shall apply with respect to income years beginning on or after January 1, 1994, and before the earlier of the first day of the month following the month in which regulations are adopted pursuant to this section or December 31, 1995.

(3) For purposes of this section, the time prescribed by regulations to maintain records (and the beginning of the 90-day period after notice by the Franchise Tax Board) shall be treated as not earlier than the last day on which (as shown to the satisfaction of the Franchise Tax Board) reasonable cause existed for failure to maintain the records.

(d) (1) The Franchise Tax Board may apply the rules of paragraph (2) whether or not the board begins a proceeding to enforce a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum, if subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C) apply:

(A) For purposes of determining the correct treatment under Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) of the items described in subdivision (a), the Franchise Tax Board issues a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum to a bank or corporation to produce (either directly or as agent for the related party) any records or testimony.

(B) The subpoena or subpoena duces tecum is not quashed in a proceeding begun under paragraph (3) and is not determined to be invalid in a proceeding begun under Section 19504 to enforce the subpoena or subpoena duces tecum.

(C) The bank or corporation does not substantially comply in a timely manner with the subpoena or subpoena duces tecum and the Franchise Tax Board has sent by certified or registered mail a notice to that bank or corporation that it has not substantially complied.

(D) If the bank or corporation fails to maintain or fails to cause another to maintain records as required by subdivision (a), and by reason of that failure, the subpoena or subpoena duces tecum is quashed in a proceeding described in subparagraph (B) or the bank or corporation is not able to provide the records requested in the subpoena or subpoena duces tecum, the Franchise Tax Board may apply the rules of paragraph (2) to any of the items described in subdivision (a) to which the records relate.

(2) (A) All of the following shall be determined by the Franchise Tax Board in the Franchise Tax Board's sole discretion from the Franchise Tax Board's own knowledge or from information the Franchise Tax Board may obtain through testimony or otherwise:

(i) The components that are a part of one or more unitary businesses for purposes of determining the income derived from or attributable to this state pursuant to Section 25101 or 25110.

(ii) Amounts that are attributable to the classification of an item as business or nonbusiness income for purposes of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11.

(iii) The apportionment factors for purposes of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11.

(iv) The correct amount of income under Section 882 of, Subpart F (commencing with Section 951) of, Part III (commencing with Section 901) of Subchapter N of, or similar sections of, the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) This paragraph shall apply to determine the correct treatment of the items described in subdivision (a) unless the bank or corporation is authorized by its related parties (in the manner and at the time as the Franchise Tax Board shall prescribe) to act as the related parties' limited agent solely for purposes of applying Section 19504 with respect to any request by the Franchise Tax Board to examine records or produce testimony related to any item described in subdivision (a) or with respect to any subpoena or subpoena duces tecum for the records or testimony. The appearance of persons or the production of records by reason of the bank or corporation being an agent shall not subject those persons or records to legal process for any purpose other than determining the correct treatment under Part 11 of the items described in subdivision (a).

(C) Determinations made in the sole discretion of the Franchise Tax Board pursuant to this paragraph may be appealed to the State Board of Equalization, in the manner and at a time, as provided by Section 19045 or 19324, or may be the subject of an action to recover tax, in the manner and at a time, as provided by Section 19382. The review of determinations by the board or the court shall be limited to whether the determinations were arbitrary or capricious, or are not supported by substantial evidence.

(3) (A) Notwithstanding any other law or rule of law, any reporting bank or corporation to which the Franchise Tax Board issues a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum referred to in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) shall have the right to begin a proceeding to quash the subpoena or subpoena duces tecum not later than the 90th day after the subpoena or subpoena duces tecum was issued. In that proceeding, the Franchise Tax Board may seek to compel compliance with the subpoena or subpoena duces tecum.

(B) Notwithstanding any other law or rule of law, any reporting bank or corporation that has been notified by the Franchise Tax Board that it has determined that the bank or corporation has not substantially complied with a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum referred to in paragraph (1) shall have the right to begin a proceeding to review the determination not later than the 90th day after the day on which the notice referred to in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1) was mailed. If the proceeding is not begun on or before the 90th day, the determination by the Franchise Tax Board shall be binding and shall not be reviewed by any court.

(C) The superior courts of the State of California for the Counties of Los Angeles, Sacramento, and San Diego, and for the City and County of San Francisco shall have jurisdiction to hear any proceeding brought under subparagraphs (A) and (B). Any order or other determination in the proceeding shall be treated as a final order that may be appealed.

(D) If any bank or corporation takes any action as provided in subparagraphs (A) and (B), the running of any period of limitations under Sections 19057 to 19064, inclusive (relating to the assessment and collection of tax), or under Section 19704 (relating to criminal prosecutions) with respect to that bank or corporation shall be suspended for the period during which the proceedings, and appeals therein, are pending. In no event shall any period expire before the 90th day after the day on which there is a final determination in the proceeding.

SEC. 16. The heading of Article 6 (commencing with Section 19280) of Chapter 5 of Part 10.2 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended and renumbered to read:

Article 5.5. Collection of Amounts Imposed by a Court

SEC. 17. Section 19280 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19280. (a) (1) Fines, state or local penalties, forfeitures, restitution fines, restitution orders, or any other amounts imposed by a superior, municipal, or justice court of the State of California upon a person or any other entity that is due and payable in an amount totaling no less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250), in the aggregate, for criminal offenses, including all offenses involving a violation of the Vehicle Code except offenses relating to parking or registration or offenses by pedestrians or bicyclists, may, no sooner than 90 days after payment of that amount becomes delinquent, be referred by the county or the state to the Franchise Tax Board for collection under guidelines prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision:

(A) The amounts referred by the county or state under this section may include any amounts that a government entity may add to the court imposed obligation as a result of the underlying offense, trial, or conviction. For purposes of this article, those amounts shall be deemed to be imposed by the court.

(B) Restitution orders may be referred to the Franchise Tax Board only by a government entity, as agreed upon by the Franchise Tax Board, provided that all of the following apply:

(i) The government entity has the authority to collect on behalf of the state or the victim.

(ii) The government entity shall be responsible for distributing the restitution order collections, as appropriate.

(iii) The government entity shall ensure, in making the referrals and distributions, that it coordinates with any other related collection activities that may occur by counties or other state agencies.

(iv) The government entity shall ensure compliance with laws relating to the reimbursement of the State Restitution Fund.

(C) The Franchise Tax Board shall establish criteria for referral, which shall include setting forth a minimum dollar amount subject to referral and collection.

(b) For the period January 1, 1995, to December 31, 1997, inclusive, for purposes of a manageable implementation and evaluation of the program authorized by this article, the Franchise Tax Board may limit referrals to nine counties.

(c) Upon written notice to the obligor from the Franchise Tax Board, any amount referred to the Franchise Tax Board under subdivision (a) and any interest thereon, including any interest on the amount referred under subdivision (a) that accrued prior to the date of referral, shall be treated as final and due and payable to the State of California, and shall be collected from the obligor by the Franchise Tax Board in any manner authorized under the law for collection of a delinquent personal income tax liability, including, but not limited to, issuance of an order and levy under Article 4 (commencing with Section 706.070) of Chapter 5 of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure in the manner provided for earnings withholding orders for taxes.

(d) (1) Part 10 (commencing with Section 18401), this part, Part 10.7 (commencing with Section 21001), and Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) shall apply to amounts referred under this article in the same manner and with the same force and effect and to the full extent as if the language of those laws had been incorporated in full into this article, except to the extent that any provision is either inconsistent with this article or is not relevant to this article.

(2) Any information, information sources, or enforcement remedies and capabilities available to the court or the state referring the amount due described in subdivision (a), shall be available to the Franchise Tax Board to be used in conjunction with, or independent of, the information, information sources, or remedies and capabilities available to the Franchise Tax Board for purposes of administering Part 10 (commencing with Section 18401), this part, Part 10.7 (commencing with Section 21001), or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

(e) The activities required to implement and administer this part shall not interfere with the primary mission of the Franchise Tax Board to administer Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) and Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

(f) For amounts referred for collection under subdivision (a), interest shall accrue at the greater of the rate applicable to the amount due being collected or the rate provided under Section 19521. When notice of the amount due includes interest and is mailed to the obligor and the amount is paid within 15 days after the date of notice, interest shall not be imposed for the period after the date of notice.

(g) In no event shall a collection under this article be construed as a payment of income taxes imposed under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

SEC. 18. Section 19282 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19282. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (e), amounts collected under this article shall be transmitted to the Treasurer and deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the Court Collection Account in the General Fund, which is hereby created. Amounts deposited in the Court Collection Account shall, less an amount that is equal to the costs incurred by the Franchise Tax Board in administering the program authorized by this article, be transferred by the Controller either to the county or to the state fund to which the amount due was originally owing or as otherwise directed by contractual agreement. If the amount collected is not sufficient to satisfy the amounts referred for collection pursuant to Section 19280 that are to be paid by an offender, then the amount paid shall be allocated for distribution on a pro rata basis, as defined in subdivision (d), except in counties where the board of supervisors has established a priority of payment for amounts collected under this article pursuant to Section 1203.1d of the Penal Code. The amount that is equal to the costs incurred by the Franchise Tax Board in administering the program authorized by this article shall be transferred by the Controller to the General Fund for the purpose of recovering the amount expended by the Franchise Tax Board from General Fund appropriations for the purpose of implementing and administering the program authorized by this article, and related statutes as added or amended by the act adding this article.

(b) It is the intent of the Legislature that costs to the Franchise Tax Board to administer this article for the 1997–98 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter not exceed 15 percent of the amount it collects pursuant to this article.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 13340 of the Government Code, all moneys deposited in the Court Collection Account pursuant to this section are hereby continuously appropriated, without regard to fiscal years, for purposes of making distributions pursuant to subdivision (a).

(d) For purposes of this section, "pro rata basis" means a distribution determined as follows: the sum of the amounts referred for collection pursuant to Section 19280 to be paid by an offender shall be allocated and distributed in the same proportion that each of the elements has to the sum.

(e) For amounts collected pursuant to a restitution fine or restitution order, subdivision (a) is modified to require the deposit and disbursement of funds collected under this article to be in accordance with the laws relating to reimbursement of the State Restitution Fund.

SEC. 19. Section 19283 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19283. This article shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2002, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which is enacted before January 1, 2002, deletes or extends this date.

SEC. 19.3. Section 19340 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19340. Interest shall be allowed and paid on any overpayment in respect of any tax, at the adjusted annual rate established pursuant to Section 19521, as follows:

(a) In the case of a credit, from the date of the overpayment to the due date of the amount for which the credit is allowed. Any interest allowed on any credit shall first be credited on any amounts due from the taxpayer under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), this part, or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

(b) In the case of a refund, including a refund in excess of tax liability as prescribed in subdivision (j) of Section 17053.5, from the date of the overpayment to a date preceding the date of the refund warrant by not more than 30 days, the date to be determined by the Franchise Tax Board.

SEC. 20. Section 19532 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Chapter 1001 of the Statutes of 1996, is amended and renumbered to read:

19533. In the event the debtor has more than one debt being collected by the Franchise Tax Board and the amount collected by the Franchise Tax Board is insufficient to satisfy the total amount owing, the amount collected shall be applied in the following priority:

(a) Payment of any taxes, additions to tax, penalties, interest, fees, or other amounts due and payable under Part 7.5 (commencing with Section 13201), Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), or this part.

(b) Payment of any debts referred for collection under Article 5 (commencing with Section 19271) of Chapter 5.

(c) Payment of delinquent wages collected pursuant to the Labor Code.

(e) Payment of any amounts due that are referred for collection under Article 5.5 (commencing with Section 19280) of Chapter 5.

(f) Payment of any amounts that are referred for collection pursuant to Section 62.9 of the Labor Code.

(g) Payment of delinquent penalties collected for the Department of Industrial Relations pursuant to the Labor Code.

(h) Payment of delinquent fees collected for the Department of Industrial Relations pursuant to the Labor Code.

(i) Payment of delinquencies referred by the Student Aid Commission pursuant to Section 16583.5 of the Government Code.

(j) Notwithstanding the payment priority established by this section, voluntary payments made by an obligated parent for a child support delinquency pursuant to subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 19271 shall not be applied pursuant to this priority but shall instead be applied solely to the child support delinquency for which the voluntary payment was made.

SEC. 21. Section 23114 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

23114. A corporation shall not be subject to the taxes imposed by this chapter if the corporation did no business in this state during the income year and the income year was 15 days or less.

SEC. 22. Section 23183.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23183.1. Notwithstanding Section 23183, every financial corporation doing business within the limits of this state and not exempted from taxation by the Constitution of this state or by this part, shall annually pay to the state for the privilege of exercising its corporate franchises within this state, a tax determined as follows:

(a) If a financial corporation commences to do business and ceases doing business in the same taxable year, the tax for that taxable year shall be according to or measured by its net income for that year, at the rate provided under Section 23186.

(b) With respect to taxable years other than the year of commencement described in subdivision (a) or the year of cessation described in subdivision (c), a tax according to or measured by its net income, to be computed at the rate prescribed in Section 23186 upon the basis of its net income for the next preceding income year.

(c) With respect to financial corporations, which cease doing business in a taxable year other than those described in subdivision (a), the tax for the taxable year of cessation shall be:

(1) According to or measured by its net income for the next preceding income year to be computed at the rate prescribed in Section 23186, plus

(2) According to or measured by its net income for the income year during which the financial corporation ceased doing business, to be computed at the rate prescribed in Section 23186.

SEC. 23. Section 23183.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23183.2. Notwithstanding Section 23183, every financial corporation not exempted from taxation by the provisions of the Constitution of this state or by this part which dissolves or withdraws, shall pay a tax for its taxable year of dissolution or withdrawal according to or measured by its net income for the income year in which it ceased doing business, to be computed at the rate prescribed in Section 23186 for its taxable year of dissolution or withdrawal, unless the income has previously been included in the measure of tax for any taxable year.

SEC. 24. Section 23184 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 25. Section 23184.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 26. Section 23185 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 27. Section 23185a of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 28. Section 23185b of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 29. Section 23221 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23221. (a) Except as provided under subdivision (b), a corporation which incorporates under the laws of this state or qualifies to transact intrastate business in this state shall thereupon prepay the minimum tax provided in Section 23153, except that any credit union shall thereupon prepay a tax of twenty-five dollars ($25). The prepayment shall be made to the Secretary of State with the filing of the articles of incorporation or the statement and designation by a foreign corporation. The Secretary of State shall transmit the amount of the prepayment to the Franchise Tax Board. The Franchise Tax Board shall certify to the Secretary of State on an individual or class basis those domestic or foreign corporations which are exempt from prepayment or for which prepayment to the Secretary of State is waived.

(b) For income years commencing on or after January 1, 1997, the amount payable by a qualified new corporation under subdivision (a) shall be six hundred dollars ($600).

(c) For purposes of this section, "qualified new corporation" means a corporation that reasonably estimates that, for the income year, it will have both gross receipts, less returns and allowances reportable to this state, of one million dollars ($1,000,000) or less and a tax liability under Section 23151 that does not exceed eight hundred dollars ($800).

(1) The determination of gross receipts of a corporation, for purposes of this section, shall be made by including the gross receipts of each member of the commonly controlled group, as defined in Section 25105, of which the bank or corporation is a member.

(2) "Gross receipts, less returns and allowances reportable to this state" means the sum of the gross receipts from the production of business income, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 25120, and the gross receipts from the production of nonbusiness income, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 25120.

(d) Subdivision (b) shall not apply to any corporation if 50 percent or more of its stock is, or will be upon the initial issuance of stock, owned by another corporation.

(e) For income years commencing on or after January 1, 1997, if a corporation paid six hundred dollars ($600) under subdivision (b), but for its first income year the corporation's tax liability under Section 23151 exceeds eight hundred dollars ($800), or the corporation's gross receipts, as determined under paragraph (2) of subdivision (c), exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), an additional tax in the amount equal to two hundred dollars ($200) shall be due and payable by the corporation on the due date of its return, without regard to extension, for its first income year.

SEC. 30. Section 23332 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23332. (a) Except in the case of a taxpayer subject to the provisions of Section 23222a, any taxpayer which is dissolved or withdraws from the state during any taxable year shall pay a tax only for the months of the taxable year which precede the effective date of the dissolution or withdrawal, according to or measured by (1) the net income of the preceding income year or (2) a percentage of net income determined by ascertaining the ratio which the months of the taxable year, preceding the effective date of dissolution or withdrawal, bears to the months of the income year, whichever is the lesser amount. The taxes levied under this chapter shall not be subject to abatement or refund because of the cessation of business or corporate existence of any taxpayer pursuant to a reorganization, consolidation, or merger (as defined by Section 23251). In any event, each corporation shall pay a tax not subject to offset for the period in an amount equal to the minimum tax prescribed by Section 23153.

(b) The provisions of subdivision (a) shall be applied only with respect to taxpayers which dissolve or withdraw before January 1, 1973. On and after that date, the tax for the taxable year in which the taxpayer ceases doing business, dissolves or withdraws shall be determined under the appropriate provisions of Section 23151.1, 23153, 23181, or 23183, whichever is applicable. However, if all of the following conditions are satisfied, a minimum franchise tax shall not be imposed with respect to the taxable year in which a tax clearance certificate is issued by the Franchise Tax Board:

(2) The taxpayer files a certificate of dissolution with the Secretary of State prior to the beginning of that taxable year, in accordance with Section 1905 of the Corporations Code.

SEC. 31. Section 23332.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23332.5. If a financial corporation ceases doing business, dissolves, or withdraws from the state during any taxable year, the tax for the taxable year during which cessation of doing business, dissolution or withdrawal occurs shall be computed as prescribed by subdivision (b) or (d) of Section 23183, 23183.1, or 23183.2.

SEC. 32. Section 23455 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23455. For purposes of this part, Section 55 of the Internal Revenue Code is modified as follows:

(a) Section 55(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tentative minimum tax, is modified by requiring the tentative minimum tax for the taxable year to be imposed as follows:

(1) With respect to corporations subject to tax under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101), other than financial corporations, according to or measured by net income, for the privilege of doing business within this state, at a rate of 7 percent upon the basis of so much of the alternative minimum taxable income for the taxable year as exceeds the exemption amount.

(2) With respect to corporations subject to tax under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501), on net income from sources within this state, at a rate of 7 percent upon the basis of so much of the alternative minimum taxable income for the taxable year as exceeds the exemption amount.

(3) With respect to organizations or trusts subject to tax under Article 2 (commencing with Section 23731) of Chapter 4, on the unrelated business income from sources within this state, at a rate of 7 percent upon the basis of so much of the alternative taxable income for the taxable year as exceeds the exemption amount.

(4) With respect to banks subject to tax under Section 23181, according to or measured by net income, for the privilege of doing business within this state, in an amount equal to the sum of the following:

(A) At a rate of 7 percent upon the basis of so much of the alternative minimum taxable income as exceeds the exemption amount.

(B) At the rate determined under Section 23186, less the rate prescribed by Section 23151, upon the basis of net income for the taxable year.

(5) With respect to financial corporations subject to tax under Section 23183, according to or measured by net income, for the privilege of doing business within this state, in an amount equal to the sum of the following:

(A) At a rate of 7 percent upon the basis of so much of the alternative minimum taxable income as exceeds the exemption amount.

(B) At the rate determined under Section 23186, less the rate prescribed by Section 23151, upon the basis of net income for the taxable year.

(b) Section 55(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the definition of alternative minimum taxable income, is modified as follows:

(1) For corporations whose net income is determined under Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), alternative minimum taxable income shall be allocated and apportioned in the same manner as net income is allocated and apportioned for purposes of the regular tax.

(2) With respect to taxpayers subject to Article 4 (commencing with Section 23221) of Chapter 2, Article 4 (commencing with Section 23221) to Article 9 (commencing with Section 23361), inclusive, shall apply to the tax imposed by this section except that Section 23221 shall not apply.

(3) For purposes of computing the alternative minimum tax for taxable years in which a taxpayer commenced doing business, dissolves, withdraws, or ceases doing business, Sections 18601, 23151, 23151.1, 23151.2, 23181, 23183, 23183.1, 23183.2, 23201 to 23204, inclusive, 23222 to 23224.5, inclusive, 23282, 23332.5, and 23504 shall be applied with due regard for the rate and alternative minimum taxable income prescribed by this chapter.

(c) Section 55(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the definition of regular tax, is modified to read:

(1) For purposes of this chapter, "regular tax" means the amount of tax imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101) or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501) or Article 2 (commencing with Section 23731) of Chapter 4, but does not include any amount imposed under paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 24667 or paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 24667.

(2) The tax specified in paragraph (1) shall be the amount determined prior to reduction by any credits against the tax.

(d) The rate of 7 percent prescribed in subdivision (a) shall be 6.65 percent for any income year beginning on or after January 1, 1997. The change in rate provided in this subdivision shall be made without proration otherwise required by Section 24251.

SEC. 33. Section 23649 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23649. (a) (1) A qualified taxpayer shall be allowed a credit against the "tax," as defined in Section 23036, equal to 6 percent of the qualified cost of qualified property that is placed in service in this state.

(2) In the case of any qualified costs paid or incurred on or after January 1, 1994, and prior to the first income year of the qualified taxpayer beginning on or after January 1, 1995, the credit provided under paragraph (1) shall be claimed by the qualified taxpayer on the qualified taxpayer's return for the first income year beginning on or after January 1, 1995. No credit shall be claimed under this section on a return filed for any income year commencing prior to the qualified taxpayer's first income year beginning on or after January 1, 1995.

(b) (1) For purposes of this section, "qualified cost" means any cost that satisfies each of the following conditions:

(A) Except as otherwise provided in this subparagraph, is a cost paid or incurred by the qualified taxpayer for the construction, reconstruction, or acquisition of qualified property on or after January 1, 1994, and prior to the date this section ceases to be operative under paragraph (2) of subdivision (i). In the case of any qualified property constructed, reconstructed, or acquired by the qualified taxpayer (or any person related to the qualified taxpayer within the meaning of Section 267 or 707 of the Internal Revenue Code) pursuant to a binding contract in existence on or prior to January 1, 1994, costs paid pursuant to that contract shall be subject to allocation as follows: contract costs shall be allocated to qualified property based on a ratio of costs actually paid prior to January 1, 1994, and total contract costs actually paid. "Cost paid" shall include, without limitation, contractual deposits and option payments. To the extent of cost allocated, whether or not currently deductible or depreciable for tax purposes, to a period prior to January 1, 1994, the cost shall be deemed allocated to property acquired before January 1, 1994, and is thus not a "qualified cost."

(B) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) and subparagraph (B) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (d), is an amount upon which the qualified taxpayer has paid, directly or indirectly, as a separately stated contract amount or as determined from the records of the qualified taxpayer, sales or use tax under Part 1 (commencing with Section 6001).

(C) Is an amount properly chargeable to the capital account of the qualified taxpayer.

(2) (A) For purposes of this subdivision, any contract entered into on or after January 1, 1994, that is a successor or replacement contract to a contract that was binding prior to January 1, 1994, shall be treated as a binding contract in existence prior to January 1, 1994.

(B) If a successor or replacement contract is entered into on or after January 1, 1994, and the subject of the successor or replacement contract relates both to amounts for the construction, reconstruction, or acquisition of qualified property described in the original binding contract and to costs for the construction, reconstruction, or acquisition of qualified property not described in the original binding contract, then the portion of those amounts described in the successor or replacement contract that were not described in the original binding contract shall not be treated as costs paid or incurred pursuant to a binding contract in existence on or prior to January 1, 1994, under subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1).

(3) (A) For purposes of this section, an option contract in existence prior to January 1, 1994, under which a qualified taxpayer (or any other person related to the qualified taxpayer within the meaning of Section 267 or 707 of the Internal Revenue Code) had an option to acquire qualified property, shall be treated as a binding contract under the rules in paragraph (2). For purposes of this subparagraph, an option contract shall not include an option under which the option holder will forfeit an amount less than 10 percent of the fixed option price in the event the option is not exercised.

(B) For purposes of this section, a contract shall be treated as binding even if the contract is subject to a condition.

(c) (1) For purposes of this section, "qualified taxpayer" means any taxpayer engaged in those lines of business described in Codes 2011 to 3999, inclusive, of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition.

(2) In the case of any passthrough entity, the determination of whether a taxpayer is a qualified taxpayer shall be made at the entity level and any credit under this section or Section 17053.49 shall be allowed to the passthrough entity and passed through to the partners or shareholders in accordance with applicable provisions of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001). For purposes of this paragraph, the term "passthrough entity" means any partnership or S corporation.

(3) The Franchise Tax Board may prescribe regulations to carry out the purposes of this section, including any regulations necessary to prevent the avoidance of the effect of this section through splitups, shell corporations, partnerships, tiered ownership structures, sale-leaseback transactions, or otherwise.

(d) For purposes of this section, "qualified property" means property that is described as either of the following:

(1) Tangible personal property that is defined in Section 1245(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for use by a qualified taxpayer in those lines of business described in Codes 2011 to 3999, inclusive, of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition, that is primarily used for any of the following:

(A) For the manufacturing, processing, refining, fabricating, or recycling of property, beginning at the point at which any raw materials are received by the qualified taxpayer and introduced into the process and ending at the point at which the manufacturing, processing, refining, fabricating, or recycling has altered tangible personal property to its completed form, including packaging, if required.

(C) To maintain, repair, measure, or test any property described in this paragraph.

(D) For pollution control that meets or exceeds standards established by the state or by any local or regional governmental agency within the state.

(2) The value of any capitalized labor costs that are directly allocable to the construction or modification of property described in paragraph (1).

(3) In the case of any qualified taxpayer engaged in manufacturing activities described in SIC Code 357 or 367, those activities related to biotechnology described in SIC Code 8731, those activities related to biopharmaceutical establishments only that are described in SIC Codes 2833 to 2836, inclusive, those activities related to space vehicles and parts described in SIC Codes 3761 to 3769, inclusive, those activities related to space satellites and communications satellites and equipment described in SIC Codes 3663 and 3812 (but only with respect to "qualified property" that is placed in service on or after January 1, 1996), or those activities related to semiconductor equipment manufacturing described in SIC Code 3559 (but only with respect to "qualified property" that is placed in service on or after January 1, 1997), "qualified property" also includes the following:

(A) Special purpose buildings and foundations that are constructed or modified for use by the qualified taxpayer primarily in a manufacturing, processing, refining, or fabricating process, or as a research or storage facility primarily used in connection with a manufacturing process.

(B) The value of any capitalized labor costs that are directly allocable to the construction or modification of special purpose buildings and foundations that are used primarily in the manufacturing, processing, refining, or fabricating process, or as a research or storage facility primarily used in connection with a manufacturing process.

(C) (i) For purposes of this paragraph, "special purpose building and foundation" means only a building and the foundation immediately underlying the building that is specifically designed and constructed or reconstructed for the installation, operation, and use of specific machinery and equipment with a special purpose, which machinery and equipment, after installation, will become affixed to or a fixture of the real property, and the construction or reconstruction of which is specifically designed and used exclusively for the specified purposes as set forth in subparagraph (A) ("qualified purpose").

(ii) A building is specifically designed and constructed or modified for a qualified purpose if it is not economical to design and construct the building for the intended purpose and then use the structure for a different purpose.

(iii) For purposes of clause (i) and clause (vi), a building is used exclusively for a qualified purpose only if its use does not include a use for which it was not specifically designed and constructed or modified. Incidental use of a building for nonqualified purposes does not preclude the building from being a special purpose building. "Incidental use" means a use which is both related and subordinate to the qualified purpose. It will be conclusively presumed that a use is not subordinate if more than one-third of the total usable volume of the building is devoted to a use which is not a qualified purpose.

(iv) In the event an entire building does not qualify as a special purpose building, a taxpayer may establish that a portion of a building, and the foundation immediately underlying the portion, qualifies for treatment as a special purpose building and foundation if the portion satisfies all of the definitional provisions in this subparagraph.

(v) To the extent that a building is not a special purpose building as defined above, but a portion of the building qualifies for treatment as a special purpose building, then all equipment which exclusively supports the qualified purpose occurring within that portion and which would qualify as Internal Revenue Code Section 1245 property if it were not a fixture or affixed to the building shall be treated as a cost of the portion of the building which qualifies for treatment as a special purpose building.

(vi) Buildings and foundations which do not meet the definition of a special purpose building and foundation set forth above include, but are not limited to: buildings designed and constructed or reconstructed principally to function as a general purpose manufacturing, industrial, or commercial building; research facilities that are used primarily prior to or after, or prior to and after, the manufacturing process; or storage facilities that are used primarily prior to or after, or prior to and after, completion of the manufacturing process. A research facility shall not be considered to be used primarily prior to or after, or prior to and after, the manufacturing process if its purpose and use relate exclusively to the development and regulatory approval of the manufacturing process for specific biopharmaceutical products. A research facility which is used primarily in connection with the discovery of an organism from which a biopharmaceutical product or process is developed does not meet the requirements of the preceding sentence.

(4) Subject to the provisions in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), qualified property also includes computer software that is primarily used for those purposes set forth in paragraph (1) of this subdivision.

(5) Qualified property does not include any of the following:

(C) Inventory.

(G) Any vehicle for which a credit is claimed pursuant to Section 17052.11 or 23603.

(e) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Biopharmaceutical activities" means those activities which use organisms or materials derived from organisms, and their cellular, subcellular, or molecular components, in order to provide pharmaceutical products for human or animal therapeutics and diagnostics. Biopharmaceutical activities make use of living organisms to make commercial products, as opposed to pharmaceutical activities which make use of chemical compounds to produce commercial products.

(2) "Fabricating" means to make, build, create, produce, or assemble components or property to work in a new or different manner.

(3) "Manufacturing" means the activity of converting or conditioning property by changing the form, composition, quality, or character of the property for ultimate sale at retail or use in the manufacturing of a product to be ultimately sold at retail. Manufacturing includes any improvements to tangible personal property that result in a greater service life or greater functionality than that of the original property.

(4) "Other biotechnology activities" means activities consisting of the application of recombinant DNA technology to produce commercial products, as well as activities regarding pharmaceutical delivery systems designed to provide a measure of control over the rate, duration, and site of pharmaceutical delivery.

(5) "Primarily" means tangible personal property used 50 percent or more of the time in an activity described in subdivision (d).

(6) "Process" means the period beginning at the point at which any raw materials are received by the qualified taxpayer and introduced into the manufacturing, processing, refining, fabricating, or recycling activity of the qualified person and ending at the point at which the manufacturing, processing, refining, fabricating, or recycling activity of the qualified taxpayer has altered tangible personal property to its completed form, including packaging, if required. Raw materials shall be considered to have been introduced into the process when the raw materials are stored on the same premises where the qualified taxpayer's manufacturing, processing, refining, fabricating, or recycling activity is conducted. Raw materials that are stored on premises other than where the qualified taxpayer's manufacturing, processing, refining, fabricating, or recycling activity is conducted, shall not be considered to have been introduced into the manufacturing, processing, refining, fabricating, or recycling process.

(7) "Processing" means the physical application of the materials and labor necessary to modify or change the characteristics of property.

(8) "Refining" means the process of converting a natural resource to an intermediate or finished product.

(9) "Research and development" means those activities that are described in Section 174 of the Internal Revenue Code or in any regulations thereunder.

(10) "Small business" means a qualified taxpayer that meets any of the following requirements during the income year for which the credit is allowed:

(C) Has a total credit of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000).

(D) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, is engaged in biopharmaceutical activities or other biotechnology activities that are described in Codes 2833 to 2836, inclusive, of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition, and has not received regulatory approval for any product from the United States Food and Drug Administration.

(f) The credit allowed under subdivision (a) shall apply to qualified property that is acquired by or subject to lease by a qualified taxpayer, subject to the following special rules:

(1) A lessor of qualified property, irrespective of whether the lessor is a qualified taxpayer, shall not be allowed the credit provided under subdivision (a) with respect to any qualified property leased to another qualified taxpayer.

(2) For purposes of paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (b), "binding contract" shall include any lease agreement with respect to the qualified property.

(3) (A) For purposes of determining the qualified cost paid or incurred by a lessee in any leasing transaction that is not treated as a sale under Part 1 (commencing with Section 6001), the following rules shall apply:

(i) Except as provided by subparagraph (C) of this paragraph, subparagraphs (A) and (C) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) shall not apply.

(ii) Except as provided in subparagraph (B) and clause (iii), the "qualified cost" upon which the lessee shall compute the credit provided under this section shall be equal to the original cost to the lessor (within the meaning of Section 24912) of the qualified property that is the subject of the lease.

(iii) Except as provided in clause (iv), the requirement of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) shall be treated as satisfied only if the lessor has made a timely election under either Section 6094.1 or subdivision (d) of Section 6244 and has paid sales tax reimbursement or use tax measured by the purchase price of the qualified property (within the meaning of paragraph (5) of subdivision (g) of Section 6006). For purposes of this subdivision and clause (iv), the amount of original cost to the lessor which may be taken into account under clause (ii) shall not exceed the purchase price upon which sales tax reimbursement or use tax has been paid under the preceding sentence or under clause (iv).

(iv) With respect to leases entered into between January 1, 1994, and the effective date of this clause, the lessor may elect to pay use tax measured by the purchase price of the property by reporting and paying the tax with the return of the lessor for the fourth calendar quarter of 1994. In computing the use tax under the preceding sentence, a credit shall be allowed under Part 1 (commencing with Section 6001) for all sales or use tax previously paid on the lease.

(B) For purposes of applying subparagraph (A) only, the following special rules shall apply:

(i) The original cost to the lessor of the qualified property shall be reduced by the amount of any original cost of that property that was taken into account by any predecessor lessee in computing the credit allowable under this section.

(ii) Clause (i) shall not apply in any case where the predecessor lessee was required to recapture the credit provided under this section pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (g).

(iii) For purposes of this section only, in any case where a successor lessor has acquired qualified property from a predecessor lessor in a transaction not treated as a sale under Part 1 (commencing with Section 6001), the original cost to the successor lessor of the qualified property shall be reduced by the amount of the original cost of the qualified property that was taken into account by any lessee of the predecessor lessor in computing the credit allowable under this section.

(C) In determining the original cost of any qualified property under this paragraph, only amounts paid or incurred by the lessor on or after January 1, 1994, and prior to the date this section ceases to be operative under paragraph (2) of subdivision (i), shall be taken into account. In the case of any qualified property constructed, reconstructed, or acquired by a lessor pursuant to a binding contract in existence on or prior to January 1, 1994, the allocation rule specified in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) shall apply in determining the original cost to the lessor of qualified property.

(D) Notwithstanding subparagraph (A), in the case of any leasing transaction for which the lessee is allowed the credit under this section and thereafter the lessee (or any party related to the lessee within the meaning of Section 267 or 318 of the Internal Revenue Code) acquires the qualified property from the lessor (or any successor lessor) within one year from the date the qualified property is first used by the lessee under the terms of the lease, the lessee's (or related party's) acquisition of the qualified property from the lessor (or successor lessor) shall be treated as a disposition by the lessee of the qualified property that was subject to the lease under subdivision (g).

(4) For purposes of determining the qualified cost paid or incurred by a lessee in any leasing transaction that is treated as a sale under Part 1 (commencing with Section 6001), the following rules shall apply:

(A) Subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) shall be applied by substituting the term "purchase" for the term "construction, reconstruction, or acquisition."

(C) The requirement of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) shall be treated as satisfied at the time that either the lessor or the qualified taxpayer pays sales or use tax under Part 1 (commencing with Section 6001).

(5) (A) In the case of any leasing transaction described in paragraph (3), the lessor shall provide a statement to the lessee specifying the amount of the lessor's original cost of the qualified property and the amount of that cost upon which a sales or use tax was paid within 45 days after the close of the lessee's taxable year in which the credit is allowable to the lessee under this section.

(B) The statement required under subparagraph (A) shall be made available to the Franchise Tax Board upon request.

(g) No credit shall be allowed if the qualified property is removed from the state, is disposed of to an unrelated party, or is used for any purpose not qualifying for the credit provided in this section in the same taxable year in which the qualified property is first placed in service in this state. If any qualified property for which a credit is allowed pursuant to this section is thereafter removed from this state, disposed of to an unrelated party, or used for any purpose not qualifying for the credit provided in this section within one year from the date the qualified property is first placed in service in this state, the amount of the credit allowed by this section for that qualified property shall be recaptured by adding that credit amount to the net tax of the qualified taxpayer for the taxable year in which the qualified property is disposed of, removed, or put to an ineligible use.

(h) In the case where the credit allowed by this section exceeds the "tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "tax" in the following year, and succeeding years as follows:

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), for the seven succeeding years if necessary, until the credit is exhausted.

(2) In the case of a small business, for the nine succeeding years, if necessary, until the credit is exhausted.

(i) (1) This section shall remain in effect until the date specified in paragraph (2) on which date this section shall cease to be operative, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (h), until the credit is exhausted.

(2) (A) This section shall cease to be operative on January 1, 2001, or on January 1 of the earliest year thereafter, if the total employment in this state, as determined by the Employment Development Department on the preceding January 1, does not exceed by 100,000 jobs the total employment in this state on January 1, 1994. The department shall report to the Legislature annually with respect to the determination required by the preceding sentence.

(B) For purposes of this paragraph, "total employment" means the total employment in the manufacturing sector, excluding employment in the aerospace sector.

(j) The amendments made by the act adding this subdivision shall be operative for income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, except as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (d).

SEC. 34. Section 23802 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23802. (a) Section 1363(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the taxability of an S corporation, shall not be applicable.

(b) Corporations qualifying under this chapter shall continue to be subject to the taxes imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101) and Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501), except as follows:

(1) The tax imposed under Section 23151 or 23501 shall be imposed at a rate of $1^1/_2$ percent rather than the rate specified in those sections.

(2) In the case of an "S corporation" which is also a financial corporation, the rate of tax specified in paragraph (1) shall be increased by the excess of the rate imposed under Section 23183 over the rate imposed under Section 23151.

(c) An "S corporation" shall be subject to the minimum franchise tax imposed under Section 23153.

(d) (1) For purposes of subdivision (b), an "S corporation" shall be allowed a deduction under Section 24416 or 24416.1 (relating to net operating loss deductions), but only with respect to losses incurred during periods in which the corporation had in effect a valid election to be treated as an "S corporation" for purposes of this part.

(2) Section 1371(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to denial of carryovers between "C years" and "S years," shall apply for purposes of the tax imposed under subdivision (b), except as provided in paragraph (1).

(3) The provisions of this subdivision shall not affect the amount of any item of income or loss computed in accordance with the provisions of Section 1366 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to passthrough items to shareholders.

(4) For purposes of subdivision (b) of Section 17276, relating to limitations on loss carryovers, losses passed through to shareholders of an "S corporation," to the extent otherwise allowable without application of that subdivision, shall be fully included in the net operating loss of that shareholder and then that subdivision shall be applied to the entire net operating loss.

(e) For purposes of computing the taxes specified in subdivision (b), an "S corporation" shall be allowed a deduction from income for built-in gains and passive investment income for which a tax has been imposed under this part in accordance with the provisions of Section 1374 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax imposed on certain built-in gains, or Section 1375 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax imposed on passive investment income.

(f) For purposes of computing taxes imposed under this part, as provided in subdivision (b)—

(1) An "S corporation" shall compute its deductions for amortization and depreciation in accordance with the provisions of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) of Division 2.

(2) The provisions of Section 465 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to limitation of deductions to the amount at risk, shall be applied in the same manner as in the case of an individual.

(3) (A) The provisions of Section 469 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to limitations on passive activity losses and credits, shall be applied in the same manner as in the case of an individual. For purposes of the tax imposed under Section 23151 or 23501, as modified by this section, material participation shall be determined in accordance with Section 469(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain closely held "C corporations" and personal service corporations.

(B) For purposes of this paragraph, the "adjusted gross income" of the "S corporation" shall be equal to its "net income," as determined under Section 24341 with the modifications required by this subdivision, except that no deduction shall be allowed for contributions allowed by Section 24357.

(4) The exclusion provided under Section 18152.5 shall not be allowed to an "S corporation."

(g) The provisions of Section 1363(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to recapture of LIFO benefits, shall be modified for purposes of this part to refer to Section 19102 in lieu of Section 6601 of the Internal Revenue Code.

SEC. 35. Section 23809 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23809. There is hereby imposed a tax on built-in gains attributable to California sources, determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 1374 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax imposed on certain built-in gains, as modified by this section.

(a) (1) The rate of tax specified in Section 1374(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be equal to the rate of tax imposed under Section 23151 in lieu of the rate of tax specified in Section 11(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) In the case of an "S corporation" which is also a financial corporation, the rate of tax specified in paragraph (1) shall be increased by the excess of the rate imposed under Section 23183 over the rate imposed under Section 23151.

(b) The provisions of Section 1374(b)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to credits, shall be modified to provide that the tax imposed under subdivision (a) shall not be reduced by any credits allowed under this part.

(c) The provisions of Section 1374(b)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to coordination with Section 1201(a), shall not be applicable.

(d) In the case of a corporation which is subject to the provisions of former Section 1374 of the Internal Revenue Code (prior to amendment by Public Law 99-514), the provisions of that section shall be modified to provide that:

(1) The tax specified in Section 1374(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be equal to the rate of tax imposed under Section 23151 in lieu of the rate of tax specified in Section 11(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) In the case of an "S corporation" which is also a financial corporation, the rate of tax specified in paragraph (1) shall be increased by the excess of the rate imposed under Section 23183 over the rate imposed under Section 23151.

SEC. 36. Section 23811 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23811. Except as otherwise provided in this section, there is hereby imposed a tax on passive investment income attributable to California sources, determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 1375 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax imposed on passive investment income, as modified by this section.

(a) The tax imposed under this section shall not be imposed on an "S corporation" that has no excess net passive income for federal purposes determined in accordance with Section 1375 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) (1) The rate of tax shall be equal to the rate of tax imposed under Section 23151 in lieu of Section 11(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) In the case of an "S corporation" which is also a financial corporation, the rate of tax specified in paragraph (1) shall be increased by the excess of the rate imposed under Section 23183 over the rate imposed under Section 23151.

(c) The provisions of Section 1375(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to credits, shall be modified to provide that the tax imposed under subdivision (a) shall not be reduced by any credits allowed under this part.

(d) The term "subchapter C earnings and profits" as used in Sections 1362(d)(3) and 1375 of the Internal Revenue Code shall mean the subchapter C earnings and profits of the corporation attributable to California sources determined under this part, modified as provided in subdivision (e).

(e) (1) In the case of a corporation which elects to be treated as an "S corporation" for purposes of this part for its first income year beginning in 1987, or for its first income year for which it has in effect a valid federal S election, there shall be allowed as a deduction in determining that corporation's subchapter C earnings and profits at the close of any income year the amount of any consent dividend (as provided in paragraph (2)) paid after the close of that income year.

(2) In the event there is a determination that a corporation described in paragraph (1) has subchapter C earnings and profits at the close of any income year, that corporation shall be entitled to distribute a consent dividend to its shareholders. The amount of the consent dividend shall not exceed the difference between the corporation's subchapter C earnings and profits determined under subdivision (d) at the close of the income year with respect to which the determination is made and the corporation's subchapter C earnings and profits for federal income tax purposes at the same date. A consent dividend must be paid within 90 days of the date of the determination that the corporation has subchapter C earnings and profits. For this purpose, the date of a determination means the effective date of a closing agreement pursuant to Section 19441, the date an assessment of tax imposed by this section becomes final, or the date of execution by the corporation of an agreement with the Franchise Tax Board relating to liability for the tax imposed by this section. For purposes of Part 10 and this part, a corporation must make the election provided in Section 1368(e)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code for any consent dividend.

(3) If a corporation distributes a consent dividend, it shall claim the deduction provided in paragraph (1) by filing a claim therefor with the Franchise Tax Board within 120 days of the date of the determination specified in paragraph (2).

(4) The collection of the tax imposed by this section from a corporation described in paragraph (2) shall be stayed for 120 days after the date of the determination specified in paragraph (2). If a claim is filed pursuant to paragraph (3), collection of the tax shall be further stayed until the date the claim is acted upon by the Franchise Tax Board.

(5) If a claim is filed pursuant to paragraph (3), the running of the statute of limitations on the making of assessments and actions for collection of the tax imposed by this section shall be suspended for a period of two years after the date of the determination specified in paragraph (2).

SEC. 37. Section 24416.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24416.2. The term "qualified taxpayer" as used in Section 24416.1 means any of the following:

(a) A bank or corporation engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within an enterprise zone designated pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(1) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback for any income year and a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after the date that the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated as an enterprise zone shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the 15 income years following the income year of loss.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision:

(B) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to the taxpayer's business income attributable to the enterprise zone (as defined in Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code) determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified for purposes of this section by substituting "enterprise zone" for "this state."

(C) If a loss carryover is allowable pursuant to this section for any income year after the enterprise zone designation has expired, the enterprise zone shall be deemed to remain in existence for purposes of computing the limitation set forth in subparagraph (B) and allowing a net operating loss deduction.

(D) "Enterprise zone expiration date" means the date the enterprise zone designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(b) A bank or corporation engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designated pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code.

(1) (A) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback for any income year and, except as provided in subparagraph (B), a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after the date the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone shall be a net operating loss carryover to each following income year that ends before the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone expiration date or to each of the 15 income years following the income year of loss, if longer.

(B) In the case of a financial institution to which Section 585, 586, or 593 of the Internal Revenue Code applies, a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after January 1, 1984, shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the five years following the income year of the loss. Subdivision (b) of Section 24416.1 shall not apply.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "Net operating loss" means the loss determined under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 24416.1, attributable to the taxpayer's business activities within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone (as defined in Section 7102 of the Government Code) prior to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone expiration date. The attributable loss shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified as follows:

(i) The loss shall be apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by multiplying the loss from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to the taxpayer's business income attributable to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone (as defined in Section 7102 of the Government Code) determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (3).

(C) If a loss carryover is allowable pursuant to this section for any income year after the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designation has expired, the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone shall be deemed to remain in existence for purposes of computing the limitation set forth in subparagraph (B) and allowing a net operating loss deduction.

(3) Attributable income shall be that portion of the taxpayer's California source business income which is apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone. For that purpose, the taxpayer's business income attributable to sources in this state first shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17

(commencing with Section 25101). That business income shall be further apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17, modified as follows:

(A) Business income shall be apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by multiplying total California business income of the taxpayer by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the income year and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state during the income year.

(C) The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid by the taxpayer in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the income year for compensation, and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid by the taxpayer in this state during the income year.

(4) "Los Angeles Revitalization Zone expiration date" means the date the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designation expires, is repealed, or becomes inoperative pursuant to Section 7102, 7103, or 7104 of the Government Code.

(5) This subdivision shall be inoperative on the first day of the income year beginning on or after the determination date, and each income year thereafter, with respect to the taxpayer's business activities within a geographic area that is excluded from the map pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code, or an excluded area determined pursuant to Section 7104 of the Government Code. The determination date is the earlier of the first effective date of a determination under subdivision (c) of Section 7102 of the Government Code occurring after December 1, 1994, or the first effective date of an exclusion of an area from the amended Los Angeles Revitalization Zone under Section 7104 of the Government Code. However, if the taxpayer has any unused loss amount as of the date this section becomes inoperative, that unused loss amount may continue to be carried forward as provided in this subdivision.

(6) This subdivision shall cease to be operative on January 1, 1998. However, any unused net operating loss may continue to be carried over to following years as provided in this subdivision.

(c) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1995, and before January 1, 2003, a taxpayer engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within a LAMBRA.

(1) (A) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback for any income year and, except as provided in subparagraph (B), a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after the date the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated a LAMBRA shall be a net operating loss carryover to each following income year that ends before the LAMBRA expiration date or to each of the 15 income years following the income year of loss, if longer.

(B) In the case of a financial institution to which Section 585, 586, or 593 of the Internal Revenue Code applies, a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after January 1, 1984, shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the five years following the income year of the loss. Subdivision (b) of Section 24416.1 shall not apply.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "LAMBRA" means a local agency military base recovery area designated in accordance with Section 7114 of the Government Code.

(B) "Taxpayer" means a bank or corporation that conducts a trade or business within a LAMBRA and, for the first two income years, has a net increase in jobs (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) of one or more employees in the LAMBRA and this state.

(i) The net increase in the number of jobs shall be determined by subtracting the total number of full-time employees (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) the taxpayer employed in this state in the income year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA from the total number of full-time employees the taxpayer employed in this state during the second income year after commencing business operations in the LAMBRA. For taxpayers who commence doing business in this state with their LAMBRA business operation, the number of employees for the income year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA shall be zero. The deduction shall be allowed only if the taxpayer has a net increase in jobs in the state, and if one or more full-time employees is employed within the LAMBRA.

(ii) The total number of employees employed in the LAMBRA shall equal the sum of both of the following:

(I) The total number of hours worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees (not to exceed 2,000 hours per employee) who are paid an hourly wage divided by 2,000.

(II) The total number of months worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees who are salaried employees divided by 12.

(iii) In the case of a taxpayer that first commences doing business in the LAMBRA during the income year, for purposes of subclauses (I) and (II), respectively, of clause (ii) the divisors "2,000" and "12" shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months of the income year that the taxpayer was doing business in the LAMBRA and the denominator of which is 12.

(C) "Net operating loss" means the loss determined under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 24416.1, attributable to the taxpayer's business activities within a LAMBRA prior to the LAMBRA expiration date. The attributable loss shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified as follows:

(i) Loss shall be apportioned to a LAMBRA by multiplying the loss from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(ii) "The LAMBRA" shall be substituted for "this state."

(D) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to the taxpayer's business income attributable to a LAMBRA determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified as follows:

(i) Business income shall be apportioned to a LAMBRA by multiplying total business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(ii) "The LAMBRA" shall be substituted for "this state."

(iii) If a loss carryover is allowable pursuant to this section for any income year after the LAMBRA designation has expired, the LAMBRA shall be deemed to remain in existence for purposes of computing this limitation.

(E) "LAMBRA expiration date" means the date the LAMBRA designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative pursuant to Section 7110 of the Government Code.

(d) A taxpayer who qualifies as a "qualified taxpayer" shall, for the income year of the net operating loss and any income year to which that net operating loss may be carried, designate on the original return filed for each year the subdivision of this section which applies to that taxpayer with respect to that net operating loss. If the taxpayer is eligible to qualify under more than one subdivision of this section, the designation is to be made after taking into account subdivision (e).

(e) If a taxpayer is eligible to qualify under more than one subdivision of this section as a "qualified taxpayer," with respect to a net operating loss in an income year, the taxpayer shall designate which subdivision of this section is to apply to the taxpayer.

(f) Notwithstanding Section 24416, the amount of the loss determined under this section shall be the only net operating loss allowed to be carried over from that income year and the designation under subdivision (d) shall be included in the election under Section 24416.1.

SEC. 38. Section 24602 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24602. (a) In addition to the application of Part II (commencing with Section 421) of Subchapter D of Chapter 1 of Subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain stock options, paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of Section 421(a) of the Internal Revenue Code shall also apply to any California qualified stock option that is granted to an individual whose earned income from the corporation granting the California qualified stock option for the income year in which that option is exercised does not exceed forty thousand dollars ($40,000). In the event that the option does not meet the necessary qualifications, the option shall be treated as a nonqualified stock option.

(b) For purposes of this section, "California qualified stock option" means a stock option that is issued and exercised pursuant to this section and that is designated by the corporation issuing the option as a California qualified stock option at the time the option is granted.

(c) (1) This section shall apply only to those stock options that are issued on or after January 1, 1997, and before January 1, 2002, by a corporation to its employee and are exercised by the employee, while employed by the corporation that issued those stock options (or within three months thereof, or within one year thereof if permanently and totally disabled as defined in Section 22(e)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code), during the income year with respect to any class of shares, or combination thereof, issued by the corporation, to the extent that the number of shares transferable by the exercise of the options does not exceed a total of 1,000 and have a combined fair market value of less than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000). The combined fair market value of any stock shall be determined as of the time the option with respect to that stock is granted.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall be applied by taking options into account in the order in which they were granted.

(d) In the case of a California qualified stock option, no amount shall be included in the gross income of the employee until the time of the disposition of the option (or the stock acquired upon exercise of the option). No deduction shall be allowed under Section 162 of the Internal Revenue Code to the employer on the grant or exercise of a California qualified stock option.

(e) Subdivision (d) shall not apply to any stock option for which an election has been made under Section 83(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to election to include in gross income in year of transfer.

SEC. 39. Section 24710 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24710. (a) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, Section 475 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to mark to market accounting method for securities dealers, as added by Section 13223 of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(b) Section 13233(c)(2)(C) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to the effective date for changes in the mark to market accounting method for securities dealers, is modified to provide that the amount taken into account under Section 481 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 shall be taken into account ratably over the five-income-year period beginning with the first income year beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 40. Section 24903 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 41. Section 24918 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24918. (a) Section 1017 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to discharge of indebtedness, shall apply, except as otherwise provided. References to affiliated groups which file a consolidated return under Section 1501 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be treated as meaning members of the same unitary group which file a combined report under Article 1 (commencing with Section 25101) of Chapter 17.

(b) The amendments to Section 1017 of the Internal Revenue Code made by Section 13226 of the Revenue and Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to modifications of discharge of indebtedness provisions, shall apply to discharges occurring on or after January 1, 1996, in income years beginning on or after January 1, 1996.

SEC. 42. Section 24954 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

24954. Section 1042 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to sales of stock to employee stock ownership plans or certain cooperatives, shall apply to income years beginning on or after January 1, 1996.

SEC. 43. Section 1088.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1088.5. (a) In addition to information reported in accordance with Section 1088, each employer shall file with the department the information provided in subdivision (b) on new employees.

(b) Each employer shall report all of the following information to the department:

(1) The hiring of any person who resides or works in this state to whom the employer anticipates paying earnings.

(2) The rehiring or return to work of any person who has been laid off, furloughed, separated, granted a leave without pay, or terminated from employment, and to whom the employer anticipates paying wages.

(c) Employers shall not be required to report on any of the following persons:

(2) Any person who is under 18 years of age.

(d) (1) The department and the State Department of Social Services, jointly, shall adopt rules and regulations to establish exemptions in addition to those provided in subdivision (c), if the department and the State Department of Social Services determine the exemptions are needed to reduce unnecessary or burdensome reporting or are needed to facilitate cost-effective operation of this section.

(2) The department and the State Department of Social Services shall adopt regulations required pursuant to paragraph (1) by April 1, 1993.

(e) (1) Employers shall submit a report within 30 days of the hiring, rehiring, or return to work of any person on whom the employer is required to report pursuant to this section.

(2) The report shall contain all of the following:

(A) The first initial and last name and social security number of the person.

(3) The report required by Section 1088 shall not be accepted in lieu of the report required by this section.

(f) Employers may report pursuant to this section, by submitting a copy of the employee's W-4 form, a form provided by the department, or any other hiring document, by mail or telefaxing or by any other means that is authorized by the department and that will result in timely reporting.

(g) The department shall retain information collected pursuant to this section for no more than 180 days after the end of the calendar quarter, except for purposes of enforcement of subdivision (i).

(h) The department may use the information collected pursuant to this section only for the following purposes:

(1) The administration and enforcement of this section.

(2) The identification, prevention, and collection of benefit overpayments pursuant to any of the following provisions:

(C) Section 3751.

(5) The verification of employment of applicants for, and recipients of, services under the Aid to Families with Dependent Children program or the Food Stamp Program, provided for pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 and Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 18900) of Part 6, respectively, of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(6) The identification and collection of delinquent liabilities under this code.

(7) To assist the department in determining the effectiveness of its job placement services.

(i) Information obtained by the department pursuant to this section may be released to the Franchise Tax Board for tax enforcement purposes.

(j) The department shall provide a written notice to any employer for the employer's first failure to report any new hire, rehire, or return to work of an employee. For each subsequent failure to report as required by this section that occurs after the date the employer receives notice from the department of his or her first failure to report, unless the failure is due to good cause, the employer shall be subject to a penalty of two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(k) The department shall not enforce the employer reporting requirements of this section until April 1, 1993, or when regulations are adopted pursuant to subdivision (d), whichever is sooner.

SEC. 44. Section 56 of Chapter 952 of the Statutes of 1996 is amended to read:

Sec. 56. Except as otherwise provided, the provisions of this act shall be applied to taxable or income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 45. For purposes of administering Article 6 (commencing with Section 19280) of Chapter 5 of Part 10.2 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 1242 of the Statutes of 1994, the sum of four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000) is hereby appropriated to the Franchise Tax Board, in augmentation of Item 1730-001-0242 of the Budget Act of 1997, that sum to be transferred to Item 1730-001-0001 of the Budget Act of 1997 for the purpose of funding Schedule (f) thereof, relating to court collections.

SEC. 46. The due date for the report to the Legislature required by Section 13 of Chapter 1242 of the Statutes of 1994 is hereby extended from April 1, 1998, to April 1, 2001.

SEC. 47. The Legislature finds and declares that this act repeals provisions that have been obsolete since January 1, 1981, when the provisions of Chapter 1150 of the Statutes of 1979 took effect, providing financial corporations with the same taxation treatment as banks, thereby prohibiting the imposition of personal property taxes or business license taxes on financial corporations by local jurisdictions. The repeal of Sections 23184, 23184.5, 23185, 23185a, and 23185b of the Revenue and Taxation Code made by this act shall not affect any act done or any right accruing or accrued, or any suit, appeal, or other proceeding that commenced under any of those sections before that repeal.

SEC. 48. The amendments to Sections 17053.49, 17062, 17570, 23221, 23649, 24710, and 24918 of, the addition of Section 24954 to, and the repeal of Section 24903 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, and the amendments to Section 1088.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, made by this act are intended to clarify, and are consistent with, the intent of Chapter 954 of the Statutes of 1996 and shall become operative as provided in Chapter 954 of the Statutes of 1996.

SEC. 49. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, the individual sections of this act shall become operative as otherwise specifically provided in this act.

CHAPTER 605

An act to amend Section 30 of the Business and Professions Code, to amend Section 1666.5 of the Insurance Code, to amend Sections 17052.15, 17053.45, 17053.46, 17220, 18402, 18604, 18606, 18621.5, 18637, 18638, 18639, 18645, 18662, 18670, 19009, 19011, 19021, 19023, 19024, 19058, 19132.5, 19141.5, 19141.6, 19147, 19164, 19192, 19254, 19263, 19301, 19340, 19392, 19411, 19542, 19563, 19701, 19705, 19706, 19719, 23037, 23038, 23040.1, 23095, 23098, 23151, 23151.1, 23151.2, 23153, 23183.1, 23183.2, 23186, 23303, 23305.2, 23332, 23332.5, 23334, 23455, 23501, 23610.5, 23612.6, 23623.5, 23625, 23645, 23646, 23731, 23802, 23809, 23811, 24346, 24356.4, 24356.8, 24357, 24358, 24359, 24402, 24407, 24408, 24409, 24411, 24416, 24416.2, 24677, 24678, 24901, 24912, 24916, 24917, 24942, 25105, 25110, 25111, 25112, and 25128 of, and to repeal Sections 23184, 23184.5, 23185, 23185a, 23185b, 23186.1, 23186.2, and 23186.5 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, and to amend Section 56 of Chapter 952 of the Statutes of 1996, relating to taxation.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 30 of the Business and Professions Code is amended to read:

30. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any board, as defined in Section 22, and the State Bar and the Department of Real Estate shall at the time of issuance or renewal of the license require that any licensee provide its federal employer identification number if the licensee is a partnership or his or her social security number for all others.

(b) Any licensee failing to provide the federal identification number or social security number shall be reported by the licensing board to the Franchise Tax Board and, if failing to provide after notification pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 19528 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, shall be subject to the penalty provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 19528 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(c) In addition to the penalty specified in subdivision (b), a licensing board may not process any application for an original license or for renewal of a license unless the applicant or licensee provides its federal employer identification number or social security number where requested on the application.

(d) A licensing board shall, upon request of the Franchise Tax Board, furnish to the Franchise Tax Board the following information with respect to every licensee:

(2) Address or addresses of record.

(3) Federal employer identification number if the entity is a partnership or social security number for all others.

(5) Effective date of license or a renewal.

(6) Expiration date of license.

(7) Whether license is active or inactive, if known.

(8) Whether license is new or a renewal.

(e) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Licensee" means any entity, other than a corporation, authorized by a license, certificate, registration, or other means to engage in a business or profession regulated by this code or referred to in Section 1000 or 3600.

(2) "License" includes a certificate, registration, or any other authorization needed to engage in a business or profession regulated by this code or referred to in Section 1000 or 3600.

(3) "Licensing board" means any board, as defined in Section 22, the State Bar, and the Department of Real Estate.

(f) The reports required under this section shall be filed on magnetic media or in other machine-readable form, according to standards furnished by the Franchise Tax Board.

(g) Licensing boards shall provide to the Franchise Tax Board the information required by this section at a time that the Franchise Tax Board may require.

(h) Notwithstanding Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the social security number and federal employer identification number furnished pursuant to this section shall not be deemed to be a public record and shall not be open to the public for inspection.

(i) Any deputy, agent, clerk, officer, or employee of any licensing board described in subdivision (a), or any former officer or employee or other individual who in the course of his or her employment or duty has or has had access to the information required to be furnished under this section, may not disclose or make known in any manner that information, except as provided in this section to the Franchise Tax Board or as provided in subdivision (k).

(j) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to utilize the social security account number or federal employer identification number for the purpose of establishing the identification of persons affected by state tax laws and for purposes of compliance with Section 11350.6 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and, to that end, the information furnished pursuant to this section shall be used exclusively for those purposes.

(k) If the board utilizes a national examination to issue a license, and if a reciprocity agreement or comity exists between the State of California and the state requesting release of the social security number, any deputy, agent, clerk, officer, or employee of any licensing board described in subdivision (a) may release a social security number to an examination or licensing entity, only for the purpose of verification of licensure or examination status.

SEC. 2. Section 1666.5 of the Insurance Code is amended to read:

1666.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the commissioner shall at the time of issuance or renewal of any license under this chapter or Chapter 6 (commencing with Section 1760), Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 1800), or Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 1831) require that any licensee provide its federal employer identification number if the licensee is a partnership or his or her social security number for all others.

(b) Any licensee failing to provide the federal identification number or social security number shall be reported by the commissioner to the Franchise Tax Board and, if failing to provide after notification pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 19528 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, shall be subject to the penalty provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 19528 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(c) The commissioner shall, upon request of the Franchise Tax Board, furnish to the board all of the following information with respect to every licensee:

(3) Federal employer identification number if the entity is a partnership or owner's name and social security number for all others.

(6) Expiration date of license.

(7) Whether license is active or inactive, if known.

(8) Whether license is new or a renewal.

(d) For the purposes of this section:

(1) "Licensee" means any entity, other than a corporation, authorized by a license, certificate, registration, or other means to engage in the insurance business regulated by this code.

(2) "License" includes a certificate, registration, or any other authorization needed to engage in the insurance business regulated by this code.

(e) The reports required under this section shall be filed on magnetic media or in other machine-readable form, according to standards furnished by the Franchise Tax Board.

(f) The commissioner shall begin providing to the Franchise Tax Board the information required by this section as soon as economically feasible, but no later than July 1, 1987. The information shall be furnished at a time that the Franchise Tax Board may require.

(g) Notwithstanding Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code, the information furnished pursuant to this section shall not be deemed to be a public record and shall not be open to the public for inspection.

(h) Any deputy, agent, clerk, officer, or employee of the commissioner, or any former officer or employee or other individual who in the course of his or her employment or duty has or has had access to the information required to be furnished under this section, shall not disclose or make known in any manner that information, except as provided in this section to the Franchise Tax Board.

(i) It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to utilize the social security account number or federal employer identification number for the purpose of establishing the identification of persons affected by state tax laws and, to that end, the information furnished pursuant to this section shall be used exclusively for tax enforcement purposes.

SEC. 3. Section 17052.15 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17052.15. (a) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, and before January 1, 1998, there shall be allowed a credit against the "net tax," as defined in Section 17039, an amount equal to the sales or use tax paid or incurred during the taxable year by the taxpayer in connection with the taxpayer's purchase of qualified property.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Taxpayer" means a person or entity engaged in a trade or business within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designated pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code.

(2) "Qualified property" means the purchase on or after May 1, 1992, and before the zone expiration date, of either or both of the following:

(A) Building materials to replace or repair the taxpayer's building and fixtures.

(B) Machinery or equipment, excluding inventory, to be used by the taxpayer exclusively in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone.

(3) "Zone expiration date" means the date the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designation expires, is repealed, or becomes inoperative pursuant to Section 7102, 7103, or 7104 of the Government Code.

(c) If the taxpayer is allowed a credit for qualified property pursuant to this section, only one credit shall be allowed to the taxpayer under this part with respect to that qualified property.

(d) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds the net tax for the taxable year, that portion of the credit that exceeds the net tax may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in succeeding taxable years for the number of taxable years in which the designation of the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone under Section 7102 of the Government Code is operative, or 15 taxable years, if longer, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest taxable years possible.

(e) Any taxpayer who elects to be subject to this section shall not be entitled to increase the basis of the property as otherwise required by Section 164(a) of the Internal Revenue Code with respect to the sales and use tax paid or incurred in connection with the taxpayer's purchase of qualified property.

(f) (1) The amount of credit otherwise allowed under this section and Sections 17053.10 and 17053.17, including any credit carryover from prior years, that may reduce the net tax for the taxable year shall not exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the taxpayer's business income attributable to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone (designated pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code) determined as if that attributable income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributable income described in paragraph (1) shall be that portion of the taxpayer's California source business income which is apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone. For that purpose, the taxpayer's business income attributable to sources in this state first shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101) of Part 11. That business income shall be further apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11, modified as follows:

(A) Business income shall be apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by multiplying total California business income of the taxpayer by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the taxable year and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state during the taxable year.

(C) The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid by the taxpayer in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the taxable year for compensation, and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid by the taxpayer in this state during the taxable year.

(3) The portion of the credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding taxable years, as if it were an amount exceeding the net tax for the taxable year, as provided in subdivision (d).

(g) If the qualified property is disposed of or no longer used by the taxpayer in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone, at any time before the close of the second taxable year after the property is placed in service, the amount of the credit previously claimed shall be added to the taxpayer's tax liability in the taxable year of that disposition or nonuse.

(h) This section shall be inoperative on the first day of the taxable year beginning on or after the determination date, and each taxable year thereafter, with respect to the taxpayer's business activities within a geographic area that is excluded from the map pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code, or an excluded area determined pursuant to Section 7104 of the Government Code. The determination date is the earlier of the first effective date of a determination under subdivision (c) of Section 7102 of the Government Code occurring after December 1, 1994, or the first effective date of an exclusion of an area from the amended Los Angeles Revitalization Zone under Section 7104 of the Government Code. However, if the taxpayer has any unused credit amount as of the date this section becomes inoperative, that unused credit amount may continue to be carried forward as provided in subdivision (d).

(i) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1998, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (d).

SEC. 4. Section 17053.45 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17053.45. (a) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1995, and before January 1, 2003, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined by Section 17039) an amount equal to the sales or use tax paid or incurred by the taxpayer in connection with the purchase of qualified property to the extent that the qualified property does not exceed a value of one million dollars ($1,000,000).

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "LAMBRA" means a local agency military base recovery area designated in accordance with Section 7114 of the Government Code.

(2) "Taxpayer" means a taxpayer or partnership that conducts a trade or business within a LAMBRA and, for the first two taxable years, has a net increase in jobs (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) of one or more employees in the LAMBRA.

(A) The net increase in the number of jobs shall be determined by subtracting the total number of full-time employees (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) the taxpayer employed in this state in the taxable year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA from the total number of full-time employees the taxpayer employed in this state during the second taxable year after commencing business operations in the LAMBRA. For taxpayers who commence doing business in this state with their LAMBRA business operation, the number of employees for the taxable year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA shall be zero. If the taxpayer has a net increase in jobs in the state, the credit shall be allowed only if one or more full-time employees is employed within the LAMBRA.

(B) The total number of employees employed in the LAMBRA shall equal the sum of both of the following:

(i) The total number of hours worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees (not to exceed 2,000 hours per employee) who are paid an hourly wage divided by 2,000.

(ii) The total number of months worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees who are salaried employees divided by 12.

(C) In the case of a taxpayer who first commences doing business in the LAMBRA during the taxable year, for purposes of clauses (i) and (ii), respectively, of subparagraph (B), the divisors "2,000" and "12" shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months of the taxable year that the taxpayer was doing business in the LAMBRA and the denominator of which is 12.

(3) "Qualified property" means the purchase of any of the following for exclusive use in a LAMBRA:

(A) High technology equipment, including, but not limited to, computers and electronic processing equipment.

(B) Aircraft maintenance equipment, including, but not limited to, engine stands, hydraulic mules, power carts, test equipment, handtools, aircraft start carts, and tugs.

(C) Aircraft components, including, but not limited to, engines, fuel control units, hydraulic pumps, avionics, starts, wheels, and tires.

(D) Any property that is Section 1245 property, as defined in Section 1245(a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) The credit provided under subdivision (a) shall be allowed only for qualified property manufactured in California unless qualified property of a comparable quality and price is not available for timely purchase and delivery from a California manufacturer.

(d) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds the "net tax" for the taxable year, that portion of the credit which exceeds the "net tax" may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in succeeding years, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest taxable years possible.

(e) Any taxpayer who elects to be subject to this section shall not be entitled to increase the basis of the property as otherwise required by Section 164(a) of the Internal Revenue Code with respect to sales or use tax paid or incurred in connection with the purchase of qualified property.

(f) (1) The amount of credit otherwise allowed under this section and Section 17053.46, including any credit carryover from prior years, that may reduce the "net tax" for the taxable year shall not exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the taxpayer's business income attributed to a LAMBRA determined as if that attributable income represented all the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributed income described in paragraph (1) shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17

(commencing with Section 25101) of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(A) Income shall be apportioned to a LAMBRA by multiplying total business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor, plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) "The LAMBRA" shall be substituted for "this state."

(3) The portion of any credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding taxable years, as if it were an amount exceeding the "net tax" for the taxable year, as provided in subdivision (d).

(g) (1) If the qualified property is disposed of or no longer used by the taxpayer in the LAMBRA, at any time before the close of the second taxable year after the property is placed in service, the amount of the credit previously claimed, with respect to that property, shall be added to the taxpayer's tax liability in the taxable year of that disposition or nonuse.

(2) At the close of the second taxable year, if the taxpayer has not increased the number of its employees as determined by paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), then the amount of the credit previously claimed shall be added to the taxpayer's net tax for the taxpayer's second taxable year.

(h) If the taxpayer is allowed a credit for qualified property pursuant to this section, only one credit shall be allowed to the taxpayer under this part with respect to that qualified property.

(i) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 2003, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward as provided in subdivision (d), until the credit is exhausted.

SEC. 5. Section 17053.46 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17053.46. (a) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1995, and before January 1, 2003, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039) to a qualified taxpayer for hiring a qualified disadvantaged individual or a qualified displaced employee during the taxable year for employment in the LAMBRA. The credit shall be equal to the sum of each of the following:

(2) Forty percent of the qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent of the qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent of the qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(5) Ten percent of the qualified wages in the fifth year of employment.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified wages" means:

(A) That portion of wages paid or incurred by the employer during the taxable year to qualified disadvantaged individuals or qualified displaced employees that does not exceed 150 percent of the minimum wage.

(B) The total amount of qualified wages which may be taken into account for purposes of claiming the credit allowed under this section shall not exceed two million dollars ($2,000,000) per taxable year.

(C) Wages received during the 60-month period beginning with the day the individual commences employment with the taxpayer.

(2) "Minimum wage" means the wage established by the Industrial Welfare Commission as provided for in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1171) of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

(3) "LAMBRA" means a local agency military base recovery area designated in accordance with Section 7114 of the Government Code.

(4) "Qualified disadvantaged individual" means an individual who satisfies all of the following requirements:

(A) (i) At least 90 percent of whose services for the taxpayer during the taxable year are directly related to the conduct of the taxpayer's trade or business located in a LAMBRA.

(ii) Who performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the taxpayer during the taxable year in the LAMBRA.

(B) Who is hired by the employer after the designation of the area as a LAMBRA in which the individual's services were primarily performed.

(C) Who is any of the following immediately preceding the individual's commencement of employment with the taxpayer:

(i) An individual who has been determined eligible for services under the federal Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 1501 et seq.).

(ii) Any voluntary or mandatory registrant under the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 as provided pursuant to Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(iii) Any individual who has been certified eligible by the Employment Development Department under the federal Targeted Jobs Tax Credit Program whether or not this program is in effect.

(5) "Qualified taxpayer" means a taxpayer or partnership that conducts a trade or business within a LAMBRA and, for the first two taxable years, has a net increase in jobs (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) of one or more employees in the LAMBRA.

(A) The net increase in the number of jobs shall be determined by subtracting the total number of full-time employees (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) the taxpayer employed in this state in the taxable year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA from the total number of full-time employees the taxpayer employed in this state during the second taxable year after commencing business operations in the LAMBRA. For taxpayers who commence doing business in this state with their LAMBRA business operation, the number of employees for the taxable year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA shall be zero. If the taxpayer has a net increase in jobs in the state, the credit shall be allowed only if one or more full-time employees is employed within the LAMBRA.

(B) The total number of employees employed in the LAMBRA shall equal the sum of both of the following:

(i) The total number of hours worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees (not to exceed 2,000 hours per employee) who are paid an hourly wage divided by 2,000.

(ii) The total number of months worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees who are salaried employees divided by 12.

(C) In the case of a taxpayer who first commences doing business in the LAMBRA during the taxable year, for purposes of clauses (i) and (ii), respectively, of subparagraph (B), the divisors "2,000" and "12" shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months of the taxable year that the taxpayer was doing business in the LAMBRA and the denominator of which is 12.

(6) "Qualified displaced employee" means an individual who satisfies all of the following requirements:

(A) Any civilian or military employee of a base or former base who has been displaced as a result of a federal base closure act.

(B) (i) At least 90 percent of whose services for the taxpayer during the taxable year are directly related to the conduct of the taxpayer's trade or business located in a LAMBRA.

(ii) Who performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the taxpayer during the taxable year in a LAMBRA.

(C) Who is hired by the employer after the designation of the area in which services were performed as a LAMBRA.

(c) (1) For purposes of this section, both of the following apply:

(A) All employees of trades or businesses that are under common control shall be treated as employed by a single employer.

(B) The credit (if any) allowable by this section with respect to each trade or business shall be determined by reference to its proportionate share of the qualified wages giving rise to the credit.

The regulations prescribed under this paragraph shall be based on principles similar to the principles that apply in the case of controlled groups of corporations as specified in subdivision (e) of Section 23622.

(2) If an employer acquires the major portion of a trade or business of another employer (hereinafter in this paragraph referred to as the "predecessor") or the major portion of a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor, then, for purposes of applying this section (other than subdivision (d)) for any calendar year ending after that acquisition, the employment relationship between an employee and an employer shall not be treated as terminated if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business.

(d) (1) If the employment of any employee, with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (a) is terminated by the taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment (whether or not consecutive) or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that employee completes 90 days of employment with the taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the taxable year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount (determined under those regulations) equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that taxable year and all prior taxable years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that employee.

(2) (A) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any of the following:

(ii) A termination of employment of an individual who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that individual.

(iii) A termination of employment of an individual, if it is determined under the applicable employment compensation laws that the termination was due to the misconduct of that individual.

(iv) A termination of employment of an individual due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the taxpayer.

(v) A termination of employment of an individual, if that individual is replaced by other qualified employees so as to create a net increase in both the number of employees and the hours of employment.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the taxpayer and an employee shall not be treated as terminated by reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the taxpayer, if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business and the taxpayer retains a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(4) At the close of the second taxable year, if the taxpayer has not increased the number of its employees as determined by paragraph (5) of subdivision (b), then the amount of the credit previously claimed shall be added to the taxpayer's net tax for the taxpayer's second taxable year.

(e) In the case of an estate or trust, both of the following apply:

(1) The qualified wages for any taxable year shall be apportioned between the estate or trust and the beneficiaries on the basis of the income of the estate or trust allocable to each.

(2) Any beneficiary to whom any qualified wages have been apportioned under paragraph (1) shall be treated (for purposes of this part) as the employer with respect to those wages.

(f) The credit shall be reduced by the credit allowed under Section 17053.7. The credit shall also be reduced by the federal credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for the wages or salaries paid or incurred by the taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit, prior to any reduction required by subdivision (g) or (h).

(g) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds the "net tax" for the taxable year, that portion of the credit that exceeds the "net tax" may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in succeeding years, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest taxable years possible.

(h) (1) The amount of credit otherwise allowed under this section and Section 17053.45, including prior year credit carryovers, that may reduce the "net tax" for the taxable year shall not exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the taxpayer's business income attributed to a LAMBRA determined as if that attributed income represented all of the net income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributed income described in paragraph (1) shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101) of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(A) Income shall be apportioned to a LAMBRA by multiplying total business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) "The LAMBRA" shall be substituted for "this state."

(3) The portion of any credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding taxable years, as if it were an amount exceeding the "net tax" for the taxable year, as provided in subdivision (g).

(i) If the taxpayer is allowed a credit pursuant to this section for qualified wages paid or incurred, only one credit shall be allowed to the taxpayer under this part with respect to any wage consisting in whole or in part of those qualified wages.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 2003, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward as provided in subdivision (g), until the credit is exhausted.

SEC. 6. Section 17220 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17220. (a) Section 164(a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the deductibility of state, local, and foreign income, war profits, and excess profits taxes, shall not apply.

(b) In addition to the provisions of Section 164(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to deduction denied in case of certain taxes, no deduction shall be allowed for any tax imposed under Chapter 10.5 (commencing with Section 17935), Chapter 10.6 (commencing with Section 17941), or Chapter 10.7 (commencing with Section 17951) of this part or under Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

SEC. 7. Section 18402 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18402. (a) Except where the context otherwise requires, the general provisions and definitions provided in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 17001) of Part 10 and in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 23001) of Part 11 shall apply to this part.

(b) For purposes of this part, "person" includes an individual, fiduciary, partnership, limited liability company, corporation, or organization exempt from taxation under Section 23701.

(c) (1) Whenever provisions of this part are applied in connection with Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), the terms "taxpayer," "corporation" and "taxable year" have the same meaning as defined in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 17001) of Part 10.

(2) Whenever provisions of this part are applied in connection with Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), the terms "taxpayer," "corporation," "income year," and "taxable year" have the same meaning as defined in Article 2 (commencing with Section 23030) of Chapter 1 of Part 11.

SEC. 8. Section 18604 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18604. (a) The Franchise Tax Board may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing any return, declaration, statement, or other document required by Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), in the manner and form as the Franchise Tax Board may determine. No extension or extensions shall aggregate more than seven months from the due date for filing the return.

(b) An extension for the filing of the return of taxes imposed by Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) shall be allowed any corporation if, in the manner and at the time as the Franchise Tax Board may prescribe, that corporation pays, on or before the date prescribed for payment of the tax, the amount properly estimated as provided in Section 19023 or 19024.

(c) An extension of time granted pursuant to this section is not an extension of time for payment of tax required to be paid on or before the due date of the return without regard to extension. Underpayment of tax penalties shall be imposed as provided by law without regard to any extension granted under this section.

SEC. 9. Section 18606 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18606. (a) In cases where receivers, trustees in a case under Title 11 of the United States Code, or assignees are operating the property or business of a corporation those receivers, trustees, or assignees shall make returns for that corporation in the same manner and form as that corporation is required to make a return.

(b) Any tax due on the basis of returns made by receivers, trustees, or assignees shall be collected in the same manner as if collected from the corporation of whose business or property they have custody and control.

SEC. 10. Section 18621.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18621.5. (a) Any return, declaration, statement, or other document required to be made under this part that is filed using electronic technology shall be in a form as the Franchise Tax Board may prescribe and is not complete, and therefore not filed, unless an electronic filing declaration is signed by the taxpayer, in accordance with Section 18621 in the case of individuals, subdivision (a) of Section 18505 in the case of estates or trusts, corporations, or limited liability companies classified as corporations for California income tax purposes, subdivision (a) of Section 18633 in the case of a partnership, or Section 18633.5 in the case of limited liability companies classified as partnerships for California income tax purposes. The Franchise Tax Board may prescribe forms and instructions for requiring the electronic filing declaration to be retained by the preparer or taxpayer and may require the declaration to be furnished to the Franchise Tax Board upon request.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any return, declaration, statement, or other document otherwise required to be signed that is filed in a traditional medium and captured using electronic imaging technology shall be deemed to be a valid original document upon reproduction to paper form by the Franchise Tax Board.

(c) Notwithstanding any other law, any return, declaration, statement, or other document otherwise required to be signed that is filed by the taxpayer using electronic technology in a form as required by the Franchise Tax Board shall be deemed to be a signed, valid original document, including upon reproduction to paper form by the Franchise Tax Board.

(d) "Electronic imaging technology" means a system of microphotography, optical disk, or reproduction by other technique that does not permit additions, deletions, or changes to the original document. The system may include, but is not limited to, any magnetic media or other machine readable form.

(e) "Traditional medium" means any return, declaration, statement, or other document required to be made pursuant to this article other than those made using electronic imaging technology.

(f) "Electronic technology" includes, but is not limited to, computer modem, magnetic media, optical disk, facsimile machine, or telephone.

SEC. 11. Section 18637 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18637. (a) Every individual, partnership, limited liability company, corporation, joint stock company or association, insurance company, business trust, or so-called Massachusetts trust, engaged in a trade or business in this state and making payment in the course of the trade or business to another person, including lessees or mortgagors of real or personal property, fiduciaries, employers, and all officers and employees of this state or any political subdivision of this state, or any city organized under a freeholder's charter, or any political body not a subdivision or agency of the state, having the control, receipt, custody, disposal, or payment of interest (other than interest coupons payable to bearer), dividends, rents, salaries, wages, premiums, annuities, compensations, remunerations, emoluments, or other fixed or determinable annual or periodical gains, profits, and income amounting to six hundred dollars ($600) or over, paid or payable during any year to any taxpayer, shall make a complete return to the Franchise Tax Board, which shall contain or be verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury, under the regulations and in the form and manner and to the extent as may be prescribed by it.

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a), "trade or business" includes the activities of nonprofit organizations.

(c) In lieu of an information return required by subdivision (a), the Franchise Tax Board may require that a copy of the federal information return be filed with the Franchise Tax Board.

(d) Every entity required to make a return under subdivision (a) shall furnish to each person whose name is required to be set forth in the return a written statement showing both of the following:

(1) The name, address, and identification number of the entity required to make the return.

(2) The aggregate amount of payments to the person required to be shown on the return.

The written statement required under this subdivision shall be furnished to the person on or before January 31 of the year following the calendar year for which the return under subdivision (a) was required to be made.

(e) This section shall not apply to tips with respect to which Section 13055 of the Unemployment Insurance Code applies. The only records which an employer shall be required to keep under this section in connection with charged tips shall be charge receipts and copies of statements furnished by employees under Section 13055 of the Unemployment Insurance Code.

SEC. 12. Section 18638 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18638. Every individual, partnership, limited liability company, corporation, joint stock company or association, insurance company, business trust, or so-called Massachusetts trust, shall be required to file a return for certain payments of remuneration for services and furnish a written statement to the person whose name is required to be set forth on the return in accordance with the provisions of Section 6041A of the Internal Revenue Code, except that no return or statement shall be required if a statement with respect to the services is required to be furnished under Division 6 (commencing with Section 13000) of the Unemployment Insurance Code (relating to withholding tax on wages) or Section 18647, and no return or statement shall be required with respect to direct sales pursuant to Section 6041A(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

SEC. 13. Section 18639 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18639. (a) Any person required to file an information return with the Internal Revenue Service under Section 6049 of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to payment of interest) or Section 6042 of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to payment of dividends) shall be required to report that information to the Franchise Tax Board.

(b) (1) In addition to those reports required under subdivision (a), information returns shall be required, at the time and in the form and manner and to the extent that the Franchise Tax Board may prescribe, from both of the following:

(A) Every person who makes payments of exempt-interest dividends, as described in Section 852(b)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code, that are not exempt-interest dividends, as described in Section 17145 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, aggregating ten dollars ($10) or more to any person, other than to any person described in paragraph (2), during any calendar year.

(B) Every person who receives payments of interest as a nominee and who makes payments aggregating ten dollars ($10) or more during any calendar year to any other person, other than to any person described in paragraph (2), with respect to the interest so received. For purposes of this paragraph, "interest" is limited to interest on any obligation if the interest is exempt from tax under Section 103(a) of the Internal Revenue Code or if the interest is exempt from tax, without regard to the identity of the holder, under any other provision of Title 26 of the United States Code, but which is not exempt from income tax under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001).

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, a person shall not be required to make a report pursuant to paragraph (1) if the person receiving the payment is any of the following:

(B) An organization exempt from taxation under Section 23701 or an individual retirement plan.

(C) The United States or any wholly owned agency or instrumentality thereof.

(D) A state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, any political subdivision of any of the foregoing, or any wholly owned agency or instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing.

(E) A foreign government, a political subdivision of a foreign government, or any wholly owned agency or instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing.

(F) An international organization or any wholly owned agency or instrumentality thereof.

(G) A foreign central bank of issue.

(H) A dealer in securities or commodities required to register under the laws of the United States or a state, the District of Columbia, or possession of the United States.

(I) A real estate investment trust, as defined in Section 856 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(J) An investment company, as defined in Section 80a-3 of the United States Code, registered at all times during the taxable year under the Investment Company Act of 1940.

(c) Every person required to make a return under this section shall also furnish a statement to each person whose name is set forth in the return, as required to do so by the Internal Revenue Code.

SEC. 14. Section 18645 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18645. (a) The Franchise Tax Board may require a copy of the federal information return to be filed with the Franchise Tax Board if a federal information return was required under any of the following:

(1) Section 6039C of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to returns with respect to foreign persons holding direct investments in United States real property interests, if that person holds a direct investment in a California real property interest as defined in Section 18662.

(2) Section 6050H of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to mortgage interest received in trade or business from individuals.

(3) Section 6050J of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to foreclosures and abandonments of security.

(4) Section 6050K of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to exchanges of certain partnership interests.

(7) Section 6050P of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to returns regarding the cancellation of indebtedness by certain financial entities.

(b) Every person required to make a return under subdivision (a) shall also furnish a statement to each person whose name is required to be set forth in the return, as required to do so by the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) A transferor of a partnership interest shall be required to notify the partnership of that exchange in accordance with Section 6050K(c) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(d) The Franchise Tax Board shall require a copy of the federal information return to be filed with the Franchise Tax Board if a federal information return was required under Section 6050I of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to cash received in trade or business.

(e) (1) The Attorney General shall, upon court order following a showing ex parte to a magistrate of an articulable suspicion that an individual or entity has committed a felony offense to which a federal information return is related, be provided a copy of a federal information return filed with the Franchise Tax Board under subdivision (d). The Attorney General may make a return or information therefrom available to a district attorney subject to regulations promulgated by the Attorney General. The regulations shall require the district attorney seeking the return or information to specify in writing the specific reasons for believing that a felony offense has been committed to which the return or information is related.

(2) Any information or return obtained by the Attorney General or a district attorney pursuant to this section shall be confidential and used only for investigative or prosecutorial purposes.

SEC. 15. Section 18662 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18662. (a) The Franchise Tax Board may, by regulation, require any person, in whatever capacity acting (including lessees or mortgagors of real or personal property, fiduciaries, employers, and any officer or department of the state or any political subdivision or agency of the state, or any city organized under a freeholder's charter, or any political body not a subdivision or agency of the state), having the control, receipt, custody, disposal, or payment of items of income specified in subdivision (b), to withhold an amount, determined by the Franchise Tax Board to reasonably represent the amount of tax due when the items of income are included with other income of the taxpayer, and to transmit the amount withheld to the Franchise Tax Board at the time as it may designate.

(b) The items of income referred to in subdivision (a) are interest, dividends, rents, prizes and winnings, premiums, annuities, emoluments, compensation for services, including bonuses, partnership income or gains, and other fixed or determinable annual or periodical gains, profits, and income.

(c) The Franchise Tax Board may authorize the tax under subdivision (a) to be deducted and withheld from the interest upon any securities the owners of which are not known to the withholding agent.

(d) Any person failing to withhold from any payments any amounts required by subdivision (a) to be withheld is liable for the amount withheld or the amount of taxes due from the person to whom the payments are made to an extent not in excess of the amounts required to be withheld, whichever is greater, unless it is shown that the failure to withhold is due to reasonable cause.

(e) (1) In the case of any disposition of a California real property interest by a person (but not a partnership as determined in accordance with Subchapter K of Chapter 1 of Subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code, or a corporation), when the return required to be filed with the Secretary of the Treasury under Section 6045(e) of the Internal Revenue Code indicates, or the authorization for the disbursement of the transaction's funds instructs, that the funds be disbursed either to a transferor with a last known street address outside the boundaries of this state at the time of the transfer of the title to the California real property or to the financial intermediary of the transferor, the transferee shall be required to withhold an amount equal to $3^1/_3$ percent of the sales price of the California real property conveyed.

(2) In the case of any disposition of a California real property interest by a corporation, the transferee shall be required to withhold an amount equal to $3^1/_3$ percent of the sales price of the California real property conveyed, if the corporation immediately after the transfer of the title to the California real property has no permanent place of business in California. For purposes of this subdivision, a corporation has no permanent place of business in California if all of the following apply:

(B) It does not qualify with the office of the Secretary of State to transact business in California.

(C) It does not maintain and staff a permanent office in California.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subdivision, all of the following shall apply:

(A) No transferee shall be required to withhold any amount under this subdivision if the sales price of the California real property conveyed does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).

(B) No transferee shall be required to withhold any amount under this subdivision unless written notification of the withholding requirements of this subdivision has been provided by the real estate escrow person.

(C) No transferee shall be required to withhold under this subdivision when the transferor is a bank acting as trustee other than a trustee of a deed of trust.

(D) No transferee shall be required to withhold under this subdivision when the transferee is a corporate beneficiary under a mortgage or beneficiary under a deed of trust and the California real property is acquired in judicial or nonjudicial foreclosure or by a deed in lieu of foreclosure.

(E) No transferee shall be required to withhold any amount under this subdivision if the transferee, in good faith and based on all the information of which he or she has knowledge, relies on a written certificate executed by the transferor, certifying under penalty of perjury, any of the following:

(i) That the transferor is a resident of California.

(ii) That the California real property being conveyed is the principal residence of the transferor, within the meaning of Section 1034 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(iii) The transferor, if a corporation, has a permanent place of business in California.

(4) (A) At the request of the transferor, the Franchise Tax Board may authorize that a reduced amount or no amount be withheld under this subdivision if the Franchise Tax Board determines that to substitute a reduced amount or no amount shall not jeopardize the collection of tax imposed by Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001). If the transferor provides documentation sufficient for the Franchise Tax Board to determine the actual gain required to be recognized on the transaction, the Franchise Tax Board may authorize a reduced amount based on the amount of the gain, as determined, which will result in a sum which is substantially equivalent to the amount of tax reasonably estimated to be due under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) from the inclusion of the gain in the gross amount of the transferor.

(B) Within 45 days after receiving a request that a reduced amount or no amount be withheld, the Franchise Tax Board shall either authorize a reduced amount or no amount, or deny the request.

(C) In the case where the parties to the transaction are requesting that a reduced amount or no amount be withheld and the response by the Franchise Tax Board to the request has not been received at the time title to the California real property is transferred, the parties may direct the real estate escrow person to hold in trust for 45 days the amount required to be withheld under this subdivision. The parties shall instruct the real estate escrow person that at the end of 45 days the real estate escrow person shall remit the amount withheld to the Franchise Tax Board in accordance with this section, unless the Franchise Tax Board has authorized that a reduced amount or no amount be withheld.

(5) Amounts withheld and payments made in accordance with this subdivision shall be reported and remitted to the Franchise Tax Board in the form and at the time as the Franchise Tax Board shall determine.

(6) "California real property interest" means an interest in real property located in California and defined in Section 897(c)(1)(A)(i) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(7) For purposes of this subdivision, "financial intermediary" means an agent for the purpose of receiving and transferring funds to a principal.

(8) For purposes of this subdivision, "real estate escrow person" means any of the following persons involved in the real estate transaction:

(A) The person (including any attorney, escrow company, or title company) responsible for closing the transaction.

(B) If no other person described in subparagraph (A) is responsible for closing the transaction, then any other person who receives and disburses the consideration or value for the interest or property conveyed.

(9) (A) Unless the real estate escrow person provides "assistance," it shall be unlawful for any real estate escrow person to charge any customer for complying with the requirements of this subdivision.

(B) For purposes of this paragraph, "assistance" includes, but is not limited to, helping the parties clarify with the Franchise Tax Board the issue of whether withholding is required under this subdivision, helping the parties request that the Franchise Tax Board authorize a reduced amount or no amount be withheld under this subdivision, or, upon request of the parties, withholding an amount under this subdivision and remitting the amount to the Franchise Tax Board.

(C) For purposes of this paragraph, "assistance" does not include providing the written notification of the withholding requirements of this subdivision, or providing the certification that either:

(i) The transferor is a resident of California or that the California real property being conveyed is the transferor's principal residence.

(ii) The transferor, if a corporation, has a permanent place of business in California.

(D) In a case where the real estate escrow person provides "assistance" in complying with the withholding requirements of this subdivision, it shall be unlawful for the real estate escrow person to charge any customer a fee that exceeds forty-five dollars ($45).

(10) For purposes of this subdivision, "sales price" means the sum of all of the following:

(A) The cash paid, or to be paid. The term "cash paid, or to be paid" does not include stated or unstated interest or original issue discount (as determined by Sections 1271 to 1275, inclusive, of the Internal Revenue Code).

(B) The fair market value of other property transferred, or to be transferred.

(C) The outstanding amount of any liability assumed by the transferee or to which the California real property interest is subject immediately before and after the transfer.

(f) Whenever any person has withheld any amount pursuant to this section, the amount so withheld shall be held in trust for the State of California. The amount of the fund shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner and subject to the same provisions and limitations (including penalties) as are applicable with respect to the taxes imposed by Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), or this part.

(g) Withholding shall not be required under this section with respect to wages, salaries, fees, or other compensation paid by a corporation for services performed in California for that corporation to a nonresident corporate director for director services, including attendance at a board of directors' meeting.

(h) In the case of any payment described in subdivision (g), the person making the payment shall do each of the following:

(1) File a return with the Franchise Tax Board at the time and in the form and manner specified by the Franchise Tax Board.

(2) Provide the payee with a statement at the time and in the form and manner specified by the Franchise Tax Board.

SEC. 16. Section 18670 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18670. (a) The Franchise Tax Board may by notice, served personally or by first-class mail, require any employer, person, officer or department of the state, political subdivision or agency of the state, including the Regents of the University of California, a city organized under a freeholders' charter, or a political body not a subdivision or agency of the state, having in their possession, or under their control, any credits or other personal property or other things of value, belonging to a taxpayer or to an employer or person who has failed to withhold and transmit amounts due pursuant to this article, to withhold, from the credits or other personal property or other things of value, the amount of any tax, interest, or penalties due from the taxpayer or the amount of any liability incurred by that employer or person for failure to withhold and transmit amounts due from a taxpayer under this part and to transmit the amount withheld to the Franchise Tax Board at the times that it may designate. However, in the case of a depository institution, as defined in Section 19(b) of the Federal Reserve Act (12 U.S.C.A. Sec. 461(b)(1)(A)), amounts due from a taxpayer under this part shall be transmitted to the Franchise Tax Board not less than 10 business days from receipt of the notice. To be effective, the notice shall state the amount due from the taxpayer and shall be delivered or mailed to the branch or office reported in information returns filed with the Franchise Tax Board, or the branch or office where the credits or other property is held, unless another branch or office is designated by the employer, person, officer or department of the state, political subdivision or agency of the state, including the Regents of the University of California, a city organized under a freeholders' charter or a political body not a subdivision or agency of the state.

(b) (1) At least 45 days before sending a notice to withhold to the address indicated on the information return, the Franchise Tax Board shall request a depository institution to do either of the following:

(A) Verify that the address on its information return is its designated address for receiving notices to withhold.

(B) Provide the Franchise Tax Board with a designated address for receiving notices to withhold.

(2) Once the depository institution has specified a designated address pursuant to paragraph (1), the Franchise Tax Board shall send all notices to that address unless the depository institution provides notification of another address. The Franchise Tax Board shall send all notices to withhold to a new designated address 30 days after notification.

(3) Failure to verify or provide a designated address within 30 days of receiving the request shall be deemed verification of the address on the information return as the depository institution's designated address.

(c) Any corporation or person failing to withhold the amounts due from any taxpayer and transmit them to the Franchise Tax Board after service of the notice shall be liable for those amounts. However, in the case of a depository institution, if a notice to withhold is mailed to the branch where the account is located or principal banking office, the depository institution shall be liable for a failure to withhold only to the extent that the accounts can be identified in information normally maintained at that location in the ordinary course of business.

SEC. 17. Section 19009 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19009. (a) Whenever any person or employer who is required to collect, account for, and pay over any tax—

(1) At the time and in the manner prescribed by law or regulations (A) fails to collect, truthfully account for, or pay over the tax, or (B) fails to make deposits, payments, or returns of the tax, and

(2) Is notified, by notice delivered in hand or by registered mail of the failure, then all the requirements of subdivision (b) shall be complied with. In the case of a corporation, partnership, limited liability company, or trust, notice to an officer, partner, manager, member, or trustee, shall, for purposes of this section, be deemed to be sufficient notice to the corporation, partnership, limited liability company, or trust and to all officers, partners, managers, members, trustees, and employees thereof.

(b) Any person or employer who is required to collect, account for, and pay over any tax imposed by Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), if notice has been delivered to that person or employer in accordance with subdivision (a), shall collect the taxes, which become collectible after delivery of the notice, shall (not later than the end of the second banking day after any amount of the taxes is collected) deposit that amount in a separate account in a bank located within the limits of this state, and shall keep the amount of those taxes in that account until payment over to the Franchise Tax Board. The account shall be designated as a special fund in trust for the Franchise Tax Board, payable to the Franchise Tax Board by that person or employer as trustee.

(c) Whenever the Franchise Tax Board is satisfied, with respect to any notification made under subdivision (a), that all requirements of law and regulations with respect to the taxes, will henceforth be complied with, it may cancel the notification. The cancellation shall take effect at the time as is specified in the notice of the cancellation.

SEC. 18. Section 19011 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19011. (a) All payments required under this part, regardless of the income (or taxable) year to which the payments apply shall be remitted to the Franchise Tax Board by electronic funds transfer pursuant to Division 11 (commencing with Section 11101) of the Commercial Code, once any of the following conditions are met:

(1) With respect to any corporation, any installment payment of estimated tax made pursuant to Section 19025 or the payment made pursuant to Section 18604 with regard to an extension of time to file exceeds fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) in any income year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, or exceeds twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) in any income year beginning on or after January 1, 1995.

(2) With respect to any corporation, the total tax liability exceeds two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) in any income year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, or exceeds eighty thousand dollars ($80,000) in any income year beginning on or after January 1, 1995. For purposes of this section, total tax liability shall be the total tax liability as shown on the original return, after any adjustment made pursuant to Section 19051.

(3) A partnership or taxpayer (for purposes of this section, "taxpayer") submits a request to the Franchise Tax Board and is granted permission to make electronic funds transfers.

(b) A taxpayer required to remit payments to the Franchise Tax Board by electronic funds transfer may elect to discontinue making payments where the threshold requirements set forth in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (a) were not met for the preceding income (or taxable) year. The election shall be made in a form and manner prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board.

(c) Any taxpayer required to remit payment by electronic funds transfer pursuant to this section who makes payment by other means shall pay a penalty of 10 percent of the amount paid, unless it is shown that the failure to make payment as required was for reasonable cause and was not the result of willful neglect.

(d) Any taxpayer required to remit payments by electronic funds transfer pursuant to this section may request a waiver of those requirements from the Franchise Tax Board. The Franchise Tax Board may grant a waiver only if it determines that the particular amounts paid in excess of the threshold amounts established in this section were not representative of the taxpayer's tax liability. If a taxpayer is granted a waiver, subsequent remittances by electronic funds transfer shall be required only on those terms set forth in the waiver.

(e) The Franchise Tax Board shall accept remittances by electronic funds transfer pursuant to this section no later than January 1, 1993. Electronic funds transfer procedures, in addition to those described in subdivision (f), shall be as prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board. Payment is deemed complete on the date the electronic funds transfer is initiated, if settlement to the state's demand account occurs on or before the banking day following the date the transfer is initiated. If settlement to the state's demand account does not occur on or before the banking day following the date the transfer is initiated, payment is deemed to occur on the date settlement occurs.

(f) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Electronic funds transfer" means any transfer of funds, other than a transaction originated by check, draft, or similar paper instrument, that is initiated through an electronic terminal, telephonic instrument, or computer or magnetic tape, so as to order, instruct, or authorize a financial institution to debit or credit an account. Electronic funds transfer shall be accomplished by an automated clearinghouse debit, automated clearinghouse credit, a Federal Reserve Wire Transfer (Fedwire), or by an international funds transfer.

(2) "Automated clearinghouse" means any federal reserve bank, or an organization established by agreement with the National Automated Clearing House Association, that operates as a clearinghouse for transmitting or receiving entries between banks or bank accounts and that authorizes an electronic transfer of funds between those banks or bank accounts.

(3) "Automated clearinghouse debit" means a transaction in which any department of the state, through its designated depository bank, originates an automated clearinghouse transaction debiting the taxpayer's bank account and crediting the state's bank account for the amount of tax. Banking costs incurred for the automated clearinghouse debit transaction by the taxpayer shall be paid by the state.

(4) "Automated clearinghouse credit" means an automated clearinghouse transaction in which the taxpayer, through its own bank, originates an entry crediting the state's bank account and debiting its own bank account. Banking costs incurred by the state for the automated clearinghouse credit transaction may be charged to the taxpayer.

(5) "Fedwire" means any transaction originated by the taxpayer and utilizing the national electronic payment system to transfer funds through federal reserve banks, pursuant to which the taxpayer debits its own bank account and credits the state's bank account. Electronic funds transfers may be made by Fedwire only if prior approval is obtained from the Franchise Tax Board and the taxpayer is unable, for reasonable cause, to make payments pursuant to paragraph (3) or (4). Banking costs charged to the taxpayer and to the state may be charged to the taxpayer.

(6) "International funds transfer" means any transaction originated by the taxpayer and utilizing the international electronic payment system to transfer funds, pursuant to which the taxpayer debits its own bank account and credits the state's bank account.

(7) In determining whether a payment or total tax liability exceeds the amounts established in subdivision (a), the income of all taxpayers whose income derived from, or attributable to, sources within this state is required to be determined by a combined report shall be aggregated and the total aggregate amount shall be considered to be the income of a single taxpayer for purposes of determining the payment or total tax liability of a single taxpayer.

SEC. 19. Section 19021 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19021. In the case of taxpayers subject to the tax imposed by Article 3 (commencing with Section 23181) of Chapter 2 of Part 11, there shall be due and payable on or before the 15th day of the third month following the close of the preceding year from each taxpayer a percentage of its net income as disclosed by its return which is equal to the rate applicable to corporations subject to the tax imposed by Article 2 (commencing with Section 23151) of Chapter 2 of Part 11 plus the personal property tax rate equivalent included in the bank and financial corporation tax rate determination by the Franchise Tax Board pursuant to Sections 23186 and 23186.1. The payment required by this section shall not be less than the minimum tax specified in Section 23153.

SEC. 20. Section 19023 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19023. For purposes of this article, in the case of a corporation, other than a bank or financial corporation, the term "estimated tax" means the amount which the corporation estimates as the amount of the tax imposed by Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001); but in no event shall the estimated tax of a corporation subject to the tax imposed by Article 2 (commencing with Section 23151) of Chapter 2 of Part 11 be less than the minimum tax prescribed in Section 23153.

SEC. 21. Section 19024 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19024. (a) In the case of banks and financial corporations, "estimated tax" means the amount which the bank or financial corporation estimates as the amount of the tax imposed by Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) at the rate determined by the Franchise Tax Board for the preceding year pursuant to Section 23186.1, but in no event shall the estimated tax of a bank or financial corporation be less than the minimum tax prescribed in Section 23153.

(b) In case of an increase or decrease in the rate of tax imposed under Section 23151 (tax on general corporations), a bank or financial corporation shall be required to increase or decrease the rate determined by the Franchise Tax Board for the preceding year by the same amount as the change in the rate imposed under Section 23151 determined in accordance with Section 24251 (relating to computation of tax when law changed).

SEC. 23. Section 19058 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19058. (a) If the taxpayer omits from gross income an amount properly includable therein which is in excess of 25 percent of the amount of gross income stated in the return, a notice of a proposed deficiency assessment may be mailed to the taxpayer within six years after the return was filed. Additionally, in the case of a corporation, a proceeding in court for the collection of the tax may be commenced without assessment at any time within six years after the return was filed.

(b) For purposes of this section both of the following shall apply:

(1) In the case of a trade or business, the term "gross income" means the total of the amounts received or accrued from the sale of goods or services (if the amounts are required to be shown on the return) prior to diminution by the cost of the sales or service.

(2) In determining the amount omitted from gross income, there shall not be taken into account any amount which is omitted from gross income stated in the return if the amount is disclosed in the return, or in a statement attached to the return, in a manner adequate to apprise the Franchise Tax Board of the nature and amount of the item.

SEC. 24. Section 19132.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19132.5. (a) In the case of a qualified taxpayer, no penalty shall be assessed under Section 19132 if the return is filed timely (not later than the extended due date granted under Section 18567 or 18604) and the tax required to be paid on or before the due date of the return, without regard to extension, is paid within the following time:

(1) In the case of an individual, partnership, or fiduciary, within six months of the original due date of the return.

(2) In the case of a corporation, within seven months of the original due date of the return.

(b) Any penalty imposed under Section 19132 shall be assessed from the original due date of the return if the taxpayer fails to pay the tax within the time specified in this section.

(c) This section shall apply to payment of the amount shown as tax on the original returns required to be filed during calendar year 1994.

(d) For purposes of this section, "qualified taxpayer" means any corporation, fiduciary, partnership, or individual taxpayer to whom one of the following applies as a result of the Northridge earthquake of January 1994, any related aftershock, or any related casualty:

(1) The qualified taxpayer sustained any significant property loss.

(2) The qualified taxpayer suffered a loss of employment due to property damage suffered by his or her employer.

(3) The qualified taxpayer realized significant loss of business income from a business located within the Northridge earthquake area.

SEC. 25. Section 19141.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19141.5. (a) (1) Section 6038A of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to information with respect to certain foreign-owned corporations, shall apply.

(2) A penalty shall be imposed under this part for failure to furnish information or maintain records and that penalty shall be determined in accordance with Section 6038A of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) Section 11314 of Public Law 101-508, relating to application of amendments made by Section 7403 of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1989 to taxable years beginning on or before July 10, 1989, shall apply.

(4) Section 6038A(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to enforcement of requests for certain records, is modified as follows:

(A) Each reference to Section 7602, 7603, or 7604 of the Internal Revenue Code shall instead refer to Section 19504.

(B) Each reference to "summons" shall instead refer to "subpoena duces tecum."

(C) Section 6038A(e)(4)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code shall refer to "superior courts of the State of California for the Counties of Los Angeles, Sacramento, and San Diego, and for the City and County of San Francisco," instead of "United States district court for the district in which the person (to whom the summons is issued) resides or is found."

(b) In the case of a corporation, each of the following shall apply:

(1) Section 6038B of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to notice of certain transfers to foreign persons, shall apply.

(2) A penalty shall be imposed under this part for failure to furnish information or maintain records and that penalty shall be determined in accordance with Section 6038B of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) (1) Section 6038C of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to information with respect to foreign corporations engaged in United States business, shall apply.

(2) A penalty shall be imposed under this part for failure to furnish information or maintain records and that penalty shall be determined in accordance with Section 6038C of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) Section 6038C(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to enforcement of requests for certain records, is modified as follows:

(A) Each reference to Section 7602, 7603, or 7604 of the Internal Revenue Code shall instead refer to Section 19504.

(B) Each reference to "summons" shall instead refer to "subpoena duces tecum."

(d) For purposes of this part, the information required to be filed with the Franchise Tax Board pursuant to this section shall be a copy of the information filed with the Internal Revenue Service.

(e) For purposes of this section, each of the following shall apply:

(1) Section 7701(a)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the term "domestic," shall apply.

(2) Section 7701(a)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the term "foreign," shall apply.

(3) Section 7701(a)(30) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the term "United States person," shall apply. However, the term "United States person" shall not include any corporation that is not subject to the tax imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101), Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 23400), or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501), of Part 11.

SEC. 26. Section 19141.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19141.6. (a) Each taxpayer determining its income subject to tax pursuant to Section 25101 or electing to file pursuant to Section 25110 shall, for income years beginning on or after January 1, 1994, maintain (in the location, in the manner, and to the extent prescribed in regulations which shall be promulgated by the Franchise Tax Board on or before December 31, 1995) and make available upon request all of the following:

(1) Any records as may be appropriate to determine the correct treatment of the components that are a part of one or more unitary businesses for purposes of determining the income derived from or attributable to this state pursuant to Section 25101 or 25110.

(2) Any records as may be appropriate to determine the correct treatment of amounts that are attributable to the classification of an item as business or nonbusiness income for purposes of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11.

(3) Any records as may be appropriate to determine the correct treatment of the apportionment factors for purposes of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11.

(4) Documents and information, including any questionnaires completed and submitted to the Internal Revenue Service that are necessary to audit issues involving attribution of income to the United States or foreign jurisdictions under Section 882 or Subpart F of Part III of Subchapter N, or similar sections, of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) Information for any year shall be retained for that period of time in which the taxpayers' income or franchise tax liability to this state may be subject to adjustment, including all periods in which additional income or franchise taxes may be assessed, not to exceed eight years from the due date or extended due date of the return, or during which a protest is pending before the Franchise Tax Board, or an appeal is pending before the State Board of Equalization or a lawsuit is pending in the courts of this state or the United States with respect to California franchise or income tax.

(2) "Related party" means corporations that are related because one owns or controls directly or indirectly more than 50 percent of the stock of the other or because more than 50 percent of the voting stock of each is owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by the same interests.

(c) (1) If a corporation subject to this section fails to maintain or fails to cause another to maintain records as required by subdivision (a), that corporation shall pay a penalty of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each income year with respect to which the failure occurs.

(2) If any failure described in paragraph (1) continues for more than 90 days after the day on which the Franchise Tax Board mails notice of the failure to the corporation, that corporation shall pay a penalty (in addition to the amount required under paragraph (1)) of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each 30-day period (or fraction thereof) during which the failure continues after the expiration of the 90-day period. The additional penalty imposed by this subdivision shall not exceed a maximum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) if the failure to maintain or the failure to cause another to maintain is not willful. This maximum shall apply with respect to income years beginning on or after January 1, 1994, and before the earlier of the first day of the month following the month in which regulations are adopted pursuant to this section or December 31, 1995.

(3) For purposes of this section, the time prescribed by regulations to maintain records (and the beginning of the 90-day period after notice by the Franchise Tax Board) shall be treated as not earlier than the last day on which (as shown to the satisfaction of the Franchise Tax Board) reasonable cause existed for failure to maintain the records.

(d) (1) The Franchise Tax Board may apply the rules of paragraph (2) whether or not the board begins a proceeding to enforce a subpoena, or subpoena duces tecum, if subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C) apply:

(A) For purposes of determining the correct treatment under Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) of the items described in subdivision (a), the Franchise Tax Board issues a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum to a corporation to produce (either directly or as agent for the related party) any records or testimony.

(B) The subpoena or subpoena duces tecum is not quashed in a proceeding begun under paragraph (3) and is not determined to be invalid in a proceeding begun under Section 19504 to enforce the subpoena or subpoena duces tecum.

(C) The corporation does not substantially comply in a timely manner with the subpoena or subpoena duces tecum and the Franchise Tax Board has sent by certified or registered mail a notice to that corporation that it has not substantially complied.

(D) If the corporation fails to maintain or fails to cause another to maintain records as required by subdivision (a), and by reason of that failure, the subpoena, or subpoena duces tecum, is quashed in a proceeding described in subparagraph (B) or the corporation is not able to provide the records requested in the subpoena or subpoena duces tecum, the Franchise Tax Board may apply the rules of paragraph (2) to any of the items described in subdivision (a) to which the records relate.

(2) (A) All of the following shall be determined by the Franchise Tax Board in the Franchise Tax Board's sole discretion from the Franchise Tax Board's own knowledge or from information the Franchise Tax Board may obtain through testimony or otherwise:

(i) The components that are a part of one or more unitary businesses for purposes of determining the income derived from or attributable to this state pursuant to Section 25101 or 25110.

(ii) Amounts that are attributable to the classification of an item as business or nonbusiness income for purposes of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11.

(iii) The apportionment factors for purposes of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11.

(iv) The correct amount of income under Section 882 of, or Subpart F of Part III of, Subchapter N of, or similar sections of, the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) This paragraph shall apply to determine the correct treatment of the items described in subdivision (a) unless the corporation is authorized by its related parties (in the manner and at the time as the Franchise Tax Board shall prescribe) to act as the related parties' limited agent solely for purposes of applying Section 19504 with respect to any request by the Franchise Tax Board to examine records or produce testimony related to any item described in subdivision (a) or with respect to any subpoena or subpoena duces tecum for the records or testimony. The appearance of persons or the production of records by reason of the corporation being an agent shall not subject those persons or records to legal process for any purpose other than determining the correct treatment under Part 11 of the items described in subdivision (a).

(C) Determinations made in the sole discretion of the Franchise Tax Board pursuant to this paragraph may be appealed to the State Board of Equalization, in the manner and at a time, as provided by Section 19045 or 19324, or may be the subject of an action to recover tax, in the manner and at a time, as provided by Section 19382. The review of determinations by the board or the court shall be limited to whether the determinations were arbitrary or capricious, or are not supported by substantial evidence.

(3) (A) Notwithstanding any other law or rule of law, any reporting corporation to which the Franchise Tax Board issues a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum referred to in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) shall have the right to begin a proceeding to quash the subpoena or subpoena duces tecum not later than the 90th day after the subpoena or subpoena duces tecum was issued. In that proceeding, the Franchise Tax Board may seek to compel compliance with the subpoena or subpoena duces tecum.

(B) Notwithstanding any other law or rule of law, any reporting bank or corporation that has been notified by the Franchise Tax Board that it has determined that the corporation has not substantially complied with a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum referred to in paragraph (1) shall have the right to begin a proceeding to review the determination not later than the 90th day after the day on which the notice referred to in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1) was mailed. If the proceeding is not begun on or before the 90th day, the determination by the Franchise Tax Board shall be binding and shall not be reviewed by any court.

(C) The superior courts of the State of California for the Counties of Los Angeles, Sacramento, and San Diego, and for the City and County of San Francisco shall have jurisdiction to hear any proceeding brought under subparagraphs (A) and (B). Any order or other determination in the proceeding shall be treated as a final order that may be appealed.

(D) If any corporation takes any action as provided in subparagraphs (A) and (B), the running of any period of limitations under Sections 19057 to 19064, inclusive (relating to the assessment and collection of tax), or under Section 19704 (relating to criminal prosecutions) with respect to that corporation shall be suspended for the period during which the proceedings, and appeals therein, are pending. In no event shall any period expire before the 90th day after the day on which there is a final determination in the proceeding.

SEC. 27. Section 19147 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19147. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 19142 to 19145, inclusive, the addition to the tax with respect to any underpayment of any installment shall not be imposed if the total amount of all payments of estimated tax paid on or before the last date prescribed for the payment of the installment equals or exceeds the amount which would have been required to be paid on or before that date if the estimated tax were whichever of the following is the lesser:

(1) (A) The tax shown on the return of the taxpayer for the preceding income year if a return showing a liability for tax was filed by the taxpayer for the preceding year and that preceding year was a year of 12 months. The tax shown on the return, in the case of the tax imposed by Article 3 (commencing with Section 23181) of Chapter 2 of Part 11, means the amount of tax shown on the return for the income year as prescribed in Section 19021.

(B) In the case of a large corporation, subparagraph (A) shall not apply, except as provided in clauses (i) and (ii).

(i) Subparagraph (A) shall apply for purposes of determining the amount of the first required installment for any income year.

(ii) Any reduction in the first required installment by reason of clause (i) shall be recaptured by increasing the amount of the next required installment by the amount of that reduction.

(2) (A) An amount equal to the applicable percentage specified in Section 19144 of the tax for the income year computed by placing on an annualized basis the taxable income:

(i) For the first three months of the income year, in the case of the installment required to be paid in the fourth month.

(ii) For the first three months of the income year, in the case of the installment required to be paid in the sixth month.

(iii) For the first six months of the income year in the case of the installment required to be paid in the ninth month.

(iv) For the first nine months of the income year, in the case of the installment required to be paid in the 12th month of the taxable year.

(B) (i) If the taxpayer makes an election under this clause, each of the following shall apply:

(I) Clause (i) of subparagraph (A) shall be applied by substituting "two months" for "three months."

(II) Clause (ii) of subparagraph (A) shall be applied by substituting "four months" for "three months."

(III) Clause (iii) of subparagraph (A) shall be applied by substituting "seven months" for "six months."

(IV) Clause (iv) of subparagraph (A) shall be applied by substituting "ten months" for "nine months."

(ii) If the taxpayer makes an election under this clause, each of the following shall apply:

(I) Clause (ii) of subparagraph (A) shall be applied by substituting "five months" for "three months."

(II) Clause (iii) of subparagraph (A) shall be applied by substituting "eight months" for "six months."

(III) Clause (iv) of subparagraph (A) shall be applied by substituting "eleven months" for the "nine months."

(iii) An election under clause (i) or (ii) shall apply to the income year for which the election is made and shall be effective only if the election is made on or before the date required for the payment of the first required installment for that income year.

(iv) This subparagraph shall apply to income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

(C) For purposes of this paragraph, the taxable income shall be placed on an annualized basis in the following manner:

(i) Multiply by 12 the taxable income referred to in subparagraph (A).

(ii) Divide the resulting amount by the number of months in the income year referred to in subparagraph (A).

"Taxable income" as used in this paragraph means "net income" includable in the measure of tax or "alternative minimum taxable income" (as defined by Section 23455).

(D) In the case of any corporation which is subject to the tax imposed under Section 23731, any reference to taxable income shall be treated as including a reference to unrelated business taxable income and, except in the case of an election under subparagraph (B), each of the following shall apply:

(i) Clause (i) of subparagraph (A) shall be applied by substituting "two months" for "three months."

(ii) Clause (ii) of subparagraph (A) shall be applied by substituting "four months" for "three months."

(iii) Clause (iii) of subparagraph (A) shall be applied by substituting "seven months" for "six months."

(iv) Clause (iv) of subparagraph (A) shall be applied by substituting "ten months" for "nine months."

(3) The applicable percentage specified in Section 19144 or more of the tax for the income year was paid by withholding of tax pursuant to Section 18662.

(4) The applicable percentage specified in Section 19144 or more of the net income for the income year consists of items from which an amount was withheld pursuant to Section 18662 and the amount of the first installment, including payments applied pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 19025, equals at least the minimum franchise tax specified in Section 23153.

(b) (1) For purposes of this section, "large corporation" means any corporation if that corporation (or any predecessor corporation) had taxable income (computed without regard to net operating loss deductions) of one million dollars ($1,000,000) or more for any income year during the testing period.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, "testing period" means the three income years immediately preceding the income year involved.

SEC. 28. Section 19164 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19164. (a) (1) An accuracy-related penalty shall be imposed under this part and shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 6662 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to imposition of accuracy-related penalty.

(2) With respect to corporations, this subdivision shall apply to all of the following:

(A) All income years beginning on or after January 1, 1990.

(B) Any other income year for which an assessment is made after July 16, 1991.

(b) A fraud penalty shall be imposed under this part and shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 6663 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to imposition of fraud penalty.

(c) The provisions of Section 6664 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to definitions and special rules, shall apply.

(d) The provisions of Section 6665 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to applicable rules, shall apply.

SEC. 29. Section 19192 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19192. For purposes of this article:

(a) (1) "Qualified business entity" means an entity that is all of the following:

(B) A business entity, including any predecessors to the business entity, that previously has never filed a return with the Franchise Tax Board pursuant to this part, Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23011).

(C) A business entity, including any predecessors to the business entity, that previously has not been the subject of an inquiry by the Franchise Tax Board with respect to liability for any of the taxes imposed under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

(D) A business entity that voluntarily comes forward prior to any unilateral contact from the Franchise Tax Board, makes application for a voluntary disclosure agreement in a form and manner prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, and makes a full and accurate statement of its activities in this state for the six immediately preceding taxable or income years.

(2) (A) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), a qualified business entity does not include any of the following:

(i) A business entity that is organized and existing under the laws of this state.

(ii) A business entity that is qualified or registered with the office of the Secretary of State.

(iii) A business entity that maintains and staffs a permanent facility in this state.

(B) For purposes of this paragraph, the storing of materials, goods, or products in a public warehouse pursuant to a public warehouse contract does not constitute maintaining a permanent facility in this state.

(3) "Qualified shareholder" means an individual that is all of the following:

(B) A shareholder of an S corporation (defined in Section 23800) that has applied for a voluntary disclosure agreement under this article under which all material facts pertinent to the shareholder's liability would be disclosed on that S corporation's voluntary disclosure agreement as required under clause (i) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 19191.

(4) Notwithstanding paragraph (3), subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 19191 shall not apply to any of the six taxable years immediately preceding the signing date that the qualified shareholder was a California resident required to file a California tax return, nor to any penalties or additions to tax attributable to income other than the California source income from the S corporation that filed an application under this article.

(b) "Signing date" of the voluntary disclosure agreement means the date on which a person duly authorized by the Franchise Tax Board signs the agreement.

(c) The amendments to this section made by the act adding this subdivision shall apply to taxable or income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 30. Section 19254 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19254. (a) (1) If any person, other than an organization exempt from taxation under Section 23701, fails to pay any amount of tax, penalty, addition to tax, interest, or other liability imposed and delinquent under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), or this part, a collection cost recovery fee shall be imposed if the Franchise Tax Board has mailed notice to that person for payment that advises that continued failure to pay the amount due may result in collection action, including the imposition of a collection cost recovery fee. The collection cost recovery fee shall be in the amount of:

(A) In the case of an individual, partnership, limited liability company classified as a partnership for California income tax purposes, or fiduciary, eighty-eight dollars ($88) or an amount as adjusted under subdivision (b).

(B) In the case of a corporation or limited liability company classified as a corporation for California income tax purposes, one hundred sixty-six dollars ($166) or an amount as adjusted under subdivision (b).

(2) If any person, other than an organization exempt from taxation under Section 23701, fails or refuses to make and file a tax return required by Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part

11 (commencing with Section 23001), or this part, within 25 days after formal legal demand to file the tax return is mailed to that person by the Franchise Tax Board, the Franchise Tax Board shall impose a filing enforcement cost recovery fee in the amount of:

(A) In the case of an individual, partnership, limited liability company classified as a partnership for California income tax purposes, or fiduciary, fifty-one dollars ($51) or an amount as adjusted under subdivision (b).

(B) In the case of a corporation or limited liability company classified as a corporation for California income tax purposes, one hundred nineteen dollars ($119) or an amount as adjusted under subdivision (b).

(b) For fees imposed under this section during the fiscal year 1993–94 and fiscal years thereafter, the amount of those fees shall be set to reflect actual costs and shall be specified in the annual Budget Act.

(c) Interest shall not accrue with respect to the cost recovery fees provided by this section.

(d) The amounts provided by this section are obligations imposed by this part and may be collected in any manner provided under this part for the collection of a tax.

(e) Subdivision (a) is operative with respect to the notices for payment or formal legal demands to file, either of which is mailed on or after September 15, 1992.

(f) The Franchise Tax Board shall determine the total amount of the cost recovery fees collected or accrued through June 30, 1993, and shall notify the Controller of that amount. The Controller shall transfer that amount to the Franchise Tax Board, and that amount is hereby appropriated to the board for the 1992–93 fiscal year for reimbursement of its collection and filing enforcement efforts.

SEC. 31. Section 19263 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19263. At any sale authorized by Section 19262, the property shall be sold by the Franchise Tax Board or its duly authorized agent in accordance with law and the notice of sale, and the Franchise Tax Board shall deliver to the purchaser a bill of sale for the property so sold and the bill of sale shall vest title in the purchaser. The unsold portion of any property so seized may be left at the place of sale at the risk of the taxpayer. If, upon any sale, the moneys so received exceed the amount of all taxes, interest, penalties and costs due the state from the taxpayer, any excess shall be returned to the taxpayer and a receipt therefor obtained. However, if any person having an interest in or lien upon the property has filed with the Franchise Tax Board prior to any sale notice of the interest or lien, the Franchise Tax Board shall withhold any excess pending a determination of the rights of the respective parties thereto by a court of competent jurisdiction.

If, for any reason, the receipt of the taxpayer is not available, the Franchise Tax Board shall deposit the excess moneys with the Treasurer, as trustee for the owner, subject to the order of the taxpayer or his or her trust or estate, or in the case of a corporation, its successor through reorganization, merger, or consolidation, or its stockholders upon dissolution.

SEC. 35. Section 19301 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19301. (a) If the Franchise Tax Board or the board, as the case may be, finds that there has been an overpayment of any liability imposed under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), or this part by a taxpayer for any year for any reason, the amount of the overpayment may be credited against any amount then due from the taxpayer and the balance shall be refunded to the taxpayer.

(b) In the case of a joint return filed under Section 18521, the amount of the overpayment may be credited against the amount then due from both taxpayers and the balance shall be refunded to both taxpayers in the names under which the return was paid.

(c) In the case of a corporation, the balance shall be refunded to the taxpayer or its successor through reorganization, merger, or consolidation, or to its shareholders upon dissolution.

SEC. 36. Section 19340 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19340. Interest shall be allowed and paid on any overpayment in respect of any tax, at the adjusted annual rate established pursuant to Section 19521 as follows:

(a) In the case of a credit, from the date of the overpayment to the due date of the amount for which the credit is allowed. Any interest allowed on any credit shall first be credited on any amounts due from the taxpayer under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), this part, or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

(b) In the case of a refund, including a refund in excess of tax liability as prescribed in subdivision (j) of Section 17053.5, from the date of the overpayment to a date preceding the date of the refund warrant by not more than 30 days, the date to be determined by the Franchise Tax Board.

SEC. 37. Section 19392 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19392. If judgment is rendered against the Franchise Tax Board, the amount thereof shall first be credited against any taxes and interest due from the taxpayer and the remainder refunded to the taxpayer or his or her trust or estate, or in the case of a corporation, its successor through reorganization, merger, or consolidation, or its stockholders upon dissolution, by the Treasurer on warrants drawn by the Controller.

SEC. 38. Section 19411 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19411. The Franchise Tax Board may recover any refund or credit or any portion thereof which is erroneously made or allowed, together with interest at the adjusted annual rate established pursuant to Section 19521 from the date demand for recovery was made, in an action brought in a court of competent jurisdiction in the County of Sacramento in the name of the people of the State of California within whichever of the following period expires the later:

(a) Two years after the refund or credit was made.

(b) During the period within which the Franchise Tax Board may mail a notice of proposed additional assessment.

(c) In the case of a corporation, interest shall be computed from the date the refund was made or the credit allowed, instead of the date a demand for recovery was made.

SEC. 40. Section 19542 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19542. Except as otherwise provided in this article and as required to administer subdivision (b) of Section 19005, it is a misdemeanor for the Franchise Tax Board or any member thereof, or any deputy, agent, clerk, or other officer or employee of the state (including its political subdivisions), or any former officer or employee or other individual, who in the course of his or her employment or duty has or had access to returns, reports, or documents required to be filed under this part, to disclose or make known in any manner information as to the amount of income or any particulars (including the business affairs of a corporation) set forth or disclosed therein.

SEC. 41. Section 19563 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19563. This article does not prohibit the publication of statistics, so classified as to prevent the identification of particular reports or returns and the items thereof, or the publication of the percentage of dividends paid by any corporation that is deductible by the recipient under Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

SEC. 42. Section 19701 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19701. Any person who does any of the following is liable for a penalty of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000):

(a) With or without intent to evade any requirement of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), or this part or any lawful requirement of the Franchise Tax Board, fails to file any return or to supply any information required, or who, with or without that intent, makes, renders, signs, or verifies any false or fraudulent return or statement, or supplies any false or fraudulent information.

(b) Aids, abets, advises, encourages, or counsels any person to evade the tax imposed by Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) by not filing any return or supplying any information required under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), or this part, or, by making, rendering, signing, or verifying any false or fraudulent return or statement, or by supplying false or fraudulent information.

(c) Under this part, is required to pay any estimated tax or tax, who willfully fails to pay that estimated tax or tax, at the time or times required by law or regulations.

The penalty shall be recovered in the name of the people in any court of competent jurisdiction. Counsel for the Franchise Tax Board may, upon request of the district attorney or other prosecuting attorney, assist the prosecuting attorney in presenting the law or facts to recover the penalty at the trial of a criminal proceeding for violation of this section.

That person is also guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction be fined not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) or be imprisoned not to exceed one year, or both, at the discretion of the court, together with costs of investigation and prosecution.

(d) For purposes of subdivision (a), the president of a corporation, or the chief operating officer, is the person presumed to be responsible for filing any return or supplying information required from that corporation.

SEC. 43. Section 19705 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19705. (a) Any person who does any of the following shall be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, shall be fined not more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or imprisoned not more than three years, or both, together with the costs of investigation and prosecution:

(1) Willfully makes and subscribes any return, statement, or other document, that contains or is verified by a written declaration that it is made under penalty of perjury, and he or she does not believe to be true and correct as to every material matter.

(2) Willfully aids or assists in, or procures, counsels, or advises the preparation or presentation under, or in connection with any matter arising under, the Personal Income Tax Law or the Bank and Corporation Tax Law, of a return, affidavit, claim, or other document, that is fraudulent or is false as to any material matter, whether or not that falsity or fraud is with the knowledge or consent of the person authorized or required to present that return, affidavit, claim, or document.

(3) Simulates or falsely or fraudulently executes or signs any bond, permit, entry, or other document required by the provisions of the Personal Income Tax Law or the Bank and Corporation Tax Law, or by any regulation pursuant to that law, or procures the same to be falsely or fraudulently executed or advises, aids in, or connives at that execution.

(4) Removes, deposits, or conceals, or is concerned in removing, depositing, or concealing, any goods or commodities for or in respect whereof any tax is or shall be imposed, or any property upon which levy is authorized by Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 19201); or Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 688.010) of Division 1 of, and Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 706.010) of Division 2 of, Title 9 of the Code of Civil Procedure, with intent to evade or defeat the assessment or collection of any tax, additions to tax, penalty, or interest imposed by Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), or this part.

(5) In connection with any settlement under Section 19442, or offer of that settlement, or in connection with any closing agreement under Section 19441 or offer to enter into that agreement, willfully does any of the following:

(A) Conceals from any officer or employee of this state any property belonging to the estate of a taxpayer or other person liable in respect of the tax.

(B) Receives, withholds, destroys, mutilates, or falsifies any book, document, or record, or makes any false statement, relating to the estate or financial condition of the taxpayer or other person liable in respect of the tax.

(b) In the case of a corporation, the fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) limitation specified in subdivision (a) shall be increased to two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000).

(c) The fact that an individual's name is signed to a return, statement, or other document filed, including a return, statement, or other document filed using electronic technology pursuant to Section 18621.5, shall be prima facie evidence for all purposes that the return, statement, or other document was actually signed by him or her.

(d) For purposes of this section, "person" means the taxpayer, any member of the taxpayer's family, any corporation, agent, fiduciary, or representative of, or any other individual or entity acting on behalf of, the taxpayer, or any other corporation or entity owned or controlled by the taxpayer, directly or indirectly, or which owns or controls the taxpayer, directly or indirectly.

SEC. 44. Section 19706 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19706. Any person or any officer or employee of any corporation who, within the time required by or under the provisions of this part, willfully fails to file any return or to supply any information with intent to evade any tax imposed by Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), or who, willfully and with like intent, makes, renders, signs, or verifies any false or fraudulent return or statement or supplies any false or fraudulent information, is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year, or in the state prison, or by fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or by both the fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court, together with the costs of investigation and prosecution.

SEC. 45. Section 19719 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19719. Any person who attempts or purports to exercise the powers, rights, and privileges of a corporation that has been suspended pursuant to Section 23301 or who transacts or attempts to transact intrastate business in this state on behalf of a foreign corporation, the rights and privileges of which have been forfeited pursuant to the section, is punishable by a fine of not less than two hundred fifty dollars ($250) and not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 46. Section 23037 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23037. "Taxpayer" means any person subject to the tax imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101), Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 23400), or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501).

SEC. 47. Section 23038 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23038. (a) "Corporation" includes every corporation except corporations expressly exempt from the tax by this part or the Constitution of this state.

(b) (1) For the purposes of the tax imposed under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501), "corporation" also includes associations (including nonprofit associations that perform services, borrow money or own property), other than banking associations, and Massachusetts or business trusts. For the purposes of this part, a Massachusetts or business trust includes every business organization consisting essentially of an arrangement whereby property is conveyed to one, or more than one, trustee for purposes other than the mere conservation of assets, collecting and disbursing of fixed or periodic income, or the securing of an obligation.

(2) In addition to the above, for purposes of the tax imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101) for the purpose of exercising its franchise within this state, "corporation" also includes any limited liability company that is classified as an association for California tax purposes.

(3) "Corporation" includes any "corporation" operated by any receiver, liquidator, referee, trustee or other officers or agents appointed by any court, or an assignee for the benefit of creditors.

"Corporation" includes any professional corporation incorporated pursuant to Part 4 (commencing with Section 13400) of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code.

(4) Notwithstanding the above, "corporation" also includes a trust organized and operated exclusively for purposes contained in Section 23701d.

SEC. 47.5. Section 23038 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23038. (a) "Corporation" includes every corporation except corporations expressly exempt from the tax by this part or the Constitution of this state.

(b) (1) For the purposes of the tax imposed under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501), "corporation" also includes associations (including nonprofit associations that perform services, borrow money or own property), other than banking associations, and Massachusetts or business trusts. For the purposes of this part, a Massachusetts or business trust includes every business organization consisting essentially of an arrangement whereby property is conveyed to one, or more than one, trustee for purposes other than the mere conservation of assets, collecting and disbursing of fixed or periodic income, or the securing of an obligation. This paragraph shall apply for income or taxable years beginning before January 1, 1997.

(2) (A) For the purposes of the tax imposed under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501), "corporation" also includes associations (other than banking associations but including nonprofit associations that perform services, borrow money or own property), business trusts, and other business entities classified as associations.

(B) (i) For purposes of the preceding subparagraph, the classification of a business entity (including a business trust) as an association taxable as a corporation (under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501)) shall be determined under regulations of the Franchise Tax Board, which shall be consistent with federal regulations as in effect January 1, 1997, that classify a business entity as a partnership or an association taxable as a corporation or disregard the separate existence of certain business entities for tax purposes.

(ii) The classification of an eligible business entity as a partnership or an association taxable as a corporation for purposes of this part, Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), and Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401) shall be the same as the classification of the entity for federal tax purposes.

(iii) If the separate existence of an eligible business entity is disregarded for federal tax purposes, the separate existence of that business entity shall be disregarded for purposes of this part, Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) and Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401), other than Section 17941 (relating to the tax of a limited liability company), Section 17942 (relating to the fee of a limited liability company), Section 18633.5 (relating to the return of a limited liability company), and Sections 17039 and 23036 (relating to tax credits).

(C) Notwithstanding clauses (ii) and (iii) of subparagraph (B), an eligible business entity that, for any income year beginning within the 60-month period preceding January 1, 1997, was properly classified as an association taxable as a corporation for California tax purposes shall continue to be an association taxable as a corporation until it elects, under regulations issued pursuant to subparagraph

(B), to be classified or disregarded the same as the entity is classified or disregarded for federal tax purposes. The preceding sentence shall not apply to any entity that, during the 60-month period preceding January 1, 1997, was not doing business in this state, did not derive income from sources within this state, and had no owner who was a resident of this state.

(c) In addition to the above, for purposes of the tax imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101) for the purpose of exercising its franchise within this state, "corporation" also includes any limited liability company that is classified as an association for California tax purposes.

(d) "Corporation" includes any "corporation" operated by any receiver, liquidator, referee, trustee or other officers or agents appointed by any court, or an assignee for the benefit of creditors.

"Corporation" includes any professional corporation incorporated pursuant to Part 4 (commencing with Section 13400) of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code.

(e) Notwithstanding the above, "corporation" also includes a trust organized and operated exclusively for purposes contained in Section 23701d.

SEC. 48. Section 23040.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23040.1. (a) Notwithstanding Sections 23040 and 25101, income derived from or attributable to sources within this state shall not include the distributive share of interest, dividends, and gains from the sale or exchange of qualifying investment securities derived by a corporation that is a partner in a partnership that qualifies as an investment partnership under Section 17955, whether or not the partnership has a usual place of business in this state, if the income from the partnership is the corporation's only income derived from or attributable to sources within this state.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to a corporation that participates in the management of the investment activities of the investment partnership or that is engaged in a unitary business with another corporation or partnership that participates in the management of the investment activities of the partnership or has income derived from or attributable to sources within this state other than income described in subdivision (a).

(c) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Investment partnership" means a partnership that meets both of the following requirements:

(A) No less than 90 percent of the partnership's cost of its total assets consist of qualifying investment securities, deposits at banks or other financial institutions, and office space and equipment reasonably necessary to carry on its activities as an investment partnership.

(B) No less than 90 percent of its gross income consists of interest, dividends, and gains from the sale or exchange of qualifying investment securities.

(2) (A) "Qualifying investment securities" include all of the following:

(i) Common stock, including preferred or debt securities convertible into common stock, and preferred stock.

(ii) Bonds, debentures, and other debt securities.

(iii) Foreign and domestic currency deposits or equivalents and securities convertible into foreign securities.

(iv) Mortgage- or asset-backed securities secured by federal, state, or local governmental agencies.

(v) Repurchase agreements and loan participations.

(vi) Foreign currency exchange contracts and forward and futures contracts on foreign currencies.

(vii) Stock and bond index securities and futures contracts, and other similar financial securities and futures contracts on those securities.

(viii) Options for the purchase or sale of any of the securities, currencies, contracts, or financial instruments described in clauses (i) to (vii), inclusive.

(ix) Regulated futures contracts.

(B) "Qualifying investment securities" does not include an interest in a partnership unless that partnership is itself an investment partnership.

SEC. 49. Section 23095 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23095. No decree of dissolution, withdrawal, or cancellation shall be made and entered by any court, nor shall the county clerk of any county or the Secretary of State file any decree of dissolution, withdrawal, or cancellation or any other document by which the term of existence of the limited liability company shall be reduced or terminated, nor shall the Secretary of State file any certificate of the surrender or cancellation by a foreign limited liability company of its rights to do intrastate business in this state unless the limited liability company obtains from the Franchise Tax Board and files from the court, county clerk, or Secretary of State as the case may be, a tax clearance certificate indicating that the Franchise Tax Board is satisfied from the available evidence that all taxes and fees imposed by this chapter have been paid or are secured by bond, deposit, or otherwise. Within 30 days after receiving a request for a certificate, the Franchise Tax Board shall either issue the certificate or notify the person requesting the certificate of the amount of tax or fees that must be paid or the amount of bond, deposit, or other security that must be furnished as a condition of issuing the certificate. The issuance of the certificate shall not relieve the taxpayer or any individual or corporation from liability for any taxes, fees, penalties, or interest imposed by this code. The Franchise Tax Board shall furnish a copy of the tax clearance certificate to the Secretary of State.

SEC. 50. Section 23098 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23098. No decree of dissolution, withdrawal, or cancellation shall be made and entered by any court, nor shall the county clerk of any county or the Secretary of State file any decree of dissolution, withdrawal, or cancellation or any other document by which the term of existence of the registered limited liability partnership shall be reduced or terminated, nor shall the Secretary of State file any amended registration or notice by a foreign limited liability partnership that its rights to do intrastate business in this state have ceased or of its dissolution and winding up, unless the registered limited liability partnership or foreign limited liability partnership obtains from the Franchise Tax Board and files with the court, county clerk, or Secretary of State, as the case may be, a tax clearance certificate indicating that the Franchise Tax Board is satisfied from the available evidence that all taxes imposed by this chapter have been paid or are secured by bond, deposit, or otherwise. Within 30 days after receiving a request for a certificate, the Franchise Tax Board shall either issue the certificate or notify the person requesting the certificate of the amount of tax or fees that must be paid or the amount of bond, deposit, or other security that must be furnished as a condition of issuing the certificate. The issuance of the certificate shall not relieve the taxpayer or any individual or corporation from liability for any taxes, fees, penalties, or interest imposed by this code. The Franchise Tax Board shall furnish a copy of the tax clearance certificate to the Secretary of State.

SEC. 52. Section 23151 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23151. (a) With the exception of banks and financial corporations, every corporation doing business within the limits of this state and not expressly exempted from taxation by the provisions of the Constitution of this state or by this part, shall annually pay to the state, for the privilege of exercising its corporate franchises within this state, a tax according to or measured by its net income, to be computed at the rate of 7.6 percent upon the basis of its net income for the next preceding income year, or if greater, the minimum tax specified in Section 23153.

(b) For calendar or fiscal years ending after June 30, 1973, the rate of tax shall be 9 percent instead of 7.6 percent as provided by subdivision (a).

(c) For calendar or fiscal years ending in 1980 to 1986, inclusive, the rate of tax shall be 9.6 percent.

(d) For calendar or fiscal years ending in 1987 to 1996, inclusive, and for any income year beginning before January 1, 1997, the tax rate shall be 9.3 percent.

(e) For any income year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, the tax rate shall be 8.84 percent. The change in rate provided in this subdivision shall be made without proration otherwise required by Section 24251.

SEC. 53. Section 23151.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23151.1. Notwithstanding Section 23151, every corporation (except banks and financial corporations) doing business within the limits of this state and not exempted from taxation by the provisions of the Constitution of this state or by this part, shall annually pay to the state for the privilege of exercising its corporate franchises within this state, a tax determined as follows:

(a) With respect to corporations, other than those described in subdivision (b), which commence doing business within the state after December 31, 1971, the tax for the taxable year of commencement, whether or not for 12 full months, shall be the minimum franchise tax prescribed in Section 23153.

(b) If after December 31, 1972, a corporation commences to do business and ceases doing business in the same taxable year, the tax for that taxable year shall be according to or measured by its net income for the year, to be computed at the rate prescribed in Section 23151.

(c) With respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1972, other than the year of commencement described in subdivision (a) or (b) or the year of cessation described in subdivision (d), the tax for that taxable year shall be according to or measured by its net income for the next preceding income year, to be computed at the rate prescribed in Section 23151.

(d) With respect to corporations which cease doing business in a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1972, other than those described in subdivision (b), the tax for the taxable year of cessation shall be:

(1) According to or measured by its net income for the next preceding income year, to be computed at the rate prescribed in Section 23151, plus

(2) According to or measured by its net income for the income year during which the corporation ceased doing business, to be computed at the rate prescribed in Section 23151.

(e) In any event, the tax for any taxable year shall not be less than the minimum tax provided for in Section 23153 for that taxable year.

SEC. 54. Section 23151.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23151.2. Notwithstanding Section 23151, every corporation (except banks and financial corporations) not exempted from taxation by the provisions of the Constitution of this state or by this part which dissolves or withdraws, shall pay a tax for its taxable year of dissolution or withdrawal according to or measured by its net income for the income year in which it ceased doing business, unless that income has previously been included in the measure of tax for any taxable year, to be computed at the rate prescribed in Section 23151 for its taxable year of dissolution or withdrawal. In any event, the tax for the taxable year of its dissolution or withdrawal shall not be less than the minimum tax provided for in Section 23153 for that taxable year.

SEC. 55. Section 23153 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23153. (a) Every corporation described in subdivision (b) shall be subject to the minimum franchise tax specified in subdivision (d) from the earlier of the date of incorporation, qualification, or commencing to do business within this state, until the effective date of dissolution or withdrawal as provided in Section 23331 or, if later, the date the corporation ceases to do business within the limits of this state.

(b) Unless expressly exempted by this part or the California Constitution, subdivision (a) shall apply to each of the following:

(1) Every corporation that is incorporated under the laws of this state.

(2) Every corporation that is qualified to transact intrastate business in this state pursuant to Chapter 21 (commencing with Section 2100) of Division 1 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code.

(3) Every corporation that is doing business in this state.

(c) The following entities are not subject to the minimum franchise tax specified in this section:

(1) Credit unions.

(2) Nonprofit cooperative associations organized pursuant to Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 54001) of Division 20 of the Food and Agricultural Code that have been issued the certificate of the board of supervisors prepared pursuant to Section 54042 of the Food and Agricultural Code. The association shall be exempt from the minimum franchise tax for five consecutive income years, commencing with the first income year for which the certificate is issued pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 54042 of the Food and Agricultural Code. This paragraph only applies to nonprofit cooperative associations organized on or after January 1, 1994.

(d) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), corporations subject to the minimum franchise tax shall pay annually to the state a minimum franchise tax of eight hundred dollars ($800).

(2) The minimum franchise tax shall be twenty-five dollars ($25) for each of the following:

(A) A corporation formed under the laws of this state whose principal business when formed was gold mining, which is inactive and has not done business within the limits of the state since 1950.

(B) A corporation formed under the laws of this state whose principal business when formed was quicksilver mining, which is inactive and has not done business within the limits of the state since 1971, or has been inactive for a period of 24 consecutive months or more.

(3) For purposes of paragraph (2), a corporation shall not be considered to have done business if it engages in other than mining.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), a domestic corporation, as defined in Section 167 of the Corporations Code, that files a certificate of dissolution in the office of the Secretary of State pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 1905 of the Corporations Code and that does not thereafter do business shall not be subject to the minimum franchise tax for income years beginning on or after the date of that filing.

(f) The minimum franchise tax imposed by paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) shall not be increased by the Legislature by more than 10 percent during any calendar year.

SEC. 56. Section 23183.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23183.1. Notwithstanding Section 23183, every financial corporation doing business within the limits of this state and not exempted from taxation by the Constitution of this state or by this part, shall annually pay to the state for the privilege of exercising its corporate franchises within this state, a tax determined as follows:

(a) If a financial corporation commences to do business and ceases doing business in the same taxable year, the tax for that taxable year shall be according to or measured by its net income for that year, at the rate provided under Section 23186.

(b) With respect to taxable years other than the year of commencement described in subdivision (a) or the year of cessation described in subdivision (c), a tax according to or measured by its net income, to be computed at the rate prescribed in Section 23186 upon the basis of its net income for the next preceding income year.

(c) With respect to financial corporations, which cease doing business in a taxable year other than those described in subdivision (a), the tax for the taxable year of cessation shall be:

(1) According to or measured by its net income for the next preceding income year to be computed at the rate prescribed in Section 23186, plus

(2) According to or measured by its net income for the income year during which the financial corporation ceased doing business, to be computed at the rate prescribed in Section 23186.

SEC. 57. Section 23183.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23183.2. Notwithstanding Section 23183, every financial corporation not exempted from taxation by the provisions of the Constitution of this state or by this part which dissolves or withdraws, shall pay a tax for its taxable year of dissolution or withdrawal according to or measured by its net income for the income year in which it ceased doing business, to be computed at the rate prescribed in Section 23186 for its taxable year of dissolution or withdrawal, unless the income has previously been included in the measure of tax for any taxable year.

SEC. 58. Section 23184 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 59. Section 23184.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 60. Section 23185 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 61. Section 23185a of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 62. Section 23185b of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 63. Section 23186 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23186. For income years ending on or after December 31, 1995, the rate of tax on banks and financial corporations shall be the rate of tax specified in Section 23151, plus 2 percent.

SEC. 64. Section 23186.1 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 65. Section 23186.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 66. Section 23186.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 67. Section 23303 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23303. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 23301 or 23301.5, any corporation that transacts business or receives income within the period of its suspension or forfeiture shall be subject to tax under the provisions of this chapter.

SEC. 68. Section 23305.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23305.2. Notwithstanding Sections 23305 and 23305.1 that require a taxpayer to pay any liability to the Franchise Tax Board as a condition to revivor or relief from voidability, the Franchise Tax Board shall issue a certificate of revivor under Section 23305, or of relief from voidability under Section 23305.1, if the taxpayer provides the Franchise Tax Board with an assumption of liability, or a bond, deposit, or other security for taxpayer's liability, that is acceptable to the Franchise Tax Board. The Franchise Tax Board shall notify the person filing the application for revivor or relief from voidability of the amount of the bond, deposit, or other security, or of the terms of an assumption of liability, that must be furnished as a condition of the revivor or the relief from voidability. Obtaining revivor or voidability relief by securing the debt pursuant to this section shall not constitute an admission of liability by the taxpayer, nor relieve the taxpayer or any individual or corporation from liability for any taxes, additions to tax, penalties, or interest imposed by this part. A taxpayer that provides an assumption of liability or a bond, deposit, or other security to obtain revivor or relief from voidability may, notwithstanding Section 23305 or 23305.1, file any returns required under those sections within a reasonable time after relief is granted by the Franchise Tax Board.

SEC. 69. Section 23332 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23332. (a) Except in the case of a taxpayer subject to the provisions of Section 23222a, any taxpayer which is dissolved or withdraws from the state during any taxable year shall pay a tax only for the months of the taxable year which precede the effective date of the dissolution or withdrawal, according to or measured by (1) the net income of the preceding income year or (2) a percentage of net income determined by ascertaining the ratio which the months of the taxable year, preceding the effective date of dissolution or withdrawal, bears to the months of the income year, whichever is the lesser amount. The taxes levied under this chapter shall not be subject to abatement or refund because of the cessation of business or corporate existence of any taxpayer pursuant to a reorganization, consolidation, or merger (as defined by Section 23251). In any event, each corporation shall pay a tax not subject to offset for the period in an amount equal to the minimum tax prescribed by Section 23153.

(b) The provisions of subdivision (a) shall be applied only with respect to taxpayers which dissolve or withdraw before January 1, 1973. On and after that date, the tax for the taxable year in which the taxpayer ceases doing business, dissolves or withdraws shall be determined under the appropriate provisions of Section 23151.1, 23153, 23181, or 23183, whichever is applicable. However, if all of the following conditions are satisfied, a minimum franchise tax shall not be imposed with respect to the taxable year in which a tax clearance certificate is issued by the Franchise Tax Board:

(2) The taxpayer files a certificate of dissolution with the Secretary of State prior to the beginning of that taxable year, in accordance with Section 1905 of the Corporations Code.

SEC. 70. Section 23332.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23332.5. If a financial corporation ceases doing business, dissolves, or withdraws from the state during any taxable year, the tax for the taxable year during which cessation of doing business, dissolution or withdrawal occurs shall be computed as prescribed by subdivision (b) or (d) of Section 23183, 23183.1, or 23183.2.

SEC. 71. Section 23334 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23334. No decree of dissolution shall be made and entered by any court, nor shall the county clerk of any county or the Secretary of State file a decree of dissolution, or file in the case of a credit union incorporated under the California Credit Union Law a certificate of election to dissolve, or in the case of any other taxpayer file a certificate of dissolution, except as provided in subdivision (c) of Section 1905 of the Corporations Code, or any other document by which the term of existence of the taxpayer shall be reduced or terminated, nor shall the Secretary of State file any certificate of the surrender by a foreign corporation of its right to do intrastate business in this state unless the taxpayer obtains from the Franchise Tax Board and files with the court, county clerk, or Secretary of State as the case may be, a tax clearance certificate indicating that the Franchise Tax Board is satisfied from the available evidence that all taxes imposed by this chapter have been paid or are secured by bond, deposit, or otherwise. Within 30 days after receiving a request for a certificate, the Franchise Tax Board shall either issue the certificate or notify the person requesting the certificate of the amount of tax that must be paid or the amount of bond, deposit, or other security that must be furnished as a condition of issuing the certificate. The issuance of the certificate shall not relieve the taxpayer or any individual or corporation from liability for any taxes, penalties, or interest imposed by this part, nor shall the issuance of the certificate in the case of any credit union which revokes its election to wind up and dissolve, relieve that credit union of any taxes or interest that would have been imposed under this part had the election not been filed.

The Franchise Tax Board shall furnish a copy of the tax clearance certificate to the Secretary of State.

SEC. 72. Section 23455 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23455. For purposes of this part, Section 55 of the Internal Revenue Code is modified as follows:

(a) Section 55(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tentative minimum tax, is modified by requiring the tentative minimum tax for the taxable year to be imposed as follows:

(1) With respect to corporations subject to tax under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101), other than banks or financial corporations, according to or measured by net income, for the privilege of doing business within this state, at a rate of 7 percent upon the basis of so much of the alternative minimum taxable income for the taxable year as exceeds the exemption amount.

(2) With respect to corporations subject to tax under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501), on net income from sources within this state, at a rate of 7 percent upon the basis of so much of the alternative minimum taxable income for the taxable year as exceeds the exemption amount.

(3) With respect to organizations or trusts subject to tax under Article 2 (commencing with Section 23731) of Chapter 4, on the unrelated business income from sources within this state, at a rate of 7 percent upon the basis of so much of the alternative taxable income for the taxable year as exceeds the exemption amount.

(4) With respect to banks subject to tax under Section 23181, according to or measured by net income, for the privilege of doing business within this state, in an amount equal to the sum of the following:

(A) At a rate of 7 percent upon the basis of so much of the alternative minimum taxable income as exceeds the exemption amount.

(B) At the rate determined under Section 23186, less the rate prescribed by Section 23151, upon the basis of net income for the taxable year.

(5) With respect to financial corporations subject to tax under Section 23183, according to or measured by net income, for the privilege of doing business within this state, in an amount equal to the sum of the following:

(A) At a rate of 7 percent upon the basis of so much of the alternative minimum taxable income as exceeds the exemption amount.

(B) At the rate determined under Section 23186, less the rate prescribed by Section 23151, upon the basis of net income for the taxable year.

(b) Section 55(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the definition of alternative minimum taxable income, is modified as follows:

(1) For corporations whose net income is determined under Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), alternative minimum taxable income shall be allocated and apportioned in the same manner as net income is allocated and apportioned for purposes of the regular tax.

(2) With respect to taxpayers subject to Article 4 (commencing with Section 23221) of Chapter 2, Article 4 (commencing with Section 23221) to Article 9 (commencing with Section 23361), inclusive, shall apply to the tax imposed by this section except that Section 23221 shall not apply.

(3) For purposes of computing the alternative minimum tax for taxable years in which a taxpayer commenced doing business, dissolves, withdraws, or ceases doing business, Sections 18601, 23151, 23151.1, 23151.2, 23181, 23183, 23183.1, 23183.2, 23201 to 23204, inclusive, 23222 to 23224.5, inclusive, 23282, 23332.5, and 23504 shall be applied with due regard for the rate and alternative minimum taxable income prescribed by this chapter.

(c) Section 55(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the definition of regular tax, is modified to read:

(1) For purposes of this chapter, "regular tax" means the amount of tax imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101) or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501) or Article 2 (commencing with Section 23731) of Chapter 4, but does not include any amount imposed under paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 24667 or paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 24667.

(2) The tax specified in paragraph (1) shall be the amount determined prior to reduction by any credits against the tax.

(d) The rate of 7 percent prescribed in subdivision (a) shall be 6.65 percent for any income year beginning on or after January 1, 1997. The change in rate provided in this subdivision shall be made without proration otherwise required by Section 24251.

SEC. 73. Section 23501 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23501. (a) There shall be imposed upon every corporation, other than a bank, for each taxable year, a tax at the rate of 7.6 percent upon its net income derived from sources within this state on or after January 1, 1937, other than income for any period for which the corporation is subject to taxation under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101), according to or measured by its net income.

(b) For calendar or fiscal years ending after June 30, 1973, the rate of tax shall be 9 percent instead of 7.6 percent as provided by subdivision (a).

(c) For calendar or fiscal years ending after December 31, 1979, the rate of tax shall be the rate specified for those years by Section 23151.

SEC. 74. Section 23610.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23610.5. (a) (1) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 23036) a state low-income housing tax credit in an amount equal to the amount determined in subdivision (c), computed in accordance with Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(2) "Taxpayer," for purposes of this section, means the sole owner in the case of a C corporation, the partners in the case of a partnership, and the shareholders in the case of an S corporation.

(3) "Housing sponsor," for purposes of this section, means the sole owner in the case of a C corporation, the partnership in the case of a partnership, and the S corporation in the case of an S corporation.

(b) (1) The amount of the credit allocated to any housing sponsor shall be authorized by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee, or any successor thereof, based on a project's need for the credit for economic feasibility in accordance with the requirements of this section.

(A) The low-income housing project shall be located in California and shall meet either of the following requirements:

(i) The project's housing sponsor shall have been allocated by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee a credit for federal income tax purposes under Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) It shall qualify for a credit under Section 42(h)(4)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) The California Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall not require fees for the credit under this section in addition to those fees required for applications for the tax credit pursuant to Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code. The committee may require a fee if the application for the credit under this section is submitted in a calendar year after the year the application is submitted for the federal tax credit.

(2) (A) The California Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall certify to the housing sponsor the amount of tax credit under this section allocated to the housing sponsor for each credit period.

(B) In the case of a partnership or an S corporation, the housing sponsor shall provide a copy of the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee certification to the taxpayer.

(C) The taxpayer shall, upon request, provide a copy of the certification to the Franchise Tax Board.

(D) All elections made by the taxpayer pursuant to Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply to this section.

(E) For buildings located in designated difficult development areas or qualified census tracts as defined in Section 42(d)(5)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code, credits may be allocated under this section in the amounts prescribed in subdivision (c), provided that the amount of credit allocated under Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code is computed on 100 percent of the qualified basis of the building.

(c) Section 42(b) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) In the case of any qualified low-income building placed in service by the housing sponsor during 1987, the term "applicable percentage" means 9 percent for each of the first three years and 3 percent for the fourth year for new buildings (whether or not the building is federally subsidized) and for existing buildings.

(2) In the case of any qualified low-income building that receives an allocation after 1989 and is a new building not federally subsidized, the term "applicable percentage" means the following:

(A) For each of the first three years, the percentage prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury for new buildings that are not federally subsidized for the taxable year, determined in accordance with the requirements of Section 42(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, in lieu of the percentage prescribed in Section 42(b)(1)(A).

(B) For the fourth year, the difference between 30 percent and the sum of the applicable percentages for the first three years.

(3) In the case of any qualified low-income building that receives an allocation after 1989 and that is a new building that is federally subsidized or that is an existing building that is "at risk of conversion," the term "applicable percentage" means the following:

(A) For each of the first three years, the percentage prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury for new buildings that are federally subsidized for the taxable year.

(B) For the fourth year, the difference between 13 percent and the sum of the applicable percentages for the first three years.

(4) For purposes of this section, the term "at risk of conversion," with respect to an existing building means a building that satisfies all of the following criteria:

(A) The building is presently owned by a housing sponsor other than a qualified nonprofit organization.

(B) The building is a federally assisted building for which the low-income use restrictions will terminate or the building is eligible for prepayment under Subtitle 13 of the Emergency Low Income Housing Assistance Act of 1987 or under Section 502(c) of the Housing Act of 1949, anytime in the two calendar years after the year of application to the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee, and the purchaser has received preliminary approval from the applicable federal agency for a maximum level of incentives through a plan of action.

(C) The person acquiring the building enters into a regulatory agreement that requires the building to be operated in accordance with the requirements of this section for a period equal to the greater of 55 years or the life of the building.

(D) The building satisfies the requirements of Section 42(e) of the Internal Revenue Code regarding rehabilitation expenditures, except that the provisions of Section 42(e)(3)(A)(ii)(I) shall not apply.

(d) The term "qualified low-income housing project" as defined in Section 42(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by adding the following requirements:

(1) The taxpayer shall be entitled to receive a cash distribution from the operations of the project, after funding required reserves, which, at the election of the taxpayer, is equal to:

(A) An amount not to exceed 8 percent of the lesser of:

(i) The owner equity that shall include the amount of the capital contributions actually paid to the housing sponsor and shall not include any amounts until they are paid on an investor note; or

(ii) Twenty percent of the adjusted basis of the building as of the close of the first income year of the credit period; or

(B) The amount of the cash-flow from those units in the building that are not low-income units. For purposes of computing cash-flow under this subparagraph, operating costs shall be allocated to the low-income units using the "floor space fraction," as defined in Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(C) Any amount allowed to be distributed under subparagraph (A) that is not available for distribution during the first five years of the compliance period may accumulate and be distributed any time during the first 15 years of the compliance period but not thereafter.

(2) The limitation on return shall apply in the aggregate to the partners if the housing sponsor is a partnership and in the aggregate to the shareholders if the housing sponsor is an S corporation.

(3) The housing sponsor shall apply any cash available for distribution in excess of the amount eligible to be distributed under paragraph (1) to reduce the rent on rent-restricted units or to increase the number of rent-restricted units subject to the tests of Section 42(g)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(e) The provisions of Section 42(f) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) The term "credit period" as defined in Section 42(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by substituting "four income years" for "10 taxable years."

(2) The special rule for the first taxable year of the credit period under Section 42(f)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply to the tax credit under this section.

(3) Section 42(f)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read:

If, as of the close of any income year in the compliance period, after the first year of the credit period, the qualified basis of any building exceeds the qualified basis of that building as of the close of the first year of the credit period, the housing sponsor, to the extent of its tax credit allocation, shall be eligible for a credit on the excess in an amount equal to the applicable percentage determined pursuant to subdivision (c) for the four-year period beginning with the later of the income years in which the increase in qualified basis occurs.

(f) The provisions of Section 42(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) Section 42(h)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable and instead the following provisions shall be applicable:

The total amount for the four-year credit period of the housing credit dollars allocated in a calendar year to any building shall reduce the aggregate housing credit dollar amount of the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee for the calendar year in which the allocation is made.

(2) Paragraphs (3), (4), (5), (6)(E)(i)(II), (6)(F), (6)(G), (6)(I), (7), and (8) of Section 42(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable.

(g) The aggregate housing credit dollar amount which may be allocated annually by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee pursuant to this section, Section 12206, and Section 17058 shall be an amount equal to the sum of the following:

(1) Thirty-five million dollars ($35,000,000).

(2) The unused housing credit ceiling, if any, for the preceding calendar years; and

(3) The amount of housing credit ceiling returned in the calendar year. For purposes of this paragraph, the amount of housing credit dollar amount returned in the calendar year equals the housing credit dollar amount previously allocated to any project that does not become a qualified low-income housing project within the period required by this section or to any project with respect to which an allocation is canceled by mutual consent of the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee and the allocation recipient.

(h) The term "compliance period" as defined in Section 42(i)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to mean, with respect to any building, the period of 30-consecutive income years beginning with the first income year of the credit period with respect thereto.

(i) Section 42(j) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable and the following shall be substituted in its place:

(1) The requirements of this section shall be set forth in a regulatory agreement between the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee and the housing sponsor, and this agreement shall be subordinated, when required, to any lien or encumbrance of any banks or other institutional lenders to the project. The regulatory agreement entered into pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 50199.14 of the Health and Safety Code, shall apply, providing the agreement includes all of the following provisions:

(A) A term not less than the compliance period.

(B) A requirement that the agreement be filed in the official records of the county in which the qualified low-income housing project is located.

(C) A provision stating which state and local agencies can enforce the regulatory agreement in the event the housing sponsor fails to satisfy any of the requirements of this section.

(D) A provision that the regulatory agreement shall be deemed a contract enforceable by tenants as third-party beneficiaries thereto, and which allows individuals, whether prospective, present, or former occupants of the building, who meet the income limitation applicable to the building, the right to enforce the regulatory agreement in any state court.

(E) A provision incorporating the requirements of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code as modified by this section.

(F) A requirement that the housing sponsor notify the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee or its designee if there is a determination by the Internal Revenue Service that the project is not in compliance with Section 42(g) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(G) A requirement that the housing sponsor, as security for the performance of the housing sponsor's obligations under the regulatory agreement, assign the housing sponsor's interest in rents that it receives from the project, provided that until there is a default under the regulatory agreement, the housing sponsor is entitled to collect and retain the rents.

(H) The remedies available in the event of a default under the regulatory agreement that is not cured within a reasonable cure period, include, but are not limited to, allowing any of the parties designated to enforce the regulatory agreement to collect all rents with respect to the project; taking possession of the project and operating the project in accordance with the regulatory agreement until the enforcer determines the housing sponsor is in a position to operate the project in accordance with the regulatory agreement; applying to any court for specific performance; securing the appointment of a receiver to operate the project; or any other relief as may be appropriate.

(j) (1) The committee shall allocate the housing credit on a regular basis consisting of two or more periods in each calendar year during which applications may be filed and considered. The committee shall establish application filing deadlines, the maximum percentage of federal and state low-income housing tax credit ceiling that may be allocated by the committee in that period, and the approximate date on which allocations shall be made. If the enactment of federal or state law, the adoption of rules or regulations, or other similar events prevent the use of two allocation periods, the committee may reduce the number of periods and adjust the filing deadlines, maximum percentage of credit allocated, and the allocation dates.

(2) The committee shall adopt a qualified allocation plan, as provided in Section 42(m)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code. In adopting this plan, the committee shall comply with the provisions of Sections 42(m)(1)(B) and 42(m)(1)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) Notwithstanding Section 42(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee shall allocate housing credits in accordance with the qualified allocation plan and regulations, which shall include the following provisions:

(A) All housing sponsors, as defined by paragraph (3) of subdivision (a), shall demonstrate at the time the application is filed with the committee that the project meets the following threshold requirements:

(i) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate there is a need for low-income housing in the community or region for which it is proposed.

(ii) The project's proposed financing, including tax credit proceeds, shall be sufficient to complete the project and shall be adequate to operate the project for the extended use period.

(iii) The project shall have enforceable financing commitments, either construction or permanent financing, for at least 50 percent of the total estimated financing of the project.

(iv) The housing sponsor shall have and maintain control of the site for the project.

(v) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate that the project complies with all applicable local land use and zoning ordinances.

(vi) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate that the project development team has the experience and the financial capacity to ensure project completion and operation for the extended use period.

(vii) The housing sponsor shall demonstrate the amount of tax credit that is necessary for the financial feasibility of the project and its viability as a qualified low-income housing project throughout the extended use period, taking into account operating expenses, a supportable debt service, reserves, funds set aside for rental subsidies, and required equity, and a development fee that does not exceed a specified percentage of the eligible basis of the project prior to inclusion of the development fee in the eligible basis, as determined by the committee.

(B) The committee shall give a preference to those projects satisfying all of the threshold requirements of subparagraph (A) if:

(i) The project serves the lowest income tenants at rents affordable to those tenants; and

(ii) The project is obligated to serve qualified tenants for the longest period.

(C) In addition to the provisions of subparagraphs (A) and (B), the committee shall use the following criteria in allocating housing credits:

(i) Projects serving large families in which a substantial number, as defined by the committee of all residential units is comprised of low-income units with three and more bedrooms.

(ii) Projects providing single room occupancy units serving very low income tenants.

(iii) Existing projects that are "at risk of conversion," as defined by paragraph (4) of subdivision (c).

(iv) Projects for which a public agency provides direct or indirect long-term financial support for at least 15 percent of the total project development costs or projects for which the owner's equity constitutes at least 30 percent of the total project development costs.

(v) Projects that provide tenant amenities not generally available to residents of low-income housing projects.

(4) For purposes of allocating credits pursuant to this section, the committee shall not give preference to any project by virtue of the date of submission of its application except to break a tie when two or more of the projects have an equal rating.

(5) Not less than 20 percent of the low-income housing tax credits available annually under this section, Section 12206, and Section 17058 shall be set aside for allocation to rural areas as defined in Section 50199.21 of the Health and Safety Code. Any amount of credit set aside for rural areas remaining on or after October 31 of any calendar year shall be available for allocation to any eligible project. No amount of credit set aside for rural areas shall be considered available for any eligible project so long as there are eligible rural applications pending on October 31.

(k) Section 42(l) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

The term "secretary" shall be replaced by the term "California Franchise Tax Board."

(l) In the case where the state credit allowed under this section exceeds the "tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(m) A project that received an allocation of a 1989 federal housing credit dollar amount shall be eligible to receive an allocation of a 1990 state housing credit dollar amount, subject to all of the following conditions:

(1) The project was not placed in service prior to 1990.

(2) To the extent the amendments made to this section by the Statutes of 1990 conflict with any provisions existing in this section prior to those amendments, the prior provisions of law shall prevail.

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (2), a project applying for an allocation under this subdivision shall be subject to the requirements of paragraph (3) of subdivision (j).

(n) The credit period with respect to an allocation of credit in 1989 by the California Tax Credit Allocation Committee of which any amount is attributable to unallocated credit from 1987 or 1988 shall not begin until after December 31, 1989.

(o) The provisions of Section 11407(a) of Public Law 101-508, relating to the effective date of the extension of the low-income housing credit, shall apply to calendar years after 1989.

(p) The provisions of Section 11407(c) of Public Law 101-508, relating to election to accelerate credit, shall not apply.

(q) (1) A corporation may elect to assign any portion of any credit allowed under this section to one or more affiliated corporations for each income year in which the credit is allowed. For purposes of this subdivision, "affiliated corporation" has the meaning provided in subdivision (b) of Section 25110, as that section was amended by Chapter 881 of the Statutes of 1993, as of the last day of the income year in which the credit is allowed, except that "100 percent" is substituted for "more than 50 percent" wherever it appears in the section, as that section was amended by Chapter 881 of the Statutes of 1993, and "voting common stock" is substituted for "voting stock" wherever it appears in the section, as that section was amended by Chapter 881 of the Statutes of 1993.

(2) The election provided in paragraph (1):

(A) May be based on any method selected by the corporation that originally receives the credit.

(B) Shall be irrevocable for the income year the credit is allowed, once made.

(C) May be changed for any subsequent income year if the election to make the assignment is expressly shown on each of the returns of the affiliated corporations that assign and receive the credits.

(r) Any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (k), until the credit has been exhausted.

This section shall remain in effect on or after December 1, 1990, for as long as Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code, pertaining to low-income housing credits, remains in effect.

(s) The amendments to this section made by the act adding this subdivision shall apply only to income years beginning on or after

January 1, 1994, except that paragraph (1) of subdivision (q), as amended, shall apply to income years beginning on or after January 1, 1993.

SEC. 75. Section 23612.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23612.6. (a) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, and before January 1, 1998, there shall be allowed a credit against the "tax," as defined by Section 23036, for the income year an amount equal to the sales or use tax paid or incurred during the income year by the taxpayer in connection with the taxpayer's purchase of qualified property.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Taxpayer" means a corporation engaged in a trade or business within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designated pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code.

(2) "Qualified property" means the purchase on or after May 1, 1992, and before the zone expiration date, of either or both of the following:

(A) Building materials to replace or repair the taxpayer's building and fixtures.

(B) Machinery or equipment, excluding inventory, to be used by the taxpayer exclusively in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone.

(3) "Zone expiration date" means the date the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designation expires, is repealed, or becomes inoperative pursuant to Section 7102, 7103, or 7104 of the Government Code.

(c) If the taxpayer is allowed a credit for qualified property pursuant to this section, only one credit shall be allowed to the taxpayer under this part with respect to that qualified property.

(d) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds the tax for the income year, that portion of the credit that exceeds the tax may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in succeeding income years for the number of income years in which the designation of the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone under Section 7102 of the Government Code is operative, or 15 income years, if longer, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest income year possible.

(e) Any taxpayer who elects to be subject to this section shall not be entitled to increase the basis of the property as otherwise required by Section 164(a) of the Internal Revenue Code with respect to the sales and use tax paid or incurred in connection with the taxpayer's purchase of qualified property.

(f) (1) The amount of credit otherwise allowed under this section and Sections 23623.5 and 23625, including any credit carryover from prior years, that may reduce the tax for the income year shall not exceed the amount of tax which would be imposed on the taxpayer's business income attributable to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone (designated pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code) determined as if that attributable income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributable income described in paragraph (1) shall be that portion of the taxpayer's California source business income which is apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone. For that purpose, the taxpayer's business income attributable to sources in this state first shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101). That business income shall be further apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17, modified as follows:

(A) Business income shall be apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by multiplying total California business income of the taxpayer by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the income year and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state during the income year.

(C) The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid by the taxpayer in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the income year for compensation, and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid by the taxpayer in this state during the income year.

(3) The portion of the credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding income years, as if it were an amount exceeding the tax for the income year, as provided in subdivision (d).

(g) If the qualified property is disposed of or no longer used by the taxpayer in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone, at any time before the close of the second income year after the property is placed in service, the amount of the credit previously claimed shall be added to the taxpayer's tax liability in the income year of that disposition or nonuse.

(h) This section shall be inoperative as of the first day of the income year beginning on or after the determination date, and each income year thereafter, with respect to the taxpayer's business activities within a geographic area that is excluded from the map pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code, or an excluded area determined pursuant to Section 7104 of the Government Code. The determination date is the earlier of the first effective date of a determination under subdivision (c) of Section 7102 of the Government Code occurring after December 1, 1994, or the first effective date of an exclusion of an area from the amended Los Angeles Revitalization Zone under Section 7104 of the Government Code. However, if the taxpayer has any unused credit amount as of the date this section becomes inoperative, that unused credit amount may continue to be carried forward as provided in subdivision (d).

(i) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1998, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (d).

SEC. 76. Section 23623.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23623.5. (a) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, and before January 1, 1998, the taxpayer shall be allowed for hiring qualified disadvantaged individuals on or after May 1, 1992, a credit against the "tax," as defined in Section 23036, for the income year equal to the sum of each of the following:

(2) Forty percent of qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent of qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent of qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(5) Ten percent of qualified wages in the fifth year of employment.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified wages" means:

(A) That portion of wages paid or incurred by the taxpayer during the income year to qualified disadvantaged individuals that does not exceed 150 percent of the minimum wage.

(B) Wages received during the 60-month period beginning with the day the disadvantaged individual commences employment with the taxpayer.

(C) Qualified wages does not include any wages paid or incurred by the taxpayer on or after the zone expiration date.

(D) If, after a taxpayer hires a qualified disadvantaged individual, the geographic area in which the taxpayer's trade or business is located is excluded from the map of the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by the Trade and Commerce Agency pursuant to Section 7102 or 7104 of the Government Code, wages paid or incurred with respect to the disadvantaged individual may continue to be qualified wages and may qualify for the credit under this section, provided all provisions of this section are satisfied, applied as if the taxpayer's trade or business was still located within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone.

(2) "Minimum wage" means the wage established by the Industrial Welfare Commission as provided for in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1171) of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

(3) "Qualified disadvantaged individual" means an individual who is a qualified employee and a resident of the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone.

(4) "Los Angeles Revitalization Zone" means the area designated under Section 7102 of the Government Code.

(5) "Qualified employee" means an individual that meets both of the following:

(A) At least 90 percent of whose services for the taxpayer during the income year are directly related to the conduct of the taxpayer's trade or business located in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone.

(B) Who performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the taxpayer during the income year in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone.

(7) "Taxpayer" means a corporation engaged in a trade or business within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone.

(8) "Zone expiration date" means the date the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designation expires, is repealed, or becomes inoperative pursuant to Section 7102, 7103, or 7104 of the Government Code.

(9) (A) All employees of all corporations that are members of the same controlled group of corporations shall be treated as employed by a single taxpayer.

(B) The credit, if any, allowable by this section to each member shall be determined by reference to its proportionate share of the expense of the qualified wages giving rise to the credit and allocated in that manner.

(C) "Controlled group of corporations" means "controlled group of corporations" as defined in Section 1563(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that:

(i) "More than 50 percent" shall be substituted for "at least 80 percent" each place it appears in Section 1563(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) The determination shall be made without regard to Sections 1563(a)(4) and 1563(e)(3)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(10) If a taxpayer acquires the major portion of a trade or business of another employer (hereafter in this paragraph referred to as the "predecessor") or the major portion of a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor, then, for the purposes of applying this section (other than subdivision (c)) for any calendar year ending after that acquisition, the employment relationship between a disadvantaged individual and an employer shall not be treated as terminated if the individual continues to be employed in that trade or business.

(c) (1) If the employment of any disadvantaged individual, with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (a), is terminated by the taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment (whether or not consecutive) or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that individual completes 90 days of employment with the taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the income year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that income year and all prior income years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that individual.

(2) (A) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any of the following:

(i) A termination of employment of a disadvantaged individual who voluntarily leaves the employment of the taxpayer.

(ii) A termination of employment of a disadvantaged individual who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled and unable to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that individual.

(iii) A termination of employment of a disadvantaged individual, if it is determined under the applicable employment compensation provisions that the termination was due to the misconduct of that individual.

(iv) A termination of employment of a disadvantaged individual due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the taxpayer.

(v) A termination of employment of a disadvantaged individual, if that individual is replaced by other qualified employees so as to create a net increase in both the number of employees and the hours of employment.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the taxpayer and a disadvantaged individual shall not be treated as terminated by either of the following:

(i) By a transaction to which Section 381(a) of the Internal Revenue Code applies, if the individual continues to be employed by the acquiring corporation.

(ii) By reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the taxpayer, if the individual continues to be employed in that trade or business and the taxpayer retains a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(d) In the case of an organization to which Section 593 of the Internal Revenue Code applies, and a regulated investment company or a real estate investment trust subject to taxation under this part, rules similar to the rules provided in Sections 46(e) and 46(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply.

(e) The credit shall be reduced by the credits allowed under Sections 23621, 23622.7, 23623, and 23625, claimed for the same disadvantaged individual. The credit shall also be reduced by the federal credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for the wages or salaries paid or incurred by the taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit, prior to any reduction required by subdivision (f) or (g).

(f) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds tax for the income year, that portion of the credit that exceeds the tax may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in succeeding income years while the designation of the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone under Section 7102 of the Government Code is operative or 15 income years, if longer, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest income years possible.

(g) (1) The amount of credit otherwise allowed under this section and Sections 23612.6 and 23625, including any credit carryover from prior years, that may reduce the tax for the income year shall not exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the taxpayer's business income attributable to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone determined as if that attributable income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributable income described in paragraph (1) shall be that portion of the taxpayer's California source business income which is apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone. For that purpose, the taxpayer's business income attributable to sources in this state first shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101). That business income shall be further apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17, modified as follows:

(A) Business income shall be apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by multiplying total California business income of the taxpayer by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the income year and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state during the income year.

(C) The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid by the taxpayer in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the income year for compensation, and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid by the taxpayer in this state during the income year.

(3) The portion of the credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding income years, as if it were an amount exceeding the tax for the income year, as provided in subdivision (f).

(h) Except as provided in subparagraph (D) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), this section shall be inoperative on the first day of the income year beginning on or after the determination date, and each income year thereafter, with respect to the taxpayer's business activities within a geographic area that is excluded from the map pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code, or an excluded area determined pursuant to Section 7104 of the Government Code. The determination date is the earlier of the first effective date of a determination under subdivision (c) of Section 7102 of the Government Code occurring after December 1, 1994, or the first effective date of an exclusion of an area from the amended Los Angeles Revitalization Zone under Section 7104 of the Government Code. However, if the taxpayer has any unused credit amount as of the date this section becomes inoperative, that unused credit amount may continue to be carried forward as provided in subdivision (f).

(i) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1998, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as specified in subdivision (f).

SEC. 77. Section 23625 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23625. (a) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, and before January 1, 1998, there shall be allowed to a taxpayer who employs qualified employees in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the income year as a credit against the "tax," as defined in Section 23036, an amount equal to the sum of the following:

(1) One hundred percent of the qualified wages paid or incurred during the period from May 1, 1992, to the end of the sixth full month after the designation of the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone with respect to qualified employees that are hired during that period.

(2) Seventy-five percent of the qualified wages paid or incurred during the period from the beginning of the seventh month after designation to the end of the 12th full month after designation with respect to qualified employees that are hired during that period.

(3) Fifty percent of the qualified wages paid or incurred during the period from the beginning of the 13th month after designation to the end of the 60th full month after designation with respect to qualified employees that are hired during that period.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) (A) "Qualified wages" means that portion of wages paid or incurred by the taxpayer for construction work in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the income year with respect to qualified employees which does not exceed 150 percent of the minimum wage.

(B) If, after a taxpayer hires a qualified employee, the geographic area in which the taxpayer's trade or business is located is excluded from the map of the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by the Trade and Commerce Agency pursuant to Section 7102 or 7104 of the Government Code, wages paid or incurred with respect to the qualified employee may continue to be qualified wages and may qualify for the credit under this section, provided all provisions of this section are satisfied, applied as if the taxpayer's trade or business was still located within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone.

(2) "Minimum wage" means the wage established by the Industrial Welfare Commission as provided for in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1171) of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

(3) "Qualified employee" means an individual to whom both of the following apply:

(A) Is a resident, as defined in Section 7101 of the Government Code, in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone.

(B) Was hired by the taxpayer to perform construction work in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone.

(4) "Los Angeles Revitalization Zone" means the area designated pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code.

(5) "Construction work" means any work performed by a qualified employee directly related to the erection, demolition, repair, or renovation of a structure located within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone.

(6) "Taxpayer" means a corporation engaged in a trade or business within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone.

(c) If an employer acquires the major portion of a trade or business of another employer (hereafter in this subdivision referred to as the "predecessor") or the major portion of a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor, then, for the purposes of applying this section, other than subdivision (h), for any income year ending after the acquisition, the employment relationship between a qualified employee and employer shall not be treated as terminated if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business.

(d) The credit shall be reduced by the credits allowable under Sections 23621, 23622, 23623, and 23623.5 claimed for the same qualified employee. The credit shall also be reduced by the credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code for the same qualified employee.

(e) Any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for the wages or salaries paid or incurred by the taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of credit, prior to any reduction required by subdivision (f) or (g).

(f) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds the tax for the income year, that portion of the credit that exceeds the tax may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in succeeding income years for the number of income years in which the designation of the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone under Section 7102 of the Government Code is operative, or 15 income years, if longer, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest income year possible.

(g) (1) The amount of credit otherwise allowed under this section and Sections 23612.6 and 23623.5, including any credit carryover from prior years, that may reduce the tax for the income year shall not exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the taxpayer's business income attributable to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone determined as if that attributable income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributable income described in paragraph (1) shall be that portion of the taxpayer's California source business income which is apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone. For that purpose, the taxpayer's business income attributable to sources in this state first shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101). That business income shall be further apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 of Part 11, modified as follows:

(A) Business income shall be apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by multiplying total California business income of the taxpayer by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the income year and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state during the income year.

(C) The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid by the taxpayer in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the income year for compensation, and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid by the taxpayer in this state during the income year.

(3) The portion of the credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding income years, as if it were an amount exceeding the tax for the income year, as provided in subdivision (f).

(h) (1) If the employment of any qualified employee, with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (a) is terminated by the taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment (whether or not consecutive) or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that employee completes 90 days of employment with the taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the income year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that income year and all prior income years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that employee.

(2) (A) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any of the following:

(i) A termination of employment of a qualified employee who voluntarily leaves the employment of the taxpayer.

(ii) A termination of employment of a qualified employee who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled and unable to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that qualified employee.

(iii) A termination of employment of a qualified employee, if it is determined under the applicable employment compensation provisions that the termination was due to the misconduct of that qualified employee.

(iv) A termination of employment of a qualified employee due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the taxpayer.

(v) A termination of employment of a qualified employee, if that qualified employee is replaced by other qualified employees so as to create a net increase in both the number of employees and the hours of employment.

(vi) A termination of employment due to a contractual agreement.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the taxpayer and a qualified employee shall not be treated as terminated by reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the taxpayer, if the qualified employee continues to be employed in that trade or business and the taxpayer retains a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(i) Except as provided in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), this section shall cease to be operative on the first day of the income year beginning on or after the determination date, and each income year thereafter, with respect to the taxpayer's business activities within a geographic area that is excluded from the map pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code, or an excluded area determined pursuant to Section 7104 of the Government Code. For purposes of this subdivision, "determination date" means the earlier of the first effective date of a determination under subdivision (c) of Section 7102 of the Government Code occurring after December 1, 1994, or the first effective date of an exclusion of an area from the amended Los Angeles Revitalization Zone under Section 7104 of the Government Code. However, if the taxpayer has any unused credit amount as of the date this section becomes inoperative, that unused credit amount may continue to be carried forward as provided in subdivision (f).

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 1998, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward, as provided in subdivision (f).

SEC. 78. Section 23645 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23645. (a) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1995, and before January 1, 2003, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 23036) for the income year an amount equal to the sales or use tax paid or incurred by the taxpayer in connection with the purchase of qualified property to the extent that the qualified property does not exceed a value of twenty million dollars ($20,000,000).

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "LAMBRA" means a local agency military base recovery area designated in accordance with Section 7114 of the Government Code.

(2) "Taxpayer" means a corporation that conducts a trade or business within a LAMBRA and, for the first two income years, has a net increase in jobs (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) of one or more employees in the LAMBRA.

(A) The net increase in the number of jobs shall be determined by subtracting the total number of full-time employees (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) the taxpayer employed in this state in the income year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA from the total number of full-time employees the taxpayer employed in this state during the second income year after commencing business operations in the LAMBRA. For taxpayers who commence doing business in this state with their LAMBRA business operation, the number of employees for the income year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA shall be zero. If the taxpayer has a net increase in jobs in the state, the credit shall be allowed only if one or more full-time employees is employed within the LAMBRA.

(B) The total number of employees employed in the LAMBRA shall equal the sum of both of the following:

(i) The total number of hours worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees (not to exceed 2,000 hours per employee) who are paid an hourly wage divided by 2,000.

(ii) The total number of months worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees that are salaried employees divided by 12.

(C) In the case of a taxpayer who first commences doing business in the LAMBRA during the income year, for purposes of clauses (i) and (ii), respectively, of subparagraph (B) the divisors "2,000" and "12" shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months of the income year that the taxpayer was doing business in the LAMBRA and the denominator of which is 12.

(3) "Qualified property" means the purchase of any of the following for exclusive use in a LAMBRA:

(A) High technology equipment, including, but not limited to, computers and electronic processing equipment.

(B) Aircraft maintenance equipment, including, but not limited to, engine stands, hydraulic mules, power carts, test equipment, handtools, aircraft start carts, and tugs.

(C) Aircraft components, including, but not limited to, engines, fuel control units, hydraulic pumps, avionics, starts, wheels, and tires.

(D) Any property that is Section 1245 property, as defined in Section 1245(a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) The credit provided under subdivision (a) shall only be allowed for qualified property manufactured in California unless qualified property of a comparable quality and price is not available for timely purchase and delivery from a California manufacturer.

(d) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds the "tax" for the income year, that portion of the credit which exceeds the "tax" may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in succeeding years, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest income years possible.

(e) Any taxpayer who elects to be subject to this section shall not be entitled to increase the basis of the property as otherwise required by Section 164(a) of the Internal Revenue Code with respect to sales or use tax paid or incurred in connection with the purchase of qualified property.

(f) (1) The amount of the credit otherwise allowed under this section and Section 23646, including any credit carryovers from prior years, that may reduce the "tax" for the income year shall not exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the taxpayer's business income attributed to a LAMBRA determined as if that attributable income represented all the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributable income described in paragraph (1) shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(A) Income shall be apportioned to a LAMBRA by multiplying total business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor, plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) "The LAMBRA" shall be substituted for "this state."

(3) The portion of any credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding income years, as if it were an amount exceeding the "tax" for the income year, as provided in subdivision (d).

(g) (1) If the qualified property is disposed of or no longer used by the taxpayer in the LAMBRA, at any time before the close of the second taxable year after the property is placed in service, the amount of the credit previously claimed, with respect to that property, shall be added to the taxpayer's tax liability in the taxable year of that disposition or nonuse.

(2) At the close of the second income year, if the taxpayer has not increased the number of its employees as determined by paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), then the amount of the credit previously claimed shall be added to the taxpayer's tax for the taxpayer's second income year.

(h) If the taxpayer is allowed a credit for qualified property pursuant to this section, only one credit shall be allowed to the taxpayer under this part with respect to that qualified property.

(i) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 2003, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried forward as provided in subdivision (d), until the credit is exhausted.

SEC. 79. Section 23646 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23646. (a) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1995, and before January 1, 2003, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined in Section 23036) to a qualified taxpayer for hiring a qualified disadvantaged individual or a qualified displaced employee during the income year for employment in the LAMBRA. The credit shall be equal to the sum of each of the following:

(2) Forty percent of the qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent of the qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent of the qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(5) Ten percent of the qualified wages in the fifth year of employment.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified wages" means:

(A) That portion of wages paid or incurred by the employer during the income year to qualified disadvantaged individuals or qualified displaced employees that does not exceed 150 percent of the minimum wage.

(B) The total amount of qualified wages which may be taken into account for purposes of claiming the credit allowed under this section shall not exceed two million dollars ($2,000,000) per income year.

(C) Wages received during the 60-month period beginning with the day the individual commences employment with the taxpayer.

(2) "Minimum wage" means the wage established by the Industrial Welfare Commission as provided for in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1171) of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

(3) "LAMBRA" means a local agency military base recovery area designated in accordance with the provisions of Section 7114 of the Government Code.

(4) "Qualified disadvantaged individual" means an individual who satisfies all of the following requirements:

(A) (i) At least 90 percent of whose services for the taxpayer during the income year are directly related to the conduct of the taxpayer's trade or business located in a LAMBRA.

(ii) Who performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the taxpayer during the income year in the LAMBRA.

(B) Who is hired by the employer after the designation of the area as a LAMBRA in which the individual's services were primarily performed.

(C) Who is any of the following immediately preceding the individual's commencement of employment with the taxpayer:

(i) An individual who has been determined eligible for services under the federal Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 1501 et seq.).

(ii) Any voluntary or mandatory registrant under the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 provided for pursuant to Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(iii) Any individual who has been certified eligible by the Employment Development Department under the federal Targeted Jobs Tax Credit Program whether or not this program is in effect.

(5) "Qualified taxpayer" means a corporation that conducts a trade or business within a LAMBRA and, for the first two income years, has a net increase in jobs (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) of one or more employees as determined below in the LAMBRA.

(A) The net increase in the number of jobs shall be determined by subtracting the total number of full-time employees (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) the taxpayer employed in this state in the income year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA from the total number of full-time employees the taxpayer employed in this state during the second income year after commencing business operations in the LAMBRA. For taxpayers who commence doing business in this state with their LAMBRA business operation, the number of employees for the income year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA shall be zero. If the taxpayer has a net increase in jobs in the state, the credit shall be allowed only if one or more full-time employees is employed within the LAMBRA.

(B) The total number of employees employed in the LAMBRA shall equal the sum of both of the following:

(i) The total number of hours worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees (not to exceed 2,000 hours per employee) who are paid an hourly wage divided by 2,000.

(ii) The total number of months worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees who are salaried employees divided by 12.

(C) In the case of a qualified taxpayer that first commences doing business in the LAMBRA during the income year, for purposes of clauses (i) and (ii), respectively, of subparagraph (B) the divisors "2,000" and "12" shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months of the income year that the taxpayer was doing business in the LAMBRA and the denominator of which is 12.

(6) "Qualified displaced employee" means an individual who satisfies all of the following requirements:

(A) Any civilian or military employee of a base or former base that has been displaced as a result of a federal base closure act.

(B) (i) At least 90 percent of whose services for the taxpayer during the income year are directly related to the conduct of the taxpayer's trade or business located in a LAMBRA.

(ii) Who performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the taxpayer during the income year in a LAMBRA.

(C) Who is hired by the employer after the designation of the area in which services were performed as a LAMBRA.

(c) (1) For purposes of this section, both of the following apply:

(A) All employees of all corporations that are members of the same controlled group of corporations shall be treated as employed by a single employer.

(B) The credit (if any) allowable by this section to each member shall be determined by reference to its proportionate share of the qualified wages giving rise to the credit.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, "controlled group of corporations" has the meaning given to that term by Section 1563(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that both of the following apply:

(A) "More than 50 percent" shall be substituted for "at least 80 percent" each place it appears in Section 1563(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) The determination shall be made without regard to Section 1563(a)(4) and Section 1563(e)(3)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) If an employer acquires the major portion of a trade or business of another employer (hereinafter in this paragraph referred to as the "predecessor") or the major portion of a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor, then, for purposes of applying this section (other than subdivision (d)) for any calendar year ending after that acquisition, the employment relationship between an employee and an employer shall not be treated as terminated if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business.

(d) (1) If the employment of any employee with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (a) is terminated by the taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment (whether or not consecutive) or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that employee completes 90 days of employment with the taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the income year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that income year and all prior income years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that employee.

(2) (A) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any of the following:

(i) A termination of employment of an employee who voluntarily leaves the employment of the taxpayer.

(ii) A termination of employment of an individual who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that individual.

(iii) A termination of employment of an individual, if it is determined under the applicable unemployment compensation laws that the termination was due to the misconduct of that individual.

(iv) A termination of employment of an individual due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the taxpayer.

(v) A termination of employment of an individual, if that individual is replaced by other qualified employees so as to create a net increase in both the number of employees and the hours of employment.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the taxpayer and an employee shall not be treated as terminated by either of the following:

(i) A transaction to which Section 381(a) of the Internal Revenue Code applies, if the employee continues to be employed by the acquiring corporation.

(ii) A mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the taxpayer, if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business and the taxpayer retains a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(4) At the close of the second income year, if the taxpayer has not increased the number of its employees as determined by paragraph (5) of subdivision (b), then the amount of the credit previously claimed shall be added to the taxpayer's tax for the taxpayer's second income year.

(e) In the case of an organization to which Section 593 of the Internal Revenue Code applies, and a regulated investment company or a real estate investment trust subject to taxation under this part, rules similar to the rules provided in Section 46(e) and Section 46(h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply.

(f) The credit shall be reduced by the credit allowed under Section 23621. The credit shall also be reduced by the federal credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for the wages or salaries paid or incurred by the taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit, prior to any reduction required by subdivision (g) or (h).

(g) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds the "tax" for the income year, that portion of the credit that exceeds the "tax" may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in succeeding years, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest income years possible.

(h) (1) The amount of credit otherwise allowed under this section and Section 23645, including any prior year carryovers, that may reduce the "tax" for the income year shall not exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the taxpayer's business income attributed to a LAMBRA determined as if that attributed income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributed income described in paragraph (1) shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(A) Income shall be apportioned to a LAMBRA by multiplying total business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) "The LAMBRA" shall be substituted for "this state."

(3) The portion of any credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding income years, as if it were an amount exceeding the "tax" for the income year, as provided in subdivision (g).

(i) If the taxpayer is allowed a credit pursuant to this section for qualified wages paid or incurred, only one credit shall be allowed to the taxpayer under this part with respect to any wage consisting in whole or in part of those qualified wages.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 2003, and as of that date is repealed. However, any unused credit may continue to be carried over as provided in subdivision (g), until the credit is exhausted.

SEC. 80. Section 23731 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23731. Every organization or trust exempt under this chapter, except as provided in this article, is subject to the tax imposed upon its unrelated business taxable income as defined in Section 23732.

(a) Corporations (other than banks and financial corporations), associations, and business trusts are subject to the tax rates imposed under Section 23151 or Section 23501.

(b) Trusts will be subject to the tax rates imposed by subdivision (e) of Section 17041.

This section applies to income years beginning after December 31, 1970.

SEC. 81. Section 23802 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23802. (a) Section 1363(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the taxability of an S corporation, shall not be applicable.

(b) Corporations qualifying under this chapter shall continue to be subject to the taxes imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101) and Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501), except as follows:

(1) The tax imposed under Section 23151 or 23501 shall be imposed at a rate of $1^1/_2$ percent rather than the rate specified in those sections.

(2) In the case of an "S corporation" which is also a financial corporation, the rate of tax specified in paragraph (1) shall be increased by the excess of the rate imposed under Section 23183 over the rate imposed under Section 23151.

(c) An "S corporation" shall be subject to the minimum franchise tax imposed under Section 23153.

(d) (1) For purposes of subdivision (b), an "S corporation" shall be allowed a deduction under Section 24416 or 24416.1 (relating to net operating loss deductions), but only with respect to losses incurred during periods in which the corporation had in effect a valid election to be treated as an "S corporation" for purposes of this part.

(2) Section 1371(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to denial of carryovers between "C years" and "S years," shall apply for purposes of the tax imposed under subdivision (b), except as provided in paragraph (1).

(3) The provisions of this subdivision shall not affect the amount of any item of income or loss computed in accordance with the provisions of Section 1366 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to pass-thru items to shareholders.

(4) For purposes of subdivision (b) of Section 17276, relating to limitations on loss carryovers, losses passed through to shareholders of an "S corporation," to the extent otherwise allowable without application of that subdivision, shall be fully included in the net operating loss of that shareholder and then that subdivision shall be applied to the entire net operating loss.

(e) For purposes of computing the taxes specified in subdivision (b), an "S corporation" shall be allowed a deduction from income for built-in gains and passive investment income for which a tax has been imposed under this part in accordance with the provisions of Section 1374 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax imposed on certain built-in gains, or Section 1375 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax imposed on passive investment income.

(f) For purposes of computing taxes imposed under this part, as provided in subdivision (b)—

(1) An "S corporation" shall compute its deductions for amortization and depreciation in accordance with the provisions of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) of Division 2.

(2) The provisions of Section 465 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to limitation of deductions to the amount at risk, shall be applied in the same manner as in the case of an individual.

(3) (A) The provisions of Section 469 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to limitations on passive activity losses and credits, shall be applied in the same manner as in the case of an individual. For purposes of the tax imposed under Section 23151 or 23501, as modified by this section, material participation shall be determined in accordance with Section 469(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain closely held "C corporations" and personal service corporations.

(B) For purposes of this paragraph, the "adjusted gross income" of the "S corporation" shall be equal to its "net income," as determined under Section 24341 with the modifications required by this subdivision, except that no deduction shall be allowed for contributions allowed by Section 24357.

(4) The exclusion provided under Section 18152.5 shall not be allowed to an "S corporation."

(g) The provisions of Section 1363(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to recapture of LIFO benefits, shall be modified for purposes of this part to refer to Section 19102 in lieu of Section 6601 of the Internal Revenue Code.

SEC. 82. Section 23809 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23809. There is hereby imposed a tax on built-in gains attributable to California sources, determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 1374 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax imposed on certain built-in gains, as modified by this section.

(a) (1) The rate of tax specified in Section 1374(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be equal to the rate of tax imposed under Section 23151 in lieu of the rate of tax specified in Section 11(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) In the case of an "S corporation" which is also a financial corporation, the rate of tax specified in paragraph (1) shall be increased by the excess of the rate imposed under Section 23183 over the rate imposed under Section 23151.

(b) The provisions of Section 1374(b)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to credits, shall be modified to provide that the tax imposed under subdivision (a) shall not be reduced by any credits allowed under this part.

(c) The provisions of Section 1374(b)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to coordination with Section 1201(a), shall not be applicable.

(d) In the case of a corporation which is subject to the provisions of former Section 1374 of the Internal Revenue Code (prior to amendment by Public Law 99-514), the provisions of that section shall be modified to provide that:

(1) The tax specified in Section 1374(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be equal to the rate of tax imposed under Section 23151 in lieu of the rate of tax specified in Section 11(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) In the case of an "S corporation" which is also a financial corporation, the rate of tax specified in paragraph (1) shall be increased by the excess of the rate imposed under Section 23183 over the rate imposed under Section 23151.

SEC. 83. Section 23811 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23811. Except as otherwise provided in this section, there is hereby imposed a tax on passive investment income attributable to California sources, determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 1375 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax imposed on passive investment income, as modified by this section.

(a) The tax imposed under this section shall not be imposed on an "S corporation" that has no excess net passive income for federal purposes determined in accordance with Section 1375 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) (1) The rate of tax shall be equal to the rate of tax imposed under Section 23151 in lieu of Section 11(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) In the case of an "S corporation" which is also a financial corporation, the rate of tax specified in paragraph (1) shall be increased by the excess of the rate imposed under Section 23183 over the rate imposed under Section 23151.

(c) The provisions of Section 1375(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to credits, shall be modified to provide that the tax imposed under subdivision (a) shall not be reduced by any credits allowed under this part.

(d) The term "subchapter C earnings and profits" as used in Sections 1362(d)(3) and 1375 of the Internal Revenue Code shall mean the subchapter C earnings and profits of the corporation attributable to California sources determined under this part, modified as provided in subdivision (e).

(e) (1) In the case of a corporation which elects to be treated as an "S corporation" for purposes of this part for its first income year beginning in 1987, or for its first income year for which it has in effect a valid federal S election, there shall be allowed as a deduction in determining that corporation's subchapter C earnings and profits at the close of any income year the amount of any consent dividend (as provided in paragraph (2)) paid after the close of that income year.

(2) In the event there is a determination that a corporation described in paragraph (1) has subchapter C earnings and profits at the close of any income year, that corporation shall be entitled to distribute a consent dividend to its shareholders. The amount of the consent dividend shall not exceed the difference between the corporation's subchapter C earnings and profits determined under subdivision (d) at the close of the income year with respect to which the determination is made and the corporation's subchapter C earnings and profits for federal income tax purposes at the same date. A consent dividend must be paid within 90 days of the date of the determination that the corporation has subchapter C earnings and profits. For this purpose, the date of a determination means the effective date of a closing agreement pursuant to Section 19441, the date an assessment of tax imposed by this section becomes final, or the date of execution by the corporation of an agreement with the Franchise Tax Board relating to liability for the tax imposed by this section. For purposes of Part 10 and this part, a corporation must make the election provided in Section 1368(e)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code for any consent dividend.

(3) If a corporation distributes a consent dividend, it shall claim the deduction provided in paragraph (1) by filing a claim therefor with the Franchise Tax Board within 120 days of the date of the determination specified in paragraph (2).

(4) The collection of tax imposed by this section from a corporation described in paragraph (2) shall be stayed for 120 days after the date of the determination specified in paragraph (2). If a claim is filed pursuant to paragraph (3), collection of that tax shall be further stayed until the date the claim is acted upon by the Franchise Tax Board.

(5) If a claim is filed pursuant to paragraph (3), the running of the statute of limitations on the making of assessments and actions for collection of the tax imposed by this section shall be suspended for a period of two years after the date of the determination specified in paragraph (2).

SEC. 84. Section 24346 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24346. (a) For purposes of subdivision (a) of Section 24345, if real property is sold during any real property tax year, then—

(1) So much of the real property tax as is properly allocable to that part of the year which ends on the day before the date of the sale shall be treated as a tax imposed on the seller; and

(2) So much of that tax as is properly allocable to that part of the year which begins on the date of the sale shall be treated as a tax imposed on the purchaser.

(b) (1) In the case of any sale of real property; if—

(A) A corporation may not, by reason of its method of accounting, deduct any amount for taxes unless paid; and then for purposes of subdivision (a) of Section 24345 the corporation shall be treated as having paid, on the date of the sale, so much of the tax as, under subdivision (a), is treated as imposed on the corporation. For purposes of the preceding sentence, if neither party is liable for the tax, then the party holding the property at the time the tax becomes a lien on the property shall be considered liable for the real property tax for the real property tax year.

(B) The other party to the sale is (under the law imposing the real property tax) liable for the real property tax for the real property tax year;

(2) Subdivision (a) shall apply to income years beginning after December 31, 1960, but only in the case of sales after December 31, 1960.

(3) Subdivision (a) shall not apply to any real property tax, to the extent that the tax was allowable as a deduction under the Bank and Corporation Tax Law of 1954 to the seller for an income year which began before January 1, 1961.

(4) In the case of any sale of real property, if the corporation's net income for the income year during which the sale occurs is computed under an accrual method of accounting, and if no election under subdivision (b) of Section 24681 (relating to the accrual of real property taxes) applies, then, for purposes of subdivision (a) of Section 24345, that portion of the tax that—

(A) Is treated, under subdivision (a), as imposed on the corporation; and

(B) May not, by reason of the corporation's method of accounting, be deducted by the corporation for any income year, shall be treated as having accrued on the date of the sale.

SEC. 85. Section 24356.4 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24356.4. (a) A taxpayer may elect to treat the cost of any Section 24356.4 property as an expense that is not chargeable to the capital account. Any cost so treated shall be allowed as a deduction for the income year in which the taxpayer places the Section 24356.4 property in service.

(b) (1) An election made under this section for any income year shall meet both of the following requirements:

(A) Specify the items of Section 24356.4 property to which the election applies and the cost of each of those items that is to be taken into account under subdivision (a).

(B) Be made on the taxpayer's original return of the tax imposed by this part for the income year.

(2) Any election made under this section, and any specifications contained in that election, may not be revoked except with the consent of the Franchise Tax Board.

(c) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Taxpayer" means a corporation engaged in a trade or business within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designated pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code.

(2) "Section 24356.4 property" means any recovery property that is all of the following:

(B) Purchased and placed in service by the taxpayer on or after September 1, 1992, and before the zone expiration date.

(C) Used exclusively in a trade or business conducted within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designated pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code.

(3) "Purchase" means any acquisition of property, but only if all of the following apply:

(A) The property is not acquired from a person whose relationship to the person acquiring it would result in the disallowance of losses under Section 267 or 707(b) of the Internal Revenue Code (but, in applying Sections 267(b) and 267(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, Section 267(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be treated as providing that the family of an individual shall include only his or her spouse, ancestors, and lineal descendants).

(B) The property is not acquired by one member of an affiliated group from another member of the same affiliated group.

(C) The basis of the property in the hands of the person acquiring it is not determined in whole or in part by reference to the adjusted basis of the property in the hands of the person from whom acquired.

(4) "Zone expiration date" means the date the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designation expires, is repealed, or becomes inoperative pursuant to Section 7102, 7103, or 7104 of the Government Code.

(d) This section does not apply to any property described in Section 168(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to property to which Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code does not apply.

(e) This section applies only to Section 24356.4 property that is used by the taxpayer exclusively in a trade or business conducted in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone.

(f) Any amount deducted under subdivision (a) with respect to Section 24356.4 property that ceases to be used in the taxpayer's trade or business within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone at any time before the close of the second income year after the property was placed in service shall be included in income in the income year in which property ceases to be so used.

(g) This section shall be inoperative on the first day of the income year beginning on or after the determination date, and each income year thereafter, with respect to the taxpayer's business activities within a geographic area that is excluded from the map pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code, or an excluded area determined pursuant to Section 7104 of the Government Code. The determination date is the earlier of the first effective date of a determination under subdivision (c) of Section 7102 of the Government Code occurring after December 1, 1994, or the first effective date of an exclusion of an area from the amended Los Angeles Revitalization Zone under Section 7104 of the Government Code.

SEC. 86. Section 24356.8 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24356.8. (a) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1995, and before January 1, 2003, a taxpayer may elect to treat the cost of any Section 24356.8 property as an expense that is not chargeable to the capital account. Any cost so treated shall be allowed as a deduction for the income year in which the Section 24356.8 property is placed in service.

(b) (1) An election under this section for any income year shall meet both of the following requirements:

(A) Specify the items of Section 24356.8 property to which the election applies and the portion of the cost of each of those items that is to be taken into account under subdivision (a).

(B) Be made on the taxpayer's return of the tax imposed by this part for the income year.

(2) Any election made under this section, and any specification contained in that election, may not be revoked except with the consent of the Franchise Tax Board.

(c) (1) For purposes of this section, "Section 24356.8 property" means any recovery property that is Section 1245 property (as defined in Section 1245(a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code) and that the taxpayer acquires by purchase for exclusive use in a trade or business conducted within a LAMBRA.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), "purchase" means any acquisition of property, but only if all of the following apply:

(A) The property is not acquired from a person whose relationship to the person acquiring it would result in the disallowance of losses under Section 267 or 707(b) of the Internal Revenue Code (but, in applying Sections 267(b) and 267(c) of the Internal Revenue Code for purposes of this section, Section 267(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be treated as providing that the family of an individual shall include only his or her spouse, ancestors, and lineal descendants).

(B) The property is not acquired by one component member of an affiliated group from another component member of the same affiliated group.

(C) The basis of the property in the hands of the person acquiring it is not determined in whole or in part by reference to the adjusted basis of that property in the hands of the person from whom acquired.

(3) For purposes of this section, the cost of property does not include so much of the basis of that property as is determined by reference to the basis of other property held at any time by the person acquiring that property.

(4) This section shall not apply to any property for which the taxpayer may not make an election for the income year under Section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code because of the provisions of Section 179(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(5) For purposes of subdivision (b), both of the following apply:

(B) The taxpayer shall apportion the dollar limitation contained in subdivision (f) among the component members of the affiliated group in whatever manner the board shall by regulations prescribe.

(6) For purposes of paragraphs (2) and (5), "affiliated group" has the meaning assigned to it by Section 1504 of the Internal Revenue Code, except that, for these purposes, the phrase "more than 50 percent" shall be substituted for the phrase "at least 80 percent" each place it appears in Section 1504(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(7) This section shall not apply to any property described in Section 168(f) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(8) In the case of an S corporation, the dollar limitation contained in subdivision (f) shall be applied at the entity level and at the shareholder level.

(d) For purposes of this section:

(1) "LAMBRA" means a local agency military base recovery area designated in accordance with the provisions of Section 7114 of the Government Code.

(2) "Taxpayer" means a corporation that conducts a trade or business within a LAMBRA and, for the first two income years, has a net increase in jobs (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) of one or more employees in the LAMBRA.

(A) The net increase in the number of jobs shall be determined by subtracting the total number of full-time employees (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) the taxpayer employed in this state in the income year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA from the total number of full-time employees the taxpayer employed in this state during the second income year after commencing business operations in the LAMBRA. For taxpayers who commence doing business in this state with their LAMBRA business operation, the number of employees for the income year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA shall be zero. If the taxpayer has a net increase in jobs in the state, the credit shall be allowed only if one or more full-time employees is employed within the LAMBRA.

(B) The total number of employees employed in the LAMBRA shall equal the sum of both of the following:

(i) The total number of hours worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees (not to exceed 2,000 hours per employee) who are paid an hourly wage divided by 2,000.

(ii) The total number of months worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees who are salaried employees divided by 12.

(C) In the case of a taxpayer that first commences doing business in the LAMBRA during the income year, for purposes of clauses (i) and (ii), respectively, of subparagraph (B), the divisors "2,000" and "12" shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months of the income year that the taxpayer was doing business in the LAMBRA and the denominator of which is 12.

(e) Any taxpayer who elects to be subject to this section shall not be entitled to claim additional depreciation pursuant to Section 24356 with respect to any property that constitutes Section 24356.8 property.

(f) The deduction allowable under subdivision (a) for any income year shall not exceed the following applicable amount for the income year of the designation of a LAMBRA and each income year thereafter:

The applicable amount is:
Income year of designation	$ 5,000
1st income year thereafter	5,000
2nd income year thereafter	7,500
3rd income year thereafter	7,500
Each income year thereafter	10,000

(g) This section shall apply only to property that is used exclusively in a trade or business conducted within a LAMBRA.

(h) (1) Any amounts deducted under subdivision (a) with respect to property that ceases to be used in the trade or business within a LAMBRA at any time before the close of the second income year after the property was placed in service shall be included in income for that year.

(2) At the close of the second income year, if the taxpayer has not increased the number of its employees as determined by paragraph (2) of subdivision (d), then the amount of the deduction previously claimed shall be added to the taxpayer's net income for the taxpayer's second income year.

(i) Any taxpayer who elects to be subject to this section shall not be entitled to claim for the same property the deduction under Section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to an election to expense certain depreciable business assets.

(j) This section shall remain in effect only until December 1, 2003, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 87. Section 24357 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24357. (a) There shall be allowed as a deduction any charitable contribution (as defined in Section 24359) payment of which is made within the income year. A charitable contribution shall be allowable as a deduction only if verified under regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board.

(b) In the case of a corporation reporting its income on the accrual basis, if—

(1) The board of directors authorizes a charitable contribution during any income year; and

(2) Payment of the contribution is made after the close of that income year and on or before the 15th day of the third month following the close of that income year, then the corporation may elect to treat the contribution as paid during that income year. The election may be made only at the time of the filing of the return for that income year, and shall be signified in any manner as the Franchise Tax Board shall by regulations prescribe.

(c) For purposes of this section, payment of a charitable contribution that consists of a future interest in tangible personal property shall be treated as made only when all intervening interests in, and rights to the actual possession or enjoyment of, the property have expired or are held by persons other than the taxpayer or those standing in a relationship to the taxpayer described in Section 24428. For purposes of the preceding sentence, a fixture which is intended to be severed from the real property shall be treated as tangible personal property.

(d) No deduction shall be allowed under this section for traveling expenses (including amounts expended for meals and lodging) while away from home, whether paid directly or by reimbursement, unless there is no significant element of personal pleasure, recreation, or vacation in that travel.

SEC. 88. Section 24358 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24358. (a) In the case of a corporation, the total deductions under Section 24357 for any income year shall not exceed 10 percent of the taxpayer's net income computed without regard to any of the following:

(1) Subdivision (e) of Section 23802, relating to a deduction for built-in gains and passive investment income.

(2) Sections 24357 to 24359, inclusive, relating to the deduction for contributions.

(3) Article 2 (commencing with Section 24401) of Chapter 7 (except Sections 24407 to 24409, inclusive, relating to organizational expenses).

(b) Section 170(d)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to carryovers of excess contributions, shall apply with respect to excess contributions made during income years beginning on or after January 1, 1996.

SEC. 89. Section 24359 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24359. For purposes of Sections 24357 to 24359, inclusive, the term "charitable contribution" means a contribution or gift to or for the use of—

(a) A state, a possession of the United States, or any political subdivision of any of the foregoing, or the United States or the District of Columbia, but only if the contribution or gift is made for exclusively public purposes.

(b) A corporation, trust, or community chest, fund, or foundation—

(1) Created or organized in the United States or in any possession thereof, or under the law of the United States, any state, the District of Columbia, or any possession of the United States;

(2) Organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes or to foster national or international amateur sports competition (but only if no part of its activities involve the provision of athletic facilities or equipment), or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals;

(3) No part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual; and

(4) Which is not disqualified for tax exemption under Section 23701d by reason of attempting to influence legislation, and which does not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office.

A contribution or gift by a corporation to a trust, chest, fund, or foundation shall be deductible by reason of this section only if it is to be used within the United States or any of its possessions exclusively for purposes specified in paragraph (2). Rules similar to the rules of subdivision (b) of Section 23701d shall apply for purposes of this section.

(c) A post or organization of war veterans, or an auxiliary unit or society of, or trust or foundation for, any post or organization of war veterans—

(1) Organized in the United States or any of its possessions, and

(2) No part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual.

(d) A cemetery company owned and operated exclusively for the benefit of its members, or any corporation chartered solely for burial purposes as a cemetery corporation and not permitted by its charter to engage in any business not necessarily incident to that purpose, if the company or corporation is not operated for profit and no part of the net earnings of the company or corporation inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual.

SEC. 90. Section 24402 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24402. (a) A portion of the dividends received during the income year declared from income which has been included in the measure of the taxes imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101), Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 23400), or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501) upon the taxpayer declaring the dividends.

(b) The portion of dividends which may be deducted under this section shall be as follows:

(1) In the case of any dividend described in subdivision (a), received from a "more than 50 percent owned corporation," 100 percent.

(2) In the case of any dividend described in subdivision (a), received from a "20 percent owned corporation," 80 percent.

(3) In the case of any dividend described in subdivision (a), received from a corporation that is less than 20 percent owned, 70 percent.

(c) For purposes of this section:

(1) The term "more than 50 percent owned corporation" means any corporation if more than 50 percent of the stock of that corporation (by vote and value) is owned by the taxpayer. For purposes of the preceding sentence, stock described in Section 1504(a)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be taken into account.

(2) The term "20 percent owned corporation" means any corporation if 20 percent or more of the stock of that corporation (by vote and value) is owned by the taxpayer. For purposes of the preceding sentence, stock described in Section 1504(a)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be taken into account.

SEC. 91. Section 24407 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24407. The organizational expenditures of a corporation may, at the election of the corporation (made in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board), be treated as deferred expenses. In computing net income, the deferred expenses shall be allowed as a deduction ratably over that period of not less than 60 months as may be selected by the corporation (beginning with the month in which the corporation begins business).

SEC. 92. Section 24408 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24408. The term "organizational expenditures" means any expenditure that meets all of the following requirements:

(a) Is incident to the creation of the corporation.

(b) Is chargeable to capital account.

(c) Is of a character which, if expended incident to the creation of a corporation having a limited life, would be amortizable over that life.

SEC. 93. Section 24409 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24409. The election provided by Section 24407 may be made for any income year beginning after December 31, 1960, but only if made not later than the time prescribed by law for filing the return for that income year (including extensions thereof). The period so elected shall be adhered to in computing the income of the corporation for the income year for which the election is made and all subsequent income years. The election shall apply only with respect to the expenditures paid or incurred on or after June 23, 1961.

SEC. 94. Section 24411 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24411. (a) For purposes of those taxpayers electing to compute income under Section 25110, 100 percent of the qualifying dividends described in subdivision (c) and 75 percent of other qualifying dividends to the extent not otherwise allowed as a deduction or eliminated from income. "Qualifying dividends" means those received by the water's-edge group from corporations if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The average of the property, payroll, and sales factors within the United States for the corporation is less than 20 percent.

(2) More than 50 percent of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote is owned directly or indirectly by the water's-edge group.

(b) The water's-edge group consists of corporations whose income and apportionment factors are taken into account pursuant to Section 25110.

(c) Dividends derived from a construction project, the location of which is not subject to the taxpayer's control.

For purposes of this subdivision:

(1) "Construction project" means any activity which meets the following requirements:

(A) Is undertaken for any entity, including a governmental entity, which is not affiliated with the taxpayer.

(B) The majority of its cost of performance is attributable to an addition to real property or an alteration of land or any improvement thereto as those terms are utilized for purposes of this code.

"Construction project" does not include the operation, rental, leasing, or depletion of real property, land, or any improvement thereto.

(2) "Location of which is not subject to the taxpayer's control" means that the place at which the majority of the construction takes place results from the nature or character of the construction project and not as a result of the terms of the contract or agreement governing the construction project.

SEC. 95. Section 24416 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24416. Except as provided in Sections 24416.1 and 24416.2, a net operating loss deduction shall be allowed in computing net income under Section 24341 and shall be determined in accordance with Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, except as otherwise provided.

(a) (1) Net operating losses attributable to income years beginning before January 1, 1987, shall not be allowed.

(2) A net operating loss shall not be carried forward to any income year beginning before January 1, 1987.

(b) (1) Except as provided in paragraphs (2) and (3), the provisions of Section 172(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the amount of carryovers, shall be modified so that 50 percent of the entire amount of the net operating loss for any income year shall not be eligible for carryover to any subsequent income year.

(2) In the case of a taxpayer who has a net operating loss in an income year beginning on or after January 1, 1994, and who operates a new business during that income year, each of the following shall apply to each loss incurred during the first three income years of operating the new business:

(A) If the net operating loss is equal to or less than the net loss from the new business, 100 percent of the net operating loss shall be carried forward as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (e).

(B) If the net operating loss is greater than the net loss from the new business, the net operating loss shall be carried over as follows:

(i) With respect to an amount equal to the net loss from the new business, 100 percent of that amount shall be carried forward as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (e).

(ii) With respect to the portion of the net operating loss that exceeds the net loss from the new business, 50 percent of that amount shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the five taxable years following the taxable year of the loss.

(C) For purposes of Section 172(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, the amount described in clause (ii) of subparagraph (B) shall be absorbed before the amount described in clause (i) of subparagraph (B).

(3) In the case of a taxpayer who has a net operating loss in an income year beginning on or after January 1, 1994, and who operates an eligible small business during that income year, each of the following shall apply:

(A) If the net operating loss is equal to or less than the net loss from the eligible small business, 100 percent of the net operating loss shall be carried forward to the income years specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (e).

(B) If the net operating loss is greater than the net loss from the eligible small business, the net operating loss shall be carried over as follows:

(i) With respect to an amount equal to the net loss from the eligible small business, 100 percent of that amount shall be carried forward to each of the five income years following the income year of the loss.

(ii) With respect to the portion of the net operating loss that exceeds the net loss from the eligible small business, 50 percent of that amount shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the five income years following the income year of the loss.

(C) For purposes of Section 172(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, the amount described in clause (ii) of subparagraph (B) shall be absorbed before the amount described in clause (i) of subparagraph (B).

(4) In the case of a taxpayer who has a net operating loss in an income year beginning on or after January 1, 1994, and who operates a business that qualifies as both a new business and an eligible small business under this section, that business shall be treated as a new business for the first three income years of the new business.

(5) In the case of a taxpayer who has a net operating loss in an income year beginning on or after January 1, 1994, and who operates more than one business, and more than one of those businesses qualifies as either a new business or an eligible small business under this section, paragraph (2) shall be applied first, except that if there is any remaining portion of the net operating loss after application of clause (i) of subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2), paragraph (3) shall be applied to the remaining portion of the net operating loss as though that remaining portion of the net operating loss constituted the entire net operating loss.

(6) For purposes of this section, "net loss" means the amount of net loss after application of Sections 465 and 469 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) For any income year in which the taxpayer has in effect a water's-edge election under Section 25110, the deduction of a net operating loss carryover shall be denied to the extent that the net operating loss carryover was determined by taking into account the income and factors of an affiliated corporation in a combined report whose income and apportionment factors would not have been taken into account if a water's-edge election under Section 25110 had been in effect for the income year in which the loss was incurred.

(d) Net operating loss carrybacks shall not be allowed.

(e) (1) Except as provided in paragraphs (2), (3), and (4), for each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1987, Section 172(b)(1)(A)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to years to which net operating losses may be carried, is modified to substitute "five income years" in lieu of "15 taxable years."

(2) In the case of a "new business," the "five income years" referred to in paragraph (1) shall be modified to read as follows:

(A) "Eight income years" for a net operating loss attributable to the first income year of that new business.

(B) "Seven income years" for a net operating loss attributable to the second income year of that new business.

(C) "Six income years" for a net operating loss attributable to the third income year of that new business.

(3) For any carryover of a net operating loss for which a deduction is denied by Section 24416.3, the carryover period specified in this subdivision shall be extended as follows:

(A) By one year for a net operating loss attributable to income years beginning in 1991.

(B) By two years for a net operating loss attributable to income years beginning prior to January 1, 1991.

(4) The net operating loss attributable to income years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1994, shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the 10 income years following the year of the loss if it is incurred by a corporation that was either of the following:

(A) Under the jurisdiction of the court in a Title 11 or similar case at any time prior to January 1, 1994. The loss carryover provided in the preceding sentence shall not apply to any loss incurred in an income year after the income year during which the corporation is no longer under the jurisdiction of the court in a Title 11 or similar case.

(B) In receipt of assets acquired in a transaction that qualifies as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a)(1)(G) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(f) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Eligible small business" means any trade or business that has gross receipts, less returns and allowances, of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) during the income year.

(2) Except as provided in subdivision (g), "new business" means any trade or business activity that is first commenced in this state on or after January 1, 1994.

(3) "Title 11 or similar case" shall have the same meaning as in Section 368(a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(4) In the case of any trade or business activity conducted by a partnership or an S corporation, paragraphs (1) and (2) shall be applied to the partnership or S corporation.

(g) For purposes of this section, in determining whether a trade or business activity qualifies as a new business under paragraph (2) of subdivision (e), the following rules shall apply:

(1) In any case where a taxpayer purchases or otherwise acquires all or any portion of the assets of an existing trade or business (irrespective of the form of entity) that is doing business in this state (within the meaning of Section 23101), the trade or business thereafter conducted by the taxpayer (or any related person) shall not be treated as a new business if the aggregate fair market value of the acquired assets (including real, personal, tangible, and intangible property) used by the taxpayer (or any related person) in the conduct of its trade or business exceeds 20 percent of the aggregate fair market value of the total assets of the trade or business being conducted by the taxpayer (or any related person). For purposes of this paragraph only, the following rules shall apply:

(A) The determination of the relative fair market values of the acquired assets and the total assets shall be made as of the last day of the first income year in which the taxpayer (or any related person) first uses any of the acquired trade or business assets in its business activity.

(B) Any acquired assets that constituted property described in Section 1221(1) of the Internal Revenue Code in the hands of the transferor shall not be treated as assets acquired from an existing trade or business, unless those assets also constitute property described in Section 1221(1) of the Internal Revenue Code in the hands of the acquiring taxpayer (or related person).

(2) In any case where a taxpayer (or any related person) is engaged in one or more trade or business activities in this state, or has been engaged in one or more trade or business activities in this state within the preceding 36 months ("prior trade or business activity"), and thereafter commences an additional trade or business activity in this state, the additional trade or business activity shall only be treated as a new business if the additional trade or business activity is classified under a different division of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition, than are any of the taxpayer's (or any related person's) current or prior trade or business activities.

(3) In any case where a taxpayer, including all related persons, is engaged in trade or business activities wholly outside of this state and the taxpayer first commences doing business in this state (within the meaning of Section 23101) after December 31, 1993 (other than by purchase or other acquisition described in paragraph (1)), the trade or business activity shall be treated as a new business under paragraph (2) of subdivision (e).

(4) In any case where the legal form under which a trade or business activity is being conducted is changed, the change in form shall be disregarded and the determination of whether the trade or business activity is a new business shall be made by treating the taxpayer as having purchased or otherwise acquired all or any portion of the assets of an existing trade or business under the rules of paragraph (1) of this subdivision.

(5) "Related person" shall mean any person that is related to the taxpayer under either Section 267 or 318 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(6) "Acquire" shall include any transfer, whether or not for consideration.

(7) (A) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, the term "new business" shall include any taxpayer that is engaged in biopharmaceutical activities or other biotechnology activities that are described in Codes 2833 to 2836, inclusive, of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition, and as further amended, and that has not received regulatory approval for any product from the United States Food and Drug Administration.

(B) For purposes of this paragraph:

(i) "Biopharmaceutical activities" means those activities which use organisms or materials derived from organisms, and their cellular, subcellular, or molecular components, in order to provide pharmaceutical products for human or animal therapeutics and diagnostics. Biopharmaceutical activities make use of living organisms to make commercial products, as opposed to pharmaceutical activities which make use of chemical compounds to produce commercial products.

(ii) "Other biotechnology activities" means activities consisting of the application of recombinant DNA technology to produce commercial products, as well as activities regarding pharmaceutical delivery systems designed to provide a measure of control over the rate, duration, and site of pharmaceutical delivery.

(h) For purposes of corporations whose net income is determined under Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), Section 25108 shall apply to each of the following:

(1) The amount of net operating loss incurred in any income year which may be carried forward to another income year.

(2) The amount of any loss carry forward which may be deducted in any income year.

(i) The provisions of Section 172(b)(1)(K) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to bad debt losses of commercial banks, shall not be applicable.

(j) The Franchise Tax Board may prescribe appropriate regulations to carry out the purposes of this section, including any regulations necessary to prevent the avoidance of the purposes of this section through splitups, shell corporations, partnerships, tiered ownership structures, or otherwise.

(k) The Franchise Tax Board may reclassify any net operating loss carryover determined under either paragraph (2) or (3) of subdivision (b) as a net operating loss carryover under paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) upon a showing that the reclassification is necessary to prevent evasion of the purposes of this section.

(l) The amendments made by the act adding this subdivision shall be operative for income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 96. Section 24416.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24416.2. The term "qualified taxpayer" as used in Section 24416.1 means any of the following:

(a) A corporation engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within an enterprise zone designated pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(1) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback for any income year and a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after the date that the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated as an enterprise zone shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the 15 income years following the income year of loss.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision:

(B) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to the taxpayer's business income attributable to the enterprise zone (as defined in Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code) determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified for purposes of this section by substituting "enterprise zone" for "this state."

(C) "Enterprise zone expiration date" means the date the enterprise zone designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(b) A corporation engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designated pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code.

(1) (A) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback for any income year and, except as provided in subparagraph (B), a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after the date the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone shall be a net operating loss carryover to each following income year that ends before the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone expiration date or to each of the 15 income years following the income year of loss, if longer.

(B) In the case of a financial institution to which Section 585, 586, or 593 of the Internal Revenue Code applies, a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after January 1, 1984, shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the five years following the income year of the loss. Subdivision (b) of Section 24416.1 shall not apply.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "Net operating loss" means the loss determined under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 24416.1, attributable to the taxpayer's business activities within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone (as defined in Section 7102 of the Government Code) prior to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone

expiration date. The attributable loss shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified as follows:

(i) The loss shall be apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by multiplying the loss from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to the taxpayer's business income attributable to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone (as defined in Section 7102 of the Government Code) determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (3).

(3) Attributable income shall be that portion of the taxpayer's California source business income which is apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone. For that purpose, the taxpayer's business income attributable to sources in this state first shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101). That business income shall be further apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17, modified as follows:

(A) Business income shall be apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by multiplying total California business income of the taxpayer by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the income year and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state during the income year.

(C) The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid by the taxpayer in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the income year for compensation, and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid by the taxpayer in this state during the income year.

(4) "Los Angeles Revitalization Zone expiration date" means the date the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designation expires, is repealed, or becomes inoperative pursuant to Section 7102, 7103, or 7104 of the Government Code.

(5) This subdivision shall be inoperative on the first day of the income year beginning on or after the determination date, and each income year thereafter, with respect to the taxpayer's business activities within a geographic area that is excluded from the map pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code, or an excluded area determined pursuant to Section 7104 of the Government Code.

The determination date is the earlier of the first effective date of a determination under subdivision (c) of Section 7102 of the Government Code occurring after December 1, 1994, or the first effective date of an exclusion of an area from the amended Los Angeles Revitalization Zone under Section 7104 of the Government Code. However, if the taxpayer has any unused loss amount as of the date this section becomes inoperative, that unused loss amount may continue to be carried forward as provided in this subdivision.

(6) This subdivision shall cease to be operative on January 1, 1998. However, any unused net operating loss may continue to be carried over to following years as provided in this subdivision.

(c) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1995, and before January 1, 2003, a taxpayer engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within a LAMBRA.

(1) (A) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback for any income year and, except as provided in subparagraph (B), a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after the date the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated a LAMBRA shall be a net operating loss carryover to each following income year that ends before the LAMBRA expiration date or to each of the 15 income years following the income year of loss, if longer.

(B) In the case of a financial institution to which Section 585, 586, or 593 of the Internal Revenue Code applies, a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after January 1, 1984, shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the five years following the income year of the loss. Subdivision (b) of Section 24416.1 shall not apply.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "LAMBRA" means a local agency military base recovery area designated in accordance with Section 7114 of the Government Code.

(B) "Taxpayer" means a corporation that conducts a trade or business within a LAMBRA and, for the first two income years, has a net increase in jobs (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) of one or more employees in the LAMBRA and this state.

(i) The net increase in the number of jobs shall be determined by subtracting the total number of full-time employees (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) the taxpayer employed in this state in the income year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA from the total number of full-time employees the taxpayer employed in this state during the second income year after commencing business operations in the LAMBRA. For taxpayers who commence doing business in this state with their LAMBRA business operation, the number of employees for the income year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA shall be zero. The deduction shall be allowed only if the taxpayer has a net increase in jobs in the state, and if one or more full-time employees is employed within the LAMBRA.

(ii) The total number of employees employed in the LAMBRA shall equal the sum of both of the following:

(I) The total number of hours worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees (not to exceed 2,000 hours per employee) who are paid an hourly wage divided by 2,000.

(II) The total number of months worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees who are salaried employees divided by 12.

(iii) In the case of a taxpayer that first commences doing business in the LAMBRA during the income year, for purposes of subclauses (I) and (II), respectively, of clause (ii) the divisors "2,000" and "12" shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months of the income year that the taxpayer was doing business in the LAMBRA and the denominator of which is 12.

(C) "Net operating loss" means the loss determined under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 24416.1, attributable to the taxpayer's business activities within a LAMBRA prior to the LAMBRA expiration date. The attributable loss shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified as follows:

(i) Loss shall be apportioned to a LAMBRA by multiplying the loss from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(ii) "The LAMBRA" shall be substituted for "this state."

(D) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to the taxpayer's business income attributable to a LAMBRA determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified as follows:

(i) Business income shall be apportioned to a LAMBRA by multiplying total business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(ii) "The LAMBRA" shall be substituted for "this state."

(iii) If a loss carryover is allowable pursuant to this section for any income year after the LAMBRA designation has expired, the LAMBRA shall be deemed to remain in existence for purposes of computing this limitation.

(E) "LAMBRA expiration date" means the date the LAMBRA designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative pursuant to Section 7110 of the Government Code.

(d) A taxpayer who qualifies as a "qualified taxpayer" shall, for the income year of the net operating loss and any income year to which that net operating loss may be carried, designate on the original return filed for each year the subdivision of this section which applies to that taxpayer with respect to that net operating loss. If the taxpayer is eligible to qualify under more than one subdivision of this section, the designation is to be made after taking into account subdivision (e).

(e) If a taxpayer is eligible to qualify under more than one subdivision of this section as a "qualified taxpayer," with respect to a net operating loss in an income year, the taxpayer shall designate which subdivision of this section is to apply to the taxpayer.

(f) Notwithstanding Section 24416, the amount of the loss determined under this section shall be the only net operating loss allowed to be carried over from that income year and the designation under subdivision (d) shall be included in the election under Section 24416.1.

SEC. 96.5. Section 24416.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24416.2. The term "qualified taxpayer" as used in Section 24416.1 means any of the following:

(a) A corporation engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within an enterprise zone designated pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(1) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback for any income year and a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after the date that the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated as an enterprise zone shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the 15 income years following the income year of loss.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision:

(B) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to the taxpayer's business income attributable to the enterprise zone (as defined in Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code) determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified for purposes of this section by substituting "enterprise zone" for "this state."

(C) If a loss carryover is allowable pursuant to this section for any income year after the enterprise zone designation has expired, the enterprise zone shall be deemed to remain in existence for purposes of computing the limitation set forth in subparagraph (B) and allowing a net operating loss deduction.

(D) "Enterprise zone expiration date" means the date the enterprise zone designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(b) A corporation engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designated pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code.

(1) (A) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback for any income year and, except as provided in subparagraph (B), a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after the date the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone shall be a net operating loss carryover to each following income year that ends before the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone expiration date or to each of the 15 income years following the income year of loss, if longer.

(B) In the case of a financial institution to which Section 585, 586, or 593 of the Internal Revenue Code applies, a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after January 1, 1984, shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the five years following the income year of the loss. Subdivision (b) of Section 24416.1 shall not apply.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "Net operating loss" means the loss determined under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 24416.1, attributable to the taxpayer's business activities within the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone (as defined in Section 7102 of the Government Code) prior to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone expiration date. The attributable loss shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified as follows:

(i) The loss shall be apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by multiplying the loss from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to the taxpayer's business income attributable to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone (as defined in Section 7102 of the Government Code) determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (3).

(C) If a loss carryover is allowable pursuant to this section for any income year after the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designation has expired, the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone shall be deemed to remain in existence for purposes of computing the limitation set forth in subparagraph (B) and allowing a net operating loss deduction.

(3) Attributable income shall be that portion of the taxpayer's California source business income which is apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone. For that purpose, the taxpayer's business income attributable to sources in this state first shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101). That business income shall be further apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17, modified as follows:

(A) Business income shall be apportioned to the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone by multiplying total California business income of the taxpayer by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the income year and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state during the income year.

(C) The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid by the taxpayer in the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone during the income year for compensation, and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid by the taxpayer in this state during the income year.

(4) "Los Angeles Revitalization Zone expiration date" means the date the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone designation expires, is repealed, or becomes inoperative pursuant to Section 7102, 7103, or 7104 of the Government Code.

(5) This subdivision shall be inoperative on the first day of the income year beginning on or after the determination date, and each income year thereafter, with respect to the taxpayer's business activities within a geographic area that is excluded from the map pursuant to Section 7102 of the Government Code, or an excluded area determined pursuant to Section 7104 of the Government Code. The determination date is the earlier of the first effective date of a determination under subdivision (c) of Section 7102 of the Government Code occurring after December 1, 1994, or the first effective date of an exclusion of an area from the amended Los Angeles Revitalization Zone under Section 7104 of the Government Code. However, if the taxpayer has any unused loss amount as of the date this section becomes inoperative, that unused loss amount may continue to be carried forward as provided in this subdivision.

(6) This subdivision shall cease to be operative on January 1, 1998. However, any unused net operating loss may continue to be carried over to following years as provided in this subdivision.

(c) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1995, and before January 1, 2003, a taxpayer engaged in the conduct of a trade or business within a LAMBRA.

(1) (A) A net operating loss shall not be a net operating loss carryback for any income year and, except as provided in subparagraph (B), a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after the date the area in which the taxpayer conducts a trade or business is designated a LAMBRA shall be a net operating loss carryover to each following income year that ends before the LAMBRA expiration date or to each of the 15 income years following the income year of loss, if longer.

(B) In the case of a financial institution to which Section 585, 586, or 593 of the Internal Revenue Code applies, a net operating loss for any income year beginning on or after January 1, 1984, shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the five years following the income year of the loss. Subdivision (b) of Section 24416.1 shall not apply.

(2) For the purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "LAMBRA" means a local agency military base recovery area designated in accordance with Section 7114 of the Government Code.

(B) "Taxpayer" means a corporation that conducts a trade or business within a LAMBRA and, for the first two income years, has a net increase in jobs (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) of one or more employees in the LAMBRA and this state.

(i) The net increase in the number of jobs shall be determined by subtracting the total number of full-time employees (defined as 2,000 paid hours per employee per year) the taxpayer employed in this state in the income year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA from the total number of full-time employees the taxpayer employed in this state during the second income year after commencing business operations in the LAMBRA. For taxpayers who commence doing business in this state with their LAMBRA business operation, the number of employees for the income year prior to commencing business operations in the LAMBRA shall be zero. The deduction shall be allowed only if the taxpayer has a net increase in jobs in the state, and if one or more full-time employees is employed within the LAMBRA.

(ii) The total number of employees employed in the LAMBRA shall equal the sum of both of the following:

(I) The total number of hours worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees (not to exceed 2,000 hours per employee) who are paid an hourly wage divided by 2,000.

(II) The total number of months worked in the LAMBRA for the taxpayer by employees who are salaried employees divided by 12.

(iii) In the case of a taxpayer that first commences doing business in the LAMBRA during the income year, for purposes of subclauses (I) and (II), respectively, of clause (ii) the divisors "2,000" and "12" shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months of the income year that the taxpayer was doing business in the LAMBRA and the denominator of which is 12.

(C) "Net operating loss" means the loss determined under Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 24416.1, attributable to the taxpayer's business activities within a LAMBRA prior to the LAMBRA expiration date. The attributable loss shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified as follows:

(i) Loss shall be apportioned to a LAMBRA by multiplying the loss from the business by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(ii) "The LAMBRA" shall be substituted for "this state."

(D) A net operating loss carryover shall be a deduction only with respect to the taxpayer's business income attributable to a LAMBRA determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified as follows:

(i) Business income shall be apportioned to a LAMBRA by multiplying total business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(ii) "The LAMBRA" shall be substituted for "this state."

(iii) If a loss carryover is allowable pursuant to this section for any income year after the LAMBRA designation has expired, the LAMBRA shall be deemed to remain in existence for purposes of computing this limitation.

(E) "LAMBRA expiration date" means the date the LAMBRA designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative pursuant to Section 7110 of the Government Code.

(d) A taxpayer who qualifies as a "qualified taxpayer" shall, for the income year of the net operating loss and any income year to which that net operating loss may be carried, designate on the original return filed for each year the subdivision of this section which applies to that taxpayer with respect to that net operating loss. If the taxpayer is eligible to qualify under more than one subdivision of this section, the designation is to be made after taking into account subdivision (e).

(e) If a taxpayer is eligible to qualify under more than one subdivision of this section as a "qualified taxpayer," with respect to a net operating loss in an income year, the taxpayer shall designate which subdivision of this section is to apply to the taxpayer.

(f) Notwithstanding Section 24416, the amount of the loss determined under this section shall be the only net operating loss allowed to be carried over from that income year and the designation under subdivision (d) shall be included in the election under Section 24416.1.

SEC. 97. Section 24677 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24677. (a) If an amount representing damages is received or accrued by a corporation during an income year as a result of an award in a civil action for breach of contract or breach of a fiduciary duty or relationship, then the tax attributable to the inclusion in gross income for the income year of that part of the amount that would have been received or accrued by the corporation in a prior income year or years but for the breach of contract, or breach of a fiduciary duty or relationship, shall not be greater than the aggregate of the increases in taxes that would have resulted had that part been included in gross income for that prior income year or years.

(b) A corporation in computing the tax shall be entitled to deduct all credits and deductions for depletion, depreciation, and other items to which it would have been entitled, had the income been received or accrued by the corporation in the year during which it would have received or accrued it, except for the breach of contract or for the breach of fiduciary duty or relationship. The credits, deductions, or other items referred to in the prior sentence, attributable to property, shall be allowed only with respect to that part of the award which represents the corporation's share of income from the actual operation of the property.

(c) Subdivision (a) shall not apply unless the amount representing damage is three thousand dollars ($3,000) or more.

SEC. 98. Section 24678 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24678. (a) If an amount representing damages is received or accrued during an income year as a result of an award in, or settlement of, a civil action brought under Section 4 of the act entitled "An act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes," approved October 15, 1914 (commonly known as the Clayton Act), for injuries sustained by a corporation in its business or property by reason of anything forbidden in the antitrust laws, then the tax attributable to the inclusion of that amount in gross income for the income year shall not be greater than the aggregate of the increases in taxes which would have resulted if that amount had been included in gross income in equal installments for each month during the period in which the injuries were sustained by the corporation.

(b) This section shall apply to income years ending after June 23, 1961, but only with respect to amounts received or accrued after that date as a result of awards or settlements made after that date.

SEC. 99. Section 24901 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24901. (a) The gain from the sale or other disposition of property shall be the excess of the amount realized therefrom over the adjusted basis provided in Section 24911 for determining gain, and the loss shall be the excess of the adjusted basis provided in that section for determining loss over the amount realized.

(b) The amount realized from the sale or other disposition of property shall be the sum of any money received plus the fair market value of the property (other than money) received. In determining the amount realized—

(1) There shall not be taken into account any amount received as reimbursement for real property taxes which are treated under Section 24346 as imposed on the purchaser, and

(2) There shall be taken into account amounts representing real property taxes which are treated under Section 24346 as imposed on the corporation if those taxes are to be paid by the purchaser.

(c) In the case of a sale or exchange of property, the extent to which the gain or loss determined under this section shall be recognized for purposes of this part shall be determined under Section 24902.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent (in the case of property sold under contract providing for payment in installments) the taxation of that portion of any installment payment representing gain or profit in the year in which that payment is received.

(e) (1) In determining gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of a term interest in property, that portion of the adjusted basis of that interest which is determined pursuant to Sections 24914 and 24915 (to the extent that the adjusted basis is a portion of the entire adjusted basis of the property) shall be disregarded.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the term "term interest in property" means—

(A) A life interest in property,

(B) An interest in property for a term of years, or

(C) An income interest in a trust.

(3) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to a sale or other disposition which is a part of a transaction in which the entire interest in property is transferred to any person or persons.

SEC. 100. Section 24912 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24912. The basis of property shall be the cost of the property, except as otherwise provided in Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 24451), relating to corporate distributions and adjustments, and this chapter. The cost of real property shall not include any amount in respect of real property taxes which are treated under Section 24346 as imposed on a corporation.

SEC. 101. Section 24916 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24916. Proper adjustment with regard to the property shall in all cases be made as follows:

(a) For expenditures, receipts, losses, or other items properly chargeable to capital account. However, no adjustment shall be made for any of the following:

(1) Sales or use tax paid or incurred in connection with the acquisition of property for which a tax credit is claimed pursuant to Section 23612.2.

(2) Taxes or other carrying charges described in Section 24426, or for expenditures described in Sections 24364 and 24369 for which deductions have been taken in determining net income for the income year or any prior income year.

(b) For exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, amortization, and depletion:

(1) In the case of corporations subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101), to the extent sustained prior to January 1, 1928, and to the extent allowed (but not less than the amount allowable) under this part, except that no deduction shall be made for amounts in excess of the amount which would have been allowable had depreciation not been computed on the basis of January 1, 1928, value and amounts in excess of the adjustments required by Section 113(b)(1)(B) of the Federal Revenue Act of 1938 for depletion prior to January 1, 1932.

(2) In the case of a taxpayer subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501), to the extent sustained prior to January 1, 1937, and for periods thereafter to the extent allowed (but not less than the amount allowable) under the provisions of this part.

(3) If a taxpayer has not claimed an amortization deduction for an emergency facility, the adjustment under paragraph (1) shall be made only to the extent ordinarily provided under Sections 24349 and 24372.

(c) In the case of stock (to the extent not provided for in the foregoing subdivisions) for the amount of distributions previously made which, under the law applicable to the year in which the distribution was made, either were tax free or were applicable in reduction of basis (not including distributions made by a corporation, which was classified as a personal service corporation under the provisions of the Federal Revenue Act of 1918 or 1921, out of its earnings or profits which were taxable in accordance with the provisions of Section 218 of the Federal Revenue Act of 1918 or 1921).

(d) (1) In the case of corporations subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101), in the case of any bond, as defined in Section 24363, to the extent of the deductions allowable pursuant to Section 24360 with respect thereto.

(2) In the case of taxpayers subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501), in the case of any bond, as defined in Section 24363, the interest on which is wholly exempt from the tax imposed by this part, to the extent of the amortizable bond premium disallowable as a deduction pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 24360, and in the case of any other bond, as defined in Section 24363, to the extent of the deductions allowable pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 24360 (or the amount applied to reduce interest payments under paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 24363.5) with respect thereto.

(3) In the case of property pledged to the Commodity Credit Corporation, to the extent of the amount received as a loan from the Commodity Credit Corporation and treated by the taxpayer as income for the year in which received pursuant to Section 24273, and to the extent of any deficiency on that loan with respect to which the taxpayer has been relieved from liability.

(e) For amounts allowed as deductions as deferred expenses under Section 616(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain expenditures in the development of mines, and resulting in a reduction of the taxpayer's tax, but not less than the amounts allowable under that section for the income year and prior years.

(f) For amounts allowable as deductions as deferred expenses under Section 617(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain exploration expenditures, and resulting in a reduction of the taxpayer's tax, but not less than the amounts allowable under that section for the income year and prior years.

(g) For amounts allowed as deductions as deferred expenses under subdivision (a) of Section 24366, relating to research and experimental expenditures, and resulting in a reduction of the corporations' taxes under this part, but not less than the amounts allowable under that section for the income year and prior years.

(h) For amounts allowed as deductions under Sections 24356.2, 24356.3, and 24356.4.

(i) (1) To the extent provided in Section 179A(e)(6)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to basis reduction for clean-fuel vehicles and certain refueling property.

(2) This subdivision shall apply to property placed in service after June 30, 1993, without regard to income year.

SEC. 102. Section 24917 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24917. Whenever it appears that the basis of property in the hands of the corporation is a substituted basis, then the adjustments provided in Section 24916 shall be made after first making in respect of that substituted basis proper adjustments of a similar nature in respect of the period during which the property was held by the transferor, donor, or grantor, or during which the other property was held by the person for whom the basis is to be determined. A similar rule shall be applied in the case of a series of substituted bases.

SEC. 103. Section 24942 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24942. (a) No gain or loss shall be recognized to a corporation on the receipt of money or other property in exchange for stock (including treasury stock) of that corporation. No gain or loss shall be recognized by a corporation with respect to any lapse or acquisition of an option to buy or sell its stock (including treasury stock).

(b) For basis of property acquired by a corporation in certain exchanges for its stock, see Sections 24552 to 24554, inclusive.

SEC. 104. Section 25105 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

25105. (a) For purposes of this article, other than Section 25102, the income and apportionment factors of two or more corporations shall be included in a combined report only if the corporations, otherwise meeting the requirements of Section 25101 or 25101.15, are members of a commonly controlled group.

(b) A "commonly controlled group" means any of the following:

(1) A parent corporation and any one or more corporations or chains of corporations, connected through stock ownership (or constructive ownership) with the parent, but only if—

(A) The parent owns stock possessing more than 50 percent of the voting power of at least one corporation, and, if applicable,

(B) Stock cumulatively representing more than 50 percent of the voting power of each of the corporations, except the parent, is owned by the parent, one or more corporations described in subparagraph (A), or one or more other corporations that satisfy the conditions of this subparagraph.

(2) Any two or more corporations, if stock representing more than 50 percent of the voting power of the corporations is owned, or constructively owned, by the same person.

(3) Any two or more corporations that constitute stapled entities.

(A) For purposes of this paragraph, "stapled entities" means any group of two or more corporations if more than 50 percent of the ownership or beneficial ownership of the stock possessing voting power in each corporation consists of stapled interests.

(B) Two or more interests are stapled interests if, by reason of form of ownership restrictions on transfer, or other terms or conditions, in connection with the transfer of one of the interests the other interest or interests are also transferred or required to be transferred.

(4) Any two or more corporations, all of whose stock representing more than 50 percent of the voting power of the corporations is cumulatively owned (without regard to the constructive ownership rules of paragraph (1) of subdivision (e)) by, or for the benefit of, members of the same family. Members of the same family are limited to an individual, his or her spouse, parents, brothers or sisters, grandparents, children and grandchildren, and their respective spouses.

(c) (1) If, in the application of subdivision (b), a corporation is eligible to be treated as a member of more than one commonly controlled group of corporations, the corporation shall elect to be treated as a member of only one commonly controlled group. This election shall remain in effect unless revoked with the approval of the Franchise Tax Board.

(2) Membership in a commonly controlled group shall be treated as terminated in any year, or fraction thereof, in which the conditions of subdivision (b) are not met, except as follows:

(A) When stock of a corporation is sold, exchanged, or otherwise disposed of, the membership of a corporation in a commonly controlled group shall not be terminated, if the requirements of subdivision (b) are again met immediately after the sale, exchange, or disposition.

(B) The Franchise Tax Board may treat the commonly controlled group as remaining in place if the conditions of subdivision (b) are again met within a period not to exceed two years.

(d) A taxpayer may exclude some or all corporations included in a "commonly controlled group" by reason of paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) by showing that those members of the group are not controlled directly or indirectly by the same interests, within the meaning of the same phrase in Section 482 of the Internal Revenue Code. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "controlled" includes any kind of control, direct or indirect, whether legally enforceable, and however exercisable or exercised.

(e) Except as otherwise provided, stock is "owned" when title to the stock is directly held or if the stock is constructively owned.

(1) An individual constructively owns stock that is owned by any of the following:

(B) Children, including adopted children, of that individual or the individual's spouse, who have not attained the age of 21 years.

(C) An estate or trust, of which the individual is an executor, trustee, or grantor, to the extent that the estate or trust is for the benefit of that individual's spouse or children.

(2) Stock owned by a corporation, or a member of a controlled group of which the corporation is the parent corporation, is constructively owned by any shareholder owning stock that represents more than 50 percent of the voting power of the corporation.

(3) Stock owned by a partnership is constructively owned by any partner, other than a limited partner, in proportion to the partner's capital interest in the partnership. For this purpose, a partnership is treated as owning proportionately the stock owned by any other partnership in which it has a tiered interest, other than as a limited partner.

(4) In any case where a member of a commonly controlled group, or shareholders, officers, directors, or employees of a member of a commonly controlled group, is a general partner in a limited partnership, stock held by the limited partnership is constructively owned by a limited partner to the extent of its capital interest in the limited partnership.

(f) For purposes of this section, each of the following shall apply:

(1) "Corporation" means a subchapter S corporation, any other incorporated entity, or any entity defined or treated as a corporation pursuant to Section 23038 or 23038.5.

(2) "Person" means an individual, a trust, an estate, a qualified employee benefit plan, a limited partnership, or a corporation.

(3) "Voting power" means the power of all classes of stock entitled to vote that possess the power to elect the membership of the board of directors of the corporation.

(4) "More than 50 percent of the voting power" means voting power sufficient to elect a majority of the membership of the board of directors of the corporation.

(5) "Stock representing voting power" includes stock where ownership is retained but the actual voting power is transferred in either of the following manners:

(A) For one year or less.

(B) By proxy, voting trust, written shareholder agreement, or by similar device, where the transfer is revocable by the transferor.

(g) The Franchise Tax Board may prescribe any regulations as may be necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of this section, including, but not limited to, regulations that do the following:

(1) Prescribe terms and conditions relating to the election described by subdivision (c), and the revocation thereof.

(2) Disregard transfers of voting power not described by paragraph (5) of subdivision (f).

(3) Treat entities not described by paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) as a person.

(4) Treat warrants, obligations convertible into stock, options to acquire or sell stock, and similar instruments as stock.

(5) Treat holders of a beneficial interest in, or executor or trustee powers over, stock held by an estate or trust as constructively owned by the holder.

(6) Prescribe rules relating to the treatment of partnership agreements which authorize a particular partner or partners to exercise voting power of stock held by the partnership.

(h) This section shall apply to income years beginning on or after January 1, 1995.

SEC. 105. Section 25110 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

25110. (a) Notwithstanding Section 25101, a qualified taxpayer, as defined in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), that is subject to the tax imposed under this part, may elect to determine its income derived from or attributable to sources within this state pursuant to a water's-edge election in accordance with the provisions of this part, as modified by this article. A taxpayer that makes a water's-edge election shall take into account the income and apportionment factors of the following affiliated entities only:

(1) Domestic international sales corporations, as described in Sections 991 to 994, inclusive, of the Internal Revenue Code and foreign sales corporations as described in Sections 921 to 927, inclusive, of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) Any corporation (other than a bank), regardless of the place where it is incorporated if the average of its property, payroll, and sales factors within the United States is 20 percent or more.

(3) Corporations that are incorporated in the United States, excluding corporations making an election pursuant to Sections 931 to 936, inclusive, of the Internal Revenue Code, of which more than 50 percent of their voting stock is owned or controlled directly or indirectly by the same interests.

(4) A corporation that is not described in paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, or paragraph (5), but only to the extent of its income derived from or attributable to sources within the United States and its factors assignable to a location within the United States in accordance with paragraph (3) of subdivision (b). Income of that corporation derived from or attributable to sources within the United States as determined by federal income tax laws shall be limited to and determined from the books of account maintained by the corporation with respect to its activities conducted within the United States.

(5) Export trade corporations, as described in Sections 970 to 972, inclusive, of the Internal Revenue Code.

(6) Any affiliated corporation which is a "controlled foreign corporation," as defined in Section 957 of the Internal Revenue Code, if all or part of the income of that affiliate is defined in Section 952 of Subpart F of the Internal Revenue Code ("Subpart F income"). The income and apportionment factors of any affiliate to be included under this paragraph shall be determined by multiplying the income and apportionment factors of that affiliate without application of this paragraph by a fraction (not to exceed one), the numerator of which is the "Subpart F income" of that corporation for that income year and the denominator of which is the "earnings and profits" of that corporation for that income year, as defined in Section 964 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(7) (A) The income and factors of the above-enumerated corporations shall be taken into account only if the income and factors would have been taken into account under Section 25101 if this section had not been enacted.

(B) The income and factors of a corporation that is not described in paragraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, and paragraph (5) and that is an electing taxpayer under this subdivision shall be taken into account in determining its income only to the extent set forth in paragraph (4).

(b) For purposes of this article and Section 24411:

(1) An "affiliated corporation" means a corporation that is a member of a commonly controlled group as defined in Section 25105.

(2) A "qualified taxpayer" means a corporation which does both of the following:

(A) Files with the state tax return on which the water's-edge election is made a consent to the taking of depositions at the time and place most reasonably convenient to all parties from key domestic corporate individuals and to the acceptance of subpoenas duces tecum requiring reasonable production of documents to the Franchise Tax Board as provided in Section 19504 or by the State Board of Equalization as provided in Title 18, California Code of Regulations, Section 5005, or by the courts of this state as provided in Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1985) of Title 3 of Part 4 of, and Section 2025 of, the Code of Civil Procedure. The consent relates to issues of jurisdiction and service and does not waive any defenses a taxpayer may otherwise have. The consent shall remain in effect so long as the water's-edge election is in effect and shall be limited to providing that information necessary to review or to adjust income or deductions in a manner authorized under Sections 482, 861, Subpart F of Part III of Subchapter N, or similar provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, together with the regulations adopted pursuant to those provisions, and for the conduct of an investigation with respect to any unitary business in which the taxpayer may be involved.

(B) Agrees that for purposes of this article, dividends received by any corporation whose income and apportionment factors are taken into account pursuant to subdivision (a) from either of the following are functionally related dividends and shall be presumed to be business income:

(i) A corporation of which more than 50 percent of the voting stock is owned, directly or indirectly, by members of the unitary group and which is engaged in the same general line of business.

(ii) Any corporation that is either a significant source of supply for the unitary business or a significant purchaser of the output of the unitary business, or that sells a significant part of its output or obtains a significant part of its raw materials or input from the unitary business. "Significant," as used in this subparagraph, means an amount of 15 percent or more of either input or output.

All other dividends shall be classified as business or nonbusiness income without regard to this subparagraph.

(3) The definitions and locations of property, payroll, and sales shall be determined under the laws and regulations that set forth the apportionment formulas used by the individual states to assign net income subject to taxes on or measured by net income in that state. If a state does not impose a tax on or measured by net income or does not have laws or regulations with respect to the assignment of property, payroll, and sales, the laws and regulations provided in Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) shall apply.

Sales shall be considered to be made to a state only if the corporation making the sale may otherwise be subject to a tax on or measured by net income under the Constitution or laws of the United States, and shall not include sales made to a corporation whose income and apportionment factors are taken into account pursuant to subdivision (a) in determining the amount of income of the taxpayer derived from or attributable to sources within this state.

(c) All references in this part to income determined pursuant to Section 25101 shall also mean income determined pursuant to this section.

SEC. 106. Section 25111 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

25111. (a) The making of a water's-edge election as provided for in Section 25110 shall be made by contract with the Franchise Tax Board in the original return for a year and shall be effective only if every taxpayer that is a member of the water's-edge group and which is subject to tax under this part makes the election. A single taxpayer that is engaged in more than one business activity subject to allocation and apportionment as provided in Article 2 (commencing with Section 25120) of Chapter 17 may make a separate election for each business. The form and manner of making the water's-edge election shall be prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board. Each contract making a water's-edge election shall be for an initial term of 84 months, except as provided in subdivision (b). Each contract shall provide that on the anniversary date of the contract or any other annual date specified by the contract a year shall be added automatically to the initial term unless notice of nonrenewal is given as provided in subdivision (d). An affiliated corporation that is a member of the water's-edge group and subsequently becomes subject to tax under this part or is a nonelecting taxpayer that is subsequently proved to be a member of the water's-edge group pursuant to a Franchise Tax Board audit determination, as evidenced by a notice of deficiency proposed to be assessed or a notice of tax change, shall be deemed to have elected.

No water's-edge election shall be made for an income year beginning prior to January 1, 1988.

(b) A water's-edge election may be terminated by a taxpayer prior to the end of the 84-month period if either of the following occurs:

(1) The taxpayer is acquired directly or indirectly by a nonelecting entity which alone or together with those affiliates included in its combined report is larger than the taxpayer as measured by equity capital.

(2) With the permission of the Franchise Tax Board.

(c) In granting a change of election, the Franchise Tax Board shall impose any conditions that are necessary to prevent the avoidance of tax or to clearly reflect income for the period the election was, or was purported to be, in effect. These conditions may include a requirement that income, including dividends paid from income earned while a water's-edge election was in effect, which would have been included in determining the income of the taxpayer from sources within and without this state pursuant to Section 25101 but for the water's-edge election shall be included in income in the year in which the election is changed.

(d) If the taxpayer desires in any year not to renew the election, the taxpayer shall serve written notice of nonrenewal upon the board at least 90 days in advance of the annual renewal date. Unless that written notice is provided to the board, the election shall be considered renewed as provided in subdivision (a).

(e) If the taxpayer serves notice of intent in any year not to renew the existing water's-edge election, that existing election shall remain in effect for the balance of the period remaining since the original election or the last renewal of the election, as the case may be.

SEC. 107. Section 25112 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

25112. (a) If a taxpayer electing to file under Section 25110 fails to supply any information described in subdivision (b), the taxpayer shall pay a penalty of one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each income year with respect to which the failure occurs.

(b) A taxpayer electing to file pursuant to Section 25110 shall do all of the following:

(1) Retain and make available to the Franchise Tax Board, upon request, the documents and information, including any questionnaires completed and submitted to the Internal Revenue Service or qualified states, that are necessary to audit issues involving attribution of income to the United States or foreign jurisdictions under Sections 482, 861, 863, 902, and 904, and Subpart F of Part III of Subchapter N, or similar sections of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) Identify, upon request, principal officers or employees who have substantial knowledge of, and access to, documents and records that discuss pricing policies, profit centers, cost centers, and the methods of allocating income and expense among these centers. The information shall include the employees' titles and addresses.

(3) Retain and make available, upon request, all documents and correspondence ordinarily available to a corporation included in the water's-edge election that are submitted to, or obtained from, the Internal Revenue Service, foreign countries or their territories or possessions, and competent authority pertaining to ruling requests, rulings, settlement resolutions, and competing claims involving jurisdictional assignment and sourcing of income that affect the assignment of income to the United States. The documents shall include all ruling requests and rulings on reorganizations involving foreign incorporation of branches, all ruling requests and rulings on changing a corporation's jurisdictional incorporation, and all documents that are ordinarily available to a corporation included in the water's-edge election that pertain to the determination of foreign tax liability, including examination reports issued by foreign taxing administrations. If the documents have been translated, the translations shall be furnished.

(4) Retain and make available, upon request, information filed with the Internal Revenue Service to comply with Sections 6038, 6038A, 6038B, 6038C, and 6041 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(5) Upon request, prepare and make available for each corporation organized or created under the laws of the United States or a political subdivision thereof, of which 50 percent or more of its voting stock is directly or indirectly owned or controlled, the information that would be included in the forms described in paragraph (4) if those forms were required for United States corporations.

(6) Retain and make available, upon request, all state tax returns filed by each corporation included under subdivision (a) in each state, including the District of Columbia.

(7) Comply with reasonable requests for information necessary to determine or verify its net income, apportionment factors, or the geographic source of that income pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code.

(8) For purposes of this subdivision, information for any year shall be retained for that period of time in which the taxpayer's income or franchise tax liability to this state may be subject to adjustment, including all periods in which additional income or franchise taxes may be assessed or during which an appeal is pending before the State Board of Equalization or a lawsuit is pending in the courts of this state or the United States with respect to California franchise or income tax.

(c) If the failure continues for more than 90 days after the date on which the Franchise Tax Board mails notice of that failure to the taxpayer, the taxpayer shall pay a penalty (in addition to the amount required under subdivision (a)) of one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each 30-day period (or fraction thereof) during which the failure continues after the expiration of the 90-day period. The increase in any penalty under this subdivision shall not exceed twenty-four thousand dollars ($24,000).

(d) If the taxpayer fails to comply substantially with any formal document request arising out of the examination of the tax treatment of any item (hereafter in this section referred to as the "examined item") before the 90th day after the date of the mailing of the request, any court having jurisdiction of a civil proceeding in which the tax treatment of the examined item is an issue may, upon motion by the Franchise Tax Board, prohibit the introduction by the taxpayer of documentation covered by that request.

(e) For purposes of this section, the time in which information is to be furnished (and the beginning of the 90-day period after notice by the Franchise Tax Board) shall be treated as beginning not earlier than the last day on which reasonable cause existed for failure to furnish the information.

(f) This section shall not apply with respect to any requested documentation if the taxpayer establishes that the failure to provide the documentation, as requested by the Franchise Tax Board, is due to reasonable cause. For purposes of subdivision (d), the fact that a foreign jurisdiction would impose a civil or criminal penalty on the taxpayer (or any other person) for disclosing the requested documentation is not reasonable cause unless, after in-camera review of the documentation, the court finds otherwise.

(g) For purposes of this section, the term "formal document request" means any request (made after the normal request procedures have failed to produce the requested documentation) for the production of documentation that is mailed by registered or certified mail to the taxpayer at its last known address and that sets forth all of the following:

(1) The time and place for the production of the documentation.

(2) A statement of the reason the documentation previously produced (if any) is not sufficient.

(3) A description of the documentation being sought.

(4) The consequences to the taxpayer of the failure to produce the documentation described in this section.

(h) Notwithstanding any other law or rule of law, any taxpayer to whom a formal document request is mailed may begin a proceeding to quash that request not later than the 90th day after the date the request was mailed. In that proceeding, the Franchise Tax Board may seek to compel compliance with the request.

(i) The superior courts of the State of California for the Counties of Los Angeles, Sacramento, and San Diego, and for the City and County of San Francisco shall have jurisdiction to hear any proceeding brought under subdivision (h). An order denying the petition shall be deemed a final order that may be appealed.

The running of the 90-day period referred to in subdivision (c) shall be suspended during any period during which a proceeding brought under subdivision (h) is pending.

(j) For purposes of this section, "documentation" means any documentation which may be relevant or material to the tax treatment of the examined item.

(k) The Franchise Tax Board, and any court having jurisdiction over a proceeding under subdivision (g), may extend the 90-day period referred to in subdivision (b).

(l) If any corporation takes any action as provided in subdivision (h), the running of any period of limitations under Sections 19057 to 19067, inclusive (relating to the assessment and collection of tax), or under Section 19704 (relating to criminal prosecutions) with respect to that corporation shall be suspended for the period during which the proceedings under subdivision (h) and appeals thereto are pending.

SEC. 108. Section 25128 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

25128. (a) Notwithstanding Section 38006, all business income shall be apportioned to this state by multiplying the business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor plus twice the sales factor, and the denominator of which is four, except as provided in subdivision (b) or (c).

(b) If an apportioning trade or business derives more than 50 percent of its "gross business receipts" from conducting one or more qualified business activities, all business income of the apportioning trade or business shall be apportioned to this state by multiplying business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor plus the sales factor, and the denominator of which is three.

(c) For purposes of this section, a "qualified business activity" means the following:

(1) An agricultural business activity.

(2) An extractive business activity.

(3) A savings and loan activity.

(4) A banking or financial business activity.

(d) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Gross business receipts" means gross receipts described in subdivision (e) of Section 25120 (other than gross receipts from sales or other transactions within an apportioning trade or business between members of a group of corporations whose income and apportionment factors are required to be included in a combined report under Section 25101, limited, if applicable, by Section 25110), whether or not the receipts are excluded from the sales factor by operation of Section 25137.

(2) "Agricultural business activity" means activities relating to any stock, dairy, poultry, fruit, furbearing animal, or truck farm, plantation, ranch, nursery, or range. "Agricultural business activity" also includes activities relating to cultivating the soil or raising or harvesting any agricultural or horticultural commodity, including, but not limited to, the raising, shearing, feeding, caring for, training, or management of animals on a farm as well as the handling, drying, packing, grading, or storing on a farm any agricultural or horticultural commodity in its unmanufactured state, but only if the owner, tenant, or operator of the farm regularly produces more than one-half of the commodity so treated.

(3) "Extractive business activity" means activities relating to the production, refining, or processing of oil, natural gas, or mineral ore.

(4) "Savings and loan activity" means any activities performed by savings and loan associations or savings banks which have been chartered by federal or state law.

(5) "Banking or financial business activity" means activities attributable to dealings in money or moneyed capital in substantial competition with the business of national banks.

(6) "Apportioning trade or business" means a distinct trade or business whose business income is required to be apportioned under Sections 25101 and 25120, limited, if applicable, by Section 25110, using the same denominator for each of the applicable payroll, property, and sales factors.

(7) Paragraph (4) of subdivision (c) shall apply only if the Franchise Tax Board adopts the Proposed Multistate Tax Commission Formula for the Uniform Apportionment of Net Income from Financial Institutions, or its substantial equivalent, and shall become operative upon the same operative date as the adopted formula.

(8) In any case where the income and apportionment factors of two or more savings associations or corporations are required to be included in a combined report under Section 25101, limited, if applicable, by Section 25110, both of the following shall apply:

(A) The application of the more than 50 percent test of subdivision (b) shall be made with respect to the "gross business receipts" of the entire apportioning trade or business of the group.

(B) The entire business income of the group shall be apportioned in accordance with either subdivision (a) or (b), as applicable.

SEC. 109. Section 56 of Chapter 952 of the Statutes of 1996 is amended to read:

SEC. 56. Except as otherwise provided, the provisions of this act shall be applied to taxable or income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 110. The Legislature finds and declares all of the following:

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (b) or Section 114 of this act, the amendments to Sections 18402, 18604, 18606, 18621.5, 18637, 18638, 18662, 18670, 19009, 19011, 19023, 19024, 19058, 19132.5, 19141.5, 19141.6, 19147, 19164, 19192, 19254, 19263, 19301, 19392, 19411, 19542, 19563, 19701, 19705, 19706, 19719, 23037, 23038, 23040.1, 23095, 23098, 23151, 23151.1, 23151.2, 23153, 23303, 23305.2, 23334, 23455, 23501, 23610.5, 23612.6, 23623.5, 23625, 23645, 23646, 23731, 24346, 24356.4, 24356.8, 24357, 24358, 24359, 24402, 24407, 24408, 24409, 24411, 24416, 24416.2, 24677, 24678, 24901, 24912, 24916, 24917, 24942, 25105, 25110, 25111, 25112, and 25128 of the Revenue and Taxation Code are consistent with the intent of the acts enacting those sections, and as such shall apply from the original effective dates of those acts.

(b) The amendments to Sections 17052.15, 17053.45, 17053.46, 23612.6, 23645, and 23646 of the Revenue and Taxation Code made by this act that relate to the election of the credit to be claimed are consistent with the intent of the Los Angeles Revitalization Zone Act and the Local Military Base Recovery Area Act, and as such shall apply from the original effective dates of those acts.

(c) This act repeals Sections 23184, 23184.5, 23185, 23185a, and 23185b of the Revenue and Taxation Code which have been obsolete since January 1, 1981, when the provisions of Chapter 1150 of the Statutes of 1979 took effect, providing financial corporations with the same taxation treatment as banks, thereby prohibiting the imposition of personal property taxes or business license taxes on financial corporations by local jurisdictions. The repeal made by this act shall not affect any act done or any right accruing or accrued, or any suit, appeal, or other proceeding that commenced under Section 23184, 23184.5, 23185, 23185a, or 23185b of the Revenue and Taxation Code before that repeal.

SEC. 111. The amendments to Section 23186 of, and the repeal of Sections 23186.1, 23186.2, and 23186.5 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code made by this act shall become operative on January 1, 1998.

SEC. 112. The amendments to Section 24411 of the Revenue and Taxation Code made by this act shall apply to income years beginning on or after January 1, 1998.

SEC. 113. It is the intent of the Legislature to replace the code section references to the Standard Industrial Classification Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition, that are contained in the Revenue and Taxation Code with code section references to the North American Industry Classification System (NAICS), expected to be published in 1997. Publication of NAICS is not to be construed to impair the ability of any taxpayer to rely on a SIC classification for the purposes of determining eligibility for the manufacturers investment tax credit.

SEC. 114. (a) Section 47.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 23038 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1234. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, (2) each bill amends Section 23038 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1234, in which case Section 23038 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by SB 1234, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 47.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 47 of this bill shall not become operative.

(b) If Section 47.5 of this bill becomes operative, both of the following shall apply:

(1) The amendments made to Section 23038 of the Revenue and Taxation Code by only this bill shall be applied from the original effective date of the act enacting Section 23038 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. The Legislature finds and declares that the amendments made to Section 23038 of the Revenue and Taxation Code by this bill are consistent with the intent of the act enacting that section.

(2) The amendments to Section 23038 of the Revenue and Taxation Code made only by SB 1234 shall be operative for income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 115. Section 96.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 24416.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by this bill and SB 1106. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, (2) each bill amends Section 24416.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1106, in which case Section 24416.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by SB 1106, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time

Section 96.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 96 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 606

An act to amend Section 8176 of the Education Code, to amend Sections 15301.3 and 16262.5 of the Government Code, to amend Sections 1522, 1522.03, 1568.09, 1569.17, 1569.172, 1596.871, 1596.8713, and 1597.59 of, and to add Section 1522.04 to, the Health and Safety Code, to add Section 11166.95 to the Penal Code, to amend Section 10206 of, to amend, repeal, and add Section 1088.5 of, and to add Sections 9616.1, and 9616.5 to, the Unemployment Insurance Code, to amend Sections 10101, 10824, 11462, 12201, 12201.03, 12550, 12551, 12552, 14132.95, 15200, 16525.10, 16525.15, and 16525.27 of, to amend the heading of Article 2 (commencing with Section 16525.10) of Chapter 5.3 of Part 4 of Division 9 of, to amend and repeal Section 15200.95 of, to add Sections 10069.5, 10823, 10823.5, 11526.5, 12301.7, 12305.6, 15200.05, 15204.15, 15204.25, 18205, and 19806.1 to, to add Chapter 15 (commencing with Section 18996) to Part 6 of Division 9 of, to repeal Sections 11280, 15200.2, 15200.3, 15200.8, 15200.85, 15200.9, 15200.91, and 16525.28 of, to repeal Article 3 (commencing with Section 16525.40) of Chapter 5.3 of Part 4 of Division 9 of, and to repeal, add, and repeal Sections 15200.1 and 15200.7 of, the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to human services, making an appropriation therefor, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

[Approved by Governor October 1, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 3, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 8176 of the Education Code is amended to read:

8176. (a) An employment agency, as defined in Section 1812.501 of the Civil Code, that refers a child care provider to parents or guardians who are not required to be a licensed child day care facility shall not make a placement of a provider who is not a trustline applicant or a registered trustline child care provider.

(b) Any violation of this section shall be a misdemeanor and shall be punishable by a fine of one hundred dollars ($100).

SEC. 1.5. Section 15301.3 of the Government Code is amended to read:

15301.3. Any county or city authorized in Section 15301 electing to use a state armory or armories for the purpose of this chapter, in consultation with the Community Advisory Committee appointed pursuant to Section 438 of the Military and Veterans Code or, if no committee has been appointed, in consultation with the Adjutant General, shall obtain a license from the Military Department with the following requirements:

(a) The county or city obtaining a license shall be solely responsible for measures and costs required to comply with state and local health and safety codes during the license periods.

(b) The county or city obtaining a license shall be responsible for all legal liabilities during the license periods and the state shall be held harmless in each case.

(c) The county or city obtaining a license shall be responsible for all costs of providing shelter in the state armory or armories to homeless persons during the license periods, including, but not limited to, all costs for minor emergency repairs, including, but not limited to, plumbing and electrical work, and shall reimburse the Military Department for all costs of providing armories for shelter operations including, but not limited to, utilities, building maintenance and repair, administrative costs, and for National Guardsman for the security of military equipment and property.

(d) The county or city obtaining a license shall be solely responsible for alternative housing arrangements, including relocation measures and transportation, for homeless persons housed in state armories during the license periods, upon notification from the Military Department that the armory or armories shall be required for military activities or emergency purposes as announced by the Governor. The Military Department or the Governor shall determine the evacuation deadline.

(e) The county or city obtaining a license shall be responsible for providing uniformed security personnel from one hour before the shelter opens until one hour after lights out. The county or city shall also ensure that officers from the local law enforcement agency with jurisdiction over the armory will conduct periodic visits to the armory on each night of operation.

(f) The county or city obtaining a license shall be responsible for providing janitorial service from a licensed contractor or qualified civil service employees in order to meet state health and sanitation standards for restrooms and shower facilities.

SEC. 1.6. Section 1.5 of this act shall not become operative unless both Assembly Bill 242 and Senate Bill 255 are chaptered during 1997.

SEC. 2. Section 16262.5 of the Government Code is amended to read:

16262.5. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, until June 30, 1998, the reimbursement of counties meeting one of the following conditions shall not be reduced for the state share of the nonfederal costs for the administration of the In-Home Supportive Services program.

(1) County-imposed funding reductions in the 1996–97 or 1997–98 fiscal year prevent a county from fully funding the county share of the nonfederal administrative costs of the programs identified in subdivision (a).

(2) Application for relief under Section 16262 and this section was approved in a prior fiscal year for which relief is sought pursuant to these sections and the level of county match available is at least the amount specified in the application for that same fiscal year subject to the restrictions contained in subdivision (b).

(b) Subdivision (a) shall be subject to the following restrictions:

(1) The reduction imposed upon departments within a county responsible for administering the program referred to in subdivision (a) shall be proportionate to the average reduction in county funds for administrative activities imposed on all other departments within a county, except departments funded with revenue from Section 35 of Article XIII of the California Constitution and the county departments of health services. The county board of supervisors shall certify that the reductions are imposed proportionately.

(2) If a county reduces the department responsible for administering the program referred to in subdivision (a), and makes reductions that exceed the average reduction of any other county departments, with the exception of departments funded with revenue from Section 35 of Article XIII of the California Constitution, and the county departments of health services, then the state allocation for that program shall be reduced by the same percentage.

(3) The state share of nonfederal costs for county administration allocated to a county for the administration of the programs referred to in subdivision (a) shall be limited to the 1996–97 or 1997–98 fiscal year allocations as determined by the State Department of Social Services in compliance with current allocation formulas as adjusted pursuant to paragraph (2).

(4) No reduction in county administrative costs authorized by this section shall result in any increased cost to the state General Fund.

(5) No reduction in county administrative costs authorized by this section shall result in any decrease in county assistance payments in the program referred to in subdivision (a).

(6) Except for those counties approved for fiscal relief in either the 1995–96 or 1996–97 fiscal year, the maximum rate reduction shall not exceed 15 percent of the required county match. For counties that received fiscal relief in either the 1995–96 or 1996–97 fiscal year, the county match shall be the greater of 50 percent of the required county match for the year relief is being requested, or alternatively, the county match approved in either the 1995–96 or 1996–97 fiscal year.

(c) Counties requesting relief under this section shall apply to the State Department of Social Services on or before October 31 of the fiscal year for which relief is sought pursuant to this section.

SEC. 3. Section 1522 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1522. The Legislature recognizes the need to generate timely and accurate positive fingerprint identification of applicants as a condition of issuing licenses, permits, or certificates of approval for persons to operate or provide direct care services in a community care facility, foster family home, or a certified family home. Therefore, the Legislature supports the use of the fingerprint live-scan technology, as identified in the long-range plan of the Department of Justice for fully automating the processing of fingerprints and other data by the year 1999, otherwise known as the California Crime Information Intelligence System (CAL-CII), to be used for applicant fingerprints. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to require the fingerprints of those individuals whose contact with community care clients may pose a risk to the clients' health and safety, and that when live-scan technology is operational in the district office of the Community Care Licensing Division of the State Department of Social Services that serves the facility, that individuals obtain a criminal record or exemption before their initial presence in a community care facility.

(a) Before issuing a license or special permit to any person or persons to operate or manage a community care facility, the State Department of Social Services shall secure from an appropriate law enforcement agency a criminal record to determine whether the applicant or any other person specified in subdivision (b) has ever been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation, or arrested for any crime specified in Section 290 of the Penal Code or arrested for violating Section 245, 273.5, paragraph (b) of Section 273a, or prior to January 1, 1994 paragraph (2) of Section 273a of the Penal Code, or for any crime for which the department cannot grant an exemption if the person was convicted and the person has not been exonerated. That criminal history information shall include the full criminal record, of any of those persons. No fee shall be charged by the Department of Justice or the State Department of Social Services for the fingerprinting of an applicant for a license or special permit to operate a facility providing nonmedical board, room, and care for six or less children or for obtaining a criminal record of the applicant pursuant to this section. If it is found that the applicant, or any other person specified in subdivision (b), has been convicted of, or is awaiting trial for, a crime other than a minor traffic violation, the Department of Justice shall notify the State Department of Social Services of the fact and the application shall be denied, unless the director grants an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). If no criminal record information has been recorded, the Department of Justice shall provide the applicant and the State Department of Social Services with a statement of that fact.

(b) In addition to the applicant, this section shall be applicable to criminal convictions of the following persons:

(1) Adults responsible for administration or direct supervision of staff.

(2) Any person, other than a client, residing in the facility.

(3) Any person who provides client assistance in dressing, grooming, bathing, or personal hygiene.

(4) (A) Any staff person, volunteer, or employee who has contact with the clients. A volunteer shall be exempt from the requirements of this subdivision if the volunteer is a relative of a client in care at the facility and is not used to replace or supplement staff in providing direct care and supervision of clients.

(B) For an adult residential facility, a volunteer shall be exempt from the requirements in this subdivision if the volunteer is a relative, significant other, or close friend of a client in care at the facility, and is not used to replace or supplement staff in providing direct care and supervision of clients.

(5) Except for staff members of social rehabilitation facilities serving minors with alcohol or drug abuse problems, staff members of social rehabilitation facilities, other than those specified in paragraphs (1) and (2), are exempt from fingerprinting requirements.

(6) If the applicant is a firm, partnership, association, or corporation, the chief executive officer or other person serving in like capacity.

(7) Additional officers of the governing body of the applicant, or other persons with a financial interest in the applicant, as determined necessary by the department by regulation. The criteria used in the development of these regulations shall be based on the person's capability to exercise substantial influence over the operation of the facility.

(c) (1) Subsequent to initial licensure, any person specified in subdivision (b) and not exempted from fingerprinting shall, as a condition to employment, residence, or presence in a community care facility, be fingerprinted and sign a declaration under penalty of perjury regarding any prior criminal convictions. The licensee shall submit these fingerprints to the Department of Justice or comply with paragraph (1) of subdivision (h), prior to the person's employment, residence, or initial presence in the community care facility. These fingerprints shall be on a card provided by the State Department of Social Services for the purpose of obtaining a permanent set of fingerprints and submitted to the Department of Justice by the licensee. A licensee's failure to submit fingerprints to the Department of Justice, or to comply with paragraph (1) of subdivision (h), as required in this section, shall result in the citation of a deficiency and an immediate assessment of civil penalties in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) per violation. The fingerprints shall then be submitted to the State Department of Social Services for processing. Upon request of the licensee, who shall enclose a self-addressed stamped postcard for this purpose, the Department of Justice shall verify receipt of the fingerprints.

(2) Within six business days of the receipt of the fingerprints, the Department of Justice shall notify the State Department of Social Services of the criminal record information, as provided for in subdivision (a). If no criminal record information has been recorded, the Department of Justice shall provide the licensee and the State Department of Social Services with a statement of that fact within six business days of receipt of the fingerprints. The licensee shall maintain a copy of the individual's clearance or exemption at the facility.

If new fingerprints are required for processing, the Department of Justice shall, within six business days from the date of receipt of the fingerprints, notify the licensee that the fingerprints were illegible.

(3) Except for persons specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), the licensee shall endeavor to ascertain the previous employment history of persons required to be fingerprinted under this subdivision. If it is determined by the State Department of Social Services, on the basis of the fingerprints submitted to the Department of Justice, that the person has been convicted of, or is awaiting trial for, a sex offense against a minor, or has been convicted for an offense specified in Section 243.4, 273a, 273d, or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or has been convicted of a felony, the State Department of Social Services shall notify the licensee to act immediately to terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the community care facility, or bar the person from entering the community care facility. The State Department of Social Services may subsequently grant an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). If the conviction or arrest was for another crime, except a minor traffic violation, the licensee shall, upon notification by the State Department of Social Services, act immediately to either (1) terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the community care facility, or bar the person from entering the community care facility; or (2) seek an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). The State Department of Social Services shall determine if the person shall be allowed to remain in the facility until a decision on the exemption is rendered.

(4) The department may issue an exemption on its own motion pursuant to subdivision (f) if the person's criminal history indicates that the person is of good character based on the age, seriousness, and frequency of the conviction or convictions. The department, in consultation with interested parties, shall develop regulation to establish the criteria to grant an exemption pursuant to this paragraph.

(5) Concurrently with notifying the licensee pursuant to paragraph (3), the department shall notify the affected individual of his or her right to seek an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). The individual may seek an exemption only if the licensee terminates the person's employment or removes the person from the facility after receiving notice from the department pursuant to paragraph (3).

(d) (1) Before issuing a license, special permit, or certificate of approval to any person or persons to operate or manage a foster family home or certified family home as described in Section 1506, the State Department of Social Services or other approving authority shall secure from an appropriate law enforcement agency a criminal record to determine whether the applicant or any other adult person residing in the home has ever been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation or arrested for any crime specified in Section 290 of the Penal Code or arrested for violating Section 245, 273.5, subdivision (b) of Section 273a, or prior to January 1, 1994, paragraph (2) of Section 273a of the Penal Code, or for any crime for which the department cannot grant an exemption if the person was convicted and the person has not been exonerated. That criminal history information shall include the full criminal record, if any, of those persons. No fee shall be charged by the Department of Justice or the State Department of Social Services for the fingerprinting of an applicant for a license, special permit, or certificate of approval described in this subdivision. The record, if any, shall be taken into consideration when evaluating a prospective applicant. If the applicant or other persons specified in this subdivision have convictions that would make the applicant's home unfit as a foster family home or a certified family home, the license, special permit, or certificate of approval shall be denied. For the purposes of this subdivision, a criminal record clearance provided under Section 8712 of the Family Code may be used by the department or other approving agency.

(2) Any person specified in this subdivision shall, as a part of the application, be fingerprinted and sign a declaration under penalty of perjury regarding any prior criminal convictions or arrests for any crime against a child, spousal/cohabitant abuse or for any crime for which the department cannot grant an exemption if the person was convicted and shall submit these fingerprints to the licensing agency or other approving authority. The foster family agency shall obtain fingerprints from certified home applicants and from persons specified in subdivision (b) and shall submit them directly to the Department of Justice. The foster home licensee or foster family agency shall submit the fingerprints to the Department of Justice, or comply with paragraph (1) of subdivision (h) prior to the person's employment, residence, or initial presence. A licensee's failure to submit fingerprints to the Department of Justice, or to comply with paragraph (1) of subdivision (h), as required in this section, shall result in the citation of a deficiency, an immediate assessment of civil penalties in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) per violation. The fingerprints shall then be submitted to the State Department of Social Services for processing. Upon request of the licensee, who shall enclose a self-addressed stamped postcard for this purpose, the Department of Justice shall verify receipt of the fingerprints.

(3) Within five working days of the receipt of the criminal record or information regarding criminal convictions from the Department of Justice, the department shall notify the applicant of any criminal arrests or convictions. If no arrests or convictions are recorded, the Department of Justice shall provide the foster home licensee or the foster family agency with a statement of that fact concurrent with providing the information to the State Department of Social Services.

(4) The application shall be denied if it is determined by the approving authority, on the basis of the fingerprints submitted to the Department of Justice, that the person has been convicted of a sex offense against a minor, or has been convicted of an offense specified in Section 220, 243.4, 264.1, subdivision (a) of Section 273a, or prior to January 1, 1994, paragraph (1) of Section 273a, Section 273d, 288, 289, or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or was convicted of another crime against an individual specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 of the Penal Code.

(e) The State Department of Social Services shall not use a record of arrest to deny, revoke, or terminate any application, license, employment, or residence unless the department investigates the incident and secures evidence, whether or not related to the incident of arrest, that is admissible in an administrative hearing to establish conduct by the person that may pose a risk to the health and safety of any person who is or may become a client.

(f) For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, a conviction means a plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere. Any action which the State Department of Social Services is permitted to take following the establishment of a conviction may be taken when the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence, notwithstanding a subsequent order pursuant to Sections 1203.4 and 1203.4a of the Penal Code permitting the person to withdraw his or her plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty, or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, information, or indictment. For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, the record of a conviction, or a copy thereof certified by the clerk of the court or by a judge of the court in which the conviction occurred, shall be conclusive evidence of the conviction. For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, the arrest disposition report certified by the Department of Justice, or documents admissible in a criminal action pursuant to Section 969b of the Penal Code, shall be prima facie evidence of the conviction, notwithstanding any other provision of law prohibiting the admission of these documents in a civil or administrative action.

(g) (1) After review of the record, the director may grant an exemption from disqualification for a license or special permit pursuant to subdivision (a), or for a license, special permit, or certificate of approval pursuant to subdivision (d), or for employment, residence, or presence in a community care facility as specified in subdivision (c), if the director has substantial and convincing evidence to support a reasonable belief that the applicant and the person convicted of the crime, if other than the applicant, are of such good character as to justify issuance of the license or special permit or granting an exemption for purposes of subdivision (c). Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, no exemption shall be granted pursuant to this subdivision if the conviction was for an offense specified in Section 220, 243.4, 264.1, subdivision (a) of Section 273a, or prior to January 1, 1994, paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 273a, Sections 273d, 288, 289, or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or was a conviction of another crime against an individual specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 of the Penal Code. The director may grant an exemption if the employee or prospective employee, who was convicted of a crime against an individual in paragraph (1), (2), (7), or (8) of subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 of the Penal Code, has been rehabilitated as provided in Section 4852.03 of the Penal Code and has maintained the conduct required in Section 4852.05 of the Penal Code for at least 10 years and has the recommendation of the district attorney representing the employee's county of residence, or if the employee or prospective employee has received a certificate of rehabilitation pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 4852.01) of Title 6 of Part 3 of the Penal Code.

(2) The department shall not prohibit a person from being employed or having contact with clients in a facility on the basis of a denied criminal record exemption request or arrest information unless the department complies with the requirements of Section 1558.

(h) (1) For purposes of compliance with this section, the department may permit an individual to transfer a current criminal records clearance, as defined in subdivision (a), from one facility to another, as long as the criminal record clearance has been processed through a state licensing district office, and is being transferred to another state licensing district office. The request shall be in writing to the department, and shall include a copy of the person's California driver's license or valid identification card issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles, or a valid photo identification issued by another state or the United States government if the person is not a California resident. Upon request of the licensee, who shall enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope, the State Department of Social Services shall verify if the individual has a clearance that can be transferred.

(2) The State Department of Social Services shall hold criminal record clearances in its active files for a minimum of two years after an employee is no longer employed at a licensed facility in order for the criminal record clearance to be transferred.

(i) The full criminal record obtained for purposes of this section may be used by the department or by a licensed adoption agency as a clearance required for adoption purposes.

(j) If a licensee or facility is required by law to deny employment or to terminate employment of any employee based on written notification from the state department that the employee has a prior criminal conviction or is determined unsuitable for employment under Section 1558, the licensee or facility shall not incur civil liability or unemployment insurance liability as a result of that denial or termination.

(k) (1) The Department of Justice shall coordinate with the State Department of Social Services to establish and implement an automated live-scan processing system for fingerprints in the district offices of the Community Care Licensing Division of the State Department of Social Services by July 1, 1998.

These live-scan processing units shall be connected to the main system at the Department of Justice by July 1, 1999, and shall become part of that department's pilot project in accordance with its long-range plan. The State Department of Social Services may charge a fee not to exceed five dollars ($5) or the actual cost of processing a set of live-scan fingerprints.

(2) The Department of Justice shall provide a report to the Senate and Assembly fiscal committees and the Assembly Human Services Committee and to the Senate Health and Human Services Committee by February 15, 1998, regarding the completion of backlogged criminal record clearance requests for all facilities licensed by the State Department of Social Services and the progress on implementing the automated live-scan processing system in the district offices pursuant to paragraph (1).

SEC. 4. Section 1522.03 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1522.03. It is the intent of the Legislature that the Department of Justice charge a fee sufficient to cover its cost in providing services in accordance with Section 1522 to comply with the six business day requirement for provision to the department of the criminal record information, as contained in subdivision (c) of Section 1522.

SEC. 5. Section 1522.04 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1522.04. The Legislature recognizes the need to generate timely and accurate positive fingerprint identification of applicants as a condition of issuing licenses, permits, or certificates of approval for persons to operate or provide direct care services in a community care facility, or the other residential care facility, child day care facility, or foster family agency, licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter, Chapter 3.01 (commencing with Section 1568.01), Chapter 3.2 (commencing with Section 1569), Chapter 3.4 (commencing with Section 1596.70), Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 1596.90), or Chapter 3.6 (commencing with Section 1597.30), or certified family home. Therefore, the Legislature supports the use of the fingerprint live-scan technology, as identified in the long-range plan of the Department of Justice, for fully automating the processing of fingerprints and other data by the year 1999, otherwise known as the California Crime Information Intelligence System (CAL-CII) to be used for applicant fingerprints. It is the intent of the Legislature that when live-scan technology is operational in the district offices of the Community Care Licensing Division of the State Department of Social Services which serve the facility, that individuals obtain a criminal record clearance or exemption before their initial presence in a community care facility.

SEC. 6. Section 1568.09 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1568.09. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to require the fingerprints of those individuals whose contact with residents of residential care facilities for persons with a chronic, life-threatening illness may pose a risk to the residents' health and safety.

(a) Before issuing a license to any person or persons to operate or manage a residential care facility, the department shall secure from an appropriate law enforcement agency a criminal record to determine whether the applicant or any other person specified in subdivision (b) has ever been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation or arrested for any crime specified in Section 290 of the Penal Code or arrested for violating Section 245, 273.5, paragraph (b) of Section 273a or, prior to January 1, 1994, paragraph (2) of Section 273a, of the Penal Code, or for any crime for which the department cannot grant an exemption if the person was convicted and the person has not been exonerated. That criminal history information shall include the full criminal record, if any, of those persons. If it is found that the applicant or any other person specified in subdivision (b) has been convicted of a crime, other than a minor traffic violation, the Department of Justice shall notify the State Department of Social Services of that fact and the application shall be denied, unless the director grants an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). If no criminal record information has been recorded, the Department of Justice shall provide the applicant and the State Department of Social Services with a statement of that fact.

(b) In addition to the applicant, the provisions of this section shall be applicable to criminal convictions of the following persons:

(1) Adults responsible for administration or direct supervision of staff of the facility.

(2) Any person, other than a resident, residing in the facility.

(3) Any person who provides resident assistance in dressing, grooming, bathing, or personal hygiene.

(4) Any staff person, volunteer, or employee who has contact with the residents. A volunteer shall be exempt from the requirements in subdivision (b) if the volunteer is a relative, significant other, or close friend of a client in care at the facility and does not provide direct care and supervision of residents. A volunteer who provides direct care and supervision shall be exempt if the volunteer is a resident's spouse, significant other, close friend or family member and provides direct care and supervision to that resident only at the request of the resident.

(5) If the applicant is a firm, partnership, association, or corporation, the chief executive officer or other person serving in that capacity.

(6) Additional officers of the governing body of the applicant, or other persons with a financial interest in the applicant, as determined necessary by the department by regulation. The criteria used in the development of these regulations shall be based on the person's capability to exercise substantial influence over the operation of the facility.

(c) (1) Subsequent to initial licensure, any person specified in subdivision (b) and not exempted from fingerprinting shall, as a condition to employment, residence, or presence in a residential care facility, be fingerprinted and sign a declaration under penalty of perjury regarding any prior criminal convictions. The licensee shall submit these fingerprints to the Department of Justice, or comply with paragraph (1) of subdivision (g), prior to the person's employment, residence, or initial presence in the residential care facility.

(2) These fingerprints shall be on a card provided by the State Department of Social Services for the purpose of obtaining a permanent set of fingerprints and submitted to the Department of Justice by the licensee. A licensee's failure to submit fingerprints to the Department of Justice, or to comply with paragraph (1) of subdivision (g), as required in this section, shall result in the citation of a deficiency and an immediate assessment of civil penalties in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) per violation. The fingerprints shall then be submitted to the State Department of Social Services for processing. The licensee shall maintain a copy of the individual's clearance or exemption at the facility.

(3) Within six business days of the receipt of the fingerprints, the Department of Justice shall notify the State Department of Social Services of the criminal record information, as provided for in this subdivision. If no criminal record information has been recorded, the Department of Justice shall provide the licensee and the State Department of Social Services with a statement of that fact within six business days of receipt of the fingerprints. If new fingerprints are required for processing, the Department of Justice shall, within six business days from the date of receipt of the fingerprints, notify the licensee that the fingerprints were illegible.

(4) Except for persons specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), the licensee shall endeavor to ascertain the previous employment history of persons required to be fingerprinted under this subdivision. If it is determined by the State Department of Social Services, on the basis of the fingerprints submitted to the Department of Justice, that the person has been convicted of a sex offense against a minor, or has been convicted for an offense specified in Section 243.4, 273a, 273d, or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or has been convicted of a felony, the department shall notify the licensee to act immediately to terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the residential care facility, or bar the person from entering the residential care facility. The department may subsequently grant an exemption pursuant to subdivision (e). If the conviction was for another crime, except a minor traffic violation, the licensee shall, upon notification by the department, act immediately to either (1) terminate the persons' employment, remove the person from the residential care facility, or bar the person from entering the residential care facility; or (2) seek an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). The department shall determine if the person shall be allowed to remain in the facility until a decision on the exemption is rendered.

(5) The department may issue an exemption on its own motion pursuant to subdivision (f) if the person's criminal history indicates that the person is of good character based on the age, seriousness, and frequency of the conviction or convictions. The department, in consultation with interested parties, shall develop regulations to establish the criteria to grant an exemption pursuant to this paragraph.

(6) Concurrently with notifying the licensee pursuant to paragraph (4), the department shall notify the affected individual of his or her right to seek an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). The individual may seek an exemption only if the licensee terminates the person's employment or removes the person from the facility after receiving notice from the department pursuant to paragraph (4).

(d) For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, a conviction means a plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere. Any action which the department is permitted to take following the establishment of a conviction may be taken when the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of the sentence, notwithstanding a subsequent order pursuant to Sections 1203.4 and 1203.4a of the Penal Code permitting that person to withdraw his or her plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty, setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, information, or indictment. For purposes of this chapter, the record of a conviction, or a copy thereof certified by the clerk of the court or by a judge of the court in which the conviction occurred, shall be conclusive evidence of the conviction. For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, the arrest disposition report certified by the Department of Justice, or documents admissible in a criminal action pursuant to Section 969b of the Penal Code, shall be prima facie evidence of the conviction, notwithstanding any other provision of law prohibiting the admission of these documents in a civil or administrative action.

(e) The State Department of Social Services shall not use a record of arrest to deny, revoke, or terminate any application, license, employment, or residence unless the department investigates the incident and secures evidence, whether or not related to the incident of arrest, that is admissible in an administrative hearing to establish conduct by the person that may pose a risk to the health and safety of any person who is or may become a client.

(f) (1) After review of the record, the director may grant an exemption from disqualification for a license pursuant to subdivision (a), or for employment, residence, or presence in a residential care facility as specified in subdivision (c) if the director has substantial and convincing evidence to support a reasonable belief that the applicant and the person convicted of the crime, if other than the applicant, are of such good character as to justify issuance of the license or special permit or granting an exemption for purposes of subdivision (c). However, no exemption shall be granted pursuant to this subdivision if the conviction was for an offense specified in Section 220, 243.4, 264.1, paragraph (a) of Section 273a, or prior to January 1, 1994, or paragraph (1) of Section 273a or Section 273d, or Section 288 or 289, or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or was a conviction of another crime against an individual specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 of the Penal Code.

(2) The department shall not prohibit a person from being employed or having contact with clients in a facility on the basis of a denied criminal record exemption request or arrest information unless the department complies with the requirements of Section 1568.092.

(g) (1) For purposes of compliance with this section, the department may permit an individual to transfer a current criminal records clearance, as defined in subdivision (a), from one facility to another, as long as the criminal record clearance has been processed through a state licensing district office, and is being transferred to another state licensing district office. The request shall be in writing to the department and include a copy of the person's California driver's license or valid identification card issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles, or a valid photo identification issued by another state or the United States government if the person is not a California resident. Upon request of the licensee, who shall enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope, the State Department of Social Services shall verify if the individual has a clearance that can be transferred.

(2) The State Department of Social Services shall hold criminal records clearances in its active files for a minimum of two years after an employee is no longer employed at a licensed facility in order for the criminal records clearance to be transferred.

(h) If a licensee or facility is required by law to deny employment or to terminate employment of any employee based on written notification from the state department that the employee has a prior criminal conviction or is determined unsuitable for employment under Section 1568.092, the licensee or facility shall not incur civil liability or unemployment insurance liability as a result of that denial or termination.

(i) The Department of Justice shall charge a fee sufficient to cover its cost in providing services in accordance with this section to comply with the six business day requirement for provision to the department of the criminal record information, as contained in subdivision (c).

SEC. 7. Section 1569.17 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1569.17. The Legislature recognizes the need to generate timely and accurate positive fingerprint identification of applicants as a condition of issuing licenses, permits, or certificates of approval for persons to operate or provide direct care services in a residential care facility for the elderly. The Legislature supports the use of the fingerprint live-scan technology, as identified in the long-range plan of the Department of Justice for fully automating the processing of fingerprints and other data by the year 1999. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to require the fingerprints of those individuals whose contact with clients of residential care facilities for the elderly may pose a risk to the clients' health and safety, and that when live-scan technology is operational in the district office of the Community Care Licensing Division of the State Department of Social Services which serves the facility, that individuals obtain a criminal record clearance or exemption before their initial presence in a community care facility.

(a) Before issuing a license to any person or persons to operate or manage a residential care facility for the elderly, the department shall secure from an appropriate law enforcement agency a criminal record to determine whether the applicant or any other person specified in subdivision (b) has ever been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation, or arrested for any crime specified in Section 290 of the Penal Code, or arrested for violating Section 245, 273.5, subdivision (b) of Section 273a, or prior to January 1, 1994, paragraph (2) of Section 273a of the Penal Code, or for any crime for which the department cannot grant an exemption if the person was convicted and the person has been exonerated. That criminal history information shall include the full criminal record, if any, of those persons. If it is found that the applicant or any other person specified in subdivision (b) has been convicted of a crime, other than a minor traffic violation, the Department of Justice shall notify the State Department of Social Services of that fact and the application shall be denied, unless the director grants an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). If no criminal record information has been recorded, the Department of Justice shall provide the applicant and the State Department of Social Services with a statement of that fact.

(b) In addition to the applicant, the provisions of this section shall be applicable to criminal convictions of the following persons:

(1) Adults responsible for administration or direct supervision of staff.

(2) Any person, other than a client, residing in the facility.

(3) Any person who provides client assistance in dressing, grooming, bathing, or personal hygiene.

(4) Any staff person, volunteer, or employee who has frequent and routine contact with the clients. A volunteer shall be exempt from the requirements in subdivision (b) if the volunteer is a relative, significant other, or close friend of a client in care at the facility and is not used to replace or supplement staff in providing direct care and supervision of clients.

(5) If the applicant is a firm, partnership, association, or corporation, the chief executive officer or other person serving in like capacity.

(6) Additional officers of the governing body of the applicant, or other persons with a financial interest in the applicant, as determined necessary by the department by regulation. The criteria used in the development of these regulations shall be based on the person's capability to exercise substantial influence over the operation of the facility.

(c) (1) Subsequent to initial licensure, any person specified in subdivision (b) and not exempted from fingerprinting shall, as a condition to employment, residence, or presence in a residential facility for the elderly, be fingerprinted and sign a declaration under penalty of perjury regarding any prior criminal convictions. The licensee shall submit these fingerprints to the Department of Justice, or comply with paragraph (1) of subdivision (g), prior to the person's employment, residence, or initial presence in the residential care facility for the elderly.

(2) These fingerprints shall be on a card provided by the State Department of Social Services for the purpose of obtaining a permanent set of fingerprints and submitted to the Department of Justice by the licensee. A licensee's failure to submit fingerprints to the Department of Justice, or comply with paragraph (1) of subdivision (g), as required in this section, shall result in the citation of a deficiency and an immediate assessment of civil penalties in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) per violation. The fingerprints shall then be submitted to the State Department of Social Services for processing. The licensee shall maintain a copy of the individual's clearance or exemption at the facility.

(3) Within six business days of the receipt of the fingerprints, the Department of Justice shall notify the State Department of Social Services of the criminal record information, as provided for in this subdivision. If no criminal record information has been recorded, the Department of Justice shall provide the licensee and the State Department of Social Services with a statement of that fact within six business days of receipt of the fingerprints. If new fingerprints are required for processing, the Department of Justice shall, within six business days from the date of receipt of the fingerprints, notify the licensee that the fingerprints were illegible.

(4) Except for persons specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), the licensee shall endeavor to ascertain the previous employment history of persons required to be fingerprinted under this subdivision. If it is determined by the State Department of Social Services, on the basis of the fingerprints submitted to the Department of Justice, that the person has been convicted of a sex offense against a minor, or has been convicted for an offense specified in Section 243.4, 273a, 273d, or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or has been convicted of a felony, the State Department of Social Services shall notify the licensee in writing within 15 calendar days of the receipt of the notification from the Department of Justice to act immediately to terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the residential care facility for the elderly, or bar the person from entering the residential care facility for the elderly. The State Department of Social Services may subsequently grant an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). If the conviction was for another crime, except a minor traffic violation, the licensee shall, upon notification by the State Department of Social Services, act immediately to either (1) terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the residential care facility for the elderly, or bar the person from entering the residential care facility for the elderly; or (2) seek an exemption pursuant to subdivision (e). The department shall determine if the person shall be allowed to remain in the facility until a decision on the exemption is rendered by the department.

(5) The department may issue an exemption on its own motion pursuant to subdivision (f) if the person's criminal history indicates that the person is of good character based on the age, seriousness, and frequency of the conviction or convictions. The department, in consultation with interested parties, shall develop regulations to establish the criteria to grant an exemption pursuant to this paragraph.

(6) Concurrently with notifying the licensee pursuant to paragraph (4), the department shall notify the affected individual of his or her right to seek an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). The individual may seek an exemption only if the licensee terminates the person's employment or removes the person from the facility after receiving notice from the department pursuant to paragraph (4).

(d) For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, a conviction means a plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere. Any action that the department is permitted to take following the establishment of a conviction may be taken when the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of the sentence, notwithstanding a subsequent order pursuant to the provisions of Sections 1203.4 and 1203.4a of the Penal Code permitting a person to withdraw his or her plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty, or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, information, or indictment. For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, the record of a conviction, or a copy thereof certified by the clerk of the court or by a judge of the court in which the conviction occurred, shall be conclusive evidence of the conviction. For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, the arrest disposition report certified by the Department of Justice or documents admissible in a criminal action pursuant to Section 969b of the Penal Code shall be prima facie evidence of the conviction, notwithstanding any other provision of law prohibiting the admission of these documents in a civil or administrative action.

(e) The State Department of Social Services shall not use a record of arrest to deny, revoke, or terminate any application, license, employment, or residence unless the department investigates the incident and secures evidence, whether or not related to the incident of arrest, that is admissible in an administrative hearing to establish conduct by the person that may pose a risk to the health and safety of any person who is or may become a client.

(f) (1) After review of the record, the director may grant an exemption from disqualification for a license pursuant to subdivision (a), or for employment, residence, or presence in a residential care facility for the elderly as specified in subdivision (c) if the director has substantial and convincing evidence to support a reasonable belief that the applicant and the person convicted of the crime, if other than the applicant, are of such good character as to justify issuance of the license or special permit or granting an exemption for purposes of subdivision (c). However, no exemption shall be granted pursuant to this subdivision if the conviction was for an offense specified in Section 220, 243.4, 264.1, subdivision (a) of Section 273a, or prior to January 1, 1994, paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 273a or Section 273d, or Section 288 or 289, or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or was a conviction of another crime against an individual specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 of the Penal Code. The director shall notify in writing the licensee or the applicant of his or her decision within 60 days of receipt of all information from the applicant and other sources determined necessary by the director for the rendering of a decision pursuant to this subdivision.

(2) The department shall not prohibit a person from being employed or having contact with clients in a facility on the basis of a denied criminal record exemption request or arrest information unless the department complies with the requirements of Section 1569.58.

(g) (1) For purposes of compliance with this section, the department may permit an individual to transfer a current criminal records clearance, as defined in subdivision (a), from one facility to another, as long as the criminal record clearance has been processed through a state licensing district office, and is being transferred to another state licensing district office. The request shall be in writing to the department and include a copy of the person's California driver's license or valid identification card issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles, or a valid photo identification issued by another state or the United States government if the person is not a California resident. Upon request of the licensee, who shall enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope, the State Department of Social Services shall verify if the individual has a clearance that can be transferred.

(2) The State Department of Social Services shall hold criminal records clearances in its active files for a minimum of two years after an employee is no longer employed at a licensed facility in order for the criminal records clearances to be transferred under this section.

(h) If a licensee or facility is required by law to deny employment or to terminate employment of any employee based on written notification from the state department that the employee has a prior criminal conviction or is determined unsuitable for employment under Section 1569.58, the licensee or facility shall not incur civil liability or unemployment insurance liability as a result of that denial or termination.

SEC. 8. Section 1569.172 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1569.172. It is the intent of the Legislature that the Department of Justice charge a fee sufficient to cover its cost in providing services in accordance with Section 1569.17 to comply with the six business day requirement for provision to the department of the criminal record information, as contained in subdivision (c) of Section 1569.17.

SEC. 9. Section 1596.871 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1596.871. The Legislature recognizes the need to generate timely and accurate positive fingerprint identification of applicants as a condition of issuing licenses, permits, or certificates of approval for persons to operate or provide direct care services in a community care facility, foster family home, or a certified family home. Therefore, the Legislature supports the use of the fingerprint live-scan technology, as identified in the long-range plan of the Department of Justice for fully automating the processing of fingerprints and other data by the year 1999, otherwise known as the California Crime Information Intelligence System (CAL-CII) to be used for applicant fingerprints. It is the intent of the Legislature that when live-scan technology is operational that individuals obtain a criminal record clearance or exemption before their initial presence in a community care facility. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to require the fingerprints of those individuals whose contact with child day care facility clients may pose a risk to the children's health and safety.

(a) Before issuing a license or special permit to any person to operate or manage a day care facility, the department shall secure from an appropriate law enforcement agency a criminal record to determine whether the applicant or any other person specified in subdivision (b) has ever been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation, or arrested for any crime specified in Section 290 of the Penal Code or arrested for violating Section 245, 273.5, subdivision (b) of Section 273a, or prior to January 1, 1994, paragraph (2) of Section 273a of the Penal Code, or for any crime for which the department cannot grant an exemption if the person was convicted and the person has not been exonerated. That criminal history information shall include the full criminal record, if any, of those persons. No fee shall be charged by the Department of Justice or the department for the fingerprinting of an applicant who will serve six or fewer children or any family day care applicant for a license, or for obtaining a criminal record of an applicant pursuant to this section. If it is found that the applicant or any other person specified in subdivision (b) has been convicted of a crime, other than a minor traffic violation, the Department of Justice shall notify the State Department of Social Services of that fact and the application shall be denied, unless the director grants an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). If no criminal record information has been recorded, the Department of Justice shall provide the applicant and the State Department of Social Services with a statement of that fact.

(b) In addition to the applicant, this section shall be applicable to criminal convictions of the following persons:

(1) Adults responsible for administration or direct supervision of staff.

(2) Any person, other than a child, residing in the facility.

(3) Any person who provides care and supervision to the children.

(4) Any staff person, volunteer, or employee who has contact with the children. A volunteer shall be exempt from the requirements in subdivision (b) if the volunteer is a relative of a client in care at the facility and is not used to replace or supplement staff in providing direct care and supervision of children in care.

(5) If the applicant is a firm, partnership, association, or corporation, the chief executive officer, other person serving in like capacity, or a person designated by the chief executive officer as responsible for the operation of the facility, as designated by the applicant agency.

(6) If the applicant is a local educational agency, the president of the governing board, the school district superintendent, or a person designated to administer the operation of the facility, as designated by the local educational agency.

(7) Additional officers of the governing body of the applicant, or other persons with a financial interest in the applicant, as determined necessary by the department by regulation. The criteria used in the development of these regulations shall be based on the person's capability to exercise substantial influence over the operation of the facility.

(8) This section does not apply to employees of child care and development programs under contract with the State Department of Education who have completed a criminal records clearance as part of an application to the Commission on Teacher Credentialing, and who possess a current credential or permit issued by the commission, including employees of child care and development programs that serve both children subsidized under, and children not subsidized under, a State Department of Education contract. The Commission on Teacher Credentialing shall notify the department upon revocation of a current credential or permit issued to an employee of a child care and development program under contract with the State Department of Education.

(9) This section does not apply to employees of a child care and development program operated by a school district, county office of education, or community college district under contract with the State Department of Education who have completed a criminal records clearance as a condition of employment. The school district, county office of education, or community college district upon receiving information that the status of an employee's criminal record clearance has changed shall submit that information to the department.

(c) (1) Subsequent to initial licensure, any person specified in subdivision (b) and not exempted from fingerprinting shall, as a condition to employment, residence, or presence in a child day care facility be fingerprinted and sign a declaration under penalty of perjury regarding any prior criminal conviction. The licensee shall submit these fingerprints to the Department of Justice, or comply with paragraph (1) of subdivision (h), prior to the person's employment, residence, or initial presence in the child day care facility.

(2) These fingerprints shall be on a card provided by the State Department of Social Services for the purpose of obtaining a permanent set of fingerprints and submitted to the Department of Justice by the licensee. A licensee's failure to submit fingerprints to the Department of Justice, or comply with paragraph (1) of subdivision (h), as required in this section, shall result in the citation of a deficiency, and an immediate assessment of civil penalties in the amount of one hundred dollars ($100) per violation. The fingerprints shall then be submitted to the State Department of Social Services for processing. Within six business days of the receipt of the fingerprints, the Department of Justice shall notify the State Department of Social Services of the criminal record information, as provided in this subdivision. If no criminal record information has been recorded, the Department of Justice shall provide the licensee and the State Department of Social Services with a statement of that fact within six business days of receipt of the fingerprints. If new fingerprints are required for processing, the Department of Justice shall, within six business days from the date of receipt of the fingerprints, notify the licensee that the fingerprints were illegible. The licensee shall maintain a copy of the individual's clearance or exemption at the facility.

(3) Except for persons specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), the licensee shall endeavor to ascertain the previous employment history of persons required to be fingerprinted under this subdivision. If it is determined by the department, on the basis of fingerprints submitted to the Department of Justice, that the person has been convicted of a sex offense against a minor, or has been convicted of an offense specified in Section 243.4, 273a, 273d, or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or has been convicted of a felony, the State Department of Social Services shall notify the licensee to act immediately to terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the child day care facility, or bar the person from entering the child day care facility. The department may subsequently grant an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). If the conviction was for another crime except a minor traffic violation, the licensee shall, upon notification by the State Department of Social Services, act immediately to either (1) terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the child day care facility, or bar the person from entering the child day care facility; or (2) seek an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). The department shall determine if the person shall be allowed to remain in the facility until a decision on the exemption is rendered.

(4) The department may issue an exemption on its own motion pursuant to subdivision (f) if the person's criminal history indicates that the person is of good character based on the age, seriousness, and frequency of the conviction or convictions. The department, in consultation with interested parties, shall develop regulations to establish the criteria to grant an exemption pursuant to this paragraph.

(5) Concurrently with notifying the licensee pursuant to paragraph (3), the department shall notify the affected individual of his or her right to seek an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). The individual may seek an exemption only if the licensee terminates the person's employment or removes the person from the facility after receiving notice from the department pursuant to paragraph (3).

(d) For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, a conviction means a plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere. Any action which the department is permitted to take following the establishment of a conviction may be taken when the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence, notwithstanding a subsequent order pursuant to Sections 1203.4 and 1203.4a of the Penal Code permitting the person to withdraw his or her plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty, or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, information, or indictment. For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, the record of a conviction, or a copy thereof certified by the clerk of the court or by a judge of the court in which the conviction occurred, shall be conclusive evidence of the conviction. For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, the arrest disposition report certified by the Department of Justice, or documents admissible in a criminal action pursuant to Section 969b of the Penal Code, shall be prima facie evidence of conviction, notwithstanding any other provision of law prohibiting the admission of these documents in a civil or administrative action.

(e) The State Department of Social Services shall not use a record of arrest to deny, revoke, or terminate any application, license, employment, or residence unless the department investigates the incident and secures evidence, whether or not related to the incident of arrest, that is admissible in an administrative hearing to establish conduct by the person that may pose a risk to the health and safety of any person who is or may become a client.

(f) (1) After review of the record, the director may grant an exemption from disqualification for a license or special permit pursuant to subdivision (a), or for employment, residence, or presence in a child day care facility as specified in subdivision (c) if the director has substantial and convincing evidence to support a reasonable belief that the applicant and the person convicted of the crime, if other than the applicant, are of good character so as to justify issuance of the license or special permit or granting an exemption for purposes of subdivision (c). However, no exemption shall be granted pursuant to this subdivision if the conviction was for an offense specified in Section 220, 243.4, or 264.1, subdivision (a) of Section 273a, or subdivision (a) of Section 290, or prior to January 1, 1994, paragraph (1) of Section 273a or 273d, or Section 288, 289, or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or was a conviction of another crime against an individual specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 of the Penal Code.

(2) The department shall not prohibit a person from being employed or having contact with clients in a facility on the basis of a denied criminal record exemption request or arrest information unless the department complies with the requirements of Section 1596.8897.

(g) Upon request of the licensee, who shall enclose a self-addressed stamped postcard for this purpose, the Department of Justice shall verify receipt of the fingerprints.

(h) (1) For the purposes of compliance with this section, the department may permit an individual to transfer a current criminal records clearance, as defined in subdivision (a), from one facility to another, as long as the criminal record clearance has been processed through a state licensing district office, and is being transferred to another state licensing district office. The request shall be in writing to the department and include a copy of the person's California driver's license or valid identification card issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles, or a valid photo identification issued by another state or the United States government if the person is not a California resident. Upon request of the licensee, who shall enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope, the State Department of Social Services shall verify if the individual has a clearance that can be transferred.

(2) The State Department of Social Services shall hold criminal records clearances in its active files for a minimum of two years after an employee is no longer employed at a licensed facility in order for the criminal records clearances to be transferred.

SEC. 10. Section 1596.8713 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1596.8713. It is the intent of the Legislature that the Department of Justice charge a fee sufficient to cover its costs in providing services in accordance with Section 1596.871 to comply with the six business day requirement for provision to the department of the criminal record information, as contained in subdivision (c) of Section 1569.871.

SEC. 11. Section 1597.59 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1597.59. The department and the local agencies with which it contracts for the licensing of family day care homes for children shall grant or deny a license to a family day care home for children within 30 days after receipt of all appropriate licensing application materials as determined by the department, provided both of the following conditions are met:

(a) A site visit has been completed and the family day care home has been found to be in compliance with licensing standards.

(b) The applicant and each person described by subdivision (b) of Section 1596.871 has obtained a criminal record clearance, or been granted a criminal record exemption by the department or the local contracting agency.

The department shall conduct an initial site visit within 30 days after the receipt of all appropriate licensing application materials.

SEC. 12. Section 11166.95 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

11166.95. The State Department of Social Services shall work with state and local child death review teams and child protective services agencies in order to identify child death cases that were, or should have been, reported to or by county child protective services agencies. Findings made pursuant to this section shall be used to determine the extent of child abuse fatalities occurring in families known to child protective services agencies and to define child welfare training needs for reporting, cross-reporting, data integration, and involvement by child protective services agencies in multiagency review in child deaths. The State Department of Social Services, the State Department of Health Services, and Department of Justice shall develop a plan to track and maintain data on child deaths from abuse and neglect, and submit this plan, not later than December 1, 1997, to the Senate Committee on Health and Human Services, the Assembly Committee on Human Services, and the chairs of the fiscal committees of the Legislature.

SEC. 13. Section 1088.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

1088.5. (a) In addition to information reported in accordance with Section 1088, each employer shall file with the department the information provided in subdivision (b) on new employees.

(b) Each employer shall report all of the following information to the department:

(1) The hiring of any person who resides or works in this state to whom the employer anticipates paying earnings.

(2) The rehiring or return to work of any person who has been laid off, furloughed, separated, granted a leave without pay, or terminated from employment, and to whom the employer anticipates paying wages.

(c) Employers shall not be required to report on any of the following persons:

(1) Any person whom the employer pays wages of less than three hundred dollars ($300) each month.

(2) Any person who is under 18 years of age.

(d) (1) The department and the State Department of Social Services, jointly, shall adopt rules and regulations to establish exemptions in addition to those provided in subdivision (c), if the department and the State Department of Social Services determine the exemptions are needed to reduce unnecessary or burdensome reporting or are needed to facilitate cost-effective operation of this section.

(2) The department and the State Department of Social Services shall adopt regulations required pursuant to paragraph (1) by April 1, 1993.

(e) (1) Employers shall submit a report within 30 days of the hiring, rehiring, or return to work of any person on whom the employer is required to report pursuant to this section.

(2) The report shall contain all of the following:

(A) The first initial and last name and social security number of the person.

(3) The report required by Section 1088 shall not be accepted in lieu of the report required by this section.

(f) Employers may report pursuant to this section, by submitting a copy of the employee's W-4 form, a form provided by the department, or any other hiring document, by mail or telefaxing or by any other means that is authorized by the department and that will result in timely reporting.

(g) The department shall retain information collected pursuant to this section for no more than 180 days after the end of the calendar quarter, except for purposes of enforcement of subdivision (i).

(h) The department may use the information collected pursuant to this section only for the following purposes:

(1) The administration and enforcement of this section.

(2) The identification, prevention, and collection of benefit overpayments pursuant to any of the following provisions:

(C) Section 3751.

(3) The location of noncustodial parents or the income of noncustodial parents.

(4) The identification of errors in employer reports of wages filed pursuant to Section 1088.

(5) The verification of employment of applicants for, and recipients of, services under the Aid to Families with Dependent Children program or its successor program or the Food Stamp Program, provided for pursuant to Chapter 10 (commencing with Section 18900) of Part 6 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(6) Providing employer or employee information to the Franchise Tax Board, upon the request of that board, for the purpose of tax enforcement.

(7) The identification and collection of delinquent liabilities under this code.

(8) To assist the department in determining the effectiveness of its job placement services.

(i) Information obtained by the department pursuant to subdivision (b) may be released to the Franchise Tax Board for tax enforcement purposes.

(j) The department shall provide a written notice to any employer for the employer's first failure to report any new hire, rehire, or return to work of an employee. For each subsequent failure to report as required by this section that occurs after the date the employer receives notice from the department of his or her first failure to report, unless the failure is due to good cause, the employer shall be subject to a penalty of two hundred fifty dollars ($250).

(k) The department shall not enforce the employer reporting requirements of this section until April 1, 1993, or when regulations are adopted pursuant to subdivision (d), whichever is sooner.

(m) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 1998, and, as of January 1, 1999, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that becomes operative on or before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 14. Section 1088.5 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

1088.5. (a) In addition to information reported in accordance with Section 1088, effective July 1, 1998, each employer shall file, with the department, the information provided for in subdivision (b) on new employees.

(b) Each employer shall report the hiring of any employee who works in this state and to whom the employer anticipates paying wages.

(c) (1) This section shall not apply to any department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States.

(2) State agency employers shall not be required to report employees performing intelligence or counterintelligence functions, if the head of the agency has determined that reporting pursuant to this section would endanger the safety of the employee or compromise an ongoing investigation or intelligence mission.

(d) (1) Employers shall submit a report as described in paragraph (4) within 20 days of hiring any employee whom the employer is required to report pursuant to this section.

(2) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), employers transmitting reports magnetically or electronically shall submit the report by two monthly transmissions not less than 12 days no more than 16 days apart.

(3) For purposes of this section, an employer that has employees in two or more states and that transmits reports magnetically or electronically may designate one state in which the employer has employees to which the employer will transmit the report described in paragraph (4). Any employer that transmits reports pursuant to this paragraph shall notify the Secretary of Health and Human Services in writing as to which state the employer designates for the purpose of sending reports.

(4) The report shall contain the following:

(A) The name, address, and social security number of the employees.

(B) The employer's name, address, state employer identification number (if one has been issued), and identifying number assigned to the employer under Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

(C) The first date the employee worked.

(5) Employers may report pursuant to this section by submitting a copy of the employee's W-4 form, a form provided by the department, or any other hiring document transmitted by first-class mail, magnetically, or electronically.

(e) For each failure to report the hiring of an employee, as required and within the time required by this section, unless the failure is due to good cause, the department may assess a penalty of twenty-four dollars ($24), or four hundred ninety dollars ($490) if the failure is the result of conspiracy between the employer and employee not to supply the required report or to supply a false or incomplete report.

(f) Information collected pursuant to this section may be used for the following purposes:

(1) Administration of this code.

(2) Locating individuals for purposes of establishing paternity and establishing, modifying, and enforcing child support obligations.

(3) Administration of employment security and workers' compensation programs.

(4) Providing employer or employee information to the Franchise Tax Board for the purpose of tax enforcement.

(5) Verification of eligibility of applicants for, or recipients of, the public assistance programs listed in Section 1320b-7(b) of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(g) This section shall become operative on July 1, 1998.

SEC. 15. Section 9616.1 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

9616.1. (a) The department shall convene groups that represent local department field offices, county welfare departments, service delivery areas, and community colleges for the purpose of developing a local plan on how these entities will regularly coordinate employer outreach activities and the solicitation of entry-level and other job listings, in order to reduce duplication of effort and to enhance the overall job development activities in each county. Each local plan shall be signed by the local entities convened pursuant to this subdivision and submitted to the department.

(b) The department shall submit a report to the Legislature on the local plans developed pursuant to subdivision (a) within 90 days from the effective date of this act.

(c) The entities involved in formulating each local plan and the department shall review each plan on at least an annual basis.

SEC. 16. Section 9616.5 is added to the Unemployment Insurance Code, to read:

9616.5. The department shall submit a report to the Legislature, by March 31, 1998, on the effectiveness of the performance of the Employment Services Program in the area of job identification and job listings. The report shall include data on the number of jobs listed, the number of job seekers using the system, including the number of CalWORKs recipients using the system, and the number of employers listing jobs in the system.

SEC. 17. Section 10206 of the Unemployment Insurance Code is amended to read:

10206. (a) The panel may allocate money in the fund for any of the following purposes:

(1) Reimbursement of reasonable training costs, and administrative costs incurred by contractors. In making a determination of costs to be reimbursed under this paragraph, the panel may allocate funds in accordance with any of the following methods:

(A) For purposes of providing simplified fixed-fee performance contracts, a flat rate per hour for categories of training that are substantially similar with respect to content, methodology, and duration, as determined by the panel, not to exceed the reasonable and normal costs for the training. The panel shall periodically adjust the standardized rates established pursuant to this paragraph to reflect changes in training costs.

(B) A complete review of the proposal and its costs, including a budget listing the planned costs of training, including personnel, fringe benefits, equipment, supplies, fees for consulting or administrative services, and other costs attributable to training; the services provided by subcontractors; the length and complexity of the training; the method of training; the wages and occupations following training; whether the trainees are new hires or retrainees; and the cost of similar training that the panel has funded previously. The cost of administration shall not exceed 15 percent of the training costs under this paragraph, except that for new hire training the panel may fund administrative costs of up to 25 percent of the training cost.

(C) The panel may modify the specific requirements of this paragraph as they apply to employers or contractors proposing projects that involve training for a significant number of small employers in the same project.

(D) A contractor is prohibited from utilizing any funds earned or paid as advances or progress payments for the purpose of making payments to any other individual or entity, either directly or indirectly, for costs incurred as a finder's fee or for other compensation related to the predevelopment or development phase of a training program, which is based on a percentage of the preliminary or final panel award to the contractor for the training project.

(2) (A) Costs of program administration incurred under this chapter. These costs shall be reviewed annually by the Department of Finance and the Legislature and determined through the normal budgetary process.

The panel's administrative costs for the 1997–98 fiscal year, exclusive of the cost of administering Section 976.6, shall not exceed 15 percent of the amount annually appropriated for expenditure by the panel.

(B) For purposes of calculating the amount available for the panel's administrative costs pursuant to subparagraph (A), the base amount shall not include funds disencumbered from Employment Training Fund job-training contracts.

(C) Expenditures for marketing, research, and evaluations provided under the contract to the panel under paragraph (1) that otherwise would have been provided directly by the panel shall not be included in this limitation.

(3) Service related to the purposes of this chapter provided by the Small Business Development Centers pursuant to an interagency agreement with the Trade and Commerce Agency.

(b) For all training contracts, the panel shall establish requirements for in-kind contributions by either the contractor or the employer that reflect a substantial commitment on the part of the contractor or the employer to the value of the training. In developing these requirements, the panel shall take into account the ability of the contractor or the employer, because of size or financial condition, to make any contribution, and the ability of the Employment Training Fund to meet the demand for training authorized by this chapter. Contributions shall be evaluated against plans required in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 10201 to sustain a commitment to workplace training after the contract ends. In developing policies regarding in-kind contributions, the panel shall hold public hearings.

(c) In order to encourage successful new hire training, the panel shall develop a new hire cost reimbursement system. The new hire cost reimbursement system shall recognize the additional risk attendant to new hire training if the contractor successfully meets at least 60 percent of the training and placement goals of a new hire contract. The reimbursement system authorized by this subdivision shall discourage excessive overenrollment at the beginning of the contract, and shall not provide reimbursements if the training and placement goals are achieved primarily through modification of the original contract. The new hire cost reimbursement system provided for in this subdivision shall remain in effect only until December 31, 1995.

SEC. 18. Section 10069.5 is added to Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 10065) of Part 1 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as added by Assembly Bill 1542 at the 1997 portion of the 1997–98 Regular Session, to read:

10069.5. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the project management for a statewide electronic benefits transfer system shall be transferred from the department to the Health and Welfare Agency Data Center.

SEC. 19. Section 10101 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

10101. (a) For the 1991–92 fiscal year and each fiscal year thereafter, the state's share of the costs of the child welfare program shall be 70 percent of the actual nonfederal expenditures for the program or the amount appropriated by the Legislature for that purpose, whichever is less.

(b) Federal funds received under Title 20 of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1397 et seq.) and appropriated by the Legislature for child welfare services shall be considered part of the state share of cost and not part of the federal expenditures for this program.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), the amount of funds appropriated from the General Fund in the annual Budget Act that equates to the amount claimed under the Emergency Assistance Program that has been included in the state's Temporary Assistance for Needy Families block grant for child welfare services shall be considered federal funds for the purposes of calculating the county's share of cost, provided the expenditure of these funds contributes to the state meeting its federal maintenance of effort requirements.

SEC. 20. Section 10823 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

10823. (a) (1) The Health and Welfare Agency Data Center shall implement a statewide automated welfare system for the following public assistance programs:

(A) The CalWORKs program.

(B) The Food Stamp Program.

(C) The Medi-Cal Program.

(D) The foster care program.

(E) The refugee program.

(F) County medical services programs.

(2) Statewide implementation of the statewide automated welfare system for the programs listed in paragraph (1) shall be achieved through no more than four county consortia, including the Interim Statewide Automated Welfare System Consortium, and the Los Angeles Eligibility, Automated Determination, Evaluation, and Reporting System.

(b) Nothing in subdivision (a) transfers program policy responsibilities related to the public assistance programs specified in subdivision (a) from the State Department of Social Services or the State Department of Health Services to the Health and Welfare Agency Data Center.

(c) Beginning February 1, 1998, and on February 1 of each year thereafter, the Health and Welfare Agency Data Center shall provide an annual report to the appropriate committees of the Legislature on the statewide automated welfare system implemented under this section. The report shall address the progress of state and consortia activities and any significant schedule, budget, or functionality changes in the project.

SEC. 21. Section 10823.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

10823.5. The State Department of Social Services shall pay the county share of Merced County's Merced Automated Global Information Control (MAGIC) application maintenance costs until September 30, 1998, or until Merced County has converted its caseload to one of the Statewide Automated Welfare System (SAWS) consortia systems, whichever occurs first. Merced County shall be the first county implemented under the SAWS consortium system approved for Merced County. Beginning October 1, 1998, Merced County shall pay the county share of MAGIC application maintenance costs based on its percentage share of the total caseload for the consortium approved for Merced County on October 1, 1998. The caseload percentage share shall be adjusted each fiscal year to reflect changes in caseload throughout the consortium. Caseload for the purposes of this section shall be defined as actual average annual duplicated case counts for the most current full fiscal year for the programs included in the consortia system. Beginning October 1, 1998, and until Merced County has converted its caseload to the SAWS consortium approved for Merced County, the department shall pay the difference between the total county share of MAGIC application maintenance costs and the Merced County caseload percentage share of MAGIC application costs.

SEC. 22. Section 10824 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

10824. (a) The counties not participating in the Interim Statewide Automated Welfare System Consortium or the Los Angeles Eligibility, Automated Determination, Evaluation, and Reporting Consortium shall collectively pay 5 percent of the total application development costs of the Statewide Automated Welfare System consortium to which they belong. The proportion of the 5 percent of total application development costs paid by a participating county shall be the same proportion that the county's caseload bears to the total consortium caseload for the fiscal year in which the contract for application development is executed. "Caseload" for purposes of this section, means the actual average annual duplicated case counts for the programs included in each consortia's application. A county subject to this section may pay its proportion of application development costs during development of its consortium's system, or, by agreement with the department, may pay its proportion after its consortium's system in production, but within four years after the start of production in a county.

(b) The department shall pay the county share of all other Statewide Automated Welfare System development and implementation costs approved by the Department of Finance and the federal funding agencies for the counties participating in each consortium, except the Los Angeles Eligibility, Automated Determination, Evaluation, and Reporting Consortium.

(c) The department shall pay the county share of maintenance and operations costs for the first 12 months of production of the Statewide Automated Welfare System for the counties participating in each consortium, except the Los Angeles Eligibility, Automated Determination, Evaluation, and Reporting Consortium.

(d) For purposes of this section, "production" means the first conversion of a county case to the Statewide Automated Welfare System application used by the county's consortium, or the first processing of an intake case using the county's Statewide Automated Welfare System consortium application, whichever occurs first.

(e) The department shall pay all Statewide Automated Welfare System maintenance and operations costs for specified counties as defined in this subdivision. A county qualified for Statewide Automated Welfare System maintenance and operations funding is defined as one having an average monthly, duplicated continuing case count below 3,700 cases for the CalWORKs, nonassistance food stamp, public assistance food stamps, Medi-Cal, foster care, refugee, and county medical services programs. The department shall make its determination based on actual case counts for the most current full fiscal year. The department shall provide funding for the county share-of-costs for those counties that annually meet this definition until June 30, 2001.

(f) Beginning October 1, 1998, the original 14 Interim Statewide Automated System counties shall pay the county share of Statewide Automated Welfare System maintenance and operations costs at the county administrative cost sharing ratios otherwise provided by law. Counties described in subdivision (e) shall not be subject to this requirement.

(g) The department shall pay the county share of Napa County's Interim Statewide Automated Welfare System's application maintenance costs through September 30, 1998. Beginning October 1, 1998, Napa County shall pay the county share of the Interim Statewide Welfare System application maintenance costs at the county administrative cost sharing ratios otherwise provided by law.

(h) (1) The county shall secure the prior approval of the department for any use of Statewide Automated Welfare System equipment, software or resources for activities and program administration not eligible for federal financial participation.

(2) The county shall allocate Statewide Automated Welfare System costs to the respective programs eligible for federal financial participation in accordance with the cost allocation requirements of each program.

(3) The county shall allocate as Statewide Automated Welfare System costs only for activities and program administration eligible for federal financial participation.

(i) If a county uses Statewide Automated Welfare System equipment, software, or resources for activities and program administration not eligible for federal financial participation, and fails to comply with provisions specified in subdivision (h), the county shall be liable to the department for any disallowance due to that use by the county of Statewide Automated Welfare System equipment, software, or resources. In the event of such a loss, the department may recover the loss by reducing funds otherwise due the county as state participation in programs administered by the county under the supervision of the department.

(j) The department shall fund each county's share of the Central Data Base for the Medi-Cal Eligibility Data System until the end of the 12th month after Statewide Automated Welfare System production begins, as defined in subdivision (d).

SEC. 23. Section 11280 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 24. Section 11462 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

11462. (a) (1) Effective July 1, 1990, foster care providers licensed as group homes, as defined in departmental regulations, including public child care institutions, as defined in Section 11402.5, shall have rates established by classifying each group home program and applying the standardized schedule of rates. The department shall collect information from group providers beginning January 1, 1990, in order to classify each group home program.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), foster care providers licensed as group homes shall have rates established only if the group home is organized and operated on a nonprofit basis as required under subdivision (h) of Section 11400. The department shall terminate the rate effective January 1, 1993, of any group home not organized and operated on a nonprofit basis as required under subdivision (h) of Section 11400.

(b) A group home program shall be initially classified, for purposes of emergency regulations, according to the level of care and services to be provided using a point system developed by the department and described in the report, "The Classification of Group Home Programs under the Standardized Schedule of Rates System," prepared by the State Department of Social Services, August 30, 1989.

(c) The rate for each rate classification level (RCL) has been determined by the department with data from the AFDC-FC Group Home Rate Classification Pilot Study. The rates effective July 1, 1990, were developed using 1985 calendar year costs and reflect adjustments to the costs for each fiscal year, starting with the 1986–87 fiscal year, by the amount of the California Necessities Index computed pursuant to the methodology described in Section 11453. The data obtained by the department using 1985 calendar year costs shall be updated and revised by January 1, 1993.

(d) As used in this section, "standardized schedule of rates" means a listing of the 14 rate classification levels, the single rate established for each RCL, and the rate floor for each RCL.

(e) The standardized schedule of rates shall be phased in commencing July 1, 1990.

(1) In order to phase in the standardized schedule of rates, a "rate floor" has been established for each RCL.

(2) The rate floor for fiscal year 1990–91 shall be 85 percent of the standard rate for each RCL. The rate floor shall be increased to 92.5 percent of the standard rate for fiscal year 1991–92 for each RCL, shall be equal to the standard rate for each RCL for the period July 1, 1992, to September 13, 1992, inclusive, and shall be 92.5 percent of the standard rate for each RCL for the period September 14, 1992, to June 30, 1993, inclusive.

(3) The rate floor for each RCL shall be 95 percent of the standard rate for each RCL for the 1993–94 fiscal year. The rate floor shall be equal to the standard rate for each RCL for the 1994–95 fiscal year and beyond.

(f) Except as specified in paragraph (1), the department shall determine the RCL for each group home program on a prospective basis, according to the level of care and services that the group home operator projects will be provided during the period of time for which the rate is being established.

(1) For a group home program for which the department established a rate effective prior to June 30, 1990, that took into account the program's historical costs, the department shall establish the rate for fiscal year 1990–91 by determining the RCL on a retrospective basis, according to the level of care and services actually provided between July 1 and December 31, 1989, or between July 1, 1989, and March 31, 1990.

(2) Group home programs that fail to maintain at least the level of care and services associated with the RCL upon which their rate was established shall inform the department. The department shall develop regulations specifying procedures to be applied when a group home fails to maintain the level of services projected, including, but not limited to, rate reduction and recovery of overpayments.

(3) The department shall not reduce the rate, establish an overpayment, or take other actions pursuant to paragraph (2) for any period that a group home program maintains the level of care and services associated with the RCL for children actually residing in the facility. Determinations of levels of care and services shall be made in the same way as modifications of overpayments are made pursuant to paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 11466.2.

(4) Beginning July 1, 1994, for group homes paid at rates below the standard rate established by subdivision (g), a group home program shall remain at its current RCL if it maintains at least the level of care and services associated with that percentage of the points required to be at that RCL that equals the percentage of the standard rate used to establish the group home's rate. In no event, however, shall points per child per month be reduced more than 10 points below the minimum required for the current RCL. The RCL for a program shall not increase due to the operation of this paragraph absent any program changes approved by the department pursuant to subdivision (k).

(5) A group home program that substantially changes it staffing pattern from that reported in the group home program statement shall provide notification of this change to all counties that have placed children currently in care. This notification shall be provided whether or not the RCL for the program may change as a result of the change in staffing pattern.

(g) The standardized schedule of rates for fiscal year 1990–91 is:

Rate Classification Level	Point Ranges	FY 1990–91 Standard Rate	FY 1990–91 Rate Floor (85%)
1	Under 60	$1,183	$1,006
2	60–89	1,478	1,256
3	90–119	1,773	1,507
4	120–149	2,067	1,757
5	150–179	2,360	2,006
6	180–209	2,656	2,258
7	210–239	2,950	2,508
8	240–269	3,245	2,758
9	270–299	3,539	3,008
10	300–329	3,834	3,259
11	330–359	4,127	3,508
12	360–389	4,423	3,760
13	390–419	4,720	4,012
14	420 & Up	5,013	4,261

(h) (1) For fiscal year 1990–91, the standardized schedule of rates shall be implemented as follows:

(A) Any group home program which received an AFDC-FC rate in the prior fiscal year below the standard rate for the fiscal year 1990–91 RCL shall receive their 1989–90 rate plus an amount equal to the California Necessities Index (CNI). The rate for fiscal year 1990–91 at which the state will participate shall not exceed the standard rate for the RCL.

(B) If the CNI increase to the group home program's fiscal year 1989–90 rate does not raise the group home program to the rate floor for the RCL, the group home program shall receive a rate equal to the rate floor for the RCL.

(C) A group home program which received an AFDC-FC rate for fiscal year 1989–90 at or above the standard rate for the RCL for fiscal year 1990–91 shall continue to receive that fiscal year 1989–90 rate.

(2) For that portion of the 1998–99 fiscal year, commencing on November 1, 1998, and the 1999–2000 fiscal year, the standardized rate for each RCL shall be adjusted by an amount equal to the California Necessities Index computed pursuant to the methodology described in Section 11453.

(A) Any group home program which received an AFDC-FC rate in the prior fiscal year at or above the adjusted standard rate for the RCL in the current fiscal year shall continue to receive that rate.

(B) A group home program which received an AFDC-FC rate in the prior fiscal year below the standard rate for the RCL in the current fiscal year shall receive that rate adjusted by an amount equal to the CNI. The rate for the current fiscal year shall not exceed the standard rate for the RCL and shall not be less than the rate floor for the RCL.

(3) Beginning with the 2000–01 fiscal year. the standardized schedule of rates shall be adjusted annually by an amount equal to the CNI computed pursuant to Section 11453, subject to the availability of funds.

(A) Any group home program which received an AFDC-FC rate in the prior fiscal year at or above the adjusted standard rate for the RCL in the current fiscal year shall continue to receive that rate.

(B) Any group home program which received an AFDC-FC rate in the prior fiscal year below the adjusted standard rate for the RCL in the current fiscal year shall receive the adjusted RCL rate.

(i) (1) (A) The rate for a new group home program of a new or existing provider shall be established at the rate floor for the new program's projected RCL.

(B) On and after the operative date of this subparagraph, the department shall not, prior to July 1, 1993, establish a rate for a new group home program of a new or existing provider.

(2) The department shall not establish a rate for a new program of a new or existing provider unless the provider submits a recommendation from the host county, the primary placing county, or a regional consortium of counties that the program is needed in that county; that the provider is capable of effectively and efficiently operating the program; and that the provider is willing and able to accept AFDC-FC children for placement who are determined by the placing agency to need the level of care and services that will be provided by the program.

(3) The department shall encourage the establishment of consortia of county placing agencies on a regional basis for the purpose of making decisions and recommendations about the need for, and use of, group home programs and other foster care providers within the regions.

(4) The department shall annually conduct a county-by-county survey to determine the unmet placement needs of children placed pursuant to Sections 300 and Section 601 or 602, and shall publish its findings by November 1 of each year.

(j) The department shall develop regulations specifying ratesetting procedures for program expansions, reductions, or modifications, including increases or decreases in licensed capacity, or increases or decreases in level of care or services.

(k) (1) For the purpose of this subdivision, "program change" means any alteration to an existing group home program planned by a provider that will increase the RCL or AFDC-FC rate. An increase in the licensed capacity or other alteration to an existing group home program that does not increase the RCL or AFDC-FC rate shall not constitute a program change.

(2) (A) Prior to July 1, 1993, the rate for a group home program shall not increase, as the result of a program change, from the rate established for the program effective June 30, 1992. For rate increases as a result of a program change which became effective between July 1, 1992, and the effective date of this paragraph, the department shall adjust rates downward as necessary to comply with this chapter. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, a group home provider shall be allowed to change a group home program to reflect a decrease in services due to the provisions of this paragraph.

(B) For the 1993–94 fiscal year, the rate for a group home program shall not increase, as the result of a program change, from the rate established for the program effective July 1, 1993, except as provided in paragraph (3).

(C) For the 1994–95 fiscal year, the 1995–96 fiscal year, the 1996–97 fiscal year, and the 1997–98 fiscal year, the rate for a group home program shall not increase, as the result of a program change, from the rate established for the program effective July 1, 1994, except as provided in paragraph (3).

(3) (A) For the 1993–94 fiscal year, the 1994–95 fiscal year, the 1995–96 fiscal year, the 1996–97 fiscal year, and the 1997–98 fiscal year, the department shall not establish a rate for a new program of a new or existing provider or approve a program change for an existing provider that either increases the program's RCL or AFDC-FC rate, or increases the licensed capacity of the program as a result of decreases in another program with a lower RCL or lower AFDC-FC rate that is operated by that provider, unless both of the conditions specified in this paragraph are met.

(i) The licensee obtains a letter of recommendation from the host county, primary placing county, or regional consortium of counties regarding the proposed program change or new program.

(ii) The county determines that there is no increased cost to the General Fund.

(B) Notwithstanding subparagraph (A), the department may grant a request for a new program or program change, not to exceed 25 beds, statewide, if (i) the licensee obtains a letter of recommendation from the host county, primary placing county, or regional consortium of counties regarding the proposed program change or new program, and (ii) the new program or program change will result in a reduction of referrals to state hospitals during the 1993–94 fiscal year, the 1994–95 fiscal year, the 1995–96 fiscal year, the 1996–97 fiscal year, or the 1997–98 fiscal year.

(l) General unrestricted or undesignated private charitable donations and contributions made to charitable or nonprofit organizations shall not be deducted from the cost of providing services pursuant to this section. The donations and contributions shall not be considered in any determination of maximum expenditures made by the department.

(m) The department shall, by October 1 each year, commencing October 1, 1992, provide the Joint Legislative Budget Committee with a list of any new departmental requirements established during the previous fiscal year concerning the operation of group homes, and of any unusual, industrywide increase in costs associated with the provision of group care which may have significant fiscal impact on providers of group homes care. The committee may, in fiscal year 1993–94 and beyond, use the list to determine whether an appropriation for rate adjustments is needed in the subsequent fiscal year.

SEC. 24.5. Section 11526.5 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

11526.5. The department shall enter into an interagency agreement with the University of California for the purpose of implementing Section 11526. The interagency agreement shall be subject to funds appropriated for its purpose by the Legislature.

SEC. 25. Section 12201 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

12201. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (d), the payment schedules set forth in Section 12200 shall be adjusted annually to reflect any increases or decreases in the cost of living. These adjustments shall become effective January 1 of each year. The cost-of-living adjustment shall be based on the changes in the California Necessities Index, which as used in this section shall be the weighted average of changes for food, clothing, fuel, utilities, rent, and transportation for low-income consumers. The computation of annual adjustments in the California Necessities Index shall be made in accordance with the following steps:

(1) The base period expenditure amounts for each expenditure category within the California Necessities Index used to compute the annual grant adjustment are:

Food	$ 3,027
Clothing (apparel and upkeep)	406
Fuel and other utilities	529
Rent, residential	4,883
Transportation	1,757
Total	$10,602

(2) Based on the appropriate components of the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers, as published by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, the percentage change shall be determined for the 12-month period which ends 12 months prior to the January in which the cost-of-living adjustment will take effect, for each expenditure category specified in paragraph (1) within the following geographical areas: Los Angeles-Long Beach-Anaheim, San Francisco-Oakland, San Diego, and, to the extent statistically valid information is available from the Bureau of Labor Statistics, additional geographical areas within the state which include not less than 80 percent of recipients of aid under this chapter.

(3) Calculate a weighted percentage change for each of the expenditure categories specified in subdivision (a) using the applicable weighting factors for each area used by the State Department of Industrial Relations to calculate the California Consumer Price Index (CCPI).

(4) Calculate a category adjustment factor for each expenditure category in paragraph (1) by (1) adding 100 to the applicable weighted percentage change as determined in paragraph (2) and (2) dividing the sum by 100.

(5) Determine the expenditure amounts for the current year by multiplying each expenditure amount determined for the prior year by the applicable category adjustment factor determined in paragraph (4).

(6) Determine the overall adjustment factor by dividing (1) the sum of the expenditure amounts as determined in paragraph (4) for the current year by (2) the sum of the expenditure amounts as determined in paragraph (4) for the prior year.

(b) The overall adjustment factor determined by the preceding computational steps shall be multiplied by the payment schedules established pursuant to Section 12200 as are in effect during the month of December preceding the calendar year in which the adjustments are to occur, and the product rounded to the nearest dollar. The resultant amounts shall constitute the new schedules for the categories given under subdivisions (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), and (g) of Section 12200, and shall be filed with the Secretary of State. The amount as set forth in subdivision (h) of Section 12200 shall be adjusted annually pursuant to this section in the event that the secretary agrees to administer payment under that subdivision. The payment schedule for subdivision (i) of Section 12200 shall be computed as specified, based on the new payment schedules for subdivisions (a), (b), (c), and (d) of Section 12200.

(c) The department shall adjust any amounts of aid under this chapter to insure that the minimum level required by the Social Security Act in order to maintain eligibility for funds under Title XIX of that act is met.

(d) (1) No adjustment shall be made under this section for the 1991, 1992, 1993, 1994, 1995, 1996, 1997, and 1998 calendar years to reflect any change in the cost of living. Elimination of the cost-of-living adjustment pursuant to this paragraph shall satisfy the requirements of Section 12201.05, and no further reduction shall be made pursuant to that section.

(2) Any cost-of-living adjustment granted under this section for any calendar year shall not include adjustments for any calendar year in which the cost of living was suspended pursuant to paragraph (1).

SEC. 26. Section 12201.03 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

12201.03. (a) For the 1992, 1993, 1994, 1995, 1996, 1997, and 1998 calendar years, if no cost-of-living adjustment is made pursuant to Section 12201, the payment schedules set forth in Sections 12200, 13920, and 13921, as adjusted pursuant to Section 12201, shall include the pass along of any cost-of-living increases in federal benefits under Subchapter 16 (commencing with Section 1381) of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) of Section 12201, any adjustments made pursuant to this section to reflect the pass along of federal cost-of-living adjustments shall be included in the base amounts for purposes of determining cost-of-living adjustments made pursuant to Section 12201.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), no pass along of any cost-of-living increase in federal benefits under Subchapter 16 (commencing with Section 1381) of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code shall be made in 1994. This provision shall not apply to those persons receiving payments pursuant to subdivisions (e), (g), and (h) of Section 12200.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), in no event shall the payment schedules be reduced below the level required by the federal Social Security Act in order to maintain eligibility for federal funding under Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act, contained in Subchapter 19 (commencing with Section 1396) of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code.

SEC. 27. Section 12301.7 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

12301.7. The annual administrative cost for any public authority or nonprofit consortium created pursuant to Section 12301.6, exclusive of any increase in provider wages or benefits or employer taxes when negotiated or agreed to by the public authority or nonprofit consortium, shall be shared by the state and the counties as prescribed in Section 12306.

SEC. 28. Section 12305.6 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

12305.6. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any person specified in subdivision (b) shall be eligible for in-home supportive services under this chapter.

(b) Subdivision (a) shall apply to any person who meets all of the following requirements:

(1) He or she is not eligible for benefits under this chapter because of the provisions of federal Public Law 104-193 affecting eligibility under Title XVI of the Social Security Act.

(2) He or she would be eligible for benefits under this chapter but for the provisions of federal Public Law 104-193 affecting eligibility under Title XVI of the Social Security Act. Eligibility under this chapter shall include the same deeming provisions pursuant to Title XVI of the Social Security Act (Subchapter 16 (commencing with Section 1381) of Chapter 7 of Title 42, United States Code).

(3) He or she continues to meet all other applicable eligibility criteria for receiving benefits under this chapter.

SEC. 29. Section 12550 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

12550. For the purposes of this article, "special circumstances" means those which are not common to all recipients and which arise out of need for certain goods or services, and physical infirmities or other conditions peculiar, on a nonrecurring basis, to the individual's situation. Special circumstances shall include replacement of essential household furniture and equipment, or clothing when lost, damaged or destroyed by a catastrophe, necessary moving expenses, required housing repairs, and unmet shelter needs.

This section shall become operative on July 1, 1998.

SEC. 30. Section 12551 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

12551. Special circumstances shall also include special needs as provided in Sections 11023 and 11023.1.

This section shall become operative on July 1, 1998.

SEC. 31. Section 12552 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

12552. The county shall verify that a special circumstance does exist and shall issue a warrant for payment within the guidelines provided by the department. The county shall then send a claim to the state for payment.

This section shall become operative on July 1, 1998.

SEC. 32. Section 14132.95 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

14132.95. (a) Personal care services, when provided to a categorically needy person as defined in Section 14050.1 and to any person for whom coverage would be mandatory under Title XIX of the Social Security Act (Subchapter 19 (commencing with Section 1396) of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code), but for the provisions of Public Law 104-193 affecting eligibility under Title XVI of the Social Security Act (Subchapter 16 (commencing with Section 1381) of Chapter 7 of Title 42 of the United States Code), is a covered benefit to the extent federal financial participation is available if these services are:

(1) Provided in the beneficiary's home and other locations as may be authorized by the director subject to federal approval.

(2) Authorized by county social services staff in accordance with a plan of treatment.

(3) Provided by a qualified person.

(4) Provided to a beneficiary who has a chronic, disabling condition that causes functional impairment that is expected to last at least 12 consecutive months or that is expected to result in death within 12 months and who is unable to remain safely at home without the services described in this section.

(b) The department shall seek federal approval of a state plan amendment necessary to include personal care as a medicaid service pursuant to subdivision (f) of Section 440.170 of Title 42 of the Code of Federal Regulations. For any persons who meet the criteria specified in subdivision (a), but for whom federal financial participation is not available, eligibility shall be available pursuant to Section 12305.6. All persons who receive benefits pursuant to subdivision (a) shall meet all applicable deeming provisions pursuant to Title XVI of the Social Security Act (Subchapter 16 (commencing with Section 1381) of Chapter 7 of Title 42, United States Code).

(c) Subdivision (a) shall not be implemented unless the department has obtained federal approval of the state plan amendment described in subdivision (b), and the Department of Finance has determined, and has informed the department in writing, that the implementation of this section will not result in additional costs to the state relative to state appropriation for in-home supportive services under Article 7 (commencing with Section 12300) of Chapter 3, in the 1992–93 fiscal year.

(d) (1) For purposes of this section, personal care services shall mean all of the following:

(B) Bathing, oral hygiene and grooming.

(C) Dressing.

(D) Care and assistance with prosthetic devices.

(F) Skin care.

(G) Repositioning, range of motion exercises, and transfers.

(H) Feeding and assurance of adequate fluid intake.

(I) Respiration.

(J) Paramedical services.

(K) Assistance with self-administration of medications.

(2) Ancillary services including meal preparation and cleanup, routine laundry, shopping for food and other necessities, and domestic services may also be provided as long as these ancillary services are subordinate to personal care services. Ancillary services may not be provided separately from the basic personal care services.

(e) (1) (A) After consulting with the State Department of Social Services, the department shall adopt emergency regulations to establish the amount, scope, and duration of personal care services available to persons described in subdivision (a) in the fiscal year whenever the department determines that General Fund expenditures for personal care services provided under this section and expenditures of both General Fund moneys and federal funds received under Title XX of the federal Social Security Act for services pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 12300) of Chapter 3, are expected to exceed the General Fund appropriation and the federal appropriation under Title XX of the federal Social Security Act provided for the 1992–93 fiscal year pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 12300) of Chapter 3, as it read on June 30, 1992, as adjusted for caseload growth or as increased in the Budget Act or appropriated by statute. At least 30 days prior to filing these regulations with the Secretary of State, the department shall give notice of the expected content of these regulations to the fiscal committees of both houses of the Legislature.

(B) In establishing the amount, scope, and duration of personal care services, the department shall ensure that General Fund expenditures for personal care services provided for under this section and expenditures of both General Fund moneys and federal funds received under Title XX of the federal Social Security Act for services pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 12300) of Chapter 3, do not exceed the General Fund appropriation and the federal appropriation under Title XX of the federal Social Security Act provided for the 1992–93 fiscal year pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 12300) of Chapter 3, as it read on June 30, 1992, as adjusted for caseload growth or as increased in the Budget Act or appropriated by statute.

(C) For purposes of this subdivision, "caseload growth" means an adjustment factor determined by the department based on (1) growth in the number of persons eligible for benefits under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 12000) on the basis of their disability, (2) the average increase in the number of hours in the program established pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 12300) of Chapter 3 in the 1988–89 to 1992–93 fiscal years, inclusive, due to the level of impairment, and (3) any increase in program costs that is required by an increase in the mandatory minimum wage.

(2) In establishing the amount, scope, and duration of personal care services pursuant to this subdivision, the department may define and take into account, among other things:

(A) The extent to which the particular personal care services are essential or nonessential.

(B) Standards establishing the medical necessity of the services to be provided.

(C) Utilization controls.

(D) A minimum number of hours of personal care services that must first be assessed as needed as a condition of receiving personal care services pursuant to this section.

The level of personal care services shall be established so as to avoid, to the extent feasible within budgetary constraints, medical out-of-home placements.

(3) To the extent that General Fund expenditures for services provided under this section and expenditures of both General Fund moneys and federal funds received under Title XX of the federal Social Security Act for services pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 12300) of Chapter 3 in the 1992–93 fiscal year, adjusted for caseload growth, exceed General Fund expenditures for services provided under this section and expenditures of both General Fund moneys and federal funds received under Title XX of the federal Social Security Act for services pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 12300) of Chapter 3 in any fiscal year, the excess of these funds shall be expended for any purpose as directed in the Budget Act or as otherwise statutorily disbursed by the Legislature.

(f) Services pursuant to this section shall be rendered, under the administrative direction of the State Department of Social Services, in the manner authorized in Article 7 (commencing with Section 12300) of Chapter 3, for the In-Home Supportive Services program. A provider of personal care services shall be qualified to provide the service and shall be a person other than a member of the family. For purposes of this section, a family member means a parent of a minor child or a spouse.

(g) A beneficiary who is eligible for assistance under this section shall receive services that do not exceed 283 hours per month of personal care services.

(h) Personal care services shall not be provided to residents of facilities licensed by the department, and shall not be provided to residents of a community care facility or a residential care facility for the elderly licensed by the Community Care Licensing Division of the State Department of Social Services.

(i) Subject to any limitations that may be imposed pursuant to subdivision (e), determination of need and authorization for services shall be performed in accordance with Article 7 (commencing with Section 12300) of Chapter 3.

(j) (1) To the extent permitted by federal law, reimbursement rates for personal care services shall be equal to the rates in each county for the same mode of services in the In-Home Supportive Services program pursuant to Article 7 (commencing with Section 12300) of Chapter 3, plus any increase provided in the annual Budget

Act for personal care services rates or included in a county budget pursuant to paragraph (2).

(2) (A) The department shall establish a provider reimbursement rate methodology to determine payment rates for the individual provider mode of service that does all of the following:

(i) Is consistent with the functions and duties of entities created pursuant to Section 12301.6.

(ii) Makes any additional expenditure of state general funds subject to appropriation in the annual Budget Act.

(iii) Permits county-only funds to draw down federal financial participation consistent with federal law.

(B) This ratesetting method shall be in effect in time for any rate increases to be included in the annual Budget Act.

(C) The department may, in establishing the ratesetting method required by subparagraph (A), do both of the following:

(i) Deem the market rate for like work in each county, as determined by the Employment Development Department, to be the cap for increases in payment rates for individual practitioner services.

(ii) Provide for consideration of county input concerning the rate necessary to ensure access to services in that county.

(D) If an increase in individual practitioner rates is included in the annual Budget Act, the state-county sharing ratio shall be as established in Section 12306. If the annual Budget Act does not include an increase in individual practitioner rates, a county may use county-only funds to meet federal financial participation requirements consistent with federal law.

(3) (A) By November 1, 1993, the department shall submit a state plan amendment to the federal Health Care Financing Administration to implement this subdivision. To the extent that any element or requirement of this subdivision is not approved, the department shall submit a request to the federal Health Care Financing Administration for any waivers as would be necessary to implement this subdivision.

(B) The provider reimbursement ratesetting methodology authorized by the amendments to this subdivision in the 1993–94 Regular Session of the Legislature shall not be operative until all necessary federal approvals have been obtained.

(k) (1) The State Department of Social Services shall, by September 1, 1993, notify the following persons that they are eligible to participate in the personal care services program:

(A) Persons eligible for services pursuant to the Pickle Amendment, as adopted October 28, 1976.

(B) Persons eligible for services pursuant to subsection (c) of Section 1383c of Title 42 of the United States Code.

(2) The State Department of Social Services shall, by September 1, 1993, notify persons to whom paragraph (1) applies and who receive advance payment for in-home supportive services that they will qualify for services under this section without a share of cost if they elect to accept payment for services on an arrears rather than an advance payment basis.

(3) Upon request by the board of supervisors, of the funds in the subaccount created pursuant to Section 17600.110, the Controller shall allocate the following amounts for the establishment of an entity specified in Section 12301.6:

(A) Two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) each to a county of the 4th, 6th, and 10th class.

(B) Two million dollars ($2,000,000) to a county of the first class.

(C) Five hundred fifty thousand dollars ($550,000) shall be allocated to counties, in the order of application by counties for these funds, as follows:

(i) Not more than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) may be allocated to a county with a total of fewer than 3,000 recipients of services under this section and Article 7 (commencing with Section 12300) of Chapter 3.

(ii) Not more than two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) may be allocated to a county with a total of more than 3,000 recipients of services under this section and Article 7 (commencing with Section 12300) of Chapter 3.

(iii) A county to whom either subparagraph (A) or (B) applies shall not be eligible for funds under this subparagraph.

(l) An individual who is eligible for services subject to the maximum amount specified in subdivision (b) of Section 12303.4 shall be given the option of hiring his or her own provider.

(m) The county welfare department shall inform in writing any individual who is potentially eligible for services under this section of his or her right to the services.

(n) It is the intent of the Legislature that this entire section be an inseparable whole and that no part of it be severable. If any portion of this section is found to be invalid, as determined by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, this section shall become inoperative.

(o) Paragraphs (2) and (3) of subdivision (a) shall be implemented so as to conform to federal law authorizing their implementation.

(p) This section shall become inoperative on July 1, 2002, and, as of January 1, 2003, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, which becomes effective on or before January 1, 2003, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 33. Section 15200 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by Section 27 of Chapter 91 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

15200. There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and after deducting available federal funds, the following sums:

(a) To each county for the support and maintenance of needy children, 95 percent of the sums specified in subdivision (a), and paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (e) of Section 11450.

(b) To each county for the support and maintenance of pregnant mothers, 95 percent of the sums specified in subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 11450.

(c) To each county for the support and maintenance of needy children, 40 percent of the sum necessary for the adequate care of each child pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 11450.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (c), the amount of funds appropriated from the General Fund in the annual Budget Act that equates to the amount claimed under the Emergency Assistance Program that has been included in the state's Temporary Assistance for Needy Families block grant for foster care maintenance payments shall be considered federal funds for the purposes of calculating the county share of cost, provided the expenditure of these funds contributes to the state meeting its federal maintenance of effort requirements.

(e) To each county for the support and care of hard-to-place adoptive children, 75 percent of the nonfederal share of the amount specified in Section 16121.

(f) This section shall remain in effect only until July 1, 1995, or until two years after the implementation of the Child Welfare Services Case Management System as specified in Section 16501.5, whichever occurs last, and as of that date is repealed, unless a later enacted statute which is chaptered before July 1, 1990, or two years after the implementation of the Child Welfare Services Case Management System, deletes or extends that date.

SEC. 34. Section 15200 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by Section 29 of Chapter 91 of the Statutes of 1991, is amended to read:

15200. There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and after deducting federal funds available, the following sums:

(a) To each county for the support and maintenance of needy children, 95 percent of the sums specified in subdivision (a), and paragraphs (1) and (2) of subdivision (e), of Section 11450.

(b) To each county for the support and maintenance of pregnant mothers, 95 percent of the sum specified in subdivisions (b) and (c) of Section 11450.

(c) For the adequate care of each child pursuant to subdivision (d) of Section 11450, as follows:

(1) For any county which meets the performance standards or outcome measures in Section 11215, an amount equal to 40 percent of the sum necessary for the adequate care of each child.

(2) For any county which does not meet the performance standards or outcome measures in Section 11215, an amount which shall not be less than 67.5 percent of one hundred twenty dollars

($120), and multiplied by the number of children receiving foster care in the county, added to an additional twelve dollars and fifty cents ($12.50) a month per eligible child.

(3) The department shall determine the percentage of state reimbursement for those counties which fail to meet the requirements of subparagraph (1) according to the regulations required by subdivision (b) of Section 11215.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivision (c), the amount of funds appropriated from the General Fund in the annual Budget Act that equates to the amount claimed under the Emergency Assistance Program that has been included in the state's Temporary Assistance for Needy Families block grant for foster care maintenance payments shall be considered federal funds for the purposes of calculating the county share of cost, provided the expenditure of these funds contributes to the state meeting its federal maintenance of effort requirements.

(e) To each county for the support and care of hard-to-place adoptive children, 75 percent of the nonfederal share of the amount specified in Section 16121.

(f) The State Department of Social Services shall not implement any change in the current funding ratios to counties as a reimbursement for out-of-home care placement until the development of a new performance standard system. The State Department of Social Services shall notify the Department of Finance when the new performance standard system is developed and ready for implementation. The Department of Finance, pursuant to the provisions of Section 28 of the Budget Act, shall notify the Joint Legislative Budget Committee in writing of its intent to implement a new performance standard that would impact the counties' funding allocation. The notification shall include the text of the draft regulations to implement the performance standards. Any adjustment in the county funding allocation shall not be implemented sooner than 60 days after receipt and review of the new performance standard by the Joint Legislative Budget Committee and a review of the proposed changes by the Legislative Analyst.

(g) This section shall become operative on July 1, 1995, unless the Child Welfare Services Case Management System is not implemented statewide July 1, 1993, as specified in Section 16501.5. If the Child Welfare Services Case Management System is implemented later than July 1, 1993, this section shall become operative two years after the implementation of the Child Welfare Services Case Management System.

SEC. 35. Section 15200.05 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

15200.05. Federal block grant funds received for the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families program pursuant to subtitle A (commencing with Section 401) of Title IV of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C.)k 601 et seq.) shall be deposited in, and shall be administered through, the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families Fund, which is hereby created in the State Treasury. Upon authorization by the Director of Finance, special accounts may be established within this fund, and the fund may be used in accounting for any federal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families block grant funds received from the federal government after August 22, 1996.

SEC. 36. Section 15200.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 37. Section 15200.1 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

15200.1. (a) There is hereby allocated from the General Fund the amount of funds appropriated by the Budget Act for payment of incentives to the counties. These funds shall be added to any federal incentives received by the state for child support collections and the sum shall be paid as incentives on distributed collections to each county. Each county shall receive the same percentage of collections. The percentage shall be calculated by dividing the total distributed collections of all counties by the sum of the state funds appropriated pursuant to the Budget Act and allocated pursuant to this section and the federal incentives received by the state.

(b) Incentive payments shall be paid to the appropriate county jurisdiction as determined by the department.

(c) For purposes of this section, "distributed collections" means collections used to reduce or repay aid that is paid pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200), collections paid to an aided family, collections paid to a nonaided family regardless of the date of collection, collections paid to other state child support agencies on behalf of children residing in other states, and any other payments collected that qualify for federal incentives.

(d) This section shall be deemed to have become operative on July 1, 1997. This section shall become inoperative on June 30, 1998, and, as of January 1, 1999, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that becomes operative on or before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 38. Section 15200.2 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 39. Section 15200.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 40. Section 15200.7 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 41. Section 15200.7 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

15200.7. (a) (1) The department shall assess on at least an annual basis the accuracy and effectiveness of child support case processing governed by subtitle D (commencing with Section 450 of Title IV of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 650 et seq.)) based on the federal and state requirements in effect for the time period being reviewed, using a statistically valid sample of cases. The information for the assessment shall be based on reviews conducted by either state or county staff, as determined by the department.

(2) Counties determined not to be in compliance shall be required to develop and submit a corrective action plan to the department.

(3) A county under a corrective action plan shall be assessed on a quarterly basis until the department determines that it is in compliance with federal and state child support program requirements.

(b) The department shall collect information regarding whether cases on behalf of families receiving CalWORKs benefits are disproportionately represented in the portion of each county's case sample that is not in compliance. In the event disproportionate representation is found in a county's pool of noncompliant cases, the department shall require corrective action from that county. However, this corrective action shall not affect the county's entitlement to incentives.

(c) This section shall become inoperative on June 30, 1998, and, as of January 1, 1999, is repealed, unless a later enacted statute, that becomes operative on or before January 1, 1999, deletes or extends the dates on which it becomes inoperative and is repealed.

SEC. 42. Section 15200.8 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 43. Section 15200.85 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 44. Section 15200.9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 45. Section 15200.91 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 46. Section 15200.95 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by Section 43 of Chapter 1062 of the Statutes of 1996, is amended to read:

15200.95. (a) Each county shall be responsible for its nonfederal share of administrative expenditures for administering the child support program.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivision (a), effective July 1, 1991, to June 30, 1992, inclusive, counties shall pay the nonfederal share of the administrative costs of conducting the reviews required under Section 15200.8 from the savings counties will obtain as a result of the reduction in the maximum aid payments specified in Section 11450. Effective July 1, 1992, to June 30, 1993, inclusive, the state shall pay the nonfederal share of administrative costs of conducting the reviews required under Section 15200.8. Funding for county costs after June 30, 1993, shall be subject to the availability of funds in the annual Budget Act.

(c) In the event that the federal government does not provide the funding for federal financial participation in administrative costs of the child support program at the scheduled rates of 66 percent for regular federal financial participation and the enhanced rates as specified in federal law as of July 1, 1997, for federal financial participation, the department shall increase the incentive rate authorized under Section 15200.1 to supplant the dollar reduction to federal financial participation.

(1) This increase shall be based on the difference between the estimated dollar reimbursement resulting from the scheduled federal financial participation and the estimated dollar reimbursement resulting from the reduced federal financial participation rates. This increase to the base incentive rate, when applied to estimated total collections for the state fiscal year, shall approximately equal the federal reduction.

(2) This increase shall be determined annually, and shall apply to total distributed collections as defined in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 15200.1.

(3) In no event shall the increased incentive rate exceed 4 percent in any fiscal year.

(4) This increase to the incentive rate shall apply to the period of time in which the federal financial participation rate in administrative expenditures is reduced.

SEC. 47. Section 15200.95 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as amended by Section 44 of Chapter 1062 of the Statutes of 1996, is repealed.

SEC. 48. Section 15204.15 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

15204.15. To the extent permitted by federal law and upon authorization pursuant to statute, including the annual Budget Act, the Director of Finance may transfer moneys in the Federal Trust Fund derived from the federal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families block grant for augmentation of moneys received pursuant to the federal Child Care and Development Block Grant and the block grant provided for pursuant to Title XX of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 1397). The transfer may be made not sooner than 30 days after notification, in writing, to the chairperson of the committee in each house of the Legislature that considers appropriations and the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee, or not sooner than whatever lesser time the Chairperson of the Joint Legislative Budget Committee or his or her designee may, in each instance, determine.

SEC. 49. Section 15204.25 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

15204.25. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the amount of federal funds appropriated in the annual Budget Act that equates to the amount claimed under the Emergency Assistance Program that has been included in the state's Temporary Assistance for Needy Families block grant for county administration shall be considered federal funds for the purposes of calculating the county share of cost, provided the expenditure of these funds contributes to the state meeting its federal maintenance of effort requirements.

SEC. 50. The heading of Article 2 (commencing with Section 16525.10) of Chapter 5.3 of Part 4 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

Article 2. Options for Recovery Program

SEC. 51. Section 16525.10 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

16525.10. (a) In order to promote the development of placements that will allow children to move into more homelike environments, the department shall establish "Options for Recovery" as a permanent program. This program shall be available to any county that requests participation pursuant to procedures established by the department to the extent funds are made available through the Budget Act.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the "Options for Recovery" services shall be funded with a 30-percent nonfederal county share consistent with the normal sharing ratio for child welfare services. This county share may be provided with county general funds, or other sources of funds which are unrestricted and are eligible for this use as provided by the funding source. The source of the county share shall meet all applicable state and federal requirements and provide counties with maximum flexibility.

SEC. 52. Section 16525.15 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

16525.15. (a) A participating county shall select a specialized foster family home for the child within the county in which the child's eligibility is established.

(b) If an eligible child's out-of-home placement changes from one participating county to another participating county, the child shall remain eligible for services.

SEC. 53. Section 16525.27 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

16525.27. (a) Each participating county shall submit written progress reports as required by the department.

(b) The progress report required by subdivision (a) shall include, but need not be limited to, all of the following data:

(1) An estimate of the number of children adjudicated dependents of the juvenile court under Article 6 (commencing with Section 300) of Chapter 2 of Part 1 of Division 2 who are eligible children.

(2) The number of eligible children who are in all of the following:

(C) Homes of relative caretakers.

(3) The number of eligible children who are in specialized foster care placements during and at the termination of the demonstration project.

(4) The cost of providing training to foster parents in the care of eligible children.

(5) The cost of providing specialized care for eligible children.

(6) The cost of providing respite care services and the number of respite care hours each family received.

SEC. 54. Section 16525.28 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 55. Article 3 (commencing with Section 16525.40) of Chapter 5.3 of Part 4 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is repealed.

SEC. 56. Section 18205 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

18205. The director may, pursuant to this article, approve county demonstration projects to provide employment and training services to nonsupporting noncustodial parents of children who are recipients of aid under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3. In a county operating a demonstration project pursuant to this section, the superior court may order a nonsupporting noncustodial parent of a child receiving aid under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 11200) of Part 3 to participate, as appropriate, in job training, job search, vocational rehabilitation, and other work activities, as well as in parental development training. The superior court, the child support division of the district attorney's office, and the county welfare department, in a demonstration county, shall all agree to cooperate in the operation of the demonstration project.

SEC. 57. Chapter 15 (commencing with Section 18996) is added to Part 6 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

CHAPTER 15. EMERGENCY FOOD ASSISTANCE PROGRAM ADVISORY BOARD

18996. (a) The Emergency Food Assistance Program Advisory Board is hereby established. The board shall provide advice and assistance in the operation of the emergency food assistance program (EFAP). The board shall annually review the state plan and any amendments submitted to the United States Department of Agriculture by the state, as well as the EFAP budget and review the EFAP annual report. The plan shall include equitable criteria for eligibility and the distribution of commodities and administrative funds.

(b) The board shall consist of 18 members, 10 to be appointed by the Governor, four to be appointed by the Senate Committee on Rules, and four to be appointed by the Speaker of the Assembly. Appointments shall reflect geographic diversity statewide.

(c) The Governor's appointees shall consist of representatives of four food banks, four congregate feeding programs, one statewide nonprofit food policy organization, and one nutrition educator. The Senate and Assembly's appointments shall consist of two food banks each and two congregate feeding programs each.

(d) The board shall be subject to the Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act (Article 9 (commencing with Section 11120) of Chapter 1 of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code).

SEC. 58. Section 19806.1 is added to the Welfare and Institutions Code, to read:

19806.1. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for the 1997–98 fiscal year, each independent living center, except the Disability Resources Agency for Independent Living, the Independent Living Center of Kern County, and the Placer Independent Resource Services, shall receive, to the extent funds are appropriated by the Legislature, at least two hundred thirty-five thousand dollars ($235,000) in base grant funds allocated by the department, excluding state incentive funds; Independent Living Center of Kern County and Placer Independent Resource Services shall each receive, to the extent funds are appropriated by the Legislature, at least twenty-four thousand dollars ($24,000) in base grant funds allocated by the department, excluding state incentive funds; and the Disability Research Agency for Independent Living shall receive no base grant funds.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for the 1997–98 fiscal year, to the extent funds are appropriated by the Legislature, four hundred seventy-nine thousand dollars ($479,000) shall be allocated as state incentive funds pursuant to subdivisions (b) to (d), inclusive, of Section 19806.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for the 1997–98 fiscal year, to the extent funds are appropriated by the Legislature, after allocation of base grant and state incentive funds pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b), remaining funds shall be allocated among independent living centers on the basis of the ratio of the total of the general population in an independent living center's geographic service area as compared to the total of the general population in all independent living centers geographic services areas statewide, utilizing 1995 Department of Finance population data.

(d) This section shall become effective only if the Budget Act of 1997, Item 5160-101-001 (c) for independent living centers exceeds the six million eight hundred thirty-seven thousand dollars ($6,837,000) appropriated in the Budget Act of 1996 by two million nine hundred thousand dollars ($2,900,000) or more.

SEC. 58.5. The sum of one million dollars ($1,000,000) is hereby appropriated from the Federal Trust Fund, out of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families block grant moneys received pursuant to Part A (commencing with Section 401) of Title IV of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Sec. 601 et seq.), to the State Department of Social Services in order to implement the interagency agreement entered into pursuant to Section 11526.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code. If a fund other than the Federal Trust Fund is created for deposit of federal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families block grant moneys, the Director of Finance may adjust this appropriation to reflect the appropriation of moneys from that newly created fund. It is the intent of the Legislature that all expenditures made pursuant to the interagency agreement from moneys appropriated pursuant to this section fully qualify as appropriate uses of federal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families block grant funds.

SEC. 59. The repeal of Section 15200.91 of the Welfare and Institutions Code by this act repeals Section 15200.91 of the Welfare and Institutions Code as added by Chapter 1062 of the Statutes of 1996. If S.B. 936 of the 1997–98 Regular Session is enacted and adds Section 15200.91 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, Section 15200.91 of the Welfare and Institutions Code as added by S.B. 936 shall become operative and effective, and the repeal of Section 15200.91 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, as added by Chapter 1062 of the Statutes of 1996, by this act, shall have no effect on Section 15200.91 of the Welfare and Institutions Code as added by S.B. 936.

SEC. 60. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution for certain costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district because in that regard this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

However, notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains other costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 61. This act is an urgency statute necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. The facts constituting the necessity are:

In order to apply to the 1997–98 fiscal year, it is necessary that this act take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 607

An act to amend Sections 53, 17250, and 24349 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor October 1, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 3, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 53 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

53. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), the initial base year value for fruit and nut trees and grapevines subject to exemption pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 3 of Article XIII of the California Constitution shall be the full cash value of those properties as of the lien date of their first taxable year.

(b) A county board of supervisors may, after consulting with affected local agencies within the county's boundaries, provide by ordinance that the initial base year value for replacement grapevines that are planted to replace grapevines less than 15 years of age that were removed solely as a result of phylloxera infestation or Pierce's Disease, as certified in writing by the county agricultural commissioner, shall be the base year value of the removed vines factored to the lien date of the first taxable year of the replacement vines. The assignment of base year replacement value is limited to replacement grapevines that are substantially equivalent to the vines that were replaced, and are planted on the same parcel as the replaced vines. For purposes of this subdivision, replacement vines are substantially equivalent to the vines they replace if the replacement vines are of a similar type and are planted at a similar density.

SEC. 2. Section 17250 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17250. (a) (1) Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the accelerated cost recovery system, shall apply to assets placed in service on or after January 1, 1987, in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987.

(2) In the case of assets placed in service on or after January 1, 1987, in taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1987, a taxpayer may elect to have Sections 168 and 179 of the Internal Revenue Code apply by doing all of the following:

(A) Making an election on the return for the first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1987.

(B) Establishing a depreciation adjustment account for each asset (or group of assets) in an amount equal to the difference between the depreciation allowed on the federal return for each asset (or group of assets) and the depreciation allowed under this part.

(C) The depreciation adjustment account (or accounts) established under subparagraph (B) shall be amortized over 60 months beginning with the first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1987.

(3) In the case of assets placed in service prior to January 1, 1987, in taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1987, Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply only to residential rental property as provided by former Section 17250.5 (as amended by Chapter 1461 of the Statutes of 1985).

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a), any reference to "tax imposed by this chapter" in Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code means "net tax," as defined in Section 17039.

(c) For purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) Section 168(e)(3) shall be modified to provide that any grapevine, replaced in a vineyard in California in any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, as a direct result of a phylloxera infestation in that vineyard, or replaced in a vineyard in California in any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, as a direct result of Pierce's Disease in that vineyard, shall be "five-year property," rather than "10-year property."

(2) Section 168(g)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified to provide that any grapevine, replaced in a vineyard in California in any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, as a direct result of a phylloxera infestation in that vineyard, or replaced in a vineyard in California in any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, as a direct result of Pierce's Disease in that vineyard, shall have a class life of 10 years.

(d) Every taxpayer claiming a depreciation deduction with respect to grapevines as described in subdivision (c) shall obtain a written certification from an independent state-certified integrated pest management adviser, or a state agricultural commissioner or adviser, that specifies that the replanting was necessary to restore a vineyard infested with phylloxera or Pierce's Disease. The taxpayer shall retain the certification for future audit purposes.

(e) (1) Section 169 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to amortization of pollution control facilities, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(2) The deduction allowed by this section shall be available only with respect to facilities located in this state.

(3) The "state certifying authority," as defined in Section 169(d)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, means the State Air Resources Board, in the case of air pollution, and the State Water Resources Control Board, in the case of water pollution.

(f) For property used in a trade or business, or held for production of income, there shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction a reasonable allowance for the cost of a solar energy system and allowable conservation measures over a 60-month period for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1987.

(g) Section 7622(c)[e] of Public Law 101-239, relating to the effective date of changes in treatment of transfers of franchises, trademarks, and trade names, shall apply.

(h) Section 7645(b) of Public Law 101-239, relating to the effective date of disallowance of depreciation for certain term interests, shall apply.

(i) The amendments to Section 168(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code made by Section 13151 of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to increase in recovery period for nonresidential real property, shall apply to property placed in service on or after January 1, 1997, in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 2.1. Section 17250 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17250. (a) (1) Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the accelerated cost recovery system, shall apply to assets placed in service on or after January 1, 1987, in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987.

(2) In the case of assets placed in service on or after January 1, 1987, in taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1987, a taxpayer may elect to have Sections 168 and 179 of the Internal Revenue Code apply by doing all of the following:

(A) Making an election on the return for the first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1987.

(B) Establishing a depreciation adjustment account for each asset (or group of assets) in an amount equal to the difference between the depreciation allowed on the federal return for each asset (or group of assets) and the depreciation allowed under this part.

(C) The depreciation adjustment account (or accounts) established under subparagraph (B) shall be amortized over 60 months beginning with the first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1987.

(3) In the case of assets placed in service prior to January 1, 1987, in taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1987, Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply only to residential rental property as provided by former Section 17250.5 (as amended by Chapter 1461 of the Statutes of 1985).

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a), any reference to "tax imposed by this chapter" in Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code means "net tax," as defined in Section 17039.

(c) For purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) Section 168(e)(3) shall be modified to provide that any grapevine, replaced in a vineyard in California in any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, as a direct result of a phylloxera infestation in that vineyard, or replaced in a vineyard in California in any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, as a direct result of Pierce's Disease in that vineyard, shall be "five-year property," rather than "10-year property."

(2) Section 168(g)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified to provide that any grapevine, replaced in a vineyard in California in any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, as a direct result of a phylloxera infestation in that vineyard, or replaced in a vineyard in California in any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, as a direct result of Pierce's Disease in that vineyard, shall have a class life of 10 years.

(d) Every taxpayer claiming a depreciation deduction with respect to grapevines as described in subdivision (c) shall obtain a written certification from an independent state-certified integrated pest management adviser, or a state agricultural commissioner or adviser, that specifies that the replanting was necessary to restore a vineyard infested with phylloxera or Pierce's Disease. The taxpayer shall retain the certification for future audit purposes.

(e) (1) Section 169 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to amortization of pollution control facilities, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(2) The deduction allowed by this section shall be available only with respect to facilities located in this state.

(3) The "state certifying authority," as defined in Section 169(d)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, means the State Air Resources Board, in the case of air pollution, and the State Water Resources Control Board, in the case of water pollution.

(f) For property used in a trade or business, or held for production of income, there shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction a reasonable allowance for the cost of a solar energy system and allowable conservation measures over a 60-month period for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1987.

(g) Section 7622(c)[e] of Public Law 101-239, relating to the effective date of changes in treatment of transfers of franchises, trademarks, and trade names, shall apply.

(h) Section 7645(b) of Public Law 101-239, relating to the effective date of disallowance of depreciation for certain term interests, shall apply.

(i) The amendments to Section 168(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code made by Section 13151 of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to increase in recovery period for nonresidential real property, shall apply to property placed in service on or after January 1, 1997, in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

(j) Section 168(i)(8) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to leasehold improvements, is modified to provide that an improvement shall be treated for purposes of determining gain or loss under this part as disposed of by the lessor when so disposed of or abandoned if both of the following occur:

(1) The improvement is made by the lessor of leased property for the lessee of that property.

(2) The improvement is irrevocably disposed of or abandoned by the lessor at the termination of the lease by the lessee.

The amendments to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall apply to property disposed of or abandoned on or after January 1, 1997, in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 2.2. Section 17250 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17250. (a) (1) Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the accelerated cost recovery system, shall apply to assets placed in service on or after January 1, 1987, in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987.

(2) In the case of assets placed in service on or after January 1, 1987, in taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1987, a taxpayer may elect to have Sections 168 and 179 of the Internal Revenue Code apply by doing all of the following:

(A) Making an election on the return for the first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1987.

(B) Establishing a depreciation adjustment account for each asset (or group of assets) in an amount equal to the difference between the depreciation allowed on the federal return for each asset (or group of assets) and the depreciation allowed under this part.

(C) The depreciation adjustment account (or accounts) established under subparagraph (B) shall be amortized over 60 months beginning with the first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1987.

(3) In the case of assets placed in service prior to January 1, 1987, in taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1987, Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply only to residential rental property as provided by former Section 17250.5 (as amended by Chapter 1461 of the Statutes of 1985).

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a), any reference to "tax imposed by this chapter" in Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code means "net tax," as defined in Section 17039.

(c) For purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) Section 168(e)(3) shall be modified to provide that any grapevine, replaced in a vineyard in California in any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, as a direct result of a phylloxera infestation in that vineyard, or replaced in a vineyard in California in any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, as a direct result of Pierce's Disease in that vineyard, shall be "five-year property," rather than "10-year property."

(2) Section 168(g)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified to provide that any grapevine, replaced in a vineyard in California in any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, as a direct result of a phylloxera infestation in that vineyard, or replaced in a vineyard in California in any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, as a direct result of Pierce's Disease in that vineyard, shall have a class life of 10 years.

(d) Every taxpayer claiming a depreciation deduction with respect to grapevines as described in subdivision (c) shall obtain a written certification from an independent state-certified integrated pest management adviser, or a state agricultural commissioner or adviser, that specifies that the replanting was necessary to restore a vineyard infested with phylloxera or Pierce's Disease. The taxpayer shall retain the certification for future audit purposes.

(e) (1) Section 169 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to amortization of pollution control facilities, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(2) The deduction allowed by this section shall be available only with respect to facilities located in this state.

(3) The "state certifying authority," as defined in Section 169(d)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, means the State Air Resources Board, in the case of air pollution, and the State Water Resources Control Board, in the case of water pollution.

(f) For property used in a trade or business, or held for production of income, there shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction a reasonable allowance for the cost of a solar energy system and allowable conservation measures over a 60-month period for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1987.

(g) Section 7622(c)[e] of Public Law 101-239, relating to the effective date of changes in treatment of transfers of franchises, trademarks, and trade names, shall apply.

(h) Section 7645(b) of Public Law 101-239, relating to the effective date of disallowance of depreciation for certain term interests, shall apply.

(i) The amendments to Section 168(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code made by Section 13151 of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to increase in recovery period for nonresidential real property, shall apply to property placed in service on or after January 1, 1997, in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

(j) Section 168(j) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to property on Indian reservations, shall not apply.

SEC. 2.3. Section 17250 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17250. (a) (1) Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the accelerated cost recovery system, shall apply to assets placed in service on or after January 1, 1987, in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987.

(2) In the case of assets placed in service on or after January 1, 1987, in taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1987, a taxpayer may elect to have Sections 168 and 179 of the Internal Revenue Code apply by doing all of the following:

(A) Making an election on the return for the first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1987.

(B) Establishing a depreciation adjustment account for each asset (or group of assets) in an amount equal to the difference between the depreciation allowed on the federal return for each asset (or group of assets) and the depreciation allowed under this part.

(C) The depreciation adjustment account (or accounts) established under subparagraph (B) shall be amortized over 60 months beginning with the first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1987.

(3) In the case of assets placed in service prior to January 1, 1987, in taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1987, Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply only to residential rental property as provided by former Section 17250.5 (as amended by Chapter 1461 of the Statutes of 1985).

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a), any reference to "tax imposed by this chapter" in Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code means "net tax," as defined in Section 17039.

(c) For purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) Section 168(e)(3) shall be modified to provide that any grapevine, replaced in a vineyard in California in any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, as a direct result of a phylloxera infestation in that vineyard, or replaced in a vineyard in California in any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, as a direct result of Pierce's Disease in that vineyard, shall be "five-year property," rather than "10-year property."

(2) Section 168(g)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified to provide that any grapevine, replaced in a vineyard in California in any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, as a direct result of a phylloxera infestation in that vineyard, or replaced in a vineyard in California in any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, as a direct result of Pierce's Disease in that vineyard, shall have a class life of 10 years.

(d) Every taxpayer claiming a depreciation deduction with respect to grapevines as described in subdivision (c) shall obtain a written certification from an independent state-certified integrated pest management adviser, or a state agricultural commissioner or adviser, that specifies that the replanting was necessary to restore a vineyard infested with phylloxera or Pierce's Disease. The taxpayer shall retain the certification for future audit purposes.

(e) (1) Section 169 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to amortization of pollution control facilities, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(2) The deduction allowed by this section shall be available only with respect to facilities located in this state.

(3) The "state certifying authority," as defined in Section 169(d)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, means the State Air Resources Board, in the case of air pollution, and the State Water Resources Control Board, in the case of water pollution.

(f) For property used in a trade or business, or held for production of income, there shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction a reasonable allowance for the cost of a solar energy system and allowable conservation measures over a 60-month period for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1987.

(g) Section 7622(c)[e] of Public Law 101-239, relating to the effective date of changes in treatment of transfers of franchises, trademarks, and trade names, shall apply.

(h) Section 7645(b) of Public Law 101-239, relating to the effective date of disallowance of depreciation for certain term interests, shall apply.

(i) The amendments to Section 168(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code made by Section 13151 of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to increase in recovery period for nonresidential real property, shall apply to property placed in service on or after January 1, 1997, in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

(j) Section 168(i)(8) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to leasehold improvements, is modified to provide that an improvement shall be treated for purposes of determining gain or loss under this part as disposed of by the lessor when so disposed of or abandoned if both of the following occur:

(1) The improvement is made by the lessor of leased property for the lessee of that property.

(2) The improvement is irrevocably disposed of or abandoned by the lessor at the termination of the lease by the lessee.

The amendments to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall apply to property disposed of or abandoned on or after January 1, 1997, in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

(k) Section 168(j) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to property on Indian reservations, shall not apply.

SEC. 3. Section 24349 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24349. (a) There shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction a reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear, and tear (including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence)—

(1) Of property used in the trade or business; or

(2) Of property held for the production of income.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (c), for income years ending after December 31, 1958, the term "reasonable allowance" as used in subdivision (a) shall include, but shall not be limited to, an allowance computed in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, under any of the following methods:

(1) The straight line method.

(2) The declining balance method, using a rate not exceeding twice the rate that would have been used had the annual allowance been computed under the method described in paragraph (1).

(3) The sum of the years-digits method.

(4) Any other consistent method productive of an annual allowance that, when added to all allowances for the period commencing with the taxpayer's use of the property and including the income year, does not, during the first two-thirds of the useful life of the property, exceed the total of those allowances that would have been used had those allowances been computed under the method described in paragraph (2).

Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit or reduce an allowance otherwise allowable under subdivision (a).

(c) Any grapevine replaced in a vineyard in California in an income year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, as a direct result of a phylloxera infestation in that vineyard, and any grapevine replaced in a vineyard in California in an income year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, as a direct result of Pierce's Disease in that vineyard, shall have a useful life of five years, except that it shall have a class life of 10 years for purposes of depreciation under Section 168(g)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code where the taxpayer has made an election under Section 263A(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code not to capitalize costs of the infested vineyard. Every taxpayer claiming a deduction under this section with respect to a grapevine as described in this subdivision shall obtain a written certification from an independent state-certified integrated pest management adviser, or a state agricultural commissioner or adviser, that specifies that the replanting was necessary to restore a vineyard infested with phylloxera or Pierce's Disease. The taxpayer shall retain the certification for future audit purposes.

(d) For purposes of this part, the deduction for property leased to governments and other tax-exempt entities, as defined in Section 168(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, shall be limited to the amount determined under Section 168(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to alternative depreciation system for certain property.

SEC. 3.1. Section 24349 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24349. (a) There shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction a reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear, and tear (including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence)—

(1) Of property used in the trade or business; or

(2) Of property held for the production of income.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (c), for income years ending after December 31, 1958, the term "reasonable allowance" as used in subdivision (a) shall include, but shall not be limited to, an allowance computed in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, under any of the following methods:

(1) The straight line method.

(2) The declining balance method, using a rate not exceeding twice the rate that would have been used had the annual allowance been computed under the method described in paragraph (1).

(3) The sum of the years-digits method.

(4) Any other consistent method productive of an annual allowance that, when added to all allowances for the period commencing with the taxpayer's use of the property and including the income year, does not, during the first two-thirds of the useful life of the property, exceed the total of those allowances that would have been used had those allowances been computed under the method described in paragraph (2).

Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit or reduce an allowance otherwise allowable under subdivision (a).

(c) Any grapevine replaced in a vineyard in California in an income year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, as a direct result of a phylloxera infestation in that vineyard, and any grapevine replaced in a vineyard in California in an income year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, as a direct result of Pierce's Disease in that vineyard, shall have a useful life of five years, except that it shall have a class life of 10 years for purposes of depreciation under Section 168(g)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code where the taxpayer has made an election under Section 263A(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code not to capitalize costs of the infested vineyard. Every taxpayer claiming a deduction under this section with respect to a grapevine as described in this subdivision shall obtain a written certification from an independent state-certified integrated pest management adviser, or a state agricultural commissioner or adviser, that specifies that the replanting was necessary to restore a vineyard infested with phylloxera or Pierce's Disease. The taxpayer shall retain the certification for future audit purposes.

(d) For purposes of this part, the deduction for property leased to governments and other tax-exempt entities, as defined in Section 168(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, shall be limited to the amount determined under Section 168(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to alternative depreciation system for certain property.

(e) An improvement shall be treated for purposes of determining gain or loss under this part as disposed of by the lessor if both of the following occur:

(1) The improvement is made by the lessor of leased property for the lessee of that property.

(2) The improvement is irrevocably disposed of or abandoned by the lessor at the termination of the lease by the lessee.

This subdivision shall not apply to any property to which Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code does not apply for federal purposes by reason of Section 168(f) of the Internal Revenue Code. Any election made under Section 168(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code for federal purposes shall be treated as a binding election for state purposes and no separate election under subdivision (e) of Section 23051.5 shall be allowed.

The amendments to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall apply to property disposed of or abandoned on or after January 1, 1997, in income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 3.2. Section 24349 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24349. (a) There shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction a reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear, and tear (including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence)—

(1) Of property used in the trade or business; or

(2) Of property held for the production of income.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (c), for income years ending after December 31, 1958, the term "reasonable allowance" as used in subdivision (a) shall include, but shall not be limited to, an allowance computed in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, under any of the following methods:

(1) The straight line method.

(2) The declining balance method, using a rate not exceeding twice the rate that would have been used had the annual allowance been computed under the method described in paragraph (1).

(3) The sum of the years-digits method.

(4) Any other consistent method productive of an annual allowance that, when added to all allowances for the period commencing with the taxpayer's use of the property and including the income year, does not, during the first two-thirds of the useful life of the property, exceed the total of those allowances that would have been used had those allowances been computed under the method described in paragraph (2).

Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit or reduce an allowance otherwise allowable under subdivision (a).

(c) Any grapevine replaced in a vineyard in California in an income year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, as a direct result of a phylloxera infestation in that vineyard, and any grapevine replaced in a vineyard in California in an income year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, as a direct result of Pierce's Disease in that vineyard, shall have a useful life of five years, except that it shall have a class life of 10 years for purposes of depreciation under Section

168(g)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code where the taxpayer has made an election under Section 263A(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code not to capitalize costs of the infested vineyard. Every taxpayer claiming a deduction under this section with respect to a grapevine as described in this subdivision shall obtain a written certification from an independent state-certified integrated pest management adviser, or a state agricultural commissioner or adviser, that specifies that the replanting was necessary to restore a vineyard infested with phylloxera or Pierce's Disease. The taxpayer shall retain the certification for future audit purposes.

(d) For purposes of this part, the deduction for property leased to governments and other tax-exempt entities, as defined in Section 168(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, shall be limited to the amount determined under Section 168(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to alternative depreciation system for certain property.

(e) (1) In the case of any building erected or improvements made on leased property, if the building or improvement is property to which this section applies, the depreciation deduction shall be determined under the provisions of this section.

(2) An improvement shall be treated for purposes of determining gain or loss under this part as disposed of by the lessor if both of the following occur:

(A) The improvement is made by the lessor of leased property for the lessee of that property.

(B) The improvement is irrevocably disposed of or abandoned by the lessor at the termination of the lease by the lessee.

(3) This subdivision shall not apply to any property to which Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code does not apply for federal purposes by reason of Section 168(f) of the Internal Revenue Code. Any election made under Section 168(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code for federal purposes shall be treated as a binding election for state purposes and no separate election under subdivision (e) of Section 23051.5 shall be allowed.

(4) This subdivision shall apply to property disposed of or abandoned on or after January 1, 1997, in income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

(f) (1) Section 167(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to depreciation under income forecast method, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(2) Section 167(g)(2)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by substituting "Section 19521" in lieu of "Section 460(b)(7)" of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) Section 167(g)(5)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by substituting "Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401) (other than Article 2 (commencing with Section 19021) and Sections 19142 to 19150, inclusive)" in lieu of "Subtitle F (other than Sections 6654 and 6655)."

SEC. 3.3. Section 24349 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24349. (a) There shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction a reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear, and tear (including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence)—

(1) Of property used in the trade or business; or

(2) Of property held for the production of income.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (c), for income years ending after December 31, 1958, the term "reasonable allowance" as used in subdivision (a) shall include, but shall not be limited to, an allowance computed in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, under any of the following methods:

(1) The straight-line method.

(2) The declining balance method, using a rate not exceeding twice the rate that would have been used had the annual allowance been computed under the method described in paragraph (1).

(3) The sum of the years-digits method.

(4) Any other consistent method productive of an annual allowance that, when added to all allowances for the period commencing with the taxpayer's use of the property and including the income year, does not, during the first two-thirds of the useful life of the property, exceed the total of those allowances that would have been used had those allowances been computed under the method described in paragraph (2).

Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit or reduce an allowance otherwise allowable under subdivision (a).

(c) Any grapevine replaced in a vineyard in California in an income year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, as a direct result of a phylloxera infestation in that vineyard, and any grapevine replaced in a vineyard in California in an income year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, as a direct result of Pierce's Disease in that vineyard, shall have a useful life of five years, except that it shall have a class life of 10 years for purposes of depreciation under Section 168(g)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code where the taxpayer has made an election under Section 263A(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code not to capitalize costs of the infested vineyard. Every taxpayer claiming a deduction under this section with respect to a grapevine as described in this subdivision shall obtain a written certification from an independent state-certified integrated pest management adviser, or a state agricultural commissioner or adviser, that specifies that the replanting was necessary to restore a vineyard infested with phylloxera or Pierce's Disease. The taxpayer shall retain the certification for future audit purposes.

(d) For purposes of this part, the deduction for property leased to governments and other tax-exempt entities, as defined in Section 168(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, shall be limited to the amount determined under Section 168(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to alternative depreciation system for certain property.

(e) (1) In the case of any building erected or improvements made on leased property, if the building or improvement is property to which this section applies, the depreciation deduction shall be determined under the provisions of this section.

(2) An improvement shall be treated for purposes of determining gain or loss under this part as disposed of by the lessor if both of the following occur:

(A) The improvement is made by the lessor of leased property for the lessee of that property.

(B) The improvement is irrevocably disposed of or abandoned by the lessor at the termination of the lease by the lessee.

(3) This subdivision shall not apply to any property to which Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code does not apply for federal purposes by reason of Section 168(f) of the Internal Revenue Code. Any election made under Section 168(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code for federal purposes shall be treated as a binding election for state purposes and no separate election under subdivision (e) of Section 23051.5 shall be allowed.

(4) This subdivision shall apply to property disposed of or abandoned on or after January 1, 1997, in income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

(f) (1) Section 167(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to depreciation under income forecast method, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(2) Section 167(g)(2)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by substituting "Section 19521" in lieu of "Section 460(b)(7)" of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) Section 167(g)(5)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by substituting "Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401) (other than Article 2 (commencing with Section 19021) and Sections 19142 to 19150, inclusive)" in lieu of "Subtitle F (other than Sections 6654 and 6655)."

SEC. 4. (a) Section 2.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 17250 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1155. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, (2) each bill amends Section 17250 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, (3) SB 455 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 1155, in which case Sections 2, 2.2, and 2.3 of this bill shall not become operative.

(b) Section 2.2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 17250 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and SB 455. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, (2) each bill amends Section 17250 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, (3) AB 1155 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and

(4) this bill is enacted after SB 455, in which case Sections 2, 2.1, and 2.3 of this bill shall not become operative.

(c) Section 2.3 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 17250 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by this bill, AB 1155, and SB 455. It shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, (2) all three bills amend Section 17250 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1155 and SB 455, in which case Sections 2, 2.1, and 2.2 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 5. (a) Section 3.1 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 24349 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1155. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, (2) each bill amends Section 24349 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, (3) SB 455 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after AB 1155, in which case Sections 3, 3.2, and 3.3 of this bill shall not become operative.

(b) Section 3.2 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 24349 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and SB 455. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, (2) each bill amends Section 24349 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, (3) AB 1155 is not enacted or as enacted does not amend that section, and (4) this bill is enacted after SB 455 in which case Sections 3, 3.1, and 3.3 of this bill shall not become operative.

(c) Section 3.3 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 24349 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by this bill, AB 1155, and SB 455. It shall only become operative if (1) all three bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, (2) all three bills amend Section 24349 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1155 and SB 455, in which case Sections 3, 3.1, and 3.2 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 6. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 608

An act to amend Sections 17009, 17039, 17941, 18633.5, 23036, and 23038 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor October 1, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 3, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17009 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17009. "Corporation" includes joint stock companies or associations (including nonprofit associations that perform services, borrow money or own property, and business trusts or other business entities taxable as a corporation under regulations of the Franchise Tax Board) and insurance companies. "Corporation" also includes a trust organized and operated exclusively for purposes contained in Section 23701d.

SEC. 2. Section 17039 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17039. (a) Notwithstanding any provision in this part to the contrary, for the purposes of computing tax credits, the term "net tax" means the tax imposed under either Section 17041 or 17048 plus the tax imposed under Section 17504 (relating to lump-sum distributions) less the credits allowed by Section 17054 (relating to personal exemption credits) and any amount imposed under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) and paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 17560. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, the "net tax" shall not be less than the tax imposed under Section 17504 (relating to the separate tax on lump-sum distributions), if any. Credits shall be allowed against "net tax" in the following order:

(1) Credits that do not contain carryover or refundable provisions, except those described in paragraphs (4) and (5).

(3) Credits that contain both carryover and refundable provisions.

The order within each paragraph shall be determined by the Franchise Tax Board.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 17053.5 (relating to the renter's credit), 17061 (relating to refunds pursuant to the Unemployment Insurance Code), and 19002 (relating to tax withholding), the credits provided in those sections shall be allowed in the order provided in paragraph (6) of subdivision (a).

(c) (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, no tax credit shall reduce the tax imposed under Section 17041 or 17048 plus the tax imposed under Section 17504 (relating to the separate tax on lump-sum distributions) below the tentative minimum tax, as defined by Section 17062, except the following credits, but only after allowance of the credit allowed by Section 17063:

(B) The credit allowed by former Section 17052.5 (relating to solar energy).

(C) The credit allowed by Section 17052.5 (relating to solar energy).

(D) The credit allowed by Section 17052.12 (relating to research expenses).

(E) The credit allowed by former Section 17052.13 (relating to sales and use tax credit).

(F) The credit allowed by Section 17052.15 (relating to Los Angeles Revitalization Zone sales tax credit).

(G) The credit allowed by Section 17053.5 (relating to the renter's credit).

(H) The credit allowed by former Section 17053.8 (relating to enterprise zone hiring credit).

(I) The credit allowed by Section 17053.10 (relating to Los Angeles Revitalization Zone hiring credit).

(J) The credit allowed by former Section 17053.11 (relating to program area hiring credit).

(K) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1994, the credit allowed by Section 17053.17 (relating to Los Angeles Revitalization Zone hiring credit).

(L) The credit allowed by Section 17053.49 (relating to qualified property).

(M) The credit allowed by Section 17053.70 (relating to enterprise zone sales or use tax credit).

(N) The credit allowed by Section 17053.74 (relating to enterprise zone hiring credit).

(O) The credit allowed by Section 17057 (relating to clinical testing expenses).

(Q) The credit allowed by Section 17061 (relating to refunds pursuant to the Unemployment Insurance Code).

(R) Credits for taxes paid to other states allowed by Chapter 12 (commencing with Section 18001).

(S) The credit allowed by Section 19002 (relating to tax withholding).

(2) Any credit that is partially or totally denied under paragraph (1) shall be allowed to be carried over and applied to the net tax in succeeding taxable years, if the provisions relating to that credit include a provision to allow a carryover when that credit exceeds the net tax.

(d) Unless otherwise provided, any remaining carryover of a credit allowed by a section that has been repealed or made inoperative shall continue to be allowed to be carried over under the provisions of that section as it read immediately prior to being repealed or becoming inoperative.

(e) (1) Unless otherwise provided, if two or more taxpayers (other than husband and wife) share in costs that would be eligible for a tax credit allowed under this part, each taxpayer shall be eligible to receive the tax credit in proportion to his or her respective share of the costs paid or incurred.

(2) In the case of a partnership, the credit shall be allocated among the partners pursuant to a written partnership agreement in accordance with Section 704 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to partner's distributive share.

(3) In the case of a husband and wife who file separate returns, the credit may be taken by either or equally divided between them.

(f) Unless otherwise provided, in the case of a partnership, any credit allowed by this part shall be computed at the partnership level, and any limitation on the expenses qualifying for the credit or limitation upon the amount of the credit shall be applied to the partnership and to each partner.

(g) (1) With respect to any taxpayer that directly or indirectly owns an interest in a business entity that is disregarded for tax purposes pursuant to Section 23038 and any regulations thereunder, the amount of any credit or credit carryforward allowable for any taxable year attributable to the disregarded business entity shall be limited in accordance with paragraphs (2) and (3).

(2) The amount of any credit otherwise allowed under this part, including any credit carryover from prior years, that may be applied to reduce the taxpayer's "net tax," as defined in subdivision (a), for the taxable year shall be limited to an amount equal to the excess of the taxpayer's regular tax (as defined in Section 17062), determined by including income attributable to the disregarded business entity that generated the credit or credit carryover, over the taxpayer's regular tax (as defined in Section 17062), determined by excluding the income attributable to that disregarded business entity. No credit shall be allowed if the taxpayer's regular tax (as defined in Section 17062), determined by including the income attributable to the disregarded business entity, is less than the taxpayer's regular tax (as defined in Section 17062), determined by excluding the income attributable to the disregarded business entity.

(3) If the amount of a credit allowed pursuant to the section establishing the credit exceeds the amount allowable under this subdivision in any taxable year, the excess amount may be carried over to subsequent taxable years pursuant to subdivisions (c) and (d).

SEC. 3. Section 17941 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17941. (a) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, every limited liability company doing business in this state (as defined in Section 23101) shall pay annually to this state a tax for the privilege of doing business in this state in an amount equal to the applicable amount specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 23153 for the taxable year.

(b) In addition to any limited liability company which is doing business in this state and is therefore subject to the tax imposed by subdivision (a), for each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, a limited liability company shall pay annually the tax prescribed in subdivision (a) if articles of organization have been accepted, or a certificate of registration has been issued, by the office of the Secretary of State. The tax shall be paid for each taxable year, or part thereof, until a certificate of cancellation of registration or of articles of organization is filed on behalf of the limited liability company with the office of the Secretary of State.

(c) The tax assessed under this section shall be due and payable on or before the 15th day of the fourth month of the taxable year.

(d) For purposes of this section, "limited liability company" means any organization that is formed by one or more persons under the law of this state, any other country, or any other state, as a "limited liability company" and that is not taxable as a corporation for California tax purposes.

SEC. 4. Section 18633.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18633.5. (a) Every limited liability company which is classified as a partnership for California tax purposes that is doing business in this state, organized in this state, or registered with the Secretary of State shall file its return within three months and 15 days after the close of its taxable year, shall make a return for that taxable year, stating specifically the items of gross income and the deductions allowed by Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001). The return shall include the names, addresses, and taxpayer identification numbers of the persons, whether residents or nonresidents, who would be entitled to share in the net income if distributed and the amount of the distributive share of each person. The return shall contain or be verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury, signed by one of the limited liability company members.

(b) Each limited liability company required to file a return under subdivision (a) for any limited liability company taxable or income year shall, on or before the day on which the return for that taxable or income year was required to be filed, furnish to each person who holds an interest in that limited liability company at any time during that taxable year a copy of that information required to be shown on that return as may be required by forms and instructions prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board.

(c) Any person who holds an interest in a limited liability company as a nominee for another person shall do both of the following:

(1) Furnish to the limited liability company, in the manner prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, the name, address, and taxpayer identification number of that person, and any other information for that taxable or income year as the Franchise Tax Board may prescribe by forms and instructions.

(2) Furnish to that other person, in the manner prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, the information provided by that limited liability company under subdivision (b).

(d) The provisions of Section 6031(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the separate statement of items of unrelated business taxable income, shall apply.

(e) (1) A limited liability company shall file with its return required under subdivision (a), in the form required by the Franchise Tax Board, the agreement of each nonresident member to file a return pursuant to Section 18501, to make timely payment of all taxes imposed on the member by this state with respect to the income of the limited liability company, and to be subject to personal jurisdiction in this state for purposes of the collection of income taxes, together with related interest and penalties, imposed on the member by this state with respect to the income of the limited liability company. If the limited liability company fails timely to file the agreements on behalf of each of its nonresident members, then the limited liability company shall, at the time set forth in subdivision (f), pay to this state on behalf of each nonresident member of whom an agreement has not been timely filed an amount equal to the highest marginal tax rate in effect under Section 17041 in the case of members which are individuals, estates, or trusts, and Section 23151 in the case of members which are corporations, multiplied by the amount of the member's distributive share of the income source to the state reflected on the limited liability company's return for the taxable period. A limited liability company shall be entitled to recover the payment made from the member on whose behalf the payment was made.

(2) If a limited liability company fails to attach the agreement or to timely pay the payment required by paragraph (1), the payment shall be considered the tax of the limited liability company for purposes of the penalty prescribed by Section 19132 and interest prescribed by Section 19101 for failure to timely pay tax. Payment of the penalty and interest imposed on the limited liability company for failure to timely pay the amount required by this subdivision shall extinguish the liability of a nonresident member for the penalty and interest for failure to make timely payment of all taxes imposed on that member by this state with respect to the income of the limited liability company.

(3) No penalty or interest shall be imposed on the limited liability company under paragraph (2) if the nonresident member timely files and pays all taxes imposed on the member by this state with respect to the income of the limited liability company.

(f) Any agreement of a nonresident member required to be filed pursuant to subdivision (e) shall be filed at either of the following times:

(1) The time the annual return is required to be filed pursuant to this section for the first taxable period for which the limited liability company became subject to tax pursuant to Chapter 1.6 (commencing with Section 23091).

(2) The time the annual return is required to be filed pursuant to this section for any taxable period in which the limited liability company had a nonresident member on whose behalf the agreement has not been previously filed.

(g) Any amount paid by the limited liability company to this state pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) shall be considered to be a payment by the member on account of the income tax imposed by this state on the member for the taxable period.

(h) Every limited liability company that is classified as a corporation for California tax purposes shall be subject to the requirement to file a tax return under the provisions of Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401) and the applicable taxes imposed by Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) including Section 23221 relating to the prepayment of the minimum tax to the Secretary of State.

(i) (1) Every limited liability company doing business in this state, organized in this state, or registered with the Secretary of State, that is disregarded pursuant to Section 23038 shall file a return that includes information necessary to verify its liability under Sections 17941 and 17942, provides its sole owner's name and taxpayer identification number, includes the consent of the owner to California tax jurisdiction, and includes other information necessary for the administration of this part, Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

(2) If the owner's consent required under paragraph (1) is not included, the limited liability company shall pay on behalf of its owner an amount consistent with, and treated the same as, the amount to be paid under subdivision (e) by a limited liability company on behalf of a nonresident member for whom an agreement required by subdivision (e) is not attached to the return of the limited liability company.

(3) The return required under paragraph (1) shall be filed within three months and 15 days after the close of the taxable or income year of the owner.

(4) For limited liability companies disregarded pursuant to Section 23038, "taxable or income year of the owner" shall be substituted for "taxable year" in Sections 17941 and 17942.

SEC. 4.5. Section 18633.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18633.5. (a) Every limited liability company which is classified as a partnership for California tax purposes that is doing business in this state, organized in this state, or registered with the Secretary of State shall file its return within three months and 15 days after the close of its taxable year, shall make a return for that taxable year, stating specifically the items of gross income and the deductions allowed by Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001). The return shall include the names, addresses, and taxpayer identification numbers of the persons, whether residents or nonresidents, who would be entitled to share in the net income if distributed and the amount of the distributive share of each person. The return shall contain or be verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury, signed by one of the limited liability company members. In the case of a limited liability company not doing business in this state, and subject to the tax imposed by subdivision (b) of Section 17941 or 23091, the Franchise Tax Board shall, for returns required to be filed on or after January 1, 1998, prescribe the manner and extent to which the information identified in this subdivision shall be included with the return required by this subdivision.

(b) Each limited liability company required to file a return under subdivision (a) for any limited liability company taxable or income year shall, on or before the day on which the return for that taxable or income year was required to be filed, furnish to each person who holds an interest in that limited liability company at any time during that taxable or income year a copy of that information required to be shown on that return as may be required by forms and instructions prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board.

(c) Any person who holds an interest in a limited liability company as a nominee for another person shall do both of the following:

(1) Furnish to the limited liability company, in the manner prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, the name, address, and taxpayer identification number of that person, and any other information for that taxable or income year as the Franchise Tax Board may prescribe by forms and instructions.

(2) Furnish to that other person, in the manner prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, the information provided by that limited liability company under subdivision (b).

(d) The provisions of Section 6031(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the separate statement of items of unrelated business taxable income, shall apply.

(e) (1) A limited liability company shall file with its return required under subdivision (a), in the form required by the Franchise Tax Board, the agreement of each nonresident member to file a return pursuant to Section 18501, to make timely payment of all taxes imposed on the member by this state with respect to the income of the limited liability company, and to be subject to personal jurisdiction in this state for purposes of the collection of income taxes, together with related interest and penalties, imposed on the member by this state with respect to the income of the limited liability company. If the limited liability company fails to timely file the agreements on behalf of each of its nonresident members, then the limited liability company shall, at the time set forth in subdivision (f), pay to this state on behalf of each nonresident member of whom an agreement has not been timely filed an amount equal to the highest marginal tax rate in effect under Section 17041, in the case of members which are individuals, estates, or trusts, and Section 23151, in the case of members which are corporations, multiplied by the amount of the member's distributive share of the income source to the state reflected on the limited liability company's return for the taxable period. A limited liability company shall be entitled to recover the payment made from the member on whose behalf the payment was made.

(2) If a limited liability company fails to attach the agreement or to timely pay the payment required by paragraph (1), the payment shall be considered the tax of the limited liability company for purposes of the penalty prescribed by Section 19132 and interest prescribed by Section 19101 for failure to timely pay the tax. Payment of the penalty and interest imposed on the limited liability company for failure to timely pay the amount required by this subdivision shall extinguish the liability of a nonresident member for the penalty and interest for failure to make timely payment of all taxes imposed on that member by this state with respect to the income of the limited liability company.

(3) No penalty or interest shall be imposed on the limited liability company under paragraph (2) if the nonresident member timely files and pays all taxes imposed on the member by this state with respect to the income of the limited liability company.

(f) Any agreement of a nonresident member required to be filed pursuant to subdivision (e) shall be filed at either of the following times:

(1) The time the annual return is required to be filed pursuant to this section for the first taxable period for which the limited liability company became subject to tax pursuant to Chapter 1.6 (commencing with Section 23091).

(2) The time the annual return is required to be filed pursuant to this section for any taxable period in which the limited liability company had a nonresident member on whose behalf an agreement described in subdivision (e) has not been previously filed.

(g) Any amount paid by the limited liability company to this state pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) shall be considered to be a payment by the member on account of the income tax imposed by this state on the member for the taxable period.

(h) Every limited liability company that is classified as a corporation for California tax purposes shall be subject to the requirement to file a tax return under the provisions of Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401) and the applicable taxes imposed by Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) including Section 23221 relating to the prepayment of the minimum tax to the Secretary of State.

(i) (1) Every limited liability company doing business in this state, organized in this state, or registered with the Secretary of State, that is disregarded pursuant to Section 23038 shall file a return that includes information necessary to verify its liability under Sections 17941 and 17942, provides its sole owner's name and taxpayer identification number, includes the consent of the owner to California tax jurisdiction, and includes other information necessary for the administration of this part, Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

(2) If the owner's consent required under paragraph (1) is not included, the limited liability company shall pay on behalf of its owner an amount consistent with, and treated the same as, the amount to be paid under subdivision (e) by a limited liability company on behalf of a nonresident member for whom an agreement required by subdivision (e) is not attached to the return of the limited liability company.

(3) The return required under paragraph (1) shall be filed within three months and 15 days after the close of the taxable or income year of the owner.

(4) For limited liability companies disregarded pursuant to Section 23038, "taxable or income year of the owner" shall be substituted for "taxable year" in Sections 17941 and 17942.

SEC. 5. Section 23036 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23036. (a) (1) The term "tax" includes any of the following:

(A) The tax imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101).

(B) The tax imposed under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501).

(C) The tax on unrelated business taxable income, imposed under Section 23731.

(2) The term "tax" does not include any amount imposed under paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 24667 or paragraph (2) of subdivision (f) of Section 24667.

(b) For purposes of Article 5 (commencing with Section 18661) of Chapter 2, Article 3 (commencing with Section 19031) of Chapter 4, Article 6 (commencing with Section 19101) of Chapter 4, and Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 19501) of Part 10.2, and for purposes of Sections 18601, 19001, and 19005, the term "tax" shall also include all of the following:

(1) The tax on limited partnerships, imposed under Section 17935 or Section 23081, the tax on limited liability companies, imposed under Section 17941 or Section 23091, and the tax on registered limited liability partnerships and foreign limited liability partnerships imposed under Section 17948 or Section 23097.

(2) The alternative minimum tax imposed under Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 23400).

(3) The tax on built-in gains of S corporations, imposed under Section 23809.

(4) The tax on excess passive investment income of S corporations, imposed under Section 23811.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, credits shall be allowed against the "tax" in the following order:

(1) Credits that do not contain carryover provisions.

(2) Credits that, when the credit exceeds the "tax," allow the excess to be carried over to offset the "tax" in succeeding taxable years. The order of credits within this paragraph shall be determined by the Franchise Tax Board.

(3) The minimum tax credit allowed by Section 23453.

(4) Credits for taxes withheld under Section 18662.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, each of the following shall be applicable:

(1) No credit shall reduce the "tax" below the tentative minimum tax (as defined by paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 23455), except the following credits, but only after allowance of the credit allowed by Section 23453:

(A) The credit allowed by former Section 23601 (relating to solar energy).

(B) The credit allowed by former Section 23601.4 (relating to solar energy).

(C) The credit allowed by Section 23601.5 (relating to solar energy).

(D) The credit allowed by Section 23609 (relating to research expenditures).

(E) The credit allowed by Section 23609.5 (relating to clinical testing expenses).

(F) The credit allowed by Section 23610.5 (relating to low-income housing).

(G) The credit allowed by former Section 23612 (relating to sales and use tax credit).

(H) The credit allowed by Section 23612.2 (relating to enterprise zone sales or use tax credit).

(I) The credit allowed by Section 23612.6 (relating to Los Angeles Revitalization Zone sales tax credit).

(J) The credit allowed by former Section 23622 (relating to enterprise zone hiring credit).

(K) The credit allowed by Section 23622.7 (relating to enterprise zone hiring credit).

(M) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1994, the credit allowed by Section 23623.5 (relating to Los Angeles Revitalization Zone hiring credit).

(N) The credit allowed by Section 23625 (relating to Los Angeles Revitalization Zone hiring credit).

(O) The credit allowed by Section 23649 (relating to qualified property).

(2) No credit against the tax shall reduce the minimum franchise tax imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101).

(e) Any credit which is partially or totally denied under subdivision (d) shall be allowed to be carried over to reduce the "tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, if the provisions relating to that credit include a provision to allow a carryover of the unused portion of that credit.

(f) Unless otherwise provided, any remaining carryover from a credit that has been repealed or made inoperative shall continue to be allowed to be carried over under the provisions of that section as it read immediately prior to being repealed or becoming inoperative.

(g) Unless otherwise provided, if two or more taxpayers share in costs that would be eligible for a tax credit allowed under this part, each taxpayer shall be eligible to receive the tax credit in proportion to its respective share of the costs paid or incurred.

(h) Unless otherwise provided, in the case of an S corporation, any credit allowed by this part shall be computed at the S corporation level, and any limitation on the expenses qualifying for the credit or limitation upon the amount of the credit shall be applied to the S corporation and to each shareholder.

(i) (1) With respect to any taxpayer that directly or indirectly owns an interest in a business entity that is disregarded for tax purposes pursuant to Section 23038 and any regulations thereunder, the amount of any credit or credit carryforward allowable for any income year attributable to the disregarded business entity shall be limited in accordance with paragraphs (2) and (3).

(2) The amount of any credit otherwise allowed under this part, including any credit carryover from prior years, that may be applied to reduce the taxpayer's "tax," as defined in subdivision (a), for the income year shall be limited to an amount equal to the excess of the taxpayer's regular tax (as defined in Section 23455), determined by including income attributable to the disregarded business entity that generated the credit or credit carryover, over the taxpayer's regular tax (as defined in Section 23455), determined by excluding the income attributable to that disregarded business entity. No credit shall be allowed if the taxpayer's regular tax (as defined in Section 23455), determined by including the income attributable to the disregarded business entity is less than the taxpayer's regular tax (as defined in Section 23455), determined by excluding the income attributable to the disregarded business entity.

(3) If the amount of a credit allowed pursuant to the section establishing the credit exceeds the amount allowable under this subdivision in any income year, the excess amount may be carried over to subsequent income years pursuant to subdivisions (d), (e) and (f).

SEC. 6. Section 23038 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23038. (a) "Corporation" includes every corporation except corporations expressly exempt from the tax by this part or the Constitution of this state.

(b) (1) For the purposes of the tax imposed under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501), "corporation" also includes associations (including nonprofit associations that perform services, borrow money or own property), other than banking associations, and Massachusetts or business trusts. For the purposes of this part, a Massachusetts or business trust includes every business organization consisting essentially of an arrangement whereby property is conveyed to one, or more than one, trustee for purposes other than the mere conservation of assets, collecting and disbursing of fixed or periodic income, or the securing of an obligation. This paragraph shall apply for income or taxable years beginning before January 1, 1997.

(2) (A) For the purposes of the tax imposed under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501), "corporation" also includes associations (other than banking associations but including nonprofit associations that perform services, borrow money or own property), business trusts, and other business entities classified as associations.

(B) (i) For purposes of the preceding subparagraph, the classification of a business entity (including a business trust) as an association taxable as a corporation (under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501)) shall be determined under regulations of the Franchise Tax Board, which shall be consistent with federal regulations as in effect January 1, 1997, that classify a business entity as a partnership or an association taxable as a corporation or disregard the separate existence of certain business entities for tax purposes.

(ii) The classification of an eligible business entity as a partnership or an association taxable as a corporation for purposes of this part, Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), and Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401) shall be the same as the classification of the entity for federal tax purposes.

(iii) If the separate existence of an eligible business entity is disregarded for federal tax purposes, the separate existence of that business entity shall be disregarded for purposes of this part, Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), and Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401), other than Section 17941 (relating to the tax of a limited liability company), Section 17942 (relating to the fee of a limited liability company), Section 18633.5 (relating to the return of a limited liability company), and Sections 17039 and 23036 (relating to tax credits).

(C) Notwithstanding clauses (ii) and (iii) of subparagraph (B), an eligible business entity that, for any income year beginning within the 60-month period preceding January 1, 1997, was properly classified as an association taxable as a corporation for California tax purposes shall continue to be an association taxable as a corporation until it elects, under regulations issued pursuant to subparagraph

(B), to be classified or disregarded the same as the entity is classified or disregarded for federal tax purposes. The preceding sentence shall not apply to any entity that, during the 60-month period preceding January 1, 1997, was not doing business in this state, did not derive income from sources within this state, and had no owner who was a resident of this state.

(D) This paragraph shall apply for income or taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1997.

(c) In addition to the above, for purposes of the tax imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101) for the purpose of exercising its franchise within this state, "corporation" also includes any limited liability company that is classified as an association for California tax purposes.

(d) "Corporation" includes any "corporation" operated by any receiver, liquidator, referee, trustee or other officers or agents appointed by any court, or an assignee for the benefit of creditors.

"Corporation" includes any professional corporation incorporated pursuant to Part 4 (commencing with Section 13400) of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code.

(e) Notwithstanding the above, "corporation" also includes a trust organized and operated exclusively for purposes contained in Section 23701d.

(f) No provision of the act adding this subdivision shall be construed to alter existing law with respect to the civil liability of a limited liability company or its members.

SEC. 6.5. Section 23038 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23038. (a) "Corporation" includes every corporation except:

(2) Corporations expressly exempt from the tax by this part or the Constitution of this state.

(b) (1) For the purposes of the tax imposed under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501), "corporation" also includes associations (including nonprofit associations that perform services, borrow money or own property), other than banking associations, and Massachusetts or business trusts. For the purposes of this part, a Massachusetts or business trust includes every business organization consisting essentially of an arrangement whereby property is conveyed to one, or more than one, trustee for purposes other than the mere conservation of assets, collecting and disbursing of fixed or periodic income, or the securing of an obligation. This paragraph shall apply for income or taxable years beginning before January 1, 1997.

(2) (A) For the purposes of the tax imposed under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501), "corporation" also includes associations (other than banking associations but including nonprofit associations that perform services, borrow money, or own property), business trusts, and other business entities classified as associations.

(B) (i) For purposes of the preceding subparagraph, the classification of a business entity (including a business trust) as an association taxable as a corporation (under Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501)) shall be determined under regulations of the Franchise Tax Board, which shall be consistent with federal regulations as in effect January 1, 1997, that classify a business entity as a partnership or an association taxable as a corporation or disregard the separate existence of certain business entities for tax purposes.

(ii) The classification of an eligible business entity as a partnership or an association taxable as a corporation for purposes of this part, Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), and Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401) shall be the same as the classification of the entity for federal tax purposes.

(iii) If the separate existence of an eligible business entity is disregarded for federal tax purposes, the separate existence of that business entity shall be disregarded for purposes of this part, Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), and Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401), other than Section 17941 (relating to the tax of a limited liability company), Section 17942 (relating to the fee of a limited liability company), Section 18633.5 (relating to the return of a limited liability company), and Sections 17039 and 23036 (relating to tax credits).

(C) Notwithstanding clauses (ii) and (iii) of subparagraph (B), an eligible business entity that, for any income year beginning within the 60-month period preceding January 1, 1997, was properly classified as an association taxable as a corporation for California tax purposes shall continue to be an association taxable as a corporation until it elects, under regulations issued pursuant to subparagraph (B), to be classified or disregarded the same as the entity is classified or disregarded for federal tax purposes. The preceding sentence shall not apply to any entity which, during the 60-month period preceding January 1, 1997, was not doing business in this state, did not derive income from sources within this state, and had no owner who was a resident of this state.

(c) In addition to the above, for purposes of the tax imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101) for the purpose of exercising its franchise within this state, "corporation" also includes any limited liability company that is classified as an association for California tax purposes.

(d) "Corporation" includes any "corporation" operated by any receiver, liquidator, referee, trustee or other officers or agents appointed by any court, or an assignee for the benefit of creditors.

"Corporation" includes any professional corporation incorporated pursuant to Part 4 (commencing with Section 13400) of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code.

(e) Notwithstanding the above, "corporation" also includes a trust organized and operated exclusively for purposes contained in Section 23701d.

(f) No provision of the act adding this subdivision shall be construed to alter existing law with respect to the civil liability of a limited liability company or its members.

SEC. 7. Section 4.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 18633.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1106. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, (2) each bill amends Section 18633.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1106, in which case Section 18633.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code as amended by SB 1106 shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 4.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 4 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 8. (a) Section 6 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 23038 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1040. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, (2) each bill amends Section 23038 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1040, in which case Section 6.5 of this bill shall remain operative only until the effective date of AB 1040, at which time Section 6 of this bill shall become operative.

(b) If Section 6 of this bill becomes operative, both of the following shall apply:

(1) The amendments made to Section 23038 of the Revenue and Taxation Code by AB 1040 shall be applied from the original effective date of the act enacting Section 23038 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. The Legislature finds and declares that the amendments made to Section 23038 of the Revenue and Taxation Code by AB 1040 are consistent with the intent of the act enacting that section.

(2) The amendments made to Section 23038 of the Revenue and Taxation Code only by this bill shall be operative for income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 9. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 609

An act to add Section 7073.8 to the Government Code, and to amend Sections 17053.74 and 23622.7 of, to add Sections 17053.47 and 23622.8 to, and to repeal and amend Sections 17053.70, 17053.75, 17235, 23612.2, and 24384.5 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to economic development.

[Approved by Governor October 1, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 3, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 7073.8 is added to the Government Code, to read:

7073.8. (a) The agency shall designate up to two Manufacturing Enhancement Areas, as defined by Section 17053.47, requested by the governing boards of cities each of which shall meet at least the following criteria:

(1) The unemployment rate in the county in which the applicant is located has been at least three times the state average from 1990 to 1995, inclusive.

(2) The applicant city is, or portions of the city are, designated a federal enterprise community or empowerment zone pursuant to Subchapter U (commencing with Section 1391) of Chapter 1 of Subtitle A of Title 26 of the United States Code.

(3) The applicant city is located in a Border Environment Cooperation Commission region as specified in Section 3473 of Title 19 of the United States Code.

(4) At least one of the following:

(A) The designated area has grown by less than 5 percent in population per year for each of the two years preceding the application date.

(B) The median household income for the designated area is under twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) per year.

(C) The designated area has a population of under 20,000 persons according to the 1990 federal census.

(D) The designated area is located in a rural community.

(5) An audit of the program shall be made at the end of the 5th and 10th year of its operation by the Trade and Commerce Agency with the cooperation of the local governing board. The audit shall be used to determine how effective the designation has been in attracting manufacturing facilities and creating new employment opportunities. Continuation of the designation is contingent on evidence of success of the program.

(b) For purposes of applying any provision of the Revenue and Taxation Code, any Manufacturing Enhancement Area designated pursuant to this section shall not be considered an enterprise zone designated pursuant to this chapter.

(c) The designation as a Manufacturing Enhancement Area pursuant to this section shall be binding for a period of 15 years, commencing January 1, 1998.

SEC. 2. Section 17053.47 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17053.47. (a) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1998, there shall be allowed a credit against the "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039) to a qualified taxpayer for hiring a qualified disadvantaged individual during the taxable year for employment in the Manufacturing Enhancement Area. The credit shall be equal to the sum of each of the following:

(1) Fifty percent of the qualified wages in the first year of employment.

(2) Forty percent of the qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent of the qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent of the qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(5) Ten percent of the qualified wages in the fifth year of employment.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified wages" means:

(A) That portion of wages paid or incurred by the qualified taxpayer during the taxable year to qualified disadvantaged individuals that does not exceed 150 percent of the minimum wage.

(B) The total amount of qualified wages which may be taken into account for purposes of claiming the credit allowed under this section shall not exceed two million dollars ($2,000,000) per taxable year.

(C) Wages received during the 60-month period beginning with the day the qualified disadvantaged individual commences employment with the qualified taxpayer.

(D) Qualified wages do not include any wages paid or incurred by the qualified taxpayer on or after the Manufacturing Enhancement Area expiration date. However, wages paid or incurred with respect to qualified employees who are employed by the qualified taxpayer within the Manufacturing Enhancement Area within the 60-month period prior to the Manufacturing Enhancement Area expiration date shall continue to qualify for the credit under this section after the Manufacturing Enhancement Area expiration date, in accordance with all provisions of this section applied as if the Manufacturing Enhancement Area designation were still in existence and binding.

(2) "Minimum wage" means the wage established by the Industrial Welfare Commission as provided for in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1171) of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

(3) "Manufacturing Enhancement Area" means an area designated pursuant to Section 7073.8 of the Government Code according to the procedures of Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(4) "Manufacturing Enhancement Area expiration date" means the date the Manufacturing Enhancement Area designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(5) "Qualified disadvantaged individual" means an individual who satisfies all of the following requirements:

(A) (i) At least 90 percent of whose services for the qualified taxpayer during the taxable year are directly related to the conduct of the qualified taxpayer's trade or business located in a Manufacturing Enhancement Area.

(ii) Who performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the qualified taxpayer during the taxable year in the Manufacturing Enhancement Area.

(B) Who is hired by the qualified taxpayer after the designation of the area as a Manufacturing Enhancement Area in which the individual's services were primarily performed.

(C) Who is any of the following immediately preceding the individual's commencement of employment with the qualified taxpayer:

(i) An individual who has been determined eligible for services under the federal Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 1501 et seq.).

(ii) Any voluntary or mandatory registrant under the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 as provided pursuant to Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(iii) Any individual who has been certified eligible by the Employment Development Department under the federal Targeted Jobs Tax Credit Program, whether or not this program is in effect.

(6) "Qualified taxpayer" means any taxpayer engaged in a trade or business within a Manufacturing Enhancement Area designated pursuant to Section 7073.8 of the Government Code and who meets both of the following requirements:

(A) Is engaged in those lines of business described in Codes 2011 to 3999, inclusive, of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition.

(B) At least 50 percent of the qualified taxpayer's work force hired after the designation of the Manufacturing Enhancement Area is composed of individuals who, at the time of hire, are residents of the county in which the Manufacturing Enhancement Area is located.

(C) Of this percentage of local hires, at least 30 percent shall be qualified disadvantaged individuals.

(c) (1) For purposes of this section, all of the following apply:

(A) All employees of trades or businesses that are under common control shall be treated as employed by a single qualified taxpayer.

(B) The credit (if any) allowable by this section with respect to each trade or business shall be determined by reference to its proportionate share of the expense of the qualified wages giving rise to the credit and shall be allocated in that manner.

(C) Principles that apply in the case of controlled groups of corporations, as specified in subdivision (d) of Section 23622.7, shall apply with respect to determining employment.

(2) If a qualified taxpayer acquires the major portion of a trade or business of another employer (hereinafter in this paragraph referred to as the "predecessor") or the major portion of a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor, then, for purposes of applying this section (other than subdivision (d)) for any calendar year ending after that acquisition, the employment relationship between a qualified disadvantaged individual and a qualified taxpayer shall not be treated as terminated if the qualified disadvantaged individual continues to be employed in that trade or business.

(d) (1) If the employment of any qualified disadvantaged individual, with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (b) is terminated by the qualified taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment (whether or not consecutive) or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that qualified disadvantaged individual completes 90 days of employment with the qualified taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the taxable year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that taxable year and all prior taxable years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that qualified disadvantaged individual.

(2) (A) Paragraph (1) does not apply to any of the following:

(i) A termination of employment of a qualified disadvantaged individual who voluntarily leaves the employment of the qualified taxpayer.

(ii) A termination of employment of a qualified disadvantaged individual who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that individual.

(iii) A termination of employment of a qualified disadvantaged individual, if it is determined under the applicable employment compensation laws that the termination was due to the misconduct of that individual.

(iv) A termination of employment of a qualified disadvantaged individual due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the qualified taxpayer.

(v) A termination of employment of a qualified disadvantaged individual, if that individual is replaced by other qualified disadvantaged individuals so as to create a net increase in both the number of employees and the hours of employment.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the qualified taxpayer and a qualified disadvantaged individual shall not be treated as terminated by reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the qualified taxpayer, if the qualified disadvantaged individual continues to be employed in that trade or business and the qualified taxpayer retains a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(e) In the case of an estate or trust, both of the following apply:

(1) The qualified wages for any taxable year shall be apportioned between the estate or trust and the beneficiaries on the basis of the income of the estate or trust allocable to each.

(2) Any beneficiary to whom any qualified wages have been apportioned under paragraph (1) shall be treated (for purposes of this part) as the employer with respect to those wages.

(f) The credit shall be reduced by the credit allowed under Section 17053.7. The credit shall also be reduced by the federal credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for the wages or salaries paid or incurred by the qualified taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit, prior to any reduction required by subdivision (g) or (h).

(g) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds the "net tax" for the taxable year, that portion of the credit that exceeds the "net tax" may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in succeeding years, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest taxable years possible.

(h) (1) The amount of credit otherwise allowed under this section, including prior year credit carryovers, that may reduce the "net tax" for the taxable year shall not exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the qualified taxpayer's business income attributed to a Manufacturing Enhancement Area determined as if that attributed income represented all of the net income of the qualified taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributed income described in paragraph (1) shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101) of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(A) Income shall be apportioned to a Manufacturing Enhancement Area by multiplying total business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) "The Manufacturing Enhancement Area" shall be substituted for "this state."

(3) The portion of any credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding taxable years, as if it were an amount exceeding the "net tax" for the taxable year, as provided in subdivision (g).

(i) (1) In the case where "qualified wages" qualify for a credit under more than one section in this part, the qualified taxpayer shall make an election as to which section applies to those qualified wages.

(2) Any election made under this section, and any specification contained in that election, may not be revoked except with the consent of the Franchise Tax Board.

SEC. 2.5. Section 17053.47 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17053.47. (a) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1998, there shall be allowed a credit against the "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039) to a qualified taxpayer for hiring a qualified disadvantaged individual during the taxable year for employment in the Manufacturing Enhancement Area. The credit shall be equal to the sum of each of the following:

(1) Fifty percent of the qualified wages in the first year of employment.

(2) Forty percent of the qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent of the qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent of the qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(5) Ten percent of the qualified wages in the fifth year of employment.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified wages" means:

(A) That portion of wages paid or incurred by the qualified taxpayer during the taxable year to qualified disadvantaged individuals that does not exceed 150 percent of the minimum wage.

(B) The total amount of qualified wages which may be taken into account for purposes of claiming the credit allowed under this section shall not exceed two million dollars ($2,000,000) per taxable year.

(C) Wages received during the 60-month period beginning with the day the qualified disadvantaged individual commences employment with the taxpayer.

(D) Qualified wages do not include any wages paid or incurred by the qualified taxpayer on or after the Manufacturing Enhancement Area expiration date. However, wages paid or incurred with respect to qualified employees who are employed by the qualified taxpayer within the Manufacturing Enhancement Area within the 60-month period prior to the Manufacturing Enhancement Area expiration date shall continue to qualify for the credit under this section after the Manufacturing Enhancement Area expiration date, in accordance with all provisions of this section applied as if the Manufacturing Enhancement Area designation were still in existence and binding.

(2) "Minimum wage" means the wage established by the Industrial Welfare Commission as provided for in Chapter 1

(3) "Manufacturing Enhancement Area" means an area designated pursuant to Section 7073.8 of the Government Code according to the procedures of Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(4) "Manufacturing Enhancement Area expiration date" means the date the Manufacturing Enhancement Area designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(5) "Qualified disadvantaged individual" means an individual who satisfies all of the following requirements:

(A) (i) At least 90 percent of whose services for the qualified taxpayer during the taxable year are directly related to the conduct of the taxpayer's trade or business located in a Manufacturing Enhancement Area.

(ii) Who performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the qualified taxpayer during the taxable year in the Manufacturing Enhancement Area.

(B) Who is hired by the qualified taxpayer after the designation of the area as a Manufacturing Enhancement Area in which the individual's services were primarily performed.

(C) Who is any of the following immediately preceding the individual's commencement of employment with the qualified taxpayer:

(i) An individual who has been determined eligible for services under the federal Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 1501 et seq.).

(ii) Any voluntary or mandatory registrant under the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 as provided pursuant to Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(iii) Any individual who has been certified eligible by the Employment Development Department under the federal Targeted Jobs Tax Credit Program, whether or not this program is in effect.

(6) "Qualified taxpayer" means any taxpayer engaged in a trade or business within a Manufacturing Enhancement Area designated pursuant to Section 7073.8 of the Government Code and who meets both of the following requirements:

(A) Is engaged in those lines of business described in Codes 2011 to 3999, inclusive, of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition.

(B) At least 30 percent of the qualified taxpayer's work force hired after the designation of the Manufacturing Enhancement Area is composed of qualified disadvantaged individuals who, at the time of hire, are residents of the county in which the Manufacturing Enhancement Area is located.

(c) (1) For purposes of this section, all of the following apply:

(A) All employees of trades or businesses that are under common control shall be treated as employed by a single qualified taxpayer.

(B) The credit (if any) allowable by this section with respect to each trade or business shall be determined by reference to its proportionate share of the expense of the qualified wages giving rise to the credit and shall be allocated in that manner.

(C) Principles that apply in the case of controlled groups of corporations, as specified in subdivision (d) of Section 23622.7, shall apply with respect to determining employment.

(2) If a qualified taxpayer acquires the major portion of a trade or business of another employer (hereinafter in this paragraph referred to as the "predecessor") or the major portion of a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor, then, for purposes of applying this section (other than subdivision (d)) for any calendar year ending after that acquisition, the employment relationship between a qualified disadvantaged individual and a qualified taxpayer shall not be treated as terminated if the qualified disadvantaged individual continues to be employed in that trade or business.

(d) (1) If the employment of any qualified disadvantaged individual, with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (b) is terminated by the qualified taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment (whether or not consecutive) or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that qualified disadvantaged individual completes 90 days of employment with the qualified taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the taxable year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that taxable year and all prior taxable years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that qualified disadvantaged individual.

(2) (A) Paragraph (1) does not apply to any of the following:

(i) A termination of employment of a qualified disadvantaged individual who voluntarily leaves the employment of the qualified taxpayer.

(ii) A termination of employment of a qualified disadvantaged individual who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the qualified taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that individual.

(iii) A termination of employment of a qualified disadvantaged individual, if it is determined under the applicable employment compensation laws that the termination was due to the misconduct of that individual.

(iv) A termination of employment of a qualified disadvantaged individual due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the qualified taxpayer.

(v) A termination of employment of a qualified disadvantaged individual, if that individual is replaced by other qualified disadvantaged individuals so as to create a net increase in both the number of employees and the hours of employment.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the qualified taxpayer and a qualified disadvantaged individual shall not be treated as terminated by reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the qualified taxpayer, if the qualified disadvantaged individual continues to be employed in that trade or business and the qualified taxpayer retains a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(e) In the case of an estate or trust, both of the following apply:

(1) The qualified wages for any taxable year shall be apportioned between the estate or trust and the beneficiaries on the basis of the income of the estate or trust allocable to each.

(2) Any beneficiary to whom any qualified wages have been apportioned under paragraph (1) shall be treated (for purposes of this part) as the employer with respect to those wages.

(f) The credit shall be reduced by the credit allowed under Section 17053.7. The credit shall also be reduced by the federal credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for the wages or salaries paid or incurred by the qualified taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit, prior to any reduction required by subdivision (g) or (h).

(g) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds the "net tax" for the taxable year, that portion of the credit that exceeds the "net tax" may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in succeeding years, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest taxable years possible.

(h) (1) The amount of credit otherwise allowed under this section, including prior year credit carryovers, that may reduce the "net tax" for the taxable year shall not exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the qualified taxpayer's business income attributed to a Manufacturing Enhancement Area determined as if that attributed income represented all of the net income of the qualified taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributed income described in paragraph (1) shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101) of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(A) Income shall be apportioned to a Manufacturing Enhancement Area by multiplying total business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) "The Manufacturing Enhancement Area" shall be substituted for "this state."

(3) The portion of any credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding taxable years, as if it were an amount exceeding the "net tax" for the taxable year, as provided in subdivision (g).

(i) If the qualified taxpayer is allowed a credit pursuant to this section for qualified wages paid or incurred, only one credit shall be allowed under this part with respect to any wage consisting in whole or in part of those qualified wages.

SEC. 3. Section 17053.70 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 953 of the Statutes of 1996, is repealed.

SEC. 4. Section 17053.70 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 955 of the Statutes of 1996, is amended to read:

17053.70. (a) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039) for the taxable year an amount equal to the sales or use tax paid or incurred during the taxable year by the taxpayer in connection with the taxpayer's purchase of qualified property.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Taxpayer" means a person or entity engaged in a trade or business within an enterprise zone.

(2) "Qualified property" means:

(A) Any of the following:

(i) Machinery and machinery parts used for fabricating, processing, assembling, and manufacturing.

(ii) Machinery and machinery parts used for the production of renewable energy resources.

(iii) Machinery and machinery parts used for either of the following:

(I) Air pollution control mechanisms.

(II) Water pollution control mechanisms.

(B) The total cost of qualified property purchased and placed in service in any taxable year that may be taken into account by any taxpayer for purposes of claiming this credit shall not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000).

(C) The qualified property is used by the taxpayer exclusively in an enterprise zone.

(D) The qualified property is purchased and placed in service before the date the enterprise zone designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(3) "Enterprise zone" means the area designated as an enterprise zone pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(c) If the taxpayer has purchased property upon which a use tax has been paid or incurred, the credit provided by this section shall be allowed only if qualified property of a comparable quality and price is not timely available for purchase in this state.

(d) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds the "net tax" for the taxable year, that portion of the credit that exceeds the "net tax" may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in succeeding taxable years, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest taxable years possible.

(e) Any taxpayer who elects to be subject to this section shall not be entitled to increase the basis of the qualified property as otherwise required by Section 164(a) of the Internal Revenue Code with respect to sales or use tax paid or incurred in connection with the taxpayer's purchase of qualified property.

(f) (1) The amount of the credit otherwise allowed under this section and Section 17053.74, including any credit carryover from prior years, that may reduce the "net tax" for the taxable year shall not exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the taxpayer's business income attributable to the enterprise zone determined as if that attributable income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributable income described in paragraph (1) shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101) of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section by substituting "the enterprise zone" for "this state."

(3) The portion of any credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding taxable years, as if it were an amount exceeding the "net tax" for the taxable year, as provided in subdivision (d).

SEC. 5. Section 17053.74 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17053.74. (a) There shall be allowed a credit against the "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039) to a taxpayer who employs a qualified employee in an enterprise zone during the taxable year. The credit shall be equal to the sum of each of the following:

(1) Fifty percent of qualified wages in the first year of employment.

(2) Forty percent of qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent of qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent of qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(5) Ten percent of qualified wages in the fifth year of employment.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified wages" means:

(A) That portion of wages paid or incurred by the taxpayer during the taxable year to qualified employees that does not exceed 150 percent of the minimum wage.

(B) Wages received during the 60-month period beginning with the day the employee commences employment with the taxpayer.

(C) Qualified wages do not include any wages paid or incurred by the taxpayer on or after the zone expiration date. However, wages paid or incurred with respect to qualified employees who are employed by the taxpayer within the enterprise zone within the 60-month period prior to the zone expiration date shall continue to qualify for the credit under this section after the zone expiration date, in accordance with all provisions of this section applied as if the enterprise zone designation were still in existence and binding.

(2) "Minimum wage" means the wage established by the Industrial Welfare Commission as provided for in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1171) of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

(3) "Zone expiration date" means the date the enterprise zone designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(4) (A) "Qualified employee" means an individual who meets all of the following requirements:

(i) At least 90 percent of whose services for the taxpayer during the taxable year are directly related to the conduct of the taxpayer's trade or business located in an enterprise zone.

(ii) Performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the taxpayer during the taxable year in an enterprise zone.

(iii) Is hired by the taxpayer after the date of original designation of the area in which services were performed as an enterprise zone.

(iv) Is any of the following:

(I) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a person eligible for services under the federal Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 1501 et seq.), or its successor, who is receiving, or is eligible to receive, subsidized employment, training, or services funded by the federal Job Training Partnership Act, or its successor.

(II) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a person eligible to be a voluntary or mandatory registrant under the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 (GAIN) provided for pursuant to Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or its successor.

(III) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was an economically disadvantaged individual 14 years of age or older.

(IV) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a dislocated worker who meets any of the following:

Has been terminated or laid off or who has received a notice of termination or layoff from employment, is eligible for or has exhausted entitlement to unemployment insurance benefits, and is unlikely to return to his or her previous industry or occupation.

Has been terminated or has received a notice of termination of employment as a result of any permanent closure or any substantial layoff at a plant, facility, or enterprise, including an individual who has not received written notification but whose employer has made a public announcement of the closure or layoff.

Is long-term unemployed and has limited opportunities for employment or reemployment in the same or a similar occupation in the area in which the individual resides, including an individual 55 years of age or older who may have substantial barriers to employment by reason of age.

Was self-employed (including farmers and ranchers) and is unemployed as a result of general economic conditions in the community in which he or she resides or because of natural disasters.

Was a civilian employee of the Department of Defense employed at a military installation being closed or realigned under the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Act of 1990.

Was an active member of the armed forces or National Guard as of September 30, 1990, and was either involuntarily separated or separated pursuant to a special benefits program.

Is a seasonal or migrant worker who experiences chronic seasonal unemployment and underemployment in the agriculture industry, aggravated by continual advancements in technology and mechanization.

Has been terminated or laid off, or has received a notice of termination or layoff, as a consequence of compliance with the Clean Air Act.

(V) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a disabled individual who is eligible for or enrolled in, or has completed a state rehabilitation plan or is a service-connected disabled veteran, veteran of the Vietnam era, or veteran who is recently separated from military service.

(VI) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was an ex-offender. An individual shall be treated as convicted if he or she was placed on probation by a state court without a finding of guilty.

(VII) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a person eligible for or a recipient of any of the following:

Federal Supplemental Security Income benefits.

Aid to Families with Dependent Children.

Food stamps.

State and local general assistance.

(VIII) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a member of a federally recognized Indian tribe, band, or other group of Native American descent.

(IX) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a resident of a targeted employment area, as defined in Section 7072 of the Government Code.

(X) An employee who qualified the taxpayer for the enterprise zone hiring credit under former Section 17053.8 or the program area hiring credit under former Section 17053.11.

(B) Priority for employment shall be provided to an individual who is enrolled in a qualified program under the federal Job Training Partnership Act or the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 or who is eligible under the federal Targeted Jobs Tax Credit Program.

(5) "Taxpayer" means a person or entity engaged in a trade or business within an enterprise zone designated pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of the Government Code.

(c) The taxpayer shall do both of the following:

(1) Obtain from either the Employment Development Department, as permitted by federal law, or the local county or city Job Training Partnership Act administrative entity or the local county GAIN office or social services agency, as appropriate, a certification which provides that a qualified employee meets the eligibility requirements specified in clause (iv) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (b). The Employment Development Department may provide preliminary screening and referral to a certifying agency. The Employment Development Department shall develop a form for this purpose.

(2) Retain a copy of the certification and provide it upon request to the Franchise Tax Board.

(d) (1) For purposes of this section:

(A) All employees of trades or businesses, which are not incorporated, that are under common control shall be treated as employed by a single taxpayer.

(B) The credit, if any, allowable by this section with respect to each trade or business shall be determined by reference to its proportionate share of the expense of the qualified wages giving rise to the credit, and shall be allocated in that manner.

(C) Principles that apply in the case of controlled groups of corporations, as specified in subdivision (d) of Section 23622.7, shall apply with respect to determining employment.

(2) If an employer acquires the major portion of a trade or business of another employer (hereinafter in this paragraph referred to as the "predecessor") or the major portion of a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor, then, for purposes of applying this section (other than subdivision (e)) for any calendar year ending after that acquisition, the employment relationship between a qualified employee and an employer shall not be treated as terminated if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business.

(e) (1) If the employment of any qualified employee, with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (a) is terminated by the taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment (whether or not consecutive) or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that employee completes 90 days of employment with the taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the taxable year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that taxable year and all prior taxable years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that employee.

(2) (A) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any of the following:

(i) A termination of employment of a qualified employee who voluntarily leaves the employment of the taxpayer.

(ii) A termination of employment of a qualified employee who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled and unable to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that employee.

(iii) A termination of employment of a qualified employee, if it is determined under the applicable employment compensation provisions that the termination was due to the misconduct of that employee.

(iv) A termination of employment of a qualified employee due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the taxpayer.

(v) A termination of employment of a qualified employee, if that employee is replaced by other qualified employees so as to create a net increase in both the number of employees and the hours of employment.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the taxpayer and a qualified employee shall not be treated as terminated by reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the taxpayer, if the qualified employee continues to be employed in that trade or business and the taxpayer retains a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(f) In the case of an estate or trust, both of the following apply:

(1) The qualified wages for any taxable year shall be apportioned between the estate or trust and the beneficiaries on the basis of the income of the estate or trust allocable to each.

(2) Any beneficiary to whom any qualified wages have been apportioned under paragraph (1) shall be treated, for purposes of this part, as the employer with respect to those wages.

(g) For purposes of this section, "enterprise zone" means an area designated as an enterprise zone pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(h) The credit allowable under this section shall be reduced by the credit allowed under Sections 17053.10, 17053.17 and 17053.46 claimed for the same employee. The credit shall also be reduced by the federal credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for the wages or salaries paid or incurred by the taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit, prior to any reduction required by subdivision (i) or (j).

(i) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds the "net tax" for the taxable year, that portion of the credit that exceeds the "net tax" may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in succeeding taxable years, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest taxable years possible.

(j) (1) The amount of the credit otherwise allowed under this section and Section 17053.70, including any credit carryover from prior years, that may reduce the "net tax" for the taxable year shall not exceed the amount of tax which would be imposed on the taxpayer's business income attributable to the enterprise zone determined as if that attributable income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributable income described in paragraph (1) shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101) of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section by substituting "the enterprise zone" for "this state."

(3) The portion of any credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding taxable years, as if it were an amount exceeding the "net tax" for the taxable year, as provided in subdivision (i).

SEC. 5.5. Section 17053.74 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17053.74. (a) There shall be allowed a credit against the "net tax" (as defined in Section 17039) to a taxpayer who employs a qualified employee in an enterprise zone during the taxable year. The credit shall be equal to the sum of each of the following:

(1) Fifty percent of qualified wages in the first year of employment.

(2) Forty percent of qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent of qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent of qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(5) Ten percent of qualified wages in the fifth year of employment.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified wages" means:

(A) (i) Except as provided in clause (ii), that portion of wages paid or incurred by the taxpayer during the taxable year to qualified employees that does not exceed 150 percent of the minimum wage.

(ii) For up to 1,350 qualified employees who are employed by the taxpayer in the Long Beach Enterprise Zone in aircraft manufacturing activities described in Codes 3721 to 3728, inclusive, and Code 3812 of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition, "qualified wages" means that portion of hourly wages that does not exceed 202 percent of the minimum wage.

(B) Wages received during the 60-month period beginning with the day the employee commences employment with the taxpayer.

(C) Qualified wages do not include any wages paid or incurred by the taxpayer on or after the zone expiration date. However, wages paid or incurred with respect to qualified employees who are employed by the taxpayer within the enterprise zone within the 60-month period prior to the zone expiration date shall continue to qualify for the credit under this section after the zone expiration date, in accordance with all provisions of this section applied as if the enterprise zone designation were still in existence and binding.

(2) "Minimum wage" means the wage established by the Industrial Welfare Commission as provided for in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1171) of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

(3) "Zone expiration date" means the date the enterprise zone designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(4) (A) "Qualified employee" means an individual who meets all of the following requirements:

(i) At least 90 percent of whose services for the taxpayer during the taxable year are directly related to the conduct of the taxpayer's trade or business located in an enterprise zone.

(ii) Performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the taxpayer during the taxable year in an enterprise zone.

(iii) Is hired by the taxpayer after the date of original designation of the area in which services were performed as an enterprise zone.

(iv) Is any of the following:

(I) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a person eligible for services under the federal Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 1501 et seq.), or its successor, who is receiving, or is eligible to receive, subsidized employment, training, or services funded by the federal Job Training Partnership Act, or its successor.

(II) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a person eligible to be a voluntary or mandatory registrant under the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 (GAIN) provided for pursuant to Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or its successor.

(III) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was an economically disadvantaged individual 14 years of age or older.

(IV) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a dislocated worker who meets any of the following:

Has been terminated or laid off or who has received a notice of termination or layoff from employment, is eligible for or has exhausted entitlement to unemployment insurance benefits, and is unlikely to return to his or her previous industry or occupation.

Has been terminated or has received a notice of termination of employment as a result of any permanent closure or any substantial layoff at a plant, facility, or enterprise, including an individual who has not received written notification but whose employer has made a public announcement of the closure or layoff.

Is long-term unemployed and has limited opportunities for employment or reemployment in the same or a similar occupation in the area in which the individual resides, including an individual 55 years of age or older who may have substantial barriers to employment by reason of age.

Was self-employed (including farmers and ranchers) and is unemployed as a result of general economic conditions in the community in which he or she resides or because of natural disasters.

Was a civilian employee of the Department of Defense employed at a military installation being closed or realigned under the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Act of 1990.

Was an active member of the armed forces or National Guard as of September 30, 1990, and was either involuntarily separated or separated pursuant to a special benefits program.

Is a seasonal or migrant worker who experiences chronic seasonal unemployment and underemployment in the agriculture industry, aggravated by continual advancements in technology and mechanization.

Has been terminated or laid off, or has received a notice of termination or layoff, as a consequence of compliance with the Clean Air Act.

(V) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a disabled individual who is eligible for or enrolled in, or has completed a state rehabilitation plan or is a service-connected disabled veteran, veteran of the Vietnam era, or veteran who is recently separated from military service.

(VI) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was an ex-offender. An individual shall be treated as convicted if he or she was placed on probation by a state court without a finding of guilt.

(VII) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a person eligible for or a recipient of any of the following:

Federal Supplemental Security Income benefits.

Aid to Families with Dependent Children.

Food stamps.

State and local general assistance.

(VIII) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a member of a federally recognized Indian tribe, band, or other group of Native American descent.

(IX) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a resident of a targeted employment area, as defined in Section 7072 of the Government Code.

(X) An employee who qualified the taxpayer for the enterprise zone hiring credit under former Section 17053.8 or the program area hiring credit under former Section 17053.11.

(XI) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a member of a targeted group, as defined in Section 51(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, or its successor.

(B) Priority for employment shall be provided to an individual who is enrolled in a qualified program under the federal Job Training Partnership Act or the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 or who is eligible as a member of a targeted group under the Work Opportunity Tax Credit (Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code), or its successor.

(5) "Taxpayer" means a person or entity engaged in a trade or business within an enterprise zone designated pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of the Government Code.

(c) The taxpayer shall do both of the following:

(1) Obtain from either the Employment Development Department, as permitted by federal law, or the local county or city Job Training Partnership Act administrative entity or the local county GAIN office or social services agency, as appropriate, a certification which provides that a qualified employee meets the eligibility requirements specified in clause (iv) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (b). The Employment Development Department may provide preliminary screening and referral to a certifying agency. The Employment Development Department shall develop a form for this purpose.

(2) Retain a copy of the certification and provide it upon request to the Franchise Tax Board.

(d) (1) For purposes of this section:

(A) All employees of trades or businesses, which are not incorporated, that are under common control shall be treated as employed by a single taxpayer.

(B) The credit, if any, allowable by this section with respect to each trade or business shall be determined by reference to its proportionate share of the expense of the qualified wages giving rise to the credit, and shall be allocated in such manner.

(C) Principles that apply in the case of controlled groups of corporations, as specified in subdivision (d) of Section 23622.7, shall apply with respect to determining employment.

(2) If an employer acquires the major portion of a trade or business of another employer (hereinafter in this paragraph referred to as the "predecessor") or the major portion of a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor, then, for purposes of applying this section (other than subdivision (e)) for any calendar year ending after that acquisition, the employment relationship between a qualified employee and an employer shall not be treated as terminated if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business.

(e) (1) If the employment of any qualified employee, with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (a) is terminated by the taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment (whether or not consecutive) or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that employee completes 90 days of employment with the taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the taxable year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that taxable year and all prior taxable years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that employee.

(2) (A) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any of the following:

(i) A termination of employment of a qualified employee who voluntarily leaves the employment of the taxpayer.

(ii) A termination of employment of a qualified employee who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled and unable to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that employee.

(iii) A termination of employment of a qualified employee, if it is determined under the applicable employment compensation provisions that the termination was due to the misconduct of that employee.

(iv) A termination of employment of a qualified employee due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the taxpayer.

(v) A termination of employment of a qualified employee, if that employee is replaced by other qualified employees so as to create a net increase in both the number of employees and the hours of employment.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the taxpayer and a qualified employee shall not be treated as terminated by reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the taxpayer, if the qualified employee continues to be employed in that trade or business and the taxpayer retains a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(f) In the case of an estate or trust, both of the following apply:

(1) The qualified wages for any taxable year shall be apportioned between the estate or trust and the beneficiaries on the basis of the income of the estate or trust allocable to each.

(2) Any beneficiary to whom any qualified wages have been apportioned under paragraph (1) shall be treated, for purposes of this part, as the employer with respect to those wages.

(g) For purposes of this section, "enterprise zone" means an area designated as an enterprise zone pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(h) The credit allowable under this section shall be reduced by the credit allowed under Sections 17053.10, 17053.17 and 17053.46 claimed for the same employee. The credit shall also be reduced by the federal credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for the wages or salaries paid or incurred by the taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit, prior to any reduction required by subdivision (i) or (j).

(i) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds the "net tax" for the taxable year, that portion of the credit that exceeds the "net tax" may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in succeeding taxable years, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest taxable years possible.

(j) (1) The amount of the credit otherwise allowed under this section and Section 17053.70, including any credit carryover from prior years, that may reduce the "net tax" for the taxable year shall not exceed the amount of tax which would be imposed on the taxpayer's business income attributable to the enterprise zone determined as if that attributable income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributable income described in paragraph (1) shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter

17 (commencing with Section 25101) of Part 11, modified for purposes of this section by substituting "the enterprise zone" for "this state."

(3) The portion of any credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding taxable years, as if it were an amount exceeding the "net tax" for the taxable year, as provided in subdivision (i).

(k) The changes made to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 6. Section 17053.75 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 953 of the Statutes of 1996, is repealed.

SEC. 7. Section 17053.75 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 955 of the Statutes of 1996, is amended to read:

17053.75. (a) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined by Section 17039) for the taxable year an amount equal to five percent of the qualified wages received by the taxpayer during the taxable year.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified employee" means a taxpayer who meets both of the following:

(A) Is described in clause (iv) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of Section 17053.74.

(B) Is not an employee of the federal government or of this state or of any political subdivision of this state.

(2) (A) "Qualified wages" means "wages," as defined in subsection (b) of Section 3306 of the Internal Revenue Code, attributable to services performed for an employer with respect to whom the taxpayer is a qualified employee in an amount that does not exceed one and one-half times the dollar limitation specified in that subsection.

(B) "Qualified wages" does not include any compensation received from the federal government or this state or any political subdivision of this state.

(C) "Qualified wages" does not include any wages received on or after the date the enterprise zone designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(3) "Enterprise zone" means any area designated as an enterprise zone pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(c) For each dollar of income received by the taxpayer in excess of qualified wages, as defined in this section, the credit shall be reduced by nine cents ($0.09).

(d) The amount of the credit allowed by this section in any taxable year shall not exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the taxpayer's income attributable to employment within the enterprise zone as if that income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

SEC. 7.5. Section 17053.75 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17053.75. (a) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined by Section 17039) for the taxable year an amount equal to five percent of the qualified wages received by the taxpayer during the taxable year.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified employee" means a taxpayer who meets both of the following:

(A) Is described in clauses (i) and (ii) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of Section 17053.74.

(B) Is not an employee of the federal government or of this state or of any political subdivision of this state.

(2) (A) "Qualified wages" means "wages," as defined in subsection (b) of Section 3306 of the Internal Revenue Code, attributable to services performed for an employer with respect to whom the taxpayer is a qualified employee in an amount that does not exceed one and one-half times the dollar limitation specified in that subsection.

(B) "Qualified wages" does not include any compensation received from the federal government or this state or any political subdivision of this state.

(C) "Qualified wages" does not include any wages received on or after the date the enterprise zone designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(3) "Enterprise zone" means any area designated as an enterprise zone pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(c) For each dollar of income received by the taxpayer in excess of qualified wages, as defined in this section, the credit shall be reduced by nine cents ($0.09).

(d) The amount of the credit allowed by this section in any taxable year shall not exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the taxpayer's income attributable to employment within the enterprise zone as if that income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

SEC. 8. Section 17235 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 953 of the Statutes of 1996, is repealed.

SEC. 9. Section 17235 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 955 of the Statutes of 1996, is amended to read:

17235. (a) There shall be allowed as a deduction the amount of net interest received by the taxpayer in payment on indebtedness of a person or entity engaged in the conduct of a trade or business located in an enterprise zone.

(b) No deduction shall be allowed under this section unless at the time the indebtedness is incurred each of the following requirements are met:

(1) The trade or business is located solely within an enterprise zone.

(2) The indebtedness is incurred solely in connection with activity within the enterprise zone.

(3) The taxpayer has no equity or other ownership interest in the debtor.

(c) "Enterprise zone" means an area designated as an enterprise zone pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

SEC. 10. Section 23612.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 953 of the Statutes of 1996, is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 23612.2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 955 of the Statutes of 1996, is amended to read:

23612.2. (a) There shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 23036) for the income year an amount equal to the sales or use tax paid or incurred during the income year by the taxpayer in connection with the taxpayer's purchase of qualified property.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Taxpayer" means either a bank or corporation engaged in a trade or business within an enterprise zone.

(2) "Qualified property" means:

(A) Any of the following:

(i) Machinery and machinery parts used for fabricating, processing, assembling, and manufacturing.

(ii) Machinery and machinery parts used for the production of renewable energy resources.

(iii) Machinery and machinery parts used for either of the following:

(I) Air pollution control mechanisms.

(II) Water pollution control mechanisms.

(B) The total cost of qualified property purchased and placed in service in any income year that may be taken into account by any taxpayer for purposes of claiming this credit shall not exceed twenty million dollars ($20,000,000).

(C) The qualified property is used by the taxpayer exclusively in an enterprise zone.

(D) The qualified property is purchased and placed in service before the date the enterprise zone designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(3) "Enterprise zone" means the area designated as an enterprise zone pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(c) If the taxpayer has purchased property upon which a use tax has been paid or incurred, the credit provided by this section shall be allowed only if qualified property of a comparable quality and price is not timely available for purchase in this state.

(d) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds the "tax" for the income year, that portion of the credit which exceeds the "tax" may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest income years possible.

(e) Any taxpayer who elects to be subject to this section shall not be entitled to increase the basis of the qualified property as otherwise required by Section 164(a) of the Internal Revenue Code with respect to sales or use tax paid or incurred in connection with the taxpayer's purchase of qualified property.

(f) (1) The amount of credit otherwise allowed under this section and Section 23622.7, including any credit carryover from prior years, that may reduce the "tax" for the income year shall not exceed the amount of tax which would be imposed on the taxpayer's business income attributable to the enterprise zone determined as if that attributable income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributable income described in paragraph (1) shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified for purposes of this section by substituting "the enterprise zone" for "this state."

(3) The portion of any credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding income years, as if it were an amount exceeding the "tax" for the income year, as provided in subdivision (d).

SEC. 12. Section 23622.7 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23622.7. (a) There shall be allowed a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 23036) to a taxpayer who employs a qualified employee in an enterprise zone during the income year. The credit shall be equal to the sum of each of the following:

(1) Fifty percent of qualified wages in the first year of employment.

(2) Forty percent of qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent of qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent of qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(5) Ten percent of qualified wages in the fifth year of employment.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified wages" means:

(A) That portion of wages paid or incurred by the taxpayer during the income year to qualified employees that does not exceed 150 percent of the minimum wage.

(B) Wages received during the 60-month period beginning with the day the employee commences employment with the taxpayer.

(C) Qualified wages do not include any wages paid or incurred by the taxpayer on or after the zone expiration date. However, wages paid or incurred with respect to qualified employees who are employed by the taxpayer within the enterprise zone within the 60-month period prior to the zone expiration date shall continue to qualify for the credit under this section after the zone expiration date, in accordance with all provisions of this section applied as if the enterprise zone designation were still in existence and binding.

(2) "Minimum wage" means the wage established by the Industrial Welfare Commission as provided for in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1171) of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

(3) "Zone expiration date" means the date the enterprise zone designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(4) (A) "Qualified employee" means an individual who meets all of the following requirements:

(i) At least 90 percent of whose services for the taxpayer during the income year are directly related to the conduct of the taxpayer's trade or business located in an enterprise zone.

(ii) Performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the taxpayer during the income year in an enterprise zone.

(iii) Is hired by the taxpayer after the date of original designation of the area in which services were performed as an enterprise zone.

(iv) Is any of the following:

(I) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a person eligible for services under the federal Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 1501 et seq.), or its successor, who is receiving, or is eligible to receive, subsidized employment, training, or services funded by the federal Job Training Partnership Act, or its successor.

(II) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a person eligible to be a voluntary or mandatory registrant under the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 (GAIN) provided for pursuant to Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or its successor.

(III) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was an economically disadvantaged individual 14 years of age or older.

(IV) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a dislocated worker who meets any of the following:

Has been terminated or laid off or who has received a notice of termination or layoff from employment, is eligible for or has exhausted entitlement to unemployment insurance benefits, and is unlikely to return to his or her previous industry or occupation.

Has been terminated or has received a notice of termination of employment as a result of any permanent closure or any substantial layoff at a plant, facility, or enterprise, including an individual who has not received written notification but whose employer has made a public announcement of the closure or layoff.

Is long-term unemployed and has limited opportunities for employment or reemployment in the same or a similar occupation in the area in which the individual resides, including an individual 55 years of age or older who may have substantial barriers to employment by reason of age.

Was self-employed (including farmers and ranchers) and is unemployed as a result of general economic conditions in the community in which he or she resides or because of natural disasters.

Was a civilian employee of the Department of Defense employed at a military installation being closed or realigned under the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Act of 1990.

Was an active member of the armed forces or National Guard as of September 30, 1990, and was either involuntarily separated or separated pursuant to a special benefits program.

Is a seasonal or migrant worker who experiences chronic seasonal unemployment and underemployment in the agriculture industry, aggravated by continual advancements in technology and mechanization.

Has been terminated or laid off, or has received a notice of termination or layoff, as a consequence of compliance with the Clean Air Act.

(V) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a disabled individual who is eligible for or enrolled in, or has completed a state rehabilitation plan or is a service-connected disabled veteran, veteran of the Vietnam era, or veteran who is recently separated from military service.

(VI) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was an ex-offender. An individual shall be treated as convicted if he or she was placed on probation by a state court without a finding of guilty.

(VII) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a person eligible for or a recipient of any of the following:

Federal Supplemental Security Income benefits.

Aid to Families with Dependent Children.

Food stamps.

State and local general assistance.

(VIII) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a member of a federally recognized Indian tribe, band, or other group of Native American descent.

(IX) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a resident of a targeted employment area (as defined in Section 7072 of the Government Code).

(X) An employee who qualified the taxpayer for the enterprise zone hiring credit under former Section 23622 or the program area hiring credit under former Section 23623.

(B) Priority for employment shall be provided to an individual who is enrolled in a qualified program under the federal Job Training Partnership Act or the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 or who is eligible under the federal Targeted Jobs Tax Credit Program.

(5) "Taxpayer" means a bank or corporation engaged in a trade or business within an enterprise zone designated pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(c) The taxpayer shall do both of the following:

(1) Obtain from either the Employment Development Department, as permitted by federal law, or the local county or city Job Training Partnership Act administrative entity or the local county GAIN office or social services agency, as appropriate, a certification that provides that a qualified employee meets the eligibility requirements specified in clause (iv) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (b). The Employment Development Department may provide preliminary screening and referral to a certifying agency. The Employment Development Department shall develop a form for this purpose.

(2) Retain a copy of the certification and provide it upon request to the Franchise Tax Board.

(d) (1) For purposes of this section:

(A) All employees of all corporations which are members of the same controlled group of corporations shall be treated as employed by a single taxpayer.

(B) The credit, if any, allowable by this section to each member shall be determined by reference to its proportionate share of the expense of the qualified wages giving rise to the credit, and shall be allocated in that manner.

(C) For purposes of this subdivision, "controlled group of corporations" means "controlled group of corporations" as defined in Section 1563(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that:

(i) "More than 50 percent" shall be substituted for "at least 80 percent" each place it appears in Section 1563(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) The determination shall be made without regard to subsections (a)(4) and (e)(3)(C) of Section 1563 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) If an employer acquires the major portion of a trade or business of another employer (hereinafter in this paragraph referred to as the "predecessor") or the major portion of a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor, then, for purposes of applying this section (other than subdivision (e)) for any calendar year ending after that acquisition, the employment relationship between a qualified employee and an employer shall not be treated as terminated if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business.

(e) (1) If the employment of any qualified employee with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (a) is terminated by the taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment, whether or not consecutive, or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that employee completes 90 days of employment with the taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the income year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that income year and all prior income years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that employee.

(2) (A) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any of the following:

(i) A termination of employment of a qualified employee who voluntarily leaves the employment of the taxpayer.

(ii) A termination of employment of a qualified employee who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled and unable to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that employee.

(iii) A termination of employment of a qualified employee, if it is determined under the applicable unemployment compensation provisions that the termination was due to the misconduct of that employee.

(iv) A termination of employment of a qualified employee due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the taxpayer.

(v) A termination of employment of a qualified employee, if that employee is replaced by other qualified employees so as to create a net increase in both the number of employees and the hours of employment.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the taxpayer and a qualified employee shall not be treated as terminated by either of the following:

(i) By a transaction to which Section 381(a) of the Internal Revenue Code applies, if the qualified employee continues to be employed by the acquiring corporation.

(ii) By reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the taxpayer, if the qualified employee continues to be employed in that trade or business and the taxpayer retains a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(f) Rules similar to the rules provided in Section 46(e) and (h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply to both of the following:

(1) An organization to which Section 593 of the Internal Revenue Code applies.

(2) A regulated investment company or a real estate investment trust subject to taxation under this part.

(g) For purposes of this section, "enterprise zone" means an area designated as an enterprise zone pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(h) The credit allowable under this section shall be reduced by the credit allowed under Sections 23623.5, 23625, and 23646 claimed for the same employee. The credit shall also be reduced by the federal credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for the wages or salaries paid or incurred by the taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit, prior to any reduction required by subdivision (i) or (j).

(i) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds the "tax" for the income year, that portion of the credit that exceeds the "tax" may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in succeeding income years, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest income years possible.

(j) (1) The amount of the credit otherwise allowed under this section and Section 23612.2, including any credit carryover from prior years, that may reduce the "tax" for the income year shall not exceed the amount of tax which would be imposed on the taxpayer's business income attributable to the enterprise zone determined as if that attributable income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributable income described in paragraph (1) shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified for purposes of this section by substituting "the enterprise zone" for "this state."

(3) The portion of any credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding income years, as if it were an amount exceeding the "tax" for the income year, as provided in subdivision (i).

SEC. 12.5. Section 23622.7 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23622.7. (a) There shall be allowed a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 23036) to a taxpayer who employs a qualified employee in an enterprise zone during the income year. The credit shall be equal to the sum of each of the following:

(1) Fifty percent of qualified wages in the first year of employment.

(2) Forty percent of qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent of qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent of qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(5) Ten percent of qualified wages in the fifth year of employment.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified wages" means:

(A) (i) Except as provided in clause (ii), that portion of wages paid or incurred by the taxpayer during the income year to qualified employees that does not exceed 150 percent of the minimum wage.

(ii) For up to 1,350 qualified employees who are employed by the taxpayer in the Long Beach Enterprise Zone in aircraft manufacturing activities described in Codes 3721 to 3728, inclusive, and Code 3812 of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition, "qualified wages" means that portion of hourly wages that does not exceed 202 percent of the minimum wage.

(B) Wages received during the 60-month period beginning with the day the employee commences employment with the taxpayer.

(C) Qualified wages do not include any wages paid or incurred by the taxpayer on or after the zone expiration date. However, wages paid or incurred with respect to qualified employees who are employed by the taxpayer within the enterprise zone within the 60-month period prior to the zone expiration date shall continue to qualify for the credit under this section after the zone expiration date, in accordance with all provisions of this section applied as if the enterprise zone designation were still in existence and binding.

(2) "Minimum wage" means the wage established by the Industrial Welfare Commission as provided for in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1171) of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

(3) "Zone expiration date" means the date the enterprise zone designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(4) (A) "Qualified employee" means an individual who meets all of the following requirements:

(i) At least 90 percent of whose services for the taxpayer during the income year are directly related to the conduct of the taxpayer's trade or business located in an enterprise zone.

(ii) Performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the taxpayer during the income year in an enterprise zone.

(iii) Is hired by the taxpayer after the date of original designation of the area in which services were performed as an enterprise zone.

(iv) Is any of the following:

(I) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a person eligible for services under the federal Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 1501 et seq.), or its successor, who is receiving, or is eligible to receive, subsidized employment, training, or services funded by the federal Job Training Partnership Act, or its successor.

(II) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a person eligible to be a voluntary or mandatory registrant under the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 (GAIN) provided for pursuant to Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or its successor.

(III) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was an economically disadvantaged individual 14 years of age or older.

(IV) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a dislocated worker who meets any of the following:

Has been terminated or laid off or who has received a notice of termination or layoff from employment, is eligible for or has exhausted entitlement to unemployment insurance benefits, and is unlikely to return to his or her previous industry or occupation.

Has been terminated or has received a notice of termination of employment as a result of any permanent closure or any substantial layoff at a plant, facility, or enterprise, including an individual who has not received written notification but whose employer has made a public announcement of the closure or layoff.

Is long-term unemployed and has limited opportunities for employment or reemployment in the same or a similar occupation in the area in which the individual resides, including an individual 55 years of age or older who may have substantial barriers to employment by reason of age.

Was self-employed (including farmers and ranchers) and is unemployed as a result of general economic conditions in the community in which he or she resides or because of natural disasters.

Was a civilian employee of the Department of Defense employed at a military installation being closed or realigned under the Defense Base Closure and Realignment Act of 1990.

Was an active member of the armed forces or National Guard as of September 30, 1990, and was either involuntarily separated or separated pursuant to a special benefits program.

Is a seasonal or migrant worker who experiences chronic seasonal unemployment and underemployment in the agriculture industry, aggravated by continual advancements in technology and mechanization.

Has been terminated or laid off, or has received a notice of termination or layoff, as a consequence of compliance with the Clean Air Act.

(V) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a disabled individual who is eligible for or enrolled in, or has completed a state rehabilitation plan or is a service-connected disabled veteran, veteran of the Vietnam era, or veteran who is recently separated from military service.

(VI) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was an ex-offender. An individual shall be treated as convicted if he or she was placed on probation by a state court without a finding of guilt.

(VII) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a person eligible for or a recipient of any of the following:

Federal Supplemental Security Income benefits.

Aid to Families with Dependent Children.

Food stamps.

State and local general assistance.

(VIII) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a member of a federally recognized Indian tribe, band, or other group of Native American descent.

(IX) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a resident of a targeted employment area (as defined in Section 7072 of the Government Code).

(X) An employee who qualified the taxpayer for the enterprise zone hiring credit under former Section 23622 or the program area hiring credit under former Section 23623.

(XI) Immediately preceding the qualified employee's commencement of employment with the taxpayer, was a member of a targeted group, as defined in Section 51(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, or its successor.

(B) Priority for employment shall be provided to an individual who is enrolled in a qualified program under the federal Job Training Partnership Act or the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 or who is eligible as a member of a targeted group under the Work Opportunity Tax Credit (Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code), or its successor.

(5) "Taxpayer" means a bank or corporation engaged in a trade or business within an enterprise zone designated pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(c) The taxpayer shall do both of the following:

(1) Obtain from either the Employment Development Department, as permitted by federal law, or the local county or city Job Training Partnership Act administrative entity or the local county GAIN office or social services agency, as appropriate, a certification that provides that a qualified employee meets the eligibility requirements specified in clause (iv) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (b). The Employment Development Department may provide preliminary screening and referral to a certifying agency. The Employment Development Department shall develop a form for this purpose.

(2) Retain a copy of the certification and provide it upon request to the Franchise Tax Board.

(d) (1) For purposes of this section:

(A) All employees of all corporations which are members of the same controlled group of corporations shall be treated as employed by a single taxpayer.

(B) The credit, if any, allowable by this section to each member shall be determined by reference to its proportionate share of the expense of the qualified wages giving rise to the credit, and shall be allocated in that manner.

(C) For purposes of this subdivision, "controlled group of corporations" means "controlled group of corporations" as defined in Section 1563(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that:

(i) "More than 50 percent" shall be substituted for "at least 80 percent" each place it appears in Section 1563(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) The determination shall be made without regard to subsections (a)(4) and (e)(3)(C) of Section 1563 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) If an employer acquires the major portion of a trade or business of another employer (hereinafter in this paragraph referred to as the "predecessor") or the major portion of a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor, then, for purposes of applying this section (other than subdivision (e)) for any calendar year ending after that acquisition, the employment relationship between a qualified employee and an employer shall not be treated as terminated if the employee continues to be employed in that trade or business.

(e) (1) If the employment of any qualified employee with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (a) is terminated by the taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment, whether or not consecutive, or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that employee completes 90 days of employment with the taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the income year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that income year and all prior income years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that employee.

(2) (A) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any of the following:

(i) A termination of employment of a qualified employee who voluntarily leaves the employment of the taxpayer.

(ii) A termination of employment of a qualified employee who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled and unable to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that employee.

(iii) A termination of employment of a qualified employee, if it is determined under the applicable unemployment compensation provisions that the termination was due to the misconduct of that employee.

(iv) A termination of employment of a qualified employee due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the taxpayer.

(v) A termination of employment of a qualified employee, if that employee is replaced by other qualified employees so as to create a net increase in both the number of employees and the hours of employment.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the taxpayer and a qualified employee shall not be treated as terminated by either of the following:

(i) By a transaction to which Section 381(a) of the Internal Revenue Code applies, if the qualified employee continues to be employed by the acquiring corporation.

(ii) By reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the taxpayer, if the qualified employee continues to be employed in that trade or business and the taxpayer retains a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(f) Rules similar to the rules provided in Section 46(e) and (h) of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply to both of the following:

(1) An organization to which Section 593 of the Internal Revenue Code applies:

(2) A regulated investment company or a real estate investment trust subject to taxation under this part.

(g) For purposes of this section, "enterprise zone" means an area designated as an enterprise zone pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(h) The credit allowable under this section shall be reduced by the credit allowed under Sections 23623.5, 23625, and 23646 claimed for the same employee. The credit shall also be reduced by the federal credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for the wages or salaries paid or incurred by the taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit, prior to any reduction required by subdivision (i) or (j).

(i) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds the "tax" for the income year, that portion of the credit that exceeds the "tax" may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in succeeding income years, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest income years possible.

(j) (1) The amount of the credit otherwise allowed under this section and Section 23612.2, including any credit carryover from prior years, that may reduce the "tax" for the income year shall not exceed the amount of tax which would be imposed on the taxpayer's business income attributable to the enterprise zone determined as if that attributable income represented all of the income of the taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributable income described in paragraph (1) shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified for purposes of this section by substituting "the enterprise zone" for "this state."

(3) The portion of any credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding income years, as if it were an amount exceeding the "tax" for the income year, as provided in subdivision (i).

(k) The changes made to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall apply to income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 13. Section 23622.8 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

23622.8. (a) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1998, there shall be allowed a credit against the "tax" (as defined in Section 23036) to a qualified taxpayer for hiring a qualified disadvantaged individual during the income year for employment in the Manufacturing Enhancement Area. The credit shall be equal to the sum of each of the following:

(1) Fifty percent of the qualified wages in the first year of employment.

(2) Forty percent of the qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent of the qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent of the qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(5) Ten percent of the qualified wages in the fifth year of employment.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified wages" means:

(A) That portion of wages paid or incurred by the qualified taxpayer during the income year to qualified disadvantaged individuals that does not exceed 150 percent of the minimum wage.

(B) The total amount of qualified wages which may be taken into account for purposes of claiming the credit allowed under this section shall not exceed two million dollars ($2,000,000) per income year.

(C) Wages received during the 60-month period beginning with the day the qualified disadvantaged individual commences employment with the qualified taxpayer.

(D) Qualified wages do not include any wages paid or incurred by the qualified taxpayer on or after the Manufacturing Enhancement Area expiration date. However, wages paid or incurred with respect to qualified employees who are employed by the qualified taxpayer within the Manufacturing Enhancement Area within the 60-month period prior to the Manufacturing Enhancement Area expiration date shall continue to qualify for the credit under this section after the Manufacturing Enhancement Area expiration date, in accordance with all provisions of this section applied as if the Manufacturing Enhancement Area designation were still in existence and binding.

(2) "Minimum wage" means the wage established by the Industrial Welfare Commission as provided for in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1171) of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

(3) "Manufacturing Enhancement Area" means an area designated pursuant to Section 7073.8 of the Government Code according to the procedures of Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(4) "Manufacturing Enhancement Area expiration date" means the date the Manufacturing Enhancement Area designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(5) "Qualified disadvantaged individual" means an individual who satisfies all of the following requirements:

(A) (i) At least 90 percent of whose services for the qualified taxpayer during the income year are directly related to the conduct of the qualified taxpayer's trade or business located in a Manufacturing Enhancement Area.

(ii) Who performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the qualified taxpayer during the income year in the Manufacturing Enhancement Area.

(B) Who is hired by the qualified taxpayer after the designation of the area as a Manufacturing Enhancement Area in which the individual's services were primarily performed.

(C) Who is any of the following immediately preceding the individual's commencement of employment with the qualified taxpayer:

(i) An individual who has been determined eligible for services under the federal Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 1501 et seq.).

(ii) Any voluntary or mandatory registrant under the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 as provided pursuant to Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(iii) Any individual who has been certified eligible by the Employment Development Department under the federal Targeted Jobs Tax Credit Program, whether or not this program is in effect.

(6) "Qualified taxpayer" means any corporation engaged in a trade or business within a Manufacturing Enhancement Area designated pursuant to Section 7073.8 of the Government Code and that meets both of the following requirements:

(A) Is engaged in those lines of business described in Codes 2011 to 3999, inclusive, of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition.

(B) At least 30 percent of the corporation's work force hired after the designation of the Manufacturing Enhancement Area is composed of qualified disadvantaged individuals who, at the time of hire, are residents of the county in which the Manufacturing Enhancement Area is located.

(c) (1) For purposes of this section, all of the following apply:

(A) All employees of all corporations that are members of the same controlled group of corporations shall be treated as employed by a single qualified taxpayer.

(B) The credit (if any) allowable by this section with respect to each member shall be determined by reference to its proportionate share of the expenses of the qualified wages giving rise to the credit and shall be allocated in that manner.

(C) Principles that apply in the case of controlled groups of corporations, as specified in subdivision (d) of Section 23622.7, shall apply with respect to determining employment.

(2) If a qualified taxpayer acquires the major portion of a trade or business of another employer (hereinafter in this paragraph referred to as the "predecessor") or the major portion of a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor, then, for purposes of applying this section (other than subdivision (d)) for any calendar year ending after that acquisition, the employment relationship between a qualified disadvantaged individual and a qualified taxpayer shall not be treated as terminated if the qualified disadvantaged individual continues to be employed in that trade or business.

(d) (1) If the employment of any qualified disadvantaged individual, with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (b) is terminated by the qualified taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment (whether or not consecutive) or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that qualified disadvantaged individual completes 90 days of employment with the qualified taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the income year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that income year and all prior income years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that qualified disadvantaged individual.

(2) (A) Paragraph (1) does not apply to any of the following:

(i) A termination of employment of a qualified disadvantaged individual who voluntarily leaves the employment of the qualified taxpayer.

(ii) A termination of employment of a qualified disadvantaged individual who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the qualified taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that individual.

(iii) A termination of employment of a qualified disadvantaged individual, if it is determined under the applicable employment compensation laws that the termination was due to the misconduct of that individual.

(iv) A termination of employment of a qualified disadvantaged individual due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the qualified taxpayer.

(v) A termination of employment of a qualified disadvantaged individual, if that individual is replaced by other qualified disadvantaged individuals so as to create a net increase in both the number of employees and the hours of employment.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the qualified taxpayer and a qualified disadvantaged individual shall not be treated as terminated by either of the following:

(i) By a transaction to which Section 381(a) of the Internal Revenue code applies, if the qualified disadvantaged individual continues to be employed by the acquiring corporation.

(ii) By reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the qualified taxpayer, if the qualified disadvantaged individual continues to be employed in that trade or business and the qualified taxpayer retains a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(e) The credit shall be reduced by the credit allowed under Section 23621. The credit shall also be reduced by the federal credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for the wages or salaries paid or incurred by the qualified taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit, prior to any reduction required by subdivision (f) or (g).

(f) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds the "tax" for the income year, that portion of the credit that exceeds the "tax" may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in succeeding years, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest income years possible.

(g) (1) The amount of credit otherwise allowed under this section, including prior year credit carryovers, that may reduce the "tax" for the income year shall not exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the qualified taxpayer's business income attributed to a Manufacturing Enhancement Area determined as if that attributed income represented all of the net income of the qualified taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributed income described in paragraph (1) shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(A) Income shall be apportioned to a Manufacturing Enhancement Area by multiplying total business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) "The Manufacturing Enhancement Area" shall be substituted for "this state."

(3) The portion of any credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding income years, as if it were an amount exceeding the "tax" for the income year, as provided in subdivision (g).

(h) (1) In the case where "qualified wages" qualify for a credit under more than one section in this part, the qualified taxpayer shall make an election as to which section applies to those qualified wages.

(2) Any election made under this section, and any specification contained in that election, may not be revoked except with the consent of the Franchise Tax Board.

SEC. 13.5. Section 23622.8 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

23622.8. (a) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1998, there shall be allowed a credit against the "tax" (as defined in Section 23036) to a qualified taxpayer for hiring a qualified disadvantaged individual during the income year for employment in the Manufacturing Enhancement Area. The credit shall be equal to the sum of each of the following:

(1) Fifty percent of the qualified wages in the first year of employment.

(2) Forty percent of the qualified wages in the second year of employment.

(3) Thirty percent of the qualified wages in the third year of employment.

(4) Twenty percent of the qualified wages in the fourth year of employment.

(5) Ten percent of the qualified wages in the fifth year of employment.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified wages" means:

(A) That portion of wages paid or incurred by the qualified taxpayer during the income year to qualified disadvantaged individuals that does not exceed 150 percent of the minimum wage.

(B) The total amount of qualified wages that may be taken into account for purposes of claiming the credit allowed under this section shall not exceed two million dollars ($2,000,000) per income year.

(C) Wages received during the 60-month period beginning with the day the qualified disadvantaged individual commences employment with the qualified taxpayer.

(D) Qualified wages do not include any wages paid or incurred by the qualified taxpayer on or after the Manufacturing Enhancement Area expiration date. However, wages paid or incurred with respect to qualified employees who are employed by the qualified taxpayer within the Manufacturing Enhancement Area within the 60-month period prior to the Manufacturing Enhancement Area expiration date shall continue to qualify for the credit under this section after the Manufacturing Enhancement Area expiration date, in accordance with all provisions of this section applied as if the Manufacturing Enhancement Area designation were still in existence and binding.

(2) "Minimum wage" means the wage established by the Industrial Welfare Commission as provided for in Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1171) of Part 4 of Division 2 of the Labor Code.

(3) "Manufacturing Enhancement Area" means an area designated pursuant to Section 7073.8 of the Government Code according to the procedures of Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

(4) "Manufacturing Enhancement Area expiration date" means the date the Manufacturing Enhancement Area designation expires, is no longer binding, or becomes inoperative.

(5) "Qualified disadvantaged individual" means an individual who satisfies all of the following requirements:

(A) (i) At least 90 percent of whose services for the qualified taxpayer during the income year are directly related to the conduct of the qualified taxpayer's trade or business located in a Manufacturing Enhancement Area.

(ii) Who performs at least 50 percent of his or her services for the qualified taxpayer during the income year in the Manufacturing Enhancement Area.

(B) Who is hired by the qualified taxpayer after the designation of the area as a Manufacturing Enhancement Area in which the individual's services were primarily performed.

(C) Who is any of the following immediately preceding the individual's commencement of employment with the qualified taxpayer:

(i) An individual who has been determined eligible for services under the federal Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. Sec. 1501 et seq.).

(ii) Any voluntary or mandatory registrant under the Greater Avenues for Independence Act of 1985 as provided pursuant to Article 3.2 (commencing with Section 11320) of Chapter 2 of Part 3 of Division 9 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(iii) Any individual who has been certified eligible by the Employment Development Department under the federal Targeted Jobs Tax Credit Program, whether or not this program is in effect.

(6) "Qualified taxpayer" means any corporation engaged in a trade or business within a Manufacturing Enhancement Area designated pursuant to Section 7073.8 of the Government Code and that meets both of the following requirements:

(A) Is engaged in those lines of business described in Codes 2011 to 3999, inclusive, of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition.

(B) At least 30 percent of the corporation's work force hired after the designation of the Manufacturing Enhancement Area is composed of qualified disadvantaged individuals who, at the time of hire, are residents of the county in which the Manufacturing Enhancement Area is located.

(c) (1) For purposes of this section, all of the following apply:

(A) All employees of all corporations that are members of the same controlled group of corporations shall be treated as employed by a single qualified taxpayer.

(B) The credit (if any) allowable by this section with respect to each member shall be determined by reference to its proportionate share of the expenses of the qualified wages giving rise to the credit and shall be allocated in that manner.

(C) Principles that apply in the case of controlled groups of corporations, as specified in subdivision (d) of Section 23622.7, shall apply with respect to determining employment.

(2) If a qualified taxpayer acquires the major portion of a trade or business of another employer (hereinafter in this paragraph referred to as the "predecessor") or the major portion of a separate unit of a trade or business of a predecessor, then, for purposes of applying this section (other than subdivision (d)) for any calendar year ending after that acquisition, the employment relationship between a qualified disadvantaged individual and a qualified taxpayer shall not be treated as terminated if the qualified disadvantaged individual continues to be employed in that trade or business.

(d) (1) If the employment of any qualified disadvantaged individual, with respect to whom qualified wages are taken into account under subdivision (b) is terminated by the qualified taxpayer at any time during the first 270 days of that employment (whether or not consecutive) or before the close of the 270th calendar day after the day in which that qualified disadvantaged individual completes 90 days of employment with the taxpayer, the tax imposed by this part for the income year in which that employment is terminated shall be increased by an amount equal to the credit allowed under subdivision (a) for that income year and all prior income years attributable to qualified wages paid or incurred with respect to that qualified disadvantaged individual.

(2) (A) Paragraph (1) does not apply to any of the following:

(i) A termination of employment of a qualified disadvantaged individual who voluntarily leaves the employment of the qualified taxpayer.

(ii) A termination of employment of a qualified disadvantaged individual who, before the close of the period referred to in paragraph (1), becomes disabled to perform the services of that employment, unless that disability is removed before the close of that period and the qualified taxpayer fails to offer reemployment to that individual.

(iii) A termination of employment of a qualified disadvantaged individual, if it is determined under the applicable employment compensation laws that the termination was due to the misconduct of that individual.

(iv) A termination of employment of a qualified disadvantaged individual due to a substantial reduction in the trade or business operations of the qualified taxpayer.

(v) A termination of employment of a qualified disadvantaged individual, if that individual is replaced by other qualified disadvantaged individuals so as to create a net increase in both the number of employees and the hours of employment.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (1), the employment relationship between the taxpayer and a qualified disadvantaged individual shall not be treated as terminated by either of the following:

(i) By a transaction to which Section 381(a) of the Internal Revenue code applies, if the qualified disadvantaged individual continues to be employed by the acquiring corporation.

(ii) By reason of a mere change in the form of conducting the trade or business of the qualified taxpayer, if the qualified disadvantaged individual continues to be employed in that trade or business and the qualified taxpayer retains a substantial interest in that trade or business.

(3) Any increase in tax under paragraph (1) shall not be treated as tax imposed by this part for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(e) The credit shall be reduced by the credit allowed under Section 23621. The credit shall also be reduced by the federal credit allowed under Section 51 of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, any deduction otherwise allowed under this part for the wages or salaries paid or incurred by the qualified taxpayer upon which the credit is based shall be reduced by the amount of the credit, prior to any reduction required by subdivision (f) or (g).

(f) In the case where the credit otherwise allowed under this section exceeds the "tax" for the income year, that portion of the credit that exceeds the "tax" may be carried over and added to the credit, if any, in succeeding years, until the credit is exhausted. The credit shall be applied first to the earliest income years possible.

(g) (1) The amount of credit otherwise allowed under this section, including prior year credit carryovers, that may reduce the "tax" for the income year shall not exceed the amount of tax that would be imposed on the qualified taxpayer's business income attributed to a Manufacturing Enhancement Area determined as if that attributed income represented all of the net income of the qualified taxpayer subject to tax under this part.

(2) The amount of attributed income described in paragraph (1) shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), modified for purposes of this section as follows:

(A) Income shall be apportioned to a Manufacturing Enhancement Area by multiplying total business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, and the denominator of which is two.

(B) "The Manufacturing Enhancement Area" shall be substituted for "this state."

(3) The portion of any credit remaining, if any, after application of this subdivision, shall be carried over to succeeding income years, as if it were an amount exceeding the "tax" for the income year, as provided in subdivision (g).

(h) If the qualified taxpayer is allowed a credit pursuant to this section for qualified wages paid or incurred, only one credit shall be allowed under this part with respect to any wage consisting in whole or in part of those qualified wages.

SEC. 14. Section 24384.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 953 of the Statutes of 1996, is repealed.

SEC. 15. Section 24384.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Chapter 955 of the Statutes of 1996, is amended to read:

24384.5. (a) There shall be allowed as a deduction the amount of net interest received by the taxpayer in payment of indebtedness of a person or entity engaged in a trade or business located in an enterprise zone.

(b) No deduction shall be allowed under this section unless at the time the indebtedness is incurred each of the following requirements are met:

(1) The trade or business is located solely within an enterprise zone.

(2) The indebtedness is incurred solely in connection with activity within the enterprise zone.

(3) The taxpayer has no equity or other ownership interest in the debtor.

(c) "Enterprise zone" means an area designated as an enterprise zone pursuant to Chapter 12.8 (commencing with Section 7070) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code.

SEC. 16. If this bill and Assembly Bill 1040 are both enacted, and Assembly Bill 1040 amends Sections 17053.17, 17053.46, 23623.5, and 23646 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, Sections 2 and 13 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 17. If this bill is enacted, but Assembly Bill 1040 is not enacted, or if this bill and Assembly Bill 1040 are both enacted, and Assembly Bill 1040 does not amend Sections 17053.17, 17053.46, 23623.5, and 23646 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, Sections 2.5 and 13.5 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 18. (a) Section 5.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 17053.74 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and SB 965. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, (2) each bill amends Section 17053.74 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 965, in which case Section 17053.74 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by SB 965, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 5.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 5 of this bill shall not become operative.

(b) Section 7.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 17053.75 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by this bill and SB 965. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, (2) each bill amends Section 17053.75 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 965, in which case Section 17053.75 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by SB 965, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 7.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 7 of this bill shall not become operative.

(c) Section 12.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 23622.7 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by this bill and SB 965. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, (2) each bill amends Section 23622.7 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 965, in which case Section 23622.7 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by SB 965, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 12.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 12 of this bill shall not become operative.

CHAPTER 610

An act to amend Sections 17152, 18042, 18510, 18601, 23732, 23801, 23802, 23806, and 24611 of, and to add Sections 17275.6, 17731.5, 18037.5, 19136.4, 19365, 23800.5, 23802.5, 23804, 23804.5, 23813, 24954, and 24990.4 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor October 1, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 3, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17152 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17152. (a) For sales and exchanges before May 7, 1997, and on or after July 1, 1998, Section 121 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to one-time exclusion of gain from sale of principal residence by individual who has attained age 55, is modified to additionally include both of the following:

(1) The dollar amount of the exclusion in Section 121(b) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be the same as allowed for federal purposes as determined by the taxpayer's filing status for federal purposes even though the taxpayer is prohibited from filing a joint return pursuant to Section 18521. However, in no instance shall the total amount excludable for the sale of a principal residence exceed the maximum amount allowed by Section 121(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) The three-year period in Section 121(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be reduced by the period of the taxpayer's service, not to exceed 18 months, in the Peace Corps during the five-year period ending on the date of the sale or exchange.

(b) For sales and exchanges on and after May 7, 1997, and on or before June 30, 1998, Section 121 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to one-time exclusion of gain from sale of principal residence by an individual who has attained age 55, shall not apply and in lieu of that section subdivisions (c) to (h), inclusive, shall apply. References in the Internal Revenue Code to Section 121 of the Internal Revenue Code shall instead be treated as a reference to subdivision (c) of this section.

(c) Gross income shall not include gain from the sale or exchange of property if, during the five-year period ending on the date of the sale or exchange, the property has been owned and used by the taxpayer as the taxpayer's principal residence for periods aggregating two years or more. The two-year period shall be reduced by the period of the taxpayer's service, not to exceed 18 months, in the Peace Corps during the five-year period ending on the date of the sale or exchange.

(d) (1) The amount of gain excluded from gross income under subdivision (c) with respect to any sale or exchange shall not exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000).

(2) Paragraph (1) shall be applied by substituting five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) for two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) if all of the following conditions are met:

(A) A husband and wife make a joint return for the taxable year of the sale or exchange of the property.

(B) Either spouse meets the ownership requirements of subdivision (c) with respect to the property.

(C) Both spouses meet the use requirements of subdivision (c) with respect to the property.

(D) Neither spouse is ineligible for the benefits of subdivision (c) with respect to the property by reason of paragraph (3).

(3) (A) Subdivision (c) shall not apply to any sale or exchange by the taxpayer if, during the two-year period ending on the date of the sale or exchange, there was any other sale or exchange by the taxpayer to which subdivision (c) applied.

(B) Subparagraph (A) shall be applied without regard to any sale or exchange before May 7, 1997.

(4) If the taxpayer is prohibited from filing a joint return pursuant to Section 18521, subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) shall nevertheless be treated as being satisfied if the taxpayer files a joint return for federal income tax purposes for the same taxable year. However, in no instance shall the total amount excludable from gross income under subdivision (c) with respect to any sale or exchange exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000).

(e) (1) In the case of a sale or exchange that is subject to this subdivision in accordance with paragraph (2), the ownership and use requirements of subdivision (c) shall not apply and paragraph (3) of subdivision (d) shall not apply, but the amount of gain excluded from gross income under subdivision (c) with respect to the sale or exchange shall not exceed the amount that bears the same ratio to the amount that would be so excluded if those requirements had been met, as the shorter of the following two periods bears to two years:

(A) The aggregate periods, during the five-year period ending on the date of the sale or exchange, during which the property has been owned and used by the taxpayer as the taxpayer's principal residence.

(B) The period after the date of the most recent prior sale or exchange by the taxpayer to which subdivision (c) applied and before the date of the sale or exchange.

(2) This subdivision shall apply to any sale or exchange if:

(A) Subdivision (c) would not, but for this subdivision, apply to the sale or exchange by reason of either of the following:

(i) A failure to meet the ownership and use requirements of subdivision (c).

(ii) Paragraph (3) of subdivision (d).

(B) The sale or exchange is by reason of a change in place of employment, health, or, to the extent provided in regulations, unforeseen circumstances.

(f) (1) For purposes of this section, in the case of an unmarried individual whose spouse is deceased on the date of the sale or exchange of property, the period the unmarried individual owned the property shall include the period the deceased spouse owned the property before death.

(2) For purposes of this section:

(A) In the case of an individual holding property transferred to that individual in a transaction described in Section 1041(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, the period the individual owns the property shall include the period the transferor owned the property.

(B) Solely for purposes of this section, an individual shall be treated as using property as that individual's principal residence during any period of ownership while that individual's spouse or former spouse is granted use of the property under a divorce or separation instrument, as defined in Section 71(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) For purposes of this section, if the taxpayer holds stock as a tenant-stockholder, as defined in Section 216 of the Internal Revenue Code, in a cooperative housing corporation, as defined in Section 216 of the Internal Revenue Code:

(A) The holding requirements of subdivision (c) shall be applied to the holding of that stock.

(B) The use requirements of subdivision (c) shall be applied to the house or apartment which the taxpayer was entitled to occupy as the stockholder.

(4) (A) For purposes of this section, the destruction, theft, seizure, requisition, or condemnation of property shall be treated as the sale of the property.

(B) In applying Section 1033 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to involuntary conversions, the amount realized from the sale or exchange of property shall be treated as being the amount determined without regard to this section, reduced by the amount of gain not included in gross income pursuant to this section.

(C) If the basis of the property sold or exchanged is determined, in whole or in part, under Section 1033(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to basis of property acquired through involuntary conversion, then the holding and use by the taxpayer of the converted property shall be treated as holding and use by the taxpayer of the property sold or exchanged.

(5) Subdivision (c) shall not apply to so much of the gain from the sale of any property as does not exceed the portion of the depreciation adjustments, as defined in Section 1250(b)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, attributable to periods after May 6, 1997, with respect to that property.

(6) In the case of a taxpayer who becomes physically or mentally incapable of self-care, and owns property and uses the property as the taxpayer's principal residence during the five-year period described in subdivision (c) for periods aggregating at least one year, the taxpayer shall be treated as using the property as the taxpayer's principal residence during any time during the five-year period in which the taxpayer owns the property and resides in any facility, including a nursing home, licensed by a state or political subdivision to care for an individual in the taxpayer's condition.

(7) In the case of any sale or exchange, for purposes of this section:

(A) The determination of whether an individual is married shall be made as of the date of the sale or exchange.

(B) An individual legally separated from his or her spouse under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance shall not be considered as married.

(8) For purposes of this section:

(A) At the election of the taxpayer, this section shall not fail to apply to the sale or exchange of an interest in a principal residence by reason of that interest being a remainder interest in the residence, but this section shall not apply to any other interest in that residence which is sold or exchanged separately.

(B) Subparagraph (A) shall not apply to any sale to, or exchange with, any person who bears a relationship to the taxpayer which is described in Section 267(b) or 707(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(g) If a taxpayer has, at any time, made an election for federal purposes under Section 121(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by Public Law 105-34, not to have Section 121 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by Public Law 105-34, apply to a sale or exchange, subdivision (c) of this section shall not apply to that sale or exchange, a separate election for state purposes shall not be allowed under paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 17024.5, the federal election shall be binding for purposes of this part, and that election shall be treated as an election to include in gross income for purposes of this part all the gain from the sale or exchange of property, including that amount which, but for that election, would have been excluded from income under subdivision (c) of this section.

(h) For purposes of this section, in the case of property the acquisition of which by the taxpayer resulted under Section 1034 of the Internal Revenue Code, as in effect on the day before the date of enactment of the act adding this subdivision, in the nonrecognition of any part of the gain realized on the sale or exchange of another residence, in determining the period for which the taxpayer has owned and used the property as the taxpayer's principal residence, there shall be included the aggregate periods for which the other residence, and each prior residence taken into account under Section 1223(7) of the Internal Revenue Code in determining the holding period of the property, had been so owned and used.

(i) For sales and exchanges on or after May 7, 1997, and on or before June 30, 1998, the provisions that require a report under Section 18643 are modified to only require a copy of the federal return required to be filed with the Secretary of the Treasury under Section 6045(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by Public Law 105-34.

SEC. 2. Section 17275.6 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17275.6. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, Section 170(e)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain contributions of ordinary income and capital gain property, is modified to provide that for purposes of applying Section 170(e)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code in the case of a charitable contribution of stock in an S corporation, rules similar to the rules of Section 751 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to unrealized receivables and inventory items, shall apply in determining whether gain on the stock would have been long-term capital gain if the stock were sold by the taxpayer.

SEC. 3. Section 17731.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17731.5. (a) Section 641 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to imposition of tax, is modified as follows:

(1) For purposes of this part, both of the following shall apply:

(A) The portion of any electing small business trust which consists of stock in one or more "S corporations" shall be treated as a separate trust.

(B) The amount of the tax imposed by this part on that separate trust shall be determined with the modifications of paragraph (2).

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the modifications are the following:

(A) The amount of the tax imposed by subdivision (e) of Section 17041 shall be determined by using the highest rate of tax applicable to an individual under subdivision (a) of Section 17041.

(B) The credit allowed under subdivision (b) of Section 17733 shall be zero.

(C) The only items of income, loss, deduction, or credit to be taken into account are the following:

(i) The items required to be taken into account under Section 1366 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to passthrough of items to shareholders, as modified for purposes of this part and Part 11.

(ii) Any gain or loss from the disposition of stock in an "S corporation."

(iii) Administrative expenses to the extent allocable to items described in clauses (i) and (ii).

No deduction or credit shall be allowed for any amount not described in this paragraph, and no item described in this paragraph shall be apportioned to any beneficiary.

(D) No amount shall be allowed under Section 1211(b)(1) or (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to limitation on capital losses.

(3) For purposes of determining the amount of the tax imposed by this part on the portion of any electing small business trust not treated as a separate trust under paragraph (1), and the distributable net income of the entire trust, the items referred to in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2) shall be excluded. Except as provided in the preceding sentence, this section shall not affect the taxation of any distribution from the trust.

(4) If a portion of an electing small business trust ceases to be treated as a separate trust under paragraph (1), any carryover or excess deduction of the separate trust which is referred to in Section 642(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to unused loss carryovers and excess deductions on termination available to beneficiaries, shall be taken into account by the entire trust.

(5) For purposes of this section, the term "electing small business trust" has the meaning given to that term by subdivision (d) of Section 23800.5.

(b) This section shall apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 4. Section 18037.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

18037.5. For sales and exchanges after May 6, 1997, and on or before June 30, 1998:

(a) Section 1034 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to rollover of gain on sale of principal residence, shall not apply.

(b) References in Sections 56(e), 163(h), 280A(d), 464(f), 1033(h), 1274(c), and 7872(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, and paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 18662 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to Section 1034 of the Internal Revenue Code, shall instead be treated as a reference to Section 17152 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(c) Section 216(e) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by substituting "such dwelling unit is used as his or her principal residence (within the meaning of Section 17152)" for the phrase "such exchange qualifies for nonrecognition of gain under Section 1034(f)."

(d) References in Sections 512(a), 1016(a), and 1223(7) of the Internal Revenue Code to Section 1034 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be treated as a reference to that section as in effect on the day before the date of the enactment of the act adding this section.

(e) Section 1038(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to principal residences, shall be modified to provide that, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury under Section 1038 of the Internal Revenue Code, unless the Franchise Tax Board prescribes otherwise, Section 1038(b), (c), and (d) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply to the reacquisition of property and, for purposes of applying Section 17152, the resale of that property shall be treated as a part of the transaction constituting the original sale of the property, if both of the following apply:

(1) Section 1038(a) of the Internal Revenue Code applies to a reacquisition of real property with respect to the sale of which gain was not recognized under Section 17152.

(2) Within one year after the date of reacquisition of the property by the seller, that property is resold by him or her.

(f) Section 1250(d)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to disposition of principal residence, shall not apply.

(g) Section 1250(e)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to principal residence, shall not apply.

SEC. 5. Section 18042 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18042. (a) Section 1042 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to sales of stock to employee stock ownership plans or certain cooperatives, shall apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1996.

(b) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, Section 1042 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to sales of stock to employee stock ownership plans or certain cooperatives, is modified to provide that the term "domestic corporation" shall instead mean "domestic C corporation."

SEC. 6. Section 18510 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18510. For purposes of Sections 18501, 18505, and 18521, gross income shall be computed without regard to the exclusion provided for in Section 17152.

SEC. 7. Section 18601 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18601. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b) or (c), every taxpayer subject to the tax imposed by Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) shall, within two months and 15 days after the close of its income year, transmit to the Franchise Tax Board a return in a form prescribed by it, specifying for the income year, all the facts as it may by rule, or otherwise, require in order to carry out this part. A tax return, disclosing net income for any income year, filed pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101) or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501) of Part 11 shall be deemed filed pursuant to the proper chapter of Part 11 for the same income period, if the chapter under which the return is filed is determined erroneous.

(b) In the case of cooperative associations described in Section 24404, returns shall be filed on or before the 15th day of the ninth month following the close of its income year.

(c) In the case of taxpayers required to file a return for a short period under Section 24634, the due date for the short period return shall be the same as the due date of the federal tax return that includes the net income of the taxpayer for that short period, or the due date specified in subdivision (a) if no federal return is required to be filed that would include the net income for that short period.

(d) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, each "S corporation" required to file a return under subdivision (a) for any income year shall, on or before the day on which the return for the income year was filed, furnish each person who is a shareholder at any time during the income year a copy of the information shown on the return.

(e) For taxable or income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997:

(1) A shareholder of an "S corporation" shall, on the shareholder's return, treat a Subchapter S item in a manner that is consistent with the treatment of the item on the corporate return.

(2) (A) In the case of any Subchapter S item, paragraph (1) shall not apply to that item if both of the following occur:

(i) Either of the following occurs:

(I) The corporation has filed a return but the shareholder's treatment of the item on the shareholder's return is or may be inconsistent with the treatment of the item on the corporate return.

(II) The corporation has not filed a return.

(ii) The shareholder files with the Franchise Tax Board a statement identifying the inconsistency.

(B) A shareholder shall be treated as having complied with clause (ii) of subparagraph (A) with respect to a Subchapter S item if the shareholder does both of the following:

(i) Demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Franchise Tax Board that the treatment of the Subchapter S item on the shareholder's return is consistent with the treatment of the item on the schedule furnished to the shareholder by the corporation.

(ii) Elects to have this paragraph apply with respect to that item.

(3) In any case described in subclause (I) of clause (i) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2), and in which the shareholder does not comply with clause (ii) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2), any adjustment required to make the treatment of the items by the shareholder consistent with the treatment of the items on the corporate return shall be treated as arising out of a mathematical error and assessed and collected under Section 19051.

(4) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "Subchapter S item" means any item of an "S corporation" to the extent provided by regulations that, for purposes of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or this part, the item is more appropriately determined at the corporation level than at the shareholder level.

(5) The penalties imposed under Article 7 (commencing with Section 19131) of Chapter 4 shall apply in the case of a shareholder's negligence in connection with, or disregard of, the requirements of this section.

SEC. 8. Section 19136.4 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

19136.4. (a) No addition to tax shall be made under Section 19136 for any period before April 16, 1998, with respect to any underpayment of an installment for the 1997 taxable year, to the extent that the underpayment was created or increased by Section 1, 4, or 6 of the act adding this section.

(b) The Franchise Tax Board shall adopt procedures, forms, and instructions necessary to implement this section in a reasonable manner.

SEC. 9. Section 19365 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

19365. (a) (1) A corporation electing to be treated as an "S corporation" under Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 23800) of Part 11, may file an application for the transfer of an overpayment with respect to payments of estimated tax for income years beginning in 1997, to the personal income tax accounts of its shareholders. An application under this subdivision shall not constitute a claim for credit or refund.

(2) An application under this subdivision shall be verified in the manner prescribed by Section 18621 in the case of the taxpayer, and shall be filed in the manner and form prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board. The application shall set forth all of the following:

(A) The amount the "S corporation" estimates as its tax liability under this part for the taxable year, which shall not be less than the greater of $1^1/_2$ percent of its net income or the applicable minimum franchise tax.

(C) For each shareholder affected, his or her name, social security account number, address, percent of ownership and any changes in percent of ownership for the "S corporation's" income year, and amount of each overpayment to be transferred, and the date the amount was paid.

(D) Any other information for purposes of carrying out this section as may be required by the Franchise Tax Board.

(b) (1) Within a period of 45 days from the date on which an application for a transfer is filed under subdivision (a), the Franchise Tax Board shall make, to the extent it deems practicable in that period, a limited examination of the application to discover omissions and errors therein, and shall determine the final amount of the transfers upon the basis of the application and the examination, except that the Franchise Tax Board may disallow, without further action, any application which it finds contains material omissions or errors which it deems cannot be corrected within the 45-day period.

(2) The Franchise Tax Board, within the 45-day period referred to in paragraph (1), may credit the amount of the overpayment against any liability on the part of the taxpayer under Part 11.

(3) In the event the amount available for transfer is less than requested by the taxpayer, the overpayment amount shall be allocated among the shareholders on a pro rata basis based on the percent of ownership stated on the application.

(4) For purposes of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), and this part, the transferred amounts shall be treated as if they had been estimated tax payments paid by the respective shareholders on the date originally paid by the corporation.

(5) No application under subdivision (a) shall be allowed unless the amount to be transferred equals or exceeds five hundred dollars ($500).

(6) Each "S corporation" which files an application for transfer of overpayments under subdivision (a) shall furnish to each person who is a shareholder at any time during the income year a statement showing amounts and dates of the overpayments being transferred to that person's personal income tax account.

SEC. 10. Section 23732 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23732. Section 512 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to unrelated business taxable income, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(a) Section 512(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to special rules for foreign organizations, shall not be applicable.

(b) Section 512(a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to special rules applicable to certain organizations, shall be modified as follows:

(1) The reference to Section 501(c)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to clubs organized for pleasure, recreation, and other nonprofitable purposes, shall be modified to refer to Section 23701g.

(2) The reference to Section 501(c)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to voluntary employees' beneficiary associations, shall be modified to refer to Section 23701i.

(3) The reference to Section 501(c)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to trusts providing for payment of supplemental unemployment compensation benefits, shall be modified to refer to Section 23701n.

(4) The reference to Section 501(c)(20) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to qualified group legal services plans, shall be modified to refer to Section 23701q.

(c) Section 512(b)(10) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to charitable contributions, shall be modified to provide that such deductions shall not exceed 5 percent of the unrelated business taxable income, rather than 10 percent.

(d) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, Section 512 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to unrelated business taxable income, is modified to provide that:

(1) If an organization described in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 23800.5 holds stock in an "S corporation," both of the following shall apply:

(A) The interest shall be treated as an interest in an unrelated trade or business.

(B) Notwithstanding any other provision of Part III of Chapter 1A of the Internal Revenue Code, Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401), or this part, all items of income, loss, or deduction taken into account under Section 1366(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, and any gain or loss on the disposition of the stock in the S corporation, shall be taken into account in computing the unrelated business taxable income of the organization.

(2) Except as provided in regulations, for purposes of paragraph (1), the basis of any stock acquired by purchase, within the meaning of Section 1012 of the Internal Revenue Code, shall be reduced by the amount of any dividends received by the organization with respect to the stock.

SEC. 11. Section 23800.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

23800.5. (a) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, Section 1361(b)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to small business corporations defined, shall be modified by substituting "have more than 75 shareholders," in lieu of "have more than 35 shareholders" specified therein.

(b) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1998:

(1) Section 1361(b)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to small business corporations, is modified to provide that a small business corporation may not have as a shareholder a person (other than an estate, a trust described in Section 1361(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or an organization described in paragraph (2)), who is not an individual.

(2) Section 1361(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to special rule for applying subsection (b), is modified to provide that, for purposes of Section 1361(b)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code, an organization that is described in Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code or Section 23701d of this code, and exempt from taxation under Section 23701, may be a shareholder in an "S corporation."

(c) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, Section 1361(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain trusts permitted as shareholders, is modified as follows:

(1) (A) The phrase "60-day period" is modified to read "2-year period" each place it appears in Section 1361(c)(2)(A)(ii) and (iii) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) The last sentence in Section 1361(c)(2)(A)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply.

(2) Section 1361(c)(2)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to provide that an electing small business trust may be a shareholder.

(3) Section 1361(c)(2)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to provide that in the case of an electing small business trust, each potential current beneficiary of the trust shall be treated as a shareholder. However, if for any period there is no potential current beneficiary of the trust, the trust shall be treated as the shareholder during that period.

(4) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "potential current beneficiary" means, with respect to any period, any person who at any time during that period is entitled to, or at the discretion of any person may receive, a distribution from the principal or income of the trust. If a trust disposes of all of the stock which it holds in an "S corporation," then, with respect to that corporation, the term "potential current beneficiary" does not include any person who first met the requirements of the preceding sentence during the 60-day period ending on the date of the disposition.

(d) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, and before January 1, 1998, Section 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to S corporation defined, is modified to provide as follows:

(1) For purposes of this subdivision:

(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), the term "electing small business trust" means any trust if all of the following apply:

(i) The trust does not have as a beneficiary any person other than (I) an individual, (II) an estate, or (III) an organization described in Section 170(c)(2), (3), (4), or (5) of the Internal Revenue Code which holds a contingent interest and is not a potential current beneficiary.

(ii) No interest in the trust was acquired by purchase.

(iii) An election under this subdivision applies to the trust.

(B) The term "electing small business trust" shall not include either of the following:

(i) Any qualified Subchapter S trust (as defined in Section 1361(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code) if an election under Section 1361(d)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code applies to any corporation the stock of which is held by the qualified Subchapter S trust.

(ii) Any trust exempt from tax under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or this part.

(C) For purposes of subparagraph (A), the term "purchase" means any acquisition if the basis of the property acquired is determined under Section 1012 of the Internal Revenue Code or Section 24912 of this code.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "potential current beneficiary" means, with respect to any period, any person who at any time during that period is entitled to, or at the discretion of any person may receive, a distribution from the principal or income of the trust. If a trust disposes of all of the stock which it holds in an "S corporation," then, with respect to that corporation, the term "potential current beneficiary" does not include any person who first met the requirements of this paragraph during the 60-day period ending on the date of the disposition.

(3) (A) An election made by the trustee under Section 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code to be an electing small business trust for federal purposes shall be treated for purposes of this part as an election made by the trustee under this subdivision and a separate election under paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 23051.5 shall not be allowed. Any election made shall apply to the taxable year of the trust for which made and to all subsequent taxable years of the trust, unless revoked with the consent of the Franchise Tax Board.

(B) No election under this subdivision shall be allowed unless the trustee has made the election under Section 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code to be an electing small business trust for federal purposes.

(e) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, Section 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to "S corporation" defined, is modified to provide as follows:

(1) For purposes of this subdivision:

(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), the term "electing small business trust" means any trust if all of the following apply:

(i) The trust does not have as a beneficiary any person other than (I) an individual, (II) an estate, or (III) an organization described in Section 170(c)(2), (3), (4), or (5) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) No interest in the trust was acquired by purchase.

(iii) An election under this subdivision applies to the trust.

(B) The term "electing small business trust" shall not include any of the following:

(i) Any qualified Subchapter S trust (as defined in Section 1361(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code) if an election under Section 1361(d)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code applies to any corporation the stock of which is held by the qualified Subchapter S trust.

(ii) Any trust exempt from tax under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or this part.

(C) For purposes of subparagraph (A), the term "purchase" means any acquisition if the basis of the property acquired is determined under Section 1012 of the Internal Revenue Code or Section 24912 of this code.

(2) (A) An election made by the trustee under Section 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code to be an electing small business trust for federal purposes shall be treated for purposes of this part as an election made by the trustee under this subdivision, and a separate election under paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 23051.5 shall not be allowed. Any election made shall apply to the taxable year of the trust for which made and to all subsequent taxable years of the trust, unless revoked with the consent of the Franchise Tax Board.

(B) No election under this subdivision shall be allowed unless the trustee has made the election under Section 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code to be an electing small business trust for federal purposes.

(f) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, Section 1361(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to small business corporations, is modified to provide as follows:

(1) For purposes of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401), and this part:

(A) A corporation that is a qualified Subchapter S subsidiary shall not be treated as a separate corporation, except as provided in subparagraph (B).

(B) There is hereby imposed a tax annually in an amount equal to the applicable amount specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 23153 on a qualified Subchapter S subsidiary that is incorporated under the laws of this state, qualified to transact intrastate business in this state pursuant to Chapter 21 (commencing with Section 2100) of Division 1 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, or doing business in this state.

(C) Every qualified Subchapter S subsidiary described in subparagraph (B) shall be subject to the tax imposed under subparagraph (B) from the earlier of the date of incorporation, qualification, or commencing to do business in this state, until the effective date of dissolution or withdrawal as provided in Section 23331, or, if later, the date the corporation ceases to do business in this state.

(D) (i) All activities, assets, liabilities, including liability for the tax imposed under this subdivision, and items of income, deduction, and credit of a qualified Subchapter S subsidiary shall be treated as activities (including for purposes of Section 23101), assets, liabilities, and such items, as the case may be, of the "S corporation."

(ii) The tax imposed under this subdivision shall be due and payable on the 15th day of the fourth month of the income year of the "S corporation."

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "qualified Subchapter S subsidiary" means any domestic corporation that is not an ineligible corporation, as defined in Section 1361(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, if both of the following apply:

(A) One hundred percent of the stock of the corporation is held by the S corporation.

(B) The "S corporation" has in effect a valid election to treat the corporation as a qualified Subchapter S subsidiary for federal purposes.

(3) (A) An election made by the "S corporation" under Section 1361(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code to treat the corporation as a qualified Subchapter S subsidiary for federal purposes shall be treated for purposes of this part as an election made by the "S corporation" under this subdivision and a separate election under paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 23051.5 shall not be allowed.

(B) No election under this subdivision shall be allowed unless the "S corporation" has made the election under Section 1361(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code to treat the corporation as a qualified Subchapter S subsidiary for federal purposes.

(4) For purposes of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401), or this part, if any corporation that was a qualified Subchapter S subsidiary ceases to meet the requirements of paragraph (2), that corporation shall be treated as a new corporation acquiring all of its assets, and assuming all of its liabilities, immediately before that cessation from the "S corporation" in exchange for its stock.

(5) If a corporations's status as a qualified Subchapter S subsidiary terminates, the corporation and any successor corporation shall not be treated as having in effect a valid election under subparagraph (B) of paragraph (2), or be eligible to make an election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, before its fifth income year which begins after the first income year for which the termination is effective, unless the Franchise Tax Board consents to the election.

(6) Section 1361(b)(2)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply.

(g) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, Section 1361(b)(2)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to ineligible corporation defined, shall not apply and in lieu thereof, for purposes of Section 1361(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401), and this part, the term "ineligible corporation" shall include a savings and loan association, bank, or financial corporation which uses the reserve method of accounting for bad debts described in Section 24348.

(h) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, Section 1361(c)(5)(B)(iii) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to straight debt defined, is modified to include in the list of creditors contained therein, a person that is actively and regularly engaged in the business of lending money.

(i) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, Section 1361(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply.

SEC. 12. Section 23801 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23801. (a) (1) A corporation may not elect to be treated as an "S corporation" unless it has in effect for federal purposes a valid election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for the same year.

(2) For income years beginning in 1987, the following shall apply:

(A) A corporation that has in effect a valid federal election for the income year beginning in 1987, shall be deemed to have elected to be treated as an "S corporation" for purposes of this part, unless that corporation elects on its return to continue to be treated as a "C corporation" for purposes of this part.

(B) A corporation to which subparagraph (A) applies, but is not required to file a return under this part, may elect to be treated as a "C corporation" for purposes of this part in the form and in the manner as the Franchise Tax Board may prescribe.

(C) A corporation that is deemed to have elected to be treated as an "S corporation" under subparagraph (A) shall, for purposes of applying the provisions of Section 1374 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax imposed on certain built-in gains, and Section 1375 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax imposed on passive investment income, be deemed to have made the election to be treated as an "S corporation" on the same date as the date of its federal election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) For income years beginning in 1988 or 1989, the following shall apply:

(A) A corporation that had in effect a valid federal election for the preceding year, but was a "C corporation" for purposes of this part for that preceding year, may elect to be treated as an "S corporation" for purposes of this part by making an election in accordance with the provisions of Section 1362 of the Internal Revenue Code in the form and in the manner as the Franchise Tax Board may prescribe.

(B) A corporation that did not have in effect a valid federal election for the preceding year and that makes a federal election for the income year under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be deemed to have made an election to be treated as an "S corporation" for purposes of this part on the same date as the date of its federal election, unless that corporation elects on its return to continue to be treated as a "C corporation" for purposes of this part.

(C) A corporation to which subparagraph (B) applies, but is not required to file a return under this part, may elect to be treated as a "C corporation" for purposes of this part in a form and manner as the Franchise Tax Board may prescribe.

(D) A corporation that elects to be treated as an "S corporation" under subparagraph (A) for an income year beginning in 1988 shall, for purposes of applying the provisions of Section 1374 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax imposed on certain built-in gains, and Section 1375 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax imposed on passive investment income, be deemed to have made the election to be treated as an "S corporation" on the same date as the date of its federal election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(4) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1990, the following shall apply:

(A) An election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, that is first effective for an income year beginning on or after January 1, 1990, shall be an election to which subdivision (e) of Section 23051.5 applies and shall be deemed to have been made for purposes of this part on the same date as the date of the federal election, unless the corporation files a California election under clause (ii) to be treated as a "C corporation" for purposes of this part.

(i) The federal "S" election shall be reported for purposes of this part in the form and manner as prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board no later than the last date allowed for filing the federal election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for that income year.

(ii) The California election to be a "C corporation" may only be made by a corporation incorporated in California or qualified to do business in California and shall be made in the form and manner prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board no later than the last date allowed for filing the federal "S" election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for that income year.

(B) A corporation that has in effect a valid election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, but is a "C corporation" for purposes of this part, may elect to be treated as an "S corporation" by making an election in the form and manner as prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board at the time required for making an "S" election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for that income year, unless prohibited from doing so by Section 1362(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to election after termination.

(C) In the event a corporation which has in effect a valid election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and is not doing business in California becomes subject to this part by qualifying to do business in California, the corporation is deemed to have made an election to be treated as an "S corporation" for the income year during which the corporation qualifies to do business in California, unless the corporation files a California election in accordance with clause (ii) to be treated as a "C corporation" for that income year.

(i) The federal "S" election shall be reported for purposes of this part within two and one-half months after qualifying to do business in California in the form and manner as prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board.

(ii) The California election to be a "C corporation" shall be made in the form and manner as prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board no later than the following:

(I) For an income year beginning in 1990, two and one-half months after qualifying to do business in California.

(II) For an income year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, the last date allowed for filing a federal "S" election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for that income year.

(D) (i) A corporation that is not qualified to do business in California, but is treated as an "S corporation" for federal purposes, shall be treated as an "S corporation" for purposes of this part, and its shareholders shall be treated as shareholders of an "S corporation."

(ii) If a corporation described in clause (i) elected to be treated as a "C corporation" under this section prior to its amendment by the act adding this paragraph during the 1989–90 Regular Session, that election shall be revoked for income years beginning on or after January 1, 1990. The corporation shall be treated as an "S corporation" for purposes of this part, and its shareholders shall be treated as shareholders of an "S corporation."

(E) For purposes of this section, "qualified to do business in California" or "qualifying to do business in California" means incorporating or obtaining a certificate of qualification pursuant to the Corporations Code.

(F) For purposes of this section:

(i) A timely election to be treated as a "C corporation" shall be treated as a revocation and Section 1362(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to election after termination, shall apply.

(ii) An untimely election to be treated as a "C corporation" shall be null and void and shall not be applied to either the current or any subsequent income year.

(5) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, the provisions in paragraph (4) shall apply, subject to the following modifications:

(A) A corporation which elects "S corporation" status under the provisions of Section 1316 of the Small Business Job Protection Act of 1996 (P.L. 104-188) for federal purposes but which is not qualified to be an "S corporation" under subdivision (g) of Section 23800.5, shall not be an "S corporation" for purposes of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) and this part.

(B) (i) A corporation which becomes an "S corporation" for an income year beginning before January 1, 1997, under the provisions of Section 1305 of the Small Business Job Protection Act of 1996 (P.L. 104-188) for federal purposes, shall become an "S corporation" for purposes of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) and this part for its first income year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, unless a timely election to continue as a "C corporation" is made.

(ii) For purposes of clause (i), an election shall be considered timely if made no later than the earlier of the date that is 180 days after the date of enactment of the act adding this paragraph or the due date, without regard to extensions, of the return for its first income year beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

(C) (i) A corporation which makes a valid federal election to be an "S corporation" during the period in 1997 before the date of enactment of the act adding this paragraph and which would not qualify to be an "S corporation" under this part on the date of the federal election shall become an "S corporation" for purposes of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) and this part for its first income year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, unless a timely election to continue as a "C corporation" is made.

(ii) For purposes of clause (i), an election shall be considered timely if made no later than the earlier of the date that is 180 days after the date of enactment of the act adding this paragraph or the due date, without regard to extensions, of the return for its first income year beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

(b) If a corporation subject to tax under this part elects to be treated as an "S corporation" and has one or more shareholders who are nonresidents of this state or is a trust with a nonresident fiduciary, each of the following shall be required:

(1) Each nonresident shareholder or fiduciary shall file with the return a statement of consent by that shareholder or fiduciary to be subject to the jurisdiction of the State of California to tax the shareholder's pro rata share of the income attributable to California sources.

(2) An "S corporation" shall include in its return for each income year a list of shareholders in the form and in the manner prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board.

(3) Failure to meet the requirements of this subdivision shall be grounds for retroactive revocation by the Franchise Tax Board of the election pursuant to this chapter.

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (d), a corporation that makes a valid election to be treated as an "S corporation" for purposes of this part shall not be included in a combined report pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 25101) of Chapter 17.

(d) (1) In cases where the Franchise Tax Board determines that the reported income or loss of a group of commonly owned or controlled corporations (within the meaning of Section 25105), which includes one or more corporations electing to be treated as an "S corporation" under Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 23800), does not clearly reflect income (or loss) of a member of that group or represents an evasion of tax by one or more members of that group, and the Franchise Tax Board determines that the comparable uncontrolled price method prescribed by regulations pursuant to Section 482 of the Internal Revenue Code cannot practically be applied, the Franchise Tax Board may, in lieu of other methods prescribed by regulations pursuant to Section 482 of the Internal Revenue Code, apply methods of unitary combination, pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 25101) of Chapter 17, to properly reflect the income or loss of the members of the group.

(2) The application of the provisions of this subdivision shall not affect the election of any corporation to be treated as an "S corporation."

(e) The tax for a "C corporation" for a short year shall be determined in accordance with Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 24631), in lieu of Section 1362(e)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(f) (1) A termination of a federal election pursuant to Section 1362(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, that is not an inadvertent termination pursuant to Section 1362(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, shall simultaneously terminate the "S corporation" election for purposes of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) and this part.

(2) A federal termination by revocation shall be effective for purposes of this part and shall be reported to the Franchise Tax Board in the form and manner prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board no later than the last date allowed for filing federal termination for that year under Section 1362(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) A corporation which is qualified to do business in California and has in effect a valid "S" election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, may revoke its "S" election for purposes of this part without revoking its federal election. The revocation for purposes of this part shall be made by providing a written notification to the Franchise Tax Board in the form and manner prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board which includes the California corporation number and meets the requirements of Section 1362(d)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(g) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1990, if a corporation, which has in effect a valid "S" election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, fails to make a "C corporation" election under clause (ii) of subparagraphs (A) and (C) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) or to terminate by revocation under paragraph (3) of subdivision (f), the corporation shall be treated as an "S corporation" pursuant to subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (a).

(h) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, for purposes of subparagraph (F) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of this section and Section 1362(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to election after termination, any termination under Section 1362(d) of the Internal Revenue Code or election to be treated as a "C corporation" under subparagraph (A) or (C) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (a), or to terminate by revocation under paragraph (3) of subdivision (f) in an income year beginning before January 1, 1997, shall not be taken into account.

(i) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997:

(1) Section 1362(b) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to provide that if an election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code is made for any income year, determined without regard to Section 1362(b)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, after the date prescribed by this subdivision for making the election for the income year or no election is made for any income year, and the Franchise Tax Board determines that there was reasonable cause for the failure to timely make the election, the Franchise Tax Board may treat that election as timely made for the income year, and Section 1362(b)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply.

(2) Section 1362(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to inadvertent terminations, is modified to provide that notwithstanding circumstances resulting in the ineffectiveness or termination of an election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, a corporation shall be treated as an "S corporation" during the period specified by the Franchise Tax Board if all of the following apply:

(A) The election by any corporation was not effective for the income year for which made, determined without regard to Section 1362(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, by reason of a failure to meet the requirements of Section 1361(b) of the Internal Revenue Code or to obtain shareholder consents, or was terminated under Section 1362(d)(2) or (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) The Franchise Tax Board determines that the circumstances resulting in the ineffectiveness or termination of the election were inadvertent.

(C) No later than a reasonable period of time after discovery of the circumstances resulting in that ineffectiveness or termination, steps were taken so that the corporation is a small business corporation, or to acquire the required shareholder consents.

(D) The corporation, and each person who was a shareholder in the corporation at any time during the period specified pursuant to this subdivision, agrees to make the adjustments, consistent with the treatment of the corporation as an "S corporation," as may be required by the Franchise Tax Board with respect to that period.

(j) Section 1362(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to termination where passive investment income exceeds 25 percent of gross receipts for three consecutive years and corporation has Subchapter C earnings and profits, is modified to provide that if an "S corporation" holds stock in a "C corporation" meeting the requirements of Section 1504(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, the term "passive investment income" shall not include dividends for that "C corporation" to the extent the dividends are attributable to the earnings and profits of that "C corporation" derived from the active conduct of a trade or business.

SEC. 13. Section 23802 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23802. (a) Section 1363(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the taxability of an "S corporation," shall not be applicable.

(b) Corporations qualifying under this chapter shall continue to be subject to the taxes imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101) and Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501), except as follows:

(1) (A) The tax imposed under Section 23151 or 23501 shall be imposed at a rate of $1^1/_2$ percent rather than the rate specified in those sections.

(B) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, the following tax rates shall be substituted for the "$1^1/_2$ percent" rate specified by subparagraph (A):

(i) One and six-tenths percent for income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, and before January 1, 1998.

(ii) One and sixty-five hundredths percent for income years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, and before January 1, 1999.

(iii) One and seven-tenths percent for income years beginning on or after January 1, 1999, and before January 1, 2000.

(iv) One and six-tenths percent for income years beginning on or after January 1, 2000.

(2) In the case of an "S corporation" which is also a financial corporation, the rate of tax specified in paragraph (1) shall be increased by the excess of the rate imposed under Section 23183 over the rate imposed under Section 23151.

(c) An "S corporation" shall be subject to the minimum franchise tax imposed under Section 23153.

(d) (1) For purposes of subdivision (b), an "S corporation" shall be allowed a deduction under Section 24416 or 24416.1 (relating to net operating loss deductions), but only with respect to losses incurred during periods in which the corporation had in effect a valid election to be treated as an "S corporation" for purposes of this part.

(2) Section 1371(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to denial of carryovers between "C years" and "S years," shall apply for purposes of the tax imposed under subdivision (b), except as provided in paragraph (1).

(3) The provisions of this subdivision shall not affect the amount of any item of income or loss computed in accordance with the provisions of Section 1366 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to pass-thru items to shareholders.

(4) For purposes of subdivision (b) of Section 17276, relating to limitations on loss carryovers, losses passed through to shareholders of an "S corporation," to the extent otherwise allowable without application of that subdivision, shall be fully included in the net operating loss of that shareholder and then that subdivision shall be applied to the entire net operating loss.

(e) For purposes of computing the taxes specified in subdivision (b), an "S corporation" shall be allowed a deduction from income for built-in gains and passive investment income for which a tax has been imposed under this part in accordance with the provisions of Section 1374 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax imposed on certain built-in gains, or Section 1375 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax imposed on passive investment income.

(f) For purposes of computing taxes imposed under this part, as provided in subdivision (b)—

(1) An "S corporation" shall compute its deductions for amortization and depreciation in accordance with the provisions of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) of Division 2.

(2) The provisions of Section 465 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to limitation of deductions to the amount at risk, shall be applied in the same manner as in the case of an individual.

(3) (A) The provisions of Section 469 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to limitations on passive activity losses and credits, shall be applied in the same manner as in the case of an individual. For purposes of the tax imposed under Section 23151 or 23501, as modified by this section, material participation shall be determined in accordance with Section 469(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain closely held "C corporations" and personal service corporations.

(B) For purposes of this paragraph, the "adjusted gross income" of the "S corporation" shall be equal to its "net income," as determined under Section 24341 with the modifications required by this subdivision, except that no deduction shall be allowed for contributions allowed by Section 24357.

(4) The exclusion provided under Section 18152.5 shall not be allowed to an "S corporation."

(g) The provisions of Section 1363(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to recapture of LIFO benefits, shall be modified for purposes of this part to refer to Section 19102 in lieu of Section 6601 of the Internal Revenue Code.

SEC. 14. Section 23802.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

23802.5. (a) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, Section 1366(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to determination of shareholder's tax liability, is modified to apply to the final taxable year of a trust or estate which terminates before the end of the corporation's income year.

(b) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, Section 1366(d)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to losses and deductions that cannot exceed shareholder's basis in stock and debt, is modified to additionally provide that the adjusted basis of a shareholder's stock in the S corporation is to be decreased by distributions by the corporation that were not includable in the income of the shareholder by reason of Section 1368 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, Section 1366(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to carryover of disallowed losses and deductions to post-termination transition period, is modified to provide that to the extent that any increase in adjusted basis described in Section 1366(d)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code would have increased the shareholder's amount at risk under Section 465 if the increase had occurred on the day preceding the commencement of the post-termination transition period, rules similar to the rules described in Section 1366(d)(3)(A) to (C), inclusive, of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply to any losses disallowed by reason of Section 465(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

SEC. 15. Section 23804 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

23804. For decedents dying after December 31, 1996, Section 1367(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to adjustments to basis of stock of shareholders, etc., is modified to provide as follows:

(a) If any person acquires stock in an "S corporation" by reason of the death of a decedent or by bequest, devise, or inheritance, Section 691 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be applied with respect to any item of income of the "S corporation" in the same manner as if the decedent had held directly the decedent's pro rata share of that item.

(b) The basis determined under Section 1014 of the Internal Revenue Code of any stock in an "S corporation" shall be reduced by the portion of the value of the stock that is attributable to items constituting income in respect of the decedent.

SEC. 16. Section 23804.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code to read:

23804.5. For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997:

(a) Section 1368(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain adjustments taken into account, is modified to provide that in the case of any distribution made during any income year, the adjusted basis of the stock shall be determined with regard to the adjustments provided in Section 1367(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) Section 1368(e)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to accumulated adjustments account, is modified to provide as follows:

(1) In applying Section 1368 of the Internal Revenue Code to distributions made during any income year, the amount in the accumulated adjustments account as of the close of the income year shall be determined without regard to any net negative adjustment for that income year.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the term "net negative adjustment" means, with respect to any income year, the excess, if any, of the reduction in the account for the income year, other than for distributions, over the increase in that account for that income year.

(3) Section 1368(e)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified to take into account the provisions of this subdivision.

(4) Section 1368(e)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified to refer to Section 1367(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code in lieu of Section 1367(b)(2)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code.

SEC. 17. Section 23806 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23806. (a) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, Section 1371(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to application of Subchapter C rules, is modified to provide that, except as otherwise provided in this part or Title 26 of the United States Code, and except to the extent inconsistent with this chapter or Subchapter S of Chapter 1 of Subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code, Subchapter C of Chapter 1 of Subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply to an "S corporation" and its shareholders.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (e) of Section 23051.5, an election under Section 338 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain stock purchases treated as asset acquisitions, for federal purposes shall be treated as an election for purposes of this part and a separate election under paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 23051.5 shall not be allowed.

(c) Section 1371(d) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable.

SEC. 18. Section 23813 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

23813. (a) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, Section 1377(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to pro rata share, is modified to provide as follows:

(1) As prescribed in regulations, if any shareholder terminates the shareholder's interest in the corporation during the income year and all affected shareholders and the corporation agree to the application of this subdivision, Section 1377(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be applied to the affected shareholders as if the income year consisted of two income years the first of which ends on the date of the termination.

(2) For purposes of subdivision (a) and Section 1377 of the Internal Revenue Code, the term "affected shareholders" means the shareholder whose interest is terminated and all shareholders to whom that shareholder has transferred shares during the income year. If that shareholder has transferred shares to the corporation, the term "affected shareholders" shall include all persons who are shareholders during the income year.

(b) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, Section 1377(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to post-termination transition period, is modified to provide as follows:

(1) The term "post-termination transition period" includes the 120-day period beginning on the date of any determination pursuant to an audit of the taxpayer which follows the termination of the corporation's election and which adjusts a Subchapter S item of income, loss, or deduction of the corporation arising during the S period, as defined in Section 1368(e)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) Section 1377(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to determination defined, is modified to provide that for purposes of paragraph (1) and Section 1377(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, the term "determination" means either of the following:

(A) (i) A determination as defined in Section 1313(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(ii) A decision by the State Board of Equalization that has become final.

(iii) A closing agreement made under Article 6 (commencing with Section 19441) of Chapter 6 of Part 10.2.

(iv) A final disposition by the Franchise Tax Board of a claim for refund.

(B) An agreement between the corporation and the Secretary of the Treasury or the Franchise Tax Board that the corporation failed to qualify as an "S corporation."

SEC. 19. Section 24611 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24611. (a) Section 404(k) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to dividends paid deduction, shall apply to income years beginning on or after January 1, 1996.

(b) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, Section 404(a)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain contributions to employee ownership plans, is modified to provide that Section 404(a)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply to an "S corporation."

(c) For income years beginning on or after January l, 1998, Section 404(k)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to deduction for dividends on certain employer securities, is modified to provide that the phrase "a corporation" shall read "a C corporation."

SEC. 20. Section 24954 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

24954. (a) Section 1042 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to sales of stock to employee stock ownership plans or certain cooperatives, shall apply to income years beginning on or after January 1, 1996.

(b) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, the term "domestic corporation" shall mean "domestic C corporation."

SEC. 21. Section 24990.4 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

24990.4. For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997:

(a) Section 1237(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to real property subdivided for sale, is modified to provide that the term "other than a corporation" in the material preceding Section 1237(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code shall instead mean "other than a C corporation."

(b) Section 1237(a)(2)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to real property subdivided for sale, is modified to provide that an improvement shall be deemed to be made by the taxpayer if that improvement was made by an "S corporation" that included the taxpayer as a shareholder.

SEC. 22. (a) This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, unless otherwise specifically provided, the provisions of this act shall be applied to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

(b) If a taxpayer has, at any time, made an election for federal purposes under Section 312(d)(2) of the Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997 (P.L. 105-34), relating to sales before date of enactment, or Section 312(d)(4) of that act, relating to binding contracts, to not have the amendments made by Section 312 of the Taxpayers Relief Act of 1997 (P.L. 105-34) apply to a sale or exchange, Sections 1, 4, and 6 of this act shall not apply to that sale or exchange, a separate election for state purposes shall not be allowed under paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 17024.5, and the federal election shall be binding for purposes of this part.

CHAPTER 611

An act to amend Sections 17008.5, 17020.6, 17024.5, 17041, 17052.12, 17054, 17062, 17063, 17072, 17077, 17085, 17088, 17139, 17250, 17273, 17279, 17507, 17561, 17750, 17860, 18037, 18180, 18601, 18624, 18645, 19144, 19164, 19184, 23038.5, 23045, 23453, 23456, 23457, 23609, 23732, 23801, 23802, 23806, 24326, 24343.3, 24349, 24355, 24355.5, 24357, 24443, 24692, 24870, 24916, and 24993 of, to amend the heading of Chapter 14.5 (commencing with Section 24870) of Part 11 of, to add Sections 17088.3, 17132.5, 17154, 17215, 17250.5, 17251.5, 17270.5, 17275.5, 17278.5, 17731.5, 18044, 18152, 18648.5, 19136.2, 19136.3, 19141.2, 19182.5, 19365, 23800.5, 23813, 24272.5, 24343.7, 24429, 24875, 24949.5, 24954, and 24956 to, to repeal Sections 17131.5, 17132, 17137, 17138.5, 17141.5, 17150, 17201.5, 17210, 17213, 17249, 17267, 17283, 17748, 18035, 18040, 18060, 18166, 18173, 24371.5, 24966.3, 24971, 24990.8, and 24990.9 of, and to repeal and add Sections 17255, 17271, 23701h, 24372.5, and 24947 of, the Revenue and Taxation Code, and to amend Sections 928.5 and 934 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor October 1, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 3, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17008.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17008.5. Section 7704 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain publicly traded partnerships treated as corporations, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(a) Section 7704(a) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply to an electing 1987 partnership (as defined in Section 23038.5) which is subject to the tax imposed by Section 23038.5.

(b) The amendment made to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1998.

SEC. 1.5. Section 17020.6 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17020.6. For purposes of this part:

(a) Section 7702 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to life insurance contracts, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(b) Section 7702A of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to modified endowment contracts, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(c) Section 7702B of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to treatment of qualified long-term care insurance, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

SEC. 2. Section 17024.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17024.5. (a) (1) Unless otherwise specifically provided, the terms "Internal Revenue Code," "Internal Revenue Code of 1954," or "Internal Revenue Code of 1986," for purposes of this part, mean Title 26 of the United States Code, including all amendments thereto as enacted on the specified date for the applicable taxable year as follows:

Taxable Year	Specified Date of Internal Revenue Code Sections
(A) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1983, and on or before December 31, 1983	January 15, 1983
(B) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1984, and on or before December 31, 1984	January 1, 1984
(C) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1985, and on or before December 31, 1985	January 1, 1985
(D) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1986, and on or before December 31, 1986	January 1, 1986

(E) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and on or before December 31, 1988 ..... January 1, 1987

(F) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1989, and on or before December 31, 1989 ..... January 1, 1989

(G) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1990, and on or before December 31, 1990 ..... January 1, 1990

(H) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and on or before December 31, 1991 ..... January 1, 1991

(I) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1992, and on or before December 31, 1992 ..... January 1, 1992

(J) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1993, and on or before December 31, 1996 ..... January 1, 1993

(K) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1997 ..... January 1, 1997

(2) Unless otherwise specifically provided, for federal laws enacted on or after January 1, 1987, and on or before the specified date for the taxable year, uncodified provisions that relate to provisions of the Internal Revenue Code that are incorporated for purposes of this part shall be applicable to the same taxable years as the incorporated provisions.

(3) Subtitle G (Tax Technical Corrections) and Part I of Subtitle H (Repeal of Expired or Obsolete Provisions) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-508) modified numerous provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and provisions of prior federal acts, some of which are incorporated by reference into this part. Unless otherwise provided, the provisions described in the preceding sentence, to the extent that they modify provisions that are incorporated into this part, are declaratory of existing law and shall be applied in the same manner and for the same periods as specified in the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1990.

(b) Unless otherwise specifically provided, when applying any provision of the Internal Revenue Code for purposes of this part, a reference to any of the following shall not be applicable for purposes of this part:

(1) Except as provided in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 23800) of Part 11 of Division 2, an electing small business corporation, as defined in Section 1361(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) Domestic international sales corporations (DISC), as defined in Section 992(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) A personal holding company, as defined in Section 542 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(4) A foreign personal holding company, as defined in Section 552 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(5) A foreign investment company, as defined in Section 1246(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(6) A foreign trust, as defined in Section 679 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(7) Foreign income taxes and foreign income tax credits.

(8) Section 911 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to United States citizens living abroad.

(9) A foreign corporation, except that Section 367 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be applicable.

(11) Nonresident aliens.

(12) Deduction for personal exemptions, as provided in Section 151 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(13) The tax on generation-skipping transfers imposed by Section 2601 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(14) The tax, relating to estates, imposed by Section 2001 or 2101 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) (1) The provisions contained in Sections 41 to 44, inclusive, and 172 of the Tax Reform Act of 1984 (Public Law 98-369), relating to treatment of debt instruments, shall not be applicable for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1987.

(2) The provisions contained in Public Law 99-121, relating to the treatment of debt instruments, shall not be applicable for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1987.

(3) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1987, the provisions referred to by paragraphs (1) and (2) shall be applicable for purposes of this part in the same manner and with respect to the same obligations as the federal provisions, except as otherwise provided in this part.

(d) When applying the Internal Revenue Code for purposes of this part, regulations promulgated in final form or issued as temporary regulations by "the secretary" shall be applicable as regulations under this part to the extent that they do not conflict with this part or with regulations issued by the Franchise Tax Board.

(e) Whenever this part allows a taxpayer to make an election, the following rules shall apply:

(1) A proper election filed with the Internal Revenue Service in accordance with the Internal Revenue Code or regulations issued by "the secretary" shall be deemed to be a proper election for purposes of this part, unless otherwise provided in this part or in regulations issued by the Franchise Tax Board.

(2) A copy of that election shall be furnished to the Franchise Tax Board upon request.

(3) To obtain treatment other than that elected for federal purposes, a separate election shall be filed at the time and in the manner required by the Franchise Tax Board.

(f) Whenever this part allows or requires a taxpayer to file an application or seek consent, the rules set forth in subdivision (e) shall be applicable with respect to that application or consent.

(g) When applying the Internal Revenue Code for purposes of determining the statute of limitations under this part, any reference to a period of three years shall be modified to read four years for purposes of this part.

(h) When applying, for purposes of this part, any section of the Internal Revenue Code or any applicable regulation thereunder, all of the following shall apply:

(1) References to "adjusted gross income" shall mean the amount computed in accordance with Section 17072, except as provided in paragraph (2).

(2) References to "adjusted gross income" for purposes of computing limitations based upon adjusted gross income, shall mean the amount required to be shown as adjusted gross income on the federal tax return for the same taxable year.

(3) Any reference to "subtitle" or "chapter" shall mean this part.

(4) The provisions of Section 7806 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to construction of title, shall apply.

(5) Any provision of the Internal Revenue Code that becomes operative on or after the specified date for that taxable year shall become operative on the same date for purposes of this part.

(6) Any provision of the Internal Revenue Code that becomes inoperative on or after the specified date for that taxable year shall become inoperative on the same date for purposes of this part.

(7) Due account shall be made for differences in federal and state terminology, effective dates, substitution of "Franchise Tax Board" for "secretary" when appropriate, and other obvious differences.

(i) Any reference to a specific provision of the Internal Revenue Code shall include modifications of that provision, if any, in this part.

SEC. 3. Section 17041 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17041. (a) (1) There shall be imposed for each taxable year upon the entire taxable income of every resident of this state, except the head of a household as defined in Section 17042, taxes in the following amounts and at the following rates upon the amount of taxable income:

If the taxable income is:	The tax is:
Not over $3,650	1% of the taxable income
Over $3,650 but not over $8,650	$36.50 plus 2% of the excess over $3,650

Over $8,650 but not over $13,650	$136.50 plus 4% of the excess over $8,650
Over $13,650 but not over $18,950	$336.50 plus 6% of the excess over $13,650
Over $18,950 but not over $23,950	$654.50 plus 8% of the excess over $18,950
Over $23,950	$1,054.50 plus 9.3% of the excess over $23,950

(2) (A) For any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and before January 1, 1996, the income tax brackets and rates set forth in paragraph (1) shall be modified by each of the following:

(i) For that portion of taxable income that is over one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) but not over two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000), the tax rate is 10 percent of the excess over one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).

(ii) For that portion of taxable income that is over two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000), the tax rate is 11 percent of the excess over two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000).

(B) The income tax brackets specified in this paragraph shall be recomputed, as otherwise provided in subdivision (h), only for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1992.

(b) There shall be imposed for each taxable year upon the entire taxable income of every nonresident or part-year resident which is derived from sources in this state, except the head of a household as defined in Section 17042, a tax which shall be equal to the tax computed under subdivision (a) as if the nonresident or part-year resident were a resident multiplied by the ratio of California adjusted gross income to total adjusted gross income from all sources. For purposes of computing the tax under subdivision (a) and gross income from all sources, the net operating loss deduction provided in Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 17276, shall be computed as if the taxpayer was a resident for all prior years.

(c) (1) There shall be imposed for each taxable year upon the entire taxable income of every resident of this state, when the resident is the head of a household, as defined in Section 17042, taxes in the following amounts and at the following rates upon the amount of taxable income:

If the taxable income is:	The tax is:
Not over $7,300	1% of the taxable income

Over $7,300 but not over $17,300	$73 plus 2% of the excess over $7,300
Over $17,300 but not over $22,300	$273 plus 4% of the excess over $17,300
Over $22,300 but not over $27,600	$473 plus 6% of the excess over $22,300
Over $27,600 but not over $32,600	$791 plus 8% of the excess over $27,600
Over $32,600	$1,191 plus 9.3% of the excess over $32,600

(2) (A) For any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and before January 1, 1996, the income tax brackets and rates set forth in paragraph (1) shall be modified by each of the following:

(i) For that portion of taxable income that is over one hundred thirty-six thousand one hundred fifteen dollars ($136,115) but not over two hundred seventy-two thousand two hundred thirty dollars ($272,230), the tax rate is 10 percent of the excess over one hundred thirty-six thousand one hundred fifteen dollars ($136,115).

(ii) For that portion of taxable income that is over two hundred seventy-two thousand two hundred thirty dollars ($272,230), the tax rate is 11 percent of the excess over two hundred seventy-two thousand two hundred thirty dollars ($272,230).

(B) The income tax brackets specified in this paragraph shall be recomputed, as otherwise provided in subdivision (h), only for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1992.

(d) There shall be imposed for each taxable year upon the entire taxable income of every nonresident or part-year resident which is derived from sources within this state when the nonresident or part-year resident is the head of a household, as defined in Section 17042, a tax which shall be equal to the tax computed under subdivision (c) as if the nonresident or part-year resident were a resident multiplied by the ratio of California adjusted gross income to total adjusted gross income from all sources. For purposes of computing the tax under subdivision (c) and gross income from all sources, the net operating loss deduction provided in Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Section 17276, shall be computed as if the taxpayer was a resident for all prior years.

(e) There shall be imposed for each taxable year upon the taxable income of every estate, trust, or common trust fund taxes equal to the amount computed under subdivision (a) for an individual having the same amount of taxable income.

(g) (1) Section 1 (g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain unearned income of minor children taxed as if the parent's income, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(2) Section 1(g)(7)(B)(ii)(II) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to income included on parent's return, is modified, for purposes of this part, by substituting "1 percent" for "15 percent."

(h) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1988, the Franchise Tax Board shall recompute the income tax brackets prescribed in subdivisions (a) and (c). That computation shall be made as follows:

(1) The California Department of Industrial Relations shall transmit annually to the Franchise Tax Board the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index for all items from June of the prior calendar year to June of the current calendar year, no later than August 1 of the current calendar year.

(2) The Franchise Tax Board shall do both of the following:

(A) Compute an inflation adjustment factor by adding 100 percent to the percentage change figure that is furnished pursuant to paragraph (1) and dividing the result by 100.

(B) Multiply the preceding taxable year income tax brackets by the inflation adjustment factor determined in subparagraph (A) and round off the resulting products to the nearest one dollar ($1).

(i) (1) For purposes of this section, the term "California adjusted gross income" includes each of the following:

(A) For any part of the taxable year during which the taxpayer was a resident of this state (as defined by Section 17014), all items of adjusted gross income, regardless of source.

(B) For any part of the taxable year during which the taxpayer was not a resident of this state, only those items of adjusted gross income which were derived from sources within this state, determined in accordance with Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 17951).

(2) For purposes of computing "California adjusted gross income" under paragraph (1), the amount of any net operating loss sustained in any taxable year during any part of which the taxpayer was not a resident of this state shall be limited to the sum of the following:

(A) The amount of the loss attributable to the part of the taxable year in which the taxpayer was a resident.

(B) The amount of the loss which, during the part of the taxable year the taxpayer is not a resident, is attributable to California source income and deductions allowable in arriving at adjusted gross income.

SEC. 4. Section 17052.12 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17052.12. For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1987, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined by Section 17039) for the taxable year an amount determined in accordance with Section 41 of the Internal Revenue Code, except as follows:

(a) For each taxable year beginning before January 1, 1997, the reference to "20 percent" in Section 41(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read "8 percent."

(b) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, the reference to "20 percent" in Section 41(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read "11 percent."

(c) Section 41(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to basic research payments, shall not apply.

(d) "Qualified research" shall include only research conducted in California.

(e) In the case where the credit allowed under this section exceeds the "net tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "net tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(f) Section 41(b)(3)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to amounts paid to certain research consortia, shall not apply.

(g) Section 41(c)(3)(B)(i)(I) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to startup companies, shall not apply.

(h) Section 41(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to election of alternative incremental credit, shall not apply.

(i) Section 41(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to gross receipts, is modified to take into account only those gross receipts from the sale of property held primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of the taxpayer's trade or business that is delivered or shipped to a purchaser within this state, regardless of f.o.b. point or other conditions of sale.

(j) Section 41(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to termination, shall not apply.

(k) Section 41(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to special rule for passthrough of credit, is modified by each of the following:

(1) The last sentence shall not apply.

(2) If the amount determined under Section 41(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for any taxable year exceeds the limitation of Section 41(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, that amount may be carried over to other taxable years under the rules of subdivision (e); except that the limitation of Section 41(g) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be taken into account in each subsequent taxable year.

(l) The amendments made to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall apply only to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 5. Section 17054 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17054. In the case of individuals, the following credits for personal exemption may be deducted from the tax imposed under Section 17041 or 17048, less any increases imposed under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) or paragraph (1) of subdivision (e), or both, of Section 17560.

(a) In the case of a single individual, a head of household, or a married individual making a separate return, a credit of fifty-one dollars ($51) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, and fifty-two dollars ($52) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988.

(b) In the case of a surviving spouse (as defined in Section 17046), or a husband and wife making a joint return, a credit of one hundred two dollars ($102) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, and one hundred four dollars ($104) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988. If one spouse was a resident for the entire taxable year and the other spouse was a nonresident for all or any portion of the taxable year, the personal exemption shall be divided equally.

(c) In addition to any other credit provided in this section, in the case of an individual who is 65 years of age or over by the end of the taxable year, a credit of fifty-one dollars ($51) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, and fifty-two dollars ($52) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988.

(d) (1) A credit of fifty-one dollars ($51) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, and fifty-two dollars ($52) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988, for each dependent (as defined in Section 17056) for whom an exemption is allowable under Section 151(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to additional exemption for dependents.

(2) The credit allowed under paragraph (1) shall not be denied on the basis that the identification number of the dependent, as defined in Section 17056, for whom an exemption is allowable under Section 151(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to additional exemption for dependents, is not included on the return claiming the credit.

(e) A credit for personal exemption of fifty-one dollars ($51) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, and fifty-two dollars ($52) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988, for the taxpayer if he or she is blind at the end of his or her taxable year.

(f) A credit for personal exemption of fifty-one dollars ($51) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, and fifty-two dollars ($52) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988, for the spouse of the taxpayer if a separate return is made by the taxpayer, and if the spouse is blind and, for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins, has no gross income and is not the dependent of another taxpayer.

(g) For the purposes of this section, an individual is blind only if either: his or her central visual acuity does not exceed 20/200 in the better eye with correcting lenses, or his or her visual acuity is greater than 20/200 but is accompanied by a limitation in the fields of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than 20 degrees.

(h) In the case of an individual with respect to whom a credit under this section is allowable to another taxpayer for a taxable year beginning in the calendar year in which the individual's taxable year begins, the credit amount applicable to that individual for that individual's taxable year shall be zero.

(i) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1989, the Franchise Tax Board shall compute the credits prescribed in this section. That computation shall be made as follows:

(1) The California Department of Industrial Relations shall transmit annually to the Franchise Tax Board the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index as modified for rental equivalent homeownership for all items from June of the prior calendar year to June of the current calendar year, no later than August 1 of the current calendar year.

(2) The Franchise Tax Board shall add 100 percent to the percentage change figure which is furnished to them pursuant to paragraph (1), and divide the result by 100.

(3) The Franchise Tax Board shall multiply the immediately preceding taxable year credits by the inflation adjustment factor determined in paragraph (2), and round off the resulting products to the nearest one dollar ($1).

(4) In computing the credits pursuant to this subdivision, the credit provided in subdivision (b) shall be twice the credit provided in subdivision (a).

(j) The amendments made to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall be applied only in the computation of taxes for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1990.

SEC. 6. Section 17062 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17062. (a) In addition to the other taxes imposed by this part, there is hereby imposed for each taxable year, a tax equal to the excess, if any, of—

(1) The tentative minimum tax for the taxable year, over

(2) The regular tax for the taxable year.

(b) For purposes of this chapter, each of the following shall apply:

(1) The tentative minimum tax shall be computed in accordance with Sections 55 to 59, inclusive, of the Internal Revenue Code, except as otherwise provided in this part.

(2) The regular tax shall be the amount of tax imposed by Section 17041 or 17048, before reduction for any credits against the tax, less any amount imposed under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) and paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 17560.

(3) (A) The provisions of Section 55(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified to provide that the tentative minimum tax for the taxable year shall be equal to the following percent of so much of the alternative minimum taxable income for the taxable year as exceeds the exemption amount, before reduction for any credits against the tax:

(i) For any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and before January 1, 1996, 8.5 percent.

(ii) For any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1996, 7 percent.

(B) In the case of a nonresident or part-year resident, the tentative minimum tax shall be computed as if the nonresident or part-year resident were a resident for the entire year multiplied by the ratio of California adjusted gross income (as modified for purposes of this chapter) to total adjusted gross income from all sources (as modified for purposes of this chapter). For purposes of computing the tax under subparagraph (A) and gross income from all sources, the net operating loss deduction provided in Section 56(d) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be computed as if the taxpayer were a resident for all prior years.

(C) For purposes of this section, the term "California adjusted gross income" includes each of the following:

(i) For any period during which the taxpayer was a resident of this state (as defined by Section 17014), all items of adjusted gross income (as modified for purposes of this chapter), regardless of source.

(ii) For any period during which the taxpayer was not a resident of this state, only those items of adjusted gross income (as modified for purposes of this chapter) which were derived from sources within this state, determined in accordance with Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 17951).

(4) The provisions of Section 55(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to alternative minimum taxable income, shall be modified to provide that alternative minimum taxable income shall not include the income, adjustments, and items of tax preference attributable to any trade or business of a qualified taxpayer.

(A) For purposes of this paragraph, "qualified taxpayer" means a taxpayer who meets both of the following:

(i) Is the owner of, or has an ownership interest in, a trade or business.

(ii) Has aggregate gross receipts, less returns and allowances, of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) during the taxable year from all trades or businesses of which the taxpayer is the owner or has an ownership interest, in the amount of that taxpayer's proportionate interest in each trade or business.

(B) (i) For purposes of this paragraph, "proportionate interest" includes an interest in a passthrough entity.

(ii) For purposes of this paragraph, "passthrough entity" means any of the following:

(I) A partnership, as defined by Section 17008.

(II) An S corporation, as provided in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 23800) of Part 11.

(III) A regulated investment company, as provided in Section 24871.

(IV) A real estate investment trust, as provided in Section 24872.

(V) A real estate mortgage investment conduit, as provided in Section 24874.

(c) Section 56(b)(1)(E) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to standard deduction and deduction for personal exemptions not allowed, is modified, for purposes of this part, to deny the standard deduction allowed by Section 17073.5.

(d) The provisions of Section 57(a)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax-exempt interest shall not apply.

(e) (1) Section 57(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to items of tax preference, is modified to include as an item of tax preference the amount by which the deduction allowable under Section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to charitable contributions or gifts, or Section 642(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to deduction for amounts paid or permanently set aside for a charitable purpose, would be reduced if all capital gain property were taken into account at its adjusted basis.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the term "capital gain property" has the meaning given to that term by Section 170(b)(1)(C)(iv) of the Internal Revenue Code. That term shall not include any property to which an election under Section 170(b)(1)(C)(iii) of the Internal Revenue Code applies.

(f) Section 57(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to items of tax preference, is modified to include as an item of tax preference an amount equal to one-half of the amount excluded from gross income for the taxable year under Section 18152.5.

(g) The provisions of Section 59(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the alternative minimum tax foreign tax credit, shall not apply.

SEC. 6.5. Section 17062 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17062. (a) In addition to the other taxes imposed by this part, there is hereby imposed for each taxable year, a tax equal to the excess, if any, of—

(1) The tentative minimum tax for the taxable year, over

(2) The regular tax for the taxable year.

(b) For purposes of this chapter, each of the following shall apply:

(1) The tentative minimum tax shall be computed in accordance with Sections 55 to 59, inclusive, of the Internal Revenue Code, except as otherwise provided in this part.

(2) The regular tax shall be the amount of tax imposed by Section 17041 or 17048, before reduction for any credits against the tax, less any amount imposed under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) and paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 17560.

(3) (A) The provisions of Section 55(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified to provide that the tentative minimum tax for the taxable year shall be equal to the following percent of so much of the alternative minimum taxable income for the taxable year as exceeds the exemption amount, before reduction for any credits against the tax:

(i) For any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and before January 1, 1996, 8.5 percent.

(ii) For any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1996, 7 percent.

(B) In the case of a nonresident or part-year resident, the tentative minimum tax shall be computed as if the nonresident or part-year resident were a resident for the entire year multiplied by the ratio of California adjusted gross income (as modified for purposes of this chapter) to total adjusted gross income from all sources (as modified for purposes of this chapter). For purposes of computing the tax under subparagraph (A) and gross income from all sources, the net operating loss deduction provided in Section 56(d) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be computed as if the taxpayer were a resident for all prior years.

(C) For purposes of this section, the term "California adjusted gross income" includes each of the following:

(i) For any period during which the taxpayer was a resident of this state (as defined by Section 17014), all items of adjusted gross income (as modified for purposes of this chapter), regardless of source.

(ii) For any period during which the taxpayer was not a resident of this state, only those items of adjusted gross income (as modified for purposes of this chapter) which were derived from sources within this state, determined in accordance with Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 17951).

(4) The provisions of Section 55(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to alternative minimum taxable income, shall be modified to provide that alternative minimum taxable income shall not include the income, adjustments, and items of tax preference attributable to any trade or business of a qualified taxpayer.

(A) For purposes of this paragraph, "qualified taxpayer" means a taxpayer who meets both of the following:

(i) Is the owner of, or has an ownership interest in, a trade or business.

(ii) Has aggregate gross receipts, less returns and allowances, of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) during the taxable year from all trades or businesses of which the taxpayer is the owner or has an ownership interest, in the amount of that taxpayer's proportionate interest in each trade or business.

(B) For purposes of this paragraph, "aggregate gross receipts, less returns and allowances" means the sum of the gross receipts of the trades or businesses which the taxpayer owns and the proportionate interest of the gross receipts of the trades or businesses which the taxpayer owns and of passthrough entities in which the taxpayer holds an interest.

(C) For purposes of this paragraph, "gross receipts, less returns and allowances" means the sum of the gross receipts from the production of business income, as defined in subdivision (a) of Section 25120, and the gross receipts from the production of nonbusiness income, as defined in subdivision (d) of Section 25120.

(D) For purposes of this paragraph, "proportionate interest" means:

(i) In the case of a passthrough entity which reports a profit for the taxable or income year, the taxpayer's profit interest in the entity at the end of the taxpayer's taxable year.

(ii) In the case of a passthrough entity which reports a loss for the taxable or income year, the taxpayer's loss interest in the entity at the end of the taxpayer's taxable year.

(iii) In the case of a passthrough entity which is sold or liquidates during the taxable or income year, the taxpayer's capital account interest in the entity at the time of the sale or liquidation.

(E) (i) For purposes of this paragraph, "proportionate interest" includes an interest in a passthrough entity.

(ii) For purposes of this paragraph, "passthrough entity" means any of the following:

(I) A partnership, as defined by Section 17008.

(II) An S corporation, as provided in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 23800) of Part 11.

(III) A regulated investment company, as provided in Section 24871.

(IV) A real estate investment trust, as provided in Section 24872.

(V) A real estate mortgage investment conduit, as provided in Section 24874.

(c) (1) Section 56(b)(1)(E) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to standard deduction and deduction for personal exemptions not allowed, is modified, for purposes of this part, to deny the standard deduction allowed by Section 17073.5.

(2) Section 56(b)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to treatment of incentive stock options, shall be modified to additionally provide the following:

(A) Section 421 of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply to the transfer of stock acquired pursuant to the exercise of a California qualified stock option under Section 17502.

(B) Section 422(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply in any case where the disposition and inclusion of a California qualified stock option for purposes of this chapter are within the same taxable year and that section shall not apply in any other case.

(C) The adjusted basis of any stock acquired by the exercise of a California qualified stock option shall be determined on the basis of the treatment prescribed by this paragraph.

(d) The provisions of Section 57(a)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax-exempt interest shall not apply.

(e) (1) Section 57(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to items of tax preference, is modified to include as an item of tax preference the amount by which the deduction allowable under Section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to charitable contributions or gifts, or Section 642(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to deduction for amounts paid or permanently set aside for a charitable purpose, would be reduced if all capital gain property were taken into account at its adjusted basis.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the term "capital gain property" has the meaning given to that term by Section 170(b)(1)(C)(iv) of the Internal Revenue Code. That term shall not include any property to which an election under Section 170(b)(1)(C)(iii) of the Internal Revenue Code applies.

(f) Section 57(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to items of tax preference, is modified to include as an item of tax preference an amount equal to one-half of the amount excluded from gross income for the taxable year under Section 18152.5.

(g) The provisions of Section 59(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the alternative minimum tax foreign tax credit, shall not apply.

SEC. 7. Section 17063 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17063. (a) There shall be allowed as a credit against the net tax (as defined by Section 17039) for any taxable year an amount equal to the minimum tax credit for that taxable year.

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a), the minimum tax credit shall be determined in accordance with Section 53 of the Internal Revenue Code, except as otherwise provided in this part.

(c) For purposes of this chapter, the amount determined under Section 53(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be the regular tax as defined by paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of Section 17062, reduced by the sum of the credits allowable under this part, other than:

(1) The credits described in paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 17039.

(2) That portion of any credit which reduces the tax below the tentative minimum tax as provided in paragraph (1) of subdivision (c) of Section 17039.

(d) Section 53(d)(1)(B)(ii)(II) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to credit not allowed for exclusion preferences, is modified to include subdivision (f) of Section 17062, as a specified item.

(e) Section 53(d)(1)(B)(ii)(II) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to credit not allowed for exclusion preferences, is modified to include subdivision (e) of Section 17062, as a specified item.

SEC. 8. Section 17072 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17072. (a) Section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to adjusted gross income defined, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(b) The amendments to Section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code, made by Section 13213 of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to modifications to deduction for moving expenses, shall apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1996.

SEC. 9. Section 17077 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17077. The provisions of Section 68 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to overall limitation on itemized deductions, shall apply with the following modifications:

(a) "Six percent" shall be substituted for "3 percent" in Section 68(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) For purposes of this section, "applicable amount" means one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) in the case of a single individual or a married individual making a separate return, one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) in the case of a head of household, and two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) in the case of a surviving spouse or a husband and wife making a joint return.

(c) Section 68(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to inflation adjustments, shall not apply. However, for any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, the applicable amounts specified in subdivision (b) shall be recomputed annually in the same manner as the recomputation of income tax brackets under subdivision (h) of Section 17041.

SEC. 10. Section 17085 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17085. The provisions of Section 72 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to annuities and certain proceeds of life insurance contracts, shall be modified as follows:

(a) The amendments and transitional rules made by Public Law 99-514 shall be applicable to this part for the same transactions and the same years as they are applicable for federal purposes, except that the repeal of Section 72(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to repeal of special rule for employees' annuities, shall apply only to the following:

(1) Any individual whose annuity starting date is after December 31, 1986.

(2) At the election of the taxpayer, any individual whose annuity starting date is after July 1, 1986, and before January 1, 1987.

(b) The amount of a distribution from an individual retirement account or annuity or employees' trust or employee annuity that is includable in gross income for federal purposes shall be reduced for purposes of this part by the lesser of either of the following:

(1) An amount equal to the amount includable in federal gross income for the taxable year.

(2) An amount equal to the basis in the account or annuity allowed by Section 17507 (relating to individual retirement accounts and simplified employee pensions) or the increased basis allowed by Sections 17504 and 17506 (relating to plans of self-employed individuals) remaining after adjustment for reductions in gross income under this provision in prior taxable years.

(c) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), the amount of the penalty imposed under this part shall be computed in accordance with Sections 72(m), (q), (t), and (v) of the Internal Revenue Code using a rate of $2^1/_2$ percent, in lieu of the rate provided in those sections.

(2) In the case where Section 72(t)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to special rules for simple retirement accounts, applies, the rate in paragraph (1) shall be 6 percent in lieu of the $2^1/_2$ percent rate specified therein.

(d) The provisions of Section 72(f)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to special rules for computing employees' contributions, shall be applicable without applying the exceptions which immediately follow that paragraph.

SEC. 11. Section 17088 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17088. (a) Subchapter M of Chapter 1 of Subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts, real estate mortgage investment conduits, and financial asset securitization investment trusts, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(b) Section 17145, relating to exempt interest dividends, shall apply in lieu of Section 852(b)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) Section 852(b)(3)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to treatment by shareholders of undistributed capital gains, shall not apply.

SEC. 12. Section 17088.3 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17088.3. (a) Section 7518 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax incentives relating to merchant marine capital construction funds, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(b) Section 7518(d)(2)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified as follows:

(1) By substituting "70 percent" in lieu of the reference to "the percentage applicable under Section 243(a)(1)."

(2) To refer to Section 24402 in lieu of Section 243 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) Section 7518(d)(2)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to refer to "interest income exempt from taxation under this part" in lieu of "interest income exempt from taxation under Section 103."

(d) Section 7518(g)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified as follows:

(1) To refer to Article 6 (commencing with Section 19101) of Chapter 4 of Part 10.2 in lieu of Section 6601 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) To refer to Article 7 (commencing with Section 19131) of Chapter 4 of Part 10.2 in lieu of Section 6651 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(e) Section 7518(g)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified as follows:

(1) By substituting a reference to "this part" in lieu of "Chapter 1" in each place in which it appears.

(2) To refer to Section 17041 in lieu of Section 1 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) The last sentence in Section 7518(g)(6)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply.

SEC. 13. Section 17131.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 14. Section 17132 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 14.5. Section 17132.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code to read:

17132.5. Section 101 of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to provide that the repeal of former Section 101(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to employee's death benefits, shall apply only with respect to amounts received on or after January 1, 1997, with respect to decedents dying on or after August 21, 1996.

17154. Section 132(j)(8) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to application of section to otherwise taxable educational or training benefits, is modified by substituting "which are not excludable under Section 17151" in lieu of "which are not excludable under Section 127".

SEC. 21. Section 17201.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 22. Section 17210 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 23. Section 17213 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 24. Section 17215 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17215. (a) Section 220(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to deduction allowed, is modified to provide that the amount allowed as a deduction shall be an amount equal to the amount allowed to that individual as a deduction under Section 220 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to medical savings accounts, on the federal income tax return filed for the same taxable year by that individual.

(b) Section 220(f)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to additional tax on distributions not used for qualified medical expenses, is modified by substituting "10 percent" in lieu of "15 percent."

SEC. 25. Section 17249 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 26. Section 17250 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17250. (a) (1) Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the accelerated cost recovery system, shall apply to assets placed in service on or after January 1, 1987, in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987.

(2) In the case of assets placed in service on or after January 1, 1987, in taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1987, a taxpayer may elect to have Sections 168 and 179 of the Internal Revenue Code apply by doing all of the following:

(A) Making an election on the return for the first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1987.

(B) Establishing a depreciation adjustment account for each asset (or group of assets) in an amount equal to the difference between the depreciation allowed on the federal return for each asset (or group of assets) and the depreciation allowed under this part.

(C) The depreciation adjustment account (or accounts) established under subparagraph (B) shall be amortized over 60 months beginning with the first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1987.

(3) In the case of assets placed in service prior to January 1, 1987, in taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1987, Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply only to residential rental property as provided by former Section 17250.5 (as amended by Chapter 1461 of the Statutes of 1985).

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a), any reference to "tax imposed by this chapter" in Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code means "net tax," as defined in Section 17039.

(c) For purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) Section 168(e)(3) shall be modified to provide that any grapevine, replaced in a vineyard in California in any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, as a direct result of a phylloxera infestation in that vineyard, shall be "five-year property," rather than "10-year property."

(2) Section 168(g)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified to provide that any grapevine, replaced in a vineyard in California in any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, as a direct result of a phylloxera infestation in that vineyard, shall have a class life of 10 years.

(d) Every taxpayer claiming a depreciation deduction with respect to grapevines as described in subdivision (c) shall obtain a written certification from an independent state-certified integrated pest management advisor, or a state agricultural commissioner or advisor, that specifies that the replanting was necessary to restore a vineyard infested with phylloxera. The taxpayer shall retain the certification for future audit purposes.

(e) (1) Section 169 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to amortization of pollution control facilities, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(2) The deduction allowed by this section shall be available only with respect to facilities located in this state.

(3) The "state certifying authority," as defined in Section 169(d)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, means the State Air Resources Board, in the case of air pollution, and the State Water Resources Control Board, in the case of water pollution.

(f) For property used in a trade or business, or held for production of income, there shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction a reasonable allowance for the cost of a solar energy system and allowable conservation measures over a 60-month period for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1987.

(g) Section 7622(c)[e] of Public Law 101-239, relating to the effective date of changes in treatment of transfers of franchises, trademarks, and trade names, shall apply.

(h) Section 7645(b) of Public Law 101-239, relating to the effective date of disallowance of depreciation for certain term interests, shall apply.

(i) The amendments to Section 168(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code made by Section 13151 of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to increase in recovery period for nonresidential real property, shall apply to property placed in service on or after January 1, 1997, in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

(j) Section 168(j) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to property on Indian reservations, shall not apply.

SEC. 26.5. Section 17250 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17250. (a) (1) Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the accelerated cost recovery system, shall apply to assets placed in service on or after January 1, 1987, in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987.

(2) In the case of assets placed in service on or after January 1, 1987, in taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1987, a taxpayer may elect to have Sections 168 and 179 of the Internal Revenue Code apply by doing all of the following:

(A) Making an election on the return for the first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1987.

(B) Establishing a depreciation adjustment account for each asset (or group of assets) in an amount equal to the difference between the depreciation allowed on the federal return for each asset (or group of assets) and the depreciation allowed under this part.

(C) The depreciation adjustment account (or accounts) established under subparagraph (B) shall be amortized over 60 months beginning with the first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1987.

(3) In the case of assets placed in service prior to January 1, 1987, in taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1987, Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply only to residential rental property as provided by former Section 17250.5 (as amended by Chapter 1461 of the Statutes of 1985).

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a), any reference to "tax imposed by this chapter" in Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code means "net tax," as defined in Section 17039.

(c) For purposes of paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified as follows:

(1) Section 168(e)(3) shall be modified to provide that any grapevine, replaced in a vineyard in California in any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, as a direct result of a phylloxera infestation in that vineyard, or replaced in a vineyard in California in any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, as a direct result of Pierce's Disease in that vineyard, shall be "five-year property," rather than "10-year property."

(2) Section 168(g)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified to provide that any grapevine, replaced in a vineyard in California in any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, as a direct result of a phylloxera infestation in that vineyard, or replaced in a vineyard in California in any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, as a direct result of Pierce's Disease in that vineyard, shall have a class life of 10 years.

(d) Every taxpayer claiming a depreciation deduction with respect to grapevines as described in subdivision (c) shall obtain a written certification from an independent state-certified integrated pest management adviser, or a state agricultural commissioner or adviser, that specifies that the replanting was necessary to restore a vineyard infested with phylloxera or Pierce's Disease. The taxpayer shall retain the certification for future audit purposes.

(e) (1) Section 169 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to amortization of pollution control facilities, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(2) The deduction allowed by this section shall be available only with respect to facilities located in this state.

(3) The "state certifying authority," as defined in Section 169(d)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, means the State Air Resources Board, in the case of air pollution, and the State Water Resources Control Board, in the case of water pollution.

(f) For property used in a trade or business, or held for production of income, there shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction a reasonable allowance for the cost of a solar energy system and allowable conservation measures over a 60-month period for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1987.

(g) Section 7622(c)[e] of Public Law 101-239, relating to the effective date of changes in treatment of transfers of franchises, trademarks, and trade names, shall apply.

(h) Section 7645(b) of Public Law 101-239, relating to the effective date of disallowance of depreciation for certain term interests, shall apply.

(i) The amendments to Section 168(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code made by Section 13151 of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to increase in recovery period for nonresidential real property, shall apply to property placed in service on or after January 1, 1997, in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

(j) Section 168(j) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to property on Indian reservations, shall not apply.

SEC. 29.5. Section 17255 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code to read:

17255. (a) Section 179(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to dollar limitation, is modified to provide that, if the taxable year begins in 1997, the applicable amount is thirteen thousand dollars ($13,000) in lieu of eighteen thousand dollars ($18,000), and if the taxable year begins in 1998, the applicable amount is sixteen thousand dollars ($16,000) in lieu of eighteen thousand five hundred dollars ($18,500).

(b) Section 179 of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to provide that the "aggregate amount disallowed" referred to in Section 179(b)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be computed under this part as it read on the date the property generating the amount disallowed was placed in service.

SEC. 30. Section 17267 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 31. Section 17270.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17270.5. (a) (1) The deduction allowed by Section 162(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to trade or business expenses, shall include all the ordinary and necessary expenses, including, but not limited to, traveling expenses described in Section 162(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code and the cost of preparing testimony, paid or incurred during the taxable year in carrying on any trade or business for any of the following:

(A) In direct connection with appearances before, submission of statements to, or sending communications to, the committees, or individual members, of Congress or of any legislative body of a state, a possession of the United States, or a political subdivision of any of the foregoing with respect to legislation or proposed legislation of direct interest to the taxpayer.

(B) In direct connection with communication of information between the taxpayer and an organization of which the taxpayer is a member with respect to legislation or proposed legislation of direct interest to the taxpayer and to that organization.

(C) That portion of the dues so paid or incurred with respect to any organization of which the taxpayer is a member which is attributable to the expenses of the activities described in subparagraphs (A) and (B) carried on by that organization.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not be construed as allowing the deduction of any amount paid or incurred, whether by way of contribution, gift, or otherwise, with respect to either of the following:

(A) For participation in, or intervention in, any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

(B) In connection with any attempt to influence the general public, or segments thereof, with respect to legislative matters, elections, or referendums.

(b) Section 162(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the denial of deduction for certain lobbying and political expenditures shall not apply.

SEC. 32. Section 17271 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 33. Section 17271 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17271. Section 274(a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to denial of deduction for club dues, shall not apply.

17273. Section 162(l)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to applicable percentage, is modified by substituting "25 percent" for the percentages specified in that section.

SEC. 35. Section 17275.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17275.5. (a) No deduction shall be denied under Section 170(f)(8) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to substantiation requirement for certain contributions, upon a showing that the requirements in Section 170(f)(8) of the Internal Revenue Code have been met with respect to that contribution for federal purposes.

(b) Section 170(f)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to denial of deduction where contribution for lobbying activities, shall not apply.

SEC. 36. Section 17278.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17278.5. The deduction allowed by Section 194 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to amortization of reforestation expenditures, shall be available only with respect to qualified timber property located in this state.

SEC. 37. Section 17279 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17279. Section 197 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to amortization of goodwill and certain other intangibles, is modified as follows:

(a) (1) Section 13261(g) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to effective dates, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(2) (A) If a taxpayer has, at any time, made an election for federal purposes under Section 13261(g)(2) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to election to have amendments apply to property acquired after July 25, 1991, or Section 13261(g)(3) of that act, relating to elective binding contract exception, a separate election for state purposes shall not be allowed under paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 17024.5 and the federal election shall be binding for purposes of this part.

(B) If a taxpayer has not made an election for federal purposes under Section 13261(g)(2) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to election to have amendments apply to property acquired after July 25, 1991, or Section 13261(g)(3) of that act, relating to elective binding contract exception, with respect to property acquired before August 11, 1993, then the taxpayer shall not be allowed to make an election under Section 13261(g) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), for purposes of this part, with respect to that property.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, each of the following shall apply:

(1) No deduction shall be allowed under this section for any taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1994.

(2) No inference is intended with respect to the allowance or denial of any deduction for amortization in any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1994.

(3) In the case of an intangible that was acquired in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1994, the amount to be amortized shall not exceed the adjusted basis of that intangible as of the first day of the first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1994, and that amount shall be amortized ratably over the period beginning with the first month of the first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1994, and ending 15 years after the month in which the intangible was acquired.

SEC. 38. Section 17283 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 39. Section 17507 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17507. The provisions of Section 408 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to individual retirement accounts, shall be modified as follows:

(a) The following provisions shall be incorporated into Section 408(e) of the Internal Revenue Code:

(1) In the case of a plan in existence in taxable year 1975 where contributions were made pursuant to, and in conformance with, Section 408 or 409 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-406), any net income attributable to the 1975 contribution shall not be includable in the gross income, for taxable year 1977 or succeeding taxable years, of the individual for whose benefit the plan was established until distributed pursuant to the provisions of the plan or by operation of law.

(2) In the case of a simplified employee pension, where contributions are also made pursuant to, and in conformance with, the provisions of Section 408(k) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, the net income attributable to the nondeductible portion of those contributions shall not be includable in the gross income of the individual for whose benefit the plan was established for the taxable year or for succeeding taxable years until distributed pursuant to the provisions of the plan or by operation of law.

(3) Notwithstanding the limitations provided in former Section 17272 (as amended by Chapter 1461 of the Statutes of 1985) with respect to the amount of deductible contributions and individuals eligible for the deduction, any income attributable to contributions made to a plan in existence in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1982, in conformance with Sections 219, 220, 408, and 409 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, shall not be includable in the gross income of the individual for whose benefit the plan was established until distributed pursuant to the provisions of the plan or by operation of law.

(b) The provisions of Section 408(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the tax treatment of distributions, are modified as follows:

(1) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1982, and before January 1, 1987, the basis of any person in the account or annuity is the amount of contributions not allowed as a deduction under former subdivision (a), (e), or (g) of Section 17272 (as amended by Chapter 1461 of the Statutes of 1985) on account of the purchase of the account or annuity.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the rules for recovery of basis shall be governed by Section 17085.

(c) A copy of the report, which is required to be filed with the Secretary of the Treasury under Section 408(i) or 408(l) of the Internal Revenue Code, shall be filed with the Franchise Tax Board at the same time and in the same manner as specified in those sections.

SEC. 40. Section 17561 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17561. (a) Section 469(c)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to special rules for taxpayers in real property business, shall not apply.

(b) Section 469(d)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to passive activity credits, is modified to refer to the following credits:

(1) The credit for research expenses allowed by Section 17052.12.

(2) The credit for certain wages paid (targeted jobs) allowed by Section 17053.7.

(3) The credit for clinical testing expenses allowed by Section 17057.

(4) The credit for low-income housing allowed by Section 17058.

(c) Section 469(g)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to provide that if all gain or loss realized on the disposition of the taxpayer's entire interest in any passive activity (or former passive activity) is recognized, the excess of—

(1) The sum of—

(A) Any loss from that activity for that taxable year (determined after application of Section 469(b) of the Internal Revenue Code), plus

(B) Any loss realized on that disposition, over

(2) Net income or gain for the taxable year from all passive activities (determined without regard to losses described in paragraph (1)), shall be treated as a loss which is not from a passive activity.

(d) For purposes of applying the provisions of Section 469(i) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) offset for rental real estate activities, the dollar limitation for the credit allowed under Section 17058 (relating to low-income housing) shall be equal to seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) in lieu of the amount specified in Section 469(i)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(e) Section 502 of the Tax Reform Act of 1986 (Public Law 99-514) shall apply.

(f) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, the provisions of Section 10212 of Public Law 100-203, relating to treatment of publicly traded partnerships under Section 469 of the Internal Revenue Code, shall be applicable.

(b) Any reference in the Internal Revenue Code to the "exclusion allowed under Section 1202" shall, for purposes of this part, be modified to refer to the exclusion allowed under Section 18152.5.

SEC. 50. Section 18166 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 51. Section 18173 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 52. Section 18180 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18180. Section 7872 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the treatment of loans with below market interest rates, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

SEC. 53. Section 18601 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18601. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b) or (c), every taxpayer subject to the tax imposed by Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001) shall, within two months and 15 days after the close of its income year, transmit to the Franchise Tax Board a return in a form prescribed by it, specifying for the income year, all the facts as it may by rule, or otherwise, require in order to carry out this part. A tax return, disclosing net income for any income year, filed pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101) or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501) of Part 11 shall be deemed filed pursuant to the proper chapter of Part 11 for the same income period, if the chapter under which the return is filed is determined erroneous.

(b) In the case of cooperative associations described in Section 24404, returns shall be filed on or before the 15th day of the ninth month following the close of its income year.

(c) In the case of taxpayers required to file a return for a short period under Section 24634, the due date for the short period return shall be the same as the due date of the federal tax return that includes the net income of the taxpayer for that short period, or the due date specified in subdivision (a) if no federal return is required to be filed that would include the net income for that short period.

(d) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, each "S corporation" required to file a return under subdivision (a) for any income year shall, on or before the day on which the return for the income year was filed, furnish each person who is a shareholder at any time during the income year a copy of the information shown on the return.

(e) For taxable or income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997:

(1) A shareholder of an "S corporation" shall, on the shareholder's return, treat a Subchapter S item in a manner that is consistent with the treatment of the item on the corporate return.

(2) (A) In the case of any Subchapter S item, paragraph (1) shall not apply to that item if both of the following occur:

(i) Either of the following occurs:

(I) The corporation has filed a return, but the shareholder's treatment of the item on the shareholder's return is, or may be, inconsistent with the treatment of the item on the corporate return.

(II) The corporation has not filed a return.

(ii) The shareholder files with the Franchise Tax Board a statement identifying the inconsistency.

(B) A shareholder shall be treated as having complied with clause (ii) of subparagraph (A) with respect to a Subchapter S item if the shareholder does both of the following:

(i) Demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Franchise Tax Board that the treatment of the Subchapter S item on the shareholder's return is consistent with the treatment of the item on the schedule furnished to the shareholder by the corporation.

(ii) Elects to have this paragraph apply with respect to that item.

(3) In any case described in subclause (I) of clause (i) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2), and in which the shareholder does not comply with clause (ii) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph

(2), any adjustment required to make the treatment of the items by the shareholder consistent with the treatment of the items on the corporate return shall be treated as arising out of a mathematical error and assessed and collected under Section 19051.

(4) For purposes of this subdivision, "Subchapter S item" means any item of an "S corporation" to the extent provided by regulations that, for purposes of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or this part, the item is more appropriately determined at the corporation level than at the shareholder level.

(5) The penalties imposed under Article 7 (commencing with Section 19131) of Chapter 4 shall apply in the case of a shareholder's negligence in connection with, or disregard of, the requirements of this section.

SEC. 54. Section 18624 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18624. (a) Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to identifying numbers, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(b) Identifying numbers shall be required on state tax returns, statements, or other documents in the form and manner as the Franchise Tax Board may require.

(c) Section 6109(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to identifying information required with respect to certain seller-provided financing, shall not apply.

SEC. 55. Section 18645 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18645. (a) The Franchise Tax Board may require a copy of the federal information return to be filed with the Franchise Tax Board if a federal information return was required under any of the following:

(1) Section 6039C of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to returns with respect to foreign persons holding direct investments in United States real property interests, if that person holds a direct investment in a California real property interest as defined in Section 18662.

(2) Section 6050H of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to mortgage interest received in trade or business from individuals.

(3) Section 6050J of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to foreclosures and abandonments of security.

(4) Section 6050K of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to exchanges of certain partnership interests.

(5) Section 6050L of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain dispositions of donated property.

(6) Section 6050N of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to returns regarding payments of royalties.

(7) Section 6050P of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to returns relating to the cancellation of indebtedness by certain financial entities.

(8) Section 6050Q of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain long-term care benefits.

(9) Section 6050R of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to returns relating to certain purchases of fish.

(b) Every person required to make a return under subdivision (a) shall also furnish a statement to each person whose name is required to be set forth in the return, as required to do so by the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) A transferor of a partnership interest shall be required to notify the partnership of that exchange in accordance with Section 6050K(c) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(d) The Franchise Tax Board shall require a copy of the federal information return to be filed with the Franchise Tax Board if a federal information return was required under Section 6050I(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to cash received in trade or business. Section 6050I(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to cash received by criminal court clerks, shall not apply.

(e) (1) The Attorney General shall, upon court order following a showing ex parte to a magistrate of an articulable suspicion that an individual or entity has committed a felony offense to which a federal information return is related, be provided a copy of a federal information return filed with the Franchise Tax Board under subdivision (d). The Attorney General may make a return or information therefrom available to a district attorney subject to regulations promulgated by the Attorney General. The regulations shall require the district attorney seeking the return or information to specify in writing the specific reasons for believing that a felony offense has been committed to which the return or information is related.

(2) Any information or return obtained by the Attorney General or a district attorney pursuant to this section shall be confidential and used only for investigative or prosecutorial purposes.

SEC. 56. Section 18648.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

18648.5. (a) Section 6115 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to disclosure related to quid pro quo contributions, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(b) The requirements of subdivision (a) shall be treated as being satisfied upon a showing that the requirements in Section 6115 of the Internal Revenue Code have been met with respect to that contribution for federal purposes.

(c) The provisions of this section shall apply to quid pro quo contributions made on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 56.5. Section 19136.2 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

19136.2. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, and before January 1, 1999, Section 6654(d)(1)(C)(i) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to limitation on use of preceding year's tax, shall not apply.

SEC. 57. Section 19136.3 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

19136.3. (a) No addition to tax shall be made under Section 19136 for any period before April 16, 1998, with respect to any underpayment of an installment for the 1997 taxable year, to the extent that the underpayment was created or increased by any provision of the act adding this section.

(b) No addition to tax shall be made under Section 19142 for any period before April 16, 1998, with respect to any underpayment of an installment for the 1997 income year, to the extent that the underpayment was created or increased by any provision of the act adding this section.

(c) The Franchise Tax Board shall adopt procedures, forms, and instructions necessary to implement this section in a reasonable manner.

SEC. 58. Section 19141.2 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

19141.2. (a) Section 6038 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to information with respect to certain foreign corporations, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(b) Section 6038(a) is modified as follows:

(1) The information required to be filed with the Franchise Tax Board under this section shall be a copy of the information required to be filed with the Internal Revenue Service.

(2) The term "United States person," as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Internal Revenue Code, shall be limited to a domestic corporation, as defined in Section 7701(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, or a bank, as defined in Section 23039, that is subject to the tax imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101), Chapter 2.5 (commencing with Section 23400), or Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501), of Part 11.

(c) (1) Unless it is shown that the failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, a penalty shall be imposed under this part for failure to furnish information and that penalty shall be determined in accordance with Section 6038 of the Internal Revenue Code, except as otherwise provided.

(2) No penalty shall be imposed under paragraph (1) if the copy of the information required to be filed with the Internal Revenue Service was not attached to the taxpayer's return as originally filed but the taxpayer does both of the following:

(A) Furnishes the copy of the information required to be filed with the Internal Revenue Service either upon its own initiative or within 90 days of notification by the Franchise Tax Board of the requirements of this section.

(B) Agrees to attach a copy of the information required to be filed with the Internal Revenue Service to the taxpayer's original return filed for subsequent income years.

(3) All or any portion of the penalty imposed under paragraph (1) may be waived by the Franchise Tax Board when the taxpayer has entered into a voluntary disclosure agreement under Article 8 (commencing with Section 19191) of Chapter 4.

(4) The penalty imposed under this subdivision shall not apply to returns required to be filed for income years beginning before January 1, 1998.

(d) This section shall apply to returns required to be filed for income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 59. Section 19144 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19144. For the purposes of Section 19142 the amount of the underpayment shall be the excess of—

(a) (1) The amount of the installment which would be required to be paid if the estimated tax were equal to the applicable percentage of the tax shown on the return for the income year, or (2) in the case of the tax imposed by Article 3 (commencing with Section 23181) of Chapter 2 of Part 11 an amount equal to the applicable percentage of the lesser of the tax computed at the rate provided by Section 19024 (but otherwise on the basis of the facts shown on the return and the law applicable to the income year), or the tax shown on the return for the income year as prescribed by Section 19021, or (3) if no return was filed, the applicable percentage of the tax for that year, over

(b) The amount, if any, of the installment paid on or before the last date prescribed for payment.

(c) For purposes of this section, the "applicable percentage" shall be as follows:

(1) For income years beginning before January 1, 1998, 95 percent.

(2) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, 100 percent.

SEC. 60. Section 19164 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19164. (a) (1) An accuracy-related penalty shall be imposed under this part and shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 6662 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to imposition of accuracy-related penalty.

(2) With respect to banks and corporations, this subdivision shall apply to all of the following:

(A) All income years beginning on or after January 1, 1990.

(B) Any other income year for which an assessment is made after July 16, 1991.

(C) For purposes of this section, references in Section 6662(e) of the Internal Revenue Code and the regulations thereunder, relating to treatment of an affiliated group that files a consolidated federal return, are modified to apply to those entities required to be included in a combined report under Section 25101 or 25110. For these purposes, entities included in a combined report pursuant to paragraph (4) or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 25110 shall be considered only to the extent required to be included in the combined report.

(b) The modifications to Section 6662 of the Internal Revenue Code by Public Law 103-66 and Public Law 103-465 shall apply with respect to returns filed for income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

(c) A fraud penalty shall be imposed under this part and shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 6663 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to imposition of fraud penalty.

(d) The provisions of Section 6664 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to definitions and special rules, shall apply.

(e) The provisions of Section 6665 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to applicable rules, shall apply.

SEC. 60.5. Section 19164 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19164. (a) (1) An accuracy-related penalty shall be imposed under this part and shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 6662 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to imposition of accuracy-related penalty.

(2) With respect to corporations, this subdivision shall apply to all of the following:

(A) All income years beginning on or after January 1, 1990.

(B) Any other income year for which an assessment is made after July 16, 1991.

(C) For purposes of this section, references in Section 6662(e) of the Internal Revenue Code and the regulations thereunder, relating to treatment of an affiliated group that files a consolidated federal return, are modified to apply to those entities required to be included in a combined report under Section 25101 or 25110. For these purposes, entities included in a combined report pursuant to paragraph (4) or (6) of subdivision (a) of Section 25110 shall be considered only to the extent required to be included in the combined report.

(b) The modifications to Section 6662 of the Internal Revenue Code by Public Law 103-66 and Public Law 103-465 shall apply with respect to returns filed for income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

(c) A fraud penalty shall be imposed under this part and shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 6663 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to imposition of fraud penalty.

(d) The provisions of Section 6664 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to definitions and special rules, shall apply.

(e) The provisions of Section 6665 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to applicable rules, shall apply.

SEC. 61. Section 19182.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

19182.5. (a) A penalty shall be imposed for failing to meet the requirements of Section 18648.5 and the penalty amount shall be determined in accordance with Section 6714 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(b) No penalty shall be imposed under paragraph (1) upon a showing that the requirements in Section 6115 of the Internal Revenue Code have been met with respect to that contribution for federal purposes.

(c) The provisions of this section shall apply to quid pro quo contributions made on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 62. Section 19184 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19184. (a) A penalty of fifty dollars ($50) shall be imposed for each failure, unless it is shown that the failure is due to reasonable cause, by any person required to file who fails to file a report at the time and in the manner required by either of the following provisions:

(1) Subdivision (c) of Section 17507, relating to individual retirement accounts.

(2) Section 220(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to medical savings accounts.

(b) (1) Any individual who:

(A) Is required to furnish information under Section 17508 as to the amount designated nondeductible contributions made for any taxable year, and

(B) Overstates the amount of those contributions made for that taxable year, shall pay a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100) for each overstatement unless it is shown that the overstatement is due to reasonable cause.

(2) Any individual who fails to file a form required to be filed by the Franchise Tax Board under Section 17508 shall pay a penalty of fifty dollars ($50) for each failure unless it is shown that the failure is due to reasonable cause.

(c) Article 3 (commencing with Section 19031) of this chapter (relating to deficiency assessments) shall not apply in respect of the assessment or collection of any penalty imposed under this section.

SEC. 63. Section 19365 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

19365. (a) (1) A corporation electing to be treated as an "S corporation" under Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 23800) of Part 11 may file an application for the transfer of an overpayment with respect to payments of estimated tax for income years beginning in 1997 to the personal income tax accounts of its shareholders. An application under this subdivision shall not constitute a claim for credit or refund.

(2) An application under this subdivision shall be verified in the manner prescribed by Section 18621 in the case of the taxpayer, and shall be filed in the manner and form prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board. The application shall set forth all of the following:

(A) The amount the "S corporation" estimates as its tax liability under this part for the taxable year, which shall not be less than the greater of $1^1/_2$ percent of its net income or the applicable minimum franchise tax.

(C) For each shareholder affected, his or her name, social security account number, address, and percentage of ownership, and any changes in that percentage of ownership for the S corporation's income year, the amount of each overpayment to be transferred, and the date the amount was paid.

(D) Any other information for purposes of carrying out this section as may be required by the Franchise Tax Board.

(b) (1) Within a period of 45 days from the date on which an application for a transfer is filed under subdivision (a), the Franchise Tax Board shall make, to the extent it deems practicable in that period, a limited examination of the application to discover omissions and errors therein, and shall determine the final amount of the transfers upon the basis of the application and the examination, except that the Franchise Tax Board may disallow, without further action, any application which it finds contains material omissions or errors which it deems cannot be corrected within the 45-day period.

(2) The Franchise Tax Board, within the 45-day period referred to in paragraph (1), may credit the amount of the overpayment against any liability on the part of the taxpayer under Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001).

(3) In the event the amount available for transfer is less than requested by the taxpayer, the overpayment amount shall be allocated among the shareholders on a pro rata basis based on their percentage of ownership stated on the application.

(4) For purposes of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001), and this part, the transferred amounts shall be treated as if they had been estimated tax payments paid by the respective shareholders on the date originally paid by the corporation.

(5) No application under subdivision (a) shall be allowed unless the amount to be transferred equals or exceeds five hundred dollars ($500).

(6) Each S corporation which files an application for transfer of overpayments under subdivision (a) shall furnish to each person who is a shareholder at any time during the income year a statement showing amounts and dates of the overpayments being transferred to that person's personal income tax account.

SEC. 63.5. Section 23038.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23038.5. (a) Section 7704 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain publicly traded partnerships treated as corporations, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(b) (1) Section 7704(a) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply to an electing 1987 partnership.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision, the term "electing 1987 partnership" means any publicly traded partnership if all of the following apply:

(A) The partnership is an existing partnership (as defined in Section 10211(c)(2) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1987).

(B) Section 7704(a) of the Internal Revenue Code has not applied (and without regard to Section 7704(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code would not have applied) to that partnership for all prior taxable years beginning after December 31, 1987, and before January 1, 1998.

(C) (i) The partnership has made the election under Section 7704(g)(1)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code (as added by Public Law 105-34) for federal tax purposes.

(ii) The election for federal tax purposes described in clause (i) shall be treated as a binding election and a separate election for state tax purposes shall not be allowed under paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 23051.5.

(iii) The election for federal tax purposes described in clause (i) shall be treated as a binding consent to the application of the tax imposed under paragraph (3) and a separate election for state tax purposes shall not be allowed under paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 23051.5.

(D) A partnership which, but for this subparagraph, would be treated as an electing 1987 partnership shall cease to be so treated (and the election under subparagraph (C) shall cease to be in effect) as of the first day after December 31, 1997, that the partnership is no longer treated as an electing 1987 partnership for federal tax purposes (and the election under Section 7704(g)(1)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code (as added by Public Law 105-34) ceases to be in effect for federal tax purposes).

(3) (A) There is hereby imposed for each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1998, on the gross income of each electing 1987 partnership a tax equal to 1 percent of that partnership's gross income from all sources reportable to this state, taking into account Section 25101 and any election under Section 25110, attributable to the active conduct of trades and businesses by the partnership.

(B) The tax shall be due and payable on the dated the return of the partnership is required to be filed under Section 18633, shall be collected and refunded in the same manner as other taxes imposed by this part, and shall be subject to interest and applicable penalties.

(C) For purposes of this paragraph, in the case of a partnership which is a partner in another partnership, the gross income referred to in subparagraph (A) shall include the partnership's distributive share of the gross income of the other partnership from all sources reportable to this state, taking into account Section 25101 and any election under Section 25110, attributable to the active conduct of trades and businesses of that other partnership. A similar rule shall apply in the case of lower-tiered partnerships.

(D) The tax imposed by this paragraph shall be treated as imposed by this part other than for purposes of determining the amount of any credit allowable under this part.

(4) The provisions of this subdivision shall apply to the taxable year for which the election described in clause (i) of subparagraph (C) of paragraph (2) is made for federal purposes and all subsequent taxable years unless revoked by the partnership for federal purposes. Any revocation made for federal purposes shall be treated as a binding revocation under this part, but, once so revoked, may not be reinstated and a separate revocation for state purposes shall not be allowed under paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 23051.5.

(c) The amendment made to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1998.

SEC. 64. Section 23045 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23045. For purposes of this part:

(a) Section 7702 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to life insurance contracts, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(b) Section 7702A of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to modified endowment contracts, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(c) Section 7702B of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to treatment of qualified long-term care insurance, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

SEC. 65. Section 23453 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23453. (a) There shall be allowed as a credit against the regular tax (as defined by subdivision (c) of Section 23455), for any taxable year, an amount equal to the minimum tax credit for that taxable year.

(b) For purposes of subdivision (a), the minimum tax credit shall be determined in accordance with Section 53 of the Internal Revenue Code, except as otherwise provided in this part.

(c) For purposes of this chapter, the amount determined under Section 53(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be the regular tax as defined by subdivision (c) of Section 23455, reduced by the sum of the credits allowable under this part other than that portion of any credit which reduces the tax below the tentative minimum tax as provided in paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 23036.

(d) Section 53(d)(1)(B)(ii)(II) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to credit not allowed for exclusion preferences, is modified to include subdivision (b) of Section 23457, as a specified item.

SEC. 66. Section 23456 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23456. For purposes of this part, Section 56 of the Internal Revenue Code is modified as follows:

(a) (1) Section 56(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to mining exploration and development costs, shall apply only to expenses incurred during income years beginning on or after January 1, 1988.

(2) Section 56(a)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to pollution control facilities, shall apply only to amounts allowable as a deduction under Section 24372.3.

(b) Section 56(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to Merchant Marine Capital Construction Funds, shall not be applicable.

(c) For purposes of applying Section 56(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, all references to "December 31, 1986," are modified to read "December 31, 1987," and all references to "January 1, 1987," are modified to read "January 1, 1988."

(d) Section 56(d)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the alternative tax net operating loss deduction, is modified to include the provisions of Section 25108.

(e) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1988, and before January 1, 1990, Section 56(f)(2)(E) of the Internal Revenue Code, as it read during that period, is modified to refer to both of the following:

(1) Cooperatives under Section 24404 in lieu of the deduction allowed under Section 1382(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) Credit unions under Section 24405 as though the deduction allowed under Section 1382(b) of the Internal Revenue Code applied to credit unions.

(f) Section 56(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to adjustments based on adjusted current earnings, is modified to provide that for corporations whose income is determined under Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101), adjusted current earnings shall be allocated and apportioned in the same manner as net income is allocated and apportioned for purposes of the regular tax. In addition, each of the following shall apply:

(1) Sections 56(g)(1)(A) and 56(g)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code are modified to provide that the term "adjusted current earnings" means the sum of the adjusted current earnings of that corporation apportionable to this state and the adjusted current earnings allocable to this state.

(2) Section 56(g)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to provide that the term "alternative minimum taxable income" means the sum of the alternative minimum taxable income of that corporation apportionable to this state and the alternative minimum taxable income allocable to this state.

(g) Section 56(g)(4)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to provide the following:

(1) In the case of any property placed in service on or after January 1, 1981, and prior to January 1, 1987, other than residential rental property for which an election was made under former Section 24349.5, the amount allowable as depreciation or amortization with respect to that property shall be the same amount that would have been allowable for the income year had the taxpayer depreciated the property under the straight line method for each income year of the useful life (determined without regard to Section 24354.2) for which the taxpayer has held the property.

(2) In the case of any property placed in service on or after January 1, 1987, and prior to January 1, 1990, other than residential rental property for which an election was made under former Section 24349.5, the amount allowable as depreciation or amortization with respect to that property shall be determined by each of the following:

(A) Taking into account the adjusted basis of that property (as determined for purposes of computing alternative minimum taxable income) as of the close of the last income year beginning before January 1, 1990.

(B) Using the straight line method over the remainder of the recovery period applicable to that property under the alternative system of Section 168(g) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) The amendments made to paragraph (2) by the act adding this paragraph shall apply to income years beginning on or after January 1, 1990.

(4) The last sentence of Section 56(g)(4)(A)(i) of the Internal Revenue Code, shall not apply.

(h) (1) Section 56(g)(4)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to disallowance of items not deductible in computing earnings and profits, shall be modified as follows:

(A) (i) A deduction shall be allowed for amounts allowable as a deduction for purposes of the regular tax under Sections 24402, 24410, 24411, and 25106.

(ii) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1990, a deduction shall be allowed for amounts allowable as a deduction to a credit union for purposes of the regular tax under Section 24405.

(B) Section 56(g)(4)(C)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to special rule for 100-percent dividends, shall not be applicable.

(C) Section 56(g)(4)(C)(iii) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to special rule for dividends from Section 936 companies, shall not be applicable.

(D) Section 56(g)(4)(C)(iv) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to special rule for certain dividends received by certain cooperatives, shall not be applicable.

(2) Section 56(g)(4)(D)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to specify that Sections 24364 and 24407 shall not apply to expenditures paid or incurred in income years beginning on or after January 1, 1990.

(3) With respect to corporations which are not subject to the tax imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101), the amount of interest income included in the adjusted current earnings shall not exceed the amount of interest income included for purposes of the regular tax.

(4) Appropriate adjustments shall be made to limit deductions from adjusted current earnings for interest expense in accordance with the provisions of Sections 24344 and 24425.

(i) Section 56(g)(4)(I) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to treatment of charitable contributions, shall not apply.

SEC. 67. Section 23457 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23457. For purposes of this part, Section 57 of the Internal Revenue Code is modified as follows:

(a) Section 57(a)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax-exempt interest, shall not be applicable.

(b) (1) (A) Section 57(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to items of tax preference, is modified to include as an item of tax preference the amount by which the deduction allowable under Section 24357 would be reduced if all capital gain property were taken into account at its adjusted basis.

(B) For purposes of paragraph (A), "capital gain property" means, with respect to any contribution, any capital asset the sale of which at its fair market value at the time of the contribution would have resulted in gain which would have been long-term capital gain. For purposes of this subparagraph, any property that is property used in the trade or business, as defined in Section 1231(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, shall be treated as a capital asset.

(2) Section 57(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to items of tax preference, is modified to include as an item of tax preference the amount by which the deduction allowable under Section 24348 for the taxable year for a reasonable addition to a reserve for bad debts exceeds the amount that would have been allowable had the taxpayer maintained its bad debt reserve for all taxable years on the basis of actual experience.

(c) Section 57(a)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to accelerated depreciation or amortization on certain property placed in service before January 1, 1987, is modified to read: With respect to each property as described in Section 1250(c) of the Internal Revenue Code as that provision read on April 1, 1970, the amount by which the deduction allowable for the income year for exhaustion, wear, tear, obsolescence, or amortization exceeds the depreciation deduction which would have been allowable for the income year, had the taxpayer depreciated the property under the straight line method for each income year of its useful life (determined without regard to Section 24354.2 or 24381) for which the taxpayer has held the property.

SEC. 68. Section 23609 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23609. For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1987, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 23036) an amount determined in accordance with Section 41 of the Internal Revenue Code, except as follows:

(a) For each income year beginning before January 1, 1997, both of the following modifications shall apply:

(1) The reference to "20 percent" in Section 41(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read "8 percent."

(2) The reference to "20 percent" in Section 41(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read "12 percent."

(b) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, both of the following modifications shall apply:

(1) The reference to "20 percent" in Section 41(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read "11 percent."

(2) The reference to "20 percent" in Section 41(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read "24 percent."

(c) "Qualified research" and "basic research" shall include only research conducted in California.

(d) The provisions of Section 41(e)(7)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code, shall be modified so that "basic research," for purposes of this section, includes any basic or applied research including scientific inquiry or original investigation for the advancement of scientific or engineering knowledge or the improved effectiveness of commercial products, except that the term does not include any of the following:

(1) Basic research conducted outside California.

(2) Basic research in the social sciences, arts, or humanities.

(3) Basic research for the purpose of improving a commercial product if the improvements relate to style, taste, cosmetic, or seasonal design factors.

(4) Any expenditure paid or incurred for the purpose of ascertaining the existence, location, extent, or quality of any deposit of ore or other mineral (including oil and gas).

(e) (1) In the case of a taxpayer engaged in any biopharmaceutical research activities that are described in Codes 2833 to 2836, inclusive, or any research activities that are described in Codes 3826, 3829, or 3841 to 3845, inclusive, of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition, or any other biotechnology research and development activities, the provisions of Section 41(e)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified to include both of the following:

(A) A qualified organization as described in Section 170(b)(1)(A)(iii) of the Internal Revenue Code and owned by an institution of higher education as described in Section 3304(f) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) A charitable research hospital owned by an organization that is described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, is exempt from taxation under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, is not a private foundation, is designated a "specialized laboratory cancer center," and has received Clinical Cancer Research Center status from the National Cancer Institute.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "Biopharmaceutical research activities" means those activities that use organisms or materials derived from organisms, and their cellular, subcellular, or molecular components, in order to provide pharmaceutical products for human or animal therapeutics and diagnostics. Biopharmaceutical activities make use of living organisms to make commercial products, as opposed to pharmaceutical activities that make use of chemical compounds to produce commercial products.

(B) "Other biotechnology research and development activities" means research and development activities consisting of the application of recombinant DNA technology to produce commercial products, as well as research and development activities regarding pharmaceutical delivery systems designed to provide a measure of control over the rate, duration, and site of pharmaceutical delivery.

(f) In the case where the credit allowed by this section exceeds the "tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(g) Section 41(b)(3)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to amounts paid to certain research consortia, shall not apply.

(h) Section 41(c)(3)(B)(i)(I) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to startup companies, shall not apply.

(i) Section 41(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to election of alternative incremental credit, shall not apply.

(j) Section 41(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to gross receipts, is modified to take into account only those gross receipts from the sale of property held primarily for sales to customers in the ordinary course of the taxpayer's trade or business that is delivered or shipped to a purchaser within this state, regardless of f.o.b. point or other conditions of sale.

(k) Section 41(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to termination, shall not apply.

(l) Section 41(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to special rule for passthrough of credit, is modified by each of the following:

(1) The last sentence shall not apply.

(2) If the amount determined under Section 41(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for any income year exceeds the limitation of Section

41(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, that amount may be carried over to other income years under the rules of subdivision (f); except that the limitation of Section 41(g) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be taken into account in each subsequent income year.

(m) The amendments made to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall apply only to income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 69. Section 23701h of the Revenue and Taxation Code is repealed.

SEC. 70. Section 23701h is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

23701h. A corporation described in Section 501(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain title-holding companies.

SEC. 71. Section 23732 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23732. Section 512 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to unrelated business taxable income, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(a) Section 512(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to special rules for foreign organizations, shall not be applicable.

(b) Section 512(a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to special rules applicable to certain organizations, shall be modified as follows:

(1) The reference to Section 501(c)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to clubs organized for pleasure, recreation, and other nonprofitable purposes, shall be modified to refer to Section 23701g.

(2) The reference to Section 501(c)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to voluntary employees' beneficiary associations, shall be modified to refer to Section 23701i.

(3) The reference to Section 501(c)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to trusts providing for payment of supplemental unemployment compensation benefits, shall be modified to refer to Section 23701n.

(4) The reference to Section 501(c)(20) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to qualified group legal services plans, shall be modified to refer to Section 23701q.

(c) Section 512(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to treatment of dues of agricultural or horticultural organizations, shall be modified by substituting "Section 23701a" in lieu of "Section 501(c)(5)" of the Internal Revenue Code.

SEC. 72. Section 23800.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

23800.5. (a) Section 1361(b)(2)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to ineligible corporation defined, shall not apply and in lieu thereof, for purposes of Section 1361(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401), and this part, "ineligible corporation" shall include a savings and loan association, bank, or financial corporation which uses the reserve method of accounting for bad debts described in Section 24348.

(b) Section 1361(b)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to treatment of certain wholly owned subsidiaries, is modified as follows:

(1) For purposes of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401), and this part:

(A) Section 1361(b)(3)(A)(i) of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply, except as provided in subparagraph (B).

(B) There is hereby imposed a tax annually in an amount equal to the applicable amount specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of Section 23153 on a qualified Subchapter S subsidiary that is incorporated under the laws of this state, qualified to transact intrastate business in this state pursuant to Chapter 21 (commencing with Section 2100) of Division 1 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code, or doing business in this state.

(C) Every qualified Subchapter S subsidiary described in subparagraph (B) shall be subject to the tax imposed under subparagraph (B) from the earlier of the date of incorporation, qualification, or commencement of business in this state, until the effective date of dissolution or withdrawal as provided in Section 23331, or, if later, the date the corporation ceases to do business in this state.

(2) For purposes of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001), Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401), and this part:

(A) Section 1361(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply and, in lieu thereof, subparagraph (B) shall apply and all references to Section 1361(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be treated as a reference to subparagraph (B).

(B) All activities, assets, liabilities, including liability for the tax imposed under this subdivision, and items of income, deduction, and credit of a qualified Subchapter S subsidiary shall be treated as activities (including activities for purposes of Section 23101), assets, liabilities, and those items, as the case may be, of the "S corporation."

(3) The tax imposed under this subdivision shall be due and payable on the 15th day of the fourth month of the income year of the "S corporation."

(4) Section 1361(b)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to include the following requirements in addition to the requirements contained therein:

(A) The "S corporation" has in effect a valid election to treat the corporation as a qualified Subchapter S subsidiary for federal purposes.

(B) An election made by the "S corporation" under Section 1361(b)(3)(B)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code to treat the corporation as a qualified Subchapter S subsidiary for federal purposes shall be treated for purposes of this part as an election made by the "S corporation" under this subdivision and a separate election under paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 23051.5 shall not be allowed.

(C) No election under this subdivision shall be allowed unless the "S corporation" has made the election under Section 1361(b)(3)(B)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code to treat the corporation as a qualified Subchapter S subsidiary for federal purposes.

(c) Section 1361(c)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain exempt organizations permitted as shareholders, is modified by substituting a reference to Section 23701d in lieu of the reference to Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and by substituting a reference to Section 23701 in lieu of the reference to Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(d) Section 1361(e)(1)(B)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain trusts not eligible, is modified by substituting "under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or this part" in lieu of "under this subtitle."

(e) Section 1361(e)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to election, is modified to include the following provisions:

(1) An election made by the trustee under Section 1361(e) of the Internal Revenue Code to be an electing small business trust for federal purposes shall be treated for purposes of this part as an election made by the trustee under this subdivision and a separate election under paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 23051.5 shall not be allowed. Any election made shall apply to the taxable year of the trust for which made and to all subsequent taxable years of the trust, unless revoked with the consent of the Franchise Tax Board.

(2) No election under this subdivision shall be allowed unless the trustee has made the election under Section 1361(e) of the Internal Revenue Code to be an electing small business trust for federal purposes.

SEC. 73. Section 23801 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23801. (a) (1) A corporation may not elect to be treated as an "S corporation" unless it has in effect for federal purposes a valid election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for the same year.

(2) For income years beginning in 1987, the following shall apply:

(A) A corporation that has in effect a valid federal election for the income year beginning in 1987, shall be deemed to have elected to be treated as an "S corporation" for purposes of this part, unless that corporation elects on its return to continue to be treated as a "C corporation" for purposes of this part.

(B) A corporation to which subparagraph (A) applies, but is not required to file a return under this part, may elect to be treated as a "C corporation" for purposes of this part in the form and in the manner as the Franchise Tax Board may prescribe.

(C) A corporation that is deemed to have elected to be treated as an "S corporation" under subparagraph (A) shall, for purposes of applying the provisions of Section 1374 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax imposed on certain built-in gains, and Section 1375 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax imposed on passive investment income, be deemed to have made the election to be treated as an "S corporation" on the same date as the date of its federal election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) For income years beginning in 1988 or 1989, the following shall apply:

(A) A corporation that had in effect a valid federal election for the preceding year, but was a "C corporation" for purposes of this part for that preceding year, may elect to be treated as an "S corporation" for purposes of this part by making an election in accordance with the provisions of Section 1362 of the Internal Revenue Code in the form and in the manner as the Franchise Tax Board may prescribe.

(B) A corporation that did not have in effect a valid federal election for the preceding year and that makes a federal election for the income year under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be deemed to have made an election to be treated as an "S corporation" for purposes of this part on the same date as the date of its federal election, unless that corporation elects on its return to continue to be treated as a "C corporation" for purposes of this part.

(C) A corporation to which subparagraph (B) applies, but is not required to file a return under this part, may elect to be treated as a "C corporation" for purposes of this part in a form and manner as the Franchise Tax Board may prescribe.

(D) A corporation that elects to be treated as an "S corporation" under subparagraph (A) for an income year beginning in 1988 shall, for purposes of applying the provisions of Section 1374 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax imposed on certain built-in gains, and Section 1375 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax imposed on passive investment income, be deemed to have made the election to be treated as an "S corporation" on the same date as the date of its federal election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(4) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1990, the following shall apply:

(A) An election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, that is first effective for an income year beginning on or after January 1, 1990, shall be an election to which subdivision (e) of Section 23051.5 applies and shall be deemed to have been made for purposes of this part on the same date as the date of the federal election, unless the corporation files a California election under clause (ii) to be treated as a "C corporation" for purposes of this part.

(i) The federal "S" election shall be reported for purposes of this part in the form and manner as prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board no later than the last date allowed for filing the federal election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for that income year.

(ii) The California election to be a "C corporation" may only be made by a corporation incorporated in California or qualified to do business in California and shall be made in the form and manner prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board no later than the last date allowed for filing the federal "S" election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for that income year.

(B) A corporation that has in effect a valid election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, but is a "C corporation" for purposes of this part, may elect to be treated as an "S corporation" by making an election in the form and manner as prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board at the time required for making an "S" election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for that income year, unless prohibited from doing so by Section 1362(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to election after termination.

(C) In the event a corporation which has in effect a valid election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and is not doing business in California becomes subject to this part by qualifying to do business in California, the corporation is deemed to have made an election to be treated as an "S corporation" for the income year during which the corporation qualifies to do business in California, unless the corporation files a California election in accordance with clause (ii) to be treated as a "C corporation" for that income year.

(i) The federal "S" election shall be reported for purposes of this part within two and one-half months after qualifying to do business in California in the form and manner as prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board.

(ii) The California election to be a "C corporation" shall be made in the form and manner as prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board no later than the following:

(I) For an income year beginning in 1990, two and one-half months after qualifying to do business in California.

(II) For an income year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, the last date allowed for filing a federal "S" election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for that income year.

(D) (i) A corporation that is not qualified to do business in California, but is treated as an "S corporation" for federal purposes, shall be treated as an "S corporation" for purposes of this part, and its shareholders shall be treated as shareholders of an "S corporation."

(ii) If a corporation described in clause (i) elected to be treated as a "C corporation" under this section prior to its amendment by the act adding this paragraph during the 1989–90 Regular Session, that election shall be revoked for income years beginning on or after January 1, 1990. The corporation shall be treated as an "S corporation" for purposes of this part, and its shareholders shall be treated as shareholders of an "S corporation."

(E) For purposes of this section, "qualified to do business in California" or "qualifying to do business in California" means incorporating or obtaining a certificate of qualification pursuant to the Corporations Code.

(F) For purposes of this section:

(i) A timely election to be treated as a "C corporation" shall be treated as a revocation and Section 1362(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to election after termination, shall apply.

(ii) An untimely election to be treated as a "C corporation" shall be null and void and shall not be applied to either the current or any subsequent income year.

(5) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, the provisions of paragraph (4) shall apply, subject to the following modifications:

(A) A corporation that elects "S corporation" status under Section 1362 of the Internal Revenue Code for federal purposes but which is not qualified to be an "S corporation" under subdivision (a) of Section 23800.5, shall not be an "S corporation" for purposes of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) and this part.

(B) (i) A corporation that becomes an "S corporation" for an income year beginning before January 1, 1997, under the provisions of Section 1305 of the Small Business Job Protection Act of 1996 (P.L. 104-188) for federal purposes, shall become an "S corporation" for purposes of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) and this part, for its first income year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, unless a timely election to continue as a "C corporation" is made.

(ii) For purposes of clause (i), an election shall be considered timely if made no later than the earlier of the date that is 180 days after the date of enactment of the act adding this paragraph or the due date, without regard to extensions, of the return for its first income year beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

(C) (i) A corporation that makes a valid federal election to be an "S corporation" during the period in 1997 before the date of enactment of the act adding this paragraph and which would not qualify to be an "S corporation" under this part on the date of the federal election shall become an "S corporation" for purposes of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) and this part, for its first income year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, unless a timely election to continue as a "C corporation" is made.

(ii) For purposes of clause (i), an election shall be considered timely if made no later than the earlier of the date that is 180 days after the date of enactment of the act adding this paragraph or the due date, without regard to extensions, of the return for its first income year beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

(b) If a corporation subject to tax under this part elects to be treated as an "S corporation" and has one or more shareholders who are nonresidents of this state or is a trust with a nonresident fiduciary, each of the following shall be required:

(1) Each nonresident shareholder or fiduciary shall file with the return a statement of consent by that shareholder or fiduciary to be subject to the jurisdiction of the State of California to tax the shareholder's pro rata share of the income attributable to California sources.

(2) An "S corporation" shall include in its return for each income year a list of shareholders in the form and in the manner prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board.

(3) Failure to meet the requirements of this subdivision shall be grounds for retroactive revocation by the Franchise Tax Board of the election pursuant to this chapter.

(c) Except as provided in subdivision (d), a corporation that makes a valid election to be treated as an "S corporation" for purposes of this part shall not be included in a combined report pursuant to Chapter 17 (commencing with Section 25101).

(d) (1) In cases where the Franchise Tax Board determines that the reported income or loss of a group of commonly owned or controlled corporations (within the meaning of Section 25105), which includes one or more corporations electing to be treated as an "S corporation" under Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 23800), does not clearly reflect income (or loss) of a member of that group or represents an evasion of tax by one or more members of that group, and the Franchise Tax Board determines that the comparable uncontrolled price method prescribed by regulations pursuant to Section 482 of the Internal Revenue Code cannot practically be applied, the Franchise Tax Board may, in lieu of other methods prescribed by regulations pursuant to Section 482 of the Internal Revenue Code, apply methods of unitary combination, pursuant to Article 1 (commencing with Section 25101) of Chapter 17, to properly reflect the income or loss of the members of the group.

(2) The application of the provisions of this subdivision shall not affect the election of any corporation to be treated as an "S corporation."

(e) The tax for a "C corporation" for a short year shall be determined in accordance with Chapter 13 (commencing with Section 24631), in lieu of Section 1362(e)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(f) (1) A termination of a federal election pursuant to Section 1362(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, that is not an inadvertent termination pursuant to Section 1362(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, shall simultaneously terminate the "S corporation" election for purposes of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) and this part.

(2) A federal termination by revocation shall be effective for purposes of this part and shall be reported to the Franchise Tax Board in the form and manner prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board no later than the last date allowed for filing federal termination for that year under Section 1362(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) A corporation which is qualified to do business in California and has in effect a valid "S" election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, may revoke its "S" election for purposes of this part without revoking its federal election. The revocation for purposes of this part shall be made by providing a written notification to the Franchise Tax Board in the form and manner prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board which includes the California corporation number and meets the requirements of Section 1362(d)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(g) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1990, if a corporation, which has in effect a valid "S" election under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, fails to make a "C corporation" election under clause (ii) of subparagraphs (A) and (C) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) or to terminate by revocation under paragraph (3) of subdivision (f), the corporation shall be treated as an "S corporation" pursuant to subparagraph (A) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (a).

(h) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, for purposes of subparagraph (F) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of this section and Section 1362(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to election after termination, any termination under Section 1362(d) of the Internal Revenue Code or election to be treated as a "C corporation" under subparagraph (A) or (C) of paragraph (4) of subdivision (a), or to terminate by revocation under paragraph (3) of subdivision (f) in an income year beginning before January 1, 1997, shall not be taken into account.

(i) The provisions of Section 1362(b)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to authority to treat late elections, etc., as timely, shall apply only for income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, with respect to elections under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

(j) The provisions of Section 1362(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to inadvertent invalid elections or terminations, shall apply only for income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, with respect to elections under Section 1362(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 74. Section 23802 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23802. (a) Section 1363(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the taxability of an "S corporation," shall not be applicable.

(b) Corporations qualifying under this chapter shall continue to be subject to the taxes imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101) and Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501), except as follows:

(1) (A) The tax imposed under Section 23151 or 23501 shall be imposed at a rate of $1^1/_2$ percent rather than the rate specified in those sections.

(B) For income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, the following tax rates shall be substituted for the "$1^1/_2$ percent" rate specified by subparagraph (A):

(i) One and six-tenths percent for income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997, and before January 1, 1998.

(ii) One and sixty-five hundredths percent for income years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, and before January 1, 1999.

(iii) One and seven-tenths percent for income years beginning on or after January 1, 1999, and before January 1, 2000.

(iv) One and six-tenths percent for income years beginning on or after January 1, 2000.

(2) In the case of an "S corporation" which is also a financial corporation, the rate of tax specified in paragraph (1) shall be increased by the excess of the rate imposed under Section 23183 over the rate imposed under Section 23151.

(c) An "S corporation" shall be subject to the minimum franchise tax imposed under Section 23153.

(d) (1) For purposes of subdivision (b), an "S corporation" shall be allowed a deduction under Section 24416 or 24416.1 (relating to net operating loss deductions), but only with respect to losses incurred during periods in which the corporation had in effect a valid election to be treated as an "S corporation" for purposes of this part.

(2) Section 1371(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to denial of carryovers between "C years" and "S years," shall apply for purposes of the tax imposed under subdivision (b), except as provided in paragraph (1).

(3) The provisions of this subdivision shall not affect the amount of any item of income or loss computed in accordance with the provisions of Section 1366 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to passthrough items to shareholders.

(4) For purposes of subdivision (b) of Section 17276, relating to limitations on loss carryovers, losses passed through to shareholders of an "S corporation," to the extent otherwise allowable without application of that subdivision, shall be fully included in the net operating loss of that shareholder and then that subdivision shall be applied to the entire net operating loss.

(e) For purposes of computing the taxes specified in subdivision (b), an "S corporation" shall be allowed a deduction from income for built-in gains and passive investment income for which a tax has been imposed under this part in accordance with the provisions of Section 1374 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax imposed on certain built-in gains, or Section 1375 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax imposed on passive investment income.

(f) For purposes of computing taxes imposed under this part, as provided in subdivision (b)—

(1) An "S corporation" shall compute its deductions for amortization and depreciation in accordance with the provisions of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) of Division 2.

(2) The provisions of Section 465 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to limitation of deductions to the amount at risk, shall be applied in the same manner as in the case of an individual.

(3) (A) The provisions of Section 469 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to limitations on passive activity losses and credits, shall be applied in the same manner as in the case of an individual. For purposes of the tax imposed under Section 23151 or 23501, as modified by this section, material participation shall be determined in accordance with Section 469(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain closely held "C corporations" and personal service corporations.

(B) For purposes of this paragraph, the "adjusted gross income" of the "S corporation" shall be equal to its "net income," as determined under Section 24341 with the modifications required by this subdivision, except that no deduction shall be allowed for contributions allowed by Section 24357.

(4) The exclusion provided under Section 18152.5 shall not be allowed to an "S corporation."

(g) The provisions of Section 1363(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to recapture of LIFO benefits, shall be modified for purposes of this part to refer to Section 19102 in lieu of Section 6601 of the Internal Revenue Code.

SEC. 75. Section 23806 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23806. (a) Section 1371(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to application of Subchapter C rules, is modified to provide that, notwithstanding subdivisions (a) and (e) of Section 23051.5, an election under Section 338 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain stock purchases treated as asset acquisitions, for federal purposes shall be treated as an election for purposes of this part and a separate election under paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 23051.5 shall not be allowed.

(b) Section 1371(d) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applicable.

SEC. 76. Section 23813 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

23813. Section 1377(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to determination defined, is modified to include, in addition to the items specified therein, the following:

(a) A decision by the State Board of Equalization that has become final.

(b) A closing agreement made under Article 6 (commencing with Section 19441) of Chapter 6 of Part 10.2.

(c) A final disposition by the Franchise Tax Board of a claim for refund.

SEC. 77. Section 24272.5 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

24272.5. (a) Section 7518 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax incentives relating to merchant marine capital construction funds, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(b) Section 7518(d)(2)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified as follows:

(1) By substituting "70 percent" in lieu of the reference to "the percentage applicable under Section 243(a)(1)."

(2) To refer to Section 24402 in lieu of Section 243 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) Section 7518(d)(2)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to refer to "interest income exempt from taxation" under this part in lieu of "interest income exempt from taxation under Section 103."

(d) Section 7518(g)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified as follows:

(1) To refer to Article 6 (commencing with Section 19101) of Chapter 4 of Part 10.2 in lieu of Section 6601 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) To refer to Article 7 (commencing with Section 19131) of Chapter 4 of Part 10.2 in lieu of Section 6651 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(e) Section 7518(g)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified as follows:

(1) By substituting a reference to "this part" in lieu of "Chapter 1" in each place in which it appears.

(2) To refer to Section 23151 in lieu of Section 11 of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) The last sentence in Section 7518(g)(6)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply.

SEC. 79. Section 24326 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24326. (a) Section 136 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to energy conservation subsidies provided by public utilities, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(b) Section 136 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to energy conservation subsidies provided by public utilities, shall apply to amounts received on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 80. Section 24343.3 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24343.3. Any employer contribution to a medical savings account, as defined in Section 220 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to medical savings accounts, if otherwise deductible under this part, shall be allowed only for the income year in which paid.

SEC. 81. Section 24343.7 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

24343.7. (a) Section 162(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the denial of deduction for certain lobbying and political expenditures, shall not apply.

(b) (1) The deduction allowed by Section 162(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to trade or business expenses, shall include all the ordinary and necessary expenses, including, but not limited to, traveling expenses described in Section 162(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code and the cost of preparing testimony, paid or incurred during the income year in carrying on any trade or business for any of the following:

(A) In direct connection with appearances before, submission of statements to, or sending communications to, the committees, or individual members, of Congress or of any legislative body of a state, a possession of the United States, or a political subdivision of any of the foregoing with respect to legislation or proposed legislation of direct interest to the taxpayer.

(B) In direct connection with communication of information between the taxpayer and an organization of which the taxpayer is a member with respect to legislation or proposed legislation of direct interest to the taxpayer and to that organization.

(C) That portion of the dues so paid or incurred with respect to any organization of which the taxpayer is a member which is attributable to the expenses of the activities described in subparagraphs (A) and (B) carried on by that organization.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not be construed as allowing the deduction of any amount paid or incurred, whether by way of contribution, gift, or otherwise, with respect to either of the following:

(A) For participation in, or intervention in, any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

(B) In connection with any attempt to influence the general public, or segments thereof, with respect to legislative matters, elections, or referendums.

(c) Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain excessive employee remuneration, shall not apply.

(d) Section 162(k)(2)(A)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply.

SEC. 82. Section 24349 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24349. (a) There shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction a reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear, and tear (including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence)—

(1) Of property used in the trade or business; or

(2) Of property held for the production of income.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (c), for income years ending after December 31, 1958, the term "reasonable allowance" as used in subdivision (a) shall include, but shall not be limited to, an allowance computed in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, under any of the following methods:

(1) The straight line method.

(2) The declining balance method, using a rate not exceeding twice the rate which would have been used had the annual allowance been computed under the method described in paragraph (1).

(3) The sum of the years-digits method.

(4) Any other consistent method productive of an annual allowance which, when added to all allowances for the period commencing with the taxpayer's use of the property and including the income year, does not, during the first two-thirds of the useful life of the property, exceed the total of those allowances that would have been used had those allowances been computed under the method described in paragraph (2).

Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit or reduce an allowance otherwise allowable under subdivision (a).

(c) Any grapevine replaced in a vineyard in California in an income year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, as a direct result of a phylloxera infestation in that vineyard, shall have a useful life of five years, except that it shall have a class life of 10 years for purposes of depreciation under Section 168(g)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code where the taxpayer has made an election under Section 263A(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code not to capitalize costs of the infested vineyard. Every taxpayer claiming a deduction under this section with respect to a grapevine as described in this subdivision shall obtain a written certification from an independent state-certified integrated pest management advisor, or a state agricultural commissioner or advisor, that specifies that the replanting was necessary to restore a vineyard infested with phylloxera. The taxpayer shall retain the certification for future audit purposes.

(d) For purposes of this part, the deduction for property leased to governments and other tax-exempt entities, as defined in Section 168(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, shall be limited to the amount determined under Section 168(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to alternative depreciation system for certain property.

(e) (1) In the case of any building erected or improvements made on leased property, if the building or improvement is property to which this section applies, the depreciation deduction shall be determined under the provisions of this section.

(2) An improvement shall be treated for purposes of determining gain or loss under this part as disposed of by the lessor when so disposed of or abandoned if both of the following occur:

(A) The improvement is made by the lessor of leased property for the lessee of that property.

(B) The improvement is irrevocably disposed of or abandoned by the lessor at the termination of the lease by the lessee.

This subdivision shall not apply to any property to which Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code does not apply for federal purposes by reason of Section 168(f) of the Internal Revenue Code. Any election made under Section 168(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code for federal purposes with respect to that property shall be treated as a binding election for state purposes under this subdivision with respect to that same property and no separate election under subdivision (e) of Section 23051.5 with respect to that property shall be allowed.

(f) (1) Section 167(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to depreciation under income forecast method, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(2) Section 167(g)(2)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by substituting "Section 19521" in lieu of "Section 460(b)(7)" of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) Section 167(g)(5)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by substituting "Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401) (other than Article 2 (commencing with Section 19021) and Sections 19142 to 19150, inclusive)" in lieu of "Subtitle F (other than Sections 6654 and 6655)."

SEC. 82.5. Section 24349 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24349. (a) There shall be allowed as a depreciation deduction a reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear, and tear (including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence)—

(1) Of property used in the trade or business; or

(2) Of property held for the production of income.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (c), for income years ending after December 31, 1958, the term "reasonable allowance" as used in subdivision (a) shall include, but shall not be limited to, an allowance computed in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board, under any of the following methods:

(1) The straight-line method.

(2) The declining balance method, using a rate not exceeding twice the rate that would have been used had the annual allowance been computed under the method described in paragraph (1).

(3) The sum of the years-digits method.

(4) Any other consistent method productive of an annual allowance that, when added to all allowances for the period commencing with the taxpayer's use of the property and including the income year, does not, during the first two-thirds of the useful life of the property, exceed the total of those allowances that would have been used had those allowances been computed under the method described in paragraph (2).

Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit or reduce an allowance otherwise allowable under subdivision (a).

(c) Any grapevine replaced in a vineyard in California in an income year beginning on or after January 1, 1992, as a direct result of a phylloxera infestation in that vineyard, and any grapevine replaced in a vineyard in California in an income year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, as a direct result of Pierce's Disease in that vineyard, shall have a useful life of five years, except that it shall have a class life of 10 years for purposes of depreciation under Section 168(g)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code where the taxpayer has made an election under Section 263A(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code not to capitalize costs of the infested vineyard. Every taxpayer claiming a deduction under this section with respect to a grapevine as described in this subdivision shall obtain a written certification from an independent state-certified integrated pest management adviser, or a state agricultural commissioner or adviser, that specifies that the replanting was necessary to restore a vineyard infested with phylloxera or Pierce's Disease. The taxpayer shall retain the certification for future audit purposes.

(d) For purposes of this part, the deduction for property leased to governments and other tax-exempt entities, as defined in Section 168(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, shall be limited to the amount determined under Section 168(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to alternative depreciation system for certain property.

(e) (1) In the case of any building erected or improvements made on leased property, if the building or improvement is property to which this section applies, the depreciation deduction shall be determined under the provisions of this section.

(2) An improvement shall be treated for purposes of determining gain or loss under this part as disposed of by the lessor when so disposed of or abandoned if both of the following occur:

(A) The improvement is made by the lessor of leased property for the lessee of that property.

(B) The improvement is irrevocably disposed of or abandoned by the lessor at the termination of the lease by the lessee.

This subdivision shall not apply to any property to which Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code does not apply for federal purposes by reason of Section 168(f) of the Internal Revenue Code. Any election made under Section 168(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code for federal purposes with respect to that property shall be treated as a binding election for state purposes under this subdivision with respect to that same property and no separate election under subdivision (e) of Section 23051.5 with respect to that property shall be allowed.

(f) (1) Section 167(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to depreciation under income forecast method, shall apply except as otherwise provided.

(2) Section 167(g)(2)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by substituting "Section 19521" in lieu of "Section 460(b)(7)" of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) Section 167(g)(5)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by substituting "Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 18401) (other than Article 2 (commencing with Section 19021) and Sections 19142 to 19150, inclusive)" in lieu of "Subtitle F (other than Sections 6654 and 6655)."

SEC. 83. Section 24355 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24355. Section 167(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to treatment of property excluded from Section 197, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

SEC. 84. Section 24355.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24355.5. (a) Section 197 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to amortization of goodwill and certain other intangibles, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(b) (1) Section 13261(g) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to effective dates, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(2) (A) If a taxpayer has, at any time, made an election for federal purposes under Section 13261(g)(2) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to election to have amendments apply to property acquired after July 25, 1991, or Section 13261(g)(3) of that act, relating to elective binding contract exception, a separate election for state purposes shall not be allowed under paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 23051.5 and the federal election shall be binding for purposes of this part.

(B) If a taxpayer has not made an election for federal purposes under Section 13261(g)(2) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), relating to election to have amendments apply to property acquired after July 25, 1991, or Section 13261(g)(3) of that act, relating to elective binding contract exception, with respect to property acquired before August 11, 1993, then the taxpayer shall not be allowed to make an election under Section 13261(g) of the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (P.L. 103-66), for purposes of this part, with respect to that property.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, each of the following shall apply:

(1) No deduction shall be allowed under this section for any income year beginning prior to January 1, 1994.

(2) No inference is intended with respect to the allowance or denial of any deduction for amortization in any income year beginning before January 1, 1994.

(3) In the case of an intangible that was acquired in an income year beginning before January 1, 1994, the amount to be amortized shall not exceed the adjusted basis of that intangible as of the first day of the first income year beginning on or after January 1, 1994, and that amount shall be amortized ratably over the period beginning with the first month of the first income year beginning on or after January 1, 1994, and ending 15 years after the month in which the intangible was acquired.

SEC. 85. Section 24357 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24357. (a) There shall be allowed as a deduction any charitable contribution (as defined in Section 24359) payment of which is made within the income year. A charitable contribution shall be allowable as a deduction only if verified under regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board.

(b) (1) In the case of a bank or corporation reporting its income on the accrual basis, the bank or corporation may elect to treat the contribution as paid during that income year if both of the following occur:

(B) Payment of the contribution is made after the close of that income year and on or before the 15th day of the third month following the close of the income year.

(2) The election allowed by paragraph (1) may be made only at the time of the filing of the return for the income year, and shall be signified in the manner as the Franchise Tax Board shall by regulations prescribe.

(c) For purposes of this section, payment of a charitable contribution which consists of a future interest in tangible personal property shall be treated as made only when all intervening interests in, and rights to the actual possession or enjoyment of, the property have expired or are held by persons other than the taxpayer or those standing in a relationship to the taxpayer described in Section 24428. For purposes of the preceding sentence, a fixture which is intended to be severed from the real property shall be treated as tangible personal property.

(d) No deduction shall be allowed under this section for traveling expenses (including amounts expended for meals and lodging) while away from home, whether paid directly or by reimbursement, unless there is no significant element of personal pleasure, recreation, or vacation in that travel.

(e) (1) Section 170(f)(8) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to substantiation requirement for certain contributions, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(2) No deduction shall be denied under Section 170(f)(8) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to substantiation requirement for certain contributions, upon a showing that the requirements in Section 170(f)(8) of the Internal Revenue Code have been met with respect to that contribution for federal purposes.

SEC. 85.5. Section 24357 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24357. (a) There shall be allowed as a deduction any charitable contribution (as defined in Section 24359) payment of which is made within the income year. A charitable contribution shall be allowable as a deduction only if verified under regulations prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board.

(b) (1) In the case of a corporation reporting its income on the accrual basis, the corporation may elect to treat the contribution as paid during that income year if both of the following occur:

(B) Payment of the contribution is made after the close of that income year and on or before the 15th day of the third month following the close of the income year.

(2) The election allowed by paragraph (1) may be made only at the time of the filing of the return for the income year, and shall be signified in the manner as the Franchise Tax Board shall by regulations prescribe.

(c) For purposes of this section, payment of a charitable contribution that consists of a future interest in tangible personal property shall be treated as made only when all intervening interests in, and rights to the actual possession or enjoyment of, the property have expired or are held by persons other than the taxpayer or those standing in a relationship to the taxpayer described in Section 24428. For purposes of the preceding sentence, a fixture which is intended to be severed from the real property shall be treated as tangible personal property.

(d) No deduction shall be allowed under this section for traveling expenses (including amounts expended for meals and lodging) while away from home, whether paid directly or by reimbursement, unless there is no significant element of personal pleasure, recreation, or vacation in that travel.

(e) (1) Section 170(f)(8) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to substantiation requirement for certain contributions, shall apply, except as otherwise provided.

(2) No deduction shall be denied under Section 170(f)(8) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to substantiation requirement for certain contributions, upon a showing that the requirements in Section 170(f)(8) of the Internal Revenue Code have been met with respect to that contribution for federal purposes.

(e) Section 860L(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax on prohibited transactions, shall not apply.

(f) For purposes of Chapter 4 of Part 10.2 (commencing with Section 19001) the taxes imposed by this section shall be treated as taxes to which the deficiency procedures of that article apply.

SEC. 96. Section 24916 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24916. Proper adjustment with regard to the property shall in all cases be made as follows:

(a) For expenditures, receipts, losses, or other items properly chargeable to capital account. However, no adjustment shall be made for any of the following:

(1) Sales or use tax paid or incurred in connection with the acquisition of property for which a tax credit is claimed pursuant to Section 23612.2.

(2) Taxes or other carrying charges described in Section 24426, or for expenditures described in Sections 24364 and 24369 for which deductions have been taken in determining net income for the income year or any prior income year.

(b) For exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, amortization, and depletion:

(1) In the case of banks or corporations subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101), to the extent sustained prior to January 1, 1928, and to the extent allowed (but not less than the amount allowable) under this part, except that no deduction shall be made for amounts in excess of the amount which would have been allowable had depreciation not been computed on the basis of January 1, 1928, value and amounts in excess of the adjustments required by Section 113(b)(1)(B) of the Federal Revenue Act of 1938 for depletion prior to January 1, 1932.

(2) In the case of a taxpayer subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 3, to the extent sustained prior to January 1, 1937, and for periods thereafter to the extent allowed (but not less than the amount allowable) under the provisions of this part.

(3) If a taxpayer has not claimed an amortization deduction for an emergency facility, the adjustment under paragraph (1) shall be made only to the extent ordinarily provided under Sections 24349 and 24372.

(c) In the case of stock (to the extent not provided for in the foregoing subdivisions) for the amount of distributions previously made which, under the law applicable to the year in which the distribution was made, either were tax free or were applicable in reduction of basis (not including distributions made by a corporation, which was classified as a personal service corporation under the provisions of the Federal Revenue Act of 1918 or 1921, out of its earnings or profits which were taxable in accordance with the provisions of Section 218 of the Federal Revenue Act of 1918 or 1921).

(d) (1) In the case of banks or corporations subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 2, in the case of any bond, as defined in Section 24363, to the extent of the deductions allowable pursuant to Section 24360 with respect thereto.

(2) In the case of taxpayers subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 3, in the case of any bond, as defined in Section 24363, the interest on which is wholly exempt from the tax imposed by this part, to the extent of the amortizable bond premium disallowable as a deduction pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 24360, and in the case of any other bond, as defined in Section 24363, to the extent of the deductions allowable pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 24360 (or the amount applied to reduce interest payments under paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 24363.5) with respect thereto.

(3) In the case of property pledged to the Commodity Credit Corporation, to the extent of the amount received as a loan from the Commodity Credit Corporation and treated by the taxpayer as income for the year in which received pursuant to Section 24273, and to the extent of any deficiency on that loan with respect to which the taxpayer has been relieved from liability.

(e) For amounts allowed as deductions as deferred expenses under Section 616(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain expenditures in the development of mines, and resulting in a reduction of the taxpayer's tax, but not less than the amounts allowable under that section for the income year and prior years.

(f) For amounts allowable as deductions as deferred expenses under Section 617(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain exploration expenditures, and resulting in a reduction of the taxpayer's tax, but not less than the amounts allowable under that section for the income year and prior years.

(g) For amounts allowed as deductions as deferred expenses under subdivision (a) of Section 24366, relating to research and experimental expenditures, and resulting in a reduction of the bank or corporation's taxes under this part, but not less than the amounts allowable under that section for the income year and prior years.

(h) For amounts allowed as deductions under Sections 24356.2, 24356.3, and 24356.4.

(i) (1) To the extent provided in Section 179A(e)(6)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to basis reduction for clean-fuel vehicles and certain refueling property.

(2) This subdivision shall apply to property placed in service after June 30, 1993, without regard to income year.

(j) In the case of property the acquisition of which resulted under Section 1044 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to rollover of publicly traded securities gain into specialized small business investment companies, in the nonrecognition of any part of the gain realized on the sale of other property, to the extent provided in Section 1044(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to basis adjustments.

SEC. 96.5. Section 24916 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

24916. Proper adjustment with regard to the property shall in all cases be made as follows:

(a) For expenditures, receipts, losses, or other items properly chargeable to capital account. However, no adjustment shall be made for any of the following:

(1) Sales or use tax paid or incurred in connection with the acquisition of property for which a tax credit is claimed pursuant to Section 23612.2.

(2) Taxes or other carrying charges described in Section 24426, or for expenditures described in Sections 24364 and 24369 for which deductions have been taken in determining net income for the income year or any prior income year.

(b) For exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, amortization, and depletion:

(1) In the case of corporations subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101), to the extent sustained prior to January 1, 1928, and to the extent allowed (but not less than the amount allowable) under this part, except that no deduction shall be made for amounts in excess of the amount which would have been allowable had depreciation not been computed on the basis of January 1, 1928, value and amounts in excess of the adjustments required by Section 113(b)(1)(B) of the Federal Revenue Act of 1938 for depletion prior to January 1, 1932.

(2) In the case of a taxpayer subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501), to the extent sustained prior to January 1, 1937, and for periods thereafter to the extent allowed (but not less than the amount allowable) under the provisions of this part.

(3) If a taxpayer has not claimed an amortization deduction for an emergency facility, the adjustment under paragraph (1) shall be made only to the extent ordinarily provided under Sections 24349 and 24372.

(c) In the case of stock (to the extent not provided for in the foregoing subdivisions) for the amount of distributions previously made which, under the law applicable to the year in which the distribution was made, either were tax free or were applicable in reduction of basis (not including distributions made by a corporation, which was classified as a personal service corporation under the provisions of the Federal Revenue Act of 1918 or 1921, out of its earnings or profits which were taxable in accordance with the provisions of Section 218 of the Federal Revenue Act of 1918 or 1921).

(d) (1) In the case of corporations subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101), in the case of any bond, as defined in Section 24363, to the extent of the deductions allowable pursuant to Section 24360 with respect thereto.

(2) In the case of taxpayers subject to the tax imposed by Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501), in the case of any bond, as defined in Section 24363, the interest on which is wholly exempt from the tax imposed by this part, to the extent of the amortizable bond premium disallowable as a deduction pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 24360, and in the case of any other bond, as defined in Section

24363, to the extent of the deductions allowable pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 24360 (or the amount applied to reduce interest payments under paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of Section 24363.5) with respect thereto.

(3) In the case of property pledged to the Commodity Credit Corporation, to the extent of the amount received as a loan from the Commodity Credit Corporation and treated by the taxpayer as income for the year in which received pursuant to Section 24273, and to the extent of any deficiency on that loan with respect to which the taxpayer has been relieved from liability.

(e) For amounts allowed as deductions as deferred expenses under Section 616(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain expenditures in the development of mines, and resulting in a reduction of the taxpayer's tax, but not less than the amounts allowable under that section for the income year and prior years.

(f) For amounts allowable as deductions as deferred expenses under Section 617(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain exploration expenditures, and resulting in a reduction of the taxpayer's tax, but not less than the amounts allowable under that section for the income year and prior years.

SEC. 109. Sections 18601, 23801, 23802, and 23806 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by this act and Sections 17731.5, 19365, 23800.5, 23813, and 24954 as added to the Revenue and Taxation Code by this act shall only become operative if this bill and Senate Bill 5 are both enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, each bill amends or adds each of these sections, and this bill is enacted after Senate Bill 5. If this bill is enacted and Senate Bill 5 is not enacted, or if any condition in the preceding sentence is not fulfilled, the sections specified in the preceding sentence shall not become operative, and notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 17024.5 and 23051.5 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, the amendments to the Internal Revenue Code made by Sections 1301 to 1317, inclusive, of the Small Business Job Protection Act of 1996 (P.L. 104-188), shall not apply.

SEC. 110. Section 6.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 17062 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and SB 1106. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, (2) each bill amends Section 17062 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 1106, in which case Section 17062 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by SB 1106, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 6.5 of this bill shall become operative and Section 6 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 111. Section 26.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 17250 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and AB 122. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, (2) each bill amends Section 17250 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 122, in which case Section 17250 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by AB 122, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 26.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 26 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 112. Section 60.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 19164 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1040. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, but this bill becomes operative first, (2) each bill amends Section 19164 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1040, in which case Section 19164 of the Revenue and Taxation Code as amended by Section 60 of this bill, shall remain operative only until the operative date of AB 1040, at which time Section 60.5 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 113. Section 82.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 24349 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and AB 122. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, (2) each bill amends Section 24349 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 122, in which case Section 24349 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by AB 122, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 82.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 82 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 114. Section 85.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 24357 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1040. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, but this bill becomes operative first, (2) each bill amends Section 24357 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1040, in which case Section 24357 of the Revenue and Taxation Code as amended by Section 85 of this bill, shall remain operative only until the operative date of AB 1040, at which time Section 85.5 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 115. Section 96.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 24916 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and AB 1040. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, but this bill becomes operative first, (2) each bill amends Section 24916 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after AB 1040, in which case Section 24916 of the Revenue and Taxation Code as amended by Section 96 of this bill, shall remain operative only until the operative date of AB 1040, at which time Section 96.5 of this bill shall become operative.

SEC. 116. If Sections 60.5, 85.5, and 96.5 of this bill become operative, both of the following shall apply:

(a) The amendments made to Sections 19164, 24357, and 24916 of the Revenue and Taxation Code by AB 1040 shall be applied from the original effective dates of the acts enacting Sections 19164, 24357, and 24916 of the Revenue and Taxation Code. The Legislature finds and declares that the amendments made to Sections 19164, 24357, and 24916 of the Revenue and Taxation Code by AB 1040 are consistent with the intent of the act enacting those sections.

(b) The amendments made to Sections 19164, 24357, and 24916 of the Revenue and Taxation Code by only this bill shall be operative for taxable or income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

SEC. 117. The amendment to Section 928.5 of the Unemployment Insurance Code made by this act is declarative of existing law and is only for the purpose of conforming to amendments to Section 402 of the Internal Revenue Code.

SEC. 118. The amendments to Section 934 of the Unemployment Insurance Code made by this act are only for the purpose of conforming the state employment tax treatment of "Savings Incentive Match Plans For Employees of Small Employers" (simple retirement accounts) to the federal employment tax treatment as a result of Public Law 104-188.

SEC. 119. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect. However, unless otherwise specifically provided, the provisions of this act shall be applied to taxable and income years beginning on or after January 1, 1997.

CHAPTER 612

An act to amend Sections 17054, 17062, 17152, 17273, 18510, 19184, and 23802 of, and to add Sections 17085.8, 17210.6, 17507.4, 17507.6, 18037.6, and 23712 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor October 1, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 3, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17054 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17054. In the case of individuals, the following credits for personal exemption may be deducted from the tax imposed under Section 17041 or 17048, less any increases imposed under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) or paragraph (1) of subdivision (e), or both, of Section 17560.

(a) In the case of a single individual, a head of household, or a married individual making a separate return, a credit of fifty-one dollars ($51) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, and fifty-two dollars ($52) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988.

(b) In the case of a surviving spouse (as defined in Section 17046), or a husband and wife making a joint return, a credit of one hundred two dollars ($102) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, and one hundred four dollars ($104) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988. If one spouse was a resident for the entire taxable year and the other spouse was a nonresident for all or any portion of the taxable year, the personal exemption shall be divided equally.

(c) In addition to any other credit provided in this section, in the case of an individual who is 65 years of age or over by the end of the taxable year a credit of fifty-one dollars ($51) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, and fifty-two dollars ($52) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988.

(d) A credit of fifty-one dollars ($51) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, fifty-two dollars ($52) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988, and before January 1, 1998, one hundred twenty dollars ($120) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, and before January 1, 1999, and two hundred twenty-two dollars ($222) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1999, for each dependent (as defined in Section 17056) for whom an exemption is allowable under Section 151(c) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to additional exemption for dependents). The increased credit allowed under this subdivision for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1999, shall not be adjusted pursuant to subdivision (i) for any taxable year beginning before January 1, 2000.

(e) A credit for personal exemption of fifty-one dollars ($51) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, and fifty-two dollars ($52) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988, for the taxpayer if he or she is blind at the end of his or her taxable year.

(f) A credit for personal exemption of fifty-one dollars ($51) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, and fifty-two dollars ($52) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988, for the spouse of the taxpayer if a separate return is made by the taxpayer, and if the spouse is blind and, for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins, has no gross income and is not the dependent of another taxpayer.

(g) For the purposes of this section, an individual is blind only if either: his or her central visual acuity does not exceed 20/200 in the better eye with correcting lenses, or his or her visual acuity is greater than 20/200 but is accompanied by a limitation in the fields of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than 20 degrees.

(h) In the case of an individual with respect to whom a credit under this section is allowable to another taxpayer for a taxable year beginning in the calendar year in which the individual's taxable year begins, the credit amount applicable to that individual for that individual's taxable year shall be zero.

(i) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1989, the Franchise Tax Board shall compute the credits prescribed in this section. That computation shall be made as follows:

(1) The California Department of Industrial Relations shall transmit annually to the Franchise Tax Board the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index as modified for rental equivalent homeownership for all items from June of the prior calendar year to June of the current calendar year, no later than August 1 of the current calendar year.

(2) The Franchise Tax Board shall add 100 percent to the percentage change figure which is furnished to them pursuant to paragraph (1), and divide the result by 100.

(3) The Franchise Tax Board shall multiply the immediately preceding taxable year credits by the inflation adjustment factor determined in paragraph (2), and round off the resulting products to the nearest one dollar ($1).

(4) In computing the credits pursuant to this subdivision, the credit provided in subdivision (b) shall be twice the credit provided in subdivision (a).

(j) The amendments made to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall be applied only in the computation of taxes for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1990.

SEC. 1.5. Section 17054 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17054. In the case of individuals, the following credits for personal exemption may be deducted from the tax imposed under Section 17041 or 17048, less any increases imposed under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) or paragraph (1) of subdivision (e), or both, of Section 17560.

(a) In the case of a single individual, a head of household, or a married individual making a separate return, a credit of fifty-one dollars ($51) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, and fifty-two dollars ($52) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988.

(b) In the case of a surviving spouse (as defined in Section 17046), or a husband and wife making a joint return, a credit of one hundred two dollars ($102) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, and one hundred four dollars ($104) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988. If one spouse was a resident for the entire taxable year and the other spouse was a nonresident for all or any portion of the taxable year, the personal exemption shall be divided equally.

(c) In addition to any other credit provided in this section, in the case of an individual who is 65 years of age or over by the end of the taxable year, a credit of fifty-one dollars ($51) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, and fifty-two dollars ($52) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988.

(d) (1) A credit of fifty-one dollars ($51) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, fifty-two dollars ($52) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988, and before January 1, 1998, one hundred twenty dollars ($120) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, and before January 1, 1999, and two hundred twenty-two dollars ($222) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1999, for each dependent (as defined in Section 17056) for whom an exemption is allowable under Section 151(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to additional exemption for dependents. The increased credit allowed under this subdivision for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1999, shall not be adjusted pursuant to subdivision (i) for any taxable year beginning before January 1, 2000.

(2) The credit allowed under paragraph (1) shall not be denied on the basis that the identification number of the dependent, as defined in Section 17056, for whom an exemption is allowable under Section 151(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to additional exemption for dependents, is not included on the return claiming the credit.

(e) A credit for personal exemption of fifty-one dollars ($51) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, and fifty-two dollars ($52) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988, for the taxpayer if he or she is blind at the end of his or her taxable year.

(f) A credit for personal exemption of fifty-one dollars ($51) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1987, and before January 1, 1988, and fifty-two dollars ($52) for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1988, for the spouse of the taxpayer if a separate return is made by the taxpayer, and if the spouse is blind and, for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins, has no gross income and is not the dependent of another taxpayer.

(g) For the purposes of this section, an individual is blind only if either: his or her central visual acuity does not exceed 20/200 in the better eye with correcting lenses, or his or her visual acuity is greater than 20/200 but is accompanied by a limitation in the fields of vision such that the widest diameter of the visual field subtends an angle no greater than 20 degrees.

(h) In the case of an individual with respect to whom a credit under this section is allowable to another taxpayer for a taxable year beginning in the calendar year in which the individual's taxable year begins, the credit amount applicable to that individual for that individual's taxable year shall be zero.

(i) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1989, the Franchise Tax Board shall compute the credits prescribed in this section. That computation shall be made as follows:

(1) The California Department of Industrial Relations shall transmit annually to the Franchise Tax Board the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index as modified for rental equivalent homeownership for all items from June of the prior calendar year to June of the current calendar year, no later than August 1 of the current calendar year.

(2) The Franchise Tax Board shall add 100 percent to the percentage change figure which is furnished to them pursuant to paragraph (1), and divide the result by 100.

(3) The Franchise Tax Board shall multiply the immediately preceding taxable year credits by the inflation adjustment factor determined in paragraph (2), and round off the resulting products to the nearest one dollar ($1).

(4) In computing the credits pursuant to this subdivision, the credit provided in subdivision (b) shall be twice the credit provided in subdivision (a).

(j) The amendments made to this section by the act adding this subdivision shall be applied only in the computation of taxes for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1990.

SEC. 2. Section 17062 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17062. (a) In addition to the other taxes imposed by this part, there is hereby imposed for each taxable year, a tax equal to the excess, if any, of—

(1) The tentative minimum tax for the taxable year, over

(2) The regular tax for the taxable year.

(b) For purposes of this chapter, each of the following shall apply:

(1) The tentative minimum tax shall be computed in accordance with Sections 55 to 59, inclusive, of the Internal Revenue Code, except as otherwise provided in this part.

(2) The regular tax shall be the amount of tax imposed by Section 17041 or 17048, before reduction for any credits against the tax, less any amount imposed under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) and paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 17560.

(3) (A) The provisions of Section 55(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified to provide that the tentative minimum tax for the taxable year shall be equal to the following percent of so much of the alternative minimum taxable income for the taxable year as exceeds the exemption amount, before reduction for any credits against the tax:

(i) For any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and before January 1, 1996, 8.5 percent.

(ii) For any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1996, 7 percent.

(B) In the case of a nonresident or part-year resident, the tentative minimum tax shall be computed as if the nonresident or part-year resident were a resident for the entire year multiplied by the ratio of California adjusted gross income (as modified for purposes of this chapter) to total adjusted gross income from all sources (as modified for purposes of this chapter). For purposes of computing the tax under subparagraph (A) and gross income from all sources, the net operating loss deduction provided in Section 56(d) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be computed as if the taxpayer were a resident for all prior years.

(C) For purposes of this section, the term "California adjusted gross income" includes each of the following:

(i) For any period during which the taxpayer was a resident of this state (as defined by Section 17014), all items of adjusted gross income (as modified for purposes of this chapter), regardless of source.

(ii) For any period during which the taxpayer was not a resident of this state, only those items of adjusted gross income (as modified for purposes of this chapter) which were derived from sources within this state, determined in accordance with Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 17951).

(4) The provisions of Section 55(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to alternative minimum taxable income, shall be modified to provide that alternative minimum taxable income shall not include the income, adjustments, and items of tax preference attributable to any trade or business of a qualified taxpayer.

(A) For purposes of this paragraph, "qualified taxpayer" means a taxpayer who meets both of the following:

(i) Is the owner of, or has an ownership interest in, a trade or business.

(ii) Has aggregate gross receipts, less returns and allowances, of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) during the taxable year from all trades or businesses of which the taxpayer is the owner or has an ownership interest, in the amount of that taxpayer's proportionate interest in each trade or business.

(B) (i) For purposes of this paragraph, "proportionate interest" includes an interest in a passthrough entity.

(ii) For purposes of this paragraph, "passthrough entity" means any of the following:

(I) A partnership, as defined by Section 17008.

(II) An S corporation, as provided in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 23800) of Part 11.

(III) A regulated investment company, as provided in Section 24871.

(IV) A real estate investment trust, as provided in Section 24872.

(V) A real estate mortgage investment conduit, as provided in Section 24874.

(5) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, Section 55(d)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to exemption amount for taxpayers other than corporations, is modified, for purposes of this part, to provide the following exemption amounts in lieu of those contained therein:

(A) Fifty-seven thousand two hundred sixty dollars ($57,260) in the case of either of the following:

(ii) A surviving spouse.

(B) Forty-two thousand nine hundred forty-five dollars ($42,945) in the case of an individual who is both of the following:

(i) Not a married individual.

(ii) Not a surviving spouse.

(C) Twenty-eight thousand three hundred sixty dollars ($28,360) in the case of either of the following:

(i) A married individual who files a separate return.

(ii) An estate or trust.

(6) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, Section 55(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the phaseout of exemption amount for taxpayers other than corporations, is modified, for purposes of this part, to provide the following phaseout of exemption amounts in lieu of those contained therein:

(A) Two hundred fourteen thousand seven hundred twenty-five dollars ($214,725) in the case of a taxpayer described in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (5).

(B) One hundred sixty-one thousand forty-four dollars ($161,044) in the case of a taxpayer described in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (5).

(C) One hundred seventeen thousand three hundred sixty-two dollars ($117,362) in the case of a taxpayer described in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (5).

(7) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1999, the Franchise Tax Board shall recompute the exemption amounts prescribed in paragraph (5) and the phaseout of exemption amounts prescribed in paragraph (6). Those computations shall be made as follows:

(A) The California Department of Industrial Relations shall transmit annually to the Franchise Tax Board the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index for all items from June of the prior calendar year to June of the current calendar year, no later than August 1 of the current calendar year.

(B) The Franchise Tax Board shall do both of the following:

(i) Compute an inflation adjustment factor by adding 100 percent to the percentage change figure that is furnished pursuant to subparagraph (A) and dividing the result by 100.

(ii) Multiply the preceding taxable year exemption amounts and the phaseout of exemption amounts by the inflation adjustment factor determined in clause (i) and round off the resulting products to the nearest one dollar ($1).

(c) (1) Section 56(b)(1)(E) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to standard deduction and deduction for personal exemptions not allowed, is modified, for purposes of this part, to deny the standard deduction allowed by Section 17073.5.

(2) The provisions of Section 56(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to adjustment based on energy preferences, shall not apply.

(d) The provisions of Section 57(a)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax-exempt interest shall not apply.

(e) The last two sentences of Section 57(a)(6)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tangible personal property, shall not apply.

(f) Section 57(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to items of tax preference, is modified to include as an item of tax preference an amount equal to one-half of the amount excluded from gross income for the taxable year under Section 18152.5.

(g) The provisions of Section 59(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the alternative minimum tax foreign tax credit, shall not apply.

SEC. 2.5. Section 17062 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17062. (a) In addition to the other taxes imposed by this part, there is hereby imposed for each taxable year, a tax equal to the excess, if any, of—

(1) The tentative minimum tax for the taxable year, over

(2) The regular tax for the taxable year.

(b) For purposes of this chapter, each of the following shall apply:

(1) The tentative minimum tax shall be computed in accordance with Sections 55 to 59, inclusive, of the Internal Revenue Code, except as otherwise provided in this part.

(2) The regular tax shall be the amount of tax imposed by Section 17041 or 17048, before reduction for any credits against the tax, less any amount imposed under paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) and paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of Section 17560.

(3) (A) The provisions of Section 55(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified to provide that the tentative minimum tax for the taxable year shall be equal to the following percent of so much of the alternative minimum taxable income for the taxable year as exceeds the exemption amount, before reduction for any credits against the tax:

(i) For any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1991, and before January 1, 1996, 8.5 percent.

(ii) For any taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1996, 7 percent.

(B) In the case of a nonresident or part-year resident, the tentative minimum tax shall be computed as if the nonresident or part-year resident were a resident for the entire year multiplied by the ratio of California adjusted gross income (as modified for purposes of this chapter) to total adjusted gross income from all sources (as modified for purposes of this chapter). For purposes of computing the tax under subparagraph (A) and gross income from all sources, the net operating loss deduction provided in Section 56(d) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be computed as if the taxpayer were a resident for all prior years.

(C) For purposes of this section, the term "California adjusted gross income" includes each of the following:

(i) For any period during which the taxpayer was a resident of this state (as defined by Section 17014), all items of adjusted gross income (as modified for purposes of this chapter), regardless of source.

(ii) For any period during which the taxpayer was not a resident of this state, only those items of adjusted gross income (as modified for purposes of this chapter) which were derived from sources within this state, determined in accordance with Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 17951).

(4) The provisions of Section 55(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to alternative minimum taxable income, shall be modified to provide that alternative minimum taxable income shall not include the income, adjustments, and items of tax preference attributable to any trade or business of a qualified taxpayer.

(A) For purposes of this paragraph, "qualified taxpayer" means a taxpayer who meets both of the following:

(i) Is the owner of, or has an ownership interest in, a trade or business.

(ii) Has aggregate gross receipts, less returns and allowances, of less than one million dollars ($1,000,000) during the taxable year from all trades or businesses of which the taxpayer is the owner or has an ownership interest, in the amount of that taxpayer's proportionate interest in each trade or business.

(B) (i) For purposes of this paragraph, "proportionate interest" includes an interest in a passthrough entity.

(ii) For purposes of this paragraph, "passthrough entity" means any of the following:

(I) A partnership, as defined by Section 17008.

(II) An S corporation, as provided in Chapter 4.5 (commencing with Section 23800) of Part 11.

(III) A regulated investment company, as provided in Section 24871.

(IV) A real estate investment trust, as provided in Section 24872.

(V) A real estate mortgage investment conduit, as provided in Section 24874.

(5) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, Section 55(d)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to exemption amount for taxpayers other than corporations is modified, for purposes of this part, to provide the following exemption amounts in lieu of those contained therein:

(A) Fifty-seven thousand two hundred sixty dollars ($57,260) in the case of either of the following:

(ii) A surviving spouse.

(B) Forty-two thousand nine hundred forty-five dollars ($42,945) in the case of an individual who is both of the following:

(i) Not a married individual.

(ii) Not a surviving spouse.

(C) Twenty-eight thousand three hundred sixty dollars ($28,360) in the case of either of the following:

(i) A married individual who files a separate return.

(ii) An estate or trust.

(6) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, Section 55(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the phaseout of exemption amount for taxpayers other than corporations is modified, for purposes of this part, to provide the following phaseout of exemption amounts in lieu of those contained therein:

(A) Two hundred fourteen thousand seven hundred twenty-five dollars ($214,725) in the case of a taxpayer described in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (5).

(B) One hundred sixty-one thousand forty-four dollars ($161,044) in the case of a taxpayer described in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (5).

(C) One hundred seventeen thousand three hundred sixty-two dollars ($117,362) in the case of a taxpayer described in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (5).

(7) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1999, the Franchise Tax Board shall recompute the exemption amounts prescribed in paragraph (5) and the phaseout of exemption amounts prescribed in paragraph (6). Those computations shall be made as follows:

(A) The California Department of Industrial Relations shall transmit annually to the Franchise Tax Board the percentage change in the California Consumer Price Index for all items from June of the prior calendar year to June of the current calendar year, no later than August 1 of the current calendar year.

(B) The Franchise Tax Board shall do both of the following:

(i) Compute an inflation adjustment factor by adding 100 percent to the percentage change figure that is furnished pursuant to subparagraph (A) and dividing the result by 100.

(ii) Multiply the preceding taxable year exemption amounts and the phaseout of exemption amounts by the inflation adjustment factor determined in clause (i) and round off the resulting products to the nearest one dollar ($1).

(c) Section 56(b)(1)(E) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to standard deduction and deduction for personal exemptions not allowed, is modified, for purposes of this part, to deny the standard deduction allowed by Section 17073.5.

(d) The provisions of Section 57(a)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax-exempt interest shall not apply.

(e) (1) Section 57(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to items of tax preference, is modified to include as an item of tax preference the amount by which the deduction allowable under Section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to charitable contributions or gifts, or Section 642(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to deduction for amounts paid or permanently set aside for a charitable purpose, would be reduced if all capital gain property were taken into account at its adjusted basis.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), the term "capital gain property" has the meaning given to that term by Section 170(b)(1)(C)(iv) of the Internal Revenue Code. That term shall not include any property to which an election under Section 170(b)(1)(C)(iii) of the Internal Revenue Code applies.

(f) Section 57(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to items of tax preference, is modified to include as an item of tax preference an amount equal to one-half of the amount excluded from gross income for the taxable year under Section 18152.5.

(g) The provisions of Section 59(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the alternative minimum tax foreign tax credit, shall not apply.

SEC. 3. Section 17085.8 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17085.8. (a) Section 72 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to 10 percent additional tax on early distributions from qualified retirement plans, is modified as follows:

(1) Section 72(t)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to subsection not to apply to certain distributions, is modified to additionally provide that distributions to an individual from an individual retirement plan to the extent the distributions do not exceed the qualified higher education expenses, as defined in paragraph (2), of the taxpayer for the taxable year shall not be taken into account if those distributions are described in Section 72(t)(2)(A), 72(t)(2)(C), or 72(t)(2)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code or to the extent Section 72(t)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code does not apply to those distributions by reason of Section 72(t)(2)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1) "qualified higher education expenses" means qualified higher education expenses, as defined in Section 529(e)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, for education furnished to any of the following:

(B) The taxpayer's spouse.

(C) Any child, as defined in Section 151(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or grandchild of the taxpayer or the taxpayer's spouse, at an eligible educational institution, as defined in Section 529(e)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code, as added by Public Law 105-34.

(3) This subdivision shall apply to distributions after December 31, 1997, with respect to expenses paid after that date (in taxable years ending after that date), for education furnished in academic periods beginning after that date.

(b) (1) Section 72(t)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to subsection not to apply to certain distributions, is modified to additionally provide that distributions to an individual from an individual retirement plan which are qualified first-time homebuyer distributions, as defined in paragraph (2) shall not be taken into account if the distributions are described in Section 72(t)(2)(A), Section 72(t)(2)(C), or Section 72(t)(2)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code, or Section 72(t)(2)(E) of the Internal Revenue Code, as added by Public Law 105-34, or to the extent Section 72(t)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code does not apply to those distributions by reason of Section 72(t)(2)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision:

(A) (i) "Qualified first-time homebuyer distribution" means any payment or distribution received by an individual to the extent the payment or distribution is used by the individual before the close of the 120th day after the day on which that payment or distribution is received to pay qualified acquisition costs with respect to a principal residence of a first-time homebuyer who is that individual, the spouse of that individual, or any child, grandchild, or ancestor of that individual or the spouse of the child, grandchild, or ancestor.

(ii) The aggregate amount of payments or distributions received by an individual which may be treated as qualified first-time homebuyer distributions for any taxable year shall not exceed the excess (if any) of—

(I) Ten thousand dollars ($10,000), over

(II) The aggregate amounts treated as qualified first-time homebuyer distribution with respect to the individual for all prior taxable years.

(B) "Qualified acquisition costs" means the costs of acquiring, constructing, or reconstructing a residence. "Qualified acquisition costs" includes any usual or reasonable settlement, financing, or other closing costs.

(C) "First-time homebuyer" means any individual if both of the following apply:

(i) The individual (and if married, the individual's spouse) had no present ownership interest in a principal residence during the two-year period ending on the date of acquisition of the principal residence to which this paragraph applies.

(ii) Section 1034(h) or 1034(k) of the Internal Revenue Code (as in effect on the day before the date of the enactment of this paragraph) did not suspend the running of any period of time specified in Section 1034 of the Internal Revenue Code (as so in effect) with respect to that individual on the day before the date the distribution is applied pursuant to subparagraph (A).

(D) "Principal residence" has the same meaning as when used in Section 17152.

(E) "Date of acquisition" means either of the following:

(i) The date on which a binding contract to acquire the principal residence to which subparagraph (A) applies is entered into.

(ii) The date on which construction or reconstruction of the principal residence is commenced.

(F) If any distribution from any individual retirement plan fails to meet the requirements of subparagraph (A) solely by reason of a delay or cancellation of the purchase or construction of the residence, the amount of the distribution may be contributed to an individual retirement plan as provided in Section 408(d)(3)(A)(i) of the Internal Revenue Code (determined by substituting "120 days" for "60 days" in that section), except that both of the following shall apply:

(i) Section 408(d)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be applied to that contribution.

(ii) That amount shall not be taken into account in determining whether Section 408(d)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code applies to any other amount.

(3) This subdivision shall apply to payments and distributions in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1998.

SEC. 4. Section 17152 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17152. (a) For sales and exchanges before July 1, 1998, Section 121 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to one-time exclusion of gain from sale of principal residence by individual who has attained age 55, is modified to additionally include both of the following:

(1) The dollar amount of the exclusion in Section 121(b) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be the same as allowed for federal purposes as determined by the taxpayer's filing status for federal purposes even though the taxpayer is prohibited from filing a joint return pursuant to Section 18521. However, in no instance shall the total amount excludable for the sale of a principal residence exceed the maximum amount allowed by Section 121(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) The three-year period in Section 121(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be reduced by the period of the taxpayer's service, not to exceed 18 months, in the Peace Corps during the five-year period ending on the date of the sale or exchange.

(b) For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, in connection with sales and exchanges on and after July 1, 1998, Section 121 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to one-time exclusion of gain from sale of principal residence by an individual who has attained age 55, shall not apply and in lieu of that section subdivisions (c) to (h), inclusive, shall apply. References in the Internal Revenue Code to Section 121 of the Internal Revenue Code shall instead be treated as a reference to subdivision (c) of this section.

(c) Gross income shall not include gain from the sale or exchange of property if, during the five-year period ending on the date of the sale or exchange, the property has been owned and used by the taxpayer as the taxpayer's principal residence for periods aggregating two years or more. The two-year period shall be reduced by the period of the taxpayer's service, not to exceed 18 months, in the Peace Corps during the five-year period ending on the date of the sale or exchange.

(d) (1) The amount of gain excluded from gross income under subdivision (c) with respect to any sale or exchange shall not exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000).

(2) Paragraph (1) shall be applied by substituting five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) for two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) if all of the following conditions are met:

(A) A husband and wife make a joint return for the taxable year of the sale or exchange of the property.

(B) Either spouse meets the ownership requirements of subdivision (c) with respect to the property.

(C) Both spouses meet the use requirements of subdivision (c) with respect to the property.

(D) Neither spouse is ineligible for the benefits of subdivision (c) with respect to the property by reason of paragraph (3).

(3) (A) Subdivision (c) shall not apply to any sale or exchange by the taxpayer if, during the two-year period ending on the date of the sale or exchange, there was any other sale or exchange by the taxpayer to which subdivision (c) applied.

(B) Subparagraph (A) shall be applied without regard to any sale or exchange before May 7, 1997.

(4) If the taxpayer is prohibited from filing a joint return pursuant to Section 18521, subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) shall nevertheless be treated as being satisfied if the taxpayer files a joint return for federal income tax purposes for the same taxable year. However, in no instance shall the total amount excludable from gross income under subdivision (c) with respect to any sale or exchange exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000).

(e) (1) In the case of a sale or exchange that is subject to this subdivision in accordance with paragraph (2), the ownership and use requirements of subdivision (c) shall not apply and paragraph (3) of subdivision (d) shall not apply, but the amount of gain excluded from gross income under subdivision (c) with respect to the sale or exchange shall not exceed the amount that bears the same ratio to the amount that would be so excluded if those requirements had been met, as the shorter of the following two periods bears to two years:

(A) The aggregate periods, during the five-year period ending on date of the sale or exchange, during which the property has been owned and used by the taxpayer as the taxpayer's principal residence.

(B) The period after the date of the most recent prior sale or exchange by the taxpayer to which subdivision (c) applied and before the date of the sale or exchange.

(2) This subdivision shall apply to any sale or exchange if:

(A) Subdivision (c) would not, but for this subdivision, apply to the sale or exchange by reason of either of the following:

(i) A failure to meet the ownership and use requirements of subdivision (c).

(ii) Paragraph (3) of subdivision (d).

(B) The sale or exchange is by reason of a change in place of employment, health, or, to the extent provided in regulations, unforeseen circumstances.

(f) (1) For purposes of this section, in the case of an unmarried individual whose spouse is deceased on the date of the sale or exchange of property, the period the unmarried individual owned the property shall include the period the deceased spouse owned the property before death.

(2) For purposes of this section:

(A) In the case of an individual holding property transferred to that individual in a transaction described in Section 1041(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, the period the individual owns the property shall include the period the transferor owned the property.

(B) Solely for purposes of this section, an individual shall be treated as using property as that individual's principal residence during any period of ownership while that individual's spouse or former spouse is granted use of the property under a divorce or separation instrument, as defined in Section 71(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) For purposes of this section, if the taxpayer holds stock as a tenant-stockholder, as defined in Section 216 of the Internal Revenue Code, in a cooperative housing corporation, as defined in Section 216 of the Internal Revenue Code:

(A) The holding requirements of subdivision (c) shall be applied to the holding of that stock.

(B) The use requirements of subdivision (c) shall be applied to the house or apartment which the taxpayer was entitled to occupy as the stockholder.

(4) (A) For purposes of this section, the destruction, theft, seizure, requisition, or condemnation of property shall be treated as the sale of the property.

(B) In applying Section 1033 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to involuntary conversions, the amount realized from the sale or exchange of property shall be treated as being the amount determined without regard to this section, reduced by the amount of gain not included in gross income pursuant to this section.

(C) If the basis of the property sold or exchanged is determined, in whole or in part, under Section 1033(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to basis of property acquired through involuntary conversion, then the holding and use by the taxpayer of the converted property shall be treated as holding and use by the taxpayer of the property sold or exchanged.

(5) Subdivision (c) shall not apply to so much of the gain from the sale of any property as does not exceed the portion of the depreciation adjustments, as defined in Section 1250(b)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, attributable to periods after May 6, 1997, with respect to that property.

(6) In the case of a taxpayer who becomes physically or mentally incapable of self-care, and owns property and uses the property as the taxpayer's principal residence during the five-year period described in subdivision (c) for periods aggregating at least one year, the taxpayer shall be treated as using the property as the taxpayer's principal residence during any time during the five-year period in which the taxpayer owns the property and resides in any facility, including a nursing home, licensed by a state or political subdivision to care for an individual in the taxpayer's condition.

(7) In the case of any sale or exchange, for purposes of this section:

(A) The determination of whether an individual is married shall be made as of the date of the sale or exchange.

(B) An individual legally separated from his or her spouse under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance shall not be considered as married.

(8) For purposes of this section:

(A) At the election of the taxpayer, this section shall not fail to apply to the sale or exchange of an interest in a principal residence by reason of that interest being a remainder interest in the residence, but this section shall not apply to any other interest in that residence which is sold or exchanged separately.

(B) Subparagraph (A) shall not apply to any sale to, or exchange with, any person who bears a relationship to the taxpayer which is described in Section 267(b) or 707(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(g) If a taxpayer has, at any time, made an election for federal purposes under Section 121(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by Public Law 105-34, not to have Section 121 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by Public Law 105-34, apply to a sale or exchange, subdivision (c) of this section shall not apply to that sale or exchange, a separate election for state purposes shall not be allowed under paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 17024.5, the federal election shall be binding for purposes of this part, and that election shall be treated as an election to include in gross income for purposes of this part all the gain from the sale or exchange of property, including that amount which, but for that election, would have been excluded from income under subdivision (c) of this section.

(h) For purposes of this section, in the case of property the acquisition of which by the taxpayer resulted under Section 1034 of the Internal Revenue Code, as applicable on the day before the date of enactment of the act adding this subdivision, in the nonrecognition of any part of the gain realized on the sale or exchange of another residence, in determining the period for which the taxpayer has owned and used the property as the taxpayer's principal residence, there shall be included the aggregate periods for which the other residence, and each prior residence taken into account under Section 1223(7) of the Internal Revenue Code in determining the holding period of the property, had been so owned and used.

(i) For sales and exchanges on or after May 7, 1997, and on or before June 30, 1998, the provisions that require a report under Section 18643 are modified to only require a copy of the federal return required to be filed with the Secretary of the Treasury under Section 6045(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by Public Law 105-34.

SEC. 4.5. Section 17152 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17152. (a) For sales and exchanges before May 7, 1997, Section 121 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to one-time exclusion of gain from sale of principal residence by individual who has attained age 55, is modified to additionally include both of the following:

(1) The dollar amount of the exclusion in Section 121(b) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be the same as allowed for federal purposes as determined by the taxpayer's filing status for federal purposes even though the taxpayer is prohibited from filing a joint return pursuant to Section 18521. However, in no instance shall the total amount excludable for the sale of a principal residence exceed the maximum amount allowed by Section 121(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) The three-year period in Section 121(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be reduced by the period of the taxpayer's service, not to exceed 18 months, in the Peace Corps during the five-year period ending on the date of the sale or exchange.

(b) For sales and exchanges on and after May 7, 1997, Section 121 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to one-time exclusion of gain from sale of principal residence by an individual who has attained age 55, shall not apply and in lieu of that section subdivisions (c) to (h), inclusive, shall apply. References in the Internal Revenue Code to Section 121 of the Internal Revenue Code shall instead be treated as a reference to subdivision (c) of this section.

(c) Gross income shall not include gain from the sale or exchange of property if, during the five-year period ending on the date of the sale or exchange, the property has been owned and used by the taxpayer as the taxpayer's principal residence for periods aggregating two years or more. The two-year period shall be reduced by the period of the taxpayer's service, not to exceed 18 months, in the Peace Corps during the five-year period ending on the date of the sale or exchange.

(d) (1) The amount of gain excluded from gross income under subdivision (c) with respect to any sale or exchange shall not exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000).

(2) Paragraph (1) shall be applied by substituting five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) for two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) if all of the following conditions are met:

(A) A husband and wife make a joint return for the taxable year of the sale or exchange of the property.

(B) Either spouse meets the ownership requirements of subdivision (c) with respect to the property.

(C) Both spouses meet the use requirements of subdivision (c) with respect to the property.

(D) Neither spouse is ineligible for the benefits of subdivision (c) with respect to the property by reason of paragraph (3).

(3) (A) Subdivision (c) shall not apply to any sale or exchange by the taxpayer if, during the two-year period ending on the date of the sale or exchange, there was any other sale or exchange by the taxpayer to which subdivision (c) applied.

(B) Subparagraph (A) shall be applied without regard to any sale or exchange before May 7, 1997.

(4) If the taxpayer is prohibited from filing a joint return pursuant to Section 18521, subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) shall nevertheless be treated as being satisfied if the taxpayer files a joint return for federal income tax purposes for the same taxable year. However, in no instance shall the total amount excludable from gross income under subdivision (c) with respect to any sale or exchange exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000).

(e) (1) In the case of a sale or exchange that is subject to this subdivision in accordance with paragraph (2), the ownership and use requirements of subdivision (c) shall not apply and paragraph (3) of subdivision (d) shall not apply, but the amount of gain excluded from gross income under subdivision (c) with respect to the sale or exchange shall not exceed the amount that bears the same ratio to the amount that would be so excluded if those requirements had been met, as the shorter of the following two periods bears to two years:

(A) The aggregate periods, during the five-year period ending on the date of the sale or exchange, during which the property has been owned and used by the taxpayer as the taxpayer's principal residence.

(B) The period after the date of the most recent prior sale or exchange by the taxpayer to which subdivision (c) applied and before the date of the sale or exchange.

(2) This subdivision shall apply to any sale or exchange if:

(A) Subdivision (c) would not, but for this subdivision, apply to the sale or exchange by reason of either of the following:

(i) A failure to meet the ownership and use requirements of subdivision (c).

(ii) Paragraph (3) of subdivision (d).

(B) The sale or exchange is by reason of a change in place of employment, health, or, to the extent provided in regulations, unforeseen circumstances.

(f) (1) For purposes of this section, in the case of an unmarried individual whose spouse is deceased on the date of the sale or exchange of property, the period the unmarried individual owned the property shall include the period the deceased spouse owned the property before death.

(2) For purposes of this section:

(A) In the case of an individual holding property transferred to that individual in a transaction described in Section 1041(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, the period the individual owns the property shall include the period the transferor owned the property.

(B) Solely for purposes of this section, an individual shall be treated as using property as that individual's principal residence during any period of ownership while that individual's spouse or former spouse is granted use of the property under a divorce or separation instrument, as defined in Section 71(b)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(3) For purposes of this section, if the taxpayer holds stock as a tenant-stockholder, as defined in Section 216 of the Internal Revenue Code, in a cooperative housing corporation, as defined in Section 216 of the Internal Revenue Code:

(A) The holding requirements of subdivision (c) shall be applied to the holding of that stock.

(B) The use requirements of subdivision (c) shall be applied to the house or apartment which the taxpayer was entitled to occupy as the stockholder.

(4) (A) For purposes of this section, the destruction, theft, seizure, requisition, or condemnation of property shall be treated as the sale of the property.

(B) In applying Section 1033 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to involuntary conversions, the amount realized from the sale or exchange of property shall be treated as being the amount determined without regard to this section, reduced by the amount of gain not included in gross income pursuant to this section.

(C) If the basis of the property sold or exchanged is determined, in whole or in part, under Section 1033(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to basis of property acquired through involuntary conversion, then the holding and use by the taxpayer of the converted property shall be treated as holding and use by the taxpayer of the property sold or exchanged.

(5) Subdivision (c) shall not apply to so much of the gain from the sale of any property as does not exceed the portion of the depreciation adjustments, as defined in Section 1250(b)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, attributable to periods after May 6, 1997, with respect to that property.

(6) In the case of a taxpayer who becomes physically or mentally incapable of self-care, and owns property and uses the property as the taxpayer's principal residence during the five-year period described in subdivision (c) for periods aggregating at least one year, the taxpayer shall be treated as using the property as the taxpayer's principal residence during any time during the five-year period in which the taxpayer owns the property and resides in any facility, including a nursing home, licensed by a state or political subdivision to care for an individual in the taxpayer's condition.

(7) In the case of any sale or exchange, for purposes of this section:

(A) The determination of whether an individual is married shall be made as of the date of the sale or exchange.

(B) An individual legally separated from his or her spouse under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance shall not be considered as married.

(8) For purposes of this section:

(A) At the election of the taxpayer, this section shall not fail to apply to the sale or exchange of an interest in a principal residence by reason of that interest being a remainder interest in the residence, but this section shall not apply to any other interest in that residence which is sold or exchanged separately.

(B) Subparagraph (A) shall not apply to any sale to, or exchange with, any person who bears a relationship to the taxpayer which is described in Section 267(b) or 707(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(g) If a taxpayer has, at any time, made an election for federal purposes under Section 121(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by Public Law 105-34, not to have Section 121 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by Public Law 105-34, apply to a sale or exchange, subdivision (c) of this section shall not apply to that sale or exchange, a separate election for state purposes shall not be allowed under paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 17024.5, the federal election shall be binding for purposes of this part, and that election shall be treated as an election to include in gross income for purposes of this part all the gain from the sale or exchange of property, including that amount which, but for that election, would have been excluded from income under subdivision (c) of this section.

(h) For purposes of this section, in the case of property the acquisition of which by the taxpayer resulted under Section 1034 of the Internal Revenue Code, as applicable on the day before the date of enactment of the act adding this subdivision, in the nonrecognition of any part of the gain realized on the sale or exchange of another residence, in determining the period for which the taxpayer has owned and used the property as the taxpayer's principal residence, there shall be included the aggregate periods for which the other residence, and each prior residence taken into account under Section 1223(7) of the Internal Revenue Code in determining the holding period of the property, had been so owned and used.

(i) For sales and exchanges on or after May 7, 1997, the provisions that require a report under Section 18643 are modified to only require a copy of the federal return required to be filed with the Secretary of the Treasury under Section 6045(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by Public Law 105-34.

SEC. 5. Section 17210.6 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17210.6. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, Section 219 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to retirement savings, is modified as follows:

(a) Section 219(c)(1)(B)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to substitute, in lieu of the language in that clause, "the compensation includable in the gross income of that individual's spouse for the taxable year reduced by both of the following:

(1) The amount allowed as a deduction under Section 219(a) of the Internal Revenue Code to that spouse for that taxable year.

(2) The amount of any contribution on behalf of that spouse to a Roth IRA under Section 17507.6 of that taxable year."

(b) Section 219(g)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified as follows:

(1) By substituting the phrase "an individual" in lieu of the phrase "an individual or the individual's spouse."

(2) In the case of an individual who is an active participant at no time during any plan year ending with or within the taxable year but whose spouse is an active participant for any part of any of those plan years both of the following shall apply:

(A) The applicable dollar amount under Section 219(g)(3)(B)(i) of the Internal Revenue Code with respect to the taxpayer shall be one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000).

(B) The amount applicable under Section 219(g)(2)(A)(ii) shall be ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(c) Section 219(g)(2)(A)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by substituting "ten thousand dollars ($10,000), twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) in the case of a joint return for a taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2007)" in lieu of "ten thousand dollars ($10,000)."

(d) Section 219(g)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to provide that "applicable dollar amount" means, in lieu of the amounts provided therein, the following:

(1) In the case of a taxpayer filing a joint return:

For taxable years beginning in:	The applicable dollar amount is:
1998	$50,000
1999	$51,000
2000	$52,000
2001	$53,000

2002	$54,000
2003	$60,000
2004	$65,000
2005	$70,000
2006	$75,000
2007 and thereafter	$80,000

(2) In the case of any other taxpayer (other than a married individual filing a separate return):

For taxable years beginning in:	The applicable dollar amount is:
1998	$30,000
1999	$31,000
2000	$32,000
2001	$33,000
2002	$34,000
2003	$40,000
2004	$45,000
2005 and thereafter	$50,000

(3) In the case of a married individual filing a separate return, zero.

SEC. 6. Section 17273 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17273. Section 162(l)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to applicable percentage, is modified by substituting "25 percent" for the percentages specified in that section.

SEC. 7. Section 17507.4 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17507.4. Section 408 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to individual retirement accounts is modified as follows:

(a) Section 408(i) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified as follows:

(1) By substituting "may require" in lieu of "may require under regulations."

(2) By substituting "prescribes" in lieu of "prescribes in such regulations" in each place it appears.

(b) Section 408(m)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply and in lieu thereof, "collectible" shall not include either of the following:

(A) Any coin which is any of the following:

(i) A gold coin described in Section 5112(a)(7), 5112(a)(8), 5112(a)(9), or 5112(a)(10) of Title 31 of the United States Code.

(ii) A silver coin described in Section 5112(e) of Title 31 of the United States Code.

(iii) A platinum coin described in Section 5112(k) of Title 31 of the United States Code.

(iv) A coin issued under the laws of any state.

(B) Any gold, silver, platinum, or palladium bullion of a fineness equal to or exceeding the minimum fineness that a contract market as described in Section 7 of the Commodity Exchange Act (7 U.S.C. Sec. 7) requires for metals which may be delivered in satisfaction of a regulated futures contract, if that bullion is in the physical possession of a trustee described under Section 408(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) This section shall apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1998.

SEC. 8. Section 17507.6 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

17507.6. (a) Except as provided in this section, a Roth IRA shall be treated for purposes of this part in the same manner as an individual retirement plan.

(b) For purposes of this part, "Roth IRA" means an individual retirement plan (as described in Section 7701(a)(37) of the Internal Revenue Code) which is designated at the time of establishment of the plan as a Roth IRA. That designation shall be made in the manner as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe unless the Franchise Tax Board prescribes differently.

(c) (1) No deduction shall be allowed under Section 219 of the Internal Revenue Code for a contribution to a Roth IRA.

(2) The aggregate amount of contributions for any taxable year to all Roth IRAs maintained for the benefit of an individual shall not exceed the excess, if any, of—

(A) The maximum amount allowable as a deduction under Section 219 of the Internal Revenue Code with respect to that individual for that taxable year (computed without regard to Section 219(d)(1) or 219(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, over

(B) The aggregate amount of contributions for that taxable year to all other individual retirement plans (other than Roth IRAs) maintained for the benefit of the individual.

(3) (A) The amount determined under paragraph (2) for any taxable year shall be reduced (but not below zero) by the amount which bears the same ratio to that amount as—

(i) The excess of—

(I) The amount required to be shown as adjusted gross income on the taxpayer's federal tax return for that same taxable year, over

(II) The applicable dollar amount, bears to

(ii) Fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) (ten thousand dollars ($10,000) in the case of a joint return). The rules of subparagraphs (B) and (C) of Section 219(g)(2) shall apply to any reduction under this subparagraph.

(B) A taxpayer shall not be allowed to make a qualified rollover contribution to a Roth IRA from an individual retirement plan other than a Roth IRA during any taxable year if either of the following occur:

(i) The amount required to be shown as adjusted gross income on the taxpayer's federal tax return for that same taxable year exceeds one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).

(ii) The taxpayer is a married individual filing a separate return.

(C) For purposes of this paragraph:

(i) Federal adjusted gross income shall be determined in the same manner as under Section 219(g)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that any amount included in gross income under paragraph (3) of subdivision (d) shall not be taken into account and the deduction under Section 219 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be taken into account, and

(ii) The applicable dollar amount is:

(I) In the case of a taxpayer filing a joint return, one hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($150,000).

(II) In the case of any other taxpayer (other than a married individual filing a separate return), ninety-five thousand dollars ($95,000).

(III) In the case of a married individual filing a separate return, zero.

(D) Section 219(g)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply for purposes of this paragraph.

(4) Contributions to a Roth IRA may be made even after the individual for whom the account is maintained has attained age 70 $^{1}/_{2}$ years.

(5) Notwithstanding Sections 408(a)(6) and 408(b)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to required distributions, the following provisions shall not apply to any Roth IRA:

(A) Section 401(a)(9)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) The incidental death benefit requirements of Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(6)(A) No rollover contribution may be made to a Roth IRA unless it is a qualified rollover contribution.

(B) A qualified rollover contribution shall not be taken into account for purposes of paragraph (2).

(7) For purposes of this section, the rule of Section 219(f)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply.

(d) For purposes of this part:

(1) (A) Any qualified distribution from a Roth IRA shall not be includable in gross income.

(B) In applying Section 72 to any distribution from a Roth IRA which is not a qualified distribution, the distribution shall be treated as made from contributions to the Roth IRA to the extent that the distribution, when added to all previous distributions from the Roth

IRA, does not exceed the aggregate amount of contributions to the Roth IRA.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "Qualified distribution" means any payment or distribution that is any of the following:

(i) Made on or after the date on which the individual attains age 59 1/2.

(ii) Made to a beneficiary (or to the estate of the individual) on or after the death of the individual.

(iii) Attributable to the individual's being disabled (within the meaning of Section 72(m)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code).

(iv) A qualified special purpose distribution.

(B) A payment or distribution shall not be treated as a qualified distribution under subparagraph (A) if either of the following apply:

(i) It is made within the five-taxable year period beginning with the first taxable year for which the individual made a contribution to a Roth IRA (or the individual's spouse made a contribution to a Roth IRA) established for that individual.

(ii) In the case of a payment or distribution properly allocable (as determined in the manner prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, unless the Franchise Tax Board prescribes otherwise) to a qualified rollover contribution from an individual retirement plan other than a Roth IRA (or income allocable thereto), it is made within the five-taxable year period beginning with the taxable year in which the rollover contribution was made.

(3) (A) Notwithstanding Section 408(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, in the case of any distribution to which this paragraph applies, all of the following shall apply:

(i) There shall be included in gross income any amount which would be includable were it not part of a qualified rollover contribution.

(ii) Section 72(t) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply.

(iii) In the case of a distribution before January 1, 1999, any amount required to be included in gross income by reason of this paragraph shall be so included ratably over the four-taxable year period beginning with the taxable year in which the payment or distribution is made.

(B) This paragraph shall apply to a distribution from an individual retirement plan (other than a Roth IRA) maintained for the benefit of an individual which is contributed to a Roth IRA maintained for the benefit of that individual in a qualified rollover contribution.

(C) The conversion of an individual retirement plan (other than a Roth IRA) to a Roth IRA shall be treated for purposes of this paragraph as a distribution to which this paragraph applies.

(D) If, no later than the due date for filing the return of tax for any taxable year (without regard to extension), an individual transfers, from an individual retirement plan (other than a Roth IRA), contributions for that taxable year (and any earnings allocable thereto) to a Roth IRA, none of that amount shall be includable in gross income to the extent no deduction was allowed with respect to that amount.

(E) Trustees of Roth IRAs, trustees of individual retirement plans, or both, whichever is appropriate, shall include the additional information in reports required under Section 17507 and Section 408(i) of the Internal Revenue Code as either the Franchise Tax Board or the Secretary of the Treasury may require to ensure that amounts required to be included in gross income under subparagraph (A) are so included.

(4) Section 408(d)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be applied separately with respect to Roth IRAs and other individual retirement plans.

(e) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified special purpose distribution" means any distribution to which Section 72(t)(2)(F) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by Public Law 105-34, applies.

(2) (A) Paragraph (3) of subdivision (d) shall not apply if any distribution which is not a qualified distribution under paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) is made from a Roth IRA within the five-taxable-year period beginning with the taxable year in which a distribution to which paragraph (3) of subdivision (d) would otherwise apply is made.

(B) In the case of any distribution to which subparagraph (A) applies:

(i) There shall be included in gross income in the taxable year in which the disqualifying distribution described in subparagraph (A) is made any amount that has not been previously included in gross income under clause (iii) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (d) and which would be includable in income were it not treated as part of a qualified rollover contribution.

(ii) In the taxable year in which the disqualifying distribution described in subparagraph (A) is made, Section 72(t) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be applied to the amount which was treated as includable in gross income under clause (i) of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (2) of subdivision (d).

(3) For purposes of this section, "qualified rollover contribution" means a rollover contribution to a Roth IRA from another Roth IRA account, or from an individual retirement plan, but only if the rollover contribution meets the requirements of Section 408(d)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. For purposes of Section 408(d)(3)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code, there shall be disregarded any qualified rollover contribution from an individual retirement plan (other than a Roth IRA) to a Roth IRA.

(f) This section shall apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1998.

SEC. 9. Section 18037.6 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

18037.6. For sales and exchanges after July 1, 1998:

(a) Section 1034 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to rollover of gain on sale of principal residence, shall not apply.

(b) References in Sections 56(e), 163(h), 280A(d), 464(f), 1033(h), 1274(c), and 7872(f) of the Internal Revenue Code, and paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 18662 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, to Section 1034 of the Internal Revenue Code, shall instead be treated as a reference to Section 17152 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.

(c) Section 216(e) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified by substituting "such dwelling unit is used as his or her principal residence (with the meaning of Section 17152)" for the phrase "such exchange qualifies for nonrecognition of gain under Section 1034(f)."

(d) References in Sections 512(a), 1016(a), and 1223(7) of the Internal Revenue Code to Section 1034 of the Internal Revenue Code shall be treated as a reference to that section as in effect on the day before the date of the enactment of the act adding this section.

(e) Section 1038(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to principal residences, shall be modified to provide that, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury under Section 1038 of the Internal Revenue Code, unless the Franchise Tax Board prescribes otherwise, Section 1038(b), (c), and (d) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not apply to the reacquisition of property and, for purposes of applying Section 17152, the resale of that property shall be treated as a part of the transaction constituting the original sale of the property, if both of the following apply:

(1) Section 1038(a) of the Internal Revenue Code applies to a reacquisition of real property with respect to the sale of which gain was not recognized under Section 17152.

(2) Within one year after the date of reacquisition of the property by the seller, that property is resold by him or her.

(f) Section 1250(d)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to disposition of principal residence, shall not apply.

(g) Section 1250(e)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to principal residence, shall not apply.

SEC. 10. Section 18510 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

18510. For purposes of Sections 18501, 18505, and 18521, gross income shall be computed without regard to the exclusion provided for in Section 17152.

SEC. 11. Section 19184 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19184. (a) A penalty of fifty dollars ($50) shall be imposed for each failure, unless it is shown that the failure is due to reasonable cause, by any person required to file who fails to file a report at the time and in the manner required by any of the following provisions:

(1) Subdivision (c) of Section 17507, relating to individual retirement accounts.

(2) Section 220(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to medical savings accounts.

(3) Subdivision (h) of Section 23712, relating to education individual retirement accounts.

(b) (1) Any individual who:

(A) Is required to furnish information under Section 17508 as to the amount designated nondeductible contributions made for any taxable year, and

(B) Overstates the amount of those contributions made for that taxable year, shall pay a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100) for each overstatement unless it is shown that the overstatement is due to reasonable cause.

(2) Any individual who fails to file a form required to be filed by the Franchise Tax Board under Section 17508 shall pay a penalty of fifty dollars ($50) for each failure unless it is shown that the failure is due to reasonable cause.

(c) Article 3 (commencing with Section 19031) of this chapter (relating to deficiency assessments) shall not apply in respect of the assessment or collection of any penalty imposed under this section.

SEC. 12. Section 23712 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

23712. (a) An education individual retirement account shall be exempt from taxation under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) and this part. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, the education individual retirement account shall be subject to the taxes imposed by Article 2 (commencing with Section 23731).

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Education individual retirement account" means a trust created or organized in the United States exclusively for the purpose of paying the qualified higher education expenses of the designated beneficiary of the trust (and designated as an education individual retirement account at the time created or organized), but only if the written governing instrument creating the trust meets the following requirements:

(A) No contribution will be accepted under any of the following conditions:

(i) In any form other than in cash.

(ii) After the date on which the beneficiary attains 18 years of age.

(iii) Except in the case of rollover contributions, if those contribution would result in aggregate contributions for the taxable year exceeding five hundred dollars ($500).

(B) The trustee is a bank (as defined in Section 408(n) of the Internal Revenue Code) or another person who demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Treasury, unless the Franchise Tax Board determines otherwise, that the manner in which that person will administer the trust will be consistent with the requirements of this section or who has so demonstrated with respect to any individual retirement plan.

(C) No part of the trust assets will be invested in life insurance contracts.

(D) The assets of the trust shall not be commingled with other property except in a common trust fund or common investment fund.

(E) Upon the death of the designated beneficiary, any balance to the credit of the beneficiary shall be distributed within 30 days after the date of death to the estate of that beneficiary.

(F) Upon the date of the designated beneficiary becomes 30 years of age, any balance to the credit of the beneficiary shall be distributed within 30 days after the date the beneficiary becomes 30 years of age to that beneficiary.

(2) (A) "Qualified higher education expenses" has the meaning given that term by Section 529(e)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) "Qualified high education expenses" shall include amounts paid or incurred to make contributions to an account, under a qualified state tuition program (as defined in Section 529(b) of the Internal Revenue Code) for the benefit of the beneficiary of the account.

(3) "Eligible educational institution" has the meaning given that term by Section 529(e)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code, as added by Public Law 105-34.

(c) (1) The maximum amount which a contributor could otherwise make to an account under this section shall be reduced by an amount which bears the same ratio to that maximum amount as—

(A) The excess of—

(i) The contributor's modified adjusted gross income for the taxable year, over

(ii) Ninety-five thousand dollars ($95,000) (one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000) in the case of a joint return), bears to

(B) Fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) (ten thousand dollars ($10,000) in the case of a joint return).

(2) For purposes of paragraph (1), "modified adjusted gross income" means the amount required to be shown as adjusted gross income of the taxpayer on the federal tax return for the same taxable year, increased by any amount excluded from federal adjusted gross income under Section 911, 931, or 933 of the Internal Revenue Code on the federal tax return for the same taxable year.

(d) (1) Any distribution shall be includable in the gross income of the distributee under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) in the manner as provided in Section 72(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, as modified by Part 10.

(2) (A) No amount shall be includable under paragraph (1) if the qualified higher education expenses of the designated beneficiary during the taxable year are not less than the aggregate distributions during the taxable year.

(B) If the aggregate distributions exceed those expenses during the taxable year, the amount includable in gross income under paragraph (1) shall be equal to the amount which bears the same ratio to the amount which would be includable in gross income under paragraph (1) (without regard to this subparagraph) as the qualified higher education expenses bear to those aggregate distributions.

(C) A taxpayer that has elected to waive the application of Section 530(d)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code (as added by P.L. 105-34), shall be treated as having waived the application of this paragraph, a separate election for state purposes shall not be allowed under paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 17024.5 or paragraph (3) of subdivision (e) of Section 23051.5, and the federal election shall be binding for purposes of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) and this part.

(3) (A) The tax imposed by Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) for any taxable year on any taxpayer who receives a payment or distribution from an education individual retirement account which is includable in the gross income of that taxpayer under this subdivision shall be increased by 2 $^{1}/_{2}$ percent of the amount which is so includable.

(B) Subparagraph (A) shall not apply if the payment or distribution is—

(i) Made to a beneficiary (or to the estate of the designated beneficiary) on or after the death of the designated beneficiary,

(ii) Attributable to the designated beneficiary's being disabled (within the meaning of Section 72(m)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code), or

(iii) Made on account of a scholarship, allowance, or payment described in Section 25A(g)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, as added by Public Law 105-34, received by the accountholder to the extent the amount of the payment or distribution does not exceed the amount of the scholarship, allowance, or payment.

(C) (i) Subparagraph (A) shall not apply to the distribution of any contribution made during a taxable year on behalf of a designated beneficiary to the extent that the contribution exceeds five hundred dollars ($500) if—

(I) The distribution is received on or before the day prescribed by law (including extensions of time) for filing that contributor's return for the taxable year, and

(II) The distribution is accompanied by the amount of net income attributable to that excess contribution.

(ii) Any net income described in clause (II) shall be included in the contributor's gross income under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or this part for the taxable year in which that excess contribution was made.

(4) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any amount paid or distributed from an education individual retirement account to the extent that the amount received is paid into another education individual retirement account for the benefit of the same beneficiary or a member of the family (within the meaning of Section 529(e)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code) of that beneficiary not later than the 60th day after the date of that payment or distribution. The preceding sentence shall not apply to any payment or distribution if it applied to any prior payment or distribution during the 12-month period ending on the date of the payment or distribution.

(5) Any change in the beneficiary of an education individual retirement account shall not be treated as a distribution for purposes of paragraph (1) if the new beneficiary is a member of the family (as so defined) of the old beneficiary.

(6) Rules similar to the rules of paragraphs (7) and (8) of Section 220(f) of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply.

(e) Rules similar to the rules of paragraphs (2) and (4) of Section 408(e) of the Internal Revenue Code shall apply to any education individual retirement account.

(f) This section shall be applied without regard to any community property laws.

(g) For purposes of this section, a custodial account shall be treated as a trust if the assets of the account are held by a bank (as defined in Section 408(n) of the Internal Revenue Code) or another person who demonstrates, to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Treasury, unless the Franchise Tax Board determines otherwise, that the manner in which he or she will administer the account will be consistent with the requirements of this section, and if the custodial account would, except for the fact that it is not a trust, constitute an account described in paragraph (1) of subdivision (b). For purposes of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) and this part, in the case of a custodial account treated as a trust by reason of the preceding sentence, the custodian of that account shall be treated as the trustee thereof.

(h) A copy of the report, which is required to be filed with the Secretary of the Treasury under Section 530(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, as enacted by Section 213 of the Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997 (P.L. 105-34), shall be filed with the Franchise Tax Board at the same time and in the same manner as specified in that section.

(i) This section shall apply to taxable and income years beginning on or after January 1, 1998.

SEC. 13. Section 23802 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23802. (a) Section 1363(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to the taxability of an "S corporation," shall not be applicable.

(b) Corporations qualifying under this chapter shall continue to be subject to the taxes imposed under Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 23101) and Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 23501), except as follows:

(1) The tax imposed under Section 23151 or 23501 shall be imposed at a rate of $1^1/_2$ percent rather than the rate specified in those sections.

(2) In the case of an "S corporation" which is also a financial corporation, the rate of tax specified in paragraph (1) shall be increased by the excess of the rate imposed under Section 23183 over the rate imposed under Section 23151 and Section 23184 shall be applicable.

(c) An "S corporation" shall be subject to the minimum franchise tax imposed under Section 23153.

(d) (1) For purposes of subdivision (b), an "S corporation" shall be allowed a deduction under Section 24416 or 24416.1 (relating to net operating loss deductions), but only with respect to losses incurred during periods in which the corporation had in effect a valid election to be treated as an "S corporation" for purposes of this part.

(2) Section 1371(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to denial of carryovers between "C years" and "S years," shall apply for purposes of the tax imposed under subdivision (b), except as provided in paragraph (1).

(3) The provisions of this subdivision shall not affect the amount of any item of income or loss computed in accordance with the provisions of Section 1366 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to passthrough items to shareholders.

(4) For purposes of subdivision (b) of Section 17276, relating to limitations on loss carryovers, losses passed through to shareholders of an "S corporation," to the extent otherwise allowable without application of that subdivision, shall be fully included in the net operating loss of that shareholder and then that subdivision shall be applied to the entire net operating loss.

(e) For purposes of computing the taxes specified in subdivision (b), an "S corporation" shall be allowed a deduction from income for built-in gains and passive investment income for which a tax has been imposed under this part in accordance with the provisions of Section 1374 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax imposed on certain built-in gains, or Section 1375 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to tax imposed on passive investment income.

(f) For purposes of computing taxes imposed under this part, as provided in subdivision (b)—

(1) An "S corporation" shall compute its deductions for amortization and depreciation in accordance with the provisions of Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) of Division 2.

(2) The provisions of Section 465 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to limitation of deductions to the amount at risk, shall be applied in the same manner as in the case of an individual.

(3) (A) The provisions of Section 469 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to limitations on passive activity losses and credits, shall be applied in the same manner as in the case of an individual. For purposes of the tax imposed under Section 23151 or 23501, as modified by this section, material participation shall be determined in accordance with Section 469(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to certain closely held "C corporations" and personal service corporations.

(B) For purposes of this paragraph, the "adjusted gross income" of the "S corporation" shall be equal to its "net income," as determined under Section 24341 with the modifications required by this subdivision, except that no deduction shall be allowed for contributions allowed by Section 24357.

(4) The exclusion provided under Section 18152.5 shall not be allowed to an "S corporation."

(g) The provisions of Section 1363(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to recapture of LIFO benefits, shall be modified for purposes of this part to refer to Section 19102 in lieu of Section 6601 of the Internal Revenue Code.

SEC. 14. Section 1.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 17054 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and SB 455. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, (2) each bill amends Section 17054 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 455, in which case Section 17054 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by SB 455, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 1.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 1 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 15. Section 2.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 17062 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and SB 455. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, (2) each bill amends Section 17062 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 455, in which case Section 17062 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by SB 455, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 2.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 2 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 16. Section 4.5 of this bill incorporates amendments to Section 17152 of the Revenue and Taxation Code proposed by both this bill and SB 5. It shall only become operative if (1) both bills are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998, (2) each bill amends Section 17152 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, and (3) this bill is enacted after SB 5, in which case Section 17152 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by SB 5, shall remain operative only until the operative date of this bill, at which time Section 4.5 of this bill shall become operative, and Section 4 of this bill shall not become operative.

SEC. 17. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect, however, the provisions of this act shall be operative for taxable and income years beginning on or after January 1, 1998.

CHAPTER 613

An act to amend Sections 17052.12 and 23609 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor October 1, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 3, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 17052.12 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

17052.12. For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1987, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "net tax" (as defined by Section 17039) for the taxable year an amount determined in accordance with Section 41 of the Internal Revenue Code, except as follows:

(a) For each taxable year beginning before January 1, 1997, the reference to "20 percent" in Section 41(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read "8 percent."

(b) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, the reference to "20 percent" in Section 41(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read "11 percent."

(c) Section 41(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to basic research payments, shall not apply.

(d) "Qualified research" shall include only research conducted in California.

(e) In the case where the credit allowed under this section exceeds the "net tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "net tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(f) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1998, the reference to "Section 501(a)" in Section 41(b)(3)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to contract research expenses, is modified to read "this part or Part 11 (commencing with Section 23001)."

(g) (1) For each taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 1998:

(A) The reference to "1.65 percent" in Section 41(c)(4)(A)(i) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read "ninety-one hundredths of one percent."

(B) The reference to "2.2 percent" in Section 41(c)(4)(A)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read "one and twenty-one hundredths percent."

(C) The reference to "2.75 percent" in Section 41(c)(4)(A)(iii) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read "one and fifty-one hundredths percent."

(2) Section 41(c)(4)(B) shall not apply and in lieu thereof an election under Section 41(c)(4)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code may be made for any taxable year of the taxpayer beginning on or after January 1, 1998. That election shall apply to the taxable year for which made and all succeeding taxable years unless revoked with the consent of the Franchise Tax Board.

(3) Section 41(c)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to gross receipts, is modified to take into account only those gross receipts from the sale of property held primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of the taxpayer's trade or business that is delivered or shipped to a purchaser within this state, regardless of f.o.b. point or any other condition of the sale.

(h) Section 41(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to termination, shall not apply.

(i) Section 41(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to special rule for passthrough of credit, is modified by each of the following:

(1) The last sentence shall not apply.

(2) If the amount determined under Section 41(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for any taxable year exceeds the limitation of Section 41(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, that amount may be carried over to other taxable years under the rules of subdivision (e); except that the limitation of Section 41(g) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be taken into account in each subsequent taxable year.

SEC. 2. Section 23609 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

23609. For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1987, there shall be allowed as a credit against the "tax" (as defined by Section 23036) an amount determined in accordance with Section 41 of the Internal Revenue Code, except as follows:

(a) For each income year beginning before January 1, 1997, both of the following modifications shall apply:

(1) The reference to "20 percent" in Section 41(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read "8 percent."

(2) The reference to "20 percent" in Section 41(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read "12 percent."

(b) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1997, both of the following modifications shall apply:

(1) The reference to "20 percent" in Section 41(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read "11 percent."

(2) The reference to "20 percent" in Section 41(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read "24 percent."

(c) "Qualified research" and "basic research" shall include only research conducted in California.

(d) The provisions of Section 41(e)(7)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code, shall be modified so that "basic research," for purposes of this section, includes any basic or applied research including scientific inquiry or original investigation for the advancement of scientific or engineering knowledge or the improved effectiveness of commercial products, except that the term does not include any of the following:

(1) Basic research conducted outside California.

(2) Basic research in the social sciences, arts, or humanities.

(3) Basic research for the purpose of improving a commercial product if the improvements relate to style, taste, cosmetic, or seasonal design factors.

(4) Any expenditure paid or incurred for the purpose of ascertaining the existence, location, extent, or quality of any deposit of ore or other mineral (including oil and gas).

(e) (1) In the case of a taxpayer engaged in any biopharmaceutical research activities that are described in codes 2833 to 2836, inclusive, or any research activities that are described in codes 3826, 3829, or 3841 to 3845, inclusive, of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition, or any other biotechnology research and development activities, the provisions of Section 41(e)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be modified to include both of the following:

(A) A qualified organization as described in Section 170(b)(1)(A)(iii) of the Internal Revenue Code and owned by an institution of higher education as described in Section 3304(f) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(B) A charitable research hospital owned by an organization that is described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, is exempt from taxation under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, is not a private foundation, is designated a "specialized laboratory cancer center," and has received Clinical Cancer Research Center status from the National Cancer Institute.

(2) For purposes of this subdivision:

(A) "Biopharmaceutical research activities" means those activities that use organisms or materials derived from organisms, and their cellular, subcellular, or molecular components, in order to provide pharmaceutical products for human or animal therapeutics and diagnostics. Biopharmaceutical activities make use of living organisms to make commercial products, as opposed to pharmaceutical activities that make use of chemical compounds to produce commercial products.

(B) "Other biotechnology research and development activities" means research and development activities consisting of the application of recombinant DNA technology to produce commercial products, as well as research and development activities regarding pharmaceutical delivery systems designed to provide a measure of control over the rate, duration, and site of pharmaceutical delivery.

(f) In the case where the credit allowed by this section exceeds the "tax," the excess may be carried over to reduce the "tax" in the following year, and succeeding years if necessary, until the credit has been exhausted.

(g) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1998, the reference to "Section 501(a)" in Section 41(b)(3)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to contract research expenses, is modified to read "this part or Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001)."

(h) (1) For each income year beginning on or after January 1, 1998:

(A) The reference to "1.65 percent" in Section 41(c)(4)(A)(i) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read "ninety-one hundredths of one percent."

(B) The reference to "2.2 percent" in Section 41(c)(4)(A)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read "one and twenty-one hundredths percent."

(C) The reference to "2.75 percent" in Section 41(c)(4)(A)(iii) of the Internal Revenue Code is modified to read "one and fifty-one hundredths percent."

(2) Section 41(c)(4)(B) shall not apply and in lieu thereof an election under Section 41(c)(4)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code may be made for any income year of the taxpayer beginning on or after January 1, 1998. That election shall apply to the income year for which made and all succeeding income years unless revoked with the consent of the Franchise Tax Board.

(3) Section 41(c)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to gross receipts, is modified to take into account only those gross receipts from the sale of property held primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of the taxpayer's trade or business that is delivered or shipped to a purchaser within this state, regardless of f.o.b. point or any other condition of the sale.

(i) Section 41(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to termination, shall not apply.

(j) Section 41(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to special rule for passthrough of credit, is modified by each of the following:

(1) The last sentence shall not apply.

(2) If the amount determined under Section 41(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for any income year exceeds the limitation of Section 41(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, that amount may be carried over to other income years under the rules of subdivision (f), except that the limitation of Section 41(g) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be taken into account in each subsequent income year.

SEC. 3. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect, however, the provisions of this act shall be operative for taxable and income years beginning on or after January 1, 1998.

CHAPTER 614

An act to amend Section 19271 of, and to add Section 19274 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to child support.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 3, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 19271 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

19271. (a) (1) A county district attorney enforcing child support obligations pursuant to Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code shall refer child support delinquencies to the Franchise Tax Board for collection. For purposes of this article, a "child support delinquency" shall mean a child support obligation that may include or be limited to interest, fees, or penalties, on which the payment then due has not been received following the expiration of 90 days from the date payment is due. If there is a child support delinquency at the time the case is opened by the district attorney, the case shall be referred to the Franchise Tax Board no later than 90 days after receipt of the case by the district attorney. A county district attorney may also refer to the Franchise Tax Board a child support obligation that is 30 days or more past due, and any of these obligations shall be collected as if they were delinquencies otherwise described in this subdivision.

(3) In order to manage the growth in the number of referrals that it may receive, the Franchise Tax Board may phase in the referrals as administratively necessary.

(4) At least 20 days prior to the date that the Franchise Tax Board commences collection action under this article, the Franchise Tax Board shall mail notice of the amount due to the obligated parent at the last known address for payment and advise that person that failure to pay will result in collection action. If the obligated parent disagrees with the amount due, the obligated parent shall be instructed to contact the county district attorney.

(b) (1) (A) Except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (B), when a delinquency is referred to the Franchise Tax Board pursuant to subdivision (a), the amount of the child support delinquency shall be collected from obligated parents by the Franchise Tax Board in any manner authorized under the law for collection of a delinquent personal income tax liability, including, but not limited to, issuance of an order and levy under Article 4 (commencing with Section 706.070) of Chapter 5 of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure in the manner provided for earnings withholding orders for taxes. Any law providing for the collection of a delinquent personal income tax liability shall apply to delinquencies referred under this article in the same manner and with the same force and effect and to the full extent as if the language of those laws had been incorporated in full into this article, except to the extent that any provision is either inconsistent with a provision of this article or is not relevant to this article.

(B) When a delinquency is referred to the Franchise Tax Board pursuant to subdivision (a), or at any time thereafter if the obligated parent owes a delinquent personal income tax liability, the Franchise Tax Board shall not engage in, or shall cease, any involuntary collection action to collect the delinquency referred under this article, until the delinquent personal income tax liability is paid in full. In the event the obligated parent owes a delinquent personal income tax liability when a delinquency is referred, the Franchise Tax Board shall mail the notice specified in paragraph (4) of subdivision (a). At any time thereafter, the Franchise Tax Board may mail any other notice to the obligated parent for voluntary payment as the Franchise Tax Board deems necessary. However, the Franchise Tax Board may engage in the collection of a delinquency referred pursuant to subdivision (a) under either of the following circumstances:

(i) The delinquent personal income tax liability is discharged from accountability pursuant to Section 13940 of the Government Code.

(ii) The obligor has entered into an installment payment agreement for the delinquent personal income tax liability and is in compliance with that agreement, and the Franchise Tax Board determines that collection of the delinquency referred pursuant to subdivision (a) would not jeopardize payments under the installment agreement.

(C) For purposes of subparagraph (B):

(i) "Involuntary collection action" means those actions authorized by Section 18670, 18670.5, 18671, or 19264, by Article 3 (commencing with Section 19231), or by Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 706.010) of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(ii) "Delinquent personal income tax liability" means any taxes, additions to tax, penalties, interest, fees, or other related amounts due and payable under Part 10 (commencing with Section 17001) or this part.

(iii) "Voluntary payment" means any payment made by obligated parents in response to the notice specified in paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) or any other notice for voluntary payment mailed by the Franchise Tax Board.

(2) Any compensation, fee, commission, expense, or any other fee for service incurred by the Franchise Tax Board in the collection of a child support delinquency authorized under this article shall not be an obligation of, or collected from, the obligated parent. A referred child support delinquency shall be final and due and payable to the State of California upon written notice to the obligated parent by the Franchise Tax Board.

(3) For purposes of administering this article:

(A) This chapter and Chapter 7 (commencing with Section 19501) shall apply, except as otherwise provided by this article.

(B) Any services, information, or enforcement remedies available to a district attorney or the Title IV-D agency in collecting support delinquencies or locating absent or noncustodial parents shall be available to the Franchise Tax Board for purposes of collecting child support delinquencies under this article, including, but not limited to, any information that may be disclosed by the Franchise Tax Board to the California Parent Locator Service under Section 19548.

(C) A request by the Franchise Tax Board for information from a financial institution shall be treated in the same manner and to the same extent as a request for information from a district attorney referring to a support order pursuant to Section 11475.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code for purposes of Chapter 20 (commencing with Section 7460) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code (relating to governmental access to financial records), notwithstanding any other provision of law which is inconsistent or contrary to this paragraph.

(D) "Earnings" may include the items described in Section 5206 of the Family Code.

(E) The amount to be withheld in an order and levy to collect child support delinquencies under Article 4 (commencing with Section 706.070) of Chapter 5 of Division 2 of Title 9 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure is the amount required to be withheld pursuant to an earnings withholding order for support under Section 706.052 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(c) Interest on the delinquency shall be computed pursuant to Section 685.010 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(d) In the event the collection action would cause undue financial hardship to the obligated parent, would threaten the health or welfare of the obligated parent or his or her family, or would cause undue irreparable loss to the obligated parent, the obligated parent may notify the Franchise Tax Board which shall, upon being notified, refer the obligated parent to the referring county district attorney, unless the Franchise Tax Board is directed otherwise by the county district attorney for purposes of more effectively administering this article.

(e) (1) In no event shall a collection under this article be construed to be a payment of income taxes imposed under this part.

(2) In the event an obligated parent overpays a liability imposed under this part, the overpayment shall not be credited against any delinquency collected pursuant to this article. In the event an overpayment of a liability imposed under this part is offset and distributed to a referring county district attorney pursuant to Sections 12419.3 and 12419.5 of the Government Code or Section 708.740 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and thereby reduces the amount of the referred delinquency, the referring county district attorney shall immediately notify the Franchise Tax Board of that reduction, unless otherwise directed for purposes of more effectively administering this article.

(3) In no event shall the district attorney refer or the Franchise Tax Board collect under this article any delinquency if both of the following circumstances exist:

(A) A court has ordered an obligated parent to make scheduled payments on a child support arrearages obligation.

(B) The obligated parent is in compliance with the order.

(4) A child support delinquency need not be referred to the Franchise Tax Board pursuant to this article if an earnings assignment order or a notice of assignment has been served on the obligated parent's employer and court-ordered support is being paid pursuant to the earnings assignment order or the notice of assignment or at least 50 percent of the obligated parent's earnings are being withheld for support.

(5) A child support delinquency need not be referred to the Franchise Tax Board for collection if a jurisdiction outside this state is enforcing the support order.

(f) Except as otherwise provided in this article, any child support delinquency referred to the Franchise Tax Board pursuant to this article shall be treated as a child support delinquency for all other purposes, and any collection action by the county district attorney or the Franchise Tax Board with respect to any delinquency referred pursuant to this article shall have the same priority against attachment, execution, assignment, or other collection action as is provided by any other provision of state law.

(g) For purposes of this article, "child support" means support of a child, spouse, or family as provided in Section 150 of the Family Code.

(h) Nothing in this article shall be construed to modify the tax intercept provisions of Article 8 (commencing with Section 708.710) of Chapter 6 of Division 2 of Part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(i) Except as otherwise specifically provided in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b), the child support collection activities authorized by this article shall not interfere with the primary mission of the Franchise Tax Board to fairly and efficiently administer the Revenue and Taxation Code for which it is responsible.

(j) Information disclosed to the Franchise Tax Board shall be considered information that may be disclosed by the Franchise Tax Board under the authority of Section 19548 and may be disseminated by the Franchise Tax Board accordingly for the purposes specified in Sections 11478 and 11478.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code (in accordance with, and to the extent permitted by, Section 11478.1 of the Welfare and Institutions Code and any other state or federal law).

(k) A county may apply to the State Department of Social Services for an exemption from subdivision (a). The State Department of Social Services shall grant an exemption only if the county has a program for collecting delinquent child support, including hardware and software, that is similar or identical to the technology used by the Franchise Tax Board in implementing its child support collections program and the county program was in operation as of April 1, 1997.

SEC. 2. Section 19274 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

19274. The county district attorney may refer to the Franchise Tax Board cases in which the social security number of the noncustodial parent is unknown. The Franchise Tax Board shall search its records to obtain the noncustodial parent's social security number and furnish this information to the county district attorney to assist in the establishment or enforcement of a child support order. For purposes of administering this section, the Franchise Tax Board may use any services or information available for tax enforcement purposes, or available to a district attorney or the Title IV-D agency in collecting or enforcing child support, or in locating absent or noncustodial parents.

SEC. 3. Notwithstanding Section 17610 of the Government Code, if the Commission on State Mandates determines that this act contains costs mandated by the state, reimbursement to local agencies and school districts for those costs shall be made pursuant to Part 7 (commencing with Section 17500) of Division 4 of Title 2 of the Government Code. If the statewide cost of the claim for reimbursement does not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000), reimbursement shall be made from the State Mandates Claims Fund.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

SEC. 4. This act shall become operative only if Assembly Bill 573 and Senate Bill 247 of the 1997–98 Regular Session are enacted and become effective on or before January 1, 1998.

CHAPTER 615

An act to amend Section 6385 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 3, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6385 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as amended by Section 1.5 of Chapter 905 of the Statutes of 1992, is amended to read:

6385. (a) There are exempted from the computation of the amount of the sales tax the gross receipts from the sale of tangible personal property, other than fuel and petroleum products, to a common carrier, shipped by the seller via the purchasing carrier's facilities under a bill of lading whether the freight is paid in advance, or the shipment is made freight charges collect, to a point outside this state and the property is actually transported to the out-of-state destination for use by the carrier in the conduct of its business as a common carrier.

(b) There are exempted from the computation of the amount of the sales tax the gross receipts from the sale of tangible personal property, other than aircraft fuel and petroleum products, purchased by a foreign air carrier and transported by the foreign air carrier's facilities to a foreign destination for use by the air carrier in the conduct of its business as a common carrier by air of persons or property. To qualify for this exemption, the foreign air carrier shall furnish to the seller a certificate in writing that the property shall be transported and used in the manner required in this subdivision. The certificate shall be substantially in the form prescribed by the board. A seller is not liable for the sales tax if the seller accepts the certificate in good faith. If the seller does not have the certificate at the time the board requests the seller to submit the certificate to the board, the seller shall be given a reasonable time to request the foreign air carrier to provide the seller with the certificate. The foreign air carrier shall maintain records in this state, such as a copy of a bill of lading, and air waybill or cargo manifest, documenting its transportation of the tangible personal property to a foreign destination.

(c) There are exempted from the computation of the amount of the sales tax the gross receipts from the sale of fuel and petroleum products to a water common carrier, for immediate shipment outside this state for consumption in the conduct of its business as a common carrier after the first out-of-state destination. To qualify for the exemption the common carrier shall furnish to the seller an exemption certificate in writing stating the quantity of fuel and petroleum products claimed as exempt which is to be consumed after reaching the first out-of-state destination. That certificate shall bear the purchaser's valid seller's permit number or valid fuel exemption registration number and shall be substantially in the form prescribed by the board. Acceptance in good faith of that certificate shall relieve the seller from liability for the sales tax.

(d) "First out-of-state destination," as used in this section, means the first point reached outside this state by a common carrier in the conduct of its business as a common carrier at which cargo or passengers are loaded or discharged, cargo containers are added or removed, fuel is bunkered, or docking fees are charged.

"First out-of-state destination," as used in this section, also includes the entry point of the Panama Canal when the carrier is only transiting the canal in the conduct of its business as a common carrier.

(e) "Common carrier," as used in this section, with respect to water transportation, shall be deemed to include any vessel engaged, for compensation, in transporting persons or property in interstate or foreign commerce.

(f) "Foreign air carrier," as used in this section, means a foreign air carrier as defined in Section 1301 of Title 49 of the United States Code.

(g) "Immediate shipment," as used in this section, means that the delivery of the fuel and petroleum products by the seller is directly into a ship for transportation outside this state and not for storage by the purchaser or any third party.

(h) Any common carrier claiming exemption under subdivision (c) who is not required to hold a valid seller's permit shall be required to register with the board and obtain a fuel exemption registration number and shall be required to file returns as the board may prescribe if either the board notifies the carrier that returns must be filed or the carrier is liable for taxes based upon consumption of fuel erroneously claimed as exempt under this section. A common carrier required to hold a fuel exemption registration number shall be subject to all applicable provisions of this part, Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 7200), and Part 1.6 (commencing with Section 7251).

(i) A common carrier claiming an exemption under subdivision (c), upon request, shall make available to the board records, including, but not limited to, a copy of a log abstract or a cargo manifest, documenting its transportation of the fuel or petroleum product to an out-of-state destination and the amount claimed as exempt. If the carrier fails to provide these records upon request, the board may revoke the carrier's fuel exemption registration number.

(j) The board may require any carrier claiming an exemption under this section and required to obtain a fuel exemption registration number to place with it that security as the board may determine pursuant to Section 6701.

(k) Pursuant to subdivisions (a), (b), and (c), any use of the property by the purchasing carrier, other than that incident to the delivery of the property to the carrier and the transportation of the property by the carrier to the first out-of-state destination and subsequent use in the conduct of its business as a common carrier, or a failure of the carrier to document its transporting the property to the first out-of-state destination, shall subject the carrier to liability for payment of sales tax as if it were a retailer making a retail sale of the property at the time of that use or failure, and the sales price of the property to it shall be deemed to be the gross receipts from the retail sale.

(l) This section shall remain in effect only until January 1, 2003, and as of that date is repealed.

SEC. 2. Section 6385 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, as added by Section 1.6 of Chapter 905 of the Statutes of 1992, is amended to read:

6385. (a) There are exempted from the computation of the amount of the sales tax the gross receipts from the sale of tangible personal property, other than fuel and petroleum products, to a common carrier, shipped by the seller via the purchasing carrier's facilities under a bill of lading whether the freight is paid in advance, or the shipment is made freight charges collect, to a point outside this state and the property is actually transported to the out-of-state destination for use by the carrier in the conduct of its business as a common carrier.

(b) There are exempted from the computation of the amount of the sales tax the gross receipts from the sale of tangible personal property, other than aircraft fuel and petroleum products, purchased by a foreign air carrier and transported by the foreign air carrier's facilities to a foreign destination for use by the air carrier in the conduct of its business as a common carrier by air of persons or property. To qualify for this exemption, the foreign air carrier shall furnish to the seller a certificate in writing that the property shall be transported and used in the manner required in this subdivision. The certificate shall be substantially in the form prescribed by the board. A seller is not liable for the sales tax if the seller accepts the certificate in good faith. If the seller does not have the certificate at the time the board requests the seller to submit the certificate to the board, the seller shall be given a reasonable time to request the foreign air carrier to provide the seller with the certificate. The foreign air carrier shall maintain records in this state, such as a copy of a bill of lading, and air waybill or cargo manifest, documenting its transportation of the tangible personal property to a foreign destination.

(c) "Common carrier," as used in this section, with respect to water transportation, shall be deemed to include any vessel engaged, for compensation, in transporting persons or property in interstate or foreign commerce.

(d) "Foreign air carrier," as used in this section, means a foreign air carrier as defined in Section 1301 of Title 49 of the United States Code.

(e) Pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (b), any use of the property by the purchasing carrier, other than that incident to the delivery of the property to the carrier and the transportation of the property by the carrier to an out-of-state destination and subsequent use in the conduct of its business as a common carrier, or a failure of the carrier to document its transporting the property to an out-of-state destination, shall subject the carrier to liability for payment of sales tax as if it were a retailer making a retail sale of the property at the time of that use or failure, and the sales price of the property to it shall be deemed to be the gross receipts from the retail sale.

(f) This section shall become operative on January 1, 2003.

SEC. 3. The Legislative Analyst's Office shall report to the Legislature on or before January 1, 2001, on the effect on bunker fuel sales of the sales tax exemption for the sale of fuel and petroleum products to a water common carrier provided by Section 6385 of the Revenue and Taxation Code for the period beginning on and after January 1, 1993, as compared to the period beginning on July 1, 1991, and ending January 1, 1993, when no exemption was allowed for those sales.

SEC. 4. Notwithstanding Section 2230 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, no appropriation is made by this act and the state shall not reimburse any local agency for any sales and use tax revenues lost by it under this act.

SEC. 5. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 616

An act to add Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 51298) to Part 1 of Division 1 of Title 5 of the Government Code, relating to local government.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 3, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 8 (commencing with Section 51298) is added to Part 1 of Division 1 of Title 5 of the Government Code, to read:

CHAPTER 8. CAPITAL INVESTMENT INCENTIVE PROGRAM

51298. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this chapter to provide local governments opportunities to attract large manufacturing facilities to invest in their communities and to encourage industries such as high technology, aerospace, automotive, biotechnology, software, environmental sources, and others to locate and invest in those facilities in California.

(a) Commencing in the 1998–99 fiscal year, the governing body of a county, city and county, or city, may, by means of an ordinance or resolution approved by a majority of its entire membership, elect to establish a capital investment incentive program. In any county, city and county, or city in which the governing body has so elected, the county, city and county, or city shall, upon the approval by a majority of the entire membership of its governing body of a written request therefor, pay a capital investment incentive amount to the proponent of a qualified manufacturing facility for up to 15 consecutive fiscal years. A request for the payment of capital investment incentive amounts shall be filed by a proponent in writing with the governing body of an electing county, city and county, or city in the time and manner specified in procedures adopted by that governing body. In the case in which the governing body of an electing county, city and county, or city approves a request for the payment of capital investment incentive amounts, both of the following conditions shall apply:

(1) The consecutive fiscal years during which a capital investment incentive amount is to be paid shall commence with the first fiscal year commencing after the date upon which the qualified manufacturing facility is certified for occupancy or, if no certification is issued, the first fiscal year commencing after the date upon which the qualified manufacturing facility commences operation.

(2) In accordance with paragraph (4) of subdivision (d), the annual payment to a proponent of each capital investment incentive amount shall be contingent upon the proponent's payment of a community services fee.

(b) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Qualified manufacturing facility" means a proposed manufacturing facility that meets all of the following criteria:

(A) The proponent's initial investment in that facility, in real and personal property, necessary for the full and normal operation of that facility, made pursuant to the capital investment incentive program, that comprises any portion of that facility or has its situs at that facility, exceeds one hundred fifty million dollars ($150,000,000). Compliance with this subparagraph shall be certified by the Trade and Commerce Agency upon the agency's approval of a proponent's application for certification of a qualified manufacturing facility. An application for certification shall be submitted by a proponent to the agency in writing in the time and manner as specified by the agency.

(B) The facility is to be located within the jurisdiction of the electing county, city and county, or city to which the request is made for payment of capital investment incentive amounts.

(C) The facility is operated by a business described in Codes 3500 to 3899, inclusive, of the Standard Industrial Classification (SIC) Manual published by the United States Office of Management and Budget, 1987 edition, however, "January 1, 1997," shall be substituted for "January 1, 1994," in each place in which it appears.

(D) The proponent is either currently engaged in commercial production or engaged in the perfection of the manufacturing process, or the perfection of a product intended to be manufactured.

(2) "Proponent" means a party that meets all of the following criteria:

(A) The party is named in the application to the county, city and county, or city within which the qualified manufacturing facility would be located for a permit to construct a qualified manufacturing facility.

(B) The party will be the fee owner of the qualified manufacturing facility upon the completion of that facility. Notwithstanding the previous sentence, the party may enter into a sale-leaseback transaction and nevertheless be considered the proponent.

(C) If a proponent that is receiving capital investment incentive amounts subsequently leases the subject qualified manufacturing facility to another party, the lease may provide for the payment to that lessee of any portion of a capital investment incentive amount. Any lessee receiving any portion of a capital investment incentive amount shall also be considered a proponent for the purposes of subdivision (d).

(3) "Capital investment incentive amount" means, with respect to a qualified manufacturing facility for a relevant fiscal year, an amount up to or equal to the amount of ad valorem property tax revenue derived by the participating local agency from the taxation of that portion of the total assessed value of that real and personal property described in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) that is in excess of one hundred fifty million dollars ($150,000,000).

(4) "Manufacturing" means the activity of converting or conditioning property by changing the form, composition, quality, or character of the property for ultimate sale at retail or use in the manufacturing of a product to be ultimately sold at retail. Manufacturing includes any improvements to tangible personal property that result in a greater service life or greater functionality than that of the original property.

(c) A city, special district, or school district may, upon the approval by a majority of the entire membership of its governing body, pay to the county, city and county, or city an amount equal to the amount of ad valorem property tax revenue allocated to that city, special district, or school district, but not the actual allocation, derived from the taxation of that portion of the total assessed value of that real and personal property described in subparagraph (A) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) that is in excess of one hundred fifty million dollars ($150,000,000).

(d) A proponent, whose request for the payment of capital investment incentive amounts is approved by an electing county, city and county, or city shall enter into a community services agreement with that county, city and county, or city that includes, but is not limited to, all of the following provisions:

(1) A provision requiring that a community services fee be remitted by the proponent to the county, city and county, or city in each fiscal year subject to the agreement, in an amount that is equal to 25 percent of the capital investment incentive amount calculated for that proponent for that fiscal year, except that in no fiscal year shall the amount of the community services fee exceed two million dollars ($2,000,000).

(2) A provision specifying the dates in each relevant fiscal year upon which payment of the community services fee is due and delinquent, and the rate of interest to be charged to a proponent for any delinquent portion of the community services fee amount.

(3) A provision specifying the procedures and rules for the determination of underpayments or overpayments of a community services fee, for the appeal of determinations of any underpayment, and for the refunding or crediting of any overpayment.

(4) A provision specifying that a proponent is ineligible to receive a capital investment incentive amount if that proponent is currently delinquent in the payment of any portion of a community services fee amount, if the qualified manufacturing facility is constructed in a manner materially different from the facility as described in building permit application materials, or if the facility is no longer operated as a qualified manufacturing facility meeting the requirements of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b). If a proponent becomes ineligible to receive a capital investment incentive amount as a result of an agreement provision included pursuant to this subparagraph, the running of the number of consecutive fiscal years specified in an agreement made pursuant to subdivision (a) is not tolled during the period in which the proponent is ineligible.

(5) A provision that sets forth a job creation plan with respect to the relevant qualified manufacturing facility. The plan shall specify the number of jobs to be created by that facility, and the types of jobs and compensation ranges to be created thereby. The plan shall also specify that for the entire term of the community services agreement that both of the following shall apply:

(A) All of the employees working at the qualified manufacturing facility shall be covered by an employer sponsored health benefits plan.

(B) The average weekly wage, exclusive of overtime, paid to all of the employees working at the qualified manufacturing facility, who are not management or supervisory employees, shall be not less than the state average weekly wage.

For the purpose of this subdivision, "state average weekly wage" means the average weekly wage paid by employers to employees covered by unemployment insurance, as reported to the Employment Development Department for the four calendar quarters ending June 30 of the preceding calendar year.

(6) (A) In the case in which the proponent fails to operate the qualified manufacturing facility as required by the community services agreement, a provision that requires the recapture of any portion of any capital investment incentive amounts previously paid to the proponent equal to the lesser of the following:

(i) All of the capital investment incentive amounts paid to the proponent, less all of the community services fees received from the proponent, and less any capital investment incentive amounts previously recaptured.

(ii) The last capital investment incentive amount paid to the proponent, less the last community services fee received from the proponent, multiplied by 40 percent of the number of years remaining in the community services agreement, but not to exceed 10 years, and less any capital investment incentive amounts previously recaptured.

(B) If the proponent fails to operate the qualified manufacturing facility as required by the community services agreement, the county, city and county, or city may, upon a finding that good cause exists, waive any portion of the recapture of any capital investment incentive amount due under this subdivision. For the purpose of this subdivision, good cause includes, but is not limited to, the following:

(i) The proponent has sold or leased the property to a person who has entered into an agreement with the county, city and county, or city to assume all of the responsibilities of the proponent under the community services agreement.

(ii) The qualified manufacturing facility has been rendered inoperable and beyond repair as a result of an act of God.

(C) For purposes of this subdivision, failure to operate a qualified manufacturing facility as required by the community services agreement includes, but is not limited to, failure to establish the number of jobs specified in the jobs creation plan created pursuant to paragraph (5).

(e) (1) Each county, city and county, or city that elects to establish a capital investment incentive program shall notify the Trade and Commerce Agency of its election to do so no later than June 30th of the fiscal year in which the election was made.

(2) In addition to the information required to be reported pursuant to paragraph (1), each county, city and county, or city that has elected to establish a capital investment incentive program shall notify the Trade and Commerce Agency each fiscal year no later than June 30th of the amount of any capital investment incentive payments made and the proponent of the qualified manufacturing facility to whom the payments were made during that fiscal year.

(3) The Trade and Commerce Agency shall compile the information submitted by each county, city and county, and city pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2) and submit a report to the Legislature containing this information no later than October 1, every two years commencing October 1, 2000.

CHAPTER 617

An act to amend Sections 1506.5, 1520.3, 1522, 1534, 1558, 1568.065, 1568.09, 1569.16, 1569.17, 1569.58, 1596.851, 1596.871, and 1596.8897 of, to amend and renumber Section 1568.066 of, to add Sections 1558.1, 1568.093, 1569.59, and 1596.8898 to, and to repeal Section 1568.092 of, the Health and Safety Code, relating to care facilities.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 3, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1506.5 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1506.5. (a) Foster family agencies shall not use foster family homes licensed by a county without the approval of the licensing county. When approval is granted, a written agreement between the foster family agency and the county shall specify the nature of administrative control and case management responsibility and the nature and number of the children to be served in the home.

(b) Before a foster family agency may use a licensed foster family home it shall review and, with the exception of a new fingerprint clearance, qualify the home in accordance with Section 1506.

(c) When approval is given, and for the duration of the agreement permitting the foster family agency use of its licensed foster family home, no child shall be placed in that home except through the foster family agency.

(d) Nothing in this section shall transfer or eliminate the responsibility of the placing agency for the care, custody, or control of the child. Nothing in this section shall relieve a foster family agency of its responsibilities for or on behalf of a child placed with it.

(e) (1) If an application to a foster family agency for a certificate of approval indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant previously was issued a license under this chapter or under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1200), Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250), Chapter

3.01 (commencing with Section 1568.01), Chapter 3.2 (commencing with Section 1569), Chapter 3.4 (commencing with Section 1596.70), Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 1596.90), or Chapter 3.6 (commencing with Section 1597.30) and the prior license was revoked within the preceding two years, the foster family agency shall cease any further review of the application until two years have elapsed from the date of the revocation.

(2) If an application to a foster family agency for a certificate of approval indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant previously was issued a certificate of approval by a foster family agency that was revoked by the department pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1534 within the preceding two years, the foster family agency shall cease any further review of the application until two years have elapsed from the date of the revocation.

(3) If an application to a foster family agency for a certificate of approval indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant was excluded from a facility licensed by the department pursuant to Section 1558, 1568.092, 1569.58, or 1596.8897, the foster family agency shall cease any further review of the application unless the excluded person has been reinstated pursuant to Section 11522 of the Government Code by the department.

(4) The cessation of review shall not constitute a denial of the application for purposes of subdivision (b) of Section 1534 or any other law.

(f) (1) If an application to a foster family agency for a certificate of approval indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant had previously applied for a license under any of the chapters listed in paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) and the application was denied within the last year, the foster family agency shall cease further review of the application as follows:

(A) In cases where the applicant petitioned for a hearing, the foster family agency shall cease further review of the application until one year has elapsed from the effective date of the decision and order of the department upholding a denial.

(B) In cases where the department informed the applicant of his or her right to petition for a hearing and the applicant did not petition for a hearing, the foster family agency shall cease further review of the application until one year has elapsed from the date of the notification of the denial and the right to petition for a hearing.

(2) The foster family agency may continue to review the application if the department has determined that the reasons for the denial of the application were due to circumstances and a condition that either have been corrected or are no longer in existence.

(3) The cessation of review shall not constitute a denial of the application for purposes of subdivision (b) of Section 1534 or any other law.

(g) (1) If an application to a foster family agency for a certificate of approval indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant had previously applied for a certificate of approval with a foster family agency and the department ordered the foster family agency to deny the application pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1534, the foster family agency shall cease further review of the application as follows:

(A) In cases where the applicant petitioned for a hearing, the foster family agency shall cease further review of the application until one year has elapsed from the effective date of the decision and order of the department upholding a denial.

(B) In cases where the department informed the applicant of his or her right to petition for a hearing and the applicant did not petition for a hearing, the foster family agency shall cease further review of the application until one year has elapsed from the date of the notification of the denial and the right to petition for a hearing.

(2) The foster family agency may continue to review the application if the department has determined that the reasons for the denial of the application were due to circumstances and conditions that either have been corrected or are no longer in existence.

(3) The cessation of review shall not constitute a denial of the application for purposes of subdivision (b) of Section 1534 or any other law.

SEC. 2. Section 1520.3 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1520.3. (a) (1) If an application for a license or special permit indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant previously was issued a license under this chapter or under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1200), Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250), Chapter 3.01 (commencing with Section 1568.01), Chapter 3.3 (commencing with Section 1569), Chapter 3.4 (commencing with Section 1596.70), Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 1596.90), or Chapter 3.6 (commencing with Section 1597.30) and the prior license was revoked within the preceding two years, the department shall cease any further review of the application until two years shall have elapsed from the date of the revocation. The cessation of review shall not constitute a denial of the application for purposes of Section 1526 or any other provision of law.

(2) If an application for a license or special permit indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant previously was issued a certificate of approval by a foster family agency that was revoked by the department pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1534 within the preceding two years, the department shall cease any further review of the application until two years shall have elapsed from the date of the revocation.

(3) If an application for a license or special permit indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant was excluded from a facility licensed by the department pursuant to Sections 1558, 1568.092, 1569.58, or 1596.8897, the department shall cease any further review of the application unless the excluded individual has been reinstated pursuant to Section 11522 of the Government Code by the department.

(b) If an application for a license or special permit indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant had previously applied for a license under any of the chapters listed in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) and the application was denied within the last year, the department shall cease further review of the application as follows:

(1) In cases where the applicant petitioned for a hearing, the department shall cease further review of the application until one year has elapsed from the effective date of the decision and order of the department upholding a denial.

(2) In cases where the department informed the applicant of his or her right to petition for a hearing and the applicant did not petition for a hearing, the department shall cease further review of the application until one year has elapsed from the date of the notification of the denial and the right to petition for a hearing.

(3) The department may continue to review the application if it has determined that the reasons for the denial of the application were due to circumstances and conditions which either have been corrected or are no longer in existence.

(c) If an application for a license or special permit indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant had previously applied for a certificate of approval with a foster family agency and the department ordered the foster family agency to deny the application pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1534, the department shall cease further review of the application as follows:

(1) In cases where the applicant petitioned for a hearing, the department shall cease further review of the application until one year has elapsed from the effective date of the decision and order of the department upholding a denial.

(2) In cases where the department informed the applicant of his or her right to petition for a hearing and the applicant did not petition for a hearing, the department shall cease further review of the application until one year has elapsed from the date of the notification of the denial and the right to petition for a hearing.

(3) The department may continue to review the application if it has determined that the reasons for the denial of the application were due to circumstances and conditions that either have been corrected or are no longer in existence.

(d) The cessation of review shall not constitute a denial of the application for purposes of Section 1526 or any other law.

SEC. 3. Section 1522 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1522. The Legislature recognizes the need to generate timely and accurate positive fingerprint identification of applicants as a condition of issuing licenses, permits, or certificates of approval for persons to operate or provide direct care services in a community care facility, foster family home, or a certified family home. Therefore, the Legislature supports the use of the fingerprint live-scan technology, as identified in the long-range plan of the Department of Justice for fully automating the processing of fingerprints and other data by the year 1999, otherwise known as the California Crime Information Intelligence System (CAL-CII), to be used for applicant fingerprints. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to require the fingerprints of those individuals whose contact with community care clients may pose a risk to the clients' health and safety.

(a) Before issuing a license or special permit to any person or persons to operate or manage a community care facility, the State Department of Social Services shall secure from an appropriate law enforcement agency a criminal record to determine whether the applicant or any other person specified in subdivision (b) has ever been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation or arrested for any crime specified in Section 290 of the Penal Code, for violating Section 245 or 273.5, subdivision (b) of Section 273a or, prior to January 1, 1994, paragraph (2) of Section 273a of the Penal Code, or for any crime for which the department cannot grant an exemption if the person was convicted and the person has not been exonerated. That criminal history information shall include the full criminal record, of any of those persons, and subsequent arrest information pursuant to Section 11105.2 of the Penal Code. No fee shall be charged by the Department of Justice or the State Department of Social Services for the fingerprinting of an applicant for a license or special permit to operate a facility providing nonmedical board, room, and care for six or less children or for obtaining a criminal record of the applicant pursuant to this section. The following shall apply to the criminal record information:

(1) If the State Department of Social Services finds that the applicant, or any other person specified in subdivision (b), has been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation, the application shall be denied, unless the director grants an exemption pursuant to subdivision (g).

(2) If the State Department of Social Services finds that the applicant, or any person specified in subdivision (b) is awaiting trial for a crime other than a minor traffic violation, the State Department of Social Services shall cease processing the application until the conclusion of the trial.

(3) If no criminal record information has been recorded, the Department of Justice shall provide the applicant and the State Department of Social Services with a statement of that fact.

(4) If the State Department of Social Services finds after licensure that the licensee, or any other person specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), has been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation, the license may be revoked, unless the director grants an exemption pursuant to subdivision (g).

(b) In addition to the applicant, this section shall be applicable to criminal convictions of the following persons:

(1) Adults responsible for administration or direct supervision of staff.

(2) Any person, other than a client, residing in the facility.

(3) Any person who provides client assistance in dressing, grooming, bathing, or personal hygiene.

(4) Any staff person or employee who has frequent and routine contact with the clients. In determining who has frequent contact, any volunteer who is in the facility shall be exempt unless the volunteer is used to replace or supplement staff in providing direct care and supervision of clients. In determining who has routine contact, staff and employees under direct onsite supervision and who are not providing direct care and supervision or who have only occasional or intermittent contact with clients shall be exempt.

(5) Except for staff members of social rehabilitation facilities serving minors with alcohol or drug abuse problems, staff members of social rehabilitation facilities, other than those specified in paragraphs (1) and (2), are exempt from fingerprinting requirements.

(6) If the applicant is a firm, partnership, association, or corporation, the chief executive officer or other person serving in like capacity.

(7) Additional officers of the governing body of the applicant, or other persons with a financial interest in the applicant, as determined necessary by the department by regulation. The criteria used in the development of these regulations shall be based on the person's capability to exercise substantial influence over the operation of the facility.

(c) (1) Subsequent to initial licensure, any person specified in subdivision (b) and not exempted from fingerprinting shall, as a condition to employment, residence, or presence in a community care facility, be fingerprinted and sign a declaration under penalty of perjury regarding any prior criminal convictions. The licensee shall submit these fingerprints to the Department of Justice not later than four calendar days following employment, residence, or initial presence in the community care facility. These fingerprints shall be on a card provided by the State Department of Social Services for the purpose of obtaining a permanent set of fingerprints. Fingerprints not submitted to the Department of Justice, as required in this section, shall result in the citation of a deficiency and the fingerprints shall then be submitted to the State Department of Social Services for processing. Upon request of the licensee, who shall enclose a self-addressed stamped postcard for this purpose, the Department of Justice shall verify receipt of the fingerprints.

(2) Within 30 calendar days of the receipt of the fingerprints, the Department of Justice shall notify the State Department of Social Services of the criminal record information, as provided for in subdivision (a). If no criminal record information has been recorded, the Department of Justice shall provide the licensee and the State Department of Social Services with a statement of that fact within 15 calendar days of receipt of the fingerprints. If new fingerprints are required for processing, the Department of Justice shall, within 15 calendar days from the date of receipt of the fingerprints, notify the licensee that the fingerprints were illegible.

(3) Except for persons specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), the licensee shall endeavor to ascertain the previous employment history of persons required to be fingerprinted under this subdivision. If it is determined by the State Department of Social Services, on the basis of the fingerprints submitted to the Department of Justice, that the person has been convicted of, or is awaiting trial for, a sex offense against a minor, or has been convicted for an offense specified in Section 243.4, 273a, or 273d or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or a felony, the State Department of Social Services shall notify the licensee to act immediately to terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the community care facility, or bar the person from entering the community care facility. The State Department of Social Services may subsequently grant an exemption pursuant to subdivision (g). If the conviction or arrest was for another crime, except a minor traffic violation, the licensee shall, upon notification by the State Department of Social Services, act immediately to either (1) terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the community care facility, or bar the person from entering the community care facility; or (2) seek an exemption pursuant to subdivision (g). The State Department of Social Services shall determine if the person shall be allowed to remain in the facility until a decision on the exemption is rendered. A licensee's failure to comply with the department's prohibition of employment, contact with clients, or presence in the facility as required by this paragraph shall be grounds for disciplining the licensee pursuant to Section 1550.

(4) The department may issue an exemption on its own motion pursuant to subdivision (g) if the person's criminal history indicates that the person is of good character based on the age, seriousness, and frequency of the conviction or convictions. The department, in consultation with interested parties, shall develop regulation to establish the criteria to grant an exemption pursuant to this paragraph.

(5) Concurrently with notifying the licensee pursuant to paragraph (3), the department shall notify the affected individual of his or her right to seek an exemption pursuant to subdivision (g). The individual may seek an exemption only if the licensee terminates the person's employment or removes the person from the facility after receiving notice from the department pursuant to paragraph (3).

(d) (1) Before issuing a license, special permit, or certificate of approval to any person or persons to operate or manage a foster family home or certified family home as described in Section 1506, the State Department of Social Services or other approving authority shall secure from an appropriate law enforcement agency a criminal record to determine whether the applicant or any person specified in subdivision (b) has ever been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation or arrested for any crime specified in Section 290 of the Penal Code or arrested for violating Section 245 or 273.5, subdivision (b) of Section 273a or, prior to January 1, 1994, paragraph (2) of Section 273a of the Penal Code, or for any crime for which the department cannot grant an exemption if the person was convicted and the person has not been exonerated. That criminal history information shall include the full criminal record, if any, of those persons. No fee shall be charged by the Department of Justice or the State Department of Social Services for the fingerprinting of an applicant for a license, special permit, or certificate of approval described in this subdivision. The record, if any, shall be taken into consideration when evaluating a prospective applicant. The following shall apply to the criminal record information:

(A) If the applicant or other persons specified in subdivision (b) have convictions that would make the applicant's home unfit as a foster family home or a certified family home, the license, special permit, or certificate of approval shall be denied.

(B) If the State Department of Social Services finds that the applicant, or any person specified in subdivision (b) is awaiting trial for a crime other than a minor traffic violation, the State Department of Social Services or other approving authority shall cease processing the application until the conclusion of the trial.

(C) For the purposes of this subdivision, a criminal record clearance provided under Section 8712 of the Family Code may be used by the department or other approving agency.

(2) Any person specified in this subdivision shall, as a part of the application, be fingerprinted and sign a declaration under penalty of perjury regarding any prior criminal convictions or arrests for any crime against a child, spousal or cohabitant abuse or, any crime for which the department cannot grant an exemption if the person was convicted and shall submit these fingerprints to the licensing agency or other approving authority.

(3) The foster family agency shall obtain fingerprints from certified home applicants and from persons specified in subdivision (b) and shall submit them directly to the Department of Justice. Within five working days of the receipt of the criminal record or information regarding criminal convictions from the Department of Justice, the department shall notify the applicant of any criminal arrests or convictions. If no arrests or convictions are recorded, the Department of Justice shall provide the foster family agency with a statement of that fact concurrent with providing the information to the State Department of Social Services.

(4) If the State Department of Social Services finds that the applicant, or any other person specified in subdivision (b), has been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation, the application shall be denied, unless the director grants an exemption pursuant to subdivision (g).

(5) If the State Department of Social Services finds after licensure or the granting of the certificate of approval that the licensee, certified foster parent, or any other person specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), has been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation, the license or certificate of approval may be revoked by the department or the foster family agency, whichever is applicable, unless the director grants an exemption pursuant to subdivision (g). A licensee's failure to comply with the department's prohibition of employment, contact with clients, or presence in the facility as required by paragraph (3) of subdivision (c) shall be grounds for disciplining the licensee pursuant to Section 1550.

(e) The State Department of Social Services shall not use a record of arrest to deny, revoke, or terminate any application, license, employment, or residence unless the department investigates the incident and secures evidence, whether or not related to the incident of arrest, that is admissible in an administrative hearing to establish conduct by the person that may pose a risk to the health and safety of any person who is or may become a client. The State Department of Social Services is authorized to obtain any arrest or conviction records or reports from any law enforcement agency as necessary to the performance of its duties to inspect, license, and investigate community care facilities and individuals associated with a community care facility.

(f) For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, a conviction means a plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere. Any action which the State Department of Social Services is permitted to take following the establishment of a conviction may be taken when the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence, notwithstanding a subsequent order pursuant to Sections 1203.4 and 1203.4a of the Penal Code permitting the person to withdraw his or her plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty, or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, information, or indictment. For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, the record of a conviction, or a copy thereof certified by the clerk of the court or by a judge of the court in which the conviction occurred, shall be conclusive evidence of the conviction. For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, the arrest disposition report certified by the Department of Justice, or documents admissible in a criminal action pursuant to Section 969b of the Penal Code, shall be prima facie evidence of the conviction, notwithstanding any other provision of law prohibiting the admission of these documents in a civil or administrative action.

(g) (1) After review of the record, the director may grant an exemption from disqualification for a license or special permit as specified in paragraphs (1) and (4) of subdivision (a), or for a license, special permit, or certificate of approval as specified in paragraphs (4) and (5) of subdivision (d), or for employment, residence, or presence in a community care facility as specified in paragraphs (3), (4), and (5) of subdivision (c), if the director has substantial and convincing evidence to support a reasonable belief that the applicant and the person convicted of the crime, if other than the applicant, are of such good character as to justify issuance of the license or special permit or granting an exemption for purposes of subdivision (c). Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, no exemption shall be granted pursuant to this subdivision if the conviction was for an offense specified in Section 220, 243.4, or 264.1, subdivision (a) of Section 273a or, prior to January 1, 1994, paragraph (1) of Section 273a, Section 273d, 288, or 289, subdivision (a) of Section 290, or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or was a conviction of another crime against an individual specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 of the Penal Code. The director may grant an exemption if the employee or prospective employee, who was convicted of a crime against an individual prescribed in paragraph (1), (2), (7), or (8) of subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 of the Penal Code, has been rehabilitated as provided in Section 4852.03 of the Penal Code, has maintained the conduct required in Section 4852.05 of the Penal Code for at least 10 years, and has the recommendation of the district attorney representing the employee's county of residence, or if the employee or prospective employee has received a certificate of rehabilitation pursuant to Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 4852.01) of Title 6 of Part 3 of the Penal Code.

(2) The department shall not prohibit a person from being employed or having contact with clients in a facility on the basis of a denied criminal record exemption request or arrest information unless the department complies with the requirements of Section 1558.

(h) (1) For purposes of compliance with this section, the department may permit an individual to transfer a current criminal records clearance, as defined in subdivision (a), from one facility to another, as long as the criminal record clearance has been processed through a state licensing district office, and is being transferred to another state licensing district office.

(2) The State Department of Social Services shall hold criminal record clearances in its active files for a minimum of two years after an employee is no longer employed at a licensed facility in order for the criminal record clearance to be transferred.

(i) The full criminal record obtained for purposes of this section may be used by the department or by a licensed adoption agency as a clearance required for adoption purposes.

(j) If a licensee or facility is required by law to deny employment or to terminate employment of any employee based on written notification from the state department that the employee has a prior criminal conviction or is determined unsuitable for employment under Section 1558, the licensee or facility shall not incur civil liability or unemployment insurance liability as a result of that denial or termination.

(k) (1) In order to expedite the current criminal record clearance and fingerprint process of the Department of Justice pursuant to subdivisions (a) and (c), the Department of Justice shall complete work on all of its current backlog of criminal records clearances for community care facilities licensed by the State Department of Social Services by July 1, 1995.

(2) Effective January 1, 1995, the Department of Justice shall complete all new requests for criminal record clearances for community care facilities within 30 days of receipt.

(3) The Department of Justice shall coordinate with the State Department of Social Services to establish and implement an automated live-scan processing system for fingerprints in two district offices of the Community Care Licensing Division of the State Department of Social Services by July 1, 1995. These live-scan processing units shall be connected to the main system at the Department of Justice by July 1, 1996, and shall become part of that department's pilot project in accordance with its long-range plan. The State Department of Social Services may charge a fee not to exceed five dollars ($5) or the actual cost of processing a set of live-scan fingerprints.

(4) The Department of Justice shall provide a report to the Assembly Human Services Committee and to the Senate Health and Human Services Committee by July 15, 1995, regarding the completion of backlogged criminal record clearance requests pursuant to paragraph (1) and the progress on implementing the automated live-scan processing system in the two district offices pursuant to paragraph (3). The Department of Justice shall provide a report to the Assembly Human Services Committee and to the Senate Health and Human Services Committee by April 15, 1996, regarding the progress of the implementation of the statewide CAL-CII system; the number of requests for criminal clearances received pursuant to this section during the previous year; the number of criminal record clearances requested and completed pursuant to this section within a 17-day "expedite" period or within the 30-day period required by paragraph (2); and the number of requests and reasons for delays beyond the 30-day period.

SEC. 4. Section 1534 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1534. (a) (1) Every licensed community care facility shall be periodically inspected and evaluated for quality of care by a representative or representatives designated by the director. Evaluations shall be conducted at least once per year and as often as necessary to ensure the quality of care being provided.

(2) The department shall notify the community care facility in writing of all deficiencies in its compliance with the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter, and shall set a reasonable length of time for compliance by the facility.

(3) Reports on the results of each inspection, evaluation, or consultation shall be kept on file in the department, and all inspection reports, consultation reports, lists of deficiencies, and plans of correction shall be open to public inspection in the county in which the facility is located.

(b) (1) Nothing in this section shall limit the authority of the department to inspect or evaluate a licensed foster family agency, a certified family home, or any aspect of a program where a licensed community care facility is certifying compliance with licensing requirements.

(2) Upon a finding of noncompliance by the department, the department may require a foster family agency to deny or revoke the certificate of approval of a certified family home, or take other action the department may deem necessary for the protection of a child placed with the family home. The family home shall be afforded the due process provided pursuant to this chapter.

(3) If the department requires a foster family agency to deny or revoke the certificate of approval, the department shall serve an order of denial or revocation upon the certified or prospective foster parent and foster family agency that shall notify the certified or prospective foster parent of the basis of the department's action and of the certified or prospective foster parent's right to a hearing.

(4) Within 15 days after the department serves an order of denial or revocation, the certified or prospective foster parent may file a written appeal of the department's decision with the department. The department's action shall be final if the certified or prospective foster parent does not file a written appeal within 15 days after the department serves the denial or revocation order.

(5) The department's order of the denial or revocation of the certificate of approval shall remain in effect until the hearing is completed and the director has made a final determination on the merits.

(6) A certified or prospective foster parent who files a written appeal of the department's order with the department pursuant to this section shall, as part of the written request, provide his or her current mailing address. The certified or prospective foster parent shall subsequently notify the department in writing of any change in mailing address, until the hearing process has been completed or terminated.

(7) Hearings held pursuant to this section shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. In all proceedings conducted in accordance with this section the standard of proof shall be the preponderance of the evidence.

(8) The department may institute or continue a disciplinary proceeding against a certified or prospective foster parent upon any ground provided by this section, enter an order denying or revoking the certificate of approval, or otherwise take disciplinary action against the certified or prospective foster parent, notwithstanding any resignation, withdrawal of application, surrender of the certificate of approval, or denial or revocation of the certificate of approval by the foster family agency.

(9) A foster family agency's failure to comply with the department's order to deny or revoke the certificate of employment by placing or retaining children in care shall be grounds for disciplining the licensee pursuant to Section 1550.

SEC. 5. Section 1558 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1558. (a) The department may prohibit a licensee from employing, or continuing the employment of, or allowing in a licensed facility, or allowing contact with clients of a licensed facility by, any employee, prospective employee, or person who is not a client who has:

(1) Violated, or aided or permitted the violation by any other person of, any provisions of this chapter or of any rules or regulations promulgated under this chapter.

(2) Engaged in conduct which is inimical to the health, morals, welfare, or safety of either an individual in or receiving services from the facility, or the people of the State of California.

(3) Been denied an exemption to work or to be present in a facility, when that person has been convicted of a crime as defined in Section 1522.

(4) Engaged in any other conduct which would constitute a basis for disciplining a licensee.

(b) The excluded person, the facility, and the licensee shall be given written notice of the basis of the department's action and of the excluded person's right to a hearing. The notice shall be served either by personal service or by registered mail. Within 15 days after the department serves the notice, the excluded person may file with the department a written request for a hearing. If the excluded person fails to file a written request for a hearing within the prescribed time, the department's action shall be final.

(c) (1) The department may require the immediate exclusion of an employee, prospective employee, or person who is not a client from a facility pending a final decision of the matter, when, in the opinion of the director, the action is necessary to protect residents or clients from physical or mental abuse, abandonment, or any other substantial threat to their health or safety.

(2) If the department requires the immediate exclusion of an employee, prospective employee, or person who is not a client from a facility, the department shall serve an order of immediate exclusion upon the excluded person which shall notify the excluded person of the basis of the department's action and of the excluded person's right to a hearing.

(3) Within 15 days after the department serves an order of immediate exclusion, the excluded person may file a written request for a hearing with the department. The department's action shall be final if the excluded person does not file a request for a hearing within the prescribed time. The department shall do the following upon receipt of a written request for a hearing:

(A) Within 30 days of receipt of the request for a hearing, serve an accusation upon the excluded person.

(B) Within 60 days of receipt of a notice of defense pursuant to Section 11506 of the Government Code by the employee, prospective employee, or person who is required to obtain a criminal record clearance pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1522, conduct a hearing on the accusation.

(4) An order of immediate exclusion of the excluded person from the facility shall remain in effect until the hearing is completed and the director has made a final determination on the merits. However, the order of immediate exclusion shall be deemed vacated if the director fails to make a final determination on the merits within 60 days after the original hearing has been completed.

(d) An excluded person who files a written request for a hearing with the department pursuant to this section shall, as part of the written request, provide his or her current mailing address. The excluded person shall subsequently notify the department in writing of any change in mailing address, until the hearing process has been completed or terminated.

(e) Hearings held pursuant to this section shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. The standard of proof shall be the preponderance of the evidence and the burden of proof shall be on the department.

(f) The department may institute or continue a disciplinary proceeding against an employee, prospective employee, or person who is not a client upon any ground provided by this section, or enter an order prohibiting the excluded person's employment or presence in the facility or otherwise take disciplinary action against the excluded person, notwithstanding any resignation, withdrawal of employment application, or change of duties by the excluded person, or any discharge, failure to hire, or reassignment of the excluded person by the licensee or that the excluded person no longer has contact with clients at the facility.

(g) A licensee's failure to comply with the department's prohibition of employment or presence in the facility shall be grounds for disciplining the licensee pursuant to Section 1550.

(h) (1) (A) In cases where the excluded person petitioned for a hearing, the person shall be prohibited from working in any facility or being licensed to operate any facility licensed by the department or from being a certified foster parent for the remainder of the excluded person's life.

(B) The excluded individual may petition for reinstatement one year after the effective date of the decision and order of the department upholding the exclusion order pursuant to Section 11522 of the Government Code. The department shall provide the excluded person with a copy of Section 11522 of the Government Code with the decision and order.

(2) (A) In cases where the department informed the excluded person of his or her right to petition for a hearing and the excluded person did not petition for a hearing, the person shall be prohibited from working in any facility or being licensed to operate any facility licensed by the department or a certified foster parent for the remainder of the excluded person's life.

(B) The excluded individual may petition for reinstatement after one year has elapsed from the date of the notification of the exclusion and the right to petition for a hearing by the department upholding the exclusion order pursuant to Section 11522 of the Government Code. The department shall provide the excluded person with a copy of Section 11522 of the Government Code with the exclusion order.

SEC. 6. Section 1558.1 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1558.1. (a) (1) If the department determines that a person was issued a license under this chapter or under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1200), Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250), Chapter 3.01 (commencing with Section 1568.01), Chapter 3.2 (commencing with Section 1569), Chapter 3.4 (commencing with Section 1596.70), Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 1596.90), or Chapter 3.6 (commencing with Section 1597.30) and the prior license was revoked within the preceding two years, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to the chapter.

(2) If the department determines that a person previously was issued a certificate of approval by a foster family agency which was revoked by the department pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1534 within the preceding two years, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter.

(b) If the department determines that the person had previously applied for a license under any of the chapters listed in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) and the application was denied within the last year, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter and as follows:

(1) In cases where the applicant petitioned for a hearing, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter until one year has elapsed from the effective date of the decision and order of the department upholding a denial.

(2) In cases where the department informed the applicant of his or her right to petition for a hearing and the applicant did not petition for a hearing, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter until one year has elapsed from the date of the notification of the denial and the right to petition for a hearing.

(3) The department may determine not to exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter if it has determined that the reasons for the denial of the application were due to circumstances and conditions that either have been corrected or are no longer in existence.

(c) If the department determines that the person had previously applied for a certificate of approval with a foster family agency and the department ordered the foster family agency to deny the application pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1534, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter and as follows:

(1) In cases where the applicant petitioned for a hearing, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter until one year has elapsed from the effective date of the decision and order of the department upholding a denial.

(2) In cases where the department informed the applicant of his or her right to petition for a hearing and the applicant did not petition for a hearing, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter until one year has elapsed from the date of the notification of the denial and the right to petition for a hearing.

(3) The department may determine not to exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter if it has determined that the reasons for the denial of the application were due to circumstances and conditions that either have been corrected or are no longer in existence.

(d) Exclusion of an individual pursuant to this section shall not be considered an order of exclusion for purposes of Section 1558 or any other law.

SEC. 7. Section 1568.065 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1568.065. (a) Proceedings for the suspension, revocation, or denial of a license under this chapter shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Part 1 of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code, and the department shall have all those powers granted by the provisions. In the event of conflict between this chapter and those provisions of the Government Code, this chapter shall prevail.

(b) In all proceedings conducted in accordance with this section, the standard of proof to be applied shall be by the preponderance of the evidence.

(c) If the license is not temporarily suspended pursuant to Section 1568.082, the hearing shall be held within 90 calendar days after receipt of the notice of defense, unless a continuance of the hearing is granted by the department or the administrative law judge. When the matter has been set for hearing, only the administrative law judge may grant a continuance of the hearing. The administrative law judge may, but need not, grant a continuance of the hearing, only upon finding the existence of any of the following:

(1) The death or incapacitating illness of a party, a representative or attorney of a party, a witness to an essential fact, or of the parent, child, or member of the household of that person, when it is not feasible to substitute another representative, attorney, or witness because of the proximity of the hearing date.

(2) Lack of notice of hearing as provided in Section 11509 of the Government Code.

(3) A material change in the status of the case where a change in the parties or pleadings requires postponement, or an executed settlement or stipulated findings of fact obviate the need for hearing. A partial amendment of the pleadings shall not be good cause for continuance to the extent that the unamended portion of the pleadings is ready to be heard.

(4) A stipulation for continuance signed by all parties or their authorized representatives, including, but not limited to, a representative, which is communicated with the request for continuance to the administrative law judge no later than 25 business days before the hearing.

(5) The substitution of the representative or attorney of a party upon showing that the substitution is required.

(6) The unavailability of a party, representative, or attorney of a party, or witness to an essential fact due to a conflicting and required appearance in a judicial matter if when the hearing date was set, the person did not know and could neither anticipate nor at any time avoid the conflict, and the conflict with request for continuance is immediately communicated to the administrative law judge.

(7) The unavailability of a party, a representative or attorney of a party, or a material witness due to an unavoidable emergency.

(8) Failure by a party to comply with a timely discovery request if the continuance request is made by the party who requested the discovery.

(d) In addition to the witness fees and mileage provided by Section 11450.40 of the Government Code, the department may pay actual, necessary, and reasonable expenses in an amount not to exceed the per diem allowance payable to a nonrepresented state employee on travel status. The department may pay witness expenses pursuant to this section in advance of the hearing.

(e) (1) The withdrawal of an application for a license or a special permit after it has been filed with the department shall not deprive the department of its authority to institute or continue a proceeding against the applicant for the denial of the license or a special permit upon any ground provided by law or to enter an order denying the license or special permit upon any ground provided by law.

(2) The suspension, expiration, or forfeiture by operation of law of a license issued by the department, or its suspension, forfeiture, or cancellation by order of the department or by order of a court of law, or its surrender, shall not deprive the department of its authority to institute or continue a disciplinary proceeding against the licensee upon any ground provided by law or to enter an order suspending or revoking the license or otherwise taking disciplinary action against the licensee on any ground provided by law.

(f) (1) If an application for a license indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant previously was issued a license under this chapter or under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1200), Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250), Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500), Chapter 3.3 (commencing with Section 1569), Chapter 3.4 (commencing with Section 1596.70), Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 1596.90), or Chapter 3.6 (commencing with Section 1597.30) and the prior license was revoked within the preceding two years, the department shall cease any further review of the application until two years shall have elapsed from the date of the revocation.

(2) If an application for a license or special permit indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant previously was issued a certificate of approval by a foster family agency that was revoked by the department pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1534 within the preceding two years, the department shall cease any further review of the application until two years have elapsed from the date of the revocation.

(3) If an application for a license or special permit indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant was excluded from a facility licensed by the department pursuant to Section 1558, 1568.092, 1569.58, or 1596.8897, the department shall cease any further review of the application unless the excluded individual has been reinstated pursuant to Section 11522 of the Government Code by the department.

(4) If an application for a license indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant had previously applied for a license under any of the chapters listed in paragraph (1) and the application was denied within the last year, the department shall cease further review of the application as follows:

(A) In cases where the applicant petitioned for a hearing, the department shall cease further review of the application until one year has elapsed from the effective date of the decision and order of the department upholding a denial.

(B) In cases where the department informed the applicant of his or her right to petition for a hearing and the applicant did not petition for a hearing, the department shall cease further review of the application until one year has elapsed from the date of the notification of the denial and the right to petition for a hearing.

(C) The department may continue to review the application if it has determined that the reasons for the denial of the application were due to circumstances and conditions which either have been corrected or are no longer in existence.

(5) If an application for a license or special permit indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant had previously applied for a certificate of approval with a foster family agency and the department ordered the foster family agency to deny the application pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1534, the department shall cease further review of the application as follows:

(A) In cases where the applicant petitioned for a hearing, the department shall cease further review of the application until one year has elapsed from the effective date of the decision and order of the department upholding a denial.

(B) In cases where the department informed the applicant of his or her right to petition for a hearing and the applicant did not petition for a hearing, the department shall cease further review of the application until one year has elapsed from the date of the notification of the denial and the right to petition for a hearing.

(C) The department may continue to review the application if it has determined that the reasons for the denial of the application were due to circumstances and conditions that either have been corrected or are no longer in existence.

(6) The cessation of review shall not constitute a denial of the application for purposes of Section 1568.062 or any other law.

SEC. 8. Section 1568.066 of the Health and Safety Code is amended and renumbered to read:

1568.092. (a) The department may prohibit a licensee from employing, or continuing the employment of, or allowing in a licensed facility, or allowing contact with clients of a licensed facility by, any employee, prospective employee, or person who is not a client who has:

(1) Violated, aided, or permitted the violation by any other person of this chapter or of any rules or regulations adopted under this chapter.

(2) Engaged in conduct which is inimical to the health, welfare, or safety of either an individual, in or receiving services from the facility, or the people of the State of California.

(3) Been denied an exemption to work or to be present in a facility, when that person has been convicted of a crime as defined in Section 1568.09.

(4) Engaged in any other conduct which would constitute a basis for disciplining a licensee.

(b) The excluded person, the facility, and the licensee shall be given written notice of the basis of the action of the department and of the right to a hearing of the excluded person. The notice shall be served either by personal service or by registered mail. Within 15 days after the department serves the notice, the excluded person may file with the department a written request for a hearing. If the excluded person fails to file a written request for a hearing within the prescribed time, the action of the department shall be final.

(c) (1) The department may require the immediate exclusion of an employee, prospective employee, or person who is not a client from a facility pending a final decision of the matter when, in the opinion of the director, the action is necessary to protect residents or clients from physical or mental abuse, abandonment, or any other substantial threat to their health or safety.

(2) If the department requires the immediate exclusion of an employee, prospective employee, or person who is not a client from a facility, the department shall serve an order of immediate exclusion upon the excluded person which shall notify the excluded person of the basis of the department's action and of the excluded person's right to a hearing.

(3) Within 15 days after the department serves an order of immediate exclusion, the excluded person may file a written request for a hearing with the department. The department's action shall be final if the excluded person does not file a request for a hearing within the prescribed time. The department shall do the following upon receipt of a written request for a hearing:

(A) Within 30 days of receipt of the request for a hearing, serve an accusation upon the excluded person.

(B) Within 60 days of receipt of a notice of defense by the excluded person pursuant to Section 11506 of the Government Code, conduct a hearing on the accusation.

(4) An order of immediate exclusion of the excluded person from the facility shall remain in effect until the hearing is completed and the director has made a final determination on the merits. However, the order of immediate exclusion shall be deemed vacated if the director fails to make a final determination on the merits within 60 days after the original hearing has been completed.

(d) An excluded person who files a written request for a hearing with the department pursuant to this section shall, as part of the written request, provide his or her current mailing address. The excluded person shall subsequently notify the department in writing of any change in mailing address, until the hearing process has been completed or terminated.

(e) Hearings held pursuant to this section shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. The standard of proof shall be the preponderance of the evidence and the burden of proof shall be on the department.

(f) The department may institute or continue a disciplinary proceeding against an employee, prospective employee, or person who is not a client upon any ground provided by this section, or enter an order prohibiting the excluded person's employment or presence in the facility or otherwise take disciplinary action against the excluded person, notwithstanding any resignation, withdrawal of employment application or change of duties by the excluded person, or any discharge, failure to hire or reassignment of the excluded person by the licensee or that the excluded person no longer has contact with clients at the facility.

(g) A licensee's failure to comply with the department's prohibition of employment or presence in the facility shall be grounds for disciplining the licensee pursuant to Section 1568.082.

(h) (1) (A) In cases where the excluded person petitioned for a hearing, the person shall be prohibited from working in any facility or being licensed to operate any facility licensed by the department or from being a certified foster parent for the remainder of the excluded person's life.

(B) The excluded individual may petition for reinstatement one year after the effective date of the decision and order of the department upholding the exclusion order pursuant to Section 11522 of the Government Code. The department shall provide the excluded person with a copy of Section 11522 of the Government Code with the decision and order.

(2) (A) In cases where the department informed the excluded person of his or her right to petition for a hearing and the excluded person did not petition for a hearing, the person shall be prohibited from working in any facility or being licensed to operate any facility licensed by the department or a certified foster parent for the remainder of the excluded person's life.

(B) The excluded individual may petition for reinstatement after one year has elapsed from the date of the notification of the exclusion and the right to petition for a hearing by the department upholding the exclusion order pursuant to Section 11522 of the Government Code. The department shall provide the excluded person with a copy of Section 11522 of the Government Code with the exclusion order.

SEC. 9. Section 1568.09 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1568.09. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to require the fingerprints of those individuals whose contact with residents of residential care facilities for persons with a chronic, life-threatening illness may pose a risk to the residents' health and safety.

(a) Before issuing a license to any person or persons to operate or manage a residential care facility, the department shall secure from an appropriate law enforcement agency a criminal record to determine whether the applicant or any other person specified in subdivision (b) has ever been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation or arrested for any crime specified in Section 290 of the Penal Code, for violating Section 245 or 273.5, subdivision (b) of Section 273a or, prior to January 1, 1994, paragraph (2) of Section 273a of the Penal Code, or for any crime for which the department cannot grant an exemption if the person was convicted and the person has not been exonerated. That criminal history information shall include the full criminal record, if any, of those persons, and subsequent arrest information pursuant to Section 11105.2 of the Penal Code. The following shall apply to the criminal record information:

(1) If the State Department of Social Services finds that the applicant or any other person specified in subdivision (b) has been convicted of a crime, other than a minor traffic violation, the application shall be denied, unless the director grants an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f).

(2) If the State Department of Social Services finds that the applicant, or any person specified in subdivision (b) is awaiting trial for a crime other than a minor traffic violation, the State Department of Social Services shall cease processing the application until the conclusion of the trial.

(3) If no criminal record information has been recorded, the Department of Justice shall provide the applicant and the State Department of Social Services with a statement of that fact.

(4) If the State Department of Social Services finds after licensure that the licensee, or any other person specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), has been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation, the license may be revoked, unless the director grants an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f).

(b) In addition to the applicant, the provisions of this section shall be applicable to criminal convictions of the following persons:

(1) Adults responsible for administration or direct supervision of staff of the facility.

(2) Any person, other than a resident, residing in the facility.

(3) Any person who provides resident assistance in dressing, grooming, bathing, or personal hygiene.

(4) Any staff person or employee who has frequent and routine contact with the residents. In determining who has frequent contact, any volunteer who is in the facility shall be exempt unless the volunteer is used to replace or supplement staff in providing direct care and supervision of residents. A volunteer who provides direct care and supervision shall be exempt if the volunteer is a resident's spouse, significant other, friend or family member and provides direct care and supervision to that resident only at the request of the resident. In determining who has routine contact, staff and employees under direct onsite supervision and who are not providing direct care and supervision or who have only occasional or intermittent contact with residents shall be exempt.

(5) If the applicant is a firm, partnership, association, or corporation, the chief executive officer or other person serving in that capacity.

(6) Additional officers of the governing body of the applicant, or other persons with a financial interest in the applicant, as determined necessary by the department by regulation. The criteria used in the development of these regulations shall be based on the person's capability to exercise substantial influence over the operation of the facility.

(c) (1) Subsequent to initial licensure, any person specified in subdivision (b) and not exempted from fingerprinting shall, as a condition to employment, residence, or presence in a residential care facility, be fingerprinted and sign a declaration under penalty of perjury regarding any prior criminal convictions. The licensee shall submit these fingerprints to the Department of Justice not later than four calendar days following employment, residence, or initial presence in the residential care facility.

(2) These fingerprints shall be on a card provided by the State Department of Social Services for the purpose of obtaining a permanent set of fingerprints. Fingerprints not submitted to the Department of Justice, as required in this section, shall result in the citation of a deficiency and the fingerprints shall then be submitted to the State Department of Social Services for processing.

(3) Within 30 calendar days of the receipt of the fingerprints, the Department of Justice shall notify the State Department of Social Services of the criminal record information, as provided for in this subdivision. If no criminal record information has been recorded, the Department of Justice shall provide the licensee and the State Department of Social Services with a statement of that fact within 15 calendar days of receipt of the fingerprints. If new fingerprints are required for processing, the Department of Justice shall, within 15 calendar days from the date of receipt of the fingerprints, notify the licensee that the fingerprints were illegible.

(4) Except for persons specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), the licensee shall endeavor to ascertain the previous employment history of persons required to be fingerprinted under this subdivision. If it is determined by the State Department of Social Services, on the basis of the fingerprints submitted to the Department of Justice, that the person has been convicted of a sex offense against a minor, an offense specified in Section 243.4, 273a, or 273d, subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or a felony, the department shall notify the licensee to act immediately to terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the residential care facility, or bar the person from entering the residential care facility. The department may subsequently grant an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). If the conviction was for another crime, except a minor traffic violation, the licensee shall, upon notification by the department, act immediately to either (1) terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the residential care facility, or bar the person from entering the residential care facility; or (2) seek an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). The department shall determine if the person shall be allowed to remain in the facility until a decision on the exemption is rendered. A licensee's failure to comply with the department's prohibition of employment, contact with clients, or presence in the facility as required by this paragraph shall be grounds for disciplining the licensee pursuant to Section 1568.082.

(5) The department may issue an exemption on its own motion pursuant to subdivision (f) if the person's criminal history indicates that the person is of good character based on the age, seriousness, and frequency of the conviction or convictions. The department, in consultation with interested parties, shall develop regulations to establish the criteria to grant an exemption pursuant to this paragraph.

(6) Concurrently with notifying the licensee pursuant to paragraph (4), the department shall notify the affected individual of his or her right to seek an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). The individual may seek an exemption only if the licensee terminates the person's employment or removes the person from the facility after receiving notice from the department pursuant to paragraph (4).

(d) For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, a conviction means a plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere. Any action which the department is permitted to take following the establishment of a conviction may be taken when the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of the sentence, notwithstanding a subsequent order pursuant to Sections 1203.4 and 1203.4a of the Penal Code permitting that person to withdraw his or her plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty, setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, information, or indictment. For purposes of this chapter, the record of a conviction, or a copy thereof certified by the clerk of the court or by a judge of the court in which the conviction occurred, shall be conclusive evidence of the conviction. For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, the arrest disposition report certified by the Department of Justice, or documents admissible in a criminal action pursuant to Section 969b of the Penal Code, shall be prima facie evidence of the conviction, notwithstanding any other provision of law prohibiting the admission of these documents in a civil or administrative action.

(e) The State Department of Social Services shall not use a record of arrest to deny, revoke, or terminate any application, license, employment, or residence unless the department investigates the incident and secures evidence, whether or not related to the incident of arrest, that is admissible in an administrative hearing to establish conduct by the person that may pose a risk to the health and safety of any person who is or may become a client. The State Department of Social Services is authorized to obtain any arrest or conviction records or reports from any law enforcement agency as necessary to the performance of its duties to inspect, license, and investigate community care facilities and individuals associated with a community care facility.

(f) (1) After review of the record, the director may grant an exemption from disqualification for a license as specified in paragraphs (1) and (4) of subdivision (a), or for employment, residence, or presence in a residential care facility as specified in paragraphs (4), (5), and (6) of subdivision (c) if the director has substantial and convincing evidence to support a reasonable belief that the applicant and the person convicted of the crime, if other than the applicant, are of such good character as to justify issuance of the license or special permit or granting an exemption for purposes of subdivision (c). However, no exemption shall be granted pursuant to this subdivision if the conviction was for an offense specified in Section 220, 243.4, or 264.1, subdivision (a) of Section 273a or, prior to January 1, 1994, paragraph (1) of Section 273a, Section 273d, 288, or 289, subdivision (a) of Section 290, or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or was a conviction of another crime against an individual specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 of the Penal Code.

(2) The department shall not prohibit a person from being employed or having contact with clients in a facility on the basis of a denied criminal record exemption request or arrest information unless the department complies with the requirements of Section 1568.092.

(g) (1) For purposes of compliance with this section, the department may permit an individual to transfer a current criminal records clearance, as defined in subdivision (a), from one facility to another, as long as the criminal record clearance has been processed through a state licensing district office, and is being transferred to another state licensing district office.

(2) The State Department of Social Services shall hold criminal records clearances in its active files for a minimum of two years after an employee is no longer employed at a licensed facility in order for the criminal records clearance to be transferred.

(h) If a licensee or facility is required by law to deny employment or to terminate employment of any employee based on written notification from the state department that the employee has a prior criminal conviction or is determined unsuitable for employment under Section 1568.092, the licensee or facility shall not incur civil liability or unemployment insurance liability as a result of that denial or termination.

SEC. 10. Section 1568.092 of the Health and Safety Code is repealed.

SEC. 11. Section 1568.093 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1568.093. (a) (1) If the department determines that a person was issued a license under this chapter or under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1200), Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250), Chapter 3.01 (commencing with Section 1568.01), Chapter 3.2 (commencing with Section 1569), Chapter 3.4 (commencing with Section 1596.70), Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 1596.90), or Chapter 3.6 (commencing with Section 1597.30) and the prior license was revoked within the preceding two years, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to the chapter.

(2) If the department determines that a person previously was issued a certificate of approval by a foster family agency which was revoked by the department pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1534 within the preceding two years, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter.

(b) If the department determines that the person had previously applied for a license under any of the chapters listed in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) and the application was denied within the last year, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter and as follows:

(1) In cases where the applicant petitioned for a hearing, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter until one year has elapsed from the effective date of the decision and order of the department upholding a denial.

(2) In cases where the department informed the applicant of his or her right to petition for a hearing and the applicant did not petition for a hearing, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter until one year has elapsed from the date of the notification of the denial and the right to petition for a hearing.

(3) The department may determine not to exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter if it has determined that the reasons for the denial of the application were due to circumstances and conditions that either have been corrected or are no longer in existence.

(c) If the department determines that the person had previously applied for a certificate of approval with a foster family agency and the department ordered the foster family agency to deny the application pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1534, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter and as follows:

(1) In cases where the applicant petitioned for a hearing, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter until one year has elapsed from the effective date of the decision and order of the department upholding a denial.

(2) In cases where the department informed the applicant of his or her right to petition for a hearing and the applicant did not petition for a hearing, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter until one year has elapsed from the date of the notification of the denial and the right to petition for a hearing.

(3) The department may determine not to exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter if it has determined that the reasons for the denial of the application were due to circumstances and conditions that either have been corrected or are no longer in existence.

(d) Exclusion of an individual pursuant to this section shall not be considered an order of exclusion for purposes of Section 1558 or any other law.

SEC. 12. Section 1569.16 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1569.16. (a) (1) If an application for a license indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant previously was issued a license under this chapter or under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1200), Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250), Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500), Chapter 3.01 (commencing with Section 1568.01), Chapter 3.4 (commencing with Section 1596.70), Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 1596.90), or Chapter 3.6 (commencing with Section 1597.30) and the prior license was revoked within the preceding two years, the department shall cease any further review of the application until two years have elapsed from the date of the revocation. All residential care facilities for the elderly are exempt from the health planning requirements contained in Part 2 (commencing with Section 127125) of Division 107.

(2) If an application for a license or special permit indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant previously was issued a certificate of approval by a foster family agency that was revoked by the department pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1534 within the preceding two years, the department shall cease any further review of the application until two years shall have elapsed from the date of the revocation.

(3) If an application for a license or special permit indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant was excluded from a facility licensed by the department pursuant to Section 1558, 1568.092, 1569.58, or 1596.8897, the department shall cease any further review of the application unless the excluded individual has been reinstated pursuant to Section 11522 of the Government Code by the department.

(b) If an application for a license or special permit indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant had previously applied for a license under any of the chapters listed in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) and the application was denied within the last year, the department shall, except as provided in Section 1569.22, cease further review of the application until one year has elapsed from the date of the denial letter. In those circumstances where denials are appealed and upheld at an administrative hearing, review of the application shall cease for one year from the date of the decision and order being rendered by the department. The cessation of review shall not constitute a denial of the application.

(c) If an application for a license or special permit indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant had previously applied for a certificate of approval with a foster family agency and the department ordered the foster family agency to deny the application pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1534, the department shall cease further review of the application as follows:

(1) In cases where the applicant petitioned for a hearing, the department shall cease further review of the application until one year has elapsed from the effective date of the decision and order of the department upholding a denial.

(2) In cases where the department informed the applicant of his or her right to petition for a hearing and the applicant did not petition for a hearing, the department shall cease further review of the application until one year has elapsed from the date of the notification of the denial and the right to petition for a hearing.

(3) The department may continue to review the application if it has determined that the reasons for the denial of the application were due to circumstances and conditions that either have been corrected or are no longer in existence.

(d) The cessation of review shall not constitute a denial of the application for purposes of Section 1526 or any other law.

SEC. 13. Section 1569.17 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1569.17. The Legislature recognizes the need to generate timely and accurate positive fingerprint identification of applicants as a condition of issuing licenses, permits, or certificates of approval for persons to operate or provide direct care services in a residential care facility for the elderly. The Legislature supports the use of the fingerprint live-scan technology, as identified in the long-range plan of the Department of Justice for fully automating the processing of fingerprints and other data by the year 1999. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to require the fingerprints of those individuals whose contact with clients of residential care facilities for the elderly may pose a risk to the clients' health and safety.

(a) Before issuing a license to any person or persons to operate or manage a residential care facility for the elderly, the department shall secure from an appropriate law enforcement agency a criminal record to determine whether the applicant or any other person specified in subdivision (b) has ever been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation or arrested for any crime specified in Section 290 of the Penal Code, for violating Section 245 or 273.5, subdivision (b) of Section 273a or, prior to January 1, 1994, paragraph (2) of Section 273a of the Penal Code, or for any crime for which the department cannot grant an exemption if the person was convicted and the person has been exonerated. That criminal history information shall include the full criminal record, if any, of those persons, and subsequent arrest information pursuant to Section 11105.2 of the Penal Code. The following shall apply to the criminal record information:

(1) If the State Department of Social Services finds that the applicant or any other person specified in subdivision (b) has been convicted of a crime, other than a minor traffic violation, the application shall be denied, unless the director grants an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f).

(2) If the State Department of Social Services finds that the applicant, or any person specified in subdivision (b) is awaiting trial for a crime other than a minor traffic violation, the State Department of Social Services shall cease processing the application until the conclusion of the trial.

(3) If no criminal record information has been recorded, the Department of Justice shall provide the applicant and the State Department of Social Services with a statement of that fact.

(4) If the State Department of Social Services finds after licensure that the licensee, or any other person specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), has been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation, the license may be revoked, unless the director grants an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f).

(b) In addition to the applicant, the provisions of this section shall be applicable to criminal convictions of the following persons:

(1) Adults responsible for administration or direct supervision of staff.

(2) Any person, other than a client, residing in the facility.

(3) Any person who provides client assistance in dressing, grooming, bathing, or personal hygiene.

(4) Any staff person or employee who has frequent and routine contact with the clients. In determining who has frequent contact, any volunteer who is in the facility shall be exempt unless the volunteer is used to replace or supplement staff in providing direct care and supervision of clients. In determining who has routine contact, staff and employees under direct onsite supervision and who are not providing direct care and supervision or who have only occasional or intermittent contact with clients shall be exempt.

(5) If the applicant is a firm, partnership, association, or corporation, the chief executive officer or other person serving in like capacity.

(6) Additional officers of the governing body of the applicant, or other persons with a financial interest in the applicant, as determined necessary by the department by regulation. The criteria used in the development of these regulations shall be based on the person's capability to exercise substantial influence over the operation of the facility.

(c) (1) Subsequent to initial licensure, any person specified in subdivision (b) and not exempted from fingerprinting shall, as a condition to employment, residence, or presence in a residential facility for the elderly, be fingerprinted and sign a declaration under penalty of perjury regarding any prior criminal convictions. The licensee shall submit these fingerprints to the Department of Justice not later than 20 calendar days following employment, residence, or initial presence in the residential care facility for the elderly.

(2) These fingerprints shall be on a card provided by the State Department of Social Services for the purpose of obtaining a permanent set of fingerprints. Fingerprints not submitted to the Department of Justice, as required in this section, shall result in the citation of a deficiency and the fingerprints shall then be submitted to the State Department of Social Services for processing.

(3) Within 30 calendar days of the receipt of the fingerprints, the Department of Justice shall notify the State Department of Social Services of the criminal record information, as provided for in this subdivision. If no criminal record information has been recorded, the Department of Justice shall provide the licensee and the State Department of Social Services with a statement of that fact within 15 calendar days of receipt of the fingerprints. If new fingerprints are required for processing, the Department of Justice shall, within 15 calendar days from the date of receipt of the fingerprints, notify the licensee that the fingerprints were illegible.

(4) Except for persons specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), the licensee shall endeavor to ascertain the previous employment history of persons required to be fingerprinted under this subdivision. If it is determined by the State Department of Social Services, on the basis of the fingerprints submitted to the Department of Justice, that the person has been convicted of a sex offense against a minor, an offense specified in Section 243.4, 273a, or 273d, subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or a felony, the State Department of Social Services shall notify the licensee in writing within 15 calendar days of the receipt of the notification from the Department of Justice to act immediately to terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the residential care facility for the elderly, or bar the person from entering the residential care facility for the elderly. The State Department of Social Services may subsequently grant an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). If the conviction was for another crime, except a minor traffic violation, the licensee shall, upon notification by the State Department of Social Services, act immediately to either (1) terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the residential care facility for the elderly, or bar the person from entering the residential care facility for the elderly; or (2) seek an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). The department shall determine if the person shall be allowed to remain in the facility until a decision on the exemption is rendered by the department. A licensee's failure to comply with the department's prohibition of employment, contact with clients, or presence in the facility as required by this paragraph shall be grounds for disciplining the licensee pursuant to Section 1569.50.

(5) The department may issue an exemption on its own motion pursuant to subdivision (f) if the person's criminal history indicates that the person is of good character based on the age, seriousness, and frequency of the conviction or convictions. The department, in consultation with interested parties, shall develop regulations to establish the criteria to grant an exemption pursuant to this paragraph.

(6) Concurrently with notifying the licensee pursuant to paragraph (4), the department shall notify the affected individual of his or her right to seek an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). The individual may seek an exemption only if the licensee terminates the person's employment or removes the person from the facility after receiving notice from the department pursuant to paragraph (4).

(d) For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, a conviction means a plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere. Any action that the department is permitted to take following the establishment of a conviction may be taken when the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of the sentence, notwithstanding a subsequent order pursuant to the provisions of Sections 1203.4 and 1203.4a of the Penal Code permitting a person to withdraw his or her plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty, or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, information, or indictment. For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, the record of a conviction, or a copy thereof certified by the clerk of the court or by a judge of the court in which the conviction occurred, shall be conclusive evidence of the conviction. For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, the arrest disposition report certified by the Department of Justice or documents admissible in a criminal action pursuant to Section 969b of the Penal Code shall be prima facie evidence of the conviction, notwithstanding any other provision of law prohibiting the admission of these documents in a civil or administrative action.

(e) The State Department of Social Services shall not use a record of arrest to deny, revoke, or terminate any application, license, employment, or residence unless the department investigates the incident and secures evidence, whether or not related to the incident of arrest, that is admissible in an administrative hearing to establish conduct by the person that may pose a risk to the health and safety of any person who is or may become a client. The State Department of Social Services is authorized to obtain any arrest or conviction records or reports from any law enforcement agency as necessary to the performance of its duties to inspect, license, and investigate community care facilities and individuals associated with a community care facility.

(f) (1) After review of the record, the director may grant an exemption from disqualification for a license as specified in paragraphs (1) and (4) of subdivision (a), or for employment, residence, or presence in a residential care facility for the elderly as specified in paragraphs (4), (5), and (6) of subdivision (c) if the director has substantial and convincing evidence to support a reasonable belief that the applicant and the person convicted of the crime, if other than the applicant, are of such good character as to justify issuance of the license or special permit or granting an exemption for purposes of subdivision (c). However, no exemption shall be granted pursuant to this subdivision if the conviction was for an offense specified in Section 220, 243.4, or 264.1, subdivision (a) of Section 273a or, prior to January 1, 1994, paragraph (1) of Section 273a, Section 273d, 288, or 289, subdivision (a) of Section 290, or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or was a conviction of another crime against an individual specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 of the Penal Code. The director shall notify in writing the licensee or the applicant of his or her decision within 60 days of receipt of all information from the applicant and other sources determined necessary by the director for the rendering of a decision pursuant to this subdivision.

(2) The department shall not prohibit a person from being employed or having contact with clients in a facility on the basis of a denied criminal record exemption request or arrest information unless the department complies with the requirements of Section 1569.58.

(g) (1) For purposes of compliance with this section, the department may permit an individual to transfer a current criminal records clearance, as defined in subdivision (a), from one facility to another, as long as the criminal record clearance has been processed through a state licensing district office, and is being transferred to another state licensing district office.

(2) The State Department of Social Services shall hold criminal records clearances in its active files for a minimum of two years after an employee is no longer employed at a licensed facility in order for the criminal records clearances to be transferred under this section.

(h) If a licensee or facility is required by law to deny employment or to terminate employment of any employee based on written notification from the state department that the employee has a prior criminal conviction or is determined unsuitable for employment under Section 1569.58, the licensee or facility shall not incur civil liability or unemployment insurance liability as a result of that denial or termination.

(i) (1) In order to expedite the current criminal record clearance and fingerprint process of the Department of Justice, the Department of Justice shall complete work on all of its current backlog of criminal record clearances for residential care facilities for the elderly licensed by the State Department of Social Services by July 1, 1995.

(2) Effective January 1, 1995, the Department of Justice shall complete all new requests for criminal record clearances for residential care facilities for the elderly within 30 days of receipt.

(3) The Department of Justice shall coordinate with the State Department of Social Services to establish and implement an automated live-scan processing system for fingerprints in two district offices of the Community Care Licensing Division of the State Department of Social Services by July 1, 1995. These live-scan processing units shall be connected to the main system at the Department of Justice by July 1, 1996, and shall become part of that department's pilot project in accordance with its long-range plan. The State Department of Social Services may charge a fee not to exceed five dollars ($5) or the actual cost of processing a set of live-scan fingerprints.

(4) The Department of Justice shall provide a report to the Assembly Human Services Committee and to the Senate Health and Human Services Committee by July 15, 1995, regarding the completion of backlogged criminal record clearance requests pursuant to paragraph (1) and the progress on implementing the automated live-scan processing system in the two district offices pursuant to paragraph (3). The Department of Justice shall provide a report to the Assembly Human Services Committee and to the Senate Health and Human Services Committee by April 15, 1996, regarding the progress of the implementation of the statewide CAL-CII system; the number of requests for criminal clearances received pursuant to this section during the previous year; the number of criminal record clearances requested and completed pursuant to this section within a 17-day "expedite" period or within the 30-day period required by paragraph (2); and the number of requests and reasons for delays beyond the 30-day period.

SEC. 14. Section 1569.58 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1569.58. (a) The department may prohibit a licensee from employing, or continuing the employment of, or allowing in a licensed facility, or allowing contact with clients of a licensed facility by, any employee, prospective employee, or person who is not a client who has:

(1) Violated, or aided or permitted the violation by any other person of, any provisions of this chapter or of any rules or regulations promulgated under this chapter.

(2) Engaged in conduct which is inimical to the health, morals, welfare, or safety of either an individual in or receiving services from the facility, or the people of the State of California.

(3) Been denied an exemption to work or to be present in a facility, when that person has been convicted of a crime as defined in Section 1569.17.

(4) Engaged in any other conduct which would constitute a basis for disciplining a licensee.

(b) The excluded person, the facility, and the licensee shall be given written notice of the basis of the department's action and of the excluded person's right to a hearing. The notice shall be served either by personal service or by registered mail. Within 15 days after the department serves the notice, the excluded person may file with the department a written request for a hearing. If the excluded person fails to file a written request for a hearing within the prescribed time, the department's action shall be final.

(c) (1) The department may require the immediate exclusion of an employee, prospective employee, or person who is not a client from a facility pending a final decision of the matter, when, in the opinion of the director, the action is necessary to protect residents or clients from physical or mental abuse, abandonment, or any other substantial threat to their health or safety.

(2) If the department requires the immediate exclusion of an employee, prospective employee, or person who is not a client from a facility the department shall serve an order of immediate exclusion upon the excluded person which shall notify the excluded person of the basis of the department's action and of the excluded person's right to a hearing.

(3) Within 15 days after the department serves an order of immediate exclusion, the excluded person may file a written request for a hearing with the department. The department's action shall be final if the excluded person does not file a request for a hearing within the prescribed time. The department shall do the following upon receipt of a written request for a hearing:

(A) Within 30 days of receipt of the request for a hearing, serve an accusation upon the excluded person.

(B) Within 60 days of receipt of a notice of defense by the excluded person pursuant to Section 11506 of the Government Code, conduct a hearing on the accusation.

(4) An order of immediate exclusion of the excluded person from the facility shall remain in effect until the hearing is completed and the director has made a final determination on the merits. However, the order of immediate exclusion shall be deemed vacated if the director fails to make a final determination on the merits within 60 days after the original hearing has been completed.

(d) An excluded person who files a written request for a hearing with the department pursuant to this section shall, as part of the written request, provide his or her current mailing address. The excluded person shall subsequently notify the department in writing of any change in mailing address, until the hearing process has been completed or terminated.

(e) Hearings held pursuant to this section shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. The standard of proof shall be the preponderance of the evidence and the burden of proof shall be on the department.

(f) The department may institute or continue a disciplinary proceeding against an employee, prospective employee, or person who is not a client upon any ground provided by this section, or enter an order prohibiting the excluded person's employment or presence in the facility or otherwise take disciplinary action against the excluded person, notwithstanding any resignation, withdrawal of employment application or change of duties by the excluded person, or any discharge, failure to hire or reassignment of the excluded person by the licensee or that the excluded person no longer has contact with clients at the facility.

(g) A licensee's failure to comply with the department's prohibition of employment or presence in the facility shall be grounds for disciplining the licensee pursuant to Section 1569.50.

(h) (1) (A) In cases where the excluded person petitioned for a hearing, the person shall be prohibited from working in any facility or being licensed to operate any facility licensed by the department or from being a certified foster parent for the remainder of the excluded person's life.

(B) The excluded individual may petition for reinstatement one year after the effective date of the decision and order of the department upholding the exclusion order pursuant to Section 11522 of the Government Code. The department shall provide the excluded person with a copy of Section 11522 of the Government Code with the decision and order.

(2) (A) In cases where the department informed the excluded person of his or her right to petition for a hearing and the excluded person did not petition for a hearing, the person shall be prohibited from working in any facility or being licensed to operate any facility licensed by the department or a certified foster parent for the remainder of the excluded person's life.

(B) The excluded individual may petition for reinstatement after one year has elapsed from the date of the notification of the exclusion and the right to petition for a hearing by the department upholding the exclusion order pursuant to Section 11522 of the Government Code. The department shall provide the excluded person with a copy of Section 11522 of the Government Code with the exclusion order.

SEC. 15. Section 1569.59 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1569.59. (a) (1) If the department determines that a person was issued a license under this chapter or under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1200), Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250), Chapter 3.01 (commencing with Section 1568.01), Chapter 3.2 (commencing with Section 1569), Chapter 3.4 (commencing with Section 1596.70), Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 1596.90), or Chapter 3.6 (commencing with Section 1597.30) and the prior license was revoked within the preceding two years, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to the chapter.

(2) If the department determines that a person previously was issued a certificate of approval by a foster family agency which was revoked by the department pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1534 within the preceding two years, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter.

(b) If the department determines that the person had previously applied for a license under any of the chapters listed in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) and the application was denied within the last year, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter and as follows:

(1) In cases where the applicant petitioned for a hearing, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter until one year has elapsed from the effective date of the decision and order of the department upholding a denial.

(2) In cases where the department informed the applicant of his or her right to petition for a hearing and the applicant did not petition for a hearing, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter until one year has elapsed from the date of the notification of the denial and the right to petition for a hearing.

(3) The department may determine not to exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter if it has determined that the reasons for the denial of the application were due to circumstances and conditions that either have been corrected or are no longer in existence.

(c) If the department determines that the person had previously applied for a certificate of approval with a foster family agency and the department ordered the foster family agency to deny the application pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1534, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter and as follows:

(1) In cases where the applicant petitioned for a hearing, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter until one year has elapsed from the effective date of the decision and order of the department upholding a denial.

(2) In cases where the department informed the applicant of his or her right to petition for a hearing and the applicant did not petition for a hearing, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter until one year has elapsed from the date of the notification of the denial and the right to petition for a hearing.

(3) The department may determine not to exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter if it has determined that the reasons for the denial of the application were due to circumstances and conditions that either have been corrected or are no longer in existence.

(d) Exclusion of an individual pursuant to this section shall not be considered an order of exclusion for purposes of Section 1558 or any other law.

SEC. 16. Section 1596.851 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1596.851. (a) (1) If an application for a license or special permit indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant previously was issued a license under this act or under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1200), Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250), Chapter 3 (commencing with Section 1500), Chapter 3.01 (commencing with Section 1568.01), or Chapter 3.3 (commencing with Section 1569) and that the prior license was revoked within the preceding two years, the department shall cease any further review of the application until two years shall have elapsed from the date of the revocation.

(2) If an application for a license or special permit indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant previously was issued a certificate of approval by a foster family agency that was revoked by the department pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1534 within the preceding two years, the department shall cease any further review of the application until two years have elapsed from the date of the revocation.

(3) If an application for a license or special permit indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant was excluded from a facility licensed by the department pursuant to Section 1558, 1568.092, 1569.58, or 1596.8897, the department shall cease any further review of the application unless the excluded individual has been reinstated pursuant to Section 11522 of the Government Code by the department.

(b) If an application for a license or special permit indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant had previously applied for a license under any of the chapters listed in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) and the application was denied within the last year, the department shall cease further review of the application as follows:

(1) In cases where the applicant petitioned for a hearing, the department shall cease further review of the application until one year has elapsed from the effective date of the decision and order of the department upholding a denial.

(2) In cases where the department informed the applicant of his or her right to petition for a hearing as specified in Section 1596.879 and the applicant did not petition for a hearing, the department shall cease further review of the application until one year has elapsed from the date of the notification of the denial and the right to petition for a hearing.

(3) The department may continue to review the application if it has determined that the reasons for the denial of the application were due to circumstances and conditions which have been corrected or are no longer in existence. The cessation of review shall not constitute a denial of the application.

(c) If an application for a license or special permit indicates, or the department determines during the application review process, that the applicant had previously applied for a certificate of approval with a foster family agency and the department ordered the foster family agency to deny the application pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1534, the department shall cease further review of the application as follows:

(1) In cases where the applicant petitioned for a hearing, the department shall cease further review of the application until one year has elapsed from the effective date of the decision and order of the department upholding a denial.

(2) In cases where the department informed the applicant of his or her right to petition for a hearing and the applicant did not petition for a hearing, the department shall cease further review of the application until one year has elapsed from the date of the notification of the denial and the right to petition for a hearing.

(3) The department may continue to review the application if it has determined that the reasons for the denial of the application were due to circumstances and conditions that either have been corrected or are no longer in existence.

(d) The cessation of review shall not constitute a denial of the application for purposes of Section 1526 or any other law.

SEC. 17. Section 1596.871 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1596.871. It is the intent of the Legislature in enacting this section to require the fingerprints of those individuals whose contact with child day care facility clients may pose a risk to the children's health and safety.

(a) Before issuing a license or special permit to any person to operate or manage a day care facility, the department shall secure from an appropriate law enforcement agency a criminal record to determine whether the applicant or any other person specified in subdivision (b) has ever been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation or arrested for any crime specified in Section 290 of the Penal Code, for violating Section 245 or 273.5, subdivision (b) of Section 273a or, prior to January 1, 1994, paragraph (2) of Section 273a of the Penal Code, or for any crime for which the department cannot grant an exemption if the person was convicted and the person has not been exonerated. That criminal history information shall include the full criminal record, if any, of those persons, and subsequent arrest information pursuant to Section 11105.2 of the Penal Code. No fee shall be charged by the Department of Justice or the department for the fingerprinting of an applicant who will serve six or fewer children or any family day care applicant for a license, or for obtaining a criminal record of an applicant pursuant to this section. The following shall apply to the criminal record information:

(1) If the State Department of Social Services finds that the applicant or any other person specified in subdivision (b) has been convicted of a crime, other than a minor traffic violation, the application shall be denied, unless the director grants an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f).

(2) If the State Department of Social Services finds that the applicant, or any person specified in subdivision (b) is awaiting trial for a crime other than a minor traffic violation, the State Department of Social Services shall cease processing the application until the conclusion of the trial.

(3) If no criminal record information has been recorded, the Department of Justice shall provide the applicant and the State Department of Social Services with a statement of that fact.

(4) If the State Department of Social Services finds after licensure that the licensee, or any other person specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), has been convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation, the license may be revoked, unless the director grants an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f).

(b) In addition to the applicant, this section shall be applicable to criminal convictions of the following persons:

(1) Adults responsible for administration or direct supervision of staff.

(2) Any person, other than a child, residing in the facility.

(3) Any person who provides care and supervision to the children.

(4) Any staff person or employee who has frequent and routine contact with the children. In determining who has frequent contact, any volunteer who is in the facility shall be exempt unless the volunteer is used to replace or supplement staff in providing direct care and supervision of children in care. In determining who has routine contact, staff and employees under direct onsite supervision and who are not providing direct care and supervision or who have only occasional or intermittent contact with clients shall be exempt.

(5) If the applicant is a firm, partnership, association, or corporation, the chief executive officer, other person serving in like capacity, or a person designated by the chief executive officer as responsible for the operation of the facility, as designated by the applicant agency.

(6) If the applicant is a local educational agency, the president of the governing board, the school district superintendent, or a person designated to administer the operation of the facility, as designated by the local educational agency.

(7) Additional officers of the governing body of the applicant, or other persons with a financial interest in the applicant, as determined necessary by the department by regulation. The criteria used in the development of these regulations shall be based on the person's capability to exercise substantial influence over the operation of the facility.

(8) This section does not apply to adult volunteers or adult staff employed by the applicant on an intermittent basis for less than 10 days per month, provided that these adults are under constant supervision by adults who meet the requirements of this section.

(9) This section does not apply to employees of child care and development programs under contract with the State Department of Education who have completed a criminal records clearance as part of an application to the Commission on Teacher Credentialing, and who possess a current credential or permit issued by the commission, including employees of child care and development programs that serve both children subsidized under, and children not subsidized under, a State Department of Education contract. The Commission on Teacher Credentialing shall notify the department upon revocation of a current credential or permit issued to an employee of a child care and development program under contract with the State Department of Education.

(10) This section does not apply to employees of a child care and development program operated by a school district, county office of education, or community college district under contract with the State Department of Education who have completed a criminal records clearance as a condition of employment. The school district, county office of education, or community college district upon receiving information that the status of an employee's criminal record clearance has changed shall submit that information to the department.

(c) (1) Subsequent to initial licensure, any person specified in subdivision (b) and not exempted from fingerprinting shall, as a condition to employment, residence, or presence in a child day care facility be fingerprinted and sign a declaration under penalty of perjury regarding any prior criminal conviction. The licensee shall submit these fingerprints to the Department of Justice not later than four calendar days following employment, residence, or initial presence in the child day care facility.

(2) These fingerprints shall be on a card provided by the State Department of Social Services for the purpose of obtaining a permanent set of fingerprints. Fingerprints not submitted to the Department of Justice, as required in this section, shall result in the citation of a deficiency and the fingerprints shall then be submitted to the State Department of Social Services for processing. Within 30 calendar days of the receipt of the fingerprints, the Department of Justice shall notify the State Department of Social Services of the criminal record information, as provided in this subdivision. If no criminal record information has been recorded, the Department of Justice shall provide the licensee and the State Department of Social Services with a statement of that fact within 15 calendar days of receipt of the fingerprints. If new fingerprints are required for processing, the Department of Justice shall, within 15 calendar days from the date of receipt of the fingerprints, notify the licensee that the fingerprints were illegible.

(3) Except for persons specified in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b), the licensee shall endeavor to ascertain the previous employment history of persons required to be fingerprinted under this subdivision. If it is determined by the department, on the basis of fingerprints submitted to the Department of Justice, that the person has been convicted of a sex offense against a minor, an offense specified in Section 243.4, 273a, or 273d, subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or a felony, the State Department of Social Services shall notify the licensee to act immediately to terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the child day care facility, or bar the person from entering the child day care facility. The department may subsequently grant an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). If the conviction was for another crime except a minor traffic violation, the licensee shall, upon notification by the State Department of Social Services, act immediately to either

(1) terminate the person's employment, remove the person from the child day care facility, or bar the person from entering the child day care facility; or (2) seek an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). The department shall determine if the person shall be allowed to remain in the facility until a decision on the exemption is rendered. A licensee's failure to comply with the department's prohibition of employment, contact with clients, or presence in the facility as required by this paragraph shall be grounds for disciplining the licensee pursuant to Section 1596.885 or 1596.886.

(4) The department may issue an exemption on its own motion pursuant to subdivision (f) if the person's criminal history indicates that the person is of good character based on the age, seriousness, and frequency of the conviction or convictions. The department, in consultation with interested parties, shall develop regulations to establish the criteria to grant an exemption pursuant to this paragraph.

(5) Concurrently with notifying the licensee pursuant to paragraph (3), the department shall notify the affected individual of his or her right to seek an exemption pursuant to subdivision (f). The individual may seek an exemption only if the licensee terminates the person's employment or removes the person from the facility after receiving notice from the department pursuant to paragraph (3).

(d) For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, a conviction means a plea or verdict of guilty or a conviction following a plea of nolo contendere. Any action which the department is permitted to take following the establishment of a conviction may be taken when the time for appeal has elapsed, or the judgment of conviction has been affirmed on appeal or when an order granting probation is made suspending the imposition of sentence, notwithstanding a subsequent order pursuant to Sections 1203.4 and 1203.4a of the Penal Code permitting the person to withdraw his or her plea of guilty and to enter a plea of not guilty, or setting aside the verdict of guilty, or dismissing the accusation, information, or indictment. For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, the record of a conviction, or a copy thereof certified by the clerk of the court or by a judge of the court in which the conviction occurred, shall be conclusive evidence of the conviction. For purposes of this section or any other provision of this chapter, the arrest disposition report certified by the Department of Justice, or documents admissible in a criminal action pursuant to Section 969b of the Penal Code, shall be prima facie evidence of conviction, notwithstanding any other provision of law prohibiting the admission of these documents in a civil or administrative action.

(e) The State Department of Social Services shall not use a record of arrest to deny, revoke, or terminate any application, license, employment, or residence unless the department investigates the incident and secures evidence, whether or not related to the incident of arrest, that is admissible in an administrative hearing to establish conduct by the person that may pose a risk to the health and safety of any person who is or may become a client. The State Department of Social Services is authorized to obtain any arrest or conviction records or reports from any law enforcement agency as necessary to the performance of its duties to inspect, license, and investigate community care facilities and individuals associated with a community care facility.

(f) (1) After review of the record, the director may grant an exemption from disqualification for a license or special permit as specified in paragraphs (1) and (4) of subdivision (a), or for employment, residence, or presence in a child day care facility as specified in paragraphs (3), (4), and (5) of subdivision (c) if the director has substantial and convincing evidence to support a reasonable belief that the applicant and the person convicted of the crime, if other than the applicant, are of good character so as to justify issuance of the license or special permit or granting an exemption for purposes of subdivision (c). However, no exemption shall be granted pursuant to this subdivision if the conviction was for an offense specified in Section 220, 243.4, or 264.1, subdivision (a) of Section 273a or, prior to January 1, 1994, paragraph (1) of Section 273a, Section 273d, 288, or 289, subdivision (a) of Section 290, or subdivision (a) or (b) of Section 368 of the Penal Code, or was a conviction of another crime against an individual specified in subdivision (c) of Section 667.5 of the Penal Code.

(2) The department shall not prohibit a person from being employed or having contact with clients in a facility on the basis of a denied criminal record exemption request or arrest information unless the department complies with the requirements of Section 1596.8897.

(g) Upon request of the licensee, who shall enclose a self-addressed stamped postcard for this purpose, the Department of Justice shall verify receipt of the fingerprints.

(h) (1) For the purposes of compliance with this section, the department may permit an individual to transfer a current criminal records clearance, as defined in subdivision (a), from one facility to another, as long as the criminal record clearance has been processed through a state licensing district office, and is being transferred to another state licensing district office.

(2) The State Department of Social Services shall hold criminal records clearances in its active files for a minimum of two years after an employee is no longer employed at a licensed facility in order for the criminal records clearances to be transferred.

SEC. 18. Section 1596.8897 of the Health and Safety Code is amended to read:

1596.8897. (a) The department may prohibit a licensee from employing, or continuing the employment of, or allowing in a licensed facility, or allowing contact with clients of a licensed facility by, any employee, prospective employee, or person who is not a client who has:

(1) Violated, or aided or permitted the violation by any other person of, any provisions of this chapter or of any rules or regulations promulgated under this chapter.

(2) Engaged in conduct which is inimical to the health, morals, welfare, or safety of either an individual in or receiving services from the facility, or the people of the State of California.

(3) Been denied an exemption to work or to be present in a facility, when that person has been convicted of a crime as defined in Section 1596.871.

(4) Engaged in any other conduct which would constitute a basis for disciplining a licensee.

(b) The excluded person, the facility, and the licensee shall be given written notice of the basis of the department's action and of the excluded person's right to a hearing. The notice shall be served either by personal service or by registered mail. Within 15 days after the department serves the notice, the excluded person may file with the department a written request for a hearing. If the excluded person fails to file a written request for a hearing within the prescribed time, the department's action shall be final.

(c) (1) The department may require the immediate exclusion of an employee, prospective employee, or person who is not a client from a facility pending a final decision of the matter, when, in the opinion of the director, the action is necessary to protect residents or clients from physical or mental abuse, abandonment, or any other substantial threat to their health or safety.

(2) If the department requires the immediate exclusion of an employee, prospective employee, or person who is not a client from a facility, the department shall serve an order of immediate exclusion upon the excluded person which shall notify the excluded person of the basis of the department's action and of the excluded person's right to a hearing.

(3) Within 15 days after the department serves an order of immediate exclusion, the excluded person may file a written request for a hearing with the department. The department's action shall be final if the excluded person does not file a request for a hearing within the prescribed time. The department shall do the following upon receipt of a written request for a hearing:

(A) Within 30 days of receipt of the request for a hearing, serve an accusation upon the excluded person.

(B) Within 60 days of receipt of a notice of defense by the employee or prospective employee pursuant to Section 11506 of the Government Code, conduct a hearing on the accusation.

(4) An order of immediate exclusion of the excluded person from the facility shall remain in effect until the hearing is completed and the director has made a final determination on the merits. However, the order of immediate exclusion shall be deemed vacated if the director fails to make a final determination on the merits within 60 days after the original hearing has been completed.

(d) An excluded person who files a written request for a hearing with the department pursuant to this section shall, as part of the written request, provide his or her current mailing address. The excluded person shall subsequently notify the department in writing of any change in mailing address, until the hearing process has been completed or terminated.

(e) Hearings held pursuant to this section shall be conducted in accordance with Chapter 5 (commencing with Section 11500) of Division 3 of Title 2 of the Government Code. The standard of proof shall be the preponderance of the evidence and the burden of proof shall be on the department.

(f) The department may institute or continue a disciplinary proceeding against an employee, prospective employee, or person who is not a client upon any ground provided by this section, or enter an order prohibiting the excluded person's employment or presence in the facility or otherwise take disciplinary action against the excluded person, notwithstanding any resignation, withdrawal of employment application or change of duties by the excluded person, or any discharge, failure to hire or reassignment of the excluded person by the licensee or that the excluded person no longer has contact with clients at the facility.

(g) A licensee's failure to comply with the department's prohibition of employment or presence in the facility shall be grounds for disciplining the licensee pursuant to Section 1596.885 or 1599.886.

(h) (1) (A) In cases where the excluded person petitioned for a hearing, the person shall be prohibited from working in any facility or being licensed to operate any facility licensed by the department or from being a certified foster parent for the remainder of the excluded person's life.

(B) The excluded individual may petition for reinstatement one year after the effective date of the decision and order of the department upholding the exclusion order pursuant to Section 11522 of the Government Code. The department shall provide the excluded person with a copy of Section 11522 of the Government Code with the decision and order.

(2) (A) In cases where the department informed the excluded person of his or her right to petition for a hearing and the excluded person did not petition for a hearing, the person shall be prohibited from working in any facility or being licensed to operate any facility licensed by the department or a certified foster parent for the remainder of the excluded person's life.

(B) The excluded individual may petition for reinstatement after one year has elapsed from the date of the notification of the exclusion and the right to petition for a hearing by the department upholding the exclusion order pursuant to Section 11522 of the Government

Code. The department shall provide the excluded person with a copy of Section 11522 of the Government Code with the exclusion order.

SEC. 19. Section 1596.8898 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

1596.8898. (a) (1) If the department determines that a person was issued a license under this chapter or under Chapter 1 (commencing with Section 1200), Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 1250), Chapter 3.01 (commencing with Section 1568.01), Chapter 3.2 (commencing with Section 1569), Chapter 3.4 (commencing with Section 1596.70), Chapter 3.5 (commencing with Section 1596.90), or Chapter 3.6 (commencing with Section 1597.30) and the prior license was revoked within the preceding two years, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to the chapter.

(2) If the department determines that a person previously was issued a certificate of approval by a foster family agency which was revoked by the department pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1534 within the preceding two years, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter.

(b) If the department determines that the person had previously applied for a license under any of the chapters listed in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) and the application was denied within the last year, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter and as follows:

(1) In cases where the applicant petitioned for a hearing, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter until one year has elapsed from the effective date of the decision and order of the department upholding a denial.

(2) In cases where the department informed the applicant of his or her right to petition for a hearing and the applicant did not petition for a hearing, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter until one year has elapsed from the date of the notification of the denial and the right to petition for a hearing.

(3) The department may determine not to exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter if it has determined that the reasons for the denial of the application were due to circumstances and conditions that either have been corrected or are no longer in existence.

(c) If the department determines that the person had previously applied for a certificate of approval with a foster family agency and the department ordered the foster family agency to deny the application pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1534, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter and as follows:

(1) In cases where the applicant petitioned for a hearing, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter until one year has elapsed from the effective date of the decision and order of the department upholding a denial.

(2) In cases where the department informed the applicant of his or her right to petition for a hearing and the applicant did not petition for a hearing, the department shall exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter until one year has elapsed from the date of the notification of the denial and the right to petition for a hearing.

(3) The department may determine not to exclude the person from any facility licensed by the department pursuant to this chapter if it has determined that the reasons for the denial of the application were due to circumstances and conditions that either have been corrected or are no longer in existence.

(d) Exclusion of an individual pursuant to this section shall not be considered an order of exclusion for purposes of Section 1558 or any other law.

SEC. 20. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because the only costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act shall become operative on the same date that the act takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.

CHAPTER 618

An act to amend Sections 7102, 60115, and 60202 of, and to add Section 60116 to, the Revenue and Taxation Code, relating to taxation, to take effect immediately, tax levy.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 3, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature to remove an incentive to purchase diesel fuel outside of the state for consumption in California. The purpose of this bill is to impose on interstate users who purchase diesel fuel outside California, but use the fuel in the state, a tax equivalent to the sales tax imposed upon truckers who purchase fuel in California. Interstate users who purchase diesel fuel in California but who use the fuel outside the state will be allowed a credit or refund of tax to the extent tax has already been paid by the interstate user to a diesel fuel vendor in California. It is intended that the quarterly reports required to be filed with an interstate user's base jurisdiction pursuant to the International Fuel Tax Agreement, as it may be amended from time to time, and any other reports as the State Board of Equalization may require, will be used to report and remit tax or claim credit or refund of tax.

SEC. 2. Section 7102 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

7102. The money in the fund shall, upon order of the Controller, be drawn therefrom for refunds under this part, credits or refunds pursuant to Section 60202, and refunds pursuant to Section 1793.25 of the Civil Code, or be transferred in the following manner:

(a) (1) All revenues, less refunds, derived under this part at the $4^3/_4$-percent rate, including the imposition of sales and use taxes with respect to the sale, storage, use, or other consumption of motor vehicle fuel which would not have been received if the sales and use tax rate had been 5 percent and if motor vehicle fuel, as defined for purposes of the Motor Vehicle Fuel License Tax Law (Part 2 (commencing with Section 7301)), had been exempt from sales and use taxes, shall be estimated by the State Board of Equalization, with the concurrence of the Department of Finance, and shall be transferred quarterly to the Transportation Planning and Development Account, a trust fund in the State Transportation Fund.

(2) All revenues, less refunds, derived under this part at the $4^3/_4$-percent rate, resulting from increasing after December 31, 1989, the rate of tax imposed pursuant to the Motor Vehicle Fuel License Tax Law on motor vehicle fuel, as defined for purposes of that law, shall be transferred quarterly to the Transportation Planning and Development Account, a trust fund in the State Transportation Fund.

(3) All revenues, less refunds, derived under this part at the $4^3/_4$-percent rate from the imposition of sales and use taxes on fuel, as defined for purposes of the Use Fuel Tax Law (Part 3 (commencing with Section 8601)), shall be estimated by the State Board of Equalization, with the concurrence of the Department of Finance, and shall be transferred quarterly to the Transportation Planning and Development Account, a trust fund in the State Transportation Fund.

(4) All revenues, less refunds, derived under this part from a rate of more than $4^3/_4$ percent pursuant to Sections 6051.1 and 6201.1 for the period December 1, 1989, to June 5, 1990, inclusive, shall be transferred to the Disaster Relief Fund created by Section 16419 of the Government Code.

(5) All revenues, less refunds, derived under this part from a rate of more than $4^3/_4$ percent pursuant to Sections 6051.1 and 6201.1 for the period June 6, 1990, to December 31, 1990, inclusive, which is attributable to the imposition of sales and use taxes with respect to the sale, storage, use, or other consumption of tangible personal property other than fuel, as defined for purposes of the Use Fuel Tax Law (Part 3 (commencing with Section 8601)), shall be transferred to the Disaster Relief Fund created by Section 16419 of the Government Code.

(6) All revenues, less refunds, derived under this part from a rate of more than $4^3/_4$ percent pursuant to Sections 6051.1 and 6201.1 for the period June 6, 1990, to December 31, 1990, inclusive, which is attributable to the imposition of sales and use taxes with respect to the sale, storage, use, or other consumption of fuel, as defined for purposes of the Use Fuel Tax Law (Part 3 (commencing with Section 8601)), shall be transferred to the Disaster Relief Fund created by Section 16419 of the Government Code.

(7) All revenues, less refunds, derived under this part from the taxes imposed pursuant to Sections 6051.2 and 6201.2 shall be transferred to the Sales Tax Account of the Local Revenue Fund for allocation to cities and counties as prescribed by statute.

(8) All revenues, less refunds, derived under this part from the taxes imposed pursuant to Sections 6051.6 and 6201.6 shall be transferred to the Interim Public Safety Account in the Local Public Safety Fund created in Section 30051 of the Government Code for allocation to counties as prescribed by statute.

(9) All revenues, less refunds, derived from the taxes imposed pursuant to Section 35 of Article XIII of the California Constitution shall be transferred to the Public Safety Account in the Local Public Safety Fund created in Section 30051 of the Government Code for allocation to counties as prescribed by statute.

(10) An amount equal to all revenues, less refunds, derived under this part at a $4^3/_4$-percent rate for the period between January 1, 1994, and July 1, 1994, from the increase in sales and use tax revenue attributable to the increase in the rate of the federal motor vehicle fuel tax between January 1, 1993, and the rate in effect on January 1, 1994, shall be estimated by the State Board of Equalization, with the concurrence of the Department of Finance, and an amount equal to that amount, but not exceeding seven million five hundred thousand dollars ($7,500,000) shall be transferred from the Retail Sales Tax Fund to the Small Business Expansion Fund created by Article 5 (commencing with Section 14030) of Chapter 1 of Part 5 of Division 3 of Title 1 of the Corporations Code.

(b) The balance shall be transferred to the General Fund.

(c) The estimates required by subdivision (a) shall be based on taxable transactions occurring during a calendar year, and the transfers required by subdivision (a) shall be made during the fiscal year that commences during that same calendar year. Transfers required by paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of subdivision (a) shall be made quarterly.

(d) Notwithstanding the designation of the Transportation Planning and Development Account as a trust fund pursuant to subdivision (a), the Controller may use the Transportation Planning and Development Account for loans to the General Fund as provided in Sections 16310 and 16381 of the Government Code. The loans shall be repaid with interest from the General Fund at the Pooled Money Investment Account rate.

(e) The Legislature may amend this section, by statute passed in each house of the Legislature by rollcall vote entered in the journal, two-thirds of the membership concurring, if the statute is consistent with, and furthers the purposes of this section.

SEC. 3. Section 60115 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

60115. For the privilege of using diesel fuel in a qualified motor vehicle in this state by interstate users, there is hereby imposed upon any interstate user for each gallon of diesel fuel used in this state, a tax consisting of the following two components:

(a) A tax at the rate imposed by Section 60050.

(b) A tax at the rate prescribed by Section 60116.

SEC. 4. Section 60116 is added to the Revenue and Taxation Code, to read:

60116. Commencing on January 1, 1998, and on each January 1 thereafter, the board shall establish a tax rate per gallon, rounded to the nearest tenth of a cent, by multiplying the average retail price per gallon (including the federal excise tax and excluding the state excise tax and the sales and use tax) of diesel fuel sold in this state by a percentage equal to the combined state and local sales tax rate established by Part 1 (commencing with Section 6001) and Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 7200) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code and Section 35 of Article XIII of the California Constitution. The average retail price per gallon shall be the average of weekly retail prices for the 12-month period ending August 31 of the year prior to the effective date of the new rate. In determining the average retail price per gallon, the board shall use the weekly average retail price published by the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, in its publication "Fuel Price And Supply Update." In the event the "Fuel Price And Supply Update" is delayed or discontinued, the board may base its determination on other sources of the average retail price of diesel fuel. The board shall make its determination of the rate no later than October 1 of the year prior to the effective date of the new rate.

SEC. 5. Section 60202 of the Revenue and Taxation Code is amended to read:

60202. (a) Each interstate user shall prepare and file with the board on forms prescribed by the board a return showing the amount of diesel fuel used during the quarterly reporting period by the interstate user in this state, the amount of any tax due, and any other information as the board may require for the administration of this part. The return shall be filed with the board on or before the last day of the calendar month following the close of the quarterly period to which it relates, together with a remittance payable to the board of the amount of tax due. To facilitate the administration of this part, the board may require the filing of returns for other than quarterly periods.

(b) An interstate user subject to the tax imposed by Section 60115 shall be allowed a credit against the amount of tax due on his or her return for an amount equal to the tax imposed by Section 60115 on diesel fuel purchased in this state in that same return period for use in the operation of a qualified motor vehicle. No credit shall be allowed unless the tax imposed by Section 60050 and the taxes imposed by Part 1 (commencing with Section 6001) and Part 1.5 (commencing with Section 7200) of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code and Section 35 of Article XIII of the California Constitution have been paid upon the purchase of the diesel fuel by the interstate user to a diesel vendor in this state. When the amount of the credit for any return period exceeds the amount of tax due for the return period, the excess shall be allowed as a credit against the amount of tax due for succeeding reporting periods or shall be refunded.

(c) Credits and refunds allowed pursuant to subdivision (b) shall be charged against the Motor Vehicle Fuel Account to the extent the total amount of credits and refunds allowed to all taxpayers for the fiscal year does not exceed the combined amounts due under subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 60115. To the extent the total amount of credits and refunds allowed to all taxpayers for the fiscal year pursuant to subdivision (b) exceeds the combined amounts due under subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 60115, the credits and refunds shall be charged against the Motor Vehicle Fuel Account as to the amount of the credits and refunds established under subdivision (a) of Section 60115 and shall be charged against the Retail Sales Tax Fund as to the amount of the credits and refunds established under subdivision (b) of Section 60115.

SEC. 6. This act provides for a tax levy within the meaning of Article IV of the Constitution and shall go into immediate effect.

CHAPTER 619

An act to amend Section 719 of the Harbors and Navigation Code, to amend Section 99234 of the Public Utilities Code, to amend Sections 188.8, 2104, 2110, and 2152 of the Streets and Highways Code, and to amend Sections 1653.5, 1808, 1810, 4000.37, 11704.5, and 27314.5

of the Vehicle Code, relating to transportation, and making an appropriation therefor.

[Approved by Governor October 2, 1997. Filed with Secretary of State October 3, 1997.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 719 of the Harbors and Navigation Code is amended to read:

719. (a) A person is qualified to submit an application for a broker's license if, as shown on the department's records, the person has been employed, within five years preceding his or her application, as a licensed salesperson for at least one year, has been licensed as a broker within five years preceding his or her application, or has been employed as a broker or a yacht salesperson in another state when that employment was a primary occupation for a minimum of three continuous years immediately preceding application for a broker's license in California. Proof of employment as a broker in another state or of conducting a marine business selling new or used yachts in California shall be in the form of all of the following:

(1) State, if applicable, and federal income tax returns, or a proof of earning statement made by the applicant under penalty of perjury, for the three-year period preceding application in California.

(2) If bonded, a statement issued by the applicant's bonding company that no action has been taken against the bond for fraud or gross misrepresentation for the period for which the bond has been issued.

(3) A copy of all business permits, issued by any state, county, or city agency, which, if applicable, includes the fictitious business name ("dba" or "doing business as") under which the applicant conducted a yacht or ship brokerage business or a marine business selling new or used yachts in California for the three-year period preceding application for a California broker's license.

(4) If the applicant conducts a yacht or ship brokerage business in another state that requires broker or salesperson licensing, evidence of a current license in that state.

(b) If the applicant is a partnership, then one of the partners of the applicant shall have the foregoing qualifications.

(c) If the applicant is a corporation, then the officer or officers of the corporation to be designated for a license as provided in this article shall have the foregoing qualifications.

(d) If the applicant is an individual, the applicant shall be at least 18 years of age.

(e) If the applicant has owned and operated a marine business selling new or used yachts for a minimum of three continuous years immediately preceding the application, the applicant is qualified to submit an application for a broker's license.

SEC. 2. Section 99234 of the Public Utilities Code is amended to read:

99234. (a) Claims for facilities provided for the exclusive use of pedestrians and bicycles or for bicycle safety education programs shall be filed according to the rules and regulations adopted by the transportation planning agency.

(b) The money shall be allocated for the construction, including related engineering expenses, of those facilities pursuant to procedures or criteria established by the transportation planning agency for the area within its jurisdiction, or for bicycle safety education programs.

(c) The money may be allocated for the maintenance of bicycling trails which are closed to motorized traffic pursuant to procedures or criteria established by the transportation planning agency for the area within its jurisdiction.

(d) The money may be allocated without respect to Section 99231 and shall not be included in determining the apportionments to a city or county for purposes of Sections 99233.7 to 99233.9, inclusive.

(e) Facilities provided for the use of bicycles may include projects that serve the needs of commuting bicyclists, including, but not limited to, new trails serving major transportation corridors, secure bicycle parking at employment centers, park and ride lots, and transit terminals where other funds are unavailable.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a planning agency established in Title 7.1 (commencing with Section 66500) of the Government Code may allocate the money to the Association of Bay Area Governments for activities required by Chapter 11 (commencing with Section 5850) of Division 5 of the Public Resources Code.

(g) Within 30 days after receiving a request for a review from any city or county, the transportation planning agency shall review its allocations made pursuant to Section 99233.3.

(h) In addition to the purposes authorized in this section, a portion of the amount available to a city or county pursuant to Section 99233.3 may be allocated to develop a comprehensive bicycle and pedestrian facilities plan, with an emphasis on bicycle projects intended to accommodate bicycle commuters rather than recreational bicycle users. An allocation under this subdivision may not be made more than once every five years.

(i) Up to 20 percent of the amount available each year to a city or county pursuant to Section 99233.3 may be allocated to restripe class II bicycle lanes.

SEC. 3. Section 188.8 of the Streets and Highways Code is amended to read:

188.8. (a) From the funds programmed pursuant to Section 188, the commission shall approve programs, program amendments, and fund reservations so that funding is distributed to each county of County Group No. 1 and in each county of County Group No. 2 during the period commencing July 1, 1983, and ending June 30, 1988, and for the period commencing July 1, 1988, and ending June 30, 1993, each period of four years thereafter, not less than an amount computed as follows:

(1) The commission shall compute, for the five-year period and for each of the four-year periods, an amount equal to 70 percent of the funds for County Groups Nos. 1 and 2, respectively, as provided in Section 188.
